

Peerless 2601

Chapter 2601: Enter the Buddha's skeleton space!

But after coming here, he found himself wrong.

Wrong!

Speaking of Xuanyuan Ruolan, the emperor of Chaoge, it can be said that no one knows.

Not only because she was the top beauty in the city fifty years ago, and was recognized as the first beauty in the Chaoge Tianzi City, but also because she was also a comet rising up like a comet fifty years ago, and she is the talent of the Chaoge Tianzi City. One of the tallest young generation.

Even a young man who has overwhelmed many men!

Back then, her strength was very powerful, but now, her strength is declining severely.

Not only that, but also seriously injured and lingering on the bed.

Chen Feng wanted to know why.

Hearing Chen Feng's question, Xuanyuan Ruolan's eyes flashed an extremely hidden, but unforgettable painful color.

She looked at Chen Feng, shook her head, and said softly: "Feng'er, this question, please answer you later for my mother?"

Chen Feng saw that his mother's expression was a little wrong, and said quickly: "Okay, mother, if you feel embarrassed, then don't say it now, and tell me later!"

On the same day, Chen Feng continued to practice here.

The next day, it was still the same.

Soon, it was the night of the third day.

Chen Feng looked at the huge round moon above the sky in the distance, and took a deep breath.

He has long been calm and experienced so many major events, which can be said to be ten times more than that of ordinary peers. The mentality has long been practiced very calmly.

But even with this kind of mentality, he couldn't help feeling anxious and very nervous at this time.

There is no way, because this trip to the space of the Buddha's dragon bones is really important to Chen Feng, which will directly determine whether Chen Feng can obtain a martial soul.

Will decide whether he can take the road of warrior in the future.

Will determine whether his martial arts dream can be realized.

More recently, if a few days later, at the time of the Wuhun test, Chen Feng would still have achieved nothing.

Then, he and his mother will be expelled from the family, and Xuanyuan Ruolan made a lot of enemies at the beginning. If the two of them were expelled from the family and lost the shelter of the Xuanyuan family, both would die.

There is no doubt about this!

Xuanyuan Xingping's threat was not just plain words, but bloody!

This is a matter of life!

Chen Feng looked at the huge round moon above the sky in the distance. Perhaps it was due to the relatively high terrain where Chaoze Tianzi City was located, and it was also relatively close to the moon. Therefore, the moon appeared to be extraordinarily large and extraordinarily large. The circle.

Brilliant glory.

Chen Feng took a few breaths in succession, and then whispered to himself inwardly: "Chen Feng, you can, you can do it!"

"This matter, for you, there is absolutely no problem!"

"Wuhun, you will definitely get it! You will definitely be able to rise again! Chen Feng! Believe in yourself!"

Soon, Chen Feng's heart was calmed down and became calm and calm.

Chen Feng just raised his head and looked at the bright moon above the sky in the distance, gradually falling into the realm of no self and no other.

Finally, the moon hits the sky.

This bright moon reached its highest point, and at the same time it reached its brightest point.

The brilliance is dazzling, melted down, and the inside and outside of the house are transparent.

Chen Feng trembled and said softly: "Now, it's time!"

The next moment, Chen Feng's ancient Buddha robes suddenly appeared.

The golden red light flickered, and the moonlight shone on the ancient Buddha's robes, like a dream but also an illusion.

Then, Chen Feng shook the robes suddenly and laid them out directly.

It is strange to say that after the ancient Buddha's cassock came into contact with the melting moonlight, it flew directly and suspended above Chen Feng's body.

The boundless moonlight fell on it, and the golden-red light suddenly flourished.

Fortunately, the place where Chen Feng and her son lived was very remote, far away from the rest of the Xuanyuan family. Otherwise, I'm afraid they would be discovered.

The next moment, moonlight fell on it.

On the ancient Buddha's robes, all the silk threads were lit up.

The endless moonlight travels through it.

It was like a large moonlight net that was spilt down, and it picked up a little bit of dreams.

At the same time, Chen Feng took out as much blood of the yellow bird as possible at an extremely fast speed, using the general outline of the Jianglong Arhat Scriptures, and began to operate.

The next one, with a thud, the surging power of the dragon descending Arhat suddenly appeared.

Then, the power of the dragon descending Arhat was bitterly instilled into the ancient Buddha robes.

As a result, the ancient Buddha's robes shined even better, and in the moonlight and golden red light, there was a hint of golden light of the power of the dragon descending and the Arhat.

So, the next moment, Chen Feng suddenly felt that in the void, a door opened to him.

On the other side of the door, there was the space of the Buddha's skeleton.

Chen Feng already felt a strong Buddha power!

Chen Feng was ecstatic.

"Buddha Dragon Skeleton Space! I connected it! I connected it again!"

In the next moment, as if it finally absorbed enough moonlight, the ancient Buddha robes became agile.

It directly rolls, and it wraps Chen Feng in it.

At the next moment, Chen Feng felt that with a thunder, there seemed to be countless rushing thunders in front of him.

In an instant, it was dark in front of me, and I couldn't see or perceive anything.

At the same time, Chen Feng wrapped in the robes also suddenly disappeared from the house.

Chen Feng disappeared without a trace.

In the room not far away, Xuanyuan Ruolan, who was lying quietly on the bed, suddenly sat up.

She looked at Chen Feng's room, her eyes thoughtful.

After a long time, a gratified smile appeared at the corner of his mouth: "This child, the strangeness of chance is really unimaginable."

"He, the future is limitless!"

At this time, it was far away from Chaoge Tianzi City, about a billion miles away.

It's the East Wilderness!

The entire Dragon Vein Continent is divided into five major areas: East Wilderness, West Wilderness, Southern Wilderness, Northern Wilderness, and Zhongzhou.

The location of Chaoge Tianzi City, at the junction of Southern Wilderness and Zhongzhou, is almost the same as the center of the Longmai Continent.

And the Eastern Desolation is hundreds of millions of miles away from the center of the Dragon Vein Continent, and even one billion miles away from Chaoge City.

The Eastern Wilderness is a vast and boundless area.

The entire East Wasteland is vast and sparsely populated, and there are endless mountains everywhere, which is completely different from Zhongzhou.

Zhongzhou is the most prosperous place in the Longmai Continent. It is full of large plains, wide rivers, fertile soil, very suitable for cultivation, and a large population.

The population of Zhongzhou is more than ten times that of the other eastern, western, southern, and northern shortages combined.

It is precisely because of such a large population that there are almost endless geniuses in Zhongzhou.

The number of masters in Zhongzhou is also the largest.

Chapter 2602: Winner of the Eastern Wilderness!

And Donghuang, at a glance, all are mountains.

High and low, mountains of large and small, with a height of one million meters and a length of hundreds of thousands of miles, are often seen.

Among the peaks, the current is rushing and big, cutting out countless huge deep valleys.

The mountains are high and sinister everywhere, and dense forests are everywhere.

A few small patches of plains were scattered during the dinner.

There are not many places suitable for people to live in the Eastern Wilderness, but the mountains are high and dense, with endless monsters and extremely large barbarians.

Among the entire Dragon Vein Continent, the number of barbarians and monsters in the Eastern Desolation is the largest and the strongest.

And under this endless mountain, there are many rich and rare treasures buried.

There are many metal forging that these extremely high-level warriors urgently need.

Among the mountains, there is a treasure of heaven and earth with endless love.

Although the Eastern Wilderness is wild, it is extremely rich!

The strength of the monster beast in the Eastern Desolation is much stronger than that of other places.

Therefore, the strength of the family that can stand proudly amidst the countless monsters in the Eastern Desolation is definitely not to be underestimated!

The core area of Zhongzhou is Chaoge Tianzi City.

The most core area of the East Desolation is in their east.

At the far east, there is an endless ocean.

This endless ocean, the whole is pitch black, can't see the end at a glance.

The seawater is extremely deep, and at first glance, you can't even see the depth of a few meters below the water surface.

Just like a giant beast, it gives people a very terrifying feeling.

Here, huge waves of tens of thousands of meters and hundreds of thousands of meters are set off all year round.

That huge wave broke the sea surface, and countless water splashes everywhere!

Here is the endless East Ocean!

It is the entire Dragon Vein Continent, among all sea areas, the most sinister, with the largest waves, the deepest sea, and one of the most terrifying areas!

The depth of the sea here has reached tens of thousands of meters, hundreds of thousands of meters.

Below the surface of the water, there are infinitely many huge monsters with terrifying strength.

It is even stronger and bigger than the monster beasts in the dragon vein continent.

Because the ocean is much larger than the land area.

Even the top strongest on the Dragon Vein Continent, easily unwilling, dare not set foot on it!

On the west side of this endless eastern ocean, on the coast, are three extremely high peaks.

These three mountains are as dark as iron, expressing a cold and solemn meaning.

The height of each of the three mountain peaks reached a full five million meters, the same height as the mountain peak where Chaoze Tianzi City is located.

However, it is not as wide as it is, but extremely slender and narrow, just like a long sword with a triangular tip.

Directly into the sky, towering into the clouds, revealing a chilling meaning of killing!

Here is one of the places above the entire Dragon Vein Continent that everyone is afraid of and afraid of.

The three peaks are not surprising.

However, above these three peaks, there is a great force that is terrifying to the extreme: the winner!

One of the nine forces, the winner of the Eastern Wilderness!

One of the ancient families, according to legend, the winner was also created by one of the immortal powers who ruled humanity when humanity was just emerging.

The ancestor of the winner is a famous hero who laid this foundation for the winner!

The seaside scenery is not beautiful, it can even be said to be a scene of poor mountains and bad waters.

The turbulent waves are like iron cliffs, and there is no grass growing on the peaks so high.

However, at the top of these three peaks, there are a series of luxurious houses.

Among the luxurious houses, the scenery is extremely beautiful.

There are pavilions, small bridges and flowing water everywhere, and the tops of mountain peaks have been created with a rural scenery of the southern country.

Very precious and rare gorgeous plants are planted everywhere.

Here is the home of the winner.

On the peaks on both sides, most of the people living are the branches of the winners, and on the peak in the center, the main lines of the winners are living.

At this time, in the endless, endless palace, there is an area that is quite eye-catching.

This area is extremely large, with a radius of hundreds of miles.

Moreover, different from other reasons, other gardens create a kind of scenery, either majestic, delicate, or elegant.

This area was split into many pieces.

Each piece is a different scenery, and some are even completely opposite.

Some deserts are next to a high mountain, and next to a high mountain is a swamp.

The next piece, it became a small sect.

It's as if within this hundred miles, it is divided into many pieces, and each piece has to tell a story.

In fact, this is the purpose of the master here.

She wants to fully express the stories she experienced in those years and the things she experienced with that person within this scope.

As soon as I walk into it, I can think of that person and the period that the two spent together, not long, but forever engraved in my heart!

It's off the beaten track, and almost no one dares to come here.

Because everyone knows that the distinguished winner lady living here, the daughter of the Patriarch, has a strange personality.

If she is not careful and destroys her arrangement here, causing her to be furious, then it will be unlucky.

At this time, beside one of the ruins, a woman was strolling quietly.

This city has a radius of more than ten miles, with palaces and houses in it.

There is a broken wall somewhere.

This woman is wandering in it.

She is wearing a purple dress, looks beautiful, and has an elegant and luxurious temperament, walking gently here.

Suddenly, he walked to one of the broken walls, stopped slightly, then raised his head and said softly: "Chen Feng, do you remember?"

"This is Qin State, Lie's family."

"It's here that my brother found us, and I was taken away from you, do you remember?"

If Chen Feng was here, he would definitely be able to recognize it.

This ruin was actually a reduced version of Wuyang City, the capital of the Qin Kingdom.

And this woman was unexpectedly Ziyue.

Ziyuechu was more beautiful than before, and she had fully grown into a big girl.

But there was no happy expression between her eyebrows. She stroked the wall and walked among the fragmented walls.

Suddenly, softly sobbing, covering his face, tears slipped from between his fingers.

"Chen Feng, do you know how much I miss you? I think you are going crazy?"

She was sobbing softly, and suddenly there was a sound of small footsteps in the distance.

Chapter 2603: News of Chen Feng!

She immediately stopped crying, took a deep breath, and her face became calm.

As the winner's eldest lady, as the daughter of the Patriarch, she must maintain her majesty and not show her weakness in front of her servants and outsiders.

The footsteps were getting closer and closer, and a burst of discussion came into her ears.

She wanted to yell, but after hearing the content of the discussion, she stopped immediately and listened attentively.

The next moment, there was a touch of ecstasy on his face.

It turned out that it was the voice of two maids talking.

A clear voice said to the older woman next to him: "Sister Qing, have you heard of it?"

"The Xuanyuan family, recently a waste master came!"

"Haha, of course I heard!" Sister Na Qing said, "Actually, that is not the young master of the Xuanyuan family anymore, he is not surnamed Xuanyuan at all."

"But, his mother, Xuanyuan Ruolan, who was famous back then, known as the proud girl of heaven!"

There was a hint of joking in this sister Qing's voice: "It's a pity that such a mother gave birth to such a waste."

"Yeah!" The crisp voice couldn't help but sighed: "Xuanyuan Ruolan, originally known as the proud girl of the sky, the beautiful crown Chaoze Tianzicheng."

"Innate talent overwhelms all young talents. What a beauty. As a result, he did not expect that he would give birth to a son outside, but this son is so trash!"

Sister Qing said with disdain: "That trash named Chen Feng, if I were him, I would not go to the Xuanyuan family to insult for myself. What about humiliation?"

The crisp voice smiled, and said: "He, from the bottom, he doesn't know the sordidness among these big families. He thinks he can take advantage of coming here!"

"As everyone knows, when he comes here, he will only become a thorn in the eye, a thorn in the flesh, and death!"

The two were chattering and came over here.

Hearing this voice, Ziyue was instantly ecstatic.

Her nose fluttered, her face flushed red, her heart beating wildly, and her eyes were extremely excited.

At this moment, the blood flow accelerated, the heart beat wildly, and almost fainted happily!

A voice in her heart trembled: "Are they talking about Chen Feng? Yes, yes, they must be talking about Chen Feng!"

She couldn't control her emotions anymore, and suddenly came out from behind the ruined wall.

The two maids said as they walked, their clothes were quite gorgeous, and they were very powerful.

Obviously, even if it is the winner, they are two very high-ranking maids. In front of ordinary maids and servants, they are very face-conscious and no one dares to offend them easily.

However, at this time, after the two of them saw Ziyue, there was a look of awe on their faces.

The two hurriedly bowed and saluted, not daring to neglect the slightest.

A joke, this Miss Ziyue, as the only daughter of the Patriarch, is the heart and soul of the entire family and is regarded as the jewel in the palm of everyone!

Especially the Patriarch and Young Master, they are about to spoil her to the sky.

And she had disappeared for a while a few years ago, and she still remembers clearly what the whole family experienced during that time!

Almost all the strong in the family were sent out to find her.

Even many major events were ignored, and the power of the entire family was extremely shrinking because of this incident.

Because the masters of their clan are not used to maintain their own power, but are sent to find others, then their power will naturally be eaten away by other clan sects.

Because of this incident, within a few years, the power of the entire winner was reduced by half!

Even so, the Patriarch did not hesitate to let everyone look for it without hesitation.

This shows how important this eldest lady has in the mind of the master.

How dare they offend this young lady?

The two hurriedly refined their bodies and saluted respectfully, and said in unison: "I have seen Missy!"

However, Ziyue ignored their manners at all.

She just looked at these two people and said excitedly: "The person you just mentioned is Chen Feng, isn't it?"

"You said Chen Feng went to Chaoge Tianzi City? He went to the Xuanyuan family?"

When she asked this sentence, the two maids were taken aback, but the next moment, their faces changed suddenly.

Become pale.

Both of them are Bingxue smart and have long heard that after the eldest lady came back, she met an ordinary man below. The two fell in love with each other and had a deep relationship.

So when the young master brought her back, she was reluctant to come back.

This incident has already spread to the whole winner, everyone knows it, and the two of them know it better.

And later events also proved that this statement is definitely not groundless.

Even, in order to miss that person, the eldest lady specially opened up such a large piece of ground in the mansion and built all kinds of things to miss the scene of the two of them together.

At this moment, when the two of them saw that the eldest lady was so excited, an idea flashed in their hearts: "Is that person Chen Feng?"

"Chen Feng, isn't it the lover of the eldest lady?"

At the same time, their hearts also suddenly rushed into the secret order of the young master in the mansion that day:

"Everyone, it is absolutely forbidden to tell Ziyue anything about that person. Anyone who violates it will be killed!"

When he thought of this, he didn't dare to say anything, but looked at Ziyue with fear.

One of the maids forced a smile and said, "Miss, you have misunderstood, we didn't say anything!"

Ziyue stared at them and sneered: "Don't think I don't know what you think? You are afraid that my brother will kill you!"

"But I tell you, if you tell me exactly what happened today, then I will definitely keep you in front of my brother."

"And if you don't tell me!"

She suddenly became cold, and then slapped her backhand with a slap on her face.

With great effort, immediately, five **** marks appeared on her face.

The two maids are stupid and don't know what she is doing.

Ziyue looked at them and sneered slightly: "If you don't tell me, I'll go to my brother and say, you two have committed the crime, you dare to beat me!"

"I want to see, he believes in me, or believes in you!"

"Let's see if you two will survive by then!"

Chapter 2604: Eldest lady

However, Ziyue sneered, unmoved.

She herself has a very gentle temper and never kills people at will, but the two people just humiliated Chen Feng in their words, and her heart was already full of hatred.

It's good if you don't kill them directly, and you won't be polite to deal with them.

Ziyue stared at them, and said in a cold voice: "My patience is limited! Have you thought about it? Or not?"

After asking the last sentence, she immediately turned around, ready to go out.

Seeing her like this, the two maids immediately let out a cry and rushed forward, hugging her leg.

Ziyue said coldly: "Get away!"

Not to mention the insult to Chen Feng by these two people just now, the two of them can climb to this position, and their hands can also be stained with a lot of other people's blood. Ziyue will not have any sympathy for them.

The two maids wailed and begged for mercy, while trembling: "Miss, we said, we said."

After that, they recounted what they had heard.

After Ziyue listened, there was a touch of ecstasy on her face, and her hands trembled.

The heart was pounding wildly, the blood flow accelerated, his face flushed, and his excitement was extreme.

"Since I was captured back into the family, my brother and father never allowed me to go down there anymore. They could only move around among the nine forces. In their opinion, Chen Feng would never come to the territory of the nine forces."

"Unexpectedly, Chen Feng actually came, he went to Chaoge Tianzi City, I must go find him!"

"I must go find him!"

As she said, she looked at the faces of those two people, her expression suddenly turned cold sometimes, and said: "You two go and inquire about me and report all the news."

"If there is the slightest fallacy, I will kill you!"

"Yes, yes." The two maids didn't dare to have any resistance at all, and left quickly.

In the evening of that day, Ziyue got more news in her boudoir.

She stared at the two maids, and said in a deep voice: "This matter must never be known by anyone, especially by my brother and father. Do you understand?"

"Don't forget my means!"

The two maids responded with weeping faces.

They dare not say, in fact, what they fear most is that Ziyue's father and brother know this.

Because it was the two of them who told the eldest lady the news. If those two knew about it, the two of them would immediately die!

On the night of that day, the moon was in transit.

However, the whole winner is still very lively.

Many places are brightly lit, there is a burst of laughter from time to time, and there are many extremely delicious dishes wafting out of many halls.

Winners are holding banquets in many places.

This is also normal. It is one of the nine major forces like winners. There are very, very many things that come and go every day. Many families of the same level will often come as guests.

This is also a way for them to connect with each other.

Except for the area a hundred miles around where Ziyue was, it was quiet.

Everyone knows that this eldest lady has been in a bad mood since she came back, and no one dared to touch her mold.

Ziyue's boudoir was not built elsewhere, but on a small cliff.

On the cliff, there is a small flat ground, and there is a wooden house on the flat ground, where she lives.

If Chen Feng were there, he would definitely be able to find that this place turned out to be the cliff where she and Ziyue had just met.

Exactly the same!

In fact, it is not exactly the same, it is.

Ziyue later ordered people to go to Qian Yuanzong, dug back the cliff and mountain where they two met, and settled here.

Ziyue floated out of the small wooden house silently, glanced around, and then quickly got off the cliff and headed away from the winner.

Two hours later, he left the winner's area.

However, at this time, the place that Ziyue could not see was the highest peak among the three peaks where the winner was.

On a black boulder, a middle-aged man in a white robe with an extremely mighty appearance sat cross-legged there.

At this time, Ziyue's every move fell into his eyes.

However, he didn't have any anger. On the contrary, he saw Ziyue sneaking and sneaking, but there was a smile on the corner of his mouth, full of pampering.

He shook his head and said slowly: "This girl, it's really not worrying!"

At this time, the air next to him fluctuates.

A beautiful figure appeared quietly.

This beautiful figure is a young man with a tall stature and an extremely handsome appearance, with a strong majesty and extravagance.

This person is winning the Chaoyang!

His face was filled with purple air, and his gaze toward Ziyue was full of love.

Then, he said slowly: "Father, do you want to stop him?"

"No need to."

"Don't worry, as long as he doesn't have the nine major forces, let him go!"

"This girl is also suffocated at home. She has nothing to do when she goes out to play. Anyway, no one dares to deal with him if she reports the name of the winner."

Ying Chaoyang nodded, said a few words, and went down.

After he left, he still felt a little worried.

So he snapped his fingers lightly.

Suddenly, two black lights and shadows suddenly appeared.

Two old men in black stood behind her with respectful expressions.

One of the two black-clothed old men is tall and burly, the other is short and fierce. The two bowed together and said, "I have seen the young master, I wonder what the young master has to say?"

The aura on both of them is extremely magnificent and terrifying.

Anyone who took it out was a master who could destroy the sect family.

But at this time, in front of Win Chaoyang, he was respectful as a slave.

Ying Chaoyang said lightly: "You follow her. If she is not dangerous, don't take action. If she is in danger, you must save her!"

"Yes!" The two old men hurriedly bowed and saluted.

Then, his body shape flashed and disappeared directly.

This light work is also wonderful.

However, what the winners do not know is that after walking hundreds of miles away, Ziyue suddenly looked back at the mountain peak in the distance, with a successful smile on the corner of her mouth, and the thief smiled. :

"I know, the two of them must think that I will go to the nine major forces and I will definitely not stop it."

"Haha, father, brother, when you find out, it's too late!"

She cheered loudly: "Chen Feng, I'm looking for you!"

At this time, Chen Feng felt that he was falling down in the endless darkness.

No, it should be said that the place where he fell was not endless darkness, but nothingness.

Chapter 2605: Full of strength!

There is nothing around, not even the concept of space, and the concept of time.

Chen Feng didn't know how he existed, let alone how long he had passed.

But at this time, Chen Feng's heart was unusually quiet and calm.

Before changing to him, or changing to someone else's words, I'm afraid I will panic and shout at this time.

But Chen Feng was still calm.

Because he had experienced those things before, and now he regained the hope of recovering his soul, and he was about to enter the Buddha dragon bone space. All he had in his heart was joy.

Chen Feng is now very much looking forward to entering the space of Buddha's dragon bones, quickly recovering his martial spirit, and quickly recovering his strength.

He really has been waiting for too long.

Suddenly, the next moment, countless black and white lines appeared in front of Chen Feng.

After Chen Feng saw these lines, he was immediately happy.

Because he knows that this represents time and space.

After experiencing this, Chen Feng has a deeper understanding of time and space than before.

Soon, a strong feeling of falling was heard.

Chen Feng felt that he was falling continuously from the void.

The feeling of decline was extremely strong.

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, because he felt his body and the space of the Buddha's bones!

The next moment, suddenly, there was a loud bang, as if something exploded.

Then, Chen Feng saw a hole.

At the end of the void, there is endless, white light. nOveLus&.coM

In front of Chen Feng's eyes, in an instant, there was an extremely strong white.

Among the white, it is mixed with extremely powerful gold.

The endless Buddha-nature breath rushed to the face.

Chen Feng also felt the air and the oncoming wind.

Chen Feng instinctively closed his eyes, and the next moment, with a boom, he hit the ground, splashing countless golden sand.

Chen Feng jumped up.

He opened his eyes and saw the endless golden sands in front of him. He also saw the huge Buddha dragon bones that were tens of thousands of miles in length at the center of the golden sands!

Chen Feng let out a burst of ecstasy: "Hahahaha, Buddha Dragon Skeleton Space, I am back! I am back!"

There was no change in the space of Buddha's dragon bones during the days when Chen Feng left.

The bones of the Buddha dragon still crawled there quietly.

The gap in the rib that Chen Feng took away still exists.

Although it is bone, the surface is as smooth as jade, without the slightest meaning of evil, but full of holiness.

Chen Feng stepped forward almost in an impatient posture, pressing his hands on the Buddha dragon bone.

Chen Feng desperately wanted to sense the power of the dragon descending Arhat and the power in the bones of the Buddha, but there was no reaction at all.

Chen Feng knew immediately that he had acted too hastily.

He took a deep breath, looked at the Buddha's bones, and bowed down sincerely and reverently.

Then, he walked to the other side of the Buddha's skeleton and found a small pond.

The ground here is full of golden sand, and in the pond here is a clear, fragrant agar syrup.

Chen Feng took off his clothes, stepped into it, and washed himself well.

After bathing, she was refreshed, with large sleeves.

He crossed his knees on the ground, with three incense sticks burning in front of him.

Chen Feng's face was solemn and quiet.

So after three days and three nights.

Chen Feng suddenly stood up!

At this time, he felt that his whole person had reached the peak state, whether it was physical strength or spirit.

There was no ecstasy, no disappointment and anger in my heart, and there was only Gu Jing Wubo's indifferent.

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, and he whispered to himself: "I will succeed this time!"

It was full of great confidence, and it was precisely because of this mentality that Chen Feng would have such confidence.

At the next moment, Chen Feng strode forward and walked to the Buddha dragon bone.

His hand was directly pressed on the bone of the Buddha.

After Chen Feng pressed his hands on it, it was strange to say that a faint golden light suddenly appeared on the entire surface of the Buddha dragon bone that had not fluctuated before.

Then, the golden light gradually changed from very thin to intense.

In the end, it became very strong.

The entire Buddha dragon's bones exudes a huge, extremely bright golden light, and even Chen Feng can't open his eyes.

So he closed his eyes altogether and just felt it with heart.

The next moment, suddenly, Chen Feng felt that there was an explosion on his hands.

His body is like a **** that has been rushed alive, and the flood is the endless golden light, the extremely powerful force of the dragon descending Arhat!

This is the most pure and perfect power of the dragon descending Arhat!

With a bang, he rushed directly into Chen Feng's body.

In a blink of an eye, these golden rays of light surrounded Chen Feng's entire body, instilling it from all over his body.

Chen Feng felt that countless warm currents entered and traveled through his body.

In an instant, the surface of his body broke, and a lot of blood was directly squeezed out.

Only at this moment, all the hidden injuries that Chen Feng had accumulated these days disappeared without a trace.

Chen Feng felt like he was soaked in hot water, and he was extremely comfortable.

He couldn't help but let out a lazy voice.

Then, those huge and incomparable powers of the dragon descending arhats poured straight into Chen Feng's Dantian and poured into those four huge barren orbs of light.

Those spheres of light were extremely dim from the beginning, and became faintly radiant.

Then, the light became stronger and brighter.

In just a moment, these four **** of light became filled with light and heat again.

Brilliant to the extreme, brilliant!

Countless phantoms of giant dragons emerged in Chen Feng's dantian, sending out an angry and long chant.

In a blink of an eye, Chen Feng's strength has been restored to its peak state!

"Now I have once again the strength equivalent to the Seven-Star Martial Emperor!"

Chen Feng laughed loudly, yelled excitedly, waving his arms, and a deep chill appeared in his eyes:
"Xuanyuan Xingping, you wait for me!"

"The current me, my strength, is definitely not what you can match or even look up to!"

"I can kill you with one punch now!"

Chen Feng's body was full of the power of the dragon descending Arhat at this time, and the power of the dragon descending Arhat that had disappeared for several months was completely restored again.

Chen Feng's strength reached its peak.

However, this did not satisfy him, and this is not his real purpose here!

Chen Feng's eyes were like electricity, looking at the Buddha's dragon bones in front of him, his voice was calm and indifferent: "What I want is Wuhun!"

Chapter 2606: What I want is Wuhun!

"It's not over yet!"

As he said, Chen Feng's arms shook, and with a thud, the force of the arrogant dragon descending arhat came directly from his body.

Then, he directly rushed towards the Buddha dragon bone in front of him.

The last time Chen Feng smelted this Buddha dragon bone to obtain the Scarlet Sea Purple Gold Dragon Martial Spirit, he only took a rib.

This time, Chen Feng's appetite was even greater.

Under his drive, his power of descending the dragon and Arhat was divided into four realms.

These powers of descending dragons and arhats have three lines running towards the three ribs of Buddha dragon bones.

And one of them was a vertebra directly covering the Buddha's skeleton.

The bones of Buddha dragons reach ten thousand miles in length.

His spine, from the dragon head all the way to the back, reached ninety-five thousand miles in length, on which there were a total of 365 spine joints!

There are three hundred and sixty-five spinal joints, which implies the number of days of the week, and the length of each vertebrae reaches thirty miles!

Thirty miles, which is fifteen kilometers!

The length of each rib has reached tens of thousands of meters!

Even if Chen Feng's power of descending the dragon and Arhat was extremely large and magnificent, it was all released at this time, it just barely covered these four huge bones.

Moreover, even so, Chen Feng felt extremely difficult!

He felt that his Dantian had been completely drained.

All the power of the dragon descending Arhat disappeared without a trace, even the release of this power has exceeded his load.

His heart was beating wildly, blood squeezed wildly, his eyes turned black for a while, almost fainting.

Suddenly, with a wow, Chen Feng spouted several mouthfuls of blood.

In the next moment, blood rushed out from every pore and seven orifices of his.

Chen Feng's body could no longer bear such a huge load, and almost collapsed.

Every viscera of Chen Feng was squeezed desperately, and almost all the viscera were about to be damaged.

But at this time, Chen Feng suddenly looked up to the sky and let out a crazy roar!

"No! This time, if I fight for my life, I will get a more powerful spirit! Get a spirit that is stronger than the Chihai Zijinlong!"

"I'm in a dangerous situation now, I have to fight!"

"The Xuanyuan family has so many geniuses, the nine powers are so guarded against the sky, and the geniuses are numbered in the Ganges. Otherwise, how can I compare with them?"

"What's more, what I want is not to be on par with them, not to be on par with them, but!"

"Step all these dog things under your feet!"

"what....."

Chen Feng yelled crazy.

Not only did he fail to constrain, he was even more desperate and crazy.

The whole body trembled, all the power rushed out!

In this way, his whole body trembled even more, his body couldn't bear it at all, and he was almost breaking into pieces alive.

His blood spurted out wildly.

With a snap, like a firework exploding, it suddenly spilled on the bones in front of him.

It was strange to say that Chen Feng's power of descending the dragon and the Arhat covered the four white bones, and it had no effect on them at all, and after a long time there was no sign of refining.

However, when Chen Feng's blood was sprayed on it, these four bones seemed to have encountered a nemesis.

Suddenly, they softened.

Chen Feng's power of descending the dragon and Arhat clearly felt that it was easier to refine them than before.

They went from being extremely strong to softening, and a faint light appeared on the surface.

But this faint light directly penetrated into the power of the dragon descending Arhat.

As a result, Chen Feng's power to drop the dragon and Arhat is actually stronger than before.

With a bang, it could only cover a thin layer before, and it became a little thicker.

And those bones are still softening, the **** is constantly appearing, and the power of the dragon descending Arhat is getting stronger and stronger.

Chen Feng was ecstatic.

"These bones can be transformed into the power of the dragon descending arhat to strengthen my strength, and the power of my dragon descending arhat, the more they absorb and the stronger they become, the easier it is to refine them!"

Chen Feng sat cross-legged, holding his breath and concentrating all his energy.

Continuously absorb and continuously transform.

This sitting is a whole year!

In the first month, Chen Feng had already weakened these four huge bones to only 90% of their previous size.

And his power of descending the dragon and Arhat has grown too much.

By the third month, Chen Feng had already smelted them only half the original size.

In the sixth month, Chen Feng was surprised to see that all these four bones had disappeared without a trace, turning into endless golden light.

With a boom, it condensed into a golden ball in the air.

And then, for the whole six months, Chen Feng's power of descending the dragon and Arhat has been enveloping this huge golden ball of light.

Chen Feng didn't know what was in the golden ball of light, but he clearly felt that the things in it had a great connection with him, and even had a touch of spirituality.

It's just that this feeling is cold.

This made Chen Feng very puzzled.

Soon, a year passed.

For a year, Chen Feng sat motionless.

He was silent, silent, neither eating nor drinking, but he was as clean as jade, without dirt and dust.

Chen Feng was here, as if he had entered an extremely perfect state.

Even during this year, Chen Feng's eyes had not been opened.

One year, three hundred and sixty-five days and nights.

Suddenly, Chen Feng opened his eyes.

The next moment, he suddenly felt a loud bang.

This loud noise did not appear in the outside world, but in his heart.

Chen Feng was suddenly shocked, and he discovered that what appeared in his mind, clearly appeared in the huge golden light ball that appeared in front of him!

It's just that this huge golden ball of light communicates with his soul, so he will feel that this is appearing in his mind.

Chen Feng just wanted to understand this, and suddenly there was another loud bang, appearing in the golden ball of light in front of him.

At this time, Chen Feng showed ecstasy on his face and said softly: "Heartbeat, this is a heartbeat!"

"I can feel it, this is a heartbeat!"

At this moment, Chen Feng found that the golden light ball in front of him, after half a year of gestation, the surface of the golden light ball became stronger and smoother!

Now, it turned into something like a huge golden egg.

At this moment, inside this huge golden egg, there was a sound of heartbeat.

And this heartbeat became louder and clearer.

Chen Feng's heart also jumped up with the pounding, a huge voice in his heart echoed

Chapter 2607: A powerful new Wuhun!

"There is my martial soul! Inside is my martial soul!"

In the next moment, this huge heartbeat sound filled the entire world.

Chen Feng felt as if the world was inside this eggshell.

As the heartbeat of the life inside kept shaking, Chen Feng knew that at this time, his power of descending the dragon and Arhat was useless.

Therefore, he removed these powers of descending the dragon and Arhat.

After the power of the dragon descending arhat was removed, Chen Feng discovered that the power of the dragon descending arhat obtained from the bones of the Buddha did not enter his body.

The power of his own dragon descending arhats is still the ones released before.

This couldn't help making him a little pity.

But soon, Chen Feng's attention was attracted by the huge golden egg in front of him.

At this moment, there was a soft crack on the huge golden egg.

Then, the next moment, a small gap appeared in the eggshell.

In the beginning, it was just a very small gap, and this gap spread quickly to the surroundings and quickly became very big.

Then, it spread in all directions, just like a tree root, growing longer and bigger.

As the cracks appeared, there was a strong yellow light inside.

A strong and incomparable earth attribute power spread.

This kind of yellow light is not golden, but this yellow is very pure and vast.

Just like the land that carries the whole world, it is profound, heavy and steady.

Chen Feng trembled heavily in his heart!

"Could it be that my new martial arts soul is actually related to earth attributes?"

In the latter, the fragmentation is getting bigger and bigger.

In the end, with a click, a huge fragment of the eggshell fell down.

The next moment, from the eggshell, there was a small head sticking out.

The moment Chen Feng saw this head, his heart trembled.

It turned out that at this time, the head protruding from this huge eggshell was not a dragon head, nor was it the dragon head that Chen Feng had expected.

It turned out to be a snake head!

This snake head is huge, with a radius of about 10,000 meters!

Chen Feng judged that he was at least 200,000 meters long!

It can be said to be extremely huge!

And what shocked Chen Feng the most was not the huge snake head, but the extremely hideous snake head!

The head of this huge snake is full of earthy yellow color, and there are very messy scales everywhere on the head of the snake.

Each scale is hundreds of meters in radius, extremely huge, and each scale is extremely thick, reaching more than ten meters in thickness, but the edges are as sharp as a knife.

The scales grow crookedly and crookedly, making people look at it, and there is a sense of boredom in the heart!

His entire head is triangular.

On the head, there are dozens of long horns left. These long horns are very irregular, very messy, and a mess of trees on his head.

His two huge eyeballs are thousands of meters in diameter.

Those eyes, behind the thick eyelids, were two cloudy eyes.

Two vertical pupils flashed in it.

What shocked Chen Feng most was its eyes.

In its eyeballs, there was no feeling at all, but it was filled with extreme coldness, killing intent, greed, and desire to swallow.

As soon as it saw Chen Feng, its eyes became round, and the eyes radiated extremely fierce and greedy rays.

It opened its big mouth, and countless black venom and saliva dripped from his mouth.

Looking at it this way, it actually wanted to swallow Chen Feng alive.

Chen Feng exclaimed, "What is going on? This is my martial soul! How could this be?"

Its saliva fell on the sands and even corroded the sands.

It can be seen that it contains extremely strong toxicity.

And with his mouth, an extremely fishy and disgusting smell came over, which almost suffocated Chen Feng.

This giant snake didn't just want to eat Chen Feng, it even shook its whole body directly.

Suddenly, with a boom, the huge golden eggshell shattered directly.

Then, the giant snake appeared in front of Chen Feng.

Chen Feng's estimate is correct!

Its body length has indeed reached a full 200,000 meters, which is much larger than the original Chihai Zijinlong!

He let out an unpleasant hoarse roar, and then rushed towards Chen Feng.

With a big mouth, he wanted to eat him directly.

Chen Feng was horrified: "Why? It wants to eat me? Is this my martial soul?"

There was also a touch of anger in his eyes!

Chen Feng was extremely angry in an instant, and even slightly disappointed: "My martial soul has become like this?"

He roared loudly: "Beast, presumptuous!"

Both arms shook, and the power of the dragon descending Arhat came out again.

Suddenly, in an instant, the power of the dragon descending Arhat was to envelop the entire giant snake.

This giant snake seemed to be extremely afraid of the power of the dragon descending Arhat. As soon as the power of the dragon descending Arhat touched his body, it suddenly screamed.

The surface of his body looked intact, but his whole body twitched with pain, and he didn't even care to attack Chen Feng.

The whole body was convulsing violently, and there was a scream in his throat, struggling frantically.

He couldn't even maintain his form, he just curled up into a ball.

Chen Feng didn't stop at all.

His expression was extremely cold, and he continued to urge the power of the dragon descending Arhat to attack frantically.

The scream of the giant snake became louder and louder, and finally, after reaching a peak, the screaming became quieter and became extremely weak.

The fierce light in his eyes became much weaker than before, and there was a hint of forgiveness in his eyes.

The next moment, in Chen Feng's mind, a voice suddenly sounded: "Please, don't do it again!"

"Ah! Please, don't do it anymore!"

This voice is very hollow, even if it is male or female, it is not clear whether it is young or old.

Very empty and indifferent, as if this giant snake has no feelings at all.

At the same time, the giant snake also lay on the ground, no longer being as fierce as before, instead it tapped its head three times on the ground.

It seems to express surrender to Chen Feng.

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, and he slowly retracted the power of the dragon descending Arhat.

He faintly said: "Be honest? Don't want to attack me?"

That Wuhun shook his head hurriedly, never daring to show any disrespect.

At this time, Chen Feng had the intention to look at him.

The head of this martial soul is earthy and yellow, and his body is entirely black.

The black ones are extremely deep, and the yellow ones are also extremely thick.

Chapter 2608: Wuhun! Ba snake!

The dragon fights in the wild, its blood is black and yellow!

The so-called black is black!

The black yellow is a very heavy color, and the black yellow color of this snake did not live up to the body color.

His whole momentum is very tyrannical.

Chen Feng felt it carefully, and was immediately shocked.

"His momentum is many times stronger than the previous Chihai Zijinlong!"

Chen Feng couldn't estimate how many 10,000-year-level martial arts it was, and couldn't judge what quality it was. Chen Feng couldn't test it himself.

But Chen Feng knew that he was definitely very strong!

The next moment, Chen Feng's heart became hot:

"This martial soul, although it is an evil martial soul, is rebellious, but it is too powerful!"

"If I surrender it, then it will be much stronger than before!" Novelusb.coM

The next moment, all of a sudden, a powerful message came directly into Chen Feng's mind.

Suddenly, Chen Feng felt a sharp pain in his mind, he couldn't help groaning, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

He stood there for a long time before digesting the information that had penetrated his mind.

Chen Feng looked at the huge black and yellow giant snake in front of him, a flash of sensation flashed in his heart, and said softly: "So it's you!"

His voice was full of shock, and there was a hint of indescribable excitement and ecstasy.

It turned out that at this time, the giant snake in front of Chen Feng turned out to be a snake!

Although Ba Snake is not a dragon, its strength must surpass all five-character level dragons!

Ba Snake is a kind of ancient mythical beast, although its strength is not comparable to Teng Snake, it is indeed not too far behind!

How strong is Ba Snake?

Ba Snake is a kind of extremely tyrannical monster beast with earth attributes. For this kind of monster beast, their food is nothing but mountains!

They will eat all the mountains, together with all the plants on them, all the flowers, birds, fish and insects, all the monsters, all the humans, all the creatures, and even all the minerals and all the water sources!

Swallow it!

Mountain by mouth!

This is the origin of the idiom of Bashetun Mountain, the dragon vein mainland.

It is said that there was a snake in the ancient times.

And in the process of the rise of mankind, the Queen of Snake has fought with countless great heroes of the early mankind.

So now, in the northern borders of the Dragon Vein Continent, there is still a mountain range that stretches for tens of thousands of miles. It is said that this mountain was transformed into the body of a snake killed by a hero when mankind just emerged.

His body can be transformed into a mountain range tens of thousands of miles long, showing how powerful this monster beast is!

How huge is it!

Chen Feng was overjoyed and looked at the snake in front of him with a look of treasure.

Even his hands trembled slightly, and he murmured, "This is a snake!"

"Bashe is a martial soul, I don't know which young man among the nine major forces has such a powerful martial soul! Hahahaha!"

"Even in the nine major forces, among all the younger generations, I should be very powerful!"

A look of hatred suddenly appeared in his eyes, clenched his fists, gritted his teeth, and his voice was extremely cold, full of sharp murderous intent:

"Xuanyuan Xingping, there are those people standing behind you, and all the Xuanyuan family people who exclude our mother and son and despise our mother and son, wait!"

"I Chen, holding the Ba Snake Martial Spirit, come to you for revenge!"

Then, Chen Feng took a deep breath and suppressed this emotion forcibly.

He looked at the Ba Snake Wuhun in front of him. The Ba Snake looked very docile at this time, but Chen Feng still saw a trace of viciousness in his eyes.

However, what surprised Chen Feng was that he didn't seem to have a vicious temper, but that he was such a creature.

He is acting entirely on instinct.

Chen Feng didn't feel the existence of any soul from him!

But the voice that rang in his mind before also proved that this martial soul seemed to be lacking in intelligence.

His voice is so hollow.

Chen Feng knew that he hadn't succumbed yet, and it came from his nature.

A sneer appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "Don't give in, right? That's okay! Then I will use the strength of the dragon to clean you up, and then it will be up to you to obey or not?"

After speaking, Chen Feng roared: "Martial soul, enter the body!"

This huge Ba Snake Martial Spirit was still struggling and didn't want to enter, and a wave of resistance came.

Chen Feng let out a cold snort, and the power of the dragon descending Arhat came out again, directly wrapping him in it.

Suddenly, the Ba Snake Wuhun screamed with pain, and did not dare to resist any more, and was obediently absorbed by Chen Feng.

There was a chuckle at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "Unexpectedly, what I got this time turned out to be the Ba Snake Wuhun!"

"This power of descending the dragon and Arhat must be left to me by Senior Buddha to control the Ba snake. I guess he also knows that the Ba snake spirit is rebellious and very vicious. This is the means to restrict him!"

Chen Feng sighed slightly, his eyes slowly scanned among the Buddha's dragon bones, with a touch of emotion on his face.

"Unconsciously, I have been in this Buddha dragon bones for a whole year."

"In this year's time, I have gone from a strength that can't even reach the Martial Emperor Realm, and I have no power to lower the dragon and arhat, nor the waste of martial soul, and become what I am now!"

"Now, I have regained my spirit, and I don't know how many times it is stronger than before!"

"The power of my dragon descending Arhat is also extremely sufficient, overflowing, and completely restored to its previous state!"

"Xuanyuan Family, now is the time for you to see my true strength and true talent!"

Chen Feng laughed loudly, then his figure flashed, and the ancient Buddha robes wrapped him.

The next moment, Chen Feng disappeared here directly with a hum.

In Chen Feng's room, a golden red light suddenly shined.

The next moment, the ancient Buddha cassock appeared and landed directly on Chen Feng's bed.

Chen Feng lifted the ancient Buddha robes and saw that the moonlight had disappeared outside the window.

In the extreme distance of the Eastern Desolation, a ray of morning light quietly rose, and it was about to dawn.

Today is the time for Wuhun testing!

Chen Feng sat up slowly, a confident smile appeared at the corner of his mouth: "Come on, I'm still testing! Come on, Xuanyuan family!"

"Today, I want to shock all of you. I want the Xuanyuan family to recognize me again, and I want everyone in the nine major forces to know my name, Chen Feng!"

Chen Feng got up to clean up and wash.

When he wanted to go out, it was already dawn.

In the next bedroom, Xuanyuan Ruolan walked out and looked at Chen Feng. The moment she saw Chen Feng, she immediately showed a touch of shock and said:

"Feng'er, you, are you different from before?"

Chapter 2609: Wuhun test!

Chen Feng looked at her with a smile and said, "Mother, this night's time is enough to change many things."

"I can tell you very confidently now that today's Wuhun Wuhun test, I will definitely make everyone amazed."

Xuanyuan Ruolan looked at Chen Feng as if she was feeling something carefully.

After a long time, she slowly let out a sigh of breath, looked at Chen Feng, and said softly: "Feng'er, very good, you are very good, you deserve to be the son of a mother!"

"Wei Niang now has full confidence in you."

He stepped forward, smoothed Chen Feng's clothes, and looked at Chen Feng with joy.

Chen Feng is tall, tall and handsome, looks handsome, with sword eyebrows and stars.

At this time, although he was dressed in ordinary clothes, it was still dazzling.

Pride surged in her heart: "This is my son, my son Xuanyuan Ruolan!"

She looked at Chen Feng and said softly: "Feng'er, you just go first."

"You have now recovered your strength and your talents. Originally, I dared not tell you a lot of things. I was afraid that you would not be able to bear it, but there was nothing you could do."

"But now, I can say a lot of things."

"Weiniang knows that you have a lot of questions in your heart. After you take the Wuhun Wuhun test, I will explain them to you one by one."

Chen Feng nodded and said, "Okay."

Then, he left his mother, turned and walked towards the lecture hall.

Today, Waizong, the place where Wuhun Wuhun was tested is on the square in front of the lecture hall.

At this time, the square in front of Shijiang Wutang was already very lively.

Thousands of disciples of the Wai Zong gathered here, and the square was crowded.

It's just that everyone gathered in one corner, leaving a large area in the middle.

This is where the Wuhun test is to be conducted.

Among these thousands of foreign disciples, the Xuanyuan family only accounts for less than 40%, and the Xuanyuan family's main lineage only accounts for about 10%.

Most of the others are affiliated families of the Xuanyuan family.

In order to win over these affiliated families, they are also eligible to listen to classes in the Foreign Sect's lecture martial arts hall, and are also eligible to enjoy some of the Xuanyuan family's resources and obtain the Xuanyuan family's martial arts techniques.

Among them, those with better martial arts and higher talents, the Xuanyuan family is not hesitating to reward them and cultivate them carefully.

Because, they will definitely play for the Xuanyuan Family in the future, the Xuanyuan Family is equivalent to drawing them in advance.

Like Qin Jiaoxi, he came from an affiliated family of the Xuanyuan family, and he was still loyal.

At this time, because of their different families and different strengths, they also gathered in piles, divided into many piles.

Jingwei is clear.nOVelusB.com

Among them, there are one or two in each pile, which are the core figures sought after by the audience.

At this time, Xuanyuan Xingping and Xuanyuan Yucheng gathered together.

And beside the two of them, there were dozens of people crowded there.

These dozens of people belonged to various families, but they were mainly from the Xuanyuan family.

Moreover, the number of people in the main line accounted for about half. Therefore, they have a sense of superiority. When they look at the people around, they are full of arrogance.

Their strength is generally higher than those around them, and those around them look at them with a trace of awe in their eyes.

One of the short fat guys looked at Xuanyuan Xingping, with a hint of flattery on his face, and said, "Master San, this time the martial arts test, you must be confident, right?"

Xuanyuan Xingping smiled, pretending to be modest, and said, "No, no."

"The Xuanyuan family, there are so many outstanding talents, where can I get me?"

Although he was speaking modestly, his face was self-sufficient and arrogant.

And seeing his look like this, everyone knew that he was sure of this time.

Martial Soul may have improved again, that's why it was so.

The short and fat man immediately said with interest: "Look at what you said, there are many geniuses in the Xuanyuan family. Could it be that you are not included in this genius?"

"You are also one of the geniuses of the Xuanyuan family!"

Hearing this, Xuanyuan Xingping was very happy and laughed loudly.

Next to Xuanyuan Yucheng also hurriedly said, "Why don't you let us open our eyes first?"

Xuanyuan Xingping waved his hand and said, "Well, I know that you are curious. I'll know later, but I'm not busy at this time."

Everyone nodded, all praising him.

Xuanyuan Xingping made them triumphant and triumphant, as if he had become the first person in the outer sect.

He swept around, and suddenly a joking smile appeared at the corner of his mouth and said, "Where is Chen Feng that waste? Why hasn't it come yet?"

Xuanyuan Xingping laughed at the establishment, and said: "That trash, I am afraid that even if I came to participate in the Martial Spirit Test today, it would be embarrassing. There can be no limelight, but people will laugh at it."

"So, he simply hides in his doghouse and dare not come out!"

Xuanyuan Xingping laughed and said, "I think so too!"

The short and fat man who had spoken before curled his lips and said disdainfully: "Chen Feng, what kind of trash is he?"

"Just him, is also worthy to participate in the Martial Spirit Test? According to me, that precious Heavenly Martial Spirit Totem, being pressed by his hand and being used by him once, is a huge waste."

As he spoke, he made a sneer of disdain.

The people around also nodded.

Xuanyuan Xingping laughed and said, "He might think the same way, so he felt that we shouldn't waste our martial arts totem, so he didn't dare to come today."

They talked a lot, thinking that Chen Feng would never come today.

Xuanyuan Xingping beckoned, Xuanyuan Yucheng walked over and whispered, "Brother 3, what's wrong?"

Xuanyuan Xingping said in a low voice: "Find someone to stare at Chen Feng, mother and son, to prevent them from sneaking away when they use the spirit of the test."

"At that time, if the two of them are missing, I can't kill them, and let out a sigh of relief for my father. I will ask you for it!"

Xuanyuan Yucheng smiled fiercely and said, "Brother, don't worry, the two of them can't run."

"I have anticipated this situation a long time ago, and sent someone to stare at them!"

Xuanyuan Xingping raised his eyebrows, then laughed, patted him on the shoulder and said, "Old Qi, your thoughts are really meticulous."

Xuanyuan Yucheng ranked seventh among his brothers.

He was praised by Xuanyuan Xingping, and he was so excited that he felt that he was one step closer to entering the main vein.

At this moment, suddenly, the two of them discovered that the ridicule beside them had disappeared.

Chapter 2610: Today is your death date!

It was quite quiet for a while.

Suddenly, both of them looked back in surprise.

Then they saw that a tall and handsome young man in white clothes was slowly walking towards them at this time.

This young man has sharp eyebrows and a strong heroic spirit. Who is not Chen Feng?

After the two of them saw Chen Feng, a very strange feeling suddenly surged in their hearts.

They feel that Chen Feng today seems to be quite different from before!

However, Xuanyuan Xingping then shook his head and drove the thought out of his mind, with a disdainful smile on his mouth, and said, "What can this kid do to change? But it's just a trash!"

In fact, he wasn't the only one who had this kind of thought, the people behind him all felt this way.

For a time, was shocked by Chen Feng's demeanor, he actually forgot to speak.

Chen Feng walked straight towards them.

Chen Feng's eyes were calm, but the depths of those eyes were like a volcano at the bottom of a black water pool, containing cold murderous intent, which could erupt at any time.

"Oh, trash, you are here? Okay, are you not afraid of being ashamed? Aren't you afraid of being laughed at by everyone again?"

Xuanyuan Yucheng looked at Chen Feng and said with disdain.

Chen Feng looked at Xuanyuan Yucheng, and then his eyes finally fell on Xuanyuan Xingping.

Suddenly he stretched his hand towards Xuanyuan Xingping, and said in a deep voice: "Xuanyuan Xingping, five days ago, you said that today is my death date."

"But what I want to tell you now is!"

"Today is your death date!"

Chen Feng's voice is not loud, but he is very serious, as if telling a truth, full of unspeakable aura.

When the people around heard this, they all shuddered.

Because they actually felt at the same time that Chen Feng would be able to do this when he said this.

Speak out and follow the law, no false words!novELusb.cOmm

No one can change, no one can go against it!

Even after Xuanyuan Xingping listened to it, he couldn't help but feel a sense of death in his heart, and a look of fear appeared on his face.

He felt that he really seemed to be dying in Chen Feng's hands today!

But the next moment, he was furious!

"How can I have such thoughts? How could I die in his hands?"

"What kind of thing is he? He is a trash! He doesn't even have the qualifications to compare with me. How could I die in his hands?"

"This dog, he doesn't even have the qualifications to be my opponent!"

"He is not worthy!"

He stared at Chen Feng, nodded slowly, and said viciously: "Okay, okay, Chen Feng, you are fine!"

The hideous color on his face suddenly broke out, and he shouted sharply: "You wait for me, I will prevent you mother and son from seeing the sun tomorrow!"

Chen Feng looked at him and smiled contemptuously, without saying a word!

At this time, the people around all turned around, and they all felt that they were just like an illusion.

Hearing Xuanyuan Xingping's words, they hurriedly agreed, sneered and insulted Chen Feng loudly, very contemptuously.

At this time, Pan Yuanbai jumped up next to him, pointed at Chen Feng, and said disdainfully: "What are you? Are you worthy of comparison with my young master?"

Chen Feng glanced at him coldly, smiled and said, "There are more people dead today, so you have a share."

Then he turned around and left without looking at them.

Xuanyuan Xingping's eyes flashed cold.

Xuanyuan Yucheng wanted to say it again, but at this moment, a grand and incomparable aura suddenly descended on this square.

Suddenly, everyone was stunned by this aura, and they didn't say anything, just looked up at the sky.

Then, they saw a behemoth suddenly come over here, and the next moment, there was a bang, hitting it downward.

This is actually a huge white jade totem pole.

This beautiful jade is extremely round, crystal clear and smooth, with a height of 100 meters and a diameter of 30 meters.

This huge totem pole is covered with patterns. These patterns are extremely ancient, and it makes people feel dazzling at first glance.

The content inside is even more grandiose and desolate, making people look at it as if they are returning to that ancient and prehistoric era.

I saw the ancient ancestors who fought with the sky and fought with countless monsters.

The momentum above was extremely huge, instantly suppressing the entire square, shocking everyone.

Obviously, this is a rare treasure!

Everyone exclaimed: "The Martial Soul Totem is here!"

"The Wuhun Totem has been invited out, and the Wuhun test is about to begin!"

The next moment, that Martial Soul Totem stopped abruptly when it was about to fall on the ground, and it floated at a height of one meter above the ground, where it did not move at all, it was very magical.

Before the lecture hall, a high platform slowly rises from the ground. The height of the platform is 100 meters long and 50 meters high, and dozens of chairs are placed on it.

The next moment, brushing brushing, a stream of rays of light flowed by, flying in the sky.

Dozens of human shadows flashed in the light, lightly falling on the high platform.

After some push, they were seated separately.

Each of these people is wearing an ancient white cloak, and on this white cloak is embroidered with mysterious and profound circular patterns.

This circular pattern resembles a wheel and the sun.

This pattern is exactly the emblem of the Xuanyuan family!

The white cloak on them represents that they are the elders of the outer sect, each of them is powerful and distinguished!

Among all the foreign elders who arrived, among the many powerful men of the Xuanyuan family, the front one was a tall old man.

The old man's hair and beard were all gray, and his aura was extremely large. When Chen Feng glanced at it, he felt a tremor in his heart.

On his robe is embroidered with a huge star, which is different from others.

Obviously, the strength of this person is unpredictable.

Chen Feng secretly said in his heart: "I am afraid that this person's strength has reached the peak of the Nine-Star Martial Emperor, and it is only one step away from the inexplicable and powerful Martial Emperor!"

Chen Feng knew who this person was. The old man was named Xuanyuan Ruofeng. He was the chief elder of the outer sect and was equivalent to the controller of the entire outer sect.

And he is also the only elder of the outer sect to pick stars!

The elders at the star-catching level are stronger than ordinary elders.

Xuanyuan Ruofeng's face was extremely scary. One half is a skeleton, and the other half is browned, shrunk into a skin, wrinkled on the face.

If you see it in the middle of the night, I'm afraid it will scare people to death.

Moreover, Xuanyuan Ruofeng's legs had also been broken, only the part above the knee.

However, this does not hinder his actions.
