

Chapter 365

Linda: "..."

The director immediately scolded: "Linda! As a company employee, you can't talk nonsense if you don't see things with your own eyes! Suzi, now you tell me what happened to Rayna's injury!"

Is it because Xiaosan is the director of her?

However, the employee under her hand injured a person during work. This is a major event. What's more, the employee is still a newcomer. The director thought to himself that she might be able to open Suzi today.

Too many things!

She looked at Suzi with solemn eyes, to see how Suzi answered.

As a result, Suzi calmly said: "Director, I think the personnel department, logistics department, and security department will give you and me the best answer. Since you are my leader, please help me deal with it now. Take this one!"

The director looked at Suzi and nodded, "That's good."

The two went to the personnel department together. After the director negotiated with the personnel department, he called in the logistics management staff and went to the monitoring room together.

After the surveillance was called out, they found that Rayna went to the logistics warehouse silently, found a scrapped chair, sneaked it onto Suzi's seat, and then replaced Suzi's chair. . After Suzi came back, he returned the chair to Rayna's seat.

Rayna sat down without knowing it and was injured.

The director, the personnel manager, and the security department all had nothing to say.

"Is there anything else?" Suzi asked, looking at the director.

Director: "... This is really a hot potato.

If you don't deal with Suzi, after Rayna recovers from her injury, she won't be able to explain to several big bosses. If Suzi is fired, don't look at the new employee who is quiet and honest, but from Suzi Yes, it's not a soft persimmon.

What can I do?

The director called Suzi to his office and said earnestly: "Suzi, you just came here and didn't understand the situation. You can't offend Rayna in the company. Rayna is our company's major shareholder Darius. Cousin.

In our company, she is the existence of relatives of the emperor.

In this way, you hide at home for two days.

Come back when she is angry! "

Suzi nodded: "Okay."

She knew that her job should be over.

If I wanted a salary, I just thought about it for two days, so forget it.

This evening, Suzi left work with a little melancholy. She wanted this job more. Despite this and that situation, as long as the personnel department and the design director did not fire her, she would continue to do it here. She was not afraid of gossip. , Not afraid of Rayna's finding fault.

She just wants a job.

However, this little wish could not be realized.

Forget it, let's continue looking for work tomorrow.

Suzi walked from one person to the bus station, and when she turned a corner at the intersection, a car stopped in front of her.

Suzi was startled. When he saw the insider in the car window, Suzi was even more shocked: "You... why are you here?"

Chapter 366

"Can you drive?" Arron asked in the car.

Suzi was inexplicable, but still answered: "No."

Christopher next to him said a little more: "Madam, in this era when everyone has a driver's license, why don't you know how to drive?"

Regardless of whether Christopher was worried that his fourth master would fire him in the morning, he became acquainted with his wife again during the day, and Christopher himself did not realize that he was particularly afraid of death recently.

However, the strict questioning stopped Suzi.

Sitting in the car, Suzi still had a look of loneliness in his eyes.

Just like the situation encountered in the company yesterday and today, it is possible for any new employee to retreat from the job.

However, Suzi will not.

She has suffered from this kind of squeeze and bullying since she arrived at the Lin family at the age of twelve. If she always wants to run away in anger, the problem of dropping out of school is small.

She might starve to death.

Therefore, it is Suzi's first concern to solve the problem of food and clothing from childhood, and she can't even think of anything else.

Suzi never imagined that one day he could drive his own car.

Therefore, she never thought about learning a driver's license.

She only remembered that when both she and Lanita were less than eighteen years old, Lanita had her first car, which was still a million-dollar sports car. At that time, Lanita was not old enough to take it. With a driver's license, Lanita could only drive the addiction of driving on a closed road near her home.

One weekend when Suzi had to go back to Lin's house to pay for living expenses with a schoolbag from school, he saw Lanita, who had poor driving skills, rammed his car around.

As she hit, she shouted: "Suzi! Are you a dead person! Obviously you saw me driving, and you were still blocking my way. Where do I drive? Where do you go, you die!" The result was Shen. Suzi hid there, and Lanita drove there.

In the end, Suzi hid behind a tree, and Lanita's car also slammed into the tree.

Lanita slammed blood out of her head.

Suzi was also injured.

As a result, Jarod, Moira, and Qi Qi made Suzi kneel.

If it wasn't for avoiding Suzi, Lanita would not hit a tree.

The worst words Jarod said is still fresh in Suzi's memory: "Next time you see Lanita driving, just stand there and don't move!"

Suzi immediately asked, "Uncle Lin, what if Lanita hits me?"

"You deserve it!"

This is what Jarod said to Suzi.

At that time, Lanita often had the addiction to driving at her door. Once Lanita drove at the door of her house again, and Suzi went home on weekends. When she saw Lanita driving at the door, Suzi didn't. After going forward, she sat at the intersection on the way home. After a long time, Suzi fell asleep.

When she woke up again, it was late at night, and she was hungry and cold. When she returned to Lin's house, it took a long time to pat the door before a servant came out to open the door for Suzi. The servant said maliciously, "It's you. I didn't go home late at night when I was young, what did you do outside! The smell of dirt all over! Stay away from me!"

When the servant finished speaking, he turned and went back to his bedroom.

Suzi could only enter the gate of the Lin family, but could not enter the interior of the Lin family. She spent a long time shooting outside the door, and no one came out to open the door for her, and the servant only yawned from the window where she was. In a word: "You are so noisy! I don't deserve to be punished if I don't come back in the middle of the night."

That night, Suzi only entered the Lin family's yard gate, but couldn't enter the house. She was cold and hungry. In the end, to prevent herself from freezing to death, she stayed in the Lin family's kennel all night.

This is the treatment of Suzi in the Lin family.

It's been over ten years, and now I think about it, my eyes are still full of tears.

