

Perfect WD 1271

Chapter 1271 - Still the Same Huang.

A purple sun suspended in the air, divine flames surging, purple energy released by the thousands and tens of thousands of streaks, covering the void.

“Heavenly monarch is unmatched, shattering all legends!” Many people shouted out. They looked towards that purple heavenly sun.

Among these people, many were young women, no lack of pearls from great clans. They shouted loudly for Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, extremely excited.

There were also some men, for example, Wu Tai, who had a sneer at the corner of his lips. He was full of expectation, really wanting to see the scene of Huang’s defeat.

He suffered a great defeat in Realm Tomb, having the azure armor seized, nursing hatred until now, constantly thinking about revenge and how to erase his humiliation.

The attendant also shouted with a shrill voice, “Master, you definitely have to suppress him! What Huang, what undefeated legend? What does this all count as? Once master steps out, he will inevitably die!”

Jin Jiaoxi widened his eyes, his golden pupils releasing deep divine light. He was quite stirred up. If Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch suppressed Shi Hao, then he would be completely at ease. He also released a low roar.

At this moment, this place became noisy, becoming incredibly lively. Many experts hurried over.

The great purple sun moved slowly. When it was not that far from Shi Hao, only then did it stop moving. The indistinct figure within released matchless divine might!

Great Mist Purple Energy Seed, known to be unmatched through Immortal Ancient!

All those who have merged with this seed in history were the strongest in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, absolutely stunning. There were too many legends related to it!

Right now, all eyes were staring at that great purple sun in the air, all of their heads raised, feeling great respect and reverence.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch became the focal point, standing in the air, his blurry figure like an unrivaled immortal, matchless under the sky, overlooking the masses. The great purple sun around him released terrifying flames of light that flourished with increasing brilliance.

A few people were trembling, couldn’t help but bow down in worship.

It was because the radiance that great purple sun released formed ripples that undulated out, making many powerful individuals tremble with fear, their souls even pounding.

Meanwhile, on the other side, Shi Hao stood there calmly, the corners of his clothes fluttering in the wind, somewhat weak looking, a bit cold and cheerless. It was as if there was an aloof aura to him, but he just looked like he was missing some domineeringness.

Right now, everyone's eyes were concentrated on the large purple sun, staring at that heavenly monarch. Aside from Cao Yusheng, Chang Gongyan, little rabbit and others, there weren't many who were paying attention to Shi Hao.

It was because the crowd already reached the final conclusion that Huang was definitely going to be defeated today. Even if he used to be glorious and unmatched, he would soon become a stepping stone for Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch.

A few people sighed, feeling regret for him. Huang's legendary reputation might be completely destroyed today.

There were some whose lips curled into a sneer, waiting for the moment when he was humiliated and defeated to arrive, for example, Wu Tai, the attendant, Jin Jiaoxi, and others.

"Come then, a battle at the Heavenly Deity Realm. Huang, let me see just how strong you were before, if you deserved your reputation!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's voice was cold, ruthless, making one feel a wave of pressure.

"Shi Hao!" From behind him, the Lunar Jade Rabbit, Cao Yusheng, Feng Wu, and the others all revealed looks of worry. Even if it was a confrontation at the heavenly deity level, it was still difficult to say what would happen.

It was because after the other party merged with a perfect seed, his body underwent a comprehensive evolution, crushing the heavenly deity realm. Meanwhile, the inner quality of his body remained the same.

"Don't worry." Shi Hao laughed towards them. He began to move forward, facing that great purple sun.

Finally, it was about to start. Everyone felt extremely nervous, a few eyes starting to look towards Shi Hao.

"He actually dares to face the enemy head-on?" On Immortal Academy's side, a few people said, the words quite stinging.

"Heh heh, I mean this is Huang we are talking about, someone who used to be the young supreme being of a generation, so how could he feel no shame and just withdraw? He has to fight to the end no matter what?" Wu Tai said, taking delight in his disaster. He finally waited until this moment, really wishing to see the scene of Shi Hao's miserable defeat.

No one thought that things were going to end well for Shi Hao. Regardless of whether it was Immortal Academy's people who were hostile towards him, or those who were unrelated, they all felt that after Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch merged with the dao seed, he was unmatched regardless of what cultivation realm he was in!

"Truly is a pity. He had his time of glory before as well, but he is going to quietly fall just like this!" Even the somewhat timid Jin Jiaoxi began to speak up, feeling extremely excited.

"There's nothing to worry about at all, now that master is taking action, no one can stop him. From here on out, Huang is definitely going to be knocked down from his pedestal!" The attendant sneered.

Hong!

Right at this time, a loud noise sounded. Everyone closed their mouths, because a wave of great dao energy flowed about, leaving everyone greatly alarmed. They all felt uneasy inside.

The large purple sun slowly moved about, as if it had existed for an endless amount of time, as if it slowly moved over from the depths of the cosmos' stellar stream, descending into the world of mortals.

This was produced by Great Mist Purple Energy. It was incredible ancient to begin with, the years impossible to measure!

At this moment, it wrapped around Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, carrying mysterious dao laws. It rumbled down, crushing down towards Shi Hao.

This time, auspicious energy overflowed, purple energy released in ten thousand streaks. It was as if the mountains and rivers were roaring, the sounds world-shaking. The scene here was shocking to the extreme.

Was this even power at the heavenly deity level?

Everyone's minds trembled, this power even more frightening than some sect masters. How was one supposed to face this? It was simply like the roar of an undying being!

Dong!

Right at this time, Shi Hao moved, slowly pushing into the void. The purple energy that covered heaven and earth began to surge within his palm, releasing the sounds of wind and thunder.

The purple energy that swept towards him scattered, unable to approach his body!

Everyone's eyes narrowed. In the Heavenly Deity Realm, Huang had unmatched style after all. Was not even the current Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch able to deal with him?

"If nothing unexpected happened, the two of us would not have crossed each other, no chance of clashing, but I always wanted to have a look at you in your most glorious time, what you really were like!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

His meaning was clear. If nothing unexpected happened, then in the sect master level, he felt that it was beneath him to cross hands with Shi Hao. it was because the other party lost the qualifications to become his opponent.

Right now, his hands and feet were bound. Only by restricting his cultivation to the Heavenly Deity Realm could the two barely be a match.

"You are too self-confident!" Shi Hao said with an ordinary tone. He only had this sentence, not refuting anything.

Huang, you should just do your best. I hope you don't disappoint me!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch shouted, his voice like thunder in summer, deafening. Then, he dove down.

In that instant, the sun and moon lost luster, the mountains and rivers losing color. This world began to rumble about, the void rupturing open!

The large sun created by the Great Mist Purple Energy surrounded him. He quickly swooped down, as if the stars from outer space were smashing downwards, bringing a type of incomparable might and pressure.

Honglong!

Purple light covered the sky, the world was submerged within!

Terrifying energy surged like a sea. This was a type of unmatched great power that couldn't be changed, able to suppress all!

Everyone was stunned. Was this the true strength of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch? He was just about unmatched in the Heavenly Deity Realm, if he wasn't suppressed, just how astonishing would he be?

The powerful all saw that the figure below was drowned in purple energy, almost no longer visible. That was Huang, he looked extremely frail, extremely delicate, making others sympathize with him.

Was it going to end just like this? It was because Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's might was too strong, several times more frightening than the Nine Netherworlds Ao Shi Hao faced in the past!

In Cao Yusheng's eyes, this simply left one in despair. The Lunar Jade Rabbit, Feng Wu, and the others' faces were pale. They were already extremely worried before, but now, they felt even more like Shi Hao was most likely finished, that there was danger to his life.

"I just knew that Huang was not good enough now, he isn't worth anything. He'll be captured by master soon!" The attendant laughed loudly.

"Heh heh, Huang, turns out there's a day when even you will be like this. Do you see now? Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's strength is several times greater than yours back then, you're not good enough!" Wu Tai laughed, feeling extremely carefree.

"This is only the beginning, but is it already going to end?" Someone laughed loudly.

The purple sun released strand after strand of divine multicolored light, tearing through everything below, gradually submerging everything.

At first, that place was still calm, but later on, everyone felt that something wasn't right. Why was it that after that purple sun descended, it still surrounded that area, couldn't truly blast it to pieces?

Sure enough, the oppression was broken through. A tall and slender figure produced a fist imprint below the purple sun, and then with tremendous strength, smashed it into that great purple sun.

Then, the auspicious energy and purple energy couldn't cover that area anymore, completely blasted through!

Hong!

In the end, a streak of thunder tore through the void, shattering heaven and earth, erupting!

Dong!

The figure below the purple sun appeared. Shi Hao was still delicate and handsome, looking otherworldly, but when he took action, it was extremely domineering. That fist looked simple and ordinary, not releasing light, but it smashed the great purple sun until it shook, about to fall apart!

Everyone was horrified, this place immediately becoming dead silent, so quiet a falling pindrop could be heard.

What was going on? Just now, they still saw Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch stirring the divine sun, pressuring Shi Hao, but in the blink of an eye, everything changed, that great sun even smashed to pieces!

The ones who were still mocking and speaking coldly all shut their mouths, feeling a wave of chilliness run through their minds. Every single one of them stopped talking.

Even the attendant closed his mouth, watching nervously, Wu Tai even more so looked like a duck with its throat cut, his voice coming to a grunting stop. There were others that shivered inwardly as well.

Huang was even stronger than before!

They were both in the Heavenly Deity Realm, but he was even more formidable than before!

Many people felt great waves stir within them, their thoughts all over the place. When they looked at Shi Hao, none of them knew what to say. This person who used to be a supreme being was too pitiful. Why didn't he obtain an ancient seed?

Even if the other geniuses were making progress, transforming after obtaining precious seeds, advancing rapidly, Huang still didn't fall behind, still possessing world-shaking aptitude in the Heavenly Deity Realm.

Dong!

Another great noise sounded. Shi Hao moved his arms, like a Kun Peng spreading its wings, he released incomparable might, shaking up the entire place!

He blasted that purple great sun until it cracked apart, and then rushed into midair.

Shua!

The great sun cracked apart, turning into tens of thousands of streaks of purple energy, auspicious energy surging, filling up heaven and earth. They all entered the body of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch who was standing in midair.

"I said I won't use the power of a higher cultivation realm, so this purple energy can't be used, only affecting my battle. I will put it away!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

At this moment, all of the purple energy was withdrawn, but his true appearance still couldn't be seen, because it was surrounded by sparkling purple light, even his face indistinct.

However, everyone could already see his body, tall and straight, purple hair scattering down, eyes like cold streaks of lightning. He was extremely handsome and heroic in appearance, possessing a type of peerless domineeringness.

He was different from before when he was talking calmly, his appearance now grand and imposing, domineering and powerful.

“Huang, come and fight. Do not disappoint me!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch dove back down.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, everyone felt as if lightning tangled about them, thunder rumbling. This place was covered in electrical light, the energy terrifying.

When Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch took action, it was like thunder, fast like lightning, instantly exchanging a thousand blows with Shi Hao. This type of scene was horrifying!

Chi!

One could see that his entire body was wrapped within purple light, brilliant and world-shocking, as if a comet was flying through the air each time he moved!

Behind him appeared an extremely terrifying purple Qilin, as if it was going to obliterate the world. Its roar ran through heaven and earth, massive body even larger than a mountain peak, towering into the clouds.

That type of aura made it hard for everyone to breathe.

Everyone was astonishing. This was the Qilin precious technique!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch immediately displayed one of the Vicious Ten precious techniques, one could imagine just how great his family's background and resources were. His attacks were bold and powerful, the Qilin Fist world shocking!

Shi Hao's entire body shone, becoming resplendent for the first time, as if he was turning into a Kun Peng. He similarly confronted his opponent with a Vicious Ten precious technique.

Hong!

A Peng bird spread its wings at the skies, tearing apart the heavens, its cry making mountains collapse and seas roar, incomparable, dominating all!

Right now, Shi Hao was like a demon lord. His body covered the sky, possessing a type of unequalled great might.

Everyone finally became frightened. This Huang was even more terrifying than what they had imagined, truly immeasurable, the aura he released could simply directly face Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's power!

Ao...

The Qilin released a long roar, its body even larger than a mountain peak, towering between heaven and earth. Purple light rushed in all directions, the Qilin's massive body filling up this entire world, sinister and terrifying.

Hong!

The Qilin's great claw slapped towards the Kun Peng, the void in that area directly exploding, many large black cracks covering that area, the heavens shattering.

The Kun Peng released a long cry, shooting straight up, as if it was going to break into outer space, instantly traveling who knew how many li.

Shi Hao didn't cower back, instead attacking head-on, facing the opponent just like that.

Dong!

The two clashed together, Qilin Claw facing Kun Peng Claw, space itself shattering.

The mountainous purple Qilin roared, scattering the cloud layer that filled the sky, lightning hacking down. Its enormous body towered there, expression incredibly cold and ruthless.

Then, it dove at the Kun Peng, wishing to fight him to the death.

In that instant, the Kun Peng's wings struck out, black and gold colors swirling, yin and yang emerging. When they made contact, primal chaos light erupted.

Peng!

The Qilin was seriously injured, blood flowing out from the corners of its mouth, flying out.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was also injured as a result, greatly shaken up, his body also blown back.

Shi Hao moved his arms, turning into a Kun Peng, immediately diving over. The two began to fight a life and death struggle.

Hou!

A roar sounded from the void. The Purple Qilin tore viciously at the Kun Peng, tangling together, blood immediately splashing out, collapsing the void.

They were fighting a great intense battle, instantly reaching its climax.

Moreover, the two individuals' speeds were too fast, instantly exchanging over a hundred blows. That was why even though not much time had passed, the rate at which they clashed was shockingly frightening.

Pu!

The Qilin released a mournful wail, blood surging. One of its horns was forcibly broken by a Kun Peng claw, falling together with large amounts of blood.

Even though these were produced by precious techniques, they would still affect the user's body. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's body was shaken up greatly, blood flowing from the space between his brows. He suffered an extremely terrifying backlash.

He staggered backwards. How could it be like this?

He was actually injured by Huang!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's expression suddenly changed greatly. He actually lost! For someone who believed himself to be unmatched, without equal, number one in the younger generation under the sky, this was unacceptable!

The others were also petrified. No one expected this to be the result! The space between Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's brows was dyed with blood; he was already injured.

Hou!

A world-shaking great roar sounded. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's body expanded, turning into a divine bird. Purple-colored feathers shone magnificently, plume feathers even longer than a mountain range.

This was a purple phoenix, incredibly large, every feather as grand and magnificent as a mountain ridge. Its entire body was swirling with luster, purple multicolored light resplendent, extremely dazzling.

Everyone was moved, incomparably shocked.

"True Phoenix Precious Technique!"

Someone shouted in alarm. When this type of formidable divine ability was displayed, who could contend against it?

In everyone's heart, the True Dragon and True Phoenix were world-shaking, impossible to win against; there was reasoning behind this.

Hong!

Now that the purple-colored True Phoenix appeared, heaven and earth lost color, wind and clouds changing, exceptionally frightening. Rumbling thunder suddenly appeared, descending on its own.

Shi Hao was still a human-shaped Kun Peng, resisting the other overlord of the vicious birds, Kun Peng confronting True Phoenix!

Chi!

The two individuals turned into streaks of lightning, clashing with extreme speed. In that instant, brilliant divine light erupted, engulfing the heavens above and the earth below, impossible to stare straight at.

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled, crazy winds howled about. The world overflowed with waves of blood, feathers falling from time to time, sticky with blood. The two immortal bird overlords were tearing at each other intensely, competing ferociously.

This was a great intense battle, one that was incomparably bitter.

Hou!

It was clearly a purple phoenix, but it released the roar of a beast from its mouth, leaving everyone shaken to the point where their qi and blood were surging, some even coughing out large mouthfuls of blood.

This purple phoenix quickly enlarged, instantly towering in the heavens, as if it was going to enter outer space. It was giant beyond belief, and then it opened its mouth, directly swallowing the Kun Peng.

One had to bear in mind that the Kun Peng was who knew how many times larger than a mountain peak, but it was still swallowed in one mouthful right now.

This was the power of the phoenix bird, matchless and domineering. It was going to devour and refine its opponent!

Everyone's hearts were pounding as they watched this, all of them stupefied.

However, before the attendant released a cheer, right at that time, the purple phoenix' stomach swelled, and then a thunderous noise sounded. In the end, it exploded!

Light shone resplendently there, extremely blinding. A human shape Kun Peng emerged. Shi Hao formed a fist imprint, the power unstoppable. Regardless of whether it was the phoenix feathers or phoenix bone texts, nothing could stop him!

Peng!

He tore open the True Phoenix' stomach with an unmatched fist imprint, breaking free. Even though this wasn't Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's real stomach, it still inflicted serious damage. The phoenix bird shrunk in size, revealing his true body. Then, he flew outwards!

Peng!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was struck flying, coughing out large mouthfuls of blood, falling headfirst in the distance.

This was a world-shaking great battle. No one was able to count just how many moves were exchanged, because their speeds were too fast. Was it going to end just like this?

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch stood up, his face cold, wishing to keep fighting. However, he clenched his teeth, not continuing in the end.

Those people who originally planned to cheer were all silent, all of them dumbstruck and at a loss for words. There was actually this type of result!

"Still want to fight?" Shi Hao asked.

When this sentence sounded, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's brows stood up vertically, his fists tightly clenched.

As for the others, they didn't know what to say. The ones who were speaking against Shi Hao all had their mouths tightly shut, finding it difficult to open them.

"Heh heh... haha..." The little rabbit was the first one to laugh, moreover an extremely unbridled great laughter.

Then, Cao Yusheng and the others all began to laugh one after another, this laughter extremely ear-piercing in the ears of everyone from Immortal Academy.

“Haha, we won, Huang has achieved a great victory! Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch is not a match for my Heavenly Deity Institution’s Huang!” Heavenly Deity Institution’s disciples shouted loudly, feeling incredibly excited.

“You all should act less complacent. What can this battle count as?!” The attendant cried out. He found this result extremely hard to accept.

“What is there to laugh about?!” Wu Tai was also annoyed, expressing his annoyance, roaring loudly.

Peng!

Shi Hao took action, still a finger, quickly enlarging, crushing down on the attendant’s body, snapping his bones and tearing apart his muscles. He flew outwards, half crippled once more.

“You...” The attendant was shocked and furious, large mouthfuls of blood coughed out from his mouth. He glared out angrily, but Shi Hao felt that it was beneath him to pay this person any more attention, directly sending him flying with another kick.

He took action like this in front of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s face, not showing any mercy, making the attendant’s muscles and arteries snap, leaving everyone shocked.

“Noisy!” Shi Hao only had this word to say.

Peng!

Then, Shi Hao formed a fist imprint. With a single strike, Wu Tai was blasted until his bones broke inch by inch. He flew outwards, almost turning into a bloody paste. He couldn’t avoid this strike at all. n.(σ-(v)-e-(/)/B)-1)(n

“Also you, come over, let me have a taste of Golden Horned Rhinoceros.” Shi Hao chased after the distant Jin Jiaoxi, leaving it absolutely terrified.

Everyone was stupefied. Huang didn’t feel any misgivings, acting so unrestrained right in front of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s face, not caring about his presence at all!

Chapter 1272 - Frivolous

No one expected Shi Hao to win, defeating Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch!

“Still not going to come?” Shi Hao looked towards the Golden Horned Rhinoceros with disdain, his voice not loud, just like how it was not too long ago. However, in everyone’s ears, it was completely different.

Huang achieved a great victory!

Right now, even though he still looked calm and carefree, he gave others an extremely oppressive feeling. No one dared ignore his words, all of them paying close attention.

Jin Jiaoxi’s entire body turned cold, his scalp numb, fine hairs standing on end. That calm voice crashed down on his ears like lightning, leaving him so shaken he almost fell onto the ground.

How could it be like this? Huang won, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was defeated, this result left everyone stupefied, never expecting things would end like this. n--0reLBIn

“Do you want me to say it a third time?” Shi Hao turned around, his eyes releasing sharp electrical light, his pupils deep, his entire being looking incredibly ferocious.

This place immediately became quiet, the quiet gossip and muttering disappearing. Everyone’s minds were jumping, quite a few people were staring at Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch who was not too far out; will he interfere?

One had to understand that Huang was but someone who ‘did things his way’, disregarding any opponents, not caring about what anyone thought. He did whatever he wanted. This was a type of low-profile might.

“Huang great one, please forgive my rudeness, I do not dare act like this ever again!” Jin Jiaoxi was scared, bracing himself and walking forward, his legs shaking, trembling uncontrollably. He lowered his head towards Shi Hao, using a humble voice to plead for forgiveness.

Right now, he felt incomparable regret, as if he had his own mouth slapped a few times. Not long ago, why didn’t he obediently wait for the result? He just had to add a few lines, mocking and ridiculing Huang.

Now, it was time for retribution. Huang won, completely different from what he had thought!

Now, Huang said that he wanted to have a taste of him, for him, this was just too horrifying. The glorious genius of a generation who had risen up to sect master level was actually treated like food.

This was especially the case when he recalled the various rumors he heard about Huang. He couldn’t help but picture himself propped up on an open fire and roasted until his flesh was golden, almost making Jin Jiaoxi fall on the spot.

He became more and more fearful, because Huang was but a ‘habitual criminal’, eating non-human enemies more than once. For the Golden Horned Rhinoceros, this was simply a frightening great demon king.

“Just now, you were taking joy in the disaster of others, hoping that I would be killed immediately. Now that you are asking for forgiveness, isn’t this change of attitude just a bit too fast?” Shi Hao swept out a glance.

“Great one, please forgive me. I don’t dare do such a think again!” Jin Jiaoxi’s legs and stomach were trembling, continuously shaking. It was because he discovered that the situation was extremely bad. Huang was so cold, clearly wishing to eat him.

“Take it all off, take it off! I mean, eat, eat, eat everything!” Right at this time, the Lunar Jade Rabbit shouted.

She looked pure, her long silver hair sparkling, in her teens, her large eyes red like gemstones, looking like she was carved from jade, like a porcelain doll, extremely beautiful.

However, when she cried out noisily like this right now, she was like a little fiend, directly frightening Jin Jiaoxi until he sat down on the ground, his entire body cold, truly frightened badly.

“Do you think that after mocking and provoking Huang, just a simple apology would fix everything? No matter what, we have to let us get a taste, right?” Cao Yusheng and the others were also smiling, speaking up one after the other.

“Great one, save me!” Jin Jiaoxi looked towards Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, as if he was grabbing towards the last straw.

“Dao brother, where it is possible, one should let others off. It is nothing more than a bit of offense, is there a need to be so overbearing?” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch finally spoke up.

Everyone had been paying attention the entire time, waiting for him to step out, see how he would act. After all, Huang first crippled his attendant, then suppressed Wu Tai and Jin Jiaoxi before his face, not giving him any face.

In that instant, the atmosphere was grave. Everyone held their breaths, quietly watching from the sidelines, seeing how things were going to develop.

“The way you speak really is light and easy, but if it was others who continuously buzzed around you, scolding you, wishing you were dead, wouldn’t you just slap them to death with a single palm?” Shi Hao calmly responded. He then continued, “I am quite benevolent, not willing to take lives, just wanting a bit of rhinoceros meat to taste.”

Jin Jiaoxi was both scared and speechless. Did Huang really see him as a moving piece of meat? He was a demon king after all!

When the others looked at Huang, the expressions in their eyes were strange, feeling like they couldn’t provoke him. Otherwise, they would become living fresh food.

“Dao brother, please do not be unreasonable. Could you not forgive him?” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said with a cold tone, purple light emerging from his skin, sparkling and translucent. There were strand after strand of purple energy that wrapped around his body, hazy and brilliant.

“You make it sound so easy, why didn’t I see you stop him when he was being so rude towards me? Now, you want to display some noble and unquestionable integrity?” Shi Hao mocked, saying, “You already lost. If I were you, I would choose to back up, not say a single thing. As a loser, you should just obediently stay off to the side.”

When he spoke up to here, Shi Hao took steps forward, his large eyes bright, his appearance delicate and handsome, temperament otherworldly. He arrived at the center of this place, calmly sweeping his eyes around him.

This type of stance completely disregarded Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch!

The words were too direct, not tactful at all. Together with his indifferent appearance, it was as if there was a type of powerful and unfettered aura within his peacefulness.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s face flushed with waves of green and red, there had never been someone who looked down on him like this, actually not placing him in their eyes at all, calling him a loser in front of everyone’s faces.

What kind of humiliation was this? He felt like his face was becoming heated, finding himself in an awkward situation.

In the past, he had never thought that he would be defeated by another. He never expected to be berated by another like this, ridiculed directly as a loser.

Huang really was too direct!

“Are you forcing me to take action, to fight another battle?!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s voice was hoarse, a wave of anger surging within him. In his eyes, this was challenging his dignity, stepping on his bottom line.

Chi!

Shi Hao seemed to not be affected by the severity of the situation at all, instead giving off a wave of pressure, making everyone become even more quiet, no one daring to rashly say anything out of fear that he would misunderstand. It was because a great storm might erupt at any time.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s mind was surging with anger, his intent was extremely clear. If the other party wasn’t tactful enough, he would use power at an even higher cultivation realm.

This was a type of threat, even more so a type of warning!

However, the other party didn’t seem to have heard him at all, continuing to look down on him with the stance of a victor, carrying a hint of indifference and contempt.

Correct, it was precisely contempt, arrogance, and self-confidence. The other party’s head was raised high, looking down on him, facing him with this type of high stance.

Great waves surged within Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s mind, purple energy divine light surging, finding this a bit intolerable. How could there be anyone who dared look down on him? This was too crazy!

The others were also a bit speechless. Did Huang really not understand his intentions?

Of course, there were some who were shocked. Was Huang not scared? He was extremely direct, incomparably powerful, facing Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch head-on. Was this challenging him head-on?

Could it be that Huang really dared to fight another round? Was he bluffing, purposely looking powerful, or did he have that type of strength?

“You are forcing me to take action!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said coldly, his voice not loud, but it had a type of terrifying forcefulness.

“Do you think you are anything special? If you want to take action, then come at me. After losing to me once, I don’t mind defeating you once more. In the Heavenly Deity Realm, you are far too lacking. Wu, for people like you who are sore losers, I feel like defeating you a few more times will make you gradually understand.” Shi Hao said absent-mindedly.

The more he spoke like this, the more Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's face fell. Fortunately, his skin was covered in purple multicolored light, so others couldn't see this.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch really began to suspect whether Shi Hao understood his intent, or if this fella was just bluffing, purposely looking down on him.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's face completely sunk. Regardless, he wanted to teach Shi Hao a lesson. However, at this time, when he inadvertently turned around, he saw Lan Xian, Qi Gu, and the others.

They were at the same level as him, all known as supreme beings. Right now, their expressions were all different, a bit strange.

In that instant, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch calmed down, but he still felt great anger inside. It was because those people were inwardly mocking him. This type of great defeat could be considered a great shame.

Moreover, he really did seem to look like someone who couldn't take a loss, wishing to fight again. If news of this got out, it definitely wouldn't sound good, instead tarnish his name!

He was someone who cared about his face. In the end, he endured his rage and coldly said, "Fine, consider it my defeat this time. Unfortunately, it will be difficult for us to ever cross hands again, or else I will let you understand the might of the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed!"

This was arrogance, as well as a threat, also a type of anger. He was using these to seek consolation.

"After losing, you still know some sense of propriety, knowing how to act." Shi Hao said while walking forward. He stood at the center of this place, as if he was looking down on everything under the sky.

This was an undisguised disdain, even more so a type of frivolousness. Did Huang understand Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's words or not? He actually had this type of response, reacting like this.

"You still aren't stepping down?!" Shi Hao shouted, berating Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch in front of everyone's faces. He stood with his head raised high, standing at the center of everyone, becoming the focal point of attention.

Everyone was stupefied, remaining silent. It was because right now, the situation was completely turned on its head.

"Jin Jiaoxi, come with me!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was furious. He decided that he was going to take action regardless of the price, randomly using Jin Jiaoxi as the reason.

However, Jin Jiaoxi's reaction exceeded his expectations, directly lowering his head towards Shi Hao and saying with a trembling voice, "As long as you leave me with my life, I am willing to receive my punishment."

"Wu." Shi Hao nodded.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's hair stood on end, his teeth almost shattering from being grinded. This thing was just too disappointing, actually completely giving in at this crucial point.

“En, alright, move to the side for now.” Shi Hao nodded. Then, he looked towards Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, saying, “Do you still need something else? If not, just leave.”

Everyone was stunned. This result... what could they even say?

Only, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s face turned green and red, almost erupting into violence. He truly felt an unendurable humiliation.

“Huang, what are you acting all arrogant for? You merely won over my master in the Heavenly Deity Realm, if it was a higher cultivation realm, you are nothing! The Great Mist Purple Energy Seed will crush you to death, there is no hope for you in this life!”

In the distance, the attendant stood up with difficulty, half his body in tatters, unknown just how many of his bones were broken.

“You really are of the same sort as roaches, vitality quite strong.” Shi Hao’s face fell. With a light kick, a hong sound rang out, the ground starting to shake. The attendant was shaken up, coughing out large mouthfuls of blood, his entire body bloody, about to explode.

At the crucial moment, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch protected him, or else he would have definitely turned into bloody mist.

“What is the meaning of this? You took action in front of me again and again, do you really think I am someone who is that patient? If you want to be crippled, you can take action and see what happens!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said coldly, becoming completely different from before.

“You aren’t worth shit, we can fight in any cultivation realm you want. If I can defeat you once, then I can defeat you ten, a hundred times!” Shi Hao replied with a loud voice.

Suddenly, the mud pool shone, faint multicolored brilliance pervading the air, divine to the extreme, making everyone feel as if they were bathing in autumn winds. It was extremely comfortable.

En?

Lan Xian, Qi Gu, and Great Xu Tuo all landed there, appearing in the mud pool. Even Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch’s body flashed, rushing forward. They wanted to fight over the immortal treasury.

At this moment, Shi Hao also moved, his figure like a phantom, like an illusion, leaving behind afterimages, directly appearing at the center of the mud pool.

“You also dare come?”

The four great experts stared at him. Qi Gu, Great Xu Tuo, Lan Xian, and Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch each occupied a side, while Shi Hao stood at the very center.

“You are extremely strong, defeating even Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch in the Heavenly Deity Realm. However, if you want to fight at a higher level, you are still a bit lacking. This isn’t a place you can come to!” Someone said coldly.

It was clear that the four great experts didn’t see him as someone who could compete against them over the immortal treasury.

Shi Hao laughed loudly and said, "Today, I am precisely going to enter this immortal cave, wishing to take a look. What are you all going to do about it?!"

His voice rumbled like thunder, shaking up all directions, making many people's blood surge chaotically, almost falling on the ground.

Right now, there was a great wave of power to Shi Hao's presence, as well as a type of contempt. He didn't fear the four great supreme beings, not minding it at all even if he was surrounded at the center.

"You... really are quite bold. There is no place for you here!" Someone shouted.

"What do you count as? I want to see who dares stop me!" Shi Hao shouted, his voice cold and intimidating!

The strong were all stunned. Previously, Huang was facing Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch alone, but now, he immediately faced four great supreme beings at the same time!

Chapter 1273 - Void Dao

The mud pool split apart, muddy water surged, strand after strand of immortal energy appearing below. The immortal cave was about to open.

Shi Hao stood at the very center, occupying advantageous terrain, ready to barge in at any time. This naturally left the four individuals dissatisfied.

"Not knowing the immensity of heaven and earth, do you think that just because you are special in the Heavenly Deity Realm, you can come here and stir up trouble?" Someone said coldly.

"I am standing right here, so what about it? If you don't want to accept it, then just drag yourself over and fight me!" Shi Hao said coldly.

Right now, all pretense had been torn apart, a great battle inevitable. This would be a great confrontation between Huang and these supreme beings. However, would he be able to hold on?

Everyone had their doubts. Being strong in the Heavenly Deity Realm didn't mean that he could remain unmatched at a higher cultivation realm.

"Are you certain that you wish to compete against us?" Suddenly, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch laughed, actually changing from the anger before, calming his rage.

"So what if I do?" Shi Hao was indifferent.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch looked at the other three and said, "How do the other dao friends feel? Does he have the qualifications to compete with us over who is superior or inferior?"

"What does he count as? Just chase him away and that's that!" Someone berated with divine will, unknown which of them it was that spoke. It was because the voice passed through the void, surging through this mud pool.

"Do you see? You are nothing. Just hurry and leave, don't overestimate yourself!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch had a smile on his face, but his voice was even colder.

This was done to drag the other three great supreme beings in and simultaneously display hostility against Huang, making him have no path of life, others couldn't save him even if they wanted to. It was because doing so would risk simultaneously offending four great supreme beings.

"One should know a sense of propriety, do not forget your own weight. It's better if you just leave sooner!" Someone said with a deep and cold voice.

Shi Hao suddenly turned around, looking towards that pure gold alms bowl. It belonged to Great Xu Tuo!

Everyone had their suspicions. Could it be that it was Great Xu Tuo who was speaking this entire time?

"You want to stay behind? You'll have to take responsibility for the consequences!" At the same time, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said coldly, extremely forceful.

"And what are you going to do about it?" Shi Hao opposed with equal harshness, his temperament changing greatly, no longer being indifferent and carefree, now looking down on the four great supreme beings.

"Fine, since you are courting death, we will help you accomplish your goal!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch surged with killing intent, long wishing to make an all-out effort, using power of a higher cultivation realm.

Together with the fact that the other three supreme beings were also stirred up, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch felt that it would be difficult for Huang to escape, unable to run no matter what kind of secret method he had.

"Void Dao Realm, harmonizing with the dao, using the perfect seed as an intermediary to touch the great dao, you will never understand the grandness of this!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said.

Void Dao Realm was above the Heavenly Deity Realm, intimate with the great dao, harmonizing with it, allowing one to sense the intricate reasonings of heaven and earth. It was the first time one would make contact with the dao comprehensively. One would often even feel the illusion that they themselves turned into the great dao!

Those who were in this cultivation realm could normally establish sects, become sect masters.

Of course, not every sect master was in this realm, because sect master was a title, not some definite cultivation realm, just that most sect masters were in this realm.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch erupted, his entire body flourishing with brilliant purple light like a sun, dazzling and resplendent, making it hard for others to open their eyes. Purple energy was originally auspicious, but right now, there was killing intent that pervaded the air!

Shi Hao sneered. He only had a few words for them, saying, "All will be defeated!"

This was not the time to act low-profile, because the mud pool was currently fluctuating intensely, the entrance might appear at any time. The dense immortal mist rising from below was becoming more and more rich.

After using the body as a seed succeeded, Shi Hao didn't even know himself how strong he was. Now that there were four supreme beings before him, this was the best opportunity to test things out.

Lan Xian revealed a faint smile, saying, "Huang, you are extremely strong, indeed extremely unordinary. However, the Void Dao Realm is different. If you didn't merge with a perfect seed, it is better if you leave a bit sooner to avoid bringing a disaster onto yourself."

She was extremely beautiful, her face sparkling white like jade, as if she was a masterpiece of heaven, difficult to pick out any flaws. Her pair of sapphire-like eyes were full of spirituality.

Long blue hair scattered down, a blue dress moving with the wind. As she stood there, she was like a solitary immortal riding the wind.

"Is that so? So it turns out that the Void Dao Realm needs a so-called dao seed..." The corners of Shi Hao's lips carried a cold smile. He became serious, saying, "This is Heavenly Deity Institution, the immortal manor belongs to this place. What qualifications do you all have to fight over it and exclude me?"

"If you don't leave, you might take a beating you know?" Lan Xian was rather carefree, teasing Shi Hao. She had an easygoing appearance, not treating this like a big deal.

"I am someone without too many hobbies, just enjoy eating. May I ask what race you are from? My second fondness is to carry back female fatties back home. Don't provoke me." Shi Hao stared at this blue clad fairy.

Everyone looked at each other in dismay. This person dared to speak to Lan Xian like this!

Towards the first thing he said, Lan Xian could still disregard it, but she was too sensitive towards the word fatty. She grinded her teeth, saying, "Not able to see goodwill, you'll see what happens!"

"You thing who doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth, suppress!" That deep and cold voice sounded again.

This time, Shi Hao turned around to look towards that alms bowl again, starting at Great Xu Tuo.

Right now, Great Xu Tuo's true body already appeared, standing there, buddhist energy surging, sacred radiance spreading, preventing one from directly looking at him.

This was a person with an ordinary appearance, his skin wax yellow, as if a layer of golden paper was covered the surface. His figure was dried-up and wrinkled, his hands together, eyes closed, quietly chanting scriptures.

So this was Great Xu Tuo? Everyone was shocked, many people seeing him for the first time. He was extremely ordinary, apart from his skin color, there wasn't anything exceptional about him.

However, he obtained the ashes of an immortal monk, merging it into himself, so he was destined to take a path that exceeded the imagination of ordinary people, perhaps achieving long life.

"It isn't this poor monk who spoke, it has always been this evil creature speaking." Great Xu Tuo pointed towards the alms bowl. A giant head suddenly stuck out from within, extremely abrupt, and also extremely terrifying.

It was because when that head reached out, it immediately enlarged, becoming like a lofty mountain, filling up the void, its scales chilly, gaze sinister.

Everyone was shocked. After a head emerged from the small alms bowl, it actually became large to this extent!

“Red Dragon!”

After many people carefully examined it, they couldn’t help but become horrified. Was this a dragon? It was entirely scarlet red like blood, its scales as if forged from metal, its figure robust, powerful to the extreme.

Everyone sucked in a cold breath of air. When they thought of the legends, how after Great Xu Tuo obtained the ashes after cremation, he had previously journeyed the world, wishing to eliminate the demonic, suppressing an evil dragon.

“Is this that dragon? It was rumored that its cultivation was profound, strength frightening! After Immortal Academy’s old monsters learned of its existence, they didn’t allow it to be killed, feeling that it was a rare fighting strength!”

Even Immortal Academy’s old monsters saw it as a precious talent, one could see just how extraordinary it was! This was a red dragon that was retracing its ancestor’s power, bloodline already extremely pure.

“It was this evil dragon of yours who spoke randomly again and again, provoking me?” Shi Hao asked coldly.

“So what if it was me? The baldy doesn’t wish to kill, but I definitely don’t feel such things. I’m going to make you yield!” That scarlet dragon rushed out from the alms bowl, bringing with it crazy winds, diving towards Shi Hao.

That giant body frightened many people. It was even larger than a mountain ridge, more terrifying. This region began to rumble, the void starting to collapse.

Hong!

Sand and stone flew everywhere, earth splashing out, the void cracked. Nothing in this place could be seen anymore, powerful winds sweeping about, becoming a scarlet red in color. Whirlwinds swept about, devouring everything. Giant boulders that were several dozen tons in weight were sucked in, immediately crushed into powder.

Then, one could vaguely see a black hole appearing!

Just how frightening was this evil dragon? Everyone found it hard to imagine its strength. No wonder that after Great Xu Tuo suppressed it that year, it was attached importance to even by Immortal Academy’s old monsters, having its life saved.

This was the power of an evil dragon, immediately taking action to suppress Shi Hao. Meanwhile, the four great supreme beings hadn’t even made their moves yet.

“Haha, how could the true perfect power of the Void Dao Realm be something you can understand? The evil dragon can erase you with just a single move, the master lost only because he tied his own hands!”

The attendant was in an extremely miserable state, its body already in tatters, but right now, when he saw the evil dragon’s might, the red tornado engulfing this place, he still couldn’t help but laugh loudly.

However, right at this time, everything suddenly stopped, the red evil wind completely disappearing.

Only a figure remained on this stage, it was Huang! Where did the evil dragon go? Everyone was stunned; just now, it displayed great might, powerful to a ridiculous degree.

“Where is the evil dragon? Why did it disappear?” The attendant was confused, even he didn’t know what was going on.

The others were puzzled. What exactly happened?

“Save me! Baldy, great master, save me!” Right at this time, the evil dragon’s miserable cries rang out, sounding incredibly pitiful.

Everyone became dumbstruck one after another. They finally saw it. That body that was even more majestic than a mountain peak released such a great display just now, shocking heaven and earth, making mountains collapse and seas roar, but now...

It became a belt, tied around Shi Hao’s waist, its head and tail like a rope, tied together!

Everyone began to feel a bit dizzy. This was that legendary evil dragon! Even Immortal Academy’s old monsters saw great potential in it, and it was so terrifying just now, but in the end, it was dealt with just like this.

“Not simple.” The normally quiet Daoist Qi Gu who didn’t smile spoke up. He wore gray old-fashioned dao robes, his face expressionless, extremely inflexible.

“All will be defeated! Also, that blue-clothed fatty and baldy, all of you, just come at me!” Shi Hao looked forwards.

Everyone was speechless. Was he mad? He immediately challenged three great supreme beings.

Hong!

Right at this time, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch took action. This was intolerable, being told again and again that he was going to be defeated! If this continued, this was going to leave a mark of humiliation on his life.

When his fist imprint smashed over, the fist erupted with heaven overflowing radiance, as if a great purple sun exploded. The divine light flourished with incomparable brilliance!

Something astonishing happened. When facing a Void Dao Realm supreme being who had merged with a perfect seed, Shi Hao directly released a fist, facing him head-on, breaking down the purple multicolored light!

Dong!

At this moment, heaven and earth turned upside down, chaotic energy surged. Following Shi Hao’s fist, the entire world seemed to have been toppled, been destroyed, the aura horrifying.

Their fingers tangled about each other. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released a low roar, shocked and angry, shouting out.

Then, everyone saw Huang's figure become like a war god's, bathed in golden divine flames, carrying heaven overflowing might, then rushing powerfully at Lan Xian.

In front of his fist, it was as if great heavenly stars were swirling, pulsing with him, resonating. His long hair scattered about, eyes cold, possessing a type of mountain devouring might.

Peng!

It was just a fist, but the void was shattered, clashing with Lan Xian. n--OveBIn Blue multicolored light surged. A graceful and beautiful immortal body swayed, full of shock. The expression on that beautiful face was sluggish, not daring to believe what was happening.

This type of power was too frightening, shocking the young female supreme being. Her snow-white slender hand was in intense pain, lightly trembling!

Dang!

At this time, Shi Hao then rushed towards Great Xu Tuo, his fist turning into a great silver hand imprint, on it carved all types of symbols, such as Kun Peng, Suan Ni, and others, strange and terrifying.

The great hand imprint struck towards Great Xu Tuo, blocked by the alms bowl. However, as a result, that precious artifact rumbled, and then directly exploded. This ancient artifact was destroyed!

"Heavens! What am I seeing? Is this real?!"

Someone cried out with alarm. Right at this moment, heaven shocking changes were taking place. Huang was fighting against three great experts by himself!

Everyone found this unbelievable. Someone without a perfect seed actually had this type of unmatched divine might! He was just one person, yet he fought three great supreme beings at the same time, his power suppressing the world, leaving everyone shaken.

"He doesn't have an unmatched ancient seed, so why... is he so strong?" The attendant's face was pale, his lips trembling. He fell on the ground, body shaking, truly feeling Huang's terror.

While the others were shaken, they similarly carried confusion. Was this Huang's true strength? Why was he able to reach this step even without a perfect dao seed?!

This place erupted with commotion!

Chapter 1274 - Return of the King

At the center of the mud pool, a single person stood at the center of the battlefield, looking down on everyone. His long clothes fluttered about, moving with the wind!

The four supreme experts were stunned. What was going on? It was just Huang, someone without a perfect ancient seed, so how could he be powerful to this extent? He was opposing the supreme beings, exceptional and tyrannical!

They didn't believe what they were seeing. This was Huang? This didn't make any sense! His fighting strength was completely different from what they had originally thought, there was no reason why this should be the case!

Outside the battlefield, everyone erupted into commotion. Everyone was stunned by Shi Hao's methods, noisy chatter shaking up the heavens.

Forget about the attendant, Wu Tai, and others from Immortal Academy who bore hostility against Shi Hao, even those that had favorable opinions, those who understood him a bit felt that this was inconceivable.

"I feel a bit dizzy, didn't see too clearly. Huang, why is this fella so ridiculously strong? Did he attack three great supreme beings at the same time just now?" The Lunar Jade Rabbit forcefully rubbed her large ruby-like eyes, looking like she saw a ghost. NOVEL-11

It really was too hard to believe. Previously, they were still a bit dejected, feeling that Shi Hao was going to suffer greatly, yet there was nothing to do. However, who would have expected the situation to reverse like this, wind and clouds suddenly changed?

These people were naturally happy, every one of them cheering. Cao Yusheng even more so patted his chest, shouting at those around him loudly that Huang was his brother.

He even went so far as to hook his arm around the shoulders of an important figure from Immortal Academy, chattering away and saying, "Do you see? Huang and I are sworn brothers, beating up a group of supreme beings from Immortal Academy isn't a problem at all."

That genius of Immortal Academy was an older cousin of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, from a long life family. Right now, his expression was as unpleasant as it could get, really wanting to slap Cao Yusheng to death.

"This fella has always turned the impossible into the possible, rising up again and again when everyone thought that he couldn't hold on any further." The witch's eyes swirled about, a smile able to topple cities, her graceful figure wonderful as she looked at the distant Shi Hao.

Her impression was deep, because she had already known Shi Hao for a long time. In the lower realm, they had already worked together, having too many dealings. The two of them could be said to understand each other down to the roots.

"Formidable, truly unimaginable. Brother Shi was actually powerful to this step!" Chang Gongyan released a sigh of astonishment. The people who came from the three thousand provinces were all crying out.

Shi Hao being powerful made them feel extremely excited, all of them happy. When the strength of those coming from the same place they came from was great, it made them feel glory as well.

Once a young supreme emerged from any one of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, those who came from that place would be viewed in a much more favorable light.

“Haha, this really is a great feeling! Huang was actually this strong, able to reach this step even without an ancient seed!” Heavenly Deity Institution’s people were the most excited, many of them laughing loudly.

It was to the extent where a few people’s eyes became sparkling, becoming quite moist, tears almost flowing out.

It was because during this period of time, the students who were still in Heavenly Deity Institution felt suffocated, even feeling a type of humiliation. They were bullied by others to an intolerable degree, yet they were powerless to retaliate.

This was their academy, yet when their immortal cave was opening, they were chased away, forced out, unable to approach this place.

For them, what kind of shame and humiliation was this? To be forced out of their own homes, being humiliated to this extent, this was also a type of rarely seen thing!

However, what could they do? They had no supreme beings among them, none of them able to stand up to the two academies’ geniuses, had no way of contending against the other side, those who tried all suffered ruthless suppression.

Now, Huang returned, the battle absolutely shocking, leaving them stunned. A great joy filled their minds, everyone feeling like they finally vented out a bit of resentment.

At first, they were still worried, feeling that Shi Hao might be humiliated, suspecting if he really had that type of ability.

In the end, after this battle, they were all filled with pleasant surprise!

“Huang, despite not obtaining an ancient seed, he could still be the very best, able to contend against all so-called supreme beings. Who dares compete against him?!” Heavenly Deity Academy’s people shouted.

Shi Hao’s glory was also their glory!

Now, they had even more hopes and expectations towards Huang’s appearance, wishing that after this battle, he would suppress opponents in all direction. It would be even better if he could suppress those young supreme beings until they couldn’t breathe.

Immortal Academy’s cultivators were the most at a loss. The events now exceeded all of their predictions, full of strangeness. How could Huang be this powerful? They felt a greater headache the more they thought about it.

“Truly incomprehensible!” Someone said with a sigh.

Everyone in this world knew that if one wished to walk the ancient method path, one had to merge with a dao seed, that was a crucial hoop that had to be passed. However, they also all knew that Huang didn’t obtain a suitable seed.

Many people felt that if he insisted on walking down this path, he would definitely gradually decline, lose his past brilliance.

However, what happened today toppled the imaginations of everyone. Not only did Huang not suffer a defeat. He instead advanced boldly, similarly becoming strong, deep and immeasurable!

There were some from Immortal Academy who didn't get along with Shi Hao, previously provoking him, later on even confronting him, but in the end, a few geniuses were suppressed by him, suffering losses. Now that they saw that he was still just as glorious, their expressions all became extremely complicated.

Meanwhile, those like Wu Tai, who previously had his body blown up and the azure armor seized, were even more alarmed. He had previously declared that he was waiting for Shi Hao in the Void Dao Realm, that he was going to subdue the other party with a superior stance and get revenge!

Now, his declaration, his suspicions were all a joke, he would never have this chance. It was to the extent where when he faced Shi Hao in the future, he had to be extremely careful and tuck his tail between his legs, or else there would be great trouble and suffering to be had.

Princess Yao Yue's white clothes were purer than snow, slender and elegant, her beautiful hair supple, eyes like limpid autumn waters, bones like divine jade, snow-white skin flowing with sparkling luster. She said softly to herself, "It truly is inconceivable. What happened to Huang? After disappearing for three years, everyone thought that you had declined, that your time was over, yet you actually appeared with this type of stance, teaching everyone an incomparably deep lesson, impossible to see through, mysterious and formidable!"

Sacred Academy's people also felt a sense of frustration. When they first saw Huang return, they all felt that it would be difficult for him to have any type of display, yet in the end, he was just as powerful as before.

One had to bear in mind that three years ago, precisely in Heavenly Deity Institution, Huang had previously defeated their most stunning figures, no one able to challenge him. Now, he was still just as glorious.

"It seems like in the three years you disappeared for, you obtained a rare twist of fate!" From the mud pool, Lan Xian spoke. The corners of her clothes fluttered about, making her look like a fairy walking on water, her appearance pure and otherworldly.

One of her delicate hands was a bit red and swelled, the intense pain just now making her shiver inwardly, feeling as if her fingers were going to break. Fortunately, she was able to avoid the brunt of Shi Hao's attack, thus not suffering the most serious consequences.

"Everyone was saying that your three year disappearance was because you were running away, that your era has ended, but now, it seems like all of that were misconceptions." Right now, the only one who didn't participate in the battle, the habitually silent Daoist Qi Gu spoke, speaking these words.

Everyone was stirred. In many people's eyes, Shi Hao's most brilliant era had ended, these three years representing his decline, three years for the world to forget about him, separate himself from the wind and clouds, even more so distancing from the peak of cultivation.

Now, the truth was revealed. These weren't three years of decline, but rather a period where he laid dormant, three years of rebirth. Now, he returned, even more brilliant than before!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's face was completely sunken. Even though his figure was shrouded in purple multicolored light, there was a wave of gloomy energy. He really was shocked and furious. This enemy, this declining person actually had this kind of cultivation!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's right hand had red bloody traces between his fingers, the result of his clash of physical strength with Shi Hao just now.

In that instant, the pain seeped into his bones, his fist feeling as if it was going to break apart. One had to understand that he had cultivated the Purple-Gold Body in his youth, and after merging with the Great Mist Purple Energy, he became even more extraordinary, exceeding the limit.

Even those body cultivators would find it difficult to compare themselves to him, it could be even be said that he had an unbreaking body. However, just now, he was at a disadvantage when he clashed with Shi Hao, suffering a loss on the physical aspect.

Even though that was only a brief encounter, an instantaneous exchange, not reaching the greatest confrontation, they could all tell that this was a terrifying person, completely different from the rumors!

Right now, Great Xu Tuo sighed. His skin was a wax yellow, as if a layer of gold was applied to his skin. His appearance was ordinary. His hands moved together, immortal monk sutras chanted quietly from his mouth, the expression on his face complex.

On the ground, that alms bowl had cracked into several dozen pieces, directly smashed apart by a single large palm from Shi Hao. This was an ancient artifact, yet it was destroyed just like that.

He found it difficult to calm down. Just how powerful was Huang's physical body? It was likely comparable to the most outstanding ancient monk from Immortal Ancient, right? Perhaps it could compare to him during his youth!

According to the scripture recordings Great Xu Tuo obtained, a supreme figure among immortal monks, during his youth, he had achieved greatness through buddhism, cultivating the Zhang Six Golden Body, sturdy and unbreaking, unrivalled in power!

"Extremely formidable. If we are only talking about the strength of the flesh, there are few from past to now who can compare." Great Xu Tuo said.

When these words sounded, all sides were shaken. Just how high of an evaluation was this? Huang became increasingly frightening in their minds.

The attendant's face was pale, shrinking back, his expression complex and speechless. He no longer dared to utter another word out of fear of incurring consequences.

It was because everyone knew that once Huang became 'carefree and frivolous', anything could happen. It was rumored that the most powerful inheritor of the long life family, the outstanding hero proficient in the Dark Demon Fist, Crucifix Divine Dao Feng Xingtian died precisely under Huang's hands.

This was only because the Wind Clan had previously incited Yuan Qing Supreme Being to stand in Shi Hao's path, confine him for ten years, thus establishing a great grudge.

He even dared to kill the inheritor of the number one inheritor from a long life family, so what didn't he dare do?!

“Zi Ri[1], do you still want to fight me? Fatty, you were saying some nonsense about me leaving this place, do you still want to persist with this? Also, baldy, your rice bowl really isn’t all that special!” Shi Hao spoke.

Outside the battlefield, the group of people were petrified, none of them daring to say anything.

It was because these were undisguised provocations, already clashing head-on. Huang was still unwilling to have things end like this, still looking for ways to stir things up. Did he plan to fight three great supreme beings on his own?

A simple and short exchange of attacks didn’t mean that he could fight a prolonged intense battle against three great supreme beings!

What was Huang trying to do? Did he really want to go one versus three, or even one versus four? If this was the case, just how domineering was he? Who could do this in the present world’s younger generation?

There might not be anyone who could call themselves number one, able to suppress all heroes around them, defeat all other young supreme beings!

“Provoking us like this, do you know not the consequences of facing all three of us at the same time? Do you want to die?!” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was annoyed, ashamed and resentful, which was why his words were harsh, insulting the other party. It was because there was a wave of resentment in his chest. He wanted to roar towards the sky, vent out his rage.

“Provocation? I only wish to suppress you all!” Shi Hao’s hair scattered down, his eyes full of divine light, his figure imposing.

When this sentence sounded, everyone erupted into commotion!

It really was too frightening. Was Huang going to carry out this type of heroic undertaking? He was going to face many supreme beings alone as soon as he returned!

At this moment, everyone was shocked, moreover releasing exclams of admiration.

“A king has returned!” This was what many people thought. Shi Hao disappeared for three years not because that was the start of his decline, the loss of his glorious era, but rather because he had been lying dormant, waiting to return powerfully.

“Kill!”

Right now, there was nothing more to say. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was furious. He directly took action, using the most powerful methods to attack the other party’s tall and slender figure, wishing to deal the fatal blow.

Hong!

At this time, clear light surged from within Shi Hao’s body, like a seed itself, containing endless vitality,. The energy of great dao pervaded the air.

He didn't take any time to accumulate power, directly raising his hand towards Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, erupting with majestic energy to suppress the other party!

"You!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was alarmed and furious. The other person was looking down on him too much.

An intense dong sounded. Shi Hao's casual strike delivered incomparably frightening destructive power, shattering the void. It smashed into Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's Great Mist Purple Energy, tearing apart heaven and earth.

"Kill!"

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch took a few steps back. He roared out, domineeringly releasing a barrage of attacks. Streak after streak of Great Mist Purple Energy turned into heavenly swords, all of them hacking down on Shi Hao's body.

This place was smashed to pieces, turned into ruins. There were spatial cracks everywhere.

However, clear light shone deeply. Shi Hao stood at the center of this dilapidated land, his stance as if impervious to all methods, the sole sovereign under the sky. He was completely unaffected as he stood there.

He raised his hand, large hand imprints hacking out one strike after another, crushing the purple energy heavenly swords, causing them to scatter and disperse into auspicious and dense purple mist.

"He... could bare-handedly withstand a perfect seed?!" Cries of alarm sounded from the distance.

"Fatty, are you going to leave the stage?" At the center of the ruins, Shi Hao stood in the void alone. He looked towards Lan Xian, and then grabbed at her with a single motion.

His hand was like a interweaving bamboo basket, about to wrap around that wonderful body and directly capture her.

"Bastard, you dare?!" Lan Xian was ashamed and humiliated. Her exquisite body moved, releasing streak after streak of blue light, displaying the most powerful supreme being force.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao attacked at Great Xu Tuo, truly fighting an intense battle against three people!

"Why? Without a perfect ancient seed, for what reason can he do this? Could it be... that legendary path?" There was someone who was confused, starting to make speculations.

"A king has returned, after disappearing for three years... Huang is rising up once more. Who can contend against him?!" At this moment, the disciples of Heavenly Deity Institution were excited and trembling, almost unable to speak.

1. Purple Sun

Chapter 1275 - Subduing the World Through the Fist

The purple sun was as large and the sky, vast and boundless, covering everything!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's blood was boiling, now going completely berserk. It was because this was the first great decisive battle he fought since emerging from seclusion. He felt wronged, as well as great anger, wanting to wash away the humiliation he faced not too long ago.

Hong!

His body size increased, becoming a zhang tall. His purple body was like metal, flickering with cold radiance.

Right now, his body was strong and powerful, his body taut, as if there were dragons coiling around him. All of his muscles swelled.

This was the Purple-Gold Body, one of his natural forms. It wasn't too tall or too short, one zhang in height, just right for him!

It was just like the ancient monks of the last great era, the most powerful golden body was six zhang in size, the most suitable for the one who claimed to be buddhist in that younger generation!

In that instant, heaven and earth rumbled, thunderous sounds deafening. Countless strands of auspicious energy descended from the heavens, crashing down, submerging Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch beneath.

That was but the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed. It was now completely activated by him, becoming even more frightening than before, accompanied by great dao sounds, receiving the acknowledgement of heaven and earth, coexisting with the dao.

Right now, everyone was trembling, their souls about to leave their bodies, because under that wave of fluctuations, they all felt that they were insignificant, unable to contend against that purple-gold physique!

"Die!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch roared, his voice like a roaring sea, deafening. It tore through the void, one could even see the energy ripples of the sound waves sweep in all directions like ocean waves.

Dong!

Heaven and earth collapsed. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released a great hand imprint, the dark purple palm filling the skies, surrounding the heavens like a great cloud, terrifyingly large.

Purple Sky Palm!

This was a palm technique from the the 'purple energy from the east' type of ancient heavenly art, passed down from the last great era. The palm was like a sky, able to restrict the sun and moon, seize stars from the heavens.

When it was cultivated to the very peak, all things in heaven and earth would be within its grasp, difficult to escape from.

Shi Hao remained calm, his body standing in the ruined land, still only raising his right hand. Clear light was drizzling down, as if this was the era of primal chaos and creation, his body standing before history, overlooking the common people.

He silently struck out with this palm. It blasted through the universe, the palm imprint remaining in the void, continuously moving forward, colliding with the cloud-like great hand.

A great quaking shook up everything, breaking the peace. It was extremely resplendent, the multicolored light majestic, as if a great sea suddenly surged. Then, it was as if everything began to burn!

The scene unfolded on a magnificent style, so dazzling it was as if endless magma erupted!

A ferocious lash erupted once again between the two, the results truly world-shaking!

Their movements were grand, extremely fast, too difficult for the spectators to even see clearly. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's hand was in pain, bits of mottled blood traces falling.

He felt a strong sense of humiliation, extremely unwilling to accept this!

He originally believed that after coming out from seclusion, this would be his world, not feeling any fear when facing other supreme beings. He thought that he could travel unhindered through this world, yet this first battle was already so bitter.

At the very least, his Purple-Gold Body that was known to be unbreaking was not a match for Huang's physical body. After two great clashes, it was always him who suffered losses, his palm flowing with blood.

Could it be that he really was going to taste defeat?

"I am undefeated!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch said with a low voice, as if a dragon or tiger was roaring, ringing through everyone's souls. Many people couldn't endure it, blood flowing out from their seven apertures.

"Kill!"

Immediately afterwards, he released a light grunt, and then roared into the sky.

A shocking scene happened. Heavenly Deity Institution was extremely vast, the amount of land it covered great. The distant beautiful divine mountains directly exploded from the sound waves, turning into rubble, collapsing the clouds.

What kind of domineeringness was this? Just a single roar could make mountains and rivers collapse, blasting divine mountains apart with just sound, smoke and dust reaching into the skies.

The current Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's vital energy rose to the extreme, standing at the peak of his life. His head of long hair scattered down like a waterfall, eyes like two small suns.

His hands produced imprints, and like a halberd, fiercely brandished about, hacking towards Shi Hao.

Ka!

Heaven and earth split apart. A streak of purple lightning flickered, becoming everlasting, illuminating the sky!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's figure was indistinct, purple energy curling around him, his appearance hazy. However, his body that was a zhang tall was astonishing, a terrifying purple war halberd gradually appearing between his hands.

"Heavens! That's the seed's embodiment!"

Someone cried out, absolutely terrified. It was because that type of suffocating pressure affected everyone. There was a wave of world ending aura.

The so-called 'unmatched seed' Great Mist Purple Energy Seed now not only displayed power, it even condensed, forming a weapon, becoming a halberd that could cut down gods, wishing to kill Huang.

Chi!

That Great Mist Halberd crushed down like the sky itself, impossible to defy. It moved through the air, incomparable, simply as if it could slice through the universe and reveal the everlasting!

One could see the void breaking apart inch by inch, the mountains below slowly turning into fine powder. Nothing could stop it, it was impossible to overcome.

Shi Hao's expression was serious. His hands produced imprints at the same time, his body unfolding, moving forward to face it. He didn't avoid the purple halberd, instead facing it directly, wishing to resist it head-on.

Did he go mad? This was what everyone was thinking.

Even if only a portion of the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed had taken form, it still couldn't be faced head-on like this, right? Unless he had a seed at the same level to protect himself, he would undoubtedly be in danger.

Dong!

The vast great earth trembled. It was as if an imperishable great drum was rumbling, shaking up this world up to the point of destruction.

This was the sound released from Shi Hao's fist. He struck the great halberd with incomparable strength, withstanding its unstoppable might!

Kun Peng First; Shi Hao's right hand displayed the Kun Peng's profound mysteries, displaying the majestic manner of the Kun Peng soaring ninety thousand li. His fist was like the sky, suppressing all creatures of this world, commanding all under the sky!

This fist displayed the quintessence of the Kun Peng method, its greatest profound meanings fully displayed without restraint at this time.

He used precisely his right hand fist to strike that great halberd. With a dang sound, the noise resounded through the world, everyone's ears ringing. There were even more people who couldn't handle this power, coughing out a large mouthful of blood with a wa sound.

What was going on? Everyone was in shock. They just couldn't believe that someone was facing the weapon formed from Great Mist Purple Energy head-on!

Kun Peng against the heavenly art!

That halberd was struck by a Kun Peng, shaking endlessly.

Shi Hao's body shone, clear splendor moving towards his fist, offering inexhaustible power, shattering the void.

Dong!

Immediately afterwards, the imprint formed by his left hand also arrived. With the body as a seed, those 'gates' within his body that all had a crack opened supplied him with sacred force.

Wind and lightning stirred about his left hand, lightning flashing and thunder roaring, full of domineering yang force. This was the Lightning Emperor Imprint!

His right hand a Kun Peng Fist, left hand Lightning Emperor Imprint, his body as the seed, offering a sea of power, right now, Shi Hao's divine appearance was unmatched, overlooking everything under the sky!

Dang! The great purple halberd was struck until it cracked, about to return to being purple energy, the thick and heavy halberd disappearing.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's face was pale, breathing heavily in and out, never had he experienced such a great pressure before. How could a single person's body be this powerful, blasting apart the great mist weapon?!

Hong!

Finally, when the Lightning Emperor Imprint and Kun Peng Fist resonated with each other, heaven and earth were overturned, the great halberd broken. The Great Mist Dao Seed released scripture sounds, blood flowing out from the corners of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's lips.

"Ah..." His hair flew about randomly. He couldn't help but roar angrily. This was just too depressing, how could a perfect seed be at a disadvantage against another?

"Great Mist Purple Energy, just fully appear! Condense into a seed, fully transform into a true body, suppress all enemies!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch shouted.

At this moment, his head of messy hair scattered about like a demonic god. He was surrounded by a great purple sun, this sun continuously enlarging, terrifying beyond compare, becoming as tall as the sky.

However, at this moment, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch saw the scene beside him, immediately leaving him shaken, the resentment he felt even stronger.

It was because Shi Hao still had other battlefields, also exchanging moves with the others!

Great Xu Tuo sat in the void, chanting sutras from his mouth, the scriptures like characters cast from metal, jumping about and appearing in the air, suppressing towards Shi Hao.

However, Shi Hao still remained fearless. When he was fighting intensely against Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, the space between his brows shone, his primordial spirit leaving his flesh shell. A resplendent little figure sat in front of his frontal bone, chanting true scriptures.

He began to carry out a contest of the spirit against Great Xu Tuo.

Shi Hao's spiritual reading was like demonic sounds, ever-present, shaking through this heaven and earth, suppressing Great Xu Tuo's chanting!

The chanting of a demonic sovereign was facing off against buddhist scriptures!

Meanwhile, Lan Xian's long sleeves fluttered about, her beautiful hair dancing in the air, eyes clear like water. She was like a fairy walking on water, flying over, beautiful without compare, above the mortal world, but her fighting power was unmatched.

Brilliant blue light poured down like endless streaks of lightning.

Those were precious techniques. At this moment, Lan Xian displayed at least nine types of great divine abilities at the same time, all of them aimed at Shi Hao.

When faced with this situation, Shi Hao opened his mouth and roared, an expanse of clear light fired out, as if it came from the primal chaos of heaven and earth's creation, dazzling and astonishing.

That was a stellar river, stars filling the sky, gathering together. It was beautiful and dazzling, extremely moving.

Everyone was stupefied as they watched this. What kind of method was this? A stellar stream rushed out when he opened his mouth, who else among his peers could face him?

This really was bold and magnificent, too frightening, making it hard for the spectators to even breathe!

Upon closer inspection, they saw that those were symbols, scripture meanings. They were merged together by Shi Hao, surging vigorously as it suppressed towards Lan Xian's nine world shocking divine abilities.

This was Shi Hao's understanding of the dao. Using the body as a seed, the gates within his body were opened, supplying him with endless power, and then he combined the True Primordial Record's bone texts, sending all of this out.

Turning the decaying into the miraculous!

A type of true scriptures were suppressing Lan Xian's nine great divine abilities!

One could see clear light everywhere, breaking through the mist, illuminating the everlasting and eternal, stopping the powerful might of that solitary fairy.

Right now, everyone was truly stunned. Huang was facing three people at the same time, competing against three young supreme beings alone, truly accomplishing all of this by himself!

At the very least, he wasn't defeated yet, displaying powerful might, his aura vigorous and imposing. He stopped three great young kings by himself, shocking everyone in Heavenly Deity Institution!

This was already completely a legend about him, an undefeated legend currently playing out!

Forget about the young men and women being shocked, even the older generation figures' eyes contracted, not predicting this result.

Immortal Academy's living fossils personally descended, the three old monsters all becoming silent when they saw this scene. In the past, Immortal Academy had discussed among themselves secretly, decisively choosing not to give Shi Hao an ancient seed, abandoning him.

However, after remaining dormant for three years, silent and without any news, this youth returned, displaying this scene!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch and the others who were raised by Immortal Academy's old monsters couldn't stop that youth. Huang was currently fighting here with exceptional methods, displaying the most glorious and astonishing battle of his life!

He was using this type of method to declare that his hibernation had ended, that he would no longer remain quiet. He had returned!

His two fists were subduing this world!

Chapter 1276 - One Breath, Ten Thousand Spirits

Nine types of secret techniques, nine great divine abilities, all of them able to subdue the enemies of this world, destroy everything in their path!

Lan Xian was someone who was a stunning talent, proficient in nine great precious techniques at her age, truly extraordinary and holy, strength unmatched!

She stood there, around her nine-colored brilliance. A gorgeous ring of light surrounded her like a divine halo, wrapping her within, pure and untainted.

Hong!

The heavens collapsed and earth split apart, nine great divine abilities smashing apart the sky, blossoming around her, about to wipe him out.

One had to understand that a single one of these divine abilities was already world shaking. At their level, which one of their precious techniques was ordinary? She came from a long life family, and was now cultivating in Immortal Academy, so what she lacked the least were world shaking divine abilities.

Many people trembled inwardly, because that type of power made them feel extremely insignificant. The void exploded, the blast waves making everyone tremble inwardly. They couldn't resist this type of power at all.

Pu!

One person vomited blood, unable to move out of the way in time when some of the blast waves rushed over. They blasted his body, breaking his bones and severing his tendons, almost tearing him to pieces.

"How could this be? Just how powerful are these divine abilities?!" An expert in the Void Dao Realm was stunned. At the same time, he felt his back turning cold, becoming a bit frightened.

They were both in the Void Dao Realm, yet the difference was this large? Compared to the supreme beings of the younger generation, he was just too lacking, the difference too great!

On the other side of him, there were a few heavenly deities who were in even more miserable states. They also refused to believe in the supernatural, not dodging promptly, and as a result, were swept through by some of the light. Their bodies were blasted through, blood flying everywhere, body and dao almost dying.

In a flash, there was only scattered ashes and dispersed smoke!

In that instant, this was the type of feeling these people developed. If a young supreme being wanted to deal with them ruthlessly, then it was just too easy. Their strength was just too great, able to directly crush them!

However, when they saw the scene before them, they all trembled, their souls shaking, inwardly shocked. That was Huang who was taking action, too powerful, impossible to surmise.

He opened his mouth, releasing a stellar stream. Not only did he block those nine divine abilities, those bone texts were changing, turning into ten thousand spirits, filling the sky and covering the earth.

At this moment, not only them, even the others, including the older generation were stunned, a bit petrified. That type of scene was too shocking.

Thousands to over ten thousand creatures covered everything, appearing everywhere. There was a Golden Mammoth that stood on the ground, roaring into the sky, a mountainous White Gold Lion with a mane that was like waterfalls, incredibly fierce, its roar splitting the void. There was a Sky Swallowing Sparrow that loomed above like a dark cloud, casting a great shadow on the earth, its eyes large and scarlet like blood moons. There was a Taotie that stood in the void, incomparably sinister, incredibly large, about to devour the stars beyond. There was also a frightening Peng bird, its wings like the clouds of the sky as it soared up, wishing to strike down great stars!...

Everyone felt as if they had traveled back to Immortal Ancient. All creatures appeared, competing with the heavens, fighting a great battle against terrifying foreign cultivators. All of them were rising up powerfully.

All of the most powerful creatures of this world that one could imagine had pretty much appeared, displaying their bodies, spreading their wings to tear apart the world, roaring through the great earth; it was as if their roars were going to make the moon fall!

There were figures everywhere, and they were all incredibly large. They were practically covering the great earth, hiding the endless starry sky. All of them were the most powerful creatures.

All of this was produced by the dao stream of stars Shi Hao released from his mouth. A single breath turned into ten thousand creatures, manifesting into the greatest methods!

These divine birds and vicious beasts moved about, crying out, the great earth collapsing beneath their feet, space rupturing. This force was incomparable, not much able to stop it.

At this instant, Lan Xian's nine great divine abilities immediately became dim.

At first, Huang released a stellar stream merely to stop the nine great divine abilities, not wishing to suppress the other party's attacks, but it was still done to withstand the other party's attacks. However now, everything changed. The nine great divine abilities were destroyed, breaking apart, turning into nothingness.

This was just the beginning, yet Shi Hao already shifted from defense to offense, breaking through the limit, about to subdue Lan Xian.

Of course, the main part of what everyone paid attention to wasn't this, victory or defeat here actually not the most crucial point.

Everyone, including those old monsters, were looking at those creatures. How could there be so many? What kind of precious techniques were these, to be able to summon ten thousand creatures with a single will?

Hong!

In the sky, it was as if a mountain sea erupted, an endless flood of vicious beasts rushing out. Everyone's expressions changed, those living fossil level figures' eyes erupting with light, a pensive expression appearing on their faces.

"This is a portion of the True Primordial Record, the method recorded in the Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram that had disappeared from the Divine Guidance segment!" Someone realized something, saying this out loud.

Everyone was stunned, and then they were shocked. It was actually this technique! Everyone was stupefied. Weren't those primordial bone texts that transformed the decaying into the miraculous? How could it contain a secret method?

"It was rumored that when one comprehends it to a profound realm, even normal techniques can display heaven shocking might. I don't know Huang did it, actually producing ten thousand spirits, countless creatures, it truly is extraordinary!" An elder from Immortal Academy said quietly.

This was too shocking. Huang was not ordinary after all, comprehending the True Primordial Record to this extent, rarely seen in this world. Such a thing had never been heard of before.

Lan Xian entered a passive state. She was surrounded by all types of ancient beasts, in a dangerous situation. A few ferocious beasts even swooped over, wanting to tear her apart.

The corners of her clothes were even ripped, torn by a Golden Luan's beak, almost making her jade-like arm turn into a blast of bloody mist. It wasn't that her divine abilities weren't strong, but rather that the other party's methods were too astonishing.

Lan Xian's nine great divine abilities were incredibly frightening, killing many divine birds, wiping out several hundred to over a thousand terrifying ancient beasts. This was definitely astonishing.

However, there were just too many creatures, every one of them legendary war beasts, aggressive species, powerful creatures. Being able to kill a few would already be impressive, let alone how many she killed!

However, she still couldn't hold out in the end. The endless creatures charged over, wings striking the skies, turning this place into a land of ruin, nothing left behind.

Right now, forget about other people, even Shi Hao himself was stupefied.

This technique was actually this frightening! The innate origin essence energy he sprayed out urged on everything he had comprehended about the True Primordial Record after undergoing seclusion cultivation several times. There was actually this type of power, such tremendous might!

This exceeded Shi Hao's own imagination. He never expected the True Primordial Record's ordinary bone texts to completely display themselves, actually being like this when he fully exhibited them!

However, this transformation also exhausted an unimaginable amount of his divine force. Ten thousand spirits appeared, every single one of them like a mountain peak. There was one that was like a Purple-Gold True Hou that wanted to devour the sun and moon, a Peng that even more so shot into outer space to strike down stars, just what kind of domineeringness was this? However the consumption was too great!

Even someone as powerful as Shi Hao felt a bit weak at this moment. After this stellar stream rushed out, transforming into ten thousand spirits, it was as if a black hole continuously ate at his vitality.

"One breath, ten thousand spirits, how powerful! However, it is also extremely dangerous!" Shi Hao said to himself.

If it was anyone else, they would have likely shriveled up, completely sucked dry, unable to support the ten thousand spirits' consumption.

Hong!

In the end, he opened his mouth and inhaled. All of the creatures turned into specks of light, gathering together. Like a river of stars, they entered his body.

Everyone was completely stupefied, all of them feeling a wave of horror.

"An, ma, ba, hong..." Right at this time, a grand scripture sounded, as if it could suppress the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, immediately somewhat disturbing the balance of the world.

These scriptures made everyone quickly snap back to reality. Then, they were horrified, all of them turning around towards Great Xu Tuo. He was already sitting in the void, mouth chanting sutras.

Only at this moment did they recall that Huang wasn't only fighting a single battle, but rather facing three great experts at the same time. Just now, it was just that his battle against Lan Xian was too splendid, which was why everyone forgot about the other two battles.

One of Immortal Ancient's most powerful heart sutras, precisely established by the cultivators called monks. It was used to form the perfect heart, awaken the truth, seeking heart and dao, this was precisely their method.

These ancient monks all had astonishing spiritual force, unmatched in this domain!

They could rely on scriptures, purely through reciting them to surpass their opponents, suppress all opponents and enemies, extremely strange and powerful.

During Immortal Ancient, the young supreme being who proclaimed himself to be buddhist in his youth had displayed magnificent feats, his chanting traveling in all directions, in the end neutralizing all enemies, making them follow at his size, becoming his troops. It truly was matchless divine might!

Great Xu Tuo obtained this type of inheritance, and now, he was using powerful spiritual force, activating the Buddha Heart Sutra.

The scripture sounds rang out continuously, producing giant symbols that were like mountains one after another in the void. They flickered with an ice-cold metallic light, all of it flying towards Shi Hao to subdue him.

At this moment, Huang staggered, his body becoming unsteady.

This drew cries of alarm. Everyone looked over, looking towards him.

The main reason was because just now, Shi Hao rashly used the ten thousand spirits profound mystery, expounding the True Primordial Record to the highest level, the consumption of vitality too severe.

This was the reason why he showed a momentary bit of weakness.

Divine flames overflowed into the sky. The area where Shi Hao stood became resplendent again. His body stabilized, the cracks opened in the 'gates' within his body seemingly becoming a bit larger, supplying him with unending potential.

Shi Hao released a loud shout. Before the space between his brows, the seated primordial spirit little figure immediately became brilliant, also chanting sutras.

This was a suppression of the spirit, a contest of divine will. Eventually, that primordial spirit figure turned into a sword core that was exceptionally sharp. With a chi sound, it flew out, hacking towards Great Xu Tuo.

Chaos Calming Art!

One of the three most powerful sword arts from past until present, this technique could make the primordial spirit sturdy and imperishable, turn it into a weapon, hack away all restraints of the body and slice through all obstructions in this world!

The others were also shocked, feeling that this was inconceivable.

Why was Huang able to learn this? This was simply impossible? Wang Xi cried out inwardly. Without the true mind technique, there was no way it could be displayed.

Great Xu Tuo was originally incredibly calm, but right now, the corners of his eyes jumped. In the end, he couldn't remain unflustered anymore. He quickly took action, no longer seated, his hands continuously forming imprints.

Chi!

Right at this time, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch also took action. Without waiting for the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed to fully condense, he directly rushed over murderously.

It was because in order for a perfect seed's effects to be completely displayed, one needed to use a lot of time. After all, he had only begun to merge with it, unable to use it as he pleased, so when he saw this opportunity, he didn't want to miss out.

However, Huang who was focused on Great Xu Tuo actually released a sneer. He suddenly turned around, his hands forming magical imprints, charging at Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch fiercely.

Hong!

The most frightening battle erupted between Huang and Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, flesh flying out with each strike, blood with each palm, this was a direct clash, even more so a bloody struggle.

"En?" In the distance, Great Xu Tuo was shocked. He discovered that he had been tricked!

The primordial spirit sword core was a void image, not real but fake. Meanwhile, when he saw Shi Hao vigorous and lively, fighting intensely against Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, he immediately knew that his primordial spirit had long returned into his body.

Hong!

They tore at each other viciously, clashing ferociously; Shi Hao and Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's battle reached its climax. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released an angry roar, he originally wanted to seize Shi Hao's flesh shell, but never expected to enter this type of state.

He didn't try to seize Shi Hao's body because he was scared, but rather because he wanted to humiliate the other party first. After all, he had suffered a loss not too long ago, suffering shame.

One could now see that he had miscalculated. The other party had never exposed himself to danger.

Dong!

The heavens split and earth ruptured, ghosts and gods weeping and howling. Shi Hao continuously delivered heavy blows, Lightning Emperor Imprints striking down repeatedly, blasting Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch until he coughed out blood. Purple energy and lightning merged together, his body shaking intensely.

Chi!

Great Xu Tuo hurried over, taking action. He felt like he was made fun of. He no longer used sutras, instead already brandishing a large yellow hand, grabbing out.

"Baldy, your physical body is still too lacking!" Shi Hao shouted. He blasted Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch aside with a palm, causing blood to flow from the corners of his lips, and then his right hand formed a fist, striking towards Great Xu Tuo.

Peng!

Great Xu Tuo's Zhang Six Golden Body shone, clashing with Shi Hao head-on, shaking intensely.

Then, Shi Hao opened his mouth, releasing a roar. Clear light flooded out, covering everything, about to restrict Great Xu Tuo.

Lan Xian rushed over, her fine jade hands shining, displaying a type of ancient heavenly art. Blue ripples surged, surrounding this place.

Dang!

Shi Hao was direct and rough. When faced with this solitary fairy, his fist smashed back Great Xu Tuo, and then he turned around, throwing himself over. His hands formed fist imprints, smashing forward with full strength.

Hou!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch chased after him, joining the battle once more.

Great Xu Tuo's body staggered, buddha light shining. He also joined back in.

Shi Hao exchanged a blow with each one of them, and then concentrated on Lan Xian, going all-out.

Pu!

In the end, clothes fluttered about, Lan Xian's dress was blasted apart. It really did tarnish her solitary fairy image a bit.

"Om!"

Great Xu Tuo shouted, supporting his own power through incantations. He released a world-shaking strike towards Shi Hao.

When faced with this type of method, Shi Hao's primordial spirit left his flesh shell, turning into a sword core, hacking straight at his head. However, Great Xu Tuo didn't fall for this again, directly attacking Shi Hao, only slightly defending against the sword core.

Hong! An intense collision broke out between the two. Shi Hao's fist domineeringly stopped Great Xu Tuo's full powered strike, preventing this attack from achieving any results.

Meanwhile, at the same time, Great Xu Tuo's fine hairs stood on end. It was because the primordial spirit sword core actually broke through his defense, flying over, not a void figure!

He quickly took action, doing everything he could to defend himself.

At the crucial moment, that sword core turned into a fist sized resplendent little figure, moving about above his head, not breaking through Great Xu Tuo's body protecting divine light. However, it displayed some movements.

Pa!

That little figure's palm directly struck down on his head, the noise loud and clear. Even though it struck down on his body protecting light, it was still just as resounding as if it landed on his skin.

Everyone was speechless, even Great Xu Tuo stunned.

This was undisguised provocation!

Everyone felt a bit speechless. Huang definitely did this on purpose! Even though he couldn't injure the other party with a single strike, he still had to give him a scare.

Great Xu Tuo immediately grabbed at the little figure, using a great divine ability, wishing to imprison space, capture that primordial spirit little figure. n)-o.-12-(e--l)(b(/1)-n

In a flash, that little figure turned into a rain of light, quickly scattering and rushing back. That was only a portion of primordial spirit force, now returning into the space between Shi Hao's brows.

Hong!

Shi Hao's flesh shone, competing with Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch in strength. His right hand was resplendent, accompanied by streak after streak of divine chains of order, Willow Deity's technique attacking, almost wrapping around Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's neck.

Pu!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released a muffled groan, and then blood flew out. A lock of hair also fell. A golden divine chain crushed his neck, removing a section of his purple hair.

Everyone was completely dazzled by this scene, incredibly stirred up.

This was a battle at the very peak, unprecedented, a contest at the highest level between the younger generation!

This was especially the case for Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples, every single one of them was trembling with excitement, crying out loudly.

There were many others who were also like this, their emotions rising and falling with the figures on the battlefield.

Shi Hao fought three great supreme beings on his own, warping and weaving through heaven and earth, his divine bravery unmatched. He continuously attacked the three individuals, not being at a disadvantage, displaying an unequalled stance here, looking down on all under the sky.

Chapter 1277 - The Body Precisely the Seed

Rocks collapsed the clouds, energy surging like an ocean, raging waves beating against the shore!

Shi Hao weaved about below the heavens, exceptionally powerful, contending intensely against three great supreme beings, the battle extremely terrifying. Divine techniques unfolded, continuously erupting, brilliant and intimidating.

This place erupted with activity, powerful experts contending for supremacy, supreme beings fighting a decisive battle, fighting from the skies above down to the earth below, and then back from the ground into the heavens!

"Ah..." Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released a great roar, blood flowing out from his neck, hair disheveled, wrapped around by purple energy, looking like a demonic god. His neck was almost snapped by the golden branches.

At this moment, the battle between these people reached its climax, fighting until they were going crazy, risking life and limb. At the very least, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was staking it all, because he was angry.

He was suppressed by Shi Hao again and again and again. For his proud and arrogant self who could overlook the younger generation, this was a type of humiliation.

Great Mist Purple Energy Seed, known to be an unmatched seed, in the ancient past, all those who obtained this seed were legends, all of them having world-shaking pasts.

Meanwhile, he had just emerged from seclusion, yet he already faced a setback, how could he be willing to accept this?

If he was completely defeated today, then that would help Huang establish an unmatched reputation. When the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed was mentioned, what everyone would think of would be Huang's power!

For his unmatched seed to set off the other party's accomplishments, just how tragic was this? At the same time, the other party would look incredibly dominant and powerful, able to overlook all of his peers under the sky!

Dang!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch took action, a purple seed forming before him, ancient and peaceful, carrying auspicious energy. It was as if a world was rising and falling, crushing down on everyone's minds.

Everyone was shocked. Was this seed finally going to truly form?

"No, it is still lacking a portion. Even though the heavenly monarch is strong, he has only begun to merge with it, unable to freely control it. It was too rushed, which is why on a portion of the Great Mist Energy was used!" Someone said quietly, seeing through the truth.

However, this was still extremely frightening!

As soon as this seed formed, appearing between heaven and earth, wind and thunder would ensue, crazy gales roaring, the world immediately losing color, as if the end of the world was descending.

Kacha!

A giant streak of lightning brandished about, as if a True Dragon emerged from Immortal Ancient, splitting the entire universe in half, making this world collapse.

All types of cracks extended in the void, incredibly large and densely packed, as if a piece of chinaware shattered.

At this moment, both Great Xu Tuo and Lan Xian were shocked, quickly backing up out of fear of being caught up in this attack, temporarily giving up their offense, leaving that area.

Hong!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's right hand formed a magical imprint, fiercely brandishing it. That seed trembled; even though it only shook once, the world was thrown into chaos, as if the most terrifying earthquake had erupted.

The heavens swayed and earth moved, the ancient divine mountains inside the academy all fissuring, about to be destroyed.

Fortunately, at the crucial moment, an elder stopped everything. There were sect protecting formations that activated, protecting everything, stabilizing everything.

The sky, however, wasn't that lucky. It was being destroyed, exploding to pieces.

Tremendous power swept out like an unstoppable ocean wave, surging towards where Shi Hao was.

That seed had lightning coiling about it, dazzling and sinister. Purple multicolored light erupted, extremely intimidating, making one tremble. They couldn't help but feel an urge to bow down before it.

"Huang, you will definitely die in battle!"

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch released a great roar, his long hair dancing about chaotically, eyes releasing two streaks of electrical radiance that were more than ten li long, his entire being appearing mysterious and terrifying within the mist.

The purple seed could be said to be activated by him at this moment. This represented the will of heaven and earth, the acknowledgement of the heavens.

Many natural laws descended from outer space, pouring down from the heavens like a waterfall, turning into tangible matter that entered the purple seed.

Receiving the doting of the heavens, protection from above!

Great Mist Purple Energy Seed was currently being cleansed by dao laws, full of the power of this heaven and earth, suppressing all who dared rebel. This was the power of the great dao!

Void Dao Realm, this was interacting with the true greatest profound mysteries, the embodiment of being intimate with the great dao.

The Great Mist Purple Energy Seed raised the power of this cultivation realm to the limit, representing the judgment of heaven and earth, the adjudication of the heavens!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was, without a doubt terrifying, bold, and intimidating, standing high up above, both hands forming imprints. The seed before him overflowed with purple light, a thick mist pervading the air.

It gradually merged with the great dao, erupting with the most terrifying power.

Meanwhile, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was like a child of heaven right now, supporting the power of heaven and earth, able to sweep through everything before him!

There was no one who didn't feel fear. Right now, he was connected to the great dao, able to destroy everything in his path, unstoppable, nothing he couldn't break through!

Huang was in danger! This was how everyone felt, vividly feeling that type of unmatched power.

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's essence energy rose to the peak, no holes in his power, able to overlook all things. His confidence swelled, divine force unrivaled, overlooking all of his peers.

"Die!"

After storing up power for a long time, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's voice shook the mountains and rivers, his head of hair standing on end, eyes widened, his eyes like a blazing sun, all of his pores surging with essence energy.

Honglong!

He was connected to the great dao, harmonizing with heaven and earth. This type of terrifying strike was released, Great Mist Purple Energy appearing, wishing to kill Huang!

All life trembled, everyone frightened, feeling a type of fear from deep within their bones. This was a seed produced by this heaven and earth!

Their minds all trembled, some of them falling weak on the ground with a pu tong sound, unable to hold out any longer. This was a reverence and servitude they felt towards the dao.

This wasn't something that they wanted to do, but was rather uncontrollable, a type of instinct!

Everyone felt like Shi Hao was in big trouble. Unless he also released the seed hidden within him, he was definitely in big trouble, perhaps even falling!

Chi!

At this moment, a streak of brilliant immortal light blossomed.

Shi Hao's limbs stretched out, brandishing fist imprints, his body surging with clear light. His body was sparkling and full of luster.

Using the body as the seed, right now, his body was precisely the great dao seed!

Within his body, there were mysterious 'gates'. Under the outside world's pressure, the cracks that were opened in them became wider, releasing a potential that came from his very source, tremendous and sky shocking.

Streak after streaks of divine chains of order winded about, appearing around Shi Hao's body. Then, he displayed his own greatest power just like that, blasting at the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed!

"Not good!" Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples cried out in alarm, the expressions on their faces becoming deathly pale.

"This is bad, how can he just face it head-on?" Cao Yusheng and the others also couldn't help but cry out, feeling like things were turning really bad. However, they could only feel worry, unable to help the situation.

Right when everyone felt that Shi Hao was in danger, something that left everyone stunned and shocked happened.

The grand, extremely frightening Great Mist Purple Energy Seed's speed slowed down. When it landed, it seemed to have encountered some great hindrance.

Bo!

Then, a light sound followed. A fist carrying light golden radiance directly passed through that unmatched seed, piercing through!

"What?!"

Everyone became stunned. How could it be like this? The massive unmatched ancient seed was broken through just like that?

This was just too unbelievable, almost making their eyeballs fall out. It was completely different from what they had predicted!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's unmatched great might, that type of bold and domineering stance, all of it froze at this moment, and then quickly declined. He had gathered power to the extreme, yet in the end, it was all directly popped like a big balloon.

"How..." Even he forgot to feel anger. Right now, he had a perplexed expression on his face, searching for a reason.

"Impossible!" Then, he roared out.

At first, everyone was extremely quiet, but then they began to discuss passionately. What exactly was going on?

"For this type of situation to appear, there is only one possibility. This is a suppression between seeds! Huang's seed is even more perfect than Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's Great Mist Purple Energy Seed, containing more dao laws, the profound mysteries more world shocking!" An elder from Heavenly Deity Institution said.

However, how could this be? The Great Mist Purple Energy Seed was already unmatched, was there anything more formidable than it?

Even if they were of equal level, there weren't that many that could be found already. There was no way anything could surpass it!

"It is because the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed wasn't perfectly displayed, still a portion lacking. It was too rushed, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch not waiting until that moment, which is why it is still a bit flawed. If it is faced with the comprehensive suppression of a same level seed, then it would suffer a huge loss!" An elder from Immortal Academy also produced this explanation.

"You lied to me, you also had a perfect seed! You actually tricked me!" Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch shouted, feeling like he was deceived, feeling humiliated, defeated unjustly.

"If that is how you want to feel, it can't be considered wrong. I am a perfect seed myself!" Shi Hao shouted.

The gates within his body cracked open, many mysterious gates that had existed within the body for a long time were opened simultaneously, the clear light released from the cracks gathering together, raising Shi Hao's power to the peak!

Right now, he stood at the highest point of his life, unprecedented, reaching his most powerful state.

Chi!

Shi Hao didn't hold back in the slightest, the first time using such great power. He charged at Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch, attacking with full power!

Peng!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was alarmed, greatly shaken. He quickly condensed the Great Mist Purple Energy, making the unmatched seed merge with himself and block this strike.

Only, right now, he was in an extremely disadvantageous state. That seed had just been penetrated by Shi Hao, unable to effectively and quickly completely return after scattering, leaving him in an extremely passive state.

Dong!

This was a world shaking strike. Shi Hao's fist shook up Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch until he coughed out large mouthfuls of blood, his body sent flying out.

Then, the world seemed to be caving in. Shi Hao was like a war immortal, moving about with an unmatched stance, as if he was going to eradicate all enemies, every strike from his fist collapsing heaven and earth.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

This type of power was too frightening. In that instant, as Shi Hao brandished his fist, the world surged. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch did his best to defend himself, but every single fist made him cough out a large mouthful of blood.

His arms also twisted, becoming bloody and badly mangled.

Everyone became stupefied, unable to believe everything they were seeing. Shi Hao's aura devoured mountains and rivers, his black hair scattering down, eyes terrifyingly cold, one step, one fist, every movement grand. There were no tricks or feints, smashing them into his opponent just like that!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch took steps back again and again, coughing blood with each step, his body about to break apart, unable to endure that type of unimaginable pressure. Heavenly Deity Institution was shaken up.

Was this Huang's true strength?

At the same time, everyone recalled his words. He said that he was a perfect seed himself, not mentioning the use of an unmatched ancient seed between heaven and earth.

"How could that be possible?" Immortal Academy's ancient fossil-like figures revealed looks of shock at this moment, their wrinkled faces full of disbelief.

People like them would remain unfazed even if Mount Tai collapsed before their eyes, yet right now, their faces were full of shock.

“Don’t tell me he really... made it through that path?!” Right now, these people all recalled that path no one succeeded on before -- using the body as a seed!

That road was too difficult, unknown just how many matchless heroes died, all of them unable to succeed!

Yet today, Huang seemed to have done it!

Those living fossils were all stumped for words, momentarily unable to say anything. This youth had been abandoned by them, not even willing to grant him an ancient seed. In the end, he actually took that step none of those of the past were able to succeed with!

This was world shocking news, absolutely earth-shattering!

Pu!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was sent flying, seriously injured. He was struck horizontally by Shi Hao, about to collapse, fighting strength weakening. If this continued, he was going to be crippled!

Great Xu Tuo and Lan Xian took action, moving forward together, but they were still unable to stop Huang’s great power. He entered a type of unmatched state, with only him reigning supreme, terrifying to the extreme!

“Blocking my path, kill!” Shi Hao released a shout. He stared at Great Xu Tuo and Lan Xian, pressing forward boldly. His methods were sky-reaching, impossible to contest!

“Did he walk through that ancient path, using the body as a seed... none before him succeeding?!” At this moment, the other cultivators also heard the truth from the old cultivators. They couldn’t help but tremble.

Chapter 1278 - Undefeated Legend

There were people who had taken that path ever since Immortal Ancient, but everyone failed without exception!

Moreover, their ends were extremely miserable. If they didn’t die, then they became half-crippled, not a single good result!

In the eyes of those of this world, that was an abyss that devoured all those who attempted it, a path that was impossible. Those who took it did not have good endings.

One had to understand that none of those who took this path were ordinary! They were all stunning individuals, the pride of heaven, having illustrious reputations. However, when they chose this path, it represented gloominess, death, self-destruction!

This was a path that had faults even in theory, not yet completely researched, let alone truly finishing it. It was unknown just how many young supreme beings it had troubled!

If one wanted to succeed, settle a matter in one go, how could it be that easy? It would inevitably be more difficult than even ascending to heaven!

However, there was someone before their very eyes who seemed to have succeeded, currently displaying great divine might, unstoppable, beating up Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch until he was about to be half crippled!

What kind of scene was this? It seemed real, yet also fake, everyone really didn't feel like what they were seeing was true! Over1n

Many people were in disbelief, feeling that Shi Hao was hiding something. He definitely merged with a strange ancient seed that they didn't know about, and that was why he had this type of strength.

Only, when everyone carefully thought things over, they knew that the number of unmatched seeds from past until now was set, already determined which ones there were exactly. What seed could he possibly find?

The few well-known seeds were all concentrated in Immortal Academy!

There were a few others that were in the most frightening places of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths' restricted areas, no one able to enter, the seeds could not be taken out. They had long reached this conclusion!

Moreover, even now, there were people lingering about those forbidden areas. They were full of unwillingness, the opportunity they were looking for was there, able to confirm that the seeds did exist.

When these were eliminated, where else could the seed in Shi Hao's body come from? Even if they weren't willing to accept it, Huang... really might have succeeded!

Using the body as a seed, these four words were as heavy as a mountain, crushing everyone until they couldn't breathe.

Hong!

In this place, divine light surged, heaven and earth rupturing, a bloody rain pouring down. All types of terrifying irregular scenes appeared between heaven and earth.

This was Shi Hao's power. Every move he made made sand and rocks stir about, ghosts weep and deities howl, accompanied by all types of terrifying scenes of natural deities falling.

His fists' power was like collapsing mountains, roaring seas. With every fist that was released, the world would shake intensely, boundless waves of energy roiling out, tearing open the skies, making everyone's minds tremble.

Ah...

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch screamed out, his body greatly shaken, completely unable to stop this power. He coughed out large mouthfuls of blood, unable to withstand Huang's unmatched power.

Huang's movements weren't that fast. Right now, he was only walking slowly, moving forward step by step, as if a heavenly emperor was patrolling the skies.

Right now, every movement Shi Hao made was terrifying, because they contained the extreme dao strength of this cultivation realm, impossible to contend against!

Dong!

Shi Hao's expression was cold. His arms moved out, his right fist slowly striking forward, crushing space until it rumbled and then exploded. Endless brilliant multicolored light poured out, as if a great ocean dam burst

This type of power was too frightening. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch flew out like a scarecrow, as if a heavy mountain smashed into him, almost about to break apart. It was unknown just how many bones within his body broke.

Right now, Shi Hao's divine might was generation transcending!

Great Xu Tuo and Lan Xian had taken action just now, but they weren't that much on the initiative. They slowed down the pace of their attacks, now standing not too far away.

Right now, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was in an extremely pitiful state. He was first struck flying, and then when he landed, he coughed out blood and took steps backwards, staggering as he moved. His hair was disheveled, his appearance extremely miserable.

He was a young supreme being of this generation, when had he ever been in such a sorry state? He had never suffered defeat, yet today, he encountered the greatest setback of his life, experiencing a crushing defeat!

He couldn't defeat Huang, unable to rival him!

It was to the extent where Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch had a type of feeling that even if the Great Mist Purple Energy was fully released, he still might not be able to match up to Shi Hao, unable to easily suppress him.

This was utterly absurd. This was what he felt the most confidence in his entire life, yet before the other party, he was so helpless. It truly left him dejected.

At the same time, he became even more resentful. What he had worked so hard for, the seed that was viewed to be the most precious was actually forced down by another, this filled him with too much unwillingness!

Ah...

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch roared out, doing everything he could to resist, but his chest was blasted through by a streak of fist radiance. A large bloody hole appeared there, his body almost smashed to pieces.

Immortal Academy's elders' expressions changed. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was defeated, unable to continue fighting, or else he might even die. This was not something they wanted to see.

"Stay your hand!" An elder cried out.

However, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch seemed to have gone crazy. After suffering this type of serious injury, his entire body surged with purple essence energy, flames raging around him. He began to risk everything, not willing to cower back.

"I am undefeated, die!" His long hair was dyed with blood, his purple pupils becoming scarlet red.

Pu!

Shi Hao sent another fist over, looking down from above like a war immortal. He was too far up, impossible to compare to, breaking many of Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch's muscles and bones again.

"How could it be like this?" At this moment, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch collapsed, falling. His pupils were like blades as they stared at his calmly moving opponent.

In the distance, the attendant was horrified, his expression deathly pale. When he thought about how rude he acted in front of Huang before, he couldn't help but shiver.

Even his master ended up like this, not Huang's opponent, yet he previously provoked the other party again and again, he really was tired of living, looking like he didn't know the difference between life and death.

Wu Tai's face was also as white as snow, now hiding in the crowd, all of his fine hairs standing on end, waves of coldness running through his body. He had never felt so much fear before in his life.

Even someone who had a perfect dao seed was defeated, so how many were there in this world who could keep Huang in check? Wu Tai shivered with coldness. He felt an urge to immediately run.

"Zi Ri, come back, you are still not his opponent right now. He has already taken that path, using the body as the seed, achieving perfection!" An elder from Immortal Academy shouted.

This voice rang through this place like heavenly thunder. His voice actually wasn't that loud, but this sentence's effects were too frightening, leaving everyone shocked.

Previously, they also had their speculations that Shi Hao did take this path, suspected to have succeeded, but those elders weren't too sure.

However now, he spoke this out loud, undoubtedly to confirm everyone's suspicions. Huang was world shocking, truly surpassing the past; he succeeded!

He was the first person to have taken this path. Even if there were still flaws, not perfect, the meaning of this was too extraordinary, creating great waves within their minds!

This was a miracle, a legend. It would definitely be spoken about far into the future!

As the one who established this, the first one to successfully take this path, this achievement would definitely shine throughout the ages, the glory continuing into the next great era. He would become someone who couldn't be avoided in the records of history.

This was truly enviable, as well as making people feel fear. This path was so difficult, yet Huang could still succeed, how stunning was this?

“Using the body as a seed, there was someone who really succeeded in doing this...” Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch muttered, feeling incredibly dejected. Which one of those who took this path before weren’t the most powerful? Yet they all failed in the end. However, this enemy of his... actually succeeded!

This dealt too heavy of a mental blow to him. It was just incomparable!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was arrogant, and he was also self-confident, yet in the end, he encountered such a freak, making his own glory seem not all that brilliant. He felt extremely empty and sullen.

“Withdraw now!” Immortal Academy’s elder warned again.

However, Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was incredibly stubborn. His head of purple hair flew about chaotically, a low roar released. He wanted to make the Great Mist Purple Energy fully appear, not just an imperfect form, but completely display itself, and then carry out an ultimate battle against Shi Hao.

Immortal Academy’s elder’s expression changed. He was about to walk up and stop all of this.

Shi Hao was completely indifferent, not feeling fear at all. He was about to take action, beat down this so-called Heavenly Monarch!

Great Xu Tuo and Lan Xian couldn’t remain uninvolved any longer. The two slowed down their steps, reduced their frequency of attacks, to the extent where they no longer fully participated in the final battle.

However, now, they had to do something, had to stop Huang. After all, they both came from Immortal Academy, and the elder even spoke up. If they didn’t express anything, it would be too difficult to justify their actions.

The two of them knew that if they still didn’t go all out, still holding back, then Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch would undoubtedly be dead. It was because he didn’t have any time to fully awaken the Great Mist Purple Energy Seed.

Hong!

The battle continued, becoming even more intense.

Three great supreme beings joined hands, surrounding Shi Hao, aiming attacks at him.

Peng!

The result was still extremely frightening. Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was struck flying by Shi Hao, his clothes in tatters. If not for the purple seed that appeared, wrapping around him, he would have definitely been crippled, perhaps even dying.

The expression of the elder from Immortal Academy changed. He quickly rushed out, arms reaching out to support Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch. He fed him a golden pill, saving his life.

Everyone was shocked and alarmed. Huang was fighting one versus three, yet he still seriously injured the heavenly monarch of a generation, writing his own undefeated legend. Everyone knew that from today forth, news of Huang's return would spread throughout the world.

He had risen up once more!

After going missing for three years, remaining dormant all this time, he had returned. He was still a king, glorious and dazzling!

Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch fell, life or death unknown. This produced heaven shocking waves. Everyone couldn't help but cry out, erupting into fervent discussions, this place becoming extremely noisy.

Cao Yusheng, little rabbit, and others were of course extremely excited, incredibly happy.

The faces of Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples were red, incredibly stirred up, all of them shouting.

Even Immortal Academy and Sacred Academy's people, even though there were some who bore hostility against Shi Hao, right now, they still couldn't help but sigh at his unmatched bravery, few able to match him!

Wang Xi's expression became complicated. She originally thought that after three years, Huang had already declined, no longer being a threat, but now, it seemed like his accomplishments far exceeded her imagination, even that legendary path taken. Just how stunning was this? Her clansmen were likely going to become worried!

She was also wondering just how strong the heavenly talent she was engaged to, Jin Zhan, was. After undergoing several rebirths, he reached the limits of the present world methods, achieved unmatched dao fruits. Would he be able to face Huang?

"Truly not simple... if he entered a long life family and was nurtured with all of their attention, his accomplishments would have definitely become even more world shocking!" Princess Yao Yue's beautiful eyes released radiance, saying this quietly. She felt like she had to contact her clansmen and 'steal' this genius!

In this battlefield, heaven and earth lost color, wind and clouds moving!

Shi Hao fought against two supreme individuals, taking the initiative to attack Lan Xian, forcing her into a passive situation. There was a chance that she might enter a dangerous situation at any time, the battle incredibly intense, reaching its climax.

Everyone was stunned. Just how much time had passed? Was another supreme being going to nurse a grievance? Huang was just too frightening!

"En?" Right at this time, Shi Hao's mind trembled. He could feel that extremely powerful figures were appearing in his surroundings.

There were more people who came, the auras they gave off full of youthfulness. These were without a doubt the best of the present world's young supreme beings.

Shi Hao's spiritual awareness was still extremely sharp while in battle. Soon afterwards, he sensed several auras hurry over one after the other.

Hong!

A moment later, a loud noise sounded. The mud pool suddenly exploded, mud flying in all directions. Someone was taking action, wishing to open up the immortal manor's gate.

In fact, at this moment, the auspicious light became richer, immortal energy dense. After this strike, a great change took place underground.

Wenglong!

The mud pool caved in, immortal light rushing into the heavens. Waves of immortal music sounded, and the loud noise of a stone door being opened could be heard; the underground world was opened!

Shua!

At this moment, several figures rushed over. They were as fast as lightning, entering the mud pool in the blink of an eye.

"Come over here!"

Shi Hao shouted, calling out to Cao Yusheng, witch, and the others, and also calling to Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples, wishing to bring them in.

Many people were stupefied, and then they felt envious. Huang really was bold, daring to do this, using his power alone to shelter a group of people, bringing them with him into the immortal manor!

Who else would dare do such a thing?

Chapter 1279 - Underground

Huang was calling a group of people to come with him into the underground immortal manor world. Just how bold was this? The others felt envy and jealousy. This was just too crazy!

Cao Yusheng, Lunar Jade Rabbit, Chang Gongyan, witch, Feng Wu, and the others were no exception. They all flew over, entering the mud pool.

Heavenly Deity Institution's disciples weren't all that calm, everyone of them pleasantly surprised. They never thought that Huang would bring them with him. This was an unimaginable great opportunity!

They didn't interact all that much with Huang, in the past not exchanging much words, yet now, just because they were from the same academy, voicing a bit of unfairness for him, they received this type of opportunity.

Even though the mud pool wasn't that large, it couldn't be considered small either, enough to hold these people. The mud pool splashed everywhere, at the center an enormous hole where immortal energy was rising from.

"Huang, you are just too unbridled. If it was just you entering, then that is one thing, yet you want to bring a group of people inside?!" There were people who spoke coldly from the dark.

"If it's something I wish to do, would it be something you should concern yourself with?" Shi Hao directly berated.

"Arrogant!" Divine light surged from the dark, rushing over from that underground world. Lightning hacked out streak after streak, thunder crashing down, someone attacking them.

Chi!

Shi Hao's right hand reached out, his five fingers unfolding, continuously increasing in size, simply able to cover heaven and earth. He immediately grabbed towards that cave entrance, grabbing all of the lightning with a single motion.

At the end of his fingers, lightning radiance roiled, extremely terrifying!

Right now, his palm was enormous like a dark cloud, every single finger like a pillar that supported the heavens, incredibly shocking.

"World Within the Palm!" Someone sighed with astonishment.

When one's cultivation reached a certain point, one was no longer restricted to the precious techniques they inherently had, but could rearrange bone texts to create great divine abilities. This was precisely an embodiment of this.

Shi Hao's large hand moved down, completely refining all of the lightning. Then, with a turn of his hand, it was as if the heavens collapsed and earth sunk, thousands to tens of thousands of streaks of lightning crashing down violently.

"This..." Everyone was stunned. This was just too grand of a display, making many people's scalps turning numb.

"Huang, you dare?!" Someone roared out angrily.

"Could it be that you want to attack everyone?" Someone said coldly.

"I don't want to hear your nonsense. All of you are underground, attacking me, hiding your heads and showing your tails so that I can't tell who exactly it was, so you think that because of this, I don't dare take action? Keep dreaming!" Shi Hao powerfully responded.

Shi Hao's palm descended, truly collapsing the heavens and splitting the earth, the mud pool destroyed, the earth below even rumbling and shaking, releasing loud noises.

There was also divine light that accompanied this attack, because there was a cave below, an immortal dao rite. After suffering this type of heavy blow, many old formations were activated, thus releasing undying power here.

It was as if a hornet's nest was poked, producing great chaos!

The people who rushed down earlier all suffered greatly. They hurriedly defended themselves, or else there would likely be danger to their lives!

On the ground, everyone was stupefied. Huang was extremely daring after all, tyrannical beyond compare. Someone was secretly targeting him, so he directly put everyone in danger.

“Huang, you... have crossed the line!” Someone said coldly.

“Why are you wasting your time? The one who is harming you isn’t me, the one who is provoking me is the main culprit. All of you below should know who it is, yet you aren’t talking to him, instead think I am easy to bully? If you are discontent, then come up and fight!” Shi Hao responded coldly.

Everyone was speechless. This really was domineering! He was aggressive even when being reasoned with, all those who dared anger him would definitely face fierce retaliation.

The one who spoke was also speechless. This person really wasn’t someone he could afford to provoke, incredibly unrestrained. If he continued to oppose him with equal harshness, Huang might just directly jump down and fight a decisive battle against him.

A moment later, the underground world became peaceful again, the earth no longer quaking, a mist of light engulfing everything.

“We should also head down.” Shi Hao said. He took the lead, opening up a barrier of light, protecting the front of the group to guard against ambushes.

Of course, he also had confidence that now, normal people wouldn’t dare act recklessly. It was because even Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch was defeated by him, this producing great intimidation.

The mud pool was extremely dark, and also extremely vast, an endlessly large karst cave. The stalactites were of all different types and oddities, releasing brilliant radiance like strange yet beautiful sculptures.

“Huang great one, what exactly was inside the stone box you seized?” A student from Heavenly Deity Institution was curious, asking about it here.

Shi Hao was moved. Previously, there was a streak of multicolored light that flew out of the mud pool, wrapping itself around a stone box, obtained by him. This was precisely why he entered the battlefield, fighting against others.

Shi Hao produced it from his bosom. This stone box was flowing with a hazy splendor, currently sealed, extremely difficult to open.

“En?” After trying several times, it was unexpectedly ineffective. Then, he began to decipher the bone texts, trying to completely break it open.

“Natural laws of force?” Shi Hao frowned. After carefully studying it, his mind jumped. The bone texts that were attached to the stone box were extremely strange, forming a wave of great power, preventing it from being opened.

“Open!” When he understood what it was, he shouted, exerting force, using brute strength to break this box.

Hong!

An intense explosion sounded, shaking up heaven and earth, shocking everyone.

This was especially the case when this underground world even began to collapse, making the faces of the young great supreme beings below fall ashen. Even an exceptional beauty like Lan Xian had dark lines appear on her forehead, her teeth gritted.

“Huang, you are going too far! It is true that someone has tried to deal with you, but you cannot always deliberately stir things up, right?” Someone couldn’t help but shout out.

“En, this was an accident, but I refuse to apologize. Who told you all to provoke me just now?” Shi Hao replied.

The people below were speechless, this person really was hard to provoke, just too arrogant. However, there really were people among them who were in the wrong.

A wave of extreme brilliance rushed into the sky, leaving those on the ground greatly shocked as well.

In the underground world, stalactites covered everything, the radiance dazzling.

Cao Yusheng, Dragon Girl, and the others all stared at Shi Hao’s hand. After stirring up so much commotion, what exactly was there inside?

Shi Hao was opening the stone box through brute force, using it to deal with the tremendous force natural laws contained within. In reality, the most effective method was to just forcibly open it.

After Shi Hao opened the box, a snow-white head stuck out, looking around, appearing rather amusing.

Everyone was stunned. They rubbed their eyes to make sure they weren’t seeing things!

The stone box that flew out from the immortal manor had a creature, not an artifact, this really was a bit inconceivable. After all these years, there was still a living creature inside?

“A tortoise!” The little fatty Cao Yusheng cried out.

After carefully examining it, everyone became speechless. This was a snow-white tortoise that was palm-sized, its shell sparkling like fine jade. Its body was also like this.

Unlike normal tortoises, it was quick-witted, its eyes looking rather lowly.

“What kind of tortoise is this? Don’t tell me it is a long life medicine that developed intelligence, turning into a white tortoise! I remember that in the three thousand provinces, there was previously a White Tortoise Carrying Immortal wondrous medicine!” The little rabbit’s saliva was startling to flow out, its large ruby-like eyes about to release flames.

When the others heard this, they were all shocked as well. This was not entirely impossible!

After all, this was a stone box that rushed out from the immortal manor, so there were naturally immortal treasures contained within.

“You all thought too much.” Shi Hao shook his head. It was because he recognized this snow-white tortoise, he had met it a few years ago.

At that time, the great elder was angling here, wishing to fish out that cunning creature out from the immortal manor, but in the end he only fished out this greedy tortoise.

This was the Octadic Treasure Tortoise!

Even though it wasn't comparable to a long life medicine, its reputation was also astonishing, its name shaking the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. Not only was it one of the most well-known delicacies, it was also a great mending medicine. n.(o--V).e-(l)(b(.1((n

It was known as the number one blood enriching food, something that could grant supreme being level figures blood energy when they grew old and their bodies dried up.

"Octadic Treasure Tortoise, this is even harder to find than a divine medicine, something absolutely priceless!" A few people cried out in shock.

"This is the Great Elder's belongings, left behind to replenish blood energy." Shi Hao said. He placed this tortoise back into the stone case.

He used his divine will to ask this tortoise what exactly was going on.

The Octadic Treasure Tortoise had long developed intelligence, so it naturally knew how to communicate. It was a bit nervous, telling him that when it was roaming around the mud pool, it was swept into the underground world by a wave of great power. Then, it was mysteriously subdued.

"It's that creature!" Shi Hao narrowed his eyes, recalling that thing that the Great Elder had always wanted to capture but always failed to do so.

Dong!

Suddenly, the underground cave released a giant noise. There was a region that ruptured open, many stalactites falling, the ground starting to sink.

Hong!

Rubble rushed out, all types of smoke and dust pervading the air.

In the depths of the underground layer, there were sinister dao symbols that flickered about. There was an underground palace there, grand and ancient looking, almost like an immortal dao ancient city.

Upon closer inspection, it was unexpectedly made from metal.

It was extremely grand and majestic.

"What a large city!" Feng Wu exclaimed in admiration.

"It should be said that this is a small world, a vast cave." Chang Gongyan said.

Everyone flew into the air, gazing forward, feeling that this was reasonable. That city had a few stone mountains that had caves opened in them, all of them releasing immortal energy.

This made one's mind tremble. This was an immortal treasure land!

Once one barged in, there would inevitably be great natural luck!

At the same time, Shi Hao felt like there were several extremely frightening lumps of energy present. Even though they were hidden well, they still couldn't escape his spiritual awareness.

Without a doubt, those were young supreme beings. They had long arrived here, just hiding on the side this entire time.

The giant city was entirely greenish-gold, like the most magnificent metal work of art. These green-gold structures didn't show any sign of decaying even after all these years, still bright and brilliant.

At the same time, everyone felt that this so-called grand immortal city wasn't the main point, that the true great opportunity was most likely hidden within those stone mountains' caves.

This place was astonishing as expected. Normally speaking, it was incredible for there to be a single immortal cave nearby, but there were nine stone mountains in this city, the ancient caves dark, all of them releasing immortal energy, meaning that there were nine great immortal caves!

This was an important place, an immortal city!

Everyone revealed serious expressions, not daring to act blindly without thinking. It was because Heavenly Deity Institution's great elder had previously discovered this place, but had never entered inside.

Zhi ya ya!

A noise sounded from the immortal city. Giant green metal doors opened wide, chaotic energy surging. That place was incredibly mysterious.

Then, a rumbling noise rang out. There was a stone gate inside that was also large, and right now, it also opened up. The immortal city was opened wide, displaying itself without restraint towards everyone here.

This was extremely strange. After endless time had passed, this city didn't display any movements, yet today, it actually opened up on its own!

Above the city, the symbols covering the void all disappeared. What did this mean? Could it be that they could directly enter by jumping over the city walls?

In the past, that was but a restricted area! Those who dared trespass into the city would be blasted to pieces by the symbols, even supreme beings similarly dying!

Immortal City truly appeared in this world just like that. Were they going to see the heavenly sun?

Meanwhile, ka ka sounds rang out from inside the city, several creatures slowly walking over. They all had human forms, their bodies covered in armor, carrying immortal energy.

This left everyone alarmed. There were living creatures! Were they true immortals?!

Chapter 1280 - Immortal City

True immortal, was it this type of creature?!

A group of people held their breath, not moving at all, all of them petrified in place.

This type of ancient city where it was unknown just how many tens of thousands of years had passed, a place that had already existed for a long time when the last great era was destroyed, how could it still have living creatures within it?

No one dared to act recklessly out of fear of angering these existences. Otherwise, they would most likely experience a tremendous disaster!

Their armors were pitch-black, but there weren't any rust stains, and they even flickered with metallic luster, flickering with light, maintained extremely well. One could vaguely sense the sharpness of Immortal Gold!

They looked at their weapons, all black war halberds, heavenly spears, all heavy ancient weapons that carried a bloodiness able to devour the heaven and earth.

What made everyone shiver inwardly was that these weapons definitely killed powerful opponents before, cut down exceptional figures. Otherwise, how could they be this tyrannical looking?

Those people carried immortal energy, but those weapons were this frightening, making the expressions of everyone here become serious.

"They have Darkness Immortal Gold!" The little fatty Cao Yusheng was extremely daring, muttering this quietly.

Those armors and those weapons all had Darkness Immortal Gold mixed in. This was an extremely extravagant squandering. Immortal Gold was difficult to find, always measured in the granules in this world.

The majestic metal city was extremely vast, the towering city gates like a great archaic peak. The dark shadow they cast down made everyone feel suffocated.

The green-gold city walls were grand, continuous like a mountain ridge. They were situated there, blocking the road ahead.

Those creatures walked over from the city gates, even their faces covered in armor, only the eye areas releasing sharp divine radiance that shot out like lightning. When those eyes landed on one's body, it would make them feel a bit of pain.

Right now, those young supreme beings were all quiet, not daring to act randomly.

Ta! Ta! Ta!

Sounds of footsteps rang throughout this place. The sound of their feet making contact with the stone floor was clear and loud, as if they were directly sounding in their minds, making them shiver inwardly.

They called these creatures immortal dao creatures, as their bodies had immortal energies around them, and it wasn't wrong, but right they were giving off such a great pressure, not uttering a word, so they couldn't help but feel confused.

Right at this time, the space between that humanoid creature's brows split open, revealing a vertical eye. It released a streak of scarlet red radiance, sweeping it over everyone.

"Aiyou!" The little rabbit cried out in alarm.

It was because when that scarlet multicolored light scattered over her body first, shaking her greatly, it was as if she was struck by electricity. Her entire body was trembling continuously.

"What's wrong?" Those beside her cried out in alarm, wishing to go up and offer help, but before they even got close, they were blasted aside by that scarlet multicolored light, unable to reach her.

"The purest bloodlines of Immortal Ancient may enter." The one at the very front released a gloomy voice. It was extremely strange, normal people definitely unable to understand it.

It was because this was Immortal Ancient language, something that had long disappeared for many years. However, none of those here were ordinary, all studying it before in the academy, to the extent where they even grasped the characters of that era.

Everyone was shocked. Was this city guard examining them?

The Lunar Jade Rabbit was the most happy, in high spirits, her large eyes that were even more beautiful than red coral shining about to rush inside.

"Why? Didn't you say that my bloodline was the purest? Why can't I enter?" The Lunar Jade Rabbit widened her eyes, her face full of puzzlement and resentment.

"What creature's bloodline is purer than the young Qilin beast's? It is related to the immortals of Immortal Ancient." That creature with the large black halberd said coldly, a bit ruthless, even more so carrying a type of mechanical tone and rigidity.

With a chi liu sound, the young Qilin beast the Lunar Jade Rabbit held struggled free, jumping onto the ground. After three years had passed, it had grown quite a bit, but it was still quite lazy, normally still preferring to be carried by another, its body kept at one foot in length.

The snow-white Qilin beast was incredibly happy, long feeling a sense of intimacy with this place, wishing to rush inside.

"You little thing really have no conscience. How can you just leave us behind?!" The little rabbit was furious.

The snow-white Qilin young beast stopped, blinking its large sparkling eyes. It communicated with those creatures guarding the gate, asking if those people could be allowed in.

The vertical eye of the one in the lead was open the entire time. It passed over everyone's bodies, and then in the end he nodded, saying, "These are descendents of Immortal Ancient residents, not the creatures of the other side, and there is someone of the Qilin bloodline to lead them. They may enter."

Everyone was shocked. These guards were defending against foreign creatures. Was this the purpose for their existence?!

Shi Hao and the others walked up in succession, passing through the city gates, walking inside. They already reached his point, there was no reason to back out now. Even if there was danger, they still had to take the risk.

Suddenly, a black heavenly halberd reached out, the sharp blade erupting with dark light. It was extremely dazzling, carrying terrifying killing energy, simply about to engulf the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

This vicious weapon immediately blocked the path, stopping before one person.

“Foreign intruder, enemy!” It shouted, voice like thunder, immediately leaving everyone shocked.

There were spies from the other side among them? This simply left everyone horrified. They had no idea before, not noticing.

Everyone turned around, looking back.

“This person indeed came from the other side.” Shi Hao walked over, saying.

The one who was stopped was Mo Dao, the one Shi Hao defeated and took on as a servant. From a bloodline perspective, he was the same as the Nine Heavens Ten Earths’ people, but he did live on the other side.

Right now, Shi Hao could only say things as they were, because he didn’t know if Mo Dao would rebel in the end, whether he would change sides at the crucial moment.

If this place was extremely important, then there really was a need to restrict him.

Peng!

That tall figure clad in black armor walked over, and then he grabbed Mo Dao with a single motion. The vertical eye between his brows erupted with brilliant light, staring at Mo Dao.

A moment later, he loosened his grip, letting Mo Dao go.

“He can enter, but it is restricted to a special range in the giant city, may not enter deeper.” He said with an ice-cold voice.

Everyone released a breath of relief, even Shi Hao feeling relieved. If they really sensed something strange from Mo Dao’s body, then he really did have to be ruthlessly suppressed and killed!

This group wasn’t that small, including the witch, Chang Gongyan, Feng Wu, Zhen Gu, Teng Yi, and others, even the disciples of Heavenly Deity Institution included.

Then, those that were in the dark, the young supreme beings who had never appeared all appeared as well, standing together with Lan Xian, Great Xu Tuo, Daoist Qi Gu and others, arriving before the city gate.

However, these people had divine light protecting them, mists coiling about, not willing to expose their true bodies.

In the end, that seriously injured, previously unconscious Purple Sun Heavenly Monarch also came down. It was clear that Immortal Academy’s old monster’s divine pill allowed him to quickly recover. He didn’t want to miss this opportunity.

The city was extremely quiet, not a single figure to be seen on the street. It was as if the entire giant city only had those mysterious city defenders.

Shua!

Human figures flashed. Heavenly Deity Institution, Immortal Academy, and Sacred Academy's living fossil level creatures descended, arriving before the entrance, wishing to interact with those creatures dressed in black armor.

Only, what they received in reply was an ice-cold halberd, stopping their path.

"You all are too old. The opportunities in the city have pretty much been used up. If it is used on you all, the effects won't be that great, would only be a waste."

Those people were speechless. This really was rather blunt, saying this to their faces.

At the same time, their minds sunk. Not even a giant city like this had great opportunities? This really was too much of a pity.

"I originally thought that it would be something left behind by an immortal king... this really is a pity." Someone said with a light sigh.

"What is there to feel pity about? This city is naturally one of the most important hidden trump cards." That defender said with an ice-cold voice.

"What is there inside?" The eyes of an elder from Immortal Academy shone, staring at them.

"Things that were left behind by two immortal kings, but they aren't for you all. It can only be granted to the purest Immortal Ancient bloodlines!" One of them coldly said.

Right now, the ones who entered the city had heard this as well. All of them were shocked; this was actually the dao rite of immortal kings, moreover two of them appearing at once!

Just how many immortal kings were there? There were absolutely none in this great era!

Their number in the last great era could definitely be counted as well, yet there were actually two here. What did they leave behind?

Everyone's eyes burned with desire, looking forward to it greatly. This was definitely a place of heaven-defying natural luck, filling everyone with expectations.

Only, the creatures guarding the city gates told them that it only belonged to the most genuine descendants.

The inside of the city was incredibly vast and enormous, truly like a world of its own. It was many times more vast than what it looked like from the outside.

"What is that? It's so brilliant!"

Right at this time, someone cried out in alarm. A group of people looked over, seeing that there was divine multicolored light overflowing from the end of the street. There was hazy white mist, sacred and auspicious.

Everyone quickly rushed over, while Shi Hao held up the rear, defending against the young supreme beings behind them. Inside of his group, he was the only one with powerful intimidation force, the others unable to resist the might of true supreme beings.

Huang was enough to intimidate everyone by himself!

Sure enough, Lan Xian and the others frowned. They didn't wish to tear apart all relations as soon as they entered the city, so none of them took action, walking forward according to their own pace.

"Heavens, Soul Guiding Lotus, moreover three of them at once!"

Cao Yusheng cried out, not daring to believe what he was seeing.

At the other end of the street was a small plaza. There was a water pool there that surged with waves of divine multicolored light. There were actually three Soul Guiding Lotuses there, all of them divine medicines, flowing with brilliant radiance.

"This is but divine medicine! Just how many of them could there be of each type? Moreover, they are all growing in the same place!" The others were also shocked.

Divine medicines weren't completely unique, unable to compare to long life medicines.

However, the number of every single type of divine medicine was definitely pitifully low in number. Even if one searched through the entire heaven and earth, there wouldn't be that many of them, and they definitely couldn't grow in one place, or else the essence energy wouldn't be enough to support their growth.

However, three stalks immediately appeared at once, all of them Soul Guiding Lotuses. This type of medicine's most miraculous effect was that they could strengthen one's primordial spirit. As long as there was even a bit of one's divine consciousness left, then it could allow one to revive!

"We are too lucky, a great chance to refine the primordial spirit is right before our eyes!" Many people cried out with joy.

Cao Yusheng was even more direct, directly jumping over with a putong sound, entering the pool.

"How fragrant! The medicinal nature of the divine lotus had long melted into the water, rich with fragrance, so rich that it won't dissolve!" He drank large mouthfuls of the pool water while laughing strangely.

There were quite a few people who followed him, all of them rushing down to acquire the strong medicinal nature within.

"This medicinal liquid really is fragrant!" Cao Yusheng continuously praised it while gulping it down.

"Who is the lunatic drinking my bath water?" Right at this time, an extremely tender voice sounded, immediately making all the voices disappear. Everyone was stumped, and then they rose up, moving to the side of the pool, taking precautions.

“Where did that voice come from?” Cao Yusheng was standing at the shore, angrily berating out. He drank a full stomach full of liquid, and as a result was criticized by another, saying that this was bath water. This really was a bit offensive.

“You big fatty, be careful, you almost stepped on me!” That tender voice sounded from the ground.

The fatty Cao Yusheng lowered his head, carefully searching about. In the end, he finally saw a creature at the tip of his toes. He was first stupefied, and then he began to laugh crazily.

“Just a little bean, yet you dare bother me, be careful not to be stepped flat by me!” He said while chuckling.

“You dare mock me? I can blast you flying with a single fist!” On the ground, that extremely small creature who one would easily overlook said.

Cao Yusheng felt like this was rather interesting. He squatted out, reaching out a finger to prod at that creature that was less than an inch in size.

Dong!

However, he was immediately stupefied!

It was because he was struck by a fist, feeling as if he had been trampled on by a mammoth, as if a giant archaic peak smashed into him. His entire body flew out, rushing into the ends of the horizon, unable to stop himself even if he wanted to. At the same time, he felt intense pain from his entire body, all of his bones feeling like they were broken.

“Motherfucking, I’m going to... I was sent flying by a bean, I fucking swear...” Cao Yusheng released a string of curses, swearing continuously. In the end, he... he really was quite disappointing, fainting from that punch.
