

Chapter 185

Suzi also felt a sense of security in his heart.

She didn't expect that she had met Arron and Joan during her two months in Yuncheng, and had borrowed money from Darius no matter what.

The only thing she didn't really meet was Sanford.

Every time she saw Joan, she would see Sanford and Joan together, and Sanford never spoke to her every time, just smiled faintly at her.

But I never thought that it was Sanford who gave up his life to save her today.

"Thank you, Ze Shao..." Suzi said silently in his heart.

Sanford comforted her: "We will be safe when we leave Nancheng. We will come back later when we have a chance."

Suzi shook his head firmly: "Nancheng, I will never come back again. That person, I will never look for him again. When my child is born, I will tell him that his father is dead."

Nancheng, goodbye!

Arron, see you again!

Maybe Arron will never want to see her again, right?

At this moment, Arron should be holding Lanita into the marriage palace, right?

Tears blurred Suzi's vision.

At the other end, Arron did not enter the marriage hall with Lanita as Suzi thought.

After Arron drove Suzi out, Lanita came to him, and Xiaoniao Yiren took him by the arm and said, "Four young master, thank you for helping me decide. Suzi has always been jealous of me. , I told you before that you might not believe it, but now you finally believe it."

Arron's eyes looked at Lanita coldly. Lanita trembled in her heart.

But Arron was always so cold, and she was used to it. She squeezed a smile and said, "Go in, Fourth Young Master?"

To this day, Lanita and Arron have entered the marriage hall, and Lanita dare not call Arron's name directly.

She was afraid of Arron.

But what about Suzi, who called Arron directly? She should be mashed by a big truck now, right?

Hehe!

Holding Arron's arm and following Arron, Lanita walked towards the wedding hall step by step under the envy of the many blessed guests on both sides of the red carpet.

At this moment, her heart was extremely happy.

She has finally become Arron's wife. From now on, she will be the veritable young lady of the Fu family. There is no second woman as noble as her in Quannan City. The famous Shuyuan who had trampled on her Lanita before, now One by one, all of them had to look at her Lanita's expression.

Haha!

That's so cool.

She walked very slowly.

She just made all the young women present envious to death, vomiting blood with envy and hatred.

It took a long time to walk on the red carpet, and it took ten minutes to reach the auditorium.

They held a Western-style wedding. When the priest presiding over their wedding asked Arron loudly, "Excuse me, Mr. Fu, would you like to marry Lanita? From now on, whether you are poor or rich, whether you are healthy or sick, whether... .."

"I don't want to!" Arron interrupted the priest.

Chapter 186

Lanita: "... " She opened her mouth wide in surprise, her eyes widened, and she looked at Arron without the image of a bride: "Four...Four young masters, this... ..Why is this? For..."

Behind him, the guests sitting in the auditorium were also stunned.

Jarod and Moira in the main position were even more panicked. From being proud a second ago to falling into the abyss a second later, the couple almost felt like they were about to be thrown to death.

Moira couldn't suppress the questioning voice even more: "Why, Arron Fu, why is this? Lanita is pregnant with your child, that is your child!"

Even Arron's grandfather, Fu Hengsheng, asked in a puzzled way: "Qin'er, don't go too far. The wedding has reached this point. The Lin family is still pregnant with your child. You will not get married at this time. , Can't justify it!"

But Fu Hengsheng just talked about it.

He knew that this grandson would definitely not listen to him, and Arron would not listen to anyone.

Sure enough, Arron didn't even have an explanation, but coldly said to the priest: "I don't want to marry her."

Then he turned and walked off the stage.

No one of the guests dared to say anything, and some of them were gloating, because everyone in Jeonnam City knew that the Lin family was a member of the Fu family. In the past, Jarod was a small merchant with less than 100 million capital. It was because of Lin. Jarod became a dog in front of Fu Shaocong and was able to cling to the Fu family.

However, Fu Shaocong fell, and Jarod once again clung to the Fu family by virtue of his daughter being slept by Arron. So no one of the real upper-class rich can afford the Lin family.

The ladies who came to the wedding today were even more displeased by Lanita, especially when Lanita took Arron's arm into the wedding hall just now, how ugly and ugly that she was so overwhelmed.

Now that's all right, Arron is unwilling to marry her.

Haha!

How many people applaud. "Four young masters!" Lanita cried and cried behind her: "You still can't forget Suzi, can you? Suzi is a woman who has done all the bad things and is very dishonest. Why do you always fail to forget her, she seduce You, seduce Mr. Ling, seduce Ze Shao, even Shu Shao will not let her go. This is what everyone sees. She is the first and the last. She clearly promises in front of all people that she will never again. Will come back to Cloud City.

But when we got married today, she still came to the scene.

Such a woman, you still think of her? "

Arron walked halfway, and suddenly paused.

"Four young master, have you changed your mind?" Lanita ran to Arron in surprise, and looked up at Arron with tears.

Arron looked condescendingly at the woman in front of him.

Very disgusted in my heart!

He said coldly: "We have already entered the marriage hall with me. You still call me the Fourth Young Master. Don't you think we are very unequal like this? My wife should call my name, and With your family, it is a kind of flattery to me from beginning to end.

My wife, Arron, is not like this! "

After speaking, he turned and left again.

"No! Fourth Young Master! No! You can't go, you have to be responsible to me..." Lanita cried in disintegration, and dragged Arron in an attempt to keep Arron in this way.

Arron's deep eyes said without expression: "Come here!"

"Yes, Fourth Lord!" Four bodyguards responded.

"Send Miss Lin and her family back to the Lin family, and then all the servants of the Lin family are replaced! Then we will find qualified servants to take care of Miss Lin's family of three, focusing on her fetus until she gives birth to the child. .

During this period, there can be no mistakes! "
