

Perfect WD 1931

Chapter 1931 - Already Gone

Golden roots took root in the void, covering Desolate Border. It was just too vast, this ancient tree was enormous beyond compare, towering into the cosmos. Forget about that main branch, every single leaf even carried stars!

The old tree bark split apart, releasing golden radiance and chaotic mist. The old tree bark was like scales, incredibly ancient, carrying a world establishing aura!

Normally speaking, only when the heavens were created, would a World Tree be produced!

This world was ruined, close to being half destroyed. Meanwhile, this ancient Sun God Tree was also an existence naturally born from primal chaos, that was why it forcefully completed its evolution in this age.

Honglong!

Anlan's spear was incredibly sharp, able to slaughter all heroes in this world. It continued to stab in this direction, carrying a world exterminating aura.

However, when this World Tree descended, it changed everything. It released complete great dao laws, stopping it, forcing it out.

Hou!

In the foreign realm, a great roar sounded. Anlan's projection was unrivaled, towering in this world, his true body appearing. The long river of time was disturbed, interfering with the trajectory of heaven and earth.

"Forget it, don't go all out. Realm Sea isn't stable, great chaos is about to begin. There is no need to pay such a price now." Someone said.

This was an undying king. Right now, he was observing the Realm Sea. No one could overlook that place. Realm Sea was about to ignite history's greatest storm.

If not for the foreign realm having reinforcements, they wouldn't be able to face this situation so calmly either.

"Kings cannot be humiliated. We must kill him in the future." Anlan's words were extremely cold. That golden spear slowly withdrew, the world splitting, suffocating and terrifying atmosphere was removed.

Just now, countless creatures' souls in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths were trembling. They fell weak onto the ground, unable to endure that type of formless pressure.

This was precisely an undying king, able to possess this type of power even when separated by a world.

If he came out, a single person would be enough to wipe out all life!

The World Tree moved. With a hu noise, it flew into the sky, carrying dazzling golden light. It was quickly shrinking.

It shrunk from large to small. When it was large, it could cover the entire world, when it was small, it was less than an inch in height. It rushed into outer space, everyone raising their heads and looking in that direction.

Shi Hao clearly saw that there was still an ancient palace on that treetop that released chaotic energy!

Back then, he had seen it before. He remembered that a beast bone with an ancient scripture recorded on it fell from it. However, even after so many years, he still never found it.

At the same time, he also saw that there was a golden winged woman who stood at the palace entrance. Her golden long hair was shining, her appearance like that of a sun goddess. Even her pupils were golden, currently looking down on all things.

“It’s her!”

Shi Hao’s pupils contracted. Back then, when the Sun God Tree blossomed, the golden liquid that trickled down the flower petals contained great natural luck. Meanwhile, this woman was seated in that flower back then.[1]

She had long appeared in this world, unknown what cultivation realm she was at now.

Immediately afterwards, the World Tree disappeared. It quickly shrank, carrying an endless rain of light, disappearing into outer space!

Heaven and earth became peaceful again, Desolate Border becoming silent.

They originally thought that there would be a life and death bloody battle. Shi Hao was already about to go for broke, even the restricted region lord was invited out by him, yet everything ended so peacefully.

This was fine as well. If there really was a great battle, the outcome would be hard to predict.

Even if the other party’s true body couldn’t cross over, there would still be too many variables. After all, he was an undying king, he was -- Anlan!

“You have to make preparations quickly, they won’t give you too much time.” The restricted region lord said.

The flame in the crystal skull throbbed, right now also speaking out. “You were born in the wrong age!”

They were sighing, inwardly thinking that Shi Hao wasn’t born in a good age, lacking time. If he was given another period of time, then he wouldn’t have to fear any enemies!

Shi Hao nodded. He had to rise vigorously, had to forcefully break through!

If he continued to cultivate like everyone else, he would definitely die without a proper burial! Even if he had to go all out, he still had to try and break through.

Desolate Border became calm. However, Shi Hao’s heart wasn’t.

He returned to Imperial Court, releasing Huo Ling’er and that giant black wolf in the giant palace. He looked at them, inwardly feeling bitterness.

Ao...

That giant black wolf opened its bloody mouth, displaying divine abilities. It threw itself over to fight him to the death.

Peng!

Shi Hao sat there. With only a raise of his hand, it was suppressed, unable to move.

The giant black wolf released a growl. It roared out, quickly shrinking, its mountainous body shrinking to half a foot in height, pressed to the ground by a large hand.

Huo Ling'er took action. A black flame that carried undying aura appeared. Around her body, there were immortal birds created from black fiery light that flew about, True Phoenixes and Vermilion Birds resonating, the aura terrifying.

She wasn't a match either, suppressed by Shi Hao.

Shi Hao looked at them quietly. Time was ruthless, erasing too much, including past memories. This familiar yet unfamiliar woman forgot everything.

Shi Hao twitched inwardly. This was already no longer Huo Ling'er, her primordial spirit was newly created!

Ah...

Shi Hao suppressed a roar that echoed through the temple. If not for this place being sealed, it would have definitely shaken the heavens.

"Either kill me or let me go..." Huo Ling'er looked at him, revealing a strange expression. She just couldn't understand why this man named Huang would have such a pained expression. no17e-Lb-1n

Seeing his expression, it wasn't faked, but rather his true feelings. She began to feel doubt, becoming extremely confused.

"You are named Huo Ling'er, used to be Fire Nation's princess. We first met in the Hundred Shattered Mountains..."

Shi Hao's voice was hoarse. He sat there, starting to speak from when they first met.

"What are you saying?!" Huo Ling'er's fine white complexion was full of anger, not believing any of this.

Shi Hao didn't pay her any attention, just rambling on his own. He talked about everything in great detail, not skipping anything.

"I arrived in the higher realm, found you in Sin Province. The day we parted, the sunset was like blood, Fire Mulberry Trees scarlet red, flower petals filling the skies. I previously promised that I would come back one day to find you, that my feelings will never change."

When Shi Hao spoke up to here, his eyes became deep. Back then, they were reluctant to part. Huo Ling'er stood by the Fire Mulberry Trees alone, continuously waving her hands, shedding tears alone. It was as if she knew that this was going to be a parting by death. She stood there lonesomely, not willing to leave. Even when she already almost couldn't see him, she was still quietly calling out his name.

“However, I couldn’t return, couldn’t come to see you again!”

Shi Hao’s eyes became sore. He looked at the black clothed woman in front of him, almost crying. That separation was eternal.

The person looked the same, but what about the soul? Where was it?!

Ever since he stood at the very peak, his heart became tough like iron, difficult for external matters to affect him. However now, he was filled with bitterness and pain.

That year, that day, that separation left her extremely lonely and sad. She wasn’t willing to see him leave into the distance. She stood there alone for who knew how long, not even wishing to turn around. Following the sunset glow and the fall of flowers, tears were shed. She was extremely lonesome.

Shi Hao immersed himself in his own memories, slowly speaking, his voice gloomy, carrying great grief. Who would have thought that their reunion would be like this.

When he spoke up to when Anlan’s hand reached across the sky, when that arm crossed Desolate Border and seized Sin Province, Shi Hao’s breathing even became rushed. Even though that was something that happened more than ten thousand years ago, it was still clear before his eyes. His eyes were red, fists clenched tightly.

However, everything was in the past, he already couldn’t change much.

“What you have said, I don’t believe any of it.” Huo Ling’er said. She stared at Shi Hao and said, “Who can prove it? They are merely one-sided words spoken by you to incite me.”

Shi Hao opened his mouth, wanting to say something. However, after ten thousand years passed, the entire world became still. Among those of the same generation, just how many were left? The all died along the passage of time!

After fifteen thousand years, the blue sea turned into mulberry fields. In this type of Cultivationless Age ruined world, how could it compare to the foreign realm or Immortal Domain? This realm dried up. Shi Hao even felt lonely when he thought about it sometimes. The previous enemies who fought with him and faced him had mostly already turned to dust, only a small group entered Immortal Domain.

Shi Hao didn’t say much, sealing her and the black wolf’s magical force, and then brought them out, heading straight for the lower realms.

This trip took many days. They started from Fire Nation, the place where Huo Ling’er was born. Even though it had already changed greatly, traces of the past could still be found.

It was to the extent where there were still lines recording her existence in some bone books.

Then, they went to the Hundred Shattered Mountains.

They then headed to Fire Clan Ancestral Land’s Holy Emperor Palace.

Every detail of the past appeared in Shi Hao’s mind, he didn’t forget any of it even now. After many days passed, he brought Huo Ling’er into the higher realm.

He wanted to bring her to Sin Province, but it was no longer there.

The Fire Mulberry Trees carried a beautiful memory, only, all of that no longer existed, it was already gone.

There were still a few people from back then, the Heavenly Horned Ant could be considered one, but he didn't recognize Huo Ling'er at all...

In the end, Shi Hao was left disappointed and frustrated. He really didn't know how to prove himself, how to tell her.

He looked at that familiar face. Her beauty exceeded the past. A black dress fluttered about, her figure graceful, complexion snow-white. Her temperament was now enchanting and grave, different from before.

In the past, she was gentle, but now, she had the aura of a powerful figure.

This wasn't her. Shi Hao released a sigh, saying, "These feelings can wait until you recall your memories."

Only, even though he knew that there was most likely no chance, he wasn't someone who was willing to give up, he wanted to save Huo Ling'er.

"I previously prepared an instance of natural luck for you. I don't know if your soul has truly disappeared from your body yet, or if it is still there. Even if there is only a tiny bit left, I still don't want to give up!"

Shi Hao said, his expression becoming more and more firm.

In reality, Huo Ling'er was already a bit moved and confused. Shi Hao previously brought her to the places that had been corroded by darkness.

Many cultivators of this world knew about the darkness' chaos.

Shi Hao seriously asked her if she had any memories of her childhood, or if there was only a gap. After Huo Ling'er spent so much time on this great earth, saw so many darkness creatures, how could she not become doubtful?

"Let's go!"

Shi Hao took her with him, rising into the void, entering the depths of the cosmos. He was going to help her carry out a rebirth on an uninhabited planet.

He only wished for this body to still have a tiny bit of Huo Ling'er's primordial spirit traces, he wanted to see a miracle.

"What is this?" Huo Ling'er was shocked.

She saw an egg that surged with raging flames. When Shi Hao used immortal force, this egg released five-colored divine light, illuminating the dark cosmos.

"Phoenix Egg!" Shi Hao said.

Back then, he already decided to gift the flame dao cultivation to Huo Ling'er. Who would have thought that it would only happen after more than ten thousand years!

This egg couldn't produce a True Phoenix anymore, it was already half dead. However, after activating it, it could help complete another, carrying the True Phoenix bloodline's most powerful rebirth power.

"I am willing to help you obtain a new life!" Shi Hao said.

Chapter 1932 - Darkness' Mystery

Chi!

A streak of golden light flickered about, flying across the cosmos. Shi Hao immediately stopped his movements, not allowing Huo Ling'er to immediately carry out a rebirth.

He saw the World Tree. Right now, it was still extremely tall, but it was definitely not as exaggerated as before. Now, it was only about ten thousand zhang in height.

It flowed with endless brilliance, filled with primal chaos power.

That was a heaven splitting aura!

At the same time, he saw that woman again. She was standing in front of the ancient palace on the treetop, looking at this place.

"Let us have a chat up here." The woman spoke, inviting Shi Hao to ascend the treetop, have a conversation with her.

Shi Hao nodded, bringing Huo Ling'er and the black wolf with him, rising up. He stepped into the chaotic energy, arriving on the treetop.

This place swirled with golden radiance, sweet fragrance pouring down. This was especially the case at the very top where there were sparkling and translucent World Tree tender shoots that released powerful life energy.

A temple rested on the treetop, forever not sinking.

Apart from this, this place had a piece of World Stone!

This was a natural supreme treasure. Once it was refined, it could face immortal artifacts and other things, the most stunning treasure.

Shi Hao had seen these things before back then. He didn't expect them to all still be here.

Shi Hao stared at this woman. She was extraordinary after all, her body releasing immortal dao force. Her cultivation level was definitely astonishing. In this Cultivationless Age, apart from him, there were still immortals after all.

However, when he thought about it, he still felt relieved. This was a World Tree! This woman always remained with it, so she definitely had an incredible background.

"I am not someone of the same generation as you."

As if she knew what he was thinking, this woman spoke, her voice carrying a certain charm. This was an extremely perfect and flawless woman, her long golden hair dazzling like the sunrise multicolored brilliance.

Shi Hao asked which era she belonged to.

The golden-haired woman released a sigh, her eyes carrying a bit of a loss and regret. "It's been too long, I've already forgotten how many great eras ago it was."

Shi Hao was stunned. This woman's background was this great?

"My grandfather previously drafted Immortal Domain's cultivation method, an existence who almost broke through the Immortal King Realm, but in the end still died. Before departing, he sealed me to the half World Tree."

"What?!" This time, it was Shi Hao who couldn't sit still anymore, truly shocked.

"To be more precise, Immortal Domain's method was created by a group of people, he was merely a member, one of the Prides of Heaven of that generation, also one of the most powerful individuals across many great eras." The woman said.

She was extremely frank, telling him her background.

"Even someone that powerful died?" Shi Hao's eyes were brilliant. These were heavenly mysteries he wasn't familiar with himself, so he naturally wanted to ask about it in detail.

Those who could create cultivation systems, even if they were just a member that succeeded through group strength, being able to almost break through the Immortal King Realm in the end was still already shocking enough.

"He was seriously injured in the Realm Sea, in the end dying in Guidance Ancient Palace."

When he heard these words, Shi Hao's eyes released great radiance, the light burning like a torch, releasing great dao symbols that interweaved together, splitting the void.

He thought of something. In the past, when he was in Burial Earth, he saw Cao Yusheng's future body. Back then, Cao Yusheng frantically told him that he had to be careful... palace.

At the time, he didn't have any way of really hearing everything, only seizing the word palace.

After so many years, he had always been pondering over this on his own, thinking over many things.

Guidance Ancient Palace, this wasn't the first time he heard about this. It was because during the struggle between the three thousand provinces' geniuses, he already saw one in Immortal Ancient Remains.

At that time, the palace drew in a primordial spirit from an unknown place.

"This is precisely the Guidance Ancient Palace." The woman pointed at the Chaotic Ancient Palace on the treetop.

"Why is it here?" Shi Hao was bewildered.

"My grandfather previously slaughtered his way over, seizing it and suppressing it here." The golden-haired woman said.

"Why are you telling me these things?" Shi Hao asked.

“Because I just happened to see that you wanted to save this woman.”

“Is there any connection between these two things?” Shi Hao asked for guidance.

“Guidance Ancient Palace is related to the Darkness Prison, only through Guidance Ancient Palace can one be connected there.” The golden-haired girl said.

“Darkness Prison?!”

Darkness Prison, the place where primordial spirits are locked up one after another. That place is an endless void, a boundless dark territory, a place we cannot step foot in.

When he heard everything up to here, Shi Hao’s mind was surging crazily. He knew what kind of place that was, it was the same as what he suspected.

In the past, he had previously gone there!

When he was cultivating his second strand of immortal energy, he almost died there. His primordial spirit left his body, mysteriously entering Darkness Prison, locked up there for a long time.

That prison rose and fell along the long river of time, like a land of reincarnation. It imprisoned many creatures, some of them were powerful beyond imagination, imperishable since ancient times.

“Do you know where the darkness matter originates from?” The golden-haired woman asked.

“Could it be...”

“It comes precisely from behind Darkness Prison.” She said it like this.

Shi Hao’s mind was in complete chaos. He actually learned about this mystery.

Everything was because this woman’s grandfather was too powerful, back then, he was someone who had hopes of breaking through the Immortal King Realm, one of the most powerful individuals in this world. This was why she was able to tell him so much.

“The darkness’ corrosion will bring away those creatures’ primordial spirits, nurture their flesh, and produce new primordial spirits. That is why there is no need for doubt, this woman’s newly produced primordial spirit is still hers, not another creature coming in and occupying her. It is just that she no longer has her past memories, becoming different from before.”

Shi Hao was stunned. It was actually like this!

Huo Ling’er’s primordial spirit still existed, it entered the Land of Darkness, locked up in that prison? Just what kind of place exactly was that?!

“She still exists, but the new primordial spirit still isn’t the one I know.” Shi Hao said. He felt both happiness and sorrow.

What made him happy was that Huo Ling’er still existed in that Land of Darkness, there was hope, he could still find her!

“What kind of nonsense are you all talking about?” Huo Ling’er didn’t believe any of this.

"You don't need to look at it anymore, it has already been destroyed by my grandfather, suppressed. The connection to that place has already been severed." The woman shook her head.

Then, she told him that there was more than one Guidance Ancient Palace, instead, there were many of them. All of them were located in the void.

"When you cross the void, the blood dyed ancient ship, immortal ascension light and Chaotic Ancient Palaces, these things that people are most scared of encountering, they are all related to each other." The woman said.

She told him that the Chaotic Ancient Palaces that were visible in the void were just like the one here, belonging to Guidance Ancient Palace!

As for the blood-soaked ancient ship, Shi Hao knew that it originated from the Realm Sea. He saw more than one rising and falling in that ocean!

"What kind of connection do they all have? Could it be that there is more than one way, that we don't have to borrow the Guidance Ancient Palace?" Shi Hao asked.

"There is another way to enter the Land of Darkness, an easier way to explore the ultimate mysteries of the darkness, as well as the path many people are taking. This is precisely crossing the Realm Sea." The woman said.

Shi Hao didn't say anything, his eyes becoming more and more brilliant. That day, he learned of too many mysteries. He was digesting it all, thinking to himself, great waves surging within him.

There were some things not even the restricted region lord knew about, because he was already ruined, only some remnant will left behind. The past memories had already been hacked away.

"When crossing the void, if you can see ascension light, occasionally, one can see it tear open a crack, and enter the Land of Darkness through there. However, the creatures who entered have never come back out alive."

"It was actually like this!" Shi Hao nodded.

Guidance Ancient Palace could bring one to Darkness Prison!

At the limits of the Realm Sea laid the greatest mysteries behind the darkness land.

"Those who wish to surpass Immortal King Realm all went to take the Realm Sea path. It is because back then, there was a pair of shallow footprints that led there, these traces not something an immortal king could leave behind." The golden-haired woman said.

Shi Hao remained silent for a long time, giving her a bow of respect, deeply expressing his thanks. Otherwise, even if he used the True Phoenix egg to help Huo Ling'er carry out a rebirth, he still wouldn't be able to bring back that person from before.

Turns out she was in the Land of Darkness!

After ten thousand years passed, just how much did she suffer? She was trapped there all alone.

“The corrosion of darkness sometimes cannot bring away all of one’s soul, there would still be a bit leftover.” The woman said, understanding a lot about the truth.

Shi Hao nodded. He thought back to Meng Tianzheng, if not for him having a ruined spirit, why would he help him out, kill those true immortals?

As long as their primordial spirits still existed, still alive, then there was still hope. He definitely had to save them!

However, a shadow covered Shi Hao’s mind, recalling his past experience. When he entered mysteriously, if not for him being extraordinary, he would have died in the prison back then.

“The darkness will erase normal bodies, the prison isn’t something anyone can use. Only those who have the privilege of achieving immortality, becoming undying existences, will have their primordial spirits preserved.” The golden-haired woman said.

Shi Hao was stunned. This woman’s grandfather was heaven-defying after all, even this type of secret could be investigated, no wonder he passed away in the end. He definitely came into contact with too much, involved too deeply, killed by the darkness as a result.

Then, he thought to himself again and again, feeling his entire body turning cold. It really was horrifying.

That cage selectively preserved primordial spirits. In the end, all those who were left behind were the most powerful, storing their primordial spirits. Just what was it trying to do?

The more he thought about it, the more terrifying he felt it was.

“This world’s creatures are all trying to make it through!” The golden-haired woman sighed.

During this process, Huo Ling’er’s expression was complicated. The two of them didn’t discuss this behind her back, making her mind produce great waves. Even though she didn’t believe any of this, not willing to accept it, she was still a bit shaken.

“What kind of method does that bone record refer to?” Shi Hao consulted her. He looked towards that Chaotic Ancient Palace, which was also a Guidance Ancient Palace.

Back then, he discovered a rough bone there, the recordings on it saying that there was a method in this world that was world shocking and incomparable, something that not even a heavenly emperor obtained before.

“That bone is something my grandfather’s generation left behind, using the great dao characters of different ages to inform those of later generations. According to my speculations, it should be the lower piece of the True Primordial Record.”

The lower piece of the True Primordial Record?

This news was extremely shocking!

It was rumored that the True Primordial Record had three pieces in total, the upper piece Divine Guidance, middle piece Transcendence, and the lower piece whose situation was not known by anyone.

“You have to be careful. My grandfather’s group also wished to establish an Immortal Court. Those individuals considered themselves emperors, but in the end still couldn’t break through the Immortal King Realm, unable to receive that type of blessing. In the end, they all collapsed one after the next, even their clansmen pretty much eradicated. I was sealed, and a butcher fled to another ancient realm, rumored to have ultimately headed into the Realm Sea as well.”

When Shi Hao heard these things, he was extremely shaken and stupefied.

There was actually this much to consider?

No wonder that bone wrote that it was a natural luck not even heavenly emperors could obtain.

“Ever since the ancient times, there were still a few who dared claim to be emperors in the Immortal Dao Domain, but none of them were able to break through the Immortal King Realm, ultimately dying extremely miserably.” The golden-haired woman told him.

Shi Hao nodded. He established the Imperial Court, the mortal world already calling him a heavenly emperor, but this was only in a ruined world’s Cultivationless Age.

This wasn’t Immortal Domain, nor was it the other side. He felt like this title wasn’t worth much.

It was just a title, what was so special about that?

Xiu!

In the end, the World Tree turned into a streak of light, carrying that woman away, disappearing without a trace.

Shi Hao brought Huo Ling’er back to Imperial Court, the latter’s expression complicated, unknown what she was thinking about, sneaking a look at him from time to time.

“This is the Phoenix’s immortal egg, hold onto it carefully. In the future, it will be extremely useful to you!” Shi Hao said, giving Huo Ling’er the True Phoenix egg.

“I don’t want it!” Huo Ling’er backed up.

The years continued, a hundred years passing in a flash. Shi Hao completely calmed down, entering seclusion, cultivating bitterly.

It was because he knew that if he wanted to enter the Land of Darkness, with his current cultivation, it still wasn’t enough. He had to rise up to Immortal King Realm!

However, would others give him that chance?

Chapter 1933 - Immortal Descent

A hundred years later, Shi Hao came out of seclusion. He prepared to face danger, wishing to brave death to attack at the Immortal King Realm. Right now, he could challenge half immortal kings and could even kill all opponents under the immortal king level.

However, if he truly faced immortal kings, he would definitely seem extremely sorry!

That was why he felt anxious inside, feeling that he had to risk it all. He didn't have time to continue accumulating right now, the peace was going to be shattered soon.

It was because a heaven shocking battle happened by the Realm Sea, long having creatures who have reached the shore, already fighting it out over there!

The experts there were all unimaginable, all of them heaven warping figures that had survived by fighting the long river of history. The appearance of any one of them would be heaven shocking.

It could be said that the creatures of Realm Sea were the main characters of different ages, those at the peak who truly faced the storm from the front. Otherwise, why would those immortal kings and undying kings feel like they were facing a great enemy?!

These people's return signified great chaos. Some creatures were still themselves, some of them long losing themselves, their true selves no longer existing, becoming someone else!

"Invite them here!"

After Shi Hao came out of seclusion, he ordered the attendants to summon the crimson dragon, Mu Qing, Heavenly Horned Ant and the others.

In this world, the ones he was close to were just these. Among them, only the Lightning Spirit, Emperor Butterfly, Heavenly Horned Ant, these few became extreme dao experts who were at the peak of Supreme Being Realm.

Many others already became old under the passage of time!

The past eight hundred disciples no longer existed, what replaced them were their descendants!

Shi Hao looked into the mountains behind Imperial Court. There were too many graves there, resting within them were some of the powerful individuals who had followed him for many, many years, but still weren't a match against time.

Mu Qing and Zhu Lin came. The Heavenly Horned Ant, Lightning Spirit, Emperor Butterfly, Diving Striking Stone and others also all appeared.

These people previously belonged to the same generation, they were the last of the creatures who were still alive from those times.

Huo Ling'er was also here. During these years, she was forbidden from leaving Imperial Court, but she didn't try to escape. At her feet was a half foot long little wolf.

They knew that something was definitely about to happen.

"Master, what happened?" The crimson dragon asked.

"I miss everyone." Shi Hao said.

He thought for a bit. He had everyone head to Imperial Court's rear mountains where he once established a great grave. There was a special valley there that buried two creatures.

This was a mysterious burial cave, originally not belonging to this place. It was moved here from a different place.

When the burial cave was opened up, cries sounded from within, sounding like the howls of a wolf.

“Wretched, we’ve encountered tomb raiders! You all actually dare raid your ancestor’s body, do you not want to continue living anymore?!”

That was Cao Yusheng’s voice, flustered and exasperated.

“Bark bark...” Then, dog barking noises sounded. “Who dares plunder my tomb? Bark!”

Imperial Court’s divine generals were all speechless. Why were these two still alive? At first, they were given a fright, but upon closer inspection, they noticed that the man and dog weren’t dead!

“We are Imperial Court’s divine generals!” One of them hurriedly explained. He was a descendant of those eight hundred disciples.

Kacha!

A clear sound rang out. An old daoist priest was dressed in precious clothes, shattering the Divine Origin Stone crystals as he came out. This was Cao Yusheng, extremely fat, but also quite old, his hair white.

On the other side was a small dog the size of a palm, its hair all red, incredibly old. It was the dog Without End Immortal King raised, but its dao skills had already been crippled.

Back then, this man and dog weren’t able to reach the peak of extreme dao, so they were sealed in Divine Origin Liquid, buried here.

“What, did Huang order you all to dig up the tomb?” Cao Yusheng muttered. Even though he was discontent, he had no choice but to appear in the world now.

However, he wasn’t worried either. Shi Hao was still here, so he could quickly refine Divine Origin Liquid, seal them up again.

“It’s been seven to eight thousand years already.”

When he entered the central heavenly temple, Cao Yusheng released a sigh, feeling a bit sentimental. There weren’t many left from the people in the past. He knew that they had all passed away.

Then, the restricted region lord, crystal skull and other old freaks were also invited over.

Everyone knew that something major was definitely happening, or else why would Shi Hao make such a huge move, call all of them over.

“I am preparing to risk it all and attack at the Immortal King Realm. I wanted to have a small gathering with everyone today.” Shi Hao was extremely direct, telling them this.

Apart from the restricted region lord and a few other old freaks, the others were all stupefied.

Shi Hao ordered someone to prepare a great cauldron. Then, he personally produced an ancient beast’s body, producing only half of its body here, flowing with mysterious precious light.

"What species is this?" Zhu Lin asked.

"Time Beast, Scarlet King!" Shi Hao replied.

A kuangdang noise sounded. Cao Yusheng's wine cup fell to the ground, releasing a peng noise. The little dog knocked over a jade table, just too shocked.

Scarlet King, what kind of existence was this? In the past, he fought with the immortal kings of the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, moreover powerfully refined an unmatched immortal king. It was actually... chopped up?!

"It was just a coincidence..." Shi Hao chuckled, explaining things to them.

"This really feels good! You hacked it up well!" Cao Yusheng cried out, the little dog also barking out. Back then, Scarlet King was someone who was extremely vicious, making Immortal Ancient's generation's faces all change upon hearing its name.

This was a reborn body, not the completely reborn Scarlet King. Shi Hao didn't know how much essence was in this type of transforming flesh. He never touched it all this time, but invited everyone out today.

Then, he produced a precious tree, releasing it into this giant central palace. It was precisely the Dao Comprehension Tea Tree, on it two thousand eight hundred or so leaves that shone brilliantly.

"Dao Comprehension Tea." The restricted region lord was shocked, turning into a white clothed man, sitting here.

This was definitely good stuff, able to help one comprehend the dao, consolidate one's cultivation, break through their current cultivation realm.

"This is what you need the most when breaking through, you don't need to worry about us." The Heavenly Horned Ant said.

"It's fine. When breaking into the immortal king level, these things most likely won't be very useful." Shi Hao shook his head.

Soon afterwards, meat fragrance wafted through this place. The soup being simmered in the cauldron flowed with seven-colored brilliance, auspicious energy surging, the fragrance extremely alluring.

If Scarlet King knew about this, he would definitely be angered to death!

These people chewed on large pieces of Scarlet King's meat.

"This won't do, the essence within this stuff is too strange. Even though it won't make me explode, I feel a bit uncomfortable, unable to continue enjoying it." Cao Yusheng was the first one to cry out.

Then, the others also sensed something, stopping after eating a portion.

As for the restricted region lord, he only sipped on tea, not eating the Time Beast's flesh.

Shi Hao didn't mind, carefully tasting this meat. He was searching, seeing if there were any dao fruit fragments of that undying king, but he didn't find anything.

Huo Ling'er was also here. Shi Hao brought a plate of tender meat over to her.

In the end, most of the large cauldron of meat was finished by Shi Hao, a larger half of Scarlet King's reborn body was eaten by Shi Hao.

Then, they began to enjoy the tea and discuss the dao. After not meeting for many years, now, they were the only ones left, so they were naturally deeply moved, having many things they wanted to say.

Weng!

Suddenly, heaven and earth shook. Shi Hao suddenly raised his head, his eyes releasing shocking beams of light, gazing into the sky dome.

He knew that something was wrong. There was a great realm gate that was opened, it was this type of powerful fluctuation.

In the sky dome, there was a gate that was opened. Immortal light was released, auspicious multicolored light shining endlessly. A great golden path appeared, bringing some people out.

Then, that gate closed again, thus disappearing.

"Huang, are you still in this world? If you are still alive, quickly come and receive this decree!"

Someone shouted, the voice shaking the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. This was a true immortal, right now looking down on this world, coldly examining it.

The world immediately became quiet, only his voice echoing about. The cultivators of all clans were completely silent, no one replying.

Inside the central heavenly temple, Shi Hao released a light sigh, saying, "I thought it would be an undying king who would act against me first. Who would have thought that the immortal kings would make their move first!"

He sat there without moving, continuing to sip on Dao Comprehension Tea.

"Master!"

"Shi Hao!"

The crimson dragon, Heavenly Horned Ant and others all revealed worried expressions. Why did Immortal Domain's people come again? This time, they clearly came with bad intentions, the waves of aura released were too strong.

"Brazen! Since the Fake Imperial Court still exists, why is no one replying? Even if Huang dies, you all have to receive the decree in his place!" That true immortal shouted.

He called the Imperial Court Fake Imperial Court, carrying cold intent.

"You've judged that I was dead just like that?" Shi Hao appeared, bringing the Heavenly Horned Ant, Mu Qing and the others, as well as a group of divine generals out, facing the heavens, his expression cold.

"Which random shameful true immortal came down?" The Divine Striking Stone shouted.

“So you really were still alive!” This true immortal’s pupils contracted. In the past, Immortal Domain sent out geniuses under the escort of immortal dao experts to seize this realm’s Heaven’s Core Imprint, but in the end, they were all killed by Huang, even true immortals falling.

He naturally became a bit tense, fearing that Shi Hao would act out.

“Huang, you should come and respectfully accept this decree.” This true immortal said. He raised his hand, a golden decree appearing, and then he began to read it.

Meanwhile, there was a group of people behind him, among them some true immortals, and then one creature with a terrifying aura, its magical force vigorous. It was actually a half immortal king.

This made Shi Hao frown. Immortal Domain could actually send a half immortal king into the lower realm, their methods were shocking.

“Which immortal king’s decree?” Shi Hao asked.

That true immortal sneered, holding that decree in hand as he said, “Huang, aren’t you regarding yourself too highly?”

Shi Hao’s eyes were icy cold, penetrating beyond compare, like lightning. This immediately made this true immortal break out into a cold shiver, unable to help but take two steps back.

“This is Duo Mu Half Immortal King’s decree. Why aren’t you respectfully kneeling to receive the decree yet?!” He berated.

Then, he looked towards the people behind him, bowing extremely respectfully to the half immortal king at the center. This was clearly that Duo Mu Half Immortal King.

Imperial Court’s people were all furious. Immortal Domain’s visitors were just too overbearing, immediately demanding the master of Imperial Court to receive a decree, extremely domineering.

“Do you want to die?!” Shi Hao only had these words, looking towards the true immortal who held the decree.

“Read it for him to hear!”

At this time, that Duo Mu Half Immortal King spoke, having this true immortal read the decree.

“Huang, establishing a Fake Imperial Court on his own initiative, going against immortal dao...”

That true immortal read it loudly, berating Shi Hao, his tone harsh, passing judgment on his sins. According to the decree, they were going to escort Shi Hao to Immortal Domain to carry out a trial and punishment.

“Huang, you still aren’t receiving this decree?!” This true immortal shouted.

This time, even though he didn’t have Shi Hao kneel, his attitude wasn’t changed at all. He was still extremely domineering and arrogant.

It was because he had a half immortal king behind him, had this type of great figure overseeing this place. He believed that this time, Huang was finished, that he was going to be suppressed and killed.

Unfortunately, he didn't know that after thousands of years passed, Huang made great progress, achieving immortality. He even headed to the other side and killed half undying kings!

If he knew this, he would definitely break out into shivers, not daring to speak.

Everything was because Shi Hao's cultivation speed was too fast, far exceeding these people's expectations. After all, it was just a few thousand years.

"Courting death!"

Shi Hao only had these two words. Then, he brandished a fist imprint, smashing forward with a hong noise.

Pu!

That giant fist was like a small mountain, smashing into the void. That true immortal wanted to escape, but he was surrounded by natural laws, unable to struggle free, exploding on the spot, crushed into a blast of bloody mist.

It was just a single fist, yet a true immortal already died!

"You dare!" Duo Mu Half Immortal King was furious. He actually dared kill before his face.

"You are nothing more than a half immortal king, what qualifications do you have to act so arrogant, try me, make me receive your decree!" Shi Hao's voice was cold.

What was the most upsetting was that Duo Mu was right there, he could have just personally spoken, yet he actually had someone read a decree, putting on this type of arrogant appearance, as if it was beneath him to speak.

"I am a half immortal king, yet you are not accepting this decree. Do you wish to go against Immortal Domain's will?" Duo Mu asked with a sunken expression.

"Half immortal kings aren't worth anything! It's not like I haven't killed them before!" Shi Hao shouted, directly taking action, rushing forward fiercely.

At the same time, he displayed a great divine ability, wrapping around this area, moving to the depths of the cosmos to avoid damaging the mountains and rivers below.

"You..."

Duo Mu was shocked. A single moment of absent-mindedness and he was brought away. This was a bit shameful.

The other three true immortals and some others that followed them were also brought over, all of them horrified at this time.

"Kill!" Shi Hao roared.

Something that left all of them shocked happened. An intense battle directly erupted, the battle terrifying. Shi Hao killed Half Immortal King Duo Mu, a fist smashing through his skull, crushing his primordial spirit, ending his life.

Pu!

Half Immortal King Duo Mu's body exploded, his body and spirit dying.

The remaining people were absolutely terrified. Did this Huang want to defy the heavens? Just how old was he? He could even kill half immortal kings?!

Chapter 1934 - Huge Crisis

Duo Mu, a half immortal king, was killed. The scene of Heaven's Tears and other irregular scenes appeared. It was because he was absorbed by this world, this the case for all of the undying beings and true immortals who died in this realm.

This ruined world was being restored, devouring all living things in reverse. Whenever a powerful being died, the powerful essence energy would be absorbed by heaven and earth, their divine ability laws merging into the great dao.

The others began to panic. Just now, they were full of confidence. Some of these followers weren't even true immortals, yet they were arrogant and bossy, looking down on the residents of this world, yet now, it was a completely different story.

The half immortal king they looked up to was killed just like that, what were they supposed to do now?

In that instant, the faces of the people here turned pale, inwardly panicking, not knowing what to do. This was completely different from what they predicted.

In their opinion, when a half immortal king entered the lower realms to subdue some enemies, what Huang, what Imperial Court? They were nothing more than chickens, unable to take a single blow.

Those followers came to get in on a share of natural luck. No matter how impoverished the lower realm was, there were definitely still some heavenly materials left. This time, a half immortal king descended, so they were sure that Imperial Court would be gone. Once their treasuries were searched, there would definitely be great returns.

Unfortunately, everything was different from what they imagined!

Even those true immortals' expressions were ugly, inwardly shaken, feeling great regret. They really shouldn't have joined in on the action this time. Why did they have to covet the lower realm's treasures?

"Huang, you are a bit too domineering. If there is something to discuss, why is there a need to kill our cultivators?" A true immortal braced himself and said.

He had no choice but to speak up because Huang's current expression was extremely unkind, already staring at them, strand after strand of killing intent released.

"All of you already came down here to kill me, attaching crimes to my name, wishing to destroy my Imperial Court. Could it be that I still really have to kneel down and accept this decree?" Shi Hao asked coldly.

“Huang, this matter can be properly discussed. We were also left with no choice. You should know that heaven’s will cannot be defied!” A true immortal’s eyes flickered with golden light, wishing to calm down Shi Hao.

“Heaven’s will cannot be defied? Which heaven’s will?” Shi Hao asked.

“Aocheng Immortal King, Taishi Immortal King and Yuanchu Immortal King!” Right at this time, a comparatively young true immortal said.

He became a true immortal not too long ago, carrying a sense of deeply rooted pride. When he saw Shi Hao act this powerfully, he found it unsightly, thus stating that three immortal kings wanted to suppress him.

When the other two true immortals heard this, their expressions immediately changed, inwardly thinking that things were bad!

Back then, Immortal Domain’s people already heard of Huang’s power. Aocheng Immortal King and Taishi Immortal King’s direct descendants were all killed by Huang. They dared face him for the Heaven’s Core Imprint, ultimately ending up being directly cut down!

Now, they were still trying to use the immortal kings’ names to intimidate him. With his nature, it would definitely be ineffective, only making things more dangerous for all of them.

“Aocheng, Taishi, Yuanchu? Hmph, merely immortal kings, yet they dare wantonly call it heaven’s will. What qualifications do they have to convict me of crimes?” Shi Hao’s face sunk.

That comparatively younger true immortal’s expression changed. He had cultivated in seclusion for many years, only recently achieving true immortal status. Even though he didn’t understand Huang too well, he could also see how tough the other party was.

“Cough, Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu, the three immortal kings aren’t necessarily convicting you of crimes, only wishing to question you. Since you don’t believe us, then that’s fine, we’ll go back and tell them.”

An aged true immortal spoke, really wishing to immediately leave.

“Those three old things are absolutely disgraceful!” Shi Hao said with a cold voice.

He loathed Aocheng and Taishi greatly. When he entered Immortal Domain back then, those two already took action, almost ending his life. If not for the restricted region lord asking Pan King for help, he would have most likely died there.

“You are completely unbridled. You dare disrespect an immortal king?!” That young true immortal shouted. This was speaking blasphemy against immortal kings! He felt like he had to speak up right now, and only then could he explain himself properly when he went back to Immortal Domain.

He wanted to be on good terms with these three great immortal king families. Right now, he didn’t need to make a move, he only needed to slightly ‘speak for righteousness’.

Unfortunately, he didn't understand Shi Hao, he only just came out of seclusion, not familiar with Shi Hao's nature. At the very least, the other two old fellas were extremely quiet, not daring to speak too much.

Hong!

Sure enough, this young true immortal paid the price for his 'righteousness'. A fist crushed this starry sky, surrounding the sky dome, slamming at him murderously.

It wasn't that he wasn't strong, but rather the enemy was too sinister, his dao law force like a waterfall, crashing down from above, drowning him where he was, almost imprisoning him.

He released a loud shout, doing everything he could to resist with full force. He released a palm, immortal dao symbols filling the skies. However, he couldn't stop it at all!

Pu!

This person exploded, his body and spirit erased.

"Do you all still want me to take action?" Shi Hao asked, looking towards the others.

"We don't dare!" The two true immortals gave in.

Shi Hao wasn't polite at all, suppressing them, adding seals to all of them. Then, he handed them over to the Heavenly Horned Ant, Mu Qing and the others.

"Search their immortal dao symbols for opportunities of achieving immortality."

The two true immortals' faces immediately became green. They were glorious true immortals! Being captured by Huang was one thing, but they even had to let Mortal Dao cultivators randomly search them?

They were inwardly unwilling, but they didn't dare rebel. All of their dao skills were sealed!

"Do you think your actions here will bring great trouble in the future?" Cao Yusheng asked quietly.

After all, this was detaining Immortal Domain's creatures, a single mishap and tremendous trouble would be provoked.

Shi Hao sighed. Would bowing down allow them to avoid a death disaster? This was completely impossible!

The killing intent of immortal kings couldn't be erased!

Instead of this, he might as well just do what he wished, kill if he had to. The three immortal kings could continue to send people down to try and capture him, but he definitely won't kneel and receive their decree.

He could die, but he couldn't be humiliated!

Furthermore, it wasn't like he only killed one or two of Aocheng and Taishi's descendants, this time, even a half immortal king was killed, no idea what clan he was from. When there were too many bugs, would one still be scared of being bitten?

Duo Mu didn't return for a long time. Some Immortal Domain powers sensed that there might be issues, this leaving them shocked. The lower realm wasn't some den of tigers or pool of dragons, could there still be something unexpected that happened?

Several days later, several more people from Immortal Domain descended into the three thousand provinces, searching for Duo Mu and the others' traces.

"Imperial Court captured them?" They simply didn't dare to believe this. As a result, they directly paid them a visit.

However, these people didn't dare act wantonly, only asking Imperial Court to release the prisoners. However, in the end, they were refused.

"Coming and going as you wish, what kind of place are you treating my Imperial Court as? You all wanted to capture me, but after being captured instead, you still want us to let you all go?"

These people left in a dejected manner, reporting to Immortal Domain's authoritative figures. This triggered a great uproar.

Several days later, two more half immortal kings entered the lower realm, bringing a powerful weapon with them to kill Shi Hao. That weapon was too terrifying, endless immortal radiance was released from it, simply about to destroy this realm.

However, this was also their limit. They could only send two half immortal kings, even this already triggering a powerful rejection from this world.

Moreover, that weapon had a large amount of its power sealed, or else it couldn't be brought down.

Some old fellas sleeping in restricted regions were alarmed.

"Immortal king artifact, Taishi Immortal King has been angered." Someone said with a low voice.

That was a sealed immortal king artifact. The Nine Heavens Ten Earths were greatly shaken.

Shi Hao remained fearless. When he was disturbed while in seclusion, he directly faced them while holding the Everlasting Sword Core. Since the other side wanted his life, then who cares if you are an immortal king expert or what other background they had, he would just kill them all the same!

"You have defied the will of heaven! Today, your head will be removed!" The two half immortal kings took action together, supporting that immortal king magical artifact together.

"Even Taishi, Aocheng and Yuanchu dare to claim to be heaven's will? Die!"

Shi Hao released a great roar, facing them in the starry sky. This battle continued until the sun and moon lost brilliance, mountains and rivers lost color, stars collapsing!

The Everlasting Sword Core was the same as always, never weaker than another, becoming stronger the more powerful the opponent it faced was. It could actually stop this half sealed immortal king artifact, erupting with blazing radiance.

Pu! n).0veL&In

Blood radiance flickered. Once the great battle reached a thousand moves, Shi Hao's sword removed a head. That primordial spirit wanted to flee, but it was crushed by a streak of sword radiance!

A half immortal king lost his life!

He assimilated with the dao, a sea of essence energy absorbed by this universe. After his body exploded, he turned into natural law and order, merging into the great dao.

"You..."

The other individual was horrified. Even though he wielded an immortal king magical artifact, chills still ran down his back. He hacked open the void, wishing to flee through Immortal Domain's gate, not wanting to fight anymore.

Only, he wasn't able to escape.

Ah...

While running and fighting at the same time, his chest was hacked open by Shi Hao's sword, blood gushing out. Then, the sword pierced through his forehead, ending his life in the starry sky.

Chi!

Unfortunately, the Immortal King magical artifact couldn't be kept. It turned into a streak of light, rushing towards that gate, returning to Immortal Domain.

The great restricted regions' experts couldn't help but be moved. Huang's growth was ferocious after all, leaving them deeply shocked. Some of their eyes were deep, primal chaos appearing, unknown what they were thinking.

In Immortal Domain, the ancient cosmos Taishi Immortal King ruled over, a cold and ruthless snort sounded. The stars in the heavens all shook, making some true immortals' bodies turn cold, become rigid.

Taishi Immortal King was angered!

"Dao brother, Realm Sea is currently unstable, do not head into the lower realm now. Paying the price to kill him now isn't worth it." Aocheng spoke from millions and millions of li away.

If an immortal king wanted to go down, it wasn't that there wasn't a way, but they had to pay the price. Their realm was originally of the same origin as the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. If they charged in, injuring that realm's great dao foundation, there would be much karma involved.

Yuanchu sat in the primal chaos, his eyes closed, also speaking up at this time. "Wu, I can see that the lower realm's natural laws are gradually becoming complete, its great dao reviving. The entire world is recovering. Once that realm is powerful enough, it will no longer reject us. We can enter then!"

Immortal Domain and the foreign realm, these two places had complete natural laws, the great dao powerful enough, which was why they didn't reject experts at the immortal king level, allowing for travel in between them.

The Nine Heaven Ten Earths were beaten into ruin, trying to restore itself all this time.

Time flowed on. After several decades, Desolate Border's uninhabited region displayed irregular changes. There were extremely powerful experts who slaughtered their way over, actually half undying kings!

Two great experts appeared, one of them holding a golden spear, precisely Anlan's weapon. It carried endless power, wishing to pierce through this realm.

There was another expert who held Anlan's shield. It was like an armor that released dazzling radiance, the aura terrifying.

In the past great war, Anlan wielded a golden spear in one hand and a shield in the other, unstoppable. These two were the weapons he became a king with!

Now, there were people who wielded them, slaughtering their way over to kill Shi Hao, not even give him a chance!

Hong!

Even though Shi Hao was in seclusion, how could this type of thing not startle him?

He immediately rushed over, facing these great enemies!

The Everlasting Sword Core shone, the scene horrifying. Not only was there Immortal Ascension Light, there was also the terrifying scene of blood flooding a grave, leaving the other side's two great experts shocked.

They fought intensely, fighting a miserable great battle!

In the end, Shi Hao hacked one of them in half, making the golden spear in that person's hand tremble continuously, wishing to undo all of its seals.

However, it didn't succeed!

Pu!

The other person was hacked in the waist, and then his primordial spirit was erased!

After this life and death battle, this place became quiet. The two weapons both returned to the other side, the undying king's weapons couldn't be made to remain.

Thus, the world became peaceful. The restricted region's creatures were sure that Huang was already unmatched under the immortal king level, there was no way they could kill him!

This might be the start of an age, or perhaps the end of an age. They were all waiting for shocking changes to happen.

It was because they all sensed something.

Shi Hao was also waiting. In recent years, he abandoned all methods and all precious techniques, only cultivating his own great dao, establishing his own path.

Perhaps it could be said that he completely digested the Kun Peng, Willow Deity, True Phoenix, Lightning Emperor and other unmatched experts' precious techniques, turning them into nourishment for his own great dao. He broke down the Imperishable Scripture, True Primordial Record, Six Dao Reincarnations and other heavenly arts, merging them into his own system.

He assimilated everything, truly walking on his own path, already difficult to see the shadows of others.

He was preparing, wishing to take that step!

Even though he knew that this was extremely difficult, even more terrifying than nine deaths one life, he already didn't have a choice. He was forced into this critical situation.

The other side's Anlan and Scarlet King wanting him dead was one thing, but even Immortal Domain's Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu wanted his life. This posed a great threat to him, the pressure making it hard for him to even breathe.

Chapter 1935 - Start of Chaos

During these years, Immortal Domain still occasionally sent down people to scout things out, but they didn't dare take action, really scared badly. Meanwhile, the immortal kings couldn't be bothered with this side right now.

As for the foreign realm, after two half undying kings died miserably, there was a huge commotion raised. The warlike individuals here were all worked up and incredibly resentful, but there was still nothing they could do.

Unless an undying king took action, everyone else would die.

Hong!

That day, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths trembled. Everyone vaguely saw a large hand that almost tore open the realm walls, extremely blurry as it reached over. It was pitch-black like ink, just a finger alone much larger than a star!

The realm wall displayed cracks. When some experts saw this, they all sucked in cold breaths of air!

"A creature from Realm Sea!" There were sighs that sounded from the restricted regions. This day finally arrived. The experts of the Realm Sea have appeared, a creature was about to descend into this realm.

Chi!

An arrow flew out. With a pu noise, it landed on that large hand. The blood that splashed out was black-colored, terrifying beyond compare, surging like waves.

One had to understand that this blood, compared to that large black hand, there was just a tiny bit. However, when it fell through the realm wall crack, it turned into a black flood.

Ah...

A miserable cry transmitted from that region, all creatures' lives erased!

However, that large hand also withdrew, searching for the one who released that arrow, releasing a low roar from its mouth.

The great chaos was about to begin!

Time flowed on, another few decades passing. Shi Hao confirmed that the five secret realms were perfect, that he was only a bit away from the ultimate step!

He wanted to undergo a transformation!

During these years, on his great dao path, there was already no one else's figure that could be seen, only his own path. Everything was merged, many schools of thought merged into his own great dao!

Ever since that day, Shi Hao no longer cultivated, instead starting to adjust his own condition, approaching a transcendent state, without joys or worries. He travelled to random places under the sky.

Honglong!

Realm Sea's great waves rushed into the skies, a single wave a ruined world. Creatures appeared in the sea one after another, moving across the ocean waves, getting closer and closer to shore.

In reality, many years ago, there were already people ashore, fighting a great battle there.

Chi!

A scarlet red war spear that was massive beyond compare, who knew how many tens of thousands of li in length, pierced through this world. It released endless murderous light, its killing intent heaven overflowing!

There was a creature that was already on the shore. He was like a demonic mountain, majestic and too high to reach. It was currently him who was taking action. Wherever the spear moved past, it would stab towards a creature in the sea.

This was an extremely great battle. There were some creatures watching, others fighting in other places.

Pu!

In the end, the scarlet spear killed an ancient existence in the sea, blood filling the skies, scattering across the sea.

During this process, they didn't even speak a single word, directly taking action just like that. It was because they were old enemies, already acquainted many great eras ago.

Honglong!

In the sea, a great golden imprint flew out, covering heaven and earth, releasing a world shocking aura, suppressing the world, killing all living things.

With a peng noise, that golden great imprint smashed into a demonic god-like creature, making his entire body crack apart, his mouth releasing blood. He was trying to withstand it, but couldn't stop it, his body's weapons and armor all exploding to pieces.

Pu!

In the end, that creature on the shore exploded, smashed into a bloody mist by that great imprint.

Honglonglong!

In the Realm Sea, waves rushed into the heavens, simply about to engulf all realms in the heavens.

There was a figure standing on an island. He looked extremely blurry, but he held a shining long blade that illuminated the endless sea area in his hands.

“I’ve already waited for you for a long time!”

When this creature said this, a streak of blade radiance hacked out with a shua noise. It was terrifying beyond compare, enough to sever the cosmos, destroy a world!

Dang!

In the sea, there was a green pagoda that appeared, simple and ancient, floating above someone’s head. It directly scattered the blade radiance. The two erupted with endless symbols, great dao laws interweaving, clashing fiercely.

This world became chaotic, all of this because of the Realm Sea. Meanwhile, a group of experts ascended to the shore, about to wreak havoc in the heavens, carry out the most terrifying great confrontation.

A single accident and even the heavens would collapse!

Chi!

That day, a rainbow cut across the realm wall, producing a terrifying crack in the Nine Heavens, produced by an immortal sword. It was purple and sparkling, its killing intent rushing into the heavens.

There was a creature that wanted to cross over from the Realm Sea, but a giant wolf teeth club appeared behind him, smashing into the sword. This was a barbarian dressed in beast clothes, right now attacking the owner of the immortal sword.

Many experts saw this scene.

This wasn’t the first time the Nine Heavens Ten Earths encountered an attack. There were countless experts who returned from the Realm Sea, wishing to descend into this realm, their purpose unknown.

They were just too powerful, terrifying beyond comparison. They weren’t scared of being affected by great karma, directly trying to forcefully break in.

However, these individuals had too many old enemies, being attacked along the way, left with no choice but to fight a battle to the death.

Weng!

That day, in the Nine Heavens, there were several ancient restricted lands that shone. These were life restricted regions. At this time, they activated unmatched formations to protect themselves.

A few people set their resolution not to be affected by karma, not wishing to participate in this round of great darkness chaos.

In Imperial Court, everyone’s expressions became serious. A great calamity had begun, no cultivator would be able to escape from it. However, those creatures were just too strong!

Honglong!

Right at this time, outside Desolate Border, a world-shocking voice sounded. It was as if a sea was roaring, as if the cosmos was breaking apart. The fluctuations were intense, vast and boundless.

"The other side's creatures are about to descend?" The Heavenly Horned Ant's expression was cold, asking like this.

"No, it is Burial Earth. Back then, when the other side's passage was sealed, even Burial Region was sealed up. Now, that place has opened up."

This wasn't some good news. The world was becoming chaotic, yet Burial Earth made a reappearance in this world. It was impossible to tell whether they were friend or foe.

What one couldn't be sure of was dangerous!

Shi Hao got up. He really didn't have time now.

"After this battle, what will even be left of this world? I reckon there will only be mountains of corpses and rivers of blood left..." Shi Hao said.

Once an immortal king level battle began, the entire world would break apart, be crushed to pieces. Even the World Tree wouldn't be safe, unable to protect this universe.

"You all should go and bring the people away. This can also be considered establishing a great karma." Shi Hao ordered.

Shi Hao ordered Mu Qing, the crimson dragon, Lighting Spirit, Emperor Butterfly and others to use their great magical force and bring away the cultivators of all clans, bringing them to places of life.

At the same time, he dispatched Imperial Court's divine generals to carry out similar work. nov 11

"There are so many creatures under the heavens, we won't be able to save them all!" The Heavenly Horned Ant said.

"Just save as many as you can, send them into the copper coffin pulled by those nine dragons." Shi Hao said.

Inside the coffin was a world that was extremely vast, Shi Hao prepared to carry out a great shifting of the world, to bring away the living creatures of this realm, protect them.

Chi!

Immortal light surged. With a raise of Shi Hao's hands, nine sets of dragon bones appeared in his palm, pulling a bronze coffin behind them. It was less than three inches long, extremely short.

Only when he reached his current cultivation realm could he refine this coffin. He handed this treasure over to the restricted region lord.

"If there is great danger, I must ask senior to take it with you and hide in a safer place." Shi Hao said.

He trusted the restricted region lord's methods. At the very least, they could head into Immortal Domain to seek Pan King's protection.

He warned Mu Qing, the crimson dragon and others, telling them that when the time came, they had to follow the restricted region lord, that they couldn't leave on their own.

"Are you trying to make arrangements for the future?" The flame in the crystal skull's eye sockets burned intensely.

The old freaks could all see through Shi Hao's intention. This was his fight to win or die. If he succeeded, he would rise up above, turn into an immortal king, his strength powerful beyond compare, but if he lost, then it meant death!

"Only by making some plans can I continue without worry!" Shi Hao's voice was calm.

Several years later, in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, many famous mountains and rivers disappeared. They were removed by the Heavenly Horned Ant, Mu Qing and others one after another, brought into the bronze coffin world.

Some clans completely vanished, heading into the bronze coffin world.

However, there were some clans who weren't willing to leave, insisting on staying behind.

Peng!

The realm walls cracked again. Someone saw a black vicious bird that was like a black sun. It released dark light, a sharp claw almost tearing open this realm.

"There's no more time! It will be today, right now that I will try to break through!" Shi Hao said.

During these years, he had always been adjusting his own condition, no time left for him to slowly accumulate cultivation. He had to start, or else the immortal kings were going to descend.

Hong!

That day, in an uninhabited star in outer space, Shi Hao suddenly roared towards the heavens. All of his black hair stood on end, fluttering about chaotically.

At the same time, his body's five secret realms shone at the same time. Within his body, countless symbols shone, gates opening one after another.

Body as a seed, five great secret realms shone. His body's treasury was opened, releasing his potential. Shi Hao went for broke. He roared towards the heavens, using all of his strength to try and carry out this final leap. He wanted to break through, to transform and become an immortal king!

The world's great chaos was descending. He needed that type of strength, he had to immediately rise up. Otherwise, in the end, he would always be like ants in the eyes of others, easily killed at any time.

Shi Hao's body released thunderous noise, heaven shaking sounds ringing outwards. Gates were opened one after another, his five great realms all shining. The Sea of Reincarnation in his belly displayed yin yang changes, his entire body becoming dazzling, as if immortal flames rushed into the heavens.

Ah...

Shi Hao released a great roar, his voice shaking up the stars and the cosmos.

However, this instead wasn't enough to suppress the scripture sounds released by the dao palaces. Others couldn't hear it, but they could feel that grand aura.

He was breaking through, the five great secret realms all undergoing shocking transformations.

However, his body suffered damage, cracking. Even his own powerful self who cultivated the Imperishable Scripture, this technique now completely assimilated into a portion of his own dao laws, still suffered damage.

Blood trickled down. Shi Hao's body was covered in a bloody spiderweb, these were cracks. While attacking at the Immortal King Realm, the pressure he suffered was too terrifying.

In the depths of the cosmos, endless immortal radiance surged, a sea of stars trembling. All of the creatures in this world were shocked, raising their heads towards the sky.

"Heavens, just what kind of shockwaves are these? I can't endure it, I'm about to fall down!" Even an extremely powerful cultivator was already like this, let alone the others.

Right now, Shi Hao couldn't control his own power. He was attacking at the Immortal King Realm level with all his strength, about to carry out the final leap, become an unrivaled immortal king.

"He actually reached this step, about to achieve the immortal king status!" In the restricted regions, someone said with a sigh. Even they couldn't help but feel admiration.

There was an ancient expert who opened his eyes inside Fallen Immortal Ridge among them, his gaze cold, staring into outer space at this time.

"Ancient ancestor, are we going to take action?" Someone asked.

"I share some karma with that pagoda. Even though it entered the primordial gate, if this fella truly can rush into the heavens, perhaps there will be some karma attached."

In Fallen Immortal Ridge, within the central undying land, even cultivators who didn't achieve immortality could live for a long time. It was turned into a great pure land by this immortal king level existence.

This place was about the same as Immortal Domain!

"Go and light that lamp. We can inform Immortal Domain about the situation here. They will naturally send people to take action." This type of cold voice sounded from the undying land.

After Fallen Immortal Ridge's master said this, he closed his cold eyes, becoming completely silent and motionless once more!

Chapter 1936 - Immortal King's Interference

A faint lantern was lit, the frame made of bones, base made of bronze. It released a green light, flickering about continuously.

This type of ancient lamp was lit in the undying land, communicating with a certain mystical place in Immortal Domain.

The ancient lamp was placed on an altar. Soon afterwards, that place became blurry, forming an expanse of void cracks. There was no way for creatures to go through, but messages could be sent.

“Huang is about to face immortal king tribulation.” It was just this line. It was extremely simple and spoken extremely calmly, there was nothing else.

Then, this lamp went out. The creatures in the restricted region backed away, leaving this place.

Immortal Domain could not remain calm anymore. This piece of information was sent into some ancient families with great authority and influence, naturally, there was no lack of immortal king inheritances among them.

“Heh, interesting. He is attacking at the immortal king level at such a young age. Should I say that he has confidence or that he is courting death? He hasn’t accumulated enough at all.” Someone said with a laugh. This was a half immortal king.

Many people knew that Huang was doing this because he was under the pressure of time constraints. He had no choice but to make this kind of choice.

“Perhaps there is a chance for him to succeed!” Another person said.

The effects of this matter were extremely great. Older generation figures were discussing it among themselves, while Immortal Domain’s younger generation all stared at each other blankly, unable to speak from shock.

This was especially true for Ao Gan, Pan Yi, Hun Tian and others who had faced Shi Hao before. They were all stunned. Back then, they were still his opponent, but what about now?

Huang was too ferocious, actually attacking at the Immortal King Realm at his age!

Just how terrifying was this?!

Meanwhile, they still hadn’t achieved immortality!

Exiled Immortal, dual pupils Shi Yi, Great Xu Tuo, Princess Yao Yue, Qing Yi and the others were all stunned when they heard this as well, endlessly shaken and shocked.

Just how many years had passed? Yet Shi Hao actually reached this level.

They entered Immortal Domain precisely to search for opportunities, the chances of achieving immortality in this realm were higher. However, who would have thought that the one who remained in the lower realm alone actually went far ahead of them?!

The disturbance this produced was just too great. Right now, Immortal Domain’s experts were all paying close attention to this.

“Perhaps he really has a chance of achieving the immortal king status.” This was what an immortal king said to himself. This was the first time someone of this level came to a conclusion.

Inside Aocheng Immortal King Manor, there was a blurry figure seated on a praying mat. There was chaotic energy all around him. It was as if he had existed since the beginning of time, never moved from this place.

Dong!

Suddenly, he raised his hand, a palm entering the boundless starry sky. Everyone saw a large hand covering this cosmos' immortal gate.

"Ah, Aocheng Immortal King is making an appearance! He is going to open the immortal gate! Could it be that he is going to head into the lower realm?"

Cries of alarm sounded, the entire world was shaken.

All those who were true experts and all those who achieved immortality sensed something. Then, all sides trembled, everyone under the sky shocked.

At the same time, inside another immortal king manor, Taishi Immortal King suddenly opened his eyes. In the dusky stone room, it was as if two streaks of lightning tore through the night sky.

He also reached out a large hand, reaching into the boundless cosmos, covering another immortal gate.

"Taishi Immortal King has also moved!"

"Huang is finished! Two great immortal kings wish to stop him from achieving immortal king status!"

Everyone in Immortal Domain knew what happened. Two great immortal kings were about to make their move, not giving that lower realm youngster a chance at all, about to personally end his life!

Hong!

In the depths of the cosmos, Shi Hao's entire body was covered in blood, but his aura was instead becoming stronger, dao skills improving. There were gates that were opened in his body one after another.

His body's treasures were opened, all types of divine abilities and endless symbol profound mysteries were engraved in his blood, carved on his bones. It was too dazzling, endless great dao symbols running through him.

He forged ahead towards Immortal King Realm, wishing to break through these shackles, reach a higher level!

Ah...

Shi Hao endured the tremendous suffering. He was doing this too early after all, not accumulating enough. Right now, forcefully attacking at the barrier made his entire body feel like it was going to break apart.

Even his imperishable body was cracking, blood falling, flowing with faint golden luster. His hair flew about chaotically. How could he accept defeat? Right now, even his long hair was shining, as if they were cast from gold.

"I cannot accept this!"

Shi Hao roared out, doing everything he could, wishing he could make it through. He wanted to achieve immortal king status.

Once he took this step, a wide world would stretch out before him, free for him to explore. However, if he failed, then it was an endless hell, body and dao perishing like an extinguished light.

Hong!

Endless great dao symbols crushed over from all directions. There were many symbols that entered from the world beyond, added to his body.

Once one reached the Immortal King Realm, everything was inconceivable!

What appeared in the past and the present, everything had appeared before. All types of natural laws, heaven and earth order, all of this would crush down on him, judge him. It was truly hard to make it through this.

This was especially the case in this world that was experiencing a Cultivationless Age, triggering even greater karma. The punishment that descended was the most powerful, easily resulting in the death of body and spirit at any time.

Hong!

Part of Shi Hao's body exploded, turning into blasts of bloody mist. He cultivated the Imperishable Scripture, but his body that was known to be sturdy and unbreaking still couldn't resist this type of pressure.

However, Shi Hao was still Shi Hao, going against the heavens. He released a low roar, the radiance around him unending. This was the benefit of merging countless methods, creating his own cultivation system.

Immediately afterwards, in the inextinguishable divine radiance, he reforged his body, gathering all of the bloody mist, recreating his body.

Moreover, primal chaos surged like a furnace, tempering his body!

"He really isn't simple, might very well have a chance of succeeding!" In the restricted region, an ancient creature released an exclaim of admiration.

They shockingly discovered that Shi Hao's body was too powerful, able to endure the battering. Each time it was crushed, it would be restored again. The profound mysteries of the heavens, the past, the present, all of the great dao symbols appeared. Even after being smashed to pieces, he could still reconstruct his body!

This was destruction, but if he didn't die, it would instead become a type of tempering. Shi Hao's body was being refined endlessly by primal chaos, becoming more and more powerful.

"He succeeded, his body has passed, able to endure the judgment and trials! However, the key is still the primordial spirit, that trial is impossible to pass. From the past until now, some exceptionally fierce individuals all failed here." There were some exceptional experts in the restricted regions who said this quietly.

If one wanted to achieve immortal king status, the key rested in the baptism of the primordial spirit. Only then could one truly rise into the heavens, achieve immortal king dao fruit.

Shi Hao's body was innately powerful, now successfully withstanding the test.

However, if the primordial spirit was killed in the end, it would still be all for naught!

"He's already quite formidable... if he wasn't pressured to break through now, just simply bearing this opportunity, after refining his primordial spirit some more, he could then already be considered one of the Vicious Ten."

"Even then, it'll still be hard, he won't succeed!" Someone shook their head.

Hong!

There was endless great dao between heaven and earth, appearing streak after streak. There were some that were produced in this realm, some entering through the realm wall. All of it then rushed towards Shi Hao's head.

Shi Hao was shocked. Achieving immortal king status was actually this difficult?

He finally understood how crazy he was, how much of a risk he was taking. He really was gambling with his life. He might really die here today.

Some of the great dao turned into streaks of light, covering the crown of his head, blasting him until his entire body trembled, blood flowing from his seven apertures. There was actually no way to avoid this, he could only face them head-on.

Hong hong hong...

In that instant, Shi Hao endured dozens of instances of great dao bombardment. His skull cracked, even his primordial spirit was about to scatter. He suffered unimaginably serious injuries.

"He really is quite strong, being able to endure so many attacks at this age is already something to be proud of. However, if he continues like this, an immortal king might be hard to say, but he might really become a Vicious Ten like existence." Someone said.

Weng!

Suddenly, heaven and earth shook intensely. This wasn't caused by those streaks of great dao radiance, but rather came from another region. A gate appeared there, an earthen yellow hand reaching out.

This large hand was massive beyond comparison, slowly pressing towards Shi Hao.

Hong!

In that instant, something unimaginable happened. In that expanse of starry domain, it was unknown how many stars there were. When this palm approached, everything exploded.

The expanse of starry skies instantly turned into a land of ruin. The countless stars all exploded, cosmos dust everywhere.

What kind of power was this? The entire world was shocked!

If not for Shi Hao having just tempered his body, successfully passing through the trial, his flesh already becoming sturdy and imperishable, that palm would have blasted him to pieces, perishing here.

This palm looked extremely slow, but it was too fierce, its power endless!

Despite this being the case, Shi Hao still immediately flew out, his entire body covered in blood. There were cracks all over his body, his body and spirit almost erased by this immortal king's slow palm.

His primordial spirit was unstable, almost exploding!

However, he was attacking at the limit, couldn't afford to be distracted. Even though he was furious, there was nothing he could do.

Hou...

Shi Hao released a great roar like that of a wounded beast, screaming into the heavens. He reached the critical point, yet someone actually acted against him.

An immortal king came!

Everyone came to this conclusion. Only an immortal king could have this type of power.

"Interesting, if I was a step late, then you would have become a Vicious Ten like existence." A cold voice sounded from behind that immortal gate.

"Aocheng!" Shi Hao roared furiously, hair disheveled, blood dyeing the starry sky.

Everyone was shocked. It was actually Aocheng Immortal King who took action, stopping Shi Hao from achieving immortal king status.

Immediately afterwards, Aocheng took action again. That large hand slowly descended, crushing towards Shi Hao, wishing to completely destroy him this time.

"Immortal king, what is the meaning of this?!"

Right at this time, an expanse of resplendent golden light appeared. A heaven reaching giant tree descended here, a massive tree trunk filling the sky, blocking that earthen yellow large hand.

The World Tree appeared. That woman with the golden wings stood at the very top, facing the large hand.

"Out of respect for the butcher, you should just back off. I won't bicker with you." Aocheng Immortal King spoke. Even though he didn't come, only a large hand crossing over, he could still sense everything.

"Immortal King, please withdraw from this realm. Stopping someone's advance like this harms heavenly harmony. Are you not scared of provoking great karma?" The golden-haired woman said with a serious voice.

"Karma? This king is great karma myself. If I want to take his life, who can stop me?!" Aocheng Immortal King was incredibly domineering, his voice ringing through the cosmos.

In this instant, all the clans were shaken, all life feeling incredible fear.

The golden-haired woman insisted on stopping that great hand.

However, that large hand shook lightly. When it crushed downwards, a peng noise sounded. The World Tree shook, endless leaves withering, branches snapping. The entire tree flew out.

That golden-haired woman released a muffled groan, unable to stop that blow. Her arms hung powerlessly, golden blood flowing from her mouth and nose, flying out with the World Tree, disappearing into the limits of the cosmos.

When the great hand descended again, Shi Hao released a sigh. He knew that this life reached its limit, no hope left.

However, even if he was going to die, even if it was the last moment, he still resisted those great dao symbols, tempering his primordial spirit. He really wanted to succeed in the transformation, even more so wanted to kill Aocheng!

“Dao friend, you go too far!”

The restricted region lord appeared. Apart from this, there was the crystal skull, golden arm bone and bleeding eyeball, all of them stopping that large hand.

Shi Hao felt helpless, full of bitterness. He knew that even if they took action, it still wasn't enough. These weren't their true bodies, merely ruined parts of their bodies.

What could he do? He felt a wave of powerlessness. Time didn't wait for him!

Shi Hao's body was weary. He was trying to withstand his own disaster, attack at the Immortal King Realm, a chance that he might die at any time, yet the one on the other side was Aocheng Immortal King, looking at him, wishing to end his life!

How was he supposed to deal with this? It was too difficult!

In this life, even though he had respected teachers, even though he had powerful friends, compared to an undying king, they really weren't enough. Even if he had heaven shocking methods, there was still no way of breaking out of this situation!

Right now, everything else was pointless. Before an immortal king, what plans, what methods? All of it was not enough, a single palm could smash all of it to pieces, end all of their lives!

The difference was too great. At that level, no matter how many tricks you had, how many methods, a fist could destroy everything, no arrangements could do anything!

“Seniors, you all should just withdraw!” Shi Hao said.

He knew that the restricted region lord was going to go all out for the sake of helping him, wishing to buy him some time. However, it wouldn't even be close to enough.

He had just begun to face this great calamity, how could this immortal king trial be that easily completed? It was to the extent where even if no one came to interfere, if he was given abundant time, he might not necessarily succeed.

It was too hard!

Shi Hao thought about many things. In this life, this world, he had always been struggling, it really had been quite difficult. Others couldn't help him much, he had to face everything alone.

Shi Hao roared out. He truly was unwilling, really filled with anger. He was previously extremely confident, feeling that if he was given a peaceful world, allowing him to grow, he would become unrivaled under the heavens.

At that time, he would rule over things, kill until no one dared claim to be the most powerful, destroy all enemies!

However, in the end, this type of environment still didn't exist.

The restricted region lord didn't back off, instead becoming a white clothed man, complexion like fine jade, exceptional and aloof. He stood there in front of the earthen yellow large hand.

At the same time, the golden arm bone became larger, also coming here. It released endless divine might, its aura terrifying, cutting off the path ahead.

As for the crystal skull and the bleeding eyeball, they similarly rose into the sky, preparing to battle.

"It's you all? I didn't see you back then. If your bodies were still complete, stopping me here wouldn't be too surprising, but now, is there any meaning?" Aocheng said.

That voice was cold, ruthless and cruel, lacking the slightest trace of warmth, as if it froze the entire cosmos.

"Since there is no choice, then we'll just release a final bit of brilliance!" Even though the restricted region lord looked extremely refined, his nature was unyielding. Despite knowing that there wouldn't be a good conclusion, he still wanted to fight!

He himself had already died, now nothing more than half a skull plus some remnant will, so what if it completely disappeared? He didn't feel the slightest bit of reluctance. When the final disciple he nurtured was being attacked, how could he be willing to just watch it happen?

"Heh, hahaha..." Aocheng laughed loudly. This entire world was trembling, about to collapse at any time!

In the end, his laughter turned into unmatched killing intent, about to take action.

"Dao friend, why is there a need to be so cold? Your killing intent is too strong." Suddenly, an immortal gate opened. Pan King's voice sounded.

Even though the past favor had already been returned, when he saw that the restricted region lord was about to completely disappear, he still released a sigh, unable to hold himself back from taking action.

"Pan King, please just watch from the side!" Aocheng said.

"What if I refuse?" Pan King asked.

"Dao friend, I must ask you to go a round against me!" Someone said.

Yuanchu Immortal King appeared, bringing along a chess board, arriving at Pan King manor, stopping there. He sat down, not letting Pan King take action, facing him.

“Good, good, good!” Pan King’s cold voice sounded.

He wanted to take action, yet in the end, Taishi Immortal King also came, standing in front of his manor. Then, a hand reached towards the immortal gate.

“Dao friends, since you are acquainted with Pan King, then how about you come here for a chat?” Taishi Immortal King also took action, transmitting sound to the restricted region lord and others.

A large hand covered in chaotic energy appeared in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, entering the cosmos, stopping the restricted region lord, crystal skull, golden arm bone and bleeding eyeball.

The old freaks all felt helpless. Even if they wanted to go all out, they couldn’t change much. Right now, it wasn’t just a single immortal king who wanted to take action, truly leaving them helpless.

“Now, it should be the time to kill you.” Aocheng Immortal King spoke, his voice becoming increasingly cold.

“Aocheng, you old thing, just come! Today, I am going to fight you to the end!” Shi Hao screamed, carrying endless rage, as well as an unyielding fighting spirit. He went mad.

Since he already sensed that he might die, then he was just going to completely go for broke.

Right now, Shi Hao’s situation was extremely difficult. He was facing the endless great dao that poured down while facing Aocheng.

“If I let you make it through this, even if you don’t become an immortal king, instead something similar to the Vicious Ten, you would still be able to challenge me. However right now, do you even have the ability to do anything?” Aocheng said coldly.

Hong!

A large hand descended, striking down, wishing to kill Shi Hao with a single palm.

“Did you really think that I don’t have the slightest bit of power to retaliate?” Shi Hao was seething with anger, his long black hair like a burning flame. Great dao symbols interweaved, raging flames surging. He endured the pain while attacking at the Immortal King Realm, releasing a fist outwards.

His body was fine, reaching this level. Only, his dao skills still weren’t enough, his primordial spirit’s tempering not complete.

Peng!

Aocheng Immortal King’s eyes were horrifyingly deep. Not only did he use immortal king flesh, he also used unrivaled dao skills to crush Shi Hao.

Dang!

At this time, a bell noise sounded, shaking the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. A streak of resplendent radiance flew out, facing that large hand, slaughtering its way towards Aocheng Immortal King together with Shi Hao.

As for the other side, the restricted region lord also panicked. He went all out against Taishi Immortal King, wishing to head over, save his disciple from danger.

“En?” At this moment, many people were shocked. Even Aocheng Immortal King frowned, looking forward.

Hong!

That place erupted with resplendent radiance. His hand wasn’t able to kill Shi Hao.

It was because Shi Hao went crazy, going all out. His flesh already reached this level. Even though his entire body was covered in blood, there was still no way he would die that easily.

At the same time, there was that sphere of light that displayed the greatest use.

There was a woman who appeared, good looks outstanding, white clothes purer than snow. There was an imprint flickering by her forehead, in front of her a sphere of light that released endless bell sounds!

Ye Qingxian!

It was actually her that appeared here.

This was outside of everyone’s predictions, even Shi Hao’s eyes flickering with radiance. In the end, he released a light sigh, saying, “You should leave, you shouldn’t get involved in this.”

He knew that no matter who it was he knew that came, they still couldn’t do anything before the killing intent of an immortal king.

“Amusing, Without End Immortal King’s weapon soul is on you. Meanwhile, you are a completely formless mass, hazy and indistinct, not belonging to this world, shouldn’t belong to this age!” Aocheng Immortal King said.

This made Shi Hao’s brows jump. He stared at Ye Qingxian.

Ye Qingxian released a sigh. She looked at Shi Hao and said, “I want to see your footprints, witness your miracle, just that I came too early, still have to leave in the end.”

“Who exactly are you? Where did you come from?” Shi Hao’s expression was serious.

“I do not belong to your age, I wish to see some of the things that have happened to you. For my age’s people, this is extremely important. However, I will not be able to witness it.” Ye Qingxian was full of regret.

“Those who get involved with the chaotic years don’t have good ends, unable to change much. In the end, you will also perish.” Aocheng Immortal King said coldly.

“You...” Shi Hao looked at Ye Qingxian with shock.

"It's not that serious. I am merely an imprint, a will. Even if I scatter, so what? There's nothing to be scared of!" Ye Qingxian was smiling, her smile a bit dazzling, but there were also tears on her face. She truly wished to see everything about Huang, but she wasn't able to wait until that day. Time didn't allow her to, she had already stopped here for too long.

She wasn't someone from this age, shouldn't have appeared in this world!

"All those who stand in my way, regardless of where you come from, regardless of who you are, shall die!" Aocheng Immortal King said, about to take action.

"Immortal king, please leave this to me. Without End Immortal King's weapon soul shares karma with me."

With a dang sound, a great bell noise sounded. This came from a restricted region in the Nine Heavens. A terrifying expert was displaying his methods, a large bell appearing, floating in the sky.

It was rumbling, moreover releasing dazzling immortal dao light, wishing to take away the artifact spirit in Ye Qingxian's hands.

That large bell was Without End Immortal King's weapon to begin with, now lacking an artifact spirit, becoming a bell corpse, ending up within a certain life restricted region.

Hong!

It was a sky shocking battle. The restricted region lord, crystal skull and the others fought against Taishi Immortal King's large hand, releasing fierce radiance, almost tearing apart that place.

Meanwhile, on this side, that expert from a certain life restricted region controlled a great bell, also taking action, seizing the artifact spirit.

At the same time, Aocheng Immortal King also took action, directly striking towards Shi Hao, wishing to completely end his life.

This place became chaotic, just too terrifying.

"Embodiment Transformation!" Shi Hao roared, his eyes turning red. He no longer paid any attention to the breakthrough tribulation, allowing the streaks of natural light laws to hack at him.

Meanwhile, he fought bloodily, wishing to take down his opponent with him. It was because he saw that the restricted region lord was suppressed until he turned into a half snow-white skull, full of cracks, about to shatter.

He also saw the golden arm bone's joints break, unable to hold on anymore.

As for the bleeding eyeball and crystal skull, the former's blood was about to dry up and the latter's skull had holes, about to completely vanish.

AHHHHH...

Shi Hao released a great roar. He displayed power at the level of the Vicious Ten. At the same time, he carried out a transformation here, creating figures that embodied the Willow Deity, Kun Peng, Lightning Emperor and the True Phoenix.

Then, all of these figures became one, entering his body. He roared out, eyes scarlet red, slaughtering his way towards Aocheng Immortal King, rushing at Taishi Immortal King.

Embodiment Transformation Great Method was a miraculous technique, able to create the magical projections of another. However, in the end, Shi Hao was still in an impasse. While facing the immortal king calamity, he still had to fight Aocheng Immortal King, the situation really was beyond him.

Even if he truly created these figures, he still wouldn't be a match.

"He has joined the ranks of the Vicious Ten! The technique he just displayed is quite strange. Fortunately, his current situation isn't great or else it really would be troublesome."

Inside Fallen Immortal Ridge, a creature spoke.

Dang!

A drawn-out bell sound rang out. Ye Qingxian released a sigh, her body becoming faint. It was because the so-called artifact spirit was seized by another, entering that large bell.

What she relied on was this immortal dao divine form -- Without End Immortal King's weapon soul. However, it was now sucked away.

"All those who stand in my path, die!" Aocheng Immortal King's large hand reached across the air, easily penetrating Ye Qingxian's body. She immediately scattered into a rain of light.

"Ahhhh! No!" Shi Hao roared out.

"There is no need to feel grief or sadness. I should have disappeared a long time ago. This isn't my true body, just a bit of my will. I am in the future. Perhaps one day, we can still meet again."

Ye Qingxian's voice transmitted over, carrying regret, loss and other emotions. She disappeared just like that.

Kacha!

Suddenly, at Shi Hao's side, a ring exploded. This was something Great Elder gave him before.

Hong!

A figure rushed out from within, extremely withered up, its entire body golden. However, it carried a vigorous energy, on its back a pair of golden wings.

This was a humanoid creature, his wings able to cover the skies!

He stopped Aocheng Immortal King, his voice hoarse and overcast. "Killing an immortal king sapling of the Nine Heavens of similar origin to the ancient realm, you actually really are doing this?"

This was an unforeseen change. Everyone was shocked.

Who was this?

Only Shi Hao knew that back then, when he walked the body as a seed path, Great Elder brought him to many places of natural luck in search of opportunities. This creature was dug out from a pile of bones within a certain ancient cave, not belonging to this great era.

However, Shi Hao didn't know this person's background either.

He knew that this shriveled man still had a breath of air, still alive, but he didn't prepare to have him take action. It was because if an immortal king wanted to kill, no one could stop him.

It was just like how he didn't wish for the restricted region lord and others to go all out, he didn't want this person to stay here, worried that he would be throwing away his life for no reason.

"The Kun Peng King from two great eras ago?" Aocheng Immortal King's eyes became cold and deep, even he was deeply shocked.

When Shi Hao heard this, he was greatly shocked. This shriveled golden figure actually had such a great background, even more powerful than the Vicious Ten's Kun Peng?

"Aocheng, you have crossed the line!" The Kun Peng King said.

"Heh, if this king wants to take action, who can stop me, who can say that I have gone too far? Not to mention that you are already a dead person. Even if you are still alive, you still cannot stop me!" Aocheng Immortal King sneered, saying this domineeringly.

When the others heard this, they were all stunned. The Kun Peng King suffered a disaster?

However, the legends did state that he was dead.

Kun Peng King released a sigh. He didn't hide anything. He was only a remnant will, his flesh also covered in wounds, long broken apart, merely forcefully pieced together.

The so-called remnant will are scattered imprints, but forever unable to truly revive, unable to return to his peak.

"All those who stand in my path will be killed without exception!"

Aocheng Immortal King shouted, fiercely taking action, domineering beyond compare. There was no one who could stop him, it was just like he said. Even if the Kun Peng King at his peak came, it would be hard to say if he could stop him.

Peng!

Kun Peng King's body broke apart. Those were his past injuries, unable to form a complete true body.

At the same time, the restricted region lord, golden arm bone and others were going all out. However, in the end, they released crisp noises, shattering, dying there.

"No!"

Shi Hao roared out, his eyes becoming scarlet red.

Peng!

Similarly, the crystal skull also shattered. Meanwhile, that bleeding eyeball dried up.

No one could stop Aocheng Immortal King and Taishi Immortal King. There was no way to win!

AHHHHH...

Shi Hao released a great roar. He watched as Kun Peng King's body broke apart, as the restricted region lord shattered, as Ye Qingxian turned into a rain of light. He was like a wounded beast, roaring, feeling endless resentment.

He was already beyond angry. He felt a wave of power surging within his body, erupting, about to explode, pushing him towards a higher level evolution.

"Stop him! This really is a bit interesting, able to erupt even in this type of critical state, is he going to successfully break through?" Taishi Immortal King said.

At this moment, Aocheng Immortal King's large hand struck down, Taishi Immortal King's fist imprint also smashing over. This wasn't all. Another wave of immortal king force spread, Yuanchu Immortal King also attacked, his finger like a sword, hacking down, immortal radiance erupting endlessly!

In Fallen Immortal Ridge, the clan master watched everything coldly. Then, he came out, in his hands was a ruined pagoda. "Since there is karma, I will just completely resolve it today!"

He also took action, not wishing for Shi Hao to succeed, wanting him dead.

Dong!

He produced a ruined pagoda, suppressing towards Shi Hao. It was spotlessly white like jade, the material extremely similar to the little pagoda of the past. In reality, this was a part of that little pagoda.

Hong!

The heavens collapsed and the earth split apart!

Shi Hao attacked, facing them, going all out. However, there was a limit to one's power. While facing the breakthrough tribulation, he was powerless to reverse the heavens. ~~nDve-Lb-In~~

After all, he wasn't an immortal king. He was attacked by Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu, three great immortal kings. Now, even the master of Fallen Immortal Ridge took action, how could he stop them?

One could see Shi Hao rush out alone, his entire body covered in blood, rushing into the nine firmaments, heading down into the cosmos depths, fighting intensely, the skies all covered in his blood.

Unfortunately, he couldn't struggle free.

The three immortal kings' great hands followed him, smashing over from time to time, striking his primordial spirit until it was about to leave his body. He couldn't stop them.

There was also the ruined pagoda that suppressed over, sending Shi Hao tumbling out several times, continuously coughing out blood.

Shi Hao was like a bird with its wings snapped. He released a cry, struggling alone in this world. However, in the end, he still exhausted everything, struck by those three great immortal kings, struck by that ruined pagoda.

In the end, his primordial spirit was smashed out. His body was strong, not weaker than an Immortal King, not being destroyed, but his primordial spirit was different.

Pu!

The three great immortal kings took action at the same time, that ruined pagoda also descending, suppressing and killing the primordial spirit that rushed out from Shi Hao's body!

Pu!

That day, blood scattered across the world, a rain of blood pouring down. This was heaven's tears, the great dao's grief, the irregular scene of a generation's Pride of Heaven falling.

In the end, Shi Hao still couldn't make it past this disaster.

The world wept, a rain of blood pouring down.

Chapter 1938 - Imperial Court's Demise

There was a scarlet red expanse between heaven and earth, the entire universe becoming a scarlet red color, hazy and faint. This was the wailing of the great dao, carrying great sadness.

It was because Shi Hao had previously obtained the Heaven's Core Imprint, acknowledged by this world. Even though he gave it up in the end, he had still resonated with this world, already having a different type of close relationship and meaning.

Now, he was killed, his primordial spirit erased, becoming a rain of light and scattering into this world. The entire starry domain shook, making the Nine Heavens Ten Earths rumble with noise.

"No..."

Someone from Imperial Court screamed, his eye sockets feeling as if they were going to split apart. They saw the battle in the depths of the cosmos through a formation, the result actually this bleak and tragic.

Shi Hao was killed. The restricted region lord, golden arm bone and others all broke apart, smashed apart in the starry sky. This scene was too miserable.

Wuwu...

In the cosmos' stellar streams, chilly winds swept about, the noises like whimpering. There had never been any winds in the starry sky, yet today, there were these irregular scenes.

Shi Hao died, triggering too many irregular scenes.

Bo!

In the void, blood lotuses appeared one after another, taking root in the cosmos. Every single one of them released large amounts of bloody rain, the sight extremely dismal.

Then, black lightning appeared streak after streak, clouds of blood spreading. Sinister irregular scenes appeared everywhere in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

Imperial Court was in great grief. The worst times had arrived. Shi Hao met an untimely death, this signifying the collapse of the Imperial Court. Even the restricted region lord who was originally supposed to bring all of the divine generals perished, his skull turned into fragments.

Now, these dragons didn't have a leader.

Great sobbing sounds rang through the world. Many of Imperial Court's divine generals came from Stone Village, the descendants of the past eight hundred soldiers. Now, they felt great sadness.

"Ah..." The Heavenly Horned Ant roared in anger, his eyes completely red, voice hoarse.

"Master!" The scales on the crimson dragon's entire body opened and closed, the defying scale even about to fall over. It was full of sadness and anger, really wishing to go mad. They were now separated by life and death forever, just like that.

Mu Qing, Divine Striking Stone, Emperor Butterfly, Zhu Lin and the others' eyes all beamed red, carrying tears, clenching their fists, teeth clenched tightly, blood flowing out from the corners of their mouths.

"Heh!"

A cold and disdainful sound rang through the world. This was Aocheng Immortal King. "I am precisely heaven's will, this one is the greatest karma, who dares strive against me? All of you are too laughable!"

"The one who was killed was merely an ant, not worth any attention." Taishi Immortal King said, the first to withdraw.

Yuanchu Immortal King carried a cold expression, looking at the lower realm through the immortal gate. He only revealed a faint smile, not saying anything, and then turned around to leave.

Hong!

Aocheng Immortal King's great earthen yellow hand that reached out grabbed towards the depths of the dark and ruined cosmos. There was a corpse there that was covered in blood.

"Aocheng, that's enough! You even want to destroy his corpse? This doesn't match your identity at all!"

Inside the immortal gate, an immortal peach branch reached out, strong like a horned dragon, stopping Aocheng Immortal King's large hand. Pan King took action, his voice extremely cold.

He originally wanted to take action, but Taishi Immortal King and Yuanchu Immortal King, those two great experts stopped in front of his dwelling, facing him, preventing him from doing as he wished.

"Whatever."

Aocheng Immortal King said. Despite this being the case, his powerful divine will still descended, immediately sweeping through this starry sky, reaching every corner of this world!

Even though he was an immortal king, he was a cautious individual. Only after confirming that there wasn't the slightest bit of Huang's primordial spirit left, that there was indeed nothing left, did he leave.

As an immortal king, a single will could sever the cosmos, having the power to know all under heaven. Forget about this scene before his eyes, even the creatures that were hidden millions and millions of years ago, if he really wanted to find them, he could uncover them.

Aocheng also left!

He didn't want to have a true falling out with Pan King. After all, they were the ones who completely destroyed his old friend, the restricted region lord!

If he continued to act forcefully, Pan King might go crazy, go all out against him in Immortal Domain!

In the skies, a ruined pagoda that was snow-white like jade rose and fell, moving past Shi Hao's body. Fallen Immortal Ridge's master was clearly also investigating.

Pan King released a cold killing intent, pervading outwards!

"I've offended dao friend!"

Inside Fallen Immortal Ridge, a voice sounded from within. This clan lord displayed magical force, bringing the ruined pagoda away. He confirmed that Shi Hao indeed died, his primordial spirit killed.

In reality, there was no need to think too much about it. Forget about Huang, even if it was a true immortal king who faced Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu's joint attacks, suffering the suppression of Fallen Immortal Ridge's clan lord, it would still be difficult for them to escape disaster.

When four extreme experts took action, who could face them?

Inside Imperial Court, the ghost immortals revealed a strange expression. Huang already died, meaning that the Imperial Court reached its end. Was it going to collapse here, or was someone else going to step up, take his place?

That day, the ghost immortals left.

The same day, hazy mist surrounded Imperial Court, all of the divine generals completely disappearing, no traces left to be found at all.

This news entered Immortal Domain, triggering quite the commotion. A genius who was attacking at the Immortal King Realm was killed halfway in achieving immortal king status.

The true immortals were shocked, especially those who reached half immortal king level, waves of coldness running down their backs. They realized that if one wanted to achieve immortal king level, they still needed to care about their relations with others. If they tried to attack at this level alone, someone might just plot against them.

There were others that laughed loudly. Ao Gan and the others who previously had conflict with Shi Hao, and even the long life families had people who clapped their hands, feeling happy.

As for Taishi Immortal King and Yuanchu Immortal King's families, there was even less of a need to talk about them. These clans always had an arrogant attitude, looking down on all sides, stating directly that what could killing Huang be counted as? He didn't know the immensity of the world, should have been killed!

“Even someone like Huang wants to become an immortal king? Keep dreaming, he can forever forget about it. Even someone like him vainly wishes to be equal to my clan’s ancient ancestor, Aocheng Immortal King?” Ao Clan’s people sneered.

“Him? It’s already not bad for him to be able to achieve true immortal level. He truly was carried away by his delusions, how can he compare to an immortal king?” Taishi Immortal King’s clan also had people who spoke like this.

...

Shi Hao was killed in battle, producing a wave of noise in Immortal Domain. Ever since ancient times, the victors were the ones who were right, this was now displayed to the greatest extent here.

Many people knew that Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu didn’t act in an upright manner, actually not hesitating to pay the price to go down to the lower realm despite being immortal kings, all of this to kill a younger generation. It really was going too far.

However, no one dared say too much. Who dared challenge the prestige of immortal kings? Huang didn’t even take the initiative to provoke the three great immortal kings, yet he was still killed.

There were some people who were sentimental. In Immortal Domain, the youngsters from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths all sighed. This really was heaven being jealous of heroic geniuses!

“It truly is a pity with Huang! He had immortal king aptitude, attacking at that level at such an age is unprecedented, shocking the whole world, but in the end fell so miserably!”

“Originally, he should have been able to rush straight into the heavens, overlooking past and present, but in the end, he was killed by the immortal kings just like that!”

These old friends were his past rivals. However, later on, when they saw him rise up and continuously break through, they long changed their mindset.

Now, Shi Hao’s death made them feel regret, feel sorry, sighing for him.

“Wuwu... you died just like that. Didn’t you say you were going to look down on all experts from past until present, that one day, you will become so strong no one else will dare claim to be sovereign?” In Immortal Domain, on a star, the Lunar Jade Rabbit wept, eyes extremely red, full of emotions.

Back ten, she was brought into Immortal Domain. Even so, her appearance hadn’t changed, silver hair shining and brilliant, large eyes like rubies, as if in her teens.

In another star domain, Qin Hao knelt down on the ground, his eyes scarlet red, tears tumbling down. His hands were tightly clenched, blood even trickling out.

“Big brother, I can’t accept this... how can you die? You were attacking at the Immortal King Realm, yet were actually killed! Those old things deserve to die!”

Despite the things that happened when they were young, now that this day came, he still felt incomparable pain. His older brother that was too high to reach, towering above him like an undying divine mountain, actually died today. This was hard for him to accept.

“Shi Hao...”

In another starry sky, Qing Yi muttered, her eyes growing dim, tears continuously shed, losing their past brilliant splendor. She felt intense pain inside, blood flowing out from the corners of her lips.

“I regret so much... I shouldn’t have left the lower realm before, shouldn’t have entered Immortal Domain. I also regret that I missed you again the last time we reunited here!”

Qing Yi wept, she had never felt this pained in her life. Compared to her usual aloof and moving temperament, she was completely different.

“If you can appear in this world again, I will immediately appear at your side, never leave you again!” Qing Yi shed tears, her icy jade-like body full of secular world emotions. She really wanted to go back, return to the past.

The three thousand provinces, Imperial Court’s dynasty collapsed!

This left the people deeply moved, also making them regretful.

This was a heaven warping heroic talent who rose up in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, someone who should have been high up above, comparable to an immortal king, yet in the end, he fell to such a lamentable state.

Even the Imperial Court he founded immediately collapsed in a single night because the divine generals no longer existed. Those who died died, those who disappeared disappeared.

“What a pity, we should have taken it over. There was so much will force, how beneficial would it be towards cultivation?”

The ghost immortals were still there. They were regretful, vicious light flashing past their eyes.

“We can establish it again!” A ghost immortal said, but didn’t have much confidence. They were scared of incurring the dislike of Immortal Domain’s experts and afraid of ending up being killed.

Even though the ghost immortals were strong, they weren’t Huang, they didn’t have his boldness. As long as someone brought over an immortal dao decree, they would definitely immediately bow down.

“We joined Imperial Court, yet in the end didn’t obtain anything. We might as well head to his grave and raid it. His body is definitely not simple!”

One of the ghost immortal’s eyes revealed vicious radiance, staring at Imperial Court’s remains. That place was in ruins, broken walls everywhere, becoming an expanse of ruins.

In the mountain behind these ruins was a new grave, buried within it was Huang!

“Forget it, it’s best if we don’t act too rashly. Pan King established a stele, even Aocheng Immortal King giving him face, not touching the corpse. It’s best if we don’t incur karma.”

“Right, we should just go and find a chance to enter Immortal Domain. We haven’t really suffered losses these years in Imperial Court either, after all, we obtained true immortal dao scriptures!”

Wah...

In the recent few years, on Imperial Court's ruins, there were people who came to pay homage from time to time. This was the end of an era. Huang's life ended, he still couldn't defy the heavens in the end.

In the rear mountain was an earth tomb, around it quite a few fresh flowers. Some people sighed, others shed tears.

These were some elders from Imperial Court, the cultivators within the temples scattered about the land. When they heard that the central temple already collapsed, they found it hard to accept, unable to believe it!

They hurriedly rushed here, carrying a sacrifice, paying homage, all of them carrying great emotions.

During these years, Imperial Court became more prosperous with each passing day, long becoming the number one inheritance in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, surpassing all others. It was to the extent where Huang even dared face Immortal Domain's experts, slaughter more than one of their true immortals. How glorious was this? n-/O--V(-e/-l())&..l/-n

However, in the end, Shi Hao died and Imperial Court collapsed. With this, everything collapsed, this inheritance finished!

"Wuwu..." There were some young ladies who were sobbing.

"Hateful... why is it like this? Aocheng, Taishi, you all are immoral kings, yet you treat someone below you like this. Are you scared that Huang will surprise you one day?!" An elder was furious, cursing the heavens here.

"Who is crying?!" Right at this time, a great grave cracked apart, releasing this type of puzzled voice.

Chapter 1939 - Chaotic Ancient Great Era

In the rear mountain region was a mountain valley, waves of smoke rising. A great grave cracked apart, a voice sounding from within. This left everyone horrified.

Many people backed up, staring in that direction in shock.

Bark! A dog barked.

Then, everyone saw a fat daoist and a dog crawl out from that grave.

Cao Yusheng appeared. He had always been buried in the same tomb with the little dog, a wondrous earth and a burial cave that seized the natural luck of heaven and earth were brought over from a different place.

Several years earlier, during Imperial Court's gathering, when Shi Hao made the decision to attack at the Immortal King Realm, he had summoned him and the little dog, digging up their tomb.

However, later on, they returned, using the Divine Origin Liquid Shi Hao gave them to seal themselves in a special great tomb. During these years, they had always been sleeping.

"That's Daoist Priest Cao!" Someone cried out. There were others that recognized him.

When they calculated the total time, Cao Yusheng was sealed at around seven to eight thousand years ago, hidden within divine source. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to last until today.

Cao Yusheng was shocked. When he learned about what happened, he felt as if the heaven and earth were flipped, almost falling to the ground.

"Shi Hao!" He screamed, rushing towards the new grave.

That little dog was also shocked. It rushed out, scratching at the grave's earth, wishing to dig up this grave.

"What are you all trying to do?" Some people from Imperial Court became angry. Even though they knew that his background wasn't small, they still wanted to go all out against him.

However, soon afterwards, everyone stopped.

"Wu..." Cao Yusheng wept. He dug out Shi Hao's body, kneeling on the ground, hugging it. The heroic and straight body that was dug out was covered in blood, covered in cracks.

One could see just how miserable that battle was!

"Brother..." Cao Yusheng screamed. His hair had long become covered in white hair, his body aged and declining, in his later years. Cold tears flew about, sobbing with grief.

The body he carried was already cold and hard, but it was still heroic and straight. One could see how unyielding and unresigned he was when he was still alive, fighting until the final moment before withering in this world.

"Has all of his essence blood flowed out?" The little dog's voice was overcast.

Shi Hao achieved immortality, how could his blood be something ordinary people could touch? However, his body was bright red, covered in injuries, yet Cao Yusheng could directly bring him out.

It could only be said that this battle was too great, he might have used up all of his body's vitality.

Or, Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu were excessively fierce, using a method to completely annihilate his dao foundation, destroying his everything.

"Too hateful!" The little dog released a low roar.

They were all moved, especially when they saw the white-haired Cao Yusheng who was already in his later years, yet was still sobbing in such a broken-hearted manner, all of them feeling uncomfortable.

"Go, let's leave this place. Leaving Huang buried here is too unsafe, there will definitely be people who will scheme against his body!" The little dog said quietly.

Cao Yusheng wiped away his old tears, nodding. They arranged a formation, sealing the mysteries of heaven. This was what they were best at!

That day, Shi Hao's corpse disappeared, it was brought away. Imperial Court's new tomb in the rear mountain was empty.

This became a mystery. After that day, no one knew where Shi Hao's corpse disappeared to.

“So what? He is already dead, primordial spirit killed. Does he still want to stir up any waves? What a joke!”

In Fallen Immortal Ridge, the clan master said this coldly. Then, he directly went into seclusion, not paying this any more attention. He sealed up the connection between the restricted region and the outside world, becoming its own world once again.

In this world, many people felt regret in Huang’s place. He was originally about to defy the heavens, achieve immortal king status in this Cultivationless Age, but his fate was full of misfortune, dying an untimely death!

Burial Land, there were people discussing quietly.

“What a pity. Such a good sapling, yet he was killed just like that.”

This was a large cave dwelling, different from what outsiders imagined. The essence energy surged, primal chaos pervading the air, accompanied by auspicious multicolored light. Even the earth was shining, this was All Life Earth!

In that place, there were immortal medicines swaying about, fragrance assailing the nostrils.

This was a Burial King dwelling. It wasn’t gloomy, instead brighter than many immortal family holy lands, extremely suitable for cultivation of the dao.

“Sir, please help me with this matter. I wish to bring him back, settle that great karma!” A youngster spoke, hair dazzling golden like a sun god.

In reality, he was a Golden Burial Knight named Sanzang, Shi Hao’s old friend.

“Sir, please help!” On the side, a pretty and flirtatious woman spoke. Her appearance was perfect without faults, carrying a natural charm. Her headhair of fiery red hair hung down.

She was the Golden Undead Knight Shenming.

These two had previously traveled with Shi Hao, all of them on rather good terms. Later on, they headed into Immortal Domain, headed to Dam World, so they could be considered to be friends in times of tribulations.

The most important thing was that they shared an instance of karma between them.

Shi Hao previously obtained a stalk of Three Life Medicine. For others, it wasn’t that useful, but for undead knights, it was an unmatched treasure, one that could assist in their evolution into becoming Burial Kings!

Back then, Shi Hao gifted the Three Life Medicine to these two, exchanging it for the Void Immortal Gold Stele.

It could be said that the Three Life Medicine, this great karma that could turn them into Burial Kings, regardless of whether it was out of friendship or kindness, they never forgot about it.

Even back then, when they separated, the two had vowed that if the day came when something happened to Shi Hao, dying as a result, as long as he still had a part of his flesh left, a part of his corpse, they would definitely fetch him, allow him to become an undead knight! n--p-.V).e-)|(-b((l-l)n

At the time, Shi Hao directly scowled at them, not wishing to gain sentence after dying at all, instead wishing to always continue living until the day that he could overlook all came.

Who would have thought that this day really did come!

Cao Yusheng and the little dog carried Shi Hao's body, the two walking together. They were worried that the creatures of the restricted regions would come for Shi Hao's corpse.

Since Fallen Immortal Ridge's people took action, even daring to kill Shi Hao together with Aocheng, Taishi and the others, what didn't they dare do?

Apart from this, a restricted region creature also took action, grasping Without End Immortal King's great bell, moreover seizing Ye Qingxian's immortal bell weapon soul.

The little dog gnashed its teeth in anger. If not for its cultivation level being too low, it would have definitely slaughtered its way over.

They had to be on guard against those two restricted regions!

"What else can we do? How can we save you?" Cao Yusheng was grieved. In the past, he was a happy-go-lucky person, this fatty always having a smile on his face.

However today, he was old and gray-haired, figure haggard, incredibly dispirited. He really wanted to save Shi Hao.

"My master was known to be number one in divination in Immortal Ancient. He saw someone who could dictate endless time. Was it not you? Could it be that I was wrong?"

Cao Yusheng wept. Even though his master was number one under heaven, he still didn't see who the one in the prophecy was clearly, only vaguely knowing that this individual existed.

"By appearing in the world like this now, we don't have many years left to live. Our lifespans are already near their end." The little dog sighed. It wasn't large, but just like Cao Yusheng, it was in its later years, already incredibly old.

"Huang, my brother, I really hope you can live. I want to see you become an immortal king, and then destroy Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu, even beat down all of Immortal Domain and the foreign realm!"

Cao Yusheng shed tears. He already reached his later years, now reminiscing even more about the past, cherishing their friendship, full of reluctance.

However, he was now in complete despair. He carried Shi Hao's body, running away, yet didn't know where he could go to revive him.

Cao Yusheng's body was already stooped, when he was young, the little dog's fur was dark black, but now it was a bit light red, about to become bald.

Suddenly, Cao Yusheng stopped. His face revealed a complicated expression and then said with extreme decisiveness, "I know what to do! Let's go to Burial Land, this might be the only place where he can be saved!"

He thought about the words Shi Hao said to him. In reality, Shi Hao had spoken about those experiences to all of the people at his side, telling them that he had friends among undead knights, that they might necessarily become enemies.

As of Burial Earth, many years ago, they already undid their seal, reappearing, no longer isolated from Desolate Border's Imperial Pass. Last time, when the ghost immortals gathered in Imperial Court, they had personally confirmed this, bringing over this information.

When they entered Desolate Border again, Cao Yusheng crossed Imperial Pass. His status was now extremely great, no one stopping him, allowing him to pass.

Outside Desolate Border, they saw a man and woman, two youngsters with extraordinary styles. They were currently coming from Burial Land. They were precisely Sanzang and Shenming.

"Huang... he is here?!" Sanzang immediately sensed something. He was a Golden Undead Knight, extremely sensitive towards corpses, especially when he sensed Shi Hao's aura right now.

"You two... are Sanzang and Shenming?" Cao Yusheng's cold tears flew about, already completely different from his younger fatty temperament. He was no longer high-spirited, right now having a type of powerless feeling, feeling like his life was dark.

"It is us!" Sanzang immediately rushed over.

Cao Yusheng no longer hid anything, bringing out Shi Hao's body, letting them look at it. His lips were shaking. "Please save him!"

"Come with me!" Sanzang said, personally carrying Shi Hao, and then took large steps towards Burial Region. They directly headed towards a Burial King dwelling.

The ground surface even erupted with five-colored divine radiance. This was the Burial Earth with the most astonishing value, undying immortal medicines not even willing to leave this place, instead preferring to take root in this type of unrivaled earth.

This place actually had more than a single stalk of immortal medicine. Two stalks were moving back and forth here.

"Worthy of being the genius of an age, already reaching the ranks of the Vicious Ten at this age. What a pity, Aocheng is too fierce, erasing all of his primordial spirit, completely scattering it."

This Burial King said with a sigh. His entire body was surrounded by a wave of mysterious mist, mysterious and profound. He sat over there, revealing this truth.

"No way... no way, I believe that he is definitely still alive!" Cao Yusheng screamed out.

"Burial King, please take action, help him summon his soul and see if there is still any hope!" Shenming pleaded.

It was clear that this Burial King attached great importance to Shenming and Sanzang, doting on them greatly. If it was anyone else, who dared speak to him casually like this, raise this type of request?

Hong!

In the end, the Burial King personally displayed a method in this dwelling. He searched the entire Nine Heavens Ten Earths for a hint of primordial spirit fragment. However, he was disappointed.

“Even if his body and spirit were erased, there should be a bit of traces. Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu are too fierce, they really completely erased everything?”

The Burial King frowned. He began to suspect something, but then shook his head, releasing a light sigh.

“Let’s have him become an undead knight.” When these words were spoken, it was undoubtedly declaring that Shi Hao really completely died, that there wasn’t the slightest bit of hope.

“No!” Cao Yusheng screamed out.

Once he became an undead knight, would he still be Huang?

Shenming walked over, caressing Shi Hao’s cheek. “Just peacefully become an undead knight. The primordial spirit your body produces might become astonishing enough, get revenge for your previous self!”

Forget about Cao Yusheng, even the little dog was startled, unable to agree to this.

“Do you two have a better method?” Sanzang asked.

Cao Yusheng and the little dog opened their mouths, in incredible pain. This choice was too difficult. The real Shi Hao died, what else could they do?

“My brother, how many years will it take before... he can produce a new primordial spirit?” Cao Yusheng asked with a bitter voice.

“With his Vicious Ten level body, a few hundred thousand to a million years should be enough. He will exceed other undead knights from past to present.” The Burial King said.

“Hundreds of thousands to a million years... what great era will it be then? The great showdown will have already ended, when can he find Aocheng, Taishi and Yuanchu, get his revenge?!” He couldn’t accept this.

“Who said this great era is short, who can say that the great showdown will end? This is history’s most strange and terrifying great era. What you see or hear about in the future might not necessarily be true, only by personally experiencing this great era will you be able to understand. We are calling this great era -- Chaotic Ancient Great Era!”

The Burial King’s expression was incredibly serious, saying this seriously.

Shi Hao was buried in All Life Earth. On his grave, an undying immortal medicine took root, seizing heaven and earth natural luck.

This place became quiet, only Cao Yusheng and the little puppy were left. After filling in the grave, they also had to leave. However, Cao Yusheng's fine hairs stood on end.

He seemed to have heard a certain voice. He then opened his eyes wide in shock, saying, "Do you hear this? I seemed to have heard Shi Hao speak! He wants to come back, wants to turn into an unmatched immortal king and slaughter his way into Immortal Domain, subdue all enemies!"

The little dog's fur had also long stood on end. "I seemed to have heard it as well! However, there is no reaction anymore now."

Chapter 1940 - Awakening

Burial Earth was quiet and secluded, normally lacking much activity. It was because normally, the lives of undead knights were too simple, spending most of their time asleep.

Regardless of whether it was seclusion or other types of cultivation, it was always carried out like this. They obtained eternal life through sleeping, growth through hibernation, breathing the essence of the underground world.

The years passed in a long and drawn-out manner, ten thousand years passing in a flash. Floods reached into the heavens in the outside world, great battles world shocking, yet Burial Region was still calm like a desolate land of death.

Cao Yusheng studied burial techniques, using his still living self to comprehend this clan's great methods. He wanted to comprehend things by analogy, not choosing to seal himself up, but rather choosing to live in this place for ten thousand years, wishing to break through and achieve immortality.

It was because Burial Region had undying matter, had rich heaven and earth essence. Of course, there was burial energy and death aura as well.

He was like a Golden Undead Knight in Burial Earth, taking in life energy to nurture himself. He wanted to achieve immortality in this life, wished to get revenge with Shi Hao when he revived, join the battle together with him.

Only, in the end, he still entered his later years, exhausted his lifespan in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths. Even though there was undying substance here, it still couldn't ensure that he could continue living forever.

The little dog was also struggling to continue, his hair about to all fall off, but it still held on. It wanted to see this great world for itself, witness the results of the great showdown.

It was unwilling. There was an existence in a restricted region who actually seized Without End Immortal King's weapon! This was related to hope for Without End Immortal King to ultimately reappear in this world! He wanted to watch Huang wake up, flatten the restricted region, help it seize back that immortal bell.

In the end, Sanzang and Shenming took action, gifting them some burial medicines. These were specially prepared for Golden Undead Knights, refined from undead immortal medicines.

Burial Region was a mysterious land. Many people thought of it as a type of underworld, but there was actually unmatched divine earth that could nurture all things here, drawing in immortal medicines.

That was why there were some places here that were incredibly divine. Meanwhile, there were quite a few immortal medicines here as well, not inferior to Immortal Domain in any way!

The immortal medicines would mature once every so often. There were some who picked them, but some that were ignored as well. Sanzang and Shenming were Golden Undead Knights, so they weren't that different from ordinary humans. This was why they could ingest this type of great medicine, obtain great benefits from it.

"I've finally been reborn, I have another life's time to cultivate! Huang, my brother, I am waiting for you, waiting for you to return!" Cao Yusheng said. Then, he began to cultivate frantically, the little dog did so as well. It had previously achieved immortality, now trying to restore its dao skills.

The years went on. In a flash, more than a hundred thousand years passed. Outside, even Underworld Earth was affected, the great battles in the outside world continuing endlessly. There were terrifying existences fighting everywhere under the heavens.

Unfortunately, Cao Yusheng's constitution was precisely like his master said, outstanding, but achieving immortality was still difficult. He was more suited to transformations from one life to another.

His master had an ancient technique that was passed down to him a long time ago.

"Huang, brother, I am already old. Even though this Burial Region is rich with undying matter, there is also a sea of death energy! It is far from the purity of the past Nine Heavens Ten Earths. I am not an undead knight, my lifespan is already about to reach its limit after another ten or twenty thousand years!"

Cao Yusheng said with a sigh.

The little dog was also vexed. Its past immortal dao foundation had already been ruined. Recovering was even more difficult than just cultivating again from the beginning!

"I am going to modify the undead knights' great methods, perhaps I'll end up neither man nor ghost, but it will allow me to continue living. This is just for the sake of waiting until you return, brother!" Cao Yusheng said.

The little dog and himself ultimately chose this path, going into hibernation, comprehending the great dao through slumber, cultivating the unmatched secret techniques undead knights didn't release to the outside world.

Sanzang and Shenming treated them extremely well, passing on their techniques to these two!

After this man and dog disappeared, Burial Land became even more peaceful, not displaying any activity for many tens of thousands of years. It became increasingly deathly still.

Hong!

One day, this peace was shattered!

A glistening yellow gourd took in and sent out primal chaos. It descended from above, suppressing Burial Land. There was someone who was taking action against Burial Region, causing a part of this place to collapse.

“Who dares?!” Burial Kings were alarmed, angrily making an appearance to face the intruders.

The great showdown descended, there were no pure lands left in this world. Regardless of where it was, it was caught up in the chaos. There were just too many battles, the calamity too terrifying.

Even Burial Region, this most mysterious, incomparably terrifying place, had individuals who dared challenge it, slaughtering their way up to their gates. These were taboo level powerful existences!

This was the first time Burial Region suffered an attack in two hundred thousand years!

Honglonglong!

A sky shocking battle erupted, terrifying beyond comparison. Even Desolate Border was beaten into ruin, turning into chunks of continents before rushing into outer space, entering the cosmos.

If not for this region having a multitude of formations and countless formation cores protecting it, it would have definitely shattered as well.

Despite this being the case, it was still extremely miserable.

Meanwhile, Imperial Pass not too far out had long faded from existence!

In reality, it had already been flattened many tens of thousands of years ago, turning into ruins. The people and cities of the past had long become a part of endless history.

During these years, Burial Land was quiet, but the outside world was definitely not like this, entering the most terrifying times. No, Burial Region was also finally affected!

Hong!

Heaven and earth collapsed, starry rivers swept in reverse. The cosmos released a mournful cry, the great dao rumbling. This world was covered in gloomy clouds, the most terrifying great chaos of this world affecting the heavens.

The years were ruthless, able to cut down even the most powerful Pride of Heaven, able to erase taboo existences. There weren't many creatures that could continue living without perishing.

Regardless of whether it was unexpected or if it was because of karma, as the long stream of time flowed past, the bones of heroes were buried, Heaven's Prides fell, all of them dying.

As time went by, it had already been five hundred thousand years since Shi Hao's death. Everything had changed, the world was already completely different.

What about the past Nine Heavens Ten Earths? It was already extremely difficult to find any traces of it!

As for Burial Land, it was split to pieces, floating in various places, becoming increasingly quiet, death aura pervading the air.

This was a continent that wasn't all that large. It floated in the cosmos, similar to a star. It was unknown just how many ancient lands similar to this one floated in the cosmos' emptiness.

It was because the greatest battles erupted, darkness corroded the world, history's most terrifying great showdown erupted in this world. The heavens were all trembling.

Many places were beaten into ruin. Some divine earths, small worlds and uninhabited restricted regions, after being attacked, split apart, the damaged parts flew into the depths of the cosmos.

This chunk of land was precisely one of these areas.

“Who am I?”

On this desolate land, the cold and hard earth already split apart. A disheveled young man struggled out from an area of All Life Earth.

The underground was sparkling and flickering with radiance, this material was a rare Burial Earth. Every granule was sparkling, carrying rich life energy, able to nurture all living things.

It was a material even immortal kings desired.

In the past, the White Tortoise Carrying Immortal stalk of medicine previously said that immortal kings entered Burial Land precisely in search of this type of place to nurture their bodies.

This was what Burial Kings used to cultivate to begin with.

It was rumored that those who were seriously injured or dying could treat their injuries in All Life Earth. Even if the dead were buried here, they could develop a consciousness again in the future, their true bodies would then reappear in the world.

“Where is this?”

The youngster got up. He shook off the All Life Earth around his body, moving aside the long black hair covering his face, revealing a delicate and handsome face. His eyes were bright and pure like a pure spring.

This place was incredibly desolate, resembling a massive ancient land. Apart from him, there were no other creatures, the entire place lifeless.

He frowned, starting to think to himself. However, he felt like his head was in great pain, his consciousness momentarily empty, unable to remember anything.

His body was slender and strong, swirling with sparkling luster. He wore blood-soaked damaged clothes.

Someone sought out the damaged armor and refined it together for him again, helping him wear it. This was only out of hope that when he woke up one day, he could still remember the final battle.

The battle armor was his, the blood also came from him. However now, he was lost, his brain having some things, yet he couldn't remember.

“Where exactly is this place?” He moved fast like a demon, swift like a streak of lightning. After a single step, he appeared at the other end of this great continent.

At the same time, there were ten imprints on his body that were currently shining. Originally, most of them were on his hand, but they now scattered uniformly across his body. They were like diamonds, restraining his body.

He raised his head towards the skies, seeing star remains all around him. This expanse of cosmos was extremely overgrown, lacking all life force.

On this continent, he paced back and forth alone, walking through every inch of this place, but didn't find anything. With a raise of his foot, he entered the starry sky.

"This is..." He was a bit confused. Originally, he didn't know how to fly, but now, he did it naturally, able to move through the starry sky.

There seemed to be something in his head, like a fine stream that continuously appeared, allowing him to understand how to move through the void.

Hong!

A streak of golden light appeared beneath his feet, directly reaching the other shore of the starry sky. It was like a bridge that stretched across the cosmos. He then began to take steps.

This scene was extremely shocking. He went from one end of the cosmos to the other.

At the same time, in the cosmos, the stars all trembled, stellar splendor gathering, pouring towards him like a sea, absorbed by his body.

This wasn't what he was doing deliberately, but rather his body's natural response.

The stellar splendor baptism made his flesh increasingly dazzling, but he didn't need this type of power. He opened his mouth, taking in a breath. A large black crack appeared, primal chaos surging. He began to absorb primal chaos essence.

After a long time passed, only when his pores all began to release chaotic energy, did he stop, feeling like he didn't need any more.

"Why do I need to do this?" He looked at his hands, and then raised his head towards the cosmos depths.

He arrived at the other end of the starry sky, feeling like his instincts were spurring him here, telling him to descend here. He saw some ruined continents that were massive beyond comparison, stretching out before him.

This place experienced a great battle, smashed until it collapsed and fell apart. Now, the damage was extremely serious.

At the same time, the ten dao imprints on his body shone, as if there was something that wanted to rush out. It made him seem increasingly intimidating but everything calmed down again in the end.

"What is this place?"

He landed on a continent. This was an expanse of scorched earth, crimson land stretching out for hundreds to over a million li, no sign of life visible, no creatures could be seen.

He got up, leaving this continent. He took a step out, arriving at the neighboring boundless land. He finally saw a living being there.

This ancient land had many primitive forests, even more so countless craters, abysses and others. Upon closer inspection, these were created by sword energy and divine arrows. There were also many star remains. The scene was extremely shocking.

In the past, a great battle erupted here, but as time went on, the ruined world was covered by plants once more, obtaining life force .

There were some tribes that lived in the mountain range, as well as some dynasties built on the plains. The youngster who walked alone encountered the first inhabited area.

“Who are you? Where is this place?”

He saw the first other living individual. This was a youngster, extremely tender, but his constitution wasn't bad.

“I am named Zhang Bairen. This is an abandoned land left behind after the great battle. You... came from outer space?” The youngster's eyes were burning brightly. He wore beast skin clothes, full of a hopeful expression as he looked at him.