

Chapter 127

Although they have skin close.

But Arron, the child in Lanita's belly, couldn't ignore it. He couldn't let his next generation be as miserable as his childhood and youth, so he had to marry Lanita for the child in Lanita's belly.

Lanita was yelled at by Arron, and she said incoherently, "Then I...I will leave now."

"Go back and rest! Don't come if I don't let you come over! I'll see you after I've dealt with things here! As a mother, your first task is to be responsible for the children in your stomach!"

"I know... I know." Lanita smiled weirdly, then turned and left.

And here, Christopher immediately came to Arron: "Four Lord, what Miss Lin said...is what she said is true?"

Christopher originally wanted to say, can Lanita's words be believed?

But when the words came to his lips, he swallowed again.

Arron didn't answer Christopher's question. He was thinking about another question: Is the child in Suzi's stomach Huo Jianshan's?

Seeing that Arron was silent, Christopher asked again: "Four masters, we would rather believe in the existence than in the absence, otherwise, I will abolish Huo Jianshan!"

Arron shook his head: "Don't panic. Let's talk about it after the funeral."

Arron was not afraid of Huo Jianshan's trouble. On the contrary, as long as Huo Jianshan dared to come to him, he would be able to let Huo Jianshan go without return, and he could justify the other half of Huo Jianshan's industry.

Therefore, Arron only waited for Huo Jianshan to come.

On the contrary, Suzi, Arron thought of this woman, and his eyes were a little bit late.

But Arron didn't say anything.

He doesn't think about anything now, just thinking that his mother can be buried. Shanna was buried the next day.

After handling his mother's affairs, Arron was not immersed in grief, but entered the family business as quickly as possible.

Christopher reminded him on the way to send Arron to work: "Four Lord, when I went to the hospital yesterday to pack the old lady's belongings, I saw the husband...I saw the woman at the entrance of the hospital."

"Who!" Arron knew who Christopher was referring to.

"Shen...Suzi." Christopher said.

"Let her disappear!" Arron said without thinking.

Christopher: "..."

He didn't know how to comfort the Fourth Master. The Fourth Master kept asking him to find out who was the man who made Suzi pregnant. After checking, it turned out to be Huo Jianshan?

Huo Jianshan's immortal thing is the enemy of the Fourth Master.

A woman who was the enemy of the Fourth Master, deliberately ran to the Fourth Master, what on earth did she want to do?

However, intuition tells Christopher that Suzi is not such a woman.

"Today is the third day of the burial day. Are we going to the round grave now?" Christopher reminded Arron.

"Well, go to my mother's cemetery."

Christopher drove all the way to the cemetery where Shanna was buried. Halfway out of the car, a light misty rain floated in the sky. He came to the cemetery. Not many people went to the grave. The huge cemetery was quiet, but Shanna The cemetery is the best feng shui location, the largest tomb, and the tomb money is full of wreaths.

Two men dressed in black, holding black umbrellas, with solemn faces, can see the most eye-catching new tomb as soon as they enter the door of the cemetery.

However, neither of them expected that there was a person kneeling in front of the tomb.

Chapter 128

In the sparse light rain, Suzi knelt down in front of Shanna's grave with a black umbrella. A bunch of white and yellow chrysanthemum flowers were placed in front of Shanna's tombstone.

Suzi shed tears and said to Shanna alone: "I'm sorry, Aunt Xia, I didn't go to your spirit to see you off. I know that you are living and wandering, and you have always been very bitter.

But now it's finally done. You can be buried with your parents and sister. On that side, you can finally not be alone.

Aunt Xia, I envy you so much.

After my mother died, you were my last relative, but you also passed away.

Oooooo..."

Suzi's cry was so small that Arron and Christopher who walked in did not hear Suzi crying, but Suzi heard the footsteps coming, and when he turned around, he saw Arron with a cold face behind him. , And a face of Christopher with an unknown expression.

Christopher gaped his tongue, trying to say something to Suzi, but he didn't say anything.

Suzi was slightly embarrassed.

She got up, closed her forehead and her hair wet by the rain, and gently said to Arron: "I'm sorry Mr. Fu, I came to Aunt Xia's grave without your permission. I have no other meaning, I just want to come. Take a look at Aunt Xia, and just send her a bunch of flowers. I...let's go now."

She has a good relationship with Aunt Xia, but Arron is Aunt Xia's son.

Suzi turned around and walked away. After walking down two steps, she turned around and said firmly to Arron's back: "Mr. Fu, since Aunt Xia has passed away, see when you are free, we will divorce The formalities are done, the sooner the better.

As for the cost promised to me in the contract between you and me, I...no more! "

No more!

These words really shocked Arron and Christopher. The two turned to look at Suzi at the same time.

Suzi's expression is always cold and cold: "You won't believe me what I told you before. You always thought I approached Aunt Xia because I had a plan for you. So I can only admit it.

At that time, I pretended to be an external waiter and went to the Fu family's old house banquet because Aunt Xia's lifelong wish was to be recognized by the Fu family. When she knew that the Fu's family banquet, she wanted to participate, but she was in the hospital bed. Can't participate.

Even if Aunt Xia is not in the hospital bed, Patriarch Fu and Elder Fu will not let Aunt Xia in. That's why Aunt Xia asked me to take a camera and go to Fu's house to take pictures for her to see.

This is the real reason why I went to Fu's house.

In addition, I am greedy for money.

But I am a woman who just came out of jail. She had no job and no deposit. As soon as I came out, I signed a contract with you to take care of Aunt Xia. You only promise to pay me when the contract expires, but I always do it. There is no money, so I borrow money everywhere, including asking you to borrow money.

I asked you about the contract earlier because I had to ask for the money. I have a child in my stomach and I will feed my child in the future.

Mr. Fu, I explained everything you can explain. But I don't need the money now.

I just want to tell you that I took care of Aunt Xia for more than a month not for money. I really regard Aunt Xia as a relative. I don't want to desecrate my feelings for Aunt Xia because of this signing.

As for what you think of me, that is your business.

I also know that you have great wealth and power. You want a person to die three times, but that person does not dare to die five times. You want to squeeze me to death, just like an ant. If you really want my life, you can come and ask for it at any time, and I will not resist. It just so happens that I can go down to find my mother and Aunt Xia. "

Arron: "..."

At this moment, I was speechless.

She is a person who talks very little. He only talked twice when he saw her talk frequently, once when he was kind to her in those few days and bought her clothes and a computer.

And this time.
