Chapter 711 - Blood Land Chaos

In the air, heavenly deities roared, dragging dazzling radiance behind them that illuminated the great blood colored land.

Blood blossomed, old enemies fought. There was no way back, only forward.

"This is... a great battle between heavenly deities!" Someone cried out in shock. The entire Blood Plains were shaking, as if the battle from the ancient past had been recreated, turning this back into a place flowing with blood.

This was a grudge between two great clans, and even more so a tangled and complicated mess of powers that were involved that made this battlefield extremely miserable. Divine blood dyed the skies red.

After heavenly deities participated, experts of other levels took action one after another as well, rushing into the depths of the great earth and sealing off different roads to prevent the Celestial Race from bringing back the heaven's mandate stones.

"Kill..."

A great murderous roar tore through the air. This battle was even more terrifying than what one predicted. It involved too many people. After receiving great benefits, many great mercenary groups all participated as well.

One could imagine the manpower the Celestial and War Clans would send out. They poured into the great earth like a tide. Enormous armies slaughtered at each other.

This was a great moment of history that was glorious to the extreme. Once this war ignited, the world became chaotic. Demon Province sent out demons, Heaven Province sent out deities, demons and gods danced about, fighting a war that reached into the heavens!

One could well imagine without thinking too much that this battle would be recorded in the annals of history, as well as leave long-lasting effects. This was the prelude to the destruction of the higher realms' peace, the fuse that would blow everything up.

Of course, there was even less of a need to talk about how grand of an occasion this was now that the old celestial and War Emperor appeared. Regardless of what they did, it would all be carved into bone books.

"Taotie devour the heavens!"

A barbaric beast roared. It opened its bloody mouth, devouring several deities. It was an incredibly bloody sight.

"True Hou moon shattering roar!"

An enormous vicious beast appeared that was even imposing than a mountain. It opened its mouth and roared, and then several experts exploded in the void. Sparkling white bone pieces sticky with blood descended onto the ground. Bloody mists pervaded the air. It was a spectacle too horrible to endure.

There were too many races involved. There were people from the various great mercenary groups, as well as other experts the two races invited over. They all slaughtered over.

It was because the old celestial and War Emperor entered outer space to fight, so it would be difficult for the two clans to settle things peacefully. They were both fighting with their lives on the line. They invited all of their comrades to slaughter and stake it all.

This battle would decide the future of these races!

“Ao hou...” Deities were howling, and demons were roaring. Heaven and earth were in chaos.

Apart from the divine level existences in the sky, there were supreme experts, even formation arrangement youngsters that were running along the great earth and searching about.

The two clans sent out too many men. They all entered the Blood Plains.

It was because the great formation that sealed the Blood Plains had been destroyed by a single thought from the old celestial. That was why transport formations could be used again.

Of course, twelve terrifying devil kings that ruled these plains had fallen as well. The old celestial was furious, blaming them for assisting the War Race, so he released twelve strands of blood energy that blasted them to pieces.

Great armies flooded unendingly into the blood-colored battlefield.

Regardless of whether it was the Celestial Race or War Race, they had both been ranked within the top ten great clans of the higher realms. They were Emperor Races and Clans of the past, so they had many people on their side.

This time, two ancestors fought a great battle. The ones that came were all elites. Iron hoofs rang through the skies and mounts roared, their cries echoing through the clouds.

One could clearly see group after group of armored mounts rushing out of transport formations. They then stepped onto the void and soared towards the horizon, slaughtering into the boundless battlefield.

The great battle was divided into many regions with the twelve collapsed cities of crime as their center. They then stretched out towards the various ancient battlefield ruins.

Shi Hao and Yun Xi were alarmed. This battle exceeded their imaginations. Not only was it for the sake of the heaven's mandate stone, it was now a war that decided their clan's fate. The results would affect hundreds of thousands of years.

It was clear that they were being caught up in it as well.

“Let's leave and inform the clansmen,” Yun Xi said.

“Things aren’t looking too good. The Celestial Race is at a disadvantage. The ones that are rushing into this battlefield are almost all from the War Race. If we leave like this, we will become targets.” Shi Hao frowned.

“That’s because the War Race made abundant preparations and had conspired greatly. They invited many extremely well known powerful races to surround and wipe out my clan...” Yun Xi was worried.

In the past, there were six great celestials in this world, establishing their clan’s glory.

Now, four of them obtained heaven’s mandate stones, meaning that four similarly great experts could be produced. How could the other races allow this? That was why they secretly worked together.

The ancient battlefield Shi Hao and Yun Xi were in was the largest one, covering two hundred thousand li. It was also the most dangerous one. The mist inside was thick, isolating it from the outside world.

It was too the extent where when one entered this place, a few secret treasures and other items would lose efficacy. There was a strange natural law that affected all creatures.

It was because it was rumored that there had been an extremely powerful expert that used to oversee this place. His blood, bones, dao, were engraved within the mountains and rivers, not scattering this entire time.

That was also why Shi Hao and Yun Xi chose this place. It was to protect them.

They didn’t know that the great formation of the Blood Plains had been destroyed, nor were they aware that the twelve devil kings were all killed by the old celestial. Even if they did know, they wouldn’t have any other choices.

It was because the entire great earth was chaotic, and slaughter happened unendingly. Enormous armies were clashing, so they might as well just hide here.

Honglong!

The great earth trembled. Great banners displayed themselves. A group of armored horses appeared, and then bows with arrows were drawn back. They shot towards the group of scattered soldiers ahead.
noVe-lB.1n

Xiu!

Arrows flew out chaotically. Dazzling light appeared in the sky, and all types of divine rainbows streaked across, drawing out long tail lights. It was exceptionally beautiful.

The dozen or so people that were trying to escape up ahead cried out miserably. Feathered arrows pierced through their bodies, and then they fell onto the ground with putong putong sounds, the smallest among them barely over ten, not even fully matured yet.

“It’s my race’s people!” Yun Xi felt anxious and furious, but it was already too late to save them.

Within the Blood Plains, the great battle reached high into the sky and involved many regions. The Celestial Race of this region were defeated. A small group fled here, but it was difficult for them to avoid death.

"Help... help me..." A youth among them with a rather young and tender face clearly saw Yun Xi and Shi Hao. He helplessly reached out his hand, blood continuously being coughed from his mouth.

Unfortunately, it was already too late. That youth's eyes grew dim, and then with a putong sound, he fell just like the other clansmen.

"No!" Yun Xi's nose felt sour.

Now that the battle reached this point, it truly deviated from its original intention, no longer purely for the purpose of seizing the heaven's mandate stone, but instead a great battle for the fate of a clan. Their goal was not to completely wipe out their old enemy.

"There are two left. Your luck isn't bad." The leader on an armored horse spoke. He gave Shi Hao a look, and then he stared at Yun Xi, feeling extremely stunned.

"A girl this beautiful really is rare in this world. Since there is such a stunning beauty here, capture her and bring her back to the clan for me!" With a wave of his hand, several dozen armored mountains rushed forward, surrounding Shi Hao and Yun Xi.

"Drag this unsightly brat out and kill him. I don't want him to be a hindrance here," said the armored horse leader. He was a Divine Flame Realm expert, so he naturally didn't care much about a supreme expert.

"Yes sir!"

There were immediately more than ten centaurs that pulled back their bows and aimed at Shi Hao. Then, they shone, and a dozen or so streaks of divine light flew over.

Kacha!

Shi Hao wasn't angered. The surface of body erupted with lightning, surrounding him and releasing pi pa sounds, all of them landing on those feathered arrows. Dazzling symbols immediately erupted.

Then, noises sounded continuously. The feathered arrows were all blasted apart.

"Lord, things are a bit off. These people seem to match the secret report. It might be the ones we are looking for," someone said softly.,

"Is that so?!" The armored horse leader's eyes widened, releasing brilliance. He immediately roared with laughter, thinking that this really was good luck.

"Great one, be careful. I heard that these two aren't easy to deal with. There were Divine Flame Realm experts that had fallen because of them. We need to be careful." Someone secretly warned.

"I understand. Arrange the formation and kill them." The armored horse hinted with his hand, and then all of the armored horses backed up. They flung out banners to seal this place.

"Kill!" Yun Xi moved. Just now, her clansmen had died, leaving her feeling greatly broken hearted. She produced a precious mirror that illuminated all directions. Brilliance scattered about that attacked at the enemy.

Shi Hao was even faster. He immediately rushed out, soaring into the sky and slaughtering towards the leader.

Hong!

Both sides' palms collided. Symbolled light rushed into the heavens.

"Go to hell!" Suddenly, someone too action from the side. Divine flames rushed outwards, unexpectedly more powerful than the leader to attack Shi Hao. The Pixiu precious technique smashed over.

"I am the real leader." He revealed a sinister smile. He was with the other soldiers, while the leader bossing everyone around was unexpectedly his spiritual body.

Hong!

What left him shocked was that the symbols were ineffective. When they blasted onto Shi Hao, they were completely wiped out.

Meanwhile, his spiritual body cried out miserably. Its precious technique was useless, and after trading blows with Shi Hao continuously, it exploded in midair. Even the barbaric beast mount was killed.

"Hand over your life!" Shi Hao rose into the air. He didn't have much time left, so he had to quickly decide this battle.

The leader's true body's expression changed. He quickly backed up, but it was useless. Shi Hao's palms and fingers shone. He quickly closed in, erupting with his great flesh's divine might.

This battle was a more daunting experience than dangerous. Before Shi Hao's magical force immunity ran out, he barraged this person with attacks. Blood and bone splashed high into the air, and a bloody mist scattered outwards. It died an extremely violent death.

Shi Hao seized a great bow and continuously fired it. Miserable cries sounded continuously. The ones that tried to escape all collapsed into pools of blood, and there were even a few mounts that exploded as well from Shi Hao's shots. Blood splashed out everywhere.

War was always like this. They would never be peaceful and full of blood. This troop was completely wiped out. However, Shi Hao found it hard to make himself feel better. He had a bad feeling, because they would eventually be found by the great army.

"Go!"

He quickly and immediately brought Yun Xi away from this place towards the depths of the ancient battlefield.

From then on, Shi Hao and Yun Xi continuously fought bloody battles, wiping out more than ten troops. They moved while bathed in blood.

"If you can't, then just put me down and escape by yourself," Yun Xi said.

The most dangerous time was when a true deity came. If Shi Hao hadn't lead him into a Vajra Demon's nest, they would have likely encountered quite a crisis.

"It's fine, they haven't found us yet." Shi Hao said to himself.

"Yi, are these two the ones that were to be captured?" Soon after, they encountered another troop. A young man within this group saw Yun Xi, and then using a precious mirror, he revealed her true appearance.

"It's them. Surround them!" He was overjoyed, ordering the several dozen experts under him to take action.

"Little prince, please be careful." An old servant spoke.

The youngster was the descendant of king, but he himself hadn't been granted a nobility title yet. This had always made him feel rather upset. "Our generation has three great war kings, and one of them is nearby. I want to capture her before him."

Yun Xi was shocked. The three war kings came! Those were the illustrious young supreme beings of the younger generation, and one of them were actually nearby. She looked towards Shi Hao and revealed a look of worry.

Inside the War Race, once one was granted the title of war king, that meant that their natural talents were exceptional and oppressed those of the past. They truly had the power to overlook their peers.

There would inevitably be a few formidable characters by these people's sides that would protect them, following them into battle to prevent others from secretly attacking them.

"I am actually quite excited to see just how formidable these war kings really are!" Shi Hao said to himself, his eyes shining.

One has to understand that this was the War Emperor Clan, one of the ten great races. It was difficult for them to produce a single war king after several tens of generations!

For this generation to have three of them really was unordinary.

Chapter 712 - By Oneself

"Go, capture all of them." The youngster spoke in a bossing tone.

As soon as they made contact, Shi Hao was careless. He thought that he could immediately get rid of that old servant with his magical force immunity and also capture that War Race descendant.

He never expected that the youngster would secretly take action. He had an ancient magical artifact, a pure white jade bottle, and this bottle was going to suck him inside. His magical force immunity was ineffective!

Shi Hao's body was visibly shrinking, going from his normal height to two inches in height. He was being sucked towards the precious bottle and was already by the bottle's opening.

That old servant assisted him in activating this bottle.

This precious bottle was warm and smooth like jade. It was spotlessly white and shining with a few extremely special symbols. It could collect tall mountains and great rivers. This bottle was extremely terrifying and extraordinary.

"You all capture that woman. I will kill him." The youngster was rather content. This was the first time he activated the bottle, yet it unexpectedly succeeded.

"Break!"

Shi Hao shouted. At this moment, he couldn't care about anything else anymore. His entire body erupted with symbols. A piece of yellow earth shot out from the pill furnace and smashed forward.

"What kind of thing is this?" The youngster cried out.

It was because this yellow earth plugged up the opening of the bottle, stopping it. The symbols on the bottle began to corrode. The bottle quickly dimmed and lost its luster.

Shi Hao was already close to the opening of the bottle. It was just too dangerous, almost being sucked inside. However, when he was several feet away from the opening, he seized this opportunity and finally broke free.

"Impossible, this precious artifact is a rare secret treasure and about to become a heavenly deity magical artifact. How could it suddenly stop working?!" The youngster was going crazy.

There was an old ancestor that doted on him quite greatly, bestowing him with this magical artifact and having him enter the Blood Plains to gain experience. Normally speaking, nothing should be able to destroy it, yet now, it began to corrode.

Shi Hao quickly enlarged in size again, quickly turning from two inches in height back to his normal size. He landed on the ground, and then he ferociously took action, rushing murderously towards the the Divine Flame Realm old servant.

In his opinion, this was the most dangerous individual right now. As long as he could get rid of him, then the situation would be a lot more predictable.

Hong!

At this moment, the magical force immunity had not disappeared yet. There was still a final bit of time. The two individuals engaged each other. Bloody light surged. The old man's arms broke and he flew outwards.

"You..." He was shocked.

"Get in here!" The youngster shouted from the side. He was still activating the jade bottle, but unfortunately, it was useless. He tried to get rid of the yellow earth with other magical artifacts, but they were all destroyed in the end.

The yellow earth's background was extraordinary, originating from the boundless uninhabited region. Of course, it was not the true yellow earth and instead something that formed while permeated in the real piece of yellow earth.

Even though this was the case, it still made a secret treasure ineffective.

Pu!

The old servant was not a match and was killed by Shi Hao.

The group that surrounded Yun Xi were greatly alarmed. They wanted to escape, but it was too late. Shi Hao took action decisively, killing them one after another. No one could get away.

"It's now your turn." Shi Hao pressed forward, taking action against that youngster.

This battle was without any suspense. Even though this young War Race youth was unordinary, he only survived a few dozen moves against Shi Hao in the end before dying.

In reality, in the same generation, there weren't many people who could exchange several dozen moves with Shi Hao. What he accomplished was already quite a rare thing that few could accomplish.

Shi Hao put away the yellow earth and carefully examined the fine jade bottle. He was a bit speechless. This was a quite a good treasure, but a lot of its symbols had been damaged.

"What a pity..." He felt rather regretful.

"You actually stopped a divine artifact!" Yun Xi was shocked.

Through this battle, Shi Hao was given a wake up call. The magical force immunity was not unmatched. Against a true deity, he could only retreat, and against higher level magical artifacts, it wouldn't necessarily activate either.

The two quickly left, going on their way again.

"Have we been locked onto by someone? Even though I am hiding in your cauldron, why do they still always find us?" Yun Xi revealed a worried look.

It was because as they continued, Shi Hao encountered danger several times. Yun Xi hid in the cauldron, but she could still feel how intense the battles outside were.

After several instances of this, she freed herself from the cauldron. When she came out, she found that Shi Hao's face was pale, and his clothes were covered in traces of blood.

"It's not that we were targeted, but rather that there were too many War Race troops eliminated by us. They issued a death order that anyone that isn't part of the War Race is to be killed on the spot." Shi Hao's complexion was not good. His face lacked color. Not long ago, he unexpectedly encountered a War King, this race's outstanding genius. However, they weren't even able to exchange blows, because a True deity appeared at the War King's side, chasing him down the entire time and almost killing him.

During the latter half of the night, he suffered another injury. His entire body was covered in blood. He was almost killed by that True deity. More than ten bones were broken, and there was a crack between his brows.

Shi Hao's injuries were extremely severe. If not for the Earth into inches great divine ability being formidable, granting him the earth escape technique and allowing him to enter the depths of the battlefield, he would have died right there and then.

Despite this being the case, his injuries were still extremely serious. His foundation was damaged.

Yun Xi freed herself from the bone cauldron and appeared in front of him. When she saw this scene, she felt extremely uncomfortable, and tears appeared in her eyes. "I'm sorry, I've involved you in my troubles..." She told Shi Hao to continue alone and not worry about her any longer.

"You don't have to blame yourself. Even if I leave alone, I won't be able to leave. The War Race wouldn't give up," Shi Hao said.

Yun Xi sighed softly. This kindness was too great. Shi Hao escorted her several hundreds of thousands of li. If not for this youth being here, she would have long been captured or killed.

"Thank you." She didn't know what was proper to say.

"You two won't be able to get away." Suddenly, an ice cold voice sounded. A line of people pressed forward.

Among them was a young man who was twenty or so years old. His long eyebrows reached his temples, his eyes like those of a phoenix. His skin was like white jade, flickering with sparkling radiance. There was a unique type of charm to his appearance.

War King!

He had hurried over, and it was precisely him that spoke.

"Do you dare fight against me alone?" Shi Hao's body was covered in blood. He stood up, exuding a type of intimidation without anger. It was as if a tiger or dragon was making its appearance.

"I originally still intended to take action, but what a pity, right now, you are unsuitable. With such severe injuries, any supreme expert can kill you." The War King spoke with an incredibly cold and merciless voice.

He had this type of confidence, and even more so a type of unequalled mentality. The War Race had previously ruled the world, an Emperor Clan. How could the War King of this type of terrifying ancient clan that only produced someone like him once every dozen generations be ordinary?

In the current world, three War Kings existed, but this was definitely an extremely rare thing.

"Less nonsense. Just hand over your life!" Shi Hao shouted.

"I don't want to dirty my hands." The War King carried his hands behind him. His phoenix-like eyes were chilly, his skin pure white like jade. Even his hair was sparkling and shining. His entire body gave off an otherworldly aura.

This was a type of humiliation. He looked down on Shi Hao in his current state, feeling that it was beneath him for them to fight. He felt that this person was not worth his time.

"Kill him for me." He turned around, showing disdain beneath contempt.

Upon receiving the order, a few supreme experts rushed over.

That True deity also took action in secret, quickly closing in.

Shi Hao sighed. He turned around to escape, entering the depths of the earth again. The True deity pursued him closely!

When he appeared on the surface again, the glaring red light of three blood moons seeped through the ancient battlefield. However, it was still unable to conceal the pallor of Shi Hao's face.

His injuries were too severe. More than ten of his bones were broken. His arm and leg bones were even more so broken at several areas. If not for his magical force supporting him, he would already be lying on the ground.

In addition, regardless of whether it was his primordial spirit or his flesh, they both suffered horrifying injuries, harming his foundation. If this continued, he really might die from his foundation being dried up.

"You... what's wrong?" Yun Xi felt anxious. She brought out a bit of spiritual spring to have him drink it. Her stunning face was full of worry.

"Let me rest for a bit." Shi Hao was extremely exhausted. Just now, he suffered another blow from the true deity at a distance. His body almost broke apart and his primordial spirit almost scattered.

His breathing was unstable. His chest was rising and falling intensely. He had been chased after this entire time. Now that the great battle reached this state, it took a huge toll on his body. It was hard for him to even stand up again. His injuries were terrifying.

"Don't worry, you will recover again." Yun Xi seemed to have thought of something. While sobbing, she quickly produced a pill medicine and had him eat it.

"What is this?" Shi Hao was shocked. This pill was the size of a dragon eye fruit and curling with purple light. Symbols wrapped about it. It was as if it had life, smashing about the jade container with peng peng sounds, as if it was trying to escape.

"This is a Celestial pill, a unique precious medicine. No matter how severe your injuries are, it can immediately help you recover," Yun Xi explained.

Shi Hao was shocked. This pill was priceless as expected. It was just like the Heaven Mending pill, able to save a person's life.

When he was in the lower realm, he had seized a Heaven Mending pill from Yue Chan. However, after that final battle against the seven deities, the villagers had forced him to eat it.

The reason he was able to revive might not be because of the holy medicines, rebirth ponds, or his powerful will. Perhaps it was related to the Heaven Mending pill.

"Hurry and eat it. We cannot waste any time." Yun Xi's sparkling white jade hand personally brought the Celestial pill to the edge of his mouth, touching his lips.

Shi Hao nodded, not refusing her kindness. It was because his injuries were too severe and he couldn't hold on any longer. Being able to escape with his life from a True deity's clutches was already extremely heaven defying.

If he didn't immediately recover, once their pursuers arrived, both him and Yun Xi would undoubtedly die.

When the purple precious pill entered his mouth, it turned into a medicinal starch and erupted with symbols. It immediately rushed towards his limbs and bones, nourishing his flesh and primordial spirit. The effects were quite heaven defying!

There were no side effects. In just an hour, Shi Hao stood up again, vigorous and healthy. He was surging with blood energy, and his spirit was abundant. He had recovered to his peak state.

"The effects are this great?" Even though he was inwardly prepared for the results, he was still extremely shocked.

"It's good that you are okay." Yun Xi's worries faded and she finally revealed a smile. Her beautiful eyes moved about. Her skin was snow white, her smile displaying great beauty.

It was clear that this type of rare precious medicine was precious. It was because her status was special that she was able to have one.

"They came again!" Shi Hao pulled Yun Xi's jade arms, immediately turning around to leave.

Only after a long time had passed did they stop in a secret place. Shi Hao said with a cold voice, "Are they forcing me to kill their War King?"

He was angry. The War King's people continuously chased after him. It was hard for him to break away. He decided to take some risks!

"Don't be too rash," Yun Xi said. She was extremely worried.

"That True deity is always chasing after me and will always leave the War King for a period of time. I have a chance to take action and kill him!" Shi Hao said. His eyes erupted with light, shooting out like a rainbow.

Yun Xi discovered that this youth had an indescribable type of charm, an unrivaled style. He was self-confident and persistent. There was a type of divine radiance around his entire being.

Self-confident people had the most unique temperaments. The current Shi Hao was firm and resolute, confident in himself. He was shining brilliantly. Shi Hao was going to kill the War King

What kind of confidence was this? One has to understand that they were one of the higher realm's ten greatest clans in the past, the most tyrannical War Emperor Clan. Their War Kings were definitely heaven defying.

When Yun Xi looked at him, she stared blankly for a moment, a bit spellbound. Then, she quickly snapped back, her face a bit red.

"Don't put yourself in danger!" She advised, worrying for Shi Hao's safety.

"Who am I? A heaven warping martial talent. It is just a trifling War King. I must kill him!" Shi Hao was in high spirits.

Yun Xi was stupefied, feeling that his confidence was a bit narcissistic, as well as a bit familiar. However, she shook her head, and then continued to advise against this.

"There's no need to be scared. Watch how I kill him." Shi Hao had already decided to take the risk. He produced a spiritual body and had this spiritual body bring Yun Xi away and draw the True deity's attention as well.

"He is a True deity, so he'll see through this quickly. He will go back to kill you." Yun Xi was nervous.

"Don't worry. I only need a tiny bit of time. If necessary, show him the Golden Bodhi fruit. He'll definitely hesitate then and chase for another period of time." Shi Hao gave the Golden Bodhi fruit to the spiritual body.

Then, he turned around, resolutely turning around to kill the War King!

The three blood moons suspended in the air. Within the depths of the ancient battlefield, demonic gods would roar from time to time. However, the area in front was quite peaceful. The ground was barren, and when one stepped on it, it would feel as if one was stepping on metal or stone.

Da, da, da...

The sound of footsteps resounded through the silent great earth. The blood moons scattered their radiance, making that person appear especially valiant. He directly faced a group of people.

Shi Hao had returned and found the War King's group!

"You are quite brave, daring to meet me again." The War King was extraordinary and aloof. His long eyebrows reached his temples, staring out with his phoenix like eyes. His body looked like it was made from precious stones. His entire body had a type of brilliance. He was exceptionally powerful and terrifying.

"You think you are worth anything? I returned to kill you!" Shi Hao said softly, but there was an unquestionable pressure as he walked over step by step. Under the blood moons, his tall and straight figure was especially heroic. His eyes were resplendent.

The great earth began to tremble along with his footsteps, resonating with him, pulsing with his movements. Blinding holy radiance erupted from his body. It was as if a Great Emperor had descended into this world.

"Who am I? I am the War Emperor Clan's current generation's war king! And who do you think you are?!" The War King's eyes were extremely cold and ruthless.

"I am not much, but there will be a day when I will establish an Emperor Clan alone, creating an Emperor Race with my own power. I do not need to stand in my ancestor's shade and will be an Emperor in my own right!" Shi Hao calmly said.

Chapter 713 - Seizing Light From the Nine Heavens

Zhan Tiange roared with laughter towards the skies. His thick hair flew about, shining brilliantly just like himself, openly displaying how extraordinary it was.

He was the War King of a generation, one with exceptional talents. If not for the war race giving birth to a pair of 'war child' twins, breaking the equilibrium, he would have become the only king for in several dozen generations.

He was born within the War Emperor Clan to begin with, and ever since he could remember, he was above everyone around him, distinguishing himself from the others, displaying potential that exceeded ten generations. How could he not be strong?

"Your joke isn't funny at all." He had an indomitable aura. During these twenty years, he had traveled through many provinces, but he had never met his match!

If not for his misgivings towards his ancestors' teachings, he would have definitely challenged the War King twins, defeated them, and become the only king.

"It's fine if it's a joke, and even if it's true, it's not a big deal either. It's enough as long as you understand that I came here tonight to kill you." Shi Hao spoke calmly as he walked forward step by step.

He was calm and collected, not rashly taking action because of the limited time. He was accumulating power, allowing his strength to rise to the peak.

He never underestimated his opponents. Even with the unrivaled mindset, he would still take action with full power. This was the main reason why Shi Hao was able to arrive where he was today.

"Earlier, I didn't fight against you because I felt that you were unsuitable, fearing that you would dirty my hands. Now, seeing as you are full of confidence, returning to your peak, I'll help you satisfy your wishes and remove your head." Zhan Tiange said.

His stature was tall. His hair scattered about, his phoenix-like eyes intelligent. His entire body was sparkling as if it was carved from gemstones. There was a type of unspeakable charm to his appearance. nove-1B.In

His aura erupted. He was clearly a human figure, yet right now, it was as if vicious prehistoric beast surged with power. The pressure was so great it made others feel suffocated.

In his surroundings, the troops all backed up, their bodies unexpectedly all trembling, unable to take this pressure. Even the supreme experts felt their blood energy surging. They staggered in retreat, almost coughing out blood.

This was the might of a warrior. He was the king of a race. Even though he was still young, he was already showing signs of his potential. He had the character of an exceptional being, one that rarely encountered worthy opponents!

The three blood moons hung from the sky. Moonlight scattered down from the battlefield. It was bright red and eye-catching as it illuminated the dry and ice cold earth.

"Words are empty. When you are dead, the world will be quiet again." Shi Hao's gait was forceful. The distance every step covered, and the time they took did not deviate in the slightest. His footsteps carried a type of rhythm.

Eventually, this terrifying rhythm even affected heaven and earth, making it resonate as well. The nearby War Race experts' faces also changed. They were on the verge of collapse.

What was going on? Even the supreme experts' faces were grave.

Shi Hao's footsteps were like an ancient imperial court's divine drums as they rang through the world. The dong dong sounds echoing forcefully, making one's heart rise and fall in response, jumping in accordance.

Dong, dong, dong...

This was a terrifying divine sound. The rhythm was dry and monotonous, but it shook up these people until their blood energy erupted. A few people couldn't endure it any longer, feeling as if they were going to explode.

Pu!

In the end, blood poured out from someone's mouth. He broke free from this rhythm with great difficulty and then quickly retreated into the distance. Otherwise, they were simply heading for the underworld. Their bodies were going to explode.

Hong!

Zhang Tiange stepped out. When his foot descended, the great earth trembled. Cracks extended several li outwards. His foot stamped onto the ground, greatly affecting this type of rhythm and disturbing this cadence.

A few people coughed out large mouthfuls of blood, using this opportunity to break free from the restrictions and to separate themselves from this divine sound. They fled into the distance.

Everyone felt great fear. What kind of youth was this? Just the rhythm of his footsteps alone already affected them so greatly, mysteriously almost making them fall.

The War King took action. A single step crossed a hundred zhang, rushing forward in an instant.

He immediately became completely different. It was as if an insurmountable archaic mountain appeared, scattering the clouds and appearing in the present world. It was extremely intimidating.

In addition, there were layers of mysterious symbols that flickered about, engraved within his flesh. There was holy radiance surrounding them, making it look as if there were silver flames surrounding his body. He appeared extraordinary and divine!

His hands formed fist imprints. This was precisely a type of war imprint that the War Race was known for. A metal monument was condensed in front of his body from symbols. An ancient divine sound erupted.

Hong!

The war monument was like a mountain. Even though it wasn't large, it still had a mountainous pressure that crushed down on Shi Hao. The most dazzling patterns covered its surface.

Shi Hao was without fear. His entire body shone. He walked over with large steps. With the magical force immunity ability, he didn't fear this first strike. His body unexpectedly moved through this monument, and then he struck ferociously at Zhan Tiange.

Hong!

His palm shone. There was a shocking type of luster when it smashed towards this war king. It was like a raging sun as it released a terrifying radiance. It was incomparably dazzling.

Dang!

A golden bone sword mace moved through the air, smashing into Shi Hao's palm. A thousand strands of blazing multicolored light erupted between the two. The sound that was produced was clear, cold, and raw, as if two copper millstones were grinding against each other.

Zhan Tiange had long realized that his first collision against Shi Hao would result in the magical force immunity. He had his preparations as well. The weapon in his right hand was waiting for this strike, and it stopped it.

At the same time, his left hand formed an imprint, and then it continuously slammed outwards. As a result, war monuments appeared in the void one after another, flickering with metallic luster. They were covered in terrifying symbol engravings.

These divine monuments appeared in rows, descending from all directions and slamming down towards Shi Hao. They all flowed with a mysterious force and erupted with powerful fluctuations. They released a battle divine might.

This was Zhan Tiange's method -- war monument imprint!

In that instant, several dozen ancient monuments arranged themselves everywhere, sealing up all directions and releasing a terrifying pressure. They shattered Shi Hao's magical force immunity ability.

Shi Hao's eyes were clear, but he was shaken inwardly. The other party understood his method, using this attack to stop his first round of flesh attacks. He was waiting for his magical force immunity to end.

This was clearly showing results. Zhan Tiange used the divine monuments to exhaust this power, and in close range, he used the golden bone sword mace to face him. Kengqiang sounds rang through the air and sparks flew about.

This was a powerful opponent!

"Do you not even dare to fight me in close combat?" Shi Hao said.

"Even though I've cultivated the unbreaking precious body, why do I have to listen to you and fight you where you have an advantage? Letting emotions get in the way of a battle is not heroic, but stupid." Zhan Tiange was extremely calm, not letting this affect him.

Hong!

The divine monuments rumbled, and then they completely collapsed. Symbols covered the void, falling downwards. It was because Shi Hao's magical force immunity's time limit had arrived.

"It's about time for me to take action!" This War King shouted. His phoenix-like eyes shone brilliantly like a sky shocking rainbow. He swooped down, and while moving the golden bone sword mace, he opened his mouth and spat out a stream of silver radiance.

War sword energy!

This was a blast of innate true energy. It surged outwards and condensed a unique symbol that struck towards the space between Shi Hao's brows.

At the same time, the golden bone sword mace in his hands smashed downwards. It was as if an enormous mountain was smashing down. Heaven overflowing golden symbols rushed downwards with world shocking divine might.

Chi!

The space between Shi Hao's brows shone. The grass character sword intent erupted. Kengqiang sounds rang out. Sword energy rushed out from his forehead, his body, from the pores over every inch of his body.

This place was covered in brilliance. Sword energy weaved about. The void seemed like it was about to be pierced through!

Over a hundred attacks were traded in an instant. The two individuals' movements were just too fast. Sword energy weaved about in the thousands, and great winds swept about. Sword radiance rushed through the sky in all colors. It was beautiful and dazzling.

Hong!

The golden bone sword mace was a great killing weapon. It inflicted so much pressure on the void that it began to distort. Each time it was brandished, Zhan Tiange's hair would also fly about. The divine force was matchless.

Meanwhile, Shi Hao formed an imprint, not holding back as he faced off against this precious artifact. Dang dang sounds rang through the air, releasing ear-splitting sounds. The enemy was powerful beyond his expectations.

"Undying war intent!" The War King said with a low voice. A purple imprint appeared between his brows, mysterious fragments of a diagram. They were displayed at this moment, and it shone brilliantly.

Chi!

In that instant, purple symbols rushed out from the space between his brows one after another. They were like the strokes of a complex and ancient symbol that were disassembled and displayed in the void.

In Shi Hao's surroundings, purple laws appeared strand after strand. They linked up together to form a little thousand world, trapping him within.

Hong!

Shi Hao's entire body shone. Resplendent symbols attacked these patterns. He discovered with surprise that these symbols would regenerate after being destroyed, and they were also pulling at his primordial spirit.

This was a tangible spiritual space, a divine will cage. The so-called Undying war intent was unexpectedly this.

Shi Hao's expression was calm. The space between his brows shone, releasing strand after strand of divine multicolored light. A unique technique was forming. This was the primordial spirit technique within the Lightning Emperor precious technique, divine will into lightning.

Hong!

The primordial spirit condensed. A small figure sat between his brows, one that held a golden hammer. It fiercely slammed downwards, and then the surrounding spirit cage immediately cracked. The chains of order continuously broke one after another.

Zhan Tiange was shocked. The undying will of heaven that produced the spirit cage had never failed before. From what his clansmen said, it could wipe out the primordial spirit of an exceptional talent, a great trump card.

However, it actually failed now, causing him to frown.

This War King roared. His entire body surged with radiance like a divine flame. From the crown of his skull, wave after wave of innate spiritual energy was released, and then they condensed in the void, forming nine individuals identical to himself.

They were exactly the same as his true body!

A group of War Kings rushed forward. They either formed imprints, held golden bone sword maces, brandished divine fists, or carried heaven overflowing symbols. The divine might displayed was too shocking.

Shi Hao was startled. This type of precious technique was strange and difficult to understand. So many War Kings unexpectedly appeared at the same time. When their powers were overlaid on top of each other, it would be difficult to imagine.

A weng sounded. His only heavenly passage opened. Figures rushed out one after another. He sent out his spiritual bodies to join the battle!

Zhan Tiange sneered. He also released his spiritual bodies to fight against Shi Hao's spiritual bodies. Meanwhile, his innate foundational energy condensed into War King bodies continued to rush forward.

This was an intense and vicious battle. Shi Hao rushed into the sky. The other party's methods were strange. If he was surrounded, the situation would become extremely unfavorable for him.

In the void, blood waves surged. He used the Lightning Emperor's secret method. Divine lightning transformed into water, filling up the skies and descending to suppress and kill all of the War King's bodies.

Hong!

Heaven fell and earth collapsed. Symbols burned ferociously here. Human figures weaved about.

Chi!

Soon after, an earthen gas appeared beneath Shi Hao's feet, the great earth formed from heavenly lightning. In addition, there was vitality on the ground. All types of plants formed from lightning took root.

Then, flames raged about his body, merging with the blue sea in the surroundings.

Moreover, a spear appeared in his hands. Metallic energy and lightning erupted at the same time with world shaking sharpness.

The five elements were formed. Lightning condensed a small world, blasting the War King body below. Shi Hao also rushed downwards.

This disastrous strike erupted with brilliance. Lightning interweaved, blasting apart the nine great War King bodies, revealing Zhan Tiange's original body.

In reality, there was no way the War King could maintain this type of secret method, and he could only release a single strike. Otherwise, he would be undefeatable, as it was the same as there being nine of himself.

Zhan Tiange revealed a serious expression. The other party's lightning produced a small world while standing at the center of it all. There was a natural undefeated power to his appearance.

"Kill!"

He released a great shout to break through this impasse. He held the golden bone sword mace in his hands. His entire body shone as he rushed forward.

An intense close combat commenced. In the blink of an eye, three hundred moves were exchanged. The two's movements were fast to the extreme. They tangled together, not willing to let the other get an edge.

This War King had a bad feeling. The pressure he faced became greater and greater, and his mind became heavy. It was because the other party's aura continuously increased. The precious techniques he used were changing and forming a world.

Below Shi Hao's feet, the earthen colored great earth was verdant with greenery. All types of plants germinated. There was also a clear lake that nourished the plant life. A great flame also descended to control prosperity and decline.

It was to the extent where in this world, all types of creatures that roamed within the forest appeared as well. There were great fish leaping out of the lake's surface.

Metallic energy interweaved, forming divine soldiers one after another. They emerged in the void to protect this little world.

All of this was produced by lightning!

Shi Hao stood at the center of it all, controlling everything.

"You are the Child of Lightning?" This war king asked with a downcast voice.

He felt that the other party's world was becoming more and more real. The power it erupted with became greater and greater, reaching an extremely dangerous point. If this continued, things would definitely not be good.

"I am not!" Shi Hao calmly replied. Then, he coerced the lightning world.

Hong!

This War King coughed out blood. This time, he suffered greatly. His entire body was surrounded by electrical radiance.

"War Emperor hand!" he roared. This was a taboo precious technique. In the past, the clan's War Emperor also studied this great art, and only then did he produce the unrivaled body and become the War Emperor.

In that instant, Zhan Tiange formed an imprint. A large golden hand appeared in the void. It quickly took form, terrifying to the extreme. It was created from symbols.

Hong!

The heavens fell and the earth split apart. This large hand was shining. It unexpectedly slapped Shi Hao's lightning world with unstoppable power, blasting the great earth apart and drying up the lake. The forest withered, and the flames were extinguished.

Qiang!

In the little world, metallic energy surged, producing a hundred thousand divine soldiers. They all hacked down, releasing blinding divine light. Metallic sounds rang out unendingly as they hacked down on that large hand.

Sparks flew in all directions. War energy rushed into the heavens. However, the War Emperor hand did not disappear.

This type of divine technique's background was unfathomable. The War Race flourished because of its existence. It possessed the natural luck of heaven and earth. It was terrifying beyond compare.

A terrifying close combat struggle once again began. The two traded over four hundred moves. Zhan Tiange was extremely formidable. Anyone able to fight Shi Hao to this extent was definitely incomparably shocking.

This was especially the case when the War Emperor hand came out. It unexpectedly had an unprecedented, unrivaled self-confident power!

The large golden hand crushed everything, destroying all things in the small lightning world. Everything was annihilated. Its power was difficult to stop.

"Seizing light from the nine heavens!"

Shi Hao muttered. Unknowingly when, in correspondence with the little world in front of him, nine heavenly void figures appeared in the heavens, hazy and terrifying. The aura they released was world shocking.

Hong!

In that instant, the nine heavens merged, covering a range of a hundred li. It then hacked down an immortal light type of lightning!

Zhan Tiange was shocked. He felt his blood run cold. When he suddenly raised his head, only then did he discover that a beautiful, flying immortal type light had formed, and it was descending from outer space.

Honglong!

Heaven and earth trembled. That type of light was too terrifying. Its destructive force was too shocking.

At this point, Zhan Tiange was long exhausted, and that War Emperor hand had become unstable as well. His mind was greatly shaken, revealing nervousness and fear. He did everything he could to defend himself.

Light drowned out this place. He released a miserable cry. His entire being was pierced through by the lightning. Blood splashed everywhere!

Shi Hao descended from the sky. "I said that I came tonight to kill you!"

"You are... Huang?" Zhan Tiange asked. Recently, this young devil king Huang's name had been travelling through the world. He fought against the Child of Lightning with electricity, defeating many outstanding talents. He now managed to guess his identity.

In the surroundings, those supreme experts were all shaken. It was unexpectedly Huang who arrived!

Chapter 714 - Huang's Reappearance

Zhan Tiange released a groan. Even though he moved as fast as he could, he was still sliced at the waist. The lower half of his body fell from the sky, while his upper half continued to float in midair.

His face was pale without any trace of color. He was actually defeated so badly like this!

Shi Hao was merciless. While holding a lightning warblade, his hand hacked downwards. The small lightning world was stirred on. The grass inside was fresh and clean, and the water was a deep azure; everything was extremely realistic.

Meanwhile, in midair, a flying immortal-like radiance descended. The War King wanted to escape, but he couldn't.

Pu!

The remaining half of his body was already in tatters. It was then pierced through by the beam of light. His body that had lost seventy percent of its combat strength became even weaker, dropping onto the ground.

"Lightning Emperor secret technique!" He said through clenched. His clan's ancient ancestor -- the War Emperor, had long deduced that Origin Sky Supreme Being had the Lightning Emperor's inheritance.

He now personally experienced it and already verified it. Huang obtained the Lightning Emperor's secret method from the secret realm.

'Seizing light from the nine heavens' was a tangible manifestation of the Lightning Emperor's taboo secret method. It resonated with the small lightning world Shi Hao constructed and engraved itself in the void, able to hack down like immortal light.

"War King!"

The surrounding people shouted. They rushed forward together. If Zhan Tiange died here, then they wouldn't be able to live either.

Kacha!

Shi Hao walked up. Lightning appeared everywhere, immediately blasting through the four supreme experts. The space between their brows dripped with blood. They collapsed onto the ground, their faces looking towards the sky.

"Going to stake it all against him!" These were the War Race's death knights. They didn't fear life and dead. A vicious light appeared in their eyes. They rushed forward together.

Qiang!

Within the little world Shi Hao created from lightning, weapons rushed out one after another, drawing out a rainbow expanse as they rushed forward.

Pu pu sounds rang out incessantly. In the blink of an eye, more than ten people were killed, unable to stop his footsteps.

"This was all your self-confidence amounted to? It's nothing much at all." Shi Hao looked at Zhan Tiange. His voice was calm. He raised the warblade in his hand into the air. It flickered with soul shaking blade radiance.

Zhan Tiange's face was snow white. It was because he lost half of his body, and his blood loss was severe. His battle strength was even more so flowing out from him. He couldn't retaliate at all.

"Stop!"

"Kill!"

In the surroundings, the War King's troops and followers were shouting, rushing at him with no fear of death. Once the person they were supposed to be protecting died, there would be no good end for them either.

Hong!

Shi Hao stopped moving. At this moment, his body and mind were clear, elevated to a wonderful state. He comprehended the Lightning Emperor's precious technique and touched upon its natural luck. His understanding advanced a step further.

He began to take steps outwards like when they first encountered each other, harmonizing with heaven and earth. Lightning accompanied his movements. He walked forward step by step. It was as if drumbeats sounded in the air.

“Ah...” Someone cried out miserably, trapped within this rhythm. That person’s blood began to rise and fall in response, trembling with his footsteps.

Pu!

The faces of more than ten Formation Arrangement Realm cultivators went pale. Under this type of special rhythm that resonated with his footsteps, in the end, their hearts exploded, and then their entire bodies’ blood erupted. They raised their heads and fell onto the ground.

Shi Hao became calm at this moment, becoming one with this world. His entire body swirled with symbols, and a secret force emerged.

Finally, an enormous hong sound rang out, and his body erupted with endless magical force. His cultivation climbed another step, advancing from the initial level of the Supreme Expert Realm to the mid level.

His entire body was swirling with precious light. Lightning interweaved and cleansed his body. The exhaustion from the great battle was swept away in one go. He was now surging with vitality and full of blood energy.

He entered a wonderful martial state, gaining enlightenment and breaking through his shackles, advancing a level. This was not done so deliberately, but rather when ‘conditions are right, success will follow naturally’.

The surrounding people looked as if they were looking at a ghost. How terrifying was this person? His steps were like a ghost chasing drum, shaking up a few cultivators until their bodies exploded, while he himself even increased in cultivation realm.

This was the results of condensing heaven and earth, receiving the baptism of the great dao’s harmonization.

Back then, when Shi Hao was in the lower realm, for the sake of fighting the seven deities, he hurriedly took a Little rebirth pill to become a supreme expert. He always felt that this wasn’t too good. Breaking through like this wouldn’t produce a strong dao foundation.

After coming to the higher realms and mending his body’s natural laws, he had been suppressing his body this entire time for the sake of compacting his past ‘rashness’ and making his body’s dao foundation perfect.

Otherwise, with so much time having passed, he should have broken through a long time ago.

Now, he couldn’t suppress it anymore. His foundation was solid and thoroughly complete. Now, he was in a wonderful magical comprehension state, and he naturally broke through.

From here on out, there was no need for any more worries. Everything was pointing towards perfection, and he could calmly cultivate.

At this moment, he harmonized with heaven and earth. Lightning pervaded the air, and electricity curled up around him. That small lightning world became even more realistic, vivid, and lifelike!

Along with his footsteps, this type of rhythm became more and more terrifying. The supreme experts all suffered as well, holding their hands over their hearts and coughing out large mouthfuls of blood.

Qiang!

At the most crucial point, with a snap of Shi Hao's fingers, the lightning warblade in his hands began to vibrate with an ear-splitting sound, ending this rhythmic footstep sound.

However, this was terrifying as well. Several supreme experts' hearts were torn apart, their chests exploding. Blood erupted from their bodies, dying on the spot!

The blade sound was like the final symbol of death. It hacked apart the vitality of the supreme experts who were brought into this rhythm, killing them immediately.

There were now corpses laying everywhere and blood covering the ground. Shi Hao was like a devil king, slaughtering all those in his path.

"No!"

There were only a few people still alive, but they suffered severe injuries as well. They couldn't help but release cries of unwillingness.

Pu!

Shi Hao raised the blade and swept outwards. Several heads flew to the side, and blood rushed more than ten feet into the air. Then, with a qiang sound, their primordial spirits were severed.

Hou...

In the distance, the heavens swayed and the earth moved. An angry roar tore through heaven and earth. That True deity had hurried back. He was just too fast, shooting over from the horizon like a streak of sunrise radiance.

"After chasing me for so long, you've come back too late!" Shi Hao looked into the distance. He raised the blade in an unhurried manner, and then he hacked down.

Pu!

The War King was unwilling. He screamed towards the sky, but his head was still split in two. Blood surged together with lightning into the air. His expression thus froze.

The lightning was completely restrained within Shi Hao's body, and the electricity scattered. He displayed a secret technique, using the Earth into inches great divine ability, and then together with lightning, he disappeared from this place.

The True deity roared with anger. He arrived in the blink of an eye and raised the War King's ruined body. His expression was sinister and his eyes scarlet red. His head of hair all stood on end. The natural order of heaven and earth interweaved and exploded like lightning.

"How could this be?!" He was going mad.

This was the War King of a generation, yet under his protection, he was cut off in his prime. Even if he was a True deity, when he returned to the race, he would still be severely punished.

Just how much time had passed? The war race's outstanding talent was killed just like that, and dying so tragically as well. Meanwhile, the other party was similarly just a youth.

"We are the War Emperor Clan!" He roared towards the sky incomparably sinisterly.

If not for Shi Hao using the Lightning Emperor's precious technique and surrounding everything within a range of a hundred li with electrical clouds startling him, he wouldn't even have noticed that this bitter battle was happening.

"Who exactly are you?!"

In the present world, there weren't many that could kill Zhan Tiange. Only youths with 'War Emperor' characters could do so!

Suddenly, he stared at the ground. There was a bloody word left behind by Zhan Tiange's ruined corpse -
- Huang.

"Huang!" The true deity roared. His head of hair rose, rushing into the heavens. He was driven mad.

Shi Hao and Yun Xi regrouped. His spiritual body was in a rather terrible condition, his injuries extremely severe. After being chased by the True deity for so long, he almost died.

"You returned!" Yun Xi was alarmed.

Shi Hao nodded. He guided the spiritual body back into his body, and then he circulated bone texts. Blood energy surged, recovering his foundational energy, slowly returning his body to its peak state.

The celestial pills efficacy was still there, not completely scattered. n//0Vefb1n

"You... killed the War King?!" When Yun Xi learned about this battle success, her little mouth formed an 'O' shape. She was extremely shocked.

"Who am I? If I said I was going to kill him, then of course I will. Could it be that you thought I was going to waste my time?" Shi Hao said.

"Everything about you is perfect, just... a bit narcissistic." Yun Xi muttered.

This accomplishment truly shocked her. The War King of a generation was known as a young supreme being that came from the War Emperor Clan, yet he was killed by the youth in front of her just like that.

Needless to say, this would definitely trigger a huge commotion and shake up these two great clans.

Not only would the War Race be furious and feel incomparable grief, even the Celestial Race was going to be shocked. One of their future great enemies was eliminated just like that! It was worth celebrating.

Shi Hao benefited greatly from this battle. Not only did he break through his original cultivation realm, he also understood a bit about the War Race's bone texts, precious techniques, and other things. The value of this was great.

“What kind of special precious techniques does the Celestial Race have?” As they went on their way, Shi Hao asked Yun Xi for guidance. His thick skin even hoped to maybe learn a few small divine abilities from the Celestial Race.

“From man to heaven, what exactly is that?” He wanted to understand a bit more about the Celestial Race’s profound secrets.

“The so-called celestial is just the first stage. If one wants to truly become a matchless expert, to evolve to the peak -- heaven, it represents an even higher level of life.”

Yun Xi was not on guard against him, explaining it to him in detail. She spoke about quite a few mysteries, allowing Shi Hao to learn quite a bit.

“Now that you merged with the heaven’s mandate stone, will the rebirth process go smoothly?” Shi Hao asked.

“There is a dangerous stage where I will need others to protect me,” Yun Xi replied.

The two walked while chatting. Shi Hao understood a lot, to the extent where he now even knew that during that dangerous stage, the heaven’s mandate stone could be seized away.

It was clear that the True deity behind them went crazy. He chased after them this entire time, wishing to find Huang and get revenge for the War King.

However, Shi Hao had just broken through, so his speed increased somewhat, making it even more difficult for the other party to catch him. He brought Yun Xi with him into the heart of the ancient battlefield.

It was rumored that this largest ancient battlefield previously had a truly exceptional expert overseeing it. His blood, bones, and symbols were all engraved here, which was why this place was so terrifying.

When the two individuals approached this place, they noticed that the void was swirling with different colors. Those were broken divine chains of order, laying about in disarray. All types of multicolored light erupted. It was extremely chaotic.

It was difficult to approach the central taboo region, because the slightest carelessness would result in the natural law divine chains destroying their bodies. They could only watch from the distance.

“There are plants there!” They were shocked. The taboo region was verdant and lush with life. There were green and thriving plants that released brilliance. There were vines and flowers that were beautiful shades of purples and reds, curling with multicolored light.

Shi Hao secretly used the dual-pupil to see what exactly it was.

He was immediately shocked, because he saw a figure in snow white clothes, exceptional and alone who stood in the taboo region. It was extremely shocking!

This was a woman. She already noticed Shi Hao. She revealed a faint smile. Her white teeth were sparkling, her appearance extremely graceful and charming. She was flowing with beauty, immediately making Shi Hao a bit flustered.

This was a feeling he had never felt before. This woman was too unique. Her fine black hair was gentle and supple, her snow white skin elegant and her eyes intelligent. Her appearance was truly exceptional, leaving Shi Hao momentarily absent-minded.

This person stood in this bone covered taboo land where flowers and plants shone with multicolored radiance. She was extremely special. Her snow-white clothes fluttered about, her divine charm otherworldly. She was truly exceptional.

Suddenly, an intense quake sounded in the skies above. Great dao poured down like a waterfall, and natural laws were like a sea, seemingly about to collapse the Blood Plains.

The War Emperor and old Celestial's battle had ended!

Chapter 715 - Most Ancient Being

Within the center of the bloody battlefield -- the taboo region, where white bones were piled up and flowers and plants thrived, an individual in snow white clothes stood alone. This was an extremely strange scene that did not really match. It was extremely mysterious.

Heaven and earth trembled greatly. Shi Hao hurriedly snapped back from his daze and retracted his eyes. He looked towards the heavens.

That battle had ended. Was the victor of the two great forbidden existences decided?

Who exactly won or lost? This momentary silence made this area of several hundreds of thousands of li suffocating to the extreme. All of the battles stopped. Everyone gazed towards the sky.

The blood moon suspended overhead. Yin mists pervaded the air. Heaven and earth was hazy and dark red, making everyone's moods nervous to the extreme.

It was because the results of this battle would be too great, truly able to affect the fate of their clans. If they lost, then the so-called Emperor Clan, Emperor Race might very well have been a pipe dream.

Their former glory and undying inheritance were going to go up in ashes from this battle, becoming a thing of the past.

Silence!

Heaven and earth was silent without a sound to be heard. There wasn't a trace of noise. Everything sank into a terrifying state of deathly stillness.

Battles had continuously happened in the Blood Plains. The Celestial Race and War Race's war had persisted all this time. Armored mounts galloped past, and blood dyed the blades of soldiers. Now, however, time seemed to have come to a standstill.

Everyone was waiting, all wishing to know the final result.

Reincarnation Mercenary Group, Heavenly Deity Mercenary Group, and the others, the most well known external powers also stopped, waiting for the result.

Wu...

Suddenly, a bugle horn sounded. It was boundless and forceful, oppressive and imposing, ringing through several hundreds of thousands of li. This was the War Race's call for their people to retreat.

"How could it be us? Has the War Emperor been defeated?!"

The instant the bugle horn sounded, for the War Race, it was like the end of the world. Everyone's faces turned snow white. They all suffered heavy psychological blows.

This was a call for unconditional retreat, as well as to immediately leave and stop all military force. What did this mean?

"How could this be? We are the War Emperor Clan, we live through battle, go crazy through battle, we've moved unhindered through all three thousand provinces. How could the ancient ancestor be defeated by anyone else?" Someone shouted loudly, unable to accept this result.

In the distance, the one-legged bull bugle horn's noise was oppressive. It was as if it came from the underworld, shaking the great earth until everything was shaking and requiring all of the War Clansmen to immediately retreat.

This was a tremendous psychological blow!

The War Race's armies retreated like a tide, carrying unwillingness, panic, and a type of fear as they did so. The great army lost their morale. A sea of corpses were left behind.

There were a few small mercenary groups that felt fearful. Their faces were deathly pale. They were scared, worried that the Celestial Race would come after them to settle things. This was supposed to be an opportunity for them, yet it ended like this.

"We won?" The Celestial Race was dumbstruck, and then they cheered. Loud shouts sounded throughout the Blood Plains loudly, celebrating this result.

They were originally extremely worried, because after all, the old celestial had just revived and it would be difficult for him to live. They feared that he wouldn't be the War Emperor's opponent. They never expected such a great result.

"Kill! We should now fight back. Today, we are going to wipe out the War Race, turning them into a thing of the past, never to bring us trouble again!" Someone shouted.

Cries of war rushed into the skies. The Celestial Race's morale was great. They all activated their precious techniques and prepared to attack and overcome their enemy.

However, something shocking happened.

Wuwu...

A rhinoceros horn sounded, one that carried a wave of sadness, as if it sounded from the ancient times. It tore through the air with a type of ancient great changes feeling.

This was the Celestial Race's precious artifact. It wasn't the bugle horn of attack, but rather one that demanded retreat, calling all of their clansmen to leave the Blood Plains and return to Heaven Province.

How could this be? Many people were stunned.

The Celestial Race also ordered retreat, not pursuing their retreating enemy. What exactly happened in the battle between the old Celestial and the War Emperor?

Many people were confused. They gazed into the night sky.

"I knew it would be this type of result." Reincarnation Mercenary Group's lord said softly. Then, with a wave of his hand, his powerful subordinates silently departed into the distance.

Not far away, Heavenly Deity Mercenary Group also left silently. None of them said anything.

Neither the higher levels of the War Race or Celestial Race, those Heavenly deities, said anything. It was because they had long known about the result.

The two powerful experts indeed fought, but it wasn't a fight to the death. At their cultivation realm, they understood each other too well, to the extent where they knew the other party even better than a family member.

If they really did fight to the death, perhaps one of them would die, but the other person's blood energy would wither up as well and enter a bitter state. Soon after, he would also depart from this world.

That was why even though the battle in outer space was intense, it still didn't reach a point where one couldn't exist in the same world as the other, an ultimate bloody struggle.

Otherwise, they would only be letting the other party off too easily, and the two clans would suffer greatly. Without a hundred thousand years to recover, they would be ruined and fall right there and then.

Meanwhile, the two clans' higher level figures, the Heavenly deities, clearly knew that since the two unrivaled experts were confronting each other, they immediately commanded their great troops to attack each other to produce a result.

This was a type of tacit understanding, a chance to go all out. This was also something the two ancient ancestors accepted. They were going to fight it out here to decide a victor.

It was because the battle could still be controlled. If the old Celestial and War Emperor fought to the death, then that would be a disaster. The fate of the clan would be difficult to control.

They weren't willing to go that far, not willing to stake everything here.

"It ended." Yun Xi cried out in joy. After fleeing for so many days and travelling several hundreds of thousands of li, everything was finally about to end.

She didn't notice the snow white clothed woman. She looked towards the horizon, feeling extremely stirred up. This meant that she could return to the clan, ending this great escape.

"What are you looking at?" She was shocked. She felt that Shi Hao was a bit absent-minded. He was staring into the depths of the taboo land, his eyes flickering with radiance.

"Nothing, You should leave first." Shi Hao said softly to her.

Yun Xi stared blankly. She quickly snapped back and understood what Shi Hao was implying. She knew that the situation wasn't right. She didn't argue with him, because her staying behind would only be a burden on him. After all, she hadn't started the 'Man to heaven' yet.

Shi Hao's attention was concentrated ahead. Multicolored light swirled in the void, covered with broken divine chains of order. There was a woman standing in the taboo area covered in white bones, so how could he not be on his guard?

"Were you the one that produced the lightning just now?" The snow-white clothed woman looked at him with interest. Her eyes were filled with specks of light as she transmitted divine sound.

Shi Hao's mind trembled. Could it be that he had been discovered by this woman when he fought against the True deity? The Lightning Emperor's precious technique's fame and power were extremely well known, so it would easily attract others' attention.

Light flowed about. A white jade bridge appeared, extending out from the depths of the taboo area towards his feet. A passage was created just like that, one that avoided the chaotic chains of order.

Shi Hao hesitated, but he still walked over towards the taboo area. The blood-colored ground, the white bones that were everywhere made this place seem like the underworld, yet there were still flowers and plants releasing multicolored light. There was even an exceptional beauty standing on the other side.

Shi Hao's eyes swept over the ground. His mind was greatly shaken. He saw that there was a broken cocoon shining, and the surroundings had a few traces of shedding remains. He immediately felt a chill that ran down to his bones.

Could it be that this woman... came out from a cocoon?

His mind was all over the place. This thought immediately gave him a fright. An exceptional expert had fallen here in the ancient past. Could she be that person?

Shi Hao stared at the cocoon and came to the conclusion that the cocoon hadn't been broken for long. He felt nervous inwardly. His heart was shaking. Right now, he was even more terrified than when the War Emperor and old Celestial confronted each other.

His face didn't change, maintaining a calmness. He played the profound thinker and said, "Too long, these hundred thousand years, the blue sea has turned into mulberry fields. I congratulate dao friend's successful rebirth."

"Lightning Emperor, you've also reincarnated?" The woman smiled, giving off a breathtaking feeling. Within this underworld of white bones, her white clothes made her extremely beautiful.

Shi Hao was immediately shaken up. He was stupefied. He originally wanted to try and fool the other person, but he was now absolutely horrified. What kind of background did she have? This was beyond frightening!

"All those years ago when you pledged your loyalty to me, how young you were back then. Your ambitions were far-reaching, but now, how did you become so low and foolish, eyes without any brilliance? It is a pity." The female's voice was like the sounds of nature as she shook her head with a sigh.

Shi Hao was stupefied. This was an old monster? Why did she sound like the Lightning Emperor's master? How ancient of a figure was this? It was even more distant than the archaic.

This... might very well be the most ancient existence alive, right?!

"A single immortal dream, and eras fade away. You still aren't going to come and pay your respects to your master?" The woman said with a serious expression. "I will help you establish your previous wisdom and reincarnate your memories."

Shi Hao was stupefied. What was going on? He was the Lightning Emperor's reincarnation? He felt as if the world was spinning around him.

"You can... recognize me?" Shi Hao summoned his courage and asked.

"All living things are speaking about how focused you are. You understand the root of things." The snow white clothed woman's beautiful eyes were deep. She had an appearance of bemoaning the state of the universe, as if she was pitying the fate of mankind as she looked at Shi Hao.

"You... understand the past, able to comprehend previous incarnations?" Shi Hao's mind was in utter chaos. He encountered a taboo existence that understood the past?"

"With just a turn of a body, the previous generations would appear, and by looking forward, it is the next life. A will that exists is the present." The woman's appearance was dignified, her style unmatched. She was incomparably beautiful and holy. Then she looked at Shi Hao, it was as if she was teaching a junior.

Shi Hao's scalp felt numb. He was completely shocked, almost unable to think straight. What kind of heaven connecting existence was this exactly, to have this type of methods?

"Disciple, you still aren't going to pay your respects?" The woman said.

Shi Hao hesitated. Paying his respects to a senior great one wasn't a loss for him, but his head was in chaos. How did he randomly end up encountering an unrivaled existence?

Suddenly, he saw that this woman's spotless white teeth were flickering with luster, the corners of her lips curled up slightly and a trace of craftiness flashing through her eyes. His mind was immediately startled. Things didn't really seem right!

How could covering up expressions belong to an old freak? This was clearly a quick-witted young lady. He soon understood that he... had been duped instead!

He immediately revealed a look of disdain, revealing discontent. This woman truly wasn't kind and honest.

It was clear that this young woman realized that he woke up. She immediately released a shallow smile and said, "Little brat, you still wanted to try and trick me. Are you the good-for-nothing the Devil Blood Ghost Tree was talking about?"

Shi Hao was going to faint. This young lady changed too greatly! She was acting all profound just a moment ago, yet now, she was acting witty, moreover directly talking about Origin Sky Secret Realm's ancient tree.

"Where did the Devil Blood Ghost Tree go?" He asked.

"Returned home." The young lady replied with a voice that was as light as a feather.

"You... came from the vast uninhabited region's depths?" Shi Hao's mind was greatly shaken.

"I guess you can't be called stupid. This immortal has just left my home. For that old tree's sake, I won't beat you. If it was anyone else, I would have definitely hung them up and beat him bad!" This young woman spoke domineeringly.

She was full of different appearances. When she was quiet, she was exceptional and solitary, but when she moved, she was crafty and quick-witted. When she started spouting nonsense, she then had this type of domineeringness...

When Shi Hao heard this, his complexion immediately changed, no longer believing that she came from the uninhabited region.

Chapter 716 - Ye Qingxian

"You... what kind of background do you have exactly?" Shi Hao asked.

"Didn't I already say I came from the homeland? Who do you think I am? An age identical to heaven and earth, shining together with the sun and moon." The snow-white clothed woman spoke extremely narcissistically.

Shi Hao shot her a look of disdain. He sized up the other party's strength, but he couldn't see how deep her cultivation was. Otherwise, he truly would have taken action.

"Looking at me like that, are you trying to challenge me? Do you want to get eaten up?" The snow-white clothed woman walked nimbly, her body shining. She gave Shi Hao a look that harbored evil intentions.

Shi Hao was speechless. He was actually being threatened!

"I just wanted to understand the situation and have no ill will. Who exactly are you?" Shi Hao gave the cocoon on the ground a look.

The snow white clothed woman immediately laughed and said, "You thought I came from the cocoon? This really disgraces this immortal's dignity."

When she spoke up to this point, she produced a jade container. One could vaguely see a strange divine bug that was two inches in length and sparkling with radiance. It looked quite similar to a Qilin!

"My luck wasn't bad. After searching the entire world, I finally caught a bug king. It should be able to evolve into a bug emperor." She was extremely happy as she fiddled with it.

Shi Hao was shocked. He only understood a bit more about bug emperors from Origin Sky Secret Realm. That Little thousand world had bug kings, but he didn't see any of them.

The snow-white clothed woman caught one, and it could evolve into a bug emperor!

"Are you sure of this?" Shi Hao was a bit suspicious, because he heard that as long as it became a bug emperor, it would display all types of unimaginable abilities.

“Of course, hehe, this one is quite unordinary you know? It is a legendary Qilin Bug, with one only appearing every thousands of eras. It is a precious bug out of legends. Once it turns into a bug emperor, not only will its fighting strength increase greatly, it will also have the divine senses of finding immortal materials. It is the most precious type of existence.”

It was clear that the snow-white clothed young lady was extremely happy. She played with the divine bug in the jade container. Her mood was excellent.

“How powerful is it now?” Shi Hao was quite curious as well. He wanted to understand how unordinary the Qilin bug was.

“Right now? It can eat supreme expert level weapons.” When the snow-white clothed lady spoke up to here, she produced a golden sky spear, shrunk it, and then tossed it into the container.

Kacha! nOVE-lb-In

Under Shi Hao’s stunned gaze, the Qilin Bug that was swirling with purple radiance chewed through the weapon and then began to gorge itself.

“It can eat supreme expert level weapons?” He was extremely shocked!

“It loves to eat any precious materials with spirituality, or else how will it find unmatched immortal materials in the future?” The snow-white clothed woman rolled her eyes at him. She continuously praised her own good luck.

After admiring the divine bug, she put away the jade container filled with symbols. She looked towards Shi Hao with her beautiful and intelligent eyes as if she was staring at prey. She walked a circle around him.

“You... what do you want?” Shi Hao was acting rather unnaturally. He was actually being examined like this. This woman was extremely mysterious. He couldn’t see through her cultivation realm, unable to tell how great her strength was.

“You are still not bad. I’ve decided...” The young lady nodded in satisfaction. She then paused momentarily.

“I am not someone that goes with anyone!” Shi Hao said directly, and then he added softly, “I need time to think about it...”

“Anyone my ass!” The snow-white clothed woman almost gave him a beating right there and then. Symbols actually interweaved within her beautiful and intelligent eyes, releasing intimidating divine radiance.

Shi Hao was shaken. This woman really was terrifying. He had a feeling that that was the beginning stages of a martial dao Heavenly eye!

This type of ability had nothing to do with cultivation realm, not something that one had just because their cultivation was profound. That was why it was something even sect masters were envious of. It was extremely rare.

"I decided. I'll reluctantly accept you as my attendant." Her clothes fluttered about. Her alluring figure was sparkling and shining, flowing with luster, seemingly untainted by the world of mortals.

However, her words made Shi Hao feel like he couldn't help but feel like beating her up. Why was this person even more deserving of a good beating than himself?

"Now that I came out, there's no way I'm going to do everything myself. There will have to be people who help me take care of things." She muttered softly as if no one else was here. It was as if she was thinking about a few extremely important matters.

"Being so busy, are you going to Immortal Palace to comprehend the dao or discuss methods with the War Emperor?" Shi Hao mocked.

The snow white clothed woman widened her eyes and said, "Yi, how did you know? I just went to Immortal Palace. That place really is boring. The so-called immortal ancient bronze palaces are filthy and covered in green copper rust."

"As a girl, you really are ridiculously pretty, but you really like to shoot your mouth!" Shi Hao really didn't know what was proper to say.

"The first half is already enough. The latter half can be completely ignored!" She corrected seriously.

Shi Hao was speechless.

He had to admit that this girl really was stunning. When they first met, he even became a bit absent-minded, a bit distracted by her beauty. She was so pretty it was like seeing someone out of a dream.

However, the more he understood about her character, the more of her many faces he discovered. Narcissism, craftiness, loved to bullshit, and extremely powerful. How she appeared when she was moving versus when she was still was too different.

"If there's nothing you need, I'm leaving." Shi Hao said his goodbyes. He felt that if he stayed here any longer, he would most likely suffer a loss. This woman was too evil!

"Are you going to Celestial Clan? That girl outside seemed a bit special. Could it be that she was the one that obtained the heaven's mandate stone?" The snow clothed woman spoke, her pair of intelligent large eyes shining.

Now, the so-called exceptional, unique, otherworldly characteristics completely disappeared. The feeling she gave off when they first met was completely different.

"That's good luck. I'll capture her, and then the heaven's mandate stone would be mine. That's good stuff." She said to herself. She looked outside the taboo area, the symbols in her eyes immediately becoming resplendent. The martial dao Heavenly eye formed, releasing two golden beams of light that were exceptionally brilliant.

"You shouldn't act recklessly. The old Celestial hadn't gone that far yet." Shi Hao's body shook. He advised, carrying out this warning.

"Tch, he and the War Emperor have both ran a long time ago. It's already quite something for them to fight each other once. They have to quickly go back into isolation to stop their blood energy from completely drying up." The snow clothed woman seemed not the least bit concerned.

However, she then muttered and said, "Forget it. This kind of stone I can find sooner or later. I won't make things difficult for her this time, because I still have to pay the old Celestial a visit. Not giving the other party any face like this isn't too good."

Shi Hao was completely speechless. Not a single one of this young lady's words were believable. This was just too much!

"Alright, you can leave. As someone under me, if you are bullied, you can give them my name." She waved her hand for Shi Hao to leave.

"Can you stop talking big already?" Shi Hao rolled his eyes. "Also, who are you? What am I even supposed to call you?"

Soon after, he regretted uttering those words, because the young lady began to brag again.

"Sigh, truly saddening. Just accepting a servant, yet I have to put up with this. If it was two years ago when I still haven't grinded out my inner rashness and inexperience, I would have definitely first given you a beating."

Shi Hao watched helplessly. He finally met someone that was even more arrogant than himself.

"Remember, I am Ye Qingxian. If anyone tries to make things difficult for you, just utter my name and you'll be fine," said the snow clothed woman. She then waved her hand to have him leave.

Shi Hao didn't want to stay behind even a moment longer. If not for the fact that there really was a 'disparity' between their strength, he would have definitely thrown himself over and subdued this snow clothed woman.

"Right, I forgot to tell you. Don't just casually report my name unless you are facing people like the old celestial or War Emperor." Ye Qingxian reminded extremely seriously.

Shi Hao stumbled, almost falling off the white jade bridge leading into the central taboo region. He said to himself, "In the future... I won't ever shoot my mouth again!"

When he left the heart of this battlefield for a hundred li, Shi Hao found Yun Xi and regrouped with her.

"What was there inside the taboo region?" Yun Xi asked. She was quite shocked just now, because there were two golden beams of light that rushed over from that direction.

"Nothing important, just some shattered natural laws. The divine chains of order might have become chaotic just now," Shi Hao said. He didn't want to mention the snow clothed woman, because what happened just now really didn't make him look all that great.

The bugle horn was still sounding from the distance, oppressive and forceful as if an ancient beast was roaring from the ninth heaven. The sound resounded through the entire Blood Plains.

"You should go back," Shi Hao said. He looked at the girl in front of him.

When Yun Xi heard this, her expression became a bit sluggish. The youth in front of her had protected her through the Blood Plains for several hundred thousand li. They travelled together this entire time, and if not for him being there, she would have most likely been captured or killed.

“You won’t come with me to Heaven Province?” Her red lips moved slightly. She wanted to invite Shi Hao to the Celestial Clan.

“We journeyed together for so long, but there will be a time when we have to part ways. There will be a day when we will meet each other again. This time, I won’t go together with you.” Shi Hao said. He did not want to go to the Celestial Clan.

“But it’s extremely dangerous right now! You killed a War King and provoked a huge disaster. The War Clan definitely won’t let this go. It’s still best if you return with me to the clan...” Yun Xi advised.

Shi Hao shook his head. If he went to the Celestial Race, once time went on, his identity would likely be revealed. There were Heavenly deities there, and even more an old Celestial that founded an archaic glorious legend.

“Thank you. Without you, I would have most likely died.” Yun Xi expressed her gratitude.

“Go, I’ll take you to a safe place. Perhaps in the future, I’ll visit the Celestial Clan as a guest. When that time comes, it’ll be enough if you just receive me then.” Shi Hao said with a smile.

Seeing how free and at ease he was, how brilliant his smile was, Yun Xi sighed softly. Then, she nodded and said, “You definitely have to be careful. The War Clan is extremely terrifying.”

Shi Hao displayed the Earth to inches great divine ability, and soon after, departed from the center of this battlefield. He rushed outwards, quickly finding a group of people belonging to the Celestial Race’s troops.

“Goodbye!”

After saying his goodbyes, he turned around. His figure became blurry on the horizon. He quickly left.

Finally, when no one was around him, he even used the Kun Peng technique. With a flash, he left behind an afterimage, thus disappearing from this region.

Shi Hao went into hiding. He understood well that regardless of whether it was the Celestial Race or the War Race, they both had Heavenly deity level experts that were still in these plains. That’s why he entered deep beneath the earth and restrained his aura, waiting for the storm to calm.

However, he miscalculated. In just two days, an intense wave of energy tore through the earth. Someone cut through everything!

He knew things weren’t good. He quickly fled into the distance, using the great divine ability, shrinking several dozen li to inches as he fled, wishing to flee from the ones that had invaded.

Unfortunately, a powerful wave of energy surrounded him, imprisoning him. It was an expanse of resplendent divine chains of order that interweaved together around him, and then it pulled him out from the earth.

Heavenly deity magical chains!

Shi Hao was shocked. He was sure that a Heavenly deity was the one that took action, capturing him and bringing him to the surface.

"Little friend, why are you leaving without saying anything?" This was a middle-aged male with an upright and tall figure. His eyes were deep, as if they could see through one's soul.

He wore purple clothes. Around him, Heavenly deity divine chains protected him, shining brilliantly and resplendently. They interweaved about in every inch of the void, surrounding him.

This was a Heavenly deity that came from the Celestial Clan.

"I wish to know, why did you come looking for me?" Shi Hao didn't reveal any fear and instead calmly asked.

"You ate a Celestial pill, so if you as long as you are not too far away, you can still be found." The middle-aged man smiled.

Shi Hao was stunned. So this was where the problem laid.

"Little friend, do not be worried. I do not mean any harm, I just wish you to come to my clan as a guest and thank you for saving Yun Xi." This Heavenly deity loosened the magical chains.

Chapter 717 - City of Heaven

"Senior, I appreciate your kindness, but I still have a few matters to take care of, so I won't trouble the Celestial Clan." Shi Hao tactfully refused.

These Blood Plains were no longer chaotic, having peace restored. The troops of both sides withdrew one after another, and the great earth gradually became desolate. Only a few experts still roamed this place.

"How could we just leave it like this? You saved Yun Xi and escorted her with your life on the line. It is only proper that my clan thanks you properly." Qi Tuo said.

His purple clothes moved, exuding an air of nobility. Heavenly deity magical chains wrapped around him, and the mists of light in the surroundings were dense. He looked to be about forty years old. His eyes were shining.

Shi Hao didn't want to go to the Celestial Clan, but he knew that he likely couldn't go against the will of a Heavenly deity. After all, with his current strength, it was hard to get away.

"I greatly revere the Emperor Race. I will definitely pay a visit a different day." He didn't want to give up until the end.

Qi Tuo laughed and said, "Little friend has so many misgivings, but there is actually no need to be like that. We just wanted to wanted to fully express our gratitude."

In the surroundings, magical chains interweaved, forming a resplendent web that was mysterious and powerful, making the Heavenly deity at the center appear incomparably heroic.

In the end, Shi Hao and Qi Tuo went on their way. With a Heavenly deity inviting him with such great hospitality, he had no choice and couldn't refuse.

The Blood Plains were quickly left behind, gradually becoming blurry. It eventually became just a smear of dark redness.

Heaven Province was verdant and lush with life. Great hills stood magnificently, and spiritual essence curled about.

Compared to Demon Province, Heaven Province was spacious, vast, and peaceful, a place of great prospering. Every clan was thriving with deities appearing in great numbers. Conflict rarely broke out. There were many wonderful legends.

Along the way, there were many immortal ancient caves and large hills of primal chaos. There were demic cliffs and stone forests, places that connected to the heavens. There were too many wondrous places and historical sites to count.

"Mo Xi!"

Yun Xi was shocked when she saw Shi Hao in a city. She hadn't returned to the clan yet, but she already arrived in a safe place. This was a celestial city.

"We meet again." Shi Hao said with a smile.

The celestials in the surroundings looked over, because right now, Yun Xi's identity was not ordinary. In the future, she would definitely become an extremely powerful expert.

Shi Hao didn't understand why the Celestial Race's important people didn't leave and chose to stop here.

"We are looking for the other two," Yun Xi said softly.

There was a large group of youngsters from the Celestial Race that entered the mysterious ancient place, but only four obtained heaven's mandate stones and merged with them. This was a reflection of extremely great potential.

Along the way back, they had been scattered. Heavenly deities protected them as they separately fled.

Now, together with Yun Xi, there were two who made it out. The whereabouts of the other two were unknown. The Celestial Clan's higher levels would definitely not give up on them, continuing to search for them.

"We discovered a few clues. Regardless of whether they are alive or dead, they were traces from the past few days," Yun Xi said.

Hou!

A day later, an enormous roar sounded. A mountain peak in the distance collapsed. A Heavenly deity appeared on the horizon, his head of hair standing on end. Divine force surged, and flames rushed into the heavens.

He was furious to the limit. He carried a badly mangled body within his arms as he descended into the celestial city. This triggered quite a huge disturbance. Important characters all hurried back.

"Immediately return to the clan and place him in the divine pool. Perhaps he can still be saved." Qi Tuo said softly.

One of the two important youngsters had already died, and this one only had the final trace of vitality left. This individual's primordial spirit was cracking part, the damage extremely severe.

"Go!" The Heavenly deity whose eyes were covered in bloody veins carried this youngster towards the heart of the city. It was because there was an enormous transport formation that could cross several tens of millions of li there.

Heaven Province was grand and boundless. There were many clans. Meanwhile, the Celestial Race's ancestral land was still quite far from this place, so they had to borrow this kind of formation.

The expressions of everyone were grave. They started up an ancient altar, stepped into the light passage, and then went on their way.

These people disappeared from the city and arrived in a great earth that was full of spiritual essence. There was a city here that had magnificent mountains. This was the Celestial Race's territory.

When one entered this place, rich spiritual essence could immediately be felt. It was much more dense than in the outside world. Cultivating here long-term would result in twice the effect with half the effort.

There was no way the transport formation could directly send them into the ancestral land. Otherwise, if enemies invaded, it would be too convenient.

A purple bone boat rested in the air. It was extremely large and had been prepared a long time ago.

When this group of people appeared, it immediately descended and carried everyone into the limits of the great earth, speeding towards the Celestial Race's holy land.

Below them appeared quite a few cities. They were all quite enormous, the places where the Celestial Race resided. The area beneath them was extremely vast. The aura of experts would occasionally rise into the clouds.

Soon after, they arrived in a mountain range where purple energy surged. It was as if a True Dragon was coiling about, resting here. An immortal dao aura could vaguely be felt.

This was their ancestral land. The large crystalline bone boat, after an inspection, stopped. After being illuminated by a beam of holy radiance, it disappeared from its original spot.

Shi Hao was speechless. This holy land's defenses were strict. It was difficult for those outside the race to muddle their way in. novel 18-1n

Multicolored light flashed. The boat appeared in the void, and then it descended onto the ground. They had already arrived in the mountain range depths.

In the surroundings, several tens of thousands of zhang of great mountains towered into the clouds, imposing and majestic. Waterfalls descended from above, and it was as if silver rivers fell from the nine heavens as they formed great white expanses.

In addition, every single great mountain was surrounded by immortal mists and flowing with brilliant colors. The clouds were suffused with a redness. It was an extremely gorgeous sight.

Honglonglong!

The great earth trembled. A group of enormous Golden Elephants ran over. Their bodies were golden and shone brightly. Their elephant noses were held high. They released thunderous noises.

Hou!

In the distance, there was a silver violent ape that roared angrily, beating its own chest. Blood energy surged into the heavens. It was actually at the True deity realm. It was actually herding, protecting a group of auspicious beasts.

Even further out, a group of seven-colored divine birds flew about, streaking across the horizon. They produced brilliant streaks of colors in the air.

The medicinal fragrance on the great mountains assailed the nostrils. Within the stone cracks, mountain peaks, and other places, rare and precious trees, and ancient vines were planted, all of them laden with golden fruits, scarlet red flowers, and other things.

"So many spiritual birds, auspicious beasts, and rare plants. It really is a good place." Shi Hao said softly.

"This is my Celestial Race's pasture and medicinal garden. It spans a distance of a hundred thousand li." Yun Xi explained for him.

"What?" Shi Hao's jaw almost dropped onto the ground. He thought that this was already the holy land, but it turned out that this was just a corner of it. This mountain range actually covered a hundred thousand li.

There were all types of divine beasts, wondrous bugs, and other things in this region. There were large amounts of rare precious trees and herbs. When the high level of the Celestial Clan needed something, they would get most of it from here.

For example, the Giant Golden Elephant, Barbaric Flame Ox, Seven Colored Spirit Birds, were all excellent food. In the outside world, they were all vicious birds and ferocious beasts, powerful and difficult to defeat.

There was a great formation protecting this area of a hundred thousand li. Back then, when they fought against the War Clan, they suffered from the attacks of a War Emperor, but even then, only the mountains and rivers collapsed, not completely destroying this place.

It could be seen how sturdy this place was. The formation's defensive strength was at the forefront of the three thousand provinces.

"Where do you all live?" Shi Hao asked.

“Over there.” Yun Xi pointed, raising her head towards the sky.

“That’s...” Shi Hao was shocked. Above the several tens of thousands zhang tall mountains, purple energy surged. An ancient city was supported in midair, resting in the heavens.

While speaking, dao sounds rumbled. An enormous white jade staircase appeared that connected straight to the ground. It flowed with brilliant colors and was accompanied by immortal mist.

“So strict?” Shi Hao was shocked.

If one wanted to enter the highest divine earth of the Celestial Race, they actually had to pass through layers upon layers of inspections. The examinations were extremely strict.

“Correct, even if it is the clan’s higher level figures that return, they still have to go through this. It is to avoid the intrusion of outsiders,” Yun Xi replied. As for the others, they were already long used to this and didn’t say anything.

During this process, there were always mysterious symbols that swept past, examining if there are any dangers.

The enormous city was vast, large and unbounded. It left Shi Hao extremely shocked. This was definitely the largest city he had ever seen. While standing in this city, he felt as insignificant as an ant.

Above the city gates that were even taller than a mountain floated a bone inscribed tablet that flowed with holy splendor. Mists pervaded the air. He could vaguely see the large simple and unadorned words on it: City of Heaven.

This was the true ancestral land, the highest level pure land of the former Emperor Clan. The celestials with the purest bloodlines resided here.

It didn’t rest on the ground, but was instead situated in the sky. Large amounts of great hills rose and fell. Purple energy was released, the mists supporting this city. Purple light flowed about, surging upwards like a flame.

“Worthy of being one of the ten greatest races, one of the higher realms’ Emperor Clans.” Shi Hao sighed inwardly. This corner of what he saw alone was enough for him to peer into their past glory.

This race was seated in the ninth heaven, overlooking all things. They were able to have this type of boldness and attitude.

Surprisingly, the city was not packed with buildings. The scenery was beautiful, and there were actually many spiritual mountains. There were also streets and large amounts of constructs, but there were even more immortal cave dwellings.

No wonder the city was so big. There was another world inside.

After returning, those Heavenly Deities directly disappeared, carrying the wounded youngster towards the archaic divine pond within the city to baptise and treat his injuries.

Shi Hao had a place next to an azure lake arranged for him. The scenery was exceptionally beautiful, and in front of an expanse of green and lush bamboo forest was a fine residence. Spiritual essence rose in spirals.

At first, Yun Xi accompanied him to help him become familiar with the surrounding environment. However, she was quickly summoned away.

"Little friend, many thanks for saving Yun Xi. My Celestial Race cannot thank you enough." An old woman appeared who wore golden magical robes. She looked rather kind.

Shi Hao didn't dare act recklessly here and returned the greeting. It was because this was actually a True deity that was receiving him. She arranged a tableful of dishes and delivered divine wine.

"If I may ask, does little friend have a dao companion?" The old woman was smiling. Her head of silver hair was sparkling, and the divine flame was restrained. She was extremely easy-going.

Shi Hao thought to himself, and after some slight hesitation, said, "I still do not."

"Good, good, good!" The old woman was extremely satisfied, saying good three times in succession. She personally brought over more dishes for Shi Hao. She sized him up again and again.

"Little friend is heroic and outstanding, truly a dragon among men. Your potential is outstanding and rarely seen throughout all three thousand provinces. No wonder you could kill a War King." The old woman praised unendingly.

"I do not deserve senior's praise." Shi Hao said, proposing a toast towards her.

"Being able to kill exceptional talents is truly deserving the title of young hero. Really is rare talents!" The old woman seemed more satisfied the more she looked at him. The wrinkles on her face seemed like they were going to vanish.

The azure lake and fresh green bamboo appeared even more peaceful under the light wind.

"Cultivation is a comprehension of life, and a dao companion is indispensable, or else how can one be complete? Little friend, you should begin to think about choosing a dao companion," the old woman smiled and said.

Chapter 718 - Living With Wife's Family?

"Dao companion, cultivation, life..." Shi Hao stroked his chin without declaring his intentions.

"Youth is when one is at their most brilliant. It should be like the rosy clouds of sunrise, the flowers of summer that leave behind their beauty, not the loneliness of autumn filled with bleakness and regret," the old woman sighed with sorrow.

Then, the old woman got up. She did not continue into a deep conversation.

She left behind two young ladies who were pure, refined, and had good looks. They were in charge of tending to Shi Hao's everyday life.

“She’s leaving just like that? She even mentioned dao companions, so what about exceptional beauties? Why did she not mention them?” Shi Hao said quietly, looking at the old woman’s rear figure rather impatiently.

The two young ladies were stunned, and then they giggled up their sleeves, eventually swaying back and forth from laughter.

“I’m actually not all that reserved and aloof. She could have just sat down and discussed things with me.” He poured a drink for himself.

The two young ladies were between laughter and tears. Was this the heaven warping genius the clan’s deities favored? This was a bit too undisciplined, right? The two were both pursing their lips and secretly laughing.

“Yi, turns out that it is your two? The so-called dao companions, they gave me two at once?” Shi Hao turned around and looked at the two young ladies. His large eyes shone brilliantly.

“Aiya, we aren’t!” The two young ladies’ beautiful faces went pale, looking like two deers as they quickly backed up.

“Should be, right?” Shi Hao laughed as he looked these two over.

Xiu!

The two young ladies ran with great speed into the bamboo forest, staying far away from the azure lake. Only then did they look at each other in dismay.

“It was too scary! Is that fella really a genius, the one that killed a War King?”

“Why do I feel like he is up to no good, without any integrity?!”

By the azure lake, Shi Hao’s smile was restrained. He looked in the direction where they disappeared into, and with a frown, said softly to himself, “My reputation is world renowned you know...”

He was a bit upset. How was he going to leave the Celestial Clan? If this continued for a long time, his identity would definitely be exposed. He wouldn’t even be able to hide it if he tried.

He carried the wine cup as he stood up, walking within the bamboo forest until he arrived before a stone mountain. He ascended to its peak and then gazed at the beautiful scenery of the lake. In reality, he was secretly watching the entire enormous city.

Unfortunately, the city was too large, just like a small world of its own. He couldn’t see its limit. There were many immortal caves, and the beautiful mountain peaks were swirling with pure-white immortal mists.

In addition, there were wide streets, as well as large amounts of palace buildings and other normal city constructs.

Even without thinking too deeply, he knew that the entire City of Heaven had a world shocking great formation protecting it. Forget about him, even if it was a Heavenly deity, it would be difficult to break through. There was no way of getting out.

Soon after, the two young ladies then returned again to carefully take care of him. From their explanation of the surrounding scenery to the tea, wine, and dishes that were served, it was all done extremely seriously.

Of course, the main thing was that Shi Hao didn't scare them again. "Is there any wonderful scenery here worth seeing?" Shi Hao was extremely bored. He asked these two young ladies.

"The entire City of Heaven is a holy land, a supreme pure land. Many clansmen wish to come in, but they don't have the qualifications to do so. There are magnificent landscapes everywhere," one of the young ladies said.

"Is there any area that is more special? For example, a True Dragon cave, Immortal Phoenix nest, War Emperor grave, oops, I mean unmatched celestial tomb or something else like that?" Shi Hao gave examples.

The two young ladies rolled their eyes. What kind of places were these?! True Dragon, Immortal Phoenix, these weren't like snakes or pheasants, they were part of the vicious ten, so how could there be traces of them here?

"Great one, it is better if your distinguished self is a bit more careful when speaking. We are the Celestial Clan, so how can there be a War Emperor tomb? Also, it is best if you do not mention the unmatched celestial's tomb to avoid breaking taboos." A young lady muttered.

"Alright!" Shi Hao said while consoling his forehead.

The other young lady's large eyes moved about, revealing an amused expression. "Great one, we know an ancient place that might be related to immortals."

"Where is it? Hurry and bring me there!" Shi Hao developed interest. After being cooped up here for all this time, he really was bored.

The two young ladies gave each other a look. They were going to bring him there originally, and now that they didn't have any excuses left, it was a good time to do so.

They made their way through the flourishing downtown area, and then they passed several cave dwellings, arriving at a dignified and holy martial arena. There were people cultivating here, but not too many.

The martial arena was quite spacious, covering a range of several dozen li.

There were some seated, some doing breathing exercises. This place had a strange natural dao, as well as spiritual essence several times richer than other places. It was extremely suited to cultivation.

The martial arena had a strange stone in its depths, an ancient monument that seemed to be made of jade. It was a zhang tall and not all that large, situated right here.

"This is it? It doesn't seem that special?" Shi Hao was confused.

"Great one, it is called Flying Immortal stone and quite strange. From time to time, it would release an immortal-like rain of light that is incomparably brilliant. Also, by standing in front of it, it can reflect one's self and increase one's self understanding. It could also allow them to comprehend the dao," a young lady explained.

"Oh, speak about it more in detail." Shi Hao became a bit interested.

"Regarding the fFlying immortal rain of light, it is a bit fleeting. After all, it would be hard for it to appear even after tens of generations. Meanwhile, the self illumination can be carried out at any time, especially if one is an exceptional talent. It can allow one to view their own bones, blood, flesh, and other parts, allowing them to comprehend their own dao and methods further."

"So that's how it is..." Shi Hao looked pensively. He strolled over and stood in front of the Flying Immortal stone.

At this moment, not only the two young ladies, but even the others raised their eyebrows. They paid close attention.

The Flying Immortal stone trembled. Everyone became shocked, widening their eyes. They then carefully observed, finding that it was dim and without luster, calming down again without any reaction.

"Sigh!" Some people sighed lightly.

The two young ladies were clearly disappointed. One of them said, "Is great one not an exceptional talent?"

"Why do you ask like this?" Shi Hao didn't turn around. He was quite shocked. He was suppressing himself. Just now, he had the urge to comprehend the dao!

This was a great treasure. If he could cultivate here, he would definitely obtain great benefits!

"This stone is extremely special. Regardless of whether it is the immortal bones, divine skin, condensed blood bestowed by the heavens, it can all be displayed," said a young lady. To put it briefly, it could examine exceptional talents' innate true bones and other things.

Soon after, everything that happened here was reported to that golden magic-robed old woman. When she heard this, she said to herself, "What a pity, he's not an exceptional talent."

Then, she asked, "Did you not have him try to shake up the Flying Immortal stone?"

"No." The person that came shook his heads.

"Being able to kill a War King is enough to prove how extraordinary he is. His fighting strength is terrifying. Everything is good except for this small defect, not being an exceptional talent." The old woman said softly.

Shi Hao was reluctant to part from the martial arena, really not wanting to go. He wanted to bring this stone away. Just now, he actually wanted to comprehend the dao.

After all, in that moment of distraction, he could vaguely sense a Flying immortal brilliance. It was mysterious and terrifying!

The City of Heaven was extremely vast and incomparably enormous. However, there were many places that one couldn't get closer to. There were fiery cliffs for pill concoction, ancient caves for storing scriptures, dao comprehending mountains, and Heavenly deity residences.

Two days later, Shi Hao couldn't sit still any longer. If he stayed any longer, his true identity might be unveiled, and an old Celestial might revive to watch him. It would be extremely terrifying.

"Please help me deliver a message, saying that it is my great fortune to have visited the Celestial Race's pure land and that it was an honor, but I have things to take care of, so I have no choice but to take my leave." Shi Hao had these two young ladies pass on this message.

When the old woman Xi Xia obtained this message, she personally hurried over. Even though she was only a True deity, she was in charge of Shi Hao's matters, proving her importance to the related parties.

A heavenly warping genius like this was worth roping in. When they learned from Yun Xi that he killed a War King, many people in this race felt fearful.

"Little friend, there is no need to be in such a rush to leave. We have been refining a furnace of precious pills these past few days, so if you wait, we have a gift for you."

"Senior is too generous. I do not need pill medicines." Shi Hao spoke humbly. He just wanted to leave, even though he wasn't willing to give up on that Flying Immortal stone.

"This is a Divine Flame Pill, something that can only be refined through many heavenly materials and treasures. It is extremely precious. It is extremely important for you right now as well," said the old woman.

When Shi Hao heard this, he was a bit tempted.

The Divine Flame Realm was extremely critical. This was a dividing line. If one's backing was great enough when breaking through, his strength would shoot up greatly. This affected his future accomplishments!

The Divine Flame Pill was created precisely for this reason.

Of course, he also had quite a brilliant foundation on this matter. He could find Star essence, Nine Underworld flame and other legendary divine flames to build this realm. It would be dangerous and terrifying, but perhaps his accomplishments would be even more brilliant.

Apart from this, there were people who obtained the Ten Thousand Ancient immortal flame, Primal chaos flame, and others. Unfortunately, in the end, they all burned themselves to death and didn't succeed.

Regardless, however, the Divine Flame Pill was essential. When igniting the divine flame, one needed its support. It was similar to firewood.

"Little friend saved Yun Xi, and we have not been able to repay you for this favor. We plan to gift you a Divine Flame Pill," said the old woman.

"The value of a Divine Flame Pill was shocking, because it needed many rare precious medicines. Meanwhile, the Celestial Race directly gave him one, so this was quite the expense.

"Many thanks for senior's kindness!" What else could Shi Hao say? If someone was willing to gift him this to make him stay... then he could only accept it all!

The old woman Xi Xia smiled. If they could truly make Shi Hao stay, forget about a Divine Flame Pill, it would be fine even if they gave him even more precious things. This was a young talent that could kill a War King!

"About the dao companion topic I raised the last time, have you thought it over?" Xi Xia asked.

"I still don't think it is too good of an idea. Yun Xi is the Celestial Race's pearl, and now that she merged with the heaven's mandate stone, she will be greatly focused upon. If me and Yun Xi become dao companions, I fear that I will make the entire Celestial Clan's younger generation my enemy," Shi Hao said.

The True deity Xi Xia was speechless. This youngster's skin really was this thick? She didn't even say that much, yet he already began to pick and select on his own, already choosing a target?

Apart from this, when she thought about how this youngster mumbled behind her back about how he wasn't all that reserved or aloof, that they shouldn't hesitate in bringing him a dao companion or an exceptional beauty, the old woman Xi Xia felt her forehead began to crease.

Was this youngster reliable at all? If they gave him a clansman to become his dao companion, would it be like throwing them into a pit of fire?

"Ah, right, senior, where is Yun Xi? I haven't seen here these past few days." Shi Hao asked. novel 18-1n

"She is merging with the heaven's mandate stone, so she can only come out after a few days," Xi Xia replied. When she looked at this fella, she felt more and more like he wasn't reliable. He was a bit too spontaneous!

This shouldn't be a wanton child that does what he wishes right? She frowned.

"My Celestial Race has three pearls in total, and every single one of them is an exceptional beauty whose names can shake dozens of provinces. Many people wish to give priceless gifts to ask for their hand in marriage, but they have all been refused." The old woman Xi Xia said.

Even though she was a True deity, on this aspect, she really wasn't lying. There were countless Celestial Race individuals, and as a former Emperor Clan, their most dazzling exceptional beauties were naturally extremely important. Their names shook through every clan.

"Three brilliant pearls, exceptional beauties... is senior planning on making all of them my dao companions? Why don't I give them a look then," Shi Hao said.

Xi Xia's eyelids jumped!

"No one can marry three people at the same time!" She began to feel a bit of regret. This youngster was too brash, making others feel worried. She had never met such an 'unreserved' person before!

"Is Yun Xi also one of these three?" Shi Hao asked.

"She is!" The True deity Xi Xia replied without that great of a tone now.

"I met her already, so what about the other two? Will they show themselves soon?" Shi Hao's skin really was thick.

From the side, the two young ladies who were in charge of tending to him immediately laughed in secret. They had never met such a daring person before. Is he not scared of scaring the bride's side of the family? Fortunately, the other two pearls are not here, or else they would definitely wish to give him a beating.

"My Celestial Race's pearls will not marry someone outside our clan. Normally speaking, they will all become dao companions after joining my Celestial Race." Xi Xia said with a darkened face.

"Isn't it just living with the wife's family? I understand!" Shi Hao nodded, putting on a completely understanding look. He had on a rather fearless and nonchalant appearance.

The True deity Xi Xia was speechless.

She looked Shi Hao up and down, wishing to back out of this. She felt that this fella was not of the good sort.

This place immediately became quiet.

"Senior, can four people not be dao companions together?" Shi Hao took the initiative to start up the conversation again.

Four people... three pearls plus him? Xi Xia's brows stood vertically, and veins jumped on her forehead. She really wanted to give him a beating.

Soon after, when the two exceptional beauties obtained these news, they hurried over there with unkind expressions, looking like they were about to harshly berate him.

"If you want to become dao companions with us, unless you can raise the Flying Immortal stone, even if you are an exceptional talent, it wouldn't be enough!"

Chapter 719 - A Pair of Stunning Pearls

The city had wide streets, bluestone covered ground, and building complexes at both sides of the streets. There were spiritual mountains surging with multicolored clouds resting one after another. It was an extremely unique place.

The two ladies ran like the wind, crossing through the skies quickly towards the azure lake where Shi Hao resided, towards the fine house inside the bamboo forest.

"Yi, someone came. There is a unique fragrance. I feel like it should be two young ladies," Shi Hao said.

The True deity Xi Xia gave him a look that was not that happy, throwing away all of the solemnness a deity ought to have and revealed different emotions. She just felt like this youth wasn't that reliable.

Under the breeze, the green and lush bamboo forest shone. Through the branches, one could see two young ladies quickly approaching, passing above the lakes, their clothes fluttering about.

“Fairy walking over ripples.” Shi Hao widened his eyes. When he looked forward, he saw an extremely beautiful scene. Two unmatched beauties were standing on the small azure lake, their beautiful hair dancing about and their eyes clear like water. It was as if immortals descended into this world.

“Senior, are these the two you mentioned? I... definitely have no complaints!” Shi Hao said extremely directly.

All of the happiness the old woman felt before was gone. She had complaints, moreover extremely great ones!

These were two young ladies with completely different temperaments. They were both incomparably beautiful.

One of them had red-colored clothes that touched the ground, as if she was a red spider lily, sexy and gorgeous. She carried a mysterious aura, as well as a head of long red hair that scattered behind her snow white neck.

The other one had otherworldly white clothes and green hair that fluttered about. She was quiet and elegant like a blossoming lotus. As her jade feet touched the surface of the lake, it produced rings of blue ripples, light and skillful as she arrived.

These two were not smiling. They were originally exceptionally beautiful, but now, they were expressionless as they entered the bamboo forest. After showing the old woman an act of respect, they sat down on their own.

They didn’t even give Shi Hao a look. Just now, they obtained news that an extremely ‘unreserved’ fella had set his eyes on them, so they hurriedly rushed over.

The two were extremely unsatisfied, because they were always the one that were in control. There had never been had marriage matters pushed onto them, yet recently, there were actually people in the clan that hinted towards them that they should select a dao companion.

It was clear that it was to be this person in front of them.

In these past years, young outstanding talents and heavenly geniuses all visited their gates with great gifts to propose marriage, but they were all refused. Why were they now acting so voluntarily like this?

The two completely ignored Shi Hao and chatted with Xi Xia, not even giving him a look. They sat on the stone blocks while sipping on fragrant tea. It was just like a gathering of heavenly celestials.

Under this type of strange atmosphere, Shi Hao didn’t act embarrassed and instead sized up the two incredible young ladies in front of him.

He didn’t say anything as he stared at them, from their fine facial features down their smooth long hair. He looked at their snow white necks, soft willow waist, long and slender beautiful legs up and down, again and again, nonstop.

In the end, the two young ladies really couldn’t take it anymore. Those invasive eyes were just like little bugs that crawled up and down their bodies. They both glared at him.

“What are you looking at, pervert?” The fiery red-clothed young lady turned around to look at him. There were flames burning within her beautiful eyes, appearing extremely angry and embarrassed.

“May I ask for your name?” Shi Hao smiled.

The red-clothed woman frowned. This fella’s skin was too thick, right? Even in this type of confrontation, he actually had the nerve to ask for her name. Light flashed within her eyes. She was becoming more and more discontent.

“She is one of my Celestial Race’s most beautiful pearls, Red Spider Lily[1].” The True deity Xi Xia said.

Shi Hao was speechless. This name... really was fitting. If this woman wasn’t so angry, she would be sexy and fierce, brilliant and beautiful like a demonic flower in full bloom.

“Then I am looking at you, Red Spider Lily,” Shi Hao said with a smile, responding to what the young lady said out of rage.

Red Spider Lily stared at him, feeling more and more that this fella’s skin was really thick. He was definitely not a good person. no vE-lb)In

“This one is...” What made Red Spider Lily upset was that the fella who was still smiling and staring at her turned around and changed targets to ask the white clothed woman.

“Her name is Fu Qu[2], also one of my clan’s pearls.” The True deity Xi Xia introduced.

Shi Hao was stupefied. They unexpectedly both had flowers as their names, but it really did suit their temperaments. This one was refined and aloof, elegant and not temptatious.

“When watching from afar, you are brilliant like the multicolored brilliance of a rising sun, but upon closer inspection, you are like a lotus releasing green waves,” Shi Hao said. He gifted these words of praise, and then he added, “Beautifully pure, but not overly temptatious.”

Fu Qu revealed a faint smile, but there was still an aura of being a thousand li away. She did not show much emotions or response.

“What are you trying to imply?” Red Spider Lily was annoyed, shooting him a look of disdain, “Are you saying that I am too flirtatious?”

“No, you are thinking too much. How could I mock my dao companion?” Shi Hao said, talking drivel.

When these words sounded, several jaws dropped.

Red Spider Lily directly stood up, so angry her wonderful body was shaking. Forget about her not agreeing, even if her clansmen did arrange for this, he still couldn’t be this direct, right?

Shi Hao became doubtful, expressing his confusion. He looked towards the old woman and said, “Senior, didn’t you arrange things? These two are not my dao companions?”

A teng sounded. Even the tranquil and exquisite Fu Qu stood up. Her hair flew about, and the sleeves of her clothes moved about. This fella’s skin was too thick!

There was even less of a need to talk about Red Spider Lily. Her cheeks were swollen and she was about to flip out. Her fiery red dress danced about chaotically, and her entire body flowed with scarlet multicolored light. Her sparkling white face was filled with anger.

She couldn't stay calm. "You want to become dao companions with both of us at the same time?!"

If not for having misgivings about her own conduct, she would have directly screamed. This youngster was too greedy, actually wanting to marry both of them.

"This shouldn't be the case, right? Senior, could it be that I misunderstood?" Shi Hao gave the True deity Xi Xia an extremely helpless look.

The old woman's face was darker than dark. This youngster's appetite was too great. Was he trying to overturn the skies? She truly wanted to beat the shit out of him!

"How about... just one then." Shi Hao said to himself, a rather unwilling look appearing on his face. He then stared at the two young ladies, looking left and right, as if it was an extremely difficult choice.

"You!" Regardless of whether it was Red Spider Lily or Fu Qu, they were both about to explode from anger.

On the side, the two maids were laughing so hard they were about to roll on the ground. How could this fella be so amusing? This was too greedy! Could it be that he was a muscle head with no brains, not understanding anything else? He didn't understand the heart of a woman at all!

"It really is a hard choice... why don't you two discuss amongst yourselves, whichever is willing..." Shi Hao looked like he was troubled as he spoke. However, before he finished his sentence, the two beauties immediately shouted together in anger, "You can drop dead!"

The two exceptional beauties stormed off angrily. They were truly angered badly, their bellies full of fury. They had never met such a strange person before in their life!

In these past years, as they became more and more beautiful, their names moved every clan. The number of people that chased after them was too numerous to count, but they were at least all refined and courteous. Which one of those young outstanding talents didn't have outstanding and elegant bearing?

Yet today, they ended up encountering this type of bastard. Their moods were completely ruined. This was just a terrible meeting.

"Even if he is more powerful than exceptional talents, it's still not enough. He is ridiculously and utterly lacking!" The two beauties left in anger and said hatefully.

"Hey, we already agreed to become dao companions. Now that you two are avoiding this by running away, what are you all treating this matter as?" Shi Hao shouted from behind them.

"Go die, go die, go die!" The two young ladies shouted, their voices incomparably ear-piercing. Symbols erupted, making waves appear on the azure lake.

"They have to at least give a reason and give some conditions, right?" Shi Hao muttered.

“There are no conditions!” Fu Qu said.

“No, there is a condition.” Red Spider Lily suddenly turned around and said, “As long as you can raise the Flying immortal stone, then I will agree!”

A flash of light appeared in her eyes. She truly hated this youth bitterly, deciding to have him suffer a great disaster.

That Flying immortal stone was quite strange. No one in the supreme expert realm could raise it. There were heaven warping geniuses that raised the stone in the past, but in the end, as soon as it passed their shoulders, they were so tired they spat out blood and their arms snapped off.

In the end, that rare genius injured his dao foundation, and only after several tens of years did he recover.

The Flying immortal stone was extremely mysterious, and it could even be said to have a demonic nature. There were strange natural laws within that could easily injure one’s great dao!

“You two are saying that if I do raise it, then you two will have to become my dao companions.” Shi Hao acted cockily there.

“You...” the two exceptional beauties really wanted to give him a beating. This fella really was vile and despicable, persisting with this thought this entire time.

“Fine, if you can raise it, then it will be as you say. But what if you fail?” Fu Qu asked.

“If I fail, then I’ll just choose one dao companion I guess,” Shi Hao said nonchalantly.

“You... are too shameless!” The tranquil and elegant Fu Qu couldn’t even take it any longer and harshly lashed out.

“If you fail, then you have to immediately disappear from the City of Heaven, never allowed to return!” Red Spider Lily said. Her voice carried coldness, and her expression was firm. She gave off an extremely cool and elegant appearance.

“This... you really are troubling others a bit too much right?” Shi Hao appeared a bit unwilling.

“If you are a man, then you should be straightforward.” The two girls incited him.

“Fine, if I fail, then I’ll just get lost. If I succeed, then both of you will become my dao companions, leaving behind quite the story to be told.” Shi Hao said.

“Remember your words!” The two girls turned around at the same time, not wishing to stay here a moment later.

“Wait, I just remembered, if I succeed, you should add the other pearl as well, right?” Shi Hao added, shouting loudly.

The corners of the two maids on the side twitched. They forcefully endured, not daring to laugh out loud. What kind of person was this?

Red Spider Lily and Fu Qu ahead were clearly angered badly by him. They both staggered, almost dropping out from the sky. Their beautiful bodies were trembling.

They resisted the rage within them with great difficulty. Without turning around and their backs towards him, they clenched their fists tightly and through clenched teeth, said, "Fine!"

Then, without even turning back, they left into the distance. If they stayed here any longer, they really would die from anger and ruin their appearances as wise and virtuous ladies. They really would act out violently here.

"You... really ought to be hacked by lightning!" The True deity Xi Xia also stormed off in a huff.

In her opinion, this youth might be a martial dao genius that was incomparably excellent, but his 'moral quality' was simply awful.

Of course, she felt that there was another possibility as well. This fella might have some other intentions. When faced with these two beauties, he might actually want the exact opposite. Maybe he had heard that when outstanding talents and heavenly geniuses met these two, they both ended up hitting a wall, so he would rather try something different, first leaving a deep impression with these two pearls to slowly pursue them. However, this was just going too far!

"Sir, the two young misses wanted me to tell you to visit the martial arena in two hours to raise the Flying immortal stone." The pretty maid said softly.

"I understand." Shi Hao nodded, and then he waved his hand to have them leave.

At this moment, he already recovered his composure, forming a stark contrast with his previous appearance. His eyes were clear, calm and composed.

"I am but an illustrious name!" Shi Hao sighed.

He did this because he truly had no way. He wanted to leave immediately, because staying here a day longer would mean more danger.

It was clear that he didn't want to raise the Flying immortal stone. Since they were going to drive him out, he couldn't ask for more.

However, Shi Hao knew that if a Heavenly deity really wanted him to stay behind, even if he had a falling out with those two girls, it still wouldn't be enough. His little scheme here wouldn't be very effective.

However, he still didn't want to give up. At the very least, there was a small chance of it happening, so he had to try it. In the end, he really had been forced with no way out.

These two girls' identities were special, and there were likely Heavenly deities behind them, or else why would they dare to act so extreme? Together with their beautiful appearances, it might be able to produce some effects.

Shi Hao believed that the effects of beauties 'acting out' might produce terrifying results. Together with their backing, there really might be a way to secretly 'chase him out'.

"I hope they can be of some use and get me out of the City of Heaven. As long as I can leave this place surrounded by this great formation, a bit of time is already enough!" He said inwardly to himself.

Then, he muttered, "That rock really is strange. I hope nothing strange happens... what do I do if I really do end up raising it?"

Chapter 720 - Flying Immortal Stone

The City of Heaven was grand and massive.

Shi Hao walked along the limestone streets. He first passed the city center district, and then he made his way through spiritual mountains and immortal caves, gradually closing in on that well known martial arena.

The clan's exceptional beauties were going to be married off. News spread like wildfire!

Many people from the Celestial Clan already knew that a genius had entered the city, one that might become dao companions with one of the clan's pearls. This produced a huge uproar, one that shook the entire younger generation.

The young experts were all shocked. This was too sudden, giving them no time to make preparations inwardly. They found it difficult to accept this result. Red Spider Lily, Fu Qu, and Yun Xi were the Celestial Race's well known beauties, so how could they be suddenly married off?

"Who is this person? Let us take a look!"

"What qualifications does he have to become dao companions with one of my clan's pearls? There wasn't even any warning beforehand. This isn't fair for the rest of us! Could it be that some Emperor Clan is pressuring us?"

A few young experts with powerful bloodlines came out and gathered together.

It was clear that the leaked news was not done so without reason. There was nothing before, but now, things suddenly erupted. Someone did this intentionally.

It was just like how Shi Hao had predicted. The two exceptional beauties used their connections and 'hidden influence' to stir up a commotion, using their own methods to disturb the clan's arrangements.

City of Heaven was not calm at all!

Shi Hao walked along the road. At first, he didn't notice too much, but later on, when he heard the clamoring and carefully listened, he revealed a smile.

Even though it was dangerous this time and he might be inviting disaster, from how things looked so far, Red Spider Lily and Fu Qu had 'taken action', so they might truly 'expel' him from the city.

He wanted to leave. This might be a chance to do so.

However, soon after, Shi Hao felt despair. There were True deities moving about, alerting the younger generation not to stir up chaos in the city. The clamoring immediately became weaker.

Only the groups scattered. They were still pacing about.

“Don’t tell me that he himself wants to become dao companions with two of our clan’s pearls!”

“From a certain source I heard from, this might very well be the case!”

The things that had taken place in the azure lake were leaked out. Everyone was deeply shaken up. After learning about this, many people were stunned.

They didn’t know whether to be furious or roar with laughter.

“This is too shameful and unbridled! Who is this person?” I really want to see what he looks like.”

“There is someone like this? Let’s go to the martial arena to see what kind of saint this is to dare raise the Flying Immortal stone. I want to see his bones crushed and tendons severed, see blood come out from his mouth.”

There were many people around the martial arena. They were all noisily talking among themselves.

It was just something Shi Hao and the two young ladies wagered on, yet in the end, such a huge storm was raised, drawing the attention of many youngsters. There was no way that this place would calm down.

Shi Hao arrived. He squeezed his way inside, but he couldn’t get in at all. There were too many people here, packed so tightly not even a drop of water could trickle through. This was especially the case with the entrance. There was no way to enter.

As for the air, this place was restricted. One couldn’t fly without permission.

“Dao brothers, excuse me, can you please let me through?” Shi Hao asked the people around him.

“Who are you? Do you not see that I am still waiting? Line up in the back and enter in order.” That person rolled his eyes.

“There are so many people...” Shi Hao muttered.

“Obviously! Everyone came to see that madman. They want to see exactly what that fella looks like. Didn’t you come for this too?”

“I came with a sincere heart. The person that dares to raise the Flying Immortal stone is definitely a heaven warping genius,” Shi Hao said.

“What kind of attitude is that? The Celestial Clan took you on as a disciple in vain, actually partial towards an outsider. We should be joining together against a common adversary.” From the side, a twenty or so year old celestial reprimanded him.

The Celestial Race looked quite similar to humans. If one didn’t look carefully, it was hard to recognize them apart.

“Don’t you feel that this is a heroic undertaking? A heavenly warping martial talent should act like this!” Shi Hao said.

As a result, the group of people all became discontent, ridiculing and jeering at him.

Shi Hao argued strongly for what he believed with these people, creating quite an interesting scene. He continuously bickered with a group of people by himself here.

This place immediately became noisy. It was a battle of words that fired back and forth. Many people joined in, trying to suppress this 'rebel' who was actually speaking on behalf of that outsider.

"Hey, what is wrong with you? Why are you partial towards the outsider?" Even a few young ladies couldn't watch on anymore and reproached Shi Hao.

"Truth is not partial to race and shouldn't be territorial. We should have a broad and inclusive heart. How can one be so narrow minded in life?" Shi Hao spoke in a righteous manner.

The entrance was blocked and he had no way of getting in, so he got into the habit of arguing with others, continuously praising the person who dared to raise the Flying Immortal stone, facing this group alone.

"I don't believe that once you see Red Spider Lily form a dao companion relationship with someone else, you would be able to remain so aloof and open-minded!" Someone refuted.

"You know, my heart really is as open-minded as a sea. My eyes are deep like stars. It really is magnanimous like the so-called unbounded great love," Shi Hao said in dead earnesty.

"What kind of hideous mess are you spouting? What are you even trying to say?" A young expert asked, his face not pleasant.

"You like someone, but can't have her. As long as she is happy, you can silently wish them well and watch them from afar. As long as she feels joy, I ask you all to let go when the time comes..." Shi Hao was acting smug, but he had a resolute expression.

"Who are you? What are you randomly saying?" Someone became extremely discontent.

However, there were some youth who became ashamed, feeling that compared to the youth in front of them, they really weren't all that magnanimous.

"Do you truly believe this?" A young lady asked. It wasn't just her. There were others who asked him white staring with large eyes, discussing with him. This place became more and more bustling.

More and more people gathered around this place. Shi Hao disputed endlessly with these people, forming a circle here.

"Hold on, why do you always speak on that fella's behalf? He is so egotistical, going to vainly raise the Flying Immortal stone. He's clearly overestimating his own abilities."

"Wrong, that is the unrivaled heroic confidence." Shi Hao retorted.

"Hey, haven't you spoken enough bullshit?"

At this moment, a voice sounded from within the martial arena, asking if Mo Xi arrived yet and why he didn't appear yet. Could it be that he already ran away from stage fright?

Shi Hao coughed and said, "Everyone, please make way. I should enter."

"What are you trying to say?" After arguing for a long time, a large group of people had gathered, and there were naturally quite a few people who looked at him with unfavorable opinions, so how could they make way for him?

"There is someone inside calling for me. If I still don't appear, it will be too late." Shi Hao explained.

"You... who are you?" Everyone felt that things were not going to end well.

"I am Mo Xi, of course." Shi Hao said while cramming his way forward towards that door.

Outside the martial arena, everyone became petrified.

A large group of people were stupefied. They all looked over with their mouths agape.

In the end, someone released a scream, breaking the silence.

"It's that maniac!"

"Too shameless!"

"No wonder he was always partial to that 'outsider', continuously praising him. This fucker was praising himself! Ridiculously narcissistic!"

The group of people all clamored with noise. They had never seen such a thick-skinned person before. The so-called arguing for what was right, verbally dueling everyone was actually just self-imbued praise!

Along the way, many people stared at Shi Hao. He walked in boldly and ostentatiously, calm and unhurried without any bit of nervousness.

Soon after, news of the outside events spread. Everyone became stupefied. This person was just too strange, right?

Hua!

A disturbance broke out in the martial arena. After they all learned about how this fella was self-boasting outside, they almost erupted with popular indignation.

"Too shameless!"

Everyone was boiling with anger.

"You really dared to come!" Red Spider Lily's head of red hair scattered down, soft and smooth. Her sparkling white face appeared especially cold.

If not for her and Fu Qu appearing, indicating for everyone to calm down, everyone really might have rushed over to settle things with Shi Hao. A mob beating might have most likely happened.

"Why wouldn't I dare come? This is destiny set by the heavens. We are becoming dao companions to leave behind a great story," Shi Hao said.

“Shut up!” Red Spider Lily didn’t want to talk to him any more. She feared that she wouldn’t be able to hold herself back and might end up fighting him right here.

Fu Qu’s white clothes fluttered about. She was quiet and otherworldly. Her eyes moved about, looking at the dozen or so people around them.

Shi Hao’s mind was also shaken. Those dozen or so individuals were all young, and apart from several Celestial Race geniuses, there were a few outsiders. They were all extremely powerful.

There were exceptional talents among them!

This left him shocked. Red Spider Lily and Fu Qu were actually so powerful, able to summon these types of escorts?

However, things weren’t all that right. There was a silver haired woman and a blue clothed young lady who were extremely beautiful. They were also female, so they shouldn’t be people that could be summoned.

“These are a few friends that came to my Celestial Clan as guests.” Fu Qu smiled faintly, not introducing them further.

Shi Hao’s mind trembled, and then he understood. The Celestial Race and War Race’s battle was naturally a great event. During these past two days, they had associated with other races from time to time. He understood what was going on. It was clear that these young talents came from a few ancient sects.

“I heard that you want to raise the Flying Immortal stone. You really do deserve praise for such courage.” Someone mocked.

Mo Xi’s matter of killing the War King had not been spoken by these two girls. No one knew about it yet. There were only a few people that understood the ‘inside information’ about Mo Xi.

“Isn’t it just a piece of rock? Why wouldn’t I dare?” Shi Hao didn’t attach much importance to this at all.

“You don’t know how high the heaven or how deep the earth is. Not even exceptional talents can raise it, and no supreme expert had succeeded since the ancient times, yet you still want to carry out an impressive feat?” Someone spoke with mockery.

“It seems like this is all you amount to, yet you still dare to rashly move the Flying Immortal stone. You are bringing the suffering onto yourself.”

It was clear that this group of people were looking down on him. It was not only because they bore hostility, but also because they were purposely ridiculing and inciting him to take the risk and do everything he can to raise the Flying Immortal stone. That way, he would most likely inflict upon himself an ‘injury to his great dao’.

Faced with these provocations, Shi Hao was extremely calm. “What qualifications do you all have to talk about me? Do you all dare to try yourselves?”

"At the very least, if we try our best, we can move it. Meanwhile, you, what can you do?" A male sneered.

Another individual, an exceptional talent this time, mocked, "I heard that if you fail, you get lost on your own from the City of Heaven. I wonder if you really are a man of your word."

"Of course I'll keep my word," Shi Hao said.

Red Spider Lily and Fu Qu immediately revealed smiles. They knew that they had won, and that there was going to be quite the interesting play to watch soon. This fella would definitely be in an incomparably sorry state and leave while dejected and depressed.

"Be careful not to injure yourself too badly. When the time comes, we still have to get others to lend a helping hand in tossing you out of the City of Heaven." Someone said while roaring with laughter.

"If you all really are men, then all of you should give it a try too. Don't just keep speaking empty words. Are there any of you that dare to raise this rock?" Shi Hao taunted, looking at those dozen or so young geniuses.

The scene immediately became quite. No one said anything.

"If you are men, then raise it. Are you all not going to do it?" Shi Hao asked.

"You..." The group of people's faces became ugly. This fella's mouth was too 'lowly', daring to mock them like this and imply things. It was too hateful.

"If we take action, then we can naturally move the rock. We are clearly stronger than you."

"Less nonsense. Let's have a competition and all give it a try." Shi Hao issued a challenge.

What was shocking was that in the end, out of their competitiveness, a few young experts really came down and stretched their muscles to give it a try.

"Rise!"

Someone shouted loudly. His entire body shone, carrying the flying immortal stone to make it leave the ground.

"You are no good, not even able to move it..." Shi Hao jeered.

"Nonsense!" The one that was taking action was furious. He possessed natural divine force and shocking aptitude. He already moved the Flying Immortal stone, leaving many people shocked.

Then, an exceptional talent took action, unexpectedly able to lift the Flying Immortal stone half a foot from the ground. Unfortunately, that was as far as he went. His entire face was red.

"Too disappointing..." Shi Hao said, making the exceptional talent so angry he almost spat out blood. He hurriedly lowered the Flying Immortal stone. A trace of dark red blood appeared at the corners of his lips, and his insides were even more surging.

"You try it yourself." Red Spider Lily said, carrying an expression of provocation.

"Alright, if I fail, then I'll leave the City of Heaven," Shi Hao said.

"I am looking forward to your great display of divine might." Even though Fu Qu was composed and refined, right now, she couldn't help but ridicule him as well. It was because previously, this person had angered her too far.

Shi Hao walked forward. Everyone was watching closely.

"I really have to be careful not to use too much power and really raise it..." Shi Hao muttered. This was his inner thoughts, but many people heard it.

This was too arrogant!

The people here naturally wouldn't think that this was what he was thinking inside. They all thought that this was arrogance and a provocation towards them all.

"If you truly have strength, then raise it! I want to see it!" Red Spider Lily said, her sparkling white face filled with anger. She naturally didn't believe that Shi Hao could succeed and was waiting for him to injure his great dao.

Fu Qu was also like this. The corners of her lips had a smile, waiting for him to fail and reveal that sorry appearance she was waiting for.

Everyone was watching him. All of their eyes gathered on his body alone.

Shi Hao walked to the center of the arena and directly grabbed the Flying Immortal stone, and then he lightly exerted strength.

As soon as he made contact, Shi Hao straight-up carried it. Even though the Flying Immortal stone was dull and lightless, he could feel the flesh within him become sparkling and translucent, resonating in response!

The Flying Immortal stone had some natural laws inside that made him tremble inwardly.

"Ah... he raised it, it moved three feet from the ground!" The crowd cried out in alarm, their faces losing color.

"I didn't even use that much force!" Shi Hao was shocked. He couldn't help but blurt out without thinking. When everyone heard this, they naturally felt that this was arrogance at the peak.

"I'm not going to end up really raising this, right?" Shi Hao was stupefied. It was because he didn't even do that much, yet this Flying Immortal stone seemed to be stuck to his hands, floating up on its own!

Red Spider Lily and Fu Qu were resentful. Was he mocking and harassing them? This fella was not really going to carry out an impressive feat, right?

In reality, Shi Hao had already stopped paying attention to what was going on outside a while ago, because he really was shocked. The Flying Immortal stone had some strange power and natural laws within it that were rousing a type of mysterious force within him!

At this moment, chaotic symbols appeared. They flickered about the surface of his flesh and gradually appeared.

"This is..." He was shaken up inwardly and incomparably shocked.

He lost his supreme being bone when he was still in swaddling clothes. There were primitive symbols on it that contained an unmatched precious technique. Unfortunately, he had no opportunity to obtain it and it was seized by Shi Yi instead.

However, what was happening here toppled everything he knew. Those symbols, that type of mysterious force, was all extremely familiar. It was extremely similar to what Shi Yi displayed!

This was the first supreme being bone's precious technique, and now, it was flickering within the very depths of his flesh. Markings appeared, unexpectedly displaying its mysterious symbols!
