

Perfect WD 1021

Chapter 1021 - Sect Masters Chaotic Battle

The Willow Deity entered the Immortal Palace. The group of people behind it took action!

Hong!

Inside the Immortal Palace, that seated figure formed an imprint, a Nine-Headed Undying Bird flew out, rushing out from the magical imprint and smashing towards Willow Deity.

One of Willow Deity's feet stepped into the Immortal Palace. When it raised its hand, light flickered, a gentle and sparkling hand hacking forward.

Pu!

The nine-headed bird was immediately cut down, nine heads falling.

The nine-headed bird was originally made of bone texts, the embodiment of a great divine ability. At this time, it was struck out from the sky by an attack from Willow Deity, quickly crumbling apart.

Everyone's expressions changed, all feeling like it was too powerful, that this was a bit ridiculous.

Honglong!

Both of Willow Deity's legs stepped onto the palace, slaughtering his way in after all, powerful to a ridiculous degree.

The copper palace trembled, the copper walls shone. Countless symbols appeared, as if beautiful immortal flowers were blossoming one after another, scattering down endless brilliance.

All of the light were formed from natural laws. Right now, they rushed at Willow Deity, surrounding him, trying to dissolve his existence.

The Willow Deity released a light scoff, its body surging with auspicious light. Then, hundreds and thousand of golden chains surged, all of them striking down on the bronze walls, making the entire ancient palace shake greatly.

It stopped this attack, and then walked forward. It raised its hand, wishing to kill that ancient seated figure.

It was just that easy, not stopping at all, no hesitation, its actions powerful as it attacked that enemy.

Chi!

It was just a single palm, yet it already struck through that seated figure, immediately making him fall.

"What? Immortal Palace's supreme being suffered a palm and collapsed!"

"How could this be? That is the supreme being of an entire era, absolutely invincible, rarely encountering opponents in the higher realms. How could he have been blasted through by someone's palm?"

That figure collapsed, as if a corpse fell flat in the copper palace.

The others all stopped moving, their faces full of shock, great waves stirring within their minds. Immortal Palace's supreme being was killed just like that? It was as if they were dreaming!

En?

Suddenly, Willow Deity revealed a startled expression, quickly halting its steps.

At this time, the Bronze Immortal Palace suddenly rocked back and forth, terrifying energy pervading the air. A crystal coffin flew out, smashing towards Willow Deity.

Hong!

Brilliant radiance erupted between the two of them, both the coffin and Willow Deity's bodies shaking. This flying coffin was clearly an incomparable attack.

If not for the copper palace being so sturdy, known as a higher realm supreme treasure, this place would have definitely be destroyed beyond recognition. Despite this being the case, the energy that was released from the copper palace still shattered the sky dome.

Willow Deity's figure stabilized, while the crystal coffin released a kacha sound, exploding open. A shocking energy storm erupted.

The crystal coffin exploded, a white-haired elder rushing out from within, his skin wrinkled. He looked extremely old. For the sake of maintaining his vitality, he sealed himself in the crystal coffin.

His eyes were like golden lanterns, bright and full of expression. They were sharp, his gaze like electricity. His entire body's aura was too powerful, enough to devour mountains and rivers. When one was even looked at by him, they would feel as if their flesh was going to explode.

Even the sect masters present felt their hearts pound, feeling waves of chilliness. This was an ultra powerful great figure.

He was Immortal Palace's supreme being, the shadow that was previously seated was a fake. This was his real body. He immediately took a step out of the copper palace, and then with a turn of his hand, sealed the door, trapping the Willow Deity here.

He activated this magical artifact with full strength, making it shine, surge with flames. It was as if a fiery furnace was formed, burning the nine heavens.

The Willow Deity was inside the copper palace, naturally suffering the most terrifying part of the attack.

Dang!

Willow Deity took action, a palm slapping out, striking towards the palace door, about to slaughter his way out.

"Everyone, what are you staring blankly for? Help senior refine this willow fiend, kill it here! Do not waste time!" Someone shouted, reminding everyone that this was a rare opportunity.

In that instant, symbols surged, the light rolling between heaven and earth. Smoke clouds rushed everywhere, heavenly stars appearing; the irregular scenes were shocking.

All sect masters were taking action, wishing to seal Willow Deity to death, imprison it in the copper palace.

Unfortunately, they were left disappointed. Willow Deity dared go inside, so there was no way it was putting itself in a place of death. Thousands of branches shone, immediately rushing out. With a honglong sounded, they struck down on the copper palace.

Dang!

A great noise erupted, the entire copper palace leaning to its side, and then flying outwards, smashing into the crowd.

“Hurry and dodge!” Someone cried out loudly.

This was but one of the ten great weapons, a sect’s supreme treasure! Now that it was smashing down like this, bone texts shining, it could definitely kill sect masters.

There were still some who moved a step late, smashed rotten. Before this powerful supreme treasure that was concentrated with symbols, even sect masters would die if they were hit.

Immortal Palace Supreme Being’s expression changed. The one trapped inside was too tyrannical, impossible to refine in a short time. Moreover, it was moving around with this precious artifact.

Should this continue for a long time, who would this precious artifact belong to? This was hard to say!

It was because Willow Deity was extremely powerful. By forcefully moving the precious artifact, it might truly end up refining it.

Dong!

Immortal Palace Supreme Being did everything he could to display secret methods, forcefully summoning the copper palace, moreover opening up the seal, shaking Willow Deity out.

He was extremely worried that the other party would hide inside and refine his precious artifact, becoming its new owner.

“Willow tree, do you truly believe yourself to be unmatched under the heavens?” Immortal Palace Supreme Being shouted.

“Just come!” Willow Deity only had these two words, not saying anything else.

Wide sleeves fluttered about. It already rushed over, fighting a great battle against the age old supreme being.

In that instant, the heavenly domain was torn apart, crazy winds blowing about. Blood rain poured down, lightning interweaved. Heaven and earth became pitch black, as if judgment day had arrived.

They had just traded blows, yet the world already displayed abnormal changes, incomparably shocking, exceptionally vicious.

This was an intense battle between supreme beings!

Immortal Palace's ancestral master didn't disappoint everyone, more and more precious techniques appearing, forcefully facing Willow Deity, not being defeated and nursing a grievance like the others, fighting intensely.

"It's stopped! We should go up as well!" Someone shouted.

"Let's kill the undying existence and eliminate them as to avoid the undying existence interfering here!" There was someone who proposed this.

In reality, there were some that rushed towards Shi Hao, making this place's situation dangerous.

"All of you who don't want any face, accept death!" The undying existence shouted. He brought Shi Hao from Qi Daolin's side, protecting him and fending off those people.

The undying existence had been fighting this entire time against a few experts, already killing several giants.

Apart from him, there was also the Green Sky Peng, Great Golden Winged Peng, Peacock Divine Lord, as well as Immortal Ancient's nine great sect masters. They were not a small number at all!

"If you want to kill Huang, you have to first pass by us!" The nine great sect masters took action. When they saw the Willow Deity, they felt more and more that they made the right choice.

Hong!

The undying existence attacked, directly shattering a sect master's arm. He then charged murderously.

At his side, the Great Golden Winged Peng and Green Sky Peng didn't fall behind, following their ancestral uncle in facing the enemies.

The nine great sect masters even more so worked together to fight the enemies, stopping those who rushed over.

Peacock Divine Lord, for the sake of paying a debt of gratitude, fought for Willow Deity. He also took action from the side, five-colored divine light overflowing, his might oppressing this place.

A great chaotic battle erupted!

Dang!

Suddenly, a great bell sound rang through the air. That enormous bell with the 'Without' character that had appeared a long time ago, but never took action released dao sound.

Following an oppressing loud sound, the great bell descended, smashing towards Willow Deity.

At the same time, Immortal Palace Supreme Being also attacked, striking out with the Bronze Palace that was now shrunk down to the size of a fist.

Two great supreme treasures attacked and suppressed together!

Willow Deity's circumstances weren't looking that great, encountering true opponents. Meanwhile, the other party had these types of unmatched weapons.

“Everyone, there is no need to go to war, it will be good if both sides take a step back. The desolate border is going to become chaotic, there is no need to engage in internal strife like this.”

A snow-white old tortoise appeared in the distant sky, speaking like this and urging everyone.

This tortoise had lived for an incomparably long amount of time, one of the higher realms’ oldest creatures. Its seniority was terrifyingly high, immediately drawing many sect masters’ attention.

However, they didn’t stop.

“Tortoise brother, this matter cannot be reconciled. It is best if you just watch from the side!” Immortal Palace Supreme Being spoke like this.

The great battle was vicious. A dao bell and copper palace began to resonate, rushing forward murderously together.

“There is no room for peace, only a battle, fight for what’s upright and honorable!” Willow Deity shouted.

Since the other side wasn’t willing to stop, it naturally was without fear as well, fighting both of these enemies by himself, attacking until the sun and moon lost color, the heaven and earth ravaged.

Hong!

A myriad of willow branches shot out, all of them turning a silvery-white color, carrying electrical radiance as if lightning was descending. Leaves fluttered about, as if Heavenly Phoenixes were dancing about one after another.

Ancient sacrificial voices could vaguely be heard, as if they heard the prayers and cries of the earliest people.

In the distance, the nine great sect masters were shocked, muttering, “It truly is ancient ancestor guardian spirit!”

Ever since they saw the Willow Deity, they were already shaken up. How, when they heard this sacrificial voice, they found it even harder to calm down, willing to fight with their lives on the line for Willow Deity.

Chi!

A willow branch brushed past Immortal Palace Supreme Being’s ears, carrying a string of blood, almost severing him at the neck!

Dang!

The great bell rang in a long and drawn-out manner. The massive dao bell flew over, helping Immortal Palace Supreme Being neutralize the dangers.

Willow Deity continuously released heavy blows, attacking endlessly, striking down on that great bell, making that bell seem to cave in.

Chi!

Precious light rushed into the heavens. A 'Without' character appeared on the great bell, releasing strange natural laws, as if it could make all things return to nothingness, dissolving all tangible matter.

Willow Deity was surrounded by the 'Without' character's profound mysteries. It was also shaken, but it quickly became clear-headed again. All types of diagrams and symbols appeared from its entire body, the reappearance of the sacrificial imprints.

Dang!

Willow Deity blasted that great bell upwards, the 'Without' character unable to injure him.

Next to the great bell, a figure appeared, supporting this bell in rushing over murderously again.

This time, on the other side of the great bell, in an extremely indistinct region, another character appeared, releasing blazing radiance.

Everyone knew that there was a character there, but it was difficult for outsiders to see it clearly, unable to understand it.

Now, the second character appeared on its own.

It was an archaic character: End!

It was clear that this was also still just a true meaning one speculated from seeing that engraving.

The two characters, when lined up together, formed 'Without end'!

"Endless Bell?" Many people cried out in alarm. They had previously heard of this name from excavating ancient remains. This wasn't something from this great era.

"Had my suspicions before, but I never expected it to be true. It really is the Endless Bell!"

That 'End' character flew out, releasing brilliant multicolored light, ending everything, making Willow Deity stagger and almost fall.

One had to understand that this bell was damaged, not a flawless precious artifact, yet it still had this type of power.

"Without end? There are many secrets left behind, there are rumors that 'Without end' cannot represent all of his dao, and only after comprehending the 'Beginning' profound mysteries would it be enough!"n/O/.V//E)(l-(b(/l).n

Chapter 1022 - Without End

Willow Deity's body staggered, unexpectedly forced back!

The bell sound rang endlessly, long and drawn-out.

That great bell's 'End' character shone brilliantly, symbols shining, sweeping outwards like water ripples, shaking up one's soul.

These waves then gathered towards one area, all of them moving towards the place Willow Deity was at, not injuring anyone else, targeting it.

“The Endless Bell is extraordinary after all, worthy of being a supreme treasure, actually possessing this type of power, suppressing this mysterious willow tree!” Someone cried out loudly in joy.

One had to understand that from start to now, the Willow Deity had acted domineeringly this entire time, pushing back all sides, continuously killing sect master level figures, making everyone shiver with fear, powerless to contend.

But now, there was unexpectedly someone stopping it, moreover seemingly even able to injure it, giving them hope. They were hoping that they could change the situation from this and kill it.

“Endless Bell, ringing through ten thousand ancients, rumored to be like the Three World Coffin, all of them ancient artifacts from the last great era. In that era, their might shocked the world, its reputation well deserved!”

A few people’s minds were shaken up. Just now, they were truly frightened badly by Willow Deity, their losses severe.

“Endless Bell has great origins, it is naturally powerful without end!” Western Sect’s sect master said.

He had a Zhang Six Golden Body, entire body as if cast from gold, glistening yellow and releasing a divine and extraordinary aura. He knew about many hidden secrets.

It was because the reason his sect was what it was today was because there was a place of historical remains that had previously been excavated, the cave of a supreme being from the last great era. This was what they used to establish their sect.

Their sect’s inheritance was of the last great era’s ancient monk bloodline, a supreme being inheritance whose name shook up the boundless heavenly domain.

It was precisely because of this that Western Sect’s sect master was able to learn some secrets from the cave remains, seeing some recordings of this great bell.

The name of its previous owner was Endless!

An exceptional supreme being, someone who had witnessed long life, previously unmatched in an era, magical power overflowing, divine might incomparable. As long as he took action, he could suppress enemies of all sides.

Unfortunately, as endless time passed, no one knew what exactly happened during Immortal Ancient’s final years, damaging even the magical artifacts of unmatched figures. As for those back then, they knew even less about where they went.

Willow Deity stopped its humanoid body, no longer backing up. A divine disk appeared behind it, within the halo a golden willow tree, making Willow Deity’s human body look extraordinary and divine.

That divine disk trembled, shooting out hundreds of symbols from within. A thousand branches pierced into the bell waves like golden spears.

Metal ringing sounds were released, dang dang sounding. That was the result of the willow branches striking the great bell, the sounds intense and deafening.

“End everything!” That figure next to the great bell shouted. He was the bell’s present world wielder.

His status was unordinary, magical force exceptional.

After this shout, the great bell’s radiance became even more resplendent. That ‘End’ character shone brilliantly, erupting with chaotic light. There were even more complex natural laws, symbols and other things.

Peng!

A few of Willow Deity’s branches were blasted back, unexpectedly becoming a bit dim. Moreover, the ‘End’ character shone blindingly, releasing terrifying power, truly about to end everything.

“Not good!” Even a few sect masters were caught in the blast wave, quickly withdrawing. Their magical artifacts and others all cracked, about to be erased from existence.

Make all life reach its end, everything reach a conclusion.

This type of profound mystery was definitely horrifying, difficult to stop.

Peng!

Hundreds to thousands of willow branches shone, and then tens of thousands of golden willow leaves descended, dancing in the void, all of them striking towards the bell and that person.

Dang...

The bell sounds became increasingly intense. In the end, the great bell flew outwards, while blood trickled out from the corner of the mouth of this bell’s present world wielder. He took steps backwards again and again, protecting the great bell. His face was pale.

Immortal Palace rumbled, chaotic energy surging from within. Formation pattern light rushed out from within, rushing towards Willow Deity.

Endless Bell’s present world wielder even more so released a great shout, rushing forward murderously again. Meanwhile, this time, both of the characters on the bell body shone, moreover interweaving together. n-)Oveℓb1n ‘Without end’, these two characters were brilliant, engraving in the void.

The two words no longer appeared as singular units, but instead completely merging together, forming an even more complex profound meaning.

“En? What is going on?” Someone cried out in shock.

Quite a few sect masters were taking action, wishing to help those two, yet in the end, they discovered that even this void became unstable. They hastily got caught up inside, seemingly entering a dangerous place.

The ‘Without end’ two characters displayed might. Time became chaotic, as if they had fought into ice-cold eternity, exiled forever. They felt a sense of endless time, years wasting away.

Time profound meaning!

They were immersed in an endless banishment!

Those who came close quickly backed up, not daring to approach.

This bell was too strange. Just now, there was another type of natural law, but now, it immediately touched upon the domain of time.

No one wanted to test the power of time. A single mistake and they would be throwing their lives away.

Willow Deity also sank into a predicament, banished by time, hacked by endless years. This was not good. If it was anyone else that suffered this attack, they would have long lost their lives.

“Kill!”

Immortal Palace’s old sect master’s white hair danced about, eyes becoming vicious, aura surging. It was as if a vicious dragon went on a rampage, as if an immortal beast was roaring, releasing extremely dangerous energy.

He continuously displayed precious techniques. Each time the magical imprint changed, it would always be a type of exceptional divine ability, all of them the greatest profound mysteries.

Peng!

Willow Deity was struck until it retreated, trapped in the domain of time, surrounded by ‘Without end’ profound mysteries, and then now encountering this type. It was one disaster on top of another.

On the other side, the undying existence and others also took action. They couldn’t provide Willow Deity with help even if they wanted to, a group of sect masters surrounding them, difficult for them to break out. He unleashed a great slaughter here, raising a rain of blood and reeking winds.

Perhaps they could eliminate Willow Deity. Quite a few people saw hope, all of them taking action from the distance, adding magical force to that great bell, assisting its user.

Pu!

A few of the golden branches Willow Deity activated exploded into dust, golden leaves withering as well. This result wasn’t too good.

“Kill!”

A dong sound rang out. The Bronze Immortal Palace and that Endless Bell moved together, the two great supreme beings joining forces to suppress Willow Deity.

Together with the other sect masters’ help in dealing with Willow Deity, this place became more and more dangerous, the situation extremely terrible.

Willow Deity fell back, a few of the golden branches breaking, leaves damaged, dancing about in the wind.

The golden liquid on the leaves shone like blood, drifting about, displaying a somewhat tragic beauty.

Everyone saw that Willow Deity had likely encountered some type of problem, possibly being suppressed and killed here.

“Everyone, let’s just sit down and have a chat, there is no need for this internal strife!” In the distance, the old white tortoise spoke, trying to advise against this one more time.

“Guardian spirit great one!” On the other side, the nine great sect masters that were currently fighting felt anxious, doing everything they can, rushing to this side out of fear of something unexpected happening to Willow Deity.

“What is the use in saying these things now? Use this chance to suppress and kill it!” A sect master shouted.

“Correct, they cannot be let go! Regardless of whether it is this willow tree or the undying existence, or that young generation -- Huang, all of them will be killed to prevent them from becoming a future disaster!”

They intensified their attacks, hoping to wipe out the enemy in one move.

However, the main force of this place, Immortal Place’s old sect master and the master of the great bell’s faces became incredibly grave, not as easily as what everyone thought.

It was because the two of them were doing everything they could, their own exceptional divine abilities continuously displayed, the two immortal dao magical artifacts also shining, surging with heaven overflowing divine force, yet they still couldn’t suppress this willow tree.

If things continued like this, if that willow tree broke free, it would become extremely disadvantageous for them!

Hong!

In reality, willow deity broke free even faster than their expectations. With a vicious shake, withered leaves flew about chaotically, some of the golden branches snapping. However, it broke free from the natural law domain.

Hong!

Immortal Palace’s old sect master staggered backwards, blood trickling out from the corner of his mouth, the dao robe covering his body exploding, clothes becoming ragged. He was in quite the sorry state.

Meanwhile, on the side, the great bell’s owner was also like this, his mouth and nose dripping with blood, corroded by magical force, struck flying by Willow Deity, becoming injured here.

“Not good, hurry and retreat!” A few people cried out loudly.

“You all don’t wish to lower your spears?” Willow Deity asked, its voice still just as calm as before. It stepped forward, sweeping its eyes over everyone.

Everyone became shocked, forced into retreating.

“Since it is the case, then it will be blood that will stop the conflict!” Willow Deity said.

Honglong!

Immediately afterwards, its imposing manner completely changed, its entire being shining, the light spheres formed from three thousand worlds entering its body, becoming imprints. It was as if an ancient armor was worn, the colors brilliant, aura matchless.

Willow Deity slaughtered forward, entering the masses like a tiger among wolves. There were no golden willow branches that flew out, nor were there any other symbols, only the pair of sparkling white palms.

Peng!

These palms were too powerful, unstoppable. It had just started attacking, yet blood was already seen, a sect master blasted flying.

Kacha!

Someone activated a magical artifact to protect the body, stop this attack.

In the end, Willow Deity's palm struck out, that ancient cauldron exploding with a honglong sound, breaking into hundreds of fragments. A powerful magical artifact was thus destroyed.

Then, Willow Deity turned its hand, slapping forward. No matter how the other party's magical force flourished, how great his speed was, it was still difficult for him to free himself from this domain.

Pu!

This person was blasted into a meat patty, his primordial spirit then dissipating, dying here.

Dang!

The great bell rushed over again, but in the end, Willow Deity's palm flew out, making the heavenly domain rupture. His palm and fingers left behind a deep imprint in the great bell.

The great bell's owner flew backwards, but was still swept by the palm and fingers. With a pu sound, his shoulder deformed, entire being continuously swaying, the bones in his body releasing pi pa sounds. Large mouthfuls of blood were coughed out from his mouth.

"Not good, this is an unmatched dao. He entered a type of unusual state, only enemies in his eyes, forgetting all else, difficult to resist. The dao of his previous incarnation is awakening." A few people cried out in terror.

"Dao friend, how about we just end things here today?" Immortal Palace's sect master opened his mouth. He was an ancient supreme being, someone who had lived for endless years, experienced too much.

When he saw Willow Deity's current state, he immediately shivered inwardly. It seemed like it would be difficult to win today. Unless they invited a long life individual, the willow tree who had immersed himself into the unmatched dao couldn't be kept in check at all.

"Do you think it'll end just because you say it will? I still haven't killed enough!" The calm Willow Deity unexpectedly replied like this, making others horrified. Everyone's fine hairs stood on end.

Chi!

Willow Deity's white clothes fluttered about, walking forward. It looked like an exiled immortal, untainted by a speck of dust, aloof and otherworldly. Its palm and fingers shone, releasing five-colored divine radiance.

Immortal Palace's old sect master shouted, continuously producing magical imprints to contend against it.

Pu!

However, Immortal Palace's ancient ancestor's mouth coughed out blood. His arm contorted, suffering a great loss in this intense trading of attacks.

"You've become old." Willow Deity said. With a hong sound, it looked down from above, a palm slapping down, blasting Immortal Palace's ancient ancestor until his mouth tasted fishy, blood continuously coughed out.

Peng!

Then, Immortal Palace's old sect master's battle clothes were destroyed, hair dishevelled. He was blasted until he flew outwards.

This battle had already ended. Everyone knew both of these powerful individuals who grasped the Bronze Immortal Palace and great bell were no match, meaning that the others were likely not much better off.

Perhaps, large amounts of heads were going to tumble!

Chapter 1023 - Cease Attacks

"Stay your hand!" Immortal Palace's sect master shouted. He held the copper palace, holding in front of him, defending against the Willow Deity's next attack.

"As if I'll stop just because you said stop!" Willow Deity's reply was cold. Just like before, his palm and fingers shone, producing a True Phoenix imprint. His fingers rose, as if a phoenix was spreading its wings.

Chi!

Multicolored light surged, light overflowing outwards, scarlet mists pervading the air. There was a fiery red True Phoenix that rose into the sky, noble and elegant as it overlooked everything ahead.

Dang!

The phoenix beak hacked over like a sparkling divine blade, striking down on that Bronze Palace, making it tremble violently. A rumbling sound rang out, as if it was the sound of the sky opening. It was extremely massive.

Not only was the Willow Deity's own dao law unmatched, it also had the True Phoenix precious technique. It merely felt that it was not worth displaying before, its palms alone enough to push through all enemies.

It was clear that after Immortal Palace's old sect master and Endless Bell's present world owner made it lose a few of its golden branches, it now became serious.

The phoenix cry sounded like a clear spring falling on precious stones, like sweet-sounding zither music. This fiery-red True Phoenix, aside from the bird beak being incomparably sharp, there was the pair of shining wings as well. Divine feathers shone one after another, all of them resplendent, killing power even more shocking.

Dang!

The Bronze Immortal Palace was struck flying, causing symbols to fill the skies. However, they were still suppressed by the Willow Deity.

Immortal Palace's old sect master didn't want to give up on this magical artifact out of fear of it being stolen. In the end, he himself was blasted flying as well, the space between his thumb and index finger splitting open, his body shaking, quite a few cracks appearing.

The main reason was because the Willow Deity's strike was too domineering, its power accompanied by the might of the True Phoenix, tearing through everything before it. It was exceptionally terrifying.

Immortal Palace Supreme Being's body swayed about, unable to stand still, about to collapse at any time.

"Something's not right, Immortal Palace senior's body can't go on any longer. He is too old, far inferior to his strength in the past!" Someone said, their face turning pale.

It was because if Immortal Palace's old sect master lost, their situation would also become extremely terrible.

In the past, Immortal Palace's old sect master was exceptionally powerful back then when his blood energy hadn't declined, surpassing this world, pushing through enemies of all sides. Even the world-shaking, unmatched adversary had been ambushed and killed along with a group of old friends.

One had to keep in mind that Supreme Hall's individual back then was a true unmatched individual. There weren't many in the world that could compete against him.

Regardless of who it was, being able to fight a great battle against him was a type of great honor. Meanwhile, Immortal Palace's old sect masters managed to kill him together with a few others, enough to prove their might.

"Perhaps he had suffered a hidden injury from attacking Supreme Hall's person back then, and that is why he is lacking in strength right now, not as valiant as he was in the past!" A few people made this type of speculation.

Pu!

Immortal Palace's old sect master found it harder and harder to hold on, the blood energy released from his body becoming increasingly thin and weak. When he was struck by Willow Deity's follow up attack, both the copper palace and himself were blasted flying, his entire body covered in cracks, coughing out large mouthfuls of blood.

The great bell flew over, providing assistance.

It was because Endless Bell's present world master and Immortal Palace Supreme Being were two grasshoppers on the same thread, interdependent. He feared that after Immortal Palace Supreme Being fell, he himself would be in huge trouble, and that was why he promptly took action, providing assistance.

Willow Deity displayed a great divine ability. Endless willow leaves fluttered about, and then Kun Pengs rose up one after another, all of them produced by the willow leaves, rushing towards that great bell.

Soon afterwards, the great bell sounds stopped. It was because a group of golden Kun Pengs produced from willow branches wrapped themselves around it, drowning it out, turning that place into a golden sea, completely sealing it up.

Pu!

There were a few golden and refined little Kun Pengs that flew up, diving down and smashing into the great bell owner's body, causing him to stagger about. Then, his right shoulder and arm exploded.

Things already reached this point, everything clear. They couldn't stop the Willow Deity's rampage, everything here about to end.

"Dao friend, please cease your hand!" The white-colored old tortoise spoke up again. It also advised like this even when the Willow Deity was at a disadvantage, and now when the situation had changed, he also advised like this.

Chi!

The Willow Deity pointed outwards, expanse after expanse of willow leaf shaped golden imprints shot out, sharper than blades as they hacked towards those two experts' bodies.

Pu!

Scarlet light surged, blood flying outwards. Both individuals released muffled grunts, extremely serious injuries appearing on their bodies. There were some areas where deep white bones could be seen.

These were heavy losses!

Everyone sighed with emotion. Time could seize everything. If those two were both still young, they definitely wouldn't be like this. Back then, they were also extremely powerful, overlooking the higher realms' three thousand provinces.

Now, it was extremely clear that they were all going to fall of their divine altars.

The Willow Deity treated these two coldly, emitting killing intent. However, right at this moment, a shining law decree fluttered down from the void.

It was extremely ancient, a bit tattered, but there were a few mysterious ancient words right now on its surface, every single one brilliant, illuminating the heavens.

"What type of character form is this?" Shi Hao was shocked, unable to recognize it at all.

“Immortal Ancient Great Era’s characters!” Someone cried out in alarm.

There were no lack of informed individuals here, knowing how ancient those words were. However, they couldn’t recognize many of them, unable to understand their meaning.

This was a law decree. It descended, fluttering over to Willow Deity, clearly for it to read.

Willow Deity read it carefully, and then it frowned. It looked towards the boundless outer space. This decree came precisely from that direction.

“Asking me to let them off?” It said to itself.

Everyone’s minds jumped. Who exactly was there in the heavens above, to drop this type of law decree, asking Willow Deity to be magnanimous?

Everyone shivered inwardly. They never saw anyone.

Then, heaven and earth trembled, an ancient battle-ax appearing. It was damaged, carrying chaotic light. This ax rushed over from the horizon, swaying towards Willow Deity, nodding its head and sending greetings like a person.

In addition, in the ancient battle-ax’s surroundings, there were a few words that appeared, engraved in the void. They were similarly ancient words from the last great era, seemingly conversing with Willow Deity.

This left everyone shocked, feeling a wave of fear.

Two mysterious creatures, definitely unmatched experts. They unexpectedly both declared their position, coming to negotiate with Willow Deity. Who were there? What kind of identity did they have?

“Let’s end things here. If these people don’t head to the Desolate Border and show some results, we’ll continue then!” Willow Deity said. It then rose up, not unleashing a great massacre.

Immortal Palace’s old sect master’s face was extremely unpleasant. This was true for the great bell’s master as well. They were previously unmatched, overlooking the world under the heavens, auras devouring mountains and rivers, yet today, they needed to plea for leniency and assistance from someone else.

On the other side, undying existence and Qi Daolin’s direction, those who who had surrounded them couldn’t advance or retreat. When they saw the situation in Willow Deity’s side, all of their hearts went completely cold.

This was especially true for those experts who had always wished to kill Shi Hao. At this moment, their expressions were incomparably ugly.

Hong!

The undying existence displayed might again, attacking enemies again. There were sect master level figures who died under his hands again. It was unknown just how many he killed already.

“You!” The others were furious, but what could they do? The other battlefield came to an end, and Willow Deity was now walking in this direction, so they were definitely even less of a match.

“Where did you all get the confidence from to casually label them as sinner’s blood descendents?” Willow Deity came, its expression cold as it stared at a few people, looking down on them.

On this side’s battlefield, the feeling of uneasiness spread. Those that were fighting intensely against the undying existence, Qi Daolin, Peacock Divine Lord, and nine great sect masters immediately shivered with fear.

They really were in an impossible situation. They wanted to withdraw, but they were trapped by the opponents.

Pu!

Willow Deity took action here, impaling an individual to death with a golden willow branch.

“We are willing to cease our attacks, end the dispute!” Someone cried out loudly.

Things already reached this point. If they continued fighting, it was just courting death, meaningless. Even Immortal Palace’s old sect master was defeated, so who else was Willow Deity’s opponent?

Unless they invited those people from legends, but they had long disappeared for who knew how many tens of thousands of years.

Chi!

Willow Deity took action again, his targets still the experts of the inheritances who had previously called Shi Hao a sinner’s blood descendant. With just a few moves, another person died here, only leaving behind a blast of bloody mist.

“Why are you still taking action? Didn’t you say you were going to stop attacking?” Someone cried out loudly, feeling great fear, continuously backing up.

However, the undying existence, Green Sky Peng, Qi Daolin and others were still fighting!

“Will things stop just because you say they will? Right now, I am demonstrating that ‘sinner’s blood descendant’ isn’t something you all can label.” Willow Deity said calmly.

Pu!

It took action again, a divine rainbow shooting out from its palm, blasting another sect master dead.

Right at that moment, Willow Deity arrived in this place, continuously killing three people, truly raising panic.

Only now did it stop attacking.

On the side, the nine great sect masters who came from Immortal Ancient Remains were all stirred up. This was the guardian spirit they had previously worshiped! It really was heaven-defying to the point of making them moved.

Meanwhile, the undying existence was a bit discontent, secretly transmitting sound, saying, “Why are you stopping?” He really wished to kill a few more, come to a conclusion.

“Do you really think I came with my true body? No one has been able to return after entering the Primordial Gate. If nothing unexpected happens, my true body will never appear in this world again.” Willow Deity secretly replied.

“What? This isn’t your true body? Then you are?” Even the undying existence never expected that the Willow Deity he saw wasn’t the true person.

“I previously left behind a bit of battle imprint. When Immortal Ancient Remains opened, the golden willow tree branch the natives worshiped is me. The amount of time I can remain here is limited.” Willow Deity replied in secret.

Shi Hao heard this, because Willow Deity was also speaking to him, not hiding anything, telling him the truth.

“Willow Deity!” Shi Hao was shocked, at the same time feeling grieved inside. This wasn’t the true Willow Deity, just a powerful battle imprint, an embodiment. Once it revived and fought, it would soon disappear. The true Willow Deity had already entered the Primordial Gate, never to return. He would never be seen again in the mortal world, could no longer be searched for in the present world or the future world, forever departing.

“Willow Deity, I will definitely go to the world in your eyes, I will go look for you!” Shi Hao vowed inwardly.

Right at this moment, the white tortoise walked up. Sky Severing Sect, Snow Phoenix Race’s old sect master, and even Heaven Mending Sect’s sect masters walked up.

In fact, there were quite a few individuals who walked over together.

There were some who didn’t take action, but they had also clashed with the Willow Deity before in the lower realm.

However, right now, the intention of these people’s arrival was clear, coming to mediate things, asking for a ceasefire. n./o-/V./e./ℓ./b-)1(-n

In reality, there were some who wanted to take action for Shi Hao, willing to protect him. However, when Willow Deity came, they lost the chance to speak up.

Only now did these people declare their positions.

“This battle will end here!” Willow Deity said.

All sides reached an agreement.

“However, there is one point that I have to make clear. Shi Hao is my disciple. From today on, if anyone dares to bully, those from above, suppress my disciple, then that is the same as declaring war against me!” Willow Deity spoke again.

When these words sounded, all sides were greatly shaken.

There were some who understood the inside details, knowing that the Willow Deity and Shi Hao had a close relationship in the lower realm.

However, there were many people who heard this for the first time, all of them greatly moved. They originally thought that it took action for the undying existence, who would have thought that it was purely for that youth.

“Three thousand provinces, in this world, regardless of which inheritance it is, if they dare bully those below them, I will inevitably pay them a visit and wipe out their inheritances!” Willow Deity added in the end.

Everyone became shocked. This was a tyrannical and domineering declaration. One could imagine what kind of position this youth had in the willow tree’s heart.

This was the same as declaring to the world, warning all sects that anyone who dared rashly take action, scheme against Shi Hao, Willow Deity would wipe out their inheritance. It was tyrannical and domineering!

Chapter 1024 - Aftermath

Willow Deity spoke up in such a domineering manner, informing the world, how many people dared to lightly provoke it?

That was why everyone present shivered inwardly, their minds greatly shaken. That youth was actually worth it going to war over. If anyone else dared take action against him, they would have to first think about how they were going to deal with Willow Deity’s anger!

This battle came to an end, the disturbance coming to an end.

There were many cultivators in this part of the uninhabited region, including sect masters from all sides. There were also geniuses who returned from Immortal Ancient Remains, too many people here.

These people were definitely going to spread the news, and it would inevitably produce great waves.

Many people were unwilling to accept this, especially Sword Valley, Phantom Drake Dao Gate, and the others. Even their sect masters all died. They really wanted to burn down that willow tree and kill Shi Hao, take revenge and wipe out the grudge.

However, they could only hold it in, because if they revealed any killing intent, they would definitely be ruthlessly slaughtered. That Willow Deity was too extraordinary, enough to overlook the higher realms!

There were some who were in grief and anger, some disappointed, and naturally those that were happy as well, revealing smiles.

Chang Gongyan and Cao Yusheng immediately rushed over, offering Shi Hao congratulations. With this type of master, who dared to rashly bully and humiliate him? Its origins were too great.

From today forth, if nothing unexpected happened, Huang who had been encircled and attacked by experts from all sides could now travel freely, no longer having to worry too much.

“Aiyaya, it truly is unexpected, a tremendous change in situation!” The little rabbit also jumped over in a lively manner, saying, “I thought you would be chased until you had to flee in a sorry state, no road into heaven and no gate into the earth, I even ended up inviting my ancestral grandpa here to lend you a helping hand at the crucial moment, but I never expected you to be so awesome!”

“What are you even saying!” Shi Hao glared at her.

He didn’t act that carefree, no did he appear complacent, because this Willow tree wasn’t the true body, just a battle imprint. If others knew about this, it would immediately bring him great trouble.

In the distance, Xue Lin nodded towards him. A silver-haired elder stood by her side, eyes narrowed towards this side, revealing a smile.

Right now, there were many people watching Shi Hao, all of them observing him. With the Willow Deity’s protection, he could smoothly grow up. Huang who had cultivated three strands of immortal energy, as long as he was given time, his power was definitely going to shake up the higher realms!

In the rear, Dragon Girl, Luo Dao and the others appeared, surrounding him, chatting with him. Only, Qing Yi was nowhere to be seen.

In the distance, Willow Deity was also surrounded by Immortal Ancient’s nine great sect masters, Qi Daolin, and the others. Peacock Divine Lord especially rushed forward, directly calling it master.

When the others heard this, they all revealed looks of alarm, feeling that this was inconceivable. The Peacock Race was definitely not much weaker than an Emperor Clan. He was actually the willow tree’s disciple?!

It was clear that Huang now had another senior student. It made others feel more and more troublesome.

Qi Daolin laughed bitterly. When compared to the Willow Deity, a master like him really was a bit lacking. However, Shi Hao thanked him, now appearing even more respectful than before, calling him master.

This time, Qi Daolin risked everything to save Shi Hao, truly worthy of respect, someone who Shi Hao had to treat earnestly.

“Junior disciple, in the future, if there is anything on your mind, you can come find senior.” Peacock Divine Lord privately spoke to him. Shi Hao immediately nodded.

However, Willow Deity didn’t acknowledge Peacock Divine Lord as a disciple, only previously offering a helping hand before. This couldn’t be considered accepting a disciple.

Peacock Divine Lord didn’t mind, still treating it with the respect of facing a master.

When he saw Kun Gate Sect elder, Shi Hao truly felt deeply moved. This was actually the undying existence’s second body! When he was approaching him, he also respectfully expressed his thanks.

The witch came, giggling as she teased Shi Hao, saying, “This time, the wind really shifted directions, from a rat trying to cross the street to a great figure’s disciple, haha...”

“Hey, miss, watch your words.” Shi Hao shot her a look, and then he looked towards Sky Severing Sect’s sect master, saying, “Senior and I have previously met.”

He took the initiative to get closer to this sect master. All those who came with good intentions he treated seriously.

“Wu.” Sky Severing Sect’s sect master nodded. Even though he hadn’t taken action, his name shook the world under the heavens, his entire being located in primal chaos, extremely mysterious.

“Right, what kind of a mess of a relationship are you in with Heaven Mending Sect’s holy lady? Does she truly have one?” The witch stirred bad waters, putting on a mysterious appearance, blowing a sweet scent by Shi Hao’s ears that was like that of an orchid’s, slowly fluttering by his nose.

Those present were all experts, which one of their senses weren’t sharp? Their divine awareness were all extraordinary, all of them able to clearly hear her words.

The witch was doing this on purpose to incite Yue Chan and mock Heaven Mending Sect.

Many people revealed looks of shock, looking towards Heaven Mending Sect’s direction.

Yue Chan’s snow-white jade face immediately flushed with a strange expression, her eyes filled with light as she stared at the witch. Sparks could vaguely be seen between their eyes, these two natural adversaries.

“Yi, she is getting angry, could it be that she is getting jealous of me? But I don’t have any relationship with you!” The witch tried to stimulate her again, blowing wind by Shi Hao’s ears.

Shi Hao immediately tilted his head, his ears and those bright red lips touching. The witch quickly backed up, glaring at Shi Hao, convinced that this fella definitely did it on purpose.

“I feel like it is reasonable. Sect master, your distinguished self should think it over and have Huang marry into my Heaven Mending Sect.” Yue Chan’s granduncle secretly transmitted, speaking to Heaven Mending Sect’s sect master.

However, he forgot that everyone here were experts, some people able to intercept these words, moreover magnify it so that quite a few people could hear them.

Yue Chan’s face immediately became red, glaring angrily at her own granduncle. This was just too aggravating!

“Hehe...” The witch laughed, looking at Yue Chan in ridicule. Whenever the other party felt bad, she would become extremely happy.

In the distance, Immortal Heavenly Deity appeared, at his side Qin Hao, as well as Shi Ziling and his wife.

When Shi Hao saw this, he rushed in that direction.

“Child!” Qin Yining cried out, quickly rushing over, face full of tears. For them to reunite and meet again this time felt like a scene out of a dream.

“Mother!” Shi Hao walked forward.

Shi Ziling also rushed over, hugging his own son. The family was now together, their hearts full of emotions, endless regrets and sorrows.

“Child, let me have a proper look at you.” Qin Yining said while crying.

In the lower realm, they had been separated by life and death. She watched as Shi Hao was buried in the earth, and then she stood guard over his grave, powerless to do anything. She was full of shame and guilt inside.

After arriving in the higher realms, her face was bathed in tears, her heart filled with regret, self-blame, living everyday in guilt. She was full of disappointment and despair.

Now that she could see her older son again, it filled her with joy and emotions. She couldn't help but cry out with joy.

Even Shi Ziling's eyes carried tears, unable to hold them back. He forcefully slapped Shi Hao's back. His oldest son rose up, slaughtering his way into the higher realms, rising up from his generation, looking down on the higher realms' three thousand provinces, his accomplishments leaving him happy and shocked.

"Big brother!" Qin Hao spoke up from the side.

Meanwhile, Immortal Heavenly Deity was also looking at Shi Hao. This youngster had truly stirred up great waves, making him sigh deeply. A youth charged into the higher realms alone, unexpectedly turning the sky and earth upside down!

Immortal Heavenly Deity had also wanted to come over before. Qin Yining had long begged for him to take action. However, Willow Deity was there, so his face remained expressionless, his heart full of conflicting emotions.

It was because he had previously fought greatly against the Willow Deity, clashing fiercely. It truly was difficult for him to meet it now.

Only now when Shi Hao took the initiative to come over did his face reveal a hint of emotion.

"Your mother came from the Qin Clan, so our clan's gates will forever be opened to you. You may return at any time." Immortal Heavenly Deity said. This could also be considered a type of declaration of where he stood.

Behind him, Quite a few of the Qin Clansmen's expressions were unnatural. They had previously looked at Shi Hao with hostility, making acting and scheming murderously against him.

Shi Hao nodded, expressing that he was going to go back later to visit his parents.

However, he still had his own principles. He wouldn't join the Qin Clan, not borrowing their power. He reached where he was today not by borrowing outside force.

At the same time, he became alert inside. Immortal Heavenly Deity had previously implanted a piece of immortal bone in his younger brother, and in the past, he had never treated this with too much importance, but it just always gave him an uncomfortable feeling.

"Immortal Mountain having my younger brother is already enough. I believe he will rise up in the future. If there is a need, I will also look after him!" Shi Hao's words could also be considered a declaration of stance.

Even though it couldn't be said for all grudges to be dissolved, it was close. He also hinted that his mother, father, younger brother, and others all had to be unharmed, and only then would this be the case.

"Child, you aren't going to walk with us?" Qin Yining said through teary eyes.

"My teachers are waiting for me, have things to tell me. I might be led away to gain experience." Shi Hao said, looking towards Willow Deity and the others.

"My child has grown up, he should have his own heaven and earth. It is only reasonable for him to go on his own journey." Shi Ziling said. He also wished for his oldest son to be like a Great Peng, spread his wings powerfully over ninety thousand li and not stay in one area.

It was because he vaguely felt that Shi Hao being outside was far better than staying in the Qin Clan!

"There was previously a little girl who took care of me when I was young, not abandoning me. I heard that she is in the Qin Clan. I hope that she can live a peaceful and joyous life!" Shi Hao said incredibly seriously.

This wasn't a request, but it was even more important, because this was the first time he acted this serious. He brought up this matter before his mother, father, Qin Clansmen, as well as Immortal Heavenly Deity in an extremely serious manner.

"Her name is A'man, she entered the higher realms with my grandfather. I've lost touch with her. She is inside the Qin Clan!" Shi Hao added.

Speaking up to here was already enough.

"We will immediately send people out to search for her and bring her to your side!" Someone said. It wasn't easy for Immortal Heavenly Deity to express anything, after all, his status was too great, but those in the rear understood the situation, making this type of promise.

"It is enough as long as she is doing fine. I will first go to see Willow Deity. When the time comes, I will come to the Qin Clan to find her!" Shi Hao said.

"Shi Hao, have you heard? There are a few shameless individuals who came from beyond. They swept through all of the higher realms' heavenly deities, unmatched the entire time, showing contempt for the cultivators of the three thousand provinces, mocking and humiliating us. This cannot be tolerated!" Cao Yusheng walked over and said.

The little rabbit also cried out with wawa sounds, incredibly angry.

"It's not like I am someone from the higher realms, so what does it have to do with me? I came from the lower realm!" Shi Hao didn't mind it in the slightest.

"You aren't treating this like a big deal, but they will still come looking for you. I heard that the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths ancient realms are all going to join together to establish sacred academies, immortal academies, heavenly deity institutions and others. They look down on the cultivators of the three thousand realms, treating us without any respect. If you want to go, you will definitely have to fight." The witch said.

"Anyone who makes things difficult for me, then I will fight against them with my identity as a lower realm individual!" Shi Hao said, still not taking this matter to heart. n./o-/V./e./l./b-)1(-n

Right at this time, Willow Deity moved its hand, green light sweeping outwards, bringing Shi Hao into the skies!

Qi Daolin and the undying existence also went along, their group disappearing from this place.

Chapter 1025 - The World In Willow Deity's Heart

"Willow Deity, what kind of world is that?" Shi Hao wanted to know. He had always been searching for the answer. Where was Willow Deity going, and what was he going to do?

"The world I am familiar with no longer exists, my homeland long burnt black, the people I knew long dead." Willow Deity looked into the horizon and then into the boundless mountains, expression full of melancholy.

This was the first time it revealed this type of temperament, different from before, carrying loss, reminiscent memories, and sentimental emotions. It was as if it saw old friends struggle to their deaths one after another.

"Willow Deity!" Shi Hao called out. He saw those eyes through the hazy mist. They were originally clear like water, but now, they were deep like an abyss, immersed in a world of grief.

In the distance, the undying existence and Qi Daolin were waiting, not aware of what was happening here.

Willow Deity stood on the mountains, releasing a deep sigh.

"The place I am headed to, I do not know how far it is. The road is long, and perhaps it can be reached after passing the Primordial Gate. It is also possible that my true body has already been turned into a pool of dirty blood," Willow Deity said, revealing how great the difficulty was.

When Shi Hao heard this, his mind was greatly shaken. Even someone as powerful as Willow Deity was like this, so how was anyone else supposed to succeed?

However, he wanted to go there, explore together with the Willow Deity. Willow Deity was the one that raised him up, so he naturally had to head out together with it, as well as fight by its side.

"Immortal Ancient Great Era, there were immortals existing in the world, but in the end, they still failed. This great era has never seen a true long life individual, so what is there that can even be done?" Willow Deity said softly.

"Give me time, I will definitely have the qualifications to participate!" Shi Hao said. He was going to follow along.

"There were immortals in the past, yet they all died in battle. Even if you can reach that height, do you feel like you can change anything?" Willow Deity asked in return.

Shi Hao felt a wave of silence. He thought back to everything he saw in Immortal Ancient Remains. After he rose up on the arena, transported to the final place of natural luck, he had previously witnessed the 'Wall of Despair'.

That was the despair of countless past experts, all of them incredibly downcast. They felt that even if someone obtained the natural luck left behind by the last great era, they would still be powerless to turn things around, unable to change anything.

Meanwhile now, Willow Deity's mood was a bit downcast as well. It was clear that it thought that even if there were experts rising up, it would still be difficult to defy the heavens and change anything.

"I will become stronger, I will be able to remain completely fearless, sweep through all enemies in the nine heavens and ten earths!" Shi Hao said.

"Not even that is enough... being unmatched in the nine heavens and ten earths is still only becoming the most powerful in this fragmented and tattered world." Willow Deity shook its head.

"I will become even stronger, strong to the point where I alone can change any battle situation, invincible, rise above all opponents past and present!" Shi Hao said.

Will there really be that day? When Willow Deity heard this, it calmly stood there, gazing into the distant skies, and then back at Shi Hao. It released a light sigh.

This road was too difficult, perhaps losing too much along the way!

"After endless years, perhaps there will be someone like that, standing alone in the long river of time, endless time behind him, accompanied only by the divine dao." Willow Deity said.

Then, it turned around to look at Shi Hao, saying, "However, I do not wish for you to walk this type of path, because you will lose too much, too much!"

"Willow Deity, can you tell me? What kind of world are you going to?" Shi Hao asked.

"Immortal Ancient's battle, an incredibly bitter place. There were those who have went there before, but no one has reached the final destination. I am only searching as well, taking a look around and resolving desires." Willow Deity said.

Shi Hao understood. The place Willow Deity was talking about should be where those opponents were. They didn't belong to the three thousand provinces and other places.

When saying these things, Willow Deity's eyes recalled fondly of the past. There was sadness, as well as a type of great brilliance!

"I will become strong enough. I can reach that place and fight together with Willow Deity!" Shi Hao shouted loudly. n--o.)v-.e.-L.-&/-1--n

"Do you know what kind of place that is? How long it takes to get there? How profound one's cultivation needs to be to have the qualifications to participate?" Willow Deity shook its head and then said, "You don't know, don't understand."

"Regardless, I will still try my best."

Willow Deity still shook its head, saying, "If the day comes when the starry sky collapses, the world overturned, and you are the only one left, even though you are unmatched in the world, when you turn around, there will only be memories left. Beautiful women will grow hair white like snow, buried into the great earth, old friends will decline, entering eternal sleep in graveyards. When that time comes, will you still feel like it is worth it?"

Shi Hao clenched his fists. He didn't know why the extraordinary Willow Deity would lack confidence like this, why it would tell him these things.

Willow Deity should be someone unmatched, transcending above, yet right now, it was warning him not to rashly tread on a path of no return.

"My mind is resolute like steel, I will advance with large steps and advance courageously!" Shi Hao said loudly.

"Then we'll have to wait until you truly stand at a high enough level. Even if I don't say anything, you will encounter it and see those things, understand everything." Willow Deity said.

"How should I proceed to go to that world?" Shi Hao asked.

"Should just pass the Desolate Border trial first." Willow Deity said.

Shi Hao's mind was greatly shaken. Countless experts were in charge of defending the Desolate Border, all for the sake of guarding that path, preventing anyone from crossing over. However now, he had to cross over the Desolate Border and take the initiative to slaughter his way over, and only then would there be a path to take, a chance to reach that world.

This was too difficult!

Was there anyone in the higher realms who could do this? At the very least, there was no one right now who could reach that step!

"Then I'll have to create a miracle, change history, transcend past and present. I will head there sooner or later one day!" Shi Hao vowed, his gaze resolute.

Then, Willow Deity said many things to Shi Hao, touching upon many things, including Stone Village's past events and Lower Realm's old friends. It didn't wish to talk about topics too grave any longer.

This imprint was what Willow Deity left in this world before entering Primordial Gate. There wasn't much time left; it was going to scatter soon.

Shi Hao felt emotional, fearing that the true body really might never appear again after entering the white bone gate, forever disappearing.

Therefore, even though Willow Deity no longer spoke about serious topics, he was still questioning it closely, wishing to understand more so that it would be easier to find it in the future, stepping on that endless path.

"Alright, I am about to scatter. Before leaving, I'll display a final technique, see if something will happen in the future." Willow Deity nodded.

What kind of method was this? Could it see into the future? Shi Hao's mind was shaken!

After endless years pass, past and present drawn out, the number of times Willow Deity could display this method was limited. Currently, this imprint was about to scatter, about to display a divination.

One could see how much importance it attached to Shi Hao, willing to use it once for him alone!

In the distance, the undying existence's expression was moved, Qi Daolin also watching impatiently, unknown as to what was going to happen, what kind of situation they were going to see.

"Are you sure that you wish to look?" Willow Deity asked.

"I..." Shi Hao was a bit scared. Was he really going to see the future? What kind of repercussions will there be if he saw it ahead of time? For him and Willow Deity, was it a good or bad thing?

"I am sure that I wish to take a look!" In the end, he made this decision. It was because only by doing this could he understand more, see the world in Willow Deity's heart.

"Alright, let me prepare a bit." Willow Deity nodded.

Soon after, Willow Deity sat down on the mountain peak, devouring the essence of the sun and moon. Its body seemed to resonate with the great universe, pulsing at the same rhythm as the stars in the sky.

Its figure became indistinct, white clothes turning into mist, like immortal energy, rising and pervading the air. The entire world seemed to have lost the brilliance it should possess. There was now only a haziness.

At this moment, a wave of mysterious power surged, spreading outwards with Willow Deity being at the center. It was as if they returned to when heaven and earth were opened, what remained only the most primitive matter, as well as desolateness.

Chaotic light scattered outwards, immortal energy pervading the air. Indistinctly, he could see that creatures existed before heaven and earth were opened. There were also great battles that happened in the distance, not close by!

"En?" Shi Hao was stupefied. Was this indistinct scenery he saw real?

Hong!

Suddenly, a thunderous sound erupted between heaven and earth, breaking his train of thought.

Willow Deity moved, continuously forming imprints and chanting incantations, immediately making crazy winds stir about here. Smoke clouds surged, multicolored light overflowed, fragments of time flew about!

Everything changed, not being like before. Willow Deity was displaying a type of divination, allowing Shi Hao to see the future he wanted to learn about!

Honglonglong!

At this time, there were ghosts and deities howling, immortals and devils roaring, all of them void figures, imprints. Perhaps it could be said that these were the reappearance of departed spirits that died in battle, formed from their damaged imprints.

All types of irregular scenes appeared between heaven and earth.

“What you wish to see, you should just earnestly see!” Willow Deity released a low shout.

It was operating the method, using the last of its power to display this great divine ability, interfering with the world’s laws and regulations.

Honglonglong!

A great river flooded outwards, surging from before their eyes. A blade of time rushed into the heavens, rumbling as it moved.

Was that the river of time? Shi Hao didn’t know, but he saw a few scenes on the shore that left his mind greatly shaken.

Were they the ancient people? In a flash, they changed from their prime to the declining years, gradually aging.

Of course, the so-called old age was something relative. Several thousands to even tens of thousands of years have passed, right?

“There isn’t much time left, hurry!” Willow Deity urged.

Shi Hao’s mind was shaken. He no longer watched these scenes on the side, instead wishing to see the final destination, the last conclusion. He wanted to witness the Willow Deity’s inner world, as well as the future.

Hong!

All of the scenes changed, the river of time surging. He seemed to be rushing ahead, seeing the final destination.

He saw the future his mind was the most concerned with, the future he wished to understand the most!

In that instant, Shi Hao saw another him, one who was exactly the same as him, but one who was clearly deeper and more experienced!

That person was extremely young, yet his eyes carried endless great changes, as if he could see through the past, present, and future!

Shi Hao’s mind shook, because that ‘him’ also looked over, as if he saw the current him. His eyes carried loneliness.

A single person, in that world!

He existed in that world alone, standing above ten thousand dao, experiencing the great solitude, enduring the sorrow of endless years. When he turned around, there was actually nothing at all!

This was the scene Shi Hao saw, his heart greatly shaken.

“No, there’s more, how can I be the only one left? I wanted to see the Willow Deity’s everything! Where is it in the future?” Shi Hao shouted, telling his current world self to calm down.

Then, he saw it.

A charred black willow tree, long broken, eternally silent as it rested there.

In that world, that person stood there alone, gazing into the heavenly domain. He released a great roar, his voice shaking the other shore, about to slaughter towards the distance.

“I refuse to believe this!” The present world Shi Hao shouted loudly. How could there be this type of scene?

In that world, he reached the absolute peak of the divine dao. It was too lonely, the entire world boundless, nothing left in existence.

Only a charred black willow tree was at his side. However, it had long died, already broken, only a piece of black wooden pile left.

This scene was too miserable!

There was no one in this entire world, no creatures, only him standing there. Even Willow Deity turned into broken wood on the scorched earth, accompanying him in his mournful solitude.

“It won’t be like that, everything can be changed. The future will be changed by me!” Shi Hao roared. He couldn’t accept this conclusion, and he refused to believe that it was going to be like this. He was going to change everything.

Chapter 1026 - Name Shaking Three Thousand Provinces

That world was too lonely!

How could he accept this conclusion? Shi Hao’s eyes felt sour. He gazed into the heavens, finding it difficult to acknowledge this, unable to endure it!

The entire world was ruined, only he remained, standing alone at the peak of the divine dao, enduring the endless years’ bleakness, loneliness. Nothing else existed.

“I definitely will not allow this type of situation to occur!” Shi Hao vowed towards the heavens. His hair flew about, eyes entirely red. That was an ending he couldn’t face.

He was going to turn everything around, not allowing this type of tragedy to occur. If that day truly came, with only him left, what meaning was there left?

“What did you see?” Willow Deity asked.

Even though it had displayed this great method before, different people saw different scenes. The future Shi Hao saw was something Willow Deity who was displaying this method didn’t know about itself.

However, it had a premonition, able to guess at a few things, saying, “In your world, I am no longer there anymore, right? Nothing else.”

The undying existence also came, seeing a few blurry scenes, but unable to see the truth. Willow Deity was displaying this method for Shi Hao and not him or Qi Daolin.

“What will it be like in the future?” Qi Daolin asked.

Shi Hao’s eyes were red, his nose sour. He looked at them, fearing that he would never see them again. In that world, he was the only one left, everything else gone.

Even someone as powerful as the Willow Deity only left behind a charred black wooden pile, accompanied by the bleakness of endless time, unable to appear again in the world.

“It’s nothing much, a great world will arise, one that is prosperous to the extreme. Everyone I met is still there, a golden age, joy spread throughout the entire world.” Shi Hao said.

Willow Deity released a sigh. How could it not understand Shi Hao? It watched him grow up, the frustration and disappointment he displayed explaining everything.

Willow Deity said softly, “Comparatively, the future is extremely vast, but it is also extremely peaceful right? Many people will no longer exist. No wonder there was a prophecy a long time ago that the entire world was going to wither away, the endless years becoming sorrowful and silent.”

Shi Hao suddenly felt as if the pressure he faced was too great. He was going to change everything, vowing to stop those things from happening. However, he didn’t know if he could actually achieve anything.

“The future isn’t set in stone, countless variables existing. What you see isn’t necessarily going to come true. There will always be that strand of hope.” Willow Deity said.

“Is that true?” Shi Hao felt like he was sinking in the middle of a stormy night in the middle of the sea, but suddenly saw a lighthouse, feeling as if he had found his life-saving dawn.

“Correct! Everything can be changed!” Willow Deity consoled.

Only, it sighed inwardly. How could it be that easy? How could a gleam of hope be that easily seized?!

“I am that variable! I will seize that trace of light, change everything!” Shi Hao roared.

At this time, the river of time had long disappeared, the him on the other side already gone. However, as long as he closed his eyes, it was as if he could see that beaten, scorched black world.

How could he endure that type of loneliness?!

“I have to go.” Willow Deity didn’t say much. It couldn’t hold on any longer, its body starting to crumble. Then, it turned into strand after strand of light, entering the mountains and rivers, returning to heaven and earth.

“One might not necessarily be the most powerful even if they grasp many precious techniques. On the Desolate Border’s side, they have long understood this world’s magic and dao. Only by creating one’s own path is the best way!” These were Willow Deity’s final words before disappearing.

It had precious techniques, but it didn’t give them to Shi Hao.

It was because Willow Deity felt that Shi Hao could walk his own path. Grasping too many methods right now wasn't necessarily a good thing. He could use his own path from here on out to slowly study and comprehend them.

"Young man, the road is still long, there is no need to lose yourself." Kun Gate's messy elder walked over, patting Shi Hao's shoulder. He didn't even give the undying existence a look before walking off.

Qi Daolin walked over, telling Shi Hao many things. He then told him that he still had to pay the boundless uninhabited region depths a visit to search for Supreme Hall!

It was clear that he was searching for it for Shi Hao.

The undying existence gave Shi Hao's other shoulder a pat, and then also left.

Those great experts all left. This place immediately became quiet.

Shi Hao stood in place, in somewhat of a daze, not moving for a long time. Too many things had happened today, truly great changes taking place.

Shi Hao left with a heavy mind. He walked far into the distance, and then suddenly raised his head. This was the boundless uninhabited region's border; he was close to leaving this place.

He was extremely quiet. Everything he saw not too long ago truly left him shaken up!

He thought to himself the entire time. How was he supposed to change the future? Only by becoming stronger would he have the qualifications to change everything, or else what hope or dawn was there to speak of?

Shi Hao wandered about aimlessly, continuing forward, leaving this place of conflict towards the three thousand provinces. Even though he was dejected, his heart heavy, he still had to continue down the path and aim his eyes forward.

Several days later, Shi Hao recovered. The road was extremely long, and he still had time. It was pointless for him to worry right now. Instead of worrying, he was better off relaxing and doing what had to be done.

He was an optimistic person. Even though his heart was full of concern, he still gradually adjusted his mood, no longer feeling downcast.

"The sun will still rise up tomorrow. This great earth isn't going down yet!" Shi Hao said.

That night, he entered a cliff, chasing all the vicious birds away, occupying the nest and getting a good night's sleep inside. He slept all the way until daybreak when golden multicolored light poured over, his vital energy now filled to the brim.

"Continue on the way!"

Shi Hao completely freed himself from those thoughts, facing everything like normal.

Along the way, he heard too many rumors.

“Huang’s might has shaken up Immortal Ancient, fighting great battles against heroes of all paths, rising up and becoming number one in those remains!”

“You’re wrong, he’s number one together with Ten Crown King, Exiled Immortal, and the others!”
Someone corrected.

“You’re the one that’s wrong. Their strength might be close, but on that arena, it really was Huang who came first, the one who won the most consecutive fights!”

Immortal Ancient Remains’ battle ended. All of the events that happened inside spread throughout the world.

Even though Shi Hao hadn’t appeared yet, his name already shook up all three thousand provinces, stirring up discussions between cultivators of all sides.

Of course, aside from him, there was still the Exiled Immortal, as well as Chang Gongyan, Dragon Girl, and others. Every single stunning individual was being talked about.

It was because as long as these people didn’t fall, they were destined to become rulers of the higher realm, becoming the most powerful group of individuals.

Too many things happened in Immortal Ancient. During those few years, many people obtained great opportunities inside the ancient place, becoming legends. Now that they returned, they naturally became the heroes and main characters in stories retold.

The higher realms could not calm down during these few days, all types of complex and brilliant stories circulated around.

Of course, after Immortal Ancient fractured. Willow Deity descended from the heavens, displaying great divine might, the events of how it rescued Huang released to the world. There was no way to hide it. This triggered a huge commotion.

The higher realms were immediately thrown into a great uproar, rumors endless.

Shi Hao borrowed a few large-scale transport formations, silently arriving at Demon Province to see his grandfather.

The fiery volcano was just like before, magma roiling, red liquid boiling.

In his grandfather’s place of isolation were groups of fiery volcanoes, the acrid sulfuric smell extremely strong, but not enough to affect cultivators.

Honglong.

A volcano erupted. The Great Demonic God walked out from the magma in great spirits, hair pitch-black, complexion much better. His entire body was giving off a flourishing blood energy.

“Hao, it really is you... you returned!”

Grandpa Fifteen was extremely happy. He sensed Shi Hao’s aura, but he never expected to truly see him return. Great emotions welled up within him, his heart filled with joy.

“Grandpa, it’s me, I’ve returned!” Shi Hao rushed over, his nose feeling sour. It was because in that corner of the future he saw, his grandfather had long vanished from existence.

Even though he only saw a few scenes from what he experienced not too long ago, he felt as if he had just lived an entire life, crossing endless time. Right now, he felt a bit sentimental.

“Haha, my good grandson, you returned from Immortal Ancient Remains! What rank did you end up getting in the great battle?” The Great Demonic God laughed loudly, wishing to lighten the atmosphere a bit.

During these past few years, he remained in seclusion the entire time, unaware of the outside world’s matters. Even though the higher realms were long bubbling with noise, rumors regarding Immortal Ancient spreading everywhere, he only found out just now.

“Number one!” Shi Hao told his grandfather. He also laughed.

“What? My grandson is number one under the heavens?!” This time, the Great Demonic God was shaken up, feeling incomparably shocked, a bit in disbelief.

The grandfather and grandson had long rushed together, embracing each other.

Even though Grandpa Fifteen was laughing, right now, his eyes still felt a bit sore, a bit teary-eyed. He forcefully stopped them from falling, because in these past few years, he was extremely worried, fearing that something unexpected would happen to Shi Hao in Immortal Ancient.

Today, not only did he see his grandson come back alive, he even heard about such glorious battle accomplishments. How could he not be moved?!

“Grandpa, I’ve brought back good stuff for you!” After sharing the joyous news, Shi Hao produced holy medicines, half divine fruits and many other divine objects.

“How can I take your things? Put them all away. Right now, grandpa is already strong, my missing arm long regrown. Together with Fiend Island Demonic Sovereign’s blood nourishment, my condition is improving by the day. My body is already as strong as a barbaric dragon, there’s no need for these things!” The Great Demonic God tactfully declined, having him put these treasures away.

It was because Grandpa Fifteen knew that this was what his grandson exchanged for with his life. As the older generation, how could he ask for Shi Hao’s things?

“It should be grandpa that gives you gifts!”

“Grandpa, are you really going to treat me like an outsider?” Shi Hao produced a bone coffin, inside of it All Life Earth, and even more so a stalk of Heavenly Deity Tree. $n(\text{/\text{D}})(v\text{--}e.(1.\text{--}b\text{--})1.)n$

He directly picked off a Heavenly Deity Fruit, placing it in his grandfather’s hands.

“This is... Heavenly Deity Fruit?!” When the Great Demonic God learned what this was, his face immediately became full of shock. Even this type of legendary thing was obtained by his grandson, it truly was heaven defying.

“Grandpa, regardless of whether you take it now or not, you have to accept it!”

The outside world became more and more chaotic. News of Immortal Ancient's great battle and many other secret matters began to spread throughout the three thousand provinces.

Shi Hao unleashed a great slaughter inside, his valiance dominating all of his peers, even the events of him killing many heavenly deities spread, making many sects' disciples tremble greatly, viewing this like a legend.

"Is that so? Is there finally a presentable opponent? Have him come and fight against me to see if he can take a blow or if things are exaggerated." A young man from the foreign guests laughed coldly, calling out the most powerful individual from Immortal Ancient for a fight.

It was because the Nine Heavens Ten Earths great alliance was about to be established. They were going to establish holy academies, heavenly deity institutions, these being places only the most powerful would be able to enter.

These foreign individuals wished to examine the three thousand provinces' most powerful geniuses, see if they had the qualifications to enter.

Shi Hao stayed with his grandfather for a few days before continuing on his way. He wanted to become stronger, so he wouldn't stay in one place. He was going to travel through the world.

Then, he headed towards Fire Province, proceeding towards the area full of Fire Mulberry Trees.

After all these years had passed, the Fire Mulberry Trees were still here, but he didn't know if that old friend was.

Chapter 1027 - Fire Mulberry Trees Still the Same

The Fire Mulberry Trees were still the same, red like the clouds of sunrise.

When watching from the distance, large amounts of trees carried fiery light, sparkling and translucent, occupying a vast area, red and sparkling, extremely eye-grabbing.

When he approached this place, heat immediately hit his face. The Fire Mulberry Trees' flames flowed with scarlet red color, the temperature not low at all.

It was just like the scene in the past. The girls were busy working around these mulberry trees, all of them having some cultivation, but not high. Every one of them had a bamboo basket behind them and wore a rough hemp garment, their appearances rather plain and simple.

There weren't many people, and they all lived rather simply. Their foreheads were covered in sweat. Because the temperature here was rather high, even those with some cultivation would sweat continuously.

On the mulberry tree, there were a few red diamond-like silkworms. These were rare bugs, the silk they released material that could be used to make precious clothes.

Shi Hao walked inside the forest alone, the rustling sounds of Flame Silkworms chewing on leaves sounding all around him. Strings of fiery light surged from time to time, making this place look rather pretty.

When Shi Hao came here in the past, he didn't discover anything at first, only when he turned around did he meet his old friend.

Now that he was revisiting his memories, he carefully looked around, observing these girls who were working around the mulberry trees. However, he didn't find anything.

The Fire Mulberry Forest was calm, scarlet multicolored light flickering about, fiery radiance pulsing.

Shi Hao walked through the forest, continuing forward based on his memories. He knew that that place wasn't that far.

A single separation took several years. He didn't know how she was now.

The large and tall Fire Mulberry Trees, some had already grown for several hundred years, even over a thousand years. They were thick and powerful, overflowing with fiery light.

Shi Hao found it difficult to calm down. Several years had passed, the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest was still here, but he was a bit nervous. Not much time had passed, yet it was enough to change many things.

He finally got closer, arriving at this familiar place.

A clear spring flowed past, the water flowing over smooth cobblestone. There were fish that occasionally leapt out, a natural and harmonious scene.

The depths of the Fire Mulberry Forest was extremely peaceful. There was a bamboo forest here, as well as a small river that helped alleviate the heat.

Shi Hao moved quickly, entering the forest, rushing forward to look inside.

In that instant, his expression froze.

There should be a thatched cottage there, a small courtyard, a few wooden blocks, as well as some flowers. However now, all of it was gone.

There was only a scorched black expanse, the earth completely dried up, filled with burn traces.

The small courtyard disappeared, the past peacefulness broken, no plants visible. There were only ashes here.

Why? Shi Hao quickly rushed over!

His eyes were flickering with light, penetrating like a blade as they swept over this place, carefully examining every corner of this place!

He never expected that in just those few years, everything would no longer exist, end up being destroyed.

Huo Ling'er, where did she go?

In that instant, a shadow loomed over Shi Hao's mind. He immediately felt a bad feeling.

He came to look for Huo Ling'er, yet in the end, he saw this type of scene. It was clear that an unforeseen event had taken place here, someone burning this place down.

Shi Hao was confident that it wasn't Huo Ling'er who did this. Even if she left, there was no need to burn down her beloved little courtyard, leaving this place in such a miserable state.

"Who was it?" Shi Hao was angry, and at the same time, his mind trembled, feeling incomparable worry.

What exactly happened to Huo Ling'er? Where was she? Why did this type of thing happen?

Shi Hao's mind was in a mess, filled with worry. He hurried over here expecting a reunion, not expecting that he would be this disappointed, seeing this kind of scene.

He opened his Heavenly Eyes, wishing to find some clues.

"En?"

Shi Hao was shocked. He opened his Heavenly Eyes, seeing a few damaged articles in the ashes that were smashed to pieces.

His hand moved about, sending black-colored earth and stone flying. A bone shield appeared, but it had long been smashed into many pieces. There were traces on it, within it some dark black substance.

It was blood that had solidified a long time ago!

Shi Hao's mind immediately trembled, a wave of anger surging, and even more so a type of panic. He feared that something truly bad had happened, a situation he couldn't redeem no matter how great his abilities were!

"How could it be like this? Who is it that came here, taking action against a helpless young lady?" Shi Hao clenched his fists, his expression ashen.

Huo Ling'er didn't have any enemies, no relationship with the outside world. Her hiding here could be said to be separating herself from the rest of the world, so why did this kind of thing happen?

Was it because of him? If that was the case, then the other party's methods were too vicious, their nose too keen, even able to find this type of place.

Shi Hao thought again and again, feeling that Huo Ling'er wouldn't incur hatred on her own. If anything unexpected happened, it would have most likely happened because of him.

In that instant, Shi Hao's heart felt cold, feeling a wave of responsibility and regret. If Huo Ling'er suffered from something unexpected because of this, then he would feel bad about it for the rest of his life.

"Didn't I tell you to leave and not stay here in order to avoid danger?" Shi Hao's voice was trembling a bit, not certain.

Back then, he had thought about it too. To avoid having anyone act too viciously, not letting anything go, following the spider's thread and horse tracks to this place, Shi Hao had previously advised Huo Ling'er to change to a different place.

It seemed like a battle had broken out here, an intense conflict.

Shi Hao's heart immediately sank. He carefully searched every part of this place, but in the end, he still didn't find anything, not knowing what happened back then.

In that moment, Shi Hao turned into a streak of rainbow light, wandering about this place. His Heavenly Eyes were opened, sweeping over every inch of this area, wanting to find some kind of clue.

However, he was left disappointed. There were no other clues.

"No!" Shi Hao shouted, his heart feeling a bit of pain. He feared that something unexpected had happened. If that was the case, then he would regret it for the rest of his life.

For one day and one night, Shi Hao searched through this place, not leaving the scorched black remains.

In the end, he became silent, ending up empty-handed.

There were two small mulberry trees planted at the front of the courtyard. Even though they suffered from the flames as well, they tenaciously grew, because they were fire attribute themselves, not fearing fire.

Shi Hao still remembered planting them with Huo Ling'er back then before leaving, those scenes appearing before him one after another.

However, after many years had passed, the small tree grew, now even much taller than him. Only, the one he was looking for wasn't here.

Shi Hao couldn't accept this reality. He traveled ten thousand zhang, quickly leaving this place, heading towards the nearest city.

Li Fire City, a place with many Fire Mulberry Trees around it, this place carrying scarlet multicolored light. A few thousand year old ancient trees even more so had flames jumping about them, waves of heat spreading.

Fire Clan, a place that used flames as the foundation, establishing their sect around fire.

This region belonged to the higher realms' Fire Clan, so they were naturally close to fire. That was why there were these types of old trees planted nearby.

Shi Hao was unwilling to accept this, rushing into this city. His divine senses swept about in search of powerful cultivators, wishing to understand the situation from their mouths.

Soon after, he learned of a few things.

It was because for the sake of obtaining news faster, he didn't hesitate to directly take action, taking several city lords into custody and forcefully searching their sea of consciousness, unexpectedly learning about a few things.

Sure enough, there were a few people who came here several years ago in search of something, making their way through the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest outside the city. In addition, there were some who haven't left yet even now, wandering about.

"Absolutely intolerable!" Shi Hao was furious, his face full of killing intent, anger overflowing!

This was sinner's blood clans' terrain, and it wasn't some important place, quite remote, which was why news from the outside world arrived rather slowly.

Everyone already knew that Immortal Ancient Remains had split open, now bordering the three thousand provinces, and they knew that those geniuses returned. However, they didn't know what exactly happened in Immortal Ancient during those years.

In summary, the information here lagged behind a bit. Everyone only roughly knew about a few things.

Shi Hao's hair stood up in anger, rushing outside the city, heading towards the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest again. This time, he coincidentally ran into those suspicious individuals as well.

"So many years have already passed, what are we even standing guard here for?"

"I heard the Immortal Ancient battle already ended. Did that youth come out alive or did he die in Immortal Ancient Remains? Why isn't there anyone who came to inform us?"

"In this sinner's blood territory, we've already been forgotten. No one has come to call for our return for several years already!"

Shi Hao walked over step by step, his face overcast as he approached them.

Those individuals had no idea, continuing as usual, walking towards the burned down cottage remains.

"That chick back then really was good! Even though they say she's a sinner's blood descendant, she really was super hot!" One of them said frivolously.

"I wonder if she's dead yet. What a pity it is that she didn't end up in our hands." Someone said regretfully while laughing.

Pu!

Immediately afterwards, the two of them felt their legs erupt with intense pain, their entire bodies falling down, bloody light flashing. Their legs had already exploded.

"Who-?" These individuals cried out in alarm, all of them turning around.

They only saw a youth walk over. Their expressions immediately changed, because they recognized that person's appearance.

"It's you, Huang!"

Pu!

Shi Hao pointed forward. A golden beam of light shot out from the end of his finger. Those individuals all cried out loudly, the lower halves of their bodies exploding, their upper halves flying outwards.

"Speak, what happened back then?" Shi Hao shouted angrily.

"Don't kill us, we will tell you everything!" One of them shouted loudly.

"We are insignificant, not even knowing that you came back, not receiving any information from the higher ups! We were completely forgotten here! Don't kill us!"

They were incomparably scared, quickly telling him everything.

Back then, these people received orders precisely to come for Huo Ling'er, to capture her. However, they were a step late.

Huo Ling'er's father was previously the Human Emperor of the lower realm. When he returned and learned that his daughter had met with Shi Hao, he immediately brought her away.

"You all didn't find them?" Shi Hao's mind loosened up a bit.

"We obtained a few clues later on that there was a pursuit afterwards, but we didn't receive any more messages." They replied honestly. On the contrary, it was the Fire Emperor that came here to unleash a great slaughter.

Soon after, Shi Hao understood these people's origins. They were people from Sword Valley, Fire Cloud Cavern, Luofu True Valley and others, sure enough, the great sects who took it upon themselves to suppress sinner's blood.

At the same time, something else that made his eyes go cold was that there were previously two Celestial Clan cultivators who had participated in this.

"Fire Cloud Cavern, Luofu True Valley, and Celestial Clan, you all bully others too far!" Shi Hao burned with anger. He vowed to pay them a visit in the future.

He learned what he wanted to know from these people's mouths. In the end, with a wave of his hand, he dealt with them, not showing any mercy.

Shi Hao released a sigh. The world was so large, where was he to go to find Huo Ling'er? He hoped that she was alright.

In the following few days, he continued to wander about this place. He thought back to the past, the events in the lower realm, releasing a sigh.

This Fire Mulberry Tree Forest was extremely large, but Shi Hao had pretty much seen everything in these past few days. He wanted to see the place Huo Ling'er had previously worked at and carefully observe everything.

"En?"

On the fourth day, Shi Hao's mind shook, his eyes focusing forward.

This place was already quite far from the thatched cottage, at the border of the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest.

There was someone who was picking at the mulberry trees, a young lady wearing rough hemp garments, beautiful hair scattering down, forehead full of sweat.

Her figure was extremely good, only, her appearance was too plain. On her back was a bamboo basket, gathering mulberry leaves here.

Previously, Shi Hao had never seen her appearance, but when he saw her eyes, his mind jumped, almost not daring to believe what he was seeing. Those eyes were extremely familiar.

Shi Hao walked over step by step. That young lady turned around, the bamboo basket in her hands immediately falling, her eyes immediately full of watery mist, vision becoming blurry.

"It's... you!" her voice was trembling.

Even though her appearance was changed, Shi Hao still recognized that this was Huo Ling'er. She unexpectedly never left, always staying in the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest, always waiting here!

Chapter 1028 - Meeting By Chance

She was Huo Ling'er!

Scarlet multicolored light surged, the Fire Mulberry Trees everywhere. The temperature was extremely high, fiery mists pervading the air.

That young lady was extremely plain and simple, rough clothes covering her body, skin snow-white. She had already revealed her real appearance, eyes carrying watery mist, eyelashes long, gently trembling.

Huo Ling'er's figure was slender, a head taller than normal girls. She had an extremely perfect figure, curves rising and falling, skin sparkling like ivory.

When she recovered her appearance, her entire body possessed spiritual essence. Her heart trembled, walking over one step at a time, looking at the youth before her.

"Are you still well?" Shi Hao asked. He walked over to meet her. Being able to see Huo Ling'er here gave his mind a wave of warmth that slowly spread.

Someone came looking for Huo Ling'er, wishing to treat her with harm, but in the end, she still continued to defend this place, picking mulberry leaves and waiting for his return. This made Shi Hao's emotions rise and fall. He wanted to say something, opening his mouth, yet not knowing what to talk about.

"I'm fine, just that after leaving the original place, I was scared that you wouldn't find me after returning." She said quietly.

"It's too dangerous here. How can you stay here alone? They already burned that thatched cottage and small courtyard down." Shi Hao walked forward, looking at her.

"Those two small trees are still there, making it through, so not everything was burned away." Huo Ling'er laughed, her beautiful eyes watery, but her smile was extremely brilliant.

"Don't continue taking risks like this anymore." Shi Hao said.

"I was scared that when you returned, you might think that I was no longer in this world, so I stayed here. I won't stay here anymore." Huo Ling'er said quietly.

Shi Hao felt moved inside, feeling a wave of warmth. He reached out his hand, helping her wipe away the sweat covering her sparkling white face. This place was extremely hot, yet she picked mulberry leaves the entire day.

The reunion was extremely ordinary without great sadness or great joy, only a type of warmth, as well as a type of true exchange of emotions, both of them worried for each other.

“What did you experience in Immortal Ancient? Was it dangerous? I never thought you would come back so quickly.” Huo Ling’er said.

During these past few years, she really was worried, because she understood what kind of place that was, what kind of opponents Shi Hao had to face.

One had to bear in mind that since the past to present, it was unknown just how many heroes’ bones were buried there. Now that this battle had erupted again, kings from past and present clashed, so it would definitely be incredibly miserable.

In her opinion, even though Shi Hao was strong in the lower realm, there was no way he could move unhindered through Immortal Ancient.

“Don’t worry, I even came back, meaning that those enemies are all defeated. There’s not much danger.” Shi Hao laughed, not talking about topics that were too serious.

“I don’t believe it. Immortal Ancient is so large, so many opponents, you definitely went through many hardships. However, no matter what, it is good that you returned alive.” Huo Ling’er said.

She didn’t know what Shi Hao experienced, but she could guess that he definitely encountered many powerful opponents. She didn’t even think about whether or not he could really obtain the number one under the sky title, always praying during these past few years, hoping for him to return alive.

Today, she finally saw him return safe and sound, able to let all of her worries go.

“Go, I’ll invite you to eat Immortal Ancient specialties. There’s many delicacies to enjoy!” Shi Hao laughed, pulling Huo Ling’er’s hand as he walked. He found a peaceful place with a brook, the flowing water releasing pleasant sounds.

Huo Ling’er immediately smiled, as if she returned to the lower realm in the Hundred Shattered Mountains. This fella always dared to eat anything since the past.

“This is... pure-blooded Green Flood Dragon?” Huo Ling’er was shocked, and then her expression quickly changed, saying, “It’s a heavenly deity?”

She was immediately stupefied, feeling a great pressure that made her heart pound. Even though that Flood Dragon had died, there was still a type of terrifying aura pervading the air.

Heavenly deities were beings high above all others! When normal deities faced them, they would feel an enormous pressure.

“Don’t worry, already killed it a long time ago. Let me refine its vicious energy, and then we’ll turn it into a delicious dish soon.” Shi Hao said. When he carried the Flood Dragon, it was like cleaning a snake, directly skinning it and cleaning it by the brook.

This scene left Huo Ling’er stupefied. That was a heavenly deity! This fella was preparing it in such a daring manner, going to stew it.

“What exactly did you experience in Immortal Ancient?” Huo Ling’er sat by the brook, her voice trembling.

"Apart from cultivation, it was just fighting and killing, it really was dry and dull." Shi Hao explained in a simple manner, not wishing to hide anything.

"Did you kill many opponents? I remember Immortal Palace Inheritor, Ning Chuan, and many exceptional figures all wanted to treat you unfavorably." Huo Ling'er said.

"Those people, some were defeated, some killed, and some eaten by me." Shi Hao said, his smile extremely brilliant. "I already said that I was unstoppable in Immortal Ancient, ultimately winning, rising up above everyone else. No one was my opponent."

"You... are number one under the sky?!" Huo Ling'er was greatly shocked.

Back then, Shi Hao truly was valiant in the lower realm, but after he arrived in the higher realms, everything became different. With so many races and talents, even the most powerful geniuses might be drowned out.

How could she have predicted that he would be so powerful, unexpectedly dominating Immortal Ancient, becoming unmatched in the struggle against the most powerful?!

Shi Hao told her many things in detail, from when he added the three thousand dao flames to his body, to the bloody battles with ancient freaks, and then to the hunt of heavenly deities, his relationship with sect masters, as well as crossing heavenly tribulation and others.

Huo Ling'er was extremely fascinated as she listened, at the edge of her seat, from time to time feeling worry, other times feeling happy, sometimes frowning, emotions rising and falling.

When she finally heard of his success in the Holy Sacrifice Realm, killing heavenly deities, Huo Ling'er was greatly shaken, her beautiful eyes widening, revealing astonishing brilliance.

She was truly moved. How old was Shi Hao? He was just over twenty, yet he already slaughtered the higher realms' heavenly deities. What kind of might was this?

Needless to say, he was definitely going to overlook the world under the sky, dominate the three thousand provinces, becoming one of the higher realms' most powerful individuals!

However, soon after, she released a light sigh, her eyes growing dim. How could she catch up to Shi Hao's footsteps?

Even though Huo Ling'er was unordinary, the Vermilion Bird bloodline within her revived, that was still a brilliance from the lower realm that wouldn't illuminate the higher realms' three thousand provinces.

Moreover, even if the true Vermilion Bird was reborn, it would likely only be at the same level as this youth right? His natural talents were so extraordinary, definitely comparable to the Heavenly Phoenix, Kun Peng, and others' heirs.

Forget about everything else, just her cultivation alone was currently much inferior to Shi Hao's.

When she thought of the past, and then the distant future, Huo Ling'er already felt a bit emotional. She felt like she was getting further and further away from Shi Hao, the gap in cultivation growing larger and larger, becoming like a heavenly moat.

"You can even kill Heavenly Deities, meanwhile me..." Huo Ling'er hung her head, her eyes carrying tears, sparkling and flickering. She felt like the day would come when Shi Hao would ascend into the ninth heaven, while she would try to run with everything she had, yet unable to catch up.

What will it be like in the future?

She felt incredibly dejected. She waited so long, now finally seeing Shi Hao's peaceful return. It was originally supposed to be a happy and joyous event, but after the happiness just now, she now felt so dejected.

"What are you thinking about? The two of us both came from the lower realm, we've already made it this far. Do you think I would care about how your cultivation is?" Shi Hao said, grabbing her delicate hands.

"You are like a young Kun Peng, sooner or later spreading your wings into the skies into the boundless cosmos, while I am like a delicate and weak Fire Mulberry Flower, unable to leave the surface of the earth." Huo Ling'er said while shedding tears.

She knew that with Shi Hao's talents, this type of ferocious advancing speed, how could this world hold him back? He was definitely going to leave into the distance, head into an even larger great world.

"I can bring you with me into the nine heavens!" Shi Hao said, looking into her eyes.

Chapter 1029 - Journeying Together

Huo Ling'er's mind was greatly shaken, her beautiful eyes misty. She opened her mouth, wishing to say something, incomparable warmth filling her heart.

The current her found it difficult to calm down.

Only after a long time had passed did she recover. She looked at Shi Hao, thinking about too many things.

He could kill heavenly deities at the age of twenty, this type of talent was rarely seen through past and present. Huo Ling'er knew that this was likely some kind of record, a type of legend!

She knew that Shi Hao would definitely rush even higher, with many years ahead of him. Meanwhile, she couldn't reach that type of height. Perhaps many years afterwards, when her hair began to turn white, he had only experienced a tiny amount of his life.

The greater the strength of the cultivator, the longer their lifespans would be. Huo Ling'er felt that her own strength was too low. Even if she did everything she could, there was no way she could catch up to his footsteps.

In reality, she felt that in the very end, when she gazed into the distance, she would only see an indistinct rear view.

"Just saying those words to me is already enough to make me extremely happy." Huo Ling'er said.

She wasn't going to think about it any more. To travel together, being at each others' sides, that was already enough. She looked into the horizon, gazed at the evening sunset, wishing to say something, yet found it difficult to say anything.

"What are you thinking about? Cultivation being high or low doesn't mean much. With me here, would you even need to fight?" Shi Hao tried his best to speak with an easygoing tone.

"What is your dream?" Huo Ling'er asked.

"What are you talking about, dream, that word is too heavy." Shi Hao laughed and said.

"I'll change my words then, what do you want to do in the future?" Huo Ling'er asked.

Shi Hao understood what she was trying to say. He looked into the west's dark red clouds, the entirely red setting sun, allowing his thoughts to run freely. He entered a period of silence.

He wanted to challenge the Desolate Border, continue from there, enter the world the Willow Deity saw. He was going to fight there and change the world.

Right now, it was still extremely far away, but sooner or later, he would have to face it. He had no choice but to prepare for it!

Huo Ling'er knew that he had a goal in his heart, one that was great, far, definitely incomparably difficult to attain. She couldn't help but release a sigh, feeling that she would definitely be a burden if she followed him.

"Whatever it is you wish to do, you should just do it." She said softly.

"We're thinking too much, it's still early. I want to fight at the Desolate Border, unravel the mystery of endless time, hoping to understand the reason for Immortal Ancient Great Era's destruction. I want to know why immortals fell, and I am even more curious as to why there are no more long life individuals in the present age." Shi Hao said to himself there.

All of these things were impossible to achieve right now. He could only become stronger step by step.

Huo Ling'er's mind was greatly shaken. She never thought that Shi Hao would take that type of path, truly something of a magnificent scale. The future path was definitely incomparably distant.

"Alright, the Flood Dragon meat is done, and the Dragon Sparrow also finished roasting. Hurry and eat." Shi Hao called Huo Ling'er over.

Huo Ling'er's eyes were previously carrying a bit of mistiness, a bit sad and emotional, but right now, she released a laugh. It really was hard to change this guy's nature, he was just like before.

The specialty he brought out from Immortal Ancient was actually heavenly deity meat. This guy was completely a foodie.

If others found out that heavenly deity meat was being eaten, it would definitely scare people to death, leaving all sides greatly shaken.

Meanwhile, this meat also allowed Huo Ling'er to see a step further Shi Hao's extraordinary cultivation, hunting down heavenly deities not just for food!

“Here, a gift for you!”

When they finished their meal, Shi Hao said it like this.

Huo Ling’er was currently seated, refining spiritual essence, because after eating heavenly deity meat, for her it really had powerful effects. She had to operate bone texts to help digest it.

“What kind of gift?” Huo Ling’er was curious.

Was it something else to eat? She had these suspicions.

With a shua sound, multicolored light flickered, dense spiritual essence pervaded the air. An ancient cauldron appeared, within it sparkling sand, precisely the All Life Earth.

Meanwhile, inside the cauldron was a small tree that was full of flowers, as well as quite a few underripe fruits.

“I ask senior to bestow me a fruit!” Shi Hao greeted, and then reached out his hand.

That little tree swayed, and then the golden leaves blossomed with multicolored light, becoming more and more holy. A fruit fell from the treetop with a chi sound, golden yellow and surging with holy radiance.

Shi Hao accepted it, and then handed it to Huo Ling’er, saying, “Take it.”

“What is this?” Huo Ling’er was shocked. Could this be a divine fruit? This was what she guessed.

“You guessed right, it’s divine medicine. Hurry up and eat it, I’ll help you stand guard.” Shi Hao said, carrying a smile as he encouraged.

Huo Ling’er shook her head, saying, “I think it’s better if I don’t. Right now, I am without sickness or calamity, eating it like this is too much of a waste. You should keep it at your side so that you can quickly recover if you are ever seriously injured.”

“I don’t need it, hurry up and eat it already!” Shi Hao urged.

Under his continuous insistence, Huo Ling’er had no choice but to start eating this golden fruit. When it entered her mouth, sweet fragrance assailed her senses, and a wave of heat entered her body.

Immediately afterwards, endless symbols surged, entering her blood and bones, cleansing her flesh and tempering her muscles and bones, reconstructing her body. She was immediately submerged under golden light.

“What is this? Why do I feel like I’ve been reborn, my cultivation rapidly increasing, magical force also starting to strengthen?!” Huo Ling’er cried out in alarm. She didn’t know what was happening. This type of situation was extremely strange.

What is this? She asked Shi Hao, finding it hard to calm down.

“Heavenly Deity Fruit, it can allow your cultivation to quickly catch up and exceed me.” Shi Hao said with a smile.

"It's that kind of this, this world... really has Heavenly Deity Fruits?!" Huo Ling'er's voice was trembling. She couldn't help but cry out in shock.

This type of fruit was too precious, allowing the ordinary to immediately transform. Even if one didn't have cultivation, as long as they ate this Heavenly Deity Fruit, they could immediately become a heavenly deity. n).0veLb1n Huo Ling'er underwent clear changes. In the following day and night, the Vermilion Bird bloodline was opened up another step, her flesh becoming perfect, sparkling white and brilliant.

Fiery light flickered, burning her body, making her flesh and spirit undergo shocking changes.

This was Heavenly Deity Fruit. It had wondrous effects that produced instantaneous effects.

"Am I really going to succeed?" Huo Ling'er was moved. She felt her cultivation immediately become who knew how many times greater, it was just too fast!

In this world, everyone felt that the Heavenly Deity Tree was priceless, more precious than any other divine medicine. It was because it could allow a great sect to quickly flourish.

Everyone knew that eating a fruit could create a heavenly deity. When this continued for a long time, who could compare to that sect?

"Aiya, did I really become a heavenly deity?!" When Huo Ling'er finished this process, she was incredibly excited and moved. Shi Hao gave her such a precious item, granting her the cultivation of a heavenly deity.

She got up, carefully controlling her power, now finally certain that she became a heavenly deity, transcending above. She could now look down on all of her peers.

All of this was because of the young man before her.

"You don't have to worry about your cultivation anymore, right?" Shi Hao said with a laugh.

Huo Ling'er's heart pounded greatly. Immediately becoming a heavenly deity, this was simply unimaginable, too ridiculous.

"Thank you!" Huo Ling'er said.

Even though she knew that by becoming a heavenly deity, in the future, she would still be surpassed by Shi Hao, she still couldn't suppress her joy.

"Let's go, we're leaving this place." Shi Hao said, about to bring her away.

"Where are we going?" Huo Ling'er asked. After becoming a heavenly deity, her previous worries seemed to have weakened. Right now, she was full of life, lively and excited.

Of course, this was only on the surface. Deep down, she knew that she could only accompany Shi Hao for a set amount of time. Compared to his endless and brilliant life, her road and time wouldn't be too long.

As long as they walked through this together, then that was enough! Huo Ling'er said quietly to herself.

“Other end of the world, anywhere under the sky!” Shi Hao replied.

He brought Huo Ling’er into the heavens, travelling into the distance. They were going to journey the world, visit all the magnificent mountains and rivers.

As Shi Hao and Huo Ling’er traveled together, many things happened in the outside world.

All types of events in Immortal Ancient Remains were spread around, triggering a huge commotion. There were a few geniuses whose reputations shook the world, and there were also those who were drowned out by the brilliance of others.

There was one more matter that wasn’t less important than the events that took place in Immortal Ancient. The foreign guests didn’t leave, waiting for all of Immortal Ancient’s geniuses to come out.

“All of the kings that returned from Immortal Ancient, the so-called heavenly warping talent are nothing more than this! Too weak!” The foreign youngster Lin Tian said.

During these past few days, he walked around with a sword in hand, chasing after the powerful geniuses that returned, wishing to have a go at them, but in the end discovered that they were really just too weak.

“The Three Thousand Dao Provinces truly have declined, becoming more and more lacking!” The other foreign guests also spoke like this.

This truly was the case. In the past few days, the geniuses that came back weren’t their opponents at all, the difference too great.

“The Three Thousand Dao Provinces are done for, the inheritance severed. The past experts only left behind a few weak descendents.” This already wasn’t ridicule, but serious disappointment.

The foreign youngsters already condensed great dao flowers from immortal energy above their heads. They traveled unhindered through the higher realms, no one at their level able to match them.

“Where are that so-called Exiled Immortal and Huang? Have them come out and fight, test them out a bit” They even knew about this.

Only, no one knew the Exiled Immortal’s whereabouts, and Huang didn’t show himself either. No one came to meet their challenge.

“Haha...” That person shouted loudly. If the Three Thousand Dao Provinces didn’t have geniuses that were too powerful, then there was no reason for them to waste anymore time.

At this moment, everyone thought about Huang, wishing for him to take action and suppress them all.

Only, would Huang appear? Would he even come out to fight?

Right now, quite a few people were thinking about this powerful individual. It was because they felt that if he took action, he could definitely settle things with these bastards.

The foreign guests slaughtered the three thousand provinces’ cultivators until they didn’t dare display any anger. They weren’t their opponents at all.

"These people truly are too weak, can't even take a single hit. If you all only have this type of performance, yet you want to enter the heavenly deity institution, it's just impossible." The foreign guests showed great contempt for this place.

"The three thousand provinces' geniuses are too lacking, none of them able to take a single hit!" They all spoke like this.

In the outside world, wind and rain swept about.

Shi Hao and Huo Ling'er wandered about the mountains and rivers, feeling rather carefree and pleased.

"What are you thinking about?" Huo Ling'er asked.

"I am thinking about that hateful Celestial Clan. It is one thing to deal with me, but they actually tried to capture you too." Shi Hao said.

He thought back to those people he met in the Fire Mulberry Tree Forest. Apart from Sword Valley, Fire Cloud Cavern and those other large sects' disciples, there were actually also Celestial Clan cultivations.

Moreover, it was Celestial Clan who found this place first, leaking out the information.

"What are you going to do?" Huo Ling'er asked. He was definitely going to do something.

"Go to Heaven Province. I already said back then that I would definitely pay them a visit one day. This time, I'm going to go demand an explanation!" Shi Hao said.

Soon after, they borrowed the large scale transport formation to arrive in Heaven Province, which was the great province Celestial Clan resided in.

"Won't it be too dangerous?" Huo Ling'er asked.

"No harm, the Celestial Clan's guardian spirit is heavily wounded and dying. Last time, he was too crafty, fleeing away, but his combat strength is already lacking." Shi Hao said.

He arrived in a place where mountains rose and fell like dragon veins. Shi Hao stopped in the distance, looking forward as he said, "Celestial Clan, I've returned!"

Chapter 1030 - Celestial Clan's Ancestral Land

Shi Hao and the Celestial Clan's grudges truly ran deep. He had previously suffered a great humiliation here, the other party biting the hand that fed them. He was almost killed in the black prison, a memory that was hard to forget.

In the past, he had previously told this clan that he would return one day to settle this grudge.

"So this is the Celestial Clan's place of residence! It is so grand and majestic." Huo Ling'er said.

Up ahead, the mountain range rose and fell as if true dragons were resting below. It was grand and vast, waves of purple mists rising. There were a few smoke clouds as well that were all produced from spiritual essence.

Needless to say, this was a spiritual earth rarely seen between heaven and earth.

Moreover, this couldn't be considered the Celestial Clan's important area. Beyond the mountain range were plains with enormous cities one after another, large amounts of Celestials residing within them.

It was clear that this was their country.

Meanwhile, Celestial Clan had another ancestral land where it was extremely difficult for normal people to enter. They needed to travel through an ancient transport formation.

Since Shi Hao dared to come, he naturally made sufficient preparations. He had Realm Shattering Symbols, and even more so the golden divine talisman Immortal Ancient's nine great sect masters specially refined for him, one that could allow him to move through many great formations.

Along the way, they passed the residences of the normal Celestials, directly entering their ancestral land.

"There's a great mountain sealing formation, you have to be careful!" Huo Ling'er worried for Shi Hao, fearing that he might be careless from being hung up on revenge.

After all, Celestial Clan was a past Emperor Clan, their methods too deep. Even without extremely powerful experts overseeing this place, it still wasn't a place ordinary people could rashly enter.

"Stop sleeping and wake up already!" Shi Hao woke up the Divine Striking Stone.

During these past few years, the Divine Striking Stone obtained tremendous benefits, obtaining Origin Stone, Heaven's Mandate Stone, and then he even obtained another wondrous stone from the ancient phoenix nest in Immortal Ancient's medicine garden, all of it eaten.

It really was as it said, simply about to cultivate immortal energy. Spiritual mists surged around its body, rising into the air, it was extremely divine.

In the recent half year, it ate all types of supreme treasures and refined them, turning them into a part of itself, continuously transforming. Its aura was now extraordinary.

During this process, it would always be fast asleep. If it wasn't woken up, it would pass its time in a daze.

The main reason was because it had eaten too many heavenly treasures, especially those supreme treasures, all of them directly wolfed down and not truly refined. Only recently did it truly absorb the essence.

That was why it was in a type of wonderful state.

"Trip down memory lane!" When the Divine Striking Stone woke up, it laughed towards Shi Hao, also feeling quite moved.

Only, back then, Shi Hao was captured here. He escorted Yun Xi several tens of thousands of li, fought continuously with War Clan, and because of it continuously suffered attacks, barely making it out alive. What he received in return wasn't gratitude, but rather humiliation. The Celestial Clan demanded his precious techniques, treated him like a prisoner.

"This time, it's different!" Shi Hao said, his mind stirring with emotions.

Today, he took the initiative to slaughter his way over. Not even he foresaw this. In just a few years, he was actually able to reach this step.

“Yi, little girl, you’ve grown prettier! It’s been several years, have you missed me?” The Divine Striking Stone then looked towards Huo Ling’er.

Dong!

In the end, it was struck by Shi Hao as soon as it spoke, making its body release keng qiang sounds, sparks flying everywhere.

“Brat, did you need to go that far? Forgetting your bro after getting a girl, you really don’t have any sense of loyalty!” The Divine Striking Stone shouted.

Dang!

Huo Ling’er also gave it a slap. Now that she had the cultivation of heavenly deity level, she immediately beat the Divine Striking Stone until it cried out miserably, grimacing in pain. “You two really are quite the match, huh? Did you forget an old friend like me? Back then when we met in the Hundred Shattered Mountains, we could also be said to have an old friendship!”

“Even if you speak a bit less, no one will think you’re mute.” Shi Hao said. This fella dared to say anything, he truly feared that it would shoot its mouth more.

“Ao...” The Divine Striking Stone released a howl like a wolf, saying, “I, the number one stone under the heavens have returned! Celestial Clan, you bastards can start trembling now. Wash your butts, and just wait for your turn!”

Shi Hao and Huo Ling’er’s foreheads were filled with dark lines. This fella always spoke utter nonsense, not knowing what is appropriate for what situation.

However, right now, they needed its understanding of formations. Even though they had the Realm Shattering Symbol, it was still best to have a formation master at their side to lead the way.

This place was known as Celestial Clan’s restricted place, everything within a range of a hundred thousand li surrounded by an ancient formation. Normal people couldn’t enter at all.

However, with the Divine Striking Stone leading the way, as well as the golden Realm Shattering Symbol the nine great sect masters’ refined, they made it through more scared than hurt, smoothly crossing this place, entering inside.

Ancient trees towered into the skies, golden giant elephants, rainbow-colored luans, everything that should be there was there. Not only was this the Celestial Clan’s hunting field, it also served as their medicinal garden.

This place covered a hundred thousand li, valuable resources endless, the clan’s most flourishing area.

After arriving in this place, Shi Hao naturally wouldn’t be polite. He set the Emperor Butterfly as well as Divine Striking Stone free, bringing Huo Ling’er with him as they picked all types of precious medicines.

In just the larger half of a day, many places became empty, spiritual grasses all plucked clean!

Huo Ling'er felt a strange sensation. Harvesting divine grass with Shi Hao like this felt like they were doing something wrong, yet it was a strange type of stimulating.

She was the daughter of a clan's emperor, when did she ever do something like this? It was a completely different experience.

"We can be considered great robbers now, right?"

"We are robbing the rich to help the poor, it's a chivalrous thing." Shi Hao spoke righteously, correcting her.

"Something is wrong, what is happening? We lost many wondrous medicines, someone is stealing medicines!" There were experts protecting this place. They quickly discovered the abnormalities, shouting loudly and raising alarm.

This triggered a great disturbance. Who dared behave atrociously in Celestial Clan's important location? This was truly vermin, leaving them shocked and furious.

Shi Hao raised his head towards the sky. In the boundless heavens, the clouds above, there was an ancient giant city protected by a great formation. It was like a city of immortals.

That was precisely the City of Heaven, Celestial Clan's most important place. All of the higher level and most powerful individuals resided here, high up above, overlooking this expanse of great earth.

"Are we going to break in from below?" The Divine Striking Stone was eager to give things a try. Even though Shi Hao didn't bring up the matters back then, the Divine Striking Stone also felt stirred up.

There was clearly kindness shown, fighting a bloody battle for several hundreds of thousands of li, yet he received such unjust treatment, making even the Divine Striking Stone gnash its teeth in anger, wishing to immediately break into the City of Heaven.

"We'll just wait right here. If one comes, then we'll deal with one!" Shi Hao said.

He wasn't willing to rashly take risks. Even though he felt tremendous resentment and indignation, that city was extremely important, something the archaic Six Great Celestials established.

Even though he had great treasures and his strength was also powerful, able to kill heavenly deities, rashly entering the city would still likely leave him in an unfavorable position, ultimately be trapped and killed by the Celestial Clan's great formation.

"Which little thief dares behave atrociously in my Celestial Clan's restricted land, daring to steal medicinal herbs? Tired of living?" A great shout sounded from the skies above.

A group of true deities appeared, searching through this place to find that person.

Moreover, the person in the lead even more so held a bone mirror, illuminating all directions. Its effects weren't as great as the Heavenly Eye, but it could find many hidden people, one of Celestial Clans' ancient treasures.

"Stupid thief, I really don't know where you got such great courage, actually sneaking into my clan's ancestral land, not knowing the difference between life and death!"

In this group, a young true deity sneered, because it discovered clues of the medicine stealer with the bone mirror, leading a group of people and rushing over.

While shouting stupid thief, the secret treasure in its hands released a loud blast of lightning, directly taking action and attacking.

“That bastard, daring to call us stupid thieves, is he tired of living?!” The Divine Striking Stone was furious.

During these past few years, it followed by Shi Hao’s side, could be said to be comrades in arms. They had seen too many great scenes, bathed in the blood of heavenly deities as they advanced. How could they fear a trifling true deity?

Shi Hao brought Huo Ling’er here, allowing the lightning to hack down. It was completely useless, because all of the lightning was like spiritual essence, absorbed by his pores.

“You...” That person was shocked, hurriedly stopping his figure.

Moreover, he saw Shi Hao’s true appearance, immediately becoming stupefied, and then his face became deathly pale, losing all color.

He hurriedly rushed over for the sake of getting achievements. When he shone with the bone mirror, he didn’t pay close attention at all, only now realizing who was it that came.

“What’s wrong?” The relatively young experts who rushed over afterwards asked.

However, when they arrived and saw Shi Hao, they were similarly shocked. How could it be this killing disaster?!

These people all staggered, almost falling from the sky, truly frightened badly. In this Celestial Clan important land, how many people were there who didn’t recognize Shi Hao?

One had to bear in mind that the clan’s most powerful six geniuses were all defeated, including the number one in the younger generation You Yu. Even after merging with the Heaven’s Mandate Stone, he was still beaten until he was half crippled before Supreme Being Dao Rite.

“How could you dare come to my Celestial Clan?” Someone shouted, clearly trying to show strength while feeling weak inside.

“Naturally to settle things. Back then, you all did all those immoral things, today, I came to demand an explanation!” Shi Hao said.

He raised his hand towards the void, and then his finger shone. Several divine rainbows shot out, piercing through the void.

Ah... Those people cried out loudly, no way of resisting at all. They were struck at nearly the same moment, blood blossoming as they fell from the sky, landing on the ground.

Even though they didn’t die, they were clearly already half crippled!

“If I killed them all, I’ll look ruthless and bloodthirsty, but how can I not kill them? Have all your heavenly deities just come out and accept death!” Shi Hao muttered.

Huo Ling'er gripped one of his hands, telling him not to act too heavily on emotions.

"Huh? Who are you?" The other deities in the sky saw this scene, and then all of them were incredibly alarmed.

"Heavens, he's Huang, Shi Hao who came first in Immortal Ancient Remains! He came here to get revenge!"

Finally, someone recognized Shi Hao, immediately crying out in alarm, triggering a huge commotion.

Huang's name had long shaken up the three thousand provinces. Now, every sect had heard about the great might he displayed in Immortal Ancient Remains.

During these past two weeks, who didn't know about Huang? His name could be said to have shaken up the world under heaven, his name spread everywhere.

During these past few days, the Celestial Clan was in unrest. The dao protector came back in a dying state, while the youth from the past had already grown up to the point where no one under heaven didn't know about him, truly casting a shadow over their hearts.

They long had a premonition that Huang would come knocking on their doors one day.

However, they just never expected that this day would come so fast!

In the sky, above the city walls, a purple-clothed young lady was originally watching the setting sun, but in the end, she was startled by the activity below. She looked downwards, carefully observing what was going on.

"It's him!" Yun Xi was shocked, her emotions rising and falling, feeling an indescribable type of feeling and emotion. Soon after, she then saw the tall and slender young lady in fiery-red clothes next to Shi Hao.