Chapter 911 - Cold

The three thousand bluestone paths. The dao flames stopped burning, this place recovering its peacefulness.

The road was extremely long. All three thousand roads rested side by side, appearing mysterious and distant. Even the fall of a pindrop could be heard, a place where one's heart would become peaceful.

Shi Hao turned around, about to leave. This place brought him a strand of immortal energy. In the two years he had been in Immortal Ancient, most of it was spent here. His benefits from this place were great.

This was merely the entrance to Immortal Ancient, a place countless people had passed, but no one stopped here. However, he chose to cultivate in seclusion here, turning it into his dao path.

"Hurry and leave already, what are you looking all distracted for?" The little rabbit happily carried a purple-golden radish in her hands, currently nibbling it. In reality, this was a holy ginseng.

Shi Hao didn't say anything, only snapping out of his daze after a long time. He looked towards the Divine Striking Stone and said, "To lay a few formations, will it take long?"

"Not that long. Didn't we make some killing formations to deal with the final ominous and inauspicious, but didn't end up using them? The formation banners and dao platforms are still here." The Divine Striking Stone said, feeling a bit confused, not understanding why Shi Hao suddenly asked this.

"That's good. Arrange them again, set them at their most powerful with the greatest destructive power!" Shi Hao said.

"Right here? Weren't we going to leave? It would be such a waste!" The Divine Striking Stone said. Even though they were absurdly wealthy right now, with divine materials piled up in heaps, they still shouldn't squander things like this.

"It's fine. Fallen Divine Child, Immortal Palace's inheritor, and Jun Dao have all been robbed, the heavenly materials about to pile up into a small mountain. We should make use of some of them," Shi Hao said.

The Divine Striking Stone was never of the good sort. After grumbling for a bit, it immediately understood what he wanted to do. He began to laugh strangely with hehe sounds.

Shi Hao also laughed, his laughter ringing through the three thousand bluestone paths.

The little rabbit swung her silver-colored waist length long hair about, staring at them with her large rubylike eyes. "The two of you really aren't good people!"

There were quite a few dao platforms, as well as many formation banners. They were quickly arranged on the bluestone paths, turning into a great formation, making this place incredibly dangerous and terrifying.

Shi Hao personally took action, producing a sculpture of himself made out of magical force. It was vivid and lifelike, having him sit at the center of the formation, his back towards Immortal Ancient's little worlds.

"Set up a concealment formation so that not even Heavenly Eyes will work, unable to see through it." Shi Hao asked the Divine Striking Stone to take action, setting up a background formation.

"That's a bit difficult..." The Divine Striking Stone felt that this was a bit troublesome. In the end, it took out a formation banner obtained from Immortal Palace's inheritor, reluctantly arranging it here.

This formation banner had immortal dao methods, something that was brought out from Immortal Palace. It was something that resembled the effects of the formation the Willow Deity arranged in Stone Village.

"You collected so many dao platforms and formation banners, so arrange a few more of them. Make sure there's no holes," Shi Hao said.

"A single one is more than enough. I still have to study the others!" The Divine Striking Stone strictly refused, and it even had Shi Hao use his Heavenly Eyes to observe from the distance.

"Yi, it is effective." Shi Hao was shocked.

"But of course! Don't you see who it is that's working here? It's not about how many formation banners there are, but rather in how the banners are arranged. Immortal Palace's inheritor was a complete amateur. These things, in my hands, are ten times more valuable!" The Divine Striking Stone spoke extremely narcissistically.

Layer after layer of killing formations covered the figure within, surrounding it, making it impossible to see.

"It's still missing something. There needs to be a few strange formations arranged, best if you can make it so that as long as one approached this place, they would feel a temptation to come here, or forcefully be transported into the formations."

It was clear that Shi Hao's request would make the Divine Striking Stone expend quite some effort again.

In the end, the Divine Striking Stone personally took action, setting up mazes one after another in the outermost area, as well as even a great concealment formation, making everything in front disappear.

"The two of you really are scoundrels!" The little rabbit said.

"Those without any hostility wouldn't discover anything. Only those who are targeting me, using an extremely large amount of time to follow and search for me would discover something strange, realizing that there's another world in the maze, that someone is cultivating in isolation." Shi Hao said indifferently.

"Let's go!" Shi Hao waved his hand, bringing the little rabbit, Divine Striking Stone, and Emperor Butterfly away from this place. They thus disappeared without a trace.

Cold Realm, this was a place within Immortal Ancient that was bitterly cold, an incomparably terrifying little world.

As soon as they stepped foot in this realm, the little rabbit cried out with wa wa sounds. It was too cold! The chilliness seeped into their bones, the air they exhaled directly freezing, falling onto the ground.

The ground was cracked, incomparably cold. The rocks and soil were all extremely hard. This was a quiet and frigid little world.

This was precisely Shi Hao's destination. He was going to make use of something else, about to cultivate a second strand of immortal energy. After careful consideration, based on what he understood, perhaps this was the world that was most suitable for him.

"It's so cold!" The little rabbit cried out. This cold energy was extremely sinister, unexpectedly able to pass through divine force and directly enter one's bones.

"You are a Lunar Jade Rabbit, so you should be resistant to the cold." Shi Hao teased.

"That makes sense." The little rabbit surprisingly didn't argue back, instead closing her eyes to sense around, muttering, "Could it be that this little world has some great yin treasure?"

Ordinary cold energy couldn't harm her, only something that exceeded her imaginations could.

"Great yin force can turn into water to nourish all living things, something that complements my natural dao." She muttered.

After entering this frigid little world that could freeze them alive, Shi Hao directly headed towards into the centermost area. This was the coldest ancient land.

"Heavens! What kind of blasted place is this? Even divine corpses have cracked after being frozen." The Divine Striking Stone cried out when it saw the broken corpses, clearly destroyed after being frozen.

Up ahead, heavy snow fell, creating an expanse of silvery whiteness. The cold air hacked down on their faces like blades.

The closer they got, the more they felt that this ancient land was terrifying. The snow contained divine force and even killing intent. It made one's soul tremble.

This was definitely not normal snow!

The great snow sealed the sky, covering heaven and earth. Everything was white, killing intent everywhere. There was a boundless expanse of silver, an austere aura filling this place.

"Aiyou, can this even be called snow anymore?"

After proceeding for several dozen li, snowflakes the size of washbasins directly smashed downwards. Later on, there were even ice blades and other things hacking down from the void, these things all containing divine force.

"This really is a damned place!" The little rabbit also cursed. Even though she had been sensing for Cold Realm's origin, she didn't discover anything strange.

When the Emperor Butterfly came here, it frantically ate half divine fruits. In the end, it spew out silk, wrapping itself up to enter hibernation.

This left Shi Hao stupefied. It already turned into a butterfly, yet it could still turn into a cocoon?

They reached a great snowy mountain. Snow stretched far into the distance, three thousand li frozen over!

This was Cold Realm's central ancient land!

Along the way, a strange sight caught their attention. There were many snowmen standing within an ice cave. Those figures inside the sparkling ice cave were of all different poses and expressions.

"Something's wrong."

Shi Hao frowned. He waved his sleeve, sending symbols outwards, scattering the snow from those snowmen. These were corpses, all of them frozen there without moving.

There were men and women here, all of them deities. They had died a long time ago.

Outside the ice cave, wind and snow swept over from time to time, as a result covering them.

"So many divine corpses!" The little rabbit sucked in a cold breath of air, feeling that things were extremely dangerous. Upon closer inspection, she discovered that there was no lack of true deities, but they had already died.

"It shouldn't be some Ice Immortal Stone or Great Yin Essence Stone, right?" The Divine Striking Stone was not only not scared, it even became excited. It began to threaten that it might just prepare a killing formation and barge straight into the snowy mountain.

They observed for a period of time here, and then continued on their way.

It was a world of ice and snow, silver decorations binding up everything. The snowflakes in the sky were terrifyingly huge, and from time to time, a large wave of snowflakes slammed downwards.

"Wawawa, I can't take it anymore!" The little rabbit cried out. This place was too cold, cold to the point of directly attacking at one's soul through their divine force.

"Almost there, we are already approaching the heart of the mountain range." Shi Hao said.

Along the way, they saw many corpses buried in snow. When the snow was removed with divine force, they saw that these belonged to creatures of all different races.

"Yi, this cave has old and young, even infants!" The Divine Striking Stone cried out in shock.

When they passed by a cliff cave, they were shocked to find a group of natives. This was a clan of humanoid creatures, but they had Lin[1] scales. All of them were frozen to death.

They continued into this region, fumbling about, scattering the snow. They were incomparably shaken. They saw many constructs, but in the end, they were all sealed in ice, all of the creatures within killed.

This was a tribe, but for some reason, everyone inside died suddenly, frozen here.

There seemed to be a wave of coldness that suddenly swept over, freezing all of the deities here, ultimately sealing them under ice and snow. The postures of many of the people here were still preserved, making them look vivid and lifelike.

“So strange!”

Shi Hao cried out in shock. He found a tattered altar, discovering a group of beautiful young ladies that were offered as sacrifice. They still maintained their previous appearances, sealed within sparkling and transparent divine ice.

These young ladies legs were straight, bodies tall and slender, skin snow-white, delicate and fine. Before dying, they didn't experience any suffering, becoming frozen beauties in an instant.

“Do you all see? The tribe is extremely large, and before their deaths, everyone was quite happy, looking forward to something, but in the end, they were all mysteriously frozen, all of them dying.” The little rabbit was rather careful, her expression serious as she spoke.

Weng!

“Right at this moment, the Everlasting Immortal Sword on Shi Hao's body shone, releasing waves of cries.

At the same time, the entire snowy mountain surged with a rain of light, releasing terrifying light, as if it was ascending. It was incomparably sacred!

“Immortal dao energy?!” Shi Hao was shocked, because the immortal energy around his body was also lightning crying, coiling about, displaying abnormalities.

“Destroy Huang, send him on his way!”

“Set off!”

In the outside world there were troops gathered from all different small worlds, converging at the same place to kill Huang.

Within Immortal Ancient's small worlds, only a small amount of people's senses were sharp, learning of some news beforehand. They were incredibly shocked.

“Heavens! The ancient freaks are commanding armies to kill Huang together. Something huge is about to happen.”

“Where are they heading?”

“Someone saw them leaving for the three thousand bluestone paths. No matter who it is that wishes to deliver news, it is already too late. They've already reached their destination!”

Dark mists surged. Underworld Clan's experts were everywhere, the atmosphere oppressive. They arrived before the bluestone paths.

In the rear, Divine Dark Child towered there like a demonic mountain, his flesh releasing mysterious symbols, making the void cave in and crack apart!

In another direction, Heavenly Country's people appeared. On top of an enormous skull that was even taller than a mountain peak sat a single person. This was one of Immortal Ancient's most powerful creatures: Heavenly Country's ancient freak made his appearance!

In his surroundings, there were also many assassins!

In the distance, Jun Dao walked over with a single person. There was another large group of experts.

...

More and more people came, killing intent overflowing into the heavens.

Chapter 912 - Desiring Immortality

"Haha, truly a distinguished meeting. Not just one ancient king set out! This can be considered quite the magnificent feat!"

On the three thousand bluestone roads, someone laughed, but there was no warm feeling, only making others feel a type of coldness.

Banners fluttered about, experts gathering like clouds, mists overflowing into the heavens. Human figures stretched as far as the eye could see, creatures from all different races present, separated into several large groups.

Divine Dark Child, Jun Dao... these types of individuals appeared one after another. If news of this got out, it would definitely shake all the experts under the sky. Their backgrounds were all astonishing, yet today, they gathered to take action together.

"Huang is vicious by nature, harming all sects, his hands covered in blood. Everyone is unsatisfied, deciding to work together to eliminate him. This can be considered a good thing." Someone said.

Ha ha...

From the distance, a figure stood on the enormous skull, its laughter like that of a wild animal, making one's scalp go numb.

Heavenly Country's number one assassin stood respectfully below the skull, his hands below his body as he awaited orders.

This left many people shocked. Heavenly Country's king, the one known as one of the most terrifying among ancient freaks personally came, even displaying his true body, not hiding anything. This was enough to illustrate his resolution.

Even the number one assassin was so reserved, not daring to display the slightest bit of carelessness in his presence. One could imagine just how terrifying he was!

When they thought of the rumors surrounding him, as well as his splendid years in history, everyone felt like they were suffocating. This was a deadly creature who had killed many ancient kings before.

“Fallen Divine Child, do you see? I came to get revenge for you.” Jun Dao said. Purple mist surrounded him, his body releasing an extremely powerful and intimidating aura.

He had now recovered from his injuries, arriving today to fight a bloody battle!

“Divine Temple’s dao brother, please do not feel any misgivings. The killing of Huang is an eradication of evil. If we act together, there will be no issues!” Jun Dao looked towards someone who wasn’t too far out.

Everyone moved again. Ancient kings appeared one after another, joining together. Regardless of who the enemy was, they would still die.

“What else is there to say? Attack!” Divine Dark Child said coldly. Behind him, underworld mist covered heaven and earth. This place was pitch-black like ink.

His body was the only thing that flowed with brilliant colors, able to split apart the void. That was because his body was too powerful, the unbreakable precious body left behind from the previous world. There were powerful symbols that remained in his flesh.

The great army advanced, wishing to break apart the great formations.

Formation banners were everywhere, killing intent surging like a sea. Human figures were everywhere here. Endless symbols lit up, battle intent overflowing into the sky.

Several ancient kings appeared, walking forward, commanding everyone to surround the bluestone paths, about to take action to kill Huang.

Peng!

The great formations suffered attacks, symbols shining from within. There was a cold shout of disdain.

“Get lost!”

This voice rang through heaven and earth like thunder, echoing in all directions.

“Huang!”

“Shi Hao!”

Someone shouted angrily. Even if they were burned into ashes, they still knew that this was his voice. In addition, his aura surged outwards.

This was an imprint left behind by Shi Hao, sealed within a statue. Together with the echo formation’s support, when it was released like this, it was deafening, leaving everyone feeling shaken up.

Aside from this, he had previously scattered out a bit of essence blood, as well as supported it with magical formations to recreate his blood energy, making roiling scarlet multicolored light overflow into the sky from within the formation, covering the figure sitting within.

“Sure enough, he’s here. This time, your wings are impaled, it’ll be difficult for you to escape!” many people shouted, revealing looks of excitement one after another.

There were ancient freaks overseeing the place, moreover not just one. They were still scared of something. As long as this great formation was broken down, Huang will definitely fall, his blood splashing over the bluestone paths. n()Ovεℓℓ1n “Kill!...” War cries shook the skies. Everyone took action.

Outside the bluestone paths, the creatures of all clans who rushed over after obtaining the news were all shocked. They watched from the distance.

No one expected Huang to be cultivating in seclusion here, right at Immortal Ancient’s entrance, sitting on the bluestone paths. It exceeded everyone’s expectations.

“What a pity, Huang is about to fall. Even if he was a heaven warping divine individual, he can’t stop the joint assault of all clans. Even if Ning Chuan was attacked like this, it would still be difficult for him to escape.

In the rear, people discussed.

Hong!

On the bluestone paths, the great formation displayed its might. The first wave of attacks already incited a powerful retaliation, immediately blasting more than forty people apart, their blood splashing high into the air, white bones flying into the distance.

It was incomparably miserable, and also extremely shocking.

It was just the beginning, yet so many died. One has to understand that all of these were powerful individuals, all of them elites.

What was unexpected was that Huang didn’t move, nor did he produce any sound.

“I know what is happening. Huang has reached a critical moment in his comprehension, his body affected by some condition, unable to get up. Truly... dangerous!”

In the distance, the expressions of those watching changed. Someone came to this conclusion.

“Hehe, Huang’s judgment day has arrived!”

“If you aren’t coming out, then wait for us to slaughter our way in and destroy you!”

On the bluestone paths, several armies attacked. There were naturally some that speculated that Shi Hao’s isolation cultivation had some issues, and that was why he didn’t appear, borrowing the formations’ power to hold off the enemy.

Hong!

Even more terrifying symbols erupted. The great formations revived, surrounding a large amount of people. Sword energy immediately interweaved here, symbols burning. It was as if fireworks were set off, stellars streams descending.

In an instant, large amount of powerful individuals exploded, blasted into bones and blood. Scarlet colored mist pervaded the air.

“Kill!”

“Kill Huang!”

People shouted from the rear, voices ice-cold, stopping those who were running back and giving this order.

This place erupted into chaos!

Cold Realm, it was ridiculously cold, the cold air bone piercing.

Within the mountain range depths, a rain of light filled the sky, as if someone was ascending. This place was too beautiful.

Shi Hao held the Everlasting Immortal Sword in his hand, preparing himself mentally. He sensed his surroundings, moreover supporting his heavenly passage, protecting the little rabbit at his side. He felt that this place was extremely strange.

“Why is there immortal dao energy?” His strand of immortal energy curled about his body like a True Dragon.

“Uh, could it be that I accidentally touched this altar?” The Divine Striking Stone began to have second thoughts.

It was clear that endless years ago, before the great disaster arrived, this tribe was offering a sacrifice, using beautiful young ladies as the offering.

Unfortunately, the altar was half destroyed. Nothing was left behind.

“Back up!”

Shi Hao said, becoming serious and vigilant, backing up.

Sure enough, when they left the altar, the rain of light that covered the sky disappeared. This place slowly recovered its peace.

“Truly weird. I saw that the altar’s stone material was special, so I took a bite out of it, and then it suddenly became like this.” The Divine Striking Stone was a bit concerned.

Only when a long time had passed did Shi Hao collect his only heavenly passage, releasing the little rabbit.

“So cold. Just now, I felt a type of mysterious force that was a powerful yin.” The little rabbit said.

Shi Hao blew away the ice and snow, allowing the ancient tribe to reappear in this world, completely revealing everything.

It was an ancient hill village that had an Immortal Ancient style, resembling the last great era. The ancient land was perfectly preserved, ice and snow covering everything, sealing this place up completely, just like back then.

“So many plants, all of them frozen.” The little rabbit’s eyes were wide as they moved all about. She looked around to see if there were any frozen holy medicines.

This type of situation proved that endless years ago, Cold Realm wasn’t cold, but instead rich with vitality. Only, when disaster suddenly descended, surrounding this small world, all of the creatures were frozen to death.

It was difficult to imagine what kind of coldness that was. It definitely contained endless magical force, or else this type of thing definitely wouldn’t happen.

As for that disaster, there were no clues at all. Shi Hao searched through this tribe, but didn’t discover anything.

“It seems like we can only try our hand at that altar. It has something to do with it.” Shi Hao frowned.

“Be careful.” The little rabbit didn’t get close, instead listening to his advice, hiding in the distance.

Weng!

When the Everlasting Immortal Sword touched the altar, the altar trembled slightly, producing a rain of light again. It was as if it was ascending to immortality, a sacred aura pervading the air. There was also a bone-piercing coldness.

Shi Hao didn’t back up. He produced the True Primordial Record -- Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram, holding the spotlessly white bone piece in his hand. This allowed him to become much more calm.

Hong!

Even more resplendent light erupted. A rain of light scattered down, covering this place. Cold energy overflowed into the sky.

This altar was moving. Even though it was damaged, there was still a powerful reaction. Light spread outwards, engulfing the world.

“Shi Hao didn’t back up. The strand of immortal energy on his body swirled about, and all of his symbols erupted to resist the cold.

“That disaster shouldn’t appear again, right?” The little rabbit was starting to get scared.

“It probably... won’t.” The Divine Striking Stone was already speaking with an uncertain tone, lacking confidence inwardly. They stared nervously towards Shi Hao’s direction.

Shi Hao closed his eyes. Through his divine senses, through his perception, he saw scenes appearing one after another from the altar, as well as all types of ancient imprints. He was immediately shocked.

“I want to become an immortal!” These words were ear splitting, crashing down on his sea of consciousness like thunder.

He saw a handsome and imposing male roar towards the heavens. His body was accompanied by a rain of light, carrying resplendent rainbow radiance.

That kind of aura, that type of power, and that type of style truly left one shaken!

Since the ancient times, who could become an immortal? At the very least, there were none in this great era, all of them failing. It was because the natural laws of the world changed, there were no immortals in the world!

However, this person still roared loudly, shaking the heavens above and earth below. His aura was matchless.

This person was definitely not weaker than Ye Qianyu, his roar causing rivers of stars to collapse, the world trembling in response. It was incredibly terrifying.

Shi Hao learned from the Void Sky Divine Vine that in the Archaic Era, the emperor clan's Ye Qianyu had entered the cosmos to cross a tribulation. He almost succeeded, but in the end, he died due to the ominous. A large black-colored claw reached down, covering everything.

This person's attitude wasn't inferior to Ye Qianyu's in the slightest!

"Sure enough, as expected! It is related to the immortal dao!" Shi Hao was indescribably shaken. He looked at those scenes, and then at that person, as well as the ascension light.

"This person didn't incur any suspicious irregularities, nor did any ominous events happen." He watched everything with shock.

Three thousand bluestone paths. Shouts of war shook the skies.

Hong!

The great formations erupted, suddenly releasing strange brilliance, surrounding the nearby people. There were unusual formations that were activated, placing all those who were attacking this place in danger.

Everyone immediately became confused. They were just outside the formation, but now, they were suddenly transported in.

"Not good, that isn't Huang's real body, just a statue! We were tricked!" Jun Dao shouted loudly. When he entered the formation, the space between his brows opened, displaying a vertical eye. After observing from a close distance, he finally discovered the truth.

The Heavenly Eye could be opened between the brows, or it could merge with both eyes. They were both shockingly terrifying.

Hong!

The three thousand bluestone paths trembled, the great formations displaying their might, unleashing a bloody massacre.

In the distance, all of the spectators' expressions turned deathly white. They couldn't help but take steps backwards. This was too terrifying! Ancient kings unleashed such a great assault, yet in the end, they ended up provoking a great disaster.

After this battle, the losses of these armies were severe, almost being completely wiped out.

Jun Dao was trapped in the formation. He used up a secret treasure, struggling free after receiving serious injuries, almost dying.

Divine Dark Child's body was unmatched, instinctively releasing the most powerful precious technique, forcing open a path. His injuries weren't too serious, because his flesh was too powerful.

Heavenly Country's king never entered the formation, so he was safe and sound. He released a cold laugh, declaring in front of everyone that he was definitely going to kill Huang!

This battle left all sides shaken. All those who watched this trembled inwardly, not daring to believe what they were seeing.

The armies the ancient freaks brought with them all suffered tremendous losses. It was too hard to believe. When news got out, many small worlds erupted into commotion.

After this battle, all of Immortal Ancient was greatly shaken. The sects of the outside world were in shock as well.

Chapter 913 - Immortal Ancient Curse

"What powerful methods, Huang is too domineering, provoking several ancient freaks by himself! This is the same as establishing hatred that wouldn't end until one side dies!"

"The three thousand bluestone path are now the grave for several great armies, and even the ancient freaks were injured. It truly is earth-shattering news!"

News traveled in all directions, and quite a few small worlds learned of this battle. A great storm was brewing, triggering tremendous waves.

Huang had previously cultivated in seclusion in the three thousand bluestone paths, and when he came out, he even killed Fallen Divine Child. One could see just how shocking his accomplishments were here.

It was clear that the current Huang's reputation could match ancient freaks. He was one of the present world's most powerful existences.

This day, Jun Dao, Divine Dark Child, and Heavenly Country's ancient freak's alliance suffered greatly. When news of this spread, many people found it hard to believe, but it truly did happen. Many people saw it with their own eyes.

"Huang's true body didn't appear, using formations to bury the enemy's armies. His methods are truly heaven reaching!"

"People like him have shocking divine senses, sensing danger before it arrived, thus leaving and setting up this type of trap. The great armies that followed were swallowed up as expected."

Everyone sighed in admiration. Jun Dao and the others definitely didn't feel good. As ancient kings who were high above everyone else, they normally definitely wouldn't work together. However, the first time they took action together, it led to this kind of defeat.

For them, this was a great humiliation. It was just one person, yet he slapped all of them on the face, moreover extremely loudly.

“Hateful!”

In the fog, someone released a low roar. This was an ancient king. Their plan this time was truly without much brilliance. Losing was one thing, but they didn’t even see Huang.

“Haha...” A wild laughter sounded, one that was accompanied by bloodiness.

Heavenly Country’s ancient freak hadn’t been injured, leaving others shocked. His divine senses were really were extremely sharp, never taking half a step into the formation.

When everyone learned of this, they all shivered inwardly. Worthy of being someone even Ning Chuan had to be wary of, powerful to a terrifying degree. He was the greatest assassin in Immortal Ancient.

“Huang has now truly done it. If not even ancient freaks can kill him, he will definitely rise up in Immortal Ancient, and quickly grow.”

In the outside world, at the border of the uninhabited region, someone released a light sigh.

“I truly hope that Immortal Ancient’s gate will open in a few years, and not after several hundred!” A heavenly deity said, not wishing to give Huang too much time. Otherwise, it would lead to great troubles.

Cold Realm, the tribal remains.

Shi Hao held the Everlasting Immortal Sword. He saw scenes one after another, leaving him greatly shaken. That was a person becoming an immortal!

That was a native, his divine might matchless, piercing through heaven and earth to resist heavenly tribulation. He was simply unstoppable.

“Actually able to freeze heavenly tribulation!”

Shi Hao was stupefied. That person achieved the dao through ice, advancing it step by step, forming the great yin. Any type of natural law was terrifying when it reached the extreme, their power boundless.

He used ice to freeze the heavens, sealing up the heavenly tribulation, possessing an unmatched attitude.

The heavens was frozen, shining and sparkling. Even the heavenly tribulation was destroyed. However, he was coughing blood as well, receiving serious injuries.

“Break through Immortal Ancient’s restrictions and blast away the curse, I want to lead the clansmen to the past!” This was what he roared, as well as his conviction.

His entire body released a white expanse of light. Snow and ice drifted about, hacking towards the heavens. Great yin force surged, engulfing the boundless great tribulation that appeared again.

Within the tribe, countless people were praying, waiting with hope and expectation for him to succeed.

Hong!

Powerful lightning tribulation crashed down, the heavenly tribulation about to scatter. It was about to end, specks of light shining everywhere, the light of ascension appearing.

Everyone inside the tribe revealed joyous looks, all of them crying out excitedly. nove(11-1n

However, a crack appeared between that male's brows, and then it continuously widened. He was... crumbling apart!

"The curse has appeared, great one... for the sake of resisting heavenly tribulation, couldn't resist the curse. In the end, it broke into his primordial spirit..." Cries of alarm sounded.

The one that discovered what had happened first was an elder. Others were still immersed in joy and excitement.

Together with the most powerful people of the clan, he activated the altar, wishing to assist the male in the heavens.

"Do not worry about me... quickly retreat!" The space between the male's brows split apart. His body crumbled as he roared loudly.

Those elders didn't listen to his advice, frantically operating the altar. A streak of divine light rushed into the heavens, shooting towards that male.

They overestimated themselves. That person was already about to become an immortal, already at the final leg, his strength terrifying. Their assistance was completely useless.

Peng!

A final streak of lightning descended, blasting that male apart, the curse invading his primordial spirit, blasting him apart. His flesh turned into a bloody mist.

He released a final great cry, frantically doing everything he could, releasing all of his life force and everything else towards the heavens to eradicate the heavenly tribulation, preventing it from approaching Immortal Ancient.

Unfortunately, a bit of great yin divine force sprinkled onto the surface, all because those elders were activating the altar. The divine force that rushed up was connected to him, and as such, his great yin force was guided downwards.

In that instant, ice covered the world, the entire small world frozen over, all living things perishing!

This was all brought about by just a trace of his great yin force!

At the final moment, even though he was mournful, when he looked downwards, he saw that the elders were all smiling, carrying a look of freedom.

"Rather than muddling their way on, it is better to just return to the earth. This type of conclusion isn't too bad either."

He heard this type of voice, and then it disappeared. The powerful tribe was thus frozen, forever disappearing.

Shi Hao didn't move for an extremely long time, as if he was petrified. The altar was already calm, no longer shining, entering a type of stillness.

With a light sigh, he put away the Everlasting Immortal Sword. He now knew what had happened here before. His mind was heavy.

"Turns out the reason why the natives cannot leave their tribes is because of a curse. It is just like living in a cage."

It was difficult to imagine how someone who had hopes of becoming an immortal, still failed at the last spurt due to the curse. How terrifying and sinister was that power?

This was not the ominous or suspicious, but rather an ancient and mysterious curse that originated from the last great era.

It was as if there were formless shackles imprisoning them in their respective tribal regions. They couldn't travel too far from them, or else they would suffer from the curse and die.

In the past, there were immortal ancient residents that left, following the geniuses of the higher realms into the three thousand provinces, but in the end, they all ended up disappearing, unable to exist for a long time.

The various tribes, the places they resided in were comparatively safer places. They couldn't travel too far from those places, and after all this time, the curse was already deeply rooted in their blood.

As such, once one reached the sect master level, it became dangerous. They would either go crazy or die.

As for people from the three thousand provinces, if they left in the end, then that was one thing, but if they left behind descendents, it would be even worse for them. If one lived here for a long time, they would go mad once they reached heavenly deity level, exhibiting abnormal signs.

This tribe's most powerful expert exceeded the sect master level, continuing to attack at the limit, suppressing the curse, in the end almost becoming an immortal. It could be seen how astonishing he was.

Unfortunately, he was still defeated.

Immortal Ancient had all types of natural luck, a cultivation holy land, but it also had an unforeseeable curse. For outsiders, it was still manageable, normally not exhibiting any abnormalities after leaving.

However, as long as one left behind heirs, these descendents would inevitably be cursed, similarly encountering disaster like the natives.

This tribe's most powerful expert might very well be the most powerful individual within all of Immortal Ancient's small worlds. He wanted to break through Immortal Ancient's restrictions and destroy its curse so that he could bring all of his clansmen out of this entrapment.

However, in the end, unfortunately, his blood dyed the skies, ultimately falling.

"How unfortunate, truly respectable!" Shi Hao said with a sigh.

The little rabbit rushed over. After understanding what happened, she immediately felt stupefied. There was actually this type of thing that happened!

She said quietly, "How lamentable. An exceptional individual who was comparable to the Demonic Sovereign, Ye Qianyu and Mo Yudao died, completely unbeknownst to the rest of the world."

Shi Hao's mind moved. He recalled the scene where he saw that when Cold Realm became dull and lonely, all things freezing over, something fell from the sky, smashing into the great earth. It was something that belonged to that person.

"Carefully sense around, the source of the great yin might be here. You are a Lunar Jade Hare, so it might be an unimaginably great natural luck for you." Shi Hao said.

Both the little rabbit and himself began to move, digging up all around the tribe.

Unfortunately, they didn't discover anything special here.

"Take your time looking around, I am going into isolation cultivation!" Shi Hao said. The main reason he came here was to comprehend the dao. He wanted to improve even further, to cultivate his second strand of immortal energy.

"Wu, I'm going to look for the Snow Lotus. Who knows, there might even be divine medicines or immortal medicines!" The little rabbit began to move about within the mountains. The Divine Striking Stone followed her, wishing to find the Great Yin Immortal Stone and other things.

Shi Hao arrived in the mountain range's innermost depths. He sat down on a snowy peak and began to cultivate.

The space between his brows shone. An object surfaced. Strand after strand of source energy overflowed, that thing about to come out.

During this process, Shi Hao frowned, feeling a bit of pain. He carefully and prudently extracted that item.

This was the unmatched divine treasure both him and Qi Daolin sealed between his brows, and today, he was finally going to use it.

If the Celestial Clan was here, they would definitely gnash their teeth in anger, driven mad from fury.

This was the 'immortal seed' Shi Hao seized from Celestial Clan's ancient mine. Earlier in Supreme Being Dao Rite, Shi Hao already decided what kind of path he was going to take. This magical object was a vital piece.

After entering Immortal Ancient, the three thousand bluestone paths drew his attention, so that place became a part of his cultivation.

That place was now useless to him, so he was now finally going to use this extremely rare wondrous object.

Its size was constantly changing, suddenly becoming large and suddenly becoming small, world shocking heaven and earth source energy swirling around it. It was hazy and indistinct, incredibly mysterious.

When it was large, it was comparable to a millstone, when it was small, the size of a dragon eye fruit. It changed unpredictably, source energy swirling about it.

This source energy couldn't be attacked, because once this energy went berserk, a single strand of it would be enough to collapse mountains and rivers, let alone this amount of it.

When the energy was at peace, it was still good, gentle as if nothing was there.

Even now, Shi Hao didn't know what was inside this 'immortal seed', what kind of rare treasure was stored within. Even after cultivating the Martial Dao Heavenly Eye, he still couldn't see through it.

Back then, Qi Daolin had suspected that there might be Immortal Gold inside, but it hadn't fully taken form yet, still evolving. As for whether this really was true or not, there was simply no way of being certain.

However, there was one thing he was sure of, and that was that what rested within this thing was currently evolving into an unmatched treasure, something even more precious than true Immortal Gold. It could be said to be invaluable!

It was because it was currently wrapped within source energy, connected to heaven and earth, currently being nurtured by all dao.

Right now, this object became one with heaven and earth source energy. It was as if a world shocking placenta was nurturing the mysterious object at the heart of this thing.

Shi Hao had always remained calm and unhurried after entering Immortal Ancient, because this had always been the main part of taking that step, cultivating immortal energy!

Chapter 914 - Captured

Shi Hao wanted to use the world as a furnace, use the heaven's dao as flames to ignite his true self and transcend!

If news of this got out, it would definitely make everyone's expressions freeze, their minds greatly shaken, thinking that he was crazy. It was because this was just too difficult.

He was definitely going to burn himself to ashes!

However, he already succeeded in his first step. The three thousand bluestone paths were the first part. The three thousand great dao that place contained were a part of the path he wished to take.

Normally speaking, even if it was the last great era where heaven and earth's natural law conditions permitted such things, one path could only produce a single strand of immortal energy. There was no way for it to give birth to more.

The road reached its end, and then immortal energy would appear!

This was common knowledge, as well as the rule that was publicly accepted.

However, his path was too terrifying. As such, even after the three thousand dao reached its end, the first strand of immortal energy successfully condensed, there were still further steps to take.

It was also precisely because of this that proved the difficulty of this path, the danger of having his body and dao wiped out at every turn. It was because the three thousand bluestone paths could be considered the first stage of dao comprehension. Shi Hao barely made it through alive.

The immortal seed before him continuously changed, from less than an inch in size to half a zhang in length. It truly left others feeling extremely amazed.

Shi Hao silently comprehended, immediately sensing the endless dao flow into the immortal seed through the source energy, carrying out a nourishment. If he carefully harmonized with it, he could hear a deafening chanting of scriptures.

“It really is like an egg.”

Regardless of how it changed in size, it always stayed an oval shape, appearing like an immortal Luan. Back then, Shi Hao already wondered if it was some egg birthed by some heavenly phoenix.

Qi Daolin had previously shook his head, saying that it only contained an immortal treasure produced by heaven and earth.

Shi Hao closed his eyes, silently sensing it. This egg contained all types of imprints, and with the support of the world’s great dao, all types of scripture voices rumbled. It was as if it could communicate with the entire world.

In that instant, he saw all things in the world, all the stars in the sky, a single stalk of grass, a single tree, a divine bird, walking beast, etc.

Everything appeared before his eyes!

This was the most valuable part of this ‘placenta’.

Heaven and earth source energy, eggshell, and all things harmonized together, able to communicate with all living things, connecting intimately with heavenly dao, absorbing nutrients in this way.

Since the ancient times, how many people were able to witness the creation of a sacred object?

This was truly a marvel, something that was a rare sight even for true immortals. Those with long lives from the last great era might be able to find Immortal Gold, but if one wanted to find this type of embryonic form that was currently nourishing a supreme treasure, it was too difficult!

Shi Hao immediately immersed himself inside, his mind feeling as if it was wandering about unhurriedly between all dao, resonating with it.

He didn’t immediately use all dao to burn his true self, instead communicating with it first, carefully studying it. It was because it was going to become even more dangerous than when he was cultivating in the three thousand bluestone paths.

Cold Realm, the weather was truly cold, rumored to be so cold that it could wipe out all types of dao flames.

Shi Hao now knew the reasoning behind this, understanding that this wasn't an exaggeration. There was someone who almost became an immortal here, able to freeze over heavenly tribulation. However, in the end, he fell here, so the cold was naturally world shocking.

He felt that once he used all dao to burn his body, this place might be able to help him neutralize a bit of the danger, perhaps not burning him to ashes.

After all, there was immortal dao energy here. That person almost ascended to immortality, his journey cut short here. The coldness still remained, perhaps able to help him make it through this trial.

Shi Hao didn't move at all for several days in a row.

The little rabbit carried the sleeping Emperor Butterfly, bringing the Divine Striking Stone with her, wandering all about the mountains and plains, exploring everything within several thousand li, picking Snow Lotus and searching for immortal dao remains.

Serene Moon Realm.

Qing Yi and Yue Chan confronted each other. This was the fourth time the two clashed, victory or defeat about to be decided!

The first time, the Green Lunar Flame appeared, directly shocking Yue Chan and forcing her back. She used a Realm Shattering Symbol to escape, not staying behind for even a moment, not fighting decisively at all.

The second time they confronted each other, Yue Chan's soul fluctuations were the same as Qing Yi's, even the slightest difference vanishing. She had her confidence when facing the Green Lunar Flame.

Sure enough, during the second clash, she received a few injuries, but the Green Lunar Flame didn't inflict fatal damage.

When the two met a third time, Qing Yi didn't lightly use the Green Lunar Flame, because she knew the other party's plans, wishing to adapt bit by bit to the flame. As a result, during the third encounter, she received some light injuries.

Now, it was the fourth time they collided. The two fought intensely once again.

Right now, they revealed their true appearances, both of them wearing white clothes, appearing incredibly spiritual and transcendent. Even though they were fighting fiercely, they still seemed untainted by the world of mortals.

Both of them had graceful bodies, tall and slender, as if they were true immortals, beautiful to the extreme. Not the slightest flaw could be detected from them.

Snow-colored clothes danced about, fine black hair flying in the air. Their umber black eyebrows were curved, eyes carrying brilliance, nose straight and tall, red lips brilliant. They were incredibly perfect.

The most important thing was that the two of them were the exact same. This type of fight produced an indescribable type of beauty, as if true immortals were dancing, their styles unmatched.

Hong!

However, their fighting strength were world shocking, overlooking their peers. With just a raise of their hand or a move of their feet, a mountain peak would be flattened. A mountain range collapsed under a single finger.

“Qing Yi, you are me, and I am you. Why must you be so stubborn? Merge with me, we can immediately take that step and cultivate a strand of immortal energy!” Yue Chan said.

“You are the main body. You want to occupy the leading role and erase many things from my mind. How can I agree to this?!” Qing Yi said.

“When wasn’t this case for you? Do you wish to change from being the guest to the host?” Yue Chan smiled faintly, within her quiet bearing a type of shocking charm that was world shocking.

“I am not as decisive to sever all as you.” Qing Yi said.

“I’ve already walked quite far on that path, about to take that step. We only need to merge, and then it will immediately succeed.” Yue Chan said.

Qing Yi only released a cold snort, displaying a great divine ability.

“I know that you are quite extraordinary on this path as well, even obtaining the immortal seed fairy Qing Yue left behind. Moreover, after igniting your divine flame, it didn’t leave, so it’s clear how great the opportunity was. If the two of us merge, my dao and your path will join up, so a strand of immortal energy will immediately rise.” Yue Chan said.

“Sure, we can merge together, as long as you release your body and mind.” Qing Yi said.

“Qing Yi, you are just a second body, your requests are too great. However, you can feel at ease. Once we merge, none of us will be destroyed, as that true body is our true selves.” Yue Chan said.

“Then that’s good, come and merge with me!” Qing Yi rushed over, the Green Lunar Flame shining resplendently, appearing once again.

Yue Chan smiled faintly, appearing aloof and exceptional. As her white clothes fluttered about, the light within her brows shone brilliantly, her soul fluctuations the exact same as Qing Yi’s, drawing over the Green Lunar Flame to try and seize it.

Hong!

The two both sent out a fist. Their mouths claimed to wish for merging, but none of them would show mercy, so how could they believe the other side?

Both parties were injured in this battle. In the end, both of them backed up.

In the following half a mouth, they continuously fought. Once they unexpectedly charged into each other, becoming one. The Green Lunar Flame immediately shone resplendently, immediately producing a faint strand of immortal energy.

“Qing Yi, the things both you and I obtained really are extraordinary. Fairy Qing Yue and us are brought together by fate.”

Hong!

However, after an intense tremble, both of them split apart again, both of them coughing out large amounts of blood.

“You wish to erase my imprint?” Qing Yi’s beautiful eyes released cold lightning, confronting her.

“You misunderstand. I just wished to clear up a bit of unnecessary memories between the two of us,” Yue Chan said. She then looked at her. “Didn’t you want to erase my portion of the imprints as well?”

This time, both of them backed up, because their injuries weren’t light.

Cold Realm.

“That fella isn’t moving at all, is he really going to sit there like an idiot?” The little rabbit muttered, staring at the snowy peak at the center of the mountain range. Shi Hao sat on it, not displaying any activity.

The little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone had been searching for immortal treasures these past few days, but there still wasn’t any gains.

Hong!

Suddenly, on the snowy mountain, streak after streak of flames appeared, some originating from the void, some from the heavens. It was too spectacular, immediately drowning out that place.

The ice and snow that contained natural laws and divine force immediately melted, the snowy mountain about to become a place of lava.

“Heavens, so much dao laws, did all of the heaven’s natural laws appear?” The little rabbit cried out in alarm, staring with her large red eyes.

“Too ferocious! Don’t throw your life away too now...” The Divine Striking Stone had second thoughts.

“Yi, so strange, the ice and snow appeared again. This mountain region is shining! There’s immortal dao energy too.” The little rabbit widened her large eyes. The mountain region was frozen once again.

She quickly realized something, crying out, “We’re rich! That fella that almost became an immortal left something behind after all!”

On the snowy peak, the fiery light burned more and more viciously, about to destroy heaven and earth. It was difficult to bear even from far away, dao, bones, and divine force all about to melt away.

This left the little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone shocked. What kind of power was this? n(.o-)V.)e/.ℓ/.B-/1()n

However, the snowy mountains were quite strange, continuously releasing symbols. Icy coldness surged, the great snow and ice reappearing after melting.

In that instant, the little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone forgot all about their search for immortal treasures, only staring at Shi Hao who was sitting on top of the snowy peak in a stupor. He was enduring the burning of endless dao flames there.

“Freak! Too powerful!”

This flame burned for three days straight. During this period, all types of great dao sounded, as if there were chants ringing through the air. It was as if heavenly immortals or devils were chanting scriptures. It was extremely shocking.

“Yi, older sis Qing Yi, you came?” The little rabbit was shocked. She saw the exceptionally beautiful Qing Yi in white clothes descend here.

“Did he succeed? There’s actually this type of strange scene. It truly is shocking.” The ice fairylike exceptional beauty revealed an expression of shock, her beautiful eyes flickering with brilliance.

“Still in the process. Right, older sis Qing Yi, you went to look for the main body. Did you suppress her?” The little rabbit blinked her large eyes as she asked.

“I was injured. She is extremely difficult to deal with.” Qing Yi shook her head, her face a bit pale.

“Ah, are you alright?” The little rabbit was shocked, hurriedly producing a stalk of holy medicine for her to eat.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be alright after a bit of rest,” Qing Yi said. Then, she asked the little rabbit about the situation with this place. When she heard what happened here, she was immediately shocked, saying, “Almost ascended to immortality... there is an unmatched divine treasure here?”

“Wu, you all search for the immortal treasure then, I reckon that it’s buried under the earth. I’ll stand guard here and use this time to treat my injuries. Who knows, I might be able to comprehend something from Shi Hao’s cultivation.” Qing Yi said.

“Okay!” The little rabbit wanted to look for it a while ago. The Divine Striking Stone didn’t say another word, immediately digging into the snowy earth.

The seated figure fell down, the endless fiery light disappearing. Shi Hao’s entire body was scorched black, receiving serious injuries!

Using the heavens’ dao as flame, how could it be so easy? Even though he made ample preparations, now powerful to the extreme, even cultivating a strand of immortal energy, he still almost died.

This road was too difficult!

Shi Hao was incomparably weak, his entire body in pain. He sat up with difficulty. It was too miserable this time, almost having his body and dao destroyed. Fortunately, he endured it at the critical moment.

“So difficult!” He released a soft sigh. For a second strand of immortal energy to appear, it was harder than climbing to heaven. He began to think hard with a frown.

With a shua sound, a streak of white light appeared. An exceptional beauty descended on the snowy peak. White clothes fluttered about her like an immortal, beautiful to the extent of moving souls, refined and extraordinary.

“Qing Yi, why did you come? Could it be that there was a conclusion?” Shi Hao asked.

“Not yet. I was injured, needing some time to recover.” Qing Yi shook her head. She then asked about his current state with deep concern.

“It’s a bit troublesome. I need to rest for a few days.” Shi Hao released a light sigh.

With his current strength and terrifying flesh, even if he was heavily injured, a day or two of rest was still enough to make a complete recovery.

However now, he actually had to rest for several days, so one could imagine how severe the injuries this time were. These really were great dao injuries that almost killed him.

“You were injured so badly even after cultivating a strand of immortal energy?” Qing Yi was shocked, feeling even more concerned as she asked.

In addition, she walked over, grabbing Shi Hao’s arm, personally taking a look. She then said with a sigh, “Really do have to rest for some time.”

“En?!” Shi Hao suddenly became alarmed, because he discovered that he couldn’t move.

Qing Yi took action, sealing his seriously injured body!

Peng!

In addition, she continuously formed imprints, completely sealing Shi Hao from his flesh to his primordial spirit.

“You...” Shi Hao stared at her.

Qing Yi revealed a peaceful smile, beautiful to the extreme. Her body was tall and slender. She lifted Shi Hao and then moved through the sky like a fairy walking on ripples. Her white clothes fluttered about, disappearing from the snowy mountain.

Chapter 915 - Fairy’s Prisoner

Cold Realm, a place of bone-penetrating coldness.

There was someone who had almost become an immortal here, but in the end, suffered a disaster. Great yin source scattered outwards, sealing up this small world. Even after millions of years, it was still incredibly cold.

However, life was always tenacious and hard to defeat.

Aside from the central region where snow descended over ten thousand li, ancient tribes frozen, the distant borders didn’t have any snowflakes, but the great earth there was still dry and cold. However, even under this type of environment, there were still a few plants that persistently grew.

This was a mountain range. Mountain peaks towered one after another, grand and massive.

Entering this place felt like entering a legendary era. Every single mountain peak was imposing like the cultivation place of an immortal. Unfortunately, it was just too peaceful.

This mountain range had quite a few plants, but they were all extremely strange. Some of the mountain peaks were snow-white, Snow Peaches growing there, pure white flower petals fluttering about, fragrance wafting through the air.

There were mountain peaks that were covered in gold, shining resplendently. Those were Golden Cypress Trees with exuberant vitality. They absorbed nourishment from the cold sky and frozen earth to strengthen themselves.

From the distance, this mountain range looked extremely peculiar. There were plants of all different colors, creating an incomparably strange yet beautiful scene.

Shua!

A beauty appeared, white clothes even purer than snow, fine black hair fluttering about, indescribably beautiful and striking.

Her beauty was untainted by the world of mortals, devastatingly beautiful. In her arms was a male, precisely Shi Hao. She entered this vast mountain range.

Her feet didn't touch the earth, incomparably agile and graceful as she danced over the peach blossoms, jumping on the leaves of the Golden Cypress Trees. She was incomparably pure, like something out of a fantasy.

Even while carrying a person, her exceptional figure still couldn't be concealed, as if she was a fairy born from heaven and earth, without any imperfections or impurities, separated from the ways of the world.

In the end, she arrived at the foot of a massive ancient mountain. She saw a cave left behind by a cultivator from the previous generation and then entered inside.

The passage of time could erase many things. This cave endured the baptism of several millions of years, so the traces all faded away, all of the formations already decayed, no longer existing.

The cave was extremely clean, and also orderly. There was a stone bed, and a quiet room, a good place for cultivation. The spiritual essence here was extremely rich.

The snow-clothed beauty flung out her sleeve, using a dust eliminating technique, making this place appear even more bright and clean.

In reality, the weather was cold and ground frozen, ice and snow freezing the skies, so there was almost no dust in all of Cold Realm. After all this time had passed, the cave could still be considered clean.

The white-clothed fairy randomly tossed Shi Hao to the side.

Peng!

Shi Hao frowned, his flesh colliding with the stone walls. If it was an ordinary person, this type of force would definitely break many bones and muscles. This was the toss of a deity.

"Yue Chan, I truly underestimated you!" He released a light sigh.

The snow-clothed woman laughed, her beautiful hair pitch-black, her skin snow-white, displaying an otherworldly beauty that was also bright and moving. Her smile could topple a country.

"It's been a while since we met. Brother's style has even surpassed the past." Yue Chan's smile was peaceful and moving.

"Where's Qing Yi? Suffered from your vicious methods?" Shi Hao asked.

"Yue Chan is Qing Yi, the two of us were originally one. What difference is there?" Yue Chan smiled in a quiet and contented manner as she asked.

"At the very least, Qing Yi wouldn't mount a hidden attack." Shi Hao said.

"Qing Yi has fallen. In the few years of time she has separated from me, her pure heart has been contaminated. I will change her back, becoming clear like crystal." Yue Chan smiled faintly.

While speaking, she raised her hand, continuously forming imprints. Strand after strand of light flew over, turning into strange symbols that resembled the stars in the sky before entering Shi Hao's body.

"Brother Shi, you shouldn't trouble yourself so. It is better if you take a long and proper rest."

She applied seals while speaking, symbol chains entered Shi Hao's body streak after streak. nDVe.lb)1n

In reality, while on the snowy mountain, she already added many layers of seals. Now that she was taking action again, it really was wrapping Shi Hao like a zongzi[1].

In addition, the primordial spirit was where she placed the most attention, using Heaven Mending Sect's most powerful methods to seal and thoroughly confine him.

"This is the thirty-sixth great seal. Aren't you being too careful?" Shi Hao was touching the ice-cold stone walls, not moving an inch as he said.

"For someone who has taken the final step, exceeding the ancient predecessors, someone who has cultivated a strand of immortal energy, I truly feel sincere admiration and deep respect. That is why I am treating you especially carefully." She smiled faintly like a blossoming flower.

"I'm a bit confused. How can your soul and Qing Yi's be the exact same?" Shi Hao asked.

Even though they were originally one, there were still some differences. Shi Hao had touched the main body before, and he couldn't be more familiar with Qing Yi, already understanding her quite a bit.

The main body had a few slight differences, so he could definitely sense the differences in spirit fluctuations.

No matter who it was, as long as they used soul force, displaying it towards others, then they could definitely be differentiated. Everyone was different, no such thing as completely identical creatures.

"Heaven Mending Sect has existed since the ancient times, not something as simple as you think. It is larger than your imaginations, the fact that it has some secret treasures not all that surprising."

Yue Chan had a faint smile on her face. While speaking, she produced a blue crystal that was carved into a small cauldron. This type of thing surrounded the primordial spirit, able to mimic soul fluctuations.

"It is a heaven defying wondrous treasure as expected." Shi Hao's eyes shone.

“Your realization is too late.” Yue Chan spoke, and then she brandished her leg. Her long and slender beautiful leg drew out a beautiful arc, smashing heavily against Shi Hao’s body, sending him into the air, smashing into the stone walls with a peng sound.

“Wasn’t Heaven Mending Sect’s fairy extraordinary and free from vulgarity, holy and pure? How can she be this rough?” Shi Hao said.

“Fairies have tempers as well.” Yue Chan smiled extremely sweetly, walking over step by step calmly and gracefully. She moved the beautiful hair in front of her forehead, lowering her head to look down on Shi Hao. “Capturing my second body, injuring my true self, always displaying crazy behavior and speaking nonsense, what does this small amount of suffering count as?”

Dong!

Her lotus arms were spotlessly white and sparkling. When they were brandished, Shi Hao was directly sent flying out, once again smashing into the cavern wall on the other side, producing a human shaped hole.,

Blood flowed out from Shi Hao’s lips. Soon after, he was locked down by the other party again, and then with another leg, he flew outwards.

He was originally injured from his comprehension of the dao, his body and dao almost erased by the dao flames. Right now, it was adding injuries on top of injuries, his condition terrible to the extreme.

“Can you not be so rough, be more gentle. Regardless, we’ve already paid our respects to heaven and earth, entering the bridal chambers.” Shi Hao said while leaning against the stone wall.

“Is that so? Then I’ll be a bit more gentle.” Yue Chan calmly spoke. A finger pointed out, a beam of light entering the space between Shi Hao’s brows. It looked gentle and holy, but this type of pain was unendurable. This was injuring the primordial spirit.

“Stop, even though we entered the bridal chambers, actions based on emotions should still stop within the limits of propriety! It was extremely pure and sacred, don’t misunderstand!” Shi Hao shouted.

“Misunderstanding, hehe...” Even though Yue Chan’s bearing was exceptional, beautiful to a dreamlike degree, her smile still made one feel as if there was demon attached to her.

Peng!

Shi Hao flew out again, his body dyed with blood.

“Treating me fiercely now, do you really feel content with yourself? Did you forget that in the lower realm, you were blasted into a little girl by my Reincarnation technique and then captured, spanking your bottom?”

When Yue Chan heard this, a hint of redness immediately rose on her pure white pretty face. Her eyes became as brilliant as brilliant could be, the smile on her face not decreasing at all. However, she picked Shi Hao up.

“You still dare bring up old matters. If you didn’t speak about it, I was about to forget about it!”

With a peng sound, she smashed Shi Hao into the ground, and then stepped on his body, fiercely grinding her feet. That beautiful foot wasn't that large, but as it crushed down on Shi Hao's body with unmatched divine abilities, it displayed brilliance, immediately becoming as heavy as a mountain.

Shi Hao was trampled into the ground, his vertebra releasing gezhi gezhi sounds, about to break. As for his flesh, it had long been damaged to the point of being impossible to damage further.

Peng!

In the end, he was sent flying by the elegant foot again.

"If I don't remind you, how can we make deeper impressions on each other? Regardless, there was someone that entered the bridal chambers with you, spanking you before. This type of thing has to be remembered and engraved as deeply as possible. You cannot forget about it in this lifetime." Shi Hao said.

Yue Chan's gaze became even more penetrating. She laughed coldly and said, "Good, your mouth is still hard huh? You will definitely have time to regret it."

"I've been feeling regret for a long time already! If the heavens give me another chance, let's start over in the bridal room again." Shi Hao put on an annoyed expression, and then continued, "I believe that this day will definitely come."

Chi!

Yue Chan's right hand shone. Scarlet multicolored light erupted as if an immortal phoenix was spreading its wings, releasing a wave of strange power. She pressed it against the space between his brows, and then she suddenly withdrew.

Shi Hao's body trembled, the space between his brows splitting. Strand after strand of source energy spilled out. That was the 'immortal seed' being seized outwards, about to be extracted.

This type of thing couldn't be forcefully taken, or else a single strand was enough to crush mountains and rivers, unimaginably dangerous.

Right now, even Shi Hao with his powerful flesh couldn't hold on any longer. The source energy began to revive, inflicting serious injuries upon him.

"You crazy woman, did you merge with Qing Yi? How do you know everything?!" Shi Hao's expression changed for the first time.

"YI, where is that strand of immortal energy? Why hasn't it appeared yet? Where is it hiding? If you still don't display it, then there won't be any more opportunities! I am still waiting for you to release a fatal attack against me." Yue Chan smiled extremely brilliantly.

She used the Immortal Phoenix precious technique's loose move to guide the 'immortal seed', making Shi Hao's entire body tremble, the space between his brows continuously trickle out blood. His situation was extremely terrible.

"Sigh, truly a pity. I was waiting for you to make a move this entire time, wishing to guide out that strand of immortal energy to take a look, but you really aren't cooperating. Since it's like this, then I won't give you anymore opportunities.” Yue Chan’s smile was extremely sweet, but her actions were decisive and ruthless.

Her arm shone, scarlet multicolored light filling the ancient cave, drawing out that immortal seed a bit more. Source energy seeped out, making Shi Hao’s entire body tremble greatly, his body and spirit struggling to endure this

Then, Yue Chan produced a small pagoda that released faint green radiance. It quickly entered Shi Hao’s head, drawing out the primordial spirit that should have long been restricted.

The little pagoda didn’t fly out, remaining behind Shi Hao’s forehead.

“Soul Locking Pagoda, even with your powerful divine abilities, you can still obediently accept the fate of imprisonment.” Yue Chan said calmly.

At this moment, she stopped the guidance of the immortal seed, allowing it to return into Shi Hao’s forehead. Right now, everything was under her control, so there wasn’t much to be worried about.

“If not out of fear of having the Kun Peng technique be forever lost, fearing the Lightning Emperor’s secret method’s inheritance being severed, I would have directly extracted the immortal seed.” She said coldly.

Without a doubt, once it was forcefully extracted, all of the source energy would erupt. Shi Hao’s forehead would explode, and his primordial spirit would be erased as well.

“Let’s pay our respects to heaven and earth again, I’ll give everything to you.” Shi Hao said while leaning against a piece of bluestone.

“Things have already reached this state, yet you are still trying to incite me, haha... no matter what kind of methods you have, it’s all too late!” Yue Chan said coldly.

1. Chinese sticky rice wrapped within leaves

Chapter 916 - Immortal Twins n.-OvellIn

“I am just asserting a fact.” Shi Hao reclined there as he calmly said.

His current attitude left Yue Chan feeling extremely bewildered and uncertain. She carefully inspected him, but didn’t detect any abnormalities from his body. She was sure that he was just purposely humiliating her.

“Hahaha...” Yue Chan laughed, her voice sharp and clear, as well as extremely cold. “From how much time has passed, I reckon that she should be here soon. Let’s give her a pleasant surprise.”

When he heard this, the radiance in Shi Hao’s eyes flashed. He inwardly let out a breath of relief. He was finally certain that Qing Yi was fine, that the two didn’t merge together.

Yue Chan produced another magical artifact in an unhurried manner, a divine chain. She directly activated it, wrapping it around Shi Hao’s body.

This object’s name was Dragon Chain, known as something that could even bind dragons, impossible to struggle free from. Right now, it entered Shi Hao’s body, preventing him from acting out.

"I was originally going to save it for Qing Yi, but I have no choice but to use it on you first." Yue Chan said to herself.

Soul Locking Pagoda, Dragon Chain, these were both well-known secret treasures, shocking and extraordinary. Now, they were both used, locking down the body and mind, and only now did Yue Chan completely relax, not believing that he could stir up anything else.

"Should greet Qing Yi now."

Her primordial spirit shone, multicolored light glistening brightly. A small person flew out from between her brows that looked the same as her, vivid and lifelike, beautiful and aloof.

"Are you going to send your spirit into someone else's body, wanting to experience the feeling of being male?" Shi Hao ridiculed.

"You should just obediently display your remaining worth! Keep going until there's nothing left!" Yue Chan coldly replied, similarly provoking the male before her.

Sou!

She directly entered the space between Shi Hao's brows. There was no need to feel any fear right now, because she had long added several dozen heavy seals. Just the Soul Locking Pagoda she added later on alone was enough to suppress Shi Hao's primordial spirit.

"Wu, even though this body has been injured to the point of collapse, it is still so strong. However, I should loosen up the Dragon Chain a bit, or else you'll be caught in your own trap you know." Shi Hao spoke, his words quite strange.

It was clear that Yue Chan had occupied his body. It was her that was talking.

"How is it? This kind of sturdy body is giving you a unique experience, right? Do you feel the urge to take a bath, to relieve yourself, experience something different?" Shi Hao's voice sounded.

Yue Chan became petrified!

She never met this kind of 'expert'. This was someone who looked down on the crowd and overlooked his peers. However, the words he spoke... really made it difficult for others to assess him.

"Men and women really are different. You don't even want to give it a try?" Shi Hao continued to urge her on.

"You shameless, absolutely disgraceful being, hateful, deserve death!" Yue Chan berated, dark lines covering her forehead. She really wanted to kill him with a slap. This was the first time she lost her cool like this.

Immediately afterwards, she had Shi Hao close his mouth, preventing him from speaking further, completely assuming control over his body.

"Wu, just waiting for Qing Yi to arrive now." Yue Chan smiled.

Everything was already put in order within the cave. The mountain range was full of battle traces, displaying the current situation where both of them looked like they suffered serious injuries.

“Defeated while comprehending the dao, almost having body and dao erased, yet still wish to fight decisively against me. This type of illusion, is it a bit much?” Yue Chan frowned, and then she redid the battlefield traces.

“Soul Locking Pagoda, seal!” Yue Chan shouted.

“You are?!” Shi Hao was shocked. He discovered that the faint green little pagoda that sealed his primordial spirit became even more shocking. Stars appeared on it, covering its surroundings densely, suppressing and sealing his primordial spirit.

“I am the only one that can undo it, others will not be able to move it. Just wait for me to successfully capture Qing Yi.” Yue Chan said.

Then, this place became completely peaceful.

In the ice and snow, the little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone were stupefied. Where was Shi Hao? Why did he disappear?

Just now, Shi Hao’s aura was clearly weak, failing in comprehending the dao, so why did he suddenly disappear with Qing Yi? They should be treating their injuries and recovering.

“Not good!”

The little rabbit and the Divine Striking Stone cried out at the same time. Their reactions were swift, immediately realizing what was happening.

“That was Yue Chan?!”

“Fuck, that deceitful hag is too daring, actually making her way here!”

They couldn’t help but cry out. That was clearly Yue Chan. Previously, she was just looking here, waiting for an opportunity, not expecting that something wrong really would happen to Shi Hao.

Shua!

Suddenly, white clothes fluttered about. A beautiful figure appeared, descending in the snowy mountains.

“Kill!”

The Divine Striking Stone rushed out, his eyes becoming just as red as the little rabbit’s.

“Stop, I am Qing Yi. Did something happen to Shi Hao?” The one that came shouted. She already sensed that something was off.

“Liar!” The Divine Striking Stone berated.

Qing Yi didn’t move, not evading, allowing the Divine Striking Stone to come at her.

“It really is you? Ah ah ah, just now, that bitch fooled us bad!” The Divine Striking Stone cried out angrily.

"Older sis Qing Yi, is it really you?" The little rabbit rushed over, clenching her fists and grinding her teeth. Being tricked made her really angry.

"Hurry and save him! Shi Hao is in danger!" The Divine Striking Stone said.

"Right, hurry and chase after her!" The little rabbit shouted.

"Don't be in such a rush." Qing Yi calmed herself down, and then said, "Shi Hao won't be in danger right now. Her target is me, so she still wants to use this to trap me."

The more she spoke, the more cool-headed she became. She carefully thought things through, analyzing the situation to avoid directly entering a trap.

"How did she know that we are here?" The little rabbit said.

"I fought with her, and not long ago, we merged for a short period of time..." Qing Yi said.

In that instant, both of them learned of many secrets about the other party. The two of them were not ordinary. Even though they were of common origin, when they reached their current cultivation realm, they could seal themselves, not being sensed by the other party. However, at that moment, it was difficult to hide anything, thus a few matters were learned by the other party.

When they separated, the two of them were injured, both of them withdrawing.

Qing Yi wanted to see Shi Hao immediately, but along the way, she discovered that Yue Chan seemed to be rushing for Formation Realm, her target the little fatty.

"I was fooled. She used a bit of her soul force to trick me into making a pointless trip. Even though I realized what was happening, I was still a step late." She said with a sigh.

"Too hateful!" The little rabbit was furious, but she found it difficult to curse. After all, that crafty Yue Chan was the other side of Qing Yi.

"I presume that when I appear, she will definitely have prepared a great gift for me." Qing Yi calmly said.

Then, she took to the sky, rushing towards a specific direction.

"Older sis Qing Yi, we'll go with you!"

"No, the final result will definitely be a battle of the soul. I will merge with her, so if you two are there, will you be able to take action against the merged body? You two will likely be exploited by her as well, and then used to threaten me." Qing Yi rejected.

She quickly left, disappearing.

"We... will follow behind and slowly advance, prepare to provide support. However, we shouldn't get too close." The Divine Striking Stone said.

Qing Yi and Yue Chan's main body had the same origin, so there was a strange connection between them that allowed them to sense each other's whereabouts.

Originally, when they were within a set distance, they would even learn of everything from the other's mind. Only, as their cultivation realms became more profound, they were able to close off themselves from each other.

However, the connection between their bodies still existed. Of course, they had to use a lot of time to carefully sense it.

Qing Yi arrived. She looked at this enormous mountain range, the Snow Peaches and Golden Cypress Trees everywhere making this place extremely brilliant. In Cold Realm, it really was a scenery that was beautiful to the extreme.

When she saw the battlefield traces in the mountain range, she frowned. Could it be that Shi Hao broke free from the trap?

Hong!

Loud sounds could be heard. They were still fighting, but the power was much weaker.

Qing Yi didn't have a choice. She could only rush into the mountain range's innermost depths. She saw two people within an ancient cave, the two confronting each other, both of them seriously injured.

This was especially the case with Shi Hao. He was already in a terrible state after comprehending the dao, but now, he was injured beyond belief, on the verge of collapse.

"Qing Yi, you finally came! I'll leave it to you!" Shi Hao said, walking backwards. He then sat on the ground, breathing heavily, about to go unconscious at any moment.

Qing Yi stared at Yue Chan in the battlefield, closing in step by step. "Your calculations failed, the captive broke free?"

Yue Chan's expression was unpleasant, turning around to leave. She produced a Space Shattering Symbol, not staying behind for a second.

"Where do you think you're going?" Qing Yi lightly berated, turning into a streak of light and chasing after her.

The Shi Hao sitting on the ground revealed a strange smile from the corners of his lips. He suddenly acted out, attacking towards Yue Chan's back.

"I knew there was something wrong with you. Yue Chan's soul force wasn't that strong when she escaped, already foresaw that you would be caught off guard!" Qing Yi didn't turn around. An earthen-colored sealing diagram suddenly appeared behind her, and then she quickly rushed backwards, perfectly facing the incoming Shi Hao.

Yue Chan's primordial spirit that was inside Shi Hao's body was shocked.

Shi Hao himself was similarly shocked, inwardly crying out, "Qing Yi, can you not always be so smart? Seeing through things so quickly, can't you give me a bit of time here?"

It was because at this moment, he also took action. The hibernating immortal energy guided an expanse of fiery light that flooded outwards, engulfing towards his primordial spirit to suppress and kill Yue Chan.

These were the remnant flames of the ten thousand dao that were ignited when he cultivated on the snowy peak. It remained in his body.

At first, it didn't obey his control at all. He continuously communicated with it, and only at this moment did he have some kind of reaction. However, right at this moment, Yue Chan's attack on Qing Yi started.

This flame was extremely overbearing, possessing the aura of ten thousand dao. If not for the mysterious flame hibernating in his body, this remnant flame would have definitely risen in revolt, becoming incomparably terrifying.

That mysterious flame that accompanied the Three World Coffin didn't obey Shi Hao's control, or else it would be a terrifying killing weapon.

This was the flame that was left behind when he was comprehending the dao, hibernating together with that mysterious flame, avoiding Yue Chan's earlier inspection.

Hong!

The remaining flame swept outwards, not being controlled by his primordial spirit, nor guided by his flesh, completely activated by that strand of immortal energy. It rushed at the primordial spirit in his body.

The yellow paper outside also flew over.

Pu!

Shi Hao's body trembled violently, unable to move out of the way. That golden paper was mysterious and unfathomable, breaking through all obstructions, sticking to his body and carrying out a seal.

He was extremely speechless. A wave of powerful force poured into his body, making that remnant flame escape his control.

Meanwhile, Yue Chan's primordial spirit was incomparably decisive, rushing out from his forehead, not hesitating to use a secret treasure in order to break free from the earthen paper seal.

"Bitch, where do you think you are going?!" Shi Hao flipped out. He had already waited for an extremely long time, now finally communicating with that remnant flame, so how could he just watch as she escaped, failing at the last step?

At the same time, the earthen symbol paper shone as well, dealing with Shi Hao's fiery light while suppressing Yue Chan's primordial spirit.

"What a pity, both of these forces are extremely powerful, and if any of them landed on her, she would definitely be crippled!" Shi Hao howled inwardly. He never expected Qing Yi to be so sharp, taking the initiative to rush at him, colliding with the attack he released with such difficulty.

Yue Chan cried out in pain. She suffered a disaster, freeing herself from Shi Hao's forehead, not dying.

"Where are you going?!" Qing Yi chased after her, suppressing the injured primordial spirit.

Suddenly, Shi Hao's expression changed. When Yue Chan's primordial spirit left his body, even though his primordial spirit and other things were refined, he could still move slightly. He released a weak divine sense voice.

"Care...ful."

In the rear, Yue Chan's true body actually turned around in reverse, attacking from the void, rushing at Qing Yi's back. In addition, the space between her brows shone brilliantly, clearly possessing powerful soul force fluctuations.

Even though Qing Yi's reaction speed was fine, she still suffered an attack!

She coughed out large amounts of blood, flying outwards.

"Hahaha..." Yue Chan laughed softly, standing there. As for the wounded 'primordial spirit' that rushed out from Shi Hao's brows, it entered her own body.

"The legendary Primordial Spirit Mirror Image Technique, you... actually refined it?" Qing Yi was shocked.

"Correct, barely able to display it once." Yue Chan nodded.

Her flesh still possessed powerful soul force, the earlier weakness feigned. Her true primordial spirit hadn't completely left, and the primordial spirit in Shi Hao's flesh was just the Primordial Spirit Mirror Image's embodiment, able to temporarily display the true power of her primordial spirit.

"Fucking bitch!" Shi Hao cursed. Even he thought that what entered his body was Yue Chan's primordial spirit, let alone Qing Yi who didn't know about the situation, so she was naturally fooled.

"Qing Yi, with such heavy injuries, are you still going to try and run? There will be no chances left anymore." Yue Chan smiled faintly, her white clothes perfect, appearance unmatched. Everything was now under her control.

Qing Yi wiped away the blood from the corners of her lips. Her snow white clothes fluttering about, just as beautiful as the one on the other side. She didn't say anything. She knew that things were now extremely troublesome!

Chi!

Suddenly, the space between Shi Hao's brows shone. Blood trickled outwards. The immortal seed was rushing out, its speed too fast. A strand of immortal energy curled about it, turning into a streak of flowing light and then smashing towards Yue Chan!

"En?!" Her expression immediately changed.

Outside the immortal seed, there was endless source energy, and at this moment, a large amount had been activated, every single strand enough to collapse an expanse of mountains and rivers, powerful to an unimaginable degree.

Yue Chan directly hacked apart the void, turning around to leave. This immortal seed was too terrifying, if she were to face it head on, she would definitely suffer greatly, crushed under its weight.

However, all of the source energy surged, crushing the void. Yue Chan who fled inside was also forced out, suffering terrifyingly injuries. She flew upwards, large mouthfuls of blood coming out from her mouth, dyeing her snow colored clothes red.

The Immortal seed smashed into the mountain region depths, producing a black hole.

This unforeseen change came extremely abruptly. Yue Chan never thought that Shi Hao would still be able to display this kind of attack.

“Qing Yi, I’ll have to hand things over to you now.” Shi Hao transmitted with difficulty. His final trump card was now used. The space between his brows split apart, no longer possessing any more strength.

Activating the immortal seed was too difficult. When attacking the enemy, he had to seriously injure himself first!

Qing Yi rushed forward to pursue Yue Chan, but the latter unexpectedly didn’t escape, rushing over as well, saying, “Then let’s just completely settle things!”

With a shua sound, the two of them merged together, becoming one. They still had that exceptional appearance, and at this moment, the space between their brows shone, soul force surging, carrying out a great battle there.

“You... actually have the legendary Soul Nurturing Bottle?”

“That is... Deity Beheading Sword?”

...

The two fought intensely. This was a battle of primordial spirits. They clearly both hid divine objects, now brought out in the final battle.

After who knew how much time had passed, that body quieted down quite a bit, the space between their brows blossoming with auspicious multicolored light, releasing Yue Chan’s voice.

“Qing Yi, I am the main body, so I naturally have the superiority. You should just acknowledge allegiance!”

What she received in response was only a cold snort.

“Accept suppression then!” Yue Chan said, calming down quite a bit. She had quite a bit of confidence.

Suddenly, their perfect body shone, clothes burning, revealing their snow-white immortal bodies.

With a shua sound, Shi Hao was brought over, moved over by the sparkling flesh to their body.

“Qing Yi, what are you trying to do? Do you think that this can upset me, making me give up?” Yue Chan shouted.

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao made intimate contact with that incomparably wonderful body.

Yue Chan screamed out, "Qing Yi, you've become corrupted, actually so despicable, you... do you think that I will concede and withdraw?"

Peng!

Shi Hao was flung onto the ground, clearly the result of Yue Chan displaying might.

However, immediately afterwards, that snow-white body approached once again. The two of them made contact, almost within reach. This could be considered quite intimate as well.

"It hurts, be a bit more gentle!"

A cry of pain sounded.

This lowly voice was clearly something Shi Hao did everything he could to release, purposely to deal with Yue Chan, provoking her.

Chapter 917 - Immortal Qing Yue[ref]Qing = Green, Yue = Moon[/ref]

Aya...

Yue Chan cried out purely out of anger. She had never experienced this type of thing before. Shi Hao was truly too hateful! That type of voice truly was lowly.

Even though nothing much happened between the two, his skin was still so thick, purposely provoking her, speaking in such a vulgar manner, making her face flush with anger. Yue Chan was unbearably angered.

From the past until now, when Yue Chan walked in this world, she was known as a fairy, white clothes exceptional, who had ever treated her like this before? Even the most outstanding disciples from every sect who showed admiration would act with utmost respect.

Peng!

She was angered to the extreme. She temporarily controlled her body, her long and slender legs becoming perfectly straight, the sparkling whiteness carrying a type of moving luster. When it moved, Shi Hao was fiercely swept flying.

"Aiyou, masculine lady, don't be so rough!" Shi Hao's mouth was extremely lowly. After suffering this heavy blow, he didn't change his tone, still provoking her, angering Yue Chan.

It was because the other party was carrying out a great battle of the primordial spirit, power at a spiritual level. Any bit of emotion would affect its might.

Otherwise, why would Qing Yi do this, burning away the white clothes? It was all to provoke Yue Chan, hoping to ruin her mood, making her feel fear, and thus cause great chaos in her mind.

"Masculine lady?!" Yue Chan's beautiful brows jumped, truly wishing she could give him a beating, trample him into mush with a single step! This was the first time someone used this type of term to describe her. n-0VE#B1n

In front of everyone in the world, she was a sacred fairy, a holy being. No matter where one went in the higher realms' three thousand provinces, there would definitely be people who thought of her this way.

"Hey, buff fella, let's become sworn brothers. We're clearly kindred spirits. I'll be the big bro, and you can be number two!" Shi Hao leaned against the cave's wall, blood flowing from the corner of his lips, enthusiastically 'connecting' with her.

It was as intolerable as it could get, simply impossible to endure!

Yue Chan was truly angered badly, hating him so bad that she didn't want to directly kill him, but instead after capturing him, slowly tidying him up, letting him suffer viciously for a long time.

Of course, she wasn't an ordinary person. Even though she felt rage, she could still control it, let alone the fact that she was in a life and death battle situation.

She rushed over again, her naked lotus arm white and glowing, drawing out an expanse of light as it struck over.

Peng!

However, her other arm raised upwards, similarly dazzling, stopping her own attack, obstructing this attack aimed at Shi Hao.

It was clear that this was Qing Yi that was taking action.

How could she let the opportunity go? She understood Yue Chan well, and as such, her soul decisively took action while Yue Chan's mind was affected.

Shi Hao was creating opportunities for her, and she herself was fighting hard.

It was because they were originally one, so no one understood better than Qing Yi how arrogant Yue Chan was, always incredibly pure. She had a terrifying obsession with cleanliness, someone who wouldn't tolerate the slightest bit of profanity.

Now that there was this type of 'openness', Yue Chan definitely couldn't take it, feeling great resentment inside.

Meanwhile, this was precisely Qing Yi's opportunity. She was the second body, inherently inferior, so she used this to strategically seize the initiative, using it to recover some lost ground and suppress Yue Chan.

Shi Hao was trying to neutralize his own body's critical situation, hoping to undo the seal.

Chi!

Up ahead, that snow-white body shone, especially the space between her brows, forming mysterious symbols. The two imprints intertwined, producing golden patterns that were profound and mysterious, the radiance astonishing.

It was clear that their great battle had reached its climax!

Weng!

The gold symbols trembled, releasing heaven reaching radiance. The void distorted, continuously splitting apart, producing terrifying black-colored cracks.

It was a wave of pure and terrifying soul force. The power dormant within their sea of consciousness was stirred on, reviving at this time, now participating.

Back then, Shi Hao had seen a golden-colored gate in the depths of Qing Yi's consciousness. There was a slumbering divine awareness power that was extremely mysterious and powerful.

Now, this type of power awakened, flowing out through the enormous golden gate, separately nourishing their primordial spirit, making the battle more and more terrifying.

Vaguely, from behind the golden gate inside the sea of consciousness, an indistinct woman gradually appeared. Golden light surged, resplendent light erupting into the heavens.

This wave of power was extremely terrifying, produced purely from soul force. She simultaneously supported Yue Chan and Qing Yi's opposition, producing two streaks of light, granting them mysterious force.

The entire sea of consciousness immediately erupted with endless radiance, shining from the space between the perfect body's brows, appearing more and more holy.

At the same time, the Green Lunar Flame slumbering within her body was immediately attracted over, unexpectedly resonating with that wave of soul force. It was incomparably gentle, divine and noble.

Green radiance erupted, forming a ring of light, surrounding that perfect jade body like a divine moon, illuminating the fairy within.

This type of marvel was incomparably beautiful.

Shi Hao was deeply shocked, finding it a bit hard to believe. Even though he was sealed, he still saw that astonishing scene.

It was because Yue Chan's forehead and sea of consciousness were incomparably brilliant, vaguely displaying what was currently happening.

Her spotlessly white frontal bone became transparent, the golden gate within the sea of consciousness open. A mysterious power guided the Green Lunar Flame, the two interacting, continuously resonating, intertwining together.

Since the ancient times, few people were fortunate enough to obtain an unmatched ancient flame left behind after a true immortal fell, and even then, they only used it to break through, entering the Divine Flame Realm. The flame itself would depart afterwards.

However, Qing Yi was extremely special. The Green Lunar Flame didn't leave her, following her. Now, this type of change even happened.

This flame seemed to be innately intimate with her, staying with her, and now, it even resonated with the sleeping beauty behind the golden gate in her sea of consciousness, producing this miraculous scene.

Of course, it was precisely because of this that Yue Chan was surrounded, also acknowledged, accepting nourishment, obtaining tremendous benefits.

It was because the Green Lunar Flame acknowledged the soul force. As Qing Yi and Yue Chan were from the same source, originally one to begin with, they were both nourished by the mysterious rain of light scattered down by the green divine moon.

“Is it... going to transform?”

Shi Hao was shocked. Right now, it was already no longer an issue of the two merging. The soul force within the depths of their consciousness was reviving, joining in. Meanwhile, the immortal seed Fairy Qing Yue left behind from the last great era moved as well, joining in. No one knew what was going to happen.

“Qing Yue, Qing Yi, Yue Chan, the woman sleeping behind the golden gate... could it be that there really is some reincarnation imprint?”

Shi Hao frowned. He didn’t believe in reincarnation, but he felt that perhaps someone really could leave behind some type of astonishing revival method.

When he thought of this, he broke out into a cold shiver.

“Hey, masculine lady, what kind of relationship do you have with the exceptional Immortal Qing Yue from the last great era? Don’t tell me that you were... her slave servant?” Shi Hao purposely mocked, once again trying to ‘provoke’ Yue Chan.

“Masculine lady...” Yue Chan grinded her teeth. Her beauty was unmatched, known to be beautiful enough to topple the world. There was no way she would be described by those two words!

Even though she knew that the other party was clearly trying to anger her, she still couldn’t take it. With a peng sound, she took action again, sending Shi Hao flying, smashing into a stone wall.

Qing Yi naturally tried to stop her, neutralizing a great portion of the power.

Despite this being the case, Shi Hao still grimaced in pain, enduring the enormous and terrifying power. If it was any other Divine Flame Realm expert, they would have definitely turned into a bloody paste.

His flesh was incomparable. He went through a heavenly tribulation and even cultivated a strand of immortal energy. That was why even though he had long suffered serious injuries, he still didn’t break apart on the spot.

Weng!

The void trembled lightly, shaking intensely.

Upon close inspection, one would discover that the imprint between Yue Chan’s brows was becoming more and more gentle and holy, making her look like the goddess of the moon.

“This is...” Shi Hao’s mind was greatly shaken.

Qing Yi and Yue Chan were fighting an intense battle in the space between their brows. Soul force merged, the mysterious woman behind the enormous golden gates within the sea of consciousness was reviving. The Green Lunar Flame was also merging inside, displaying astonishing changes.

A strand of immortal energy was currently forming!

“Green Lunar Flame, it’s the power of Qing Yue!” Shi Hao sucked in a breath of cold air. It was that green moonlight that was resonating with them, producing immortal energy.

How could this be? It left him shaken.

In the past, he had never heard of an ancient flame helping one cultivate immortal energy. In the end, they would choose to leave, never staying behind for even a moment longer.

Even though everyone knew that the true flame left behind from Immortal Ancient was an immortal seed, something left over from an unmatched true immortal in the past, an invaluable immortal treasure that was difficult to find throughout the world, no one was able to use it.

And now, this flame, the immortal seed left behind by the fairy that was most widely known from the last great era, unexpectedly taking the initiative to help Yue Chan and Qing Yi change, this... was inconceivable.

The most shocking thing was that the green moon and their soul force were pulsing at the same rhythm, shockingly harmonious without the slightest bit of sluggishness, merging together as if that was the way it should be to begin with.

That strand of immortal energy became more and more real, gradually appearing. It was snow white and mysterious, producing astonishing immortal dao energy!

“Just like this... the step was taken?” Shi Hao was stupefied.

Between Qing Yi and Yue Chan’s brows, the soul force was astonishing, far surpassing all those of the same cultivation realm. That type of force surged like a golden sea, incomparably grand and powerful.

The green moon was hazy, scattering out moonlight, making that unmatched snow white body more and more holy, as well as incredibly moving, beautiful to the extent where one couldn’t even properly describe it.

Yue Chan and Qing Yi’s fine black hair danced about, their appearance exceptional, beautiful eyes containing spiritual energy, body spotlessly white and refined, waist small, legs long and slender.

This was a truly moving scene. An exceptional fairy was releasing immortal dao radiance, the aura astonishing. That strand of immortal energy became more and more compact, truly appearing.

The green moon was brilliant as it suspended above, wrapping around this wonderful body, scattering down moonlight.

Shi Hao was shocked. The other party cultivated immortal energy. That green moon was too astonishing!

At this time, Qing Yi and Yue Chan's intense battle also reached its final point. The victor, the one that would take command, would completely erase the other's existence.

"Qing Yi, you aren't my opponent. I am the main body!" Yue Chan shouted.

Things weren't looking good... this was what Shi Hao thought, feeling startled. If Qing Yi were to lose, his end would definitely be miserable. He immediately shouted, "Hey, masculine lady, come at me!"

Peng!

That green moon really did descend, smashing into his body.

"Aiyou, buff lady, please be more gentle!" He cried out in pain.

At the same time, the clothes on his body were ignited, soon becoming like the fairy at his side, without an inch of clothing. His powerful body was completely exposed.

"What are you trying to do? I won't yield!" Shi Hao cried out, clearly trying to provoke and incite Yue Chan.

"I'm going to burn you to ashes!" Yue Chan shouted.

The green moon crushed downwards, moonlight turning into flames that could burn through everything.

However, at this time, the inside of Shi Hao's body shone as well. That mysterious flame finally reappeared, forcing back the green moon's radiance, greatly alarming Yue Chan.

Qing Yi seized the opportunity to attack fiercely. Yue Chan blocked it with great difficulty.

Peng!

The two of them tangled together, their ivory like immortal body landing on Shi Hao's.

At this moment, neither of them had clothes on, so this was truly intimate contact.

"Ah, it hurts so much. Buff lady, why are you so heavy, you are crushing me to death!"

At this time, Yue Chan and Qing Yi were at the most critical point. Even though she was angry, she still completely ignored this. She was going to capture Qing Yi in one go.

Peng!

Suddenly, a jade arm wrapped around Shi Hao, moving around his neck, intimately making contact.

"Ah, Yue Chan, what are you doing? I firmly refuse, hurry and release me!" Shi Hao shouted loudly.

Yue Chan's fine jadelike arm was about to become crooked from anger, feeling incomparable shame and humiliation. She screamed out, "Qing Yi, you... what you doing?!"

Shi Hao shouted loudly, "Nonsense, Yue Chan, you can forget about trying to lie through this! It's clearly you! Me and Qing Yi have both already been husband and wife for a long time. You are too lecherous, actually want to rape me. Buff woman, get off me!"

“Absolute nonsense!” Yue Chan screamed, using her soul to attack Qing Yi berating, “Qing Yi, you’re mad! You’re playing with fire!”

“Yue Chan, buff woman, I was mistaken about you! Actually trying to rape me, I would rather die than submit!” Shi Hao shouted.

Yue Chan was simply about to go mad. While fighting a great battle, she had to endure that shameless noise. What made her feel the worst was that she had no way of dispelling the other party’s flame, so it completely forced back the green moon’s radiance.

Peng!

Shi Hao was knocked over, suffering a heavy blow. However, that body also pressed downwards.

Even though he could only slightly move, he didn’t let go of this opportunity. He faced the snow white and sparkling body that was pressing down on him, opening his mouth and biting down.

In addition, he mumbled ambiguously, “I won’t submit to you!”

“Qing Yi, you dare act crazily, both of us will be destroyed indiscriminately!” Yue Chan screamed out. The feeling that was transmitted from her body made her feel like she was going mad.

However, Qing Yi remained unmoved. For the sake of defeating her so that she wasn’t erased by the innately superior main body, she did everything she could to resist.

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao was dumbstruck.

Yue Chan was also stupefied. She struggled about, releasing a cry of alarm.

“Qing Yi, you’re crazy! You’re playing with fire!”

Chapter 918 - Collapse of the Masculine Lady

“Yue Chan, you actually... bit me! You really are too unreserved!” Shi Hao released a heart tearing lung splitting scream as if he was extremely miserable. “Masculine lady, I am going to resist you to the end. Even if you bite me, I still won’t yield!” He cried out strangely.

Yue Chan was shocked, because Qing Yi temporarily controlled her flesh, unexpectedly behaving intimately with this shameless bastard. She was like a cat that had her tail stepped on, all of her fine hairs standing on end.

“Ah ah ah...” Yue Chan screamed, frantically trying to seize control of the body. However, because of this, she suffered a soul attack, immediately becoming at a disadvantage.

“Qing Yi, I am going to erase your imprint, destroy your everything!” Yue Chan was furious. As an aloof fairy, forget about her lips and teeth touching a man, she had never even experienced skin contact. For someone who had an obsession with purity and didn’t tolerate profanity, this was even more uncomfortable than death.

“Pei!”

After temporarily assuming control over the body, she truly wanted to smash her face into the ocean to wash her lips and teeth. However, no matter how vast the sea was, it still couldn't clean her mouth. It drove her mad.

"Hey, Buff Lady Yue Chan, how can you just spit anywhere you want?" Shi Hao shouted.

Yue Chan felt like when she won in a bit, successfully merging with Qing Yi, she definitely couldn't kill this bastard. That would be letting him go too easily. Instead, she had to use the cruelest methods to punish him.

Shi Hao grimaced his teeth in pain, and then he provoked once again, "Yue Chan, take back the saliva you left in my mouth too! Otherwise, the grudge between us won't be settled!"

The corners of Yue Chan's eyes were twitching. Faint blue veins vaguely appeared, truly couldn't stand him anymore. How could there be this type of person in existence?

This shameless bastard who lacked all virtue and elegance was just too hateful!

Chop him into eight pieces, lighting up a sky lantern, hot pillar torture, and then ten thousand cuts... at this moment, Yue Chan could only think about all types of torture, truly wishing to use all of them on this person's body.

"Hey, buff lady, stop being all silent. Do you think that you can muddle your way through just by staying silent? You took advantage of me! This debt has to be fully settled!"

Hong!

Yue Chan slapped down towards him, wishing to make his mouth burst. This bastard's mouth was too lowly, deserving to be completely destroyed!

A green moon appeared around her body, subsequently moving downwards. However, it incited the reaction of the flame within Shi Hao's body, forcing it back.

Her strike also gave Qing Yi an opportunity. She took action with full force.

A strand of immortal energy pervaded the air, curling around their body. White colored immortal dao mist curled about the glowing body, astonishing and mysterious.

"This is the end!"

Yue Chan released a low shout. She ignored everything, temporarily forgetting all that happened, frantically attacking at Qing Yi's imprint, wishing to merge her into her own origin.

"Don't be like this!" Shi Hao shouted.

This body temporarily lost control, laying on Shi Hao's body, making him feel a type of suffocation. The first was because the Green Lunar Flame was burning right in front of his flesh, making him feel a type of uneasiness, his fine hairs all standing on end, fearing that the mysterious flame within his body might not be able to save him in time. The second reason was because the white body was fine and wonderful, curves rising and falling, sparkling and shining, carrying a delicate fragrance. Touching so intimately truly was a bit too much.

“Yue Chan, hurry up and move, or else... I’m going to stake it all against you!” Shi Hao shouted.

Then, he took action! n-/o/(V-E).l//B/l()n

To be more precise, he bit down, biting her snow white neck, feeling a wave of smoothness, as well as smelling a sweet fragrance.

Immediately afterwards, he felt a layer of goosebumps appear on Yue Chan’s neck, her body shaking, face becoming red. She was angered to the limit.

A wave of tremendous power moved towards him, about to kill him.

“So heavy, you are going to crush me to death! Yue Chan, buff woman, you should lose some weight!” He shouted noisily.

It was clear that the other party didn’t purposely try to deal with him. This was the critical moment, so it was just an instinctive clenching of her body, releasing radiance to blast him to death.

Fortunately, Qing Yi sensed something, stopping this attack.

Moreover, Shi Hao’s body was also powerful enough, unbreakable and difficult to destroy.

Since this is the case, you’re taking action against me, I am also going to... declare war!” Shi Hao cried out, doing everything he could to bite down, changing to another place.

Si!

This time, he bit down on her delicate and fine face. He couldn’t move freely about, to the extent where he almost couldn’t move, only barely able to move his head. As such the areas he could choose from were few.

Yue Chan wasn’t the only one whose hair stood up in anger, even Qing Yi trembled. This fella really knew how to talk, not just spewing empty words, biting quite fiercely.

Between his lips and teeth was a strand of immortal energy. Even though he couldn’t use immortal energy, this was still enough, leaving behind a row of teeth marks on that fine jade like perfect face.

Yue Chan felt as if her lungs were about to explode. Was there still heavenly reason? She was actually bitten by the most shameful scoundrel, moreover on her sparkling cheek.

“Aiyou, Qing Yi, it doesn’t hurt right? I bit down a bit too heavily. Don’t mind it, I will watch myself next time.”

“Yue Chan, buff woman, do you feel like I am too gentle? Please don’t be too polite with me. I was just returning the saliva from before.”

Shi Hao spoke smugly, treating them differently. Moreover, with a smack with his lips, he bit down again, leaving behind a bit of saliva.

Huang! You fucking bastard! Yue Chan was truly about to go crazy, almost swearing out loud.

To anger this graceful, noble, holy, dignified, otherworldly fairy to this extent, Shi Hao really was the first.

For Yue Chan, this type of feeling was just too terrible, the first time in her life feeling like she was about to collapse. She had never been touched by a man, yet today, not only did she face the other party with her naked self, she even made contact at such a close distance, moreover... she was bitten, his saliva still on her!

Her sparkling skin flickered, multicolored light swirling. Her snow-white body became taut, her throat feeling sore. Because of her obsession with cleanliness, she couldn't help but feel like retching.

"Ayaya, Yue Chan, you actually dare discriminate against me, wanting to vomit, this is angering me to death! You left your saliva in my mouth, yet I didn't even settle things with you. All I did was leave a bit on your cheek! I... am going to stake it all against you!" Shi Hao shouted as if he was annoyed to the extreme.

Then, he grinded his teeth, releasing brilliant white radiance, his mouth biting over again.

"Saliva, saliva!" Yue Chan's soul was screaming, almost on the verge of collapse. Shi Hao's saliva finally entered her mouth. She absolutely could not tolerate this!

At this moment, her beautiful body suddenly arched back, and then did everything she could to take action, attacking Shi Hao, blasting him flying.

At this moment, Shi Hao's strand of immortal energy displayed its use. Even though he was restricted, unable to participate in the battle, it could still protect his body.

Otherwise, he would definitely be in danger.

Despite this being the case, he was blasted until his blood and qi roiled, flying outwards and smashing against the cavern wall, the intense pain nearly unendurable.

"Masculine woman, it really is hard for you to change your nature. Too barbaric!" Shi Hao said through clenched teeth.

For the sake of this attack, she paid quite the price. In the battle against Qing Yi, she immediately fell to the disadvantage.

She originally occupied the initiative. The situation was now not looking favorable.

"I won't be defeated, because I am the main body. I inherently have the ability to subdue you!"

There wasn't much time left. She quickly calmed down, doing everything she could to make her soul shine, becoming resplendent like a sun, surrounding Qing Yi.

It was the same on the other side. Qing Yi's soul surged like a bright moon rising into the sky, a rain of light following it. Soul force surged, suppressing Yue Chan.

This battle was about to reach its conclusion.

Qing Yi was still the second body in the end, and even from her title, one could see that she had an inherent weakness. Strictly speaking, she had no way of resisting the main body. Being able to fight to this extent was already quite respectable, incredibly shocking.

"Haha... it finally ended. Qing Yi, you've lost!" Yue Chan laughed coldly, the expression on her face noble and elegant.

Not far out, Shi Hao felt anxious, but here was no way to for him to offer help.

The two figures in the sea of consciousness intertwined, almost indistinguishable. Even if Shi Hao could move, he didn't have any way of settling this.

Suddenly, Yue Chan's body went rigid. Qing Yi unexpectedly temporarily gave up the battle between her brows, directly seizing control of the body, and then moving towards Shi Hao.

"Qing Yi, you dare! You cannot do this!" Yue Chan shouted angrily, her face becoming pale. She was now truly worried.

"Why wouldn't I dare? I am about to go out of existence, my imprint about to vanish, so you think I'll still worry about your pureness, give consideration to your future?" Qing Yi said.

"We can talk things over! Stop!" Yue Chan berated.

"We've already reached this point, you think I'll believe you?" Qing Yi laughed, her beauty enough to topple a country. She didn't stop.

"Hey, have you guys considered my feelings? The glorious future Heavenly Emperor is actually being manipulated by you two!" Shi Hao shouted.

Soon after, he couldn't say anything, his breathing becoming heavy. It was because a perfect sparkling white, ivory body already leaned over, touching him. It was incomparably warm.

"Qing Yi, you are courting death!" Yue Chan shouted loudly.

"That's good, destroy me then! We'll both be ruined!" Qing Yi smiled, replying decisively.

A crack appeared between her brows, producing a few wisps of blood. Several drops of scarlet red blood appeared, trickling down. They were fighting intensely.

"I am going to stake it all against you two!" Shi Hao argued noisily. His body released all types of light, almost making his own body crack apart. Those were all symbols from great divine abilities.

However, how could Yue Chan who occupied the advantage want to die? Success wasn't far. She wasn't willing to throw her own life again, and thus, she slightly withdrew.

This was precisely Qing Yi's opportunity!

"Kill!"

Between the brows, all types of multicolored light surged. It was the soul that was using precious techniques, fighting a life and death battle.

However, in the end, this place suddenly became quiet.

Shi Hao didn't say anything. Qing Yi frowned. Yue Chan was frozen.

A moment later, Yue Chan released a scream. "Qing Yi, what have you done? I'm going to kill you! There won't even be a trace left!"

Shi Hao was a bit stunned as well, but he quickly snapped out of it, saying, "Yue Chan, you have to take responsibility!"

Peng!

Yue Chan was so angry she slapped over. Then, she immediately released a muffled groan, because Qing Yi was also moving.

This type of feeling was too terrible!

Everything that happened left Yue Chan a bit stupefied.

"Hey, how are you all going to deal with the consequences?" Shi Hao spoke.

While looking at Huang, Yue Chan became slightly clear-headed, and then she immediately collapsed. She released all of her power to kill Qing Yi and Shi Hao, destroying all corpses and evidence.

This type of contact, for her... was too terrifying.

However, the flame that accompanied the Three World Coffin appeared again, almost touching her, immediately making her body go taut, her fine hairs standing on end.

"Yue Chan, Qing Yi, you two..." Shi Hao spoke, unable to form a complete sentence.

Sou!

At this moment, the perfect body shone, immediately once again separating into two people. Qing Yi was still in the original place, while Yue Chan struggled free, rushing out from the cave.

She staggered, almost falling. When she thought back to what she had just experienced, she simply couldn't believe what had happened. Why didn't she leave a bit earlier? Moreover, after it happened, why did she freeze up for a moment? When she thought back to it, she found it difficult to accept.

"Hey, Yue Chan, how can you just leave? Are you trying to run without taking responsibility?" Shi Hao shouted from behind.

Yue Chan staggered again, truly about to collapse. Her graceful immortal body swayed, quickly running.

Chapter 919 - Righteous Rabbit

"This is the mountain range?" The little rabbit stood on a Golden Cypress Tree while gazing into the vast mountains.

"This is the place, there's no mistaking this trail. Yi, there are battle traces in the mountain range. We've arrived!" The Divine Striking Stone was surprised.

The mountains were majestic, standing tall one after another. Even though it was bitterly cold, there were still signs of life. There were purple Divine Cherry-Apple Trees, silver Snow Peaches, Golden Cypress Trees. This place shone with incomparable brilliance.

One girl, one stone quickly moved forward, closing in on that ancient cave.

"Aiya, who is that? Yue Chan or Qing Yi? She... is actually in such a difficult position, running out. What happened?!" The little rabbit cried out strangely.

"Prepare to ambush her." The Divine Striking Stone said quietly.

Yue Chan quickly put on a white dress, covering her white jadelike sparkling perfect body, her wonderful body faintly discernible under the dress, her curves astonishing.

She couldn't be bothered to worry about her appearance right now. She didn't dare believe what had just happened.

"En, this is... hateful!"

Suddenly, she staggered, almost falling onto the ground, her skin color immediately flushing pink. While gritting her teeth in anger, she suddenly turned around, looking behind her.

The relationship between herself and Qing Yi was that of a main and second body. Under a set amount of distance, all of these two individuals' perception was shared. That meant that anything that happened to one person's body felt like it happened to the other's as well.

Only after becoming deities were they able to seal off themselves, isolating themselves from the other party, no longer feeling like they had one body. However, today's heavy injuries made their soul force unsteady, so the separation lost effectiveness. Right now, she could clearly sense everything Qing Yi felt.

"Ah..." Yue Chan screamed. For her, it was just too frightening.

She almost couldn't stand still, but she forcefully clenched her teeth and endured it. Her lotus arms shone, snow white and sparkling. They quickly moved about, producing a powerful magical imprint, about to attack that mountain region.

Even though she knew that it would be difficult for it to hurt the other party, she still couldn't endure it!

Xiu!

The sound of space shattering sounded. The Divine Striking Stone turned into a streak of light, attacking first. It was known to be able to strike down deities, so it was naturally astonishing.

Dang!

Even though she suffered an unimaginable serious injury, Yue Chan was still extremely sharp, hurriedly defending herself. Symbols shone resplendently between them, creating kengqiang sounds.

"Freeze over!"

The little rabbit shouted, already taking action. All of the great yin energy surged, turning into a black tide as it swept forward.

Following a light sound, Yue Chan appeared in a block of black ice, as if frozen still.

Serious injuries were still serious injuries. Regardless of her body or spirit, Yue Chan received serious damage, suffering greatly from this ambush.

With a kacha sound, the black divine ice split apart. She broke free. Even in this type of state, she could still break out, worthy of her title of fairy.

She produced a Space Shattering Symbol. The void became indistinct, and then she threw herself inside.

Before leaving, her body staggered again. It was as if she felt it herself, her body one with Qing Yi. She was feeling everything the other party felt. It was too terrible!

Yue Chan's entire face flushed red, biting her bright red lips. She was going to explode from anger, feelings as if she really was going to go crazy.

With a shua sound, she disappeared from Cold Realm.

"You..." In the cave, Qing Yi's body was covered with red multicolored light, her ivorylike perfect body displaying a change, as if she was carved from a pink diamond, sparkling and glistening.

As soon as she wanted to get up, a strand of immortal energy winded about her, bringing her back.

"Who do you two treat me as? Touching and pinching, and then directly leaving, what is this?!" Shi Hao still couldn't move much, in a rather passive state. Only the strand of immortal energy wasn't restricted, able to move around his body.

Qing Yi suffered serious injuries, both physically and spiritually. In the end, with a single mistake, she naturally moved down again, a painful heat immediately spreading through her entire body.

"Let me go!" The life and death dangers had finally passed. She could finally sense Yue Chan's frame of mind. It was truly unimaginable!

"Help me undo a few restrictions first. Otherwise, if you run, what am I supposed to do? It's so freaking cold here, I'll be frozen to death!" Shi Hao said.

Qing Yi wanted to struggle free from that strand of immortal energy. After all, the other party was sealed, so even though the immortal energy was astonishing, it still couldn't truly restrict her. There were ways for her to leave.

"Not good, Yue Chan returned. She sealed up her soul fluctuations, but my instinctive divine senses won't deceive me. She wants to attack us!" Shi Hao's expression became serious.

Qing Yi's face changed. Many things happened not long ago, things that would affect her for the rest of her life, so her mind had long been thrown into disorder. When she heard this, she quickly took action, helping him undo the seals.

Then, sure enough, Shi Hao could move again.

"What direction?" Qing Yi asked, preparing to fight.

"She seems to have left again." Shi Hao said.

"You..." Qing Yi was shocked.

“Neither of you two placed this future Heavenly Emperor in your eyes, acting randomly as you wish, you really aren’t treating me like anything important, right?” It was clear that Shi Hao was going to take action.

The little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone carefully closed in, arriving not too far from the cave.

“There’s a battle!” The little rabbit’s eyes widened, becoming incomparably vigilant, staring at that mountain region.

The Divine Striking Stone was astonished, saying, “Be careful!”

“Something’s not right, it’s a bit strange!” The little rabbit said, revealing a look of doubt.

“I’ll go look around. Wait here.” The Divine Striking Stone disappeared with a sou sound.

Soon after, it returned, saying, “Withdraw!”

“What’s wrong, what about Shi Hao and older sis Qing Yi?” The little rabbit asked.

“They are fighting.” The Divine Striking Stone said seriously.

“What? They already started fighting? Hurry and stop them!” The little rabbit’s rubylike eyes were completely round, about to rush over.

“Relax, it’s just a small argument, they won’t engage in life or death struggles. Outsiders can’t join in. We just have to back up and watch out for Yue Chan.” The Divine Striking Stone said seriously.

When the little rabbit saw how resolute its expression was, she felt a bit of hesitation. However, she still nodded, following it in retreat.

However, she still clenched her small fists, saying, “Huang, you’re going too far! Even if there is a disagreement, you can’t fight like this with older sis Qing Yi! You have to be a bit more forgiving.”

“Makes sense. When they calm down again, you should properly give them a scolding!” The Divine Striking Stone nodded with a deadly earnest expression.

“But Shi Hao has divine medicines and holy medicines, letting me hold onto them. If I help older sis Qing Yi scold him, what if he confiscates all of the precious medicines...”

“Don’t worry!” The Divine Striking Stone was quite confident. It added, “If they listen to your criticism, they will definitely feel ashamed. Don’t worry!”

“Really?” The little rabbit blinked her large eyes, revealing an expression of shock. “Then that’s good. I will help them mediate in a bit!”

This wait immediately took up an hour. In the end, the two of them still didn’t appear.

“They’re taking too long... don’t tell me that something happened?” The little rabbit was suspicious, fearing that the two of them really might be angry and do something dangerous.

“It’s nothing, they know what is appropriate!” The Divine Striking Stone said confidently.

Time continued to pass. In the blink of an eye, a few hours passed. The little rabbit became nervous. Could it be that the two of them really got angry, fighting furiously? She felt like she couldn't wait any longer. She had to take action!

"This.. isn't good, right?" The Divine Striking Stone stopped her.

"What do you mean not good? You stinky stone, you still aren't going to mediate things? If something unexpected happens to them, you have to take responsibility, to watch them die without saving them, not stopping them!" The little rabbit was furious.

"Alright. However, I still believe that there's really no need!" The Divine Striking Stone said seriously.

One girl and one stone closed in. It was clear that after they reached a certain distance, they definitely couldn't hide from those two's powerful instinctive divine senses.

Hong!

The mountain cracked apart, rubble rushing into the skies. The cave was collapsing, the mountain crumbling.

"Not good, they really are angry, about to fight a decisive battle! This ancient cave clearly still has ancient formations, but it still can't stop their attacks. You can see how angry those two are!" The little rabbit said, quickly rushing forward.

Cough! The Divine Striking Stone coughed, stopping her and saying, "There's no need. They should peacefully settle the problem. They won't fight to the death."

Sure enough, Qing Yi wore snow white clothes, moving aside an enormous stone, walking out from the collapsed ancient cave.

"Older sis Qing Yi, are you okay? That scoundrel Shi Hao actually dares to take action against you, fighting such a great battle against you, I'm going to look for him to settle things!" The little rabbit voiced her anger.

When Qing Yi heard this, she staggered, almost collapsing on this mountain region. noVE)l&.1n

"Hateful! Huang, you really don't hold back!" When the little rabbit heard this, she became even more angry, rushing over to hold Qing Yi.

"Aiya, older sis Qing Yi, you were seriously injured after all! Look, your body is so hot, your face red, let me see take a look at you." The little rabbit cried out strangely. "Something's wrong, why is your skin getting more red the more I talk?"

Qing Yi truly couldn't handle this rabbit anymore. She struggled free, turning around to run. No matter how one looked at it, she was clearly trying to run.

"Yi, older sis Qing Yi, why is there bits of immortal energy on your body? So powerful, did you succeed in that short period of time just now?" The little rabbit was shocked, feeling a bit stupefied. She then shouted from behind. "I understand, Shi Hao must have helped you train just now, helping your cultivation, right? It seems like I blamed him unfairly. He was helping you cultivate a strand of immortal energy."

“Nonsense!” Qing Yi said through clenched teeth.

“I want to kill him!” After saying this, Qing Yi turned around to leave. She cut open the void, disappearing from this place.

“It really is strange. I don’t understand!” The little rabbit shook her head.

The Divine Striking Stone coughed, saying, “You should chase after her and properly ask her about the details, use the concrete circumstances to help mediate the two of them.”

“Why do I feel like you don’t have good intentions? Stinky stone, are you playing tricks?!” The little rabbit glared at it, and then she quickly turned around, rushing towards the collapsed mountain and shouting, “Shi Hao, get out here right now! Why did you anger older sis Qing Yi into leaving?”

Hong!

Rubble tumbled about. Shi Hao walked out from the ancient cave, on him faint blue battle clothes. However, there were injuries on his body, and his complexion looked a bit pale as well.

“What exactly happened?” The little rabbit rushed over to interrogate and scold Shi Hao, telling him that he shouldn’t have argued with Qing Yi.

Dong!

Shi Hao directly struck her forehead, saying, “What does a little kid like you understand?”

Then, his face became dark. He didn’t say a single word and walked forward.

“Aya...” The little rabbit screamed.

“Yi, you shouldn’t have this kind of attitude, you really know how to hide things!” The Divine Striking Stone cried out strangely.

“What do you understand?” Shi Hao turned around, immediately berating it, “For a future Heavenly Emperor like me, to actually be so passive today, how can this be endured?!”

The Divine Striking Stone curled its lips and muttered, “You can be passive?”

“En, right now, my mood is extremely terrible. I’m going to nurse my injuries first, and then I’m going out to kill!” Shi Hao said with a darkened face.

In reality, Jun Dao was also plotting, extremely unwilling to accept things as they are. He definitely couldn’t endure the great defeat on the three thousand bluestone paths.

In addition, Underworld Earth, Heavenly Country, and Divine Temple’s people were full of killing intent, mobilizing all power they could use to find Huang. They were going to suppress and kill him!

Chapter 920 - Enemies At All Sides

Mountain Range Realm, a place that was rumored to have produced long life medicine.

Within a pure land of fragrant flowers and bird cries, multicolored mists filled the air. This place was rich with heaven and earth spiritual essence, all types of divine birds and auspicious beasts here.

Ah ah ah...

Sharp cries broke the silence. Yue Chan soaked herself in a hot spring, continuously washing her pure white body. However, her fingers were clenched, her beautiful hair scattered in chaos, sticking to her sparkling white face. Water vapors rose all around her. She was going crazy.

This type of state was completely different from her ordinarily dignified and sacred appearance. Right now, she felt like she was going mad. When she thought back to what happened, she couldn't help but wish to kill!

Pond Realm, there were lakes and water ponds everywhere. Water vapor pervaded the air, heaven and earth incomparably hazy.

With a putong sound, Qing Yi jumped into a great azure lake, and then she rushed out of the water surface, similarly screaming. Her beautiful fair body shone, and then she rushed back into the depths of the lake.

Cold Realm, on top of an ice-cold snowy mountain.

Shi Hao was also screaming loudly, making the snowy mountains shake. An avalanche was clearly going to crash down.

"Young man, what are you screaming so weirdly for?!" The little rabbit berated. She was extremely unsatisfied. Not long ago, Shi Hao actually struck her on her forehead, calling her a child.

"You are currently facing a man! Don't disturb my comprehension of the dao!" Shi Hao said. He sat on the summit of the snowy peak, exposing his upper body. Mists rose, dissolving some of the ice and snow.

"What comprehend the dao? Look at your expression, sometimes giggling, sometimes face darkening, and then a different emotion, you clearly don't look like a good person!" The little rabbit spoke with contempt.

"Go look for you Great Yin Immortal Treasure, I'm going into seclusion!" Shi Hao said, his face darkening.

"En, it's better if we leave and search for immortal treasures. You should understand that men always have those days every few months where their temperament become eccentric." The Divine Striking Stone said.

"Go die!" The little rabbit was furious, immediately hitting the Divine Striking Stone. However, in the end, she only hurt herself, shaking her hand in pain, tears almost spilling out.

"Alright, I was confused, remembered wrong. Your temper really is great these past few days." The Divine Striking Stone said with an apology.

"I'm gonna kill you!" The little rabbit cried out with wa wa sounds, chasing after it and saying, "You and Shi Hao are the same, neither of you good people!"

This land of ice and snow finally became peaceful.

Shi Hao began to enter meditation, all of the 'charming and gentle', all thoughts and distraction gradually fading. It was now time for him to nurse his injuries. He couldn't absorb himself in the scene not too long ago where his blood vessels were swelling.

This was Immortal Ancient, so cultivation was the most important. Otherwise, one might very well be eliminated by an enemy.

The three thousand provinces competition, geniuses strived for supremacy, this was the true and cruel reality. If they didn't leave this place, there will always be dangers, with death waiting around every corner.

Only by transcending, only by becoming the most powerful few could he have the qualification to look down on all. When that time came, forget about romance in the air, even establishing a powerful foundation in Immortal Ancient that would allow him to retaliate against the great sects of the three thousand provinces wouldn't be a problem.

However, to do that, the curse of the natives would have to be eliminated first.

He stopped thinking about all of these things, focusing on treating his injuries first.

"This Dragon Chain really is sturdy!" Shi Hao was shocked. This was Yue Chan's secret treasure, something used to bind his flesh. In the end, it landed in his hands.

This was something refined from many ancient beasts' divine tendons, extremely terrifying, enough to bind powerful exceptional talents. It was difficult to struggle free from.

Shi Hao treated this like a belt, keeping it on his body.

"This Soul Locking Pagoda is so troublesome!" Shi Hao frowned. Not even Qing Yi could help him completely remove this pagoda, only neutralizing a portion of its imprint.

He could only rely on himself now. His strand of immortal energy merged with his primordial spirit that was freed, the joined force collaboratively removing the imprisonment of this pagoda.

Half a day later, with a peng sound, a brilliant little pagoda landed in his hands.

"How powerful! It's an extremely powerful magical artifact!" Shi Hao was quite satisfied.

Then, he began to devour holy medicines and other things, continuing to treat his injured body.

This time, his injuries were extremely severe. The thousand flames burned his body, almost burning him to death. If he hadn't taken that step, cultivating a strand of immortal energy, he would have definitely died right there and then.

Despite this being the case, he still barely made it out alive, almost having his body and dao erased. Together with Yue Chan's hidden attack, and then the series of serious injuries, his current situation was extremely terrible.

This period of recovery used up a whole half month of time. During this period of time, he didn't move at all.

One has to understand that after one became a deity, if he was injured, even if it was extremely serious, a single day or two would be enough to recover. This time, it truly exceeded his imagination!

The outside world, the border of the vast uninhabited region.

The sect masters all became suspicious, because they lost track of Shi Hao, unable to observe him.

It was because once he used the immortal dao energy, it would conceal everything. The Immortal Dao Flower Petals wouldn't be able to display him.

"Yue Chan went to kill this person. I wonder what happened exactly..." Someone became suspicious.

When Yue Chan and Shi Hao were together, due to the latter cultivating a strand of immortal energy, continuously operating it, both him and Yue Chan disappeared from view.

This continued until Yue Chan left later on. Everyone still didn't understand the reason for this.

"Formidable. Yue Chan, Qing Yi, could it be that they cultivated the immortal energy only recorded in bone books, therefor preventing the Immortal Dao Flower Petals from displaying them?" Many people became doubtful.

"Wu, you might not be wrong. Qing Yi's green moon is a bit strange, most likely really able to help them cultivate a strand of immortal energy!" Someone came to this conclusion.

"Hehe, something strange must've happened between the three of them during the time they disappeared... From a woman's intuition, Heaven Mending Sect most likely now has a son-in-law." A woman spoke, one with green hair, her appearance seductive and beautiful, her eyes carrying temptation.

This place immediately became quiet. Everyone's minds were shaken. Those that dared provoke Heaven Mending Sect were definitely terrifying, their numbers few and far between in the higher realms.

Soon after, everyone recognized her. This was Sky Severing Sect's demon queen. Quite a few heavenly deities quickly turned around, not daring to look again, deeply understanding how terrifying she was.

However, many people's minds were shaken. This demon empress' intuition was frightening, previously helping Sky Severing Sect avoid disaster many times. Everything she said was generally extremely accurate.

Could it be that something really happened between the three of them?

Heaven Mending Sect's people released a cold snort, saying, "Should watch out for your sect's little witch. Rumor has it that her relationship with Huang in the lower realm was mysterious. Now that they entered Immortal Ancient, you better hope she doesn't get kidnaped."

"Haha..." The demon empress laughed and said, "Then it'll definitely be quite the deal."

Many people revealed strange looks.

She then continued and said, "Huang kidnaps Heaven Mending Sect's fairy, while my little witch will kidnap Huang, bringing him back, isn't this buy one get one free? What a deal! Oh, I was wrong, it's buy one get two free, haha!"

Immortal Ancient, the various small worlds.

In the past half month, it was definitely not peaceful. Underworld Earth, Heavenly Country, Divine Temple, and others all moved out, experts from all sides sweeping in all directions!

In addition, there also seemed to be an extremely terrifying power in the dark, suspected to be in liaison with Underworld Earth. Dark streams were moving about.

Luo Dao, Lan Yichen, and Lu Yi were at large. They had previously fought together in Silver Polish Mountain, and they entered the vicious nest as well. After they separated, they were in charge of gathering news of different divine medicines for Shi Hao.

There was someone unexpectedly searching for them.

If not for Shi Hao teaching them the Zhuyan Clan's transformation techniques, they would undoubtedly be in danger.

Despite this being the case, they were still almost discovered by others several times, barely avoiding disaster.

"Underworld Earth and those other powers are truly domineering, this time moving for real, wishing to find Huang and kill him."

"I heard that Jun Dao moved, personally taking action, visiting Formation Realm. It was rumored that he discovered Cao Yusheng who Huang has close relations with!"

The ripples spread to many small worlds. Ancient kings were working together to kill Huang. This stirred up a huge storm.

"Damn it!" The little fatty Cao Yusheng fled from Formation Realm, feeling great anger inside. His place of seclusion had been discovered. Someone came to surround him, the one in the lead precisely Jun Dao. If he was just a step late, he would have likely been blocked up.

"Wait for me to come out of isolation, I'll definitely find you all to settle accounts!" Cao Yusheng wiped away the blood at the corners of his lips, thus disappearing again.

On the twentieth day, Shi Hao finally woke up. A strand of immortal energy curled around him, his body releasing brilliant radiance. All of his injuries disappeared, and the so-called dao injuries were completely recovered from.

This made both the little rabbit and Divine Striking Stone greatly surprised inside. The injuries Yue Chan gave him were one thing, but the great dao injuries from being burned by ten thousand flames really was terrifying, making many people worry if he truly could recover. They never expected him to be perfectly unharmed.

"It didn't injure my foundation, it really is something to rejoice about." Shi Hao explained.

Otherwise, true great dao injuries would make even sect masters' expressions become bitter. Those injuries were the most difficult to heal from, and whenever they did appear, it would most likely lead to both body and dao being eliminated.

This made Shi Hao on guard. It was too dangerous this time. Even though he made it through, it was still worth reflecting over.

“Can it be that a second strand of immortal energy really can’t be cultivated?” He sighed softly. He then raised his head, looking at the Divine Striking Stone and the little rabbit, asking them if anything happened.

“You finally came out of isolation! The outside world is about to overturn the heavens! Many people are looking for you, all of them wanting to kill you,” said the little rabbit.

“Not knowing the difference between life and death!” Shi Hao said coldly. He wanted to kill those people a long time ago, not expecting that these people jumped out on their own.

“You need to be careful! Those people are extremely terrifying. Several ancient kings joined hands!” The Divine Striking Stone said.

Moreover, the little rabbit told him that Cao Yusheng had visited this place, warning them that he had already suffered an ambush, almost killed because of it. He was now hiding within a mysterious small world to cultivate.

“Courting death!” Shi Hao’s murderous intent was stirred. These people were vicious after all, not even wishing to let those by his side go.

The little rabbit was also angry. Even though she always bickered with Cao Yusheng, when she heard that he was almost killed from an ambush, she immediately couldn’t endure it.

“Let’s take a look around, see who it is that wants to deal with me!” Shi Hao said coldly.

“Good, kill the enemies!” The Divine Striking Stone was always someone who wished to see the world in chaos.

When Shi Hao emerged, he first paid the three thousand bluestone paths a visit. When he learned about what happened, he immediately roared with laughter.

Then, he first visited Radiant Realm, Green Spirit Realm, Origin Realm, and other places with enormous cities to look for Luo Dao, Lan Yichen and Lu Yi. He wanted to see them.

These were all places they had previously arranged to meet at, but in the end, he didn’t see any of them.

“So many days have passed, but Huang still hasn’t revealed himself. Could it really be like the rumors, that he is cowardly and doesn’t want to fight head on?”

“You don’t say! Several ancient freaks are working together, who dares fight against something like that? Of course he’s scared, after all, one’s life is most important!”

“This is considered smart, not a type of shame. Otherwise, if he went on to face them head on, that would undoubtedly result in death.”

In the outside world, many people were discussing this. It was because the recent disturbances were too great.

Everyone felt that Huang was scared. No matter how tyrannical he was, there was no way he could deal with several ancient kings, as a result choosing to withdraw.

Of course, there were some who believed that Huang might be cultivating in seclusion, unaware of these things.

“Hehe!” The Divine Striking Stone laughed coldly.

The little rabbit rolled up her sleeves, saying, “Let’s go mount a sneak attack!” She also felt that they shouldn’t fight the ancient freaks heads on, but rather deal with them one by one.

“Those people are likely waiting for me to deliver myself to their front doors, jump into their traps.” Shi Hao sneered.

He then arrived in Kun Realm’s enormous city. This was the final place he had selected to regroup with Luo Dao, Lan Yichen, and Lu Yi. He opened his Heavenly Eyes, revealing a look of shock. He finally discovered the three of them.

“You all didn’t encounter anything unexpected after all.” Shi Hao smiled.

Lu Yi was immediately given a fright, unexpectedly seeing Shi Hao suddenly appear at his side like a ghost. He screamed out, “You... they are all looking for you, you shouldn’t reveal yourself!”

Pu! Even though Lan Yichen was a metal man, he still had blood that was unique to himself. He directly coughed out a large mouthful of blood.

“You’re injured?” Shi Hao asked.

Lan Yichen and Luo Dao were both powerful exceptional talents. With even these two injured, one could imagine what kind of miserable battle they experienced.

“These people are crazy! For the sake of finding you, all those related to them want to capture and kill. We barely avoided disaster.” Lan Yichen said with a sigh.

“Even those who aren’t really related have taken action. I heard that for the sake of capturing and killing a Snow Phoenix, Divine Temple’s people moved together with Jun Dao!” Luo Dao said.

“What?!” Shi Hao was shocked and furious.

The Snow Phoenix was Silver, her name Xue Lin. Even though the two only exchanged brief interaction, she was unexpectedly still chased after. This really was beyond intolerable!

For the sake of dealing with him, they didn’t hesitate to use any method.

“Did any dangers happen to her?” Shi Hao asked.

“There was some news that Xue Lin should have escaped after suffering serious injuries. But...” When he spoke up to this point, Luo Dao felt a bit of hesitation.

“But what?” Shi Hao asked closely.

“It is rumored that they are looking for your little brother Qin Hao, planning to kill him to force you out.” Lu Yi added.

Shi Hao suddenly erupted with anger. He laughed coldly again and again. "Force me out to jump into their trap? This old one isn't going to play around with you all! I'm going to directly knock over the chessboard!"

Cold intent filled him. He was going to unleash a great slaughter!
