

Perfect WD 1981

Perfect World

Chapter 1981: Flattening the Foreign Realm With a Single Battle

- Flattening the Foreign Realm With a Single Battle

Huang rose up just like that, slaughtering the undying kings until they fled, until even fallen immortal kings ran. All enemies were in ruin, fleeing for their lives, all of them in sorry states!

This type of battle accomplishment was unprecedented, one battle shocking the world under the sky, his brilliance illuminating the past and present.

It was the legend of a single person standing alone. All enemies under heaven were swept through, no one able to resist him. Several great kings were killed, the others fleeing towards the borders of the cosmos, running into the distance.

Did Huang become an emperor?

This was what everyone was wondering. Just what kind of level did he reach? Everyone was wondering if this was a true emperor, or if he was only approaching that level.

Shi Hao dominated the world, slaughtering his way out of Immortal Domain, entering the boundless void, arriving in the foreign realm. He didn't immediately charge in, instead standing in the void.

Hong!

Endless auspicious multicolored light surged, rushing towards his body. He was adjusting his injuries, hoping for his condition to improve.

His injuries were extremely serious, his body covered in scars, cracks everywhere. It was as if the most delicate pottery suffered an intense collision and was then forcefully pieced back together.

This was the price he paid for his breakthrough!

There was a sphere of light within him that was rising and falling, clashing intensely with his body. This was his spirit, even though it was starting to be merged, it was still unstable, wishing to break out from his body.

Great dao symbols erupted, endless auspicious brilliance surging, wrapping around Shi Hao. It was as if there was a type of rebirth happening, wishing to break out of the cocoon and carry out a rebirth. His aura became more and more powerful.

Pu!

However, in the end, Shi Hao instead coughed out a mouthful of blood. His body staggered, his condition too serious, actually unable to completely heal.

He frowned. It was difficult to completely fix his injuries. Moreover, his condition was gradually getting more serious. Even though it wasn't too apparent, he could still sense that this was a great life and death danger.

“Burn my dao body, sever my scars.” Shi Hao released a low roar. Immediately afterwards, with the body as a seed, every inch of his flesh erupted, releasing an everlasting aura. His essence and foundation surged, his magical force like a sea, rushing against his flesh, cleansing his soul.

That sphere of light in his body was also resonating with it.

He was consuming his own essence blood, doing his best to change his current dangerous situation.

However, the effects still weren't what he hoped for. In the end, he could only maintain a state of equilibrium. His injuries no longer worsened, becoming stable just like that.

During this process, there were foreign kings who saw his condition, but not a single person dared take action. No one rushed forward, all of them fleeing back into the foreign realm.

It was because not long ago, Shi Hao slaughtered his way in all directions, this power truly leaving them stunned, leaving them with an unforgettable impression.

In the end, Shi Hao entered the foreign realm, slaughtering his way in. Since his injuries were like this, moreover being powerless to change his condition, then he would just ignore it for now. He was going to slaughter his enemies!

If he didn't erase his enemies today and then something unexpected happened to him in the future, passing away from his injuries, then that would be too regretful.

However, Shi Hao had confidence that these injuries couldn't stop him, that he could make it through this pass in the end.

“Huang came!”

Someone in the foreign realm roared out, their voice shaking all sides. All of the undying beings shivered inwardly, all cultivators from various clans were greatly shaken.

Huang's name had long spread through the foreign realm.

However, when they thought back to the past, how he used to be just a small cultivator, moreover was even taken prisoner by them, who would have thought that he would grow to this step today, becoming a great disaster for them?

“Now, no one can keep Huang in check, he... might have become an emperor!” This news swept through the foreign realm like a whirlwind, triggering huge alarm.

There was no way of covering up Immortal Domain's battle. Just now, someone learned of it, and then the news spread through the foreign realm like a tsunami, triggering great chaos.

Back then, Huang was still in the Mortal Dao Domain, yet today, he actually broke through the Immortal King Realm. This type of comparison was just too great, hard for everyone to accept.

However, the clans had no choice but to accept it. He now slaughtered his way over, triggering great chaos, even powerful clans were shocked, scared of being plotted against.

Hong!

Shi Hao descended, looking down on the foreign realm. His eyes were swirling with brilliance, as if the endless river of time was rising and falling. This type of aura made all of the creatures in the surroundings directly tremble, unable to control their bodies as they knelt down.

These were their bodies, their flesh betraying their own wills. They were shivering in fear, in great panic.

“Not returning to Realm Sea and escaping into the foreign realm will only end in the same result, both following the path to your own doom.” Shi Hao calmly said, staring into an expanse of starry cosmos.

There was an expert who held a glistening yellow gourd. It was precisely Ju Chong, a giant who came from Realm Sea, leading some people and hiding behind the stars.

His face was pale. It wasn't that he didn't want to return to Realm Sea, but rather that he was scared that by being left out alone, he would die even faster, so he decided he might as well follow Kun Di and the others here.

Blade King died miserably, this giant also coming from Realm Sea, their strength similar. His death truly shocked Ju Chong, making him truly understand just how great the distance between Huang and himself was, that he was far from being his match.

Together with Demonic Cattail King, Wu Shang, and the nine-headed beast's downfall, how could he not be shocked?

A great hand covered the sky, covering the sky dome, suppressing towards that cosmos' starry sky. Shi Hao's blood energy was grand and majestic, shaking up the world, no distance that couldn't be travelled.

“Huang, I am going to stake it all against you!” Ju Chong roared out.

He activated his own immortal king magical artifact. That gourd became massive beyond comparison, falling like a great golden mountain. It exceeded many great stars, filling up this starry sky.

Peng!

The yellow gourd shone. After smashing into the curtain of light released by that large hand, it spun about, quickly shrinking, landing in Shi Hao's hand.

The great hand's might didn't decrease at all, striking down and landing on Ju Chong's body. All of his body's bones exploded, unable to defend himself at all. This giant of a generation could only nurse a grievance.

Ah...

He released a loud shout. His body was destroyed, so he wanted to flee with his primordial spirit. In the end, Shi Hao grabbed it. There were some things he wanted to ask him, he wanted to understand some secrets of the Realm Sea, so that was why he threw him into the lightning pool together with Blade King's primordial spirit.

The other fallen immortal kings exploded to pieces here as well. Shi Hao shattered their primordial spirit imprints, not leaving them with their lives.

This scene was seen by the experts of all clans here. They all shivered inwardly, incredibly shocked. Kings couldn't be killed, their primordial spirits everlasting, these concepts already became things of the past.

It wasn't that difficult for him. He directly killed giants and kings alike. Just how powerful was Huang?

"Broke through the king level and became an emperor!"

"He really achieved this, establishing a legend never seen before from past to present!"

The clans were all shocked, all of them scared.

This was especially the case with the kings, all of them were now in despair. Only they knew just what kind of things they did to the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths before.

Back then, they slaughtered all, regardless of race and strength, even massacring mortal people. During Immortal Ancient's last phase, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths were completely empty, bones piling up like mountains, blood flowing like rivers.

Huang's arrival, was this doomed to be a great settling of karma?!

Shi Hao walked forward, his figure steady like a mountain. He approached the ancient land at the center of the foreign realm. There was a temple there, ancient and full of great changes, a faint golden radiance was released from it. It was incomparably divine.

Kun Di was here, escaping back. He was close to despair. Huang was already endlessly close to becoming an emperor, leaving him dispirited and helpless. He sat down near a golden ancient temple.

There were several other kings who gathered here as well!

This was the last place they could flee to.

Even now, they still weren't willing to accept it, not willing to believe that someone broke through the king realm, establishing an unprecedented 'grand occasion'. However, for them, this was a situation of despair.

"Scarlet King, Demonic Cattail King, Wu Shang, all of them died. Younger generation, you...!" Kun Di released cold light from his eyes, his killing intent overflowing. However, he felt a type of powerlessness.

"Indiscriminate murderers deserve to be killed!" Shi Hao said coldly.

In the past, all of the talented figures from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths were killed. There wasn't even anyone left to stand as a witness.

Moreover, the foreign realm were always the invaders, the Nine Heavens Ten Earths only trying to defend themselves, facing this world eradicating calamity. Shi Hao didn't feel any sympathy for the foreign realm's kings.

"It is time for all of you to fall. I will help you all head on your way!" Shi Hao said with an ice-cold expression.

"Do you think that killing us will be the same as destroying our realm? Delusional thinking! My realm's most powerful beings are in Realm Sea, they already disappeared during the Age of Emperor Collapse. It has already been countless eras since then, they might have even long become emperors. They will come and settle things with you sooner or later!”

An undying king was roaring hysterically, crazily shouting here. When doomsday descended, even those as powerful as them couldn’t calmly face death.

“Is there anyone who wishes to run?”

Shi Hao raised his head. He looked towards a certain direction of the foreign realm. Then, with a raise of his hand, a streak of sword energy flew out, resplendent and incomparable, tearing apart the foreign realm’s walls, slaughtering his way over.

Pu!

Blood radiance flickered. An undying king was hacked down. His primordial spirit imprint was struggling, but it was then continuously hacked by the following sword radiance, vanishing like smoke in thin air.

He wanted to flee towards Realm Sea and then not turn back again, but he still died here.

Even though the foreign realm was large, how terrifying was Shi Hao’s cultivation now? With a single thought, he could overlook the entire cosmos. If kings wanted to escape, how could it escape his detection?

“Huang, are you going to carry out an annihilation today?”

In the distance, two kings stood side by side, roaring in this direction. They were incomparably massive, standing on an expanse of great earth. Their undying aura raged, engulfing all directions.

Shi Hao recognized it with a single look, realizing that this was the Sin Province seized from the three thousand provinces. It was previously grabbed by Anlan. The people of that province all died, falling into darkness.

Now, there was someone whose left hand held an ancient shield, right hand a golden spear, standing tall, his figure towering into the clouds. He glared in this direction and then fiercely thrust out that spear.

It was precisely Anlan!

He was in charge of guarding the foreign realm with the others. He didn’t head over into Immortal Domain to encircle and kill Shi Hao, but he now appeared, about to go all out.

It was because now, even if he wanted to run, he couldn’t. Huang’s divine awareness was too powerful, sealing up all directions. If they wanted to enter or leave this realm, everything was within the cover of his divine awareness.

Chi!

The spear was resplendent, divine brilliance erupting, surging powerfully. It smashed through heaven and earth, arriving from millions and millions of li away. It was too powerful, impossible to stop.

“Ah...” Shi Hao released a great roar. This was the first time he lost control of his bearing in this battle. When he saw Anlan, he thought of too much. This was all of Sin Province! Countless creatures were destroyed under this person’s hands.

Roar!

Shi Hao released a great roar. His body surged, towering in space, his magical body massive without boundary, large to the point where the entire foreign realm was going to collapse, cracking apart, unable to support his existence.

Unmatched immortal light surged outside his body, releasing chaotic energy. He became larger, his size far greater than Anlan’s.

It was as if a giant was looking down on an ant!

Pu!

Shi Hao raised his hand, covering Sin Province and the surrounding vast great earth. The golden spear that pierced over immediately snapped. With a kacha noise, it was crushed into hundreds of pieces.

Hong!

An endless rain of light descended upon Anlan’s head. His body was crushed until it bent and then it sunk once more. In the end, he couldn’t move at all, his corpse completely crushed there.

This was Shi Hao’s most powerful strike. He wasn’t given a single opportunity. With a raise of his hand, Anlan’s primordial spirit scattered, crushed into ashes.

Chi!

Golden light flickered. That broken spear melted, becoming golden liquid, sealing Anlan’s body, preserving that head lowered stance. This body remained here, becoming an eternal statue.

Roar!

On the side, Shutuo roared out, struggling about. However, under the cover of Shi Hao’s large hand, his fate was different from Anlan’s, his head lowered, almost kneeling, dying like this.

Then, his weapon was also melted by Shi Hao’s hand and turned into metal liquid, sealing his posture, creating another eternal statue.

Two powerful beings died just like that, their heads lowered, as if they were kneeling in respect to Sin Province’s millions and millions of deceased creatures.

Everyone watched this with widened eyes, all of them incredibly shocked.

“Huang, you bully others too far! You want to destroy my realm today? It won’t go as you wish! You can go to hell!” Kun Di was like a wounded old beast, roaring out at this time.

He activated Origin Ancient Artifact, supporting it together with other immortal kings, summoning that shadow, wishing to use this to kill Huang.

Moreover, this time, Kun Di acted out, a palm striking his own chest, sending out his own heart essence blood. He scattered it across Origin Ancient Artifact, sacrificing himself.

“Senior!”

The other undying kings were horrified. How could he do this? Did Kun Di not want to live anymore? This was basically throwing his own life away as well!

Because Origin Ancient Artifact shone, truly releasing great divine might, the other undying kings scattered. This would make even undying kings suffer disaster.

Hong!

When Shi Hao faced it, he sensed a wave of pressure, as if there was something that was eager to give him a try, wishing to fight him in a decisive battle.

Origin Ancient Artifact released a kacha sound, as if the metal chest was splitting apart, gradually revealing the scene inside.

“It’s not like I didn’t experience this already.” Shi Hao said to himself.

However, soon afterwards, he soon discovered that something wasn’t quite right. There was a terrifying force that locked onto him, clashing against him.

“Heavens, Origin Ancient Artifact cracked apart! It actually opened while facing Huang!”

Some people cried out in alarm.

Hong!

This chest was cracking apart, blossoming like flower petals. The multicolored brilliance was incomparable. All those who looked in this direction began to cry tears of blood, about to die.

Kun Di roared out, his blood energy was all sucked dry. It immediately seemed like he was going to pass away.

That Origin Ancient Artifact had a magical staff within. It wasn’t that long, its appearance incredibly ancient, the material polished from white bone. The staff had a figure carved on it, moreover condensing thick darkness matter source.

Blazing radiance was released from it.

En?

Shi Hao’s mind sunk. That magical artifact interfered with the deity within him, disturbing its merging with the body. He wasn’t scared of this magical staff, but its appearance at this time really was the worst timing.

Not even he himself expected the item in the chest to disturb his transformation progress.

Pu!

Shi Hao coughed out blood, his condition worsening.

He continuously coughed out blood, backing up. This transformation left everyone shocked.

“Hahaha...” Kun Di roared with laughter. He was about to die, but after seeing this scene, he was no longer disappointed.

The other undying kings were all happy. This really was a heaven-defying change!

Ah...

Suddenly, a miserable howl sounded. An ancient figure appeared, time fragments swirling around, winding around time laws. It was actually Ancestor Gu. He grasped time and space dao laws.

With a honglong sound, he knocked Kun Di flying, appearing at Origin Ancient Artifact’s side, hugging it. Then, he flew into the distance. Time fragments flew about, shining incomparably brilliantly.

When that chest moved a bit further from Shi Hao, it closed on its own.

“You...”

Kun Di was furious.

“Why are you doing this? I don’t need you to help me like this!” Shi Hao was upset, looking in front of him.

Ancestor Gu coughed out blood, a bitter smile on his face. His entire body was covered in blood, cracking apart. After being shone upon by Origin Ancient Artifact’s magical staff, it was clear that he couldn’t hold on anymore.

“After defecting to the foreign realm for so long, I almost even forgot that I didn’t truly defect myself. Sometimes, I even wonder if I should just directly help this side. After waiting for so long, carrying a bad name for so long, the torment I suffered inside, who can understand it? Today, I have finally been set free.”

Ancestor Gu smiled bitterly, old tears actually flying out from his eyes.

“Without End, Reincarnation, you two had me live on in shame, go into hiding, I’ve done it. However, I was powerless to do anything. This time, I finally managed to do something.”

Ancestor Gu said quietly, his body clearly unable to hold on much longer.

He used this type of method to save Shi Hao. He clearly already set his resolution, no longer wishing to continue living in this world.

He carried a blackened name for endless years, slandered continuously. He was previously a heaven warping figure, the heaven’s pride of a generation, high up above, revered by all beings, yet in this great era, he shouldered too much.

“These are the Darkness Demonic Dragon, Fallen Blood Phoenix and Fearless Lion. All of them were killed, their heads are here!”

Gu Ancestor said this weakly. He threw out some bloody heads. These three great experts previously belonged to the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, but later on became the distinguished guests of the foreign realm.

“There are two more kings. After dragging them down with me, I don’t feel any more shame. I have not let down my identity as someone who didn’t truly defect!”

Gu Ancestor was smiling. He threw out two more bloody heads that belonged to undying kings. They landed near Origin Ancient Artifact.

Not long ago, he took action. Because he grasped time and space great dao, deliberately sealing up heaven and earth, no one else noticed, not sensing this.

He killed great experts one by one. These five’s primordial spirits were still there, not extinguished. They began to struggle about, the five great experts wishing to flee.

“The Fallen Blood Phoenix, I don’t know if it truly defected or not, but even after all these years, even now, it hasn’t done anything. I believe that it has betrayed the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, so it can also just head on into the afterlife!” Ancestor Gu coughed out blood.

On the ground, the five heads were melting.

Origin Ancient Artifact shone. They couldn’t hold on any longer!

“Ancestor Gu!”

Shi Hao roared out. This was too regretful. He truly didn’t want to see this scene. Ancestor Gu clearly had a chance to live, but he was using his death to demonstrate his convictions, purge his blood and sin.

“Haha...” Gu Ancestor’s hair was disheveled, his figure large and tall. His complexion carried astonishing brilliance, smiling like this. At his final moments, his face was brilliant, as if he had been set free.

Hong!

Blood radiance erupted in that place. Gu Ancestor broke apart together with the five heads, turning into blasts of bloody mist, disappearing from this world.

“Gu, you’ve ruined everything!” Kun Di roared out. He still had a breath left that wasn’t swallowed, his primordial spirit light rising and falling intensely.

“Die!”

Shi Hao roared, a palm descending. Kun Di was blasted to pieces and then the primordial spirit completely exploded, turning into a rain of blood, burning to ashes.

“All of you can head on into the afterlife!”

Shi Hao suddenly turned around, rushing in a direction. The other undying kings were all blasted apart, their bodies and spirits destroyed, dying here.

A rain of blood scattered about, the scene in the foreign realm terrifying.

It was just a single Huang who stood there alone, looking at Origin Ancient Artifact, at the distant Ancestor Gu's place of death.

Perfect World

Chapter 1982: Slaughter Under Heaven

Ancestor Gu passed away, his death a bit lamentable. Only that Origin Ancient Artifact remained there, rising and falling.

Perhaps for him, this was already the best conclusion. The past pride of heaven endured humiliation and went to the foreign realm, shouldering way too much.

Now, he used his own blood to purge the shadows, to demonstrate his sincerity.

Shi Hao revealed a sad expression, silently offering his condolences. His eyes released great brilliance, staring at that chest. When he reached a certain distance from it, trying to get closer, this chest would immediately crack apart.

“Seal!”

Shi Hao shouted. He moved that foreign realm golden ancient palace over, using it as a magical artifact to seal up this Origin Ancient Artifact. Then, he shrunk it down into a single golden speck, and then it vanished from this place, banished.

He wanted to wait until his own injuries recovered before studying it more and ultimately fully solving its mysteries.

With the end of this battle, the foreign realm was flattened by him just like this. This great disaster thus became a thing of the past, no longer posing any threat.

Of course, there were still foreign realm experts who were still in Realm Sea, even more so some old monsters from the Age of Emperor Collapse. If they really were to return, then there would definitely be a world shocking battle.

Shi Hao began to sweep through the battlefield. Those who died were all undying kings, their treasures, their weapons and other things were all world shocking treasures. He didn't want to leave them for the foreign realm.

For example, Ju Chong's glistening yellow gourd swirled about in his hand, wishing to escape, but in the end, it couldn't. Heaven overflowing power was released from it.

There was the Immortal Smelting Pot as well, this item was a supreme treasure. At this level, even normal giants couldn't refine such a thing, a top quality good even among immortal king artifacts!

The Immortal Smelting Pot was indeed extremely strong. The pot body was sturdy, able to kill an immortal king. The world within the pot was boundless, a place of charm and beauty. When the gourd mouth opened, it could suck in kings and refine them.

There were other immortal king weapons, some broken, some intact. All of them were collected by Shi Hao. Things were already like this, who had more immortal king weapons than him now? There was definitely no one who could match him.

After the Age of Emperor Collapse, there had never been someone like Shi Hao who could kill immortal kings just like cutting grass, mowing through too many of this world's world shocking experts.

There were just too many king level magical artifacts!

"I am going to go back and refine my own weapon!" Shi Hao said to himself.

He prepared to open a furnace, refine a weapon of his own. As for the materials, with so many king level magical artifacts here, it was enough. When combined with those immortal materials he prepared, he should be able to refine a supreme treasure!

Shi Hao wanted to mix these kings' dao achieving artifacts into one, completely merge everything, refine an unmatched weapon that belonged to him.

The dwellings of these undying kings were also swept clean by him, no trace of politeness in this actions. Millions and millions of years of accumulation were seized, becoming his. He wouldn't leave these things for the foreign realm.

This was a truly world shocking treasury, inside of it were too many great things, all world shocking treasures. Many of these were history's brilliant and famous divine ancient objects.

Shi Hao was truly shocked. There were ancient scriptures, their backgrounds too great, containing complex profound mysteries. There were weapons that belonged to deceased ancient immortal kings, immortal pill wondrous medicines and other things, all of them refined from many types of immortal medicines.

Shi Hao put them all away, not leaving anything behind.

Then, he towered in the heavens above, overlooking this entire world, wondering just how he was going to deal with the creatures of this realm. The clansmen of these undying kings, as well as the powerful clans and others, should he completely slaughter them all?

Shi Hao's expression was cold, his eyes deep. However, in the end, he didn't take action, only releasing a light sigh.

He silently offered sacrifices for the three thousand provinces' Sin Province, paying homage to the deceased. There were many creatures here who fell into darkness. The descendants of the past Desolate Border Seven Kings now all became darkness creatures.

However, they had no idea about it. This was especially when the darkness completely vanished, they were no different from others. However, their primordial spirits had already been exchanged.

In reality, after many tens of thousands of years passed, generations after generations of new lives were born. The past darkness evolved beings, many of them already died of old age under the passing of time.

This left Shi Hao disappointed and frustrated. What was he supposed to do?

He looked towards the foreign realm's other lands. How many of them had creatures similar to Sin Province? Where were their foundations? Perhaps they came from the Nine Heavens.

After this battle, there wasn't any excitement or happiness. Shi Hao instead felt extremely calm, silently watching this great earth.

Immortal Domain's troops came. They weren't as fast as Shi Hao. They mustered large forces to provide support to Shi Hao, fearing that something unexpected happened to him.

"Where are the people, this is..." Number Two Under Heaven released a strange cry.

He sensed a different aura. Kun Di's blood was flowing about, Ju Chong turned into ashes, kings died one after another. This entire world was even lightly shaking.

What heaven's tears, what irregular scenes and other things? They were all suppressed by Shi Hao's blade, unable to erupt out.

"They were all killed by me. You can come and take over. The families of the past executioners, don't let any with bloodied hands go!" Shi Hao said.

The kings were swept through by him. He already lost the desire to deal with the remaining creatures.

However, some people were still cleaned up, there was no way he could let all of them go. Not involving all the clans was already his bottom line.

If he truly completely slaughtered the foreign realm, then he would be no different from the past undying kings.

The Nine Heavens Ten Earths, ever since Immortal Ancient's last phase, it began to break apart, the world becoming vacant, even ordinary people were slaughtered close to extinction.

Immortal Domain's troops were greatly shaken, this triggering sky shocking waves. Everyone found this hard to believe. The glorious foreign realm that had remained dominant throughout the ages was flattened just like that?

This truly was a huge matter, destined to be recorded in the annals of history, a piece of history that would never lose its glory. The thickest brush stroke would be left behind in the books.

Meanwhile, all of this was done by Huang. He flattened the foreign realm!

"Ancestor Gu's story was inspiring and tragic, he was not a traitor, but rather a domineering immortal king. I don't wish for the future people to still curse him. After this battle, he has already become innocent!"

Shi Hao's voice was grave, slowly speaking the truth. Moreover, he recreated the scene of Ancestor Gu before his death. This left every person shocked.

Ancestor Gu was actually this type of individual. He was the heaven's pride of a generation, shouldering endless curses on his back, the pressure too heavy. He used his blood and his life to cleanse away the past sin and chaos.

The immortal kings were moved, all clans sighing. Ancestor Gu was too lamentable.

Shi Hao left, returning to Immortal Domain. He had the Heavenly Horned Ant lead the troops, leading Imperial Court's men into the foreign realm to carry out a purge, settle things with the indiscriminate murderers.

The world was shaken, Immortal Domain surging!

Huang destroyed the foreign realm disaster in just a single battle, wiped out undying kings. This was simply like a fantasy tale, shocking every single person.

In Realm Sea, heaven reaching great waves surged. The fallen immortal kings were all shocked, unable to accept this. How powerful were Ju Chong and Blade King? Yet they were destroyed just like that.

There were also the other kings who went to provide assistance, all of them dying, killed by Huang alone!

"Did he become an emperor?"

"Regardless, he is already unrivaled under the sky, becoming an unmatched taboo existence, shocking past and present!"

Some people sighed.

Huang's name shook the world, everyone knowing about him. This type of battle accomplishment really was too glorious, as if ten suns were in the sky, shining over the world.

Shi Hao entered seclusion. From that day forth, he didn't appear again, only treating his injured body, wishing to recover and return to his peak state.

Ten years, a hundred years, a thousand years, ten thousand years...

Time went on slowly. In a flash, twenty thousand years passed. The foreign realm's storm finally stopped. After being swept through several times, the past murderers' blood was returned, all of them killed.

Realm Sea had remained extremely calm these recent twenty thousand years, actually no one coming to attack Immortal Domain, nor did anyone invade the foreign realm. It was too peaceful.

It was all because of Huang alone, his strength too shocking. The battle twenty thousand years ago was too shocking, which king wasn't alarmed, still daring to fight him?

As long as their heads were still clear, not completely going mad, then no one would fight with him. That was just seeking their own deaths.

What was the definition of unrivaled? Huang already fully displayed it. He used his own actions to inform the experts of the heavens that if one didn't wish to die, then they should play their part properly!

A single Huang overseeing Immortal Domain already stabilized everything. Realm Sea didn't dare attack.

Finally, Shi Hao came out from seclusion.

His injured body didn't completely heal, but he stopped his condition from worsening and things were starting to change slightly for the better.

He was sure that this needed the accumulation of time, there was no way of resolving this type of disaster in the short term. It was because his breakthrough was too forceful, it wasn't as simple as succeeding in one go.

This was the balance of the world. He obtained this much, so he needed to slowly experience the threat of death.

If it was anyone else, they would have already died. Shi Hao continuously cleansed his flesh and spirit, taking who knew how many immortal pills. There were more than a single Three Life Medicine precious pill that was refined.

Despite this, he still only barely stabilized his condition.

Fortunately, he still had the treasuries of the undying kings and the goods of fallen immortal kings. Otherwise, he wouldn't have enough pill medicines to supply his needs. This was equivalent to prolonging his life.

Shi Hao stared at his own lightning law pool. Then, he decided he was going to refine a weapon of his own.

However, before this, he didn't want to be too rash, instead testing things out first.

Shi Hao arrived at the edge of the cosmos and then left Immortal Domain, entering Realm Sea. He was scared that the artifact refinement would stir up too great of a disturbance and destroy the cosmos.

Despite this being the case, his actions shocked Immortal Domain's kings. It was because his methods recently were too horrifying, not moving was one thing, but once he did do something, there would be thunder and storms, for example, slaughtering undying kings, flattening the foreign realm.

"I am only going for a short while, just to refine some weapons."

Shi Hao transmitted sound, informing them.

"Hurry and run, Huang is coming!"

"The unrivaled Great Demon King is coming! Hurry and withdraw!"

"The only one who has become an emperor has come! He cannot be faced, hurry and leave!"

Realm Sea became chaotic. When the experts of all sides learned of his arrival, all of them began to flee, as if a herd of livestock saw an evil dragon appear in the world. They frantically fled, not daring to stop in one place.

This was precisely the reputation Shi Hao earned through slaughter. When they heard of his arrival, all of Realm Sea's fallen immortal kings quickly withdrew, not daring to face him.

Shi Hao came to refine artifacts. If his own unrivaled supreme artifact was created and his body recovered, then he would begin to head into the limits of the Land of Darkness.

The great chaos had just begun, the darkness great calamity still hadn't ended. He wanted to head there, to solve the problem at the source!

Hong!

Bright colored feathers appeared one after another. These were not ordinary feathers, but rather the primordial true feathers of immortal kings, one of their most divine feathers.

They contained the great dao symbols of an immortal king, their essence!

These belonged to bird clans, their own true feathers.

One, two...

Shi Hao extracted five primordial true feathers, added some other immortal feathers and then began to refine them. According to an ancient method, he activated great dao flames, refining a Five Bird Fan.

Back then, before he became a divine level expert, he already wanted to refine this weapon. It was because the power of the Five Bird Fan was powerful beyond comparison, moreover, he didn't have to use too much magical force himself. After refining it, it could work on its own.

This was on the premise that suitable materials could be found. It needed primordial true feathers and even a powerful bird species could only produce a single primordial true feather.

As Shi Hao's cultivation realm rose, he naturally didn't care much about the primordial true feathers of lower cultivation realms. As such, he never made a Five Bird Fan.

Now, he slaughtered the foreign realm and killed giants from Realm Sea, collected large treasuries of undying kings and fallen immortal kings, his returns unimaginable.

Now, he could finally refine the ideal Five Bird Fan.

This type of weapon had great benefits. He could lend it to lower realm cultivators without worrying about the exhaustion of the user, yet it could still display divine might.

After all, this Five Bird Fan represented the essence of five immortal kings, so how could it not be strong?

Fiery light rushed into the heavens, raging flames surging. This place became incomparably resplendent, even Realm Sea surging.

Shi Hao used up seven years before finally completing the refinement. This left many people shocked, all of them jealous. This was a magical artifact even immortal kings wanted!

After so many tens of thousands of years, even those powerful immortal king clans still didn't have a Five Bird Fan. If they had one, they could leave it to their descendants and not have to worry about the defense of their clan.

It was because the materials required were too shocking. Which king could collect the primordial true feathers of five immortal kings?

Success!

That day, a Five Bird Fan flowed with brilliant colors, flying back to Imperial Court, entering a giant palace. It rose and fell, many divine generals coming to look at it, all of them incredibly shocked.

He wasn't finished yet. Shi Hao began to refine another artifact, another five brilliant feathers that belonged to different kings were produced.

Realm Sea, foreign realm, those kings' treasures were too rich, accumulated through endless time. How could there only be five immortal king level primordial true feathers?!

Perfect World

Chapter 1983: Huang's Weapon

- Huang's Weapon

The dazzling feathers were brightly colored and beautiful, the fan made of five primordial true feathers as the foundation. It released resplendent radiance, illuminating Realm Sea. That day, raging flames overflowed, burning the sea surface dry.

With a hong noise, Shi Hao put away all of the great dao flames. A resplendent precious fan was successfully created, now rising and falling there.

There was another immortal king artifact that was successfully completed!

Chi!

Multicolored light flickered. This fan was activated by Shi Hao. With a light shake, Realm Sea's waves overflowed into the heavens, comparable to a darkness storm, stirring up heaven shocking waves.

A single splash represented an expanse of ruined worlds. The scene was extremely horrifying.

With a shua sound, the precious fan withdrew its power and then it turned into a streak of flowing light, disappearing into an Immortal Domain giant palace. Imperial Court obtained another great killing weapon.

"What else can I make?"

Shi Hao thought to himself. He looked through the materials he had. The treasures he seized from undying kings and fallen immortal kings were too abundant, the heavenly materials inside too many to count.

What he had to consider were great murderous artifacts that could display great power even without immortal king level strength, for example, the Five Bird Fan which was one of the best choices.

Unfortunately, there was no way this world had that many immortal king level primordial true feathers. Being able to refine two immortal king level Five Bird Fans was already extremely heaven-defying.

Time Immemorial Gourd!

In the end, Shi Hao thought of this magical artifact. It needed World Stone, Chaotic Earth, even more so a few types of Immortal Gold, and then it needed to be tempered a hundred times over, using great dao flames to forge a Time Immemorial Gourd.

Once this type of thing was successfully refined, it could suck in all things, suck in immortal kings and suppress them.

Meanwhile, if it was used to deal with true immortals, once one was sucked in, they would be directly refined into a pool of blood. It's power really was miraculous beyond comparison.

However, this thing wasn't easy to refine. He needed intact World Stone, moreover needed the World Stone produced from a great realm comparable to Immortal Domain.

Fortunately, the treasuries of the undying kings and fallen immortal kings were astonishing enough, truly having this type of material. He obtained what he needed from the nine-headed monster's treasury.

This fella had the ambitions, already starting to refine it. Once it succeeded, this nine-headed monster might have become unmatched among immortal kings!

Unfortunately, he still lacked Void Immortal Gold, Darkness Immortal Gold and some other materials, unable to truly succeed.

This wasn't an issue for Shi Hao. He had quite a bit of Immortal Gold from the treasuries he carried on him.

Hong!

This place surged with primal chaos energy and world force, the scene terrifying. A giant World Stone was refined into a gourd by Shi Hao, the aura terrifying.

Shi Hao released an inward sigh. Back then, it was unknown just how many glorious and brilliant civilizations and inheritances there were. They all withered away with time, disappearing like scattered smoke and clouds.

At the very least, this piece of World Stone was already enough to prove that there was a great world not weaker than Immortal Domain or the foreign realm, but it was ultimately destroyed.

In reality, if one carefully examined it, there was definitely more World Stone like this in one of his treasuries.

Chi!

He merged Darkness Immortal Gold, Five Elements Immortal Gold, Radiant Immortal Gold, Seven-Colored Immortal Gold and others, engraved the highest great dao symbols, forming streaks of spider web-like divine chains of order. All of this was branded inside the World Stone.

Then, Chaotic Earth was turned into liquid, flowing past, entering the World Stone, making it shine with even greater brilliance.

Shi Hao began to refine it with great dao flames, a single refinement lasting over a hundred years. This place turned into radiance that rushed into the heavens, irregular scenes everywhere. Countless gods and devils roared, carrying a terrifying aura, simply about to destroy the world.

These were the irregular scenes brought about by the World Stone. Back then, it was the root of a great world. After that world perished, the gods and devils of the heavens all vanished like smoke into thin air.

Hong!

In the end, a black gourd rushed into the heavens, towering in the sky, its power endless. It devoured the sun and moon, able to suck in the stars of the heavens, successfully refined just like that.

There were also streaks of metal patterns on the gourd's black surface. These were great dao traces. Once one was sucked inside, the metal patterns would become a great net, directly refining that individual to death.

When others saw this scene, they all sucked in cold breaths.

"Time Immemorial Gourd, he could even successfully refine this type of thing! This is a true supreme treasure!" Some people sighed in admiration. This was definitely an incredible item among immortal king artifacts.

Even the Immortal Smelting Pot Kun Di possessed might not be able to match this item.

A streak of black light rushed out. The Time Immemorial Gourd flew to Imperial Court, watching over the central palace.

This gourd didn't need immortal king level magical force to activate it either, able to directly display heaven shocking power. After all, the materials used were too shocking and there was even a world shocking great dao formation that was arranged.

"What other magical artifacts are there that don't need immortal king dao skills to use?" Shi Hao thought to himself.

He was going to leave Imperial Court in the end, but he still couldn't feel at ease leaving his friends back home. He wanted to leave them with some magical artifacts to protect themselves with, these artifacts all had to be the very best items.

Five Elements Banner!

Shi Hao decided to refine this type of secret treasure. If they were used separately, they were five great banners, but when used together, they would then be a great formation that could protect Imperial Court, seal it up within.

When the Five Elements Banner moved about, the universe would be overturned, yin and yang flipped. It was the same as moving an entire realm, sealing it within the formation banners' world.

Normally speaking, not even immortal kings could break through it.

This needed Five Elements Immortal Gold, even more so needed the threads of an immortal king level divine silkworm to weave the flag surface. Fortunately, he had all of these things, not lacking them.

This time, he used up a long amount of time, five hundred years in total before Shi Hao finally succeeded. When the five banners rushed out, the five elements' power pervaded outwards. When they merged together, primal chaos surged, once again producing the scene of heaven and earth being opened.

He succeeded!

Shi Hao released the Five Elements Banner, sending it to Imperial Court.

Things were already like this, there really wasn't much else he could do. He already pretty much refined everything he could. The other immortal king level artifacts had to be personally used by immortal kings or else the power wouldn't be that great.

Qi Yu and the other giants in Immortal Domain were shocked. One had to understand that even some immortal kings didn't have artifacts matching their cultivation realm, yet Shi Hao directly refined several of them.

Shi Hao informed Imperial Court to use these magical artifacts to protect themselves.

In the end, he helped Number Two Under Heaven, Ecliptic Immortal Gold Daoist, Golden Fur Hou and the others recreate their past weapons. Of course, the power might be even a step higher.

Apart from this, he also refined an immortal beheading sword for the Darkness Willow Deity, the materials selected extremely carefully!

He also helped the Heavenly Horned Ant refine a great club that could smash immortal kings to death. It was entirely pitch-black, the aura it released made one's heart rate speed up. Condensed within it were symbols almost exceeding the immortal king level.

Any more powerful and immortal kings wouldn't be able to use them.

In the end, Shi Hao began to refine a weapon for himself.

When he removed some of the materials he was going to use, all of the observing immortal kings' expressions changed. They were all stunned, inwardly incredibly shocked.

For example, Taishi's heavenly spear, Aocheng's sword wings, Scarlet King's bell, Yuanchu's heaven creation divine light...

These were just too shocking. Could it be that he was going to completely refine these immortal king artifacts?

Then, when Shi Hao produced more artifacts, everyone's scalps went numb. For example, there was Kun Di's Immortal Smelting Pot, Ju Chong's glistening yellow gourd.

These were unmatched magical artifacts that giants nurtured their entire lives! Even these things were going to be broken down and used to refine an artifact?

Apart from this, there was Blade King's broken heavenly blade, as well as other undying kings and fallen immortal kings' well-known magical artifacts. They were all immortal king level treasures, every single one of them priceless, making one's eyes turn red.

Now, he produced a large pile, preparing to merge all of them in a furnace, cast his own weapon, this...

No one knew what to even say. This was too crazy!

Was this going to be a reckless waste of resources, or could he truly create an unmatched great dao weapon?

Everyone was paying close attention. All immortal kings were stunned.

However, Shi Hao didn't start working on these weapons. Arranged in front of him were large pieces of Darkness Immortal Gold, Void Immortal Gold, Five Elements Immortal Gold and other materials.

There were all types of Immortal Gold materials.

Apart from this, there were several large pieces of World Stone that weren't smaller than the one he used to refine the Time Immemorial Gourd. There were also some other strange things, like Primal Chaos Immortal Essence and other things.

These were all unrivaled materials for refining weapons. These things hadn't appeared many times since the world was created, for example, the Primal Chaos Immortal Essence.

Hong!

Great dao fiery light rushed into the heavens. Shi Hao refined artifacts, melting down the small mountain of Immortal Gold piece by piece, continuously carving symbols, refining them into a pool. Then, he poured the Primal Chaos Immortal Essence inside.

Upon closer inspection, it was identical to the lightning law pool within his body.

The magical artifact Shi Hao was going to refine in the end was a pool that could hold all things, suppress all things.

Previously, regardless of whether it was Aocheng, Taishi, Scarlet King or the primordial spirits of Blade King, Ju Chong and the others, they were all collected inside by him and suppressed.

He felt like the power of this pool was endless, so he might as well use it as the model for his weapon.

Honglong!

Heaven and earth rumbled. Shi Hao refined his own magical artifact. All types of scripture sounds rang out unendingly, rumbling through this place.

His cultivation, to be precise, exceeded immortal king level, but was still a bit off from truly becoming an emperor. He could be considered a half immortal emperor. When someone of this cultivation level refined a magical artifact exceeding immortal king level, this type of scene would be unimaginable.

All of the gold and World Stone was melted, merged into one, becoming a pool. This was a prototype, its appearance extremely rough.

However, it already released power that left others frightened.

Shi Hao added other heavenly materials and earthly treasures inside, every single one of them able to make an immortal king level magical artifact on its own. This was a type of incredibly extravagant spending.

This process was extremely shocking, irregular scenes rushing into the heavens.

However, this process also used up a large amount of time, taking up more than a thousand years of time before Shi Hao finally refined a rough core.

Despite this being the case, once the rough core appeared, it would be enough to suppress other immortal king level artifacts. The great dao runes it contained within were too many, moreover the materials too astonishing!

From that day forth, Shi Hao began to throw in other divine weapons into the Law Pool, for example, the Immortal Smelting Pot, Scarlet King's bell, the yellow gourd and others.

Everyone could only stare in a stupor, no longer feeling like this was a waste of resources. Everyone knew that Huang was going to create an unmatched weapon that far exceeded Immortal King Realm.

"This is indeed a bit wasteful."

Shi Hao said this to himself. It was because he destroyed so many weapons, yet he could only make a magical artifact that approached immortal emperor level, it was a bit pitiful.

Higher level weapons were extremely hard to refine, needing the world's highest level invaluable essence in order to have a chance of succeeding.

From past until present, there were no immortal emperors, weapons of this level never appearing before. There was naturally a reason behind this.

That was why Shi Hao began to set his hand at this difficult task. If he wanted it to succeed, then he could only use up a large amount of time and care.

Hong!

When Aocheng's sword wings were thrown in, refined in the Law Pool's fiery light, there was another figure that appeared. This was Aocheng. Shi Hao produced his primordial spirit, everything burning right now.

He didn't want to carry out a blood sacrifice, but rather to refine him, break down this immortal king's great dao laws, to have them condensed within this Law Pool.

This weapon was like its name, refining all things between heaven and earth, gathering the endless laws of the world. If one wanted to create an unmatched great artifact, then things defying normal reason had to be done.

Ah...

Aocheng roared out, feeling incomparable horror. He could feel that he was being ruined.

However, his primordial spirit imprints were left behind, not refined in the pool.

"Dao friend, head on your way." Shi Hao said. With a light press and a bo sound, Aocheng's body and dao disappeared.

Then, he threw Scarlet King's bell inside. The bell released continuous sounds, time fragments scattering out, entering the pool.

Roar!

Scarlet King appeared, struggling in the fiery light, but was powerless to reverse the heavens, his laws refined by Shi Hao. With a light press, his body and spirit also perished.

The kings were all shocked, all of their scalps going numb when they saw this scene. Those immortal kings, undying kings and others actually served as flames for a stove!

This was a great killing weapon after all, this shocking even while still in the refinement process!

This scene continued for several thousand years and only then did it calm down. All of the king level artifacts were refined into the Law Pool.

All of these immortal king weapons were made using the most world shocking materials, one didn't have to worry about the materials being of low quality.

Shi Hao carefully forged this artifact, using his own great dao flame, moreover releasing his own essence blood to nurture it.

Hong!

The Law Pool shook, releasing terrifying power. Killing intent overflowed into the heavens, shocking all kings, their faces turning pale. This weapon was too terrifying.

Shi Hao frowned. He felt that it might be because it was because he used the primordial spirits of kings as the flame, that made this weapon's killing nature too heavy.

"I need to neutralize it!"

He said to himself quietly, "I don't need to completely refine away the killing energy. This world is too chaotic to begin with, full of great disasters, so there should be a great killing weapon that appears and suppresses all enemies."

Hong!

In the end, Shi Hao focused everything he had into refining this artifact. Some essence blood scattered out again, this Law Pool surging inside, great dao laws interweaving endlessly.

In the end, the pool produced an object, the precious pool nurturing another magical artifact!

Qiang!

A sword appeared, reaching out from the pool, releasing dazzling white sword radiance, so blinding even the eyes of immortal kings shed tears, impossible to directly look at. It was too horrifying.

This was a sword core that was born carrying killing intent!

It was the great killing artifact the Law Pool produced!

The Law Pool became calm. The sword core was extremely brilliant, full of killing intent, too terrifying. The two were brilliant and magnificent, their great power shocking the heavens!

“The Law Pool is in charge of defense, while you are for offense!”

Shi Hao said to himself. He held the sword core, standing up. Meanwhile, the Law Pool floated above his head, releasing endless strands of divine order chains, tightly protecting him within, invincible to all methods.

“Wu, there is one other object that can be smelted inside!”

Perfect World

Chapter 1984: Guidance Ancient Palace Appears

- Guidance Ancient Palace Appears

Shi Hao produced an item, a dark stone. It didn't seem all that remarkable, didn't seem to possess any extraordinary qualities.

This was something obtained from the Seven Colored Immortal Gold Man's cave, previously belonging to an unmatched immortal king. It was known as a supreme treasure for refining artifacts, but even after all these endless years, Shi Hao never figured out what its use was.

Only later on, after he achieved immortal king status and studied all types of records, did he vaguely suspect that this was a rare precious material.

This item couldn't be used to refine an artifact on its own, but rather had to accompany other materials.

“It should precisely be this type of thing.” Shi Hao said.

He towered above Realm Sea, the Law Pool rising and falling above his head, forming a hazy expanse, as if it could suppress everything under heaven throughout all ages. Meanwhile, that sword core in his hands released resplendent brilliance, endless streaks of sword energy shooting out with a light slice, making even immortal kings shiver inwardly.

This was a half immortal emperor level weapon. He really succeeded in refining it!

The sword core entered the pool, rising and falling in front of Shi Hao.

With a hong sound, great dao flames rose again, releasing endless light. Symbols flickered like stars, dense and numerous, illuminating this place.

The Law Pool once again nurtured the sword core, surrounding it with fiery light.

Shi Hao threw the dark stone inside, using the half immortal emperor level great dao flames to burn it, making heaven and earth rumble with noise.

Hu!

In the end, the flame within his body didn't hide anymore, rushing over. It was only the size of a fist, but it released resplendent radiance, merging with his dao flames.

“No wonder, this is at least a half immortal emperor level flame!”

Shi Hao released a light sigh. This mysterious ancient flame's background was shrouded in mystery, he previously discovered it by the Three World Coffin. It always followed him, residing within his body.

However, it was difficult for him to control it.

Now, it actually merged with Shi Hao's great dao flame, helping him forge this artifact.

Half immortal emperor flame!

It previously engraved many of the great dao of the world, endless dao laws. This was too suitable for Shi Hao, harmonizing with Shi Hao's Law Pool. This type of burning and refinement had great benefits.

Chi!

The black rock melted, entering the pool, and then merged into the sword core. This was a type of mysterious good. In that instant, it was as if the two half immortal emperor artifacts were set aflame.

Honglonglong!

Realm Sea's waves reached into the heavens, becoming more and more terrifying. When the half immortal emperor level artifacts shook, raging flames surged, engulfing Realm Sea. It could basically completely submerge a true great world.

In the end, when everything calmed down again, the Law Pool began to seem more and more simple and ancient. It released chaotic energy, the inside flickering with stellar radiance, as if the most powerful cosmos was concentrated within.

As for the sword core, its ferocity was gradually restrained, its killing intent laying low. When it was calm, it was like a lake surface, but once it erupted, sword radiance would devour everything. The heavens would collapse and the earth would split, biting cold.

This sword core made even kings shiver, not daring to look straight at it. They just felt like it was too terrifying, able to easily kill them.

Without a doubt, both artifacts received upgrades, becoming even stronger than before.

It was as if they had been nurtured for millions of years, seeming like Shi Hao's own flesh and blood, like his own limbs, an extension of his body. He could sense the power of the two artifacts.

If not for the emperor level truly being too hard to reach, in any other domain or cultivation realm, this stone might be able to directly raise an artifact by a grade.

The weapon refinement was complete!

Shi Hao felt more powerful than ever before!

However, he didn't need to rely on weapons. Ever since he was young, what he relied on were mostly his two fists. Having weapons was merely like granting a tiger wings.

If one day, even the heavens were beaten into ruin, the world destroyed, all weapons disappearing as well, what could he rely on? He could only rely on himself.

"There is also the Everlasting Sword Core..."

Shi Hao said to himself. However, he didn't do this, didn't smelt this sword core.

Regardless of whether it was the past or now, he felt like this sword core was extremely heaven-defying, the one who forged it too extraordinary. This thing became stronger the stronger the enemy, extremely mysterious.

He had reason to believe that this sword had a tremendous background!

It's owner might not have died yet!

He even suspected that the owner of this sword core might have exceeded the immortal king level.

After all, he previously even used this sword core to hack at Origin Ancient Artifact, splitting that chest, but it still remained fine.

In the end, Shi Hao returned to Immortal Domain. The kings were all shaken. This was a half immortal emperor! After truly understanding how powerful he was, the clans all couldn't help but feel reverence!

After the age of Emperor Collapse, in all of the records, this was the only example of someone reaching half immortal emperor level, someone who could truly overlook the endless past, unmatched under heaven.

Shi Hao returned to Imperial Court, overseeing it for a hundred years, handling many matters.

In the end, he prepared to leave.

With the Five Bird Fans, Time Immemorial Gourd and Five Elements Banner here, it was as if they obtained many more immortal kings. Moreover, with Number Two Under Heaven, the Ecliptic Immortal Gold Daoist, Darkness Willow Deity, Heavenly Horned Ant and others here, it was enough to guard Imperial Court.

After carefully totaling all of this up, this was an extremely terrifying force.

However, no matter how great a power flourished, in Immortal Domain, Shi Hao never truly established an Imperial Court, didn't mention these two words.

These people still remained, the organization existed, but they didn't declare the two words Imperial Court to the world.

Shi Hao wasn't scared himself, but he was worried about Imperial Court's people. If things really did end up like in the ancient times, there would be inauspiciousness provoked, bringing about a killing disaster.

If that happened, then he would be incomparably regretful.

He wasn't worried about himself, but he indeed worried about the suffering of Imperial Court's people.

Shi Hao made a trip through Immortal Domain. Then, he finally left. This time, he left for hundreds of more than a hundred thousand years, there was no more information about him for a long, long time.

He entered Realm Sea, recovering from his injuries while searching around in the sea. From time to time, he ascended the sea's islands, occasionally moving over the sea.

It had to be said that in these years, the darkness storms that ravaged the sea became more and more vicious. Sometimes, they could even kill immortal king level existences.

He didn't advance recklessly, instead treating his injuries.

Time went on slowly. The Half Immortal Emperor Shi Hao became a legend among Immortal Domain's people!

It was because in a flash, many tens of thousands of years passed.

Now, just how much time had passed? He had been sealed in the ten reincarnation imprints for five hundred thousand years, entered Immortal Domain for more than eight hundred thousand years, already spent more than two hundred thousand years in Realm Sea.

In the recent two hundred thousand years, the world obtained a rare period of peace.

There were experts who returned from Realm Sea, but most of them resided on the dam or they returned to some ruined ancient realms, not a single one daring to attack Immortal Domain.

It was all because of a single Huang's existence. He became a half immortal emperor, precisely in this Realm Sea, unknown if he had travelled too far.

The great turmoil seemed to have immediately been quelled. In the past two hundred thousand years, there were no events of immortal kings shedding blood, peaceful beyond belief.

The experts of Immortal Domain's various clans were calm, inwardly having confidence. The various great immortal kings were also quite calm.

Before leaving, Shi Hao previously told them that he was going to Realm Sea to stop the enemies in the ocean. If there were any fallen immortal kings who were arriving while carrying killing intent, he would stop them.

In all these years, there were no events of great chaos that happened, as expected. This made all of the cultivators of different clans develop a type of respect for him.

Imperial Court's people were still thinking about him.

In Realm Sea, a black ancient ship moved slowly like a ghost. It looked slow, but it was actually moving across ruined worlds one after another.

It was a blood-soaked ancient ship, extremely large.

Shi Hao sat on the deck, silent and quiet. He quietly cultivated. After two to three hundred thousand years of recovery, he recovered, the injuries disappeared.

That day, his skills reached perfection, even the last scar within him fading. With a hong noise, he was full of vitality, his great dao aura spreading through Realm Sea.

"Are you all really waiting for me to head into the other side of Realm Sea?" Shi Hao stood up. He had guarded the area outside Realm Sea for so many years, but never encountered any of the creatures he wanted to run into.

After a few thousand years, Shi Hao frowned. The large black ship under him stopped. He sensed a wave of unnatural aura.

In Realm Sea, there were figures everywhere. Some of the creatures were massive, towering like archaic demonic mountains, carrying terrifying pressure, their eyes scarlet red, extremely crazy, gathering here.

“After so many years of peace, were there finally some people who couldn’t hold back anymore?” Shi Hao said to himself.

An ancient beast released a great roar, throwing itself over, stirring up heaven reaching great waves.

Pu!

However, Shi Hao didn’t move. He opened his mouth, spraying out a streak of chaotic essence energy, directly blasting that giant figure to pieces.

This was precisely the power of a half immortal emperor.

Now, Shi Hao’s injuries had recovered. It could be said that he was even more powerful, his strength unimaginable.

At the same time, Imperial Court erupted, encountering a great disaster!

“En?!”

Even though there were millions and millions of li between them, Shi Hao still sensed something, inwardly panicking, feeling extremely uncomfortable. This made him become incredibly vigilant.

There were powerful creatures who continuously appeared here, attacking Shi Hao. However, with a flick of his finger, those experts all died.

Chi!

Shi Hao left, spurring on the blood-soaked black ancient ship. He smashed away everything in his way, quickly moving towards the dam.

“Immortal Domain is in trouble!” After Shi Hao made this deduction, he attacked crazily.

If it was an immortal king, after leaving for so many years, it would definitely be hard to immediately hurry back. However, Shi Hao was a half immortal emperor, not truly heading on his way all these years, but rather prioritizing the healing of his injuries, lingering near the shore.

That was why when he sensed that something was off, his speed left immortal kings horrified. It was simply defying heaven and earth, making even the great river of time seem to be flowing in reverse.

Hong!

Shi Hao rushed into Dam World and then tore apart the void, directly returning to Immortal Domain with a single step.

“Kill!”

Shouts of war shook the heavens. Immortal Domain slaughtered until there was chaos.

Moreover, this realm was in pieces, beaten into a miserable state.

What was going on?

Shi Hao's eyes were cold. Were there still great disasters in Immortal Domain?

Soon afterwards, he understood what that was. In the sky above, there was an ancient palace that rose and fell, continuously releasing experts that killed all clans.

Those were fallen immortal kings. They were incredibly powerful, descending from above.

Creatures that had fallen into darkness through Guidance Ancient Palace directly descended upon this realm.

This Guidance Ancient Palace was especially massive, much larger than the nine-headed monster's ruined palace.

After this battle, some immortal kings perished, no longer existing.

Hong!

Shi Hao's fist smashed out. In the heavens above and earth below, there was endless brilliance. Only he stood tall, his fist radiance unmatched.

A pili pala noise sounded in the sky. Some experts exploded, their ruined bones turning into ashes, falling down!

When a half immortal emperor attacked, heaven and earth would lose color.

Shi Hao immediately hurried to where Imperial Court was, discovering that this was the main battlefield. Darkness creatures descended one after another, carrying terrifying auras. They covered heaven and earth, bombarding this place with attacks.

Fortunately, the Imperial Court had the Five Bird Fans, Time Immemorial Gourd and other things.

Otherwise, Imperial Court would have been in danger.

Despite this being the case, the damage was still great. The giant palaces were ruined, fiery light rushing into the heavens, the people shouting in disorder, the bloody battles that were still going on intense.

Number Two Under Heaven, Ecliptic Immortal Gold Daoist and the others were all fighting, bathed in blood. Even the Darkness Willow Deity lost many branches. The battle was too severe.

The Heavenly Horned Ant held the Immortal Gold club in his hands, attacking crazily, his eyes scarlet red, long going berserk. Meanwhile, resting above his head was the Origin Source Cauldron, his father's weapon.

This was an intense battle!

Chi!

Right at this time, a streak of dazzling brilliance rushed out, illuminating all of Immortal Domain. Shi Hao was furious, activating his own half immortal emperor level weapons, sweeping through the heavens.

Pu pu pu...

All of the the enemies who attacked Imperial Court were killed, terrifying killing intent sweeping through the sky dome.

“Suck away everything!”

Shi Hao roared out, activating his Law Pool, ordering it to devour endless immortal light, directly sucking the Guidance Ancient Palace above inside, forcefully suppressing it.

If it wasn't because he wanted to research it further, he would have directly cut this palace down with his sword.

“Absorb again!”

Shi Hao shouted. The Law Pool shone, warping the universe, affecting the stability of time and space.

It was like a black hole, its power terrifying. Many of the creatures who invaded Immortal Domain were sucked inside, unable to move out of the way. Its power was great beyond compare.

Perfect World

Chapter 1985: A Single Person's Imperial Court

- A Single Person's Imperial Court

In the Law Pool, it was extremely dazzling, great brilliance was released from it, shining all over Immortal Domain.

At the same time, it was also terrifying, sucking in enemies from all sides. The darkness creatures all shrunk, quickly entering inside.

All of Immortal Domain became crazy over this matter!

This magical artifact was too terrifying. It floated in the heavens just like that, all intruders flying towards the pool, unable to control themselves, flying like little bugs into the fiery light.

Shi Hao stood in the void, overlooking Immortal Domain. It was as if he had existed for all of eternity, overlooking all enemies as they were captured.

Roar!

Among them, there was an ancient beast that was especially powerful. It struggled about, crushing mountains, rivers and all other things. It leapt out, even larger than a star, wishing to flee from Immortal Domain.

This ancient beast was a powerful fallen immortal king. It roared, crushing stars, tearing apart the cosmos, wishing to completely escape.

However, under Shi Hao's cold eyes, with a sweep of his sleeve, a pu sounded. That ancient beast immediately exploded, turning into a blast of bloody mist.

Everyone was horrified. Was this precisely Huang's power?

This was too powerful. This was an immortal king! However, with just a swing of his sleeve, its life was taken just like that!

It could be said that half immortal emperor level already exceeded everyone's imagination. The current Shi Hao who already fully recovered from his injuries now stood at the absolute peak of the great dao, overlooking all life, difficult for him to meet his match.

"The darkness is the final place of return, immortal kings are no exception!"

Someone roared out, hair disheveled, towering in this world. His body was massive to the extreme, roaring from the distance. He struggled out of the vortex, wishing to go crazy and slaughter his way out of this realm.

Unfortunately, under a shout from Shi Hao, a symbol was spat out. It was as if a great golden mountain crushed down, smashing into that person's body, making him explode on the spot, his body and spirit perishing.

This power was too shocking, extremely dazzling. Dazzling king blood burned, making heaven and earth rumble continuously.

"Run!"

Even if they were darkness creatures, even if their backgrounds were extremely great, they lost all of their fighting spirit now, not having any intentions of staying behind and fighting. All of them wanted to run.

However, how were they supposed to get away?

In the sky dome above, that Law Pool released dazzling radiance. It swirled with hazy radiance, collecting all of the intruders.

There were fish that left the net, but it was only because they were momentarily too far away. However, with a point of Shi Hao's finger, all of the blood and bones were blasted apart. They couldn't get away at all.

"Darkness is eternal, this day will arrive one day!"

There were those who didn't fear death, screaming out and struggling endlessly. They took action towards those near them, even wishing to slaughter their way towards Shi Hao.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, the Law Pool descended, the distance becoming closer and closer to the great earth. It was slaughtering all of the intruders, quickly sucking them away.

Weng!

In the end, the Law Pool began to spin around, rotating above Immortal Domain. It possessed extreme speed, instantly moving over millions of millions of li. Its speed was too fast, sucking in all of the remaining intruders. From then on, there were no more fish that escaped the net.

Apart from a few experts that were left behind by Shi Hao to question, with a fierce shake of the law pool and a pu sound, this expert completely turned into bloody mist, dying a violent death.

A flame began to burn in the pool, absorbing that creature's law imprints. Then, with a light shake, all of them were turned into ashes and remains.

This was a great killing weapon!

Even the expressions of Immortal Domain's kings turned green. This was too terrifying.

Just now, many of them were still fighting intensely, the same level as themselves. Yet in the end, they were all slaughtered just like that. Just how heaven-defying were these methods?

Dong!

In the place where Guidance Ancient Palace originally towered, the void split apart. Terrifying energy surged, black mist overflowing into the heavens, as if there was some type of creature trying to cross over.

Shi Hao remained fearless. He rushed into the heavens, stopping over there, gazing in that direction!

"Kill!"

He released a loud shout. With a qiang noise, he drew his immortal sword. The dazzling radiance stung immortal kings' eyes until they had to lower their heads, not daring to stare straight at it.

Chi!

Shi Hao hacked out, slicing open that area of the void, making this passage even larger. He wanted to see just what kind of creature was crossing over for himself.

Roar!

A great roar sounded. Immortal Domain shook. If not for Shi Hao sealing up this place, many people would be shaken until their bodies cracked apart, dying violent deaths.

Shi Hao saw that this was a massive creature. It had nineteen heads, covered in green scales, fierce and horrifying.

The nineteen heads were all different. The body was a dragon body, moving about there, dancing about. Its figure really was just too large. Its finest scales were all brighter than a moon, its eyes as large as planets.

Its power was horrifying. Apart from the dragon head in the center, there was a White Tiger head, Pixiu head, Taotie head...

That scene was horrifying, its aura also horrifying.

Shi Hao was sure that this monster was powerful, Kun Di, Ju Chong, none of these would be its match. It was too strong, not many creatures able to match it.

In the past, that nine-headed monster was already terrifying, fighting a long battle against Shi Hao who didn't break through yet. This one had nineteen heads, even more shocking.

“Nineteen kings devoured each other and merged, becoming this type of magical body?” Shi Hao said to himself.

Without a doubt, this creature was at the peak of immortal king level. If it could break through the final shackles, then it would be too formidable.

Only, those shackles were too hard to break through!

No matter how powerful this creature was, in the end, it still couldn't take that step.

From the past until now, how many experts could reach that level? Right now, there was only Huang.

“There are several experts among Immortal Kings that are even more formidable than Kun Di. I wonder how far those fellas in the depths of Realm Sea are now.”

Roar!

This monster roared out, slaughtering its way forward. It released a heart shaking aura. If there were other immortal kings here, they definitely wouldn't be able to handle it.

However, in Shi Hao's perspective, this was not enough at all. His sword hacked out. With a pu chi noise, the nineteen heads all fell off, carrying a large expanse of bloody mist.

“Speak, what kind of background do you all have?” Shi Hao asked.

In reality, even without thinking too much, he could tell that these were creatures from Darkness Prison, just like the nine-headed monster from before, just that this one was even stronger.

Merging the primordial spirits of nineteen kings, just how terrifying of a thing was this?

It indeed was unmatched in Immortal King Realm, able to sweep through all experts in this present world.

“What is there to say? We fell into darkness, devoured each other. Now, there was a chance, so we carried darkness matter, marched here to challenge the radiant.”

One head said.

“Consecrate darkness, worship eternally.”

Another head muttered, the expression in its eyes crazy. It was confused, carrying a type of craziness. This was not normal at all.

Shi Hao's expression immediately became cold. He knew that these creatures had been locked up for an endless amount of time, that they couldn't be evaluated with normal reasoning at all.

He grabbed them over one after another, searching their minds.

In the end, he gave it a light cold snort and said, “I'll send you on your way, set you free!”

Chi!

When his sword swept out, the nineteen heads were all crushed into powder, their bodies and spirits erased.

These creatures only knew slaughter and destruction. If he truly left it behind, there would be a great disaster sooner or later.

In the Land of Darkness, what exactly was there really? Why was this type of monster created? Charging in with a great army like this, it truly was a type of great danger for Immortal Domain.

Qiang!

Shi Hao brandished his blade, hacking out again. He really wanted to hack apart the everlasting, tearing apart the darkness, completely opening up the so-called prison.

He was extremely regretful. His sword descended, but he didn't see the Darkness Prison. This passage was already crumbling inch by inch, completely disappearing without a trace.

"Guidance Ancient Palace is connected to the Land of Darkness. Is it guiding the creatures from the prison back?" Shi Hao said quietly.

He held the Law Pool in his hand, staring inside, observing that Guidance Ancient Palace and restricted a few heads he preserved, searching their sea of consciousness.

However, in the end, there weren't too many gains. They didn't know anything about the Land of Darkness. They had been locked up in the prison for an endless amount of time.

Today, a voice sounded, about to grant them freedom, return them to radiance. Only then did they revive, slaughtering their way over on orders.

"After millions and millions of years of imprisonment, all these heroes of the past, the past prides of heaven, in the end, were still destroyed." Shi Hao released a long sigh. That type of environment was deathly still and silent, enough to make one go crazy.

This battle came to an end.

Shi Hao returned extremely promptly, but the damage Immortal Domain suffered was still extremely great.

Guidance Ancient Palace appeared too suddenly, directly making its way through a group of experts, unleashing a great slaughter. No one could defend against it.

Everyone felt that with Shi Hao in Realm Sea, comparatively speaking, Immortal Domain was safe. In reality, this was the case for two hundred thousand years.

Who would have thought that a disaster would suddenly descend from above like this?

Even Imperial Court had great casualties. There were some old generals that followed Shi Hao up from the lower realm, brought here by Pan King.

However, in this battle, there were also some of these old soldiers who died.

Even with the Five Bird Fans, Time Immemorial Gourd, Five Element Banner and other things, in this great battle where even immortal kings died miserably, they still suffered greatly.

In this great battle, Darkness Willow Deity faced attacks from all sides, almost suffering greatly. Many of its branches were broken.

Even if it finally passed, in the end, a few new graves appeared behind Imperial Court. They were all past old divine generals.

Shi Hao was quiet. He was always paying attention to Realm Sea, but he still couldn't guard against an unexpected attack. There was still a Guidance Ancient Palace that could descend like this.

He took up residence in Immortal Domain, watching the golden multicolored brilliance of the sunrise, watched as the setting sun dyed the world blood red, watched as stars swirled, the sun and moon moved about. Many times, a single standing would last many years.

He was sensing his own path, comprehending his own method. He wanted to become stronger, to become a true emperor!

During this period, he also met with his old friends, discussed events of the past and considered the future. Everyone's minds were extremely heavy, all of them knowing that there was great terror in the Land of Darkness.

Qing Yi also came often. When she was with Shi Hao, everything was extremely calm and peaceful, because there was also the darkness Huo Ling'er.

Now, Shi Hao wasn't willing to talk too much. In this world, would he still care about having heirs? Everything had to wait until after the darkness chaos ended.

Only, when that time came, when he thought about how there was Yun Xi, Huo Ling'er and Qing Yi, he felt a headache.

The Heavenly Horned Ant had previously mocked him, saying that even the glorious Huang, the half immortal emperor of a generation, had a situation where he felt a headache?

In reality, even Grandpa Fifteen Shi Zhongtian had teased his grandson. The one known as the unrivaled Little Stone was still scared of trifling female matters. At the time, he can just take them all as his wives.

Shi Hao had a bitter smile on his face.

Time was ruthless. After so many years passed, he obtained so much, but also lost a lot. There was regret, but also contentment.

Time continuously went on just like that.

Hong!

That day, heaven and earth shook intensely. Immortal Domain cracked to pieces, the most terrifying disaster happening.

Shi Hao suddenly opened his eyes, releasing great power. He stared into the void, guarding the place where Imperial Court was. In addition, divine might spread outwards, guarding all sides.

"I didn't seek you out, but who would have thought that you would come knocking on my door yourself!" Shi Hao shouted.

He saw a chest. This was an Origin Ancient Artifact, the one that belonged to the foreign realm. Back then, it was sealed and banished, leaving it in a mysterious space.

After Shi Hao nursed his injuries, he had always been studying the great dao. He didn't have time to examine it yet, never expecting it to appear on its own today, descending upon Immortal Domain.

When Origin Ancient Artifact approached Shi Hao, it opened on its own. This was naturally a great disaster!

"Suppress!"

Shi Hao shouted, releasing unrivaled divine might. His Law Pool rushed into the heavens to face this chest.

Kacha!

The chest burst open. A bone staff rushed out from within, snow-white like jade. However, there was a sphere of darkness matter swirling around it, hacking over towards Shi Hao.

Today, Shi Hao finally confirmed things, confirmed what level of power this was. It belonged to a half immortal emperor!

"Even something like you dares injure me?"

Shi Hao released a shout. The Law Pool shook, about to suck this bone staff inside.

He blocked that wave of power, sending it to outer space, wishing to fight with it in a place where there was no one around.

However, when Shi Hao left, another chest appeared, descending onto Immortal Domain. It swayed gently and then slowly opened.

This was another Origin Ancient Artifact, the one that belonged to Burial Realm!

"You dare?!"

Shi Hao roared out, using the immortal sword in his hands, hacking outwards, blasting it into outer space.

A bone crown appeared, as if it was the crown of an emperor!

It floated up and down, occasionally turning into a snow-white head. It was like something out of a mirage or dream, leaving everyone shocked.

This was a great disaster for Immortal Domain.

The two chests opened one after another. Even if Shi Hao previously stopped them with all his strength, sending them flying, their radiance still shone over many regions.

Countless creatures wailed, many experts disappearing, turning into scattered ashes and dispersed smoke.

It was because these two chests came intentionally, their radiance extremely dazzling.

It was to the extent where there were two immortal kings who were too close. In the end, they fell, immortal king blood dyeing their lands of seclusion blood red.

Imperial Court also suffered serious losses, the palaces were in ruin. Some heavenly soldiers, divine generals and others all already turned to dust. Under the destructive light of a half immortal emperor, their bodies and spirits perished.

In outer space, Shi Hao roared out. He carried the two chests into Realm Sea, fighting a world shocking great battle.

These weren't as simple as half immortal emperor magical artifacts.

That bone crown actually took human form, as if a creature was descending into this world. It held the bone staff, fighting intensely against Shi Hao.

After the Age of Emperor Collapse, this was the first half immortal emperor level great battle, shocking past and present. The heavens were shaken, everyone shivering inwardly. This was an unprecedented great event.

"The one who vainly wishes to establish an Imperial Court, die!"

The bone crown became a creature, saying this coldly and ruthlessly.

Shi Hao was furious. Ever since he entered Immortal Domain, he never mentioned the word Imperial Court before. He didn't feel any fear himself, but he was scared of his old friends suffering.

"With your dao skills, in the end, you are still going to try and establish an Imperial Court." That creature said coldly.

When he was in the lower realm, the woman on the World Tree previously warned Shi Hao, telling him that it was one thing in the lower realms, it was still in the Mortal Dao Domain, no one would notice.

Once it reached the Immortal Dao Domain, if one still tried to establish an Imperial Court, then there would definitely be a great disaster.

That woman's ancestor was one of the creators of Immortal Domain's cultivation system. Several kings established an Imperial Court together, yet in the end, several great clans were wiped out, surrounded by inauspiciousness and disaster.

In the end, only this woman and the Butcher escaped.

"Turns out it was you all who were taking action!" Shi Hao said coldly.

"It is even more serious than you have imagined. The darkness is eternal, everything is experiencing reincarnation!" That creature was cold and ruthless.

"Kill!"

A world shocking great battle erupted. Shi Hao fought a bloody battle against it, this battle continuing until the sun and moon lost radiance, the Realm Sea collapsing. Even the heavens trembled and cried out.

In the end, Shi Hao emerged victorious, suppressing the two Origin Ancient Artifacts, completely sealing them, leaving them for the future to settle.

He quickly returned to Immortal Domain. When he saw the blood covering the ground and the ruined walls, he couldn't help but release a great roar.

Forget about Immortal Domain's other areas, Imperial Court alone suffered greatly. Many old soldiers passed away forever, some divine generals' corpses disappearing, turning into ashes.

There were also large amounts of cultivators who only had half their bodies left, clearly unable to continue living.

It was because there was a terrifying wave of corrosion force that was currently eating away at them.

Roar!

Shi Hao's hair was dishevelled. He extracted his own half immortal emperor essence blood, using divine force to cleanse everyone, pulling some people back from the brink of death.

He carried aged ruined corpses one after another, his eyes flushing red. These were old soldiers who followed him from the lower realm, yet today, so many of them passed on.

Ah...

Shi Hao roared into the heavens.

Soon afterwards, he knew that there were those who suffered among his old friends as well. Those who fought with him in Desolate Border, who previously shared wine and ate meat with him in the Nine Heavens Ten Earths.

"Heh, haha..." Shi Hao roared with laughter, a bit bleak, a bit hurt. He roared out. "I never established an Imperial Court, purposely avoided doing so, yet there was still this type of disaster brought down."

"Grandfather, A'man, Chang Gongyan, Mu Qing, Qing Yi... all of you, sleep for now!"

Shi Hao said quietly. He wanted to do something huge, he wanted to seal up all of Imperial Court just like the past Stone Village.

He was preparing to head on his way alone, to slaughter to his heart's content, until there were no more worries behind him.

"From here on out, there is no one left here."

"It is only me alone!"

"From today on, Imperial Court will set out!"

"Imperial Court, if I exist, then it exists. Even if Imperial Court only has one person, it should still be established!" Shi Hao roared out, screaming into the heavens. His body erupted with an incomparably terrifying aura, drowning out heaven and earth.

"Come. If you don't want to appear, then I will slaughter my way over."

This was a declaration of war. He alone was Imperial Court, challenging the Land of Darkness. There was only a single Huang!

Perfect World

Chapter 1986: A Faint Trail of Footsteps

- A Faint Trail of Footsteps

Tuogu Yulong suffered serious injuries, his primordial spirit's corrosion too severe. In the end, not even Shi Hao's half immortal emperor blood could save his life.

The last of Wei Family's Four Phoenixes, the one who accompanied Tuogu Yulong and long became dao companions with him was also seriously injured. She remained at Tuogu Yulong's side, following him in passing.

"Sigh, all of you are leaving already. Wait for me..." The owner of the Five Spirits War Chariot Qi Hong released a light sigh. He had a part of his primordial spirit that was also seriously affected. When he saw the two pass on like this, he felt great grief.

With a chi sound, his primordial spirit shattered, crumbling to pieces because of the darkness radiance, passing away just like that.

They all came from Desolate Border's Imperial Pass and fought at Shi Hao's side. However, in the end, there was this type of conclusion, leaving the living in sorrow.

Apart from this, there were other old friends who left this world.

Great Xu Tuo passed away, Little Sky King perished, Lan Xian turned into coal. These were all world shocking heaven warping figures and beautiful fairies, but in the end, they still left this world.

This battle was even more miserable than what Shi Hao thought at first, actually this many people dying.

Cough...

The witch opened her eyes, only having a ruined body left. She was originally stunning and enchanting, her style exceptional, yet now, her state was miserable, almost completely dying in this battle.

"You still couldn't bear to let me go?" After she revived, she spoke with difficulty, blinking her eyes, her beautiful face full of traces of blood.

Even though she almost died, at this moment, her mood was still light. This was her nature, naturally like this, carrying a type of craftiness within her charm.

She was someone Shi Hao dragged out from the piles of the deceased, rescuing her from Imperial Court's deceased troops.

Shi Hao was between laughter and tears. They were already at this step, yet she was still smiling brilliantly, making him feel a bit bitter. This damned chaotic world!

There were some who weren't willing to be sealed, for example, Ten Crown King, Exiled Immortal and Shi Yi, these individuals choosing to leave. They were prideful, never willing to lower their heads.

Even though the distance from Shi Hao became greater and greater, no way of catching up, they still weren't willing to be like dust in this world, wishing to live brilliantly in this cruel and great turmoil.

"Even if I die tomorrow, what is there to fear?!"

In Ten Crown King's eyes, life was the most important experience. He wanted to continue walking down his path, tread out his own footsteps.

"I actually don't want to be sealed either. I want to see just what kind of strange monster will appear, if it will come out from the Land of Darkness." The Lunar Jade Rabbit muttered.

Shi Zhongtian was extremely open-minded, listening to Shi Hao's arrangements, because this was his own grandson.

A'man smiled gently, looking at Shi Hao. There would always be some who were willing to understand him. A'man was good at understanding others, always good to Shi Hao.

She didn't want Shi Hao to feel worry inside, willing to sleep. This way, he could peacefully head on his way, focus on his battles.

If there was a choice, no one would be willing to be sealed.

This terrible chaotic world, this cruel turmoil, it truly was about to arrive.

After this day, Imperial Court became cold and dismal, no longer having any signs of life. Shi Hao was the only one left. Those who left left and those who slept slept.

The corpses of the old soldiers and the remains of divine generals were all buried in Imperial Court's remains, located on a smashed group of palaces. This place seemed extremely desolate, extremely tattered.

The nine sets of dragon bones pulled a bronze ancient coffin, moving through the void, heading into the distance. It was banished by Shi Hao.

That was an unknown path. It wandered outside Immortal Domain, moving through layers of ruined worlds, accompanied by thick time fragments, gradually becoming indistinct.

This was Shi Hao's great method, his dao, using his most powerful divine abilities to send it into exile, undisturbed by anyone, unable to be derived.

Only if he himself was still alive, could he find them.

The nine dragon bones moved about, flesh slowly appearing, covering their bodies. They were previously Immortal Dao Domain True Dragons!

However, their power had all been erased.

Shi Hao derived natural luck with great magical force, helping them reconstruct their flesh, even releasing life brilliance. They guarded the Three Life Bronze Coffin. Unless one obtained the acknowledgement of the defense runes or broke through the barrier of light, there was no way of entering the bronze coffin.

Darkness Willow Deity, Golden Fur Hou and others naturally refused to sleep. Experts of their level wouldn't make that type of choice.

The restricted region lord, crystal skull and other old monsters all refused politely, heading to Pan King to remain there as guests, reminisce about old times. Shi Hao knew that they were perhaps truly weary, wishing to meet their conclusion in this world of chaos.

The Heavenly Horned Ant carried his Immortal Gold club, wandering about, stating that he wanted to pay Cao Yusheng a visit. After completing his great revenge, he was no longer as grave and gloomy as before.

Time continued on. Shi Hao sat in Imperial Court alone.

This place was full of weeds, ruined walls everywhere. Graves stood one after another. Tens of thousands of years passed, but he didn't leave, even his body was covered in a thick layer of dust.

Imperial Court!

A one man Imperial Court!

After all these years, he thought about many old events and also thought about the future, sensing the feeling of loneliness in the silence. He accumulated cultivation, awaiting the ultimate battle.

He sensed that the world-shattering age wasn't far!

Should he slaughter his way over, or would the ones from the Land of Darkness come to him?

Kacha!

Origin Ancient Artifact was opened by him. The radiance erupted, but it then quickly went out again. It was because Shi Hao suppressed it with unmatched magical force, sealing all of it in his hands.

The bone crown moved about, struggling intensely.

However, it couldn't struggle free, firmly suppressed by Shi Hao.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao released a light shout. He exerted magical force, his boundless dao skills frantically surging. He activated great dao flames, activating it with all of his might, erasing the will in that bone crown.

There were intense fluctuations and terrifying collisions.

At this time, the other chest was also moving. That bone staff wanted to undo its seal, rescue the bone crown.

"So what if I let you out?!"

In the end, Shi Hao held the two half immortal artifacts, one in each hand. Great dao flames extended to his arms, wrapping around them, crazily trying to refine them.

The dark mist scattered. This was darkness essence, but it was directly shaken off by Shi Hao.

Moreover, the two biting cold wills were erased by him, ruthlessly crushed.

“Origin Ancient Artifacts!”

Shi Hao closed his eyes, quietly saying this to himself. He obtained some information from the two ancient artifacts.

As expected, they came from the Land of Darkness, the divine objects of that place.

The two chests descended onto this border of Realm Sea, carrying orders. Their responsibility was to create creatures of darkness, some of them would be sent back to that ancient land through Guidance Ancient Palace.

Shi Hao thought of Great Elder, he was precisely this type of chosen individual.

There were also large amounts of creatures who fell into darkness, but were left on this side.

“The Land of Darkness lacks life, they need to produce them here!”

Shi Hao now completely understood what kind of place that land on the other side of Realm Sea treated this world as. It was the place where darkness creatures were made, the land of birth.

When he thought about it like this, many things became clear.

The bone crown and magical staff were both refined by Shi Hao, becoming his artifacts. All remnant wills were completely erased.

Tens of thousands of more years passed. Imperial Court became more desolate, dried vines, old crows, weeds, great tombs...

From time to time, between thousands of years, over ten thousand years, the sounds of a man crying could still be heard. This made the outside world feel great fear towards this place, not daring to approach it.

In reality, Imperial Court’s reputation already spread. Everyone knew that Huang established Imperial Court, but he was the only member!

Meanwhile, Imperial Court was located precisely in this ruined land.

“Imperial Court has already been established. Are you still not coming?!”

Shi Hao looked towards the heavens.

In the end, one day, he drew over endless darkness force, tangling it about himself, corroding himself. This was only for the sake of entering the Darkness Prison side.

This was quite similar to what Willow Deity did in the past.

If one wanted to reach the other end of Realm Sea, wanted to head to the ultimate ancient land, this was perhaps the fastest path, but also the most dangerous one. He might be forever suppressed within the Darkness Prisons.

He was abandoning his flesh, only his primordial spirit could head on his way!

Shi Hao made this choice.

The darkness light and the strong source matter invaded Shi Hao's flesh, moreover opening up a path, guiding his primordial spirit out.

In the past, he had come here before. He saw the great river of time, seeing the endless prisons rising and falling along that river, carrying out a reincarnation.

"Break for me!"

Shi Hao shouted out. His primordial spirit roared in the Darkness Prison, tearing apart this place, shaking up the river of time that had existed from past to present.

Shi Hao shattered the primordial spirit prison, charging his way out. He stood in the darkness, looking around himself.

This prison was quite strange, changing according to the dao skills of the one it locked up.

However, it still had a limit, at most able to restrain immortal kings. If one wanted to restrain a half immortal emperor, that was too difficult.

Hong!

Shi Hao brandished his fist, destroying prisons one after another, opening up the path. One after another, he released the confused primordial spirits.

This was a world shocking matter, enough to shake up past and present!

Its effects were too profound. Someone slaughtered his way here, destroying large amounts of prisons, releasing the primordial spirits that were previously locked up.

In the end, this type of effect was too great, touching upon some type of mysterious law. Shi Hao's path ahead was stopped.

In addition, with a honglong noise, the darkness burst open. Shi Hao returned to the real world. Other than that, there were some primordial spirits that also struggled free, arriving in Immortal Domain.

That day, there was a huge uproar!

Immortal Domain was in a commotion!

Huang took action, actually opening up the Darkness Prison, releasing thousands of well-known talents in history.

Some of these were in the Mortal Dao Domain and some of them even entered the Immortal Dao Domain. There was even an immortal king among them!

Some of them came from the Nine Heavens Ten Earths, some from Immortal Domain and there were actually also some creatures from the endless river of time. Their original world had long been destroyed.

This was a reincarnation of great eras, great tombs altered and shifted, many of them disappeared.

"Huang is unmatched from past to present!"

“Heavenly Emperor!”

Someone shouted out the two words ‘heavenly emperor’. In Immortal Domain, there would always be some youngsters who admired the strong, or some who felt like half immortal emperor was still not enough to describe Shi Hao’s power.

Moreover, now, Shi Hao established a one man Imperial Court, carrying a type of tragic feeling. That was why some people began to call him Heavenly Emperor.

In reality, even some immortal kings began to call Shi Hao Emperor.

It was because he had indeed surpassed the king realm, now far above. With a raise of his hand, he could destroy the most powerful immortal kings.

Now, some people called him Heavenly Emperor, but there was surprisingly no one who retorted. Ever since the Age of Emperor Collapse, there has never been anyone who reached this step.

That was why Shi Hao being called Emperor was something all clans could accept.

Shi Hao’s primordial spirit returned to his body. There was darkness power all around him, but it couldn’t destroy his flesh and bones, on the contrary, seemingly increasing some type of nourishing.

Only when one reached his level, would they understand the subtle differences in their body.

In his head, there was a bit of radiance, as if it was trying to produce a soul. This was the result of his flesh’s power being released to the limit.

The darkness matter served as some type of stimulant.

“The flesh was actually this important!” Shi Hao said with a sigh. Then, the expression in his eyes became fierce.

In that Darkness Prison, he previously experienced something. Without his flesh’s primordial spirit, no matter how strong he was, even if he became a half immortal emperor, he still felt like rootless duckweed.

“I cannot rush into the prison with only the primordial spirit, trying to reach the Land of Darkness this way. My flesh also has to head over!”

Shi Hao felt like he had to cross the sea while in the most powerful condition. His flesh couldn’t be separated from his primordial spirit!

“There was someone who said that only by giving up the flesh, can the sea be crossed. In my opinion, only rushing over with the primordial spirit is definitely the wrong choice!” The expression in Shi Hao’s eyes was penetrating.

In the end, Shi Hao moved. He had already remained in this realm for a long time. He decided to head on his way.

Many kings sent him off, watching as Shi Hao headed into the Realm Sea.

“That is...”

Everyone was shocked, even their souls trembling.

On the dam, a faint trail of footsteps appeared. In everyone's eyes, they were clear and dazzling. This was left behind by Huang. He continued forward, directly entering Realm Sea!

Perfect World

Chapter 1987: Final Peace

- Final Peace

On the dam, there was a faint trail of footsteps, extremely eye-grabbing. Even though the steps were faint, they were truly left there. In this place, it was extremely difficult to find other traces!

“This...”

Everyone was stunned.

“Turns out it was like this! Only half immortal emperors could leave behind traces here!”

After a long time, someone muttered this to themself.

Not far away, on the other side of the dam, there was a faint trail of footsteps as well. It was unknown which era it came from. This was previously the focal point of everyone's discussions.

It also became what generation after generation of people followed. They entered Realm Sea, searching for other traces, heading to the other end of Realm Sea.

In the eyes of cultivators from one great era to the next, that person might be an emperor. Even though there was no proof, everyone attached great importance to him.

“Turns out he was a half immortal emperor!”

Only now did everyone finally understand how powerful the one who left behind the original trail of footsteps was.

When they thought about these things, everyone's minds couldn't help but sink. If that creature was a half immortal emperor, did he head into the depths of Realm Sea to quell the chaos?

However, after all these years, darkness storms erupted from time to time, never stopping.

Everyone was horrified. Was even that half immortal emperor left helpless?

“Back then, the one who left behind those traces, could it be that he was killed at the limits of Realm Sea, by the Land of Darkness?!”

This suspicion made many people feel uneasy. A glorious half immortal emperor still couldn't come out unscathed, was still going to die? They thought of Huang. He went on his way alone, what would the result be like?

At this moment, everyone's minds were heavy. If not even a half immortal emperor could do anything about the great terror at the limits of Realm Sea, then who in this world could deal with that great disaster?

Even when they searched the endless past, the endless ages, one great era and the next great era passed. Now, there was finally Huang. If even this type of unmatched expert was going to be defeated, then there really wasn't any hope left.

"Heavenly Emperor Huang, you must stand firm!"

There was an old immortal king who said this. He looked at Realm Sea, this place covered in a hazy expanse, extremely overcast. Shi Hao's figure had long disappeared.

Their ages were all greater than Shi Hao's, unknown just how many great eras some of them had lived for, but right now, their faces were still full of a grave attitude. When they said the three words Heavenly Emperor Huang, they were extremely serious, extremely grave.

This was their acknowledgement. Shi Hao had already dominated the world, long becoming unrivaled. His power made all of them overlook his age.

Time slipped away, the years going on.

Several thousand years passed. Immortal Domain was extremely calm, not much happening.

In Realm Sea, the wind and waves weren't great either. Even though there were kings that returned, there weren't any great disturbances, everything seemingly waiting in peace.

It was because now, the kings all heard that there was now a half immortal emperor in this world, even Origin Ancient Artifact was opened by him, moreover subdued.

So who dared act randomly?

During this short period of time, they believed that Heavenly Emperor Huang didn't go far yet, or maybe he didn't leave at all, waiting for the chaos to start, feeling like a disaster was approaching.

Looking back at the past few hundreds of thousands of years, Huang entered Realm Sea more than once, but always came back. Who could remain certain that he wouldn't turn back this time?

In this world, how many people dared challenge Huang? They didn't have this type of qualification at all!

In reality, forget about this great era, even if they looked through past and present, ever since the Age of Emperor Collapse, there had never been anyone who could stand at that peak. He was destined to remain unmatched under the sky!

"Heavenly Emperor Huang, you truly are formidable!"

Someone said with a sigh. Even though many years passed, when the kings mentioned this brilliant youngster, their expressions were still complicated. However, all of them couldn't help but release an exclaim of praise.

He rose up in a Cultivationless Age, domineeringly rushing into the heavens. There were immortal kings who wished to stop his advance, yet he still made it through, ultimately reaching the greatest peak of cultivation.

"From past until now, how many people could have the title of Emperor?"

When he thought about it closely, there really were a few, but all of them were the most stunning individuals or world shocking giants who had brought back tremendous achievements, founders of cultivation systems.

For example, Immortal Domain's cultivation system, Burial King system and others. However, what was their conclusion in the end?

"Once an Imperial Court is established, it is like a curse. The glorious peak signifies death calamity, flourishing, and then the perishing of all clans."

"Bark bark bark..."

A dog was crying out, its size not small. Its mind was sharp and its gaze was keen.

It was now the size of a calf, square headed and large eared. Its eyes were made of copper, hair and skin dark black, glossy and shining, its figure incredibly robust.

"Why is Immortal Domain in such tatters? It's so different from before... truly ruthless... the great battles have already reached this extent, too vicious." This dog muttered.

At his side were a few others, among them a fat daoist with pitch-black hair and a sparkling face, looking rather stout. They were walking around Immortal Domain, looking around.

He was without a doubt Cao Yusheng and that dog was the past little dog.

Back then, they were old and dying, entering their final years, already about to die of age. However, they still went crazy, going all out, white hair scattering as they carried Shi Hao into Burial Earth, crying and howling, pleading the Burial King just to save him.

Later on, they truly couldn't hold on any longer, choosing the path of undead knights. They buried themselves in All Life Earth, carrying out transformations.

Perhaps they could be considered to have undergone corpse transformations!

There were also a man and a woman who followed behind them, precisely Shenming and Sanzang. It was precisely these two who woke up Cao Yusheng, moreover gave him the memory crystal.

The memories in the crystal made the man and dog recall the past. How could they not be shaken? They previously cried and screamed, but a single slumber lasted a million six hundred thousand years. Who was there left in this world?

Fortunately, they found the Heavenly Horned Ant. He came into Burial Earth to find them and then brought them into Immortal Domain.

The Heavenly Horned Ant's hair was golden and sparkling. After becoming a powerful being of the Vicious Ten, he continued to cultivate bitterly. He possessed extreme strength, if this was pushed to the limit, his accomplishments would be limitless!

"Huang, Shi Hao, my brother, I still came too late in the end. You... actually already headed on alone. Even if I was just here to see you off, that would have still been good!" Cao Yusheng shouted.

This was especially when they arrived at Imperial Court's ruins, his eyes became red. There were graves there, one after another, as well as weeds that grew past a person's height. There were ruined walls and rubble everywhere, endlessly speaking of the bleakness of this place.

He could imagine Shi Hao's mood back then, taking the title of Imperial Court alone, fighting alone and then heading out alone!

Before Huang left, he definitely turned around, looking in this direction, but he could only firmly continue on his way.

In the end, Cao Yusheng arrived before those ancient tombs, starting to sob.

He sat in front of Tuogu Yulong's grave, pouring wine in that direction, crying while saying, "Brother, we previously walked side by side in Imperial Pass. Even though back then, my cultivation wasn't as high as yours, I still dared to head out of the city together with all of you to face the foreign realm's bastards. However, I am still alive, yet you left a step before me."

"Great Xu Tuo, baldy, why did you leave as well? My relationship with you wasn't that close, but I also know that you can be considered a good person, this ending isn't good at all." Cao Yusheng wept.

Shenming rolled her eyes. Even though this fatty was brokenhearted, he really didn't know how to speak properly.

"Lan Xian, you were so beautiful, but you still died. You truly were an unlucky beautiful woman."

...

After Cao Yusheng stopped crying, he then headed over to those old soldiers and those old generals' graves. His eyes were red, extremely sad as he said, "There are so many brothers here... we previously drank together... some of you were from Stone Village, some from other places, but you all came up from the lower realm! However, in the end, all of you died... I hope Huang can sweep through the darkness and one day bring back the head of the source of disaster for you all. Old brothers, I wish you all well!"

His eyes were red, the Heavenly Horned Ant starting to feel sad as well. They came from the same age. In the end, just how many of them were still left?

"Huang, thank you!"

Shenming also said quietly, staring into the depths of the void, in Realm Sea's direction.

Shi Hao killed the owner of that glistening gourd, Ju Chong. This could be considering returning great karma to Burial Earth, eliminating their great enemy.

"We are doing our best to become Burial Kings, we hope that one day, we can fight shoulder to shoulder with you." Sanzang said.

He knew that this opportunity was distant and far-fetched. If that day truly came, how bad would the situation be? Shi Hao already became a half immortal emperor! Would he still need help?

"Regardless, I am going to do everything I can to try and help you with some things!" Cao Yusheng said.

From that day on, Cao Yusheng, the larger little dog and Heavenly Horned Ant began to build temples in Immortal Domain one after another, inside of them was Shi Hao's image.

"Brother, I know that you are very strong, but I am still scared that you might... be killed in battle. This is a method we found while searching through burial books, similar to how we gathered will force in the lower realm. I hope it can help you somewhat!"

Temples appeared one after another, all of them consecrating one person -- Heavenly Emperor Huang.

If this was in the past, they would have definitely faced great resistance. They would bring disaster upon themselves.

However, no one in the current Immortal Domain stopped them. The clans all knew about Huang, all chanted his name.

"This is a combination of Burial Technique and Will Force Great Method, there is also some ruined blood you left behind that we preserved. Now, we've used all of it."

"If you fall in battle, we will do a soul summoning. You will definitely return and reappear in this world!"

They were scared, worried that Shi Hao wouldn't return after leaving. As such, they now used up all of their methods, hoping that one day, they could rescue that strand of ruined soul.

In the depths of Realm Sea, Shi Hao activated a stalk of spiritual root. It was precisely the stalk that contained a share of the 'Fake Medicine Dealer', the one known as the first spiritual root.

"Go, you and the other six souls should merge together. I hope you can be powerful enough, that one day, you can have some methods." Shi Hao said.

The years went on. Time was ruthless.

In the blink of an eye, another two hundred thousand years passed.

Shi Hao continued forward alone. Even though he became a half immortal emperor, he still couldn't directly cross Realm Sea. This sea was too vast, moreover, normal transport formations couldn't be used here at all.

There were only some islands where formations could be carved, thus allowing his advance to be faster.

In the past two hundred thousand years, temples were built one after another, becoming more and more grand and divine, gradually starting to release brilliance.

Normally, there were many clans who came to pay their respects, chanting the name Heavenly Emperor Huang.

Even though it had already been many years, they still haven't heard much about Huang, not knowing how he was doing, many people were still grateful to him.

After all these years, Realm Sea's winds calmed. Occasionally, when darkness storms erupted, they were torn apart by a mysterious force, yet the returning kings still didn't dare fight.

Everyone knew that this was because of Huang. He continued on his way through Realm Sea, taking action, leaving all experts under heaven frightened.

Hong!

Waves surged. Shi Hao tore through the waves, advancing.

Along the way, he met some legendary kings who previously left behind great strokes in history, truly meeting them. They were sitting on islands, suddenly opening their eyes.

Shi Hao nodded slightly, not stopping, continuing into the depths of Realm Sea.

Along the way, the kings of legends were all shocked. In the depths of Realm Sea, the greatest darkness storms were currently brewing, the great turmoil was about to start. Meanwhile, this person instead continued on his way alone.

Hong!

In the depths of Realm Sea, darkness power erupted, terrifying and heaven overflowing. It was as if a sea swept out in reverse, heading in this direction.

Peng!

Shi Hao brandished his palm blade, severing this storm, blasting open a path.

An intense weng noise sounded. Suddenly, something that left all of the kings shocked happened.

In the depths of Realm Sea, there were temples that appeared in the void one after another, descending. Every single one of them was connected to divine radiance, just like a path.

However, apart from these palaces, all other places were pitch-black, extremely terrifying, impossible to see through.

“Guidance Ancient Palace has appeared in large amounts, constructing a great path between them!”
The kings were all horrified.

Shi Hao’s pupils contracted, but he remained fearless, not hesitating, heading on this path.

Chi!

A streak of light flashed past. Huang disappeared from this place, directly heading into the limits of Realm Sea!

Perfect World

Chapter 1988: Bitter Cultivation

The darkness was endless, stretching into Realm Sea.

In the skies above the Realm Sea, only those ancient palaces shone. Between them, there were divine rainbows that were connected, forming great paths.

Apart from this, there was nothing else that could be seen, to the extent where he couldn’t even see Realm Sea. Everything was pitch-black like ink, not even Heavenly Eyes able to see through that side.

“Guidance Ancient Palace is divine and resplendent, yet it leads to darkness.”

Shi Hao took a step forward, looking as if one step crossed a great era. His movements didn't seem that fast, but it was as if one step took him past a whole great era, with every single step, he seemed to leave millions and millions of li behind him. Time seemed to move in reverse. It was as if he was advancing into a distant ancient time.

Hong!

The great dao rumbled, mysterious laws suppressing down.

He was at the limits of the darkness, as if he was almost there yet just couldn't seem to take that final step.

Time and space were chaotic here, the years alternating. It was as if this wasn't part of the real world, future radiance flickering about. There were past imprints that were swirling about, impossible to even imagine.

With a dong sound, it was as if the drum of an imperial court that had existed forever sounded, releasing a muffled sound. A great path was opened in the darkness, extending out before him.

The Guidance Ancient Palaces' continuous path reached an end.

Meanwhile, there was an ordinary gray dam that appeared in this place. He really did arrive at the other end of this world!

Shi Hao returned to Realm Sea, stepping on the ocean surface. He looked forward, staring at this giant dam that stood in his way, behind it seemingly a vast and limitless world.

However, that place was pitch-black. Even as a half immortal emperor, he could only see a blurry outline. The natural laws here were strange, not simple as expected.

It was too peaceful!

At the limits of Realm Sea, there wasn't the slightest bit of sound, there were no so-called darkness storms to be seen.

Shi Hao turned around, looking towards some of the islands in the distance behind him. He revealed an expression of worry. They were scattered about all over the place, some of them islands and some of them merely giant rocks sticking out of the sea surface.

Shi Hao could sense that there was life here.

“How is this possible? What age is that expert from, why is there a feeling of pressure?”

On a certain island, a creature suddenly opened his eyes, staring at Shi Hao, his face filled with shock.

“A terrifying expert, he doesn't fear Guidance Ancient Palace, coming along the path it has constructed!”

There were some experts on these islands who were horrifyingly ancient, unknown just how many great eras they had sat there for. Right now, they were all roused awake, in shock as they stared ahead.

It was because they had a type of heart alarming feeling, just feeling like that youngster was too powerful, leaving them incredibly frightened.

Shi Hao continued forward, not turning around to chat with the creatures on those islands, about to ascend that dam.

“Halt!”

“Don’t be too rash!”

Great shouts sounded from the back, extremely anxious. Those creatures were all terrified, all of them retreating to behind their islands, as if avoiding something.

Honglong!

Immediately afterwards, heaven and earth split, ghosts wept and deities howled. This world seemed to have entered doomsday, black chains of order turning into hurricanes.

They were called hurricanes, but they were actually natural laws and order. All types of great dao symbols gathered together, and then they surged crazily, ravaging the world.

Shi Hao was sure that not even immortal kings could resist this type of storm!

A wave of taboo force rushed out from the dam, crushing down to the point of making one feel suffocated. Even his expression became grave, he had no choice but to face this seriously.

Kacha!

Cracking noises sounded from within the darkness storm. There were actually immortal king weapons that rose and fell, blown out from the sea. Then, they exploded in the void, completely destroyed.

One could imagine that after all these years, too many things happened. The most powerful creatures previously ventured here, but they all died miserably.

Even their weapons all sunk into Realm Sea!

Only, occasionally, when powerful storms invaded the sea, some weapons still rose and fell, but in the end, they couldn’t escape the disaster of destruction.

It was too strong, these great dao storms were terrifying after all. Even the weapons of immortal king giants couldn’t withstand the pressure, exploding here. This meant that the bodies of kings even more so wouldn’t be able to withstand this power.

Shi Hao’s body felt as if he was being hacked at by blades. It was a bit painful, but he wasn’t truly injured. The surface of his body released sparkling radiance, his imperishable body sturdy and imperishable, blocking the storm.

He didn’t even attack, just passively resisting this storm.

This was precisely the power of a half immortal emperor!

The creatures who were on the island all had bitter expressions on their faces. If not for the islands being special, providing a natural protective screen, all of them would have died.

Despite this being the case, the faces of some of them still paled. This darkness storm's great dao symbols were densely packed, some even corroding the islands. For them, this was fatal danger.

Shi Hao was sure that this was a half immortal emperor level dao symbols storm!

Chi!

He finally took action, hacking at the wind, moreover erasing the black symbols on those islands to prevent those creatures from suffering disasters.

Shi Hao had his hands on his back, calmly standing on the sea surface, not continuing further, instead starting to silently think to himself. Was he truly going to climb the dam? Was the great battle going to begin like this?

"This is..."

"An emperor?"

On the islands, those ancient monsters all widened their eyes in stupor, their faces filled with shock, all of them feeling like this was inconceivable.

They suffered untold hardships, experienced endless tribulations, as if they experienced a hundred life reincarnation to arrive here. What was it all for? Wasn't it so that they could take a step further, make it through the Land of Darkness, ultimately become an emperor?!

However, someone who came after them actually reached an even higher level, as if possessing immortal emperor level strength. How could they not be shocked?

Of course, there were those who had unyielding characters among them, slaughtering their way here for the sake of eliminating future grudges, wishing to forever eliminate the Land of Darkness' source and issues. However, time was ruthless, the reality was cruel. Only by arriving here did they understand that they were powerless to reverse the heavens.

The storm stopped!

Shi Hao adjusted himself, already preparing to face a great battle, slaughter his way over in his most powerful state.

"Willow Deity, Great Elder, Huo Ling'er, are all of you still here? Please be well!"

Shi Hao said this to himself. He felt a type of worry. After so many years had passed, were they still well? Were they still there?

Ever since he met the nine-headed monster, he always felt inwardly uneasy, fearing that Willow Deity, Great Elder and the others would follow in that monster's footsteps.

"Dao friend, you are..."

In the back, on those islands, there were experts who stood up, extremely careful, sending Shi Hao their greetings, carefully asking him about his background.

These were a group of old monsters who had lived for an endless amount of time. After arriving at the limits of Realm Sea, even though they knew that it was dangerous, that the most powerful darkness storms could stir about at any time, they still weren't willing to shrink back.

Shi Hao knew that even though these people were powerful, they wouldn't know more than him. It was because they didn't climb up the dam, they always stopped here.

Chi!

Suddenly, there were several figures who appeared on the passage created from the Guidance Ancient Palaces, descending here.

"Butcher, Chicken Farmer, Fake Medicine Dealer!"

Someone cried out in alarm.

Those three creatures were all extremely powerful. Terrifying immortal light swirled about the surface of their bodies, great dao symbols resplendent and dense, protecting them.

"Didn't you three retreat back? Why did you come back?!" On the islands, there were some old monsters who asked this.

This was especially the case when they saw that these individuals arrived through Guidance Ancient Palace's path.

"We are merely basking in another's glory, we didn't slaughter our way into Guidance Ancient Palace, just following behind this dao friend." The Butcher spoke. This was a burly man, his skin bronze, hair messy. On his back was a bow and an arrow. The power his body released was exceptional and shocking, his divine might truly unrivaled.

These people were more powerful than other giants, only a bit off from becoming half immortal emperors.

It was to the extent where the surface of his body even swirled with a layer of radiance exceeding immortal king level, ensuring that he remained impervious to all tribulations.

Unfortunately, he was still just a hair off, unable to truly cross over into the half immortal emperor level.

"We meet again!" This was the first time Shi Hao spoke since arriving at the other end of Realm Sea. He looked at the Butcher, revealing a strange expression.

The Butcher's expression was also complicated. He looked at Shi Hao, releasing a light sigh. "Back then, I also saw that figure who seemed real yet also seemed fake. It was actually you!"

Many people didn't know what they were saying, only Shi Hao understood.

"Dream back to the Age of Emperor Collapse, it was true but also illusory." Shi Hao said to himself.

The Butcher sucked in a cold breath of air and then nodded. "One world cannot tolerate two Prides of Heaven, so I avoided you, headed to another great realm. Who would have thought that I finally encountered your true body in this world, moreover, you already became a half immortal emperor!"

A delicate and pretty figure stepped out, staring at Shi Hao. She looked delicate and weak, but no one dared look down on her. Vaguely, the aura that she released wasn't weaker than the Butcher's, just that it was extremely restrained.

This was the one who raised some True Phoenixes, originating from Burial Earth!

She was actually female! The rumors floating around all described her as a fierce individual, thought to be male!

There was another figure, his white hair scattering about. When he saw Shi Hao, he cupped his fists, and then paid his respects. He was precisely the unmatched expert who divided his body into six parts.

Among them, there was one that followed at Shi Hao's side, truly witnessing many great dao profound mysteries.

Shi Hao actually hoped that he could break through, thus able to lend him a helping hand. Unfortunately, this person was just like the Butcher, having a faint half immortal emperor radiance, but still unable to succeed in the end.

After the Age of Emperor Collapse, there was only he alone who succeeded, reaching this step.

The three of them seemed quite similar in strength. However, to break through the king level, how could it be that easy?

"He is Heavenly Emperor Huang." The woman among the three experts introduced, explaining Shi Hao's identity.

On the island, those old monsters all sucked in cold breaths. They were all horrified. The ones who dared claim to be emperor, they never had good endings in history. However, this individual indeed broke through the king realm, succeeding!

"We pay our respects to Heavenly Emperor Huang!"

Even those old monsters who had lived for an endless amount of time, their backgrounds terrifying, now didn't dare to show off, bowing courteously towards Shi Hao.

"Dao friends, please withdraw. I am going to head into that world, most likely fight a life and death bloody battle. This Realm Sea most likely won't be able to stand anymore." Shi Hao warned.

"I am willing to follow dao friend in slaughtering our way over!" Someone shouted, clenching his fists. He had waited for millions and millions of years already, wasn't it precisely to quell the source of darkness!

"Even when I climb up, I don't know if I will be able to live. Who knows what will happen afterwards, it is best if everyone remains alive, withdraw for now." Shi Hao released a light sigh.

When everyone heard this, they opened their mouths, but then became quiet. They knew that what Heavenly Emperor Huang said was the truth.

"Everyone, perhaps not long afterwards, there will be a time when we will need your strength!" Shi Hao said.

This wasn't looking down on them, but rather a type of worry.

When everyone heard this, they all released a sigh.

When they thought about it carefully, they all felt extremely helpless. At the same time, they felt like Heavenly Emperor Huang was quite lonely. After an endless amount of time passed, so many people existed, countless experts rising up, yet not a single one could accompany him on this path, fight with him shoulder to shoulder. He could only rely on himself.

There were some who remained unconvinced, insisting on following him. These were creatures who still held firm to their convictions of becoming emperors, already close to going mad.

In the end, Shi Hao continued on his way, carrying on with his journey.

Hong!

When the hurricane swept over, countless great dao symbols appearing again, Shi Hao's fist smashed out, destroying everything. He smashed through the storm, ascending the dam.

Sure enough, there were some creatures who were unwilling to give up, following him up.

Pu pu pu!

However, when they just got close, they all died miserably, turning into bloody mist. When immortal kings stepped here, they were suppressed by a wave of power, dying miserably.

It was because there was a force in the void that was opposing Shi Hao, these individuals were also caught up in this.

In the end, that mysterious force disappeared. Shi Hao's steps became easy, releasing half immortal emperor radiance, continuing forward.

His eyes erupted with even greater brilliance, staring forward.

Land of Darkness, this place really was different, the laws different, the great dao strange. If not for him using his body as the seed, he definitely would have suffered huge problems.

Perfect World

Chapter 1989: Darkness Imperial Court

- Darkness Imperial Court

Behind the dam was the Land of Darkness, not only in name, but also in reality. There was an expanse that was pitch-black like ink, impossible to see the limits. It was as if he arrived at the very edge of the universe.

There was no life force here, nor was there any flow of essence. It was deathly still like a dead country. Meanwhile, Shi Hao continued onwards alone.

The most terrifying thing was that the great dao laws changed. If other immortal kings came, even though their dao skills might not completely disappear, they would still encounter great trouble.

If one wanted to adapt to this place, they needed to try extremely hard, sense the great dao laws of this place.

Otherwise, their own magical bodies might break apart!

Shi Hao remained fearless because he used the body as a seed. No matter how the world around him changed or how the dao laws altered, he would still remain fearless. He sought out the internal dao.

Hong!

Shi Hao took action. A streak of light swirled about, cutting through the sky. He wanted to gaze into the limits of the darkness, but soon afterwards, a powerful wave of power descended onto this world, blasting towards his magic and dao.

Darkness became everlasting. That streak of light disappeared!

Up ahead, streak after streak of darkness divine chains of order interweaved like chains. They carried a demonic nature, flickering with dark light, quickly rushing over.

Shi Hao stood there without moving, allowing the power of the world of darkness to invade. Ripples began to surge along his body, this caused by the most dense darkness source.

Qiang!

All of the darkness divine chains of order went perfectly straight like spears, carrying dark light and a chilliness as they pierced through the void and arrived, extremely terrifying.

Outside Shi Hao's body surged an expanse of light, protecting him within, impervious to all techniques.

Kacha!

All of the darkness divine chains of order broke apart inch by inch outside Shi Hao's body, bursting open and turning into specks of dark light. Then, they began to surge intensely, completely erased.

Shi Hao took steps forward, walking through this ancient darkness land, heading into the distance. There were demonic great mountains that were pitch-black like ink, towering into the heavens, as well as great rivers that were dark to the point of making one feeling an eeriness, quietly flowing past.

Shi Hao walked forward. Along the way, he saw other creatures!

However, they were all dead, passed away who knew how many tens of thousands of years ago. Their bodies were ice-cold, not moving at all. Some of them were massive like mountains, some of them the height of a normal person.

In the depths of Shi Hao's body, everything was icy-cold. He saw several corpses, all of them at the immortal king level. In addition, they were the incomparably powerful type.

Without a doubt, all of them were giants. Under the temptation of an opportunity, they climbed ashore, but in the end, they couldn't make it that far before perishing.

With a light touch, several corpses suddenly turned to ashes, directly scattering.

These were the most powerful creatures of millions and millions of years, yet in the end, their ending was so tragic.

Some of them came here for the sake of quelling the darkness chaos, some so they could break through and become immortal emperors, but in the end, they still all reincarnated into dust.

Hong!

Suddenly, the black ashes began to quickly swirl about, becoming a demonic dragon at Shi Hao's side. It was pitch-black like the color of an abyss, roaring, throwing itself towards Shi Hao.

This was that creature from just now. It clearly just turned to ashes, but now, it suddenly reappeared, moreover erupting with world shocking power.

Peng!

Shi Hao raised his hand, directly gripping this darkness demonic dragon's body with a single grab, moreover gripping its massive head. With a gabeng noise, a dragon horn was torn off.

It was indeed not an illusion, it truly revived, reconstructing its body.

Roar!

A dragon cry sounded, shaking the heavens above and the earth below. The darkness storm completely erupted, this place starting to shake.

It actually released half immortal emperor power. It struggled fiercely, attacking at Shi Hao.

"Made by natural laws, possessing life by borrowing a body, yet you still dare to act viciously!" Shi Hao released a light shout, unaffected.

With a hong noise, he fiercely shook his arm. That black darkness dragon in his hands immediately split apart, releasing black demonic blood, scattering across the great earth.

This was caused by heaven and earth will, the secret force that already attacked him before condensing into a tangible body, displaying vicious might here, wishing to take his life.

"Nothing more than this, just half immortal emperor laws. Nothing more than laws that I can make use of." Shi Hao released a short shout. Then, his body shone, becoming extremely brilliant, illuminating the darkness, the aura just too shocking.

The entire Dam World seemed to have become a land of radiance. It was also cracking apart, bursting here.

Pu!

Shi Hao twisted apart this demonic dragon's body, black blood surging, erupting like a volcano. This was the ravaging of half immortal emperor laws.

Honglong!

Heaven and earth exploded, on this ancient land, darkness source surged. It was as if an underworld palace descended, erasing all life force in this world.

This was especially the case when the darkness dragon's ruined body exploded. The half immortal emperor laws tore apart the sky dome, as if it was destroying everything indiscriminately, wishing to drag Shi Hao down to hell with it.

If it was the immortal kings, after suffering this attack, they would have already died, body and spirit erased, nothing left. After all, this was a half immortal emperor law eruption.

However, Shi Hao's entire body swirled with a layer of brilliance. Regardless of whether it was black ruined blood or those dao law chains, none of them could harm him in the slightest.

He began to walk forward. All of the other remains that turned to ashes didn't recombine, allowing him to walk over.

This was a dark and gloomy world. When the battle ended, there was no more sound. Black death energy swirled about, spreading throughout, carrying some black mist as it swirled about a mountain.

This mountain was too large, many times greater than the stars that could normally be seen. It towered there, blocking the path ahead.

Shi Hao stepped on the void, ascending this mountain. He saw giant stars moving around this mountain one after another, dense and numerous. Meanwhile, above the mountain, there were some divine medicines that were pitch-black like ink, long corroded through.

Even divine medicines were like this?

If there were other creatures who stepped foot here, what would it be like then? One could only imagine it!

Then, he saw a stalk of long life medicine. Unfortunately, it was also pitch-black, moreover releasing a wave of strange aura. It was too shocking, completely turning to darkness.

It was as if Shi Hao was walking on level ground. He wore completely white clothes today, so while walking through this pitch-black world, his body was exceptionally eye-grabbing. He walked on the void, continuing step by step, leaving this great mountain.

He truly began to continue, advancing towards the Land of Darkness' inner areas!

His white clothes were like snow, too striking in the darkness. As long as there were creatures who looked over, they would definitely see his lone self walking within the pitch-black source.

Then, Shi Hao's speed became faster. As a half immortal emperor, with a raise of his feet, the starry rivers would swirl about and the sun and moon would disappear into the distance. He possessed the greatest power and speed in this world.

At the very least, while moving through this world of darkness, this was the case.

Shi Hao continued. Then, he saw some remains, no idea what era they came from, passed away who knew how long ago. Many of them already turned into ashes.

As he continued forward, more and more skeletal remains appeared.

When he looked forward again, there was an endless sea of bones, most of them snow-white colored, as if a world covering great snow just fell. This scene was exceptionally striking in the Land of Darkness.

Of course, there were also other colored bones in this sea of bones, for example, golden ones, black ones, purple ones, but compared to the white bones, they were much fewer.

Shi Hao picked up some bones. After carefully examining them, he was inwardly moved, even his half immortal emperor mind slightly shaken!

These bones weren't simple. It wasn't because of their cultivation levels when they were alive, but rather because of their potential. These bones were extremely suitable for cultivation, yet in the end, they were arranged here.

Inside the bone matter, there had long been a strong darkness force that corroded over, condensing into one body, impossible to neutralize.

He carefully examined everything. What differences did these creatures have compared to the Nine Heavens Ten Earths and Immortal Domain?

He had seen all of them before. These clans still had inheritances in the present world. Apart from some especially old existences, he could recognize most of them.

Shi Hao's mind was heavy. His pupils turned into sharp sword radiance. Half immortal emperor power surged, his body erupting with waves of terrifying killing intent.

These creatures, could it be that they all came from the other side of Realm Sea? In the end, they were corroded by the darkness, forcefully gathered here?

Guidance Ancient Palace could connect the two shores of the sea, are these the creatures who were previously lost and fell into darkness? After so many of them were brought over, were they then eliminated and washed out, or were they cruelly killed!

Shi Hao suspected that he might have touched upon the truth, about to approach the final destination.

He continued forward through the boundless Land of Darkness. It was massive beyond comparison. The following path was actually lacking of any plant life, completely bare, not a bit of life force visible.

This land was vast and limitless, stretching out for millions and millions of li. Everything quickly disappeared under Shi Hao's feet.

His white clothes fluttered about, his bearing imposing. Even though he looked young and handsome, his eyes were always like immortal swords, releasing dazzling radiance.

Finally, he arrived. He saw large amounts of buildings. They were giant and massive, unknown which great era they came from, extremely imposing and intimidating. All creatures who walked here would be suppressed, forced to kneel and kowtow.

Shi Hao stopped, his eyes becoming cold.

There was endless darkness and mist surging. He saw an enormous palace that stretched out without limit, blocking his path forward.

There are rumors in the world that only by crossing the Land of Darkness can the ultimate ancient land be reached. Is this just a rumor, or is this truth?

Shi Hao stared ahead. He felt a type of pressure here, but if one wanted him to kneel and kowtow, that was impossible!

Without a doubt, there was half immortal emperor level power here!

Shi Hao continued forward, approaching the palace clusters. His mind immediately trembled. He saw a monument that was bloody, on it written two words: Imperial Court!

This blood was black-colored. That monument carried time great dao symbol fragments, swirling with darkness source power.

In reality, this massive palace cluster stretched out for who knew how many tens of thousands of li. The palaces released heavy death energy, as well as endless darkness power.

“Darkness Imperial Court!”

Shi Hao said coldly. This was definitely not an ordinary palace cluster, long fallen into darkness.

His mind immediately sunk. He actually encountered an Imperial Court here, this was too terrifying. It carried half immortal emperor might, yet in the end, it was actually lifeless, no human figures to be seen.

This place was too vacant, not a single creature to be seen inside!

This continued until he approached the central palace, this place finally having some activity. There was suddenly a voice, ancient, drawn-out and threatening, making even Shi Hao shiver inwardly.

“Those who make a pilgrimage here are pious and sincere, kowtowing with each step as they arrive from the other shore, all just to have an audience with this one. Why have you come with killing intent?”

“Pilgrimage? Who are you?” Shi Hao asked coldly.

“Emperor!”

There was only this single word. That voice was too horrifying, as if an unmatched monarch was questioning him, looking down on him. It was enough to make all creatures in this world tremble, their bodies and spirits crushed into powder by a single will.

This was a living existence. Within these massive palaces, he was the only one alive, claiming to be an emperor!

He was high up above, dignified and sacred. He still didn't reveal his figure yet, only releasing this type of unrivaled aura that overlooked the endless past.

A true emperor was here?

Shi Hao's pupils contracted, his expression grave. However, he didn't feel any fear at all. He was a half immortal emperor, he had his own confidence, his own unmatched presence!

Why would he feel any fear? He looked forward, starting to advance!

Perfect World

Chapter 1990: Emperor

- Emperor

The originally golden palace was now releasing specks of pitch-black and deep luster, as if it was polished from Black Immortal Gold.

This was clearly darkness force that corroded over here!

Inside the central giant palace, a dignified voice rang out, rumbling with noise. The palace swayed, becoming more and more dignified, divine and inviolable.

However, Shi Hao's steps were steady and forceful, unmoved. He possessed a type of resoluteness and decisiveness, moving with large steps. With each step, the palaces would all tremble lightly.

In that instant, the ground began to tremble. All of the palaces in Darkness Imperial Court were rocking about, as if they were going to fly into the sky.

Inside the giant palace, it was extremely vast. There were no so-called imperial soldiers to be seen, only some ancient buildings and signs of great changes. There was a type of bleak feeling.

It was because the inside of the palaces was a bit ruined. As he continued forward, Shi Hao revealed a strange expression. There were some corpses that appeared on the ground one after another, they died who knew how many great eras ago.

Apart from this, there was dust everywhere inside this palace. There were some sculptures that were covered in dust, the remains on the ground also almost submerged under dust, the scene looking incredibly bleak.

It was precisely this type of place that released a dignified voice, coldly facing Shi Hao.

"Meeting the Emperor yet not kowtowing, you have already lost sight of heaven's command. Thou name is on the reincarnation monument. Kowtow with each step and your sins in the afterlife will be decreased by half, at least your true spirit will be preserved."

That voice was loud, resonating with heaven and earth, shaking up the entire boundless world. It was as if an immortal emperor descended here, inflicting pressure upon this world.

Shi Hao frowned. This creature was indeed too powerful, exceeding all opponents he faced in the past, making even his soul shake continuously.

If it was anyone else, if it was the dozen or so words just now, just a single sentence would have been enough to make their true soul tremble, thus step on the path of reincarnation.

This really was too powerful. Just words chanted from the mouth were enough to send a world shocking immortal king into the afterlife, losing their immortal dao fate.

Hong!

When facing this type of pressure, Shi Hao's fist smashed out. A dominating aura surged, extremely fierce, directly smashing into the depths of the palace, directly suppressing it!

“Dressing up as god, I am also at the Half Immortal Emperor Realm, who dares to claim to issue me heaven’s command, who can send me into the afterlife with words? The path of reincarnation? I’ll send you there!”

Shi Hao shouted, his voice grand, as if a heavenly emperor was issuing a decree, his words law. Great dao symbols gathered above, turning into a golden decree, also rumbling towards the depths of the palace.

This type of might was too domineering. The entire darkness palace began to shine.

At this time, Shi Hao was like a shining resplendent sun, illuminating this Darkness Imperial Court. Radiance scattered across every corner, making this place appear incredibly holy.

It was as if he was eternally imperishable, set up on high. His heavenly emperor magical projection appeared, divine might unmatched, golden radiance scattering over the darkness, changing everything here.

“Unbridled!”

Right at this time, this type of berating sounded from within the ancient palace covered in dust, carrying shock, anger and killing intent. Endless darkness symbols surged; that creature took action.

A gray-colored palm that was almost shriveled, skin wrapping around bone, slowly and heavily smashed over, carrying heaven overflowing emperor might.

Under that palm, the sun and moon swirled, the boundless stars and the endless cosmos taking form, primal chaos swirling about. There was even a reincarnation path that was faintly discernible.

The palm didn’t look large, it instead seemed rather ordinary, but it controlled everything in the world. It was as if he was creating heaven and earth, grasping reincarnation. It truly was extremely horrifying!

“Who is it that is acting so impudently?!” Shi Hao’s voice was grand. His white clothes moved, towering in the sky above. He formed a fist imprint, facing that gray and shriveled palm, releasing endless immortal might.

Hong!

This was a world shocking collision, the entire ancient darkness world crying out, trembling. The great earth completely burst open, the sky dome also cracking apart, forming an endless storm.

The palaces collapsed. At this time, this Darkness Imperial Court that had remained imperishable for millions and millions of years collapsed. Ancient palaces collapsed one after another, this place thus becoming a land of ruin.

One had to understand that this place had a half immortal emperor level unrivaled formation in place. It remained imperishable throughout the generations. Immortal kings came to pay their respects, if there were any who came carrying unrespectful attitudes, they would be suppressed. There was no lack of immortal king blood inside these palace clusters.

Giant rocks flew about and giant pillars broke. The Darkness Immortal Gold tiles were smashed apart, moreover flying in all directions.

These were two powerful individuals. Their world shocking attacks shook the heavens above and earth below, the great river of time almost severed.

Shi Hao stood tall without moving, his white clothes untainted by dust, his black hair fluttering about. Even though his entire figure was handsome and refined, the expression in his eyes became increasingly ferocious.

On the other side, the palaces collapsed, dust rising. Corpses were revealed one after another, floating in the void. They were extinguished and then scattered again.

Even further out, inside those collapsed buildings, there was this type of remains. They were all armored, weapons in their hands. They were originally covered in dust, but were now revealed.

The celestial troops and generals were all turned into corpses. Now, they all reappeared in the world, but they were destroyed immediately afterwards, no corpses to be seen.

Under emperor level power, nothing could continue existing, no creatures could remain undying. Even the Darkness Imperial Court protected by half immortal emperor level formations collapsed.

Shi Hao's pupils contracted. He saw those remains underneath the palace, saw their armors and weapons; these were clearly the past Imperial Court army.

This place was previously flourishing and prosperous, incredibly glorious.

In the past, there were many heavenly soldiers and generals guarding this place, but unknown as to why, those creatures were all killed, buried under dust.

The entire palace became a Land of Darkness.

At the same time, Shi Hao also saw that so-called Emperor!

This was a shriveled figure seated on a jade throne. In that giant palace, even though it was greatly damaged, it still didn't collapse. He was high up above, looking down at him.

This was the only living creature in this central giant palace.

He was precisely the creature known as the Emperor!

He was clearly powerful and unmatched. As he sat there, his expression was cold. While facing Shi Hao, he didn't suffer any injuries, carrying an undying and eternal aura.

Only, his figure was too dried up, moreover extremely gray and pale, a bit unnatural, skin wrapped around bones.

Only his eyes were intimidating like golden lamps. Perhaps they were better described as two suns in the darkness reincarnation, able to guide over lost souls.

His head of hair was gray, even the whites of his eyes gray, but his pupils were golden, sharp and intimidating. The brilliance they released could tear apart immortal kings.

He wore emperor clothes that were ancient and outdated. They were wrapped around his shriveled body, relaxed and loose fitted.

On his head was an emperor crown that flowed with nine-colored brilliance, shining upon all things. However, deep within the nine colors was a black aura that was horrifying and dense.

“Fallen half immortal emperor?”

“Emperors are unrivalled. As the years went by, great eras reincarnate, even if the heavens are erased, all things withering away, my body will still remain everlasting. What fallen is there to speak of?”

The voice of the gray-haired man on the jade throne was faint and cold, carrying a type of ‘I am the sole sovereign’ aura. He looked down on all things, as if he was the only emperor in this world.

Shi Hao didn’t say anything, instead staring at him, staring at every single part of his body. This creature was still alive, and he wasn’t some type of puppet.

However, why did he give off such a strange feeling? He just felt like something was strange.

This was the half immortal emperor of a generation, so why was his body shriveled up, his hands all dried up, flesh as if withered, only having a layer of skin left, wrapped around bone?

Even so, this person really was extremely strong. He was the most powerful enemy Shi Hao encountered so far!

“This massive Imperial Court was made by you?” Shi Hao asked.

“Correct.”

The self-proclaimed Emperor nodded, his head of gray hair flying about, his gaze intimidating. He looked down on the entire world, his body giving off a type of sole supreme existence aura.

“Why did all of the celestial troops and generals perish?” Shi Hao asked.

“They went against the decrees of the emperor, so I personally killed them all.” The Emperor coldly said.

Shi Hao sucked in a cold breath of air. Among those heavenly generals, there were definitely some immortal kings, many of them powerful individuals with profound dao skills. They belonged to Imperial Court, so why did they rebel? They were all slaughtered?

Shi Hao’s eyes became ice-cold, staring at him and saying, “In the other side of Realm Sea, the invasion of darkness, Burial Region and Foreign Realm’s emergence, the Guidance Ancient Palaces, do these things have anything to do with you?”

“You can assume these to be true.” The self-proclaimed Emperor replied indifferently. Brilliance swirled in his pupils, golden multicolored light penetrating like heavenly dao. His entire being was gradually covered in primal chaos.

“Not far out, there is a sea of bones. What kind of creatures were they?” Shi Hao shouted out.

“Imperial Court’s masses, as well as those who have made a pilgrimage.”

“You killed them?!” Shi Hao’s eyes were cold. He felt that something wasn’t right. There was a type of inauspiciousness, but he couldn’t say just what it was. Things were more dangerous than he had imagined.

The one seated on the jade throne didn't reply to everything. "Sacrificing themselves, for them, is the best ending."

"Also, what about the darkness invasion on the other shore, the creatures who were guided over? Where are they?" Shi Hao shouted.

He thought of Willow Deity, about Great Elder Meng Tianzheng and Huo Ling'er. He refused to believe that their souls and bones were in the sea of bones outside, because those were all remains from past great eras.

"You have too many questions." The one on the jade throne said coldly.

"Then a battle it is!" Shi Hao shouted. With a qiang sound, he directly drew his own immortal sword, the brilliant radiance lighting up the Land of Darkness. It was extremely terrifying.

Divine brilliance flowed, surrounding him, making him incredibly dignified, as if a heavenly emperor was descending upon the world, giving him a type of unmatched aura!

This sword core was at half immortal emperor level, unstoppable. It swept out, turning into a streak of flowing light, hacking towards that gray-haired individual ahead.

Dang!

A snow-white bone ruler appeared in this person's hands. It was sparkling like fine jade, releasing gentle brilliance.

This was clearly also a half immortal emperor level weapon. When it clashed with the immortal sword, sparks flew in all directions. The symbols that erupted between the two were too mysterious, severing the great river of time, this immediately overwhelming everything!

Hong!

Then, this person opened his mouth, spitting out a bone imprint!

It quickly enlarged, suppressing towards Shi Hao. The scene was terrifying. The bone imprint carried time, swirling with the laws of the most powerful individuals, smashing forward.

Honglong!

The Law Pool appeared above Shi Hao's head. It derived all things, countless dao laws appearing, protecting him within, impervious to all methods.

When that bone imprint smashed down, the laws swayed, releasing endless auspicious multicolored light, smashing it aside.

"Interesting. How long has it been since I've fought?" The gray-haired man's eyes were deep and cold. He stood up, rising from the jade platform, walking towards Shi Hao step by step.

Qiang!

Shi Hao activated his magical artifacts, using them to face the enemy's weapons.

He himself didn't use any other weapons, instead rushing out. It was now time to truly test out his half immortal emperor level strength.

"I've dominated the past and present, becoming unrivaled in the heavens above and earth below, unable to feel defeat even if I seek it. You have appeared at this time, but in the end, you are nothing more than a sacrifice." The gray-haired man said coldly.

"All those who had said similar things to me have all been killed by me." Shi Hao's reply was simple and direct.