

Perfect WD 1591

Chapter 1591 - Nine Heavens' Descendants

Cough!

A cough sounded. This was an elder dressed in gray clothes. He walked over, saying, "This is Scarlet King's final land of seclusion, a place no one dares approach."

He had to give this warning. Even though he was a follower, he wasn't one of those who carried hostility, but rather acted on orders, precisely fearing that Huang might act recklessly and be headstrong.

Scarlet King, his vicious reputation was too well-known.

Even after all these years had passed, he still never appeared, but he was still remembered by the people of this world.

Even if they were foreign creatures, they still felt like this undying king was too fierce.

In the back, many people carried regret. Why did they have to remind Huang? They should just let him follow the path of his own doom.

In the ancient land, undying aura pervaded through the air, the embodiment of a powerful and terrifying will. It was like immortal energy, all the same level of substance, extremely rich in this place.

Shi Hao didn't have any way of entering. He stood here, closing his eyes, as if he was comprehending, but also like he was reflecting.

After a long time had passed, only then did he begin to move. He extended his limbs, continuously forming imprints, and then it was as if he was experiencing a wondrous technique, completely ignoring everything else.

After a long time had passed, Shi Hao made an entire trip around this place, but still didn't enter.

He naturally wouldn't be too stubborn, he only came because he had heard of Scarlet King's vicious reputation, just looking around outside was enough. Who knew if Scarlet King was still alive or dead, it wasn't something he wanted to investigate.

Shi Hao went on his way, heading west. Soon afterwards, he arrived in a swamp. He silently looked around, not saying a single word, standing there for a very long time.

It was because he could feel a wave of sadness here, mysteriously resonating with him.

"Heh, you really are sharp. You can sense it, right? The reason this place is a swamp is because it was formed from flesh and blood. Back then, a group of servants rebelled, and then they were all slaughtered here. However, those really were quite the strong rebels, even after their deaths, their blood didn't dry, soaking the great earth, forming this blood swamp."

Someone spoke up, clearly carrying hostility, provoking Shi Hao. These people followed him here, yet didn't dare take action, but provoking him with words was not an issue at all.

Shi Hao knew that the so-called servants should be the experts who were brought here after the Nine Heavens' defeat. They were definitely subdued cruelly.

It was because he had heard about this more than once. When he was fighting against the foreign younger generation, they had previously purposely provoked Shi Hao, saying their clans had old servants who used to be the Nine Heavens' predecessors, now still carrying out tasks for them.

Shi Hao stood here for a long time, not saying a word.

In the end, he turned around and left.

Then, he entered a grand great mountain, many stone cliffs here. All of them had great dao symbols engraved on them, some whose resplendent light rushed into the heavens, some incomparably grand.

"Golden List!"

Shi Hao was quite shocked when he saw this. There really was a formidable great dao aura here, many experts previously leaving behind their names here.

"All those who established heavenly arts, researched precious ancestral methods, could leave their names here for later generations to admire, recording their ageless achievement." Someone said from the side.

The foreign side was warlike, praising military strength.

As long as one made extraordinary contributions on the path of cultivation, then they would be remembered.

This was clearly not a normal place. Shi Hao couldn't enter, because this place was sealed, he could only watch from the distance.

However, despite this being the case, he was still extremely moved. The names engraved on the stone mountain were full of great dao aura, revealing some of their understandings of the dao.

Even if one watched from the distance, there would still be benefits.

Shi Hao stayed here for several days before leaving.

"This fella really can keep his composure, just walking around and stopping here and there, is he really just comprehending the dao?" Someone said with a low voice, frowning.

Just like that, a month passed. Shi Hao went to many places, even entering several King Clan ancient lands, as well as the outer regions of Emperor Clan residences.

Today, Shi Hao continued on his way. When he passed by a village, he discovered that the people inside were quite primitive, many of them with shaggy clothing, arms bare. Their appearances were fierce like bandits.

"What clan is this from?" Shi Hao was shocked.

In the other side, he had never seen such a poor community before. The village was run down and old, moreover extremely filthy, as if this was the residence of a group of wanderers.

"They came from the same place as you." Someone said with a cold laugh.

When Shi Hao heard this, he was immediately shocked. He then walked over, approaching the village.

"You all came from Imperial Pass' side?" Shi Hao asked.

As a result, the creatures in the village were all extremely careful, eyes flickering with radiance. None of them were willing to reply.

"I also came from that side!" Shi Hao took the initiative to tell them.

"Really? Are you also destitute and homeless, no one willing to take you as a servant now?" A robust male walked over, carrying a pressing aura.

At the same time, the others moved over, surrounding Shi Hao.

"Hand over all of the precious tools and magical artifacts on your body!" The group of people were extremely fierce, cold light flashing through their eyes, actually about to rob Shi Hao.

Meanwhile, this was definitely no joke. Shi Hao could feel their killing intent. A single misunderstanding and they were going to kill him.

Why was this? Shi Hao stared blankly.

"All of you, go away!" Right at this time, the gray-clothed elder who advised Shi Hao not to enter Scarlet King's place of seclusion appeared again, berating those people here.

"Your distinguished self came from a King Clan? May I ask if you need any battle servants?" One of the robust men asked carefully. He was staring at a marking on the gray-clothed elder's sleeves, recognizing that he belonged to a King Clan.

Shi Hao was stunned. How could this be? They actually wanted to become battle servants?

"Heh heh, do you see? The creatures that were seized aren't all tough nuts, this is the truth!" The gray-clothed elder said with a smile.

Shi Hao was quiet. What could he even say? These inhabited areas actually had such a strong feeling of servitude.

At this moment, he understood that many things were different from how he imagined it. The predecessors' descendants in this world weren't all unyielding to the end.

The so-called fighting a bloody battle to the end, the unyieldingness, much of it was just idealized.

However, Shi Hao also understood that he shouldn't blame these people. After endless time passed, the situations of generation being terrible, they had long changed from the predecessors of Immortal Ancient Great Era, long not feeling any sense of belonging to the Nine Heavens.

Even the clans who were previously extremely strong-willed might be tortured until they lost all of their pride.

This type of village was reality, there was no way every single descendant of the Nine Heavens would maintain their bloodiness and loftiness.

Time is a sharp blade, it cuts away too much, removing glory, self-respect, as well as the past unyieldingness and pride.

Shi Hao sighed. He didn't blame these individuals, instead, he sympathized greatly with them. This was actually a group of pitiful people.

Sure enough, in the following path, he saw a few more stone villages. There were more primitive and declined groups willing to become battle servants of King Clans.

Shi Hao didn't wish to stay here for too long, quickly leaving this region.

"Only these types of people can live longer, you've seen how those descendants of the Nine Heavens who are aggressive and unyielding are, their lives difficult, constantly unsure of life and death, for example War God Academy's fighters, they are destined to die bloody deaths." The gray-robed elder said.

Two days later, Shi Hao received an invitation card, the words on it glistening with radiance, shining extremely brilliantly.

"Yi, they are actually inviting him?"

In the back, there were some followers with enmity who never left. When they saw this invitation, they were all extremely shocked.

"This is but a great opportunity! There is no reason to invite him, why should he be able to go?!" A few people were upset, not even they were given this type of chance.

Shi Hao looked towards that gray-clothed elder. This was precisely the one in charge of following him.

"This is an invitation to a tea ceremony, only exceptional talents are invited."

Shi Hao obtained a reply, moreover quickly understood the details.

The so-called tea ceremony was also known as a dao comprehension tea party.

In this world, there was a stalk of immortal medicine that was extremely special, incredibly valuable. It was precisely the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree!

Immortal medicines that became trees were extremely rare to begin with, moreover, this was a tea tree that could help one comprehend the dao. This was simply unimaginable, whenever it matured, it would create a great commotion.

Whenever its tea leaves could be picked, it would always become a grand occasion for this world!

At that time, many heaven warping figures would appear, sit beneath the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, enjoy the tea while discussing the dao, exchange pointers.

Of course, if one wished to enjoy the tea, they had to have the qualifications to do so.

Each year, the number of those who went exceeded the millions, yet in the end, only a few had the fortune of tasting Dao Comprehension Tea.

It was because that ancient tree, normally speaking, produced extremely few leaves, in its most flourishing times only three thousand leaves. A single leaf could allow one to gain insights, its value astonishing.

“Will there be undying beings there?” Shi Hao asked.

“Even though it is a distinguished meeting, it is mostly for heaven warping geniuses of later generations.” The gray-clothed elder replied.

Moreover, he didn’t hide anything, telling him that winners could obtain more Dao Comprehension Tea Tree leaves, meaning that they could continuously gain enlightenment.

In the past, there were people who drank cup after cup of Dao Comprehension Tea, in the end comprehending the great dao, breaking through the Supreme Being Realm and becoming an undying existence, shocking everyone.

There were others who were well prepared, sitting under the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, climbing up from the Self Severing Realm, irregular scenes shocking the heavens!

“Interesting!” Shi Hao nodded. In the end, he decided to go.

Dao Comprehension Mountain, this place was definitely famous, a holy land of this world!

It was all because of the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree that grew here. This was a world shocking ancient immortal medicine, unimaginably precious.

Whenever the tea leaves matured, there would be a distinguished meeting.

Shi Hao arrived beneath Dao Comprehension Mountain. This mountain really was big, extremely grand, giving off immortal mist.

He saw many creatures as soon as he arrived at the foot of the mountain, with creatures of all different clans here.

“Don’t hurt my grandma, wuwu...” At the foot of the mountain, weeping sounds could be heard, the sobs tender. There was a four or five year-old little girl standing in front of an old woman, hugging her body, guarding her, not letting others hurt her.

“For servants who committed crimes, even death is deserved. After all these years passed, the Nine Heavens is already almost finished, yet you all are still so bold and unyielding? Laughable!”

A youngster’s face was extremely cold, raising his foot and stepping down.

Shi Hao’s eyebrows stood on end, carrying anger, but also gratitude. This youngster was extremely vicious, even stepping on the little girl. The gratitude he felt was because he saw that there were still descendants of the Nine Heavens who weren’t like those villages.

Chapter 1592 - Human Race

The little girl wasn’t big, only four or five years old. Originally, she was quite pretty, but now, her small face carried fear, large eyes full of tears. Her body was thrown over the old woman’s body.

She was crying, shouting, reaching out her small hands to protect her grandma, blocking with her weak little body, not letting that man hurt the old woman.

The young man didn't show any mercy, that foot stepping down towards the grandmother and granddaughter pair, eyes full of cold light, expression a bit fierce.

If they were trampled on, how could that little child take it? Meanwhile, that old woman didn't seem like a powerful individual either, already quite old, difficult for her to bear serious injuries too.

"Don't hurt her!" The old woman had blood on her mouth, forehead full of wrinkles, white hair filling her head, weather-beaten. She did her best to turn around, using her own body to protect the little girl.

"Grandma!" The little girl cried out, tears tumbling down, feeling extremely grieved.

The youngster's foot trampled down, still not stopping, about to land on them.

Peng!

Right at this time, this youngster felt intense pain from his back, entire body flying out, landing on the ground with a putong noise. His muscles and bones felt as if they were all snapped and broken, entire body in pain.

This was especially the case with his back, burning with intense pain.

"Who?!" He roared out in anger.

It was because he was sent flying by a kick.

Originally, his foot was stamping down on the grandmother granddaughter pair, but in the end, he was the one kicked flying. This really was a bit unexpected.

"Human, Nine Heavens' descendant, you... dare humiliate me?!"

When he saw Shi Hao, sure that this was a human, he immediately became furious, face falling ashen, shouting, "Whose family's servant are you?"

It was because in his opinion, the Nine Heavens' descendants were all servants of different clans, rarely did they have their own freedom.

"Treating a child like this, aren't you a bit too vicious?" Shi Hao stood there, looking towards the young man on the ground.

"What does it have to do with you? This is my family's servant, if I want to kill, then I'll kill, if I want to cut them, then I'll do what I want. You are just a human, yet you dare act unbridled before me?!" The male on the ground erupted in rage.

Int that instant, he leapt up, looking coldly at Shi Hao. It was because even though that kick inflicted great pain, Shi Hao didn't deal a killing blow.

Right now, the surrounding creatures all looked over.

"Young master, what's wrong?" In addition, when people further away heard sounds of activity, they quickly rushed over, clearly this male's subordinates.

Of course, there were some who cried out in alarm, because those creatures immediately recognized Huang, never expecting it to be this disaster. nDVe)(b)In

Peng!

Shi Hao walked over, a foot extending out. With a peng noise, he stepped down on this young man's body, stuffing his following curses and words right back down his throat.

This male was stunned. He was extremely strong, yet right now, he already dodged, moreover took action, ancestral methods covering his body, yet in the end, he was still kicked flying.

This wasn't like the kick just now, his chest now had several bones that directly cracked apart. He screamed miserably, blood vomited from his mouth, falling onto the ground.

"Who are you, daring to attack me?!" The expression in the young man's eyes was malicious, gnashing his teeth in anger.

"Little friend, you should hurry and leave!" That old woman on the ground urged Shi Hao, fearing that he was bringing disaster onto himself.

That young girl's face carried tears, large eyes carrying gratitude, and also alarm. When she looked at Shi Hao, she was at a loss for what to do, not expecting someone to help them.

"Human race, nothing more than servants, yet you dare take action against me! I don't care which King Clan's battle servant you are, you are going to die!" That youngster said with a cold voice.

That young girl's face immediately became snow-white, horrified. Her nose twitched, and then she cried out, full of fear as she said, "Big brother, you should hurry and go."

The grandmother and granddaughter both advised Shi Hao.

Quite a few people in the surroundings already recognized Shi Hao. They all released cries of alarm, discussing amongst themselves.

"It's Huang, he came!"

Moreover, that young man's servants also hurried over, carrying shocked expressions, but also killing intent, looking in this direction.

"Kill him for me!" The young man roared out with red eyes.

"Young master, cease your anger! He is Huang!" These servants hurriedly supported the young man, advising against it.

"Huang, what Huang? Ah, it's hum?!" The young master suddenly realized within his shock, the red color in his eyes disappearing. He was still angry, but when he looked at Shi Hao, he felt a bit helpless.

This young man was extremely upset. First of all, their strength was definitely inferior to Huang's, moreover, if one wanted to retaliate against him, they had the undying existences' decree to worry about.

“Huang, even though you are forceful, what I do is none of your business, right? That is my family’s servant, I can deal with them however I want!” The young man said in rage. He came from a King Clan, so he had the backing to be a bit more fierce.

The grandmother and granddaughter were stunned, because from these words, they realized that the so-called Huang was incredibly valiant, even King Clans’ young masters feeling restraining fear.

“Big brother, please save us!” The little girl spoke, large eyes full of tears. With a blink of her eyes, tears tumbled down, incredibly pitiful.

Shi Hao nodded, not even asking why. It was because he could guess at their situation without even thinking too much about it. As the Nine Heavens’ descendants, their lives were extremely miserable.

“Huang, what right do you have to manage my servants?” That King Clan young lord said coldly.

“Young master, forget it. It’s just one servant, don’t act rashly.” At his side, there were old servants who hurriedly walked up, stopping him, bringing him away.

That young man also calmed down a bit, not continuing to berate the other side. It was because he felt a bit of restraining fear, long hearing about Huang’s rumors. If there was someone who provoked him, then they might really be directly killed.

Shi Hao started to ascend the mountain, the grandmother and granddaughter following him. This made him sigh. This was only temporarily helping them, it didn’t truly free them from their misfortune.

Dao Comprehension Mountain was extremely large. When walking on it, one would feel like a speck of dust. The mountain was spacious, as if over a hundred great mountains were pieced together.

Many people ascended the mountain, but there weren’t many who flew up, most of them walking up the stone stairs step by step. It was because if they wished to comprehend the dao, they had to do this.

At the same time, because this was a sacred land in many creatures’ eyes, flight was not permitted out of respect.

Even though the mountain was extremely large, still very far from the mountaintop, Shi Hao already felt that this mountain summit’s life essence energy flourished like a sea. Needless to say, this was naturally because of the long life medicine -- Dao Comprehension Tea Tree.

At the same time, there was a wave of gentle light that scattered down. Despite the mountain being so great, one could still sense an auspicious aura undulating.

There were many creatures on the mountain. Some of them recognized Shi Hao, none of them daring to get too close, maintaining a set distance from him.

Just like that, the originally crowded mountain path, in the space around Shi Hao, actually became extremely spacious, no one coming here.

The mountain was sturdy, actually releasing wisps of immortal energy, clearly an immortal mountain suitable for cultivation. It was no wonder this place was known as Dao Comprehension Mountain.

At the side of the road, there were some pavilions and kiosks for people to rest in. There weren't many, scattered about the mountain. Together with the waterfalls, flowing springs, and rising immortal mist, this place carried quite the elegant feeling, extremely beautiful.

En?

When Shi Hao raised his head, he saw people drinking in a distant pavilion. There were some young people who gathered, chatting and laughing there.

On that table, not only was there food and drink, there were children!

When Shi Hao saw this scene, he immediately felt his scalp turn numb. It was because he saw a male open his mouth and swallow a child, bright red blood splashing out from his bloody mouth.

At Shi Hao's side, the old woman's body trembled, as did that of the young girl, she was even more frightened, shaking in fear, eyes full of fear.

Shi Hao immediately knew why the grandmother and granddaughter were treated like that.

Right at this time, the youngsters also looked over, currently looking at Shi Hao!

"I knew the emperor's son-in-law was at a critical point, about to transform, which was why I found some human spirited children who had special bloodlines, never expecting one to get away, moreover with that Huang interfering, ruining everything." The King Clan young master who had previously been beaten by Shi Hao said.

Moreover, at this time, he stared at this side, expression in his eyes cold. He stared at Huang, carrying a bit of provocation.

Shi Hao saw that there should only be one person eating children. Right now, he was currently looking over, blood still dripping from the corners of his mouth, because he was still chewing.

He ate a child alive!

Moreover, there was a large jade plate with several children, all of them spirited children of the human race, within them some strange bloodline power.

"You've touched my food, human. Huang, aren't you treating yourself as too big of a deal?" Inside the pavilion, the leading male said coldly, gabeng gabeng sounds coming from his mouth, blood flowing out.

At this moment, Shi Hao's scalp went numb, not out of fear, but rather because a wave of anger was surging. He immediately rushed over, wishing to unleash a great slaughter.

Behind him, the people who followed Shi Hao were all horrified, because right now, Huang's aura was just too terrifying.

"Huang, what are you trying to do?!" That King Clan young master immediately stood up, berating Shi Hao.

Hong!

What he received in reply was a fist. Shi Hao used Earth to Inches, arriving with a single step, smashing at those in his way.

That King Clan young master, even though he resisted with everything he had, his eyes immediately became full of horror, his body exploding with a pu sound.

Only a head remained, carrying fear and alarm, rolling to the side. He still didn't die, but this was even more frightening, experiencing a torment that made him wish he was dead rather than alive.

Chapter 1593 - Obliterated n-0velbIn

The group of people were all shocked, all of them suddenly standing up in the pavilion, facing Shi Hao.

No one expected Huang to be this domineering and direct, taking the initiative to provoke them. That King Clan young master's head tumbled about, making all of their bodies go cold.

Ah...

That King Clan young master was frightened. The head that was spared was purposely left by Huang, rolling next to the pavilion. He endured the great pain as he watched everything.

Shi Hao erupted with killing intent, using the Earth to Inches great divine ability just like that, pressing over step by step, staring at all of the creatures in the pavilion.

There were several children in the jade disk, all of them only three or four years old. Their bodies were sealed, unable to speak or move, but their eyes were full of fear, already about to faint from fear.

Shi Hao had met some vicious beasts who were extremely savage before, but he had never seen creatures like these. They put on refined appearances, could be considered beautiful young men, yet had such terrifying bloody mouths when eating.

"Huang, this place isn't Imperial Pass. You are in my world, do not go too far!" Someone shouted.

Peng!

Shi Hao still released a fist, his eyes ice-cold. The power around his fist was extremely concentrated, releasing a streak of terrifying divine light, directly blasting through that person's body. He immediately cried out miserably, flying outwards, and then exploded on the ground, only a head left to roll about.

It wasn't that he couldn't kill them, but rather that Shi Hao purposely left them alive, to let them watch, at the same time taste the threat of death.

There were eight or nine people, every one of them ruthless and cold-blooded. However, when they faced Shi Hao now, they all panicked, not as calm as before.

Only the scholarly looking male referred to as emperor's son-in-law remained extremely calm, still chewing, slowly swallowing his food. In the end, he used a towel to wipe away the blood from the corners of his lips.

"Huang, do you know what you are doing?" He spoke up, questioning Shi Hao like this.

In the back, the young girl next to the old woman had long begun crying. It was because if Shi Hao didn't save her, just now, she would have met the same fate as what just happened before her eyes, be eaten.

"Huang, you better not act randomly." Inside the pavilion, there were others who put on fierce appearances while actually terrified inside, shouting out like this.

"You reached a crucial point, needing special human blood? However, you just eat them this savagely?" Shi Hao said coldly.

If it was a wild beast, then that was that, but this was a humanoid creature, extremely graceful and calm looking, yet he carefully ate these children, this contrast really was too great.

This was precisely the reason why when Shi Hao saw this himself, he decided to take action powerfully. In his opinion, that so-called emperor's son-in-law was intolerably savage.

"These children are so small, yet you have the heart to eat them in such a cruel manner?" Shi Hao shouted.

He carefully sensed, discovering that these children innately had a few strange bones within them, bloodlines unordinary. After they grew up, they should precisely be the so-called 'exceptional talents', innately having a type of precious technique.

Meanwhile, this type of spirited children, innocent and pure, still at such a young age, were treated as food, eaten alive.

"I will give you one chance. Immediately turn around, don't overestimate yourself, because this isn't any of your business. This is my food." This emperor's son-in-law said.

The King Clan young master definitely wanted to offer up the small girl as a form of boot-licking.

"You think you are anyone special? Do I need you to give me any chances?" Shi Hao said. Moreover, he condensed a fist imprint, about to take action.

"Huang, hurry and stop, don't stir up conflict!" The gray-clothed individual who had always followed behind him, hurriedly transmitting sound, telling him to not act rashly.

Shi Hao wanted to know what kind of background this scholarly male had. As a result, the gray-clothed elder told him that this was an Emperor Clan's 'son in law'.

Moreover, he was related to the most vicious Emperor Clan, someone from Scarlet King's bloodline.

"His fiancée is Chi Menghong's younger sister!" The gray-clothed individual warned.

Chi Menghong, the outstanding inheritor of Scarlet King's bloodline. He had previously been sent into the Yin Yang Furnace together with Shi Hao, his cultivation extraordinary.

Moreover, Chi Menghong always wanted to kill Huang.

Now, this emperor's son-in-law was actually related to Scarlet King's bloodline.

Chi Menghong's younger sister was under the Emperor Clan's direct line of descent, so this person before him was naturally extremely terrifying.

“Huang, you should understand your current situation, right? You still aren’t backing off?!” When the people in the pavilion saw Shi Hao’s blank look, not saying anything, they thought that he was scared, thus now provoking him.

The things that happened here naturally caused a disturbance, because in the distant mountain path, there were many creatures on the stone stairway who saw this scene.

“Are you forcing me to kill you all one by one?” Shi Hao finally spoke up.

Inside the pavilion, the faces of the ones who spoke up just now became pale, subconsciously backing up, feeling a bit of regret, a haze appearing over their hearts, extremely scared.

“Huang, you’ve crossed the line. This is my food, what right do you have to interfere?” That emperor’s son-in-law laughed coldly.

“I am a human, yet you all are this savage. Since I saw it, I naturally have to get involved.” Shi Hao said.

“You feel like just because of you are a human too that you have to interfere? However, humans are my food to begin with, should be eaten. Is this something you can afford to meddle in?” The emperor’s son-in-law said.

“You treat humans as food, but I see you as prey. What do I care what kind of place this is, what the situation is like? You already see me here, yet you don’t have a trace of repentance, in that case, just die!” Shi Hao said domineeringly.

Everyone was shocked. Huang was about to take action.

Qiang!

The emperor’s son-in-law moved, a golden long blade appearing in his hands. He brandished it about, the aura devouring the world, truly extremely powerful, bringing with it divine chains of order, hacking towards Shi Hao.

He believed that even if he wasn’t a match, he could still hold on until reinforcements came. There were too many experts on the mountain, which was why he wanted to find a way to hold on.

However, the result was outside his expectations, as well as beyond everyone’s predictions.

Huang directly stopped his divine blade with two fingers. With a ka ba noise, a light shake, the golden long blade shattered.

What kind of strength was this?

Hong!

However, the emperor’s son-in-law was indeed quite strong, releasing heaven overflowing light. Many secret techniques were released, blasting towards Shi Hao.

Pu!

It was still that simple. It was as if Shi Hao had an Imperishable Golden Body, completely unstoppable, charging right through the ancestral techniques barrier of light, arriving in front of the emperor's son-in-law, breaking one of his arms.

This was quite astonishing. Huang was this powerful? Even though they already made some mental preparations, this was still shocking.

"Ah... he screamed, face becoming pale. He didn't expect to be seriously injured as well. Of course, the most shocking thing was that Huang's strength far exceeded his imagination.

Pu!

Shi Hao took action, this time, after a fist smashed out, even though the emperor's son-in-law continuously resisted, after eight moves, his body still exploded to pieces, only a head remaining.

"This is bad, things have now become big!" The gray-clothed individual transmitted sound to Shi Hao. Scarlet King bloodline's people weren't good to provoke.

Shi Hao didn't pay him any attention, walking over just like that, trampling the King Clan young master's head from before to pieces. Blood splashed out, the restricted primordial spirit also turned into scattered ashes.

Pu!

Another light noise sounded. Another creature who only had a head left had his head crushed to pieces, losing his life.

"Don't act randomly, Chi Menghong's sister is going to become my dao companion, you..." That so-called emperor's son-in-law was now truly frightened, shouting out like this.

"Turns out you aren't an emperor's son-in-law yet. Even if you were, what are you still hoping for now that things reached this step? I'll send you on your way just the same!"

Pu!

Shi Hao crushed his head to pieces with a single stamp, this so-called emperor's son-in-law's life ended just like that.

Everyone in the surroundings had blank looks on their faces, simply not daring to believe what happened, not even reacting properly yet. Huang decisively took these peoples' lives just like that.

This was too brash and domineering!

Hong!

Only a moment later did everyone erupt into discussion, really shaken. Huang was so daring, actually able to do even this type of thing.

Even now, everyone was still in a bit of disbelief. That person was about to become the dao companion of a princess from Scarlet King's bloodline, yet he was slaughtered just like that.

“Huang, you’ve provoked a huge disaster!” The gray-clothed individual was shaken. He couldn’t help but shout out, warning Shi Hao.

“Huang killed the son-in-law of Scarlet King’s bloodline!”

“Heavens, an emperor’s son-in-law was killed just like that, powerfully slaughtered by Huang!”

In that instant, everyone snapped out of their daze, couldn’t help but cry out.

Shi Hao ascended the mountain, climbing it step by step. The old woman and little girl always followed him, their expressions complicated, but also extremely happy.

Below the mountain, news spread like a storm, sweeping over, the disorder quite great.

Meanwhile, at this time, Shi Hao already approached the mountaintop. He stood below, looking at the hazy radiance released by the immortal medicine.

From the distance, this immortal tree was rooted at the mountain summit, entirely sparkling, releasing an extremely gentle and divine radiance.

“Huang, you touched an Emperor Clan’s person?!” On the mountaintop, someone roared out.

“So what if I did?” Shi Hao replied, continuing up, becoming more powerful and resolute.

“The Emperor Clan won’t let you go!” That person shouted.

“Then I’ll just fight!” Shi Hao replied.

Chapter 1594 - Human Slave

Dao Comprehension Mountain, this place seemed like it was cast out of metal. The mountain itself was extremely hard, exceptionally rigid. This was especially true for the mountaintop which even more so flowed with metallic luster.

An immortal medicine was planted precisely in this place!

Shi Hao ascended the mountain, walking over step by step. The people around him all backed up, not daring to walk together with him. It was because they all knew that a storm was brewing.

Killing an emperor’s son-in-law, provoking an Emperor Clan, this type of thing definitely couldn’t be mediated. The stone staircase was used year-round, already worn to the point where it sunk in, no longer smooth.

The old woman followed behind him. Apart from her granddaughter, there were a few other children, all of them shivering in fear, also following along. It was precisely the children those individual almost used as food.

The old woman could be considered to be going for broke. When she saw that so-called emperor’s son-in-law killed, she brought all of the children on that jade platter with her.

All of the creatures backed off, even when they saw the old woman and the children, it was still as if they were avoiding snakes and scorpions, not willing to get involved.

The mountaintop was extremely vast, not limited in area like the other mountain peaks at all. It wouldn't be a problem even if a hundred thousand people cultivated at the same time.

Shi Hao arrived. He stepped on the metallic surface, about to enter the highest point, officially reach Dao Comprehension Mountain's summit.

Apart from this, there was faint immortal energy flowing about, pure white wisps swirling about, carrying a type of artistic scenery.

Of course, what left everyone the most refreshed was that wave of fragrance. It wasn't that rich, but it penetrated deeply into the heart, making one feel clear-minded, wishing to comprehend the dao.

The reason for this result, was all because of that immortal medicine at the mountain summit.

However, that place was extremely hazy, because there was a group of powerful creatures seated here, protecting it. Moreover, they all held secret treasures, forming light screens, covering this place.

"Huang, you really are insolent!"

As soon as Shi Hao arrived at the mountaintop, he heard a loud shout, the void like thunder, making many people's ears ring with noise, unable to stand still, almost fall off the mountain.

On the mountaintop, there were many creatures, all of them powerful individuals, not a single weak person. Meanwhile, the people on the mountain all stood at the outermost region, not approaching the true mountaintop.

It was because if one wanted to enter, they had to compete with each other, a contest was unavoidable.

It could be said that the highest point of the mountain was 'exclusive' to the various clans' powerful individuals.

The creature who berated Shi Hao stood right before him, blocking the path to the highest point.

Meanwhile, most people could only stop when they reached this place too, hard for them to seize a spot on the mountaintop.

This was a blue-robed male, looking to be around thirty something years of age. His hands were behind his back, standing at the center of the stone staircase, looking down on Shi Hao from above.

This person was extremely strong, strand after strand of chaotic energy actually rising from his body. Judging from his appearance, his physical strength was definitely extremely great, because the surrounding space even became indistinct from the pressure.

His figure was tall and slender, not extremely muscular, but he gave off a great pressure, as if it was an extremely terrifying vicious beast standing there.

"Get lost!"

When faced with this powerful individual, these were the only words Shi Hao had for him, simple and direct. He didn't say any more, not wishing to even argue.

It was because he really had nothing to fear. Forget about offending the Emperor Clans, killing an emperor's son-in-law, even if he really did kill Chi Menghong, he wouldn't worry too much.

Ever since he was sent out from Imperial Pass, Shi Hao no longer had any hope of returning alive, long prepared for the worst!

Even if he had freedom right now, he still remained clear-headed, knowing that this was nothing more than due to the undying kings not returning yet. Once they left Burial Region, at that time, they would most likely deal with him.

In Shi Hao's opinion, at worst, he would just die. That was why right now, he didn't care that much, not feeling any fear towards these clans, moreover taking the initiative to provoke them, viewing death as a return home.

This place became extremely quiet. Huang's 'get lost' startled all of the nearby people. This was too domineering! A powerful Self Release Realm individual spoke, yet he was treated like this.

"Audacious! You dare shout at my family's lord like this, act with such disrespect?!" Someone shouted from behind the blue-robed male, actually a human!

This human was clearly a servant, the blue-robed male's slave.

Shi Hao looked over coldly, his gaze ice-cold, making this rather young looking human break out into a cold shiver.

"Huang, you really are brazen to the extreme, daring to act in such a brash manner even after coming to my Dao Comprehension Mountain! Don't think that no one dares act against you just because the undying beings passed down a decree!" The blue-robed male said coldly.

He was extremely strong, or else he wouldn't dare be the first to stand out and block him here.

"One of the King Clans' last generation top ten?"

Some people cried out in shock. The blue-robed male seemed familiar. They then suddenly realized who he was, recognizing his identity.

This male looked like he was thirty something, but he definitely wasn't, a past King Clan elite, his name previously shocking the world.

"I never treated that undying decree like a big deal!" Shi Hao calmly replied.

When these words sounded, the faces of everyone changed, revealing anger.

The undying beings were high up above, overlooking endless time, the aura of any one of them swallowing up mountains and seas. Their decrees possessed tremendous power, wherever they passed, all clans would respect it.

However now, this was just a youngster, yet he actually treated the decree of undying beings with such contempt.

What Shi Hao said was the truth, he didn't feel like he really had freedom. Sooner or later, he would fall into the undying kings' hands, likely not having a good end then.

That was why he really didn't care. In the bit of time left, he wasn't scared of offending any clan!

"Huang, you are indeed strong, but killing the emperor's son-in-law without any cause or reason, cutting down my side's young experts is a great crime. There is no good ending for you." The blue-robed male said coldly.

"Is it killing without reason? If you think so, then so be it." Shi Hao still remained calm, unperturbed.

"Do you wish to dispute this?" The blue-robed male asked coldly.

"What is there to dispute? My human race were being killed, so I acted, what else is there to say?!" Shi Hao was extremely straightforward, his voice turning cold, giving off an extremely dangerous feeling.

"For those children, you offended an Emperor Clan, it really is an unwise choice. You are courting death!" The blue-robed male said coldly. Then, he said, "Before acting, did you not think to yourself that it might be better to get along with the emperor's son-in-law if you want to integrate into our world?"

"By treating humans as food, this inevitably makes us eternal enemies. That so-called emperor's son-in-law's clan ought to be wiped out!" Shi Hao's voice was extremely loud, and also extremely intimidating.

The creatures here were all shocked. This Huang really was quite daring, after killing an emperor clan's son-in-law, he still didn't show any sign of repentance, still so powerful.

The human servant behind the blue-robed male spoke up again, clearly the blue-robed male's trusted aide, or else he wouldn't take the initiative to berate Shi Hao.

"Brazen! Huang, do you even understand the wrongs you committed? Even if the Emperor Clan's son-in-law showed you enmity, he still didn't take action, you were the first to take his life. Moreover, isn't it just some children eaten? Why are you making such a huge fuss over it? You should just bind your own hands and wait for the Emperor Clan's punishment!"

Shi Hao's eyes became extremely cold for the first time, staring at the servant behind the blue-clothed male. He was a human, yet he actually spoke these words.

"Humans are born from humans, demons are born from demons, are you born from a fucking transvestite[1]?! Not thinking from the perspective of a human!" Shi Hao berated. He really was a bit annoyed.

If it was the other side's creatures saying this to Shi Hao, partial to the Emperor Clan's son-in-law, then Shi Hao wouldn't say much.

However, this servant was clearly human, yet he didn't look at things from a human perspective, always thinking from the foreign creatures' perspective, this really was hateful.

Shi Hao wouldn't bother arguing at all if it was a foreign creature who felt like eating humans was normal, there was no need, but this was a human too. He found it really hard to understand just what was going on in this person's head.

"What, is what I said wrong?" That servant shouted out. He was extremely young, hiding behind the blue-robed male, confident that he has backing. His appearance could be considered handsome, but in Shi Hao's eyes, it looked extremely malevolent.

“Those who see my human race as food are destined to be my mortal enemies, impossible for us to reconcile, there will only be killing between us. Meanwhile, someone like you, there is no need for you to remain alive. You don’t treat yourself as a person, only making considerations for this side, die!” Shi Hao shouted, moreover directly taking action.

“You dare? I want to see how you will act viciously!” The blue-robed male shouted.

He took action, stopping Shi Hao. His entire body surged with blue light, in addition, his entire body was surrounded by chaotic energy, his body incredibly sturdy, power terrifying.

Everyone was shaken, this King Clan elite from the last great generation hadn’t come out for hundreds of years, his cultivation definitely made astonishing progress.

They all knew how strong Huang was, but they were also full of confidence in this blue-robed male.

It was because not long ago, Shi Hao had fought with the younger generation, fighting an intense battle with Martial Heavenly King and the other ten great King Clan experts, needing to use a bit of effort.

Meanwhile, this blue-robed male had several hundred more years of cultivation, so he should be able to subdue Huang.

This was especially the case when they saw the chaotic energy around his body, granting them even more confidence. His cultivation was clearly extremely profound.

Sure enough, the two took action, both of them using great divine abilities, extremely intense as soon as they clashed, the noises like thunder, deafening. Light rays rushed into the heavens, filling the skies.

“Worthy of being one of the past ten great experts, even able to stop Huang. He is definitely going to be suppressed!” Someone said.

Even though he was praising the blue-robed male, if one thought carefully about it, it also clearly showed how strong Huang was. Stopping Huang, but not able to capture him, it already made so many foreign creatures so excited.

Pu!

However, after fifty something moves, blood radiance rushed into the heavens. Shi Hao scattered the chaotic energy, rushing forward, tearing this person in half, killing him on the spot!

“What? One of the past ten great experts, now long becoming a late stage heroic elite in the Self Release Realm was killed this easily?!”

The crowd was stunned, all of them horrified.

At the same time, Shi Hao took a step forward, instantly filling the world with his projection. His foot was like a small mountain, directly crushing that human slave into a bloody paste with a pu noise,.

Then, he continued to ascend the mountain, about to arrive at the highest point of Dao Comprehension Mountain.

1. Play on words that uses both man and demon/evil

Chapter 1595 - Ancestor Provoked

This was but one of the past top ten King Clan young experts! After several hundred years had passed, his cultivation advanced greatly, at the late stage of Self Release Realm, supreme being path already in sight!

However, he was still killed, leaving everyone here shocked.

One had to understand that the blue-robed male really was extremely valiant, who knew how many times stronger than Martial Heavenly King and the others. However, this terrifying elite was still killed so quickly.

The faces of the cultivators here all changed, because the blue-robed male died too fast, even faster than when Shi Hao killed Martial Heavenly King and others in Imperial Pass.

This only proved how terrifying Huang's cultivation advancement was!

His strength increased by a large margin in the shortest amount of time, too difficult for even one of the ten great kings of the past to face him!

This was a world-shaking individual!

These words appeared in many people's minds. No matter how much they hated Huang, they had to admit that this young expert was too extraordinary, with unstoppable talent.

If he was given time to grow up, he might become unmatched under heaven!

Shi Hao's projection became smaller, recovering his normal height. After trampling that human slave to death, he already arrived at the mountaintop. He looked forward.

"This... really is an ancestor!" In the rear, the gray-clothed man said to himself, his head covered in sweat. He felt like Huang really was too good at provoking trouble.

Just how much time had passed? After coming to Dao Comprehension Mountain, Scarlet King bloodline's son-in-law exploded underneath his feet, and now, one of the past ten great young experts was torn apart. It was just too savage.

This was, without a doubt, going to stir up great waves!

He hurriedly transmitted sound out, releasing a report, best if the undying existences knew. Otherwise, he really was scared that Huang would provoke even more trouble.

The gray-clothed individual knew himself well, knowing that he wasn't Huang's opponent, that he couldn't stop him.

"Was this smashing a pot because it is already cracked anyway?" He began to suspect. Could it be that Huang felt like he didn't have much hope of left anyway, so he purposely came to unleash a slaughter?

"Heh, interesting. Just a captive from Imperial Pass, yet still dares to stir up trouble here, not knowing the immensity of heaven and earth!" Someone on the mountaintop said coldly.

Shi Hao frowned. He sensed that this individual was extremely strong, should be a half supreme being.

However, his mind was burning with passion, not feeling any fear, really wishing to give it a go, see if he could contend against him!

This time, after undergoing a transformation in Gu Clan's Yin Yang Furnace, he obtained tremendous benefits, entire body full of power. He wanted to find someone strong to test it out against.

At the top of the mountain, the green grass was like cushioning, all of the grass not over three inches long, every stalk like green jewels, sparkling and brilliant, extremely soft. Rich heaven and earth essence energy spread outwards.

It was because in order to reach the highest point of Dao Comprehension Mountain, one had to fight for it. Only the strong could reach this place, obtaining a spot to sit in.

The one who spoke didn't show himself, nor did he come over to attack Shi Hao. After speaking coldly, he became silent again.

The mountain summit was extremely vast and spacious, the meadow releasing gentle light. The various great King Clans were scattered throughout, sitting on the ground. There was enough of a cushioning between them, so that there was no conflict.

Shi Hao no longer looked towards these people, nor did he seek out the one who spoke out against him just now, instead directly looking towards the center-most area of this mountaintop.

Waves of sweet scent drifted over from that place, the brilliance also released in this place.

There were people protecting that place, all of them powerful cultivators with secret treasures in hand, guarding against unexpected situations.

When Shi Hao opened his heavenly eyes, seeing through the screen of light, he saw that immortal medicine!

An ancient tree was rooted there, its trunk thick, old bark cracking like dragon scales, unfolding outwards. This tree was extremely ancient, unknown just how many years it had lived for.

Of course, the most amazing part wasn't its branches and trunk, but rather its leaves. Every single leaf was extremely brilliant, releasing brilliance, falling like stellar rivers, winding about the branches.

These were precisely the Dao Comprehension Tea's precious leaves, the value immeasurable!

When it was used to make tea, slowly sipped, one would enter a state of comprehension, able to experience the wonders of heaven and earth dao.

Whenever the leaves matured, it would always be a grand occasion!

Shi Hao was stunned, producing a strange expression. The leaves of this tea tree were extremely strange, no two leaves the same. Their shapes were strange, colors brilliant, not identical.

The sweet scent was released from the tree leaves, just the smell alone making one's body feel light, primordial spirit relaxed, as if they could directly comprehend the dao.

A light breeze blew past. The tree was brilliant, releasing huala noises. All of the leaves were shaking, indicating that the tea tree's leaves had matured, that they could already be picked!

At this time, the others' eyes weren't looking at the immortal medicine, but rather all at Huang.

When they saw that he was this calm, acting as if no one else was here, just looking at the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, a few experts released cold snorts.

This was especially the case when streaks of lightning were released, incredibly penetrating, cutting across the void like lightning, making even space distort, shooting towards Shi Hao!

These were people's gazes, extremely fierce. When normal cultivators stood before it, they would most likely be directly torn apart!

Hong!

Those eyes aimed over, actually piercing space, could be considered attacking Shi Hao.

Everyone was alarmed. Just a look could tear apart the void, these were definitely experts among experts, extraordinary figures!

However, when it approached Shi Hao's body, those gazes couldn't do anything. He stood there calmly, body incomparable, not injured.

His body shone, bright and sparkling, locking this place down, not letting any other power approach his body.

Shi Hao's eyes were bright, looking towards the creatures seated on the meadow.

His face was cold and indifferent. Those who released vicious looks weren't simple after all, likely the same as that blue-robed cultivator, all of them heaven warping figures from many years ago.

However, he didn't feel any fear!

As expected, this was a distinguished meeting. He saw many King Clans, all of them surging with blood energy, clearly formidable individuals.

The most important thing was that these people all looked quite young, regardless of whether they were under a hundred or several hundred years old, they were all still part of the younger generation, having powerful potential. It was hard to say how far they would reach in the future.

What left Shi Hao the most amazed was that there were some who were even stronger than the blue-robed cultivator he killed, moreover even younger!

Soon afterwards, he understood. It was because the clans all had young elites, but most of them always remained in seclusion, only today did they leave their family's ancient lands.

Apart from this, there were some that kept a low profile, never seeking any reputation!

There were some extremely young creatures, their origins should be extremely great! It was because their fighting strength was extremely shocking, Shi Hao reckoned that they should be close to He Ziming. One had to understand that the latter was the number one expert of the King Clans, not weaker than Emperor Clans!

In short, there weren't many old and gray-haired elders, most of them young cultivators.

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao saw Yu Yu, Qing Kun, Wu Kun, and other Emperor Clans. They also came!

Of course, the most unexpected was that Chi Menghong was also here, seated on the grass, not moving at all. There were some battle servants behind him, their auras terrifying.

This left Shi Hao shocked. Chi Menghong was here, yet he didn't make a sound all this time, nor did he express his position. This was quite unexpected.

One had to understand that he killed their so-called son-in-law. This could be considered Chi Menghong's brother-in-law!

Shi Hao always thought that Chi Menghong didn't come yet, or maybe he had something else to do today. He didn't expect him to be sitting right at the top of the mountain.

Why didn't he save his own brother-in-law, actually remaining here?

"I've always wanted to kill you, but I've always been stopped, held back by those Emperor Clan supreme beings. Now, it seems like I might have ample reason to end you today!" Chi Menghong spoke, his voice extremely cold.

This person didn't hide his hostility towards Huang. Ever since Shi Hao met him, he could already sense that the other side really wanted to kill him.

Now that they met, was Chi Menghong really going to fight against him?

"You really can keep your composure, just watching your brother-in-law throw his life away without even lifting a finger, really are ruthless enough." Shi Hao said with a sneer.

"Not even able to take more than a dozen or so moves from you, even someone like him wants to vainly marry into my Scarlet King bloodline? Not qualified at all!" Chi Menghong said coldly.

Everyone was looking in this direction, feeling that an Emperor Clan was going to face off against Huang.

In a few experts' eyes, Chi Menghong will take action, but not necessarily go against the undying decree and slaughter Huang. However, there will definitely be the most ferocious battle.

Scarlet King bloodline was always the most ruthless, merciless when they took action, full of viciousness. This might be a killing intent stored within their very bones.

Back then, Scarlet King slaughtered too many experts, even more so refined an Immortal King into a bloody paste, known to be the most vicious undying king!

His descendants possessed a similar style!

"Emperor Clan, what a pity, you were called Chi Menghong? Try not to lose your life later." Shi Hao said. Since the other party was so full of hostility, then there was no need for him to hold back either.

Chapter 1596 - Miraculous Tea Leaves

Shi Hao's words sounded rather easygoing, not all that serious, immediately making some creatures reveal strange expressions. This really was opposing him with equal harshness, not giving an inch!

The two of them had previously been refined in the same Yin Yang Furnace, but there was no good karma established. Chi Menghong still carried hostility, really wanting to kill Huang!

Meanwhile now, they met again on Dao Comprehension Mountain. He had long prepared to fight a great battle. Scarlet King's descendants were always cold-hearted, iron-blooded and ruthless, other clans always fearful of them.

On the mountaintop, the earth was hard, revealing a metallic color. However, there was still a mattress of green grass covering it, releasing sparkling green radiance.

Right at this time, strong winds suddenly surged between the two, tearing apart space. Then, great thunder sounded, erupting there.

Before they even traded blows, the formless fields between the two of them already displayed such shocking destructive power, making the other cultivators shudder inwardly.

From start until now, Chi Menghong didn't get up, always sitting on the green grass, extremely self-confident. Even when facing Huang, he still didn't stand up.

He had a pair of scarlet eyes, red like gemstones, also like blood suns, extremely intimidating.

His long hair scattered about, extremely young and heroic in appearance, giving off a type of supreme confidence, calm and confident. When he calmly sat there, he was an insurmountable archaic demonic mountain!

Chi Menghong was definitely powerful, able to look down on all creatures of the same generation!

Shi Hao walked forward, his footsteps extremely light, as if he was just going for a stroll, advancing step by step. However, the mountain itself seemed to tremble with his steps, the entire world starting to resonate.

This was a type of formless great power!

With this type of power, it was the same as moving the great dao, commanding the world.

Hong!

Precisely between the two, there were terrifying fluctuations rippling outwards. This time, all types of irregular scenes appeared in the void, dragons crying and lions roaring, lightning flashing and thunder rumbling!

With a kacha noise, the cracks in the void became even more concentrated. Moreover, the black cracks became larger, as if the heavenly dome was shattered, about to reveal another world.

"Stop, if you all wish to carry out a great confrontation, please leave the mountaintop central region!"

There was someone who shouted, an expert in charge of protecting the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree. There were many experts seated beneath the tree, all of them older generation figures who remained here year-round.

It was because this tree was too important, worth watching over by the various clans to avoid someone stealing it. There were always powerful cultivators overseeing this place.

Chi Menghong was always arrogant, proud and unfeeling, but now, he didn't retort, instead calmly sitting there, not taking action again.

It was because the distance from this place to Dao Comprehension Tree was too close. If people at their level fought, the blastwaves would reach the ancient tree, worrisome even if there were formations protecting this place.

Chi Menghong didn't move again. When he looked at Shi Hao, his eyes were extremely cold, a cold smile resting at the corners of his lips, killing intent not decreasing. However, he didn't say anything else.

"Huang, just enjoy your final bit of time, or else you won't have any more opportunities."

The servant at Chi Menghong's side spoke. He had an extremely young face, a light smile on his face, carrying a sunlight-like gentle temperament.

It was just a slave, yet he was this easygoing when speaking to Shi Hao, thinking his own status as high, as if on equal footing with Shi Hao, pointing and talking about him.

Shi Hao frowned, how could he not develop a feeling of disgust? The most important thing was that this battle servant was a human, yet he was perfectly happy to be in this role, enjoying his position and status.

Servitude nature!

These two words directly appeared in Shi Hao's mind as he stared there. However, he didn't say any more. If he bickered with a servant, then that would only lower his own status.

"Heh heh, Huang, you are quite strong, but do not make any mistake, I advise you to beg for forgiveness earlier. If my family's young lord is satisfied, your fate might be changed." The one with the young face spoke up again.

There were three battle servants behind Chi Menghong, their ages comparatively greater. They weren't humans, right now, they released battle auras, extremely powerful in appearance. These three's eyes revealed divine radiance, their expressions not good, really wishing to fight in Chi Menghong's place. If they suppressed Huang, then the meaning would be completely different.

Shi Hao's eyes were cold. For Chi Menghong's servants to dare act like this proved just how arrogant they were normally, even daring to throw their weight around in this type of situation.

"Heng!" Shi Hao released a cold snort. It was as if a streak of lightning hacked down on that human servant's body, making his sea of consciousness tremble greatly, simply about to explode.

Chi Menghong stared at Shi Hao, eyes like cold lightning. An expanse of light surged behind him, helping that servant neutralize this danger, or else there would be a huge problem.

When others saw this scene, they all sucked in a cold breath of air. Huang was this powerful, just a snort enough to take down many enemies.

"There's not much time left, prepare to pick the Dao Comprehension Leaves!" Someone spoke. The mountaintop immediately became noisy, everyone revealing expressions of joy, eyes brilliant.

They were all extremely happy, because they came to Dao Comprehension Mountain precisely for this tea. Now, it matured, could be picked.

Shi Hao and Chi Menghong's confrontation was interrupted, not continuing. Instead, they all looked towards the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree.

The people below the tree all stood up, putting away all types of secret treasures they held. The screen of light disappeared, revealing the immortal tree's full appearance.

The old tree was large and thick, as if a horned dragon was laying dormant here. It had many branches, upright and strong, but the leaves on them weren't that many, sparse.

This wasn't this year's low yield, but rather that the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree was always like this.

There were many branches, but not every branch had a leaf. That was why when it was examined as a whole, it seemed a bit bare.

However, the tree was definitely not lacking in vitality, because it released rich life energy. This was an immortal tree, known as one of the world's most astonishing medicinal herbs, immortal energy naturally swirling about it.

"One, two..." Some people counted, and then they all cheered, crying out.

It was because when they were carefully counted, there were three thousand leaves on the branches, not more, not less, perfectly matching the amount of certain natural laws.

"Three thousand great dao, three thousand leaves, haha, this really is too great, a year of great harvest!" Everyone became incomparably happy.

It was because it was unknown just how many years would pass before the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree could be picked once again, often hundreds to over a thousand years before it could mature. Whenever the leaves matured, when it was few, they would number a hundred or so, only in special situations would there be three thousand.

"Sigh, now that there are three thousand this time, for there to be a great harvest next time, it will likely be another few thousand years!" There were others who sighed, feeling like there was another endless wait ahead.

After the old tree's leaves were picked, it would germinate once more sooner or later, and then slowly grow. The amount of time this would take was too great. n.)Ovϵlb1n

"Sacrificial offering!"

Before the harvest, there was actually a special ceremony carried out, and only afterwards did those elders begin to pick them. They picked those leaves extremely carefully.

Zheng!

Cold light flickered, a leaf actually releasing sword radiance when it was touched, moreover releasing waves of sword cries.

The leaf was long and fine, looking like a divine sword, rising and falling in the air.

Dang!

A long drawn-out bell sound rang out. Another leaf shone, releasing an earthen yellow radiance, as if a great bell was ringing.

Moreover, its appearance was extremely special, not flat, but rather also like a bell, extremely strange!

With a hu noise, fiery light surged. This was a scarlet red leaf, its appearance not much different from a precious furnace, currently releasing fiery light.

Others couldn't help but be shocked, especially Shi Hao. This was the first time he saw the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, leaving him completely astonished.

The other youngsters were also greatly amazed, because even though they had heard about it before, this was the first time they came here. It was because at their age, the last time the tea leaves were picked, they still hadn't been born yet.

Ao...

A tiger roar sounded, the voice fierce and powerful, released by a white leaf. It was shaped like a white tiger, vivid and lifelike. Right now, it actually released roaring sounds.

Then, there was a five-colored leaf that released five-colored divine light, releasing phoenix cries. It bathed in rebirth holy splendor, accompanied by divine flames, dazzling and brilliant. It was a leaf that looked like a phoenix!

Upon closer inspection, the three thousand leaves were completely different, every single one standing apart from the others. Regardless of whether they were in the shape of creatures or various great dao weapons, they were all extremely lifelike, moreover giving off a type of pressure.

This was precisely the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree!

It was just this mysterious and miraculous, which was why it was known as a rare treasure throughout eternity. This was a rare precious tree cultivators yearned for even in their dreams!

The elders who picked the tea leaves were extremely careful, fearing that the leaves might be damaged. In the end, they separately stored these leaves in three thousand small jade containers, sealing them.

"Now is the time of harvest, the tea ceremony will begin!" An elder declared, one of the protectors of the ancient tea tree.

The tea leaves were picked clean, the upright and strong ancient tree completely bare, not a single leaf left behind. However, it still carried exuberant life essence energy, not appearing dispirited.

Under the tree was an altar that was extremely short, but it was holy and divine. It was made of earth, currently releasing mysterious splendor.

The three thousand jade containers were all placed on the altar, densely packed and numerous, specks of radiance flickering about.

The earthen altar shone, extremely gentle and soft. The three thousand jade containers were surrounded in a curtain of light, appearing increasingly auspicious and tranquil.

“Through your own strength, even more so through fate, come and choose the tea!”

“Only one tea leaf can be seized each time. After the tea is created and finished, dao comprehension successful, you may continue picking another tea leaf.”

The elders spoke up one after another, informing everyone about the rules of this place.

“Every single leaf contains a type of unmatched great dao, it will depend on your own fate with that dao. Perhaps you are more intimate to a certain leaf, this will signify that you should walk that path.” Another elder reminded.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, many people took action. They stood in the distance, using powerful magical force to seize the jade containers from the altar.

However, most of them were covered in sweat, unable to move that altar at all. Even though they tried again and again, it was to no avail, unable to obtain any of the leaves.

Weng!

Finally, a jade container moved, rushing out from the earthen altar, flying towards the crowd.

There were so many experts, yet only a few dozen jade containers were seized by magical force, flying out one after another, pitifully few.

One of them flew towards Shi Hao, he succeeded! At the same time, he was extremely excited, wishing to see what shape the leaf that had affinity with him was like, if it could point out a path for him!

Chapter 1597 - Drinking Tea to Comprehend the Dao

The jade container flew over, drawing out a long tail light, as if a star flew down from outer space, rushing towards Shi Hao.

In reality, this was the case for all of the great experts, several dozen jade containers flying over, immediately filling this place with brilliant colors, extremely dazzling like a meteor shower.

This was extremely holy and brilliant, a rare substance used for comprehending the dao, extremely astonishing, everyone looking forward to it.

“Haha, it’s coming!” A few people laughed loudly, extremely excited. It was because the dao comprehension leaves really were extremely precious, if one had the luck, a single leaf could allow them to comprehend the dao, increase their level.

How could this not make their eyes red with expectation?

Shi Hao also laughed, his eyes narrowing slightly, profound and unfathomable pupils shining. He reached out an arm, seizing the jade container that was drawn over.

“En?” Suddenly, he frowned. His jade container actually wanted to struggle free, pulled by a strange power, about to escape from his grasp.

He quickly added force, his palms and fingers shining, having that struggling jade container stabilize again, move towards his palm.

“Haha... it’s mine!” In the distance, a few people laughed happily. There were people who obtained the containers in succession.

One could see that if these people weren’t Emperor Clans, then they were top level powerful King Clans, there were no flukes, there were no weak individuals among the ones who obtained these precious leaves.

Weng!

The jade container in Shi Hao’s hands shook, actually struggling again, about to leave. He naturally knew that there were people interfering, trying to seize it through powerful secret treasures.

If it was a normal person, then that was that. However, they dared try to seize even Huang’s things, this left others shocked.

Shi Hao’s eyes were like lightning, seizing the source. It actually came from Scarlet King bloodline’s direction.

Chi Menghong already succeeded, obtaining his own jade container. Meanwhile, behind him, apart from the young human, those three old servants were operating magical force, secretly using some secret treasures to interfere with space, wishing to seize the jade containers of others.

Shi Hao released a cold snort. His arm shone, and then with a weng noise, an exploding noise sounded. A Kun Peng appeared, golden light swirling, within it black stripes. It turned into yin and yang energy, with a hong noise, it directly seized a jade container. In addition, the yin yang energy swept out, quickly spreading.

There were some that entered the underground, some that scattered into the void, quickly spreading.

Peng!

In that instant, the ground behind Chi Menghong exploded, streak after streak of black mist rushing out. Then, the void exploded, releasing golden radiance!

Yin and yang energies gathered, in the end clashing together, releasing great rumbling sounds.

Pu!

The three old servants immediately coughed out blood, their bodies shaking. The secret treasures in their hands directly fell, all of them seriously injured.

“Huang, what is the meaning of this? You dare create a disturbance in the sea ceremony? Too unbridled, brazen without restraint!” Behind Chi Menghong, that human servant jumped out, berating him.

However, Shi Hao didn’t say anything. The yin and yang energies were still there. They directly smashed down, with a pu noise, his right shoulder exploded, turning into a blast of bloody mist.

If not for a wave of scarlet light rushing, stopping the yin yang energies, he would have been directly ruined, entire body exploding, body and soul eliminated.

At the crucial moment, Chi Menghong took action, helping this human servant escape disaster.

Behind Chi Menghong, those three old servants' faces were ashen, blood at the corners of their lips. They all had extraordinary statuses, even though they were servants, they still possessed profound dao skills.

They never expected to be injured just like that.

As for that human servant, his face even more so became deathly pale. He never thought that as an Emperor Clan's servant, he would actually almost die. He followed at Chi Menghong's side, normally receiving the praise of all clans, enjoying even greater status than normal King Clans, yet today, he was actually this helpless, treated like an ant by another, almost crushed to death.

"Huang!" Chi Menghong narrowed his eyes, not saying too much. A fight between the two was inevitable, there was no way to dissolve the enmity.

"Properly manage your slaves!" Shi Hao said coldly. If it was others, then that was that, but even a servant dared seize his Dao Comprehension Tea Leaf, this really was quite daring.

Of course, the deeper reason was because the other side had confidence in their backing, because Chi Menghong stood behind them, providing them support.

"You..." Behind Chi Menghong, that human race servant was furious. With his status, his position, today, not only did he not bring back glory, he instead brought back humiliation.

"You aren't willing to change your servitude nature, yet you want to vainly anger me?" Shi Hao gave him a cold look. After a light scoff, the yin and yang two energies swirling through the world suddenly appeared again, attacking.

Pu!

This time, that human servant's body directly exploded, extremely bloody, splashing in all directions, body wiped out.

Only a head was left, falling onto the ground, appearing behind Chi Menghong, eyes widened, full of fear. He wanted to cry out, yet couldn't make any sound, only able to transmit his will through his soul.

"Ah..." His soul howled in grief.

At this moment, it was completely quiet, the experts on the mountaintop all extremely shocked. Huang was domineering after all, worthy of being a valiant figure who stirred up endless storms.

He really was like a powerful dragon, daring to offend the vicious Scarlet King bloodline's descendant, shockingly daring.

That servant's body exploded, blood splashing in all directions. If not for Chi Menghong's power being heaven overflowing, body protecting light constantly protecting him, the blood would have splashed onto his body.

"Good, good, I really am looking forward to taking your head. Even if there is an undying decree, I am still going to refine your essence blood, smash out your bone marrow, bring you back to use as paste flavoring!” Chi Menghong’s eyes were scarlet red, extremely terrifying. When he revealed a mouthful of snow-white teeth, licking his lips, it gave many people a horrifying feeling. noVE-lb(1n

“Heheh, you will definitely be well-known, become the first of the Emperor Clan younger generation to be killed.” Shi Hao released an indifferent chuckle.

His words weren’t loud, but everyone felt a wave of ice-cold killing intent. The two of them opposed each other with equal harshness, there would definitely be a blood flowing battle to the death.

“The tea leaves can be used for tea now!” Under the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, an elder said.

On the mountaintop, it was immediately hard to calm down. When they looked outwards, there were giant mountains one after another. They were quite far away, reaching into the clouds, covered in ice and snow year-round.

At this moment, wind and snow filled the skies. These creatures were all gathering the ice and snow on the divine mountain, preparing to brew tea.

Snowflakes immediately covered the heavens, divine ice flying over, drawing out sparkling brilliance in the air.

This was Divine Ice, rumored to have mysterious power, the most suitable water source for brewing tea. It was rumored that back then, there was an undying king who comprehended the dao there, covering the snowy mountain in great dao energy, the snow naturally becoming extraordinary as a result.

The ice and snow were acquired, landing in their respective vessels. There were people who began to activate dao flames, slowly brewing tea.

Soon afterwards, strand after strand of fragrance wafted over, seeping into one’s soul, making many people shiver inwardly. Even those who didn’t have the qualifications to drink the tea felt their bodies become light and relaxed.

Shi Hao looked at the tea water in the jade cup, revealing an expression of surprise.

Ever since the tea leaf entered his hands, he was a bit shocked. This leaf’s shape wasn’t that outstanding, just a normal tea leaf shape, not a cauldron or dragon.

Only now, when the tea had been prepared did it release wisps of immortal mist, spreading throughout the tea cup.

On the tea leaf, a strand of mist was floating out, extremely primitive, extremely hazy. It seemed to contain a type of extremely special power!

Shi Hao’s eyes narrowed. He sipped the tea. As the fragrance filled his mouth, he experienced a type of special peace. Even though he was in this world, unable to see the way back, he still calmed down.

He was astonished. This Dao Comprehension Tea was extraordinary after all, making his mind immediately become clear-headed and at peace, entering some type of dao comprehension state.

In that instant, the world became hazy, auspicious energy surging in all directions. He forgot about everything else, remaining in a state of dao comprehension, experiencing the sound of the great dao moving, about to open his flesh treasury.

“Origin energy!”

Shi Hao was inwardly shaken he sensed the origin energy in his body move, surging, as if it possessed a sea of power.

That streak of origin energy’s origins were strange, appearing when the three streaks of immortal energy appeared on him. Only, it never appeared, only one day was it suddenly unearthed by him.

This dao comprehension leaf was unusual after all. Could it be that the corresponding strand of energy on the leaf was related to origin energy?

Shi Hao narrowed his eyes slightly, feeling increasingly relaxed, mind at peace. He sensed specks of clear light appear within his body, some gates about to open, matching the origin energy.

In that instant, he actually felt a sign of breaking through!

His body shone. As he sat there, a crack in the treasury gates opened, making him seem as if he was bathed in a layer of divine radiance, extremely dazzling.

This left many people jealous. They all knew that Huang’s benefits were not small.

Was he going to enter the late stage of Self Severing Realm? Shi Hao was also hopeful. This type of cultivation speed really was extremely terrifying!

Chapter 1598 - Origin of the World’s Immortal Medicines n//o)-V)/E..l-)-b(.l/(n

A layer of flowing light appeared outside Shi Hao’s body. It was extremely dazzling, like an ancient monk bloodline divine halo, illuminating all life, surrounding him within.

In that place, he became the only one in this entire world. Streak after streak of dao patterns swirled about, pervading the air, spreading like an everlasting imperishable will.

What was everlasting and imperishable? Even undying beings had the day when they will fall in battle, who can remain eternal through the reincarnations of great eras, make it through the darkness, overlook the rise and fall of endless time?!

At this moment, everyone felt like Huang was in a place that transcended the world, not disturbed by this great world, standing out alone from this world, rising above.

In a daze, everyone felt the illusion that this was someone who had remained imperishable through time, able to remain outside the reincarnations of great eras, overlook the mortal realm, someone who had experienced hundreds of ages without fading away, transcending the people from past to now.

“It really is strange!” Soon afterwards, there were experts who snapped out of this feeling. This was just a Self Severing Realm young cultivator, so how could he give others such a strange misconception?

After trembling a bit, light surged from Shi Hao’s surroundings. It was extremely strange, some of the lights releasing a faint golden radiance, these being an astonishing battle aura, as if an undefeated war god stood within the radiance! Meanwhile, some of the lights were scarlet, blood-colored, many figures struggling within, as if they were in an abyss of worldly suffering. There were some that were purple-colored, imperishable imperial courts towering, standing tall throughout endless ages...

Huang gave off an extremely strange feeling. All types of brilliance surged around him, the different colors giving people different feelings, the meaning they represented different, some representing fighting strength, some slaughter, some order and progress...

"Not simple, normally, only supreme beings who have hope of taking that last step can condense this type of great world light. This is radiance that illuminates the heavens, able to penetrate the uncivilized and uncultured, extremely enlightening for one's future cultivation path!" The elders who stood under the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree were moved, one of them saying like this.

Shi Hao was unmoving like a mountain, mysterious radiance swirling through the surface of his body, making him look like divine glass, luminous and translucent, more gentle than the most fine precious jade. Dao laws swirled about, becoming more and more rich. He was becoming stronger.

Inside his body, the strand of origin energy moved, gradually taking form, condensing together. It began to move through his body like a great dragon!

Shi Hao knew that if he truly released his great dao flowers, producing that small figure, the origin energy would bind up that little figure, appear through that type of form.

However, he didn't act rashly, not wishing for the other side to see the two little figures seated above his head, wishing to avoid unnecessary trouble.

At this time, the gates within his body, starting from the Sea of Reincarnation within his abdomen, continuously shone. There were new gates that appeared, moreover producing cracks, extending towards his chest, making that place resplendent as well.

Self Severing Realm late stage, it only lacked a final push!

One had to understand that it hadn't been long since he had broken through. He had just entered the Self Severing Realm when he was in Heavenly Beast Forest, consolidated to the mid stage. Now, he was going to break through again.

If one truly studied his growth trajectory, they would definitely be speechless. It was because it really was too fast, not matching normal reasoning.

Apart from a few Emperor Clan geniuses, normal individuals, when they reached this cultivation realm, needed an extremely long time, not rare for some geniuses to use tens of thousands of years.

Now, his cultivation speed already exceeded normal reasoning, at the very forefront of this great era, surpassing past virtuous predecessors!

If he continued to advance like this, breaking into the late stage of Self Severing Realm at twenty something years of age, then when compared to heaven warping figures from this great era, they will all feel a bit slow.

Even the expressions of the inheritors of Emperor Clans changed slightly, because they were a few years older than Shi Hao. When they saw that he was this bold and vigorous, they all felt a great pressure.

Chi Menghong's eyes released two streaks of blood radiance, every strand of his long hair sparkling, brilliant like metal threads, fluttering about. His killing intent became even stronger.

Shi Hao released a light sigh, withdrawing from that type of dao comprehension state. The amount of time a single cup of tea was effective for was limited, he already separated from that dao comprehension state.

Only now did many people avert their eyes, and then begin to drink their own Dao Comprehension Tea. Of course, there were still quite a few whose eyes were closed this entire time, not watching Shi Hao, immersed in their own world.

Shi Hao produced that leaf from the cup, placing it at the center of his palm, examining it himself. It already lost its spirituality, lacking luster.

He looked towards the earthen altar. There were two thousand jade containers, all of them piled up together, simply like a great treasury. If he could use them, then the benefits to his cultivation would be too great.

Shi Hao thought to himself. These leaves were all different, all of them having their own unique forms. However, they gave him a feeling of deja vu, a bit familiar.

"It is extremely similar to that other immortal medicine!"

When he was seizing the rotten wooden chest, he had seen a stalk of immortal medicine, even ended up in an underground vein in Burial Region by mistake because he was chasing after it, entering Burial Abyss.

That stalk of medicine was originally a tree, but in the end, had a chunk of its stump removed by a Burial King, turned into a coffin. That immortal medicine then fled in fury.

"It is similar!"

Shi Hao felt more and more like the stalk of medicine was extremely similar to this Dao Comprehension Tea Tree. Even though that tree only had the trunk and a tender branch left, the leaves they produced were all entirely different.

He clearly remembered that the tender branch's sparkling leaves were of all different forms, for example, spears, pagodas, arrows, and others, all extremely strange.

This was especially the case when he even obtained one, preserving it in a jade vessel, but he left it with his old friends back in Imperial Pass, not bringing it here.

"There are also differences." Shi Hao remembered. That medicine's leaves were fragrant, the medicinal fragrance rich to the point where it didn't disperse, within it undying essence, extremely suited to refining long life medicines!

Meanwhile, the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree's leaves were more suitable to brewing tea, used to comprehend the dao, but the undying substance stored within was limited!

“It is rumored that regardless of what era it is, forget about undying beings, even undying kings, whenever the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree leaves mature, they would all appear, come here to drink a few cups of tea.”

When the mountaintop quieted down, some of the elders protecting the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree said, actually speaking these words.

When a few people heard this, they woke up from their state of dao comprehension, all of them revealing expressions of shock. They carefully inquired, asking why this was. Was the tea tree this heaven-defying?

“In this world, there are still some true immortal roots left, some innately born in this world, true ancestral roots of a realm, some produced after immortal kings or undying kings pass on, their significance extraordinary.”

When he heard these words, Shi Hao’s expression became serious. He had previously heard that when true immortals died, some turned into immortal medicines, able to live on through a different way.

Now, he finally received proof from the experts of this world. Not even true immortals were enough, only immortal king level existences had a chance of becoming immortal medicines after dying!

This really was shocking!

“Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, back then, it was enough to rank in the top three ancestral roots, one of the most well-known immortal medicines. Even when undying kings drink the tea, they would gain some insights, the value immeasurable.”

An elder spoke this line, immediately leaving everyone stunned.

“What a pity, in the end, it suffered a disaster, this ancestral root was cut up by someone, its roots divided into two, placed in different places, the medicinal nature becoming weaker.”

When these secrets were revealed, everyone was stupefied. An unmatched immortal medicine was actually heartlessly divided into two, made into two trees?

Everyone immediately felt regret. If the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree was undamaged, when they drank this cup of tea, just how powerful would their insights be?

One had to understand that even undying kings would come to drink a few cups. Just how glorious of an occasion was this?

“Why was it divided into two ? This is just too regretful!” The Emperor Clan expert Wu Kun said with a sigh full of regret.

“What can this be counted as? The so-called second immortal root was rumored to be divided into six, even more sinister and pitiful.” The elder said.

“Ah, why?” The crowd cried out in alarm. Which one was the second immortal root exactly? Was it an ancestral root innately produced by the world, or was it a non-innate reincarnation?

"It's rumored that my side's undying kings are all on guard against that immortal root. There are rumors that that one has been divided into six, burying six great parts of a creature, one day to be gathered together once more!"

This made everyone gasp. What kind of creature was that? When did this type of thing happen?

"Wu, it is something an already deceased undying king deduced from a stone stele in his later years" The elder replied, expression respectful and solemn, carrying great respect.

Even if that undying king had long died for endless years, he still felt great reverence, not daring to be careless at all, speaking with an extremely respectful tone.

Even though the death of an undying king was shocking, it wasn't like such a thing didn't happen. At the very least, they had died in battle in the last great era!

As for the old king he spoke of, that really was something that happened who knew how many years ago.

"Alright. Now, it will depend on your respective natural luck. Whoever's methods are stronger, that is who will obtain more!

Under the Dao Comprehending Tea Tree, an elder spoke, pointing at the earthen altar. There were more than two thousand jade containers there, all of them holding rare Dao Comprehension Tea Leaves.

The battle over the immortal leaves officially began. Anyone could fight over them, and this time, it was no longer limited to a single container. All clans can take action, as long as one was strong enough, even seizing a hundred was fine!

This meant one hundred leaves, a hundred opportunities to comprehend the dao, just the thought alone enough to make one go crazy.

Chapter 1599 - Rise

At the mountain top, the atmosphere immediately changed. The true crucial moment had arrived, the great decisive battle was about to start!

It was because this was the most exciting part of each distinguished meeting. There were so many Dao Comprehension Tea Leaves, even if only a small half were divided in the end, it would still be over a thousand leaves!

Who would give up a chance to comprehend the dao? One leaf represented the heavenly opportunity of momentary enlightenment. Forget about the other clans, even the Emperor Clan's youth's eyes were red.

In that instant, murderous energy pervaded the air, the various clans all completing their preparations!

Even the clans that previously always remained quiet were now gathering power. They were going to take action together, needing to seize one share of natural luck no matter what.

Dao Comprehension Mountain, this place was extremely majestic. The earth and rock on the mountaintop all carried faint metallic luster, extremely sturdy, because there were astonishing great formations established here, protecting this place from being destroyed during the intense battles.

Now, streak after streak of patterns lit up, flowing through the gorges like molten metal, shockingly hot. The great formation was being activated!

The green meadow was soft, but no one sat down anymore. Even the Emperor Clans like the wild and ruthless Scarlet King descendant Chi Menghong and the others already got up, their pupils like small suns, accumulating vital energy.

The Dao Comprehension Tea Tree was completely bare, not a single leaf left on it, but it still possessed endless life force. One could see immortal mist spreading through the air, swirling between the upright and strong branches.

Its branches were extremely large and thick, old bark folding outwards like the scales of an azure drake.

Underneath the three, on the earthen altar, rows of jade containers shone, hazy brilliance released. They carried immortal dao auras, moving one's mind.

Shi Hao's legs went taut, body bending slightly, looking like a vicious human form dragon who was about to attack, ready to shoot out like electricity at any time. He cared quite a bit about these Dao Comprehension Tea Leaves too.

"You all should wait at the bottom of the mountain." Shi Hao turned around, speaking to the people he saved.

"Okay, big brother, you have to be careful!" That little girl's eyes blinked, replying intelligently. Then, under the old woman's lead, the children hurriedly left the mountain, still quite nervous and fearful.

"Begin!"

Under the ancient tree, an elder spoke out.

Chi!

There were immediately people who rushed over to seize immortal tea leaves, cutting across the sky like lightning. They were too fast, only leaving behind some afterimages. These were Emperor Clans' people. They directly took action, releasing great magical force towards the altar.

Shi Hao revealed a look of surprise. They were attacking that place?

His speed was also extremely fast. Instead of wasting time, he should arrive earlier. Originally, he wanted to reach out his hand to grab them, but now, he discovered that something didn't seem right, because the other clans were all attacking.

Soon afterwards, he understood. This was the only way!

A screen of light surged around the altar. That earthen ancient altar looked rather short, not all that grand and divine, but it had a type of mysterious power, blocking all of these powerful individuals.

There was a protection barrier!

The earthen altar was extremely ancient, producing many strange symbols, surrounding that place, preventing one from directly seizing the immortal tea leaves.

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao understood that he should change his methods.

“In the past, even undying kings came here, treating the altar as a side table, sitting around it and enjoying immortal tea. Just how astonishing was that type of distinguished meeting? It really is fascinating. Will such an event ever reappear again?” An elder yearned for this.

From the ancient times to the present, time hurriedly passed, the long river of time flowing past, many creatures and great events were gone forever, making those of later generations reminisce about those times.

“Why is it this tough?” Shi Hao frowned. That barrier was sturdy beyond his expectations, shaking up his arm until it was a bit numb. As expected, it wasn’t easy to break through.

He took a deep breath. It seemed like without using some true methods, it would be difficult for him to obtain any returns. His right hand shone, slowly drawing out. A lightning pool immediately appeared, resting on his palm, the scene astonishing. A sea of lightning flooded this place.

His palm wasn’t large, but the feeling it gave off was as if it could capture the sun and moon, crush mountains and rivers, all things remaining within his palms and fingers.

Hong!

Shi Hao struck out. Between his fingers, that lightning pool was definitely terrifying, carrying a whirlpool, releasing endless streaks of lightning radiance, nothing it couldn’t overcome. This was the utmost yang aura.

Ka!

Outside the earthen altar, a crack was produced by Shi Hao’s strike, ripped open by him.

In the surroundings, a group of people sucked in cold breaths of air. This Huang was too powerful, right? Only those who personally participated knew just how sturdy the barrier was. It was too hard to break through!

Many King Clans joined hands, long striking out more than ten times, but they weren’t able to damage the barrier in the slightest!

Suddenly, several hands reached out, wishing to reach in through the crack Shi Hao opened. They were formed from magical force, the embodiment of dao laws.

This was trying to get results by borrowing others’ work, seize his opportunities.

Shi Hao’s expression was cold. He released a cold look, there was an old servant under Chi Menghong among them, as well as other reckless individuals from other King Clans.

He knew that these people might not necessarily want to take advantage of his work, but rather just wanted to disturb him, provoke and ruin his mood.

Shi Hao's right hand gently pressed down into the void. That lightning pool trembled as a result, releasing an endless amount of sparkling water from within, suddenly erupting forth!

That wasn't normal water, but rather a lightning sea. Now that it was released like this, it was incomparable, simply like a small heavenly tribulation!

In the sky, those hands were all surrounded by lightning, as if they were bound by metal chains. Then, they exploded, blood radiance appearing, splashing outwards. That place exploded.

Those large hands were all pierced by lightning, becoming bloody and badly mangled, white bones appearing, all seriously injured, palms broken.

Even though this was produced by magical power, not their true bodies, it was similar, vivid and lifelike.

At the same time, even though they weren't true palms and fingers, those individuals still couldn't hold back groans, blood flowing out from their mouths, bodies trembling. It was because for the sake of increasing the power, they used their own magical force. Now that those hands were seriously injured, they suffered a backlash as well.

Peng!

Shi Hao didn't waste any time. Before the crack closed, his right hand reached into the barrier, his fingers unfolding, grabbing towards the rows of jade containers.

He was stunned. In the end, he could only seize a single one, unable to move the other ones!

Soon afterwards, he understood. Each time, only one leaf could be obtained, because the Emperor Clans did things like this, withdrawing after obtaining a leaf, then attacking at the barrier again.

Shi Hao frowned. When he withdrew, the crack closed as expected.

Could the protection symbols this earthen altar formed be a type of trial, within it the considerations of undying beings?

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao moved again, still making use of the lightning pool, striking against the barrier of light, the noise tremendous, piercing through, producing a crack that wasn't that small.

"Yi!" He revealed an expression of surprise. The crack was still sufficiently large, still enough for him to pass through, but it was smaller than before, even though the magical force he used was a bit greater.

Shi Hao quickly fetched a jade container, and then tried again. This time, his experience was deeper. The lightning pool's power didn't decrease, but only a small crack appeared in the barrier.

Could it be that the effects of the same precious technique would become more and more inferior? Shi Hao revealed a strange expression.

When he fetched the fifth jade container, the pressure increased. The altar seemed to have developed some type of resistance after becoming familiar with this type of divine ability, it displayed targeted defensive power, difficult for it to break through anymore.

Then, he saw others change divine abilities, continue to attack the screen of light. As expected, the effects became greater again.

When Shi Hao understood this, he wasn't in a rush. It was because he still had other methods, it was just a matter of time, he could go at his own pace.

He aimed his sight at other creatures, at their returns.

A few people were joining hands, the results not bad. Earlier, a few King Clans didn't even have the ability to obtain an immortal tea leaf, but now, they had some returns, obtaining a container.

He set his aim at one of the King Clans, as well as Chi Menghong's servant, they were part of the ones who took action earlier, interfering.

Shi Hao's entire body shone, symbols emerging on his body, covering him like a layer of armor, protecting him within. He began to charge violently, rush towards a certain King Clan.

"You... Huang!" That King Clan's creature shouted out.

In reality, they were always lacking in confidence. They disturbed Huang, this was but a bringer of disaster! They were always on guard against his retaliation.

Now, he came as expected!

They acted on orders from Emperor Clans, so they had no choice but to take action. Now, this demon king slaughtered his way over, making them immediately panick, quickly moving out of the way.

They had just obtained a single immortal leaf container, there was no way they could hand it over.

Only, Huang's speed was too fast, Kun Peng wings spread, able to tear through the heavens, instantly traveling through ten thousand li, how could they escape?

Hong! noVE-lb(1n

When the two Kun Peng wings descended, a few experts from this clan roared, all of them seriously injured, covered in blood, flying out.

This left the other clans alarmed. Just how vicious and tyrannical was his power?

Those people were all at the late stage of Self Release Realm, true great experts, cultivated for thousands of years, but could still barely be considered part of the younger generation, elites.

However, this group of people all almost exploded to pieces under Huang's chaotic energy carrying divine wings, their blood splashing before the earthen altar.

The jade container fell from their grasp, tumbling about in the air. There were people whose eyes became red, but no one dared reach out, not daring to steal food from a tiger's mouth.

With a peng sound, Shi Hao grabbed it firmly, calmly putting it away.

"I really hope you all continue disturbing me. Collecting interest on these types of matters is something I am more than happy to do." Shi Hao calmly said.

He didn't continue to force them, because he wanted to rob them again. If those creatures managed to succeed again, then he would definitely come for more bonuses.

"Huang, you better not cross the line!" Someone released a low roar.

On the mountaintop, the atmosphere was extremely tense. Everyone was on guard, fearing the surrounding people would steal their gains.

In the past, battles would break out between clans as well, stealing others' immortal tea leaves, but normally, it was always later when they couldn't seize any more immortal tea leaves from the altar that the great battles would begin.

Now, Huang planned to do this right from the start?

Shi Hao gave them all a look. Then, with a sou sound, he rushed towards another direction, taking action again.

"You dare!" Chi Menghong's pupils contracted. Huang was taking action against his servants.

Shi Hao didn't pay him any attention. When Kun Peng wings spread, ninety thousand li would be covered, its might powerful to the extreme! Right now, the mountaintop's area was limited, there was no way that type of projection could be displayed. However, the pair of giant wings still covered the area ahead, surrounding those three old servants, because they actually also had some returns, obtaining an immortal leaf!

"Kill!" Chi Menghong took action, striking forward, stopping Shi Hao.

Everyone was extremely nervous. This was just the beginning, yet the two great young experts were already going to clash?

Honglong!

This was a ruthless attack. Giant peng wings descended, striking the three extremely powerful old servants until blood poured out from their mouths, all of their bones releasing pi pa noises, many of them breaking.

Moreover, that jade container shifted owners, seized by Huang.

When Chi Menghong's attack arrived, Huang was extremely brash, raising a right leg, kicking towards his face with a hong noise.

Everyone was stupefied. Huang really was crazy, too vicious, actually facing Chi Menghong like this?

Chapter 1600 - Fierce Battle Against Emperor Clan

Huang's actions were simple and ruthless, ostentatious and without restraint. This wasn't like facing a formidable opponent at all, more like beating a subordinate!

A foot flew out, smashing towards Chi Menghong's face, too easygoing, not that serious at all, as if he wasn't treating the other party like a big deal, raising his leg and kicking out!

Chi Menghong's eyes were ice-cold, even more terrifying than a vicious beast. He didn't back up, instead moved his neck, avoiding this kick, moreover raising his shoulder.

With a peng sound, that shoulder that could raise great peaks and shatter moons smashed into Shi Hao's leg, directly stopping this foot!

It had to be said that Chi Menghong's eyes were too vicious, keenly seizing opportunities. Normal heavenly eyes couldn't seize this type of speed, yet he directly raised Huang's leg, and then his fist smashed towards Shi Hao!

The fist strength was world-shaking, ten thousand dao symbols exploding, power incomparable!

Everyone was dazzled. Chi Menghong was terrifying as expected, even under the other side's attacks, under the powerful threat, he seized the opportunity, attacking violently.

Using offense as defense, moreover in such a vicious manner, he really was worthy of being an exceptional Emperor Clan young expert.

Many people released cries of alarm. Would the powerful Huang be defeated under a single strike? It was because he was in too passive of a state, carelessly raising his leg and kicking out, now, it was forcefully stopped in place.

This was extremely dangerous. Chi Menghong's shoulder raised Shi Hao's right leg, his body advancing powerfully, a fist directly smashing at Shi Hao's chest, bringing shocking winds, raising roiling great dao law patterns. The surrounding void immediately exploded to pieces!

Was he going to deal the fatal blow here, destroy Huang's body?

At this moment, many people held their breaths, watching nervously, quietly waiting for the result.

However, Shi Hao's reaction was too fast. That leg shone, becoming extremely heavy, as if it weighed more than a star. A sea of radiance surged, splitting the skies.

Hong!

That leg actually crushed down on Chi Menghong's body, making him almost lose his balance, affecting his most powerful attack.

At the same time, Shi Hao's leg went perfectly straight, left leg brandishing fiercely. With a weng noise, he rushed high into the air, entire body moving with his left leg. However, during this process, his right leg was still on Chi Menghong's shoulder.

Dong!

This was an extremely muffled noise. Shi Hao raised his left leg, thrashing out like a whip, also like a golden afterimage, lashing down on Chi Menghong's other shoulder, the power extremely heavy.

Chi Menghong's body moved, face incredibly cold. His fists shone, erupting like a volcano, berserk to the extreme, striking at Shi Hao.

At this moment, Shi Hao moved his body, two legs like divine whips, fiercely interweaving, wrapping around Chi Menghong's neck.

In the surroundings, the crowd couldn't help but cry out in alarm, their hearts pounding, incredibly nervous.

Shi Hao's legs were like Flood Dragon shears, winding about Chi Menghong's neck, about to snap it in half, vicious and terrifying!

During this process, his legs were releasing blazing divine radiance, as if two suns smashed into each other, divine might erupting, the sky covered in blinding light. These were streak after streak of divine chains of order, thousands upon tens of thousands, interweaving together, crushing down on Chi Menghong's neck.

Honglong!

Chi Menghong swung his neck, moreover condensed a magical imprint. His fists were like True Dragons that rushed out from sea, incomparably domineering, blasting at Shi Hao's body, about to blast him to pieces.

Shi Hao's legs winded around his neck, actually spinning around his neck, avoiding this strike, moving towards his back.

However, what kind of person was Chi Menghong? He was an Emperor Clan expert, an outstanding figure from the younger generation, his battle awareness too terrifying.

His body moved, also rotating, fists smashing upwards, almost striking straight at Shi Hao. berserk symbols erupted, surging like a sea.

The skies immediately cracked to pieces, and then collapsed!

Shi Hao's legs twisted one last time, and then his body rushed out, not taking this blow, the two separating.

Many people weren't even able to see what happened clearly before they passed by each other. There were many people who didn't know what happened, the initial clash ending like this.

Shi Hao's expression was calm. This exchange didn't effectively wound his opponent, but he was able to size up the other party's strength. He was indeed formidable, worthy of being an Emperor Clan expert.

Chi Menghong's face was cold, as if there was a layer of frost covering it, thick to the point where it wouldn't melt. He wasn't seriously injured, but he definitely didn't look that great from that exchange.

It was because Huang was clearly still acting extremely brash, immediately raising his leg to kick at his face, then, he even wrapped his legs around his neck as if riding on him.

He was from an Emperor Clan, when had anyone dared act this way against him, sit on his neck, be humiliated like this?

Even if he didn't suffer any injuries, this type of appearance made him even more indignant. The Emperor Clans couldn't be defeated, even more so couldn't be humiliated.

He felt that Huang was acting this way towards him on purpose, acting like this even if he was almost wounded in the process.

“Huang, you are courting death!” Chi Menghong’s pupils released two streaks of scarlet light, quickly charging forward, wishing to fight Shi Hao to the death.

“You thought too much, I just wanted to step on your face. It is you who thought I wanted to sit on your neck.” Shi Hao replied.

“Die!” Chi Menghong’s face became even more overcast. Regardless of whether the other side was mocking him or really meant this, it couldn’t be tolerated. He was going to personally kill the other side to expunge this humiliation.

Hong!

An ancient beast rushed out from the top of his head. It was blood-colored, a beast species that had never been seen before. It was the size of a fist, like a vicious beast, but its entire body was covered in blood-colored bony spurs. An ocean-like blood color surged forth, this creature immediately roared furiously at Shi Hao!

Everyone’s scalps turned numb, all of them in fear. Even the powerful cultivators who were really far away were deeply shocked, entire bodies going rigid, completely stupefied.

It was because they couldn’t move, locked down there, restricted by the sea of blood, hard to struggle free from.

What was going on? Many people were in fear.

As cultivators, their own bodies were the most important. They studied the internal profound mysteries, sensed the great dao, evolving their spirits to perfection, yet now, they couldn’t control their bodies.

They couldn’t move, couldn’t speak, in a type of absolute stasis. All of them began to panic.

Only the Emperor Clans, Wu Kun, Yu Yu and the others had long made preparations, seemingly knowing Chi Menghong’s strength. They moved out of the way, avoiding this roar, not being affected.

Shi Hao’s expression became grave. He felt like he was standing in a time vortex. At this moment, time seemed to have come to a standstill, forever fixed there.

Was this a domain of time?

It really was astonishing!

Without a doubt, that blood beast was Chi Menghong’s primordial spirit, his original appearance. It was extremely ferocious as expected, grasping a type of time natural law.

However, Shi Hao felt that these time laws had some problems, as if it was only imprisonment, not touching upon anything else like seizing time.

“Huang, just hand over your life!”

Chi Menghong roared. He was clearly truly angered, or else he wouldn’t directly use one of his clan’s restricted secret methods.

Shi Hao frowned. He really felt a type of death threat. Time seemed to have frozen still, difficult for him to even budge. He really was frozen in place.

This was something that had never happened before. No matter how powerful a young expert was, they couldn't seal him in place. Even temporary restrictions would be immediately broken through.

So this was an Emperor Clan? They all had their own well-known restricted secret arts, unstoppable, known to be unequaled!

"Kill!"

Chi Menghong didn't waste this opportunity, directly slaughtering his way over. He condensed a fist imprint, smashing towards the space between Shi Hao's brows. He was going to smash apart his opponent with a single attack!

Dong! Dong! Dong!

At this time, muffled sounds could be heard again and again, as if a prehistoric giant beast's heart was pulsing, releasing great noises. It was even louder than thunder.

Everyone was stunned, this came from... within Huang's body!

A few people who had heavenly eyes could see that it was as if there were furnaces inside his body, all of them surging with divine flames, releasing clear light that rushed out from their bodies.

These were blazing divine furnaces that erupted one after another, surging with heaven overflowing power. They worked together, resonating, forming a pulsating sound like that of a giant heart beat.

Those were Huang's gates, the gates within his inner world!

However, outsiders couldn't see through him, only feeling as if there were furnaces that erupted with incomparable divine force, all of them surging with power.

In reality, this was precisely the gates that were resonating, opened at the same time, erupting with a sea of power.

Shi Hao's expression was serious. He was actually forced to this extent, needing to go all out, opening all of the gates within his body, not holding anything back to display his greatest power.

Now, he could move, recovering his freedom!

To explain it simply, it was precisely brute forcing his way through the dao!

He used his greatest strength, facing the time domain head-on, striking through it, tearing it apart, recovering his freedom.

However, Shi Hao didn't move. Even though he could, he still waited calmly, restraining himself.

It was rare for him to encounter such a terrifying opponent, this person almost ending his dao, giving him the threat of death, so he was naturally going to return the favor.

Right at this moment, Chi Menghong slaughtered his way over. He saw that Shi Hao didn't move, so his fist imprint rushed over murderously, about to blast through his skull.

Without a doubt, the current Chi Menghong was terrifying, ferocious!

Above his head, there was an ancient beast that was entirely scarlet red, not that big, only fist-sized in height, but it was extremely ferocious, its roar shaking mountains and rivers, restricting heaven and earth. It was precisely this little beast who grasped time natural laws, releasing the domain to imprison Shi Hao.

Everyone sighed with astonishment. Chi Menghong was terrifying after all, worthy of being Scarlet King's descendant, possessing unmatched might.

Emperor Clans couldn't be won against, they were undefeated under the sky!

Even if it was a member of the Emperor Clan's younger generation, they still left behind an undefeated legend upon successive generations, intimidating the world.

On the mountaintop, many people were completely dazzled, incomparably moved. They finally saw an unmatched Emperor Clan take action, about to defeat Huang, perhaps even end his life.

The other side was always looking forward to someone who could do his, properly defeat Huang. Now, this person appeared!

Honglong!

Suddenly, right when Chi Menghong was about to kill Huang, Shi Hao took action.

Under many people's fervent eyes, while waiting for Chi Menghong to achieve a great victory, Huang... actually retaliated!

Moreover, this should be a fatal blow, even more so a reverse kill!

Honglong!

Shi Hao avoided that fist imprint. This time, it was just like before, his right leg rising, kicking towards Chi Menghong's face.

This was the same position they were in when they first clashed, now, he did it again.

Only, this time, Chi Menghong didn't evade, because he never expected the Huang who was restricted could suddenly move.

Peng!

At this moment, many people were shocked, stunned, in disbelief. Huang produced such heaven overflowing might, the force of that kick tremendous, power shockingly great, smashing against Chi Menghong's face!

Would he even be able to survive? Many people were stupefied. Huang's world shocking divine strength was enough to shatter a moon!

Moreover, right now, it smashed viciously straight into Chi Menghong's face!