Chapter 1811 - Hellfire

Purple brilliance raged between heaven and earth, pouring down from outer space, blasting Shi Hao's body until he trembled intensely!

His primordial spirit was about to explode!

His speed was extremely fast. He moved quickly, leaving Stone Village, crossing the great wilderness, wishing to leave this familiar region, bring all of the danger with him.

Along the way, purple radiance flickered about, as if there was a heaven supporting pillar. It directly descended, directly connected to the top of his head, relentlessly crashing down.

This was extremely strange, and also extremely dangerous. It was because it wasn't like the scarlet light, disappearing after failing to destroy him. This purple light completely locked onto Shi Hao.

In the heavens, it was as if there was a source of destruction that was glued to Shi Hao, continuously attacking at his primordial spirit. It was trying to destroy him, not even give him the chance.

"Hao'er!" Shi Ziling screamed out, Qin Yining's face even more so turning pale, lacking the slightest trace of color.

Yun Xi's hands were tightly clenched, her spotlessly white and fine joints already turning green from the pressure. She was extremely nervous, because Shi Hao, who had just become her dao companion, was now in great danger.

"Child, you have to endure it!" The old clan chief Shi Yunfeng was also muttering to himself, his face full of worrying, extremely scared.

Inside Stone Village, everyone was extremely excited. They sensed that Shi Hao was at the greatest turning point of his life. If he made it through, then the world before him would completely open up, free for him to wander about. However, if something unexpected happened, then he would die.

This was an opportunity, but even more so a disaster!

"As expected, moving like this is the same as issuing a provocation, so the interrogation of the world became even more fierce. Originally, that streak of purple light should have disappeared!" The golden lion muttered to itself.

This wasn't out of good intentions for Shi Hao, but rather because of fear, scared that if Shi Hao's body and spirit perished, then it would also die here.

When it was in the other side, it had already heard that if a supreme being issued a provocation, it might incur huge problems, be punished ferociously and severely.

Right now, Shi Hao was most likely experiencing this type of situation, making even the golden lion's shaggy face crease together. It really wanted to roar out in anger.

Shi Hao's current cultivation already long far exceeded everyone's imaginations. With just a single step, the mountains and rivers would turn in reverse, starry heavens drawn close, it truly was earth to inches.

Times have now completely changed. The past youngster had now already reached an extremely terrifying level!

With a raise of Shi Hao's feet, he could head into outer space. Just how terrifying of a cultivation was this, how horrifying was this speed?

That was why even though the distance was great, under Shi Hao's continuous steps, he already crossed who knew how many tens of thousands of li. In the blink of an eye, he already arrived before the realm wall.

He wasn't trying to head into another region, but rather into primal chaos.

Hong!

There wasn't much left to say. He directly sent a fist outwards, smashing into the realm wall. His fist was sturdy and unbreaking, making that place explode. Now, there wasn't much in this lower realm that could stop him.

He went straight through, entering the primal chaos.

This was a primal chaos zone outside the eight regions, brutal, dangerous, full of chaotic time-space streams, the very source. Primal chaos surged like clouds, also like a furnace of metal liquid that was currently being refined.

This place wasn't unfamiliar to Shi Hao. After all these years, each time he needed to comprehend the great dao, or when he had to test some things out, examine his own dao fruit, he would always come here.

Otherwise, he was scared that he might just destroy Desolate Region!

Chi!

Purple light surged like waves, directly rushing into the heavens, becoming more and more terrifying. This was the final blow this light delivered.

Shi Hao's body trembled, struck until his pores all relaxed, entire body was suffused with purple radiance. However, it still didn't injure his body. The light swirled about, gathering towards his skull.

Dong!

It was as if several dozen waves of thunder crashed by Shi Hao's ears, surging within his skull. Purple lightning shone streak after streak, everything attacking at his primordial spirit.

This light didn't harm his body, only attacking his primordial spirit.

It was like a tremendous will that interrogated all creatures of this world, wishing to deliver the most severe punishment.

Shi Hao's hair was messy, his body shining. His primordial spirit was even more so struggling intensely, fiery light raging there, primordial spirit force surging.

He was using Willow Deity's method, raising his life force to the extreme, wrapping it around his primordial spirit continuously to protect himself from that purple light, resisting.

In the end, with a loud noise, purple colored flames ignited the heavens, turning even his primordial spirit into a purple color.

This was extremely dangerous. Shi Hao staggered about, his divine senses about to be erased.

However, it was also at this moment that Shi Hao gained comprehension, all types of insights produced in his mind, all types of great dao traces appearing.

He knew that the previous crimson light was incited by his blood energy, and now, the purple light was even more so caused by the purple manors within his body, all of these lights corresponded to his body.

The so-called Purple Manor primordial spirit, now displayed the most fundamental meaning. The most basic and foundational growth, was precisely what appeared before him.

In the end, the purple light disappeared. Shi Hao stood in place, not moving for a long time. Purple energy swirled about within his primordial spirit, multicolored light overflowed, producing an expanse of deep purple.

Finally, he released a breath. He was just that close to having his primordial spirit destroyed, losing his life.

The supreme being path was actually this difficult!

He felt like he was strong enough, already made enough preparations, yet he still faced such great danger.

Perhaps it was precisely because his cultivation years weren't enough, too far from that dividing line of 'five hundred years'.

Then, from the skies, a streak of golden light descended, igniting Shi Hao's flesh. No matter how he struggled, the effects weren't that great.

In that instant, he was turned into a human torch, burned there. Terrifying radiance and heat were released, making even the primal chaos surge intensely.

Time-space became chaotic, great void cracks appearing from time to time, but none of it could do anything to the current Shi Hao. The body burning pain was what was the most terrifying thing right now.

Ah...

In the end, Shi Hao couldn't help but release a long roar. When his body was ignited, burned until the final moment, part of his flesh dried up, even turning scorched black.

A few bones were exposed, burned until they produced golden luster, and then turned black.

Just how terrifying of a thing was this?

Someone as powerful as Shi Hao was tormented to this degree, the flames impossible to extinguish, the so-called great dao flames couldn't compare at all either.

This fire was extremely strange, but it just wanted to destroy him, burn him to ashes.

Hellfire!

Shi Hao understood. This was endless hellfire, not fiery light in the normal meaning. It carried a type of will, a type of judgment, the cruel suppression of the great universe.

All sin and all karma descended together, turning into hellfire, burning his body.

It was different after all!

The supreme being path was too difficult. He already took half a step outwards, now already basically a supreme being, yet in the end, he still immediately underwent this type of torment, about to be burned into ashes.

Raging flames rushed into the heavens. Shi Hao sat down, no longer moving. He was enduring all of this head-on, not using any other precious techniques or great methods.

It was because he had heard that when the hellfire of the mortal world was directly applied to the body, it was a type of tempering, also the greatest baptism of a true supreme being. If he could endure it, it would bring great benefits to himself.

Fiery light overflowed into the heavens, turning everything blurry. This place was extremely terrifying, as if there was an eternally unfading great torch suppressing this place, burning down all of the world's evils.

In the end, the fiery light was all erased. As if there were pieces of gold hidden within ashes, there were parts of Shi Hao's body that were shining, some portions withered, scorched black.

He shook his body fiercely. The ashes were removed, his withered body recovering its life force. Golden light swirled about his entire body, as if an undying golden body was being reforged.

Supreme being aura erupted from his body!

Chapter 1812 - Many Corpses Along the Supreme Being Path

Supreme being aura, did he already enter this domain?

Shi Hao carefully examined himself. His strength increased drastically, becoming a good amount stronger than the Self Release Realm. Only today did he truly understand how far above supreme beings were, how they could dominate the creatures of all other clans.

With his current cultivation, even without taking action, just by releasing a bit of his aura, it would be enough to make the cultivators of other cultivation realms tremble, their bodies break apart.

Compared to before, the absolute domination, the feeling of being high up above, was hard to explain.

Just Shi Hao alone, just a single drop of blood could purge a top level sect, a wave of his hands able to destroy the star domain, refine the sun, moon, and stars. If he released killing intent, he could instantly destroy groups of Self Release Realm cultivators.

This type of power's explosive growth produced great waves in Shi Hao's mind.

"An insurmountable heavenly moat." He was deeply moved inwardly. Even though self release was a cultivation level lower than supreme being, the difference was tremendous. There was a chasm that couldn't be crossed.

Did he enter the Supreme Being Realm just like that?

Shi Hao was shaken. He remembered that after he severed many of his thoughts, paid the price, only then did he ascend on this path.

He now succeeded?

However, this all happened too quickly. Even though there were difficulties, as well as danger to his life, comparatively speaking, this supreme being path wasn't as impossible as he had imagined.

"Something's wrong, my dao skills aren't stable, my magical force is rising and falling, flesh and spirit incomplete." Shi Hao examined himself, cool-headedly examining his own flaws.

He raised his head towards the heavens. At the final juncture, was it really just those streaks of light that came to test him?

The so-called heaven and earth interrogation wasn't as terrifying as he had imagined.

The world was overcast, primal chaos wreaking havoc, void splitting, time fragments flying about. Shi Hao was distracted. Something seemed wrong, did he really advance just like that?

He felt some hesitation. He walked out of the primal chaos, wishing to enter Desolate Region.

While moving, he felt a chill. It was just an instantaneous feeling, quickly fading.

However, Shi Hao immediately froze. It was because in that instant, his entire body went ice-cold, his fine hairs standing on end, his heart starting to pound!

In that instant, his supreme being level mind actually felt a bit of fretfulness, as if doomsday was coming. Just how terrifying of a great matter was this?

After some hesitation, Shi Hao continued to walk forward. He wanted to see just what exactly it was.

The world became overcast, primal chaos scattering. There was only an endless void, dusky to the point of making one suffocate, making one's mind gloomy.

The further Shi Hao walked forward, the more shocked he became. This way back didn't seem right, why did it become so suffocating?

He knew that something was wrong, but he didn't stop, still continuing.

Soon afterwards, he saw a special path made of black stones. He directly took it. Upon closer inspection, it seemed to have been soaked in blood, a dark red color.

“Corpses!”

There were corpses collapsed at the roadside one after another.

These corpses were extremely strange, extremely special. They all released astonishing battle intent and powerful auras. Even though they were dead, there were still undying imprints surging.

“Supreme being auras!”

Shi Hao was moved. This path inside the primal chaos was extremely strange, at the sides of the stone path, those figures all had supreme being auras released from their bodies.

“Many corpses along the supreme being path.”

At this moment, he saw a broken monument just by the side of the road. There were a few characters engraved on its surface, dripping with blood, carrying a wave of killing intent!

Shi Hao was shocked. Even someone as powerful as him felt chills, his body going taut, feeling great danger.

At the end of the path was a cliff. Further down was an expanse of pitch-black, nothing could be seen. This was an endless abyss!

Supreme being path!

There were only three characters on the ground, written in blood just like that, bright red and dazzling. This blood seemed to be carrying heat as well.

Who was it? Who was it that left it there?

Shi Hao stood there, not moving at all, quietly sensing, thinking to himself.

Supreme being path, the road ahead was broken, an endless abyss before him. Did this mean that if he continued with it, he would fall into darkness, consigned to eternal damnation?

Honglong!

Between heaven and earth, rumbling sounds rang out unendingly, as if there was a great dao rippling outwards, echoing about, about to revive from death.

Shi Hao raised his head towards the sky. In the dusky sky, there was some brilliance, a bit of order. His heart developed a type of reaction, trying to seize that hint of opportunity.

Then, he became stupefied, becoming extremely shocked.

Heaven and man resonance, he understood the secret of this place.

It seemed real, but all of these were imprints left behind after endless ages. The so-called supreme being path was carved from the great dao, things that some supreme beings previously experienced.

No wonder there were those words, many corpses along the supreme being path!

This was indeed the case. From the past until now, the number of those who tried to rush into the supreme being level wasn't few, but in the end, ninety-nine percent of those individuals all died.

All those on this path had failed!

Shi Hao didn't complete the supreme being path yet. If he failed, he would also become one of them.

Did the black abyss indicate the end of most of them?

Heaven and earth became quiet, all of the brilliance disappearing. The various sensations faded.

Shi Hao paused slightly, and then he continued forward, upright and unafraid. He took that step, directly arriving above the abyss. The path was broken, all of them had to continue on their own.

The supreme being path, this was the final test. With each step, Shi Hao dropped a bit, about to enter the endless abyss. What this represented was depravity, destruction!

His figure disappeared, continuously dropping.

Shi Hao released all of his potential, withstanding everything. He wanted to jump out, rush into the heavens, but a boundless wave of pressure crushed down on him, wishing to smash him down into the abyss.

He was moving forward, but also dropping, moreover extremely quickly.

He had no idea how far he had to go forward, nor did he know how far he dropped. It became darker and darker, everything indistinct. Even Heavenly Eyes became ineffective.

Only, at the final moment, Shi Hao's feet seemed to have made contact with something. The moment he lowered his head, a chill ran through his mind; this was the bottom of the abyss. There were corpses everywhere.

There were this many who died on this path before? They were all people who failed!

These weren't true corpses, but rather things engraved by the great dao. However, they had truly existed before.

Shi Hao's blood was surging, burning. He used all his strength to resist the restriction, oppose the suppression. He rushed upwards, not wishing to become another member of the corpses.

True Phoenix Undying Method!

Kengqiang noises rang around Shi Hao's body, feathers fluttering about this world. This was the True Phoenix Precious Technique displaying power, releasing death energy, burning the darkness. This place became brightly lit.

He was resisting, wishing to make it through this dark abyss.

When the death energy completely disappeared, a divine spear flew over from ahead, piercing through the frontal bone with a pu sound, almost piercing through the whole head. This... was too terrifying.

Shi Hao's frontal bone shone, clamping down on this divine spear, and then he pulled it out. This type of trial was a bit strange, too sudden.

Ripples and specks dissolved between his palms and fingers. These were spears made from natural laws, scattering apart.

The supreme being path was too difficult!

After experiencing the mortal hellflame, he could only be considered a pseudo supreme being, not completing this path yet. This was now the final test.

Shi Hao continued forward, experiencing nine days and nine nights of this torment. During this period, he would face life and death each time, his body almost obliterated many times.

In the most miserable instance, he only had a primordial spirit and some ruined bones left, as well as some drops of blood. However, he still survived in the end.

This... would he be able to make it until the end?

He felt like today's path might be even more difficult than the path to immortality.

"Why? Why is it so hard for me to become a supreme being? Why is it so hard?!" Shi Hao asked himself. He then looked towards the dark skies.

"The dao laws are natural, while you, your desire for growth is too brilliant, not natural." There seemed to be a mysterious voice that replied to him, sensed by Shi Hao.

"I want to achieve the dao!" Shi Hao's gaze was icy-cold, his will resolute.

Hong!

He stepped forward without hesitation, his will firm.

In that instant, the darkness withdrew. He could see the shore on the other side.

Shi Hao wanted to climb up, but silently, from the dusky heavens above, there were chains that fell one after another, locking him down, suspending him in front of the cliff, unable to move at all.

"Dao laws unnatural!"

The grand voice rang out here, but also seemed to have sounded from within Shi Hao's heart.

"If a person doesn't have any thoughts, what dao can he achieve? He should just turn into a rock!" Shi Hao shouted.

Hong!

Between heaven and earth, all types of light erupted. Those chains released hualala noises. Tens to over a hundred impaled his body, and then further bound him.

Blood gushed out. Shi Hao released a muffled groan.

Then, all of the chains began to burn. These were different types of symbols, all of them roasting Shi Hao's body.

The appearance of any one of them could destroy a powerful creature, while now, so many of them immediately appeared at the same time.

"Remnant thoughts, one after another, everyone a thought!" That grand voice sounded again.

When the thoughts were gone, that would be when the dao was achieved, was this it?

Before this, Shi Hao already cut off many of his thoughts. However, there were still so many right now?

“The ones severed before were still not enough, I have to turn into a stone before you’re satisfied?” The expression in Shi Hao’s eyes became deep.

Hong!

Raging flames surged, all types of symbols erupting, drowning him within. Iron chains penetrated his body one after another, burning him, scorching his body pitch-black, on the verge of collapse.

Shi Hao encountered the most terrifying torment.

In the past few days, Shi Hao’s muscles and bones had completely been destroyed, burned by symbols, even his primordial spirit becoming dim.

He reforged his body again and again. However, each time he recovered a bit, the flames would become even more intense.

“Instead of this, I might as well just rush into the heavens with ten thousand thoughts!” n./OVElB1n

Shi Hao released a low roar. The past thoughts he had severed all erupted, appearing in his mind. They rushed out from within his body, and then they shone.

Hong!

This place surged intensely, more chains appearing, binding around him, wishing to burn down his body and spirit.

Chapter 1813 - Convey the Dao Within

Behind him was an endless black abyss, up ahead was a cliff.

Shi Hao was suspended above the abyss, extremely close to shore, but just couldn’t cross over.

It was extremely strange. These iron chains came from the heavens above, wordless and uncommunicative, descending just like that, piercing through him. His body was covered in blood, imprisoned here.

The more he struggled, the more tightly he was bound. Right now, endless chains pierced his body. That grand voice came from either his mind or from the heavens above, one chain one will; this was a bit terrifying.

Raging flames surged, fiery light jumping about, illuminating even the dark abyss. There were countless corpses below.

This place became more and more terrifying. Shi Hao’s flesh was ignited, his bones even revealed, burning like metal. Scarlet flames surged over there.

Ten thousand wills surged, iron chains surging, raging flames blazing. Shi Hao’s body quickly dried up, becoming like a piece of scorched coal, moreover the type that was going to break apart.

This supreme being path was actually this difficult?

He didn't say a word, resisting, wishing to break free from this type of difficult situation. There was still a bit of distance from the shore, already within reach, how could he possibly give up here?

"Five hundred years, is it really a line of taboo that cannot be crossed?" He quietly asked himself.

With his aptitude, becoming a supreme being in the future was practically guaranteed. The reason he was in his current predicament was because he was impatient for results, wishing to immediately rise up.

He was worried that there wouldn't be much time left, scared that the other great powers wouldn't give him the chance to rise. He was worried that the great showdown would arrive...

He felt that he didn't have enough time, that if he wasted any more time, then everything would be too late, scared that he wouldn't have a chance to make any contributions before he was killed in the Mortal Dao domain.

If he didn't quickly rush into the heavens, he would definitely be killed in the future, not even given the chance to put up a struggle. This would then be his greatest regret, being born in these times.

"Achieve the dao!"

He released a roar, struggling about, doing his best to fly upwards, wishing to soar into the heavens.

n/(σ/.σ())e-(l).b--1./n

The so-called iron chains appeared one after another, all of them descending from the heavenly dome above. Shi Hao did everything he could, approaching that place. His body that was about to turn into charred coal was covered in cracks.

His flesh was dried up, disappearing, turning into ashes. His bones were bright red, about to melt, fine cracks covering their surface.

It could be said that he was already in a critical situation. Right now, he was dying.

It wasn't just his body, his primordial spirit was also extremely weak. Those chains also stabbed into his skull, burning there.

Kacha!

It was like charred coal. Shi Hao's body broke apart, but didn't separate. It was because he was pierced everywhere by chains, tangling about his body.

His life force was quickly decreasing, almost impossible to sense.

His eyes grew dim, eye sockets caving in, his face lacking flesh and blood. This scene was extremely horrifying, as if he was a scorched black skeleton.

Were his body and spirit going to perish here?!

He was close to death, his vital energies were all drying up.

The so-called oil in the lamp drying up, this was precisely the type of state he was currently in.

Qiang qiang qiang!

Suddenly, Shi Hao's eyes released brilliance, becoming astonishingly dazzling.

Was this the dying flash, the final gambit?

Exuberant vitality gushed out. From behind Shi Hao appeared True Phoenix wings, a wave of flames surged from within his body. Now that he was close to death, he began to reveal all types of trump cards.

Hong!

He rushed out, his originally charred black body quickly returning to normal. His flesh regrew, dao bones emerging, gradually displaying brilliance.

He was reviving from a critical state, resurrection post catastrophe.

Phoenix Rebirth, this was the most powerful core method of this clan, as well as the world's number one recovery method, could be said to be without equal!

Not only could it treat one's injuries, it could also be used for cultivation. Those who were more decisive cut themselves down, erased their cultivation, and then restarted from the beginning, reconstructing the true self like this.

Rebirth through death, return from destruction, this allowed him to become even stronger.

This was the unmatched great method of the True Phoenix bloodline!

Shi Hao was pressured to this step, left without a choice. He activated the Phoenix Clan's unmatched precious technique, allowing himself to erupt with raging flames, fiery light rushing into the heavens.

Soon afterwards, his body swelled, flesh sparkling, developing a luster. As for his broken bones and other parts, they had long become reconstructed, becoming like forged steel, releasing zheng zheng noises.

He rushed upwards. Without breaking the chains, there was no way he could break free. He wanted to slaughter his way into the heavens, see just what exactly it was that bound him.

The so-called one thought one chain, was this true? He didn't really believe it!

A human shaped phoenix surrounded in pulsing flames charged into the clouds, into the heavens, the disturbance making the void cave in. Great dao noises rumbled.

He reached the final point, saw the truth. That was the great dao, a lump of primal chaos, an expanse of haziness, changing and deriving there. It turned into all types of diagrams, like grass, trees, fish, bugs, all living things.

Hong!

In a single breath of time, it turned into a World Tree. It wasn't that large, but leaves fluttered about, natural laws countless, laws and order like rainbows, piercing through Shi Hao's body.

So this was where the chains came from?

Hou!

Immediately afterwards, it changed again, becoming a sinister ancient beast. Yin and yang swirled, over ten thousand sharp pricks stabbed into his body, piercing through Shi Hao's flesh.

World Creation Ancient Beast?

Shi Hao released a muffled groan, staggering backwards, each step producing a blood-colored footprint.

Then, specks of light danced about. That place changed again, ancient beasts disappearing. There were seeds everywhere, fluff flying around, descending from above, taking root in Shi Hao's body.

This was also a type of torture. The seeds sucked out his blood, taking root in his bones, absorbing his bone marrow...

The scenes continuously changed. Even though Shi Hao was retaliating, he was still seriously injured.

If he wanted to achieve the dao, then he must convey the dao within!

This was the tangible incarnation of the great dao. It continuously descended, crushing everyone to the point where they felt like exploding.

"Living beings wish to achieve the dao, the dao also wishes to devour living beings."

Shi Hao felt a type of misconception. He wanted to achieve the dao, acquire the world's basic secrets, grasp all types of natural laws and profound mysteries of this world. However, during this process, the great dao had its own plans.

He suddenly thought of that small pagoda. In the past, it always spoke of balance, about the transaction of karma; perhaps this was what it was talking about.

If one wished to achieve the dao, one must first convey the dao within.

If one sought the profound mysteries of heaven and earth while grasping the natural laws, one would also be corroded by heaven and earth, the latter devouring their very essence.

That was why ninety-nine percent of creatures all died.

The so-called cultivators were a group of individuals who moved against the heavens, defying the natural great dao during their cultivation process, so they would naturally suffer setbacks, this was reality.

Only some people were able to come up with all types of methods during this cultivation process that allowed it to become smooth and natural, the so-called where the water flows, a canal is formed.

However, Shi Hao was not like this. He forcefully climbed to the peak. He didn't follow a prescribed order, didn't even properly prepare. His thoughts were too deep, clashing with the so-called 'natural' process.

Of course, without achieving immortality, there was no way he could understand the ultimate profound mysteries.

Shi Hao's instantaneous insights, in the end, only allowed him to see a corner of the original secrets.

"I took the wrong path. With the body as the seed, with me as the roots, the foundation, the truth, I was actually seeking the great dao of the external heaven and earth. I should be using this as a reference, and not imitating it."

Even though Shi Hao was seriously injured, blood covering his entire body, he was still speaking, his voice cold and resolute. There was a type of resolution within him that was becoming more and more powerful.

The path deviated a bit, but he already reached this point, there was no way out. He still had to continue.

He couldn't die, the only option was success.

"Since you said one will one chain, then just come back! I will allow all wills to flourish, achieve the dao this way!" Shi Hao roared out, erupting with the greatest power of his life.

His body seemed to have exploded, releasing endless divine light. Supreme being aura covered heaven and earth. All of the metal chains went taut, releasing kengqiang noises.

In the skies, the great dao changed continuously, from a dragon to a normal dog, then to a World Tree. However, each time, there were still always endless chains tangling around Shi Hao's body, impaling him.

Shi Hao knew that he encountered a huge problem. Because of his choice of dao achievement, the difficulties he faced exceeded others, the chances of death even greater.

"All wills burn the dao!"

Shi Hao roared out, completely going for broke. Not only did he not scatter these thoughts, they instead became even more powerful, erupting from within him, moving along each chain, rushing at the great dao, issuing a counterattack.

Fiery light jumped about. This was his will, converted into fiery light, burning all dao.

However, right now, he still couldn't compare to the great dao. It was like a moth that set itself on fire, rushing into a bonfire.

Hong!

He was blasted until he fell, body set on fire, turning into charred coal again.

True Phoenix cries sounded. Shi Hao displayed the True Phoenix Undying Method while in a state of near death, reviving again. He rushed into the heavens, wishing to break those chains, wishing to seize them back.

Again and again, he continuously charged forward.

In the end, he was spiritually weary, his strength exhausted. His vital energy was completely burned clean.

The True Phoenix Undying Method also had a limit, there was no way it could be used endlessly.

In the skies, the great dao rotated, becoming blurry. In the end, it actually gradually disappeared, receding.

What was going on?

Shi Hao was stupefied. While seizing his last breath of energy, he greedily absorbed the surrounding essence energy to replenish his own needs.

Then, he slowly fell, appearing on the other shore, reaching the cliff on the other side of the abyss. Did he succeed?

However, there was no auspicious brilliance that descended from the world, nor was there endless surging supreme being energy, not granting him a baptism.

"I will just baptize myself!" Shi Hao said.

He sat down here, receiving the energy of all life in heaven and earth to replenish his needs. His half ruined dao bones were reformed, flesh becoming brilliant. He quickly recovered.

At his cultivation realm, he could even revive from a single drop of blood, let alone still having a ruined body. That was why surviving and recovering to his peak wasn't an issue.

Shi Hao left the primal chaos region, appearing in Desolate Region. He sensed that he was more powerful than he had ever been before!

Chapter 1814 - Heaven and Earth Great Changes

What was going on? Did he really achieve the dao?

At this point, Shi Hao still felt a bit of hesitation right now. Why did the tangible great dao that took form in the end disappear?

Moreover, he didn't obtain the blessing of heavenly dao, not obtaining the auspicious baptism. He just calmly made it through the great tribulations just like that? It didn't seem that realistic.

Roar...

A lion's roar sounded from the distance. The golden lion stepped on the heavens, running over, extremely fast, its power tremendous.

The massive lion body made even the sky dome tremble.

The golden lion's cheeks were streaming with tears, howling out, this type of appearance leaving even Shi Hao shocked. Were they really that close?

"Thank the heavens you didn't die, I didn't have to accompany you to the grave."

When Shi Hao heard this, he immediately understood. It was because they had a contractual agreement. It was scared that once he died, it would also die with him.

"What happened? You failed?" The golden lion asked. "You failed, yet could still survive? You really are an undying freak!"

It was a bit upset at this injustice.

“What are you trying to say?” Shi Hao stared at it.

Then, he displayed a bit of his power, normally releasing it. In that instant, this heaven and earth became different, this world starting to tremble.

Mountains and rivers shook, sun and moon becoming blurry, as if everything was going to come crashing down.

The golden lion was horrified, all of its fine hairs standing on end. It couldn't take it anymore, shivering all over. In the end, it really was disappointing, directly falling weak onto the ground, shaking over there.

This was beyond its control. This was a type of pressure that originated from its soul, making it unable to even raise its head, forcing it to lay on the ground.

It was just too terrifying.

However, something wasn't quite right? Why was so much time wasted? It recalled that when others achieved the dao, there was no way it would last this long. This wasn't normal at all!

Shi Hao restrained his power. He had to be more careful, he couldn't let his fluctuations leak outwards. All of the aura had to be kept inside his body, or else there would be a huge problem.

A single mistake, if he released his aura leak out, then it might cause other creatures to directly perish.

When the golden lion returned to normal, it carefully and seriously asked, “During these few weeks, just what were you doing?”

“Achieving the dao, resisting the interrogation of heaven and earth.” Shi Hao replied.

“What?!” The golden lion could not remain calm any longer. It was extremely shocked, looking like it had seen a ghost. How could this be possible?

Wasn't it said that only one or two days was needed? Were there any heaven and earth interrogations that lasted more than ten days?

It was completely normal for it to last only a day or two!

“What is your current situation like?” The golden lion was skeptical.

Shi Hao looked at it. He didn't hide anything, because he knew this lion came from the other side, its experiences vast. The other side's experts were as numerous as clouds in the sky, so it definitely knew many secrets regarding the supreme being dao.

When the golden lion listened to everything, it became completely stupefied.

“Not blessed by heaven and earth, didn't obtain its baptism, you were the one who replenished your own essence energy? This...”

The golden lion felt that it was strange no matter how it thought about it. In the end, it couldn't help but say, “Does this count as achieving the dao? You basically forcibly stuck it through, the great dao isn't even willing to mess with you, turning its back on you, feeling like you are too troublesome!”

It was making sarcastic comments while in shock. This was just too inconceivable! What kind of state was Huang in? He didn't completely succeed, instead sticking it through tenaciously like an undying roach?

Did this even count as achieving the dao? It wasn't sure.

After hearing what it said, even Shi Hao was a bit speechless. When he carefully thought about it, he really did forcibly stick it through, not succeeding, but not failing. He didn't know if he succeeded or not.

"The great dao's blessing towards supreme beings affects too many things. You didn't obtain those things, can you even be considered a supreme being?" The golden lion was confused.

Shi Hao was also thinking to himself. His strength clearly increased, reaching a terrifying level. He believed that if he met Jin Taijun or Wind Clan's old ancestor, he definitely didn't have to run anymore.

If he was strong enough, then he could be just like Great Elder, directly smack Jin Taijun repeatedly in the face.

Stone Village seemed far, but for Shi Hao, even the other end of the world was close.

Under his feet appeared a great golden path that stretched across the Wasteland Region, directly arriving before the village. He directly crossed countless li, descending at the front of the village.

The villagers cheered, immediately erupting with noise.

When they saw Shi Hao return alive, how he was calm and unaffected, this was the best information.

"My child, how do you feel?" The expressions of Qin Yining and Shi Ziling both immediately changed from fretfulness to joy. Qin Yining wiped away her tears, a smile appearing on her face.

Yun Xi also arrived, her figure slender and elegant, quiet like a calm orchid. When her purple clothes fluttered about, she was like a lunar goddess who descended into the world of mortals, beautiful and otherworldly. Right now, her eyes also revealed joy, feeling a happiness from deep within.

"Uncle came back! This is too great! He definitely achieved the dao, becoming unmatched under the heavens!" A group of youngsters cheered, quickly rushing over.

"Child, everything is good as long as you return, as long as you are safe!" The old clan chief Shi Yunfeng completely relaxed. During these past few days, he had always felt apprehensive, fearing that something happened to Shi Hao, a bit of tears clouding his old eyes as well.

Right now, Shi Hao understood that he couldn't die no matter what. The entire village viewed him as their pillar. If he fell, then the consequences would be unfathomable.

"Cheap master, your life really is tenacious. You could even make it through this kind of danger?" The crimson dragon spoke. However, when its words just finished, it was sent flying by Shi Hao's foot, disappearing without a trace.

Of course, he was extremely careful, restraining his aura and fluctuations, or else that scarlet dragon might directly turn to ashes, not even a true dragon able to hold on.

"Haha, this is great! You really succeeded?" The Zhuyan jumped about.

“Heheh, I didn’t expect my brother to have become a supreme being! From now on, who dares challenge me? They’ll be scared to death! I need to hurry and cultivate the Great Black Tortoise God Fist!” Third Blackie stuck its head out, a vulgar appearance on his face.

“Go, stay off to the side and practice your turtle fist or whatever! Don’t randomly act like you’re so close!” The big red bird smacked it off to the side with a wing.

...

Stone Village held a huge celebration!

Only after several days did the village calm down a bit.

“Changes have taken place in this world, the essence energy seems to have become thin, and it seems to continuously be thinning!” The Zhuyan sought out Shi Hao, saying this.

In reality, the old clan chief, Shi Ziling, Yun Xi, and the others also sensed it. They all looked towards Shi Hao. These people came together to hear how he felt.

Shi Hao was even more sensitive, sensing everything clearly the moment he returned. During these few days, he had visited other places in the eight regions, discovering that it was like this everywhere!

He even more so entered Void God Realm before, asking Bird Grandpa and Coin Elder for advice. Those two were extremely serious, saying that the dao of the world has changed, that a terror was going to descend on this world.

“The world is changing. I reckon that a great problem has happened in the higher realms. I will go and take a look!” Shi Hao said. He decisively took action.

Before leaving, he looked at Yun Xi, transmitting sound, “The world is in chaos, my dao companion, so we must be apart more than we are together. I will first make a trip through the Nine Heavens.”

Towards Yun Xi, he felt a bit ashamed. For the sake of cultivation, for the sake of becoming a supreme being as soon as possible, he agreed to his parents’ request, becoming dao companions with Yun Xi.

However, during the night of the bridal room, he directly comprehended the dao, going into seclusion cultivation.

“I will wait for you!” Yun Xi only had these words.

Shi Hao left. When he passed by Heaven Region, the lord of the restricted region immediately became endlessly shocked. He never expected Shi Hao to directly reach this step.

“It is quite strange, it hasn’t fully matured yet. However, I believe you will complete it.”

Shi Hao nodded. He pursued the extreme dao, had to perfect it. Being able to reach this step could already be considered breaking a legend.

Shi Hao reached the higher realm, the journey going smoothly. That ancient path was now not an issue for him at all, unable to hinder his steps.

The moment he left Crucifix Yin Yang Earth, he immediately frowned, because he clearly sensed that this world became different. The spiritual essence had declined steeply, to the extent where it was even a bit sparse.

Comparatively speaking, it had dropped a huge amount!

“There are great changes happening to the world!”

Shi Hao rushed out, flying into the distance. Soon afterwards, he saw roiling black clouds, raging flames overflowing into the heavens.

Was this darkness matter? What was going on in the three thousand provinces? Was it completely occupied by the creatures of darkness?

He looked into the distance. The darkness army actually advanced into this province, displaying world engulfing might!

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao met a few creatures. He asked them for details, completely shocked at what he heard.

Half of the three thousand provinces fell under the hands of the darkness creatures.

A thousand five hundred provinces had shifted owners!

The reinforcements of Immortal Domain couldn't stop them?

Moreover, recently, there was another major event that happened, leaving everyone terrified. The creatures of darkness temporarily stopped fighting Immortal Domain, having a temporary ceasefire.

“The world is devouring itself, doomsday is approaching!”

This was what an elder said to Shi Hao with a trembling voice.

In reality, quite a few people knew this, because it was spoken by Immortal Domain's guests. They immediately sensed the abnormalities, and then soon afterwards, there were shocking changes as expected.

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths, those ancient lands, were floating, about to connect together, returning to one world.

The most shocking change was that the great dao became distant, spiritual essence would gradually dry up, entering dark times that weren't suitable for cultivation, perhaps even an era that didn't allow for it!

Even Immortal Domain's creatures were horrified, trying to think of countermeasures, fearing that this would extend into Immortal Domain.

Moreover, the creatures of darkness all temporarily stopped. They were also hesitating, only watching.

“Not good!” Shi Hao frowned. This wasn't suitable for his growth at all.

The cruelest era was about to arrive, yet it wasn't suitable for cultivation. Being born in this era was the sorrow of all creatures in this world.

Shi Hao wanted to understand the details. Just what was it that caused such a terrifying great event?

He wanted to find people he was close to, his old friends, also wanted to understand their current situation, just what exactly was going on.

The first one he thought of was Cao Yusheng. This fella had a master that could derive the past, present, and future. How was he now? Was he still alive or already deceased?

When they separated before, Cao Yusheng didn't hide anything, telling him where his master lived in seclusion. If there was anything that happened, he could come to look for him.

Shi Hao didn't waste any time, turning into a streak of lightning, disappearing from his original location.

Unfortunately, there was nothing to show for all of this. This was an extremely ordinary valley, the inside completely vacant, no signs of life.

Fortunately, the darkness matter didn't corrode this province yet.

"Did he not return from the Nine Heavens yet? However, why isn't his master here?" Shi Hao was confused. There were thatched cottages and ancient caves, but they were empty.

With his powerful divine will, right now, there wasn't anything that could escape him.

Soon afterwards, Shi Hao found a dao imprint left by Cao Yusheng. It was hidden well, but he still found it.

The imprints took form. Cao Yusheng was weeping, incredibly grieved and hurt.

"Before the dark ages began, my master went to face it, and then never returned... wuwu..."

Shi Hao was stunned. He released a light sigh.

"An age without cultivation has arrived. Perhaps it really is as my master predicted, sooner or later, I will be buried into the earth. I am going to look for a place to place my grave..."

He actually left behind these types of words.

Shi Hao was stupefied. Then, he carefully looked at these imprints. He was trying to decipher it, wishing to know where Cao Yusehng was. Was he really going to bury himself?

The imprints were deciphered, because there was a secret code Cao Yusheng had created with his friends, allowing them to see the secret information.

"I am going to head to the Land of Reincarnation. My master said that that place is suitable for raising a corpse, precisely the place where I should bury myself. I must bid my farewells to everyone!"

When he saw these words, he originally should have laughed, but Shi Hao just couldn't. Instead, he felt a bitter feeling. This damn era, it came just like this, hateful!

Land of Reincarnation!

Shi Hao began to search based on the information he had.

According to what Cao Yusheng's master said, that was Reincarnation Immortal King's immortal dwelling. There were also others who said that Without End Immortal King had previously established a residence here to cultivate in seclusion as well.

There was even more so a type of saying that this was a true reincarnation land to begin with, unrelated to those immortal kings!

There was actually a secret place like this!

For Shi Hao, distance wasn't an issue no matter how far it was. That ancient land was in the three thousand provinces, in this ancient continent, so it was even easier.

When he searched about, after a while, he finally arrived!

There was a dense primitive old forest in a grand mountain range. When he headed deeper inside, he actually saw some golden bricks and jade tiles hidden deep within the earth.

For Shi Hao, even the mountain range couldn't escape his sight. He could now see through even more things.

"This is the place!"

In front of a mountain region, he stopped. There was mist here, comparatively speaking extremely thick heaven and earth essence energy. Then, his figure disappeared into the mist with a flash.

Soon afterwards, he passed through all types of formations, entering a half sealed pure land. This place could also be considered a small world.

Shi Hao thought of all types of possibilities, but he never expected the scene before his eyes. It was a bit out of his expectations, leaving him dumbstruck.

He saw Cao Yusheng, as well as a dog, they were jumping about!

That Cao Yusheng wasn't the adult Cao Yusheng... actually only seven or eight years old. He was still chubby and tender, currently jumping.

What happened?! Shi Hao was stunned. Cao Yusheng returned to being a child? Why did he become younger?

Behind him was a palm-sized little puppy, currently chasing after him, barking.

Shi Hao became dizzy. This was just too humiliating. A palm-sized puppy was barking while chasing after Cao Yusheng, while he was running for his life!

"Return my dragon meat bun! This is something this great one was going to use for rebirth!" That palm-sized puppy barked.

Shi Hao felt a huge headache. Dragon meat bun?

Sure enough, he saw a snow-white bun in Cao Yusheng's hands. He wasn't willing to let go no matter what, running for his life. He really wanted to throw it into his mouth, but the dog behind him was madly chasing after him. n).0Velbln “Damn dog, who are you trying to fool? What Without End’s brother, what reincarnated immortal king? Do you think I’m stupid? If I really give it to you, won’t you just run without looking back?!” Cao Yusheng shouted.

What happened? Just what was going on? Shi Hao was a bit absent-minded.

“You were looting a grave, digging out this great one, already agreed to be my human servant, yet you still refuse to admit your wrongs, even stealing my dragon meat bun! Today, I am going to cook you alive!”

That palm-sized puppy was extremely fierce, crying out, but in reality, it was the length of Cao Yusheng’s sole, yet it was chasing after him viciously.

Shi Hao really was dumbstruck. What kind of situation was this? It seemed to be what Cao Yusheng’s master told him to do, choose a grave. But in the end, he dug it out, moreover digging out a puppy?

“Where is the long life medicine my master planted here? It was definitely eaten by you. Return it to me first, or else I definitely won’t return this dragon meat bun!”

“Human servant, you’ve angered me! Accept your punishment!”

Shi Hao watched from afar, feeling ashamed for Cao Yusheng. He was being chased by a little dog, yet he was crying out in panic like this.

Chapter 1815 - I Am the First Immortal King

“Human pet, receive your punishment!” The palm-sized little puppy barked, calling Cao Yusheng a human pet. It opened its mouth, a streak of lightning hacking forwards.

Cao Yusheng had returned to being a child, looking like he was just seven or eight years old. His body was round, daoist robes around his body, extremely chubby, but also rather agile as he ran for his life.

His cultivation now was quite strong, already on a completely different level. However, it still wasn’t enough for him to escape.

Peng!

Cao Yusheng was struck by that streak of lightning. He released a miserable scream, flying outwards into the distance.

With a sou noise, the palm-sized puppy jumped out, immediately stepping on Cao Yusheng’s round face. It bared its fangs, threatening him.

“Human pet, you dare disobey me? Do you really not know this old one’s strength?” It shook its perfectly straight tail, grinning there, revealing its snow-white little teeth.

“Who told you to steal the long life medicine my master stored here? I am only making things even!” Cao Yusheng cried out.

“Just because this great one didn’t act out, you really thought I was someone easily bullied?”

"If you have something to say, then say it, don't use violence!" Cao Yusheng really failed to live up to expectations, trying to compromise. One had to know that this was only a palm-sized little puppy who was standing on his face!

He was actually scared of a puppy acting out!

Shi Hao really couldn't keep watching. He leapt out from where he was hidden, walking forward. He felt like this Fatty Cao really lacked a backbone!

"Bark! Who are you?"

Tears were about to stream down Fatty Cao's face, but before he could speak out, that puppy bared its fangs first, asking Shi Hao who he was, where he came from.

"Let him go first." Shi Hao said. When he saw this scene before him, he really didn't know what to say. The mischievous, round bellied Fatty Cao who was lacking in moral sense was actually tormented to this degree.

However, he also noticed that this puppy was not normal, his body giving off the feeling of great changes, possessing a type of mysterious, vigorous life force.

"Don't move, you aren't allowed to come over!" It was clear that this puppy was sensitive, sensing that something wasn't right, that Shi Hao was dangerous.

While speaking, its small claw was placed on Cao Yusheng's head, extremely sharp, perhaps just a bit of force and it would stab through.

Fatty Cao's small face immediately turned pale. This damn puppy's viciousness was something he had experienced before, he really was scared that he might be done for just like that.

Shi Hao smiled, still continuing forwards. This puppy was extremely uneasy, pressing down on Cao Yusheng's head until blood almost came out.

"This should be enough!" Shi Hao said. Ripples were released in the void, waves rushing out. A mysterious domain appeared, locking down this place.

Cao Yusheng was stupefied, because he sensed a boundless aura. This type of might was something he had experienced from Great Elder Meng Tianzheng, Immortal Wang, and the others before.

After thirty years passed, his old friend already grew to this degree? Fatty Cao was about to go crazy, feeling like this wasn't real at all, looking like he had seen a ghost.

"Wah ya ya! A monster! Just how young are you? Seeing as how tender your bloodline aura is, you are clearly a brat who is less than a hundred years of age. How could you have already entered this domain?"

The puppy cried out. In addition, it was extremely directly releasing Cao Yusheng, jumping on the ground, its eyes burning with a strange ferocity, staring continuously at Shi Hao.

Shi Hao was surprised, because right now, he was displaying supreme being might, yet this puppy wasn't restricted, still moving normally.

If it was a normal person, they would long be trembling in fear, laying on the ground.

Even though he didn't target Cao Yusheng, only sealing this place, Fatty Cao already couldn't move at all. He laid there, frozen like stone.

Shi Hao withdrew his aura, not releasing it anymore. He also began to size up this strange puppy.

"Don't be so shocked. Back then, what kind of opponents did this king face? You can't even begin to imagine!" The puppy bared its fangs.

Cao Yusheng was discontent. This little dog would always call itself this old one when it spoke to him, yet when it saw Shi Hao, it used the title this king.

"What dog fart king?!" Cao Yusheng quickly stood up, running from it, jumping to where Shi Hao was, staying away from it.

"Oh, I forgot to introduce myself. I am Immortal Ancient's number one immortal king!" The little dog introduced itself like this.

Cao Yusheng became speechless. Just now, it had felt like it was starting to become a bit more modest, no longer calling itself some old one, yet in the end, this fella directly increased his bullshit level, calling itself an immortal king!

Shi Hao revealed a strange expression. This puppy really couldn't be dealt with using normal reasoning.

"Brat, you already have supreme being level strength at your age, it really is quite respectable, having some of this king's past brilliance. This child is worth teaching! Why don't you take me as your master? I will pass onto you an unmatched great method!" The puppy raised its head, putting on an aloof and arrogant appearance.

Shi Hao wanted to smack this little dog, it really was arrogant.

Cao Yusheng opened his mouth, but he really didn't know what to say. However, he felt a strong urge to give it a vicious beating! Even so, before he could do anything, the little dog moved first!

It was because it was just too short, only a bit taller than the back of Shi Hao's foot, even raising its head to look at him was difficult. Only by raising its head all the way could it see Shi Hao's face.

With a whoosh sound, it displayed a secret method, just too fast, moving to the top of Cao Yusheng's head, sitting on it. It looked at Shi Hao from that position while tilting its head, using this height so that it didn't have to always raise its head.

"You damn little dog... climbing all over other people, this one is going to stake it all against you!" Fatty Cao was triggered. His face was being stepped on, he couldn't even protect his own head.

However, he discovered that he couldn't do anything to this dog. The puppy sat on his head, steady as a mountain. The so-called precious techniques, brilliance radiance, none of it could do anything to it.

"Human pet, be a bit more obedient. Stop wasting your energy already. Couldn't you see that not even this supreme being brat could do anything to this king? I am a reincarnated immortal king, but even though my dao skills aren't there, my body is sturdy and unbreakable. With your ordinary flesh, you can't do anything to me no matter what you try" The puppy spoke arrogantly.

At the same time, it also put on an impatient appearance, smacking Cao Yusheng's head with its paw, lecturing him.

Cao Yusheng was so angry he began to curse outwards. This little thing was bullying others too far! This damn thing really was something, directly sitting on his head.

"Stop being so noisy. In the future, I'll consider taking you as a disciple, pass onto you an unmatched immortal method." The puppy rubbed his head, looking like it was amusing a child.

None of Cao Yusheng's precious techniques could do anything. Even though sword energy and others released kengqiang noises, they couldn't do anything either. His entire face became red, about to be angered by this puppy to death. n.-o(.v-/e/-l))3/-1-/n

"Previously a true immortal body, but your dao skills were lost, degenerating to this state?" Shi Hao asked.

"I already said everything! I am the number one immortal king!" The puppy said while sitting on Cao Yusheng's head.

"Let him go first, let's have a chat."

Shi Hao had many doubts towards this dog, full of amazement. He knew that this individual was definitely not simple, most likely a degenerated true immortal body.

With a sou sound, the puppy jumped down, landing on a stone table not far away, saying to Shi Hao 'please'!

Shi Hao sat on the stone stool, looking at it, carefully sizing it up, yet just couldn't see through it. Its body had a layer of mysterious power around it, blocking external perception.

"Without End Immortal King was my elder brother, Reincarnation Immortal King was my younger brother. After loathing that the world lacked opponents, unable to bear the loneliness, I cut myself down." The puppy said.

Chapter 1816 - Past or Future

"Find a pot and just stew it up!" Even the roots of Cao Yusheng's teeth were aching.

"Human pet, this king is talking, so you should just stay quietly to the side!" The puppy warned.

"Let it be, we can calmly talk about things." Shi Hao said. noVε/ℓℓ.1n

All of the hair on this palm-sized puppy's body became a dark red, giving one a feeling of endless time passing, but also as if there was a wave of thriving life force that was spreading.

This was a bit contradictory, as if it was an old person, but also as if it had just been born.

Based on Shi Hao's suspicions, this really still might be an old monster that lived from Immortal Ancient until now, just that because of unexpected events, it lost its cultivation. Its flesh was still powerful.

As for reincarnation or whatever, he didn't believe it at all!

"You really believe this little dog's words?!" Cao Yusheng was upset, really wanting to convince Shi Hao to capture it.

He really had enough, no way would he believe this dog. Even the long life medicine planted by his master had been eaten by it, yet it still had the nerve to call itself an immortal king.

"You really dug it out of the ground?" Shi Hao asked Cao Yusheng.

"Yeah, that grave has existed for an endless amount of time, but who would have thought that what was waiting in the very depths was a stupid dog!" Cao Yusheng was furious.

"I'm warning you, if you call me a stupid dog one more time, I'm going to directly eat you!" The puppy glared at him, its fangs flickering with radiance.

"Let's have a sincere and fair discussion, there is no point in hiding anything." Shi Hao looked at this puppy.

This puppy revealed a strange expression. "What can you tell me, what valuable information do you have?"

"I've previously seen a corner of the future. There was a big black dog that achieved immortality who was always chasing after a fat daoist priest, biting him." Shi Hao said calmly.

Fatty Cao, even though he became extremely strong, became a true immortal, he was still constantly chased after by that dog, this was quite the sight to see in itself! However, this was the truth. In the Burial Land outside Desolate Border, Shi Hao had previously encountered this, previously seeing Cao Yusheng's figure past countless ages.

"What, you... saw it?!"

The puppy's expression changed, its dark red fur trembling, ears becoming straight. Its tail also stuck out straight, the expression in its eyes extremely unkind.

"Yi, you seem to also know about it?" Shi Hao was stunned. Then, he revealed a surprised expression; he couldn't help but start thinking to himself, staring at this puppy.

"You are Immortal Ancient's dog king, or are you that big black dog from the future?" Shi Hao suddenly asked. He actually spoke these words, carrying this kind of doubt.

"What?" Cao Yusheng was stunned, feeling extremely shocked, a bit in disbelief. The stupid dog he dug up could come from the future?

"You are trying to create a diversion, right? Having us mistake you for someone from Immortal Ancient, burying yourself here." Shi Hao stared at it.

"Youngster, it seems like your thoughts run quite deep. If you let yourself indulge in such wild fantasies, it will be easy for your mind to go crazy." The dark red puppy spoke, its voice not too fast or too slow.

"Are you saying that I'm wrong?" Shi Hao stared at it intently.

"Tell me, who can live in the past, who can reverse time-space? It has never happened before. Even if one can temporarily return, they won't be able to change anything. If I really came from all those years in the future, the karma that will be involved will be far too great, don't even dare speak a word. If I even try to do something to anyone, it might very well overturn the endless ages." The puppy said calmly.

"Then please tell us your true identity." Shi Hao calmly said.

"My relationship with Without End Immortal King is extremely good. However, during Immortal Ancient, I was seriously injured, hacked by a hidden spear from the other side that pierced through my skull. Back then, my dying body was buried in the Land of Reincarnation, and now, my dao skills have weakened, but I can still be considered to be making a turn for the better." The little puppy actually spoke these things.

Cao Yusheng opened his mouth. He had many questions he wanted to ask.

"Human pet, don't annoy me. When this old one was secretly attacked by that spear, it pierced through my primordial spirit, which made me forget many things. When the primordial spirit shatters, the amount that can remain is extremely limited. Now that we are on the topic, I was buried all fine and dandy, sleeping peacefully, so why did you come and bother me, digging up the grave, interrupting my transformation process?" The puppy spoke forcefully, mocking Cao Yusheng, making him swallow back the words he was just about to utter.

"You are an ancient creature, but when you heard the corner of the future I spoke of, mentioning that big black dog, why did you suddenly lose your cool?" Shi Hao asked.

"It is because you aren't the only one who could see a corner of the future. Back then, during Immortal Ancient Era, our powerful seniors had also made divinations, seeing this!" The puppy said.

It spoke candidly, that in Immortal Ancient times, its fur was black. Later, as its age increased, entered its older years, its fur became gray, carrying a dark red color.

"Fine, I followed Without End Immortal King. I was only a true immortal, not a king." It further admitted. Back then, Without End Immortal King cultivated the laws of time, grasping its great laws, previously divining the future.

"We should discuss things thoroughly!" Shi Hao said, his eyes burning with desire.

"Regardless of if you are from the future or from Immortal Ancient, tell us everything you know, don't hide anything!" Cao Yusheng was extremely moved.

"We can, however, I fear that you two will be disappointed. I really was ambushed by someone, my primordial spirit scattered, only a portion of my memories left."

...

Shi Hao stayed here for two days, having a private discussion with this dog.

Cao Yusheng wanted to join in, but each time, he would be bullied badly by that dog, smacked to the side by a paw.

“Why did you become younger?” After discussing things with this dog, only then did Shi Hao ask Cao Yusheng this question.

“I accidentally ate a dragon meat bun, and then some medicinal herbs, and then I turned younger.” Cao Yusheng had a distressed look on his face.

The corners of Shi Hao’s lips twitched. This was definitely great natural luck! To return to his younger years, for cultivators, this really was a blessing that couldn’t be sought.

“Originally, I wanted to eat a long life medicine, but it disappeared!” Cao Yusheng was upset.

At this time, the puppy said candidly that it was indeed the one who ate the long life medicine, or else even if it was dug up, there weren’t many chances of it surviving.

“Return my long life medicine to me!” Cao Yusheng was furious.

“What about my dragon meat bun? There are at least three missing!” The puppy bared its fangs.

...

Shi Hao decided to leave. Now that he met his old friend, he wanted to investigate the darkness creatures, to understand why this world was entering an age without cultivation.

“I’m going with you!” Cao Yusheng was decisive. Even if he was beaten to death, he couldn’t be buried here right now. Otherwise, staying with that puppy really would be too much to endure.

“Bark! I am also going! Let’s see what the present world is like. What stupid darkness creature? I’ll make them all human servants!” The puppy barked.

They left, traveling through the three thousand provinces. They began to investigate carefully, learning about the situation.

Cultivationless Age, it was inevitable, irreversible. This was the result that they came to.

“The darkness matter has corroded the three thousand provinces, half of the territory has already entered the hands of the darkness creatures. Sigh, this is the case with the Nine Heavens as well, all of them losing half or a small half of their territory.” Cao Yusheng sighed.

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths, as a whole, now lost half of its territory to the creatures of darkness.

This was too terrifying!

Shi Hao and the others wandered about the three thousand provinces, moving along the edge of the darkness region. These places all had great formations established, armies stationed in some places to intimidate the darkness creatures.

“There are even forts, made into cities?”

Shi Hao was stunned. There were some regions that had forts built to stop the creatures of darkness’ advance. There were some experts in charge of defending them.

“Wang Family is in charge of this region!” Cao Yusheng said. He saw a large banner, on it a brilliant Wang character.

“Wang Family’s Nine Dragons?” Shi Hao’s eyes revealed chilly radiance. In the past, he was forced into extremely miserable states by those nine dragons, one of the nine dragons even personally sent troops to kill him.

“Wang Family is likely panicking as well. They previously sought out my master’s place of seclusion, wishing to have him make a divination. However, they were a bit late, my master was already no longer there.” Cao Yusheng said.

There were some people from Wang Family who really did some upsetting things, searching everywhere for Cao Yusheng’s whereabouts, more than once, wishing to forcefully bring him away, and then force his master to give in.

“It’s been a while. Then we will just take a look around this fort Wang Family’s people are in charge of.” Shi Hao said.

“The nine dragons might be here! In the past, even Immortal Wang had come here!” Cao Yusheng warned, but soon afterwards, he realized that Huang had already risen up, not fearing supreme beings, not scared of the nine dragons.

“I really do want to meet with these nine dragons again.” Shi Hao said.

Chapter 1817 - Long Life Eldest Grandson

On this side of the mountain range, ancient trees towered into the heavens, lush and verdant, full of life force. Flying birds and roaming beasts could be seen everywhere from time to time.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the mountain range, black energy covered everything, all of the plant life becoming black. All sound seemed to have vanished, extremely deathly still.

On this side of the mountain range, there was a city built, an extremely massive fort located there, grand and imposing, suppressing the border.

On the fields, one could see groups of giant elephants surging with blood energy, rumbling as they passed. They carried all types of supplies, rushing towards the fort.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the mountain range, there were hoards of creatures, but they were completely silent. They were like a moving mountain, baring their snow-white fangs viciously, staring at this side, some of them seated. They devoured the black mist, eyes releasing vicious glints, preparing for war.

Both sides were extremely careful, facing each other.

This was especially the case when the world seemed like it was withering up, possibly entering an age without cultivation, so even the creatures of darkness became extremely cautious.

“That place seems to be quite lively.”

One could see that not far out from the fort, it was a bit different from the usual tense war atmosphere. That place was rather lively, people clamoring about.

“There are markets like this not far from each fort, selling all types of strange goods from the darkness region.” Cao Yusheng explained.

When fighting against foreign creatures, even though bloodshed was inevitable, there would still be some gains. After killing the powerful darkness creatures, they would obtain all types of strange things.

That was why near the frontier forts, there would often be cultivators drawn in. The clans would send people over to exchange for items from time to time.

“Are they not scared of being corroded by the darkness?” Shi Hao asked.

Everyone knew that the darkness matter was terrifying, once infected, they might not be able to break free in this lifetime. Only the most powerful dared to touch it.

“These things have all undergone divine purification. Otherwise, there is no way they would reach this type of place, be exchanged.” Cao Yusheng said.

This was the work of Immortal Domain. They constructed a type of formation, moreover producing an extremely astonishing type of divine furnace that could refine darkness matter.

All of the goods that were seized would enter this furnace. Only after being purified, could they be exchanged in the markets.

“Yi, there are even creatures from Immortal Domain?” Shi Hao was shocked.

He saw some creatures, the armors on their bodies carved with strange symbols. They were extremely strong, and also extremely special, carrying immortal energy. He had seen them before.

Cao Yusheng nodded. “Some of the strange goods seized from the creatures of darkness are invaluable. Some of the families from Immortal Domain are mainly here as buyers.”

Shi Hao became rather shocked. “Even the creatures of darkness could have great treasures on them?”

“They do, ruined artifacts, but ridiculously powerful, rumored to be bestowed by true darkness rulers. They were previously ruined fragments of my world!” Cao Yusheng explained.

The darkness experts from behind the scenes, they had previously experienced battles from other great eras, seizing supreme treasures from the Nine Heavens and even Immortal Domain. Some of them were destroyed, and thus granted to the servants under them.

Not long ago, someone killed a darkness supreme being, obtaining a pitch-black ruined metal ring from his hands. It was recognized to be a fragment of the world-shocking Vajra Gem!

That thing used to be extremely well-known in Immortal Domain, shaking up all directions.

When some great families from Immortal Domain learned of this, they immediately hurried over, eager to obtain it.

“It can only be said it was rather lucky that time, even a fragment of an Immortal Domain supreme treasure appearing, seized back like this. It really was too unexpected.” Cao Yusheng said with a sigh.

Apart from this, there was someone who obtained a ruined fragment of the Nine Phoenix Furnace from a darkness supreme being. This was a valuable treasure of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths!

Shi Hao became quiet. He wasn't shocked by the treasures, but rather worried over the evolution speed of the darkness creatures. Just how much time passed? After thirty years, supreme beings already appeared in succession.

One had to understand that those creatures were all deceased cultivators of the three thousand provinces, not incredible experts when they were still alive. However, when they were revived after their deaths, they obtained such terrifying evolutionary speed. What exactly was this so-called darkness matter?

"Yi, that little cultivator seems a bit familiar." Right at this time, someone saw Cao Yusheng, revealing a look of surprise.

He opened a painting scroll. After carefully comparing it, he immediately revealed a look of shock. Why did this little fatty look so similar to the fat daoist priest Cao Yusheng?!

Shi Hao was stunned. After thirty years passed, Cao Yusheng already became someone well-known? They just arrived, yet someone already recognized him!

"They're from Wang Family, they've always been chasing after me, trying to capture me to force out my master, but were fiercely toyed with several times." Cao Yusheng said, playing this situation down.

However, Shi Hao could completely imagine what happened. With this little fatty's nature, being pursued by others, just how vicious would his methods of retaliation be. Just how deep of an impression did he leave them for them to chase him all around the world, trying to drive him out?

Shua!

That person blocked their way out. He stared at Cao Yusheng, extremely direct, standing in the way, clearly an expert.

"Are you Daoist Priest Cao?" He asked with a fake smile.

"Stop doubting already, I am precisely your family's dao grandpa!" Cao Yusheng was extremely direct, not like before where he immediately turned around to run. Even though this was a fort Wang Family was in charge of defending, he didn't panic, because he had Shi Hao next to him.

"Heh heh, dao grandpa, then please come with me. My family's lord has always been thinking about you." This person smiled in a meaningful manner.

Even though he knew that Cao Yusheng was formidable, he wasn't scared at all, because this was Wang Family's territory. Now that Fatty Cao dared barge in here, even if he didn't die, they would peel a layer of skin off him.

This place neighbored the fort, just too close. With just a call, Wang Family's experts all appeared. Moreover, with great formations sealing up this place, who could escape?

Before Cao Yusheng could say anything, that puppy was the first to speak up. "Human pet, what are you staring around blankly for? Just smack him flying!"

Cao Yusheng really was annoyed beyond belief. This damn dog was really ordering him like a human pet, domineering to the point of making him grind his teeth.

“You... dare behave like this in our fort?” Wang Family’s expert was shocked and angered.

“There’s always been the saying that when beating the dog, one should look to the owner. Today, even if I beat up an errand dog like you, so what?” Cao Yusheng said.

“Bark!” The puppy was furious, directly leaping out a meter into the air, biting Cao Yusheng’s hand.

The surrounding people were stupefied, speechless. This really was cursing a buddhist monk for being bald!

“Let go! Stop biting me!” Cao Yusheng screamed in pain.

He swung his hand with everything he had. In the end, this puppy was stuck to him, he couldn’t get rid of it at all, almost tearing his flesh right off.

“You are just like dog skin plaster, why are you sticking to me like this?” Cao Yusheng complained.

Even Shi Hao became speechless, they really were looking for trouble... just that sentence alone most likely triggered that little dog.

“Motherfucking... you still dare curse me!” The little dog bared its fangs, biting down with even more strength.

Tears almost came out of Cao Yusheng’s eyes. This stupid dog displayed a secret method that increased the pain over a hundred times. He couldn’t help but curse out, “Who would have thought that there were so many common sayings that were connected to dog species like yours? Could it be that you went too far with bad things in your last life, making those of later generations always reminisce about you?”

What made everyone stunned was that this dog loosened its mouth, even seriously thinking to itself.

“That might actually be the case... those idiots were jealous of me, which was why they must have left behind some bad rumors related to me.”

Everyone was stunned. Wasn’t this little dog just too narcissistic, or was it just dumb?

Was this internal strife? While seizing this chance, Wang Family’s expert turned around to run, moreover displaying secret methods, starting to transmit sound, reporting to his clansmen.

Soon afterwards, he received a reply.

“Cao Yusheng, you really dared show yourself?” Right at this time, a loud shout sounded, ringing like thunder.

These were two old servants dressed in gray robes. They were like two streaks of gray lightning, immediately diving down, landing on the road, clearly Wang Family’s top level experts.

These two had previously waited upon Immortal Wang, they were his personal servants. Now, they were sent out. n.)Ouel1n

“Bring him over, have him confess his sins and receive his punishment.” Not far out, there was a large restaurant, gold and jade in glorious splendor, richly ornamented. A voice sounded from within.

Just from the voice alone, one could tell that it wasn’t that aged, instead rather young.

There were quite a few people in the building, their statuses all extraordinary. There were people from long life families, as well as creatures from Immortal Domain’s families. They all came to purchase darkness magical artifacts.

“I was wondering who it was. So it was Immortal Wang’s oldest grandson! What a character, how arrogant. However, you want me to bow down and confess my faults? In my opinion, you’re going to be the one pissing your pants while greeting this dao grandpa!”

“Heh, even a stray dog dares behave so atrociously.” Immortal Wang’s eldest grandson said slowly.

“Forget about you, even if the nine bugs came, even they wouldn’t be enough!” Cao Yusheng sneered.

What was even more stirred up was that little dog. When he heard Wang Family’s oldest grandson’s words, it immediately became furious, screaming, “Bark! Brat, you’re dead for sure! No one in the heavens above and earth below can save you!”

Chapter 1818 - Supreme Being Shi Hao

“Oh? I was calling Daoist Priest a stray dog, why did another get upset? I was just feeling it was strange, turns out there really was a stupid little dog.” Sounds of laughter sounded from the golden-bricked jade-tiled restaurant.

“Ha ha...” Many people in that restaurant laughed loudly. There was a group of noble children, some disciples from top families and others inheritors of undying great sects.

Apart from this, there were girls who released soft laughter.

Even though they couldn’t be seen, all of them in the building, one could imagine how amusing everyone found these words.

“Stupid dog, you are being mocked by others!” Cao Yusheng turned around, lowering his head to look at that puppy.

Right now, the little dog’s eyes turned a bit blue, the result of anger, white smoke coming out of its nose. It bared its fangs, saying, “Brat, you won’t die anymore, however, let me tell you, being alive will be worse than death for you!”

Even though its origins weren’t small, from its temper, one could tell that this fella wasn’t of the good sort, definitely not the type to be on the losing end often. It wanted to get revenge.

“Human pet, go, capture them!” The little dog screamed, shouting at Cao Yusheng.

Then, with a sou sound, it leapt out. Even though it was only the size of a palm, its swiftness was too great, fast to the point where one couldn’t react in time, appearing on Cao Yusheng’s head.

“Motherfucking... get off me! How can this dao grandpa’s legendary reputation be ruined under your hands?!” Cao Yusheng was upset, doing his best to pull it off.

However, he couldn't no matter what he did!

It was because this dog's origins were too great. Even though his cultivation declined, his flesh was still ridiculously powerful. No matter how one attacked it, it was completely unmoved.

The little dog sat on Cao Yusheng's head, as if it had planted its roots, completely unmoved.

"Human pet, I choose you!" The little dog shouted.

Nearby, everyone was about to faint. What was going on with these individuals? A bean-sized puppy even dared act this arrogant, and there was even inner conflict!

Ha ha...

Roaring laughter sounded from the restaurant. Many people began to laugh.

Even though that restaurant was built in the market, it was like a royal palace, richly ornamented, a bejeweled building. To be more precise, it was a magical artifact. It was a place for those with status to rest and conduct transactions.

Shi Hao didn't say anything. This man and dog pair really were 'natural enemies', as if they were old enemies even in their past lives.

"Fuck your ancestors, stupid dog, get off me!" Cao Yusheng's chubby little hands were already pulling with everything he had.

"Attack!"

The little dog released a light shout. Its body shone, its faint red fur becoming brilliant, bringing Cao Yusheng with it, rushing towards that restaurant.

Up ahead, there were two gray-clothed elders who exchanged a look, but didn't stop them. Capturing Fatty Cao was their goal, and now, he was walking right up to their door.

"Let go of me!" Cao Yusheng struggled.

"Stop struggling, this is a supporting technique. Right now, you are comparable to a human flying sword." The little dog said.

With a hu la sound, a large group of people surrounded over, blocking the outside of the restaurant. Those who watched from the side weren't worried about things getting crazier, all of them spectating.

Shi Hao naturally also followed along. At his cultivation realm, even if he was standing in front of everyone's eyes, no one would be able to see through his depths.

One man, one dog, fought while climbing the restaurant, directly reaching the highest floor-- tenth floor.

There was a spacious lounge here, as well as many private rooms. It was flowing with brilliance, essence energy rich. The entire building was a magical artifact suited for cultivation and residing.

Wang Family's eldest grandson Wang Tian had long walked out. He stood there, currently looking down on the ascending Cao Yusheng. He laughed and said, "Daoist Priest Cao, Wang Tian welcomes you."

There were quite a few people here, mostly youngsters. Of course, there were some older generation cultivators as well. All of them were sizing up the people climbing the stairs.

“Daoist priest, your situation looks rather worrisome. A little dog is even able to tyrannically abuse you on your head, you might as well have entered my Wang Family earlier.” Wang Family’s eldest grandson Wang Tian calmly said.

Many people laughed. Cao Yusheng really was in a bit of a sorry state. n.-0Vēlb1n

“Hehe...” There were some ladies who secretly laughed, carrying a bit of mockery. Compared to those heroic youngsters in their eyes, the difference was just too far.

“Wang Family, my status is something you can only imagine of reaching!” Cao Yusheng said coldly. Originally, he wanted to display his might outside the building, yet in the end, this dog was too impatient, bringing him up, making him lose all sense of prestige and dignity.

As for the little dog, it was currently grinding its teeth, operating a technique.

“Is this the dog daoist priest has raised? It really is a bit small, cute and clever, what breed is it? It seems to have become sentient a while ago? In the future, perhaps I should raise one as well.” Wang Tian had a faint smile on his face.

He looked easygoing, but he was ridiculing Cao Yusheng.

However, what he didn’t know was that when he first mocked this small dog, he ended up completely offending it.

“Bark! Smack your mouth!”

With a cry, the little dog leapt out, leaving behind afterimages in the sky. Then, with a pa noise, a dog paw struck Wang Tian’s face, too fast, impossible to evade.

Of everyone here, only Shi Hao saw clearly what happened, no one else could even react.

This dog paw sound was loud and clear, and it was also dripping with blood, because it was extremely sharp. The small palm smashed into Wang Tian’s face, striking him until he staggered, and then flew out, crashing into a jade table.

At the same time, there were several gashes left behind that carried blood, left behind by the dog paw.

Everyone was stunned. None of them expected a little dog to have such a vicious temper, smacking Wang Family’s eldest grandson flying.

One had to understand that this was a long life family’s eldest grandson! He looked easygoing, but he possessed terrifying divine force. Once he took action, there weren’t many who could match him.

He was Immortal Wang’s very own grandson. After being fostered for so many years, rarely making an appearance outside, his strength became extremely powerful!

There were some who found this hard to believe. They had just clashed, yet his face was already smacked by a little dog paw until it was bloody, sent flying.

There were some young ladies whose small mouths widened in shock, looking stunned. They released a cry of alarm.

This was too inconceivable!

Many people became a bit stupefied.

“You dare?!” The two gray-clothed elders were about to throw themselves over. One person went to grab the dog, another grabbed at Cao Yusheng’s neck, wishing to quickly capture them.

It had to be said that taking action like this carried an intent to humiliate, after all, they were grabbing at a person’s neck.

Heng!

A cold snort sounded. The two elders’ bodies trembled intensely, their pupils widening, looking towards another youngster. They were horrified, bodies trembling uncontrollably.

It was just a cold snort, yet they felt as if they were struck by lightning, bodies shaking, unable to help but kneel down.

“Who are you all trying to capture?” Shi Hao asked coldly.

The others could also tell that something wasn’t right, staring at this in shock, looking towards that youngster. What kind of background did he have, to actually shock those two gray-clothed elders stiff?

There were some people who knew that these two gray-clothed elders had personally served Immortal Wang. They were his servants!

“You...”

The two were terrified, shaken from the innermost depths of their soul.

In the end, with two putong sounds, they couldn’t control their bodies, kneeling down before Shi Hao.

This was their bodies’ instinctive action, moving against their wills. As if they were common beasts before a beast king, an instinctive fear.

“Who are you?” At this time, Wang Tian stood up. He looked at this scene in shock. While walking over, the expression on his face was incomparably ugly.

He was actually smacked in the face by a small dog and sent flying, leaving him feeling incomparably humiliated.

Right now, even though he knew that Shi Hao’s status was extraordinary, he still couldn’t help but shout out, filled with rage, really wanting to kill. However, he wasn’t that worried, because there were members of Wang Family’s nine dragons overseeing this fort.

“Who am I? Hah!” Shi Hao was extremely cold, standing there.

Wang Tian was horrified. When his body was swept by Shi Hao’s gaze, even someone as powerful as him, at the Self Release Realm, felt his legs weaken, his heart tremble, directly kneeling.

This was a type of biological instinct, an innate servitude to the most powerful. He couldn't control himself at all, kneeling just like that, his entire body shaking uncontrollably.

Everyone was stupefied.

Some people from long life families began to feel apprehension.

There were Immortal Domain youngsters here. Right now, they also revealed shocked expressions.

Some young ladies covered their mouths in shock. This was Wang Tian, Wang Family's eldest grandson! However, with just a single berating, a single look, he knelt, it was too shocking.

"Haha... Wang Family's eldest grandson, weren't you putting on airs? Why did you kneel down? I really ended up being correct, kneeling to welcome me." Cao Yusheng roared with laughter, feeling incredibly happy, finally venting out a bit of resentment.

"Heng!" Right at this time, a cold snort sounded, descending like thunder, making everyone's souls tremble.

"You dare cause disorder in my Wang Family's territory?" The instant this voice sounded, a large hand reached over from the fort, covering the restaurant, wishing to capture and kill Shi Hao.

"Wang Da, you really believe yourself infallible. You even want to take action against me?" At this time, Shi Hao also took action.

With a peng sound, he didn't release his aura, but reached out his right arm, spreading his five fingers, gripping that large hand in the void, and then pulled.

A roar sounded from the fort, carrying shock and rage, as well as a hint of fear!

Wang Da really was horrified. Someone gripped his arm in place, directly pulling his body out from the fort!

Dong!

Shi Hao loosened his hand, throwing a gray-haired person on the ground, the impact making this place tremble intensely. It was precisely Wang Family Nine Dragons' Wang Da.

Right now, everyone was stunned, completely stupefied.

Chapter 1819 - Shocking

Wang Da's spirit was vigorous. Even though he was taken prisoner, his eyes were still shining like golden lamps, coldly sweeping over everyone.

He had a head of gray hair, carrying white strands, his age rather great. Who was he? He was Immortal Wang's eldest son! He was born during the archaic age, his magical force deep and profound.

Many people felt apprehensive towards him. In the Nine Heavens above, not many people dared provoke him, because his origins were too great!

However, it was precisely someone this powerful who was thrown to the ground, forcibly taken captive. It truly left everyone stupefied!

It was unknown just how long ago he became an expert at the peak of Self Release Realm, his cultivation ridiculously profound, well-known in this world.

A person this powerful was captured, thrown to the ground in this hall, how could everyone not be horrified?

“Who are you?” Wang Da’s voice was cold. He stared at Shi Hao, carrying shock and anger. Wang Family was a long life family, his father was unmatched in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

It could be said that Wang Family was already one of the most noble families in this world. If Immortal Domain’s cultivators didn’t take action, who dared provoke them?

Right now, even though Shi Hao was standing right in front of him, Wang Da still couldn’t see through him.

Once one’s cultivation reached the Supreme Being Realm, magical force became vigorous, aura devouring the starry skies. Shi Hao quietly stood there, his entire body becoming incredibly mysterious, as if he was shrouded in great dao mist.

In reality, there was no mist, just that his cultivation was too profound, outsiders unable to see through him. All those who tried to peer into his divine consciousness and others would be erased by dao laws.

This was the dao skill of the supreme being level. If one didn’t wish to become known in this world, even if they were standing right in front of your faces, others wouldn’t know it at all, the so-called wouldn’t recognize a monarch even if he was in front of you.

Of course, Wang Da felt lucky, believing that this was likely a pseudo supreme being. He didn’t really believe that this was a true supreme being expert, because he could sense exuberant vitality, this person’s age shouldn’t be that great.

Shi Hao walked forward, lowering his head to look at Wang Da. This made him feel extremely uncomfortable; just how many years had it been since he was last looked down on?

Wang Da leapt out, but blood was flowing out from the corners of his lips. He was injured, moreover, the injuries weren’t light!

“Dao friend, you are a bit too domineering! This is a frontier stronghold, not a place where you can act wildly!” Wang Da said with a sunken voice.

Shi Hao knew his temperament, this person was conceited and arrogant. In the past, just because of a slight disagreement, he wanted to kill him, his temper extremely great.

“Are my actions domineering? How can it compare to your Wang Family? Just a Wang Family eldest grandson, yet he dared to raise his voice against us, have us kneel and accept our punishment?!” Shi Hao said.

Previously, Wang Family’s eldest grandson was precisely like this, ordering the two gray servants to capture Cao Yusheng and the others outside, insisting that they kneel and confess their crimes.

“The young one’s temper is great, it can be understood. Dao friend, why must you bully the small as the great, bicker with him?” Wang Da said.

Even though his temper was great, he also knew the severity of the situation. The person before him was too mysterious, his strength astonishingly profound, so he didn't wish to immediately have a falling out.

"My temper is also quite great, so it can't be helped. When others strike my face, I can only give them a kick." Shi Hao calmly said.

He didn't have a single good impression of Wang Family. This was especially true of the nine dragons. Back then, they tried to kill him several times, once directly slaughtering their way over to Heavenly Deity Academy, almost taking his life while Great Elder wasn't there.

Now, he already came out of seclusion, becoming a supreme being level expert. Now that he encountered them, he naturally wouldn't be forced back, let alone run.

"Friend, with things already like this, how about we just let bygones be bygones?" Wang Da said, the expression in his eyes deep.

Cao Yusheng said with ridicule, "Old fella, you really are quite conceited? Even your own safety is hard to ensure, yet you are still acting so touch. Not even uttering a word of apology, yet you want things to be done here? Are you preparing to look for those brothers of yours, and then your old father, get all of them here to surround and kill us?"

Wang Da gave him a cold look, his eyes deep, moreover carrying a bit of frost. Perhaps if an ordinary person was stared at like this, they might just die.

Shi Hao was right here, how could he just let him act viciously? In this region, all methods were useless.

"Tian'er, come here!" Wang Da said.

Wang Tian was his own son. As Wang Family's eldest grandson, his aptitude was exceptional, strength truly great. However, right now, he was kneeling on the ground, trembling slightly.

This was extremely humiliating, making Wang Da's face fall.

He was already shouting, yet Wang Tian still couldn't stand up, suppressed by supreme being might.

"Dao friend, aren't you bullying others too far? Even if Tian'er showed you all disrespect, wishing to take action, didn't he still fail? Why must you be this overbearing?!" Wang Da shouted.

He found it a bit hard to suppress his temper.

Shi Hao didn't say anything, only quietly looking at him. When he thought about how he was looked down on by the nine dragons in the past, how he narrowly escaped death, and how he rose up, no longer having to fear Wang Family, his emotions were complicated.

The stars have turned, times have changed, the transformations of the world really were too fast. The small cultivator of the past already grew up.

"So you aren't willing to let this matter go?" Wang Da's expression was cold. He looked at Shi Hao, his voice becoming colder. "Wang Tian is the eldest grandson, someone who my father favors. Humiliating him like this, are you declaring war against my Wang Family?"

Wang Da's rage was building. Even though he knew that this person before him was extraordinary, stronger than him, he didn't believe that the other side would be willing to completely have a falling out.

He had confidence, because Wang Family now vaguely had the might of number one clan in the Nine Heavens above. His father's prowess was great, strength becoming more and more terrifying.

Apart from this, in recent years, they actively built relationships, secretly contacting the darkness creatures, while in the open, they had good relationships with some great families from Immortal Domain, having dealings with them.

It could be said that they were playing all sides, roping in influence.

It was because the Chaos Calming Art was in their hands, something even some of Immortal Domain's ancient inheritances coveted. There were some that stated they were willing to let them enter Immortal Domain.

That was why in recent years, Wang Family became stronger and stronger.

Wang Da had confidence in his backing, not all that worried. As long as Shi Hao wasn't a darkness creature, he believed that he would make the most sensible choice.

"Are you threatening me?" Shi Hao calmly swept him a look.

"Let go of Tian'er, and then let this matter go!" Wang Da said. He didn't deny it, directly giving this cold reply.

He had confidence, because in this building, he saw someone familiar. This was a great clan from Immortal Domain, his backing powerful. Right now, those people were currently nodding towards him, smiling in greeting.

With these people here, he believed this person didn't dare act randomly.

Those people had all previously interacted with Wang Family, desiring the Chaos Calming Art, so their relationship was close.

Now that Wang Family faced difficulties, he believed they wouldn't just watch from the side with their hands behind their backs.

"Heh heh heh..." Shi Hao laughed.

"What are you laughing at? What is so funny?" Wang Da said with a sunken face.

"I am laughing because you don't know the difference between being dead and alive, daring to threaten me so openly." The corners of Shi Hao's lips curled upwards slightly, carrying a smile of disdain.

"So what if I threaten you? Who do you think you are?!" Wang Da was furious, now bursting in anger, no longer holding back.

This was the result of his long habit of being overbearing. In the past, he even dared threaten Great Elder, relying on his father. Now, with Immortal Domain allies here, he naturally remained unyielding.

Pa!

Shi Hao didn't say anything, just sending a palm flying, striking Wang Da's face, making blood gush from his mouth, teeth fly everywhere. His body flew out, smashing into the wall.

Wang Da flew into a rage out of humiliation. The instant he fell, he leapt out, erupting with divine light, displaying a restricted secret technique, wishing to kill Shi Hao. n.-07eℓb1n

However in the end, when he rushed over, tried to attack Shi Hao, his entire body's magical force surged intensely, his body feeling like it was going to explode.

Wang Da was horrified this time. He originally thought that Shi Hao was a pseudo supreme being, just a bit stronger than himself, but now, it seemed like this person most likely broke into that deeper domain.

"A bit interesting, the so-called Nine Dragons have some tricks." Shi Hao said.

With a peng noise, this time, a foot swept out, smashing into Wang Da until blood sprayed out from his large mouth. Even though precious techniques appeared, techniques mysterious, he was still not a match at all.

Wang Da was far stronger than ordinary peak self release cultivators, because he had a secret formation carved in his body, all of the nine brothers like this. If they were merged together, they would become unmatched under the heavens.

This matter was something Shi Hao had long learned from Desolate Border. Now that he truly fought with Wang Da, he understood it a step further.

Not simple at all!

Otherwise, if it was an ordinary person, as long as Shi Hao displayed might, it would already be enough to crush them until they couldn't lift a finger.

However, the result was still already set.

Peng!

Shi Hao's fist flew out, striking Wang Da until he exploded, blood flying everywhere, shocking everyone here.

No one expected him to dare deal a vicious blow.

Chi!

Bloody mist and bone fragments shone. Wang Da immediately reconstructed his body, reappearing. His hair was disheveled, looking like a malicious spirit. He stared at Shi Hao, carrying shock and fear.

"Extraordinary as expected, having some skills." Shi Hao nodded.

Wang Da had a formation within him that could immediately activate, prevent him from dying, moreover allowing him to quickly recover.

If the nine dragons had two or three together, their formation would continue without end, supporting each other, become even more terrifying. Shi Hao now understood a bit.

"You're in luck." Right at this time, the little dog spoke up, looking towards Cao Yusheng. "You also carved formations in your body, right? If you can transplant all nine corners of Wang Family's nine dragons into your body, wu, you might actually gain enlightenment in the future because of this!"

"In that case, I'll give you a great present." When Shi Hao heard this, he walked over, a foot kicking Wang Da outwards, making him cough large mouthfuls of blood, in the end not moving at all.

In this restaurant, everyone was horrified. The young ladies covered their mouths, in disbelief. This person was too strong, not scared of Wang Family at all.

"Dao friend, you should let others off where it is possible." Right at this time, a family from Immortal Domain finally spoke up.

There were several people who walked over, the expressions on their faces calm, lining up, standing in front of Wang Da's body.

"Wang Family humiliated me first, why can't I take action to discipline him?" Shi Hao asked.

"Heh, I don't care what kind of grudges you have, immediately stop right now. You can leave." A white-clothed youngster among them spoke, full of arrogance.

"Dao friend, with things already like this, it is still best if we exchange weapons of war for jade and silk, let this matter end." An elder said.

Shi Hao looked at the elder, saying, "Your words are still reasonable. However, this youngster seems to be rather insolent."

"If my Immortal Domain's Hong Family wishes to protect some people, do I have to lower my tone just for something like you?" That youngster said coldly.

Shi Hao laughed. His voice became overcast and forceful. "This is my captive, no one can stop me!"

These people weren't true immortals, yet they dared to order him while pointing at his face? At worse, he would just suppress them all. He'll just wrap them all up, take these captives with him back to the lower realms.

"You wish to make my Hong Family your enemy?" On the other side, someone said coldly.

Shi Hao didn't say anything. At this time, the little dog spoke out, saying, "What dragon fart Hong Family? I remember back then, I took in a human pet in Immortal Domain surnamed Hong. Don't tell me that fella made your family?"

"Damn dog, you..." That white-clothed youngster pointed at it in anger, his expression cold.

"Let this king give it a try." The little dog said to himself. It produced a little bell from its neck, and then began to shake it.

Putong putong...

In that instant, those people's bodies all shone, mysterious symbols covering their heads, falling on the ground, continuously rolling about, screaming miserably as if their hearts were splitting, lungs tearing.

"It really was that Hong Family, the one I took as a human pet, the curse engraved in their blood passed onto the descendants, heh heh!" The little dog snickered.

"Ah..." Those people screamed miserably.

When the bell sound disappeared, while trembling in fear, kneeling on the ground, one of them said with a trembling voice, "Your respected self, are you really that great one?"

Everyone became stunned. Even those with tough minds became petrified at this moment, becoming incomparably shocked!

Chapter 1820 - Little Dog With An Astonishing Background

What kind of situation was this? The cultivators of an Immortal Domain family ended up like this? They were calling that little dog great one, what in the world was going on!

The little dog acted extremely cockily, not seeming that concerned from the very start, looking at them in disdain. Everyone was extremely speechless; this really was too strange and bizarre.

"Great one... is it really your respected self?" The elder with the greatest age was trembling, kneeling on the ground, crawling forward. His attitude was just too respectful, full of incomparable reverence.

How could others not be shocked at this sight? They were all stunned. How could this fella from Immortal Domain be like this? To be this respectful to a small dog, it really was terrifying.

"What did all you call me just now?" The little dog shot them a sidelong glance. It already jumped onto the jade table, or else it really was too short.

Cold sweat immediately ran down this elder's body, his fine hairs standing on end. It was because his clan's youngster directly called it a stupid dog! This really left him horrified.

This was especially when he thought about this dog's past nature, leaving him feeling even more frightened. It was definitely savage, moreover bore grudges. Directly cursing it like this, isn't this the same as being tired of life?

In the past, the clan's old ancestor definitely had his fair share of dog bites. Even though he became a true immortal, he still wasn't willing to recall the past. That was a period where tears of blood were shed, memories that were better forgotten.

Yet now, their descendants ended up encountering this ancestor, how could they not be scared? Their legs and stomachs were cramping.

"Great one, please don't lower yourself to our level, please forgive us." Bloody wisps even appeared on this elder's forehead. With his cultivation, he naturally didn't fear having his scalp torn by the floor, but he still had no choice but to produce this type of display.

The people behind him all looked at each other with expressions of dismay. There were some who were shocked, some stupefied, others at a loss, not knowing what to do. It was clear that not everyone in the clan knew about these 'past things'.

"Uncle!" A middle-aged man called out with a soft voice.

“Shut your mouth!” The elder released a low berating.

“I truly never thought that after all these years passed, I would still see your race, heh!” The small dog bared its fangs, laughing, the snow-white little fangs leaving all of them terrified.

In reality, this elder was cursing inwardly. So many years passed already, a great era, why did this dog thing jump out again?

Back then, his ancestors confirmed that this dog was already dead, falling in Immortal Ancient battle, plotted against by someone, a spear impaling it. In the end, it actually showed up again like this.

He really wanted to immediately return, report to the elder that this dog was still alive!

Was there still heavenly reasoning? The past demon, villain, the existence who made even his ancestor’s face turn pale, after all these years, could appear in this world again!

“There isn’t much else to say. Come over, apologize to my human pet first, get over your shock already.” The little dog reached out a claw, pointing towards Cao Yusheng.

As a result, both sides loathed this.

Immortal Domain’s individuals were conflicted, especially the younger generations. They were being berated by a little dog, demanded to apologize, it really was hard for them to take.

As for Cao Yusheng, there was even less of a need to explain. It was as if he drank a barrel of oil, hating it so much he wanted to trample it to death!

“This is your respected self’s human pet?” That elder still had a serious expression, carefully asking.

“Get lost!” Cao Yusheng really couldn’t take this anymore.

“We didn’t do anything to offend him, all we did was utter a few words with that youngster.” The people in the back muttered. They admitted that they acted against Shi Hao, but they didn’t seem to have troubled Cao Yusheng.

“This matter arose because of my human pet, so you all naturally need to compensate him.” The little dog said in an aggressive manner.

“Uncle, why is there a need to do this? It is just a little dog, is there a need for your respected self to lower your head like this?!” In the back, that white-clothed youngster already couldn’t take this a long time ago.

In reality, he had always been enduring, his lungs about to explode already. His clan was one of the most powerful clans, one with a true immortal, yet now, they were actually so low profile, apologizing because of a stupid little dog.

He couldn’t bear this no matter what, feeling like this was utter humiliation.

It was because he didn’t know about this clan’s background, not understanding the past truth.

Towards their clan’s old ancestor, this was a piece of dark history, a time of bloody tears, how could it be told to later generations? Only some of the older generation were aware of it.

“You aren’t convinced?”

With a sou sound, the little dog jumped out, landing on this white-clothed youngster’s head, smacking down fiercely. This youngster immediately saw stars, the crown of his head almost shattering, almost planting face first into the ground.

He really was angered badly, his liver in pain, his stomach sore, entire body aching. This little dog really went all out, leaving him utterly furious!

“You dare humiliate me!” He roared out.

“What’s so special about a brat like you, what shame is there? Even your ancestor was my human pet, yet even a bean like you dares challenge me.” The little dog brazenly ridiculed.

“I’m going to stake it all against you!” The youngster released auspicious brilliance, displaying a secret method, wishing to kill this little dog. However, all precious techniques were useless against it.

On the other side, the others from Hong Family were truly scared badly, especially that elder, his face the color of dirt. He knelt on the ground, shuddering in fear.

“You evil child, why aren’t you stopping yet?!” He roared out.

“Uncle, why are you like this?” The white-clothed youngster was shocked and furious.

“It... really is our ancestor.” The elder found it hard to speak, uttering this here.

Everyone was horrified.

This was especially the case for those families from Immortal Domain. When they heard this, they all released strange expressions. This news was just too astonishing.

The little dog that was brazenly calling them human pets, in the end, it was true? Just what kind of background did it have?!

As for Wang Da and Immortal Wang’s two servants, as well as Wang Tian, at this time, they were all stunned, their faces turning rigid, all of them becoming incomparably shocked.

Wang Family’s people were stupefied. They thought that they could rely on Immortal Domain’s families, yet in the end, they were suppressed by a little dog, becoming completely submissive. This really was just too terrifying.

This was especially when, from their words, they felt like something wasn’t right. Hong Family’s old ancestor was a true immortal level existence! He was actually this small dog’s human pet?

Was there still any heavenly reasoning? The great families were immediately almost scared to death!

At the very least, the princes and young miss from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths were all stunned, their scalps turning numb, all of them not daring to show the slightest bit of disrespect. They had never felt as much fear as they did today.

When they thought about how not long ago, Wang Family's oldest grandson was still bossing others around, looking down on Cao Yusheng and this little dog, everyone felt a wave of speechlessness. They really were courting death!

Pa pa pa! In the end, the elder braced himself and stood up, starting to give that youngster a vicious beating, smacking him until his entire face swelled, kneeling on the ground.

Wang Da was completely stunned. He originally thought that he could depend on this Immortal Domain family's strength to threaten Shi Hao, suppress the enemy, yet in the end, the so-called allies directly... knelt down!

At this time, Shi Hao took action, dragging Wang Da over, examining him in front of everyone. He wanted to figure out the formation in his body, preparing to give Cao Yusheng a great gift.

Fatty Cao now looked like he was seven or eight years old, chubby and round, in daoist robes. With a sou sound, he rushed over to where Wang Tian was, starting to kick him with everything he had.

"Why aren't you acting out now? Weren't you walking all over others, sending out people to hunt me down? During all these years, using the title of Wang Family's eldest grandson, you searched all over the world to capture me... I'm going to kick the shit out of you!"

Fatty Cao was furious, beating Wang Tian until he almost didn't look like a human anymore.

Chi!

Wang Da's body shone. Shi Hao came into contact with the strange magical formation engraved in his body, making even his soul tremble.

"No, you can't do this!" He screamed hysterically, roaring out.

"It was personally arranged by my father, Immortal Wang! If you forcibly try to seize it, he will sense it!" Wang Da said. This was the first time he revealed an expression of fear, but he didn't forget to threaten the other party.

Shi Hao sneered, a palm smacking out, blasting his face until he coughed out a large mouthful of blood. At the same time, the formation radiance within his body erupted, the patterns becoming more and more clear.

"Great one, you should return with us to Immortal Domain, I believe... when our ancestor sees you, he will definitely be... very happy!" Hong Family's elder told this little dog.

"Happy my ass!" The elder knew that the old ancestor hated this dog to death, not wishing to see it again for the rest of eternity. If he truly brought this little dog back, the old ancestor might very well skin him alive!

The small dog was laughing, a bit fake, the corners of his lips about to reach its ears. It revealed a mouthful of snow-white little dog fangs, releasing a hollow laugh and saying, "There's no rush!"

In reality, it didn't dare go over, it was lacking in confidence. Right now, its cultivation was crippled, if that Immortal Domain human pet really knew, he might very well skin it alive.

However, the others didn't think this. They all wanted to report back to their families. The things that happened today were too crazy! A little dog had actually previously taken a true immortal as a human pet!

Even Immortal Domain's families felt like this little dog's origins were too heaven-defying, that they had to send news back!
