Chapter 1261: False Win!

Inside the lobby.

After 5 am.

The quiet room slowly becomes noisy.

The spectators were discussing Dong Xuebing's play. He was discarding the tiles recklessly and letting other players win. What's worse was that he did not think he had discarded the wrong tiles. He continued to discard tiles without thinking. He acted as if he lost because the other players had good hands.

No one knows what to say about him.

One round...

Three rounds...

Five rounds...

"3 characters."

"Win!"

After Song Yuhu became the banker, he won five consecutive times.

Song Yuhu had big and small wins. He did not care about his hand as long as he could continue to be the banker. With Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng's help, he won easily.

Consecutive wins as a banker will add additional points. Small wins will become big wins, and big wins will become bigger wins. Dong Xuebing had discarded the winning tiles, and his 46 million USD became 38 million USD within half an hour.

His money will be gone in no time if this continues.

This round ended, and Song Yuhu smiled. He is going to be the banker in the next round.

Before the next round started, Zhang Longjuan called Dong Xuebing. "Take a break, Xiao Dong. Come here for a smoke."

Dong Xuebing nodded and walked to Zhang Longjuan.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng left their seats for the bathroom and had a drink.

Dong Xuebing sat beside Zhang Longjuan, and she lit a cigarette for him. She smiled. "You don't know how to play mahjong."

Dong Xuebing smoked and said. "Didn't I tell you that I only know the rules? The playing style here is different from how we play at home."

Shen Xiaomei thought to herself. This is more than different.

Shen Xiaoyan said. "We saw your tiles earlier. You should not discard those tiles."

Dong Xuebing replied. "I know I should not discard some of those tiles, but those were useless to me. How am I going to win if I do not discard them?"

"But did you win?" Shen Xiaomei interrupted. "You did not even win once."

Shen Xiaomei nodded. "Some tiles must never be discarded even if you cannot win. It is better than discarding and letting another player win."

Dong Xuebing listened and said. "Ok. I will try later."

Shen Xiaomei looked at him. "How about you let Ms. Zhang play for you? You are left with over 30 million USD now, and you will lose everything if you carry on."

Zhang Longjuan laughed. "It's all right. It does not matter if you lose everything."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Don't worry. It is not my turn to be the banker. I will win when it's my turn. Don't be anxious. It's only after 5 am. Let me tease them for a while. Haha..." Dong Xuebing was not anxious. If he wants to win, he will win big. These small wins mean nothing to him. Since he sat at the mahjong table, he decided to teach them a lesson when he was the banker. He will let them win now and let them lose everything. It is the same strategy they used against Sis Zhang earlier. He is going to do the same thing to them!

Lose?

Dong Xuebing only lost about ten million USD.

This is just starting.

Dong Xuebing replied confidently. "Wait for me to be the banker. Let them be happy for now."

Shen Xiaomei tapped her forehead. "You might lose everything before you become the banker."

"Is it possible? I will be the banker after Song Yuhu." Dong Xuebing felt he would become a banker soon.

Dong Xuebing looked at Zhang Longjuan.

Zhang Longjuan nodded. "This is possible. You discard your tiles recklessly, and the other two players are 'feeding' Song Yuhu with the tiles he needs. He can continue winning with his skills."

"Ah..."

"You must be careful."

"All right. I will win this round." Dong Xuebing decided and looked at Song Yuhu and the rest. He smiled. "Their happiness will end now."

Shen Xiaomei mumbled. "How are you going to win?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "I will win. I am going."

Shen Xiaoyan reminded. "Remember what I said. Don't discard your tiles recklessly, Mr. Dong."

Dong Xuebing walked toward the mahjong table and waved to her.

The spectator seats.

The guests were getting impatient.

“Are we continuing to watch?”

“That’s right. It’s boring.”

“It should be interesting because the stakes are high. But...”

“This is a one-sided game. What’s so interesting about it?”

“That young man is a noob. You can tell he seldom plays mahjong. How is he going to win?”

“Let’s go.”

“Yes. Anyway, his 30 million USD can last him around an hour more. He might lose everything before an hour. Mr. Song is on a winning streak.”

“Let’s watch for a while more.”

“Sigh... I thought it would be an interesting game.”

“That’s right. He had lost 10 million USD.”

No one felt Dong Xuebing would win, but they did not know he would lose so fast. This is no longer losing money. He is giving his winnings to the other players. He had won over 40 million USD earlier and should stop then. Why did he insist on playing mahjong? He doesn’t even know the basics and is discarding his tiles recklessly.

Everyone returned after a short break.

Dong Xuebing smiled and looked at Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng until the hairs on their back stood.

What are you looking at?

Why are you smiling at us?

How can you smile when you lose almost ten million USD?

Song Yuhu and the rest shook their heads. After a few rounds of mahjong, they don’t need to think when discarding their tiles. This is because he does not know how to play, and they don’t need to play cautiously. They would win anyway.

Song Yuhu smiled. “I still don’t know your name.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “My surname is Dong.”

“Mr. Dong.” Song Yuhu nodded. “Let’s continue.”

Dong Xuebing smiled and replied. “Sure. Let’s continue. Haha...”

Although Dong Xuebing looked the same, Senior Zhou, Zhang Longjuan, and others noticed he had changed. He was giving out a different energy.

Senior Zhou frowned. "Xiao Song."

"Ah?" Song Yuhu turned. "Yes, Senior Zhou?"

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing and said softly to Song Yuhu. "Be careful. Don't be careless."

Don't be careless? Is Senior Zhou asking me to be careful of this young man? Song Yuhu nodded. "I know."

Dong Xuebing looked at Senior Zhou and smiled.

Senior Zhou returned a smile to Dong Xuebing.

Shen Xiaomei asked softly. "Can Mr. Dong win, Ms. Zhang?"

"I don't know." Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing's back and smiled. "But his energy changed."

Shen Xiaomei replied. "What can he do after his energy change? His energy cannot help him win."

"Haha... I don't know about this. Maybe this brat has some tricks up his sleeves."

Zhang Longjuan knows Dong Xuebing the longest and understands him more than the twins.

"He got tricks up his sleeves?" Shen Xiaoyan was puzzled.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. "Just watch him. He said he would win this round."

This round started.

But the energy of this round was different.

After Senior Zhou's reminder, Song Yuhu was going all out. He was not reckless because Dong Xuebing did not know how to play. He was cautious about every tile he discarded.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng also played cautiously.

But Dong Xuebing was the same. He continued to 'Chow' and 'Pong' without thinking. He did not heed Shen Xiaoyan's reminder and discarded his tiles recklessly.

"5 Characters."

Dong Xuebing had discarded an unseen tile midway through the game.

Many people got nervous for him. Watching Dong Xuebing play mahjong feels like they were watching a horror movie scene.

Senior Zhou glanced at Dong Xuebing and noticed the changes in the latter's eyes.

The game entered the last phase. Song Yuhu and Mr. Wei were waiting for their winning tiles. Dong Xuebing was also waiting for his final tile to win.

Zhang Longjuan and the rest watched Dong Xuebing's hand from the back. Although he had discarded a few dangerous tiles, he still had a chance to win.

Yes, he might win, but the chances are low.

Dong Xuebing needs '9 Bamboo' to win, but only one '9 Bamboo' is left.

Three '9 Bamboo' had been discarded. Zhang Longjuan also might not win if she was playing.

The chances of winning are too slim.

Also, Song Yuhu is waiting for more tiles to win.

The game continued...

Dong Xuebing did not get the '9 Bamboo' he needed.

Song Yuhu looks like he will win, as he got a better hand.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything. He picked it up when it was his turn to grab a tile. It was a character tile. '3 Character.'

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan saw that tile Dong Xuebing grabbed.

'3 Character'

It is not the winning tile again.

They hoped Dong Xuebing would get '9 Bamboo'.

But Dong Xuebing slammed the tile on the table and said something that made Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei's jaws drop. "Self-drawn win!"

Chapter 1262: Cheat?

Mahjong table.

Dong Xuebing finally won. He slammed the 3 Character tile on the table and turned his tiles over.

He won.

He finally won one round.

Its not easy. How many hands was it?

At least he broke Mr. Songs winning streak.

The onlookers were not surprised. This game was played for so long, and this young man had discarded the winning tiles for other players. Its normal for him to get a win after so long.

Song Yuhu was disappointed his winning streak was broken by Dong Xuebing's small win.

Although they did not see Dong Xuebing's winning tile, they could guess it was not a dragon tile from his playing style.

The other players were not shocked, but Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were.

Self-drawn win?

The twins were stunned.

They saw Dong Xuebing had grabbed 3 Character, and his winning tile was supposed to be 9 Bamboo.

Win?

How is this a win?

3 Character is not 9 Bamboo!

This is a false win. A false win will have to pay the winner for other players. This will be a considerable amount. Although the twins do not know the penalty for a false win, they know it will be severe. They might be left with less than 28 million USD.

Thats it.

It is a false win.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were hopeless.

You can not know how to play but must not declare a false win!

Others might not notice if you pushed your tiles out quickly in a small casino. But this is a big casino.

The dealer is watching them.

The dealer walked over when he heard someone win.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng looked at Dong Xuebing's hand to confirm his tiles.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan dare not watch. They knew this was over. A false win is too shameful, and they felt embarrassed.

One second

Ten seconds

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were shocked when the dealer said nothing. The dealer started counting the players chips and gave around 100,000 USD worth of chips to Dong Xuebing.

Song Yuhu rubbed the center of his brows and closed his eyes to rest.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng stopped looking at Dong Xuebing's hand and said nothing.

What happened?

How is this possible?

How come they overlooked the false win?

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were confused.

Zhang Longjuan, who saw the tile Dong Xuebing grabbed, pulled the twins lightly.

Ms. Zhang, this

You saw it too?

The twins did not know what happened.

I saw it, but Zhang Longjuan pointed and said softly. The tiles are still there. Look at Xiao Dong's self-drawn tile. It is the one on the right.

Look at the tile again?

Whats the point of looking at the tile again?

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei looked at the table.

They drew a deep breath when they saw that tile.

This this Shen Xiaomei stuttered.

Shen Xiaoyan had goosebumps. Ms. Zhang, how

Zhang Longjuan shook her head. Dont ask me. I dont know.

Shen Xiaomei stared at the table until the dealer pushed all the tiles into the automatic mahjong table.

It was 9 Bamboo.

The winning tile was 9 Bamboo!

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei swore they saw Dong Xuebing grabbing a 3 Character. Those were different tiles, and they could see them wrongly. Even if one of them got it wrong, how can both get it wrong? This was impossible. They received professional martial arts training since they were young and could see Dong Xuebings subtle movements to dodge bullets. They were confident of their eyes and knew they did not see wrongly.

How did it become 9 Bamboo?

How did 3 Character turn into 9 Bamboo?

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing for a while and said nothing.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Its my turn to be the banker. Haha you got to be careful.

Song Yuhu laughed. You only had one win, a small one. Do we need to be careful?

Of course. Dong Xuebing laughed. Dont you know Mahjong is about Fengshui? My hands were bad earlier, and I could not win. My luck will get better after winning that hand. It will be hard for you all to win now.

Mr. Wei sneered and ignored Dong Xuebing.

Ms. Leng shook her head and could not be bothered with Dong Xuebing.

The guests and staff watching the game laughed. They felt Dong Xuebing was boastful and shameless. How can he win with his skills?

Carry on boasting.

Dong Xuebing ignored everyone and rubbed his palms. He had been waiting to be the banker. He made that small win to be the banker. He can go all out now.

Less than 39 million USD.

The winnings are not enough.

Sis Zhang needed 200 million USD to revive her company.

The next round started.

Unlike Zhang Longjuan and the twins, no one realized what had happened in the previous round.

If it was not for her sister and Ms. Zhang, Shen Xiaoyan thought she was seeing things.

3 Characters became 9 Bamboo.

How did that happen?

Zhang Longjuan laughed. This brat is hiding something up his sleeves.

Hiding something up his sleeves?

What does this mean?

The twins suddenly remembered what Dong Xuebing had said earlier. He said he would win, and he won. It was as if he could predict it.

This

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei exchanged looks and thought of one possibility. This is the only explanation.

Dong Xuebing had cheated.

This guy had cheated in front of so many people.

And and no one realized it.

Shen Xiaomei almost cursed at Dong Xuebing. Fk! you pretend you dont know how to play Mahjong and cheat the next moment.

Are you a beginner?

Bullshit! How can a beginner know how to cheat in Mahjong?

They would not discover it if they were not sitting behind Dong Xuebing.

Chapter 1263: Heavenly Win?

Platinum VIP Room.

Mahjong table.

The new round started with Dong Xuebing being the Banker. Instead of being nervous, he looked excited. He smiled when the mahjong table shuffled the tiles and lightly blew his hand.

Grabbed the dice

Rolled the dice

Separate and grab the tiles.

The seats behind Dong Xuebing.

Shen Xiaoyan said softly. Mr. Dong knows how to play Mahjong.

Shen Xiaomei was speechless. He was fooling everyone, including us.

Xiao Dong does not know how to play. No one can act they cant play. Zhang Longjuan looked at the Mahjong table.

Shen Xiaomei spoke softly. No one else can hear them. But I saw it was a Character tile. How did it turn into a Bamboo tile?

Are you saying Xiao Dong cheated?

Yes. If not, how did it happen?

But did you all notice it? That is not normal cheating.

Huh? Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei seldom went to the casino and did not understand.

Zhang Longjuan explained. The three 9 Bamboo tiles were still on the table. He did not switch it with any tiles on the table. That means Xiao Dongs winning tile was the last. The machine shuffled the tiles. How did he know which tile is 9 Bamboo? How did he switch the tiles?

Shen Xiaomei paused for a second. Did he hide a tile?

Zhang Longjuan replied. Xiao Dong had not been to this casino. He does not know the casino is using what type or color tiles.

Shen Xiaoyan added. Thats right. We were checked when we boarded the ship and searched earlier. He could not hide anything.

Shen Xiaomei was puzzled. Then how did Mr. Dong change that 3 Character to 9 Bamboo? Did our eyes play tricks on us?

Zhang Longjuan shook her head and laughed. I dont know. Thats why I said he has tricks up his sleeves. They are going to turn over their hand. Lets watch.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan quickly looked toward the table.

This time, they make sure they will watch Dong Xuebing carefully. They will not miss any tiles and will try to find out how he changed them.

All the players got their tiles.

Mr. Wei arranged his tiles quickly.

Ms. Leng did not arrange her tiles. She glanced at her tiles and grabbed one between her fingers. She had decided which tile to discard.

Song Yuhu smiled when he turned his tiles over.

Three Red Dragons, three Green Dragons, two White Dragons, and two other tiles.

This was almost a Big Three Dragon combination.

The guests behind were surprised. This will be a big win for Song Yuhu, especially with Dong Xuebing as the Banker. This combination can win easily compared to Big Four Blessings or Seven Consecutive Pairs, the winnings are several times more.

This young man is going to be in trouble.

This round might bankrupt him.

Many people looked at Dong Xuebing in pity.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng saw Song Yuhus expression and smiled. They were in the same camp. Even if Song Yuhu won, they could get back their money. When he wins, it would mean they win as they would split Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuans money equally.

Something is wrong

Those, who did not see Song Yuhus hand, knew someone would win big in this round.

Ms. Zhang. They Shen Xiaomei inhaled deeply.

Zhang Longjuan frowned and said. One of them should be getting the maximum doubles.

Shen Xiaoyan looked terrible. This round just started, and one of them will get maximum doubles?

Shen Xiaomei was worried. This is bad. This round might end fast if Mr. Dong continues playing as he did previously. He could use that trick earlier to get the winning tile, but he does not have time now. The twins were impressed by Dong Xuebing's trick in the last game, but he needs to get a winning hand first. Song Yuhu would win first.

What should we do?

How is Dong Xuebing going to get out of this situation?

Zhang Longjuan said. Let's just watch. I remember Xiao Dong saying he was waiting to be the Banker. Let's see what he is going to do.

Shen Xiaoyan replied. He can win anytime if he can win.

Shen Xiaomei was frustrated. That's right. Why does he need to wait for his turn to be the Banker? Is he thinking of getting a big win? But he might also give others a big win.

Zhang Longjuan could not understand too. Maybe being the Banker means something to him. This brat is always up to something and full of surprises.

Shen Xiaoyan smiled. That's right. He is different.

Shen Xiaomei also felt Dong Xuebing is extraordinary. But this round is too. She paused suddenly. Eh? Why is Mr. Dong not turning over his tiles?

Huh? Shen Xiaoyan also noticed it.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. I wonder what he is up to. He grabbed the tiles and is not looking at them. Around the mahjong table.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing speechlessly. What are you waiting for?

The tiles were grabbed, and you should look at your tiles even if you have not decided which tile to discard.

Song Yuhu looked at Dong Xuebing. Discard a tile. We have been waiting for a while.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng looked at Dong Xuebing impatiently. They felt like slapping him as he touched the back of his tiles. What are you doing? You should feel the front of your tile if you want to touch them.

The back of the tiles feels the same, and you will not know what tile it is.

It is meaningless even if you touched them for three days and three nights. What can you tell from touching the back of your mahjong tiles?

They had never played against someone like Dong Xuebing in such an important game. This guy is weird.

The other players rushed Dong Xuebing, but he continued to feel the back of his tiles. Dont rush me. I am preparing myself. That small win changed my Feng Shui. I got to be mentally prepared. Mr. Song is in a rush. Did you get a good hand?

Song Yuhu smiled. Its nothing.

Ah, you are modest. Dong Xuebing joked.

Mr. Wei knocked on the table. Can we start?

Everyone was confused by Dong Xuebings actions. What is he waiting for? Song Yuhu only needed one more tile to form his Big Three Dragon combination. They know Dong Xuebing does not know how to play Mahjong, but he should be able to sense the tension.

All right. Lets start. Dong Xuebing looked up. I got a question. How do you all calculate the doubles?

Senior Zhou smiled. Which combination are you asking, Young man?

The biggest hand.

The guests rolled their eyes. You could only form a small win after so long and had only won once. Where did you get the confidence to think of getting the highest hand? Are you joking with us?

Senior Zhou smiled and looked at the dealer.

The female dealer explained to Dong Xuebing. Our highest payout here is the max doubles. For easy calculations, we set a maximum amount of 5 million USD.

Does it include the Bankers advantage?

The dealer replied. Max doubles do not include the Bankers advantage. The maximum payout limit is 5 million USD.

Dong Xuebing asked another question. Oh, what about Heavenly Win? How many doubles is that?

The dealer paused for a second and explained. International Mahjong do not recognize Heavenly Win or Earthly Win. But we recognize these wins here. The Heavenly Win is the max doubles.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Ok. I understand.

Song Yuhu tapped his forehead and rubbed the center of his brows.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng shook their heads. They were falling asleep.

Heavenly Win?

Biggest hand?

You are overthinking.

Do you know how hard it is to get these winning hands? Most rounds will end without anyone getting the max doubles. It is hard to get those tiles, and the other players will not allow you to get them. They would rather break up their sets than discard those Dragon tiles. The most commonly seen max doubles combination is the Big Three Dragon because it is the easiest to get the tiles. Others, like the Big Four Winds and Thirteen Wonders, are harder to get. Unless one is extremely lucky, most people will not accumulate most of these combinations tiles.

As for Heavenly Win

The easiest max doubles combination to form is the Big Three Dragons.

Big Four Winds and Thirteen Wonders are much harder to get.

But the hardest max doubles combination is Heavenly Win. It is almost impossible to get.

It might happen when people play at home or with friends.

But getting a Heavenly Win at a casino?

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng had played Mahjong countless times and had never seen Heavenly Win in a casino.

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing. Do you have other questions? Its our fault for not explaining the rules to you.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Nothing for now. He held both ends of his tiles and turned his tiles up. When everyone was waiting for him to discard a tile, he pushed his tiles over. Heavenly Win!

Dong Xuebing's hand was shown to everyone.

Bamboo 1, 2, and 3.

Circles 6, 7, and 8.

Three East Wind, three West Wind, and two 9 Bamboo.

All the sets were formed.

Its a Heavenly Win!

WTF! Everyones face turned green.

Translation notes:

Heavenly Win means the Banker getting the winning hand after grabbing the tiles. He got a winning set before he discarded any tiles.

Chapter 1264: Heavenly Win Again?

Heavenly Win?

That's a Heavenly Win!

Everyone was shocked.

They were shocked the moment Dong Xuebing showed his tiles. What luck does he have?

This guy just asked how the casino calculates Heavenly Wins, and he got it.

Did you bring your luck from the roulette tables here?

Song Yuhu could not believe his eyes. He turned pale as he stared at Dong Xuebing's tiles. He was not imagining things. It was a Heavenly Win!

Max doubles.

This guy won this round with max doubles.

This is the hardest max doubles winning hand.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng kept quiet.

Senior Zhou's and many casino staff's eyes were twitching.

Dong Xuebing laughed and crossed his legs. "Sorry, everyone. Haha I said Feng Shui is important when playing Mahjong. Luck is on my side now. Ah, Mr. Song you are looking terrible. Did you get a good hand? What do you have? Let me see."

Song Yuhu did not let Dong Xuebing see his tiles. He turned them over and mixed them with the rest of the tiles. It was a big hand and was short of one tile to win.

Song Yuhu felt the pain of missing a big win and losing to Dong Xuebing.

The dealer looked at Dong Xuebing's tiles and then looked at him.

Dong Xuebing waved. "Stop looking and give me my winnings."

"Ah Yes. Please wait for a moment. I will calculate your winnings now." The dealer went to collect the chips from the rest of the players.

Shen Xiaomei, watching Dong Xuebing from the back, slapped her forehead. "It is indeed a Heavenly Win.' Mr. Dong is very lucky today."

Shen Xiaoyan noticed more things than her sister. "Mr. Dong did not see his tiles and asked about maximum winnings. After that, he got a Heavenly Win.' Don't you find that weird?"

Shen Xiaomei paused for a second. "Are you saying Mr. Dong knows what tiles he got?"

Shen Xiaoyan hesitated and said. "But he did not see his tiles. How does he know he got a Heavenly Win?"

Shen Xiaomei was shocked. "That is not luck? Ms. Zhang, what do you think?"

Zhang Longjuan smiled. "Don't ask me. I cannot tell how this brat did it. This should not happen, but it did."

Shen Xiaomei turned to her sister. "Sis, did you see it?"

"I did not see anything. Mr. Dong had only touched the back of his tiles and did not make other movements." Shen Xiaoyan replied.

Shen Xiaomei said. "Then it must be luck."

Shen Xiaoyan shook her head. "I don't know. Let's continue watching."

Even Zhang Longjuan could not tell, let alone Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan.

Everyone was confused by Dong Xuebing and wondered if it was luck or

Dong Xuebing's suitcase was filled up again after collecting the chips.

There's no limit in the Platinum VIP room, but there is a Max doubles' in Mahjong. The maximum one can lose in one round is five million USD. Dong Xuebing won 15 million USD from this round. He had 38 million USD left earlier, and his total winnings became 53 million USD. This win had recovered all his losses earlier, and he got more. This is gambling. A big win can change everything.

The guests and staff started whispering among themselves.

"This is getting interesting."

"That's right. That is a rare Heavenly Win."

"It's more than rare. At a casino, I had never seen anyone getting a Heavenly Win.' This is an eye-opener."

"This guy's skills are lousy, but I have no words for his luck."

"That's what happened at the roulette tables earlier. His luck is out of this world."

But he cannot depend on luck alone. Luck will not last too long. After all, Mahjong is more about skills.

You are right. Haha He is the Banker for the next round. Let's see if he can maintain being the Banker. Small wins are fine if he can carry on his winning streak.

Continue to be the Banker? He should be counting his lucky stars if he did not let others win big.

That's right. He is playing against three players, and his luck cannot be on his side forever.

The onlookers did not think Dong Xuebing would carry on winning. This was only a lucky win, and it will not happen again.

At the Mahjong table.

The Mahjong table started shuffling the tiles.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh

Dong Xuebing smiled as he saw Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng's facial expressions. He looked at their remaining chips and knew how much money they had left. You all dare to set up my Sis Zhang? I will make all of you lose until you vomit blood today. This is only the start, and you all are showing this expression.

Dong Xuebing continued to be the Banker.

The second round started.

Dong Xuebing rolled the dice, and everyone started taking their tiles.

Song Yuhu was feeling sore after losing 5 million USD. Dong Xuebing was about to lose everything to them, but his luck changed everything. However, they were not anxious. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng thought in their hearts. That was luck. It will not happen again. It is called Max Doubles because it is almost impossible to get those winning hands.

Relax

We will continue to play as usual.

Song Yuhu closed his eyes and opened again when he turned his tiles upright. His tiles were not as good as his previous hand, but it's not bad either. He got four pairs and can try for the Seven Pair combination. It would be better if Dong Xuebing discarded the tile for him. This way, Dong Xuebing would no longer be the Banker and lose a lot.

Everyone focused on the mahjong game.

Dong Xuebing did not turn his tiles over. He continued touching the back of his tiles and smiled.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Why are you touching your tiles again?

What are you doing? Do you think you can get a Heavenly Win again?

How is it possible? The Heavenly Win is ranked the most challenging winning hand. Can you get it by touching the back of your tiles?

Song Yuhu rushed Dong Xuebing. Are you done?

Ms. Leng frowned. Can you hurry up?

Dong Xuebing smiled. All right. I am almost done. He said and turned his tiles up. He glanced at his tiles and said. Haha sorry, everyone.

Huh?

What do you mean?

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng froze.

The onlookers could not understand what Dong Xuebing was sorry about.

The next second, Dong Xuebing shocked everyone by turning over his tiles. Heavenly Win!

Three Red Dragons

Three White Dragons

Three Green Dragons

Three South Winds

And another pair.

Everyones jaw dropped.

WTF!

He got a Heavenly Win again!

This is not an ordinary Heavenly Win. It is a Big Three Dragons Heavenly Win!

Chapter 1265: Another Heavenly Win

Silence

The room was dead quiet.

Everyone was shocked by Dong Xuebing's winning hand.

Song Yuhu was stunned. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng looked at Dong Xuebing's tiles. It's a winning hand. There's nothing wrong with it.

It is a Heavenly Win.

It is a Big Three Dragons Heavenly Win!

Fk! How lucky are you?

You might be extremely lucky to get a Heavenly Win. But you got two Heavenly Wins in a row.

What is a Heavenly Win?

It is the hardest winning hand to get in Mahjong.

The Big Three Dragons winning hand is the easiest to get, and it is Max Doubles.

Now, Dong Xuebing got a Max Doubles plus a Max Doubles!

This cannot be described as good luck. Dong Xuebing's luck is out of this world! It's ridiculous!

Other than Dong Xuebing, everyone in the room had visited many casinos and watched high-stakes games. They have seen people getting Max Doubles. Some had heard about others getting Heavenly Win. But a Big Three Dragons Heavenly Win?

They had never heard about this before.

How is this possible in an actual Mahjong game?

Although the Big Three Dragons Heavenly Win is Max Doubles, the two Max Double combinations will not double the winnings. But this winning hand shocked everyone. Everyone felt luck played a part in Mahjong, but it was more on skills. You cannot win if you don't have the skills. It is different from roulette. But Dong Xuebing got two Heavenly Win in a row, changing everyone's mind.

Twice

Heavenly Win had appeared twice!

Fk! When did the Heavenly Win become so common?

Shen Xiaomei was dumbfounded. She said this

Shen Xiaoyan wiped her sweat off her forehead. I don't know. I did not see him switch his tiles.

They felt getting two Heavenly Win was impossible, even if he was lucky. Something is wrong.

How did he do it?

The sisters could not tell.

Ms. Zhang Shen Xiaoyan turned and asked.

Zhang Longjuan shook her head. I did not see it too. There were no signs.

Many people felt the same as the twins. They felt Dong Xuebing might have cheated.

Song Yuhu said to the dealer. Check the tiles. Turn all the tiles over. He turned to Dong Xuebing. Do you agree?

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan got anxious and worried.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Sure. Go ahead.

The dealer and two staff walked to the mahjong table, and Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, Ms. Leng, and Dong Xuebing left the table. They waited beside.

The checks started.

All the Bamboo tiles were there

All the Circle tiles were there

All the Character tiles were there

Soon, all the tiles were checked and placed together.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were sweating from their nervousness.

But no tiles were missing, or there were any additional tiles.

Song Yuhu looked terrible. He does not believe Dong Xuebing is so lucky to get the Heavenly Win twice. This is something that can be explained with luck.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Have you checked everything?

The dealer nodded. Ah, yes

Song Yuhu looked at Dong Xuebing and returned to his seat without saying anything.

Dong Xuebing sat and asked the dealer. Count my winnings for me. Oh, I got two Max Doubles. How much is my winnings?

The dealer replied. Max Doubles is the maximum you can win. Your winning is 5 million USD.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Oh Never mind.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng lost 5 million USD each. Their chip boxes were almost empty. Only Song Yuhu has slightly more than the rest, less than 2 million USD.

Dong Xuebing looked at them. No more chips?

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng had lost almost all their chips. One had a few hundred thousand USD left, and the other had around a million USD.

They looked at Song Yuhu, and he nodded. They called their bodyguards over and asked them to exchange more chips with their cash. They had brought a lot of money to the ship because they wanted to set up Zhang Longjuan. They asked their bodyguards to exchange all their cash, which amounted to almost 10 million USD. This is all the money they had. Song Yuhu did not hesitate. He asked his men to exchange more chips for him. Although he is the Boss of the casino, the casinos money is not his. He must use his own money for gambling. He also exchanged a few million USD worth of chips.

The exchanged chips filled up their boxes again.

Dong Xuebing smiled. All right. Lets continue. I am still the Banker.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng frowned. They were scared by Dong Xuebing's Heavenly Win. You might be extremely lucky and get two Heavenly Win. You should not be getting another one. It is impossible. They can win with their skills if play is carried on.

As long as Dong Xuebing did not get another Heavenly Win.

You will not get another chance to win.

Everyone thinks the same, like Song Yuhu and the rest.

The dealer pushed all the tiles into the automatic mahjong table to shuffle the tiles.

But Song Yuhu stopped the dealer. Wait! Change the tiles.

The dealer paused for a second. Change the tiles?

Song Yuhu looked at Dong Xuebing. Can we change the tiles?

Zhang Longjuan refused. She smiled and looked at them. Mr. Song, this is your casino. This room is yours. The mahjong tiles are yours, and you all set the rules. What is the meaning of this? You wanted to check the tiles earlier, and now you want to change the tiles. This game is not over, and Xiao Dong is still the Banker. There's no problem with the tiles, and why are you asking to change the tiles? Even if this is your territory, your status now is a mahjong player. Do you think you can do whatever you want? Huh? Are you suspecting us because we won against you? Why didn't you all say anything when you won earlier?

Song Yuhu looked at her. We are only changing the tiles. What's wrong?

Zhang Longjuan smiled. But your rules stated that the tiles can only be changed after the game ends. Why did it change when we are winning?

Song Yuhu replied. You are refusing to change the tiles, which is suspicious.

Zhang Longjuan looked at him. Can you be more gracious as the person in charge? How can you accuse us? Everyone is watching us, and the mahjong tiles are from your casino. Oh, you think this is suspicious. Then it is your casino that is suspicious. How can we temper with your mahjong tiles?

The onlookers nodded.

Enough, Xiao Song! Senior Zhou could not stand it. He looked at Dong Xuebing. Young man, do you agree to change the tiles? It's fine if you don't want to change.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing turned and smiled at Sis Zhang. Sis Zhang, they are feeling sore after losing. They are finding fault with everything. Haha let's not stoop to their level. He turned and said to the dealer. Since Mr. Song wants to change the tiles, we will change it.

The dealer nodded and kept the tiles.

Song Yuhu reminded. Change it to another brand of mahjong tiles.

Dong Xuebing laughed. Sure. Don't use this brand. Oh, do you want to change the dice?

Change everything. Song Yuhu wanted to eliminate all possibilities.

Dong Xuebing was amused. All right. We will do as you say. Change the dice too.

The new set of tiles was brought to the table. The back of the tiles is blue instead of green. The dice were slightly smaller than the previous ones.

Song Yuhu was relieved.

The dealer pushed the mahjong tiles forward for them to check.

Dong Xuebing asked. Do you have any more requests, Mr. Song?

No. Let's start. Song Yuhu said.

Many guests looked at Song Yuhu and felt he was petty. He doesn't even trust his own casino's mahjong tiles and dice.

Song Yuhu did not care as he only wanted to win. He was playing with his money, and two Heavenly Wins were abnormal. Many casino staff were also suspicious of Dong Xuebing.

The mahjong tiles were changed

The dice were changed

Everything should be fine now.

The tiles were shuffled, and dice were rolled.

Song Yuhu got a good hand this time. Although it is not as good as the previous two rounds, it is good enough to win easily against a beginner like Dong Xuebing. He was confident of winning after a while.

Ms. Leng's hand was average.

Mr. Wei had a good hand.

The three looked at Dong Xuebing, waiting for him to discard a tile.

Dong Xuebing did not look at his tiles. Instead, he looked at them. Are you all sure there's no more problem this time and got no more requests?

Song Yuhu replied sternly. No.

Mr. Wei said. Hurry up and discard a tile.

How can there be any problems after changing everything?

All right. Don't think of any excuses this time. Dong Xuebing smiled and turned his tiles upright slowly. He did not even look at his tiles properly and turned his tiles over. Heavenly Win!

Three East Winds

Three South Winds

Three West Winds

Three North Winds

A pair of White Dragons.

This is the Max Doubles Big Four Winds!

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing as if they had seen a ghost.

Chapter 1266: How are we going to continue?

Platinum VIP room.

It feels like a bomb has exploded at the mahjong table, and the blast wave spreads throughout the room instantly.

Heavenly Win!

It's a Heavenly Win again!

This time, it is not the Big Three Dragons combination.

It is a several times more complex combination than the Big Three Dragons! The Big Four Winds!

No one had ever heard of Big Four Winds Heavenly Win. They could not even imagine getting this set of combinations because this was impossible. You could not even get it in Mahjong video games, let alone in a high-stakes game in a casino. The Big Three Dragons might still be possible, but the Big Four Winds needs four sets of Winds. All the tiles were fixed. How can this combination appear in a Heavenly Win? Dong Xuebing had gotten this winning hand in front of them. Some guests almost want to jump off the ship from the shock.

Big Four Winds Heavenly Win!

Someone had gotten this impossible winning hand!

The onlookers were speechless. Its OK if Dong Xuebing got a Heavenly Win. But he got three Heavenly Win in a row!

How can this be luck?

Who can be so lucky?

Fk! Is this real?

Dong Xuebing's winning hand was so big that it could scare people to death. Even the composed Senior Zhou showed a shocked expression.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng were pale. They were cursing in their hearts.

Heavenly Win for every round. How are we going to continue?

This is no longer about how Dong Xuebing played. One might not even get a Heavenly Win when they are in luck. But he got it for three rounds consecutively.

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted.

Only Zhang Longjuan was not affected. She laughed loudly. Nice! Big Four Winds Heavenly Win! That's a good hand! Hahaha

Dong Xuebing remained calm. He smiled faintly and looked at the dealer. Is there anything wrong with my combination?

The dealer was still looking at the tiles in shock. Ah? Its correct.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Then what about my chips?

The dealer quickly replied. Please wait. We will count your winnings now.

Dong Xuebing complained. You acted fast when others win. Why are you always hesitating when I win? I need to remind you to do your work. Are you unhappy with me?

The dealer blushed. No

The other casino staff were dumbfounded. How can others compare to you? Their bigger wins were drawing the winning tile after a Kong or Seven Pairs. Your wins are all Heavenly Wins. Even the dealer will get a heart attack.

This time is also a Max Doubles win.

The other three players lost 15 million USD in total.

When the dealer was about to count the chips, Song Yuhu slammed the table and pointed at Dong Xuebing. You cheated!

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng were also mad.

The onlookers also felt Dong Xuebing had cheated and looked at him.

Zhang Longjuan, Shen Xiaoyan, and Shen Xiaomei walked over immediately.

Dong Xuebing looked at Song Yuhu. He smiled and did not get up. I cheated? Tell me, how did I cheat? Tell me.

Thats right.

How did he cheat?

Song Yuhu could not answer.

Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes and said. This is your casino, and these are your Mahjong tiles. The dice are yours too. I was searched and scanned by machines more than once after entering the casino. Why didnt you say anything then? Why are you accusing me of cheating after I win? Fine. If you say I cheated, tell me how I cheated, or show me my cheating tools.

Song Yuhu shouted. You must have switched the tiles!

Dong Xuebing laughed. Switched the tiles? Many people were watching me, and my tiles were all on the table. After drawing my tiles, I did not touch or move my hands near other tiles. My hands did not leave the table, and everyone saw it. He looked at the onlookers, and some nodded. How did I switch the tiles? Am I the Thousand-hands Guanyin?

Ms. Leng bit her lips and said. Check the tiles.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Sure. Go ahead.

The dealer and staff started laying out the tiles to check. No tiles were missing.

Song Yuhu and the rest kept quiet.

Dong Xuebing looked at them. You all wanted to change the tiles and dice. Fine. I agreed. I like to play fair and square. But you all accuse me of cheating after changing the tiles and dice. All right. What other demands do you all have? Do you want to tie my hands and legs to play with you all? Stop embarrassing yourselves if you do not know how to play Mahjong.

Do not know how to play?

Being told by a beginner that they do not know how to play Mahjong was the biggest insult.

How are we going to play? You got Heavenly Win each round! You won immediately after we took our tiles. No matter how good our skills are, we cannot do anything.

Something must be wrong.

Something is wrong with this guy!

Song Yuhu, Mr. Song, and the rest refused to believe Dong Xuebing had won based on luck. How can anyone in this world be so lucky?

But it happened before their eyes.

There's no problem with the tiles.

Mr. Song said. We are not continuing with this game.

Let's stop. Ms. Leng was about to keep her casino chips.

Zhang Longjuan laughed suddenly. Stop? The game is not over, and you all still have chips. How can you all stop the game? This is against the rules. You can stop any time after Xiao Dong is no longer the Banker, or you lose all your chips. You will be kicked out of the game automatically. You can get someone to stand in for you, and you still have many chips left. How can you leave in the middle of a game?

The dealer said. According to the rules, players cannot quit before the game ends.

All players take turns to be the Banker, and a round of Mahjong is considered over after everyone stops being a banker. Dong Xuebing is still the Banker and the other players are not allowed to end the game.

Mr. Wei's face changed.

Ms. Leng looked at Song Yuhu anxiously.

Song Yuhu took a few deep breaths and said. Continue!

Senior Zhou was looking at them, and he could not break the casino rules. It would tarnish the casino's reputation.

The winnings were calculated.

Song Yuhu got lost around half of his chips. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng got around 4 to 5 million USD left, respectively. To many, 4 to 5 million USD is a significant amount. Most of them brought a few hundred thousand USD onboard. But after a few rounds of Mahjong, the onlookers felt 5 million USD was nothing. That guy had gotten Heavenly Win every time. Dong Xuebing has accumulated around 83 million USD in winnings now.

The dealer asked. Are you all ready? I am going to shuffle the tiles.

Wait! Song Yuhu thought for a second. Change the Mahjong table.

This The dealer hesitated. Changing the table during a mahjong game is unheard of. She looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing laughed. Sure. Change it.

Song Yuhu added. Change the tiles too. Use a new set for everything!

The dealer replied. Yes. Please come this way.

The dealer did not carry the table away, as another mahjong table was beside it. But the position was slightly bad and not in the center of the room.

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing nodded to assure her.

The guests and staff, watching the game, moved to the back of each player.

Dong Xuebing smiled and looked at Song Yuhu after they sat down. Is it fine now?

Yes. Song Yuhu took a deep breath and felt everything should be fine. Lets start.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng were no longer looking confident. They were very nervous now.

The game started.

Dong Xuebing continued to be the Banker, and he rolled the dice.

The onlookers were excited. They felt it was a boring game earlier as it was one-sided. But everything changed after Dong Xuebing became the Banker. This is too exciting.

One versus three, and the three of them were no match for him.

The onlookers looked at their money. If that guy got another Heavenly Win, they would be out of the game.

This guy is ruthless.

Thats right. He got Heavenly Wins thrice.

Eh, do you think he will get another one this time?

Who knows? He had gotten it three times, all the Max Doubles combinations. I am not surprised if he got it again.

Damn! He would be a god if he got it again.

I dont think he will get it again. How can one be so lucky?

Do you think it was luck? Who can be so lucky to get three Heavenly Wins in a row?

Lets continue watching.

This is not a wasted trip.

You are right. We saw something unbelievable.

Who said that young man does not know how to play Mahjong? Haha even Zhang Yi is no match for him.

Zhang Yi is a famous Mahjong player.

Thats right. He will lose even if he plays against that young man.

Haha Heavenly Win every time. Zhang Yi cannot even draw a tile. How can he win?

Chapter 1267: Are you on Steroids?

The new round started.

Everything was new. The mahjong tiles, dice, table, and chairs were all new.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng felt Dong Xuebing could not cheat after they changed everything. Until now, they started to doubt themselves. Did this young man win because of his luck? Everyone is looking at him. There should be no way for him to cheat under these circumstances.

Song Yuhu and the rest were panicking.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan were also panicking.

Zhang Longjuan asked softly. Did you all see it earlier?

Shen Xiaomei replied. No. I did not see anything.

Shen Xiaoyan tapped on her head. I am starting to believe it is luck. It would be scary if Mr. Dong switched the tiles without anyone noticing.

Shen Xiaomei rolled her eyes. It cannot be luck.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. I don't think it is luck. However, I don't think he cheated. The best cheaters could only switch a tile. Even if he is a master, he can switch two tiles without anyone noticing. How did he switch so many tiles to form the Big Four Winds Heavenly Win? This is impossible in theory. This brat had kept such an amazing skill from us. Let's watch him and find out how he did it.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei rubbed their eyes and observed the game.

They did not blink as they watched the mahjong game.

Many people were also observing the game. They want to know Dong Xuebing's trick. Senior Zhou stood up and stared at Dong Xuebing's hands.

The room was dead quiet.

There were no other sounds other than the sounds Dong Xuebing, Song Yuhu, and the rest made when taking their tiles.

When Dong Xuebing was taking his tiles, Mr. Wei said. You mentioned earlier that we can raise any request, right?

Dong Xuebing smiled. Yes. Go ahead.

Mr. Wei was wary of Dong Xuebing. He said. Can you open your tiles or look at your tiles immediately after you finish getting your tiles? Stop touching and stroking your tiles. It is making me nervous. I am old and have a weak heart. Of course, you can choose not to do it.

Look at the tiles after taking the tiles?

What request is this?

Did you think he could change his tiles with superpowers? Don't be so superstitious.

Everyone was looking at Mr. Wei with disdain.

Mr. Wei blushed after everyone looked at him. But he had no choice. He was scared by Dong Xuebing's Heavenly Win.

Ms. Leng added. I agree with Mr. Wei.

Dong Xuebing's actions earlier were weird. He kept touching and stroking his tiles. He might have switched his tiles when he was making these actions.

Zhang Longjuan was frustrated. Are you all done?

Dong Xuebing smiled and turned. He looked at Sis Zhang. It's fine. They are feeling sore after losing. I will let them have their way, or they will claim I am bullying them.

Song Yuhu was staring at Dong Xuebing, trying to catch him switching tiles.

But Dong Xuebing did not make any weird movements. He turned his tiles upright after drawing them and did not continue to touch them.

Other people could not see Dong Xuebing's tiles.

The Platinum VIP room does not have CCTVs, and only Zhang Longjuan and the twins could see them.

When they saw the tiles, Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei's hearts almost stopped. Dong Xuebing's hand was very lousy.

One White Dragon and one Red Dragon.

Three bamboo tiles, a few circle tiles, and a few character tiles. All of them were not in running numbers.

This was a very lousy hand, and it's hard to get a win out of it.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at her sister. I think he cannot win this round.

Shen Xiaomei replied. He won three Heavenly Wins. It is enough.

Shen Xiaoyan said. Maybe this weird request affected how Mr. Dong changes his tiles.

Shen Xiaomei paused for a second. Huh? Is it possible?

Shen Xiaoyan shook her head. I don't know. Maybe Mr. Dong cannot continue to be the banker after this round.

Shen Xiaomei agreed. That's right. This hand is too lousy, and it is impossible to win. Even if Mr. Dong could maintain his banker status, the rest might stop playing. It's a pity we could not win their remaining few million USD. Sigh if we can get another Heavenly win, Song Yuhu and the rest would lose everything. Twenty million USD per player. Even Ms. Zhang would feel the pain.

Heavenly Win? It's not so easy.

That's right. Let's see if they dare to play another round.

Zhang Longjuan kept quiet. She felt something was wrong and continued to look at Dong Xuebing.

Although Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei felt Dong Xuebing had a lousy hand, they continued to observe him. They noticed something strange. He did not rearrange his tiles like before. He just sat there without moving.

Dong Xuebing smiled at Mr. Wei and the rest. You all wanted me to look at my tiles after drawing them. Is this fine?

Mr. Wei nodded. Yes.

Song Yuhu and Ms. Leng saw Dong Xuebing following their request and stopped being suspicious.

Good. Dong Xuebing said and held both ends of his tiles. He turned them facing down and lifted them before turning them over. Heavenly Win, Pure Suit Hand, Seven Pairs.

What?

Another Heavenly Win?

WTF?

There was a commotion. Mr. Wei's chair toppled over as he stood up. His face turned pale as he looked at Dong Xuebing's tiles.

Song Yuhu, Ms. Leng, and other guests almost vomited blood.

Another Heavenly Win? This time, it is a Heavenly Win, Pure Suit Hand, Seven Pairs. This is more than ten times harder than getting a Big Four Winds.

Are you on steroids?

Zhang Longjuan, Shen Xiaoyan, and Shen Xiaomei were more shocked than others because they saw Dong Xuebing's tiles.

Pure Suit Hand?

Seven pairs?

Bullshit!

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan jumped out of their chairs. They saw Dong Xuebing's hand. It was a lousy hand, and you cannot find a lousier hand than his. But he turned his tiles over and announced he had a Heavenly Win. Pure Suit Hand, Seven Pairs? You don't even have a pair. You have bamboo, circles, and character tiles. How can you get a Pure Suit Hand?

I had met people with guts, but I have never met anyone bolder than you.

This is declaring a false win.

And it is a false big win!

The twins felt Dong Xuebing's Heavenly Win, Pure Suit Hand, Seven Pairs was the biggest brag in the world. Do you think they are blind? You had won a lot. You should not declare a false win even if you cannot win.

Zhang Longjuan saw it, too.

But Zhang Longjuan sat down after a few seconds without saying a word.

Shen Xiaomei asked anxiously. Ms. Zhang, is the penalty for a false win also five million USD?

Shen Xiaoyan frowned. I don't think it is that much.

Zhang Longjuan lit a cigarette and did not reply.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at her. Ms. Zhang.

Shen Xiaomei added. Say something.

Zhang Longjuan blew out a cloud of smoke and smiled. What do you want me to say? Look at Xiao Dong's tiles first.

Look at his tiles?

Do we need to look at his tiles?

The twins had seen his tiles. Although Dong Xuebing turns them facing down for a few seconds, he is not fast enough to switch all his tiles. If one hand can switch one tile, he can only switch two tiles at most. That set of lousy tiles will need him to have a few more pairs of hands to change.

How can that lousy hand win?

Even if he had four pairs of hands, Shen Xiaomei felt Dong Xuebing couldn't turn that hand into a Pure Suit Hand.

They were stunned when they saw Dong Xuebing's tiles on the table. They could not believe their eyes.

One Character, One Character

Two Character, Two Character

Four Character, Four Character

Five Character, Five Character

Eight Character, Eight Character

The remaining were four Nine Characters.

It is a Pure Suit Seven Pairs!

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan almost forgot to breathe as they looked at the Character tiles.

What happened?

It was supposed to be a lousy hand!

Do you have fourteen hands to switch all fourteen tiles in an instant? How did you change that lousy hand into a pure suit?

This was entirely different from that lousy hand.

More than ten tiles were different.

All players have either thirteen or fourteen tiles.

You switched almost all your tiles in an instant!

You are not only a Thousand Hands Guanyin. You are trained in Shadowless Hand!

This hand was more significant than the previous hand. All the spectators looked at Dong Xuebing in shock.

Four Heavenly Wins!

Every hand was more significant than the previous hand.

What luck do you have?

Chapter 1268: No one dares to take up the challenge

Gulp

Gulp

People swallowed their saliva.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing as if he were God.

The room was silent. No one said a word.

Dong Xuebing smiled. His expression did not change after he had gotten Heavenly Win, Pure Suit Hand, Seven Pairs. He turned to the dealer calmly. Can you confirm my win?

The dealer swallowed her saliva. Yes. Its confirmed.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Then you should start calculating my winnings. Why must I tell you every time before you move? Can you have more initiative? The female dealer was around 20 years old. He used to reprimand his subordinates around her age and started to speak to the dealer in a commanding tone.

Ah ok. The dealer replied.

The other staff started to count the chips.

Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei, and Ms. Leng saw the casino staff taking all the chips from their boxes. Their chips were not enough to pay Dong Xuebing.

Song Yuhu was pale and did not move.

Ms. Leng sighed and borrowed a few hundred thousand USD from a friend. Mr. Wei also turned to a friend watching the game to borrow a million USD worth of chips. Song Yuhu still has cash. He asked his men to exchange a few hundred thousand USD worth of chips to settle his losses.

The three of them got no more money.

They lost all their money to Dong Xuebing.

The spectators looked at them quietly.

Dong Xuebing looked at Song Yuhu with a smile. Are you convinced? Lets carry on if you are not convinced.

Song Yuhu kept quiet. He was feeling terrible.

Dong Xuebing laughed and looked at Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng. What about you two? We can carry on.

Mr. Wei let out a loud sigh. Yes. I lost to you.

Ms. Leng looked at Dong Xuebing without saying a word. She was utterly convinced.

They knew they had shot themselves in the foot today. This guy does not know how to play Mahjong? How can someone who does not know how to play Mahjong get four Heavenly Wins in a row? Moreover, all the Heavenly Wins were max double combinations. Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng finally realized they were not on the same level as Dong Xuebing. He was only putting on an act earlier to trick them. They could not see how he cheated. What else can they do? This is a master.

The three of them left their seats.

They lost all their money and were kicked out of the game.

Dong Xuebing looked at the trays of chips and asked the dealer to calculate for him. He got around 98 million USD.

It is less than 100 million USD.

I must continue.

It is still far from 200 million USD.

Dong Xuebing looked at the spectators. Anyone else wants to play? Lets play one round.

No one said a word.

Dong Xuebing was frustrated. Come on I need three players.

No one replied to him.

Dong Xuebing slapped his forehead. Most people are short of one player for a Mahjong game. However, he is short of three players. Why is no one interested? He looked at everyone. No one is interested? Casino staff is welcome, too. I am waiting. Can you all hurry up?

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng sighed as they sat with the other spectators.

Song Yuhu looked terrible.

The dealer helped Dong Xuebing ask the audience. Anyone wants to replace the previous players?

Everyone looked at that female dealer as if she was an idiot. The dealer blushed and did not continue to ask.

Who dares to play with that guy? He got Heavenly Win every game. We dont have enough money to lose to him. Everyone can tell he is a master. Only idiots will play with him. None of them can afford to play with him.

Dong Xuebing said. Lets play other games. Cards games like poker and blackjack are fine too.

No one said a word.

No one wants to play card games? Dong Xuebing was speechless. We are not playing Mahjong. I can play any game. Can we get a few people to play? How can we not get enough players for a game?

One person is challenging everyone.

No one dares to take up the challenge.

Even the casino staff, skilled in card games, dare not say a word.

No one would believe this, but it was happening now.

One person had scared everyone before a Mahjong game was completed.

This is impressive.

Dong Xuebing shouted a few more times and said. I am going for a smoke. Help me get a few players. We will continue after I return.

Dong Xuebing got up and walked towards Zhang Longjuan.

Zhang Longjuan smiled and said. You brat Did you purposely keep this from us?

Dong Xuebing laughed. No It was luck.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at Dong Xuebing. We saw your tiles. How can that be luck?

You saw wrongly. Your eyes must be playing tricks on you. Haha Dong Xuebing will not admit or reveal how he did it.

Shen Xiaomei was speechless. Fine. We made a mistake. But have you ever seen anyone getting four Heavenly Wins in a row? This is She wanted to curse, but she stopped.

Dong Xuebing laughed. It was luck. Really.

Shen Xiaomei said. What about the roulette games? The luck you got for the roulette and mahjong games is equivalent to getting the jackpot in the lottery. How is this possible?

Dong Xuebing's reply made them speechless. It's not as if I had not won the lottery.

Winning the lottery is a phrase used by many to describe something impossible. They said it without thinking much. But Dong Xuebing reminded them that he had won 100 lottery bets before.

Damn!

This person

Chapter 1269: God of Cards

Morning.

Before 6 a.m.

The sky had become brighter.

Dong Xuebing chatted with Zhang Longjuan and the twins while waiting for the next game to start.

The Platinum VIP room was tense.

It was weird.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing, but no one dared to take up his challenge.

Eh, do you know where that guy came from?

He should be from the mainland based on his accent. But is there a Mahjong master from the mainland?

This is not about whether he is a master. Even the God of Gamblers does not have his techniques.

That's right. Look around us. No one dares to say a word. Four Heavenly Wins. This is too scary.

How did he do it? Is it luck, or did he cheat? It is hard to believe someone can be so lucky.

No one knows other than him. This guy must be a master. The roulette games earlier might also be

Are you saying he used some methods to win three single-number bets in a row? That is scary.

But he said we can't play Mahjong. Many people in the casino are good at card games.

That's not for sure because no one knows who this guy is.

That's right. His Heavenly Wins are enough to scare everyone. Who knows if they can win him at card games?

Mahjong and card games are different. The rules are different. We can try.

We might be overthinking. Maybe he is lucky today. After all, he looks like a beginner when he plays Mahjong. He will not act like a beginner if he is a master.

You are right. Maybe we are overthinking.

We will know when we see his skills at card games. If he is getting those crazy max doubles combinations, then

Are you going to try?

Huh? Dont count me in.

Rest area.

Senior Zhou continued to look at Dong Xuebing. He seemed to be thinking about something and did not say anything. A few minutes later, he called Song Yuhu.

Xiao Song.

Yes, Senior Zhou.

Come over.

Do you have any orders for me? Song Yuhu walked over.

Senior Zhou looked at him. How much do you know about that young man?

Song Yuhu paused for a second and shook his head. I know he might be Zhang Longjuans bodyguard. But when they boarded the ship, Zhang Longjuan said he was her lover. I dont know about their relationship, but I think they are friends.

Senior Zhou frowned. What else?

Song Yuhu replied. He arrived in Hong Kong a few days ago. Zhang Longjuan only had those twin sisters as bodyguards before he came. I dont know about the rest.

Senior Zhou asked. You were the closest to him earlier. Did he have any other movements during the game?

Song Yuhu knew what Senior Zhou was asking. He sighed. I cannot tell. He did not have other unordinary movements.

All right. I know. Wait beside. Senior Zhou said, and he wanted to confirm something. He stood up with his gold walking stick. Young man.

Dong Xuebing, who was at the other end of the room, heard him. Huh?

Senior Zhou smiled. Lets play a game.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Only the two of us? How are we going to play?

We will not play Mahjong. Lets play some card games. Senior Zhou said.

Dong Xuebing snubbed his cigarette and stood up. Sure. What do you want to play?

Senior Zhou thought for a while and said. If only the two of us are playing, lets play something simple. How about 3-cards brag?

3-cards brag?

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and nodded. Ok.

Senior Zhou laughed. All right. This way, please.

Senior Zhou is playing!

The dealers and staff were surprised.

Many guests do not know Senior Zhou, but the casino staff know him well. He was one of the top gamblers when he was young. He has good skills and specializes in cheating. Most players cannot see how he cheats. Although Zhang Longjuan rose to riches by gambling, her reputation was nothing compared to Senior Zhou. However, Senior Zhou retired for unknown reasons and never gambled again. Earlier this year, he suddenly appeared on this gambling ship as one of the bosses. Even Song Yuhu treated him respectfully.

Everything should be fine if Senior Zhou plays.

No matter how good that guys luck or cheating skills are, he will not be Senior Zhou's match. Senior Zhou rose to fame by cheating.

Song Yuhu brightens up.

Mr. Wei and Ms. Leng knew about Senior Zhou and looked over.

They knew Senior Zhou was trying to test this young man. He seldom played Mahjong in the past, and he could not tell how Dong Xuebing switched his tiles. But his forte is card games. No one in the circle dares to say they can beat Senior Zhou at card games because he does not rely only on luck. He can cheat without anyone noticing. Many casino staff had seen it before and were confident he would win. Luck is unpredictable, and no one can beat Senior Zhou at cheating. He will not lose even if he meets another player around his level. Song Yuhu and many casino staff strongly believe it.

Song Yuhu had thought of Senior Zhou after he lost all his money. He wished Senior Zhou could help him get back at Dong Xuebing. But they know Senior Zhou had retired, and Song Yuhu dares not beg him for help.

But now, Senior Zhou is planning to gamble with Dong Xuebing.

This was what Song Yuhu and many others wanted. If Dong Xuebing dares to play against Senior Zhou, he would lose his 98 million USD.

Who is Senior Zhou?

A nobody like Dong Xuebing cannot be compared to him.

If Senior Zhou wants to win, he will win.

A few guests recognized Senior Zhou and started telling their friends about him.

He looks like Zhou Hu.

Zhou Hu? The God of Cards, Zhou Hu?

Are you sure? Didn't he retire years ago?

It should be him. I can recognize him. I met him once in Macau many years ago. I did not expect to see him here.

Huh? I overheard them calling him Senior Zhou.

Damn! The God of Cards is coming out from retirement. This is exciting.

The God of Cards. Zhou Hu had only lost a few times in his life.

I heard he is a master at cheating. Is he going to

That young man should have cheated, and the God of Cards wants to teach him a lesson. This is exciting.

Theres nothing else that young man can do if Senior Zhou is that Zhou Hu.

But he is old now. Is he still as good as before?

What do you know? The older he is, the more experience he has. Do you think the God of Cards will lose after coming out of retirement?

Thats right. He will teach this young man a lesson.

But that young man is too four Heavenly Wins with max doubles combinations. He is flaunting.

Haha watch. This is interesting.

Zhang Longjuan overheard the guests talking.

Dong Xuebing was adjusting his clothes. He was going to the table when Zhang Longjuan stopped him. She frowned and mumbled to himself. Zhou Hu The God of Cards

What Zhou Hu? Dong Xuebing turned.

Wait. Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. Tell me the truth. Do you know how to play cards?

Dong Xuebing replied without thinking. I am not good with most card games as I have never played them. But I know 3-cards brag. I played with my roommates in my university hostel. Of course, we dont gamble with money.

University?

Did not gamble with money?

Roommates?

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted. Damn. This means you dont know how to play.

Shen Xiaomei felt she could not communicate with Dong Xuebing. To her, knowing how to play means you are good at it. You should know the strategies and tactics of the game. But Dong Xuebing had only played with his roommates and claimed he could play.

Dong Xuebing looked at them. Huh? Why are you all looking at me like this? I am not an idiot and know the rules of 3-Cards Brag.

Shen Xiaomei almost fainted.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. It is not about the rules. I overheard them talking about Zhou Hu and remembered someone. Although I have not met him, I heard of his name. The God of Cards. They call him Senior Zhou, and he should be the God of Cards. This guy is an expert in card games. He is on a different level from me. I will avoid him at all costs. He is someone I can never beat. Do you understand me?

Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes. You are saying he can cheat. But didn't you say the casino cares a lot about its reputation? Does he dare to cheat here?

Zhang Longjuan replied. I don't know if he will cheat. But even if he cheated and were not caught, the casino would not be affected. This is a personal game between both of you. It's like what happened during your Mahjong game. They knew you might have done something, but they don't have the evidence.

Oh

Yes. That's why I don't suggest you play with him. If you want to play Haha answer me truthfully. Can you win?

Dong Xuebing laughed. I will not lose even if he is the God of Cards or God of Gamblers.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. This is the answer I am looking forward to. Go on, and be careful.

Chapter 1270: God of Cards admits defeat

Inside the room.

Cards table.

Dong Xuebing and Zhou Hu sat at the table.

Shen Xiaoyan asked softly. Do you think Mr. Dong can win?

Zhang Longjuan smiled. That brat said he will not lose. That means he will win. But he is playing against the God of Cards. I think it is a tough fight. Need to wait and see.

Shen Xiaomei asked. But he does not know how to play 3-cards Brag. How is he going to win?

Zhang Longjuan replied. Xiao Dong does not know how to play Mahjong, but he still won.

Shen Xiaomei said. Did he pretend he does not know how to play Mahjong? You say that old man is the God of Cards and is a master at cheating. How is Mr. Dong going to win?

Shen Xiaoyan paused for a second. Mr. Dong is also good at cheating.

Shen Xiaomei said. Ah, they will be competing their cheating skills.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. That's right. This is interesting.

Shen Xiaomei replied. We had won a lot. Why does he need to take this risk?

Zhang Longjuan said. Xiao Dong does not think like this. Let him try since he is confident. It does not matter if he wins or loses.

You are so nonchalant. Shen Xiaomei was speechless.

Shen Xiaoyan sighed. Mr. Dong had agreed to play against Zhou Hu. Let's see who is better at cheating.

The guests were excited about this match.

But many people who know about the gambling scene know this will be a match of cheating skills. This will not be a match of luck or techniques. Such matches are rare. The God of Cards is famous, and many guests felt he would win despite Dong Xuebing getting several hands of Heavenly Wins. To them, Zhou Hu is more experienced and famous. They will be playing cards and not Mahjong. Cards table.

The dealer stepped forward.

Zhou Hu said. Bring a few more decks of cards.

The dealer took out many decks of cards with different designs.

Zhou Hu smiled. Pick a deck, young man. You can choose which deck you want.

Dong Xuebing shrugged his shoulders. You are older, and you should pick. I am fine with any deck.

Everyone heard Dong Xuebing and felt he was too arrogant. He would never say that if he knew how skilled the God of Cards was.

But Dong Xuebing does not mind.

He is not afraid of any God or Saint of Cards.

Zhang Longjuan, Shen Xiaomei, and Shen Xiaoyan walked closer and stood behind Dong Xuebing. They want to watch the match at a closer distance.

Other guests came closer, too.

Besides Song Yuhu, Mr. Wei and a few others stood behind Senior Zhou. The rest stood by the side. Outsiders were not allowed to see their cards.

All right. Lets use this deck. Senior Zhou took the first deck of cards on the left.

The dealer took the deck and opened the packaging. She turned the cards over to let them check before shuffling.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh

When the dealer was shuffling the cards, Senior Zhou smiled at Dong Xuebing. I had not played for many years. I saw your skills and could not control myself. I must play a few hands with you.

Dong Xuebing replied. Its my honor.

The cards were shuffled, and the dealer started dealing the cards.

One card two cards three cards

Senior Zhou got his cards.

Dong Xuebing also got his cards.

To everyones surprise, Senior Zhou did not look at his cards. He touched and held them before throwing a one million USD chip. The chips were prepared. Song Yuhu helped him place his chips beside the table.

Not looking at the cards?

He is playing blind raise.

The opponent must double his bets if he wants to see his cards.

Dong Xuebing had wanted to look at his cards, but he saw Senior Zhou did not look. He tapped his cards and said. Call.

Shen Xiaomei placed Dong Xuebing's chip on the table.

Senior Zhou looked at him and doubled the bet. Two million USD.

Dong Xuebing replied without blinking. Call. Two million USD.

Senior Zhou laughed. Nice. Let's see your cards. He threw more chips into the pot.

Dong Xuebing did not say much and turned his cards over. Q of Clubs, K of Clubs, and A of Clubs.

It was a royal flush.

The onlookers gasped.

Senior Zhou smiled and held and touched his cards before lightly throwing them on the table. 5 of Clubs, 5 of Hearts, and 5 of Spades. Three of a kind.

Senior Zhou won.

The God of Cards won.

Senior Zhou said. Sorry, young man.

Song Yuhu knew Dong Xuebing would lose to Senior Zhou. He collected the winnings and sneered at Dong Xuebing.

Shen Xiaoyan frowned.

Shen Xiaomei took a deep breath. She got more anxious.

Dong Xuebing looked at Senior Zhou deeply. He was more surprised than others. It was as if he knew Senior Zhou's cards and was confident his royal flush would win. However, when Senior Zhou opened, the cards turned into three of a kind. Dong Xuebing smiled. Fine. This old man had cheated, and he was careless.

They were checking each other in this round.

Dong Xuebing lost in their first exchange.

The crowd started whispering among themselves.

Ginger gets spicier as it gets older.

That's right. The God of Cards has never lost before.

This young man will not win despite getting good cards.

Royal Flush versus Three of a Kind. Did these two switch their cards?

So what if they switched their cards? Who can tell they cheated? It is not considered cheating if no one catches them.

Everyone could feel the differences in skill in this round. The God of Cards still has his skills.

Dong Xuebing's chips became 95 million USD.

He lost a few million USD in a minute. This was faster than Mahjong.

Dong Xuebing thought nothing about it. He looked at Senior Zhou. You are indeed the God of Cards. It was a good game.

Senior Zhou waved his hand. I am not God. This was a nickname given by my friends. You, the new generation, are better.

The second game started.

Senior Zhou starts again.

He held his cards and did not look at them. Five Million USD. He bet the maximum amount.

Dong Xuebing did not wait for Senior Zhou to open his cards. He threw the chips into the pot. Open. To open your opponents cards, you need to double the bet. But Dong Xuebing did not mind.

Senior Zhou smiled. He rubbed his cards and placed them lightly on the table. K, K, K! He got three of a kind again.

Another three-of-a-kind!

Dong Xuebing also rubbed his cards and turned them over. A, A, and A!

His three-of-a-kind was bigger than Senior Zhous.

Zhou Hus pupils dilated as he looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Thanks for letting me win, Senior Zhou.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were holding their breaths.

Everyone got jitters as they watched the game. They knew what was going on now. No one could get such good hands every time.

Both did not look at their cards either.

These two were cheating.

They were pitting their cheating skills against each other.

How can they get three-of-a-kind so easily?

Dong Xuebing won a round and got one hundred million USD of chips.

What skills do you all have? How did you all do it? No one saw how you all switched your cards.

Everyone knows the God of Cards is a master at changing cards. But Dong Xuebing is as good as the God of Cards.

This

Everyone was shocked.

The next game started.

The winner gets to start first. Dong Xuebing threw five million USD into the pot. Five million USD.

Senior Zhou told his men to place five million USD into the pot. Call. Five million.

Dong Xuebing threw five million USD chips into the pot. Five Million.

Call! Senior Zhou called.

Dong Xuebing wants to take the initiative and add 10 million USD. Open!

Senior Zhou picked up his cards and looked at them. He rubbed them a few times before throwing them down on the table. A, A, A. Its the biggest Three-of-a-kind.

Senior Zhou won!

Song Yuhu and the rest thought so.

But everyone went silent when Dong Xuebing turned his cards over.

5!

Dong Xuebing got a 5!

This was the smallest card in a 3-cards brag. Any cards six and above can win him. However, five can win against Three-of-a-kind!

The God of Cards lost!

He lost again!

Dong Xuebing won 110 million USD.

Song Yuhu was shocked. Senior Zhou.

Senior Zhou narrowed his eyes. Good game! One more!

Dong Xuebing smiled. He looked at the shocked dealer.

The dealer composed herself and started shuffling the cards and giving them out.

Senior Zhou dares not to be careless. He picked up his cards immediately and looked at them. Song Yuhu remained emotionless after seeing his cards.

Dong Xuebing did not look at his cards and placed a five million USD bet.

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing and threw ten million USD into the pot to open Dong Xuebing's cards.

Dong Xuebing did not look at his cards and turned them over. A, A, A! The biggest three-of-a-kind.

Senior Zhou looked into Dong Xuebing's eyes and sighed as he threw his cards. He gave up. Good skills! I am not playing anymore.

Dong Xuebing replied. You let me win. Lets play a few more hands.

Senior Zhou smiled and waved his hand. I am old now.

All the guests were stunned when they heard it.

The God of Cards lost.

Zhou Hu had lost.

What happened? The God of Cards has never lost before.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing. This young man is good at card games, too! Even the God of Cards admitted defeat!
