Chapter 81 The Dragon King falls to the ground

After entering the wild wolf slope, the members of traversing Four Seas saw Zhang Shan turn around and run away. They could not help but be stunned.

stir-fry! The six-barreled Bodhisattva is trying to escape. Chase after him!

archers, fire your meteor arrows at the same time. Lock down six-barreled Bodhisattva's escape route and make sure he has no way to escape. You must stun him.

Then, their idea was good, but it was destined to be impossible to realize.

Zhang Shan had already attracted many wild wolves to follow behind him.

It was simply impossible for the meteor arrow to pierce through the wild wolf behind him and hit him.

A few meteor arrows all hit the wild wolves, but Zhang Shan was completely fine. He continued to run left and right, attracting more and more wild wolves.

Traversing Four Seas' members were anxiously chasing after them, but the number of wild wolves kept increasing, and they had no way of avoiding them.

They could only divide some people to hold off the wild wolves or lure them away. If there was really no other way, they would clear them out. Anyway, they had two to three hundred people and entered the wild wolf slope.

There was a surplus of people.

The others continued to chase after Zhang Shan.

The Dragon King of the East Sea took the lead, carrying a big axe.

His boots should also be red, and he was not much slower than Zhang Shan.

He had already used charge to slow down Zhang Shan and cut him down.

At this time, the Dragon King of the East Sea was very anxious. In order to make Zhang Shan famous, he could not participate in the Guild War tomorrow night.

He had sacrificed himself. There were 35 people in vertical and horizontal. If Zhang Shan were to escape, he would lose too much face.

A group of 500 to 600 people had arrived at Dangyang city in a grandiose manner, just to deal with Zhang Shan alone.

He had thought that it was a sure thing, but who knew that even a cooked duck would fly away?

The Dragon King of the East Sea cursed in his heart as he chased.

This six-barreled Bodhisattva was too timid. He was so happy killing when the brittleskins attacked him one by one.

When they came in together, he turned and ran away, not giving them any chance at all.

he had to find a way to slow him down, or directly stun him and cut him down.

There were more and more wild wolves in the vicinity, and they might not be able to hold on even if they had two to three hundred people.

the dragon king of the east sea followed closely behind zhang shan. at the same time, he was calculating how he could close the distance.

As long as he could close the distance, he could use the charge skill on Zhang Shan and slow him down for three seconds.

Even if he couldn't kill him by himself, the three seconds of deceleration was enough for the others to catch up.

Once the members of traversing Four Seas surrounded Zhang Shan, no matter how fierce Zhang Shan was, the eastern sea Dragon King was confident that he would be able to take him down easily.

With so many people coming up and one stun per person, even the best players would be stunned to death.

The key now was how to charge at six-barreled Bodhisattva.

as east sea dragon chased, he carefully observed zhang shan's path.

He had really found a way. Zhang Shan had to continuously attract more wild wolves. Naturally, he could not walk in a straight line.

Wherever there were more monsters, he would run. As long as the Dragon King of the East Sea judged in advance, Zhang Shan's next monster-luring route could be in a straight line in advance and intercept Zhang Shan.

Once again, Zhang Shan was ready to attract a bunch of wild wolves. This time, the Dragon King of the East Sea had made a prediction in advance and did not follow closely behind Zhang Shan.

Instead, he walked in a straight line and quickly closed the distance between him and Zhang Shan.

The Dragon King of the East Sea did not hesitate. He used charge on Zhang Shan and approached him rapidly. He dealt more than 5000 damage with his axe and slowed him down for three seconds.

Zhang Shan, who was being charged, did not panic at all.

This was all part of his plan. He deliberately lured the monsters from left to right in order to lure the Dragon King of the East Sea.

If I don't cut him down once, he won't know how evil the world is. I'll just take it as teaching a child a lesson.

After being charged by the Dragon King of the East Sea and being hit by an axe, Zhang Shan immediately activated his berserk and fanatic skills.

The damage output instantly exploded. With all sorts of buffs, Zhang Shan's instant attack speed reached a terrifying state.

The godly weapon in his hand was like a small automatic cannon. The bullets shot out quickly and dealt huge damage to the Dragon King of the East Sea.

In less than three seconds, four shots and a critical hit knocked him down, and a red axe dropped.

The Dragon King of the East Sea was stunned. He had more than 25000 HP, and yet he could not even hold Zhang Shan for three seconds.

After charging, he didn't even have the chance to swing his axe a second time before he fell to the ground. What was even more depressing was that his axe had dropped.

He almost vomited blood.

Zhang Shan picked up the axe on the ground. While the duration of the berserk skill was still in effect, he was immune to crowd control skills and quickly ran away.

The rest of traversing Four Seas 'men were about to catch up, and there were a few more archers firing meteor arrows.

However, regardless of whether they could hit him or not, it was useless. Zhang Shan was immune to any crowd control skills in his berserk state.

The people who caught up were furious. Zhang Shan had actually chopped down their boss and picked up the axe that was dropped.

This was a direct slap to the face. He was completely looking down on traversing Four Seas.

"Hurry up, I won't give up until I kill six tube Bodhisattva today."

"F * ck, you dare to kill our boss? from now on, come here and kill six-barreled Bodhisattva once a day and bring him back to level 0."

Zhang Shan did not care about traversing Four Seas 'useless barking. As he ran, he opened his backpack and admired the spoils of war that he had just obtained.

A level 20 red axe should be able to sell for a million gold coins. Axes had always been the most popular weapon.

The Dragon King of the East Sea was really a good man. He came all the way here to give him equipment. He was simply a money-giving boy.

Seeing the large group of people chasing angrily behind him, the Dragon King of the East Sea had been pulled up by the support and was also in the ranks of the pursuit.

However, he had fallen for a while just now. No matter how fast he ran, he was only at the back of the group. If he wanted to catch up with Zhang Shan, he was afraid that he would not have the chance, unless someone else knocked Zhang Shan out.

Of course, Zhang Shan would not give them any chance. He no longer lured the monsters left and right, but ran in a straight line.

There might be players in traversing Four Seas who had a similar movement speed to him, but there was currently no one who was faster than him.

If Zhang Shan were to run in a straight line, the traversing Four Seas members would have no chance of catching up to him.

The berserk and fanatic skills were still on cooldown, and the cooldown time was five minutes.

In these five minutes, Zhang Shan did not plan to fight with them again. He just needed to pull them to support him. When his skills were on cooldown, he would fight again.

The men from traversing Four Seas slowly realized Zhang Shan's motive, but there was nothing they could do. They had no choice but to give chase.

"Boss, what do we do now? six-barreled bodhisattva keeps running. we can't stop him."

whether we can stop him or not, chase him as fast as you can. I don't believe he can keep running. No matter how big the map of wild wolf Hill is, there must be an end. When he reaches the end, he will have to turn back.

The Dragon King of the East Sea had been defeated by Zhang Shan once. Although he was pulled up by the support, he did not lose any experience.

But it was embarrassing, and the axe had dropped and been picked up by Zhang Shan. At this moment, he was furious.

He would not give up until he had cut down Zhang Shan.

"Should we call the others in? there are still more than 300 people outside the wild wolf Hill."

call them in and fan them over. If six-Guan Bodhisattva dares to turn around, knock him out and cut him down.

"I know, boss."
