Chapter 2401: Teng snake swallow elephant

At this time, the Tuoshan troll elephants recovered their calm, they all showed sadness and despair, but in their sorrow and despair there was a faint sense of fortune and relief.

They no longer panic, they all walked out slowly.

Chen Feng looked stupid: "Is a five-star demon emperor peak powerhouse so finished?"

At this moment, the huge monster snake seemed to be full and satisfied. He let out a lazy neigh, then twisted around and swam forward.

No longer galloping, but the speed is also extremely fast, and soon he disappeared into the huge rhizomes in the distance.

After a while, Chen Feng suddenly felt that the mountains he was in began to shake violently.

The whole mountain trembled, and after a while, it subsided.

Obviously, the huge monster snake just now was climbing Jianmu.

Its body is huge, and when it reaches this level, the entire Jianmu shakes for it.

This is a giant tree after another!

Just now, Anlao had disappeared when this huge monster snake appeared, and only then did he dare to appear quietly.

An extremely complex light flashed on his face, then he let out a shallow breath, and said softly: "Teng Snake Tun Elephant, this is Teng Snake Tun Elephant!"

"The legend is true. Teng Snake's favorite food is all kinds of giant elephants!"

"What? Teng snake?" Chen Feng was dumbfounded after hearing these two words, and was speechless in shock.

Even his voice became a little stammered: "This is the snake?"

Chen Feng remembered the words Liu Chengyi and the old lunatic said to him: "Only the Teng Snake inner pill can save you. Only by finding the Teng Snake, beheading it, and obtaining the inner pill, can you restore your Yang life."

And Chen Feng's answer at the time, he himself remembered very clearly, he said that he would definitely be able to kill the snake.

At the beginning, after hearing that Chen Feng was going to kill Teng Snake, Liu Chengyi and the old madman looked at him like a madman.

At that time, Chen Feng felt that they were making a big fuss, and he also felt that he had no chance of winning.

But at this time he understood that the reason why the old madman and Liu Chengyi were like this was because they knew what a terrifying existence this Teng Snake was!

"God, you play me!" Chen Feng looked up to the sky, crying without tears.

This Teng Snake, so powerful and terrifying, casually swallowed a giant elephant equivalent to the peak power of the Six-Star Martial Emperor, but the peak power of the Six-Star Martial Emperor was killed without even having the power to resist.

How could he be an opponent of such a terrifying existence?

Want to take his inner alchemy? What is this not dreaming?

"Yes, this is Teng Snake."

Looking at Chen Feng, Dim Lao said indifferently: "This is this world, on the entire Dragon Vein Continent, the only owner who can save you and restore your health, Teng Snake!"

"You can only replenish your two-year life expectancy to normal if you get the inner alchemy of the snake. Otherwise, you will undoubtedly die within two years."

An old man looked at him with a rare cold expression on his face: "Chen Feng, are you scared?"

"Am I afraid? Am I afraid?"

A voice echoed in Chen Feng's heart, and he tortured his own heart.

Suddenly, Chen Feng roared all his life: "How can I be afraid? How can I be afraid?"

"If I'm afraid, I will definitely die!"

"Only by not being afraid, only by moving forward courageously, can we make a way out!"

"The big deal is just to die, so why am I afraid?"

Chen Feng's voice became louder and louder, and he laughed loudly, "How can I be afraid?"

He looked at An Lao, and his voice was firm and firm: "An Lao, within two years, I will kill Teng Snake and obtain Teng Snake's inner core!"

The old man laughed loudly and patted Chen Feng on the shoulder hard: "This is the Chen Feng I know!"

The two continued to move forward.

The huge shock that Teng Snake brought to him has not faded.

After Chen Feng saw Teng Snake, he couldn't help but think of the huge existence in the legend that was as thick and thin as the Tongtian River.

Presumably that person exists, but that's all!

The snake swam across the ground, leaving a huge trace on the ground that was almost no smaller than the Tongtian River. Groundwater seeped out, and in a blink of an eye a huge river was formed here.

Chen Feng glanced at it and saw that there were still quite a few rivers here, and each of them looked exactly the same. Obviously, every big river was formed by the snake path left by the snake.

Chen Feng went all the way.

Old An was actually shocked. He sighed and said, "It's really a snake, this is a powerful existence that only exists in some myths and legends!"

"Unexpectedly, there are really there, and I didn't expect it to actually appear in this Southern Wilderness."

Chen Feng said: "This Teng Snake, can you tell me something? I didn't know much before."

An old man nodded and said, "Of course!"

He asked: "Chen Feng, do you know that there is a book called the Ancient Scriptures."

"The Ancient Scriptures?" Chen Feng had a majestic feeling when he heard these four words, but he had never heard of them.

An old man said: "In the Ancient Scriptures, there is a very strict division of various monsters. The genealogy of monsters is extremely meticulous, and almost all monsters can be found inside."

"But it's a pity that only the powerful can see this ancient book."

"I just glanced at it at the beginning. This book is said to have disappeared in the long years, and it hasn't been left now!"

"But in the pages I read, there is a record of snakes!"

"Teng Snake, that is a top monster beast! It is much taller than your martial soul, even though your martial soul, the dragon's name has five characters."

Hearing this, Chen Feng's heart moved and asked: "I have always had a question, does the longer the dragon's name mean the higher the level?"

An old man nodded: "Yes, that's it! Teng Snake's level is basically equivalent to the six-character dragon clan."

"Have you ever heard the saying that people are inadequate?"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Of course I have heard of it."

An old man said: "The snake swallowing elephant here is talking about the snake."

"Teng Snake, the body is extremely large, but the giant elephants it swallows are usually much thicker than it, so after swallowing those giant elephants, he doesn't need to eat anything else for a month."

"I will come down on the original site to wait for a month, and then I will eat the next one after digesting the colossus in the belly."

"And in the ancient times, there were those sages and brave men who were incomparable wild warriors. They took this opportunity to kill the snake."

Chapter 2402: This turned out to be Wuhun!

Chen Feng exclaimed: "How powerful is that fighter to be able to kill the snake?"

An old man smiled and said: "So, the legend is the legend, but the incomparable warriors of the ancient times have the blood of the gods and demons in their bodies. They stand upright and kill the snake!"

Chen Feng could not help but be fascinated by it!

An old man looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said: "It has been written in the ancient scriptures, and we will confirm them one by one, and see if the books by the sages are true!"

Later, An Lao's eyes suddenly condensed, and he said in a deep voice, "Something is wrong!"

"What's the matter?" Chen Feng asked: "That Teng Snake found us?"

"That's not true. In Teng Snake's eyes, we are like ants. Will you pay attention to the two ants with bad intentions when you walk on the road?"

An old man laughed when he said this.

Chen Feng laughed: "Of course not."

"I'm talking about this snake path." An Lao pointed to the big river and said, "Have you noticed that this snake path is getting shallower."

Chen Feng saw that it was so.

In the beginning, the snake path was about 30,000 meters wide, and the depth reached several kilometers. Now, the width is less than 10,000 meters, and the depth is only a few hundred meters.

He raised his brows and asked, "Could it be because he flew into the air?"

"Absolutely not!" An old man said flatly.

He pointed to the distance: "Look, the snake path has been stretching forward, indicating that he is still walking on the ground."

"The reason why this happened was not because he took off, but because..."

He shuddered suddenly, and said: "I know, he is not an entity, he is not a native snake, it is an evolution of a snake spirit!"

"And now, it hasn't completely turned into a physical body, he can't maintain his body shape, so when he is here, part of his body has been transformed into the incorporeal body of the martial soul!"

"That's why this kind of snake becomes increasingly shallow!"

He murmured: "What I said, the Ancient Scriptures only record Jianmu here, and there is no record of a snake here. If he recorded it, I would not have been ignorant."

"It turns out that what this Teng Snake didn't have was that after its owner died, he, as a martial soul, took over here!"

Chen Feng couldn't help being extremely shocked when he heard this.

Suddenly, a light flashed in his mind, and suddenly he thought of something!

Chen Feng exclaimed: "I know, I know, if this snake is a martial soul, then it must be the martial soul of Emperor Nanhuang Tian."

"And he must be here to guard the treasure of Emperor Southern Wilderness!"

An old man glanced at Chen Feng approvingly, and said leisurely: "You can teach you!"

"It's just such a truth, whether it is Teng Snake or the Treasure of the Southern Wilderness, they are all latecomers!"

"This Teng Snake should have been here for a long, long time, and he has lost his master, and there is no way to further evolve and improve his level, so he started to take another way to improve his strength, that is, to start realizing!"

An old man smiled and said: "Now what we are doing is guessing. If we go forward, we will know if we guessed correctly."

The two moved all the way forward.

At night that day, they finally reached Jianmu's feet.

Standing at the feet of this Jianmu, Chen Feng looked up.

I saw a straight and thick tree trunk that went straight up and pierced the sky. The big one made people feel dizzy almost at first glance.

An old man groaned: "At the extreme of the Southern Wilderness, there are built trees thousands of miles high."

"If you remember well in the ancient scriptures, the height of this tree should be ten thousand li, five million meters."

Five million meters!

Chen Feng was shocked again in his heart.

The two of them flew upwards quickly, and suddenly, there was a violent tremor from the trunk, and the two of them hurriedly hid behind a branch that grew diagonally next to them.

Behind the branches are a large number of huge leaves, covering them both firmly.

Then, Chen Feng saw that the snake was walking upstream along the trunk.

Jianmu was extremely tall, and Tengshe was no more than Jianmu, his crawling made the whole Jianmu tremble.

At this time, the sun has set and the moon is rising.

Moonlight fell through the leaves, and a radiance shone.

And in this ray of light, Chen Feng saw that, as expected, most of the snake's body was weakened.

Hazy, like mist.

Obviously, not an entity!

Chen Feng and An Lao glanced at each other, and both saw a hint of shock from each other's eyes.

Chen Feng murmured: "It turns out that he is really a martial soul, and the martial soul can be so powerful!"

Chen Feng was shocked.

This Snake Martial Spirit is so tyrannical, I'm afraid it has already surpassed the scope of a Heavenly Martial Spirit.

Chen Feng asked An Lao: "Do you know what is on the Heavenly Martial Spirit?"

An old man shook his head and said: "I really don't know about this, but I know that there are higher-level martial souls on the sky-level martial soul, and there is more than one level!"

"This Snake Martial Spirit must have surpassed the heavenly level, and it is much higher than yours."

There is a Wuhun above the sky! And there is more than one level!

Chen Feng was full of enthusiasm, and a voice echoed in his heart: "One day, I will be as strong as the Emperor of the Southern Wilds, and possess such a powerful spirit!"

"No! I am even stronger than him!"

Teng Snake passed by the two of them, and they continued to climb up cautiously.

Soon, the moonlight fell, but it was not dark here.

It turned out that Chen Feng discovered that no matter outside the leaves or the trunk, there was a layer of starlight lingering around.

This little starlight lingers and dances in it, and it shines extremely beautifully here, just like that dreamland!

Finally, after climbing for two days, Chen Feng and the two came to the top of this Jianmu tree in the early morning of the third day.

At this time the two had already crossed the huge canopy.

When the two climbed to the top of Jianmu, it was the sunrise.

Chen Feng has never stood so high, this is more than 10,000 miles, more than 5 million meters high!

Standing here, Chen Feng felt that the sky seemed to be at his own hand, within reach.

And everything in the distance is under his own feet.

Even the sun is many times bigger than usual!

The two of Chen Feng were cautious and did not dare to make any noise.

Because at this time, in the middle of the top of the tree, the huge vine snake was lying there lazily.

The top of this Jianmu tree has a radius of about thousands of miles. At this time, the huge snake coiled in the middle, occupying almost a half of the space.

Chapter 2403: Yellow bird!

Chen Feng and the two sat behind a tree branch, carefully looking out!

Fortunately, that Teng Snake was full of food and drink at this time, and was already very satisfied, lying there, falling asleep, snoring like thunder.

His snoring sound was louder, and there were dark clouds in the sky immediately, and a thunderstorm fell.

When his snoring stopped, the cloud and rain stopped immediately.

The sound of snoring can be turned into a thundercloud and rainstorm, which is really powerful.

Chen Feng asked anxiously, "Where is the treasure house of the emperor that day? Where is the treasure house of the emperor?"

Of course Chen Feng now wants to kill Tengshe and take away the inner alchemy, but he doesn't need to think about it to know that this is simply unrealistic. Chen Feng can't do this at all, even he can't do this for a long time.

Therefore, what Chen Feng most urgently wants to do now is to obtain the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor and improve his strength.

When the strength is high enough, let's talk about other things!

He was a little anxious, because he had never found the shadow of the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor.

An old man smiled beside him and said, "Little guy, don't worry, don't you see there?"

Chen Feng looked in the direction he was pointing, and only then discovered that, in the center of the snake entrenched, there was a high tower like a temple.

The whole body of this tall tower is cast in a kind of red metal, which looks extremely dazzling and majestic.

And in the red, there is a raging flame, rising into the sky, distorting the air above.

With it as the center, it emits extremely strong heat.

The entire red tower looks extremely majestic and extremely dazzling.

This red tower is actually very tall, 80,000 meters long, and each floor is 10,000 meters high.

However, Teng Snake's body was 30,000 meters in diameter, and after a few laps, he blocked the high tower.

If it hadn't been for the secret advice, Chen Feng would have been unable to find out.

Chen Feng's breathing suddenly became heavy: "Is this the treasure house of the Emperor of Heaven?"

An Lao took a deep breath, a very complicated look suddenly appeared in his eyes, and said softly: "Yes, this is the treasure house of the Emperor of Heaven, the treasure of Emperor Nanhuang!"

Chen Feng didn't notice his slightly unusual look.

At this time, his heart was full of excitement. For Chen Feng, if he found it, there was hope to open it!

An old man murmured: "I want to make a note for the ancient scriptures of the wild, and I want to add a sentence to Jianmu: 'Above Jianmu, the Emperor of the Southern Wilderness hides the treasure in the tower! There are snakes around it!'"

While he was talking, Chen Feng suddenly narrowed his eyes, with a look of surprise and uncertainty on his face.

It turned out that he actually saw a wooden house in a small corner at the top of this built-up wooden.

The wooden house is quite gorgeous and new, and it seems that there must be people living here.

Moreover, this house hasn't been built for long, and Chen Feng's heart is filled with infinite doubts: "Who is in it? Who lives? How can they survive here? Did Teng Snake not find them?"

"Impossible, I must be able to find out. Would he allow this person to live here?"

Chen Feng sneaked to the side of the wooden house.

He waited patiently here, waiting for a whole day.

Finally, the door of the wooden house opened, and a woman walked out slowly, and she was holding a small baby in her arms.

Chen Feng was shocked. After a long time, he let out a long sigh of breath and whispered to himself: "So you hide here."

"What I said, it's no wonder that the hundreds of people in the south can't find you no matter how they look for it. It turns out that you are hiding here!"

It turned out that these two people were very familiar to him, and they were Yuechan and the empress in her arms.

Chen Feng had also ordered their whereabouts to be traced, but they couldn't be found no matter how they searched.

It turned out that they actually hid here.

Chen Feng suddenly moved in his heart and whispered to himself: "The Black Water Black Snake Tribe, the Black Water Black Snake Queen."

"I know, it must be the relationship between the ancestors of the Black Water Black Snake Queen and the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor, so they can hide here, please entrust them to Teng Snake's shelter!"

Chen Feng saw that Yuechan came out with the little girl in her arms. She seemed to have no purpose, her eyes were full of confusion, she didn't even have a focus, she just wandered here for more than an hour.

He came to the side of the built wood again, looked at the scenery, then turned around and returned to the wooden house.

Chen Feng knew it in his heart, knowing that although she was surviving here, her life was extremely depressing.

Chen Feng didn't alarm them, and then retreated quietly, and soon hid again!

From this day on, Chen Feng stayed here forever.

Now Teng Snake is sleeping around the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor, he is not sure to go up without disturbing him.

In fact, Chen Feng knew very well that as long as he dared to be within a thousand miles of his body, he would immediately find out.

He didn't kill Chen Feng, just because he didn't find it, and the reason he didn't find it was not because he couldn't find it, but he was too lazy to find it.

In fact, if he wants to kill Chen Feng, he just needs a thought. It's so easy.

Therefore, Chen Feng didn't dare to act rashly at all, he could only hibernate carefully.

Chen Feng believes that the opportunity will definitely be available, and he will never wait for nothing.

This stay, I stayed here for half a month.

Half a month later, in the early morning of this day, Chen Feng was still watching Teng Snake here, or he was waiting for the opportunity carefully.

At this moment, Chen Feng suddenly heard a very clear and beautiful call from a distance.

It seems to be a bird's call, but it is much louder than a normal bird's call. This clear and beautiful call makes people feel refreshed and happy when they hear it, and it forms a distinct voice with the hissing and unpleasant sound of the snake Compared.

The chirping of birds is getting closer, shaking the world.

Soon, Chen Feng saw a large yellow cloud floating in the distance. The golden cloud was so huge that it covered the sky, and it seemed to be comparable to the huge canopy of Jianmu. .

After getting close, Chen Feng felt that his heart seemed to stop breathing.

He held his breath, lying on the ground, looking at the yellow cloud, full of awe in his heart.

It turns out, where is this yellow cloud?

It turned out to be a huge yellow bird!

This yellow bird has a wingspan of thousands of miles, and it looks a little bigger than this snake.

However, with the shock caused by the snake before, Chen Feng now has some resistance to this huge and incredible creature.

Chapter 2404: The yellow bird fights the snake!

He quickly returned to normal.

At this time, Yuechan also walked out of the wooden house. She seemed to have seen the yellow bird more than once, and she was quite calm at this time.

At this moment, suddenly, Jianmu trembled violently, and roars followed.

It turned out that Chen Feng saw the arrival of the yellow bird at this time. Teng Snake was already alarmed.

Suddenly, Teng Snake stood upright from a consolidating state.

It stands on the top of this tree, just like a small building block.

And his two huge wings spread out with a bang, and the blood vessels on them protruded.

There was an extremely vicious and vicious color in his eyes, and the snake hesitated and made hissing noises, staring at the yellow bird above the sky.

The yellow bird circled Jianmu a few times, and the wind and waves raised by the huge wings made Jianmu sway!

It hovered in the sky a few times, and it made a burst of crisp chirp, full of provocation.

His eyes are also staring at Teng Snake.

However, his gaze was full of disdain, and he obviously looked down on the snake at all.

The snake was irritated by the yellow bird's gaze, hissed and its wings shook.

Suddenly, he flew up, the blood basin opened wide and bit towards the yellow bird bitterly.

The yellow bird hovered around and easily avoided the past.

Then, it opened its mouth, and suddenly, a bright yellow flame shot at the snake fiercely.

This huge flame column was one hundred thousand yuan long, with a diameter of thousands of meters, it was extremely thick, and it fell on the head of the snake.

Suddenly, there were many huge scales on Teng Snake's head that flew up, and countless scales flew directly, and blood rushed out from below.

And the blood, before it could be sprayed into the air, was directly vaporized by the bright yellow flame.

Then, the flame slammed on the tender meat on his body, and the flesh underneath was burnt to pieces!

Teng Snake suddenly let out a stern neigh, but at the same time, its right wing suddenly stood upright, like a blade, slashing under the yellow bird's belly.

Suddenly, the bright yellow feathers fell bang and bang. I don't know how much, and a big rain of blood also came out vigorously and fell to the ground.

His sharp wings also made a wound on the yellow bird's abdomen!

In the first confrontation, Teng Snake and Yellow Bird received minor injuries, which can be said to be on par!

The two collided once, and then they separated immediately.

And Chen Feng's position was just below the battle between the two, bang bang bang, several scales slammed heavily in front of him.

Each of these scales has a radius of thousands of meters, like a hill.

In the next moment, a dozen yellow feathers came down one after another.

Each of these yellow feathers is thousands of meters long, like the finest gold made, bright and radiant, with radiance on it, and powerful power sealed inside.

Duo Duoduo, all these dozen feathers were inserted on the built wood, as if a bright yellow forest had been erected.

And the blood was directly splashed on the built-up wood, and there was a sneer, which corroded a large pit on the surface of the built-up wood, forming a golden lake.

The blood inside, the bright yellow intertwined with countless bright stars, dazzled Chen Feng's eyes.

Chen Feng's heart jumped violently: "These things, whether they are scales, feathers, or blood, are extremely good tonic!"

"The power contained in it is huge and unimaginable, I am afraid it is much stronger than those extremely high-level pills!"

However, this is not the time to take this, and Chen Feng does not have a container to hold these things.

He just quietly took out a few jade bottles, poured a few large bottles of yellow bird blood, and then hid under a feather, staring at the battle in the air.

At this time, the battle in the air continued again!

Chen Feng discovered that the two of them basically can't use magic, it seems that the damage to them by magic is very limited.

Basically, they are mainly fighting each other physically, hitting each other with their extremely powerful bodies.

Suddenly, Teng Snake revealed a flaw, and the yellow bird immediately noticed the flaw, and then, at an extremely fast speed, turned into a golden lightning and rushed directly in front of them.

Then, his long, knife-like beak joined together, like a spear, and pierced into the body of the snake fiercely.

With a bang, the incomparably hard scales on the surface of Teng Snake's body, in front of the yellow bird's long beak, were directly destroyed like rotten wood, flying everywhere.

The long mouth pierced deeply into his body a full 10,000 meters deep, and blood shot out frantically from the edge of the wound.

And at this moment, an extremely vicious and cunning light flashed across Teng Snake's eyes.

That was the pride after the conspiracy succeeded!

The muscles in his abdomen were suddenly clamped, and the yellow bird tried to pull the beak off, but found that he couldn't do it, it was actually clamped by his muscles.

At this time, Teng Snake let out a terrible roar, and then his body suddenly rolled up.

He used his body as a rope and bound the yellow bird inside in an instant.

The yellow bird seemed to be tied up, and was tied firmly.

Then Tengshe's muscles tightened, making a creaking sound, and suddenly contracted inward.

Suddenly, the yellow bird was extremely squeezed, and he didn't know how many bones he had broken for a moment.

The sound of khaka khaka is endless!

Both screamed bitterly, using their strongest strength, desperately trying to kill each other.

The yellow bird wanted to pierce him with his own intestines, while the snake wanted to use his powerful strength to crush it alive.

The power of the two was horrible to the extreme, causing a strong and incomparable shock in the air, and even a huge space storm appeared above the sky.

Countless space cracks formed a space storm like a tornado, raging in the sky.

Wherever he went, everything was chopped up.

This spatial storm hit on Jianmu, even scraping off a layer of Jianmu's surface, blasting it all over the place, and the faint green juice permeated from Jianmu.

Chen Feng was shocked, the strength of the two is really outrageous!

And taking this opportunity, Chen Feng also saw clearly what the Emperor Treasury looked like that day.

This treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor has eight layers, each layer is 10,000 meters high.

Chapter 2405: Lose both

And each floor has a gate, and above the gate is something like a ring.

When Chen Feng moved in his heart, he immediately remembered: "The jade pieces of variegated colors are put together, isn't it just a ring?"

"I want to come, this must be the place to put the key."

Chen Feng's heart was pounding!

But now is not the past time, the brutal battle in the sky at this time has finally separated.

The yellow bird uttered a miserable cry, its wings vibrated constantly at high speed, and numerous huge wounds appeared on the vine snake drawn from the inside.

The blood sprayed down, and at the same time its long mouth burrowed into Teng Snake's body desperately, and even turned around in his body, destroying his body in a mess.

And Teng Snake was about to chop off his whole body bones, I don't know how many, and even one of its wings hangs softly.

Both of them knew that if this continued, they would certainly die together.

So, coincidentally, let go at the same time.

Suddenly separated.

Both were seriously injured, staring at each other, full of hatred.

At this time, the yellow bird vented a few times and spit out a large flame, then turned around and flapped its wings, without even looking at it, and left quickly.

And TENGshe also collapsed to the ground in anguish, seeming to be resting.

At this time, Chen Feng was not far away from Yuechan. At this time, he heard Yue Chan mutter in a low voice: "Fart, you have to fight like this every once in a while, every time you behave like this. But there is no winner or loser."

"What is the use?"

When Chen Feng heard this, his heart suddenly moved: "Could it be that the yellow bird will come often?"

This battle was very short, it took only a short cup of tea, that is, a few hundred breaths, but it was so tragic that these two extremely powerful monsters were both deeply injured.

The power of the battle is extremely powerful. Chen Feng estimated that if this battle took place not here, but in the hinterland of the Dragon Vein Continent, then the aftermath of this battle alone would be enough to destroy an empire like the Tianyuan Dynasty!

Although Teng She had been seriously injured and 30% of his strength was still 30%, Chen Feng did not dare to act rashly.

Don't say that it has become three times, even if there is only three thousandths of the strength of the snake, it is no problem to destroy a few thousand of him.

Chen Feng estimated that even the current Teng Snake has the strength of the peak of the Nine Star Demon Emperor!

Nine Star Demon King!

It is almost unimaginable.

At this time, Teng Snake had already been re-rolled, and it seemed that he had begun to heal.

And a day later, Chen Feng suddenly saw that Teng Snake catapulted again impatiently, and he seemed to be extremely anxious and angry.

And this sentiment is getting higher and higher and hotter.

Finally, it seemed that he couldn't bear half of it anymore, suddenly he let out a stern roar, and his head madly slammed into the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor.

With a bang, a burst of red light was exposed on the surface of the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor, which bounced it away.

The roar in Teng She's mouth became more intense, full of anger.

He crashed frantically, but it was useless.

The red light on the surface of the Emperor's Treasury was not weakened, and the attack of the snake was enough to destroy a country. In his opinion, it seemed insignificant.

A burst of red light bounced out, dissolving the offensive.

Teng Snake's head burst into blood, his head was bright red, and his scales were turned upside down.

In the end, after hitting for a whole day, he finally collapsed to the ground with a bang, seeming to lose his heart, and he was completely depressed!

His venomous voice suddenly rang, spitting, hoarse, full of resentment:

"Old thing, you have to seal up this treasure house before you die. You would rather let the things in this treasure house rot and cut off your inheritance than you would pass it on to me?"

"If I got your inheritance, my strength would have been greatly improved. That **** yellow-haired beast would have been killed and swallowed by me long ago! Where is there such a problem?"

"You **** old thing, you really **** it!"

Teng Snake cursed frantically!

Chen Feng was shocked, this 'old thing', undoubtedly, definitely refers to the Southern Wilderness Emperor.

It turned out that before the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor was dying, he set up this Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor's treasure, but there was no martial spirit passed on to him at all.

No wonder this Teng Snake resents so much!

Looking at it, Chen Feng took a deep breath. Even with such a crazy impact, the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor Treasure is still safe and sound, showing that it is extremely strong.

And if he can't find the key, I'm afraid there is no hope of entering the treasure house of the Emperor of Heaven.

Teng Snake slumped to the ground, no longer trying, but silently healed.

Chen Feng could also see that he should have tried this way countless times before, but obviously, each time ended in failure.

Suddenly, the top of Jianmu fell into silence again.

Chen Feng looked at the huge snake scales and yellow bird feathers scattered all over the top, and the pools of blood on the ground. There was a pity on his face, and his heart was itchy. Everything is his own.

These scales and feathers are the top casting materials. Not only are they extremely strong, they also contain enormous power.

And this blood, if you swallow a mouthful, I'm afraid the cultivation base can increase greatly.

But unfortunately, Chen Feng knew that he couldn't take it with him anyway, at least this time.

Chen Feng continued to wait here quietly.

Another half month passed. On this day, Teng Snake had recovered most of his injuries, and then he coiled down from above Jianmu and came to the area below Jianmu.

Chen Feng followed quietly.

Only this time, Tengshe did not go to the north, which is where Chen Feng came from, but went to the south of Jianmu.

Between the mountain-like roots on the south of Jianmu, there are huge plains.

On the plain, there are groups of very powerful and huge creatures.

This time he found a group of cow-like monsters that looked like a mountain. After swallowing the largest of them, he leisurely returned to the top of Jianmu.

Chen Feng thoughtfully.

He continued to wait.

After waiting for half a month, he was confirming his inference.

Sure enough, half a month later, the yellow bird came again.

This time it was still an extremely fierce fight, and the two were still seriously injured, and a large number of scales and feathers fell on the top of Jianmu.

After Chen Feng saw this scene, a smile appeared quietly at the corner of his mouth.

There was a confident and calm expression on his face, and a voice in his heart yelled frantically: "I know, I know their rules!"

Chapter 2406: Night Snake Shadow Water

"Moreover, I already have a plan now. I already know how to enter the treasure house of the emperor. When will I enter the treasure house of the emperor?"

"Of course, this plan is not so perfect, nor so sure, at most only 30% sure, but if I don't use this plan, I don't even have 10% sure, and I won't have any chance."

"With this plan, I at least have the possibility to participate!"

Chen Feng took a deep breath, and his eyes were firm: "30%, it's enough!"

Chen Feng didn't stay anymore, turned around and left.

This road was far enough. After a month and a half, he returned to the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe and came directly into the hall.

Yaoyao was in the main hall of the Black Water Black Snake Tribe, holding her small chin, bored, and didn't know what she was thinking.

Bloodwind lay in her arms, lazily, sleeping, making lovely purrings.

Two snot bubbles came out of his nostrils, getting bigger and bigger, and exploded with a loud bang.

Suddenly, a piece of clear nose was scattered on Xuefeng's face, and Xuefeng shook his head, and continued to sleep nonchalantly.

His stomach was slumped together, fleshy, and he seemed to be a little fatter again.

"Hey..." Seeing Xuefeng's pickled look, Yaoyao looked disgusted, and quickly wiped his nose.

Suddenly, if she felt something, she suddenly raised her head.

Then I saw Chen Feng coming in, with a smile on his face, looking at him.

Yaoyao's face suddenly showed joy, ran over to Chen Feng quickly, and rushed into his arms.

As soon as he put his arms hard, he put his arms around his neck and hung on him like a koala.

Seeing Yaoyao so attached to herself, Chen Feng was also happy and laughed.

With a bang, the blood wind was smashed to the ground, slammed his eyes out of gold stars and dizzy.

He groaned and stood up, his face full of dissatisfaction.

And when he saw Chen Feng, his eyes lit up, swish, and he threw himself into Chen Feng's arms. He spent a long time in Chen Feng's arms and found a comfortable posture.

With a big blow, Yaoyao squeezed aside.

Yaoyao said angrily: "Blood wind!"

The blood wind snorted, buttocks toward her, with his head resting on Chen Feng's chest, without even looking at her, obviously he was still brooding about the fact that she just fell down.

Chen Feng laughed loudly and rubbed Xuefeng's chin. Xuefeng suddenly narrowed his eyes with satisfaction, his fat head lifted up, and a smirk appeared on his face.

Chen Feng then squeezed Yaoyao's small face and smiled: "Yaoyao, have you gained weight during this time?"

"What? I'm fat?" Yaoyao was taken aback for a moment, and then jumped down in a panic.

She looked around on her body, for fear of where she might grow flesh.

Chen Feng laughed, and pinched her little nose: "I'm kidding you."

Yaoyao snorted: "Big brother is really bad. He walked for so long without saying a word. After he came back, he bullied me." novel111.com

Chen Feng laughed, hugged Yaoyao, rubbed her head vigorously, and smiled: "Big brother apologizes for you, isn't this big brother leaving?"

Yaoyao wasn't really angry, she spoiled for a while, and when Chen Feng was willing to coax her, she was very satisfied, and asked, "Big brother, where have you been during this time?"

Chen Feng said the process of this matter again, he had no reservations about Yaoyao, and what Yaoyao heard was extremely surprised and shocked.

After a long time, she sighed and said: "I grew up in Nanhuang, but I have never heard of the legend of Jianmu, let alone the snake above, and the huge yellow bird."

She exclaimed: "It's just like in myths and legends."

Chen Feng slowly nodded: "I am afraid that their strength has already stood at the top of the Dragon Vein Continent. For us, it is no different from the myth!"

After a long time, Yaoyao recovered. She suddenly laughed and said, "No matter how powerful it is, it is nothing more than a living thing. No matter how powerful it is, it is just a monster!"

"Big brother, do you want to calculate them? What can I do for you?"

Chen Feng laughed and rubbed her head: "My Yaoyao is really smart."

He said softly: "I have figured out the rules now. The snake will go hunting once a month, and after the hunt, half a month later, the yellow bird will come to fight with him, and both will be seriously injured. "

"This battle is not long, but it is very intense."

Having said this, his voice has become serious, and his tone is extremely solemn: "I just want to take advantage of this opportunity of their fierce battle to enter the treasure house of the Emperor of Heaven and win the treasure of the Emperor of the Southern Wild!"

"Then, I want to get out quickly."

He stretched out three fingers and said: "If you want to do this, you must have three conditions."

"The first is to have a key, the second is to be sufficiently concealed, and the third is to be able to block the breath."

"Now, I have fulfilled the first two conditions. I already have the key here. I also have the longevity flower made of the longevity flower that you gave me. It can cover my breath, at least for a short time. breath."

"However, there is still a lack of something that can hide my breath."

On the way back, Chen Feng had already thought about everything very clearly, and he even prepared himself for the future.

As for what is needed, it is clearer.

He looked at Yaoyao with fiery eyes and said, "Can you help me solve the matter of hiding my breath?"

Yaoyao frowned and thought for a long time before saying, "I'm not sure yet. I have to go back and look through the classics left by my grandfather."

"Good!" Chen Feng nodded.

On that day, Yaoyao spent a night in the pile of ancient books left by the great witch doctor.

The next day was another whole day, Chen Feng did not urge, nor was he anxious, just wandering around the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe.

At this time, the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe had completely changed its appearance from before, becoming very withered, and its population was much smaller than before.

Moreover, just during the period of time when Chen Feng was wandering here, he saw two vendettas between the clansmen.

As for those confrontations, those confrontations, and those maliciousness, I don't know how many.

Moreover, both of these were members of the Blackwater Profound Snake Tribe. Obviously, their previous actions had already taken effect. The Blackwater Profound Snake Tribe was already caught in an internal struggle and could not extricate itself.

After Chen Feng came back, suddenly, with a slam, the door was opened and Yaoyao walked out of it with excitement.

She shouted: "Big brother, I have found a way, I have found a way to pill."

Chen Feng was also excited in his heart, but at any rate he was still stable, and said, "What is the method?"

"Refining Qianye Snake Shadow Water!"

Chapter 2407: Evolve the Soul Space!

Chen Feng raised his brows: "Snake Shadows in the Night?"

Yaoyao said very quickly: "Grandpa's notes left such a story. When he was young, he went to the wild to find some rare medicinal material. There was also a powerful snake monster guarding him."

"And that snake-like monster beast, let alone he was then, even now we are not an opponent, but a six-star demon emperor, and at that time even the Martial Emperor Realm was not even reached."

"So, Grandpa used a method. He collected ninety-nine kinds of snake inner alchemy as an auxiliary medicine, and then he collected a snake-like monster inner alchemy that was much stronger than them as the main medicine."

"Add a kind of medicinal liquid made by smelting hundreds of medicinal materials. After applying this medicinal liquid on your body, you can make this snake-like monster breath appear on your body."

"Thus they are regarded as the same clan and will not attack..."

"You should also know that these powerful monsters seldom look at enemies with their eyes, and they rely on breath."

Chen Feng nodded: "That's right."

He said in a deep voice, "So, Yaoyao, can you refine it?"

Yaoyao smiled and said, "Of course."

But then she showed a touch of embarrassment on her face, and said: "Those hundreds of medicinal materials, and the ninety-nine kinds of relatively poor snake monster inner alchemy are easy to find, but that one is the main snake type. The inner alchemy of the monster beast is difficult to find."

"The requirement is at least four-star Demon Emperor or above!"

"Four-star Demon Emperor?" Chen Feng raised his eyebrows: "That's the equivalent of a five-star Martial Emperor. You and I can't be killed by our current strength. Where can I find such an inner alchemy?"

Suddenly, Chen Feng thought of something. He immediately flipped his palm, and the black bead appeared in his hand.

That black bead was clear and transparent, and it exuded a powerful, evil and cold aura.

This is what Chen Feng got from Tatamu.

Chen Feng asked: "Do you think this is the inner alchemy of powerful snake monsters?"

"Ah? How could you have this?" After watching for a while, Yaoyao exclaimed: "The owner of this inner alchemy must be a snake-like monster, and the level definitely exceeds the four-star monster emperor."

"Big brother, it's great, in this way all the medicinal materials are ready."

Chen Feng smiled and was also happy in his heart.

So on the same day, Yaoyao ordered people to build a huge fire on the sacred mountain to collect the best fuel from the Southern Wilderness.

Then, a medicine refining cauldron regarded as a treasure by the former great witch doctor of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe was placed on the flame, and countless medicinal materials were spilled into it.

Yaoyao personally sat in town, and ninety-nine witch doctors listened to his dispatch and began to refine Qianye Snake Shadow Water.

This is much easier than refining by one person.

When Yaoyao brought a group of witch doctors to smelt the liquid medicine, Chen Feng prepared for himself to go to the treasures of heaven and earth again.

He began to re-evolve his soul-man space.

Chen Feng's current soul space is still level two, although it has become a third-rank soul sect, that is because when he became a third-rank soul sect, he was still on the ancient battlefield, and there was no time to evolve himself. The soul of the space.

Above the hall, Chen Feng sat cross-legged.

He looked calm, took a deep breath, and even to calm down his mind, he specially placed a pillar of golden saliva on each of the four corners of the hall with the thickness of an arm.

This kind of golden saliva is a special product of the Southern Wilderness, which can make people feel calm. It is a very rare treasure that money can't buy.

But Chen Feng could easily obtain a large number of such treasures.

Under the envelope of this faint fragrance, Chen Feng soon entered the Soul Person Space.

There was silence in front of him, and the space of the soul was quiet as usual.

But as soon as Chen Feng entered here, he felt that there was an indescribable vitality under this calm appearance, and that was a kind of urge to move around.

The power inside is like the grass and trees in the spring. After being suppressed for a winter, I want to jump out crazy and grow out!

At this time, it was Chen Feng who was suppressing and restraining them.

A slight smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, and he said softly, "I can't help it, right?"

"I want to start evolving, right?"

"Okay, then, let's start!"

As he said, Chen Feng opened his arms and banged, all the shackles were removed.

At this moment, all the pressure disappeared.

So in the next moment, the extremely powerful spiritual power crisscrossed this space of souls.

Chen Feng even heard the joyful tweets of those mental powers!

The power of the soul-man is expanding arbitrarily and madly here, and that ray of transparent divine light appears here, wandering madly in the sky, and Chen Feng's world changes almost instantly.

Everything in the original collapsed completely, and the surrounding white barrier expanded wildly towards the outside.

In a blink of an eye, Chen Feng's world has changed from the original twenty li radius to the current one hundred li radius, which is a full 25 times larger than before!

This is already the limit that the Soul Person Space of the Third Stage Soul Sect can reach.

In fact, the general third-grade soul sect, their spiritual space is only one-tenth of this at most.

After arriving here, those white barriers no longer expand forward.

Chen Feng said softly: "The size is enough now, so all you have to do is the details!"

Soon, Chen Feng set the details.

Chen Feng looked at the ground and said, "This place should be a rocky mountain, surrounded by hills, and the hills are surrounded by plains."

So the next moment, an extremely tyrannical mental power surged out.

The area standing under Chen Feng rose directly, and in an instant it turned into a majestic mountain that reached a height of 1,000 meters.

Then around, there appeared a large and small hills.

At the end of the hills is a fertile and vast plain.

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, pointing to the top of the mountain under his feet, and said: "The five elements are short of water, and there should be a spring here."

So the next moment, with a bang, the stone cracked, and a huge spring appeared, and the spring water gushed out, flowing down the mountain, forming a mountain stream.

After entering the hills, a river is formed and becomes a width of ten meters.

Going around the hills and entering the plain, it becomes about a hundred meters wide, and a half circle formed a zigzag shape on the plain, and then it poured into the white barrier, not knowing that it was scattered in where.

Then Chen Feng chuckled again and said, "How can there be no gold in the mountains?"

So, in the mountains under his feet, many stones began to transform, turning into iron, turning into copper, and turning into gold.

Chapter 2408: Build a tower of souls!

A hillside collapsed suddenly and turned into a cliff.

On the cliff, there is some iron-brown light, revealing the end of those veins.

Chen Feng pointed to the back of the hillside again and said, "How can there be less fire?"

As a result, there was a coal mine under the ground, the stones cracked, the black coal sea was exposed, and there was no fire spontaneously.

A flame suddenly formed!

After doing all this, Chen Feng felt a burst of exhaustion, and his mental strength was almost exhausted.

He looked at this piece of his own world with satisfaction, with a smile on the corner of his mouth, and said softly: "This is my world, mine, foundation!"

"such a pity!"

He sighed and said, "Anything can be used in gold, wood, water, fire, and earth, but wood can't."

"To put it bluntly, wood is a living thing. There are only dead things and no living things here. You need to wait until the Fourth Stage Soul Sect before there can be plants."

"As for animal monsters, you need to reach the seventh rank soul sect."

"And if you want to put people in and let the people here have human wisdom, you have to wait for the Ninth-Rank Soul Sect."

Chen Feng is looking forward to the future!

Now, this soul-man space has evolved into a third-level soul-man space, so Chen Feng is finally able to do one thing now.

His eyes showed extreme enthusiasm, and he whispered: "Soul Tower!"

"When the tower is built, I will be able to summon the soul servants!"

"Yes." Beside him, An Lao appeared quietly as always.

He whispered: "Soul servants have different forms, strengths, and functions. The soul servants you summon with the soul tower are extremely powerful, while others are weak and pitiful."

"It's quite possible that these two are still at the same level. Because they are random, it's not that you can get what you want. It depends on luck."

"But there are people with extremely powerful luck who can recruit some extremely powerful existences!"

Chen Feng laughed, "My luck has never been weak!"

The construction of the soul tower does not use ethereal mental power, but requires the use of soul stones.

Fortunately, as early as the first day when Chen Feng became a soul master, he knew that one day he would be able to reach the realm of building a soul tower.

He has been preparing for this.

Therefore, at this time, the soul stones in Chen Feng's Golden Dragon Ring had already accumulated.

Even the level of these soul stones is quite high.

Chen Feng took out the golden dragon ring, and suddenly, on the hillside was piled up with countless soul stones like sapphire.novelUsB.com

Chen Feng didn't use other power, but personally dug out the foundation on the top of the mountain, and then put the soul stones in it one by one.

Wait until the pedestal is built, then build a wall on it, and build a door!

Chen Feng's construction is very meticulous and meticulous, without any external force.

Seeing this scene, Anlao nodded secretly next to him, showing a touch of praise on his face.

Finally, a month is about to pass.

Chen Feng's soul tower was finally completed.

It is said that it is a tower of souls, but it is actually very simple, just a single house, with only one floor, and it looks like a small rural temple.

The scale is small, but there is an unspeakable sense of solemnity in it, majestic and atmospheric!

An old man said: "As a third-rank soul sect, you can only have one level of the soul-recalling tower!"

Chen Feng asked: "When can I have the second layer?"

"It's okay when you reach the sixth-rank soul sect. With three soul-man levels, you can increase the height of the first-level soul-calling tower!"

Chen Feng nodded: "That's it."

Finally, when Chen Feng placed the last soul stone on the wall of the soul-recalling tower and stuffed it into it to make it complete.

With a bang, a strong blue light suddenly flashed in the soul tower.

This cyan light circled the soul-recalling tower, and then the next moment, all the soul stones seemed to condense into a whole.

This soul-recruiting tower is like being carved out of a piece of sapphire, it looks radiant and magnificent!

And the next moment, this blue light poured into the tower, and penetrated into the base of the tower.

Then, then, the pedestal swelled, getting higher and higher.

After a while, an altar suddenly appeared in the originally empty tower.

This altar is no more than three feet high, a radius of less than one foot, and a small scale, but it reveals an ancient and desolate breath, majestic and majestic!

An old man smiled and said, "This is the altar!"

Chen Feng eagerly fists, a little impatient: "Now I can summon the soul servant?"

An old man explained: "Before this, I want to tell you about this trick to summon the soul servant."

"Summoning a soul servant generally requires three elements. You pay the price to get the soul servant to fight for you, or do other things."

"And generally speaking, the higher your soul person level, the greater the mental power, the higher the chance of success."

"These are two factors."

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows and asked: "So there is a chance of success?"

"Of course, otherwise do you think you can succeed once by summoning one? It's too naive to think." An old smile said:

"Take you as an example, you are at the level of the third-grade soul sect, and the chance of a successful summoning is only 15%. Even if it is a ninth-grade soul sect, there is only a 45% chance of the successful summoning!"

Chen Feng nodded: "I see."

"This probability is actually very low." An old man continued: "Let's talk about the third factor."

"Whether it can be summoned successfully, and whether the soul servants are powerful or not, the two points just mentioned are just a secondary factor, and the most important factor is the price paid."

"The price paid?" Chen Feng frowned and thought for a moment, and then understood.

If you want to summon a soul servant, you can't just talk in vain, and everything in the world must follow certain rules.

If you want to, you have to pay, and everything is no exception.

Even soul masters must also summon this rule. Although they are extremely tyrannical, they can't do whatever they want.

If Chen Feng wanted to summon a soul servant, he had to pay a certain price. The price could be many things: for example, countless souls, his own lives, and so on.

The most common is some kind of extremely rare treasure.

Treasures are always scarce, as in any world, this rule is roughly universal.

"Okay." An old man smiled and said: "You can now put the sacrifice on the altar, and then call the soul servant."

And just when Chen Feng was about to put these things in his hands on the altar, he suddenly thought of something, raised his brow, turned his head to look at Anlao, and asked softly:

Chapter 2409: The extremely powerful black man

"An old man, the first summoning, the first sacrifice, is it particularly important?"

An old man nodded and said: "Of course, the first sacrifice, the chance of failure is more than 90%."

He continued: "Soul servants also have their own world. They spread in different worlds, but they can circulate news."

"If you sacrifice for the first time and the sacrificed items are precious enough, it will leave a generous reputation in the world of these soul servants, which will be of great benefit to you."

Chen Feng asked: "Then, under the condition that my strength and spiritual strength remain unchanged, the more precious the sacrificed items, the higher the level, the greater the strength, and the higher the chance of success? Summoned The stronger the soul servant?"

"Of course." An old man said.

When An Lao said this, Chen Feng smiled slightly, shrank his hands, and took back the items he was going to sacrifice.

He smiled and said: "I know that there is a place where I can take out any things, and it is worth all the things I am preparing to sacrifice now!"

When I heard this, he was taken aback first, and then suddenly clicked.

Chen Feng laughed and said, "You guy, you really are a slippery head!"

"Speaking of the sacrificed items, what could be more precious and powerful than the scales of the incomparably powerful snake, the feathers of the yellow bird, and the blood of both?"

Chen Feng's current possessions may not be as powerful as one-tenth of a snake scale!

One month has passed, and when Chen Feng left the soul-man space, he happened to see the scene outside.

The lid of the big tripod was lifted, and an extremely strange smell came out of the lid.

The smell was extremely unpleasant, with a strong fishy smell, just like the saliva in the mouth of a poisonous snake.

But when Chen Feng heard it, he was overjoyed. He was so familiar with this breath!

The liquid medicine has been trained.

And also on the same day, at the north gate of Tianyuan Imperial City, a figure dressed in a black robe quietly stepped into the Tianyuan Imperial City.

He is tall and thin, wearing a black robe, but the aura around him is hazy, cloud-covered, and it looks very unreal.

Where he walked, there seemed to be space cracks in the air.

It seems that in this space, but not in this space, stepped out one step, entered another space, stepped out again, and returned to the space where the Tianyuan Dynasty was located.

Gives people an extremely mysterious feeling.

Of course, people who can detect his situation hardly exist on this street.

In the eyes of everyone, he was just an ordinary pedestrian wearing a black cloak!

When he came to the prosperous part of the street, he walked into a small alley on his side, then turned around in this small alley, and finally came to the end of the alley.

This is a dilapidated temple. There is no incense for a long time, and even the statue has been smashed.

At this time, there are a lot of people inside, but it is very quiet.

Everyone was basically dressed in black. They gathered together and said something in a low voice. They were very brief, said a few words, and then left immediately.

Therefore, although there are many people here, there is an indescribable desertedness and depression, which is very strange.

This is actually a place in Tianyuan Imperial City that specializes in buying and selling news. The news inside involves many dark corners that are not visible, so all of them are sneaky.

The black-clothed man curled his mouth and said softly: "I haven't walked in the world for 30 years. I didn't expect that the place where they exchanged news would still be like this, and they have not grown at all."

When they saw him walking in, everyone looked at him. After seeing his attire, they all bowed their heads, thinking that he was the one who came here to buy news.

He came to the crowd and suddenly said: "Where does Chen Feng live?"

Everyone was taken aback, and then they all looked at him like a madman, and some people opened their mouths to laugh.

Suddenly, the man in the black burqa frowned, his expression was a little impatient, and he muttered in a low voice, "What am I doing with such a low-level questioning method?"

The next moment, he suddenly whistled.

As a result, an unspeakable ripple suddenly appeared.

The next moment, with a bang, the heads of everyone in this hall exploded together, turning them into headless corpses.

The corpses stood up for a while before they fell to the ground one after another, and even the postures of falling to the ground were all in order, giving people an extremely bloody, extremely scary but extremely strange feeling.

These people all died at the same moment, and their souls wandered out. First, they were very surprised, not knowing what happened.

In the next moment, they all rushed towards the man in the black cloak in extreme anger, wanting to settle accounts with him.

At this time, the man in black sneered.

In the air, a dozen flames the size of candlelight appeared immediately, and then each flame directly anchored their souls.

Then, they began to burn their souls.

Suddenly they all uttered miserable screams, all staying where they were, and they were afraid to resist.

Then, the man in black squinted his eyes, as if thinking about something.

The next moment, he took a deep breath.

So the next moment, a wave of fluctuations appeared in the air, and on the wandering souls of those people after death, something was stripped out and absorbed into his mind.

He squinted his eyes, thought for a moment, then let out a sigh of foul breath, sighed and said, "I'm a step late!"

"It turns out that the person I want to kill has led an army to the Southern Wilderness?"

He frowned slightly, seemingly unhappy, and said to himself lightly: "Nanhuang, the situation over there is much more complicated."

It turned out that he was actually torturing the memories of these people, depriving them of their memories directly from their souls.

He continued to mutter to himself: "Although the hundreds of families in the Southern Wilderness are not a concern, the inheritance of the three queens is unpredictable."

"There are so many existences, entrenched in the deepest part of the Southern Wilderness, and I am a little afraid."

"I hope that kid won't have anything to do with those few beings!"

The more he thought about it, the more irritable he seemed, and he sneered: "If I hadn't run into that old thing, I would have killed Chen Feng a long time ago, so where would I need to go to the Southern Wilderness?"

He shook his head, expelled the emotion, knocked on his forehead lightly, and muttered to himself in a low voice: "It hasn't been a few days since he came out of the temple, he was actually contaminated by these mortal emotions."

"Lihun, Lihun, you can't go on like this, if you continue like this, you will be reprimanded by the adults when you return to the temple!"

Chapter 2410: God's Treasure, here I am!

It turned out that this person was actually named Li Hun!

The spirit of leaving the soul calmed down a bit, and then turned around, but he did not leave the Tianyuan Imperial City, but first went to the Tianwu Army Camp and then to the inner courtyard of the Wudong Academy.

He wandered around the cliff for a few times, felt the breath of Chen Feng, and then turned away.

The moment he turned and left, Drunk Jiuniu, who was holding a large jar of wine and drunk, suddenly frowned, as if he had noticed something.

But then, he noticed it carefully, but found that he didn't feel anything, so he continued to drink it carelessly!

Chen Feng set off again to Jianmu, and this time Chen Feng's goal was very clear, and that was to win the treasure of the Southern Wilderness.

A month later, when Chen Feng crossed the blood-colored battlefield and came to the side of Dajiang, his soul-man level improved again, and he had entered the middle stage of the third-rank soul sect from just entering the third-rank soul sect.

During this process, he absorbed and smelted the wandering spirits of ten golden armor giants with four heads and four arms, which brought him great benefits.

If it weren't for Chen Feng to go to Jianmu in a hurry, he would be able to absorb more of the wandering spirits of the four-armed golden armor giant, and he could go further.

When Chen Feng came under Jianmu again, it was already a month later.

Chen Feng looked up and looked at the huge tree towering into the clouds, with a trace of eagerness in his eyes, and whispered to himself: "Teng snake, I am here!"

"Treasure House of the Emperor of Heaven, I am here!"

"Wait for me, this time, I will definitely not go home empty-handed, the treasure of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor must be mine! It can only be mine!"

While it was getting dark, Chen Feng climbed to Jianmu, looking forward to the rising sun.

In Chen Feng's expectation, the morning sun was rising, Chen Feng's eyes were shining, and his heart was full of expectations, and even his heart couldn't help beating.

But Chen Feng forcibly suppressed his emotions, making himself feel like a piece of stone or a piece of wood, without breath.

In this way, it will not be discovered by Teng Snake.

The reason why Chen Feng rushed back in such anxiousness was because he had already calculated the days, and today is the day when Huang Bird came to challenge Teng Snake.

Once a month, there is no deviation.

Sure enough, when it was noon, there was a clear call from a distance.

A yellow cloud floated towards this side again, it was the yellow bird.

The yellow bird came to the sky above Jianmu and again began to provoke.

Chen Feng was also very confused about this. There is no doubt that the Yellow Bird and Teng Snake are very powerful, and their powerful strength has brought them unparalleled wisdom. There is absolutely no problem with their wisdom surpassing ordinary humans.

Why do such battles take place once a month?

This kind of battle is destined to be difficult to produce results. Chen Feng couldn't think of a reason, so he had to leave this question behind.

He just needs to know now that the battle between the snake and the yellow bird is nothing to him.

In fact, if it weren't for the battle between Teng Snake and Yellow Bird, Chen Feng would never have entered the treasure house of the Emperor of Heaven under Teng Snake's nose!

Soon, the war began, and the yellow bird and the snake were fighting together.

Chen Feng counted silently in his heart.

He counted from one to sixty.

After sixty breaths, the battle between the yellow bird and the snake has begun to become hot, and the two huge beings have begun to suffer some minor injuries.

At this time, Chen Feng took a deep breath and directly draped the longevity flower woven garment on his body.

In an instant, Chen Feng's breath suddenly changed.

In the beginning, even if Chen Feng condensed his breath, his breath could not be completely isolated. Instead, there would still be some scattering. Therefore, if Teng Snake carefully noticed, he would definitely be able to detect Chen Feng. existing.

He just never did it.

But now it's different. Chen Feng felt that after the breath in his body escaped, it was immediately blocked by the longevity flower woven garment, and his breath could only flow in this garment.

I can't see it out at a little bit!

An Lao looked at Chen Feng, he was surprised, and said: "If I close my eyes now, I feel like there is a cloud of air next to me, without you at all."

Chen Feng smiled and said: "This effect is what you want!"

"However," Chen Feng said softly: "This can only be managed beyond a hundred miles. When I reach within a hundred miles of Teng Snake's body, his perception will be able to perceive me through the clothes."

"That's why I need that dark night snake shadow water."

Then, Chen Feng crawled on the ground and crawled at a fast speed in the direction of the treasure house of the Southern Wild Emperor.

But he still tried to conceal his breath, even with the protection of longevity floral clothes, he did not dare to slack in the slightest.

The area where the Yellow Bird and Teng Snake are fighting is just above the treasure house of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor.

At this time, the blood around the treasure house of the Southern Wilderness Heavenly Emperor fell like rain, and the feather scales flew everywhere.

Before, Chen Feng had never dared to approach within a thousand miles of Teng Snake's body. It was like a dividing line. As long as it was within a thousand miles, even if Teng Snake did not deliberately perceive it, he could still perceive its existence.

But this time, he climbed straight into the range of a thousand miles.

Teng Snake didn't notice it.

Chen Feng sighed for a long time. He knew that his plan had already succeeded by a third.

Chen Feng continued to move forward. At this time, the yellow bird and the snake were fighting in the sky, but they had not reached the white-hot.

According to Chen Feng's experience, the time each time Huang Bird and Teng Snake fight is about one cup of tea time, which is 300 breaths.

And now, one hundred and twenty breaths have just passed.

Chen Feng was advancing extremely fast, and finally, he was about to reach within a hundred miles around the Emperor's Treasury, which meant that he was still about a hundred miles away from Teng Snake.

Chen Feng took a deep breath: "Now if I step into a hundred miles, even with the protection of a longevity flower coat, I will still be noticed."

"Yaoyao, now it's time for your Dark Night Snake Shadow Water to take action."

Chen Feng crushed a jade bottle in his hand, and then smeared all the liquid medicine on himself.

Suddenly, Chen Feng was no longer breathless, but exactly the same as the breath radiating from Teng Snake, just like Teng Snake's blood and scales that fell everywhere.

Chen Feng's heart suddenly moved, and there was a stall of blood like lake water beside him.

He immediately jumped in and rolled inside, so the vine snake aura on his body became stronger.
