

Peasant 361

Chapter 361: Identity

Ye Muyu pushed the medical book in front of him.

She thought to herself, 'If I knew that the other party was here for the medical book, I would have said it directly. Why did I beat around the bush?'

Was she not turning a small conflict into a big one?

Qi Sang felt that getting the medical book was still a little unreal, so he did not mind Ye Muyu copying it.

The Lu family's medical books were originally precious because of the book itself. What they copied was only the surface. It was indeed as what Madam Ye said, the surface only recorded the ordinary content.

"Since you've given me the medical book, I naturally won't stay in this lousy village anymore." Qi Sang confirmed the authenticity of the book and quickly put it away. A smug smile flashed across his eyes. Chu Heng's fingers on Ye Muyu's palm froze.

Ye Muyu subconsciously looked at him.

She wanted to know what he wanted to do.

Chu Heng said to her, "Ah Yu, go out first. I'll talk to Doctor Qi alone for a while. I'll get him to look at your body later."

"Alright." Although Ye Muyu knew Chu Heng wanted to do something, he would never harm his own family.

She stood up decisively, not even caring about Qi Sang's smug expression.

Ye Muyu had guessed that the medical book was not as simple as she had thought.

Even so, she did not intend to possess the medical book.

She had read many medical books in her previous life, so it was easy for her to memorize them. There was no need to snatch their ancestral heirlooms.

As for the relationship between Doctor Lu and Qi Sang...

Presumably, Chu Heng knew about it.

She only needed to ask Chu Heng after Qi Sang left.

Ye Muyu was not an indecisive person. As an outsider, she should not be thick-skinned to ask about the grudge between Doctor Lu and the Lu family. Doctor Lu did not tell her not to hand it over to others.

With Doctor Lu's intelligence, how could he not have considered the possibility that some clansmen might come to retrieve the book?

Since he could think of it, he did not tell her not to give it to them.

It could be seen that he also had a somewhat fated attitude towards the ownership of the medical book.

Ye Muyu walked out of the main room and saw Madam Hu and Zhang Shu waiting at the door. Seeing her come out, the two of them quickly came up to her.

"Madam, are you alright?" Madam Hu asked softly.

was surprised to see the worry in their eyes.

Unknowingly, the couple had slowly and sincerely treated her as their master.

“Madam, do you still want to serve the bitter gourd tea?” Madam Hu hesitated.

Ye Muyu could not help but laugh when she saw that Madam hu obviously felt that it was inappropriate, but Madam Hu just did not dare to refute her request.

“No need. Normal tea is fine. Give me some bitter gourd tea. Don’t waste it.” Ye Muyu wanted to make the bitter gourd tea for herself.

As for making fun of Qi Sang, it was actually because this person was too arrogant. She wanted him to suffer a little.

“Got it, Madam.” Madam Hu heaved a sigh of relief and smiled sincerely.

Then, she retreated into the kitchen to serve tea.

Ye Muyu went straight into the study and sat down to wait.

Seeing that Ye Muyu was fine, Zhang Shu retreated to the yard to sweep the floor. As for his own master, he was not worried at all. Others could bully anyone but Chu Heng.

In the central room...

After Ye Muyu left, Chu Heng tapped his fingers on the table. He looked at Qi

Sang and said directly, "I know the concealment method of this medical book. If you are willing, I can keep my mouth shut. Of course, you have to promise me one condition."

"You know it?!" Qi Sang was stunned at first, then shocked.

"If I'm not wrong, you should be the eldest grandson of the Lu family, Lu Sangqi. Doctor Lu is the third son of the Lu family, your uncle.."

Chapter 362: Secret

"How did you know?" Lu Sangqi did not pretend anymore after his identity was exposed, but he was even more shocked. He looked at Chu Heng with some doubt, but his heart was full of vigilance.

Chu Heng did not want Qi Sang to stay in the village, nor did he want to see him spend more time with Ah Yu.

No matter what reason Ah Yu had for treating him differently, he felt it was better for him not to stay long.

He did not want to get more and more uncomfortable.

Lu Sangqi noticed the disgust in his eyes and wondered if he had seen wrongly.

Why did he come to this village?

He had already been despised by many people!

He was the Young Master of the Lu family in the capital city.

No matter how resentful Lu Sangqi looked, Chu Heng ignored him. "I'll return this medical book to you. Take it to your grandfather."

"Why should I believe you?" Lu Sangqi's mind was full of questions about Chu Heng's words, so he naturally would not listen to him.

"Imperial Physician Lu is currently serving the favored Deng Jieyu in the palace, right?" Chu Heng calmly took a sip of tea.

Lu Sangqi's eyes widened. He was even more confused about Chu Heng. He pressed his lips together and asked, "How do you know?"

"This information isn't difficult to find out." Chu Heng understood his personality. Although he was spoiled, he still cared about the life and death of his family.

That was enough. After all, he had never thought of helping the Lu family before. Now that he had coincidentally met Lu Congyuan and Lu Congyuan was considered Ah Yu's savior, he would be able to repay the favor by reminding Lu Sangqi. As for what the Lu family would choose, it had nothing to do with him.

He did not have the energy to help outsiders.

"Since he is taking care of a favored concubine, it is not a good thing for the imperial physician if the concubine is pregnant with a dragon fetus."

"And now, no dragon child has been safely born in the palace."

The current Emperor of Great Chu, Emperor Mingzong, had been in power for ten years, but no prince had been born. This was also known to everyone in the court. Although there were no princes, there were princesses. It proved that there was nothing wrong with the emperor's body.

Was there any secret behind this?

Lu Sangqi's face changed slightly at Chu Heng's reminder. He was worried about his grandpa.

His grandfather was not young anymore and should have reached the age of retirement. However, as the old imperial physician in the Imperial Hospital, Emperor Mingzong was used to having him give treatment and did not want him to leave. As a result, his grandfather had always stayed in the Imperial Hospital.

As a junior, he would go to Jing City once or twice a year to deliver his gifts.

However, his grandfather would always chase him back, complaining that his medical skills were not good enough and that he was embarrassing himself in Jing City.

Although there were indeed many talents in Jing City, he should not be demoted to the point of being useless, right?

Could it be that his grandpa was worried that he would not be able to return if he stayed in Jing City for too long?

Lu Sangqi felt that there was a loophole in his idea. If something really happened to his grandfather, even if his whole family was in his hometown, they would be in trouble.

Although he could not figure it out, he was still a little worried about the old man.

Although the old man always despised his medical skills for not being good enough.

"This medical book belongs to me. I can give it to whoever I want. I don't need you to remind me."
Although he felt that Chu Heng's words were reasonable, he did not want to lower his head in front of him.

He did not want to lose face.

Chu Heng took another sip of tea. "As you wish."

Lu Sangqi was choked by his attitude. He was anxious, but the other party was calm.

However, this emotion only lasted for a moment. He secretly pondered in his heart. He wanted to see if this person was just guessing or if his identity was really not simple..

Chapter 363: An Explanation

Not only did Lu Sangqi have to send a message to Jing City, but he also had to personally guard this place.

“Since you’re done talking, let’s get down to business. Didn’t you want me to give Madam Ye a checkup? Let her come over.” Lu Sangqi said carelessly.

“Please call my wife Mrs. Chu, or Lady Ye.” Chu Heng’s eyes darkened slightly, and there was a look of warning in them.

“What if I don’t?” Lu Sangqi could not help but choke.

“Then call the Lu family to bring you back. My wife doesn’t need you to see her.” Chu Heng did not give him any face at all. He did not have much patience for the rebellious young master, but his face was as black as ink, making it impossible to tell what he was thinking.

Even though he said that he wanted to chase Lu Sangqi away, he was thinking that he should find something for him to do so that he wouldn’t wander around.

‘ You’re so cruel!’ Lu Sangqi was furious.

“But I’m still very curious. How did Scholar Chu know about my family?” The reason why he was afraid that news would spread back home was naturally because the Lu family was also restless.

He was not the only one who wanted this medical book.

It was just that the others did not move as fast as him.

“Oh, because the provincial examination is coming up, I learned some things about the capital city from the school.” He did not say anything else. Anyway, he knew. After all, what happened in the residence was not a secret. Moreover, the Lu family was not united, so he could naturally find out the news.

Lu Sangqi’s feelings could only be described as complicated. Of course, he was more and more afraid of Chu Heng.

According to his previous investigation, Chu Heng was an ordinary scholar, but Lu Sangqi’s intuition told him that was not the case.

“Alright, call Lady Ye in. I’ll treat her.”

Lu Sangqi put the medicine box on the table.

He knew that he would not be able to get anything out of Chu Heng, so he did not ask any more questions. He would go back and investigate. He did not believe that he would not be able to find out anything!

Chu Heng then asked Madam Hu to bring Ye Muyu over.

Ye Muyu came to the study room next door very quickly.

Seeing Lu Sangqi sitting quietly beside her, she was a little surprised. She did not know what Chu Heng had told him to make this rebellious boy so obedient.

After she sat down, Chu Heng placed her wrist on the pillow on the table. He found a handkerchief from somewhere and placed it on her wrist.

Seeing this, Lu Sangqi's mouth twitched.

Did she think that he was going to take advantage of Ye Muyu?

She was just a country bumpkin.

Only Chu Heng treated her like a treasure.

Lu Sangqi thought angrily and rolled his eyes.

Chu Heng looked at him coldly. Lu Sangqi was unwilling to accept this, but he could only restrain himself. He sat up straight and took Ye Muyu's pulse.

After a while...

He retracted his hand and began to write the prescription. "This is because she has suffered too much damage. However, she has been recovering well recently. I believe my uncle has already seen Lady Ye."

"This prescription of mine can help Lady Ye recover her antibody. In the future, just take it for a month."

"I'll check your pulse again in a month. I'll change the prescription according to the situation."

"Don't catch a cold, and don't eat too much cooling food such as crabs."

When Lu Sangqi came in, he saw the crabs in the yard. They were still blowing bubbles. He already knew that Ye Muyu could cook. Since the crabs were here, she would definitely eat them.

His bad habit of treating patients appeared. He just could not help but wanted to remind her.

After saying that, he regretted it. This woman was simply a chameleon. She had deep thoughts. Why did he remind her?

“Thank you for your reminder,” Ye Muyu said with a gentle smile..

Chapter 364: Chase Him Away

The corner of Lu Sangqi’s mouth twitched as he thought, ‘How fake.’

“Zhang Shu, send the guest out.” After the consultation, Chu Heng immediately wanted to send him out. Lu Sangqi did not even have time to react.

When he stood up and walked to the door, he realized that Chu Heng had despised him again.

His stubbornness came out.

He stood still and smiled lightly, “It’s already noon, Chu... Madam Ye, aren’t you going to invite me for lunch?”

The name spun on his lips, and he changed it at the last minute.

Because Chu Heng was even more rude to him, Ye Muyu had to give him some face.

“Doctor Qi, you don’t have to lower yourself. There’s no good food at home. You definitely won’t be able to accept it.” Seeing that he wanted to stay, Chu Heng immediately chased him away.

Ye Muyu had never seen Chu Heng so restless.

However, thinking about it, he was not an easy person to talk to. Even to the clansmen in the village, he always followed his own thoughts.

“What do you think, Doctor Qi?”

“I heard that Lady Ye cooks well,” Lu Sangqi said shamelessly. “How could I miss it?”

Seeing Chu Heng squint his eyes as if he were going to use a forceful method, Ye Muyu reached out and grabbed his arm. “Husband, Doctor Qi is tired from treating me. He can stay for a meal. It’s not a big deal.”

“Don’t you have to go to school in the afternoon? Why don’t you go and rest for a while?”

Ye Muyu felt that since it was just a meal, she should just pretend that Qi Sang did not exist. Otherwise, Chu Heng would use forceful means. If this person went out to talk nonsense, it would be a nuisance.

The provincial examination was less than a month away. This was an important imperial examination that would determine whether Chu Heng could become an official in the future. There was no need to cause any more trouble for him to solve and delay time.

“That works too.” Chu Heng’s eyes were deep. He brushed Ye Muyu’s face and then ordered Madam Hu, “Give Doctor Qi some more bitter gourd tea to prevent the heat.”

“...Yes, Master.” Madam Hu dared not disobey the order. She went into the kitchen and made fresh bitter gourd tea for Lu Sangqi.

Lu Sangqi’s face changed slightly and he did not know what to say.

He knew that Chu Heng and Madam Ye were not good people.

No matter how he gritted his teeth, no one paid any attention to him.

After Chu Heng got up, he pulled Ye Muyu out of the central room and headed straight for the east wing.

Ye Muyu happened to catch up with him and was a little confused.

After entering the east wing, Chu Heng closed the door and the window.

Ye Muyu looked at his series of actions and asked curiously, "You... What are you doing? Do you want to tell me about the Lu family?"

Other than that, she could not think of anything else. She only thought Chu Heng was so serious as to prevent Qi Sang from hearing.

Unexpectedly, in the next second, Chu Heng suddenly pulled her into his arms.

Ye Muyu was shocked, and her heart was stuck in her throat.

The thumping of her heart made her ears turn red.

"Chu Heng, let go of me." She pushed him away with her tender hands on his chest.

"Didn't you call me husband just now?" Chu Heng's voice was hoarse and his eyes were filled with accusation.

Ye Muyu pursed her lips and tried to calm herself down. She explained, "That was in front of outsiders. Didn't Mother say that we should do that?" She had an idea and pushed it to Madam Liu.

Chu Heng's gaze fell on her face. He saw that her eyes were bright and calm, and there was even a faint smile on her face. She looked very sensible..

Chapter 365: In a Good Mood

If it was not for the fact that her body was stiff and the hand on her chest was trembling, he would have thought that she was extremely calm.

Looking at the face that was so close to him, Chu Heng took a closer look this time. He felt that it had become more exquisite, and the expression in her eyes had changed. It was different from Madam Ye he had seen before.

So this was the real Ah Yu.

Chu Heng's lips curled into a smile. He turned his gaze to the pink lips in front of him. He felt the large palm that was holding her slowly heat up, and a primitive desire rose from the depths of his heart.

She was not stunning, but the more he looked at her, the more his heart fluttered. His heart felt like it was about to jump out of his chest, and a sour feeling spread throughout his body.

"I just promised Ah Yu to let Qi Sang stay. Shouldn't Ah Yu promise your husband something too?" he asked in a hoarse and seductive voice.

Ye Muyu felt her whole body go limp. This unfamiliar feeling made her ears burn. The tip of her nose was filled with the unique scent of a man. She felt that she could not calm down. Her voice trembled. "Chu Heng, let go of me first. If you have something to say, we... Cough, cough, talk nicely. Do you not want to eat crabs anymore? I'll make it for you now."

She pushed the man in front of her, but not only did she not push him away, she felt that he was hugging her even tighter.

Chu Heng buried his handsome face in her neck, his lips close to her ear. His voice was hoarse and sexy. "I... just want to eat you."

“You... Um...” Ye Muyu’s eyes widened as she looked at the handsome face in front of her. Her lips were blocked. This was the first time in her life that she had intimate contact with a man. Her mind was a little hazy.

She only felt her lips being gently bitten by the other party for a moment, then gently kissed for a moment...

Towards the end, it seemed that the man was still not satisfied and kissed her deeply.

Huff... huff...

“Ah Yu...”

Chu Heng was shocked when he saw Ye Muyu pass out. His eyes were filled with shock as he quickly pulled her into his arms.

Ye Muyu was not unconscious. She was just scared because she could not breathe and was nervous.

Realizing what she had done, her face instantly turned red.

She quickly sat up and took a few steps away from Chu Heng.

“That... I’m going to cook. We’ll talk about it later. Have a good rest.” Ye Muyu got up and ran away.

Chu Heng stretched out his hand but failed to catch her.

He looked at Ye Muyu’s back as she ran away. After a while, he suddenly smiled and touched his lips. He could still feel her warm lips.

“Ah Yu, so you’ve never been kissed before?” This discovery made him feel more comfortable, and he even felt more comfortable with Lu Sangqi, who was an eyesore previously.

Chu Heng got up and patted the dust off his clothes. When he left the room, he returned to his cold and strict appearance. However, the warmth that flashed in his eyes made him look much gentler.

It was obvious that he was in a good mood.

Lu Sangqi sat on the threshold of the hall instead of a stool, which made Zhang Shu feel a little conflicted.

He was still eating the stir-fried pumpkin seeds when he saw Chu Heng come out of the house and walk past him into the study.

He had sharp eyes and saw the smile on Chu Heng's face. Lu Sangqi was shocked and almost thought that he had seen wrongly.

He directly chased after Chu Heng, not caring whether he was willing or not.

"Tell me more." Lu Sangqi squeezed into the study and pestered Chu Heng to tell him more about the capital city, or even Jing City. He believed that he could find loopholes in the other party's words..

Chapter 366: Stubborn and Honest

Chu Heng glanced at him.

Was Lu Sangqi coming to him to clear his doubts?

"I'm a little thirsty." Chu Heng sat behind the desk and flipped open the book. He did not even look at Lu Sangqi. Instead, he ordered Lu Chuan, who had followed him in. "Send Doctor Qi to the central room for some tea."

“Doctor Qi, please.” Lu Chuan reached out his hand to led him.

Lu Sangqi was not as tall as Lu Chuan. Thinking that he had to stand on tiptoes to see Chu Heng, it made him look inferior. He was instantly unhappy and turned to leave.

After he walked out of the door, he finally realized what Chu Heng meant.

He felt a little upset. He turned around and wanted to enter the study room again, but he saw that Lu Chuan had already closed the door. Chu Heng’s expression was even calmer, and he did not care about Lu Sangqi mood at all!

“Did you learn how to treat guests from Chu Heng?” Lu Sangqi gritted his teeth.

Lu Chuan already knew Chu Heng well enough. Hearing this, he nodded his head and said kindly, “I don’t think Master wants to talk to you. Doctor Qi is a doctor, so you probably can’t get along well with my master. Why don’t you sit in the main room and drink tea?”

“Are you saying that I don’t deserve to talk to Chu Heng?” Lu Sangqi was furious.

“Ah?” Lu Chuan looked at him in confusion. “Doctor Qi, it’s not good for you to be so easily angered. Besides, that’s not what I meant.”

“Could it be that Doctor Qi doesn’t want to stay at home for a meal?” Chu Heng’s cold voice came from the room.

It was obvious that he wanted to chase Lu Sangqi away.

Lu Sangqi was taken aback, but he still wanted to stay longer to ask about the situation. He snorted and quickly walked into the central room.

Who knew that there would be no one to talk to him after that.

Lu Sangqi's mood kept changing. Unfortunately, no one cared about him. He could only choose to heal himself.

Ye Muyu's face was still a little red when she entered the kitchen.

Madam Hu's attention was on the food that should be prepared for lunch.

She did not notice Ye Muyu's expression.

"Madam, are we making fish and crabs for lunch?"

"There is also the eel in the rice fields. This thing likes to dig holes. In the past, this servant only heard that rich families made eel soup, but I don't know the exact method. In the countryside, they just roast it and eat it."

"I'll make the spicy fish fillet with the fish. I'll make the spicy crab. As for the eel...Then let's make eel soup too."

"Although we don't know how the rich make it, we can make it like soup." Of course, Ye Muyu knew how to eat the eel, so after she finished speaking, Madam Hu packed up the ingredients and she cooked it.

Ye Muyu planned to use yam and carrots for the eel soup.

Perhaps because they were located in Jiangnan, there were many ingredients. The village was filled with all kinds of vegetables. It was the season for eating vegetables. Ye Muyu needed the ingredients that he did not have at home, so he called Zhang Shu to buy them.

The eel soup was also very simple to make.

When the water in the pot was hot, she blanched the Chinese yam pieces to cool them down, then put in the eel pieces to blanch and wash them to cool them down.

After preparing the ingredients, she put oil into the iron pot. When the oil was hot, she put in onions, ginger, garlic, and other condiments. Ginger was more expensive, so she put less in.

Then, she put in the eel and stir-fried it for a while. She needed to add some cooking wine to remove the fishy smell.

Without cooking wine, Ye Muyu used the white wine.

When it was fragrant, she poured it into a small clay pot, added water on the stove, and added Chinese yam and carrots to stew.

“Madam, it smells so good. It doesn’t smell fishy at all. In the past, this servant never thought of doing this. Now that I’ve learned it, In the future, this servant will cook it for you.” At this time, Madam 1—1u had also finished preparing the fish slices..

Chapter 367: Obedient Character

Ye Muyu nodded with a smile. “Sure. I’ll eat your food too. I’ll enjoy myself.”

“Madam’s words are too serious. This is what this servant should do.” Madam Hu had already treated Ye Muyu as her master, so she was naturally loyal and diligent. “Madam, shall I cook the spicy fish fillet?”

“Sure, I’ll watch from the side.” Ye Muyu nodded.

She walked to the side to wash her hands and stood at the side to guide Madam Hu in cooking.

Time passed quickly.

“Mother.” At noon, Chu Ziluo and Chu Jin returned.

The two of them stood at the door and shouted.

Ye Muyu turned around and served two cups of bitter gourd tea to the two of them.

“Come over and drink some. The weather is hot today. I’m afraid you’ll get heatstroke. ”

“Wash your hands first.”

With Madam Hu cooking, Ye Muyu was not busy. Although the kitchen was a little hot, she already felt cooler and was much more comfortable than Madam Hu. Madam Hu always tied a towel on her forehead to prevent sweat from dripping.

This was also Ye Muyu’s request. After lunch, she could go back to her room to cool down.

They had to keep the food clean to avoid getting sick.

Chu Ziluo held the porcelain cup and looked at the green tea in it. She took a sip and said, “Ah, it’s so bitter.”

Chu Jin had already finished it in one go.

“Ziluo, don’t be so squeamish. Keep drinking. This is bitter gourd tea. It can cool your body. Didn’t you say that you had a sore in your mouth last night? Your body must be hot.” Ye Muyu’s voice was gentle as she caressed Chu Ziluo’s head. She tried to coax her, but she did not want the child to reject her.

Although Ziluo was sensible, she was still a child. How could she like bitter things?

“Mother, I understand.” Chu Ziluo had been tortured by the ulcers in her mouth. She could not eat well or sleep well. It had been fine last night as it had just appeared, but it had gotten worse today.

Now that she heard that it was useful, even if it was bitter, she would pinch her nose and drink it.

Chu Jin did not feel anything. Anyway, he had heard from his mother that it was good stuff, so he drank it. It was better than drinking medicine, which had a strange smell.

“Mother, I’m going to the study to draw.” He did not have any homework in the afternoon, so he took this opportunity to draw on more Zhuge Locks.

Now that he had more and more silver, he would be happy for half a day every time he counted.

Chu Jin entered the study room. When he saw Chu Heng, he was not as scared as before.

However, he still called him father obediently.

“Dad, I’ll be drawing.” Chu Jin sat obediently at the side and glanced at Chu Heng. Seeing that he did not look over, he could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

He held his breath and slowly drew. His movements were natural, and the painting he drew was much better.

Meanwhile, Chu Ziluo was drinking the bitter gourd tea. She heard from Zhang Shu that Doctor Qi was visiting and was sitting in the central room. She hesitated for a moment and did not tell her mother. Instead, she ran into the central room.

Nenya followed behind her, afraid that her young miss would be at a disadvantage.

Doctor Qi was a bad person.

“Doctor Qi, you’re really here.” When Chu Ziluo entered the central room, Lu Sangqi was no longer angry. He did not even bat an eyelid when he saw her.

Seeing that he was not speaking, Chu Ziluo circled around him.

“What are you doing, little girl?” Lu Sangqi could not help but ask.

“Let me see if you’re still fierce.” Chu Ziluo saw the fierce look on his face and instinctively took two steps back. She looked at him across the table and did not dare to get too close.

“I’m very fierce. Why wouldn’t I be fierce? If you come over, I’ll push you.” Lu

Sangqi was worried that he would not have a chance to take revenge on Chu Heng and his wife. When he saw Chu Ziluo running into him, he thought of how much Ye Muyu cared about this child. A hint of ill intent flashed across his eyes..

Chapter 368: Scaring People

Chu Ziluo sensed his malice and quietly moved toward the door.

“Why are you running?” Lu Sangqi noticed her movement and reached out his arm.

Chu Ziluo ran even faster and disappeared in a flash.

Lu Sangqi’s hand missed and he felt a little uncomfortable. How could a child bully him now?

After Chu Ziluo ran out, Nanya followed after her. She saw Lu Sangqi reaching out to Chu Ziluo and ran to the kitchen to complain to Ye Muyu.

“Madam, Physician Qi is going to bully Miss again. He wanted to catch Miss just now. Fortunately, Miss ran away quickly.”

“Ziluo,” Ye Muyu frowned and wiped her hands. “Go back to your room and wipe the sweat off your body.”

“Don’t be afraid of Doctor Qi. He’s just teasing you.”

“Alright, Mother.” Chu Ziluo was the most obedient. She felt uncomfortable and sweaty, so she obediently brought the sprout back to her room.

“Madam, Doctor Qi wouldn’t really do anything to the child, right?” Madam Hu asked worriedly.

Ye Muyu thought that he would not attack, but he would definitely dare to threaten her. This person did not have any respect for the old and the young. He was probably the most important person in his heart.

In addition, he had suffered losses from Chu Heng and Ye Muyu.

It was inevitable that he would be so angry that he would dare to bully a child.

Ye Muyu gently shook her head, telling Madam Hu not to worry. She left the kitchen and went straight to the central room.

Lu Sangqi squinted his eyes when he saw Ye Muyu come in. He was still lying on the chair. He did not behave at all.

“Doctor Qi, are you still angry with me?” Ye Muyu walked to the table and sat down. She poured him a new cup of tea. This time, she did not serve him bitter melon tea. Instead, she served him tea made from ordinary camellia leaves.

"You're not going to pour me bitter melon tea again, are you?" Lu Sangqi hurriedly took the teacup away.

"Don't worry, this is just ordinary tea. Doctor Qi, don't mind it. Since we've invited Doctor Qi as a guest, I'll naturally treat you well." Ye Muyu had a perfect smile on his face, looking very reasonable.

Lu Sangqi could not help but complain in his heart when he saw her like this, but he had to admit that this woman was obviously a country bumpkin, but she really could pretend to be a liar.

Those who did not know better would think that she was really a good person.

Feeling a little uncomfortable, he held the teacup in his hand and drank it. After confirming that it was not bitter melon tea, he did not even realize that he had also heaved a sigh of relief.

"Doctor Qi is also a child. Can you not tease my child in the future on account of me returning the medical book to you?"

"You're the child, " Lu Sangqi retorted subconsciously. "I'm an adult."

After saying that, he suddenly realized that Ye Muyu was trying to please him. "What if I say no? I think your girl is quite interesting. I like talking to her."

"Then I can only take back the medical book that Doctor Qi wants," Ye Muyu said firmly.

"It's impossible to take back what's in my hands."

As soon as Lu Sangqi finished speaking, he saw Lu Chuan walk in.

He was holding a machete in his hand and looked aggressive. He was so scared that his expression changed slightly and he stood up abruptly.

“What are you doing?”

Lu Sangqi’s face turned green.

“Coercion and bribery.” Ye Muyu smiled.

Ye Muyu nodded at Lu Chuan when she saw Lu Sangqi’s eyes glinting in thought. Lu Chuan immediately approached Lu Sangqi..

Chapter 369: No More Bullying

“If you have the ability, kill me!” Lu Sangqi straightened his neck and said.

He did not believe that this country bumpkin would really dare to kill him.

Lu Chuan did not show any mercy. He stepped forward and placed the machete closed to the man’s neck. Then, he took out a dagger from somewhere and placed it on the back of the man’s hand. Blood immediately appeared.

Lu Sangqi’s eyes widened. “Ye Muyu, how dare you? Do you want to die? If you kill me, you’ll still be sent to prison!”

“So you still bully my girl?” Ye Muyu asked calmly. She had been drinking her tea calmly the entire time.

Seeing her like this, Lu Sangqi somehow shook his body and held back his anger.

“I won’t bully you anymore! Let me go.”

Lu Chuan looked at Ye Muyu.

Ye Muyu nodded and left with the machete and dagger.

"I don't believe that you're ordinary country bumpkins." Lu Sangqi applied some hemostatic powder to the wound on his hand and said fiercely.

Ye Muyu was in a good mood. "If you don't bully my child, no one will attack you, right?"

"Since you're obedient, I'll reluctantly let you go."

Lu Sangqi said, "I've never seen people like you who don't care about their lives. I really don't know how you were raised. I'm a magnanimous person. I don't want to argue with you."

Ye Muyu smiled. She did not care about Lu Sangqi's attitude, as long as he was obedient.

Soon, lunch was ready.

When the dishes were served, Lu Sangqi smelled the fragrance of the dishes and felt hungry.

It was too embarrassing.

Although he was very eager, he pretended to be reserved and sat at the side. If Chu Heng did not speak, he would not eat.

After a while, the two children entered the house.

When Chu Ziluo saw Lu Sangqi, she quickly moved away from him and sat beside Chu Heng.

Chu Jin did not mind that his sister had taken his seat. He sat down beside Lu Sangqi.

When Chu Heng came in, his deep eyes glanced at Ye Muyu.

Ye Muyu pursed her lips and maintained her composure. After he sat down, she sat down beside him.

Chu Heng had a pot of osmanthus wine in his hand. "Doctor Qi, do you want some wine?"

He opened the wine pot and raised his glass to Lu Sangqi.

"Yes, why not!" Lu Sangqi finally understood why the villagers were praising Ye Muyu's cooking skills.

For example, there were a few dishes that he had never seen before during lunch at the Chu family.

He felt that these dishes looked, smelled, and tasted good.

After he ate a mouthful of spicy fish fillet, he could not stop.

If he had not wanted to maintain his cool in front of Ye Muyu and Chu Heng, he would have lost control of his chopsticks. Even so, he was stuffed in the end.

He even drank too much.

Looking at Lu Sangqi who was lying on the table, Ye Muyu hesitated. "Should we send him back?"

"Lu Chuan, send Doctor Qi back later." Chu Heng instructed Lu Chuan.

Lu Chuan grunted in acknowledgment. There was a carriage at home, so it was not difficult to send a doctor back.

“Doctor Qi clearly likes Mother’s cooking very much. Why is he deliberately causing trouble for us? He won’t be able to eat Mother’s cooking in the future.” Chu Ziluo looked at the drunk Lu Sangqi and could not help but whisper.

However, she was happy in her heart. How good was this? Physician Qi bullied her mother and even wanted to eat his mother’s cooking. Hmph, it would be better if he could not eat her mother’s food anymore.

However, she would only mutter a few words in her heart.

Lu Sangqi could nit hear it..

Chapter 370: Apologizing

Chu Heng stood up and walked to the door. Ye Muyu saw that she had given Lu Chuan some instructions.

Lu Chuan grabbed Lu Sangqi with one hand and carried him on his back. He then put him in the carriage and sent him back.

Ye Muyu heaved a sigh of relief after seeing him off.

She felt a little uncomfortable when this person was at their home.

After Chu Heng finished his lunch, he waited for Lu Chuan to come back and went to school.

In the afternoon, Ye Muyu and Madam Hu cooked dried vegetables at home.

Some ordinary vegetables needed to be cooked first. They did not need to be cooked too well. After boiling them, they were taken out and dried.

Chu Ziluo went to the old residence again.

Seeing that she was becoming more and more outgoing, Ye Muyu did not stop her from playing with her friends.

Chu Ziluo came back and said that Chu Qingxiang's wedding date had been brought forward.

However, no one from the old residence told him about it, so it was probably not confirmed yet. Ye Muyu only heard about it.

She cooked for the entire afternoon.

In the afternoon, the entire courtyard was filled with wooden shelves filled with dried vegetables.

There were vegetables, bitter melon, beans, and so on.

These vegetables were originally because there were too many of them in the field. If they were not picked, they would be old and not delicious. When the time came, they would be wasted.

How could there be any wasteful behavior in the village? They even wanted to pick more wild vegetables.

Therefore, they would make dried vegetables during the summer season.

The Chu Clan was no exception.

However, Ye Muyu thought that Chu Heng would be leaving for the capital city in August. The journey would take at least seven to eight days. Without a relay station, they would have to sleep in the wild. These dried vegetables would also be useful.

With Madam Hu and Zhang Shuts help, Ye Muyu was very relaxed. In one afternoon, she had dried one-third of the dried vegetables.

After this round of dried vegetables was done, she would dry the rest of the vegetables.

She had been packing vegetables for the whole day, so Ye Muyu and Madam Hu were sweating.

Just as the sky was about to turn dark, she boiled some water and took a shower.

Chu Heng came back late at night.

However, he did bring back some chicken, red dates, ribs, and goose eggs.

Ye Muyu stepped forward and took the chicken that had been shaved off. "Why did you buy so much food today?" she asked.

"Madam, Doctor Qi said that you need to nourish your body. These are enough to support you."

"Other than that, Master also bought a perfect tonic pill," Lu Chuan spoke first. Seeing that Chu Heng was not angry, but had a rare smile on his face, he knew that he had done the right thing.

Ye Muyu looked at Chu Heng in surprise. Seeing the smile on his face, her eyes flashed.

She suddenly thought of the kiss in the afternoon.

Her ears were burning, so she decided to take a bath today. Her long hair draped over her shoulders, and the weather was slightly dark, so others could not see her flushed ears.

"The tonic pill is very precious, right?" Ye Muyu asked softly.

Chu Heng reached out to touch her forehead. After confirming that it was not hot, he retracted his hand. "It's not expensive. It's a gift from Lu Sangqi," He said happily.

"Lu Sangqi?" Ye Muyu immediately thought of Qi Sang. When she saw him, she thought that he was a noble young master. In fact, many times, some aura and words could reveal a person's identity. It seemed that his real name was Lu Sangqi. He was indeed related to Doctor Lu.

Chu Heng did not mind. "Yes, it's Doctor Qi. He came to the village under an alias. I think he will leave tomorrow."

Remembering that the pill was Lu Sangqi's apology, Ye Muyu suddenly thought of Lu Sangqi's character. She would not let go of someone who bullied her family easily.

"What did you say to him that made him willing to give me an apology?" Ye Muyu was curious..
