Chapter 1891 - Commotion Stirring

This was a purple-clothed woman who carried a type of natural noble air, clearly not a female cultivator from an ordinary family. Even though her appearance was charming and moving, there was an indistinct pressure emanating from her that made others not dare look down on her.

“Ao Family are too arrogant, boasting about how they can sweep through all opponents under the sky. It’s best if someone could stand out, just directly suppress their family’s so-called young great one.” The purple-clothed woman said with a smile.

She could actually say these words, not scared of the Ao Family, daring to say that she wanted them to suffer out loud. This really was shocking.

“Fairy Qin Lin, why is there a need to make things difficult for us?” The white-robed youngster revealed a bitter smile. This male and female before them really weren’t good to provoke, the people behind them were too formidable.

“I am merely saying things as they are.” The purple-clothed Qin Lin walked up close in a leisure manner. She looked at Shi Hao, in the end quietly muttering, “Doesn’t seem to have anything that special about him.”

She had heard about Ao Family suffering greatly, but now that she saw Shi Hao for herself, she didn’t notice anything particularly astonishing from this young man.

On the contrary, Shi Hao was too delicate and pretty, just like a young man next door, his expression calm and collected, looking harmless. This was the vicious person who dared challenge Ao Family?

“You really are quite daring, using your home advantage to bully Aocheng Immortal King’s descendants in your world, seizing the All Dao Tree. Did you eat some immortal heart or demon king gallbladder?!”

The golden-haired youngster spoke, his eyes sparking, carrying quite the penetrative gaze. He stood there with his followers, glaring at Shi Hao like he was eying his prey, looking like he wanted to take action.

His name was Jin Xu, his family located precisely in this Pan King City, a true immortal family itself. Meanwhile, his younger sister was even more so married to a heaven warping genius Pan Yi, a descendant of Pan King.

That heaven warping genius Pan Yi is a fierce individual who dares fight Ao Family’s young great one head-on, his strength terrifying, on par with Ao Family’s Ao Gan!

That was why Qin Lin and Bai Ze, these people, felt quite a headache now that they were facing this demon king, not willing to provoke him. This young master’s background was too great, and he couldn’t be reasoned with, a bit of a ruffian.

It was precisely because of his identity and his relationship with Pan King Clan that not many people were willing to provoke him.

“Prince Jin Xu, I must ask you to please not make things difficult for us.” The white-robed youngster Bai Ze walked up, his wording careful. If there was no need, he really wouldn’t be willing to clash with these people.

“Don’t worry, I won’t make things difficult for you. Whoever dares touch him is precisely making me their enemy.” Qin Lin voiced her thoughts, purple clothes fluttering about, red lips bright, figure extremely enchanting.

“Bai Ze, there are some matters that you cannot obstruct, your status is still not enough.” Jin Xu spoke, looking at the white-robed youngster, the purple-haired young man and others in disdain.

He was already being quite polite. If it was anyone else, he wouldn’t have this much patience. It was because the white-robed youngster and others became supreme beings at such a young age, all of them fierce individuals!

They were all individuals who had hopes of becoming true immortals in the future, so even the top level strengths weren’t willing to see them die for no reason.

Many people were willing to rope them in.

“Prince Xu, this time, when we entered Immortal Domain, not only did we receive Ao Family’s decree, there is also Pan Family’s decree. Otherwise, there is no way we could come here.” The white-robed youngster Bai Ze reminded.

“Oh, is that so? Then I won’t make things too difficult for you all, I just wish to say a few things to him.” Jin Xu said.

“Jin Xu, I’m warning you, don’t act randomly. This is someone this older sis has an interest in.” Qin Lin had a smile on her face, her large eyes becoming crescents, extremely captivating.

“Is attracted to, or is it just being interested in? Haha...” Jin Xu laughed loudly.

“It is best if you don’t cause trouble, or else I’ll break your legs.” Qin Lin sneered.

Jin Xu immediately chuckled. “I know that your bosom friend is a natural pair with Ao Family’s young great one, but a bit of unexpected things happened. Are you trying to get revenge on Ao Family for your bosom friend? Don’t worry, I don’t have any good feelings for Ao Family either, more than happy to see them suffer.”

Shi Hao didn’t say anything this entire time, but he understood some of the things implied. The relationship between these people really was chaotic.

“Brat, I heard the All Dao Tree is in your hands? Just respectfully offer it up to me and I’ll set up some prospects for you. You don’t need to return to that impoverished lower realm anymore.” Jin Xu said.

Shi Hao didn’t pay him any attention, just looking into the distance like that, sizing up the grand and massive Pan King City.

“Ao Family needs an exceptional heavenly seed. Jin Family and Pan Family also need it. If you offer it up, the benefits will be tremendous!” Jin Xu advised.

Shi Hao shot him a look of disdain. The relationship between these people really was something, full of competition, having all types of intermarried connections.

“Brat, I’m talking to you, did you hear me or not? You still aren’t respectfully offering it up?!” Jin Xu shouted. He saw that Shi Hao didn’t pay him any attention all this time, his expression immediately becoming fierce, full of a type of unruliness.

Shi Hao remained completely composed. He looked at the people around him, saying, “Who is this yellow hair? He is so noisy like a chatterbox, just won’t stop.”

After a momentary silence, everyone was stunned, including Jin Xu’s followers. They were all stupefied, not saying a word, as if they were seeing a ghost as they looked at that ridiculously young and pretty youngster.

Only now did Qin Lin snap out of her daze, not minding her appearance at all, immediately covering her mouth and laughing loudly. “Haha... Yellow hair brat, chatterbox, haha, it’s too accurate!”

Bai Ze and the others immediately became speechless. This fella was just too valiant right? He had just entered Immortal Domain! Was he going to clash with a little demon king right away?

The five of them felt a headache. They couldn’t let anything happen to Huang, but these words were already spoken, how could Jin Xu on the other side just leave the matter at that.

Yellow hair? Jin Xu’s nose almost went crooked from anger. There was someone who dared call him this?!

At the same time, the most hateful thing was calling him a chatterbox, this was completely intolerable! This fella really must’ve eaten some immortal king gallbladder, daring to ridicule him like this, simply courting death!

“Brat, you have some guts!” Jin Xu said through gritted teeth.

He really was angered badly. Huang saying this was one thing, but what he hated the most was the other party’s attitude, indifferent, as if he didn’t care at all.

The expression, that composure, it really was beyond hateful.

“You all invited me to Immortal Domain, don’t tell me it was just to listen to this chatterbox ramble on and on here?” Shi Hao asked Bai Ze and the others.

Bai Ze, the purple-haired youngster Zi Kun, and the other individuals all didn’t know what to say. This fella’s mouth really wasn’t just a normal level of fierce.

Jin Xu was simply angered to the point where he wanted to laugh. This was the first time he faced someone who was even more of a scoundrel than himself, daring to challenge him like this, really low enough.

Qin Lin laughed endlessly, her figure beautiful as it rocked back and forth, drawing eyes from all directions.

“Brat, you are quite daring!” Jin Xu pointed at Shi Hao, about to touch his nose already.

Cold light flashed past Shi Hao's eyes, about to take action.

Bai Ze hurriedly stepped forward, pushing him aside. At the same time, Zi Kun also stopped Jin Xu, saying, "Prince Jin, you have to understand that Pan King has passed down the decree that if anyone takes action in Pan King City, they would be killed without pardoning!"

Jin Xu's expression went rigid. Normally, if no one noticed, causing a bit of trouble didn't really matter. However, if he really did seriously start a fight, startling Pan King, then the consequences would definitely be grave!

It was rumored that in the past, there were two true immortals who had conflict, fighting in Pan King City, breaking the rules, and in the end, they were both killed by Pan King.

"Aren't there fighting arenas? If there are conflicts and disputes, we can go there to settle things!" Jin Xu smiled maliciously. He looked at Shi Hao, saying, "Do you dare or not?"

"If the people involved don't want to go, no one can force them." Zi Kun said.

"Why do I have to give you pointers?" Shi Hao didn't even look at him straight on.

Jin Xu really was angered badly today. Just who was this fella? He came from the lower realm, such an impoverished place, but he went even further than himself. This was just too much of a scoundrel right, too unreasonable.

He was so angry he laughed. "Brat, I discovered that you are quite like me. Even though I am so angry I want to kill you, it is a bit to my taste. If you fight against me and don't perform too badly, I am willing to become friends with you!"

Bai Ze and Zi Kun became speechless. Even this was a thing? Jin Family's prince was becoming crazy from anger, right?

"Birds of a feather?" Qin Lin immediately concluded.

Shi Hao didn't appreciate this kindness, saying, "You are clearly a scoundrel, who is like you? Someone like me who is destined to become an immortal king doesn't have time to practice with you."

"Brat, are you courting death?!" Jin Xu felt like this fella really was too lowly, even better at speaking than him.

In reality, he also understood his own natural disposition, extremely rough. Today, he felt like he met someone just like himself, but he was directly looked down on.

"If you enter the arena, there are stakes. If I lose, then I'll give you a wondrous immortal dao treasure, if you lose, you'll hand over the All Dao Tree, how about it?" Jin Xu said.

He also lost his temper, wanting to tempt Shi Hao. However, he knew that people with this type of temper would most likely remain unmoved.

Even so, what was completely unexpected was that this brat's eyes immediately lit up, having quite the miserly look. "Immortal treasure? Tell me a bit more!"

Everyone immediately became speechless.

Wasn't this fella extremely unyielding? Why did he suddenly change?

Jin Xu had a stunned expression, staring at Shi Hao, not saying anything for a long time. In the end, he said, "Divine spring, immortal spring, they are all cultivation substances. For your impoverished world, they are all good things. Are you willing to bet?"

"It's not like I don't have this type of thing. Even though I don't have much, it isn't all that precious."

"I can give you large amounts of it!" Jin Xu said.

"How much is a large amount?" Shi Hao asked.

"Enough for you to cultivate for ten thousand years!" Jin Xu said.

"As a supreme being of extreme dao, unmatched from past until present, I don't need those things. However, my disciples do need them."

"You... really are brazen!" Jin Xu discovered that this fella was even more overbearing than himself, too much of a scoundrel.

Even Qin Lin was speechless. From past until present? Just how many people dared claim extreme dao at Supreme Being Realm, moreover, he even said unmatched from the past until now! This really was a bit crazy.

"How much immortal dao resources do you want?" Jin Xu asked through clenched teeth. He really didn't really feel like arguing with Shi Hao anymore.

"Prepare eight hundred shares for me, each one enough for one person to cultivate a hundred thousand years. This way, I might consider agreeing." Shi Hao said.

"Why don't you just go to hell!" Jin Xu really was angered quite badly. Even in Immortal Domain, immortal springs and others were invaluable resources. Eight hundred shares, each enough to cultivate a hundred thousand years, even if they dug up a whole immortal spring mine it still wouldn't be enough!

"Chatterbox, I thought you were formidable, but you were actually this poor? Then let's just not bet anymore."

There was no way he could acknowledge defeat. Jin Xu wanted to smack him to death with a single slap.

"I don't have that much, I only have some immortal spring, enough for a hundred people to cultivate ten thousand years." Jin Xu said.

"Fine then, we'll just treat it as an appetizer, I will take your bit of immortal spring first." Shi Hao nodded, looking like he was reluctantly accepting this.

"Heh, are you sure you can win against me?!" Jin Xu couldn't hold himself back anymore. He really wanted to fight right here on the street, but in the end, he held back, scared that Pan King would kill him.

Shi Hao remained extremely calm, patting his shoulder and saying, "Right, you can call over some friends to go with you, bring all types of immortal treasures. Our side over there seriously lacks these types of resources."

This was just a bit too hateful, right? Jin Xu was angered until even his face turned green, really about to burst out.

“Don’t worry, I’ve already contacted all of my friends, they are coming soon, hehe!” On the side, Fairy Qin Lin was currently waving a magical artifact that could communicate with her friends in the city.

“Heh, we’ve also contacted our side. If you really have the skill, then just wait for people from all sides to take action!” On the side, another person spoke.

It was because this was the most flourishing city, Pan King City, people came and went. Meanwhile, Qin Lin and Jin Xu, neither one of them were ordinary figures. Them stopping here naturally drew the attention of many people. They immediately knew what happened.

“I’ve contacted Pan King Clan’s people.”

“I’ve informed Huo Family, Gu Family, Peacock King Clan, and other top level families’ inheritors!”

“Heh heh, I’ve informed those individuals from the three great immortal king families!”

...

Those watching didn’t fear things getting bigger. A great commotion was definitely stirring within Pan King City!

Chapter 1892 - Chaotic Arena

Jin Xu’s nose was no longer a nose, eyes not eyes. Because he was angered, his sensory organs were already warped. When he saw Shi Hao was just standing there, he wanted to just send a palm smacking over.

Unfortunately, they still didn’t arrive at the arena.

“Say, where are you bringing me? Isn’t this an inn?” Shi Hao asked.

There was an inn right in front of them. It was extremely vast and also imposing in appearance. There were two great stone Qilins there that flowed with brilliant colors. Great dao symbols flickered from time to time.

Immortal energy continuously flowed out from the inn. One could tell his place really was extraordinary with just a glance, a good place for cultivation and lodging.

“There is an arena in the inn to begin with, this place is different from the lower realm you reside in.” Qin Lin explained for him.

Pan King City, the inns were all extraordinary. Not only were they majestic and imposing in style, the interior was even more so meticulously planned, they were places of charm and beauty.

The instant he stepped in, Shi Hao revealed an expression of shock. It was because immortal energy was hazy, too rich, containing large amounts of undying matter.

Its name was also special, known as Primal Chaos Inn.

However, the price to stay here was also shockingly high. Normal cultivators would shrink back, not daring to come here.

A cultivator with outstanding strength welcomed them with a smiling face, his dao skills quite profound, but he was just a waiter in this inn, welcoming guests here. At the same time, a shopkeeper also personally came.

Shi Hao saw how exorbitant the price was. Jin Xu brought out divine spring, paying in advance, the amount not small. It really wasn't just a normal level of expensive.

When it was Shi Hao's turn and he didn't have any, Bai Ze pinched his nose, helping him pay in advance. Along the way, Bai Ze really found it a bit too hard to take. When he went to the lower realm, he was suppressed by Huang, and then later on, he had to continuously clean up after him, finding it a bit hard to bear.

"Oh? This cultivator from the ruined world even needs someone to pay in advance? However, our rules here are quite strict, will he be fine?" The shopkeeper had a walrus mustache, he was extremely clean, his appearance treacherous, eyeing Shi Hao up and down.

"Don't worry, Pan Family and Ao Family have both passed down decrees to let him pass, sending him an invitation. There is no need for worry." Zi Kun said.

Shi Hao glanced at the shopkeeper, ignoring him.

However, this inn really did have some value. When he truly walked in, Shi Hao was moved. This was a place of charm and beauty, completely different from what he saw outside.

This was a small world onto itself, but it was made into a dwelling!

Up ahead islands floated one after another, spiritual mountains that towered into the clouds, too many to count. There were sumptuous dwellings resting atop.

These were true immortal family paradises, not the so-called immortal earths of the lower realm.

True immortals could even choose to cultivate here in seclusion. The natural essence energy was abundant and surging.

This was clearly not an inn in a normal sense. There was a world inside, containing the natural luck of heaven and earth.

According to the shopkeeper's introduction, the most expensive heaven character number one residence was an immortal king dwelling, the essence there terrifyingly rich, full of great dao.

This was prepared specially for immortal kings!

Forget about the people here, even if a true immortal really came, they would drool. Cultivating in here was much better than outside.

As for just how much better, normal people didn't know because they didn't have the qualifications to experience it for themselves.

Immortal king dwelling, these weren't just words, the price was too high. Moreover, normal people couldn't enter even if they had the money, they would be crushed apart by the great dao symbols within.

This type of place already formed a realm of its own, so it naturally had an arena.

The power behind the inn was no small matter, or else they wouldn't be able to operate such a place.

"In the massive Pan King City, there are only a few places that have immortal king dwellings. Our Primal Chaos Inn is precisely one of them." The shopkeeper said.

If just any inn could have an immortal king dwelling, then that really would be crazy. No one dared act randomly here.

When they stated their purpose for coming, to use the arena, the inn's people all revealed looks of surprise.

"Come, yellow hair. The earlier you offer up the immortal dao resources, the earlier I'll knock you out." Shi Hao made a 'come' gesture.

Jin Xu's eyes released green light, becoming like a wild beast. He really wanted to immediately throw himself over. He really couldn't handle this youngster anymore, he already wanted to rip him to shreds a long time ago.

The arena was extremely grand, named Primal Chaos Arena. The land it occupied was extremely vast, piled up with a type of stone, carrying an ancient meaning. It seemed like a boulder that was cut off from a precipitous cliff.

It was surrounded by giant stone railings and interweaving dao symbols on all sides, used to protect this place, at the same time, not letting the precious techniques of the fighters injure the spectators.

"Don't worry, this stage is sturdy enough, the Primal Chaos Arena can even support a great battle between true immortals!" The shopkeeper said proudly, stroking his beard.

At the same time, he emphasized that when betting fights were held here, there would be a commission taken out by the inn, a tenth seized.

"You all really know how to do business." Shi Hao said, quite dissatisfied. In his opinion, yellow hair was a fat sheep that was here to gift him resources, yet in the end, part of it was going to be taken by others.

"If you can't accept this, you all can fight on the streets. The price in all of the inns is like this." The shopkeeper said calmly.

"Come!" Jin Xu shouted. He already got in the arena.

Right now there were many people standing here, some who followed them in and some who were guests of the inn to begin with.

The shopkeeper narrowed his eyes, delighted to see this type of thing happen. Entering the inn required a payment, so he naturally wished to attract even more people. Thus, he waved his hand, calling over a waiter, saying, "Go announce on the street, inform everyone that there is an unrivaled expert of Mortal Dao here, difficult for him to suffer a defeat."

"Don't worry, there's no need to announce it, a large group of people is arriving soon." Qin Lin smiled.

The shopkeeper immediately felt embarrassed.

Sure enough, immediately afterwards, quite a few people rushed over. All of them were people from great clans. Not only were there young people, there were also big names from the older generation.

"Yi, that's Peacock King Family's goddess!"

"Who am I looking at? Ao Family young great one's older cousin has arrived!"

"Wu, the great true immortal families in the cities really move quickly, all of them actually appearing here."

...

Soon afterwards, a large group of people came, immediately making the shopkeeper's eyes shine, his beard trembling.

"Come, bumpkin from the impoverished land. Today, Grandpa Jin is going to teach you a lesson, let you understand how high the sky is and how vast the earth is!" Jin Xu shouted.

Originally, he wouldn't say these types of things, but he really was angered badly by Shi Hao. When he saw Shi Hao get on the stage, he directly made his move.

"Yellow hair, with this emperor here, hurry and bow down! If you don't yield, I'll personally subdue you!" Shi Hao roared out, even more fierce than him.

Many people had now arrived. When they heard his words, they immediately couldn't help but laugh. This fella really was arrogant, even daring to say the words 'this emperor'.

In this Immortal Domain, not even immortal king families and clans dared claim this.

Pu chi!

Some girls laughed, finding the words yellow hair amusing. They all knew that Jin Xu was normally wild and arrogant, but now, he was challenged like this by someone.

"Brat, accept death!" Yellow hair was furious.

With a honglong noise, he opened his mouth, roaring out. Wind and thunder roiled, clouds of smoke engulfing the skies. A great claw struck outwards. Golden light surged, lightning flashing and thunder rolling.

He used his entire strength, immediately using his own divine ability, producing a magical body. It was a great lion claw, golden and dazzling, incomparably sharp.

This was a lion, revealing its nine heads!

This was an extremely powerful species, but it wasn't the mixed blood descendant of the lower realm, but the top level bloodline of the Nine Headed Lion lineage. This was where his arrogance lied.

Dang!

Shi Hao's fist smashed out, knocking it aside. "Yi, Nine Headed Lion? It really is a good mount. I raised a Fearless Lion in the lower realm, you can go and be his companion."

Pu chi!

Everyone became amused. There really was someone who dared treat the inheritor of a true immortal family as a mount? That clan might immediately fight him to the death.

"Hand over your life!" Jin Xu's eyes became red from anger, fighting a great battle. All types of precious techniques appeared, clouds of smoke roiling, golden lightning radiance like a sea, surging incessantly.

"Wasn't there a legend that the Nine Headed Lion is the most powerful... one of the most powerful mounts in history!" Shi Hao took a deep breath, speaking the first few words powerfully, but said mount in the end.

Everyone became speechless. Who dared treat the Nine Headed Lion as a mount in Immortal Domain? Only immortal kings did!

"Kill!" The Nine Headed Lion was furious, the nine heads all releasing sword radiance, impossible to block, tearing apart the void, wishing to kill Shi Hao.

Shi Hao waved his hand, golden feathers filled the skies. These were Kun Peng Feathers, covering everything, scattering out sword radiance, the battle extremely intense.

This battle was extremely dazzling, and also intense. It started from a clash of precious techniques, turning to a contest of physical strength, and then to a comparison of dao skills. In the end, they both displayed restricted divine abilities, fighting until they tangled around each other endlessly.

Outside, many people nodded, continuously voicing their praise. There were some people who felt disdain, inwardly saying that even with these types of methods, you dare shout noisily, saying you are an emperor?

Bai Ze and Zi Kun's expressions were strange, inwardly complicated. They immediately noticed what was wrong. Why did this fella need to fight bitterly like this?

They personally experienced his strength in the lower realm, just Huang's incarnation alone suppressed both of them. Was there a need to struggle like this with Jin Xu?

The two immediately understood. Huang was definitely doing this on purpose, he was putting out bait! Jin Xu alone wasn't enough, he wanted even more people to bet with him?

On the side, there were Aocheng Immortal King Clan's people. When they heard the news, they immediately hurried over. It was because Huang had ruined a great matter for them, seizing the All Dao Tree, making many people in their clan remember him.

This was especially the case when the two supreme beings who participated in that affair both personally hurried over, immediately noticing clues.

The two cursed inwardly. Huang, you really are not of the good sort, definitely scheming!

However, they didn't reveal it. The past battle accomplishments of Huang weren't something they declared publicly, it was too humiliating. Otherwise, Bai Ze and Zi Kun wouldn't have suffered too.

"Even though he came from the impoverished lower realm, this fella really isn't weak." Someone said in praise.

In the arena, it was exceptionally intense. The two fought for over eight hundred moves. In the end, the Nine Headed Lion wasn't a match, smacked by Shi Hao's palm, beaten until he vomited blood, rolling outwards, smashing into a stone railing.

"You are quite strong, but compared to me, there is still a huge difference, like the sky and earth. You're too weak! Seeing as how my sworn brother in the lower realm is also a Nine Headed Lion, today, I'll be lenient with you."

Shi Hao stood there, saying this loudly.

Hiss!

Many people released hissing sounds. They even fought for eight hundred moves, the battle this bitter, yet you are still saying that the difference is sky and earth? Even this can be counted as lenient? You just won by a fluke!

Veins were throbbing on Jin Xu's forehead. He actually lost, defeated in front of everyone by that hateful brat, leaving him rather sullen, finding this extremely hard to accept.

"If you have the guts, then fight another round!"

"Do you have more immortal resources? If you want to fight against me, you have to first bring out ten times the stake. Otherwise, I don't have the patience to teach you." Shi Hao looked at him with disdain.

Jin Xu was beyond angry. He turned around to leave, wishing to borrow weapons, and then come back to fight again. ~~novE(lb.1n~~

Many people released hissing sounds, feeling like this lower realm Huang was too arrogant.

"If you can't accept this, then just come. This emperor will properly teach you all humility." Shi Hao pointed at an individual who cursed at him.

"What did you say?!" That person roared with fury.

Right at this time, Exiled Immortal and Princess Yao Yue appeared one after the other. They were all originally creatures of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, also coming to participate in the distinguished meeting. When they heard the news, they immediately hurried over.

The two of them were a bit speechless. This fella... actually also entered Immortal Domain. They originally thought that he would be trapped in the lower realm, but now, he ran to Pan King City, moreover starting up this type of commotion, challenging wantonly. This really was worthy of Huang, the one who wouldn't be 'quiet' no matter where he went!

Chapter 1893 - This Emperor

"Who are you speaking to?!" Below, a green-haired youngster glared out, slapping the table and standing up.

"I am talking about you, green hair. Do you dare fight or not? This emperor will teach you how to act properly, the meaning of humility!" Shi Hao pointed at him, putting on an arrogant appearance, as if he was the only sovereign.

"You can go f*ck yourself!" That individual really was angered quite badly, having this green hair nickname for no reason. Everyone here had status, it wasn't easy to become a supreme being, which one of them wasn't dignified? Even if they had nicknames, they would be elegant or heroic ones.

This fella immediately called them yellow hair, green hair, who could take this?

No wonder Jin Xu was furious, insisting on fighting him, directly heading to an arena, there was a reason behind this, this was what the green-haired youngster thought. Then, he couldn't sit still anymore.

"Green hair, I am talking about you. Weren't you all arrogant before? Come over here and fight! This emperor will knock you down with one arm. You know, I might as well make this story better, defeating yellow hair and green hair in one day. Right, is there white hair, purple hair, cyan hair?" Shi Hao shouted.

Below, everyone found it hard to calm down.

Among them, there were some silver-haired, purple-haired and cyan-haired cultivators whose faces immediately turned green. They really wanted to immediately rush up and smack him to the ground.

This brat was just too good at provoking others. A group of people couldn't sit still anymore.

Shi Hao never planned to submit to humiliation after he entered Immortal Domain. Since he already had four freaks who placed all their cards on the table, he didn't have much to worry about.

Was this a place where he could earn the respect of others by giving up his dignity and lowering his head? This was even less likely. Instead of waiting for others to forgive him, he might as well just act as he wished. n))σ/.σ--e.)ℓ..b//1-/n

Right now, he played the fool for a bit, but he wouldn't wrong himself, just this brazen. Whoever looked at him with hostility, that was who he would immediately retaliate against.

"I'll come and fight with you!" Sure enough, that green-haired man couldn't remain calm, already standing up, walking towards the arena.

"Wait, do you have immortal resources? This emperor won't fight poor people, I have always been benevolent and charitable." Shi Hao shouted, blocking in front of him.

A few people cursed out. What benevolence, this was clearly greed, a miser, staring at others' purses.

"You..." The green-haired man pointed at him, truly losing his temper a bit.

“Yellow hair, don’t be in a rush to leave. Let me check the inventory first, see if the immortal resources you left behind are enough.” Shi Hao then shouted after Jin Xu.

Jin Xu staggered, almost falling face first.

The green-haired youngster got on the arena, with a hua la noise, he reduced a pile of immortal resources. They were incredibly dazzling, some floating in the air, some crushing the earth, incredibly mystical, flowing with brilliant colors.

Those immortal resources were like small suns, releasing rich life force.

“A bit more than yellow hair, but it’s still not that much...” Shi Hao said. He nodded in reluctance, agreeing to fight with him.

Hong!

In that instant, a divine vine appeared at this green-haired man’s side, turning into a divine chain, wrapping toward Shi Hao. He took action immediately after stepping up.

“Good!” Shi Hao faced his enemy.

This was a battle between ‘dragons and tigers’, the great battle lasting more than nine hundred moves. Shi Hao released great divine radiance from his palm, blasting the green-haired male flying, blood spurting out from his mouth and nose, scattering across the arena.

“You are only a bit stronger than yellow hair. Compared to me, you are still too lacking. Go back and cultivate a thousand years!” Shi Hao said, his face drenched in sweat, gasping for air.

Everyone became a bit speechless as they looked at him. You are already tired to this extent, fighting for more than nine hundred moves, what way stronger than the other party is there to speak of? You really are superficial enough.

Bai Ze and Zi Kun both cursed inwardly, feeling like this fella was a bit immoral. This was intentional, he wanted to lure out others into taking action.

The two supreme beings from Ao Family didn’t have good expressions on their faces either. However, they just couldn’t speak the truth, because the things that happened before were too shameful.

With a huala sound, Shi Hao collected this pile of immortal resources.

“Wait, there is the tenth that Primal Chaos Inn takes as commission.” The shopkeeper spoke. Previously, he was a bit stunned, almost forgetting.

“Shopkeeper, your family’s immortal king dwelling, that heaven character room one, are you going to sell it or not? I want to buy it.” Shi Hao said.

The shopkeeper rolled his eyes. There weren’t many immortal king dwellings in the entire Pan King City, how many people could afford it?

The others were also speechless, all of them looking at him. This fella really dared to speak, actually setting his eyes on the immortal king manor.

Only Exiled Immortal and Princess Yao Yue's minds jumped, understanding his intention. They already saw that even though Shi Hao was playing the fool, he indeed wanted the immortal king dwelling.

"How about this? I'll settle for the next best thing, sell me a true immortal dwelling? Of course, this is on the premise that I can still use it if I bring it back to the lower realm, that it won't dry up." Shi Hao said it like this.

"Youngster, you should be a bit more realistic. These things aren't things that can be sold, every one of them priceless. Do you know just how much vitality needs to be gathered for a single true immortal dwelling, how many stars suitable for living would dry up?" The shopkeeper with the walrus beard said.

Shi Hao was inwardly shocked. A true immortal dwelling actually consumed this much? Wasn't this equivalent to destroying many stars that creatures could reside in?

Just an inn was actually this precious!

As for the immortal king dwelling, it was even harder for Shi Hao to imagine just how it was created.

"Is there anyone else who wishes to fight against me?" Shi Hao asked loudly.

Below, Exiled Immortal and Princess Yao Yue couldn't help but sigh. This really was a monster. He stirred up endless commotion in the lower realm, and now, he started it all over again in Immortal Domain.

At the same time, their minds jumped. Recently, there was news that a goddess Ao Family's young great one had a good opinion of developed hostility towards him. He was previously quite close to Qing Yi, don't tell me this was because of Huang's appearance?

The two looked at each other in dismay, both of them feeling like Huang wasn't someone easy to deal with, that he absolutely cannot stir things up!

"I will fight you!" Sure enough, there was someone else who found him unsightly, wishing to ascend the arena and fight him.

"Wait, let me rest for a bit. I fought two rounds in a row, even an immortal king would be tired to the point of vomiting blood!" Shi Hao boasted shamelessly, saying things like this.

Many people shot him a look of disdain. Immortal kings will vomit blood? At that level, they could fight for years without rest, there were unrivaled immortal kings who previously fought for over a thousand years, not collapsing unless they died.

Soon afterwards, this battle began. It ended after a thousand moves, that individual suffering a great defeat, leaving behind a pile of immortal resources before leaving.

"Three continuous victories, who else wants to try?" Shi Hao stood in the arena, saying this proudly, gathering hatred here.

His shamelessly boasting appearance was something many people couldn't bear to see.

However, Bai Ze and Zi Kun both believed that what he spoke weren't empty words, he really had the backing to be arrogant.

Ao Family's two great supreme beings also couldn't help but sigh. This youngster was extremely strong, and not arrogant. What he spoke was the truth.

"White hair, purple hair, cyan hair, it should be your turn now, right?" Shi Hao pointed at some people.

Gathering hatred like this, even if he didn't want opponents, it was impossible. People got on the arena one after another, fighting bloody battles against him. Unfortunately, no one could knock him off the arena.

After six continuous victories, Shi Hao waved his hand. "We'll just end things here, I won't fight anymore!"

"No way!" Many people shouted.

There were true experts who didn't make their moves yet, not fighting. Some cultivators from Immortal Domain suffered defeats one after another, making them feel like they had no face left. Could it be that they were less than a cultivator from the impoverished lower realm?

"I don't want to fight anymore." Shi Hao replied.

"Why? Just now, you were still full of fighting spirit, saying you are an emperor, what, are you scared now?" Someone shouted and asked.

"What scared? I just feel inwardly sore that I'm fighting great battles here, but this Primal Chaos Inn is taking away a tenth of the spoils. What right do they have?" Shi Hao said.

This miser!

The people really were convinced now, he was even bickering over this. Which arena wasn't like this?

Primal Chaos Inn's shopkeeper immediately became speechless. What was this? This was the first time he met someone who bickered with him like this.

"So what do you want to do?" Someone asked.

"Let's switch inns, I feel like this place is too dark." Shi Hao said seriously.

"You are the one who is dark!" The shopkeeper wanted to berate him, but he swallowed it back down while on the verge of saying this. So many people came because of Huang's arrival, and there were many battles, so this was a huge business.

As such, in the end, he put on a fake smile. "Since this little brother is dissatisfied, we can make some changes, take a bit less commission."

"How much?"

"How about this, we'll reduce it..."

"No, still too much!"

"Then..."

...

Everyone was stunned, watching as they haggled.

Was this still a cultivator? He called himself the extreme dao expert of the Mortal Dao, why did he end up negotiating business? He really was quite something.

“Say, are you really going to argue over that bit of commission? It’s like this at every arena!” Someone warned.

“Just stay off to the side. If you can’t accept it, then just fight!” Shi Hao waved his hand in annoyance.

In the end, Primal Chaos Inn’s shopkeeper agreed to cut his commission by half, on the premise that he could win another six victories in a row or more.

Of course, this was something they agreed on in secret, or else if others knew that this shopkeeper wanted Huang to continuously win, they might just take out their anger on him.

That day, Huang’s name spread through this region, drawing in large amounts of people, watching him fight at Primal Chaos Inn.

Soon afterwards, many people knew about the events in Pan King City, that a cultivator named Huang, known to be an expert of extreme dao, was unstoppable, unmatched in the Mortal Dao Domain.

That day, many people were shaken up, for example great true immortal families, as well as those geniuses from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

Huang appeared mysteriously, charging to Pan King City, defeating heroic individuals from all different sides, it really left them shocked.

Even immortal king families were paying attention, this Huang left them quite amazed.

Qing Yi learned about it, hearing that Shi Hao arrived in Immortal Domain, moreover already entered Pan King City. She was inwardly shaken, starting to hurry towards this king city too.

Ao Family’s young great one Ao Gan came out of seclusion, riding a war chariot, also hurrying to Pan King City, wishing to participate in the distinguished meeting.

At the same time, Pan Family’s genius Pan Yi came out of seclusion. When he received the news, he headed towards Primal Chaos Inn.

Chapter 1894 - Pan Yi

It was still a few days before the Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting would be held. However now, there was already a huge commotion, well-known figures from all clans arriving.

This was especially the case with some well-known experts in the Mortal Dao Domain, as well as some up-and-coming youngsters, the crowd thick and fast, drawn purely by the accomplishments of one person in the arena.

“It really is Pan Yi, he actually came out of seclusion, personally arriving!” Someone cried out in alarm, seeing this young man.

Primal Chaos Inn was full of charm and beauty, divine islands floating, full of giant mountains and towering trees. Divine waterfalls cascaded, immortal energy swirling about this place.

Pan Yi's skin was a bronze color, not all that handsome, but there was an intimidating heroic air to him. He was well built, his frame large and thick, had thick brows and big eyes, a pair of eyebrows reaching past his temples.

There were many people in the surroundings, the men handsome, the women pretty, skin fine white like jade, carrying an immortal dao feeling. Meanwhile, his bronze body and sturdy flesh looked completely different, as if a war god was standing tall here.

This was a powerful individual. Even though he was far away, Shi Ho could still sense that this person was extraordinary. Blood energy surged within his body like a sea, not a single trace leaking out.

A dormant true dragon, a lurking beast king, he gave off an incredibly powerful feeling!

Pan Yi was also watching Shi Hao, sizing him up seriously.

"I finally encountered a top level expert!"

This was Shi Hao's evaluation. Even though he stood at the peak of extreme dao, no opponents under true immortal level, he sensed a bit of danger.

This person was extremely strong, far exceeding the understanding of normal people!

Worthy of being known as one of Immortal Domain's greatest experts in the Mortal Dao Domain!

Shi Hao had already heard of Aocheng Immortal King's descendant Ao Gan, Pan King's descendant Pan Yi and others. They were precisely the unrivaled existences at the peak of Mortal Dao.

These people all had great aspirations, their auras devouring the universe, determined to become immortal kings!

"Pan Yi came, could it be that even he wishes to step on the stage?" Some people were moved, carrying hopeful looks. Who in this world didn't know Pan Yi? They all wished to see him take action.

It was because it had been a long time since he roamed the world, everyone wanted to see just how powerful he became.

In many people's eyes, becoming a true immortal was only a matter of time for him, it was just how he chose to continue. As long as he was willing, entering that domain wasn't an issue at all.

He was currently accumulating, establishing his immortal king foundation. Only when he established an imperishable dao foundation in the Mortal Dao Domain could he advance smoothly in the Immortal Dao Domain, having a chance of becoming a king figure.

"You are quite strong, different from how I imagined. Achieving the dao before five hundred years, it has shattered many people's beliefs, breaking the dust covered glorious record, something that will be remembered for ages to come."

Pan Yi spoke in secret, nodding towards Shi Hao.

Even in Immortal Domain, achieving the dao in five hundred years was extremely difficult, all of them happening in extremely ancient, most cruel times with relentless battles, blood and flames filling the skies.

It was rumored that several ancient immortal kings rose up precisely from that type of cruel age, but they still weren't the ones who achieved the dao early.

Unfortunately, the ones who achieved the dao early all died, killed in that bitter great age.

The immortal kings rose up through stepping on their corpses.

It wasn't that those who achieved the dao early could definitely laugh last, become unrivaled experts. At the very least, those immortal kings' dao achieving period wasn't that early.

Pan Yi was no less than five thousand years of age, his cultivation period not that short. He had already been a supreme being for many years, but the exact time was something no one knew.

This was a secret!

It was precisely like that young great one Ao Gan, when he achieved the dao a mystery. There were some who said he achieved the dao before a thousand years, others who said that it was before two thousand years.

"Bullying others like this, isn't it completely a one-sided battle?" Pan Yi said.

He had always been conversing with Shi Hao in secret, outsiders unaware of it. If they knew, they would definitely be terrified. Even the Pan Family generation suppressing heaven's pride attached such importance to Huang, would they still dare step up?

At this time, Shi Hao already won eighteen rounds in a row, defeating experts from all different sides, gathering a small mountain of immortal resources.

"There's no way, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths are too barren, entering a Cultivationless Age, spiritual essence sucked dry. My disciples don't have the resources to cultivate, having heaven warping talent for nothing, still unable to rush into the heavens, transform from fish into dragons." Shi Hao replied.

Of course, there was one other point, it was because some cultivators took the initiative to approach him with hostility, so he naturally wouldn't pass up this opportunity to slaughter fat sheep.

The inn's shopkeeper's brows were raised, continuously stroking them, carrying a pleased expression. Shi Hao collected a pile of immortal resources, Primal Chaos Inn naturally also had their share of the profits.

"How about the two of us exchange some pointers, we'll just bet a true immortal dwelling? What do you think? Of course, this is on the premise that it won't dry up even when brought into the lower realm, still can be used." Shi Hao secretly transmitted sound.

Pan Yi's long brows jumped. His appearance was extremely heroic. He looked at Shi Hao, revealing a faint smile, saying, "I indeed wish to exchange some pointers, but the old monsters back home warned me not to act too rashly, that there was an old friend who had given his greetings."

When Shi Hao heard this, he was moved. There was an old friend who spoke with Pan Family's old monsters? Who was this?

He immediately thought about the restricted region lord, crystal skull, golden arm bone and the bleeding eyeball he had on him. However, did they have this much prestige?

One had to understand that Pan King was an unmatched existence who overlooked Immortal Domain, looked over past, present, and future, one of the true most powerful creatures!

Perhaps the restricted region lord and the others had already greeted Pan Family and the others?

After all, the old monsters Pan Yi spoke of had unclear backgrounds, not necessarily Pan King himself.

"It is about time for you to stop as well, continuously bullying others like this won't do, Pan King City will become chaotic." Pan Yi warned.

This was their bottom line, they couldn't always watch him pretend to be a pig while eating tigers.

In reality, many people already realized that there was most likely something wrong with this fella, always fighting intensely no matter who it was against, yet he would instead win in the end. This wasn't normal.

"Alright, I'll carry out the few last ones, let me collect some more immortal dao resources." Shi Hao said.

Pan Yi didn't say anything, just watching him. He had never met such a scoundrel-like supreme being!

"Who dares fight with me? This will be the last five rounds, there won't be any more after this, Mortal Dao Domain, who is unmatched under the sky, wishing for a loss?!" Shi Hao shouted.

The expressions of the crowd weren't that great. They came from the boundless Immortal Domain, scattered across different regions, all the very best of various clans, yet they continuously suffered defeat today. There was actually no one who could win against this fella.

There were immediately quite a few people who looked towards Pan Yi, but in the end, he didn't move at all, not showing any intention of taking action.

"Pan Yi supreme being has long reached the point where he doesn't need to prove himself. Being unmatched in the Mortal Dao Domain, he is acknowledged by the world, it is beneath him to fight!" Someone said.

"Who is the one who dares speak randomly? Oh, cyan hair, it's you! Come here and fight, I can subdue you with one hand in under ten moves!" Shi Hao challenged.

That person was naturally provoked. This was too crazy! Ten moves, one handed? Did he think he was Pan Yi or Ao Family's young great one Ao Gan?

However, unfortunately, this cyan-haired youngster was struck until he bled from all seven apertures on the ninth move, his entire body convulsing, who knew how many bones broke. He laid flat on the arena, unable to move at all.

"Four more!" Shi Hao shouted.

Unfortunately, he was stopped before he could continue to the end. Pan Family really had a true immortal who appeared. He coldly swept his eyes over everyone, starting to clear this place up.

This type of gamble that didn't have any suspense, seriously disrupting the law and order of this region wasn't something they were willing to see.

This was especially when Huang came from the lower realm, so he'll definitely have some conflict with some families. Even Aocheng Immortal King's cultivators were dissatisfied with him, if this continued, there would be trouble.

"I never expected you to have entered Immortal Domain too, actually being able to see you again in this lifetime." Outside the arena, Princess Yao Yue said, looking at him in a daze.

His old friends were scattered across the vast Immortal Domain. Now, there were only a few people among them who had just entered Pan King City.

Right now, it was only Exiled Immortal, Princess Yao Yue and Great Xu Tuo who appeared. They were the first ones to arrive.

Great Xu Tuo sighed with admiration. No matter where Huang went, he wouldn't be a nobody. He had just arrived in Immortal Domain, yet he already stirred up such a great commotion!

"There's nothing that can be done, heaven is jealous of heroic geniuses!" Shi Hao said with a laugh.

"Did you enter Immortal Domain for Qing Yi?" Princess Yao Yue asked.

Shi Hao didn't respond, instead looking at them and saying, "You all didn't break into Supreme Being Realm yet?"

They all laughed bitterly, even Exiled Immortal was left speechless. Entering Supreme Being Realm with just a thousand years of cultivation, how was it that easy? Only those who experienced it knew just how difficult this path was!

"Do you think all of us are like you?" Princess Yao Yue rolled her eyes in annoyance.

Even though the five hundred year taboo line had been crossed, this didn't mean that they could achieve the dao once they passed this line!

"I have to tell you some bad news. Among all those who achieved the dao under a thousand years, not a single one was able to laugh to the end, none of them becoming an immortal king, all of them dead."

Great Xu Tuo, this honest and sincere person said.

"Why is that?"

"The time it takes to achieve the dao doesn't necessarily decide one's final achievements." Exiled Immortal told him.

"In the lower realm, I clearly heard that there were unrivaled immortal kings who became supreme beings before five hundred years." Shi Hao frowned.

“Those are all rumors. Pan King and Aocheng Immortal King, even though it is unknown which eras they came from, they have stated that they both achieved the dao after two thousand years!” Princess Yao Yue said.

“This slow?” Shi Hao was shocked.

The three of them became silent, not wanting to talk to him anymore!

Achieving the dao in two thousand years, was this still late?

Perhaps it was precisely because Aocheng Immortal King and Pan King were too powerful that the people of the world exaggerated their achievements, saying that they already became supreme beings after cultivating for a few decades.

However, the real situation wasn't like this! n)(OveLBIn

When old friends reunited, there were already many things to say, Shi Hao also wished to ask them about many things. However, before they had the time to catch up, he was invited away by Pan Family's people.

That old friend had already given his 'greetings', so Pan Family was responsible and diligent, wishing to ensure his safety. They really were scared that Aocheng Immortal King Family's young great one would come and look for trouble.

Shi Hao was rather unwilling, but in the end, he couldn't go against the will of an immortal king family, having been invited into a courtyard.

This was a rather grand cave dwelling, but compared to the true Pan Family ancestral land, it couldn't be compared at all.

Not long after Shi Hao left, Qing Yi hurried over. After a thousand years passed, her white clothes were purer than snow, style even greater than the past, carrying an otherworldly immortal dao feeling. She really was like a fairy.

Unfortunately, the Primal Chaos Arena was already cleared up. She came too late, not being able to meet Shi Hao.

Honglonglong!

A war chariot moved through the cosmos, appearing at the entrance of the city. Ao Family's young great one Ao Gan arrived, finding Qing Yi not long afterwards, staying with her.

Several days later, more and more people appeared in Pan King City, true immortals descending from time to time.

Then, this heaven and earth began to tremble. A rain of flowers scattered down from the cosmos, a Golden Crow rising, a True Phoenix danced about, golden lotuses taking root in the void.

Immortal kings descended!

This type of irregular scene happened continuously in these next few days. The dark universe was full of golden lotuses and great dao sounds, shaking up time.

During these days, this region was extremely pure and holy, swirling with primal chaos and a great dao aura.

Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting happened a day later.

Shi Hao was finally 'invited out', not trapped within the courtyard. He was going to Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting.

Chapter 1895 - Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting

Pan King City was massive, built on a primitive ancient continent, it now already floated along the cosmos for who knew how many great eras.

It was at the center of this cosmos, surrounded by heavenly stars.

Today, in this sea of cosmos, golden lotuses appeared one after another everywhere, filling the cosmos, lighting up the darkness. The endless territories in the heavens all released rumbling noises, great dao scriptures rising and falling.

The Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting began, located at the heart of the city, also the heart of this starry sea, the place where immortal energy was the richest.

It was called a manor, but it was just too vast. It's main entrance seemed like it was forged from archaic immortal mountains, imposing and majestic. Strands of immortal mist were released, coming from undying matter.

Shi Hao stood in front of a pair of large gates, becoming speechless. He stared at it continuously, really wanting to just bring it away with him!

"Why are you stopping?" Zi Kun asked.

Bai Ze frowned. They were responsible for escorting Shi Hao together with Pan Family's people but this fella really was worrisome, always causing all types of trouble.

"I am thinking that this Pan King Manor is too luxurious, these are basically a pair of imposing archaic immortal mountains! They're towering here just like this, treated like an entrance, they'd be better off being brought back by me and used as a cave dwelling!" Shi Hao said.

Bai Ze's face immediately fell. This fella was trying to cause trouble again! He really was scared badly, was there going to be even more of a disturbance produced?!

Sure enough, on the side, Pan Family's faces darkened, their expressions unkind, carrying doubt. They stared at him with serious expressions.

"I'm warning you, today, there are true immortals attending the meeting, immortal kings who will descend, this is something that hasn't happened in Immortal Domain for many years. You better not start up trouble." Bai Ze warned.

He felt like he really shouldn't have guided this disaster into Immortal Domain. Wasn't this just giving themselves a headache? Fortunately, they were almost at their destination, soon, it would have nothing to do with them.

“Little bro, where was this Pan King Manor mountain moved over from, are there any left?” Shi Hao asked the people at his side.

Little bro? That person rolled his eyes. “I’ve cultivated for a hundred and eighty thousand years!”

“Old sir, I am serious. Where was this mountain dug out from?” Shi Hao asked.

“Hurry and continue forward!” Zi Kun and Bai Ze pushed him forward, heading into the mountain gate.

The steps were ancient in appearance, releasing hazy chaotic light. While walking on them, one could hear waves of great dao sounds, making them feel as if they were about to enter a state of dao comprehension.

“I sort of don’t want to leave anymore!”

Shi Hao said. He wanted to squat down and dig up the stone tiles.

Zi Kun coughed, at the same time glaring at him, secretly reminding him that the bricks here had been soaked in the blood of undying kings, that he couldn’t act recklessly here!

These mountain stones that were used to lay the ground came from a king level battlefield.

Those areas were places where undying kings and immortal kings had fought decisively, flowing with unmatched ancestral blood. These bricks all had spirit, any one of them a treasure that could be refined into weapons.

“This is simply wasting heavenly treasures!” Shi Hao sighed.

He had no choice but to sigh inwardly, thinking that this manor was too extraordinary, more astonishing sights appearing with each step. Wherever he went, there were extremely precious materials that released great dao auras.

“Wait!” Shi Hao suddenly stopped. He stared at a flower bed, his eyes widening.

“What is it?” Bai Ze and the others really were scared of him starting something.

“Why do I feel like the stuff planted in the flowerbed are all divine medicines?” Shi Hao was suspicious. Even though this place wasn’t that large, it could still hold a few dozen stalks.

Every single one was sparkling and translucent, releasing a rare fragrance that refreshed the mind. Just taking in a single breath would make one feel as if they were ascending to immortality.

“Correct, they are all divine medicines.” Pan Family’s people said expressionlessly.

“This... is just too extravagant, right?!” Shi Hao was shocked. He really wanted to say, “Do you all want to be struck by heavenly lightning?!” Even this type of divine medicines were actually planted by the mountain gate.

“What is so special about this? The medicine field in Pan King Manor’s depths has more than one stalk of long life medicine!” Zi Kun said quietly, at the same time warning him not to speak randomly.

Pan Family’s people were extremely calm, giving him a glance, not saying anything, as if it was beneath them to pay attention to this shock at the divine medicines here.

“Since you all are going to squander them away like this, then I won’t be too polite!” Shi Hao said. He rubbed his hands. His movements were extremely fast, Zi Kun unable to stop him even if he wanted to.

With two bo bo sounds, he directly picked two stalks of divine medicine, pulling them out just like that.

The two stalks of divine medicines had already developed sentience. Under the nourishment of undying goods, they grew extremely well. They screamed out in alarm. This wasn’t the lower realm that experienced a Cultivationless Age, they would never degenerate here.

The eyebrows of Pan Family’s people stood on end!

“I apologize, I only wanted to pick two flowers, who would have thought that the roots would also come out.” Shi Hao’s movements were swift. With two pu pu sounds, he snipped off two flowers, and then stored the roots into spatial magical artifacts.

“You... what are you doing?!” Bai Ze’s face turned green, berating with a low voice.

“Aren’t these just flowers to admire? I feel happy when I see them, wish to use them to comprehend the dao. Look, this is the svelte bearing of supreme being admiring flowers!”

Shi Hao spoke, as if he was a buddha clasping a flower while smiling.

Bai Ze and Zi Kun, the two of them were completely stupefied.

“Pan King Manor really is great, treating divine medicines as flowers, it’s really normal. The two of you shouldn’t make a fuss about nothing like bumpkins, it really is too embarrassing!” Shi Hao criticized them.

Bai Ze: I # ¥ % & % & .....

Zi Kun: @ # ¥ # ¥ .....

The two of them wanted to swear out loud. Who was the one making a fuss about nothing, not understanding tradition?

Pan Family’s people also became a bit stunned. Why was this youngster so weird? They never met such a vicious kid before!

In their eyes, this was indeed still a brat, because they had long cultivated for more than a hundred thousand years. They lived for an extremely long amount of time.

The one who was watching over things was not far away. He walked over, his expression calm. “It’s fine, esteemed guest, please head inside, but please do not stir up any more trouble.”

He was extremely calm, not producing a stance like Pan King Manor was a cut above. However, even though this was advice, there was still a bit of warning intent, that this was not to be repeated.

Shi Hao naturally picked up on this, cupping his fists and laughing. n)(0veLBIn

For the rest of the journey, Bai Ze and Zi Kun were both alarmed. Even though Shi Hao didn’t move his hands, he still didn’t stop his random commentary at all.

“What? The steles on the side of the road were left behind by Without End Immortal King? I was about to say, time fragments are dancing about, containing the great dao of time. By sitting here and cultivating, the benefits are tremendous. Sigh, I previously saw the immortal bell’s ruined immortal body that was left behind after Without End died, but it vanished without a trace after so many years. I won’t hope for this stele, but that bell, I absolutely must obtain it.”

Along the way, there were inscribed cliffs and steles. If they weren’t left behind by well-known true immortal old ancestors, then they were personally inscribed by immortal kings, truly all priceless.

Shi Hao gnawed his teeth. When could he build a manor like this, any random rock a divine object, having extraordinary background?

Bai Ze and Zi Kun were trembling with fear. They were both practically sticking to Shi Hao, watching him, one from the left, one from the right, scared that he might do something, ready to stop him at a moment’s notice.

“Were you two both crabs in your previous lives or something? Why are you always bumping into me? It’s not like you guys are cute fairies, stop touching me all the time, just stay off to the side!” Shi Hao was annoyed.

These two really experienced unspeakable suffering. They cursed inwardly, extremely scared and on edge along the way, fearing that he might commit more crimes.

Finally, they followed a cobblestone road, arriving at Immortal Peach Garden. The stones on the ground released immortal energy, the fruit trees on the sides of the road sparkling and resplendent, the fruit fragrance rich.

Shi Hao clearly sensed that they were different, that what they saw along the way were divine objects.

“Is there a need to be like this?” He muttered quietly.

Zi Kun couldn’t help but quietly warn, “It is rumored that the entire Pan King Manor is a supreme treasure called Universe Mountains and Rivers Imprint, an immortal king weapon. That is why every tree and stalk of grass, every brick and stone is an immortal material.”

Shi Hao was stunned, and then he woke up. He surveyed the entire official residence, and sure enough, the scene was extraordinary. This was actually an immortal king supreme weapon!

No wonder there were Without End Immortal King’s steles and other things, they were left behind after helping Pan King refine a weapon.

Immortal Peach Garden was extremely large, guests coming and going, this place full of activity.

There weren’t any ordinary individuals among those who came and went, all of them powerful individuals. They were either heaven warping geniuses or rare good saplings.

Normal cultivators didn’t have the qualifications to participate in this distinguished meeting.

Immortal Peach Trees rested there one after another, some blossoming with pink flowers, fallen flowers scattering and flying around like snowflakes, carrying a rain of light, extremely beautiful.

Meanwhile, some of the Immortal Peach Trees had upright and strong trunks, like winding dragons, already bearing fruit. The peaches were bright red, releasing scarlet multicolored light, carrying divine brilliance, their sweet fragrance wafting about.

The guests of the distinguished meeting sat on the meadow under the trees, jade tables arranged before them, fine liquor and delicacies already arranged. White mist rose in spirals around this place; this was a true immortal paradise.

Shi Hao was guided to his seat. He sat behind a jade table, and then began to examine the surrounding scenery.

"Are these immortal peaches all immortal medicines?" Shi Hao asked.

"No, only the mother stalk is. The fruits that are produced are the most precious long life undying medicines, able to allow one to ascend to immortality in broad daylight, their value immeasurable!" Bai Zi said in admiration.

The other Immortal Peach Trees were all grown from the fruit cores of the mother stalk. Even though they didn't have that level of divine effects, the fruits they produced would also carry strong undying matter, similarly rare great medicines.

In the distance, a beautiful pair walked over, entering Immortal Peach Garden. The male was handsome, full of imposing appearance, his presence like that of a dragon, having the aptitude of a cultivation monarch! The woman's white clothes were purer than snow, style exceptional, her figure enchanting as it rocked back and forth. The two slowly walked around this Immortal Peach Garden, looking like daoist immortal companions.

"Qing Yi!" Shi Hao called out.

At this moment, Bai Ze and Zi Kun were both shocked. It was because they saw that Huang's temperament changed, becoming completely different from before.

He was no longer smiling mischievously, instead sitting there, exuding a naturally imposing manner, comparable to the young great one Ao Gan and Pan Family's heaven warping figure Pan Yi, not inferior in any way. The three of them all had that type of unmatched bearing.

The ones next to Shi Hao, even though their cultivations were also quite high, couldn't help but shiver, their souls trembling. They rose up, not daring to stay close.

"Shi Hao!"

Qing Yi released a light cry, her graceful bearing exceptional. Her beautiful face carried a stirred expression, eyes blurred, carrying a bit of mist. She quickly rushed over.

One separation and a thousand years passed. Back then, for the sake of immortal dao, she firmly decided to step into Immortal Domain. She originally thought that she might never see this person again in this life, but who would have thought that a thousand years later, they still reunited!

Shi Hao already got up.

Qing Yi arrived, looking at this youngster in a daze. He was still like before, but he seemed even more steady than before, exuding a natural presence, having a type of world subduing boldness.

Bai Ze and Zi Kun inwardly cried out. It was because the current Huang was completely different than the one they saw before.

“Qing Yi, is this your friend? Please introduce him to me.” Ao Gan walked over. As Ao Family’s young great one, every movement he made drew attention, all clans’ eyes on him.

“He is Huang!” Qing Yi said.

“Oh? So it is you. You seem quite brave, really daring to enter Immortal Domain.” Ao Gan’s hands were behind his back, on his head a purple-gold crown. His appearance was outstanding, his bearing extraordinary, having a type of ‘I am supreme’ feeling.

He was a leading figure among supreme beings. His presence was naturally imposing. Right now, he examined Shi Hao.

“You are also quite brave!” Shi Hao said calmly.

Then, he pulled Qing Yi over, having her stand at his side. He turned around, and in a calm and unhurried manner, he looked at Ao Gan and said, “The All Dao Tree was taken by me, Qing Yi is my woman, can’t accept it? Then come and fight!”

No one expected him to be this direct, intimidating Ao Family’s young great one!

Shi Hao sensed the other party’s hostility. He didn’t want to waste any time, if he couldn’t accept it, then they would fight, who was scared of who?!

Chapter 1896 - Ao Gan

Inside Immortal Peach Garden, many people were shocked, cultivators from all clans raising eyebrows, watching this region.

Huang confronted Ao Family’s young great one, there might be a battle!

How many individuals dared face Ao Gan in the Mortal Dao Domain? During these years, he had remained unstoppable among cultivators under the true immortal level, invincible, difficult for him to meet his match.

“Heh, you have quite the boldness, rather courageous. I’ve heard what you’ve had to say.” Ao Gan had his hands behind his back, completely calm, a faint smile on his face. When faced with this challenge, he was unperturbed.

His armor was a light golden color, as if a war emperor stood there, extremely heroic and valiant!

“However, you are also a bit too arrogant. What kind of place is this? It is the Pan King Manor. Daring to speak to me like this, do you believe that with just an order, I can make your head tumble?!”

Ao Gan’s words were cold, carrying faint killing intent!

“Do you think this is Ao Family’s backyard, that by relying on your immortal king ancestor, you can point fingers and order people around, rule all under the sky?” Shi Hao opposed with equal harshness.

His face was delicate and pretty, but at this moment, it became serious. Moreover, there was a great might being exuded, a type of emperor aura spreading. This was the aura of an unrivaled supreme being.

“You are unbridled!” Ao Gan shouted.

His figure was tall and sturdy, his face heroic, long hair scattering down. His eyes were deep, extremely heroic, style outstanding. In addition, there was a type of powerful confidence.

“You are courting death!” Shi Hao also berated at the same time.

An indescribable domain formed around the two of them, forming a storm, making the sparkling peach blossoms that scattered down rise up into the air again, filling the skies, the fragrance assailing the nostrils.

This looked beautiful, but it was extremely dangerous. It was the release of a type of domain, seriously distorting the void, making this place turn into a stormy region.

Any living things that rashly entered might be crushed to powder!

Right now, they were in a state of equilibrium. Once it was broken, there would be a huge disaster. The faces of the cultivators in the surroundings all changed, quickly backing up.

Many people’s attention was drawn here, this place momentarily becoming silent.

Bai Ze and Zi Kun momentarily didn’t dare walk up to give advice, feeling restraining fear towards that Ao Gan. They originally guided Shi Hao in precisely through this clan’s true immortal’s orders.

However, later on, Pan Family also got involved.

“Release Qing Yi, let her come here!” Ao Gan said, his gaze fierce like two immortal swords, releasing streaks of sword radiance, intimidating to the extreme.

One could see that there really was sword radiance swirling within his eyes.

“Who do you think you are? Even someone like you can order me?” Shi Hao looked at him coldly in disdain.

Qing Yi’s gaze was gentle. She stood at Shi Hao’s side, currently turning her head to look at him. After a thousand years, they could still meet again, this made her emotions rise and fall greatly.

Then, she looked forward, saying, “Ao...”

Ao Gan’s expression was calm. The way he looked at Qing Yi and at Shi Hao was completely different, quietly interrupting her. “There is no need to explain, just wait a bit!”

His eyes became like sword edges again, staring at Shi Hao and saying, “This is something between me and you, don’t let Qing Yi get involved!”

“What need is there to say so much? If you are unconvinced, then just fight!” Shi Hao still just had this line.

In the surroundings, many people revealed shocked expressions. The first reason was that they were shocked at how unyielding this lower realm Huang was, daring to fight Ao Gan, the second was the relationship between them.

Many cultivators looked towards Qing Yi, it was precisely this woman who moved Ao Family young great one’s heart. Just what was so extraordinary about her?

Many people nodded, feeling like this white-clothed woman was indeed extremely pretty, to the point where they had nothing to say. Her style was exceptional, beautiful and otherworldly, rarely seen in this world.

However, those who truly understood the inner details weren’t many, only a small portion of people knowing them.

It was rumored that this female cultivator named Qing Yi was extremely special, suspected to be a reincarnated ancient true immortal, moreover the shockingly famous Qing Yue.[1]

This was extremely shocking. Even now, there was no proof that a person could reincarnate, once one was dead, they would be dead, how could one come back to life?

However, Fairy Qing Yue was different. Before dying, she left behind a wow, saying that she would return to this secular world, that she would appear again.

Qing Yi’s appearance made this legend a reality. Behind her was a green moon, releasing that true immortal’s aura.

Ao Family had true immortals who were alive in those times and even met Fairy Qing Yue. They were confident that this green moon was the same as the one from back then.

This left Ao Family greatly shaken. Could it be that after the body and spirit disappeared, reincarnation was still possible, that one could still appear again in this world?

In the eyes of an immortal king family, Qing Yi’s value was too great.

In the past, Fairy Qing Yue was one of the very best among true immortals, not far from Immortal King Realm. If it really was her reincarnating, then it was simply unimaginable.

Some people believed that if she defied the heavens and returned, she will definitely achieve immortal king status in this world!

The greatest value was that others could use this as reference. If they could walk this path of reincarnation, then for the entire cultivation world, for the entire history of cultivation, this was truly shocking!

How could normal people draw Ao Gan’s interest? However, Qing Yi was surrounded by a mysterious veil, which was why he was immediately drawn towards her.

Ao Gan was moved, really wishing to personally move this veil aside!

“Great one, he doesn’t have the qualifications to take action against your respected self. Let us!”

Two people walked out from behind Ao Gan, one male one female. The male was heroic and tall, the female beautiful, both of them with exceptional temperaments, his followers. They were both extremely strong.

“Are fights permitted here?” Shi Hao asked Pan Family’s people.

“We’ll treat it as livening things up, demonstrating some divine abilities.” Pan Yi walked over, laughing loudly.

If it wasn’t him, the others from Pan Family really didn’t dare respond.

“Wait for me.” Shi Hao had Qing Yi back up. He faced Ao Gan and the two at his side alone. “You three can just come at me together.”

When these words sounded, everyone became shocked. This Huang really wasn’t just a normal level of arrogant, completely facing Ao Gan, purposely opposing him.

In the distant true immortal regions, there were others who heard about the disturbance. They began to ask about what exactly was going on.

“Unruly person, accept punishment!” The male and female at Ao Gan’s sides shouted out, taking a step forward, both of them wishing to take action first.

“That’s fine, you two can come at me together!” Shi Hao’s gaze was penetrating. With a raise of his hands, the sun, moon and stars swirled about his palm and fingers, thunder crashing down streak after streak.

He could tell these two were quite strong, those who could follow at Ao Gan’s sides were naturally outstanding. They were part of the very best among supreme beings, the two experts cultivating for hundreds of thousands of years already. Their cultivation levels were terrifyingly high.

Honglong!

Sure enough, when the two took action, the great dao rumbled, terrifying beyond compare.

Unfortunately, this was a battle Shi Hao wanted to use to establish his dominance, he wouldn’t give them a chance. He concentrated his essence energy with a single move, dao skill erupting to the extreme.

It could be said that his current attack wasn’t much different from a great clash of over a thousand moves. He was going to decide victory and defeat with this single move, deciding life and death.

Victory was victory, defeat was defeat, there were no other choices.

Dong!

The void exploded. Fortunately, this was Pan King Manor, the surface not moving at all. The Immortal Peach Trees were undamaged because this entire manor was a supreme treasure, refined by an immortal king, there was no way it would be damaged.

In that instant, lightning surged like a sea, forming stars one after another, deriving a cosmos starry river.

The most terrifying thing was that there was a Kun Peng that spread its wings in the sea of lightning, a massive willow tree had taken root at the heart of the universe, deriving unmatched methods.

“Yi, Lightning Emperor’s inheritance, Kun Peng’s great methods, also... the divine ability of that realm’s guardian spirit!” Someone cried out in alarm.

There were quite a few people who were moved. Not a single one of these three great inheritances were simple, all of them extremely strong and mysterious.

With just one move, three great divine abilities were merged, appearing in a lightning cosmos, pouring outwards.

Pu!

The male and female’s secret methods that were displayed were all scattered. Meanwhile, they themselves even more so trembled fiercely, their entire bodies contorting, all of the body protecting symbols erased.

The two of them coughed out large mouthfuls of blood, directly tumbling backwards. All of the bones in their bodies continuously cracked, almost turning into two blasts of bloody mist.

“It won’t be too good to take lives in the Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting, so I’ll leave you two with your lives.” Shi Hao calmly said.

This immediately triggered a great wave of alarm. Many people were shocked. This Huang from the lower realm was actually this strong, not even Ao Gan’s followers his match.

“Prince Ao, thank you for accompanying me along the way.” Qing Yi’s red lips opened, before waiting for Ao Gan to speak, she continued, “Please do not trouble Huang, he is precisely the one I was waiting for.”

When these words sounded, it immediately made everyone erupt into commotion.

This was Aocheng Immortal King Clan’s young great one, absolutely stunning, able to sweep through all opponents in his path, having the aptitude to be unrivaled in the Mortal Dao Domain, one of the most dazzling prides of heaven.

This woman actually rejected him, choosing Huang from the lower realm?

No matter how strong Huang was, there was no way he could compare to Aocheng. This clan had true immortals, an unrivaled immortal king, too powerful. If his seniors seriously gave him guidance, he would achieve immortality even faster.

This was a seed with the potential to become an immortal king. His entire existence was dazzling, a divine halo around him, drawing the attention of all clans. Many immortal dao families wanted to be related to him in marriage, yet couldn’t.

However, this woman actually turned down Ao Gan just like that.

The disturbance here already startled the people higher up, true immortals getting involved. After all, there were even several immortal kings who came, so they couldn't permit trouble to begin.

"If you are a man, then don't depend on a woman to speak for you. If you can take three moves from me, then I admit that you have the qualifications to issue a true challenge against me." Ao Gan said.

He pressed forward step by step, about to personally take action. It was because he knew he didn't have much time left, there would be interference from higher up soon, so he needed to end things quickly.

"Stop wasting time, I already took action!" Shi Hao said, giving those two on the ground a look.

Soon afterwards, the male and female pair were supported by others. Their injuries were too serious, even their souls already cracked, treating them wasn't going to be easy.

"Three moves, let's see if you can take them!" Ao Gan said coldly. Then, he raised a palm.

"It really is troublesome. What if I accidentally kill you?" Shi Hao was even more domineering, speaking like this.

In the surroundings, everyone was alarmed. These two were going to go all out in three moves, deciding victory and defeat like that.

"Kill!"

Ao Gan released a shout. The hand that was raised changed unpredictably, his palm releasing chaotic light, just too terrifying, drowning out this place.

Shi Hao released a light shout, forming a fist imprint, facing him head-on. In that instant, the great dao rippled between heaven and earth, chaotic radiance and immortal energy completely surrounding the two of them.

Magical force surged intensely, the void ripped apart by natural laws, just too terrifying, outsiders couldn't see it clearly, unable to see through it.

They were all supreme beings, yet the others trembled!

That terrifying aura intimidated one down to their very soul, making them feel like bowing down, impossible to stop.

With a peng sound, the ground swayed gently. The two separated, chaotic radiance and immortal energy all scattering, revealing their true bodies.

Ao Gan turned around and left, releasing a snort. "I'll consider you passing, having the right to challenge me!"

When everyone heard this, all of them were shocked. Huang was actually that strong?

"Stop trying to show off, don't endure it anymore. If you don't release that mouthful of blood, you'll have internal injuries!" Shi Hao said coldly.

Everyone immediately became horrified. This... was it true?

With a shua sound, Pan Yi walked up like a ghost, arriving at Ao Gan's side, striking towards his lower back.

"What are you doing, do you want to fight against me too?" Ao Gan shouted, suddenly turning around.

"I want to see if you do have any extravasated blood, help you examine your body!" Pan Yi said.

Chapter 1897 - Like an Emperor's Descent Upon the Earth

Ao Gan was injured, was this real? Just how terrifying of a matter was this?!

The people here all didn't really believe it. If Ao Gan was defeated, then wouldn't that mean that this Huang from the lower realm really had the strength to look down on all under the Immortal Dao level?

This type of thing really was hard for them to accept. Ao Gan had world devouring ambitions, unrivaled in the Mortal Dao Domain, coming from an immortal king family, having this type of confidence.

However, Huang came from a dilapidated world, the great dao there not complete, and it even entered a Cultivationless Age. If he could become unrivaled even under these conditions, then it really was unimaginable.

Peng!

Ao Gan exchanged a palm strike, and then backed up, saying, "If you want to face me, I don't mind! Find a suitable place and we can fight to the death!"

"False!" Pan Yi only had this word, saying this to Ao Gan secretly.

Then, he gave up, not taking action anymore, letting Ao Gan face him coldly.

Many people released a breath of relief. They really were scared that Ao Gan was wounded, struck until a mouthful of blood came out.

Of course, there were some who felt regret. These people really wanted to clearly see if Ao Gan was injured. If there really was a mouthful of blood that came out, then that really would be quite the play to watch.

Ao Gan didn't say anything else, turning around and leaving.

"Huang, I reckon you miscalculated. Just now, I exchanged a palm with him, but it didn't force him into vomiting blood." Pan Yi transmitted sound, a bit dissatisfied.

"He is forcefully enduring it. If you exchange a few more strikes with him, attacking with full power, I guarantee that he won't be able to hide the truth."

Hong!

Suddenly, Pan Yi moved, rushing out like a human form dragon, too fast, attacking like thunder.

"You dare!" Ao Gan was startled and furious. He understood Pan Yi's power well, but at the same time didn't expect him to be that domineering, daring to face him to the end.

Dong!

The heavens fell and earth split. Pan Yi released a heavy move, displaying a great divine ability.

Pu!

Blood spilled out from the corners of Ao Gan's lips, glaring out and saying, "You dare attack me in secret?!"

Everyone was greatly alarmed. It was because there really was blood in Ao Gan's mouth. Was he injured by Pan Yi?

"Haha..." Pan Yi roared with laughter. "I've confirmed that what Huang said wasn't incorrect. You've already been injured, just holding back a mouthful of blood."

When everyone heard this, they all revealed expressions of shock!

There were some who almost cried out in alarm. This news was just too shocking! Just now, under three strikes, Ao Family's young great one was injured?

"You dare attack me from behind, moreover humiliate me in this way." Ao Gan said coldly.

When he spoke up to here, his body shook. The light golden armor behind him broke apart, a fist imprint clearly visible.

Pan Yi shook his head. "At our cultivation level, who can sneak attack the other? Forget it, since you want to find a way out of your embarrassing situation, I won't say any more either."

He turned around and left, not saying anything.

However, this was precisely the reason why Ao Gan's expression was ashen. He suddenly turned around, looking at Shi Hao and saying, "Soon, I will fight a true battle against you. As for who is weak and who is strong, the results will become apparent!"

He turned around and left. This place immediately became quiet.

This place was completely silent, everyone was shocked, digesting what they just saw.

These weren't ordinary people, all experts. Half of them believed that Ao Gan lost to Huang, at the very least making him suffer a bit of a loss under three strikes.

This was truly shocking news. This was Ao Family's young great one, someone unstoppable, sweeping through all opponents, never suffering a defeat. However, today, he was actually injured by Huang?

Great Xu Tuo and Princess Yao Yue saw the truth behind this, they couldn't help but suck in a cold breath. This was precisely Huang. In the lower realm, he produced clouds with one turn of the hand and rain with another, now, after he arrived in Immortal Domain, he could still look down on all clans! Today, he even defeated Ao Family's young great one, he was formidable after all!

There was even less of a need to talk about the others. They came from Immortal Domain's various great clans, never believing that the cultivators from that ruined world could challenge them.

Now, this Huang's shocking accomplishments were right before their eyes!

Of course, there were some who didn't believe Ao Gan lost, but rather believed this to be the result of Pan Yi's methods. These people carried hostility towards Shi Hao, waiting for the true battle that would happen soon.

Immortal Peach Garden was extremely large, and also extremely beautiful. The leaves were sparkling green, peach blossoms pink, scattering about, the bright red fruits overflowing with fruit fragrance.

The guests of different regions were different, there was a true immortal region and a Mortal Dao cultivators region, so the fruits that were offered were also different.

At the highest point, which was also Pan Family's immortal king dwelling, several immortal kings personally came. They remained quiet, none of them saying anything. Chaotic energy was hazy in that place, covering their bodies.

Meanwhile, on the jade table before them, were true Immortal Peach Tree immortal medicines.

Long life tree, undying immortal peach immortal medicine, there was only that single mother tree. The fruits that were produced contained rich immortal dao essence, this was especially true when it was personally nurtured by Pan King. It was planted in a place of natural luck, containing great dao fragments!

This type of fruit, with just a single one, as long as a normal person ate it, they could ascend to immortality!

"Ancestral guardian spirit's inheritor?" Right at this time, an immortal king spoke, as if he lived since millions and millions of years ago. His voice lacked the slightest trace of emotion, his entire figure ancient, covered in primal chaos.

He was like a stone statue, as he spoke, there really wasn't the slightest ripple, not moving at all.

The others were all like this, as if they towered there since endless years ago. They received the worship of the world's people, enjoyed the incense burning of great eras.

"Your families have searched back then, that ancestral guardian spirit was undergoing rebirth, but I heard you all killed it with lightning, leaving behind karma." Pan King said.

His words were resounding. Even though he was also like a fossil, his tone rang like blades, carrying a powerful feeling of strength.

"In the past, we only wished to bring it into Immortal Domain, perhaps there's a misunderstanding. It tore apart the lightning and left, most likely falling into the abandoned land."

"The abandoned land is precisely that cage, right? Huang was born precisely there, seems like he was raised by that ancestral guardian spirit, no wonder." Someone nodded.

If Shi Hao was here among them, he would definitely be shocked. They were currently discussing Willow Deity's secrets, precisely the reason why he landed in Stone Village back then.

The endless lightning and the unmatched laws caused the destruction of Willow Deity's body, only leaving behind a ruined root. This was actually because of some immortal kings.

This was precisely the reason why Willow Deity started over from the beginning.

Rebirth from a dying state, how could it be that easy? Willow Deity paid a tremendous price, forgetting many things.

“Bring Huang over, I want to investigate that ancestral guardian spirit’s whereabouts.” An immortal king spoke.

“There was an old friend who has spoken, and I have promised to ensure his safety.” Pan King said without any expressions.

This place became silent. Several great immortal kings all began to think to themselves.

They were the highest existences, the rulers of Immortal Domain, able to instantly guess at some changes in karma.

“There was a ruined soul who still hadn’t scattered, having you return a favor?” Aocheng Immortal King asked.

“I cannot talk about it.” Pan King shook his head.

“Aocheng, since you displayed lightning before, attacking that ancestral guardian spirit, how about your descendant sizes up Huang today, use him to reveal the one behind him?” An immortal king said coldly.

“You all are not allowed to act recklessly!” Pan King said with a heavy voice.

“It is merely an exchange of pointers between the younger generation.” That person said.

This place immediately became silent, no one speaking up anymore. Primal chaos surged, several figures on the praying mat becoming hazy, coexisting with the world, eternally inextinguishable.

Not long afterwards, Immortal Peach Garden was shaken. A true immortal appeared, asking about the disturbance from before.

When he heard about what happened, what no one expected was that the true immortal ordered people to construct a platform. Stones were piled, divine pillars serving as railings, creating an arena.

“Since this is a distinguished gathering, you all will be given a chance. This will be a struggle between dragons and tigers of the Mortal Dao. Whoever wins will be rewarded with an undying immortal peach medicine. Upon ingestion, it would instantly grant immortality!”

This was something said by an ancient true immortal, an old ancestor of Pan Family, his position second only to Pan King.

Everyone became shocked. They were actually bestowing an undying immortal peach medicine?

How could they not be shocked? This immortal peach was a bit different from other undying medicines. It was rumored that Pan King might have become an imperishable immortal king precisely because of the Immortal Peach Tree.

The true peach tree’s fruit contained unmatched great dao fragments, the value unimaginable!

It was to the extent where some people speculated that this was precisely how Pan King achieved the dao originally.

Cultivators at the Mortal Dao level were originally arranged to meet in the outer areas of the Immortal Peach Garden, but now, they were brought into the forest depths, entering the true immortals region.

The arena was massive, resembling a field, releasing immortal energy. This was a stage refined by true immortals, so there was no need to worry about its destruction.

Many people couldn't sit still, erupting with noise. Cultivators of the Mortal Dao Domain rushed over.

Quite a few people were eager to give it a try, but then, they endured it. It was because Pan Yi and Ao Gan were here, and there were also other heaven warping figures present here. Who were their opponents?

Ao Gan appeared, the first one to step on the stage!

His hair was thick, extremely heroic, his armor flowing with dazzling splendor, as if he was a king looking down on the people, possessing an intimidating aura.

There were strands of primal chaos energy that spilled out from his body. He cultivated an immortal king scripture, his dao skills long reaching the pinnacle of Supreme Being Realm.

Ao Gan stepped on the stage, making the others' hearts immediately become cold. How were they even supposed to fight?

"Huang, do you dare fight?!" Ao Gan shouted.

Ao Family's people revealed startled expressions, especially those who had visited the Realm Grave, all of them clenching their fists. They really wanted to see Ao Gan take action, personally subdue Huang.

"When my older brother takes action, who can face him?!" Ao Kun said. He still didn't know that not long ago, his older brother had fought Huang, a bit behind on the news.

It was because some people from this clan had just hurried over.

"Why would I be scared of you?!" Shi Hao leapt out, rising like a True Dragon, entering the stage.

In the distance, Shi Yi, Little Sky King, Lan Xian and the others all came, just in time to see this scene. They were all extremely shocked.

"This fella, I originally thought that he would just wither away of old age in the lower realm. It seems like no matter what age it is, he wouldn't be satisfied with mediocrity!" Little Sky King said quietly.

"He has just entered Immortal Domain, yet he already produced such a great disturbance! Worthy of being Huang who killed Emperor Clans in Desolate Border!" Lan Xian said with a sigh.

"Huang, I will let you witness a true immortal king Inheritance. Today, I will subdue you in front of everyone!" Ao Gan said coldly.

"I will let you witness the inheritance I've created, my own methods and dao!" Shi Hao's voice wasn't loud, but it immediately left many people speechless.

Ao Gan stared blankly, and then he sneered. "Too egotistical and arrogant!"

A lower realm cultivator created a method? He dared compare it to an immortal king inheritance? It was nothing more than boasting words, he didn't acknowledge it at all.

"You've tried to enter Void God Realm again and again, plotting against the Darkness Prison, stopped by me several times, today, let's settle everything." Shi Hao glared at him.

"Ruining my great plans, today, I will not forgive you!" Ao Gan said coldly. He sent out people several times, but in the end, they either returned in low spirits or disappeared without any messages.

Shi Hao's face was ice-cold. He didn't have any good impressions towards this person, deciding to take action severely.

"Many years ago, my ancestor headed into the ruined world with an immortal king, capturing that ancestral guardian spirit, I reckon he is your master, right? Today, we can have an exchange too!" Ao Gan said secretly.

"What did you say?!" Shi Hao's eyes immediately widened.

This matter was something Ao Gan had just heard about. Their clan's true immortal personally informed him, telling him that he was only permitted to win, defeat was not allowed.

Shi Hao's eyes were fierce. Willow Deity's background, the reason why he suffered a great disaster back then, everything has always been a mystery. Now, he finally learned part of the truth.

"Huang, today, I will subdue you!" Ao Gan took action. Radiance erupted between his palms and fingers, filling the skies with divine brilliance, scripture sounds everywhere.

He erupted with killing intent, displaying Ao Family's immortal king scripture.

Aocheng Immortal King, the 'cheng' character represented radiance, vigorous meanings. His scripture was also derived precisely from this, absolutely dazzling, radiance lightning up mountains and rivers.

"Sword wings of radiance, attach eternally to my body!"

Ao Gan roared, his body surging with immortal mist. Every pore on his body released sword energy, turning into feather-like sword wings, and then he rushed murderously at Shi Hao.

This was too terrifying, his entire body like sword wings of light, unstoppable, even his hair like this. His entire body was filled with exceptional sword radiance, attacking Shi Hao murderously.

Hong!

Shi Hao displayed his own method, body as a seed. His Sea of Reincarnation shone, yin yang diagram forming in his abdomen, spreading out, surrounding his entire body.

Right now, he was impervious to all methods, a divine ring surrounding his body!

Kill!

He released a light shout, his limbs unfolding, as if they were the four extremes of heaven and earth, making even heaven and earth tremble, dominating the Mortal Dao Domain!

Hong!

The two clashed intensely, fighting at close quarters.

This time, Ao Gan learned his lesson, not fighting Shi Hao head-on to the death and clashing recklessly. Previously, he already suffered a great loss.

Aocheng Immortal King's inheritance paid attention to the myriad of changes, the divine ability unrivaled. He naturally wanted to display its strong points.

However, was Shi Hao that easy to deceive? When facing the radiant sword wings, he directly released the Grass Symbol Sword Extreme Art, the skies filled with sword energy, tearing apart the sword wings!

"Radiance everlasting, shine gloriously through the universe!" Ao Gan roared out.

In that instant, there was only a streak of light left in this world, the unrivaled divine ability passed down by Aocheng Immortal King. The darkness was erased, primal chaos torn apart, there was nothing that couldn't be destroyed.

"The emperor is unrivaled!"

At this time, Shi Hao didn't display any precious techniques, instead spurring on his own five great secret realms, from the Sea of Reincarnation to the dao palaces, then to the four extremes, dragon transformation, and finally the ascension platform.

His entire body's five secret realms shone, his entire body becoming resplendent, displaying his greatest profound mysteries. There were immediately many heaven and earth irregular scenes around him.

For example, True Dragons winding about, Immortal Phoenixes releasing great cries, golden lotuses covering the earth, immortal kings seated in the nine great heavens, all of these enveloped him within.

These weren't normal irregular scenes, not void images, but instead could truly release heaven reaching earth moving might!

This battle was extremely intense, but everyone could see Huang's terror. When these irregular scenes appeared, the universe swayed, scripture sounds shaking the world.

Hong!

When the great battle reached a thousand two hundred moves, Ao Gan was blasted by Shi Hao's irregular scenes until he coughed out large mouthfuls of blood. Then, Shi Hao formed a fist imprint, directly smashing it into his chest.

Pu!

A bloody hole that went straight through his body appeared.

Shi Hao's fist passed through, striking through Ao Gan, bathed in the true blood of an immortal king descendant. He raised Ao Gan with a single arm, towering at the center of the battlefield, as if an emperor descended upon this earth!

Chapter 1898 - Emperor of Mortal Dao

A fist smashed through, blood splashing everywhere!

A demonic god-like figure stood on the platform alone, black hair scattered about, his gaze like two streaks of cold lightning tearing across the void, a single arm raised into the heavens!

Ao Gan lost, thoroughly defeated. His eyes lacked expression, blood dripping from his body, landing on the ground. He found it hard to accept all of this.

Right now, his body was smashed through by Shi Hao's fist, moreover raised into the air by that arm. He wanted to resist, but he was completely powerless to.

It was because his dao skills were restricted, magical force dried up, completely scattered by Huang's first. He was immediately subdued!

Forget about retaliating, even his life or death depended on Shi Hao's whims. As long as he exerted a bit more force, he would break apart, scattering to pieces in midair.

When one reached their level, they all knew just how terrifying of a thing it was once both sides went all out. Now, he didn't have the slightest strength to retaliate, killing him was just too easy.

Below the stage, all cultivators were quiet, dead silent. This result was hard for them to believe. Ao Gan actually lost, moreover suffering a great defeat.

The glorious Ao Family's young great one was in the Mortal Dao Domain for over a thousand years, looking down on experts of all clans, yet he was powerfully suppressed today just like this, suffering a crushing defeat!

He was known to be unrivaled in the Mortal Dao Domain, able to sweep through experts from all clans, difficult for him to experience defeat. After all these years, his reputation already shook all sides, all clans knowing of him.

Immortal Domain's celebrity, one of the most powerful individuals under true immortals, someone who was known to be an insurmountable great mountain in the Mortal Dao Domain actually fell today.

"Brother!" Ao Kun screamed out, breaking the silence. This place immediately erupted into noise.

The experts from Ao Family all had ugly expressions. Ao Gan was actually defeated, their clan's undefeated pride of heaven was captured, ready to be killed at a moment's notice.

"Ao Gan has heaven warping aptitude, having the ancient ancestor's svelte when he was young, how could he lose?" An elder muttered, not daring to believe this.

If he lost to Pan Yi or Hun Tian, then it was one thing, but he lost to a lower realm cultivator. The natural laws there weren't complete, great dao deficient, moreover already entering a Cultivationless Age. This really was too shocking.

"Ao Gan lost, his brilliance has been terminated by someone. The pride of heaven of a generation actually came to a fall like this today!"

Everyone released light sighs, carrying regret and sorrow. During these years, Ao Gan was known as one of Immortal Domain's most heroic individuals, yet he actually lost today.

It was a pity, lamentable. Many people shook their heads.

Who was Huang? Before this, not many people understood his background at all. Now, they all began to whisper about, asking about him.

Immortal Domain was too large, clans too numerous. Unless one's name truly shocked all clans, it was hard for one's name to be remembered.

Shi Hao was well-known in the lower realm, but in Immortal Domain, only some powers knew about him. Over ninety percent of the people were unaware of him because they had never come into contact with him.

"Not simple... he has previously defeated the other side's experts, killed Emperor Clans? Wu, it is equivalent to our side's immortal king families' disciples!"

After some people understood what happened, they couldn't help but nod. These were indeed glorious accomplishments.

"This youngster really is a variable. He is only a thousand something years of age? It really is inconceivable. He rushed into the heavens all through his own ability, able to kill immortal king descendants!"

This was especially when they found out Shi Hao achieved the dao before a thousand years, breaking the taboo of five hundred years, the masses were immediately stunned!

This type of age, for cultivators who had long lives, it was still rather tender, yet he already achieved the dao? This was truly a generation crushing genius!

Attained Supreme Being Realm below five hundred years of age, this was like a fantasy story. Just how many years has it been since this type of creature appeared?

When they thought about it closely, only in the age when the most powerful immortal kings rose up, would there be this type of heaven warping figure, born into divinity, bravery exceptional, displaying dazzling brilliance when they were at their most vigorous age!

These types of creatures, as long as one appeared, they would dazzle an entire age!

What was somewhat pitiful, somewhat regretful, was that those unmatched geniuses died an untimely death, actually not a single one reaching the finish line, none of them achieving immortal king position.

The one who rose up in the end was instead Aocheng, Hunyuan Immortal King and the others.

It was to the extent where those unmatched geniuses, in the final struggle, died under Aocheng, Hunyuan and Pan King's hands. It was extremely bitter.

Aocheng, Pan King and the others, the reason they were so domineering was because they slaughtered out a reputation. They were all immortal kings, also the most powerful, sovereigns of the universe!

"Huang, let go of Ao Gan!" Below, someone shouted, unknown which power they belonged to.

Ao Family's people immediately couldn't sit still. They could all see that Huang didn't feel any fear, especially when he was in this arena. If they really provoked him, he might just kill Ao Gan, at that time, it would be too late for regrets.

They felt that some people harbored evil intentions, wishing to provoke Huang, and then Ao Gan would be killed before everyone's faces.

"Huang, please start off leniently, let Ao Gan go!" Ao Family's people stood up, cupping their hands towards the arena.

Shi Hao's expression was cold, his expression like electricity, sweeping through the ground. Then, he let go of Ao Gan, asking, "Are you convinced?"

He actually really wanted to kill Ao Gan. When he heard that they previously acted against Willow Deity, he naturally immediately treated this family as an enemy. However, this wasn't the lower realm.

Ao Family had an immortal king. With a single will, ten thousand spirits would perish!

Ao Gan glared at him angrily, not saying a word.

Ao Family's people became anxious, someone shouting out, "Huang, please do not take action. Ao Gan has already been defeated, he lost!"

"Ao Gan, take a step back and see the bigger picture, don't be stubborn!" At the same time, someone transmitted sound to Ao Gan, fearing that he would challenge Huang in front of everyone again, provoking a disaster of death.

Ao Gan's face warped. He had never lost in his life before, never lowered his head, yet he had to admit defeat in front of everyone. This really was as painful as having a blade twisted in his heart.

"My skill is not as good as another's!" Ao Gan said through clenched teeth. After saying this, his face turned ashen, as if he used up all of his vitality.

"Shi Hao, just let him go!" Qing Yi stood up, also pleading with everyone.

Regardless, during these years, Ao Family's heaven warping genius still took quite good care of her. Even though she knew that it would be hard for Shi Hao to get along with him, she still couldn't help but plead now.

Shi Hao released Ao Gan, throwing him into the arena. Blood scattered outwards, the entire surface becoming dark red, the blood of a supreme being flowing here.

Two experts from Ao Family immediately flew up, supporting him. ~~nove-1B/1n~~

Ao Gan got up with difficulty, pushing them away. He turned around, giving Shi Hao a deep look. "When I achieve immortality, we will definitely fight again!"

Ao Family's people released a breath of relief. As long as Ao Gan didn't lose his fighting spirit, then that was good. With heaven warping talent, a single setback wasn't much.

There were some powers that were quite disappointed. If Huang dared kill Ao Gan, then that would be great, preventing Ao Family from having another pseudo immortal king.

Many people felt that Ao Gan might not be able to become an immortal king, but close to that level was still attainable. He would definitely become one of the most powerful true immortals!

“Opponents who have lost to me will never be viewed as opponents by me anymore. Even if I give you time to catch up, the distance will only grow greater and greater.” Shi Hao calmly said.

Everyone was stunned. What kind of arrogance was this?

Huang’s confidence was too great!

Perhaps it was precisely because of this that he could have the accomplishments he had today, aiming for the very top, all other peaks seeming small before himself!

Great Xu Tuo, Lan Xian, Little Sky King, Princess Yao Yue and the others were all in Immortal Peach Garden. These old friends understood Shi Hao, they could only release a light sigh.

In their eyes, Huang might truly have this qualification. Only those who understood him knew that his path had always been glorious.

“Too strong, actually defeating even Ao Family’s young great one, moreover this confident. I am now a bit jealous of that girl Qing Yi.” A young lady muttered quietly.

The other girls’ eyes also shone, muttering quietly, starting to discuss among themselves.

Everyone was stunned.

Their older generation’s expressions darkened, some releasing a light snort, only then were they stopped.

Shi Hao stood on the arena, not saying a word, looking down on the masses. Who dared fight? This was a type of silent intimidation!

Ao Gan was defeated, but the true battle still wasn’t considered finished. There was an Immortal Peach Tree undying medicine that was enough to move everyone up for grabs, making their eyes burn with desire.

Only, who dared fight him? Everyone knew themselves, that they weren’t a match.

“I’ll fight against you!”

Finally, someone got on the stage, a woman with a slender and sturdy build. Her appearance was quite good, her skin a bit tanned, flowing with sparkling and healthy radiance, something rarely seen in Immortal Domain.

Ordinary female cultivators all had icy jade-like figures, their skins pure white, but she was different, her figure graceful and strong, like a beautiful leopard.

“Hun Tian also went up!” Someone said in shock.

She was Hunyuan Immortal King’s descendant, someone neck to neck with Pan Yi and Ao Gan, one of the most powerful supreme beings of the present world, her strength terrifying.

Hong!

There weren't many words exchanged, the battle directly began. The name Hun Tian didn't seem to be much like a girl's, but her personality was also quite forceful, attacking immediately after getting on the stage. [1]

"Time Immemorial Great Dao Scripture!" Someone cried out in alarm.

It was just the beginning, yet she already displayed her clan's most powerful immortal king scripture, facing Shi Hao, wishing to determine victory and defeat, who was weaker and who was stronger.

Time Immemorial Great Dao Scripture rumbled with noise, shaking Shi Hao until his qi and blood surged. He had never encountered such a brave and fierce woman before, daring to face him like this.

Peng!

After a thousand and four hundred moves, a great dragon surged from Shi Hao's vertebra, four limbs reaching towards the extremes of the world, forcibly subduing Hun Tian, making blood flow from the corners of her mouth, continuously back up.

She was also rather direct, backing off and saying, "I lost!" Then, she jumped off, leaving the arena.

Everyone was stunned. This time, there was rather less clamoring, everyone deeply shaken. Huang winning over Ao Gan wasn't a fluke after all, he really was too strong, even defeating Hun Tian.

"Are you even a man?" Right at this time, Hun Tian spoke, scowling at Pan Yi.

Many people immediately revealed strange expressions when they heard this.

It was because it was already rumored that Hunyuan Immortal King and Pan King's bloodline intended to be related by marriage, the ones chosen were precisely the two of them.

Pan Yi was a bit embarrassed, rubbing his nose. Then, he got on the arena, rushing at Shi Hao and saying, "Can you let me win a round to pacify the tigress?"

"I cannot on these types of matters!" Shi Hao refused.

"Alright, then please don't be too harsh on me!" Pan Yi said.

Hong!

A great battle erupted. Even though Pan Yi acted a bit weak before the battle, those were merely jokes. When they truly moved, he was incredibly bold and powerful, Pan Family's most powerful divine abilities displayed to their fullest.

Honglonglong!

Heaven collapsed and earth split, ghosts wept and deities howled. These two's battle was incredibly fierce, attacking until the sun and moon lost their radiance, leaving everyone dazzled.

However, when their battle reached a thousand four hundred or so moves, Pan Yi was still defeated. There were golden lotuses all around him, releasing great dao rumbling noise, trapping him within.

Hong!

Shi Hao took steps forward, black hair scattering outwards, expression like thunder, divine bravery unmatched. One hand covered the heavens, descending, suppressing Pan Yi. Blood spilled out from his mouth and nose, unable to move anymore.

“Stop, I’ve lost!” Pan Yi was extremely open and honest, immediately admitting defeat.

Shi Hao loosened his hand, letting him go.

Now, Immortal Domain’s most powerful young experts, three of them lost in succession. This place became absolutely silent.

A lower realm cultivator actually came out on top!

A place that didn’t have complete laws, the great dao deficient, actually produced this type of young individual, his might dominating the Mortal Dao Domain, unmatched under the sky!

Everyone sensed that there might not be anyone who was Huang’s match below the true immortal level.

“Who dares fight against me?” Shi Hao asked again.

In this massive Immortal Peach Garden, in the whole of the grand Immortal King Manor, no one replied. No one else dared step out. Huang intimidated everyone, looking down on the Mortal Dao Domain experts.

The so-called extreme dao, was precisely one person towering above all others, suppressing everyone, truly unrivaled at this level.

“If we were to grant him a title, perhaps we can call him the Emperor of Mortal Dao!” An ancient true immortal from Pan Family said.

Chapter 1899 - Immortal King Killing Intent

This battle came to an end, no one else dared enter the arena!

Everyone could see that Huang was unmatched. Even Pan Yi, Hun Tian, and Ao Gan were defeated, who dared say they were his match?

“The undying medicine Immortal Peach belongs to Huang!”

Someone said, their voice not great, but it rang through this garden. Everyone revealed expressions of jealousy. This was an unmatched immortal medicine, something that one yearned for in their dreams, yet it was obtained by Huang.

Everyone became speechless. This was obtained through Huang’s great victories.

In the depths of the immortal king dwelling, an old tree laid low like a True Dragon. Its bark was cracked apart, spreading like scales, leaves lush, carrying lush intent. There were immortal peaches growing on its branches.

This type of fruit was golden yellow in color, full of sweet fragrance. The true Immortal Peach Tree’s fruits made the hearts of all in the outside world tremble.

A single fruit came off on its own, falling on a white jade plate, flying outwards. Then, a true immortal accepted it. His eyes were burning with desire as he stared at this immortal peach, but he didn't dare eat it.

Who dared covet an immortal medicine bestowed by Pan King?

The true immortal protected the medicine, bringing the golden Immortal Peach over. This was a fruit produced by the garden's mother tree, the true undying medicine.

All eyes began to burn fiercely, but they could only watch. The true immortal descended, handing that jade plate to Shi Hao.

"Many thanks to senior!" Shi Hao said.

A golden fruit entered his hands. He carefully sealed it into a jade cauldron to prevent the immortal energy from leaking out. This was a true long life great medicine.

Shi Hao got off the arena. Everyone couldn't help but step aside for him, no longer daring to look down on him for coming from the lower realm. Now that his battle accomplishments had been revealed, all sides were dazzled!

Shi Hao returned, sitting with Qing Yi below a peach tree, enjoying the delicacies on the jade table. After being parted for a thousand years, the two of them finally had a chance to sit together again.

Soon afterwards, Exiled Immortal, Great Xu Tuo, Princess Yao Yue and others came one after another, chatting with Shi Hao about old times, all of them extremely close.

Several people asked Shi Hao about the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. When they understood what happened, they were all deeply moved. The Cultivationless Age was actually that terrifying, many living fossils long passing on.

"You've dealt with Jin Family and Wind Clan?" These people were shocked.

However, when they thought about it, Shi Hao had enough strength, indeed able to do it. Now, he was unstoppable even in Immortal Domain, subduing the experts of all sides, so he was naturally even more domineering in the lower realm.

His old friends then dispersed, knowing their propriety, leaving some time for Qing Yi, giving the two of them enough time to be together.

"Have you been well during these past few years? The ruined immortal didn't appear?" Qing Yi asked, her expression gentle.

"Everything has been calm and normal. After cultivating for so long all these years, I brought Stone Village's disciples with me and swept through the creatures of darkness, also killed a ruined immortal." Shi Hao replied.

"What, you've even killed a ruined immortal?" Qing Yi released a light shout, extremely shocked. At the same time, she felt worried for Shi Hao, he clearly experienced too many dangers.

Qing Yi had many things she wanted to say, wanted to ask. She began to chat with Shi Hao with a soft voice.

“Me and Yun Xi have become dao companions.” Suddenly, Shi Hao said this, not hiding it, speaking the truth.

Qing Yi’s expression became rigid, her heart even trembling lightly, her expression a bit pale. She bit her bright red lips, mist appearing in her eyes.

“Why...” She was a bit lost, unable to help but say this.

Shi Hao didn’t want to hide anything, he didn’t want to deceive her either. Instead, he took the initiative to tell her the truth.

“Back then, I was crippled by the ruined immortal in the three thousand provinces, but she still followed me into the lower realm, vowing to take care of my ruined body, always staying there without leaving, guarding Stone Village for many years. I cannot let her down no matter what.” Shi Hao said.

When Qing Yi heard this, her face became as pale as snow. “Are you blaming me?”

“I’m not. When the ruined immortal forced me into that situation, you weren’t in the three thousand provinces. If you were there, I believe you wouldn’t have abandoned me either.” Shi Hao shook his head.

“However, in the end, I still entered Immortal Domain, not following you into the lower realm.” Qing Yi said, the expression in her eyes a bit lost, carrying regret, disappointment, and frustration.

“This can’t be blamed on you. The three thousand provinces entered a Cultivationless Age, the paths of cultivators cut short. If you stayed, it would be like remaining in a prison. Back then, I was antagonized by some powers in Immortal Domain, I had no choice, or else I would also have entered Immortal Domain as well.” Shi Hao said.

“Even though you were in the lower realm, you still walked ahead of us.” Qing Yi said with a light sigh, her beautiful eyes swirling with brilliant colors. She felt excited for Shi Hao’s achievements, but at the same time, she was also a bit lost.

“Do you want to achieve immortality?” Shi Hao produced the white jade small cauldron, inside of it was an Immortal Peach undying medicine, handing it forward.

“No, this is yours, I want you to achieve immortality as early as possible!” Qing Yi said.

Shi Hao put away the jade cauldron. He thought to himself silently. Was this his path, to ingest an immortal peach medicine and immediately achieve immortality?

If this was the case, then all of his achievements would end here. Without his own insights into achieving immortality, by borrowing external objects and directly breaking through, what could he even obtain from that?

Even if he achieved immortality, it would still be merely the weakest true immortal level.

Shi Hao wanted the strength of immortal kings, wishing to achieve immortality as early as possible, but all of this was just that contradictory.

Right now, Qing Yi was distracted, inwardly alarmed, feeling remorse and disappointment, endless regret and loss. Shi Hao was already with Yun Xi...

When she received the news, Qing Yi's expression turned slightly white, her exceptional appearance losing the joy of reunion. Her heart carried a bit of bitterness, how could she not feel anything?

After entering Immortal Domain, during all these years, she always used the name Qing Yi, not using the name Yue Chan, this was already enough to prove many things.

However, when she finally waited for Shi Hao's arrival, she instead obtained this type of result. This type of conclusion left her at a loss, full of bitterness.

She felt regret. If she didn't leave back then, perhaps it wouldn't be this current scene.

However, if they started all over again, she would perhaps still seek immortality, wishing to enter Immortal Domain.

During all these years, she had always worked hard, wishing to borrow some great powers to ensure Huang's safety, guide him up from the lower realm.

In the end, Shi Hao came, but she also heard heart shattering news. After finding out that Shi Hao was together with Yun Xi, it was hard for her to get over her inward bitterness.

...

In the depths of Pan King Manor, primal chaos surged. This place was extremely blurry, several immortal kings seated here. They rarely spoke, extremely silent, like sculptures that towered in this world.

Finally, someone spoke.

"Bring Huang here, I wish to know where that ancestral guardian spirit is."

"Dao brother, your thoughts are too deep." Pan King said.

"I want to cut down Huang!" Right at this time, Aocheng Immortal King suddenly spoke.

"Why is there a need to bicker with the younger generation?" Pan King advised against this.

He didn't believe that Aocheng Immortal King was acting for their clan's Ao Gan. That so-called heaven warping descendant, in their eyes, wasn't much. If they didn't become an immortal king, they were still ants.

After all these years, did the descendants of immortal kings lack individuals with exceptional talent?

Some died, some became true immortals!

Meanwhile, the immortal kings had never asked about these matters, the depths of their hearts lacking all fluctuations. They wouldn't take action because of the fall of their descendant. At their level, they already approached an emotionless great dao state.

The reason why Aocheng wanted to take action only had one possibility. He sensed something, seeing a corner of the future.

Sure enough, another immortal king also spoke. "I also share his intention."

The others were silent.

Only Pan King advised against it. "I already promised an old friend, ensuring that he won't die!"

"The great dao is indistinct, heaven's mysteries chaotic. I cannot see his path and his future, but I feel like it is unfavorable towards me." Aocheng Immortal King said.

"Just an insect, what need is there to be concerned? The people and things that cannot be seen might not necessarily be related to you." Pan King said.

"I would rather kill him wrongly!" Aocheng Immortal King's voice was cold.

There was one thing that he didn't want to say. Since he already offended that ancestral guardian spirit, there was no reason to keep his inheritor alive, it was better to avoid him becoming a future disaster!

Immortal kings didn't need reasons for taking lives, he also felt it beneath him to explain.

In another ancient cave, Pan King was surrounded by primal chaos, dressed in old-fashioned daoist robes, indistinct. Meanwhile, in front of him, was half a snow-white skull.

Pan King's true body was with several other immortal kings, sampling the Immortal Peach undying medicine.

Meanwhile, the Pan King present here was just a will that descended, facing the restricted region lord's body.

"Even though I wish to protect him, two immortal kings wish to kill him. You need to understand that the wills of immortal kings cannot be gone against. It will be difficult for me to protect him for long."

The restricted region lord formed a male body whose complexion was fine like jade. His hands were behind his back. With a light sigh, he said, "Things are now troublesome."

"You should know that Immortal Domain is full of murderous intentions. A single mistake, and there will be no hope of reprieve. Why did you insist on bringing him here?" Pan King asked.

"I am searching for a land, wishing to send him inside." The restricted region lord didn't really hide anything either.

"For this youngster, you've also gone through quite the trouble." Pan King said. Then, he nodded. "Right, even in Immortal Ancient Great Era, with your friendly relations with that ancestral guardian spirit, you would still look after him."

"Apart from sheltering him, I will ask you for three drops of immortal king essence blood. After this, the karma between us will be settled!" The restricted region lord said, white clothes purer than snow, style exceptional.

"Blood can be given, but if it is immortal king essence blood, then it concerns too much." Pan King said.

"It must be immortal king essence blood." The white-clothed man said with a sigh.

"Are you looking for that legendary place? There were some who already went, but they should have all failed." Pan King said.

"That will be something between me and him." The restricted region lord said.

Chapter 1900 - Giants' Suppression

He was searching for a place!

The restricted region lord turned into a white-clothed man, right now, his face was without any expression.

Pan King's expression was heavy, extremely serious, not saying anything for a long time.

One could see just how extraordinary that place was, enough to shock immortals. Otherwise, these two wouldn't have their current expressions.

"Fine then!"

After a long time passed, Pan King nodded. Then, a drop of blood flew through the void, landing here. It was too resplendent, even more dazzling than a sun, immortal radiance endless, auspicious multicolored light appearing in millions and millions of strands, enough to light up the mountains and rivers.

Fortunately, this was a secret room, the magical force and natural laws hiding it unimaginable!

Pan King's original body wasn't here, but he could silently bring over a drop of essence blood, appearing magically, no one was aware of it. The main reason was because this secret room was too extraordinary.

Then, the second drop of immortal king essence blood trickled down, bright red like a blood diamond, dazzling as it tore through the heavens, incomparable. A divine aura spread, filling this secret room.

Soon, a third drop rushed over!

This type of thing, any drop would trigger a tremendous commotion in the outside world. This wasn't only immortal king blood, it was also the essence blood, carrying the great dao fragments of the heavens.

This type of essence blood was completely invaluable!

The white-clothed man's appearance was fine like jade, confident and at ease just like when he was still alive, an exceptionally beautiful man. However, he already died, this was irreversible. He became a half snow-white skull again, using the skull to hold the three drops of immortal king essence blood.

"The two immortal kings have spoken their intentions, their wills difficult to change." Pan King said, this was considered a kind reminder.

At their level, he was normally like a statue, seated on a praying mat, not moving at all, oftentimes tens of thousands of years gone past before he would say a word, spending most of his time capturing the great dao.

Times like today where he took the initiative to speak to another, seriously advising, were extremely few. The so-called immortal king was close to an emotionless great dao state, erasing all of his many feelings of the living.

"I brought half an incense stick with me, its name Realm Eradication." The restricted region lord said.

This stone room immediately erupted with two streaks of lightning, precisely the gaze of Pan King's incarnation. He stared at the half skull in front of him, already greatly moved.

"Alright, I understand. I will tactfully inform them." Pan King said.

In Immortal Peach Garden, Shi Hao sat with Qing Yi, telling each other everything. After so many years passed, they learned about everything that happened to each other.

During this time, some creatures from Immortal Domain continuously came up to get to know Shi Hao, extremely enthusiastic. In their eyes, someone who could defeat Ao Gan, Pan Yi and Hun Tian was too shocking.

Huang, this name already spread through Pan King Manor. Many of his past deeds were mentioned, triggering waves of astonishment and sighs.

"This type of fine raw material has to remain in our Immortal Domain and achieve immortality, or else letting him be buried in the lower realm is just too pitiful!" Someone said.

When Ao Family's people heard this, their expressions darkened slightly.

"Indeed, if he could cultivate to this level even in the lower realm, if he takes up residence in my Immortal Domain, wouldn't he just rush straight into the heavens?" Someone nodded in agreement.

Even true immortals were already moved, the expressions with which they looked at Shi Hao complicated. Only those who experienced the transformation from mortal to immortal understood the depths of just how difficult it was.

When they saw Shi Hao, they felt like this was a precious raw material, leaving him behind in the lower realm was too much of a pity.

The Peaches of Immortality Distinguished Meeting lasted several days. Shi Hao got to know quite a few people.

Ao Family didn't pay any attention to him, and there were some other powerful great clans who carried malice, but there were many top level great families who extended an olive branch to him, expressing good intent.

In the next few days, Huang's name already spread out, shaking up the starry skies. Everyone in the starry domain Pan King ruled knew of his existence.

They all knew that a generation crushing genius had risen up. By defeating Pan Yi, Ao Kun, and the others, he already stabilized his throne of number one in the Mortal Dao Domain, there was already no debate!

Huang became famous, hard for others to not know about him even if they didn't want to. After just a single battle, these starry skies were startled. Moreover, news began to spread to the other cosmos and starry heavens ruled by other immortal kings.

Pan King was informed. This wasn't some good news.

"It's enough as long as the words have been spoken. Let's just see their ultimate choice." The restricted region lord said.

"Don't tell me you really want to light that 'Realm Eradication'?" Pan King asked.

According to what he understood, that stick of incense had indeed been lost in the lower realm. If it was lit, the karma was too great, who could endure it? It really would shock the heavens and move the earth, eradicate a realm.

This stalk of incense carried tremendous karma!

Shi Hao didn't know that a great danger was already approaching him.

"Immortal Domain is incredibly prosperous, undying matter rich, indeed a cultivation dreamland, able to create true immortal dao experts."

"Since you came, there is no need to go back. In the future, we just need to think of a way to bring your disciples in."

...

Princess Yao Yue, Tuogu Yulong, Qi Hong, Great Xu Tuo and others all advised. During these days, these old friends gathered often. They wanted Shi Hao to stay behind.

"Just stay behind, you... still want to go back?" Qing Yi was also looking at Shi Hao.

Shi Hao didn't reply. He heard the news the restricted region lord transmitted, currently listening. Not long afterwards, Pan Family's people came to receive him, leading the way.

"I will come back after a short while!" Shi Hao got up.

Not long afterwards, he entered the stone room, meeting Pan King. This was the first time he came in contact with an unmatched immortal king under such close distance.

However, the first impression he gave Shi Hao was that of a statue, the immortal king aura restrained, nothing could be sensed. Moreover, there was mist surrounding him.

The restricted region lord was also here, telling Shi Hao that there was danger.

"I wish to bring you to a place, but two great immortal kings might want your life."

When Shi Hao heard this, he was inwardly shaken.

"Where?" He wanted to know.

Pan King's face was expressionless, but he inwardly nodded. This youngster didn't panic when he heard that two great immortal kings wanted to kill him at all, he indeed had courage.

"A heaven reaching land, a land of natural luck, a land of miracles!"

The restricted region lord said. According to what he said, that place was too wonderful for words, impossible to speak about in detail, it couldn't be explained clearly. Only by personally experiencing it would he understand.

"Blood and chaos are about to descend, you don't have enough time. This is the final great gift I can bestow upon you." The restricted region lord said.

"How can I reach that place alive?" Shi Hao asked.

This was the key point. Two great immortal kings schemed against him, would he be able to survive?

"We will do everything we can!" The restricted region lord said.

There was no time to give Qing Yi and the others his farewells. Shi Hao moved, quickly departing from Pan King City. He tore through the cosmos, disappearing into the ice-cold starry skies.

Hmph!

However, in a certain starry domain, Aocheng released a cold snort. As an unmatched immortal king, his magical force was boundless, overlooking the endless ancient continents. As for just how great his divine abilities were, it was extremely difficult for outsiders to imagine.

With a wu sound, a large sleeve moved. He reached out an arm, immediately covering the star domain that was who knew how vast, directly wishing to seize this star domain.

In that instant, all spirits trembled in fear!

The cultivators of all clans were shaken, inwardly alarmed to the extreme. An immortal king took action! A great hand moved across the boundless great cosmos, grabbing towards a certain land.

One could see that in this starry domain, stars turned into powder one after another. When that great hand descended, everything silently turned to cosmos dust!

When Aocheng Immortal King's hand descended, all life would be eradicated!

Peng!

Another great hand appeared, releasing gentle radiance, blocking Aocheng's hand, moreover allowing this land of death to be full of vitality.

"Pan King!"

A cold voice sounded, released by Aocheng.

Then, a finger tore through the cosmos, pitch-black like ink, almost merging into this starry sky heavens. It came silently, heading towards where Shi Hao was.

Along the way, great stars exploded one after another. As the finger proceeded, the starry heavens were eradicated, turned to nothing, terrifying to the extreme, enough to leave true immortals horrified.

This was Taishi Immortal King, also one of Immortal Domain's giants!

He also took action, wishing to sever karma, eradicate the inheritors of that ancestral guardian spirit.

Peng!

Pan King took action again. His palm shone, swirling with life energy, blocking this finger of death, moreover reforging much of the cosmos dust, creating complete great stars.

At this time, everyone trembled. In this star domain, all the places of life with true immortals watching over them trembled, scared to the point where they shuddered in fear.

This was a battle between immortal kings! A single mistake and all lands would be destroyed, making a star domain wither away, turn into a land of death.

There were true immortals who flew up, leaving the stars they guarded, standing in the void. They were alarmed, looking like they were facing a great enemy, fearing that the destructive force would involve them.

In the end, the finger and great hand both disappeared, restoring peace to the starry heavens.

Shi Hao saw everything. That grand will and the incomparable natural laws crushed him until it was hard for him to move. His body almost exploded here.

These were the methods of immortal kings? His hands were clenched until his joints turned cold. Just now, he felt like a piece of duckweed in a roaring sea. Even with Pan King's protection, he might still be buried here at any time.

"I want to achieve immortality!" Shi Hao said quietly, clenching his fists.

Right now, he stood in the starry skies, deeply sensing the terror of immortal kings. They were too high to reach, just any random move could take his life, there was nothing he could do to defy them.

In reality, his performance was rather good. If it was anyone else, they would have fallen weak on the ground, their bodies exploding under the pressure.

"You need to live, do not let down the opportunity I strived to obtain for you." The restricted region lord said.

At this time, he appeared at Shi Hao's side. Apart from this, the crystal skull, golden arm bone and bleeding eyeball also appeared at the same time, a bit silent.

"Huang!"

At this time, a low voice sounded from the cosmos Aocheng ruled, yet it rippled all the way to this ancient cosmos, entering the great domain ruled by Pan King.

Everyone heard this, shivering from their very souls.

“Aocheng Immortal King wishes to kill Huang?” Qing Yi cried out, her face snow-white, revealing an expression of alarm. She immediately felt incomparably distressed.

Exiled Immortal, Shi Yi, Princess Yao Yue, Tuogu Yulong and the others’ expressions all changed. They knew that Shi Hao was in danger, he was most likely going to die in Immortal Domain. If an immortal king wanted someone dead, who could resist?

Right now, everyone knew that Huang was going to be killed!

“His killing intent really is strong!” The restricted region lord said coldly.

Under this starry sky, a ripple spread out, releasing a grand noise, berating Huang. This was Aocheng’s method, trying to kill him again.

Kacha!

At this time, the restricted region lord turned into a half snow-white skull, facing it. In the end, a loud and clear sound rang out, an alarming crack appearing on the skull.

At the same time, the crystal skull, golden arm bone and bleeding eyeball also rushed out, helping Shi Hao block this strike.

In the end, the three individuals became dim. The crystal skull and golden arm bone both displayed terrifying cracks, while the bleeding eyeball had blood splash out!

“No!” Shi Hao roared out, his eye sockets feeling like they were going to crack apart.

Fortunately, the restricted region lord and the three freaks still didn’t break into pieces, even though they all produced terrifying cracks under the immortal king’s roar.

They managed to avoid this disaster.

“Once, twice, but not thrice. You are forcing me!” The restricted region lord said coldly.

“The fallen immortal king of a generation, will still not scattering...” In the depths of an ancient starry sky, Aocheng said coldly.

The restricted region lord turned into a half skull. Raging flames were released between his mouth and nose. These were immortal dao fiery light, immediately engulfing the cosmos, illuminating the starry sea.

“Realm Eradication!” At the same time, he shouted these two words!
