Chapter 1801 - Abandoned

They were all in the life restricted regions?!

Immortal Domain's creatures didn't understand. Since they were alive, why couldn't they return to their homes? There were many people among them who didn't understand the restricted regions of this world.

However, this was different for the experts of this world. They understood it well, knowing just how terrifying the restricted regions were. Even those as powerful as themselves, for example, Sacred Academy and Immortal Academy's elders, even at the Supreme Being Realm, didn't dare step foot into the Nine Heavens' life restricted regions!

"The creatures of the restricted regions actually had this type of background?"

A sect master with a rather high status in the three thousand provinces released a sigh. Only today did he learn about this.

In this world, only an extremely small amount of people knew just what kind of people the lords of restricted regions really were, for example, long life families and ancient imperial courts.

"If they are alive, why can't they go back to Immortal Domain?" One of Immortal Domain's leaders asked. Since they were still in this world, why couldn't they return to Immortal Domain?

They had just arrived, yet they already didn't want to remain here. This world was too impoverished, the great dao laws not complete, not suited to cultivation. It couldn't compare to their Immortal Domain at all.

"It is because Immortal Domain's gates are closed to them." The great commander's voice was shaking slightly, moreover clenching his fist. From today forth, they definitely didn't have the right to return again.

"What? It's closed off towards our own people?!" The others didn't believe what they were hearing.

"After fighting endlessly with the creatures of darkness, in the end, we will also become contaminated by the inauspicious energy that cannot be eradicated. Immortal Domain does not permit the return of any cultivator with this type of substance on them!"

The great commander's words made everyone else feel as if they fell straight into an icehouse, their bodies going cold. They all stared blankly, unable to utter a single word.

This news was just too terrible. They had a homeland, yet couldn't return, basically abandoned.

Meanwhile now, they still had to offer up their lives, fight with everything they had, pay this type of price, all for what? They were going to be forever exiled here!

Even if they didn't completely die off, what was the point of staying alive. They were abandoned by Immortal Domain, forever exiled in this world!

“Just how cold-hearted are those seniors?!” Some people clenched their fists. Meanwhile, in the end, they had to step on this path as well, their bones buried in a foreign land.

“We can only establish a restricted region afterwards, stay behind in this realm?” There was someone who was extremely unwilling, his gaze terrifying.

“Heh, you all are thinking too much. Establishing a restricted region with just you and me?” The great leader laughed, a bit dejected and bitter. “The seniors who could establish a restricted region all possess exceptional magical force. These individuals who have faced the most powerful beings of darkness, could you and me even compare to them?”

“Ah...” The others all cried out in alarm, all of them becoming fearful, ashen-faced. They couldn’t even create a restricted region?

Soon afterwards, they understood. Throughout history, the great figures from Immortal Domain who fell, some of those creatures might not have necessarily truly died, but were instead living in the restricted regions!

This type of identity, this type of strength, was indeed not something they could compare to.

“Relax, my side will definitely send out more exceptional experts. If we manage to survive, we can just follow them into their restricted regions.” The great commander said. Only, his words more or less carried some bitterness.

“You spoke too much.” The shriveled elder spoke, looking at the great commander, his eyes deep, flickering with treacherous radiance.

“Why should we even stake it all here? Would paying this type of price even be worth it?” There were some who were furious. They left Immortal Domain to fight gloriously, yet this was what they would obtain in return?

The shriveled elder seemed to have a layer of skin covering his body, completely golden. He looked coldly at them, saying, “Your heirs, your loved ones, before you all left, they all received the greatest considerations. They will be sent into some of the most powerful inheritances! The price you all paid was worth it.”

He only had this line for them, however, it made all of those restless leaders calm down. They opened their mouths, but they couldn’t say anything.

This was the so-called repayment, as well as a threat!

Right now, their heirs and loved ones were still in Immortal Domain. They would obtain the teachings and resources of the highest level, in the future, they would have great accomplishments.

If they went against Immortal Domain’s will, then they would be deemed traitors. At that time, what kind of punishment would their descendents and others bear?

Sacred Academy and Immortal Academy’s elders were also here. As the leaders of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, certain supreme beings and long life family’s old clan chiefs had the qualifications to be here.

At this time, they all felt restraining fear, their brows locked tightly. However, they didn't dare voice any of their opinions.

"The events here, some of it can be discussed, but there are some that you all cannot randomly speak about." The shriveled, golden skinned elder said with a deep voice.

Everyone felt a chill, silently nodding.

This elder was definitely a true immortal, moreover, his strength was not weak, making the great leaders all lower their heads. One could see just how great his status was.

"Has that darkness creature who might become a leader not been killed yet?" The elder asked. His entire body flickered with golden light, leaping out. He stepped on immortal mist, appearing in midair, overlooking the land of darkness before him.

Vajra Gate sect master's hair was disheveled, becoming stronger and stronger, roaring over there. He devoured another few beast kings' darkness blood.

"He isn't leaving the darkness region, don't tell me we have to go in?" A leader asked.

"Find a way to kill him!" The elder ordered.

Shi Hao was also watching from far away. That Vajra Gate sect master's range of activity was just too great. He continuously devoured the dark evolution kings.

"This is absurd, if this continues, will he become a supreme being?" Shi Hao frowned.

He clearly understood that this one was entirely different. He had previously been chosen by the magical artifact flickering with nine-colored brilliance, appearance similar to the other origin artifact. It had previously stopped over his head for a bit.

Sure enough, that creature headed towards this province, the disturbance too great. All of the darkness matter surged when it moved past, all types of creatures fleeing in panic.

It slaughtered everything in its path, all creatures of darkness it killed were devoured, making him stronger.

"He is about to reach the supreme being level?"

Shi Hao sucked in a cold breath of air, deeply shocked. His cultivation speed was fast, but compared to this creature, he was beyond slow.

This completely defied normal reasoning, even Shi Hao feeling jealous. The heavens really were unfair, there was this type of cultivation ascension?

However, soon afterwards, he calmed down, gradually collecting himself. He believed that everything in this world was balanced. When something was obtained, something else was lost, only through loss was there gain.

This type of abnormal cultivation speed most likely had hidden dangers, in the end, everything just might become nothing.

“Kill him. This creature is different, it cannot be allowed to head down a different path of evolution, not restricted by the darkness decree. In the end, it might become a second Shutuo!”

Immortal Domain’s elder already couldn’t sit still, strictly ordering the great commanders.

“Do we really have to risk our lives, enter the darkness?” Someone asked carefully.

“When we fight against the creatures of darkness, we will make contact sooner or later. It is unavoidable!” The elder said.

Chi!

A streak of divine light split the heavens. An expert from Immortal Domain took action, his cultivation profound, already practiced for many years. He quickly approached, charging into the darkness region.

Immortal Domain’s troops, even though there were many, the number of those who achieved immortality was still few. There was no way all of them were creatures of that level.

Even if it was Immortal Domain, the number of those who achieved immortality was still extremely limited!

Hou!

A great roar sounded. Vajra Gate’s old sect master’s pupils were terrifying, like burning silver lamps. He didn’t back up, instead diving over, facing this powerful enemy.

The dark matter surged powerfully. Immortal Domain cultivator’s body immediately trembled. His strength was strong, but when facing the darkness matter, he was left in an extremely passive state.

Inside of the black sea, even magical force and other things were broken down, corroded. The situation was extremely dire, he needed time to get it over with quickly.

Pu!

The final result exceeded everyone’s expectations. When the two parties clashed, Vajra Gate’s old sect master’s body released dazzling golden light, invulnerable, sturdy and unbreaking.

Meanwhile, Immortal Domain’s cultivator was smashed apart by a single slap, his body breaking into two pieces, blood gushing out.

“Unbreaking, his body’s toughness has already reached an inconceivable level. Normal people cannot deal with him at all!” A great commander frowned.

This was just the beginning, yet that disheveled elder already evolved to this level. If he was allowed to continue growing, he would definitely become a great disaster in the future.

“I will go!”

At this time, a powerful individual walked over from the distance, entire body swirling with immortal energy. He hadn’t achieved immortality yet, but he was already a supreme being level expert.

With a honglong noise, immortal energy protected his body, hazy and indistinct, actually blocking the corrosion of the darkness matter.

“Only cultivators with rich immortal energy around them can resist the darkness’ corrosion!” That shriveled elder said.

Even though Vajra Gate’s old sect master was strong, he still wasn’t the opponent of a Supreme Being Realm expert. As soon as they made contact, he immediately coughed out black blood, body flying outwards.

Heng!

However, right at this moment, within the darkness’ depths, a great claw suddenly reached out, covering heaven and earth. It immediately approached, with a pu noise, it grabbed that expert from Immortal Domain, crushing him into a bloody paste!

This place became dead silent, everyone stunned.

“A darkness creature from behind the scenes has appeared, this quick, this swift!” Right now, the great commander’s expression changed. Could it be that a great decisive battle was going to be fought right from the beginning?

“Things are much more troublesome now. I am sure that that Vajra Gate fella has been chosen as a darkness seed. He must be killed, I do not wish for him to become a second Shutuo.” At this time, the shriveled elder actually moved himself, heading towards the darkness region.

He looked at the great claw that still hadn’t retracted, and then at Vajra Gate’s old sect master, closing in step by step.

Everyone was stunned. Just how many days had passed? However, trump cards were already being revealed, was a great decisive battle going to happen?!

Chapter 1802 - Blood of Darkness

The shriveled elder walked forward, crossing over the dragon vein, directly entering the land of darkness. Immortal energy surged around his body, carrying multicolored radiance, flowing with hazy brilliance.

Originally, the layer of golden skin around his wizened body already looked unordinary. Now, it seemed even more extraordinary.

Only, it was a bit strange. There was clearly immortal energy swirling about, yet he looked like a golden skeleton.

“The black calamity has arrived once more. This old one is going to eradicate evil, came specifically to get rid of you!” The elder said.

Chi!

His speed was too fast. He rushed into the darkness, entire body erupting with radiance, actually dispelling the black mist, making that inauspicious region become dazzling.

He reached out with a dried-up great hand, releasing golden radiance, crushing the void until it exploded, weng weng noises sounding. He directly grabbed that Vajra Gate old sect master.

Hou!

Vajra Gate's old sect master's hair was disheveled, the corners of his mouth carrying black blood. His eyes were like two small silver suns, extremely brilliant.

He could clearly sense danger. He didn't face this enemy, instead directly turning around and fleeing. However, the cold smile that appeared on his face made everyone's hearts tremble.

His gaze was extremely sinister, as if he was remembering this Immortal Domain elder. He turned around, actually escaping towards the depths of the darkness.

"Where do you think you are going?!" Once one's cultivation reached this elder's level, a raise of his hand could seize the sun and moon, grabbing the sun and moon would be extremely easy. If he wanted to kill, it was naturally extremely easy.

However, in the darkness, a giant claw reached over, covering the sky, terrifying beyond compare!

As it reached out, the great earth split open, the void breaking apart inch by inch. A black hole even appeared, the scene terrifying.

This was a creature from behind the dark storm. This was the true source of chaos! Now, a powerful being personally took action!

Peng!

Two individuals faced off. The void exploded, darkness matter surging powerfully. At the same time, immortal energy also crazily dispersed, interweaving here, attacking everything, forming great dao ripples.

This was a collision of natural laws, a confrontation of order. The voices and scenes all seemed to have originated from millions and millions of years ago, vaguely carrying the power of time.

A battle at this level was unimaginable. No one expected for a clash at this level to happen just a few days into the darkness calamity, for such a great battle to happen.

Hu!

Powerful winds stirred about, splitting the skies. Many great mountains on the earth were weak like paper, immediately turning into ashes, directly disappearing.

This was caused by just some slight fluctuations of the great dao force that leaked out from these two individuals' battles, yet it created such a terrifying scene.

They controlled everything extremely well, almost no explosive force seeped out, everything restrained within the heart of the battlefield, within the two great hands.

This scene was extremely astonishing. The giant beast claw was dark black in color, like that of a lizard's, yet also like that of a demonic bird. It was strange and sinister, carrying scales flickering with dark light.

It was completely unknown just what kind of creature it belonged to. Right now, it surged with power, filling heaven and earth, even larger than stars!

Meanwhile, the elder's palm released golden light, skin wrapped around bones. He also became giant, covering the heavens, holding back that beast claw. Great dao ripples surged between the two, continuously clashing.

This was the first great confrontation between a true immortal and a creature of darkness! noVE)ℓB/In

"Immortal Domain truly hasn't made any progress, still attaching such high regard to rules. Defeat is merely a matter of time."

Right at this time, a hoarse sound rang out, carrying an icy coldness, as well as a terrifying cruelty. It was as if an old tortoise was crying out, the sound ear-splitting and unpleasant.

This was released by a darkness creature. Great claws moved, terrifying spiralling dark light appeared, tearing at the arm of this Immortal Domain elder like a meat grinder.

Pu!

The arm of Immortal Domain's elder exploded, blood flying everywhere, carrying immortal light. Every single drop could destroy groups of stars, containing the power of true immortals!

However, even though he was this powerful, he was still injured. An arm was immediately crippled, corroded by a wave of mysterious laws. Dark light surged, about to invade into his body.

"I won way too easily." In the darkness, that voice said cruelly and ruthlessly.

On the other side of the dragon vein, everyone's hearts sunk, feeling incredibly shocked. This elder's status was extremely high, he cultivated the Golden Skin Silver Bone great method, flesh incomparably sturdy, yet he immediately had his arm crippled. Just how terrifying was the enemy?

The troops from the different great long life families in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths all became silent. Even Immortal Domain's expert couldn't stop the other side, what were they supposed to do?

At this point, there wasn't anywhere for them to retreat to. There was only Immortal Domain, if they couldn't enter, then even if they stayed behind, they would die.

"Cough, when one gets old, one's energy starts declining. I was just a bit negligent and careless." The golden skin shone. Immortal Domain's elder coughed, blood trickling down from the corners of his lips.

He was backing up, his body staggering about. However, that broken arm was recombining, regrowing, bloody mist was surging, powerful vitality returning.

Moreover, in the sky, there were several stars that quickly brightened. There were some who were stunned, because when they opened their heavenly eyes, they saw that the stars were burning, surging with spiritual essence.

Immediately afterwards, these stars grew dim, burning into ashes. However, there were several waves of powerful star essence that surged over from outer space, turning into beams of light, entering the elder's body.

He directly burned great stars, absorbing their essence energy, restoring his broken arm. These methods were a bit astonishing.

During this process, the battle didn't stop, because the elder was releasing golden light from his body. Layers of ripples spread, stopping that beast claw.

In reality, when the beast claw brandished about, heaven and earth were split apart. It continuously fell, wishing to seize this chance to kill the elder.

Hou!

Suddenly, a great roar sounded from the distance. Vajra Gate's old sect master's figure became sluggish. He lowered his head, his silver pupils widening, looking at his chest. There was a streak of silver light that stabbed through, crushing his heart.

Pu!

Then, his body exploded, black blood splashing in all directions, remains falling in all directions.

That streak of immortal radiance seemed to be condensed from specks of blood, belonging to the wisps of blood that came out of the elder when his arm previously exploded. When his body recombined, not all of the bloody mist swirled back, some of it seeped underground, quickly moving, chasing after Vajra Gate's old sect master.

"The seed of darkness was killed!"

Many people on this side of the dragon vein were shocked. Then, they cheered. This was a victory for the elder, he left just to kill this vicious being, prevent him from becoming a second Shutuo.

It was because his evolution speed was too terrifying, as if there was no upper limit!

Who would have thought that things would go so smoothly, that the seed of darkness would already be eliminated?!

"Hah!" The golden skin shone, silver bones resplendent. The elder released a cold laugh, his battle strength surging. He faced off against that black beast claw.

En?

Suddenly, everyone was shocked, because the black blood of the killed Vajra Gate old sect master was also moving, not erased. In the end, it gathered together, forming a human figure.

"What?" Many people were shocked.

One had to understand that this creature was killed by a strand of immortal blood, making him explode, how could it revive again?

He hadn't reached the Immortal Dao Domain, still a mortal body, so a drop of immortal blood should have been enough to hack down the sun, moon, and stars, obliterate everything. He actually managed to survive?

This didn't match normal reasoning!

"It seems I must disappoint you. The seeds of darkness are imperishable, he will definitely grow up once more." In the depths of the darkness, a low voice sounded. That beast claw's attacks became even more ferocious.

At the same time, Vajra Gate's old sect master was completely reviving, bones reconstructing, truly growing. Moreover, a wave of powerful fluctuations was spreading.

He was roaring, going crazy. His body quickly became bigger, becoming a giant that towered between heaven and earth.

"Heavens, this is a supreme being transformation, magical body change. Is he going to advance again?" Everyone was stunned. This speed of evolution was hard for one to accept.

"A bit too fast, withdraw!" Someone spoke from the darkness. Moreover, a great claw reached out, crushing towards him, having him shrink, restrain the surging essence energy.

One could see that within that normal height body, the black blood became more and more exuberant, accumulating and concentrating. When it broke through in the future, it would be even more powerful.

In the darkness, a fine streak of light quickly fled. This was a drop of immortal blood, around it a bit of darkness blood.

"You wish to bring away the darkness blood of a chosen?" Cold laughter sounded from within the darkness.

The beast claw that faced the elder immediately changed, rapidly shrinking. Moreover, the original body appeared. This was a humanoid creature, at the very least, the outline looked close.

He was most likely intentionally turning into human form, even that beast claw turned into a fist. Darkness light surged, smashing towards Immortal Domain's elder, as well as attacking that smear of flowing light.

Immortal Domain's elder released a light shout. His body was sparkling, erupting with immeasurable immortal force, fighting intensely against him.

With a peng noise, the streak of flowing light still exploded in midair. The immortal blood scattering was one thing, but that bit of darkness blood was also rushing in all directions.

"Collect!"

Right at this time, on the dragon vein, another elder appeared, white beard white hair, his presence aloof and majestic. He really was like an old daoist immortal. In his hands was a jade cauldron, collecting the darkness blood that exploded in the sky.

Among the blood, there were several drops of black blood that entered the jade cauldron, sealed up by him. Then, he turned around, immediately leaving.

With things like this, that gold-skinned elder didn't continue fighting, also withdrawing. The seed of darkness blood he wanted was already at hand, so he quickly withdrew.

“That is... Old Immortal Doctor senior!” Above the dragon vein, someone cried out in alarm, recognizing the identity of the elder who held the jade cauldron.

At this time, a gate of light appeared in the distance. Old Immortal Doctor directly entered, quickly leaving.

He wanted to return to Immortal Domain, this gate taking him there.

“Heh, after wasting all of that effort, it was just to bring away a drop of darkness blood? So what if we give it to you? You all won’t be able to find out anything.” A creature laughed coldly in the darkness.

The great battle ended. The blood on the seed of darkness was actually worth such a huge move from Immortal Domain, seizing it like this.

The darkness creature on the battlefield didn’t give chase. When he saw Old Immortal Doctor enter the gate of light, he gave up, directly disappearing into the darkness.

“Senior, is this blood extremely useful?” The great commander walked up.

“It is. This is darkness seed essence blood. The seeds of darkness that are chosen, the blood within them is extremely special. If it is completely researched, we can reverse the battlefield situation!” The wizened elder said.

In the distance, Shi Hao frowned. It was because of the black blood that exploded, a drop landed on his clothes.

In reality, after that strand of blood exploded, it flew towards various provinces. Many creatures of darkness fought over it, creating great disturbances.

Meanwhile, in the darkness, the powerful existence never took action, not paying any attention. The only ones he cared about were Immortal Domain’s powerful individuals, just not willing to let Immortal Domain bring away the blood of darkness.

“There isn’t much in this drop at all, but why does it give me such a bad feeling?!” Shi Hao’s brows were deeply furrowed.

He cut off that area of his clothes, collecting it inside of a spatial magical artifact, and then withdrew.

“Not good, could it be that I’m going to be transformed by darkness too?” He was shocked. Even though he didn’t make contact with that drop of blood, he still felt like something wasn’t right. His body was currently releasing faint dark light.

Chapter 1803 - Extremist Restricted Region Lord

His body was acting strange, becoming a bit heavy. Specks of dark light flickered about. Was this a sign of demonic transformation?

Shi Hao shivered inwardly. He didn’t actually make contact with the black blood, yet he was already silently contaminated?

“That drop of blood?!” He quickly fled into the distance, leaving that region. He wondered if it had something to do with that seed of darkness’ blood.

Perhaps that was the only inauspicious thing that could affect him, right?

Two days later, in a valley, dark light flickered about, waves of low roars sounding. Shi Hao was cultivating in seclusion, operating mysterious techniques, trying to erase the darkness matter.

“It should be because of that drop of blood.”

Soon afterwards, he came out, his body returning to normal.

This process was extremely mysterious, and also extremely dangerous. In that instant, he was corroded by darkness.

Shi Hao got up. He felt a wave of hesitation, but in the end, he dug out that spatial magical artifact from below the valley again, within it that drop of blood. He carried it on him again. He began to wonder if this spatial artifact might be corroded through.

However, he had no choice but to bring it with him. He also remained extremely careful, paying attention to his body's changes, scared that he would be contaminated again.

Fortunately, there were no irregular changes. Shi Hao suspected that the reason why he almost became corrupted was because the drop of blood landed on his clothes, affecting him this way.

Crucifix Yin Yang Earth, the void here split apart, two streams appearing one after another, great yin and great yang force operating...

Shi Hao still walked that path. Others couldn't endure the pressure of the domain behind the gate, but he could hold on. This was a safe path for him.

In the end, he entered the lower realm, entering this desolate land that used to be a life restricted region.

“You actually managed to bring back this type of thing! This isn't normal darkness blood, but rather something from a seed level creature, darkness true blood!”

The restricted region lord was extremely shocked. Among the creatures of darkness, this was divine blood!

Its significance was extraordinary. With this blood, it represented limitless evolution, allowing one to become a giant among darkness creatures.

This was rare true blood produced by a darkness seed through great difficulty, after a complex process of sacrifice, the most precious treasure, something that couldn't be sought after, only stumbled upon.

“It wasn't a darkness seed produced by sacrifice, but rather a coffin that created it.” Shi Hao informed the restricted region lord.

When the lord of the restricted region heard this, he trembled inwardly, saying, “Then it's even more special, a heaven's chosen seed, invaluable true blood!”

Shi Hao just knew this blood was extraordinary. He asked what kind of use this blood had, how he should deal with it.

"You should stay a bit further away from it, or else by keeping it close to you, it will corrode you, make you head towards darkness." The restricted region lord warned.

"There are no uses? Then I might as well directly destroy it." Shi Hao said.

"It is extremely hard to destroy. It will grow and multiply without end, unless you reach the Immortal Dao level, continuously purify it with immortal blood and immortal energy." The lord of the restricted region said.

Shi Hao shook his head. "Originally, I wanted to make use of it somehow, but seems like it doesn't have much value. I probably shouldn't have brought this thing back."

Shi Hao was a bit regretful. What if he ended up contaminating the lower realms? Once this black matter spread, he would become the eight regions' sinner.

"With me here, you don't really have to worry about this true blood spreading out. Hmm, perhaps it might have some great use?" The lord of the restricted region said.

"What use?" Shi Hao couldn't help but ask.

"You can bathe in darkness blood, allow it to completely corrupt you." The lord of the restricted region said.

"What?!"

Shi Hao backed up, extremely alert. No matter what, he definitely wouldn't let go of his current primordial spirit. If he did that, then it was the same as his flesh becoming imperishable, but already becoming a whole different person.

In reality, he didn't completely trust this restricted region lord yet. It was because everyone had their own secrets, let alone a great figure like this.

"Don't be in such a rush, listen to me first. The darkness matter is extremely terrifying, but blindly sealing it off isn't a solution. Sooner or later, you'll have to come into contact with it. If you can develop an immunity towards it, perhaps even exploit its power, then there really won't be anything to worry about." The restricted region lord said.

Moreover, he felt like this time, Immortal Domain might lose. Even if they could win, there would be great danger.

"In the future, this world will definitely experience history's most terrifying great turmoil, one that exceeds all previous ages, all great eras. That would be the most terrifying settling of accounts!"

"The darkness matter might be a great disaster, but perhaps one day, it can nurture the flesh, turn death into life. It'll depend on whether or not it can be used."

When the lord of the restricted region said these words, Shi Hao immediately felt many doubts.

"You want me to adapt to this darkness matter?" Shi Hao asked.

Once one was contaminated by that thing, there was no going back. Once one fell into darkness, lost sense of self, what else was there to talk about? His life would be over.

Otherwise, why would Immortal Domain be so persistent with sealing it off, not even those who fought with the creatures of darkness allowed back inside, forever abandoned, exiled?

"There is no room to think about others, this might be a chance." The lord of the restricted region said.

"This is too risky." Shi Hao shook his head.

"You've even been afflicted by the Immortal Breaking Curse, yet you're still alive, not crippled. If you can resist the darkness matter too, then you might truly be able to live through this great settling of accounts!" The lord of restricted region said seriously.

When Shi Hao heard this, he revealed a serious expression, not saying anything. He began to think carefully to himself.

"Perhaps you feel that you are already stunning enough, but let me tell you, before that great clash of powers, any being that jumps out can turn the sky and earth upside down, slaughter ten thousand races, do you believe me or not? It is because those creatures have all watched great eras rise and fall through the turbulent long river of time."

The restricted region lord's words were clear. If one wanted to truly rise up above this terrifying age, survive, then they had to have abilities exceeding the imagination of this world, break all types of forbidden records.

Shi Hao understood the reasoning behind what he said, but he still felt like this restricted region lord was mad, not treating his life like anything serious at all.

"This is it, you will be high up above, even sturdier than the world, eternally everlasting, imperishable through millions and millions of ages. Meanwhile, if you fail, it is nothing more than dying ahead of time, or else you will die in the beginning phase of the great showdown, there is no way you'll be one of those who will laugh last." The restricted region's lord spoke too directly.

"You are a madman!" Shi Hao said. However, in the end, he agreed. At first, his lips were opposed to it, but inwardly, he was considering it. For the sake of becoming stronger, he didn't hesitate to take risks, even if the chances of survival were slim.

"Excellent. A single drop of darkness true blood is only enough to use for now, in the future, you will have to completely immerse yourself in this type of blood." The restricted region lord said.

This made Shi Hao's expression change. This middle-aged man's clothes were purer than snow, he looked handsome and aloof, but his way of doing things was too terrifying.

"I will find a way to cultivate more darkness true blood. From here on out, prepare to be corrupted by darkness." He said.

Shi Hao thought for a bit, and then said, "No, I can't make that gamble. I need to take it step by step."

He decided that he was going to create another body. Either way, at his level, he could regenerate broken limbs, so building another flesh shell wasn't an issue.

"That's fine as well, create a darkness body, use him to fight with you, there will be more benefits." The restricted region's lord nodded.

In the end, Shi Hao left, handing this problem to the restricted region's lord.

He wasn't in a rush to return to Stone Village. He first entered the Void God Realm to see Bird Grandpa and Coin Elder.

"Two old farts, did you remember yet? What exactly is that rotten wooden chest, what kind of background does it have?" Shi Hao asked.

It was because this time, he saw a chest similar to Origin Ancient Artifact in the higher realm, so he became even more interested in the rotten wooden chest he grasped.

He didn't dare ask the lord of the restricted region, because he felt a bit of restraining fear towards him, still on guard.

One had to understand that the rotten wooden chest was something even Shutuo and Anlan wanted to obtain. It was something they went to great lengths for, willing to pay any price to obtain it.

The lord of the restricted region was perhaps precisely that level of existence before. Even though he was a ruined imprint now, unable to revive, Shi Hao still didn't dare act too recklessly.

If the rotten wooden chest had any strangeness, he was scared that the lord of the restricted region would develop some strange reaction.

At the same time, he wanted to have Bird Grandpa and Coin Elder help him think about this, find out if the lord of the restricted region was harmless. If these two elders could recall more things about the past, then he could obtain an answer that would make him feel more relieved.

"The rotten wooden chest is definitely not normal. We feel a type of restlessness from deep within us, but we just can't recall what it is."

"That restricted region lord, be on guard against him for now, do not give him this rotten wooden chest yet!"

This was what the two old fellas said, their expressions serious.

Chapter 1804 - Old Mom is the Strongest

Shi Hao stayed behind, his mind at ease, not running all over the place. He focused on increasing his own cultivation, allow himself to really be like a fish that turned into a dragon![1]

The situation was pressing, this world no longer peaceful, not like the previous peaceful times. If he was a mortal, then that was one thing, he didn't have a choice, but he had great talent, had hope of rising up.

The corruption of darkness began, as well as history's most terrifying great turmoil that was still to come -- a bloody showdown. This was a summoning of death, enough to make one suffocate.

In this type of age, as long as one was a cultivator, who didn't want to protect themselves, become stronger, change their fate like this?

Shi Hao cultivated bitterly, earnestly reflecting, pondering his own great path. He wanted to rise up in this world of turmoil, to slaughter out his own heaven and earth in the future.

What he yearned for was the ability to live through this age of chaos, protect those at his side. He needed to be strong enough to protect Stone Village's peace and tranquility, didn't want his loved ones to die miserably. He wasn't willing to see the great world wither away, for there to only be scorched earth and dried bones left.

However, he didn't know if he could really succeed. The future was too cruel. Even if he had seen a corner of the future, it still wasn't trustworthy.

It was because no prophecies could be treated as real. Things that didn't happen yet, no one was certain that they would definitely happen.

Moreover, back then, that corner of the future he saw, the situation wasn't that great either. Even though he lived, it was bleak, he was powerless, a great tragedy!

No matter how many years passed, he still wouldn't forget the corner of cruel future he saw.

The entire world was silent, all life extinct, everyone killed in battle. He was the only one who made it through, all alone. Behind him were the remains of a scorched black willow tree, nothing else left.

Each time he thought of this, his heart would ache, hard for him to suppress this feeling. He would feel extremely suffocated, the source of this only fear.

He wasn't willing to believe, nor did he dare believe those futures. He always told himself that there was a way to reverse the situation.

Later on, Shi Hao had asked some formidable individuals for their opinions, also asking for their guidance, for example, Great Elder Meng Tianzheng. However, they didn't seem to be too worried, telling him that things that hadn't happened yet would never be conclusive.

Apart from this, according to their deductions, even if something like that happened, what Shi Hao saw wasn't the final ultimate scene.

It was because in the end, he stepped into the heavens, treading on the summit of divine dao, but then went further. This meant that things weren't finished...

Meanwhile, this made Shi Hao's mind tremble even more. There was no ultimate scene, yet it was already like this, just what was he going to experience in the future? If it was as if everything was covered in shadows, clues appearing from time to time. How could he feel at peace?

He wanted to become strong enough to the point where he could truly reverse everything. This was especially the case when he went into the higher realm, saw the creatures of darkness, saw Immortal Domain's soldiers move out, making him feel more and more like his current cultivation wasn't enough.

"I want to become stronger!"

In the great wilderness, Shi Hao released a great roar, his voice splitting the heavens. Fortunately, this place was far enough from the village, or else when this type of great dao ripples were released, there would be great problems.

However, he quickly controlled himself, directing his divine voice into outer space, allowing it to ripple in the heavens.

Shi Hao sighed. This lower realm's land was too weak for him. A single mishap and he might end up provoking a huge disaster.

This really wasn't a place suited to cultivation. Not only was the great dao flawed, even the great earth below his feet easily caved in, easily collapsed.

"The great dao being flawed is a whetstone for me to sharpen myself with. I am going to start from myself, use the body as a seed, continuously break through and become stronger!"

However, where could he go that was sturdy enough?

Shi Hao looked towards the borders of the eight regions. He could slaughter his way into the primal chaos, storms ravaged those areas, the void unstable, easily producing great void cracks that obliterated cultivators.

Perhaps only this type of cultivation land was suitable for him!

Shi Hao put his words into action. He broke through the realm wall, slaughtered his way into primal chaos, using the most chaotic energy storms to refine his body, assist with his cultivation.

He had ancient scriptures and secret methods, grasping exceptional great methods. Moreover, he had the body as a seed path. What he lacked was the baptism of time, as well as comprehension gained from calming the heart.

Shi Hao focused all of his attention, but this couldn't be considered bitter seclusion cultivation either. He returned to the village from time to time. He wanted to find people to exchange pointers with!

After every set amount of time, he would return, head to Void God Realm's dark prison to test out his accomplishments, fighting intensely against the existences sealed in those tile vessels, fighting bloodily against those supreme stone statues bound by chains.

Moreover, from time to time, he would head to the barren life restricted region to accept the torment of the life restricted region lord, for example, allowing the Immortal Breaking Curse to flare out.

Meanwhile, recently, he even began to start coming into contact with the darkness blood, risking his very life to refine his own great dao path!

"What is the so-called immortal through millions and millions of ages, what is everlasting? All of it is obtained through battle. My sword will cut through all ages, my fists suppress the past, present, and future!"

Shi Hao vowed. He released a low roar, strengthening his conviction.

"What sword cutting down all ages, suppressing past, present, and future, stinky brat, get back here. Your age isn't that young anymore, it's time for you to get a wife!"

While Shi Hao was worked up, stirring himself up, someone cleared their throat behind him, immediately making him go rigid, as if a seal had been placed on his body.

Originally, he was full of fighting spirit, yet now, all of it was ruthlessly destroyed.

The world was great, but old mom was still the most powerful!

Behind Shi Hao was precisely his mom. She cleared her throat, calling him over just like that.

He called her old mom, but in reality, Qin Yining was still extremely young, in her prime, her age not great. Moreover, she was a cultivator, and her cultivation wasn't weak.

Recently, she had always been worried, scared that something unexpected would happen to Shi Hao, wishing for him to marry earlier and settle down, leave behind an heir.

It was because this eldest son of hers really was good at causing trouble, his cultivation possibly disappearing, yet he was still so restless, running into the higher realm when he had nothing better to do.

This was especially the case when she heard that Shi Hao actually fought against some darkness creature, moreover even now unresigned.

"I don't care how lofty your ambitions are, you are my son, so you must get married!"

Qin Yining was normally extremely gentle, a good wife and loving mother, but right now, she was a bit pissed, rarely exercising her great authority as this world's strongest old mom.

She was scared, worried, hoping that marriage could make Shi Hao become a bit more peaceful, wishing for him to not take as many risks, to not fight against those darkness creatures alone.

There were some things that Shi Hao didn't explain too clearly to them, scared that they would all be worried. That was why Qin Yining didn't understand that well, just feeling that life was extremely peaceful right now, that her eldest son was going too wild.

"Mom, you know that I wish to pursue the great dao, wishing to overlook the long river of time even after endless ages go past, watch as great eras rise and fall." Shi Hao said.

"I know, but your surname is Shi, and you've reached wedding age, so you should leave behind an heir!" Old mom was still the most powerful, saying this domineeringly.

"Child, you should consider these matters. As their child, you should understand how your parents feel." This time, even the benevolent old clan chief Shi Yunfeng spoke up.

"Grandpa Chief!" Shi Hao widened his mouth.

In reality, it wasn't just them, even the others in Stone Village hoped for him to get married, to leave behind descendants.

This was especially the case when even the crimson dragon disciple was snickering, mocking him, egging him on to get married earlier, to just peacefully settle down in Stone Village, not go out and provoke trouble all the time.

As a result, this dragon was kicked flying, a miserable scream echoing through the air. His body spun into the distance, disappearing into the horizon.

"Mom, you should know that I've even met princesses of long life imperial courts, came into contact with the pearls of undying families, yet my heart was never moved. You want me to pick a dao companion now, it's hard for me to immediately find a suitable one!" Shi Hao was trying to find an excuse.

"Isn't there one right there?!" Qin Yining said quietly, but rather forcefully, pointing at Yun Xi who had just returned from picking medicines in the great wilderness. n--0velb1n

Chapter 1805 - Bottleneck

"Master, I've returned again." In the horizon, a crimson dragon turned into a streak of scarlet multicolored light, jumping around, full of joy, as if he was purposely mocking Shi Hao, returning like a streak of lightning. Moreover, when he saw Yun Xi at the front of the village, he laughed in an evil manner, calling her martial mom.

Peng!

As a result, he flew out again, this time, when he was kicked by Shi Hao, the foot quickly enlarged, becoming like a mountain, kicking him to who knew where. Either way, he immediately went unconscious, no sign of him to be found for several days.

Yun Xi's complexion was fine like jade. However, she was rather calm. Ever since this girl followed him into the lower realms, after saying she would take care of Shi Hao, her mind had been peaceful, having a type of aloof and otherworldly temperament, as if an exiled immortal landed in the realm of mortals.

Shi Hao definitely couldn't refuse Yun Xi before her face. Even though she had just returned after picking medicines from the great wilderness, not hearing those words, this was a smart girl, able to guess at the truth just from some clues.

In reality, when she saw Qin Yining's gentle gaze, as well as recalled the recent pampering and care, Yun Xi long noticed what was going on.

"Tell me right now, who exactly are you going to choose?!" Qin Yining secretly asked.

Shi Hao was stunned. This wasn't a matter of who he was choosing, but rather that there was a pit in his heart that he couldn't crawl out of.

It hadn't been long since the Desolate Border Great Battle had ended, less than half a year. Great Elder Meng Tianzheng died in battle, even more so, Huo Ling'er was captured along with all of Sin Province, falling into the other side, unknown if she was still alive.

"I know that you have many thoughts weighing down on your mind, unable to immediately let those things go, but those people have died, forever unable to return. We have to look forward." Qin Yining advised.

In Qin Yining's opinion, Huo Ling'er couldn't return, or it could even be said that she was already dead. Was Anlan someone of the good sort? Would he leave behind living mouths after seizing Sin Province?

Moreover, even if there was really a miracle, even if Huo Ling'er was alive, not dead, what use was that?

Now, the two worlds were isolated from each other, a heavenly moat between the two that was impossible to cross. Desolate Border's great battles had ended, the two sides completely disconnected.

If the two sides wanted to meet again, then it would be a long, long time, perhaps a great era.

Alive was fine, if she was dead, then she was dead. Either way, they didn't have any karma to meet again in this life. Qin Yining also felt regret, worried that Shi Hao couldn't let go of these things, which was why she wanted him to get married as soon as possible, forget about the unhappiness, cut away the bitterness.

"Give me a bit more time." Shi Hao left, not returning, heading into the primal chaos to cultivate.

"Huo Ling'er is a good girl, but you two already no longer share any karma." Qin Yining sighed from the back.

She was pulled back by Shi Ziling. Nobody understood one's son better than the father, Shi Ziling knew that his son wouldn't forget about what happened, no matter what they said. Perhaps he was even using this type of regret to motivate himself.

In the following few years, Shi Hao always cultivated bitterly, his dao skills advancing steadily, continuously growing, fast to the point of leaving one horrified.

One had to understand that at his age, reaching the peak of Self Release Realm was completely unheard of since ancient times. Another step forward and he would be touching upon supreme being territory.

The creatures of darkness' evolution speed had to be ignored, because that type of strength upgrade was abnormal, not obtained through one's own cultivation.

Shi Hao truly cultivated his own skills, his fighting prowess astonishing. After many years of time, he continuously broke through, always advancing, his strength becoming greater and greater.

That day, a great noise sounded in the primal chaos. He fully consolidated his cultivation at the Self Release Realm, already reaching a consummate level, at the absolute peak of this realm!

This type of accomplishment, if news of it got out, it would shake up the higher realm. None of them would expect someone in the lower realms to be on the verge of reaching Supreme Being Realm at such a young age!

It could be said that it was never seen before in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

It was extremely astonishing, world-shaking.

In the following year, he tried to break through, to reach the peak domain of Mortal Dao.

"I am only a bit off, why can't I enter this level?" Shi Hao frowned. He wanted to rush into the Supreme Being Realm, but he failed. He couldn't continue forward from the consummate level of self release.

He returned, heading back to Stone Village, and then went to temper himself in the Void God Realm, facing those sealed creatures again. Unfortunately, the effects weren't that noticeable, still unable to break through.

During this time, Qin Yining raised the same topic again, hoping for him to leave behind an heir, to not have any regrets.

Stone Village's people were all extremely hopeful as well. Shi Hao's talents were something anyone could see, so they all hoped for him to get married and leave behind an heir, leave behind some bloodlines in Stone Village.

Shi Hao smiled, muddling his way through again. It seemed like his path in the lower realms had reached its limit. Now that several years had passed, he wanted to enter the three thousand provinces again, see what was going on with the darkness calamity.

At the same time, he wanted to search for some opportunities, see if he could break through in the higher realm.

When Shi Hao entered the three thousand provinces again, he was extremely shocked. The battlefield was cruel, Immortal Domain's troops suffering considerably, while the darkness territory had enlarged many times!

It wasn't just the three thousand provinces where darkness ran rampant, occupying one to two thousand provinces of land.

Apart from this, the 'back calamity' appeared in the other parts of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths one after another!

Now, this was no longer limited purely to the three thousand provinces, the other ancient continents were also like this, already producing dark matter. A terrifying disaster descended. n--0ve1n

Immortal Domain had no choice but to send out more troops!

During this period, slaughter happened continuously, the cultivators of all sides suffering disastrous losses. During the past few years, bloodiness accumulated, the corpses were countless, all of it caused by slaughter.

Shi Hao was truly horrified as he took everything in. He heard that there were even true immortals who died in battle!

This type of stalemate confrontation was extremely terrifying and intense, both sides slaughtering each other viciously. Terrifying primordial darkness creatures appeared, iron-blooded and ruthless, killing intent overflowing into the heavens.

Shi Hao didn't join in on this, only taking action from time to time along the way to size up these darkness creatures. He didn't want to unleash slaughter now.

Right now, it was still his period of hibernation. With his cultivation, he couldn't change anything even if he joined. Only when he was strong enough, when a single blade could hack open the dark battlefield, only then would it be meaningful.

Along the way, Shi Hao still tried to break through, searching for opportunities. He wanted to enter the Supreme Being Realm!

Unfortunately, things didn't go smoothly at all, he couldn't succeed, still stuck at the peak of Self Release Realm.

Shi Hao was rather disappointed. He just couldn't figure out why he couldn't break through this barrier.

If others knew he was thinking this, they would definitely become stupefied and curse him out. He really was too greedy! From the distant past until now, there weren't any supreme beings under five hundred years of age.

Meanwhile, just how old was he right now?

His cultivation period was too lacking!

Even the most stunning individuals in ancient times, the ones who cultivated the fastest, continuously broke records, had to use several centuries of time, and this was a miraculous feat.

Meanwhile, right now, Shi Hao, in the eyes of predecessors, was too tender, unrealistically young, yet his cultivation was already world shocking.

"No, this won't do, I want to break through!"

In the end, Shi Hao headed out again, returning to the lower realms, bitterly cultivating again. In the blink of an eye, another few years passed.

Shi Hao now cultivated for ten years in total in the lower realms. He was at the consummate level of Self Release Realm, couldn't advance any further, reaching the absolute limit. He had previously guided down lightning tribulation many times, trying to assist with his own breakthrough, but it was still useless.

The Supreme Being Realm couldn't be touched!

It was to the extent where, because he forcefully tried to break through, there were two times where he almost died. Once, he triggered a great collapse in the primal chaos, his flesh rotting, the other time in the starry sky, his body was badly mangled, breaking apart inch by inch, making many stars fade out of existence eternally.

Shi Hao reached a bottleneck phase. He knew that his path really wasn't easy to continue. If he wanted to become the youngest supreme being, it seemed impossible.

However, he couldn't accept this. He didn't want to advance only after a few centuries!

He just wanted to break the record, create a miracle!

Chapter 1806 - Thoughts Too Deep

Shi Hao released a light sigh. In the end, out of helplessness, he sought out the restricted region lord.

Originally, he was extremely prideful, hoping to break through this bottleneck by himself, to advance boldly, truly rise up amidst the impossible. However now, he went to seek guidance.

He didn't understand. Why was it that even though he was so powerful, his dao skills mastery profound, practically unmatched under the heavens in the Self Release Realm, that he just couldn't take that crucial step?

The restricted region lord was astounded, not saying anything for a long time. It was because even he was a bit stunned. This youngster wanted to break into the supreme being level in such a short amount of time?

Did Huang know that forget about this great era, even if it was Immortal Ancient Great Era, there were no supreme beings under five hundred years of age? It was something that needed the tempering of time, the baptism of years.

"You are too impatient."

The restricted region lord could only release a light sigh. He didn't dare compare himself to him, because being compared to this youngster who was only in his thirties, yet already wanted to become a supreme being, it really did deal a great mental blow.

"How can I not be impatient? The higher realm's great war rages incessantly, who knows when it'll be completely corroded by darkness matter? I have to rise up in the shortest amount of time!" Shi Hao's attitude was firm.

"Then do you know that in this world, there has never been a supreme being under five hundred years of age? At the very least, there hasn't been any in the past great era or two!" The restricted region lord said.

Shi Hao became speechless. Could it be that what he was asking for was too much? He couldn't help but ask, "There really aren't any?"

The restricted region lord didn't say anything. Was this fella mocking his predecessors?

"Why aren't there any?" Shi Hao asked in confusion.

"There were indeed people who achieved Self Release Realm's peak at a young age, but just like you, they immediately came to a stop here, difficult to advance further. Only after a period of time did they advance further. The main reason, is that if one wishes to become a supreme being, the amount of experience needed is too much. What is needed is not only the accumulation of power, there is also the accumulation of magical force, even more so the tempering of the mind." The restricted region lord explained.

"Can you give me more concrete advice on what to do?" Shi Hao was a bit anxious, just feeling like time didn't wait for him, that he didn't have much time left. If he didn't rush into the heavens soon, be on equal footing with those great ones, then he might not have a chance anymore.

"If you want to enter the Supreme Being Realm, you need to experience the hundred faces of life, struggle in the great world of mortals, continuously temper the mind. In the end, when your heart is freed, when the shackles are released, you will stand at the peak of Mortal Dao, become a supreme being." The restricted region lord said.

"I need to experience the hundred faces of the mortal world?" Shi Hao's brows furrowed tightly. He felt like this was extremely troublesome, that it would take an extremely long amount of time.

Even though he knew that tempering the heart was essential, a process he couldn't avoid, he still felt like there wasn't enough time.

The restricted region lord said, "On the path of cultivation, there will always be some checkpoints that are a bit special, needing all types of harsh conditions to unlock, only then could they be truly passed. As the final level of the Mortal Dao, it is naturally difficult to cross."

"Then why why can the creatures of darkness overlook the refining of the mind, directly break through when enough power is accumulated, blood pure enough?" Shi Hao mentioned those creatures.

During these past few years, he carefully and cautiously came into contact with the blood of darkness, but he didn't truly immerse himself in it.

At the same time, he forged another body, also adapting to darkness blood bit by bit, not directly merging with it.

"Those creatures only have strength, they are slave soldiers, unable to truly develop. Their so-called Supreme Being Realm advancement is still only in terms of power, an unrealistic mirage, cannot be treated as the real deal. Only the seeds of darkness, those special heaven's chosen, they are a bit different, able to advance. However, if one deeply examines this, there is great terror behind this!" For the restricted region lord to say this, it was clear that there were some things he hadn't explained fully.

"I will go and temper the heart!"

Shi Hao left, sometimes remaining in the lower realms, sometimes heading to the three thousand provinces, his figure appearing in both places.

In the following decade of time, he continuously spent his days in the world of mortals, spending some time as a strict teacher, as a mulberry tree picker, a pasture master, even spending some time as a beggar...

Shi Hao let everything go, experiencing all types of things, spending his days in the roiling world of mortals, completely immersing himself in this domain, experiencing the different faces of life.

Ten years later, he returned again.

Unfortunately, he still failed, unable to advance.

"Temper the mind further!"

After several months of reflection, Shi Hao set out again, no longer cultivating, instead wandering from place to place, visiting famous mountains and great rivers.

During this process, even though he wanted to cultivate the dao, he let everything go, no longer touching it. He just experienced the rise and fall of the mortal world just like that.

Unfortunately, after another decade, when he returned again, he was still unable to become a supreme being.

Shi Hao sighed, unable to calm down. He visited the restricted region lord again.

"You have things preoccupying your mind, moreover, they are too deep, always wanting to become a supreme being, desiring to break through. The more it is like this, the harder it is to break through." The restricted region lord shook his head.

Shi Hao became silent. This was precisely what he wanted, to become a supreme being, quickly soar into the heavens, so how could he just let it go?

"Moreover, you are thinking about quite a few things, wishing to head to the other side and rescue people, to change the battle situation of the future, these thoughts are too deep. This checkpoint, how can you cross it?"

"I'll cross it even if I can't cross it!" Shi Hao clenched his teeth.

"In this type of situation, you can already be considered to have gone mad. In my opinion, you might as well cut off your path, leave the world of cultivators, return to the world of mortals." The restricted region lord actually spoke these words.

Moreover, his voice became extremely grand, dignified and sacred, as if there was a great hammer brought down.

Shi Hao became quiet, his face warping. He clenched his fists tightly, expression changing continuously.

Only after a long time did he calm down. He gave the restricted region lord a deep bow, saying, "Many thanks for senior's warning, to remind me to change my ways."

Shi Hao left, walking extremely slowly, directly disappearing. He returned to Desolate Region, to Stone Village. From that day forth, he gradually forgot about cultivation, no longer thinking about it.

This type of state was extremely strange. He wanted to forget about the methods of cultivation, many secret methods and other things becoming vague, all left far away.

This time, it wasn't forcefully stopping his cultivation, but rather carrying a type of internal self baptism, wandering between the border of giving up and gaining, freeing the self. In the end, he threw everything aside, temporarily freeing himself from the world of mortals.

"Child, so many years have passed, is there anything you can't let go? Are your thoughts still so deep? Me and your father truly wish for an heir!"

Qin Yining spoke up, bringing up old matters again.

"Is that so? Turns out my thoughts were actually this deep, even in the topic of marriage and children, I still haven't let it go, full of misgivings." Shi Hao released a light sigh.

In the end, he suddenly raised his head, his eyes extremely bright, and also extremely clear, as if he realized some things. "I, can get married."

Shi Ziling and Qin Yining were stunned, and then they became overjoyed.

After all these years, they already acknowledged Yun Xi. That beautiful and aloof Celestial Clan youngster followed him down into the lower realms, not abandoning Shi Hao even when he was being ruined. In the past, she said she would take care of Shi Hao, and now, she truly never left all this time.

Stone Village was full of a festive mood. When news traveled out, the old clan chief Shi Yunfeng and the others were so happy they couldn't conceal their joy, as if they were celebrating a festival. All types of cheers of happiness and laughter sounded.

Now, many of the children had already grown up, already taking wives and giving birth. Quite a few people always wanted Shi Hao to leave behind some heirs, now, this was finally going to happen.

"Yun Xi, is she willing?" Shi Hao asked his mother. He didn't want to force the other party.

"That child's heart is something I understand. She is willing, or else she wouldn't have stayed here all this time. When your body suffered a great problem, she still followed you into the lower realms." Qin Yining replied.

Shi Hao became silent, nodding.

There were some things that left him feeling helpless, but he still had to make a choice.

He stared into the distance. Could he wait a great era of time? As time passed by, would that figure under the Fire Mulberry Trees still remain?

After a light sigh, it was as if he could see over hills and dales, the blooming Fire Mulberry Flowers, sparkling flower petals dancing in the air.

Chapter 1807 - Marriage

During these past few years, the feeling Yun Xi gave off was an aloof and calm one, as if she was completely withdrawn from worldly affairs, gentle, peaceful, and calm. She picked medicines in the mountain in a tranquil manner, as if she was a goddess in a world of mortals.

However, today, her sparkling white and beautiful face became slightly red, her expression changing, unable to remain calm anymore, startled by the sudden news.

Qin Yining came, wishing to have her and Shi Hao get married!

Even though she long had a feeling that this would eventually happen, so many years passed in a flash, and only today did she receive clear information. That was why she was momentarily stunned.

She was a bit flustered. Even though she had previously made mental preparations, she still felt like this was 'sudden'.

Should she agree? She originally came down into the lower realms precisely to take care of Huang whose cultivation was going to be crippled, not wishing to abandon him, to repay him in this way.

However, who would have thought that Huang's cultivation wouldn't decrease at all, sticking it through all the way until now. Even now, he was still extremely healthy!

He was like an undying cockroach. There was such a great calamity, this was the Immortal Breaking Curse we were talking about, something that could even cripple true immortals, yet he could actually still stick it through! It really was unbelievable.

She wasn't able to personally take care of Shi Hao. Previously, she had thoughts of leaving, but Qin Yining stopped her, the reason simple, that Shi Hao hadn't broken free from the Immortal Breaking Curse yet, he might still be crippled at any time.

Now, Qin Yining further asked her to marry Shi Hao.

Regardless, the significance of a dao companion, for a female cultivator, was something entirely different. She found it hard to calm down, actually feeling the urge to run.

Qin Yining prevented her from doing so.

Perhaps women understood women the best. They quietly discussed things.

Yun Xi thought back to the events of the past, all of the different things that happened. In the beginning, her and Shi Hao wrestled each other, she even had her ears bitten on, but later on became friendly, becoming close friends.

In the end, they even more so traveled together through life and death. Shi Hao protected her, escorting her through the bloody plains, bringing her back to Celestial Clan. These were memories that she cherished, hard for her to forget.

Only, the things Celestial Clan did were like a blade, hacking through these beautiful scenes.

When she learned that Shi Hao was being crippled, that he was afflicted with the Immortal Breaking Curse, she didn't feel any hesitation, insisting on following him, precisely to restore the past fractured relationship.

The past was already the past. However, now that she looked back, when she asked herself, she was sure that she didn't hate Shi Hao, following him at his side instead brought many joyous memories.

She knew that she did like him.

However, there were some things that happened back then after all, so now, could she truly become his dao companion?

Yun Xi knew that Shi Hao always advanced boldly, domineering the lower realms, ascending into the Nine Heavens, he even fought in Desolate Border. He definitely didn't only have a single close female friend, would he be able to let them all go?

This so-called letting go, was directed at the things she had to face in the future, as well as Shi Hao who was to become her dao companion.

It was because in the future, what if those women appeared again? What was she supposed to do? Meanwhile, would Shi Hao truly be able to forget them like past beautiful sceneries? At the very least, she knew that there was a Huo Ling'er, even though her current condition was unknown, there was a deep imprint left in Shi Hao's heart.

Yun Xi's thoughts were a bit complicated, a bit contradictory, but also a bit happy.

In the end, she agreed.

Qin Yining immediately smiled.

In the distance, the crimson dragon's entire body was fiery red, scarlet multicolored light swirling about, currently moving its entire body, shouting out, "The heavens are great, the earth is great, but old mom is greatest!"

This was clearly done on purpose, to mock its cheap master, purposely provoke Shi Hao.

It was because it knew that this marriage began precisely because of Qin Yining's inciting.

Even though Shi Hao's cultivation was extremely profound, when faced with this dragon, he still couldn't endure it. In reality, he didn't want to endure it, so a foot flew out, this True Dragon... flew again!

"I, the great crimson dragon, will return!" A miserable scream echoed through the sky from the horizon.

All of Stone Village became bustling with activity, decorated with lanterns and colored banners, incredibly festive and lively. The past children, those kids from Desolate Border, had now already grown up.

Stone Village was now entirely different, becoming powerful, the foundation astonishing!

The aptitudes of Stone Village's descendants were extremely good, while the children from Desolate Border were even more exceptional. They were the descendants of Desolate Border's seven kings! Now that they grew up, there were some formidable experts who came out of them.

In terms of comprehensive strength, Stone Village could already dominate the lower realms!

It was just a village hidden within the great wilderness, yet its power could devour mountains and rivers.

"Big brother, you are finally going to get married." Qingfeng came, smiling, feeling sincere joy. He was Stone Country's Human Emperor, so now, he long had quite a few descendants.

The Zhuyan tweaked its ears and scratched its cheeks, while its old rival, that little red bird -- Vermilion Bird's descendant, also hurried over from Fire Nation's ancestral land.

The golden lion's expression was complicated. It came down into the lower realms with Huang, already spending many years here, personally watching how quickly he rose up, now actually at the peak of Self Release Realm.

What was hardest for it to endure was that Huang was not satisfied, still wanting to break a record, enter the Supreme Being Realm. Five hundred years was a taboo line that couldn't be crossed for the Supreme Being Realm, yet he wanted to break it?

If he really did become a supreme being before reaching a hundred years of age, this... really would be enough to scare it to death!

“Heh, is a supreme being under a hundred years of age really going to appear? It seems like I have to hurry and cultivate too, refine the Great Black Tortoise God Fist as early as possible!” Third Blackie stuck its head out, looking around, a wretched expression on its face.

“Is this the great tortoise divine fist?” The big red bird had a look of disdain on its face, extremely cocky, directly smacking it off to the side with a phoenix wing.

The Nine-Headed Lion, Princess Qian Qian, and the others all came. There was a group of people from Heaven Mending Pavilion too, for example, Xia Youyu, ‘prominent horn’ Xiao Tian, and others.

Now, Stone Village wasn’t scared of its location being exposed anymore. Who in the lower realms could still attack them? As the children grew up, this place’s fighting strength increased drastically!

Even if Shi Hao and the others weren’t here, just those grown up kids were enough to dominate the world!

“Let everything go, don’t be preoccupied with anything anymore, and I can become a supreme being?” Shi Hao asked himself.

Time didn’t wait for him. The amount of time he had really wasn’t much, if he couldn’t rise up earlier, everything would be for nothing!

As a result, Shi Hao felt worried, felt impatience, wanted to find a way to make a breakthrough on this path as early as possible.

However, would letting one’s thoughts go really allow one to become a supreme being?

Could he really just let everything go?

Shi Hao was meditating, forgetting his secret methods, forgetting great techniques, becoming like an ordinary mortal. He gradually calmed himself down.

Soon afterwards, his mind became calm. He was reflecting, thinking to himself. The restricted region lord pointed out where he was lacking, saying that he was preoccupied with too many things, that he was going to go mad. Did he really have to sever away all of his thoughts?

Right now, this was precisely what he was doing, trying his best to let everything go, release the restrictions, including his emotions, changing himself.

He felt like he was currently scattering his thoughts. Secret methods and great techniques were all forgotten, while the women he had previously interacted with, their figures also became blurry.

However, there was clearly still bitterness at the depths of his heart!

“That’s Qing Yi...”

In that instant, in the depths of his heart, there was a figure that appeared. How could he forget?!

Soon afterwards, he ruthlessly scattered it again. He wanted to forget it all, become a supreme being. There wasn’t enough time, he wanted to rush into the heavens, he couldn’t waste any time.

If he was given another thousand years, ten thousand years, then he wouldn't make this type of choice, wouldn't walk this path.

He was scattering his own thoughts!

This was what Shi Hao was doing.

However, this process was a bit complex, extremely dangerous.

He was forgetting, cutting away much of his thoughts, but deep inside, he felt an indistinct soreness.

Shi Hao understood, there were some things that were hard to sever.

Sure enough, soon afterwards, the figure of that Fire Clan woman appeared again. n(0vElbIn

When one thought emerged, another was scattered, and then another memory appeared.

After shattering the thoughts he originally had, he would then instead only bury another thought deeper. In the end, the Fire Mulberry Flowers withered, a rain of flowers filling the skies. That figure that silently waited underneath seemed to have become something he could never forget.

"Erase!"

Shi Hao released a light shout, obliterating all thoughts. He decisively took that step, wishing to walk forward.

Meanwhile, during the final instant before he did this, he vowed that if he couldn't succeed, couldn't take that step, he would go against the dao!

The so-called against the dao, was that since his thoughts couldn't be erased, then he wouldn't erase them, wouldn't get rid of them, instead cutting through ten thousand dao with a single will!

That path was precisely to destroy all obstructions even while carrying all those emotions, precisely using those thoughts he couldn't let go of to become a supreme being!

One will to cut through ten thousand dao!

This was his final choice.

Meanwhile now, he seemed to have achieved that step he wanted to take, to scatter all of his will. The expression in his eyes was peaceful as he watched the festive Stone Village. He walked towards the young lady who was currently waiting for him.

That day, Shi Hao got married. There were many guests who came, the village extremely lively. Everyone was touching glasses and exchanging drinks. Clan chief Shi Yunfeng was so happy he was grinning from ear to ear, the children were also laughing, everyone toasting to this occasion.

There were many guests from the outside world, even Ocean Clan creatures and others coming.

"It's actually... that bird!" The golden lion was furious. It saw the fella who left bird poo on its nose; that palm-sized Five-Colored Sparrow appeared.

This was a strange bird. There was a small cauldron that was pure white like jade carried by its beak. After throwing it into Stone Village, it turned around to run!

Many people were confused, not knowing why the golden lion got so angry.

Only Stone Village's people understood just how strange that bird was. They were all alarmed.

Shi Hao stared at the small cauldron on the ground. He remembered clearly, that day when the seven deities came down into the lower realms, he went to fight them, bringing a cauldron from the village with him. However, in the end, that cauldron cracked apart, revealing a pure white cauldron within...

In the end, that white cauldron disappeared into the void.

Who would have thought that the Five-Colored Sparrow would bring it back.

Chapter 1808 - Attacking At Supreme Being

This cauldron swirled with gentle radiance. It was extremely delicate, actually appearing, moreover in such a strange manner.

Meanwhile, it now shrank, only an inch tall, quite small. If one didn't pay any attention, they might even overlook it. It was snow-white and sparkling, as if carved out of immortal bones.

It was definitely the one from the past!

Even though it shrunk in size, Shi Hao wouldn't mistake it for anything else, it was precisely that cauldron. Back then, it had been lost, but now, it was brought back by that bird. n(Ovelb1n

"Where do you think you're going?!" The golden lion immediately began to run, rushing into the sky, opening its bloody mouth. Winds stirred and clouds swirled, all of the clouds in the skies sucked into his mouth.

It wanted to devour that Five-Colored Sparrow with a single gulp, truly angered badly. A pile of bird poo was left on its nose back then, this was the greatest humiliation it had suffered its entire life.

However, it was already too late. The sparrow swirling with rainbow brilliance was too fast. When it rushed into the sky, its figure already disappeared without a trace.

There were afterimages everywhere. It disappeared into the limits of the boundless horizon, leaving just like that.

"Get back here right now!" The golden lion roared out, its golden beast fur standing on end, releasing golden light, as if it had been struck by lightning, radiance swirling about.

However, it just couldn't catch up, already left behind.

But now, no one was paying it any attention, everyone staring at that small cauldron.

They all knew that this thing was extraordinary. Just from a single look, they felt that it was mysterious and unfathomable.

It was precisely because even though the small cauldron looked like it was spotlessly white and swirling with holy radiance, it still gave everyone a mysterious feeling. This was especially the case with the inside of the cauldron, extremely deep and abstruse.

It was small, but right now, everything inside the cauldron actually gave off a type of indistinct feeling, as if there was primal chaos filling it, the depth impossible to see.

This was extremely strange. It was but an inch in height, why couldn't they see its bottom?

Shi Hao moved, taking a step forward, the first to make a move. He bent down at the waist, his fingers like nipping flowers, picking this small cauldron up, carefully sizing it up.

"Yi?!" Shi Hao was extremely shocked, his expression moved. It was because only when he opened his heavenly eyes, did he see the indistinct scenes at the bottom of the small cauldron.

There seemed to be some patterns, it was extremely indistinct.

The cauldron was merely an inch or so high. Even if one opened their heavenly eyes, they couldn't completely see through it. This type of feeling was extremely strange, as if it wasn't just an inch separating them, but rather a starry sky, a universe.

"The cauldron walls are covered in markings, not smooth, and there seem to be a few pieces missing!"

When Shi Hao carefully examined it, he shockingly discovered that those traces were done in a regular pattern, all of them crafted by someone, forming grooves.

Of course, it was extremely faint, or else the cauldron would be full of holes.

Was the cauldron originally like this, purposely carved out by someone, or was it to cover up, erase something?

Shi Hao frowned, because those faint markings were extremely symmetrical, not disordered and messy at all.

Was this a congratulatory gift from that Five-Colored Sparrow?

"The material is extremely similar to the Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram!"

Shi Hao raised his head to look into the horizon. Today really was rather surprising, this strange little bird appeared, truly bringing him a pleasant surprise.

There was now no need for any other proof. Everyone in Stone Village knew how extraordinary this bird was.

After several decades, it was still there, not changed at all, impossible to see through. The most important thing was that no one could catch it!

"This bird can move through the void, harmonized with heaven and earth. Otherwise, I would have long caught it!" The golden lion was furious.

The marriage ceremony continued, this was merely the interlude. After a bit of shock and noise, everyone returned to a festive and joyous mood.

“First, kowtow before heaven and earth, second, kowtow to the parents! Husband and wife, kowtow to each other!”

Under voices of laughter and cheers, everything went smoothly. The new couple bowed towards each other.

Even though they were cultivators, the wedding ceremony was no different from that of mortals. Stone Village gradually became stronger from its once declining tribe state, preserving this type of down to earth nature all along.

Yun Xi’s heart trembled slightly. Was she now walking together with Shi Hao just like that, becoming dao companions?

It was as if she was dreaming. Even though she had made mental preparations, now that it really happened, she still felt it was quite sudden. They had previously stood against each other, traveled through life and death...

In the end, it was actually this result, it even made her think that life was but a dream.

In the past, Shi Hao guarded her on the way back to Celestial Clan, yet in the end, he was almost harmed to death. Later on, he even became bitter enemies with Celestial Clan. During that time, she felt truly terrible, knowing that they might never walk the same path again, only get further and further away.

“Oh oh oh, time to play pranks on the newlyweds!” A group of children shouted noisily.

The children from back then all grew up, long becoming adults, this was a new batch of kids. Stone Village’s population was quickly increasing, growing and multiplying without end.

The group of kids were all shouting noisily, even a group of young adults now joining in.

“Little brats, if you all make any more noise, I’m going to grab you all one by one and throw you into the eye of the Northern Sea!” Dazhuang roared.

Hahaha...

In the distance, Qin Yining and Shi Ziling were both laughing, extremely happy, as if they were relieved from a burden. Their eldest son got married, fulfilling one of their greatest cherished desires.

“Good, good, good!” The old clan chief Shi Yunfeng also continuously nodded, full of smiles. Even though his age was getting greater and greater, his spirit was extremely vigorous, gradually becoming stronger.

His blood energy didn’t dry up, on the contrary, his physique became more and more robust. It was related to cultivation, as well as Stone Village’s environment.

The number of divine medicines here was definitely not few, Void Sky Divine Vine, Heavenly Deity Tree... spiritual essence rose in spirals, divine force pervading the air, nourishing everyone in the village, male, female, young, and old.

Stone Village’s newer generations’ talents became greater and greater, largely related to this.

It was because even when they were in their mother's womb, they were already nourished by the essence wafting out from divine medicines. As such, when they were born, how could they not be astonishingly powerful?

To the north was a small courtyard. It was cut off by a formation that prevented outsiders from entering. This was like a Shangri-La, rarely seen and unusual. A rock garden surrounded this place, the beautiful trees lush and verdant.

These dao companions whose relationship was complex sat down facing each other. Right now, they became extremely quiet, neither of them saying anything.

Yun Xi's skin was fine like beautiful jade, her eyes full of intelligence. When she looked at Shi Hao, there was no shyness or embarrassment of a little girl, at least on the surface, she was still calm.

Only, as for what she was feeling inside, it was hard to say. In reality, her heart was pounding fiercely.

Shi Hao looked at her, thinking back to the past. Many events of the past appeared in his mind. The one who accompanied him was actually Yun Xi... he released a sigh, feeling frustration, happiness, and dejected... his thoughts were extremely complex.

There was another figure who appeared at this moment, about to truly take form. This made his heart stir.

The past thoughts he had scattered, they were restless again?

When one's strength was exhausted, how could one's thoughts be completely erased, their emotions and feelings completely erased?

Qing Yi, Heaven Mending Dao, didn't she say that she was going to come down into the lower realms, reunite with him? Why didn't she come?

What about Huo Ling'er? She also gradually took form from those scattered thoughts.

Hong!

Shi Hao's body suddenly trembled, divine force surging. He shouted, "One last severing, I will not hesitate to pay the price!"

Yun Xi was shocked. This was the night of being newly wed, was her dao companion gaining enlightenment? He actually sat there, closing his eyes, as if he entered seclusion cultivation.

Immediately afterwards, she saw Shi Hao's various thoughts fly out from his body. There were many indistinct figures that appeared in the air, engraving themselves in the void, and then they swirled about him.

There was a scorched black willow tree, the place where Fire Mulberry Trees took root, the body Qing Yi and Yue Chan merged into, the cruel great battles against the other side in Desolate Border, Great Elder's tragic death, darkness creatures' surging tide, history's most terrifying great showdown...

He had far too many thoughts weighing him down!

In the end, Shi Hao forced them out from his body, having them enter the skies.

Shi Hao entered a state of cultivation. In this newly wed evening, he didn't move at all, like a boulder, as if he only listened to heaven and earth's scriptures for hundreds to thousands of years.

Hong!

A month later, the entire small courtyard became a forbidden area that no one could step foot into. Everyone could see powerful dao laws swirling about, Shi Hao at the center of it all.

It was as if he was a phoenix undergoing rebirth. The great dao natural laws on his body were like the feathers of a new True Phoenix, granting him power, strengthening him to the peak.

"Supreme being aura!"

He was actually about to become a supreme being! Everyone was shocked. He really succeeded?

"Too dangerous! If not for him laying a formation ahead of time, cutting off the courtyard from the outside world, Stone Village would've been in danger!" Someone said in alarm.

"He is controlling it, not letting it flare out. Otherwise, we would have long been in danger!"

"Everyone, withdraw from the village, leave this place to him!" The old clan chief Shi Yunfeng ordered.

They decided to use Stone Village as a buffer. It was because the entire village could be turned into a great formation, activated, this was arranged by Willow Deity in the past.

"Yi, those natural laws, those True Phoenix feather-like chains of order are withdrawing, entering his body, as if they are forming a cocoon!"

Everyone saw that Shi Hao was wrapped by a layer of feathers, turning into a cocoon. It was as if he underwent rebirth again, about to be born, about to start a new life.

"Supreme being's aura, he really is going to step onto that path!" The golden lion was horrified.

Shi Hao's aura was retracting. If it erupted, if it spilled out of the great formation, the entire heaven and earth would capsize!

This was too dangerous! For Stone Village, for the entire great wilderness, for all of Desolate Region, this was a terrifying thing.

Fortunately, it didn't leak out. All of the essence energy was restrained!

Shi Hao was treading on the supreme being path. If he succeeded, managing to break a legend of endless ages, he would become history's youngest Mortal Dao supreme being!

The same day, that very moment, great changes took place in the higher realm, affecting the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

The various great ancient continents were all moving, slowly shifting. They were previously one body, but during Immortal Ancient Great Era, they were ultimately fractured into the Nine Heavens Ten Earths after the past great battles.

Now, a mysterious power appeared, guiding them. They might join up again, return to being one.

Apart from this, there were even more shocking changes taking place in the higher realm.

“Is an age without cultivation about to descend? Heavens! The world is devouring itself!” Someone cried out in alarm. He came from Immortal Domain, a high level figure!

There were great changes happening to heaven and earth, things that shocked past, present, and future happening.

Was this man-made, or was it a natural disaster?

Was this an omen? Many people were shocked, even their souls shaking!

Chapter 1809 - Good Fortune

Hazy and indistinct, rising and falling, not living yet not fading, Shi Hao was in a type of strange state.

His aura continuously withdrew into his body. Meanwhile, his own primordial spirit seemed to have faded, as if he had passed away in meditation, but in reality, he was still alive, carrying out a type of strange transformation.

Outside his body, the chains of order were like rainbows, natural laws like chains, wrapping around him, forming a cocoon, restricting his body.

The supreme being path was difficult and full of dangers, possibility of loss at every turn. The danger that was produced was not only the death of himself, but also the destruction of endless earth.

One mistake and the stars and moon would wither away, the surrounding heavens and earth collapsing; this was definitely not an uncommon occurrence.

When Shi Hao withdrew his own vital energy, things seemingly took a turn for the better. This was a rare bit of reassurance on this path, but of course, this was only for others in the outside world.

It was because if Shi Hao was to fail, he might turn to stone, wither up, turn into a clump of yellow earth. No matter how his vital energy and others burned, it would still pour into the world, form a source of essence energy, and not the eye of an explosion.

It might also destroy the great wilderness, but compared to the essence energy leaking out and surging, the consequences would be considerably better than a direct explosion.

It was because if it was the latter, defeat meant a capsizing of heaven and earth, everything within who knew how many tens of thousands of years would explode, affecting the great stars and other things of outer space.

Everyone in the village was nervous, all of them roaming about. Among them, the golden lion's eyes were flickering. It came from the other side, so how could it not understand the path of supreme being transformation?

It personally witnessed just how grand and spectacular it was!

It had previously seen people who failed, seated in outer space. In the end, great stars exploded one after another around them, magical projections filling the world, groups of stars destroyed.

It had previously heard that there were some that ignited their self. Essence energy surged from within their bodies, quickly leaking out, forming a piece of pure earth to nourish plants, creatures, and other things.

Of course, the so-called nourishing referred to after things calmed down. In the beginning, spiritual essence surged, some spiritual herbs and experts directly exploded.

It had also heard that there were some who failed on the supreme being path, blood splashing over heaven and earth. Seas dried up, mountains and rivers burned up, great lightning tribulation was guided down, destroying all creatures in a land.

The golden lion felt more and more worry and anxiousness, as well as fear.

It had a type of agreement with Shi Hao, if he died, it would also accompany him to the grave. Even if it ran right now, it wouldn't do anything, it would still die here.

"Even when one wishes to attack at the supreme being level in my world, normally, there would be an undying being watching over them from the side! Otherwise, there will easily be issues!"

The golden lion said to itself. However, right now, where would it find an undying being to protect the dao for Shi Hao? If he really did fail, dying here, there would definitely be a huge problem.

Of course, after a wave of panic and fear, it also inwardly cursed why the heavens were so unfair. Just how many years did Shi Hao cultivate for? He was even younger than itself!

A several decades old supreme being? If news of this got out, who would believe this? Even in the other side, everyone might treat this as a joke.

Five hundred years was a dividing line, a curse that couldn't be broken, difficult to cross.

At the very least, in this great era that the golden lion was born in, there were absolutely not five hundred years old supreme beings. If one chased further back, then perhaps there were!

After all, that was the glorious age of the other side. In that era, they defeated the enemies of all sides.

Even this realm -- the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, were flattened by them, swept through.

"What should we do? How can we help him?" The Zhuyan was extremely frustrated, unable to sit still. However, there really wasn't anything it could do.

Supreme being path, who walked this before?

If not for Shi Hao returning, telling them many things, Stone Village's people would have no idea what this cultivation realm even entailed, what kind of meaning it represented.

However, the crimson dragon understood, this feeling inherent to its race. Even though it didn't obtain its clan's secret inheritance, there were some supplementary things that were engraved in his blood, deepening its knowledge.

"We can only wait, no one can do anything to help him!" The crimson dragon said.

"Why don't we bring some stalks of divine medicine over, boost his vigor a bit?" Third Blackie said.

“Are you trying to say that we should make tortoise soup, let him drink soup, eat medicine, advance that way?!” The big red bird shot it a look.

Comparatively speaking, the big red bird, as well as Stone Village’s later generations weren’t as worried. They had experienced the age of ‘Little Stone legend’, personally witnessed the youngster’s path of growth.

During these years, he continuously broke records, walking his own optimal and brilliant path, making all of them carry great faith in him.

Honglong!

Suddenly, heaven and earth trembled. Stone Village was shaking.

The golden lion’s entire body looked like it had been struck by lightning, fur standing on end, shuddering all over. Its heart was pounding furiously.

It wasn’t even him who was undergoing a transformation, walking the supreme being path, yet it seemed to be even more worried and nervous than Shi Hao.

If Shi Hao died, it would also die. As such, how could it not be scared and worried?

However, if Shi Hao succeeded, then that meant that a curse was broken, establishing an absolute unbelievable legend, stronger than any of the other side’s supreme beings in this great era.

At that time, the glorious Fearless Lion would most likely never have the chance to be freed from Huang’s side, the chains bound around it would become more and more firm, locking it down.

Could it be that it had to follow Huang forever? It was the inheritor of the other side’s Fearless Lion bloodline!

Stone Village trembled nine times in succession. Essence energy surged like a sea, gathering from outer space. One could see endless stellar splendor gathering, converging into a stream, forming a waterfall, crashing down.

This was a type of miracle. In this world, all of the sun and moon essence was gathering, surging towards Shi Hao.

It was clearly daytime, but now, groups of stars were flickering, an endless starry sky appearing. The stars in the heavens could all be seen clearly, the suns and other sources of light unable to hide them.

This type of scenery was extremely beautiful, and also extremely spectacular.

Everyone was stunned. This was a waterfall from outer space, it crashed over wave after wave just like that, pouring into the heart of Stone Village, making one’s soul tremble.

“Hurry, sit down in meditation, comprehend your own methods!”

“Seclusion cultivation!”

A few people said, having the children sit here and cultivate.

This was a rare opportunity, the spiritual essence so thick it would scatter. This was the essence of heaven and earth! Before the supreme being dao achieving path, the universe's most fundamental energy would gather, refining endless essence. n.-σ).ℳ--e(.ℓ.-b/(1).n

Right now, so much stellar splendor crashed down, pouring over from outer space, wisp after wisp pouring out. Even if they were just drops, they all brought enormous benefits to Stone Village's people.

This was especially the case with the youngsters, the children who were currently growing, bringing them even more benefits. The foundational energy of heaven and earth entered their body, basically helping them refine their bodies.

Stone Village was covered in a layer of gentle and sacred radiance. Even if one left the village, the outside was still battered by a type of ripple-like wave, spreading outwards.

This was peaceful, not chaotic.

The supreme being path, the essence a supreme being gathered from heaven and earth, was a profound source of good fortune, nurturing the creatures of all sides.

"The heavens have blessed Stone Village!" The old village chief Shi Yunfeng said, extremely moved.

Even him, already quite old, was changing right now, receiving indescribable nourishment.

It was because his skin was becoming taut, no longer sagging, his wrinkles decreasing. Meanwhile, some of his white hair turned jet black; this really was a miracle!

"This is a natural phenomenon." The golden lion said in a stupor.

Only it understood the best, because it had personally seen just how supreme beings were born.

If one wanted to become a supreme being, they naturally needed to have all types of methods, seek spiritual essence from the universe, absorb the most fundamental things from heaven and earth, only then could they achieve dao results.

The entire world's foundational essence, even if it was just wisps and strands, when it flowed out like this, for other creatures, it brought tremendous benefits!

Chapter 1810 - Questioning Heaven and Earth

The reason why the other side was so powerful was because they were currently in a type of virtuous cycle!

Once one succeeded on the supreme being path, they would immediately be able to bring good fortune to the clan, help countless creatures. Those who cultivated around them, the cultivators who also meditated nearby, would all receive tremendous benefits with the supreme being achieving their dao fruit.

When this happened, the old could become stronger, even reverse the process of aging, increasing their lifespan, the young children would receive a divine baptism. Those with greater luck would be able to reforge their flesh again, completely shed and exchange their mortal bodies.

A single successful supreme being path signified a grand occasion for other creatures!

There was a saying before that if a supreme being could come out of a single clan, then a powerful clan would emerge to meet a historic destiny, this wasn't all because they now had a supreme being.

It was also because everyone in the clan would obtain a baptism, some people becoming stronger, some having their vessels cleansed, their aptitudes advancing, becoming people with astonishing potential in the future.

It could be said that the effects of this would be profound, the entire clan being upgraded.

Moreover, the other side didn't only have the supreme being path, they also had the undying path. When someone on that level was born, the divine light that poured out, the source of heaven and earth, would become even more astonishing, able to help accomplish a new peak for those of later generations!

This was precisely one of the reasons why the strong would produce stronger individuals, the other side was currently in this positive feedback loop.

"Did he really succeed?" The golden lion's expression became more and more complicated, staring at Shi Hao over there.

"Even starlight is stirring!" There was someone who cried out in shock, looking into outer space.

In a daze, they heard rivers of stars surge, roaring noises sounding from outer space. Starlight shone endlessly.

"This is a resonance of star clusters, congratulating the powerful one on the supreme being path, a type of irregular heaven and earth scene." The golden lion said, his expression becoming more and more serious.

He already reached this point, Huang really was a monster, about to defy the heavens!

The golden lion felt like history's most freakishly young pseudo supreme being was about to succeed, about to take that step.

Honglonglong!

In the world beyond, as expected, there really were voices that sounded, or perhaps they could be called 'dao tremors'.

This was the shaking of heaven and earth's natural laws. Groups of stars were shaking, trembling nine times in succession, and then they would pour down sun and moon splendor that was even more rich!

The stars trembled, the earth shook, these were all good omens. It was now close to the end phase, was everything going to become complete?

Acknowledged by heaven and earth, bringing good fortune to descendants, while oneself was also undergoing extreme evolution, this was the embodiment of supreme being glory.

"My... cultivation is actually improving, my insights towards the world deepening!" The crimson dragon was stupefied. The disturbance this cheap master brought was just too great.

One had to understand that it was no ordinary cultivator. As a true dragon, as well as someone with merely thirty years of bitter cultivation, his magical force became astonishing, his dao results world-shocking!

It was just a Huang suppressing it in the lower realms, or else it might have really already become some overlord.

Its current self dared challenge any creatures.

“Please continue! Star shaking, dao shaking, let’s have more different types of ‘shaking’!” The big black tortoise was swallowing its saliva, because it directly broke through a level.

A supreme being could create a powerful clan, this really did make sense.

Just how much time had passed? Yet the nearby creatures, because of him, received tremendous benefits.

Even though the golden lion was anxious, it really received tremendous benefits as well. Its bones and muscles shook, receiving a baptism, his dao skills growing uncontrollably.

This was a gift of great dao. Those who were challenging the supreme being bottleneck, when they approached the end of the path, all types of auspicious signs would appear.

The elders felt like they were full of life, that they were becoming younger.

Of course, Stone Village’s children received the greatest benefits!

They were breaking through. This wasn’t just one or two, but rather a great expanse. This was simply a type of wonderful scenery that left one in shock, feeling inconceivable.

There were also those who were at the prime of their lives, for example, the descendants of the seven kings Shi Hao brought back from Desolate Border. Now, some of them were shrouded in heaven and earth blessings, covered in divine splendor. They weren’t children growing in the village, yet they still had their bodies reforged.

“Right, Desolate Border’s Seven Kings established great merit. Now, the world is bestowing a great dao gift, a type of present, good fortune for the Seven Kings’ descendants.”

Someone realized, gaining some insights.

Chi!

A terrifying streak of scarlet light descended from outer space, rushing towards Shi Hao’s head.

“It’s coming!”

The golden lion’s eyelids jumped crazily. It really was worried, because the final moments had arrived; if Shi Hao succeeded, then he would be a supreme being, if he failed, then he was done for.

The supreme being path, even at its final phase, was still full of dangers. For example, even now, Shi Hao faced interference.

That streak of light was like lightning, but it definitely wasn't. It was extremely brilliant, extremely red like a drop of blood. It descended from outer space, wishing to blast through Shi Hao's skull.

"What is this?" A few people became scared. Even though they were just watching, they still felt an indescribable danger, all of them couldn't help but tremble.

"There were some who said that this is a severe interrogation of the world, if one cannot make it through, then they would turn into scattered ashes and dispersed smoke." The golden lion said.

In reality, ninety percent of those who failed while attacking at the supreme being bottleneck failed at this final stage.

Sou!

Right at this moment, Shi Hao moved. His eyes were still closed, but he broke free of Stone Village. His figure flashed, rushing into the heavens, taking the initiative to face it.

"Ah, why is he leaving?" Everyone was stunned, feeling fear.

It was because they had just learned from the golden lion that when attacking at the supreme being bottleneck, everyone would remain extremely cautious, they wouldn't act rashly.

At the very least, when seizing the source of the universe, they shouldn't be impudent.

"He is scared that if he fails, Stone Village will be destroyed, that the great wilderness will be annihilated." The golden lion's expression was serious.

"Will he be okay? Is he in danger?" Yun Xi asked, her face turning pale white.

On the side, Shi Ziling and his wife's breathing were hurried, their expressions full of panic, just too worried.

"Logically speaking, he already reached this point. With his freakish and monstrous aptitude, he should be able to make it through." The golden lion replied.

Peng!

That streak of scarlet light was actually impossible to evade. It locked onto Shi Hao, in the end forcibly smashing into his body, crashing down on his skull. Waves of scarlet mist diffused outwards.

Shi Hao's body staggered, but he stabilized himself, not being killed, not falling down.

Chi!

A streak of purple light poured down, the aura majestic, carrying a grand and vast feeling. It poured down from above, overlooking all life.

Shi Hao frowned, still not opening his eyes. However, he instead further experienced this was not lightning after all, but more like a grand will.

The so-called interrogation of heaven and earth, did it carry the will of the world? Shi Hao thought to himself. Right now, he already woke up, snapping out of his meditation. From here on out, he had to withstand this power!

The supreme being path, he wanted to succeed, he did not want to fail!

Heaven and earth good fortune was still pouring down. All types of auspicious radiance spread like water ripples, surging nearby Stone Village.

Everyone obtained tremendous benefits.

However, this type of gift still had its limits, there was no way it could continue.

Those who obtained the greatest benefits broke through two bottlenecks in a day, breaking through two great cultivation realms!

As for the baptism, altering of one's growth potential, there was even less of a need to talk about the benefits of this.

Purple light struck Shi Hao's body. His entire body trembled intensely, his primordial spirit almost exploding, but his flesh was actually unaffected. He sensed greater and greater danger!

The supreme being path was extremely difficult. He was being obstructed!

"Not good, I have to leave this place!" Shi Hao made his decision. The good fortune of the world was already received by Stone Village's people, it was time for him to leave.

Otherwise, once there were some strange developments, then it might involve Stone Village, as well as destroy the great wilderness.

"He's moving, about to leave!"

The golden lion was shocked. One had to understand that when trying to achieve the dao, one couldn't randomly change things. No one had energy that great, changing locations was too risky.

Perhaps the interrogation of the world would even change greatly, take this as a type of provocation!
