Chapter 811: Xiao Dong got mad again

Morning.

The commotion outside the Commission for Discipline Inspection ended, and everybody heard about the clash between Dong Xuebing and Liu Hanqing. Director Dong had used his Porsche to crash Deputy Director Liu's Toyota Crown and humiliated him. All the staff talked about this incident, as such conflict was rare in a department like the Commission for Discipline Inspection. They were curious about how the leaders handled it.

Are the leaders going to let them be?

Punish both of them?

Only reprimand Liu Hanqing and stop his transfer order?

The Inspection First Office Director Office.

Dong Xuebing drank a glass of hot water from the water dispenser. He was prepared to be punished by the leaders for crashing his car into that Toyota Crown. He did not think he was wrong in this incident. Liu Hanqing is only a Deputy Director of a sub-department. How can he challenge the authority of his direct superior by preventing him from parking? This is insubordination, and it is taboo in the government sector. It might be okay if this incident did not blow up. But now, it had blown up, and the Discipline Inspection leaders must take action. He believed the leaders would not side with Liu Hanqing and might stop his transfer.

Do you think you can leave after stepping all over me?!

Dong Xuebing will not let Liu Hanqing off lightly. He must pay for what he did.

One minute....

Five minutes....

Ten minutes....

Finally, the phone on Dong Xuebing's desk rang.

A middle-aged man said over the phone. "I am Xiao Bin. Come to my office now."

Du.... Du.... Du.... Xiao Bin hung up. He sounded angry.

Dong Xuebing frowned. Xiao Bin sounds like the Leader who shouted out of the windows earlier. He was the one who asked Dong Xuebing to stop sounding his horn and park elsewhere. He knew he had offended this Leader by ignoring his instructions and crashing his car into Liu Hanqing's car.

Upstairs.

Inspection Bureau Chief Office.

Dong Xuebing knocked on the door and entered. Xiao Bin was behind his desk, staring at him. Dong Xuebing had met this middle-aged man during his welcome lunch. This man is the City's Commission for Discipline Inspection Deputy Secretary and Inspection Bureau Chief. He is the No. 2 of the City's Commission for Discipline Inspection and is one level below Secretary He.

“Chief Xiao.” Dong Xuebing said. “Are you looking for me?”

Xiao Bin did not let Dong Xuebing sit. He continued to stare at him in an imposing manner. “What happened in the carpark this morning?! What are you trying to do? You are working in the City Commission for Discipline Inspection. Where is your discipline? How can you drive your car into another staff’s car? Do you know your actions negatively impact the Discipline Inspection?”

Dong Xuebing did not admit it. “Chief Xiao, it was an accident. I thought the lot was big enough for me to enter.”

Xiao Bin replied coldly. “I don’t care if it was an accident or not. It had happened, and the damage was done. What else do you want to say?”

Hmph.... What do you mean?

You are blaming me for everything.

Dong Xuebing had sounded his horn to get Liu Hanqing to shift his car yesterday and this morning. But the latter pretended not to hear anything, and this Xiao Bin still asked him to park elsewhere. Xiao Bin was pinning all the blame on Dong Xuebing as if Liu Hanqing had done nothing wrong. This guy was biased, and he made Dong Xuebing’s heart grow cold. He did not expect the Inspection Bureau Chief to target him like this. Are you all want so determined to demonstrate your strengths and put me in place?

Xiao Bin continued to reprimand Dong Xuebing in his office.

However, Xiao Bin did not punish Dong Xuebing and asked him to get out after his lecture.

Dong Xuebing was frustrated when he walked down the stairs.

On his way down, Dong Xuebing saw Zhu Zhu, who was delivering a document.

Dong Xuebing stopped her. “Xiao Zhu, where is Deputy Director Liu?”

Zhu Zhu looked at Dong Xuebing and quickly replied. “Director Liu should be in his office.”

“He was in his office this whole time?” Dong Xuebing asked.

“Yes. I did not see him leave.”

“Alright. I know. Carry on with your work.”

The Commission for Discipline Inspection Deputy Secretary Xiao Bin did not summon Liu Hanqing to his office. Maybe he had scolded him over the phone, but he summoned Dong Xuebing to his office to scold him. He even blamed Dong Xuebing for everything.

Dong Xuebing was infuriated.

Liu Hanqing had climbed over my head, and you all pretended not to see it. Now, you all jumped out from nowhere to blame me just because I retaliated?

F**k!

Are you all forcing me to fall out with you all?

Inspection First Office Deputy Director Office.

Liu Hanqing appeared to be relaxed as he spoke with his father over the phone. "Don't worry about anything. The Leader did not scold me or anything."

Liu Dong asked. "What about Dong Xuebing?"

"He was summoned to Chief Xiao's office. I think he was reprimanded now. Haha...."

Liu Hanqing did not expect this outcome and was gloating about it.

"I warned you to be careful. Why can't you listen?"

"Dad, nothing will happen."

"If your Mum had not called your Discipline Inspection leader, and he owed her a favor, do you think you will be fine? This is a critical period for your transfer, and the order will be issued today. Stop messing around. You can always get a new car if it was damaged."

"I know, Dad."

"This Dong Xuebing was too much too. How can he crash his car into another car in front of the Commission for Discipline Inspection building? He is too arrogant." Liu Dong did not expect Dong Xuebing to be more arrogant than his son. "Alright. I still have to entertain a client. Let's talk tonight."

Liu Hanqing acknowledged and hung up with a smile.

Dong Xuebing's office.

Dong Xuebing knew the Discipline Inspection would not punish Liu Hanqing from the Inspection Bureau Chief's attitude, and this incident would not affect his transfer. He will still be promoted after this incident, and Dong Xuebing cannot accept this outcome. Did you all think I am a pushover?!

You dare to treat me like a pushover?! Fine. I will show you what I can do.

Dong Xuebing took out his phone and called Yu Meixia.

Ring... ring... ring.... "Hello, Xiao Bing?"

"Sister Yu. It's me." Dong Xuebing smiled. "I am calling to tell you and Qianqian that I am back in Fen Zhou City now. Oh, how are you doing?"

Yu Meixia replied. "We are fine. My Mum got me a cashier job in the bank."

Dong Xuebing asked. "How much can a cashier make?"

Yu Meixia happily replied. "I can get around seven to eight thousand a month with bonuses and incentives."

"Wow.... Your salary is higher than mine." Although Dong Xuebing was promoted to Deputy Division Chief, his salary was still low.

They chatted for a while, and Dong Xuebing asked. "Is your father and mother at home?"

Yu Meixia replied. "My Dad is not around, and my Mum is in the kitchen. You...."

"Can you pass the phone to her?"

"Ok. Please wait. Mum, Xiao Bing is looking for you."

The City ICBC Branch President, Qian Lihua, answered the phone. "Xiao Bing? I heard you had been promoted. Congratulations."

"Thank you, Aunty Qian."

"What is it?"

Dong Xuebing paused for a second and asked. "Do you have a department head called Liu Dong? Have you heard of him?"

"Liu Dong?" Qian Lihua thought for a few seconds. "Are you talking about Old Liu from the credit department? I know him. What is it? Did he offend you?"

Dong Xuebing felt embarrassed. "How do you know?"

Qian Lihua laughed. "That's because you are always creating trouble. Meixia had told me about you when we were chatting. I had heard about whatever you did in the County and Subdistrict. Problems and troubles always follow you wherever you go."

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. "Err.... Yes. That's true."

"What is it this time? You should know Liu Dong's wife was our City's former Deputy Mayor."

"I know. But his son was too much." Dong Xuebing treated Qian Lihua as his elder and told her everything. "I ignored him the first and second time when he provoked me. How can I keep quiet on the third time?"

"Hmm.... This Liu Dong's son had crossed the line."

"It is fine if this is too troublesome or inconvenient to get involved."

Qian Lihua interrupted Dong Xuebing. "You had saved my life, and you are also my daughter and granddaughter's savior. No need to say anymore. Leave it to me. Our bank's Discipline Inspection department has received many reports about the credit department over the past few years. But Old Liu's performance is not bad, and I suppressed those complaints against him. It's time to dig out these complaints. To be honest, it's rare for credit department staff to be clean."

"Thank you, Aunty Qian."

"Don't mention it. If it weren't for his wife, I would have replaced him long ago."

Chapter 812: Liu Hanqing's transfer was stopped

Cafeteria.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting were having lunch when he saw Liu Hanqing entering the cafeteria. He smiled and waved to him. "Old Liu! There's a seat here."

Liu Hanqing was surprised, and he walked over to Dong Xuebing.

Luo Haiting was stunned but did not say anything.

The Commission for Discipline Inspection staff in the cafeteria were puzzled by Dong Xuebing's action. Why is he inviting Liu Hanqing to have lunch together? They were in a conflict this morning, and someone said the Inspection Bureau Chief scolded Director Dong. However, Liu Hanqing was not reprimanded. It was hard to hide such matters in the government sector. Director Dong should be furious with Liu Hanqing now. But why is he so calm and friendly towards Liu Hanqing? What is he up to?

Dong Xuebing smiled. "Old Liu, have you reported to your motor insurance?"

Liu Hanqing replied. "Yes. They are processing it now."

"Ok. I will send you the repair fees when the report is out."

Liu Hanqing sneered in his heart and did not say anything. He continued to eat his lunch as if nothing had happened.

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing's phone rang, and he answered immediately. "Hello? Oh, ICBC Discipline Inspection? Hi, how can I help you? Oh... oh... ok.... I will send someone over. Please wait for my call." He ended the call and looked at Luo Haiting. "Have you finished eating? Director Luo, I need you to settle this matter."

Luo Haiting straightens her back. "Yes. I am done."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Something happened at the City ICBC branch. Their internal Discipline Inspection department should handle this, but some District and County Leaders might be involved. They are asking us to help with their investigation. Go and take a look."

Luo Haiting replied immediately. "Ok. I will go now."

ICNC bank? Liu Hanqing looked at Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing looked at Liu Hanqing and calmly said. "Old Liu.... I know you had been handling all the work in Inspection First Office before I came, but you should stay away from this case."

Liu Hanqing paused for a second. "Stay away?"

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Your father Liu Dong was suspected to have receive bribes."

"What?!" Liu Hanqing stood up in disbelief.

Dong Xuebing waved his hand to ask him to sit. "Director Liu, you have been working in the Commission for Discipline Inspection for some time. I hope you can understand the situation. You should not get emotional. We will never accuse anyone. If your father is innocent, he will be fine. But if he...."

Luo Haiting finally understood what happened and was shocked.

Dong Xuebing said these calmly, but this was a piece of shocking news to the others.

Liu Hanqing's father was under investigation by the City's ICBC branch and Inspection First Office!

People with below-average IQs cannot enter the government service, and everyone in the Commission for Discipline Inspection is not an idiot. They knew this must be Dong Xuebing's revenge. How can Dong Xuebing and Liu Hanqing clash in the morning, and his father was under investigation this? Worse, the bank asked Inspection First Office's Dong Xuebing to help with the investigation. How can this be a coincidence? He had just arrived for two days and did not seem to have any backings. How did he get ICBC to help him? ICBC is a major state-owned enterprise, and Fen Zhou City ICBC branch President Qian Lihua is as powerful as any top leader in the City Government. The bank is an independent enterprise, and she can ignore the City's Deputy Mayor. But why is the bank helping Director Dong?

The cafeteria went silent.

Liu Hanqing's eyes turned bloodshot from his anger.

Luo Haiting laughed in her heart and called the female staff member Zhu Zhu to follow her to the City ICBC headquarters.

Dong Xuebing patted Liu Hanqing's back and left.

Qian Lihua had acted fast, and the bank's Inspection Discipline department immediately started its investigation. They quickly found evidence from an anonymous report sent to them a year ago. Liu Dong had received a 100,000 RMB bribe. She was right about anyone in the Credit department having problems if they are investigated. The head of the department had to meet many company bosses and government agencies, and it's normal for him to receive gifts.

"Have you all heard it? Liu Hanqing's father was arrested."

"Yes. I heard he was arrested for corruption."

"The earthquake hero, Director Dong, is swift and ruthless for his age."

Liu Hanqing had been working in the Commission for Discipline Inspection, and his job was to investigate and punish corrupted government staff. But now, his father, Liu Dong, was arrested by ICBC Discipline Inspection for bribery. His case was almost confirmed, and Liu Hanqing was disgraced. This was a massive blow to his reputation.

Before the end of the day, everyone heard of a piece of news.

Liu Hanqing's transfer order was not issued, and it was canceled.

Everyone was shocked but not surprised. Liu Hanqing's father was arrested, and who knows if Liu Hanqing was involved. The higher-ups will not promote him now.

Liu Hanqing almost fainted when he heard it.

His transfer and promotion were canceled.

He kicked his chair over in a fit of anger.

Settling the grudge in one day. Dong Xuebing's swift actions shocked everyone.

Dong Xuebing had crashed Liu Hanqing's car and arrested his father.

Liu Hanqing was put in place within a day by Dong Xuebing.

Inspection First Office's Zhu Zhu, Fei Fan, and the other staff were speechless.

Who said Director Dong was righteous and kind? Who said he was generous and forgiving?

Banging Liu Hanqing's car and going after his father.... This was too....

Dong Xuebing took care of the son in the morning and arrested the father in the afternoon without caring about the Commission for Discipline Inspection leaders' attitudes.

This was the first time everyone met a leader like Dong Xuebing.

Chapter 813: Apartment is issued

The cold wind had picked up, and the temperature had dropped.

Dong Xuebing drove his black Porsche sports car into the City Party Committee Building compound. When he reached the Discipline Inspection Office Building, he saw two empty lots. Liu Hanqing did not block the lots with his Toyota Crown. His car should be in the repair shop, and he had called in sick today. Dong Xuebing did not know if he was sick or wanted to avoid work due to his father's arrest. He had asked for it, and Dong Xuebing understood why Xie Huilan and many others told him to restrain himself in the government sector. Someone who is too arrogant will be targeted, and Liu Hanqing is an example.

But Dong Xuebing will still maintain his working style. He will not mess with others if they do not mess with him.

Dong Xuebing got out of his car and closed the door.

Some staff, who were on their way to work, saw him with weird looks.

Dong Xuebing knew everyone was still talking about yesterday's incident and was okay with it. Putting Liu Hanqing in place was also establishing his authority. He cannot let others think he is a pushover, or he will face countless troubles in the future. He had to show others what he was capable of, and they had to think twice before finding trouble with him.

Luo Haiting arrived at work on her electric bicycle.

Sister Luo was wearing a white dress with floral prints, and Dong Xuebing felt cold watching her. A gust of wind blew her dress hem higher, showing her black stockings. It attracted the stares of much older Commission for Discipline Inspection staff.

Dong Xuebing stopped and smiled. "Good morning, Director Luo. You are very early today."

Luo Haiting smiled and locked her bicycle in the bicycle stand. "I am staying opposite here. It is only three minutes by foot, and it's faster with my bicycle."

Dong Xuebing was puzzled. "Opposite here? Where?"

Luo Haiting smiled and pointed towards the entrance. "City Party Committee Second Guesthouse."

"Huh? You still have not been assigned an apartment?"

“There is a shortage of apartments in the Commission for Discipline Inspection quarters.”

“Oh, I see. Let’s go up together.”

“Director, I heard Deputy Director Liu Hanqing is in the hospital now.”

“I know. Old Liu had been working too hard recently.”

The Commission for Discipline Inspection Building.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting were on their way upstairs when they met Deputy Secretary cum Office Director Gao Wenrong. He was on his way downstairs.

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Director Gao. Are you busy?”

Gao Wenrong replied. “Haha.... Not really. I am looking for you.”

“Oh? What is it?” Dong Xuebing asked.

Gao Wenrong took out a bunch of keys and an envelope for Dong Xuebing. “The address and unit number are inside. We had an empty apartment recently, and I had asked my men to clean it. You can move in tonight. These are the keys, and it is a two bedrooms apartment.”

Dong Xuebing took the keys from Gao Wenrong. “Thanks, Brother Gao. Oh, didn’t we have a shortage of apartments?”

Gao Wenrong sighed. “Yes. Many buildings were damaged because of the earthquake. But we have to clear an apartment for you first.”

Luo Haiting looked at the bunch of keys enviously but did not say anything. She still had not been assigned an apartment too.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and placed the keys back into Gao Wenrong’s hand. “Thank you, Director Gao. I know it was not easy to clear an apartment. But I am alone, and I can stay everywhere. Leave this apartment for someone who needed it more.”

Gao Wenrong shook his head. “How can I do this? You are Inspection First Office Director, and I settled your lodging problem first. We will think of other solutions to help those staff without apartments.”

Dong Xuebing refused. “Many people had been waiting for their apartments, and I had only come for two days. I will feel uncomfortable if I accept this apartment. Brother Gao, please listen to me.”

Gao Wenrong smiled. “I know you are concerned for others, but I had brought the keys. This....”

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and glanced at Luo Haiting. “How about this? Our Director Luo Haiting has been here for a week, and she is different from me. She has a son, husband, and elderlies in her family. I think she needs this apartment more than me.”

Luo Haiting quickly waves her hand. “I cannot accept it. No....”

Gao Wenrong was okay with this arrangement. “Alright, since Director Dong had requested for this.”

“This is not right.” Luo Haiting tried to reject. “Director, you should stay in the apartment.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “Just hold on to the keys and stop pushing. That’s it.”

Gao Wenrong passed the keys and envelope to Luo Haiting. “That’s right. Director Dong is concerned about his subordinates, and you should stop rejecting his kind gesture. Alright, I have finished my job here. Bye.”

Dong Xuebing brought Luo Haiting to his office a while later.

Luo Haiting held the bunch of keys and envelope and looked at Dong Xuebing gratefully. “Thank you, Xuebing.”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Don’t mention it.”

Dong Xuebing knew he would have a place to stay when Xie Huilan came over. No matter how significant the shortage of apartments was in Fen Zhou City, they will find a house in the City Party Committee Family Quarters for the Deputy Mayor. Furthermore, it will be a lovely apartment or house.

Dong Xuebing didn’t mind having an apartment for himself, but it was a big deal for Luo Haiting. Sister Luo immediately says. “I will help you clean up your office.”

“Ah, you don’t need to do this.”

“It’s alright. I got nothing to do anyway.”

“Hey, Sister Luo, you are making me angry.”

“Haha.... Just leave it to me.”

Luo Haiting ignored Dong Xuebing and started sweeping and wiping the bookshelves.

Dong Xuebing could not stop Luo Haiting and started working. He took out a document with his department subordinates’ simplified resumes to read.

Suddenly, Luo Haiting started to clean Dong Xuebing’s desk.

Sister Luo bent over, and her dress opened slightly due to the weight of her breast. Her fair breasts and pink lacy bra were exposed to Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath, and his heart was racing.

Luo Haiting seemed like she did not notice it and continued to wipe the desk. Her breasts swayed with her movements in front of Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing could smell the scent of a mature woman.

The distance between both was close, and Dong Xuebing felt his face was about to be buried into Sister Luo’s huge racks. It was too near, and he could see it clearly.

Swaying.... Swaying....

This was enticing.

Chapter 814: Dong Xuebing’s assets disclosure

Commission for Discipline Inspection Building.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting were at Inspection First Office for inspection.

The Staff Members saw Director Dong and quickly stood up to greet him.

“Director.”

“Director Dong.

After Liu Hanqing’s incident yesterday, all the staff were shocked by Dong Xuebing’s ruthless methods. Not only Zhu Zhu, Fei Fan, and the other staff who were unhappy with Liu Hanqing, even Liu Hanqing’s trusted follower, Ning Shaoyang, didn’t dare to show any disrespect. Liu Hanqing had set an example, and Dong Xuebing had shown his capabilities. They must think twice before going against him.

Dong Xuebing waved his hand. “I am just looking around.”

The staff looked at each other and remained standing.

Luo Haiting added. “Sit and carry on with your work.”

Everyone returned to their seats and continued with their work while stealing glances at Director Dong.

Dong Xuebing knew his authority had been established and was quite satisfied with this result. Other than Liu Hanqing, the Inspection First Office was under his control.

After a while, Dong Xuebing left the main office.

Luo Haiting followed behind. “Director, what do you think of the staff? They are working hard.”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “What was that Ning Shaoyang in charged of?”

Luo Haiting paused for a second. “He was in charge of checking the accounts with the banks. It was Director Liu’s instructions.”

Dong Xuebing nodded and did not say anything.

Luo Haiting did not leave the main office as she understood what Dong Xuebing wanted. They had worked together for some time, and she knew this task was too minor for him to say. She immediately took on this task and looked at the staff members. “Xiao Ning, are you in charge of checking the bank accounts with the banks?”

Ning Shaoyang paused for a second and nodded.

Luo Haiting acknowledged and looked at Zhu Zhu. “Xiao Ning has too much on his plate. Xiao Zhu, you will take over this role from him in the future. Do your best.”

Zhu Zhu was surprised and quickly stood up. “Rest assured, Director Luo. I will do a good job.”

Luo Haiting smiled and patted her arm. “Good. Carry on with your work.”

Ning Shaoyang was looking terrible. This was taking away his authority.

Zhu Zhu and Fei Fan glanced at Ning Shaoyang. They were not surprised as Director Dong was now in charge, and Ning Shaoyang had disrespected him. Ning Shaoyang was the first to be targeted as Liu Hanqing's transfer was canceled. Liu Hanqing could not bring Ning Shaoyang along with him, and Ning Shaoyang's plan had failed.

Luo Haiting went to Dong Xuebing's office to inform him about Ning Shaoyang's work reassignment.

Dong Xuebing nodded and was satisfied with Sister Luo. He disliked Ning Shaoyang. This guy had disrespected him in his office. You are only a staff member. Why can't you focus on your duties? Why did you follow Liu Hanqing's lead to go against me? Do you think I will let you off lightly? Dong Xuebing hated people who did not know their places. They had no conflict of interest, and there's no need to go against him. Why did they provoke Dong Xuebing for no reason? They were asking for it.

"Director, do you have any other instructions for me?" Luo Haiting asked.

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I need to be familiar with the work first. Ask everyone to carry on with their work."

"Ok." Luo Haiting pushed her hair back and walked closer. "Director, let me pour a glass of water for you."

Dong Xuebing tried to stop her. "I can do it myself."

"Leave such minor tasks to me."

"Huh? Ok. Thank you. Warm water is fine."

The water dispenser was not far from Dong Xuebing, and Luo Haiting bent over to refill Dong Xuebing's mug. Her perky butt was facing Dong Xuebing, making him uncomfortable. A while later, Luo Haiting returned with a cup of water. "Have a drink." She bent over to place the water on his desk, and he immediately felt something soft pressing against his shoulder. Another soft mound was pressing against his back.

Why does this Sister Luo like to tease him?

But.... Sister Luo's mounds were soft.

"Thank you." Dong Xuebing replied.

"Don't mention it." Luo Haiting smiled.

Dong Xuebing took a sip and enjoyed the feeling of the soft mounds pressing against him. Ah..... this feels good.

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door.

Dong Xuebing quickly straightened his back and cleared his throat.

Luo Haiting immediately returned to the front of the desk and stood there as if nothing had happened.

Gao Wenrong entered the office with a brown envelope. "Director Dong, I need to speak to you."

Luo Haiting smiled and said. "Oh, I had finished reporting to Director Dong and will go back now."

After Sister Luo left, Dong Xuebing asked. "Brother Gao, you can just give me a call, or I can go over to your office."

Gao Wenrong looked at Director Dong. "Haha.... It's alright. Our Office Department is to assist the leaders. Oh...." He took a document from the envelope and passed it to Dong Xuebing. "Please look at this."

"Ok. Brother Gao, have a seat."

"Ok. I will explain to you while you read it."

Gao Wenrong sat, and Dong Xuebing glanced at the document. It was a document about the Commission for Discipline Inspection regulations on personal assets disclosure."

Gao Wenrong looked at Dong Xuebing. "The Central Government had issued an order for the leaders to disclose their assets, and Fen Zhou City had just started implementing it. Our Commission for Discipline Inspection's work is special; we are one of the first few departments to start. All of our leaders here had disclosed their assets last month, and it's quite simple. You need to fill up these few boxes." He took a few documents from the envelope and passed them to Dong Xuebing. "There are a few sections which are optional, and the section on housing, car, and savings, are compulsory."

Dong Xuebing smiled wearily. Asset disclosure?

Gao Wenrong looked at him. "If you feel uncomfortable, I will collect it before the end of the day."

"It's alright." Dong Xuebing replied. "Oh, do I need to fill up for my wife's asset?"

"That's optional, and it's up to you." Gao Wenrong suddenly smiled. "Brother Dong, you are married?! I thought you were...."

"Oh, I got married a few days ago."

"Congratulations."

Dong Xuebing picked up his fountain pen and looked at the form.

House: Beijing Western suburbs villa. The estimated value at around 20 million RMB.

Car: Porsche Panamera. The estimated value at around 4 million RMB.

Savings: ICBC bank, account number 6222. The savings amount is around 90 million RMB.

Dong Xuebing rechecked the form before passing it to Gao Wenrong with a hint of embarrassment. "Alright. I think that's about it."

Gao Wenrong took the form from him. "Ok. I will enter it into the system, and some related departments might look into it. I hope you are...."

"I understand."

"Ok. I shall not bother you anymore."

His expression froze when Gao Wenrong was about to keep the forms in the envelope. He had glanced at the numbers on the form and was speechless.

Dong Xuebing called. "Brother Gao?"

Gao Wenrong replied. "Director Dong, this form will be entered into your records and disclosed on the internet. Even the City Party Committee will have a copy. You cannot joke about it."

"I am not joking."

"But you wrote...." Gao Wenrong sat down and asked softly. "These figures...."

Dong Xuebing knew why Gao Wenrong was anxious. "Don't worry, Brother Gao. I had gotten my money through legitimate means."

One hundred million RMB of assets through legitimate means?! How did you get it?

Gao Wenrong did not ask anything and kept the forms carefully. He knew the higher-ups would look into Dong Xuebing's finances because of the big amount. This was no longer an asset disclosure issue.

Dong Xuebing's finances had no problems.

The government's lottery center wired the 100 million RMB into his account.

There are no regulations stating Government staff cannot buy lotteries, and Dong Xuebing had won the jackpot of the football lottery.

Dong Xuebing had caused another uproar on his second day in the City Commission for Discipline Inspection.

Almost everyone knows about this in the Inspection First Office Director Dong has 100 million RMB!

Everyone, including the Commission for Discipline Inspection Leaders, and the City Government Leaders, was shocked when they heard about it.

The Earthquake hero had accepted bribes?!

One million RMB worth of bribes was considered a major case, let alone 100 million RMB.

However, the outcome of the investigation exceeded everyone's expectations. The uproar stopped after a few hours as Dong Xuebing had gotten his money through the lottery. He had won the jackpot a few times.

Everyone was speechless.

A twenty-five years old Deputy Division Chief....

A Commission for Discipline Inspection Leader with over 100 million RMB....

This was too much....

Chapter 815: A box of women's clothings

Dong Xuebing received a call in his office.

“Hello, Director Dong?” A middle-aged man said. “I am Wang Youfu.”

Wang Youfu is the City Commission for Discipline Inspection Secretary and a member of the City Party Committee.

Although Wang Youfu was not Dong Xuebing’s direct supervisor, he was his Leader.

Dong Xuebing immediately greeted him. “Secretary Wang.”

Wang Youfu replied. “I need to inform you about this. The related departments had checked your assets and found no problems with them. However, the higher-ups will not disclose your assets to the public. After all, it will be hard to explain and might attract the gossip. It will create a negative impression on our Commission for Discipline Inspection.

“I understand.”

“Ok. That’s it.”

“Thank you for informing me.”

After hanging up, Dong Xuebing packed his things and went downstairs.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing driving his Porsche Panamera differently when he drove out. They thought Dong Xuebing had borrowed this car from a friend. But after he disclosed his assets this afternoon, no one will think like that again. Which multimillionaire would borrow a car to drive? He was only transferred to the City Government for two days and had attracted everyone’s attention.

Bicycle stands.

Luo Haiting, in her white dress, was riding her electric bicycle.

Dong Xuebing stopped beside her and pressed the horn. “Director Luo, are you going home?”

Luo Haiting looked at Dong Xuebing and smiled. “I was about to return to move my luggage to the Discipline Inspection’s family quarters.”

“You should have lots of luggage.” Dong Xuebing waved. “Come in. I will give you a lift. Your electric bicycle can’t fit much luggage, and you might have to make a few trips.”

Luo Haiting quickly waved her hand. “It will be too troublesome for you.”

Dong Xuebing waved to her. “Hurry up and get in.”

Luo Haiting looked at Dong Xuebing and got into the front passenger seat. “Oh, I had troubled you again....”

“Can you don’t say such things?”

“Haha.... Ok. Thank you.”

Dong Xuebing drove out of the City Party Committee building compound.

Luo Haiting looked and touched the car. "This is such a nice car. Xuebing, I didn't expect you to be so rich. Do you know everyone was shocked when your asset was disclosed? I was shocked and worried the whole "

Dong Xuebing did not hide anything from Luo Haiting. "Sister Luo, I will not get into trouble. I had never received any gifts worth more than two thousand RMB. You should take note of it too. After all, we are working in the Discipline Inspection, which is different from the Investment Promotion Agency. Look at Liu Hanqing's father." Exchanging gifts was a common practice during festivals in China. It would affect the relationship between colleagues and work. Most Commission for Discipline Inspection staff would have a different bank account for gifts. Of course, the Commission for Discipline Inspection leaders did not need to do this as they didn't need to foster good working relationships with others. They can reject everyone's gifts, and no one will say anything.

"I understand." Luo Haiting laughed. "No one will send any gifts to me with my rank. Haha...."

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Alright. I will send you some gifts when I'm free."

Luo Haiting laughed. "Don't.... I dare not accept it."

A while later, the Porsche was parked outside of the City's Second Guesthouse, diagonally opposite the City Party Committee Building. Luo Haiting and Dong Xuebing alighted and went upstairs to get her luggage.

Luo Haiting quickly stopped Dong Xuebing. "Director, just stay here and wait for me."

Dong Xuebing asked. "What's wrong? Are your husband and child around?"

"No.... my husband is working in Yan Tai County, and my child is studying there."

"Then let's go. How can I let you carry the heavy stuff by yourself?"

"Ah.... You are a leader, and I cannot let you do such chores."

"It is after office hours now. Just lead the way."

Luo Haiting tried to stop Dong Xuebing, but he refused to listen. In the end, she can only bring him to her room.

Inside the room.

"Xuebing, let me prepare tea for you."

"Don't worry about it. Just pack your luggage."

"Ok. You can watch the TV while I pack."

Luo Haiting started to pack her luggage, and Dong Xuebing sat on the sofa to watch TV.

Dong Xuebing had no other ideas when he decided to help Luo Haiting move. He treated his subordinates well and took care of his friends and colleagues around him.

Bam!

There was a loud bang in the room.

Dong Xuebing turned and saw Luo Haiting struggling to carry a big box.

Dong Xuebing quickly went over. "Let me carry it." He picked up the heavy box from the ground. "Oh, it's heavy. How are you going to manage if I did not help?"

Luo Haiting smiled. "I am getting old and is not as strong as before. I was my class's sportswoman when I was schooling."

Dong Xuebing was surprised. "Oh, you are so much better than me. I was the weakest in class."

Luo Haiting laughed. "Don't be modest. I will not believe you. Everyone in Yan Tai County knows about your fighting capabilities. You can fight and win against more than a dozen opponents. You are fitter than most people in the country."

Dong Xuebing smiled and did not say anything. No one would believe him anyway.

Dong Xuebing stopped watching TV and sat by the table to wait for Luo Haiting.

Luo Haiting opened a box and stuffed her clothes into it.

Dong Xuebing blushed when he saw her clothes.

The spaghetti tops and dresses were fine. But the rest....

Dong Xuebing saw a set of semi-translucent black lingerie. It was all see-through and could not cover anything. Luo Haiting continued to pack her box and took out a set of pink lacy bra and panties, followed by a white bra and panties. She had all sorts of stockings in different colors. She continued to pack normally and even placed a few packets of sanitary pads into it.

Luo Haiting wiped her sweat. "It's done." She looked at Dong Xuebing and smiled. "Women have lots of stuff."

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. "It's fine. Shall we go now?"

"Ok. But this box is too heavy for me."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I will carry these two boxes, and you can carry the rest."

Luo Haiting quickly grabbed the lighter box. "No.... I can carry this box, and you can carry the other one. I will open the door."

Both carried the luggage downstairs.

When they reached the Porsche, Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting saw Inspection First Office's Zhu Zhu standing beside the car.

Luo Haiting shouted. "Xiao Zhu?"

Zhu Zhu saw Luo Haiting and quickly walked over. "Director Dong, Director Zhu."

Luo Haiting asked. "Didn't you finish work? Why are you here?"

Zhu Zhu smiled sweetly. "I heard you are moving, and I came over to see if I can help. Ah, let me help you with this box."

"No need...."

Zhu Zhu snatched the box from Luo Haiting, and she looked at Dong Xuebing. "This is our department's Zhu Zhu. You should have met her. She is quite smart, and I like to assign tasks to her."

Dong Xuebing nodded.

Zhu Zhu smiled, showing two beautiful dimples. She placed the box into the Porsche and said. "Director Dong, Director Luo, let me know if you need anything. I am not capable, but I am good at running errands and carrying stuff."

Luo Haiting had assigned Ning Shanyang's duties to Zhu Zhu.

Dong Xuebing could tell Luo Haiting liked Zhu Zhu and looked like she was grooming her.

"Ok, Xiao Zhu." Luo Haiting patted her shoulder. "You should go back and rest."

Zhu Zhu asked. "How about I help you carry your luggage to your apartment in the family quarters?"

"No need. It's late, and you should return home to have dinner."

Zhu Zhu did not insist and said goodbye to Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting.

Dong Xuebing looked at Sister Luo. "What's Xiao Zhu's background?"

Luo Haiting said softly. "She is our Commission for Discipline Inspection's complain office's Director Liang Xuan's relative."

Dong Xuebing nodded and took a mental note of it.

Chapter 816: Sister Luo did not close the toilet door

The City Commission for Discipline Inspection family quarters.

This is a small neighborhood in the City Government family quarters. This neighborhood is not small and houses all government departments' family quarters. Dong Xuebing had visited Yang Zhaode's apartment in the City Party Committee family quarters. This place's facilities were not as good. However, it is still a nice neighborhood with lots of greeneries.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting started to unload her luggage.

A middle-aged woman was walking towards the apartment building and passed by them.

The woman saw Dong Xuebing and greeted him. "Director Dong."

Dong Xuebing had met this woman during his welcome lunch. She is the Commission for Discipline Inspection's complaint office Director Liang Xuan. They shook hands. "Hi, Director Liang."

Liang Xuan smiled. "Director Dong, why are you here? Have you had dinner? Do you want to come to my place for dinner?"

Dong Xuebing rejected her offer politely. "Sorry. I am helping Director Luo to move house. I can't leave her and let her carry her luggage herself."

Luo Haiting quickly added. "Director, I can manage on my own. I don't want to trouble you anymore."

Dong Xuebing laughed. "It's fine."

Liang Xuan greeted Luo Haiting.

They chatted for a while, and Liang Xuan asked Dong Xuebing. "Is Xiao Zhu doing well in your department?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Xiao Zhu is smart, and she is doing well. Director Luo had assigned her to liaise with the banks."

Liang Xuan looked at Luo Haiting and smiled.

Liang Xuan did not mention anything about her relationship with Zhu Zhu. This is taboo in the government sector, and she cannot make it obvious. She mentioned Zhu Zhu to Dong Xuebing as a hint to ask him to take care of her. The Complaints Office worked closely with the Inspection Offices, and she holds a Division Chief rank.

A few minutes later.

A two-bedroom apartment upstairs.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting carried the luggage into the apartment. Clicked. Luo Haiting closed the door behind her and was covered in sweat.

Luo Haiting sighed. "I am getting old. Look how sweaty I am."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "Take a break. It's time for me to leave."

"No." Luo Haiting smiled. "You helped me a lot today. You let me have this apartment and helped me to move. You must stay for dinner. I will let you try my cooking skills."

Dong Xuebing laughed. "It's too troublesome."

"No... that bag is full of groceries. I had brought it along."

"Alright. I haven't had dinner too."

Luo Haiting asked Dong Xuebing to sit and enter the room with her luggage. She looked around and noticed the renovations and fittings were better. This apartment was supposed to be Dong Xuebing's, and the décor was based on his rank. She returned to the living room with a smile. "I must thank you properly and do my best to cook the most delicious dinner for you."

Dong Xuebing replied. "Sister Luo, don't say such things. You are treating me like an outsider."

"Ok.... Stay here while I prepare dinner."

Luo Haiting was in a good mood as she was promoted to Section Chief and had gotten an apartment. She swayed into the kitchen and got busy.

Ding-Ding.... Dong dong....

About twenty minutes later, the dishes were cooked and brought to the dining table.

Dong Xuebing sat at the table and praised. "It looks delicious. Sister Luo, you are good at cooking."

Luo Haiting laughed. "Thank you. I had never learned to cook, but I cooked for my child daily. Hurry and try it."

Dong Xuebing picked up his chopsticks and tried the food. "Wow...."

Luo Haiting smiled. "I'm glad you like it. I was afraid the food is not good enough."

Most women in their forties can cook well. After all, they had been cooking for years.

"How can it be?" Dong Xuebing felt the food was good. "My mum can cook well, but her braised radish is not as good as yours."

Luo Haiting laughed. "Come over to my place when you are lazy to cook in the future."

"Ok. Haha.... I will come over for dinner often. Eh, you should sit and have dinner together."

"I am feeling sweaty after cooking. You can start first while I change."

Luo Haiting returned to her room, and Dong Xuebing started eating as he was hungry.

A while later, Luo Haiting returned to the living room.

Dong Xuebing looked over, and his eyes almost popped out.

Sister Luo had changed into a dark green low-cut dress. She also changed her hairstyle and hair clip. Most of her chest was exposed, showing deep cleavage.

Dong Xuebing choked on his food and coughed.

Luo Haiting acted as if nothing had happened and sat opposite Dong Xuebing to have dinner.

Dong Xuebing smiled. "Sister Luo, if you wear that to work tomorrow, most male staff will go crazy."

Luo Haiting laughed. "You are exaggerating. I know myself well."

"Look, you don't believe me when I tell the truth."

"Haha...."

Luo Haiting said this, and she had a happy expression. Which woman doesn't like to be praised for her looks? She kept putting food into Dong Xuebing's bowl. "Here, try this...."

"Let me do it myself."

"Do you want another bowl of rice?"

"No.... I will eat the dishes."

Suddenly, Luo Haiting stood up and smiled. "Sorry, I got to go to the toilet."

Dong Xuebing was speechless and wondered why was she telling him this?

Luo Haiting left the table and entered the bathroom.

The next moment, Dong Xuebing's jaw dropped. Luo Haiting did not close the door.

Dong Xuebing could see Sister Luo's shadow, and she was pulling up her skirt. After that, he heard water trickle sounds.

This was too..... Dong Xuebing had never experienced this before.

Dong Xuebing looked towards the bathroom. The bathroom and the living room were adjacent, and he could only see a pair of legs. Sister Luo was sitting on the toilet bowl, and her black stockings and pink lacy underwear were pulled to her knees. From his angle, that's the most he can see. At this moment, he wanted to move his body to see more, but Sister Luo noticed him.

The water trickling sound stopped, and the toilet flushed.

Dong Xuebing heard high-heel footsteps and saw Luo Haiting bending over at the washing basin to wash her hands. After that, she walked out confidently and gasped suddenly.

Dong Xuebing was shocked. "What is it?"

Luo Haiting smiled. "I am used to living alone and had forgotten to close the toilet door."

Dong Xuebing was speechless and embarrassed. "It's fine.... Everyone will forget something once in a while."

"I think...." Luo Haiting sat down and looked at Dong Xuebing. "It was because I did not see you as an outsider and thought nothing about it."

Huh? Shouldn't you avoid this embarrassing situation?

But thinking about it, you must have done it on purpose. I don't believe you had forgotten to close the door.

Men and women are different, and how can a woman forget to close the toilet door?

Sister Luo was determined to seduce Dong Xuebing, and she knows how to use her 'weapons' well. He wondered if she was teasing him for fun or if she wanted him to pounce on her. She is married and has a son. She should not be so open and stray. Dong Xuebing had known her for some time and knew her well. Her dressing might be fanciful, but she was conservative. Err.... she should be conservative.

The living room had become awkward.

Dong Xuebing looked at the time. "I can't stay here for too long. Let me help you unpack. I can help you to carry the heavy items before I go." Someone had seen him entering Luo Haiting's apartment, and there might be gossip if he stayed too long.

"I don't have anything heavy to move. Oh, I have a box which I want to place on top of the closet. The closet is quite high. Can you help to support me?"

"Just leave it to me."

"No.... you had helped me a lot today, and I will feel bad."

Luo Haiting carried a chair into the bedroom and placed it in front of the closet. She stood on it. "Can you pass me that box? Yes. That one."

"Ok." Dong Xuebing picked up the box for her.

Luo Haiting took the box from him and accidentally lost her balance. “Ah....”

Dong Xuebing quickly grabbed her waist to stop her from falling. “It’s alright.”

“Thank you, director.”

Luo Haiting’s low-cut dress was knee-length, and Dong Xuebing held on to her waist. From his position, he could see everything under her skirt.

Her stockings were black.... Her underwear was pink....

Dong Xuebing can also smell the feminine scent from under her skirt.

Chapter 817: Beautiful Deputy City Mayor

Morning. Dong Xuebing arrived at work early today because the City Party Committee’s Organization Department had organized a blood donation drive. A few blood donation buses were parked in front of the Party Committee Building when he arrived. As the Inspection First Office’s leader, he got to set an example.

On his way upstairs, Dong Xuebing received an SMS.

Xie Huilan: “Did you miss me?”

Dong Xuebing quickly replied. “Of course.”

Xie Huilan: “Haha.... Are you telling the truth?”

Dong Xuebing: “Can’t you talk about other things?”

Xie Huilan: “I want to know if you missed me. Alright. That’s all.”

Dong Xuebing quickly replied. “Do you miss me?”

Xie Huilan: “Haha.... I got to go. I have work to do.”

Dong Xuebing: “Hey! Why were you busy when I asked you the same question?”

Dong Xuebing missed Xie Huilan after being teased by Luo Haiting yesterday. He even dreamt of her underskirt last night.

The main office area.

The staff members were standing at their desks.

Dong Xuebing shouted. “I believed all of you had received the notification from the City Party Committee. Those within the accepted weight have no medical history and haven’t taken their breakfast can participate in this blood donation drive. Donating blood does not harm your body and can stimulate your bodily functions. Fen Zhou City had just experienced the most major earthquake, and many lost their families and friends. Many people were saved, and this is our time to help them. Your blood can save lives. This donation drive is not compulsory, but I hope all of you can do your part.”

Dong Xuebing looked at Luo Haiting.

Luo Haiting immediately took out a form. “Those who want to participate can register with me.”

Everyone looked at each other, and Zhu Zhu, Fei Fan, and three other staff members registered. The other two staff did not participate because one was underweight, and the other had just recovered from flu.

With Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting, seven people from the Inspection First Office will donate blood.

Dong Xuebing was enthusiastic about this blood donation drive because this was a directive from the City Party Committee and Commission for Discipline Inspection. At least two staff from each department must participate in this donation drive.

Half an hour later, the Inspection First Office received a call. It was their turn to donate blood.

Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting led everyone downstairs toward the blood donation buses. They queued up and got on the bus.

As the leaders, Dong Xuebing and Luo Haiting went first. The nurse and Doctor on the bus checked their blood sample.

Suddenly, the Doctor gasped. "Eh?"

Dong Xuebing was puzzled. "What is it, Doctor?"

Luo Haiting and the other nurses looked over.

The Doctor looked at Dong Xuebing in surprise. "Your blood type is Rh-negative B negative!"

Dong Xuebing blinked and asked. "Rh-negative?"

"This is a rare blood type, and we have a low supply of this blood type in our blood bank." The Doctor explained.

Dong Xuebing was puzzled. "I was hospitalized several times, and no one said anything about it. I only know my blood type is B."

"Yes, it's type B but also Rh-negative."

Dong Xuebing was speechless. "Is it one in ten thousand?"

The Doctor replied. "Not really. One in ten thousand blood types is AB Rh-negative. Yours is considered one in one thousand. Anyway, it's rare for a Chinese to have this blood type."

Although Dong Xuebing had been injured severely and hospitalized several times, he had not received blood and did not know anything about this. This will be quite troublesome for him as it would be hard to get a blood transfusion if anything happens to him. Oh, this was not a problem for him. Even if he jumped from a ten-stories building, he could get back on his feet as if nothing had happened. He doesn't need a blood transfusion as a REVERSE can heal all his wounds. He can't even die.

Dong Xuebing laughed. "Great. I can donate more."

After donating his blood, a nurse gave Dong Xuebing a hamburger. Dong Xuebing had skipped breakfast for this donation drive and was starving.

Ah.... It feels good. But my head is spinning.

After alighting from the bus, Dong Xuebing saw Luo Haiting, and she was looking pale.

“What’s wrong, Sister Luo?” Dong Xuebing asked. “Are you not feeling well?”

Luo Haiting smiled. “I feel grossed, but I should be fine.”

Dong Xuebing did not help Luo Haiting due to his position. He called Fei Fan to help Sister Luo back to the office while he remained downstairs to watch his staff donate blood.

Suddenly, there was a commotion beside Dong Xuebing. They were noisy and talking about something.

Dong Xuebing turned and saw many Discipline Inspection staffs looking towards the City Government Building.

“Eh....”

“Did you all see her?”

“Yes. She is our new Deputy Mayor.”

“Yes. It’s her. I heard she is the prettiest female leader in Hebei Province.”

“She is pretty and young.”

“I heard she had made significant contributions during the earthquake and was promoted due to exceptional basis.”

“Eh, that Land Rover there is her car. It is the most expensive version.”

“Are you sure? The most expensive version of Land Rover cost almost 4 million RMB, and that number plate is Beijing 6666!”

Most of the staff donating blood were Commission for Discipline Inspection staff members, and very few leaders were there. That’s why they did not hold back and discussed it openly.

Dong Xuebing had good hearing and heard everything they said.

Deputy Mayor? Prettiest female leader in the Province? Land Rover and significant contributions during the earthquake?!

How come Dong Xuebing felt he knows this person? He looked in that direction and was stunned. He saw that person’s beautiful back walking into the City Government Building.

That is Xie Huilan!

Sister Xie had come to Fen Zhou City!

Dong Xuebing smiled and understood why Xie Huilan had sent those SMS this morning. You didn’t tell me you were coming today and still tried to prank me.

This Huilan....

I will teach you a lesson tonight!

Chapter 818: Director Dong’s wife

Inspection First Office Director Office.

Dong Xuebing was in a good mood because he got to see Sister Xie again and release his urges. Secondly, he finally got backing in this new place. Xie Huilan was appointed the Deputy City Mayor and is a Deputy Bureau Director. She is considered one of the top leaders in the City Government. With her around, he can use his status as the Deputy Mayor's husband. From a certain perspective, this status is more valuable than Inspection First Office Director. A District Party Committee Secretary might be holding a Division Chief rank. Still, he will not dare to offend or provoke a City Party Committee Secretary's wife.

Dong Xuebing called Xie Huilan on her phone. "Hello, Huilan. When did you arrive?"

Xie Huilan laughed. "Oh, your eyes are sharp. Did you see me?"

Dong Xuebing drank his tea. "How can I fail to see you? I was outside the blood donation buses when I heard the staff talking about you, and I saw you." Xie Huilan will always make heads turn with her looks and figure.

Xie Huilan laughed. "I was exiting the highway when I SMS you. I just arrived not long ago."

"You should at least inform me. Are you trying to surprise me?"

"I am the Deputy City Mayor. Why would I report everything to a lowly Inspection Office Director?"

"Hmph! Don't be too full of yourself." Dong Xuebing replied. "I will investigate you."

Xie Huilan smiled. "Oh, I am under the Provincial Government, and the City Commission for Discipline Inspection cannot investigate me. Haha...."

Dong Xuebing was mad. "Fine.... You win."

"Alright. They are waiting to announce my appointment. Let's talk tonight, ok?"

"Ok. Remember to ask them for your apartment. I still don't have an apartment and don't want to live in the guesthouse."

"Alright. I will check later in the "

"Ok. Call me when you finish work."

"Bye."

Noon.

Dong Xuebing took out a small box from his pocket and took out his pink diamond ring to wipe it. This was his first time wearing his wedding ring after coming to Fen Zhou City. He looked at his hand and was satisfied. He took a taxi and returned to his guesthouse to pack his luggage. He took a quick lunch and loaded his luggage into his car.

Dong Xuebing drove back to the City Party Committee Building. He parked his car at the Commission for Discipline Inspection office.

After Dong Xuebing got out of his car, he saw Liang Xuan and Gao Wenrong walking toward the building.

“Director Liang, Director Gao.” Dong Xuebing locked his car and walked over. “Have you all taken your lunch?”

Gao Wenrong smiled. “Yes. We just came back from the cafeteria. I didn’t see you there.”

“Oh, I went back to grab something and had taken my lunch there.

Liang Xuan smiled. “No wonder we did not see you at the cafeteria.”

They walked upstairs to their offices together.

Suddenly, Liang Xuan gasped and stopped. She had noticed the ring on Dong Xuebing’s hand.

Gao Wenrong was puzzled. “What’s wrong, Director Liang?”

Liang Xuan looked at Dong Xuebing’s left hand. “This ring....”

Gao Wenrong looked at Dong Xuebing’s hand and got shocked. “Is this a diamond? Why is it pink and so big? Director Dong, this....”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “It’s my wedding ring.”

Gao Wenrong did not know if the diamond was real or fake. If it was real, it must be expensive.

Liang Xuan did not think so. She stared at the ring and said. “It’s a pink diamond. I remember watching a program on TV a while ago. It introduced a pair of pink diamond rings put up for auction. I think the starting bid was 100 million RMB and sold at almost 300 million RMB.”

Dong Xuebing did not wear his ring because he did not want to attract attention. He replied modestly. “This is a gift from my family, and I don’t know how much it cost. But I don’t think it cost 300 million RMB.” He admitted his ring was the one on TV.

Liang Xuan gasped. “With the auction company’s commission, it should be at least 290 million RMB. Director Dong, you are wealthy.”

Gao Wenrong was stunned. He did not expect this ring to be so expensive. Someone whose salary was only a few thousand RMB a month would not understand why people were willing to spend 300 million RMB to buy a pair of rings?

Liang Xuan and Gao Wenrong exchanged looks and felt it was pointless to compare themselves to others.

A Deputy Division Chief who owned a small car and a two-bedroom apartment are considered successful in Fen Zhou City. However, this was nothing when compared to Dong Xuebing. His watch, a Patek Philippe, was worth almost 2 million RMB, and his car cost almost 4 million RMB. He still has a 200 million RMB mansion in Beijing and wore a diamond ring worth more than 100 million RMB. Not forgetting, he still has almost 100 million RMB in his bank account. All his wealth was legitimate, and he did not try to hide it.

Liang Xuan had not seen or heard of any government staff this wealthy.

“Director Dong.” Liang Xuan laughed. “I think you are the wealthiest Leader in our country.”

Dong Xuebing quickly waved his hand. “Sister Liang, stop joking with me. I was lucky and won the lottery a few times.”

Liang Xuan replied. “I won’t have any worries for the rest of my life if I got 10% of your luck.”

Gao Wenrong also felt Dong Xuebing is ultra-rich. He had met wealthy people before, but he had not met a government staff this wealthy. He knew this was a sensitive topic and tried to change the subject. “Director Dong, I heard you had worked in Yan Tai County and Nan Shan District. Where is your wife working? I can help you speak to the higher-ups to get her transfer here. It can be settled within a week if she works in the government sector.” When Leaders are transferred to another district or city, their family members will follow them. The Office Department will assist the leaders in coordinating their move.

Dong Xuebing smiled. “My wife is already here. Thank you, Director Gao.”

Gao Wenrong was stunned, and he nodded. “Ok.”

Liang Xuan added. “I am getting more interested in meeting your wife. Let’s have dinner together another day.”

“Sure.” Dong Xuebing agreed. “My wife and I will invite Sister Liang and Brother Gao for dinner a few days later. I will let you all know the time.”

“Ok.”

Not many people know who Dong Xuebing’s wife is.

Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan married a few days ago, and his records were not updated. Also, not many people can view Dong Xuebing’s details. Maybe the Commission for Discipline Inspection Secretary He Shuien knows about it.

Xie Huilan’s appointment had caused a bigger uproar than expected.

This was not a surprise as a beautiful and young City Mayor will always be the center of attraction.

Dong Xuebing overheard many staff talking about Xie Huilan in the They were talking about her looks, her car, and her age. She might be the youngest Deputy Bureau Director in Hebei province. Even Dong Xuebing was jealous of her.

After work.

Dong Xuebing finished reading his document, grabbed his bag, and left his office.

“Director.”

“Director Dong.”

Zhu Zhu, Fei Fan, and other staff members greeted him.

Dong Xuebing smiled and chatted with them on their way downstairs.

In the lobby, Dong Xuebing saw Gao Wenrong, Liang Xuan, and a few Discipline Inspection Leaders looking outside. They were discussing something among themselves softly.

Dong Xuebing and his staff members walked over to greet them.

Liang Xuan saw Dong Xuebing and smiled. "Director dong, are you going back?"

"Yes. What happened?" Dong Xuebing looked outside.

Liang Xuan pointed outside. "The newly appointed Mayor Xie's car is parked outside. I don't know who she is waiting for. Look, it's that Land Rover."

Another leader asked. "Is she looking for our Secretary He? But why is she waiting here and not going upstairs?"

Gao Wenrong replied. "Maybe she is waiting for someone else."

Everyone looked at the beautiful City Mayor in that Land Rover.

Suddenly, the Land Rover sounded horn, and the beautiful City Mayor alighted. She smiled at Dong Xuebing. "I got the keys to the apartment. Let's go in my car and leave your Porsche here. I will send you to work on Monday."

Dong Xuebing nodded and turned to Liang Xuan and the rest. "I am going back. See you all next week."

The Leaders and staff were stunned and didn't know what had happened.

Dong Xuebing remembered something and pointed at the beautiful City Mayor. "Oh, I forgot to introduce myself. This is my wife, Xie Huilan."

Xie Huilan smiled. "Hi, Xuebing's colleagues."

Everyone exchanged looks.

The new beautiful City Mayor is Director Dong's wife....

Everyone was shocked.

Chapter 819: So, they are husband and wife

Most people would have packed their stuff and left for home on most days. But today, the Commission for Discipline Inspection Building was crowded. Most staff stood outside the building looking at Director Dong and the new City Mayor. Those that were on their way out turned and looked at them. Those that were upstairs were looking out from their windows.

"What happened? What are you all doing?"

"Old Li, what are you all looking at?"

"Old Zhang, have you heard about it?"

"What? I just came down."

"The new Mayor Xie is our Director Dong's wife."

“Huh?” That person gasped. “Who told you that?”

“Director Dong introduced her to us. Can’t you see Mayor Xie is waiting for Director Dong to go home?”

“How come I never hear anyone saying they are a couple?”

“Director Dong is new, and Mayor Xie arrived today. Who knows about their relationship?”

This was a piece of big news. Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan were famous in the Commission for Discipline Inspection. They heard about Dong Xuebing because of his contributions during the earthquake. He even ‘died’ once and was sent off by ten thousand residents. During that period, Fen Zhou City TV station reported about him every day. It was the same as Xie Huilan. She had gone against everyone and ordered an evacuation before the earthquake. This was also reported in the news. She was also Yan Tai County Mayor and had come to the City Government Building for meetings frequently. It was hard for anyone not to remember her because of her good looks.

But no one had ever thought these two people were husband and wife.

Putting their looks aside, their age gap is too wide.

Mayor Xie looked at least five to six years older than Director Dong.

It is common for government staff to get married. However, most husbands hold higher positions than their wives or equivalent ranks. But Director Dong and Mayor Xie are the opposites. A Deputy Division Chief and a Deputy Bureau Director. Mayor Xie is a few levels above Director Dong.

Xie Huilan smiled and waved to Dong Xuebing. “Let’s go.”

“Wait a minute.” Dong Xuebing returned to his Porsche. “My luggage is in my car.”

“Load them in my car.” Xie Huilan opened the trunk. “Are we having dinner outside or at home?”

“Let’s eat at home. I will prepare something delicious for you. What do you want to eat? We can drop by the market on our way back.”

Xie Huilan smiled. “The weather is cold, and I feel like eating hotpot. It is convenient too. Haha....”

Dong Xuebing pulled out a piece of luggage from his car and threw it into the Land Rover’s trunk. “Ok. Do you prefer beef or mutton?”

“Let’s get both.”

“You are greedy. Alright.”

“Haha.... Are you done?”

“Wait.... I still have a piece of luggage and two bags.”

“Ok. Let me help. Pass me your bag.”

“Ah, I can do it myself.”

“I am not that weak. Give it to me.”

Everybody saw their interactions and had to accept the fact they were married.

Gao Wenrong understood why Dong Xuebing said his wife was transferred over earlier. She is here and has arrived today. Liang Xuan also understood why Mayor Xie dared to drive a Land Rover worth almost four million RMB to work. Dong Xuebing's assets were over one hundred million, all from legitimate means. They can drive whatever cars they want. Oh, their registration plate numbers. Beijing 9999 and Beijing 6666. She should have guessed they were a couple earlier.

Luo Haiting walked out of the office building with her electric bike's keys to go home. She saw Xie Huilan standing beside the Land Rover and immediately walked over with a smile.

“County Mayor.... Oh, I should address you as City Mayor Xie now.”

Xie Huilan smiled and shook her hand. “Chief Luo, it's been a while.”

Luo Haiting replied. “I am too ashamed to see you. You had ordered an evacuation before the earthquake, but I was not around to assist. Sigh....”

Xie Huilan smiled and waved. “I heard about it. It is not your fault. The roads were blocked, and even the rescue party could not enter the County. It's all in the past and let's forget about it.”

Luo Haiting nodded. “Oh, I forgot to congratulate you and Director Dong.”

“Thanks. Haha....”

Luo Haiting knew about Xie Huilan and Dong Xuebing's relationship when they were in Yan Tai County. She was shocked then but had gotten over it. That's why she was not surprised when she knew they had married.

But the others were different.

More staff finished work and left the building. They heard about Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan's relationship and were shocked. Some were jealous, some envious, and some were speechless.

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. “Are you driving, or do you want me to drive?”

“You drive.” Dong Xuebing bid goodbye to Luo Haiting and entered the front passenger seat.

Xie Huilan smiled and entered the driver's seat. She fastened her seatbelt and stepped on the accelerator. The Land Rover quickly left the City Party Committee compound.

The staff was still looking at that director and discussing them.

“This is too....”

“I didn't expect Director Dong and Mayor Xie are husband and wife.”

“That's right. This is... unbelievable.”

Inside of the car.

Dong Xuebing did not hear everyone's discussions, but he could now guess what they were saying. He smiled to himself.

Xie Huilan looked at him. "Why are you smiling to yourself?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Nothing...."

"Why are you so happy? Share it with me, ok?"

Dong Xuebing reached over and patted Xie Huilan's hand. "You had made me proud today. Look at everyone's reaction."

Dong Xuebing felt proud to have Xie Huilan as his wife.

Chapter 820: A meaty meal

The sun set.

The City Party Committee Family Quarters. A six-story grey building.

Inside Unit 602 apartment. Xie Huilan sat on the sofa with her legs crossed. She was watching the news while drinking a cup of tea. Dong Xuebing was unpacking their luggage and placing all their daily necessities like toothbrushes, toothpaste, etc..... He looked at the time when he was done and quickly hurried into the kitchen. Before bringing them to the dining table, he cut the vegetables, bean curd, mutton, and beef slices. The electric hotpot was placed on the table.

It was exhausting.

Dong Xuebing was covered in sweat as he did not stop working for more than an hour.

Everyone was envious of him for having a beautiful wife, but they did not see the hard work he did.

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing and smiled. "Thanks for working so hard. Haha.... Let me help you. Leave the rest to me."

Dong Xuebing gave Xie Huilan a stare.

Xie Huilan smiled. "What's wrong? Is there anything on my face?"

"What do you think?" Dong Xuebing replied. "Leave the rest to you? I unpacked our luggage and prepared the ingredients for the hotpot. What's left is to switch on the hotpot and eat. I think you are lazy to do anything and purposely said this to make me mad."

"I feel hurt by how you see me. Haha.... I was too engrossed with the news and didn't notice it. I will help after the news ends. Fine.... Roll your eyes all you want." Xie Huilan had all sorts of excuses.

"I had resigned to my fate. Who asked me to marry you?"

"Alright. I know you are tired. Come, let me serve you today."

Xie Huilan walked over with a smile and pulled out the chair. She gestured to Dong Xuebing to sit and used a clean towel to wipe his sweat. After that, she set the bowls and chopsticks in front of him.

Dong Xuebing nodded with satisfaction. "That's more like it."

"Can we start eating now?"

"Wait a minute. Let me grab a bottle of wine."

"Why are we drinking?"

"Today is our first day in this apartment and your official appointment day. We must celebrate. Moreover, we don't need to work tomorrow and Sunday."

It was a bottle of red wine, but it was not the expensive type.

Dong Xuebing poured a glass for Xie Huilan. "Here, drink up."

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. "You must be up to no good. Tell me honestly. Are you trying to make me drunk?"

Dong Xuebing replied embarrassedly. "We are just celebrating. What else can I do?"

Xie Huilan smiled. "I know you must be up to something. Hmmm.... Never mind. You had worked hard today, and I will drink with you."

"Ok. Cheers!"

"Cheers!"

A bottle of cheap wine and a bottle of expensive wine taste the same to Dong Xuebing.

Xie Huilan can taste the difference, but she does not say anything. She cooked a piece of meat and placed it in Dong Xuebing's bowl. "Here, our head of the family has a taste of meat first. This is the leanest piece of meat. How does it taste?"

Dong Xuebing replied. "Ah, you should eat too."

Xie Huilan laughed. "You are the head of the family, and you should eat first."

"Let's not be so polite to each other. Just eat."

"Hurry up."

"Alright." Dong Xuebing ate the piece of meat and quickly cooked a piece of meat for Xie Huilan.

"Thank you." Xie Huilan ate it slowly.

Dong Xuebing liked this lovey-dovey feeling.

They drank another glass of wine, and Xie Huilan waved to Dong Xuebing. She patted the chair beside her. "Xiao Bing, sit beside me, ok?"

Dong Xuebing laughed. "What are you trying to do?"

"Haha.... I want you to sit beside me."

"Ok."

Dong Xuebing moved his bowl and sat beside Xie Huilan.

Xie Huilan giggled. "I am starting to get warm after drinking wine." She started unbuttoning her blouse. She unbuttoned the first and second buttons, revealing the edge of her black bra. "It is fine if I take off my clothes?"

"Huh? Go ahead...." Dong Xuebing replied.

Xie Huilan unbuttoned another button, and Dong Xuebing could see the glistening sweat in her cleavage.

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing remembered something and quickly ran to the window to draw the curtains. He was afraid someone in the opposite building could see them.

When Dong Xuebing returned to the table, Xie Huilan had removed her blouse and threw it on an empty chair opposite her. She was only wearing a black bra and a necklace. She is slim, and her collarbone is obvious. He felt he could place an egg on her collarbone, and it would not fall. Although she is slim, her breasts are enormous.

This vixen....

Dong Xuebing felt his body heating up and kept drinking his wine.

Xie Huilan giggled. "I am still feeling hot. Haha.... Should I remove my pants too?"

"Yes...." Dong Xuebing nodded. "Go ahead. We will not have visitors at night."

Xie Huilan smiled and removed her belt gracefully. She slowly slid her black pants down her long legs and threw them aside. She also removed her skin-colored stockings and threw them on her pants. After that, she continued to eat.

Dong Xuebing had no mood to eat. His eyes were glued to Xie Huilan's seductive body.

Since Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan got married, they only had sex once on their wedding night. He wanted sex the next day but realized her private parts had swelled. That was her first time, and he was too rough with her. So, he got to wait until she recovered. Uncoincidentally, it was the time of the month when she recovered. He got to put it off until his transfer order was issued, and he got to report to Fen Zhou City. He could not stand it anymore.

The desperate Dong Xuebing caressed Xie Huilan's leg.

Xie Huilan giggled and slapped his hand. "Stop fooling around and eat your food."

"I don't feel like eating after seeing you in this state."

"Haha.... But we should eat first. I am not full yet."

Dong Xuebing forced himself to calm down and started to put food into her bowl. "Here, eat more. Don't keep eating vegetables. You should eat more meat."

"I am afraid I might get fat." Xie Huilan patted her flat stomach. "What if I got a tummy? You will lose interest in me."

“What are you talking about? Am I that type of person? Even if you had become fatty and full of wrinkles, I would still like you. Moreover, you are born to be slim and will not get fat.”

“Did you smear honey on your lips?”

“Yes.”

“Haha.... Let me taste how sweet it is.”

Xie Huilan lowered her head and kissed Dong Xuebing. Her sexy tongue moved along his lips.

“Is it sweet?”

“Taste like an ashtray.”

Dong Xuebing was speechless. “I will try to cut down on my smoking.”

After dinner, Xie Huilan strolled into the bathroom to get a shower.

Dong Xuebing immediately got the hint, quickly cleaned up the dining table, and did the dishes. After that, he rushed into their room and drew the curtains. He stripped and got under the covers.

Half an hour later.

The bathroom door opened, and footsteps got nearer to the room.

When Dong Xuebing saw Xie Huilan entering the bathroom, his eyes almost popped out of their sockets. She was not wearing anything. She closed the door behind her and stood there looking at Dong Xuebing. “It’s not even 8 pm, and it is too early to sleep.”

Dong Xuebing opened the blanket. “It’s late. Hurry and come in.”

Xie Huilan giggled. “Will I be seen as too eager if I under the blanket like this? Haha.... It will be too embarrassing. How about you come over and carry me to the bed?”

“No.”

“Then forget it. Oh, I didn’t finish watching the news earlier. I will go and watch the re-run now.” Xie Huilan turned and was about to leave.

“Wait.... Fine.... I will carry you to the bed. You are so hard to please.”

Dong Xuebing knew Xie Huilan was teasing him, and he got no choice. He might be the head of the family, but she was the one holding all the power. He got out of the bed naked and carried her across his arms. He placed her gently on the bed and asked. “Your majesty, is this fine?”

Xie Huilan pushed her hair behind her ears. “Yes. As you were.”

“As you were? Do you think you are a queen?” Dong Xuebing pounced onto Xie Huilan and grabbed her breast. It was huge and could not be covered with one hand.

Xie Huilan replied. “The rules are the same. You cannot do it from my back.”

“Other than this, the rest are fine?”

“My mouth is not allowed to. As for the rest, we shall see.”

Oh, the rules were relaxed. This is a good sign.

Dong Xuebing lay on the bed, facing up. “Then you can get on top of me first. I am tired today.”

Xie Huilan got onto Dong Xuebing in a riding position and asked. “Like this?”

“Yes.... You can squat down and bend your knees.”

“Like this?”

“Yes.... You can start now.”

“Haha.... How do I start?”

“Stop pretending. I don’t believe you don’t know what to... Ah....”

For a second, Dong Xuebing felt he is in heaven.
