Chapter 591: Going crazy in public!

Second hospital.

The air is tense in the second-floor corridor. No one had expected this turn of events!

An unexpected turn of events.

Even the arrogant Xue Xiaoliang knows he is going to be in trouble.

Dong Xuebing is not forgiving and is unreasonable. He took a copy of the x-ray results from Lawyer Hu and hit it with his palm. "Can anyone tell me what is going on? Ah?! Director Wu! Is this the diagnosis of your Second Hospital? How can a healthy person be diagnosed with multiple fractures and pulled muscles?! You all had fabricated the injury report to blackmail me! I want to know why you all did such things! Is it to make me pay more money or blackmail a larger amount?! Chief Xue and Director Wu! Did you all work together to accuse me?! Who gave you the power to do this?! Ah? I demand an answer!"

Dong Xuebing's mouth is more skillful than his combat skills. He is good at pinning labels on others!

A crowd had formed.

Not only the hospital staff had gathered, many patients moved closer to see what happened.

Director Wu no longer dares to show a bad attitude towards Dong Xuebing. "Director Dong, this might be a misunderstanding."

"Misunderstanding?" Dong Xuebing threw the x-ray result on the floor and pointed at it. "This is a misunderstanding?! How can you say this is a misunderstanding? If I had not requested for a re-examination, I would be framed by you all! Do you know how serious it is to frame a Government Leader?!"

Director Wu wiped his sweat on his forehead. "The machine might have malfunctioned, or we might have taken someone else's x-rays this morning. We will investigate this thoroughly. Please calm down...."

"You want me to calm down?! It's easy for you to say! Isn't it clear now?!" Dong Xuebing continued. "Stop pushing the blame! No wonder you had been giving me a bad attitude since we met. You had planned to frame me! What are you trying to do?! Ah? Do you know how serious this is?!"

Dong Xuebing turns to Xue Qingrong. "Chief Xue, I need you to give me an explanation. You are a Leader with the District Government. I respect you, but that does not mean you can frame me! You got your son to feign injury and instigated the Second Hospital to fabricate the x-ray results! What are you trying to achieve?!" Dong Xuebing used this opportunity to give Xue Qingrong a lashing.

Xue Qingrong's face had turned green. He had never expected someone to scold him in public.

Xue Xiaoliang shouted at Dong Xuebing. "Stop making a scene here! How dare you speak like this?"

“This is the way I speak!” Dong Xuebing looks at the father and son. “Did you pretend to be injured so you can demand higher compensation from me? What sort of characters do you all have?! How can a Party Member do such things?! I feel shameful for you!”

Everyone is looking at Dong Xuebing scolding his superior, but they are not surprised. No one can accept such an accusation. Faking injuries to frame someone is too much, and no one can blame Dong Xuebing for getting mad.

Xue Qingrong retorted. “Stop your accusations! I don’t know anything about this! Did we ask for compensation?”

“You didn’t?! Medical fee is not money?! After I am charged in courts, you will get the compensation. Chief Xue! When did I offend you? Why did you and your son try to frame me?! You dare to say you don’t know anything?! It’s easy for you to say so!”

Xue Qingrong replied coldly. “I will repeat this! This is the hospital’s problem, and I don’t know anything about the injury report!”

Dong Xuebing replied. “You are trying to push the blame to others!”

Director Wu could not sit still after hearing what Chief Xue said. What do you mean by you don’t know anything? Are you trying to push everything to me?! You are the one who hinted that you want the injuries to be exaggerated! Now, you want me to be the scapegoat?! Director Wu is angry and disappointed. He had tried his best to suck up to Xue Qingrong since he came to the hospital, and all he wanted was a promotion to the Health Ministry. But Xue Qingrong is ruthless and pushes everything to him!

Dong Xuebing laughed in his heart. Let them fight among themselves. See for yourself, Director Wu. This is the result of trying to suck up to Xue Qingrong! Everyone knows in their heart who was the main culprit.

The Officers were looking terrible. They felt they had been fooled by Xue Qingrong, his son, and the hospital. They had to go around to gather evidence, record statements, and even arrest Dong Xuebing at Guang Ming Subdistrict. But they found out the injury report is fake! Xue Xiaoliang was not injured and did not even have a bruise on him. They had been fooled into running around the whole morning! But Xue Qingrong is the Organization Department’s Chief, and the Officers dare not to show their displeasure.

Dong Xuebing continued. “Stop pushing the blame to each other. I am demanding an answer from you all!” It was Xue Qingrong who was pushing Dong Xuebing into a corner. He had given in by asking for a private settlement, but Xue Qingrong refused. You want to hold me responsible for your son’s injuries and tried to frame me?! F*CK! I will be the one who will be going after you now. “Lawyer Hu, we have gotten the evidence. Please prepare the paperwork to sue.”

Hu Jianhua nodded. “Alright. Who are you suing?”

Dong Xuebing looks at the people around him. “The Second Hospital and Xue Xiaoliang!”

Xue Qingrong, Xue Xiaoliang, and Director Wu’s faces turn pale!

None of them want to see this incident blow up. But they still can't understand why the injuries on Xue Xiaoliang disappeared!

No one knows Dong Xuebing had used REVERSE on Xue Xiaoliang when they left the ward and returned his body's condition to the day before he was injured!

Chapter 592: Director Wu is dismissed!

Afternoon.

Second Hospital.

Xue Qingrong still didn't believe the re-examination results and left with his son for Nan Shan District's First Hospital for a re-examination. The few Officers did not bring Dong Xuebing back for investigation as the 'victim' did not even have a bruise on him. They can't arrest Dong Xuebing for intentional assault. But Dong Xuebing stopped them before they left. He wants the Police to investigate Xue Xiaoliang for blackmailing him and asked them to investigate yesterday's assault case thoroughly. He insisted that it was Xue Xiaoliang who had used a retractable baton to attack him, and he would not accept any false accusation against him!

"Ok." The Officer thought for a while and replied. "We will investigate this case."

Since this incident had blown up, the Police could not stop the investigation.

Dong Xuebing followed the Officers out of the hospital building and gave them a few cigarettes. "Sorry to trouble you all."

"No problem." The Officers accepted Dong Xuebing's cigarette and left after a short chat.

Dong Xuebing continues to smoke outside of the hospital and thinks about this incident. Xue Qingrong, Xue Xiaoliang, Guo Mingfeng, Deputy Director Wu. He will settle this score with these people!

Dong Xuebing decided to start with Director Wu!

Dong Xuebing threw the cigarette butt on the floor and returned to the hospital.

Suddenly, someone called him. "Director Dong, are you Director Dong?"

Dong Xuebing turned and saw a middle-aged woman walking towards him. "Yes. You are?"

"I am the Director of Second Hospital." The Director shook Dong Xuebing's hands. She was not working today and had just rushed over. "Director Dong, can we talk upstairs?"

Dong Xuebing had wanted to meet her. This woman is the Director and not a Deputy Director.

Second Hospital Director Office.

The Director made a phone call and looked at Dong Xuebing. "Director Dong, I was informed of what happened. This is our hospital's mistake and has caused lots of trouble for you. I am sorry, and I apologize to you on behalf of the hospital." She said and bowed.

The Director had to bow down as this incident had a severe impact on the hospital's reputation. Fabricating an injury report and framing a government servant. These are serious offenses and will affect the promotion of the hospital's higher management. The civilians will also lose their trust in them. This incident involved a District Government Leader's family member and a Subdistrict Office Leader. If the hospital is sued, they will be reported on the papers, and she might lose her job. The consequences are too much for the hospital to bear.

Dong Xuebing sat there and did not say anything. He is still angry with that Deputy Director Wu.

The Director looks at Dong Xuebing. "Director Dong, I hope we can reach a private settlement and the lawyer...."

Dong Xuebing asked after a short pause. "....., how do you want to settle it?"

"We can make monetary compensation." The Director replies.

Dong Xuebing shook his head. "Fabricating an injury report. A healthy person can be x-rayed and found to have multiple fractures. You should know the consequences of doing this better than me." Even without Dong Xuebing's REVERSE, Xue Xiaoliang's injury had been exaggerated. "He is even diagnosed to have life-threatening injuries. I wonder how your hospital had come up with this diagnosis. I shall be honest with you. I don't need monetary compensation."

Knock... knock... knock...

Director Wu knocked and entered. "Director, are you looking for me?" He saw Dong Xuebing in the office, and his face changed.

The Director is still angry over what happened, and she points at Director Wu. "Tell me what happened with the x-rays!" Director Wu tried to explain. "I don't know. It might be the Doctors who had...."

"Who is it?!" The Director shouted. "I want you to point out which Doctor is it!"

"We are still investigating, and... we are not sure who was it."

"You are not sure?! You had accompanied the patient through all his checks, and you don't know who was it?!"

"I...." Director Wu couldn't answer.

Director Wu suspects one of the doctors had meddled with the report during the first examination. The Doctors and nurses under him suspected it was Director Wu who had changed the report.

No one wants or dares to accept this blame as they can't bear the consequences!

Until now, Director Wu started to regret getting involved in this incident to suck up to Xue Qingrong. He also hated Dong Xuebing for creating this problem for him.

The female Director took a deep breath and said. "Director Dong, I will investigate this matter and punish the person-in-charge!"

Dong Xuebing replied. "The person in charge is Director Wu. I want to know how your hospital is going to handle this incident."

Director Wu turned pale when he heard this. "Director!" The Director looked at Director Wu and paused for a second. "I will call for a meeting immediately, and Director Wu will be suspended for investigation. He will also be reported to the Health Ministry and will be dismissed from his position!" The Director knows she must be decisive, or it will be too late after the papers report this incident. Dong Xuebing has the initiative, and since he is targeting Director Wu, she decides to sacrifice him. Compared to the hospital's reputation and benefits, a Deputy Director is nothing.

"I have nothing to do with this! Director!" Dismissal?! Director Wu panics!

The Director is frustrated by him. "You are the one handling the patient from the start to the end! You have nothing to do with this?! Then who is it? Me?!"

"I....."

"That's enough! Go back and wait for the investigation!"

Dong Xuebing is satisfied with Director Wu's dismissal and did not say much. He took out his phone and called Lawyer Hu to ask him not to file the lawsuit first. This hints to the Director that he will not sue the hospital if Director Wu's dismissal is confirmed. He had never thought of suing the hospital as the first x-ray report is real. If an investigation was conducted, more problems might arise. This is the best outcome, as he is only targeting Director Wu. Director Wu needs to learn that not everyone can accept his bad attitude!

The female Director sighed in relief after knowing this incident was settled.

Dong Xuebing stood up and left. As he was walking past Director Wu, he patted his shoulder and said softly. "Learn to be smart next time."

Director Wu's face turns green, and he knows he is done!

Chapter 593: Go to hell!

Afternoon.

It is the hottest season of the year. Dong Xuebing had lunch at a random restaurant and drove back to Guang Ming Subdistrict Office.

"Eh? Director is back."

"Isn't he brought back to the police station?"

"This..... he is alright now?" Dong Xuebing's return sparked a new round of discussion among the staff. A few staff who are well informed had received the shocking news from the Second Hospital. Nan Shan District Organization Department Chief's son had faked his injuries. His broken ribs and arm fracture are the results of a fabricated injury report. He was not injured and had done this to blackmail and frame Director Dong. Guang Ming Subdistrict Office's staff are united after Dong Xuebing was appointed. It is because of his achievements, and many staff is mad when they hear the latest news. Damn! Even if you are the Organization Department Chief, you cannot do what you want. Do you think Guang Ming Subdistrict Office is a pushover, and you can frame whoever you want?!

At the same time, a new question came to their minds. What is wrong with Guo Mingfeng, Deputy Director Guo?

“Do you still need to ask? He must have given a false statement!”

“That’s right. Xue Xiaoliang had faked his injuries, and his statement must be false too!”

“That means Director Dong did see Director Guo was attacked and went to help him?!”

“Director Guo turned around and stabbed Director Dong?”

“Director Guo is too much.”

“This is too much. How can a person do this to someone who helped him?”

“He was saved by Director Dong and still tried to frame him?! How can he do such things?”

“We are all from the same unit and should help each other. Deputy Director Guo is ungrateful! What was he thinking?”

“Maybe Chief Xue had exerted pressure on him.”

“He can keep quiet. He doesn’t need to give a false statement to frame others!”

“Let’s wait and see. Knowing our Director Dong’s temper, he will not let Director Guo off lightly.”

“That’s right. He will take revenge.”

“I think so too. But it’s not easy to take down Director Guo.”

The Subdistrict Office staff had seen Dong Xuebing’s “working style” and knew he would get back at Guo Mingfeng for backstabbing him.

Side building.

Work Party Secretary Office.

Dong Xuebing lit a cigarette and called Qu Yiqiang and Zhou Yanru to his office. He had taken care of Second Hospital’s Director Wu, and his next target is Guo Mingfeng. He will not let Guo Mingfeng off. He had saved him from being beaten up by Xue Xiaoliang because they are colleagues, but the latter tried to frame him in the end.

Knock... knock...

Dong Xuebing looks up. “Come in.”

Zhou Yanru and Qu Yiqiang entered the office. "Director, did Xue Xiaoliang really fake his injuries?" They had received news of what happened at the hospital.

"A re-examination of his injuries was conducted, and he is found to be fine." Dong Xuebing nodded.

"This is too much! How can he do such things?!" Zhou Yanru said angrily. Qu Yiqiang is also mad, but he is puzzled. For someone who can be the Organization Department Chief, Xue Qingrong should not make this mistake. What grudges does he have with Dong Xuebing? Why did he try to frame Dong Xuebing with a fabricated injury report? This should not be what a District Government Organization Department Chief would do. The only explanation is his son, Xue Xiaoliang, had planned this setup and did not tell his father. With Xue Qingrong's political wisdom, he will never make this mistake.

Dong Xuebing asked with a straight face. "Has Guo Mingfeng come to work?"

"He had come back at noon for a while and left." Zhou Yanru's face changed. "I met him at the cafeteria during lunch."

Qu Yiqiang glanced at Zhou Yanru and turned to Dong Xuebing. He laughed. "Our Director Zhou is courageous. She saw Guo Mingfeng and scolded him in front of everyone. Even Secretary Geng had to step in."

Qu Yiqiang had no ill intentions when he said this. He knows Zhou Yanru could not tell Dong Xuebing what she did and said it for her.

Zhou Yanru is slightly embarrassed. "I was too angry and could not hold back. Director, what I did will have a negative impact. I request for punishment." Dong Xuebing knows Zhou Yanru is not an impulsive person like him. She is trying to show her loyalty to him by scolding Guo Mingfeng in public. This is her way of telling him that she is on his side no matter what happens. Her gesture touches Dong Xuebing. She might be talkative, but she is not afraid of offending others. This is also the reason why he treated her as his trusted aide.

Dong Xuebing did not scold Zhou Yanru. "You are right to scold Guo Mingfeng. His action and thinking are a serious problem."

Qu Yiqiang also felt Guo Mingfeng had crossed the line. "What did the Police say about this incident?"

"I had asked the Police to investigate this incident." Dong Xuebing looks at them. "Does Guo Mingfeng have any disciplinary issues or problems?"

Qu Yiqiang shook his head. "Deputy Director Guo has been in the Government Service for quite some time, and he is very careful with his lifestyle. We had not received any complaints against him." He chose to use the word, 'careful' because no one has found any evidence of his wrongdoings. He knows Dong Xuebing is going to take revenge, and he is saying it is impossible to take Guo Mingfeng down using the Commission for Discipline Inspection.

Both of them left Dong Xuebing's office after a while.

Dong Xuebing thought about the ways to deal with Guo Mingfeng. He cannot take him down with the regulations and wonders if he can transfer him away through the Organization Department.

As Dong Xuebing is thinking about his revenge, Work Party Deputy Secretary Geng Xinke knocked on the door and entered.

“Secretary Geng?” Dong Xuebing looks at him. “Have a seat.”

Geng Xinke is looking terrible. “Work Party Office Department’s Director Zhou had scolded Director Guo this afternoon. She does not have the correct mindset of a Civil Servant, and this incident had a negative impact. This is a serious issue, and such incidents must be stopped. I suggest reprimanding Zhou Yanru.”

Dong Xuebing laughed. “Correct mindset? I think we should doubt Deputy Director Guo’s mindset.”

Geng Xinke pretends not to know anything. “What do you mean?”

“Don’t tell me that you are not aware of him giving false statements to the Police?”

“False statement? I don’t know anything about this.” Geng Xinke asked. “Is it regarding last night’s incident? Didn’t the Police have investigated this incident, and Director Guo was only passing by that area?”

Dong Xuebing does not like to speak with Geng Xinke, and he suspects the latter was here to mock him. He might even be the one who asked Guo Mingfeng to give that false statement. Dong Xuebing immediately knows his plan to transfer Guo Mingfeng away will not work as Geng Xinke will not allow anyone to touch his men. Even if he submit the transfer application to the District Organization Party, Xue Qingrong and Mayor Geng will not approve it.

Hmph! This is a problem. Guo Mingfeng had backstabbed me, and I can’t do anything to him?!

Dong Xuebing took out his phone and called Guo Mingfeng. He wants to know if he was forced to give the false statement or did it himself.

Ring... ring... ring... The call got through.

Guo Mingfeng answered the call unwillingly after a while. “Hello, Director Dong.”

Dong Xuebing had become calmer compared to the past. He laughed and asked sarcastically. “Why are you not at work today? How is your face injury? Is it better?”

Guo Mingfeng paused for a second. He is afraid Dong Xuebing might record their conversation and stick to his statement to the Police. “Thank you for your concern. I am feeling much better. It was just a slight knock when I was opening the door.”

Dong Xuebing let out a cold laughter. “Slight knock when you were opening the door?”

“Yes.”

“Deputy Director Guo, do you think this is the right thing to do?”

Guo Mingfeng replied. “What do you mean? I don’t get it.”

Dong Xuebing continued. “I want you to tell me your account of what happened last night.”

“About the assault incident?” Guo Mingfeng was more suspicious of Dong Xuebing recording their conversation, and he replied without thinking. “I was passing that area and saw you and Xue Xiaoliang in a heated argument. After that, you attacked him.”

Dong Xuebing laughed. “Are you serious?”

“That’s what I saw.”

“Then who is the person I saved from Xue Xiaoliang’s baton?”

“You saved someone? I did not see anyone else. You might be drunk and remembered wrongly.”

Do you still want to insist I was drunk?!

Damn! You still want to accuse me now?! Guo Mingfeng!

Dong Xuebing had wanted to give Guo Mingfeng a chance. If Xue Qingrong pressured him to accuse him, Dong Xuebing would let him off if he apologized and told the truth to the Police. He is not an unreasonable person, but Guo Mingfeng still wants to accuse him of attacking someone and drinking driving now.

F*CK you!

Guo Mingfeng! If I can’t deal with you, I will change my surname!

Dong Xuebing believes in mutual respect, and he doesn’t mind losing his job to drag his enemies down with him!

Go to hell!

Do you think anyone can backstab me? There is a price to pay for backstabbing me!

Chapter 594: Dong Xuebing’s wicked plan!

End of the day.

The sky is still bright.

Guang Ming Subdistrict Office is tense in the afternoon. Everyone is careful of what they say, and they are monitoring the situation.

Ring... ring... ring... Dong Xuebing was packing up when he received a call.

It’s the District Enforcement Unit’s Team Leader. “Hello, is this Director Dong?”

Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes. “It’s me. How is the investigation?”

“We had spoken to Guo Mingfeng and Xue Xiaoliang this afternoon, and they are sticking to their previous statements.”

“Does this mean I have to take the blame if they refuse to admit it?”

“I’m sorry. We could not find new evidence, and both witnesses’ statements are the same. It’s hard to have new conclusions.”

“What about the injury on Guo Mingfeng’s face?”

“It is not enough as we can’t prove the injury was caused by Xue Xiaoliang.”

“What about that fabricated injury report? What’s the outcome?”

“Our men are with Xue Xiaoliang at First Hospital for a re-examination. We will let you know once we know the results.”

Dong Xuebing thought to himself after hanging up. It’s been a few hours, and the re-examination is not complete. Needless to say, Xue Qingrong is trying to drag it out and try to cover it up. But Dong Xuebing is not concerned with Xue Xiaoliang and his father. He will settle the score with them after dealing with Guo Mingfeng. None of them can escape!

But how is he going to deal with Guo Mingfeng?

Dong Xuebing cannot use the regulations or transfer him away. He also doesn’t have evidence of him giving a false statement. There’s no way to deal with Guo Mingfeng through proper channels. This is also the result of him not having a good relationship with Nan Shan District Government Leaders. Without support from the higher-up, it will be hard for Dong Xuebing to do anything. He can only watch Guo Mingfeng accuse him and can’t retaliate. Is Dong Xuebing out of ideas? Impossible! Since he cannot bring himself down with normal methods, he will use extreme methods! This is where Dong Xuebing excels!

You dare to challenge and accuse me?!

Then I don’t think you should blame me for not holding back!

Evening.

Guang Ming Subdistrict Office Family Quarters.

Dong Xuebing leaned against the window frame and smoked after dinner. His laptop is playing a pop song behind him, and he is tapping along with the beats.

One minute....

Five minutes....

Thirty minutes....

Suddenly, a middle-aged woman enters the family quarter’s compound. She is holding a grocery basket with her right hand and seems to have returned from grocery shopping. Dong Xuebing knows this woman is Guo Mingfeng’s wife. She had stopped working after the button factory she worked at closed down.

It’s the time!

Guo Mingfeng and his family are staying on the second floor, unit 201.

Dong Xuebing snubbed his cigarette and switched off the music. He opened his door and walked down to the stair landing between level three and level four.

Ta... ta... ta... ta... ta... ta....

The footsteps of Guo Mingfeng's wife got louder, followed by the sounds of her opening the door.

STOP!

Time stopped!

Dong Xuebing doesn't have a lot of time remaining, and he quickly runs down the stairs. A middle-aged woman is holding on to the door handle and is about to enter the apartment. He runs over and squeezes himself through the gap before running into the apartment's master bedroom. He deactivated STOP once he entered the bedroom.

Time resumed.

"Oh, are you back?" Guo Mingfeng said.

"Can't you see for yourself? Are you blind?" Guo Mingfeng's wife replied angrily.

"What are you so mad? Are you trying to pick a fight?"

"Do you know how everyone from your workplace looks at me when I come back? Ah? You are useless! You had been beaten by Xue Xiaoliang but refused to admit and offended Dong Xuebing! Now, everyone knows you had given a false statement!"

"Let them say whatever they want! They have no evidence!"

"What are you thinking? Why would you offend your Subdistrict Office's No. 1 for no reason?"

"What do you know? Ah? If I don't offend Dong Xuebing, I would be offending Xue Qingrong. You should know who holds more power. Xue Qingrong had called and hinted to me to pin everything to Dong Xuebing! He is the District Organization Chief! What else can I do? Do you think I want to give a false statement to help Xue Xiaoliang?! I wish I could kill that little bastard with one kick!" Guo Mingfeng did not hold back his words as they were at home.

"But Dong Xuebing had to save you, and you...."

"What's there to say now? He is up to no good when he saves me. He wants to pull me over to his side and create a rift between Xinke and me. He has a motive for saving me, and why should I be grateful to him? Furthermore, Xinke will be suppressed when he is around in the Subdistrict Office, and it will take a long time for him to get promoted. If he doesn't get promoted, how am I supposed to move up? That's why Dong Xuebing got to step aside. I thought this incident could bring him down, but Xue Xiaoliang had faked his injuries and was discovered. Dong Xuebing is lucky to escape this time." Guo Mingfeng knew he had miscalculated. If Dong Xuebing had not been brought down, his false statement would have become a timebomb, and he is in a bad mood because of this.

Bedroom.

Dong Xuebing is furious when he hears what Guo Mingfeng says. I had saved you from Xue Xiaoliang, and you claim I have other motives?! Xue Qingrong had pressured you, but the main reason for backstabbing me is you want to get rid of me for your benefit.

You are digging your grave!

Dong Xuebing took out his phone and wanted to record Guo Mingfeng's conversation. This is his purpose of entering his apartment. He had admitted to giving a false statement in the conversation, and the recording can be used as evidence. But everyone will think he had installed listening devices in his subordinates' apartments. It will be bad for his reputation and will leave a bad impression. Guo Mingfeng can also claim he was drunk last night and could not remember the details. At most, he will be transferred to another department with Geng Xinke's help. The recording is not sufficient to terminate him.

A recording will not work.

It will not bring down Guo Mingfeng and still will affect Dong Xuebing's reputation.

Dong Xuebing started thinking of a way to give Guo Mingfeng a deadly blow.

The conversation in the living continues.

"What are you going to do now? Dong Xuebing is fine now."

"....."

"Say something! What are you going to do?"

"Let's wait and see. Anyway, he can't do anything to me."

"He is the Director, and you think he can't do anything to you?!"

"You don't know anything. It might be possible if it is someone else. But Dong Xuebing couldn't do anything to me because he had not established any connections with the higher-ups. Secondly, he had offended Mayor Geng and Wang Shian's wife during the wedding banquet. This is his weak point, and Xinke will not allow him to do anything to me. Without evidence, the District Government will not do anything to me." Guo Mingfeng relaxed. That's right. Dong Xuebing cannot do anything to him.

"Are you sure you will be fine?"

"Of course. It's too late to regret offending him now. At most, I will try to avoid him at work. What can he do to me? I will monitor the situation, and this might be an opportunity for me. Xue Qingrong owes me a favor because of this incident. The fake injury report will not harm him as he had established his network over his years here. With his and Xinke's help, I might even be promoted after this incident is settled."

“Huh? You might still be promoted?” Guo Mingfeng’s wife was surprised. She felt it would be a miracle if Dong Xuebing did not target Guo Mingfeng. How is it possible he might be promoted?

Guo Mingfeng got excited when he thought about it. “I had done Xue Qingrong’s son a big favor, and he will not allow Dong Xuebing to penalize me after this case is settled. I might really get something good out of this!”

Dong Xuebing almost burst out laughing. You gave a false statement to frame, and you are thinking of getting a promotion?! Do you think I am invisible?

Guo Mingfeng’s wife asked. “Does that mean offending Dong Xuebing is a good move?”

“You are right.” Guo Mingfeng laughed. “Who cares about offending him? He is not Wang Anshi.”

“Hmph! You would have shat your pants if you had offended Secretary Wang.”

“What’s so great about Wang Anshi?” Guo Mingfeng retorted. “He had gotten his position because of his wife’s family. I don’t think he is capable of moving up with his capabilities. He had been suppressed by Mayor Geng these few years. Both of them are almost equivalent now.”

“You are jealous of him.”

“What’s there to be jealous of?”

“You are jealous of his wife’s family network, and she has a better figure than me!”

“You are wrong about this. Last year, I went to the District Party Committee and knocked into Wang Anshi’s wife at a corner. My arm brushed against her breast. It felt soft, and it’s obvious she had used padding to increase the size. Your figure is better.”

“Stop touching me.”

“Your man had even touched the District Party Secretary’s wife. Why can’t I touch you?”

“Get lost! It’s dinner time.”

They had been married for years and could say anything to each other.

This might be a joke between Guo Mingfeng and his wife, but not to others. Dong Xuebing’s eyes suddenly brighten up. A wicked plan was formulated in his mind!

Chapter 595: You are finished!

Evening.

Guo Mingfeng’s apartment.

Dong Xuebing knows his opportunity is here when he heard Guo Mingfeng and his wife talking about the District's Party Secretary. He has never been benevolent to his enemies. Voice recording? This is not the best strategy, and it is too purposeful. Furthermore, it is easy to fabricate voice recordings with today's technology. This is not the best solution, and Dong Xuebing has a more wicked plan in mind. He wants to teach Guo Mingfeng a painful lesson!

Guo Mingfeng!

I shall see how you are going to redeem yourself!

BACK 40 seconds!

Time returned to 40 seconds earlier!

Time returns to the part where Guo Mingfeng's wife asked.

"What are you going to do now? Dong Xuebing is fine now."

"....."

"Say something! What are you going to do?"

"Let's wait and see. Anyway, he can't do anything to me."

"He is the Director, and you think he can't do anything to you?!"

Dong Xuebing laughed in his heart and checked his remaining time using MENU. It is sufficient, and he activated STOP!

Time stopped!

Dong Xuebing walked into the living room and saw Guo Mingfeng looking at his wife with a cigarette between his lips. He looked around and could not find the thing he wanted. So, he searched Guo Mingfeng's pockets, but his handphone was not there. He frowned and looked around. A few moments later, he saw Guo Mingfeng's phone under the sofa's cushion.

Found it!

Dong Xuebing picks up the phone and puts back the cushion in its original position before returning to the bedroom. Deactivate STOP!

Time resumed!

"You don't know anything. It might be possible if it is someone else. But Dong Xuebing couldn't do anything to me because he had not established any connections with the higher-ups. Secondly, he had offended Mayor Geng and Wang Shian's wife during the wedding banquet. This is his weak point, and Xinke will not allow him to do anything to me. Without evidence, the District Government will not do anything to me."

Dong Xuebing is not angry after hearing this for the second time. He checked the District's Party Secretary's phone number in his phone with a smile and used Guo Mingfeng to dial it. Wang Anshi's phone number is not a secret. Anyone with status can get it when they ask around. But not many dare to call him directly. Even someone at Dong Xuebing's position is not allowed to call him. If he wants to speak to Wang Anshi, he has to call his secretary first. Only the District Party Committee members are allowed to call Wang Anshi's private number. But after Dong Xuebing dialed the first few numbers of Wang Anshi's number, he realized Guo Mingfeng had saved the number in his phone.

Dong Xuebing looks at the number and press call!

Ring... ring... ring....

The call got through. Dong Xuebing prayed in his heart. Please answer the call!

One second.... Two seconds.... Three seconds....

"With his and Xinke's help, I might even be promoted after this incident is settled."

"Huh? You might still be promoted?"

"I had done Xue Qingrong's son a big favor, and he will not allow Dong Xuebing to penalize me after this case is settled. I might get something good out of this!"

"Does that mean offending Dong Xuebing is a good move?"

Wang Anshi answered as the conversation outside continued!

Wang Anshi said into the phone. "Hello, who's this?" Dong Xuebing brightens up and immediately activates STOP in his heart!

Time stopped again!

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and walked into the living room. He glanced at Guo Mingfeng and his wife and laughed. He carefully placed the phone under the cushion and returned to the bedroom. He took another deep breath and deactivated STOP!

Time resumed!

District Party Secretary Wang Anshi had finished work late today. He was in his Audi on his way home when his phone rang. He didn't recognize the number, and he answered.

One second....

Two seconds....

Three seconds....

The caller is not saying anything.

Wang Anshi frowned. "Hello? Hello?"

Such calls are quite common, and Wang Anshi knows many of his subordinates have his number. Wang is a common surname, and it's easily mixed up. His subordinates will also not save his number under Wang Anshi. Most of them will save it as "Anshi Party Secretary," and his number will appear at the top in the phonebook of most people's phone. When people forget to lock their screens, they might accidentally call Wang Anshi's phone. This happens almost every one or two months.

When Wang Anshi was about to hang up, he heard someone saying his name.

“..... is a good move?”

“You are right. Who cares about offending him? He is not Wang Anshi.”

“Hmph! You would have shat your pants if you had offended Secretary Wang.”

Wang Anshi’s hand stopped and frowned. He did not hang up the call.

Wang Anshi continued to listen to the conversation, and his face changed!

A man said. “What’s so great about Wang Anshi? He had gotten his position because of his wife’s family. I don’t think he is capable of moving up with his capabilities. He had been suppressed by Mayor Geng these few years. Both of them are almost equivalent now.”

“You are jealous of him.”

“What’s there to be jealous of?”

“You are jealous of his wife’s family network, and she has a better figure than me!”

“You are wrong about this. Last year, I went to the District Party Committee and knocked into Wang Anshi’s wife at a corner. My arm brushed against her breast. It felt soft, and it’s obvious she had used padding to increase the size. Your figure is better.”

“Stop touching me.”

“Your man had even touched the District Party Secretary’s wife. Why can’t I touch you?”

“Get lost! It’s dinner time.”

“Haha... your breasts are bigger than Wang Anshi’s wife.”

“Stop it! I dare you to say this in front of Wang Anshi!”

Dong Xuebing covered his forehead and couldn’t bear to listen anymore.

Their laughter in the living room continues. Guo Mingfeng is in a good mood as he feels he might be promoted because of this incident, and he enters the kitchen with his wife to prepare dinner. Suddenly, the phone on the sofa rang.

Ring... ring... ring...

“Wash the vegetables while I answer this call.” Guo Mingfeng returns to the living room to get his phone. He was about to answer when he saw the caller ID. “Ah!”

“What happened?” Guo Mingfeng’s wife asked.

“Wang Anshi is calling.”

“Wang Anshi? Our District’s Party Secretary?”

“Shh... keep quiet.” Guo Mingfeng doesn’t know why Secretary Wang is calling him, and he answered cautiously. “Hello, Secretary Wang.... Huh? I’m Guo Mingfeng from Guang Ming Subdistrict Office.... Hello? Hello? Secretary Wang? Are you there?" The other party hangs up.

Guo Mingfeng's wife walks out of the kitchen. "What happened? What did he say?"

Guo Mingfeng is puzzled. "Secretary Wang only asks who am I and hangs up after I tell him my name."

"I think he had called the wrong number." Guo Mingfeng's wife shook her head.

Guo Mingfeng also felt the same. Why would the District Party Secretary call him? He must have dialed the wrong number. "I think so too." He thought nothing about this.

Dong Xuebing almost burst out laughing. He had achieved his purpose and had no reason to remain there. He mumbled STOP!

Time stopped!

Dong Xuebing walked out of the bedroom and was about to leave. But he thought for a while and walked into the kitchen. He patted Guo Mingfeng's shoulder sympathetically. He sympathizes with him. "I have respect for you, Bro. You dare to touch the District Party Secretary's wife and gossip behind his back. You even dare to say he got to his position by depending on a woman, and his wife's breasts are soft. If this does not bring you down, I will walk backward for the rest of my life!"

Guo Mingfeng and his wife were frozen in place and could not hear what Dong Xuebing said.

Dong Xuebing patted Guo Mingfeng's shoulder again and walked out of the apartment. He closed the door behind him and deactivated STOP!

Dong Xuebing shook his head as he looked at Guo Mingfeng's apartment before walking up the stairs. You are finished!

Chapter 596: The District Party Secretary's anger!

The next day.

Morning. Guang Ming Subdistrict. The staff is still talking about yesterday's incident.

"Do you think something will happen today?"

"I don't think so. You should know our Director had offended a lot of people."

"That's right. Director Dong had offended almost all the District Leaders. Even if Deputy Director Guo had given a false statement, he can't do anything to him."

"Nothing will happen to Director Guo as the District Government will not take action, and there is no evidence."

"If Director Dong cannot do anything to Director Guo, it will be a blow to his authority. Everyone knows Director Guo had stabbed Director Dong in his back."

"Let's stop talking about this. This is too sensitive."

“Director Dong is here.”

Dong Xuebing’s car entered the compound and parked outside the building. Guo Mingfeng had framed the Subdistrict’s No. 1. if he doesn’t do anything to him, it will give others the impression that he is useless. That’s why Dong Xuebing must deal with Guo Mingfeng and use him as an example to warn others.

“Good morning, Director Dong.”

Guo Mingfeng had arrived at work and greeted Dong Xuebing.

Guo Mingfeng has analyzed the situation and knows Dong Xuebing cannot do anything to him. He might even get a promotion. That’s why he is not worried and is in a good mood. He made it look like framing Dong Xuebing was a trivial matter from the smile on his face and even greeted him warmly.

Dong Xuebing tried his best to hold his laughter. He let out a laugh and walked over to Guo Mingfeng. He patted his shoulder lightly. “Good morning, Director Guo.”

Guo Mingfeng was stunned. Why are you so happy today?

The staff was also puzzled. What happened to Dong Xuebing? How can he smile in this situation?

“Eh? Secretary Qu is here.” Dong Xuebing saw Qu Yiqiang entering the compound.

“Director.” Qu Yiqiang greeted Dong Xuebing, and he frowned when he saw Guo Mingfeng.

“I need to discuss something with you. Let’s go to my office now.” Dong Xuebing waved and walked towards the side building with Qu Yiqiang.

Dong Xuebing’s office.

Dong Xuebing asked Qu Yiqiang to sit and asked. “Have you sorted the materials to report Guo Mingfeng?”

“I had sorted it yesterday.” Qu Yiqiang looks at Dong Xuebing. “But those reports are ambiguous. The higher-ups might not....”

Dong Xuebing interrupted. “Send it to the District Commission for Discipline Inspection Party Committee! Now!”

“This....” Qu Yiqiang felt this was too rash. Such a report should go through the Work Party Committee before it is being submitted to the District. But it can still be submitted if Dong Xuebing signs it. However, this will create conflicts between the Subdistrict Leaders, and the District will not like it. Even if the report is given to the District Leaders, there is no evidence of these allegations. It is impossible to bring down Guo Mingfeng with it. Mayor Geng and Secretary Wang will not allow it. That’s why Qu Yiqiang felt this move was useless and is puzzled why Dong Xuebing wanted to do this.

Dong Xuebing knew what Qu Yiqiang was thinking and laughed. "I know what I am doing. Hurry up and submit it."

Qu Yiqiang paused for a second and nodded. "Alright.... I will go to the District Commission for Discipline Inspection Party Committee now."

"Oh, I remember there will be a District Party Committee Meeting today. Do you know what time is it?"

"Most Party Committee Meetings are held around 10 am."

Dong Xuebing nodded and hurried Qu Yiqiang again. He wants the report to be given to the District Committee before the meeting starts.

Qu Yiqiang sensed Dong Xuebing must have a plan as the latter kept hurrying him. He did not ask any more questions and immediately left.

Dong Xuebing lit a cigarette in his office with a smile. He doesn't know how Wang Anshi would react, and submitting this report against Guo Mingfeng now is the right time. This is equivalent to giving Wang Anshi a bullet to shoot him. No evidence? The allegations are insufficient? These are not problems. It might be impossible if the District Party Committee wants to bring down Geng Xinke. After all, Geng Yuehua is one of the Committee Members. But it is not a problem if Wang Anshi wants to bring down an insignificant Deputy Director of a Subdistrict Office. Dong Xuebing is making use of him to get rid of Guo Mingfeng.

News of Qu Yiqiang submitting a report against Guo Mingfeng to the District spreads. It is impossible to hide it as this is through the proper channel. Everyone in Guang Ming Subdistrict is speechless.

This new Director is always doing things no one can expect!

Geng Xinke immediately calls Dong Xuebing in his office. He did not come over to look for him as he was too angry. He also doesn't have any respect for him now. "How come I am not informed that a report against Guo Mingfeng is submitted to the District Commission for Discipline Inspection?"

Dong Xuebing laughed. "I am the one who approved it."

"Those allegations have no evidence! Director! You will disappoint our comrades!"

"Secretary Geng, you should not think this way. I also believe there is nothing wrong with Comrade Guo's finances. But we must look into it when someone reports it. This is our responsibility to every comrade. We can also prove Comrade Guo is innocent after the investigation."

Geng Xinke's angry expression disappeared after hanging up the call. He smiled and felt Dong Xuebing had gone crazy. He is attacking everyone without thinking about the consequences. How old is he? Twenty-four? He is too inexperienced. The District will not do anything with such a report!

Guo Mingfeng, who is in his office, is furious when he hears about it. He did not expect Dong Xuebing to be so ruthless. There is a lack of evidence, and he still submits the report to the District. This shows everyone that they had fallen out. Guo Mingfeng knows Dong Xuebing is still the Subdistrict's No. 1. Even if he has a bad relationship with the District Leaders, he still has bigger authority than him, and Geng Xinke can't stop him. Guo Mingfeng thought for a while and calmed down. The District will not take action as there is no evidence of those allegations. The damage towards him is negligible. Instead, Dong Xuebing will be in trouble and will be reprimanded. The District Leaders will scold him for overreacting. This is putting him in trouble!

Half an hour.....

One hour.....

Two hours.....

Everyone thought Dong Xuebing had made a bad move this time.

When Guang Ming Subdistrict Office staff heard of the outcome after the District Party Committee Meeting ended, they were shocked. The District Commission for Discipline Inspection will be investigating the allegations, and Guang Ming Subdistrict Deputy Director Guo Mingfeng will be suspended!

Everyone is stunned.

How is this possible?!

Suspended for investigation?! Guo Mingfeng is finished!

Everyone knows no one is clean in the government service. Even if someone is not corrupted or receives any bribes, they will receive gifts during festivals. These gifts are enough to bring down a Government Leader. This means Guo Mingfeng is finished after the District's Commission for Discipline Inspection stepped in. The chances of him escaping unharmed are almost zero. Not only will his career come to a standstill, but he might also even lose his current position!

What happened?

What the hell is going on?!

.....

Work Party Deputy Secretary Office.

Guo Mingfeng rushed into the office without knocking. He is panicking. "Secretary Geng! I..... the District.... Are the news real?"

Geng Xinke looked terrible and waved to Guo Mingfeng. He is on a phone call.

One minute later, Geng Xinke threw his phone on the table and stared at Guo Mingfeng. "It's confirmed. You.... When did you offend Wang Ahshi?"

"Secretary Wang?" Guo Mingfeng is confused. "When did I offend Secretary Wang? Impossible. I have not even spoken to him before!"

Geng Xinke clenched his teeth. "Secretary Wang was furious during the Party Committee Meeting. He threw the report Dong Xuebing submitted on the table in front of everyone!"

Wang Anshi is targeting me?!

Guo Mingfeng does not believe this is happening. "This is impossible!"

Geng Xinke did not continue and sighed. He knows this is over, and he cannot help Guo Mingfeng anymore. It is not difficult if Wang Anshi wants to bring down Guo Mingfeng. Furthermore, he had heard Wang Anshi had lost his temper from his sister's secretary. It's rare for Secretary Wang to lose his temper, and even the Mayor got to give in to him under such circumstances. That's why Guo Mingfeng is finished, and no one can help him.

Knock... knock... knock....

Three men entered the office and showed their work passes. "We are from the District Commission for Discipline Inspection. Are you Guo Mingfeng? We need you to come with us."

Guo Mingfeng turns pale. Until now, he still doesn't know what happened!

Didn't Dong Xuebing have offended the District Party Committee? Why is Wang Anshi helping Dong Xuebing now?!

Not only is Guo Mingfeng is confused, everyone in the Subdistrict Office is puzzled. No one had expected the District Government to accept that report!

The only thing everyone knows is Dong Xuebing has directly caused Guo Mingfeng to be suspended using some unknown methods. If not, the allegations will not be accepted!

Some of the staff, who had thought nothing of Dong Xuebing previously, shivered. Director Dong had shown everyone that even if he doesn't have a good relationship with the District Leaders and doesn't have evidence, he can still deal with the ones who offended him! No one can escape!

Chapter 597: Guo Mingfeng changed his statement!

Before noon.

The District Commission for Discipline Inspection staff knocked and entered the Work Party Committee Secretary's office.

The staff asked politely. "Are you Director Dong? I am from the District Commission for Discipline Inspection. We had received instructions to bring comrade Guo Mingfeng back for investigation about his finances."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Do we need to do anything to assist in the investigation?"

"We might need to conduct a follow-up investigation here later."

"Alright. I will make the necessary arrangements."

The District Commission for Discipline Inspection staff is following the protocol. They are bringing Guang Ming Subdistrict Office's staff back, and they need to inform Dong Xuebing.

After they left, Dong Xuebing walked to the window and looked at them, escorting Guo Mingfeng into the car. He narrowed his eyes and felt he had done a good job. His next target is Xue Qingrong and his son. He will not let anyone who had accused and framed him off lightly, even if he is the District's Organization Department Chief!

Dong Xuebing picked up the phone and called the District Public Security Bureau, Enforcement Unit's Team Leader.

"Hello, I'm Dong Xuebing. Is there any progress with the investigation?"

"Not yet. We... still can't gather enough evidence."

"Xue Xiaoliang's fabricated injury report is insufficient? He should be confirmed to be not injured by now. It's been a day."

"We confirmed it was Second Hospital's Director Wu who had changed the injury report, and the investigation is passed to the relevant department."

"Huh? The case had been withdrawn?"

"No. It's not withdrawn. It is handled to the Health Ministry to investigate."

Dong Xuebing is no surprise after hanging up. He knows Xue Qingrong will use his network to drag this case and push everything to the suspended Deputy Director Wu. It will be treated as a medical misdiagnosis to lessen his son's responsibility. If his son can shirk responsibility, he will not be affected. He has been the Organization Department Chief in Nan Shan District for many years and has built a strong network. But Dong Xuebing is not anxious. He had thought carefully before targeting Guo Mingfeng first. This incident is not over, and he is waiting for the show to start.

District Party Committee.

Organization Department Chief's office.

Xue Qingrong is on the phone with his son. "Where are you?"

"I am at home. Dad, am I fine now?"

"Yes. Just stay at home and don't go out these few days."

"I know. But Dong Xuebing....."

"Stay out of this and try to stay low these few days. Do you understand?"

"Yes." Xue Xiaoliang could not accept this. He has never suffered such a big loss in his life and is thinking of ways to get back at Dong Xuebing.

After hanging up, Xue Qingrong's eyes turned cold. Although Dong Xuebing had caused a lot of trouble for him, it didn't affect him. He is the Organization Department, and his son's incident is considered settled after utilizing his networks. But he is still puzzled why the District Party Secretary, Wang Anshi, had lost his temper and wants to target Guo Mingfeng. Xue Qingrong is in Wang Anshi's faction, and everyone knows it. If Wang Anshi is going after Guo Mingfeng, he should be informed before the meeting. He did not stop Wang Anshi at the meeting because this was suggested by the latter. He guessed Guo Mingfeng should have offended Wang Anshi in the past.

Xue Qingrong thought for a while and decided to meet Secretary Wang. He wants to know if Secretary Wang had targeted Guo Mingfeng because of him.

District Party Secretary Office.

Xue Qingrong knocked on the door.

“Come in.”

Xue Qingrong entered the office and saw Wang Anshi drinking tea at his desk. “Secretary, have you taken your lunch?”

“I was about to go.” Wang Anshi gestured to Xue Qingrong. He seems to be in a better mood. “Have a seat.” Xue Qingrong felt relieved as he knew Secretary Wang was not angry with him or had punished Guo Mingfeng to give him a warning.

“Secretary, Guang Ming Subdistrict Office Guo Mingfeng.....”

Suddenly, Wang Anshi’s face changed, and he shouted. “Such black sheep should have been terminated a long time ago!” Xue Qingrong took a deep breath and did not dare to continue. Guo Mingfeng must have offended Secretary Wang deeply. He can tell Secretary Wang might not know about his son’s incident, or he does not know Guo Mingfeng is involved in it. A District Party Secretary is too busy to know about everything in detail. If Wang Anshi knew about the incident and Guo Mingfeng’s role in it, he would speak to Xue Qingrong before the meeting.

Luckily, Secretary Wang is not targeting me.

Xue Qingrong didn’t answer, but he was not worried as it didn’t concern him.

Many people within the District also don’t know why the District Party Secretary had gotten angry with a Subdistrict Office’s Deputy Director.

How did Guo Mingfeng offend Secretary Wang?

It seems Secretary Wang has a deep grudge against Guo Mingfeng.

Afternoon.

Nan Shan District Commission for Discipline Inspection.

After Guo Mingfeng was brought here, he was interrogated by the Commission for Discipline Inspection staff.

Guo Mingfeng’s lips are tight and only say the things he can say. But he is not as calm as he looks. He is panicking as he knows the Commission for Discipline Inspection staff should search his apartment and check his account. He had not received large bribes, but he had previously received small amounts from his subordinates as ‘festive gifts.’ If the Commission for Discipline Inspection wants to bring him down, they will soon find out about these small gifts.

Half an hour....

One hour....

Two hours....

The Commission for Discipline Inspection had collected enough evidence against Guo Mingfeng. These are small issues, but they are enough to remove him from his position.

Guo Mingfeng gave up explaining himself in front of evidence and started answering the questions.

He knows he is finished. He can no longer make a comeback.

Guo Mingfeng's heart had turned cold. He would never be removed from his position with these 'small issues' if the District Party Secretary did not target him.

Wang Anshi..... Wang Anshi.....

Guo Mingfeng knows it. Everyone suspected he had offended the District Party Secretary, but he knows he had never offended him in any ways. He had always been careful with his words when he was outside, and how could he offend Wang Anshi? The only reason he can think of is the false statement. Secretary Wang's sudden anger must be related to this case. He is in this situation because of his false statement! He is furious!

Guo Mingfeng is not angry with Dong Xuebing. He is angry with Xue Qingrong and Xue Xiaoliang!

Did Guo Mingfeng give the false statement to the Police willingly? He knows this is against the law. If Xue Qingrong had not called him, he would never testify for Xue Xiaoliang. He is in his forties and was almost knocked down by Xue Xiaoliang. He also beat him up, and the bruises on his face are not healed. How can he forget this incident?

Guo Mingfeng will never risk offending Dong Xuebing if Xue Qingrong is not the District Organization Department Chief. But what happens now? Your son had hit me, and I swallowed my pride and followed your orders to give a false statement to help him. Now, you and your son are out of trouble, and I had offended Secretary Wang because of this false statement. I had helped your son, but the ones investigating me are from your faction!

You bastard!

F*CK you!

This is burning the bridge after you crossed it!

Guo Mingfeng could not hold back his anger. He had forgone his pride and testified for the one who hit him. Not only did he not benefit from it, Xue Qingrong still stabbed him.

Since this is how you repay me, don't blame me!

Guo Mingfeng has nothing to lose now. He had lost his position and could no longer remain in the Government Service. What else is there to worry about? If he didn't do anything as revenge, he would feel like a coward for the rest of his life!

"I have something to add." Guo Mingfeng said.

The Commission for Discipline Inspection staff looks at him. "What is it?"

Another staff held up his pen and was prepared to record what Guo Mingfeng was about to say.

Guo Mingfeng clenched his teeth. "I had given a false statement for the assault incident along Guang Ming Street and accused our Subdistrict Office Director of being the attacker. It was the Organization Department Chief Xue Qingrong's son who had almost knocked into me with his car, and he attacked me with a baton. Director Dong was driving past and stopped to help me. It was not Director Dong who attacked Xue Xiaoliang."

Not many people in the District had heard about this incident. They become tense when they hear Xue Qingrong is involved. “You had given a false statement?!” Guo Mingfeng nodded. “Yes. Chief Xue had called me and threatened me to testify for his son. He wants me to tell the Police that his son had not attacked anyone.” The Commission for Discipline Inspection staff looked at each other, and their faces changed. The Organization Department Chief had conspired to frame a government servant!

This is no longer a small incident!

Chapter 598: Punishment!

Late afternoon.

District Party Committee Office Building.

Xue Qingrong received a call, and his face changed within a second. He banged his desk angrily!

Guo Mingfeng! You crazy dog!

How dare you bite my son and me?!

Xue Qingrong had spent yesterday settling his son’s case with his connections. He had been focusing on the fabricated injury report. Although he felt it was wrong for Guo Mingfeng to be suspended for investigation, he couldn’t do anything. Who asked him to offend Secretary Wang in the first place? He had wanted to wait for the investigation to be over before visiting Guo Mingfeng to give him some benefits. Even if he can no longer stay in the government service, he can do business in the future. Xue Qingrong can assist him with his business. But before he can do anything, Guo Mingfeng starts to drag him down with him!

The fabricated injury report has not been settled, and this problem has arisen.

The Organization Department Chief had threatened a witness to help his son?!

Framing a government servant with a fabricated injury report?!

This is not a big case and can be easily covered up with Xue Qingrong’s network. But Dong Xuebing, a Section Chief ranked Government Leader, is involved. Secretary Wang Shian ordered Guo Mingfeng to be investigated. Nan Shan District Party Committee also agreed with this decision. Many eyes are watching Guo Mingfeng closely, and his changing of statement can no longer be a cover-up. Xue Qingrong’s political rivals will not give up this opportunity.

Xue Qingrong is about to explode with anger!

Xue Qingrong had planned everything when his son was beaten up. If everything goes according to his plan, his son will not be charged with assaulting a Government servant, and Dong Xuebing might lose his job. But after Dong Xuebing appears at the hospital, everything changes. The injuries on Xue Xiaoliang disappeared, and Guo Mingfeng had offended Secretary Wang for no reason and was ordered to be investigated by the Commission for Discipline Inspection. In the end, Guo Mingfeng changed his statement and turned against Xue Qingrong. It is Dong Xuebing who had messed up his plans!

Cannot admit it!

Xue Qingrong will never admit he had instigated Guo Mingfeng to give a false statement.

Xue Qingrong immediately retaliates and claims Guo Mingfeng was lying.

But Guo Mingfeng refused to back down. He even claimed Xue Qingrong would make things difficult for him if he didn't testify for Xue Xiaoliang. Xue Qingrong had never said these, but there's nothing for Guo Mingfeng to lose now. He dares to say all sorts of things to drag Xue Qingrong down with him.

Nan Shan District's Leaders can't be unaware of this incident after it had blown up.

This incident involves the Organization Department Chief, and it is too sensitive. The District Leaders kept quiet because they did not expect a simple investigation into Guo Mingfeng would become a big saga.

Guang Ming Subdistrict Office.

Dong Xuebing was laughing in his heart when he heard Xue Qingrong and Guo Mingfeng had turned against each other. He thought to himself. My political wisdom had improved.

Dong Xuebing knows Guo Mingfeng has no evidence against Xue Qingrong. Still, his testimony had confirmed it was Xue Xiaoliang who had attacked him that night. He had used a weapon to hit Guo Mingfeng, and Dong Xuebing had retaliated to save him. This proved Dong Xuebing's incident, and Xue Xiaoliang can't escape anymore. With all the District Leaders watching the investigation, it can no longer be covered up!

When it was about time to finish work, Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

It's the Police officer from the District Public Security Bureau. "Director Dong, the investigation is completed. Xue Xiaoliang had admitted he had attacked Guo Mingfeng first. We are proceeding with the charges against him."

Dong Xuebing knew Xue Xiaoliang had no choice but to confess because of Guo Mingfeng. "Oh, what will be his punishment?"

The Officer paused for a second. "His sentence is not confirmed, but we proposed a fifteen days remand at a remand center."

Dong Xuebing nodded and was satisfied with this punishment. Guo Mingfeng's injuries are minor, and if he had not accused Dong Xuebing, he might not even need to spend a night at the remand center. Fifteen days at a remand center is not only a punishment for Xue Xiaoliang. It is also a slap on the face for Xue Qingrong.

This incident had blown up.

But at this moment, the District had announced they would be giving Nan Shan District Organization Department Chief Xue Qingrong a verbal warning. Xue Qingrong could not escape punishment in the end, and this announcement is a form of protection for Xue Qingrong. Wang Anshi doesn't want this saga to continue and announced this punishment. This is not a harsh punishment, and it means putting a stop to this saga.

This incident had finally concluded, but Xue Qingrong is burning with rage.

His son is arrested, and he is punished.

Xue Qingrong could not accept this outcome and felt disgraced. Although he is still the Organization Department Chief, his authority had suffered a severe blow!

Dong Xuebing! Dong Xuebing!

Xue Qingrong pinned everything on Dong Xuebing!

At the same time, Dong Xuebing's name appeared in front of everyone because of this incident. The way this incident had progressed is too weird. No one had expected this outcome. Dong Xuebing had beat up the District Organization Department Chief's son, and nothing happened to him. He even sent Xue Xiaoliang into the remand center and let Chief Xue receive a verbal warning. Everyone is shocked as a Deputy Division Chief with the District's Party Secretary as backing had lost to a twenty-five-year-old Dong Xuebing with no backing within the District!

What the hell is going on?!

This is a miracle!

No one knows what Dong Xuebing did to win against Xue Qingrong. It happened too fast, and Xue Qingrong could not even retaliate!

Chapter 599: Work Party Committee!

Next day.

Friday.

Dong Xuebing was preparing for work when he received a call from a Beijing landline. It's a call from the National Respect and Cares for the elderly's model unit award to notify Guang Ming Subdistrict had passed the first round of selection. They need to submit the application materials.

It's finally here!

Dong Xuebing brightens up. "Thank you. Where should we submit the materials to?"

"The final selection is under the Ministry of Civil Affairs. You all can submit the application to them."

"..... Alright. We will do it as soon as possible."

"The Central Government should have started the final selection now. You must submit the materials soon, or it will affect your results."

"Thank you. I will do it immediately."

"That's all."

This is the first major award Dong Xuebing has worked on since he becomes the Director. This award is what he needed now. He knows getting past the first round of selection does not mean anything, and the Ministry of Civil Affairs will eliminate more than half of the remaining teams. But his chances of winning this award are slightly higher than 30%. If he can get this award by luck, it will be an impressive achievement on his resume. His Subdistrict Office will get more funds from the District, and they will stand out among other Subdistrict Offices. He is not confident of getting it, but he will try his best.

On the way to work, Dong Xuebing called Zhou Yanru to notify all the Work Party Committee members that he was calling for a meeting.

Half an hour later.

Small meeting room.

Dong Xuebing remained in his office to check the National Respect and Care for the elderly's model unit award materials. He waited until the last minute before entering the meeting room and saw everyone was waiting for him. After Guo Mingfeng backstabbed Dong Xuebing, he realized his authority among the middle and higher management was weak. After yesterday's incident, he decided to strengthen his status. As the Work Party Secretary, it's normal for him to be slightly late to show his authority.

The meeting room is quiet and tense.

Dong Xuebing looks at everyone and walks to his seat. "Let's start the meeting."

The Work Party Committee Members straighten their backs subconsciously. Dong Xuebing can tell many of them had changed their attitudes towards him.

Geng Xinke is looking down and drinking tea. He seems to be in a bad mood.

Deputy Director Yu Rongfeng looks nervous and unsettled.

Police Station Chief Peng Gang is also looking nervous.

They are looking terrible because Dong Xuebing had eliminated one of the three members of the Geng faction because of the incident.

Dong Xuebing purposely brings up Guo Mingfeng. "All of you should know what happened to Deputy Director Guo Mingfeng. I had asked the District Commission of Discipline Inspection about the progress of the investigation. He has serious issues with his finances and moral issues. We must take this as a warning!" He knocked on the table three times and raised his voice. "Our Organization Department must be more careful in the future!"

Geng Xinke is in charge of the Subdistrict Office's Organization Department's personnel matters. Although he cannot decide on a Section Chief position, he can select the candidates. Everyone here knows he was the one who helped Guo Mingfeng get promoted to Deputy Director. Now, the latter is in trouble, and Geng Xinke has to share the blame.

Dong Xuebing's statement made the situation more tense.

Zhou Yanru glanced at Geng Xinke and continued to record meeting minutes.

After giving out his warning, Dong Xuebing sipped on his tea and paused for two seconds before saying slowly. "Someone has to takeover Deputy Director Guo's duties. I will reassign his duties now. Office Director Meng will take over Deputy Director Guo's Ministry of Civil Affairs duties from now."

Office Deputy Director Meng Shenguo had not handled the dispute between Wang Yuling and the resident well. After that incident, he tried to show he wants to be on Dong Xuebing's side, but he did not accept. Meng Shenguo heard this and brightened up. Ministry of Civil Affairs work means he will have some authority. This is Dong Xuebing's way of telling Meng Shenguo he accepted him into his faction. He was one of the longest-serving staff in the Subdistrict Office. After the former Director left, he did not join other factions. Now, he is accepted into Dong Xuebing's faction, and he is excited.

Meng Shenguo immediately expresses he will do a good job.

Zhou Yanru looks at Meng Shenguo and smiles.

Dong Xuebing continues. "As for Deputy Director Guo's Respect and Care for the elderly work and Disabled Persons' Federation...." He paused for a while and said. "Director Yuling, please take care of it."

Wang Yuling was shocked. She did not expect Dong Xuebing to give her this responsibility.

Everyone looks at the District Party Secretary's niece.

Guang Ming Subdistrict's Respect and Care for the elderly work is important. They might have a chance to win the Respect and Care for the elderly work's model unit award. This is a good position, and everyone is eyeing to get a slice of this cake. If their Subdistrict wins the award, Wang Yuling will get this credit. Even if she is not interested in the Government Service and is not ambitious, she still wants a promotion. Her salary and welfare benefits will increase.

Wang Yuling felt embarrassed as she had not participated or helped with the inspection. Now, she will be getting this credit, and her face turns red. "Errr... Director, I..."

Dong Xuebing smiles. "What's wrong? Is this responsibility too big for you?"

"I am afraid I can't do a good job." Wang Yuling said she might not do this job well, and not she is not willing to take on this job.

"I know about your capabilities. You must be more confident in yourself. That's it. Anyone else has any problems with this arrangement?" Dong Xuebing looks at the rest.

The other members kept quiet.

You had decided everything. Who dares to raise any objections?

If Dong Xuebing had done this in the past, the Geng Faction would be the first to oppose and demand a vote to decide these appointments. But yesterday's incident had shocked them. He had sent Guo Mingfeng to the Commission of Discipline Inspection. He even caused the District Organization Department to get a verbal warning. That's why no one dares to go against him now.

Dong Xuebing is satisfied by their reaction. This is the first time he felt he was the No.1 in the Subdistrict. "Since you all don't have any objections, it is finalized. Lastly, I want to share a piece of good news. I had received a call from the Nation Respect and Care for the elderly work's Role Model Unit award's office this morning. We had passed the first round of selection, and the final round of selection will be held these few days. I want everyone here to pay attention to the work and don't want any problems during this period."

The nomination list is out?

Everyone started to discuss the Nation Respect and Care for the elderly work's Role Model Unit award.

When the meeting ended, Dong Xuebing looked up. "Director Zhou, Director Wang. Please stay back for a minute."

Everyone left the meeting room, except for Zhou Yanru and Wang Yuling.

Wang Yuling looks at Dong Xuebing and smiles. "Thank you, Director."

"Are you talking about the Nation Respect and Care for the elderly work?" Dong Xuebing waved his hand. "Haha... this is the trust by the Organization. Why are you thanking me for? But since you have taken over this role, you must work hard. I will hold you responsible if there are any problems."

Wang Yuling is not confident, but she still nods.

"Director Zhou." Dong Xuebing turns to Zhou Yanru. "You got to work closely with Director Wang."

Zhou Yanru smiles. "I know. Don't worry about it."

Dong Xuebing had let Zhou Yanru handle the Nation Respect and Care for the elderly work a few days ago, and he added Wang Yuling now. It means both of them are in charge of this. They are close friends, and he believes they can work well together. Also, Wang Yuling is considered in his faction, and he has full control over this role model unit award.

Everything was going smoothly, and Dong Xuebing felt good. This is the result of him establishing his authority yesterday. He had strengthened his foothold, but there are consequences to it. Other people will use their subordinates to establish their authority, but he is different. Not only had he used his subordinate, he even used a District Government Leader, Xue Qingrong, to establish his authority. This will put him under the spotlight.

No...

I got to stay low for a while.

Zhou Yanru asked. "The application materials...."

"The Nation Respect and Care for the elderly work's Role Model Unit Office want us to send it to Beijing as soon as possible." Dong Xuebing thought for a while. "Alright. Both of you go back and pack your stuff. You all will go to Beijing with me, and be prepared to stay a few days there." Besides trying to stay low and submitting the materials, Dong Xuebing also wants to treat the Role Model Unit Award Office Leaders to dinner. They are already late, and many units should have left for Beijing now.

Chapter 600: Where can you find such a Good Leader?

Friday morning.

Guang Ming Subdistrict family quarters.

Dong Xuebing is prepared to stay in Beijing for a few days and return on Sunday or Monday. After all, it's not easy to establish a relationship with Leaders. He has to treat the Leaders to meals and might even need to send gifts. That's why he brought a few sets of clothes. It's the weekends, and staying a few days in Beijing will not affect his work.

Dong Xuebing went downstairs to his car and started to load his luggage.

After a while, Wang Yuling walks out of the building with big luggage. She looks very excited.

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Your luggage is big."

"These are all clothing." Wang Yuling smiles. "Director, which car are we using?"

"Use mine. The road condition is poor, and an SUV is more convenient. Place your luggage here."

"Ok." Wang Yuling got more excited. This Cayenne is more powerful than the Subdistrict Office's cars. She looks like she is going on a vacation. Although Fen Zhou City is not far from Beijing, she has only been there a few times.

After a while, Zhou Yanru and a little girl, around fifteen or sixteen, appear with their luggage. They saw Dong Xuebing is waiting by his car, and she walked over quickly.

"Sorry to keep you waiting. I was searching for some things, and it took a while."

"It's alright." Dong Xuebing helped Wang Yuling with her luggage. "I will put your luggage into the boot."

"I can do it myself..." Zhou Yanru is touched. Her Leader had helped her with the luggage, and this shows his respect for her.

Wang Yuling also did not let Dong Xuebing carry Zhou Yanru's luggage. She smiles and helps her put it into the car boot. After that, she stroked the girl's cheeks. "You have grown taller."

The girl blushed. "Sister Yuling." Dong Xuebing asked. "Who is this?"

Zhou Yanru quickly answer. "This is my daughter, Chen Chen. Chen Chen, this is Uncle Dong."

"Uncle Dong." Chen Chen greeted and helped her mother with her luggage. She seems to be scared of strangers.

Zhou Yanru had brought a few pieces of luggage. After loading everything into the car, she smiled embarrassedly. "Her Aunt is working in Beijing, and she is going to stay with her for a while during her vacation. But she can't bring too much luggage when traveling alone. So, I am bringing some of her luggage for her." Dong Xuebing nodded. "Alright. She can come together with us."

Zhou Yanru replied. "This... this is not suitable."

Dong Xuebing understood what Zhou Yanru meant. They are going to Beijing for official business, and it's not right for them to mix personal matters. But he is not an unreasonable person. He waved his hand. "We are not outsiders. What's there to worry about? Furthermore, are you sure you want to let her travel alone to Beijing?"

Dong Xuebing patted Chen Chen's shoulder. "Let's go. Have you gotten all your luggage? If you are ready, we will go now." Zhou Yanru wants to bring Chen Chen along, or else she would not ask her to help her with her luggage. She immediately turns to her daughter. "Hurry and thank Uncle Dong."

"Thank you, Uncle Dong." Chen Chen replied with a sweet smile.

"Don't mention it. Haha... let's go."

"Director, please sit at the back." Wang Yuling immediately volunteers. "I will drive!" Dong Xuebing asked with a smile. "Xiao Wang, do you have a driving license?"

"Of course. I had gotten it when I was in University." Wang Yuling replied. "Don't worry. I promise we will get there safely. Hehe..."

Dong Xuebing had driven Wang Yuling and Zhou Yanru around previously, but those were short distances. It is different this time. It will take at least one to two hours, and it's not right to let him drive them to Beijing. But Dong Xuebing felt Wang Yuling just wanted to try driving his Cayenne.

Dong Xuebing is fine with it.

Half an hour....

One hour....

Two hours....

Wang Yuling drove the Cayenne excitedly. She kept praising the car's performance. Of course. How can a two million car be the same as a two hundred thousand car?

Beijing.

This is a city bustling with life. Chen Chen's eyes are opened wide as if this is the first time she has come to Beijing.

Wang Yuling is also unfamiliar with the roads. She slowed down and asked. "Director, where should we go first? Err... I don't know the roads here." Dong Xuebing looked at his watch and laughed. "It's almost noon. Let's have lunch first. Chen Chen, what do you want to eat?"

Chen Chen shyly reply. "I am fine with anything."

"What is anything? Name something."

"Let's eat street food."

Zhou Yanru turns and gives her a stare. "This kid is too much."

"Haha... street food is good. You must try Beijing's street food when you are here."

Dong Xuebing points to the front. "Go street from here, and turn towards east. We will go to Qian Meng."

Wang Yuling paused for a second and remembered. "Ah, I forgot Director is from Beijing."

Zhou Yanru also remembered she had seen Dong Xuebing's resume. He is from Beijing, and his vehicle's registration plate is from Beijing.

Dong Xuebing smiles. "That's why I must play host when you all are in Beijing. Haha... there's a food street at Qian Meng."

Chen Chen blinked. "I have heard of Qian Meng. But I thought people from Beijing call that place Qian Meng Er?" Wang Yuling laughed. "That's their accent. They like to add 'Er' at the end."

Dong Xuebing is speechless. "Chen Chen, who did you hear this from? That's not how it is called. Qian Meng, Tian An Meng, He Ping Meng, Di An Meng, and all other 'Meng' don't have 'er' at the end. It is the same as everyone else. Oh, there are exceptions." He thought for a while. "There's a Dong Bian Meng Er, and Xi Bian Meng Er. These are the only two with Er at the end." Chen Chen is confused. "Beijing's accent is so difficult."

Dong Xuebing shook his head. "I have never thought about this, but not everything can end with Er. I don't know how to explain, but... haha... there doesn't seem to have any rules to it." He really doesn't know how to explain as this accent was passed down for generations.

Chen Chen listened attentively. "Uncle Dong, can you tell me more about Beijing?" Dong Xuebing smiles. "What's wrong? Are you very interested in Beijing?" "Yes!" Chen Chen nodded.

Zhou Yanru smiled and explained. "Director Chen Chen had just finished her Middle School exams, and she is going to a High School. Her Aunt is living in Beijing, and Chen Chen wants to study here. That's why she is looking forward to coming here. I had asked around about the entry requirements. I heard it's hard for outsiders to enter the schools here."

Her Middle School exams had finished?

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Is her Aunt's household registration (Hukou) in Beijing?"

"No." Zhou Yanru replied. "They are from Fen Zhou City. It's not easy to get to Beijing Hukou. They are registered under their workplace."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Then she must pay a sponsorship fee to study here. I heard it's not a small amount. How are Chen Chen's results?" "She has just completed her exams, and the results are not out." Zhou Yanru continues. "But she had checked her answers and should be getting good results. That's why I want to see if she can enter one of the top High School in Beijing."

Top High School?

It's quite difficult. The top schools might need the students to take an entry exam, and it might be over. Also, there are limited spots, and sponsorship fees might not even work. Of course, Dong Xuebing did not tell Zhou Yanru about these.

On the way, Chen Chen asked a lot of questions. Dong Xuebing is considered a 'native' as he had grown up here. He patiently answers Chen Chen's questions until they reach the food street. He told Chen Chen the history behind Qian Meng and the origins of the street food names.

Many people are looking at them because they have three pretty women in their group.

Dong Xuebing felt good. He likes to bring women around as it feels better to be surrounded by women than men.

Dong Xuebing noticed the women were looking around excitedly after lunch and decided. "Alright. I had checked, and the Ministry of Civil Affairs, National Respect and Care for the elderly's model unit award office are working on Saturday and Sunday. We are going there today. It's free and easy today. You all can go shopping or visit attractions today. Don't need to report to me." Wang Yuling cheered. "Thank you, Director!"

But Zhou Yanru is worried. "Director... this is not right... we..."

"Just listen to me. We need to have a work-life balance." Dong Xuebing is a caring boss. He passed his car keys to Wang Yuling. "I will leave my car with you. Go and enjoy yourself, and we will carry on with our work tomorrow." Wang Yuling was stunned. "Ah... how can I take it? Then, what will you be driving?" Zhou Yanru also felt it was not right. "No... we can't do that." I will have a car. Just go." Dong Xuebing waved his hand.

Wang Yuling and Zhou Yanru exchanged looks. Dong Xuebing had paid for their lunch, given them time off to enjoy themselves, and let them drive his car. Where can you find such a Good Leader?
