

Peerless 2021

Chapter 2021: Confess

Zhao Heng was so scared that he shuddered and never dared to be arrogant anymore.

Seeing this scene, Uncle Wu's eyelids twitched. To Chen Feng's expectation, he did not get angry. Instead, he stepped forward and smiled and said to Chen Feng: "This son, I don't know you are coming. What is our trading bank for?"

Chen Feng said lightly: "Originally, it was to choose two monsters to ride, but I didn't expect it. The guard dog of the trading house looked down on people, and then there were the following things."

Needless to say Chen Feng, Uncle Wu also understood what had happened.

He smiled slightly and said: "In this case, it is indeed our trading house's fault!"

Upon hearing this, everyone around was stunned.

"What? Fifth Lord, does this mean to be soft?"

"Is it possible, Wu Ye can see that this young man is extremely strong and he is not an opponent, so he has to be subdued?"

"It's possible!"

Zhao Heng was also full of disbelief, and shouted: "Uncle Wu, you, who are you?"

"You shut up!" Uncle Wu gave him a fierce look and said coldly: "If you didn't give birth to this thing, why suffer yourself and implicate our Zhao family?"

With this roar, Zhao Heng was so scared that Zhao Heng shut up immediately, not daring to say more.

Uncle Wu smiled and said: "This son, today is indeed our Zhao family's poor hospitality, which offended you. In this case, don't you want to choose two monsters? Then you come in and choose, we Zhao family will give it to you for free. ."

This means that you are confessing.

The gazes of people around who looked at Chen Feng were full of jealousy and admiration.

"How powerful is this young man to be able to make the famous fifth master publicly acknowledge it?"

Chen Feng nodded slowly, since the Zhao family had admitted to counseling, he would naturally not continue to pursue this matter.

Chen Feng stretched out his hand and threw Zhao Heng out directly. He fell to the ground like a sack, and screamed again.

Chen Feng said coldly: "Go away, I will spare you today."

As expected, Zhao Heng ran away, so he didn't dare to stay here again.

Then, Chen Feng and the two followed the Wu uncle into the monster trading house. The monster trading house was very large, with a radius of tens of miles, divided into animal pens, and there were monsters everywhere.

There are big and small, strong and weak.

Uncle Wu took the two to the deepest part of the animal pen. The monster beasts here are already very huge, very common in sizes of several hundred meters, and even more than a thousand meters in size.

Uncle Wu led the two, but they came to an animal pen.

The monster in this animal pen is only more than fifty meters long, and its height is no more than twenty meters. It is like a huge snow-white camel, the whole body is crystal clear as jade, and there is a foot on the head. There is a meter-long white jade with long horns, very beautiful.

And among his two humps, it was not a depression, but formed a high platform with a radius of seven or eight meters. The high platform was a bit higher than the Tuofeng, very smooth.

The surface of this high platform is covered with a thick carapace, and a tent is built on the surface of the carapace. The tent is made of the finest materials, the surface is the most gorgeous silk, it looks extremely luxurious, and there are still many 珞珞 scattered.

Above the four corners of the tent, a string of cupronickel wind chimes hung on each side, blowing in the wind, making a crisp sound.

On both sides of its hump, there are actually two pairs of wings hidden.

Each of these two pairs of wings is a hundred meters long when unfolded, like a huge basin of snow feathers, extremely gorgeous.

The feathers on it are as white as jade.

Uncle Wu smiled and said, "This kind of monster is called the Four-Winged Snow Camel. Look, his four huge wings are very smooth."

"This kind of monster can run on the ground at a speed of 10,000 miles a day, but if it is flying, it can fly 20,000 miles in one hour."

"However, every time you fly two hours, you must stop and rest for a day!"

Chen Feng nodded, this speed is not too slow.

"Moreover, the most important thing is that sitting in the tent, you won't feel any bumps, it's very comfortable. By the way, you smell it." Uncle Wu said with a smile.

Chen Feng and the two sniffed forward, and Han Yuer let out a pleasant cheer.

It turned out that this four-winged snow camel actually had an orchid-like fragrance.

Uncle Wu said: "This four-winged snow camel is born with its own body fragrance, like an orchid, in it, like in a flower bush, without the slightest odor."

"Moreover, this monster beast also has a combat power equivalent to the three-star monster king."

Chen Feng looked at Han Yu'er. He knew Han Yu'er liked him very much. So Chen Feng turned his head and asked Wu Bo with deep meaning, "This four-winged snow camel, are there many people in the desert?"

When I heard Chen Feng's words, Uncle Wu knew what it meant when he heard the song and immediately understood what it meant. He laughed, lowered his voice and said, "Don't worry, the strong man in the desert uses this."

"Don't worry, you will never be recognized. On the contrary, as soon as you see your mount, many people will know that you are a strong man and dare not provoke it easily."

Chen Feng nodded, it was not bad, he was afraid of trouble.

Chen Feng nodded: "Okay, this one is here."

Then he asked: "How much is the price?"

Uncle Wu hurriedly waved his hand: "I said it before and I want to give it to you."

Chen Feng shook his head: "You still have to give it."

Then, his gaze has been swept to the selling price on the sign next to it: 100 Xuan Huangshi!

Chen Feng took out one hundred Profound Yellow Stones and patted them on the table. Wu Bo was stunned for a moment, and quickly smiled: "Look at this..."

Chen Feng slowly shook his head: "You must use what you should give."

Chen Feng is an upright person, never thinking of taking advantage of others.

Moreover, the purpose of his making a fuss here today is not to avoid this hundred pieces of Profound Yellowstone, but to breathe out his heart.

Soon, Chen Feng and the two got the four-winged snow camel.

Then, the two quickly left here.

When Chen Feng and the two walked out, those onlookers voluntarily stepped aside and looked at Chen Feng with admiration and fear.

No one dared to find fault, this is the power of the strong, the Dragon Vein Continent, the strong is respected.

And in this desert, it is even more so.

Here, the strong are especially admired. This is also the reason why Chen Feng started directly without any tolerance.

If it is tolerant, then in this desert, people will only be regarded as cowardly, and will be bullied even more fiercely.

This is a world where the weak eat the strong!

In fact, today Chen Feng could fully grasp the incident, and he would not let it go. In the end, he asked the Zhao family to give him a statement that he would benefit greatly from the Zhao family, but Chen Feng did not do so.

Chapter 2022: greedy

He didn't intend to cause trouble, he just wanted to find his goal as quickly as possible!

Chen Feng complained with virtue.

What Chen Feng didn't know, after Chen Feng and the two left quickly, Uncle Wu immediately rushed to the Zhao family residence.

Zhao's mansion, in the center of Zhaojiaji, is very luxurious and spacious!

Then, soon he saw the Patriarch of the Zhao family.

After they whispered in a low voice, they entered a secret room in the family.

This fifth uncle, whose real name is Zhao Laowu, is the same generation as the current Patriarch of the Zhao family. However, he is not the biological family of the Zhao family, but an orphan picked up by the previous Patriarch of the Zhao family.

Because the previous Patriarch saw that he had excellent roots and was a piece of material for martial arts, so he cultivated with his heart, but he did not expect that this orphan practiced extremely fast, with a rapid pace.

By the time he was forty years old, he had reached the five-star Wuwang, and he was the scheduled heir of the Zhao family at that time, and the candidate of the next Patriarch, the cultivation base was comparable, and even slightly won. He was the strongest of their lives at that time. people.

Therefore, I was very jealous of the next Patriarch of the Zhao family, and had set up a killing game several times to kill him.

Unexpectedly, not only did he not kill Zhao Laowu, but he was inspired by his fierceness. Together with an unwilling disciple at that time, the two together killed the future heir of the Zhao family.

Then, he forced the Patriarch of the Zhao Family to abdicate, and the disciple who was depressed before became the Patriarch of the Zhao Family, this is the current one.

The two have a very good relationship, even closer than their brothers.

Zhao Laowu has always been willing to serve him, helping him guard the Zhao family's most and fastest trading house, and it has been thirty years now.

And now, Zhao Laowu has the cultivation base of the Eight-Star Martial King, and he is the strongest person in the Zhao family.

The Patriarch of the Zhao Family is just the pinnacle of the Seven-Star Martial King!

Uncle Wu told the whole process of the matter, and the Zhao Family Patriarch's face showed a touch of anger: "This kid, in the Zhao Family, dare to be so rampant? Really **** it!"

"He really deserves to die, but we can't move him easily." Zhao Laowu said slowly.

"Why?" Patriarch Zhao asked him.

Zhao Laowu said slowly: "I can see that the strength of that kid is strong, very strong! He has reached the peak of the Six-Star Martial King, even the early stage of the Seven-Star Martial King!"

"At his age, these forces are extremely rare! But well," he raised his chin and said proudly:

"I want to kill him, it's easy, no problem."

The Patriarch of the Zhao family asked: "The fifth brother, why didn't you do it in the first place?"

Zhao Laowu said slowly: "Because I am afraid of the people behind him."

"The person behind?" the Patriarch Zhao asked.

"Yes." Zhao Laowu said: "So young, they have such a cultivation base, and although the two of them are simple in dress, but they are extraordinary, they should be the children of some big families."

"I'm afraid that if I kill them, they will attract the elders of the family behind them, and then they will add another enemy to the Zhao family."

"You also know that our Zhao family is now in an extraordinary period. We are about to participate in that event. The more masters, the better, the stronger the better, so that we can hope to get a share of the pie."

"If we lost too many masters before, then..."

"That's right," said the Zhao Family Patriarch: "Especially, Brother Five, you really can't have any damage."

"You are the strongest person in our Zhao family, this time I still count on you!"

"But, I'm not reconciled!" Zhao Laowu slammed a punch to the ground, his face full of unwillingness.

"This time, I watched my nephew being so humiliated by him, but couldn't do it. I was really angry to death in my heart! And,"

A look of greed suddenly flashed in his eyes, lowered his voice, and said to the Patriarch of the Zhao family: "Patriarch, you know, I wanted to give the monster beast to that kid, but he didn't want it."

"At the moment he took out the Xuanhuangshi, I seemed to see that he should have a storage ring, and the number of Xuanhuangshishi in this storage ring should be very large."

"According to my estimation, there are at least tens of thousands!"

"What?" After hearing this, the Patriarch of the Zhao family was also shocked.

Storage rings are extremely rare things, none of them in the Zhao family.

Not to mention, there are tens of thousands of yellowstones inside!

Tens of thousands of Xuanhuangshi is a huge wealth, almost equivalent to the sum of decades accumulated by their family.

Their family occupies the first entrance to the great desert of Zhaojiaji. Although it is Prince Forby, it is very difficult to take out 10,000 pieces of Xuanhuangshi.

This is a huge sum of money!

A greedy color flashed across his face, and he suddenly smiled and said, "Fifth brother, if you say that, you must have an idea in your heart?"

Zhao Laowu nodded slowly: "Yes, I already have some ideas in my heart."

He lowered his voice and laughed: "It was his family that I was afraid of before. I was afraid that the family would have trouble with my Zhao family if they learned of this. However, if he was not in the accident in Zhaojiaji, but in Damozhi Another place in China."

"Hey, then, their family can't find our Zhao family!"

Hearing this, Patriarch Zhao's eyes lit up and he clapped his hands and smiled: "Fifth brother, what do you mean?"

Zhao Laowu lowered his voice and said something to him, and the Patriarch of the Zhao family laughed loudly: "Okay, Brother Fifth, your strategy is really wonderful!"

"It's normal for two people to die in the desert. Their family will investigate afterwards. It is possible that the cable will not be found, and the murderer will not be found at all."

"Even if we find it, we can never blame the Zhao family!"

The two looked at each other, and both laughed triumphantly.

Then he said a few more words, and Zhao Laowu left quickly.

After a while, a group of people left Zhaojiaji and hurried to the northwest.

The sky is cloudless, as if washed with water, extremely bright, as clear as a sapphire.

Above the earth, there are thousands of miles of yellow sand, and one glance at it is full of such scenery.

Yesterday, when Chen Feng and Han Yuer saw them, they were quite excited, but now they are a little tired of seeing them.

The four-winged snow camel flies leisurely in the air. It is not high from the ground, only a few hundred meters, and its flying method is also very unique.

It is not flying forward with flapping wings, but more emphasis on sliding. Four huge wings spread out, and huge snow-white wings of hundreds of meters across the sky, leaving a bright arc in the sky, quietly Passing in the sky, it was like a boat sliding in the calm blue water, without a sound.

Chapter 2023: Sneak attack

Quietly, calmly.

Therefore, it looks extraordinarily elegant and calm.

And whenever it is relatively close to the ground, it will use its four wings with a slight force, fly up to a height of 1,000 meters, and then slide down again.

Therefore, Chen Feng and the two sat in the tent, feeling extremely stable, without even the slightest vibration.

In the middle of the tent, there was a big jasper bed, very gorgeous.

At this moment, Chen Feng was sitting on the mattress with big sleeves in a wide robe, and Han Yu'er was lazily nesting in his arms. She squinted, but was not asleep, just a lazy appearance.

Chen Feng glanced at her sideways, a smile was drawn at the corner of his mouth, and then he lay flat again, and put his arms in a posture to make Han Yu'er more comfortable on the pillow.

Han Yuer felt his movement, and a warm smile appeared on the corner of her mouth. Suddenly, she probed and kissed Chen Feng on the face.

After a long time, she stretched her waist and said listlessly: "When will we get to the ground?"

Chen Feng squeezed her nose with a hand and smiled: "Where is this?"

"This big desert has a radius of tens of millions of miles. Our four-winged snow plains can fly very fast, but at most a day is only tens of thousands of miles."

"I really want to find it, I'm afraid I can't do it in a month or two."

"I'm not in a hurry!" Han Yu'er said with a smile around his neck: "Just the two of us, in this desert, how comfortable it is to be out for fun."

"And, at this time, you are just mine."

Chen Feng smiled slightly and held her tighter, a trace of guilt flashed in his heart.

He usually doesn't have time to accompany Han Yuer at all. This time is indeed a good opportunity.

This is already the second day after the two of them left Zhaojiaji.

It was autumn at this time, and the weather was not very hot. It was pleasant to lie lazily in this gorgeous tent, looking at the desert scenery outside, smelling the aroma of orchids.

My beloved didn't practice anymore. He just lay down so lazily, wishing to keep going for such a long time.

The guilt for Han Yuer flashed in his mind, and Chen Feng held her tighter.

Suddenly, Chen Feng felt that Han Yu'er's nose seemed to be heavier, and panted heavily.

He looked sideways and saw Han Yu'er's face flushed a bit, and her eyes were blurred. She was looking at Chen Feng at this time, her eyes were like water, as if it could overflow.

Chen Feng was a little surprised and asked, "Sister, what's wrong with you?"

Han Yuer suddenly got into his arms and hugged him tightly, rubbing her body on Chen Feng's body. Her kiss fell on Chen Feng's face and neck like rain, and she murmured like a moan: "Junior Brother, want me, want me!"

At this moment, Chen Feng's heart was shaken, and the waves of his eyes suddenly became blurred, his heart pounding and his breathing suddenly heavy.

He and Han Yu'er have known each other for several years and have a deep relationship. In fact, everything will come naturally.

However, there has been no chance.

Today, it seems to be a rare good time.

But Chen Feng still had a trace of sobriety in his heart: "Why did the senior sister suddenly be like this?"

What Chen Feng didn't know was that the orchid-like fragrance from the four-winged snow camel was not just for good smell.

Inside, there is a trace of aphrodisiac effect, so it is especially suitable for couples to ride together.

This means that Han Yu'er and Chen Feng have a profound cultivation base. If they were to be ordinary people, I was afraid that they would not be able to control their emotions after leaving Zhaojiaji for a while.

At this moment, Chen Feng's heart suddenly warned, and an extremely dangerous emotion emerged from the bottom of his heart.

Suddenly, Chen Feng felt cold in his heart.

He immediately shouted: "Sister, there is danger!"

Then, he directly hugged Han Yu'er and jumped up to a height of a thousand meters, like a large crane in the air.

Almost at the same moment, an extremely tyrannical force shot directly from the ground, and bitterly bombarded the four-winged snow camels of the two Chen Feng.

As a result, there was a loud bang, this offensive that was at least the Seven-Star Martial King level, directly caused the four-winged snow camel to make a miserable cry, which was broken by the volley!

Chen Feng's eyes became cold and stern in an instant. The next moment, he slowly fell to the ground, and then he heard the sound of popping hoofs approaching here.

Chen Feng stood there, did not move, just staring forward coldly.

In the front, under the sand dune, a figure slowly emerged.

He was dressed in khaki, short and chubby with a smile on his face. It was his acquaintance Zhao Laowu!

"Is it you?" Chen Feng looked at him with cold eyes.

"Yes, it's me!" Zhao Laowu smiled and looked at Chen Feng, his eyes suddenly became cold, and sneered: "Boy, you didn't expect to meet me here, right?"

"I really didn't expect it." Chen Feng slowly nodded: "Your performance in the Zhao family center really blinded me and made me think you were an exception in the Zhao family."

"Unexpectedly, you are all raccoon dogs, but you can hide it better."

Zhao Laowu's face was extremely cold with a smile: "Boy, why do you think I was so polite to you before? It's just that the family behind you will find me, for fear of implicating the Zhao family!"

"And now, if I kill you in this desert, who would know that I did it? Who would have thought it was my Zhao family who did it?"

"The reason why I forbore it was for this moment!"

With a grinning smile on his face, he pointed to Chen Feng and said, "Little boy, today you will definitely die!"

"Don't worry, I won't torture you. The longer I give you, the more likely you are to pass the news to your family and come and find it."

"So, I will kill you at the first moment!"

Chen Feng looked at her with a smile, and said lightly: "You are so sure, can you kill me?"

"Isn't this nonsense?" Zhao Laowu laughed wildly, taking it for granted, and said: "I am a master of eight-star martial arts, and you? No matter how powerful you are, you are only six-star martial arts!"

"I want to kill you, it's so easy. Not to mention,"

He stretched his hand back, and hundreds of monsters were already surrounding Chen Feng.

This monster beast is like a pangolin magnified countless times. Each head is tens of meters long, with extremely thin and thick scales on the surface, and the whole body is khaki.

In this desert, it is difficult to be found.

Chapter 2024: One move, wipe out!

They have long, pointed mouths, which are full of jagged teeth. Each giant pangolin beast sits with a big man wearing a natural yellow shirt.

Each of them has quite a strong strength!

Zhao Laowu laughed and said: "I am responsible for killing the two of you, and these three hundred giant pangolin beasts will swallow your bones and everything you have."

"This kind of giant pangolin beast is a specialty of my desert. It eats everything, and after eating it, it will never leave a trace. By then, your family elders will not be able to find your trace at all!"

Chen Feng felt very funny in his heart. It turned out that the reason why Zhao Laowu was so jealous of himself was for this reason.

He looked at Zhao Laowu. He whispered: "It turns out that you thought I had a powerful family behind me, so I had that performance before."

"Nonsense!" Zhao Laowu said flatly, "If you hadn't had a strong family, would you have such a cultivation level at a young age?"

"If you hadn't had a strong family, how could you be so arrogant?"

Chen Feng suddenly laughed loudly. His laughter became louder and louder and more intense. Suddenly, his laughter stopped. He looked at Zhao Laowu and raised his sword eyebrows. The whole momentum was extremely fierce, as if he was out of the sheath. The sword.

His voice echoed in the desert: "I came from a poor family and have no family support. The reason why I act so fiercely is because I have the heart of a strong man who sees injustice!"

"Because I have enough strength!"

"Now, I will let you see what is truly powerful!"

With that, Chen Feng let out a violent roar, and suddenly his figure flashed forward, and in a blink of an eye, he crossed hundreds of meters of space.

Then, with both hands raised, he drew an arc of incomparable mystery and pressed it down against Zhao Laowu.

As soon as this trick was used, Zhao Laowu's expression changed drastically.

He widened his eyes, his figure couldn't help taking a step back, looking at Chen Feng, his face was full of disbelief and roared: "What? How is it possible? You can use such a powerful move?"

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "Open your dog's eyes and see clearly, who is beheading whom today!"

In the next moment, Chen Feng's dragon destroys the world, and it is already formed.

In the sky, a red cloud with a radius of several thousand meters condensed, and on the ground, there was a huge trench that was ten thousand meters long and several thousand meters deep.

The next moment, above the sky, a meteorite with a diameter of more than a kilometer slammed down heavily.

And above the ground, in that crack, a huge lava with a diameter of one thousand meters, was violently bombarded towards Zhao Laowu.

This move has the power to destroy the world.

Feeling the power that almost destroys the world and the extreme power, Zhao Laowu let out a stern roar: "How is it possible? You wouldn't have such a powerful strength!"

"How is it possible? Am I going to die here today? Absolutely not!"

He played his strongest moves, madly resisted, but it had no effect!

The meteorite directly smashed all his offensives, and then the next moment, his face swallowed him, he didn't even have time to make a scream, he was directly hit and flew out for thousands of meters, and he fell heavily to the ground. , The body is riddled with holes, has lost his breath!

In the next second, the boulder shattered and lava splashed everywhere.

And those who are covered are not only Zhao Laowu, but also the three hundred Zhao family guards!

The three hundred Zhao family guards actually screamed and screamed when this trick came out, trying to escape, but it had no effect at all.

This extremely powerful meteorite fragment suddenly smashed on a guard, directly smashing him into pieces, and then the remaining power was not exhausted, and it hit dozens of Zhao's guards one after another, bringing them together under the giant Big pangolin beasts have been beaten into countless flesh and blood!

And the lava splashing directly swallowed dozens of Zhao's guards. They didn't even have time to make a scream, but were actually directly melted inside.

In the next moment, the lava turned into stone, and they were directly enclosed in the stone. Naturally, it was impossible to survive!

Some Zhao's guards were hit by the lava core whose temperature did not know how high it reached, and it was directly turned into a burst of blue smoke, disappearing without a trace!

After a cup of tea time, finally, everything disappeared.

The red cloud disappeared, and huge scars were left on the ground that could not be erased. The area of tens of miles around was turned into a lava field!

With one move, Chen Feng only used one move to kill Zhao Laowu, the eight-star Wuwang level, and all the three hundred Zhao family guards under his command!

Han Yuer asked softly: "Junior Brother, what should we do next?"

There was a sneer at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "People don't offend me, I don't offend people. I'm tolerant enough to the Zhao family, and the Zhao family dare to calculate me like this, they are really damned!"

"In this case, then there is no need for the Zhao family to exist in this world!"

Zhaojiaji, Zhaojia.

There are dozens of miles around the Zhao family, occupying a very large area in the center of Zhaojiaji. There are countless pavilions and pavilions inside and extremely luxurious.

And in this courtyard, there is a lot of water flowing everywhere, it was actually born in this desert to create a Jiangnan scenery, I don't know how much manpower and material resources have been spent.

At this time, in the center of the Zhao family, in the most luxurious and majestic hall, all the powerful figures of the Zhao family were concentrated here.

They were all holding their breath, no one dared to speak.

Because, among the crowd at this time, the Patriarch of the Zhao family was walking around.

He wrinkled his brows and looked very anxious, and his right fist kept hitting the palm of his left hand, one after another.

He was very restless, and whispered in his mouth: "Why is the fifth brother not coming back? Why is the fifth brother not coming back?"

"He has been out for two full days, why hasn't he come back?"

No wonder he was so anxious. Zhao Laowu has been out for two full days. You know, Zhao Laowu has done things like this in the past, but he will come back at most one day at a time. It is impossible to delay it for so long.

He suddenly stopped, as if he couldn't bear it anymore, and sternly shouted: "Come here!"

A guard wearing a yellow armor stepped in, respectfully clasping his fists and saluting: "Master Patriarch."

The Patriarch of the Zhao family shouted sharply: "Go, ask those who went out to find the fifth brother, have they come back!"

The guard wearing yellow armor showed a bitter smile on his face, and whispered: "Patriarch, they have only been out for half an hour, and it is impossible to come back so soon."

Chapter 2025: Are you looking for him?

"Then send someone to look for it again! Continue to send someone to look for it!" The Patriarch of the Zhao family roared furiously, "I can't even find anyone. What's the use of your waste?"

At this time, his eyes were bloodshot and his face was extremely sordid.

The Zhao family guard shuddered in fright, and quickly responded respectfully, then turned and left quickly.

Many people in the Zhao family present a look of disapproval on their faces, but no one dared to show it.

The Patriarch of the Zhao family muttered to himself in an impatient voice: "No, there will be no accidents with Brother Fifth. Brother Fifth is so strong, who can deal with him?"

At this moment, a young man in his thirties who was sitting at the top stood up and said, "Father, I don't think you need to worry too much."

This person is Zhao Song, the eldest son of the head of the Zhao family, and the future heir of the family.

In the family, many affairs are now in charge of him, which can be regarded as a fairly stable one.

He whispered: "Wu Bo has always been unprofitable and has extremely strong strength. Within the radius of our Zhao family for thousands of miles, I am afraid that there is no other Eight-Star Martial King. Who will be his opponent?"

"As for that little bastard, at such a young age, he is only a Six-Star King Wu at best, so how could he be the opponent of Uncle Wu?"

After listening to his comfort, the Patriarch of the Zhao family calmed down a bit.

Zhao Heng also said disapprovingly at this time: "Father, you don't have to worry too much, maybe Wu Bo just encountered something, so he came back a little later! He won't have any problems."

"You **** shut up for me!" Suddenly, Patriarch Zhao turned his head and shouted at him harshly.

He was full of anger: "This time, if it wasn't for you to cause these things, why would I be so scared? Even if your fifth uncle does not have an accident, our Zhao family guards will damage a dozen or so, it will make me very distressed! "

"Don't you know that our Zhao family will participate in a grand event next? Any strength of our Zhao family is extremely precious, and it may play an extremely important role in the next major event!

Zhao Heng was frightened, and quickly lowered his head, not daring to speak any more.

He is the son of the Patriarch of the Zhao family, and he has never been reprimanded like this before.

The Zhao Family Patriarch screamed: "All the guards are coming in."

Hundreds of guards poured into the hall, and then he commanded loudly: "You all go find me, you must find Brother Five."

And at this moment, suddenly, a cold voice came from outside the hall: "Are you looking for him?"

As he said, two figures suddenly appeared at the entrance of the hall.

After seeing these two figures clearly, Zhao Heng let out an unbelievable exclamation: "It's you, it's you?"

When the Patriarch of the Zhao Family heard him shouting like this, his heart sank, with a vaguely ominous premonition.

"Yes, it's me." Chen Feng smiled and looked at him, suddenly the corner of his mouth twitched, revealing a sneer, and then shaking his hand, a dark thing rolled in front of the Zhao family, and finally stopped. , It happened to face them.

Everyone in the Zhao family looked at this dark thing. After seeing it clearly, they suddenly screamed like a ghost, and stepped back.

It turned out that this dark thing was clearly recognized by them, and it was actually the head of Zhao Laowu.

The head looked at the Zhao family with a grim look at this time, but it had no vitality.

"What? Uncle Wu, Uncle Wu was actually killed by you?" Zhao Heng yelled in disbelief, "I don't believe it, this is definitely not true!"

"Uncle Wu is an eight-star Wuwang cultivation base, how could you kill him?"

Everyone in the Zhao family is full of disbelief, but this is the fact!

Chen Feng looked at them and said faintly: "What is the Eight-Star King Wu in my eyes? It's just a chicken!"

"I only used one move to kill him!"

Everyone in the Zhao family burst into a panic and looked at Chen Feng with horror.

They didn't believe it, but Chen Feng had no scars on his body, he was very vigorous, and there was no sign of injury at all. This meant that what Chen Feng said was the truth!

Can't tolerate them not believe it!

The expressions on their faces changed from anger and disbelief to fear and despair.

Looking at Chen Feng, many people trembled their teeth, trembled all over, and feared to the extreme!

The Patriarch Zhao's complexion was also earthy. He took a deep breath. He suppressed the fear in his heart, looked at Chen Feng, and said with a smile on his face: "This son, we must have some misunderstandings. ."

"Oh? Misunderstanding?" Chen Feng looked at her and said with a smile:

"Outside the Zhao family trading house, I had a conflict with your son. He wanted to kill me, but I only taught him a lot, but spared his life and didn't pursue it."

"Could it be that I am not generous enough?"

"Your Zhao family said that you want to compensate the monster beast to me. I delivered the Xuan Huangshi as usual and then left Zhao Jiaji. I didn't intend to pursue your Zhao family. Isn't this magnanimous enough?"

"And your Zhao family, you even sent someone to chase me? Isn't it your Zhao Jiaen's revenge?"

"In that case, what else is there to say?"

Having said this, Chen Feng gave a sigh of relief and pointed his finger at the Zhao Family Patriarch: "Today, I will destroy your Zhao Family!"

"What? Destroy my Zhao family?" Patriarch Zhao's face changed drastically after listening, "Then I have to see if you have this ability!"

As he said, he roared: "Kill!"

He rushed to Chen Feng fiercely, and at the same time, the hundreds of Zhao Family guards also killed Chen Feng at the same time.

There was a hint of hope in many people's eyes. They hoped that Zhao Laowu did not die by Chen Feng.

He hoped that Chen Feng's strength as a young man was not so terrifying.

But unfortunately, all this is just a luxury.

Chen Feng sneered: "The pearl of rice, dare to compete with the sun and the moon?"

With that, he punched out fiercely.

He didn't even use the Shenlong to destroy the heavens and the earth at all, just used the Imprint Sumeru Mountain, but even so, this move was extremely powerful.

With one move, the extremely powerful shock wave rippled out, directly spitting blood out of the head of the Zhao family, hitting heavily on the pillars of the hall, and almost crashing the hall.

The entire hall was shaken violently, and this was because Chen Feng allocated a part of his power to attack the guards.

Otherwise, he would be killed directly by this move!

Those guards were hit by the slightest force of Mt. Xumi, and they were directly killed!

One after another, the bones were broken, blood spurted wildly, and they fell to the ground, and there was no sound.

Chapter 2026: Do you think your life is very valuable?

In the hall, all the members of the Zhao family backed away, exclaiming, with extreme fear in their eyes, and many of them shivered, like quails trembling in the cold wind!

"The strength of this green robe boy is too strong!"

"That's right! Just a casual punch, killing hundreds of guards, and even vomiting blood crazily, severely injured and dying!"

Then, Chen Feng walked slowly towards the Patriarch of the Zhao family, smiled and said, "Now you are convinced?"

Patriarch Zhao coughed frantically, nodded repeatedly, and shouted in despair: "I'm convinced, I'm convinced!"

"Since you are convinced, then go to death!" Chen Feng said word by word.

Suddenly, the Patriarch of the Zhao family knelt on the ground and shouted: "My son, please, please, I am willing to pay with my life."

"All of this is discussed with Zhao Laowu. It's nothing to do with them. I have taught me this rebellious son, and I have no way to teach him!"

"Please, don't involve others, just kill me! I am willing to use my life to pay off the debt!"

"Oh? You used your life to pay off the debt?" Chen Feng showed a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and suddenly looked at her, every word, with a scornful expression on his face, "Do you think your life is valuable?"

As soon as this was said, the Patriarch Zhao's face turned earthy.

Is his life valuable? It's not worth it at all, or even a blow from Chen Feng's anger!

The Patriarch of the Zhao family suddenly thought of something, and said loudly: "We have other things, and our Zhao family have other things."

"Our Zhao family has accumulated thousands of years in Zhaojiaji, and accumulated countless Xuanhuangshi, countless rare birds and exotic treasures, these can be given to you!"

"Moreover, we still have a big secret to offer. As long as you spare the rest of my Zhao family, I will tell you this big secret."

Chen Feng said lightly: "What big secret?"

"I want you to promise first, I will tell you if you don't kill them!" The Zhao Family Patriarch said loudly.

"Oh?" Chen Feng sneered: "Do you think you still have room for bargaining?"

The Patriarch of the Zhao family was indifferent. He realized that he seemed to have made another mistake, so he whispered: "Okay, I will tell you first, but I also hope you can keep your promise!"

Then he shouted: "Go, take all the savings of our Zhao family."

"Yes, yes." None of the Zhao family dared to hesitate and followed the orders one after another, and then they soon came back.

Everyone was followed by dozens of subordinates, and every two subordinates carried a box.

Soon, bang bang bang bang, there were hundreds of boxes in this hall.

Then, everyone opened the big box, and suddenly, the colorful light dazzled everyone's eyes.

Chen Feng glanced at it. The big box was full of black and yellow stones.

Seeing these mysterious yellow stones, Chen Feng also condensed his eyes, and raised his brows slightly. I am afraid that these black yellow stones are as many as 100,000 yuan.

Chen Feng now actually needs Xuanhuangshi very urgently. The 10,000 Xuanhuangshi he left before had been absorbed yesterday.

Because, after he has used up the dragon to destroy the world, he needs a large amount of black yellow stone to supplement, and this is only half of the supplement.

If you want to complete the replenishment, you need 20,000 yuan!

The power of the dragon descending Arhat scriptures is too powerful, but the price that needs to be paid is also very huge, just this large amount of black yellow stone is simply unbearable by ordinary warriors.

The Patriarch of the Zhao Family tremblingly said, "Here, there are a total of 110,000 Profound Yellow Stones, which are all the savings of my Zhao Family.

Chen Feng nodded: "But these are not enough to buy their lives."

"I know, so I have other things." The Patriarch of the Zhao family walked to the back of the hall and said, "Please follow me."

Chen Feng was not afraid, and led Han Yu'er to the apse, following behind the head of the Zhao family.

In the apse, there was no one in the apse, and the Patriarch of the Zhao family said softly: "What I am going to talk about is a secret. I believe this secret can buy our lives!"

He suddenly pointed to the west and said, "Do you know, what is this place seven hundred thousand miles westward?"

Chen Feng shook his head: "I don't know."

"There, there is an ancient city called Shenying Ancient City!"

"Shenying Ancient City?" Chen Feng raised his eyebrows. When he heard the name, he had a familiar feeling.

This name seems to be related to Buddhism!

"Go on." Chen Feng said coldly.

A sign appeared in the hand of the Patriarch of the Zhao family and handed it to Chen Feng.

Chen Feng took a look and found that the material of this brand was extremely special and it was made extremely exquisitely. Nothing was written on the surface, but a big letter written in ancient seals.

Invitation please!

The Patriarch of the Zhao family said: "This is an invitation. It is an invitation for a big auction held in the ancient city of Shenying a month later."

"Big auction? An invitation?" Chen Feng raised his eyebrows and said, "Why do you think this secret can buy their lives?"

The Patriarch of the Zhao family smiled and said: "Because of this big auction, few people can participate. The entire desert, with a radius of tens of thousands of miles, will not be eligible to participate in more than a thousand powers, and our Zhao family is one of them."

"Only with this invitation can you enter the big auction. Even if you want to force yourself into it with your strength, it is absolutely impossible to enter."

"Because, behind that big auction, there is more than one Nine-Star Martial King, and even more powerful than the Martial King realm."

Chen Feng took a deep breath. With his current strength, he really couldn't reach that realm.

Then, the owner of the Zhao family showed a weird smile on his face, and then said: "This big auction, one of the lots..."

Having said that, he paused, lowered his voice, as if he was afraid of offending something, and said softly: "The final lot is a Buddhist secret treasure. It is said that it is related to Venerable Dragon Arhat. !"

"What?" Chen Feng suddenly faded when he heard this: "How did you know the Venerable Arhat Dragon?"

Seeing his expression like this, the Patriarch of the Zhao family immediately knew that he was right.

He smiled and threw out another heavy news: "It is said that this secret treasure is the key to unlock the inheritance of Venerable Dragon Arhat."

Chen Feng said anxiously: "Be more specific."

"I can tell you, but you must let the Zhao family go."

"Good!" Chen Feng didn't hesitate: "I promise you."

The Patriarch of the Zhao family lowered his voice and said something. Chen Feng's expression changed when he heard it. He shivered violently, his heart throbbed deeply, and even got goose bumps.

Chen Feng hurriedly turned around and took out the secret treasure he had obtained in the guiding fairy colossus. The power of the dragon descending arhat surged out, and the map in his mind instantly floated.

Chapter 2027: The real clue!

The end of the map was a big point. Chen Feng had never cared about it before, only thinking that this point represented the destination.

But at this time, he didn't think so.

He turned around, drew a map of the desert, and then drew that spot, and asked, "Do you know what this place is?"

The Patriarch of the Zhao Family looked at it for a moment, and said: "I can only tell, it should be near the sea of quicksand on the westernmost side of the desert, but..."

He chuckled softly: "The big desert has a radius of tens of thousands of miles, this young man, at this point of yours, the circled area at least represents a huge area of 30,000 miles."

"This is not a specific location."

"Want to find something in it is tantamount to idiotic dreams."

After listening to him, Chen Feng knew in his heart.

"It turns out that this map only points to a rough range."

"And the real specific location, the real key to open the inheritance and find the Buddha's bones, is this Buddhist secret treasure to be auctioned."

"All of them know that the secret treasure points to the inheritance of Venerable Dragon Arhat, but I am afraid that only I know that it points to Buddha dragon bones!"

"Moreover," a cunning flash flashed in the eyes of the Zhao Family Patriarch: "If I guessed it correctly, you should have known some things about the inheritance of the dragon descending Arhat before. This is even more important to you, because the sea of quicksand is dangerous. Abnormal, if you are not careful, you can't get out at all!"

"In the past few years, there have been quite a few Jiuxing Wuwang masters who have been trapped and killed in the sea of quicksand."

Chen Feng was shocked, and then he was very fortunate: "It turns out that there are so many twists and turns hidden in the inheritance of Venerable Arhat the Dragon. Fortunately for this incident, fortunately to know this secret, otherwise. , I'm afraid I will be trapped and die in the sea of quicksand."

"Well, I'm done talking about this secret, can you spare my Zhao family, right?"

Chen Feng nodded and said, "Okay, since I promised you, I won't regret it."

"Okay, okay." The Patriarch of the Zhao family nodded, and suddenly he slapped his Heavenly Spirit Cover with a palm.

He snorted, bleeding from the corners of his mouth and cut off his vitality.

When Chen Feng walked out of the secret room, all the Zhao family members looked at him with horror.

And Chen Feng didn't even look at them, but took away the Xuan Huangshi, and left with Han Yu'er!

Of course, Chen Feng knew that cutting the grass without removing the roots must have endless troubles, but he is a trustworthy person. He promised the Patriarch of the Zhao family, saying that he would not kill, then he would not kill!

What Chen Feng didn't know, not long after he left Zhaojiaji, the news of the death of Zhao Laowu, the first master of the Zhao family and the Patriarch of the second master Zhao, spread in the Zhao family.

In an instant, Zhao Jiaji's undercurrent surged.

The reason why the Zhao family was able to occupy this place was because of these two masters.

And now, these two people are dead, and the forces that were firmly suppressed by them before can't sit still.

After the stalemate lasted only two days, the other family forces of the Zhao family gathered together to attack the Zhao family.

The battle was extremely tragic, almost razing the Zhao family to the ground, and after a few days and nights of fierce fighting, almost all of the Zhao family were killed, only a few people escaped.

Zhao Jiaji was divided by other families!

Naturally, Chen Feng didn't know this. He and Han Yuer were heading towards the ancient city of Shenyang!

The ancient city of Shenyang, big auction!

Chen Feng is determined to win the secret that completely points to the bones of Buddha!

A month later, Chen Feng and two of them, who were in the dust, finally saw a huge city appearing on the horizon in the distance.

This huge city is very peculiar, as if it was built on a large area of ruins.

This place should have been an extremely huge ruin, occupying a very large area. Later, after someone occupied it, they would rest on the ruins and build houses, or simply sweep the ruins out and live in it.

Thus, a prosperous ancient city was formed.

And Chen Feng and the two also saw that not far from the city, on a desert mountain peak, there was a sculpture of several thousand meters high, which was visible in a radius of hundreds of miles.

This sculpture, which is thousands of meters high, is a huge bird monster, its whole body is golden, the wings are blue, and its appearance is extremely beautiful.

This is exactly a powerful monster in the legend: the golden eagle!

It is said that this monster beast has surpassed the level of the monster king.

Chen Feng instigated the two-humped snow camel under his crotch and slowly stepped onto a hill, looked back at Han Yu'er, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and said softly: "Sister, the ancient city of Shenyang is here."

At this time, Han Yu'er was also full of dust and simplicity. She was wrapped in a veil to cover her peerless face. Her clothes were covered with dust, and she looked no different from an ordinary traveler in the desert.

"Finally here." Han Yuer sighed with relief.

"Yes!" Chen Feng sighed.

It was not easy for the two of them to travel this way. When they came out of the Zhao family, they took a batch of the fastest four-winged snow camels from the Zhao family. They thought it was more than enough to go on a journey.

Unexpectedly, three days later, he found a desert poisonous scorpion with the level of the Seven-Star Demon King in the desert. It directly turned the four-winged snow camel into a puddle of snow.

Chen Feng spent a lot of money. Although he killed the desert poisonous scorpion, he also lost his mount, and had to rely on his legs and feet to drive away in the next few days.

It wasn't until he met a five-star demon king who could fly again, that he was surrendered, driven thousands of miles away from the ancient city of Shenyang, and then released.

Then, Chen Feng and Han Yuer replaced the two-humped snow camel.

This Bactrian camel is the most common tool used by warriors in the desert, just like the black iron wildebeest in the Central Plains.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Sister, when we get to the city, we can take a break first."

Han Yu'er nodded slightly. After arriving near the ancient city of Shenyang, the crowds were obviously about to flourish. Chen Feng and the two drove the Bactrian camel forward.

And he glanced at it and found that right next to him, there were at least a dozen teams heading towards the ancient city of Shenyang.

Among all the teams, there is no doubt that the mounts that Chen Feng rides are the lowest.

Those in the team looked at them with a trace of contempt in their eyes, and some people even whispered in a low voice, bursting into a burst of laughter.

However, they may be afraid, and they didn't come to find fault.

Soon, he approached the ancient city of Shenyang.

Chen Feng saw that ten miles away from the city gate, there were about a hundred people wearing yellow armor. They should be sentries.

Chapter 2028: Am I worthy?

In front of them, there is a fence horizontally. This fence can't play any deterrent effect, but serves as a decoration here.

Chen Feng estimated that this should be a symbol of their existence. There were several teams before Chen Feng. After they came to the front of the fence, the people wearing yellow armor behind the fence hurriedly met with smiles and opened the fence. .

They chatted for a while before entering the city.

Chen Feng looked at it and slowly nodded, then he and Han Yuer went forward and came outside the fence.

Chen Feng originally thought that they should let them go, but he didn't expect that a few people in yellow armor walked over behind the fence, looked at them up and down, and then there was a trace of contempt on his face:

"Where did the untouchables come from? Where did they come from, where did they go back!"

Chen Feng looked at them and said lightly: "I want to enter the ancient city of Shenyang."

"Oh, you want to enter the city? It's easy to say!" A man in yellow armor, with a playful look on his face, said: "Pay one hundred black yellow stones and let you in."

The middle-aged man with a mustache next to him laughed, and looked at Chen Feng jokingly, and said: "But looking at you two being poor, even the mounts are only the most inferior and inferior snow camels. , Presumably, you can't take out Xuan Huangshi at all, right?"

"Don't talk about a hundred black yellow stones, I guess, even one piece may not be taken out!"

The big yellow armored man who spoke first gave a violent roar, his face changed instantly, and he roared disdainfully: "Get out, get out!"

"While you guys are in a good mood and didn't change your mind, get out quickly, otherwise, you won't be able to leave if you want to leave later!"

In Chen Feng's eyes, a sharp color flashed past.

These people have already succeeded in making him murderous.

However, he didn't show it, just said lightly: "Why can they live? We can't?"

"Haha, do you still have the face to ask?" The yellow armored man laughed wildly, pointed at Chen Feng, and said contemptuously: "You don't **** and take pictures of yourself. Are you worthy of being compared with others?"

"They are all famous masters in this desert. They can naturally enter here without any hindrance, but what about you? What are you?"

"It's just an ordinary untouchable waste, still have the face to ask?"

At this time, what happened here also attracted many people wearing yellow armors to come over, looking at Chen Feng with mocking faces and mocking words constantly in their mouths.

Chen Feng took a deep breath and said faintly: "So, do you think I am an incompetent waste? Don't you deserve to enter the ancient city of Shenyang?"

"Yes!" said the middle-aged mustache arrogantly.

"Okay, very good!" Chen Feng showed a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and suddenly shouted: "Then open your dog eyes and see if I am worthy!"

As he said, Chen Feng's figure suddenly jumped up, and slammed out with a fist, suddenly suppressing boundless pressure.

This fist force has not yet arrived, and the pressure alone has crushed all these dozens of big men in yellow armor to the ground, vomiting blood crazily.

They yelled in disbelief: "How is it possible?"

"It turns out that this kid is so powerful?"

"Ah, forgiveness, forgiveness, don't kill me!"

Some people made painful pleadings, and many people showed extreme regret on their faces, regretting themselves, why did they dare to mock this powerful young man just now!

However, it was too late.

Chen Feng's fist suddenly fell, with a loud bang, and a dozen people were killed, none of them survived.

Chen Feng coldly shouted, "Am I worthy?"

Seeing this scene, the other people in the yellow armor changed their expressions drastically, and their faces showed horror.

"This boy is so strong?"

"Yeah, he killed so many of us with a single blow, and it seems to be an understatement, effortless!"

"The one with the lowest strength is also the One-Star King Wu!"

"Yes, his strength is unfathomable, I guess he can't even be weaker than the leader."

Their gazes towards Chen Feng were full of fear! The contempt just now disappeared without a trace.

At this time, a man wearing a yellow armor and a red cloak, who looked like a leader, walked over quickly.

First, he turned his head and glared at the man in his hand, and shouted sternly: "What are you doing? Put down the weapon in your hand quickly! Do you dare to be disrespectful to this young man?"

Those in yellow armor hurriedly put down their weapons, and then the commander walked up to Chen Feng, hunched over, and said flatly: "This son, I'm very sorry, these dog things under my hand just now have no eyes. I have offended you and I will apologize for them."

Seeing this scene, the people wearing yellow armor were stunned, and then the next moment, their eyes on Chen Feng changed again.

It's not just fear, but full of fear.

They knew very well that their vision was definitely not as good as that of the leader, and the leader was so respectful to this young man, indicating that the strength of this young man was still above their imagination.

This young man is unfathomable!

And this scene, as early as Chen Feng expected.

In this desert, the weak and the strong were extremely serious, so they were disrespectful to Chen Feng, and Chen Feng immediately hurt the killer.

Only in this way can we avoid subsequent troubles and attract the respect of others!

The commander respectfully said to Chen Feng, "I don't know if the two are going to enter the city?"

Chen Feng nodded slowly: "That's right."

The commander smiled and said, "In this case, it would be too wrong for the two to enter on this Bactrian camel."

"There are not a few people in the city who look down on people like us. If two people ride this double sled, they will inevitably have a lot of trouble entering the city."

"Why not, as a plea, how about I give you two mounts?"

After a while, Chen Feng and the two came to the foot of the ancient city of Shenying riding on a huge desert giant anteater.

This huge monster beast was given to Chen Feng by those yellow armor leaders.

The closer he got to the ancient city of Shenying, the more shocked Chen Feng was, with a touch of amazement on his face: "This ancient city of Shenying is really majestic."

It is not the city, but the ruins where the city is located.

Although it has been turned into ruins, the buildings that are thousands of meters high can be seen in Bibi. The foundation of the ancient city of Shenying is now thousands of meters high. There are extremely tall pavilion movies everywhere, although there are already many upper half of them. It collapsed, but it is still extremely majestic.

And what Chen Feng saw most here were all kinds of stone pillars.

Chapter 2029: Undercurrent

The stone pillars that are thousands of meters high and need hundreds of people to surround themselves are one after another in this city. Sometimes, there are even hundreds of them in a row, very domineering!

The roads in the city did not go straight up and down as Chen Feng had seen before, but kept circling up and down.

At a glance, this city is divided into at least hundreds of floors. The closer it is to the upper floors, the more clean the building will be renovated and luxurious.

At this time, watching the backs of the two gradually disappearing at the gate, those wearing yellow armors asked their leader very puzzledly: "Master, why are you so careful with them?"

"Even if the two of them are strong, they are not absolutely unattainable."

"You know what a shit! You don't understand anything!" The leader cursed angrily: "The two of them are only in your twenties, but they have such powerful strength. They must be born. In an extremely powerful family."

"We can afford to provoke a concession, but knowing that they had an accident in this ancient city of Shenying, will their family give up?"

"When the time comes, come to the door, won't it cause trouble to Lord City Lord?"

"That's it!"

"Master commander is really clever!" The people around all realized suddenly and nodded one after another.

"Moreover, I think they should have come for that auction." The leader smiled and said: "The Lord of the City has passed down a message, but everyone who comes for that auction is a distinguished guest, so let's even more. Can't be offended."

"You know, each of them might contribute thousands or even tens of thousands of black yellow stones to us at the auction, or these are all distinguished guests!"

After Chen Feng and the two entered the ancient city of Shenying, they found that the knife slaves here were indeed extremely tortuous.

There are knives slaves up and down everywhere. There are high and low pavilions everywhere. It is possible to look down at the corner of the street, which is the roof of other people's houses, and when you look up, it is thousands of meters high. Endless tall buildings.

Chen Feng didn't say anything. He took Han Yu'er around the city for about two or three hours, and then many things became clear.

Only then did I know that this ancient city of Shenyang was divided into three districts, the upper, the middle and the lower. The higher the level, the more noble the identity of the people living.

In the Xiacheng District, there are basically some civilians, slaves, ordinary foreign merchants, etc., living in a very chaotic environment.

The Shangcheng District is basically the mansions of major officials and dignitaries, as well as large merchants.

Chen Feng and the two did not go to Xiacheng District, and their current status in Shangcheng District was not able to enter at all, so they chose a place to live in Zhongcheng District.

Here is a pavilion with dozens of stories high, with four large characters written on it: Zhaofu Inn.

When the two walked into the inn, the shopkeeper's gaze swept away, and a smile immediately appeared on his face. He greeted him quickly, and said with a respectful smile: "Two guests, I don't know if you want to make a tip or stay in the shop? "

His eyes were extremely vicious, and he could tell at a glance that although the two of them were dressed in ordinary clothes, they had extraordinary temperament. He knew at a glance that they were the children of a large family who had practiced outside, so he absolutely did not despise them.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Living in, choose a quiet and clean upper room."

"Okay." The shopkeeper responded swiftly, and found a second person to bring Chen Feng and the two upstairs, and chose a room to go to.

There were two rooms inside and outside. The outside room was facing the street. Chen Feng looked down from the window and saw that it was about a hundred meters high from the street, which was not too noisy.

Close the windows and the outside doors, so you won't be noisy inside.

Chen Feng was quite satisfied, nodded and said: "Okay, let's go here."

The room rate here is surprisingly high, with one hundred black yellow stone fragments a day, and Chen Feng did not bargain.

He doesn't lack the money, the important thing is that he lives in this inn quite comfortably.

After settling down briefly, Chen Feng took the invitation in his hand and whimpered with his hands on it. He had been busy on the road before, and he finally had time to look at it carefully.

Only then did I realize that there was a line written on the back of the invitation: "When the shooting started, August 15th."

"August 15th?" Chen Feng raised his eyebrows: "That is three days later!"

Chen Feng was extremely looking forward to that day.

That night, Chen Feng didn't even practice because he was afraid of causing something abnormal and causing unnecessary troubles. He didn't even practice, but just took Han Yuer around the city.

This ancient city of Shenyang is full of exotic customs, which is different from all the places that Chen Feng and Chen Feng have visited before.

There are strangely dressed aliens everywhere, with many high noses and deep eyes, and there are many other races besides humans.

For example, Chen Feng saw a lot of half-humans and half-beasts, some with human bodies but a snake tail, and some human bodies with a wolf head on their necks.

What's more, those who are extremely tall, or extremely short, also opened the eyes of Chen Feng!

And after Chen Feng returned with a punch, he was also quite jealous, because he met many masters on the street this time around.

Chen Feng estimated that he had encountered dozens of those above the Seven-Star Martial King, and the Eight-Star Martial King was not a minority.

Even with a few of them, Chen Feng couldn't see their strength clearly.

Each of these people is quite low-key, and some even wear cloaks to hide their faces.

Chen Feng only thought of four words: "Undercurrents surge."

Obviously, they are all preparing for the big auction three days later.

That night, Chen Feng and the two went to sleep, and the surrounding area was quiet, sleeping very sweetly.

But the next morning, before dawn, they were awakened by a noise outside.

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows and sat up, his expression a little unhappy.

He distinguished it carefully. The noise was very complicated. There were people shouting and shouting, and there were sounds of gongs, drums, and instruments.

And the most conspicuous and clear is the sound that resembles the roar of a wild beast, and that roar is obviously made by the same creature.

And every time he roared, Chen Feng felt the house tremble with it, full of heart-palpating power.

Chen Feng immediately judged from the roar that the master of this voice was absolutely strong.

He got up in his cloak, went outside, opened the window and looked out.

And at the moment when he looked out, he was shocked. At the moment when he looked out, a huge blood-red eyeball outside the window was also looking towards him. The two eyes were touching one. Face to face.

Chapter 2030: Knife slave

The huge blood-red eyeballs shocked Chen Feng, and a sly flash flashed in his eyes, he let out a low howl, and then walked forward.

Chen Feng laughed at himself, glanced down, and understood what was going on.

It turned out that there was a giant beast walking on the street outside at this time. The giant beast was a hundred meters tall, and his eyes were just flush with his window.

At this moment, this giant beast was holding a huge iron cage in its hands, and inside that iron cage was a huge human giant.

This human giant is five meters tall, his fist is the size of a water tank, and his wrists are bigger than Chen Feng's body!

His muscles are knotted, full of explosive power.

But at this time, he was trapped in the iron cage, and on his hands and feet, each had a huge metal chain connected to the iron cage. These chains were shining with purple-golden light. Just know the extraordinary product.

He roared from time to time, struggling hard, and as soon as his power was used, those purple-gold iron chains would immediately send out a very subtle and mysterious tremor, which would offset his power.

After struggling a few times, he lay down in the cage and stopped getting up, just let out a low roar.

When Chen Feng heard this, he was immediately shocked. It turned out that the roar just now came from this giant man.

Soon, Chen Feng's brows wrinkled, because he saw that on the four corners of the cage, there was a warrior standing on each of them. Each of these four warriors was quite powerful.

Chen Feng estimated that their strength had at least reached the realm of the Eight-Star Martial King.

Chen Feng was shocked: "These four people clearly used to watch and guard the giant man in the cage. How terrifying is the strength of this giant man?"

"Not only did he use this strange metal to make a chain to bind it, but also four eight-star martial arts guards! Could it be said that his strength has reached the level of the nine-rank martial arts?"

Chen Feng was shocked by this thought.

He could not imagine that a Nine-Star Martial King would be imprisoned like a slave!

At this time, around the iron cage, there were countless people beating gongs, drums, and musical instruments, and it was very lively, all the way forward.

When Chen Feng saw the direction they were going, it was clearly in the center of the city.

If Chen Feng moved in his heart, he woke Han Yu'er up, and the two quietly merged into the crowd of onlookers and walked forward.

At this time, the crowd of onlookers was extremely large, or even tens of thousands of people.

And when it finally reached the square in the center of the city, the assets of the onlookers had reached millions.

The center of the city is a huge square, 100 meters above the ground, similar to a huge altar, with a radius of several thousand meters, and there are many high platforms on it. In the middle, it is a huge golden eagle statue. !

The huge monster beast lifted the iron cage to the center of the square, and then, four Eight-Star Martial Kings stood still around the cage.

Then, an old man appeared more and more.

The old man, his hair and beard were already gray, and his face was full of arrogance. He looked at the type of person below, smiled and said, "Everyone, I am the chief of the Colosseum. Today it is my boss. The Colosseum was founded ten years ago."

"My owner of the Colosseum has decided to offer you the most exciting duel in the city today. It will definitely make everyone enjoy it."

"After reading it, I'm afraid I won't forget it in a few years!"

As soon as the voice fell, there was a cheering sound from below, and the atmosphere of everyone reached a climax in an instant.

"Haha, this time, the Colosseum is really big! They even took out one of the top slaves in their Colosseum, the slave slave!"

"Yes, the strength of the knife slave is unfathomable. In the ten years since he was arrested in the Colosseum, he has won all the battles of 749 and 119, so powerful!"

"Haha, now it's not easy to watch a game of knife slaves. Only those high-ranking officials can see it. Not only do you have to spend a lot of money to buy invitations, but you also don't have your identity. You can see it once!"

"It's really a rare opportunity, but I don't know who the sword slave's opponent is this time!"

"I only hope that this time, the Colosseum can come up with an opponent with enough weight and strength. If it is an ordinary opponent, the knife slave will be killed with a single punch. Even the knife can't be used. Isn't it satisfying?"

Everyone was so excited, they shouted hello!

Chen Feng listened by the side and gradually understood.

It turned out that the big man who was imprisoned in the cage was called a slave slave, but he didn't know where his sword was!

Chen Feng smiled at the person next to him and said, "This Xiongtai, can I ask you something?"

The man next to him was a very thin young man in his thirties. Hearing Chen Feng's words, his chin immediately raised, with a hint of superiority, and said with an arrogant expression: "Let's talk, what's the matter? ?"

Chen Feng didn't get angry because of his attitude. He smiled and said, "I'm a newcomer, man, can you tell me about this big Colosseum? What's the matter with this slave?"

"You, you look like a foreigner, you don't even know this." The thin young man proudly said:

"I'm telling you, this Colosseum is one of the largest chambers of commerce in the ancient city of Condor. There are eight Colosseums in the city, and exciting battles are staged every day!"

"Some, there are battles between people, some people and monsters, and some monsters. You can bet on who wins, or you can go out in person and fight with the slaves of the Colosseum. challenge."

"If you win the challenge, you can get a huge bonus..."

He talked endlessly, and Chen Feng heard a general idea.

This big Colosseum, in the ancient city of Shenying, is a very terrifying force, with a large number of masters, and these masters formed a slave hunting team.

They captured slaves throughout the Tianyuan Empire and even forces outside the Tianyuan Empire.

These slaves include both humans and monsters.

After the slaves were captured, they were thrown into the Colosseum to drive them to fight.

And this kind of cruel, bloody, and often deadly battle is of course sought after by countless people, so it has also gained a lot of benefits.

In each of these eight great Colosseums, there is a top-notch strong man who is also a slave, but the strength is extremely strong.

This knife slave was the top powerhouse in the largest Colosseum, and was the finale.

No one knows his origins, except that he appeared in the ancient city of Shenying ten years ago. Since then, there have been more than 700 battles without losing one.
