Chapter 1301: No justice anymore

Mum?

Dong Xuebing called Madam Han, mum?

Everyone in the City State Security Bureau inhaled loudly.

Those standing by the windows almost fell. The Deputy Chiefs and other City Bureau Leaders were stunned.

How can this be?

Why did he call him Mum?

Is she his godmother?

Everybody was shocked beyond words.

Zhen Anguo, Tan Limei, and the Western Branch staff were dumbfounded. They knew Dong Xuebing might be related to Secretary Xie. But they did not expect him to call Madam Han, Mum. They could accept him calling her Aunt. Why are you calling her Mum?

Silence

This City Bureau fell into silence.

Everyone waited for Madam Hans reply.

Dong Xuebing walked to Han Jing.

Han Jing smiled and looked at Minister Lui. She patted Dong Xuebing's arm. This is my son-in-law, Old Lui. Have you all met?

Son-in-law?

This guy is Secretary Xie's son-in-law?

The City Bureau Deputy Chiefs felt a chill down their spines.

Those watching from the office buildings could not accept it.

Xu Yan did not go over. She looked at Dong Xuebing and Han Jing and was not surprised.

Jiang Song realized this when Madam Han appeared and did not say anything.

Everyone could not believe this uncouth hooligan was Secretary Xie and Madam Hans son-in-law. There's no justice anymore.

Minister Lui looked at Dong Xuebing and replied. I met Xiao Bing when he was with Western Branch. I almost died there if not for his medicine.

Han Jing was surprised. Oh, something like this happened?

Minister Lui said. Xiao Bing not bad. But today

Han Jing smiled and interrupted. I heard what happened. Sigh Its just a dispute and a fight between these youngsters. Its normal. However, this brat was too rash today. I will reprimand him after we go back.

Minister Lui said. This

I will get someone to send the medical fees. Han Jing said. This is not an official business and did not involve any confidential documents. No arrest is needed. Its just a fight between two people. Of course, we should not encourage such incidents. I will teach him a lesson at home.

Everyone kept quiet.

Han Jing turned and said. Lets go, Xiao Bing.

Dong Xuebing nodded and followed Han Jing into the car obediently.

The driver closed the door for them and drove away.

The Audi A8 drove out of the City Bureau, and no one dared to say anything.

Say?

Who dares to say a word?

That is Secretary Xies wife.

Even Minister Lui cannot do anything. Madam Han came in Secretary Xies car and sent a strong message. Who dares to touch her son-in-law? Who dares to stop the Party Committee Secretarys car?

Jiang Song was unhappy. Old Leader, this

Minister Lui looked at him. What?

Jiang Song paused for a second and sighed.

Thats right. Madam Han had shown her attitude. What else can they do other than letting him go?

Secretary Xies son-in-law? Where did Secretary Xie find this son-in-law? Everyone was speechless and knew Wang Shen was beaten up for nothing.

Minister Lui looked at Jiang Song. Todays incident will end here. Xiao Dong is young and tends to be impulsive. He makes mistakes, and we should not penalize him for that. We must give young men like him a chance to repent. You might not know this. Xiao Dong had made significant contributions to the country and almost died. We must be gracious towards a patriotic and capable young man.

Jiang Song could only listen.

All right. I should go now. Minister Lui said.

Let me send you, Old Leader. Jiang Song followed.

Minister Lui waved his hand and got into his car. He suddenly remembered something and glanced at Xu Yan. He waved Jiang Song over. Her name is Xu Yan, right? I need to visit the hospital now. Can you help me arrange lunch with her at noon?

Jiang Song was surprised. Lunch?

Minister Lui turned to his driver. Lets go.

The car started, and Minister Lui left the City Bureau.

Everyones reactions were different. Some were still in shock, and some were silent.

Jiang Song returned and instructed the Deputy Chiefs.

They must clear Dong Xuebing's mess.

Along a street.

Inside the Audi. Dong Xuebing and Han Jing sat in the rear passenger seats.

The driver drove the car and did not say anything. He did not even blink. From his temperament, he should be Madam Hans bodyguard.

Mum. Dong Xuebing looked at Han Jing. Sorry to make you come here today. Its my fault.

Han Jing looked at him. Do you know what you did wrong?

I know. Dong Xuebing replied.

Han Jing asked slowly. Then tell me what did you wrong.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat and said. I should not barge into the City State Security Bureau to look for Wang Shen. I should wait outside and beat him up when he comes out.

The bodyguards lips twitched, and almost laughed out.

Han Jing was amused and pointed at him. You ah you are just thinking of beating others. When can you mature?

Dong Xuebing smiled.

Ring ring ring Han Jings phone rang.

Han Jing looked at her phone and smiled at Dong Xuebing. Its your Dad.

Dong Xuebing got nervous. He is not scared of Han Jing, but he fears Xie Guobang. This

Dont worry. I am around. He will not scold you. Han Jing patted his hand.

Han Jing answered, and Xie Guobang asked. My car is under repair. Why did you drive it out?

Han Jing looked at Dong Xuebing and said. I was bored at home and went out for a spin. The car is fine and can be driven. She tried to cover up for her son-in-law.

But Xie Guobang said. I am not deaf. Do you think I dont know what Xiao Bing did?

Han Jing paused for a second and said. Never mind. I brought this kid back. Its just a fight, and it is not a big deal. Its because someone bullied him. Oh, dont scold Xiao Bing. I will reprimand him.

You are spoiling the kids.

He is our son-in-law.

Xie Guobang said nothing about Dong Xuebing and asked about his injuries.

Dong Xuebing was touched. Where else can he find such good in-laws?

Chapter 1302: Settled

Before noon.

Beijing suburbs.

The City Party Committee family quarters.

No. 1 villa. Dong Xuebing chatted with Han Jing in the living room and wanted to smoke. He did not smoke in front of her and excused himself. He left the villa and lit a cigarette on a bench in the front yard. Today's incident was a big deal. But Han Jing came, and it should be settled. Dong Xuebing felt good after beating up Wang Shen for Xu Yan.

Ring ring ring

Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

Dong Xuebing saw it was Tan Limei, and he answered.

Hello, Tan Zi.

Xuebing, did you leave?

Yes. I am at my Mum's place.

How can you hide this from us? No wonder Secretary Xie asked you to sit with him when you were at the Western Branch. I shall not ask more, but you become famous today. Everyone in the bureau is talking about you. Many leaders from other branches came for today's meeting. I think the whole Beijing State Security Bureau will know your name after today. Barged into the City Bureau, beat up many people, and left like this. Even Chief Jiang cannot do anything to you. You are amazing. Tan Limei knows Dong Xuebing has backing, but she did not expect his backing to be so powerful.

Secretary Xie's son-in-law.

Who can imagine this?

Sigh I caused a big fuss today.

Oh, Wang Shen's medical report is out.

Oh, how do you know? How is his injury?

Someone visited him at the hospital, and I overheard the hospital's initial findings were multiple fractures on his jaws, ribs, and legs. Ah, he also has a concussion.

He deserves it.

How did he offend you?

He offended someone else. I don't want to talk about it. Ah, how is the situation at the City Bureau?

Everyone dispersed. They returned to work or went to their meetings. It should be fine now.

Ok. Thank you.

Why are you thanking me? I did not do anything to help.

You helped a lot. I will treat you and Zhuang Zi to dinner another day.

Sure. It's settled. We will order a lot. Hahaha

No problem. I got something on here. Lets hang up. I will contact you again.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and called Xu Yan. He left with Han Jing and does not know what happened to her afterward.

Ring ring ring

Dong Xuebing said. Hello, Sister Xu? I am Xiao Dong. He was cautious as Xu Yan was mad with him earlier. She had never been so angry before. Today was the first time he saw her so mad.

Yes?

Where are you?

I am driving.

Oh, are injuries better?

I feel much better. I am on the highway. Its not good to drive and use the phone.

Ok. Drive safe.

Yes. Lets talk later tonight. I will look for you at night. Xu Yan paused and said. Minister Lui got someone to contact me. He wants to have lunch with me.

Dong Xuebing was surprised. Why is Minister Lui looking for you?

I dont know. I am on my way to meet him.

All right. Lets meet at night. I will wait for you at home.

Ok. I have lots to say to you. I will tell you later.

Dong Xuebing relaxed after hanging up. He knows Sister Xu is not angry with him, or she would not meet him at night. He continued smoking and tapped on the benches armrest.

A cars engine roared.

An Audi entered the villa.

It was an Audi A8, and it was parked in the garage not far from Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing snubbed his cigarette and looked at the number plate. Eh, it is the Audi he bought for Xie Jing. Why is Xiao Jing here?

Dong Xuebing walked over.

The door opened, and Xie Hao got out. He saw Dong Xuebing and ran over to hug him. My brother-in-law! My idol! I heard you went crazy again. Hurry tell me what happened. I like to hear these stories. He was still in his school uniform.

Dong Xuebing was speechless. Why are you not in school?

I was. But it is lunch break now. Xie Hao replied.

How did you know about todays incident? Dong Xuebing asked.

Xie Hao laughed. I called my father earlier, and he was grumbling. I heard it and rushed over to see you.

Dong Xuebing glanced at him. Why are you trying to get involved?

Xie Jing got out of her car and walked over. She smiled. Brother-in-law.

Dong Xuebing nodded and asked. Xiao Jing, why are you here?

Xie Jing stared at Xie Hao and smacked the back of his head. Its because of this brat! I was at work, and he called me to tell me something happened in school. He asked me to go over, and I went. I was tricked. This brat could not get a cab and tricked me into going over to give him a ride. I almost beat him up at his school.

Xie Hao pushed Xie Jing lightly with his elbows. Enough, Second Sis. Dont be mad. You are a leader now. You must be gracious and forgiving.

Xie Jing raised her hand to hit him.

Xie Hao ran and hid behind Dong Xuebing, giggling.

Brother-in-law! This brat is pissing me off. Xie Jing stared at Xiao Hao. She looked towards the door. Never mind. It will be lunchtime when I go back. I might as well have lunch here. Aunt will cook lunch when you are around. She knows Han Jing dotes Dong Xuebing.

Xie Hao shouted shamelessly. You should thank me. How can you eat Aunts food if I did not drag you here?

Do you believe I would beat you up now?

Hehe go ahead. Come on.

You brat. Stop running.

Xie Hao and Xie Jing fooled around for a while.

Dong Xuebing smiled as he looked at them. They bicker whenever they meet. He likes this feeling. Suddenly, the villa door opened.

Han Jing walked out with a smile. I can hear you two bickering in the kitchen. Why are you here?

Xie Jing turned demure immediately. She stopped chasing Xie Hao and said. Xiao Hao tricked me into driving him here. He needs a beating.

Its because you got a car. Xie Hao argued.

Xie Jing stared at him. How dare you talk back at me?

Han Jing laughed. Come in. Haha Lunch is almost ready. I prepared a lot. Lets eat together.

Yes! I love Aunts cooking. Xie Hao ran into the villa. Where is it? I want to taste it now. I am starving.

Xie Jing smacked her lips. You only know how to eat.

Han Jing and Dong Xuebing smiled as they entered the villa.

Lunch.

Xie Jing and Xie Hao helped Han Jing bring out the food.

Dong Xuebing wanted to help, but he was injured. They do not allow him to help.

Xie Jing looked at the food on the table and laughed. Aunt, did you know Xiao Hao and I are coming? You prepared so much food.

Han Jing laughed and joked. I can predict the future. Haha.

Everyone knows Han Jing did not know they were coming. She prepared all the food for Dong Xuebing. Two dishes are enough for two people, but she made seven dishes. This shows how much she doted on her son-in-law.

During lunch.

Xie Hao ate a lot, but he did not stop talking. Brother-in-law, tell me how you create havoc at the City State Security.

Dong Xuebing replied. What creates havoc there? Eat your lunch.

Xie Hao puts down his chopsticks. You beat up over a dozen people with your injuries, and over a hundred State Security staff dont dare to stop you. How can this not create havoc? Wow I got excited thinking about it. One vs. over a hundred people. My father told me you even scolded their Bureau Chief and almost beat him. This is fking unbelievable.

Han Jing knocked Xie Haos head with her chopsticks. Stop cursing.

Xie Hao giggled. I was too excited, Aunt.

Han Jing laughed. Eat more and study hard to get into a good school. Dont learn from your Brother-in-law.

Xie Hao replied. I wanted to learn, but its impossible. Where can you find another person who is as good as Brother-in-law? Most people fought against one or two people, and good fighters fought against five or six at most. My Brother-in-law can fight against dozens of people without breaking a sweat. Even if I trained my whole life, I cannot reach his level.

Xie Jing laughed. Brother-in-law is extraordinary. No one can compare to him.

Dong Xuebing waved his hand. Stop flattering me. Mum just scolded me for what happened. This incident happened because that guy picked a fight with me, or I would not go there to beat him up. So, stop praising me, and don't tell Huilan. This is nothing to be proud of.

Xie Hao thought nothing about it. Whats there to hide? Just beat them up if you are unhappy. Who cares about the consequences? Beat him up first.

You ah

Haha

Chapter 1303: Sister Xu's gift

Afternoon.

Villa.

Han Jing took a nap, and Xie Hao returned to school. Dong Xuebing said goodbye to his mother-in-law and was about to leave. He knew Han Jing had something to ask him because she did not send Xiao Hao to school and did not return to work. He did not leave immediately. He waited for Han Jing to return to her room before leaving the villa with Xie Jing.

Backyard.

The sun was above them, and they stayed in the shade.

Dong Xuebing sat opposite Xie Jing at the table. What is it, Xiao Jing?

Xie Jing smiled. Nothing My boyfriend came to Beijing.

Oh, Sun Kai is here. Dong Xuebing said. But its not school holidays yet. How did he find time to come?

Xie Jing quickly explained. He did not lose his job. The school you recommended is good. Most of the students moved to the next grade, and the school organized a trip to Beijing for the staff and students to reward them. However, he was too busy to meet me as the teachers needed to care for the students. We only spoke over the phone yesterday.

Dong Xuebing asked. Can he adapt to life there?

Xie Jing replied. He was promoted to a small leader at that school and worked hard. He asked me to thank you and wanted to treat you to dinner.

Sure. You all can decide a time.

Where are you going back?

My workplace gave me two months off, and I can ask for one more month.

Ok. We will call you again.

Ah, dont be so formal. We are a family.

No. We must thank you for helping him. He might not even continue to work as a teacher in Beijing, with my parents suppressing him. You saw what happened. I begged many people, and no Beijing schools dared to accept him. Only you helped us.

Dong Xuebing smiled. No problem.

Xie Jing looked at Dong Xuebing. Did my father find trouble with you after that?

No. Dong Xuebing laughed. Your parents are not as heartless as you think. Oh, I will not say any more. Just tell Xiao Sun to work hard.

Xie Jing paused for a second. Are you saying my parents agree to our relationship?

Dong Xuebing quickly waved his hand. I did not say anything.

Xie Guoliang had spoken to Dong Xuebing when the latter went to the Finance Ministry. Dong Xuebing knows Xie Jings parents were not trying to separate her and Sun Kai. This was a test for Sun Kai. Thats why Dong Xuebing did not interfere anymore. After all, this is their familys problem. He helped Sun Kai find a job because of Xie Jing. Xie Jing cried and begged him to help. He gave in and did not care anymore.

All right. You should return to work. Dong Xuebing stood up. Go. I am going home for a nap. I am tired.

Xie Jing nodded and looked at Dong Xuebing. I always wanted to thank you, Brother-in-law. I lost my Eldest Aunts Buddha statue, my boyfriend, the car

Dont mention it.

Ok. I want to thank you.

Haha hurry and go back to work.

You are not driving. Let me send you.

No need. We are not going in the same direction. I will take a cab.

It was 1 pm, and Dong Xuebing did not want to disrupt Xie Jings work. He went out and got into a cab.

After 2 pm.

Dong Xuebing's old apartment.

Dong Xuebing went straight to bed after entering the apartment. He could smell Xu Yan's scent in his bed.

Dong Xuebing fell asleep.

Half an hour

One hour

Dong Xuebing heard knocking sounds when he was sleeping.

Knock knock knock Dong Xuebing woke up and went to open the door. Who is it?

It's me.

Huh? Sister Xu?

Dong Xuebing opened the door and saw Xu Yan.

Sister Xu had returned home to change because she was wearing different clothes.

Dong Xuebing stepped aside to let her enter. He looked at the time. Didn't you say you are coming over at night?

Xu Yan entered the apartment and said. I wanted to fetch my son first. But I don't know how to tell Chaochao about his father. So I decided not to see him.

Dong Xuebing paused for a second and asked. What if your son knows

It's fine. Xu Yan sat on the sofa. She placed her bag beside her and waved Dong Xuebing over.

Dong Xuebing sat beside her.

Xu Yan looked at him and patted the back of his hand. Are you still angry with me for scolding you earlier?

Dong Xuebing shook his head. No. I know you scolded me for my good.

Dong Xuebing will never be angry with Xu Yan.

Xu Yan looked at Dong Xuebing lovingly. I should be thanking you. You are right. I worry and overthink. I don't know what negative impact it has on my son if he knows his father beat me. He is still young, and I don't want this incident to affect him. That's why I kept it from him. I was keeping all my anger in myself.

Dong Xuebing replied. That guy must be taught a lesson.

Xu Yan squeezed Dong Xuebing's hand lightly. I am grateful and touched when you barged into the City Bureau and beat up that guy. Haha but you were too rash. That is the State Security Bureau. I will not forgive myself if anything happens to you. I still must reprimand you. Don't even do such things again.

Dong Xuebing agreed. Ok. I will listen to you.

You are only saying, and you will forget everything when something happens. Xu Yan knows Dong Xuebing too well. She smiled. You brat

Dong Xuebing replied nicely. This was because of you. How can I let others bully me? He deserves it. Don't worry. I will not do anything rash if you are fine. Barging into the State Security Bureau is wrong, but I cannot control my anger after seeing your injuries. I did not tell anyone why I beat him at the Bureau, and Wang Shen will not dare to tell anyone. No one will know, and you can tell Chaochao that I just wanted to find fault with him.

Thank you.

You don't need to be so polite with me.

Xu Yan glanced at him and tidied his hair. I did not expect you to do this for me. It was too risky. What if you killed him accidentally or hit Jiang Song? Your Mother-in-law cannot save you if that happened. Have you ever thought that you might lose your job?

Dong Xuebing laughed. It's fine. I don't mind losing my job because of taking revenge for you. I can start from scratch again.

Xu Yan was quiet for a while and held Dong Xuebing's hand. She kissed the back of his hand.

Dong Xuebing touched his nose and felt awkward. Let's talk about something else. What is in that bag? Is it groceries?

Xu Yan laughed. It's a gift for you.

For me? Dong Xuebing blinked. What is it?

Xu Yan opened her bag. It was a few pieces of clothing.

Dong Xuebing smiled. I got lots of clothes. Why are you buying more clothes for me?

You got lots of clothes, but they are not fitting. Xu Yan said. You are too skinny. The clothes you buy are slightly bigger. I want to make a few clothes for you.

Dong Xuebing was surprised. You made these yourself?

Xu Yan laughed. What do you think?

Dong Xuebing said. How did you do it? I didn't know you could make clothes yourself. I only know sweaters can be knitted.

What nonsense are you talking about? Where did your clothes come from if you cannot make clothes? Xu Yan took out the clothes. I sewed it with a sewing machine and bought the cloth to make it.

You know how to operate a sewing machine?

Most women at my age will know these skills. Our living standards are not as good as now, and we sew most of our clothes. We can barely afford our meals. How can we get money to buy new clothes?

Dong Xuebing said. This is so troublesome. Your work is so busy.

I got some time after work. I saw a colleague has an old sewing machine which she is not using. I took it from her. Xu Yan flicked the shirt and positioned it against Dong Xuebing's body. I had not sewed for a few years, but my skills are still good. It looks fitting. Come, try this on and show me. I can alter it if it is not fitting.

Dong Xuebing was touched. This shirt is priceless compared to those designer brands. Sister Xu made this. She picked the material, cut it, and sewed it. These five pieces of clothing should take at least a few months to make.

Sister Xu. Thank you.

Haha try it and see if it fits. However, I cannot change the colors if you don't like it.

I love it.

Chapter 1304: Sister Xu is going to be promoted

Afternoon.

Five pm.

Dong Xuebing's old apartment. Living room.

Xu Yan passed the clothes to Dong Xuebing and sat on the sofa, looking at him. Dong Xuebing took off his shirt and paused when he was about to unbuckle his pants.

"Can you stop looking at me?"

"How do I know if it fits if I don't look at you?"

"Huh? You can see after I changed."

"Which part of your body I have not seen?"

"Err it's not like this. I am embarrassed."

Dong Xuebing would strip in front of Yu Meixia, Xie Huilan, and Qu Yunxuan. But Sister Xu is the oldest among his women. She is seven to eight years older than Yu Meixia and is from his mother's generation. He still feels shy in front of her.

Never mind.

I don't care anymore.

I must overcome this. See all you want.

Dong Xuebing looked at the clothes and was eager to try them. He did not expect Sister Xu to spend her free time sewing so many clothes for him. She might not even do this for her son. Dong Xuebing cleared his mind and stripped until his underwear. He put on the clothes piece by piece.

"What do you think?"

"Hmmm, the shirt is fine."

"I think so too. You are good at sewing."

"Haha your pants are slightly longer."

"It's not. I did not put on a belt. It will be fine after I put on a belt."

"Try it with a belt. I can alter it if it is too long. It's easy to shorten the pants."

One piece

Three pieces

Five pieces

Dong Xuebing tried every piece of clothing.

Xu Yan got up from the sofa and straightened his collar. "Not bad. This fits you better."

Indeed.

Dong Xuebing is skinny and looks sloppy when he wears shirts. However, the clothes Sister Xu sewed were very fitting. She picked nice colors that fit his style. He is the Executive Deputy County Mayor and cannot wear trendy clothes. He is young and should dressed maturely.

Dong Xuebing looked at himself in the mirror and liked what he saw. "It's nice. Thank you, Sister Xu. I don't need to buy clothes for the next year."

Xu Yan stood behind him and patted his shoulders. "I'm glad you like it. I can sew more for you next year."

"Don't it's too tiring for you."

"I got nothing to do at home anyway."

"It's bad for your neck and back. Don't tire yourself."

"Haha I know you care for me. All right. Let's talk about this next year."

Dong Xuebing does not want to remove the clothes after trying them on. He sat beside Xu Yan on the sofa. "I am impressed by your skills. Did you make clothes for Chaochao?"

Xu Yan drank her tea and said. "I sewed all of Chaochao's clothes when he was young. But he stopped wearing the clothes I sewed when he grew up. He thinks the style is old."

"Who says? It suits me."

"That's because you are a Leader and trendy clothes do not suit you. I read a few books before I decided on these styles. I am glad you like it. Xu Yan looked at him. Haha I finished these clothes a month ago and kept them in my trunk on this trip to Beijing. I don't know if I should give it to you. After all, it's embarrassing to sew and give clothes to a younger man my age. Don't you think so?"

Ahem Dong Xuebing understood how she felt.

Xu Yan patted the back of his hand. This time is different. You did a lot for me, and these clothes are nothing compared to what you've done.

Dong Xuebing held her hand. Stop bringing that up again. Your problem is my problem. I should do that.

Fine. I will stop talking about it. Xu Yan tightened her grip on Dong Xuebing's hand and said nothing.

The room was quiet.

Ah, it's 6 pm. Dong Xuebing let go of her and stood up. I will prepare dinner.

Xu Yan got up and followed him. Let's cook dinner together. You cooked yesterday, and I should let you try my cooking today.

Sure. Haha I will be your assistant today. Dong Xuebing started unbuttoning his shirt. Wait for me. I need to change out of my new clothes in case it got dirty.

Xu Yan smiled when she saw Dong Xuebing treated those clothes like treasures.

A few minutes later.

They entered the kitchen.

Xu Yan washed the vegetables while Dong Xuebing cut them. They looked like a couple.

Oh, I forgot to tell you. The ingredients were prepared, and the stove was lit. Xu Yan started pouring oil into the wok.

Dong Xuebing turned to her. What is it?

Xu Yan said. I told you I had lunch with Minister Lui this afternoon.

Oh yes. I forgot to ask you about it. Why did he invite you to have lunch? He and you should not be close. Dong Xuebing was wary. He blinked and asked. Is he interested in you? Although he asked Sister Xu to look for a partner, he is possessive. He is too old for you.

Xu Yan was amused. What are you thinking?

Then what is it about? Dong Xuebing passed the vegetables to her.

The wok was heated, and Xu Yan put in the spring onions and ginger. Minister Lui had a lunch banquet, and I was not the only one invited. More than a dozen people were there. I didn't know them well and did not join their conversation. After lunch, Minister Lui spoke to me alone. He asked if I knew what happened to your province's State Security Bureau. I told him I heard about it, and he asked if I was interested in being transferred there.

Dong Xuebing was surprised. You are transferring to our province?

Xu Yan nodded. Yes. To be your province's State Security Bureau's Deputy Chief.

Dong Xuebing was excited. How did you reply?

Haha What do you think? How can I reject such a good offer? Minister Lui asked me to wait for news. I think the transfer order will be out in a few days. Maybe I would be flying back with you.

Ah! Thats great!

Chapter 1305: Sister Xu's Reward

Evening.

Dinner.

Dong Xuebing and Xu Yan took out the dishes from the kitchen. One scooped the rice, and the other went to get the chopsticks.

Lets drink, Sister Xu.

What do you want to drink? Fruit juice or tea?

Alcohol, of course. We must celebrate your promotion.

Its not confirmed, and the transfer order is not out yet.

I know Minister Lui would not lie. He asked you, and you agreed. That means its not a problem. Haha We were still talking about it yesterday. We will see each other often after you are transferred there. Its such a coincidence. Dong Xuebing was in a good mood. Xu Yan will be promoted, and he can see her often. Although his County is far from the Provincial town, the journey usually takes only an hour or two.

Xu Yan ate her food and said calmly. This should not be a coincidence.

Dong Xuebing put some food into her bowl and looked at her. You are capable and experienced. Its normal for the higher-ups to notice you.

I was just promoted to Division Chief. Xu Yan said.

Dong Xuebing asked suspiciously. Huh? Old Lui must be interested in you. He changed the way he addresses Minister Lui.

Xu Yan laughed. Are you jealous? Why do you keep thinking he is interested in me?

Dong Xuebing blushed and tried to explain. I am not jealous. Ah I was just saying and dont mean anything.

Xu Yan replied. I saw how you treated Minister Lui today. You should not do that. Minister Lui could not suppress the trouble you caused. He must answer to the City Bureau staff. He told me how you saved his life after our lunch. He asked if I wanted a transfer because he wanted to return the favor.

Dong Xuebing understood. Oh, I see.

This Old Lui is not an ungrateful person.

Xu Yan looked at Dong Xuebing. I thought about it and felt there were other reasons. You were causing trouble at the City Bureau and stopped when I was there. Minister Lui should have noticed that I can control you. Thats why he thought of transferring me to your province. Your combat powers, your family background, and your working style. Most people cannot stop you. You even dare to barge into the City State Security. State Security should be afraid you caused bigger trouble, and they are afraid of you. They hope I can keep you under control after I go there.

Dong Xuebing was speechless. They are asking me to watch me.

Xu Yan laughed. I can be promoted to Provincial State Security Deputy Chief because of you.

Dong Xuebing was speechless for a while and laughed. This means the trouble I caused turned out to be something good.

Xu Yan said sternly. Be serious. Dont ever do such things again. The higher-ups might tolerate it once or twice. You dont know what they think if you repeat it. Your wifes family might be extraordinary, but they cannot protect you so many times.

Dong Xuebing replied. I know.

I hope you listen to what I said. I shall not say more. Xu Yan put food into Dong Xuebings bowl. Haha eat more.

Ok. Dong Xuebing looked at her. Are you leaving tonight?

Xu Yan replied. I should be working tomorrow, and I called my unit earlier. Theres nothing important for me, and I can return to work a few days later. However, I have to leave tonight. I need to visit my Uncle, relatives and some old friends. Its difficult to return, and I have many things to do. Your province is far from Beijing, and I got to visit them before I got transferred.

Dong Xuebing hoped Sister Xu could stay over at night. He did not persuade her after hearing she had things to do. All right.

Its different when treating an older lover.

After dinner.

Dong Xuebing kept looking at the time and ate fast.

Xu Yan kept the dishes and said. Whats the hurry? Do you have another appointment?

No. You are leaving soon. I want to finish dinner fast, and we can Oh, you are injured. Never mind if you dont want to. Dong Xuebing replied embarrassedly.

I am going over to my Uncles place at 8 pm. We still have slightly more than an hour. Xu Yan looked at him and put down the dishes. Shall I do the dishes later?

Dong Xuebing nodded and stood up.

Xu Yan did not say anything and started unbuttoning her blouse.

Xu Yan was wearing a suit and looked mature and attractive. Dong Xuebing saw her bra after she unbuttoned her blouse. She changed, and her bra was dark blue with some flowery patterns. She wears conservatively, and her dressing suits her. He could not stand it and went over to help her undress.

Xu Yan looked at Dong Xuebing and smiled. Just undress yourself. I can do it myself.

Dong Xuebing ignored her and continued to undress her. He grabbed her butt as he took off her pants.

Soft

Meaty

Xu Yan stood naked in her heels in the living room. What about you?

Dong Xuebing stared at her for a while and was shy when it was his turn to strip. He switched off the lights and took off his clothes. His arm was injured, and he undressed slowly.

Xu Yan sat on the sofa naked and drank her tea.

Dong Xuebing finally finished undressing and sat beside her. He hugged her and started kissing her neck.

Xu Yan put down her teacup and caressed Dong Xuebing's back.

Dong Xuebing kissed her earlobes and asked. Is there anything special today?

Haha What special do you want?

That your mouth

Xu Yan's lips and tongue were thick, and it felt really good.

Xu Yan laughed. You don't hold back towards me. Fine. I will reward you today. She made Dong Xuebing sit properly on the sofa and kneel on the floor before him.

Chapter 1306: New Power – SLOW

Next day.

Morning, after 8 am.

It's a bright and windy day.

Dong Xuebing got out of bed in his old apartment. He yawned and took out a cigarette. He sat on his bed and smoked. He was alone as Sister Xu had left last night. Although Xu Yan said they had forty minutes, their session lasted more than one and a half hours. He hoped he did not delay her matters. He was exhausted and fell asleep while hugging her. He does not know what time she left.

Eh?

There's something on the table.

Dong Xuebing saw a note under the ashtray while flicking the cigarette ash. He read it.

I am leaving. Have a good rest.

Xu Yan.

Dong Xuebing smiled and kept the note.

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

Dong Xuebing snuffed his cigarette and picked up his phone. It was from Yao Cui.

Hello. Dong Xuebing answered.

Xuebing, it's me. Yao Cui.

Haha I know.

I am at our workplace. The leaders asked me to check with you on your recovery. How are you?

The doctor says I will be fine after some rest. What is it? Did something happen at work?

Not really. Its about the funds from the Central government. The higher-ups felt keeping the money in our Finance Department was not a good idea. Many department heads and townships are eyeing the money. There will be someone coming to ask for funds every day. The fund is insufficient for every department, and the County had several meetings to discuss how to distribute the funds. Secretary Meng cannot decide. The Party Committee wanted to decide during the next meeting next month. You are in charge of the Finance Department and have received money from the Central Government. Mayor Jiang called me yesterday, and I think she hopes you can attend next months Party Committee meeting. But your body

Dong Xuebing blinked. Mayor Jiang wants me to return?

I dont know. But I heard it from Mayor Jiangs secretary.

All right. I know. The meeting is more than ten days away. I will attend the meeting.

Your injuries need at least three to four months to recover. Dont force yourself. What if you worsen your injuries?

Its fine. I shall see about it. This is about the fund, and I must attend the meeting.

Ok. Take care of yourself.

Dont worry about me. I recover fast.

Dong Xuebing noted it on his phone. He got the money and wants to know how the County will use it. Mayor Jiang should have had some plans but did not call him because of what happened. Thats why she got her secretary to contact Yao Cui to pass the message. She needs Dong Xueblings support at the meeting as they were from the same camp.

There are still over ten days to the meeting.

Dong Xuebing was in no hurry to return.

Dong Xuebing stretched and washed up. He prepared breakfast and ate it. He was feeling good, but his wounds were still hurting.

Never mind.

I will recover from my injuries now.

Dong Xuebing was not returning to the hospital and did not need to worry about the doctors finding out he had recovered. He can recover and pretend in front of others.

REVERSE!

Dong Xuebing recovered all his injuries.

Of course, he did not heal those minor wounds. He focused on the fractures in his ribs, arms, and legs. These were painful, and the remaining wounds are for others to see. He got to keep some injuries to show others. He cannot be seen without wounds when he removes his clothes.

A few minutes later.

Dong Xuebing moved his arms and legs. All right. He could not feel any pain, and his fractures had healed.

Ahh

It feels so good.

Dong Xuebing finally can relax after living with his injuries for a few days. He took the clothes made by Xu Yan to the bathroom and put them on. He checked himself in the mirror and nodded. He did not wear his new clothes at home and changed out of it. He does not want to dirty them.

What should I do today?

Its been a while since I came back. I should walk around.

Dong Xuebing went to a shopping mall and a library. He did not have time to recharge since he started working. He finally got time to rest, and no one was with him. He could read some books.

Thick Black Theory

The Art of Leadership

Dong Xuebing tried reading these books, but these books did not interest him.

He walked to the medical books section.

Dong Xuebing picked several books about Traditional Chinese Medicine and acupuncture points and started reading. He claimed he knew Traditional Chinese Medicine and had treated many people. He feared his lie would be exposed and needed to learn the basics.

Chinese medicine

Human acupuncture points

Types of surgeries

Traditional Chinese massage

Dong Xuebing does not care whether it is Chinese medicine or Western medicine. He bought over a dozen books and DVDs. He started reading at home and found these books more attractive than those on leadership. Maybe it is because he does not want to think about work when resting.

One book

Two books

Three books

Dong Xuebing read fast. He only wanted to understand the basics and did not need to memorize them. He finished three books late at night. He likes to read Western medicine books, too. Western medicine books are more organized, and they have more machines. Their surgeries have standard procedures, unlike Chinese medicine. Just the acupuncture points are enough to give him a headache. The prescription is complex, too. The medicine for the same illness differs depending on the patients body condition. The medicines for men, women, skinny, fat, etc., are different. He does not have time to research about these. No wonder most Chinese Doctors are old doctors. One needs decades to learn this trade. Western medicine is easier to understand.

Dong Xuebing knew he could not learn Chinese medicine and started reading Western medicine books after memorizing the acupuncture points.

3 am.

Dong Xuebing looked at the time. He was tired but not sleepy. After the session with Sister Xu yesterday, he was satisfied, had a good sleep, and recovered from his injuries.

Lets read a while more and sleep at 4 a.m.

Dong Xuebing started reading the fourth book. It is a translated book. Although the book was translated into Mandarin, many terms and words were in English. He lit a cigarette and started reading the book on the sofa.

The usage of hemostatic forceps are

Dong Xuebing read softly and read out the English words. When he saw the word SLOW, he suddenly thought about his power. He blinked and read it. SLOW!

The next moment, Dong Xuebing felt something in his mind.

Dong Xuebing paused for a second. This was how he felt when he used his powers. What happened? Did I give a command?

Dong Xuebing called out his MENU to check.

Remaining time.

Two minutes thirty-five seconds

Two minutes thirty-four seconds

Two minutes thirty-three seconds

His time was decreasing.

Dong Xuebing dropped his cigarette. What command did I say?

SLOW?

Its SLOW!

Dong Xuebing felt he dropped his cigarette, and his natural reflex was to catch it. To his surprise, his cigarette was floating in the air. It was dropping very slowly. It looked like a feather falling to the ground and landed a few seconds later.

SLOW? What is SLOW?

Does it mean slowing down?

Dong Xuebing knew he found a new command. He looked at the curtains moving by the breeze. It was moving very slowly, as if it was in slow motion. He was overjoyed.

SLOW!

This means time has slowed down!

Dong Xuebing was glad he read these medical books.

Chapter 1307: Sun Kai in trouble

Next day.

Morning 10 am.

Dong Xuebing slept in the wee hours of the morning and woke up late. The sun was up when he woke up to wash up.

Dong Xuebing discovered a new command last night but experimented with it a few times because he was tired. He did not use SLOWER straight away. He took out his phone and started recording a video. He positioned his phone on a shelf, facing him, and started putting toothpaste on his toothbrush.

All right.

SLOW!

The air seemed to become still.

Dong Xuebing started brushing his teeth as he usually did. One time five times ten times his hand could feel a bit of resistance on the toothbrush. It felt similar when he used STOP. But the resistance is not as strong as STOP. Like STOP, he was the only person not affected by his SLOW. He continued moving as usual and did not feel any difference. Other things were affected by his powers. For example, the water and foam from his mouth would drop slowly into the sink. The water from the tap dripped in slow motion.

OK.

Deactivate SLOW.

There was a vibration in the air, and Dong Xuebing's remaining time stopped decreasing.

Dong Xuebing wiped his hands, stopped the recording, and played it.

Play Dong Xuebing was putting toothpaste on his toothbrush.

A few seconds later, Dong Xuebing used SLOW. Dong Xuebing's hand in the video moved fast until it was blurred. His movements were faster than anything in the world. It looked like he had installed a motor in his hand. His toothbrush moved more than ten times in a second.

It was too fast.

Dong Xuebing's phone could not even capture his hands' movements.

Dong Xuebing deleted the clip after watching it. He laughed as he rinsed his mouth.

The effects were what he imagined.

SLOW will slow the time, and everyone and everything will be affected. This means Dong Xuebing, unaffected by the effect, will move faster.

SLOW!

This is a good power.

It is more effective than STOP during fights.

MENU: Shows the remaining time.

STOP: Time stop.

BACK: Turn back time.

REVERSE: Turn back time on a specific object.

FORWARD: Fast forward the time on a specific object.

Now, Dong Xuebing has a new power. SLOW. Slow down the time.

Dong Xuebing was satisfied. He has a variety of powers now.

Dong Xuebing did not continue to experiment with SLOW as his remaining time was not a lot. He prepared a simple breakfast and laid on his bed after eating it. He continued to read those medical books. He was more serious this time and finished reading one book at night. He rested and watched the DVDs for the next few hours.

Medicine

This subject is profound.

Dong Xuebing was engrossed, watching the DVDs and reading books for two days.

No one looked for him, and he focused on learning medicine.

Night. 9 pm.

Ring ring ring Xie Jings number appeared on Dong Xuebing's phone.

Dong Xuebing was tired after reading for so many days. He was about to sleep, and he answered his phone.

Xiao Jing?

Are you sleeping, Brother-in-law?

Almost. Haha I am reading.

Oh, Sun Kai is leaving tomorrow afternoon.

So early? School trips should be a few days.

It's been many days. Their school had given them a big budget for this trip. Sun Kai discussed with me, and we hope we can treat you to lunch tomorrow.

Sure. I am fine. What time?

Let's meet at noon. Sun Kai is staying near your place. We can meet at North Heping Road and decide where to go.

Ok. See you tomorrow.

Have a good rest.

Same to you. Good night.

Dong Xuebing hung up and looked at the time. He put his book aside and laid on his bed.

Ten minutes

Half an hour

One hour

Ring ring ring Dong Xuebing's phone rang again.

Dong Xuebing was sleeping, and he reached around for a while before finding his phone. He did not see who the caller was and answered with his eyes closed. Hello, who is it?

Its me.

Mum?

It is Luan Xiaoping.

Dong Xuebing asked. Why are you calling so late at night? I am sleeping.

Luan Xiaoping asked anxiously. You asked your Uncle Yang to arrange a school for a teacher, Sun Kai. How is he related to you? Is he your friend?

Dong Xuebing replied. Yes. What is it?

Luan Xiaoping took a deep breath and said. Something bad happened to him in Beijing.

Something happened? Dong Xuebing was shocked. What happened? We are supposed to meet for lunch tomorrow.

Luan Xiaoping said anxiously. Your Uncle Yang just found out. A teacher on the school trip said a few schoolgirls met were robbed when they were out. The students were pretty, and those robbers wanted to rape them. They dragged the students into an alley. Sun Kai and other teachers noticed the missing students when they checked the rooms and went out to look for them. Sun Kai saw those robbers dragging the students into the alley, and he went to stop them. They fought. She paused for a second and said. He managed to save the female students but was stabbed by those robbers. The students called for help, but it was too late. Sun Kai is not going to make it.

What! Dong Xuebing sat up, and his sleepiness was gone. Where is he now? Which hospital is he in now?

Luan Xiaoping replied. He is near to our old apartment. The ambulance sent him to Heping Hospital.

Dong Xuebing wore his shoes. I will go over now.

Dong Xuebing did not expect this to happen. He does not have enough time to turn back the clock with BACK. He got dressed quickly and ran out.

Chapter 1308: Critical Condition

Night.

After 10 pm.

The sky is dark.

Dong Xuebing ran downstairs and got into a cab.

Where are you going?

Heping Hospital.

Why are you in a rush?

Can you drive faster? Thank you.

Is your loved one in hospital? Hang on!

The driver did not ask much after he saw Dong Xuebing was in a rush. He floored the accelerator. Inside the cab.

Dong Xuebing called Xie Jing.

Ring ring ring Xiao Jing might be sleeping as she took a while to answer.

Hello, Brother-in-law?

Xiao Jing! Come to Heping Hospital now.

Hospital? I am sleeping. Whats wrong?

Something happened to Sun Hai! He was stabbed!

What did you say? Impossible. We spoke over the phone an hour ago.

Stop talking and come immediately. I dont know his condition. I am on my way and is reaching soon.

What how how did it happen? Xie Jing panicked, and she sounded like she was about to cry.

Dong Xuebing replied. That is a small hospital, and theres not much they can do. Try to see if you can get him transferred to a bigger hospital. I am here and got to hang up.

All right I will go over now

The cab driver sent Dong Xuebing to the hospitals entrance within four minutes.

Dong Xuebing paid the driver and ran into the hospital. Its late, and there are not many patients at the hospital. He saw a nurse and grabbed her arm. Is there a guy sent here in an ambulance not long ago? Where is he now?

The one who was stabbed?

Yes. Where is he now?

He is in the operating theater on the second floor.

Thank you.

Dont mention it. Are you his family? He he might not make it.

Dong Xuebings face changed when he heard this, and he ran to the stairs.

Second floor.

Outside of the operating theater.

A group of people were standing outside.

They were the middle school students and teachers from Lui An City. They were in Beijing on a school trip. Two male teachers stared at the operating theater door with their hands clenched into fists. Three female teachers eyes were red, and one was crying. The rest were students. Three to four female students were crying and mumbling. Teacher Sun The nurses and doctors outside the operating theater asked them to keep quiet, but the sobbing did not stop.

Dong Xuebing ran over. Where is Sun Kai?

Everyone looked at him. You who are you?

I am his friend. Where is he? How is his condition? Dong Xuebing asked.

A male teacher walked over and said. The doctors are trying to save him inside.

Dong Xuebing was furious. He looked at the sobbing female students. They were in their teens and still wearing their uniforms. He immediately knew Sun Kai was stabbed when he tried to save them. He pointed at them. What are you all thinking? How can you girls go out at night in an unfamiliar city? Dont you know it is dangerous? Are you all stupid?

A girl cried. We we thought Beijing was safe.

Safe your head! Dong Xuebing shouted. How is this safe? Its too late now.

The nurses outside overheard them and asked. Is that guy a teacher? How did he get hurt?

A female teacher wiped her tears and said. Teacher Sun was protecting the students against four hooligans. He rushed forward without hesitation and stood in front of them. He stayed on his feet after he was stabbed and continued to protect them.

Another female teacher cried loudly.

A male teacher looked at the doctor. Can Teacher Sun be saved? Tell us. Can he survive?

Everyone turned towards that doctor.

The doctor overheard them and knew the patient was injured for trying to protect his students. He thought for a while and sighed. You should not send him to our hospital. Our main surgeon had a heart attack tonight and is in the operating theater now. Our Deputy Director is on vacation and needs at least three hours to arrive. He will not be here in time. The other surgeons in our hospital now cannot handle such a major operation. You should send him to the nearest Triple-A hospital. He might have a chance to survive there.

Dong Xuebing's eyes grew cold. Then why did your hospital accept him?

The doctor explained. The ambulance had arrived. If we dont accept the patient and handle his injury, he will surely not survive. He also cannot last until he reaches other hospitals. We contacted nearby hospitals, hoping they could send a good surgeon over. But I think its too late. The patient was stabbed in his abdomen and lost a lot of blood. Its difficult to stitch his wound and stop the bleeding.

A student in plaids asked. Are are you saying Teacher Sun cannot survive?

The doctor replied. I hope you all can be prepared. Even our Deputy Director might not save him. His injury is too serious.

How can this be?

Teacher Sun Teacher Sun

Sob no no

The floor outside of the operating theater still has wet blood stains. This was the severity of Sun Kais injury.

Dong Xuebing asked. How much time does he have?

The doctor sighed. I don't know how long he can last. He might pass away anytime. You should contact his family members. Maybe they can get to see him the last time. Most doctors would not be so direct. But this doctor told them directly. This is equivalent to telling them Sun Kai will not survive.

Many cried along the corridor.

Many male students and teachers' eyes turned red.

Dong Xuebing knew this was an emergency and did not say much. He pushed the doctor and nurse aside and opened the operating theater door. It was not locked, and he entered.

Eh! What are you doing?

Don't go in! They are operating on the patient!

The people outside tried to stop Dong Xuebing. The doctors and nurses inside were stunned.

But the doctors and nurses had no time to care. They were trying to stop the patient's bleeding and transfusing blood.

Dong Xuebing ignored the doctor who was trying to stop him. He walked to the table and looked at Sun Kai. He was as pale as a sheet, and his stomach had a gaping hole. Dong Xuebing could see his organs inside, and blood was gushing out.

Miraculously, Sun Kai was awake.

Xiao Sun. Dong Xuebing's eyes were red. You must hang on!

Sun Kai smiled weakly as he looked at Dong Xuebing. Brother Dong. Am I not going to make it?

Dong Xuebing shouted at him. You are still young, and you are going to make it! You still have a long way to go! Don't worry. You will be fine.

The chief surgeon in the room looked at Dong Xuebing and turned to the doctor and nurses, trying to drag Dong Xuebing out. Let him talk to the patient. We need the patient to stay awake.

Teacher Sun!

Teacher Sun!

The operating theater door opened, and they could hear the students.

The nurses quickly closed the door as they didn't want them to disrupt the operation.

Sun Kai heard his students shouting for him and said. Brother Dong. I don't have your combat skills. Xiao Jing always tells me how good you are. You can fight against a few dozen people easily. But I could not even fight against four hooligans. I realize it is not easy. I can never learn your skills in my lifetime.

The surgeon said. Continue talking to the patient, and don't let him fall asleep. Don't let him talk too much too.

Dong Xuebing clenched his teeth and said to Sun Kai. What are you talking about? You are better than me. I can fight against dozens of people because I know they are not my match. That's why I dare to fight them. You are different. You know you cannot win against those hooligans, but you still step forward to protect your students. He felt his heart aching. I am not as good as you. Xiao Jing did not pick the wrong guy.

Sun Kai smiled and moved his lips. But he could not say anything.

Dong Xuebing tensed up. Hang in there! Can you hear me? Xiao Jing is on her way here! He shouted and narrowed his eyes. He focused on Sun Kais body and not directly on his wound.

REVERSE!

Dong Xuebing used one second.

REVERSE deactivated.

Dong Xuebing was not healing his wound, and the effect was minimal.

The blood pressure value on the monitoring device rose a little, and the heart rate increased from 38 to 51. Sun Kais condition improved slightly.

The surgeon and his assistants were slightly relieved.

Sun Kais face was slightly less pale but still looked terrible. After all, the wound on his stomach was deep.

What should I do?

Dong Xuebing closed his eyes.

Sun Kai would not survive if Dong Xuebing did not do anything. Using REVERSE to slow down his injuries is ineffective and could not stop his bleeding. Dong Xuebing could tell the surgeon was inexperienced as he struggled with the forceps and did not do any stitches. However, Dong Xuebing would expose his powers if he used REVERSE to heal Sun Kais injuries and return his body condition to yesterday. He could not explain how it happened.

Dilemma

Dong Xuebing does not know what to do.

Chapter 1309: Surgery? I will do it!

Heping Hospital.

Second floor, Operating theater.

One second

Ten seconds

Twenty seconds

Dong Xuebing continued to talk to Sun Kai.

But Sun Kai did not reply and fainted in the end.

Xiao Sun! Xiao Sun! Dong Xuebing quickly called him. Wake up!

The surgeon started to suture Sun Kais damaged organs. But he was inexperienced or had not done such surgeries before. He tried a few times and failed. Before trying again, he asked his assistants to hold the forceps and wipe the blood with hemostatic gauze. He moved cautiously, and his forehead was covered in sweat.

The nurse went to get a towel to wipe the surgeons sweat.

Dong Xuebing was furious. Do you know how to do this surgery?

The surgeon ignored Dong Xuebing. He started working at the hospital a year ago. Although one year is long, it only applies to other industries and companies. One year is nothing in a hospital, and he is just starting. He was only an assistant to the Deputy Director in minor surgeries. All he did was to suture on fake skins and remove sutures. Although he has seen the Chief Surgeon and Deputy Director in surgeries, he has never sutured on a real person. This was his first time, and it was a gaping wound. This surgery is complicated even for an experienced surgeon.

The surgeon had no choice.

The Chief Surgeon had a heart attack.

The Deputy Director was not in the hospital.

The patient was sent to the hospital and was the only surgeon on duty. The patient will die if he does not operate on him. How can he not operate on him?

The surgeon had to operate on the patient.

Their small hospital does not have many doctors.

Has the Deputy Director arrived? The surgeon panted.

The nurse replied. He is on his way but should need at least two to three hours.

It will be too late. The surgeon tried to suture but failed. He was panicking. The patient is in shock. We dont have much time.

The assistant instructed the nurse.

The nurse got ready to inject Sun Kai and reported his blood pressure and heart rate.

Xiao Sun! Sun Kai! Open your eyes! Hurry! Dong Xuebing shouted. Your students are waiting outside! Xiao Jing will be here soon! Stop pretending to be sleeping! Can you hear me? Wake up!

Sun Kai remained motionless.

Dong Xuebing looked at that young surgeon. Can you hurry up?

The nurse retorted. That is not a normal fruit knife. The knife is blunt and has grooves, making the wound uneven. It is hard to suture.

Dong Xuebing was furious. We will use a band-aid if it is a small wound. Why do we need a hospital?

You are unreasonable. The nurse stared at Dong Xuebing.

The surgeon interrupted. Shut up. My skills are not good. This surgery is not a problem if the Chief Surgeon is around.

The nurse replied. Even the Chief Surgeon might not save the patient. He was in a critical condition when he arrived. Its a miracle for him to last until now.

Ring ring ring Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

Dong Xuebing answered. Xiao Jing.

Xiao Jing asked. How is Sun Kai?

Where are you now? Talk after you reach.

I am on my way. Is his life in danger?

I don't know. Just hurry. Have you contacted his family?

Sob sob Yes. Why did this happen? Why? Xiao Jing cried. What should I do, Brother-in-law? What should I do?

Don't be anxious. Calm down.

How can I not be anxious? What if he

You are driving. Let me think of a way.

Dong Xuebing cannot use REVERSE to heal Sun Kai's wound directly. He would be exposed and might even implicate the Xie family. But he heard Xiao Jing crying and started to hesitate.

Damn!

Is there another way?

How can I save him and not expose myself?

Dong Xuebing was under pressure. He kept his phone and walked out of the operating theater. He inhaled deeply. The tension in the operation room made him breathless.

How is Teacher Sun?

How is he?

Say something! How is Teacher Sun?

The teachers and students crowded around Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything. He leaned against the wall and started rustling his hair. He could not decide. His decision will determine a person's life, and this person is Sun Kai. Xiao Jing's boyfriend!

REVERSE?

No

What about others? Can he save Sun Kai with his other powers?

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing remembered his new power. SLOW.

Dong Xuebing read a lot of Western Medicine and surgery books these few days. Although he does not understand most of them, he learned some basics. Suturing is not tricky. It depends on the surgeon's guts, accuracy, and if he is fast enough. That surgeon had not sutured on a person before, and his movements were slow. He was also scared. That's why he could not suture the wound and stop the bleeding.

I can do it myself!

I can use BACK if I make a mistake!

I can use SLOW to suture the organs slowly!

I can use REVERSE to save Sun Kai if he is in danger!

Dong Xuebing felt this might be possible. He is bold and dares to do anything he thinks of.

Suddenly, the nurse walked out. Is the patients family here?

The teachers asked. How is Teacher Sun?

The nurse replied. We tried our best. The patient cannot hold on any longer. Ask the patients family to go in if they are here. They might get to see him one last time.

Dong Xuebing exploded. See him for the last time? Fk! Let me do it!

The nurse and the doctor outside were stunned. Let you do what?

The surgery! Dong Xuebing walked into the operation room.

The nurse quickly stops him. Are you mad? Even the doctors cannot do anything. What can you do?

Step aside! I will bear the responsibility. Dong Xuebing said.

An assistant overheard Dong Xuebing and walked out. Do you have experience in surgeries?

Those teachers and students looked at Dong Xuebing.

This guy is a doctor? The nurse was surprised. They can let this guy try if he is a doctor.

But Dong Xuebing's reply shocked everyone. I major in computer science.

Major in Computer Science?

What you studied has nothing to do with medicine! How dare you go in and do the surgery?

Fk! I had seen bold people but never seen anyone as audacious as you!

Chapter 1310: How can you be a Computer Science Grad?

Night.

Outside of the operating room.

Everyone saw a glimpse of hope when Dong Xuebing stepped forward. They thought he was a doctor or a medical student. Sun Kai cannot hold on any longer, and the hospital wants to save him. But Dong Xuebing said, I major in Computer Science, and killed all their hopes. The nurse and Deputy Surgeon almost fainted.

Computer Science?

Even a tailor is better than you.

Medical students need to study for at least five years. It is more complex than other courses, which are only three to four years. It is a specialized course and unrelated to other courses. Computer Science has nothing to do with medicine.

The nurse stopped Dong Xuebing. Stop!

The Deputy Surgeon blocked the door. Are you kidding me?

The teachers stopped crying and looked at Teacher Sun's friend. Teacher Sun is not going to make it. Can you not create more trouble?

Dong Xuebing told them the truth. He did study Computer Science. Xiao Sun is my friend. Will I harm him?

A female teacher rubbed her swollen eyes. But you

The nurse said angrily. You cannot go in! What the hell are you thinking?

Dong Xuebing looked at her. Why would I do this surgery if you all can save him?

The Deputy Surgeon was dumbfounded.

The nurse shouted. Are you trying to kill him?

I can't be bothered with you. Dong Xuebing pushed them aside and entered the operating theater.

The nurse almost fell.

The Deputy Surgeon could not stop Dong Xuebing and ran after him. What are you doing?

The people inside were shocked because they overheard their conversation. He did not expect this young man to go in.

Dong Xuebing ignored them and took a scrub from a shelf. He put it on and wore the scrub cap. The nurse tried to block his way again but was pushed away. He put on the gloves and walked to the operating table. This is life and death. I will do it if you all cannot save him.

The primary surgeon frowned. No! This is ridiculous.

The second deputy surgeon shouted. Stop creating trouble! We are in the midst of an operation!! What do an outsider like you know?

The first deputy shouted. Call security! Get him out of here first! This is ridiculous! Who left the door unlocked?

Suddenly

Beep beep beep beep beep

The monitoring devices alarm sounded again.

The primary surgeon's face changed. The patient is not going to make it!

The rest did not care about Dong Xuebing anymore. They rushed forward and crowded around Sun Kai.

The nurse shouted. Blood pressure 50! Heart rate is dropping! 35! 33! 29!

The primary surgeon immediately instructed his deputy to give Sun Kai another shot and tried to suture his blood vessels. But he failed at suturing the organs. He would make mistakes on the third or fourth suture and have to redo it.

Blood pressure 40!

Heart rate 20!

We are losing him!

Sun Kais vitals continued to drop.

The surgeons were not helping at all.

The primary surgeon, two deputy surgeons, and nurses sighed. They knew there was nothing he could do. The patients injury is too severe. Even if they can suture the wounds, he could not survive.

I told you all to let me do it! Dong Xuebing was nervous and pushed the surgeons aside. Step aside!

He is not going to make it. The primary surgeon said helplessly.

Not going to make it, my ass! Dong Xuebing did not look at them. He stared at Sun Kai and pressed an acupuncture point on his abdomen hard. He focused on Sun Kais head and areas outside the wound and said REVERSE 1 second in his heart.

What are you doing?

Dont use so much force!

The others shouted for Dong Xuebing to stop.

But they were shocked the next second.

Eh? The blood pressure is rising!

50 55 60

The heart rate is increasing too! 35 40 50

How is this possible? Why did his vitals recover suddenly?

The surgeons and nurses had not done anything. The only explanation was that the young man pressed on that acupuncture point.

What is this method?

Chinese medicine? This guy knows medicine?

Dong Xuebing stood in front of the table and reached out his hand. Gauze!

Ah? The nurse was surprised, and she looked at Dong Xuebing.

I said gauze! Dong Xuebing could recover Sun Kai for a moment but cannot do it forever. After all, the wound on his stomach is too big.

This The nurse and deputy surgeons hesitated.

The Primary surgeon looked at Dong Xuebing and said. Give it to him!

Doctor Zhang, this is against regulations. The nurse said.

The Primary surgeon took the gauze and passed it to Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing took it from him. He read lots of medical books and saw how doctors used them previously. He remembered the procedures, and his hands did not stop. He pushed the gauze into the wound and wiped it before throwing the soaked gauze away. He took another gauze and wiped the blood again.

Most people would tremble when they saw a bloody wound like this. Only experienced doctors can remain calm. Dong Xuebing was calm, and his hands were steady.

The nurses looked at Dong Xuebing, surprised.

The deputies were also shocked.

His hands were steady. He learned how to do surgery before.

Dong Xuebing did not learn. He remained calm because he saw too many bloody scenes. He had injured at least a few hundred people and killed several dozens. He fought countless battles and saw more blood than these doctors. How can he get nervous because of a small knife wound like this?

How can Dong Xuebing be scared after he killed so many people?

Dong Xuebing does not even need to blink in front of this wound.

The blood was wiped.

Dong Xuebing could see the wound now.

Dong Xuebing reached out. Suture needle.

The nurse did not move. She felt allowing an outsider who studied Computer Science to operate on a patient was ridiculous. She does not want to bear the responsibility.

But the first deputy surgeon quickly passed the suture needle and thread to Dong Xuebing.

Although Dong Xuebing saw how the Primary surgeon sutured the wound, it was his first time using it. He recalled what he read and how to use these tools. The thread was catgut, and it would dissolve after some days.

The second deputy surgeon reminded. Be careful.

The Primary surgeon added. The wound is uneven, and I failed to suture the wound a few times earlier, causing more damage to his wound. Its hard to suture it.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath. I will try.

Dong Xuebing's eyes changed as he lowered his head. He was focused on the wound.

Position the needle

Push the needle through

Pull the thread

It looked easy, but Dong Xuebing had only read and seen others doing it. How can he be good at it?

Dong Xuebing made a mistake on his first suture.

The Primary surgeon quickly said. Its slanted. This will not do it.

More bleeding. It means Dong Xuebing had sutured the wrong area.

Dong Xuebing's eyes narrowed and mumbled BACK 3 seconds.

Time returned to the point when Dong Xuebing was about to push the needle through.

This time, Dong Xuebing adjusted the angle and pushed the needle through. He got it right this time and continued to do the second stitch.

Dong Xuebing did not make any mistakes.

Everyone in the operating theater held their breaths.

But the third stitch is at the uneven part of the wound.

If Dong Xuebing makes a mistake here, he will have to undo all the stitches and do it again. This was why the Primary surgeon failed earlier.

A mistake was made on the third stitch.

It was in the wrong position. BACK 2 seconds

Again! Dong Xuebing failed to stitch it. BACK 3 seconds

Dong Xuebing finally succeeded with the third stitch after using BACK five times.

Fourth stitch

Fifth stitch

Sixth stitch

Only Dong Xuebing knew he had made lots of mistakes. The others could not see it because of BACK.

Everyone was quiet after Dong Xuebing finished the final stitch. Everyone looked at him in shock. Although he was slow and the suture was ugly, he

He succeeded on his first try!

This guy could suture an uneven, blunt knife wound!

The nurse was speechless.

This How can you be a Computer Science Grad?
