

Peasant 531

Chapter 531: You Were the One Who Mentioned It

“Then how can you say that I’m important? We’re going to get a divorce soon,” Ye Muyu scolded.

“Aren’t you hinting to me that you’ll listen to your new wife when you remarry and not treat the kids well?”

“Are you forcing me to take the two children away?”

“Huh???” Even though Chu Heng had a lifetime of life experience, he did not expect Ye Muyu to be able to interpret his confession as wanting to harm their children.

“Ah Yu, you misunderstood.” Chu Heng looked at her cold eyes and a rare look of helplessness and grievance appeared on his cold face. Ye Muyu’s heart skipped a beat. “How did I misunderstand?”

Looking at the wariness in Ye Muyu’s eyes, Chu Heng really wanted to knock her head open and see. Even if she misunderstood him because of the two children, he was still very unhappy.

“Ah Yu, how can you doubt me?” Chu Heng put on an angry expression.

“I said that you’re very important to me, but I didn’t mean that other women are important! ”

“But we’re all going to get a divorce.” Ye Muyu also realized that she might have thought wrongly. She was embarrassed and nervous, but her lack of confidence in relationships made her not dare to think in the direction of Chu Heng’s true intentions.

“You’re the one who wants a divorce, not me.” Chu Heng looked at her faintly.

“You... You’re too much. You were the one who said it.” Ye Muyu’s eyes widened in disbelief as she looked at him accusingly.

However, she did not realize that what she said were her true thoughts. When Chu Heng heard this, not only was he not angry, but he was also overjoyed!

He looked at her blinking eyes and felt a little nervous. His heart froze and he quickly softened his voice and coaxed her gently. "Ah Yu, you're right. Although I was the one who suggested the divorce, I can't bear to let you go. But if you want to leave me, how can I bear to imprison you?"

"If you don't want to divorce me, how can I bear to?"

Ye Muyu felt as if she had been struck by lightning. She stood rooted to the ground, confused and in disbelief.

Chu Heng... He was unwilling to separate from her...

Why...?

Ye Muyu gently tugged at her clothes and lay down. She covered herself with the blanket as if she was hiding in a turtle shell.

"Ah Yu, what's wrong?" Chu Heng was shocked. He quickly reached out to pull the blanket away.

"Even if you're angry, don't cover yourself. It's still summer. Although it's raining, it'll be very uncomfortable if you cover yourself like this."

Ye Muyu's muffled voice came from under the thin blanket. "Go to the study first. I want to be alone for a while." "Ah Yu..." Chu Heng called out worriedly.

Ye Muyu ignored him.

After a long time, Chu Heng sighed. His rationality told him that he had to give Ye Muyu time to think things through.

After all, he had deliberately proposed a divorce to force her to face her feelings for him.

In the end, Chu Heng left quietly.

However, he did not return to the study room. Instead, he sat in front of the main room and paid attention to Ye Muyu's situation through the window that was only half open.

Chu Heng had just sat down when Chu Ziluo and Chu Jin came over worriedly.

The two of them stood in front of him.

"Father, is Mother alright?" Chu Ziluo asked first. "How did she catch a cold?"

"It's okay. The doctor will be here in a while." Chu Heng's heart was filled with worry as he wondered if Ye Muyu would come around. He really did not have anything to say to the two children..

Chapter 532: Care

"Father, did Mother have lunch? And you, you haven't eaten either, right?" Chu Jin asked boldly.

After Chu Ziluo knew that Chu Heng was not that fierce, she mustered up her courage to look at him.

Chu Heng looked up at Chu Ziluo. "Your mother has had her lunch. She also drank the ginger soup."

"Ziluo, your mother is sick and needs a good rest. Take good care of your brother for us today."

Chu Jin wanted to refute that he had grown up and did not need anyone to take care of him. However, when he saw Chu Heng's cold side profile, he did not dare to say anything.

“Father, if anything happens to Mother, you must tell me.” Chu Ziluo saw that her father’s expression was natural and that her mother’s condition was not serious. She nodded and took over the task of taking care of Chu Jin.

Chu Heng nodded in agreement and did not want to say anything more.

Chu Ziluo was confused, but she still nodded and agreed. Then, she pulled Chu Jin back to the study.

“Sister, why are you pulling me?” Chu Jin asked indignantly as soon as he entered the study. “I wanted to sneak into the room to check on Mother.”

“In the past, even if mother was sick, she would not stay in the room and not come out. Unless it was like the last time because I fell into the water...”

Chu Ziluo patted his head lightly. ‘What nonsense are you talking about? The last time Mother was sick, Father was very worried. He was always by Mother’s side and never left her side.’

“It didn’t happen this time. It seems that mother is really fine.” “Really?” Chu Jin was still in disbelief.

“Then go ask Dad if you have the guts.” Chu Ziluo pouted.

“Hmph, I don’t believe I can’t find a chance to sneak into Mother’s room.”

“Are you stupid?” Looking at her stubborn brother, Chu Ziluo could not help but knock him on the head. “The doctor will be here soon. We’ll ask the doctor secretly after he examines Mother.”

“When will the doctor come?”

“Soon.” Chu Ziluo was worried as well, but she trusted her father, so she was not as anxious as Chu Jin.

Chu Jin was traumatized by Ye Muyu’s accident and could not get rid of it in a short period.

After a while, the doctor came.

It was Lu Sangqi, whose alias was Qi Sang.

Chu Heng was not surprised to see him.

He frowned. He did not want Lu Sangqi to get close to Ye Muyu, but he thought of Ah Yu’s health.

“Don’t say anything you shouldn’t. Just take her pulse,” he warned before entering.

“Scholar Chu, you are wrong. I am a doctor. I naturally have to look, hear, and ask...” Before Lu Sangqi could finish his words, he met Chu Heng’s cold eyes.

Lu Sangqi shivered and felt a chill in his heart. Chu Heng was just an ordinary scholar, but Lu Sangqi could sense the aura of a superior in him.

He was very puzzled.

“If you want to end the cooperation, just challenge my bottom line,” Chu Heng said.

Lu Sangqi had been deliberately going against Chu Heng. Although he had asked Chu Heng for help because of his family’s problems, he had been at a disadvantage both in the prefecture and in the village.

Now that he had finally caught hold of the other party’s weakness, he naturally wanted to repay him.

However, it was obvious that Chu Heng, this black-hearted man, would not be so easy to deal with.

Lu Sangqi felt wronged, but he had no choice but to stop resisting. A moment later, he grinned and said naturally, "Of course, I was just joking. Please don't be angry, Scholar Chu.."

Chapter 533: Revenge

"I promise I won't do anything unnecessary."

Chu Heng took a deep look at him before retracting his gaze and ignoring him.

He knocked on the door first. He was not surprised that he did not hear Ye Muyu's voice. He said gently, "Ah Yu, I've brought the doctor in to treat you. I'm coming in. "

After saying that, he waited for a while before pushing the door open and entering.

Lu Sangqi looked at Chu Heng, who had suddenly become gentle, in disbelief. He almost thought that Chu Heng was a ghost!

Could it be that Chu Heng was the one who was sick?

Lu Sangqi's mind drifted away.

It was only when he heard Chu Heng cough that he hurriedly walked in.

Seeing that Chu Heng had already held Ye Muyu's arm and covered it with a handkerchief, he pursed his lips and thought, 'I'm not interested in this scheming, vicious woman.'

Of course, she still had her merits. At least her cooking was delicious.

Lu Sangqi placed his hand on Ye Muyu's wrist to feel her pulse.

After a while, he retracted his hand.

He looked at Chu Heng with a strange expression.

Chu Heng did not let him speak. He put Ye Muyu's arm into the thin quilt and chased Lu Sangqi out of the room.

"Tell me, how's Ah Yu's condition?"

"It's just a normal cold. She'll be fine after taking two patches of medicine. Her body is weak to begin with, that's why her body reacted so badly." Lu Sangqi now deeply understood how Chu Heng protected Ye Muyu.

Although he felt that the cold was not serious, he did not dare to say this in front of Chu Heng.

He was not stupid. If he angered this demon, he would be the unlucky one. "Then give me the prescription." Chu Heng tapped his fingers on the table.

Lu Sangqi did not complain and started writing the prescription.

After writing the prescription, Lu Sangqi suddenly said, "Chu Heng, I think you're the one who needs to be checked."

Chu Heng originally wanted to say that there was no need but to prevent himself from spreading the disease to Ye Muyu, he did not say anything and directly placed his wrist on the table.

Lu Sangqi was a little curious. He had wanted to tease him for having such a romantic moment.

However, since the other party did not reply, he did not say anything else.

He quickly checked Chu Heng's pulse and gave him a prescription.

In order to take revenge on Chu Heng, he even deliberately said that he needed acupuncture.

"Can acupuncture speed up the recovery?" Chu Heng asked.

"Of course. If you don't get acupuncture, it'll take at least ten days to half a month. If you get acupuncture, you'll be fine in three days!" Lu Sangqi's gave an excuse as soon as he opened his mouth.

Seeing Chu Heng's suspicious eyes, Lu Sangqi quickly calmed down. He was not lying, but he was exaggerating a little.

"Then let's do it." Chu Heng retracted his gaze and spoke calmly.

Lu Sangqi shouted happily in his heart. He took out a long silver needle from the medicine box and looked at the calm Chu Heng with an evil smile. Then, he stabbed the acupuncture points in his body without any mercy.

Chu Heng did not even frown.

Even though his body was in pain, he did not show it.

He had to recover quickly so that he would not have to worry about passing any illness to Ah Yu when he was in close contact with her.

Lu Sangqi thought that he would at least frown, but the man was like a rock. He did not react at all. He quickly pricked the man, put away the silver needles, left the two prescriptions and the two medicines, and left leisurely.

Before he left, Chu Ziluo and Chu Jin secretly stopped him and asked about Ye Muyu's health.

Lu Sangqi touched his chin and asked with a smile, "Did your parents quarrel?"

Chapter 534: Like?

"How is that possible? Mother is just sick," Chu Jin said with a frown.

Chu Ziluo looked at him suspiciously.

"Doctor Qi, is my mother alright?" Although she felt that Doctor Qi's words were a little strange, Chu Ziluo was more worried about Ye Muyu, so she did not ask further.

Lu Sangqi felt that he had discovered Chu Heng's secret. He was delighted. He said casually, "What could happen? It's just a common cold. She just has to rest well and take some medicine."

Chu Jin heaved a sigh of relief.

Lu Sangqi thought that Chu Ziluo was a more attentive child, so he deliberately tried to get her to talk. "Are your parents really not arguing?"

Chu Ziluo grinned and pushed him out of the courtyard. "Doctor Qi, you're leaving? Goodbye then. The rain has stopped. Hurry up and go back before you get caught in the rain."

Lu Sangqi saw the gate closed. He touched his chin and said, "Oh, you're brave. Are you chasing me away? I'm so handsome, how can you chase me away?!"

However, he had no choice but to admit it.

Lu Sangqi gritted his teeth and left angrily.

However, before he left, he was still thinking about Chu Heng and Ye Muyu's situation. A hint of interest flashed across his eyes.

On the other side, Madam Hu took the prescription from Chu Heng's hands.

She called Zhang Shu to get the medicinal herbs.

She began to brew the medicine left by Lu Sangqi.

Unexpectedly, just as she entered the kitchen and was putting the herbs into the medicine jar, Chu Heng walked in.

She hurriedly bowed." Master."

"Mm." Chu Heng nodded and reached out to pick up the medicine bottle. "Leave it to me. You go do other things."

"Master, how can that be... This servant will do this kind of rough work."

Madam Hu was shocked and quickly stopped him in a low voice.

"No need, I'll do it." Chu Heng frowned.

Seeing his firm attitude, Madam Hu knew that she could not change it, so she naturally did not say anything more. "Then this servant will take her leave."

Chu Heng did not pay attention to Madam Hu's surprise, and seriously and gently added water into the medicine jar.

Then, he lit a fire and sat at the side to slowly brew the medicine.

His mind was filled with Ye Muyu's clean little face. Actually, there was not much he had not said. Even Ah Yu's appearance was different from Madam Ye.

Although there were some similarities, he felt that the current appearance was Ah Yu's.

Ye Muyu was still awake in the room.

Her mind was filled with Chu Heng's words about not being willing to leave.

After thinking for a long time, no matter how suspicious she was, she understood what Chu Heng meant.

The other party liked her and did not want to divorce her?

Then why did he take the initiative to bring this up?

Once Ye Muyu thought it through, she understood her feelings for Chu Heng. She had unknowingly fallen in love with him. This could be seen from her reluctance.

Since she had already started to like Chu Heng, with Chu Heng's intelligence, how could he not notice this?

In other words, the other party had deliberately mentioned 'divorce' on purpose!

After understanding this, Ye Muyu's eyes flashed with embarrassment and anger. Her heart, which had always been calm, began to beat faster. Thinking of Chu Heng, she could not help but grit her teeth.

He usually seemed to get along well with her.

However, he was deliberately forcing her to face her feelings now.

Thinking of what Chu Heng had said, Ye Muyu's eyes were filled with embarrassment, but it was more of a novel feeling.

She... She did not expect that someone would like her.

It was the kind of love where he would be willing to be with her forever..

Chapter 535: Frustrated

Ye Muyu tugged at the clothes in front of her chest. This sudden feeling of being cherished made her breathe slightly faster. In her previous life, she had always been the one who was ignored.

In the eyes of outsiders, she lived an exquisite and free life, but they did not know that she was alone from the beginning to the end.

She had no relatives or lovers, only a few scattered friends whom she only met a few times a year because of work.

She could be loved too?

Ye Muyu was confused.

Time passed quickly.

The sky slowly darkened.

Chu Heng fed Ye Muyu some medicine along the way. Ye Muyu did not refuse and drank it quietly, which made Chu Heng even more nervous.

He realized that he could not see through Ye Muyu's thoughts.

He was a little afraid. What if Ye Muyu was forced into a corner by him and insisted on divorcing?

His deep eyes looked into the window. He could vaguely see Ye Muyu's figure. Chu Heng took a deep breath and his gaze became firm.

No matter what choice Ye Muyu made, he would never divorce her!

Even if the other party hated him because of this, he wanted to keep Ye Muyu by his side for the rest of his life.

Only by staying by his side would he have hope, right?

Chu Heng forced a smile. Only he himself knew that the persistence that emerged from the depths of his heart toward Ye Muyu was so strong that even he himself could not believe it.

It was as if he had been waiting for her for a long time.

Chu Heng lowered his head and looked at his hands, clenching them slightly. His eyes were filled with doubt and confusion. When he raised his head again, it had already turned into determination.

Since he liked him, he would pursue her.

Dinner was prepared by Madam Hu, but halfway through, Ye Muyu left the room and went into the kitchen. She looked natural as she prepared dinner with Madam Hu.

When Chu Ziluo and Chu Jin heard the news, they quickly went into the kitchen and wrapped their arms around Ye Muyu's legs.

"Mother, are you feeling better?"

"Mother, I wanted to visit you, but Father didn't allow it," Chu Jin complained.

Chu Heng had been following closely behind the two of them when they entered the door. However, his gaze had been glued to Ye Muyu. When he heard Chu Jin's complaint, his eyes narrowed slightly.

Chu Jin instantly felt a chill run down his spine. He turned around and saw Chu Heng's unfriendly gaze.

Although he was young, he had a keen sense of danger. He was so scared that he almost cried.

She subconsciously hugged Ye Muyu's leg even tighter and quickly acted coquettishly. "Mother, I was wrong just now. It has nothing to do with Father." These words were obviously a lie.

Ye Muyu turned her head and saw Chu Heng. Thinking of his scheme against her, she felt a trace of anger in her heart. She deliberately said, "Lil' Jin is the best. I made you worry. I'll make you egg soup tonight."

Chu Jin's eyes lit up instantly. Even his fear of his father was forgotten when he saw Ye Muyu's smiling face." Mother, I knew you were the best," he said coquettishly.

"Thank you, Lilt Jin, for your love." Ye Muyu did not realize that her smile was like a ray of light shining from the darkness, dazzling and warm.

Chu Ziluo could not help but hug Ye Muyu's arm tightly. She realized that she liked her mother more and more.

Chu Heng looked at the two children who were acting coquettishly in Ye Muyu's arms and felt a little jealous. He suddenly walked over with a serious expression on his face. He frowned and said, "Don't disturb your mother in the kitchen. She hasn't recovered yet."

"Ah Yu, I'll stay and help you make dinner." Chu Heng said as his eyes were filled with worry..

Chapter 536: Counterattack

The two children were instantly a little afraid of Chu Heng

Hesitating to leave, Ye Muyu smiled and said, "You're right. I just remembered that you've caught a cold too. I'll take the two kids out. Madam Hu, since Chu Heng wants to cook personally, you can only be responsible for the fire. Don't go too near to him to avoid catching the cold."

"Madam..." Madam Hu was shocked when she heard this. It was also because she was used to following Ye Muyu. In the next moment, she suddenly understood what Madam meant and quickly stopped talking.

Chu Heng and Ye Muyu seemed to be arguing.

Although she wanted to persuade them, she knew that with her identity, it was not appropriate for her to interfere in the matters between her masters. She just looked down and pretended not to know anything.

However, she still felt a lot of pressure when Chu Heng personally cooked.

Chu Heng was stunned at first, but when he saw the cunning look in Ye Muyu's eyes, his eyes lit up. Ye Muyu had never been so lively before.

Ye Muyu noticed that he was looking at her and could not help but glare at him.

A smile flashed across Chu Heng's eyes, and she happened to catch it. Ye Muyu bit her lip, turned around, and left with the two children.

Once they left, Chu Heng realized that he had been abandoned. He wanted to chase after them, but he regretted what he had just said. However, he could not go back on his word, so he could only stay and cook dinner.

Chu Heng's cooking skills were not bad. Coupled with his intelligence, he could already cook the dishes that Ye Muyu usually cooked.

Thinking that Ye Muyu had caught a cold and her appetite was not good, Chu Heng stewed some pork ribs with radish. The pork ribs were only smoked ribs, so there was no need to add oil and salt, and it would not be greasy.

There were also cucumber salad and stir-fried shredded potatoes. Without meat, they could only make more vegetarian dishes and steamed sweet potatoes.

They also made fried cheese made from milk and a bowl of steamed egg.

Ye Muyu looked at the dishes on the table. The color alone was enough to appease her appetite, not to mention the dense aroma.

“Father, you’re amazing.” Chu Ziluo praised him carefully. She only started eating when Chu Heng was scooping soup for Ye Muyu.

She took a bite of the cucumber salad and her eyes narrowed in delight.

Chu Jin did not stand on ceremony. He realized that his father’s cooking was very exquisite, even better than Madam Hu’s. Only his mother could reach this level.

Usually, madam Hu was the one who cooked the most at home, so it had been a long time since Chu Jin had been this amazed.

He did not say anything and ate heartily.

Ye Muyu was still angry at Chu Heng for scheming against her. She pushed the bowl back to him and took the empty bowl for herself.

Chu Heng was even more flustered when he saw her refusing his care. He subconsciously grabbed Ye Muyu’s hand.

“What’s wrong?” Ye Muyu looked at him.

Chu Heng looked at her fixedly. Ye Muyu tried her best to remain calm, but he still saw through her.

She glared at him in embarrassment. "I can do it myself. Let me go first."

She spoke very softly, afraid that the two children would misunderstand.

Chu Heng seemed to understand her concerns. A smile flashed across his eyes and he deliberately whispered into her ear, "Ah Yu, I'm willing to give you a bowl. I also like to take care of you. You should drink it obediently in case the two children find out. It's not good, right?"

"I don't want to take the one you prepared for me." Ye Muyu was a little angry.

Looking at Ye Muyu's quick-witted personality, Chu Heng was not angry. Instead, he was very happy. This kind of Ye Muyu was like a real person. In the past, she was too rational. She was so rational that he felt uneasy. That was why he used this move to force her to face her feelings..

Chapter 537: Tell Me Everything You Know

In fact, Chu Heng could not grasp what Ye Muyu was thinking.

He was betting that he would have a place in her heart these days.

"Be good, Ah Yu. Even if you're angry at me, you can't hurt your own body."

"When we get back to the room later, if there's anything you want to ask me, I'll tell you everything I know, okay?" Chu Heng was a person who did not like to talk. He usually appeared serious and cold, but, in front of Ye Muyu, his hidden gentleness slowly revealed itself.

"Are you serious?" Ye Muyu narrowed her eyes.

"Naturally." Chu Heng nodded.

After looking at him carefully for a while and seeing that he looked calm and did not have any traces of guilt, Ye Muyu reluctantly believed his words. In fact, according to Chu Heng's personality, he would not lie to her. At most, he would hide something.

What he said was very true.

Ye Muyu felt relieved after thinking about this. She reluctantly brought the bowl of soup back and drank it slowly. However, when Chu Heng spoke to her again, she did not answer him.

Seeing this, Chu Heng could only patiently put some vegetables into her bowl.

They were basically Ye Muyu's favorite dishes.

Ye Muyu's eyes flashed, glancing at Chu Heng from time to time. She had to admit that a handsome man like Chu Heng, who was good at reading, earning money, and being gentle, could be considered a good husband, right?

Such an outstanding person actually said that he liked her?

Ye Muyu felt that it was a little unexpected. After eating a little, she rubbed her head and stopped eating.

"Ah Yu, eat a little more. You didn't eat much at noon," Chu Heng advised.

"I'm full. I don't have much appetite." Ye Muyu shook her head gently. She had been feeling very complicated. She owed Chu Heng more than anything else. He had obviously caught a cold, but he had still promised to cook for her. Now, he was even picking up food for her.

Although she was still a little upset, she also felt a little guilty.

Ye Muyu took the initiative to pick up some food for Chu Heng. "You can continue eating. Remember to drink the medicine after you're done eating."

"I knew that Ah Yu wouldn't forget me." Chu Heng replied. His gentle voice was like a feather, gently sweeping across her heart. It was itchy. Ye Muyu instantly felt her body tremble. Her eyes were misty. "Hurry up and eat. Don't talk."

Chu Heng let out a low, happy laugh. He said sweet nothings casually, "I know that Ah Yu is worried about me. Okay, I will eat well. If you don't believe me, you can see."

Ye Muyu wanted to say, "Who wants to see you?"

However, when she thought about how Chu Heng had taken care of her just now, she could not be thick-skinned and ignore everything. She stayed and watched him eat, not forgetting to put food in his bowl.

Chu Heng enjoyed the high-class treatment and felt that today's meal was more delicious than any other day. Throughout the entire process, the corners of his mouth were curled up, revealing his happy mood.

After dinner, the observant Chu Ziluo had already noticed the progress of her parents' relationship. She had been sensible since she was young, so she naturally would not delay her parents' relationship.

After the meal, she pulled Chu Jin and left.

Chu Jin also had Buddhist scriptures that he had not finished copying, so he left without any questions.

Ye Muyu heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that the meal was over. He stood up and asked, "Do you need to read at night?"

"No need. I've already read a lot. It's a good time to relax. It's not good to overwork." Chu Heng gave an excuse.

Ye Muyu saw that his expression was genuine. "Alright, let's go back to the room. I have something to ask you." "Alright." Chu Heng stood up..

Chapter 538: Change

Chu Heng followed Ye Muyu into the room.

Chu Heng closed the study room door. Since it was already dark, he did not bother with the window that was only two inches open.

Ye Muyu sat down by the bed. When she saw Chu Heng walk in, she realized that his temperament was really outstanding, as if he was a noble.

Realizing what she was thinking, Ye Muyu quickly shook her head. That was not the most important thing now.

"I am Ye Muyu, not Madam Ye. Do you really understand this?" Ye Muyu took a deep breath and asked what she wanted to ask the most.

Chu Heng did not hesitate at all. He took a stool and sat opposite Ye Muyu. He reached out and grabbed her hand, trapping her between his legs.

Her eyes were filled with warmth. "Of course. I can still tell who I like."

Although it was not the first time she heard him say the word 'like', Ye Muyu's heart still skipped a beat, especially when she saw his dark eyes that seemed to want to drown her, making her heart beat faster.

Ye Muyu bit her lip to regain her senses. "Okay," she continued, "I have to ask you something. When did you start liking me? Why do you like me?"

Ye Muyu's breath froze after she asked the question. She was so nervous that even she did not notice it. Her cat-like eyes narrowed slightly, and she was deeply perturbed.

Chu Heng's expression became very serious. "I told you before. Ever since you changed, I've been paying attention to you..."

"When I realized that I liked you, it was the time when you fell into the water and fainted."

After he finished speaking, he suddenly remembered the time when he personally fed Ye Muyu the medicine with his mouth. He could not ignore the sound of his heartbeat in his chest. He was a calm person. Since he liked her, how could he pretend that she did not exist?

Chu Heng instinctively squeezed Ye Muyu's hand tightly. He could not get enough of her soft and tender hands. The more they touched, the more dissatisfied he became. He wanted to pull her into his arms.

However, he could not. Chu Heng took a deep breath and restrained his impulse. His eyes were a little red.

He suddenly raised his head and smiled. "As for why I like you, perhaps it's because I'm happy to see you. I want to keep you by my side for the rest of my life. I think this desire is probably love."

Ye Muyu blushed instantly.

Especially when Chu Heng was looking at her with an increasingly passionate gaze. There was a gentleness and affection in his strong gaze that she could not ignore. Just his gaze alone seemed to want to swallow her alive.

Ye Muyu panicked and quickly pulled her hand away. She took off her shoes and took a few steps back to the bed. After making sure that Chu Heng could not touch her, she heaved a sigh of relief.

She... She had never been so intimate with anyone before.

Her body subconsciously felt a little nervous, so nervous that her fingers by her side curled up slightly, and her cheeks were so hot that she did not dare to look up.

“Ah Yu, tell me, do you treat me the same way? Do you want me? Do you want me to always be by your side? Hmm?” Chu Heng had already climbed onto the bed. He placed his hands on her sides and approached Ye Muyu, who was curled up on the bed.

Ye Muyu heard his voice coming so close and quickly looked up, only to find Chu Heng was already very close.

She quickly suppressed her rapidly beating heart and stammered, “You... Don’t come over.”

Chu Heng suddenly smiled, especially when he saw the rare panic and shyness on Ye Muyu’s face, who was always calm and composed. He felt that he could not get enough of her. It seemed that his gentle methods were wrong.. Otherwise, why would he see a completely different Ye Muyu today when he had not made any progress in the past two months?
