

Perfect WD 901

Chapter 901 - Descendant Auction House

Fallen Divine Child stopped walking, his mind trembling, because those were natives, not people he could provoke. Otherwise, there would be no place safe for him in Immortal Ancient, bringing a great disaster upon himself.

Shi Hao's eyes were extremely cold as he looked at him. He walked forward step after step. This person still dared to raise the old topic again, using his humiliation of his two senior brothers to incite him.

"Little friend, can you exchange that thing for us? We will help you eliminate him, and eradicate his sect along the way." One of the elders spoke.

In the surroundings, the group of people were petrified. For the natives to side with Shi Hao like this, it truly was unexpected.

"I'll take care of it myself. You all don't need to take action." Shi Hao said. An enemy was right in front of him, someone who had previously trampled on his two senior brothers, mocking and humiliating them. If he didn't personally defeat him, then that would be letting down Supreme Being Dao Rite.

"Hahaha..." Fallen Divine Child immediately laughed, his expression becoming a bit cold. He seemed to be ridiculing, but also showing disdain.

His head of gray hair danced about, his eyes slightly narrowing. The terrifying scenes of gods and devils being wiped out was within him. When he saw the natives back off, the corners of his lips curled upwards. He was calm and cold, confident that he was unmatched.

"Not surprising at all. You asked those great races for protection, wishing for them to defend you?" He looked at Shi Hao, his eyes deep.

"I've already said that the grudge between us will also be settled between the two of us. You don't need to be scared." Shi Hao spoke in a somewhat mocking manner.

"Me? Scared? If I had fear, I wouldn't have my accomplishments today. In fact, even if an expert stepped out for your sake, I will still similarly kill you." He said indifferently.

The Divine Striking Stone was so angry it shouted noisily 'You are definitely going to die!'. He really wanted to see what kind of expression Fallen Divine Child would have once Shi Hao revealed his strand of immortal energy.

This street was engulfed in chaos, and soon after, it was difficult for all of Burial City to calm down. Many people hurried to this region after receiving news, all of them wishing to watch this world-shocking great battle.

An ancient freak appeared, wishing to take action against Huang who had stirred up quite some news recently, so this naturally produced a commotion, making people look forward to it.

From a certain perspective, this was the ancient freak who moved his true body to kill a present world hero. Fallen Divine Child's appearance stirred up huge waves.

Even though it was rumored that there were ancient kings that died in the vicious nest, after all, they didn't see it happen, so there was no way to verify if it was true.

As such, now that Fallen Divine Child came, in most experts' eyes, this was the first time an ancient freak's true body appeared. A great slaughter was going to be carried out!

"What a rare opportunity! Huang drew the attention of an ancient king! I'm really looking forward to this, let's see who is weaker and who is stronger!"

"Ancient kings, those who had reigned supreme in one era or multiple eras. I truly wish to see just how brilliant they are!"

...

The street was immediately crowded, people everywhere in the skies.

Dang!

Suddenly, a bell sound rang through the air. The bejeweled jade palace shone, one of the jade bells within swaying, releasing a soft ripple that sounded through Burial City.

That was -- Descendant Auction House.

It was the largest auction house in Burial Realm, a place established by the natives. Even within all of Immortal Ancient's small worlds, it could still rank in the top ten, a place with a great reputation.

It was extremely clear that it was time for the auction. That grand jade palace's divine bell sounded, informing everyone that the bidding for all types of secret treasures was going to start.

Everyone felt conflicted. Were they going to watch the battle or join the auction? It was a bit difficult to decide.

This battle was a competition at the peak, the highest level of battle since the start of Immortal Ancient. No one was willing to miss out on it.

However, Descendant Auction House had already released news half a month ago, and this time, all of the world's rarest divine treasures were being auctioned off, the opportunities shockingly great.

It was rumored that there might even be a Heavenly Deity Fruit that would appear. Once one ate that divine fruit, they would immediately become a heavenly deity and transcend above, having the power to sweep through all enemies in Immortal Ancient.

There was also the rumor that an ancient diagram would be auctioned off, on it recorded the cave of an immortal. As for the natural luck within, there was no need to talk about. It would definitely be enough to shock all of the small worlds.

"Going to the auction first."

At the crucial moment, Shi Hao spoke up, his heart was calm. He wasn't affected by Fallen Divine Child's intimidation at all, instead feeling incredibly calm, doing things according to his own plans.

It was because he also heard a few rumors that Descendant Auction House had some things he needed. He was about to go into isolation cultivation to cultivate a second strand of immortal energy, so he had to make ample preparations.

"That's fine as well, matches what I had in mind." Fallen Divine Child smiled. He originally came for the auction to choose a few divine treasures.

"Youngster, if you see anything you want, we are willing to exchange it with you." Eight Armed Spirit Race, Ancient Fiend Race, and several other elders moved over, speaking extremely eagerly.

"I wish to take a look first." Shi Hao said.

"Hmm? It looks like you have something not bad on you. Properly take care of it, alright? It seems like this time, my harvest will have some pleasant surprises." Fallen Divine Child glanced over, revealing a faint smile.

Then, he took large steps towards the bejeweled jade palace, entering the auction house.

"That bastard. Too hateful!" The little rabbit grinded her teeth as she stared with her large ruby like eyes.

Even Cao Yusheng and the others found it difficult to remain calm. Fallen Divine Ridge's inheritor was overbearing as expected, arrogant to the point where others truly wished to immediately take action, fighting with him to the death.

"He's doing it on purpose to anger us. This person is quite deep and wouldn't act so superficial. This is to disturb Shi Hao's mental state." Qing Yi said.

They walked over into the auction house as well, because the bidding war was about to start.

When they entered the sacred hall, everything they saw was even more grand than what they saw outside. It was vast and spacious, seats and private rooms everywhere, enough to hold several hundreds of thousands of creatures.

There were clearly spacial natural laws in this massive building.

"Who said the natives were old-fashioned? This is their auction house, a place where business flourishes."

"This place was built through the joint efforts of multiple powerful races."

Someone said in a low voice, quietly discussing.

This place was tastefully designed, with even the seats carved from fine jade. The stone stairs were made of green jade, the thick pillars a golden jade. Meanwhile, that tall platform was made of fine white jade.

"Hurry and start! Everyone is already here, so let's witness this bidding competition!" Everyone was excited and expectant.

News already spread that Fallen Divine Child had appeared. He was incomparably powerful, arriving in Burial City to suppress and kill Huang.

Many people speculated that he might have taken that step, and that was why he emerged from isolation, arriving in burial City. However, no one could confirm these rumors.

“Fallen Divine Child has always maintained a low-profile. If he doesn’t take action, it is difficult to say. No one knows just how powerful he is.”

“Fallen Divine Ridge is one of the four great demonic dao ancestral halls, and Fallen Divine Child is known to be the most terrifying and the one with the most potential from this sect. If he took that step, then in the future, the higher realms will definitely be shaken up because of him!”

Three thousand provinces, a place truly vast with many sects. Meanwhile, Fallen Divine Ridge occupied one position among the four great demonic dao’s holy lands, so there was no need to talk more about them. It was already enough to prove how terrifying they were.

“Everyone, please quiet down. The auction is about to start.”

Someone spoke from above the fine jade elevated stage. On it was an aged indigenous expert, as well as a beautiful and moving young lady with unmatched charm and grace.

Everyone quickly calmed down. They were all looking forward to this auction.

Sure enough, Descendant Auction House didn’t disappoint. They had just began, yet everyone was already surprised, the very first auctioned item triggering a huge commotion.

“Blue Bone Blade, known to be able to kill all experts in the True Self Realm. Its power is great, nothing it cannot cut through.” The elder introduced. As soon as his words dropped, a huge commotion broke out. Everyone was shaken up.

The auction house immediately erupted with activity. Many people stood up, their minds rising and falling as they stared at the high platform.

One had to bear in mind that the True Self Realm, for many people, was the limit of what they could achieve while in Immortal Ancient, and a long amount of time was needed for accumulation and cultivation.

Right now, there was actually this type of bone blade that could cut through all True Self Realm cultivators, so how could it not move everyone’s heart?

Aside from the ancient kings and a small number of people, normal people didn’t even bother thinking about breaking through the True Self Realm in this amount of time. Once they grasped this blade, it was enough for them to move unhindered through the small worlds.

A beauty appeared, in her hands a sparkling Blue Bone Blade. It was dreamlike, carrying faint smoke, appearing beautiful and bewitching before everyone’s eyes.

“Two holy medicines!” Someone shouted, and then swallowed his saliva.

“Truly a country bumpkin. Even daring to speak up with just two stalks?”

“Five stalks of holy medicine!”

“Half a piece of Star Essence!”

...

The auction house erupted with noise, sounds of bidding rising and falling, immediately raising the price of the Blue Bone Blade sky high. It was extremely lively.

In the end, the bone blade was purchased by a mysterious woman.

"The second auctioned good is a portion of a heavenly deity's primordial true bone." The beautiful young lady spoke with her captivating red lips, her large eyes black and intelligent.

"A part of a heavenly deity's true bone, this... doesn't that mean that a damaged heavenly deity artifact can be refined from it?"

"Really doesn't disappoint! There are too many good things!"

Within the vast palace, everyone was stirred up. They had just begun, yet two formidable precious artifacts already emerged. One could only imagine what would come later.

However, there were quite a few people who were speechless, sighing inwardly. With the amount of materials and medicinal herbs they had on hand, it was simply impossible to get the treasures they needed.

As time went on, the divine treasures that appeared became more and more shocking.

Eventually, they finally reached the highlight of the event, the Heavenly Deity Fruit.

"I know that everyone is expectant, wishing to obtain the Heavenly Deity Fruit, but that item is too heaven defying, and there is no way that the fruit would truly appear here. What we will auction off is a bone diagram that has recorded on it the mysterious region where the Heavenly Deity Fruit grows."

The auction master on the elevated stage spoke.

As soon as his voice fell, this place erupted with noise. Many people were extremely unsatisfied.

"Isn't the Heavenly Deity Fruit being auctioned? Turns out it was just some information... what is the use of something like that? If someone could have found it, you all would have picked it a long time ago, why would you have to auction this information off?"

"Trying to swindle us with some diagram, truly insincere!"

Everyone was upset, all of them quite angry.

"Everyone, we are not trying to deceive you. There really is that type of place, only the surrounding space has chaotic energy. That is why since ancient time, not many people have successfully picked Heavenly Deity Fruits from that place, but many have personally seen it for themselves." The auction house elder spoke.

Many people curled their lips, lacking interest.

Not even Shi Hao participated, because he believed that he didn't need that type of thing right now, so there was no need to take such risk. He also wanted to rely on himself to reach that cultivation realm.

"A piece of Sun Stone, a piece of heavenly deity crystal core..." Fallen Divine Child stood up, continuously declaring materials, participating with a price a bit higher than the bottom price.

In addition, he looked over towards Shi Hao's group, carrying cold intent and mockery.

"Thanks for bidding on it. Properly take care of it for us, alright?" The little rabbit said.

"Relax, if you all are obedient, I will properly raise you all, turning you into my heavenly deity troops." Fallen Divine Child smiled extremely brilliantly.

"We'll see the results soon, just waiting for your defeat." The little rabbit puffed her cheeks, appearing quite angered.

"Hahaha..." Fallen Divine Child laughed, his voice quite loud and unrestrained. He looked towards their group and said, "The auction is about to end, so I'll take all of you as servants in a bit!"

Chapter 902 - Opposing With Equal Harshness

Fallen Divine Child was unbridled and brash. He stood there with a smile on his face. That type of insolence and arrogance was completely undisguised as he spoke overbearingly.

"You can act arrogantly for a bit. When the time comes, this old one will cut you down!" The Divine Striking Stone was so angry it cried out noisily.

"Quiet!"

Right at this moment, the elder inside the auction house spoke, using his Barbaric Ox Roar divine ability, making the entire palace rumble with noise. He was clearly an expert.

In the surroundings, everyone kept quiet out of fear. Regardless of whether it was towards Fallen Divine Child's intimidation or the elder's roar, they all felt that they themselves were insignificant, their existences not worth mentioning.

In the end, no one fought with Fallen Divine Child over that diagram. He successfully obtained it with a price just slightly above the bottom asking price.

The main thing was that most people didn't believe they could find that place and get close to the Heavenly Deity Ancient Tree. If it was that easy, then the natives would have taken action a long time ago.

Apart from this, even if there were some who were moved, wishing to bid, when they saw the ancient freak Fallen Divine Child take action, they all felt scared. Who was willing to fight against him? That was simply courting death.

This kind of person had a cultivation that shook past and present, overlooking the world below. How many people dared to have him as their enemy?

Even someone as powerful as Huang was targeted by him, his words carrying undisguised provocation, declaring that he was going to kill Huang. Everyone naturally became fearful, not daring to provoke him.

Then, there were a few half divine fruits for sale. Shi Hao decisively took action. He needed these types of things, because the following breakthrough would be extremely crucial, requiring large amounts of holy medicines.

What was shocking that Fallen Divine Child was helping out. He was competing as well, moreover scanning his eyes over everyone, intimidating many people from competing.

As long as others backed off, he didn't continue bidding either.

At first, the little rabbit was quite happy, giggling simply, mocking Fallen Divine Child's stupidity. However, soon after, she realized what was happening and immediately became furious. The other party was treating them like his servants, believing that everything on them was his, things that were definitely going to be seized later.

"Hateful!" The little rabbit cried out with ao ao sounds, her eyes immediately becoming even redder.

"Let it be, there's no need to be angry. The results will be apparent soon." Qing Yi consoled, the light in her eyes swirling about. Even an otherworldly fairy like herself was a bit angered.

The auction house's staff's expressions became a bit unkind, a few creatures giving Fallen Divine Child a look. If it wasn't for him using a large sum to purchase that bone diagram, they would have chased him out a long time ago.

Fallen Divine Child didn't cross the line, no longer interfering with the bidding.

In the end, it was time for the bidding war over the mysterious diagram of the immortal cave. Some people's moods were immediately uplifted, becoming incredibly excited. Of course, there were some who weren't all that interested, watching coolly from the side.

This was completely contradictory, dividing into two camps. One side was incomparably excited, while the uninterested were extremely apathetic.

On the tall platform, the elder made a gesture. A beautiful young lady immediately displayed a stone engraved diagram that unexpectedly released wisps of mysterious mist. There were hazy diagram traces on its surface.

"I understand that many people carry curiosity. Since we grasp the immortal cave's secret diagram, why haven't we headed there ourselves." The elder said, his deep eyes releasing light as they swept through everyone.

At this moment, many people looked pensively. They indeed heard that Immortal Ancient's residents normally hid within their own tribes, that they usually wouldn't travel outwards hastily.

It was clear that regardless of whether it was the Heavenly Deity Tree or the immortal cave, these two points didn't reside in areas the natives could step foot in.

Of course, the elder also spoke frankly that even though this was the case, they still sent out experts. Aside from one era where they picked more than ten Heavenly Deity Fruits, the other attempts all resulted in failure.

“The immortal cave is quite unordinary. The Ten Crown King from you people, the immortal dao little tree seems to have been excavated in front of the immortal cave.”

When the elder spoke this sentence, it seemed to strike down on everyone’s minds like thunder, making many people tremble inwardly. Everyone straightened their bodies and stared at this elder, trying to judge if this was true or false.

This was just too shocking. Ten Crown King’s great natural luck actually came from this immortal cave?!

“As the base, he obtained a jade ancient book in Burial Realm, and based on what was recorded on it, he then went out to search about, and only then did he obtain some harvest.” The elder continued.

Everyone heard this before, only, they never imagined that the jade book actually pointed towards an immortal cave!

“Ten Crown King had never entered before, only digging up a small tree outside the cave, yet there was already this kind of natural luck. One can well imagine the opportunities that are available.” The elder said with a sigh.

These words naturally left everyone shocked. The entrance was already like this, so what would the immortal cave itself be like? Everyone’s breathing became hurried.

The elder spoke frankly that their experts had gone there, but they couldn’t enter that cave. In the following years, they also sent quite a few experts, but all of them returned in defeat.

“Sometimes, opportunities don’t only rely on strength, but are truly related to fate.” The elder said. He then had the beautiful young lady raise the stone engraved diagram.

Everyone reached out their necks to see it for themselves. Unfortunately, they only saw vague traces, impossible to see it clearly.

Shi Hao opened his Heavenly Eyes, but in the end, they were still obstructed.

It was clear that the other party used restrictive force to seal up that stone diagram!

“Ladies and gentlemen, all of you should be aware that this immortal cave might very well be Immortal Ancient’s greatest natural luck. Otherwise, why is just a little tree before the cave enough to shock past and present?” The elder spoke in a pace that wasn’t too fast or too slow. He looked towards everyone and said, “I know that you all are competing over it, and when the time comes, all of you will ascend onto a massive immortal dao elevated stage to carry out a world shaking struggle. Only the winner will be able to tread on a mysterious road to search for the final great luck. However, after an endless amount of time has passed, no one was able to obtain it. What I am trying to say is that the immortal cave might be where the greatest natural luck is stored!”

He was clearly stirring up temptation so everyone would bid on it.

However, this indeed ignited everyone’s interests, all of them greatly shaken up. Only the ancient kings who had previously ascended on that immortal dao platform, carried out the final contest and returned alive were able to search for that great natural luck. For normal creatures, they didn’t even have to think about it. There was simply no way there. However, right now, there seemed to be an opportunity that pointed towards the end point. The immortal cave, could this be the ultimate destination?

Fallen Divine Child's eyes were cold, not saying anything.

When Immortal Ancient was last opened, he had swept through all of Immortal Ancient, becoming unmatched under heaven. He had killed two ancient kings, ultimately standing tall on that elevated stage.

"The starting price, two stalks of divine medicines!" The elder spoke, declaring the lowest price.

"What?!"

Everyone became stupefied. This was too shocking! Who could bring out this kind of price? Apart from Ten Crown King and Ning Chuan, they had never heard of anyone else truly obtaining divine medicine.

Of course, there were some ancient kings who might have them, only, others never learned of it. However, there was no way anyone would take out two stalks!

In the outside world, even the powerful Goddess Academy only had a single stalk of Tribulation Crossing Divine Lotus!

There were many inheritances, many great sects, but not even their sect masters had seen a living divine medicine, let alone possessing one.

Shi Hao directly shook his head. There was no way he could bid on this. Fallen Divine Child didn't move, unknown what he was thinking.

As for others, they were all dispirited. No one could pay that kind of price.

It was clear that this stone engraving diagram wasn't going to be auctioned off today.

"No matter, we will continue to hold onto this item. When fellow friends ally together to bid over it, it will still be here." The elder said with a smile.

Everyone understood that the auction this time was for propaganda, hoping to draw even more people, making the ancient kings join hands to bid on this stone engraving diagram.

"However, next time, the lowest price will be four stalks of divine medicine." The elder was all smiles.

Everyone wanted to curse at him. This was too hateful! Even if one searched through all of immortal ancient, how many stalks of divine medicine would they even find? This was, unless one opened an ancient medicinal garden that remained from the last great era. If this happened, forget about divine medicines, there might even be long life medicines!

Everyone gradually understood. The natives couldn't leave their respective regions, so they relied on outsiders to obtain divine treasures from various places.

No wonder they wouldn't rashly take action against outsiders. They feared that they would alarm everyone, and that it would then be difficult to do business.

"Since no one is bidding on the diagram of the immortal cave, then let's add a few more rare treasures." The elder said.

Originally, the immortal cave's stone engraving diagram was the last item for auction, but because it wasn't sold, they produced two more items.

One was a jade altar that stored jadelike viscous liquid. When the altar was opened, a wave of medicinal fragrance wafted outwards, penetrating deeply into the heart.

"Life spring, able to deter old age and increase one's vitality." The elder introduced.

This triggered a huge commotion. This was good stuff, able to increase one's life essence.

Then, another young lady carried over a jade box. When it was opened, an astonishing green energy gushed out. It flickered with radiance like gemstones. This was a stalk of grass.

"Revival Grass. Even if one only has a trace of vitality, after ingesting it, one would still be able to live."

Revival Grass was similarly well known. Upon ingesting it, apart from increasing one's cultivation and magical force, its medicinal characteristics was similar to divine medicines, definitely able to grant a dying person flesh and bones.

These two were undoubtedly unmatched life saving treasures!

For Shi Hao, this was equivalent to two lives, the things he needed the most. He immediately straightened his body.

The elders that followed Shi Hao like dogs all revealed strange looks. They asked, "Little friend is interested?"

"I am!" Shi Hao nodded.

"Then that is much easier." The elder smiled. He nodded towards him, and then his lips opened and closed, transmitting sound.

On the platform, that elder spoke the lowest price. "The lowest price for these two items, is just a willow branch."

Everyone was shocked. It was just that simple?

Shi Hao was stunned. He immediately understood. Descendant Auction House was related to the elders at his side, opened by them.

"I can find a hundred carts of willow branches!" Someone impatiently shouted.

"I should add one more point. That branch was left behind from the last great era." On the elevated stage, that elder said.

Everyone became dumbstruck. Was there still natural reason? Who would be able to bring out such a thing?!

"You all are making things difficult for me!" Shi Hao turned around and looked towards those elders.

"Willow Deity... I will not allow anyone else to blaspheme him. I need to properly preserve it!"

The elders revealed looks of shock. One of them said, "Why are you saying what we were going to say? The reason we want the willow branch is out of hopes that Guardian Spirit Ancient Ancestor isn't blasphemed by others. We were going to bring it back to the holy land to consecrate."

"Nonsense!" The Eight Armed Spirit Race Elder glared.

"I need an explanation." Shi Hao said.

"We cannot speak too much about many things, but we can tell you that the branch Guardian Spirit Ancient Ancestor left behind cannot belong to outsiders..."

Even though they couldn't speak too much about it, the elder still spoke a bit more.

In a mysterious pure land, a golden willow tree's branch was left behind by the past guardian spirit, consecrated by them, planted within the life spring. However, it hadn't revived all this time, so they wished to merge this willow branch with that one.

"A branch with vitality, one of the Willow Deity's three thousand divine countries?!" Shi Hao was shocked.

Unfortunately, these creatures forcefully rejected him. He wasn't allowed to go there.

However, in the end, Shi Hao agreed joyously to exchange with them, allowing them to bring that willow branch back to merge with the other.

With the Life Spring and Revival Grass in hand, Shi Hao was fully content. However, this shocked a group of people, all of them revealing strange looks. Huang was too powerful, even able to bring out this type of willow branch.

As such, quite a few understood with a flash why those elders were following behind him, siding with him so. It was because he brought back something heaven defying from the Black Abyss.

"Not bad, with the Life Spring and Revival Grass, my path will go much smoother, able to calm down and focus on comprehending the dao, no longer needing to fear failure. My cultivation will be greatly increased." Fallen Divine Child nodded, extremely conceited.

"Going to beat you until you explode in a bit!" The little rabbit bared her teeth. She couldn't take it anymore.

"What a pity, that branch clearly has some immortal dao energy. Exchanging it out like this is too regretful." Fallen Divine Child shook his head, as if he was talking about his own items.

Shi Hao's eyes became deep. He stood up and said, "Let's go choose your grave. Of course, if your original body isn't human form, then never mind. A cauldron to stew you later on is enough."

"Hahaha..." Fallen Divine Child laughed. Even though he was calm, he became bit cold. "So impatient to offer yourselves over, you are just like your two senior brothers. Back then, they were fighting one over the other to take action against me first. In the end? I suppressed them all the same, giving each of them a kick, stepping on their faces. That type of feeling is not bad. After all, they are people from the supreme being bloodline, yet they were stepped on by me, hah!"

The auction house immediately became quiet. Everyone felt as if they were suffocating. They all understood that a great battle was going to begin. No one dared to speak randomly, not wishing to offend anyone.

“Go, to the place of your death!” Shi Hao got up, walking outwards.

“Unendurable! Need to be killed!” The Divine Striking Stone roared, the first time it was angered so badly. It truly hated this person. Divine Fallen Child was too overbearing, more than it could take.

“Huang, you have to defeat him!” The little rabbit cried out noisily.

Cao Yusheng and Qing Yi followed behind, finding it difficult to calm down their emotions.

“Alright, let me have a look. I want to see if you are a bit better than your two senior brothers.” Fallen Divine Child walked out from the auction house, following behind them to fight this great battle.

Hong!

Burial City immediately erupted with commotion.

All of the creatures here already heard that Fallen Divine Child had arrived, about to take action against Huang. The two of them were selecting a place for battle right now, an exceptional great battle about to unfold.

“Go! Let’s go watch this. This type of great battle definitely cannot be missed out on!”

“Hurry and follow them!”

...

Fortunately, the battlefield Shi Hao and the others selected wasn’t too far. Otherwise, not many people would be able to follow them.

This was an ancient battlefield. The great earth was a dark red color, dyed red by the blood of past unmatched creatures. Not a blade of grass grew here, and it was surrounded by mists all year round.

Generally speaking, this type of place was full of baleful energy. Not many people dared to come here.

However, right now, Shi Hao and Fallen Divine Child were in the depths of the ancient battlefield, unaffected by their surroundings.

As for others, not a single one went inside, all of them watching from the distance. Everyone was extremely nervous, but also looking forward to this.

Hong!

The two of them didn’t say anything, directly taking action. It was as if two stars in the cosmos collided, erupting with the most dazzling holy light!

Dong!

Like comets smashing into the great earth, even the dark red earth that was known to be sturdy and undying broke apart. Rubble rushed into the clouds, great cracks quickly extending in the void.

In the distance, everyone became speechless, all of them petrified.

This was just the first collision, a clash of flesh, yet it already produced such a terrifying scene. It was too shocking.

“You are a bit stronger than your two senior brothers, but... still not enough, too far removed from me!” Fallen Divine Child spoke.

At this time, a strand of immortal energy appeared around him. Those from the distance couldn’t see it clearly, their line of sight blocked by the mist, but Shi Hao saw it clearly.

“Do you know where the difference lies? I can suppress you with just a raise of my hand, easily able to wipe out your body and spirit!” Fallen Divine Child spoke calmly as he walked over step by step. He stared at Shi Hao coldly, carrying mockery in his eyes.

While speaking, he raised his right hand, aiming at Shi Hao, casually crushing downwards, about to easily kill Shi Hao before everyone's eyes.

That strand of immortal energy lingered about, winding around his arm. It immediately became hazy. It was incomparably mysterious. That arm seemed like it could suppress and collapse heaven and earth!

These were the wondrous effects of immortal energy. Once one cultivated it, they would become entirely different, transcending above, impossible to match!

Xiu!

Shi Hao saw that he used immortal energy in such a casual manner. His expression didn’t change, only rushing forward quickly. He then kicked out from midair.

“Even a glimmer dares to compete against a luminous moon? Overestimating your abilities!” Fallen Divine Child said. That hand slowly and resolutely smashed down on Shi Hao’s leg.

However, what was unexpected, something that exceeded all of everyone’s predictions happened. Shi Hao’s leg was simple and direct, powerful beyond imagination!

Peng!

Shi Hao’s right leg lashed out like a Dragon Snake, thrashing the void, blasting apart his arm. The leg in the air struck his face, causing blood to flow out from his mouth. His entire body was in shock, sent flying out in reverse.

Chapter 903 - Great Confrontation

Fallen Divine Child’s expression went rigid. His face was kicked, his body flying out. A bit of blood scattered outwards.

For him, this was intolerable. A ‘newcomer’, the junior brother of people he had defeated before, unexpectedly landed this type of kick on him, stepping on his face!

This not only inflicted physical damage, but was also a great shame and humiliation.

He was an ancient king, someone who had killed a Three Crown King and present world heroes, rising up alone, a supreme existence in Immortal Ancient, known as an undefeated legend, yet today, he was humiliated so.

If he didn't take that step and this happened when he encountered another ancient king, then that was one thing. However, he was facing a present world youth, yet he was kicked in the face. It was simply unimaginable.

"Nice! Clean and efficient!" In the distance, the little rabbit cried out with ao ao sounds, jumping and hopping, brandishing her little fists.

The others were shocked as well. Fallen Divine Child was kicked in the chase and sent flying, this... was unimaginable. It had just begun, yet he already suffered so greatly!

On the battlefield, Fallen Divine Child felt a scorching pain on his face, his jawbones almost all fractured. This result made his eyes cold to the extreme.

Shame, resentment, and ruthlessness interweaved together, causing dark light to erupt from Fallen Divine Child's entire body. He was like a demonic god from the underworld!

Peng!

He, who was still flying backwards, directly stopped himself. Then, like a javelin, his body nailed itself into the ground, stopping all movement. His eyes were deep, the scenes within them terrifying. In the depths of his eyes, large amounts of divine corpses fell.

"I've underestimated you!"

It was just these few words, but they sounded like clashing metal, making everyone feel incredibly uncomfortable as it rang in their ears. He walked over step by step, glaring at Shi Hao.

He truly acted carelessly, never expecting Shi Hao to be so extraordinary.

Peng!

His hand formed an imprint, and with a gentle shake, the surrounding void split.

Following his movements, the entire heaven and earth seemed to be swaying. This type of energy, that kind of fluctuations made one's soul feel unsteady, as if they were going to collapse as well.

Fallen Divine Child took action, the magical imprint tangling about a streak of pure white immortal energy to kill Shi Hao. That hand imprint was too crazy, creating more and more cracks in the void.

Dong!

Shi Hao didn't dodge, fiercely taking action. His right fist shone resplendently, smashing down like a comet, colliding with that magical imprint.

With a weng sound, the battlefield trembled intensely. Their arms continuously clashed against each other, attacking with the most ferocious methods. It was as if thunder struck down again and again here.

In the distance, many people cried out in alarm, quickly backing up. It was because mysterious symbols were extending outwards, engulfing heaven and earth. They were affected even while far away.

Everyone flew backwards together. A few people's bodies went weak under those unimaginable fluctuations, trembling with fear. It was as if they were insects facing enormous dragons.

In the battlefield, the two of them were like lightning as they moved about, continuously clashing. Resplendent light was released again and again, some directly piercing through the horizon, scattering the clouds.

This battle was incomparably intense. Their fists collided, the light released actually continuously making the void cave in. That type of scene was too terrifying.

Many people's faces became pale. How could they compare to this type of fighting prowess? It was on a completely different order of magnitude! Many proud and arrogant geniuses were dealt a mental blow, feeling a sense of defeat.

It was because this type of difference was too great! They suspected that even if they became true deities, they would still be easily killed by these two!

In the end, both parties scattered, each occupying one side.

Even though it all happened in an instant, their fists had already struck out over a thousand times. The light that erupted split apart the surrounding void, terrifying to an inconceivable degree.

And right now, they already travelled several tens of li, entering deeply into the ancient battlefield.

Fallen Divine Child's eyes were extremely cold as he stared at Shi Hao. He found it hard to believe that after taking that step, transcending the ancient predecessors, and cultivating immortal energy, he still couldn't kill this person.

Chi!

He activated a secret treasure. Hazy light surrounded this place, isolating this place from the outside realm.

"You also... took that step?!" His eyes were extremely cold, not restraining his emotions. He stared at Shi Hao. If not for this, how else could this be explained?

"Aren't you the arrogant one. Do you feel that taking that step is that hard?" Shi Hao calmly said.

Fallen Divine Child's mind fell. He cultivated a strand of immortal energy, making his divine senses incredibly sharp. He could sense many things ahead of time, yet he never discovered beforehand that Shi Hao was just like himself.

This type of feeling was extremely bad!

His expression became grave. The other party arrived in Burial City two days ago, while he had just emerged from isolation. This meant that Huang succeeded before him!

One had to bear in mind that since the ancient times, countless heavenly talents died on their own paths, none of them able to take that step.

Now, Fallen Divine Child emerged, full of confidence. He carried an attitude of devouring mountains and rivers, that he was the only one that was supreme. It was because he transcended above the ancient predecessors!

He believed that he could travel unhindered through Immortal Ancient, that even if he encountered Ning Chuan, he could still fight him. As for others like Huang, he could just directly sweep through them, easily killing them.

Who would have expected that the enemy he looked down on, someone younger than himself, cultivated immortal energy with just one era, able to stand on equal footing with himself?

For Fallen Divine Child who had always overlooked his peers, this type of feeling was utterly terrible. There had never been anyone who exceeded himself, yet today, he encountered a terrifying freak.

“By sealing up this space, is it that you don’t want secrets to be leaked?” Shi Hao jeered.

Fallen Divine Child's face fell. The battlefield was surrounded by mist, so outsiders couldn’t see their immortal energy. He sealed up this place so others couldn’t hear their conversation.

He indeed wished to hide things, not wanting the other ancient freaks in Immortal Ancient to know that he succeeded. He wished to use it to decisively carry out a slaughter when the crucial moment arrived.

Unfortunately, the person before him was even quicker than he himself, so his actions now seemed a bit laughable, making his face turn a bit sour.

“Haha...” Shi Hao laughed, carrying ridicule and disdain. There was also a type of self confidence as he responded to Fallen Divine Child’s previous overbearing manner.

A strand of immortal energy appeared silently around Shi Hao’s body. It was pure and spotlessly white like jade, coiling about his body like a True Dragon, incomparably auspicious and peaceful.

However, before Fallen Divine Child’s eyes, it was incredibly blinding!

His pupils hurriedly contracted. This was a huge blow. He overlooked the masses, his accomplishments and talents world shocking, yet in the end, he was brushed aside so easily by another.

“Just because we both cultivated a strand of immortal energy, you think you can compare to me?” Fallen Divine Child said. He opened his mouth and roared. He put away his secret treasure, slaughtering his way forward. n(-OveIbIn

Hong!

This time, one of the two was like dark light that covered the sun, the other like a golden brilliance illuminating the skies as they clashed together. Endless resplendent light erupted, as if a million volcanoes erupted.

“What powerful fluctuations! These two are truly terrifying. Huang is actually powerful to this extent, able to fight an ancient king!”

In the distance, everyone saw the two individuals’ figures again, seeing their great confrontation. They were all incredibly shaken.

“Rumor has it that Fallen Divine Child might have taken that step, so why is it that he still cannot suppress Huang? Could it be that Huang also succeeded? That would be too frightening!”

The fight between these two shocked all sides.

It had to be said that Fallen Divine Child was terrifying to a heaven defying degree, worthy of being an ancient king. Otherwise, how could he have claimed to be the best of an era, sweeping through all of Immortal Ancient? He was powerful to a ridiculous level, beyond what outsiders could imagine.

His casual attack displayed the greatest profound mysteries of precious techniques, displayed to great heights, exceeding the ancient predecessors of all different paths.

“Back then, your two senior brothers were known as geniuses as well, shocking the world, but they still crawled under my feet. Today, I will strike down your kind’s final bit of arrogance and dignity. What supreme being? Everything will be crushed beneath my feet!”

Fallen Divine Child roared. It was unexpectedly more shocking than a lion or bull roar. Blood-colored mountain peaks split apart all around them, collapsing here.

Ah...

A few people cried out loudly, their seven apertures bleeding. They quickly took steps backwards in retreat, feeling incomparable alarm.

This type of person’s fighting strength exceeded their imaginations. Even with so much distance separating them, the fluctuations still landed on many experts. If they truly slaughtered their way over here, what kind of result would that be then?

No one dared imagine this result. Was this an ancient king? A single person could sweep through a group of enemies, destroying all those before him!

Now they were seeing this, everyone felt even more moved. They truly witnessed what was the so-called unmatched, the undefeated and invincible under heaven, what was called being a sovereign of this world!

Xiu!

With a strike from Fallen Divine Child, dark light erupted, a mountain peak in the ancient battlefield swept through. Large amounts of mountains fell, leaving this great earth shaken until it rumbled with noise. Smoke and dust overflowed into the sky.

Peng peng peng...

The two confronted each other, continuously clashing together, erupting with the most brilliant symbols. That place became incomparably divine. It was as if they were the lords of all deities as they fought.

“You dare to boast so shamelessly with just this bit of methods?” Shi Hao said, mocking Fallen Divine Child.

"It's enough to kill you. There are only a few in this world who can fight me, but you are not included among them!" Fallen Divine Child shouted.

Dong!

After another intense collision, the two of them each retreated to one side.

Immediately afterwards, Fallen Divine Child became completely different. His head of gray hair danced about, his eyes deep like an abyss. His entire body slowly forged an imprint. A boundless pressure swept out, shaking the heavens above and earth below!

All around them, several hundred thousand jin boulders and other things rose into the air, suspending in the sky, shaking along with the imprint.

Then, with another hong sound, all of the enormous rocks exploded.

This place was extremely terrifying. Following Fallen Divine Child's imprint, the world began to rumble with noise, as if a tattered painting scroll was moving. It was extremely terrifying.

"That's Fallen Deity Imprint!"

In the distance, everyone was horrified.

In Fallen Deity's surroundings, terrifying scenes appeared. Countless gods and devils fell from the heavens, divine corpses everywhere, demonic remains spread throughout. A rain of blood poured downwards.

This left everyone shocked!

Everyone's minds went numb. This type of scene was too terrifying!

Fallen Deity Imprint was the greatest art of Fallen Divine Ridge, rumored to have originated from Immortal Ancient Great Era. It was something that was discovered from ancient remains.

Someone had previously speculated that this was an unmatched divine ability established by an undying individual. It could kill deities and devils, extremely powerful and exceeding all imaginations.

Shi Hao didn't waste his time with words. Left hand Reincarnation, right hand Heaven Calamity Light, and a third type of innate precious technique's initial symbols blended inside. His entire being erupted with brilliance, so dazzling it made others tremble.

Chi!

The void around him split apart, black cracks exploding.

Shi Hao directly rushed over. The light between the two was dazzling, drowning out the heavens as they collided viciously.

Peng!

In the end, everyone saw Fallen Divine Child fly out, coughing out large amounts of blood. In addition, white hair appeared on his temples. He was seriously injured.

“Even someone like you dares to boast shamelessly, wanting to kill me?” Shi Hao roared.

He quickly took action again, his palms and fingers erupting with endless radiance, bombarding downwards again and again.

Peng!

Fallen Divine Child’s magical imprint was blasted through, his entire body coughing out blood, flying outwards.

Shi Hao chased after him. His right leg swept out, blasting the barrier of light formed by the deities and demon corpses. With a hong sound, it thrashed down on his body, sending him flying again.

“I’m still not finished!”

Shi Hao roared. He closed the distance with the Earth to Inches technique, blasting away the other party’s palms. His fist smashed out, almost piercing through Fallen Divine Child’s body. His chest exploded, blood and bone gushing outwards.

“Humiliating my two senior brothers, winning is one thing, but you keep bringing it up again, using it to provoke me. However, in reality... you aren’t even anyone special!”

Dong!

It was another heavy strike. Shi Hao’s fist smashed out again, light overflowing into the heavens, blasting Fallen Divine Child out horizontally, smashing into a mountain peak. Blood continuously flowed out from his mouth.

“Don’t be careless. Fallen Divine Ridge’s people are the best at taking blows!” Cao Yusheng shouted, unknown if he was reminding Shi Hao or mocking the other party.

As for everyone else, they had long become dumbstruck!

Chapter 904 - Undefeated Legend

How could this be? Everyone became petrified like statues as they watched the ancient battlefield’s situation.

“Fallen Divine Child... is being beaten up!” Someone said, his breathing rushed as he spoke this sentence.

Everything that happened was a bit difficult to believe, leaving everyone shocked! An ancient king, one known as an undefeated legend, someone who was unstoppable and unmatched, was suppressed and beaten today.

Many people knew that Fallen Divine Child had come out from isolation for Huang, to suppress and kill him.

This was the first time an ancient freak truly emerged in the world to unleash a slaughter, to cut down an enemy. Everyone felt that Huang might be in danger.

After all, Fallen Divine Child was unstoppable. He had previously been unstoppable, unmatched in this world. As an ancient king, he was powerful to the extreme, able to kill all enemies.

However, the result before everyone's eyes left them stupefied. Huang was ridiculously powerful, chasing after his body that was flying out, striking Fallen Divine Child until he coughed out large mouthfuls of blood.

Ah...

Fallen Divine Child suddenly released a roar. Dark light covered the sky. There were countless divine corpses around him, and demonic remains rose, forming a maelstrom.

"Suppress and kill!"

He released a loud shout. The void split apart, and black cracks surrounded that black-colored vortex, the scene terrifying to the extreme.

Cao Yusheng's warning made sense. They even fought to this level, yet Fallen Divine Child was so domineering, just like a wounded wild beast, becoming even more dangerous.

That black vortex was like a black hole, surrounding Shi Hao and devouring him within.

"Obliterate!"

Fallen Divine Child's gray hair flew about chaotically. His body was increasing in size, turning into a giant. Then, a large hand slapped down fiercely, slamming into the center of the black vortex, covering it completely.

Hong!

The void shattered, heaven and earth shaken.

That place was completely destroyed. Shi Hao flew outwards, his clothes blasted into tatters. A streak of blood flowed out from the corner of his lips, but his injuries weren't too severe. He stood in the distance, looking at Fallen Divine Child.

"The little fatty was spot on, your skin is rough and muscles thick, really good at taking a beating." Shi Hao said.

This joke wasn't pleasant to listen to at all. Fallen Divine Child's face became extremely cold. He wiped off the blood from his lips, staring at Shi Hao viciously with eyes like those of a starving wolf.

"Hehe..." At this moment, perhaps it was only the little rabbit that could laugh. She was slapping her little hands, her long silver hair swinging back and forth, truly overjoyed.

"Already said a long time ago that you were going to be defeated and beaten up!" She shouted.

In the surroundings, no one said anything. Many of the spectators took steps backwards, keeping quiet out of fear. The ones fighting was Fallen Divine Child and a devil king, both of them extremely dangerous.

No one dared to provoke them, nor did anyone dare to randomly make comments, because it was difficult to say for sure who was going to win. If they offended the one that ended up living, then the consequences would be too horrible to imagine.

“Huang, you’ve made me mad!” Fallen Divine Child’s voice was low, but his eyes became more and more deep, incomparably terrifying.

“So what if you’re mad? I am going to beat you until you don’t dare show any anger any longer. You can forget about your anger or future, because there won’t be such opportunities for you.” Shi Hao said calmly.

“Hahaha...” Fallen Divine Child laughed coldly, still remaining calm. His temples carried wisps of white, but they quickly faded, recovering from his aged state.

This really was shocking. After suffering from reincarnation, if it were others, they would have long declined away, yet he still stuck it through, his body not deteriorating during this process.

Of course, this was also because his strength was great, avoiding the fatal strike.

Peng!

Fallen Divine Child moved his wings. World shocking demonic light shone!

A pair of wings appeared behind him, one black one white, extremely strange looking. They left Shi Hao with a deep impression the very first time he saw them in Burial City.

At this moment, Fallen Divine Child attacked again. These were innate divine wings, containing incomparably terrifying power.

One black, one white, two streams of energy appeared, yin and yang energies. They slowly circulated, immediately making this heaven and earth chaotic, causing the expressions of cultivators on all sides to change.

The world was boundless, but it could be explained through yin and yang energies. All things were born through yin and yang, able to produce great dao true meaning.

This was Fallen Divine Child’s innate divine ability, as well as his path, one black one white. When these wings moved, yin and yang appeared, energy surged, shaking the world.

“Why can’t I move? Affected even from so far away...”

In the distance, everyone was in fear. Yin and yang energies pervaded the air, making heaven and earth chaotic, as if everything was going to collapse.

At the horizon, a few cultivators unexpectedly fell from the sky, finding it difficult to control their own foundational energy, as a result suffering serious damage.

This was why Fallen Divine Child was terrifying. He grasped yin and yang, affecting the natural laws of the world, making everything chaotic. This world seemed to have been locked down by his power.

As an ancient king, how could he be ordinary? He had previously forged an illustrious reputation through slaughter, not a single person able to compete against him. He towered above on the immortal dao elevated stage alone, overlooking everyone under the sky.

How could this kind of person be easily defeated? He was sheltered by the heavens, previously the leading character of an entire generation, unstoppable as he killed his peers until they all became silent, keeping quiet out of fear.

“Kill!”

Fallen Divine Child released a light shout, turning into a streak of demonic light. He rushed at Shi Hao, and when his wings moved, the void caved in and the great earth split apart. Mountain peaks collapsed, and rubble rushed into the clouds. That type of scene was too terrifying!

In addition, following a light shout, a few people in the distant skies felt their souls being attacked. They began to drop from the sky like falling leaves.

He was unrivaled, these types of methods enough to make all exceptional talents' faces pale, impossible to fight against. This was an ancient king, an undefeated legend, the embodiment of their unmatched glory.

Shi Hao's expression became grave. Wings quickly appeared behind him, and other precious techniques appeared as well. Bone texts interweaved, covering the surface of his body.

Hong!

The two experts rushed at each other murderously. Great cracks extended into the void, reaching several hundred zhang, tearing this place apart.

It was as if two streaks of light were tangling together. They were just too fast, and both of them moved their wings, using all of their great divine abilities, clashing viciously. Arms struck against each other, divine wings hacking down, producing keng qiang sounds. Sparks flew in all directions.

Peng!

Shi Hao slapped down on the other party's wings. Heaven Calamity Light shone resplendently, condensing into a hand, the most terrifying strike.

However, those black and white wings erupted with yin and yang energies, neutralizing everything, practically hacking apart the Heaven's Hand. Fallen Divine Child fully displayed his unmatched style.

Hong!

The two of them continuously took action. Reincarnation symbols struck Fallen Divine Child on the shoulder, making the skin there quickly age, and about to quickly spread over his entire body.

It was those wings that once again surged with yin and yang energies to resist the Reincarnation symbols, displaying the most brilliant patterns.

Peng!

Finally, Shi Hao also had a taste of why 'Fallen Deity Imprint' was so terrifying. That magical imprint slammed into his body, and even though he used his great divine abilities to neutralize a large half of it, he was still shaken greatly. Blood flowed out from the corner of his lips.

These all happened in the time it took for sparks to fly off a piece of flint. The two sides clashed, and both of them received a blow from the other party, receiving serious injuries.

Shi Hao didn't seem to care about this injury in the slightest, his eyes instead revealing resplendent light, unexpectedly showing a bit of excitement. It was because the main reason he was so determined to fight against Fallen Divine Child was to gauge the strength of these so-called ancient freaks.

Fallen Divine Child didn't let him down, making him cough out blood. As expected, this was a terrifying opponent.

Even though he hated this person, Shi Hao still admitted that this was an extremely powerful enemy that had world shocking methods. He was extremely dangerous and terrifying.

Peng!

Fallen Divine Child's wings, one black, one white, were truly powerful. When they collided with Shi Hao's Kun Peng wings, resplendent fiery light erupted. Symbols interweaved, covering the sky.

The two clashed viciously. When their battle passed close to the surface, an expanse of mountain peaks shattered, all of them blasted through by the bone texts produced by their symbols.

Pu!

At the same time, his foot also swept through Fallen Divine Child's hip bone. After staggering a bit, all of the bone texts covering his body were thrown into chaos, almost struck between the brows by his follow up symbols.

The symbols diffused outwards. A rain of light shone brilliantly between the two. They separated.

With a hong sound, Fallen Divine Child's wings suddenly erupted with black and white light. He released a loud roar, and then his head of gray hair stood up vertically. A terrifying aura spread outwards.

Immediately afterwards, this world seemed to have been divided into two, split into a black and a white world.

"Light Dark Wings!"

These words were like a demonic chant, piercing through many people's sea of divine senses. The void immediately changed. Not only did yin and yang energies swirl, darkness and radiance surged as well.

This world was made of these two forces of opposition to begin within, divided into black and white, yin and yang, light and dark.

Fallen Divine Child displayed this type of great dao to suppress Shi Hao.

Hong!

Shi Hao moved his wings, displaying the Kun Peng technique to its limit. The golden light of his right hand shone brilliantly, a Peng appearing in this palm. His left hand was pitch-black like ink, symbols interweaving to form a Kun. His hands moved, the great yin and great yang erupting and merging together. Primal chaos mists pervaded the air!

A chaotic mist burst out, blasting towards Fallen Divine Child.

Heng!

Fallen Divine Child released a cold snort. He revealed a look of shock. This was his domain of expertise, originally wishing to give Shi Hao a pleasant surprise, never expecting that the other party could also do it.

Peng!

His black and white worlds clashed, producing chaotic energy. There was terrifying radiance that accompanied this attack as it hacked towards Shi Hao.

Pu!

Almost at the same time, both sides were seriously injured, blood splashing out from their bodies, flying backwards.

Chaotic energy and symbols were everywhere. The two wings clashed greatly, each pair hacking at the other party. Fists and palms struck against the other party's body, inflicting heavy injuries on both parties, their mouths coughing out blood.

"Do you have any other forbidden divine abilities? Hurry and display them." Shi Hao said, his eyes becoming more and more resplendent as he stared at the other party.

Fallen Divine Child's pupils shrunk. He saw excitement from the other party's eyes. That was definitely not fake, but rather a true joy, treating him like prey.

Fallen Divine Child was furious. When had he ever been treated like prey by another?

However, this time, it was extremely dangerous. Apart from having the precious technique of a vicious ten, his innate divine abilities were also too terrifying, one of them he hadn't seen through even now.

"Kill!"

Fallen Divine Child shouted angrily. At this moment, he displayed an exceptional precious technique, making everyone shocked.

"Refinement technique, it is actually a world shaking Refinement method!" Everyone was indescribably shaken. That was a type of lost great divine ability, yet it unexpectedly appeared in Fallen Divine Child's hands.

He refined the void, forming a furnace, suppressing Shi Hao within to burn him!

It could burn the nine heavens, refine all deities and devils. This divine ability was the most terrifying, one of the greatest precious techniques of the divine dao!

However, Fallen Divine Child failed, unable to refine Shi Hao. He quickly rushed out from the void furnace, and then smashed out with a fist, making the heaven fall and the earth crack apart.

Only Qing Yi, Cao Yusheng, and the others understood why this was. It was because Shi Hao used the world as a furnace, using three thousand dao flames to burn his body. That was why he remained fearless.

If it was anyone else, they would have undoubtedly died. Even if it was another ancient freak, they would likely be in danger, difficult to resist this attack.

Fallen Divine Child was too tyrannical!

“Void Return technique!” Fallen Divine Child released another great shout. His entire body erupted with symbols, shocking everyone once again. This was another great divine ability that had been lost in inheritance.

This didn’t belong to Fallen Divine Ridge, but was instead a forbidden secret method that shocked the past and present. This technique had unexpectedly been successfully cultivated by him as well! It truly was unknown how he obtained these methods.

Void Return technique, it would allow one to directly strike one’s flesh into nothingness, causing all tangible matter to disintegrate and completely disappear.

Shi Hao stood there. His only heavenly passage appeared around him, thunder roiling above. A streak of immortal energy accompanied by lightning radiance smashed downwards, the electricity hacking down from the nine heavens, blasting Fallen Divine Child.

The two of them exchanged attacks, the fight reaching its climax, as well as its final phase.

Everyone was shaken. Their methods were endless! This was especially the case with Fallen Divine Child who unexpectedly produced four or five rarely seen forbidden great divine abilities, all of them enough to shock the world. n//o.-v/(e./l(/&-l(/n

Everyone had heard of Huang’s methods a long time ago, but Fallen Divine Child was more mysterious, immediately displaying so many unmatched precious techniques. It was too shocking for those of the present era.

“Worthy of being an ancient king, the main character of a certain world. Too terrifying!” Even the little rabbit who hated Fallen Divine Child had to admit that he was powerful.

The two exchanged attacks, long exchanging two thousand blows. Shi Hao also fought until he was crazy, becoming incomparably excited. His eyes were full of fanatical excitement. “Do you have anything else?”

Fallen Divine Child’s eyes became deep. Fighting up to this point truly was out of his expectations. This battle was too difficult. After cultivating a strand of immortal energy, one was supposed to become unmatched, yet they fought bloodily to this extent.

“If you don’t have any other methods left, then let this be the end!” Shi Hao shouted.

He spat out a mouthful of blood, and then he operated divine force. The Kun Peng wings moved about, and at the same time, he displayed his own innate divine ability. Heaven Calamity Light, Reincarnation, and the third mysterious method's symbols that had initially formed intertwined, the power increasing exponentially.

Hong!

Shi Hao moved his wings, rushing over murderously, about to bring this great battle to a close.

This place erupted with chaos. Nothing could be seen anymore, only symbols erupting everywhere, surrounding the heavens. The two hacked at each other murderously, leaving everyone horrified and in shock.

In the end, a streak of blood flew upwards. Shi Hao rose into the air, retreating outwards. Meanwhile, in his original location, Fallen Divine Child split up into several pieces. Blood splashed all over the ancient battlefield.

"What? It ended just like that? Fallen Divine Child lost?!"

Everyone was shaken.

"This is too great! Finally won!" The little rabbit cheered. Qing Yi and the others released a breath of air. This battle had made them quite anxious.

Shi Hao descended. He looked at the corpse. "Why is it human form? That shouldn't be!"

Bloody light suddenly erupted. Phoenix cries shook the heavens. A streak of resplendent symbols flashed across, moving through Shi Hao's body.

"What? That's the undying bird, the True Phoenix!"

Outside the battlefield, everyone became dumbstruck.

Fallen Divine Child's blood shone, as if igniting, turning into a True Phoenix that carried a divine blade in its mouth. It rushed forth, hacking apart Shi Hao's body.

If it was just a bit closer, the space between Shi Hao's brows would have been hacked through. He displayed symbols, using a great divine technique, forcefully blasting that True Phoenix that attacked him away.

Shi Hao was almost cleaved in half. At the very least, everything below his brows was cut. Blood surged, the scene shocking everyone.

"Huang, you have to stick it through!"

"Shi Hao... you are okay, right?!"

The little rabbit, Cao Yusheng, and Qing Yi cried out in alarm.

Chi!

Shi Hao staggered backwards, and then the two halves of his body quickly merged, growing together. His blood also flowed in reverse. A strand of immortal energy curled around him, nourishing his body to treat his injuries.

On the other side, Fallen Divine Child's broken body recombined. That bloody light returned to his body, and in his hand was a multi-colored dagger. It was resplendent and world shocking, incomparably sharp, able to easily hack apart the void.

"He actually grasps the True Phoenix's divine ability, one of the vicious ten, refining an undying body!" Cao Yusheng's expression changed.

This was definitely shocking. Undying body, such a thing made everyone horrified.

Fallen Divine Child's face fell. He didn't mind exchanging life for life, allowing his own body to be killed once if he could get rid of Shi Hao. However, in the end, he failed. This was just too terrible.

One has to understand that the last time Immortal Ancient opened, this was precisely what he used to kill Three Crown King, making that ancient king die with remaining grievances.

Now, someone who was even younger than him avoided this attack. Things would now become extremely troublesome.

"Good, good, I've underestimated you. You've almost made me suffer a disaster. However, now, you don't have any chances left. Even if you have an undying body, it still isn't enough!" Shi Hao said.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao went berserk, displaying all of his divine abilities. Kun Peng wings appeared behind him, and lightning interweaved in front of him. In his left hand appeared Heaven Calamity Light, in his right Reincarnation. His body's third divine ability also erupted.

This great battle was absolutely world shaking!

The two of them went crazy as they hacked at each other, blood flying everywhere.

It was precisely as Shi Hao said. Even though Fallen Divine Child was incredibly powerful, he was still killed. When he wanted to use the undying Phoenix's precious technique to revive, Shi Hao would kill him once again.

There were no undying people. It was just a consumption of one's source energy, paying a considerable price to revive.

After killing him several times, Shi Hao released a loud roar, piercing through the space between Fallen Divine Child's brows, capturing his primordial spirit.

"Ah..." Fallen Divine Child released an angry roar. There was no way he would surrender. He resisted with everything he could to destroy everything indiscriminately.

Pu!

In the end, Shi Hao blasted his primordial spirit apart with a single fist!

Primordial spirit fragments flew everywhere. A multicolored dagger hacked apart the void, about to bring the primordial fragments with it in escape.

Shi Hao brought out the Everlasting Immortal Sword, and with a qiang sound, hacked down that dagger, also forcing all of those primordial spirit fragments back, not giving them any chance to escape.

“Similarly cultivated immortal energy, and I even accumulated for another generation, why... would I be defeated? How could I not be your match?” Fallen Divine Child was unwilling to accept this result.

“Could it be because when I took that step, I didn’t experience the ominous and inauspicious? That it was too easy, lacking the corresponding trial?” Fallen Divine Child reflected on the past.

“When you took that step, you didn’t experience the inauspicious?!” Shi Hao was shocked. He then wanted to curse the heavens. This was too unfair!

“What? You... faced the ominous, forcibly making it through?” Fallen Divine Child was shocked.

“I understand.” Shi Hao suddenly understood. It was definitely because he ascended onto the black-colored boat, that all types of changes were produced. The desolate border’s king sealed up the abyss, leading to this result.

“What do you understand?” Fallen Divine Child asked.

“Being able to take that final step, you should actually thank me!” Shi Hao said.

“Why?!” Fallen Divine Child was shaken.

Chapter 905 - Enormous Reward

“Because it was me who chased away the ominous and inauspicious!” Shi Hao’s teeth were white, smiling extremely brightly, but also rather harshly.

Fallen Divine Child truly wanted to smash that face with his Fallen Divine Imprint, hitting him until his entire face exploded. This enemy that was younger than him was too hateful. He naturally didn’t believe this.

“It’s up to you whether or not you want to believe me. I got on the black ancient boat and chased the ominous to its source, seeing many truths,” Shi Hao calmly said.

Even though Fallen Divine Child wasn’t willing to believe this, he knew that this person should have faced the ominous, forcibly rushing through. It was because only during these past two days did the inauspicious disappear.

“Five Crown King’s... Everlasting Immortal Sword?!” He stared at the gray sword core in Shi Hao’s hands, his mind greatly shaken. He knew that this hero fell due to the inauspicious, thus disappearing.

Now that he saw this sword, he was starting to believe Shi Hao’s words a bit. The youth before him had walked to the source of the curses!

Fallen Divine Child’s primordial spirit trembled, wishing to rush out and learn about this information. He found it difficult to calm down. Even if he had to die, he wanted to know what exactly was on that black-colored ancient ship.

“Tell me! What did you see?!”

Fallen Divine Child was furious. At the final critical moments, the other party spoke about these things. This was clearly to attack him psychologically.

He was already greatly defeated, yet the other party was still like this, weakening his confidence. It was just too hateful!

“Why should I tell you?” Shi Hao was calm and unruffled midst this chaos. He sat on the battlefield, looking at his body and primordial spirit fragments with a smile on his face.

“You... are absolutely shameful!” Fallen Divine Child’s voice was extremely cold, like that of a wounded beast. He was greatly defeated today. All of his glory, his honor, were completely crushed.

“You don’t have to die, and I can tell you what there is at the very source.” Shi Hao slowed down his voice, trying to speak to him as calmly as possible.

“What do you want?” Fallen Divine Child released a cold snort.

“We can research the True Phoenix’s undying art together, mutually perfecting it.” Shi Hao said, his eyes shining brilliantly. Fallen Divine Child had a few precious techniques that were too astonishing.

Fallen Divine Imprint was an unmatched divine ability that had been preserved in Immortal Ancient ruins. Meanwhile, the Refinement Method and Void Return techniques shook the past and present. Last but definitely not least was the True Phoenix’s precious technique that moved Shi Hao’s heart. It truly possessed a great temptation.

Fallen Divine Child sighed and said, “I truly wish to know about the inauspicious, but... I definitely won’t compromise!”

Shi Hao didn’t say another word, raising his hand to suppress, wishing to imprison his primordial spirit fragments. He had already prepared for quite a bit of time just now.

“It’s no use. As long as I wish to die, wishing to disappear, you won’t be able to stop it at all!” Fallen Divine Child laughed, his voice a bit cold and ruthless. His primordial spirit fragments began to burn.

Even though Shi Hao took action, he was still unable to stop Fallen Divine Child’s self-destruction. He was heading for death, about to burn into ashes.

A primordial spirit was the fundamental existence of one’s soul imprint. If it was completely burnt, then this person would fully die, everything becoming nothing.

“Hateful!” Even though Shi Hao did everything he could, wishing to stop this, it was still ineffective. He watched as his soul imprint disappeared.

“I am an ancient king, someone who has his own dignity. How can I bear humiliation to save my own skin? I would rather die!” Fallen Divine Child spoke coldly and ruthlessly.

Not only did he hate his enemy, he felt great hatred towards himself as well. After his defeat, he didn’t compromise at all, rather wishing to die.

“Your two senior brothers aren’t bad, but they were beaten by me until they completely lost confidence. What a pity, if you were to be also stepped on under my feet, then that would have been perfect, the supreme being bloodline completely fallen.” Fallen Divine Child said.

Even while dying, he was trying to incite Shi Hao, to deal a blow to the supreme being bloodline.

“Fallen Divine Ridge has enmity with the supreme being bloodline?” Shi Hao asked.

“Our earliest ancestor had previously been chased by Supreme Hall’s old thing for over a thousand years, barely making it out alive, only surviving after hiding inside the uninhabited region. My teacher and Qi Daolin are mortal enemies.” Fallen Divine Child spoke coldly.

“Since that is the case, then I won’t be too polite. I’ll just cut you open and eat you!” Shi Hao said noisily.

“You... bastard!” Fallen Divine Child roared. With his final bit of primordial spirit flame, he threw himself towards his own body to destroy it.

It was because he had heard about Huang, how this fella ate anything, and that he truly loved to eat. All enemies that weren’t humanoid in form were cooked after they died.

He was the glorious Fallen Divine Child, an ancient king who rose to the top in a generation, known as an undefeated legend with no one among his peers being his opponent. If he really did fall to becoming food, then it was truly a fate more terrifying than death.

Shi Hao’s sword core swept out, scattering the primordial spirit’s fire, turning it into scattered smoke.

At the same time, that corpse displayed its original form, immediately becoming larger as it towered in this dark red ancient battlefield.

It was a mysterious dragon beast with a strange shape. It had the head of a True Dragon, the scales covering its body rather eerie in appearance, releasing a terrifying glint. There was an astonishing draconic energy curling around.

Meanwhile, its body was actually that of a crane, its wings one white, one black, shining with resplendent radiance as if black and white flames were burning. There were terrifying divine force fluctuations, the flesh and blood containing incomparable divine substance.

Its tail was extremely long, a dragon tail that carried brilliant light. There were concentrated scales covering it as well. Without a doubt, a light shake from it would be enough to flatten many great archaic peaks.

Its body was just too large, like a small mountain as it rested there. The divine fluctuations were powerful, the flesh containing unimaginable essence.

Shi Hao’s eyes shone. This enormous body truly made him overjoyed. He could eat this for several meals! This was definitely a delicacy of this world. n//o.-v/(e./l(/&-l(/n

In the distance, a commotion had long broken out!

Fallen Divine Child was actually defeated, his body and dao erased, falling in Burial Realm! This was a great earthquake that would shake up Immortal Ancient.

Shi Hao's power shook everything under the heavens!

No one expected the unmatched Fallen Divine Child would be defeated, moreover so thoroughly, even throwing his his life away here. This was simply inconceivable.

"Ancient king, he actually wilted here. Fallen Divine Child who had oppressed a generation, rarely encountering opponents in this world experienced defeat today, reaching the end of his life..." Someone muttered.

Before this battle, most people believed Fallen Divine Child to be unmatched, insurmountable, because he had already experienced the test of a generation, proving his status as a king.

Even though Shi Hao was powerful, he was still a hero of this era. He hadn't experienced the most vicious trial.

Fallen Divine Child was different. He had killed two ancient freaks, one of them even a Three Crown King. This was the same as fighting against the greatest of different eras.

Yet today, the one that ultimately dyed heaven and earth with his blood was Fallen Divine Child.

Without a doubt, Huang's name was going to shake up all directions!

This battle established Shi Hao's position as a king. Even when facing ancient freaks, he was still powerful and stunning!

"Did he cultivate immortal energy? Rumor had it that Fallen Divine Child might have taken that step, yet he was still defeated. This... formidable."

Outside the battlefield, everyone was discussing this battle fervently, finding it difficult to calm down.

In the outside world, the border of the vast uninhabited region.

The cultivators of all sects looked like living ghosts, finding this unbelievable. The unmatched Fallen Divine Child was actually killed!

Ah...

Someone released a great roar from a dark golden war chariot, causing many true deities to fall unto the ground and heavenly deities' qi and blood to roil, almost coughing out blood.

Everyone knew that this was Fallen Divine Ridge's greatest expert, someone who had previously fought against Qi Daolin for a generation. The inheritor he meticulously raised with all of his care was defeated, causing him to lose control.

"I never thought that Huang... could kill even an ancient freak." Many people had a bad feeling, worrying for their own disciples in Immortal Ancient.

Of course, everyone was extremely regretful as well. When Shi Hao was fighting Fallen Divine Child, they actually couldn't see what was happening.

It was because at that time, both of them had a strand of immortal energy around their bodies that covered everything. Those of the outside world couldn't watch this battle.

Only when the great battle ended did Shi Hao restrain the immortal energy, the two of them once again appearing. However, at this time, Fallen Divine Child had already become an ice cold corpse.

None of them knew the various things that happened in the battle, but the result spoke of everything.

“Huang is going to rise up. If he doesn’t come out from Immortal Ancient soon, with enough time, it will become extremely difficult to stop his footsteps!” A heavenly deity said with a low voice.

This made quite a few people’s minds tremble. The ones who wished to kill Huang all felt extremely uncomfortable.

Burial Realm, the dark red ancient battlefield.

Shi Hao was smiling the entire time. This time, his rewards were too great, making him incredibly happy.

As soon as Fallen Divine Child’s strand of immortal energy was about to scatter, Shi Hao’s body trembled. The immortal energy in his body moved out, wrapping around that energy and directly refining it, absorbing its essence.

This left him shocked. It was actually refined by his immortal energy and merged together!

Now, his strand of immortal energy truly became whole, abundant and incomparably real, now much thicker than in the past. It was sparkling and translucent, unable to increase any further!

This was an enormous harvest!

Shi Hao had tried all types of things to nurture that strand of immortal energy, yet he found that there was no way to improve it further.

To forcibly refine a strand of immortal energy, strengthening himself, this truly left him incredibly shocked.

“I really am hoping to meet someone else with immortal energy. If I can kill him, I wonder if I can use that to directly condense a second strand of immortal energy...”

If others heard what he was saying, they would definitely become stupefied. How many people took that step since the ancient times? Everyone felt great fear and anxiety, yet he wanted to encounter that situation again.

“Wu, there’s no rush to cultivate a second strand of immortal energy. When I get back, I’ll use that Immortal Corpse to nurture the first strand of immortal energy, see if I can increase it a bit further.” Shi Hao said to himself.

He searched through Fallen Divine Child’s spatial magical artifacts. He was immediately pleasantly surprised. His harvest was truly astonishing.

Forget about the various containers that had rare precious medicines, there was still another pile of holy medicines and a few half divine fruits, everything releasing resplendent radiance.

Meanwhile, what was the most shocking was that a jade container even had a stalk of divine medicine sealed within!

A fragrance wafted through the air, a rain of light flickering about, about to make one intoxicated on the spot, giving them a feeling of sprouting wings and ascending. It was incomparably brilliant.

The only regretful thing was that this divine medicine didn't have a root, unknown how Fallen Divine Child obtained it. It only had the body, unable to be planted again.

Despite this being the case, Shi Hao was still satisfied. "A stalk of divine medicine, when I use it with the Octadic Treasure Unicorn, it will increase the medicinal effects several fold!"

In the outside world, when Fallen Divine Ridge's experts saw this scene, their eyes were dark and eerie, truly wishing to slaughter their way into Immortal Ancient.

Unsurprisingly, Shi Hao didn't find any inheritances from Fallen Divine Child's body.

"This dagger is quite heaven defying, an exceptional divine object!" Shi Hao picked up the dagger. It released brilliant light and carried a thin layer of smoke, making it look almost like something illusory.

This dagger had cut him apart not long ago, even his powerful flesh unable to defend against it back then, only being blasted away when it cut towards his head.

This dagger was quite heavy, several tens of thousands of jin in weight.

In the outside world, the cultivators of all sects were moved, their eyes burning fiercely. It was because they knew that it was unordinary, within it some Seven-Colored Immortal Gold.

This was originally a valuable treasure. If one carefully refined it, it might be able to rank in the ten great weapons. Only, during the battle against Supreme Hall, its great dao symbols were scattered by the unmatched elder, causing the quality to drop.

However, its material was undamaged, so it was still a world shaking item, as it contained Seven-Colored Immortal Gold.

When Fallen Divine Child obtained this dagger, he had previously swore that this dagger would grow with him, all the way until it became a supreme treasure.

Qiang!

The gray sword core in Shi Hao's hand released a cry, releasing blazing radiance. It began to shake, hacking down on the multicolored dagger on its own.

"En?"

"What is going on? What happened?"

Everyone became shocked. The heavenly deities of all sects in the outside world were startled.

Brilliant light erupted from the dagger, unexpectedly gathering towards the Everlasting Immortal sword!

Chapter 906 - Unrelenting

The sword core was no longer dull. Whenever it revived, it would illuminate the world, making the sun and moon lose luster.

At this moment, it released a light cry. A blade wasn't opened up, its entire body still heavy. However, immortal light erupted in all directions, piercing through the heavens.

Astonishing scenes appeared on the sword core. A human shaped figure was ascending to immortality, around it a large rain of light and pure white mist. That was immortal energy.

Kacha!

The dagger began to split apart, revealing cracks. This scene was shocking. One had to understand that this was Fallen Divine Ridge's holiest, most divine treasure. Even though it suffered great damage, its quality decreasing, the material was unharmed, carrying Immortal Gold. It was invincible, so how could it break apart now?

The sound of metal splitting was clear. Streak after streak of brilliant light flowed out from the dagger towards the Everlasting Immortal Sword, the seven-colored divine light shining hazily.

"That is..." Everyone was moved, widening their eyes as they watched everything with shock.

The seven-colored divine light changed directions, condensing with the ascending immortal light on the sword core. Brilliant radiance flickered about, becoming more real and vivid.

This was extremely astonishing. The diagram on the sword core was full of thriving life force, as if it was alive. Next to that human shaped creature, an endless rain of light scattered downwards, seven-colored rainbow light swirling about.

Ka!

After a final crisp sound, the dagger completely broke apart, landing on the ground.

One could see that it was full of holes, losing at least half of its material, now completely broken and dull, almost unrecognizable.

"The Seven-Colored Immortal Gold disappeared!"

When those of the outside world saw this scene, there wasn't a single person who wasn't shocked. Fallen Divine Ridge's people's faces fell ashen, overcast to the extreme.

It was clear that the brilliant dagger was ruined!

Half of it was originally made of Seven-Colored Immortal Gold, yet in the end, all of it flowed out, absorbed by that sword, its essence sucked out. Only the useless residue remained.

On the contrary, the sword core was as resplendent as resplendent could be, difficult to look straight at, making everyone's eyes hurt.

On the sword's surface, the humanoid creature was unchanged, the spotlessly white immortal energy the same. However, the rain of light became seven-colored, gorgeous and diverse, bewitching and beautiful to the extreme.

In the end, the radiance of the sword core was restrained, becoming dull again without the slightest bit of luster. It looked completely dull and ordinary.

Even those diagrams were like this. The seven-colored rain of light became a dull gray, never displaying the uniqueness of the Seven-Colored Immortal Gold.

Shi Hao was shocked. This sword core was extremely simple and ancient looking, not appearing any different than from the past. Even its weight was the same.

“Something’s not right... the Seven-Colored Immortal Gold was mixed in, so it should be several tens of thousands of jin in weight. Why is it still the same weight?” He weighed the sword core in hand, feeling that it was still a bit over a hundred thousand jin in weight.

However, he soon became pleasantly surprised. This sword core was too mysterious, actually able to absorb Seven-Colored Immortal Gold and refine it into its sword body. This was a self transformation.

It was rumored that this sword core’s origins were mysterious, not cast into its current shape but naturally made. When it was unearthed from an ancient mine’s stone material, it was already like this, entering Five Crown King’s hands.

“Good!”

Shi Hao lightly flicked the sword core, releasing a clear and melodious sound. He was quite satisfied, putting it away and not thinking too much about it.

Then, he stared at the enormous body on the ground. His eyes shone with radiance.

“Wa, we’re rich!” The little rabbit was the first to run over, hopping about. She first picked up the jars all over the ground, fondling them all admiringly. They were all precious medicines. Then, she stared at Fallen Divine Child’s body.

“I never thought that his original body would be like this.” Qing Yi said.

Fallen Divine Child had a dragon head, crane body, his flesh containing powerful divine matter. Even though he died, his body was still releasing a holy radiance, as well as astonishing fluctuations.

“It’s not like I can eat it!” The Divine Striking Stone was discontent.

“This flesh body is so powerful, can’t even cut through it.” The little rabbit’s eyes were shining, as if she had been starving for many years. She couldn’t help but swallow her saliva, walking around it as she watched.

“Hey, rabbit, are you going to eat meat again?” Cao Yusheng asked.

Qing Yi and Shi Hao both laughed. The Divine Striking Stone also giggled strangely.

“Nonsense, I’m a vegan!” The little rabbit directly corrected, but a gudong sounded in her throat, and saliva was swallowed back down, making her face flush with redness.

“Why do I feel like you and Shi Hao are brother and sisters The two of you behave the same!” Cao Yusheng said.

Peng!

The little rabbit's large ruby like eyes glared outwards, stomping her legs, kicking the fatty flying, disappearing from view.

In the distance, everyone was shaken up. Fallen Divine Child was killed, leaving behind a pile of precious objects. However, no one dared to get close. Who dared to fight with Huang over them?

This place erupted with commotion. Everyone was discussing this result, making this place extremely noisy.

Suddenly, Shi Hao raised his head and coldly said, "You want to leave?"

Shua!

His figure flickered, vanishing from his original location, appearing at the battlefield's surroundings.

Everyone trembled, their fine hairs standing on end. They were all incomparably frightened. This was Huang, the one who had just killed Fallen Divine Child, yet he now appeared before them all. Who wouldn't be scared?

"We didn't offend you..." A few people explained stammeringly in a flustered manner.

Soon after, everyone discovered that Huang wasn't targeting them, but instead cutting off a single person, only focusing on that creature.

This person was thirty or so years old, his pupils carrying great fear, continuously backing up. He was precisely Long Yu, Jun Dao's subordinate. He had previously looked for Shi Hao, saying how his family's great one Jun Dao and Fallen Divine Child wished to ally with Shi Hao.

In the end, the alliance wasn't formed, and Fallen Divine Child instead came to Burial City to kill Shi Hao.

"Huang... great one, this isn't related to me! I indeed wished to facilitate the alliance between you all, but something unexpected happened halfway!" Long Yu's face was pale as he spoke.

He came here to observe the battle, originally believing that Fallen Divine Child would be able to win. Who would have expected that he would be killed here? A chill ran from his head down to his toes. When he saw Shi Hao cut him off, he almost fell weakly onto the ground.

"I don't want to waste words. Bring me to see Jun Dao, and I can spare your life. Otherwise, you know the result!" Shi Hao spoke coldly.

Long Yu hesitated. To bring someone to see the ancient freak Jun Dao, this... made him scared!

"Great one, please spare me!" Long Yu pleaded.

"I can let you go, but you must bring me to see Jun Dao!" Shi Hao said. While speaking, he pointed forward, aiming at the space between Long Yu's brows.

"I will bring great one!" Long Yu was horrified.

At the same time, Shi Hao was able to learn about quite a few things. He couldn't help but laugh coldly.

"Good, good, good, Fallen Divine Child came out to kill me to get the Immortal Corpse for Jun Dao to assist in his breakthrough? I will personally deliver it to him. Let's see if he'll dare accept it then!"

“Aiyaya, we are going to loot again? No, take care of an ancient freak! This is too great! Off we go!” The little rabbit cried out excitedly, wishing for the entire world to be in chaos.

As for the others, the geniuses of all clans’ faces became petrified, feeling greatly shocked inside. Huang was too powerful! He had just killed Fallen Divine Child, yet he was now going to kill Jun Dao.

This was a huge incident that would definitely shake up Immortal Ancient. Everyone’s hearts were rising and falling.

The Divine Striking Stone took action, quickly setting up a transport formation based on the coordinates Long Yu provided. Shi Hao’s group all got on, quickly moving on a silver-colored passage, thus disappearing from this place.

It was hard for this place to calm down again. Everyone was trembling. Huang really did what he said he would, slaughtering his way over just like that to capture Jun Dao.

“Heavens, did the great era change? Huang’s power devours mountains and rivers, continuously fighting against ancient kings!”

“After killing Fallen Divine Child, he didn’t stop there, leaving now to kill another ancient freak, Huang... is exceptionally domineering after all!”

Everyone was shocked, this place extremely noisy.

The outside world, the border of the uninhabited region.

The cultivators of all sects were shaken, staring at the inside of Immortal Ancient with shock.

The faces of everyone from Jun Dao’s sect changed, becoming incomparably nervous. They carefully watched everything. No one expected that even ancient freaks would encounter such dangerous times, their fate escaping their control, lives dependent on another’s actions.

“Jun Dao, you have to leave, or take that step!” Someone from his sect secretly prayed. If news of this got out, it would definitely trigger an uproar. For even the sect of an ancient freak to act this way, did this world truly change?

This was an ancient place, the clouds surging with multicolored splendor, mountains surrounded by thin smoke. The spiritual essence was dense, rising in spirals.

In the mountain range depths, chaotic energy overflowed from within an ancient cave.

In the void, a gate of light flickered. Shi Hao, Cao Yusheng, Qing Yi and the others walked out, directly hurrying to an ancient cave.

“There is a formation protecting this place!” The Divine Striking Stone said.

Shi Hao nodded, but he didn't stop. With the Everlasting Immortal Sword in hand, he fiercely hacked down. Under kacha kacha sounds, the mountain region collapsed, the peaks flattened, formations cut apart. n//o.-v/(e./l(/&-/l(/n

This was a type of violent beauty. Shi Hao's arm had a strand of immortal energy curling about it as he brandished the sword core, hacking through everything before them. Everything in his way was turned into powder, completely destroyed.

This was the strength of taking that step, every action one made displaying a powerful attack. Together with the sword core's might, there wasn't much that could stop his advance.

Chi!

Shi Hao's sword flew out. The ancient cave's restrictions were torn apart. He walked inside with large steps.

"Jun Dao, come out!"

Hong!

Inside the ancient cave, chaotic mists pervaded the air, surging frantically. A figure rushed over, in his hands a precious pagoda that erupted with incomparably terrifying symbols, suppressing forward.

"Not good, there are formations being activated, stop him!" The Divine Striking Stone shouted. It was a master in this field, so it naturally sensed this.

In the cave, the human figure turned in the air. Precious technique blossomed and symbols covered this place. It was incomparably terrifying.

Shi Hao held the sword, standing there alone, attacking forward. Keng qiang sounds rang out continuously, hacking apart endless divine patterns, sweeping through the enemy before him.

Kacha!

That pagoda was hacked to pieces, and that figure was also chopped into several parts.

"Just a puppet."

Shi Hao didn't stop, heading into the depths of the ancient cave. He moved the sword core, releasing the most forceful strike.

Pu!

Not only did he cut through that formation platform, he even cut open the void, many streaks of sword radiance rushing inside.

Pu!

Unfortunately, he was still a step late. In the end, a streak of blood scattered out from the void. Jun Dao disappeared, leaving this place injured.

"Truly makes one regretful." Shi Hao shook his head.

Cao Yusheng, Qing Yi, and the others didn't know what to say. Fighting two ancient freaks in one day one after another, forcefully killing Fallen Divine Child, and now scaring away Jun Dao, this type of battle accomplishment was enough to shock the past and present.

“He is quite cool headed, knowing that Fallen Divine Child cultivated immortal energy, but was still defeated, so he himself was definitely not your match, decisively backing off as a result.” The Divine Striking Stone said.

“We’re rich, we’re rich! So many divine objects!” The little rabbit hopped and shouted, her eyes shining. She grabbed Shi Hao and directly gave him a kiss on the lips.

“Hey, you have so much drool, hurry up and swallow that back down.” Shi Hao said without batting an eyelid.

“Pei, was careless, too excited, letting you take advantage of me.”

On the ground, medicinal herbs were in piles, all of them holy medicines and half divine fruits. It really was astonishing.

Apart from this, there were all types of bone books as well, all of them records of predecessors, recording their insights gained from various cultivation realms, as well as a few thoughts from ancient geniuses who wished to take the final step. These books were invaluable.

“Wow, there are even divine pills! So many of them, all of them astonishing!” The little rabbit produced four crystal balls, each of them with a sparkling pill sealed within that flowed with brilliant colors.

“Refined from a stalk of divine medicine.” Qing Yi said.

Many things could happen when an ancient king cultivated in isolation, at times even crippling themselves. For example, Shi Hao burned himself with three thousand dao flames, leaving his body in tatters each time. As such, there were some things that couldn’t be placed at his side, or else they might be destroyed along with his own body.

Judging from this, Shi Hao’s group caught him unprepared, stealing all of Jun Dao’s wealth.

There were just too many good things, making one’s eyes go red from greed, feeling incomparably moved. After all, these were the belongings of an ancient freak!

“With these things, I can now cultivate in isolation with peace, cultivate a second strand of immortal energy.” Even Shi Hao was incomparably overjoyed, feeling quite moved, brilliant light filling his eyes. The harvest was just too abundant.

Chapter 907 - Respective Roads

Within the depths of the ancient cave, precious light overflowed outwards. Auspicious multicolored light blossomed, the heavenly materials piled up in heaps.

“What is this? Don’t tell me that it’s... that kind of earth, right?” The little rabbit’s voice began to tremble, feeling like even her fingers weren’t so nimble anymore. She reached her hand out towards a pot.

This was a pottery pot that wasn’t that big. It was a faint purple in color, the earth inside extremely strange like sand, every granule sparkling and releasing strands of mist.

This was heaven and earth essence, but it didn't originate from the earth, but instead converged from all directions, entering this sandlike soil, making it brilliantly colored.

Their group surrounded it. When they saw what the little rabbit now looked like, they all felt quite strange. They didn't know what this was.

The little rabbit put one of her hands in the soil, carefully sensing it. Light immediately flourished, the soil gushing with all different colors, making her little arm look translucent.

"Aiya!" She couldn't help but cry out in alarm.

Peng!

The fatty came to the rescue, kicking forward to knock over the pot. However, the little rabbit was the first one to take action, kicking... him away!

Everyone was speechless.

Cao Yusheng was furious, grumbling about how he was trying to help her, yet in the end, he was the one to get kicked.

"This is a supreme treasure. Are you trying to kill me?!" The little rabbit glared with her ruby like eyes fiercely, but it was difficult for her to conceal her happiness and joy.

"This is the sacred object I will use to achieve enlightenment, a rare treasure under the heavens. It is -- All Life Earth!" The little rabbit hugged the pot without letting go, fearing that others would fight her over this.

All Life Earth, rather than saying it was earth, it was better to call it a type of heaven and earth source that could nourish all living things. It was the most miraculous substance!

Anything placed inside wouldn't die and would instead flourish with vitality.

It was to the extent where someone said that it was a type of earth that would only work when an immortal king was buried within, but immortals had long lives, so how could they die? This left those of the world confused.

There were other rumors that stated that when unmatched creatures died, if they were buried in this type of earth, after an endless amount of time, the day would come when they would revive and live once again.

Of course, if this type of earth was used to grow living plants, the effects would be even greater!

There were a few records from bone books that said if one planted medicinal herbs with it, it would almost be like using a sledgehammer to crack a nut.

Only, the little rabbit precisely had these types of plans. She wanted to walk the path of the natural dao and grow all types of wondrous and miraculous herbs, using this All Life Earth to nurture a 'life spirit', or the spiritual nature of any specific living thing.

All Life Earth had another miraculous use. If one refined a furnace of pill medicines, but felt that they were lacking a bit, if they were placed in the earth, after a period of time, the inadequacies would be made up, becoming a perfect pill medicine.

In summary, this thing was extremely heaven defying.

However, it had never appeared, only being described in related bone books. It was impossible to encounter in the real world. ~~no~~Ve)Lb/1n “Worthy of being an ancient freak, even collecting and keeping this type of thing by his side.” Qing Yi sighed with admiration. Jun Dao’s treasury was just too abundant.

The others nodded, expressing their agreement.

An ancient freak not only had the divine treasures bestowed upon them by their sects, they themselves, as the leading figures of their generations, collected many astonishing treasures on their own.

“Even richer and more unimaginable than Immortal Palace’s inheritor!” Even Shi Hao sighed in amazement.

“Can you give it to me?” The little rabbit said with a soft voice, her large eyes blinking, looking quite pitiable and lovable. She hugged the pot without letting go.

“It’s yours.” Shi Hao said with a wave of his hand. Even though this thing was divine and precious, for him, it wasn’t all that useful.

If he really needed it in the future, he could just find the little rabbit to borrow it. Either way, they were on the same side.

“This is too awesome!” The little rabbit immediately jumped out, almost giving Shi Hao another smack on the lips. Qing Yi immediately reached out her snow-white arms to stop her.

“Aiyou, I almost forgot myself again. Thanks older sis Qing Yi.”

“Hey, the drool on your face hasn’t even dried up yet. Are you not even planning to wipe that off?” Shi Hao’s skin was too thick as he said.

“Go die!”

Gabeng gabeng...

A rather disorderly sound could be heard. Everyone raised their heads, but they only saw the Divine Striking Stone hiding in a corner, sneakily eating something by itself.

Shi Hao immediately recognized what it was, his eyes widening, shooting out like a rocket, shouting, “You little bastard!”

That was a piece of Phoenix Marked Stone with beautiful patterns resembling a slumbering True Phoenix. It carried the aura of the great dao, something that was incomparably mysterious.

He had previously obtained a small piece in the lower realm and merged it with the Imperishable Golden Body, allowing its innate quality to increase, repairing some of the damage. It displayed great uses during the battle of seven deities in the lower realm.

This was an unmatched wondrous stone. When merged with precious artifacts, it would allow it to transform and evolve, the most shocking type of thing.

There was another piece here, yet in the end, the Divine Striking Stone... ate it!

"I will become a supreme treasure too! If I eat this type of thing, I can evolve, so it doesn't count as a waste!" The Divine Striking Stone's cheeks were puffed as it stuffed its mouth, speaking inarticulately.

When he saw that Shi Hao was fighting with it, it directly produced a pair of stone arms, covering its mouth and mumbling, "Don't fight me over it! When I transform, when the time comes, I'll take that step and cultivate a strand of immortal energy! In the future, not only will I be able to strike deities, I can even hit immortals!"

"You are a precious artifact, yet you still want to take that step..." The others were all speechless. They naturally didn't believe its nonsense, only, they felt that there was no way around it. The Phoenix Marked Stone had already been eaten.

"Let's carefully look around, make sure we didn't overlook anything." Cao Yusheng said.

The treasury of an ancient freak was incomparably astonishing. Any carelessness in their search might result in an incredible opportunity being overlooked.

In the end, they left satisfied, all of them feeling incredibly happy.

The outside world couldn't remain calm any longer. Shi Hao killed Fallen Divine Child and chased off Jun Dao; these news spread through some small worlds, triggering a huge uproar.

Within a pure land swirling with spiritual essence. Multicolored mists shone hazily.

"I have to work hard too, comprehend the dao in isolation to take that step!" The little fatty Cao Yusheng said.

In front of him was a pile of bone books, all of them insights of those before them, as well as all types of killing formation references, all of them shining brilliantly. These were rare wondrous books.

These things were enough to make one's eyes red with jealousy, because they were all the secret texts of the higher realms' most terrifying inheritances.

Di Chong[1], Fallen Divine Child, Jun Dao, these three's treasures were piled up here. They respectively came from Immortal Palace, Fallen Divine Ridge, and Great Sky Border.

If just a single book from any one of these sects containing the insights of those before them was leaked into the outside world, it would be enough to cause a great commotion.

Yet now, all of the secret texts they carried on them were displayed here, separated into three large piles. They were all world shocking records!

The three great inheritances, for the sake of allowing their inheritors to break through and take that final step, raised and prepared them with the utmost care. These were the heart and blood of those before them, containing too many great dao true meanings.

Qing Yi and the little rabbit were flipping through them, completely engrossed in reading. The insights of sacred sages from these three sects were invaluable.

Moreover, there were quite a few bone books that shone with brilliance, recording secret information about their ancient outstanding talents, their opinions on taking that step in the past. Observing this truly gave them all great enlightenment.

"I believe more and more in my own path. The natural great dao, I will definitely succeed!" The little rabbit encouraged herself, clenching her little fists. She then blinked her large eyes and looked towards Shi Hao, saying pitifully, "You have so many holy medicines, half divine fruits, can you let me plant one of every single one of them? I promise that I won't destroy them and to only take a small bite from each of them at most."

She wanted to plant all of these medicines to experience the natural dao's profound mysteries.

"Sure." Shi Hao nodded. Then, he produced the Void Sky Divine Vine's root and said, "Plant it into the All Life Earth."

"Divine Medicine?!" The little rabbit was shocked, and then a brilliant smile filled her face. She rolled back and forth on the ground.

The Void Sky Divine Vine was horrified at first, immediately wishing to escape. However, when it saw the All Life Earth, it directly threw itself over, hanging onto this place rigidly, not willing to leave even if it died."

Qing Yi released a light sigh. After reading through the insights of the sages, her brows furrowed together, as if in deep thought.

"What's wrong?" Shi Hao asked.

Qing Yi had on snow white clothes, her fine black hair gentle and supple, her beautiful eyes full of specks of light. Her beautiful face didn't have the slightest flaw. She sat there like a fine jade statue. Right now, she felt a bit of hesitation. "I have to make a trip, settle things with her."

Everyone became momentarily stunned, and then they woke up from their stupor. They knew what she was referring to. She was going to settle things with the main body.

"I'll go help you!" Shi Hao said.

"You all can't help me." Qing Yi sighed. She wanted to take that step, but she had to be a perfect true body. Now that she saw all of the predecessor's experiences, she became more and more certain that she had to fully break things off with the main body.

"Older sis Qing Yi, isn't the main body extremely strong? Just let Shi Hao suppress and capture her!" The little rabbit shouted rather sinisterly.

"Go!" Qing Yi gave her a glare, pressing a pure white jade finger lightly against her forehead.

"You all don't have to worry. I have the Green Lunar Flame, so no matter who I encounter, I will definitely be able to protect myself." Qing Yi then said.

"But..." Shi Hao frowned.

"I need to do this alone. After all, that is another me, and not normal opponents." Qing Yi had already set her resolution.

"En, it seems like all of us have to step on our own paths. I am going to Formation Realm to comprehend all formations. I have to take that step!" The little fatty revealed a rare serious expression, also deciding to leave. He also gave the Divine Striking Stone look and said, "Why don't you come with?"

"Not going, I already ate Origin Stone, Phoenix Mark Stone, Heaven's Mandate Stone, and I still want to eat Heavenfault Stone, World Stone, using the stone as my dao. I'm not that far from taking that step!" The Divine Striking Stone spoke with 'dignity and honor'.

Everyone directly ignored it.

"Aiyaya, speaking of food, I'm hungry. Shi Hao, don't you have many tasty things? I want to eat all the vegan stuff!" The little rabbit said.

"If you want to eat meat, just directly say it!" The little fatty shot it a look of disdain.

"You don't want to go to 'Formation Realm' anymore? Forget it, how about I just bury you right here? Either way, your master said before that someone was going to bury you?"

"My master said that I will definitely become an immortal! The so-called burying is just a small sleep. However, before this, I will definitely shake the world and become unmatched under the heavens. That is why no matter what, a strand of immortal energy shouldn't be too hard for me. I am going to cultivate it!" Cao Yusheng gave himself confidence.

"Don't be in such a hurry to leave. Let's eat a good meal in a bit, and then there's the Immortal Corpse to divide up. Let's all study it for a bit, I believe this will bring us some pleasant surprises." Shi Hao said.

"Good! I'm already starving." The little rabbit raised her hands in approval, her excitement for food even exceeding that Immortal Corpse.

The little fatty and Divine Striking Stone's eyes shone, feeling great desire towards that Immortal Corpse. If their mortal bodies could absorb a bit of immortal dao energy, who knew what would happen.

Qing Yi was also moved, her beautiful eyes displaying a bit of excitement.

As for Shi Hao, he already set his resolution on cultivating a second strand of immortal energy. He wanted to study the Immortal Corpse for a bit. The immortal dao fluctuations possessed extraordinary meaning to him.

Apart from this, the light seeping out from the Immortal Corpse could nurture immortal energy!

"Buddy, I need All Magic Stone, World Stone, and Heavenfault Stone, can you help me out?" The Divine Striking Stone revealed a rare 'bashful' look, appearing a bit embarrassed before Shi Hao.

Shi Hao shot it a look of disdain and said, "Stop trying to be pure and show some action. Go, wash and clean up this dragon headed crane bodied beast so we can stew it."

"I... alright!" The Divine Striking Stone inwardly grinded its teeth. Every time it saw them eat a feast, it would always feel incredibly angry, because it could only watch from the side.

Meanwhile, this time, it was even worse. It was going to be their mess cook, preparing that body with shocking divine fluctuations for them.

For the sake of future consideration, it still obeyed, bringing that enormous precious body to a spiritual lake and starting to prepare it.

"Let's drink a bit first. These are things collected by ancient freaks, so it is likely divine wine." Shi Hao brought out several jars of fine wine, all of them spoils of war. However, he still didn't have time to carefully look them over.

"So fragrant!" Cao Yusheng said with a sigh of astonishment.

"I... am going to cheat and drink a bit." The little rabbit's eyes looked over.

"What cheat a bit? Didn't you start doing drunk boxing after getting too drunk last time?" The fatty shot her a look of contempt.

This wine was extremely astonishing. When the seal on the jar was broken, divine light shot into the sky, auspicious multicolored light blossoming. The wine fragrance was so great it seeped into one's bones, intoxicating one down to their soul.

"This is definitely extraordinary wine!" Shi Hao said. He produced a few jade cups, placing them on the grass, sitting on the floor to enjoy this wine.

"Good alcohol!"

The medicinal fragrance was extremely astonishing. Their mouths released divine multicolored light, nourishing their flesh and blood. This really was bejeweled nectar.

"I feel dizzy... why do I feel drunk after just a single cup..." The little rabbit's head was swaying.

"Is this divine dao essence? I don't think I can hold on either..." Cao Yusheng was also feeling dizzy.

However, even though they spoke like this, they were still fighting over the wine.

When the third cup went down his stomach, even Shi Hao felt dizzy, his vision blurred. This wine was too powerful! Even though the wine fragrance was astonishing, the medicinal nature was too formidable, even able to intoxicate a deity.

When the fourth cup went down, the little rabbit was already drunk boxing, dancing about there, her body swaying back and forth, appearing charmingly naive.

Meanwhile, Cao Yusheng's butt was sticking out, drunkenly muttering about killing formations on the ground, saying 'I understand it, already understand it'.

As for Shi Hao, he moved close to Qing Yi's swanlike snow-white beautiful neck, the sight charming and gentle. They touched cups there, continuing to drink.

1. Immortal Palace Inheritor

Chapter 908 - Intoxicated

Qing Yi sat on the grassy area, her exceptionally beautiful sparkling white skin carrying a bit of redness, her eyes carrying a bit of perplexity. She was also drunk.

Her fine black hair was bright like silk fabric, her umber-black eyebrows curved. Her large and intelligent eyes were slightly narrowed, her bright red lips extremely moist and erotic. When they opened and closed, wine fragrance left her body, creating a bewitching type of beauty. Her pearly white teeth were like jade, flickering with radiance.

It had to be said that this type of alcohol was too extraordinary, even divine level experts about to collapse from intoxication. She sat close to Shi Hao, the two of them touching cups. In the blink of an eye, the fifth cup was downed.

Shi Hao had his arms around her, feeling the gentleness of that snow-white neck and the smoothness of the skin. He could smell an orchid like fragrance from her body.

Even though Qing Yi was drunk, she was still aware of what was happening. The two of them were just too close. Moreover, her neck was wrapped around as they drank so intimately, making her ivory-like skin immediately become taut.

Peng!

She directly struck Shi Hao on the forehead with her cup. The transparent amber liquid that carried bits of gold splashed outwards, landing on their bodies.

"You... are wasting, this is... divine wine." Shi Hao spoke disjointedly.

Qing Yi's white clothes were purer than snow, her face so beautiful it was almost unreal. Her skin looked extremely delicate. Right now, wine slid down her smooth and fine face, the sparkling liquid shining together with the extraordinary fair skin.

It really was unknown what overcame Shi Hao, but as soon as he said that she was wasting it, he directly moved over, and then... 'drank' a bit, 'drinking' the alcohol on the side of her face. The sweet fragrance was truly great.

The aloof, exceptionally gorgeous Qing Yi's body went taut, her expression freezing. No matter how drunk she was, right now, she still sobered up quite a bit at this moment. She cried out in alarm. Symbols swirled, about to send Shi Hao flying.

However, now that Shi Hao had taken the so-called final step, cultivating a strand of immortal energy, his strength became extremely terrifying. Precious light flickered, putting up a defense.

When he was attacked, his body instinctively reacted, retaliating, grabbing Yue Chan's delicate wrist. Then, his palm and fingers shone, loosening the wrist. With a light brush, those symbols were scattered. He then grabbed her fine small waist.

"Eh, you two... what are you doing?" The little rabbit was drunk boxing, belching while widening her eyes, looking at the two of them in confusion.

Finally, the two of them seemed to have woken up.

Qing Yi struggled about, feeling extremely embarrassed. Her fine black hair danced about, her graceful waist moving around, trying to free herself. Her lotus arms shone, flinging Shi Hao away.

Peng!

Shi Hao woke up. This time, he didn't resist. With a peng sound, he landed on Cao Yusheng's body.

"Aiyou, my formation, my great dao, why did heavenly tribulation blast me? Is it trying to stop me from gaining enlightenment?" The fatty screamed.

"This alcohol is a bit strange." Shi Hao shook his head, becoming a bit more sober. He was truly shocked. How could one's primordial spirit even be intoxicated?

When one reached their level, what kind of alcohol could knock them out? However, after just a few cups, they were already intoxicated to this level, making them lose self-control.

"Hey, older sis, why were you two hugging each other?" The little rabbit just didn't want to let the matter go, asking while drunk. Her large eyes were blurry as she looked at Qing Yi again and again.

"Nonsense. You just misinterpreted." Qing Yi's jadelike face blushed red, her exceptional face carrying a bit of embarrassment. There was also a streak of radiance that flew out, striking Shi Hao.

"Then why are you so embarrassed?" The little rabbit wanted to get to the bottom of this.

Qing Yi took a deep breath, and then she circulated a method to calm herself down, finally becoming at peace. However, the scene from just now quickly resurfaced.

She couldn't help but caress one side of her face, feeling a scorching heat. Just now, that place was sticky with wine, that bastard actually... drank it just like that?!

"Aiya!" Qing Yi truly couldn't take it any longer. After becoming clear-headed again, she couldn't help but scream out. There was now a unique type of charm to her exceptional appearance that was extremely moving.

"Older sis, you have to be a wise and virtuous woman, how can you randomly scream?" The little rabbit was confused as she advised.

Have to be a wise and virtuous woman? Fine! Qing Yi controlled her emotions, forcefully enduring her urge to beat the shit out of Shi Hao. She calmed down, her white clothes exceptional, finally putting on her normal pure and holy fairy like appearance.

"This wine is quite strange. By operating bone texts, one can become slightly more clear-headed, and then they can comprehend the dao!"

This was what Shi Hao discovered. He also received enlightenment from fatty Cao Yusheng's state, and after giving it a try, sure enough, this was the case.

Soon after, Qing Yi and the little rabbit sat down, comprehending their own dao here. All of them were extremely shocked. They then completely calmed down, gradually entering a clear and empty state of mind.

This was an extremely strange type of feeling, a bit of intoxication, but still inside of a dao comprehending state. It allowed one to touch upon many types of dao traces while in a somewhat dazed state, wandering about the road of the great dao.

After who knew how much time had passed, the drunk feeling passed. They woke up from their deep states of comprehension.

“So strange... I want to drink more!” The little rabbit said noisily.

“It truly is quite strange!” Cao Yusheng also looked at the wine jar, directly swallowing his saliva.

“En, the feeling isn’t bad.” Shi Hao nodded.

Qing Yi was the only one who didn’t say anything. Her white clothes fluttered about, giving off a cold and aloof feeling.

The little rabbit put on an innocent and naive appearance, saying, “I remember, older sis, you still didn’t reply to my question. Just now, I seemed to have seen you two huddling together, and Shi Hao was even drinking wine from your face.”

Qing Yi’s fairy temperament was shattered once again. She immediately grabbed the little rabbit’s small hands and said, “You saw wrong.”

“No I didn’t, definitely didn’t.” The little rabbit cried out.

“Little girl, stop trying to stir up trouble!” Qing Yi struck her on the head.

“This wine really isn’t bad.” Shi Hao said in admiration, giving Qing Yi’s cheeks a glance.

The little rabbit giggled. Qing Yi turned around, revealing a murderous look, glaring at him.

Cao Yusheng roared with laughter. “Why do I feel like I missed out on something? I was too deep in my comprehension. Why don’t I do a divination for you two?”

“You even know divination?” The little rabbit was shocked.

“But of course! My master can see through the mysteries of heaven, even able to see a thing or two about the future. As his only inheritor, no matter what, I’ll still have a bit of ability!” The little fatty felt incomparably proud of himself.

He directly produced a few snow-white jadelike tortoiseshell fragments, each one of them extremely bright and covered in mysterious patterns. One could tell with a glance that they were divine treasures.

Hualala!

The tortoiseshells scattered on the ground. The fatty carefully studied them for a bit, and then said, “What rotten divinatory sight is this? I’m clearly divining for you two, so why are there three together? There’s one extra?”

“Little fatty, what kind of nonsense are you spouting?” Qing Yi stopped him.

“Oh, I forgot, there’s still a main body.” The little fatty raised his head and looked at Qing Yi, saying, “You’re finished, you and the main body are out of luck.”

Dong!

Cao Yusheng directly flew outwards, sent high up into the sky by Qing Yi. He screamed as he smashed into a mountain peak.

“My master was right, divination and deducing the dao is the most dangerous, a single mishap and you will suffer disaster...” Cao Yusheng was extremely upset.

In reality, he didn’t know anything about divination, just throwing out some tortoiseshells. However, the snow white divine shells’ symbols truly formed a set of patterns, and a thing or two were understood by him.

The fatty collected the tortoiseshells with guilty conscience. These were one of his defensive precious artifacts and couldn’t be casually tossed about.

“So fragrant!”

The little rabbit’s nose was extremely sensitive, smelling the distant meat fragrance.

“Let’s go, time to eat!” Shi Hao said.

The Divine Striking Stone was working hard, cleaning up that dragon head and the crane body precious corpse, already throwing them into the cauldron to stew. Great dao flames burned below the cauldron, and now, shocking meat fragrance finally wafted through the air.

“I can’t hold on any longer... about to die from fatigue... this fella is unbreakable, his flesh incredibly sturdy, now even fully cooked...” The Divine Striking Stone grumbled.

The dragon blood was saved and the crane wings propped up on a bonfire to roast, not placed in the cauldron. Otherwise, this mountainous body wouldn’t have fit in the cauldron. Right now, the crane wings and the other parts were as large as how they normally were.

“Let me!”

Shi Hao took action, and he also brought out the Gold Marked White Tiger, cleaning it by the lake. It was placed in the cauldron and also slow-stewed.

“Dragons and tigers!” Cao Yusheng said in praise.

A dragon and tiger were placed inside to stew together, truly shining mutually. Divine multicolored light immediately surged, resonating with each other.

Of course, the ‘dragon’ was clearly much stronger, the flesh containing shocking divine matter. The Gold Marked White Tiger was placed in later and cooked at the end, and only then did it become cooked at the same time as the dragon. noVe)Lt/1n

Soon after, fragrance filled this place. The 'dragon and tiger' left the pot, and the golden crane wings on the side were already surging with multicolored light, now fully cooked.

Apart from this, there was also a wine fragrance wafting through the air. They began to gorge themselves on the food.

They enjoyed the delicacies while comprehending the dao. With the small lake in front of them, the beautiful scenery of rising spiritual essence in view, it was quite the wonderful experience.

Even though they were comprehending the dao, with such delicious food before them, as well as foodies like Shi Hao and the little rabbit, the mood was definitely affected. In the end, even Cao Yusheng and Qing Yi became distracted, no longer focusing on their meditation.

"Yi, why do I seem to have seen a snow-white phoenix?" The little rabbit rubbed her eyes as she looked at the spiritual lakeshore.

"A divine bird, snow-white and perfect, feathers resplendent. It's too perfect." Cao Yusheng sighed with admiration.

"This... really is a phoenix?" Qing Yi was also shocked.

They became distracted. When they weren't comprehending the dao, the effects of the alcohol immediately kicked in, everything becoming a bit blurry. As they looked at the lake, they were all a bit stupefied. There really seemed to be a white phoenix there.

"We aren't seeing things, right? How can there be pure-blooded heavenly phoenixes left in this world?" Shi Hao mumbled.

Only, when he raised his head and looked at the shore, he also became stupefied.

There was a divine bird there, white and pure, like the most perfect work of art from the heavens. Elegant and graceful, snow white and mysterious, it was truly like a Snow Phoenix.

"I'm seeing ghosts! I've witnessed a phoenix!" Cao Yusheng shook his head with everything he had to sober up.

"Perfect and beautiful, too gorgeous!" The little rabbit shouted.

"It'll definitely be tasty..." Shi Hao's skin was extremely thick, directly speaking on reflex.

"What kind of nonsense are you speaking? That might very well be... a Snow Phoenix." Qing Yi glared at him with a rather displeased look.

"What Snow Phoenix? No matter how I look at it, it looks a bit familiar. I'm pretty sure I caught one like it before..." Shi Hao felt like it was more familiar the more he looked at it. At the same time, his eyes became blurrier the more drunk he got. He then directly drank a cup and said, "It's a bit different. This one has some golden patterns on its forehead."

"Bullshit!" The little rabbit rolled her eyes, not believing at all that he caught one before.

Cao Yusheng on the side also curled his lips, believing that Shi Hao was completely drunk.

"Is it impossible for you to be quiet?" Qing Yi even more so spoke out against him, because she thought back to the 'drinking' of wine from her face. Dark lines couldn't help but appear on her forehead.

"I swear I'm not lying!" Shi Hao now felt anxious, releasing wine fragrance from his mouth as he stated that he didn't speak any falsehoods, that everything was real.

"It's absolutely true! When I first entered the higher realms, I really did happen to capture a silver phoenix, and I even helped name it, calling it Silver." Shi Hao said.

Right at the lakeshore, that snow-white phoenix bird's plume feathers stood up, radiance shining in her eyes. It was currently staring deathly at him.

While still under the effects of intoxication, he explained a step further, saying, "In the lower realm, I've raised a big red bird, subdued Second Baldy, and even captured Third Blackie, the mysterious tortoise, so I wanted to name this Silver Phoenix Fourth Whitie, but in the end, it absolutely hated that name, so I just named it Silver."

As he spoke these words, he was completely unaware that the extremely beautiful divine bird on the other side's eyes were about to shoot flames, all of the snow-white feathers covering its entire body about to stand on end, all of them shining resplendently.

The Divine Striking Stone was like a person, producing a movement that was quite difficult for someone like itself. It shrunk its neck, and with a chi liu sound, directly ran!

It was because he saw that Snow Phoenix fly over, its resplendent wings shining brilliantly. The scene was too astonishing.

Shi Hao was drunk, but it definitely wasn't!

The Snow Phoenix descended by the shore, turning into an incomparably beautiful young lady with glossy and smooth silver hair. Her slim figure walked over gracefully.

The Emperor Butterfly moved its wings, trying to wake up Shi Hao.

However, he was really drunk, and he was still explaining to the little rabbit, Qing Yi, and Cao Yusheng.

"I really did capture a similar Snow Phoenix, only, that one didn't have golden patterns on its head. Back then, I even carried it in my bosom, personally helping it treat its feathers. After several dozen cuts, its long feathers were shortened, and later on, it looked a bit like a white pigeon."

By the lake, that exceptional young lady's glare could kill. However, her attitude was still graceful as she walked over elegantly. This was her innate noble temperament.

"You are saying that you carried a Snow Phoenix and trimmed its feathers?" The little rabbit asked with her large eyes widened. Even though she was smiling purely, there was clearly a bit of evil brewing.

"Correct, back then, I gave it a complete wash, cut, and dry!" Shi Hao said. With a gudong sound, another cup of alcohol went down.

At this moment, the Emperor Butterfly covered its own face with its wings. It really couldn't watch this any longer, also backing off, hiding to the side.

Finally, the exceptional young lady closed in, her eyes spewing out flames. That type of aura was about to reach Shi Hao's face.

"Eh, why do you look the same as Silver?" Shi Hao's drunk vision was hazy, pointing at the young lady while speaking. He really drank too much, about to collapse from intoxication.

The silver-haired young lady's body was slender. Even though there were flames released from her eyes, her bearing was still graceful, her demeanour elegant and wonderful. This was an innate type of noble temperament.

"We've... met?" Shi Hao called out.

The silver-haired young lady's black eyebrows were curved, her intelligent large eyes releasing sharp radiance. When her delicate, ruby-lipped mouth opened and closed, snow white teeth could be seen. She was inwardly grinding her teeth.

Shi Hao's head was tilted to the side, his vision blurred, mouth even a bit crooked. While looking at this silver-haired young lady whose beauty could topple cities, he said with a rather stupid expression, "Eh? I think it is her, only, there's a bit of golden symbols between the brows. Everything else looks the same."

The silver hair of this exceptional beauty drifted about. A phoenix cry was released, and then snow-white multicolored light blossomed. A streak of white-colored flames flew out from her mouth, sweeping outwards, immediately surrounding Shi Hao.

"Aiyou!"

Shi Hao released a cry of alarm. These were phoenix flames that originated from the Snow Phoenix bloodline. Normal people wouldn't be able to endure it. However, symbols automatically appeared around his body, his single heavenly passage protecting him.

"Silver, you really are the Silver I raised?" Shi Hao immediately sobered up a bit from his drunken state.

When the silver-haired young lady heard the name Silver, she was immediately provoked. She gnashed her teeth in anger, dark lines appearing on her sparkling white forehead. She was truly angered badly.

When she thought of the bitter experience she went through two years ago, she wanted to vomit blood. The proud heavenly lady of a glorious sect with the chance of evolving into the Snow Phoenix, someone who was known as a legendary genius girl, in the end unexpectedly landed in that monster's hands. She had to go through the disastrous experience of having her feathers cut. She was carried by her phoenix wings, her plume feathers grabbed, touched and pinched about. It was a truly unimaginable experience.

Now that she thought back to that experience, she felt like she was going to explode from anger. That was a truly unbearably dark period of time, a time of blood and tears. That type of experience was... too terrifying!

For the most powerful pearl of the Snow Phoenix bloodline to think these thoughts, feeling incomparably miserable and terrified, this alone was enough to put Shi Hao in a class of his own.

The silver-haired beauty never mentioned these experiences to anyone, to the extent where she didn't even tell her clansmen. After all, this was something too embarrassing to talk about. However, she never expected that when they met accidentally, this fella unexpectedly spoke about the past in front of her face, bragging to these people. It was more intolerable than intolerable, absolutely, utterly unendurable!

Xiu!

Her eyes shot out two streaks of silver light. It was as if a divine moon fell, the radiance brilliant and boundless, unexpectedly making the void collapse.

A strand of immortal energy appeared around Shi Hao's body, divine and auspicious, quickly stopping the sacred symbols. He was completely unharmed. His only heavenly passage was even more gentle and soft as it surrounded his body. noVe)Lb/1n

"You... cultivated a strand of immortal energy?!" While feeling incredibly angry, the silver-haired young lady immediately became shocked.

It was clear that she had been quite far from Burial Realm, so the results of that battle hadn't reached her ears yet.

"Silver, it really is you! This is really great, truly a small world." The drunk Shi Hao was just too daring, completely oblivious to how much this exceptional beauty hated the name Silver[1].

The silver-haired young lady immediately snapped out of her astonishment, her sparkling teeth creating gazhi gazhi sounds as she said, "I hate you to death!"

With a shua sound, she immediately flew over, her hands forming imprints. Her entire body shone, and then she spun in the air. White beautiful legs swept out from her long dress, striking towards Shi Hao.

"Careful, you shouldn't open your legs." Shi Hao was still quite tipsy, using his arms to defend himself. A soft peng sounded.

The silver-haired young lady's expression changed. That leg contained her world shocking magical force, yet in the end, it was lightly brushed off, moreover bringing her great pain.

Under phoenix cries, all types of symbols erupted, all of the precious techniques blasting at Shi Hao. This was a great divine ability of the Snow Phoenix bloodline.

However, that single heavenly passage and the immortal energy merged together. With a peng sound, the astonishing symbols were all scattered, successfully blocked.

"You've forced me to use my restricted divine ability!" The silver-haired young lady grinded her teeth, the golden imprint between her brows starting to shine.

She was truly angered badly. She was caught earlier, her shining white feathers cut into an absolute mess, and now she was being ridiculed. It was just too much to bear.

"Hey, Silver, I am your life-saving benefactor, so why are you attacking me?" Shi Hao spat out a breath of alcohol, his face revealing confusion and innocence.

The silver-haired young lady stared blankly for a moment. She hated Shi Hao badly, but she had to admit that she was only able to escape from that because Shi Hao brought her out.

As such, she didn't seek out revenge during these past two years, and when they met again, she was just incited badly by his words, only taking action because she was too angry.

"One thing at a time. You humiliated me first, so I... demand an explanation!" The silver-haired young lady landed on the ground. Even though she was angry, her bearing was still extremely graceful.

"This is where you are wrong. No matter what, I still saved your life. If you want to bite the hand that feeds you, then just come at me." The effects of alcohol began to wear off. He became more and more clear-headed.

When he spoke like this, the silver-haired young lady felt some hesitation. Earlier, even though she was truly aggrieved, a flame raging within her, if she truly made a big fuss with Shi Hao, it would still be a bit much.

She immediately froze there. She raised her hand several times, wanting to give Shi Hao a beating, but she then lowered her hand again.

"Turns out to be one of us. Sit down and drink a few cups of wine to quell your anger!" Cao Yusheng walked up and said.

"Older sis, you and me are the same. We both have beautiful silver-hair, so we're definitely kindred spirits!" The little rabbit also welcomed her while giggling, grabbing her arm.

Qing Yi also revealed a faint smile, trying to resolve the dispute here and mediate the grudges.

Only now did the loyalty-lacking Divine Striking Stone appear again.

Back then, when it waited for Shi Hao with the Emperor Butterfly in Five Elements Province, the silver phoenix revived, turning into a silver-haired young lady, beating it until it cried for its mom and dad, running several hundreds of thousands of li away. There was still a shadow over its heart.

"Older sis is a Snow Phoenix, this is too shocking!" The little rabbit sighed in amazement. When she understood some secrets, she widened her little mouth with shock.

"Not yet, only, there is hope of evolving to that step." The silver-haired Xue Lin said. After calming down, her temperament became extremely fine, her beauty truly outstanding.

She really was powerful. Back then, when Immortal Palace's inheritor and a group of exceptional talents chased after her, she was only injured and not captured.

Now, Shi Hao discovered that there was an additional golden imprint between her brows, clearly the result of another step of evolution. She was now much more powerful than before.

With Qing Yi and the little rabbit asking indirectly, together with the Divine Striking Stone's big mouth, their group finally knew what happened back then.

"Older sis, can this kind of thing be tolerated?" The little rabbit's large eyes moved all around, stirring things up as she said, "He cut off your beautiful phoenix feathers! That is the same as destroying your battle clothes, the same as tearing off all the clothes on your body, the same as..."

The silver-haired young lady immediately grabbed her small mouth. It really sounded worse the more the little rabbit spoke.

"We will not allow this type of thing to pass!" The little rabbit struggled free. While brandishing her little fists, she spoke fiercely, adding fuel to the flame here.

Dong!

Shi Hao sobered up, quickly rushing over, fiercely hitting her snow-white forehead. There was so much pain her eyes welled up with tears, crying out with ow ow sounds.

"The one surnamed Shi, I'm going to fight you to the death!" The little rabbit bared her fangs and brandished her claws.

"Younger sis, I support you. How can this type of thing be endured?" The silver-haired young lady smiled, even benevolently rubbing her forehead for her. However, she was using too much strength, making the little rabbit scream out in pain.

"You all... are ganging up on me!" The little rabbit was panting with rage, immediately turning her body around.

Qing Yi smiled with her lips closed, and then she called out for everyone to eat and drink together.

The atmosphere quickly became better. However, from time to time, the silver-haired young lady still couldn't help but want to give Shi Hao a beating.

For the sake of easing the tension, he cut off a piece of the golden shining divine wings while drinking, absentmindedly saying, "Here, eat up."

Everyone became speechless, all of them staring at him.

The silver-haired young lady's stare could kill, glaring at him. Was this on purpose?

"Eh? Why aren't you displaying those snow-white phoenix wings? I feel like if you have the human body, and then together with the divine feathered wings, you will definitely look stunning, your looks exceptional. Back then, when I touched it, I felt..." Shi Hao was extremely thick-skinned, and while drunk, he spoke without thinking. However, soon after, he woke up, his voice coming to a grunting stop.

It was on purpose, on purpose! The silver-haired young lady thought with anger, and with a dong sound, the wine cup... was thrown onto his forehead.

"Ay... what is up with you? This is divine wine! Don't waste it." Shi Hao said.

"Gold Marked White Tiger?" The silver-haired young lady Xue Lin looked at the gold marked tiger meat, her face revealing a look of shock. She already recognized that this was Divine Temple's holy beast. It was actually cooked by someone?"

"What's so special about that?" The little rabbit looked immensely proud of itself. She pointed at the shiny golden divine wing in her hand and said, "This is Fallen Divine Child's wing."

Pu!

The tender meat was spewed out as soon as it entered Xue Lin's delicate mouth. For the Snow Phoenix Race that had always watched their bearing and attitude, it really was lacking in manners.

It was because she was just too shocked.

Fallen Divine Child, how tyrannical was that? Yet he was cooked in a cauldron and roasted over a flame, eaten by others. This was just too shocking.

Even if Xue Lin's bloodline was powerful, possibly becoming a true Immortal Phoenix, she still felt speechless, truly dumbstruck by this result.

This was just too ridiculous! An ancient freak turned into food! Just this thought alone felt crazy, something that was hard to believe.

"You... really cultivated a strand of immortal energy?" After a long time had passed, Xue Lin's eyes became brilliant, carrying a strange look as she stared at Shi Hao.

"About to cultivate a second strand already." Shi Hao had a completely calm expression, as if he was someone extremely great.

"So formidable, since the ancient times, so many geniuses have failed, and I've only begun to walk on this path, yet you already succeeded?" Xue Lin was truly shocked.

She was called a world shocking genius, one of the present world's most powerful exceptional talents. However, she discovered that on this path, someone already stood at the very peak, looking down on her. The shock this brought her was definitely not light.

"Wu, I can give you a few pointers. Promise you'll be able to take that step." Shi Hao put on an extremely indifferent appearance.

"You want older sis Xue Lin to follow you at your side, to take her as..." The little rabbit chirped noisily, wishing to expose his noble appearance.

Xue Lin took the initiative to cover her mouth. She now realized that this little rabbit looked pure, but wished for the whole world to be in chaos, that she was a little monster.

Of course, she still stared hatefully at Shi Hao.

"Cough, younger sis Xue Lin, I heard that you previously discovered a few clues regarding Supreme Hall?" Shi Hao was at his wits end, directly revealing his true intentions.

Back then, Xue Lin was chased precisely because it was rumored that she had personally seen Supreme Hall return to the higher realms, knowing its whereabouts.

Xue Lin immediately became vigilant, looking at him with an unkind expression.

"How about this, if you tell me where Supreme Hall, I will directly give you a great opportunity. I promise you that in the future, you can evolve into a true Undying Immortal Phoenix." Shi Hao said.

Xue Lin curled her lips, not believing him at all.

"Is that enough?" Shi Hao carefully produced a jade cauldron, cautiously opening it. This place was immediately drowned out by divine aura.

"What... is this?" Xue Lin was shocked.

"Half of an Immortal Body." Shi Hao said. He also added that a part of it could be gifted to her.

Chapter 910 - Great Ripples

"How could this be?!" Xue Lin's beautiful eyes widened, feeling that this was inconceivable. She looked at this corpse that was overflowing with divine radiance, immediately becoming dumbstruck.

"Silver, it's not all that impossible." Shi Hao didn't watch his words, inadvertently calling her Silver again. When he wanted to correct himself, he found that Xue Lin was still in a stupor, not catching his 'mistake'.

"Something's wrong, there's no way it's an immortal. It is rumored that when a true immortal dies, no one can get close to them. If we tried to touch it from a close distance, we will be blasted to pieces, the immortal dao symbols destroying everything." After a long time, Xue Lin snapped out of her daze and spoke like this.

Shi Hao released a sigh. He had no choice but to tell her everything, about how the Immortal Body suffered a strike from a palm, the patterns within its body already scattered, completely wiped out.

As for the Immortal Body that remained, the flesh had long disappeared, the bones spotlessly white like jade. Hazy radiance spread outwards, making one feel as if they were bathed in autumn winds, as if they had entered an immortal pond.

"Don't look down on it. Even though the symbols have scattered, the essence pretty much all gone, there is still a rich immortal dao energy. If one cultivates while facing it, there will be endless benefits. You might be able to use this to continue your evolution, becoming a true Heavenly Phoenix." Shi Hao said in a rather tempting manner.

Xue Lin was truly quite shocked. These fellas really knew how to stir up trouble. Eating Divine Temple's holy beast was one thing, but they even cooked Fallen Divine Child. Now, they even had half of an Immortal Corpse, truly leaving her stupefied and finding everything hard to believe.

"Will you exchange the information with me for the Immortal Body?" Shi Hao asked, his eyes shining brilliantly. He was always thinking about Supreme Hall, from the lower realm to the higher realm. He continuously stumbled upon clues, yet was never able to see it for himself.

"You will most likely be disappointed." Xue Lin released a soft sigh.

"What, could it have been just a rumor?" Shi Hao was stupefied. He couldn't help but feel a bit disappointed.

"No, I truly did see it. It was an enormous mysterious tortoise, hiding in an ancient palace, bringing with it chaotic energy. It moved through the world barrier, appearing in the higher realms' great earth." Xue Lin said softly, her eyes a bit distant. When she thought back to the scene she saw then, it made her feel indescribably shaken even now.

"Where is it?" Shi Hao asked.

"It's in a valley, I've recorded the coordinates. However, when I was reporting to my clansmen, there was a leak of information, and that was why I ended up being pursued from all sides." Xue Lin said.

Shi Hao knew what happened afterwards, and it was precisely him saving Xue Lin.

"In the end, when I returned to the clan, the ancient ancestor personally came out of isolation, hurrying there..."

The result was quite regretful. Supreme Hall was no longer there. The enormous tortoise that carried the ancient palace had long disappeared, vanishing.

"Sigh!" Shi Hao released a light sigh.

"My ancient ancestor is definitely not an ordinary person. He has lived for an endless amount of time, magical force shocking the past and present, not weaker than Immortal Palace's most powerful existence." Xue Lin said.

"Could it be that... he discovered something?" Shi Hao asked.

"En, my ancient ancestor continued to follow a trail of clues, discovering that Supreme Hall entered the boundless uninhabited region's depths. This... immediately cut short many people's intentions... After all, who dares enter that kind of place?" Xue Lin sighed. This was why she felt regretful.

"I'm going to go there sooner or later!" Shi Hao clenched his fists, asking her for the concrete coordinates.

"In the most dangerous place. The ancient ancestor has said that Supreme Hall should be heading for the ancient city where the contract of alliance is." Xue Lin said.

"What?!" Shi Hao's mind immediately trembled. The uninhabited depths had an ancient city?

Even Qing Yi and the little rabbit were shocked, quickly asking for more.

"I don't know what kind of thing this so-called ancient city is. The ancient ancestor only spoke about it without thinking, and then stopped without saying any more, returning to the clan and entering isolation." Xue Lin spoke about things as they were.

"Contract of alliance, ancient city..." Shi Hao muttered. Soon after, he thought of the archaic contract of alliance. Could it be that the so-called contract of alliance was carried out there? He felt strangely shaken inwardly.

Then, he thought of the Desolate Border, about the sin blood seven kings, the mysterious and unknown world's terrifying great battles, the black-colored ancient boat, as well as the Undecaying, Immortal, and others.

All of these seemed to be connected, as if there was a line stringing everything together.

Shi Hao felt a huge headache. He shook his head, not allowing himself to fall into that kind of vicious cycle, waking himself up.

"I'll have to make a trip sooner or later to see this so-called archaic contract of alliance!" Shi Hao set a goal for himself for now.

Compared to the other things he was thinking about, this wasn't too great of an objective.

However, for the creatures of the higher realms, this was already sky shattering. Who could reach that kind of place? Since the ancient times, how many people could safely enter the uninhabited region's innermost depths?

"Thank you all for your hospitality. I am going to leave to cultivate in isolation." Xue Lin said her goodbyes.

"Yi, you don't want the reward?" Shi Hao was shocked. He pointed at the Immortal Body, indicating that he could give her a portion.

"The part I said couldn't truly help you. Who can enter the uninhabited region's depths, let alone reach that so-called ancient city?" Xue Lin shook her head.

Cao Yusheng, Qing Yi, and the little rabbit released a light sigh. The uninhabited region was too mysterious, who knew how many times larger than the higher realms' three thousand provinces. No one could freely explore it.

That place was surrounded by dense fog, and also enveloped in horrifying dangers.

It was rumored that there might be perfectly preserved immortal corpses, living True Dragons, phoenix nests and eggs, as well as other things. There were even powerful races that transcended above.

That place was impossible to investigate, a restricted place.

Unless there were mysterious creatures receiving them, otherwise, who could walk inside and enter the so-called ancient city?

"I will enter sooner or later. When I leave Immortal Ancient, after flattening all enemy sects, I will march straight there!" Shi Hao said.

The little rabbit widened her large eyes, looking at him as if she was looking at an idiot. This annoyed Shi Hao, and as such, he directly gave her another strike, making her feel so much pain she screamed out with wa wa sounds.

"You can stay behind and cultivate with us, absorbing the immortal dao energy." Shi Hao said, inviting Xue Lin to stay behind.

"I..." Xue Lin felt quite embarrassed.

"Older sis, just stay behind. Otherwise, with this entire Immortal Body, we won't be able to use up all of it anyway." The little rabbit said.

In the end, they chose a pure land and prepared to cultivate with this Immortal Body.

This was a mountain region with flower fragrance and bird cries. The scene was poetic and picturesque, the earth filled with spiritual elegance, essence energy seeping out hazily.

The Divine Striking Stone and Cao Yusheng joined hands, laying a formation to prevent the Immortal Body's aura from alerting others. They then prepared to cultivate in isolation.

When the others saw Shi Hao sit down, a strand of immortal energy curling about him, all of them felt a great drive, feeling great motivation. This was a living example!

Apart from the little rabbit, Qing Yi, Cao Yusheng, and Xue Lin, the Divine Striking Stone and Emperor Butterfly were also nearby, trying to absorb the immortal dao energy.

"Yi, there is still a bit of effects!" Shi Hao was shocked. After he refined Fallen Divine Child's strand of immortal energy, no matter how he tried to nurture it, the effects weren't all that significant. He never expected that when cultivating with this Immortal Body, the strand of immortal energy around his body became a bit thicker, in addition becoming more auspicious and holy.

An endless rain of light was continuously absorbed into his body, cleansing his flesh and nourishing his inner organs. This was immortal dao energy, its wondrous uses endless. It merged together with his own strand of immortal energy.

Several days later, Shi Hao became sure that the multicolored light this Immortal Body released was useless for him. His strand of immortal energy had been nourished to its limit, unable to improve anymore.

"Reached perfection!" Shi Hao opened his eyes. If he wanted to improve any more, he had to cultivate a second strand of immortal energy.

As for merging the immortal bones into his body, he definitely wouldn't do such a thing. Forget about this half of the skeleton not having any immortal dao symbols, even if it did, he wouldn't do that. His true body wasn't going to merge with anything. Everything was going to be cultivated by himself!

"Without taking that step, cultivating a strand of immortal energy, there is still no way to absorb the endless immortal dao energy..." Xue Lin sighed softly.

They cultivated here, continuously guiding the rain of light into their bodies. Even though it could nurture the body, in the end, the rain of light still scattered, not staying behind.

It was because they still had mortal bodies, unable to retain immortal dao energy.

However, this was still extremely beneficial for them. After experiencing this type of energy, it was the same as a type of cleansing, becoming more and more translucent, sparkling like jade.

After cultivating in isolation for several days, Shi Hao was the first one to stand up. His strand of immortal energy had long become complete, unable to improve further.

He tried to waste a bit of the immortal dao energy, and he discovered that some of it was used up, but it would automatically restore itself to the maximum amount, not needing the Immortal Body for replenishment.

Then, Qing Yi, Cao Yusheng, and the others also stopped cultivating.

"The rewards of cultivating here are not shallow, but I still need to take that step. Otherwise, the immortal dao energy will only pass through the body." Cao Yusheng said.

He vowed that he would definitely take that step in Formation Realm, thus preparing to bid everyone goodbye.

"This Immortal Body is useless right now for me, so just bring it with you." Shi Hao said. He was going to ponder over his own dao and enter a long period of isolation.

"Thanks. With this Immortal Body, who knows, it might be easier to take that step." The little fatty didn't act too pretentious, bringing the Immortal Corpse with him and leaving.

Qing Yi didn't need it. The most important thing for her was to settle things with the main body.

The little rabbit walked a different path. She stared at Shi Hao, wishing to nibble at the different holy medicines he had, and also wishing to grow one of every type of medicine.

"Until we meet again!" Xue Lin turned into a beautiful divine bird, and then her wings took to the skies, leaving this place.

Qing Yi's white clothes were exceptional. With a wave of her white hand, she also drifted into the distance.

"Since you want to be a bum beetle so bad, then just carry the medicinal bag." Shi Hao satisfied the little rabbit's desires, having her safeguard the entire pile of precious medicines.

In reality, having the little rabbit follow him was also a type of protective measure.

Heavenly Country's number one assassin was impossible to guard against, and it was likely that only Shi Hao could suppress and kill him. The little rabbit's dao was not complete, so if she was targeted, she would definitely be in danger.

As for Qing Yi, she had the Green Lunar Flame, so she had nothing to fear. Cao Yusheng had the higher realms' Third Killing Formation, similarly able to travel unhindered.

Three thousand bluestone paths, large amounts of fiery light lit up. In the end, they all burned, drowning out all of the paths, directly rushing into the clouds, burning the nine heavens!

"Freak!" The little rabbit watched from the distance, feeling great shock together with the Divine Striking Stone and Emperor Butterfly.

Shi Hao returned to this place once again, this time directly igniting the three thousand dao flames, moreover allowing the flames to burn ferociously, the fiery light overflowing violently into the sky.

Earlier, when he was here experiencing this 'burning dao', even though every single path had been ignited, the flames hadn't been stirred to their greatest intensity.

The great flames raged, covering this place, burning for many days. Shi Hao sat within, all of the clothes covering his body turned to ashes. The strand of immortal energy remained pure white the entire time, circling about his body, not displaying any changes.

"The end of the road has been reached. This place is already no longer suitable for me to cultivate in seclusion." Shi Hao released a light sigh, putting on his battle clothes again.

Before coming here, he had a feeling that the three thousand paths likely couldn't cultivate a second strand of immortal energy. As such, he told Qing Yi and Cao Yusheng that if he wasn't here, he will be at another place. If they finished their isolation cultivation, then they could reconvene there.

A blood-colored ancient battlefield, a place that was incomparably terrifying and stifling.

There was an enormous skull here that was unexpectedly larger than a mountain. A single person sat on top, on both knees a bleeding divine sword.

On the ancient battlefield below the skull, Heavenly Country's number one assassin was unexpectedly incomparably respectful. He knelt with one knee on the ground, currently talking about Huang's affairs.

Without a doubt, the figure on the mountain that was even taller than a mountain was Heavenly Country's ancient freak, one of the most mysterious and terrifying individuals.

It was rumored that even if Ten Crown King or Ning Chuan faced his attack, they would still have to treat it seriously, not daring to show the slightest bit of carelessness!

In another ancient land, corpse energy overflowed outwards. A male surrounded by underworld mist towered there like a demonic mountain. His eyes were incomparably deep, as if he could see through the realms of life and death.

In addition, mysterious symbols would appear on his flesh from time to time. They were terrifying and world shocking, naturally releasing strange flowing light that unexpectedly made the void distort and cave in.

"Divine Child great one!"

There were quite a few people kneeling ahead, all of them experts belonging to Underworld Earth.

"Since all parties wish to kill Huang, then just take action." Divine Dark Child said coldly. Underworld mist immediately surged into the sky, the surrounding void falling apart.

In another place, the ancient freak Jun Dao's face was cold as he said, "Fallen Divine Child, don't worry, we will get revenge for you. There will be a tremendous price paid."

...

In a different place, when a few people obtained secret information and understood the situation, they released sighs. "Huang will be finished soon. As soon as he is found, it will be hard for him to escape death!"