Chapter 1401 - Powerful Individuals Gather

"This place really is beautiful!"

In the distance, a few young ladies stepped on the endless lotus leaves, walking over from a dark green brook, their dresses all touching the water surface. They were beautiful and refined, as if they were girls from immortal dao families.

Indeed, Jedefall Lake was beautiful and outstanding, blue like gemstones. Even though they were still far away, that type of spirituality could already be felt, sending over waves of pure white immortal energy.

Crystal trees grew here one after another, taking root in the spiritual mountains around the lake, releasing pure and clear light. These trees were extremely special, all of them semi-transparent, the patterns in the trees clearly visible. Moreover, the trees' color was divided into many different types, from purple that looked like they were made from purple gold, to red-colored ones that were brilliant like cornelian.

"It is indeed extremely beautiful!" Shi Hao stopped, gazing towards this holy land.

"This person is so fat, hehe!" When a few young girls passed by, they all covered their mouths, releasing a few giggles. They gave Cao Yusheng and the others a few looks.

"This is a sign of good fortune, okay?" Fatty Cao disputed.

Soon afterwards, the young ladies went into the distance, moving gracefully. Then entered Jedefall Lake, stepping on the brilliant lake surface, and then flew towards a massive spiritual mountain up ahead. There were pavilions there, silver waterfalls and flowing streams, white mists swirling about, the scenery full of artistic feel.

"It's Wei Family's four fairies!"

"It's them, the legendary Wei Family Four Phoenixes!"

There were quite a few cultivators moving about not too far from Jedefall Lake, their ages not looking that great, all of them under thirty. They were quietly discussing amongst themselves, revealing the four fairies' identities.

Many people didn't have the qualifications to enter Jedefall Lake, unable to participate in the genius gathering, but they really wanted to see those legendary figures, which was why they came to the outer regions, paying close attention there.

Wei Family's four fairies had great reputations. When someone revealed their identities, there was immediately quite the disturbance, many people starting to discuss amongst themselves.

It was because not only did they possess astonishing beauty, their talent was even more so extraordinary, origins extremely great, making others feel admiration.

Wei Family wasn't a human clan, but rather one of Imperial Pass' three great long life families, isolated from the outside world. The creatures of the Nine Heavens didn't know about them at all. This was an extremely mysterious and ancient inheritance.

This family has four phoenixes in this generation, four stunning women known as exceptional geniuses. When these four joined hands they could sweep through all of their peers!

Suddenly, under deafening rumbling sounds, a silver war chariot arrived, its speed too fast. The chariot surged with waves of silver light that burned like flames, an intimidating aura rippling over from within the brilliance.

"Five Spirits War Chariot!" Someone cried out in surprise.

This war chariot was extremely special, its entire body shining, made of silvery-white metal. Even though it was shining, it also carried a mottled ancient aura, marks left behind from battles of the past.

The most unique part was that what pulled the chariot weren't truly living creatures. They looked like five swallows, silvery-white and shining, spreading their wings into the air, within the gracefulness a type of domineeringness and viciousness.

These creatures carried a cold metallic luster, size not that small. They pulled the chariot, rumbling past, powerful and intimidating.

This was a legendary precious artifact. The Five Spirits War Chariot charged forward boldly, wherever the silver light reached, all enemies would be forced back. It had previously established glorious achievements, belonging to an unmatched being, his preferred means of transportation.

"This is Qi Hong, the carriage now belongs to him, obtaining that unmatched being's care, this generation's inheritor!"

There were a few unmatched beings in Imperial Pass, their cultivation deep and immeasurable, always cultivating in seclusion by the ancestral altar, rarely coming out. These were the city's highest level protectors!

"That unmatched figure bestowed this chariot to him. Qi Hong is extraordinary after all, treated with such importance by someone at that level!"

A few people released sighs of astonishment. It was because the Five Spirits War Chariot's reputation was too great!

The five silver birds looked like swallows, but they were actually Vermilion Birds. Of course, there were people who saw them as True Phoenixes, just that they didn't have resplendent feathered arrows, when they were refined, it was their spirits that were focused on, not their outer forms.

The birds were brilliant, but they weren't scarlet red, instead made from the same material as the chariot, sturdy and imperishable.

Everyone knew how terrifying the Five Spirits War Chariot was. It had previously rushed into the enemy outside the pass, slaughtered enemies, weaved unstoppably through the foreign great army, slaughtering them until their corpses piled up like mountains, blood flowed like rivers. The enemy would immediately become terror-stricken when it was mentioned, this war chariot was unstoppable!

It could be said that this chariot embodied the glory of an unmatched being, one of Imperial Pass's most important precious artifacts, making everyone's eyes red.

It was because it was rumored that all enemies could be crushed just by relying on this war chariot alone, to the extent where the owner didn't even have to do anything himself. The Five Spirits War Chariot could flatten armies on its own!

This was a great killing artifact, even more so a carriage that made the eyes of all cultivators in Imperial Pass turn red!

Qi Hong, even though he wasn't a true disciple of the master of the Five Spirits War Chariot, he still obtained his guidance. His cultivation was immeasurable, he had never suffered a defeat.

"Qi Hong, the successor of an unmatched being, he will definitely rise up, no one able to stop his advance."

Qi Hong also came. This type of young Pride of Heaven came, unmatched to this day, prospects brilliant, no one able to predict how far he could reach.

"There were previously rumors that the Five Spirits War Chariot oppresses the heavens! It is not as simple as an ordinary weapon, just that it had never been truly activated yet. The undying passed it onto Qi Hong, what does this mean?" Someone said quietly.

With the arrival of the Five Spirits War Chariot, Jadedfall Lake began to tremble intensely, green light rushing into the heavens, triggering astonishing irregular scenes.

On the surrounding spiritual mountains and precious ships in Jadedfall Lake, many people were greatly alarmed. There were even a few who directly moved to welcome the master of the Five Spirits War Chariot.

With a shua sound, silver light spread out, descending from the war chariot, forming a path. It was as if the heavenly dao was rumbling, making the primordial spirits of everyone nearby tremble, as if they were facing an unmatched supreme being.

"The war chariot is too terrifying!" Someone said quietly.

A silver light great path unfolded on the ground. Two creatures walked out from the war chariot, one of them divine and untainted, surrounded by silver flames, as if a heavenly emperor entered this world.

He had an extraordinary appearance, extremely outstanding. A head of golden long hair scattered down, even his pupils like this, brilliant like two golden suns, intimidating to the extreme!

His body was extremely sturdy, a light golden color, as if he had an Imperishable Golden Body!

Golden body, yet it released silver light, just how astonishing of a scene was this? It was rumored that since the ancient times, only the most outstanding individuals, some immortal dao individuals could have this type of appearance.

Everyone sucked in a cold breath. This was Qi Hong, he was even more terrifying than the legends! It was as if an ancient war immortal reincarnated, overlooking everything underneath the skies, looking down on the masses!

There was someone next to him, wrapped within primal chaos, only a blurry outline visible. A pair of eyes shone resplendently like a heavenly sun. When they opened and closed, divine light split the heavens, too terrifying.

“Jin Zhan!” Someone recognized him.

He was the inheritor Jin Taijun attached the most importance to, proficient in present world methods, known as a peerless Pride of Heaven from the Nine Heavens above, divine heroicism unmatched. No one expected Jin Zhan to actually walk out of the Five Spirits War Chariot, one could see how close his relationship to Qi Hong was!

“Please!” The owner of the war chariot Qi Hong said.

“Brother Qi, please go first!” Jin Zhan said.

They entered Jedefall Lake, and then stepped onto a spiritual mountain, many young experts coming out to greet them. They felt incredible admiration for Qi Hong, not many people in Imperial pass who had never heard of this person.

At the same time, Jin Zhan couldn’t be looked down on either. He came from the Nine Heavens, rumored to be walking at the very forefront of present world methods, possibly breaking all sorts of legends in the future, establish an even more expansive great cultivation path.

“Brother Qi, you came. Seeing your golden body, silver radiance, you definitely became even more astonishing, worthy of being the successor of an unmatched being. In the future, you will definitely reach the peak of martial dao, unmatched in this world!” Someone spoke out.

Qi Hong was extremely calm, not revealing any arrogance. He humbly returned politeness, moreover introducing Jin Zhan at his side to those around him.

“The Pride of Heaven of a generation, Jin Zhan, your reputation precedes you. You are a true dragon among men as expected!” Someone praised.

Qi Hong and Jin Zhan, the two of them were surrounded like stars around a moon. Many young cultivators moved together with them.

“What a big display.” Cao Yusheng said.

They didn’t even step into Jedefall Lake, yet already saw such a show of extravagance. The Five Spirits War Chariot carried two powerful individuals into the distinguished meeting, as if true supreme beings were setting out.

The little ant curled his lips. He was extremely dissatisfied with Jin Zhan, because Jin Zhan was designated as Wang Family’s son-in-law. This person stood against Shi Hao, wanting to take action for Wang Family.

To use the Five Spirits War Chariot as transportation, this really was a show of extravagance, leaving the young generation experts shaken.

“Keep your composure. If he doesn’t provoke us, then let’s just be in harmony, come peacefully and leave peacefully.” Shi Hao said, not willing to stir up a disturbance here.

With the foreign army's pressure and the great danger of breaking through Desolate Border, he didn't have the mind to bother with any thoughts of competition.

"What about Wang Family's woman? Why isn't she together with Jin Zhan?" Fatty Cao looked around. He was naturally talking about Wang Family's number one pearl, Wang Xi.

"Don't bother looking anymore, she came." Shi Hao said.

There were two war chariots that arrived from the distance, releasing exploding noises. Several terrifying barbaric beasts pulled the chariots, their steps making heaven and earth tremble, rumble with noise.

The noises became louder and louder, eventually loud as thunder, leaving one in fear.

"Tuogu Family's Lightning War Chariot!" Someone said with shock.

Those were two purple-golden war chariots. They arrived one after the next, both of them bathed in lightning. Streak after streak of electrical arcs poured outwards, terrifying to the extreme.

"Tuogu Yulong, Tuogu Family's True Dragon!" Someone said quietly, staring at the man in the first carriage, feeling great fear, not daring to provoke this person.

Tuogu Family was one of Imperial Pass' three great long life families, descendants of a true immortal, within them flowing some immortal blood. Their population wasn't great, but their clan was extremely powerful.

This was especially the case with Tuogu Yulong, known to be this clan's True Dragon, his strength heaven-defying. He was only twenty something in age, but his cultivation already shocked the past and present at his age.

Tuogu Yulong stood on the first Lightning War Chariot alone, facing the wind, his long purple hair flying about, eyes like lightning, releasing purple light, making everyone's souls tremble.

This was an exceptional young expert, extremely well-known in Imperial Pass! noVe)lb/In

Wei Family had four phoenixes, while Tuogu Family had a dragon, forming a contrast.

Behind this Lightning War Chariot was another emperor carriage, on it two women, one of them dressed in bright red clothes that carried electrical light, like a fiery red rose, extremely stunning. This was precisely Tuogu Yulong's younger sister named Tuogu Luoyan, beauty captivating even the birds and beasts, extremely gorgeous. At her side was Wang Xi, snow-white clothes fluttering about, standing on the Lightning War Chariot, as if she was going to ride the wind and ascend to immortality.

"No wonder she didn't stand together with Jin Zhan, this is a two-pronged attack!" Cao Yusheng said to himself.

Jin Zhan came with Qi Hong on the Five Spirits War Chariot, while Wang Xi walked with Tuogu Family, were they moving separately, trying to rope in two great inheritors, trying to get other long life families on their ship?

"These people wish to form an alliance, we must be careful!" The Heavenly Horned Ant said.

“It doesn’t matter. If one achieves immortality, then it will be enough to flatten this world! If there are great changes that take place in the future, what is most important is one’s individual strength, no matter how many sheep there are, it still won’t be enough to face a lion.” Shi Hao said.

Then, they saw Little Sky King seated on an ancient beast, entering Jedefall Lake, receiving the greetings of many people.

Then, Great Xu Tuo, Qi Gu, Lan Xian, and others also arrived, as well as even more people who came. There were quite a few people who they didn’t recognize, all of them young cultivators from Imperial Pass.

Chapter 1402 - It Is Huang

Shi Hao and Cao Yusheng walked forward, entering Jedefall Lake along a river, stepping on a small boat. Ripples spread outwards.

In the lake’s surroundings, there were many spiritual mountains. It was magnificent and beautiful, white mist swirling about them. Iris and orchids grew, full of spirituality, as if an ancient immortal mountain was located here.

There were some others who also entered Jedefall Lake, because it was almost time.

During this period of time, a few war chariots and divine beasts appeared one after another, bringing young geniuses here. More and more people came for this great gathering of young kings from different clans.

“Wu, there is heaven shocking news, there really might be people from the restricted region here! I seem to have seen people enter Imperial Pass, I wonder if they came after receiving the invitation.”

Someone passed along this piece of information, triggering a huge commotion. Everyone became shocked.

There really were creatures who left the restricted region, arriving in Imperial Pass? Just how earth-shattering was this? From the past until now, not many people had seen them before, no one knowing what they were really like.

In that instant, this became the focal point of the discussions. noVe)lb/In

Many people were excited. If even creatures from the Nine Heavens’ restricted region came, then that really would be an unprecedented distinguished meeting.

Hong!

Right at this time, waves of light surged from Jedefall Lake, rushing into the heavens. A sparkling green island emerged, surrounded by a curtain of light, preventing water from entering the island even when it was at the bottom of the lake.

There was an island in Jedefall Lake, now appearing!

For cultivators, islands floating in the sky or hidden beneath water weren't all that shocking. However, this island was a bit strange, suspected to be the remains of a True Immortal, an immortal previously residing here.

It was because now, they already couldn't find any cave dwellings, only some debris and verdant plant life remaining. However, it was still extremely captivating.

It was because strand after strand of immortal energy was released precisely from this island. It was rumored that even a piece of normal metal, when fiddled with by a True Immortal, could also be turned into treasure.

That was why because a True Immortal resided here, even if there wasn't anything left behind, there would still be an immortal aura pervading this place!

It was now time, the gathering of geniuses began.

Everyone got onto this island one after another. Without a doubt, the Five Spirits War Chariot attracted great attention. There was immediately a large group of people who circled over.

At the same time, Little Sky King, Great Xu Tuo, Tuogu Yulong and others also became the focal point of attention, surrounded by many people.

As for Wei Family's Four Phoenixes, there was even less of a need to say anything. Beautiful female cultivators were far more popular than men. There was a group of young heroes who converged here, enthusiastically calling out to them.

"There really are a lot of people..." The Heavenly Horned Ant said.

"Huh? It's you?!" When a cultivator saw the Heavenly Horned Ant, his face immediately became pale.

It was precisely the one who delivered the message, he still remembered how terrifying this little ant's way of talking was, even calling Immortal Wang a kid. If it really said something that crossed the line here, then it really would be beyond terrible.

"Ah, you came too, unlucky!" Just as he backed up, he saw Cao Yusheng, veins popping on his forehead. He turned around and immediately left, because he had been beaten up by Fatty Cao three days ago.

Jadefall Island was extremely beautiful, the green grass like a cushion, beautiful trees verdant and lush. Divine springs surged, wondrous medicines releasing multicolored light, medicinal fragrance assailing the nostrils, leaving one intoxicated.

"What are you all in a fluster for, you ran into me!" A youngster berated that 'messenger'.

"I'm sorry, just now..."

"Just now what?"

"People who didn't receive invitations also came." The messenger said. When he said this, he gave Fatty Cao a look.

"Who dares? Are you trying to make a disturbance in this distinguished gathering?" The purple-haired young man in charge of maintaining order immediately took large steps towards Cao Yusheng. When he arrived before him, he shouted, "You... leave, immediately!"

Cao Yusheng gave him a look of disdain, saying, "Are you looking for a beating? You dare holler at an esteemed guest? Open your dog eyes and take a look, what is this?" While speaking, he waved the invitation in his hands.

The one who came became suspicious, giving the messenger a look.

"Apologize to this old one. So what if I don't have an invitation? Can't you be a bit more polite? Apologize." Cao Yusheng said.

"He really doesn't have an invitation, that is someone else's!" The messenger said from not far away.

"Did you steal someone else's invitation?" The purple-haired young man who maintained order raised his voice.

In the surroundings, there were immediately quite some people who turned around, because the disturbance here became a bit bigger. Many people were shocked. There was actually someone who dared stir up trouble here?

"I didn't steal someone else's, it's my friend's." Cao Yusheng said.

"Doesn't matter, even if your friend didn't come, he still can't hand it to you. If you don't have an invitation, then you cannot ascend the island." The purple-haired youth was extremely strict, finding Cao Yusheng unsightly.

"Is that so? However, I saw that after Jin Zhan and Wang Xi arrived, there were others from Jin Family and Wang Family who came. I refuse to believe that one clan will receive two invitations." Cao Yusheng revealed a cold smile.

After he came, he saw that Jin Zhan's little uncle Jin Zhifei came, as well as another older cousin of Wang Xi's who came!

"You..." The purple-haired youth was a bit annoyed, because there were indeed quite a few people who came with a familiar person, moreover not just a few of them.

"Right, that old man, age already great, what young genius? You didn't chase him away, yet instead came to make noise here." Cao Yusheng pointed at Jin Zhifei, someone who had fought with Shi Hao not too long ago, the Jin Family expert who had his mount seized. He then said, "Do you not know that I am the number two supreme being of the present world younger generation? The one who will bury me is number one, while I am number two!"

While looking at his chattering appearance, the purple-haired youth laughed coldly and said, "Regardless, you are no good, cannot enter. You don't have the qualification!"

"Why can they enter?" Cao Yusheng pointed at Wang Family and Jin Family's people, as well as some other people who didn't have invitations.

“Can you compare to them? They are the heaven’s pride of long life families, the people they were brought by are enough to be sovereigns under the sky!” The purple-haired youngster ridiculed.

It was clear that the disturbance here was now great. This place became quiet, many people looking over.

“It’s... Fatty Cao!” Someone said quietly. There were cultivators from the Nine Heavens above who recognized him, knowing that he was close to Shi Hao. They felt like now that this fatty was provoked, Huang would definitely make an appearance.

“What qualification is needed?” Right at this time, Shi Hao walked over from the back, looking at the purple-haired young man in front of him.

At this time, a few people recognized him, for example, Great Xu Tuo, Exiled Immortal, protectors’ descendant Dugu Yun, Qi Gu, and others. They were all people who were familiar with him, right now nodding in his direction, sending their greetings.

“Who are you?” The purple-haired youth asked.

The messenger hurriedly rushed up, saying a few sentences quietly into his ear.

The purple-haired youth immediately widened his eyes, sucking in a cold breath of air. This was actually Huang, he was now personally dealing with him!

“There was some misunderstanding. Since Brother Shi came, then you can naturally bring a friend or two.” His revealed an awkward expression.

“Who really is that person?” Someone asked, feeling extremely dissatisfied.

Right at this time, a disturbance swept out. The owner of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong walked over. From far away, he said with a smile on his face, “Is this Brother Shi? I have been looking forward to meeting you for quite some time. To be able to meet now, it truly is a pleasure, a pleasure!”

Everyone was shocked. The inheritor of an unmatched being, Qi Hong, actually personally greeted this person, so polite to this delicate and handsome youth. It really left everyone shocked.

Not long ago, a group of people were welcoming Qi Hong, surrounding him, but now, he actually went to greet another.

“Turns out you are Huang. We met along the way! Your appearance is so delicate and pretty, but your battle accomplishments are so incredible. In our imaginations, we thought that you would have three heads six arms, leopard head and looped eyes.” Wei Family’s Four Phoenixes walked over, a young lady among them giggling.

Everyone was alarmed. Even the four genius young ladies came over to greet that young man, trying to gain his friendship, being this polite. Who exactly was he?

“Haha, Huang, someone who rose up through a single battle, killing ten foreign kings in Great Scarlet Sky Border, shocking the world under the sky, we finally meet today.” Long life family’s Tuogu Yulong walked over, his head of purple head scattering down, divine might surging as he walked over.

Even he came over, this naturally made everyone's minds tremble, faces pale.

At the same time, everyone finally knew who the one who came was. Tuogu Yulong spoke his name, it was Huang!

Shi Hao was surprised, not expecting these people to take the initiative to welcome him.

Long life Wei Family's Four Phoenixes were one thing, after all, there was no conflict of interests, but Qi Hong who owned the Five Spirits War Chariot clearly invited Jin Zhan to ride with him, while Tuoba Yulong's sister accompanied Wang Xi, quite close to each other, so why did they treat him with such courtesy now?

This place erupted with noise. The cultivators from the Nine Heavens naturally recognized Shi Hao, but many creatures in Imperial Pass had never met him before.

Now, they finally understood, seeing this person for themselves. All of their eyes burned, feeling shock and excitement.

"Heavens, he is that Huang! I came together with him, wasn't that far away. I never expected to have traveled most of the trip with him!"

"Brother Shi, this one truly feels great admiration for you! In Great Scarlet Sky's battle, you brought great glory to our side through slaughter, making everyone release a pent-up wave of resentment! I had always heard about you, but never met you, it truly is a fortunate encounter today!"

Large amounts of people surrounded over, so cramped not a drop of water could trickle through. It was extremely noisy. There were even more so some young ladies whose eyes burned with passion, staring at Shi Hao.

Imperial Pass was located at the very front of this realm, constantly facing the threat of the other side. No one understood how terrifying the creatures of that side were than them. Continuously killing ten kings, for them, it was simply a legend!

This place erupted with noise, many cultivators surrounding over.

Of course, not everyone called out so enthusiastically, for example, Jin Zhan sat there, not moving the entire time, or Wang Xi, her white clothes purer than snow, extremely cold, never giving Shi Hao a look.

There were some others, for example, Six Crown King Ning Chuan and others who didn't say anything.

Chapter 1403 - Ought to Be Punished

Huang's identity was revealed, triggered a commotion!

Large amounts of youngsters gathered, many of them grew up in Imperial Pass, never left before, so this was the first time they saw Shi Hao.

"Brother Huang, shocking Desolate Border through a single battle! Even though we were born in Imperial Pass, it is shameful to say that we spent all this time cultivating, never fighting with the well-known people of the other side. However, we've also heard about how strong they are. Through that battle you proved yourself to be stunning under the sky after all, worthy of admiration!" Someone said, extremely sincere, not exaggerating his praise.

It was hard for Shi Hao to move his feet even if he wanted to. There were figures everywhere, surrounding him, men and women included, but they all had a common trait, which was that they were surging with youthfulness, currently in their golden years.

There were some people who asked about the details of that battle, some people trying to become friends with him. It was extremely enthusiastic, filling this place with noise.

"Wa, this little ant is the legendary Heavenly Horned Ant? It is entirely golden, eyes so big, it's so cute!" A little girl widened her beautiful eyes, looking at the ant on Shi Hao's shoulder.

This drew many people's attention, all of them staring at the Heavenly Horned Ant. novE.lB-1n

"It is too cute! Golden, brilliant, tiger head tiger brain[1], so charming!" That little girl said. She was only eleven or twelve years of age, not yet matured. The reason she was able to come here was definitely because her clan's older brothers or sisters brought her in.

Many people were speechless. This was but the child of a Vicious Ten, possessing incredible combat strength! Once it went crazy, it would be difficult for others of the same level to keep him in check. It had an unmatched bloodline.

As for the Heavenly Horned Ant himself, dark lines appeared on his forehead. Being called 'cute' by others really pissed him off, making him want to headbutt that girl. When he heard that he was called tiger head tiger brain, the lines of his face became even darker. He couldn't help but cry out, saying, "Tiger, what is that? What part resembles this king? If you compared me to a True Dragon, then I would've just admitted it."

Apart from the little girl who laughed happily like a blooming flower, no one else dared laugh. This was the child of a Vicious Ten, True Immortal bloodline, his origins too terrifying.

It still hadn't grown up, but once it did, only heaven knew how terrifying it would become.

There was someone who said quietly, "I heard that during Immortal Ancient War, there were some true immortals who tried to preserve a bloodline, but they all failed. There were only a few individuals who remained, but they were all injured."

Back then, the foreign side destroyed root and branch, not leaving anything behind wherever they went.

That was truly a dark period. The inheritances of True Immortals were severed, heirs wiped out, the few that did survive had problems, injured to the extent where they couldn't appear in the world normally, their conditions grave.

Later now, those True Immortal bloodlines were either sealed into primal chaos or sent into heaven and earth natural luck areas' ancestral veins, but it was still ineffective, almost all of them dying out.

They couldn't even live long enough to correct their descendants' problems!

"The bloodline left behind by the Heavenly Horned Ant is extremely sturdy, without any problems."

Everyone could only release a sigh.

“Back then, Heavenly Horned Ant Great One’s fighting strength directly caught up to an Immortal King, truly formidable, able to retain an heir through that dark era.”

In reality, the truth was far more cruel than they imagined. Shi Hao had previously visited the little ant’s place of birth, seeing the ruined imprint that great one left behind.

The Vicious Ten’s Heavenly Horned Ant paid a tremendous price for the little ant to live. If not for all of the care he put in, using all the methods he could, how could there be the current golden little ant?

A Heavenly Horned Ant followed at Huang’s side, this left many people envious. If they waited until this ant grew up, then it could definitely protect a clan, allow it to prosper.

Of course, this was on the premise that the other side didn’t break through Imperial Pass.

“Brother Huang’s luck is so great, compared to you, our mounts, auspicious beasts and divine birds are too inferior.” Someone said.

“What are you trying to say?” The golden little ant didn’t want to hear this. His eyes immediately lit up, the relationship he had with Shi Hao was definitely not one of master and servant.

That person was immediately alarmed, knowing that he spoke out of place. How could the descendant of a Vicious Ten be willing to serve as the battle beast of another? There would only be others chasing after them.

“My relationship with him is that of brothers.” Shi Hao said.

“Brother Huang, honorable little brother Heavenly Horned Ant, please, this way.” The owner of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong smiled, resolving the awkwardness, inviting them into seats of honor.

The seats here were tastefully chosen, there weren’t many seats at the very center. Shi Hao was directly invited here.

At the same time, Cao Yusheng was also invited over, arranged to sit here.

Just now, Cao Fatty was in quite a miserable situation, squeezed out by others until he was nowhere to be seen. It was because there were many cultivators here, all of them coming for Huang, surrounding him.

Of course, now, his treatment was completely different. When everyone realized that he was Shi Hao’s brother, they all greeted him.

Heng! Someone released a cold snort, feeling dissatisfaction towards the Five Spirits War Chariot’s owner Qi Hong’s courteous reception of Shi Hao.

Cao Yusheng turned around, seeing Jin Zhifei’s ice-cold gaze. The cold snort just now was released precisely by him.

“Who is he?” Cao Yusheng asked, pretending to not know him.

“Jin Zhan’s little uncle, his name is Jin Zhifei, a heaven warping figure!” Someone informed him quietly.

“Younger generation, asking about my origins, are you trying to challenge me?” Jin Zhifei swept a look of disdain over, looking down on him. Then, he gave Shi Hao another look, killing intent swirling, only restraining himself after a long time passed.

It could be said that he was extremely domineering and brash, not hiding it at all, opposing Shi Hao’s group openly and without fear. He really wanted to force them to immediately take action.

“Who is this old man? Didn’t we say that this was a distinguished gathering between the younger generation? Why did this old thing get mixed in? Really is uncoordinated!”

It had to be said that Cao Yusheng’s mouth was vicious. It was because Jin Zhifei wasn’t even forty years of age, even though this wasn’t that young, he definitely wasn’t old.

Fatty Cao immediately labeled him as an old man when he opened his mouth, this really wasn’t upright and sincere, undisguised mockery.

“Younger generation, you...” Jin Zhifei slapped the table and stood up, raising his hand to grab towards Cao Yusheng.

Everyone was shocked. Was he going to take action here? This was a distinguished meeting, yet a great battle was actually about to erupt as soon as it began!

Not far out, Jin Zhan also stood up, but he didn’t show any intent to interfere, only watching his own little uncle out of fear that something unexpected might happen.

Wang Xi’s eyes also finally moved in Shi Hao and the little ant’s direction. Meanwhile, Six Crown King Ning Chuan and the others watched with the cool eye of a bystander, still not expressing anything.

“Brother Jin, taking action here isn’t too good, right?” Qi Hong stood up, standing in the way.

This left many people shocked. Not long ago, he came together with Jin Zhan in the Five Spirits War Chariot, so everyone thought that he was close to Jin Family. They never expected that he would be the first to step out.

Qi Hong was twenty something years old, while Jin Zhifei was more than thirty, moreover Jin Zhan’s little uncle, yet Qi Hong only called him Brother Jin, clearly not seeing him as an older generation figure.

“Brother Jin, we are holding a gathering this time, not to face each other with arms, move spears here.” Tuogu Family’s True Dragon, Tuogu Yulong spoke up, also stopping him.

This left everyone shocked. The two young experts actually both expressed this type of standpoint, clearly protecting Huang and the others.

“You dare target my friends in front of my face?!” Shi Hao walked out, facing Jin Zhifei, his eyes erupting with divine radiance, as if lightning fired out.

Everyone was given a fright. Even Huang moved, was there going to be a battle?

Cao Yusheng knew who Jin Zhifei was, so opposing him with equal harshness could be considered protesting in Shi Hao’s place. Right now, Shi Hao naturally wouldn’t let the other party threaten him.

“Huang, what do you count as, daring to have this type of stance before me?!” Jin Zhifei said coldly.

He found it hard to let go of what had been bothering him this entire time. He originally wouldn't come here, just that he heard Shi Hao was going to come, and that was why he came. He unexpectedly suffered a defeat in the primordial spirit great battle last time, filling him with unwillingness, feeling a sense of humiliation. He really wanted to fight again, suppress Huang.

It could be said that the main reason he came was to fight Shi Hao, to stir things up when there was nothing.

"You were already defeated before, yet you still dare act fierce." Shi Hao played the situation down. The more the other party shouted, the more calmly he faced this.

"You, do you dare fight?!" Jin Zhifei challenged, shouting here.

Not far out, Jin Zhan's expression was serious, walking over, standing behind his own little uncle. Even though he didn't say anything, this move was still a type of declaration of where he stood.

Wang Xi also walked over, not saying anything, standing at their side.

Jin Family and Wang Family, were they expressing a type of attitude? Not getting along with Shi Hao, standing against him! This made it hard for many people to calm down, leaving them shaken.

"You already lost." Shi Hao said indifferently.

"If we carry out a true confrontation, I will suppress you with a single hand!" Jin Zhifei said coldly.

"This kid is beyond help, only knowing how to brag. Because he already lost, now he's going crazy." The golden little ant shook his head, commenting like this.

Everyone was speechless. This bean-sized little ant even dared call someone else a kid? This was looking down on others too much!

"Old man, do you have any sense of shame? Already so old, yet you still dare to hatefully challenge a younger generation, why don't you go look for a piece of tofu to knock over?!" Cao Yusheng spoke up, his mouth still just that crafty.

Everyone didn't know whether to laugh or cry. They all felt that it really was unlucky for Jin Zhifei to run into the little ant and Cao Yusheng, called an old man by one of them, and then looked down on like a kid by the other, it really was tragic.

"Senior Jin, the gathering isn't for resolving grudges. If you feel dissatisfaction towards Brother Shi, you can set up a battle in the future, why is there a need to point swords here?"

A young lady from Wei Family's Four Phoenixes spoke up, expression becoming slightly cold.

The youngsters from Imperial Pass with some authority spoke up one after another, all of them subtly partial towards Huang.

Jin Zhifei's eyes were cold. He nodded towards Qi Hong, Tuoba Yulong and Wei Family's Four Phoenixes, and then said, "This gathering is for discussing the dao, so I wish to have a go with Huang. However, I know that this leaves everyone quite troubled, so I will leave this for another day."

After speaking, he turned around and left.

In the distance, beast roars sounded. Four golden divine beasts pulled a war chariot, entering Jadedfall Lake, moreover ascending the island, stopping before Jin Zhifei.

"Eighth Uncle is leaving just like this?" A youngster jumped off the war chariot, filled with unwillingness. He had red lips and white teeth, extremely attractive and intelligent. However, when he looked towards Shi Hao, his gaze was extremely unkind.

"Master, are we leaving just like this? Weren't you going to tidy up that brat?" A battle servant descended from the war chariot, speaking softly to Jin Zhifei.

"He didn't accept the challenge." Jin Zhifei said coldly.

"Huang, are you scared of Eighth Uncle? If you have the guts, then come and fight, or else you are a coward, just get lost from Imperial Pass!" The handsome young man shouted.

This made everyone's expressions change. This disciple from Jin Family crossed the line, they could tell that he is the spoiled type from a single look, relying on the family's power to throw his weight around.

Even daring to berate Huang, moreover with such nasty words, this youngster clearly incurred everyone's disgust.

"We're leaving!" Jin Zhifei said. Even though he didn't want him to act too unbridled here, he didn't lecture this youngster either.

"Huang, you really are cowardly and shameful, actually not even daring to fight, it is better if you just get lost from Imperial Pass sooner!" When the youngster left, he laughed complacently.

"Truly unsightly, lacking the bravery to even fight a battle." That battle servant also said.

Towards this, Jin Zhifei didn't express anything, only ascending onto that war chariot.

Haha... That youngster laughed brashly.

Hong!

Suddenly, everyone felt a suffocating pressure, their hearts in pain, as if a True Immortal took action, crushing the heaven and earth until it trembled, rumbling with noise. It made everyone's souls shake endlessly!

"Stay your hand!" Jin Zhan who hadn't spoken up all this time shouted, wishing to prevent this attack.

Everyone saw that Shi Hao raised his hand, slapping towards that war chariot. His golden hand was large like a house, crushing the void, rumbling with noise.

Pa!

"Ah..." That handsome young man released a miserable cry, breaking to pieces, quickly dying. His face was full of horror before death, looking at Shi Hao, not daring to believe that the other party would directly take action.

Pu!

At the same time, that battle servant was also struck by the golden palm, unable to resist at all, directly exploding into bloody mist.

"I won't issue senseless challenges, will only directly kill." Shi Hao said indifferently.

Everyone was greatly alarmed. Huang was powerful beyond compare after all, taking action just like this in front of Jin Zhan and Jin Zhifei, wiping out someone of direct descent from their clan.

"You dare?" Jin Zhifei was furious, jumping off the war chariot.

"Why wouldn't I? This is a distinguished meeting, how can any random person come and speak foolishly? If we let this go, what'll be next? They ought to be punished!" Shi Hao said.

Chapter 1404 - Challenge

"You dare take action, kill my people?!" Jin Zhifei's hair flew about. With a hu sound, crazy winds swept about, an eruption of power!

Right now, he was like a javelin, rushing over like a streak of lightning. He landed with a peng sound, making the hard diamond-like rock explode, rubble flying everywhere.

Shi Hao killed two people before everyone's faces, his expression calm as he replied in a simple and direct manner, "You think you are anyone special?"

"I am going to kill you today!" Jin Zhifei's expression was gloomy. His entire body shone, endless streaks of blazing divine radiance shooting out from his pores, resplendent like a blazing sun.

"Didn't you want to take action against me this entire time, looking for so many excuses, now, I'll give you the chance! You can stop acting so hypocritical!" Shi Hao said coldly.

"Halt!" Qi Hong rushed up, standing between the two, not allowing them to fight a great battle.

"Qi Family's little brother, walk aside, don't protect him. Today, I have to execute this fierce creature!" Jin Zhifei's eyes were treacherous, killing intent fully revealed as he stepped forward.

"You speak as if you could look down on all beneath the heavens, unmatched in this world, but in reality, you aren't worth shit! Last time, weren't you beaten until you vomited blood, obediently offering up your mount, fleeing in defeat? What is your display of loftiness now worth?!" Cao Yusheng ridiculed.

"Why are you behaving so ostentatiously? You aren't enough, be careful not to be directly beaten up!" The golden little ant also spoke coldly.

Today, they were already bullied to this extent. Even a later generation of Jin Family dared provoke him, even a servant daring to berate Shi Hao, this truly was going too far!

After incurring hatred with Shi Hao, Jin Zhifei clearly wanted to kill him, looking for trouble from the very start, continuously challenging him, the grudges undissolvable.

That was why even when a servant and a younger generation from Jin Family climbed over Shi Hao's head, he didn't show any mercy, directly killing them! It was because both sides were fated to be enemies, there wasn't much to be said.

"Good, good, good! Since you all already spoken like this, if I don't take action, don't subdue you, I really would be letting everyone down!" Jin Zhifei shouted, his eyes vicious, killing intent surging into the heavens.

At the same time, Jin Zhan also walked up, standing behind his clan uncle, expression cold. He stared at Shi Hao, his stance firm, just like Jin Zhifei.

"Huang, you are too unbridled, do you think my Jin Family is easy to bully? Killing a clan brother of mine, this grudge has to be paid with blood. Do you want to be captured, or do you want us to take action?!" Jin Zhan spoke out, his words forceful.

The atmosphere here immediately became tense. Everyone's minds were shaken, not expecting things to develop like this.

"Your Jin Family is too full of shit, stop hiding around already, who here doesn't know that you came precisely for Shi Hao? What are you all trying to sound pompous now for, shameless!" Cao Yusheng said.

"Already decided to be enemies, standing against us, yet still want to sound elegant and classy? If you all aren't willing, then you kids can just come at us!" The Heavenly Horned Ant was even more direct.

"I am standing right here. If you want to take action, then come!" Shi Hao was still without fear, his eyes like golden lightning, intimidating and powerful.

Everyone on Jedefall Island shivered inwardly. The gathering had just begun, yet there was already this type of situation, directly about to decide life and death, a great battle between giants developing.

Only, there were some people who didn't wish to see a battle to the death, not willing to see a dispute here.

The owner of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong, Tuogu Family's True Dragon Tuogu Yulong and Wei Family's Four Phoenixes all walked forward, separating them.

"This distinguished meeting, if it ended in chaos because of a dispute, then it truly wouldn't be good. I feel like both of you can take a step back. Do not point weapons this day." Tuogu Yulong said.

"Brother Tuogu, this is where you are wrong, you are clearly siding with one party." Wang Xi walked over, her figure elegant, snow-white clothes untainted by impurities, entire being elegant and refined.

She had previously came on Tuogu Family's Lightning War Chariot, both sides clearly having intimate relations, but now, this didn't seem to be the case.

"I speak the truth. Regardless, we managed to have a rare gathering of fellow daoists, so we should be joyfully discussing the dao. How can we face each other with life or death, with hatred?" Tuogu Yulong said.

Wang Xi carried an indifferent smile on her face, lacking warmth, a bit cold. She walked over and said, "Regardless, this person acted viciously here, killing an important disciple of Jin Family, also killing a servant, this is reality. Meanwhile, there are rules in Imperial Pass that one cannot randomly act violently, those who violate this are committing serious crimes, must pay with their lives, to the extent where it might involve an entire clan!"

When everyone heard this, they all sucked in a cold breath of air. This woman was so beautiful, white clothes flawless, yet she was so decisive and ruthless. This was to have Huang die here, even involving all of Stone Clan.

At first, no one cared too much, because Jin Family's disciples had gone too far, humiliating a cultivator who brought back great contributions, killing ten kings, their words vile. After they were killed, many people even inwardly clapped their hands in joy.

However, now that they thought about it, the result really was troublesome. Wang Xi stepped out, directly bringing out the city's regulations, placing Shi Hao in danger.

"I recall that if one side deliberately provokes, targets, and humiliates another, issuing a challenge, they ought to be executed. This situation is included in this, so there is no crime to speak of." Shi Hao said calmly.

"Correct, there is this saying." A young lady from Wei Family's Four Phoenixes nodded.

"Since you all took the initiative to provoke him, continuously angering him with your words, wishing for Huang to take action, then he satisfied your desires. They deserved to be killed!" Cao Yusheng was not polite at all.

"Everyone here attest as witnesses that just now, it was that old kid who confronted Shi Hao!" The golden little ant pointed at Jin Zhifei, making the face of the latter immediately darken.

Old man, kid, in the end, even becoming old kid, Jin Zhifei had been called too many things today, making him erupt with anger. n(-0Veb1n

"Moreover, that little bastard kid clearly demanded Shi Hao to fight against the old kid, humiliating him, this type of person being killed, in my opinion, completely deserved it!" The Heavenly Horned Ant added.

In that instant, Wang Xi's expression became cold.

Jin Zhan's sword eyebrows stood on end, eyes surging with killing intent. Meanwhile, Jin Zhifei's expression became ashen, wishing to immediately act out.

"Then based on the regulations, now that Huang killed an important disciple from Jin Family, this can be considered provocation, as well as fighting against the Jin Family. Both sides have to fight it out!" Wang Xi said.

"Correct, since people already died, then the battle has become a thing, so let's just continue then!" Jin Zhifei said coldly.

Tuogu Yulong, Qi Hong, and the Four Phoenixes stopped them again, wishing to advise against it. However, at this time, Shi Hao already walked up himself, laughing loudly, accepting the challenge.

"Since you want a fight, then I'll accompany you. Just come at me!" Shi Hao said.

Discussions immediately erupted here, this place becoming noisy, all of their eyes blazing with light, staring forward.

One had to know that these two were both unordinary. There was no need to talk about Huang, there was no one who didn't know about him now. Right now, many people wanted to see just how extraordinary he was, just how he killed ten kings alone.

Meanwhile, Jin Zhifei was a recently famous well-known genius, only thirty something, yet already entering the Self Release Realm, having heaven warping talents.

"Good, I was waiting for this line from you. I can finally take action! Today, I will suppress you!" Jin Zhifei roared with laughter, arrogant and in high spirits.

"Old thing, did you forget about your defeat not too long ago?"

"Kid, you forgot about the pain after your scars healed?!"

Cao Yusheng and the Heavenly Horned Ant spoke up one after another.

It could be said that Jin Zhifei was feeling completely elated, but his mood was immediately ruined by these two lines.

"There's no rush, one at a time. Once I subdue Huang, I'll settle things with you all!" Jin Zhifei said.

A great battle was on the verge of erupting. Now, Tuogu Yulong, Qi Hong, and the others no longer stopped them, allowing them to face each other.

"There was previously an ancient immortal dwelling in Jedefall Island, having some places that are quite special. You can fight the decisive battle on Jedefall Island's dao platform, this place won't be destroyed then." One of the Four Phoenixes said.

Jedefall Dao Arena, it was extremely massive, one could see it even from far away. It was like a broken mountain, the surface smooth, extremely sleek.

It was rumored that this was originally a heaven reaching mountain, but it was cut down, a 'tree stump' like portion left behind. There was an ancient immortal who was secluded here year-round, which was why as time went on, this place gradually became divine.

Even though it was still a mountain, it was already sturdy and unbreaking, difficult to destroy.

Even though the ancient immortal had long left, not in this world, it was still incredibly sturdy, difficult for weapons to damage.

"Is you alone enough? Why don't I allow you to look for helpers?" Before arriving to this dao arena, Shi Hao calmly asked.

Since the other party continuously acted insolently, provoking him again and again, wishing to kill him, Shi Hao felt like there was no need to act polite or kind. He directly mocked the other party here.

"Look, your Jin Family and Wang Family are joining by marriage, so why don't your two families join up right now? I'll receive you all at the same time, all three of you can come up together!" Shi Hao said.

He swept his eyes past Jin Zhifei, Jin Zhan, and then at Wang Xi, about to fight all three head-on.

Jin Zhan's expression was cold. He was praised as the Pride of Heaven of this generation, at the very forefront of the present world methods, forging a cultivation path while at a cliff, achieving all types of magnificent feats. Who dared look down on him?

However now, Huang instead wanted them to join hands, treating them with such disdain, making his expression turn ugly.

Wang Xi's red lips were tightly pursed, not saying a word.

"Younger generation, you can just hand over your life!" Jin Zhifei said coldly, throwing himself at Shi Hao.

"Old thing, I'll send you on your way!" Shi Hao said, facing him.

Chapter 1405 - Heavenly Tribulation Ruler

Jin Zhifei's eyes were like blades, a streak of lightning firing out as soon as he opened his mouth. With a wave of his hand, precious light erupted, condensing into a Yazi. It opened its bloody mouth, throwing itself towards Shi Hao.

Then, the space between his brows also shone, revealing a sword imprint. It was scarlet red like blood, turning into a killing sword, hacking down. Sword radiance immediately surged!

This was only the beginning, yet he already used three types of precious techniques, attacking Shi Hao!

Everyone backed up, not daring to approach.

"Please get on the dao platform, you cannot fight below!" Tuogu Yulong shouted.

The disciples inside Imperial Pass all carried sentiments towards Jedefall Island. They were born in the pass, grew up in the pass, and this was a rare place with True Immortal remains, suspected to be intimately tied to their ancestors.

Hong! n(-0Velb1n

Shi Hao was simple and direct, his hands forming imprints, producing the Lightning Emperor Precious Techniques. Dark clouds surged in the sky, water vapor rising, creating a large black expanse.

Moreover, during this process, he rose up, continuously forming imprints, making the lightning technique more and more vast!

The Lightning Emperor Divine Ability was unimaginable, especially when it merged with great natural force, now even more terrifying. When it reached its peak, it directly linked up with heavenly tribulation!

Honglonglong!

Lightning radiance erupted, surging towards Jin Zhifei.

Both sides had lightning, yet they were different.

Hong!

Lightning interweaved, the blazing light dazzling, continuously blasting outwards and then dying out.

“Younger generation, you only have this bit of methods? I’ll send you to the next life!” Jin Zhifei laughed coldly. His power immediately surged, divine might erupting, becoming stronger than before.

The lightning he sprayed out from his mouth became even more powerful. The Yazi his right hand produced was incomparably valiant, becoming as large as a mountain, immediately opening its mouth to devour Shi Hao. At the same time, the scarlet sword imprint became increasingly astonishing, as if an immortal sword was rumbling.

Xiu!

After this attack, Shi Hao rose to the air, arriving on the magnificent dao platform, landing there. His hands still continuously formed imprints.

He didn’t give up on the Lightning Emperor Method, instead pushing it even further, summoning clouds from all directions, gathering endless lightning, forming a storm in the sky.

Everyone was shocked. These methods were extremely terrifying.

In that instant, powerful winds swept about, sand and stones flying everywhere. Lightning element was gathered here between heaven and earth, rumbling with noise, the sounds deafening.

Back then, Shi Hao had previously fought against Celestial Clan’s true deities, using a lower cultivation realm to display a special method of the Lightning Emperor Precious Technique, joining the power of heaven and earth, producing thunder that was like heavenly tribulation, truly exceeding cultivation realms and killing enemies!

Now, what he used was precisely this type of great killing method!

Hong!

Howling winds swept about, torrential rain poured down, lightning like a sea, immediately engulfing the world, facing Jin Zhifei’s three types of precious techniques.

Dark clouds hung low to the ground, pouring down rain, all of them becoming lightning daggers. In that instant, it was just too terrifying, this entire heaven and earth as if controlled by Shi Hao.

Crazy winds also turned into electrical arcs, blood boundless. A red whirlwind roared about, ravaging the earth.

Jin Zhifei’s expression changed. He originally thought that he could directly suppress Shi Hao through the Self Severing Realm cultivation, never expecting that he would display this type of secret method. This wasn’t a person’s power, it also included the might of the universe!

It was because right now, there was a bit of heavenly tribulation feeling.

Jin Zhifei really began to wonder if a true heavenly tribulation would descend afterwards, smash down onto him.

“This is a bit terrifying... to use the Lightning Emperor Precious Technique to this level, if one day, he can call down heavenly tribulation at will, then wouldn’t that make him the ruler of the universe?”

There were some people who said quietly. If one reached that step, couldn't he make one face tribulation whenever he pleased? Wiping out a group of enemies would be merely a passing thought!

"It is rumored that the Lightning Emperor was able to do this back then, grasping the fates of many creatures. However, despite this being the case, he was still killed in battle in the end!" Someone said with a sigh.

Hong!

An intense explosion erupted. The lightning Jin Zhifei released from his mouth merged into Shi Hao's sea of lightning, becoming its nourishment.

As for the Yazi that was produced by his right hand, it was drowned under the sea of lightning, struck by the rain that turned into lightning blades, its entire body scorched black, angry roars endless.

Peng!

It was extremely terrifying. The Yazi produced by a Self Severing Realm expert was forcibly blasted to death by lightning, turned into charred coal, and then broken down into bone texts, ultimately exploding.

Zheng zheng zheng!

Sword cries rose and fell. Light beams overflowed from the space between Jin Zhifei's brows, scarlet red like blood. The small sword there continuously shook, hacking out ten thousand streaks of sword radiance.

However, after suffering from the lightning, all of the sword energy was also blocked, couldn't go forward. Then, they shattered.

Everyone sucked in a cold breath of air. Just how terrifying was Huang's fighting strength? One had to understand that he was an entire great cultivation realm lower than Jin Zhifei, yet he could actually compete in strength like this.

"Lightning Emperor Precious Technique!" In the distance, someone said softly, eyes flourishing with light.

"Kill!"

Jin Zhifei shouted out, a small crimson sword flying out from the space between his brows, immediately entering a sea of lightning, turning into blazing killing light, hacking towards Shi Hao.

This was a vicious weapon, definitely not as simple as the Self Severing Realm!

Hong!

The void collapsed, completely severed by that sword, even the lightning like this, hacked apart. A spatial passage was sliced open in the void.

Chi!

The blood magical sword was like immortal light, undying throughout endless time, arriving forward, directly wishing to take Shi Hao's head.

"So what if it's the Lightning Emperor Precious Technique? Your cultivation isn't enough, what can you do to me?!" Jin Zhifei shouted.

He rushed over. Meanwhile, the blood sword became even more resplendent, crushing the lightning, about to kill Shi Hao.

Qiang!

Right at this time, a draconic cry sounded. Shi Hao pulled out the Everlasting Sword Core, not holding back at all, brandishing it at full strength, cutting at the blood-colored divine sword.

Everyone only saw a shining white expanse erupt, as if someone was ascending to immortality, and then this place became dim.

That was the Everlasting Sword Core, on it special symbols, a human creature ascending to immortality engraved on it. Light specks flickered about, mist pervading the air. At this time, the sword core displayed might, this symbol appearing, dazzling like a True Immortal as it rose up, blinding everyone's eyes.

Together with the lightning flickering outside, many people couldn't even see clearly.

Kacha!

The blood-colored divine sword was hacked through. It was originally a terrifying vicious weapon, but at this moment, it broke into two pieces, landing on the ground.

The Everlasting Sword Core never displayed shocking killing intent, but if a powerful enough weapon attacked it, it would automatically retaliate, strike back.

"You..." Jin Zhifei was alarmed. An extremely important precious artifact of his was destroyed just like that.

Shi Hao put away the sword core, fighting against him bare-handedly, using precious techniques.

"Lightning is ineffective against me!" Jin Zhifei laughed coldly, throwing himself over. He crossed the lightning, because he could tell that heavenly tribulation hadn't appeared.

Chi!

At the same time, Jin Zhifei activated a type of special ancient method. The outside of his body was bathed in a layer of golden light, divine and dignified, both hands merging together, hacking forward.

"This is Jin Family's extreme art, an immortal dao magical imprint!" Someone said with shock.

Jin Family had produced a True Immortal before, how could an unmatched divine ability be lacking among the inheritances that were passed down? Now, he displayed it, wishing to directly wipe out Shi Hao.

Right now, golden light flowed. It was as if a set of armor was applied to the outside of Jin Zhifei's body, unbreakable. When his hands merged, it was as if immortal mountains smashed together, erupting with endless light.

That place was too brilliant, as he moved forward, lightning was scattered even more, forced back.

Hong!

This immortal dao magical imprint was too domineering, splitting the skies, making primal chaos erupt. It surrounded Shi Hao beneath, about to crush him to death.

"You are a cultivation realm inferior, dao far from being enough, how could you contend against me? Suppress and kill!" Jin Zhifei shouted.

Sure enough, when the lightning scattered, it was as if Shi Hao was completely unprotected. He directly rushed over.

"Six Dao Reincarnations!"

Shi Hao used the ancient heavenly art, not holding back, displaying it here.

"Supreme Hall's extreme art!" Someone said quietly, inwardly shaken.

Honglonglong!

Fighting the strong as the weak, after Shi Hao displayed the ancient heavenly art, he tore through the sky dome, time fragments flying about. Six gates opened, about to swallow up Jin Zhifei inside.

"Break for me!"

Jin Zhifei roared, his hands merging together. Immortal dao aura pervaded the air. This was a precious technique established by a True Immortal, behind him, there was actually a giant figure that appeared, precious appearance dignified, about to suppress and kill Shi Hao with Jin Zhifei.

Then, he continuously changed. The magical imprint was massive, blasting apart the heavenly dome, transforming the immortal dao method into an ancient heavenly art!

"Jin Family's ancient heavenly art, Vajra Immortal Heavenly Art" Tuogu Yulong said with a light sigh, feeling deep shock towards this extreme art.

Jin Zhifei was like a great guardian deity, body shining, as if cast from golden, power unstoppable. Apart from this, his figure also became more concentrated, as if a vajra immortal was reviving, about to sweep through all enemies in this world!

The two types of ancient heavenly arts smashed together, erupting with heaven overflowing energy.

The vajra immortal behind Jin Zhifei took a step, overlooking all things, showing disdain to the world, wishing to tear apart the six dao reincarnations door. It allowed the fragments of time to hack at him, remaining unbreaking.

It was just too terrifying, many people's fine hairs standing on end. Was this the inheritance of a True Immortal? The methods that were established were too terrifying.

Hong!

An explosion sounded, the six dao reincarnation gates disappearing.

At the same time, the vajra immortal was also blasted apart, turning into waves of energy, becoming symbols, and then scattering.

This type of attack was too terrifying, heaven and earth shaking intensely, as if they were going to be destroyed as well.

Shi Hao flew outwards, coughing out large mouthfuls of blood. He was injured.

However, no one felt that he was weak, all of them instead extremely shocked. He was actually fighting against a Self Severing Realm genius with a lower cultivation realm, yet he endured the other side's attack.

On the other side, Jin Zhifei also stepped backwards, blood flowing out from the corners of his lips, dripping down, his expression complicated. He was a heaven warping figure, grew up while bathed in divine glory. He understood well how great of a difference a great cultivation realm was, but right now, the other party actually didn't die from this attack of his!

This was especially the case when he used the clan's sect protecting extreme art, the Vajra Immortal Heavenly Art, yet it still couldn't kill his opponent.

"Supreme Hall is mysterious and terrifying after all, this bloodline's heavenly art is more powerful than Vajra Immortal Ancient Heavenly Art, or else how could Huang fight the strong as the weak?" Someone said with a sigh.

"You are wrong, it is Huang who is strong enough himself. What is unmatched is not the method, but the person!" There was another who disagreed.

"Next time, there won't be anything unexpected. It is time to end this. Suppress and kill!" Jin Zhifei shouted, preparing to use his family's supreme extreme art again, the Vajra Immortal Heavenly Art.

"You're right, next time, nothing unexpected will happen. It is time to end things!" Shi Hao also said.

Jin Zhifei's pupils contracted, becoming on guard. However, he still had confidence, shouting, "Self Severing Realm, can even sever the true self! Let alone some external enemy or thing, all of it can die! All methods, all creatures, everything will be destroyed, old foes, present world enemies, everything will disappear!"

He roared out, aura devouring mountains and rivers, pushing the Vajra Immortal Ancient Heavenly Art to the extreme. Golden light suddenly erupted, as if he was an undying great guardian deity, magical force shocking the world as he rushed at Shi Hao.

Hong!

However, immediately afterwards, regardless of whether it was the ground or the sky, lightning covered everything, interweaving here densely.

Shi Hao stood at the center, impervious to all methods, bathing in terrifying lightning radiance, towering like a solitary immortal, aloof and otherworldly, spiritual and fleeting.

“Little uncle, not good, he comprehended the Lightning Emperor’s highest profound mysterious, producing a heavenly tribulation, producing it based on your magical body! Hurry and retreat!” Jin Zhan roared out, feeling a bit anxious.

Everyone was stupefied. There really was someone who could bring about heavenly tribulation?

This... was too terrifying. If one grasped this method, who would be able to match them under the sky? Everyone would be blasted to death!

Chapter 1406 - Control the Heavens

Grasping lightning tribulation, just how inconceivable of a thing was this?

That was the power of nature, force of heaven, immeasurable. It was as if a sword of death was raised high up above the head of a cultivator, once it descended, it would most likely cut them down!

Now, there was someone who was urging it, trying to trigger heavenly tribulation!

This was definitely a great matter, leaving everyone horrified. This was simply the embodiment of the ruler of the world! By grasping heavenly punishment, the creatures of this world could all be controlled.

“Impossible, I don’t believe it!” Jin Zhifei said with a sunken voice. He formed imprints, entire body shining, as if he was covered in divine gold, raising his condition to the absolute peak.

Kacha!

Above Shi Hao’s head, lightning poured down like a waterfall, making Shi Hao’s area appear mysterious. Wisps of primal chaos swirled about, an utterly terrifying scene produced.

Then, lightning swept about like boundless waves, illuminating the heavenly dome, especially brilliant!

Shi Hao stood in the sea of lightning, his entire being looking like a war immortal. There was a wave of austere might in the air as well, his head of dark long black hair soaked in lightning, becoming a light golden. His appearance became more and more imposing, as if a distant giant was rising up, one who possessed incomparable fighting strength.

“Putting on such a display, even someone like you thinks he can grasp lightning tribulation, as if you can be the spokesperson for the lord of the cosmos? Die!” Jin Zhifei roared out.

His arms moved, golden light even more so flourishing on the surface of his body, turning into an angry vajra. Immortal dao aura pervaded the air, as if there was a great vajra immortal reviving, appearing in this world again!

“Revive! The immortal blood of my ancestors that flow through my body, stir on the unmatched immortal dao magical imprint. You are eternally within my blood, please kill all of the enemies!”

Jin Zhifei released a low roar, his voice as if originating from the underworld, extremely strange, as if he was chanting an ancient curse, summoning a creature.

Even though he said he didn't believe Shi Hao could control heavenly tribulation, he was still shaken up inside, not looking down on the other party at all, instead attaching great importance to him, even using his clan's restricted power.

Hou...

The guardian deity roared. Many specks of light shone in Jin Zhifei's body, linking up together, as if an ancient immortal was rising up from the dead, releasing endless light, accompanied by a mysterious rain of brilliance.

"Go to hell!" Jin Zhifei shouted, using everything he had, summoning this wave of power, using the most terrifying magical imprint to attack Shi Hao.

Everyone held their breaths. This battle had reached its crucial point!

"Go!"

Right at this moment, Shi Hao released a light shout, raising his finger and pointing out. It wasn't that intimidating or fierce, but there was a type of indescribable domineering might.

As he pointed out, a lightning wave surged behind him, as if a dam was broken, a mountain torrent bursting, roaring forth.

Ka!

This type of lightning was too terrifying, as if all hell was breaking loose, making everyone's souls tremble. Several different colored lightning surged out, facing Jin Zhifei.

Golden thunder pure and holy, black thunder cold and gloomy, purple lightning noble, silver lightning chilly, blood lightning strange... they all interweaved, the scene horrifying.

Hong!

Jin Zhifei's magical imprint smashed out. Immortal light swirled within his body, forming an indistinct divine core, as if it was being birthed, wishing to struggle free. That type of might was too terrifying.

This attack directly made the heavenly dome explode!

Jin Zhifei's imposing manner was threatening, magical imprint like a mountain, heavy and majestic, continuously enlarging, crushing towards Shi Hao.

Only, as the different colored lightning rivers roared over, everything underwent change. Both sides smashed together, incredibly fierce, as if the world was being destroyed.

"Ah..."

Many people cried out, eyes stinging. They had no choice but to close their eyes, because the radiance that was produced was too blinding, making it hard for one to directly look at it.

Soon afterwards, tears of blood flowed out from a few young cultivators' eyes, their eyes burned by the lightning radiance and immortal dao imprints' light, becoming lightly injured.

“Impossible!” Jin Zhifei released a low roar in the lightning, entire body in intense pain, electrical radiance burning his body, immediately making him release a muffled groan.

“Ah...” Soon afterwards, Jin Zhifei screamed out, because this really was heavenly tribulation, descending specially for dealing with his magical body.

Normal lightning was something many cultivators could use.

Meanwhile, the archaic Suan Ni, Lightning Luan, and others could even more so display extremely profound electrical radiance to hack down all enemies, overlook the masses, proficient in lightning dao methods. nove-LB.In

Only, those types of lightning were completely different from heavenly tribulation. This was simply unimaginable, a young man actually able to sir on lightning methods, grasping a heavenly tribulation method!

Ah!

Jin Zhifei roared, enduring too much pain. Heavenly tribulation was unavoidable, no matter how one tried to run, it would still find you!

This was also the difference between this and the other profound lightning dao precious methods.

One could see the lightning form a great wave, crash down again and again, smashing down, drowning Jin Zhifei underneath, continuously smashing against him, blasting at his body.

He struggled about there, his face even distorted, entire body scorched black, as if he became a charred wooden stake.

The young cultivators who saw this scene all shivered inwardly. This really was heavenly tribulation, someone reaching this step, artificially deriving it to this point, it was just too inconceivable!

This was like a legend among legends, unimaginable.

Everyone finally understood how unordinary Huang was, even grasping a heavenly tribulation method, no wonder he could kill ten kings from the young generation’s supreme beings, truly worthy of his reputation.

In the present world, normal people couldn’t cross tribulation at all. It wasn’t that they weren’t strong, but rather that it just didn’t descend. It was because after Immortal Ancient War, this realm was blasted apart into the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths with ten ancient lands, the world damaged, cultivation lightning tribulation thus no longer appearing.

This looked like it was good for cultivators, protecting them, but in reality, this was a sign of weakening, possibly making all creatures’ growth slow down, unable to reach the heights they originally ought to reach!

Only through grinding will one become sturdy, become even stronger. Without the lightning baptism, without the tribulation’s test, it would make generation after generation of creatures weaken.

In this world, there were some people who tried to find methods to incur tribulation, and there were still methods to do so, but of course, one had to be powerful enough themselves! Otherwise, the results would be extremely bad, because this type of proactively guiding down heavenly tribulation that originally shouldn't have appeared would trigger all types of unknown anger, bringing down lightning far exceeding what one could handle.

It could be said that doing this would be the same as inevitable death!

Not many people could make it through!

Jin Zhifei was the genius of a generation, so he naturally tried it before. He was previously hacked until his entire body was scorched black, but fortunately, he lived, so he understood well just how terrifying it was.

This was especially the case after his strength grew, the lightning tribulation he had to face would become even more terrifying! The further along one went, the harder it was to calmly cross it.

He was sure that after the Self Severing Realm, there was no way for him to make it through unharmed. If he faced it head-on, he would die!

It was because the environment of this world had changed greatly, this type of lightning tribulation exceeded normal electrical radiance, the entire world boundless, not many creatures in the Self Severing Realm could make it through.

That was why Jin Zhifei became scared for the first time.

"Little uncle, hurry and fully activate the immortal blood, don't hesitate, completely revive it!" Jin Zhan shouted from the back, feeling worry, fearing that he would be killed here.

Only, doing things like this would result in paying a huge price, because what was used was a portion of the finest blood essence in his body, something that was passed down from immortal dao ancestors.

It could be said that the wisps of immortal blood, even though it was pitifully thin and few, for certain heaven warping figures, it was even more important than life.

Once it was activated, this type of true blood burned, then one would at the very least suffer a great sickness!

Cultivators wouldn't get sick, because they long separated themselves from mortals. Once this type of thing happened, it was definitely because something really bad happened to the body, divine power weakening, spiritual senses declining. Moreover, bones, roots, and other things might also be destroyed, damaging one's aptitude.

The wisps of immortal blood were one of the reasons for his heaven-defying talents. Once it was lost, the consequences would be unimaginable!

"Huang, you've angered me!" Jin Zhifei released a low roar, hollering like a wounded beast. He struggled in the electrical radiance, raising his hands and beating his chest.

This time, his entire body flowed with mysterious light specks, extremely mottled, colors different. Those were wisps of immortal blood being operated, reviving.

Moreover, this wasn't just using them, but rather extremely extravagantly burning them, everything for the sake of preserving his life.

Chi!

At this moment, several hundred specks of light shot out from Jin Zhifei's body, interconnecting outside his body, forming a layer of mysterious and mottled divine clothes, covering his body.

Everyone was stupefied. Vajra Immortal's inheritance was terrifying after all, having this type of strange method. Immortal blood could be summoned and turned into this type of defense.

Hong!

At this moment, when lightning descended, it was blocked by that layer of divine clothes, unable to harm Jin Zhifei's body, making that scorched black body stabilize.

"Huang, I want to see what else you can bring out to contend against me!" Jin Zhifei shouted, beyond angry. His entire body was in scorching pain, the lightning like immortal flames, almost roasting him to death.

Everyone was shocked. The divine clothes covering his body were too strange, forcing the lightning back, making heavenly tribulation hesitate, no longer that fierce. Even though it landed on the surface, it would still be scattered.

In that instant, Jin Zhifei was safe, no longer being corroded by heavenly tribulation.

Even heavenly tribulation could be forced back? This was like something out of a fantasy story!

"I am going to kill you!" This time, even though Jin Zhifei's body was scorched black, in a bit of a sorry state, he leapt out, rushing at Shi Hao.

"Be careful!" Cao Yusheng shouted.

"Thing who doesn't want any face, an old man in the Self Severing Realm trying to bully a youngster, Huang, hurry and evade!" The Lunar Jade Rabbit also came, just in time to see this scene, loudly shouting out.

There were some others who shouted in warning.

All those who were close to Shi Hao were incredibly worried. Jin Zhifei could even avoid heavenly tribulation, paying the price of igniting immortal blood, possessing inconceivable secret force.

It was clear that this was extremely disadvantageous to Shi Hao.

Shi Hao stood in the sea of lightning, black hair scattering about, dyed a light golden by the electrical radiance. His entire body was shining, divine and untainted, as if a True Immortal descended into this world!

He wasn't shocked in the slightest, extremely still and peaceful. It was to the extent where he was a bit terrifyingly calm.

The current him was aloof, transcendent, standing in the heavenly tribulation, impervious to all methods, not affected by anything, full of auspicious radiance.

“Heavenly tribulation, is not something any creature can escape. It can only be faced. You... come and face the tribulation. If you can’t cross it, then just return to yellow earth in this turbulent world of mortals.” Shi Hao said calmly.

While speaking, he raised his hand, still pointing out. An expanse of heavenly tribulation lightning flew out, blasting Jin Zhifei’s body, leaving him greatly shaken.

Jin Zhifei’s expression immediately changed, but he quickly calmed down again, roaring with laughter. “It is still ineffective against me, can’t injure me. Do you have any other methods?” At this moment, his expression became cold, killing intent surging, saying, “I’ll send you to the afterlife!”

“People who underestimate heavenly tribulation only have death waiting for them!” Shi Hao said.

Hong!

His right hand grabbed towards the sea of lightning. The distant lightning cloud was ruptured, producing a simple and ancient looking pool, as if it had existed for endless years. An aura of great changes blasted over.

“It’s a lightning pool but it is dried-up, no Lightning Tribulation Liquid inside!” Many people cried out in alarm. This type of legendary thing appeared!

“Collect!” Shi Hao released a short shout. The simple and ancient looking lightning pool shone, forming a wave of undefiable power, sucking Jin Zhifei inside.

“Ah, no!” Jin Zhifei cried out, struggling about there. It was because he discovered that the divine clothes on his body were breaking apart, disappearing. He was hacked by lightning again, entire body about to fall apart.

Shi Hao arrived by the lightning pool’s side. His right hand shone, surging with a streak of resplendent lightning that changed into a long blade. He held a lightning war blade in his hand, bringing it down fiercely.

With a pu sound, Jin Zhifei’s head was removed, drawing forth a gush of blood!

“Find a jug. If he isn’t humanoid, then marinate him into food!” Shi Hao said.

Chapter 1407 - Opposition

Jin Zhifei had his head removed just like that, making everyone feel headaches. A heaven warping figure was beheaded just like that, it truly was shocking!

Shi Hao carried the slightly scorched black head that had been hacked by lightning. The hair was in a mess, and it was flowing with blood. A blade hacked down, removing the head, the victory just this thorough.

This scene left every young cultivator greatly alarmed. How extraordinary was Jin Zhifei? He was a well-known young expert from Jin Family in recent times, potential powerful. He crossed lightning tribulation, yet in the end, he was still defeated today, his head removed!

Right now, the scenery was incredibly frightening, making one sigh inwardly! Worthy of being Huang, someone who slaughtered ten kings in Great Scarlet Sky border, there was a good reason behind this feat, and now, his strength was proven.

Only, his words, finding an altar to cook Jin Zhifei's body, it really did ruin his heroic appearance a bit.

Ah... Jin Zhan roared, entire body surging with bone texts, as if great dao flowers were erupting, terrifying and surging into the heavens.

He pressed forward, about to take action, carry out a battle to the death with Shi Hao.

"Don't force him to do the killing blow, Eighth Uncle is not dead yet!" Wang Xi said quietly, advising Jin Zhan.

Jin Zhan was the Pride of Heaven of this generation, moving unhindered wherever he went, always sweeping through all before him. When had he seen this scene before, someone cutting down his clan uncle before his face?

"Hey, I have a jar here, start the marination, turn it into bacon. With the great dark age impending, this type of meat will definitely be much rare, so we have to eat it sparingly!" The golden little ant shouted.

With a sou sound, it flung over a jar.

"I have one here too, a large size jade jug, perfect for refining Self Severing Realm divine meat!" The Lunar Jade Rabbit shouted, waving a large container with all her strength.

Even though she was a little girl, her display really wasn't pure and innocent.

Everyone was speechless when they saw them, observing a moment of silence of Jin Zhifei, for his misfortune of provoking this group of people. He actually wanted to kill Huang, and now, he was instead treated like food.

"Are you human form or not? If I look at you like this, it really does make me feel a bit gloomy. Hurry and make him return to his original form, see if he is a mule or horse!" Cao Yusheng also heckled.

It was because they were extremely dissatisfied with Jin Family and Wang Family. These two clans were overbearing, opposing Shi Hao, wishing for him to die here. Now that they captured an important figure, they naturally wouldn't hold back on their ridicule.

"Courting death!" Jin Zhan released a low roar. He couldn't remain calm, completely different from his normal calm self.

Right now, he wanted to take action, suppress these people, desiring to fight a decisive battle against Shi Hao!

Peng!

Right at this time, an elder appeared, grabbing his arm and saying, "You cannot take action, because you can only win, cannot be defeated. You must establish an undying golden body of the number one in the younger generation!"

"Twelfth uncle!" Wang Xi spoke up, offering her respects.

This was someone from Wang Family, a member of their clan's direct line of descent, strength extremely great. He personally came to stop Jin Zhan.

It was clear to see that the two clans had always paid close attention to Shi Hao, every action he made in their view. Otherwise, there was no way he could have appeared so quickly.

Jin Zhan's expression was discontent, saying, "Don't tell me you think I would be scared of him?"

"Worthy youngster, I know you possess heaven warping talent, without equal among your peers, but this Huang is also deep and immeasurable. Just now, his domineering might could be seen, truly possessing an immortal dao aura. If two tigers fight, one will inevitably be injured. If you fight against him, you might be able to win, but it isn't guaranteed, not necessarily able to completely overwhelm him. If you pay the price for doing so, then it wouldn't be worth it." The elder explained.

"Don't take action for now." Wang Xi also advised.

The two clans wanted to build up Jin Zhan to become the number one person of the younger generation, make his name resound under the sky, rule over the younger generation, and then use this as the reason to command the Nine Heavens!

Right now, Jin Zhan definitely couldn't make any mistakes, couldn't be defeated!

Everyone could see Shi Hao's display just now, actually grasping heavenly tribulation. This exceeded their previous evaluation, a bit too terrifying. If Jin Zhan stepped up, he might not necessarily be able to win.

"Wayaya, an old kid was cut down, and now, a real old man came. Is this even the distinguished meeting of the younger generation anymore? Don't tell me there'll even be old people competing?" The little rabbit cried out strangely.

The atmosphere was originally extremely tense, but when everyone heard this, they all released snickers.

Wang Family and Jin Family's people's expressions were naturally unpleasant, looking at her coldly.

"Worthy youngster, there is no need to feel anger. I am not even angry, so you must remain calm." The elder said.

Jin Zhan's face was incredibly overcast. "I really wish to kill Huang right now. If I don't have this confidence, then what fighting for the position of unmatched in the world is there to talk about?"

When he saw his own clan uncle's head removed by Shi Hao, holding it in his hands, his eyes became even colder. He wanted to slaughter his way over himself!

“Don’t move, let me!” At this time, another elder appeared. It was someone from Jin Family, magical force extremely profound, silently taking form here.

“Fifth grandfather!” Jin Zhan cried out. This was his fifth grandfather, bloodline extremely close, as well as Jin Zhifei’s senior. He actually came here, expression extremely overcast.

“Wahaha, what is going on today? Are old men going to start a meeting? Why did one come after the next? Just what kind of meeting is this, are old farts going to clash?” The little rabbit mocked, her large ruby-like eyes were looking all over the place, trying to figure out what was going on. However, there was no way such a thing would be happening!

“Precisely! Why don’t we all just return, everyone invite a few of our clan uncles and clan grandpas to have them baby us at our side? This way, we can just move unhindered through the world, unmatched under the heavens! Whoever dares to oppose, then that dad or grandpa can just take action, remain supreme in this world!” Cao Yusheng’s mouth was never kind and honest.

“Haha, if this was the case, then you guys should’ve brought some clan grannies too, that way, nothing would be missing!” The golden little ant joined in on the mockery.

Roars of laughter immediately sounded here, everyone unable to hold themselves back.

Jin Zhan’s face was ice-cold, sweeping them coldly over those people. Wang Xi’s expression was cold as well, not saying a single word.

The two elders both revealed killing intent. This was unforgivable. They came precisely for this place, so there was no way they could withdraw now.

“Seniors, this is a distinguished meeting of younger generation today, I do not believe you two were invited.” The owner of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong spoke up.

Tuogu Yulong also walked out, similarly expressing this intent. They didn’t wish for this place to become complicated, provoking great powers’ old monsters into interfering.

“Worthy youngster, this matter cannot be reconciled any further. Huang is too arrogant, removing my clan disciple’s head, it can be considered vicious and merciless, there needs to be an explanation!” Jin Zhan’s fifth grandfather stepped out.

“Brother Huang, could you forgive Jin Zhifei, let him go?” Tuoba Yulong pleaded for leniency.

Everyone’s eyes moved towards Shi Hao. The sea of lightning didn’t disappear, still surging. The simple and ancient pond was extremely intimidating, this was a lightning pool, containing heaven and earth power.

In the lightning pool, Jin Zhifei’s body became a piece of charred coal, long refined by the lightning pool, thoroughly destroyed.

Only a head remained, carried in Shi Hao’s hands by the hair bun. In the lightning radiance, his face was full of unwillingness, humiliation, and shock. He couldn’t accept this defeat.

He was still alive, at the very least, his head still remained, primordial spirit still preserved. Only, there was no way for his primordial spirit to escape, forcefully imprisoned in his skull.

At the same time, there were two jars that weren't too far off. The Heavenly Horned Ant and Lunar Jade Rabbit really brought over two jars.

"I am going to explode from anger!" Jin Zhifei recovered. He couldn't help but release a roar from his soul!

"Hurry up and reveal your original form already!" Shi Hao wasn't polite. When he saw him roar, he gave him two large slaps across the face, the noise loud and clear.

Everyone was stupefied. A heaven warping geniuses actually fell to this type of state, it really left one speechless.

"I am an extremely straightforward person. If anyone wants to kill me, then I won't waste words, and I don't want to either. I'll just directly remove your head!" Shi Hao said coldly.

"Within me flows immortal blood, how could it have failed to protect me? This shouldn't have happened!" It was as if Jin Zhifei was possessed, his divine consciousness talking to himself.

"Just a bit, not even half a drop in total, yet you even dare to claim to be able to force back heavenly tribulation? Moreover, with so many generations passed already, whether there was that bit of True Immortal blood or not is even up for debate!" Shi Hao said coldly.

Tuoba Yulong, Qi Hong, and the others were not far out. They looked at Shi Hao, pleading him for leniency again.

"In the battle of Desolate Border, enemies of the foreign side surround us, no experts should die in the city, but should rather join the war and fight outside the pass, cannot be expended like this. Brother Huang, please just show mercy, let him obtain merit in the battlefield." Qi Hong said.

Shi Hao didn't immediately kill Jin Zhifei, he also had similar ideas.

"This matter is not finished!" Jin Zhan's fifth grandfather said coldly. When he saw Jin Zhifei's body destroyed, he laughed coldly, staring at Shi Hao, not wishing to let him go.

"Old things, are you all still not finished? After one is killed, another jumps out, you all should've just jumped in together so I just can just get this over with." Shi Hao said.

"How unbridled!" At this time, Wang Xi's grandfather spoke, moreover taking the initiative to attack. A large hand reached out like lightning, wishing to suppress Shi Hao.

He was not a Self Severing Realm cultivator who had just entered this realm, his strength deep and profound.

Shi Hao didn't feel any fear at all. He released a light scoff, and then that lightning pool not far from him directly shone, quickly rushing over, facing that large hand.

Pi pa!

Lightning radiance interweaved. That large hand was immediately scorched black, and then it exploded.

"Ah... you!" Wang Xi's grandfather screamed miserably, inwardly shaken. The rumors around the lightning pool weren't fake after all, actually destroying an arm of his.

The people watching were even more shocked. An older generation actually couldn't block this type of terrifying lightning either, suffering serious injuries.

"From the looks of it, you all can't accept this. In that case, all of you can just come over together!" Shi Hao said. He stirred on the lightning pool, attacking at Jin Family's elder.

Kacha!

Lightning radiance overflowed. Jin Family's elder was shocked and furious, quickly backing up, actually not daring to face it head-on.

Everyone was alarmed. Huang was actually powerful to this extent, forcing back well-known older generation figures, strength too shockingly powerful.

"Today's matter, how about we just end it here?" One of the Four Phoenixes said, trying to mediate things.

"I have no complaints." When he said this, Shi Hao threw that head out, saying, "Remember, your head is mine, so go fight on the battlefield obediently, kill a few more enemies. Otherwise, I will come for it!"

"You you you..." Jin Zhifei was ashamed and humiliated, and then he directly fainted.

His vitality was greatly injured. Unless there were heavenly treasures used to help him recover, his cultivation would be greatly affected. It was because he burned up quite a bit of the immortal blood in his body.

"I want to kill him!" In the back, Jin Zhan spoke up. However, this time, the two elders stopped him together not allowing him to act recklessly.

"Since there is nothing else, then please go away. I've gained some realizations, obtained many insights into the Lightning Emperor Precious Technique, I also just happened to bring down heavenly tribulation, so I wish to study and face tribulation in seclusion." Shi Hao said.

Lightning Emperor Precious Technique's profound mysteries gave him enlightenment, moreover deriving a lightning pool, extremely mysterious and shocking. His benefits were astonishing, now, he was going to face tribulation himself!

Shi Hao sat down in the air, still comprehending various things about the lightning pool, pondering over various issues regarding the control of heavenly tribulation.

Thinking deeply, comprehending, cultivating in seclusion in heavenly tribulation, Huang's display left many people stupefied, great waves stirring within their minds!

Chapter 1408 - Comprehending the Dao

After gaining a flash of realization, Huang entered seclusion here, about to face tribulation himself!

Everyone was shocked. Just how freakish was this? Crossing cultivation realms, removing Jin Zhifei's head, obtaining a great victory, and then about to guide down lightning tribulation to refine his body!

"Worthy of being Huang. He slaughtered out a great reputation in Great Scarlet Sky Border, sweeping through foreign enemies, it is normal for him to have this type of unmatched might."

“Only, is he really going to face heavenly tribulation? At that level, especially with how extraordinary he is, once he does it, he might bring down those legendary types of tribulation. It will be unimaginable, with danger of having his true body destroyed at every turn!”

While many people were feeling shocked, there were many who felt worry for him as well.

It was because once one reached this cultivation realm, facing tribulation was no small matter, almost impossible to make it through. Heavenly tribulations would become endlessly more terrifying as one's cultivation realm increases, more difficult the further one went.

This was especially the case with heaven and earth environment changing. There was already no lightning tribulation in this world, forcefully guiding it would provoke power exceeding what there originally should be. There was a ninety nine percent chance of him dying here.

“Shi Hao, be careful, your talents are exceptional, potential great, once you guide down the tribulation, you might provoke a great tribulation that might be within the top three most dangerous. If that happens, you won't be able to make it through!” Cao Yusheng reminded.

This was a fact. Once the most powerful types of heavenly tribulation appeared, perhaps one might just die without a burial ground.

Even if the current Shi Hao looked like he grasped lightning tribulation, using it for himself, when it was himself facing it, it was a completely different matter. It was just as he said himself, heavenly tribulation couldn't be avoided, one had to truly face it, forcefully make it through!

“I know!” Shi Hao said.

At the same time, he produced a few things, calling forth heavenly tribulation, making Cao Yusheng, Heavenly Horned Ant, and others help him by taking them. There were two head ornaments, a piece of smooth rock and a curled up golden sphere.

Others didn't know what these things were, but the Lunar Jade Rabbit and others did. These were two creatures!

The first was the Divine Striking Stone, after eating too many heaven-defying things, it fell asleep, currently transforming, for example, All Magic Stone, Heaven's Mandate Stone, every one of them shocking. They all shocked the world under the sky, supreme treasures even True Immortals could use to refine into weapons, but in the end, it directly ate them. During the past few years, the time it spent awake was limited, evolving this entire time!

The latter, the curled up golden sphere, was the Emperor Butterfly!

Ever since four years ago, when it encountered the corpse of that ancient Emperor Butterfly in Immortal Battlefield Remains, it obtained great natural luck. The essence energy the ancient butterfly left behind was all absorbed by it, and then it formed a cocoon, no longer displaying any activity.

These two fellas' origins were both extraordinary, potential limitless.

Kacha!

Immediately afterwards, the sky full of lightning disappeared, and then there was a loud noise. The sky then became clear and boundless.

Wasn't Huang going to face tribulation? Why did all of the lightning disappear? Everyone was shocked.

Shi Hao closed his eyes, thinking to himself. The various marvels of the lightning pool appeared in his mind. His comprehension was extremely deep, diligently studying. Back then, how did the Lightning Emperor control heavenly tribulation, use this to carry out judgment on all?

Of course, there were those who said that even though the Lightning Emperor's magical force was matchless, when it came to punishing all creatures, he had only just stepped into this domain, not fully grasping it. n-/σ/-v(-E/)ℓ()ℓ.-l--n

The Lightning Emperor's dominance laid in his matchless fighting strength, incomparable heroicism, not truly becoming the ruler of heavenly tribulation. He had only begun to step foot into this field.

It was rumored that this was precisely the reason why many creatures of this world were alarmed, especially the other side. When they learned about this ability of his, they joined up, surrounding him to wipe him out.

Otherwise, if the Lightning Emperor truly succeeded, that would simply be unimaginable. He might become a realm lord, unmatched from past to present.

Unfortunately, the Lightning Emperor's path was full of brilliance, originally able to step into an unimaginable level, previously should've been high up above, but fell ahead of time.

Suddenly, a lightning pool mysteriously appeared, extremely faint, and also quite small, arriving before the space between Shi Hao's brows.

It was only an inch in size, continuously bobbing up and down, releasing strand after strand of chaotic energy. There were also specks of lightning radiance that flowed out from the simple and unadorned pool, making the space between Shi Hao's brows brilliant.

Everyone was shocked. What was this?

There was no thunder, nor was there heaven covering lightning, so how could a pool of lightning have appeared, moreover this small? What happened?

"This person cannot be left alive!" In the distance, Wang Xi's grandfather said quietly, transmitting sound to those at his side. He was shocked and scared, this young man was actually able to do this much!

"He is comprehending the dao, visualizing it, and then reconstructing the lightning pool!" Jin Zhan's grandfather spoke, revealing what was really happening.

This was an extremely terrifying matter. Could it be that Huang truly wanted to become the lord of heavenly tribulation, seize control over this world's divine punishment?

In a few people's eyes, the reason why he was able to succeed just now was partly because of his own abilities, and also because of a type of opportunity, but some of it also exceeded his own skill. However now, he was going to really turn that small possibility of success into his own ability!

This... was extremely terrifying!

"We cannot let this continue, stop him! We can't let him completely succeed, or else things will be extremely troublesome in the future. Since you have decided to make yourself my clan's enemy, then we might just have to cut your path short!" Wang Xi's grandfather's eyes released cold light.

From this, one could see that in his heart, personal grudges were greater than the grand situation, already setting the resolution to kill Shi Hao.

"This isn't too good, right? Everyone is still watching, if we interfere, our Wang Family will be in quite the sorry state." Wang Xi said.

"Child, there is no need to be this kind. There are some people who, if not eliminated sooner, will definitely become a great disaster. Moreover, we naturally have methods, so there is no need to worry about it. How can we possibly be exposed?" Wang Xi's grandfather said, eyes malicious, sneering endlessly.

"If we want to kill him, why is there a need to do this? In a bit, I'll just fight him in the heavenly tribulation, it's not like I never crossed it before!" Jin Zhan said coldly.

He was known as the Pride of Heaven of a generation, precisely because he had crossed the Void Dao Realm's great tribulation, moreover powerfully crossing without paying too great of a price.

That day, all of the teachers and students saw it with their own eyes, in the final moments, he directly sat down, absorbed the remaining lightning to refine his true body.

It was precisely that great heavenly tribulation that made his name resound throughout the world.

That was one of the most formidable types of heavenly tribulation throughout history in his cultivation realm, enough to be ranked within the top three, yet he powerfully charged through, all of it absorbed by him in the end. How could all sides not be shocked?

Jin Zhan didn't fear heavenly tribulation, which was why he always wanted to rush straight into the sea of lightning and take Shi Hao's head.

"Let's see if the tribulation he faces is within the top three. If not, then his potential isn't even comparable to Jin Family's qilin child, perhaps no need to use any methods." Jin Zhan's grandfather said.

Hong!

Right at this time, a streak of thunder hacked down from above. Endless electrical radiance erupted.

The source of this was the space between Shi Hao's brows. The square inch lightning pool exploded there, tens of thousands of streaks of auspicious radiance appearing. There was even more so endless lighting that erupted.

"What happened? Did Huang encounter some type of trouble?" Many people were shocked. This was targeting the space between his brows! If his frontal bone was penetrated, the consequences would be too horrible to contemplate.

“Overestimating his own abilities, vainly trying to become lord of heavenly tribulation, he most likely suffered a disaster himself.” There were a few people who carried malice, continuously laughing coldly inside.

Jin Family and Wang Family’s people also stared in that direction, looking forward to the result.

Soon afterwards, lightning clouds scattered, electrical light disappearing.

One could see that Shi Hao was still sitting there, not injured, his body accompanied by auspicious energy.

Moreover, right between his brows, streak after streak of electrical light flew towards that direction, condensing into a small lighting pool imprint, situated right at the center of the frontal bone.

That imprint was mysterious, extremely intimidating, making the originally delicate and handsome Shi Hao exude an imposing aura!

“Only through gaining insights, obtaining great returns can this type of imprint appear!” Tuogu Yulong said quietly, feeling greatly shaken inside.

The master of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong, Wei Family’s Four Phoenixes, Ten Crown King, Exiled Immortal, Shi Yi, Great Xu Tuo, and Little Sky King’s expressions all became serious.

None of them had underestimated Shi Hao, but when they now saw this scene, they still couldn’t help but feel shock. This really was freakish, in this short amount of time, he already completely comprehended the dao, his benefits great.

Then, Shi Hao opened his eyes. They were extremely deep, and also extremely calm. He didn’t move at all, looking towards the sky, gazing upwards!

Everyone knew that his dao comprehension had finished, his understanding extremely deep. Now, he was going to start guiding down lightning tribulation to refine his real body.

At this moment, heaven and earth were quiet, everyone silently watching. The distinguished meeting between geniuses was temporarily forgotten, everyone looking towards the youngster at the center of the arena.

The atmosphere was a bit tense, many people able to sense that there was something above the sky dome. It was going to descend, wishing to devour all life.

What kind of heavenly tribulation was this exactly? Why did it give people this type of strange feeling, actually going to swallow up everyone, as if it was a living creature?!

“It is starting!” The Five Spirits War Chariot’s owner Qi Hong said quietly.

It was because something appeared in the sky, and then quickly fell, descending here.

“What is that?” Many people were stupefied, feeling that this was inconceivable.

The scene was grand. A majestic dark figure descended from above.

Chapter 1409 - Nine Heavens Ten Earths Tribulation

Has heavenly tribulation arrived?!

However, everyone was still a bit confused.

These were continents, one after another, dark and massive, vast and boundless, a savage and uncivilized aura surged outwards!

What was going on?

Everyone was shocked, stupefied. Wasn't he going to guide down heavenly tribulation, why did so many continents silently appear, descend from the heavens? Every single one was extremely large, as if there was no limit to them.

"The tribulation process was hindered? Or is this to say that he wanted to guide down heavenly tribulation, but failed in the end?" Someone said quietly.

Even Wang Xi's grandfather was staring at this, revealing a strange expression. "There was no heavenly tribulation that descended, what is this fella doing? Is he deliberately making things more confusing?!"

Regardless, everyone was still extremely shocked. Where did these continents come from? They were just too massive, majestic and limitless, no end in sight.

Quite a few people were confused. Where was the heavenly tribulation? With Huang's aptitude, he could definitely guide down lightning tribulation, and it would be an extremely terrifying one. Why did this type of strange scene end up appearing?

"Yi, that continent... is a bit similar to the three thousand provinces, the shape extremely special, just that it was reduced greatly in size!" Someone said quietly.

The continent in the sky was extremely vast, but compared to the true three thousand provinces, there was still a great difference.

"En, that piece seems a bit familiar, like 'Demon Burial Ground', the shape the same. It really is strange!"

Demon Burial Ground, it stood side by side with the three thousand provinces, also one of the Ten Earths.

Everyone was stupefied, watching this carefully. They all came from different places, some ancient families even had maps of their own region with them.

As a result, someone cried out with alarm, saying, "These are the Ten Earths of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, every one of them identical, why are they appearing here?"

How could ten continents appear here?

Everyone immediately became stupefied, finding it hard to understand why this happened.

"It really is strange, what did this fella do? Why did he end up drawing these things over? Could this be an illusion?" Jin Zhan's grandfather was incredibly shocked.

"This is precisely the heavenly tribulation!" Suddenly, Jin Zhan spoke up, his expression incomparably serious as he stared at that heavenly dome.

Wang Xi's delicate body trembled. She stared into the sky with disbelief.

At the same time, everyone in the surroundings paled with fright. They all looked in that direction, every one of them stupefied, finding this hard to believe.

Didn't heavenly tribulation have thunder shaking the heavens, lightning radiance flickering about? Why was it this quiet, deathly still, not a bit of sound to be heard?

Moreover, those were continents, all of them looking just that real, to the point where towering mountains could be seen, great rivers rushing forth, full of life force, all things growing.

How could all of this be heavenly tribulation?

"It definitely is!" Jin Zhan said quietly. It was because he had crossed a great tribulation, moreover a lightning tribulation ranked within the top three of history, corresponding to his cultivation level.

He was the most sensitive towards this type of aura, his fine hairs immediately standing on end. Others didn't know, but he understood that the tribulation would definitely be terrifying beyond compare, that it was a tribulation tied to life or death.

Jin Zhan knew that this type of great tribulation would definitely be ranked within the top three lightning tribulations of their cultivation realm, without a doubt!

Only, this type of heavenly tribulation was too strange, actually not having any electrical radiance flickering about, no thunderous noises rumbling. It was just this quiet, as if it was an expanse of nothingness.

"The scenes of heaven and earth are all formed from lighting tribulation, condensed from lightning. The colors and other things are the same as that of the true world!" Someone said.

However, this still wasn't enough to explain the strangeness of this tribulation, because the aura it released was also like this, few people able to sense that this was lightning, instead feeling like it was a real continent. It was just too similar.

"This is its most terrifying aspect. It seems to have life, evolving like this, transforming from the fake to the real, only, this is a rarely seen terrifying great heavenly tribulation!"

This was the consensus of the people here, there was no mistake. This tribulation even became this monstrous, so how could this be ordinary lightning?"

At this time, Jin Zhifei who took a divine pill, his body slowly growing back revived. He felt hatred and anger. Just now, the other party dealt with him with lightning, and now, he actually guided down such terrifying heavenly tribulation, it really was astonishing, making him feel a wave of powerlessness.

His condition was terrible, immortal blood lost after being burned, difficult to recover from. There wasn't much retained in the head that was preserved either.

"I want to see just how extraordinary this tribulation is!" Wang Xi's grandfather said with a sneer.

The ten continents moved forward, arriving before their eyes.

"Heavens, there are even so many corpses!"

Someone cried out in alarm, because they saw the scenes on the continent. It was just too bitter, a scarlet red expanse, blood red, covered in corpses, as if a great massacre had just been carried out.

Perhaps this already cannot even be described with the word massacre anymore, because on those ten continents, wherever one's eyes passed, when the primal chaos mist scattered a bit, one would immediately see endless corpses.

Just how great of a battlefield was this?

Perhaps only in the war of the last phase back then, when Immortal Ancient was buried, would there be this type of scene, right?

A ruined banner was inserted into the ground, the world around it enveloped in the flames of war, blood gathering into streams. The corpses everywhere all had weapons impaling them, all of them laying in disarray, the dark black expanse without limit.

These were ten blood-soaked continents!

This was like a battlefield of the last phase of an age, waiting for later generations to clean up the corpses.

Hong!

Right at this time, the sound of thunder finally sounded. However, it didn't come from the ten continents, but rather from high up in the sky.

In that place, nine heavens appeared, carrying the sun, moon, mountains, and rivers, covering the sky as they arrived.

"These are the Nine Heavens!"

Thus, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths all appeared. It was extremely strange, everything derived from lightning.

The Ten Earths were quiet, lacking all sound, but the Nine Heavens were different, having sound. As they appeared, the noise became greater and greater. Apart from thunderous sounds, there were endless shouts of war, human figures everywhere.

"This is..."

When the 'Nine Heavens' completely approached, everyone felt their scalps becoming numb, feeling a wave of coldness.

On the Nine Heavens, countless creatures were tearing at each other, it was just that terrifying. Blade radiance and sword shadows flickered about, shouts of war shaking the heavens, blood splashing out from time to time.

There was even immortal light that illuminated throughout the ages, the power of matchless figures being used, every strike able to hack down the stars and moon, extremely terrifying.

"To protect my wife and children, kill!"

“To protect my clansmen, kill!”

“To protect my mountains and rivers, kill!”

...

These were the angry roars of the ancient people, within the grief and indignation a feeling of despair. They were no match for those opponents, but they still charged forward, moving and tragic, life continuously wilting.

Was this the scene of Immortal Ancient War? It could actually be replayed in heavenly tribulation, coming to light in this way, appearing before everyone’s eyes. How could everyone not feel shock?

The ancient people fell from the war, this was something all later generations knew about. Now, this type of bitter and tragic scene was playing out, time seemingly flowing in reverse.

“Kill! Protect our wives, children, fathers, and mothers, protect these mountains and rivers, slaughter the way into the other side, kill them all!”

“Fight until the last drop of blood, fight until you all have no regrets, attack!”

Many great roars sounded, shaking the mountains and rivers, aura engulfing ten thousand li, resounding between the Nine Heavens.

Countless figures followed them, fighting a great battle against the foreign great army. Hot blood scattered down, heads flying out, corpses laying everywhere. However, no one cowered.

When they saw this scene, many of the youth were moved. Was this the tragedy of the past?

They didn’t surrender even when faced with inevitable death, so many of the ancient people carried unyielding wills. Only, as great roars sounded one after another, this scene was extremely tragic.

The ancient people were helpless, powerless, falling from this battle, destined to all die.

“Is this Huang’s tribulation? It seems to be foretelling something!”

After their initial shock, there were people who discussed quietly.

“I previously heard that there is a heavenly tribulation that is not ranked, one that is extremely strange and special, able to reveal a corner of the future, revealing omens, reveal some frightening things.”

When everyone heard this, their pupils contracted, staring at Shi Hao’s heavenly tribulation. He actually drew down this type of mysterious heavenly tribulation that only appeared in legends.

“It is extremely strange, is this type of tribulation strong or weak, good or bad?” Even Wang Xi’s grandfather, this type of elder, didn’t know.

It was because this type of heavenly tribulation was too rare, only a few records about it, and they weren’t that clear. To actually be able to encounter these things through a tribulation, it couldn’t be comprehended!

Hong!

Right at this time, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths collided. Between them, lightning bridges appeared one after another, linking them together.

Shi Hao was forcefully sucked onto a continent, not given a choice, as if he was summoned over!

Qiang!

An iron spear rose into the air. A corpse on the ground stood up, in its hands a black spear, stabbing it at him, extremely ferocious. Black light surged, the iron spear turning into a streak of black-colored lightning.

Peng!

Shi Hao's finger pointed out, making this iron spear break apart. Black lighting scattered on the spot, unable to harm him.

However, immediately afterwards, something even more terrifying happened. The endless corpses that didn't belong to the ancient people, but rather came from the foreign side, all stood up, carrying traces of blood and killing intent. They held weapons in their hands, walking towards Shi Hao, all of them taking action.

The peace was shattered. With resounding weapon clashing noises, streak after streak of lightning radiance erupted, killing energy overflowing into the heavens!

Their scalps became numb. There were so many creatures, were they all going to become Shi Hao's opponent? Would he be able to deal with them, would he be able to kill them? This was too terrifying!

Everyone was horrified. This great tribulation might be endless, was it foretelling that Shi Hao had to slaughter his way through the Nine Heavens Ten Earths alone? He had to fight in this world all by himself?!

Chapter 1410 - Slaughtering Into the Nine Heavens

Aohou... A great roar sounded. A lion-bodied human-faced monster rushed over, its entire body releasing golden light. It became faster and faster, exceeding other creatures.

Hong!

In the end, it turned into a streak of golden lightning, cutting a thousand li through the air. A large claw slapped down, golden light surging endlessly, blasting the void apart. Black cracks extended outwards, the scene terrifying.

A dang noise sounded. Shi Hao faced it bare-handedly. A deafening noise erupted from the two, as if metal was colliding, sparks flying in all directions.

"Kill!" Shi Hao released a low shout, rising up, avoiding the other creatures and attacking this monster.

Honglong!

The lion-bodied human-faced monster was too fast, exceeding many people's imaginations. It instantly rushed into the distance, a single jump taking it over a thousand li, simply impossible to catch up to.

This was the speed of lightning.

Sou!

Immediately afterwards, it rushed over again, baring its fangs and brandishing its claws, golden light rushing out in ten thousand streaks, blazing light endless, too resplendent. It was as if a giant divine lord was attacking.

This was, without a doubt, the leader of this region. It commanded a great army, crawling back up on the mountain of corpses, blood, and bones to attack Shi Hao.

“Kill!”

At the same time, many foreign creatures on the ground released great cries, their voices shaking heaven and earth, shouts of killing echoing through the world, the universe itself even greatly trembling!

Ao... The lion-bodied human-faced creature attacked, the first one to throw itself at Shi Hao again, a leap taking it a thousand li, speed too fast.

“Die!” At this moment, Shi Hao’s eyes also widened, deciding that he was going to kill it in one strike. He used his most powerful methods, or else the path later on would be even more difficult.

It was because judging from the situation, it seemed like he had to move through the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, this was just the beginning!

His fists shone, gathering power, using everything he knew. Bone texts erupted, concentrating and interweaving on his fist. He used his own innate supreme being precious technique, Heaven’s Light!

Hong!

This fist smashed out, heaven and earth losing color, wind and clouds exploding and scattering. It was just too shocking, as if a comet suddenly erupted here.

That resplendent light illuminated the sky dome, also shining to the point where the faces of the young cultivators watching turned pale. They were deeply shocked, just how terrifying was Huang’s fighting strength!

The power displayed by this fist was too domineering, even if a Self Severing Realm cultivator went up, they would still be blown to pieces, right? They might very well die from this single hit!

Now, Shi Hao’s power had already completely changed. After cultivating in seclusion for many years, refining his own talent, using the body as a seed, his strength shot up drastically. At the same time, his understanding towards his own innate precious techniques became even deeper, exceeding his past dao achievements!

His fist was like a small golden sun, dazzling, simply impossible to look straight at.

Ao...

The lion-bodied human-faced monster roared. It faced Shi Hao’s fist, brandishing its great golden claws, moreover opening its bloody mouth, going all out.

Moreover, in his surroundings, other creatures rushed over, all of them raising weapons, attacking at Shi Hao together.

Peng!

Shi Hao's fist broke the golden monster's great claw, moreover smashing straight into its bloody mouth, smashing its head apart.

Hou!

The monster released an angry roar, quickly backing up. However, it was too hard for it to stop its head's injury. In the end, with a kacha sound, it completely exploded to pieces.

At the most crucial juncture, the monster threw itself over, crossing a thousand li, directly turning into a golden streak of lightning. It was incredibly thick, hacking towards Shi Hao.

Thunder rumbled, lightning interweaved, their power astonishing, but all of it was scattered by Shi Hao.

These creatures not only possessed true strength, because they were formed from lightning, when they were defeated, they would turn into lightning tribulation, equivalent to being able to carry out an attack a second time!

The golden monster was extremely strong, deserved to be called a leader, but it was still killed!

"Kill!" Human figures were everywhere, vast and boundless. There were foreign creatures all about, all of them rushing over murderously while raising weapons.

Black iron spears, dazzling white long blades, scarlet sharp swords, war halberds dripping with blood...

Cold metallic radiance flickered, killing energy overflowing into the heavens. This was a huge army of thousands, all of them rushing over together. Their speeds were too fast, impossible to hide from. It was because all of them were formed from lightning.

"Kill!" Shi Hao roared loudly. He began to go all out, his palms shining, a golden pike appearing in his hands, condensed from divine force, incomparably resplendent. He slaughtered his way forward.

Pu!

Just a single strike pierced through several extremely strong creatures. The spear erupted with radiance, crushing their weapons, piercing through the skies!

Ka!

Lightning interweaved, several people exploding, electric light shooting in thousands of streaks, blasting Shi Hao's body, directly received by him.

"Charge!" Countless creatures charged forward fearlessly.

Shi Hao's eyes and eyebrows stood vertically, starting to brandish the spear. The weapon enlarged, becoming like a mountain ridge, sweeping in all directions. Lightning erupted, killing intent overflowing into the heavens!

Pu!

Blood splashed in all directions, many creatures screaming miserably, swept through by the giant golden pike. Bones broke, muscles severed, all of them exploding to pieces, turning into bloody paste, and then into electrical light.

This was a massacre. Shi Hao displayed divine might, fighting a great battle here, battling the foreign creatures fiercely. Dismembered limbs immediately flew out, blood dyeing the skies red.

This was especially the case when he saw the corpses of cultivators from the Nine Heavens everywhere, making his fighting spirit become even more ferocious.

Even though it was only lightning tribulation, he still treated it like a true battle. He felt anger, his head raised to the sky, releasing a roar. A war spear was held in his hands, angrily stabbing in all directions, fighting with everything he had.

Shi Hao was valiant and fearless, but the enemy army really was too large, more appearing the more he killed, seemingly endless, stretching as far as he could see, enemy troops filling the mountains and rivers.

Shi Hao killed until his eyes turned red, fighting a bloody battle here.

However, no matter how strong one was, there was no way they could handle this many enemies. It was as if he was submerged in a sea, surrounded by the foreign soldiers, the battles relentless, the reeking of blood assailing the senses.

Hong!

Lightning erupted streak after streak, whenever an expert was killed, there would always be a streak of lightning hacking over, blasting his body.

"This... is too terrifying!" All of the spectating youngsters were horrified. They never expected this heavenly tribulation to be this freakish, this frightening.

There was simply no path of life! It was just the beginning, yet it was already this intense. How was he supposed to make it through the rest?

One had to understand that the 'Nine Heavens Ten Earths' existed here. He had just begun, just ascending the three thousand provinces, the path to come was still extremely long!

"How could there be this type of heavenly tribulation? There's not even any hope of survival at all, simply a trial of death!" A few people sighed softly.

No hope could be seen in this type of heavenly tribulation, only despair!

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths were filled with despair. To challenge everything alone, just how helpless and powerless of a matter was this? One would feel a deep helplessness and despair.

Shi Hao charged forward, advancing towards the center of this continent. Soon afterwards, he fought until his entire body was covered in blood, battle clothes in tatters, even hair drenched in blood.

For a lightning tribulation to reach this step, it can be considered unrivalled under the heavens. To target a cultivator like this, release this type of disaster, it really was terrifying.

“The number one tribulation since ancient times shouldn’t be more terrifying than this!” Someone said quietly, feeling that Shi Hao might die. This type of tribulation couldn’t be crossed at all.

“You’re wrong. This can most likely be considered an unprecedented heavenly tribulation. In this cultivation realm, there shouldn’t be anything more powerful than this.” Someone said with a sigh.

It was because in this era without heavenly tribulation, guiding tribulation down on oneself would make its power increase drastically. The heavenly tribulation would increase several fold, inevitably destroy the cultivator in one move, using this as the reply to those who proactively challenged it!

This was the most powerful heavenly tribulation to begin with, now with this type of added power, just how terrifying would it become? It could be called the most powerful of all of history, at the very least, unprecedented in this cultivation realm!

This was an extremely terrifying thing. Shi Hao slaughtered his way into the continent’s depths, wishing to head to the other continents from that place.

It was because between the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, there were lightning bridges that connected them. He could only forge ahead step by step, and couldn’t directly rush into the sky. There was a terrifying power stopping him from doing so.

This meant that he had to slaughter his way over, make his way through the Nine Heavens Ten Earths one after another, unable to skip a single one!

Only, when he fought to this step, the first continent, which was also the Three Thousand Dao Provinces, before he even made it through, Shi Hao was already staggering about, entire body covered in injuries, blood dripping from his body.

There was a war spear that stabbed into his body, as well as several dozen arrows, and there was even a long blade that was embedded in his shoulder... it was an appalling sight, his injuries too serious.

The most terrifying thing was that these weapons were all lightning, possibly exploding!

“Break for me!” Shi Hao roared.

Lightning radiance erupted from his entire body. He operated the Lightning Emperor Precious Technique, stirring on lightning, forcefully expelling these weapons, make them explode outside his body.

This was incredible fortune after misfortune. If they had exploded while inside his body, the consequences would be too horrible to think about.

Finally, Shi Hao encountered a creature that was especially strong, a creature with some King Clan bloodline, the highest leader of this place. With a roar, he slaughtered his way over.

This creature was in the Self Severing Realm, scarlet hair flying about, eyes like copper, body massive. Brandishing a scarlet bone mace in its hands, its boldness unmatched!

“A Self Severing Realm King Clan individual appeared! This is too freakish, there’s no way he can survive!” Many people’s expressions changed.

How was one even supposed to contend against this? The heavenly tribulation was too ferocious, impossible to face.

Shi Hao didn't feel discouraged at all, his eyes were like lightning, flickering with divine light. He slaughtered his way forward, holding a lightning weapon in hand.

This was a battle of life and death, blood soaking through his battle clothes! Shi Hao fought with his utmost, couldn't hold back. He fought a bloody battle with this king, and at the same time had to face the enemies in all directions, fight their great army.

This scene shocked many people. It was bitter, and it was also inspiring! It was because Shi Hao charged through the giant army alone, slaughtering from the east to the west, and then from the west back to the east. There were countless corpses under his feet, as if he was harvesting wheat, falling one after another. Blood flowed like rivers.

They thought about how the ancient people were wiped out, massacred in the last great era, their side unable to defeat the creatures of the other side. They then saw this scene, the blood of the young cultivators watching also surging, surging with fighting spirit.

He finally made it through!

Shi Hao slaughtered his way out from this area, personally removing that king's head. Even though there were weapons stabbed all over his body, he succeeded.

"He killed his way through, making it through the most crucial step!" Someone said with a sigh.

Shi Hao staggered forward, his body's injuries too serious, already in tatters, full of cuts and holes. There were many areas that were scorched black too, blood soaking through his tattered battle clothes.

He passed through the lightning bridge, arriving on the second continent, walking while treating his wounds.

"Kill..."

However, there were too many enemies, the giant army not giving him any time to rest. When they saw him, they directly surrounded him, attacking him fiercely.

Shi Hao entered a new battlefield, risking life and limb. There was no path of retreat now, he could only fight his way through. Or else what awaited him was only death, his body blasted to ashes!

He fought bloodily the entire time, slaughtering his way over. Along the way, Shi Hao fell several times, many people thought that he died, but he would crawl up again, and then continue forward.

Just like that, he passed through trial after trial, actually making it through the Ten Earths.

"This..." Many people were stupefied, almost not daring to believe what was happening.

It was because when it was most serious, lightning turned into a weapon, stabbed into Shi Hao's body, and then it exploded, almost blasting his body rotten.

"Succeeded! He made it through the Ten Earths, ascended into the Nine Heavens!" Someone cried out.

This was a cheer, making everyone snap back to reality. When they saw that exhausted, wounded body, they were shocked, feeling that this was inconceivable.

After bleeding, fighting this entire time, Shi Hao slaughtered his way into the Nine Heavens!
