

Perfect WD 1391

Chapter 1391 - Outside the Pass

Jin Zhifei was defeated, moreover in an extremely shameful manner. His face was stepped on by Shi Hao, as if he stepped on the ground. This was but one of the few geniuses of Jin Family in the present age!

The crowd became noisy. Jin Family's people almost rushed out to settle things with Shi Hao.

Only, this was Imperial Pass, there was no room for them to act randomly, so they had no choice but to hold in their rage.

The glorious heaven warping figure of a clan, entering Self Severing Realm in under forty years of age, how stunning was this? It was rarely seen throughout the entire Nine Heavens, yet he was greatly humiliated here, even Jin Family shamed!

"This truly is shameful..." An elder from Jin Family said through clenched teeth, eyes cold. That foot not only stepped on Jin Zhifei's face, it also felt like it was stepping down on all of their faces too.

This twenty-something youngster was flourishing with heroicness, destroying a well-known heaven warping genius of this generation. Just how glorious of a battle accomplishment was this?

Shi Hao's black hair scattered down, eyes like lightning. He sat on the Southern Li Divine Flame Rhinoceros, mighty and unmoving, overlooking Jin Family, Wang Family, and others, calm and composed.

This battle made everyone see his terrifying potential. He was like a rising blazing sun. His future had endless potential!

All clans were speaking quietly, discussing amongst themselves. They felt like this youngster's future accomplishments would definitely be formidable, that he might become a world-shaking unmatched supreme being.

"Is this Huang? He is even greater in person than his reputation!"

"Worthy of being someone who won ten victories in Great Scarlet Sky Border in a row, killing ten kings. He is formidable after all, full of potential."

The cultivators of all different clans praised endlessly.

"Set off!" Right at this time, the great knight on the Sky Swallowing Beast gave the order. The troops of different clans all moved, setting out!

People shouted and beasts roared, the cold light flickering from weapons shining into the sky dome. The army surged with killing intent, stepping onto a giant transport formation, now truly setting out for war.

Shi Hao sat on the purple-gold rhinoceros, waves of purple mist rising from it, accompanied by divine spender, following the troops forward.

Jin Zhifei's clenched teeth were even making noise. This was just too shameful, his mount seized by another, subdued under another, for an expert, just how unsightly of a thing was this?

He stood in his original position for a moment, and then he moved, still setting out.

“Jinfei, your current state is not good, don’t go anymore!” An elder advised.

“No, I came to Imperial Pass precisely to sharpen myself. Apart from this, I am also extremely interested in the ancient inheritances’ natural luck outside the pass, I do not wish to miss them!” Jin Zhifei said.

He was also someone who was free, not conscripted. After leaving the pass, he could move as he pleased.

“Uncle, I will go with you!” Jin Zhan spoke up. He was known as the heavenly talent of a generation, Jin Family’s present age number one genius, potential limitless, the entire clan’s high hopes placed on him.

Jin Zhifei shook his head, extremely firm in his decision as he said, “No, I will go myself, there won’t be any issues. You should plan for the next time we set out, do not mess up your own rhythm. There is no need to feel worry for me.”

“Haha, Jin Family’s dao friends do not need to worry. Outside the pass, the one who should worry about their life or death is that youngster.” Wang Changhe walked over, advising with a smile.

“I hope this is how things turn out!” Jin Family’s people nodded.

The great army was majestic, entering the transport formation. Troop after troop of armored soldiers from all different clans were here, all of them extremely powerful.

Shi Hao also walked forward, entering the transport formation. Radiance flashed, disappearing from this place.

Then, he appeared before another giant altar, discovering that even more troops were gathered here, no end in sight.

These creatures’ outer shapes were too massive, for example, a several thousand zhang tall Golden Giant, mountain ridge-like Twin-Headed Ancient Flood Dragon, as well as mountainous green giant wolves and others!

It was clear that the men the great knight on the Heaven Swallowing Beast lea were only one branch of the great army. There were still many others, all of them gathering here.

“Once we leave this place, we will be outside the pass. All of you have to be careful.”

“Remember, killing the enemy is the same as protecting your wives, protecting your loved ones. Men should be courageous and valiant, have to have mountain and river devouring ambitions, the battlefield where all of you can prove yourselves. Use the blood of enemies to compose your resounding war song!”

Several elders stood on the massive altar, boosting everyone’s morale.

“Alright, let’s go on our way, I hope everyone can come back alive after killing the enemy!” An elder said. At the same time, he produced golden bone pieces, adding them to the cracks on the altar.

Hong!

In that instant, large amounts of light surged, surrounding this place, forming a boundless heaven diagram, covering all of the cultivators underneath.

In the distance was a great city wall that towered into the heavens, piled up through star remains.

The nearby altar shone, opening up a path that led outside the pass. They were now setting out!

With a shua sound, everyone disappeared in an instant in an orderly manner, departing from this region inside the city walls, vanishing from this place.

The void was blurry, everyone could vaguely feel their bodies breaking apart. Along the way, they saw the birth of stars, and then their decline and destruction.

They knew that they left the most terrifying realm gate, or else there wouldn't be this type of experience.

It was as if a hundred years passed, but also like a hurried moment, time unstable, many people unclear on how much time had passed. Everyone felt their bodies shaken, and then they discovered that they were already standing on a great earth.

When one looked backwards, primal chaos surged, continuously roiling. A giant city towered into the boundless heavens, standing tall there, not collapsing through endless time, existing throughout eternity.

That was Imperial pass, it was already behind them, towering in primal chaos.

"Our heaven and earth, is on the other side of the primal chaos?"

"This is precisely outside the pass!"

When everyone turned around, truly looking forward, the creatures who left the pass for the first time were all shaken. The scene was desolate and bleak, as if it was an old-fashioned ink and wash painting, extremely ancient.

The great desert was desolate, a long river extending out, a round sun setting!

This was a great desert that stretched out for as far as one could see. The blood-colored setting sun was incredibly large, as if an undying barbaric beast was guarding the horizon, thoroughly red and striking.

The scene outside the pass was savage and unrestrained.

In the great desert, there were many fire beacons that were lit by those before them, not going out after thousands of years. There were some that had already existed for hundreds of thousands to millions of years.

A great river stretched across the desert, never drying from the past until now, the water roaring past.

If one looked at it carefully, they would all feel a feeling of fear. That river water was bright red and glaring, as if divine blood was flowing from the past until now, the blood color not fading at all.

“It was rumored that it is a direct branch of the yellow springs, originally yellow, but it was dyed red by the blood of experts. Now, the scarlet red color is unchanging, possessing a strong smell of blood.” A great knight in the Self Release Realm said.

This was especially the case when the blood-colored river surged, there would occasionally be splashes. A few skeletons would appear, all of them extremely different, with snow-white and sparkling ones, golden ones, and even those that released dark light.

It was unknown just how many skeletal remains were in the river. All of them belonged to past experts, to the extent where there was no lack of long life bones!

Many people died, too many creatures killed in battle, simply no way to tally them up. This was the two realms’ greatest battlefield, as well as their burial ground!

Ka!

Suddenly, when someone walked forward, bone pieces appeared beneath the grit.

“There are bones underneath the ground too?”

There was a golden lion that was massive like a small mountain, making the desert cave in under its feet. In the end, it was discovered that there were too many skeletons underneath the sand.

“This...” The cultivators who came here were for the first time were all shocked, because underneath the sand, the amount of skeletons might not even be less than the sand.

Hong!

Someone waved his sleeve, making sand and stones move aside, a large area of the desert cleaned up. It was covered in divine bones, sparkling and shining, the divine dao aura still not scattering.

There were just too many here, all of them severely damaged, difficult to differentiate which bone they belonged to, crushed bones endless.

The battle back then was bitter, unknown just how many creatures from the two realms had their bones buried here.

“En, the spring water is blood?!” A young person cried out in alarm.

Inside the desert, there was a blood spring several dozen li out that surged outwards. They could smell the bloodiness even from far away, next to the blood spring grew an extremely beautiful flower, enchanting to the point of leaving one intoxicated.

“Hell Flower, no one is allowed to approach it!” The great knight’s face immediately turned pale, even him feeling great fear, feeling waves of chilliness, urging the Heaven Swallowing Beast to continuously back up!

“Just a flower, just how big of a deal can it be?” Someone muttered quietly, not thinking much of it.

An old knight seated on a Pixiu immediately shouted out, “What do you understand? This flower is something not even supreme beings dare to gaze upon. If you went up, I guarantee that you will die without a burial ground!”

This was an old person full of prestige. That young cultivator immediately felt shaken up, not daring to speak back after hearing his roaring voice.

Only when he stopped did others mutter quietly, lowering their stance to ask for guidance. “Senior, is this type of flower extremely terrifying?”

“The only fortunate thing is that it is still many years from maturing, or else everyone would have already died here!” The old knight on the Pixiu said. ~~no ve~~(LB)In

The great knight’s expression was serious. He stared at the bewitchingly beautiful flower, still carrying lingering fears as he said, “Fortunately, it is still far from maturing, or else it would be a huge disaster! However, in the future, this battlefield will definitely be covered in blood.”

Everyone was horrified, listening carefully.

“It was rumored that the Hell Flower’s origins are mysterious...”

It was said that it was created through the soul of a true immortal after their death, growing after receiving the nourishment of countless creatures’ blood on this battlefield.

There were others who said that after an unmatched undying being died, this was a different type of regeneration. After taking root in the demonic earth soaked in the blood of endless creatures, devouring the remains of immortals, this flower was then produced.

Back then, there was a supreme being who saw this flower for the first time, captivated by its beauty. He couldn’t help but walk close, but in the end, as soon as his finger touched it, his body exploded to pieces.

The same day, that Hell Flower matured, completely blooming here, fragrance spreading for hundreds of thousands of li, the entire world becoming scarlet red, as if covered in a sunset glow. In the end, all creatures, regardless of what side they were from, completely turned into a bloody paste, dying here!

The endless blood turned into a small stream, gathering, absorbed by that Hell Flower.

At this moment, that young man was horrified, not daring to act carelessly. When he looked at that flower, his knees even began to tremble. This was simply a world shocking demonic flower!

“Send someone back, inform Senior Meng Tianzheng and others that a true supreme being needs to come here with an immortal dao supreme treasure, eliminate this flower before it matures. Otherwise, there will be a great disaster.”

“There’s not enough time, it already left.” The great knight said with a sigh.

Sure enough, that blood spring dried up, Hell Flower also entering the ground, disappearing from this place.

Before it matured, it had an extremely self-protective consciousness, able to fly in the sky and escape through the earth, not even Self Release Realm cultivators able to catch up.

"After we cross this desert, the land will become even more vast with divine medicines, divine veins, ancient burial regions, heavenly beast forests and other places. Where do you all wish to go?" Someone asked Shi Hao, Jin Zhifei, these types of people.

There were a few geniuses who could move freely, able to leave the army, choose how to sharpen themselves on their own.

"For the first time I leave the pass, I am willing to follow the great army's will, wish to see the great scene of two realms clashing!" Shi Hao said.

Chapter 1392 - Heaven Abyss

The entire great desert used to be a battlefield, vast and boundless without end. Countless ancient people fought here, fighting into the heavens above and earth below. Even after endless time passed, it was still as if they could hear the resounding war songs and iron blooded shouts of war.

The great army advanced, pressing forward.

The geniuses who could move freely all chose to follow along, also wishing to see the grand scene of the two realms fighting.

"There are undying beings holding down the other side, our side already not having true immortals a long time ago, will we be able to stop them?" Someone asked with a small voice.

A genius asked. This was the first time he arrived in Imperial Pass, so he didn't understand this place at all.

In reality, these were also the question Shi Hao had inside, the situation grim. How were the Nine Heavens Ten Earths suppose to stop the foreign masters?

"For all these years, my side's true immortals have all died off, no longer existing, yet every clan is still able to stand tall, there is naturally a reason for this." An old knight said.

"Yi, what is that reason?" Someone cried out in alarm.

When they entered the desert depths, everyone subconsciously raised their heads, because they just felt like there was something covering them above, boundless like a star dome!

Those who came out for the first time were stunned. They looked towards the sky, was this a demonic cloud or immortal mist? Pure white and darkness intertwined, as if yin and yang were wrapped around each other!

The most crucial thing was that the abyss was linked up to the heavenly dome, entering the boundless unknown, and not towards the world below.

It was truly too large and boundless, covering the world above the desert. n((OverlBIn

"Could this be... that this is Heaven Abyss?" Someone said to himself.

Shi Hao was also stunned. He had heard before he came that there was this type of abyss, only, it was unknown if it led into the depths of the great earth or towards the world beyond, it was extremely mysterious.

This was created by spatial walls, coming from a mysterious domain.

The black and pure white mist swirled together, intertwining, slowly moving, possessing terrifying strength.

Inside that Heaven Abyss, there were many star fragments that rose and fell. As it moved around, there was a terrifying demonic power that was created, the scene majestic.

This wasn't a normal type of abyss, even stars could be swallowed up.

However, it wasn't a black hole, truly was only an abyss, because when one continued walking in the desert, they could see that the sky abyss almost touched the surface.

Because of this, they could see even more clearly that there were many star remains inside that moved slowly, even more so some giant skeletal remains floating, moving about, making one feel fear.

"This Heaven Abyss is mysterious and unknown, many experts had tried to look into it, but no one has ever found out its source. However, it is what protects our world's Desolate Border!" A great knight said.

"It... how does it protect us?" Many people were confused. They saw that Heaven Abyss was almost within reach, yet they didn't sense any special power.

"It is ineffective against ordinary creatures, but once there are undying beings that cross over from the other side, entering this region, they will be sucked into Heaven Abyss, and thus disappear!" The great knight said seriously.

"What?" Many youngsters were shocked when they heard this. They couldn't help but step backwards, their expressions a bit pale.

Something that could swallow up undying beings, just how terrifying of a thing was this? Heaven Abyss was too frightening, where did it lead to, to actually have this type of unmatched power!

"Don't worry, it won't swallow up you all. When normal creatures walk here, there won't be any changes, only when undying beings appear will it swallow them up." The great knight explained.

What was going on? It was here specifically to deal with undying beings?

How did it take form? Who was the one who arranged this? Even now, no one knew, because after Immortal Ancient's last years, this world was wiped out, civilization cut short, everything couldn't be traced back.

When the foreign side retreated, who was the one that chased them away? It was hard to say even now.

This Heaven Abyss should have been formed then, right?

"That is why even after endless years, the other side, even though it attacks violently from time to time, after losing a few undying beings, they could only send their children to attack." An old knight said with a smile.

It could be said that the existence of Heaven Abyss ensured the safety of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, or else if the foreign undying existences came, Imperial Pass would definitely be in danger!

In this era without true immortals, this abyss displayed tremendous use, stopping the foreign side's iron hooves.

Many people looked towards the sky. This abyss that appeared in the heavens above gave everyone an incomparably mysterious feeling. There were too many secrets contained within.

Where exactly does it lead to? The undying beings that it devoured, what happened to them? Did they die, or were they transported to another strange land?

This gave everyone a strong adventurous desire. They really wanted to know where it led to, what kind of truths were hidden.

"There was previously another city, but unfortunately, it has already disappeared, not appearing for a long time." An old knight said with a sigh.

Shi Hao was immediately shocked. This was what he attached the most importance to, as well as one of the reasons why he left the pass. He wanted to find that city, understand what it was like now.

"Senior, where did it go?"

"I do not know... perhaps it hid itself in the void, perhaps completely broke apart. We have not seen it in recent times." The old knight released a sigh.

"It should still exist. A year ago, someone got a hurried glance at it, seemingly seeing some leftover images." The great knight on the Heaven Swallowing Beast said.

Shi Hao wanted to understand more, but he discovered that everyone's understanding of that city was somewhat limited, unable to provide him with the reason why it disappeared.

It was because that city was extremely mysterious, even in the ancient era, it could only tower between the worlds alone, intermittently visible.

"During the most ancient times, Imperial Pass had previously been sealed, not allowing anything to go out, isolated from the outside world. It is unknown if something happened to Heaven Abyss or that ancient city during that time." An elder said quietly.

This made Shi Hao's mind tremble, and then he clenched his fists.

Imperial Pass sealed up the city, cutting itself off from the rest of the world!

Shi Hao immediately developed many speculations, because he had seen some scenes. Could it be that the creatures in that ancient city were struggling with no support?

If this was the case, there were definitely changes that took place. Imperial Pass actually sealed up the city! Were they refusing to provide aid, or was there some other reason? Why didn't they go out of the pass to provide reinforcements?

Shi Hao frowned, clenching his fists tightly. He felt that there were definitely some 'stories' back then, these stories perhaps depressing, perhaps solemn and stirring, or perhaps couldn't be helped.

"I am going to investigate the truth, return Stone Clan's innocence!" He inwardly clenched his teeth.

“There are creatures up ahead!” Suddenly, someone cried out, startling the entire army.

At this time, at the limits of the horizon, the other side had long discovered the Nine Heavens’ army, because there were just too many of them, too eye-catching.

“Get into formation, prepare for battle!” A great knight roared, leading his own troops. They got into formation, preparing to charge forward.

This was not a normal great formation. Dazzling light flickered within the army, rushing into the heavens, forming a screen of energy light, protecting the great army.

“What kind of thing is that?”

Many people stared ahead, looking towards the horizon.

The group of creatures’ bodies were large, with humanoid ones, ancient beasts and vicious birds, currently constructing a mysterious formation. That was a huge undertaking, the amount of materials used just too great.

“What are they doing?”

“They are arranging a great formation, wishing to attack Heaven Abyss, destroy this place, open up a path for the undying beings, which is why we need to defeat them, destroy the incomplete great formation!” The great knight shouted.

At this moment, the other armies also finished their preparations, about to charge forward.

“Kill them!” An expert roared.

Hong!

Sky shocking drumbeats sounded, the great battle erupting. Great armies rushed forward one after another, a great decisive battle unfolding.

Wuwu... A desolate sounding bugle horn rang out. From the limits of the horizon, countless creatures appeared, no limit in sight.

The other side’s preparations were ample, the great army already facing them seriously, stopping the work of creating the great formation, starting to engage the enemy.

“What kind of thing is this, why is it so grotesquely shaped?” The experts of different clans who came to the desert for the first time were all shocked. The foreign creatures were of all different appearance.

A few creatures surging with killing energy rushed over, some like centipedes, making one feel terrified, some having pure white wings, beautiful and outstanding, but were actually male. There were some who were pitch-black like ink, flesh dried-up, looking like skeletal remains, only a layer of skin around their bones, known as ascetics.

“Kill!”

From the Nine Heavens’ side, a great knight seated on a white elephant roared, shaking up heaven and earth. The war halberd in his hands swept through the world, hacking forward murderously.

He was a commander, taking the lead. He released his most powerful combat strength, great cultivation of Self Release Realm released, the power simply unimaginable.

With a hong sound, heaven and earth collapsed, moonlight falling down from that Heaven Abyss!

Meanwhile, his great halberd tore through the sky like a streak of eternal immortal light, unstoppable, the desert ahead producing overflowing great waves. Large amounts of foreign cultivators cried out miserably, all of them swept through and killed.

One could see that an expanse of blood waves surged, many foreign cultivators howling bitterly.

This type of killing attack was terrifying and bloody, but this was precisely the battlefield, extremely cruel.

“Ao...” The white elephant the great knight was seated on released a long roar. Its snow-white elephant nose swung about, sweeping ferociously through the foreign army.

Its white elephant nose was becoming thick, instantly becoming like a mountain ridge, frantically smashing towards the foreign enemies. It was best if a few important enemies were injured by this attack.

Peng!

This thick elephant nose possessed astonishing murderous power, immediately making the foreign cultivators suffer considerable losses. Many people coughed out blood and flew outwards, some directly exploding.

“Courting death!”

A monster leapt out from the foreign army. Golden hair scattered down, lion head, human body, alligator tail. It released roars, brandishing a divine spear as it slaughtered its way over.

Dang! It faced the great knight seated on the white elephant, their weapons crossing, the void erupting, the noise ringing for hundreds of thousands of li.

Chi!

Following this individual’s war spear displaying might, the foreign army rushed over, about to engage in muddled warfare.

“Kill...” Shouts of war shook the heavens. Both sides engaged each other, quickly fighting a battle of life and death.

Pu!

Blood splashed out from time to time. The great battle was incredibly intense, with each step that was taken, there would always be people who fell, turning into corpses. The intense battle was too miserable.

“Kill!”

The sky dome was even about to be shattered, battered by war energy. All sides trembled, the great earth even about to collapse.

Pu!

That great knight fell, because that lion-headed, human-bodied powerful creature was too terrifying. In the great confrontation, its divine spear swept out like a heavenly blade, spearpoint brilliant, slicing through the great knight's neck, making his head fly out, large amounts of blood gushing forth.

"No!" On the Nine Heavens' side, many people cried out. A great knight was defeated just like that? He was definitely going to fall.

Hou... In the distance, someone roared out, shaking heaven and earth, wishing to stop this, but he didn't succeed.

This was the battlefield, life and death ruled by fate, extremely cruel.

"Assume the battle formation!" An old knight roared, commanding this battle.

This battle was too shocking. Blood scattered, pouring down like rain.

"I am going to kill you!" Right at this time, the great knight seated on the Heaven Swallowing Beast dove down, the man and beast seemingly one. He held a pure gold mace in his hands, smashing it forward.

Dang!

The weapon in his hand enlarged, becoming like a mountain, its power intimidating. It smashed towards the lion-headed monster, but in the end, it collided with the other party's war spear, the noise truly too deafening.

Death was everywhere, too miserable, blood flowing for thousands of li, corpses lying everywhere. Right now, on the boundless desert, the color of blood was glaring and endless, roaring voices shaking the heavenly dome, shouts of war even more so directly rushing into the heavens.

Shi Hao surged with hot blood. He finally arrived outside the pass, seeing the foreign great army, battle suddenly erupting just like that. He was going to take action here.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao entered the great army, diving down like a demonic god, starting to take action, unleash a massacre here.

Killing a hundred individuals could exchange for one life, killing a hundred thousand people was needed to absolve Stone Clan of its sins. He was going to fight with his utmost here!

Chapter 1393 - War of Two Realms Pt.1

A great sun set in the west, sunset radiance like blood, scarlet clouds heavy. Most of the sky was a red color, crimson color spreading, beautiful and bewitching.

It was to the extent where there was a bloody smell that rushed into their nostrils.

This wasn't a misconception, because shouts of war filled the skies, endless creatures fighting a great life and death battle, blood scattering down in large amounts everywhere.

The war zone was vast, creatures endless, impossible to count just how many there were. Corpses rested on the ground one after another, stretching out for hundreds of thousands of li, coming from different clans.

This was a great battle of cultivators, completely different from that of ordinary people. The effects of this battle were too far reaching!

It was because cultivators who were slightly stronger could travel hundreds, or even over a thousand li in an instant, slaughtering to the east, fighting to the west, the boundless desert becoming a giant battlefield.

"Kill..." The roaring sounds rushed into the heavens, shaking up heaven and earth, the skies even collapsing. It was because the creatures who were fighting were all too powerful.

The murderous intent of war reached into the heavens above and earth below, shaking up the void. The world's fluctuations were intense, blood scattering outwards. One could see many areas on the ground were damp, becoming a scarlet red color.

"Ah..." In the sky dome above, atop a hundred thousand zhang flood dragon, a great knight was killed, blood pouring down from above.

He was one of the Nine Heavens' commanders, falling here.

Meanwhile, his mount, that Twin-Headed Ancient Flood Dragon couldn't escape either. It had cultivated for endless time, body hundred zhang long, like a giant mountain ridge in the sky, forcibly torn apart by the violent ape-like creature from the other side.

In that instant, a rain of blood poured down from the sky, joining up with the horizon's sunset glow. It was just too striking, heaven and earth becoming a red color, terrifying to the point of making one's heart pound.

This region was drenched in a rain of blood, this place completely red. Even though it was a desert, there were still many blood swamps created, this place even more so suffused with a bloody smell.

In this place, life was just this brittle. Even if it was the Self Release Realm great knights who towered above most experts, standing at the peak of martial dao, they still might die at any turn, life and death hard to say.

On the Nine Heavens Ten Earths' side, many people's eyes became red.

That foreign powerful expert's entire body was covered in black hair, as tall as the sky. It raised its head, roaring, collapsing the clouds all around it. It was at least several tens of thousands of zhang in height, truly terrifying.

Part of its body was drenched in blood, making it look even more sinister, as if it were a great demon king who stood at the peak of this world!

Hong!

The sky was ripped apart, another great knight hurrying over from the distance. An ancient cauldron was suspended above him, rushing down powerfully, starting to fight fiercely with this vicious creature.

Even further out, Shi Hao took action, already joining the fight. On this battlefield, if one didn't kill their enemy, then they would be killed, neither party able to coexist. It was extremely cruel, even the most powerful cultivators would die here from the slightest carelessness.

Dang!

An enemy brandished a heavenly spear, but it was blasted aside and broken. With a turn of his hand, Lightning Emperor Precious Technique erupted. With a ka sound, a streak of purple-colored lightning flew out from his palm, blasting the enemy into charred coal.

"First one!"

He kept count, directly facing a creature next to him.

"Pu!" Kun Peng fist was released, striking outwards. Blood splashed outwards, immediately killing several people, all of them exploding.

There were no weaklings here, the few people he killed in succession all in the Heavenly Deity Realm!

Those who could enter the great desert were all at least heavenly deities, just how shocking and cruel was this? Otherwise, they didn't even have the qualifications to come here to serve as a soldier.

"Ninth!" Shi Hao kept count, his expression indifferent, not showing any mercy.

It was because if one didn't kill the enemy here, then they would be killed. Moreover, these foreign creatures came to blast open Imperial Pass. If they failed to protect it, then the other side would invade, entering the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

It could be said that this was a group of cold-blooded, indiscriminate murderers. In the past, they had already done this, wiping out all clans, completely destroying Immortal Ancient. Now, they wished to recreate this tragedy!

That was why Shi Hao didn't feel the slightest bit of pity, killing them decisively, taking action when he should take action.

"Young man, there is no need to keep count, this is for you!" An old cultivator flung over a bone tile that was extremely warm like jade, on it carved a complex diagram.

"What is this?" Shi Hao was confused, asking him.

At the same time, a blood-soaked war spear stabbed over, this person an extremely powerful foreign creature. It had a silver body, looked like a devil, throwing itself over, a Void Dao Realm cultivator.

This creature already continuously killed more than ten people from the Nine Heavens side, extremely tyrannical in this region.

"Kill!" Shi Hao's eyes released cold light, because there was still half a heart nailed on that blood war spear, still beating. It was treated like food by that creature, half of it chewed off.

It was too savage!

Now, this creature targeted Shi Hao, the blood-colored war spear piercing towards the space between his brows.

Dang!

Shi Hao's hand pressed together, and then he forcefully exerted force. The spear broke apart, and then with a hong noise, Shi Hao went all-out, not holding back at all. He treated this as a great life and death battle, a fist smashing outwards.

This creature used its ancestral method. Divine light surged, forming a divine pot, swallowing up heaven and earth essence, stopping Shi Hao's fist, wishing to subdue him here.

Pa! The divine pot shattered, Shi Hao's fist was incomparably ferocious, blasting through the sacred light surrounding the creature, directly piercing through its chest, making its body explode, blood splashing everywhere.

Right at this time, the bone tile that the elder gave Shi Hao shone, recording a number.

"This is a merit tile, do you know what kind of use it has now?" The old cultivator said with a smile.

"I understand!" Shi Hao nodded.

Peng!

Shi Hao slapped a bloody mouthed creature to pieces in passing, ending its life. In the end, he discovered that there were no symbols that flickered on the bone tile, not recording it down.

"What is going on?"

"Heavenly deities in the outside world are quite excellent, but in this place, they cannot be considered experts, the merit tile won't record it." The old cultivator explained.

This left Shi Hao shaken. Only when Void Dao Realm cultivators were killed would it be recorded here, this was just too strict! He couldn't help but release a light sigh. Even if there were only a thousand people left in Stone Clan, the merit he needed not as much as before, he still had to kill a hundred thousand enemies.

If they all had to be Void Dao Realm cultivators or greater, then just the thought alone would make one's scalp turn numb.

"Do you need merit badly?" An old cultivator asked.

Shi Hao nodded his head. He truly did need it. Stone Clan's situation was bleak, if this continued, the entire clan would be wiped out. In the past, there were countless people, but now, how few were left?

"If you have the confidence, feel like you can become powerful enough, you can seek out special creatures, for example, those king clans. Even if they are also in the Void Dao Realm, killing one might be equivalent to killing a group of other experts!"

“Good!” Shi Hao nodded. He opened his Heavenly Eyes, seeking out these so-called powerful clans on the battlefield, wishing to kill extraordinary experts.

Shi Hao slaughtered his way in a certain direction, separating from the old cultivator. He wanted to seek out foreign King Clans, if he encountered a young Emperor Clan cultivator, then that would be even better!

Aohou... a muffled roar sounded, originating from the foreign side. Several dozen cages appeared, all of them opened with a kuangdang noise.

A group of giant beasts rushed out, every one of them incredibly ferocious!

These giant beasts ranged from several thousand zhang in size to tens of thousands of zhang in size, all of them terrifying creatures, carrying a wave of horrifying baleful energy, as if they crawled out from a mountain of corpses, seas of blood.

There was a giant vicious beast that was eight thousand zhang, resembling a vicious wolf, but it didn't have any fur, instead covered in black scales that flickered with terrifying dark light. It rushed over from the horizon.

It was sinister and ferocious. Opening its mouth, it instantly swallowed several dozen cultivators, blood splashing far into the distance.

This vicious beast was extremely terrifying, slaughtering everything in its path, sweeping through everyone. War beasts bred specially for massacring were let out of their cages, eyes scarlet red, chasing after the cultivators of the Nine Heavens.

“Brutes that need to be executed!” The old cultivator who gifted Shi Hao the bone tile roared, stirring on his mouth, slaughtering his way outwards. In his hands was a long blade that was as bright as snow. When it was brandished, heaven and earth collapsed, killing intent surging, as if great waves were rushing forth.

The old knight was extremely strong, at the peak of the Void Dao Realm. He urged his mount, rushing forward to stop this crazy war beast. That blade quickly enlarged, becoming ten thousand zhang long, crushing down like an enormous mountain ridge.

Moreover, there was a deep cold energy, silver blade radiance tearing through the sky, hacking towards this vicious beast, landing on its back, wishing to directly bisect it at its waist.

This beast was too vicious, if he was a second too late, it would have devoured many cultivators. If he had acted a moment too late, it would swallow up many cultivators, the results of waiting any longer would be too horrible to contemplate.

“Roar...”

However, when faced with this sky shocking blade, this vicious beast didn't panic or evade. It released a roar, shattering the nearby space. Moreover, its entire body flourished with dark light, looking like a black sun.

In that instant, giant bone spurs appeared on its back one after another. It rushed angrily into the skies, extremely sinister, tough and sharp.

On its black colored body's back, the thick bone spurs emerged in rows, too fierce, surging with dark light. It was like a reaper of life from hell, cruel and powerful.

Dang!

The old cultivator's ten thousand zhang long blade descended, hacking down on its back, perfectly stopped by these bony spurs, unable to achieve the desired effect!

Pu!

At the same time, this demon king vicious beast opened its large bloody mouth, swallowing up the old cultivator with one gulp, forcefully crushing him into a bloody paste, blood spilling out from the gaps in its mouth.

"No! Master!" In the distance, a group of young cultivators' eyes felt like they were going to split. When they saw this scene, they felt incomparable pain, their hearts even bleeding, this scene too miserable.

In the great desert, it was just this cruel, life and death fickle, those who had been famous for many years might die at any time here. This was the burial ground for many experts.

Shi Hao saw this scene with his own eyes, his brows standing up straight, eyes slightly red. The distance was too far, he couldn't stop it in time.

"Ah..." He released a great roar, body rushing out, leaving the back of the mount he seized from Jin Zhifei, going back the way he came from, rushing up, killing in that direction.

The old cultivator kindheartedly gifted him the merit tile, giving him pointers on the battlefield, yet in the end, as soon as they separated, he died just like this, moreover so tragically.

"I will kill you!" Shi Hao roared.

At this time, this vicious beast was still acting crazily, actually sweeping through everything in its path, no one in the surroundings able to stop it. In the blink of an eye, there was a large zone of death created, broken arms and ruined limbs everywhere, all forcefully devoured.

Weapons and precious techniques landed on its body, yet they weren't that effective. This ancient beast was too strong, the black armor on its body incomparably sturdy, sparks flying in all directions, completely unaffected.

"Be careful, this is a king bloodline, within it flows the blood of a King Clan!" Someone shouted out, reminding the people around him.

"Brute, go to hell!" Shi Hao rushed forward, making the cultivators of the surroundings clans move out of the way. He directly dove down, body becoming larger, his magical projection filling up heaven and earth, as if a giant appeared in this world!

When one cultivated to a certain realm, they would be able to display a magical projection, able to tower into the clouds. It was to the extent where when one's cultivation was sufficiently deep, they could directly grab down the sun and moon!

Shi Hao was ten thousand zhang tall, eyes like two suns, bright and dazzling. He did everything he could to slaughter his way forward, wishing to directly kill this beast.

“Ao...” This vicious beast sensed danger. It turned around, looking like it wanted to run.

“You can’t escape!” Shi Hao roared, chasing after it.

Peng!

The void exploded. This vicious beast didn’t truly run, but rather had its back towards Shi Hao, smashing it towards him. It was because there were many sky reaching bone spurs on its back that were incomparably sharp, able to split the universe!

All of the bone spurs shone, almost burning. They were supported by its ancestral technique, wishing to forcefully impale Shi Hao, kill him here.

However, it was useless. Shi Hao went berserk, using his greatest power, displaying his own innate supreme being precious technique, Reincarnation, his fist smashing over.

Hong!

A large half of these bone spurs immediately exploded, moreover, its back went limp, body aging, starting to shed old skin.

However, this ancient beast truly was extremely strong, having a bad feeling. All of the bone spears shot out from its body, turning into giant arrows, firing at Shi Hao. Meanwhile, its own body quickly escaped.

Shi Hao surged with murderous intent. How could he allow it to escape? He quickly chased after it.

“Hou...” He released a great roar, grabbing this eighty thousand zhang long giant vicious beast, and then both his hands exerted force, directly tearing it apart in midair.

Blood poured down like a long river, scattering downwards, dyeing the great desert red. Overl

Chapter 1394 - War of Two Realms Pt.2

Shi Hao’s massive magical projection towered there, ten thousand zhang tall, directly ripping this eight thousand zhang long ancient beast in half, moreover raising it above his head. This immediately shocked everyone nearby.

Who was the vicious beast here?

Aohou... This vicious beast still didn’t completely die, struggling about there, primordial spirit wishing to struggle free, but it was trapped in its flesh, unable to leave.

Chi!

Shi Hao exerted force, Reincarnation divine ability erupted, making its flesh directly age who knew how many tens of thousands of years, beast skin sagging, continuously falling. Bones were revealed, continuously growing dim, no longer sturdy, its primordial spirit instead starting to age and decline.

This was also under its seriously wounded state, the consequences even more so far from reassuring. There was simply no way for it to resist Shi Hao’s Reincarnation divine ability!

Pu!

Immediately afterwards, its primordial spirit decayed, filled with cracks, as if it had been cut by heavenly blades over a hundred times. It then turned into ashes, instantly separating, aging to the point where it decayed, completely dying!

“Excellent!” Many people cried out, clapping their hands. It was because this beast really was too vicious just now.

The old cultivator’s disciples carried tears in their eyes, nodding in Shi Hao’s direction. They didn’t say anything else, turning around to kill enemies.

It was because on this battlefield, death was too common, even the most powerful cultivators eventually dying here. Right now, when everyone was slaughtering to the point of almost going crazy, they didn’t stop, there was no chance to hesitate, with enemies all around them, they had to keep fighting.

“Kill him for me!”

In the distance, someone waved a war banner, pointing in Shi Hao’s direction, ordering experts to move out, take Shi Hao’s head!

The one who died was a king beast. It died such a humiliating death, ripped apart by someone, truly affecting their morale. They had to suppress the one who did this with iron blooded methods.

Shi Hao discovered that the sparkling bone tile shone, revealing a number, instantly adding fifty heads. This powerful vicious beast was equivalent to the heads of fifty Void Dao Realm cultivators.

There were several dozen cages in the distance. Just now, several dozen giant beasts were released, vicious energy overflowing, wreaking havoc through the masses. At this moment, they received orders, all of them rushing in Shi Hao’s direction.

This type of giant beast was too majestic, as if imposing great peaks were moving, shaking up the void until it rumbled with noise, truly intimidating.

A vicious beast covered in fur rushed over, having a lion-like body, but a golden mammoth head. It was twenty thousand zhang tall, body resembling a mountain. With a hong noise, that golden nose swept over, making the void explode.

Its nose was too long, truly as if a mountain ridge was falling, lashing at Shi Hao!

Moreover, it released shocking golden light, using its ancestral method to support this elephant trunk, wishing to kill Shi Hao on the spot.

It was clear that its cultivation realm was extremely high, in the Self Severing Realm, moreover at the consummate level. It was incredibly ferocious, similarly a vicious beast with king blood flowing through it.

Everyone’s expressions changed. Shi Hao’s display just now was extraordinary, but he was now undoubtedly in danger, no one wishing to see him die.

“Hurry and retreat!”

“Don’t face it head-on!”

It was because this vicious beast’s cultivation was too profound, could not be fought directly.

At the same time, in another direction, there were several other vicious beasts who also rushed over, every one of them extraordinary and terrifying, the smallest ten thousand zhang tall, killing intent roiling.

“Not good, he was noticed by the Dragonslayers, they want to eliminate Huang!” Someone said quietly.

The other side had Dragonslayers who were in charge of watching this battlefield. When they noticed anyone especially strong, or young cultivators with powerful potential, they would focus on them, prioritize beheading them!

With a qiang sound, Shi Hao produced a strange weapon. This was a dragon scale that came from the blood-soaked black ancient ship, a Defying Dragon Scale!

He previously had Great Elder look at it, verifying that this was a True Dragon’s defying scale, a shocking supreme treasure. It carried incomparable murderous energy, but he had never activated it.

Dragons had defying scales, when provoked, there would inevitably be rage!

This scale couldn’t be lightly touched, couldn’t be blasphemed against!

Right now, Shi Hao prepared to use it like a weapon, testing it out here to unleash a great slaughter.

However, things weren’t that terrible. When a few vicious monsters threw themselves over, a bowstring noise sounded in the skies above.

Chi!

An iron arrow seemed to fly over from the heavens beyond, fast as lightning, like a streak of eternal immortal light. It was too terrifying, making the void collapse and explode!

Pu!

Blood blossomed. That lion-bodied, golden mammoth-headed monster had its skull instantly pierced through. It released a mournful cry, and then its body turned into a blast of bloody mist!

This was a several tens of thousands of zhang tall giant beast, but it was killed by an arrow just like that!

Then, other giant vicious beasts were also shot through, exploding in the sky.

Everyone turned around. There was a middle-aged male there, in his hands a great bow, expression calm, as if he was only carrying out an extremely normal task.

One had to understand that just now, those giant beasts were in the Self Severing Realm, yet in the end, they were eliminated by him just like that.

“It’s him, one of Imperial Pass’ Ten Archery Gods!” Someone cried out in alarm.

"Divine arrow unmatched!" Many people exclaimed in admiration, and then they revealed fanatical expressions.

Shi Hao was shocked. He had seen this person before. When he first entered Imperial Pass, he had previously saw him practice his archery, every single arrow shooting into the world beyond, rumored that every single arrow could shatter a star!

Now, he received verification. He shot down Self Severing Realm vicious beasts like shooting down cattle, just too powerful, directly making them explode!

"Demon Hunter!"

In the foreign side, there were people who said quietly, their pupils contracting as they stared at the divine archer.

Just like the foreign side had Dragonslayers, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths had Demon Hunters, here specially for dealing with especially powerful enemies.

Now, there was someone who wished to kill the dragon that was Shi Hao, so the Nine Heavens directly displayed a powerful response, hunting those who took action.

This Demon Hunter was especially formidable, one of Imperial Pass' Ten Archery Gods. Moreover, he himself was at the peak of the Self Release Realm, power deep and immeasurable.

"Do not try to overwhelm the dragons with numbers for now, just find kings who are at similar cultivation realms and kill them!"

There was someone from the foreign side who gave the order, feeling restraining fear towards that archer. n)/o).v.)e.)l).b.(1-)n

If they didn't want to incur the revenge of the other side, then they could only fight in an upright manner, search for kings that were of similar cultivation realms to kill Shi Hao.

The great war continued, entire battlefield too large, this was just one part. However, this place drew many people's attention.

A golden creature appeared, on its back yaksha wings, having a human body. It was quite similar to a human, but it was extremely ugly. Its entire body looked like it was cast from gold, giving off a great feeling of power!

"Golden Yaksha, a king race!"

"A powerful young king has appeared, its bloodline even more noble than a king beast's!"

On the battlefield, someone cried out. This was but a glorious and well-known king race, extremely well-known in the foreign side. This clan was one who had been ranked within the top fifteen King Clans for a long time.

"Ha, just a human, yet you all think he is worth me taking action? However, since there are orders from above, then I will take your head!" The Golden Yaksha threw itself over.

This place immediately became quiet. Many creatures backed up, giving them a sufficiently wide space.

"Is the Golden Yaksha Clan that formidable? The so-called king race, it's not like I haven't killed them before!" Shi Hao said coldly.

"Even someone like you dare boast shamelessly? My realm's king races, just a single one can kill a group of creatures of the same level from your side, not even your realm's so-called young supreme beings are a match!" The Golden Yaksha was arrogant. With a hong noise, it took action, fast like lightning. Its golden fist made heaven and earth collapse, immediately arriving before Shi Hao.

Peng!

Shi Hao faced this attack, directly rushing up, fist against fist, endless light erupting.

Kacha!

The sound of bones fracturing rang out, cries of alarm sounding from the other side.

"The Golden Yaksha King Race has innately domineering bodies, yet he dares compete in physical strength, simply not knowing the difference between life and death!"

"Just a single punch, yet that human brat's fist already shattered, haha..."

However, those foreign creatures' laughter came to a screeching halt, all of them becoming stunned. It was because they saw the Golden Yaksha tremble greatly, staggering backwards. Its fist was deformed, entire arm dripping with blood.

"Impossible!" Many people cried out.

Hong!

Shi Hao's entire body shone, using the most powerful precious techniques, slaughtering his way forward. Meanwhile, this time, he even more so operated Imperishable Scripture. It was as if a heavenly emperor was brandishing his fist, blasting this world apart!

Peng! Peng! Peng!

He continuously swung his fists, moving about like lightning, speed too fast. All of them landed on the Golden Yaksha's arms. The Golden Yaksha braced itself against these attacks, or else its body would have been blasted through!

In the end, under these fists, his arms distorted, and then suddenly exploded!

Hong!

Moreover, afterwards, his body cracked apart, suddenly also exploding.

His arms weren't able to block all of the force, body still affected, exploding under the tremendous power.

It was completely silent, the foreign side utterly stupefied. All of them thought that their side was going to achieve a great victory, yet in the end, they discovered that their representative was easily crushed!

"Who is he? Who is this person?" Many people cried out.

"Just a Golden Yaksha, even if you are a king race, so what? Even ten of your realm's ranked young kings were killed by me in a single breath, let alone someone like you!" Shi Hao said coldly.

"He is Huang! I went to Great Scarlet Sky Border, previously saw the scene of him killing ten kings from my side!" A figure rushed out from the distance, shouting like this.

"Heavens, its him, the legendary murderous fiend, he... is Huang!"

"Capture him!" Someone ordered.

Hong!

At the same time, on the Nine Heavens Ten Earths' side, it was as if a sun rose into the sky. It was that archer, towering in the air, entire body shining, offering Shi Hao protection.

The great knight seated on the Heaven Swallowing Beast, after defeating his opponent, also rushed over, protecting Shi Hao.

Two other great knights also rushed over, one of them shouting, "If your side's young kings are unwilling, then they can feel free to come over. However, if you wish to behead dragons, then you all need to pass us first! Who knows, we might have to hunt some demons!"

"All of the young kings, just come at me!" Shi Hao walked forward, facing the foreign creatures, still without fear, challenging those powerful king races.

"It really is Huang, he actually came, seeing him again here. Who will take action and kill him? The deaths in Great Scarlet Sky Border are unforgivable!" There was a creature who said through clenched teeth, staring at the battlefield.

Shi Hao walked forward step by step, roaring loudly, "Actually, what I wish to know is if there are any young experts from Emperor Clans here!"

Chapter 1395 - Great Figures Taking Action

"It really is him!" A creature said quietly, looking at Shi Hao, cold light flickering in its eyes.

"I never expected him to have come to Desolate Border too, daring to appear here! Who knows just how many people want to kill him!" Another young foreign creature said with a cold laugh.

The battle of Great Scarlet Sky Border ended in the foreign side's younger generation's great loss, one person killing ten of their kings. This type of battle accomplishment made everyone feel ashamed.

When news were transmitted to the other side, all clans were shaken. There was actually someone who was this domineering, continuously killing ten great experts of their young generation, who wouldn't feel shocked?

It could be said that during this year, many creatures of the foreign side's younger generation were eager to give it a try. All of them carried a wave of resentment, wishing to fight against this person.

Even some older generation figures learned about the results of Great Scarlet Sky Border. Towards the defeat of the younger generation, they all carried different opinions.

It could be said that Shi Hao already had some reputation in the other side, quite a few creatures hearing about him, many of the younger generation even viewing him as their rivals.

Now that he truly appeared here, it naturally produced a great disturbance.

“You came at the perfect time. Kill him, completely eliminate this disaster!”

“Wash away Great Scarlet Sky Border’s humiliation, remove his head, today is the day!”

On the other side, quite a few creatures were releasing low roars, every one of them clenching their fists tightly, eager to give it a try.

On the other side, the clans were all aggressive, warlike races, extremely brave. Even the younger generation, when they saw Shi Hao, not only did they not feel fear, they all wanted to fight.

Of course, the ones who had these types of thoughts, daring to step out, were mostly King Clans!

It was because normal cultivators understood well that if they went up, they would undoubtedly die, only King Clans could fight.

Chi!

The void distorted. A figure quickly rushed out, arriving forward.

This was a large spider, entire body shining with silver light. It was roughly a zhang in length, not all that large, but extremely intimidating. A spider that was even taller than a human stood there, making those who saw it shiver with fear.

“Silver Spider King, we have some on our Nine Heavens Ten Earths’ side too.” Shi Hao stared at it. Was this a clan that turned traitor, or was it a species that was subdued after falling into enemy hands?

He knew that the other side had large areas where the creatures residing within were the same as the Nine Heavens’ side, for example, Mo Dao, he wasn’t much different from a human.

“So you are Huang, the human youngster who was rumored to have killed ten of my side’s kings?” The Silver Spider King asked. Its eight legs were standing on the ground, flickering with silver radiance like an ice-cold metal body.

“I am!” Shi Hao nodded.

“Then there’s no more issues, just hand over your life!” The Silver Spider King was extremely decisive, throwing itself over.

This area was originally rather quiet, but now, it immediately erupted with noise.

When the Silver Spider King threw itself over, crazy winds swept about, sand and rock flying everywhere, the desert erupting into chaos.

Hong!

Waves of sand overflowed into the heavens, reaching more than ten thousand zhang into the air, submerging the heavens. Sand and dust surged, hiding the sky and covering the earth, the entire world becoming a hazy yellow color.

The most terrifying thing was that divine force vortices appeared. Silver vortices tore through the air one after another, about to swallow up Shi Hao inside.

The Silver Spider King took action, immediately using an extreme art. It was fully aware of how terrifying Shi Hao was, so it wanted to seize the initiative, gain the upper hand, place him at a disadvantage until it found an opportunity to kill him.

With a raise of Shi Hao's hand, large amounts of golden feathers appeared, these were Kun Peng feathers. They turned into divine arrows one after another, all of them shooting into the silver-colored vortices. It was as if sparks flickered about, this place immediately lighting up.

Hong!

Golden radiance and silver light exploded, brilliant in that place, the void caving in.

Waves of sand surged, the desert like a vast body of water. Under the effects of divine force, they surged greatly, a large amount of the sand waves directly rushing into the heavens beyond, layers of clouds completely scattering.

"Inescapable Net!" The Silver Spider King roared out.

It didn't dare act with the slightest bit of carelessness, using its most powerful divine ability. In its surroundings, ripples were formed one after another, spreading outwards. This was a shocking domain.

Moreover, it sprayed out wisps of divine force that mixed with those ripples, producing a giant spider web!

An eight trigrams web covered heaven and earth, surrounding in Shi Hao's direction, wiping out life force, imprisoning souls, extremely terrifying.

"Not good!" Even from far away, there were some watching this battle who couldn't hold on, their primordial spirits starting to leave their bodies, directly sucked out, landing on that great web.

Ah!

A miserable cry sounded, one person dying violently on the spot. His primordial spirit was swallowed up by that web, dying an extremely miserable death.

This left everyone feeling greatly alarmed. This spider was too terrifying.

Hong!

The silver great web descended, covering everything, impossible for Shi Hao to avoid it, covering him underneath.

"Isn't your flesh unmatched? I am going to capture your primordial spirit, refine your soul!" The Silver Spider King roared sinisterly. Its enemy was already covered by the web, which meant that it was about to succeed.

It was because not a single enemy had been able to escape before.

Shi Hao stood there without moving, but the domain in his surroundings became who knew how many times stronger. In addition, heavy clouds appeared high up in the sky, thunder and lightning suddenly appearing.

Hong!

Lightning poured down like a waterfall, crashing down from the heavens above. This wasn't normal lightning, it carried wisps of chaotic energy, extremely terrifying and shocking.

Moreover, large amounts of rain poured down, lightning flashing, thunder roaring, the scene terrifying.

Shi Hao used his Lightning Emperor Precious Technique, moreover releasing the most powerful attack, using lightning tribulation to sweep through heaven and earth, purge the world!

In that instant, the spider web known to have refined all Void Dao Realm experts to death was turned to dust, completely breaking apart, and then disappearing.

"Ah..." The Silver Spider King cried out, because it was struck by streak after streak of thick lightning that were as thick as mountains, entire body charred black, exploding soon afterwards.

A king fell, moreover so quickly. The foreign side entered a short period of silence.

"Just like the Golden Yaksha, comparable to two hundred heads!" Shi Hao said to himself.

When they heard his words, the creatures on the other side glared at him.

"Good, you killed it well!" On the Nine Heavens' side, there were people who cheered loudly.

Hong!

Right at this time, a finger appeared in the sky dome, golden-colored, suppressing heaven and earth. It fell with some falling stars, quickly pressing down towards Shi Hao.

This scene was extremely terrifying. This person could definitely crush the moon with a single finger, this type of massive golden finger was like a pillar that supported heaven. The rumbling sounds were ear-splitting.

Everyone was horrified. This expert sat in the sky dome above, definitely incomparably powerful. Right now, he took action to kill Shi Hao.

The finger was just too large, even mountain ridges insignificant in comparison.

"You dare?"

The great knight seated on the Heaven Swallowing Beast shouted, rising up. He left his mount, holding a pure golden mace in his hands, pointing it towards the sky dome.

In that instant, the golden mace enlarged, facing the finger, releasing great dao lightning sounds. Endless symbols' precious light rushed into the heavens.

Hong!

Blazing light flickered about between heaven and earth. That golden finger turned into a great golden hand, covering everything. No one could look straight at it, it was too resplendent.

With a dong noise, the golden mace struck the heavens, colliding with the great golden finger, tearing apart the sky dome. Under many people's shocked eyes, small stars exploded one after another in outer space, falling down.

"Isn't your foreign side brave, enjoying battles, fights between kings? Why are you doing this today?" The great knight holding the golden mace said coldly.

The foreign clans were warlike, extremely bold, known as aggressive clans, yet today, there was a great figure who wanted to directly wipe out Shi Hao, clearly seeing him as a great threat in the future.

"This isn't an ordinary battlefield after all, what is the point of speaking so much? We are all cultivators, who would bother with such details." In the sky, a golden divine ring appeared, a powerful creature surrounded within.

This was an expert at the peak of the Self Release Realm. He looked down on everyone below.

Chi!

On the Nine Heavens' side, what was given in response was a divine arrow that tore through the sky, continuously firing four shots. They turned into four terrifying divine rainbows, rushing towards the foreign side.

"No!" $n-(\mathcal{O}-v)/e-\ell./\mathbf{B})/1/-n$

Ah...

Four powerful creatures released miserable cries, unable to escape at all, immediately exploding, blasted by the divine arrows until not even bones remained.

They were all King Clans' people, all of them experts with great potential. In the end, they were killed so easily.

Without a doubt, the one who took action was one of Imperial Pass' Ten Archery Gods. His expression was cold, saying, "Since it is like this, then I do not need to admire your foreign side's bravery either, the demon hunting will begin, who cares if you are a shrimp or an alligator, I'll kill whoever I want!"

The expressions of the creatures of the other side changed. The divine archers of Imperial Pass were the enemies they feared the most, simply nightmares on the battlefield that couldn't be avoided.

Hong!

However, the top level figures of the other side didn't compromise, still powerful. Three figures flew over in succession. There was even a black-colored divine arrow that shot at Shi Hao.

Dang!

On the Nine Heavens' side, a divine archer fired his bow, an arrow shooting out, wind and lightning surging. Chains of order appeared everywhere, stopping that black arrow, blasting it apart.

“Kill!”

Moreover, on the Nine Heavens’ side, there were several knights who appeared, rushing forward to stop the foreign great experts. The skies immediately exploded.

All types of natural laws appeared, auspicious light appearing in tens of thousands of streaks, blossoming between heaven and earth!

This type of power was too boundless!

“Kill!”

The divine archer who came from Imperial Pass released a loud shout, continuously firing his bow. As a result, after just an instant, large amounts of people were shot into bloody mist, the scene terrifying.

“Haha, foreign cowards, all of you are greedy for life, afraid of death, not daring to fight on your own, inciting the old turtles to come out and launch hidden attacks, are you all scared?”

“Heh, were you all slaughtered in Great Scarlet Sky Border until you became scared stiff, no one from your younger generation daring to fight, only able to hide in the back? Aggressive clans my ass, more like incompetent clans!”

On the Nine Heavens’ side, someone ridiculed.

On the foreign side, the young generation were all seething with anger. Even though they were ruthless, it had to be said that they were brave and warlike, something that originated from their bones, easily provoked.

Moreover, they didn’t ask the older generation to take action, but were rather truly wanting to kill Huang themselves.

“Old ancestors, please stop, we are willing to remove Huang’s head, wash away the shame from Great Scarlet Sky Border!”

“Old ancestors, please allow us to do this! If we cannot kill Huang in a fair battle, my side’s younger generation will always feel shame, forever unable to erase this feeling of humiliation!”

A few people roared out at the same time, petitioning towards those old ancestors.

In the sky, the foreign creatures who were currently fighting frowned, all of them feeling a bit dissatisfied. Just now, they really wanted to directly kill Shi Hao, but never expected that there would be several people offering him protection, all of them top level figures.

They already saw that Shi Hao’s potential was frightening, leaving him behind might lead to a disaster.

However, right now, the younger generation of their side were so stirred up, every one of them incredibly courageous. If they were dissatisfied, it might affect their morale.

Moreover, they believed that the Nine Heavens Ten Earths would inevitably be destroyed. If they mustered such great forces against a small cultivator, disregarding the feelings of their side’s youngsters, it really wasn’t all that good.

It was because they believed that on their side, there were definitely young experts who could kill Huang.

Shua!

The top level experts from the foreign side all withdrew, not taking action anymore.

The desert was endless, as were the battles. Meanwhile, this was only one battlefield. There was still blood being shed elsewhere, fighting going on. However, the activity here also drew the attention of many people in the distance.

“This time, which stunning figures from our younger generation came to Desolate Border?” An old ancestor asked.

Many people shook their heads, not knowing the answer to this question.

“Of the younger generation, the most powerful ten great King Clan experts, has any of them come?”

“I don’t think any of them did!”

“No, there is one, the fourth ranked Martial Heavenly King might have come!” Someone replied quietly.

Of the foreign side, in the younger generation, only the King Clan experts ranked in the top ten spots could be called Heavenly Kings!

Shi Hao had killed a few foreign king clan youngsters, but he had never fought against a Heavenly King yet!

Apart from this, the ones known as Heavenly Kings all received guidance from undying beings, extremely powerful, every one of them dominating a region, unmatched at their level, able to sweep through the masses.

The expert in the golden divine ring nodded, and then said, “Good, it was actually the fourth ranked Martial Heavenly King. I know of him, he is quite formidable. Find him for me, have him kill that youngster named Huang within two moves!”

Chapter 1396 - The Undying Make Their Move

Wu... A bugle horn sounded. The great earth in the distance trembled, bright red color blossoming, sky and earth becoming a blood color.

It was clear that an abnormality happened further out, even more terrifying things happening.

The battlefield was too large, divided into many regions. There were clearly energy fluctuations that were too powerful in that direction, drawing everyone’s attention.

Hong! $n-(\mathcal{O} \cdot v)/e-\ell./\mathbf{B})/1/-n$

Then, heaven overflowing bloody light surged, shattering the sky dome. It was too shocking, time itself seemingly severed there.

“Great formation, the extreme great formation has been activated!” Many foreign creatures cried out.

Even Shi Hao and the others could hear the sky shaking cheers from this place, their expressions changing greatly, feeling that something really bad was about to happen.

“Good, this formation was actually completed? Haha...” The creature surrounded by the golden divine ring laughed loudly, making heaven and earth rumble with noise.

The world was burning, great dao symbols everywhere, rising from the ground surface in the distance, extending towards the skies.

The foreign side was carrying out a great project here, laying a formation here to overturn Heaven Abyss, trying to destroy it so the undying beings could cross over.

Otherwise, with Heaven Abyss here, there was no way for the undying existences to enter this side.

Hong!

Bloody light covered the sun, attacking the stars in the sky dome above. Great stars were destroyed one after another, one could see just how terrifying this great formation was.

Symbols turned into storms, forming thousands to tens of thousands of ancient beast figures. These were ten thousand spirits that rushed at Heaven Abyss.

“Can they succeed? Even if they only break through a little bit, allowing just one of my side’s undying beings over, it’ll still be enough to break through Imperial Pass!” A foreign creature was praying.

Dong!

Heaven Abyss trembled. The sky reaching bloody radiance entered inside, displaying a certain amount of use as expected.

“Good!” A few great figures from the foreign side roared.

Suddenly, heaven and earth trembled, the world releasing a mountainous torrent-like roaring noise. All of the blood radiance grew dim, the extreme great formation on the ground starting to break apart, and then exploded with a hong noise.

This moment, was undoubtedly catastrophic. It was unknown just how many creatures lost their lives in that area.

“No!”

The foreign commanders roared angrily, because the most precious formation banners were completely destroyed, many precious materials also flying towards Heaven Abyss, swallowed up by it.

“Come back!” They wanted to seize these things back.

It was because there were some materials that were too precious, various types of Immortal Gold. Those were bestowed by undying existences, for those unmatched existences, they were all important treasures.

Unfortunately, Heaven Abyss swallowed all of it up, so there was no way it would spit it back out.

“En, not good!” Those people cried out. Just now, they operated the great formation, yet now, Heaven Abyss even began to swallow them up, about to suck them up.

“No!” They cried out loudly.

Heaven Abyss normally wouldn’t swallow up creatures, whenever it displayed might, it would only target undying beings. Why was it even going to wipe them out today?

“It seems like the formation still had some use, making Heaven Abyss display might, not even letting us go!” A creature spoke out in despair.

Qiang!

Someone took action from the other side, not in the desert, but from the limits of the horizon. Everyone could feel a suffocating coldness even from endless distance away.

Right now, forget about others, even Self Release Realm cultivators shivered inwardly.

Undying existence!

Everyone felt their blood run cold. Was that type of existence going to take action?

A black streak of light rushed over, wishing to enter the battlefield, even more so enter Heaven Abyss to seize the Immortal Gold, rescue those commanders.

Weng!

However, right at this time, Heaven Abyss shone, exceeding the past. Great stars swirled about inside one after another, countless streaks of primal chaos even more so descending. There were large amounts of immortal light that shone brilliantly!

The black streak of light that rushed over couldn’t approach anyone at all, nor could it seize back the Immortal Gold. It was directly swallowed up by Heaven Abyss.

Moreover, right at this time, at the limits of the horizon, an angry roar sounded, making even Self Release Realm cultivators’ souls shake. They felt as if they fell into the depths of the underworld.

Qiang!

In the distance, a short halberd flew over, pitch-black like ink. It directly entered the abyss, being sucked away, and then disappeared without a trace, not coming back out again.

“Heavens, that is an undying weapon, but it was forcefully seized!” Everyone was stunned.

At the limits of the horizon, an angry roar shook the sky dome. That creature was clearly angered to the extreme, yet there was nothing he could do about it, thus withdrawing and leaving.

“That was an ancient undying existence’s weapon, he... just now, he took action, but lost that war halberd!” Someone from the foreign side said with a trembling voice, extremely scared and terrified.

Everyone felt their hearts pound when they looked towards Heaven Abyss. What exactly was there within its depths, for even an undying existence to not dare approach, even a realm crossing attack resulting in the weapon being seized!

After the noise, the battlefield unexpectedly entered a short period of silence. Both armies withdrew, not fighting anymore.

It was because what just happened was too shocking, an undying existence even taking action, yet was still defeated in the end, weapon lost.

At this moment, above the sky dome no one could see past, there were more than ten figures confronting each other, each seated on one side.

On one side were Meng Tianzheng and two other elders, in their hands the Immortal King Corpse Wrapping Cloth, Ten Realms Diagram, Nine Phoenix Furnace, True Dragon Horn, and other immortal weapons!

In the star dome, starlight swirled, extremely dazzling.

There were twelve foreign elders seated on the other side of the starry space, their figures all blurry, auras terrifying, definitely not weaker than Great Elder Meng Tianzheng.

This formed a powerful contrast, Imperial Pass only having three people, while the other side directly had twelve people who moved out!

None of the twelve foreign elders held undying artifacts, or else they would be sucked away by Heaven Abyss, instead only carrying the Heaven and Earth Pouch immortal artifact!

It was in perfect condition, previously belonging to the Nine Heavens, but it was seized back then, falling to the foreign side. Several years ago, the Heaven and Earth Pouch had even more so clashed against the Ten Realms Diagram.

Apart from this, in their hands, there were two damaged immortal weapons.

The two sides didn't fight, but this type of confrontation was even more frightening than killing. Once they took action, it would definitely be earth-shattering, possibly immediately deciding life and death.

There was great killing being carried out in the desert, yet in the sky dome above, there were even more terrifying figures opposing each other with equal harshness!

"Let's go, it is still not time!"

In the end, the foreign elders got up, their actions cautious, and then withdrew, quickly disappearing.

"The path is too difficult, I have a premonition that turbulent times are not far off." Great Elder Meng Tianzheng released a light sigh.

In the desert, a silver-haired youth was found and led to a region to face Huang. This person was precisely Wu Feng[1], someone who was known as a Heavenly King!

"Wu Feng, I never expected you to have come as well. Please send my greetings to the ancient undying being in my place!" In the sky, a great Self Release Realm expert spoke extremely politely.

It was because Wu Feng had previously received pointers from an undying existence, seeing those unmatched figures.

This was a young man, his head of long silver hair falling down to his waist. His figure was tall and straight, handsome and outstanding. There were some mysterious silver patterns on his forehead.

Outside his body, silver light pulsed, forming a large circle of flame, making him look divine without compare, as if he was full of undying aura.

This was precisely Martial Heavenly King!

How vast was the foreign side? It was grand without end, creatures even more so countless. To be ranked fourth among the present world King Clans, he could definitely be called exceptionally powerful among his peers!

To be granted the title of Heavenly King, receive pointers from an undying existence, he really was a noteworthy disciple. For a young man, this really was an incomparable glory.

“Distinguished one, right now, I fear that I cannot kill Huang, I came with important matters.” Wu Feng said.

He truly was quite heroic, his silver hair brilliant, moreover dressed in silver armor that flickered with radiance. His entire being was resplendent like a silver sun.

This person, no matter where he went, definitely wouldn’t be overlooked, truly extraordinary.

Many people looked towards him, even the people from the Nine Heavens’ side no exception. There were some who were angry, feeling like he was too arrogant. What did he mean he couldn’t kill Huang right now, don’t tell me that he felt like he could kill him?

“What matters do you have?”

“Anlan, Shutuo, the two ancient ancestors wrote a decree for me to hand to my master, have him open it in the desert. Meanwhile, my master handed it to me.” Martial Heavenly King said.

The master he spoke of, was the ancient undying existence!

When those in the surroundings heard this, they couldn’t help but suck in cold air.

“You are bringing the decree here?” Even the foreign great figures were moved, not even them knowing of this.

“That’s right.” Martial Heavenly King nodded and said, “Based on my suspicions, it is already time. I am going to request for the decree!”

Shua!

Everyone backed up, providing him with a path.

Light flickered. An altar appeared here. It was extremely mysterious and ancient, carved out of a skull. It had existed for a really long time.

Wu Feng’s hands shone. A golden decree suddenly appeared in his hands. He knelt down, incredibly pious, placing it on the altar and then quickly backing up.

Hong!

At this moment, heaven and earth trembled, a wave of indescribable aura covered the world!

Even in the heavens above, Great Elder Meng Tianzheng and the others who held immortal weapons were shaken, revealing serious expressions. They muttered to themselves, "This is..."

In the desert, the altar carved from the skull released strange radiance, releasing mysterious essence energy onto the decree.

The golden decree immediately flourished with even more brilliance, and then it was ignited!

Hong!

The desert trembled, the world outside Imperial Pass shaking.

The golden decree burned, ancient characters appearing one after another, flying towards Heaven Abyss. Moreover, there were two massive sounds, as if two unmatched beings were interrogating Heaven Abyss!

"Heavens, this is..."

"Anlan, Shutuo, are the two ancient ancestors communicating with Heaven Abyss?!"

1. Wu=Martial, Feng=Peak

Chapter 1397 - Rebuking the Heavens

This scene left everyone stupefied, feeling shocked from their innermost depths. The two foreign ancient ancestors were communicating with Heaven Abyss?

On the ground, that skull was three zhang tall, pitch-black like ink, its eye sockets and other apertures releasing essence energy, turning into a mysterious flame. This flame continuously burned the golden decree, making it more and more resplendent.

"Wait, how could that skull have strands of immortal dao energy?" On the Nine Heavens' side, many people were alarmed. That skull definitely had an extraordinary background, yet it was refined into an altar by another.

However, it carried even more strange energy, as if it was corroded. It flowed with mysterious power, spraying out divine flames from its seven apertures, extremely terrifying and astonishing.

Everyone knew that once this type of flame made contact with them, they would definitely be directly burned to ashes.

It was because they could see that even the nearby space was burning, absorbing secret force from the great cosmos, everything created by the black skull!

Meanwhile, this was precisely the reason why the temperature of the flames was so terrifying, able to burn the golden sheet, make the symbols on it rush towards Heaven Abyss.

Ou ma ni da la de...

Inside Heaven Abyss, golden symbols appeared one after another, engraved there, releasing a loud noise. It was as if three thousand ancient monks were chanting, as if three thousand demonic sovereigns were crying out, the scene too shocking.

It was too terrifying, this voice carrying unmatched dignity, berating Heaven Abyss, as if it was trying to negotiate some type of great karma with it!

Everyone became horrified. Anlan, Shutuo, how heaven-defying were the two ancient ancestors? They unexpectedly could be like this, a single decree able to accomplish this.

At this moment, the foreign creatures knelt down, involuntarily feeling a type of servitude from deep within their souls. They kowtowed here, prostrating in worship.

On the Nine Heavens Ten Earths' side, even if they weren't willing, there were still some people whose knees went weak, their souls trembling, kneeling down.

This was a type of pressure similar to that of a young beast seeing a beast king, an innate fear that left them with no choice but to submit.

"No!"

There was someone who roared angrily, definitely not willing to lower his head, kneel down. A mouthful of essence blood sprayed out from his mouth, his body towering in place.

However, their bodies betrayed them, forcing them to kowtow. Their legs gradually bent, refusing to obey their minds.

The human body was mysterious, the flesh containing a treasury. However, these types of potential, this immeasurable power, sometimes, the gates shut within the body would always be incited by external forces, producing various involuntary actions.

It was clear that this golden decree's symbols were written by the two unmatched experts. They deeply understood the physical bodies' mysteries. That was why when the magical decree left, it affected all spirits.

Hua!

An ancient diagram sealed the heavens, unfolding with the wind, immortal might pervading the air. Great Elder Meng Tianzheng arrived, in his hands the Ten Realms Diagram. It floated above, stopping the magical decree's might, protecting everyone from the Nine Heavens' side.

At this moment, everyone released a breath of relief, wiping away the blood at the corners of their lips. In the end, they still didn't kneel down, or else how could they bear this type of humiliation

At the same time, an elder appeared from the foreign side, in his hands the Heaven and Earth Pouch. It released ten thousand strands of light, protecting their side, fearing that Great Elder would suddenly act fiercely.

All of the creatures became momentarily quiet, holding their breaths, closely watching the situation with the black skull altar and Heaven Abyss.

The golden decree was completely burned, only a bit of ashes remaining. Several thousand symbols flew into the sky, entering the abyss. Dao sounds rumbled, splitting the sky dome.

One could vaguely see that there seemed to be two faint golden figures that appeared. They pointed towards the limits of the abyss, releasing the most powerful sound.

“They are discussing karma with Heaven Abyss!” Even Great Elder was stupefied, feeling waves of coldness. The foreign side’s Anlan and Shutuo were too terrifying.

They were actually able to accomplish this!

However, when they thought about it more, they could only release light sighs. How terrifying were those two great existences? They weren’t cultivators of this great era at all, but rather originating from the last civilization’s ancient history.

At that time, Anlan and Shutuo had fought against True Immortals, contending with the unmatched beings on the Nine Heavens Ten Earths’ side, and in the end, they won.

Just how terrifying of a thing was this?

Anlan, Shutuo, and the others had lived for an incredibly long amount of time, no one able to say for sure what era they appeared in. They previously fought with Without End Immortal King and Six Dao Reincarnations Immortal King.

Even though this was due to various reasons, the two immortals kings weren’t weaker than anyone else. It was only because they didn’t have enough reinforcements. However, regardless, they were still defeated in the end.

The ones who had the last laugh were still the foreign side’s Anlan, Shutuo and others!

Now, it was precisely the two great experts who appeared. Someone brought over a magical decree, displaying unmatched might!

Hong!

Heaven Abyss displayed a reaction, moreover an extremely powerful one. A wave of white essence energy was released, extremely pure and holy, pouring into Heaven Abyss, the energy surging through this world.

Chi!

Scarlet red chains appeared one after another, as if they were bleeding immortal swords. They rushed out from white mist, directly hacking towards the golden symbols rising from the magical decree.

In that instant, the noises were deafening, as if dao swords were crying out, as if there was Divine Iron clashing, extremely terrifying. Everyone’s souls even trembled in response, as if they were going to fall apart. $n-(\mathcal{O}-\mathfrak{v})/e-\ell./\mathbf{B})/1/-n$

A portion of the golden ancient characters were destroyed!

Ao duo li de miu ga!

A great voice sounded, as if it was extremely angry. This represented the two ancient ancestors' killing intent, about to engulf Heaven Abyss.

Only, this was still a decree in the end, and not the dao body, nor was it a divine consciousness, let alone a true body, its power extremely limited. As a result, it couldn't stop Heaven Abyss' terrifying power.

The scarlet red divine chains of order spread out, releasing hualala noises, as if judgment descended from the heavens above. Streak after streak of scarlet red chains blasted through golden symbols one after another.

In the end, under pu pu sounds, all of the symbols were blasted through, the decree disappearing!

"Great Elder, just now, what did the voices that sounded from the golden decree mean?" Shi Hao arrived at Meng Tianzheng's side, asking with a soft voice.

In the surroundings, those who were able to approach Great Elder's side also revealed serious expressions, wishing to know the answer to this.

"It is as you all expect, they are asking, reproving the heavens, carrying out a treatise of karma!" Great Elder said with a serious expression.

Cold energy rose from everyone's backs. It was one thing to think something, and another for it to be truly confirmed!

Those who dared rebuke Heaven Abyss, loudly berate it, just how domineering and heaven-defying was this?

Even though the golden decree was erased, they could see that Anlan and Shutuo didn't fear this abyss. Otherwise, how could they dare do this?

Of course, there were definitely some reasons. Their true bodies couldn't approach this place.

"What did they say exactly?" Shi Hao asked for guidance. He really wanted to know what the contents of that magical decree was.

In reality, the foreign side were also discussing quietly, asking their old ancestors, wishing to know what happened.

It was because not even they recognized the symbols on the decree, these were special ancient characters that only unmatched existences could understand, extremely mysterious.

"I could not understand it either, those characters are difficult to recognize, only able to vaguely recognize some words, roughly guess at some of its intent." Great Elder released a light sigh.

The divine archer from Imperial Pass walked over, also displaying an act of respect, and then asked Great Elder for guidance, to speak of it in more detail.

"The rough meaning is that that thing must be found. Moreover, those dao brothers have to be guided back. That is why they must enter the pass!" Great Elder said quietly, his expression incredibly serious.

This was definitely a huge matter!

When those here heard these words, all of their bodies went rigid, and then their expressions turned pale. This information was too terrifying, making them think of too many things.

Enter the pass, this was without a doubt, making it through Heaven Abyss and charge through Imperial Pass!

They had to find that thing, this might have exposed a tremendous great secret! This likely touched upon why the other side had to enter the Nine Heavens, the mystery regarding why they had to slaughter their way into this world!

This was definitely a gargantuan matter. Everyone began to shiver inwardly.

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths, what exactly was there that attracted them?

Apart from this, Anlan and Shutuo said that they had to guide back some dao brothers, this was even more horrifying. Forget about the great knights, even Great Elder himself felt his scalp going numb.

On Imperial Pass' side, there were foreign people?

Moreover, according to what the decree said, the so-called dao brothers were definitely on the level of Anlan and Shutuo, or else how could they be referred to as brothers?

This piece of information, just the thought alone made one's entire body go ice-cold. It truly was horrifying to the extreme!

Shivering all over with fear, truly shaken up, this was Shi Hao's most direct feeling.

However, when everyone thought seriously about this, they still carried doubts. If there were creatures of this level, would they have to be guided back? Just a single palm from them would be enough to overturn their side, directly return.

"Guide back..." Great Elder said to himself, full of doubts.

Right at this time, the foreign elder who held the Heaven and Earth Pouch walked over. He was protected by the endless strands of immortal light produced by the immortal artifact, as if a blazing sun was blossoming.

"I advise you all to hand over that thing as soon as possible!" This was his request.

In that instant, Shi Hao and the others' minds were greatly shaken, but they were also filled with expectation, wishing to obtain more information from his mouth. What exactly was this thing?

Chapter 1398 - Unmatched In the Same Generation

"The thing is ours, why must we give it to you all?" Great Elder said calmly.

In reality, he didn't know what it was either, but he wished to learn more about it, needing more information from the foreign important figures' mouths.

"Then just wait to be wiped out once again. The Nine Heavens ten Earths will be blood purged, this time, not a blade of grass will grow!" The foreign elder said with an extremely cold and strict voice.

In the battle of Immortal Ancient, the Nine Heavens suffered a great defeat, already slaughtered once, an entire great era buried, completely destroyed. Now, danger was going to arrive once again!

“What is that thing?” Shi Hao opened his mouth and asked. He looked towards Great Elder, this was naturally playing along.

Great Elder didn’t say anything, not responding.

“Old thing, what do you want?” On the Nine Heavens side, there were some irascible war generals who couldn’t hold back, loudly shouting.

“Unbridled!” That elder’s eyes glared angrily, two blinding streaks of silver light instantly blasting through heaven and earth, blasting that person apart on the spot, impossible to defend against even if they wanted to.

Supreme being!

Everyone was shaken up, feeling a deep coldness surrounding their entire body. That was just a gaze, yet it killed an extremely powerful war general. This was definitely a true supreme being!

Chi!

At this time, the divine archer drew his bow. With a pu sound, an arrow flew out, directly blasting through four foreign experts, making all of them explode to death!

This was clearly revenge, direct and undisguised!

The foreign elder’s eyes were cold, silver radiance appearing once again. He looked towards the divine archer, killing intent spreading like a tsunami. Endless smoke and dust waves surged from the desert, reaching who knew how many tens of thousands of zhang in height.

This was precisely the power of a supreme being, just any random movement having great effects.

Heng!

Great Elder Meng Tianzheng released a cold snort, his eyes like two suns. Golden light flourished, similarly displaying might, erasing the two streaks of silver light that flew over on the spot.

Moreover, there were many people on the other side who exploded, all of them not standing too far from the elder who held the Heaven and Earth Pouch!

“You dare start a war?” That elder’s eyes were ice-cold, expression chilly. He raised the Heaven and Earth Pouch.

“I was scared that you wouldn’t dare. Go ask for some more friends, you alone aren’t enough to be my opponent!” Great Elder spoke in front of the two realms’ cultivators, remaining extremely calm.

Even though they didn’t start a war, this type of contempt and nonchalant tone boosted the Nine Heavens side’s morale greatly.

“It is still not time. Your head will inevitably fall in the future!” The foreign elder said coldly.

Meng Tianzheng laughed coldly and said, 'Is it an undying being who will take action? After all, someone like you will never have a chance.' Then, his expression became cold. "I overestimated you. You don't know what that thing is at all, yet you dare demand for it in front of my face?"

"You..." That elder from the other side was ashamed and angry. It was because he really didn't know what it was, only hearing about this from the bit he understood from the ancient ancestor's words, and that was why he spoke up, asking the Nine Heavens, wishing to use this to understand the situation.

"Have someone who knows talk to me, you don't have the qualifications to do so." Great Elder said.

The foreign elder composed himself. He laughed coldly and said, "I understand now, you don't know what it is either."

Then, his figure flashed out, thus disappearing.

Meanwhile, Great Elder also disappeared.

Everyone knew that they didn't leave, just that they were hiding in the darkness, continuing to stand against each other. If people at their level fought, then the effects would be too great, causing endless death.

"Wu, the old ancestor has already left, so we should go back as well after killing a few more." A foreign commander said.

There was a golden sphere of light around his body that surrounded him, extremely powerful and fierce. This was precisely the person who had someone bring over Martial Heavenly King Wu Feng.

"Wu Feng, go and take that Huang's head!"

The silver haired young man walked up, his appearance extremely handsome, known as one of the Ten Great Heavenly King Experts. He was ranked fourth, obtaining pointers from undying existences, magical force profound, cultivation terrifying.

Wu Feng walked forward. He directly reached out his hand, pointing at Shi Hao.

The battlefield was vast, the war between the two realms' armies interrupted by the decree, temporarily stopping. At this time, Wu Feng walked up, equivalent to continuing the great battle again.

"You all had ten kings killed by Huang, do you want to wash away your humiliation? In my opinion, you all are going to suffer an even greater defeat today!"

"So those old turtles couldn't sit still anymore, finding this white-furred brat to try to regain your side's dignity? From my perspective, it's completely useless!"

On the Nine Heavens' side, many people heckled. novε-1B/In

"Kill him!"

"Martial Heavenly King is unmatched!"

A group of people from the foreign side shouted loudly.

This was especially the case with the younger generation, hoping Huang would immediately be killed. Otherwise, even letting him live a day longer would make them feel dejected. However, to kill Huang, it ought to be someone from the younger generation who set out, because only then can they be released from their tension, considered washing away the humiliation of the great defeat of ten young kings, or else their minds would forever be under the shadow of defeat.

Shi Hao didn't say a single word, directly walking forward, wishing to give this so-called Heavenly King a try!

"It truly leaves one troubled. Senior Jin Tuo wishes wants me to remove your head, while brother He Ziming said that you are his, that if you two meet again, he wants to personally kill you." Wu Feng spoke. His silver armor shone, as if he wore battle clothes refined from woven stars, bathing in silver splendor, extremely divine.

On the Nine Heavens' side, many young cultivators immediately became furious, believing that Wu Feng was too arrogant, a bit unbridled. Did he truly think he could kill Shi Hao?

"You feel troubled? There is no need at all. Today, I will kill you, and then I'll kill He Ziming in the future!" Shi Hao said.

"Brother He's identity is so extraordinary, for him to call you by name, declaring this to everyone is something you can feel proud of. How about this, I will exchange a few moves with you, if you aren't as strong as expected, then I'll directly risk provoking Brother He and take your head in his place!" Wu Feng said, pressing forward.

"What bold words. Don't go running away when it starts now!" On the Nine Heavens' side, many youngsters shouted out, every one of them hoping for Shi Hao to bring back a great victory.

Shi Hao also moved, his bearing like that of a dragon or tiger, powerfully advancing. He looked relaxed, and also extremely calm, not like he was fighting a decisive battle.

"Kill!"

When he got close, Shi Hao released a loud shout.

"Die!" Wu Feng roared out. His right hand was silvery-white, producing a heavenly blade imprint, hacking it down onto Shi Hao. In that instant, a snow-white streak of blade radiance that was tens of thousands of zhang long was produced!

Meanwhile, Shi Hao produced a fist imprint, facing this blade radiance head-on!

The two were extremely direct, immediately secretly using powerful methods, condensing thousands of moves into a single one, both wishing to immediately eliminate their opponent.

Hong!

Shi Hao blasted aside the boundless blade energy with a single fist, and then it smashed together with Wu Feng's palm blade, the aura terrifying, making the surrounding void cave in, continuously break apart.

“Kill!” Wu Feng roared, frantically attacking. His hands formed blade imprints, becoming more and more brilliant, operating a type of terrifying ancestral method, pushing the blade imprint to the extreme.

“It is an undying heavenly blade art!” On the other side, many people became excited.

This was an incredibly terrifying blade art, something that could only be operated if one grasped a mysterious ancestral technique. When the two were merged together, they would become matchless, something passed down by an undying being.

This was something an ancient undying existence personally passed down!

Hong!

Blade radiance rushed out in endless streaks, rushing out, submerging heaven and earth. It was silvery-white and dazzling, as if it was going to hack down the sky dome!

When facing this attack, Shi Hao still condensed a fist imprint, secretly long operating Imperishable Scripture, facing this undying heavenly blade head-on!

Dang! Dang! Dang!

Three blows were exchanged in succession, all three of Shi Hao’s punches striking on the heavenly blade, clashing intensely with the other party’s palm that condensed the blade imprint.

Immediately afterwards, the two separated, passing by each other.

Shi Hao stood there calmly, not displaying any expressions.

Wu Feng’s expression was serious. He turned around, unable to hide his shock.

Right now, only a few older generation figures saw through something, the others unable to see the result of this battle, thinking that victory and defeat still hadn’t been decided.

Wuwu...

From the distance, a bugle horn sounded. The foreign side’s conch horn sounded, having them withdraw.

It was clear that the events that took place today were quite strange. A decree appeared, yet couldn’t intimidate Heaven Abyss, the foreign side now withdrawing. They might make a big move in the future.

“Withdraw!” Someone ordered.

Moreover, the elder who held the Heaven and Earth Pouch appeared, personally bringing up the rear to stop the Nine Heavens’ cultivators from pursuing and attacking them. Meanwhile, Great Elder also appeared, still confronting him, preventing his immortal weapon from unleashing a great killing disaster.

“Huang, I’ll spare your life. When Wu Feng Heavenly King meets you again, he will definitely cut you down!” The foreign younger generation were filled with unwillingness.

“You all can ask him, does he think he can do it?” Shi Hao replied indifferently.

Everyone was shocked, looking ahead.

However, Wu Feng didn't turn around, withdrawing with the great army.

Only when they were far away, when they were in the limits of the desert's horizon did Wu Feng cough out a large mouthful of blood with a wa sound. Moreover, his right hand began to release pi pa sounds. Then, with a peng noise, his entire right arm cracked apart, almost exploding.

"What is going on?" The foreign younger generation were all shocked.

"Martial Heavenly King, what's wrong?" Someone asked.

Wu Feng coughed out several more mouthfuls of blood, and only then did he say, "That person might be unmatched in the younger generation, not many are his opponent, only brother Ziming can do anything! Otherwise, if we wish to wash away the humiliation, trying to suppress and kill him with similar level people, then we'll have to ask for help from Anlan and Shutuo Families!"

Chapter 1399 - Purely For Training

Wuwu...

A sea snail bugle horn sounded, making heaven and earth tremble. The foreign great army withdrew like a tide, the black expanse slowly disappearing into the limits of the desert.

On Imperial Pass' side, there was no one who chased after them. It was because on the other side, there was an elder who held a Heaven and Earth Pouch. This was an immortal weapon, holding up the rear, ready to attack at any time.

Then, a Heaven Swallowing Beast roared. Three lions released low roars, all of them rising up to the air, flying towards Imperial Pass. The cultivators on the Nine Heavens side also began to withdraw under the great knights' command.

A great battle came to an end just like this.

Along the way, the warriors from various clans all became extremely quiet. Even though they didn't suffer greatly this time, even occupying the advantage, everyone still carried worries inside. It was because the other side was too powerful, having undying beings. Once they slaughtered their way over, there would be nothing they could do!

The only thing they could rely on was Heaven Abyss. Once it was broken through, Imperial Pass definitely couldn't be defended any longer, the Nine Heavens inevitably being buried under.

Meanwhile, the other side's Anlan and Shutuo, the two unmatched ancient ancestors from the last great era already made some moves, passing down a decree, so in the future, what else would they do?

This type of matchless expert who looked down on great eras one after another, once they really made moves, only heaven knew what was going to happen. Would Heaven Abyss still remain secure?

It was hard to imagine what kind of state Imperial Pass and the great earth behind it would be in once Heaven Abyss disappeared!

Wuwu... Suddenly, someone released sobbing sounds, full of sadness.

Up ahead, corpses were raised one after another, damaged and in pieces. There were some that were placed on the backs of mounts, others raised in coffins one after another, covered in blood.

These were all dead cultivators, some of them well-known experts, but there were unknown soldiers as well. After this battle, they all had the same fate, dying outside the pass.

When one turned around and looked back, they would see many corpses. It was an alarming sight, making one couldn't help but feel aggrieved, releasing long sighs.

Now that this battle ended, there were many more people who lost their husbands and fathers. After this battle, what filled the eyes was only grief. Weeping sounds gradually became louder, too many scenes of sadness behind, truly hard for others to look at.

Meanwhile, this was just one portion, because more cultivators directly exploded, bones even disappearing, nothing left behind.

The corpses that could be brought back were only a very small portion!

"Senior, if there is Heaven Abyss stopping them, why must we still leave the pass to fight with them? So many people died, it is just too miserable!" There were people who couldn't hold back, asking the commanders.

If they didn't leave the pass, these people wouldn't have died.

There were some who believed that with Heaven Abyss in the way, the foreign great army definitely couldn't cross over, no way they could cross that chasm. Taking the initiative to challenge the other side like this, wasn't it just having soldiers die for no reason?

"The other side is targeting Heaven Abyss, so we must take the initiative to attack, stop their plans!" A middle-aged man spoke loudly. He wasn't a leader, but he explained this loudly to avoid affecting their morale.

However, the great knight seated on a golden Pixiu raised his hand, stopping him. He began to explain, speaking up himself.

"Everything is for the sake of training soldiers, to sharpen iron-blooded soldiers!" He said.

This simple sentence explained everything.

"The day might come when Heaven Abyss disappears. At that time, what will happen?" A few elders from different clans added, loudly asking.

Everyone became silent. This was what they were the least willing to face, but it was something that could very well happen.

Sending out soldiers now was precisely for the sake of sharpening the soldiers of various clans, make preparations for the future life and death decisive battle. That might very well be a world exterminating battle, the entire world possibly drenched in blood.

This time, the scale of the battle between the two realms wasn't small, creatures everywhere in the desert. Both sides suffered great casualties, blood dyeing the sand completely red.

Meanwhile, the soldiers who set out from Imperial Pass were still a small portion of their army, not completely going out.

When looking at this from a higher perspective, this was only a small scale fierce battle.

They were training soldiers. Without a doubt, if this continued, the soldiers from all different clans would have gone out, experiencing the cruelty of blood and bones.

From the past until now, the world outside Imperial Pass has never lacked death, while in this era, there would inevitably be even more!

The sounds of weeping decreased, the entire great army becoming quiet, silently walking towards Imperial Pass.

Even the powerful vicious beasts no longer roared, returning quietly. A few giant birds cast giant shadows on the ground as they moved forward.

This type of silence, this type of quietness, made everyone feel a great pressure.

It would always be like this every time they left the pass. Large amounts of cultivators withered away, dying, falling in battle outside the pass. This was a type of unavoidable grief and pain.

The army walked into the primal chaos mist, arriving before the boundless number one pass. Everyone was still quiet, silently entering the city.

Chi!

A streak of immortal light scattered down, surrounding everyone.

There were immediately creatures who cried out miserably, directly turning to ashes, unable to even resist.

These were foreign creatures who mixed into their army in this great battle, wishing to infiltrate the pass. However, unfortunately, just like before, they couldn't enter. After an ancient mirror shone down on them to reveal their true forms, they turned into scattered smoke and ashes.

Then, Shi Hao and the others felt as if they were disintegrating. After entering a strange passage, before they even knew what was going on, they already entered the passage's depths.

During this process, he felt his blood rumble, his soul imprint trembling intensely, as if it was resonating with Imperial Pass. no ve. 18)1n

He knew that this was a type of probing, all creatures entering Imperial Pass would be strictly examined. Only those who left this pass not long ago were permitted inside.

When they set off before, they already left their own auras here.

Imperial Pass was ancient and mysterious, there were naturally reasons why it was able to stand tall through endless time without collapsing.

Soon afterwards, they entered the city, but in the end, they discovered that there were creatures everywhere. All of them looked in this direction nervously. They were people from different great clans, raising their heads, hoping to see their clansmen return.

It was clear that this process would inevitably be full of sadness.

Shi Hao left. There was no one waiting for him here, because Stone Clan was too weak, not having the qualifications to come here.

Sou!

A golden body rushed down, landing on Shi Hao's shoulder, returning with him.

"That felt good! I killed many enemies, just that I didn't encounter any big fish, and an old man always stood behind me, scared that I might get lost, so unlucky!" The Heavenly Horned Ant said.

Shi Hao was speechless. He knew that there were definitely super experts from the city protecting the little Heavenly Horned Ant, fearing that he would die outside the pass before he matured. That type of loss would be too great.

It was because a descendant of the Vicious Ten, if nothing unexpected happened, they would definitely rise up to become unmatched beings.

The foreign great army withdrew a step earlier.

Aggressive races were all iron-blooded, even if they died, they would only feel some sadness at that time. They would become calm again soon afterwards.

The foreign side was vast and boundless, the regions too vast, who knew how many times greater than the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

After the clans returned, all of them went back to their respective clans' territory through super transport formations.

However, there were some who directly gathered together, heading to a meeting. The gathering of the younger generation this time was even more so not a small matter.

"Go invite others, bring over all of my generation's most powerful geniuses. If we cannot get rid of Huang, then it truly is a type of humiliation. How can my side's younger generation be inferior to someone from their side?!"

In the great desert war, even Martial Heavenly King was defeated, making many young foreign creatures feel inwardly shaken, also leaving them incredibly worried. They really didn't want to accept this defeat by a human from the other side.

This was especially the case after Martial Heavenly King spoke out, saying that Huang already couldn't be matched in the younger generation. This left many people shocked, all those of this generation paying close attention to this matter.

"Can we head to those legendary ancient lands, invite people from Emperor Clans to come out?"

When this sentence was spoken, quite a few geniuses from the younger generation were shocked. Was Huang this terrifying, needing to bother the Emperor Clans?

“Be careful, the Emperor Clans haven’t displayed any activity for a long time, not appearing in this world. If someone comes out from the ancient lands, then they would definitely dominate the world, all sides defeated. There won’t be any chance for our generation at all!”

Regardless, Shi Hao had already become a well-known person in the foreign side’s younger generation!

In the great desert battle, he defeated Martial Heavenly King, drawing the eyes of the foreign clans’ young experts. They already saw him as a mountain blocking their path, one that had to be uprooted.

“Master, you... came back alive!” At Stone Clan’s village entrance, A’Shou saw a figure walk over from the distance. He couldn’t help but cry out loudly in pleasant surprise.

When the group of children heard this, they all quickly ran over. They were all shocked and happy to see him.

“Big bro, you really are formidable! I heard that this time, the battle was extremely bitter, yet you came back safe and sound, not even injured at all! I’m so happy!” A little girl shouted, her rosy little face revealing a pure smile. However, shortly afterwards, she cried, because she lost her father not too long ago, now remembering him.

The people from the tribe all appeared. When they saw Shi Hao, they were all extremely happy, revealing simple and honest smiles. There was someone who walked over, giving his shoulder a pat, another who brought over a large bowl of strong alcohol, someone else who brought over a towel for him to wipe away the dirt and sand.

“It is good that you came back, living is good...” The clan chief Shi Houde’s voice was shaking a bit. What he was scared of the most was when they came back to greet their soldiers, because he would always hear grievous news. The clan’s strong men usually came back dead.

“Child, hurry and eat some dried meat, recover a bit of stamina.” There were some middle-aged women who walked over, carrying kind and amiable smiles.

Shi Hao thanked them. He felt a type of warmth here, a type of feeling of returning home.

He took up residence here, not having any plans of leaving. He prepared to make this the place he would stay at for some time.

In the following half month, Shi Hao didn’t go out, guiding the children in their cultivation. In addition, he himself also analyzed his great dao path, entering half seclusion.

He was waiting. When it was time to leave the pass again, his target wouldn’t only be the battlefield!

A few days later, in this area’s mountain range, someone paid this small tribe that rarely received care from others a visit, bringing over a letter.

“Is Huang here? He really is in a remote place, actually in this barren mountain.” The one who came muttered quietly.

“Who are you, what do you need?” The young man A’Shou greeted them.

“I came to find Huang, deliver an invitation to him. In three days, there will be a gathering in Imperial Pass, those who are invited all the top figures of the younger generation, the elites of all different clans.”

“What gathering?” With a sou sound, a golden figure rushed over, directly landing by the letter, giving the messenger a fright.

“We’ve been busy cultivating recently, where would we find the time to go to a gathering.” The Heavenly Horned Ant curled his lips.

“The gathering this time is quite special, only the leading figures of the present world younger generation going, all of them extraordinary. This meeting will only bring benefits, no harm.” The one who came said. From what he said, the ones who went would all be those who grasped the ebb and flow of the future world.

“It’s not like we never met them before in the Nine Heavens!” The little ant was impatient.

“This time, not only are the cultivators from the Nine Heavens going, the most powerful inheritors of various clans in Imperial Pass will also be there, even more so descendants of unmatched beings, as well as true immortal posterity. They have never visited the Nine Heavens before.” The one who came explained. It was clear that he really hoped that Shi Hao could go.

Chapter 1400 - Distinguished Meeting of Geniuses

“Descendants of unmatched beings, what kind of people are those?” The Heavenly Horned Ant muttered, not all that concerned.

This was especially the case when it even overlooked the descendants of True Immortals, not even asking about them.

The messenger who came couldn’t keep his composure anymore, reminding, “There are also descendants of True Immortals!”

“Are True Immortal descendants that special? It’s not like I haven’t met them before, what Wang Xi, Jin Zhan, didn’t they all come from long life families? Aren’t they the same as being descendants of True Immortals?” The Heavenly Horned Ant curled his lips.

“Um, you haven’t met those people before, they belong to three long life families in Imperial Pass.” The one who came wiped at his sweat. This was the first time he met this ant who spoke so boldly, not even placing the inheritors of long life families in his eyes.

“Descendants? They aren’t even the children of True Immortals. I’ve even met Immortal Wang, that immortal kid before, so why would I have any interest in those descendants? Remember that a year ago, we even fought with Wang Family. Immortal Wang was something though, stronger than those kids of his!”

When the messenger heard these words, he was immediately speechless, what kind of freak did he end up encountering? Did it really treat long life families with such little importance, even cutting down Immortal Wang’s reputation substantially, calling him an immortal kid, who dared call an old monster who had lived for endless years this?

“Lower your voice, be a bit quieter, or else you would be bringing a great disaster onto yourself!” The messenger advised while wiping at his cold sweat.

“You don’t recognize me?” The Heavenly Horned Ant was stunned.

Shi Hao walked over from the distance. He was left quiet stupefied, the messenger was boasting about True Immortal descendants before the little Heavenly Horned Ant, something was a bit wrong here.

Unless they were the direct children of True Immortals, how could they compare to the status of the golden little ant? This was but the direct child of a Vicious Ten!

Back then, the Vicious Ten’s Heavenly Horned Ant, even though he wasn’t an immortal king, not achieving that dao fruit, his true strength was definitely not weak, close to reaching that level.

“You... are?” The messenger was confused. He looked at the golden little ant on the letter.

This letter was still held in his hands, yet in the end, an ant suddenly jumped up, having this type of tone. He really was a bit at a loss.

The little ant looked at him with disdain, saying, “Kid, you really aren’t sincere, you are purposely mocking and overlooking me, right?”

The messenger wiped at his sweat. Not long ago, this ant even called Immortal Wang an immortal kid, yet now, he was acting old and wise, calling him a kid, he really was going dizzy.

“I just came out of seclusion, I’ve been cultivating this entire time during these past few years...” The messenger said.

Shi Hao walked over. When he heard this, he smiled and said, “This is a Heavenly Horned Ant, Vicious Ten’s son.”

“This... ah, I... I’m going!” The messenger immediately made himself scarce. He actually really wanted to give the legendary Heavenly Horned Ant a look, but when he thought about how even Immortal Wang was called a kid, it was as if a fire was lit under his ass, not daring to chat with it anymore. He was really scared badly, fearing that it might end up saying some type of shocking thing and bring disaster onto him too.

When he ran up to the village entrance, he stopped for a moment, giving the letter to the children in the tribe, and then turned around to run. He really was panicking a bit.

“In three days, Jedefall Lake...” Shi Hao read through the invitation card, quietly saying to himself. He then casually tossed the letter onto a wooden table.

“Hao brat, I went out of the pass. I heard that you went to the great desert and had some fun, your rewards quite abundant. You killed two more King Clan experts?” Cao Yusheng ran over.

There was only a great river separating the tribe he was staying at with Shi Hao’s. He was the friend closest to him.

When he heard this shout, moreover that type of address, Shi Hao’s forehead became covered in dark lines.

“Fatty, what kind of nonsense are you spouting?” Shi Hao glared at him.

Cao Yusheng released a forced laugh, and then said, “Right, just now, who was the one who ran out from Stone Clan? He was saying something about giving some young Pride of Heaven invitation cards. Motherfucker, he actually never heard of my name, even more so not giving me an invitation. I directly gave him a good beating!”

Shi Hao was immediately speechless. When he looked at this fatty, he really didn’t know what to say.

“Brat, you really aren’t kind and honest!” The Heavenly Horned Ant couldn’t even continue watching this. Even though he was upset, he didn’t take action, only speaking and reasoning with that person.

...

When he understood what was happening, Cao Yusheng was upset, saying, “They overlooked me, disregarding me, what is so special about it anyway? Fuck, I won’t go anyway. En, hold on, I can’t not go. The more they refuse to give me an invitation, the more I want to go.”

“What is there to complain about? I have an invitation, you can have it.” Shi Hao turned around, preparing to continue his cultivation, comprehend his own method and dao.

“This thing has your name on it!” Cao Yusheng reminded.

“Kid, you really do want to go?” The Heavenly Horned Ant looked at him, never seeing a fatty with such thick skin before. He really was examining this invitation card.

“Go, I have to go, I’m going with you all!” Cao Yusheng pulled at Shi Hao.

“I’m not interested!” Shi Hao said.

“Since we’re in Imperial Pass and others are inviting us so enthusiastically, how can we not give them any face? Moreover, we have to join together to fight the enemy anyway, so it’s perfect for getting to know each other, establish a bit of friendship beforehand.” Cao Yusheng pestered and coaxed.

In Imperial Pass, the younger generation all couldn’t calm down, especially the elites of various clans, the most powerful inheritors of clans all waiting.

Unfortunately, many people were fated to be disappointed, because they wouldn’t obtain any invitations, couldn’t join in that legendary distinguished meeting of heaven’s pride.

News spread everywhere that there would be a gathering of the younger generation in Imperial Pass, that it would be carried out in Jadenfall Lake. At that time, there would definitely be a sharing of scriptures and dao.

If others knew that Shi Hao didn’t want to go, they would definitely be stunned, definitely leaving a few people stupefied. It was because they wanted to obtain an invitation badly, but were left disappointed.

“Wu, I heard that this time, there is a rare treasure brought back from the other side for display.”

“So what? There are much more important things. I heard that someone obtained news of long life medicine outside Imperial Pass. There was an ancient being who left behind a ruined diagram, marking out the areas where the immortal medicine roams. It is going to be shared at the meeting for everyone to see.”

“I heard that they would even talk about secrets regarding the restricted regions!”

In the Imperial Pass, young cultivators from various clans were discussing amongst each other. Even though they couldn't join in, they were still enthusiastic, understanding many things.

“Which restricted regions?”

“Naturally the Nine Heavens' restricted regions!”

“What?!”

This left everyone shocked, many people surprised. Those places couldn't be randomly discussed, or else they might provoke disasters onto themselves.

“It is rumored that there was even an invitation sent to a certain restricted region this time, just that we don't know if someone from the restricted region will come.”

When news transmitted back, quite the commotion was raised. Many people were shocked, greatly shaken.

The restricted areas of the Nine Heavens, what kind of places were those? They were True Dragon pools, tiger nests, who dared touch them? One might immediately end up paying a price of blood and soul!”

Moreover, during these endless years, the restricted regions were always lifeless, lacking life force. Now that an invitation was sent to this type of place, would any creatures really come out?

“Distinguished meeting... it is definitely a distinguished meeting!” Someone exclaimed in admiration.

If a creature came out of the restricted regions, even if they were extremely young, not having any battle accomplishments, it would still be enough to raise an uproar, leave all clans greatly shaken.

Everyone really wanted to know whose idea it was to actually do this.

One had to understand that the Nine Heavens' restricted regions were unimaginably terrifying and mysterious. From a certain perspective, the level they represented wouldn't be inferior to the matchless experts who had long disappeared in history!

Fortunately, they were extremely low-profile. Throughout all this time, they always remained in a solitary state, not displaying any activity.

Otherwise, if they became enemies, then this world would inevitably be thrown into chaos, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths most likely finished!

The three days passed in an instant. An area within Imperial Pass with elegant scenery, shrouded year round in spiritual essence was bustling with activity. It was because many geniuses came to this gathering.

Jadefall Lake, the waters a jade green, as if a sparkling jadestone was embedded in the great earth, gentle and beautiful, brilliant and faintly discernible. It had immortal dao energy spilling out from it year-round.

It was because it was rumored that there was an immortal who had previously taken residence in this region in ancient times!

There were many spiritual mountains in Jadefall Lake's surroundings, some shining, divine and brilliant, some pitch-black like ink, even now still releasing black mist, but they weren't terrifying, instead possessing a type of great dao aura. There were purple-golden ones as well, as if emperor swords were inserted into the lakeside one after another.

Quite a few of these spiritual mountains were floating, not falling onto the ground, the scenery elegant, faint mist swirling about, as if this was an immortal realm.

Shi Hao arrived, unable to withstand Cao Yusheng's pestering, walking out from the distant great wastelands, leaving Stone Clan's territory and heading here.

They saw that this place was extraordinary from the distance, immortal mist rising, swirling about Jadefall Lake and the surrounding spiritual mountains.

"Is there really something that came out of the restricted region? I really want to see what it looks like!" The golden ant said.

Shi Hao didn't say anything, but he also had similar thoughts. This was the biggest reason why he came to Jadefall Lake.