Chapter 1261 - Inner Dao

The great dao of heaven and earth was vast and extensive!

It was formless and without substance, no concrete scope, let alone a true body. It was unmatched, too high to reach.

Then, a streak of powerful fluctuations crushed down, making the world tremble, shaking up Shi Hao's biological core, his soul even about to collapse. If not for the stone slab below protecting him, he would have definitely been blasted to scattered ashes.

He wiped away the blood from the corners of his mouth, gazing into the void. He experienced that vastness, even though he couldn't see a definite 'great dao', there was a great rain of light, and there was that formless loftiness that was enough to leave one terrified.

Grand power, great dao!

Shi Hao closed his eyes, retracting all of his attention from his research of the fine factors, temporarily stopping his analysis of those granules' basic composition, instead focusing on the most simple 'dao'.

This so-called grand power, so-called dao, was something completely abstract. It wasn't like the divine chains of order, needing to be constructed.

If one really was going to try and create it, then it would be the intersection of endless divine chains or order, these chains affecting each other, numerous and close together, producing an invisible domain in this world.

Meanwhile, this type of dao, how was one supposed to go and develop it, how were they supposed to interpret this? It was almost impossible to understand, it was full of countless changes!

If one wanted to imitate it, or even directly copy it, it was simply impossible to complete.

The so-called dao comprehension, grasping the dao laws, these were actually all concrete small regulations. There was no way any of them could become the ultimate profound mysteries of the great dao.

Perhaps it could be said that creatures acquired a corner of the world's great dao. They obtained fragments, comprehended a piece, not fully grasping it.

If one understood all of the great dao, then they would truly transcend above. Not only would they achieve immortality, they would likely soar even above the heavens.

Shi Hao suspected that not even true immortals necessarily fully comprehended the dao, understanding everything.

"The so-called heavens' dao should be referring to the boundless great dao, countless types of great dao, right? If that is so, how will I be able to fully comprehend everything?" Shi Hao said to himself.

In the distance, that beautiful and perfect woman had a head of purple hair, sparkling and shining, brilliant multicolored light flashing past her eyes. She was extremely shocked; this was just a young man, his cultivation realm couldn't be considered that high, yet he was already about to step foot into this type of domain?

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao shook his head. He immediately understood something. The so-called heavens' dao was too definite, this was a type of misconception.

Dao, there was only one, just dao. There was no need to divide it into all different types, breaking it down, this was wrong.

He understood that higher realm cultivators should all know that the great dao was formless, there was no fixed description. It wasn't something that could be grasped, aloof and remote.

Only, from past until now, when everyone comprehended the dao, they would occasionally remove a small piece of dao law fragment. They would then feel as if they comprehended a type of dao, understanding a type of reasoning.

That was why the so called partitioning appeared. What three thousand dao, what heavens' ten thousand dao, what ten great holy dao, they were all defined under these types of situations.

All things start from nothing, and then from something back to nothing.

The dao was formless, without a body. The dao couldn't be described definitely, it was grand and everywhere, unfathomable.

Shi Hao understood. The so-called three thousand great dao, so-called heavens' ten thousand dao, they were all laws, couldn't be called the dao. They were just things that past generations meticulously divided up, a portion of 'dao's' imprints.

Perhaps only by piecing all of the laws together could one have a chance at describing the true 'dao'.

In the past, Shi Hao had also talked about the heavens' ten thousand dao, hoping to rise up above, wishing to fully comprehend it, from this transcend.

"Should I also grasp several thousand laws first just like those before me, and then piece them together to produce a vague appearance of the great dao?" Shi Hao said to himself.

The reason he entered this seed was precisely to come into contact with the laws of the heavens, and then study them definitively, fully understand them, bring himself close to the true single dao.

Shi Hao reached out his hand, allowing the order, laws, and other things descending from above to wind around his fingertips. His eyes flickered about, staring at them. How was he going to piece together the simple and most primitive single dao?

Time went on. One day, two days, three days...

The fragments of time scattered, one unable to sense it pass by, flowing alone by itself. Meanwhile, the dao seeker was petrified, not moving, as if he had passed on.

Many days, perhaps several weeks, perhaps hundreds of days later, only then did Shi Hao revive. For him, it was as if only an instant passed, not really aware of the passed time.

He began to piece together all types of laws, wishing to express that grand power, reveal the might of the great dao, but he suddenly discovered that these types of portrayals didn't do much. He displayed a type of great 'power', but it was still a portion of the dao. He had indeed fully comprehended it, but it was still a fragment of the simple and ancient great dao's imprints, only acquiring a small amount.

"We can only explain and name things based on concrete things, things we have experienced, the abstract and things beyond our experience are too difficult to express. None of this can be grasped, everything belonging to the nature of the world, force is useless, one must let things take their own course."

Shi Hao sighed, feeling a bit helpless.

If he was just trying to become a powerful individual, then he had long accomplished this, it was already enough. It was because when he comprehended the dao from time to time, continuously capturing the mysterious natural law paths, it would also be a type of dao law in its true meaning.

However, that really could only be considered law and order, not a reflection of the single dao.

He thought about many things, because he knew that researching the three thousand dao, or to be more precise, the three thousand natural laws and other things, was not enough. That was merely the form of the dao those before him were trying to figure out.

Meanwhile, how frightening would the enemies be? They were definitely going to be stronger than those predecessors, or else why did they suffer such a great defeat?!

"Surpassing the heavens' ten thousand dao, is this that crazy of an idea? Perhaps it is a bit reckless, but I have to at least sound somewhat heroic." Shi Hao said self-mockingly.

He knew that only by rising above all natural laws would one have a chance of fully comprehending the great dao. However, in reality, this didn't hold that much meaning. More of it was to confront all types of order and natural laws, and not the dao.

"Dao!"

Shi Hao sat down, his hands holding the stone slab. His eyes were deep, his insides surging; he thought of a few things. He had already searched greatly externally, doing pretty much all he could, so perhaps now, only by starting from within himself would there be any progress.

"Dao, formless, without a definitive explanation. All things in this world, a single stalk of grass, a single tree, everything is under dao laws, within the encirclement of dao."

Shi Hao thought out loud. Then, he examined his own body, treating himself as a world.

"I am the body, precisely the world. My spirit, my blood, my inner being, are all dao, all of this internalized. All things start from nothing, and then from something back to nothing. Isn't this contradicting?"

He was going to make his own body truly stand side by side with the great world! novE-lb-In

Shi Hao felt that he really was a bit reckless. However, only by 'overestimating his own abilities', viewing his own body like a great world, being equal to the great cosmos would one dare to make this type of comparison.

"My very form and structure is a universe. Even though it is as insignificant as a speck of dust compared to the star domain, my mind is the dao within the body."

Shi Hao's black hair scattered about, his eyes burning brilliantly. If one always felt fear, always focused on the heavens' ten thousand dao, examining the laws of heaven and earth, then it would be difficult for one to feel this type of craziness.

He sought the self, temporarily forgetting about everything external.

"This is the essence of my dao comprehension. I already had these types of thoughts a long time ago, so this is just how I will continue. Guide the heavens' laws into the body, verify the self with the dao, compare the two, only then will I be able to see and understand the dao of my own body."

"What I seek is the dao of self!"

He acknowledged that there was a simple and ancient dao that represented the cosmos, but he also knew that there was no way to completely seize that type of grand power, there was no way he could completely portray it.

Then, that meant that he could only truly seek it from within!

All things natural, a speck of dust, a world, and even one's body, were a universe in itself. It was perfect, completely capable of forming that unmatched unfathomable 'dao'.

Of course, for the self, it was also the sole dao.

Hong!

The stone slab shook. Shi Hao really did continue like this, the process extremely dangerous, guiding all types of divine chains of order into his body, transforming them, seeking and comparing them with his own body.

Natural laws shone resplendently like stellar streams, covering his body densely streak after streak. They were endless, simply about to make him explode.

Of course, the stone slab displayed its effects, protecting Shi Hao the entire time, not allowing him to be destroyed.

It was because this was within a seed, a heaven and earth placenta. This was a place that received the protection of the world, receiving the doting of heaven and earth.

Right now, Shi Hao replaced the original host, sitting in this position, so he naturally also enjoyed this treatment.

This was an unimaginable chance, to observe ten thousand dao laws extend and interweave endlessly.

As his flesh broke down, all types of divine chains brilliantly transformed. Then, his flesh began to quickly recover under the stone slab's effects.

This was extremely frightening, as well as extremely cruel. However, it was incomparably magnificent!

Shi Hao's blood flowed, resonating with these natural laws, extending towards the bones of his four limbs. These were dao laws that were spreading, making his body's muscles and vessels shake, continuously shine. Dao fragments were agitated, resonating here.

His bones released keng qiang sounds, the various framework that made up his body's great dao a part of the main body.

His flesh also moved rhythmically, shaking and releasing hua hua sounds like countless leaves. This was the form of dao, making up all of the deficiencies, perfecting him.

After who knew how much time had passed, Shi Hao woke up. He was almost burned into charred coke under the endless external laws. It was the stone slab that revived him.

"The bones, blood, and flesh in my body, are these the inner dao?" Shi Hao's face was pale.

This looked a bit absurd. If others heard this, they would think that it was extremely laughable.

"The dao is formless, no set form. It could be anything, yet it could also be nothing." Shi Hao's eyes gradually became resplendent, becoming firm and unswerving.

"Correct, the dao in my body, it can be whatever I want it to be. My form is the universe, everything in the body is the dao." Shi Hao was completely serious.

In the distance, that beautiful woman was shocked. She felt like this youngster might have gone mad, starting to wonder if she should provide assistance.

"I haven't gone mad! It is precisely this path, seeking the dao within the self! A speck of dust can fill a sea, it can open a great universe! Meanwhile, my body, even though it is insignificant, it can also unveil the dao of the great universe!"

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao became quiet, no longer moving. The laws of the heavens descended, moving around him. He continued to immerse himself in this, comprehend everything.

To match the great universe through his own form, the dao within his body correspond with the outer world's unmatched dao.

He first comprehended the components of the divine chains of order, precisely those insignificant granules, and then analyzed the grand great dao. Shi Hao entered the deepest state of nirvana.

Right now, he was like a dead person.

After who knew how much time had passed, those regulations, endless law chains that poured down from the sky all wound around his body, forming a web. Then, they continued to weave about, continuing to wind about him.

Eventually, when all of the laws were tangled about each other, they formed a cocoon. It was extremely simple and unadorned, without any luster, restricting Shi Hao within.

"With my form as heaven and earth, the inside the foundation for dao."

An extremely quiet voice transmitted from the cocoon, but it made the woman who wasn't too far out tremble, break into a cold shiver. She felt like something was about to happen.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, a blast of flames rushed out. It was fist-sized, first turning into a mirror, illuminating endless profound mysteries, and then turned into immortal flames, releasing chaotic light, starting to burn that cocoon.

He lost track of time, it was as if a thousand generations passed.

That flame burned the cocoon, scripture sounds unending. The 'silk' of the cocoon bound Shi Hao's body tighter and tighter, entering his body, eventually disappearing. Finally, they collapsed and snapped, flying out.

In the end, that place was scorched black, the cocoon destroyed!

"Cocoon of dao?" The only observer, that woman, was horrified.

It was actually a cocoon of dao, wrapped around one self. He sought the internal dao, seeking a transformation, breaking out, wishing to turn into a butterfly.

This woman felt like this young man was a lunatic, absolutely unreasonable, completely mad, actually daring to do this. Was he really going to force out the dao within his flesh?

Soon afterwards, she sucked in a cold breath of air. She saw the portion of his body that was revealed from that scorched black cocoon. It was without luster, but it wasn't completely burned into ashes. She felt like this youth might have succeeded!

Chapter 1262 - Seed Complete

The damaged cocoon gradually peeled off, the scene strange and astonishing.

The cocoon formed from dao laws was damaged. It looked like it was burned through, gradually breaking apart, revealing the person within. His skin was dim, within the dao laws actually carrying a type of simple and unadorned energy, not like a biological body but instead like an artifact.

Hong!

The scorched black cocoon suddenly became brilliant, blazing viciously. Those were regulations, order that flourished to the peak, submerging Shi Hao within.

It wasn't even this blinding when the cocoon was burned by that fist-sized mysterious fiery light before. Right now, it actually burned to its greatest state, brilliant to the extreme.

At the same time, this was also terrifying. It signified the collision and destruction of heavens' laws, so how was Shi Hao within supposed to deal with this?

Not far out, that beautiful woman released a cry of alarm. When she thought that Shi Hao might have succeeded, there was actually this type of transformation that happened, truly unexpected.

Shi Hao was definitely in huge trouble!

His dull-colored skin was immediately set aflame, brilliant to the peak, because he was turned into a torch, surrounded by all types of regulations, burning together with that cocoon.

This was dao flame, flames produced by the heavens' ten thousand dao, the most terrifying type!

It could burn anything, able to turn anything into ashes.

Dao, there was only one in the great heaven and earth. However, it could be divided into over ten thousand natural laws, and right now, this was precisely a flame produced by them, a flame that could wipe out everything.

Shi Hao's body was full of holes, instantly blasted beyond recognition. However, there was no blood, only wounds everywhere, his body incredibly dark.

He was like a piece of damaged charcoal, a piece that was then smashed by a giant rock until it became ragged.

Right now, he was already standing at the edge of destruction, his body and soul about to be extinguished at any moment.

Shi Hao sighed. He just knew that there was no way things could go so smoothly. If he really succeeded just that easily, there would have been someone who accomplished this way before him, why would it wait until today? Until now, no one has successfully completed this path!

At the same time, not far out, that fist-sized mysterious ball of fire continued to jump about. It was surrounded by immortal energy and chaotic light, incredibly misty and mysterious.

Shi Hao had previously suspected that this fire might be an immortal flame, chaotic flame, a type of flame from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

However now, he began to doubt himself, hard to say just what kind of thing this was exactly. It could turn into a mirror, illuminate the most profound great dao, and could even become a flame, burn all things.

Just now, it completely burned through the cocoon formed from natural laws!

And now, it was no longer moving, watching without lifting a finger, only observing, as if it was quietly waiting for a result.

Shi Hao was in danger, his life might very well be lost at any moment. He was burned until he was like a lamp without fuel, his skin dried-up, bones about to break. Grease was released from his scorched body, releasing zi zi sounds, this scene truly making one's scalp go numb.

At the very least, the female creature not far out even felt a bit terrified, having the urge to stop and assist him. However, she didn't know if there was a need or not.

It was because Shi Hao was still alive, still resisting, still pursuing the dao.

She now began to feel that this young man might be crazy!

Shi Hao was indeed in a state of dao comprehension. It was as if he thought of many things at once, to the extent where when his divine consciousness was perplexed, he still thought of many things, the events of the past emerging in his head one after another.

This type of impasse, he had experienced this before. When he cultivated immortal energy in the past, he had been burned by great dao flames, could be considered nine deaths one life, almost completely destroyed.

Now, he was cooked through by ten thousand streaks of dao flames, seeing the most fundamental symbol essence, peering into the essential fundamentals of the great universe, observing its constituents.

On one hand, he was greedily studying everything, comparing it to himself, using it to activate his 'inner dao', compare and verify the two, but on the other hand, he also had misgivings towards his own life. If he ended up directly dying here, then everything would be lost.

Shi Hao's body was almost burned rotten, his flesh almost completely gone, only having a dried-up skeleton wrapped in a layer of skin left.

Only, he didn't die. There was a type of resistance within him that stopped the corrosion of ten thousand dao's flames. It was because back then, he had already been burned, previously experiencing something similar. There was fiery light resonating within his body.

"Back then, I already treaded on this path, my past self surviving a miracle in itself. However, that was equivalent to already activating the 'inner dao'. This is what is stopping, resisting the great cosmos' dao!"

Shi Hao understood, immediately figuring out many things.

Hong!

Only, at this time, the flames became even more intense, even more resplendent than the heavens' ten thousand dao of the past, even more terrifying.

In the past, he only used the ten thousand flames to forge himself, create immortal energy through the burning, only starting to ignite his true self. However now, natural laws filled the sky, pouring down like a waterfall. This was the complete dao, not holding back anything.

This type of power was simply impossible to contend against. He might be turned into ashes at any time!

Even though the stone slab was shining right now, protecting and assisting him with everything it had, the effects were no longer that prominent. There was a chance that Shi Hao might be scorched black and wiped out at any moment.

Hong!

In the end, a streak of clear light rushed out from Shi Hao's body. It wasn't extremely bright, but it was extremely distinct, released from a gate.

He opened his flesh treasury, as if he opened up an immortal gate. The human body might have many gates, and now, he was starting to dig them up, opening this type of thing.

Meanwhile, this was precisely the so-called inner dao, what could stand side by side with the great heaven and earth.

A speck of dust could fill the sea, it was precisely this type of profound meaning. Even though the human body was insignificant, unable to compare to the star system, once the 'gates' within one's body were opened, then one could indeed transcend.

Hong!

The heavens' ten thousand flames turned into a strange diagram, and then it smashed downwards. It was no longer in the shape of a flame, but rather wanted to completely crush Shi Hao.

At the same time, his body was also like this. Bundles of clear light appeared one after another, all of them extremely mysterious. They merged together, forming a diagram, resisting the force of the outside world.

"That is..." Not far away, that woman was extremely shocked. The clear light released bundle after bundle, they came from gates one after another!

In that instant, many dao gates appeared from within Shi Hao's body, all of them opening up a crack, releasing a glimmer of radiance, resisting the pressure of the outside world.

Shi Hao was greatly moved. This was the inner dao, the power of the human body. It verified the validity of this path!

As expected, the human body itself could stand side by side with the great universe, the inner dao able to contend against the external great dao, neck and neck. The crucial point was how to make it appear!

Honglong!

Outside of his body, the heavens' ten thousand flames all appeared, pressing downwards. Eventually, the diagram that was formed actually produced a yin fish, crushing Shi Hao's muscles and bones until they were about to snap, warping into a curved figure.

Meanwhile, inside Shi Hao, clear light was released. It gathered together, forming a yang fish, rushing out, pressing forward from his body's other direction.

"This is..." That woman's eyes were wide open, feeling extremely shocked. She was the only one who saw this scene. Could it be that this was precisely this youth's path?

This left her extremely shocked. That was definitely an interpretation of the dao, an embodiment of the dao!

The great universe's dao crushed down, combining with a person and his inner dao, thus producing a yin yang symbol.

If someone made this drawing to explain the world's profound mysteries, then that was one thing, not all that special, but right now, it formed under this type of state!

One had to understand that right now, that youth was currently suffering, about to die at anytime, so there was no way he intentionally produced this type of situation. This was formed completely naturally!

This type of pain and suffering, this type of torment, experience, right now actually formed this kind of unmatched dao diagram!

Right now, everything stopped, all things freezing. Regardless of whether it was space or time, it all seemed to have entered an eternal silence.

Time stopped, completely frozen.

In that instant, Shi Hao seemed to have attained the imperishable. This type of stagnation, this type of halting of time, made him feel a type of deep void, one that was incredibly distant and ancient.

In that instant of concentration, he seemed to have crossed ten thousand generations.

There was a feeling of great changes, heaviness, as well as a type of boundless darkness. It was as if he was experiencing a reincarnation.

Chi!

Finally, the stillness was broken, everything returning to normal. Shi Hao's body was in tatters. All of the so-called clear light scattered, entering his body.

At the same time, the ten thousand flames of the heavens were also extinguished, thus disappearing.

"Is that your path?" Not far out, that woman asked with a trembling voice.

"It is not!" Shi Hao denied. That was just a coincidence, a moment on his journey, not the end.

The great universe wasn't him, and he wasn't willing to become one with the great cosmos either. Perhaps one day, he might leave it.

What he relied on was only himself, his own flesh, as well as his own spirit. Only by making himself stronger could he face anything that came at him!

Hong!

Within his body, it was as if heaven fell and earth split apart. Immortal gates were opened one after another, these gates like volcanos, releasing surging potential and power.

He was submerged within this type of light, everything incredibly brilliant.

"If I wanted to, I could produce that type of diagram, countless types of those diagrams." Shi Hao said.

Then, within his body and outside of his body, it was unknown just how many yin yang divine diagrams appeared. They flowed within his blood, imprinting themselves on his bones.

There were also some that enlarged, appearing outside his body, wrapping him within, distorting his body once more into that graceful and powerful yin yang curve.

However, in the end, they scattered again.

His dao, what he sought, was the inner dao. He didn't have to use this type of diagram to explain it.

Shi Hao was truly comprehending the dao, seeking great power. Perhaps the word seeking couldn't be used, because he wouldn't seek it. This was something that already existed in his body, something that was his to begin with.

This was on the premise that he truly comprehended the true self, understood his own existence.

In that instant not too long ago, the world froze, time stopped. He seemed to have crossed through endless time, millions and millions of years passing by with a single glance back. That instant had left too great of an impact on him, and from this, he gained enlightenment, opening up many 'gates' within himself.

"The gates... amount of time they can be opened... is very limited, because you... have yet to reach that step."

Right at this moment, a voice sounded, broken and interrupted, like a candle flame in the wind. In addition, it was just that ancient, carrying a type of weariness, tiredness, a dying aura.

That was a flame, a fist-sized flame. It was surrounded by immortal energy, wrapped within chaotic light, its existence seeming more and more mysterious.

The fist-sized flame was still that big, not enlarging. However, he clearly saw countless figures fighting, roaring, howling, as well as endless bloody light.

Millions and millions creatures howled, countless soul figures clashing.

Hong!

In the end, everything before him became peaceful once more. The voice by his ears disappeared, that flame seemingly returning to normal.

"What exactly is this flame?" Shi Hao's voice was bitter.

Then, Shi Hao examined the inside of his body. Those were gates, one after the other, just that brilliant, displaying the boundless dao laws for him, currently releasing the most profound and mysterious chains.

This was the inner dao, his dao!

Meanwhile, right now, he was only trying to break through a cultivation realm, to become a sect level expert, not standing at the peak of his life. The release was only momentary, he had to truly open up all of the gates in the future.

"Using the body as the seed, it is just like what I had imagined." Shi Hao said to himself. He was walking his own path, similar to what Great Elder had passed down to him.

Seeking the inner dao, relying on himself, not seeking the great universe's dao, this was his path.

Using the body as the seed was precisely to open up the gates within his own body, release his own dao. This was the start of his path! Only now was it really like as if a seed had just been planted.

Within his body, the countless gates weren't really fully opened. They were slowly closing, and then in the end, only a small crack remained, releasing a strand of clear light.

Then, this light interweaved together, forming a seed, condensing within his body, obtaining the recognition of the great world. This was like the seed of heaven.

Meanwhile, this type of seed of heaven would naturally receive the blessing of the great heaven and earth's various laws, able to display the power of the world, its divine might immeasurable!

Only, this all still relied on this universe.

Shi Hao used the body as a seed, this was completely different.

Right now, the seed he condensed was precisely himself. In the future, what he was going to rely on was also himself!

Chapter 1263 - Deceiving the Heavens

The seed was already complete!

There were many gates in Shi Hao's body, emerging one after another, all of them not fully closing, leaving behind a crack. They all released a strand of clear light, these lights converging into a seed.

This looked extremely magical. There were many gates, but right now, they weren't all that real, but this made them seem more mysterious.

These gates were like dao scriptures, as if they were connected to an imperishable ancient land, releasing unmatched energy. Shi Hao really had an urge to reach out his hand and open one of these gates, see what exactly was behind them.

Only, this was impossible for him right now.

"The power of the flesh." In the distance, that woman said to herself. She really was shocked greatly. He succeeded just like that?

She saw a miracle, someone stepping on a path that was completely different right in front of her. It was extremely unique and mysterious, the process full of suspense. He almost died, but in the end, he still succeeded.

In the short moment of peacefulness, it was as if there was a streak of lightning that cut through her mind. With a honglong noise, her soul shook in response. She knew that this was a huge matter!

A path that didn't exist before had now been walked by someone!

Shi Hao didn't feel happiness or worry. He closed his eyes, silently experiencing it all. The experience just now really was dangerous. It looked like it went smoothly, but a single mishap would result in his very existence going up in flames.

Moreover, even now, he still couldn't calm down, feeling a sense of uneasiness, his skin involuntarily trembling.

Why was it like this?

He wanted to fully comprehend this seed. His dao had now started to form, body as the seed truly taking form. A single seed suspended within the depths of his body, releasing a clear light, merging with his flesh and spirit, no distinction between the two. There was a rich and full sensation.

With an urge from Shi Hao's consciousness, the seed shone, gates of self transferring over power. He felt the inside of his body surge with power, filled with clear light, as if he could cut down all gods and devils!

This type of feeling was extremely wonderful. He felt a strong urge to raise his head towards the sky and roar out! His flesh and spirit were both powerful to the extreme, as if he could pick stars and seize the moon from the sky with a raise of his hand.

However, his mind still felt a bit uneasy, unable to fully relax. Shi Hao opened his eyes, light swirling within them. He wanted to make himself even stronger.

Using his body as the seed had succeeded without a doubt. If he used it together with his own precious techniques and heavenly art, operating them together, they would become even more astonishing, completely stand out from the masses.

"Where should I start from?"

Shi Hao hesitated. Should he start from raising his attack power, or his defense?

Soon afterwards, he made his decision. He relied on a type of intuition, choosing Willow Deity's method first. He always felt like he had to ensure self-preservation first.

It was because his skin felt incredibly taut, making him feel more and more uneasy.

This type of experience was too strange. Was this a warning from his body itself? Shi Hao was shocked and frightened. By opening up the gates within, his flesh shell also became more mysterious.

Willow Deity's method attached importance to the cultivation of life essence energy, the end point was precisely long life.

In that instant, tens of millions of divine chains shot out from Shi Hao's body. That seed was also shining, and when it made contact with those divine chains, they resonated with each other.

When he examined these golden chains, Shi Hao's eyes became incredibly deep, as if he could see through every manifestation of nature, the source of all. He was breaking down this method.

In that instant, he began to braid those chains with the clear light released from the seed. They were still golden, but they became a bit different, changes happening to the patterns.

This was breaking a code, carrying out a reorganization, and then using one's own dao patterns to explain, restore Willow Deity's method. He was comprehending this method from the most fundamental level.

This was, without a doubt, a grand project!

Shi Hao now truly broke it down. If he used his inner dao's patterns to reconstruct this method, it really would be extremely astonishing, to the extent where it could be said to be world-shaking!

Right now, he immersed himself in a type of wonderful state. His entire body released clear light, deducing Willow Deity's great life method. In a daze, everything became blurry, disappearing.

Time was drawn-out, heaven and earth boundless. He felt like he himself had turned into a willow catkin, carrying a seed as he fluttered about, eventually landing in the earth.

At first, this place was extremely dry, lacking water, broiled by the sun for a long time. As the years went on, this seed, which was also himself, was on the verge of death.

Finally, a bit of rain mist appeared. It frantically absorbed it, and then it displayed shocking life force, starting to produce roots and germinate, struggling free from its withering state.

"What a tremendous power!"

While in this type of wonderful state, Shi Hao's true body also couldn't help but cry out. It was because a small seed planted itself into the soil, and over the years, the world above it had long been sealed by giant rocks. However, after the seed germinated, it instead forced open the boulder, even making its way out from between the cracks, ultimately breaking that rock itself! noVe-lB(In

This was the power of life. It looked tender and weak when it was born, but it contained the most vigorous energy.

Shi Hao was greatly moved. In the past, he had also seen streets and pavements that were completely sealed, yet there were plants that produced soft shoots, forcibly tearing apart the solid stone ground.

Now, while in a state of dao comprehension, his viewpoint became even more profound.

The newborn aura was rich and boundless!

Then, he turned into a young sprout, growing strong and healthily. He received the baptism of wind and rain, gradually becoming stronger.

Finally, the day came when it flourished too exuberantly, reaching into the heavens, towering on the earth. Lightning was drawn down, hacking the treetop apart, the entire tree covered in fiery light.

However, it still lived. Afterwards, it experienced endless suffering.

The tree developed spirituality. It was because this was a plant, representing life to begin with. Meanwhile, its experience was even more so different from the others, drawing the punishment of heaven and earth.

Lightning tribulation crashed down from the nine heavens above, turning it into ashes, only leaving behind a broken root. After who knew how many years had passed, it revived again, germinating once more.

Then, it became stronger and stronger, surging with life essence energy.

Were these the Willow Deity's experiences? It actually existed in the source of its precious technique!

Then, Shi Hao went even deeper. He already lost track of the number of times the willow tree was destroyed by lightning, eventually rising to the point where it faced the execution of immortal blades and other things.

Moreover, in the later stages, it had the power of a guardian spirit, immortal dao aura, and other things. Profound, difficult, this was a long life path of nine deaths one life, as well as the extreme path of life.

"I want to see what Willow Deity experienced in Immortal Ancient, and I also want to understand why it descended into Stone Village back then."

Unfortunately, the life imprint was too complex. Even though he was able to break through the precious technique's original qualities, there were some things there was no way he could truly see clearly.

After who knew how much time had passed, Shi Hao immersed himself in a sea of life aura, wrapped within rich green radiance, enveloped in golden light, the two colors interweaving.

One was a nascent energy, the other created through the endless baptisms and accumulation of strength.

Shi Hao finally fully woke up. He used the patterns of his inner dao to interpret Willow Deity's great life technique, infer what laid in its core. As for just how deep it reached, right now, there was no way he could know.

"You should leave. There is a seed within you, so you can gain realization no matter where you are, no need for you to continue and remain in my seat." The woman not too far out said.

Shi Hao nodded. He stood up. With a beng sound, the bit of broken cocoon on him fell off, fully disappearing, revealing his strong and fine skin.

It wasn't brilliant with luster, but it was quite flexible, carrying a luster of vitality, returning to the natural state!

"I should go out. Has a few months passed, or has it been a few years?!" Shi Hao really didn't know. While cultivating, he had no sense of time, forgetting everything else.

"En?"

Shi Hao was horrified. At this moment, his fine hairs all stood on end. The instant he stood up, he felt like doomsday arrived. The uneasiness and alarm he previously felt became real.

Chi!

A streak of sword light hacked over, descending from above, about to cut open his skull!

Where did this attack come from? It was definitely not that woman, because she was also in shock, currently seated not too far away.

Qiang!

Shi Hao opened his mouth, releasing an expanse of clear light. This was released by the seed within him, the radiance condensing into a sword just now, smashing into that brilliance, sparks flying in all directions.

"So strong!"

Shi Hao shivered inwardly. It was because that sword light was too sharp, could definitely easily remove the heads of a group of heavenly deities, ridiculously powerful.

Dang!

Then, great bell sounds rang out, long and drawn-out. Several of them sounded at the same time, dropping from the sky, forming divine bells of order. Ripples of sound were released, about to blast him to pieces.

This was too frightening, simply as if it could wipe out groups of gods and devils, eradicate all living things, impossible to resist!

What was this? It left one stupefied!

“World’s punishment!”

At this moment, Shi Hao knew what it was, immediately understanding what was going on. His uneasiness and restlessness actually originated from this.

When he entered the dao seed, sat on the heaven and earth placenta, he didn’t receive backlash. That woman was easy to deal with, so he originally thought that things were going smoothly.

However, who would have thought that the true danger was waiting at the very end?!

Chi la!

Large expanses of blade radiance hacked over, snow-white and blinding, directly connecting heaven with earth, too grand and astonishing!

Great bell sounds echoed, divine pagodas emerging one after another. All types of weapons appeared, descending from above, all of them suppressing towards Shi Hao!

This was a disaster that had never happened before, terrifyingly shocking, more serious than anything Shi Hao had suffered so far. It was trying to wipe him out!

In the distance, that woman was stupefied, light swirling within her eyes. Not even she had foresaw this type of conclusion. She had tried to infer what would happen, but she didn’t see this scene.

This was a broken path!

There wasn’t even a bit of hope left behind, because right now, all types of light rushed over, all types of weapons, any one of them able to destroy powerful sect master level figures.

It was a cruel eradication, one that wished to wipe out all traces!

This was the punishment of heaven and earth. It was because Shi Hao occupied the nest of another, seizing natural luck, and now, the most severe response was given, wishing to completely eradicate him.

His path was going against the world to begin with, going against the will of heaven. The reason why using the body as a seed all resulted in failure was precisely because of this, these individuals would all be wiped out by heaven.

The others found perfect seeds, merging them into themselves, so they obtained acknowledgment, received protection. It was because they received orders from the will of the world, displaying the power of heaven and earth.

Meanwhile, using the body as a seed was completely different. He was trying to gradually strengthen himself, eventually be neck to neck with the great universe, ultimately even exceed it and transcend above!

Even though it was only a seed right now, the first signs had already appeared, which was why he now faced this ruthless obliteration!

Honglonglong!

Divine weapons and sharp blades were everywhere. They were too many, too concentrated, all of them striking over, smashing into Shi Hao's body. Now, that stone slab withdrew on its own, no longer offering him protection.

It was because it already couldn't endure anymore. If it helped Shi Hao withstand anymore, help hide him any longer, even it would be dragged in and destroyed.

Even as a heaven and earth placenta, it was still not enough. There were some things that were insurmountable, it couldn't get involved too deeply!

Divine pagodas, great bells, heavenly blades, immortal swords, they were everywhere, covering Shi Hao beneath. There was no way to avoid them, nor was there any way to withdraw. He could only face them head-on, receive everything.

Lightning radiance appeared streak after streak, electrical arcs like a sea!

That woman was stunned. This was like the anger of the heavens, about to destroy her heaven and earth placenta as well! If this happened, then her path would also be cut short! In that instant, her face became as pale as snow.

Hong!

Shi Hao was powerful to this extent, but he was instantly blasted until his flesh flew everywhere, bright red divine blood dyeing the void. This scene was incomparably bleak and bitter.

The only fortunate thing was that his strength had long erupted, now no longer suppressing himself. He broke through the Heavenly Deity Realm, becoming a sect master level powerful figure.

This was a great life and death confrontation, the wrath of heaven. This was Shi Hao's struggle, power reaching a higher cultivation realm, yet he still couldn't resist it.

Without a doubt, for a dao seeker, someone who had just risen up, this was a serious mental blow. He was going to be destroyed after he believed himself to be the most powerful.

All of the weapons were produced from lightning, no exceptions to this, no matter how realistic they looked. Otherwise, how could these weapons appear within the seed?

Eventually, the lightning exceeded what those at the peak of the sect master level could endure, reaching an even greater cultivation realm, fully suppressing down, impossible to resist.

In the distance, that woman sighed. This youth was finished. From past until now, no one could contend against lightning that was an entire great cultivation realm higher.

It was to the extent where the might of the lightning might not be just a single great cultivation realm higher.

It was because the heavens were angry, the great universe revealing murderous intent, wishing to wipe out the life of this individual who seized heaven and earth natural laws and had no respect for its restrictions.

Peng!

After experiencing an extremely terrifying confrontation, Shi Hao was blasted apart by unimaginable heavenly might. His body was erased, this scene extremely cruel, and also extremely regretful, leaving the woman in the distance horrified.

Was he still destroyed in the end?

Even though that youth confronted everything bitterly, unyielding to the end, his figure still disappeared. There were only ashes and bloody mist that remained.

However, the heaven and earth tribulation didn't stop here, instead continuously hacking down, pouring onto this place like a silver stream. It was as if a boundless sea crashed down, surrounding this place.

It continuously crushed down, continuously exploding.

That woman was alarmed. After the world dealt the final blow, it still didn't let up, the universe ruthless. Was it going to destroy her land of illumination as well?

The woman was originally a pure spirit raised by heaven and earth, receiving its protection. Was she going to be abandoned now? This left her frightened.

She wanted to resist it, but she was also scared of incurring even greater lightning tribulation, and this greater tribulation would blast her to ashes, not leaving anything behind.

After who knew how much time had passed, the lightning finally disappeared, this place becoming peaceful once more. The heaven and earth placenta was preserved, not destroyed. That woman released a deep sigh.

"Yi?" Suddenly, her eyes focused on those ashes, staring at the space next to the stone slab.

In the ashes of destruction, within the ruined scorched bones, a sphere of clear light emerged. That was a seed! It slowly rose, wrapping around a lump of essence blood and a primordial spirit.

Deceived the heavens!

The woman's breathing became rushed. This was fooling the heavens! He made it through, bluffed through!

That seed seemed to sprout roots and germinate, slowly changing, reborn in the ashes, gaining new life from death. Shi Hao's primordial spirit struggled out, that lump of blood squirming and wriggling about, his body continuously being regenerated.

One could already regrow limbs in the Heavenly Deity Realm, so it was naturally not an issue at even higher cultivation realms.

This was especially the case when Shi Hao saw through and deciphered the Willow Deity's great life technique at the critical moment, using his own inner dao to infer its meaning, his understanding incomparably deep, and that was why he was able to survive under lightning that far exceeded his cultivation realm.

This was a miracle, something that couldn't be duplicated.

There had never been someone who made it through heaven's wrath that was a whole great cultivation realm higher.

Shi Hao released a light sigh. Back then when Willow Deity landed in Stone Village, it likely had to do this as well, right? After suffering a great disaster, it was reborn from despair, gaining life once more.

He now experienced a similar situation. He couldn't contend against the punishment of heaven, but he still ultimately revived. A nascent aura pervaded the air, all things growing. Right now, an exuberant life aura scattered out from him.

His body was regenerated, primordial spirit deep, gaze calm. The seed merged together with the flesh and primordial spirit.

Using the body as the seed, its terrifying nature was now starting to show itself. He could live even from this type of situation.

"Thank you!" Shi Hao expressed a heartfelt and sincere gratitude towards that woman.

Then, he left. He opened this heaven and earth placenta, about to leave.

He didn't know how long he had remained in seclusion for, what had happened in the outside world. Perhaps the geniuses of the outside world had long risen up, right? He already didn't show himself for too long, it was time to go out.

Chapter 1264 - Fire Cave

"Remember your promise!" A voice sounded. That woman got up, and then sat back down on the stone slab. Her style was exceptional, dazzling light wrapping around her exquisite and wonderful body. At this time, the natural law of the heavens surged once more, surrounding her, making her look like an exceptional fairy.

Shi Hao nodded, understanding what she was saying. He was still full of gratitude towards this woman. If she had taken action against him, then he wouldn't have this great reward, likely just dying inside. Before coming in, he never expected to find a creature within.

"Please do not worry!" He only spoke these words. At the same time, he looked at this woman, his eyes carrying gratefulness, expressing his gratitude.

This strange seed was opened, a crack opened. The light of the outside world poured in, powerful spiritual energy of the great earth also poured over.

Shi Hao was stunned. The Great Elder found this type of place, this location's essence energy actually not much less than the seed itself, incredibly powerful, rippling like water.

With a shua sound, he arrived in the outside world.

What followed was scorching heat, extremely unpleasant to the eyes. A wave of flames poured over, about to set him aflame. There was an intense pain that transmitted into his body.

He was actually inside of fiery light, great yang essence everywhere, fiery light overflowing into the heavens. Shi Hao even suspected that he might be inside of a sun itself.

What kind of place was this?

He remembered Great Elder previously saying that the first place was going to be a land of earth attribute, burying him deep into the earth to nurture the seed. Why did he now end up in a fire cave?

Blistering heat poured over, Shi Hao's hair about to go on fire, his skin feeling like it was going to split apart. This was too shocking! Now, he was already a sect level individual, yet he was injured by the flames of fiery light.

Soon afterwards, he knew where he was. This was an ancient cave, one that was extremely massive and also extremely deep. The cave was full of incomparably resplendent fiery light.

Shi Hao definitely didn't doubt that if he was still in the Heavenly Deity Realm, he would have definitely been burnt into ashes, nothing remaining. Right now, he could only barely hold on.

This really was shocking. If an ordinary sect master came in, they would undoubtedly die, be burned into ashes without any suspense.

Within Shi Hao's body, a seed shone, releasing clear light that spread to his four limbs' bones. This was his body's gates releasing power, the inner dao displaying might.

A wave of refreshing feeling spread throughout his body. Shi Hao's flesh and bones shook at the same time, releasing keng qiang sounds. He no longer felt pain, now completely resisting the fiery light.

The ancient cave was deep, fiery light jumping about.

Upon closer inspection, one would discover that the terrain was complex. Not too far out, there were many forks in the road, extending outwards like a spiderweb. This was an underground palace.

It was an ancient cave, within it another world.

"Great Elder!"

Shi Hao called out, a bit anxious. It was because he promised the woman in the heaven and earth placenta, so he couldn't let her down.

"Over here." Within the depths of the ancient cave, someone responded.

A blurry figure on a praying mat opened his eyes. In the fiery light, it was still penetrating like lightning, forcing back all of the flames. It was precisely Great Elder.

“Child... you... succeeded?!”

The normally calm and steady Great Elder who wouldn't blink even if a great mountain collapsed now looked like he was staring at a ghost. He immediately grabbed Shi Hao's arm.

His voice was shaking, incomparably excited. His mind was trembling, wanting to roar straight into the heavens!

“I succeeded!” Shi Hao declared loudly. He didn't hold back his joy, sharing it with Great Elder.

“Haha...” Great Elder roared with laughter, his voice rumbling through the entire ancient cave, making it seem like it was going to collapse. Many giant rocks tumbled down.

At the same time, fiery light overflowed, becoming even more dazzling, burning the stone walls until they were entirely red, about to melt into liquid.

Shi Hao was shocked. He recognized this stone material, it was a heaven and earth wondrous stone that was difficult to refine, known to not even be damaged when tossed into the sun. This was a rarely seen type of divine material!

No wonder it didn't suffer much damage even after enduring such great flames, still remaining as an intact cave.

“There really was someone who succeeded! This day is worth recording in the annals of history!” Great Elder's chest was rising and falling intensely, an unnatural flush of redness appearing on his face, finding his intense emotions difficult to express.

Back then, he was also an incredibly talented individual, but in the end, for the sake of walking this path, he became half crippled, almost dying. If not for a few great opportunities later on, his entire existence would have been finished.

Meanwhile, before him, and after him, there were also many examples of outstanding individuals, but they fell one after the next, pretty much all dying out.

This path was too rough, too difficult, leaving one in despair, almost as if it was there to swallow up exceptional heroes. The higher the talent of people that were without an immortal seed, the more unwilling they were to accept their fate. In the end, they could only nurse a grievance, their bodies and dao ultimately erased.

Now, when this path was mentioned, everyone's expressions would be overcast, viewing it like vipers and vicious beasts, not daring to take it.

Even a place as powerful as Immortal Academy had long given up on it, seeing it as a path of death. They took strict precautions, not allowing the disciples to send themselves to death pointlessly. However now, the one Great Elder chose succeeded.

Hou!

He released a great roar, his head of hair wriggling about like snakes, releasing dazzling light, tearing through the void. Then, he laughed loudly, laughing until his waist was about to bend backwards, his eyes carrying tears.

“Good, good, good!” He said the word good three times in succession. Shi Hao had now achieved the dream of his youth.

“Senior, I must ask for your assistance!” Shi Hao was also happy and moved, but time was pressing. He didn’t dare tarry on.

“What is it, are there any issues with your cultivation?” Great Elder was alarmed, because this path was too difficult, with a chance of dying at any turn, or having oneself crippled.

“That is not it, I need Heaven Mending Medicine, to close the damage on this seed!” Shi Hao quickly said.

The Great Elder was stunned, and then he was startled, wishing to peer inside.

“Don’t!” Shi Hao stopped him. He directly asked if there was any more heaven mending substance.

Great Elder felt inwardly sore. This type of thing was too precious, able to stand side by side with long life medicines, rarely seen in this world. It was difficult to exchange for even with heaven and earth precious scriptures, for creatures of his level, it could save them even when hovering between life and death.

“There is a creature inside!” Shi Hao directly replied.

“What?!” Great Elder was alarmed. This was completely beyond his expectations, just like when he first saw Shi Hao.

“This truly is...” Great Elder didn’t know what to say, remaining petrified.

Gu long!

Suddenly, a strange sound rang out from the depths of the ancient cave, an unendurable blistering heat swept out from within, even melting the rock walls. Even the wondrous stone that was most resistant to melting couldn’t hold on any longer.

The bright red magma flowed here, a weak bird cry sound rang out from the depths of the ancient cave.

Great Elder’s expression changed! He even abandoned Shi Hao, unable to tend to his body as a seed success right now, unexpectedly rushing inside. One could see just how serious the situation was.

“Great Elder!” Shi Hao cried out.

“Take it!” Great Elder tossed over a jade bottle, within it Heaven Mending Medicine, a hazy light released from within.

He previously still felt inwardly sore, but he couldn’t be bothered to worry about this now, only wishing to go inside the cave and see what was going on.

Moreover, he didn't even have the time to ask about the matter of this seed having a creature, so one could see how frightening the cave was, to make even Great Elder lose himself.

With a shua sound, Great Elder disappeared, vanishing from this place.

Shi Hao didn't hesitate, quickly removing a portion of the heaven mending substance. It was sparkling like jade. He smeared it over the cut, and then that seed quickly closed.

He succeeded just like that!

One had to bear in mind that this was a heaven and earth placenta, once it was opened, it meant that the creature within had fully matured, thus emerging into the world. Meanwhile, the seed membrane and other things would be destroyed, no way of restoring it to its original form.

However now, it had fully recovered, Heaven Mending Medicine able to reverse everything!

Then, Shi Hao put away this strange seed. He had previously promised that he would bury this seed in a place no one knew about, so that the woman could reappear in this world in the next great era.

Ao...

In the depths of the ancient cave, a great howl that made one's scalp go numb sounded. Did it come from Great Elder or another creature? Shi Hao's fine hairs all stood on end.

What kind of blasted place was this? Why was it like this? He really found it a bit difficult to calm down. He brought out the Everlasting Immortal Sword, and then rushed into the cave.

The ancient cave was dark and gloomy, raging flames surging.

Scattered on the ground were countless withered bones. This really was a bit horrifying, these creatures' cultivation levels definitely ridiculously powerful when they were alive, far exceeding the Sect Master Realm, extremely frightening. Right now, their bones were still flickering with radiance.

Not long afterwards, Shi Hao found Great Elder. He was currently digging in a deep crater within the innermost depths, unexpectedly an ancient pit filled with bone ashes.

There were many rotten bones in that place, and even more bone ashes, the scene extremely terrifying.

Occasionally, Great Elder would dig out a few frightening claws, skulls, and other things from the giant bone ash crater. Some of them looked like dragon claws, Qilin head bones, and other things.

Shi Hao was shocked, his entire body going ice-cold, feeling frightened once again. What kind of sinister place was this? It really was shocking.

"This fire cave has powerful fire essence might. The reason why I brought the seed here was to help it replenish energy, fearing that the essence energy would dry up when you cultivated within." Great Elder said.

Then, his expression became even more serious. "This was previously the residence of an emperor monarch. Too many people died, and true immortals were even destroyed."

An emperor monarch of fire dao? Shi Hao's mind was shaken. He had previously heard that only the most powerful expert of a clan had the qualifications to call themselves emperors! n--o--v-)e/(-L.-B-.l))n

Soon afterwards, Great Elder's body trembled. He simply couldn't believe what he dug up from within the bone ashes.

Shi Hao sucked in a cold breath. He couldn't help but back up. It was just too shocking. How could it be like this?

That was a human shaped creature, skin wrapped around bones, entire body scorched black. Aside from the layer of skin, it was no different from a skeleton.

Aside from this, it also had a pair of wings, carrying a faint golden color. Even though a large part was charred black, there was still a bit of golden light that flowed out.

What kind of creature was this?

Its eyes were sunken. That was pretty much a skeleton, but right now, it opened its mouth, weakly speaking something, releasing gaga sounds.

This was the noise produced by the upper and lower teeth touching, releasing a terrifying sound.

This scene was too frightening. Great Elder actually produced a living creature that was all skin and bones from the giant pile of bone ashes! After all this time, it still possessed life!

"A miracle! This cave still... had living unmatched creatures!" Great Elder said with a trembling voice.

"Senior!" Shi Hao shouted.

Hong!

That weak creature was extremely shriveled, lacking life energy. However, the wings that were overflowing with golden light moved slightly, unexpectedly making heaven and earth split apart, making this underground ancient cave shake intensely, and then melt, about to destroy it!

Shi Hao was horrified. Just how powerful of a creature was this?

"Could this be that emperor monarch?" He was shocked, making the association.

"Head back to Heavenly Deity Institution as fast as possible, do not worry about the matters here. If you stay behind it will be extremely dangerous, and you won't be able to do much to help!" Great Elder said. He avoided those wings, feeling great restraining fear.

"Then what about senior?" Shi Hao asked.

"Don't worry about me, I am not in danger!" Great Elder's expression was serious. He had Shi Hao here, but told him not to leak out any information about this place.

In addition, he told Shi Hao that this was in Immeasurable Heaven. They already returned to this world, so there was no need to worry about being unable to return.

Shi Hao was helpless. He left this place, departing from this ancient cave.

Hu!

Great winds roared. Shi Hao soared into the sky, hurrying towards Heavenly Deity Institution.

In the outside world, two and a half years had long passed. During this time, the nine heavens above could be said to be extremely brilliant. It was because geniuses emerged in large numbers, heavenly talents all rising up, many brilliant individuals appearing, this was an era that was brilliant enough to be recorded in the annals of history!

During these these few years, unmatched heroic geniuses continuously merged with perfect seeds, could be called world-shocking. In addition, all of them produced heaven overflowing irregular scenes, shaking up the Nine Heavens Ten Earths!

Chapter 1265 - Heaven's Pride Coming Forth In Large Numbers

Clear winds brushed the ground, the mountains and rivers below clear, incredibly magnificent.

Shi Hao moved like the wind, crossing over a boundless sea, passing endless golden deserts, traveling through lush and verdant great mountains.

Immeasurable Heaven was quite well-known among the Nine Heavens. It was extremely vast, limitless.

Up ahead, the scarlet mountain peaks were like sparkling coral in the ocean, red and bright, sparkling and translucent, extremely strange. This was clearly an area of divine earth.

The mountain was sparkling and translucent, almost transparent, but there were still many plants growing on it, all spiritual stalks. There were also many medicinal herbs that grew between the cracks of the mountain.

In addition, there were waves of smoke that rose, revealing a faint redness. This place was like an immortal realm, and together with the mountains, it produced an extremely gorgeous scene, a place that attracted much attention.

When Shi Hao arrived here, he stopped temporarily.

There were quite a few cultivators here, everyone coming and going, bustling with activity. There were a few old cultivators reading the future through the clouds, investigating underground spiritual roots. They were clearly preparing for a great project, building a school.

Shi Hao descended in the mountain range, asking some people for guidance. What exactly was going on, and why was there a need to do all of this?

"Did you not hear? Now, Immortal Academy has flourished greatly, Sacred Academy at its peak, both of them producing formidable figures. These are their people, here to find immortal caves." Someone replied.

Shi Hao was shocked. Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy were both pure lands, aloof from worldly affairs, places that had the richest spiritual essence under the heavens. Was there a need to come search for immortal caves?

Soon afterwards, he learned more about the situation. There were many people who came, and there were some who explained it to him.

“Right now, Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy are at their peak, flourishing with glory, but the two academies aren’t satisfied, considering the matter of merging, combining together, promoting interaction between the disciples so that they can better face the great disaster together, prepare against the great changes of heaven and earth.”

Shi Hao stared blankly for a moment. This wasn’t that surprising, because when the two academies came to Heavenly Deity Institution to choose disciples, they had already said that the three academies would merge in the future.

At that time, the three academies’ underground mountain range ancestral roots would be uprooted and shifted to one place, to the extent where the academies’ immortal caves would also be moved.

When that time came, the heaven and earth spiritual essence would definitely be so thick it wouldn’t scatter, becoming the most astonishing cultivation holy land in the nine heavens above.

“Did they choose this place?” Shi Hao further asked.

“This is just one of the possible places, they still haven’t decided. There are several destinations, all of them scattered throughout the Nine Heavens. Right now, they are currently carrying out the final filtering and confirmation.”

Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy were selecting a suitable site, so they will definitely dig out the most astonishing immortal traces, definitely become extremely astonishing. In reality, there had long been rumors leaked that those old monsters were searching for the few legendary immortal dao residences!

After an endless search, they roughly knew the locations, now truly about to choose a location. They were definitely going to build it on top of an immortal dao ancient land.

“Wu, if they really do end up finding the secret territory of an immortal king, that would be unimaginable! They would obtain the ultimate inheritance of an immortal king level figure!”

“Shush, don’t speak randomly. This hasn’t been publicly announced yet, be careful or else the academies’ elders might punish you!” Someone cut that person off.

This left even Shi Hao shocked. The legendary ancient lands the old monsters were searching for were actually immortal king secret realms? This was too shocking!

From past until now, just how many immortal kings were there in existence?

Shi Hao sucked in a cold breath of air. One had to know that now, there were no more true immortals, they were no longer seen. Moreover, even in Immortal Ancient times, long life beings were extremely rare, could be counted.

However now, they wanted to unearth an immortal king secret realm, how could this not be shocking?!

Without a doubt, this was one of the greatest events in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths!

Not far out, purple energy rose from the east, large amounts of auspicious energy poured down from the sky like a waterfall, dyeing the mountain range until it even turned purple.

Shi Hao was shocked, who was this person? He really knew how to make a grand appearance, arriving on an auspicious cloud just like that. However, his cultivation should be quite unordinary.

“That should be... Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s attendant, here to choose an immortal cave.” Someone said quietly, seemingly feeling quite the restraining fear.

From everyone’s discussions, Shi Hao understood that some of Immortal Academy’s best geniuses all sent out their followers to seize caves in mountain ranges that might become cultivation holy lands in the future.

Once the site really was chosen, the areas with the strongest spiritual essence would definitely be given to those exceptional geniuses.

Was Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch that well-known? Shi Hao shook his head, never heard of this name before. He only knew that Immortal Academy had a Nine Netherworlds Ao, as well as a Little Sky King, everyone else he didn’t know about.

Purple energy was hazy, like a veil as it surrounded the mountains and valleys. There was a mysterious auspicious energy that made everyone’s hearts resonate in response, feeling an urge to bow down in worship.

Was this really an attendant? Shi Hao was a bit shocked. This should already be a sect master level individual, but this person’s way of doing things really was a bit high-profile.

“This attendant really is... mischievous.” Someone wanted to sneer and say something bad, but in the end, he chased his words.

“Dao brother, please speak cautiously and do not offend him. However, he really is quite young. He has already grown accustomed to Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s indulgence. Now that he has a rare chance to come out, having this type of display is also pardonable.” An old heavenly deity said.

Shi Hao couldn’t hold himself back anymore, asking who that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was. Would even his attendant make one feel this much restraining fear?

A few people immediately looked at him like they were looking at a weirdo. They couldn’t help but give him a few looks, clearly feeling quite strange.

“This dao brother definitely cultivated in seclusion for many years, not coming into the world, which is why you haven’t heard of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s rise and glory.” Someone said with a smile.

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao found out how formidable Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was. When these people mentioned him, they were all full of reverence.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was born in a long life family, that place named Purple Manor, one of the richest and most powerful ancient lands in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths!

This clan originated from the last great era, or it could be said to be founded by an imperishable long life being. In the past, it had unmatched prestige, glorious like a heavenly sun in the sky.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch wasn't that old, he was an exceptional heavenly talent. When he was born, the clan's ancestral land produced all types of irregular scenes, for example, all types of divine beasts and immortal birds cried out.

Apart from this, the most shocking was that a heavenly sun descended from the heavenly dome, massive and endless, illuminating all things in the mountains and rivers, filling the void.

In the end, it actually shrunk, dropping into the delivery room. Soon afterwards, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was born.

This legend was full of mystical brilliance. Many people didn't believe it, but there were some who were convinced, moreover claiming that here was proof, believing that he was a reincarnated immortal daoist.

Meanwhile, ever since he was born, he was sent into Immortal Academy, accepting the old monsters' guidance and teachings. He obtained the family's best resources, as well as Immortal Academy old monsters' various rare medicinal herbs and other things, his flesh baptised in all types of divine medicines. It was rumored that when he was still a child, he already cultivated the Purple Gold Body that was known to be unbreaking!

Then, what was even more brilliant and magnificent was that when Immortal Academy's old monsters dug up an immortal manor, the young Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was also there. A purple seed actually flew out from within, entering his body on its own.

"Do you know what kind of seed that is? It is the Great Mist Purple Energy seed, an unmatched precious seed rarely seen in ten thousand ancients, its reputation too great in Immortal Ancient Great Era. Once it is merged with, it could sweep through the Nine Heavens Ten Earth, that is but an unrivaled seed!"

Someone said with a sigh. The others revealed looks of jealousy. Even though they had heard all types of legends regarding Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, they still felt like this person was too extraordinary, simply a child of heaven, obtaining the heavens' blessing.

As for his fighting strength, it was even more so incomparable. Right now, he already fully merged with Great Mist Purple Energy, harmonizing perfectly with it. The day he came out of seclusion, purple energy rippled out for thirty thousand li, shocking the heavens above and earth below.

This type of merging and astonishing phenomenon was even deeper than the ancient legends, exceeding those of the past!

"All of you should know of Northern Sea Forest, right? Those who are powerful can leave behind their name, carve it there. When Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch went there, the brilliance that was released from his name on a martial peak lasted for nine whole days!"

When he heard everything up to here, Shi Hao was stunned. This person's life trajectory was too brilliant, his brilliance difficult to hide even if he wanted to.

Previously, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch had always remained in seclusion, which was why not many people knew about him. After he came out from seclusion, everyone under the sky all asked about him.

Now, Shi Hao knew why Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's attendant acted so boldly. It was because Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch normally enjoyed reading all types of scriptures, and the one who accompanied him was precisely this attendant, the attendant also comprehending the dao, his cultivation advancing greatly, exceeding the outstanding talents of various clans.

Hong!

Not far out, intense collision sounds could be heard, making even the scarlet mountain peak tremble.

There was someone who clashed with Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's attendant. Scarlet red color swirled, as if the red sun of morning exploded, also as if endless magma flowed in the void, the expanse of red light brilliant and astonishing.

"Yi, who is that person, actually daring to clash with Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's attendant? Is he actually trying to suppress him?"

Everyone became shocked. One had to understand that the current Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch already rose up like a sun into the heavens, illuminating the world of mortals. Many old monsters placed their hopes on him, few people daring to provoke him.

"There's someone who dares touch Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's people? Who is that?"

"That blood red radiance seems to be a great hand imprint." Someone said with astonishment. Then, his eyes widened, releasing great brilliance. "I understand now, no wonder he dares to take action against the attendant!"

"That is Great Xutuo's[1] follower, so he naturally doesn't fear Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's people. It is because it is difficult to say who is higher and who is lower to begin with."

Shi Hao was quiet. It seemed like during this period of seclusion, a few formidable figures appeared, and he had never heard of them before.

Needless to say, that Great Xutuo was definitely extremely astonishing, or else how could he be compared to Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch?

He was naturally going to ask those beside him for guidance.

"Great Xutuo, that really is a heaven-defying individual, his accomplishments in the future frightening beyond imagination. He will definitely become an immortal in the future!" Someone sighed in praise.

There was this type of thing? Shi Hao really didn't believe this much. There were already no long life beings in this world, just how many claimed that they would definitely become an immortal?!

"Do you know the 'monk' type of cultivator?" That person said quietly.

"I do!" Shi Hao was naturally aware. These types of cultivators had existed in Immortal Ancient, and they were extremely powerful, and also extremely mysterious, a type of ancient immortal.

Only, this type of ancient immortal had already been wiped out. They couldn't be found anymore in the present world. n--o--v-)e/-L.-B-.l)n

“Great Xutuo isn’t like others, merging with a perfect seed. He is quite special, discovering the ashes of an ancient monk within an area of historical remains. The two of them actually combined together!”

According to the rumors that spread in Immortal Academy, that ancient monk’s ashes were world-shaking, containing power that was terrifying beyond imagination, rumored to be the condensed essence of an ancient immortal’s life.

The ashes of a true immortal level ancient monk completely merged with Great Xutuo, this naturally produced all types of irregular scenes. He obtained the inheritance of an ancient immortal monk, his strength deep and immeasurable.

Those ashes’ effects weren’t inferior to that of a perfect seed, there were some who suspected that the ancient monk who died in meditation might have truly astonishing origins.

With a sigh, carrying a bit of surprise, Shi Hao went on his way, heading towards Heavenly Deity Institution. He didn’t expect the outside world to have changed so much, this type of astonishing geniuses appearing in succession.

Not long afterwards, he returned to Heavenly Deity Institution. He discovered that this place was even more active, many people coming, all of them from Immortal and Sacred Academy.

These people were discussing passionately, all of them comparing which of those were the most powerful, the one that could become the supreme figure of the younger generation.

Why was it this lively? Shi Hao was a bit confused.

Then, he understood from the discussions of others that there was an immortal cave underneath Heavenly Deity Institution that had never been opened. Now that the three academies were going to merge, this cave was naturally about to see the light of day as well.

That was why the geniuses of the two academies appeared one after the other, coming here to divide up the natural luck, seize opportunities.

“Sigh, what a pity. This is my Heavenly Deity Institution’s ancient cave, yet there are no geniuses who could compete with those two academies’ people. In the end, we are just making the marriage clothes for another! This really is hard to accept!” There was someone who spoke in dejection.

It was because now, the so-called geniuses of Heavenly Deity Institution had declined, the truly formidable individuals had all been taken away by the two academies. The ones who remained were only mediocre in comparison.

Chapter 1266 - Great Age of Change

Shi Hao had known this entire time that there was an immortal cave underneath Heavenly Deity Institution that hadn’t been opened yet, to the extent where he had seen Great Elder angling here, using holy medicine as bait, wishing to draw out the creature in the underground cave, but he had been unsuccessful for many years.

This cave was extremely mysterious, not even the academy's Great Elder and others were able to undo the seal, so one could see just how firm it was, how difficult it was to move.

There was definitely an astonishing immortal treasury within, or else it wouldn't be so difficult to open. Even after endless time had passed, the ancient great formation was still perfectly unharmed, stopping all from approaching.

"Sigh, it really does leave one a bit sullen. This is clearly my Heavenly Deity Institution's immortal remains, yet it is destined to be taken by the geniuses of the two academies, we likely won't be able to fish up anything."

"Who can we blame for being inferior to others? Who could stop those exceptional geniuses, those supreme beings? A single one of them could sweep through all of the disciples in the present Heavenly Deity Institution, their power impossible to contend against!"

A few youngsters from Heavenly Deity Institution discussed among themselves, full of dejectedness. They were definitely stunning geniuses in their respective clans, and that was why they were able to be sent here.

However, after the two academies' selection, they were the leftovers, not viewed as anyone important by Immortal Academy or Sacred Academy. From a certain perspective, they were failures.

Now, the academy's underground cave was going to be explored by the three academies together, while they became bystanders, lacking the qualifications to compete over these things. They couldn't even get close.

It was because this was just how it was, even if nothing was discussed beforehand; the young supreme beings from the two academies were definitely going to be the first ones to enter that cave. When Heavenly Deity Institution's students went down, there might not be much left over already.

"Heh heh, isn't this dao brother from the Barbaric Ox Race? Oh, there is also junior brother from the Golden Giant Elephant Race. Seeing you all full of remorse truly makes one feel pity."

Not far out, someone carrying a faint smile walked over, revealing a mouthful of snow-white teeth, extremely bright. However, his appearance made these individuals who were currently chatting feel extremely uncomfortable.

"You're from Immortal Academy?" The Barbarous Ox Race's youth asked. He was quite tall and sturdy, having a head of thick purple hair. Two giant horns grew from his head, pointing directly into the sky.

Even though he was in human form, he still carried some characteristics from his clan. For example, his eyes were especially large, and the voice when he spoke was extremely loud and resonant, as if thunder was rumbling.

The young man who came from Immortal Academy laughed and said, "Actually, it's not a problem if you all want to enter the immortal cave, you can follow us inside."

"What are you trying to say?" Another student from Heavenly Deity Institution asked, his skin golden in color, his build even taller and bigger. He was the Golden Giant Elephant Race genius. nove/18-In

"I have long heard that the Barbaric Ox Race and Golden Giant Elephant Race were extremely strong, able to carry mountains and rivers on their backs with no difficulty. When the time comes, you all can help us move a few heavy ancient artifacts in the cave." The young man laughed.

The Barbaric Ox Race youth was furious, the two horns on his head shining. He really wanted to strike this person's face with his palm. This really was bullying others intolerably!

They were completely treated as a means to help Immortal Academy's people carry treasures, not seeing them as competitors at all, looking down on them too much. Did they truly see them as brute force or livestock for carrying goods?

"Dao brother, don't overthink things or be angry, being able to enter the immortal cave with the first group of people is already not bad. You have to understand that you are helping some young supreme beings carry treasures." The youngster was still laughing, a rather calm appearance on his face.

The Barbaric Ox Race youth had a naturally explosive temperament, white air shooting out from his nose. The Golden Giant Elephant Race youngster grabbed him, and then said to that person, "You all have spatial magical artifacts, so why would you need us for? Don't tell me you want us to serve as cannon fodder?"

"You're overthinking things. With so many people watching, Heavenly Deity Institution's elders outside, who would dare do this? It is just because the things in the immortal cave might not be things we can just bring away however we wish, some ancient artifacts have to be physically transported."

"Bully others too far!" The Barbarous Ox Race youth released a low roar.

"Up to you, if you aren't willing, then forget it. However, with great changes soon arriving to this heaven and earth, the three academies merging, I feel like it is still better if you have more pleasant interactions with Immortal Academy's experts." That person spoke indifferently, and then he left.

Heavenly Deity Institution's people felt inwardly sullen, truly angered badly, yet they felt somewhat helpless. What could they do? With things like this, Heavenly Deity Institution now not having a single well-known expert, there was no way of competing against the two academies at all.

The most powerful geniuses all entered Immortal and Sacred Academy, now, Heavenly Deity Institution only had ordinary disciples, not stunning experts. The disciples of the two academies had never put them in their eyes.

This was a corner of the current situation, but it was enough to speak about the general state of affairs.

Shi Hao passed by this place, not saying anything, not expressing anything, passing right by them, because he attached no importance to these personal disputes.

Who was the powerful enemy? When were the true great changes going to begin? Just how bitter and severe will the future great battle be? These were the things that he paid close attention to.

"Say, who do you all think is number one? Who would have thought that this generation would have so many heaven warping figures? They all remained quiet before, but now, they merged with perfect seeds one after another in these past two years, succeeding one after the other, it really is something that shakes up past and present!"

There was someone who sighed. When the glory of the past two years was mentioned, their minds began to stir with passion.

During the past two, three years, geniuses from Immortal Academy successfully merged with dao seeds one after the other, all of them unmatched ancient seeds from Immortal Ancient Great Era, shocking everyone.

Who would have thought that unmatched ancient seeds that already had great reputations in the last great era would be passed onto this era, appearing one after the next, moreover perfectly inherited?

From this, one could see just how great of a price Immortal Academy paid. Otherwise, why would they have been able to receive so many of these seeds?

Previously, there were some who believed that this era was inferior to Immortal Ancient, that this world was destined to have its skies dyed in blood, a dark ending, but now that they saw a few exceptional geniuses appear, many people felt a newborn passion, some old monsters even full of expectations.

"I feel that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch might be able to rule over the world. Of course, it might be Little Sky King who is number one under the sky." Someone said.

Someone retorted, saying, "The ones you all are bringing up are all people from Immortal Academy, I don't think this way at all. Daoist Qi Gu might be the one who is unmatched, he continuously broke through the extreme, transforming to an unmatched level, already unmatched in present world methods."

"Daoist Qi Gu, the one who likes to wear gray clothes, the expression on his face always serious, never smiling? I heard that he is quite strong, ridiculously powerful, but I don't think he is number one under the sky. At the very least, in Sacred Academy alone, there are others who can only be above, not below him." There was someone who stood out from the side, saying this.

"Don't tell me you are talking about that person? The one who was equally famous as Little Sky King even back then, that Little Saint who had remained in seclusion all this time?"

"Correct, it is precisely him. He was already called Little Saint ten years ago, let alone now."

"Wu, I've also heard of this person, he has maintained quite the low profile during these past few years. However, I don't think he is necessarily stronger than the present Daoist Qi Gu. Daoist Qi Gu has now broken through many great cultivation realms' limits, undergoing many rebirths like a phoenix, becoming stronger and stronger each time, long becoming unimaginable!"

A few people were discussing amongst themselves, speaking the names of several geniuses, however, Shi Hao didn't recognize a single one of them. He couldn't help but sigh, the changes really were too great.

At the same time, he also knew that he already left for two years, now almost reaching the third year. This was definitely not a short amount of time, the outside world already greatly changed.

"Wu, I heard that a terrifying figure might emerge, also someone from Sacred Academy, also the pride of heaven from this generation, incomparable, likely able to oppress the masses."

"Who?"

“You all should know about the long life family’s heavenly talent Wang Xi, right? She has a fiancé who is precisely in Sacred Academy named Jin Zhan. I believe some of you should have heard of him before.”

There were immediately some who were confused, but a few individuals sucked in cold air.

“Jin Zhan, this person is still alive? Are you sure?!” Someone cried out in alarm.

“Of course he’s alive, or else why would Fairy Wang Xi’s clansmen speak about marriage? He is definitely alive.” Someone spoke extremely confidently.

“I thought it was someone else for a bit, that it was Little Saint! Turns out her fiancé was Jin Zhan! If that person is still alive, in the future, who would dare offend the Wang Family, who would dare provoke Fairy Wang Xi?” There were people who were greatly shocked, their expressions nervous but also inspired.

No one thought that someone who was rumored to be dead was still in this world.

Jin Zhan, this was a legendary hero from Sacred Academy, unknown what race he was, only known that his appearance was human. He was unimaginably powerful, known to be the pride of heaven in this generation.

He had previously broken through the limits of two great cultivation realms within half a year, advancing a step beyond the highest level of enlightenment, restoring the very pinnacle.

Later on, it was rumored that he wanted to break through two more extremes within half a year, seemingly wishing to merge ten heavenly passages into one, also wishing to carve an unmatched innate killing formation within his body, but in the end, there were problems.

A flame appeared, burning his body, making him die a violent death.

It could be said that this person was too frightening, all because the requirements he had for himself were too high, anxious for quick results, thus leading to his body and dao being extinguished.

Now that they heard that he was the one being mentioned, still alive in this world, how could they not feel shocked? Everyone felt waves of fear. They knew that it was now really going to be hard to say who was number one under heaven.

Shi Hao was shocked. There was actually this type of rumors going around! Listening to everyone’s discussions, he felt like the two academies really had geniuses emerging in large numbers, hiding a few monsters.

“Wu, since Jin Zhan was mentioned, Wang Xi also brought up, I’ve thought of another person!”

“Who?”

“Huang!”

When this name was mentioned, everyone was first stunned. It had been too long, few people mentioning this name, almost three years. It wasn’t that long, but it wasn’t short either.

However, in this great era of rising winds and scudding clouds, great generation where heroes emerged in large numbers, it really was easy for powerful individuals to be forgotten.

After all, Huang was a special. As soon as he was brought up, many rumors related to him emerged again in these people's minds. They immediately felt a bit baffled.

"This person... it truly is a pity. This is also the hero of a generation, only, things change with the passage of time, he has already become a thing of the past." There was someone who shook his head with regret.

"Say, back then, if Huang entered Immortal Academy and obtained a perfect seed, what kind of level would he be at now? How great of a status would he have?"

"I believe... he should be strong, extremely strong. There would be a place for him within the young supreme beings. Only, it really is a pity."

Shi Hao's past power and astonishing battle successes were difficult for others to forget. Even with almost three years passing by, when he was mentioned again, they still couldn't help but feel complicated emotions.

"Heh heh, I feel like if he really did go to Immortal Academy and obtained a perfect seed, perfectly merging with it and emerging, he would likely be facing great trouble now, unable to escape this generation's pride of heaven Jin Zhan's suppression!" Someone brought up this opinion.

Chapter 1267 - Four Great Supreme Beings

"Wu, perhaps that really will be the case." There was another who nodded. Many people knew that Huang and Wang Xi previously had a falling out. The Wang Family's people had targeted him, to the extent where they even placed a diamond band on him, wishing to make him a servant.

Back then, this matter had stirred up quite the disturbance, many people from Heavenly Deity Institution knew about it, and because of this, Huang had previously suppressed Wang Xi, spending a night together.

Many people had heard this before. Huang did this for the sake of washing away the humiliation Wang Family left him with, but because of this deeply offended a long life family.

There were others who shook their heads, saying, "That might not necessarily be the case. Jin Zhang is the pride of heaven in this generation, so he ought to have his own aspirations, boldness, he might not necessarily seek out Huang to look for trouble immediately after emerging from seclusion."

"What a pity, things change with the passage of time, the Huang of the past..." There were some who were shaking their heads, feeling pity. Almost three years have passed, the people who merged with unmatched seeds all emerged from seclusion, while the one without a perfect seed vanished without a trace. It was clear that many people already came to similar conclusions.

Huang had already disappeared, not appearing again, so the conclusion was easy to predict!

"One's path is their own to choose, it can't be blamed on another. In the past, Immortal Academy didn't give him a perfect dao seed, so what if he entered my Sacred Academy? How could the results have been like this? It would be a completely different situation!" Someone said coldly.

“You should just stop, would Huang have been able to get True Dragon’s heart blood if he went to Sacred Academy, obtain Heavenly Horned Ant’s extreme strength blood? Obviously not. They were already divided up, reserved for Little Saint and the others.” Someone said.

Not far out, blue multicolored light flickered, hazy radiance scattering about, also dyeing this place with faint blue light, appearing cold and mysterious.

There was a hazy figure that appeared, her figure tall and slender, legs long. Her blue dress fluttered about, unable to hide her impressive curves.

This was a woman who looked like she was in her twenties, her skin snow-white and sparkling, beautiful like jade. She walked out from the blue mist.

They could now see her clearly. Her pupils were also blue, and her head of long hair was also blue like water ripples, bright and soft. Her figure moved gracefully as she walked over, long blue hair full of sparkling radiance.

This woman was without a doubt exceedingly beautiful, her skin white and translucent, eyes full of intelligence, large and beautiful. Her eyelashes were long, brilliant splendor released when they blinked.

“It’s her, long life family Blue Clan’s Princess -- Lan Xian[1]!” Someone released a cry of alarm, recognizing her. A wave of discussion was immediately produced.

Everyone turned around to look at her. This was not only because she was a peerless beauty, her looks able to topple cities, it was also because she was a female supreme being, an incomparably powerful young individual.

She had previously exchanged a palm with Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch. It was just one palm, yet it shaved off a divine peak from the Northern Sea Forest. One had to understand that that place was sturdy and unbreaking, difficult to move.

After endless time had passed, many people had previously went there to leave behind their names to test the depth and strength of their own cultivation realm. Different parts of the forest corresponded to different cultivation realms, this was an ancient holy land.

Rarely was there anyone able to destroy the forest, let alone a divine peak second only to the transcendence peak!

Lan Xian had previously traded a palm with Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, no winner or loser decided, both pulling back as a tie. The two didn’t continue to fight, so the outside world speculated that they felt mutual apprehension

This woman who was only known for her exceptional beauty before, after this battle, she shook the world. Everyone became aware of her power. She looked weak, beautiful like a fairy, but in reality, her strength was rarely seen.

“She merged with a ‘Sky Dome Seed’, dark blue like a diamond. When this seed appeared, it had previously dyed Immortal Academy’s skies blue like the dome of heaven, no one knowing where this seed went afterwards. Only after Lan Xian successfully merged with this seed, fighting against Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch did everyone realize what happened.”

There were some who muttered quietly, mentioning all types of things related to Lan Xian.

Not far out, Shi Hao's eyes flickered about. He could clearly sense that this woman was powerful. Was this the strength of the present world young supreme beings?

However, he also knew that Lan Xian was restraining her own exceptional aura, or else it would be even more frightening. The reason why he could sense this was completely because of his spiritual awareness!

The so-called Sky Dome Seed, during the ancient times, was known to be unspeakably precious. A seed that dared take on the dome of heaven as its name, how could it not be world-shaking?

This seed alone was given the name sky dome!

In the past, the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed was known as an unmatched seed that could definitely allow one to harmonize with the dao, the easiest to achieve immortality, long life and undying, a perfect seed. Meanwhile, on the other side of this was precisely the Sky Dome Seed.

This Sky Dome Seed was viewed as something the heavens left for their heirs, the greatest gift, able to forcefully oppress the mortal realm's Great Mist Purple Energy Seed.

Now, this woman personally arrived in Heavenly Deity Institution, did this mean that the young supreme beings were all going to appear? Everyone was quite expectant.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, Lan Xian, Little Sky King, Great Xu Tuo, these four individuals' reputation shook the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, representing Immortal Academy's greatest fighting strength!

Apart from this, there was Qi Gu, Little Saint, as well as the pride of heaven of this generation, Jin Zhan, these three one more powerful than the next, previously suffering several rebirths, their depths immeasurable.

Who was number one in the present world, who was the true number one supreme being of the younger generation?

Many people were discussing privately. They were all extremely stirred up, wishing to know the result. During this period of time, even the older generation were privately discussing this.

"In reality, we have to include the protectors' descendant Dugu Yun, Ten Crown King Tian Zi, as well as the most mysterious Exiled Immortal!"

Someone said with a light sigh. It was because these three didn't go to the Northern Sea Forest to carve their own names, and they didn't have especially glorious or world-shaking battle accomplishments, so they were difficult to understand.

However, everyone knew that they were definitely strong, moreover strong at the point where their true bottom lines couldn't be seen.

"We should just forget about that Exiled Immortal, there was no news of him obtaining an unmatched dao seed. However, that Ten Crown King is definitely frightening, after all, he merged with a World Tree Sapling!"

“Talking about these things is pointless, as for the truth, who could say for certain? I feel like there are still some who haven’t truly revealed their strength yet, and these individuals might very well be even stronger.”

Just a random discussion already named ten great experts, these individuals all the focal points of everyone’s attention during these two years.

“Wu, top ten great experts. Perhaps a few of them can be swapped out, because there are some hidden experts, but at least six or seven of them should be there, difficult for others to take their place.”

For example, the Nine Netherworlds Ao, even though Shi Hao had previously defeated it, there were some who believed that he still had the qualifications to enter the ranks of ten great experts.

Also, Sacred Academy had rumors that there was a youth named Yi Yi[2] who resonated with the Heavenly Horned Ant’s extreme strength blood, divine force matchless, bravery unrivaled. He was definitely powerful beyond comparison.

Aside from this, there were some who were sure that there was someone who obtained the Yin Yang Seed. It wasn’t Exiled Immortal who they previously assumed it to be, this person harmonizing with yin and yang, an aura of primal chaos around him, possessing generation crushing aptitudes.

Just like that, more than ten people were mentioned, all of them having the qualifications to enter the ranks of ten great experts.

Immortal Academy’s Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, Lan Xian, Little Sky King, Great Xu Tuo, Sacred Academy’s Qi Gu, Little Saint, Jin Zhan, these were already confirmed. They were definitely transcendent individuals.

There was also Ten Crown King Tian Zi, Exiled Immortal, protectors’ descendant Dugu Yun, as well as the Nine Netherworlds Ao Shi Hao had previously fought a great battle against, Yi Yi, the mysterious individual who merged with the Yin Yang Seed, and others.

Chi!

Not far out, multicolored light surged, all colors surging, the scene extremely dazzling.

A group of people immediately rushed over. Then, everyone were shocked, groups moving out. It was because they sensed a strong immortal dao aura surging from beneath the earth.

Everyone knew that there was an immortal manor underneath Heavenly Deity Institution, one that remained closed this whole time. Now that this happened, how could they not make the association?

“The mud pool!”

Someone cried out in alarm. This was the place Great Elder enjoyed to angle in, many people speculating that the entrance to the immortal manor was likely here. Now, the mud pool released immortal light, immediately raising a commotion.

Hong!

Scarlet multicolored light surged at the limits of the horizon, the radiance carrying a golden-red hue. It swept in this direction.

A pure gold alms bowl appeared there, crushing downwards, wishing to surround the mud pool.

“That is.. Great Xu Tuo!”

Someone cried out in alarm. The one who obtained the ashes of an ancient monk appeared, the one who was rumored to be destined to obtain an imperishable body, become an immortal monk!

That alms bowl was the embodiment of the ancient monk’s inheritance, condensed from Great Xu Tuo’s precious techniques. It could hold the sun, moon, and stars. Right now, it wanted to collect the mud pool.

Bo!

Blue light flashed past, a mysterious mist surged. A blue clad fairy appeared, gently moving her spacious sleeve, blasting the alms bowl away. She stood there, her impressive figure undulating up and down, beautiful and astonishing; this was precisely Lan Xian.

No one expected two of the most well-known great supreme beings to take action as soon as the mud pool appeared, opposing each other with equal harshness!

Hu!

Right at this time, a gray robed daoist appeared, standing in the mud pool. Crazy winds swept about, sand and stone flying everywhere. Many ancient trees were pulled up by the roots.

He wasn’t doing this deliberately, this was just the energy that naturally swept around him, the energy already blowing aside all rubbish in his path.

This was a type of heavenly wind that ensured he remained untainted by dirt, not contaminated by the aura of the mortal world. There were people who also called this immortal wind. This was the embodiment of a transcendent being’s tremendous potential, the profoundness of his cultivation.

“Qi Gu, he came as well!” Someone said with shock. Sacred Academy’s young supreme being appeared.

He was extremely young, but his appearance was ordinary. At the same time, he looked quite old-fashioned, not a hint of a smile on his face, completely expressionless.

This was someone who had undergone rebirth many times like a phoenix, reborn through flames, breaking through the limits of the present world methods several times, terrifying to the extreme.

“Dao brother Qi Gu has come. I have also come to join the liveliness.” In the sky, a mist of purple light emerged, an auspicious energy pervading the air, surrounding all directions.

Purple energy came from the east!

This was an indescribably noble propitious energy, vast and powerful throughout thirty thousand li.

It was clear that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch arrived. This supreme being among men, a heaven warping genius whose birth was even blessed by mysterious splendor had hurried to this scene.

An immortal cave unexpectedly drew the attention of several of the most powerful young supreme beings, descending here one after the other, it truly left everyone's minds greatly shaken.

"I understand now, the manor underneath Heavenly Deity Institution might very well be left behind by an immortal king, the inheritance here is likely glorious and world-shattering!" Someone made this deduction.

Everyone trembled inwardly, immediately feeling like this made sense. There might be an immortal king secret realm underground!

The mud pool shone, auspicious energy surging as if something was going to rise up, triggering great shock. Everyone rushed over together, wishing to fight over opportunities. ~~none~~(In

In the end, four great experts took action at the same time. Great Xu Tuo's true body didn't move, but the alms bowl did, collecting heaven and earth, the aura of an immortal monk endless, scattering over, making many experts feel reverence, not daring to approach.

Then, Lan Xian formed magical imprints, the sky dome rumbling, crushing down, the entire dome of heaven unexpectedly forming a sheet of great dao scriptures, covering everything above!

Hong!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was even more direct, actually exchanging a palm with Daoist Qi Gu from the distance, ripples immediately surging out like ocean waves, shocking everyone around them.

Fortunately, there were formations here, stopping the terrifying fluctuations.

"Wu, all of you, do not crowd this place, don't get too close!" There were some people who stood out, keeping order in this place.

"Immortal Academy and Holy Academy's people can stand at the very front, Heavenly Deity Institution's people, move to the back!" These words really were infuriating for Heavenly Deity Institution's people.

It went without saying that the great supreme beings at the central-most position in the mud pool would be the first ones to enter when the immortal manor opened.

Next were Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy's people, closely following behind those four great experts.

Even though this was Heavenly Deity Institution, the academy's students were ordered to line up at the very back, not allowed to be at the front.

"Why should we? This is our Heavenly Deity Institution, how can you treat us like this?" There were more than ten students from Heavenly Deity Institution who were discontent.

"It is because Heavenly Deity Institution is too inferior, not a single person who can come out and fight, just a declining place. The opportunities are to be left for the strong, those who are lacking should know their place!" Someone said, his voice full of contempt.

This could be considered a type of taunting, but for Heavenly Deity Institution's students, it was a type of humiliation, truly too hard to take.

They were in their own academy, guarding their own treasure, yet had no right to it, had to move to the back, it really made them feel like the other party was bullying them too far, unable to swallow this down.

Chi!

Right at this time, a streak of hazy light rushed out from the mud pool, wrapping around something, triggering a huge commotion. The four great young supreme beings all took action.

In the end, a great clash immediately broke out between them, a great confrontation erupting.

Lan Xian faced Great Xu Tuo, Qi Gu confronted Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch!

The others wanted to take action and compete, but they felt a bit scared, fearing that they would anger the four great supreme beings.

Right at this time, furthest out, someone walked out from Heavenly Deity Institution's students. With a raise of his hand, clear light swirled, directly seizing that object, grasping it in his palm.

Everyone was stupefied. There was someone who dared to steal food from the mouths of the four great supreme beings?!

Who was this person? Could it be that another young supreme being came? Everyone looked over, all attention focused on this person!

"He... why does he look familiar?"

"That is... Heavens! That is the one who has disappeared for a long time -- Huang!"

1. Lan = Blue, Xian = Immortal

2. Yi = abundant/graceful, Yi = ant

Chapter 1268 - Call Into Question

There was someone who recognized Shi Hao, releasing a cry of alarm.

This name was one that hadn't been mentioned for a long time. For a year after he disappeared, there were still people discussing him, but this slowly quieted down. However, today, his name was spoken once again.

Huang!

Was it really him? Everyone turned around, many people's attention concentrated in that direction!

He looked extremely familiar, it really was that person! Only, he looked much more ordinary than before, lacking a type of brashness, his entire being becoming much calmer.

A large portion of the people here had seen Huang before. Right now, they all revealed looks of shock, why did he show up again? From what everyone knew, he lost his position as a supreme being, supposed to never appear again!

No one expected that he would reappear today in Heavenly Deity Institution.

“It really is him, Huang has returned!”

A single leave and almost three years passed. Where did he stay during this time, what was he doing? Many people carried puzzlement within.

“Huang, he was previously the young supreme being of a generation! Only, because he didn’t have a perfect ancient seed, he ended up withering away. What does his appearance now mean? Could it be that he successfully merged with a dao seed?”

A few people were excited, especially those who remained in Heavenly Deity Institution, the students who weren’t chosen by Sacred or Immortal Academy, their faces even more so full of excitement.

“Our Heavenly Deity Institution isn’t without talents, just that he hadn’t returned before! Now, a truly supreme being returned, even the Nine Netherworlds Ao falling under his hands, he even more so dared to challenge Little Sky King!” A few people laughed loudly, feeling extremely stirred up.

It was because during these two years, Heavenly Deity Institution had declined greatly, the true geniuses all chosen away, gone without any intention of returning.

The academy didn’t have any other stunning students. Under the pressure of the two great academies, it became dim without radiance, losing all of its former magnificence and brilliance.

The present Heavenly Deity Institution was extremely low profile, something that couldn’t be helped. It was because there were no exceptional disciples here, those who were left behind all ‘rotten wood’ in the eyes of Immortal and Sacred Academy, useless.

Heavenly Deity Institution’s students were extremely inferior in status, unable to raise their heads before the two academies’ disciples. It was because none of them could compete against the two academies’ disciples.

When the two academies’ disciples appeared, Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples were all rejected, to the extent where they were harshly berated, not attached any importance to at all, lacking the respect they ought to receive.

“Huang, is it really you?” Someone cried out, rushing over.

When Shi Hao was in Heavenly Deity Institution before, he didn’t really have much interaction with these students, instead having some conflict with a few of the best geniuses, competing against them, for example, Lu Tuo, Wang Xi and the others.

However, as time went on, only these students and Shi Hao remained, the so-called heaven warping geniuses all left. Only a small portion of individuals remained in the academy, so even those that were previously unfamiliar with Shi Hao developed excellent opinions of him, as if they had seen a close friend.

A few people were even crying tears of joy, feeling their blood surge, couldn’t help but roar towards the sky. It was because they had suffered just too much unfairness and humiliation.

For example, this time, in Heavenly Deity Institution itself, when the underground immortal cave was about to open, Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples were berated and ordered to move back, not allowed to remain in the front.

Just how awkward was this, truly a type of extraordinary shame and humiliation. They felt ashamed and resentful, yet there was nothing they could do!

It was because previously, there were people who expressed their discontent, fighting back, but those who weren't chosen really weren't the other side's opponents.

During these clashes, forget about Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, Qi Gu, Great Xu Tuo, and the other true supreme beings, even their attendants and servants didn't take action. The others appeared, yet these individuals were still subdued.

There were some who had been beaten until they coughed out large amounts of blood, thrown out of Heavenly Deity Institution's gate, yet they could only hold this loss, remain silent, unable to say anything back. They held back their resentment and quietly withdrew.

The others didn't rush over, but they were all curious. These were the disciples of the two academies.

As for Huang, it could be said that few didn't know about him. He was an influential figure three years ago as well, previously displayed a series of brilliant battle accomplishments, such as subduing and taking the young genius Mo Dao with three strands of immortal energy as a servant, even more so defeating the Nine Netherworlds Ao and other things.

Two to three years ago, when Huang was mentioned, many people felt respect and fear, not wishing to stand against him.

Only, as time went on and geniuses emerged in large numbers, those who merged with perfect ancient seeds appearing one after another, how could he still hold his previous status? They all felt that there was no way he still had his brilliance from back then!

After calmly thinking things through cool-headedly, many people felt that Shi Hao was definitely going to lose the glory he had at the Heavenly Deity Realm. It was because he lacked an unmatched ancient seed!

Shi Hao was surrounded, more than ten disciples from Heavenly Deity Institution at his side, their eyes burning with passion leaving him feeling a bit helpless, but at the same time made him release a sigh. During the past two to three years, Heavenly Deity Institution really has been shown contempt and scorn, suffering all types of injustice.

"What is that thing?" In the distance, many people were curious, staring at Shi Hao's hand.

Specks of auspicious light moved about. Inside Shi Hao's hand was a stone box, extremely simple and ancient in appearance, also quite mysterious, wisp after wisp of white mist lingering about, even more so having immortal dao multicolored light rising from it.

This left many people moved. This was a precious box!

It actually rushed over on its own, flying out from the mud pool, clearly possessing spirituality. Everyone's minds burned with desire, really wanting to rush over and seize it.

Even Lan Xian, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, Qi Gu and the others were quite curious about what exactly was inside of the stone box.

Shi Hao looked it over, and was then about to open it. However, right at this time, someone from the distance, spoke up. "Wait!"

"Do you need something?" Shi Hao didn't stop, his tone indifferent, still examining this stone box. It was wrapped in flowing light, carrying a wave of auspicious energy, actually quite sturdy. After trying several times, he actually wasn't able to open it.

"Dao friend, the stone box flew out from the mud pool, so it should have originated from the immortal cave, an ownerless item. As such, it does not belong to you." A humanoid creature with an extremely large and tall physique spoke.

On his head was a single golden horn, his eyes also faint golden in color, long hair shining like a flame, his powerful and straight body giving off a type of pressure.

He clearly recognized Shi Hao, knowing that he was precisely Huang. Even if he didn't know about this person before, he definitely heard the others' discussions just now. Now that he stepped forward like this, he was clearly expressing a type of stance!

Everyone revealed strange expressions. They all knew that this person didn't have any good intentions. This was challenging Huang's dignity, sizing up his present true strength.

Even though this person spoke rather tactfully, not directly ripping up all face, this type of stance, this type of tone were clearly purposely to stand in his way.

"Since it is an ownerless item, then what is the point in you telling me to wait? An ownerless item fell into my hands, then it means it now does have an owner." Shi Hao swept out an indifferent look.

When that single horned humanoid figure was swept through by this glance, he felt a wave of alarm. His heart jumped, this Huang... could it be that he was still that frightening? Didn't he lack a suitable dao seed to merge with?!

His head of flame-like long hair scattered down, golden pupils releasing sinister light. He didn't shrink back, instead pressing forward a few great steps, saying, "It is an ownerless item, needing to be transferred to higher authorities, and then after the great families' discussions, only then could they be conferred to someone!"

Many people became silent, their eyes swirling with light, watching this interesting development. They understood that this person was determined to stand in Shi Hao's way, not allowing him to obtain the stone box.

Flames of anger appeared in the eyes of Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples, all of them extremely angry. This truly was going too far! If it was Great Xu Tuo, Lan Xian, or the others who obtained the stone box, would this person dare speak these words?

Now that this person saw Huang return, could it be that he didn't think the other party still had his past divine might, and thus purposely walked up to provoke him? Someone from Heavenly Deity Institution angrily said, "You are Jin Jiaoxi[1]? I've heard of you, you are proficient in the Rhinoceros Horn divine ability, your flesh strong, defensive force astonishing, having a set amount of reputation. However, acting this domineeringly really is a bit lacking in propriety. What qualifications do you have to stop my Heavenly Deity Institution's people from obtaining treasure?"

“Dao friend is making jokes, I am merely speaking with impartial motives, this is how it should be. Could it be that you feel like Heavenly Deity Institution’s people don’t have to respect the rules?” Jin Jiaoxi said with a smile.

Then, he gave everyone a look, saying, “What do you all say? It should be the great families who decide what is to be done. This is an ownerless item, so what do you all think?”

Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples were furious. This person really was determined to provoke them. Did he really think there was no one with strength in their Heavenly Deity Institution?

It was clear that everyone had their own selfish motives. Since someone stood out to stop Shi Hao, then quite a few strong individuals weren’t willing to see an immortal treasure fall into the hands of another. A few of them began to side with Jin Jiaoxi.

These people nodded their heads, expressing that they agreed with Jin Jiaoxi’s words. Since it is an ownerless object, then a decision should be made after everyone discussed things.

“If it was Great Xu Tuo or Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch who obtained it, would you all dare do this?” Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples berated. They felt extremely resentful towards Jin Jiaoxi’s actions, this person was clearly trying to turn everyone against them.

“Brother Huang, I really am sorry, it isn’t that I am trying to target you, but this matter has to be treated fairly. Please just hand over that stone box.” Jin Jiaoxi said with a slight smile. Not only did golden light surge from his eyes, even his skin released golden radiance. “Look, this is what everyone thinks, not just my own opinion. We all wish for this place to be a bit more peaceful, avoid bloodshed, to have fairness be carried out.”

Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples all clenched their teeth. Jin Jiaoxi truly was self-righteous, actually speaking this type of words.

“Is it everyone’s intentions, or your own? Or perhaps the intentions of those behind you? If you want it, then just come for it.” Shi Hao gave him a look of contempt.

He looked extremely calm, not treating this matter as a big deal at all.

“What are you trying to say?!” Jin Jiaoxi felt attacked by this type of indifference and disdain, making him feel a wave of humiliation. Someone who had lost his past glory actually dared to look down on him like this?!

Moreover, the other person’s expression was undisguised, not carrying the slightest bit of concealment, just as if he was talking to the most lowly and despicable person.

“I have previously heard that the treasures here would belong to whoever obtained it. By changing it suddenly on your own, who are you speaking in the place of? Great Xu Tuo, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, or Lan Xian?” Shi Hao spoke without an ounce of respect.

Jin Jiaoxi really wanted to berate and scold him, claiming that this was everyone’s intentions, but he was scared of offending the four great supreme beings, so he didn’t dare directly speak out, momentarily trapped in a dilemma.

“If you want it, then just come over. If you don’t want it, then get lost!” Shi Hao was extremely direct.

“You!” Jin Jiaoxi’s expression suddenly changed. He only wished to size up Shi Hao in the place of others, but now, he found himself in an awkward situation. He shouted coldly, “Fine then, I will come over myself to seize it. I will take it in everyone’s place!”

“You only want it for yourself, you cannot represent anyone. Don’t try to flaunt whatever righteousness, or else it will only look even worse for you!” Shi Hao said coldly.

Everyone’s mind jumped. This was definitely Huang’s style! Not long ago, he looked calm and aloof, as if he lacked his past sharpness. Now, they saw that he didn’t change at all!

Jin Jiaoxi really did come up. He was extremely careful, his figure swelling. His upper body turned into a divine rhinoceros, giant body incredibly intimidating, divine skin releasing a faint golden radiance.

That single rhinoceros horn was even more so incomparably resplendent, releasing electrical radiance, as well as metal attribute essence energy. It was incredibly terrifying, sword radiance rushing out.

His lower body was still that of a human’s. At this moment, he charged forward, wishing to forcefully seize the stone box, launching his attack.

Only when he approached did Shi Hao move. His figure shifted, taking action with lightning speed, but there was a type of aesthetic perception, directly striking forward! Eventually, all the brilliance disappeared, everything returning to normal, the other party nowhere to be found.

With a blur before everyone’s eyes, Shi Hao formed a type of simple and ancient magical imprint. With a leap, he broke through Jin Jiaoxi’s sect master level defenses, and then with a kacha sound, cut down his giant horn.

After a moment of peace, the single-horned rhinoceros released a miserable howl that shook heaven and earth, the great earth breaking open. The distant mountain peaks were even about to collapse, rubble rushing into the heavens.

His strength was extremely great, possessing terrifying divine might, but now, he lost his most powerful and well-known golden horn from a single clash!

Everyone became stupefied. This was just the beginning, yet it already ended! There was only one exchange, yet Jin Jiaoxi’s divine horn that condensed all of his essence was lost!

“With Heavenly Deity Realm power, Jin Jiaoxi’s defenses were broken through, his rhinoceros horn cut down, excellent!” Right at this time, the blue-clothed fairy spoke. nove/lb-In Everyone was stunned. It was Lan Xian who was commenting on this battle, speaking about the situation.

Everyone was stunned. He broke through a sect master level expert’s defenses with heavenly deity level strength, this was like something out of a legend! This was but crossing a great cultivation realm!

“Interesting, using heavenly deity level strength to strike a sect master level opponents’ weakest point of defense, and then borrowing the enemy’s power to trigger resonance, thus breaking his own horn.” Lan Xian.

Everyone was stunned. Was Huang doing this to display his dao or his techniques? Using Jin Jiaoxi's own power to break his horn, this was extremely frightening!

"You..." Jin Jiaoxi was in great pain. This was what he was going to use to achieve the dao, yet it was destroyed just like that! It left him in so much remorse that he had thoughts of suicide.

"Do you still want to ask for the stone box?" Shi Hao asked indifferently.

Jin Jiaoxi released a furious roar, turning around to leave. He knew that Huang was extremely frightening. Even if the other party didn't merge with a perfect seed, he was still not a match.

"Who said you could leave? I heard that divine rhinoceros meat wasn't bad. You, stay here for now." Shi Hao said.

"Ah..." Jin Jiaoxi screamed, shivering inwardly. He immediately turned into his original form, becoming a small mountain-like golden rhinoceros, turning around to run.

It was because he had previously heard some rumors that at Huang's peak, he loved roasting all types of rare strange beasts the most, extremely 'frightening', a demon king.

"Where are you going?" Shi Hao said quietly behind it.

Right at this time, great wind swept about in the distant skies. In addition, purple light spread. A young man with auspicious purple energy around him descended from above.

"Cui Zha[2], please save me!" Jin Jiaoxi screamed, truly frightened badly. He couldn't help but cry for help.

Even though Huang had left for many years, his power and influence still remained. After a simple probing, Jin Jiaoxi became completely terrified.

"Zi Tong, that is Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's attendant!" Someone said softly. The one who came was precisely the powerful attendant who followed Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch.

"Jin Jiaoxi, stand at my side. I want to see just who dares to touch you!" The attendant named Zi Tong had auspicious purple energy around him. He stood there, full of confidence as he spoke coldly.

A hint of a cold smile appeared at the corners of Shi Hao's lips. He walked forward. The reason Jiaoxi dared to provoke him turned out to be because of this attendant, someone from Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's side!

"Zi Tong, stand back." Right at this time, the skies became incredibly resplendent. A great purple sun descended, incomparably terrifying.

In the great purple sun was an extremely blurry figure who released astonishing divine might fluctuations from his body, as if even the sun, moon, rivers, and mountains were going to be crushed. It was precisely Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch.

"So you are Huang? Even though this is the first time we met, I have heard of your great name for quite some time!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

1. Jin = gold, Jiaoxi = horn, rhinoceros/sharp

2. Cui = Pure, Zha = dregs, slag in mining

Chapter 1269 - No Seed

This scene was extremely frightening. A great purple sun rested in the sky, full and majestic, releasing blazing purple light. Purple energy was released strand after strand, filling up the void.

In its surroundings, brilliant colors swirled about, purple multicolored light overflowing, crashing down like a waterfall.

No one was able to see Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's true appearance, his indistinct figure towering in the distant outer space, only when he opened and closed his eyes could one feel a surging exuberant life essence energy.

No one expected Huang to return. Now, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch stood against him. Were the two going to fight?

Only, what about Huang's cultivation? He disappeared for close to three years, no one knowing or able to understand his true strength. He didn't have a perfect seed to merge with, so could he compare to Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch?

In that instant, everyone became full of expectation. They wanted to know what Huang was like now.

"Did you have Jin Jiaoxi test me?" Shi Hao's voice was cold, not mild in the slightest.

On the other side, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was the exact opposite. Even though the great sun was dignified, illuminating the world from above, his words were gentle, carrying a peaceful tone. "It was my attendant being mischievous, stirring up trouble, please do not take offense."

The situation was deemphasized, with his words, he began to mediate the situation.

Shi Hao's eyes swirled with light, but he didn't say anything. If this heavenly monarch had other intentions, no matter how daring his subordinates were, they still wouldn't have overstepped their bounds.

"The Nine Netherworlds Ao is a long time friend of the family, a close friend of mine!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch directly said.

Shi Hao was shocked. Was this to stop him from saying something here, fearing that he would say something unpleasant from his interrogation? Was this why he directly explained some karma and relationships?

"Oh? Nine Netherworlds Ao? How is he? It's been some time, I wonder how far his cultivation has reached now." Shi Hao calmly said.

"When he fought a decisive battle against you in the past, it was a bitter battle of several thousand exchanges, but he still lost in the end. It dealt him quite the heavy psychological blow, previously experiencing some dark days. However, after suffering shame, he rose up boldly, relying on himself to enter an ancient cave, obtaining a perfect seed and then successfully merging with it!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

“Rising up from shame, do you think that being defeated by me was a type of humiliation?” Shi Hao looked at that great purple sun in the air.

“Dao brother is overthinking things.” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch still had a calm smile on his face, but he also felt a sense of distance. The great purple sun became increasingly resplendent, moving across the sky, as if it ruled over the lives of this world’s creatures.

“By approaching me, is it because you want to stand against me?” Shi Hao asked.

“When I came out of seclusion, I heard that the Nine Netherworlds Ao was defeated, which left me quite shocked, but at the same time a bit relieved. I knew that with his arrogant nature, he would suffer a defeat sooner or later, and only by this type of sharpening can he truly rise up. At the same time, I was quite curious, wishing to exchange pointers with the one who defeated him. Only, when I went looking for you, I discovered that you couldn’t find a suitable dao seed, and then thus disappeared. This left me feeling quite regretful. I was deeply moved that there was no one in the Heavenly Deity Realm who could go head to head with you, thinking that there wouldn’t be any more chances again in the future.” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch calmly said.

When his final sentence was spoken, everyone became shocked. Then, they all revealed strange expressions.

It was clear that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch had transcended above, someone who was exceptionally powerful and confident. His meaning was clear, the two didn’t exchange pointers at the Heavenly Deity Realm, and now that he entered the sect master level, there was no meaning left.

It was because Shi Hao didn’t have a perfect seed, so the distance between himself and someone like Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch would only be pulled greater, forever unable to catch up!

“However, when I saw you take action just now, I feel like perhaps I might have misunderstood. Those types of methods aren’t something an ordinary person could display, using Heavenly Deity Realm strength to defeat Jin Jiaoxi, truly is impressive!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch sighed with admiration.

When everyone heard this, their minds all jumped. What was the meaning of this? Could it be that he suspected Huang also had a perfect seed, successfully merging with it? However, how could this be? There were only those few seeds, it was a set number!

“When one’s cultivation reaches a certain level, it is difficult to find opponents. Huang, you can be considered a miracle, I admire you greatly. When I came out of seclusion, I heard many rumors about you. Today, perhaps I might have a chance to have my wish satisfied!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s voice carried a type of charm, a special type of charisma.

This was especially the case for female cultivators. His natural talents were extraordinary, known as one of the most powerful great supreme beings of the younger generation. Together with his outstanding style, he was one of the most heroic young men.

Not far out, the pearls of various clans, many beauties and female cultivators with moving appearances released brilliant colors from their eyes, gazing towards the great purple sun in the sky.

A few outstanding talents from the various clans, a few young men, even though they were jealous, they couldn't help but sigh. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch indeed had the qualifications to overlook the world, impossible to compare to!

"You wish to fight against me?" Shi Hao asked, his head of black hair thick, but also glossy and smooth, reflecting light like a mirror, naturally hanging down before his chest and back.

His figure was tall and slender, body naturally swirling with luster. His facial features were delicate and handsome, could be considered a young man with outstanding temperament, untainted by the energy of mortals, having a type of solitary immortal aura.

However, in the eyes of some female cultivators, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's attraction was a bit greater, because he was powerful, mysterious. After he merged with Great Mist Purple Energy, this unmatched ancient seed, just how many in these Nine Heavens Ten Earths could be his opponent?

Respecting the strong, revering the pride of heaven, this was a type of natural tendency of life. This was why Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch had extremely high prestige during these two years, receiving the admiration and fondness of female cultivators of all different clans.

Meanwhile, Shi Hao had disappeared for a long time. If nothing unexpected happened, there should be no perfect seed for him to merge with, and he thus lost the qualifications to become a supreme being. That was why right now, his popularity was inferior to Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch in the air.

"Correct, I wish to fight against you. Are you willing to accept?" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch nodded. That indistinct figure in the purple sun appeared, purple energy surging, having a sun and moon devouring might.

Everyone was shocked. Two great geniuses were finally going to clash, only, it was unknown if Huang can even fight or not. Would he even be Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's opponent?

"No problem!" Shi Hao nodded, not minding at all, agreeing joyously. It was because he wanted to examine the results of his seclusion in the last three years.

He had left for too long, many people about to forget him, even Jin Jiaoxi daring to provoke his dignity. Perhaps he needed a battle to intimidate the present world's heroes.

"Master, is there a need for you to personally take action? How about I fight in your place?" The attendant spoke from the side, making many people's expressions change when they heard this.

They called him an attendant, but he had long grown up, now twenty-five or six, in the golden years of his life. He was well-known because of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch.

He remained at Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's side every day, reading all types of scriptures, researching and studying world shaking ancient heavenly arts, his strength rising up greatly. He was indeed powerful and frightening, rarely having opponents.

"Just an attendant, yet you dare act like this? Truly quite daring!" Heavenly Deity Institution's students were both alarmed and angry. Someone stood up, loudly shouting. What kind of status did Shi Hao have? No matter how strong this attendant was, rarely encountering his match in Immortal Academy, he was still a servant in the end. How could he directly challenge Huang?

“Step down.” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s voice was deep and low, clearly a bit unhappy, scolding the attendant.

The attendant named Zi Tong had red lips and white teeth, appearance extremely handsome. When he heard this, he curled his lips, but still withdrew in the end, standing together with Jin Jiaoxi, still dissatisfied.

“Brother Shi is quite mysterious, disappearing for two to three years in one leave. I wonder which seed did you end up merging with?” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch asked.

He really was curious. In this world, from past until now, there were only those few true unmatched seeds, able to be counted.

Now, based on what he knew, the ancient seeds have pretty much all had owners, merged with people, so where did Shi Hao go to find one?

He wasn’t the only one who wanted to know, the others’ breaths were held as well, wishing to know what kind of fortuitous encounter Shi Hao had, if he truly had the qualifications to become a supreme being.

Everyone focused their attention on Shi Hao, their eyes landing on him.

“You are going to be disappointed. There are only those few perfect seeds. I didn’t obtain one, Immortal Academy unwilling to give me one.” Shi Hao replied as things were.

When these words sounded, everyone’s reactions were different.

There were some who felt unfairness for Shi Hao, feeling frustrated for him. He was the genius of a generation before, one of the most powerful supreme beings, yet no one regarded him as important, not giving him a suitable seed. What did this mean? From here on forth, he would start to decline, unable to rise up into the clouds, losing the qualifications to compete against Zi Ri[1], Great Xu Tuo, and others!

There were many who released sighs of relief, for example, those from Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy. They immediately felt like the pressure they were facing decreased, no longer feeling restraining fear.

It was to the extent where some people began to laugh softly. Not merging with a perfect seed meant that Huang was destined to become more and more ordinary, become commonplace. He couldn’t look down on everyone anymore!

“What a pity, even though the display was powerful, suddenly returning, in the end, he is still too lacking, unable to compare to true supreme beings.”

“Wu, if it was me, I would have definitely found a place to hide and disappear. What liveliness is there to join? Is being suppressed by another that good of a feeling?”

A few people took joy in his disaster. Shi Hao’s decline meant that they didn’t have anything to fear. There wasn’t much to be scared of.

Some of Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples felt a feeling of powerlessness, at the same time gloominess. This was reality. After this, it would be extremely difficult for Heavenly Deity Institution to raise their heads.

"How tragic." Immortal Academy's Wu Tai mocked. He had previously been cut down, and even the azure armor Little Sky King lent him was taken, which was why he hated Shi Hao bitterly.

"Nothing more than this! Without a perfect seed, what kind of achievements can you have? I think you should just let me fight him." That attendant spoke again, surging with battle intent.

"Did you merge with a wondrous ancient seed second only to a perfect seed?" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch asked another question.

"I did not, was not able to obtain one." Shi Hao shook his head.

"Haha..." Wu Tai couldn't hold himself back anymore, now roaring with laughter. He had his azure armor stolen from him and even had his body blown up, leaving him so ashamed he couldn't show his face. He had previously declared that he would wait for Shi Hao in the next great cultivation realm, that if he didn't have a perfect ancient seed, he will definitely decline. This was when Wu Tai would get his revenge!

He believed that the chance had come, managed to wait until this day. When he saw how bitter his enemy's circumstances were, he felt incredible joy inside.

"Lord, just let me! This kind of person who doesn't even have a seed as good as my ancient seed isn't worthy of fighting a decisive battle against you. It is enough if you just leave this to me!" The attendant spoke up again.

Quite a few people from Immortal Academy began to laugh, feeling incredibly carefree. It was because there were some who previously clashed with Shi Hao, and now, they completely felt at ease, no longer worried about this opponent.

This place immediately became noisy with voices.

"Why dares bully my bro?!" Right at this time, an expanse of light appeared in the air. Those were figures appearing one after another, a group of people hurrying over on divine multicolor light.

Dong!

Dust surged. Those people landed on the ground, at the very front a fatty, his face like buns, dressed in a moon white daoist robe; it was precisely Cao Yusheng.

At his side was a young lady with long silver hair that shone like a mirror, looking like she was fifteen or sixteen years of age, her large eyes sparkling and translucent like rubies. It was the little rabbit.

The Lunar Jade Rabbit made threatening gestures, widening her large eyes, baring her little teeth as she shouted, "You think you are anything special? Just a stupid attendant yet you dare challenge Huang? Trash like you, if it were a few years ago, we would have long eaten you already!"

Behind these two were Chang Gongyan, witch, Feng Wu, Zhen Gu, Firegold Clan's Teng Yi, Dragon Girl, and others. Most of these youngsters from the three thousand provinces chose to enter Sacred Academy, now just arriving.

The attendant was annoyed. In these past few years at Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's side, who dared to treat him with disrespect? Everyone was extra careful to be courteous to him, yet today, he was berated like this. He felt that this was absolutely intolerable!

"You all... don't understand the height and depths of heaven and earth! What is so special about Huang? I admit that he was strong before, but what is he worth now? He can't even get a seed with some flaw, his accomplishments will definitely be limited!" The attendant screamed.

"Even without merging with a dao seed, just because he is Huang, he can still kill you with just a finger!" The little rabbit cried out, her sparkling white face starting to become a bit red from agitation. Her large eyes were widened until they were round, clearly angered.

"Exactly! Back then, when Shi Hao had dominated the word, who knew what hole a brat like you was hiding in!" Cao Yusheng shouted.

"Even though I don't know what happened to Huang in these past two years, I believe that a single finger of his can beat you down!" A single smile from the witch dazzled all life, possessing an extremely seductive appearance, exceptionally enchanting. She didn't need any reasons to believe Shi Hao was strong.

"Correct, a single finger can cripple you!" Quite a few cultivators from the three thousand provinces shouted from behind.

Shi Hao felt a warm feeling. After all this time, these people defended him as soon as they appeared, making him feel warm.

The attendant's face fell ashen, truly angered badly. In his opinion, he had never suffered this much humiliation before. He was immediately angered to the extreme, pressing forward and saying, "I want to see who can cripple me with a single finger!"

The scene became extremely quiet, only his heavy breathing sounding. Everyone's eyes were drawn, because he was already approaching Shi Hao.

"As you wish!" Shi Hao said indifferently. His movements weren't fast, but extremely decisive. He reached out his right hand, his forefinger pointing out.

"Just come and try!" The attendant sneered. His entire body shone, releasing a type of astonishing precious technique. Purple energy overflowed, engulfing the sky!

Shi Hao's hand enlarged, his speed still not that fast, but it was heavy like a mountain, slowly crushing down, making one feel like they were suffocating!

The attendant's pupils contracted. He felt an instinctive feeling that things were not going well. He wanted to avoid, but he discovered that he couldn't do so!

After that finger enlarged, it crushed down like a mountain. He couldn't escape no matter what type of secret method he displayed, leaving him horrified!

Peng!

That finger pressed against his body. The attendant's body released a bone fracturing noise, his mouth coughing out large amounts of blood. Then, his entire body flew out.

His chest caved in, other parts also warping, difficult to imagine just how frightening of a strike he received. His entire body seemed like it was going to collapse.

Chapter 1270 - Heavenly Monarch

It was just a single finger. The attendant flew out, withering like a dried yellow leaf, falling onto the ground, his mouth full of bloody suds, the floor dyed red.

One could see that his entire body was twisted irregularly, as if a meteor smashed into him, his body caving in.

This was a heavy blow!

When Shi Hao's finger enlarged just now, it was like the 'monk' type of ancient immortal from the last great era, palm transforming the world, ruler of all.

A single finger was like a pillar that supported the heavens, casually descending, seriously injuring the powerful attendant. He laid on the ground, unable to crawl back up, already half ruined.

The attendant's body was contorting, his limbs twitching, shaking involuntarily. After suffering this type of terrifying strike, he lost all ability to move.

It was precisely like how Cao Yusheng, little rabbit, witch, and the others were shouting: a single finger was enough to cripple him. It was as if they were prophesying, this truly the result.

This place became dead silent, everyone as if fallen under a magical spell. When they saw this scene, they found it difficult to speak.

Was this Huang? Just how strong was he now? A single finger was enough to ruin the attendant, make him lose the ability to fight! It was just too shocking.

One had to know that this attendant named Zi Tong wasn't an ordinary person. After following Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, he was allowed to organize and study the scriptures that the heavenly monarch normally cultivated, the benefits he obtained unimaginable.

It could be said that in the present Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy, the attendant was also a formidable individual, could be said to be a heroic expert.

It was precisely under these circumstances that he was still suppressed by a single finger of another, seemingly crippled. Just how frightening was this? It made everyone shiver with fear.

When they recalled that this person was Huang, everyone felt like the situation was now grave. A past young king, someone who bore an unmatched attitude, someone who everyone thought declined, ended up returning like this!

In that instant, the atmosphere in this place became a bit stifling. Many people didn't believe that he didn't obtain a perfect seed. He definitely encountered some heaven-shocking opportunity!

At the same time, there were quite a few people who looked towards that great purple-colored sun, towards the young heavenly monarch. They all wanted to see his reaction.

This place was dead silent, the atmosphere a bit suffocating. It was because a battle between young supreme beings might break out soon!

Now, even though everyone didn't understand, they wouldn't doubt Shi Hao's strength. This was a terrifying king figure, just that they didn't know if he could rank within the supreme beings.

"Wu, impressive methods, using the True Primordial Record to break through the methods, transform the decaying into the miraculous. Only those who have read and re-read these scriptures, truly understanding, could they have this type of achievements." Lan Xian spoke.

Everyone was stunned, from her words learning what kind of wondrous methods Shi Hao used. It was actually the ancient scripture True Primordial Record!

Towards this ancient method, the upper piece was named Divine Guidance, this portion existing in the treasuries of a few top level ancient great sects, so the successors of the clan had the opportunity to read through them. This was why it wasn't an absolute secret.

However, the upper piece Divine Guidance's Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram wasn't something that everyone had seen.

Back then, Shi Hao had obtained it from a mysterious altar full of divine bones from the lower realm's western tomb's burial ground, on that place consecrated a golden arm bone, a crystal skull, and a piece of sparkling white bone -- Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram.

Shi Hao not only cultivated Divine Guidance's characters, he also achieved enlightenment through this diagram.

Meanwhile, at his age, those who had access to True Primordial Record's Divine Guidance found it difficult to fully comprehend. Only a few old monsters were able to research a bit deeper.

Shi Hao's several instances of dao comprehension all touched upon the True Primordial Record, already understanding this bone extremely well, his knowledge far deeper than others, reaching an unimaginable level.

Right now, he didn't show any expression in response, nor did he say anything.

In the sky, that great purple sun finally calmed down a bit. Even though the young heavenly monarch's voice was still calm, it felt even more distant, as if it came from beyond the heavens, giving everyone a chilly and inferior feeling.

"It is actually the True Primordial Record. It was rumored that even if one doesn't use precious techniques, only studying this method, if one can comprehend it to the greatest level, it can also fuse all methods, defeat all enemies with the most simple and plain bone texts. It seems like this statement has a bit of reasoning behind it." Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

Everyone's minds trembled. Was he acknowledging Shi Hao, praising his accomplishments in this method?

Many people had heard that this way wasn't the hardest to get into, the most frightening only later on. If one truly wanted to delve into it, even a few old monsters felt helpless, just the first piece Divine Guidance already leaving many people stumped.

As for the next piece -- Transcendence, forget about studying it, just finding it was impossible, unknown where it was. From past until now, not many people had seen it.

There were rumors that the Transcendence piece was in Supreme Hall. However, it had already withered away, no longer in existence.

"Brother Shi, I wish to ask you, did you truly not obtain a perfect seed?" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch asked, his tone serious.

The others even more so wanted to know what kind of seed Shi Hao obtained. They were also listening carefully, wanting to get to the bottom of what was going on.

"Even though Immortal Academy has a precious seed or two left, I heard that they were all prepared for others. I had no chance." Shi Hao replied, saying candidly that he didn't obtain an exceptional dao seed.

When they heard these words, many people were stunned. He didn't have a rare precious seed, yet he still had his present accomplishments, if he did obtain one before, then just how strong would he become?

Many people sighed with sorrow and regret, exclaiming in astonishment, but at the same time felt great pity for him. If he never obtained a perfect ancient seed, then regardless of how strong Shi Hao was now, how stunning, he was still destined to be inferior to those young supreme beings. After merging with a perfect seed that was acknowledged by heaven and earth, one would become like the child of the heavens, becoming powerful beyond imagination. Others wouldn't be able to compare at all, impossible to surpass!

"Did you obtain the ashes of an ancient immortal, and then merge with them?" Right at this time, Great Xu Tuo suddenly spoke. He didn't reveal his true body, just a pure gold alms bowl floating in the air, a voice released from within it.

Everyone was stunned. They understood his intentions, because Great Xu Tuo rose up precisely because of this, obtaining the ashes of an ancient monk, and was thus viewed as the successor of an ancient immortal.

Everyone suddenly understood. So it was like this?

"I have not." Shi Hao replied. This response shattered everyone's suspicions.

Right now, everyone was sure that he really had no karma with a perfect seed. With things already developing like this, in the eyes of the powerful, no matter how stunning Shi Hao was, he still wouldn't be able to withstand Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's might.

"It truly is a pity. With brother Shi's heaven warping aptitudes, there was still no perfect dao seed. It is just too unfortunate, missing out on the greatest glory of one's life.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch shook his head, releasing a voice full of regret from that purple sun.

Heavenly Deity Institution's students now completely lost hope, but at the same time felt extremely resentful, feeling that Immortal Academy was unfair. How could they abandon Shi Hao, giving the extra seeds to others?

"Isn't it because of your Immortal Academy's old fellas gave in to selfish desires, disregarding talent, giving the immortal seeds to those long life family's successors that they have special connections to, abandoning Huang? Truly hateful!"

There were people from Heavenly Deity Institution who protested injustice, speaking these words with anger.

As for who those final ancient seeds were gifted to, even now, no one knew. There was no confirmation, always remaining a mystery.

"Immortal Academy is just and impartial, please watch your mouths." Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's voice was no longer calm, becoming severe and cold.

Everyone shivered inwardly. They knew that this young heavenly monarch came from Immortal Academy, the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed was obtained because of an ancient cave opened by Immortal Academy, so how could he tolerate this academy being spoken badly about?

"It truly is a pity. I originally wished to fight against you to satisfy a desire, but now, it seems like you've disappointed me." Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch looked down on this place.

A few young cultivators sighed. Huang was already powerful enough. Even though he had only taken action simply just now, it shocked many people.

However, in Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's opinion, someone who didn't obtain a perfect ancient seed lost the qualifications to face him, not worthy of being his opponent!

Even though his tone was calm, this type of arrogance and powerful attitude immediately made many female cultivators' eyes release brilliant multicolored light, deeply feeling a type of innate domineeringness within him. This was how the strong were.

This was especially the case when the one he faced was Huang, someone who had previously forged an undefeated legend, his battle accomplishments splendid, yet he could still act like this. This type of decisiveness, domineeringness made him seem even more enchanting to some young ladies.

"The heavenly monarch is extraordinary after all, a supreme being of this age!" Someone shouted.

Those who stood against Shi Hao became even more excited now, hoping for Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch to display his power, even better if he could take action, suppress this person that made them feel uneasy.

"If master takes action, all enemies will naturally be suppressed. Huang is definitely not your opponent!" Even that attendant endured the pain, speaking with a placid expression.

As for Jin Jiaoxi behind him, he was extremely nervous, not daring to speak randomly, hiding there.

"The heavenly monarch is the most powerful, incomparable in this generation!" From Immortal Academy, Wu Tai and a few others shouted out, looking at Shi Hao coldly.

“Truly arrogant, what nonsense heavenly monarch? I’ve never heard of such a thing before!” The little rabbit was furious, annoyed at their words.

Cao Yusheng, Feng Wu, and the others also wanted to retort, but they felt like this young heavenly monarch was high up above, indeed having the strength to look down on the world. If they went against him, if he fought a great battle against Shi Hao, would it be a good thing? They were fearful that Shi Hao would be defeated and heavily injured.

“Back then, when Shi Hao was at the very top, how come we didn’t see all of you bad characters? Now, all of you feel like you are unmatched, as if you are all supreme beings, ridiculously arrogant. Truly shameless!” The Lunar Jade Rabbit grinded her teeth, continuing to mock them.

Chi!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch pointed out, a pill flying out, entering the attendant’s mouth. It turned into a wave of heat, rushing towards his limbs and bones, healing his injuries.

This was a divine pill refined from the most precious medicinal ingredients, the main medicine naturally divine medicine that could bring one back from the brink of death. It immediately displayed its effects, the attendant’s body shining, a wave of heat surging, connecting his muscles and bones. Soon afterwards, he stood up.

“Master, please take action! Huang is too arrogant, humiliating me like this is also a type of disrespect towards your distinguished self!” The attendant beseeched. His teeth were clenched when he looked at Shi Hao, now hoping that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch would suppress this person!

“Shut up and withdraw!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch berated.

“Didn’t you want to fight me?” Shi Hao asked.

“In this present cultivation realm, there is no need.” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said indifferently, a bit cold. It was as if there was a great distance between them, sounding even more arrogant.

It was because it was just like he said. For those without perfect seeds, he felt that it was beneath him to view them as opponents.

The corners of Shi Hao’s lips curled up, carrying a faint smile. “How will you know without giving it a try?”

“Fine!” Suddenly, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch responded like this, leaving everyone a bit surprised. Wasn’t it beneath him to fight? Why did he suddenly agree?”

“I know that you are powerful in the Heavenly Deity Realm, then how about the two of us just fight in the Heavenly Deity Realm?!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

Everyone was first stupefied. He was not an ordinary person after all, full of confidence. He was actually going to fight Shi Hao like this!

One had to understand that Huang was too splendid in the Heavenly Deity Realm, unstoppable, never suffering a defeat, intimidating the heavenly talents of all clans!

Now, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch actually wanted to fight him in the Heavenly Deity Realm, just how confident and domineering was this? He wanted to decide victory and defeat in this manner.

Many female cultivators immediately became excited, a few even screaming out. They felt that Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was decisive and powerful, truly like the monarch of a generation, daring to face an enemy in their most powerful aspect.

“Heavenly monarch will definitely win, difficult for you to face a defeat under the sky!” Several young ladies who had good opinions of him shouted with excitement.
