

Chapter 149

The woman originally came from the countryside and didn't know a few words. Because she was so outstanding, she followed Huo Jianshan in her early twenties, who was in her early sixties. She had been with Huo Jianshan for ten years and had never seen the wind and rain outside.

After being provoked by Moira and Lanita for a while, the woman immediately became a murder tool in the hands of Lanita and Moira.

Lanita thought that she would be able to succeed this time, and she would be able to provoke Suzi.

However, at the most dangerous time, Arron saved Suzi.

Lanita's heart became more and more jealous.

When she returned home, Moira saw Lanita's teary and desperate look, so she asked her, "Lanita, how is it? Did the woman kill Suzi?"

"Mom, woo woo woo." Lanita cried even more frustrated: "When can we get rid of Suzi, she's fate, she's very hard for her life!"

Moira hates it too!

Suzi did not die for a day, and she and her daughter Lanita had a restless life.

Now there is no other way to go, the only way is to kill Suzi.

Moira held her daughter's face and comforted her: "Lanita, you listened to my mother. We'll only do twice if we don't do it once. If we don't do it twice, we can't do it three times. In Arron's eyes, Suzi must be a properly tattered product.

As long as Arron feels sick with Suzi, our Lin family is safe, and you can be favored by the Four Young Masters, understand your daughter? "

Lanita cried and nodded.

Moira sneered: "You can't say anything to let Suzi and Arron be alone, Lanita, you should call Arron now and ask him what he is doing? You should also care about him."

Lanita nodded. Then he took out his cell phone and called Arron.

At the other end, in the hospital, Arron's hands have been debrided and are slinging.

The wound was not deep, so there was no suture. When the doctor debrided Arron, he did not give him anesthetic at Arron's request.

When Suzi watched Arron directly debride the wound without anesthetic, she suddenly felt a trance.

Why is she so similar to him?

A few days ago, her arm was debrided and no anesthetic was used. She was crying in pain at the time. Looking at Arron now, like a okay person.

She asked: "No...does it hurt?"

The man sneered, but did not answer.

What is this pain?

He has many wounds all over his body, but he has never used anesthetics, because the body will numb his nerves when he uses anesthetics. He is most afraid of being on the verge of being on the verge of killing his nerves.

Therefore, anesthetics are never used.

At this moment, Arron's cell phone rang, and the man's hand that had just been debrided couldn't move, while the other hand was in the bottle. His cold voice commanded Suzi: "Help me answer."

Suzi: "Me?"

"Answer the phone!"

Suzi picked up the phone and immediately connected: "Hey..."

Chapter 150

"Who are you? Why are you holding my husband's cell phone to answer the call for my husband?" Lanita's hysterical and sharp questioning voice came from the other end.

Suzi: "I..."

She looked at Arron embarrassedly, her heart depressed to the extreme.

She didn't expect that this call would be from Lanita, because Arron didn't store this phone number in his cell phone. At first hearing Lanita's straightforward and sharp questioning, Suzi felt that he was at a loss.

She put the phone in Arron's ear.

"Hey!" Arron's tone was extremely unhappy.

"Husband...Four young masters, oh oh, how come there is a woman next to you, she dare to answer the phone for you, who is she? oh oh." Lanita screamed, still Do not forget to ask Arron Jiao Didi.

In fact, she knew who the voice was on the phone.

Even though there was only one sound, Lanita was sure that it was Suzi who answered the call for Arron just now.

Because Lanita saw Arron with his own eyes to block the cut for Suzi, and watched Suzi bandage Arron's wound, and got into the ambulance with Arron.

It must be Suzi!

However, Arron on this end of the phone said very calmly: "Nurse!"

Lanita: "..."

Knowing that Arron was prevaricating her, Lanita dared not say anything. She could only pretend to be surprised and asked Arron: "What's the matter with you Fourth Young Master? You really have a nurse by your side. Are you sick? What's wrong with you?"

"I'm fine! I'm just upset to hear your noise!" Arron said impatiently.

Lanita: "Woo...I care about it. After I tried on the wedding dress, I always felt a little drop in my belly when I came out of the bridal shop and drove back in the car. I yelled when I came home and lay on the bed. The family doctor came over and showed me..."

"What's wrong!" Arron immediately raised his voice and asked. Lanita said in a slightly aggrieved voice: "The doctor said that there was nothing serious. She had just left. Before leaving, my mother specifically said that pregnant women are emotionally unstable. People must stay with me more so that they can treat the fetus. It's good for your development..."

Arron's expression remained unchanged.

It's just that the gaze deepens, as if suppressing some kind of anger.

He knew that this was another trick Lanita used to act like a baby.

Why is this woman so hypocritical and able to act like a baby?

Every time he wanted to get angry with Lanita, Arron would think of the child in her stomach.

He can't allow his next generation to follow in his footsteps. Now that he has a child, he must let the child be justified.

He eased his tone: "There was a small accident on my side, nothing serious! I just tried the wedding dress this morning. Maybe it was too tired to try the wedding dress. Please take a good rest. I'll go to see you after I've dealt with the matter here. "

"Our wedding..." This is what Lanita cares most about.

"The wedding will be held as scheduled!" Arron said.

Listening to Arron discussing marriage with Lanita on the phone, Suzi felt ironic. Just three hours ago, she had just divorced Arron.

And Arron is about to enter the marriage palace.

Or marry her enemy of Suzi, how can she stay here again?

Seeing Arron still comforting Lanita, and seeing Arron's hand shouldn't be a big problem, Suzi quietly left the ward door.

Christopher was standing outside the ward. Originally he planned to serve Arron in the ward, but seeing Suzi there, Christopher specially left room for the two of them.

"Mr. Yan, thank you." Suzi said.

Christopher opened his mouth and said, "Madam...that, Miss Shen, why did you come out?"
