Chapter 1291: This guy is crazy

City State Security Bureau.

It was chaotic at the entrance.

The reactions of the onlookers were different when they saw the fainted guards and the dismantled gun.

Who is he?

Why is he so good at combat?

He only used one hand.

No. He used one hand because he can only use that hand.

Didnt you see his left arm? His arm seemed to be broken. His leg, too.

I saw the bandages, and he was limping.

How can he be so strong when he has a fractured arm and leg?

He dares to barge into the City Bureau compound. Who is this guy?

Most of the onlookers were talking about Dong Xuebing and did not go forward to stop him. The City Bureau is an administrative office building, and the staff was primarily administrative staff. It is similar to Dong Xuebing's previous role at the Western Branch. Administrative staff were not trained in combat. Most of them dare not stop him after seeing his combat skills.

But some could not stand it.

City Bureau staff and a few trained State Security staff moved forward and stared at Dong Xuebing.

What are you doing?

How dare you hit the guards?

Do you know where this place is?

About eight people blocked Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing looked at them as he continued forward. I know where this place is and who you all are. But listen up. I am here to look for someone. It has nothing to do with you all. Dont block me. I dont want to use violence, as injuring you all is not good. I warned those guards as I didnt want to hurt them. But they refused to listen. I got no choice.

One person

A severely injured person barged into the City Bureau without a care about the people there.

Dong Xuebing was unfazed when he faced over a hundred State Security Leaders and staff.

A City Bureau Leader shouted. This guy is too arrogant! Arrest and bring him back for questioning!

They cannot allow this guy to create trouble in the State Security Bureau and let him enter. This will disgrace the City Bureau.

After the Leader ordered, over a dozen people joined the eight people. More than twenty people went forward to stop Dong Xuebing.

Among the people were City Bureau staff and staff from other branches.

No one from the City Western Branch stepped forward to stop Dong Xuebing. Stop Chief Xiao Dong? Stop joking. They don't want to die so early. Although they do not know about his combat power after his transfer, they know about his temper and hear of his backing.

This guy is the God of Plagues.

You can provoke him all you want, but don't count us in. We will not join you all.

The Western Branch staff were still scared of Xiao Dong after two years. They are not foolish to go against him.

Even Zhen Anguo did not move.

Tan Limei was anxious as those people were about to attack Dong Xuebing again. She ran to a corner and called Xu Yan.

The line got through.

Hello, Xiao Tan. What is it? Is he there? Xu Yan asked anxiously.

Tan Limei replied. He is here and has clashed with the people here.

Xu Yan took a deep breath. Who did he fight? How do you know?

We are meeting at the City Bureau today, and I am here. Xuebing fought against four guards and knocked them out. He is going to fight with the State Security staff here.

Stop him. Don't let him go crazy!

You should know about Xuebing's temper. How can I stop him? You need to come quick, Chief Xu. He only listens to you.

I am stuck in traffic.

How long more do you need?

I don't know. I think I need at least an hour.

Tan Limei's heart sank. That's it. Chief Xu cannot reach soon, and no one can stop Xuebing now. This matter will blow up.

Both sides faced each other.

To those State Security Bureau staff and leaders, this injured guy, creating trouble at the City State Security Bureau, is crazy. Those guards who fought Dong Xuebing were not trained professionally. They would be transferred to the field if they were good at combat. They were not intimidated when the other staff saw Dong Xuebing knocking out those guards. Dong Xuebing's injuries deceive them, and he is alone. They felt they could take him down with their numbers.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Are you all not letting me pass?

A City Bureau Leader looked at Dong Xuebing coldly. You will know the consequences of barging into our unit!

Haha I want to know. Dong Xuebing looked at them. Fine. Dont regret it.

Over twenty people looked at Dong Xuebing speechlessly. So many people have surrounded an injured person like you, and you are threatening us? Are you mad?

Stop wasting our breath with him.

The leaders are arriving. Hurry and settle this guy.

The group stepped forward and ordered Dong Xuebing to give up while preparing to subdue him. Of course, they were wary of him. They saw his combat moves earlier and did not underestimate him. However, these people were facing Dong Xuebing. It does not matter if they were severe or wary of him. The differences between them were too vast.

Both sides got closer.

Dong Xuebing stood there and smoked his cigarette, waiting for them to get nearer.

Dong Xuebing's attitude angered the State Security staff. He was too arrogant.

If these people knew over fifty fully armed soldiers, armored trucks, grenades, and other weapons could not hurt Dong Xuebing in Florida, and their base was destroyed instead, they would not dare to go near him. But only the top State Security Leaders and a few others know about it. The City Bureau people were not at that level and would never know how scary Dong Xuebing's combat abilities were.

Over twenty people

Even two hundred men were no match for Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing had absolute confidence in himself when he came. Although his remaining time is not a lot, a few seconds of STOP is enough to knock out a few people. He can easily fight against everyone there, even with his injuries.

The first person reached Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing held his cigarette between his lips and stepped forward. He moved slowly, but many people could not see his movements. The person in front was about to hit him when he saw a black shadow flash in front of him. He felt a sharp pain in his throat and lost consciousness.

Fainted.

Two other guys behind were shocked and angry. They tried to grab and subdue Dong Xuebing from both sides.

Dong Xuebing saw them coming and took another step forward. His hand moved like a shadow.

Bam! Bam!

Those two dropped to the ground.

Everyone was stunned.

Xiao An!

Xiao Chen!

The rest were furious and rushed forward.

Dong Xuebing looked in front and took another step. He flicked his hand, and a young man rolled his eyes and dropped to the ground.

Someone punched Dong Xuebing from his back.

Dong Xuebing stepped back without looking and gave that guy a knife-hand chop to his throat.

Bam!

Another guy was knocked out.

Another young man saw Dong Xuebing's attacks were aimed at their throats and took note to protect his throat. When he was about to attack Dong Xuebing from another side, a hand appeared and hit his throat. He could not see what happened and collapsed.

One person

Three people

Five people

One person would be knocked out with every step Dong Xuebing took.

Over a dozen men were knocked out within seconds.

Everyone was shocked, and no one said a word. They stared at Dong Xuebing angrily.

Anyone else? Dong Xuebing looked at the people blocking his way.

Those people kept quiet. They realized they were not on the same combat level as Dong Xuebing. Moreover, Dong Xuebing was injured, used one hand, and only attacked their throats. Using the same move, he knocked out almost twenty men, including the guards. He was not even out of breath.

Everyone took a deep breath. They finally know why this young man is not scared of the City State Security Bureau. His combat power is too scary.

It seems like no number of people can beat him other than using guns.

But they could only draw guns when they were on missions. Other than the guards, none of them were armed.

Where did this guy come from?

Who offended such a scary person?

Chapter 1292: No one can stop him

City State Security Bureau.

Inside the compound.

No one dared to move after twenty men were knocked out. The staff and leaders understood one thing. They were not this young man's match.

Numbers do not make a difference against his combat powers.

Get the guns!

We need to get permission, and it might

Get it now! Can't you see the situation?

Yes, Chief Zhang. We will go to the armory now.

Everyone knew it would be too late after they got the guns.

This was the first time the City Bureau encountered such incidents. They don't know how to handle this situation and have never considered it. Who would expect someone to barge into the State Security Bureau forcefully? This is the City State Security Bureau. No one in their right mind would create trouble here. Even if they did so, the guards would chase them away. Moreover, many State Security staff were inside. They should contain the situation quickly. However, something unexpected happened. A crazy person is breaking into the Bureau, and over twenty men cannot stop him.

What should we do?

How are we going to handle this situation?

No one is his match.

They would not get the guns soon.

Everyone there is an administrative staff. They dare not approach Dong Xuebing and could only look at him continuing his way forward.

Dong Xuebing walked forward slowly.

Some people who were blocking him stepped back.

A path leading to the office building was formed.

It was shocking. Over a hundred State Security Bureau staff and leaders looked at Dong Xuebing barged into the City Bureau, and none dared to stop him.

Tan Limei slapped her forehead and was dumbfounded.

Shit shit

This is going to blow up.

Xuebing who had offended you?

How are you going to face the consequences after causing all this?

Tan Limei was worried for Dong Xuebing and shocked by his combat power. She knew he was good at fighting but did not expect him to be so good.

This

Someone stop him!

That's right. We cannot let him enter!

Our Bureau would be a laughing stock tomorrow if he enters!

Many people were agitated. Some City Bureau leaders were furious.

Old Zhen!

Old Zhen!

Someone called Zhen Anguo.

Zhen Anguo was from the Public Security Bureau, and his combat skills were the best among the administrative staff there. He pretended not to hear the City Leaders calling him as he knew he was not Dong Xuebing's match. Compared to the rest of the Western Branch staff and Tan Limei, he knew more about Dong Xuebing.

Fight with him?

Stop joking.

I don't have enough lives to fight him.

Zhen Anguo still could not believe Dong Xuebing barged into the City Bureau. However, he knows no one in the Bureau can stop him. This guy killed nine criminals when he was handcuffed. He fought off a Siberian Tiger barehandedly and knocked out dozens of civilians who tried to stop him from demolishing illegal structures.

This is how good Dong Xuebing is.

How am I going to fight him? No one can win him.

Zhen Anguo is not stupid. He knows about Dong Xuebing's combat power and will not fight him.

Zhen Anguo and his men did not move. None of them dared to fight Dong Xuebing.

The crowd stirred.

What should we do?

Where did this hooligan come from?

I heard he is looking for Director Wang.

Yes! Hurry and call Director Wang to hide.

I called his office but could not get through.

Sigh how did Director Wang offend this crazy fellow?

This had blown out of proportion. The City Bureau Leaders would be furious when they come later.

Hurry and stop him. Why is no one stopping him?

Many had called for backups. Some called their leaders to report, and some went to get guns.

However, no one dared to stop Dong Xuebing.

Knocking out one person with each step he took.

Using the same move on everyone.

He can knock out everyone here.

Everyone saw the difference in skills between Dong Xuebing and them.

Dong Xuebing was not in a rush. He entered the office building in front of everyone. He did not look at Zhen Anguo, Tan Limei, and his former colleagues at the Western Branch. He does not want to implicate them. He entered the building lobby with his hands in his pocket and looked around.

About a dozen female staff were inside, looking at the commotion earlier. They went quiet when they saw him.

Dong Xuebing looked at them. Which floor is Wang Shens office?

A female staff member trembled when Dong Xuebing looked at her. She pointed upstairs. On the second floor the second office on the left.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Thank you.

Dont mention it. The female staff member wiped her sweat.

An older female staff pulled that staffs sleeves. She was questioning why she told that young man where the office was.

That female staff was speechless. Over a hundred men outside could not stop this young man. What can she do?

Dong Xuebing went upstairs.

The lobby and outside of the building were in chaos.

Hurry and call Director Wang!

Why is the line engaged?

Have they got the guns? Ask them to hurry up!

Has anyone contacted Director Wang?

What are you all waiting for? Follow him, and dont let him touch the classified documents.

He is not going to the filing room. He went upstairs for Director Wang. This

What is Old Wang doing? Why is he still inside his office after what happened?

This is the State Security Bureau. They cannot allow outsiders to do whatever they want inside the building. Although no one could win against Dong Xuebing, a group of staff followed him from a distance. They watched him and made sure he did not touch any classified documents. They discovered he did not look around and went straight to the second floor. They were relieved when they knew he was not here for any documents. This incident can be considered a personal grudge between this guy and Director Wang. It could still be contained.

Upstairs.

Wang Shens office.

A staff ran to Director Wangs office after he could not get him on his phone. Knock knock knock he knocked on the door anxiously.

He could hear Director Wangs talking inside, but he did not open the door.

Wang Shen was on the phone with Xu Yan. He was in a terrible mood. He heard someone knocking on his door and shouting something, but he was uninterested. He shouted. Stop knocking! I am busy. Come back later.

The knocking stopped.

The footsteps got further. The staff member outside had walked away quickly.

Wang Shen thought nothing about it. He said coldly into his phone. Are you done? Why should I run? Huh?

Xu Yan shouted. He is there now!

Wang Shen sneered. So what? Let him come!

Do you understand what I said? Hurry and get out of there, or hide somewhere. Dont let Xiao Dong find you. Xu Yan knew Dong Xuebing had knocked out the guards. Although it is severe, it can be contained. After all, those were guards. If Dong Xuebing found Wang Shen, he would beat him to a pulp! He would break every bone in him. Wang Shen is a City State Security Bureau Leader and a Division Chief level leader. It would be out of control if he were beaten up.

Xu Yan does not want to see Xiao Dong to be in trouble.

Wang Shen ignored her warnings. Are you done? Stop wasting my time. Let him come. I am waiting for him in my office. I want to see how he comes in.

You dont know who he is.

Who cares who he is? I will wait for him here.

Suddenly, someone turned the doorknob. It was locked, and the person outside did not open it. Wang Shen frowned. Who is it?

The next moment

Bam! The door was kicked!

The doorknob flew out and dropped to the floor.

Wang Shen was stunned. He looked at his office door.

Bam! Another kick! This time, the door was kicked down. It crashed to the ground, sending a cloud of dust up.

Wang Shen held his phone and stood up. He shouted. What are you doing?

The dust cleared, revealing Dong Xuebing. His hands were in his pocket, and he smiled as he looked at Wang Shen. You are Wang Shen, right? What am I doing? I am here to have a chat with you.

Wang Shen said coldly. You are Xu Yans subordinate. How did you come in?

Wang Shen could not believe this. What are the guards doing? They checked everyone who entered the Bureau. How can they let an outsider enter the office building and kick down his door?

Where are the guards?

What the hell are they doing?

Guards! Wang Shen shouted. Xiao Liu! Xiao Zheng!

It was quiet outside. No one replied Wang Shen.

Wang Shens heart sank. He got a bad feeling and remembered what Xu Yan said earlier. No one can stop him if he wants to enter.

Chapter 1293: Must find a crowded place

Second floor.

Office.

The door was kicked down. The door on the floor made the office look pathetic.

Following Dong Xuebing, the staff were shocked when they saw him kick down Director Wangs office door. They took a few steps back and dared not get close. This guy dares to barge into the City State Security Bureau. What else he does not dare to do? They will not sacrifice themselves to help Wang Shen. No one can do anything to a lunatic with high combat power.

Eh, what is happening inside?

We are too far. I cant see what is happening inside.

Hurry! Get someone to report to the leader.

My leader is not here. Who should I report?

Are you stupid? There are so many leaders outside. Just report to any leader you see.

Thats right. Hurry! Just say that young man had entered Director Wangs office and is going to hurt him.

Only Dong Xuebing and Wang Shen were in the room.

Oh, Xu Yan has not hung up.

Wang Shen! Give him the phone! Let me speak to him! Xu Yan shouted.

Wang Shen ignored her and looked at Dong Xuebing. He looked out of the office and thought to himself. Where is everyone in the Bureau?

Xu Yan was loud, and Wang Shen held the phone in Dong Xuebings direction. Dong Xuebing heard Xu Yan.

Dong Xuebing calmly replied. I will talk to you later, Sister Xu.

Dont do anything rash! Did you hear me? Xu Yan shouted.

I know what to do. Dont worry. Dong Xuebing said.

You know what to do? Huh? Why would you barge into the City Bureau if you know what to do? Stop now! Listen to me!

This is not your problem.

This is my personal matter. Dont interfere. I can handle it myself.

You worry too much. Consider too much and think too much. How are you going to handle it? You cannot handle it, and this is not only your problem. It is my problem now. You should know my character. I dont like to think so much. Dong Xuebing smiled at Wang Shen. Stay out of this, Sister

Xu. I must settle the score with this guy today. I know you worry I will be implicated, but I am not scared. When am I scared of causing trouble? I want to see who dares to touch me today!

Stop creating trouble for me!

You can scold all you want when I get back.

Are you not going to listen to me?

Dong Xuebing paused for a few seconds and said. Fine. This matter is over if Wang Shen kneels and apologize to you on the phone. I will leave immediately afterward.

Kneel?

Apologize?

Wang Shen was furious.

The phone went silent. Xu Yan did not say anything.

Never mind if he cannot do it. Dong Xuebing glanced at Wang Shen. I am giving you a chance. Consider carefully. Dont blame me if you refuse. He did not care about the consequences when he barged into the City Bureau.

What can they do to him?

Dong Xuebing would reason with others most of the time. But he would not listen to anyone when he decided to be unreasonable.

Wang Shen sneered. Are you drunk?

Dong Xuebing said. Did you hear that, Sister Xu? He refused to apologize. Dont blame me.

Xu Yan, who was still stuck in traffic, shouted. Dont do anything rash! I am reaching soon. Come back with me.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything else. He walked over and pulled out the telephone line. He looked at Wang Shen behind his desk and smiled.

Wang Shen stared at Dong Xuebing. How dare you come and create trouble when you know where this place is? Are you revolting?

Dong Xuebing said. I am here. What can you do to me?

Then dont think of leaving.

I am not leaving until I have a good talk with you.

Wang Shen stepped forward and attacked Dong Xuebing's lower body suddenly.

Dong Xuebing was amused and dodged his attack by stepping back. Oh, did you attack Sister Xu like this yesterday? You are a Division Chief leader and should be fair and square. How can you attack a woman sneakily? Are you proud of yourself? You like sneak attacks? Fine. You can try again.

Wang Shen has good combat skills and is fast.

Swoosh! Wang Shen punched Dong Xuebing's face.

It was a powerful punch. Dong Xuebing's cheekbone would be crushed if he was hit. This punch also angered Dong Xuebing.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh

Wang Shen attacked continuously.

However, Wang Shen's opponent is Dong Xuebing. Dong Xuebing teased him by dodging left and right. Wang Shen could not even touch his clothes. Dong Xuebing remembered Sister Xu's swollen lips and narrowed his eyes. He caught an opening and slapped Wang Shen.

Piak!

The slap hit Wang Shen's face.

His right face turned red with a handprint.

It was not the end. Dong Xuebing took a step forward and kicked Wang Shen's stomach. It was the same spot as Sister Xu's bruise.

Ahh Wang Shen shouted and fell to the ground.

An eye for an eye. This is Dong Xuebing's style.

Dong Xuebing looked at Wang Shen. He looked at the red handprint on his face and the trail of blood from the corner of his lips. It was not swelling or bruised like Sister Xu. He had been slapped hard, and the injury was less severe than Xu Yan's.

This means Wang Shen hit Sister Xu harder than him.

Did he use all his strength in that slap?

A Division Chief using all his strength to slap a woman suddenly? This is too much.

Fk!

Dong Xuebing exploded.

The anger he suppressed for nearly two hours finally exploded.

Dong Xuebing looked at the curled-up Wang Shen on the floor and was disgusted. He kicked him lightly, with the tip of his shoe hitting his throat. He held his throat for a second and fainted. Dong Xuebing grabbed the motionless Wang Shen by his collar and dragged him out of the office.

Along the corridor.

Many staff were standing in the distance looking at them.

Ah! Someone shouted.

They fought! They started fighting.

Shit! What should we do? Where is the backup?

Over a hundred people and leaders from other branches were there. But a severely injured young man forced them to call for backup. This was an embarrassment, but they had no choice.

Eh! He came out!

He is out! He is out!

What happened? Where is Director Wang?

The staff watching Dong Xuebing saw him walking out of the office. While looking for Wang Shen, they saw Dong Xuebing dragging Director Wang out. They were shocked and took a few steps back. Director Wang does not look like his usual self. He looked like a roadkill. His face was swollen, dirt-covered, and dragged along the ground. It was painful to watch. However, everyone was relieved. That young man did not injure him too severely. Director Wang had no blood stains and should be fainted.

One meter

Five meters

Ten meters

Dong Xuebing dragged Wang Shen along the corridor slowly.

The staff members stayed a distant from him and dared not block his way.

Is Director Wang all right?

Yes. I dont think he is seriously injured. Lucky.

I think that young man did not dare to hit him too hard. After all, this is the State Security.

Eh? Why is he dragging Director Wang? Where is he going?

Huh? Thats right. What is he doing? Eh! Why is he going downstairs?

People were shocked when Dong Xuebing dragged Wang Shen down the stairs by his collar. His body knocked against the steps until downstairs, across all the offices, and into the lobby.

Everyone outside saw them.

They looked at them and wondered what was that young man doing.

This guy knocked out Director Wang and dragged him downstairs. What is he up to?

Tan Limei and Western Branch leaders held their breaths as they looked at them.

Dong Xuebing walked out of the building and faced almost a hundred people. He threw Wang Shen on the floor and kicked him in his guts.

Ah! Wang Shen woke up from the pain.

Dong Xuebing bent forward and slapped him.

Ah! Wang Shen fainted again.

Ah! Wang Shen woke up from the pain.

Ah! Wang Shen fainted again.

Everyone was shocked. They understood why that young man dragged Wang Shen out.

A few City Bureau staff were furious and were cursing Dong Xuebing in their hearts.

You barged into our Bureau

Fine!

You hit Director Wang

Fine!

But why must you drag him out before everyone to hit him? You are trying to disgrace Director Wang!

Fk!

You are too evil!

Chapter 1294: A Hooligan

City Bureau.

Outside the office building.

Dong Xuebing knocked out Wang Shen three times in front of everybody. The latter's face was covered in bruises, and he lost count of how many teeth he lost. His clothes were in tatters. The onlookers were dumbfounded. Director Wang was humiliated in front of everyone. His injuries would take at least two weeks to recover.

Stop!

Stop hitting him!

Stop immediately!

You are attacking a government agency!

This is not a place for you to do what you want!

Many leaders and staff close to Wang Shen shouted at Dong Xuebing. They stared at him but dared not go near.

Dong Xuebing stopped after hearing them and turned to a female staff with a bottle of mineral water. He walked towards her and took the bottle from her. He thanked her and walked back with the bottle.

Is he stopping?

Is he tired and needs a drink?

The onlookers were relieved.

Before everybody could say anything, Dong Xuebing poured the mineral water on Wang Shen's face. The cold water woke him up again. He coughed weakly on the ground.

Dong Xuebing lifted his leg and stomped on his face again.

Everybody felt a chill down their spine. This guy took the bottle of water not because he was thirsty. It was to wake Director Wang.

WTF!

This guy is ruthless.

How deep is their grudge?

How did Director Wang offend you?

Stop!

Can you hear us?

He will die if you continue!

Many State Security staff started shouting at Dong Xuebing.

Those guards and the staff, who were knocked out by Dong Xuebing earlier, woke up. Dong Xuebing's target was Wang Shen, and he did not go all out on others. He used some combat techniques to knock out them. They were not hurt other than a few got sore throats. They dare not go near when they see the young man dragging Director Wang out of the building.

A person

An injured person

This guy shocked almost a hundred people. He stopped everyone from going near him. This was unbelievable.

Suddenly, people started running out of the office building.

It was a group of ten people. They were waiting for the meeting in the conference hall. Among them was Wang Shen's current wife, Xu Yan. They heard what happened and rushed out. They did not react slowly. Dong Xuebing was too fast. He took a few minutes to barge into the bureau and drag Wang Shen out of the building. The conference hall had good soundproofing. Dong Xuebing was almost done when they heard what happened and got out.

Old Wang!

Director Wang!

What are you doing? Are you trying to revolt?

The people who just came out were furious.

They heard about Dong Xuebing's combat skills from the staff who informed them. They did not dare to go near him.

Only Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) ran forward. Old Wang!

Dong Xuebing finished kicking and was taking a breather beside him. He saw Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) and ignored her. He let her run to Wang Shen.

Old Wang! Wake up! Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) was worried.

Stop shaking him. He will not die.

Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) saw Dong Xuebing and attacked him with a palm strike without saying a word.

Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) did not hit Sister Xu, and Dong Xuebing would not do anything to her. He seldom hit women and blocked her attack.

Xu Yan (Shen Yan's current wife) continued with a knee attack on his stomach.

Dong Xuebing pushed her, and she fell to the ground.

Xu Yan (Shen Yans current wife) knew she was not Dong Xuebing's match. She stared at him as if she wanted to eat him alive. She was furious by her husband's injuries.

Dong Xuebing thought nothing about it. He looked at her. Don't look at me like this. I am not used to it. You should know your husband well. He wants to be arrogant. Fine. Let's see who is more arrogant. Stop staring at me. I would beat you up if you were not a woman. Although Xu Yan (Shen Yans current wife) did not hit Sister Xu, she was also involved. Dong Xuebing would not be nice to her.

Xu Yan (Shen Yans current wife) stood up.

Dong Xuebing looked at her. I did not hit you just now, but that does not mean I will not hit you if you come at me again. He was still furious.

Xu Yan (Shen Yans current wife) moved her legs and was about to rush forward.

A leader from her branch quickly grabbed her. Don't!

Chief Xu, bear with him for a while. The Leaders will be here soon.

That's right. The City Bureau staff have gone to get firearms from the armory. Don't be rash.

My husband was beaten up so badly. Can you bear with it if you were in my shoes?

We are not his match. Let's wait a while. He cannot escape with so many people here.

A few staff from her branch stopped her. They saw Dong Xuebing's eyes and knew he was mad. He would not hold back.

Let go of me!

Calm down, Chief Xu!

Let go of me now!

Dong Xuebing saw them not attacking him again and turned to look at Wang Shen, who had woken up again. He felt he had hit enough and was about to slap Wang Shen the last time. You dare to hit my Sister Xu? I hope you learned your lesson today.

Suddenly, a gunshot fired.

Bang! Someone fired into the air.

About a dozen people ran out from a side building. All of them were carrying firearms.

The guns are here!

Terrific!

They are just in time.

That's right. Director Wang would be severely injured if that guy continues to hit him like this.

More than a dozen guns are pointing at him. He should be too scared to move. He would be full of holes if each person fired one shot.

Although those people returned with the guns late, they were not too late. The City Bureau staff regained their confidence and ordered Dong Xuebing to stop.

They surrounded Dong Xuebing and pointed their guns at him.

The Western Branchs staff, especially Tan Limei, were worried.

Over a dozen guns pointed at Dong Xuebing, and he looked at them without saying a word.

Put your hands above your head!

Dont move!

Get down on your knees!

Those staff with guns shouted at Dong Xuebing.

Xu Yan (Shen Yans current wife) was relieved. Her husband was groaning in pain. She knew he would be fine now as Dong Xuebing was restrained.

Yes. Everyone thinks like this.

Except for one person. Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing laughed when he saw those guns. He bends down beside Wang Shen.

Hands on your head!

Or I will shoot!

To everyones surprise, Dong Xuebing ignored them. He raised his arm and slapped Wang Shen.

Slap!

Wang Shen spat out a few teeth again.

Everyone was stunned. They could not believe their eyes.

This guy dares to continue with so many guns pointing at him.

Tan Limei was scared and shouted. Dont shoot!

The staff with guns were shocked. They worked in the State Security for many years and had never seen anyone not afraid of guns.

They were unsure if they should fire at this moment.

Dong Xuebing was done hitting Shen Wang and stood up. He smiled and walked forward with his hands in his pockets.

Dont come any closer!

I am warning you! Dont get any closer!

Dong Xuebing continued walking forward. He stood before a gun after a few seconds. He pointed to the center of his brows. I can tell you had not been serious during your yearly firearm training from the way you hold the gun. Administrative staff Fine. Let me help you in case you miss and hurt others. Can you see the center of my brows? Shoot here. Just squeeze the trigger. You will not miss from this distance. Eh? Why didnt you release the safety? Hurry up and release it.

Dong Xuebing looked at them with a smile. He was not scared at all.

The staff with guns were stunned. This young man was not scared of their guns and could even go up to them and teach them where to shoot.

Fk!

Who the hell is this guy?

This guy is crazy!

They had met many crazy people before but had never met anyone like Dong Xuebing.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing in shock. No wonder he dares to barge into the City State Security Bureau. He was fearless.

Someone shouted. Why did you hit Director Wang?

Dong Xuebing and Wang Shen must have deep grudges.

Dong Xuebing knew he should not tell others that Wang Shen beat up Sister Xu. After all, it is her family matters, and it would harm her reputation. He smiled. Why? There's no reason. I don't like his face and feel like beating him.

Everyone cursed when they heard his reply.

There must be a reason or grudge for beating someone up.

You barged into the City Bureau and beat up Director Wang in front of over a hundred people. You say there's no reason for beating him up?

No reason?

Just because you don't like his face?

Everyone felt like cursing because of Dong Xuebing's thuggish behavior.

Fk! How did Director Wang offend this hooligan?

Chapter 1295: No such person found

Hooligan.

This guy is a crazy hooligan.

This was everyone's impression of Dong Xuebing.

They had never met anyone like Dong Xuebing before.

Although more than a dozen people pointed their guns at him, no one dared to pull the trigger. They were shocked by Dong Xuebing's fearless attitude. More importantly, this is the City State Security Bureau. It would blow out of proportion if they killed him. Other provinces State Security Bureau would know an injured, unarmed man barged into their Bureau and beat up their leader. It will be a great embarrassment. The Bureau's top leader has not arrived or given any instructions over the phone. They dare not fire without instructions. What if the leader does not want to blow up this incident?

Both sides entered a stalemate.

One hundred vs. one.

Over a dozen guns pointed at one person.

The State Security staff might seem to have the upper hand. However, Dong Xuebing smiled and lit a cigarette. He had his hands in his pocket as he looked at them. He gave everyone the feeling that he had suppressed everyone.

Put up your hands!

Drop the cigarette, and dont move!

Cant you hear us? Hands above your head and kneel!

Dong Xuebing continued to smoke and ignored them.

The staff were furious, but no one dared to go near him.

Go and rescue Director Wang first.

Check his injuries.

Thats right. Call the ambulance.

A few people helped Wang Shen to the office buildings steps. Xu Yan (Wang Shens current wife) ran over to check on her husband.

Lucky.

Wang Shens injuries were not life-threatening.

But Wang Shen must stay in the hospital for a least a few months.

Dong Xuebing had held back against others but not to Wang Shen. He would not let a scumbag, who assaulted his ex-wife, off lightly.

Old Wang! Old Wang! Xu Yan (Wang Shens current wife) shouted.

Ah Ah Wang Shen groaned.

Xu Yan (Wang Shens current wife) shouted angrily. Who is that bastard?

Wang Shen replied with difficulty. I I dont know him.

Dont know him?

You dont know him?

The staff nearby heard him and were speechless.

Was that young man telling the truth? He barged into the City Bureau to beat up Director Wang because he did not like his face.

Damn!

Are you fearless?

Are you not afraid of the consequences?

You you are crazy!

The gunshot earlier had attracted some passersby. The City Bureau is a secured area, but the street outside is not. A small crowd was formed, and some City Bureau staff went out to disperse them. They cordoned the area outside their compound and stopped anyone from getting close.

Suddenly, an Audi and a few Passats entered the Bureau.

A few City Bureau staff saw and rushed over to receive them. The leaders from other branches also rushed over.

They knew the City Bureaus top leader was here. The first car belongs to Jiang Song, the City State Security Bureau Chief. Everybody was relieved to see their top leader. This incident has a negative impact, and they need a Leader who can make decisions.

A lot of people got out of the cars.

Dong Xuebing glanced at them. He heard Wang Shen was Chief Jiangs man. He groomed and promoted Wang Shen, and Dong Xuebing does not have a good impression of him.

Jiang Song is a fit and tan middle-aged man. He heard what happened at the Bureau before he came.

What are you all doing? Jiang Song was furious.

A City Bureau staff replied quickly. We contained the situation temporarily, Chief Jiang.

Jiang Song coldly replied. You all took so long to stop that guy! Where is he?

The staff pointed towards Dong Xuebing. Over there.

A Deputy Chief asked angrily. How did this happen? Tell us the details.

Such an embarrassing incident had never happened at their Bureau, and the leaders were furious.

Another staff replied. That guy said he was looking for Wang Shen, Director Wang. The meeting was starting, and the guards refused to let him enter. He barged in and knocked out the guards and over a dozen staff who tried to stop him.

Jiang Song looked at him. Over a hundred people cannot stop one person?

That man replied. He knocked out one person with one move. Almost twenty men were knocked out within seconds. We cant stop him. He paused for a second and pointed at Dong Xuebing, and his left arm and leg seemed to be fractured, and his right leg also seemed to be injured.

The few Deputy Chiefs inhaled deeply and looked at Dong Xuebing.

This was a joke. A severely injured person had barged into the City State Security Bureau, and no one could stop him.

Are you sure?

Yes. Everyone saw it.

How is he so strong with those injuries?

The Deputy Bureau Chiefs did not see what happened and could not believe it.

Other staff went over and explained what happened to the leaders.

Jiang Song and the Deputy Chiefs looked at Wang Shen. They were furious at Dong Xuebing's actions.

Where did the hooligan come from? Jiang Song was angry.

The staff replied. We don't know. Director Wang does not know him.

He does not know him? Why would that hooligan barge into the Bureau to beat him up if he does not know him? What is Old Wang doing? Jiang Song was furious. He knows it takes two hands to clap. Wang Shen must have done something to this crazy guy.

Zhen Anguo knew he could not hide it anymore and walked over. They do not know Dong Xuebing, but he knows. Dong Xuebing worked in the Western Branch Bureau, and they could find out quickly. He must inform Jiang Song first.

Zhen Anguo said. Chief Jiang.

Old Zhen? Jiang Song looked at him. What is it?

Zhen Anguo said. I know this person. He is Dong Xuebing. He worked at our City Western Branch for a while and was transferred away two years ago.

A staff member was surprised. Then why didn't you stop him?

Zhen Anguo paused for a second and said. We are not on good terms.

A Deputy Chief looked at Zhen Anguo and asked. Is he from the State Security operation department?

No. He is a graduate and took the civil service exam. He was an administrative staff and was transferred to the grassroots. He should still be working there. I don't know much about him. Zhen Anguo knew Dong Xuebing might have strong backing and did not say much. He does not want to offend others.

Jiang Song asked. Administrative staff?

Zhen Anguo nodded. Yes.

Jiang Song said. How can he be so good at combat if he is an administrative staff?

Zhen Anguo could not answer because he did not know why Dong Xuebing was so good at fighting. It does not make sense for an untrained, ordinary graduate to fight like this. I don't know much about him. He was transferred away shortly after I came to the Western Branch.

A Deputy Chief said. Let's arrest and question him first, Chief Jiang.

They cannot let Dong Xuebing off after he barged into the Bureau and injured their staff.

Jiang Song frowned. He thought about it and instructed his men. Check our intranet. I want his personal files.

Jiang Song's subordinate replied. Yes, Sir.

That subordinate entered the office building to retrieve Dong Xuebing's file.

Others stop talking. They knew Chief Jiang was cautious. After all, this person could knock out almost twenty people with his injuries and was not afraid to barge into the State Security Bureau. He might have backings, and they should check his details first.

Everyone waited outside of the office building.

Tan Limei was anxious. She knew Dong Xuebing might be in deep trouble. She walked away quietly to call Xu Yan. She knew Chief Xu might still be stuck in traffic and would take a while to reach. She called her to tell her what happened. It was too late for Chief Xu to do anything. She could stop Xuebing before he barged into the City Bureau and hit Wang Shen.

Jiang Song is the Beijing City State Security Bureaus Chief.

Chief Xu is the head of a grassroots City Bureau. Their ranks were wide apart, and Jiang Song would not give in to Chief Xu. What are we going to do?

Dong Xuebing was not nervous or worried. He continued to smoke.

Chief Jiangs phone rang two minutes later.

Hello, how is it? Jiang Song asked.

The subordinate who went to retrieve Dong Xueblings file said. I can only find his normal file. He is an Executive Deputy Mayor of a county. But his internal file is

What is it?

No such person found.

The public security and district office could retrieve any civil servant files. However, internal files are only accessible by the State Security and the Military. It records detailed information, like his family members details and which hospital he was born, etc., of a person. Every citizen has this record. But they had never heard of anyone without this file.

This guys regular file is available. But why is his internal file unavailable?

Jiang Song paused for a second and asked. Are you sure?

I tried three times, and the system showed there are no records of this person.

Chapter 1296: Level 1 Classified File

City State Security Bureau.

Outside of the office building.

It was almost 10 am.

Jiang Songs brows twitched. He paused for a while and said to his subordinate over the phone. Wait for me in the classified file room. I will go over now.

Yes, Sir.

Keep this to yourself.

Huh? Yes. I understand.

No such person found. This would not happen under normal circumstances.

Jiang Song knew there was only one possibility. Dong Xuebing's internal file was not missing. It was encrypted, and the City State Security Bureau intranet access right is insufficient to view Dong Xuebing's file. Jiang Song was puzzled and wanted to know more about Dong Xuebing. He needs to go to the classified file room and log into his account to view his file. As the Beijing State Security Bureau Chief, he has the access right to view confidential files.

Jiang Song said after hanging up. I am going to the classified file room. Watch him closely and tell them to turn off safety. I don't want them to misfire.

Jiang Song was trying to defuse the situation.

A staff replied. But he

Jiang Song interrupted him. Don't ask anything. Just do it.

The staff did not say much and went over to those with guns. Most of them left, and only four remained around Dong Xuebing. They continued pointing their guns at him but turned the safety on.

No one understood why Chief Jiang asked them to step down because they did not hear the phone call.

Jiang Song wanted to deal with Dong Xuebing. The latter had barged into the City Bureau, and it disgraced him. But he was cautious. He needs to know this person's details. He knew this person was not straightforward as his internal file was classified. Although Jiang Song's internal file was tier 5 and encrypted, he was the City Bureau Chief. Dong Xuebing is only a Deputy Division Chief and was formerly an administrative staff in the State Security. His internal file should not be encrypted or higher than tier 10.

Jiang Song entered a side building and went up to the classified room.

Entrance. Jiang Song's subordinate was waiting for him. The staff inside also came out to greet him.

Chief!

Chief Jiang.

Jiang Song entered the room and closed the door behind him. He did not let others enter, and he went to a PC.

The PC was on.

Jiang Song entered the internal database and checked Dong Xuebing's information. He entered his name, and the result returned as No such person found. He frowned and was not surprised. He was puzzled as to why a Deputy Division Chief's file had to be classified and encrypted. He logged in with his ID and entered Dong Xuebing's name.

Searching

The search stopped.

A few lines of words and a red symbol appeared. Jiang Song looked at the screen and was stunned.

What is this?

How is this possible?

The screen showed the result clearly.

Search ended.

The persons file is encrypted.

State Security Tier 1 Classified file.

Military Tier 1 Classified file.

Sorry, you do not have the right to view the file.

Jiang Song inhaled deeply and tapped his forehead. He could not believe it and checked again. His face changed. The internal files classification is divided into ten tiers. The lowest was Tier 10, and the Beijing City Bureau Chief Jiang Songs file is only Tier 5. This Dong Xuebing is

Tier 1 classified file!

Chinas most confidential file!

Dong Xuebing's file was Tier 1 in both State Security and Military!

Jiang Song cursed at the monitor. Who the fk is he?

This is the most confidential file in the country. Jiang Song only heard about Tier 1 confidential files. This was the first time he saw one, and it belonged to a lowly Deputy Division Chief younger than 26 years old. How can his file be classified as Tier 1? How is this possible? Jiang Song knows the Central Government's top leaders close relatives' internal files are ranked Tier 5 or 6.

Jiang Dong does not know the requirements for the higher tiers.

This

How can his data be so secure?

Why is his information classified as Tier 1?

Only the top government officials files will be encrypted as their information is classified. Military leaders and people from the Second Divisions files are classified in the military system, and the classification is strict.

But this guy has both

Dong Xuebing's file is Tier 1, Classified in both the State Security and military.

This is impossible! Jiang Song could not believe his eyes.

Jiang Song took out a cigarette. He was about to light it when he remembered smoking was banned in the file room. He throws his cigarette aside.

Tier 1

Tier 1

The words on the monitor were small but shocking.

Jiang Song thought for a while and could not understand why a small leaders file was Tier 1. He looked at Dong Xuebing's external file. Dong Xuebing comes from an ordinary family, attended an average school, and had average results. He entered the government service through the Civil Servant exams. The only noticeable items in his file were that he saved many people during the earthquake and got promoted quickly. There was no other information. Oh, his wife's name seemed familiar, and his wife's family members' names were not inside.

Xie Huilan

Xie Huilan

Jiang Song could not remember where he had heard of this name.

Could Dong Xuebing have backing? But that will not make his file Tier 1 Classified. The only explanation was Dong Xuebing had done something significant enough to be classified as Tier 1. State Security top leader and other State Security department heads must get approval to view Tier 1 classified files.

This is unbelievable.

Chapter 1297: Someone from the higher-ups is here

City Bureau.

Side office building, Filing room.

Jiang Song shut down the PC in the filing room and sighed. He did not leave the room immediately because he did not know what to do.

This guy's data is Tier 1 classified.

Arrest him for assault in State Security Bureau?

Jiang Song got to seek permission to do that. They are not authorized to do that.

What did Old Wang do to provoke this guy?

Jiang Song's phone rang when he was thinking. Ring ring ring

Song Jiang looked at his phone. It was Minister Lui. Hello, Old Leader.

Minister Lui retired from the State Security and was Jiang Song's former leader. Although he retired, Jiang Song knows he is still involved with the State Security Bureau. He still held frontline positions.

An old man said. Xiao Jiang. What happened at the City Bureau? I heard something happened. He paused for a second and said. Did you use your access rights to check on Dong Xuebing?

Jiang Song was stunned. He did not expect the higher-ups to know about it so quickly. He thought about it and understood. He tried to check a Tier 1 Classified individual, and the higher-ups would be notified immediately. Although Jiang Song could not see anything, it raised an alarm. Yes. Something happened in the Bureau. Dong Xuebing barged into the City Bureau and beat up one of our men. That's why I checked his files.

He barged into the Bureau?

That's right. Dozens of people could not stop him.

Is anyone injured?

A leader is severely injured, but the rest are fine.

This brat. Why is he causing trouble once he is back?

Who is this young man, Old Leader? Why is his file Tier 1 classified?

Dont ask or say anything. You cannot handle this incident. I met Xiao Dong a few times when he was in the State Security, and I am nearby. I will go over now.

Why do you need to come and handle this incident? I heard your asthma got worse.

No matter how serious my asthma is, I must handle this problem. Try to control the situation and wait for me.

Jiang Song hung up. The system was correct. That young mans file is Tier 1. It is not something a City State Security Bureau Chief can access. Thats why Minister Lui said. You cannot handle this incident. Jiang Song must seek permission to handle Dong Xuebing. He also heard Minister Lui grumbling. Why is he causing trouble once he is back? Minister Lui seemed to know Dong Xuebing well and was not surprised the latter had barged into the City Bureau and beat up a leader. Minister Lui would not take note of an ordinary person.

However, no matter how extraordinary you are, you cannot barge into the City Bureau and leave as you like. You have to face the consequences. You must be arrested. Since Minister Lui was coming, Jiang Song was relieved. He must arrest this guy, or he could not face his men. No one is above the law, even if his file is Tier 1 classified.

Jiang Song left the filing room.

A group was waiting for him outside.

Chief Jiang.

Chief, we

Jiang Song waved his hand. Stop asking. Lets go.

They looked at Jiang Song and followed him from the small office building.

The ambulances arrived, and the doctor and nurses checked Wang Shens injuries before sending him to the hospital. Xu Yan (Wang Shens current wife) followed. The other ambulances doctor checked the other people injured by Dong Xuebing. They were fine.

Although Dong Xuebing was contained, the situation was still tense. The crowd was still around, waiting to see how the City Bureau would punish this hooligan.

This guy is too much!

Everybody felt Dong Xuebing should be killed!

They had never met such a wicked hooligan.

Everyone looked at Chief Jiang when he walked out of the building. A few Deputy Chiefs went up to him.

Dong Xuebing finished smoking. He threw the cigarette butt on the floor and reached into his right pocket.

Dont move!

What are you doing?

The staff watching Dong Xuebing were wary.

Dong Xuebing smiled. I am going to make a call.

The people around him were speechless. Why are you making a call when guns are pointing at your head?

Dong Xuebing requested. Hey, can you all step away from me? I don't like others to be too close when I am on the phone. I can walk aside to make the phone call, too.

Arrogant.

This guy is too arrogant!

The people around Dong Xuebing wished they could tear him into pieces.

Jiang Song was furious, but he knew Dong Xuebing was special. He might have made significant contributions to the country. However, Dong Xuebing's words and actions were too much. Can't you see the guns pointing at you? How can you be thinking of making phone calls now?

Dong Xuebing ignored what they thought and said. All right. Please step aside.

All right?

The staff did not move. More staff joined to surround Dong Xuebing, as they were afraid he would escape.

A car entered the compound.

The guards did not stop because they saw the registration plate.

Jiang Song recognized the car. It was Minister Lui. He did not expect his old leader to arrive so fast. He told the Deputy Chiefs and leaders to wait and walked over to receive him. Minister Lui.

The windows rolled down.

An old man looked at Dong Xuebing. What is he doing?

Jiang Song replied. We had kept him under control. He said he wants to make a phone call.

Minister Lui waved his hand. Let him call, and don't make things worse. Don't let your men surround him, and keep the guns.

Let him call?

Dismiss my men?

Jiang Song was stunned. But he is good at combat. I am afraid we cannot stop him without guns. I had told them to turn on the safety.

Minister Lui shook his head. He is calling someone because he is not planning to leave. You cannot force this guy. He dares to do anything when he is forced. Do you think those guns can stop him if he wants to leave?

Jiang Song was surprised. Even guns cannot stop him?

Minister Lui laughed. I would not come if a few guns can stop him.

Chapter 1298: Arrest me? Go ahead!

Morning.

After 10 am.

It was a mess at the City State Security Bureau. The staff were watching. Dong Xuebing wanted to make a phone call, and a Higher-up leader came.

In front of the car.

Jiang Song was quiet. Over a dozen guns and so many people cannot stop him.

Jiang Song does not believe Minister Luis words. How is that possible? That young mans combat skill would be out of this world if Minister Lui told the truth. Old Leader, that guy is injured. Even if he has good combat skills, he cannot win against so many people. Moreover, how can he block bullets? I saw his file is Tier 1, but that does not allow him to barge into our unit and beat up others.

Minister Lui replied. He is someone you cannot judge with common sense.

Jiang Songs brows twitched. Old Leader, he

Enough. Do as I say. Disperse them and stop watching. Ask you men to return to work. It is messy enough. Minister Lui waved his hand. I know how to handle him.

Jiang Song nodded and called his men over.

Senior Lui.

Minister Lui.

Why are you here, Minister?

The few Deputy Chiefs and City Bureau Leaders walked over.

The door opened, and Jiang Song helped Minister Lui out of the car. He nodded at them and looked towards Dong Xuebing.

Jiang Song ordered. Stand down. Ask them to return to work. Tell those here for the meeting to wait in the meeting hall and He paused for a second and looked at the staff, pointing their guns at Dong Xuebing. Tell them to spread out and keep their guns. Let him call if he wants.

Huh?

But

Just do it.

The staff returned to the office building but were not interested in working. They stood by the windows to watch Dong Xuebing. They were shocked when they saw those staff keeping their guns.

What is going on?

Why did they keep their guns?

Are they not going to watch that guy?

Eh? That is Minister Lui!

Is this Minister Luis instruction? Why?

Outside of the office building.

Dong Xuebing took out his phone after the people surrounding him left. He checked his contacts. Eldest Uncle, Second Uncle, Senior Xie, Xie Huilan, her father He cannot call them. Xie Huilan would scold him, and he was scared of his father-in-law. He thought for a while and called Xie Huilans mother, Han Jing. He knows his mother-in-law will not be angry with him.

Ring ring ring

The line got through.

Hello, Xiao Bing. Han Jing answered.

Where are you, Mum? Dong Xuebing asked.

I am at home. I am thinking of what to eat for lunch. Do you want to join me?

No. Err I I am in a little trouble now.

Trouble? What happened? Why are you in trouble again? Tell me.

Its like this. A City State Security Bureau Leader bullied me. He hit an old leader of mine. How can I stand it? So I barged into the City Bureau and beat him up.

You beat up someone in the City State Security Bureau?

Yes.

How many people are injured?

I held back on others, and they suffered minor injuries. Only that person is injured more seriously. He is sent to the hospital. But dont worry. No one died.

I am speechless about you, brat.

Mum, do you know what that guy did? My former Leader is a middle-aged woman. He slapped and kicked her with all his strength. He is lucky I did not beat him to death. Dong Xuebing did not think he had done anything wrong. Chief Xu is my first Leader. I had not even met Huilan at that time. I was clueless about the government service, and she cared for me. She got me out of trouble several times. You can see her as my mentor. How can I let others beat her up? I will not stand for it.

Are you hurt?

I am fine. They cannot hurt me. They also cannot stop me if I want to leave now. But if I leave now, it will be a bit

I understand. Wait for me.

Thank you, Mum. Sorry to trouble you.

I am used to it. I will suspect you are my son-in-law if you are not causing trouble. You just cannot keep still.

Dong Xuebing tried to argue. I treasure the people around me.

Han Jing laughed. You are only saying the good things. I am hanging up.

Dong Xuebing kept his phone after hanging up. He felt assured now.

Dong Xuebing does not think he has done anything wrong. He would barge into the City Bureau to beat up Wang Shen again if given a choice. However, he knows the seriousness of his actions. After all, it happened in the City State Security Bureau. He knew he could not handle this and called his mother-in-law for help. If not, he would be implicated, which might affect his career.

Minister Lui, Jiang Song, and other leaders walked over.

Dong Xuebing saw them and felt the old man in front look familiar. He remembered who he was.

Minister Lui looked at him. Its been a while, Xiao Dong.

Dong Xuebing greeted. Minister Lui.

Dong Xuebing had met Minister Lui when he was in the City Western Branch. Minister Lui visited his branch for an inspection and had an asthma attack and heart attack at the family quarters. Dong Xuebing used BACK to rush to the nearest pharmacy to buy medicine to save him. Minister Lui also helped him after that incident.

Why is Minister Lui here?

Is he here to handle this incident?

Dong Xuebing asked. How is your health?

I am fine. Minister Lui did not say much.

The other Deputy Chiefs were surprised to see Minister Lui knew this hooligan.

Minister Lui stopped smiling and asked in a stern tone. What is your explanation for todays incident?

Dong Xuebing replied casually. Minister Lui, you should know I am not unreasonable. I would not beat him up if Wang Shen had done nothing wrong. I will not say what he did, but I have my reasons for beating him. He deserves it. He was still angry after beating Wang Shen up. Sister Xu is still covered in bruises and pain.

The Deputy Chiefs were furious when they heard him.

Deserve it? How are you reasonable when you beat up someone? Bullshit!

No one expected Dong Xuebing to continue to behave like a hooligan in front of Minister Lui.

Minister Lui was not surprised. He had seen Dong Xuebing's file and knew this guy would go crazy when he was angry. I know you might have some disputes with Wang Shen. But you should know where this place is. This is the State Security. How can you barge in like this? Xiao Dong, have you considered the consequences? Do you know what your actions mean?

Dong Xuebing replied. I know.

Good. Minister Lui said. Although we know each other, you need to give everyone an explanation.

What explanation do you want? Dong Xuebing looked at Minister Lui.

Minister Lui calmly replied. Come back with us.

Dong Xuebing took out a cigarette and lit it. You are arresting me.

Jiang Song said. You can think of it like this. Put out your hands.

Jiang Songs subordinate walked over with a pair of handcuffs.

Handcuffs?

They are serious about arresting me.

Dong Xuebing glanced at Minister Lui.

Minister Lui said. Please cooperate, Xiao Dong.

Dong Xuebing was a bit pissed when he saw Minister Lui going by the books. He thought to himself. I might not be noble, but I have significantly contributed to the country and people. You, of all people, should know what I did. Who saved the hostages from the pirates? Who challenged and won those Tae Kwon Do schools in Seoul? Who rescued the scientist from Floridas research center? I even saved State Security agents and helped them complete their mission a few days ago. If I did not use BACK to get medication for you, you might be dead now. My former Leader was beaten up by your men, and I am here for revenge. How can you arrest me?

Haha.

What a joke.

Arrest me? Arrest Dong Xuebing?

Who can arrest me if I dont want to be arrested?

Jiang Songs subordinate saw Dong Xuebing did not move and grabbed his hand to put on the handcuffs.

Dong Xuebing sneered and twisted that subordinates hand and pushed him away. He lost his balance and fell to the ground.

Everyone was furious.

The people looking from the windows were furious, too.

They did not expect Dong Xuebing to resist in front of Minister Lui.

Jiang Song and his Deputies frowned. This hooligan!

Dong Xuebing thought nothing about it. He smiled at them. You want to arrest me? Fine. I will not move a step. You all can try to arrest me. I will write my name backward if I move a step!

Chapter 1299: There's someone who can control him

Inside the City State Security Bureau.

Everyone could hear Dong Xuebing.

He will not move a step and let them try arresting him. This is telling everyone that no one can arrest him. This is a challenge.

This guy is too much.

He is a thug!

Minister Lui was speechless.

The others were furious. They had never met anyone like Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing was still mad and didnt care how they felt. He looked at Minister Lui and said. Senior Lui, I am not making things difficult for you. I would not cause trouble if Wang Shen did not provoke me. I had many things to do and had to make time to come and beat him up. I had beaten him up, and its a personal grudge. I did not steal or look at any confidential documents. Do I need to be arrested? Fights are common in other units, and I had not heard of anyone bringing guns and arresting people. Are you all targeting me?

Jiang Song shouted. This is the State Security!

Dong Xuebing looked at him. State Security is also a government agency. Its just a dispute between Wang Shen and me. What must you all target me? You all pointed your guns at me! You all are scaring me to death! Come, draw your guns, and try again!

Anger.

Everyone was angry.

This guys words made them angrier.

You beat up someone at our unit, and you think you are right?

Dong Xuebing knew he had gone overboard today but could not control his anger. Jiang Song played a part in Wang Shens arrogance. Thats why Dong Xuebing did not have a good attitude towards them.

Angry because of a beautiful woman.

I dont care, and I will be a hooligan today!

I helped the State Security Bureau many times, and you all repaid me by hitting Old Xu!

Fk!

Do you think I am a pushover?

Minister Lui asked. Then what do you want to do?

Dong Xuebing replied. I will compensate his medical bills. As for responsibility this is a civil case under the Public Security Bureau.

Jiang Song shouted. You hit my man and think you can settle it with a civil case?

A Deputy Chief added. You attacked a Government Agency!

Dong Xuebing shrugged his shoulders. I did not attack, and this is not considered an attack. I am alone and had fractures all over me. You have over a hundred people and have guns. Have you seen an unarmed person attack an establishment? I had asked you all to step aside and made known that I am looking for Wang Shen. I also warned you all, but you refused to listen. This is not my problem. If you did not stop me, I would not hit your men. How can this be an attack on a government agency?

Damn!

This guy is unreasonable.

Everyone stared at Dong Xuebing.

Minister Lui frowned. Xiao Dong, dont be too much.

Dong Xuebing retorted. This is the way I am! Beating Wang Shen up is a light punishment! How can you all promote such people? Are you all blind?

This sentence offended all the leaders.

Jiang Song could not stand it. He promoted Wang Shen, and everyone knows the latter is his right-hand man. Dong Xuebing was scolding him. Barging into the City Bureau, beating up their staff and leader, and he is scolding their top leader.

Arrest him! Jiang Song shouted.

Dong Xuebing laughed. Sure. I am waiting.

A subordinate pulled out his gun and turned off the safety. He pointed his gun at Dong Xuebing's head.

Dong Xuebing smiled and pointed to his head. I said I will not move a step. Here. Shoot here. You are my grandson if you dont fire!

That subordinate almost exploded in anger.

Minister Lui shouted. Put down your guns!

Jiang Song said. Minister Lui, this guy

Put away the guns first. Minister Lui was frustrated and helpless with Dong Xuebing's attitude. He knew Dong Xuebing would not die if anyone fired, which would infuriate him more. It will be the City Bureau staff who will be injured. It will make things worse. That's why he ordered them to put their guns away. Sigh anyone will have a headache when they meet Dong Xuebing. No one can control him.

The tension in the City Bureau rose.

Dong Xuebing decided to play hooligan today. He stood there and continued to smoke.

Suddenly, a car dashed into the City Bureau. The guards tried to stop, but it was too fast. It came to a screeching stop near Dong Xuebing.

Everyone frowned.

A woman got out of the car. It was Xu Yan.

Tan Limei slapped her forehead. Chief Xu is finally here.

Dong Xuebing paused for a second when he saw Sister Xu. His aura toned down a lot, and he looked slightly embarrassed.

Xu Yan walked over to Dong Xuebing angrily. What the hell are you doing? Huh?

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. Go back first, Sister Xu. I can handle this.

Handle your ass! Xu Yan scolded. She points at Dong Xuebing. Look at the trouble you caused!

Ah, Sister Xu

Are you refusing to listen to me?

No no I did not want to hit others, but they refused to let me enter. What can I do?

You still want to argue?

Xu Yan continued to scold Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing stood there and did not retort her.

Minister Lui was surprised and asked the person beside him. Who is she? She looks familiar.

Song Jiang recognized Xu Yan. She is Xu Yan, Wang Shens ex-wife. She was the Deputy Chief at the Western Branch and was transferred elsewhere as the Chief. She works at Dong Xuebing's former workplace, Fen Zhou City. I think she was his former leader. I don't know about the rest.

Minister Lui was surprised to see someone could control this brat.

The other side.

Xu Yan calmed down after she finished scolding. Come with me!

Dong Xuebing did not move. Go back, Sister Xu. I am fine.

Xu Yan saw Dong Xuebing refused to move. She grabbed his arm and dragged him to Minister Lui. Sorry, Minister Lui. I don't know what to say about this brat.

Jiang Song's rank is much higher than Xu Yan's, and he speaks unfriendly. Do you think this is over with an apology?

Dong Xuebing stared at Jiang Song coldly. What is wrong with your tone? I dare you to say that again!

Chapter 1300: Han Jing is here

It was chaotic.

The situation was getting worse.

After Minister Lui, Dong Xuebing clashed with Jiang Song again. This guy is like a hedgehog, full of pricks. Dong Xuebing listens to Sister Xu but does not care about others. He does not like Jiang Song's tone when he speaks to Sister Xu. Fk! I still have not settled the score with you for promoting that guy. How dare you go against me again and again?

Making a scene at the City Bureau!

Dong Xuebing is going to make a bigger scene today.

Dong Xuebing looked at Jiang Song. Come on! I dare you to repeat it!

Jiang Song did not expect a Deputy County Mayor to shout at him. He was furious and stepped forward. Did you forget your surname? Huh?

Dong Xuebing shrugged his shoulders. My surname is Dong. You all should know.

Song Jiang could not hold back his anger. He pointed at Dong Xuebing in his face. You better

I hate others pointing their fingers at me. Dong Xuebing raised his arm and grabbed Jiang Song's finger. He looked at him coldly. Do you believe I can make you never point others with this finger again?

Everyone was shocked.

Chief Jiang!

Let go!

Watch out, Chief Jiang!

Dong Xuebing was going to hit the City Bureau Chief.

Many people could not believe their eyes.

Jiang Song's face changed, and he tried to pull his hand back. However, he could not move.

Xiao Dong! Minister Lui tried to stop him because he knew Dong Xuebing would do that.

Xu Yan pulled Dong Xuebing back. Let go! Do you want to cause more trouble? She saw Dong Xuebing not moving. She hugged him from his back and tried to pull him away. She panted. Stop it! Let go of him. Can you hear me?

Dong Xuebing had to let go of Song Jiang's finger. He said to Song Jiang. I am letting you off because of my former leader. I am partly responsible for what happened today. I will pay for the medical bills and will give you all an explanation. But forget about handcuffing and bringing me back for questioning. It's a grudge between Wang Shen and me. Don't try to escalate this incident. He paused and pulled Xu Yan away. Let's go, Sister Xu. Dong Xuebing did not plan to leave. He waited for his mother-in-law to call the State Security Bureau and settle this incident. However, Xu Yan is here, and he changes his mind. He is leaving as he does not want Xu Yan to worry.

Go first.

We can settle this incident later.

Dong Xuebing's thinking is simple, but to others, it is ridiculous.

You barged into the City State Security Bureau, hit many people, scolded the leaders, and almost hit the leader. How can you think of leaving now?

Bullshit!

How can we let you go?

The people watching from the windows rolled their eyes.

This guy is crazy.

He has no respect for others.

That's right. He has no respect for our Chief.

What are the leaders waiting for? Just finish him off with a gunshot.

Everybody in the office buildings was talking about Dong Xuebing.

The people in front of Dong Xuebing immediately blocked his way.

Xu Yan whispered into Dong Xuebing's ears. Stop causing more trouble. This incident cannot end like this. Just follow them, and I will think of a way to get you out.

Dong Xuebing replied. It's fine. I called my mother-in-law.

Your mother-in-law? Xie Huilans mother? Xu Yan looked at him. I had not asked you before. What does your wifes family do?

I thought you knew about it a long time ago?

It was a guess, and you did not admit it.

They were interrupted when they were chatting.

Jiang Song looked at Dong Xuebing coldly. No one is leaving if this incident is not settled!

What if I want to leave? Dong Xuebing smiled. Do you think these few people and guns can stop me? Haha you are funny.

Jiang Song raised his hand. The guards at the gates were waiting for his order.

Minister Lui stood there and shook his head. He did not stop Jiang Song because it was beyond his control. This brat is not listening to anyone. Who can stop someone who can escape from over fifty fully equipped and armed US soldiers? But how is this incident going to end if he leaves?

Dong Xuebing and the State Security Bureau staff entered a stalemate again.

Many people rushed out of the office building with guns. They surrounded Dong Xuebing.

Suddenly, a car engine roared. Everyone turned and saw an Audi A8 entering the Bureau. Someone else is here. When Xu Yan came, the guards tried to stop her. But she dashed past them. But the guards did not stop this Audi. They were about to ask the driver for his ID when they saw the registration plate. They immediately let the car enter.

Whose car is that?

Is it a State Security Bureau leader?

Minister Lui and Jiang Song looked at the car.

Everyone saw the registration plate when the Audi got nearer.

This

This is the Beijing City Party Committees No. 1 car!

City Party Secretary Xies car!

Everyone knows who Secretary Xie is.

Secretary Xies rank is several levels higher than Minister Luis former rank. He is a Sub-national leader who appears on TV often. Everyone was speechless. Although the City State Security Bureau is under the Citys jurisdiction, the city government seldom interferes with the State Security Bureaus work. Secretary Xie is different from other Provincial Party Secretary. He is a Politburo member.

Why is Secretary Xies car here?

Did he hear about this incident and send someone over?

Impossible. This incident might be severe, but it is not serious enough to alarm Secretary Xie.

The people watching from the windows were puzzled. They looked at the number plate again. It was the City Party Secretary's car, and no one dared to impersonate his car with a fake number plate. Secretary Xie controls Beijing. Who dares to impersonate his car?

That will be seeking your death.

Only an idiot will do that. This must be Secretary Xie's car.

In front of a third-floor window, the Western Branch staff inhaled deeply and exchanged looks. They remembered an incident a long time ago. Chief Xiao Dong was still in the Western Branch. Chief Zhen held back Chief Dong's transfer, and a group of top leaders visited their branch a few days later. Secretary Xie was among the leaders. During lunch, Dong Xuebing does not have a seat at the tables. Secretary Xie saw it and asked his secretary to give up his seat for Dong Xuebing. He even called him by his name. Everyone realized Dong Xuebing had strong backing at that moment. They didn't know the details then and remembered that incident when Secretary Xie appeared.

The Audi stopped.

The driver got out and opened the rear passenger door. A middle-aged woman got out of the car slowly.

It's Han Jing!

Secretary Xie's wife!

Everyone has seen Madam Han on TV before.

It's Madam Han!

Why is Secretary Xie's wife here?

She came here alone in Secretary Xie's car.

Everybody got more confused as they looked at the situation.

Jiang Song and the Deputy Chiefs were puzzled. Only Minister Lui was not surprised.

Minister Lui walked over.

Jiang Song and the City Bureau leaders followed quickly. They must walk over to greet her no matter why Madam Han came. She represents Secretary Xie as she came in his car.

Minister Lui greeted Madam Han.

Han Jing smiled. Old Lui, it's been a while since you had dinner at my place.

Minister Lui laughed. I got asthma and heart problems. I am getting old, and my health is failing. I should be in the hospital if not for some issues here.

Han Jing replied. You got to watch your health. My son-in-law gave me a few Wild Ginsengs. I will send a box to you.

Both knew each other.

Jiang Song and the other leaders walked over. However, their ranks were too low to speak to Han Jing. They could only stand beside and look at Minister Lui chatting with her.

Madam Han is here.

Why is she here?

They were confused and nervous.

Jiang Song looked at Madam Han and remembered Dong Xuebing's information. His wife's name is Xie Huilan, and her family members' details are blank.

Xie Huilan

Xie Huilan

Jiang Song got a bad feeling suddenly.

Han Jing finished chatting with Minister Lui and looked behind her. She waved to Dong Xuebing. Come here, Xiao Bing.

Dong Xuebing thought his mother-in-law would call the State Security and did not expect her to come. He knows she came because she cares about him. He was touched. He walked over and greeted Han Jing. Mum.

Everybody was stunned when they heard that.

Outside of the compound.

More people gathered.

Many people were shocked when Dong Xuebing volunteered.

Jiang Fangfang, Pu An, Yao Cui, and the rest immediately stopped him. It was too dangerous for Dong Xuebing to go in.

Dong Xuebing replied. I am responsible for this.

Why are you responsible? Jian Xiangrong said. You saved enough lives this afternoon.

Jiang Fangfang was surprisingly firm. You are not going anywhere today. Stay here and wait.

Li Xiaona said. You almost fell today. You cannot go. It's too dangerous.

Dong Xuebing ignored them and looked at the shocked fireman. How heavy is the concrete slab pressing on Sister Zhen?

The fireman replied. We are unsure about the exact weight, but it should be at least one ton. It might be much more than that. The seven firemen could lift a few hundred kilograms. But they could not lift that concrete slab even by an inch. It should be more than a ton. Of course, the concrete slab might be stuck by other debris.

Over a ton

Everybody inhaled deeply.

Dong Xuebing frowned and said. Let me try.

Xiao Dong!

Mayor Dong!

Mayor Dong, you

Dong Xuebing was very guilty. If he knew somebody might die, he would not attend the Party Committee meeting. He would rush to here to rescue the residents. He trusted the Future newspaper, which resulted in this situation. He takes things seriously and feels responsible for this situation. He was not going to listen to others. He looked at Yao Cui and Pu An, who were holding him back, and at Jiang Fangfang. Dont worry. I know what I am doing. I will be fine even if the building collapses. I was buried under a collapsed hospital for many days in Fen Zhou City during the earthquake, and I am still alive and kicking now.

But

Dont say anymore. Theres no time. Dong Xuebing flicked his arm, and the hands holding him were pushed away. He turned to the fireman. Lets go.

The fireman replied. You alone are not enough.

Dong Xuebing replied calmly. I am stronger than most people.

The fireman was speechless. This is not about how strong you are. One more person will not make a big difference.

Yao Cui was anxious. Mayor Jiang.

Jiang Fangfang stared at Dong Xuebing's back and said nothing.

The most surprised were the Meng Faction staff, especially Chu Peng. They did not expect Dong Xuebing to volunteer to risk his life to save Chu Peng's wife.

Mayor Dong Chu Peng was emotional. You

Dong Xuebing consoled him. Leave it to me. I will try my best.

Chu Peng followed along. Lets go.

No. The person inside is your wife. Your emotions might affect the rescue operation. This is not the time to be rash. You must remain calm. Dong Xuebing disagreed.

Chu Peng replied. But we dont have enough people.

Dong Xuebing said. Its enough. Leave it to me.

The Meng Faction members grabbed Chu Peng. They dont want him to risk his life.

Dong Xuebing looked at Jiang Fangfang and Yao Cui. He gave them an assuring smile and said to the fireman. Lower the ladders platform.

The platform was lowered.

Dong Xuebing and the fireman stepped on the platform.

The platform rose steadily. First floor second floor third floor they reached.

The fireman team leader was full of respect for Mayor Dong's courage. But he did not expect to move the concrete slab with the few of them. You must be careful.

I know.

Team leader! We dont have enough time.

The victim's pulse is getting weaker. We are losing her.

The fireman team leader shouted. Let's try again!

Dong Xuebing and he got off the platform and climbed into the window.

Suddenly, the floor beneath the fireman team leader gave way. Crash! A large part of the floor collapsed, and more cracks formed on the ceiling.

Too many people.

The building could not hold the weight.

Dong Xuebing reacted fast. He grabbed the team leader and stopped him from falling. Three of the firemen inside fell.

Crash

Boom!

Debris fell from upstairs.

Dong Xuebing shouted. It is going to collapse! Get out of there! He threw the team leader back on the ladder platform.

The firemen inside quickly rush to the window and get onto the platform.

One fireman

Three firemen

Five firemen

Everybody got onto the platform.

The ladder platform could only hold so much weight and was swaying with seven people.

The third floor and second floor were almost crushed. Crash! The outer walls collapsed.

It is collapsing!

Oh no!

Run!

What are you doing, Mayor Dong?

Hurry and run! What are you waiting for?

People started screaming.

The fireman controlling the ladder moved it away slightly to avoid the debris. But Dong Xuebing did not move. He stood by the window and looked inside.

The fireman team leader extended his hand and shouted. Hurry and get on, Mayor Dong! Get on! It's too late to save her!

The other firemen also shouted at Dong Xuebing.

But Dong Xuebing did not move.

This was a bedroom.

Dong Xuebing could see a pair of womans feet under that concrete slab.

The other side of the slab was pressing on rocks and a broken bedframe. These things prevented Zeng Jinhua from getting crushed to death.

She should be alive.

Debris continued to fall. These debris was from the concrete walls, weighing over 50 kg.

Anyone would be dead if the falling debris hit them.

But Dong Xuebing was not concerned about the falling debris. He dodged a few pieces without looking. He did not get onto the ladder platform. Instead, he rushed towards the trapped Zeng Jinhua.

The third-floor outer walls were gone.

The higher floors crushed the second floor.

Although Dong Xuebing was inside the building, everybody outside the family quarters could see him. They could also see that piece of concrete slab pressing on Zeng Jinhua.

The building was swaying, and it looked like it would collapse completely.

The floor beneath Dong Xuebing's feet was shocking.

Mayor Dong!

Jinhua! Jinhua!

Hurry and get out of there, Mayor Dong!

There's still space on the platform! Hurry before it's too late!

The firemen on the platform and the leaders looking from a distance were shocked. They did not expect Dong Xuebing to do this.

Dong Xuebing did not run.

He did not run even when the building was collapsing!

He is going to throw his life away to save someone else.

Everybody was shocked.
