Chapter 1021 – Made of steel

After lunch.

Discipline Inspection Secretary He Shuien stopped Dong Xuebing as he left the cafeteria.

“Director Dong.”

“Are you looking for me, Secretary He?”

“Your wife just called me and applied for half-day leave for you.”

“Sigh.... I am fine and do not need to go on leave.”

“No. You should go to the hospital for a checkup.” He Shuien said while walking towards the Discipline Inspection Building. “Take an X-ray and return to work after your medical results are out. I will not allow you to work until I see your medical report. Everyone is worried about you.”

Yes. Everyone was worried.

The puddle of blood was still on the ground outside the Party Committee Building.

Dong Xuebing had no choice. “Alright. I... I will go to the hospital. Thank you, Secretary.”

He Shuien nodded. “Go and check yourself out at the hospital. You can also take a few days’ rests.”

Dong Xuebing was relieved after Liu Haibin was arrested and didn’t mind going to the hospital. Although he knows he is fine, he must prove it to the rest.

City’s People Hospital.

The hospital lobby was crowded with patients.

Dong Xuebing did not make any appointments, and there’s no need to do it. He went straight to the orthopedics department to look for a doctor. He was a regular at the hospital and knew many people there. Many doctors and nurses saw him and greeted him.

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing saw someone along the corridor when he was walking to the duty doctor’s office.

Liu Haibin!

Why is he here?!

Liu Haibin was groaning in a wheelchair, and a nurse pushed him. Two Public Security Bureau Officers were escorting him. One was frowning, and the other was on the phone.

“Team Leader Li Liu Haibin seems to have suffered a fracture. We are at the hospital now.”

Dong Xuebing was amused and understood what Liu Haibin was up to. The latter was injured by Xu Yan's son and his classmates, and he was using his injuries as an excuse to delay his arrest. He hoped his father could save him during this period. What a joke. Do you think you can escape after what happened?

No one can save you!

Dong Xuebing walked over calmly. "Eh? Isn't this Xiao Liu?"

The officers and Liu Haibin saw Dong Xuebing. Liu Haibin's face changed immediately, and he was about to scold him. "You..." He stopped and pretended to be in pain.

Dong Xuebing asked. "What happened?"

Liu Haibin knew he had lost and did not reply.

An Officer recognized Dong Xuebing and said. "Fracture. We were about to bring him back to the station, but..."

The other Officer finished his call and said. "The higher-up asked us to bring him back even if he has a bone fracture. I will push him, and you will drive the car."

Liu Haibin looked terrible and scolded. "I am injured! How can you all stop me from receiving treatment?!"

The Officer ignored Liu Haibin and looked at Dong Xuebing. "Are you here to see the doctor? We will not bother you anymore."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Sorry to trouble you all because of me. Thank you."

"It's fine." The two Officers replied and pushed Liu Haibin away.

Dong Xuebing stopped looking at them and continued to the doctor's office.

CT scan....

Blood tests....

X-rays....

Nothing was discovered after a series of checks.

The hospital had heard about what happened to Dong Xuebing yesterday. News of yesterday's incident had spread, and many hospital staffs had seen the videos posted online. They were shocked when they saw Dong Xuebing's medical report. They discussed this among themselves after he left and were amazed by his body condition.

"Director Dong is fine...."

"I saw his x-ray reports. He is healthier than most people."

"What are his bones made of? Are they made of steel?"

"That's right. Even if he does not suffer any broken bones, he should have some cracks. How can he be alright?!"

"I am used to it. I heard from my friend in Nan Shan District hospital that Director Dong had donated more than 2 liters of blood to save someone. A normal person would die several times if he lost so much blood. But Director Dong only slept for one night and left the hospital as if nothing had happened."

"Really?!"

"Yes. I heard about it too."

"During the earthquake a few months ago, some people were trapped in a burning building. Director Dong asked them to jump off the building and caught them with his bare hands. They were jumping off from 5th story, and his arms were fine! Just a while ago, he had held up a wall weighing more than a ton for more than 10 minutes. He was sent to the hospital, and his arms were fine. I also heard from a few doctors in Yan Tai County that he was buried in a landslide, fought a Siberian Tiger, survived an air crash, and was trapped under a collapsed building for more than ten days. He survived all these without any serious injuries. How can a human body be so strong?"

Everybody was amazed.

Their conclusion was Dong Xuebing is made of steel and not a human.

Dong Xuebing was famous in the Public Security Bureau circle because he had created lots of trouble when he was the Public Security Bureau Deputy Chief and Investment Promotion Agency Chief. His file was recorded in the Police system.

After this incident, his name was also recorded in the Fen Zhou City hospital system. For the past few months, he had been visiting the hospital. All doctors and nurses were amazed by his resilience and vitality. The hospitals will close down if everyone is as healthy as him.

Dong Xuebing felt sorry for the elderly outside in the cold.

Chapter 1022: In the kitchen

Dong Xuebing did not return to work since he was on leave.

Dong Xuebing called Xie Huilan to tell her about his medical checkup results after leaving the hospital and drove aimlessly. It was windy and cold today. Winter was over, and it should get warmer. However, the temperatures dropped again due to the strong winds. He felt cold in the car despite the heater being on. Suddenly, it snowed heavily.

The weather had become unpredictable these few years.

Dong Xuebing was worried about getting in an accident in this weather and wanted to find a place to wait for the snow to stop. No one was home, and his mother's place was far away.

Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

He answered and heard Yu Meixia's voice. "Xiao Bing.... It's me."

Dong Xuebing laughed. "I know it's you, Sister Yu."

"I heard you are injured. Is it serious? How are you?"

"I am fine. I just completed my checkup at the hospital."

"You.... Don't lie to me. Are you saying this to not let Qianqian and I worry?"

"Huh? Why should I lie to you? I am fine. Oh, where are you now?"

"At home. Ah, I am staying at a new two bedrooms apartment. The renovation was completed recently, and Qianqian and I moved in last week. I wanted to tell you, but I heard you are doing an inspection outside. I... I... don't want to bother you."

"What are you talking about? How is this a bother? Err.... I have no place to go now. Tell me your address. I will go over now."

"Ok. Please take it down."

"Wait. Let me grab a pen."

Twenty minutes later.

A normal neighborhood.

Dong Xuebing drove into the neighborhood and looked around. He nodded. The apartments in the city were more expensive than in the Counties. Sister Yu had borrowed money from him and sold the apartment he gave her in Yan Tai County. She had worked in the bank for around half a year and had enough to buy this apartment. Although the location was not optimal, the environment was good. This estate was a new development, and it was clean.

Dong Xuebing went upstairs and pressed the doorbell.

Ding dong... ding dong....

Footsteps approached the door quickly.

"Mum! Uncle Dong is here! I will open the door!" The door opened, and Yu Qianqian appeared. She greeted Dong Xuebing shyly. "Uncle Dong."

"Hi." Dong Xuebing patted her head. "Our Qianqian had become prettier and taller now. Haha...."

Yu Qianqian smiled and nodded. "I grew 1 cm taller." She replied proudly.

"That's great."

"It's cold outside. Come in quick."

"Ok. Where's your Mum?"

"She is cooking soup for you."

Dong Xuebing entered the apartment, and Yu Qianqian took out the indoor slippers after closing the door. He smiled and thanked her. Qianqian was a quiet and shy girl when they first met, and she had grown up. She was no longer shy and had opened up.

Living room.

It still has the renovation smell.

Dong Xuebing looked around. "Who did the interior design? It's nice."

Yu Qianqian smiled proudly. "My Mum and I. We read lots of interior design books."

"Oh, our Qianqian knows about interior design now. Ok. If I buy another apartment, I will let you be my interior designer."

Yu Qianqian nodded. "Yes."

The kitchen door opened, and Yu Meixia said. "Don't agree so quickly. What do you know about interior design? Don't turn Uncle Dong's house into a mess."

Yu Qianqian smacked her lips. "I will not turn his house into a mess."

Yu Meixia walked out of the kitchen and looked at Dong Xuebing. She was relieved to see him unharmed and blushed when she saw her daughter looking at her. She knew she had been looking at Dong Xuebing for too long. "Xiao Bing... you.... Have you taken your lunch? I have prepared pork ribs soup for you. Have some to warm yourself up."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I had eaten, but I am hungry again."

"Let me get it for you."

"I will get it myself."

"No need.... Take a seat first."

Inside the kitchen.

Dong Xuebing followed Yu Meixia into the kitchen.

Yu Meixia tasted the soup and said. "It's not ready yet. The soup needs to simmer more to bring out the flavors."

"There's no hurry. Let it cook a while more."

"Ok."

The kitchen became quiet.

Yu Meixia wore a pink apron, long pants, a white top, and a yellow sweater. Dong Xuebing looked at her curvy body and swallowed his saliva. He noticed she had become prettier. Women will become prettier in a good environment. After reuniting with her parents and finding a good job, she ate and slept well.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. "I was busy recently and didn't have time to visit you and Qianqian." This was not an excuse. He had been swamped in the past two months and could only visit his mother a few times.

Yu Meixia shook her hand. "It's fine. I understand."

Dong Xuebing turned and closed the kitchen door. After that, he hugged Yu Meixia from her back and touched her legs. "Did you miss me?"

Yu Meixia's face turned red. "Qianqian is outside."

Dong Xuebing did not let go. "Answer me first. Did you miss me?"

Yu Meixia nodded.

"Answer me."

"Yes."

"How much did you miss me?"

"I... I don't know...."

"Haha...."

Dong Xuebing knew Yu Meixia was shy and did not tease her. However, his hands did not stop and snaked under her top towards her bra.

Yu Meixia quickly stopped Dong Xuebing's hands. "No.... lunch is almost ready, and Qianqian is outside."

"She was watching TV when I closed the door."

"But...."

Dong Xuebing ignored her and continued.

Dong Xuebing had gone to Yu Meixia's house once when he was drunk and had sex with Yu Meixia when Yu Qianqian was doing her homework. Qianqian knew about their relationship, and there was nothing to hide. Moreover, the door was closed, and she could not see them.

Sister Yu has a curvy body, and it is good to touch.

Dong Xuebing continued to touch her and pulled down her pants.

Yu Meixia held on to her underwear and said. "Stop... please. Not here."

"I had taken off your pants."

"Let's have lunch first."

"How can I stop now, Sister Yu?"

"I.... cannot. Qianqian, she...."

Dong Xuebing ignored her and kissed her full lips. His hands did not stop, and he pulled her pants down to her knees.

Yu Meixia could not stop him and leaned on the kitchen counter to close the binds.

A few moments later.

Piak piak piak sounds came out from the kitchen.

Yu Meixia covered her mouth from moaning loudly, and her breathing was fast.

Twenty minutes passed.

Dong Xuebing lay on Sister Yu's back, panting.

Yu Meixia was exhausted, and her lips were trembling. Her legs weakened, and she sat on the floor.

"Don't sit on the floor. It's cold."

"Ok...."

"I will get a napkin for you."

Dong Xuebing grabbed a napkin and gave it to her. Yu Meixia sat there and did not move. He knew what she was thinking and turned away from her. He heard her wiping herself and throwing the soiled napkins into the bin. She got up and quickly put on her clothes.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. "Is this your safe period?"

"Yes." Yu Meixia tidied her hair and off the stove.

Dong Xuebing kissed the back of her head and inhaled her scent. "You are getting sexier every time I see you."

Yu Meixia replied softly. "No...."

"It's true."

"No." Sister Yu was embarrassed.

Dong Xuebing smiled. "How about I stay over tonight?"

"No." Yu Meixia said. "We cannot let your wife find out about us."

"Err.... Let's talk about it later. The soup should be ready. It smells delicious. Let me try your cooking." Dong Xuebing was hungry. "Give me a big bowl of soup."

"Ok."

Chapter 1023: First time

Yu Meixia's apartment.

It was snowing heavily, and the ground was covered in snow within half an hour.

"Qianqian, come over and drink your soup."

"Mum, I just finished my lunch and am full."

"Drink some and help me bring out the bowl and chopsticks."

"Ok. Have a seat, Uncle Dong."

“Sure. I can’t wait to drink the soup.”

Yu Meixia quickly took out a big bowl of pork ribs soup, and Yu Qianqian scooped a bowl for Dong Xuebing. Dong Xuebing took a few sips and started eating a piece of pork ribs.

Yu Meixia asked. “How is it?”

Yu Meixia smiled. “Have more. There’s more in the pot.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “You all should eat with me. Let’s eat before it turns cold.”

Sister Yu is good at cooking, especially soup. Dong Xuebing finished half the pot until he could not move. He let out a loud burp and sat on the sofa.

“Mum, I am going in to do my homework.”

“Ok. Go ahead.”

Yu Qianqian ran into her room.

Dong Xuebing looked at Yu Meixia and looked at the master bedroom.

Yu Meixia blushed and returned to her room first. Dong Xuebing quickly followed and closed the door. They had fun in the kitchen, but it was not enough for him. They lay on the bed, and Dong Xuebing took out a cigarette. She saw it and took out a lighter to light it.

Dong Xuebing asked. “Why are you carrying a lighter around?”

Yu Meixia replied shyly. “I... I know you are coming, so....”

Dong Xuebing was touched. “You are so good to me.”

“No...” Yu Meixia replied shyly. “Let me massage your shoulders.”

“No need. You must be tired after making lunch.” Dong Xuebing replied.

“I am fine. Just sit up. I will massage you for a while.” Yu Meixia sat behind Dong Xuebing’s back.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything and enjoyed her massage. It felt good, and he closed his eyes. Yu Meixia had learned a lot to serve him. She learned cooking, massage, and dance for him.

“Is this strength good enough?”

“Yes. It is just nice.”

“Ok. Tell me if you feel uncomfortable.”

“Ok. Thank you.”

“Don’t mention it.”

After a while, Dong Xuebing’s hands started moving. He placed his hand on Sister Yu’s thighs and started to move. He grabbed her legs, removed her slippers, and started to caress her feet through her stockings. It was smooth and soft.

Yu Meixia moved her feet, but Dong Xuebing did not care. He continued to massage her feet.

One minute....

Five minutes....

Ten minutes....

Dong Xuebing felt the strength on his shoulders had gotten weaker and knew Sister Yu was tired.

“You can stop now.”

“It’s only ten minutes.”

“It felt good. Come, I will massage you.”

Yu Meixia replied. “No need.”

“No. I must repay you for treating me well.”

“No need. I am fine.”

“I will give you a massage to make you feel better.”

“No, Xiao Bing. You are injured.”

Dong Xuebing ignored Yu Meixia and got behind her. He placed his hands on her shoulders and started his massage. After massaging her shoulders, he massaged her neck and waist.

“Enough, Xiao Bing. It’s enough.”

“Stop moving.”

Dong Xuebing massaged Yu Meixia for around twenty minutes.

Yu Meixia looked at Dong Xuebing and kept quiet.

Slowly, Dong Xuebing saw Yu Meixia relax and close her eyes.

“Sister Yu....”

“.....”

“Sis.....”

“.....”

Yu Meixia was asleep and did not reply.

Dong Xuebing smiled and stopped his massage. He leaned forward and kissed her before covering her with the blanket. He did not leave or wake her up. He just lay beside her and hugged her.

After a while.

Yu Qianqian entered the room. “Mum, I finished my homework.”

Dong Xuebing placed his finger on his lips. “Your Mum is sleeping.”

Yu Qianqian blushed and nodded. "Then... Then.... I will go and watch TV."

Dong Xuebing nodded and said softly. "Your Mum is tired. Let her sleep a while more."

"I know. I... I will prepare dinner. I had learned a few dishes from Mum."

"Haha.... Sure. Let's have dinner later. You can start preparing around seven."

An hour later.

Dong Xuebing's arm was numb, but he did not want to wake Sister Yu. He adjusted his position and took out his phone from his pocket. He called Xie Huilan.

"What is it? I am busy."

"I might not be coming home tonight."

"Where are you?"

"Huh? I am at my Mum's place."

"Ok. I have to work late today. Then I don't have to rush home."

Dong Xuebing called Luan Xiaoping after hanging up.

"Hello, Mum."

"What?"

"Err.... If Huilan calls, tell her I am at your place."

"Where are you?"

"I am at my colleague's place and will not be going home tonight."

"A girl?"

"He is a guy!"

"Then why can't you tell Huilan the truth? Stop creating trouble. I still have not scolded you for what happened yesterday. Tell me the truth. Where are you now?"

"Ah, I am really with my colleague. Just help me. Alright. I still have something on. Thanks, Mum."

"You are asking for a beating! Alright! I know."

"Haha.... Mum is the best."

"Be careful. Don't create any more trouble!"

"I know what to do, Mum. Don't worry."

"What do you know?! You.... Bye."

Dong Xuebing looked at Yu Meixia sleeping after hanging up.

8 pm.

Around five hours had passed.

Yu Meixia woke up and quickly looked around.

Dong Xuebing smiled. "You are awake."

Yu Meixia quickly got up. "What time is it now?"

"8 pm. It's time for dinner. We are going to try Qianqian's cooking today."

"It's 8 pm?!" Yu Meixia was shocked. "You.... Why didn't you wake me? Ah... how did I fall asleep? You... you were hugging me the whole time?"

Dong Xuebing nodded. "You were sleeping soundly, and I don't want to wake you."

Yu Meixia's eyes turned red, and she massaged Dong Xuebing's arms. "Sorry.... You... should rest a while and get home."

"It's fine." Dong Xuebing smiled. "I told my wife that I am not going back tonight."

"No. I am fine. You should go home and don't let your wife worry."

"I had told her. What's wrong? You don't want me to stay? Fine. I will go now."

"No.... I am afraid your wife will find out. I...."

"Haha.... Let's go and have dinner. We will rest early after dinner."

Dong Xuebing got up and almost fell. His legs were numb from remaining still for five hours.

Yu Meixia quickly helped him.

Yu Qianqian was sweating as she placed the food on the dining table. She had spent the whole afternoon preparing dinner.

Dong Xuebing praised. "Look at Qianqian. She is a grown-up now."

Yu Qianqian wiped her sweat and smiled. "Dinner is ready. Mum, Uncle Dong, try my cooking."

Dong Xuebing picked up the chopsticks. The food does not smell as good as Sister Yu's cooking, but he still praises Yu Qianqian. "Delicious. You can be a chef in the future. You are talented."

Yu Qianqian smiled shyly. "No..."

Yu Meixia sat at the table and started eating. She took a few bites and saw Dong Xuebing looking at her. She gritted her teeth and held his arm before putting food into his bowl.

Yu Qianqian saw it and blushed.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. Qianqian knew about his relationship with her mother, but this was the first time they showed it to her.

Chapter 1024: Night

Yu Meixia, Dong Xuebing, and Yu Qianqian sat in the living room to watch the news. It reported yesterday's incident and only showed a few photographs. Fen Zhou City TV station also clarified Dong Xuebing's assets and announced the authorities had arrested the mastermind and everyone involved in the protest. This incident would not have been reported if it had happened in the past.

"Uncle Dong, you are on TV again." Yu Qianqian said.

Dong Xuebing replied. "Err... yes. I am on TV again."

Yu Meixia knew Dong Xuebing did not like to talk about work at home and touched her daughter lightly. "It's late. Brush your teeth and go to bed."

Yu Qianqian nodded and asked. "Then I.... Tonight...."

Yu Meixia looked at Yu Qianqian and asked. "What's wrong?"

Yu Qianqian blushed. "At night.... How are we going to sleep?"

This is a two-bedroom apartment. Yu Qianqian and Yu Meixia had been sleeping together for many years, and Dong Xuebing would stay overnight. This question made Dong Xuebing and Yu Meixia blush.

Yu Qianqian knew she should not ask this question. She quickly ran into the bathroom to brush her teeth and returned to the guestroom.

Living room.

Dong Xuebing and Yu Meixia were still in the bathroom.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. "Do you want to accompany Qianqian tonight?"

Yu Meixia blushed and did not reply. She went to brush her teeth and entered the master bedroom. Dong Xuebing saw it and knew her decision. He followed her into the bedroom and saw Yu Meixia in bed.

Dong Xuebing asked. "Err.... Is this alright?"

Yu Meixia lowered her voice. "Qianqian and I are sleeping in separate rooms now."

"Huh? I am asking if it is alright for us to sleep together."

"It's fine."

"Then.... I will sleep here."

"Ok."

Dong Xuebing took off his shoes and clothes before getting under the blanket.

Dong Xuebing inhaled Yu Meixia's scent and said. "It's been a while since we slept together. Let's chat for a while."

"Yes." Yu Meixia turned towards Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing hugged Yu Meixia. "I have not visited you at your workplace since you started working. How is it?"

“It’s fine. Just a bit tiring, and I got to work overtime.”

“I can help you find a more relaxing job if you are tired.”

“No need. I just got familiar with my job, and I.... I don’t have any qualifications. I can only work hard and learn quickly. My supervisor and branch manager knew my mother got me this job, and I could get paid even if I didn’t do anything. But.... I feel it’s not right, and I volunteered to work overtime most days.”

“Ok. Just let me know when you feel like changing jobs. I know many people here, and it’s easy to help you find a job. I don’t want you to be tired.”

“Xiao Bing, you don’t need to treat me so well. I....”

“What are you talking about? I should treat you well, as you had taken care of me. It’s my turn to take care of you. Haha....”

“You don’t need to do this.”

“I should treat you well.”

Yu Meixia paused for a second and moved closer to Dong Xuebing. She held his arm and blushed slightly.

Yu Meixia might be almost forty, but she is insecure due to her past experiences. That’s why she had low self-esteem and was soft. Besides taking care of others, she does not behave like her age.

Dong Xuebing hugged Yu Meixia and kissed her.

Yu Meixia blushed and returned the kisses.

Dong Xuebing said. “Just let me know if you need anything. You can call me anytime.”

Yu Meixia nodded.

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Let me take care of you now.”

Yu Meixia quickly says. “No need. You had massaged me the whole afternoon. I....”

“I don’t mean that.” Dong Xuebing turned over and got on top of Yu Meixia.

Yu Meixia immediately understood what Dong Xuebing meant and blushed.

“Can I?”

“Yes.”

“Haha.... I am going to start.”

“Yes.”

Yu Meixia obediently does whatever Dong Xuebing wants. She blushed as she took off her clothes. After a while, Yu Meixia took off her clothes slowly.

Dong Xuebing was excited. He missed Yu Meixia and this afternoon was too rushed. He quickly took off his clothes and started making love with her.

Dong Xuebing was not in a rush. He kissed and caressed her curvy body slowly.

The creaking sounds from the bed stopped after two hours.

Dong Xuebing could not last so long and had used REVERSE on himself once. He looked at the exhausted Yu Meixia on the bed. She was covered in sweat and panting.

Chapter 1025: Silent protest

The snow had stopped, and a thick layer of snow covered the ground outside.

Dong Xuebing woke up and saw Yu Meixia looking at him lovingly. He yawned and asked. "What time is it now?"

"It's 7.10 am."

"Huh? Did you wake up early?"

"Yes. I woke up before 6 am."

"Hehe.... Why are you still on the bed?"

"I don't want to wake you up."

"It's fine. You don't need to mind me."

"It's early, and you can still sleep a while."

"No need. I slept well yesterday."

Dong Xuebing stretched and looked at the naked Yu Meixia. Her bra and clothes were on the chair beside the bed. He reached over and started touching her, and she blushed immediately. She blushes easily and doesn't look like someone in her late thirties.

Dong Xuebing squeezed her butt despite Yu Meixia's face turning red.

Yu Meixia's body is soft, and she smells good.

Dong Xuebing felt relaxed when he was with Yu Meixia. She was not in the government service and will not discuss working with him. She is obedient and does whatever he says. He did not need to give in to her like Xie Huilan and felt comfortable.

"Xiao Bing...."

"Huh?"

"It's time for breakfast."

"Let me touch you for a while more."

"No.... Qianqian is still...."

"Sigh.... Alright. Let's get up."

Dong Xuebing got up and started to get dressed. He turned and saw Yu Meixia taking her clothes under the blanket. She does not want to let him see her getting dressed and puts on her clothes under the blanket.

Dong Xuebing was amused and pulled the blanket off her.

Yu Meixia, who was putting on her underwear, panicked. "Stop, Xiao Bing."

"We are considered husband and wife. Why are you scared of me looking at you?"

"No.... I... I am shy. Let me cover myself."

"No. I must look at you put on your clothes, or I will think you are treating me as an outsider."

Yu Meixia blushed and slowly put on her clothes in front of Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing enjoys seeing Yu Meixia blushing.

Yu Meixia has a good figure and is curvy in the right places. Xie Huilan is slim, but her butt and breasts are perky. Her legs were also long. Yu Meixia was curvier and meatier on her legs and chest. Both of them were considered good figures to him.

7.30 am.

Dong Xuebing teased Yu Meixia for a while, and they left the room.

Yu Qianqian was in the kitchen preparing breakfast for Dong Xuebing and Yu Meixia.

Dong Xuebing said. "Qianqian, are you making breakfast?"

Yu Qianqian blushed and nodded. "Breakfast will be ready soon."

Yu Meixia was embarrassed to see her daughter and entered the bathroom quickly.

Dong Xuebing was not as shy as Sister Yu. He entered the kitchen and said. "Our Qianqian knows how to take care of others. Here, let me help."

"No need. Go and wash up, Uncle Dong."

"I cannot let you cook for me all the time. Let me do it. I will teach you how to flip the pan."

Yu Qianqian nodded and stood beside Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing's cooking was not as delicious as Yu Meixia's or Qu Yunxuan's. Still, he knew the techniques and had the experience to teach Qianqian. He demonstrated how to flip the pan, and Yu Meixia came out of the bathroom. He saw her and passed the pan to her. "I am not going to embarrass myself. I will let you teach Qianqian. I am going to brush my teeth."

Yu Meixia nodded and entered the kitchen.

Breakfast was ready when Dong Xuebing came out of the bathroom.

Yu Meixia put food in Dong Xuebing's bowl as usual, and he kept putting food in Qianqian's bowl. It felt like a family of three.

After breakfast.

Dong Xuebing said. "I am leaving."

Yu Meixia nodded. "The roads are covered with snow. Be careful."

"Alright. I will visit you when I got the time. Bye, Qianqian."

"Bye, Uncle Dong."

"I had not brought any gifts for you yesterday. I will bring something for you next time."

Dong Xuebing patted Qianqian's head and looked at Sister Yu before leaving. He waved goodbye to them and walked downstairs to his car. He checked the time and drove to the City Party Committee building.

On the way to work.

Ring... ring... ring....

Dong Xuebing answered. It was a call from Xi Ping District Public Security Bureau.

"Hello, Director Dong. All those involved in yesterday's incident have been arrested. Do you have time to come down to record a statement?"

"Sure. When is it?"

"Anytime when you are free. I can send my men over if you are too busy. We have investigated the incident thoroughly and just need your signature."

"It's fine. I can go over it now. I will be reached within half an hour."

"Ok. I will get my men to wait for you at the entrance."

The Public Security Bureau's officer was very polite.

Dong Xuebing glanced to his left and drove towards the Public Security Bureau after hanging up.

Many of the City Party Committee and City Government departments were located in Xi Ping District, and the Public Security Bureau was not far. Most City Party Committee staff will walk past the Public Security Bureau on their way to work. But Yu Meixia's apartment was some distance from here, and the snow made the roads slippery.

Xi Ping District.

Public Security Bureau Branch.

Dong Xuebing arrived about half an hour later.

Dong Xuebing saw the Xi Ping District Public Security Bureau building beside a river when he reached. The river was frozen, and some children were playing on it. He turned to the building and saw around thirty to forty people standing outside. Those children playing on the frozen river should be their kids or grandchildren.

What is going on?

Why did they bring their children here to play, and why are they standing outside the Public Security Bureau?

Dong Xuebing drove into the compound and parked his car. It was early, and not many people were at work.

A young man in a police uniform walked out to receive Dong Xuebing.

“Are you Director Dong, Dong Xuebing?”

“Yes.”

“I am here to receive you. Please follow me.”

“Thank you. Oh, what are those people doing outside?”

“Huh?” The young officer cleared his throat. “They are the relatives of those arrested.”

“Relatives?” Dong Xuebing blinked. “The relatives of those involved in that incident?”

The officer nodded. “We had arrested around thirty to forty people yesterday, and they were still locked up in our station. Their relatives followed them to the station and stood outside since last night. It’s fine if it was one or two of them. But too many people were involved, and their relatives formed a group. You don’t need to worry about anything. We have increased our officers and are prepared to handle any situation. That incident will not happen again. These people only demonstrated there, and we don’t need to care about them.”

These people did not shout any slogans or prepare any placards. It was different from the previous incident.

However, Dong Xuebing noticed the anger on the people’s faces.

Some relatives were kids, and some were elderly in their eighties.

After yesterday’s heavy snow, the temperature had dropped significantly. The people outside were wearing winter clothing, but they were still shivering. Dong Xuebing sighed in his head and finally understood the severity of that incident. He knew these people would not leave until the Public Security Bureau released their relatives.

Dong Xuebing stopped.

“Director Dong?” The officer looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and said. “I am going out to take a look.”

The officer panicked. “No... no....”

“It’s fine.” Dong Xuebing waved him off and walked out of the compound.

Dong Xuebing felt sorry for the elderly outside in the cold.

Chapter 1026: Silent protest

Outside of the Public Security Bureau.

The crowd was getting bigger, and seven to eight people joined in. Dong Xuebing walked out and stood there looking at them.

The crowd was more than fifty people.

The crowd spoke among themselves angrily.

“How can they arrest people? This is too much! These government officials only take care of their kind.”

“My son was also brought away in the middle of the night yesterday.”

“My mother is in her sixties and was arrested early this morning. How can they do this?”

“That’s right! Dong Xuebing is a corrupted official! How can they arrest us for protesting?!”

“I don’t believe what the news reported about Dong Xuebing’s asset! He must have gotten his money illegally!”

“They are trying to cover up for him! That’s why they arrested my son as a warning to others!”

“Even if they should not attack him, he is fine! I heard he is not injured! How can the police arrest us?!!”

“I am not leaving until the Public Security Bureau release son!”

“Yes! I am not leaving until they release my father! We will not leave!”

Everyone was angry with Dong Xuebing.

A passerby looked at the crowd and shook their heads. Some left, and some stood there to look at them. Most people believe the news reports about Dong Xuebing’s assets. If he had gotten his asset illegally, the TV station and City Government would not issue any explanation. The City Party Secretary and Mayor dared to issue this explanation. The Discipline Inspection had not taken action against Dong Xuebing, meaning they knew about it long ago. They knew the rumors were wrong. Of course, Dong Xuebing did not retaliate after being attacked also convinced them, and people stopped scolding him online.

Other people accepted the explanation but not the people in the crowd.

Their relatives were arrested because of Dong Xuebing, and they stubbornly refused to accept the explanation issued by the authorities. They all turned their hatred against him even if they knew he was innocent. To them, Dong Xuebing was still a corrupt official.

This was human nature.

They only believe their relatives and loved ones.

Dong Xuebing understood their feelings and walked out of the Public Security Bureau compound. He stood before the crowd.

“Who are you?!”

“When are you all going to release my son?!”

“He is not from the Public Security Bureau! He is Dong Xuebing! I saw him on TV before.”

“It’s him! Dong Xuebing!”

Everyone got agitated and started scolding.

“Spit!”

“Corrupted official!”

“Release my mother now!”

After what happened previously, no one dared to lay a finger on Dong Xuebing.

The officer was relieved and stopped the other officers from getting closer. As long as the crowd was not attacking Dong Xuebing, they did not need to get too close.

Dong Xuebing looked at the crowd. He was frustrated but maintained his cool. “It is cold and windy today. Just go back and wait for the news first. I promise you all that as long as your relatives are not the mastermind or had plotted that incident, the Public Security Bureau will release them.”

“Bullshit!”

“Spit! You all must release them immediately!”

“Release them now, or we will not leave!”

“We will just stand here and not attack anyone! I don’t believe they will not release our relatives!”

“You deserved to be beaten up!”

“That’s right. You deserved to be beaten up! How can you all arrest my son?!”

Dong Xuebing doesn’t know what to say. “It is useless to remain here. I am the victim of this incident. I will tell the Public Security Bureau to release your relatives if they are not the mastermind or have not incited the crowd to attack me. Just go back first. I promise your relatives will be released today.”

“Promise my ass!”

“Release them now!”

The crowd’s angry scolding quickly covered Dong Xuebing’s voice.

Two cars drove closer and stopped by the roadside. City Party Secretary Wan Fanglei and City Mayor Zhong Zhengwei saw what happened. Other City Party Committee members’ cars also arrived. It was not because they heard about it. It was because this was the only road to the City Party Committee Building.

“What is going on?”

“What happened?”

Wan Fanglei and Zhong Zhengwei frowned. The previous incident had caused a great impact, and they were worried when they saw the crowd outside the Public Security Bureau.

A Police Officer ran over and explained the situation to them.

Liu Hanqing, Luo Haiting, and other staff arrived.

The people saw them and continued to scold Dong Xuebing.

“You all are just covering up for each other!”

“Dong Xuebing! You are corrupted!”

“Stop pretending! You don’t care for the people at all!”

Wan Fanglei was relieved as he saw the situation was under control. He gave a few instructions to the Police Officer and was about to leave.

The other government leaders saw the crowd was not going to attack Dong Xuebing, and they got back into their cars.

Dong Xuebing was helpless about the situation. When the leaders and other staff were about to leave, something happened.

Crack!

A large crack appeared on the frozen river appeared suddenly!

Chapter 1027: Nine of them

Crack!

The ice cracked without warning.

Everyone looked towards the river next to the Public Security Bureau when they heard the loud crack.

The next moment, they heard screams for help.

“Ah!!!”

“Help!”

“Mum! Mum!”

“Dad! Save me!”

The frozen river, which a few adults and children were playing on, had cracked. They had fallen into the icy water! A few children do not know how to swim and quickly disappear. An adult swam to the edge of the crack and tried to climb out. But the ice broke, and he fell into the water again.

Everyone was stunned.

“Ah! Yanyan!”

“Old Liu! Old Liu!”

“No...!”

The children playing on the ice were the relatives of the people outside the Public Security Bureau. They had come to protest and brought their children along. They did not expect the ice on the river to be so thin and allow them to play on it. At the same time, they waited for the Public Security Bureau to release their relatives.

Shit!

Dong Xuebing’s heart skipped a beat, and his face changed.

Dong Xuebing knew this was an emergency and shouted, “BACK 2 minutes!”

Time returned to two minutes ago.

The first thing Dong Xuebing saw was the angry crowd shouting at him.

“You all are just covering up for each other!”

“Dong Xuebing! You are corrupted!”

“Stop pretending! You don’t care for the people at all!”

The crowd was scolding Dong Xuebing, and many leaders’ cars arrived. Secretary Wan and Mayor Zhong were looking out from their cars at them.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and ignored the crowd. He rushed towards the river and shouted. “Come back now! Hurry!”

An adult on the ice glanced at Dong Xuebing and ignored him.

Dong Xuebing shouted angrily. “What are you all waiting for?! It’s dangerous there! Come up!”

That middle-aged man shouted. “It’s none of your business!”

Dong Xuebing shouted. “The ice during Spring is thin! Get out of there before something happen!”

That man thought nothing and continued playing with the children on the ice.

Dong Xuebing was anxious. “Hurry and get out of there! Are you going to bear the consequences?! Bring the children away from there!”

That man was taking care of his child, and the other children were not his kids. Their relatives were still locked up in the Public Security Bureau and were mad at Dong Xuebing. No one listened to him.

“Stop pretending that you care!”

“You don’t need to worry for our children!”

“Corrupted official! You will lose your job sooner or later!”

Wan Fanglei and Zhong Zhengwei were about to leave when they heard Dong Xuebing’s shouts. They also felt it was dangerous to be on the ice during this season. They did not go back into their cars and walked over. The other staff saw them and quickly followed.

Dong Xuebing saw them. "Secretary Wan, Mayor Zhong!"

Wan Fanglei turned to a Police Officer. "Get more officers and bring the kids out away the ice."

"Yes. I will go now." The Officer replied.

Zhong Zhengwei added. "Disperse the crowd outside and try not to create any commotion."

"Yes." The officer quickly ran back and waved to the other officers. The officers waiting inside came out and started to disperse the crowd.

"Director."

"Director Dong."

Luo Haiting and Liu Hanqing ran over.

Dong Xuebing replied anxiously. "Get those people to shore first."

Luo Haiting and Liu Hanqing were puzzled why Director Dong was so anxious. But they did not ask and ran over to the riverside.

At this moment, the accident happened again.

Although Dong Xuebing had used BACK to salvage the situation, no one listened to him.

CRACK!

The ice split.

"Ah!!!"

"Help!"

"Mum! Mum!"

"Dad! Save me!"

The officers who were about to get the children were stunned.

Two adults and four children fell into the water.

Director Dong was correct.

The ice was too thin!

Wang Fanglei, Zhong Zhengwei, and the others were stunned.

The crowd turned pale, and a woman fainted.

"Ah! Yanyan!"

"Old Liu! Old Liu!"

"No...!"

The situation had not changed despite Dong Xuebing turning back time.

After a few seconds of chaos, Wan Fanglei shouted. "Hurry and save them!"

Zhong Zhengwei turned to his secretary. "Call the ambulance! Quick!"

"Yanyan!"

"Xiao Hu!"

"Ah.... My son! My son had fallen into the water!"

"Hurry and save my daughter! Hurry!"

The crack was around two meters. Although it was not big, it wasn't easy to save them. Anyone who dived in to save the children might lose his direction and not get back to the crack.

An Audi sped over.

Xie Huilan arrived. She got out of the car and asked. "What happened?"

Dong Xuebing answered without turning. "The ice cracked, and six people fell into the water."

Xie Huilan's face changed. She saw the other leaders standing there and threw her coat aside. She walked quickly towards the riverbank.

Dong Xuebing quickly grabs Xie Huilan. "What are you doing?"

"Save them."

"You are pregnant."

"I know. We got to save them before it's too late."

"The water is below zero degrees. You cannot go in."

A few staff noticed Mayor Xie and quickly came over to stop her.

"You cannot go into the water, Mayor Xie."

"That's right. You are pregnant."

"Someone is going over. They will be saved."

Xie Huilan took a deep breath and did not say anything.

Dong Xuebing wanted to enter the water but was injured two days ago. Although he had used REVERSE on himself, some of his wounds had not recovered. He had to keep some of his wounds to avoid letting the hospital get suspicious. He has dozens of wounds on him and doesn't know how deep he can dive in his condition.

It might seem long, but only ten seconds had passed since they fell into the river.

The first person to enter the water was not the Police. It was a child's parent.

Splash!

Two officers also jumped into the water.

A Government staff member and a Public Security Bureau guard jumped in after them.

Four people had gone to rescue the children, but the situation was different from what they expected in the waters.

That City Government staff member touched a person and tried to pull him out of the water. However, he quickly rushed out of the water after two seconds. The water was too cold, and his lips turned purple. The guard beside him lasted slightly longer. His hands and legs were numbed from the cold, and could not go deeper. An officer who was about to enter the water pulled him up. Those two officers who entered the water before them were not so lucky. They disappeared after entering the water. One of them was dragged underwater by a victim when he tried to pull him out.

Bubbles appeared on the surface.

“Shit!”

“Old Chen!”

“Come up first! Xiao Zhang!”

No one replied, and everyone could only see splashes.

An officer ignored everyone and jumped into the water to save his colleagues. However, he did not reappear after diving in.

Only six people had fallen into the river, and it is nine people now.

Three police officers’ fate was unknown.

Everyone was worried.

The water was too cold, and the river was covered with ice. It is easy to lose your direction under the frozen river, and getting out of the water is hard. No one can survive in the cold water. The other officers stood near the crack and dared not enter the water.

This was no longer about bravery or trying to save others.

The few people before them proved it was almost impossible to save anyone in the cold water.

Chapter 1028: I will go

Riverbank.

People were shouting and screaming.

It was dangerous, and nine people had disappeared underwater. Only less than twenty seconds had passed, and those people would drown if no one rescued them now.

“Xiao Zhang!”

“Old Chen!”

“Yanyan! Yanyan! Where are you?!”

“Please save my child!”

It was complete chaos with all the shouting and screaming.

More people gathered at the riverbank, but no one dared to go into the water.

Wan Fanglei and Zhong Zhengwei knew it was dangerous and did not ask anyone to enter the water after the three officers disappeared.

Wan Fanglei shouted. "Where is the fire department?!"

A staff replied. "I called them. It will take a while until they arrive."

"Call them and get them to hurry up." Wan Fanglei was furious. "Go and get the rescue equipment from the Public Security Bureau since they cannot be here in time! Get ropes, oxygen tanks, and a heater." The rescuers need professional equipment to enter the freezing water. Still, the people in the water cannot last until then.

What should we do?

What should we do?

Secretary Wan and Mayor Zhong could not do anything other than wait.

Luo Haiting, Liu Hanqing, and the rest did not move and looked at the water anxiously.

The reporters arrived. They had passed by this area and stopped to take pictures by the riverbanks.

"No!"

"Son! Son!"

"Please save them! Stop standing here and save them!"

A government staff replied. "The fire department will be here soon. We cannot enter the water without proper equipment. Please calm down and wait."

"Xiao Hu!"

"Yanyan! You must be safe!"

"Please! I beg you all! Please go in and save them!"

The people knew entering the water without diving or rescue equipment was impossible. Those three officers had sacrificed when they entered the water, but they were worried for their relatives. None of them could remain calm. If it weren't for others pulling them back, many of them would have jumped into the water to save their children.

One second....

Two seconds....

About 30 seconds had passed.

Although it was not long, it was fatal in the cold water.

The fire department and ambulance were not here yet. The staff who went to the Public Security Bureau to get the rescue equipment was not back yet.

Secretary Wan, Mayor Zhong, and other Fen Zhou City leaders could only stand by the riverbank, anxious.

Those who had fallen into the water would be dead by the fire department arrived.

No one can hold their breath for so long, and anyone who tries to rescue them will risk drowning.

It was tense.

Suddenly, a middle-aged woman kneels before the Fen Zhou City leaders. "Please.... I beg you all to save my son! He is only ten!"

Liu Hanqing was near that woman and tried to help her up. "Please don't do this."

That woman ignored him and bowed her head down. "I kowtow to you all. Please save my son!"

An elderly couple also kneeled. "We beg you all to save our granddaughter!"

"Me too."

"I am also kneeling to beg you all. Please save them!"

Around seven to eight people kneeled in front of Fen Zhou City leaders and kowtow. Some of them were bleeding from their forehead.

These people were pitiful, and many onlookers cried.

However, no one dares to enter the water.

"Please.... Please...."

"Hurry and save them. I will also kneel to you all."

That elderly man kowtows to the leaders.

No leaders or staff move. Dong Xuebing slapped his forehead and cursed in his heart. He unbuttoned the top button of his shirt and took off his coat.

"What are you doing?" Xie Huilan narrowed his eyes.

"I will go." Dong Xuebing does not want to stand out because of the incident two days ago. But he had no choice now. He cannot stand there and look at those people drowning.

Coat....

Shirt....

Innerwear....

Dong Xuebing kicked his shoes off. He had almost taken off all his clothes.

The next moment, everyone saw the scars, bruises, and bandages on Dong Xuebing's body. They took a deep breath and knew these were the injuries from the day before.

Xie Huilan was also shocked. "Didn't you say you are not hurt?!"

Dong Xuebing had only shown part of his chest to Xie Huilan that day, and that area was fine. He dares not show her other parts of his body as he doesn't want her to worry. Only the doctors and nurses at the hospitals saw these wounds. "No fractures means I am not injured. I am fine. These minor injuries are just scratches. Don't worry about me. I will be back soon."

Zhong Zhengwei shouted. "Xiao Dong! Stay where you are! You are not allowed to go!"

Zhan Guiping was also mad when he saw Dong Xuebing was going to save those people. “Xiao Dong! What are you doing!? How are you going to save anyone with your injuries?!”

Luo Haiting tried to stop Dong Xuebing. “Director, please don’t go!”

Liu Hanqing added. “How are you going to save them with your injuries?”

But Dong Xuebing refused to listen. He ignored them and jumped into the freezing water.

No one expected Director Dong, beaten up by dozens of people a few days ago, would try to rescue them.

Everyone’s eyes turned red.

The injuries on Dong Xuebing’s body were caused by their relatives and loved ones. They had also scolded him earlier and never expected Dong Xuebing to risk his life by going into the water.

Chapter 1029: Impressed

Riverbank.

Dong Xuebing jumped into the water, and everyone on the riverbank was anxious. Even if his body were in top condition, he would not last long in the freezing water, let alone in his current condition. How is he going to save others with his injuries? He should be resting in the hospital now. He is taking a gamble with his life!

“Director Dong!”

“Don’t go!”

“Are you trying to kill yourself?!”

“Has Xiao Dong gone mad?!”

“What are you all doing?! Why didn’t you all stop him?!”

Zhong Zhengwei, Zhan Guiping, and the rest were furious as they looked at those Public Security Bureau officers.

Those officers grumbled in their hearts. All of them know about Dong Xuebing’s combat skills. Who can stop him?

Xie Huilan remained quiet, and Luo Haiting, Liu Hanqing, and the rest looked at the water anxiously.

One second....

Two seconds....

Three seconds....

Dong Xuebing did not surface.

A Public Security Bureau Officer shouted. “Where is the rope?! Bring it over quick!”

“Pull Director Dong up if something goes wrong.” Someone shouted.

“If we cannot let the rope down, tie it one someone and rescue Director Dong first.”

The officers knew Dong Xuebing's status was different, but they didn't have any ropes.

In the water.

Dong Xuebing could feel the piercing cold the moment he entered the water. The water felt like salt in his wounds, and the pain caused him to tremble. The below-zero water made his body numb, and his hands and legs could not move freely. However, he could tolerate the pain. Only someone like him, who always endured getting shot, can tolerate this pain. He clenched his teeth and dived several meters while trying his best to open his eyes.

One meter....

Two meters....

Finally, Dong Xuebing saw two officers struggling in the water. Both were around three to four meters deep and tried to swim upwards. Dong Xuebing held his breath and swam toward them. He grabbed them by their collars and swam upwards. These two officers were better swimmers than him, but they could not endure the cold.

Dong Xuebing did not bat an eyelid even when he was shot, and no one else could do that.

Dong Xuebing's strong willpower plays an important part now.

Both officers were heavy, and Dong Xuebing had to swim slowly toward the surface while dragging them.

Gasp....

Their heads appeared above the water.

"They surfaced!"

"It's Director Dong!"

"And Old Li!"

"They are safe!"

The Public Security Bureau officers rushed forward excitedly.

Xie Huilan shouted. "Don't rush over there! Only two people are allowed to go there on their belly!"

The officers stopped. They understood Xie Huilan. The ice might give way if they walked over together. So two of them slowly crawled over to the crack and pulled the two weak officers to the riverbank.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything. He took a deep breath and dived into the water again.

"Director!"

"You must be careful, Director Dong!"

"Be safe!"

Luo Haiting and the rest shouted.

But Dong Xuebing did not hear them. He endured the pain and felt around in the water.

Finally, he spotted two figures again.

It was that middle-aged man and a child. The child had lost consciousness, and that man was trying to smash the thick ice above him. He was struggling, but he was too weak to break the ice.

Dong Xuebing swam over and grabbed that middle-aged man. That man struggled and held on to him tightly, almost causing both of them to sink to the bottom. Dong Xuebing immediately kicked that man away from him and grabbed him by the back of his collar. After that, he grabbed that unconscious child and swam towards the crack.

Hurry up!

I need to be faster!

Some time had passed since the first few people fell into the water. They will die if they are not rescued soon.

Dong Xuebing was going all out. He ignored the pain in his wounds and the piercing cold and tried to swim as fast as possible toward the surface.

They could see the light.

It's near....

Dong Xuebing reached the surface just when he almost ran out of breath. He panted and inhaled the fresh air.

"They are out!"

"It's Director Dong!"

"He saved another two people!"

"My Dad! It's my Dad!"

"That is my daughter! Thank god!"

The family members rushed forward excitedly.

Dong Xuebing pushed the unconscious man and child onto the ice. He saw the officers waiting by the riverbank and pushed them toward them.

The man and child slide on the ice towards the officers.

The officers immediately pulled them onto the riverbank and performed emergency first aid.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and dived into the water again.

Zhong Zhengwei was speechless. "This Xiao Dong...."

Discipline Inspection Secretary He Shuien was impressed. "Good job!"

Everyone knew Dong Xuebing had done well. So many people could not rescue anyone, and some drowned while trying. But he saved four people within seconds since he entered the water. This is his capability. Even those who hated him had to acknowledge his abilities. He dared to enter the freezing water when no one dared, and he managed to save four people. Everyone was impressed.

Chapter 1030: Dead?

Riverbank.

The crowd got bigger, and the ambulances arrived.

Wan Fanglei and Zhong Zhengwei immediately directed the rescue efforts. They ordered the staff to disperse the crowd and perform emergency first aid to the victims. CPR was administered, and those unconscious victims woke up.

Three....

Five....

Seven....

Dong Xuebing dragged many victims to the surface several times within two minutes and was almost at his limits. He was panting and looked pale. His lips had turned purple, and he was shivering and shaking. The scars and wounds on his topless body were exposed to everyone.

The reporters were stunned and quickly took pictures of Dong Xuebing.

How can someone enter the freezing water with a body full of wounds? Yet, he managed to save so many people.

This is Dong Xuebing!

This is Fen Zhou City's famous Director Dong!

Many people had finally seen it. The rumors about Dong Xuebing were true.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and asked in a hoarse voice. "Is everyone rescued?" He sounded weak as he had reached his limits.

"There's one more person."

"Yes! A small boy is still in the waters."

The staff on the riverbank replied.

A crying middle-aged woman screamed. "My boy is still not out yet! Director Dong! Please save him! Please.... I beg you."

"One more?!" Dong Xuebing clenched his teeth.

Liu Hanqing said. "The fire department is reaching. Let's wait for them."

Zhan Guiping and the rest could tell Dong Xuebing had no stamina. It was a miracle for him to save so many people with his wounds, and they did not want him to take the risk. "Come up and rest, Xiao Dong. You cannot go in anymore."

Many people tried to persuade Dong Xuebing.

Luo Haiting said to that woman. "Sis, Director Dong cannot enter the water again. He is at his limits. Don't be anxious. The fire department is reaching soon."

How can that woman not be anxious? Other people's children were rescued, but her son is still in the water. She knelt in front of Dong Xuebing. "Director Dong! Please save my son! Please...."

“Don’t do this, Sis.”

“Sob... sob... sob.... Please....”

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and clenched his fist.

He Shuien noticed it and quickly said. “You cannot go into the water again, Xiao Dong!”

Xie Huilan did not say anything as she stared at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing gave an apologetic look to his wife and dived into the water again.

“Xiao Dong!”

“Director!”

Zhong Zhengwei shouted. “Why is the fire department not here yet?! What the hell are they doing?!”

Under the water.

Dong Xuebing felt different when he dived into the water this time. His arms and legs felt heavier, and swimming wasn't easy. He could only hold his breath for less than twenty seconds.

Dong Xuebing knew he was at his limits, but he got to save that kid. He pushed himself to dive deeper and search for that kid.

Where is he?!

Where the hell is he?!

Dong Xuebing had searched this area when he was rescuing the others. Most of the victims were found within ten meters of where he was. But he did not see that boy. That boy must have drifted elsewhere

The boy could have drifted in any direction.

How is he going to find him? How long will it take to find that boy?!

Dong Xuebing swam forward for a while but did not see that boy. The air in his lungs had run out, and he could not go any further. This was the furthest he could go, and he had to return to the surface. He clenched his teeth and pressed his hand on his chest. REVERSE!

One second....

Two seconds....

Dong Xuebing’s lungs and respiratory system returned to their previous condition.

Dong Xuebing immediately felt better. However, he knew this was a short-term solution. He must find that boy before he drowns.

Riverbank.

“*Vomit!”

A little girl vomited lots of water and opened her eyes slowly. Her parents quickly carried her and cried.

The last girl Dong Xuebing rescued was safe. The medical staff wiped their sweat, and the leaders were relieved. It was a miracle no one had died in this accident, and everyone knew it was Dong Xuebing's credit. If he had not entered the water, these people would be dead.

Everyone is human, and why is the difference so big?

Is Dong Xuebing made from steel?!

The rescue effort was smooth, and a few ambulances drove off with the victims. However, no one was cheering as a boy was still missing.

Silence....

Everyone looked at the water surface of that large crack in the ice.

The few reporters pointed their cameras at that crack. They were waiting for the moment Dong Xuebing surfaced with the victim. The last ambulance drove nearer the riverbank, waiting for the final victim.

Xie Huilan narrowed her eyes and waited.

Zhan Guiping paced up and down nervously.

Luo Haiting was swinging her fists anxiously.

Those civilians who had scolded Dong Xuebing earlier were waiting quietly.

Thirty seconds passed....

One minute passed....

The worse had happened.

Dong Xuebing had not surfaced after two minutes.

Holding your breath underwater is different. Holding your breath for one to two minutes is considered long, and most people can only hold their breath for less than a minute underwater. Moreover, the water is freezing, and Dong Xuebing needs more energy to dive deeper. Holding your breath for more than 30 seconds in the freezing water is considered long. Even those professional rescue divers can only hold their breaths for two minutes.

Two minutes passed, and Dong Xuebing had not surfaced.

He Shuien shouted. "Shit! Xiao Dong might be in trouble!"

Zhong Zhengwei, Zhan Guiping, and the rest's faces changed.

An old man walked out from the crowd. He is the grandfather of a boy rescued by Dong Xuebing earlier. "Hurry and save Director Dong!"

The other civilians started shouting.

"That's right! Director Dong is a good official!"

"Where are the rescuers!? Hurry and save him!"

No one can enter the water like Dong Xuebing without any diving equipment.

The mother of the missing child sat on the riverbank and cried. She knew Director Dong and her son should be drowned.

Another minute passed.

It's been three minutes since Dong Xuebing dived underwater.

Xie Huilan stood on the riverbank with a frown.

Mayor Xie was always smiling, and very few people saw her frown. They knew she was worried for her husband.

He Shuien looked at Xie Huilan and said. "Xiao Dong will be fine."

Zhan Guiping added. "That's right. He is strong."

Xie Huilan nodded and did not say anything.

Although they said these, Zhan Guiping and the rest knew Dong Xuebing had exceeded his limits. He had dived with his injured body several times and dragged many people to the surface.

Minutes passed.

Everyone got more worried.

Four minutes....

Six minutes....

Eight minutes....

Ten minutes....

The riverbank was quiet.

The air was filled with anxiety.

A few civilians in the crowd wiped their tears silently.

Holding his breath for 2 minutes underwater was the maximum, and Dong Xuebing was underwater for ten minutes. An average person would have died several times!

The fire department's rescue vehicles finally arrived, and they rushed to the riverbank.

The fire department staff noticed the angry looks on Zhong Zhengwei, Zhan Guiping, and other leaders' faces and the sadness on the civilians' faces. They knew Dong Xuebing could not survive.
