Chapter 1061 - Qilin Appears

They went on a journey once again. They didn't move through the mountain forest, but rather by borrowing formations.

This was permitted by the three great experts, otherwise, if they traveled through the mountain ridge, it would exhaust too much time, a few months passing by easily.

Soon after, Shi Hao and the others returned, arriving at the city where the young Qilin beast disturbance originated from.

Shi Hao didn't actually believe they could find the little Qilin, because this little fella was extremely stubborn, not willing to come out at all unless the young lady from the past came back.

But how could something like this happen? Unless, of course, there was reincarnation.

Of course, there was one other possibility, and that was if someone extremely similar to the young lady from back then appeared and tried to deceive it that way.

"There are people infected by darkness here. Shi Hao, you previously killed a group of heavenly deities and destroyed an altar right? Really don't know if we'll be able to uncover more of these vermin." The little fatty Cao Yusheng said.

"Everything was by chance. If we enter the city and try searching one by one, it really will be too difficult." Shi Hao said.

What he said were facts. If those people didn't become corrupted, not taking the initiative to reveal killing intent, it would be extremely difficult to find any clues.

A wave of coldness could be felt from the distance, originating precisely from Immeasurable Heaven's blonde male. He glanced over, giving Shi Hao a cold smile that made one's heart beat faster.

"This person isn't weak, you have to be careful." Chang Gongyan said.

In reality, which one of these foreign experts were ordinary? Otherwise, there was no way they would have the chance to come here. All of them had their exceptional aspects.

"Don't get in our way, or else you'll see what happens!" That blonde male didn't hide his hostility at all, speaking from the distance just like that.

"If you want to die, then just come !" Shi Hao only had these words.

This was just the start, yet they were already standing against each other, fated to clash, only, now wasn't the time. As long as the opportunity presented itself, there would definitely be a battle between them.

"Hold it in, the three great experts do not wish for us to engage in internal friction. If you confront him like this, it won't leave a good impression at all." Someone advised the blonde male.

The city was just like before, people coming and going, all of them descendants of exceptional experts. As endless time passed, more and more creatures gathered here.

During these past few months, that little White Qilin would show itself from time to time, but no one could capture it, only able to see it move about occasionally, leading everyone on.

Soon after, Ten Crown King, Exiled Immortal and the others arrived one after another.

This naturally included Yue Chan, witch, and the others. Powerful groups of people appeared one after another, entering this city.

“Brother Ning, this is your natural luck, I feel like everything was prepared for you!” Gu Jianyun said. He was an ancient freak, but he had always admired Ning Chuan greatly.

Ning Chuan’s silver hair fell down to his waist. His white clothes fluttered about, even his socks and shoes were white, incredibly pure and holy. His expression was calm as he observed this city, not saying anything.

In reality, everyone who understood him even somewhat felt that his opportunity might have arrived!

It was because the patterns on his forehead had always been misunderstood by the outside world as dragon patterns, but they were actually Qilin imprints!

When he was born, divine patterns appeared on his forehead, the irregular scenes astonishing. It was the same for the heavenly diagram on his back, triggering a huge commotion.

Moreover, there was a legend within his birthplace, that a White Qilin was laying low there. All of this seemed to be foretelling that the White Qilin young beast was compatible with him, as if they were destined to be together.

It was because ever since his birth, he had fate with the Qilin, the two’s destinies intertwined.

Shi Hao naturally saw Ning Chuan. This was what he wanted to prevent the most, because when he went on a mental journey back to Immortal Ancient, he had previously seen who the owner of the little Qilin was. It was a young lady, and not Ning Chuan.

In this world, if it was because he had some Qilin aura on him that made him end up becoming intimate with the little Qilin, that would truly be a regretful thing.

“Yi, there is a situation!”

After entering the city, the little fatty Cao Yusheng displayed his specialty, secretly learning about different situations, discovering a few abnormalities.

“That young Qilin beast projection is a bit strange, intentionally concealed by someone. Most of the people here can’t see it.”

They attached great importance to this information, but it was clear that as time went on, the so-called secret couldn’t be considered a secret anymore.

Half a month later, many people all knew about it. When the little Qilin appeared again, it was cheerful and lively, not quite the same as before.

This young beast was too inexperienced, whether it was happy or not completely written on his face. Everyone noticed this change.

Even though that was just its projection and not his true body, it was enough to display its mood.

“Someone is getting close to it, moreover gradually being acknowledged!”

In the end, someone came to this conclusion.

This news was like a clap of thunder, shocking many people.

Was the little Qilin going to recognize an owner? The entire city erupted with commotion, none of the creatures able to calm down because of this. The news was just too shocking.

Many people came for the little Qilin, so this piece of information was too important for them.

This was especially the case for the few who knew the inner details. They were even more shocked.

“Is this going to prove that reincarnation exists in this world?”

“That little Qilin is waiting for someone, and now, that person appeared. What does this mean? Does this mean that Six Dao Reincarnations Immortal King’s suspicions were true?”

This triggered a huge uproar, no one able to sit still.

Who exactly was it that drew the little Qilin’s attention, finally obtaining its recognition and about to come out because of it?

Shi Hao’s mind was pounding intensely. He was looking forward to this, but also apprehensive, feeling extremely nervous. It was because if there really was that person, then he might be able to meet an old friend.

Even though that old friend was someone he had only associated with in his dream back to Immortal Ancient, the emotions he felt were the same as if they had met in the real world. That experience was too realistic.

“Ning Chuan has gone missing, Exiled Immortal and Ten Crown King are in pursuit!” Dragon Girl said. She had an ancient horn on her that was spiritual, displaying a few scenes.

“We will go as well!” Shi Hao released a low roar. He truly couldn’t sit still now.

In reality, this was not only the case for them. The blonde young man and the others from Immeasurable Heaven also moved, turning into an expanse of light, rushing towards the limits of the great earth.

Everyone became a bit stupefied. Could it be that the one the little Qilin was waiting for was precisely Ning Chuan? Now, the two of them displayed some type of response towards each other, thus starting to get close to each other?

“Brother Ning, there is no mistake with your reaction, right?” Gu Jianyun asked, following along. He sped along together with Ning Chuan.

“There is no mistake. It is the one, a true Qilin. The divine patterns on my forehead have sensed that it is going to appear in this world!” Ning Chuan said.

Normally, he was extremely cool-headed and calm, but today, he found it hard to maintain that state. He looked stirred up, his current temperament a bit different from the past.

The distance was extremely far. They moved in the boundless uninhabited region, not letting anything stop them as they continuously ran for several days, long entering the primitive great wilderness. It was incredibly dangerous.

One had to understand that when they entered the forbidden region from the three thousand provinces, they followed an ancient road, so it was comparatively safer, yet even that took the lives of many.

Now, they left that road, entering the most terrifying region.

If they encountered danger, a single bit of misfortune and their bodies and spirits would be wiped out.

In reality, not only them, Exiled Immortal, Ten Crown King, Shi Hao, and the foreign experts all moved, following over.

“Brother Ning, they are all following us. They have secret treasures, able to find our traces. If this continues, they will definitely struggle fiercely with you over the little Qilin. Is there a chance that the hard work will end up all being in vain?” Gu Jianyun reminded.

“That won’t happen!” Ning Chuan was extremely self-confident, saying, “As long as I can meet that little Qilin first, it will be too difficult for anything afterwards to change anything!”

As long as he received the little Qilin’s approval a step before, he didn’t fear anything that came afterwards. No one else could seize the little Qilin from him, he had confidence that he could obtain the young beast’s trust.

Ao wu...

Up ahead, a black-colored tornado swept about, waves of howling noises sounding, making Gu Jianyun shiver inwardly, his scalp feeling numb. His expression was incomparably pale.

“What is that thing?” He vaguely saw a few shadows rush out from the mountain valley ahead, turning into black gales.

“Heroic spirits who died in battle!” Ning Chuan said. He was now scared as well, because the shadows were too strong, exceeding sect master level. When they rushed past this place, a few mountains and valleys collapsed.

Meanwhile, this was just the strong winds they raised while running normally, yet it already displayed this kind of power.

“Don’t move, ignore them, pretend you never saw them!” Ning Chuan reminded.

Dong!

Suddenly, in the mountain forest, muffled sounds rang out. A rotting corpse with enormous black wings on its back walked over from the distance, its body in tatters, feet trampling mountain peaks.

“A supreme being corpse?!” Even Ning Chuan’s expression changed.

What kind of place did they arrive in? Why was there always these types of things? It was too strong! He was sure that that rotting corpse was incredibly powerful when it was alive.

Even now, no one would dare provoke this type of existence. Its body still carried a terrifying aura, and once it erupted, it could strike down the sun, moon, and stars from the skies.

“We arrived, this is the place!” Ning Chuan suddenly stopped his steps. He looked at the mountain forest ahead, not advancing any further.

That place was extremely peaceful, but also extremely strange. There was no wind in this forest, not even the slightest bit of sound.

On the ground were many puddles. Upon closer inspection, they were scarlet in color, pools of blood. It was unknown just how many years had passed, yet they still hadn’t dried up. ~~novel~~ in

Apart from this, there were also a few corpses here, some on the ground surface, some underneath the soil, only parts exposed.

Was this an ancient battlefield? They didn’t know!

“Is this the place? I’ll have a look myself!” It was clear that there were foreign cultivators with sharp divine senses as well, feeling that the little Qilin was nearby. They wanted to seize the initiative, rushing into the mountain forest depths.

Suddenly, the many blood pools on the ground shone, displaying a heaven devouring force, immediately dragging him down from the air.

Pu!

That genius who cultivated immortal energy directly landed on an extremely small blood pool on the ground. His body melted in an instant, becoming viscous blood.

“What?!” All those who saw this scene cried out in alarm.

A powerful genius died just like that! It was just too easy, leaving everyone horrified.

Everyone became silent, not uttering a single sound. This result was extremely cruel, and also extremely shocking.

However, at this moment, Ning Chuan maintained his cool. His forehead shone, becoming more and more hot. The Qilin patterns appeared on their own, resplendent like a blazing sun. he couldn’t hold himself back any longer, because he could sense that the little Qilin was right here, about to appear.

“Qilin!” He released a great cry, activating the patterns on his forehead, resonating with the mountains and valleys here, releasing a great dao divine sound.

As a result, this place immediately became different. Chaotic energy appeared, immortal multicolored light surged into the sky. Everything became hazy, covering this place, wrapping everything within.

In addition, a large mountain in front of them split open, erupting with overflowing holy aura.

Everyone could vaguely see a snow-white little Qilin rush out!

Moreover, what was shocking was that there was a young lady at its side who carried immortal dao aura.

Shi Hao was immediately shocked. The little Qilin really managed to wait until that young lady from the last great era appeared? How could this be possible?!

If it was true, then did this prove that there was reincarnation in this world?

He opened his Heavenly Eyes, wishing to see who exactly this young lady was, if he had ever met her in this world before.

Soon after, Shi Hao became petrified, becoming as still as a clay statue. He stood there, completely at a loss for words.

Only after a long time had passed did he say with a trembling voice, "It's her... it's actually her! Could it be that she underwent reincarnation in this world of mortals?!"

Chapter 1062 - Contest

Mountain peaks collapsed, auspicious light surged, chaotic energy rising.

The young lady walked over in a quick and skillful manner, following behind that little Qilin. It left its place of hibernation.

The immortal dao energy here was extremely thick, white mists surging, clearly a formidable precious land. Even though it had been sealed for endless time, it still looked extremely extraordinary and free from vulgarity.

Shi Hao wasn't the only one, there were others who recognized that young lady. They all revealed cries of alarm one after another.

"Why did this girl end up running here?!" Cao Yusheng widened his eyes, looking like he was staring at a living ghost.

"Did she enter the sealed land ahead of time?" Dragon Girl frowned.

As for the others, for example, the foreign geniuses, they had never met that young lady before. Every single one of their eyes widened as they stared at the little snow-white Qilin, as well as that young lady.

"Great Immortal King! Could it be that the young lady was sealed from Immortal Ancient Great Era, living all the way until now to reappear with the White Qilin?"

"Heavens, a long life being, someone who didn't die all this time, is she going to revive in this world?"

Many people cried out in alarm, finding this result difficult to believe.

She wasn't that old, only looking around thirteen to fourteen, her figure tall and elegant, the silver hair soft and glossy like silk, hanging down to her waist. Her large eyes were like rubies, sparkling and translucent, intelligent as they spun around, sizing up the surrounding situation.

This was a young girl who looked full of life, extremely lively, her expression somewhat playful. She was currently contemplating how to leave this place.

Soon after, she saw the stupefied Shi Hao, and then her large red eyes immediately released radiance, grinning from ear to ear as she said loudly, "Hey, hey, hey, why aren't you hurrying up and saving me? I'm right here!"

She was the little rabbit. For some reason, she ended up running here, moreover right to the little white Qilin beast!

At this moment, she saw the situation clearly, discovering that many enemies' eyes were burning red-hot, so she immediately sought help from Shi Hao.

In that instant, everyone looked over towards Shi Hao.

"There was assistance, this is exactly what I was saying. How could a little girl obtain the White Qilin?" A foreign cultivator said quietly, not fearing that little girl, but they didn't dare look down on Shi Hao.

"How did this little girl obtain the White Qilin's recognition? That is but an existence at the same level as a True Dragon and a Heavenly Phoenix!" Cao Yusheng was the one that found this the hardest to understand.

This pretty rabbit normally always mumbled noisily about how she was a vegetarian, yet in the end, whenever she got drunk, she would always eat meat. However, generally speaking, she wasn't a bad person, and quite cute.

Now, she accomplished this great feat, a bit hard for others to accept.

Cao Yusheng was stupefied, not daring to believe this.

In reality, Shi Hao was even more shocked than him. How did the little rabbit succeed? Could it be that she was the reincarnation of that young lady from Immortal Ancient? noVe.lB-1n

However, he really didn't see how the little rabbit was like that young lady! Their appearances were completely different, and their soul fluctuations were different as well, two completely different people.

If one had to point out how they were similar, then it would be their temperaments. They were both young girls, appearing lively and active, a bit strange, but in the end, their souls weren't the same.

Did the little Qilin make a mistake? Shi Hao began to greatly suspect this. That little beast was muddle-headed, confused by a little rabbit, this was probably why it jumped out.

"Hey, Uncle Shi Hao, did you hear me or not? I've been shouting your name!" The little rabbit was clearly extremely discontent, directly giving him this nickname.

Shi Hao's forehead immediately became covered in dark lines. How old was he? Only around twenty years of age, how did he end up being called uncle?

Even though this rabbit had always been naughty and mischievous, she had never called him this before, so she was now definitely doing this on purpose to anger him.

Dragon Girl laughed up her sleeve, her pretty body moving, giving off a feeling of a lotus swaying in the wind. Chang Gongyan also smiled, waving his hand in that direction.

"It is still Uncle Chang Gongyan who is good, hurry and save me! Right, there's that damn fatty, get your butt over here and save me too!" The little rabbit called over in this direction, revealing her snow-white little teeth as she jumped and shouted.

Chang Gongyan was stunned, Cao Yusheng grinded his teeth in anger.

The Lunar Jade Rabbit was obstructed. Ning Chuan was right at the very center, his expression unkind. He definitely couldn't let her go.

As for the foreigners, they gradually understood from the mouths of the three thousand provinces' cultivators that this young lady wasn't someone of the last great era, but rather this era's Lunar Jade Rabbit. As a result, they also pressed forward to stop her.

At this time, more and more people came. They weren't the only ones, there were also the Exiled Immortal and witch, even more so Ten Crown King. There were also Yue Chan, Shi Yi, Three Stone Heavenly Monarch, and others. All of them now appeared.

It could be said that outstanding heroes had gathered, the young supreme beings that could come were pretty much all here.

"Save me! Don't try to steal my little guy!" The little rabbit shouted, putting on a pale expression. She rushed pitifully towards Shi Hao, Cao Yusheng and the others for help.

The witch laughed with a pu chi sound. Both her and Yue Chan knew that Shi Hao had been called the little guy by the people of the lower realm, yet now, this rabbit gave the Qilin this name, truly hilarious.

"Rabbit, what nonsense are you saying? We're going back, not saving you!" Shi Hao said while pointing at her.

"Did I speak any nonsense?" The little rabbit became unhappy, using her large red eyes to stare fixedly at them!

"Take action!" Someone took action, rushing forward, wishing to capture that young Qilin beast.

Enormous mountains already collapsed here, immortal mist pervading the air, primal chaos spreading in all directions. It looked peaceful, but no one dared to act carelessly. It was because there were still many blood pools here.

There was already someone who ended up falling into the pool of blood, turning into viscous blood.

A Heavenly Wolf surrounded by green light reached out its claws. It tore through the void and leapt over, throwing itself at the little Qilin, wishing to capture it.

It was clear that this was a foreign expert. For the sake of accomplishing its goal, it directly turned into its original body, using its most powerful flesh and magical force to succeed in one go.

Shi Hao moved forward. Dragon Girl and Cao Yusheng also took action, while Chang Gongyan even more so drew his bow, preparing to immediately shoot down the other party.

However, something unexpected happened. There was someone who felt even more worried than them. Ning Chuan took action, pure white radiance erupting from his entire body. Heaven overflowing blood energy surged outwards.

Qilin patterns spread outwards, surrounding his entire body!

At this moment, he produced the Qilin imprint, quickly rushing over. His fist smashed out, collapsing heaven and earth, striking towards that green divine wolf.

“You dare act viciously!” There was someone who assisted the Heavenly Wolf from the side, stopping Ning Chuan.

However, before the Qilin imprint, that person wasn’t a match. The Scarlet Blood Sky Spear it produced was blasted apart, breaking into several pieces.

The sky spear’s sharp blade even flew back in reverse, entering that person’s body with a pu sound, creating an extremely bloody injury, inflicting severe damage.

When one cultivated to this cultivation level, how could they be injured by their own weapon? It was completely avoidable.

This result could only mean that Ning Chuan was too powerful, his natural laws suppressing the other party. His true body was locked down, unable to escape, almost dying as a result.

“Ning Chuan, you are about to enter my Immeasurable Heaven, are you going to stand against us now?” That Heavenly Wolf shouted. This was a reminder, as well as intimidation.

Hong!

Ning Chuan didn’t reply, only releasing a fist that contained the Qilin imprint. Blood energy overflowed, an enormous White Qilin rising up into the air from his fist, throwing itself at the green Heavenly Wolf.

Ao...

That Heavenly Wolf released a great roar, its voice fierce and noble, as if it was leading its clan to war on a boundless grassland.

Irregular scenes appeared in the void. An endless grassland appeared, blood flowing about. An enormous Heavenly Wolf roared towards the moon, releasing the stellar light of the heavens, suppressing and killing all enemies in this world.

An enormous sound rang through the air. Ning Chuan’s fist blasted outwards, his strength too great, blasting through heaven and earth, the space around it vibrating intensely.

The White Qilin that rushed out from the fist imprint trampled the grassland apart, shattered the divine moon. That enormous Heavenly Wolf was even more so thrown down and then forcefully suppressed!

Hong!

A great explosion sound rang out through heaven and earth, everything shaking intensely. Ning Chuan stood there alone, blasting that Heavenly Wolf apart. Chaotic energy surged from all directions. He was like an unmatched supreme being, incredibly divine and holy.

White clothes fluttered about. His body wasn't tainted by any blood, killing a powerful foreign genius with one strike.

At this time, everyone couldn't help but feel shocked at his fighting prowess, feeling even more moved by the precious technique he grasped. It was because this was the Qilin Technique!

Many people's expressions changed, because just ahead, the young Qilin beast became confused, tilting its head over to look at Ning Chuan, its large eyes full of curiosity and puzzlement.

Everyone knew that things were bad. If the young Qilin beast felt a sense of intimacy, it might just run over and completely go over to Ning Chuan's side, walking together with him.

Quite a few people felt like Ning Chuan was a much greater threat than that ridiculously pretty little girl, because he had a tremendous relationship with the Qilin Clan.

Ning Chuan's lips moved, transmitting sound with that little Qilin.

"Little White, come over here!" This time, even the Lunar Jade Rabbit was a bit worried, no longer calling it the little guy, directly calling it Little White, about to carry it.

This little beast was less than a foot in length, entirely snow-white like jade. Its scales were sparkling, even the horn on its head white. It looked tender and innocent, its large eyes blinking about. It was extremely cute.

Only, right now, the little Qilin hesitated a bit. It looked towards Ning Chuan, and then looked at the young lady. It reached out a little claw, having second thoughts.

"Come here!"

A foreign individual shouted. Someone took action, palm and fingers like a mountain, incredibly massive as it reached through the air, grabbing towards the little Qilin. It was precisely the blonde youth from Immeasurable Heaven.

How could Ning Chuan let him get his hands on this? He was also moving, no longer trying to communicate with the little White Qilin and instead directly grabbing towards it.

The young Qilin beast finally made a decision at this moment. When it saw both of those people grabbing towards it, it turned around and ran, entering the Lunar Jade Rabbit's arms with a sou sound.

The young lady smiled happily, its large ruby eyes blinking, extremely proud of itself. She hugged this sparkling white little beast with all her strength.

"Let go!"

Ning Chuan and the blonde young man both shouted, suppressing at the same time, walking forward.

"Get lost!"

Shi Hao roared. His speed was too fast, arriving by the little rabbit's side with a flash, standing there like a majestic archaic demonic mountain.

Then, his left hand produced the Reincarnation Fist, right hand displaying the Willow Deity Technique, simultaneously facing two great opponents.

Dong!

It was as if a heavenly drum sounded, as if the heavenly dome exploded.

This place was immediately in ruins, mountains and valleys collapsing, great void cracks extending outwards. All types of scenes became blurry, no longer existing.

When the smoke and dust scattered, Shi Hao still stood there, unmoved. Only his long black hair fluttered about, eyes deep as he stood in their way. None of the enemies could rush over.

Ning Chuan and the blonde male both frowned. They knew that this enemy was too strong. If they really were going to clash, then it would inevitably be a life and death battle!

Chapter 1063 - Suppressing Foreign Enemies

A group of people gathered here, fighting over the White Qilin young beast!

Shi Hao stood in their way, facing Ning Chuan, the blonde male, and others alone.

"I've decided, this Qilin is already mine!" The blonde male spoke. He declared that he had to have it, that he was going to bring it back to Immeasurable Heaven. For the clan's ancient ancestor, Qilin blood had unimaginable uses. Apart from this, if he became the master of a Qilin, what did this signify? The future would be too brilliant!

"Who do you think you are, that you can have it just because you want it?!" Shi Hao sneered. Even while facing powerful opponents, he didn't seem concerned at all, appearing extremely calm and collected.

"Return to your Immeasurable Heaven, this Qilin and I have karma together!" Ning Chuan also spoke directly towards the blonde male.

"Haha..." The blonde male laughed, not getting angry, instead speaking in a rather carefree manner, "You all should know that the heavenly deity institution will likely be built in Immeasurable Heaven. I really do hope to get along with you all."

"Are you threatening me?" Shi Hao spoke, his expression calm. Even though he didn't show any anger, a formless pressure began to spread.

He hated being threatened by others. It was obvious what the other party was implying. In Immeasurable Heaven, their clans and sects were extremely powerful. If their relationship was bad, there might be various 'accidents' that might happen.

"Aiyaya, too hateful, too shameless, trying to steal my Little White and threatening us, go die!"

The little rabbit stared with its large ruby eyes, brandishing its little fists from behind them. She shouted noisily at the blonde male, her little chin raised as she shouted to beat him.

The atmosphere right now was extremely heavy. The foreign cultivators pressed forward, walking over one by one, standing together with the blonde male to join this battle.

Of course, Immeasurable Heaven had some experts who didn't move, standing in the distance and only watching.

As for Ning Chuan, Gu Jianyun appeared from his side, in his hands a divine sword. There were a few others who walked over as well, wishing to stand together with him. There were ancient freaks among these people!

This place became more and more tense.

Chang Gongyan, Dragon Girl, and Cao Yusheng also walked over, standing with Shi Hao, facing all of these individuals.

Ten Crown King, Exiled Immortal, Shi Yi, witch, Yue Chan, and the others didn't move, standing calmly in the distance, preparing to watch this battle.

"Rabbit, you really know how to stir things up. How did you end up running here, even capturing a little beast?" Cao Yusheng asked. Even though the little fatty looked delicate and pretty, right now, he behaved rather carefreely, saying, "is it a Qilin? When we go back, should we steam it or roast it?"

Ao...

The snow-white little Qilin released a miserable cry, almost running frantically for its life, squirming about in the Lunar Jade Rabbit's arms.

Everyone in the surroundings became petrified. This fatty really dared to say anything, going to eat a Qilin, this joke was just a bit too much. Many people revealed strange looks.

Of course, the surrounding atmosphere loosened up a bit because of this.

"Damn fatty, what are you randomly spouting? Don't scare my family's Little White!" The Lunar Jade Rabbit was unsatisfied, pouting and glaring at him.

"Really should consider it. This is an immortal beast, if it's eaten, it'll definitely be a great mending medicine, comparable to long life medicines." Cao Yusheng giggled.

"Sigh!" Shi Hao sighed. He was also a foodie, but he knew this little Qilin. If it weren't because they were old acquaintances, he really might just express his approval of this thought.

"Fatty, when I grow up, I'm going to feed you to the Heavenly Horned Ant!" This time, the little Qilin spoke, its voice soft, extremely tender. It stared with its two large eyes.

The Heavenly Horned Ant it was talking about was one of the vicious ten, extremely powerful. If it was just physical strength, no race could compare to in in all Nine Heavens and Ten Earths, number one under heaven!

"Why did you end up coming out? Do you think this rabbit is that girl from the past world?" Shi Hao asked the little Qilin.

"I..." The snow-white little Qilin was less than a foot long. It gave the Lunar Jade Rabbit a look, and then looked towards Ning Chuan, its expression a bit strange and complicated.

Before Shi Hao could hear its reply, he had no choice but to take action. It was because those two were pressing forward, this place no longer being calm.

Qiang!

The blonde male was the first to attack. A golden pike appeared in his hands, erupting with a great aura. He held it with a single arm, and then with a fierce shake, the speartip shattered the void!

An expanse of brilliance erupted, shooting out from the golden speartip. It was even more terrifying than sword radiance, producing an expanse of brilliance with a single sweep. The speartip vibrated in a berserk manner as it rushed at Shi Hao.

This spear was powerful enough to kill a heavenly deity. It was too sharp, the sharpness of its tip piercing through space, incomparably terrifying!

This was the blonde male's attack!

However, when faced with this attack, Shi Hao only used his bare hands. He avoided the golden speartip, using his palm blade to hack down on this divine weapon.

Sparks immediately flew in all directions, dao sounds rumbling.

All types of law and order chains interweaved. From the distance, it was as if lightning surrounded this place, sealing that area down.

Several sparks few out, landing on the distant mountain range. As a result, a large expanse of mountains exploded, turning into ashes.

Everyone's expressions changed. This was just too astonishing.

Just the sparks created from the collision of the palm blade and golden war spear was already like this, so how powerful then were the divine chains of order that truly took form between the two?

Both sides were astonished after this exchange. The blonde male was greatly shocked, the other party actually clashed with his exceptional divine weapon with his bare hands, just how terrifying was he?

The reason Shi Hao was shocked was because this golden pike was too unordinary, mixed within it was Immortal Gold!

Qiang!

Shi Hao directly produced the Everlasting Immortal Sword. It wasn't that he wasn't a match bare-handedly against the blonde male, but rather that he felt this was a rare opportunity to further refine the sword core in his hands.

This sword had a great thirst for Immortal Gold, already absorbing several types, for example, Radiant Immortal Gold, Seven Colored Immortal Gold, and others.

Qiang!

The dusky sword core began to shine. As Shi Hao brandished it, it immediately shone with everlasting brilliance. A human figure appeared, ascending to immortality. It was accompanied by specks of light, clouds and mists pervading the air, extremely pure and holy.

At this moment, heaven and earth seemed to have become connected. This figure sprouted wings and ascended, the scene too realistic!

Meanwhile, everything was directly produced by the diagram on the sword core.

Dang!

The two weapons collided. Divine radiance erupted, thunder rolling. Divine chains of order interweaved between heaven and earth, immediately rushing out who knew how many li.

Meanwhile, in the void, there were even more densely packed laws and order tearing everything apart.

Everyone, including Ning Chuan, the little rabbit, foreign experts, and others backed out, moving away from the shockwaves.

Kacha!

“No!” The blonde male cried out. It was because he heard an ear-splitting sound. His weapon cracked open from that sword.

Weapons that had Immortal Gold mixed in were incomparably sturdy, impossible to stop. How could they be cut apart by other weapons?

Yet this was reality. That sword core hacked the pike apart, moreover attaching itself to its surface, taking in and sending out sword radiance, starting to absorb the golden pike’s essence -- Ecliptic Immortal Gold “Ah...” The blonde male cried out loudly, activating his precious techniques and attacking forward, wishing to seize back the long pike. This was a but a rare secret treasure that couldn’t be lost.

However, everything was too late. That sword core was too fast, absorbing the golden pike’s essence in the blink of an eye, only leaving behind useless residue.

Kacha!

The pike shattered, turning into tattered metal fragments, falling onto the ground.

After that sword core absorbed the Immortal Gold essence, it became even more brilliant. Golden lightning appeared above the ascending immortal, tearing apart the void!

That was lightning tribulation, this scene appearing after absorbing the Ecliptic Immortal Gold!

As a result, another type of Immortal Gold was now added to this sword core, or maybe it already had this type, but now had more added. Scenes of tribulation were engraved, appearing more and more realistic.

Everyone became stupefied. This sword core was too strange!

At this time, even the other foreign experts moved. They originally wished to help the blonde male steal back the pike, but they were a step late. Now, they took action with him against Shi Hao.

Shi Hao loosened up his body. He put away the Everlasting Immortal Sword, wishing to use his bare hands to size up how powerful these people were, also using this opportunity to size up Immeasurable Heaven's combat strength. His fists shone, lightning released in ten thousand streaks. He was clearly using the Lightning Emperor Technique!

Dong!

As if a drum was struck, as Shi Hao brandished his fist, this place rumbled, heaven and earth shaking.

Shi Hao fought against those people, facing them all by himself, his figure like a war god. Symbols appeared densely, holy light overflowing, his valor unstoppable.

Peng!

One of them was struck by Shi Hao's fist, his entire chest blasted open as a result. Even though he was wearing precious armor and used body protecting bone texts, he was still struck until he almost exploded on the spot.

This was still the result of Shi Hao holding back, because he didn't know what kind of attitude those three great supreme beings would have if he killed the foreign cultivators like this. They had said not to engage in internal struggles before.

The expressions of the foreign cultivators all became ugly. Shi Hao was just a single person, yet he was suppressing all of them, this made them look extremely bad.

Even the powerful foreign cultivators watching from the distance were startled, really wanting to come over and fight to end this type of embarrassing situation.

Shi Hao unleashed his power, precious techniques continuously changing. Kun Peng wings spread, cutting one person in half at the waist, sending him flying out while releasing a large expanse of blood.

Shi Hao didn't continue to chase after his primordial spirit, so this could already be considered showing mercy.

"Why is he this powerful?!" The foreign young ladies' expressions all changed. They hurried over to provide assistance. Previously, they were still unconvinced, but now, all of their expressions became grave.

The blonde male released a great roar. His body underwent a transformation, his flesh becoming metallic, forming a golden body.

This was the Gold Clan's secret method, their ancestor an Ecliptic Immortal Gold who developed sentience and turned into human form. As a result, his descendents also had this ability.

Dang!

However, even though he formed this golden body, he still couldn't suppress Shi Hao, the battle between the two more and more intense.

Right at this moment, Ning Chuan took action, rushing towards the little rabbit, his speed as fast as lightning. It was because he was worried that after Shi Hao suppressed the foreigners, if he wanted to seize the White Qilin then, it would be too difficult.

“Since this is the case, all of you can just come at me together!”

Shi Hao released a shout. He gave up on the foreign individuals, withdrawing to the little rabbit’s side to stop Ning Chuan.

“Kill!”

Apart from Ning Chuan, the blonde male led the other individuals, also rushing over murderously.

This was a battle between giants, incredibly intense.

After all, there was a Six Crown King, his strength alone enough to shake all sides, able to fight a great battle against Shi Hao.

Chang Gongyan and the others were going to take action, but they were stopped by Shi Hao.

Peng!

Shi Hao attacked selectively, eliminating the weaker individuals first.

With a peng sound, he kicked a foreign cultivator flying, half his body exploding bloodily.

Pu!

Then, Shi Hao’s fist smashed out, blasting two more people until they coughed out large mouthfuls of blood, bodies rupturing, becoming like blood people.

Dang!

The blonde male also felt as if he was struck by lightning, his back struck firmly by Shi Hao’s fist. This fist shook the heavens until it even split apart, let alone the power it released on one person.

Even though the male had a golden body, having some of his ancestor’s Immortal Gold ability, his entire back was still blasted through, immediately exploding apart.

He was struck flying, blood flowing out from all seven apertures.

The foreign cultivators all shivered inwardly. This kind of expert was defeated by Shi Hao just like that, too terrifying. Meanwhile, Shi Hao should have still held back somewhat.

The few foreign females didn’t participate, but all of them turned pale. If this type of young man entered the heavenly deity institution, clashing with the great true immortal’s descendents, what kind of dazzling sparks will be produced?

Hong!

Shi Hao faced Ning Chuan, appearing more and more calm.

“Ning Chuan, when we were in Immortal Ancient Remains, you were beaten until you ran frantically for your life. Do you wish to follow the path to your own doom?!” Shi Hao shouted. nOve.l&(In

When these words sounded, regardless of whether it was the three thousand provinces' cultivators or the foreign experts, all of their expressions changed!

Chapter 1064 - Candidates

Shi Hao faced Ning Chuan, both of them young overlords with three strands of immortal energy. They were stunning figures even if one searched through all of the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths!

The two had already fought many great battles, so they could be considered old enemies. Now, they clashed again, this could be considered opposing each other with equal harshness!

"Huang, I am going to wipe out my previous humiliation with today's battle. Last time, you came to disrupt my tribulation, so today, I demand an explanation!" Ning Chuan shouted. He was normally aloof and free from vulgarity, yet now, he carried killing intent.

In the eyes of everyone, Ning Chuan was like fine jade, his white clothes exceptional, even his hair silver. Together with his ridiculously beautiful appearance that was superior to many females, he looked incredibly outstanding.

Honglong!

The heavenly dome was struck by him until there was a hole, the handsome and exceptional Ning Chuan erupting with power, different from before. He took action in a domineering manner.

His head of silver hair scattered down, eyes forming symbols. He condensed the Qilin imprint, heaven diagram appearing on his back as he slaughtered his way over, fighting intensely against Shi Hao. Brilliant bone texts erupted between the two.

How many people now dared to face Shi Hao head-on? Forget about everything else, just their physical bodies wouldn't be able to hold on, forcibly suppressed by him.

Not many individuals of the same level could compare to Shi Hao's physical body. Facing him head-on was like porcelain smashing into divine steel, they'll instantly shatter. However, Ning Chuan dared to do this.

His bearing was domineering, white clothes fluttering about. It was as if an unmatched Divine King was patrolling the heavens, carrying a type of great dignity in his transcendence, overlooking the human realm.

At this time, when Divine Kings were angered, winds naturally swept about, heavenly dome splitting apart. The great battle was intense.

Chi!

Divine rainbows shocked the skies. These were streak after streak of bone texts, looking like rainbows as they danced about, illuminating the universe.

Kacha!

A resplendent great sun exploded, heaven and earth gorgeous, incomparably dazzling. That was a release of precious techniques. When they smashed together, it was as if a heavenly sun collapsed, just too brilliant.

All sides focused their attention on this, their breathing even stopping. Quite a few people trembled in fear. A confrontation between powerful individuals like this made them see their own inferiority.

If they went up, how could they stop those two? Regardless of whether it was Shi Hao or Ning Chuan, they both possessed the conviction of those unmatched!

Suddenly, a streak of light flew over, severing the heavenly dome, locking down the void, as if time froze still here.

Shi Hao and Ning Chuan were separated, divided into two sides, unable to approach, unable to exchange attacks.

The three great middle-aged supreme beings all came, seated in the void. One of them pointed out, triggering this result, separating the two exceptional geniuses.

“Even in the last great era, people like you two were few. With chaos of war impending, how can we allow internal strife like this?” One of them spoke.

“Chaos of war? I am a sinner’s blood descendant in his eyes, so today, I really want to ask him what exactly that means!” Shi Hao said. He didn’t stop.

The reason he spoke like this was also to hear the three great supreme beings’ opinions. Did they understand the Desolate Border, the sinner’s blood ancestors matter.

“These are all old matters. As for who is what, do not bring them up again.” One of the supreme experts spoke.

“Why?!” Shi Hao really wanted to get to the bottom of this.

The others were also shocked. These two great young supreme beings were competing, yet after they were separated, they mentioned this issue. Moreover, Huang still clung onto it like this.

“There are a few powers that this involves, some of them still alive, previously bearing witness themselves. We will discuss this in the future!” An expert said, seemingly unwilling to continue this topic.

At this moment, great waves stirred about in Shi Hao’s heart. It was because he sensed that this expert seemed to be feeling great restraining fear, attaching great importance to this issue.

“Is it because of those who are still alive, or because of what happened back then, to make him like this?!” Shi Hao was shaken up inside.

When this issue was unmasked, the three great supreme beings treated this matter with silence, not willing to say much, so Shi Hao couldn’t ask about it again.

“Alright, to the Emperor City!”

The three of them spoke, expressing that they completed the task, their performances all very good. They found a few creatures that underwent demonization, and even found the young Qilin beast, so the three supreme beings were extremely satisfied.

It was clear that they had a few things to say, but this wasn't the place for it. They were going to return to that Emperor City.

The three great experts really were too strong. With a wave of one of their sleeves, regardless of whether it was Ning Chuan, Exiled Immortal, or the foreign geniuses, they were all surrounded.

Immediately afterwards, they disappeared from this place together, not a single one remaining.

Emperor City, this place was majestic, boundless, and full of prestige. It was as tall as the heavens, around it the sun, moon, and stars. It was too enormous.

The city walls were made of stars, currently fully displaying their profoundness and vastness. There were even more so the most powerful natural laws flickering, suppressing heaven and earth.

Shi Hao and the others returned, descending here once again. This time, even though they still couldn't enter the enormous city, not having the qualifications to enter, it was still incredibly vast, quiet without any sound.

Since the ancient times, only emperors or talents who had signed the Archaic Contract of Alliance could enter!

Only, when these people entered, they could never return. No one knew what ended up happening to those who disappeared.

Mysterious, boundless, unknown, these were the best words to explain this city.

The group of people returned to the open markets. The cities here could be entered.

"You all may act freely here, inquire about the situation from the creatures living here. We have a few matters to discuss." The three great supreme beings spoke.

They directly brought the Lunar Jade Rabbit and young Qilin beast away, not giving anyone a chance to say anything more.

Not even Shi Hao had a chance to speak to the little rabbit in detail.

All of the geniuses agreed by chance to enter the city. n))o.(v/(e-)l/-b--1-.n

Soon after, Shi Hao discovered a few familiar people. Zhen Gu, Teng Yi, Feng Wu, Zuo Xiaodi, Mu Zixiao, and others appeared. These people unexpectedly also hurried over to this place.

Zhen Gu had the Spirit Race's Golden Bloodline. He had the congealed blood that could form a war spear, this weapon known to be unstoppable. When fighting against others at his level, there was nothing that spear couldn't pierce through in this world.

Teng Yi, the Firegold Clan's most powerful young expert, his clan previously one of the archaic ten great races, a previous era Emperor Clan!

Feng Wu was Goddess Academy's most outstanding inheritor, an extremely powerful exceptional talent, close sisters with Qing Yi.

As for Zuo Xiaodi and Mu Zixiao, they came from Divine Cliff Academy. They came from Flame Province, a place that was extremely close to Goddess Academy.

Aside from them, there were others, all of them old acquaintances he had met. Shi Hao walked forward to greet Feng Wu and the others.

Then, Shi Hao revealed a smile, because he saw Qing Yi. She also came.

Qing Yi did have the strength. Even though she was only a second body, she had long cultivated a strand of immortal energy, obtaining the benefits of the Green Lunar Flame. Her strength was difficult to measure, hard to predict.

It was because the flame hadn't left her even now, fusing with her.

"Qing Yi, we finally meet again." Shi Hao walked forward, his face carrying a gentle smile.

When they were in Immortal Ancient, extremely intimate things had happened. Ever since they separated then, they didn't meet again until now.

In reality, Qing Yi was intentionally hiding from Shi Hao because of embarrassment. The events that took place back then left her ashamed, finding it difficult to accept.

The city was extremely large, people coming and going. However, the reunion of old acquaintances wasn't drowned out by the clamoring of their surroundings.

Of course, for Shi Hao, it was quite joyful, but for Qing Yi, she didn't know what was good.

"Aiyaya, younger sis, you two are twins, I only discovered it now!" A foreign young lady laughed, roping in Yue Chan, and then looking towards Qing Yi.

Yue Chan didn't speak, but she looked at Qing Yi, light flashing past her pupils. She didn't wish to explain anything to the foreigners here.

She couldn't calm down inside. Reuniting like this left her quite conflicted. She really wanted to immediately merge with the second body, becoming one.

However, she knew that it was too difficult. Defeating Qing Yi alone was hard, and then with Shi Hao and the others here, there wasn't much hope.

"Qing Yi, how have you been? Where have you gone?" Shi Hao walked over, staring into her eyes, not avoiding her. He didn't care about what others thought, asking in this manner.

"I've been alright." Qing Yi said. She was quiet and exquisite, extremely beautiful. Her clothes fluttered about, as if the goddess of the moon descended into this world.

Waves stirred in Shi Hao's heart. He thought back to many things in the past, from being enemies to moving side by side, and even more so the various things that happened in Immortal Ancient, his expression becoming strange.

That day, after the intimate relationship, they directly separated. They had previously given each other a hurried glance from the distance, but only now could they be counted as truly reuniting.

"How can you look at me like this?" Qing Yi felt a bit uncomfortable from his fiery gaze.

The city was extremely large, creatures numerous.

They were standing on the street, quite close to each other, but the other geniuses were also nearby.

"Did you forget what you said to me before? We had an agreement." Shi Hao smiled.

"What agreement?" When Qing Yi heard this, her face immediately became red, because she recalled what she had previously said, not forgetting it. Only, now that it was mentioned by Shi Hao, she felt extremely embarrassed, not knowing how to deal with him, pretending to have forgotten.

"Let me help jog your memory, you said that if I entered Immortal Ancient Remains and came out on top, becoming number one under the sky, what was it you were going to do again?" Shi Hao laughed, his face full of radiance, teeth extremely white, smile brilliant.

Qing Yi's face became slightly red. She truly didn't wish to face this situation. This was especially the case in front of Yue Chan, making her feel even more worried.

In reality, Yue Chan felt even more uncomfortable than her, because they had main and second body relationship, able to sense each other's emotions, knowing the other party's thoughts. The emotions Qing Yi produced when facing Shi Hao right now felt as if Yue Chan was experiencing it herself.

However, Yue Chan should hate Shi Hao bitterly, the two sides enemies.

Now that Qing Yi appeared, standing with that fella, it gave Yue Chan a strange and weird feeling, clashing with her own feelings, her emotions complex.

"Don't stay so close to me." Qing Yi said, jabbing Shi Hao's shoulder. It was because the air this fella breathed out almost reached her face.

"Can't you see that I'm waiting for a reply?" Shi Hao said.

"What reply? I forgot what happened back then already." Qing Yi acted shamelessly, a bit different from her usual otherworldly fairy appearance. Right now, she wasn't ice-cold, nor was she otherworldly, instead more like a younger goddess, rolling her large eyes at him.

"You previously said before that after I seized the number one under the sky title, you would devote your life to me." Shi Hao said while giggling.

"As if!" Qing Yi glared at him.

"Hey, you can't just go back on your words." Shi Hao looked at her.

"Back then, it was you who acted like a rascal!" Qing Yi argued.

"What acted like a rascal? It was clearly you who said it." Shi Hao grabbed her jadelike arm, because Qing Yi already turned around to run, about to leave.

"Let go!" Before Qing Yi even said anything, Yue Chan already spoke out, berating in a low voice.

It was because they were just too close. She felt as if it was happening to herself, as if she was the one interacting and talking to Shi Hao.

“What does it have to do with you? Are you sure you want to enter the heavenly deity institution with us?” Shi Hao said. Moreover, he put his arm around Qing Yi’s small waist, turning around to look at Yue Chan.

This... really was torture. Yue Chan found it difficult to endure. At the same time, she felt that if she entered the heavenly deity institution and those two stuck together like that, it would truly be like hell’s torment.

Chapter 1065 - Entering the City

Yue Chan’s expression was unpleasant, feeling more fearful the more she thought about it. If Qing Yi, Shi Hao, and herself entered the heavenly deity institution, that would truly be a result beyond terrifying.

“Qing Yi, last time, we separated without seeing each other, could it be that... you have one?” Shi Hao asked. His skin really was as thick as the Emperor City’s walls, even daring to ask this.

Before Qing Yi even said anything, Yue Chan was already so angry she was shaking. If that day truly came, then it really would be unimaginable.

In that instant, Yue Chan seemed to have seen a terrifying scene, the three of them entering the heavenly deity institution together, and then something like what this thick-skinned bastard said really did happen. At that time, because the main and second bodies were extremely intimate, wouldn’t she feel as if it she personally experienced it?

Yue Chan almost collapsed on the spot. This was just too scary!

Regardless, she had to stop this from happening. She definitely couldn’t allow this type of situation to happen, or else it will feel even worse than death.

“You should stop speaking nonsense!” Qing Yi berated, finally speaking.

“Alright, we’ll talk about it in private.” Shi Hao laughed loudly.

Sure enough, they began to transmit sound. Qing Yi really was scared that this guy might shoot off his mouth and speak nonsense, to the point where she couldn’t endure it any longer and putting her in an awkward situation.

It was also precisely because of this that the nearby Yue Chan released a breath of relief. Otherwise, she felt that if that fella continued speaking, she would definitely be so angry she would start shaking.

“Qing Yi, how come you ended up coming here? Yue Chan, why are you walking together with Shi Hao?” Cao Yusheng giggled. He was intentionally stirring stuff up, calling Yue Chan Qing Yi and Qing Yi Yue Chan.

Chang Gongyan and Dragon Girl smiled, watching the show from the side.

“Hey, you two really are twin sisters. Younger sis Yue Chan, you have to help this little sister of yours out! Staying with that fella really will be endless suffering.” A foreign young lady spoke, her opinion of Shi Hao extremely unfavorable, because he had previously greatly defeated Immeasurable Heaven's people.

At this time, the others also looked over, for example, Zhen Gu, Teng Yi, Feng Wu, and the others.

Shi Hao was quite stirred up, saying, "If we can all enter the heavenly deity institution, leaving this realm, then we'll definitely have to take care of each other. After all, we came from the same place."

"We naturally ought to do this." The others also nodded.

"Younger sis Qing Yi." Feng Wu's relationship with Qing Yi was extremely good. They reunited here, chatting with each other in a friendly manner.

It was clear that this place was immediately divided into several small powers.

For example, the Exiled Immortal's side, Ten Crown King's side, Shi Yi, Three Stone Heavenly Monarch, and others. There was also Shi Hao's group here.

"Older brother!" Suddenly, a voice sounded. A silver-armored young man appeared, walking over.

Qin Hao, he also came!

"You came! How are father and mother? Did they agree?!" Shi Hao was extremely shocked. He didn't expect his little brother to enter the uninhabited region depths, arriving here.

He didn't really want things to be like this, hoping for one child to remain at his parents' side and not completely leave.

However, he released a sigh. He himself recklessly ran over, so how could he require anything of Qin Hao? Only, when he thought of his mother and father, he felt a bit ashamed.

It was because leaving them like this, it was unknown when they would be able to return, unknown how much time would pass in between.

Qin Hao walked over, causing the foreign cultivators to start discussing among themselves. After learning that they were blood brothers, a few people's expressions became strange.

Shi Hao gave them a look, saying, "If anyone wants to stir up trouble after entering the heavenly deity institution, I will personally keep you all company one by one!"

Shua!

Several figures appeared in the void. The three great supreme beings returned, at their sides also the Lunar Jade Rabbit and the little Qilin.

It was clear that they definitely left just now to discuss things with the young beast.

"It's about time. We should decide the candidates, and we should also head on our way." A middle-aged man said.

The three powerful individuals muttered to themselves. They sat in the void, primal chaos surrounding that area, creating an indistinct and hazy expanse.

“Ought to just bring everyone. You all are already biased towards the foreign cultivators, bringing them here, all just to give them another opportunity. Our three thousand province cultivators all hurried here, so we should have already passed.” The little rabbit muttered.

Because she obtained the little White Qilin, they attached great importance to her, standing right by the three great experts’ side.

“Makes sense. There aren’t many cultivators from the three thousand provinces who have made it here to begin with. We’ll just consider you all to have passed then, let’s set out!” One of the middle-aged men nodded, unexpectedly agreeing.

They were actually all considered to have passed, all of them able to continue on their way!

Everyone was shocked and happy. They almost died on the way here, now not wasting all that effort and time. They were quite fortunate, because there were over a hundred thousand when they first set out, but now, only this many people succeeded.

“You all should experience this world a bit for the last time, we are about to leave the Three Thousand Dao Provinces!” One of the supreme beings said.

When they heard this, everyone became silent. They really were going to leave this great world and enter another heaven and earth.

It was unknown how long this journey would take, unknown how many years it would be before they could return. It made them feel sentimental.

After all, this was the place where they were raised, but now, they were going to leave!

“How will we leave?” Not everyone felt reluctant to leave, there were some who were impatient already, wanting to immediately leave to see long life beings.

“There is a path. You all will first understand the Archaic Contract of Alliance, we are departing soon.” One of the supreme beings said.

This time, under these three powerful individuals’ lead, they advanced towards Emperor City, seemingly about to enter the city.

These young geniuses were all stirred up. They already came here a long time ago. When they looked at the ancient city made of star bricks, they felt a great sense of longing, yet couldn’t enter.

Forget about entering the city, there were many ancient formations outside that prevented normal people from even getting close.

However, this time, under the guidance of the three great experts, they arrived by the city gate. Only, it was too tall, towering into the heavens, accompanied by stars.

“Senior, are we going to enter the city?” Someone asked with a trembling voice.

“Correct!” One of the middle-aged individuals replied directly.

The city was too tall, the great gate thick, who could push it open? Endless stars were embedded within, shining brilliantly on this enormous door!

The expression of one of the middle-aged men became grave. He produced a damaged bone, holding it in his palm. The other two were also like this, spreading their palms, within each of them a piece of damaged bone.

The damaged bones were all of the same color, pure white like jade.

When the three of them were combined together, it unexpectedly formed a miniature altar, one that was extremely small and simple. It released faint luster.

Everyone was shocked when they saw that this altar needed all three of them to operate together. One could see just how important this matter was!

Weng!

This small altar swayed back and forth, releasing a mysterious aura. It floated in the air, only around the size of a fist, yet right now, it collected everyone inside.

Everyone was shocked to find that they all shrunk, now standing on that altar.

Chi!

Light shot into the heavens. The group of people were carried by the little altar, disappearing from this place, entering the city.

When they reappeared, the world was dusky. They could only see blurry scenes all around them.

These were plains, vast and boundless, dusky and deathly stillness forever the theme of this place. Aside from their group of people, there wasn't a trace of life.

On the ground were many bones that had long grown dim, all of them dried up.

What was this place?

It was incredibly dusky for as far as the eye could see. This area was completely scorched, as if it encountered lightning tribulation, but also as if it had been set aflame.

Was this the ancient battlefield?

No one knew, only the three great experts would be able to explain, but they didn't say anything.

Dried bones were everywhere. As they walked on them, kacha kacha sounds rang out. Where did the end of these plains lead to?

"Seniors, is this the inside of Emperor City?" Someone asked. This was just too barren, no protectors to be seen, only a grim scene. Just how many creature had died back then, yet were left unburied?

No one expected to see this type of scene. Was this really the inside of Emperor City?

"It is, yet it isn't." One of the middle-aged men spoke.

A bone mirror was produced, reflecting scenes of the distance. Everyone looked at these scenes with shining eyes.

"There are more city walls?"

“Correct!”

In the endless distance ahead were city walls that blocked off all of the outside world.

“There are a few stone monuments here. You all can search for them yourselves to see the Archaic Contract of Alliance recorded on them.” A middle-aged man said, releasing a sigh.

Only, this place was too large, no end to be seen. Where were they supposed to go to find these monuments, to read the Archaic Contract of Alliance? n))o.(v/(e-)l/-b--1-.n

Great waves stirred within Shi Hao, feeling greatly shaken up.

Those people back then, were they unable to leave because they signed the Archaic Contract of Alliance?

One of the archaic Six Great Celestials, War Clan’s ancient ancestor, these people were all over there. Could it be that they were all dead?

Everyone dispersed to search for the stone monuments.

Only, this place was too vast, finding a stone monument was like finding a needle in a haystack.

Everyone immediately disappeared from this place like ants across a great desert. They were too insignificant, no end in sight.

“All of you should watch yourselves, do not walk along this ancient battlefield. A single mistake and you will enter a strange great crack, and thus be directly sent beyond the border, entering the enemy’s world.” One of the great experts reminded.

Everyone already had their suspicions about the Archaic Contract of Alliance. Searching like this was for the sake of verification, to truly understand the secrets it contained.

Unfortunately, they didn’t see it in the end. Moreover, the further they went, the less people there were around them, becoming more and more desolate.

“Yi, not good, there really were people who went missing!”

Right at this moment, the three great experts’ expressions changed. Their divine senses were extremely terrifying, always paying attention, locking down this place. However, despite this being the case, they still lost someone.

Based on normal reasoning, with them here, nothing bad should have happened. However now, there really was a great issue.

“Who is it? Who went missing?!”

They stood up, quickly rushing towards the ends of the dark great earth.

Shi Hao felt strange. He walked and walked, time seemingly coming to a standstill around him, suddenly freezing. It was as if he entered a strange place.

Then, he discovered that he was currently walking on a black passage, disappearing from this ancient battlefield. It was too late to turn around.

Stars moved, time passed, it was as if an eternity passed.

He discovered that he had completely freed himself from that battlefield, leaving the bone-covered remains, entering an unknown region.

“Where is this place?” Shi Hao asked himself.

It was still dusky, the visibility even a bit lower. A black haze floated about, no grass and trees visible between the mountains and valleys, only endless white bones and other things.

Shi Hao sized up his surroundings. He was then shocked!

It was because he discovered an artifact -- the three-footed two-eared cauldron.

This was not the first time he saw it, but before, it was always a void figure, this time a true artifact!

That cauldron had blood sticking to it, source energy swirling about, releasing an astonishing aura. It floated there, not moving at all.

“Desolate Border, why is this cauldron here? Is this really the Desolate Border?!” Shi Hao asked himself.

His heart was beating crazily, feeling extremely nervous. He now saw the real thing. What kind of information was this cauldron going to transmit to him?

Also, what exactly was inside of the cauldron?

Chapter 1066 - From the Future

This cauldron left Shi Hao with too deep of an impression. It was something he had never forgot ever since he first saw it on the damaged altar at the bottom of Immortal Ancient Remains' Black Abyss. However, what he saw back then was only a void image, an imprint previously engraved in the void.

He finally saw it again, and this time, it was a concrete object.

This was a dusky world, a spacious and empty battlefield. The great earth was scorched black, dried-up bones covering everything.

The three-footed two-eared round cauldron released all types of Immortal Gold radiance, and there was even more heaven and earth source energy circling about. As for the inside of the cauldron, it was primal chaos that couldn't be seen through, as if it held the cosmos.

There was blood on the cauldron, dark red and sparkling. Every single drop contained a great world, profound and mysterious, impossible to see through.

Shi Hao believed that this blood was the same as the one he carried, all of them left behind by unimaginable experts!

At the same time, when he closely examined them, he discovered there was more than one type, originating from at least a few people. They were all the essence blood of the most powerful creatures, left behind by unrivaled experts.

This cauldron looked extremely ancient, the diagrams on it extremely blurry, but he could still make out some of them. From the stars to lightning, to divine birds, vicious beasts, and poisonous blood, everything that should be there was there.

Only, quite a few of those creatures were unfamiliar, creatures he had never seen before.

Shi Hao walked towards it.

Hong!

The entire world seemed to have exploded, all because this cauldron moved.

In that instant, Shi Hao felt as if he was almost smashed to pieces, heading towards the end together with this world, destroyed here.

He was shocked. What kind of cauldron was this exactly? It only trembled a bit, yet it seemed like it was going to destroy heaven and earth!

This wasn't a misconception, but rather a true experience. Shi Hao felt that his own mind didn't waver. Just now, there really was that type of bizarre divine awareness.

Fortunately, that was just a momentary pounding of his heart. He didn't die, because this cauldron became silent and still, restraining its aura, locking down heaven and earth.

Exactly how powerful was this cauldron? Who exactly refined it?

Shi Hao stared at it, not speaking a word.

Exactly what kind of person was searching for him, urging this cauldron over. Could it be that an exceptional expert was sleeping inside?

Unfortunately, the cauldron contained heaven and earth source energy, and even more primal chaos. It was incredibly deep, he was unable to see what laid within its innermost depths.

"Why did you look for me?" Shi Hao asked. Right now, he was strangely calm. He didn't show any excessive emotions when facing this unmatched precious cauldron, looking at it calmly.

This vague change left even him even a bit baffled. When facing this unmatched immortal cauldron, he unexpectedly didn't show the slightest bit of reverence.

This cauldron shone, bright colors appearing. Nine types of Immortal Gold interweaved to form this brilliance, and heaven and earth source energy was also released, making it look more and more mysterious and unfathomable.

Inside the cauldron, it was as if a creature rose up, but ultimately dissipated again.

Those drops of blood, the ruby-like emperor blood were extremely brilliant. At this moment, they moved, ultimately releasing sound here.

"I... came early." There were only these words, but it carried the feeling of endless time. There was a sense of loneliness and desolateness, and even more so helplessness, as well as a type of beaten feeling.

He couldn't tell if this was a male or female, because it was better to call this divine will instead of sound.

"Who are you?" Shi Hao asked.

However, this cauldron became quiet, no longer releasing any sound.

It was because right when they exchanged this simple dialog, this heaven and earth erupted. Endless lightning interweaved, accompanied by an unsurpassed aura, about to descend.

Shi Hao was shaken up. What kind of lightning tribulation was this, suppressing all heavenly dao, was it going to wipe out the world?

All of this was only because of their words.

In the sky, lightning radiance hacked down, exceeding everything he had ever seen before. It was even more frightening than the tribulation those trying to ascend to immortality faced.

This cauldron moved, facing the sky. The cauldron shone, nine colors shining brilliantly, guiding over all of the lightning, containing the All Dao Lightning.

An intense sound rang out, heaven and earth collapsing. All of the lightning was absorbed, erased by that cauldron.

At the same time, it released a bit of source energy that spread towards the void, erasing all of the great void cracks, moreover seemingly severing all types of karma.

Shi Hao was shocked as he watched this. What was the meaning of this?

He recalled that in the bone books, it was recorded that unless an unimaginable great change was about to be produced in the universe, unmatched lightning tribulation wouldn't descend.

Just now, he only tried to converse with the cauldron, the other party merely saying a few words, yet there was already this type of scene. It was just too terrifying, impossible to comprehend.

Could it be that if he tried to interact with this cauldron, it would affect the stability of heaven and earth, moving the foundation of this world?

How could this be?!

If a single person talking to him could create this type of scene, Shi Hao really wouldn't know how to think. Just how terrifying were these mysterious principles?

"Where do you come from?" Shi Hao asked.

"I do not belong to the past, do not belong to the present." A voice sounded from the cauldron again.

However, precisely because of its words, the changes to this world became even more shocking. Immortal light appeared streak after streak, the lightning even more so falling like a waterfall by the hundreds and thousands of streaks, unknown exactly just how much there was. All of it hacked over.

Hong!

The cauldron shone, countless patterns appearing on the surface, all of them like formation diagrams, flying up one after another, sealing the sky here, refining the unmatched lightning tribulation!

Shi Hao sighed with astonishment. Who could match this type of method?

The lightning that was accompanied by immortal dao aura was completely refined. Was this cauldron comparable to an Immortal King?

When heaven and earth became calm again, everything calming down, Shi Hao began to think to himself. It was as if there was a great sea raging in his mind, surging violently.

From the cauldron's voice, it was implying that it... came from the future?!

Shi Hao was shocked. Even though he previously already had his suspicions, when he truly faced it, he still couldn't help but tremble in fear.

"You do not belong to the past or present, so you came from the future world?" Shi Hao did his best to calm himself down, but how could he remain calm right now?

When these words were spoken, that cauldron remained silent, not producing any sounds, not replying, remaining deathly still.

However, the the lightning in the void became several times stronger than before. Immortal energy pervaded the air, great dao oppressing the world, as if it was going to destroy everything!

Were the effects of this sentence too great?

It was to the extent where that cauldron couldn't even reply as to avoid an immeasurable disaster from descending.

Shi Hao was truly shocked. If nothing unexpected happened, this speculation was true. It was because the other party didn't speak, so this was tacit acknowledgment, right?

Heavens, he was going crazy! Was this really a creature that came from the future? This was simply unimaginable.

What exactly happened? The future actually had this type of unforeseen event that led someone to come here, talk to him.

He still remembered that the first time he saw this cauldron in the Black Abyss, the engraved message he unexpectedly obtained was that this cauldron came to seek help!

If all of this was linked up together, he truly found it hard to believe. What was going to happen in the future to cause this type of matter to appear?

Shi Hao felt more terrified the more he thought about it. Was the future an expanse of darkness? He couldn't see through it, everything was surrounded by fog. It left him feeling a deep sense of uneasiness, unable to calm down.

Hong!

That lightning finally descended, all because of Shi Hao's questioning.

As a result, that cauldron moved again. This time, it was hacked until it trembled greatly. The dark red blood on its surface shone, producing large amounts of scarlet multicolored light, neutralizing the dangerous situation.

Shi Hao didn't move at all. His eyes widened, his back cold. He couldn't even say anything, unable to converse with this cauldron.

If he said something, it would provoke a huge disaster!

It was because he saw that even this cauldron became quiet, not saying a word. It clearly felt restraining fear, fearing that an even greater problem would arise.

In this type of situation, Shi Hao could only think about it himself, guess at what would happen in the future.

In that instant, his thoughts flew about, not only thinking about the future, but also about the last great era.

"If I was in the future and looking to the past, what would I want to do?" He asked himself.

What happened already couldn't be changed, impossible to alter, so returning to the past from the future, what exactly did the cauldron wish to accomplish?

Shi Hao thought for a long time, saying to himself, "If I returned to the past, I would only wish to understand my enemies, understanding the termination of Immortal Ancient Great Era, to see if there is a way to suppress those enemies."

Shi Hao was trying to use an analogy, using this type of method to guess at the motive behind those of the future returning to this time, taking a guess at what they needed.

"Could it be that our great era was destroyed, reaching its end, various creatures all dying? A new great era started in the future, and they wished to understand the circumstances here?" Shi Hao said to himself.

When he thought of these things, Shi Hao felt a wave of disappointment and frustration. Were they still going to follow the same path as Immortal Ancient Great Era? Was this world going to be defeated, all of the creatures about to reach their end?

In the outside world, the three great supreme beings were searching about. This type of circumstance was too strange, a genius disappearing just like that, mysteriously going missing right before their eyes.

Even though their divine senses were exceptional, able to look down on the Three Thousand Dao Provinces, right now, they were left rather embarrassed. This situation left them rather frightened.

There was definitely a mysterious wave of power that appeared, bringing away that youngster. It was more powerful than the three of them, or else it definitely wouldn't have escaped their detection.

"Could it be that a creature in Emperor City took action?"

"Are those people still alive?"

They said to themselves quietly. They looked towards the second set of grand city walls, their hearts pounding. Otherwise, how could this be explained?

“Regardless, that type of power definitely exceeded ours. If someone intentionally interfered, then it is still best if we do not go to test our luck.”

After discussing this matter, they came to this decision.

“Let’s go, we ought to return and leave the three thousand provinces, depart from Emperor City.”

The three great experts came to this decision, and then they began to transmit sound, summoning those geniuses, informing them that they were going to cross over great worlds.

Only, there was still one person missing. The three great supreme beings felt inwardly ashamed.

Finally, they left!

Meanwhile, in that dusky world, Shi Hao was still talking to himself, trying to communicate with that cauldron, wishing to understand everything.

Only, that cauldron no longer released any sound, while Shi Hao also carried restraining fear, unable to smoothly understand those matters.

As for whether that cauldron came from the future, after calming down, Shi Hao already believed it. He knew that there were definitely creatures with this type of great divine ability in this world, able to temporarily disturb the flow of time.

For example, Without End, Six Dao Reincarnations Immortal King, when these two worked together, they had previously sent him on a mental journey to the past. It was unforgettable, the experience deeply engraved in his heart!

Since it was possible in the past, then this type of matchless expert could definitely appear in the future as well!

Shi Hao sighed, and then said, “In the future, where am I? Could it be that I no longer exist, falling along with the end of this great era?”

He looked towards the cauldron, and then into the distance. The world became overcast, black haze spreading. The white bones on the ground were like snow, piling up everywhere.

Did this foretell his future in this great era? Lonesome, dark, lacking hope.

“I refuse to believe it!” Shi Hao said coldly. “I won’t die, I will definitely transcend and become undying, killing all enemies from past and present!”

Following these words, that cauldron shook, shining with incomparable brilliance, as if it was resonating with him, feeling deeply happy.

“What exactly do you wish to tell me?” Shi Hao asked.

Regardless of whether it needed help or was trying to communicate with him, this cauldron should have something it wanted to tell him, only, it was unable to say it clearly.

“That battle, I wish to see you!” Suddenly, a sound was transmitted from that cauldron again. At this moment, it used up a tremendous amount of power, holding back the profound and hidden natural laws, telling him this!

Hong!

Shi Hao’s entire body trembled greatly, as if he grasped something, about to see a mysterious scene.

At this moment, between heaven and earth, endless natural laws interweaved. Lightning accompanied by immortal energy began to frantically surge.

Chapter 1067 - Other Side of the World

An expanse of lightning immediately hacked down, heaven and earth blasted through. The boundless battlefield was drowned underneath, everything about to be destroyed. Shi Hao felt that this type of lightning was too terrifying, any streak enough to blast through a great province. If it happened in the three thousand provinces, the results would be too horrible to even contemplate.

The cauldron rushed over again, and as if it was severing karma, cut down natural order, eliminating something.

In the end, the most terrifying immortal dao lightning Shi Hao had ever seen disappeared, all of it turning into a rain of light, thus scattering.

However, this cauldron became a bit dimmer, the blood beads on its surface rolling about, strange brilliance shining, but ultimately returning to darkness.

This cauldron was too powerful, hacking away the lightning. However, it also paid a great price!

Shi Hao knew that the reason why destructive power appeared was completely because of him and the cauldron’s conversation. The great mysteries affected the world’s balance and stability.

He felt a sense of uneasiness inside. What exactly was the future going to be like? This cauldron came from the future to find an ‘ancient person’ like him, proving the severity of the situation. It reached an unimaginable degree.

Right now, they only spoke a few simple sentences, not touching the core matters yet, not conversing without any restraint, yet there was already this type of scene.

Shi Hao understood that they couldn’t truly communicate. Even this roundabout, barely touching upon the topic way already created this result.

If they really spoke what they wanted, that would definitely cause devastating effects!

Doing things like this will change history. It affected too much.

It was because this cauldron came from the next great era, returning to this so-called past. The cause and effect this produced was great to an unimaginable degree!

For later generations, now, everything already happened, impossible to change. Forcefully sending a cauldron back like this would only allow them to watch, unable to change anything.

Otherwise, there was no place for it in the heavens or ten thousand worlds.

The things that already happened couldn't be changed, time long announcing its verdict.

Even if the future people's magical force was heaven overflowing, they were still helpless to change anything. They sent this cauldron back, but if they tried to forcefully interfere, even if this cauldron was the number one artifact throughout time, it would still be destroyed.

"They carried great hope, but in the end, still couldn't tell me everything, having me slowly guess at the truth." Shi Hao looked at the cauldron, releasing a light sigh.

Even though this cauldron said that it hoped to see him in that battle, this information didn't really allow him to decipher the most important things.

Meanwhile, he believed that this cauldron couldn't release anything more, only able to guide him like this.

"I already saw a corner of the future, an endless desolateness, a bleak world, accompanied by the divine dao alone, that is my situation. Nothing existed any longer, even Willow Deity dead, turning into scorched wood behind me, my back facing it as I sat there." Shi Hao said to himself. This was the scene he previously saw. n(-o-.v/-e(-l(-b.)1/n

"Is this the end? If you come from the next world, those of that era should understand these things right?" Shi Hao asked, his face expressionless.

However, this time, the simple and ancient cauldron didn't reply. This wasn't a tacit acknowledgment, nor was it opposition.

It seemed to be in doubt, analyzing something.

It was because the emperor blood on the cauldron walls were shining, flickering about rhythmically, continuously fluctuating.

Shi Hao narrowed his eyes. Even though he felt unwillingness, he didn't feel dispirited. He was feeling out what the future was going to be like!

However, because of this cauldron, he found it a bit difficult to calm down.

The matters pertaining to him, to this great era's situation, could it be that even the later generations were unclear?

After this great era ended, where would he be?

Would he be dead? Or would there be some type of unforeseen event?

Shi Hao said to himself, "It seems like there are many things that should be spoken to me, or else there wouldn't be a need for you to come this far."

Only, he saw a corner of the future. Was that the final result? He clenched his fists tightly, unwilling to accept it.

If everything became deathly still, the entire world destroyed, leaving only him behind, what meaning was there left in survival? His friends, loved ones, and even enemies would all be dead. A gloomy world like that was too frightening.

"I can change everything! That isn't the future, not the end!" Shi Hao said.

This cauldron swayed about, as if nodding, but also like it was withstanding tremendous karma.

Chi!

Suddenly, it moved, tearing apart this void, rushing forward, thus disappearing from Shi Hao's sight.

This made him stare blankly. This cauldron led him here, but left without any reluctance in the end, everything happening so suddenly.

He released a sigh. In the end, he still wasn't strong enough. If his strength shocked past and present, then he could grasp everything, perhaps even forcefully making that cauldron stay behind.

"Right, it said that it came too early. What it wished to meet, to wait for is naturally not my current self. It is definitely the most powerful me." Shi Hao understood.

Only, how was he supposed to go back? This shouldn't be the region he was at before.

Shi Hao's divine senses were extremely sharp. He knew that the path he followed to arrive in this strange and spacious battlefield was likely inside Emperor City, but he was now too far from the three great supreme beings.

"It left, but the crack is still there, not closing."

Shi Hao saw the radiance ahead. This was the aftermath left behind after the cauldron disappeared, multicolored light shining brilliantly. That place's void had a crack that was unexpectedly still vibrating.

Shi Hao knew that this cauldron wouldn't harm him.

If there was danger, it wouldn't leave this path behind. Was this to guide him?

Perhaps this was all it could do. If it forcefully interfered any further, it might just trigger karma not even the Immortal Cauldron could counteract.

Everything was dusky, not a blade of grass growing on the scorched earth, dried-up bones everywhere. They were left behind from endless years ago, unknown just how many heroes ended up dying in battle here.

In the darkness, only that brightly colored brilliance was the most striking, bringing light to this world of death.

With a shua sound, Shi Hao rushed through.

Immediately afterwards, he smelled the fragrance of flowers, heard bird cries. The grass and trees were fresh, a place of green hills and clear waters, spiritual essence undulating about.

Shi Hao was stunned. This type of scene was completely different from what he expected. It wasn't deathly still, not a scorched earth, no corpses, only thriving life force.

The cauldron disappeared. Shi Hao was faced with an expanse of lush greenery. Auspicious light flickered about, appearing extremely auspicious and peaceful.

“What kind of place did I enter?” Shi Hao felt a wave of distractedness. The difference between the previous place and this one was just too great. Just now, he was still in an ancient battlefield, and now, he was in a pure land.

The brilliant light behind him disappeared, that void crack closing, thus disappearing.

Was this a spatial node? Shi Hao glanced backwards, remembering this place. He might have to make use of this place to return.

He wanted to see just what kind of place he ended up entering. He didn’t fly out of fear of being suppressed by mysterious laws. It was clear that this world was extremely unordinary, bringing him a sense of vastness and grandness.

It was as if a great dao had descended, bringing him a great pressure within the auspiciousness and peacefulness.

Chi!

Suddenly, a little bird that was still crying out turned into a streak of green light, flying towards Shi Hao, its speed just too fast.

Dang!

Shi Hao blocked with his arm. Sparks unexpectedly flew out between his palm and fingers, keng qiang sounds released, as if metal was striking against each other.

This left him shocked. It was just a palm-sized little bird, so how could it have such strength, moreover such a tough body? It was inconceivable.

With a green flash, this bird withdrew, leaving behind a string of afterimages like a ghost. It landed on a mountain peak not too far away, staring fixedly at him.

Shi Hao narrowed his eyes, opening his Heavenly Eyes to stare at it.

Its speed just now was too fast, so he didn’t notice anything before. Now, he saw everything. Soon afterwards, Shi Hao sucked in a breath of cold air. This was a species that did not exist in the Three Thousand Dao Provinces!

It wasn’t large, but its appearance was rather strange. Its bird beak was like a True Dragon, curved and shaped like a dragon, too abnormal!

Apart from this, there were a few vague skull-like diagrams on its green wings. They were naturally formed and not artificially produced.

“Dragon-Beaked Death Bird?!”

Shi Hao didn’t dare believe what he was seeing. He recognized it, but this was a species that didn’t exist in the present world, long going extinct. This was a demonic bird recorded in bone books.

It was too archaic, so ancient that only a few could be found at the start of this great era. However, they became extinct soon afterwards.

Yet, it was rumored that in the last great era, they were a powerful race. Even though they weren't large, they possessed rather terrifying comprehensive strength.

"What kind of place did I end up running to? Why am I seeing this type of creature?" Shi Hao was confused.

It was because from what he understood, the world in this great era had long undergone a great change, the laws and order different. Many creatures couldn't adapt, disappearing along the great river of time.

Many of Immortal Ancient Great Era's creatures went extinct, unable to adapt to this world.

Even after the Three Thousand Great Dao Flower Petals linked up Immortal Ancient Remains, this type of Demonic Bird had still disappeared, not adapting to the world's changes, the entire species wiped out.

It could be said that this type of bird shouldn't exist in this world at all.

Yet before his eyes, this notion was toppled.

This Dragon-Beaked Death Bird was clearly ridiculously powerful!

However, Shi Hao also noticed that its eyes were red, different from the emerald green that was recorded. It was too striking, flickering with a type of strange and terrifying radiance.

This made Shi Hao's mind jump. He couldn't help but associate this with Immortal Ancient Great Era's battle.

Back then, those intruders were just like this, their eyes scarlet red like blood, as if they had undergone demonization.

Shi Hao was shocked. He made a terrifying association.

"This place I came to, don't tell me it's that world?!"

If that was true, then it was just too shocking.

However, he then shook his head with all his strength. This really was a bit too unrealistic. The Desolate Border was difficult to break into, not easy to cross.

However, that cauldron... perhaps had this power, this was what he thought.

Chi!

Green multicolored light flashed. That bird flew over again, inconceivably fast. Moreover, at this moment, it displayed a dao method, draconic cries sounding unendingly. The bird beak shone, releasing dragon-shaped light blades, hacking murderously towards Shi Hao.

Normal heavenly deities would die on contact! Shi Hao sighed.

He used all of his strength, finally using the Kun Peng Technique, suppressing this bird. He was going to get to the bottom of this, ask it about this place.

However, something shocking happened. When the bird was suppressed, its blood pupils went dim, and then its body began to rot. Then, its feathers turned into ashes.

Not long afterwards, it completely turned to dust.

It seemed to have experienced an eternity in that instant, body and spirit erased.

Shi Hao searched around this place, discovering that this demonic bird was the nearby overlord. All of the creatures survived under its rule.

However, this region was extremely strange. All of the vicious birds and ferocious beasts that lived here had scarlet red eyes, impossible to tame. Once they were injured, they directly turned to dust.

“The other side of the world, did I end up in the enemy’s territory? I am going to get to the bottom of this!”

Shi Hao’s heart was pounding. The unexpected trip made it hard for him to calm down. He had been speculating what the enemy was like this entire time, what kind of backgrounds they had. Now, he might have found a chance, perhaps able to learn about a few things soon.

Chapter 1068 - Desolate Border Creatures

Shi Hao walked forward, leaving this primary area. He felt rather nervous. Did he really end up on the other side of the world?

This place was lush with plant life, spiritual spring murmuring, the cliffs steep.

When Shi Hao rose into the air, he discovered that the natural laws of this world were different, vaguely suppressing him, but it wasn’t that big of an issue.

“The world is different, the natural laws of heaven and earth different, I... really crossed the Desolate Border?!” He couldn’t believe it.

Numerous purple mountain peaks appeared. The spiritual essence of this place was especially rich, some of the springs and pools made completely of spiritual liquid, sparkling and translucent.

A fragrance assailed the nostrils, many medicinal herbs he had never seen before growing in this region, releasing their sweet fragrance.

“Don’t tell me that I ended up barging into a great figure’s medicine garden?” Shi Hao said to himself. It was because he could clearly smell the aura of holy medicines, with a chance of even divine medicines being here.

Sure enough, after walking into this purple mountain region, he immediately saw a stalk of Golden Ginseng. It was as thick as an arm, golden and shining, flowing with holy light.

“Really as the radish! If that little rabbit saw this, she would definitely be crying out.” Shi Hao thought of the Lunar Jade Rabbit, that young lady loved to chew on holy ginseng the most.

When he thought of her, he naturally couldn’t help but think of that young Qilin beast. What exactly was going on? He still never had a chance to ask her.

Following a light sound, Shi Hao gently removed the Golden Ginseng. Not including the golden lateral roots, just the main root was two feet long, surging with spiritual essence, golden radiance shining brilliantly.

A rich fragrance wafted outwards. When one inhaled this scent, it would make them feel extremely comfortable.

“En?!”

Soon after, he discovered that something wasn't right. Relying on intuition, he fiercely dug up the soil.

“Ah...” Shi Hao released a cry of alarm. For him, this was an extremely rare thing. It was just too shocking.

He directly threw aside the Golden Ginseng, feeling sick, extremely uncomfortable. He immediately rushed over to the spiritual spring to wash his hands, regretting his action just now greatly.

Below the soil was a corpse. Even after endless years, the bones still haven't decayed, the flesh dried up, a layer of old skin wrapped around the bones.

It was clear that this was an expert, moreover an extremely powerful figure.

It was because Shi Hao could tell with a glance that this was a great figure from the archaic era. Even after endless years had passed, his corpse was still preserved, truly not simple.

This Golden Ginseng took root precisely on this corpse, growing on top of it.

Shi Hao felt extremely strange, at the same time unwell. Holy medicines usually grew on spiritual and refined places, how could it take root on a corpse?

The only fortunate thing was that he didn't randomly eat it. If he truly took a bite, then he would really feel regret then.

Shi Hao studied it a bit. This golden holy ginseng root wasn't much different from that of the three thousand province's, similarly rich with spiritual essence. Based on his suspicions, the medicinal effects shouldn't be much inferior.

Shi Hao walked to the mountain region, and then he immediately became petrified. He saw stalk after stalk of holy medicines, their numbers not few!

These holy medicines were a bit familiar, but he had never seen most of them before. At the very least, they had long gone extinct in the Three Thousand Dao Provinces!

Shi Hao carefully analyzed them. These were all rare species, if he didn't guess wrong, they should be holy medicines that had long become extinct in Immortal Ancient Great Era.

The era was different, the laws of heaven and earth changed. Many creatures became extinct, this naturally included medicinal herbs and others.

They still existed here!

He became more and more certain that this might be the other side of the world he resided in.

Pu!

With a light stamp of his feet, the ground surface ruptured, the earth and rocks flying up. Shi Hao could clearly see that what rested beneath a stalk of holy medicine was a skeleton, terrifyingly sinister.

Could it be that they were all like this? This was a bit terrifying!

Sure enough, when Shi Hao brandished his palm, causing the mountain region to split open, he was stunned. There were skeletal remains everywhere underground, especially the places with holy medicines, all of filled them with ancient skin and bone corpses.

All of the holy medicines took root on their bodies, absorbing spiritual essence, growing like this.

In reality, these skeleton remains didn't only produce a single batch of holy medicines. They had always been used like this.

Shi Hao researched these ancient corpses seriously. His mind pounded. These creatures were just too powerful when they were alive. Just how many years have passed? Yet they still carried divine force fluctuations.

"How cruel, unable to obtain rest even after death, used like this!"

Shi Hao clenched his fists. It was because he saw that these corpses were the same as the races he had seen in bone books, belonging to Immortal Ancient's people, originally people from the Three Thousand Dao Provinces!

Only, it was unknown if they were captured or if they died in this world, ultimately becoming nourishment for growing holy medicines.

Just how cruel of a thing was this? They were originally the most powerful experts, yet they had this type of lamentable conclusion.

Shi Hao left this purple purple mountain region, entering an even more vast mountain range. Ancient trees were everywhere, ancient vines coiling around mountains.

Hong!

Shi Hao sent a palm out. Mountain peaks collapsed, rocks flying into the sky. Immediately afterwards, his pupils rapidly shrunk, revealing murderous intent.

His suspicions were true; there were white bones everywhere even below the ordinary mountain region. There were several hundred zhang tall giants, a foot long purple golden rat, but they had already become dried up bones.

What kind of place was this, for there to be skeleton remains everywhere beneath the surface?

Was this a past battlefield?

Shi Hao's face fell, because these creatures should originally all belong to Immortal Ancient Great Era, that world's creatures, yet now, they were all lying here.

Fortunately, there weren't many formidable creatures here, only that Dragon-Beaked Death Bird who ruled this vast mountain range.

Shi Hao continuously examined this place, verifying that this mountain was full of white bones.

Then, he went on his way, sticking close to the mountain forest. He turned into a streak of lightning, rushing into the distance.

He wanted to find a city in this realm, wishing to see what kind of people resided here.

Finally, he left the mountain range region, entering a field, seeing signs of activity. There were creatures moving about here.

Shi Hao immediately moved. He really wanted to know what the enemies that were trying to invade his world were like. He didn't believe those red-eyed creatures were the only enemies.

The main culprits!

He wished to see the main culprits, the ones known as the most powerful enemies, just what kind of races they were!

"En?" Soon afterwards, Shi Hao seized a figure, a humanoid creature.

He really wanted to take action and capture this person and carefully study it. However, the sound of space shattering transmitted from the distance. Eight hundred zhang long silver centipedes pulled a war chariot, rising up into the air, incredibly grand and imposing.

Shi Hao was shocked. Those eight centipedes were unordinary, their hundred zhang bodies surging with poisonous mist. Their silver shells were awe-inspiring, all of them heavenly deities.

"How powerful!"

Shi Hao really was quite shaken up. To have heavenly deities pull the carriage, this was just too great of a display of extravagance, right? He definitely never saw someone act like this in the three thousand provinces!

As a result, he didn't act too recklessly, allowing them to depart into the distance.

"Hehe..." He heard a young lady's laughter from that war chariot, leaving him stunned.

The expert that had eight heavenly deities as servants was a young lady? This was a bit hard to comprehend.

"Or is this to say that she is a servant girl, and there's another powerful individual?" Shi Hao wasn't sure.

Only, based on his intuition, that young lady was likely the master of the carriage, because that laughter carried self-confidence, not the laughter of a female servant trying to curry favor.

"This place has powerful individuals, definitely a special place!"

Shi Hao didn't stay here. When that war chariot left, he appeared again, and then quickly rushed into the horizon.

Soon after, he saw a city that was extremely large, towering in the limits of the horizon.

This was an ancient city, the style a bit oppressive.

The entire enormous city was a pitch-black color, made from a type of mysterious ore. It was as if a black-colored vicious beast was laying dormant, its aura majestic and boundless.

“En, what kind of race is this?” Shi Hao narrowed his eyes. He didn’t recognize them, never seeing them before in the three thousand provinces.

They weren’t humanoid, similar to reptile people. Their lower halves were like Flood Dragons, scales a deep color, claws sharp, their upper bodies humanoid. There was also a pair of black wings behind them.

It was precisely this type of creature that guarded this city. In addition, when Shi Hao looked into this city from afar, he saw many similar creatures inside.

This was a city that belonged exclusively to this race, unfortunately, Shi Hao didn’t recognize them. There were no recordings even in the bone books.

“Could it be that these are the terrifying enemies that stand against us? They seem to be of the more vicious sort, hard to reason with.” Shi Hao said quietly, observing them a step further.

When those creatures opened their mouths and spoke, they used an ancient language that was rather complex, carrying coronal consonants, impossible to understand.

Shi Hao narrowed his eyes slightly, carefully thinking to himself for a long time. He didn’t enter the city, deciding to leave.

It was because he was just too different from these creatures in appearance. Even with the Seventy-Two Transformations, they might still be able to tell if he entered rashly.

It was because some species were too sharp towards creatures of other species.

Shi Hao left this region, crossing the plains, heading on his way again. As a result, he discovered another city, the scale even larger, even more grand.

Soon after, Shi Hao’s eyes widened!

It was because the species in this city were too familiar. They were just like him, human race!

There was definitely no mistake. It was to the extent where he could even see their flesh, blood, and bones with his Heavenly Eyes. There wasn’t the slightest bit of difference.

“The so-called enemies, they are actually the same species as us?”

There were quite a few experts in this city. As a whole, they were more powerful than the race he saw just now.

Shi Hao became momentarily absent-minded. A moment later, he disappeared from this place, quickly moving through these plains, wishing to fully understand the situation.

Soon after, he discovered more than ten ancient cities, all of them with powerful experts overseeing them. There were seven or eight races, half of these cities grasped in the hands of the human race.

The relations between these cities were still rather peaceful, all of them speaking the same type of ancient language.

Shi Hao's brows locked together deeply. This was a bit different from what he had imagined. This was the enemy? He found it a bit hard to believe, feeling like there was something wrong!

Soon after, Shi Hao took action, catching one or two creatures outside the city.

These two creatures' strength wasn't great, only ordinary humans. Shi Hao wasn't really willing to take action against those with strength that was too great, because that would easily cause trouble and problems.

Meanwhile, even if these small figures disappeared, it likely wouldn't draw too much attention.

He frowned, because these were the lowest level creatures who didn't understand the fundamentals of this world, unable to provide Shi Hao with any valuable information.

However, his return was still acceptable, because after reading these individuals' divine senses, he learned their ancient language, as well as understood a bit about this world's social customs.

Shi Hao changed into this world's clothes, and then swaggered towards a giant city belonging to the human race.

He was quite successful, not drawing any suspicion. Shi Hao smoothly entered the loud and bustling streets.

Shi Hao took up residence, not immediately searching around.

Only a few days later when he completely familiarized himself with a few issues he had to pay attention to did he start to take action.

Through indirect approaches and casual chatter, Shi Hao obtained extremely valuable information that left him shocked.

"We have to fight our way over sooner or later. After losing most of the spiritual earth, we have to defend our honor, seize it back!"

"I heard that nowadays, those places have been beaten quite badly, now called the Nine Heavens Ten Earths."

When he heard their words, Shi Hao's mind went cold.

"Hey, we are the fiends? Bullshit, they are the real monsters. That world originally belonged to us, but was invaded and occupied!" An elder roared in grief.

Shi Hao was stupefied. What kind of words were these? It was completely different from what he had imagined!

Chapter 1069 - Searching for Truth

Shi Hao really wanted to ask why the elder roared like this. This was completely different from what he understood, to the extent where it was basically the direct opposite.

The city was extremely large, piled up with black enormous rocks that flickered with cold radiance like metal. It was a bit suffocating.

However, the city was quite lively, people coming and going, and endless stream of horses and carriages coming and going, extremely bustling.

When that topic was mentioned, many people became stirred up, feeling quite unsatisfied. Based on what they said, they were the true owners of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. They were forced to leave against their will, chased out from their homes by devils.

Shi Hao carefully examined them. These people were indeed no different from the human race, not different species.

Since they were the same race, why did they call the people of the other side of the Desolate Border devils?

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths' geniuses should be the ones with the right to call the people here this term, because once these people crossed the Desolate Border, it represented destruction, the end of a great era.

They all said that there was an Immortal Ancient, who knew if there were other great eras before then? They were all destroyed, forever buried.

This was like a reincarnation, but also a type of predestination. Now, it was this era's turn, everything destined for destruction.

When he thought this situation, Shi Hao was a bit angry. It was clearly these people who wanted to destroy the Three Thousand Dao Provinces, so why did they play the victim? n)-o.)V/)E-/l)/b..l--n

At the very least, from what he understood, the three thousand provinces had always been on the defensive, never attacking this side of the world, the situation miserable.

As a result, Shi Hao began to move secretly, capturing a few people and searching their consciousness. He discovered that all of them were of the same beliefs.

"Just where does the problem lay? Which world is speaking lies?"

Shi Hao firmly believed that the three thousand provinces were the victims. After all, even now, they were about to face a fate of death.

In the following days, Shi Hao continuously investigated. He blended into these natives, interacting and understanding the situation from them.

"There are some that are strong, but there are also those that are weak. Generally speaking, they aren't too much stronger than my three thousand provinces, so what are they relying on to destroy the Nine Heavens Ten Earths?" Shi Hao asked himself.

It was because he had traveled through many mountains and valleys, entering many enormous cities, coming into contact with powerful clans one after another.

He couldn't help but admit that some of the clans were ridiculously powerful, but they still didn't possess the power to overwhelm the other side of the world, right?

Many of the great clans were clans that had existed since Immortal Ancient Great Era. Now, they had long disappeared from the Three Thousand Dao Provinces. The appearance of any of these clans in the other world would trigger an uproar!

This really was something that toppled everything he knew. The so-called extinct, so-called no longer existing was all fake. They were still quite prosperous!

Shi Hao had a strange feeling. Just who were they fighting against, who was their enemy?

One had to understand that in the last great era, these creatures existed in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, forever buried by the enemies on this side.

Only, he didn't see the corresponding enemies, only seeing the originally extinct ancient creatures.

This made him shiver inwardly. He recalled the scene of his mental journey back to Immortal Ancient, these were all creatures that had been targets of destruction. Even though those enemies were wrapped in mist, he could see that some of them were large, some of them humanoid, all of them with their unique characteristics.

Where were those enemies?

Shi Hao stared blankly. After coming to this side of the Desolate Border, he had never seen any enemies, only seeing ancient people that should have originally disappeared from existence.

"I am going to get to the bottom of this." Shi Hao said.

Then, he began to wander about, visiting many ancient lands. As for those public libraries and others, they were almost completely rummaged through by him.

For an entire month, Shi Hao immersed himself in a special state, continuously searching about, hoping to find the truth.

His search wasn't completely fruitless. He finally saw a line of text on a steep cliff: The truth has been destroyed in history!

Towards the creatures of this world, this didn't count as much, because it was just a line of complaint. They assumed it was something left behind by some experts who weren't content, letting their emotions affect their decisions.

However, for Shi Hao, it crashed down like thunder!

He was different, his background different, so the feeling he got from this wasn't the same.

"I have to investigate further, have to get to the bottom of this!" Shi Hao began to roam about all different places.

He discovered with astonishment that this world really was too large, definitely not smaller than the three thousand provinces. It was vast and boundless without limit, allowing him to travel as he pleased.

Moreover, there really were many cultivators in this world, seemingly having to do with the world's laws and other reason. They were a notch better than the three thousand provinces in this regard.

Just like that, Shi Hao visited ancient tribes one after another, all for the sake of learning the truth. After using up several months of time, he finally obtained some clues.

This world's history was a bit unclear. The records of what happened before the archaic era wasn't clear.

In addition, in the most ancient tribes he traveled through, some of the historical sites had a few weapons and artifacts left-over that drew his suspicions.

This was especially the case with a few stone engravings, a few copper cauldron engraving patterns. The damaged images recorded on them were extremely strange, and also left others puzzled.

Shi Hao was careful, paying more and more attention.

He searched about like this, seriously exploring, as a result discovering that there were a few people in this world who were searching for answers as well. They were people who 'searched the past'.

These people were mainly bards, wanderers, and others.

Of course, these people weren't looking for the great mysteries of past and present, purely doing this out of interest, just to answer some questions about the ancient era.

However, this was good news for Shi Hao. He needed these types of people, wishing to exchange and interact with them.

He encountered some people like this, and through interacting with them, learned their habits and characteristics. He continuously came into contact with similar people, and as a result obtained great returns.

No matter how hard a single person worked, the effects would still be limited. After all, he didn't belong to this world, only looking around right now. He couldn't compare to these people.

"Wu, some people claim that there was a period of darkness in the ancient era that was full of bloodiness. In the end, for some unknown reason, that piece of history was erased, as if there was a page forcefully turned."

This was what a bard told him.

"In the distant past, our world seemed to have some other creatures. They were too powerful, high above, but later on, it was unknown what happened, but they disappeared."

This was what another elder said.

Shi Hao's heart pounded with peng peng sounds. After using up several months of time, he finally learned about a few important situations, feeling great joy inside.

"Those were the saviors, the paramount unmatched existences!" Another added.

Of course, these were all legends passed around on a small scale. Normal people didn't know about it, they were mostly things that were deduced after organizing the ruined diagrams from the stone cliffs and other places off the beaten path.

Shi Hao's mind felt a bit of pressure. He just felt like this shattered past, once it was truly deciphered, the truth clarified, it might be extremely cruel, unendurably heavy.

"I want the truth!"

He went on his way again. He interacted with these people, and frequently entered historical sites alone in search of clues.

Finally, he made a new discovery, unexpectedly obtained a new term -- Undying being.

These creatures were incredibly powerful, appearing before in history. When matched up with the fragmented clues he previously understood, he believed that they should be the ones who previously affected the world.

Only, when they disappeared, they could no longer be found.

"Youngster, this world will always have truths we cannot understand, too many things shrouded in mystery. However, sooner or later, they will come to the surface and no longer be secrets."

This was what an elder told him. He also gave Shi Hao an important clue, that not everyone forgot about the past events. At the very least, the most powerful inheritances of this world should understand what happened in the ancient past. Only, they guarded their secrets, not willing to speak about it.

"Those most ancient inheritances understand the history and truth?" Shi Hao's eyes lit up.

"I presume so. I had previously heard from a holy land's great elder that this world truly has undying beings who protect us." The elder said.

When he heard the first half, Shi Hao was still excited and moved, but when he heard the last part, he immediately felt his body go cold.

That Undying Being was protecting them?

Shi Hao felt a deep coldness, a chill running down his back. If he were looking from what he understood from the three thousand provinces, those should be enemies!

Why was it that in the mouths of the people of this realm, they became saviors?

Shi Hao understood clearly that the creatures of Immortal Ancient Great Era were the targets of destruction. The battle back then definitely happened, he even personally witnessed it.

But now, there were actually descendants of those who were destroyed still alive, but they had long forgotten the past.

Soon after, Shi Hao learned of a fact. Great waves were stirring in this world, great ancient sects mobilizing forces, perhaps about to launch a great battle.

However, the creatures of this world often fought between themselves too, so it wasn't much different from normal.

Only, this time, a few great sects transmitted outwards that the great battle this time was unprecedented. If they succeed, they might be able to overturn the Nine Heavens Ten Earths and leave this place.

Shi Hao's mind trembled. They were finally going to come, the creatures of this world also starting to prepare for war.

"Undying Mountain has revived, the great opportunity has arrived!

Moreover, right at this time, someone spread this information.

Shi Hao was pleasantly surprised. He had long heard from a few bards' mouths about that mountain peak. It was known to be great and boundless, able to get close to the undying.

Only, normally it was extremely peaceful without anything special. Only during special times would it revive.

Now, it was reviving, meaning that he could go take a look. There was a portion of the 'truth' there.

From what he understood through others' mouths, after reviving, Undying Mountain would display large amounts of engravings, rumored to possibly be truths of the ancient era.

Shi Hao moved, using up a long time, arriving after hurrying for many days.

This was a great mountain that was entirely reddish-brown in color, as if it had been soaked in blood and now dried up, the color not fading much.

When he arrived here, a boundless pressure surged, simply unimaginable, pressuring everyone until they couldn't breathe. It was as if an enormous hammer smashed down on the pits of their stomachs.

Shi Hao was moved. This mountain really was too terrifying.

He looked at it. It stretched into the clouds, incomparably massive. He couldn't help but sigh. There were no great peaks in this world taller than this one.

Shi Hao approached. As soon as he arrived at the foot of the mountain, he was shocked. It was because on a few of the stone walls, there were some damaged diagrams, traces left behind by ancient people.

"Undying beings!"

Shi Hao saw a few ancient diagrams. His expression immediately changed, because according to the truths the diagrams portrayed, there really were unmatched terrifying creatures in this world.

They were exceptionally powerful, truly undying!

Chapter 1070 - Undying Mountain

The mountains were majestic, the reddish-brown color carrying a hint of sinister feeling. Not a single blade of grass grew here, and even the stone steps carried a faint red blood color.

Shi Hao ascended the mountain, searching stone walls for engravings one after another, hoping to find history's truths.

He already examined more than ten diagrams, on all of them recorded these so-called saviors, or the undying beings many people spoke of. Those creatures were blurry, a wave of sky shocking killing intent seeping out of those stone walls.

Shi Hao's expression became serious, more fearful the more he saw. This diagram was definitely not left behind by an ordinary person, simply having a soul. Otherwise, how could it still be so intimidating after all these years?

The mountain was steep, the further up he went the greater the pressure he felt. Even someone as powerful as Shi Hao felt a stifling feeling when he made it halfway up the mountain. What kind of place was this?

Meanwhile, during this process, he saw a few other stone engravings, his expression becoming more and more grave.

It was because according to the records, those undying beings were unmatched experts who previously killed the so-called devils of another world, saving all of the creatures in this world, providing for them.

This toppled everything Shi Hao knew, he definitely didn't believe it!

The higher up he climbed, the more closely he examined them. These stone engravings became more and more striking, making Shi Hao's body go cold. Just how powerful were the methods used, to overthrow history's truth?

He felt this entire time that the so-called undying beings were related to the enemies that slaughtered their way into the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. It should be them!

Yet now... they were regarded as saviors!

Shi Hao's mind went cold, releasing a wave of powerless feeling.

He was getting close to the mountaintop, but when there was still some distance, Shi Hao stopped. It was because he saw a few people, all of them covered in sweat, seated on the floor.

Even though he also felt tired as well, he could still continue on. However, he didn't continue, stopping here.

Shi Hao was extremely shocked. The ones here were all at the prime of their lives, more than ten of them in total. All of them cultivated immortal energy, using this to support themselves. This was the reason why they could reach this place!

Soon afterwards, he thought of those rumors. This was a place of great natural luck. Each time the Undying Mountain revived, many of the most stunning youngsters under the sky would come here to obtain great natural luck.

Shi Hao revealed a look of surprise. Could it be that he could also get something from this place?

Those people looked over. When they saw Shi Hao's condition, they were all astonished, a few of their pupils even rapidly shrinking.

"You... never activated immortal energy, yet could directly walk up?!" Eventually, someone cried out in alarm.

Shi Hao was shaken up, understanding why ascending this mountain was so difficult, making him feel a bit suffocated. Turns out those who wanted to ascend this mountain had to cultivate immortal energy.

Sure enough, when he released a strand of immortal energy, the pressure he faced lessened greatly.

"Who are you, actually able to climb the mountain without releasing immortal energy!" One of them asked bitterly, feeling that this was extremely unfair.

A middle-aged man sighed and said, "Let's go, there's no hope even if we reach the top. The experts this year are too many, we should give up our hopes on the undying."

After saying this, the middle aged man got up. A strand of immortal energy swirled around his body, his gait unsteady, head covered in sweat as he headed down the mountain, feeling incredibly dejected.

"I came from the great wastelands, remained in the mountain forests, far from society, so I do not understand too much about this great mountain. Can dao friends help clear up my confusion?" Shi Hao spoke in a rather humble manner.

He wanted to know what kind of place this was exactly, what kind of natural luck there was, why they came.

"This is Undying Mountain, as well as the place where the saviors recorded in the great holy lands' ancient texts appear. We came here naturally out of hope that the undying beings would appear, so we could follow them." A young lady said.

She also cultivated a strand of immortal energy, quite stunning and extraordinary. She didn't leave, because she was still young, her potential greater than that of the middle-aged man who left the mountain earlier. She still had the 'plasticity' to reach even higher.

It was because according to the ancient holy lands' records, the undying beings liked younger heroes. They were easier to foster, more easily moulded!

Shi Hao's mind felt as if it a tornado swept through it. This place... was going to have an undying individual?

Was this information true? If it was, then that was too shocking!

Shi Hao discovered that the bits and pieces he had collected up until now were all true. When strung up together, it really was cruel and terrifying.

Of course, this type of coldness was only something he alone felt. The creatures in this world wouldn't feel such a thing.

"What kind of place did I arrive in? The undying enemies have become saviors!" Shi Hao sighed.

He hoped that his judgment was wrong, that everything was fake. Otherwise, it was just too terrible.

The people who reached this place were all stunning individuals, every one of them with astonishing backgrounds, all of them top level heaven warping figures from various holy lands. Of course, there were loose cultivators too!

They didn't speak much, every single one of them calm and unflustered. They could sense that Shi Hao was strong, inwardly sighing, feeling that the competition was too fierce.

"The most powerful have all ascended, you should hurry and make your move too." Someone reminded, revealing good intentions. Perhaps this could be considered a type of investment too.

It was because once one was brought away by an undying being, their accomplishments in the future would become limitless, destined to shine brilliantly.

Shi Hao offered his thanks, and then climbed the mountain again. He displayed immortal energy, surrounding himself with it, advancing towards the mountaintop.

The pressure became greater and greater. Later on, when he was close to the top, Shi Hao felt like it was a bit strenuous even when using two strands of immortal energy, almost unable to support himself.

He shivered inwardly. It seemed like none of the ones who were able to reach the mountaintop were weak, all of them ridiculously powerful. This was a path prepared for those with three strands of immortal energy.

However, just how many people like this could there be?

He narrowed his eyes. There were people on the mountaintop. Sure enough, there were powerful individuals who had long arrived.

"En?"

Suddenly, he saw a diagram on the stone wall on the side of the road. This time, aside from an undying being, he also saw the Kun Peng and Willow Deity's stone engravings!

"Are they going to fight against the undying beings?" Shi Hao stopped, looking at the experts on the engraving.

After looking at it for a long time, Shi Hao continued up the stairs, finally arriving at the mountain top. He felt a tremendous pressure here.

It was also precisely at this time that he saw a young man whose entire body was shining, walking midair towards a stone wall. Golden light released endlessly, a path appearing.

He following a golden path, suddenly disappearing from this place!

Shi Hao was stupefied. That person disappeared just too quickly. Was this to see an undying being?

At the same time, he was shaken up. That person cultivated three strands of immortal energy, he saw this clearly. He was extremely powerful. Unfortunately, he only had time to see his departing figure.

He couldn't help but release a sigh. The natural laws of this world and other things were unordinary, terrifying as expected. Their cultivation level was a notch above the three thousand provinces.

“You are quite formidable, coming up only by relying on two strands of immortal energy. Why are you not displaying your third strand of immortal energy?” A melodious voice sounded, extremely pleasant to listen to, as if orioles were chirping.

Shi Hao revealed a look of surprise, because he felt that this voice was a bit familiar.

It was a young lady who sat at the mountain top, currently looking at a stone monument, as if pondering and studying it. She didn’t turn around, but was clearly talking to Shi Hao.

It was because right now, only the two of them were left.

Shi Hao laughed, releasing three strands of immortal energy around him, decreasing the pressure he faced sharply, immediately feeling much better.

Soon after, he knew who this young lady was. That aura, that voice, were things he had previously felt.

Several months ago, when he first arrived in this world, he had seen eight silver centipedes pull a carriage, the one carried precisely this woman.

The young lady got up, three strands of immortal energy swirling around her, displaying that she was an exceptional genius, someone comparable to Exiled Immortal, Ten Crown King, and Ning Chuan!

When one first gave this girl a look, they would only feel that she was pretty, but not stunning. However, the more one looked at her, the more it would feel as if she carried a type of immortal dao aura. Her eyes were intelligent, aura extraordinary.

She was extremely unordinary, her entire being giving off a restrained elegance. The more one looked at her, the more one would feel as if her style was unmatched, transcending this world, far greater than those so-called beauties.

“Yi, it’s you, we met before.” She was shocked, her charming face revealing a look of surprise.

Shi Hao was shocked. Back then, they only hurriedly passed each other, and he hid to the side, yet was unexpectedly still sensed by this woman. The other party was formidable after all!

“It’s a small world.” Shi Hao calmed down, asking her how many people entered.

“Currently, only two entered. It is unknown if there will be any more.” The young lady replied.

There were a few monuments here with inscriptions and stone engravings on them. If one’s strength was great enough, they could activate immortal energy to activate the monument, open up a passage to see the undying being.

“Why haven’t you gone on your way yet?” Shi Hao asked.

“A bit reluctant to leave this world.” The young lady said, feeling a bit emotional. She looked at the scenery below the mountain. A small carriage appeared in her hands, supported by her palm. There were eight small silver centipedes as well.

Shi Hao was shocked. Even someone like this still carried traits of a young girl, feeling reluctant to leave home.

“Once one goes to see the undying being, how long will it be before one can return?” Shi Hao asked.

“A long time, all the way until one’s cultivation succeeds.” The young lady said.

Shi Hao asked her for guidance, claiming to have lived in the wilderness’ deserted mountains this whole time, not understand these things too much.

He obtained some astonishingly valuable information from this young lady. Once this Undying Mountain activated, it could connect to another heaven and earth, forming an ancient path. Only those who cultivated immortal energy could enter.

That was a pure land where undying beings resided, the world where unmatched creatures lived.

Having the qualifications to enter, being guided by undying beings, this was undoubtedly tremendous natural luck!

Shi Hao gasped inwardly. If he had recklessly entered, it was hard to say what would happen.

“I’ve talked quite a bit, it’s time for me to head on my way as well, even if I still feel reluctance.” The young lady gave the distant mountains and valleys a look, and then turned around, preparing to open up a path and leave. She gave Shi Hao a look and said, “You aren’t going? Let’s go together.”

Shi Hao’s mind was in complete chaos. If this young lady went to that world, when they met again, they might be great life and death enemies.

This young lady was incredibly breathtaking, natural talents exceptional. When she grew up in the future, heaven knew just how terrifying she would become.

Meanwhile, she was a human race young lady, not someone who should be an enemy. This was just too great of a pity!

“Dao friend, take care!” Shi Hao finally said, making her stop her steps.

“Do you have something to take care of?” The young lady asked him.

“Do you believe that the creatures of the other world are devils? That our homeland was invaded by them?” Shi Hao said.

“Isn’t that the truth?” The young lady’s pupils flickered.

“I previously understood a few things from some ancient texts and stone engravings. In the other side of the world, those creatures are just like us... also of the same race.” Shi Hao said.

“Their bodies are those of people, but their hearts have already turned evil.” The young lady shook her head.

Shi Hao frowned. He really wanted to stop this young lady from meeting the long life beings, hoping to be able to rope in a powerful helping hand. However now, this seemed impossible.

It was because there were some views that were deeply rooted, difficult to change.

Shi Hao sighed inwardly. If what he suspected was true, then reality was too cruel. The undying beings were fostering exceptional heroic talents to attack the same races, this was just too infuriating.
