Chapter 621: Help!

County First Middle School.

Dong Xuebing pulled Yu Qianqian into the school building.

A math teacher walked past them and noticed something was wrong. He frowned and turned to look at Dong Xuebing. Dong Xuebing's mother had taught in this school previously, but he had never visited his mother at the school. At most, he had waited for his mother outside the school. That's why no one recognizes him.

Stairwell.

Dong Xuebing asked. "Year 2 class 1 is on which floor?"

"It is on the second floor." Yu Qianqian's eyes had swelled from crying, and she held onto Dong Xuebing's hands tightly. "They still have lessons."

Lessons?!

Go to hell with your lessons!

"Let's go." Dong Xuebing walks up the stairs.

Yu Qianqian followed Dong Xuebing closely. She is still afraid.

Second floor.

Year 2 Class 1.

A man in his mid-thirties is standing in front of the class with a book in hand. He is the class teacher of this class. "All of you will be in Year 3 next semester and will be sitting for the High School Entrance Examination next year. The classes we had over the past few days prepared you all for that examination. You all must listen attentively. Alright. I shall continue to talk about the Tang and Song Dynasty."

The teacher continued with his lesson. Most of the students are listening attentively, except for a few. Huang Tingting and her friends.

"Lei Zhi, what are you all doing?" Huang Tingting asked.

"We are watching a video clip. The one we took when we beat up that girl." Lei Zhi laughed.

Xiao Fan interrupted. "I had posted that video online and gotten lots of views."

"How did you post it?" Huang Tingting asked excitedly. "Show me... quick."

Xiao Fan replied. "I went to the teacher's office to tell them you need to check for some information online, and they let me use the PC."

Huang Tingting asked. "Why didn't you delete the part where you called my name?"

“Huh? I forgot. I don’t think it’s a problem.”

“That’s right. Many people are also called Tingting.” Huang Tingting thought nothing about it and laughed. “Anyway, we did not show our faces, and the video is not very clear.”

“See... look at how Yu Qianqian cries.”

“Hahaha... this is so funny. Let’s teach her a lesson again.”

“That bitch is graduating soon. How about we call her over during noon?” Huang Tingting said. “We shall see who can hit her face with a basketball the most.” Yu Qianqian is prettier than her, and she is jealous.

“Ok!”

“How about we strip her and then hit her with basketballs? It should be fun!”

“That’s right.” Huang Tingting laughed. “We will record and post the video on the internet. I want to know how she will face others in the future. Hahaha....”

They are talking softly, but other students, including the teacher, can hear them. But they are used to it. Since Huang Tingting was transferred to the school, she mixed around with hooligans like Lei Zhi and Xiao Fan. They go around and bully other students. Most students dared not say anything, and a few students complained to the teachers. But the teachers did not take any action against them.

The teacher pretended not to hear Huang Tingting and continued with his lesson.

Everyone in the school knows Huang Tingting’s father is Yan Tai County’s newly appointed Ministry of Education Chief. The Ministry of Education oversees the schools and oversees the teachers. That’s why Huang Tingting enjoys special privileges in school.

“Remember to take notes.” The teacher wrote on the board. As long as Huang Tingting and her friends had not gone overboard, he will not reprimand them.

Suddenly, there was a loud bang. The classroom door was pushed open from outside.

It seems to be kicked open. Everyone in the class got a fright from the loud bang.

Dong Xuebing held Yu Qianqian with his right hand and stepped into the classroom. “Who is it? Point them out for me!”

Yu Qianqian looks around the classroom nervously and quickly lowers her head. She mustered her courage and lifted her head slowly. She pointed at Huang Tingting, Lei Zhi, and Xiao Fan, sitting in the middle row. “It’s the three of them.”

The teacher frowned. “We have classes. What are you all doing?!”

Dong Xuebing looks at the teacher coldly. “Go to hell with your lessons! Your students beat up my child, and you still want to carry on with your lesson?!”

“What is wrong with you?! Ah?! Why are you shouting?” The teacher gave Dong Xuebing a stare. “You are in a school!”

Dong Xuebing laughed. “School? You still know this is a school!? I sent my child to school is to learn and not send her here to be beaten up. Are you the teacher for this class? How did you teach them?! Your students had been bullying my child, and you pretend not to see anything?! Huh?!”

Dong Xuebing had started scolding the moment he stepped into the class. All the students were shocked.

The class teacher had met many unreasonable parents, and Yu Qianqian had pointed Huang Shizhong’s daughter as one of the people who hit him. He had no choice but to intervene. He pointed at Dong Xuebing and shouted. “This is not the place for you to create trouble. Get out now!”

Your students had beaten up Qianqian, and you want to kick us out of the classroom?!

F*ck you!

Dong Xuebing is fearless when he loses his temper. He raised his leg and kicked the teacher in his stomach. The teacher flew backward from the impact and hit the wood podium, smashing it into pieces.

“Arrrgh....”

“.....”

“Help! Help!”

The classroom is in chaos.

Lei Zhi, Xiao Fan, and Huang Tingting were also stunned. Who is this person?

Yu Qianqian is also stunned. She did not expect Dong Xuebing to hit the teacher.

The teacher groaned and pointed at Dong Xuebing. “How dare you hit me?”

Before the teacher can finish, Dong Xuebing steps forward and kicks him again. “Yes! You are the one I am hitting!”

The teacher was scared as he groaned in pain. Out of all the unreasonable parents he met, Dong Xuebing is the most extreme.

Dong Xuebing felt it was the class teacher’s responsibility to teach the students. It is impossible for him not to know what Huang Tingting and her friends did in school. But he did not take action, and this made her more fearless. He has to be held responsible for her actions. You want to suck up to the County’s Ministry of Education Chief’s daughter using Qianqian?! Go to hell!

“Uncle!” Yu Qianqian panicked and was about to cry again.

Dong Xuebing patted Yu Qianqian’s head. “It’s alright. Don’t be scared. No one can bully you with me around!”

Yu Qianqian was touched and calmed down. She is no longer as scared as before.

The class teacher was beaten up, and all the students quickly retreated to the side of the classroom.

Only Huang Tingting and her friends remain seated. She looks at Yu Qianqian and smiles. "Oh, you had asked your family to come... that's so smart of you."

Yu Qianqian lowered her head and bit her lips.

Dong Xuebing looks at Huang Tingting. "Are you the one who hit her?"

Huang Tingting is not afraid. "It's me. What do you want?"

Dong Xuebing nodded and walked towards her.

Huang Tingting looked at Dong Xuebing and threatened. "Do you believe that no schools in Yan Tai County will accept her if you touch me?!"

Before Huang Tingting could finish, Dong Xuebing grabbed her by her hair and pulled her up from her seat.

Huang Tingting was shocked. "What are you trying to do? Let go of me!"

Dong Xuebing raised his hand. Slap!

"Ah!" Huang Tingting could not believe this was happening.

Dong Xuebing looked at her and asked. "Did you slap Qianqian this way? How many times did you slap her?"

Huang Tingting cursed. "F*ck you."

Slap! Dong Xuebing slapped the other side of her face. "If Huang Shizhong doesn't know how to teach his children, I will do it for him."

Huang Tingting fell to the floor, and her tears were flowing. "You.... You know who my father is?"

"Who cares who your father is!" Dong Xuebing replied. "Even if your father is Liang Chengpeng, I will also beat you up!"

Who is Liang Chengpeng? Other students might not know him, but the class teacher, who is still lying on the floor, knows. He is Yan Tai County's Public Security Bureau Chief.

The class teacher, Li, felt his heart turns cold.

This person is not a nobody.

Chapter 622: How does it feel?

The classroom is in a mess.

The class teacher was beaten up and struggled to get back on his feet. Huang Tingting was slapped twice and fell on the floor. She is staring at Dong Xuebing and Yu Qianqian with anger. She has been bullying others and has never been bullied like this since young.

"You two better watch out!" Huang Tingting shouted angrily.

"Shut up!" Dong Xuebing glanced at her. "I am waiting."

Huang Tingting continues shouting. "My father will not let you two off! You are dead!"

Dong Xuebing looks at Huang Tingting. "Oh, I still want to settle this score with Huang Shizhong! I want to know how did he teach his daughter."

"Tingting." Lei Zhi rushed over to help Huang Tingting up.

The teacher saw Huang Tingting's face had turned red from the slaps and knew he was in trouble. The daughter of the County's Ministry of Education Chief was beaten up in school in front of him. His face turns pale. He knows Dong Xuebing should be someone backing from what he said earlier, but this is not the time to care about that. Ministry of Education Chief Huang Shizhong is his direct superior and has power over all teachers' promotion in the County. How is he going to face Chief Huang if anything happens to Huang Tingting? Furthermore, this young man is in his mid-twenties. No matter how capable he is, he can never win against Huang Shizhong.

The teacher quickly got up as he feared Dong Xuebing would hit Huang Tingting again. He cannot allow Huang Shizhong's daughter to hit again. "Hurry up and get help! Go over and protect Huang Tingting.

The other students did not move and stood there watching.

The teacher took a few steps forward and shouted angrily. "Someone get the security!"

The school holidays started, and only a few classes had additional lessons, other than the graduating classes' results. That's why not many people heard the commotion, and the students got to go downstairs to get help.

The other students looked at each other and did not move. Dong Xuebing is standing near the door, and none of them dares to go near him. Another reason, which is the main reason, is they are the top students within their cohort. Huang Tingting managed to enter this class because of his father after being transferred to this school. She also bullies her classmates frequently with Lei Zhi and Xiao Fan. All of them are angry with her, but no one dares to retaliate. Now, they feel good when they see Huang Tingting getting slapped. They will not help her or call for security.

She deserves it.

Someone should have taught her a lesson a long time ago.

Dong Xuebing was pissed when he heard what the teacher shouted. He turns to the teacher. "Protect her?! You are such a good class teacher, and I want to ask you questions. Where are you when Huang Tingting and her friends bully Qianqian? Ah? Where are you when they bully the other students in your class?! Who did you protect?! Just because she is Huang Shizhong's daughter and she gets special privileges?! She can bully others, and no one can touch her?! F*ck!"

The class teacher was about to retort.

"Swoosh!" Dong Xuebing gave the teacher another kick.

The teacher was sent flying again.

Dong Xuebing points at the teacher. "We have so many bullying incidents because of teachers like you. If you all had taken actions to punish or expel the bullies, all these incidents would be stopped. All you think about is your personal interest. This is why so many students don't dare report bullying incidents to teachers. You all can't be bothered to discipline the bullies and will only give them a verbal warning at most. This resulted in them continuing to bully others. How can you be a teacher with such character?! If you don't have this responsibility, you should pack up and leave. A school is to educate the students, and the students are not tools for you to sacrifice to suck up to your superiors. This is not the way you treat your students!"

The other students agree with Dong Xuebing. If the school and teachers punished the bullies for every incident, all these would be stopped.

Suddenly, Yu Qianqian shouted. "Be careful!"

Lei Zhi had grabbed a chair behind Dong Xuebing to attack him. "I will f*cking kill you!"

Dong Xuebing is unfazed by this sneak attack. He turned around and grabbed one of the chair's legs. He twisted the chair out from Lei Zhi's hands and swung it against him. "Crash!" the chair broke into pieces, and Lei Zhi slammed onto the concrete floor.

Dong Xuebing bent down and grabbed Lei Zhi by his hair. "You little bastard. I still have not found you, and you are so eager to come to me. Tell me, how did you hit Qianqian."

Lei Zhi is scared. He knows he is no match for Dong Xuebing and could not do anything.

Xiao Fan started retreating. They only dare to bully the weak and chicken out when they meet someone more unreasonable than them.

"You refuse to say anything?!" Dong Xuebing looks at Lei Zhi coldly. "The shoeprint on Qianqian's stomach is yours?! How dare you kick a girl in her stomach and ask her to kneel and bark like a dog?!"

Dong Xuebing got angrier as he spoke and smashed Lei Zhi's face against a table beside him.

"Argh...." Lei Zhi shouted in pain, and blood started flowing out from his nose.

Dong Xuebing shouted. "Who did you ask to kneel?! Ah?! Who did you ask to bark like a dog?! Ah?! Say it again!"

Lei Zhi is crying. "I am still underage. You...."

"Underage?" Dong Xuebing looks at him. "Do you think you kick a girl and ask her to kneel in front of you all just because you are underage? Ah? I don't believe you know about morals and the differences between right and wrong. Don't use underage as an excuse for what you did. You are not a kindergarten kid who doesn't know what he is doing. You knew the differences between right and wrong, but you still hit Qianqian. This is because you know the school and parents will not do anything to you. If no one is willing to teach you all, I will!"

Dong Xuebing released his grip on Lei Zhi's hair and threw him on the floor. He stood up and looked at Xiao Fan. "You...."

Xiao Fan was shocked nervously. "Don't come near me!"

"Is it fun to bully a little girl? Are you satisfied and happy?" Dong Xuebing stares at Xiao Fan. "Then I should also bully you to make myself happy."

“F*ck!” Xiao Fan knew he could not escape and threw a pencil case from the table at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing casually raised his hand and grabbed the pencil case without blinking. He flicked his wrist and threw pencil case back.

Bam!

The pencil case hit Xiao Fan’s face hard.

Xiao Fan shouted in pain as he covered his face.

Dong Xuebing continued. “Do you think you are great when you threw a basketball into Qianqian’s face? I dare you to do it again!”

“Damn!” Xiao Fan went crazy. He grabbed a few stationary, like a ruler, fountain pen, ballpoint pen, etc., from the desk and threw them at Dong Xuebing.

“Uncle!” Yu Qianqian shouted anxiously.

Dong Xuebing smiles and lifts his hand lightly. He moved his hand slightly and caught that ruler between his thumb and index finger. He caught the fountain pen with his index and middle finger and the ballpoint pen with his middle and fourth fingers.

This move shocked everyone.

A pencil case is big, and it is easier to catch it. But metal rulers and pens are small, and it’s not easy to catch them. Moreover, Dong Xuebing caught it between his fingers on one hand!

Dong Xuebing flicked his hand again and sent those stationary flying back to Xiao Fan.

Swoosh!

The ruler and fountain pen hit Xiao Fan’s face. He shouted in pain and started bleeding from his nose.

Dong Xuebing paused for a second and asked. “Who was the one that recorded the video this morning?!”

A girl standing among the other students turned pale and burst out crying.

“It’s you.” Dong Xuebing extended his hand. “Where is your phone?”

The girl cried as she quickly took out her phone.

Dong Xuebing took the phone from her and smashed it on the floor, followed by a stomp. This Nokia phone was smashed into pieces.

After doing this, Dong Xuebing looks at them coldly. “You all finally got to taste how it is like to be bullied by others now. Does it feel good?”

Chapter 623: Police! It’s him

Dong Xuebing’s words linger in the Year 2 Class 1 classroom.

You all finally got to taste how it is like to be bullied by others now. Does it feel good?” No one will like being bullied.

But Huang Tingting is used to being arrogant in school and has not learned her lesson. She pointed at Dong Xuebing and shouted. "Don't you dare to run!" She turns to a female classmate. "Give me your phone." That girl was bullied previously and quickly passed her phone to her. She dialed her father's number immediately. "Dad! Come over quickly. I was beaten up in school."

Huang Tingting cried when she was on the phone with her father.

After hanging up, Huang Tingting wiped her tears and stared at Yu Qianqian. "Yu Qianqian! You are dead!"

Yu Qianqian was scared and moved closer to Dong Xuebing.

"Hmph! You still want to threaten Qianqian?!" Dong Xuebing held Qianqian's hand. "Alright. I want to see how we are going to die. Please show us."

"Don't you dare to run. Wait here!" Huang Tingting shouted.

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Sure. I will wait. Even if you don't call Huang Shizhong, I will also look for him."

The class teacher secretly took out his phone to call the police. "Hello, City Police Station? I am a teacher in County First Middle School. Someone had entered the school and is attacking others. Hurry up and send someone over."

Dong Xuebing saw the teacher making the phone call but did not stop him. After the teacher hung up, he looked at him. "Huang Tingting's parent is on his way here. Call that Lei Zhi and Xiao Fan's parents to come over too. Oh, get your school principal to come too. Damn! I had sent Qianqian to school is to study and not be a punching bag for others. If you all don't know how to teach children, you all should better shut down the school! How can this school be the County's top middle school if you all can't protect a child?"

The class teacher thought to himself. "You still want me to get the students' parents and principal? You had beaten up the Ministry of Education Chief's daughter, and the police will not let you off. The teacher hated Dong Xuebing to the core for beating him up in front of his students. Until now, his stomach is still twitching.

"Qianqian, let's go." Dong Xuebing pulled Qianqian.

Xiao Fan wiped the blood on his face and thought Dong Xuebing was trying to escape. "Where are you going? Don't try to escape."

Lei Zhi heard Huang Tingting's father and the police are on their way to the school, and he got bolder.

Dong Xuebing sneered. "I want to escape?! Why should I go when I am still not done with you all? I will not leave until this matter is settled. I will be waiting for your parents in the medical room." Failing to educate the child is the fault of the parents. He will not let these people off easily.

The medical room is at the end of the corridor.

The door is unlocked, and there's nobody inside.

Dong Xuebing and Yu Qianqian entered and closed the door behind him. He made Qianqian sit on a chair and look around for a first-aid box. He took out an alcohol wipe and started cleaning the wounds on her face. "Don't move."

Yu Qianqian nodded.

"Is it painful?" Dong Xuebing applied for medicine on her face gently. "Tell me if it hurts."

Yu Qianqian smiles sweetly. "It's not painful now. Thank you, Uncle."

Dong Xuebing felt guilty. "If I knew this would happen, I would have warned the school not to let anyone bully you before I go to Nan Shan District."

Yu Qianqian smiles and shakes her head. "You are the best."

"Haha... are you happy now?"

Yu Qianqian nodded and asked worryingly. "But... but the police...."

Dong Xuebing stopped her. "I will be fine even if the police are here. They can catch me if they want. I am not afraid of anyone."

Five minutes later.

County First Middle School. Two police cars sped into the school compound.

A student's family member attacking others in school is a big incident, and the City Police Station is very concerned. That's why they sent two police cars and five officers to handle this case.

The police cars stopped, and the officers alighted.

The class teacher rushed out of the school building. "Officers."

"Are you the one who called?" An officer, Qian Dong, asked. "Where is that guy?"

The teacher pointed upstairs angrily. "He is in the medical room on the second floor."

Another officer asked curiously. "He is in the medical room and did not escape?"

The officers rushed into the school building, and the teacher said while running. "He did not escape and is in the medical room now. Officers, you all must arrest this criminal. He is too arrogant. How can he attack others in the school?"

Qian Dong looks at the teacher. "You are also injured?"

"Yes." The teacher replied. "Not only me, but three other students were also beaten up too."

"Did he attack others because his child is bullied?" Qian Dong asked.

The teacher paused for a second and replied. "He did say this, but I don't know if anyone had bullied his kid."

Qian Dong exchanged looks with the other officers, and they frowned. This person is too arrogant. He had come to the school and beat up a teacher and students, and he still dared to wait for the police in the school's medical room. It's been a while since they had met someone so arrogant.

Before they reached the school, their leader informed them that one of the students beaten up was the County's Ministry of Education Chief Huang Shizhong's daughter. This made them speechless. Who is so daring to attack a County Government Leader's daughter?

The officers ran up the stairs.

Qian Dong is always careful and has his hand on his baton. "Be careful. Subdue him the moment we enter the room, and we will interrogate him at the station."

"Yes, Sir." The officers know this is a serious case involving Chief Huang's family member, and the station's higher-up had hinted to them to be more 'forceful' against the culprit.

"Go!"

The officers started moving.

Qian Dong and his men surrounded the medical room and confirmed the suspect's position through the small glass panel on the door.

The class teacher is hiding and waiting behind the officers.

But when the teacher thought the officers would kick open the door and rush in, he saw Qian Dong froze after he looked into the room.

The other officers were also frozen in place. Their hand on the door handle stopped moving.

Qian Dong turned to the teacher nervously. "Are you sure the person inside is the one who attacked you?"

The teacher looks into the room. "That's right. Officers hurry up and arrest him.

Qian Dong held his breath and almost fainted.

Arrest him?!

I will arrest you instead!

Chapter 624: Huang Shizhong VS Dong Xuebing

County First Middle School, second-floor Medical Room.

Qian Dong, the team leader of the officers from the County's City Police Station, is sweating. He quickly turns around and walks away from the medical room's window. His officers don't need his order and quickly hide behind the wall.

Qian Dong held his breath and asked softly. "Are my eyes playing tricks? Is it him?"

The officer beside him wiped the sweat on his forehead and replied. "I think so."

"It is him." Another officer interrupted. "I am sure it is him."

The officers stopped talking for a second and took a deep breath simultaneously. They felt they had not read the almanac before coming to work today. Why are they so unlucky to encounter this person?

The class teacher is puzzled. "Officers, hurry up and arrest him."

Qian Dong gave the teacher a stare. Is this teacher trying to get him killed?

Other people might not know Dong Xuebing, but all Police Officers in the County know him. He was formerly a Deputy Chief of the County's Public Security Bureau and is notorious for being the God of Plague.

Arrest him?

Are you trying to get us killed?

Who dares to arrest the God of Plague in Yan Tai County?

Qian Dong doesn't know what to do or handle this situation.

The class teacher was confused and said. "Officers, when he was beating up the students, he shouted. He would still beat up the student even if his father was Chief Liang. He has no respect for the law and the government." He instigated and wished for the Officers to beat Dong Xuebing before his arrest.

The Officers heard this and looked at the class teacher weirdly.

He dares to beat up Liang Chengpeng's children?!

Others might not dare say anything like this, but Dong Xuebing will definitely do it.

Qian Dong said in his heart. Dong Xuebing had even beaten and arrested a County Party Committee Member's relative in the past. In the end, nothing had happened to him. No one will bat an eyelid if he really beat up Liang Chengpeng's son, let alone Huang Shizhong's daughter. He has a record for doing outrageous things.

A younger officer whispered. "Brother Qian, it is not easy to handle this situation.... Ermm.... This is a serious case. Should we inform the station and ask someone from the Bureau to take over this case?"

Push this case to someone else? This is a great idea!

Qian Dong didn't want to get involved and nodded. He took out his phone and walked to the other end of the corridor."

"Hello, Chief Wan. I am Xiao Qian." Qian Dong said.

City Police Station Chief Wan Tao asked. "Is the person arrested?"

Qian Dong stuttered. "Err.... Not yet."

Wan Tao paused for a second. "Why is he not arrested yet?!"

"It's like this...." Qian Dong replied. "I.... We... the suspect is.... Chief Dong."

Wan Tao frowned. "Chief Dong? Which Chief Dong?"

Qian Dong lowered his voice. "Errr.... It's Dong Xuebing."

There was a loud crash on the other line. Qian Dong wonders if Chief Wan had fallen off his chair or dropped something.

Qian Dong asked. "Chief Wan, can we push this case to the Bureau?"

“We had accepted the case, and how are we going to pass it to the Bureau?” Wan Tao quickly reply. “You all handle it by yourselves. Try to reach for a private settlement. Even if you all can’t make them settle this privately, you all must not bring him back to the station.”

“Chief Wan, we....”

Du.... Du.... Du.... Chief Wan hung up.

Qian Dong is mad. What do you want me to do? How am I going to handle this case?

Qian Dong walked back to his officers and shook his head.

The officers are speechless.

The class teacher is not stupid. He knows the person inside is someone even the police don’t dare to arrest. Who is this person?

Rapid footsteps approached from a distance.

County First Middle School and an angry Ministry of Education Chief walk towards them.

Huang Shizhong is in his forties, with a square face. He is furious as his only daughter, Huang Tingting, was beaten up in school. When she called him, he was stunned for a few seconds. She is his precious daughter and has spoilt her since young. How can she be beaten up in a school under his jurisdiction? How can he tolerate someone who barged into the classroom and slapped his daughter?

“How did you manage your school? How can you allow anyone to enter the premises like this?” Huang Shizhong shouted at the Principal. “How did he enter the school?”

The Principal cautiously replied. “It’s our fault.”

“This is ridiculous! How can the school allow anyone to enter?”

The Principal was not working today, but he rushed over immediately after hearing about this incident. He met Huang Shizhong at the entrance and entered the school with him. Yu Qianqian’s family member had to take revenge on Huang Tingting, who had bullied her, which made him worried. Many teachers know Yu Qianqian had transferred to the school through connections. Still, only the Principal and some higher management staff know Dong Xuebing helped her get the transfer. That’s why the Principal had a bad feeling when he heard about it.

Second floor.

“Chief Huang.”

“Principal.”

Huang Shizhong shouted. “Where is he?!”

The class teacher points to the medical room. “Inside.”

“Why is he not arrested?” Huang Shizhong looks at the Officers. “What are you all waiting for?” He had called the City Police Station Chief before he left for the school, but why didn’t the Officers take any actions? These Officers are still waiting outside.

Qian Dong and his Officers are troubled. Chief Wan had instructed them not to arrest anyone or bring the God of Plague near their station. “We just arrived and are about to enter.”

“Then what are you all waiting for?” Huang Shizhong stepped forward and opened the door. “Who is the one who hit the students?”

Dong Xuebing is applying for medicine on Qianqian’s arm, and he turns to the person who entered. “Me, and who are you?”

County First Middle School’s Principal almost fell when he heard the voice and saw Dong Xuebing’s face. Damn! Why is the God of Plagues back? Although the Principal had a bad feeling when he received the call, he regretted returning to school when he saw Dong Xuebing. That’s right. Who else has the guts to beat up the Ministry of Education Chief’s daughter other than the notorious God of Plague?

The class teacher saw the Principal’s face change and got worried.

“Who am I?” Huang Shizhong shouted. “I am Huang Tingting’s father!”

Yu Qianqian hid behind Dong Xuebing when she saw many people entering the room.

Dong Xuebing looks at Huang Shizhong from top to toe. “You are Huang Shizhong? You are finally here. How the hell did you teach your daughter?”

You hit my daughter, and you still dare to scold me?! Huang Shizhong could not hold back his anger. “You bastard! The police are here, and you still dare to scold others?!”

Dong Xuebing bangs on the table. “I am only shouting, and you are so angry. I dare you to scold me again!”

The Principal broke out in cold sweat when he saw Huang Shizhong and Dong Xuebing started scolding each other.”

“Calm down.... Chief Huang, Chief Dong.... Director Dong.... Please calm down.” The Principal tried to calm them.

“Leaders...” Qian Dong quickly added. “Please talk things out nicely.”

The Officers exchanged looks and quickly moved closer to both. They are afraid both parties might exchange blows.

Huang Shizhong heard the Principal addressing Dong Xuebing as Director Dong and turned to him.

The Principal quickly explains softly. “Chief Huang, this person is Dong Xuebing, Director Dong, from Nan Shan Subdistrict. He is formerly our Yan Tai County Investment Promotion Agency Chief.”

Huang Shizhong was posted to Yan Tai County not long ago and had never heard of Dong Xuebing. He sneered when he heard Dong Xuebing was transferred away. So what if you are a Subdistrict

Director? You are no longer under Yan Tai County, and you are the one who hit my daughter. He is not afraid of someone who was transferred out.

Huang Shizhong might not know who Dong Xuebing is, but the class teacher knows.

The class teacher's legs almost gave way when he heard this name.

Dong Xuebing.

This person is Dong Xuebing!

Holy shit!

The class teacher turned pale and felt the world spinning. He wants to slap himself. He will never get involved if he knows this person is the infamous God of Plagues. Everyone in Yan Tai County knows about Chief Dong's revengeful nature and his aggressive ways of doing things.

The class teacher stood at the back and quickly sneaked out of the medical room. He cannot afford Dong Xuebing, but he can try his best to hide from him.

Chapter 625: The God of Plagues is back to create trouble again

Medical room.

Dong Xuebing and Huang Shizhong had lost their temper, and they looked like they were about to kill each other.

"Subdistrict Office Director!" Huang Shizhong shouted. "You are in the Government Service, and how can you beat up my daughter?! Huh?! Who gives you the right to do that?!"

Dong Xuebing retorted. "You still have the cheek to mention your daughter? She had beaten up my Qianqian. Who gives her the right to do that?"

Huang Shizhong looks at Dong Xuebing. "Bullshit! Tingting will never do such things."

"Then you tell me what these are?" Dong Xuebing points at the bruises on Qianqian's face.

Huang Shizhong sneered. "Who knows if she had fallen and got those wounds. Don't try to blame it on my daughter."

"Fall?! Are you f*cking blind?! How can these injuries be caused by a fall?!"

"I am telling you this! My daughter will never hit another person. Even if she did, she must have her reasons."

Dong Xuebing burst out laughing. "Fine. You don't want to admit it, right? I will show you your daughter's true colors now!"

The Principal walked over and tried to calm them. "Leaders, this incident...."

"Did I ask you to speak?" Dong Xuebing cut him off.

The Principal kept quiet. He knows Dong Xuebing and Huang Shizhong are angry now and will not listen to anything.

Dong Xuebing switched on the PC in the medical room.

He found the video clip on the website and played it. "See for yourself what happened."

Huang Shizhong didn't believe his daughter would do such things and went closer to the monitor. The Principal, Qian Dong, and the other officers also got closer. If there is a video clip, it would be evidence. They are also curious why the God of Plagues is so angry. The advertisement ended, and the video started playing.

"You are in Year Three?"

"Haha... all you know is cry. Such a disgrace."

"Get her to kneel and crawl around."

"Hey, did you hear me? Kneel!"

"Kneel! Kneel!"

"Didn't you hear what Tingting said? Hurry up and crawl!"

One minute....

Two minutes....

Three minutes....

The video ended, and the room was silent. A few moments later, Qianqian started crying again.

Dong Xuebing patted her head and hugged her. "Stop crying. It's alright."

The video reminded Yu Qianqian of what happened this morning, and she started crying again.

The Principal is looking terrible. He did not expect a serious bullying incident to occur in his school. The video had been posted on the internet, and it's too late to hide it.

Qian Dong and the other officers exchanged looks. They finally understand why Dong Xuebing is so angry. Huang Tingting and her friends punched and kicked Yu Qianqian, threw a basketball in her face, and forced her to kneel and apologize. All these started because she had accidentally knocked Huang Tingting along the corridor. This is too much! The officers also have family and kids. If their children are bullied in school, they will also go crazy. No wonder the God of Plagues beat up those students.

Huang Shizhong is looking the worst. He watched the video and knew the girl was his daughter at the end. There's no way for him to deny now.

Dong Xuebing is not a forgiving person. He switched off the video and banged the table. "Huang Shizhong! Do you want to repeat what you just said earlier?"

Huang Shizhong stared at Dong Xuebing coldly.

"F*ck!" Dong Xuebing cursed. "Don't tell me about how a Government staff should behave. I am just the guardian of a child who was bullied in school. You still dare to claim your daughter will never hit others? Open your eyes and see! Did I accuse her?! Huh?"

Huang Shizhong did not cool down. "Even if Tingting had made a minor mistake, you shouldn't lay your hands on her. You have no regard for the law!"

Dong Xuebing snapped. "Your daughter hit my child is a minor mistake, and I hit her is having no regard to the law?! F*ck you! Do you think the world revolves around your family? You are unlucky I did not beat her to death!"

Huang Shizhong shouted. "Dong Xuebing! You are too arrogant!"

"It is your family who is too arrogant." Dong Xuebing retorted. "Do you think you can do whatever you want after becoming the Ministry of Education Chief?! It is people like you that resulted in her bullying others. How dare you try to clear her name?! She brought her friends to bully Qianqian, and you share part of the responsibility! I am telling you now. I am not finished with you!"

Huang Shizhong shouted. "That's right. This is not finished!"

To the Police Officers, Huang Tingting and her friends had bullied Qianqian first. They had beaten her and posted the video online. She is abused physically and mentally. But Dong Xuebing is also wrong to lay his hands on Huang Tingting. He should settle this incident through proper channels. Both sides are right but also wrong.

It is a stalemate in the medical room, and news of this incident has spread.

Some staff is discussing this incident in Yan Tai County Public Security Bureau.

"I heard someone barged into First Middle School and beat up a teacher and some students."

"Who is so daring? Is he seeking death?"

"Shhh.... Lower your voice."

"What's wrong?"

"That person is Chief Dong."

"Ah? Which Chief Dong?"

"Who else will dare to do such things?"

"Damn!"

Within a short time, many Yan Tai County Government staff had heard about this incident, and everyone was speechless. The God of Plagues had returned, and the first thing he did was to beat up the new Ministry of Education Chief's daughter in the school. The police were called, and they are still trying to resolve it.

Everyone within the Public Security and the County's Ministry of Education is speechless.

It's easy to invite someone, but it's hard to get him to leave. The County had tried their best to send Dong Xuebing to the City, but he returned after slightly more than two weeks to create trouble again.

This is never-ending.

Why are you always creating trouble? Can't you let our County have some peace?

Chapter 626: The Ignorant is not afraid of anything

The conflict intensifies.

The officers are afraid a fight might break up when they see Dong Xuebing and Huang Shizhong unwilling to give in to each other, and they quickly separate them. They know Huang Shizhong will not start the fight. It is Dong Xuebing they are afraid of. He has a record of beating up others, including government staff. Dong Xuebing and Yu Qianqian remained in the medical room with Qian Dong and the Principal. Huang Shizhong was escorted to the teachers' office next to the medical room. The officers used the excuse to record their statements to separate them. They hope they can help both parties to reach a private settlement and end it.

The medical room.

Dong Xuebing ignored the Principal and the Police.

The Principal knew he had to say something. "Director Dong, this is my mistake. I had overlooked this."

Dong Xuebing glanced at him. "I sent Qianqian to your school is not to be bullied. Don't tell me you don't know Huang Tingting had been bullying other students in school."

The Principal quickly explained. "I don't know about this. Huang Tingting was just transferred to the school, and we are busy with the examinations. All my focus is on the exams. If I knew about this, I would have stopped it."

Dong Xuebing looks at the Principal. "It's not too late now."

The Principal asked. "What do you think...."

Dong Xuebing patted Yu Qianqian's head. "Her injuries and humiliation cannot be forgotten like this. I have a few requests. First, the class teacher of Year 2 Class 1 had not taken any actions against Huang Tingting and her friends for bullying others, indirectly helping them. Such irresponsible teachers must be punished."

The Principal had this in mind too, and he readily agreed. "Don't worry. We will punish him."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Second, Huang Tingting and the ones who hit Qianqian must apologize to her."

The Principal thought for a while and nodded. "Ok."

Dong Xuebing continued. "Third, Huang Tingting and her friends must be expelled from school as their punishment."

The Principal is troubled. "Director Dong, expel...."

Dong Xuebing looks at him coldly. "Why would you want to keep such students in your school? This is the top middle school in the County and not a rubbish dump. If these bullies are not taught a lesson, how would they learn?"

Ring.... Ring.... Ring.... Dong Xuebing's phone rang.

Dong Xuebing looked at his phone and answered. "Hello, Secretary Duan."

Yan Tai County's Commission for Discipline Inspection's Secretary, Duan Zhengan, said in a tired tone. "Xiao Dong.... Why did you come back and create trouble again? Are you trying to make things difficult for me?"

"No. It is someone else who is making things difficult for me."

"Fine... fine.... I heard about it. Don't be too unreasonable and quickly settle it."

"Secretary Duan, I am not creating trouble for you. You should know about my goddaughter. Others had beaten her up for no reason. Would you let it go if you were me? Huang Shizhong's daughter is so arrogant because of her father. You should have seen his attitude. He must have allowed his daughter to do such things in the past. Secretary Duan, the Commission for Discipline Inspection, should look into this. We cannot allow such bad apples in the government service."

Duan Zhengan is speechless. "Stop creating more troubles for me. You barged into the school and attacked a teacher and three students. Now, you are asking me to investigate Huang Shizhong?!" Dong Xuebing had saved Duan Zhengan's son from a tiger at the safari zoo. They become closer after that incident. "I am telling you this. The County Government Leaders have started asking about this incident. Don't ask for too much. If not, Public Security might arrest you for intentional assault. Don't say I did not warn you."

Arrest me?!

Go ahead! I don't believe anyone will dare to arrest me.

But Dong Xuebing did not say that to Duan Zhengan. He acknowledged and hung up.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and decided to give Duan Zhengan face by giving in a little. "I think I can do away with the expel, but the school must place them on probation."

Yu Qianqian's injuries are considered minor, and there's nothing for the school to place the culprits under probation. But Huang Tingting and her friends had gone too far. They ganged up against her and even posted the video online. Their actions are more than enough to get expelled from the school. The Principal and Qian Dong knew Dong Xuebing had taken a step back.

Qian Dong is relieved. It will be easier to resolve this incident with Dong Xuebing's current attitude. It will be settled if Huang Shizhong takes one step back, and Dong Xuebing pays some money as medical fees. The Police will not need to arrest anyone, and this incident will be settled privately.

First Middle School Principal is also relieved. He is afraid that this incident will blow up.

The other room.

Qian Dong and the Principal went to the next room to speak to Huang Shizhong and Huang Tingting. Lei Zhi and Xiao Fan's parents had arrived and were making a fuss.

"Why is he not arrested!? Why?"

"Look! My son, Xiao Fan, is still bleeding!"

“We will not go for private settlement! We are not short of money! You all must arrest and sentence him to jail!”

The angry parents don't think their children are wrong to have bullied others. Their children are underage and should not be blamed for their actions. But when others beat up their children, they demand justice.

Huang Tingting is also making a scene in front of her father. “Dad, you must seek justice for me. It's that Yu Qianqian who started it. You heard she had knocked into me along the corridor, but that's not the truth. She is pretending. She was the one who attacked and scolded us. If not, we would not beat her up.” She knows what to say to gain sympathy and get out of trouble. After all, they are the only ones around, and the Police cannot verify their accounts.

Lei Zhi added. “That's right. It was Yu Qianqian who hit us first.”

Xiao Fan agreed with them. “That video clip is what happened after she hit us. We are defending ourselves.”

Huang Shizhong patted the back of his daughter's hand. “Don't worry.”

Qian Dong entered the room and heard what they said. He frowned as he knew Yu Qianqian was not the type who would scold others from the video clip. Huang Tingting is lying, but he needs to settle this incident quickly. He went over and asked to talk to Huang Shizhong privately. They entered a small office in the room.

“What is it?” Huang Shizhong asked impatiently.

Qian Dong calmly replied. “Chief Huang, we have investigated the incident of Director Dong beating up your daughter and other students. We have witnesses and evidence. I have also checked with the school on their regulations. Your daughter and those students' actions are enough to get them expelled from the school. You should know the video clip had been posted on the internet, and we need to consider the negative social impact. After talking to Director Dong, he agrees to take a step back. He only wants Huang Tingting and her friends to apologize to Yu Qianqian and place them under probation. He will not pursue the bullying incident and the video clip. Your side can ask for medical compensation....”

The Principal had entered the office.

Huang Shizhong's face changed and interrupted Qian Dong. “He beat up Tingting, and she still needs to be punished and apologize to them?!”

Qian Dong thought to himself. “Your daughter is too much.”

“Tingting might be wrong, but it is Yu Qianqian who hit her first.” Huang Shizhong stares at Qian Dong. “What is the meaning of this? Is this how you handle this case?! I am the one who called the Police, and you all should arrest Dong Xuebing! We will not accept any private settlement. If you all cannot settle this, I will call the Public Security Bureau to handle it!”

Huang Shizhong felt Dong Xuebing was ridiculous to ask for such demands. So what if my daughter had hit your child?! You are transferred away from Yan Tai County, and even if you are still the Investment Promotion Agency Chief, what can you do to me? I am the County's Ministry of Education Chief, and I oversee the schools here. You must be out of your mind to ask the school to place my daughter under probation. What a joke. Huang Shizhong has no intentions of punishing her daughter for hitting Yu Qianqian. But he will not let Dong Xuebing off for attacking a minor. Although they are not seriously injured, it is enough to get him into deep trouble.

Qian Dong is getting frustrated after hearing what Huang Shizhong said. "Chief Huang, do you want to consider it? This incident...."

Huang Shizhong ignored Qian Dong and called the County's Public Security Bureau to report against Dong Xuebing. He is determined to push Dong Xuebing into a corner.

Qian Dong is disgusted by Huang Shizhong.

First Middle School Principal said anxiously. "Chief Huang, do you not know who Director Dong is?"

Huang Shizhong doesn't want to talk to them. "Get out!"

Huang Shizhong does not only want to report to Public Security. He is prepared to use his new connections within the County Party Committee to deal with Dong Xuebing.

Qian Dong pitied Huang Shizhong and left.

Huang Shizhong.... I had tried my best. You are digging your own grave.

Qian Dong admires Huang Shizhong's courage in facing the God of Plagues head-on. Only the ignorant are fearless.

Chapter 627: Something is not right

Outside of the office.

Second-floor corridor.

Huang Shizhong is blinded by rage because of his daughter. The Principal was also chased out of the room, and Qian Dong spoke to his officers.

"Chief Huang had reported this case to the Bureau. Let's go." Qian Dong said.

An officer is stunned. "He escalated it? Is he trying to get Chief Dong...."

"Didn't Chief Dong agree not to get the school to expel Huang Tingting?"

"Chief Huang doesn't agree to the school's probation? Although this is a harsh punishment, it will not affect her studies."

The Officers couldn't wait to get out of the school, but they were stunned by Huang Shizhong's attitude.

Qian Dong is also confused, and he looks at the Principal. They have known each other for some time. "Do you think Chief Huang doesn't know who Chief Dong is, or is he pretending?"

The Principal smiled wearily. "How do I know? Maybe he doesn't know about it."

Qian Dong kept quiet.

Every Yan Tai County Government staff knows about Dong Xuebing. When Huang Shizhong was posted to Yan Tai County, Dong Xuebing had left for the City. It's normal for Huang Shizhong not to know anything about him. But there's possibly known about Dong Xuebing and feigned ignorance. This might involve the power struggle between the higher-ups and is not for Qian Dong or the Principal to get involved. The Principal had hinted to him in the office, but he did not ask anything. What if Chief Huang is instructed by someone to use this incident to get Dong Xuebing into trouble? This is possible as Dong Xuebing has many enemies within the County.

Nevertheless, everyone felt Huang Shizhong had gone overboard.

Dong Xuebing is wrong to hit Huang Tingting and her friends. Still, the whole incident started because they had bullied Yu Qianqian and posted the video online. This had crossed the line, and the school could expel them. But Dong Xuebing had given in by demanding a lenient punishment for them. It will be taken off their records easily in the future. Huang Shizhong might lose face, but his daughter started everything.

This matter will be resolved if both parties take a step back.

But Huang Shizhong refused and insisted on settling this through official channels.

Not only does he refuse to let his daughter apologize, but he also doesn't allow her to be punished. He even accused Yu Qianqian of hitting his daughter first. This is too much. You pretend not to see your daughter bullying others and still want to push Dong Xuebing into a corner. Even the County Party Secretary Xiang Daofa will have to think twice when facing Dong Xuebing, let alone a newly appointed County Ministry of Education Chief like Huang Shizhong. Do you think you are more powerful than Xiang Daofa? Are you not afraid of getting yourself into trouble because of this incident? Don't you know how bad your daughter's actions are?!

Qian Dong thought for a while and felt Huang Shizhong might not know who Dong Xuebing was. Maybe he was blinded by rage and felt it would be easy to deal with a former Yan Tai County Government staff.

It might be easy if this happens to another person, but not Dong Xuebing.

Qian Dong doesn't care. Since Huang Shizhong wants to dig his own grave, no one can stop him.

A few moments later.

Medical Room.

Dong Xuebing paused and burst out laughing after he heard about Huang Shizhong's reply. Fine. I am prepared to let you settle this incident quickly because of Duan Zhengan, but you refused. Not only you don't agree to let your daughter apologize, you even accused Qianqian of hitting your daughter first. You even want to send both of us into custody?!

Get lost!

You are asking for it.

Dong Xuebing is furious. He can tell Huang Shizhong must be used to abusing his powers in the past from this incident. Fine! Do you think I am a pushover after being transferred out of Yan Tai County? Do you think you can step all over me?!

"Uncle.... Let's... let's forget about it." Yu Qianqian said.

Dong Xuebing stroked her hair. "It's too late."

Dong Xuebing took out his phone and called Duan Zhengan. "Hello, Secretary Duan. I had given you face, but it's Chief Huang who refused to get his daughter to apologize and even accused my goddaughter of attacking them first. They are accusing us now. This is f*cking bullshit! How do you want me to hold back?"

Everyone could tell what had happened, and Duan Zhengan frowned. What is Huang Shizhong doing?

"I know." Duan Zhengan did not persuade Dong Xuebing anymore.

After hanging up, Dong Xuebing made a few more phone calls.

You had abused your power as the County Ministry of Education Chief by granting approvals for your daughter.

Fine. I shall help you manage your Ministry of Education!

After the phone calls, Dong Xuebing walked out of the medical room with Yu Qianqian. "Let's go. It's time for lunch."

A few Public Security Bureau officers walked up the stairs and met Dong Xuebing. They didn't want to come but had no choice.

"Chief Dong." The Officer in charge said politely. "We would like to ask you something for an investigation."

Dong Xuebing did not reply to him and walked past him. He has no intentions of getting interrogated.

The Officers looked at each other.

None of the officers dare to stop Dong Xuebing by force.

Besides the notorious nickname, Dong Xuebing holds a high prestige within the County's Public Security. Moreover, he still has another identity. That's why the officers have never thought of stopping him by force.

Huang Shizhong saw what happened and was about to scream at the Public Security Bureau's officers. Suddenly he stopped, and his heart skipped a beat.

This is not right.

Something is wrong.

Until now, Huang Shizhong realized the attitudes of others towards Dong Xuebing and felt something was wrong.

But.... It is too late.

Chapter 628: Huang Tingting is expelled from the school

The dark clouds had dispersed, and the sun was shining brightly.

Dong Xuebing and Yu Qianqian are having lunch in a restaurant outside the school. When they were almost finished, Dong Xuebing's phone rang. It's the County's Public Security Team Leader, Feng Lei. Dong Xuebing laughed and answered. "Hello, Old Feng."

"Chief Dong, I heard you are back." Feng Lei said.

"That's right. It's only an hour since I come back and you know about it. You are fast."

"It's not I am fast. Almost the whole County knows about this now. Do you need me to help with anything? I can go over now."

"Thanks for your offer. It's just some nobodies, and I had gotten someone to settle it."

"Alright. Just give me a call if you need me."

After hanging up, the County's Party Committee Deputy Secretary, Cao Xupeng, Public Security Bureau Deputy Chief, Qin Yong, Investment Promotion Agency's Guo Panwei and Luo Haiting, and many others called to offer their help. Dong Xuebing is touched and did not continue with his lunch. He chatted with them over the phone, and the Public Security Bureau's Officers group entered the restaurant. He looked at them and said over the phone. "Sister Luo, I still have some things to do now. Let's continue this evening. I will treat you all to dinner. Call Panwei and the rest too."

Yu Qianqian saw the Public Security Bureau's Police Officers and began to panic.

Dong Xuebing kept his phone and looked at them. "If I remember correctly, you are Xiao Wang, right?"

The leader of the group's surname is Wang, and he is surprised. He felt honored for Dong Xuebing to remember his name. "Yes, Chief Dong."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "What is it?"

Xiao Wang replied. "We need to ask you some questions."

"Ok. Go ahead." Dong Xuebing waved his hand. "Have a seat."

The Officers sat around the table.

Xiao Wang asked cautiously. "Chief Dong, I need to ask you about the incident in County First Middle School."

"I am the one who beat them up." Dong Xuebing admitted. "That class teacher, Huang Tingting, and the other two students."

Xiao Wang and the other officers are sweating. They thought it would be difficult to get any answers from Dong Xuebing, but Dong Xuebing admitted everything. This made them speechless. They are impressed by Dong Xuebing. He dares to take responsibility for what he has done, unlike Huang Shizhong. His daughter had bullied others, and he used his authority to cover up for her. He kept insisting that Yu Qianqian hit his daughter first, and his daughter was defending herself. But the officers had watched the video and knew this excuse was bullshit. He is nothing compared to Chief Dong.

How are the Officers going to handle this case after Chief Dong had admitted to hitting the teacher and students?

Bring him back to the station?

Xiao Wang is troubled. They can arrest Dong Xuebing and bring him back, but they know about his other identity.

Dong Xuebing acted as if nothing had happened and asked. "Have you guys had your lunch yet?"

"..... Ah? Not yet. We rushed over at the last minute."

"Ok. Boss, serve a few more dishes. Let's eat together."

"Wait.... How can we do this?"

"Don't stand on ceremony with me. Are you not giving me face?!"

"No.... I don't mean that. Thank you, Chief Dong."

County First Middle School.

Huang Shizhong thought about what had happened and felt something was wrong. He calmed himself and took out his phone to call a friend. He wants to know more about Dong Xuebing's background. The person he is calling is Pang Dabing. This person is an acquaintance, but they had met a few times. He is currently working in Nan Shan district's Nan Qi Morning Post as a Deputy Chief Editor. He had called him because he didn't know anyone else in Nan Shan District. Furthermore, Pang Dabing works in the local newspaper agency and might know about Dong Xuebing.

Ring... ring... ring....

"Hello, Chief Huang."

"It's me, Old Pang."

"I heard you are promoted. Haha.... Congratulations."

"Thanks."

They exchanged some pleasantries, and Huang Shizhong asked. "Old Pang, do you know a Subdistrict Office Director Dong Xuebing in Nan Shan District?"

Pang Dabing was surprised when Huang Shizhong mentioned this name. "Are you referring to Guang Ming Subdistrict Office's Dong Xuebing?"

"I only know he is a Subdistrict Office Director. Do you know him?"

"..... I heard about him but have not met him."

"Oh?" Huang Shizhong asked. "What's his background?"

Pang Dabing laughed. "From what I know, he doesn't come from any powerful background. He is just a young leader newly posted to the district, and his working style is quite aggressive. He beat up many civilians during a crackdown on illegal buildings and did many bad things. But... nothing happened to him eventually. His situation in Nan Shan District is not looking good as he had offended both the District Party Secretary and the District Mayor.”

Huang Shizhong is relieved. “Oh, thanks for telling me.”

“Old Huang, why did not ask about him?” Pang Dabing is curious.

Huang Shizhong’s face changed, and he told Pang Dabing about how Dong Xuebing beat up his daughter.

Pang Dabing frowned. “I have met Tingting. How is it possible she will bully other students? Didn’t she just transfer over to that school? This Dong Xuebing is too arrogant.”

Pang Dabing knows Dong Xuebing. He was the one who sent the reporters to write the article about how the Subdistrict Office staff used force on civilians when tearing down illegal buildings. Someone had approached him to do that because he wanted to deal with Dong Xuebing. He did that is to please the District’s Organization Department Chief. But the City Daily immediately publish an article praising Guang Ming Subdistrict’s actions. The Chief Editor reprimanded him because of this incident.

After hanging up, Huang Shizhong is relieved. It’s good news as Dong Xuebing had offended both the No. 1 and No. 2 of Nan Shan District. This means he has enemies everywhere in Nan Shan District, and he should not be likable in Yan Tai County. Furthermore, he was transferred away, and his former connections will distance themselves from him.

Huang Shizhong thought this way.

But other than him, no one else has the same thoughts.

For example, the County First Middle School’s Principal received two phone calls and immediately called for a management meeting. It is the school holidays now, and many teachers and school leaders are not working. But all of them rushed back to the School after receiving the Principal’s call. Everyone looks tense, and many leaders smoke furiously at the back of the meeting room without saying a word.

They had heard of what happened and knew what was going on.

Other schools leaders might not know who the God of Plagues is or have only heard stories about him. After all, Dong Xuebing is only famous among the higher-ups of the Yan Tai County Government. But his mother worked in County First Middle School, and all the staff knew about him. The Principal didn’t even need to explain the situation.

“Let’s start the meeting.” The Principal said with a grim expression.

Everyone straightens their backs.

“This meeting is a directive by the County Government’s higher-ups. It regards a video clip posted online, which had adverse societal influence. We are required to come up with a proposal to handle this incident.

Everyone listened attentively and did not say a word.

Huang Shizhong was not at the meeting and was not informed about it. The Principal did not mention this directive is from the County’s Ministry of Education or any specific names. He only mentioned County Government higher-ups. This means someone or a few of the County Government Leaders had called the Principal regarding this incident. The correct procedure is to inform the Ministry of Education Chief Huang as his daughter is involved in this incident. But the Principal did not do so. This means the county government leader exerting pressure on him is higher ranked than Huang Shizhong.

Silence.

More silence.

All the school leaders are not willing to get involved.

The Principal looks at them and says. "I have a suggestion. The related departments will be deleting the video from the internet, and this incident has impacted the school. I suggest expelling Huang Tingting, Sun Lei, and Meng Fan from the school with immediate effect."

Expel the Ministry of Education Chief's daughter from the school?!

This will never happen. The Ministry of Education Chief oversees all the schools within the County. Expelling the Chief's family members is equivalent to killing their career. But no one at the meeting is surprised.

The Principal sighed. "Let's vote. Raise your hand if you disagree."

No one raises their hand.

"Alright. We have a unanimous decision." The Principal said.

The school leaders are not willing to offend Huang Shizhong, but they are more afraid of some people.

The relevant documents are printed, and the Principal signed them. Huang Tingting, Sun Lei, and Meng Fan's records are retrieved, and they have nothing to do with County First Middle School.

Huang Shizhong, who is still waiting for the Public Security Bureau Officers to arrest Dong Xuebing, is unaware of what is happening.

Dong Xuebing is a decisive person. If he wants to deal with someone, he will do it immediately.

At the same time, Xiao Wang received a call from the Bureau at the restaurant. They bid goodbye to Dong Xuebing and left.

Chapter 629: Chief Huang, do you don't know about him?

Huang Shizhong is talking to his daughter Huang Tingting in the office.

"Do you remember it?"

"Yes. I will say I was hit in my head."

"Yes. Head injuries are hard to diagnose. No one can doubt you."

"I know, Dad. Are we going to be alright?"

“What can happen? You all will get a demerit point at most, and it will be removed from your records sometime later. If I find out you continue to bully other students in the future, you will be in trouble!”

“Yes. I will not do it again.”

“Good. Let’s have lunch first.”

Huang Shizhong had taught and reminded his daughter what to say to the Police. He still felt Dong Xuebing had no right to discipline his daughter even when she had beaten up Qianqian. He does not only want to get revenge for his daughter. He also wants Dong Xuebing to pay a hefty price for what he did. He has to push the attention to Dong Xuebing and portray his daughter as the victim to escape punishment. This way, the impact on his daughter and him will be lowered.

When Huang Shizhong thought Dong Xuebing should be locked up in the Public Security Bureau and was about to bring his daughter out for lunch, he received a piece of shocking news.

Huang Tingting and her friends are expelled from the school.

The school’s board had discussed, and the Principal had signed it. The decision is finalized.

Huang Shizhong’s first reaction is, “Are you all kidding me?”

Huang Tingting is shocked. Her father is the County’s Ministry of Education Chief, and she was expelled from the school without informing him.

Impossible!

Who is so daring to do this?

News of Huang Tingting’s punishment spread quickly in the school. Many students were shocked. Has the Principal gone crazy? How can he expel the County’s Ministry of Education Chief’s daughter? Even if this is his decision, it had to be discussed with other school leaders and teachers. Many teachers, including the class teacher, whom Dong Xuebing had beaten up, were not surprised by this decision. They had heard who Huang Shizhong offended and used how the God of Plagues does things. Only a handful of people and Huang Shizhong are unaware.

Lei Zhi and Xiao Fan panicked. They went to Huang Shizhong with their parents.

“Uncle Huang, why are we being expelled from the school?”

“Tingting, what is going on?”

Huang Tinting is also anxious. “Dad, you must help us! How can they expel us from the school? How can they do that?”

Huang Shizhong is looking terrible. He is frustrated why he was not informed beforehand and why he didn’t Principal follow his orders? How can the school penalize his daughter? Are they trying to revolt?

After Huang Shizhong was posted to Yan Tai County, he didn’t have time to speak to First Middle School’s Principal and school leaders. But they should not do this to him.

Huang Shizhong is furious and calls the Principal.

Both met privately in the Principal's office.

Huang Shizhong saw the Principal and started scolding. "What the hell are you doing?! Who gave you the permission to expel Huang Tingting? Ah?!"

The Principal kept quiet as he didn't know how to reply.

As the County Ministry of Education Chief, Huang Shizhong had disgraced himself for failing to protect his daughter in a school under his jurisdiction. That's why he had lost his mind and didn't know why the Principal dared to go against him.

The scolding continued for a few minutes.

After a while, Huang Shizhong got tired and stared at the man in front of him.

The Principal softly replies. "Chief Huang, I also think the punishment for Huang Tingting and those students is harsh, but we have no choice. This is an order from the top." He is telling Huang Shizhong that it's no use shouting at me. This is an order from the higher-ups, and he must follow.

The Principal is also frustrated. He had tried his best to remind Huang Shizhong, and the Police had tried to help them settle. If Huang Shizhong had accepted Dong Xuebing's demands, all these would not happen.

But....

Huang Shizhong refused to accept it.

The whole episode started with Huang Tingting beating up Yu Qianqian. It's Huang Shizhong's side who is at fault first. Still, he refuses to accept it was his daughter's fault and even accuses Yu Qianqian of starting the fight. He even goes all out to try and get Dong Xuebing arrested. Who can he blame? Everyone in Yan Tai County knows Dong Xuebing is not a pushover. The Principal felt all this happened because Huang Shizhong had asked for it. The other party had given in, yet he refused to accept it.

Huang Shizhong's face changed. "This is an order from the higher-ups?"

"Yes." The Principal replied after a short pause.

Huang Shizhong knew someone must have interfered as the Principal would not dare to make this decision. He calmed down and thought about it.

The County Government had interfered.

Who is it that dislikes me and wants to drag me down?

Huang Shizhong knows he is newly posted to the County and has not offended anyone yet. The only explanation is Dong Xuebing had used his connections.

Impossible.

Dong Xuebing is already transferred out, and no one should assist him.

Both parties are at fault for this incident. But why is the punishment targeting only him? The person who gave this order even bypassed him, the Ministry of Education Chief.

The Principal looks at Huang Shizhong. "Chief Huang, you don't know about him?"

Huang Shizhong paused for a second. "What?"

"Yu Qianqian is Director Dong's goddaughter."

"I know. So what?"

The Principal saw Huang Shizhong seems unaware, and he smiled wearily. "Director Dong and Mayor Xie are going to get married. The date has been decided.

Ah?!!!!

Huang Shizhong almost fell.

Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan are a couple?

That means Yu Qianqian is also Mayor Xie's goddaughter! His daughter had beat up Mayor Xie's goddaughter!

Damn!

Huang Shizhong nearly vomited blood.

Chapter 630: Picking a fight with the wrong person

Principal's Office.

"Chief Huang." First Middle School Principal said after noticing Huang Shizhong was not saying anything.

Huang Shizhong's back is covered in a cold sweat.

Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan are a couple, and they will get married.

This is too shocking. Huang Shizhong had met Mayor Xie before and felt she was very pretty. He has never thought she would pick someone like Dong Xuebing. This is more unbelievable than hearing his daughter was expelled from the school. But the Principal has no reason to lie.

Shit!

I am in deep shit!

Huang Shizhong realized who he was picking a fight with. No wonder everyone's attitude towards Dong Xuebing is different.

The Police didn't dare to arrest Dong Xuebing even after getting all the evidence and tried their best to settle this dispute privately. He is Mayor Xie's fiancé, and no one dares to arrest him. If they arrested him, they would go against Mayor Xie by embarrassing her.

Huang Shizhong slapped his forehead as he realized what he had done.

He was too careless.

He had not expected this.

Huang Shizhong's heart sinks. Although he doesn't have an outstanding career, he is not stupid. He was blinded by rage and lost his senses. All he was thinking was to teach Dong Xuebing a lesson and ignore the Principal and the Police Officers' hints. He felt a transferred government staff should not have any strong influences in the County. But this person turns out to be the Mayor's fiancé.

What should I do?

Huang Shizhong had dug his own grave.

First Principal saw Huang Shizhong's change and knew the latter understood the severity of his actions. He sighed and thought to himself. You are a newly appointed Ministry of Education Chief, and you think too highly of yourself. Being arrogant in government service is taboo. If you had checked the God of Plagues' background, all these would not happen. You had asked for it, and it's too late now.

Who is the God of Plagues?

He is a crazy and unreasonable guy!

You are asking for it by provoking him.

Huang Shizhong immediately made several phone calls to ask about Dong Xuebing after the Principal left.

Half an hour....

One hour....

Two hours....

Huang Shizhong almost jumps off the building after hearing about Dong Xuebing's deeds in the County. Dong Xuebing is not only Xie Huilan's fiancé, but he is also close with the County's Deputy Party Secretary Cao Xupeng, Commission for Discipline Inspection's Secretary Duan Zhengan, Party Committee Member and Deputy Mayor Geng Yuchao, County's Head of People's Armed Forces Xiong Zhiyong, and many other higher management Leaders. He also has huge influences over the Public Security Bureau and the Investment Promotion Agency. His achievements in the County had overshadowed the Mayor and even got the nickname the God of Plagues. He survived a landslide, several gunfights, and even an air crash. His status within the County had reached a terrifying height, and even Xiang Daofa was having trouble with him. Xiang Daofa even had to use his connections to transfer him to the City. Even his rivals avoided and hid from him.

This guy is the God of Plagues which no one wants to provoke.

"No wonder...."

Huang Shizhong's heart sunk. He knew he had messed with the wrong person, but he was unwilling to be defeated. Huang Tingting's face had swelled from Dong Xuebing's slaps. She had not been hit all her life, and he could not take it lying down.

No, there must be a solution.

Huang Shizhong is older and doesn't want to lose 'face.' If he admits defeat, how will he face others in the County? His hatred towards Dong Xuebing grew. His daughter was beaten up and expelled from the school. This is very serious as it will be recorded in her files. Although he can find another school for her through his connections, her bad records will remain.

Huang Shizhong thought and remembered the County Party Secretary Xiang Daofa.

From the rumors, Secretary Xiang does not like Dong Xuebing. The latter had beaten up his relative and embarrassed him. Huang Shizhong felt Secretary Xiang might help him if he pleaded with him. After all, the Party Secretary is more powerful than the Mayor. He is the only person in the County to reverse Tingting's punishment. He had visited Secretary Xiang and expressed his intentions to join the Xiang's faction when he was posted to Yan Tai County/

Huang Shizhong called the Party Secretary Office.

Secretary Xiang's secretary, Zhou Jun, answered. "Hello."

"Secretary Zhou, I'm the Ministry of Education Huang Shizhong." Huang Shizhong said politely.

"Oh, Chief Huang."

"I would like to speak to Secretary Xiang."

"Secretary Xiang...." Secretary Zhou paused for a second and continued. "Secretary Xiang is reading some documents. I can help you pass the message if you want."

"It's like this...." Huang Shizhong told Zhou Jun about what happened to his daughter and complained against Dong Xuebing.

News of this incident had spread within the Government departments, and Zhou Jun knew about it. He waited for Huang Shizhong to finish and told him to inform Secretary Xiang.

Huang Shizhong sat in the office after the call. This is his only hope.

One hour....

Two hours....

Party Secretary Xiang should have finished reading dozens of documents by now. Still, Huang Shizhong did not receive any phone call.

Huang Shizhong turns pale and slumps into the chair. Even Party Secretary Xiang is unwilling to get involved with the God of Plagues.

What is the best evaluation of a person?

A County's No. 1 and No. 2 can't be at peace with each other. But the County's Party Secretary does not want to get involved with this incident, although he is the Mayor's fiancé. This is the best testimony of Dong Xuebing's achievement during his time in Yan Tai County.

Even the County's Party Secretary is feigning ignorance.

No matter how confident Huang Shizhong is, he will not think he is more powerful than Secretary Xiang.

It's over.

Huang Shizhong picked up his phone unwillingly and called the Public Security Bureau to withdraw his report against Dong Xuebing.
