Chapter 931: Crash!

The sea was raging.

The rescue party heard Dong Xuebing and disagreed.

“Young man, you all had tried your best.”

“They have high-pressure water cannons. Although your yacht is faster, it is not heavy enough to withstand their cannons.”

“That’s right. Your yacht would be blown away and capsized before you get past them. Let’s think of a way to save them.”

The rescue boats tied themselves together and discussed. However, they could not think of any way to save the damaged fishing boat crew. They were anxious and angry.

There’s no more time.

The Japanese Coast Guard vessels were moving towards the damaged fishing boat. Everyone’s face changed. The Japanese were going to arrest the crew in Chinese water.

Dong Xuebing ordered. “Xiao Jing, Xiao Hao and Sun Kai. Get off the yacht.”

Xie Jing was shocked. “Brother-in-law, what are you going to do?”

Sun Kai added. “We should stick together. We are not going anywhere.”

Xie Hao disagreed. “That’s right, Brother-in-law. Let’s go and fight them together!”

Dong Xuebing’s face changed. “What did your Sister say before we depart?! I make the decision. All of you, get off the yacht!”

“Brother-in-law!”

“Hurry!” Dong Xuebing pointed to the rescue boats.

“We are not going anywhere! Don’t think of leaving me here!” Xie Hao sat on the deck and refused to move.

Dong Xuebing grabbed Xie Hao by the back of his neck and threw him onto a rescue boat next to the yacht.

Xie Hao protested. “What are you going!?”

Dong Xuebing looked at the rescue boat captain. “Help me take care of my brothers and sisters. I will be back soon.”

That captain asked. “Do you have a solution?”

Dong Xuebing nodded. “Let me try. I don’t know if it will work.”

“Alright.” The captain nodded. “They will be safe on my boat.”

“Thanks.” Dong Xuebing turned to Xie Jing and Sun Kai. “Get onto that boat. Don’t make me use force.”

Xiao Jing nodded helplessly. “We are going. Don’t do anything rash, and be careful.”

“Don’t worry about me. Hurry.”

“Brother Dong.” Sun Kai was reluctant to get off the yacht.

Xie Jing pulled Sun Kai back and dragged him onto the boat. “You must be careful!”

Xie Hao was shouting and tried to jump onto the yacht. However, the captain and his crew caught him.

“Young man.” Another captain asked. “Do you need us to do anything to help?”

Dong Xuebing waved his hand. “No need. I will stop their vessels, and you all will rush in to save our people.”

“Don’t worry. We will not miss any opportunity to save them!”

“Young man, you must be careful. Come back if it did not work.”

Dong Xuebing had impressed all the captains and crew by volunteering to stop the Japanese Coast Guard vessels.

Dong Xuebing took a deep breath and released the rope on the yacht. He entered the bridge and sailed off slowly. It was easy to steer a yacht compared to a fishing boat. One person was enough to control the yacht. He asked Xie Jing, Xie Hao, and Sun Kai to get off the yacht, and he had no more worries.

On his way to Diaoyu Dao, Dong Xuebing had learned how to steer the yacht from Xie Hao and Sun Kai. The yacht started to pick up speed.

The yacht was sailing faster and faster.

As the yacht got nearer, a Coast Guard vessel turned and started to sail towards it. Compared to the Coast Guard vessel, the yacht was tiny.

The Japanese officers laughed at Dong Xuebing’s yacht.

The yacht and vessel were heading against each other and would collide in a few hundred meters.

The Japanese vessel was confident that the yacht would not dare to crash into them, and they did not stop. They were determined to sink that small yacht. The Coast Guard vessels could crash into bigger fishing boats without a dent and damage them, let alone a yacht.

The yacht was only faster and more agile.

All the Chinese fishing boat crew looked at the yacht. Xie Hao, Xie Jing, and Sun Kai knew Dong Xuebing would try to get past the vessels with the yacht’s speed.

The next moment surprised everyone.

Dong Xuebing looked at the vessel coldly and did not avoid it. Instead, he speeds up to the maximum.

Swoosh!

The yacht was sailing at its maximum speed and cutting through the waves.

Everyone was shocked. Was this guy seeking his death? The yacht will be destroyed if they collide.

“Brother Dong!”

“Brother-in-law!”

“What are you doing?!”

Xie Hao, Sun Kai, and the rest started shouting at Dong Xuebing, asking him to avoid the collision.

Dong Xuebing could not hear them and continued to steer the yacht towards the vessel. Fk! You all are the ones who are seeking death!

You want to crash into my yacht?!

I will face you head-on!

Let’s see whose boat is stronger!

Others might not know how crazy Dong Xuebing was, but Xie Hao and Xie Jing knew him well. They turned pale. Their eldest Sister, Xie Huilan, was not around, and no one could stop him.

The Japanese officers on the vessel laughed.

An officer shouted in Japanese.

The vessel continued going forward.

Those Japanese officers were determined to kill Dong Xuebing.

Chapter 932: Is that a yacht or a tank?!

The Coast Guard vessel was sailing toward the yacht.

The yacht was speeding towards it.

Everyone on the rescue boats was nervous. If both collided, the yacht and that young man would be gone.

Xie Jing closes her eyes and doesn’t dare to watch.

Sun Kai, Xie Hao, and the rest were sweating nervously.

One hundred meters....

Fifty meters....

Twenty meters....

Dong Xuebing remained on course and did not avoid the vessel. He shouted at the vessel. “Come at me!”

These bastards finally showed their killing intent.

Come! Let’s see who will survive until the end! Do you think I am scared of you?!

Ten meters....

Five meters....

One meter....

Crash! The big and small ships collided.

The vessel's bow crashed head-on into the yacht's bow.

The collision caused a high wave, and Dong Xuebing's yacht was no match for the stronger vessel. It crashed off course and glided sideways.

"Oh no!"

"Brother-in-law!"

"Ah! Save him! Hurry!"

The rescue boats' crews shouted anxiously.

The damaged fishing boat crew saw Dong Xuebing risking his life to save them, and they were touched.

A Japanese officer on the vessel sneered.

An officer beside him quickly reminded him. "It will blow up if anyone is killed."

That officer thought nothing about it. "They are the ones who provoked and challenged us. Furthermore, they are entering our territory. I will bear all responsibility if anything happens."

After patrolling in Diaoyu Dao sea a few times, these Japanese officers become more arrogant.

The officers on the vessel's smiles froze the next moment. They were stunned.

After the wave subsided, everyone noticed Dong Xuebing's yacht was still intact. It did not break into pieces as everyone expected. The rescue party crew looked at the yacht with their binoculars and saw it did not even have a scratch! It was still sailing normally.

WTF?! What is going on?

The vessel was several tons heavier than the yacht. How can the yacht be intact after that high-speed collision?!

Everyone noticed something more shocking. The yacht was intact, but the vessel collided with it dented. Its hull was damaged by the yacht! How was this possible?!

The officers on that No.11 vessel did not see the damages, but the officers on the other vessel, the No. 12 vessel, saw it. They were shocked and told them about their hull's damage through radio. The officers on the No. 11 vessel were shocked too.

A commercial yacht managed to damage a military-grade vessel?!

This was the most incredible story, and no one would believe it!

Xie Hao laughed loudly. "I knew Brother-in-law would be fine! He is the best! Hahaha!"

Xie Jing was covered in a cold sweat. “It was too dangerous. But.... Why is Mr. Wu’s yacht so sturdy? It’s a lightweight commercial yacht!”

Sun Kai was dumbfounded.

The officer on No.11 vessel looked terrible and ordered his men to check the vessel’s damage. Other than a dent, the vessel was fine. He roared to his men to crash into that yacht as revenge. Losing to the yacht was an embarrassment.

Only Dong Xuebing knew what had happened, and he laughed when he saw the dent on the hull.

You all want to try it again?!

Fine! I will face you head-on again!

Dong Xuebing controlled the yacht and faced the vessel again. He pushed the yacht to its top speed, cutting through the waves.

The rescue party held their breaths.

Twenty meters....

Ten meters....

Crash!

Both collided again.

The moment the yacht collided with the vessel, Dong Xuebing repeated his previous action. He placed his hands on the yacht and focused on the bow.

REVERSE!

One second... two seconds... three seconds....

The yacht was made of lightweight materials and should never win in a collision against a military-grade vessel. It was impossible, but Dong Xuebing had his ways. With his powers, this was no longer an ordinary yacht. He did not stop using REVERSE, and the yacht was constantly in yesterday’s condition.

The impact destroyed the yacht’s bow, and a split second later, it returned to yesterday’s state again.

The yacht’s hull cracked, and the cracks disappeared the next moment.

With REVERSE, the yacht had become indestructible. It was constantly in perfect condition, and nothing in the world could damage it, let alone the Coast Guard vessel.

After the collision, the yacht was pushed away again.

The yacht flew back more than two meters and landed heavily on the waves. Luckily, the yacht did not capsize. The No.11 vessel’s hull had a deep dent and a small hole. It seemed to be leaking. The indestructible yacht was like reinforced concrete crashing into the vessel.

The first time might be an accident. But this was the second time!

What the hell is wrong with this yacht?!

Besides Xie Hao, who was cheering loudly, everyone else was stunned by what they saw.

What is going on?!

Why is that yacht so sturdy?!

Even if the yacht was made for military uses, how can it be intact after two collisions with the vessel?!

The Japanese officers on the vessel were stunned and looked at the yacht as if it was a monster.

What the hell is this thing!?

This was no longer a yacht in their eyes. Have you ever seen a yacht that is so sturdy?!

The No.11 vessel's officers froze and wondered if they were dreaming.

The No. 12 vessel quickly sails over to provide support.

Dong Xuebing looked at the other vessel, which was still far away. He turned the yacht around and started charging at No. 11 vessel again.

The No. 11 vessel did not move as its officers were still confused.

Dong Xuebing's yacht's advantage was its pick-up speed. It was faster than the vessel.

A few moments later, everyone saw that 'miraculous' yacht crashed into the Japanese Coast Guard vessel again.

Crash!

*Crack!

The yacht's bow impaled into the hull, and Dong Xuebing spent a while dislodging from it. He turned the yacht around and sailed away.

The yacht had collided with the same spot the vessel three times.

When the yacht dislodged itself from the vessel, everyone saw a gaping hole in the hull. Water was gushing into the vessel.

Everyone on board the vessel started to panic.

"Sir! The hull is severely damaged, and water is coming in!"

"Fix it immediately!"

"There's no time! The water is coming in too fast. We are sinking!"

The Japanese officers' hearts sank, and the officer looked terrible. "Abandon ship! Prepare the lifeboats!"

The hole in the hull was as big as the yacht's bow, and the Coast Guard vessel was sinking fast. Within seconds, it had sunk around a meter.

Everyone on the vessel was scrambling onto the lifeboats.

Dong Xuebing was still angry and sailed the yacht further away. He prepared himself to speed up again.

No. 11 vessel had called for help, and No. 12 vessel immediately rushed to assist them.

Dong Xuebing had sunk one vessel and did not continue to crash into it. He had set his sights on a new target, the other vessel. He saw the other vessel coming nearer and lit a cigarette before positioning the yacht.

The yacht started to pick up speed.

The No. 12 vessel was too slow to avoid the charging yacht. The officers on board could only look at the yacht crashing into its hull.

The vessel rocked from the collision.

The yacht was still sailing after the impact without a scratch.

The officers on the No. 12 vessel started panicking. They shouted, and their captain was shouting orders in Japanese.

Dong Xuebing sailed to some distance and started charging at them again.

The officers on the vessel looked terrible and tried to turn the vessel around to avoid the yacht.

“Hurry!”

“Don’t let the yacht hit us!”

“Turn! Turn around!”

It was chaos onboard the vessel.

No. 12 vessel managed to avoid the collision and started escaping. Dong Xuebing was frustrated after he missed that vessel and started chasing after it.

The officers on the vessel tried their best to avoid Dong Xuebing’s yacht and even fired their water cannons. They could not afford to let the yacht get near them, and both started sailing in circles.

Everyone on the rescue boats was shocked by what they saw.

A yacht chasing a Japanese Coast Guard vessel around?!

Is that a yacht or a tank?!

Chapter 933: Save them!

Diaoyu Dao sea.

The situation was weird.

Dong Xuebing started charging at the vessel at full speed.

The officers on the vessel started running around, hoping to avoid the yacht.

A few minutes ago, the two vessels had been going after the rescue party boats with their strong hull and water cannons. Now, it was the opposite. Dong Xuebing was sunk with a small yacht and chasing the other. The Japanese Coast Guard, several times bigger than the yacht, was escaping at full speed.

“Hurry! Avoid it!”

“The yacht is here! It’s here!”

“Turn! Avoid it!”

The vessel’s speed was quite impressive once it started moving.

Dong Xuebing chased the vessel and stopped after he could not catch up to them.

The vessel stopped a distance away from the yacht and observed it.

The Japanese officers on the vessel were frustrated. Their military-grade vessel was scared of a small yacht! Who would believe it? However, none of them dare to look down at the yacht. No. 11 vessel was a good example. It had collided with the yacht three times, and its hull had a big hole. Their vessels were made of high-quality steel, and normal leakage would not sink them. But the yacht had pierced through it with its pointed bow, causing severe damage. The damage was equivalent to a torpedo hitting them. Everyone on the No. 12 vessel saw what happened and was terrified of the yacht getting near them.

“Captain, what is that yacht?” Someone asked.

The officer shouted angrily. “How do I know?!”

“What should we do now?”

“Save them! Save our men first!”

The vessel turned and started sailing towards their sinking comrades.

Dong Xuebing, who had stopped the yacht, fired up the engine again.

The vessel saw it and quickly turned around.

Dong Xuebing smirked and stopped chasing them.

The leaking No. 11 vessel was sinking slowly, and the crew had boarded the lifeboats. The sea was rough, and the small lifeboats could quickly capsize from the strong waves. A few of the crew fell into the sea, screaming for help. The other lifeboats were busily trying to escape and had no time to save the fallen sailors.

Chaotic.

It was a mess.

Dong Xuebing likes tit for tat as revenge. You use your vessels to crash into our boats?! I will do the same! You all let our fishing boat sink without helping them?! Fine! I will not allow you all to save your people too! Bastards! Let’s see who will emerge as the winner!

Dong Xuebing parked the yacht near the sinking vessel, stopping the No. 12 vessel from getting close.

A few more lifeboats capsized, and more crew fell into the water.

The Japanese Coast Guard vessels were equipped with helicopters, and the pilot took off with an officer.

When Dong Xuebing looked up at the helicopter, it started firing its machine gun. Ta... ta... ta....

Another glass window on the yacht shattered, and water splashed up!

Dong Xuebing was furious. Open fire at me?! You all dare to use guns?!

“Don’t open fire!”

“Stop!”

“Stop firing immediately!”

The captain of the No. 12 vessel shouted through their speakers. They were worried about the consequences.

The pilot and officer in the helicopter refused to stop. They had lost their minds and attacked the yacht with all their weapons.

Ta... ta... ta....

The gunshots were loud!

Everyone on the rescue boats was worried for Dong Xuebing.

“Young man! Run!”

“These bastards are shooting at us!”

“Brother-in-law!”

“Brother Dong! Come back!”

Xie Jing, Xie Hao, and the rest were worried sick!

Go back?! How can Dong Xuebing go back?! He was not afraid of anything. Helicopter?! Machine gun?! You all had crossed into our territory, attacked our boats, and left them to die?! You all tried to arrest our fishermen, and now, you are firing at us in our sea?! This had crossed the line, and there’s no way back!

These Japanese!

Don’t blame me for what happened next!

Do you think I cannot do anything to your helicopter?! Do you think you can win with a machine gun?! You all are dead!

Dong Xuebing looked at the helicopter and narrowed his eyes.

He focused on the helicopter and mumbled REVERSE!

One second....

Two seconds....

Three seconds....

The helicopter’s state reversed to several days ago!

Suddenly, Dong Xuebing deactivated REVERSE!

The moment REVERSE stopped, the helicopter jerked and started wavering.

The pilot and the officer were shocked. An alarm in the cockpit sounded, and a red light started blinking. Low fuel!

They were stunned.

Low fuel?! They had topped up the fuel before they took off! How is this possible?! It should be enough for them to fly back to Japan!

What happened?!

What the hell is happening?

Helicopters should not run out of fuel. They have reserve tanks for emergencies, and pilots would check the fuel before they take off. However, Dong Xuebing had used REVERSE to return the helicopter state several days earlier. A few days ago, the helicopter was in maintenance, and all the fuel was drawn out.

The pilot thought it was impossible and it was a malfunction. A few seconds later, the helicopter's engine stopped. The helicopter had run out of fuel!

“Ah!”

“Hurry! Jump!”

Chapter 934: Incomparable

The sea was raging.

All the rescue boats had gathered and tied themselves together.

Ropes and tools were used to tie the boats together. Dong Xuebing jumped off the yacht onto the fishing boat.

Xie Hao hugged Dong Xuebing excitedly. “Wow! Brother-in-law! You are finally back! I was worried.”

Xie Jing greeted. “Brother-in-law.”

Sun Kai looked at Dong Xuebing weirdly. “Brother Dong.”

Dong Xuebing smiled and nodded. “I had made you all worry. Sorry.”

Xie Jing smiled wearily. “I was worry sick. Sis will kill me if anything happens to you.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “I am fine. Nothing had happened. Haha...”

Xie Hao and Xie Jing knew Dong Xuebing was extraordinary and were not worried at first. However, they were stunned when they saw him crashing the small yacht into the Coast Guards vessels. They had underestimated his foul temper and had never thought a yacht could sink a military-grade vessel.

A few men walked over.

The captain of the damaged fishing boat said. “Thanks for saving our lives, young man. How do I address you?”

Xie Hao laughed. “My Brother-in-law is...”

“My name is not worth mentioning.” Dong Xuebing interrupted Xie Hao. “Just call me Young man will do.”

Xie Jing knew Dong Xuebing did not want others to know what he did today. She quickly pulled Xie Hao away and gave him a stare. They were all civil servants, and identifying themselves was not good.

The few captains exchanged looks and did not ask anymore.

A crew could not hold back his curiosity and ask. “What is your yacht made of? How come it’s so sturdy?” He wanted to say this was not a yacht. It’s a monster.

This was the question in everyone’s mind.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. “It is made from a special reinforced material.”

Xie Jing and Sun Kai exchanged looks. They did not hear Wu Er saying the yacht was reinforced.

“Oh, I see.” A captain looked at the yacht. “This is my first time seeing such a special yacht.”

Everyone nodded. This yacht should change its name to the tank.

Dong Xuebing did not want to talk about this and said. “Since everyone is fine, let’s go back.”

The rescued captain nodded. “Yes, let’s go back together. We will show our gratitude when we are back.”

“No need.” Dong Xuebing waved his hand. “We did not do much. Alright, we shall go first.”

The captains refused and insisted Dong Xuebing go back with them.

But Dong Xuebing did not want to reveal himself. Reporters would be waiting at the port, and a military rescue party would be around. He cannot get involved further and has done this in anger. He had to hide his identity and could not even tell Huilan’s second uncle.

Dong Xuebing rejected their invitations politely and got back onto the yacht with Xie Hao, Xie Jing, and Sun Kai.

The captains stopped insisting as they saw Dong Xuebing was unwilling.

When Dong Xuebing was bidding goodbyes and getting on the yacht, the Coast Guard vessel had started to rescue their officers in the sea. They saw the yacht moving again and started panicking.

“The yacht is coming back!”

“Retreat!”

The officers on the vessel immediately turn around, leaving the sinking vessel and helicopter.

Dong Xuebing laughed when he saw this.

The rescue party crew started cheering.

“Get out of here!”

“Don’t ever come back again!”

“Are you all scare now?!”

“Haha! Serve you right!”

In the yacht.

Xie Jing asked. “Brother-in-law, is this yacht made from a special reinforced material? How come I did not hear Wu Er mentioning it? Even if it is reinforced, it should not be so sturdy.”

Dong Xuebing lied. “It’s not made from any special material. The vessel’s hull was damaged and repaired recently. You all can’t see from your direction, and I noticed it when I got near it. That’s the part where I crash the yacht into. I had also used some techniques when we collided.”

“What technique?” Xie Jing asked.

Dong Xuebing continued lying. “It’s just physics’ law.”

Xie Jing nodded.

“Hehe.... My Brother-in-law is knowledgeable.” Xie Hao laughed.

Dong Xuebing looked at Xiao Hao. “Don’t tell others about what happened today. I am not worried about Xiao Jing and Xiao Sun.”

Xie Hao replied. “Don’t worry. I will not tell anyone.”

Dong Xuebing nodded. “It’s fine to let Huilan know, but don’t tell your parents or other elders in the family. I don’t want your Dad to question me.”

“Yes... yes.... I will keep my mouth shut.”

“Alright.”

This incident had blown up. After all, a Japanese Coast Guard was sunk. The fishermen do not know Dong Xuebing and the rest, and Xie Hao and Xie Jing would not tell others. It should be fine. This problem was finally settled, and they could carry on with the vacation.

Dong Xuebing was relaxed and started humming a song.

At the back of the yacht.

Sun Kai was quiet.

Xie Jing looked at him and asked softly. “Why are you in a daze?”

Xie Hao laughed. “You must be shocked by my Brother-in-law. I told you he is unbelievable, but you did not believe me.”

Sun Kai wiped his sweat, and his heart was still beating fast. He thought nothing about it when Xie Hao and Xie Jing told him about Dong Xuebing’s past achievements and not to worry. Now.... he understood why everyone was confident of Dong Xuebing’s abilities.

Using a yacht to sink a military-grade vessel?!

Who would believe it?!

However, it happened in front of Sun Kai. He saw a small yacht chasing the Coast Guard vessel away. It changed the way he looked at Dong Xuebing. No wonder he can get promoted so fast.

Dong Xuebing's guts and capability were unparalleled.

No one is braver than him.

Chapter 935: News

The beach outside of the seaside mansion.

The moon shone on the sea, and it was quiet.

Dong Xuebing had set off at night, and it was almost dawn when he returned. They docked at the small pier and got off. Dong Xuebing, Xie Jing, and Sun Kai were sleepy and tired. Only Xie Hao was excited.

"Haha! We are back!" Xie Hao shouted.

Xie Jing scolded. "Lower your volume. People are sleeping!"

Xie Hao replied. "Sis must be waiting for us. Let's go!"

"Why are you so excited?" Xie Jing laughed. "You are always so excited whenever something happens."

Ring... ring... ring.... Dong Xuebing's phone rang. He looked at the caller display, and it was Xie Hao's father, Xie Guojian. Before answering, he quickly gestured to Xie Jing and the rest to keep quiet.

"Hello, Second Uncle."

"Xiao Bing, why is your phone off?"

"Oh, we are at the beach. Maybe the signal is weak. What is it?"

"Xiao Hao asked me for the fishing boat coordinates and told me the local fishing boats were joining the rescue party. Did you all go with them?"

"Of course not."

"Good. I heard the fishermen were rescued, but I don't know the details. I am waiting for updates from my men."

"Ok."

"I called because I was worried. Go back to sleep. Bye."

"Bye."

Dong Xuebing looked at Xie Hao after hanging up. "It was your Dad. I told him we did not go anywhere. You must not say anything."

Xie Hao patted his chest. "Rest assured."

Dong Xuebing had no choice but to hide what he had done from the Xie family's elders. He was afraid the higher-ups would know what he did. He had just killed over twenty pirates and would be investigated if the higher-ups knew what he had done. Xie's family's elders scold him for bringing Xie Jing and Xie Hao. That's why this was a secret between the third generation.

Seaside mansion.

It was cold at night. They were shivering when they entered the mansion. The lights were on, but no one was in the living room. Dong Xuebing entered his room and saw Xie Huilan and Xie Ran watching a variety show.

Xie Huilan looked at them. "You are back."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "Why are you all not sleeping?"

Xie Ran saw everyone had returned safely and was relieved. He smiled. "I told Sis to sleep, but she refused. She wanted to wait for you all."

Xie Jing looked around. "Where are Uncle Wu and Youyou?"

Xie Ran replied. "They are sleeping upstairs. Did anything happen?"

"Nothing... nothing...." Xie Hao laughed. "What can happen with Brother-in-law around?"

Xie Huilan glanced at them and said. "How come you all looked pathetic? Xiao Bing's clothes are wet, and what happened to Xiao Jing and Xiao Hao's clothes? Did you all rescue the fishermen?"

"Of course."

"And then?"

"And then.... Hehe.... It's a long story." Xie Hao laughed. "Sit around. I will tell you all what happened."

Xie Ran laughed. "Stop beating around the bush and tell us!"

Dong Xuebing sniffed and said. "Tell them what happened. I am going to take a shower and change into dry clothes. It's cold."

Inside the bathroom.

Dong Xuebing took off his clothes and filled the bathtub with hot water. He soaked in the bathtub to warm himself. It felt good, and he slowly regains his energy.

Five minutes....

Ten minutes....

Dong Xuebing put on a bathrobe and walked out lazily. Xie Hao had not finished.

This brat was too long-winded.

"They tried to crash into us...." Xie Hao waved his hands around and looked furious.

"Don't you think they are too much?! These bastards.... Thankfully, I reacted fast and steered the yacht to avoid them. If I were a split second slower, we would be crushed."

Xie Jing laughed. "Can you stop exaggerating?"

Xie Hao rolled his eyes. "I was telling the truth. After that, they used water cannons to hit us. The glass windows of the yacht were smashed, and Brother-in-law almost fell into the sea. Because of my quick reaction, the yacht sailed away before it got heavily damaged. If it were not for me, all of us would be....."

"Get straight to the point." Xie Huilan was yawning.

Dong Xuebing laughed and hugged Xie Huilan from her back.

Xie Hao saw Dong Xuebing and continued. "Of course, Brother-in-law was the star. After we retreated to the rescue boats, he got furious, chased us off the yacht, and sailed back to the vessels. One of them sped up and tried to sink the yacht. It was dangerous, and guess what he did when they were about to collide?"

Xie Ran guessed. "He avoided it?"

Xie Huilan did not say anything.

Xie Hao smiled proudly. "Hmph! You all can never guess it. It was not my Brother-in-law's style to avoid them. He floored the accelerator.... Wait, that's not an accelerator. Anyway, he pushed the yacht to its full speed."

Xie Hao was confused. "Why did he do that?"

"Good question." Xie Hao said excitedly. "My Second Sis and I were puzzled too. We realized what had happened a few seconds later. Brother-in-law was going to collide with them head-on!"

Xie Ran's eyes nearly popped out. "Head-on collision with a Coast Guard vessel?!"

Xie Hao laughed. "That's right. We had the same expression. All of us were stunned and thought Brother-in-law had gone mad. Guess what happened next. The crash was loud, and the yacht was knocked away. However, there was not a single scratch on the yacht. However, the vessel's hull had a dent!"

Xie Ran laughed. "Stop making up stories and tell us what happened."

Xie Hao got mad. "I am telling the truth. My Brother-in-law was furious and crashed the yacht into the vessel two more times at the same spot, and it sunk! That was a terrific feeling when the officers on the vessel had to abandon the ship on their lifeboats. The other vessel came closer to rescue the officers, and my Brother-in-law used the yacht to crash into them. That vessel's hull was dented, and they ran away from him. They were scared of a small yacht."

"Can you be serious?" Xie Ran did not believe Xie Hao and looked at Xie Jing. "Xiao Jing, I don't believe what he says. You tell me."

Xie Jing smiled. "Xiao Hao did not make those up. It was like what he said."

Sun Kai nodded.

“Did you hear that?!” Xie Hao shouted. “I was telling the truth.”

Xie Ran shook his head and looked at Xie Huilan. “Sis, they are ganging up to fool us. Do you believe them?”

Xie Huilan did not reply and looked at them.

The variety show on TV ended, and it was a news flash.

The TV stations in China would not report such news, but Taiwanese media were not restricted.

It was footage of a few fishing boats at the port. The port was crowded, and the news anchor reported. “We interrupt with a news flash. The trapped fishermen were just rescued, and our reporter had interviewed them at the port earlier. They told us that a young man on a yacht saved them. He sunk a Coast Guard vessel and chased the other away with his yacht. The boat captains said the young man refused to reveal his name, and no one knows who he is.”

Xie Ran’s jaw dropped when he heard this.

It’s true. Dong Xuebing had sunk a vessel with a small yacht!

This was shocking.

Chapter 936: These are done by my Brother-in-law

Seaside mansion.

Bedroom.

Xie Ran asked. “Brother-in-law, what is going on?”

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. “Tell us, how did you sink that vessel?”

Dong Xuebing smiled. “Their vessels are not new. The hull had been repaired, and I happened to crash into the repaired part.”

“So simple?” Xie Ran doubted.

Dong Xuebing nodded. “It’s so simple.”

Xie Hao added. “It involved some physics theory too. You all will not understand even if Brother-in-law tells you.”

Xie Huilan paused for a second. “No matter what, don’t ever talk about this matter again. All of you must not say a word to others.”

Xie Hao replied. “Yes. Brother-in-law had instructed us.”

Xie Huilan continued. “I am repeating this. This is a serious matter, and it involves foreign affairs.”

Knock... knock... knock.... Wu Er and Youyou knocked on the door and entered.

Wu Er saw everyone and smiled. “I heard some noises and came over to check. All of you are back safely. That’s great.”

Youyou asked. “Brother Dong, Brother Hao, did you all rescue those fishermen?”

Dong Xuebing answered first. “The waves are too high, and we turn back. Oh, Uncle Wu. The glass windows on the yacht were smashed, and there were minor damages. I will pay for the repairs.”

Wu Er smiled and waved his hand. "It's alright as long as you all are safe."

Youyou exclaimed and pointed to the TV. "Look! They have returned."

Wu Er looked at the TV. "Oh, it seems like the rescue party had reached there in time. Eh? A yacht sunk a Coast Guard vessel?!"

Wu Er and Youyou were stunned for a minute.

Wu Er exclaimed. "Can a yacht crash and sink a Coast Guard vessel? Is that a military-grade yacht? The report also mentioned it was a young man who was steering the yacht. He is too daring to crash a yacht into a ship several times bigger."

Youyou shouted. "That's so exciting."

Dong Xuebing and the rest did not interrupt them. Only Xie Ran was looking at Dong Xuebing weirdly.

Wu Er did not suspect Dong Xuebing as he knew his yacht well. It was an ordinary yacht he had used for a few years. It would be a miracle if it did not sink during a storm, let alone collide against a Coast Guard vessel.

It felt good.

They had finally taught the Japanese a lesson.

Twenty minutes later.

Wu Er and his daughter returned to their rooms. Xie Ran, Xie Jing, and the rest left the room, leaving only Dong Xuebing and Xie Huilan.

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat when he saw Xie Huilan's eyes.

Xie Huilan smiled and looked at Dong Xuebing. "Tell me, what should I say about you?"

"Then don't say anything." Dong Xuebing hugged her. "It's late. Let's sleep."

"Don't change the subject." Xie Huilan pushed Dong Xuebing's hands away. "Do you know why I allowed my Brother and Sister to follow you? I hope you will be restrained, and don't be rash when they are on the yacht."

Dong Xuebing argued. "But you agreed to let us go."

"Did I agree to let you crash the yacht into that vessel?"

"Ah.... I had no choice. You don't understand the situation. Fine... fine.... I will take note of what you said and will not let you have the chance to scold me again."

"I hope so. How many times have you said this?"

Sun Kai's room.

The door opened, and Xie Jing entered. "Eh? Are you sleeping?"

Sun Kai saw Xie Jing in her pajamas and blushed. "Huh? Jingjing, why are you here?"

“Be quiet. I don’t want my Sister to scold me.” Xie Jing closed the door softly behind her and said. “I can’t sleep. Chat with me.”

Sun Kai nodded. “I also can’t sleep, and I am reading the online forums.”

“Oh, is there anything interesting?”

“Yes. This discussion is quite interesting.”

Xie Jing sat beside Sun Kai in front of the PC monitor.

Although it was early morning, many people were still on the internet. Many people were talking about the Diaoyu Dao sea incident. They were discussing the yacht that sunk a Coast Guard vessel. It was a popular topic and had more than one million views.

“Is this news real? Has it been confirmed?”

“Yes. I have a relative living near the sea. He said the rescue party crew saw it. How can it be fake?”

“That’s right. Who is that guy?”

“It must be a master! He reminds me of that master who stole our National Treasures from Japan’s museum and donated them to our museum. He also took one of their National Treasure. Our country has many patriots, but these two masters are the ones I respect.”

“I agree.”

“It should be three masters. Do you still remember a mysterious tourist who won against all Seoul’s Taekwondo schools and helped our overseas students? He is also a master.”

“That’s right.”

“The three of them are daring and ruthless.”

Sun Kai said. “Our country has many masters. I had heard of the theft in Japan’s National Museum in broad daylight and fighting dozens of Taekwondo black belts in Seoul. It seems that there are masters as good as Brother Dong.”

Xie Jing laughed. “What are you talking about? The mysterious tourist in Seoul was my Brother-in-law. Didn’t I tell you about it?”

Sun Kai’s eyes popped out. “What did you say?!”

Xie Jing pointed at the monitor and continued. “Oh, he was also the one who took our National Treasures from Japan Museum. Please keep it to yourself. It’s a secret.”

What?!

Damn!

All three patriotic masters are your Brother-in-law?!

Sun Kai almost fainted from his shock.

Sun Kai had heard about the previous two incidents and respected those two mysterious masters. He finally found out the truth. Xie Jing's Brother-in-law did everything.

Chapter 937: Returning home

Two days later. Beijing.

The fifth day of the Lunar New Year. People were still playing with firecrackers along the streets.

Dong Xuebing had planned to return on the Sixth day of the Lunar New Year and return to work the next day. However, the fifth day of the Lunar New Year was important, and they decided to return one day earlier. It was Chinese family tradition to gather and eat dumplings on the fifth day. When they got off the plane, two Buick MPVs were waiting for them at the airport.

Xie Hao got into the car. "Ah.... Beijing is still better. It was so humid there."

Dong Xuebing helped Xie Huilan into the car. "Are we going to your mother's place or Senior Xie's mansion?"

"Go to Senior Xie's mansion together." Xie Huilan sat on the leather seat. "Everyone is there, and they called earlier. The dumplings are wrapped, and my Mum is cooking. Hahaha.... They are waiting for us."

Xie Jing laughed. "I love Aunt's dumplings."

Xie Ran laughed. "Me too. I had been eating Taiwanese food for the past few days, and I am not used to it."

"Let's go! Let's go!" Xie Hao waved his arms. "Dumplings! Haha...."

Sun Kai cleared his throat. "Errr.... I.... I think I am not going."

Xie Jing's face changed. "What are you saying?"

"Ah... I...." Sun Kai explained. "It's not suitable for me to go."

Xie Jing held his arm and said. "Didn't we talk about it on the way back? If you are going to be like this, don't call me again. Get off now!"

Sun Kai pleaded. "Jingjing.... I... I will go too."

Xie Jing replied. "That's more like it." She said it in a commanding tone, but she was feeling nervous.

Dong Xuebing looked at them and sighed in his heart. He does not have any hopes for Xie Jing and Sun Kai's relationship. After spending a few days together, he grew to like Sun Kai. He was honest and treated Xiao Jie well. But who is Xie Jing's parents? Her father, Xie Guoliang, is the current First Deputy Minister of the Ministry of Finance. Her brother is groomed as the Xie family's third-generation successor. Sun Kai is only a high school English teacher. Their social status is too different, and Dong Xuebing felt Xie Jing's family would not accept him.

On the way.

Xie Jing whispered to Xie Huilan nervously. "Sis, do you think my parents will agree?"

Xie Huilan smiled. "Haha.... Agree to what?"

"About Sun Kai and me." Xie Jing likes Sun Kai.

Xie Huilan shook her head. "I don't know. Don't ask me."

Xie Jing smacked her lips and looked at Xie Ran. "Brother, do you think Mum and Dad will agree?"

Xie Hao laughed and said before Xie Ran could say anything. "What's the problem? So what if Brother Sun doesn't have a strong background? Brother Dong had no background, and he married our Eldest Sis."

Xie Jing kept quiet. Xie Hao's words were not comforting at all.

Xie Ran smiled and did not say anything.

Everyone knew Dong Xuebing's situation was different from Sun Kai's. Yes, he did not have any strong background, but he is capable. He can solve problems he faces. He might be from an ordinary family, several years younger than Xie Huilan, and have ordinary looks, and he was capable. Sun Kai is not as capable as Dong Xuebing and cannot be compared.

The car entered the Western suburbs villa.

Sun Kai got very nervous when he saw the guards at the entrance.

Xie Jing was nervous as she made Sun Kai carry the souvenirs they bought from Taiwan. "Don't forget to wish the elders Happy New Year."

Sun Kai nodded uneasily.

All the elders were chatting in the living room when they entered the mansion.

Han Jing smiled and stood up. "You all are back. How was the trip?"

Dong Xuebing smiled. "The scenery is good. Thanks, Mum and Dad."

"Why are you thanking us?" Han Jing patted his hand. "I had only booked the tickets and hotel."

Xie Guobang looked at them. "Is Huilan alright?"

"She is fine, except she loses her appetite once in a while." Dong Xuebing smiled and stroked Xie Huilan's tummy.

Xie Huilan laughed. "I feel nauseous. Haha... Xiao Bing, help me to the sofa. I'm tired."

Dong Xuebing helped Xie Huilan to the sofa and pointed at her. "Look! This is how she has ordered me around for the past weeks. I got to serve tea and carry her up the stairs."

Han Jing stared at her daughter. "You are not even two months pregnant. Why are you behaving like a princess? Stop ordering Xiao Bing around."

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. "How dare you complain against me?!"

Everyone laughed.

Xie Huilan is the Xie family's precious princess regardless if she is carrying a girl or boy. Even Senior Xie did not dare to make her angry. Everyone asked them about their Taiwan trip.

Xie Jing and Sun Kai appeared, and everyone looked at them.

Xie Jing felt her face turn red and introduced everyone to Sun Kai. "They are my Eldest Uncle and Aunt. This is my father and my mother. This is my Second Uncle and Aunt."

Sun Kai quickly put down the gifts and greeted them. "Happy New Year, Uncle, Aunt."

Xie Jing secretly observes everyone's reaction. "This is my friend, Sun Kai."

Xie Jing's mother, Xia Yanzhen, looked at them and did not say anything. Her father, Xie Guoliang, was not looking good. He was not surprised about Sun Kai's visit as he knew about their dating.

It was awkward.

Xie Guoliang ignored them, making Xie Jing and Sun Kai uneasy.

Han Jing came to Xie Jing's rescue. She smiled. "Xiao Sun, thanks for the gifts. Come in."

Xie Jing looked at Han Jing gratefully.

Madam Han is the eldest Sister-in-law, and Xie Guoliang and the rest did not say anything.

Senior Xie walked down from the second floor, and Han Jing and Xia Yanzhen went over to help him.

Senior Xie waved his hand. "I am feeling well these few days. I can walk myself. Haha.... Huilan, you are back. Come over and let me see if you become darker."

Xie Huilan smiled. "Happy New Year, Senior Xie."

Han Jing scolded her daughter. "Don't be rude to your grandfather."

"Haha.... It's fine. She can call me whatever she wants." Senior Xie looked at Xie Huilan from head to toe. "Not bad. You look healthy."

Xie Hao shouted. "Grandpa! You are biased! Why didn't you ask about me?!"

Senior Xie stared at Xie Hao. "What's there to ask about you? What's there to worry about when you can eat and sleep?"

Xie Hao replied. "I am hungry! Where are the dumplings?!"

Han Jing laughed and patted Xie Hao's head. "You silly child. Haha.... Wait here. I will bring out the dumplings."

Senior Xie said. "Let the helpers do it."

Han Jing smiled. "It's fine."

Dong Xuebing quickly says. "Mum, let me help you."

Xia Yanzhen and Ci Lifan also added. "Sister-in-law, we will help too."

Han Jing waved her hand. "You all have just arrived. I can prepare the dumplings with Xiao Bing." She pulled Dong Xuebing by his arm into the kitchen.

Kitchen.

Han Jing asked when she cooked the dumplings. "How is Xiao Sun?"

The Xie family is a whole, and Han Jing worries about Xie Jing's future.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and said. "Xiao Sun is not bad. He is honest and righteous."

Han Jing nodded and then shook her head. "Guoliang and Yanzhen did not seem to like him. He did not impress Huilan and Xiao Ran too. I don't think their relationship would work out."

Dong Xuebing nodded. "That's right."

"Let's not talk about this. When are you going back to Fen Zhou with Huilan?"

"We are leaving tomorrow morning. We will be visiting my Mum at Lu An City first."

"You had not accompanied your Mum during New Year. You should visit her early. Get Huilan to go with you."

"No need. It's not easy for Huilan to return home. Let her accompany you and Dad. Lu An and Fen Zhou city are near, and she can go over anytime. It's only a half-hour drive."

"Alright."

A pot of dumplings was ready.

Han Jing continued to cook the dumplings while Dong Xuebing carried the plate of steaming hot dumplings out.

Along the corridor, Dong Xuebing overheard some shouting. Xie Guoliang and Xie Jing were arguing. When he got nearer, he saw Xie Jing walking away quickly. Her eyes were red and looked like she had cried. Xie Guoliang was standing there angrily.

"Uncle." This was the only way to the living room, and Dong Xuebing could not avoid it.

Xie Guoliang looked at Dong Xuebing and sighed. "Xiao Jing is too stubborn."

Dong Xuebing knew the argument should be about Sun Kai and did not say anything.

Xie Guoliang patted Dong Xuebing's back. "Let's go and have dinner."

During dinner, Xie Jing and Sun Kai were ignored by the elders. Only Dong Xuebing and Xie Hao talked with them once in a while. None of the elders had said a word to Sun Kai.

Xie Jing's tears rolled down her cheeks as she ate.

Chapter 938: Xie Jing's tears

Xie Jing and her family's clash happened.

After dinner, Xie Hao dragged Dong Xuebing to the backyard. He wanted Dong Xuebing to teach him martial arts, and they heard Xie Jing quarreling with Xie Guoliang and Xia Yanzhen.

“Dad! Mum! What are you two trying to do?!” Xie Jing was furious.

Xia Yanzhen sighed. “We are doing this for your good.”

Xie Jing shouted angrily. “I did not say I want to marry him. We are just dating!”

Xie Guoliang said. “You will not stay in Xin Hua News Agency forever and might be a County Mayor or a City Mayor like your Eldest Sister. You must work hard and not be distracted by relationships. That Xiao Sun is not suitable for you. He is too ordinary. Don’t think we reached this decision before finding out about him. Do you think we don’t know he went to Taiwan with you all?! His character is too weak and not aggressive. He is not the right person for you.”

Xie Jing was furious. “You all refused to accept him because he has no background!”

Xia Yanzhen stroked her daughter’s hair. “That’s one of the reasons.”

“My Brother-in-law did not have any background too, but grandfather approved his marriage with Sis.”

Xie Guoliang coldly replied. “How can you compare Sun Kai with Xiao Dong? Don’t you know about Xiao Dong’s capabilities? Just look at his character. He faced difficulties and dared to fight for what he wanted. Can Sun Kai do the same?”

“Brother-in-law had moved up his ranks slowly. How do you all know Sun Kai cannot do the same?”

“Some people have the gift since they are born. Just look at your Eldest Sister. She is born to be an Official. Even Xiao Ran cannot be compared to her. Your Brother-in-law’s capabilities are not something you can have by working hard. Even if we help Sun Kai, he will not go far.”

Both sides could not convince each other, and their argument got heated.

Xie Jing shouted. “I don’t care! I want to date Sun Kai!”

Xie Guoliang was also mad. “Fine. I will call Sun Kai’s school and see if they dare to continue to hire him!”

Xie Jing was fuming. “Dad! You....”

Xie Guoliang continued. “If you continue to see him, I will ensure he will be kicked out of the Beijing education system!” It might be boasting if someone else said it. But Xie Guoliang has the authority to do it.

Xia Yanzhen pushed her husband lightly and said to her daughter. “Xiao Jing, just think about it. There are better choices out there. Who knows if you will meet the right person a few days later?”

Xie Jing was furious. “I want to be with Sun Kai! I don’t care if you all get his school to fire him!”

“Fine!” Xie Guoliang took out his phone and made a call. “Hello, Old Li! Do you know that high school principal?”

Xie Jing turned pale and could not say anything.

Dong Xuebing's impression of Xie Guoliang was a good temper and a friendly person. However, he had lost his temper today because of his daughter. It seems like Sun Kai will lose his job soon. Even if he did not make any mistake, the school principal could make up any reason to fire him.

Dong Xuebing and Xie Hao exchanged looks and quickly left the backyard.

Dong Xuebing was staying at Senior Xie's mansion today. He returned to his room and did not see Xie Huilan. She should be chatting with her parents.

Dong Xuebing opened the windows to smoke and did not plan to interfere with Xie Huilan's family affairs. After all, he is the son-in-law and not a son.

Half an hour.

One hour....

Suddenly, the door opened.

Dong Xuebing turned and was surprised. "Xiao Jing, what's wrong? You...."

Xie Jing was covered in tears. "Brother-in-law...."

"Ah... Come in." Dong Xuebing poured a glass of hot tea for her and asked. "What happened?"

Xie Jing cried. "Sun Kai just called me. He told me he was fired from his school."

Dong Xuebing paused for a second. "It's still the school holidays now."

"My Dad had called his school principal, and the principal found an excuse to fire him. He claimed many parents had complained against him."

Dong Xuebing thought to himself. Why are you coming to me now?

Xie Jing cried louder when she saw Dong Xuebing not saying anything. "My Dad is too much. Although Sun Kai did not blame me, I... I...."

Dong Xuebing replied. "You can speak to Huilan's father."

"I tried. My Eldest Uncle and Aunt did not want to interfere. It must be my Dad who told them not to help."

Xie Guobang is Beijing's Party Secretary. If he cannot do anything regarding family matters, let alone Dong Xuebing. "You can ask Huilan."

"I did." Xie Jing sobbed. "She disagrees with our relationship too. She said she would plead with my Dad to allow Sun Kai back to his school if I broke up with him. She will also help him get a leadership position. But...."

Dong Xuebing scratched his head. "What about Senior Xie?"

"Don't talk about my grandfather. He does not like Sun Jai at all."

"Then what do you want me to do?"

Xie Jing looked at Dong Xuebing. "Brother-in-law, can you help Sun Kai find a school and let him be a small leader? I don't want to break up with him."

I knew it."

Dong Xuebing shook his head. "Your Sister is in charge of Fen Zhou City Education Ministry. What can I do if she disagrees with your relationship? Moreover, your father and Senior Xie...."

"Brother-in-law...."

"Xiao Jing, I really can't do anything...."

"Brother-in-law, I know you will find a way." Xie Jing sobbed.

Dong Xuebing's weakness was softhearted. He felt terrible when he saw Xie Jing sad and lit a cigarette. "You are making me a sinner." Senior Xie, Xie Guobang, Xie Guojian, and even Xie Huilan agreed with Xie Guoliang. If he helped Xie Jing, he would be going against everyone's wishes.

"Brother-in-law...."

"Sigh...."

"Brother-in-law...."

Dong Xuebing could not stand it. "Fine.... Tell Sun Kai to leave with me tomorrow morning. Since he cannot teach in Beijing, I will help him get a job in a school elsewhere and let him be a leader. You must not tell anyone."

Xie Jing cheered. "Thank you, Brother-in-law. Thank you."

Xie Jing knew Dong Xuebing would help her, and her tears were not wasted.

Dong Xuebing saw Xie Jing smiling immediately and was speechless. "You ah.... You are getting me into trouble."

Chapter 939: Argument

Bedroom.

The door opened suddenly when Dong Xuebing and Xie Jing were talking.

"What are you all talking about?" Xie Huilan entered the room. "What do you mean by getting into trouble?"

Xie Jing replied uneasily. "Nothing, Sis. Why are you here?"

Xie Huilan smiled. "This has always been my room in Senior Xie's mansion. Can't I come in?"

"No." Xie Jing stood up immediately. "Errr.... Sis, Brother-in-law, I will go to bed first."

Xie Huilan stopped Xie Jing when she walked past her. "Wait. What were you two talking about? Tell me."

Dong Xuebing gave Xie Huilan a stare. "We are not talking about anything. Let's go to bed."

Xie Huilan stared at her younger sister for a while before saying. "Are you asking your Brother-in-law to help Sun Kai get a job and help him in his career? Don't pretend. I watch you grow up, and I know what you are thinking. I am telling you now. There's no room for negotiation. Sun Kai is not the right person for you. Your father was only scaring and pressuring him. If you break up with him, your father will help him with his career. You should know although our family members are holding high positions, we are not unreasonable."

Xie Jing got mad when Xie Huilan mentioned her father. "What do I know? I don't know anything! He was being unreasonable." She paused and added. "You are also unreasonable."

Xie Huilan smiled. "Oh wow, you have grown up. You dare to stare at me now."

Xie Jing argued. "We are not getting married. Why can't we date?"

"What's the point of dating if you two are not getting married?" Xie Huilan replied. "You should know about your status. Since you are born in this family, you should know what lies ahead for you."

Xie Jing was mad. "I don't know! Our family also opposed you and Brother-in-law initially. How come you can and I can't? You are just being unreasonable!"

Xie Huilan held Xie Jing's hand. "Our situation is different."

"How is it different? It's the same to me." Xie Jing argued.

"You want to insist?!" Xie Huilan looked at her. "When Xiao Bing and I were dating, we did face objections from our family. But how did Xiao Bing handle it? He argued with our grandfather and scolded him in his face. That's when our family elders accepted him. They felt he had a fighting spirit and was fearless. Can Sun Kai do the same?"

Xie Jing replied stubbornly. "Yes!"

Dong Xuebing smacked his lips. "Huilan, what are you talking about?"

"What did I say? Huh?" Xie Huilan narrowed her eyes.

Dong Xuebing replied. "I find Xiao Sun to be a nice guy, and that's a plus point."

Xie Jing finally found someone siding with her. She moved beside Dong Xuebing and held his arm. "Brother-in-law, you treat me better."

Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. "Stop making things worse."

Dong Xuebing patted Xie Jing's back when he saw she would cry again. He turned to Xie Huilan. "You are making things worse now. Xiao Jing and Sun Kai were getting along fine, and you insisted on breaking them up. What did Sun Kai do? He even got fired for no reason. Do you remember when you courted me? Your family also disapproves of our relationship. You also fought with them. Put yourself in Xie Jing's shoes. What would you do if your family insisted we break up?"

Xie Huilan narrowed her eyes and smiled. "Let me correct you. You are the one who courted me."

Dong Xuebing retorted. "You should know who courted who. Hmph."

“Oh, are you looking for a fight?” Xie Huilan looked at Dong Xuebing. “Fine. Let’s debate.”

“Alright. No matter how we debate, you can’t change the fact that you courted me.”

Xie Jing quickly stops them. “Sis, Brother-in-law, stop fighting. You are making me feel bad.”

Dong Xuebing looked at his wife. “Look at Xiao Jing. Her eyes are swollen from crying. Don’t you care for her? I am telling you this, Huilan. I will help no matter what you say. I am not afraid of offending anyone.” He turned to Xie Jing. “Xiao Jing, leave this to me. I will help Sun Kai get a job.”

Xie Jing’s eyes turned red. “Brother-in-law, you are so nice to me.”

Xie Huilan shook her head. “Just do as you like. Don’t look for me if anyone in our family goes after you.”

Dong Xuebing rolled his eyes. “Don’t worry. I will take responsibility for what I do.”

Xie Jing sniffled. “Sorry, Brother-in-law. I caused trouble for you.”

“It’s fine.” Dong Xuebing thought for a while and said. “But remember this. Your parents and Sister are doing this because they care for you.”

Xie Jing nodded. “I know.”

Dong Xuebing nodded. “Don’t make your parents angry anymore. Huilan is right. They are only scaring you and Sun Kai and will not push him over the edge. I am helping you because I don’t want to see you upset. There are nicer men around, and I know you will not listen. Move on if you meet a better man. It’s normal to date, but marriage is forever. Think carefully and don’t rush.”

Xie Huilan smiled. “That’s more like it.”

“I will remember. Thank you, Brother-in-law.” Xie Jing said.

Xie Jing felt better after Dong Xuebing said he would help Sun Kai, and she left.

Dong Xuebing would not interfere with Xie Jing’s family affairs or help her be together with Sun Kai. However, Xie Jing begged him to help, and he could not refuse her.

Dong Xuebing said. “Huilan, it’s late. Let’s sleep.”

“You will sleep on the sofa tonight.” Xie Huilan lie on the bed. “You made me angry earlier.”

“Stop being so petty.”

“Haha.... I am so petty.”

“Hurry, move over. I am tired.”

“Then tell me. Who courted who?”

“Huh? Fine. I courted you. Are you happy now?”

“Yes. That’s more like it. Haha.... Come over and hug me.”

Chapter 940: Giving red packets

Morning of the sixth day of the Lunar New Year.

“Dad, Mum, Eldest Uncle, Aunt, Second Uncle, I am returning now.”

“Alright. Drive safely and call Huilan when you reach.”

“Yes. Please go back. It’s cold outside.”

“Here, these are for you, mother. Work starts tomorrow, and I will get someone to send Huilan back.”

“Oh, I had left some health supplements in your car. It’s for your mother and your Uncle Yang.”

“Ok. I will give it to my Mum. Thanks, Dad and Mum. I am going. Take care and call me if you need me.”

“Haha.... Sure.”

“Bye. Come again when you are free.”

“I will. Bye.”

“Brother-in-law, you must teach me martial arts the next time you come.”

“Yes.... Come visit us in Fen Zhou when you are free.”

Dong Xuebing waved goodbye to Xie Huilan and her family. Before getting into his Porsche, he exchanged looks with Xie Huilan and Xie Jing. He had left his car at his workplace, and Xie Huilan knew he would need it. She asked someone to drive his car over before Lunar New Year.

After driving a while, Dong Xuebing’s phone sounded.

It was an SMS from Xie Jing. She sent Dong Xuebing Sun Kai’s address.

Dong Xuebing replied. “Is he living in the western district?”

Xie Jing replied. “I think so. I have not been to his place.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “Alright. I am going to pick him up. Did you tell him?”

Xie Jing replied. “Yes. I told him. Thank you, Brother-in-law.”

Dong Xuebing replied. “Stop thanking me. Alright, I am going over now.”

Dong Xuebing threw his phone on the passenger seat and drove toward Sun Kai’s address. His house is located in a secluded area in a Hutong district. He had to search for a while.

Outside of the house.

Dong Xuebing got out of his car and took some of the health supplements Han Jing prepared with him. "Xiao Sun! Xiao Sun"

"Brother Dong." A door on the left opened. It was Sun Kai.

Dong Xuebing smiled. "I am early. Have you packed your luggage?"

Sun Kai looked worried. "Please wait for me to get my luggage."

Dong Xuebing heard people talking inside and asked. "It's Lunar New Year. I got to wish your parents a Happy New Year. Why are you not inviting me in?"

"Errr...."

"What's wrong?"

"Nothing.... Please... please come in."

Dong Xuebing looked around and entered the house.

Dong Xuebing was surprised by what he saw. The house was old, rundown, and small. It is around twenty square meters and only has one bedroom. He saw two beds in the bedroom and a mattress beside the living room. It was cramped with the cabinets and dining table.

Many people were inside. The older couple should be Sun Kai's parents, and there was a younger couple with a baby girl around one-year-old.

Sun Kai said awkwardly. "Sorry, my place is small."

Sun Kai's mother said. "Young man, have a seat. I will get you water."

Dong Xuebing smiled and passed her the gifts. "Don't trouble yourself, Aunty. Happy New Year. Here are some gifts for you all. I wish you longevity and good health."

Sun Kai's father quickly rejects him. "No... we cannot accept it."

"That's right." Sun Kai's mother added. "These look expensive."

Dong Xuebing placed the gifts aside. "Just accept it, or I will feel bad."

Sun Kai introduced his family to Dong Xuebing. "They are my parents, and this is my sister and Brother-in-law."

Dong Xuebing greeted them politely. No wonder Xiao Jing says she had not been to Sun Kai's house. Sun Kai would not want Xiao Jing to see his house, and he did not invite Dong Xuebing in as he was afraid he would look down on him. Dong Xuebing sighed in his heart. Who says people in Beijing are wealthy? Most of the natives here live in poverty, and the gap between the rich and poor are more significant than in other parts of China. The people living in this district are primarily poor.

Sigh....

"Are you Xiao Jing's Brother-in-law? Come in and have a seat." Sun Kai's father said.

Dong Xuebing quickly replied. "Yes, Uncle."

Sun Kai's mother added. "Sorry, our house is...."

“No.... It’s nice here. Haha.... I like the family vibes here. You don’t need to give up your seat. I can sit here.” Dong Xuebing did not let Sun Kai’s parents give up their seats on the only sofa in the house and sat beside a dirty stool.

Sun Kai’s sister quickly stops Dong Xuebing. “That stool is dirty. Sit on the sofa.”

Sun Jai quickly went over to help Dong Xuebing as he knew Dong Xuebing’s clothes were expensive.

Dong Xuebing waved his hand. “It’s not dirty. Sitting here is fine.”

Sun Kai had told his family that he was fired from his school yesterday. But he did not tell them Xie Jing’s father did it. He told them he was fired because of a mistake he made. He also told them about Xie Jing’s family and that Dong Xuebing would be helping him get another job. That’s why they were so polite to him. They poured a glass of water and brought out a fruit platter for him.

The little girl looked at the fruit platter before Dong Xuebing and said to her mother. “Mum, I want to eat oranges.”

Sun Kai’s sister gave her daughter a stare. “Stop it. That is for Uncle. I will give you some later.”

The little girl smacked her lips and nodded.

Dong Xuebing felt bad and waved to the little girl. “Come, have an orange. Uncle will peel for you.”

The little girl looked at Sun Kai’s Sister for approval and nodded.

Dong Xuebing gave the little girl a piece of orange. “Here.”

The little girl shook her head. “Uncle should eat first.”

“Haha... Ok. I will eat first.” Dong Xuebing ate a piece of orange, and the little girl started eating.

Dong Xuebing patted the little girl’s head. “She is adorable. Oh, it’s Lunar New Year, and I still have not given you a red packet. Give me your hand.”

Sun Kai quickly stops Dong Xuebing. “Brother Dong, no need.”

Sun Kai’s mother added. “That’s right. Honghong, you cannot take it.”

Dong Xuebing ignored them and took out a red packet from his bag. He had prepared many red packets to give to the children. After seeing Sun Kai’s family’s condition, he took out three red packets containing 6,666 RMB. He stuffed the red packets into Honghong’s hand. “Don’t listen to them. You must take my red packets.”

Sun Kai panicked. “Brother Dong....”

Honghong was scared. “It’s too thick.”

The three red packets were about to tear and were full of money.

Sun Kai’s parents refused to accept. “Just give Honghong one hundred will do. We cannot accept anything more.”

Dong Xuebing laughed. "It's not a lot. It's all one RMB notes inside." He opened one of the red packets and pulled out the few RMB notes from it. "See..."

"It's all one RMB note?" Sun Kai's family accepted it unwillingly. "Then... Honghong, thank Uncle."

"Thank you, Uncle."

"Don't mention it." Dong Xuebing pinched Honghong's cheeks lightly.

Sun Kai knew Dong Xuebing's red packets were not all RMB notes. How can someone with over 100 million RMB worth of assets give out red packets full of one RMB note? His Brother-in-law is on social assistance, and Sun Kai is the family's sole breadwinner. He knew Dong Xuebing was doing this to help him improve his family conditions.

"Brother Dong, I cannot accept it." Sun Kai said.

Dong Xuebing laughed. "That is my red packet for Honghong. What has it got to do with you? Have you packed your stuff? Let's go."

Sun Kai's mother said. "Stay a while more."

"No, aunty. We still have things to do. I will revisit you when I got time."

"Alright.... Please take care of Sun Kai."

"I will. Don't worry."

Sun Kai was leaving, and his family bid their goodbyes tearfully.

Dong Xuebing was touched. "It is only around a one-and-a-half-hour drive from here. He can even return home every day. I will try to transfer him back to work in Beijing if he wants to in the future. Just treat his departure as going for some training."

Sun Kai's father nodded and shook Dong Xuebing's hand. "Thank you. If he makes any mistake, go ahead and discipline him."

Dong Xuebing smiled. "What are you talking about? Xiao Sun is more mature than me, and you don't have to worry."

Sun Kai took out his luggage from the room. "Brother Dong, I am ready."

"Alright, let's go. "

Sun Kai's family walked them to the car.

Dong Xuebing waved goodbye and drove out of the Hutong district.

Sun Kai's sister looked at the back of Dong Xuebing's car and exclaimed. "I remember! That car is a Porsche! It's a sports car."

Sun Kai's Brother-in-law was shocked. "Is that the Porsche that cost a few million RMB?!"

"Oh, the red packets!"

Sun Kai's father, sister, and brother-in-law opened one red packet each.

All of them were shocked. “6,666 RMB! All three red packets amount to more than 20,000 RMB!”

Sun Kai’s mother sighed. “Xiao Jing’s family are not ordinary people. Our Xiao Kai is not good enough for her. Sigh....”
