Chapter 94-locking in the victory without even fighting

The wind and cloud Guild's troops were split into three groups, each guarding a battle flag. The bandits scattered into the forest on both sides to check if there were any wild monsters.

At the same time, they would act as Sentinels to prevent any sneak attacks from traversing Four Seas.

The remaining thirty over people were behind Feng Yun realm and the others, acting as a Mobile Force, ready to support all sides at any time.

Zhang Shan followed Feng Yun realm to defend the middle lane. After the horn was blown, the group of fifty people rushed towards the battle flag.

it didn't take long for them to reach the location of the battle flag.

A tall stone platform stood in the middle of the road. On the stone platform, a battle flag fluttered in the wind. On the flag were the words "wind and cloud."

The battle flag's attributes could be seen.

[Guild War flag (wind and cloud Guild): Level 2. HP: 5000000. Defense: 2000. Increases guild member's attributes by 20%. Effective range: 100 yards.]

Zhang Shan looked at his own attributes. As expected, after adding the battle flag state and the priest's attack blessing, his attack had reached 6000.

after his hp had increased by 20%, it had also exceeded 20000.

in a defensive battle under the battle flag, as long as the opponent did not have that kind of super explosive skill, zhang shan would dare to fight with dozens of people with just two support.

hehe, it's so cool to have a 20% increase in all attributes. Attack, defense, and HP all increased.

did you guys notice that the battle flag also has defense? not only does it have high HP, but it also has 2000 defense. With such high defense, normal attacks can't deal much damage, right? " yes, most of them can only deal around 100 to 200 damage.

then we won't be lying down. Even if we don't guard the flags, it'll be hard for them to cut down three flags before the time is up, right? " that seems to be the case. We're the challenged party. As long as the flag is still there after the battle, it's our victory. Am I right? " that should be the case. If traversing Four Seas 'war flags have such high defensive capabilities, it would be difficult for us to take down all three of their flags. We can't possibly end up with a draw, right? "

"that's right. the announcement clearly states that after the time is up, the challenged party will still have their flag. even if they lose the challenge, if they lose, it's our victory."

"f * ck, boss, do we still have to work hard? Why don't you just lie down until the time is up?"

“Okay, then we’ll defend first. The same goes for the two sides. Don’t advance rashly and wait for them to attack.”

hehe, I wonder if the Dragon King of the East Sea will collapse when he sees the health and defense of our war flag?”

they’re definitely going to collapse. As long as we harass them, they won’t be able to cut down all three flags in an hour.

In fact, even before he saw the wind and cloud Guild’s flag, the eastern sea Dragon King had already wanted to buy medicine for regret.

This was because they could deduce the attributes of the wind and cloud Guild’s war flag from the information on their own war flag.

Vertical and horizontal’s battle flag had 1000000 HP and 1000 defense.

The wind and cloud Guild had reached Level 2 in the afternoon, and they had long received the news.

There was no need to ask around. After the wind and cloud Guild leveled up, it began recruiting guild members on a large scale. It was obvious that the Guild had leveled up and could accommodate more members.

It was at this time that the wind and cloud Guild had leveled up to Level 2. The Dragon King of the eastern sea was depressed.

Originally, he had wanted to rely on two scrolls to wipe out the defense members of wind and cloud Guild in one wave, and then cut down the flag together.

A level 1 flag could be destroyed easily, and even a level 2 flag had 5000000 HP.

Although he couldn’t cut down the flag before the players from wind and cloud resurrected, there was still hope.

Now that he saw that his battle flag had a defense of 1000, he thought about the level 2 battle flag of the wind and cloud Guild.

Their defense was definitely much higher than theirs. It was a bit of a headache. He was too impulsive. If he had known, he would have kept a low profile and developed for a while.

“Boss, what do we do now? do we still go and cut their flag?”

Traversing Four Seas ‘members were all dejected. A battle that was destined to be lost right from the start was truly a hopeless situation.

why not? even if we can’t cut down their flag, we should at least kill six-barreled Bodhisattva a few times.

The Dragon King of the East Sea said fiercely.

His resentment towards Zhang Shan was infinite. He had originally wanted to establish a Guild and become famous overnight. Who would have thought that he would encounter a freak like Zhang Shan?

His face was slapped so hard that it was unbearable. If it wasn't for the fact that he still couldn't beat Zhang Shan even if he went to Dangyang city again, he would have brought people over to chop Zhang Shan up.

Although he was in the Guild challenge map and dying would not cause him to lose experience, he still had to cut Zhang Shan down a few times to vent his anger.

boss is right. We must take down that b * tch, six-pipe Bodhisattva. He's too f * cking b * stard. He brought so many of us into the monster horde.

"That's right, we must cut him down."

"Let's go, focus on the middle lane. Don't worry about the other two lanes. I'll use a scroll to clear them all out and then occupy the area around the flag. Even if they revive, they won't be able to add to the flag's stats,"

The Dragon King of the East Sea led more than a hundred people and rushed toward the battle flag in the middle that Zhang Shan and the others were guarding.

It didn't take long for the thieves from wind and cloud Guild to discover them.

Dragon King of the East Sea found. More than 100 of them are rushing toward our middle.

the Dragon King of the East Sea is still stubborn. Boss, what should we do? " tank, stand in the front. The rest of you, try to stand as far apart as possible. Pay attention to the Dragon King of the East Sea. I think he has all the scrolls. Don't get killed in one shot. Try to cut their flag on the side.

Zhang Shan did not mind. His rebirth skill was already on cooldown, so he was not too worried about the scroll from the eastern sea Dragon King.

no matter how powerful the scroll was, it couldn't kill him twice.

At most, he would just give her a life for nothing.

Ten seconds later, he stood up and continued to work.

Not long after, the Dragon King of the East Sea came to them with his men.

Upon seeing Dragon King, Feng Yun realm said, "

"Brother Dragon King, we've never offended you before, right?"

you must be joking, brother. It's just a game. Otherwise, I wouldn't dare to provoke you. Just a word from your old man and we'll be out of food.

that's good. I know that you're going to enter the New World on a large scale and urgently need to make a name for yourself. Let's see what we can do.

“Brother Tian Xia, we admit defeat this time. I know we can’t win this time, but I want to kill six-pipe Bodhisattva a few times. I wonder if brother Tian Xia can do us a favor?”

that’s impossible. Those who joined the wind and cloud Guild are all my brothers. Even if I can’t take care of all of them, I can’t let someone kill my brothers in front of me.

alright then. I know what kind of person brother Tianxia is. Let’s see how good his luck is. I’m definitely going to cut him down once.

Holy sh * t, Zhang Shan stood not far away and heard that the Dragon King of the East Sea had actually given up the Guild challenge just to kill him once.

Was there such a huge grudge? Didn’t I just chop him twice and get an axe?

Were these big shots so vengeful?

He still had to be careful. Zhang Shan quietly moved backward.

i heard that you have a scroll of great might, but no matter how powerful it is, it can’t possibly destroy the entire map. can’t i just retreat? He would let Feng Yun realm and the others hold the front.

Zhang Shan instantly transformed into a perverted man and retreated quietly.
