Chapter 1251: Change a casino chip for me

Early morning.

4 am.

The crowd in the lobby dispersed as the 'Zero Commission' promotion was going to start.

A few moments later, the casino staff announced the start of the promotion.

"It has started!"

"Let's go!"

"I am going to exchange for more chips."

"Hurry, Old Zhang. We are waiting for you."

"Over here, Old Li! Come and play together."

The guests were excited, and they stopped playing at the slot machines. All of them rushed to the baccarat, roulette, and blackjack tables. A few went to the VIP rooms. This was a rare opportunity, and they didn't want to miss it. Who knows when the Casino will hold another promotion? It's OK if their bets were small. They will save a lot if they bet big.

The guests went to the various tables.

Zhang Longjuan, Dong Xuebing, and the twins remained.

Dong Xuebing pulled them to the smoking area and lit a cigarette for Zhang Longjuan. He also lit one for himself.

Shen Xiaomei asked. "Mr. Dong, you..."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Xiao Dong was scaring him."

Dong Xuebing interrupted. "I am not scaring him. I mean it."

"Save it." Zhang Longjuan smacked his head. "I can tell you do not frequent casinos. How are you going to win a hundred million USD from them?"

Dong Xuebing said. "This has nothing to do if I go to the casinos often or not."

Shen Xiaoyan added. "It will be difficult for you to win a hundred million USD."

Shen Xiaomei said. "Even Ms. Zhang, who is so good at gambling, lost to them. I don't think you can do it."

"Let's go." Zhang Longjuan snubbed her cigarette and got up. She pulled Dong Xuebing. "Let's go back."

Dong Xuebing did not move. He was thinking about it.

Zhang Longjuan saw him not moving and giggled. "What do you want now? Do you want me to carry you? Haha..."

Dong Xuebing was speechless. "How can you joke at this time?"

Zhang Longjuan replied. "Why can't I joke? Losing is not a big deal. They might have ganged against me, and my luck was not good either."

Dong Xuebing shook her head. "I cannot accept this."

Zhang Longjuan stopped smiling. "You got to accept it. We still have a chance to get back at them in the future."

"I cannot wait. You should know my character. I don't wait for revenge. I must settle this score now and will not wait a minute more." Dong Xuebing firmly replied.

"What are you going to do then?" Zhang Longjuan looked at him.

Dong Xuebing replied with a determined look. "We will continue to gamble. I will gamble this time."

Shen Xiaomei smacked her lips and said. "Ms. Zhang had lost everything. Do you think she will not continue if she still has money?"

Zhang Longjuan nodded. "Our suitcases and pockets are empty. I am broke now. Haha."

Dong Xuebing thought for a second and took out his wallet.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at Dong Xuebing and said. "The casino does not accept credit cards."

"I am not using cards." Dong Xuebing took out his cash and started counting. He counted the notes and started counting the coins. After counting, he looked at the rest. "I got 1,328 RMB. I did not withdraw money before boarding, and this is all I got. Sis Mei, Sis Yan, and Sis Zhang, how much cash do you have?"

Zhang Longjuan was speechless. "What are you trying to do, brat?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Pool our money and continue gambling."

"But how much can you get?" Zhang Longjuan replied. "I don't have much cash with me. I cannot even change the lowest denomination chip."

Dong Xuebing insisted. "Let's try. Sis Yan, Sis Mei."

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted. Pooled their spare change to gamble?

What can they do even if they raise enough to change a casino chip? How much can they win?

Dong Xuebing hurried them. "Take out your money."

Shen Xiaoyan saw Dong Xuebing was not giving up and took out her wallet. Other people nearby were looking at them, making her blush. They had millions of USD a few hours ago and are down to this situation now. Shen Xiaoyan took out all her money and gave it to Dong Xuebing. "This is all I have. It's all in HKD."

Shen Xiaomei hesitated for a while and gave in. She took out all her money and gave it to Dong Xuebing. "I don't have much either, and it is all in HKD."

The sisters only got a few hundred HKD.

Dong Xuebing was disappointed. “How come so little?”

Shen Xiaomei rolled her eyes. “I used my money to buy medication for you and did not withdraw from the ATM.”

Shen Xiaoyan said. “I spent it on petrol, phone bills, and...”

Dong Xuebing interrupted. “Err... take out all your coins. Don’t keep anything now. Let’s try to pool all our money together.”

Coins?

You also want coins?

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaoyan were dumbfounded. They took out a few coins from her wallet.

Zhang Longjuan looked at them speechlessly. But the twins had taken out all their money, and she also took out her wallet. She counted her money and said. “I got USD but only slightly more than 600 USD. Ah, I got some change too. It’s not even 700 USD.”

So little?

Dong Xuebing: “.....”

Zhang Longjuan saw his expression and said. “I usually use credit cards and seldom bring cash out. More than 600 USD is a lot.”

USD...

HKD...

RMB...

Coins...

It was messy, but Dong Xuebing counted everything. He checked the exchange rates for HKD and RMB against USD.

If it were a few days ago, he would be short of a few dollars.

But if he used yesterday’s rates, they got precisely 1,000 USD.

“All right. It’s enough.” Dong Xuebing smiled.

Shen Xiaoyan was speechless. She did not expect Dong Xuebing to smile. “Are you sure you are going to gamble with these?”

“Of course. Why would I ask you all to pool all our money if I am not going to gamble? A single chip is enough. I will try my best.” Dong Xuebing said confidently.

Shen Xiaomei does not know where he got his confidence from. That’s the smallest denomination, and the Casino might not even exchange for him.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything was walked to counter 5. He put his money on the counter and said. “I want to exchange a chip.”

The female staff looked at the money. RMB, USD, HKD, and coins from different currencies. She was speechless.

Chapter 1252: Where's my change?

Early morning.

Casino's counter.

Counter 5. The female staff looked at the money on her counter without saying a word.

"Change it."

"But you..."

"What's wrong?"

"No... you... this..."

"Is there any problem? Can you hurry up?"

Most guests had changed their chips because of the promotion at 4 am. Only a few people were exchanging chips at the counters. A few counter staff heard the commotion and looked. They were puzzled.

"What's wrong, Xiao Liu?"

"Did you run out of small denomination chips? I have some."

The female staff at counter 5 smiled wearily. "No."

A female supervisor walked over. "What's wrong? Why are you not exchanging the chips for the customer?" She thought the staff had received counterfeit notes, and she came over to handle it. "Is there any problem with the note? Is the machine rejecting it? Let me see."

Dong Xuebing glanced at her. "Do I need to use counterfeit notes?"

Zhang Longjuan, Shen Xiaoyan, and Shen Xiaomei stood far away from Dong Xuebing as they felt it was too embarrassing.

The supervisor looked at the staff.

The staff quickly replied. "That's no problem with the money, but..."

"Then why are you not exchanging for the guest? What are you waiting for?" The supervisor walked closer.

The staff wiped her sweat and showed the money to her supervisor and other staff. "How am I going to exchange it?"

What do you mean by how are you going to exchange it?

Why are you hesitating if the money has no problem?

The supervisor was getting frustrated until she saw the money.

The other counter staff saw the money and almost fell off their chairs.

WTF?

What the hell is this?

The staff cursed in their hearts.

The casino had been operating for slightly more than three months. Even though the ship sails once a week, the staff were experienced. They had previously worked in other casinos and met all sorts of people. But they almost fainted with they saw Dong Xuebing's money.

USD...

HKD...

Coins...

RMB...

It's a mixture of different currencies. This...

This guy is using three currencies to exchange for the smallest denomination chip.

The notes for each currency were crumpled, and a few RMB notes were torn. One HKD note had tape on it as it was torn into two pieces.

The supervisor understood why the counter five staff was not exchanging the chip for the guest. They could not accept these notes.

The supervisor looked at Dong Xuebing and hesitated. "Sir..."

"Huh?" Dong Xuebing replied. "Can you hurry? I am in a rush."

The supervisor recognized Dong Xuebing. He had clashed with the casino's person in charge earlier. She maintained a professional smile. "We cannot accept your money."

"Why?"

The supervisor was speechless. Why are you asking the obvious?

"Is the money too little?" Dong Xuebing looked at her. "You did not state minimum requirement anywhere."

"It's like this." The supervisor came up with an excuse. "We only accept USD and not other currencies."

Dong Xuebing stared at the supervisor. "Oh, only USD is money, and our RMB and HKD are not? Are you discriminating against China? Are you all only serving only foreigners? Are the Chinese second-class people?"

Dong Xuebing is good at arguing.

Those government leaders, let alone these casino staff, cannot win against Dong Xuebing in an argument.

Dong Xuebing continued. "What is your nationality? Huh?"

The majority of the people in the casino are Chinese. Dong Xuebing was loud and attracted many guests to look at them.

The supervisor's face changed. "I... I am not belittling these currencies. This is our casino's regulation."

Dong Xuebing knocked on the counter. "But I feel you are belittling us. Why are you accepting USD and not RMB and HKD? Is USD more prestigious? You can convert the currency."

"But your money..."

"What's wrong with my money? Is it counterfeit?"

"No, but... but..."

"What is wrong with you all? Why are you exchanging the casino chip for me? You all still dare to claim to be the biggest gambling ship in Hong Kong?"

"I..."

"Shut up and give me my chip."

The supervisor was speechless. She knew she was no match for this young man in an argument.

The other side of the casino.

Song Yuhu walked around the casino with the old man and his bodyguards. They greeted some guests and chatted with them. This was to retain their customers and let them return.

They heard a commotion behind them.

It was an argument.

Song Yuhu frowned and looked at the chips exchange counters. He saw the supervisor speaking to Dong Xuebing. "It's him again."

Senior Zhou saw it too. "What is going on?"

Song Yuhu said to Senior Zhou politely. "They lost their money and should be anxious. That guy claimed he would win over a hundred million from us before you came."

"I am asking what is happening between you and that young man." Senior Zhou looked at him.

Song Yuhu paused for a second and said. "We had a few conflicts a few days ago."

Senior Zhou waved his walking stick. "I don't care about your personal grudges with others. But don't bring these troubles to our casino. It will affect our reputation."

Song Yuhu replied. "I know."

"Let's go and take a look." Senior Zhou walked over.

In front of the counter.

Dong Xuebing was still arguing with the supervisor and staff.

The supervisor saw the person in charge of the casino coming over. She walked over to greet them.

"Senior Zhou, Mr. Song."

Song Yuhu said, "What is the commotion about?"

The supervisor was speechless. "We are not arguing. It's this guy who is unreasonable. He insists on exchanging for a chip with three types of currencies. USD, RMB, HKD, and..." She paused and said. "and coins."

Coins?

They are using coins?

Many guests overheard them.

Those guests finally understood what the commotion was about, and they rolled their eyes.

Song Yuhu was also speechless.

What is the meaning of this? Are you trying to create trouble?

Everyone exchanges casino chips with thousands, hundred thousand, and a few million USD.

But you? You are using spare changes to exchange for chips. Are you not embarrassed?

Senior Zhou was shocked at first and amused. "How much are they exchanging?"

The supervisor replied. "He is exchanging for a one-thousand USD chip."

Song Yuhu looked at the crumpled notes on the counter and turned to Dong Xuebing. "We only accept USD here. Take your money and leave."

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng were around. They laughed.

A few casino guests laughed too.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan were shy, and their faces turned red.

Dong Xuebing did not feel embarrassed. "You must abide by the rules in a casino. You did not state that you are not accepting other currencies. I did not see it anywhere." He points at the procedures of exchanging chips at the counter. "Now you are telling me I cannot use other currencies. This is looking down upon us!"

Song Yuhu was speechless. "Your money is..."

Senior Zhou said. "Let him exchange."

"Senior Zhou." Song Yuhu said.

Senior Zhou calmly replied. "I said let him exchange. Convert the currencies to USD."

The supervisor nodded and said to the Counter Five staff. "Convert the currencies to USD."

The female staff started checking the rates on her PC. Because there were three currencies, she took a long time. She showed Dong Xuebing her monitor. It was exactly 1,000.02 USD."

The female staff took out a chip and placed it on the counter. "This is your chip. Please check, and we wish you good luck."

Dong Xuebing took the chip but did not leave.

"Is there anything I can help?" The staff was puzzled.

Dong Xuebing's reply almost caused everyone to vomit blood. "Where is my change?"

The female staff felt she was going crazy. It's only two pennies. The people who can get onboard this ship will not even pick up two USD from the streets.

We had made an exemption to let you exchange for a chip, and you still want us to give you change?

The female staff is scared of him and wants him to leave quickly. She immediately gives him two pennies.

Song Yuhu and other staff were speechless by what Dong Xuebing did.

Chapter 1253: One Casino Chip

Early morning.

After 4 am.

Casino lobby.

Dong Xuebing was smiling when he returned from the counter. He held the smallest denomination chip and two pennies.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "This brat."

Shen Xiaoyan looked at her sister. "How come he looks like he had won a battle?"

"Yes." Because of the embarrassment, Shen Xiaomei wished she could bury her head in the ground. She did not expect Dong Xuebing to feel proud instead of ashamed.

"This is too embarrassing."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "This is nothing to be ashamed of. I like Xiao Dong more now. He is interesting. Haha..."

"You call this interesting?" Shen Xiaomei tapped her forehead.

Shen Xiaoyan smiled. "Mr. Dong is not afraid of embarrassment."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Haha... He is purposely finding trouble with them."

Dong Xuebing reached them. "What are you all talking about?"

"Nothing." Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. "My mood got better after what you did. Haha..."

Dong Xuebing was in a good mood after getting a chip. He passed the two pennies to Zhang Longjuan. "Your change."

"Ok. I will keep it." Zhang Longjuan kept it in her empty wallet.

Shen Xiaomei was speechless and felt Mr. Dong and Ms. Zhang were a good match. "What are we going to do now? We only got one chip. We cannot win much with that."

Dong Xuebing replied confidently. "That will depend on how you play."

Shen Xiaoyan asked. "Are you serious about saying you will win one hundred million USD?"

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Let's look around first. Oh, let's play mahjong."

An eye for an eye is Dong Xuebing's style. Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng had ganged up to win Sis Zhang. He will not let them off lightly. He will get back using the same way.

The other side.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng walked over.

Dong Xuebing smiled when he saw them. "Oh, Mr. Wei, Ms. Leng. Do you want to play a few games?"

Mr. Wei was amused. "How are you going to play when you got no chips?"

Dong Xuebing laughed and waved his 1,000 USD chip. "I got one."

Ms. Leng felt Dong Xuebing was purposely provoking them. "The minimum bet for Mahjong and other card games is one million USD. How are you going to play with us with 1,000 USD?"

Dong Xuebing did not know about this rule. "Oh, I see."

Mr. Wei replied. "Good luck. You only got one chip. If you are careful, it might last you about ten minutes. Enjoy."

Dong Xuebing replied. "No problem. I will look for you later."

"Sure." Ms. Leng said. "We will be waiting for Ms. Zhang and you."

They were mocking Dong Xuebing. What can he do with one chip? Even if he played three days and nights, he would not win over a million USD. Even the God of Gamblers cannot do it. No one's luck can last forever. He cannot win forever.

Moreover, he only got one chip. All his money would be gone if he lost once. Even if he can win, how much can he win?

No one felt Dong Xuebing could make a comeback.

This is impossible, and even Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei think so. Dong Xuebing attracted many guests because of the commotion, but no one thought much about him. They continued to gamble and did not take note of him. Song Yuhu and Senior Zhou went to the VIP rooms.

The lobby was lively.

The guests were enjoying the 'zero commission' promotion.

"Open!"

"Ah, why is it small again?"

"Twenty! Hahaha... I won again!"

"I got no more chips. Let me go and change more. My luck is bad today. Sigh..."

"What is wrong with the slot machines today? Why is it so hard to win? I am not playing anymore."

Some people won, and some lost. The ones who won were excited, and the ones who lost continued to bet. They were trying to recoup their losses.

Zhang Longjuan asked. "What are we playing?"

Dong Xuebing hesitated. "Let me think."

Shen Xiaomei grumbled. "You only got one chip. Do you still need to think?"

"I got to be cautious because I only got one chip." Dong Xuebing replied seriously. He was not taking this lightly.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Yes. We got to be cautious."

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan did not think much. They had completed their State Security mission.

A few minutes passed.

Dong Xuebing looked around the casino and stopped at one of the tables.

It's roulette. This is one of the few games he is familiar with.

Dong Xuebing does not have enough to play blackjack or baccarat and is unfamiliar with the rules. The slot machines are hard to win, and he does not enough to play Mahjong or poker.

After consideration, roulette is the best choice.

Yes. That's the one!

Dong Xuebing said. "Let's play roulette."

"Sure." Zhang Longjuan held his arm. "Let's go. Haha..."

The casino has two roulette tables. They were huge and crowded.

"25! 25!"

"26! 26!"

"Stop! Stop!"

"Ah... I missed it by a bit."

The round ended. The small ball stopped, and a few guests won. The staff started giving out their winnings.

This is a big casino. Although the rules are about the same as the ones Dong Xuebing played before, the table settings were different. He had forgotten how to play, as his last time was years ago. He asked Zhang Longjuan. "Sis Zhang, can you explain the rules to me? How do I bet, and what's the payout?"

Shen Xiaomei's eyes opened wide. "You don't know how to play?"

Shen Xiaoyan massaged her temples. How will you win one hundred million USD when you don't know how to play?

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat and said. "Who says I don't know?? I am afraid the rules here are different."

Shen Xiaomei mumbled. "Just admit you don't know."

Dong Xuebing admitted. "Fine. I seldom gamble and need to learn the rules. Have you heard of beginner's luck? Only the fearless can win big."

Shen Xiaomei thought to herself. No one is as fearless as you. You don't know the rules and dare to claim you will win a hundred million USD.

This is too 'fearless.'

Zhang Longjuan did not say anything. She smiled as she explained the rules to Dong Xuebing. "There are thirty-six numbers. The payout for a single number is 36 times the biggest payout. Most people will make small bets on single numbers as the probability of winning is the lowest. You can bet on two or three digits, but the payout is lower. You need some tactics because the numbers are spread out on the wheel. It's hard to explain the tactics. You can also bet on odd/ even or colors. The payout is two times your bet. It's easy to win, as the probability is around 50%."

Dong Xuebing nodded and remembered the payouts.

"As for how to place a bet..." Zhang Longjuan sips some water.

Shen Xiaomei said. "Those numbers are single number bets, and the color below is for betting on color. The odd and even bets are next to it."

Shen Xiaoyan suggested. "We only got one chip. I suggest betting on odd/even or color. We got a 50% chance of winning. We would double our money if we won."

The twins know more about roulette than Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing nodded.

Shen Xiaomei looked at him. "Do you understand?"

"How can I not understand?" Dong Xuebing replied. "All right. I am going to try my luck."

Shen Xiaomei said. "Do you want to watch a few rounds first? Ms. Zhang got no money left. This is our last chip." Although she did not think they could do much with one chip, she did not want Dong Xuebing to lose.

In front of the roulette table.

A new round started, and the dealer raised her hand. "Please place your bets."

Seven or eight guests in the crowd bet without thinking. Some hesitate before placing their bets.

Some bet tens of thousand USD on odd or even.

Some bet over a hundred thousand on colors.

Their bets were big. It was as if they were not betting with their money.

The dealer is a young girl, and Dong Xuebing's old habits act again. He stole a few glances at her before looking at the betting table.

The female staff smiled professionally. "Have you placed your bets? We do not allow any more bets after we start." She paused for a while and said. "This round is starting. Please keep your hands away from the..."

Before she could finish saying 'table,' Dong Xuebing reached out and placed his chip on the table.

22. He placed his chip on a single number. The payout is 36 times.

The dealer looked at Dong Xuebing and did not say anything. But her eyes twitched when she saw it was the smallest denomination chip in the casino.

The other guests were also shocked.

Chapter 1254: Win

One chip.

The smallest denomination casino chip.

The guests had been playing many rounds, and they did not see anyone who placed such a small bet.

The guests in front of the roulette table turned and saw that Dong Xuebing placed the bet. They recognized him. This young man had changed a casino chip with different currencies and small changes.

Fine...

He only got a chip.

But why is he betting on a single number? The possibility of winning is too low.

Everyone shook their heads. Some of them overheard Dong Xuebing boasting about winning a hundred million USD.

This guy is relying on his luck.

How are you going to win a hundred million USD like this?"

You will lose your final chip after this round. Although the payout for single-number bets is high, the risk is also high. The roulette wheel has 36 numbers, and your chances of winning are one out of thirty-six. You will not win unless you are extremely lucky.

"Mr. Dong." Shen Xiaoyan felt the same.

Shen Xiaomei added. "You should not bet like this. Didn't you hear what my sister said?"

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Yes. But it will take ages if I bet like what she said."

"But the chances of you winning is too slim. You should bet on odd/even or color. Why did you bet on a single number?" Shen Xiaomei was anxious.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "It's the same."

Shen Xiaomei grumbled. "He might as well go and play slots."

Shen Xiaoyan pulled her sister. "The bet is placed, and it's too late to take it back. Let's watch first."

The roulette wheel started spinning.

The small ball was dropped into the wheel. It bounced around in the wheel.

Everyone's eyes were staring at the wheel without saying a word.

The wheel slowed and finally stopped. The small ball fell onto number 23, and Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei sighed.

Those who bet on black and odd won.

No one won on single-number bets.

"I told you so." Shen Xiaomei said.

Dong Xuebing did not mind. He smiled and closed his eyes. "BACK 35 seconds."

Everything flashed.

The female staff said. "This round is starting. Please keep your hands away from the..."

Dong Xuebing regained his senses, and his hand was stretched out. Time had returned to the point that he was about to place his bet. He moved his finger slightly and placed his chip on 23 instead of 22.

"Mr. Dong."

"You should not bet like this. Didn't you hear what my sister said?"

"You should bet on odd/even or color. Why did you bet on a single number?"

Shen Xiaomei repeated what she said, but Dong Xuebing did not reply. The dealer continued spinning the wheel.

The wheel started spinning, and this round started.

The small ball was dropped into the wheel, and it jumped about.

The roulette wheel slowed down, and they could see the numbers.

One second...

Two seconds...

Three seconds...

The small ball is going to stop.

The guests held their breaths.

"Stop... stop..."

"One more... move to the next number!"

Tat... tat... the ball bounced twice.

To everyone's surprise, the ball dropped into the number 23 slot.

Shen Xiaomei was stunned. "We won!"

Shen Xiaoyan could not believe her eyes. "We won!"

Zhang Longjuan paused for a second and started laughing. "Well done!"

Dong Xuebing was the only person who bet on 23, and he attracted some of the crowd.

Wow... he won.

He is so lucky. But it's a pity he only bet 1,000 USD.

The dealer had seen many people winning on single-number bets. She was not surprised. She smiled as she counted Dong Xuebing's winnings. She gave him 36 chips. It was hard to hold 36 chips, and Dong Xuebing requested them to change it to 3 ten-thousand USD chips and six one-thousand chips.

Thirty-six thousand USD.

One thousand USD turned into thirty-six thousand USD.

Although it's not a lot, they have some capital now.

Dong Xuebing held his chips and smiled. "I did not disappoint you. Haha... I am quite lucky today."

Zhang Longjuan stroked his face. "You are getting proud. Haha..."

Dong Xuebing blushed. "Err... let's continue."

Shen Xiaoyan smiled and gave him a thumbs-up. "Are you continuing with roulette?"

Dong Xuebing nodded. "I just got familiar with the rules, and I am lucky. Let's play a few more rounds."

"Haha... Ok. I will cheer for you on the sidelines." Zhang Longjuan said.

Dong Xuebing nodded and turned towards the roulette table. The dealer had finished giving out the winnings, and betting for the next round just started.

"Please place your bets." The dealer smiled.

Everyone started placing their bets in the boxes in front of them.

The boxes allow the guests to drop their chips and bet on their desired numbers. If a player places small bets, he can place them directly on the table. For example, Dong Xuebing's single chip bet earlier. Most people will place their chips in the boxes and take a number. After that, they will place their number on the table.

Dong Xuebing took a number too. He had dropped all his chips into a box.

Shen Xiaomei wanted to ask Dong Xuebing to bet smaller. But he dropped all his chips into the box before she could say anything.

"All in?" Shen Xiaomei stared at him.

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Yes. Everything."

Shen Xiaoyan said. "Mr. Dong, are you sure?"

Dong Xuebing replied confidently. "If we are going to bet, bet big. Don't worry."

Zhang Longjuan did not say anything. She smiled as she watched him.

But Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei caught something from Dong Xuebing's reply. They immediately reached out to pull him.

"Don't..."

"Wait..."

But it was too late.

After the dealer asked the guests if they had placed their bets, Dong Xuebing placed his number on number 9. He is betting all his chips on a single number again.

That's it.

They are going to lose everything.

Shen Xiaomei was speechless.

Other players turned and looked at Dong Xuebing.

No one plays like Dong Xuebing. It does not make sense.

This guy is using tactics to bet.

He is betting aimlessly.

He will lose everything in no time.

Chapter 1255: Win Again

The new round started.

The wheel started spinning.

Ta... ta... ta... the small ball started bouncing about in the wheel.

"Ms. Zhang, you should stop him."

"Haha... he is having fun. Let him do whatever he wants."

"He just won thirty-six thousand. We might have a chance to make a comeback."

"He had placed the bet, and we cannot take it back. Haha..."

"Sigh... it's a miracle to win a single-number bet. How can he win twice in a roll? The probability is too low. He should bet it on color. He bet everything, and we got nothing left." Shen Xiaomei was very anxious. But Zhang Longjuan and Dong Xuebing were calm.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "I lost everything earlier, and I lost because I worried too much. That was all I had, and I would be lying if I said I did not care. When my chips ran low, I hesitated in many rounds. I no longer dare to take risks."

Shen Xiaomei replied. "But he cannot... he is too daring."

Zhang Longjuan tidied her hair and said. "Xiao Dong has his ways. He is full of surprises, and I hope he will surprise me this time too."

“Sigh...” Shen Xiaomei sighed.

Shen Xiaoyan did not harbor much hope because she felt they would not win.

The probability of picking the winning number out of thirty-six numbers is around 2%, and the probability of winning twice in a roll is less than 0.1%.

Less than 0.1%?

How are you going to win?

One second...

Three seconds...

Five seconds...

The wheel slowed down.

Most experienced players could tell where the ball would stop at this time. Their eyes were glued to that part of the wheel.

“Black... black... black...”

“25, 28, 25, 28!”

Zero commission means the roulette will not have the ‘win all’ option. This would increase the odds for players. That’s why a lot of guests were betting there. Many held their breaths as they looked at the small ball. Some closed their eyes and mumbled their numbers.

The wheel slowed down more.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei focused on the wheel.

Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan also looked at the wheel.

Ta... ta... The small ball stopped and landed on a number.

When the dealer saw the number, she froze and looked at Dong Xuebing.

Nine!

The winning number is nine!

That was the number Dong Xuebing bet on.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were stunned.

They won!

They won again!

Most players focused on their numbers or color and did not care about others. After the ball stopped, they noticed something was off. They saw Dong Xuebing’s bet and realized he won a single-number bet again!

All the players gasped.

How is this possible?

Damn! This guy is too lucky!

Everyone turned and looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing did not care about them. He seemed to know this would happen. He smiled.

Shen Xiaomei exclaimed. "You are amazing, Mr. Dong."

Dong Xuebing laughed it off and replied modestly. "It's nothing."

Shen Xiaoyan slapped her forehead. "You managed to win with such low odds. This is..."

"Did you see it?" Zhang Longjuan laughed as she wrapped her arms around Dong Xuebing's arm. "I know you are my lucky star. Haha..."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I am lucky."

"You are extremely lucky!" Shen Xiaomei corrected him.

"Go." Zhang Longjuan laughed. "You should collect your winnings. You had won a lot this time."

Dong Xuebing looked at the dealer and saw her in a daze. He hurried her. "Have you finished calculating our winnings?"

The dealer nodded. "Yes, it's done. Please wait." She turned to the staff beside her to get the chips and pressed a green button under the table. The button lit up, and her supervisor was informed. This button is used when the dealer suspects one of the players is cheating.

The supervisor for this zone walked over. He is a guy in his thirties.

"What is it?" The supervisor looked at the dealer.

The dealer whispered something to him. Dong Xuebing and the rest could not hear them but could see her pointing at him and the roulette table.

The supervisor frowned and took out his radio. He seemed to be seeking instructions from his higher-ups.

Zhang Longjuan narrowed her eyes as she looked at them. "What is the meaning of this? Huh?"

The dealer replied. "Please wait for a minute. Sorry for holding you up."

"We had waited long enough." Dong Xuebing looked at her. "When are you going to give me my chips?"

Song Yuhu and a few security guards walked over. He frowned when he saw Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan again.

What is this?

When are they going to stop?

The commotion had attracted many people. Many guests crowded to watch them. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng, who were playing baccarat, also walked over.

Song Yuhu walked to the roulette table. "What happened?"

The supervisor points at Dong Xuebing. "He won twice at roulette."

Song Yuhu did not expect them to be so lucky. They could play for so long with one chip. "What's the big deal? Why do you have to press the button?"

The supervisor replied. "Both bets were single-number bets."

Song Yuhu was shocked. "He bet on the winning number for both rounds?"

The supervisor nodded. "He won twice and bet all his chips each time. They bet one chip in the first round and bet everything in the second round. The dealer felt something was wrong and reported it. I feel something is off too. Should we check them?"

Song Yuhu looked terrible. "Check our equipment."

"Yes. I will arrange it." The supervisor waved to his men.

Dong Xuebing overheard them and laughed. "What is the meaning of this? Are you saying we cannot win twice in a roll? Are you targeting me, Mr. Song?"

Song Yuhu calmly replied. "This is a routine check. Please coordinate with us."

Dong Xuebing looked at him and smiled. He did not say anything.

A few moments later, a few staff came over. They scanned Dong Xuebing's shoes, belt, phone, and belongings with a device. They also checked Zhang Longjuan, Shen Xiaomei, and Shen Xiaoyan but could not find anything wrong with them.

It's luck if they are not cheating.

Song Yuhu looked at Dong Xuebing and thought to himself. This guy is in luck for winning single-number bets twice. He turned to his men. "Check the wheel and other devices. Suspend this table until the checks are completed and apologize to the players."

The supervisor said to the players. "Sorry, everybody. We are checking our equipment. There's a roulette table over there. You all can carry on playing there."

The casino has two roulette tables.

With one table suspended, the other table was full of people.

Dong Xuebing did not mind, and he turned to the dealer. "Shouldn't you give us our chips now?"

"Sorry for the delay." The casino used the most advanced devices and checked Dong Xuebing and the ladies. They had no cheating devices, and the casino had to give them their winnings. Zhang Longjuan was correct. The casino can lose money but cannot have a bad reputation. The casino staff took Dong Xuebing's winnings and pushed the chips to him.

It was over a hundred ten thousand USD chips.

Many guests were envious of Dong Xuebing's luck.

The payout is 36 times, and Dong Xuebing's winnings have reached around 1.3 million USD. It is enough for him to enter the VIP rooms.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei inhaled deeply when they saw the chips.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng looked at them. How can this brat be so lucky? It is not a considerable amount, and they could easily win this amount in two rounds of mahjong. But Dong Xuebing started with the smallest casino denomination chip. He started with 1,000 USD.

Within ten minutes, he won about 1.3 million USD.

How can someone win money so fast?

Senior Zhou and his bodyguards walked over slowly. He looked at Dong Xuebing and then turned to Song Yuhu.

Song Yuhu quickly replied. "We encountered some problems, and I suspended the roulette table temporarily."

Senior Zhou asked. "What happened?"

Song Yuhu replied. "That young man won the single-number bet twice in a row. But we checked and searched them and did not find anything. They were not cheating."

Senior Zhou nodded and did not say anything. But he did not leave. He stood there and watched Dong Xuebing.

Shen Xiaomei asked. "Are we going to the VIP rooms now?"

Dong Xuebing smiled. "There's no rush. We don't have enough money yet. Let's play a few more hands first."

Shen Xiaomei asked. "What are you going to play?"

"Roulette." Dong Xuebing replied and walked over to the other roulette table.

Over a million USD.

I am only warming up.

I said I would win a hundred million USD from you all!

Chapter 1256: All In

International waters.

The sea is rough.

It's very early morning, and the casino is very bright.

Dong Xuebing attracted some attention from other players. But these miracles happened in casinos almost every day. Seasoned gamblers and staff had heard of stories even when they had not seen them. That's the reason why many people love gambling. They heard of people becoming rich overnight and wished they would be one of them. Dong Xuebing winning twice attracted many players to the roulette table. The remaining table became crowded immediately.

Dong Xuebing and the rest walked over too.

They tried squeezing past the crowd but failed.

Shen Xiaomei asked. "Are you sure you are continuing, Mr. Dong?"

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Of course. I am in luck now."

Shen Xiaomei looked at him. "I admit you are lucky today, but your luck will end. You had won twice, and if you bet on a single number... fine. I will not cloud your judgment but listen to me. Don't go all in. At least keep some chips."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Don't worry. I know what I am doing."

Shen Xiaomei did not say anything else. After all, she had tried to stop Dong Xuebing, and she was wrong. She does not dare to suggest anything to Dong Xuebing again.

"Ms. Zhang." Shen Xiaoyan looked at her.

Zhang Longjuan replied. "What is it?"

Shen Xiaoyan paused for a second and asked. "Can you win back your capital with 1.3 million USD if you play?"

Zhang Longjuan replied. "Haha... I don't know."

Shen Xiaoyan replied. "Never mind. I will stop saying now."

Zhang Longjuan understood what she meant. "Xiao Dong won the money and is in luck now. Let him play. It does not matter if he wins or loses."

Shen Xiaoyan nodded and did not continue.

Dong Xuebing was not clear about the roulette rules and how to bet. He does not know how to gamble. His crazy betting method is not something any sane person would do. He is only trying his luck. Shen Xiaoyan felt he might run out of luck anytime. If it was Ms. Zhang, she might win more. She is more experienced than him at gambling.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng walked over.

"You won a lot, Ms. Zhang."

"Are we going to play mahjong? The VIP room is ready. We can start anytime."

They watched Dong Xuebing for a while and were unhappy. They did not expect Zhang Longjuan to make a comeback with one chip. They had lost to her many years ago. When they heard her company required cash urgently, they were overjoyed. They could not miss this opportunity to crush her. They worked with Song Yuhu to set a trap for her.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. "Mahjong? You got to ask my Xiao Dong. Haha... but I think he still wants to play roulette now."

Ms. Leng was surprised. "He still wants to play roulette?"

Mr. Wei smiled. "It's fine. We can wait."

Zhang Longjuan replied. "Ok. Let's talk about it later."

“Sure. But you might not qualify for the VIP rooms if you got less than a million USD. We don’t like to play in the lobby.” Ms. Leng said.

“Haha... I don’t know about it.”

“It is just a gentle reminder.”

They were sarcastic to each other.

Dong Xuebing, who was at the roulette table, overheard and looked at them. He thought to himself. Don’t rush. Haha... I will teach you all a lesson soon.

“Hey! Stop pushing!”

“I am placing my bets! Stop pushing!”

“It’s full. Wait for the next round.”

“It’s full! It’s full! You cannot even bet even if you come to the front.”

The casino accepts all bets. How can it be full?

This table had a lot of people, and it became more crowded after the players from the other table came over. More people were placing bets because of Dong Xuebing. They were affected after seeing him win so much.

The female dealer from the other table came over to help. “Please step back. Please step aside after placing your bets. Thank you.”

The players heard and moved.

Dong Xuebing saw a space and quickly squeezed his way through.

Zhang Longjuan and the twins saw him and followed.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng did not leave. They stood outside and watched them. Song Yuhu was also watching them from a distance. He was wary of Zhang Longjuan because of her skills. Luck played a part when they won against her, and she has 1.3 million USD now. She can recover her capital if she wins on odd/even or color one or two more times. It will be hard to win against her again.

The four of them got to the roulette table.

The female dealer saw them and said. “Please place your bets.”

The other dealer also glanced at Dong Xuebing.

Everyone saw the commotion earlier. Other players saw Dong Xuebing and looked at him curiously.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything. He closed his eyes and waited.

The dealer saw him and said. “Please place your bets, sir. If you are not betting this round, please step aside. This round is starting soon. Please don’t block other players. Thank you.”

Dong Xuebing opened his eyes suddenly and poured all his chips into the box in front. Before anyone could react, he took his number and bet on number 3.

Single number again.

He is betting on a single number again!

He is betting all his chips again!

Everyone was shocked by Dong Xuebing.

No one cared during the first time because it was only one chip. The second bet was thirty-six thousand USD, which was not a lot. Some players bet over a million USD at roulette tables, but they bet on odd/even or colors. The probability of winning is higher. But no one has seen anyone betting 1.3 million USD on a single number. This is unbelievable.

That's more than one million USD!

The players from the previous table felt Dong Xuebing was bold, but they did not expect him to be so bold.

You should not waste your money even if you are wealthy.

Many people were shocked by the way Dong Xuebing bet.

Everyone in the casino is wealthy, but none dare to bet like Dong Xuebing.

Who is this guy? Who bets like him? He is mad.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing. Some were shocked, and some were impressed. Of course, most of them were laughing at him. They felt this guy is sick.

You might be lucky for the first time.

Your luck might not run out for the second time.

But you are betting like this for the third time! Are you crazy?

There's a limit to how lucky you are. Why do you think you can win?

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng exchanged looks and laughed. This is interesting. They do not believe luck is always on Zhang Longjuan's side. That young man still dares to claim he will win a hundred million USD.

He is betting all his chips.

Haha... All in.

They will be left with two pennies if he loses. Let's see how they are going to make a comeback.

Song Yuhu relaxed. He was still worried Zhang Longjuan might win back her money with her one million USD. But this should be the end of their lucky streak.

In front of the roulette table.

The crowd looked at Dong Xuebing and talked among themselves.

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted. "You are doing this again."

Dong Xuebing laughed. "One more time. This is called striking while the iron is hot."

"But you should..." Shen Xiaomei was speechless. She paused for a while and said. "You should at least keep some. How can you bet everything?"

Dong Xuebing watched the wheel spinning and said. "We don't need to save any chips. This is the way I do things. Once I decide on something, I will not back out." This was also the reason why he was called the God of Plagues. He would persuade others to hold back and not go all out. But when it comes to himself, he will go all out. This is why he offended so many people during his three years in the government service.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "You are bolder than me."

Shen Xiaomei was speechless. "Which number did you bet on?"

"Three." Dong Xuebing replied.

Shen Xiaomei clenched her fist and mumbled something under her breath.

Shen Xiaoyan was dumbfounded. But it was too late to change anything. She can only pray like her sister. Ms. Zhang had cared for them these few days, and they wished they could help.

There's nothing much they can do now, as it is all up to Dong Xuebing. He had bet everything on number 3. If they lost...

This is a huge bet.

1.3 million USD on a single number.

The players from other tables heard what happened and looked.

Chapter 1257: Crazy Luck

Casino lobby.

The roulette table is now the focus of the casino.

Other than a few guests at the slot machines and those inside the VIP rooms, more than half of the guests and staff in the main hall were looking at the roulette table.

The roulette wheel started spinning.

The small ball bounced around, and no one could tell where it would land.

Zhang Longjuan was calm. She smiled as she looked at the wheel spinning.

Dong Xuebing crossed his arms and looked relaxed.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were not composed like them. They were anxious and looked at the wheel nervously. Dong Xuebing's first bet was on a single number. They only got a 1,000 USD chip, but it's different now. That chip had turned into 1.3 million USD, and he was betting all of it on a single number.

They could leave the casino if they lost the initial 1,000 USD.

But losing after they won over a million USD...

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei would lose sleep over it.

Behind the crowd.

Song Yuhu did not think they would win and did not look at them. Miracles might happen once or twice. But it will not happen the third time. But he did not leave as Senior Zhou was still looking at the roulette table and them.

“Xiao Song...” Senior Zhou said.

Song Yuhu replied quickly. “What’s your instruction, Senior Zhou?”

Senior Zhou points to the roulette table with his walking stick. “Send someone to check if anything is wrong.”

Song Yuhu knows that if anyone were to cheat in roulette, it would be the moment when the ball stopped. Although they had checked the equipment and knew Dong Xuebing and the women were not carrying any devices, they still needed to be cautious. But before Song Yuhu could send his men, the wheel slowed. The crowd rushed forward for a closer look. Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins were pushed to the back. They stood outside of the crowd and could not get near the table.

Senior Zhou said. “You don’t need to send anyone now.”

Song Yuhu nodded. They were standing far from the table and could not cheat. It’s hard to cheat if they are near the table.

The casino’s security was tight.

No one was allowed to bring any devices in.

The roulette wheel got slower.

This was the final moment before the ball land on a number.

“2... 2... 2...!”

“Odd! Odd!”

“Even! Even!”

“Red had appeared for the past few rounds! It should be black this time!”

The excitement is contagious. The crowd got more excited after a few people shouted.

Dong Xuebing was speechless. He wanted to go nearer, but he was injured. He could not push through the crowd. So, he stood outside of the crowd and waited.

Shen Xiaomei stretched her neck to look through the crowd. “What’s the number? Which number did the ball land?”

“I cannot see it from here. There are too many people.” Shen Xiaoyan moved around to see the wheel.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “The crowd got so excited because of our Xiao Dong. He made a big bet on a single number, and the payout is 36 times. I got excited thinking about it. Haha...”

Dong Xuebing laughed. “Don’t worry. Your company will survive.”

“Thanks for your kind words.” Zhang Longjuan smiled.

“Ah, what’s the ball now?” Shen Xiaomei was anxious. “I cannot see.”

“Listen to the people in front.” Dong Xuebing tried to hear what the people in front were saying.

The crowd was shouting.

“Stop! Stop!”

“Stop at 7!”

“It got past 7!”

“35!”

“35! 35!”

“It will land on 35!”

“It will be 35!”

“Yes... yes... yes...”

The numbers on the roulette wheel are spread out.

Shen Xiaomei and the rest looked terrible when they heard the people in front shouting 35.

35!

It’s over...

They lost over a million USD.

They only got 2 pennies left. They could not perform another miracle as they had no single chip left. They don’t even know how to return after getting off the ship.

“35!”

“Stop at 35!”

“Ah! Stop! Stop at 35!”

“Stop! Stop! Stop!”

Many people bet on 35’s color and odd.

Suddenly, the crowd went quiet.

It seemed everyone froze.

Shen Xiaomei panicked. “What happened?”

Shen Xiaoyan asked. “Which number did the ball stop? 35?”

The next moment, everyone turned and looked at Dong Xuebing as if he were a ghost.

Shen Xiaomei gasped. “Don’t tell me...”

Shen Xiaoyan got impatient and pushed through the crowd with her sister.

The crowd parted to make a path for them. The two dealers and a casino staff looked at them in shock.

The ball did not land on 35.

It bounced at the final moment and landed on the following number.

It's number 3!

Number 3!

WTF!

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted.

Shen Xiaoyan inhaled deeply.

Zhang Longjuan did not expect to win, and she was dumbfounded.

They won!

Dong Xuebing bet on the winning number again!

The crowd burst out after a few seconds of silence.

“F!”

“This is crazy!”

“How is this possible?”

“That guy bet on the winning number three times in a row!”

“Who is this guy?”

“Is he the God of Gamblers? Even the God of Gamblers will not have this luck!”

Song Yuhu was stunned. He stood there with his eyes opened wide.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng could not believe their eyes.

Senior Zhou narrowed his eyes and looked at Dong Xuebing.

Everyone in the casino was shocked by Dong Xuebing's luck.

They were shocked.

The first time is luck.

The second time is a miracle.

It happened for the third time!

It is almost impossible for anyone to win a single-number bet three times!

Three wins in a row!

The crowd went wild!

Chapter 1258: Over 46 Million USD!

Early morning.

4.30 am.

The casino lobby had gone mad.

“This guy is so accurate!”

“Eh, what happened? Who won?”

“Did you just come? That young man won again!”

“That’s right. He bet and won three times on the winning number!”

“What? Three times? Fk! How much is that?”

“He bet around 1.3 million USD, and the payout is 36 times. He won tens of millions of USD!”

More people gathered. Some high-rollers in the VIP room heard what happened and came out to watch.

Song Yuhu turned to the old man beside him. “Senior Zhou, this...”

Senior Zhou asked. “Do you think he cheated?”

Song Yuhu replied. “It’s rare for anyone to win a single-number bet, let alone three times. How can anyone be so lucky? It is statically impossible!”

Senior Zhou replied slowly. “You also saw he was standing away from the roulette wheel at the end.”

Song Yuhu kept quiet. Many people saw Dong Xuebing, and the women were pushed out of the crowd towards the end of that round. They could not cheat from that distance. “Was it luck?”

Senior Zhou shook his head. “I don’t know.”

“What should we do now?” Song Yuhu inhaled deeply.

The dealer looked at the people in charge, waiting for their instructions.

Dong Xuebing knocked on the roulette table. “Hey, shouldn’t you give me my winnings? The payout is 36 times.”

The supervisor was sweating profusely. “This...”

Dong Xuebing looked at him. “You all set the rules, and this casino is opened by you all. Could you give me my winnings now? Why are you all so reluctant to give me my winnings every time I win? Why is Hong Kong’s biggest gambling ship so petty? Everyone is watching you.”

The supervisor looked at Song Yuhu.

The dealers and staff could not make the decision.

The winning is too big. It is almost half of the casino’s profits today. If they pay Dong Xuebing, half of the casino’s profits today will be gone.

Only the higher-ups can decide.

Dong Xuebing turned and looked toward Song Yuhu and Senior Zhou.

Senior Zhou hit the floor with his walking stick. "Give him his winnings."

Song Yuhu protested. "Senior Zhou, this..."

"Give it to him." Senior Zhou said. "We will pay as long he is not cheating."

The supervisor immediately asked the dealers and staff to get the chips. After a while, they returned with five to six trays of 10,000 USD chips. Dong Xuebing placed his empty suitcase on the table for the dealers and staff to put the chips in. All guests looked at them enviously.

One tray of chips...

Three trays of chips...

Five trays of chips...

The total was almost five thousand chips.

The suitcase was almost half full.

Zhang Longjuan's digital suitcase was a large reinforced suitcase. This scene was shocking. Most players in the casino exchanged tens of thousands or a few million USD. Those high-rollers would exchange around ten million USD at most. Not many people had seen so many casino chips in a suitcase.

The dealer said. "Please check your chips."

The total was over 46 million USD.

Dong Xuebing's eye twitched when he saw the chips.

This is almost 300 million RMB! Dong Xuebing's house, rings, and savings are worth slightly more than these chips.

Many guests looked at the chips in the suitcase.

Dong Xuebing counted the chips briefly and closed the suitcase. It was heavy.

Shen Xiaomei walked over and carried the suitcase. She was surprised by the weight of it.

They got the money too fast.

One thousand USD became almost 50 million USD within half an hour.

This is a miracle!

Everyone in the casino was looking at Dong Xuebing.

They had seen someone winning a lot of money and heard of someone who went from rags to riches overnight. But they had never met anyone who gambled like this young man.

One casino chip.

All in on every bet.

One chip was fine. Thirty-six chips were nothing too. But this guy dropped over a million USD into the box and bet everything on a single number. Who else has this courage and composure?

Who is this guy?

This guy is crazy.

Dong Xuebing looked at Zhang Longjuan and smiled. "I did not disappoint you, Sis Zhang."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "You had surprised me again, brat."

Shen Xiaoyan thought to herself. This is no longer a surprise. It's shocking! What incredible luck do you have?

"What should we do now?" Dong Xuebing asked.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. "I will not interfere. You can decide."

Shen Xiaomei smiled wearily. "I will not say anything else, Mr. Dong. Just do whatever you like."

Zhang Longjuan nodded. "You decide. I brought five million USD onboard and lost everything. You win this money and can decide what you want to do with it."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Don't say that. Don't forget that you gave the most when we pooled our money."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "It was not a big amount."

"This is important. Anyway, I am not going to keep anything." Dong Xuebing said.

"The winnings will be given to you to settle your company's financial issues. I got a job and did not spend much. Money is meaningless to me."

Shen Xiaoyan interrupted. "My Sis and I did not help much. We only came up with a few hundred HKD. We don't care how you will split the winnings with Ms. Zhang. Just don't count us in."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "Let's talk about it after we get back."

Shen Xiaomei asked. "Is this money enough to tide your company over?"

"It's far from it." Zhang Longjuan laughed. "But it is enough to extend for around two weeks."

Shen Xiaomei asked. "Then how much do you need to settle all your problems?"

Zhang Longjuan thought about it and replied. "I need at least two hundred million USD to solve all my financial issues. But never mind. Dragging two weeks more is good enough."

"Two hundred million USD..." Dong Xuebing thought about it.

Shen Xiaoyan asked. "Are we continuing to play, or should we go back?"

Shen Xiaomei replied. "Should we stop now? Err... I am not suggesting anything."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I announced I would win over a hundred million USD from them. How can I stop now? Moreover, Sis Zhang's company requires two hundred million USD. I will win it since I am on a winning streak." Before they could reply, he took the suitcase and turned to the roulette table. To everybody's shock, Dong Xuebing opened the suitcase and poured all the chips into the box. He shook the box at the end to ensure no chip was left.

All in!

This guy is betting on everything again!

This is 46 million USD!

Everyone was stunned. What is this guy thinking? He is not treating those chips as money!

Everyone's attitude towards Dong Xuebing now had changed. Some felt he was reckless earlier and did not know how to gamble. But after winning three times, no one thinks like this.

He could win three times.

Who knows if he can win the fourth or fifth time?

This is possible based on his past results.

All the guests looked at Dong Xuebing. They did not place any bets as they were waiting for him. Many had decided to follow his bet.

The atmosphere in the casino changed.

Song Yuhu was looking terrible.

The supervisor and dealers were wary.

They might as well close the casino if Dong Xuebing wins again.

Senior Zhou's eyelid twitched, and said slowly to Song Yuhu. "Close the table for maintenance."

"Yes. I understand." Song Yuhu wiped his sweat and walked over quickly. He announced that the table would be closed for maintenance. The players who had placed their bets will get back their chips.

Some guests protested.

"Why are you suspending the roulette table again?"

"What is this?"

"Are you not allowing us to play? Both roulette tables have stopped."

"Are you scared of losing money to that young man?"

Song Yuhu apologized. "I am sorry. There might be some problems with our roulette wheel today."

Many players grumbled and left for other games. They understood what the casino was thinking. That young man had won three times, and the casino checked. They did not find evidence of him cheating and might suspect an issue with the roulette wheel. That's why they suspended the roulette tables.

Dong Xuebing looked at the casino staff without saying a word.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were relieved. They were afraid Dong Xuebing might lose. That's almost fifty million USD.

Song Yuhu waved.

A few dealers packed Dong Xuebing's chips into his suitcase and returned it to him. "Please check your chips. We are sorry about it."

Dong Xuebing did not say anything nor take the suitcase.

The dealer was sweating. "Sir, please..."

Senior Zhou walked over and smiled. "Young man, just treat it as giving me 'face.' We must check our roulette tables and will not resume play today."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Then who is going to give me 'face?'"

Senior Zhou smiled. "All right. I heard you are going to play with Xiao Song and his friends. I will let you all use the Platinum VIP room."

Chapter 1259: Platinum VIP Room!

Casino lobby.

The crowd dispersed.

Some customers were still discussing the roulette tables. Only Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, the twins, Song Yuhu, and Senior Zhou remained.

"Platinum VIP room?" Dong Xuebing looked at the old man.

"Yes. Only I have the authority to use the room. Xiao Song does not have this authority." Senior Zhou replied.

"It is a class higher than other VIP rooms. What is so special about it?" Dong Xuebing asked.

Senior Zhou explained. "The Platinum Room is the most high-class room in our casino. We use this room to host the VVIPs, who do not want to reveal themselves. I will make an exception for you and let you use that room. However, the rules in the Platinum Room are slightly different. The maximum bet for the VIP room is 1 million USD and 5 million USD for the Platinum room. There's no limit to how much you win. Take Mahjong as an example. Self-drawn win payout is several times higher than ordinary VIP rooms. If you agree, I will let my men prepare the room and bring you all over. What do you say?"

Dong Xuebing looked at him. "The highest bet is five million USD?"

Senior Zhou nodded and laughed. "You can discuss among yourselves and set the rules and bet."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "No need. We will follow your rules."

Senior Zhou looked at him. "Have you decided? I will ask my staff to prepare the room."

Dong Xuebing's 46 million USD is not a lot if the single bet is 5 million USD.

Dong Xuebing thought nothing about it and nodded. "Yes. Thank you."

"Good. It's rare to see young people who are so confident like you."

Senior Zhou's bodyguard took a card from him and left.

Song Yuhu looked at Zhang Longjuan and Dong Xuebing and waved Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng over. They walked behind Senior Zhou, Dong Xuebing, and the rest followed them.

Shen Xiaoyan asked softly. “Are you going to play with them?”

Dong Xuebing replied. “Of course. They cheated Sis Zhang’s money. How can I let them off lightly? Moreover, Song Yuhu almost killed your sister and you. We got to settle this score with them. It does not matter if we cannot play roulette. They need to be taught a lesson. I will win Sis Zhang’s money back from them and make them lose everything.”

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “Mahjong?”

“Yes. I will play Mahjong with them.” Dong Xuebing said.

Shen Xiaomei looked at him. “Are you good at mahjong?”

Shen Xiaoyan looked at Dong Xuebing after seeing him replying confidently.

Dong Xuebing’s reply shocked them. “I know the rules and how to win. But I seldom play.”

Shen Xiaomei gasped. “You don’t know how to play mahjong.”

Dong Xuebing retorted. “I know. Didn’t I say I know the rules?”

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted. “Knowing the rules does not mean you know how to play.”

Dong Xuebing laughed. “It’s enough to beat them.”

Zhang Longjuan laughed. “Our handsome boy is so confident. We will fight them to the end. But you must be careful. They will be working together against you. You will be disadvantaged at Mahjong. I suggest you set a ‘no eat’ and ‘no pong’ rule before the game. This will prevent them from giving each other tiles.”

Shen Xiaomei added. “That’s right. How are you going to win against three of them?”

Dong Xuebing replied confidently. “It’s fine. They cannot win against me.”

“Oh, you are so confident.” Zhang Longjuan looked at him.

Dong Xuebing replied. “It’s not a problem to win them.”

Zhang Longjuan nodded. “I am looking forward to seeing your mahjong skill.”

At the end of the corridor.

They went up the stairs and entered a grand and luxurious hall. This is the Platinum Room. Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were in awe when they entered.

This room has been renovated nicely.

The room is separated into many sections, each with its table.

This does not look like a room. It looks more like a mini-casino.

Senior Zhou turned and asked Dong Xuebing. "Do you want me to arrange for other guests to play Mahjong? I can let Xiao Song play and find two other players for you. You can also find other players yourself. But they must have enough capital."

It is unfair for Dong Xuebing to play against three players.

Most people will not win in this situation.

Dong Xuebing replied. "No need. All the players are here."

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng glanced at Dong Xuebing. They felt he was boastful.

Dong Xuebing was getting arrogant. Most people will avoid going up against three players in Mahjong. But he is not going to let them off. He is going to win all of them at once. This will save the trouble of switching players later.

Senior Zhou looked at him. "Can I watch by the side?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "You cannot stay behind me. I don't care about others."

Senior Zhou laughed. "Of course. Don't worry about people giving hand signals to cheat. I will not allow it to happen."

Song Yuhu asked. "Shall we start?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Wait a minute. I need a smoke."

Senior Zhou said. "All right. Let's take a ten minutes break. Xiao Liu, prepare the table."

A female dealer acknowledged politely and left to set up the table.

Dong Xuebing walked to the rest area with Zhang Longjuan to smoke.

Zhang Longjuan reminded. "Haha... I am not nagging at you, but I must remind you. This is their territory, and the staff are their people. You must be careful. I will be watching them from the back. But I think they will not dare to cheat."

Dong Xuebing nodded. He is not afraid of them cheating. Who can cheat better than him? STOP is the most powerful cheat.

"Sis Zhang."

"Huh?"

"Explain to me how to win."

"Win? Don't you know the rules?"

"I know, but... The rules here are different from how we play at home, and I don't know much about some winning hands. We don't have 'Three Dragons' or 'Thirteen Wonders.'"

Mahjong is played differently in different regions.

Beijing got its own rules, and Sichuan got its own. Hong Kong's rules are different too.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were speechless when they heard it. You don't know anything and dare to play Mahjong with them? You don't know how to win and claim you know the rules. What are you thinking?

How dare you come to the Platinum Room?

You are too bold.

"I forgot about it." Zhang Longjuan said. "I will tell you about it. Most winning hands are the same. You only need to remember the basics. We don't have time, and I will tell you about the commonly seen winning hands. I will skip those rare hands which most people might not get in their lives."

"Don't. You must tell me about the rare winning hands."

"Haha... you are greedy. Fine. Listen carefully."

Zhang Longjuan told Dong Xuebing about the rules and her experiences. She noticed he was not paying attention when she shared her experiences and how to play the game. She smiled and stopped sharing her experiences. She only tells him all the big winning hands.

One minute...

Three minutes...

Five minutes...

Zhang Longjuan finished.

Dong Xuebing nodded. "I understand."

Zhang Longjuan snubbed her cigarette and said calmly. "Don't feel pressure. Winning or losing does not matter. We won this money from a chip. We will not feel the pain. Haha..."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Don't worry. I will not lose."

"Sure." Zhang Longjuan said and lifted his face. She smiled and kissed his forehead.

"This is a blessing from me. Go!"

Dong Xuebing blushed and cleared his throat. "I am going."

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were embarrassed after looking at them.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng stood before the mahjong table. They were ready.

They started rolling dice for the seats after Dong Xuebing walked over.

Mr. Wei sat in the 'North' seat. He is the banker in the first round. Dong Xuebing is before him and will be the last to be the banker.

The seats were set, and all of them got into their seats.

Zhang Longjuan and the twins sat behind Dong Xuebing.

Senior Zhou sat behind Song Yuhu, and many people entered the room.

Some were casino staff.

Some were the Platinum VIP room.

Some guests, who were dressed smartly, entered. Their status is higher than other guests. They are at least Zhang Longjuan's level and seemed invited by Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng. Platinum VIP room players can bring guests in to watch or play.

Two guests sat behind Mr. Wei.

Three sat behind Ms. Leng.

The seats for spectators were limited, and the bodyguards sat in the rest area.

The casino seldom opens the Platinum VIP room. Something big will happen every time it opens. The bets there would amount to tens of million USD.

All the spectators know Dong Xuebing is going up against the three of them. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng are above average at Mahjong. People who know Song Yuhu well will know his gambling skills. After all, he is the person in charge of this casino. No guests, including the casino staff, felt Dong Xuebing would win.

You might be good at roulette, but you might not be good at Mahjong.

Roulette is based on luck, and it is different from Mahjong.

Chapter 1260: Beginner!

Early morning.

Before 5 am.

Platinum VIP room. The mahjong game started.

Mr. Wei rolled the dice, counted, and grabbed his tiles.

The next player is Ms. Leng, followed by Song Yuhu, and Dong Xuebing is last.

Dong Xuebing arranged his tiles clumsily. He placed all his character tiles on his left, bamboo in the center, and circles on the right. The Winds and Dragon tiles were placed at the end. He is going to discard the Winds and Dragon tiles. He took a while to arrange his tiles as he had not played Mahjong long. He played a few rounds during Lunar New Year with his family members, and they did not play with money.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing weirdly.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were dumbfounded.

Dong Xuebing looked up and noticed everyone was looking at him. He thought to himself. I am not the banker, and it's not my turn to discard a tile. Why are you all looking at me? Look at your tiles. He looked at the table and noticed that other players did not arrange their tiles. He remembered Sis Zhang did not arrange her tiles when she played earlier. He was confused then and felt uncomfortable seeing the tiles in a mess. He thought about it and understood why they did not arrange their tiles now. No one can see his tiles besides himself, Sis Zhang, and the twins. But arranging them in ascending or descending order will let other players know which tiles he needs. He will lose if other players can guess his tiles.

Huh?

Mahjong has so many tactics.

Dong Xuebing played Mahjong with his family for fun and did not mind these tactics.

No wonder they are looking at me.

They must be thinking that I am a beginner.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat and started to mess up his tiles. He placed the 5 Circles among the bamboo and 6 Characters among the circles. This will make it harder for other players to guess his tiles, but he messed them up. He cursed in his heart and rearranged the tiles in ascending order again. He is not used to it. He does not care anymore. He will play in his way.

Dong Xuebing looked at Mr. Wei impatiently. "Discard a tile. What are you waiting for?"

Mr. Wei was speechless. "I discarded it a while ago. Ms. Leng and Mr. Song had discarded their tiles too."

Damn! Everyone waits for you, and you only focus on arranging your tiles. You still dare to rush me?

Ms. Leng and Song Yuhu were speechless.

Zhang Longjuan laughed loudly.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat embarrassedly. "How come I did not hear it? Err... East Wind."

Mr. Wei grabbed a tile and felt it with his finger. He discarded it without looking. "Red Dragon."

It was a 'Red Dragon' tile. These people can tell the tiles just by feeling them.

Ms. Leng grabbed a tile and placed it at the end before discarding another tile.

Song Yuhu was fast too. Within a few seconds, they had discarded their tiles, and it was Dong Xuebing's turn again.

Dong Xuebing grabbed a tile and tried feeling it with his fingers. Huh? What is this tile?

He turned it. It was '9 Bamboo.'

Dong Xuebing knows that learning to feel the tiles will take a while. He did not embarrass himself and started looking at his other tiles. He has '8 Bamboo' and needs a 'seven Bamboo' to form a set of three. But he will be waiting for a single tile. The chances of getting it are low. The '5 and 6 Characters' has higher chances of forming a set. But he still has '1 and 3 Bamboos.' Which tile should he discard?

His hand is quite good.

Dong Xuebing hesitated and could not decide.

About half a minute later, he discarded a tile. "1 Circle."

Mr. Wei and the rest were frustrated. You are too slow.

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing.

The other guests and staff were thinking to themselves. Does this guy know how to play Mahjong?

Dong Xuebing had won big at the roulette tables. Although no one thinks he can win against three opponents, they felt he should be good at Mahjong. Why would he agree to play in the Platinum Room if he is not good? However, his actions show he is a beginner. He looks like he just learned how to play.

This is the Platinum VIP room.

The bets here are much higher than in the main lobby outside.

You don't even know how to play Mahjong and are playing with others here?

Who is as bold as you? You are reckless!

Mahjong is entirely different from roulette. You need to know how to play even if you got all the luck in the world. You might not win even if you got good tiles.

Some guests felt this might be Dong Xuebing's way of playing. After all, everyone has their style of playing. Maybe he knows how to play. But these guests changed their minds a few minutes later.

Dong Xuebing discarded '5 Bamboo', which was not discarded before.

This is mid-game, and some players might be waiting for their winning tiles. Most players will not discard any new tiles. But Dong Xuebing did not know and discarded it. He is not wary of other players. The guests felt nervous looking at him play. Luckily, the other players do not need this tile. Maybe Song Yuhu, Ms. Leng, and Mr. Wei were seasoned players. They will not wait for such an apparent winning tile and did not expect him to discard it.

Seasoned players got confused when they played with a beginner. They exchanged looks speechlessly.

*Ta!

"Bird." Beijing calls '1 Bamboo' a bird.

Dong Xuebing discarded another unseen tile.

Mr. Wei thought to himself. You are reckless. How can you discard these unseen tiles now?

Mr. Wei had been holding on to '1 Bamboo' for a while and dared not to discard it. He saw Dong Xuebing discarding it, and he discarded it during his turn.

Dong Xuebing did not know he had discarded the wrong tiles. The people he played with previously were around his standards. They do not count or defend against other players. He could not even manage his tiles and did not care about other players.

Finally, something happened when Dong Xuebing discarded '2 Characters.'

Song Yuhu pushed a few tiles over. "Kong."

Dong Xuebing was surprised. "Ah, you got three '2 characters.'"

Song Yuhu grabbed a tile and discarded it. He was disappointed he did not get his winning tile, or he would win big.

Dong Xuebing was not waiting for any tiles to win. He grabbed a tile and discarded it.

"Win!" Ms. Leng smiled and turned her tiles over. "Seven Doubles."

Dong Xuebing had thrown the tile for another player to win, but he thought nothing about it. “You got good tiles, Ms. Leng.”

I got good tiles? Ms. Leng rubbed her temples and ignored him. They had tried to let Mr. Wei win as he was the banker. They threw the tiles he needed, but he could not win. She was afraid Dong Xuebing might win and ended this round with a small win. Her tiles were not good, and Dong Xuebing was bad with Mahjong.

“Are we settling the payout after each round?”

“Ok. We will follow the way we played earlier.”

The dealer walked to the table and counted the tiles.

Dong Xuebing had discarded Ms. Leng’s winning tile, so he lost more. They are playing in the Platinum VIP room, with higher bets. He lost 480,000 USD worth of chips in this round.

Dong Xuebing did not mind. “Let’s continue.”

It was Ms. Leng’s turn to be the banker, and she was lucky. She won very early in the game.

Although it was not a big win, it was a ‘self-drawn’ win, and she was the banker.

Dong Xuebing lost almost 200,000 USD in this game. Within a short time, he lost more than half a million USD. The bets were much higher than when Sis Zhang played in the VIP room.

The next round started.

Ms. Leng was still the banker.

Dong Xuebing continued to play recklessly and discarded tiles without thinking.

The other players got used to Dong Xuebing’s way of play and guessed what tiles he needed from the tiles’ position in his hands.

“Pong!”

“Chow!”

“Chow!”

Dong Xuebing gave the other players the tiles they needed.

Other than him, the other players were waiting for the final time to win.

Dong Xuebing discarded ‘3 circles’ and Song Yuhu ‘Kong.’ He grabbed his winning tile after that.

Dong Xuebing lost a few hundred thousand USD again.

Dong Xuebing was unfazed.

The onlookers shook their heads. They could tell Dong Xuebing does not know how to play and is ignorant about the strategies used in the game.

How can you discard those unseen tiles halfway through the game?

You were feeding them with the tiles they needed.

You are clueless about Mahjong. No one who knows how to play will not discard those tiles.

Everyone was confused about what Dong Xuebing was doing. Even if you don't know how to play, you should know the basic.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng were in good spirits.

A beginner is giving them money!
