Chapter 771 - Little Stone Displays His Might

At the entrance of the academy, many students rose into the air!

A large group of students followed behind Yu Lun, heading towards that shoddy dao rite.

Meanwhile, when news spread, the academy became noisy. More and more people began to move about, following one of Celestial Clan's six heroes to see how amazing he was.

The Flood dragon beast was a divine spirited horse, white and and pure. Silver scales opened and closed, releasing a shining and brilliant holy radiance that was like moonlight.

It carried Yu Lun with lightning speed, travelling three thousand li with a single burst. Mountains passed by as they headed into the distance like a streak of white light.

"Not good, it's too fast! We can't keep up!"

The people were that were leading the way breathed heavily, all of them stopping. They were already fast enough, but they couldn't compare to the Flood dragon beast. They were overtaken.

This type of mount was extremely rare, a species that was meticulously bred. It had Flood dragon blood, Hou soul, and a horse body. It was exceptionally powerful and currently at the Supreme Expert Realm. It was far more powerful than many so-called elites.

Yu Lun pulled on the reins and looked backwards.

"What a great divine beast!" The people behind him caught up, all of them sighing with admiration. They all revealed looks of jealousy, This mount was too extraordinary, being more powerful than quite a few of the people here.

"Let's go, I don't want to waste too much time." Yu Lun said.

This region was quite primitive. The trees were ancient, and a few demonic birds were spreading their wings, covering the sky like dark clouds. There were a few vicious beasts who were like small mountains, and they were roaring towards the sky.

However, none of these creatures posed the people here any threat. They were all elites from the academy. Many of them possessed great strength and were used to seeing these vicious creatures.

"We've arrived. It's right here." Someone pointed forward. The mountain region was vast. Mountains towered imposingly and majestically.

"This is the place!" Yu Lun nodded. He looked at this mountain region. If it was cleaned up, it would be a spiritual earth as well. However, currently, it was too desolate.

The bluestone steps had long been covered in weeds. Old vines and ancient trees blocked the path. Thistles and thorns could be found throughout. However, the grand mountains ahead still released strands of auspicious radiance, proving that this place was unordinary.

Qiang!

With a raise of Yu Lun's hands, his palm aimed at the sky. A streak of blazing radiance erupted. A Heavenart halberd refined from the bones of a Flood dragon. Its spotlessly white body carried traces of faint gold, and a strange aura was exuding from it.

What a powerful aura and shocking fluctuations! This definitely startled that 'great senior brother' in the mountains. This was a challenge!

Within the mountain gate, Shi Hao was seated on a large bluestone. His eyes opened, and he took steps outwards, gazing below the mountain. His eyes were calm without any happiness or worry.

He was less than eighteen years old currently. His body was tall and slender, and black hair scattered down his shoulders. His appearance was delicate and pretty, his eyes shining as he stood there. There wasn't the slightest bit of killing energy or intimidating pressure.

Below, everyone saw him. Quite a few individuals cried out in alarm.

"That's him! Supreme Being Dao Rite's great martial brother. He is just a single person, yet he doesn't fear great battles. He has yet to be defeated."

From the distance, many people hurried over. They all felt like they were in luck, because the great battle hadn't started yet. They finally didn't miss a great battle, looking forward to witnessing it personally.

There were creatures from every clan, not only students from Goddess Academy. There were outstanding talents that came from Oblique Moon Ancient Cave, Divine Cliff Academy, and other places. They all came to get in on the action, coming here to spectate the battle.

"I believe that this will likely be an evenly matched great battle. One of the Celestial Clan's six heroes, Yu Lun's name is well known. He is just too famous. As for the great martial brother, he is quite unusual as well, hard to see through."

"Aren't you rating that 'great senior brother' a bit too highly? The Celestial Clan is known to be an Emperor Clan, while Yu Lun is one of their best, much stronger than Kun Mo. Will he even use up much energy to win?"

More and more people gathered below the mountains, crowding this place. There were figures everywhere.

It was clear that the effects of this battle were great. After all, the Celestial Clan were previously an emperor clan, and Yu Lun was representing that clan to fight. Regardless of which disciple it was here, none of them wanted to miss out.

"You are that lunatic?" Yu Lun raised the Heavenart halberd alone, pointing it towards the mountain top. He wore silver battle clothes, the metallic luster shining and releasing auspicious multicolored radiance.

It had to be said that he really was handsome. His head of purple hair fell down, his skin fine white like jade. His sharp eyebrows were pointing downwards, his starry eyes brilliant. His appearance really was exceptional.

White robes fluttered about. He sat on top of a pure white Flood dragon beast that released holy radiance, matching his appearance well. Divine and powerful, as if a white battle god descended!

This type of young expert with such a handsome appearance, with the Heavenart halberd in hand, was truly majestic and had an awe-inspiring presence. It made many of the female students' eyes release brilliance.

"Truly is dashing! The powerful fluctuations he releases alone are enough to prove his exceptional cultivation. Worthy of being one of an Emperor Clan's six heroes!"

"Huang, his name has shaken the grassland and shocked this region, but I feel like Yu Lun is extremely handsome as well, an outstanding hero!"

"Stop acting so starry-eyed already. There is no way he is as strong as Huang."

Many people were discussing in a soft voice, especially a few young ladies, their attention seized by his heroic appearance.

However, everyone also noticed the youth on top of the mountain. He was too calm, standing there and looking downwards. His eyes were deep, as if he had already transcended.

"Didn't they say that he was notorious, that we was extremely savage? How could he look so handsome and outstanding, exuding a type of elegant bearing?"

This was the first time many of them saw Shi Hao, especially those female students. They all felt shocked; this was the despicable 'great senior brother' that was being talked about recently?

"I am talking to you. Did you hear me?" Yu Lun released a short scoff.

Shi Hao continued to look downwards. With a calm voice, he replied, "If you want to challenge me, then just come up."

"You think you are someone deserving of a challenge? I came here to take your head! There are already people warming up the wine, so after taking your head, I will go back to drink!" Yu Lun said. His voice was thunderous, resounding through this mountain region.

"How imposing! There is a type of ancient heroic bearing!" A few people sighed in admiration. This type of confidence and great spirit made him appear extremely heroic.

"Hand over your life!" Yu Lun shouted. He stirred on his mount, and while holding the Heavenart halberd, he turned into a streak of white light before rushing up the mountain.

The Flood dragon beast seemed to be walking on wind. It was extremely strong, able to easily tear apart great mountains and trample ancient peaks. It could enter li fire magma or Nine Underworld Yin Earth as if it was just walking on normal ground.

Honglong!

The Flood dragon beast didn't step on the ground but instead treaded on the void, its hooves releasing thunderous rumbling sounds. Its speed was just too fast, quickly rushing to the mountain gate.

"Kill!"

Yu Lun shouted loudly. The silver battle clothes shone and the mount roared. One man, one mount, divine light overflowed into the heavens. With the Heavenart halberd in his hands, it was as if a white-robed war god had descended into this world!

At this moment, everyone became shocked. The aura he released was just too powerful! It roiled outwards, making many people's hearts palpitate. They couldn't help but shudder.

This was one of the Celestial Clan's most outstanding youth? They were worthy of their Emperor Clan reputation. It was just too powerful.

Yu Lun's state was extremely great. At this moment, his vitality climbed to the peak, displaying his most powerful state. Bone texts interweaved around the surface of his body, blazing resplendently like pure-white divine flames.

Moreover, he displayed the most powerful divine abilities and precious techniques, raising his body's fighting prowess to the limit. He was going to decide life and death with a single move, not giving himself any path of retreat!

This was his conviction, believing that he could kill this powerful enemy, that there was no way he would be defeated. That was why he wanted to win brilliantly, achieving victory in a brilliant fashion. He was going to cut his enemy down in one move!

Shi Hao nodded. This person was unique after all, worthy of being known as a young outstanding talent. Under normal circumstances, they would definitely fight for a while.

Only, this person was too arrogant, actually wishing to decide life and death with a single move in order to remove his head. All of his divine abilities and fighting strength merged together to display the most powerful strike.

"Since that is the case, I will do as you wish." Shi Hao calmly said.

"Die!" Yu Lun shouted loudly. His entire body was silvery white as he borrowed the strength of the Flood dragon beast, and the beast borrowed strength from him, becoming one. They erupted with the most shocking and terrifying fluctuations. Holy radiance overflowed into the heavens.

As Yu Lun shouted, that great halberd already descended, lightning up the world. It was as if a divine sun was going to explode!

With a qiang sound, a golden spear appeared in Shi Hao's right hand, and his body shone as well, curling with electrical arcs that were incredibly blinding. It was as if he wore a layer of golden armor.

The war spear rested in his hands, his eyes deep. Following a loud shout, he took action as well!

Regardless of whether it was the golden armor or the battle spear, they were all condensed from lightning, turning into tangible objects. The armor covered his body, while the spear appeared in his hands.

Dang!

In that instant, the golden battle spear flung the Heavenart halberd aside, and with a pu sound, pierced through Yu Lun's chest, going straight through him. Blood splashed high into the air!

The world seemed to have become quiet, freezing on this scene. Everyone widened their eyes as they stared forward, not daring to believe what they were seeing. All of them were shocked!

How powerful was Yu Lun? His aura already reached the limit, merging with his mount and erupting with endless holy light. He displayed his most powerful attack, yet everything came to a sudden standstill.

This was like a war tune that had built up to its climax, resounding through the skies and shaking everyone's hearts, but when it reached its critical point, the instrument directly broke, ending all sounds!

It was too abrupt. The world became peaceful. Time seemed to have froze on this scene.

It was just one strike, yet that youth in the monastery penetrated Yu Lun, killing one of the Emperor Clan's most outstanding heroes in a clean and efficient manner. His style was incomparable!

Everyone widened their mouths, staring at the mountain top where the monastery gate was.

A youth stood there while facing the wind, his golden armor shining and his head of black hair scattering about. His eyes were brilliant, the war spear in his hands nailing Yu Lun into the void!

Yu Lun's eyes were opened extremely wide. Blood flowed out from his mouth. He opened his mouth, wishing to say something.

He was truly unwilling to accept this. How could this be? He was one of the Emperor Clan's most powerful inheritors, so how could he lose to the inheritor of a shoddy monastery?

"Could it be him?!" At this moment, he strangely became clear headed. Just now, the other party completely ignored his bone texts and pierced through all protection, ending him with one strike!

This type of methods, wasn't he Huang? Rumors had it that he possessed a moment of magical immunity.

He wanted to open his mouth, wishing to say something. He also used the remaining bone texts to stir an ancient treasure, carrying out a final counterattack to change the situation before death.

However, everything was too late.

Pu!

Shi Hao's arm moved. His entire body erupted with golden brilliance that rushed into the skies. The golden war spear shook, blasting Yu Lun into pieces, killing him on the spot.

Everyone was shaken. What kind of power was this? Just a single spear, yet it killed one of the Celestial Clan's most powerful inheritors!

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but feel shaken, their hearts trembling. This youth was too overbearing, his golden armor brilliant and blinding. Divine might flowed out from his figure, giving him a type of world ruling heroiness!

A long roar sounded from the distance. A figure quickly closed in with killing intent.

This is... another one of the Celestial Clan's six heroes. He came to rush to the rescue!" Another person recognized his identity.

It was clear that after this person received the news, he immediately hurried over, fearing that something unexpected would happen to Yu Lun. However, it was still a step too late.

His killing intent surged as he hurried over.

Chi!

Right at this moment, Shi Hao took action. His entire body erupted with blazing radiance. It was as if golden divine flames were burning, engulfing the skies. He fiercely moved the battle spear in his hands.

This was a spear condensed from the Lightning Emperor's precious technique. The symbols were extremely powerful, its might able to shock the world.

Apart from this, he even infused the Kun Peng's symbols. It could be said that this was a combination of two great precious techniques that made this golden spear. It tore through the sky.

Pu!

In just a split second, as if a streak of divine light shot down from outer space, it penetrated everything, piercing through the body of the Celestial Clan youth that came.

Then, the spear exploded. Golden light surged, shaking heaven and earth. That person directly exploded, blasted apart by the flying spear in midair!

Everyone was stupefied. What kind of divine might was this? In front of the mountain gate, that youth attacked like this, unexpectedly taking the life of another powerful hero from the Celestial Clan.

After a moment of silence, this place erupted with noise.

Chapter 772 - Unstable Situation

A multitude of people gathered in this mountain region. Figures could be seen everywhere. Many people arrived, and right now, all of them were shaken.

Countless people were shouting loudly, verbally expressing their agitation.

This type of noise and loud uproar resounded through the entire mountain range. Their voices were just too loud, rushing into the clouds. It was because the battle just now was too shocking.

In midair, there were still some electrical arcs that didn't scatter. Meanwhile, drops of blood splattered on the ground, extremely red and striking. It was truly a ghastly sight.

Not only the scene of Yu Lun's death, but the power of the final spear left a deep impression in everyone's minds as well. It would be hard for them to forget this scene even after many years.

A single spear shocked the sky, piercing through one of the six heroes, killing him in midair. A rain of blood scattered down.

How shocking was this?

The youth on the mountain didn't take a single step. He didn't descend from the mountain, nor did he risk his life or unleash a slaughter. The battle was ended just like this!

Divine valiance!

A few people were trembling, not willing to admit this, but they still couldn't help but roar outwards. Supreme Being Dao Rite's inheritor was extraordinary, terrifying to the point of making others feel great reverence.

The mountain region was in a great uproar. Goddess Academy's students and the disciples of other sects couldn't remain calm. They all erupted with noise.

Ding!

A loud and clear sound rang through the air. It was as if metal had been struck.

On the mountain, a scarlet bone piece dropped.

This was something left behind after Yu Lun split apart. It was half a foot long and brilliant red. Its bone texts receded.

Shi Hao's pupils contracted. This item made one feel anxious. He felt rather shaken up; this was not an ordinary item.

"Heavenly deity symbol seal!" In the end, he realized what this was. This was a secret treasure, definitely a terrifying killing weapon. If it displayed its true power, it would likely even put true deities in danger.

Yu Lun was too arrogant, weaving the Heavenart halberd and rushing through the sky at him, wishing to cut Shi Hao down in front of his mount. He didn't have the chance to even use this symbol seal.

Shi Hao picked it up and carefully inspected it.

It was bright red like jade and the size of a palm. Symbols were layered on top of each other densely, engraved within the gemstone-like scarlet bone. A mysterious aura was seeping out from it.

Yu Lun was not simple at all, being doted on by a Heavenly deity and thus given this type of powerful symbol seal. If an ordinary person encountered this, they would definitely die while nursing grievances.

Shi Hao wasn't scared of this, however, because he still had the Protection symbol on him, and he believed that it would be able to hold it off. However, it would have most likely damaged the bone texts of that talisman, leaving him in quite a difficult situation.

"You really are unlucky, not even able to activate it, dying all because of your own arrogance." Shi Hao said to himself. He put away this scarlet symbols seal.

"It ended just like that?"

Even after a long time had passed, many people still didn't dare believe it. Such a powerful individual like Yu Lun came, becoming one with his mount and releasing holy light that overflowed into the sky, displaying such stunning power, yet in the end, he was killed by a single spear!

In front of the mountain gate, the golden armor on the youth disappeared, restoring a softness and peacefulness. He looked elegant and otherworldly, making it hard to imagine that he had just released a world shaking strike. n))o/-V-/E)-L-)b/.1-(n

This type of style left everyone with too deep of an expression. When he moved, he was like a resplendent war god that overlooked everyone, but when he was quiet, he was graceful and spirited.

“Two of the six heroes died so quickly, both of them killed in an instant, this... is just too shocking, something that will shake all sides!”

Someone spoke, their faces changing.

At this moment, everyone became clear-headed. Even though this battle ended, the effects and consequences of it had just begun. It was currently brewing, about to create a huge storm.

How could the Celestial Clan be willing to accept this? They lost two inheritors just like that, two of their clan’s most outstanding talents. Everyone knew that there was no way for there to be any good relations left between the two parties.

This was especially the case with how unfavorable it was for the Celestial Clan. Huang’s appearance had left their head and face covered with grime. Under this type of state, they were most likely going to go mad.

“The former Emperor Clan had so many things happen to them in succession recently. I believe that they will definitely be furious!”

“Celestial Clan is just too unlucky. Being challenged by Huang is one thing, but now this ‘great senior brother’ then appeared, killing two of their inheritors...”

Everyone revealed strange expressions. The Celestial Clan truly didn’t have enough luck recently.

Meanwhile, there were people who sighed softly. In the end, this clan was no longer an Emperor Clan, losing their former glory, unable to oppress the world any longer.

Soon after, news spread everywhere.

“What? Yu Lun died?!”

When people within Goddess Academy learned of this, they were stupefied. How much time had passed since that white clothed heroic talent left? He died... so quickly.

Not long ago, he was still boasting about having people warming up the wine, for them to await his return, claiming that he was going to behead that small monastery’s inheritor. However, in the end, his own head was left behind in that place.

“Impossible!” When the Celestial Clan received news of this, they widened their eyes one after another, suddenly standing up to glare angrily at the one reporting these news.

It wasn’t just Yu Lun, another hero died as well, nailed to death by a flying spear and exploding in midair. When news of this spread, Goddess Academy erupted into commotion. All sects were shocked.

This was huge news. Those that came from different sects to exchange pointers and discuss the dao were all discussing this matter.

The Celestial Clan were the only one stupefied, unable to accept this!

"Hurry and inform senior brother You Yu. Tell him not to go with Feng Wu to the immortal engravings!" Someone shouted loudly.

Goddess Academy was full of noise. When people in all directions learned of what happened, great disorder ensued.

In front of the grass covered monastery gate, Shi Hao overlooked everyone. He said to himself, "It seems like the Celestial Clan's higher level figures will feel quite distressed. The six heroes are no longer whole, dying prematurely."

Everyone's hearts were wildly beating. Before, everyone was shouting to beat up this shoddy monastery, and it was said to have a notorious reputation in the higher realms, but now, this kind of person appeared.

Everyone felt that there was going to be a violent development here!

Apart from the Celestial Clan, there might be people from other great sects who would come here.

"I feel like... he isn't like a lunatic. He seems rather handsome and intelligent. Why does he have such a bad name?"

There were female students who discussed in a soft voice.

"Others from the sect were spreading bad rumors about him. In reality, this person isn't that evil."

Depths of the Fire Province prairie.

Pure white unicorns were drinking water. After the great rain, the ruins of Celestial Clan's divine mines became lakes. There were fragments of divine materials mixed within that released brilliant radiance.

A True deity looked at the auspicious beast in the distance and thought of something. His mind was shaken, and then he reported to Heavenly deity Mo Luo.

"Great one, there is a Heavenly deity level unicorn on Fire Province's prairie that commands all types of wild horses and beast mounts."

"What are you trying to say?" Mo Luo asked indifferently.

"Rumor has it that that Heavenly deity not only produced the hooves of the heavenly horse, it even produced a spiritual jade horn that could sense many strange creatures. If great one asks for its help, we might be able to obtain some clues."

When Mo Luo heard this, he couldn't help but be stunned. He nodded, and then asked, "What other figures are there in this grassland that are worth paying a visit?"

“There is also an old wolf, also a Heavenly deity. It leads countless grassland wolves, enough to cover any place. If we can ask it for help, we might truly be able to find Huang.” Another person said.

Only, the heavenly wolf’s temper was quite strange, and his nature savage as well as irritable. Normally, it wouldn’t show others too much respect, and it was also hard to track down.

“Alright, the two of us should separately pay them each a visit. No matter what price we have to pay, we must find that youth. We cannot tolerate him living for even a day longer!” Mo Luo said coldly.

It was clear that even the two Heavenly deities were a bit shaken up. Since the dao protector was going to make that type of choice, it only meant one thing, and that was that he saw a bad future. That was why he was going to use the last of his life to eliminate Shi Hao.

He was just a youth, was he really that terrifying? For a taboo existence to be unable to sleep peacefully at night and feel fear, this naturally made Mo Luo and the others feel uneasy.

The two great Heavenly deities took action, first visiting Single Horn Sacred Mountain, then entering Wolf Cavern to ask these two races for assistance.

The grassland wolves were an extremely terrifying power, because there were just too many of them. They ranged from the lowest level wild wolves to the Supreme Expert Realm, Divine Flame Realm, and then the True Deity Realm and others. There were wolves at all levels.

This was an enormous community that no one was willing to provoke.

“Great one, the unicorns are spiritual, and the wolf race also discovered some clues. If we link them up together, we really might be able to find Huang!” After just half a day, there were Divine Flame Realm experts that came to make the report.

“Where is the target?”

Over a hundred great cracks appeared in the two great Heavenly deities’ surroundings. Their expressions were serious!

“Not in the depths of the grasslands. We need to withdraw backwards!”

The wolf race is extremely terrifying; there were just too many of them. They had previously discovered Shi Hao’s traces, pointing in the general direction. Even though it wasn’t too precise, it was still more or less accurate.

Meanwhile, after the divine horn of the unicorn ascertained this, it should be correct.

Celestial Clan gradually withdrew backwards, casting out a wide net to capture Shi Hao. They had to complete everything before the dao protector arrived, or else the consequences would be too horrible to contemplate.

The unstable weather was already starting to turn away from Fire Province towards Goddess Academy.

Within Goddess Academy, You Yu was startled. His eyes became cold as he stared at his clansmen. He didn’t say anything for a long time.

"We previously tried to stop Yu Lun, but he didn't listen to our advice!" Someone said, feeling a bit of fear.

"Idiot, disgrace, it is one thing if he went and killed that person, but he was actually greatly defeated, tarnishing my clan's reputation!" You Yu's voice was ice-cold.

Earlier, he told the clansmen that the clan was currently in troubled times, and that they shouldn't act rashly to avoid bringing them more inconveniences.

In the end, this type of thing actually happened!

"Don't blame them, the main thing is that so-called 'great senior brother' is too insolent. Yu Lun was at the prime of his youth, so how could he tolerate him crippling my clan's expert? He naturally had to go and demand an explanation." An elder spoke.

"I originally wanted to fight against Huang, but now, I have to head for a shoddy little monastery." You Yu said. He had a head of purple hair, his build tall and sturdy. His eyes were like divine lamps, sparkling with brilliance, giving him an imposing appearance.

He now had no choice but to take action, or else what kind of face would the Celestial Clan have left? If their current generation couldn't even suppress the disciple of a small shoddy monastery, then they weren't deserving of being called some Emperor Clan.

Now that the humiliation had already been done, only by sweeping through that monastery with their current generation's people could they redeem their dignity.

Otherwise, if they could only rely on their clan's True deities and others to take action, the Celestial Clan would only appear even more unsightly.

Only, with You Yu now taking action, how could there not be people following him? After all, him and Yun Xi were too special, merging with heaven's mandate stones. They were where the hope of the clan laid.

Once news went out, Goddess Academy erupted into commotion.

The number one youth of the Celestial Clan was going to move, paying Supreme Being Dao Rite a visit to challenge 'great senior brother'!

Not only that, but the other heroes of the Celestial Clan took action as well, moving out together towards that shoddy mountain gate.

The effects of this were too great. What kind of person was You Yu? He was an exceptional talent, and then he merged with the heaven's mandate stone. He even had the blood of an Emperor race flowing within him. This was enough for him to suppress all of his peers!

"Major news, You Yu is going to take action, leaving to suppress and kill 'great senior brother'!"

This was huge news, like a storm that swept through all of Goddess Academy.

This wasn't all of it. A few students immediately used transport formations to report to their own families that this level of young supreme beings were going to fight, that this was definitely a fight worth watching.

This was especially the case with a few larger clans. With the battle of three thousand provinces about to start, they definitely wanted to learn more about the outstanding individuals who were going to fight over the natural luck.

Normally, where would they get such an opportunity?

It was clear that there would be exceptional talents who would come here, as well as other young supreme beings arriving. They were going to witness this battle for themselves!

"Celestial Clan in Fire Province will likely receive the news as well. I wonder what kind of reaction they will show?" Someone said softly.

Unbeknownst to them, that side was currently returning, bringing the storm to Goddess Academy!

Chapter 773[1]

"Hurry, if we go any later, we won't make it in time. I don't want to miss out on this great battle!"

A few warships flew through the sky from Goddess Academy. There were a few mounts that were roaring as they headed quickly into the distance.

Many people went on their way, heading towards Supreme Being Dao Rite.

"Sisters, hurry up. If that battle ends before we get there, we really will regret it!" Several young ladies with outstanding appearances were moving together, drawing many eyes.

"Am I going crazy? Aren't those the ranked beauties? Not even they can stay calm, following along to watch the battle!" The crowd was shocked.

Currently, Goddess Academy was in a state of great chaos. When news travelled outwards, everyone moved out, rushing towards those mountains that were now extremely barren.

In reality, not only them, even Fire Province, Kun Province, and other place's inheritances, upon receiving news, quickly started up their transport formations and hurried over.

It was to the extent where exceptional experts from great sects even further out began to move!

Celestial Clan's You Yu, a heaven warping appearance, known as their race's number one young expert, one that had been granted the title of the heavenly talent of a generation. His name shook tens of provinces, defeated all those before him. He had never been defeated before!

Moreover, these were all battle accomplishment achieved before he merged with the heaven's mandate stone. As for how powerful he was now, no one knew.

That was why everyone looked forward to this. None of them wanted to miss out on a chance to understand more about him. The ambitious exceptional talents who were going to struggle for supremacy in the three thousand provinces battle had to learn more about him, because this was definitely a great mountain that was in their way!

“Has You Yu achieved a perfect evolution yet?” Someone said with a soft voice.

“He definitely completed a portion of the evolution, allowing him to become even stronger. Only, there is no way he can get results overnight. This is a long process, and the more time he is given, the more terrifying he would become!”

It was clear that these were outstanding individuals from great sects that were discussing. They understood some things about the heaven’s mandate stone, and as such felt incomparable restraining fear towards You Yu.

From Goddess Academy to Supreme Being Dao Rite, many cultivators could be seen along the way. They were all hurrying over, some moving through the sky, others driving war chariots. There were great ships moving through the skies as well.

If one didn’t know what was happening, one might have the misconception that Heavenly deities or even sect masters were going to carry out a great decisive battle, and that was why the cultivators from all sides’ attention were grabbed.

In reality, this was just two Supreme experts that were going to fight, yet the results were so great, drawing countless creatures who wished to personally witness this battle.

Many cultivators ran here at top speed, breathing heavily after finally arriving here. They inwardly cried out how they were lucky not to miss this decisive battle. It hadn’t started yet!

When they arrived, everyone felt a bit stupefied. There were just too many creatures here! Human, Peng, Hou, tree spirit, feather race, spirit race, and others were present. They couldn’t even reach the other side of the crowd with a single glance.

The higher peaks, as long as they offered some type of favorable terrain, they were occupied. The places that were good for spectating were all packed with figures.

Of course, humans made up the majority, occupying more than half. It was because they were the most common species here.

“There are actually so many people. Why are there a few elders too? Where did they come from?”

“Shush, lower your voice a bit. Those are the old fellas from the academy. Those few are at the True Deity Realm you know? A single mistake that offends them will make your life quite difficult.”

Soon after, everyone discovered that more and more people were arriving, and they were all unfamiliar. They never saw them before.

“That’s the Jiaotu[2] Race. They are two provinces away, yet a group of experts came! Someone definitely sent them a message through an altar, and as a result, they quickly entered transport formations to hurry over!”

Not far off, there were a few creatures with clamshells around them, but their bodies were like those of dragons, releasing a terrifying aura. They were all extremely powerful, especially one of them that released a bit of True Dragon aura.

“An exceptional talent! Jiaotu Race’s young supreme being came!” Everyone cried out in shock, understanding that he came to observe the ins and outs of You Yu.

Hong!

Right at this moment, the void split open. A group of creatures emerged, all of their auras extraordinary. They carried divine light, and bone texts curled up around them.

“Demonic Crack Butterfly!”

There were people who gasped, recognizing the creatures that appeared.

They weren’t that large, being a meter or two in length. Their bodies were covered in stripes and radiated brilliantly, making others feel fear. This type of demonic butterfly’s vicious name was well known, and it was completely produced through slaughter.

When pure-blooded Demonic Crack Butterflies reached maturity, a single flap of their wings would produce tens of thousands of cracks in the sky. They were extremely powerful.

More than ten demonic butterflies appeared, but one of them was extremely special. Not only was its body resplendent and curling with holy radiance, there was even a terrifying horn on its head. In addition, there were a few phoenix feathers by its rear section!

Everyone was stupefied. Was this still a Demonic Crack Butterfly?

“Mutated Demonic Butterfly, one with noble bloodline, rumored to be one of the most powerful exceptional talents. We actually saw this type of unique Demonic Crack Butterfly!”

Everyone sighed.

This race was extremely powerful. Upon receiving news of this, they definitely started up a great transport formation to come here.

This left everyone stupefied. The great battle hadn’t even truly started, yet such powerful creatures already arrived to watch.

Wild grass grew everywhere here. Ancient trees towered about.

However, not even this type of abandoned scene could hide the great mountains’ majesticness. Strand after strand of auspicious energy rose in spirals, surging from between the great peaks, cliffs, and piles of debris.

That mountain was extremely quiet. Only half of the decorated archway remained, showing traces of humans residing here in the past, that an inheritance used to exist.

Celestial Clan’s experts had hurried over a long time ago. They stood together while gazing towards the great mountain ahead. They stared at the mountain gate, none of their expressions kind.

“Where is You Yu? Which one is he? I’ve heard about how extraordinary he is in his generation for a long time already. What does he look like exactly?”

Many people were curious, looking towards that place. However, they didn't see him, unable to recognize which one of them he was.

"Yi, where is You Yu? He doesn't seem to be in this group." There were some that became suspicious.

"Who is that woman? Why is she so beautiful? Just too stunning!" Quite a few people cried out when they saw Celestial Clan's Yun Xi.

She drew a lot of attention, because she was extraordinary, unable to avoid attention even if she wanted to. Her figure was tall and wonderful, her purple hair soft and glowing like satin as it scattered down to her waist.

Her skin was soft and tender, snow white and fine, her eyes were like clear autumn waters, and her eyelashes long and lips red. There was an extraordinary style. Even though she didn't have a smile on her face, her appearance still moved hearts.

"That's Celestial Clan's exceptional young lady named Yun Xi. It is rumored that she came from the lower realm, and now that she merged with the heaven's mandate stone, she has become the most resplendent pearl of the sect."

There were people who understood the inner details, saying this softly.

When everyone heard this, they sighed. Celestial Clan's pearl, one that merged with the heaven's mandate stone; outsiders can just forget about it. There was no way they would allow her to marry outside the clan.

This was especially the case when there was a powerful supreme being youth like You Yu. If the clan considered the importance of a powerful bloodline, they would most likely try to match these two together.

Ao...

Heavenly wolves howled towards the mood. A golden vortex appeared from the horizon, snapping apart ancient trees and sending enormous rocks flying. The scene was terrifying to the extreme.

That place was chaotic, destroying the mountain region. There was a terrifying aura that was brought along. In the end, a gold figure appeared, a blonde youth with eagle like eyes appeared. His aura was shocking.

"Fire Province prairie's Golden Wolf, an exceptional talent!" Someone shivered inwardly.

Hong!

In another direction, purple energy appeared from the east. An extremely cool and elegant woman with a divine sword on her back walked out from the void. She hurried over to this place through a Region shattering symbol.

This left everyone shocked. Region shattering symbol was in between Space shattering symbol and Realm shattering symbol in efficiency. It was extremely precious, able to allow transportation through provinces.

Who is this? For the sake of observing this battle, she actually used up such a precious symbol!

"She is Sword Palace's holy lady, known for her brilliant sword. She is undefeated through ten provinces!"

There were just too many people who came, so there were naturally people who had broader experiences, recognizing this woman. It made quite a few people cry out with alarm after hearing this.

Then, a scarlet haired youth appeared that looked to be in his early twenties. He had a pair of blood wings on his back, and scarlet multicolored radiance erupted from his entire body. There was a terrifying bloody baleful aura.

Si!

This person was intimidating from the first glance, as if he came from hell. It made the fine hairs of everyone here stand on end, and a layer of goosebumps appeared on their skin.

"This is the young master of Blood Sea. There are at least a hundred provinces between them and Goddess Province. Why did he end up coming?" An elder said with a low voice.

"Fire Province has many divine materials, as well as ancient flames. He most likely came for self improvement and just happened to be around for this great confrontation." Another elder said.

Then, they stared at the people by their side, telling them to remember that these were all geniuses. They were destined to shine brilliantly in the great battle of three thousand provinces that was to come.

"Those that came to understand You Yu better, regarding him as a rival, are naturally all powerful enough themselves as well!"

Golden Wolf, Jiaotu, Crack Demonic Butterfly, Sword Palace holy lady, Blood Sea young master... these heaven warping experts, if not exceptional talents, were young supreme beings of their clan. They were extremely powerful and towered in their respective areas, extremely stunning figures. Everyone could tell with a single glance that they were different.

Apart from this, there was also Divine Cliff Academy's Mu Zixiao and Zuo Xiaodi, Goddess Academy's Feng Wu, Qing Yi, and others. This was a gathering of outstanding talents and geniuses.

"What? You Yu is over there!"

Unknowingly when, only then did everyone discover with shock that the mountain gate was a bit different. There was a terrifying aura spreading outwards, as well as a powerful fluctuations diffusing.

Only now did everyone realize that there was a figure within the overgrown grass that had appeared at an unknown time. He stood within the ruins.

This was precisely You Yu, his figure straight. Purple hair scattered down from his head as his back faced everyone. He was gazing into the small shoddy mountain gate, giving others a mighty and insurmountable feeling, powerful to the extreme.

"Come out to fight!" You Yu said, his voice possessing a type of magnetism, a bit of coldness, but even more so a terrifying penetrative force.

Honglong!

Within the dao rite, there were enormous rocks that were blasted apart. Debris rushed into the air, forming a terrifying domain that was extremely frightening. ~~now~~ ~~the~~ ~~1n~~

Everyone was shocked. You Yu was actually treating this with such seriousness, not acting with any bit of carelessness. Was he going to go all out to fight this declining inheritance's disciple?

Even though they knew that this 'great senior brother' was formidable, to the extent where he could be said to be extraordinary, yet everyone still believed that You Yu was stronger.

Only, the current scene made everyone serious. They looked in that direction. This... could this be a great battle between tigers and dragons?

"Don't tell me that this 'great senior brother' is so outstanding that even You Yu has to stake it all, needing to take action with full power? This... is a bit absurd!"

"It really is a bit inconceivable. How could he be so strong?"

There were others that mocked, saying, "What do you all understand? This is what You Yu is used to doing, a lion that goes all out in hunting a rabbit. He would never underestimate an enemy or act careless."

When people heard this, many of them couldn't help but feel relieved. You Yu truly had the manner of a lion. Comparatively speaking, everyone was more willing to believe that this 'great senior brother' was the weaker one.

Clear footsteps sounded. An elegant and handsome youth appeared. Many people were seeing this 'great senior brother' for the first time. They couldn't help but be shocked, because he was too young!

Compared to a few exceptional talents, this was a youngster that wasn't even eighteen yet, still a bit tender. His eyes were too pure, clear like crystal.

Only, no one dared to look down on him. To kill Celestial Clan's Yu Lun with a single spear, no matter what, the word terrifying was definitely associated with him!

"Over here!" Shi Hao spoke. He took a step outwards, and then he immediately disappeared, landing on a distant mountaintop, not willing to destroy Supreme Being Dao Rite while fighting a great battle.

Hong!

You Yu followed, and he also took action. He wasn't willing to waste any time. His palm shone, releasing five streaks of divine multicolored light. Every single one turned into a mountain ridge.

At this moment, even the void was restricted. Only five mountain ridges descended from the heavens, releasing different divine multicolored light. They shone brilliantly.

This was the Five mountain imprint, a great divine ability that originated from Western Sect. Everyone was shocked; they never expected him to know this method.

This type of divine ability required the understanding of the profound mysteries of the earth element, as well as a fixed amount of understanding towards the natural laws of space. Only then would the five great mountains that could kill deities be produced.

Forget about a single person, even if it were ten thousand cultivators, when the five great mountains descended, they would all be suppressed and killed, crushed into ashes.

Dong!

A muffled sound rang through the air. Divine light rushed into the heavens. The five great mountains smashed apart. Supreme Being Dao Rite's youth towered there, only raising a single fist towards the sky.

How terrifying! This was what everyone thought inwardly.

They all knew that he was strong, but they never expected him to be so formidable and domineering. When others broke through the Five mountain imprint, they all had to use bone texts and secret methods to deal with it, while he was completely different, allowing the divine mountains to crush down, in the end blasting them apart with a single fist: simple, direct, tyrannical!

Ahou...

Ten thousand beasts roared, their voices shaking heaven and earth. Many cultivators were so shocked their souls began to tremble. That was a tremendous pressure that was difficult to defend against.

You Yu took action. He was brandishing his fist, and in the end, the heavens above and earth below became covered in brilliance. There were beast figures everywhere, covering the sky and hiding the sun. The aura was powerful to an unimaginable degree.

"Ten thousand beast fist!"

Even a few elders were greatly moved. The secret method You Yu understood was extraordinary. This was Beast Sea's extreme art, known as an unmatched fist method!

At this moment, ten thousand beasts roared through heaven and earth, among them not only including creatures like Pixiu, White Tiger, Yazi, but also True Dragon, Qilin, and other existences that were terrifying to the extreme.

In the heavens above and earth below, there were vicious beasts everywhere. They were all roaring and releasing divine might as they threw themselves over murderously.

When ten thousand beasts moved, there was naturally a heaven collapsing and earth rending effect. It shook this entire battlefield, affecting everyone's hearts.

However what was completely unexpected was that Shi Hao continued to stand there, fearless as he faced the attacks of ten thousand beasts, facing his opponents' fist divine ability.

You Yu's eyes erupted with divine radiance. He narrowed his eyes. He originally prepared these long distance attacks for Huang, because he knew about the Magical force immunity.

He was just using this 'great senior brother' as a practice target, but he never expected that it couldn't do anything to him!

After a flurry of attacks, the other party was drowned in symbols!

Then, like a demonic god, You Yu rushed over, easily tearing apart a great mountain and tossing the two halves of the great peak aside. He grabbed towards Shi Hao who was dodging in midair.

Everyone sucked in a cold breath of air. What kind of divine might was this? Tearing apart a great peak was as easy as ripping apart a scarecrow! It was a bit too shocking.

Hong!

Heaven collapsed and earth split. The entire void began to tremble intensely. Both individuals produced a fist imprint, erupting with world shocking radiance!

“Blood!”

“It has just started, yet someone is already bleeding!”

Everyone was shocked. This was an incredibly intense struggle. Was life and death going to be decided so soon?!

Chapter 774 - You Yu Versus Great Senior Brother

Heaven and earth swayed. Bone texts flickered.

Blood splashed outwards, bright red and striking, accompanied with scarlet multicolored light. It was extremely dazzling.

“Divine blood, there is an abnormal scene!” Even a few older generation experts became serious, their pupils releasing strands of radiance.

The blood that scattered outwards released blazing red multicolored light, almost as if it was burning. A terrifying fluctuation rippled outwards, every drop more resplendent and beautiful than rubies.

Dong!

Palms and fingers collided again, producing a thunderous noise.

The two young experts passed each other. Symbols interweaved and divine light rushed into the heavens. They each backed up, and then they pulled back their fists, standing on different mountain peaks.

“Supreme Being Dao Rite really has produced quite the character, actually able to take on You Yu’s fist head on without dying, only bleeding a bit between the palms and fingers...” Someone released a light sigh.

Everyone saw that this pretty and delicate youth’s hand was bright red, carrying blood drops. His head was currently lowered, looking at his palm.

“Being able to do this is already quite excellent. Blocking You Yu’s strike, this individual can be considered stunning. How many people throughout the different provinces could accomplish this?”

The exceptional talent of an Emperor Clan, one that merged with the heaven’s mandate stone, had a fighting strength that was difficult to appraise. Yet now, a shoddy monastery’s disciple could actually stop him, not dying immediately.

On the other mountain peak, You Yu stood there, his purple hair thick and dancing about in the wind. His eyes were like divine lamps as they released terrifying radiance that was resplendent and intimidating. There was a type of unmatched temperament.

“You Yu is unmatched, who can compete against him?!” Celestial Clan’s youngsters were all excited, because You Yu injured the shoddy monastery’s youth with a single strike. It stirred them on.

Recently, there was just too much bad news for Celestial Clan. Their immortal treasure was stolen, Huang unleashed a great slaughter, and then Yu Lun was killed by a small monastery’s disciple. It really was terrible for them.

Now, You Yu took action, moving unhindered, exuding a type of insurmountable power. It made the blood of Celestial Clan’s younger generation boil.

“You Yu, this child truly is extraordinary, even a bit stronger than what we had anticipated. How could a trifling monastery’s disciple compare to our clan’s young supreme being?”

It was a Divine Flame Realm expert that spoke. His eyes were full of praise. He was quite grateful that Celestial Clan had qualified successors. They would definitely display their brilliance again in the future.

“But of course! My clan’s exceptional talent has ancient Emperor blood flowing within him, the imprint of being unrivaled in his bones. If he cannot even easily dominate the disciple of a small monastery, then how can he overlook the higher realms’ three thousand provinces?” Another Divine Flame Realm elder said proudly.

The group of young celestials were even more excited, feeling proud for their own race. They envisioned the future where You Yu led them on a path of resurgence. He would definitely rise up, his aura devouring mountains and rivers, his name left behind in the annals of history.

The Celestial Clan’s True deities arrived, only their expressions were serious. They didn’t reveal looks of joy like their disciples, instead releasing cold radiance from their eyes. They really wanted to personally take action.

“You Yu is so powerful, it seems like Supreme Being Dao Rite’s inheritor is going to be defeated quite easily. It won’t take long.”

“Just a single fist from You Yu injured that youth.”

Under everyone’s discussions, Golden Wolf, Crack Demonic Butterfly, Blood Sea young master, Feng Wu, Jiaotu, and others revealed a look of shock, their eyes releasing radiance as they stared at the battlefield.

“Shut up! What do you all understand? That’s not the case at all! The blood is You Yu’s!” The Golden Wolf shouted. He turned into a youth, his head of golden hair shining like the sun, releasing blinding light. Meanwhile, his pupils were penetrating like blades.

Everyone trembled at first, intimidated by the terrifying might that was released. Then, they were shocked. What did he mean? The blood wasn’t left behind by Supreme Being Dao Rite’s disciple?

Everyone became stupefied, their expressions becoming rigid.

Originally, they were still discussing how powerful You Yu was, believing that he injured his opponent with a single fist. However now, they heard these words. It was just too sudden.

“You Yu’s blood?” Quite a few people swallowed their saliva, feeling that this was unbelievable. Their faces were full of shock as they looked towards the battlefield.

You Yu’s figure was straight as he stood on the mountain peak like a demonic god, the powerful spiritual pressure he exerted making them feel a great pressure. His eyes were deep. They couldn’t see the situation of his hands due to the long sleeves.

On the other side, even though Supreme Being Dao Rite youth’s hands were red with blood dripping down, it seemed like... he really didn’t have any injuries.

Everyone erupted into an uproar. This was just the first strike, yet You Yu was the one that suffered a loss, not this small shoddy monastery’s disciple? This was too hard to believe.

“This can’t be true!” Celestial Clan’s group of youngsters’ faces became pale. They forcefully clenched their fists as they stared forward.

It was actually this type of result, completely different from what they had just cried out, not like that at all. This left them shocked, as well as a bit fearful, worrying that You Yu would be defeated.

Celestial Clan’s Divine Flame Realm elders were shocked as well, because not even they saw the truth just now. The main reason was because they had too much confidence in You Yu, not expecting that youth’s flesh to be so ridiculously powerful.

In the distance, the ones that were watching the battle clamored with noise, voices sounded loudly.

“En?” n-(0velbIn

Celestial Clan’s True deities’ eyes flickered, feeling a bit relieved. They released a breath.

Apart from this, the outstanding figures of different sects widened their eyes, revealing looks of shock.

Meanwhile, the Golden Wolf, Sword Palace’s holy lady, Feng Wu, Mu Zixiao, Crack Demonic Butterfly, and others revealed serious expressions as they watched the changes that were taking place on the battlefield.

Shi Hao’s right hand was entirely red, releasing scarlet fiery radiance. It also extended up his entire arm, covering it with bone texts. Waves of rumbling sounds could be heard.

“Blood paste hand!”

Divine Cliff Academy's outstanding talent Mu Zixiao shouted, his expression grave. Those three words seemed to carry demonic nature.

When the others heard this, their expressions all changed.

Even a few elders trembled, their eyebrows standing on end as they widened their divine eyes. They carefully inspected Shi Hao's arm, and then they couldn't help but gasp.

The cultivators from all sects shivered coldly, feeling a layer of goosebumps appear on their bodies.

Blood paste hand was an extremely terrifying fist imprint. Once it was refined, when it landed on the body of a similar level expert, it would immediately make that person's flesh wither away, exhausting its spiritual essence and turning it into a bloody paste.

This type of secret method was extremely vicious, known as a forbidden method.

In the past, there were quite a few Heavenly deities that died under this fist imprint, to the extent where there were even a few sect masters that nursed grievances because of this as well. It was known as a 'demonic hand' for killing great figures.

This type of method was extremely difficult to cultivate, not really some secret method restricted to a single sect. If one had the patience and was willing to pay the price, they could obtain the complete scriptures. Only, it was too difficult to cultivate, with a single mistake exhausting one's blood essence, making one suffer a loss themselves. Not many people were able to cultivate this ability.

No one expected You Yu to grasp this type of secret method, using his own blood as a medium to display the Blood paste hand!

Supreme Being Dao Rite's inheritor was clearly in quite a predicament.

Shi Hao's entire arm was in burning pain, experiencing a type of terrifying corrosion. This type of feeling was not good at all. It was a bit troublesome. Blood paste hand was one of the higher realms' most vicious fist imprints.

"Open!"

He shouted loudly, his breath like thunder. Electricity appeared in the void, and his entire arm released auspicious multicolored light. He used his own powerful precious techniques to expel the blood colored symbols.

Only, this type of secret method was quite unique, as if it attached to his bones and nerves. Once it stuck on, it was difficult to expel, as if it was going to completely merge with the flesh.

This was where the Blood paste hand's frightfulness laid. It would turn the flesh into paste; this process was difficult to stop!

Peng!

Shi Hao didn't try to just passively get rid of it, but instead using offense in place of defense. The flesh and blood within his entire arm moved, blood surged, turning into a divine sword, releasing blazing sword energy.

Chi!

His pores shone, releasing a bloody mist. Then, bone texts grew dim, and his arm that seemed to be burning returned to normal, no longer fluctuating with symbols.

“Supreme Being Dao Rite’s ‘great senior brother’ is so formidable, unexpectedly able to neutralize the Blood paste hand!”

Forget about the youth, even a few elders widened their eyes, feeling extremely shocked.

In the past, the reason why many Heavenly deities and sect masters died under this fist imprint was because it was extremely strange and sinister. When both parties were at the same level, it was extremely difficult to stop.

Hong!

That mountain region released blinding radiance, because the two young experts took action again, clashing together. It was like two great peaks colliding, releasing tremendous power.

The two of them quickly exchanged attacks, turning into two indistinct shadows. There were expanses of divine light that surged around them; their speeds were too fast. In the blink of an eye, they exchanged over a hundred moves.

This left everyone shocked. They originally thought that a few dozen exchanges would end the battle, never expecting Supreme Being Dao Rite’s ‘great senior brother’ to be so powerful, unexpectedly evenly matched with You Yu.

When this result appeared, it toppled the prediction many people had before the battle. Both sides were tyrannical, the battle unpredictable. This would definitely become a great battle whose results were difficult to predict.

You Yu was extremely powerful, taking the initiative to attack from the start of the battle. Vicious attacks were released unendingly, sometimes like a Zhuyan leaping into the air, other times like a great Peng spreading its wings as he rushed forward murderously.

Peng!

His hands each produced an imprint, shaking the void. One had was a tiger, the other a dragon, and while accompanied with tremendous roars, a tiger and a dragon appeared, throwing themselves forward. The precious imprints were truly shocking, and at this moment, they charged viciously at Shi Hao.

Chi!

Shi Hao’s fists released resplendent radiance, blasting the void until it distorted with his world shaking divine force. He faced the tiger and dragon head on.

Blinding radiance erupted between the two like lightning. This was all produced by the collision, the clash of divine force. Beams of light rushed into the heavens.

If any of the spectators were caught in the blastwave, they would definitely explode on the spot, turning into bloody mist.

Shi Hao blocked the other party, and at the same time, his entire being erupted with brilliance, releasing a wave of shocking fluctuations. One of his legs became like a dragon snake's tail, lashing outwards with great force.

This was the Golden Snake leg, a precious technique he obtained from Origin Sky Secret Realm. Its name was quite ordinary, but its power was shocking, like a whip produced by a Dragon Snake. Its power made the void tremble.

You Yu was extremely outstanding. With a raise of his hand, he raised a mountain peak and smashed it at Shi Hao.

Kacha!

Shi Hao's Golden Snake leg left behind a golden whip shadow, thrashing on the mountain and blasting it apart. Enormous rocks scattered the clouds, smoke and dust flew everywhere. Meanwhile, this leg's direction didn't change, locking in on You Yu, continuing to lash outwards, unexpectedly containing a resonance of a Dragon Snake.

Peng!

You Yu's arms guarded against this attack, shaken up greatly, his blood and qi roiled. His head of purple hair danced about crazily, and his eyes shone. Two resplendent and blinding spears shot out from his pupils.

Dang!

An expanse of lightning fired out as soon as Shi Hao opened his mouth, blasting them away. It turned into bone texts before scattering into the void.

Meanwhile, Shi Ha's right palm slapped down. A sphere of light wrapped around it, ultimately turning into an enormous ball of lightning the size of a mountain before smashing down on You Yu.

This was an application of the Lightning Emperor's precious technique. It turned into a lightning palm that immediately erupted with power.

Hou...

You Yu roared loudly, producing heavenly sound. The symbols in his mouth rippled outwards, and then it produced a wave of symbols that swept out like a tsunami.

It was similar to the Lion's roar divine ability. This was 'Celestial roar', an incomparably violent attack that made the void tremble and caused several great mountains below to split apart inch by inch. The scene was extremely terrifying.

Shi Hao's hand drew out an arc, and then an expanse of bone text appeared, isolating the heavenly sound. In addition, a golden spear formed from lightning appeared in his hands. He directly pierced it outwards towards the area between You Yu's brows.

Hong!

Heaven and earth erupted. You Yu's hands merged, clasping the spear's edge in between, and then erupted with endless radiance. His figure was imposing and magnificent.

Many people trembled inwardly. This was heaven's imprint! When two hands merged, it was known to be able to sever all tangible objects in this world, one of the Celestial Clan's restricted arts!

Sure enough, the edge of the spear exploded into heaven shocking lightning that covered the world. Electrical arcs flew in all directions, terrifying to the extreme. It was as if golden waves were engulfing the skies.

However, there were quite a few people who had sharp eyes. They saw a drop of blood flow out from between You Yu's fingers. That place was injured.

"It was true! During the first collision against Supreme Being Dao Rite's inheritor, his palm was injured, dripping out blood. That was why he directly used the Blood paste hand."

Everyone was greatly moved. They now understood that it was because You Yu's hands were injured that he displayed the terrifying Blood paste hand.

How terrifying was Supreme Being Dao Rite's inheritor's flesh? To actually make You Yu suffer a light injury right from the start, it really was terrifying, almost a bit absurd.

A declining monastery silently nurtured this type of young supreme being? Their name wasn't known before; this was a bit strange!

Many people stared at Shi Hao, and a few of them even revealed looks of surprise.

Heaven's imprint merged together. You Yu was cold and ruthless. It was as if worlds collided when his hands merged, blasting apart the expanse of symbols Shi Hao produced, making the heavens tremble.

Hong!

Shi Hao's body shone. Bone texts covered it densely. Heavenly calamity light appeared, and as if it was going to destroy the entire world, it submerged everything below. This was the precious technique of his former supreme being bone!

This place completely erupted!

Chapter 775 - This Old One is Huang

Bone texts covered this place densely. Tribulation lightning poured down from the heavens like starry streams, drowning You Yu within. This was completely a punishment from heaven.

"Heaven's imprint!"

You Yu shouted loudly. He had a bad feeling, activating the Celestial Clan's restricted precious technique again. His hands merged together, producing endless symbols. They erupted outwards, pouring out like a great sea with him at the center.

Peng!

This place was covered in a boundless expanse, and nothing could be seen any longer. Everything was covered in bone texts.

Below, there were a few great mountains that melted like ice and snow, quickly crumbling apart before disappearing, turning into ashes under the two great precious techniques.

The backs of everyone watching this battle felt ice-cold. They couldn't help but take steps backwards. Many of them were trembling with fear. What kind of heavenly might is this? They were all Supreme experts, yet how many of them could take on these attacks?

Hong!

This place trembled. The void became blurry, deforming severely. It was as if everything was going to explode.

When the curtain of light disappeared, You Yu's hair scattered about, his eyes ice-cold as he stared forward. His hand was dripping with blood, the same hand that an injury appeared on before.

After experiencing this great collision, that injury split apart again, unable to heal. Bright red radiance erupted, a sinister demonic force within the blood.

Shi Hao was calm, his body perfectly fine, but inwardly shocked. This was the first time he displayed the precious technique recorded on the bone piece, and currently it was still incomplete, unable to display its true power.

If it was completely restored, it would be called Heaven's hand.

When he was borrowing Celestial Clan's immortal melody for comprehending the dao, even though it made the imprints of this precious technique appear again within his flesh, there were still a few bone texts that were indistinct, not completely comprehended. He needed time.

"What a pity, it is still lacking a bit. Otherwise, it would have already blasted You Yu's body apart!"

Shi Hao admitted that he had underestimated this individual before. He was worthy of being an exceptional talent of the Celestial Clan. After merging with the Heaven's mandate stone, he became a terrifying enemy.

In reality, You Yu was quite shocked. This was just a shoddy small monastery, so how could this type of inheritor appear?!

In the distance, the Celestial Clan found it difficult to calm down. Heaven's imprint was known as the most powerful 'heaven art', and now that You Yu underwent a perfect transformation, his cultivation became quite a bit stronger, this type of overlaying effect was definitely enough to overlook normal exceptional talents!

However, this obscure and unknown youth before him was unexpectedly so difficult to deal with. His right hand was dripping with blood, the injury difficult to heal. This was just too shocking.

Everything was quiet. This result exceeded the predictions of every cultivator here. The inheritor of this shoddy monastery was powerful to a ridiculous degree. Not even the number one young supreme being of an Emperor Clan could suppress him.

“Enough. It will end here!” You Yu said. His aura surged, erupting with the most shocking divine force fluctuations, making the earth below split apart and the distant mountain peaks crack. The heavens began to distort. His aura was extremely powerful, and in an instant, it was as if an enormous prehistoric beast, a True Dragon was waking, about to throw the world into chaos.

Everyone’s hearts trembled, their souls shaking as well.

However, in that instant, this type of terrifying aura disappeared, coming quickly but leaving quickly as well.

At the same time, You Yu disappeared from this world, his figure becoming blurry and completely disappearing.

What was going on? Everyone was stupefied as they looked around for him.

“You Yu is an exceptional talent. This is his precious technique, and now, he is displaying it!” Someone knew the truth.

The cultivators from various sects were shaken. This type of precious technique was extremely special, unexpectedly allowing him to disappear from heaven and earth. It was so powerful that not even the deities could discover his whereabouts. n-(OvelbIn

Moreover, this was just a fraction of his precious technique. There was definitely thunderous might!

Many people trembled inwardly. This type of divine ability was impossible to defend against. If You Yu used this to deliver a killing blow, who could defend against him?

However, there were also a few people who became excited, for example, the Golden Wolf, Demonic Crack Butterfly, Jiaotu, Blood Sea young master, and others. They finally saw the divine ability bestowed by the heavens onto the Celestial Clan’s exceptional talent!

The reason why these young outstanding talents came was precisely to learn more and observe carefully. They now saw You Yu’s precious technique.

Apart from them, the Celestial Clan were also excited and moved. They finally witnessed their clan’s young supreme being display his might. This battle was most likely going to conclude.

Even though these people hadn’t seen it before, they knew how terrifying You Yu’s precious technique was. That was the unmatched technique most suited to him!

Yun Xi’s purple clothes fluttered about, her appearance extremely beautiful, her figure impressive. Right now, her face was calm as she quietly watched the battlefield.

On the other side, Yue Chan was elegant and outstanding, her expression quiet and peaceful. There wasn’t a trace of worry.

Shi Hao was unmoving like a mountain. While standing in the void, he overlooked the mountains and rivers, saying, “You Yu, this is your methods? To hide in the darkness?”

“I am looking down on you from the heavens. Everything should end here!” You Yu’s voice sounded, but it was unknown which direction it came from.

Hong!

Suddenly, a shocking fluctuation erupted in the void. Shi Hao felt sharp pain from his eyes. There were unexpectedly strange symbols used on his body.

“Heaven’s judgment -- depriving light!”

You Yu’s voice sounded, cold and ruthless, as if he was going to wipe out everything. It was as if he was high up above and carrying out a terrifying ruling.

Shi Hao’s eyes were in sharp pain. The radiance before his eyes retreated, and endless darkness surged over. He blasted his fist outwards, striking towards the source of the voice. However, he didn’t make contact with anything.

Hong!

On the contrary, a ferocious magical imprint struck over, fierce and domineering, blasting towards the back of his head. It was incomparably terrifying; bone texts poured out like a sea.

Even though everything before Shi Hao's eyes was black, unable to see anything else, there was no way he would be easily struck like that. He quickly moved out of the way.

“Heaven’s judgment -- depriving sound!” You Yu’s cold voice sounded again. A strange magical law appeared, surrounding this heaven and earth.

Shi Hao discovered that all sounds disappeared. The entire world was quiet and deathly still. His ears went deaf.

“Do you have any final words?”

Within this dark and cold world, Shi Hao could only hear You Yu’s words. His senses couldn’t capture any other sounds or scenery.

This type of precious technique was extremely strange. It unexpectedly deprived one of their five senses!

“Heaven’s judgment -- depriving flesh!” You Yu’s voice sounded again. This was a killing blow. The true danger arrived, surrounding him. Bone texts were everywhere.

Hong!

Even though Shi Hao couldn’t see or hear, he felt a sense of danger from deep inside. Symbols appeared on the surface of his body. His hands formed imprints, ready to face the attack at any moment.

Dong!

It was as if a divine hammer struck down on every inch of Shi Hao’s flesh. Those symbols were everywhere, attacking his flesh from all angles to pulverize him into bloody paste.

Shi Hao was greatly shaken. Even with his body protecting bone texts surging and his hands forming fist imprints, bombarding outwards, he still wasn’t able to defend himself.

The other party's precious technique was extremely special. There were no holes, and everything was used on a single person to wipe him out.

This was different from the past!

Shi Hao seemed to have felt an enormous demonic disk appear in the air, swirling here to crush his flesh. It was terrifying to the extreme.

In reality, there really was a demonic disk like this formed from bone texts, depriving Shi Hao of his flesh, displaying the terrifying nature of this precious technique.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao roared loudly. Heavenly calamity lightning appeared again, appearing everywhere, attacking all sides indiscriminately. This was originally a wide range forbidden great divine ability.

"Your struggle is futile! This is the world's ruling, seizing light and sound, erasing your flesh to wipe you out." You Yu said coldly.

It was unknown where he was. It was as if he was an otherworldly deity that overlooked a forlorn mortal.

Hong!

Heavenly calamity lightning erupted, blasting apart the demonic disk, making the bone texts dim quite a bit. It was no longer able to truly destroy Shi Hao's flesh.

"Heaven's judgment -- depriving primordial spirit!" You Yu shouted. This time, he was serious and cold, using even more terrifying methods to push his precious techniques to the limit.

With a weng sound, the space between Shi Hao's brows experienced great pain. His primordial spirit was unexpectedly going to be pulled out from his skull, separating from the flesh.

This was an extremely serious matter. Once the two separated, he would definitely be in great danger. His flesh would definitely be thoroughly destroyed by the other party, and while separated from the shell, the primordial spirit was like a plant without roots.

What kind of strange divine ability was this?

Shi Hao faced this technique. Even now, he was unable to make sense of this matter. The other party seemed to be invisible, and precious techniques came from all directions, all targeted at his body. It was difficult for him to free himself.

Meanwhile, he wanted to attack the other party, yet he couldn't find a target. This left him in an extremely defensive state.

Pu!

Shi Hao coughed out a mouthful of blood, because depriving light, sound, and flesh were still ongoing. Together with the depriving primordial spirit, dealing with all of it left him quite drained.

Shi Hao's flesh was crushed by the demonic disk and being viciously grinded. His primordial spirit was wrapped around by a divine chain and pulled on. A divine ruling to execute him was going to be carried out.

"Why can't I injure him?" Shi Hao asked himself. He was injured, blood trickling out from his body, but it wasn't so bad as to injure his core.

A formless screen of light appeared. His only heavenly passage vaguely formed.

However, this first heavenly passage wasn't completely opened, because it felt a wave of pressure. He had to break past that void pressure in order to truly appear.

In that instant, a streak of light flew past his mind. He now completely understood. The so-called depriving light, sound, flesh, primordial spirit and others were all illusions that misguided him.

The other's true precious technique was related to space!

This flash of comprehension made Shi Hao understand that he had entered a void cage. All of the so-called attacks from the other party were just words to misguide him. The true precious technique was the spatial dao!

This really was extraordinary. If one couldn't wake up from this, they would definitely die without understanding why. It was just too misleading, and even powerful exceptional talents wouldn't be able to understand.

Upon understanding what was happening, Shi Hao entered a state of comprehension. He knew that to break through this method, the most effective method was to break through this cage with his most powerful divine ability.

Hong!

Shi Hao formed a fist imprint, displaying his unmatched precious technique -- reincarnation!

At this moment, not only did this display a power of time, there was also a domineering divine force. It was a fist condensed with the power of time. His fist erupted with tens of thousands of streaks of radiance as it blasted towards the heavens.

Pu!

You Yu coughed out blood. He revealed a look of shock. The other party actually understood the secret of his precious technique, breaking through his imprisonment, shaking up his core precious technique.

The void trembled, making him suffer damage as well. His body swayed, blood flowing from his mouth and dying his clothes red.

The void was broken through, and cracks appeared. The spacial cage became unstable, Shi Hao immediately recovered his sight, sound was restored to his ears, and his primordial spirit stabilized. Everything was restored.

"You actually saw through it!" You Yu wiped the blood from the corner of his lips. His powerful body shone, erupting with terrifying energy. His power could rapidly increase.

"This is the spatial cage I opened. As long as I will it, I can trap you for an eternity. In this place, I am the law. You can forget about leaving!" You Yu said coldly.

The crowd was nowhere in sight. This place was isolated from the outside world!

You Yu rose into the air and looked down at Shi Hao from above. "Under the effects of the Void dao, I am the lord, while you are just a prisoner. This is my world!"

Shi Hao remained calm, saying, "Since that's what you believe, I will defeat you in this very world."

He wasn't in a hurry to tear apart this space, instead preparing to fight.

"Void binding, depriving senses!" You Yu shouted, once again displaying the powerful and strange innate precious technique to imprison Shi Hao.

Only, this time, Shi Hao was prepared. He remained fearless, slowly opening his only heavenly passage. Even though it endured a tremendous pressure, he still succeeded.

As such, those strange and bizarre forces couldn't approach him.

"Huh?!" You Yu was shocked. Under his Void dao, there was still someone who could unexpectedly produce their own domain. It made his heart jump crazily.

"It's you!" He immediately realized with a start. He had his suspicions to begin with, but he was now even more certain. It was because he knew that Huang had this type of method.

"Correct. This old one is Huang. We met before!" Shi Hao said.

When You Yu heard this, he couldn't help but release a loud roar, erupting with all of his potential. There was even a wave of anger!

"I was looking for you!" He roared.

Huang, the one that destroyed the Celestial Clan's divine mines, killed the clan's experts, making them feel great pressure, and turning them into the laughingstock of all clans. The most important thing was that Huang stole the immortal treasure. He couldn't be let off.

In addition, Shi Hao even represented a small shoddy monastery, slaughtering the Celestial Clan's most powerful disciples, tarnishing the Celestial Clan's prestige, almost turning them into a joke.

"I will kill you!" You Yu roared. No matter what, this battle had to be carried out to the end. It was unavoidable.

"Since you know who I am, then I will join you in a battle!"

Shi Hao's body shone. The Kun Peng technique appeared. He hadn't used the full power of this precious technique in a long time, always suppressing it to avoid exposing himself. Now, he unleashed it.

"Kill!" Both individuals shouted loudly.

This battle was extremely shocking. The void cage trembled, and both individuals fought until they were crazy, fought until divine blood surged.

“Hou!” You Yu roared. His hair was completely disheveled. Not only did he use his Void dao, he even displayed the Celestial Clan’s greatest precious technique -- Heaven’s imprint.

The two clashed viciously, exchanging long over four to five hundred moves.

Shi Hao became more valiant the longer he fought. In the end, he erupted, using his only heavenly passage to protect himself. He displayed the Kun Peng technique to its limit, fighting to his heart’s content, his entire body free from worries.

“It’s been so long since I’ve been able to put my all into a fight. The Kun Peng technique has been slumbering for too long. Doesn’t your Celestial Clan want it? I will let you see it right here!” Shi Hao shouted.

This time, he began to display his might, no longer hesitating. His body and bone texts merged, becoming one with his spirit. His fighting strength immediately increased a level.

In that instant, the pressure You Yu faced multiplied!

“Kun Peng shattering all methods!”

Shi Hao roared, his entire body becoming resplendent. Brilliant golden feathers appeared around his body, and there were black stripes as well that released heart shaking power.

These were obviously not true feathers and just formed from bone texts.

“Kill!”

He released a loud shout. All of his divine feathers shone, releasing an undying aura. Then, they completely exploded. The so-called destroying all techniques were actually like this! It made You Yu feel fear.

These were Kun Peng true feathers, numbering in the thousands to ten thousands. They turned into heavenly arrows that penetrated heaven and earth, rushing over with extreme speed, covering everything in that area.

“Void dao!” You Yu shouted, wishing to disturb this attack with spatial natural laws and restrict it.

In addition, his hands merged together, forming Heaven’s imprint to protect himself, destroying a few true feathers. They released a great power.

However, this was a reflection of Shi Hao’s precious technique evolved to the limit. His methods were extraordinary, condensing his most terrifying fighting strength. Calling it a strike at the very peak was already more or less accurate.

The Void dao could only restrict it, and Heaven’s imprint couldn’t destroy all of them.

Pu!

Kun Peng true feathers blasted through space, piercing heaven and earth, covering everything densely as they arrived. In the end, many of them entered You Yu’s body, piercing through him. Blood splashed high into the air.

“Ah...”

You Yu released a loud roar. His entire body trembled. This cage became unstable, directly torn apart by the remaining fluctuations of the Kun Peng technique. Both of them appeared in the outside world.

Everyone was shocked. The two had disappeared just now, yet they reappeared. You Yu’s entire body was covered in blood. This... was too abrupt.

“What happened?”

“Why does Celestial Clan’s number one young supreme being have so many golden divine feathers impaled into his body?”

Everyone was shocked, all of them stunned.

Chapter 776 - Heaven’s Mandate Legend

“The situation is unstable, is You Yu going to be defeated?!”

Many people widened their eyes. The situation had developed to this state, exceeding everyone’s expectations. It all changed just too quickly.

Regardless of whether it was the younger generation or the older figures, they were all shocked. You Yu who didn’t have any opponents for dozens of provinces actually suffered such a great loss, seemingly in great danger!

“Cough... pu!”

You Yu staggered backwards, coughing out blood again. His tall and sturdy body had many golden feathers inserted within it. Blood dripped outwards, creating an extremely shocking sight.

How heroic was he? Ever since he started his path of cultivation, he had always defeated all in his path, rising unstoppably. There had never been anyone that exchanged over a few dozen attacks against him. He was so powerful that the younger generation felt despair.

Yet today, he was injured so severely!

The Golden Wolf, Sword Palace’s holy lady, Crack Demonic Butterfly, Blood Sea young master, Jiaotu and other exceptional talents all revealed strange expressions. The situation seemed to have suddenly changed, leaving them greatly shocked.

The Celestial Clan were immediately dumbstruck. The younger generation’s faces were snow white. Their clan’s number one young expert was left in such a miserable state, simply unimaginable. In their hearts, You Yu was always unmatched.

However, what they saw made their hearts sink, feeling a sense of defeat. The Celestial Clan’s hope of resurgence -- You Yu, was going to be defeated?

Celestial Clan’s Divine Flame Realm experts’ eyes erupted with radiance. Fiery light surged into the heavens and killing intent pervaded the air. They were about to take action to eliminate that pretty and delicate looking youth in front of them.

A small monastery's disciple was actually so domineering!

"We cannot leave him alive!" There were True deities from the Celestial Clan who said coldly. This was what they thought inside and transmitted through their divine senses, sounding in the ears of all of their clansmen.

This kind of result was an unbearable humiliation. They couldn't allow a youth to stand above the Celestial Clan's number one young supreme being!

However, under everyone's eyes, if they brazenly took action, the effects would be extremely negative. They would most likely be denounced by others and be kicked while they were down by a few great sects.

"Create a disturbance, and then kill him!" Someone said softly. He wanted to incite the younger generation and make this place chaotic, and then he would secretly take action.

There were quite a few of the Celestial Clan's younger generation whose eyes were red. This was a humiliation. The unmatched hero within their hearts was going to collapse. It was hard for them to accept this.

"Kill him!" A few people cried out, their hands carrying precious artifacts, about to rush over.

Yun Xi's clothes fluttered about with the wind, wrapping around her perfect body and setting off wonderful curves. Meanwhile, her head of purple hair also fluttered about, her oval face sparkling white, eyes like gemstones, her nose straight and tall. She was extremely stunning.

She found it difficult to remain calm. Even the powerful You Yu was defeated, it really was unexpected, making her moved. Celestial Clan's younger generation's glory was going to dim from this battle?

How could this shoddy small monastery produce such a powerful disciple? Her heart was rising and falling violently as she looked at You Yu, and then at that pretty and delicate youth.

"Yun Xi, take action as well." A True deity said secretly, having her produce the secret treasure she was bestowed by the clan's higher levels.

When Yun Xi heard this, her expression went sluggish, feeling hesitation. However, the clansmen urged her again, telling her that she had to take action urgently to disturb the peace of this place.

Her fair shining face was full of hesitation. Even though she was a member of the Celestial Clan and should obey orders, and swiftly take action, this really wasn't very honorable.

"Hurry up, there isn't enough time!" A clan elder roared.

Yun Xi's palm shone. An item appeared, surging with auspicious radiance, appearing like a lotus flower, sparkling and brilliant between her fingers. This was a sacred object bestowed by a Heavenly deity!

She knew how powerful this secret treasure was. Attacking like this would likely even kill a True deity.

Suddenly, ripples appeared from the distance. Mysterious fluctuations appeared. A woman looked over from that direction, elegant and aloof, her white clothes fluttered about, as if a cold beauty was descending into the world of mortals.

Yun Xi saw Qing Yi. Ripples appeared within her heart. The words that they had exchanged earlier in Goddess Academy appeared within her mind, leaving her a bit distracted. Her thoughts were complicated. Back then, that exceptional white clothed youth had voiced the unfairness Shi Hao received.

That white clothed young lady was smiling faintly, a green flame appearing between her brows like an imprint. It radiated brilliantly, releasing a mysterious and terrifying fluctuation.

Apart from this, Qing Yi pulled over Feng Wu, as well as a few elders from Goddess Academy.

Yun Xi was stupefied. Was the other party standing against them, going to stop Celestial Clan from taking action?

“Elders...” Yun Xi turned around to look at her clan’s deities.

“What else is there to hesitate over? Could it be that you want to watch You Yu die in battle, our Celestial Clan humiliated?” A Divine Flame Realm experts’ face revealed an ugly expression.

Suddenly, the bodies of all of the divine level experts from the Celestial Clan trembled, their expressions changing at the same time. Then, they widened their eyes, gazing towards the battlefield.

It was because at this moment, they heard a heaven shocking piece of news that exploded like thunder by their ears. That was You Yu secretly sending them a message, warning them.

“He is Huang, Shi Hao who came from the lower realm!”

You Yu’s entire body was covered in injuries and dripping with blood. The golden true feathers were unstoppable, piercing through his flesh. Some of them even nailed into his bones.

His hair was standing in anger. The other person stole their world shocking immortal treasure from their divine cave, and then continuously killed their clan’s heroes. This was an undisguised provocation and humiliation!

“If it really is him, then there’s nothing to be said. Don’t feel any restraining fear and directly wipe him out!” There were True deities who spoke, immediately erupting with killing intent, no longer holding themselves back. They were going to take action with full force.

“No!” You Yu stopped them. He wanted to personally kill Huang, to have Shi Hao’s corpse lay at his feet. He couldn’t be defeated by this person. He was going to redeem his own dignity.

“What are you saying?!” The True deity frowned inwardly, revealing discontent. They already knew that person’s identity, so how could they still sit still?

“This is my battle! I do not want you all to take action. I am going to put in my all and rise with this battle!” You Yu said. If he was defeated today, what kind of face would he have left?

He was the Celestial Clan’s number one expert. Even if he lost in the great battle of three thousand experts, he still couldn’t be defeated under the hands of Huang who the entire Celestial Clan was against. He couldn’t swallow this humiliation.

Regardless, he had to win, cutting Shi Hao down before him, using this to truly wash away the humiliation he suffered from just now!

In addition, from the present situation, it was already enough that he revealed Shi Hao's identity to the clansmen. What followed now was only the battle between him and Huang.

You Yu had long withdrew far enough. His body flickered with symbols, becoming incomparably dazzling, burning the Kun Peng true feathers and dissolving this great pain.

Shi Hao was extremely shocked. If it were other supreme experts, they would have died a long time ago, let alone trying to live and neutralize it. However, You Yu was unexpectedly still holding on.

One has to understand that those weren't true feathers but bone texts that carried Kun Peng power. They began to shine as soon as they penetrated the other party's flesh, trying to tear the other party apart.

Even powerful exceptional talents would find it difficult to live!

You Yu was too special. Even though cracks appeared in his flesh, he forcefully suppressed the injuries. A great dao divine bell sound rang from within his body, ear-splitting and deafening.

This was not only because his secret methods were shocking, but because there was something within his body as well that was helping him neutralize this hopeless situation, avoiding this difficult trial.

Shi Hao walked over, pressing forward.

You Yu took steps backwards, his figure becoming blurry and quickly disappearing from this place. He displayed the Void dao, the divine art bestowed onto him by the heavens. If he carefully hid and concealed himself, it would be difficult to find or approach him.

Hong!

Suddenly, a wave of holy light rushed out from You Yu's body.

There was a strange stone within his body that released auspicious radiance. It was scarlet red, then surging with purple energy, then spotlessly white like jade. It made this place incredibly resplendent.

You Yu's body shone, illuminating the heavens. Vast, holy, grand, solemn, there was an extremely powerful aura. Everything originated from that strange stone.

Chi!

All of the Kun Peng true feathers that pierced into his body were forced out, fired out back into the void and turning into bone texts, becoming energy that ultimately dissipated.

"That's... Heaven's mandate stone!"

Everyone widened their eyes. They saw that in his shining body was a strange stone that released auspicious multicolored radiance, lightning up this place until it became divine and auspicious. There was a great dao ringing through this place.

Many people's eyes became red. This type of thing was a rare object, and every single piece could create an exceptional expert. No one could forget the archaic six great celestials' legend.

It was precisely because of the six Heaven's mandate stones that an unmatched Emperor Clan was ultimately created!

"What a pity, once the Heaven's mandate stone starts to merge with a person, even if one seizes it, it won't merge with the body of another. It has already chosen its owner."

"However, after polishing it, it should still be a divine object."

You Yu underwent a shocking transformation. His injuries closed, his bones connected, healing the injuries created by the Kun Peng true feathers. In addition, every inch of skin and bone was shining.

Everyone sighed with astonishment. This strange stone really was an item of natural luck.

Heaven's mandate stone, its name wasn't randomly given, but instead had a deep meaning. Those that obtained it would receive something similar to the heavens' acknowledgement, representing the heaven's mandate.

Having a Heaven's mandate stone was equal to having several lives. As long as it was still there, one could quickly recover. Additionally, it had true meaning contained within, as well as strange matter that would allow one to undergo a perfect evolution.

The value of this item was unimaginable!

The mountains were clamoring with noise. Many people shouted outwards, the noise trembling the sky.

Not only was it because the Heaven's mandate stone was precious, but also because the two were about to fight again.

"Just a stone, what is so special about it?" Shi Hao said calmly. He pressed forward, his hair naturally scattering down on his chest and back. His eyes were bright, full of confidence.

"Your ignorance will be your end." You Yu said coldly. His voice was low like thunder, echoing throughout this mountain region.;

His body shone, recovering its peak state. Auspicious energy surged; he was clearly different.

"Yi, something isn't right, You Yu he... underwent some type of transformation!" Even Celestial Clan's people revealed looks of shock, let alone the others.

"All of you, back off. Don't take action." At this moment, Celestial Clan's True deities revealed strange looks, having Yun Xi and the clan's young disciples not to act rashly. It was because they felt something. Their eyes were burning with radiance, revealing a hint of expectation.

On another mountain peak, the green flame between Qing Yi's brows faded as well, recovering its tranquility. Her beautiful eyes were clear as she stared at the pair of young supreme beings on the battlefield.

Hong!

Something shocking happened. Silver radiance erupted from You Yu's back, rushing into the heavens like a volcano, shocking everyone. It scattered all of the nearby clouds.

A pair of silver wings appeared behind him. They were incredibly large and swirling with holy radiance. They were incredibly magnificent, the pure white splendor they scattered down like countless stars that arranged themselves in the sky.

"Heaven's wings!" A Divine Flame Realm expert from Celestial Clan said with a trembling voice.

Honglong!

You Yu's body roared like a tsunami. That was his blood moving, unexpectedly producing this type of power, leaving some people so shaken they couldn't stand still.

Chi!

A pair of dragon horns appeared above his head.

"Heaven's horns!" A True deity from Celestial Clan was moved. His body was lightly trembling.

Qiang!

Immediately afterwards, armor appeared piece by piece on You Yu's body. They sparkled with brilliance, condensed from symbols, not tangible matter.

"Divine armor bestowed by the heavens, it formed! He advanced to this type of state!" Many of Celestial Clan's elders trembled, feeling incomparably excited.

Then, they seemed to have calmed down, no longer feeling anxiety or worry. They backed off to watch the battle.

"This is the rumored... Heaven's mandate legend?" The cultivators of every clan didn't understand. Soon after, they woke up, remembering the Celestial Clan's legend.

Obtaining the heaven's mandate stone and merging with it was equivalent to obtaining the heaven's acknowledgement, and the geniuses that had talent could evolve a step further, undergoing a few changes. Their abilities would increase greatly.

If one could obtain Heaven's wings, Heaven's horn, and wear divine armor, they would be able to dominate the rest of the world!

These changes were known as -- Heaven's mandate legend.

Since the ancient times, the number of those that could carry out the Heaven's mandate legend were few and far between. However, they were all exceedingly powerful!

"Accept death!" You Yu rushed over. The armor covering him released divine radiance. He quickly rushed over, slaughtering towards the great enemy before him.

"No matter how powerful you are, you are only recreating the archaic six celestials' glory. What does that amount to? I am going to suppress you!" Shi Hao said. His face was calm, his eyes deep without a trace of fluctuation.

He was just too calm, content and without fear. He was full of self-confidence!

Everyone was greatly shaken. Even someone that displayed Heaven's mandate legend appeared, yet he still acted so carefree. What kind of freak was he exactly?

Shi Hao stood in his original place, unmoving like a mountain. In the end, he directly brandished his fist, sending golden radiance flying everywhere, trembling the heavens!

Chapter 777 - Unmatched Huang

Shi Hao's fist was heaven shocking. Golden radiance erupted in all directions, and powerful winds stirred about. A few mountain peaks were uprooted from the ground, unexpectedly pulled up, exploding in midair.

This was just a pretty and delicate youth, yet the fist he smashed outwards possessed such domineering force!

On the other side, You Yu's body erupted with auspicious light. He slaughtered forward, bone text formed armor covering his body. Divine multicolored light covered the sun, his fist warping the void.

Hong!

This was a great collision that shocked the soul. The sound was too great, and divine symbols erupted one after another, engraving themselves in the void. Powerful divine force surged.

At this moment, it was as if the sky and earth were turning upside down!

The void became indistinct, and the great earth split apart. Black cracks interweaved in the mountain range one after another, tearing apart quite a few mountains. The scene was extremely terrifying, shaking one down to their hearts.

The two heroes struggled to come out on top, as if they were freeing themselves from the shackles of the world. They were like two True Dragons who broke through their shackles, coming to the present era from the Immortal Ancient era to fight an intense battle.

Hu!

Great winds moved. You Yu moved backwards. When the enormous pair of silver wings moved, pure white holy splendor and mists spread outwards, even making a few mountains in the distance tremble.

He was just too powerful! This was the result of evolution after merging with the Heaven's mandate stone. The Heaven's mandate legend made him more powerful than before!

On the other side, Shi Hao stood there unharmed. The corners of his clothes fluttered about, his gaze penetrating. His body was tall and sturdy, bone texts blazing about him. He was calm and unperturbed.

What kind of power was this? He could actually withstand the Heaven's mandate legend!

It was dead silent, but everyone's hearts were violently beating. What a powerful youth! This declining small monastery actually produced this type of disciple. Were they going against the heavens?

Even now, many people didn't know that this was Huang!

There were many people from the Celestial Clan who felt uneasy. Just how powerful was this opponent? Not even You Yu who underwent this type of transformation could directly suppress him?

Yun Xi's beautiful face was full of shock. Her beautiful eyes flickered about as she stared at the battlefield.

The Celestial Clan's True deities' hearts all released a ge deng sound. Huang was powerful to the point where they felt a tremendous pressure.

However, soon after, they steadied their minds as well. It was because You Yu hadn't used his Heaven's wings, Heaven's horn, and armor bestowed from above yet. Those were the true killing methods!

"Ignorant, challenging the Heaven's mandate legend. You will die without a proper burial." You Yu said softly. His voice was extremely cold without any emotions, as if he was a master looking down at people from above, one who watched as ordinary people struggled in the world.

Immediately afterwards, he disappeared.

He displayed his own innate divine method, dragging Shi Hao into the void cage to carry out a final great confrontation!

Darkness attacked over, cold and silent.

After his first experience, Shi Hao understood his secret. Depriving light, sound, flesh, primordial spirit, and others were just a false pretense. The true nature laid in the Spatial dao.

"En?"

Shi Hao was startled. When he supported his only heavenly passage, he felt a tremendous resistance. It was extremely difficult to overcome.

He released a light grunt. The True Primordial Record operated, the bone texts engraving within every inch of his flesh. His body's vital energy quickly climbed to the peak. His entire being began to shine.

Meanwhile, his only heavenly passage finally supported itself. It was like a divine moon, but also like a golden sun. It surrounded him within, resplendent and dazzling.

You Yu was shocked. His innate divine ability was no longer like before, becoming quite a bit more powerful. The Heaven's mandate legend appeared; it wasn't just words. It really did increase his strength, making his Spatial dao's power increase greatly.

He never expected Shi Hao to be unharmed, continuing to produce that protective barrier. It was extremely bizarre.

"What kind of domain is this?" He looked at that barrier of light. When his eyes opened and closed, essence radiance shot out.

"You should make your move. Let me see just how glorious the Heaven's mandate legend really is!" Shi Hao said. The heavenly passage protected him, surrounding him like a blazing sun. Even his hair turned golden.

“Heaven’s mandate is unrivaled. You can go on your way!” You Yu had absolute confidence. He released a great shout and unleashed the most terrifying attack.

Hong!

The pair of dragon horns on his head shone. Two sharp blades flew outwards, hacking through the void and splitting apart heaven and earth. A draconic cry sounded, and it was as if the nine heavens and the tenth earth were shaken.

This type of aura was too terrifying, rushing over with extreme speed. One hacked towards the space between Shi Hao’s brows, while the other aimed for the waist.

Heaven’s horns!

This was the embodiment of Heaven's mandate legend, the horns bestowed by the heavens above. Its power was extremely great, able to easily tear through mountains and rivers. If it was powerful enough, in the future, it could even hack down the sun, moon and stars in an instant!

Shi Hao’s eyes were deep. The bone texts within his body rumbled. This time, he didn’t use any world changing precious technique, insteads circulating the True Primordial Record. He also used the things he comprehended at the Spiritual Transformation Realm.

His flesh was sparkling. Thousands to tens of thousands streaks of divine light condensed, forming countless furnaces. Every single one of them was extremely small, and after gathering, they began to flow like blood.

Hong!

Shi Hao’s hands merged into an imprint. Through the True Primordial Record, he displayed all of the methods he comprehended before. As his blood energy surged, an enormous furnace appeared in front of him.

This was the result of the primordial symbols condensing. There was a bit of blood energy as well that carried boundless fluctuations. With a kuang dang sound, the furnace’s lid was opened, and the two sharp blades were collected.

Divine flame erupted, heaven and earth swayed.

“Suppress!”

Shi Hao released a loud shout. Not only did he refine the blades of light, he also stirred on the divine furnace, crushing down towards the heavenly horn on You Yu’s head, taking the initiative to attack.

Dang

Heaven’s horns displayed their might. Countless blades of light hacked outwards like resplendent starlight. It illuminated this place.

Meanwhile, Shi Hao became indistinct as well. Kengqiang sounds rang unendingly within his body. Immediately after, it was no longer a furnace. There were dao bells, heavenly swords, cauldrons, pagodas, and others. They all took form, rushing forward.

It wasn't just one, but many of them covering this place. All types of magical artifacts appeared, numbering in the thousands to tens of thousands. They were all condensed from bone texts, and right now, they confronted the Heaven's horns.

This was a great confrontation. The two of them shone, divine radiance rushed into the skies. They rushed forward as well to carry out an intense close combat struggle.

In that instant, they exchanged over a hundred attacks.

"Don't you understand the Lightning Emperor's precious technique, as well as the reincarnation divine ability? Why not use them? I'll take them all on!" You Yu coldly said.

"I fear that you won't be able to!" Shi Hao said. He didn't want to use them all. Displaying one of them to a realm of perfection was already enough.

"Kill!"

You Yu went mad. He used his greatest power, and at this moment, his heavenly armor shone, his entire being seemingly becoming unbreakable. He collided intensely with Shi Hao, causing dang dang sounds to ring through the air.

Moreover, not only did the horns on his head shine, his hands merged as well, producing one of the Celestial Clan's greatest precious techniques, Heaven's imprint!

Heaven and earth erupted, holy light shot out endlessly. There were symbols everywhere within this void cage. Bone texts and natural laws interweaved; it was incomparably terrifying.

If one didn't have Shi Hao's single heavenly passage and took his place, they would undoubtedly suffer greatly, being directly suppressed.

It was because You Yu was the controller of this void cage. It was just like he said. From a certain perspective, he was the lord of this place.

You Yu's hair flew about chaotically, the holy light on his body becoming more and more rich. His armor released kengqiang sounds, giving Shi Hao a tremendous pressure. The other party's divine armor was too formidable and difficult to break through.

The two were like True Dragons as they tangled about, viciously tearing at each other. In the blink of an eye, two hundred moves passed. Shi Hao had long used his forbidden precious techniques!

"Kill!" You Yu shouted loudly. His eyes released blazing radiance, appearing a bit ruthless. He used a vicious move to quickly end this battle.

In that instant, his figure appeared everywhere!

Heaven's wings moved about, creating cracks everywhere in the void. Everything was about to be shattered. A pair of silver wings hacked at Shi Hao's flesh like two blades; it was terrifying to the extreme.

This was the first time Shi Hao was shocked. The space between his thumb and forefinger split open, and blood flowed out. These Heaven's wings were powerful to a ridiculous level.

If not for his flesh reaching the pinnacle, he might have been hacked into two!

You Yu's eyes rapidly shrunk. If it was any other exceptional expert, they would have been hacked through. How could this person take this head on?!

It was because this was not a normal pair of wings, but rather one formed from natural law imprints. They contained the great dao of the Heaven's mandate stone, absolutely invincible!

Shi Hao said coldly, "I've already experienced the Heaven's mandate legend from start to finish. Do you have any other tricks to show me?"

It was an intense battle. The two's great battle had already reached five hundred exchanges.

You Yu's eyes were ice cold. What was the other person trying to say? He was arrogant to an insolent degree. You Yu's armor released kengqiang sounds, and the Heaven's wings moved, about to split the void as he attacked Shi Hao.

Hong!

Endless golden flames surged from Shi Hao's body. Like a resurrected demonic god, his Kun Peng technique was raised to its limit. His own vital energy surged, the exhaustion incomparably great.

On his back, an enormous pair of wings appeared, the golden true feathers carrying black stripes. It swayed gently, unexpectedly producing strands of chaotic energy.

These were the Kun Peng wings. After arriving in the higher realms, Shi Hao didn't truly use its unmatched divine might yet. In the lower realm, they had swept through all enemies, its divine might unmatched!

Dang!

When the wings behind him formed from bone texts struck each other, the great divine bell of time sounded, erupting with endless symbols. Strands of chaotic energy pervaded the air as well.

Hong!

Immediately afterwards, these Kun Peng wings moved, hacking forward in an incomparably berserk manner. It made many cracks appear in this void cage, about to blast it apart.

Chi!

You Yu moved his Heaven's wings. Silvery-white holy light overflowed into the heavens. It was as if endless starlight fell, gathering together to meet the Kun Peng wings. His eyes carried a burning flame, as well as a type of madness.

This battle might be close to its end. Let's see who is stronger then!

Kacha!

You Yu was stunned, and all of the confidence and excitement froze on his face. His Heaven's wings snapped. The Kun Peng wings that were accompanied by strands of mist hacked through his enormous silver wings, releasing an ear-splitting sound.

“Ah...”

He roared angrily, his head of hair standing on end. His entire body shone, and the heavenly armor rang with zheng zheng sounds. He ferociously charged at Shi Hao.

Shi Hao released a loud shout, standing there without moving. However, the enormous golden wings made of bone texts descended, as if they were hacking down from the clouds and heavens above.

Hong!

The unbreakable divine armor revealed cracks after being struck by the Kun Peng wings. It immediately dimmed.

“What heavenly armor? It’s just condensed from bone texts. How can it be unbreakable?” Shi Hao said softly. His body was surrounded by the single heavenly passage, making it seem as if he was standing within a great golden sun. His hair was golden, and the Kun Peng wings behind him were even more resplendent.

Pu!

You Yu coughed out large mouthfuls of blood before flying outwards.

“Explode!”

You Yu shouted loudly. The armor on his body all came off, turning into piece after piece of bone fragments. They then shone, igniting, and then rushing towards Shi Hao. They were going to explode here.

Shi Hao’s pupils contracted. The golden symbols restrained, and then waves of black mists appeared. A great black colored fish emerged, raising a black sea that swept high into the sky, drowning out everything in front.

He himself moved to the side, dodging outwards.

This was the other form of the Kun Peng technique.

Those armor fragments exploded, disappearing, but they were unable to affect the black sea too greatly. It was as if they entered a swamp, only able to create some waves at most.

All of this was created from bone texts, but it wasn’t much different from the real thing.

“Ah...”

You Yu roared, using all of his power to ignite his bone texts, forming Heaven's imprint. He also resonated with the void, carrying out the final, most powerful strike.

Chi!

Shi Hao was fast to the extreme. He displayed the Kun Peng technique again, sparing no effort in this attack. Even he felt that the consumption was too great. The golden feathers slammed down from above as if they were descending from above the clouds. n-/0velb1n

Pu!

You Yu's entire body was covered in blood. His flesh was in tatters as he flew outwards.

Shi Hao followed behind him, restraining the wings formed from bone texts. His fist slammed outwards. Golden light that could blast through the sun and moon immediately pierced through You Yu, making his entire body fly back. Blood splashed high into the air.

Moreover, this void cage exploded. They fell into the real world.

Everyone was shocked. They all saw this scene. Shi Hao's fists already blasted You Yu's body half rotten, blood splashing high into the air.

"Even Heaven's mandate legend... was defeated?!" Everyone was shaken. Many people released a cry of horror.

You Yu's eyes were cold. There was a secret treasure within his body that shone, flying outwards and releasing Heavenly deity might.

Chi!

However, Shi Hao was fearless. He produced a piece of yellow earth, and with a peng sound, it infected its surface, making that magical artifact's radiance grow dim.

"Kill him!" Celestial Clan's True deity secretly shouted. They had to take action now, or else You Yu would be in danger.

Meanwhile, Yun Xi and the other people received the order. Divine Flame Realm figures naturally took action as well, rushing forward.

Shi Hao's divine senses were sharp. He quickly retreated, fast to an inconceivable degree. At the same time, his hand shone, producing a blade. It was incredibly large, stretching several hundred zhang.

With a slight movement, the mountains and rivers lost color, the sun and moon became dim!

"We can't stop him, he's too fast!" Celestial Clan's experts shouted loudly as they watched with widened eyes.

It was because that was a blade formed from lightning. No matter how fast everyone was, how could they be faster than lightning?!

Shi Hao brandished the lightning blade from several hundred meters out. With a pu sound, You Yu was hacked into two. Blood splashed outwards. The blade radiance restrained, and then it turned into a lightning snake, grabbing a strange stone before rapidly moving backwards into Shi Hao's palm.

"Huang..." You Yu cried out loudly, color quickly fading from his face, becoming miserably pale. He was hacked at the waist, and he lost his Heaven's mandate stone. This was the same as being crippled!

"What? He is Huang?!"

When the cultivators from all different sects heard this, they were all shocked.

The mountain region found it difficult to calm down. This entire place was boiling with commotion!

Chapter 778 - Attention From All Sides

Huang, a name full of bewitching power!

Now that his identity was leaked, there was a hubbub of voices. Everyone was shocked, and shouts of clamoring rushed into the clouds.

“How could it be him? The disciple of a small shoddy monastery was actually Huang?!”

This was truly shocking news. The uproar that resulted was deafening. Many people felt their blood flow quicker. Their eyes widened as they stared at the pretty and delicate youth in front of them.

From ordinary cultivators to Supreme experts, then to deities, men, women, old, and young were all deeply shaken. This really was shocking. A great stream of heat surged within them.

“Heavens, he’s Huang! We finally met him! He actually has this type of methods, heaven defying after all!”

Many people cried out loudly, feeling that this was inconceivable.

The news were too shocking. The truth came too suddenly! No one was prepared inwardly. After suddenly discovering this result, they all felt that this was hard to take in.

Huang rose up in Five Elements Province, fighting a great battle against the exceptional talents of all clans, his name shaking dozens of provinces. Later on, there were gratitudes and grudges with Celestial Clan, and it was rumored that many sect masters even traveled there, as a result producing an unstable situation within the City of Heaven.

Now, he came here, his identity exposed, and naturally became the focal point of everyone’s attention. Everyone began to discuss, their eyes widening as if they were looking at a monster.

“Killed Underworld Child, Sun God Vine, cooked Purple Golden True Hou, defeated Immortal Palace’s inheritor, killed a War King... one after another, his battle accomplishments are too splendid!”

“Now, he defeated You Yu, killing Celestial Clan’s number one young supreme being. It truly is divine valiance!”

Many youngsters’ eyes burned with passion, their bloods surging. Their eyes carried reverence as they looked towards that youth. For them, this was the most exceptional expert in their generation.

“Didn’t I say before? He is so handsome, his temperament so outstanding like an immortal. How could he be the scum that those people are talking about? He was just temporarily staying within the declining small monastery. He is Huang!”

The eyes of a few female students from Goddess Academy shone. They clenched their pretty fists, their expression greatly stirred up. Earlier, they had a dispute with others precisely because of this.

“Too powerful. He is Huang! Even the Heaven’s mandate legend was toppled by him. Heaven warping divine being!”

Many people became extremely excited, and some of them felt a bit of reverence, others fear. When they saw the powerful youth on the battlefield, they found it difficult to calm down.

If we were to talk about who was the most depressed at this moment, it would be the Celestial Clan. At this moment, it was as if they had set foot in an endless abyss, the world spinning around them as everything before them turned black.

This result left them shocked. They were filled with shame. It was actually like this, with even You Yu defeated, almost directly dying miserably on the spot.

The divine level experts were all shining, flames burning and killing intent surging into the heavens. Just now, they actually attacked thin air, unable to surpass that youth in speed. They could only watch as his blade descended.

“Ah...” there were deities that roared, their head of hair dancing about chaotically. They felt incomparable fear and released unending killing intent, making the leaves of tens of thousands of trees fall.

Someone carried You Yu, quickly helping him treat his injuries, stopping the lightning bone texts from corroding his body and preventing his death.

You Yu lost half his body, and blood was flowing everywhere. His face was extremely pale. He was an exceptional young expert, his aura originally devouring mountains and rivers, able to overlook the outstanding talents of all sects, yet in the end, he suffered such a great defeat, dropping to this state.

For the Celestial Clan’s younger generation, the mental blow was great. That blade simply hacked down on their confidence, destroying the pride of an Emperor Clan, cutting down the archaic brilliance!

The exceptional talent of an Emperor Clan, one that merged with the Heaven’s mandate stone and even established the Heaven’s mandate legend was someone that already became the most powerful. However, he was still cut down. How terrifying was this?

You Yu wasn’t a normal person. He was already the one that could best represent the Celestial Clan. At his peak state, he was cut down by another in a clean and tidy manner. This type of mental blow was too great.

This was a blow that hit their clan where it hurt the most, destroying a type of conviction!

“Ah... this can’t be true!” A few youngster cried out loudly, unable to accept this reality.

Many people looked in that direction, feeling a bit of sympathy for the Celestial Clan. They could have provoked anyone, yet they ended up encountering this kind of monster. This battle was about to defeat the dao hearts of their clan’s entire younger generation!

Within the Celestial Clan, Yun Xi was shocked. She never thought that this would actually be Huang, that youth who came from the lower realm -- Shi Hao. Her wonderful body trembled, her heart in chaos.

Earlier, You Yu had secretly transmitted a message, informing the clan’s divine level experts that the one he was fighting was Huang. However, the younger generation, including Yun Xi, were not aware of this.

At this moment, the great battle ended. Huang’s identity was now truly revealed. Only now did Yun Xi understand. She couldn’t help but tremble as she looked at the youth in front of her.

Rising up in the lower realm, laughing and mischievous as he went on his journey, angering man and god alike. He previously showed the power of a devil king, yet was also berated as a rascal. He had even left sorrowfully like a hero to kill seven deities in a final desperate effort...

This youth had always acted straightforwardly, forging ahead, relying on himself to slaughter his way into the higher realms, establishing the name Huang that dazzled all eyes and startled all great sects.

Yun Xi was speechless, her beautiful appearance full of complex emotions. Shi Hao had escorted her for hundreds of thousands of li, paying the cost of blood to do so, yet he became a prisoner of the Celestial Clan. Now, he was actually here, the two of them encountering each other in this type of situation. Shi Hao was ridiculously powerful, cutting down the Celestial Clan's exceptional heavenly talent You Yu, making tremendous waves rise and fall within Yun Xi's mind...

In the distance, Qing Yi had a faint smile on her face. She wore white clothes, her beautiful hair gentle and supple, her eyes clear, appearing peaceful and otherworldly. She looked calmly at the figure on the battlefield.

She knew that this youth definitely had powerful methods and wouldn't be defeated. Even if he encountered the Heaven's mandate legend, he could still protect himself. It was because she understood this fella too well. As expected, this was the case.

"Junior sister Qing Yi, could it be that you already knew that he was Huang?" Feng Wu asked.

"Just guessed a few things correctly." Qing Yi said with a smile.

"What a pity... He originally successfully ascended the heavenly staircase and was about to enter my Goddess Academy, yet something unexpected happened." An elder was beating his chest and stamping his feet in anger, feeling incomparable regret. He understood all of the inside details.

However, what could they say? He was seized by that notorious fella, so how could they hope to get this person back?!

"What? He is Huang, the one that ascended my Goddess Academy's Heavenly staircase?" When a few students heard this, they were all shaken up. They began to reveal a dumbstruck expression.

"This great senior brother..." Many people were speechless. They had previously showed him disdain, wanting to muster large forces to suppress this dishonorable fella. How could they have known that his identity was so great? The so-called small shoddy monastery's disciple was just a cover. He truly couldn't be provoked!

"He passed Goddess Academy's Heavenly staircase?!" When the cultivators of all sects heard this, another uproar was created. This place was extremely noisy.

It was because Goddess Academy was too well known. Their greatest test had naturally drawn the interests of a few other sects, and they had previously learned about it in detail. Who didn't understand the difficulty of the Heavenly staircase? During these endless years, no one could make it through this trial.

"Correct, it is because he is Huang, and that is why he is so powerful. Being able to succeed is still within reason!"

Following their shock, they all became relieved again. It was only because this person was Huang; it was already enough.

From a certain perspective, everyone acknowledged him, believing that Huang could rank at the very top of the young outstanding talents in the higher realms.

In that instant, everyone looked over towards that figure.

Above the mountain region, Shi Hao stood there with the strange stone in his hands. It was full of different colors, releasing a dazzling rain of light that rushed into the clouds, surrounding this place. It was spotlessly white like jade, then scarlet red like the sunset glow, then purple energy surged.

Heaven's mandate stone; it was only the size of a fist, but the fluctuations it released were extremely terrifying. It was as if great waves were surging, making the ancient trees in this mountain region rise and fall, sway back and forth.

Moreover, its radiance was just too brilliant. When it was scarlet, it would dye the entire heavens red, when it was purple, it was as if purple energy rose from the east, as if great clouds were falling downwards.

Holy energy pervaded the air. Brilliance was released in tens of thousands of streaks, erupting from within Shi Hao's palm.

Needless to say, this was an exceptional divine object!

Shi Hao had without a doubt become the center of attention, becoming the focal point of all sect's experts.

"Huang, temperament despicable, methods cruel. Targeting and offending my Celestial Clan again and again. Today, we cannot tolerate you remaining alive in this world!"

A cold voice sounded. It was precisely Celestial Clan's experts. Divine flames leapt, burning ferociously. Waves of killing energy pervaded the air as well.

Everyone's hearts jumped. They knew that what had to happen was going to happen.

Huang and the Celestial Clan were like water and fire. Everyone here knew about this. How could there be any kindness left?

Right now, the Celestial Clan was angered from head to toe, fury and killing intent rushing into the heavens. Just now, they didn't rashly take action and just coldly watched.

When they were in a rush to take action before, that was because they worried that You Yu might be defeated. Now that everything had settled, taking action sooner or later was the same.

They weren't able to rescue You Yu, only able to watch as he was hacked at the waist, losing the Heaven's mandate stone. The Celestial Clan's younger generation experts felt great pain inwardly, feeling incomparably furious.

"Still throwing mud at my body, do you all still want any face? So hypocritical. Can you even give me an example of how I've treated you all unfairly?!"

That youth was incomparably calm. His only heavenly passage shone, enveloping him like a golden sun. His entire being was resplendent and powerful, as if he was a war immortal.

"You sneaked into my City of Heaven, innate nature despicable, desiring my clan's supreme treasure, the Flying Immortal stone, and then afterwards, you even slandered my clan. Now, you came to Fire Province, cruelly slaughtering my clan's experts and destroying our divine mines! Your conducts and deeds anger man and god alike, devoid of all humanity. You deserve the wrath of heaven!" A deity said coldly.

On the mountains, there were too many cultivators from all different sects. There were figures everywhere, and they were all speaking softly.

Recently, these matters had stirred up a huge hubbub of activity. Many people had heard about it.

"I heard that Celestial Clan was scheming against his precious techniques."

"This time, Huang truly was fierce, unleashing a slaughter alone, destroying Celestial Clan's divine mines. His methods are shocking."

There were some who devaluated, while others showed support. There were too many creatures, so there was no way they all thought the same thing. However, there was no way paper could wrap around fire. As for what the truth really was, it would be revealed sooner or later.

"Ridiculous. I saved your clan's heavenly woman, but I was imprisoned within your City of Heaven, locked away in the black prison all because your clan plotted after my precious techniques. Is there anything more shameless than this, a clan that kicks their benefactors in the teeth?!" Shi Hao loudly berated.

From a few experts' perspective, there was no need for arguments, only action mattered. However, Shi Hao believed that by denouncing and saying this to the Celestial Clan's face, even if it wasn't the truth and fake, it would still make people think and from there on discuss this matter. In the end, the Celestial Clan's face would be covered in grime, badly burned from head to toe.

In the distance, Yun Xi lowered her head, her face red, feeling extremely uncomfortable inside.

Shi Hao continued, "The divine mines were destroyed by me. I was just collecting a bit of interest from you. However, your Celestial Clan truly is declining, called an Emperor race in vain. Your so-called experts are all like dogs and chickens, and even your so-called young supreme being is so lacking, unable to take a single blow!"

When these words sounded, the Celestial Clan's faces fell ashen. They were simply going to explode from anger, so furious their bodies were shaking.

Everyone even more so erupted into commotion. This powerful youth truly wasn't polite, daring to say anything, poking at the Celestial Clan where it hurt. Where were they even supposed to keep their faces? They were truly humiliated to no end!

Moreover, it was difficult to refute any of this.

It was because who didn't know about Huang stirring up chaos in Fire Province, turning the grassland upside down, making the Celestial Clan suffer great losses? Even Heavenly deities were startled, hurrying over to save the scene.

As for the Celestial Clan's young heroes being greatly defeated, that was even harder to retort. Everyone saw it with their own eyes just now.

Right now, Huang was taking the lid off of scars, it truly was vicious, making them feel even worse than killing them. Their clan felt a severe sense of defeat, and an even greater sense of humiliation.

In fact, these simple words Shi Hao spoke possessed even more destructive force than those battles, the destructions of the divine mines, as well as the defeat of You Yu!

The eyes of many people from the Celestial Clan went red, finding this difficult to endure. They wanted to go crazy and roar towards the sky!

Sometimes, a few words from the mouth would be more destructive than the full powered strike of a sect master. It would make a sect feel defeated and humiliated. Right now, many people from the Celestial Clan were trembling and clenching their fists tightly.

"Little monster, your mouth is full of nonsense. Slandering my clan, forget about everything else, just from your baseless destruction of my clan's divine mines, and slaughtering my clansmen, we cannot tolerate you living another day in this world!" Someone roared.

"Yun Xi, take out your Heavenly deity magical artifact and kill him!" A higher level figure said to her secretly, telling her to take action.

Yun Xi's body trembled. She suddenly raised her head.

"This is my clan's humiliation. If someone of your generation can kill him, we can preserve a bit of face. That voice said coldly.

Yun Xi was shaken. In the end, she raised her head and looked towards that youth.

At the same time, Shi Hao sensed something as well, turning towards this direction.

Chapter 779 - Go on the Stage

Yun Xi's body trembled a few times. She looked at Huang, at the lower realm Shi Hao. He wasn't even eighteen years old, yet he could already look down on the exceptional talents of the higher realms.

"Hurry up and take action, kill him!" The deities in hiding said with a low voice.

In the end, Yun Xi stabled her mind. She walked through the void towards that mountain peak, getting closer to Shi Hao.

"Yi, there is someone else from Celestial Clan's younger generation who is going to fight?" Everyone became shocked. Things have already reached this level, but the Emperor Clan of the past was still not willing to give up?

Things already became like this. Everyone already firmly believed that there really weren't many people in the three thousand province around Shi Hao's age that could compete against him. It was clear that Celestial Clan's heroes were not included among these people.

"This woman truly is beautiful, like a fairy who walked out from a painting!" Many people cried out in astonishment. Yun Xi was too pretty, her skin like fine jade and her eyes like gemstones. Her figure's curves were wonderful, and as her purple clothes fluttered about, she could be called an unmatched beauty.

"She is Celestial Clan's pearl. She also merged with the Heaven's mandate stone, so her status is extremely high." Someone recognized her.

Yun Xi's skin was sparkling white and translucent. She raised her head, looking towards the other mountain peak. That youth was extremely calm as he carried the Heaven's mandate stone in his hands. Brilliant radiance filled the skies, holy radiance rushing into the heavens, making him look like a divine lord.

Her emotions were complicated. They had faced each other before, fought with life and death on the line, traveled together, and now, they ended up like this.

"You cannot head forward anymore!" Celestial Clan secretly transmitted, telling her not to get any closer.

It was clear that there was no way she could be Huang's opponent. Only by using the connection between the two, making the other party distracted, and then from far away, suddenly using the Heavenly deity magical artifact, would she be able to deliver a fatal blow.

Celestial Clan's deities were warning again and again, and then were also going to take action.

"She is..." Feng Wu's eyes revealed divine radiance. She looked at the battlefield, and then at the Celestial Clan. "Huang is in danger. There is no way the Celestial Clan will let him go."

The space between Qing Yi's brows shone. A streak of green flames jumped, shining brilliantly. Her snow white clothes were not tainted by dust, and her figure was pure and otherworldly. She said softly, "I don't think anything will happen. His life is quite persistent."

"You are going to lend him a helping hand?" Feng Wu noticed the changes happening to the space between her brows, already knowing that that was an ancient flame -- Green Lunar flame, one of the world's rarest flames.

In the air, Yun Xi released a sigh. Her body was graceful, her lotus feet elegantly moving. Her purple hair shone, and like clouds, they rose. Her entire being became a bit indistinct.

Her black eyebrows were slightly knit, her eyes flickering with radiance as she stared at Shi Hao. She opened her mouth several times, parting her cherry red lips to speak, but she always closed them again.

Now that they met again, what was there to say?

On the other side, Shi Hao was extremely calm, appearing undisturbed. He had a clear conscience. They both came from the lower realm, and he believed that he already acted with virtue and benevolence.

In the City of Heaven, Yun Xi might not have any power, unable to make any decisions, forced to go into isolation by the Heavenly deities, so that was why she wasn't able to save him. That was why he didn't direct any hatred at her.

Yun Xi felt a wave of burning pain. The other party's gaze made great waves stir within her heart. She stopped her footsteps, appearing a bit absentminded. She felt a bit uncomfortable as she looked forward.

The two still didn't say anything. However, Yun Xi stopped just like that, no longer moving forward.

In the rear, the Celestial Clan's deities nodded. She was still at a safe distance. This was also a type of test for Yun Xi, seeing if her heart truly belonged to the clan.

This place was extremely quiet. Shi Hao didn't say anything.

Yun Xi's expression was complicated. The past events, the laughter between them, the disputes and nagging, as well as the protection along that entire journey, all made her completely speechless when they met again.

Then, she put away her melancholy, her expression calming down. Her eyes gradually became bright, releasing brilliant radiance.

She resolutely moved and unfolded her palm to use the precious artifact.

Qiang!

A metallic sound rang through the air, shaking heaven and earth. Her palm released auspicious multicolored light. An artifact appeared, releasing divine force and extremely powerful symbols.

In that instant, the atmosphere of the scene became tense!

Shi Hao's pupils narrowed. He looked in that direction at Yun Xi. All of his bone texts flourished.

"Not good!" Someone said softly, feeling that things were turning bad. There were Heavenly deity fluctuations. That magical artifact was extremely special. Even without using a lot of force to activate it, it could display great might.

Yun Xi's eyes were resolute as she stared at Shi Hao. She raised her palm, and a pure white lotus flower appeared in her hands, releasing heaven overflowing divine radiance into the heavens. It released terrifying bone text fluctuations.

She held the flower as she stood there, holy and auspicious. She pointed forward, aiming it at Shi Hao.

The cultivators of all sects revealed surprised looks. It was rumored that Shi Hao had previously escorted this woman for hundreds of thousands of li, but now, it seemed like that might not be true! Otherwise, how could she face him like this?

When Celestial Clan saw this, a few experts revealed faint smiles.

Soon after, Qing Yi realized how ruthless this was, making those at the scene appear and using real actions to deal with Shi Hao. This was more effective than saying anything, not needing to refute anything.

Since Yun Xi took action, how could they still believe the rumor that Huang escorted her through the Blood Plains? This was not good.

As expected, when everyone saw this scene, their expressions all changed, starting to discuss this with a soft voice.

“Huang truly is vicious. It seems like what the Celestial Clan said might not be false!”

“The first impression is strongest. It now seems like the truth might not be like that.”

Yun Xi held the flowers between her fingers, stirring on bone texts. This Heavenly deity magical artifact released kengqiang sounds, the auspicious radiance flourishing even greater, submerging the mountain peaks in front, making this place brilliant. Clouds of energy surged.

“Her battle instincts are lacking. How can she be like this? Only by attacking directly would she have had a chance.” A deity from Celestial Clan frowned, feeling a bit discontent.

You Yu’s face became pale white, not saying a single thing as he watched the scene. Today, he had completely been defeated. He could only watch Yun Xi take action.

“It’s starting!” The cultivators from various sects cried out in alarm.

Celestial Clan’s pearl held the magical artifact, and then she unexpectedly slaughtered over, closing in on Shi Hao.

“I’m sorry!” Yun Xi’s large eyes were completely red as she spoke, staring at Shi Hao as she rushed over quickly.

In Goddess Academy’s direction, a few elders frowned. There were flames jumping around their bodies, releasing powerful auras.

“Wu, should we help out this youth? This is quite troublesome. Celestial Clan definitely has experts descending, and a great battle would be unavoidable then.” Someone said softly.

Feng Wu frowned. She felt that this youth was quite familiar. He was unexpectedly a bit similar to the fella she encountered back then on the Copper Sparrow Altar.

The space between Qing Yi’s brows shone. A streak of green divine flame shot out, and like a green moon, it moved through the sky, flickering with undying radiance. She stared at the battlefield, simultaneously watching Celestial Clan’s direction.

Shi Hao sighed. They really still ended up like this. He was going to take action against her!

He was going to unleash forceful attacks as soon as she moved out a hundred zhang. He didn’t lack terrifying magical artifacts on him. Anyone who looked down on him would inevitably die.

Yun Xi quickly rushed over. The magical artifact in her hands flashed, unexpectedly splitting the void. One could imagine just how powerful it was!

Shi Hao was astonished. He easily avoided it.

A large expanse of cracks appeared. The void was unstable!

"I'm sorry... in City of Heaven, I really couldn't do anything." Yun Xi spoke, her face carrying guilt. It seemed like she truly felt uncomfortable.

Cracks extended everywhere in the void. It already erupted, disturbing everyone's divine senses. "She quickly said, "I will give you this Heavenly deity magical artifact. You can use this to move through the void and leave. It can pierce through the void!"

Shi Hao was stunned. The blazing bone texts in his body receded, not taking action. He looked at Yun Xi with shock, never expecting her to say these words.

"Hurry and go. I don't know if they are here yet, but if not, they are arriving soon. You have to use this final chance!" After disturbing the void, she still used her divine senses to speak. She appeared extremely anxious and worried, also extremely careful.

"Who?" Shi Hao asked.

"Two Heavenly deities! They went to welcome the Dao protector! With that kind of taboo existence descending, even if there is someone protecting you, it is still not enough! You have to hurry and leave!"

When she spoke up to here, she raised her hand, sending the spotlessly white lotus outwards. It spun lightly, taking itself into the air and descended towards Shi Hao. However, there was no killing intent.

Shi Hao's eyes became brilliant. This went completely against what he expected, because Yun Xi was going to take action against him, so he couldn't help but feel despair. Now, however, everything turned out to be completely different!

"Hurry and leave! Otherwise, you won't have any time!" Yun Xi urged.

"Who am I? I'm Huang! Celestial Clan can't do anything too me. You don't have to take risks for me." Shi Hao calmly spoke, but there was a powerful confidence to his appearance.

He moved his hand, and then a gentle radiance stopped the pure white divine lotus, making it turn around and fly backwards into Yun Xi's hands.

Yun Xi was stupefied, feeling a bit distressed. She felt like Shi Hao had some kind of misunderstanding, not forgiving her for the City of Heaven's events and that was why he didn't accept her help. Tears immediately flowed from her beautiful eyes.

"I've... let you down!" Yun Xi's voice was trembling.

Regardless, this powerful youth underwent a torment of life and death to escort her back to the clan, yet he was treated like that, imprisoned in the black prison. It truly was difficult to forgive.

"Hurry and leave, or else you truly won't be able to leave..." Yun Xi wiped away her tears and said seriously, pleading Shi Hao to leave with the Heavenly deity magical artifact.

"Yun Xi, you've misunderstood, I am not against you." Shi Hao shook his head, and then he revealed a smile. His teeth were snow white and sparkling, extremely brilliant.

When Yun Xi saw his appearance, she felt momentarily distracted. Why was this fella like this, not running even in this type of crucial moment, still acting like the past?

“Something’s not right!”

It was clear that many people discovered the strangeness of the situation. Weren’t they going to fight? Why were those two standing there without moving? nOve-LB.1n

Even though Yun Xi took the initiative to attack, splitting open the void, the great void cracks isolated everyone’s divine senses, there were still some people who deduced what was really happening.

“It really was the Celestial Clan that wronged him! That girl is helping Huang!”

When these words were spoken, an uproar immediately sounded within the mountain region. This type of thing unexpectedly happened!

In that instant, the faces of many experts from Celestial Clan became ugly. Yun Xi unexpectedly did this, turning her back on the clan to help Shi Hao escape.

“Isn’t this the same as Celestial Clan being slapped in the face? They now have the bad name of biting the hands that feed them!” Someone said softly.

In the mountain region, there was a huge uproar. It was difficult for this place to become calm.

Hong!

The faces of many people from the Celestial Clan fell ashen. The divine level experts were furious. They no longer thought about redeeming any face, directly taking action, slaughtering forward.

“Why are you not leaving yet?!” Yun Xi cried out, feeling extremely urgent. Her extremely beautiful face was full of worry. She wanted to give the Heavenly deity magical artifact to Shi Hao again.

“I don’t need it!” Shi Hao shook his head. In addition, a pair of lightning divine wings appeared behind him. With a light shake, lightning radiance were released in tens of thousands. He turned into a streak of lightning, unexpectedly facing the deities!

Everyone became stupefied. This youth didn’t run, unexpectedly going to challenge these deities?!

At this point, there was no reasoning or face left. Twelve of Celestial Clan’s Divine Flame Realm experts immediately rushed over. All of them erupted with power, activating precious techniques.

“Yi!”

Shi Hao was shocked. There was a great killing weapon among them, not simple at all. Even though it wasn’t at the Heavenly deity level, it was still extremely terrifying.

Chi!

He didn’t hold anything back. The heavenly river and lightning, yellow earth, and others all poured out from the pill furnace, drowning out everything in front, attacking indiscriminately. These substances carried powerful curse power.

In addition, there was a pure jade vase that flickered with radiance that slaughtered forward.

This was the spoil of war he obtained from the descendent of a king from the War Clan while escorting Yun Xi through the Blood Plains. It was close to Heavenly deity level, but it had previously been corroded by the yellow earth. Right now, it was still barely usable.

The twelve deities moved out of the way, none of them wanting to be infected by the pill furnace's curse or be attacked by the terrifying magical artifact.

They never expected Shi Hao to have so many treasures on him. He stopped all of their great killing weapons and even suppressed them with his counterattack.

Chi!

Shi Hao moved his wings. The brilliant wings formed from lightning were extremely powerful, allowing him to move at extreme speed, as if he was a human shaped streak of lightning!

Pu!

He collided with a Divine Flame Realm expert, and after the two greatly clashed, everyone's hearts trembled. That Divine Flame Realm expert exploded, turning into a blast of bloody mist.

"What?!" Many people cried out loudly, not understanding the details.

Shi Hao changed directions, quickly rushing towards another individual murderously, still taking action with all of his power. He erupted with divine light, sending out a fist. The second Divine Flame Realm expert was blasted to pieces.

In this mountain region, everyone was shaken. They all cried out in alarm.

Pu!

Then, the third Divine Flame Realm expert was caught by Shi Hao's lightning speed, blasted apart alive, turning into a blast of bloody mist.

This was naturally because of his Magical immunity. Forget about the cultivators of the other sects, not even Celestial Clan's deities knew that his ability was this powerful and terrifying.

It was because in the great battle of divine mines, the Divine Flame Realm experts that personally experienced it were all killed, so nothing leaked out.

Even though the Celestial Clan were aware of this ability, they definitely never expected it to be this shocking, the immunity so great that not even the magical force of Divine Flame Realm experts could do anything!

They knew Shi Hao had methods, that what he relied on was a great killing weapon. It was clear that they had made preparations, but in the end, this wasn't the case.

"Ah..."

Someone cried out miserably. Shi Hao's fist blasted a deity apart, causing them to explode in midair. A rain of blood scattered everywhere.

Everyone began to rant and rave in fear. This... was this still a fucking Supreme expert? He was actually slaughtering Divine Flame Realm experts!

The twelve divine level experts originally surrounded and attacked Shi Hao, trapping him at the center, yet in the end, the distance was pulled so close, as if a mad vicious beast was pursuing them.

Shi Hao was like a lion among wolves, his hair dancing madly about and his eyes like cold lightning. He unleashed a great slaughter!

“Little evil creature, you dare?!” In the rear, five True deities appeared. Their faces were sinister as they roared angrily. They all slaughtered over as well.

This result was difficult to accept. The other party actually slaughtered the Celestial Clan’s experts like this.

They had long researched thoroughly. The reason why Shi Hao was able to slaughter True deities was because of the thunderstorm. He brought down world shocking heavenly lightning tribulation. However, right now, it was bright day, so there was no way he could use that type of forbidden magic.

Hong!

Without even taking the time to think, he produced a scarlet red, blood like symbol seal. With a move of his hand, he flung it towards them, making it explode in midair!

The skies shook, scarlet multicolored flames erupted, covering most of the sky. It was incomparably terrifying. Magical force surged like great waves.

This was a symbol one of the Celestial Clan’s six heroes, Yu Lun obtained, and now, it was being used by Shi Hao.

Yu Lun’s identity was extremely special. It wasn’t because of the six heroes reason, but because he was a Heavenly deity’s descendent. He was doted on heavily, and that was why this type of rare divine symbol was bestowed onto him.

Not many of his clansmen even knew that he had this type of thing on him, and there was even less of a chance of them knowing that Shi Hao got his hands on it.

Right now, the divine symbols exploded, leaving the five True deities stupefied. They then quickly retreated backwards!

They were previously rushing forward with great killing artifacts, but in the end, this divine symbol exploded, destroying almost all of them. Those terrifying secret treasures all shattered, turning into fragments.

Moreover, there were two individuals who were swept through by the radiance. One of them immediately had his body and soul wiped out, unable to resist the might of a Heavenly deity, and the other was seriously injured, flying outwards. His body was covered in blood.

The other three’s reactions were fast, narrowly avoiding this disaster.

What made the Celestial Clan's eyes to pop out of their sockets was that the lightning divine wings behind Shi Hao moved, bringing him downwards. He beheaded the seriously injured True deity and destroyed his primordial spirit.

"Ah..." A group of people went mad, angrily roaring outwards.

In that instant, four great Divine Flame Realm experts was killed by Shi Hao, and then two True deities died with remaining grievances, their blood splashing everywhere, dead but eyes still open.

This result, forget about making the blood of the Celestial Race boil, but even the cultivators watching from the side were driven mad. This... was too inconceivable! He actually produced this type of result!

The Magical immunity time was up. Shi Hao decisively backed up, collecting all types of magical artifacts to defend himself. He descended to Supreme Being Dao Rite's monastery gate.

This battle result could be considered extremely glorious. It shocked all of the creatures here!

"How could it be like this? Many people were shocked. This youth was a monster!

Hong!

A moment later, a rumbling sounded from the distance. A resplendent radiance ignited, and a terrifying figure approached, making this entire heaven and earth tremble.

"Unbridled!"

It was clear that the existences that arrived felt that something happened. They were incomparably furious, their voices shaking heaven and earth.

"Heavenly deity!" Many people trembled, feeling this type of pressure. Their bodies were trembling.

"Old ancestor!" The Celestial Clan's experts cried out loudly. They continuously suffered defeat today, so a flame had long begun to burn within their hearts!

"Trifling little ant, repeatedly offending my clan, today, I want to see where you will run to!" Even with so much distance between them, a large hand reached down. It was even more enormous than a mountain ridge, covering the entire heaven and earth. It surrounded Supreme Being Dao Rite's mountain gate.

Everyone's expression turned pale. This was heavenly might; how was he supposed to defend against this?

Suddenly, a large hand reached out from within Supreme Being Dao Rite as well. It directly slapped outwards, and it was accompanied by a voice. "Insect, you dare touch my disciple? Get lost!"

Everyone became stupefied. They thought they heard wrong. Who was calling the Heavenly deity an insect?

Something that made them tremble was still waiting to happen. After that large hand swatted out, with a hong sound, that Heavenly deity's entire arm was blasted apart, disappearing from this place.

In addition, an enormous sound rang through the air from the distance. An enormous figure flew outwards, and then dropped into the mountain range, crushing quite a few mountain peaks. It was clearly the body of a Heavenly deity!

Chapter 780 - Dao Master

Everyone became stupefied. They looked into the distance towards the rising smoke and dust. Every single one of them looked like clay figures as they stood there petrified, unable to say a single word.

This was a small shoddy monastery with broken walls and rubble everywhere. There were withering ancient trees and tall weeds, creating a desolate scene.

However, who dared look down on it now?

An earthen large hand retreated from the void, disappearing into that mountain gate.

This scene left everyone stunned! The cultivators of all sects stood there unmoving. They were all shocked, going stupid. This scene and result left everyone shaken.

In the distance, the mountain ridge was smashed apart. That was a Heavenly deity, yet he was ferociously slapped outwards, collapsing more than twenty mountain peaks. The great earth split apart, and enormous rocks scattered the clouds!

There was blood on the ground, flowing like a small river. It covered the mountain region in dark red. It was a shocking sight.

"Is what I'm seeing real?" Someone said with a soft voice, fearing that he would anger any taboo existence.

"I... what did I just see? Heavens! A high and mighty Heavenly deity that looks down on the creatures of all sects was slapped flying!" Someone roared outwards, as if awakening from a dream.

Everyone became stupefied, and sounds of swallowing could be heard. They felt that this was inconceivable and difficult to believe. This kind of scene, this kind of result was just too shocking!

In front of the damaged monastery gate, there was only a youth standing above the ruins. His hair was long, his eyes pure. He gave off a calm and unperturbed appearance.

Hong!

In the distant mountain region, an enormous figure stood up, shaking off the mountain peak crushing on his body. He towered between heaven and earth, his eyes like two blood moons. It was incomparably terrifying as he stared here.

He carried heaven overflowing killing intent as he walked over, making the entire mountain region tremble violently. Mountain stone tumbled about, and large amounts of heaven reaching ancient trees rustled. Leaves flew everywhere.

The cultivators of every sect were feeling great fear. They couldn't help but move backwards. They shivered with coldness, trembling under this shocking pressure. Their souls were shaking.

Many people were shaking uncontrollably. Under this unsurpassed might, there were some who couldn't help but kneel down. Bone texts flourished all over their bodies as they prostrated in worship towards that Heavenly deity.

This was a type of allegiance, not something forced by the Heavenly deity, but instead an instinct that originated from these individuals' souls. Towards Heavenly deities, there was an unconditional feeling of obedience and reverence!

The might of a Heavenly deity couldn't be resisted. There was no way lower realm cultivators could contend against them, their bodies producing an innate fear. They couldn't help but kowtow.

Only, this type of high and mighty expert had just been slapped flying by someone, moreover having an arm destroyed!

"Qi Daolin!"

Heavenly Deity Mo Luo was furious, his voice resounding through all sides. It was as if thunder appeared from the heavens above, scattering the clouds in all directions.

"Ah!" A few people cried out, covering their ears as they staggered backwards. There were even a few individuals who began to bleed from all seven apertures, their faces extremely pale as they stepped backwards in horror.

This kind of power was just too shocking.

"Old ancestor!" The Celestial Clan's people cried out loudly, looking at the Heavenly deity that was hurrying over.

"What are you being so noisy for? If you don't show any respect to this place, I'll wipe you out!" An impatient voice sounded from within the small shoddy mountain gate. It was full of domineeringness and disdain.

Chilliness crept down everyone's backs, feeling waves of fear. How horrifying was this, saying he was going to slaughter a Heavenly deity right from the start, moreover as if it was to be expected as a matter of course.

"Dao master Qi, why are you doing this? There are no wrongs or grudges between us."

The great earth trembled. An enormous Heavenly deity moved, and then a few enormous rocks were unexpectedly uprooted from the ground, as if they were just grains in a basket, raised into the air. They then fell down again.

Whenever he took a step outwards, the mountain stones on the ground, dead trees, and other enormous objects would be like this, blasted into midair. Meanwhile, those enormous old trees that took root on the ground would violently tremble, about to snap apart.

It was as if there was an enormous earthquake!

He was close! Everyone could already see him!

“No wrongs or grudges, why did you run to my mountain gate then? Bullying my disciple, are you all looking to die? Do you all want to become ashes?!” Qi Daolin’s voice sounded, so domineering it made everyone here speechless.

This was not some random cat or dog, but a Heavenly deity, yet dao master Qi’s attitude was so impolite, his tone cold and firm. He was implying that he could crush the other Heavenly deity to death at any moment.

“The old ancestor was wounded!” The Celestial Clans experts shivered in fear, feeling a wave of horror. Such a powerful figure from their clan was struck to this state!

For them, this was the same as the sky falling. The clan’s higher level figures that protected the clan were unstoppable, able to continue their legacy in the higher realms, but today, one of them lost an arm!

This all happened because of a youth.

The Heavenly deity got closer. He wore purple golden armor that flickered with terrifying radiance. There was an imposing murderous aura. On his head was a purple golden crown that gathered his hair.

His eyes were incomparably terrifying, more brilliant than the sun, making it hard for others to look straight at him. Whenever others looked at his eyes, they would all feel as if their souls were in intense pain!

One could only face him with a lowered head, or look at him from behind, not directly into his eyes. This was a type of heavenly might!

Only, currently, this Heavenly deity’s state wasn’t too great. Half of his body was flowing with blood, and his right arm was splitting. His purple golden armor was shattered and his blood almost reached his long hair.

Weng!

Heavenly deity Mo Luo shone. The void trembled. The arm bone and blood energy that exploded just now flowed in reverse, gathering together to reconstruct his arm. Then, symbol light flourished, and a thriving vitality surged; his broken arm reformed.

This was the might of a Heavenly deity. Even when the limbs broke, they could quickly recover, not needing a long time to recover. It was because when one reached this type of cultivation realm, they were already high above everyone, surpassing the understanding of many powerful individuals.

“He is just a loose cultivator, many people know this. How could he have become dao master Qi’s disciple?” Heavenly deity Mo Luo’s attitude clearly became quite a bit softer.

“I took him in recently, is that not acceptable? Also, why do I have to give you an explanation? If you don’t act respectfully, don’t blame me for being ruthless!” Qi Daolin berated.

“Dao master Qi, do not forget that you had previously studied within my Celestial Clan.” Mo Luo reminded.

“Shut up. I was stealing from masters back then. Also, are you going to get lost or not?” Qi Daolin spoke, not feeling that it was embarrassing at all, instead saying it in a righteous and self-confident manner.

Many people were speechless, shaken up by his domineeringness, but also sighing in admiration. This dao master was too strange.

Only a few older generation figures knew the reason. The reason Qi Daolin stole methods from those great sects was mostly out of hatred; that was why he purposely went to steal methods.

Qi Daolin had previously been a certain ancient inheritance’s only inheritor. When that sect was jointly attacked by Immortal Palace and others, there were some great sects that threw rocks at them while they were down, and a few powers that they had good relations with treated them like they were already dead, not coming to the rescue.

That was why Qi Daolin later on crazily stole from masters to strengthen himself, purposely causing chaos in a few great sects.

Heavenly deity Mo Luo’s face fell ashen, stopping there. This really was humiliating. Dao master Qi didn’t show them any face, acting domineering and cold, putting him in a difficult position.

At the same time, he was greatly shocked inside. Back then, Qi Daolin had been surrounded and attacked by all the different sects. Even though his strength wasn’t weaker than an ordinary sect master, his cultivation realm was still a bit lacking.

Back then, him and Qi Daolin were both Heavenly deities, but now, Qi Daolin had long surpassed him. Mo Luo felt extremely unwell inside!

Mo Luo was quite a bit older than Qi Daolin, but the other party quickly rose up, becoming the lord of a region in the shortest amount of time, leaving him far behind.

He found it difficult to stay calm inside. That was why he directly called out the other party’s name to make himself look more intimidating.

However now, he was silent.

“Old ancestor, half of the six heroes have died, and True deities as well as others died. You Yu has been bisected at the waist, his Heaven’s mandate stone in that little monster’s hands!” A deity from Celestial Clan secretly transmitted, expressing his resentment.

“What?!” Mo Luo was furious. Everything else was still tolerable, but You Yu being cut down, losing the priceless Heaven’s mandate stone was not forgivable.

It was because a single Heaven’s mandate stone meant an exceptional expert that could protect the Celestial Clan, perhaps even reviving it, recreating its former glory.

He stared at Shi Hao, his eyes releasing icy cold radiance. Killing energy pervaded the air, deciding not to waver.

“Dao master Qi, have him hand over my clan’s wondrous stone!” Mo Luo said.

“What qualifications do you have to make such thoughtless remarks here? Just because I didn’t kill you, you are treating it as if my temper is good?”

A tremendous sound rang from within the small mountain gate. Everyone was horrified, because they saw golden ripples spreads outwards, rushing towards Mo Luo.

That was just sound, yet it solidified, becoming more resplendent than bone texts, more boundless than a sea. They all crushed down on the high and mighty Heavenly deity.

Mo Luo was shocked. The first time was one thing, but this time, he was prepared, and he even had the body protecting secret the Old Celestial bestowed upon him, yet he still couldn’t withstand this power!

Under this dao sound’s power, the golden ripples, his entire body flew outwards as if smashed by an enormous hammer. The bones in his body released cracking sounds, and large mouthfuls of blood sprayed outwards.

Heavenly deity Mo Luo smashed into the distance mountain range, severely injured. He couldn’t crawl back up for a long time.

This place was in absolute silence. Everyone was shivering with fear. What kind of power was this?!

Celestial Clan’s faces were deathly pale, all of them shaken, from Supreme experts to deities. How were they even supposed to fight now? Even their clan’s Heavenly deity couldn’t take a single blow, being blasted flying like this.

They looked at the youth in the mountain gate. This was the first time they felt like they provoked huge trouble. They actually brought such a great disaster onto themselves!

However, it was too late to say anything now. A great grudge had already been produced.

Suddenly, a wave of fluctuation rippled outwards. A golden wave of radiance covered who knew how many tens of thousands of li, quickly arriving. There were two people that released heaven overflowing divine splendor from above.

A middle-aged male who had a sharp gaze was lending an arm to an elder. The two of them were accompanied by great dao sounds as they walked on the golden passageway that stretched several tens of thousands of li, appearing here!

This type of methods shocked the cultivators of all sects. They all kept quiet out of fear, not daring to speak randomly.

“Dao protector great one!”

The Celestial Clan cried out loudly. They were about to cry already. They were truly oppressed miserably this time. When they saw their clan’s taboo figure, it was as if they found a mountain to lean on.

In the past, it was always them who oppressed others forcefully, yet today, they experienced setbacks after setbacks, and even their Heavenly deity was berated, blasted out until he spat out blood. One could very well imagine how they were feeling.

“Brother Qi, are you declaring war against my Celestial Clan?” The middle-aged man on the golden light path spoke. He was also a Heavenly deity. In the past, he was at the same cultivation realm as Qi Daolin.

“Do you all dare to go to war?” A calm voice sounded from within the mountain gate. Then, he added, “I don’t mind doing so!”

Everyone was shaken up. Qi Daolin was just one person, but he was going to challenge an entire clan? This was a former Emperor Clan we were talking about here!

This place was deathly silent.

That Heavenly deity didn’t dare to say any more, because this affected too much. If he dared to continue, then that might be a battle involving their entire clan. It would affect the history of their clan for hundreds of thousands of years!

“Little Qi, your temper has become greater and greater.” The dao protector of Celestial Clan spoke. His body was withered up. On his head was a pair of black horns that were surrounded by hazy radiance.

Radiance flickered about. Another figure appeared in Supreme Being Dao Rite. Qi Daolin appeared, his golden robes fluttering about, his figure giving off an immortal feeling, as if he transcended this world.

“The younger generation is struggling for supremacy. It is one thing for Divine Flame Realm experts to interfere.” Qi Daolin stood there, divine splendor shining gloriously. His voice became cold. “But even Heavenly deities dare to come, truly a joke. However many that comes, however many I will kill!”

His voice was resounding, echoing through this place. Everyone’s hearts were shaken, feeling a wave of fear.
