Chapter 1111: Found the Research center

Dong Xuebing was still sleeping when his blanket was pulled away. He immediately woke up from the sudden cold.

Dong Xuebing opened his eyes and saw his blanket was gone.

“Ah?” Dong Xuebing was confused and in a daze.

Zhang Longjuan stood by the bed and smiled at him. “Wake up.”

Dong Xuebing rubbed his eyes. “Sis Zhang. You frightened me. What time is that?”

“It’s almost 8 am. Wake up. Breakfast is ready. Go... go... go....” Zhang Longjuan snapped his finger.

“Sorry to trouble you again. Thank you.” Dong Xuebing got up quickly.

“Hahaha.... It’s because I like you. I will not do anything if it is someone else. Let’s go.”

“Ok. Let me wash up first.” Dong Xuebing stretched. He had a good sleep.

The first floor of the mansion.

Dining room.

The table was full of food like foie gras, omelets, etc.

“Sis Zhang, why did you prepare so much food?”

“I got to take good care of you.”

“You made me feel bad to trouble you.”

“Eat. Anyway, I did not cook all these. I ordered it from a restaurant.”

They sat opposite each other at the table and started eating. Zhang Longjuan was sexily dressed today too. Red heels, beige stockings, and a low-cut dress. Most of the women her age would not dare to dress this way. However, she doesn’t care. He continued to eat while stealing glances at her. She is too attractive and knows how to doll up.

I should stop looking.

It would be embarrassing if she found out.

Dong Xuebing stopped looking and continued to eat his breakfast.

They finished their breakfast around 15 minutes later.

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. “Haha.... Where do you want to go today?”

Dong Xuebing thought for a while. “I want to visit the west side. Err.... I can go on my own if you are busy.”

“Oh, are you afraid of me?”

“No. I am staying at your place and eating your food. I don’t want to trouble you further.”

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “I still have not done anything to you yet. Don’t feel so restrained.”

Dong Xuebing was speechless. Sis Zhang did not hold back and dared to say anything.

“Let’s go to my garage to pick a car. I will drive you around.” Zhang Longjuan stood up and walked towards the garage with a cigarette between her fingers.

Garage.

Both entered the garage.

“Which car do you like?” Zhang Longjuan asked.

There were four cars in the garage, including the BMW Sportscar.

Dong Xuebing, like that red Lamborghini, should be the most expensive car in the garage.

However, he remembered his purpose today and pointed to the black Buick in a corner. “That will do.”

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “Are you sure?”

“Yes. This will not make us stand out.” Dong Xuebing replied.

“Fine. I will listen to you.” Zhang Longjuan got into that Buicks and closed the door.

“Let’s go.”

“Ok.” Dong Xuebing followed and entered the front passenger seat.

Inside the car. Zhang Longjuan said. “I only use this car when I have customers coming. Haha.... This is a good car, but it is slow.”

“Is your company busy?”

“It’s fine. I have people managing it for me, and they will call if they cannot decide on something.”

“Ok. I don’t want to affect your work.”

“It’s fine. There are no direct roads to the west. This place is different from China. Where exactly do you want to go?”

“Err.... I am not sure. I just want to look around.”

“Alright. Fasten your seatbelt.”

The Buicks sped out of the garage.

Dong Xuebing was speechless again. Zhang Longjuan was driving the Buicks like a sportscar.

West side.

A highway.

Dong Xuebing recalled the map in his mind, and they should be traveling toward the direction of the Research Center.

Zhang Longjuan said while driving. "This area is all the high-class residential estates, and there are farms there."

"It's beautiful."

"This place is secluded, and there's not much traffic."

"Sis Zhang, what other buildings are there here?"

"There are not many buildings here. There's a city if we continue to drive towards the west. There are lots of good restaurants there." Zhang Longjuan paused and said. "Oh, we cannot continue this way. We got to make a detour through the north or south."

"Why?"

"There's a military installation in front. I think it might be a research center, and many soldiers are patrolling this area."

Dong Xuebing blinked. "Patrol?"

"Maybe something happened. Who knows? I heard gunshots at night. Maybe they are conducting military exercises there."

Dong Xuebing frowned. He heard from Xie Guojian that the people sent to rescue Zhong Lizhen became uncontactable or had been sacrificed.

This should be the place.

No! This must be the place.

The car continued forward and saw a military jeep driving past them.

"The military installation should be there, but I have never been there." Zhang Longjuan pointed to the west and turned towards the north. "That road cannot pass. We got to drive around this area."

Dong Xuebing could see a low building in the distance and an extensive grassland surrounding that area.

It's there!

There's no cover or places to hide. How can I get there?

Dong Xuebing frowned. He knew before he came. The research center will not be located in the city, making it difficult for anyone to infiltrate.

What should I do?

Go in by force?

Dong Xuebing did not say much and followed Zhang Longjuan around. They ate and visited some attractions. He was not interested, and all he thought about was the research center.

Dong Xuebing could not stay here too long and had only a few days. He must make a decision quickly.

Chapter 1112: Sis Zhang's other identity

Florida suburb. Sis Zhang's mansion.

Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan returned to the mansion. She parked the car in the garage, and they entered the mansion. He had asked her to drive him to the places around the research center and thought about how to infiltrate it.

"Sorry to trouble you, Sis Zhang."

"Haha.... It's fine. I got a handsome guy accompanying me today."

"Huh? Just let me know if you need anything. I might not be of any help overseas, but I still have some influence back home."

"Oh?"

"Err.... Yes."

"Hahaha.... Alright. I will look for you if I go back."

"Sure. I will wait for you."

"Let's exchange numbers."

"Yes. Give me your number, and I will give you a missed call. Do you want my home number?"

"Just give it to me. I will host you when you come."

"Kid, how come you sound like you are leaving and not here for a holiday?"

"Ah.... I don't want to disturb you or affect your work. I will go around tomorrow by myself."

"You don't know this place well. Where can you go? I should bring you around."

"No need. I have troubled you a lot these two days and don't want to trouble you anymore."

"Old Xu had instructed me to care for you, and I cannot leave you alone. Alright. Let's talk about it tomorrow."

"Ok."

"Great. Let's have a drink."

“Ok. Let me change first.”

Dong Xuebing went upstairs and returned to his room. He closed the door and locked it because he knew Zhang Longjuan had the habit of entering his room without knocking. He walked to the bed and took a map from his bag to compare everything he saw against it. He had confirmed the research center location. He does not want to bother Zhang Longjuan because he decided to act tomorrow. He cannot return to her place no matter the success, failure, or exposure himself. He cannot implicate her in this.

Map....

Sunglasses....

Two steak knives from Sis Zhang’s kitchen.

Dong Xuebing checked and kept his equipment properly before going downstairs to drink with Sis Zhang.

Downstairs.

The doorbell rang.

Zhang Longjuan, holding a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of red wine, turned and looked towards the door. She puts down the bottles and presses a small LCD screen. It showed the footage outside of the mansion. It was a man in his thirties.

Zhang Longjuan said in English. “Hello.”

That man looked up. “Hello. Are you Ms. Zhang?”

Zhang Longjuan heard that man speaking Mandarin and replied. “Yes, it’s me. Who is it?”

“I need your help. Can I enter? It is not convenient to talk here.” That man said.

Zhang Longjuan did not say anything and opened the door. “What is it? Hurry. I have a guest at home.”

That man looked at Zhang Longjuan. He seemed unfazed by her sexy dress. “I need to confirm again. Are you Ms. Zhang Longjuan?”

Zhang Longjuan smiled. “Yes. What is it?”

“Is it convenient to talk now?” That man asked cautiously.

Zhang Longjuan looked upstairs. “Yes.”

That man took out an ID and showed it to Zhang Longjuan. “I am from the State Security and was sent here in a rush. Mr. Lu and Mr. Chen sacrificed, and I will take over their work. I have only seen your particulars, but I must confirm your identity. After all, this is our first meeting.”

Zhang Longjuan narrowed her eyes and walked slowly to the couch. She took an ID card from her bag and gave it to that man.

That man looked at the ID and extended his hand for a handshake.

At this moment, Dong Xuebing came down the stairs.

Dong Xuebing heard the doorbell upstairs and overheard someone talking to Zhang Longjuan. He thought it was her friend or business partner and thought nothing about it.

“Sis Zhang.”

“Xiao Dong, you finished changing?”

Dong Xuebing had come down to greet the guest and wanted to return to his room. He saw that man and was surprised. “Brother Yao?!”

That man is Yao Lei. They sat together on the plane to the US.

That man was also surprised. “Xiao Dong?”

Zhang Longjuan blinked. “How do you two know each other?”

That man replied. “We met on the plane. We sat together on the same row.”

Zhang Longjuan smiled. “It’s such a coincidence. Xiao Dong, this is my friend.”

Dong Xuebing walked over and shook that man’s hand. “We met again, Brother Yao.”

“That’s right.” That man seemed to be uninterested as he answered Dong Xuebing.

Zhang Longjuan said. “Xiao Dong, wait for a while upstairs. I have something to discuss with Xiao Yao.”

“Alright.” Dong Xuebing could feel something was off, but he said nothing and returned upstairs.

Coincidence?

They met on the plane and met here again?!

Yao Lei said he came to Florida for work and is unfamiliar with this place. How does he know Sis Zhang? They do not look like friends. Dong Xuebing has worked in the Public Security Bureau for a while and is sensitive to these subtle clues. He knew something was wrong.

No.

I got to check this person’s identity.

Dong Xuebing immediately used STOP.

Everything froze.

Dong Xuebing returned to the living room and looked at that man and Zhang Longjuan. They were about to walk towards a room. He entered the room and looked for a place to hide. There were no closets or places to hide except under the bed.

Dong Xuebing does not want to waste his time and quickly deactivate STOP.

Time resume.

A few seconds later, the door opened.

Dong Xuebing saw their feet. A pair of red heels and a pair of leather shoes.

The door closed.

They were in the room.

“Can we talk now?” That man said.

Zhang Longjuan nodded and sat on the bed. She crossed her legs and lit a cigarette. “What do you want to say?”

“That Xiao Dong is....”

“She is my classmate’s friend and is here for a holiday.”

“Holiday? Alright.”

Dong Xuebing thought to himself. This man is too cautious.

That man continued. “Let me introduce myself. I am Yao Shun, the former contact person for this area. You can call me Old Yao or Xiao Yao. Old Lu sacrificed, and you can contact me directly. Of course, I will not stay here for long, and the higher-ups will send a new contact person to you.”

Yao Shun?

Are you not called Yao Lei?

Contact person for this area?

How come he sounds like he is from State Security?

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath. This is too shocking.

Yao Shun is from State Security and is here to meet Zhang Longjuan. This means Sis Zhang is also from State Security!

Zhang Longjuan took a puff and said. “I don’t care which contact person you all changed. The Old Lu you talked about is that skinny guy? I met him once five years ago and made myself clear. I am not from the State Security and will not join you all.”

Yao Shun smiled wearily. “You are one of us in our records.” Zhang Longjuan had joined State Security much earlier than him and is older than him. He got to be respectful toward her. “The higher-up thought highly of you, and I need a favor from you this time.”

Zhang Longjuan interrupted Yao Shun. “I had made it clear previously. I can provide funds but don’t look for me for other stuff. I don’t want to get involved.”

“Ms. Zhang.”

“Please go back.”

“This is a grade-A mission.”

Zhang Longjuan frowned and laughed. “How can there be a grade-A mission in this small place? Although she did not join State Security, she heard much about their missions.

Yao Shun replied. “Old Lu and the rest were killed in this mission. You should know about our situation here, and I had no choice but to look for you. I hope you can help us this time. Please help us for our country.” He took a deep breath and continued. “Old Lu is from the same batch as me, and I don’t want him to sacrifice in vain.”

Zhang Longjuan did not reply immediately. She threw her cigarette butt on the floor and stepped on it. "Tell me what happened first."

Chapter 1113: What should we do?

Sis Zhang's mansion.

Underneath the bed of a guestroom.

Yao Shun did not hide anything from Zhang Longjuan and told her about his mission. "You are a senior member of our State Security. Fine. Even if you don't want to admit it, you have funded lots of our operations. We will not hide anything from you. We have a scientist, Zhong Lizhen, who has developed state-of-the-art technology. We don't know what this technology is, but the higher-ups are very concerned. She is now in US custody and cannot return home. The higher-ups ordered us to bring her back at all costs."

Zhang Longjuan asked. "Which research center is she from?"

Yao Shun pointed towards the west. "That one."

"That?" Zhang Longjuan's eyes turned cold. "No wonder the security around this area had tightened recently."

Yao Shun looked at Zhang Longjuan. "This is critical to our country. So...."

Zhang Longjuan interrupted him. "How did Xiao Lu and the rest sacrifice?"

Yao Shun hesitated and said. "Old Lu tried to infiltrate the research center and was discovered. He was killed on the spot. The rest were arrested and killed. Our bureau in Florida had not been successful in establishing a foothold here. Comrade Zhang, we know you are a patriot. Please help us complete our mission. We cannot save Zhong Lizhen by ourselves. We cannot even confirm if she is locked up in that research center."

"You all think too highly of me."

"None of us can compare to you in your influence and connections here. We had no choice but to seek your help."

Zhang Longjuan lit another cigarette and crossed her legs. "How do you all want me to help? Tell me first. I don't want to get involved in some things."

Yao Shun replied. "We need some funds, and we need to know the situation in the research center. It would be great if we could locate Zhong Lizhen."

Zhang Longjuan shook her head. "I can provide the fund but cannot do the rest. I don't have connections to find out the situation in the research center. I am Chinese, and I will be exposed if I ask around. I still have a few thousand employees to feed. What should I do if the government decides to suppress my company or arrest me? Look for someone else."

Yao Shun thought for a second. "Alright. We need your financial assistance."

"No problem. How much do you all need?" Zhang Longjuan asked.

"I still do not know the exact amount. I need to plan first. I also need you to bring us to the research center. We don't need to enter it. Just bring us around the facility."

"You all have not gone there before?!"

"I am not familiar with this place. The agents who know this place well were killed, and we don't have many people left."

Zhang Longjuan thought for a second. "It's fine if you all are going to look around the facility. When do you want to go?"

"As soon as possible. Tomorrow morning, and it would be best if lesser people know about this." Yao Shun replied.

"I understand. Fine. I will drive you there tomorrow morning. But I will only drive you near the facility and don't know about the situation inside the research center. Let me make it clear. This is the first and the last time I am helping you all. Other than funds, don't look for me again. I still want to do business here."

"We understand."

"Ok. Come over tomorrow morning."

"I will be bringing someone with me. He is also from the State Security and an expert in this area."

"Ok. I don't care who you are going to bring. I will only bring you all around the facility as a tour guide. I will not get involved."

"Thank you, Ms. Zhang."

"Don't mention it."

"Ok. I am going now. See you tomorrow."

Yao Shun left quickly.

Zhang Longjuan left the room and sat in the living room. She drank her wine and did not call Dong Xuebing.

One minute....

Five minutes....

Ten minutes....

Dong Xuebing used STOP again and returned to his room before deactivating it.

Dong Xuebing sat on his bed and thought about the conversation he had overheard earlier.

Dong Xuebing did not expect Zhang Longjuan to be involved with State Security. Xu Yan had told him that Sis Zhang was not from State Security. Was she unaware of her involvement? Sis Zhang said she had only provided financial assistance to the State Security operations and did not want to get involved in other areas. She also does not admit she is from State Security. He knows she is only a patriot and many others like her. These people are not considered State Security agents, and they do not need the State Security Bureau to do anything for them.

Sigh.... Things had become more complicated.

Why is Sis Zhang dragged into this mess?

Dong Xuebing wondered if he should tell Zhang Longjuan about his purpose here. But he considered for a while and decided not to. It's not the right time, and he does not know how to tell her. She is only a businesswoman and should not be involved.

Dong Xuebing decided to act tomorrow, and Yao Shun will go near the research center to familiarize the surroundings.

Why is everything happening at once?

What should I do? Am I going to let Sis Zhang and Yao Shun go?

Dong Xuebing was worried. This is getting complicated.

Chapter 1114: Rescue start

Dong Xuebing had set his alarm clock and woke up at 5 am. He took a shower and got dressed. He kept the two steak knives in his sleeves and swung his arms. The knives did not drop out of his sleeves, and he nodded. He kept his maps and a compass in his pockets and was ready.

Dong Xuebing does not have enough equipment here, unlike in China.

However, these items are enough. Dong Xuebing does not need other weapons.

After getting ready, Dong Xuebing went downstairs, and his stomach growled when he smelled food.

"Sis Zhang."

"Oh, you are up early."

"Yes. I slept early last night."

"I was about to wake up. Haha.... Come and have breakfast."

"I could smell it from upstairs. It smells great. Is it ham?"

"Yes. Ham, sausages, and bread. It's Western-style again. Are you fine with it?"

"Sure. I like whatever you make. Thank you."

"You are so sweet. Haha.... Come over."

Zhang Longjuan was dressed sexily today too. Maybe it's cold, and she did not wear a dress. Instead, she wore black leather pants, showing her ass. Her top is a small low-cut red camisole. Her breasts stretch her top to the max, and she likes to flaunt her figure.

Breakfast.

They went to the dining room.

“How is it?”

“These are all pre-cooked. I only need to heat it.”

“It’s still delicious. I can tell you are good at cooking.”

“Haha.... You are right. I learned to cook from Old Xu. I might not be as good as her in Chinese cuisine, but I am better than her in Western cuisine.”

The doorbell rang when they were having breakfast.

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. “I am meeting a friend this morning. Let me open the door.”

Dong Xuebing pretended not to notice and continued to eat his breakfast.

Zhang Longjuan smiled and went to the door. “Xiao Yao, you are here.”

Yao Shun stood outside and nodded. He did not say anything and entered. He was surprised when he saw Dong Xuebing having breakfast and turned to Zhang Longjuan.

Zhang Longjuan asked. “Have you taken your breakfast?”

“We did.” Yao Shun replied.

“Then have some tea.” Zhang Longjuan says.

“Ok. Carry on with your breakfast.” Yao Shun sat at the dining table.

Dong Xuebing swallowed the food in his mouth and greeted Yao Shun. “Good morning, Brother Yao.”

Yao Shun was thinking about his Grade A mission and forced a smile. “Good morning, Xiao Dong.”

Dong Xuebing wiped his mouth and asked. “Sis Zhang, is Brother Zhang, your business partner? I went to bed after going up yesterday and did not ask.”

Zhang Longjuan replied naturally. “Haha.... Yes.”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Such a coincidence.”

Yao Shun replied. “Yes.”

Zhang Longjuan finished her breakfast and wiped her mouth. She threw a cigarette to Dong Xuebing and lit her cigarette. She turned to Dong Xuebing. “Sorry, Xiao Dong. I cannot accompany you around today. Xiao Yao and I have something on, and we must go out for a while. How about I arrange a driver to bring you around? You can also stay here and watch TV or swim. My pool is at the back.”

Dong Xuebing blinked. “Are you going back to your office?”

Zhang Longjuan replied. “No. Xiao Yao just arrived. I am bringing him around and discussing our work. I should be back in the afternoon.”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Then bring me along, Sis Zhang.”

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. "Why do you want to tag along?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "You are bringing him around, and I am here for a holiday too. I also want to look around."

Yao Shun frowned and interrupted. "We will be talking about work. I think you can join another time."

Dong Xuebing pretended not to notice his expression and said. "Haha.... You all can discuss your work. I am not in your industry and will not understand. You all don't need to worry; I will leak any secrets. Just treat me like invisible, Brother Yao."

Yao Shun frowned and thought to himself. Why is this guy so shameless?

Zhang Longjuan laughed and pointed at Dong Xuebing. "You were bashful yesterday. Why are you different today?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "That's because I got more familiar with you."

Zhang Longjuan turned to Yao Shun and shrugged her shoulders.

Yao Shun shook his head firmly.

"I am going to the washroom." Dong Xuebing knew they had something to say and left the dining room.

Yao Shun immediately says after Dong Xuebing leaves. "Xiao Dong cannot go. We are on a mission now. We cannot afford anyone to jeopardize it."

Zhang Longjuan snubbed her cigarette. "I had never wanted to do any missions with you all. I am a businesswoman, and I said before I would not get involved in your matters. I am only bringing you around the research center, and I don't care about the rest."

"Even if this is not a mission, you cannot bring an outsider with us. What if he...."

"My best friend had asked me to take care of Xiao Dong, and he is reliable. I guarantee it." Zhang Longjuan narrowed her eyes. "You are Xiao Lui's colleague and should have heard about me from her. I will not reject Xiao Dong."

Yao Shun smacked his lips.

Zhang Longjuan said. "How about I go with Xiao Dong in one area, and you all follow behind?"

"It will be inconvenient like this. Never mind. We will go in one car."

"Haha.... Good. You all must be flexible. Don't be too serious later. Security is tight around that area."

"Yes. I know."

The bathroom door opened, and Dong Xuebing walked out.

Zhang Longjuan smiled and waved to Dong Xuebing. "Let's go, Xiao Dong."

"Ok." Dong Xuebing looked at the time. It's around 7 am.

Dong Xuebing insisted on tagging along because he worried for Sis Zhang's safety, and the research center was far from the mansion. He would be exposed if he used public transport or borrowed Sis Zhang's car. He is acting alone and does not have anyone to cover his tracks. That's why he decided to follow Yao Shun and Zhang Longjuan. He will identify himself if necessary.

Outside.

A Buicks is parked outside.

Dong Xuebing looked around, and there were no cameras.

Yao Shun got into the car first.

Dong Xuebing knew he would inform the other State Security Bureau agent.

Yao Shun said to the driver. "Old Hong, an outsider, will be joining us. Be careful not to say the wrong things."

"Can we trust him?" Old Hong was cautious.

Yao Shun sighed. "I think so. Ms. Zhang says he is safe."

Old Hong nodded. "Ok."

They were cautious because of their work, especially when they were overseas.

Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan got into the car.

Yao Shun sat in the front passenger seat while Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan sat behind.

Dong Xuebing greeted the driver. Old Hong is in his thirties, but his mustache makes him look older. He must be the so-called expert to analyze the surroundings.

Dong Xuebing asked. "Where are we going, Sis Zhang?"

Zhang Longjuan giggled. "We are visiting the places we been to yesterday. We did not try some food yesterday. Let's eat them today." She turned to Yao Shun. "I arranged accommodation near your workplace last night. Let's see it later."

Their workplace? The research center?

Yao Shun asked. "Is that house accessible?"

"Yes. You can do whatever you want." Zhang Longjuan replied.

Yao Shun knew Zhang Longjuan had gotten this house through some particular channels. Even if they were discovered, they would not be traced to her. This was why he asked her for help. She is influential and is the only person here who can help them after the other agents are killed.

Chapter 1115: Shit

Morning. Florida.

A Buicks is traveling at high speed along the highway.

"Old Hong does not know the roads well, Ms. Zhang. Which way should we go?" Yao Shun asked.

“Just drive towards the west. Oh, what should we have for lunch?”

Yao Shun controlled his expression to be calm. “You decide. Old Hong and I are fine with anything. Just pick somewhere not crowded.”

Zhang Longjuan turned to Dong Xuebing. “Pick a place, Xiao Dong.”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “I think the steakhouse we ate at yesterday is good.”

“Haha.... The food is delicious. Let’s go there.”

Dong Xuebing looked at Sis Zhang. “It’s still early. What should we do now?”

Zhang Longjuan replied. “Let’s drive around. We drove along the northern roads yesterday. Let’s go by the southern side.” She noticed other cars around and wore a big sunglass covering half her face. Dong Xuebing had noticed the sunglasses she kept between her cleavage earlier. Even Yao Shun and the driver, Old Hong, noticed it.

She is too liberal.

Dong Xuebing was speechless by her actions.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and took a pair of sunglasses from his pocket. It covered half his face, and no one could recognize him.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “Are you copying me?”

Dong Xuebing nodded. “It’s too bright.”

Dong Xuebing wore the sunglass, not because of the sun. He wore it disguised to hide his identity from CCTV or other people. He is not from the State Security Bureau and will be appearing in public in the future. He does not want this incident to affect his career.

“Are there any interesting places here, Sis Zhang?”

“There’s a city in that direction. There are a few holiday villas, but I cannot bring you there today. I will bring you there if I am free tomorrow.”

“That would be very nice of you.”

Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan chatted and joked in the car.

Dong Xuebing acted like a real tourist and had lots of questions for Zhang Longjuan.

Yao Shun and Old Hong were not as good as Dong Xuebing. Yao Shun occasionally joined in their conversation, but Old Hong was quiet. He was driving and observing the surroundings.

“In front is a research center.” Zhang Longjuan suddenly said.

Yao Shun immediately looked in front. Are we finally here?

Old Hong looked tense. They were here to monitor the landscape and devise a plan to rescue Zhong Lizhen.

The car became tense.

Zhang Longjuan remained relaxed. She lit a cigarette and introduced the area naturally.

Yao Shun and Old Hong exchanged looks after Zhang Longjuan stopped. They were looking terrible. The surrounding was not in their favor. The vast grassland could not provide any cover, and they could see the military vehicles patrolling around that research center. They were not confident about completing this mission.

The security is too tight.

How are we going to save her?

But they did not give up. They continued to observe the surrounding.

Old Hong secretly took a camera and took a few photos without Dong Xuebing knowing. He continued to drive while deep in thought. He seemed to be thinking of a plan.

Dong Xuebing saw it but pretended not to see it and continued chatting with Zhang Longjuan.

Dong Xuebing does not have any plans. If he wants to save Zhong Lizhen, he does not need to care about the landscape or surroundings. He would rush in without any plan. This was his style. He will settle everything with violence.

The car continued forward.

Ten meters....

Fifty meters....

One hundred meters....

Zhang Longjuan asked. "How is this place?"

Yao Shun replied. "It's much better than China."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "What now?"

Yao Shun spoke cautiously because of Dong Xuebing. "Let's drive around towards the south. Our company wants to buy a piece of land here. We need to look around."

"Ok. Turn at the junction in front." Zhang Longjuan said.

Old Hong turned and drove towards the south.

Dong Xuebing had not come to this area yesterday, and he looked around. "Sigh.... I wish I could buy a small house here if I got the money."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Sure. I will give you a house here if you are moving here."

Dong Xuebing does not know if she is joking. "No... no.... I cannot accept it."

"Haha.... What are you thinking? Do you want to live with me? Sure. I don't mind. I am only afraid Old Xu would get mad." Zhang Longjuan laughed.

Dong Xuebing was speechless.

Yao Shun and Old Hong were not interested in their conversation. They kept looking around.

"Eh? What's happening in front?" Old Hong suddenly gasped.

“What is it?” Yao Shun and Zhang Longjuan looked in front and saw two military vehicles.

There were other cars on the road, and they were blocked by the two military vehicles. Around eight soldiers with rifles walked over to a car and started searching it. They also checked the driver’s ID.

The soldiers searched inside the car, the boot, and the body searched the driver and passengers.

The two cars, who were stopped, grumbled, but the soldiers ignored them.

“Shit!” Old Hong slammed the brakes.

Zhang Longjuan’s face changed. “Why is there a security checkpoint here? You all....” She looked at Yao Shun.

Yao Shun shook his head and looked at his ankle. It was bulky, and he might be carrying a gun.

Many Americans own guns, but Yao Shun’s guns should be illegal. Their car cannot be searched.

Zhang Longjuan did not expect to encounter a security checkpoint on this road. She had never encountered any security checks along this road before or would not bring Yao Shun here. Her heart started beating faster.

Chapter 1116: Got caught

Along the road.

The situation is tense.

Yao Shun and Old Hong were not only carrying arms. They were also carrying other items that the military could not discover. They are Asians, and their identity would be exposed if caught. The military had set up this checkpoint because of Zhong Lizhen and the death of Old Lui and other State Security agents.

They had let their guard down.

Yao Shun blamed himself for bringing his gun with him. He felt this mission was too dangerous and brought it with him. This is not his fault, as no one expected this to happen.

Countless comrades had sacrificed overseas, and Yao Shun and Old Hong were prepared. However....

Yao Shun looked at Zhang Longjuan. “Sorry, Ms. Zhang. I had dragged you into this.”

Zhang Longjuan stopped smiling and replied seriously. “I should be fine. But my company might be implicated.”

Yao Shun knew what would happen. “It’s impossible to be fine.”

Zhang Longjuan smiled. “Who cares. Let’s see what happens next.”

Old Hong asked anxiously. “What should we do now? Is it too late for us to turn back?”

Yao Shun sighed. “They noticed us when we stopped the car. Their cars are faster, and we cannot outrun them.”

Old Hong panicked. “Let’s try.”

Yao Shun took a deep breath. "Stay calm and look for an opportunity."

"I understand." Old Hong tensed up.

The soldiers at the checkpoint noticed the Buicks stopped, but they were still searching the two cars.

Dong Xuebing was relieved he had tagged along. He was not nervous at all. He had faced dozens of enemies with rifles and did not even blink. He thought nothing about these soldiers and continued with his act. "Sis Zhang, Brother Yao, what is it?"

Yao Shun looked at Dong Xuebing. "I'm sorry, Xiao Dong."

Dong Xuebing blinked. "What are you sorry about? What are we running?"

Dong Xuebing does not want to expose himself before Zhang Longjuan and Yao Shun. Maybe they might escape. He had a bad reputation in China and did not want to worsen it. He will try to keep his purpose here as long as possible.

"Sorry." Zhang Longjuan said to Dong Xuebing. "Sigh.... I should not have let you come with us. It's my fault."

Yao Shun continued. "We don't know if we can escape. Be prepared if we are caught. We are from the State Security."

"State Security?!" Dong Xuebing pretended to be shocked.

"We will die if they search us."

Zhang Longjuan replied. "Don't tell Xiao Dong about these. The lesser he knows, the safer he is. He will be fine even if we are caught."

Old Hong said. "You are too naive, Ms. Zhang."

Yao Shun sighed. "That's right. How can he be fine?" He bowed toward Zhang Longjuan and Dong Xuebing. "We had dragged you two into this. This had nothing to do with you, and I am sorry. We will try to escape if possible."

Old Hong looked at Yao Shun. "Brother Yao?"

"Go!" Yao Shun clenched his teeth.

The few soldiers in front had finished searching with the two cars in front and started walking towards the Buicks.

Vroom!

The Buicks reversed suddenly.

The few soldiers were surprised, and one of them raised their rifle. They shouted something at them.

Old Hong ignored them. He turned the car around and sped off.

The soldiers did not open fire. They ran back to their jeeps and started chasing.

The Buicks had a head start and had pulled some distance between them. However, the military jeeps were modified and quickly caught up with them.

One hundred meters....

Fifty meters....

Twenty meters....

The soldiers got closer and closer....

“Old Hong, go off the road!” Yao Shun shouted.

Old Hong turned the steering wheel and drove into the grassland. They want to slow the military jeeps behind them. However, they were caught up in no time.

Old Hong sighed. “We cannot escape.”

Yao Shun said. “Just get as far as possible.” He reached to his ankle and pulled out his gun. “Try to find a cover and hold them. We must let Ms. Zhang and Xiao Dong escape. They have nothing to do with this.”

“I understand.” Old Hong was prepared to die.

Yao Shun decided because he knew those soldiers had not seen Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan’s faces. They were also wearing sunglasses. They would not be caught if they escaped.

Zhang Longjuan frowned. “Xiao Yao....”

Yao Shun held his gun. “Don’t say anything. Just run when you all have the chance.”

Dong Xuebing was touched. He did not expect them to do this.

Old Hong also took out his gun. Dong Xuebing could tell they were prepared to sacrifice.

Yao Shun shouted. “The higher-ups are more concerned about this mission than you imagine. I respect your patriotism. Suppose we will not rest in peace if you are implicated. We were prepared to be killed when we joined this mission and had left letters for our families. Just run when you get the chance. Don’t need to worry for us.”

Zhang Longjuan was looking terrible. “What are you talking about? We will be fine.”

“We don’t have time to talk now. Get ready. We cannot hold them back for too long.”

Yao Shun shouted. “They had caught up with us! Old Hong!”

Old Hong replied. “I will kill them all!”

Yao Shun laughed. “That’s right. We will get revenge for Old Lui.”

“We can still run.” Zhang Longjuan does not want to see them get killed.

Furthermore, Dong Xuebing and her might not escape. “Let’s surrender. I can use my connections to get us out. My family still has influence here.”

“It’s useless.” Yao Shun replied. “They will not let us go as this concerns their national interest. Moreover, the military will not wait so long.”

“But....”

“Enough. Old Hong, prepare to stop the car. They are here.”

“Xiao Yao!”

“Bring Xiao Dong away!”

The military jeep sped up and crashed into the Buicks. Old Hong lost control of the car, and it flipped.

Airbags were deployed!

The car flipped over a few times and stopped on the grassland.

Dong Xuebing tumbled around in the car. He was giddy and managed to open his eyes slightly. He looked toward Zhang Longjuan and Yao Shun.

Sis Zhang had fainted and was bleeding from her forehead.

Yao Shun and Old Hong were stuck in their seats because of the airbags. They were in a daze and looked injured.

Fk!

Dong Xuebing was furious.

The windows were shattered, and he could hear the soldiers coming nearer.

“Sis Zhang!” Dong Xuebing pushed Zhang Longjuan slightly. “Wake up, Sis Zhang.”

Zhang Longjuan opened her eyes slowly and realized their car had flipped over. She struggled to sit up.

Bang! Bang!

Gunshots....

Old Hong had opened fire. He got out of his seat and fired two shots toward the back.

Bang... bang... bang....

The soldiers returned fire.

Bullets and sparks flew. A bullet brushed Dong Xuebing’s ear.

“@@#%$#^#%$”

The soldiers shouted in English.

Dong Xuebing does not understand and cannot hear clearly. It should be asking them to surrender.

“Run!” Yao Shun struggled to get up and fired back at the soldiers.

Bang... bang....

Bang... bang... bang....

“Run! Run to the road!”

Old Hong had run out of ammo.

When Zhang Longjuan kicked the door open and was prepared to pull Xiao Dong out with her, she heard guns clocking behind them. Eight soldiers surrounded them. Yao Shun had run out of ammo too.

Without firepower, how are they going to provide cover?

The soldiers pointed their rifles at them.

Yao Shun knew it was the end for them.

Old Hong cursed.

Only Dong Xuebing was not nervous. Yao Shun and Zhang Longjuan thought he was shocked. But they do not know Dong Xuebing was not worried at all. This was nothing compared to what he had faced before.

Chapter 1117: Since you all want to die, I will fulfill your wishes

Eight soldiers surrounded a flipped-over Buicks. Eight automatic rifles were pointed at Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, Old Hong, and Dong Xuebing.

“Lower your weapons and get out of the car!” A soldier shouted.

Old Hong and Yao Shun exchanged looks and threw their guns out. They were out of ammo anyway.

“Sorry, Ms. Zhang.” Yao Shun sighed.

“Stop talking and get out of the vehicle!” A soldier hit Yao Shun with the rifle butt.

Yao Shun had a painful expression but did not let out any sound. He crawled out of the vehicle with Old Hong.

“You too!” Three soldiers started searching Yao Shun and Old Hong, while another pointed his rifle at Zhang Longjuan.

Zhang Longjuan turned to Dong Xuebing, who was stuck in his seat. “Sorry, Xiao Dong. I had dragged you into this.”

Dong Xuebing replied calmly. “It’s fine.”

Zhang Longjuan smiled. “I think it’s the end for us. I should not have brought you with me. Fk! I knew it was dangerous. Why did I bring you along?”

“It’s alright. Everything will be fine.” Dong Xuebing said calmly.

“I am too ashamed to face Old Xu. Haha....” Zhang Longjuan said. “I will try to talk to them and see if we can get out of this.”

The soldier pushed his rifle against Zhang Longjuan’s head. “Get out now! Stop talking!”

Zhang Longjuan ignored the soldier and took out a cigarette. She lit it and inhaled deeply. She appeared calm and spoke to those soldiers in English. “I am the Chairman of Long Juan Co. These two men are my bodyguards. I am demanding you all release us now. My lawyer is on the way.”

The soldiers laughed.

Zhang Longjuan pointed at Dong Xuebing. "This man has nothing to do with us. He is only hitching a ride."

A soldier hit his arm and let out a sinister smile. He grabbed Zhang Longjuan's hair and pulled her out of the vehicle.

Zhang Longjuan endured the pain and did not make any noise.

The injured soldier slapped her hard.

Sis Zhang's face swelled up immediately.

Zhang Longjuan's eyes turned cold. "How can you lay your hands on civilians?! Is this what they taught you in the military?!"

That soldier cursed and slapped Zhang Longjuan again.

Dong Xuebing was furious.

Fk! You all are asking for it!

Dong Xuebing's legs were stuck between the seats, and he struggled to free himself.

Zhang Longjuan's lips trembled, but she stared at those soldiers with a smile. She spat some blood on the floor and said. "Come on! Continue!"

That soldier sneered and raised his hand again.

This time, Zhang Longjuan moved. She moved forward and kicked that soldier in his groin.

That soldier's face turned pale, and he fell to the ground.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Brat! You were still in your mother's womb when I fought in Florida!"

"Fk!" That soldier pulled out his pistol and pointed it against Zhang Longjuan's head.

Zhang Longjuan looked at him fearlessly. She smiled. "I dare you to open fire." She was also furious.

Yao Shun panicked. "Ms. Zhang."

"Don't, Sis Zhang." Old Hong shouted.

Another soldier pulled that soldier back. "Enough."

"Don't shoot them. We need to hand them to the higher-ups." Another soldier, which seemed to be their leader, said.

The injured soldier suppressed his anger. He saw Zhang Longjuan's smile and was still mad. He lowered his gun and pushed it hard against her breasts.

Breasts are a woman's vital points. Pushing the barrel of a piston hard against them is painful.

Beads of sweat started appearing on Zhang Longjuan's forehead.

That injured soldier laughed loudly when he saw her expression. He stabbed the pistol against her breast again.

Zhang Longjuan was in pain, but she did not let out any sounds.

The other soldiers laughed. They find it amusing.

Yao Shun exploded. He grabbed the soldier's hand, pointing his rifle at him, and tried to disarm him. However, that young soldier was also trained in close combat. He dodged and kicked Yao Shun in his guts.

Yao Shun clenched his stomach and fell to the ground.

Old Hong also could not stand seeing Zhang Longjuan getting humiliated by those soldiers. After all, they had dragged her into this. He tried to resist, but the outcome was the same.

Old Hong was subdued the moment he tried to resist.

The other soldiers saw them trying to resist and beat them up. Very soon, Old Hong and Yao Shun were beaten to the ground and could not get up again.

Zhang Longjuan was the same too.

Her breasts were hit by the cold pistol barrel several times, and she could not stand it anymore. She sat on the floor and covered her chest with her arms while gasping for air. She did not let out any sound and stared at those soldiers coldly.

"Enough. Bring them back."

"Let's play around for a while more. Hahaha.... Look at her cleavage."

"Her body is hot. This woman is sexy."

Another young soldier laughed and pinched Zhang Longjuan's cheeks. "This old bitch is still sexy."

These soldiers were stationed at the research center and seldom got any missions. Other than training, they had nothing to do. They finally caught some people, and it got into their heads. They lack the discipline and character of those veterans. Seeing Zhang Longjuan's sexy body and looks, they lose control. Luckily, they still remembered their military regulations and did not do anything extreme.

An older soldier said cautiously. "I have heard of Long Juan Co. It is famous in Florida, and if she is the chairman, you all will be in trouble."

"It's fine."

"That's right. This woman is surely a spy."

"Yes. She will never get out after she goes in."

"Yes. She cannot even contact her lawyer."

A young soldier grabbed Zhang Longjuan's hair and pulled her up. The injured soldier sneered and pushed down her top with his gun, showing her purple lacy bra.

"Hahaha...."

"Sexy!"

“This bitch must be a slut!”

The few soldiers roared with laughter.

“Stop!” Yao Shun shouted.

“Stop it!” Old Hong shouted.

Yao Shun and Old Hong were furious. They heard the American soldiers were ill-disciplined, but they did not expect them to be this bad. They were apologetic towards Zhang Longjuan and knew they would not see tomorrow’s sun again after being caught. Zhang Longjuan and Xiao Dong will also be locked up or killed.

They are finished.

All of them know their fate.

The injured soldier pushed his pistol into Zhang Longjuan’s breast again and tried to push her bra down.

“You bastard!”

Zhang Longjuan continued to stare at those soldiers coldly.

That injured soldier laughed. “Let’s see how long this bitch can last before she breaks down.”

Inside the car.

Dong Xuebing finally freed himself from the seat and looked at those soldiers humiliating Zhang Longjuan. He smiled coldly.

You all are asking for it.

Since you all want to die, I will grant your wishes.

“Wait!”

“What is it?”

“There’s one more person in the car. Be careful.”

“We did not see him firing at us earlier.”

Those soldiers thought nothing about Dong Xuebing as he was not armed and looked ordinary.

Dong Xuebing got out of the car.

A soldier pointed his gun at Dong Xuebing’s head as a precaution.

Dong Xuebing smiled at the soldier and picked up the cigarette Zhang Longjuan had dropped earlier. He put it between his lips and took a few puffs.

“Oh....”

“This is one arrogant brat.”

Dong Xuebing’s actions amused the few soldiers.

Zhang Longjuan quickly pulled up her top and shouted. "Xiao Dong! Just give in to them, or you will be tortured."

Dong Xuebing sneered. "We still don't know who is going to be tortured."

Yao Shun shouted. "What are you doing, Xiao Dong?"

Dong Xuebing smoked and rotated his shoulders. "Just lay down and leave this to me. Since they want to die, I will fulfill their wishes."

Chapter 1118: Kill

Florida wilderness.

In front of a crashed Buicks.

Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong did not understand Dong Xuebing. What do you mean by leaving this to you? Ah? They saw him as a tourist and thought what happened scared him out of his wits. What is he talking about?

Zhang Longjuan panicked. "Xiao Dong!"

Yao Shun shouted. "Stop moving. There's eight of them."

From their earlier exchanges, Yao Shun and Old Hong knew these eight soldiers were elites and good in close combat and marksmanship. All of them are fully armed with automatic weapons and pistols. How is Dong Xuebing going to resist arrest?!

This is a one-sided battle.

The difference in power is too big.

How can an unarmed tourist win against those soldiers?

Dong Xuebing ignored them and looked at the soldiers with a smile.

Those who know Dong Xuebing well will know he is furious now.

Dong Xuebing threw the cigarette butt on the floor and slowly walked towards Zhang Longjuan and that injured soldier. He had one hand in his pocket.

"Xiao Dong!"

"What are you doing?"

Yao Shun and Old Hong shouted at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing waved with his back facing them.

The few soldiers exchanged looks and laughed. They looked at Dong Xuebing as if he were a joke.

That injured soldier laughed and pointed his gun at Dong Xuebing. He said something in English.

Dong Xuebing does not understand and doesn't care.

Zhang Longjuan quickly shouted. "He asked you to put your hands behind your back and kneel. Xiao Dong! Do as he says!"

Dong Xuebing continued forward with a smile.

Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong were anxious. Is this guy crazy? He is facing eight soldiers who are ready to shoot him. What is he thinking? Does he think he can escape from them?

“We cannot escape!”

“Just get on your knees and stop moving.”

Yao Shun and the rest were afraid Dong Xuebing would do something foolish.

However, Dong Xuebing looked at them and said confidently. “Leave it to me. It’s only eight of them. We don’t need to run.”

Only eight of them?!

When they heard it, Yao Shun, Old Hong, and Zhang Longjuan almost fainted.

Suddenly, Zhang Longjuan shouted. “Behind you, Xiao Dong!”

Yao Shun and Old Hong quickly looked over. That injured soldier seemed to have lost his patience. He raised his rifle butt and was about to hit the back of Dong Xuebing’s head.

Dong Xuebing did not even turn. He looked at Yao Shun and the rest. “Don’t interfere and wait there.”

“Behind you!”

“Watch out!”

Dong Xuebing continued to look away.

That soldier sneered as his rifle butt was about to hit Dong Xuebing’s head.

At this moment, everyone, including the soldiers, froze. They could not believe their eyes.

Dong Xuebing moved his head slightly and dodged the rifle butt.

His other hand, not in his pocket, swings upwards casually.

Everyone saw Dong Xuebing move his hand, and that injured soldier froze. He looked shocked. He moved his mouth, but no sound came out.

“Pete!”

“What are you doing, Pete?!”

The soldiers stood behind that injured soldier and did not see what had happened.

Suddenly, blood gushed out from Pete’s neck.

The soldiers realized Dong Xuebing had stabbed a steak knife into Pete’s neck.

“Pete!”

The soldiers’ faces changed.

Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong were stunned.

Dong Xuebing still smiled as he pulled the steak knife from Pete’s neck. He swung the blood off the knife and walked towards another soldier. He pulled his hand out, and another steak knife appeared.

“Fk!”

“Prepare to fire!”

The soldiers were furious as one of their teammates was killed.

Dong Xuebing shouted to Zhang Longjuan and the rest. “Stay down!”

Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong quickly get on the ground. They tried to keep their heads as low as possible. To their surprise, Dong Xuebing did not lie down or get behind the covers. He continued to walk towards those soldiers.

“Xiao Dong!”

“Get down!”

Dong Xuebing ignored them.

“Ta... ta... ta.... Ta....”

Shots fired.

Of course. Not all the soldiers fire at Dong Xuebing. Only two soldiers facing Dong Xuebing fired. They were confident of their marksmanship and would not miss at this distance.

To everyone’s surprise, Dong Xuebing moved.

Dong Xuebing tilted his head slightly when the soldiers opened fire, and a bullet zoomed past him. He stepped forward, and the second and third bullets brushed past his arms. The fourth round, also the last bullet, would hit his shoulder. He raised his left hand and blocked it with his steak knife.

Sparks flew as Dong Xuebing changed the bullet’s trajectory with his knife.

The steak knife had a scorched mark as the bullet brushed against it. Dong Xuebing’s arm and wrist took the impact and felt a bit numb.

All four bullets were missed.

Dong Xuebing continued forward.

The soldiers turned pale.

“Shit!”

“Open fire!”

“Fire!”

Chapter 1119: One vs. eight

In the grassland.

Everyone thought Dong Xuebing would be killed, and those two soldiers who fired four rounds were sure they would kill him. They are marksmen and have participated in real battles before. However, none expected Dong Xuebing to dodge those bullets so easily. Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong were also stunned.

They do not know Dong Xuebing.

Bullets were ineffective against him!

Dong Xuebing continued slowly towards those soldiers, ignoring their guns.

Those soldiers do not know about Dong Xuebing's combat skills and do not know why he can dodge those bullets. They just opened fire.

"Ta... ta... ta... ta... ta...."

More than a dozen bullets zoomed toward Dong Xuebing.

"Get down, Xiao Dong!" Zhang Longjuan screamed.

"Watch out!" Yao Shun and Old Hong shouted.

Dong Xuebing continued to walk forward. He tilted his head, dodged three rounds, bent his legs slightly, and dodged another three rounds. He took a big step forward and dodged a few more rounds. He had gotten very near to those soldiers.

More than a dozen bullets were missed!

All the soldiers were stunned.

Once or twice might be coincidences. But dodging so many bullets is no longer luck!

The soldiers knew that they had met a formidable enemy. The youngest guy in this group is the most dangerous!

They did not think Dong Xuebing could dodge the bullets. They felt he had a fast reaction and predicted the bullets' trajectory. However, this is not something an ordinary person can do.

None of them dare to belittle this young man anymore.

Even an idiot can tell Dong Xuebing is someone extraordinary.

"Fire!"

"Shoot him!"

The soldiers shouted and continued to shoot Dong Xuebing.

They had closed the distance between them, and Dong Xuebing became their bigger target. He also got less space to dodge the bullets.

"Ta... ta... ta...."

After countless rounds, the soldiers realized none of their bullets could land on Dong Xuebing.

How fast is his reaction?!

How can he avoid so many bullets?

Before they could grasp the situation, Dong Xuebing walked up to them. No one saw how he moved, and blood gushed out from the nearest soldier's chest.

One second....

Two seconds....

That young soldier collapsed and could not get up again.

The other soldiers were furious. Some tried to shoot Dong Xuebing, while others reloaded their weapons.

Dong Xuebing moved.

An old soldier felt something flash, and Dong Xuebing appeared before him. He wanted to fire, but he could not move his body anymore. He fell to the ground, and a steak knife was plunged into his chest.

Dong Xuebing pulled out the knife and looked at another soldier. His expression was scary. He looked calm and emotionless. He had killed a lot of people these few years. From criminals to pirates, and he is getting numb to these killings. He does not know if this is good or bad, but he cannot hesitate in this life-or-death situation.

Three soldiers....

Five more to go.

Suddenly, ta...ta... ta... ta....

Two soldiers fired their rifles.

Pistols are single rounds, and rifles are different. The soldiers felt that regardless of how fast or agile their reaction was, there was no way for them to dodge automatic rifles. Maybe it will happen in the movies.

Dong Xuebing could not dodge all the bullets.

Bullets had covered all his escape routes.

If Dong Xuebing faced these soldiers alone, he could use STOP and 'teleport' behind them. However, Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shun, and Old Hong were looking at him. He cannot do it. Since he cannot dodge the bullets, he will not dodge.

He still has other ways.

STOP! Dong Xuebing mumbled in his heart.

Time stopped.

The bullets whizzing through the air froze in mid-air. Around seven to eight rounds almost reached Dong Xuebing's chest and head.

Dozens of bullets froze in mid-air in front of him.

Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes and held his steak knives in his left hand. He grabbed the two rounds in front of him. During the time-stop, these objects were heavy. He used his strength and 'plucked' the bullets from the air. He took a step forward and continued to grab the third, fourth, fifth, etc. bullets.

Very soon, his hand was full.

Dong Xuebing kept the bullets in his pocket and returned to his earlier standing posture.

Stop deactivated!

Silence....

All the soldiers were stunned. Dong Xuebing stood there unharmed. All those bullets had vanished. Humans cannot see the bullets, and no one knows he has kept all those bullets in his pocket. They thought all the bullets had vanished into thin air.

What is going on?!

Why can't we hit him?!

The soldiers' faces changed.

Chapter 1120: Who are you?

"What's going on?!"

"Continue to shoot!"

"Fk! Who the fk is this guy?!"

The grassland is filled with gunshots and the soldiers shouting.

They had seen many things during their years as soldiers, and this was the first time they had met someone like Dong Xuebing. They were not his match in close combat and could not hit him with their rifles. What the hell is going on? How are they going to win against someone who can dodge bullets?!

"Hurry! Shoot him!"

"The bullets cannot hit him!"

"Stop him and ask for backups!"

"Fk! Where did this guy come from?"

A soldier was about to ask for backup when Dong Xuebing flicked his arm. A steak knife flew up and plunged into the radio set he was holding. The knife continued forward and penetrated the soldier's neck. The soldier rolled his eyes backward and collapsed.

Four men....

Four remaining....

The soldiers panicked and started firing their guns without aiming at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing dodged the bullets easily and looked toward the research center in the distance. He knew the gunshots would attract other soldiers and should end this fight immediately. He narrowed his eyes and rushed forward.

Ta... ta... ta....

Sidestep....

Lowered his head....

Bend down....

Turn....

Dong Xuebing dodged all the bullets.

“Take cover!”

“Retreat!”

The remaining soldiers shouted.

But it was too late. Dong Xuebing’s speed was faster than theirs. He only held a steak knife compared to a whole load of soldiers.

Three meters....

Two meters....

One meter....

The soldiers fired while retreating, but Dong Xuebing caught up with them.

The soldier nearest to Dong Xuebing threw his rifle aside and tried to fight in close combat. They were also trained in close combat, and this soldier is skilled in how he subdued Old Hong.

However, he is facing Dong Xuebing this time.

All forms of close combat moves are useless against Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing wanted to end this quickly and moved his hand upwards. He got past that soldier, and that soldier fell to the ground. No one saw what happened, and blood flowed from the soldier’s chest.

“Issac!”

“Issac!”

Issac did not even last one blow.

Three soldiers remained.

They initially thought Dong Xuebing was a joke, and they were shocked now.

They finally understood they were not on the same level as this young Chinese man. Even though it is three vs. 1, and that young man is only armed with a steak knife, they are no match for him.

A soldier cursed.

Another soldier shouted. “Retreat! Retreat!”

The other two soldiers turned and ran while firing at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing will not let them get away. He dodged the bullets and ran after them.

“He is here!”

“Take cover!”

“Stop him. Don’t let him get close!”

A soldier in his thirties turned and fired at Dong Xuebing’s head with his pistol. They were close, and there was no way for Dong Xuebing to dodge it.

The soldier would never forget what happened next.

Dong Xuebing raised his left hand and caught the bullet between his fingers!

Oh my god!

What is this?!

How can someone catch a bullet with his hand?!

That soldier was stunned, and he shouted. "He can...."

Before the soldier can finish, a steak knife is plunged into his heart and pulled out.

The soldier collapsed before he could not finish his warning to his comrades.

Two soldiers remained.

Dong Xuebing threw away the bullet in his hand and continued to chase the two soldiers. They were far from Zhang Longjuan, Yao Shuo, and Old Hong; he was not worried they would see it. As for the two soldiers, it's okay. They are going to die soon.

Ten meters....

Five meters....

one meter....

Dong Xuebing caught up with one soldier and dodged his elbow strike.

That soldier pulled out a dagger and slashed toward Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing raised his steak knife to block it and swung his arm outwards. After that, he continued to chase the last soldier. The soldier holding the dagger fell to the ground two seconds later, with blood spurting out from his neck.

Last soldier.

This should be the officer. He had been giving orders earlier.

The officer knew he could not escape. He stopped and raised his gun above his head. He shouted something in English, and he seemed to be surrendering.

Dong Xuebing looked at the officer and said slowly. "I did not want to kill anyone, but you all forced me. Don't blame me. Since I arrived in Florida, Sister Zhang had taken good care of me, and you all had humiliated her. How am I going to face Sister Xu when I return? We have a saying in China. You reap what you sow. Don't be so arrogant in your next life." He said these in Mandarin and didn't care if the officer could understand him.

The officer was confused but could guess it from Dong Xuebing's expression. His face changed, and he attacked suddenly.

Dong Xuebing did not even look at that soldier. He moved his arm and walked back towards Zhang Longjuan and the rest.

That officer's body froze for a second and collapsed on the ground.

When Dong Xuebing walked past a soldier's body, he bent over and pulled out the other steak knife. He wiped the blood off and hid it in his sleeves. These steak knives are helpful; he has another battle waiting for him in the research center. He got to be prepared. He picked up the handguns from the soldiers' bodies and kept them behind his back. He also picked up an assault rifle and some magazines.

Instantly, Dong Xuebing is fully equipped.

Dong Xuebing walked up to Zhang Longjuan and the rest.

Yao Shun had got up, and he was helping Dong Xuebing up. They were staring at Dong Xuebing. Zhang Longjuan was getting up. They looked at Dong Xuebing in a daze. One man had wiped out an eight-man fully armed team with only two steak knives!

What is this combat power?!

This guy is not human!

Damn! Where did this guy come from?

Dong Xuebing helped Zhang Longjuan up. "Are you alright? Are you all injured?"

Yao Shun took a deep breath. "Old Hong and I are fine. Ms. Zhang should be fine too."

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing and smiled. "Who are you, Xiao Dong?"

Dong Xuebing replied with a smile. "What do you mean by who am I?"

Zhang Longjuan said. "Don't tell me you are an ordinary civilian. I have never seen a civilian can remain calm in front of so many guns, let alone kill eight fully armed soldiers with two knives. Even people like Xiao Yao will not remain so calm after killing someone. You should have killed dozens or hundreds of people. Ah.... You had hidden your true nature well. Why did Old Xu not warn me about you?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Sister Xu does not know why I come here and what I will do. Also, I am just an ordinary person." He did not say much.

Yao Shun shook Dong Xuebing's hand. "Thank you, comrade. We would be dead without you. I represent all our State Security comrades in Florida to thank you again. How come I have never seen you before? Are you not from the State Security?"

Old Hong's eyes had never left Dong Xuebing. "You are from the military."

Dong Xuebing thought to himself. I left State Security for a few years and was doing administrative work there. How are you going to meet me? He did not plan to tell Yao Shun this as he did not want to expose his identity. Even if he identified himself, they would not believe him. "I don't want to lie to you all, and I cannot tell you all my real name or job. I had come here for the same reason as Brother Yao. Someone asked me to bring Zhong Lizhen back, and I could not refuse him. That's why I am here." He turned to Zhang Longjuan. "Sorry, Sis Zhang. I did not tell you because I don't want to drag you into this. After all, the things I will do cannot be brought up to the surface."

Xiao Dong is not from the State Security and the Military?!

Yao Shun and Old Hong were stunned.

This guy had killed eight soldiers with two steak knives.
