

Perfect WD 951

Chapter 951 - Refinement

At the bottom of the lake was a woman who looked like she was carved out of white jade. Her body was pure white and perfect, releasing a sparkling luster. Her figure was wonderful, curves rising and falling. She had blue hair that fell down to her waist.

This was without a doubt a beautiful woman, an outstanding beauty, her appearance enough to topple countries!

The clothes on her body had long become ruined, but there was still armor covering the crucial areas, unexpectedly forged from Black Immortal Gold. Her large chest and other areas were all covered.

The immortal armor flickered with dark light. Even after endless year, it still didn't decay.

However, one could see that there were traces left on its surface, not corroded over time, but left behind after a heavy blow. It protected her chest, but the Black Immortal Gold was damaged.

One could imagine what kind of power that was!

Shi Hao felt that this woman had existed for a long time. Even though her skin was snow-white like jade, the Black Immortal Gold flowed with an ancient aura.

"Could it be a female immortal?!"

Great waves stirred within Shi Hao's mind. The impression this woman left him with was too strange. Even though she was incomparably beautiful, she gave him a heart alarming feeling.

This was especially the case when he saw a skeleton a thousand zhang from the woman, snow-white like jade. They were dragon bones!

The skeleton was ten zhang long, the aura terrifying and astonishing, flesh already no longer existing. Two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes were resting on its surface, not moving at all!

"It really is a True Dragon!"

Shi Hao was shocked. That type of aura was extremely similar to what he sensed when he previously entered the Kun Peng nest and Immortal Ancient's vicious nest. It was extremely powerful, making one tremble with reverence.

The True Dragon's remains were left behind here. What exactly happened?

A devastatingly beautiful woman rested at the bottom of the lake, spotlessly white and beautiful. A dragon skeleton full of ancient meaning released terrifying energy, making one shiver inwardly with fear. When the two of these were combined, it truly was a strange scene.

What kind of place is this? Why was there this type of scene?

Shi Hao watched from the distance, not approaching this place. Emotions were stirring greatly within him, making it hard for him to calm down. This was too astonishing.

Upon closer inspection, he had new discoveries. There was a dark red spot between that woman's brows that had previously been pierced through. Was this the reason for her fall?

However, why was that body still releasing exuberant life energy, as if it was still alive? Could it be that she could still be revived?

An exceptional beauty and a small half of dragon skeleton were resting at the bottom of the lake. What kind of event happened to create this result? It really made one develop fanciful thoughts.

"Were the two enemies, fighting a bloody battle to the death, ultimately leading to this result, or were they allies, the two killed by a common enemy?"

Shi Hao said quietly. It was difficult for him to deduce past events.

He could only sigh with regret. Immortal Ancient was too terrifying. Even True Dragons and immortals had enemies, times when there was danger to their life. What kind of era was that? It really made the blood of powerful individuals stir, longing greatly for it!

He stared at those two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes, his eyes flickering with radiance. He gradually understood why they were so powerful. They were extraordinary when they were born in this pond, and then they most likely ate the flesh that came off the True Dragon!

The two mosquitoes ate the True Dragon's flesh, just the thought alone made him feel like this was crazy!

Otherwise, why would they be laying on the True Dragon bones, turning it into their place of rest?

One has to understand that even if a True Dragon died, its flesh definitely wouldn't decay, able to maintain itself for a long time. Now, it disappeared, so it was easy for one to associate it with the ancient mosquitoes eating it.

Shi Hao stared blankly, everything before his eyes exceeding his expectations. Was this the reason for the Chaos Mosquito Lake being so terrifying?

It was clear that the two palm-sized ancient mosquitoes noticed him, but they didn't come over, instead flapping their wings in warning, releasing terrifying fluctuations.

They only had their instincts left over. If they still had their intelligence, the consequences would be too horrible to contemplate.

The Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram and mysterious flame within Shi Hao's body left them with a deep impression, and that was why they didn't attack Shi Hao.

Shi Hao withdrew, staying far away from the dragon skeleton and approaching the exceptional beauty. It was because the spiritual essence that made his body take a turn for the better originated from this place. Wisps of the energy scattered outwards.

Shi Hao approached it. At first, it was still fine, but when he got within ten zhang, a mysterious power directly blasted him flying, making him bleed from all seven apertures, his flesh splitting apart again!

This type of power was too sudden, swirling about the woman, forming a domain, protecting her at the center.

Her body carried a strange power. Even after endless time had passed, it still remained, and it was full of exuberant life spiritual essence, as if she was still sleeping.

Shi Hao wiped away the blood from the corners of his mouth, revealing a look of shock. No wonder the two ancient mosquitoes didn't eat her, there was actually this type of power.

He sat down ten zhang away, starting to operate his internal energy to treat his injuries. Strand after strand of ripple-like fluctuations immediately moved from that woman's body, turning into multicolored light.

Shi Hao was like a desert that received sweet dew, his entire body obtaining nourishment. This type of power was extremely strange, carrying life vitality, extremely beneficial for him.

It wasn't as powerful as divine medicines and other things, but he was still heading in a better direction, flesh replenished by mysterious spiritual essence. He moved his blood energy around to recover his injured body.

Just like that, many days passed. It had already been a month since he entered this great black lake.

As time went on, his injuries slowly healed, recovering his vitality. Sparkling luster flowed all over his body like seven-colored divine glass.

However, even though his flesh recovered, his great dao injuries still remained, not immediately recovering. This was extremely difficult to recover from. Even if a heavenly deity suffered this type of damage, being greatly injured by the dao, they might still die, not necessarily recover.

Shi Hao had two strands of immortal energy. Even though he felt that he could recover, he needed a lot of time!

Just like that, he didn't move, his mind becoming clear. He used all of his vital energy to adjust his injured body, erasing the dao injuries, wishing to recover as quickly as possible.

Another month passed. The great dao injuries finally displayed clear improvement, now seventy to eighty percent recovered. n-)OvE1b1n

"If it wasn't for this fairy's body releasing mysterious energy, it truly would have been troublesome!" Shi Hao said to himself. Even though in the end, he would still be able to recover, he would have to use up a lot more time.

After the third month passed, Shi Hao completely recovered, his vital energy restored to its peak. Two strands of immortal energy moved around him. He felt more powerful than he had ever been before!

The current him was standing at the very peak of his entire life!

"Finally recovered. I wonder what the outside world is like." Shi Hao said quietly. He estimated that most people would mistaken him for being dead.

He didn't leave, instead continuing to solidify his cultivation. This was a rarely obtained peace of safety, the ideal place of seclusion.

Another month passed. Shi Hao's second strand of immortal energy obtained the snow white, jadelike woman's nourishment, unexpectedly becoming just like the first strand, reaching its peak.

"The immortal energy is already perfect, unable to be strengthened further unless a third strand of immortal energy is cultivated." When he thought of this, Shi Hao shook his head. He did everything he could to obtain these two strands of immortal energy. There were no other paths he could find.

He resolutely tempered his body, raising his body and mind to their optimal levels, and then he prepared to incite heavenly tribulations!

"Perhaps a third strand of immortal energy might appear in the heavenly tribulation?" He felt like trying to make it through a heavenly tribulation in an era without tribulations would definitely be incredibly terrifying. Perhaps a third strand of immortal energy might be produced."

It was because he had previously absent-mindedly heard the white tortoise talk about it before!

Only, this great era didn't have heavenly tribulation. If one forcefully tried to incur it, it would definitely be terrifying to the extreme, a single mistake resulting in the destruction of body and spirit, doomed to eternal damnation!

Therefore, Shi Hao didn't dare rashly go about it. He had to seriously prepare, making his body's state transcend his limit.

"Heavenly tribulation varies from person to person. I already cultivated two strands of immortal energy, so the tribulation that descends will definitely be extremely terrifying. Who knows, it might be the most powerful lightning tribulation!"

Shi Hao trembled inwardly. He had previously heard that in the last great era, many heaven warping geniuses died under the heavenly tribulation, unable to continue living.

This was not a game, not something anyone could pass just because they wanted to.

One had to carefully prepare oneself. Not only did he have to adjust his body, he also had to temper himself. In the following month, Shi Hao carried a self oppressive cultivation.

He removed the tattered armor related to the Lightning Emperor, and then sat at the bottom of the lake completely naked, resisting the black lake water that contained endless killing energy.

"This thing, don't tell me that it is the blood of a powerful creature from the last great era?"

Shi Hao felt like this black lake water should be an unmatched creature's blood. Its essence scattered, only leaving behind the rest, making one's flesh feel extremely uncomfortable, placing them in great pain.

The mosquitoes could endure it because they were born from this liquid.

In this month, Shi Hao continuously resisted the corrosion of this black liquid, being injured many times. In the end, he returned to the bottom of the lake, borrowing the spiritual essence released by the woman to recover from his injuries.

In the blink of an eye, he had already spent six months in the great black lake. Now, both his flesh and primordial spirit had adapted to the great black lake, not fearing the corrosion any longer.

One could see just how astonishing his improvements were!

However, he still didn't try to face the tribulation, still continuing to prepare himself. He started to take the initiative to provoke those mosquitoes, of course, he didn't touch those golden heavenly deities or the Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes.

The true deity level silver-colored mosquitoes were a meter in length. All of them threw themselves over, their mouthparts sharp, releasing sparks as they landed on his naked body.

There were endless bugs, all of them attacking together. Shi Hao received their attacks to temper his body.

This was extremely miserable. Even though he was quite powerful, able to initially withstand it, in the end when he became weary, his flesh would be pierced through.

"Am I committing suicide by doing this?!" Shi Hao clenched his teeth, enduring it.

Each time he was seriously injured, he would always sink to the bottom of the lake, staying ten zhang from the exceptionally beautiful fairy to cultivate, silently sitting there, borrowing the spiritual essence she released to heal his injuries.

"I have to be a bit more tough on myself. Ten Crown King has that immortal dao little tree, vicious nest's male even occupied an immortal land. They all have great natural luck and accumulated for many eras, so I have to strengthen my foundation!"

The mosquitoes carried poison, and their mouthparts were sharp, inflicting great injuries on Shi Hao's body. He was continuously injured, and then continuously recovered.

Zheng!

The needle shaped mouthparts shone, piercing Shi Hao's body. Divine light flickered, releasing zheng zheng cries, as if it struck down on steel.

In the recent month of cultivation, he continuously used True Deity Realm mosquitoes to refine his body, tempering himself again and again. At first, his entire body was covered in injuries and his body broken into a terrible state, often having his essence blood flowing away.

Later on, he gradually adapted to it, his body becoming more and more powerful and sturdy, his vital energy becoming incomparably abundant!

Kacha!

Later on, when the True Deity Level mosquitoes' mouthparts landed on his body, a sheet of multicolored light would appear on his body, as if lightning was interweaving, making his precious body difficult to damage.

"It's enough, I should attempt the tribulation. I wonder what the outside world is like, if everyone forgot about me already."

Shi Hao came out from seclusion, preparing to leave the great black lake!

Chapter 952 - Huang's Return

A large half of a year passed, yet Huang never made an appearance. There were some who sighed with regret, and some who took joy in this disaster, everyone's expressions towards this different.

A genius who cultivated two strands of immortal energy was forced into the Chaos Mosquito Lake by a heavenly deity, dying just like that, it made many people sigh with sorrow.

Regardless of whether they were friend or enemy, they all felt that it was a great pity. There was never a lack of discussions on this matter.

Only recently did the disturbance begin to calm, fewer people bringing it up. After all, when even the most powerful died, they would still turn into yellow earth, coexisting with the grass and trees, all of their previous glory in life no longer existing.

"Shi Hao, I will get revenge for you!" Cao Yusheng came out from seclusion. After learning of this, his chubby face was full of anger, angrily vowing.

Qing Yi and the little rabbit had previously asked heavenly deities to take revenge for Shi Hao, but it wasn't all that effective, encountering resistance.

No one wanted to offend tribes with heavenly deities for a dead person. A living Huang was a genius with endless potential, but what was a corpse worth?

"Brother Shi, walk in peace!" Chang Gongyan drank to the moon, drinking a cup alone and then pouring a cup onto the ground.

Immortal Ancient still had geniuses who rose up, glorious legends being born. The focus of everyone's attention was no longer on Huang. There were other events and great figures rising up.

"What kind of place is that vicious nest exactly, to be that frightening? Even heavenly deities would die if they went inside, no chance of emerging alive!"

Everyone was shocked. The banished immortal-like young man from that vicious nest with the jade flute had previously encountered the pursuit of heavenly deities as well, because it was suspected that he also cultivated two strands of immortal energy.

However, when he fled back into the vicious nest with heavy injuries, a heavenly deity followed him inside, but unexpectedly died, a rain of blood rising, covering the sky, shocking Immortal Ancient!

For example, someone incurred heavenly tribulation, triggering a huge uproar. How many years had it been since someone like this appeared? To actually use lightning tribulation to temper the body, carry out a baptism!

That day, immortal ancient was greatly shaken. Many people stood around and watched this magnificent scene.

Unfortunately, that ancient freak failed to cross the tribulation, ultimately dying. It was because he took the initiative to draw over heavenly tribulation, sending down incredibly ferocious, unimaginable suffering, ultimately blasted into coal.

It was also that day that Immortal Ancient's natives were horrified, because when that youth tried to cross the tribulation, endless curse power descended, corroding that person. Even heavenly deities trembled, fearing that they would be affected.

It was because for outsiders, being attacked by the curse power the first time wasn't much, but for them, it was the same as stirring up past injuries, making their own curse power even more serious.

"Ten Crown King's little tree is actually the young sprout of a World Tree!"

When news of this got out, it left all of Immortal Ancient greatly shaken up. Many experts set out to look for him, stirring up quite the commotion.

One has to understand that even in the last great era, the World Tree was a supreme treasure. To plant a young sprout into one's body, there was no need to think too much to understand how incredible this was. He could definitely cultivate a second strand of immortal energy.

It was because there had been recordings in the last great era that his was one of the most powerful immortal seeds!

In that great era, someone refined the initial form of a universe, using that as a seed, merging it with the self. There were those who planted a World Tree in their bodies, stepping on the most powerful path since the ancient times, ultimately reaching the peak of immortal dao, their fighting prowess shaking past and future!

The disturbance that was created was naturally incomparable. The natives' heavenly deities couldn't sit still, all of them coming out of isolation, risking the dangers of the curse's corrosion to find Ten Crown King.

In addition, even other ancient freaks suffered attacks, a few big names being attacked.

This was the last time Immortal Ancient was going to be opened. All sides brought out their trump cards and natural luck, not hiding anything anymore. As a result, an unprecedented great chaos was stirred up.

Only much later on when the most well known figures among ancient freaks either died or disappeared did the disturbance gradually calm.

During this process, there were some who were like brilliant comets that lit up the skies, their names remembered by everyone.

For example, Ten Crown King, vicious nest's exiled immortal, Ning Chuan, and others, every single one of them shining brilliantly, making the sun and moon lose color. They were still alive, yet the heavenly deities temporarily couldn't find them.

Three thousand provinces, the uninhabited region's borders. novel (1)

The hearts of cultivators of all sects were rising and falling, emotions surging. They witnessed what happened in the past half year within Immortal Ancient through the flower petals. All of them found it difficult to calm down.

"Good! My clan's genius rose up, dug up a stalk of divine medicine, his strength increasing greatly. I hope he can safely return."

"Ning Chuan is formidable! Actually avoiding the pursuit of heavenly deities!

"What a pity, that genius who tried to cross tribulation originally had incredible talent, yet in the end became a piece of charred coal. Truly a pity."

...

There were discussions everywhere.

Some people felt joy, some worry. Shi Ziling and his wife both felt dispirited, feeling extremely terrible.

"Heh, half a year has already passed, but Huang still didn't come out. He's definitely dead."

"Behaving so ostentatiously, he was destined to wither away early. Being able to continue living is what's not normal!"

It was clear that there were quite a few great sects who were dissatisfied with Shi Hao, for example, the Celestial Clan, Fire Cloud Cavern, Immortal Palace, Underworld Clan, Great Sky Border, and others. Right now, the people of these sects all released a breath of relief.

"What a pity, he died. I was still waiting for him to return." Within a blood-colored chariot, an owl-like cold voice sounded. That was Heavenly Country's lord, his voice extremely terrifying.

It was clear that the reason he hoped Shi Hao could return alive was so that he could personally take action, not because he truly wished him peace.

"Should count him as being lucky! If he appeared alive, he'll wish he was dead rather than alive!" Phantom Drake Dao Gate's people laughed coldly.

"Dying like this is like being set free. He is too lucky." Demonic Sunflower Garden's people also spoke.

These ancient sects all had many of their disciples cooked and eaten by Shi Hao. There was already enmity between them before, so they hated him bitterly.

This time, Shi Hao landed in the black-colored large lake. Many inheritances all ridiculed him, some Divine Flame Realm creatures even more so laughing incessantly.

Of course, there were many people who felt regret. A genius like him dying like this was too much of a pity.

Regardless, Shi Hao didn't come out for the larger half of a year. No one believed that he was still alive.

If they wanted to find his traces through the Immortal Dao Flower's petals, that was impossible, because as soon as immortal energy was cultivated, wrapping around the body, everything would be hidden.

The other result was that if they died, then there was no way to observe them either.

The reason they were able to learn of Shi Hao's battle accomplishments, as well as the matter of him having two strands of immortal energy was by investigating bystanders.

Back then, when they heard that Shi Hao cultivated two strands of immortal energy, everyone immediately became stupefied, producing a heaven shaking commotion. Everyone looked like they had seen a ghost.

"Haha, after dying, even geniuses are nothing more than a pile of earth!"

"Wu, what if he appears again alive one day? What if he cultivates a third strand of immortal energy? Then that will be interesting!"

"Dao brother, what kind of nonsense are you spouting? How can a dead person appear alive, let alone cultivate a third strand of immortal energy!"

Just as the outside world and Immortal Ancient were discussing spiritedly, Shi Hao came out from isolation, emerging from the large black lake, scanning his eyes over the surroundings.

"En? There are still people guarding the surroundings? Were they scared that I might not be dead?!" Shi Hao's eyes revealed a look of surprise. A hint of coldness flashed past.

There were a few creatures here, such as a golden elephant, Horned Dragon, and a few humanoid ones.

Shi Hao swallowed his saliva. It had been almost a year since he ate anything. When he saw the Golden Ancient Elephant and Horned Dragon that had draconic energy swirling about, he was overwhelmed with a desire to eat.

"I have to economize!"

Shi Hao muttered inwardly. Before touching those beasts, he silently dragged a humanoid creature into the lake, not startling anyone else.

It was actually Di Kun's descendant, someone who came from his tribe.

Soon after, Shi Hao learned from his mouth about the things that happened in Immortal Ancient, his expression falling greatly. In the end, he fed this person to the mosquitoes and walked ashore with large steps.

"Heavens, someone walked out from the lake!" A Dragon Sparrow cried out in alarm, its bird beak extremely large, not believing what it was seeing.

"It's him... it's actually Huang, he didn't die!" The golden elephant cried out loudly, its trunk rushing towards the sky, releasing wuwu sounds, forcefully screaming.

“Correct, I, the one surnamed Shi, have returned from hell. You all can forget about wasting energy. Not a single one will be able to leave!” Shi Hao walked out from the black-colored lake water, arriving ashore. He swept his eyes over the powerful individuals present.

This was too shocking, leaving every single person stunned. Then, they felt a wave of chilliness run through them. This was too strange. Didn’t he die? How did he make his way out from the lake?

They guarded there just out of routine, respecting the clan’s heavenly deities’ orders. They didn’t treat it like a real job, not believing that Shi Hao could still return alive.

However now... a ghost appeared before the living!

“Kill!”

These creatures screamed, taking action at the same time, wishing to escape. There were even some that brought out Realm Shattering Symbols.

“Don’t waste precious symbols!” Shi Hao shouted.

These people were horrified, discovering that the void was locked down. Not a single person was able to leave. They all activated precious techniques, secret treasures, and other things, but everything was shattered by the other party’s fists that were surrounded by immortal energy.

Pu!

Shi Hao gave each one of them a fist, quickly settling the battle. Not even the true deities could resist his attacks.

An hour later, smoke rose from the side of the black lake. A large cauldron was propped up, the water within long boiling. The Dragon Sparrow, golden elephant, Horned Dragon and others were all placed inside and slow-cooked.

Fragrance wafted outwards, traveling several li out. Shi Hao gorged himself heartily. It had been a larger half of a year since he last ate, so he almost ate his own tongue.

“Tastes so good, so good! Horned Dragon, golden elephant, and Dragon Sparrow, these are all delicacies! I truly wish I could eat my fill every day!”

Shi Hao’s mouth was extremely artful. If it was in the past, he would definitely be quite picky, but with how hungry he was now, even if someone cooked a pig, he would feel that it was a delicacy.

“Huang... appeared again?!”

News swept through the world like a tornado, immediately spreading, shaking up a few small worlds in Immortal Ancient.

How could a dead person appear again?

“I don’t believe it. That is but the Chaos Mosquito Lake! Once one falls in, not even a heavenly deity can revive. How can Huang appear in this world again?!”

This triggered a huge uproar, many people refusing to believe this.

However, there were some that brought conclusive evidence, telling those of the outside world that Huang returned alive, currently cooking a golden elephant and Horned Dragon by the lake, roasting a Dragon Sparrow and eating heartily.

Everyone was stunned. This... was too absurd, right?!

Shi Hao didn't bother himself with this stuff. He knew that news had already leaked out, but he didn't feel any fear, purposely doing it like this.

"He... as soon as he returned, he cooked a pot of meat. Is he fighting back and provoking those heavenly deity clans?!"

This day definitely wouldn't become calm again. The news were too shocking.

At the same time, quite a few cultivators from the three thousand provinces learned of this as well.

At the edge of the uninhabited region, everyone saw scenes through the Immortal Dao Flower's petals, learning about what happened inside.

Of course, they still couldn't see Shi Hao, because he had immortal energy covering him, but they learned through the mouths of others, understanding the situation.

"How could it be? Huang... he is still alive, returned again?!"

Not long ago, there were still those who were taking delight in his disaster, ridiculing how Huang wouldn't live for long, destined to wither away early.

However, in the end, he appeared again!

Quite a few people were showing hostility, unbridledly laughing and chatting, for example, Heavenly Country, Underworld Clan, Immortal Palace, Celestial Clan and others, but in the end, they discovered that they seemed to be slapped in the face. Huang... he was still leaping and frisking about, appearing again!

This was especially the case when someone joked not long ago that Huang might appear again, that if he cultivated a third strand of immortal energy, then that would be interesting. Of course, everyone laughed, believing that was impossible.

However, this nightmare was now real!

Many people felt their faces turning hot. This youth appeared again. There was definitely going to be a great storm!

Within Immortal Ancient, next to the great lake, Shi Hao gorged himself with food, a pile of bones on the ground. He was finally satisfied. He released a sigh, saying, "I'm full. They should appear soon too, right?"

Chapter 953 - Arrogant

The pile of bones on the ground included those from Horned Dragon, Dragon Sparrow, it was a mess. The enormous bones were shining, containing mysterious power.

Shi Hao laid on his back next to the lake, resting his head on a pile of dragon bones, below him beautiful sparrow feathers that were incredibly comfortable. He released a belch.

He drank a mouthful of strong alcohol, smacked his lips over the taste, feeling that this type of relaxation was better than being a daoist immortal.

Half a year ago, he was running for his life, his body seriously injured and on the verge of dying. During the recent few months, he even fought daily against mosquitoes, his body pierced by the sharp needle-like mouthparts to refine his body. It was an incredibly bitter experience.

Now, he was so relaxed. After eating his fill, he was perfectly content, his pores releasing multicolored light, magical force flourishing and his body full of vigor. This was a rare moment of leisure and enjoyment.

“Heavens, it really is that... devil king, Huang! He is still alive!”

Not far out, there were people who came. When they saw him, they couldn’t help but cry out, feeling that this was inconceivable. The rumors were true, he appeared, alive, perfectly fine.

“Is it really him? That is a well known taboo place, the Chaos Mosquito Lake, a place no one could crawl out of alive. How did he do it?”

Everyone was stupefied, finding this hard to believe. Unless they personally saw it for themselves, they would have all felt that the news was false, that someone purposely fabricated fake news. Now, they were all speechless. “Aiyou, I just had a meal, almost can’t even get up. Why did you all appear again?” Shi Hao sat up, rubbed his stomach. He swallowed a mouthful of saliva as he stared at the clans before him.

There were Golden Ancient Apes, Horned Dragons, and others. They were all from races that had previously pursued him.

Of course, the ones that came weren’t heavenly deities, the highest at the True Deity Realm. When they heard Huang appear in this world again, they just happened to be close by, immediately hurrying out.

Unbridled! Someone secretly clenched their teeth and then quickly withdrew. At first, they didn’t believe the news, but now that they personally saw Huang, they were extremely shocked. At the same time, they felt that things were going south extremely fast, wishing to run.

“Since you came, don’t leave!” Shi Hao laughed loudly. A large earthen hand covered the sky, descending like a thick cloud, covering that place.

“Kill!”

Several creatures shouted loudly, doing everything they could to resist. At the same time, they felt regret. It truly was curiosity killing the cat, running over to to seek confirmation, wasn’t this just diving straight into the tiger’s mouth?

In that instant, they were completely suppressed.

Several creatures were picked up and pulled to the lakeside. Shi Hao was extremely patient. He produced a Horned Dragon tendon, stringing them all up and hanging them on his body. Now that he saw these delicacies after several months of darkness, his eyes were about to release green light.

Food? When others heard this, they felt speechless, all of them stupefied. Forget about everything else, this fella really was... too vicious!

The enormous golden elephant, Pi Xiu, and others, their original bodies were like a small mountain, yet right now, they were strung up together and turned into the size of a fist, their miniature forms hanging from his body. It truly was a strange and shocking sight.

"I'm seeing ghosts! It really is him!"

As time went on, there were people from other clans that came to investigate, especially the ones that were comparatively closer hostile creatures that were wandering about outside who immediately hurried over.

As one could well imagine, they were captured one after another.

Shi Hao hated some of these clans bitterly. He was almost chased to death. Now that their disciples appeared, he naturally wouldn't be too polite.

These people were all mislead, believing that Shi Hao couldn't be alive, so they came to seek verification.

Of course, most of the creatures later on were rather careful, not approaching this place and watching from afar. They all sucked in a cold breath of air when they saw the prey strung up around his body. Their scalps turned numb, every single one of them scampering off.

As for those that were unrelated, Shi Hao didn't take action, not 'deranged' to that extent.

"Hey, Underworld Clan, what are you trying to get in on the action for? So stinky and rotten, can't eat you all at all. All of you should crawl as far away from my sight as you can!" Shi Hao pointed out.

Under pu pu sounds, several Underworld Clan experts that carried bitterness and grudges were killed, collapsing onto the ground, their dark blood splashing extremely high into the air.

In the outside world, the cultivators of the three thousand provinces were stupefied.

Right now, Shi Hao didn't produce any immortal energy, so they saw this scene clearly. They all looked at each other in dismay.

As for Underworld Lord, he stood on a white bone mountain, his face as unpleasant as unpleasant could get. This was undisguised contempt. This fella provoked heavenly deities in Immortal Ancient, yet he still didn't disappear, unexpectedly daring to take action like this.

"Heavenly Country's assassin hadn't been killed yet! Actually still showing himself." Shi Hao spoke again. He released a cold laugh, collecting his smile for the first time. He vanished from his original location, entering the void.

Pu!

Blood scattered outwards. A humanoid figure appeared from the void, half his body shattered on the spot.

Heavenly Country's present world number one assassin!

It was actually him, also arriving nearby.

One had to understand that Heavenly Country's ancient freak, that king's flesh had been obliterated by Shi Hao last time. However, Heavenly Country's present world inheritor didn't show himself.

Today, he wasn't about to escape disaster. He had half his body immediately removed by Shi Hao, and then with a peng sound, another leg swept out, the kick making Heavenly Country's present world number one assassin explode into a rain of blood on the spot.

In the outside world, three thousand provinces.

A blood-colored war chariot that was shockingly bright red continuously poured out blood. Heaven overflowing killing intent rushed out. The ancient war chariot was rumbling with zheng zheng sounds!

This was the first time Heavenly Country's lord was this angry!

Huang, this was humiliating Heavenly Country, declaring war, challenging his dignity. He was doing this for him to see.

Everyone else's expressions changed. Was this Huang who cultivated two strands of immortal dao energy? He was extremely powerful after all! How terrifying was Heavenly Country's assassin against people of the same level? However, in the end, he was killed as soon as they encountered each other.

Everyone was deeply aware how serious the matter was. If he grew up, that... would be unimaginable!

"So what if I ate too much?" He returned to the lakeside, rubbing his stomach as he said this.

In reality, his figure was tall and handsome, his stomach not swelling out at all. When everyone saw this scene, they knew that he was definitely trying to humiliate those great heavenly deity clans.

"How should I aid my digestion?" Shi Hao muttered. He suddenly stared at the creatures behind him and laughed loudly. "The seed delivery is here!"

Those creatures were extremely hateful, turning around to leave. Those were Demonic Sunflower Garden's experts. They were naturally mortal enemies of Huang, part of the main force of seven deities that went to the lower realms.

This time, Shi Hao didn't kill them, merely capturing them. Clattering noises ran out, and after shaking them, he plucked at them madly, producing a pile of sparkling black jadelike seeds.

It was clear that these actions would make their cultivations decline steeply. This was where their essence was accumulated.

Ka ka!

Shi Hao began to crack the seeds by the lake, his appearance carefree. Those experts covered their faces as they ran, feeling too much grief and indignation. n.)o-(V-(e.(L./B-.l-(n

In the distance, those who were watching were speechless. Regardless of whether it was the natives or the geniuses of the three thousand provinces, they all widened their eyes. This really was a devil king!

In the outside world, the border of the uninhabited region.

Demonic Sunflower Garden's lord was so angry an enormous mountain was slapped, rage overflowing into the heavens.

Many people kept quiet out of fear. They knew Huang was doing this on purpose.

Not long ago, those clan's cultivators were still laughing and ridiculing Huang, believing that he definitely died, that he couldn't live for long, but in the end, not only was he still alive, he was even provoking them like this.

This was the same as slapping them in the face, their cheeks struck with no place to hide.

Many people felt their faces become hot, their skin extremely uncomfortable!

By the lakeside, seed shells were all over the ground, his body surging with spiritual essence. Every single seed contained dao and divinity, a type of mending medicine.

"This fella... too arrogant, too unbridled! Actually sitting right there, eating and drinking, is he going to face the heavenly deities here?!"

"Unforgivable, he will definitely be killed! Actually daring to challenge the bottom lines of every clan like this, he will die without a burial site!"

It was clear that there were many hostile creatures in the crowd, all of them furious. They clenched their fists tightly, waiting for heavenly deities to arrive and kill him.

"The seeds are so greasy. How great would it be if there was a plate of fruit?" Shi Hao said.

Peng!

A divine vine was pulled up from the ground, someone from the higher realms' Sun God Divine Temple. This was a golden stalk of sun vine, also part of a hostile party. Shi Hao dragged him over, and with chi chi sound, treated it like a sugar cane, starting to chew on it.

"He won't be allowed to live!" In the outside world, a golden ancient vine roared, Sun God Divine Temple's lord. He had part of its body removed by the Willow Deity in the lower realm, then fled in a sorry state.

This... was originally a shocking scene. Huang returned alive, drawing everyone's attention, but no one expected this fella to make this type of play. It really left them stupefied.

Hong!

Heaven fell and earth cracked, ghosts weeped and deities howled.

Finally, a heavenly deity descended!

This small world trembled intensely, the void splitting apart. Several figures emerged from a large black crack, overlooking the black-colored lake.

When it saw the pile of bones on the ground, the face of the Golden Ancient Elephant in midair fell. It was as large as a mountain, its aura terrifying.

“Little monster, you are too arrogant, do you feel that just because you have some backing, you can offend heavenly deities? Today, you won’t be able to continue living!”

The Golden Ancient Elephant coldly spoke. However, soon after, the veins on its forehead jumped, its golden pupils firing two streaks of sharp light, at the end of its patience.

It was because that brat was actually... using a snow white tusk to pick at his teeth!

Shi Hao was calm and unruffled, using methods to shrink a snow white, jadelike enormous elephant tusk. He pinched it between his fingers, carelessly using it like a toothpick.

Everyone became dumbstruck. This fella was... too unbridled. Wouldn’t this anger the Golden Ancient Elephant to death?!

“Brat, provoking me like this, even if you wish to die, it’ll be difficult. You’ll wish you were dead rather than alive!” in the skies, an enormous rumbling sound rang through the air. The Horned Dragon Race’s heavenly deity appeared, his eyes like lanterns as they stared downwards.

Shi Hao casually flung aside the toothpick and put on a set of armor. It shone brilliantly. Upon closer inspection, they were made from Horned Dragon Scales.

“You are courting death!” The Horned Dragon roared, its eyes becoming red.

“Younger generation, you are going too far. There won’t be a good end for you.” A Dragon Sparrow with bright and beautiful feathers spread its wings, covering the sky as it spoke.

Shi Hao still didn’t say anything, using his actions as a response. He picked out the most resplendent Dragon Sparrow feather, the only ‘true feather’, similar to a primordial true feather. Then... he began to pick at his ears.

“Accept death!”

In the void, the Dragon Sparrow shook its wings.

“Brat, you have quite some guts, but you can forget about defying the heavens. Not even a true immortal can save you today!” Ma Yuan also came. The heavenly deities’ pursuit began precisely because of him.

Shi Hao finally responded directly, saying, “You old turtle, I’ll stew you alive in a bit. Also, those others like the ancient apes, Pi Xiu, and Di Kun’s bunch of bastards, all of you should just crawl over too!”

Chapter 954 - Somewhat Baited

“You...” Ma Yuan’s expression became ashen, pointing at him with his fingers. This brat was too brash and rude, not putting a heavenly deity in his eyes at all.

“You what you? Did you forget how I gave you a beating last time? Still not learning your lesson, in a bit, I’ll give your old ass another beating and then directly kill you!” Shi Hao said.

There wasn't a single person who wasn't stupefied. This fella truly dared to say anything.

Ma Yuan was so upset his face distorted, expression became sinister. This brat actually dared to talk to him with this type of tone, as if he was older and more experienced, sounding like he truly could oppress him.

"Old thing, you shouldn't act so stubborn. Last time, didn't you get beat up badly? Truly a good for nothing!" Shi Hao continued to mock.

"Bullshit!" Ma Yuan was furious. He had a legendary reputation, when did he ever get beaten up by a trifling Divine Flame Realm cultivator? Even though he was affected by a curse last time, that was only because he was careless.

"How unsightly!" Shi Hao laughed loudly.

"Impudent! Kneel!" Ma Yuan shouted, using his heavenly deity secret method, sending his powerful spiritual might sweeping out to injure Shi Hao's divine senses, making his mind weaken.

The space between Shi Hao's brows shone. His divine senses were close to that of a heavenly deity, not much weaker, so he didn't fear this pressure.

"Old turtle, what are you shouting stupidly for? You trying to run a one-man comic show? Chattering by yourself over there, don't you feel tired? Really are kind of annoying though." Shi Hao's arms were crossed as he spoke, deemphasizing the situation.

Last time, Ma Yuan almost forced him to death, so Shi Hao's mouth naturally wouldn't be lenient this time, purposely displaying its lowliness.

Ma Yuan's fury surged. At the same time, it trembled inwardly. He knew that this youth had previously been seriously injured, receiving great dao injuries, but now, he was full of vigor, long recovering.

The other heavenly deities also saw this. His body's state was much better, dao injuries clearly recovered from. This was extremely shocking! One had to understand that dao injuries really were hard to recover from.

That type of injury would most likely make even heavenly deities fall, requiring an extremely long amount of time before there was any hope of recovery.

However, this person was truly formidable. He had to be immediately killed; this was what all of the heavenly deities here were thinking. Huang was too astonishing, actually relying on himself to treat those great dao injuries.

"It's useless no matter what we say. Just kill him!" The Horned Dragon said coldly.

"Good, immediately wipe out his primordial spirit and leave behind his body. We'll make the other decisions later," said the Golden Ancient Elephant. It was the first one to take action, its elephant nose like a mountain ridge as it thrashed out, splitting open the void.

"Let me!"

Suddenly, a large golden hairy hand reached out from the void, forcefully grabbing over to imprison Shi Hao. It was an ancient ape.

Its body was covered in scales, but in the cracks of a few scales were golden hairs, making it look extremely bold and powerful. It was invulnerable to sword or spear, a creature that had previously pursued Shi Hao.

“Truly lacking, why isn’t that bastard Di Kun coming? It would be much easier to just kill you all and simplify matters.” Shi Hao moved to the side, quickly avoiding this strike, appearing at the other side of the lake.

Those heavenly deities’ eyes became deep, pressing forward. This was a restricted area. If their elephant trunks and large hands continued downwards, striking into the lake, it would definitely trigger a huge disaster.

“You bastards can all forget about leaving. I’m going to kill you all.” Shi Hao said.

Everyone became stupefied. What kind of crazy words were these? A Divine Flame Realm cultivator actually dared to challenge heavenly deities, saying how he was going to kill them all. This... was not realistic at all!

Ma Yuan took a few steps back, because he believed Shi Hao wasn’t an idiot, nor was he crazy. He definitely wouldn’t walk a road of death either, definitely having some trump card.

Many cultivators saw this scene, revealing looks of surprise. Even the great heavenly deities’ eyes flickered with light.

“Hahaha...” Shi Hao laughed loudly. He didn’t say anything, only reaching out a hand and pointing at Ma Yuan, his face carrying an expression of disdain.

“Younger generation, what are you laughing at?!” Ma Yuan shouted, humiliated and angry.

“Old Ma with the guts of a mouse, I advise you to hurry and beat it. Even someone like you can cultivate to the Heavenly Deity Realm? Those words I spoke just now almost frightened you to death, right?” Shi Hao’s mouth was extremely vile.

Motherfucker! Ma Yuan was seething with anger, simply unable to endure it. The glorious heavenly deity of a generation was actually being ridiculed and humiliated again and again by this youth, it really was great shame.

“What are you speaking such nonsense to him for? Just directly kill him. We are heavenly deities, high above him! There are so many people here, so no matter who comes, it’s useless. Just kill him!” That ancient ape was quite irritable. Golden light flourished, taking action again.

“Correct, take action!” This time, Ma Yuan was rather imposing, rushing over in the front.

The others also moved, surrounding the black lake, sealing down the space out of fear that he would run. No matter how extraordinary he was, he still couldn’t break out of this place.

Everyone held their breaths and quickly retreated. If heavenly deities took action, that type of might would definitely be unimaginable. They didn’t wish to die for no reason.

It was because once heavenly deities were angered, blood would flow and corpses would appear in the millions. It would be utterly terrifying.

At this moment, everyone watched this scene carefully. They didn't know how Shi Hao was going to live. He was just a Divine Flame Realm cultivator, so how could he resist a heavenly deity?

That type of high and mighty expert, a single finger would be enough to kill other deities!

The black-colored lake was surrounded. The heavenly deities were incredibly cold. They activated natural laws at the same time, all of them harboring different intentions, wishing to capture Shi Hao and occupy his flesh shell.

"Alright, we have pretty much everyone. I'll begin killing everyone now!" Shi Hao said coldly.

Hong!

His fist smashed into the great lake, disturbing the peace of this place.

This was like poking a hornet nest, endless mosquitoes rushing out from the surface of the lake, covering heaven and earth. They rushed towards the heavenly deities, frantically attacking them.

Shi Hao quickly produced the Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram and put on the Lightning Emperor's armor, diving into the lake and watching carefully.

The Divine Flame Realm mosquitoes were bright red like cornelian, while the True Deity Realm bugs were silver and shining. They covered everything densely, blocking out the sun and moon, filling the world.

No one would have expected that he would be so daring, actually provoking the Chaos Mosquito Lake's creatures, triggering this type of disaster!

"Heavens!" The spectators in the back all cried out in alarm, turning around to run.

There were just too many bugs, all of them already deities, but having lost their intelligence, acting purely out of instinct. They attacked everything that approached them, incomparably ferocious.

"Don't tell me that this brat stayed several months in the lake, not fearing these mosquitoes?!"

The sounds of wings flapping was ear-splitting like grinding metal. Bugs swarmed this place, and even the great heavenly deities were immediately drowned out.

However, their strength were extremely terrifying. Bug corpses fell in large amounts, the ground immediately full of dead mosquitoes, putong sounds continuously sounding. It was because every single mosquito was extremely powerful, weighing several dozen jin.

Sharp sounds rang out, making one's ears hurt.

Weng!

Golden light flickered. The heavenly deity level bugs appeared, rushing out from the black-colored lake, moreover several of them at once. Their offspring suffered serious casualties, so they were naturally furious.

Shi Hao was also in danger, but with the Ten Thousand Spirit Diagram in front of him and that flame within him, his aura was still remembered by the bugs, so they didn't dare approach.

"Hurry and retreat!"

The Horned Dragon cried out loudly, feeling horrified. He never expected the reactions of the terrifying creatures in the lake to be that fast, locking onto it! That was a pair of Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes the size of a palm. They rushed out from the water surface, bringing with them chaotic energy and releasing an aura that made even heavenly deities shiver.

Pu!

The moment the Horned Dragon heavenly deity transmitted sound, it was already caught. His heart was in great pain, and before he even saw what exactly happened, an arrow of blood spun outwards, half of his essence blood lost.

Hong!

It smashed into the void, turning around to leave, not daring to test its luck again, not trying to capture Shi Hao during the chaos.

Ah...

The Dragon Sparrow was the most miserable, because it was the one with the most greed, silently approaching the lake surface. It wanted to sneakily capture and bring away Shi Hao while the heavenly deity level mosquitoes chased after others, never expecting a Chaos Ancient Mosquito to rush out, piercing its wings.

With a peng sound, a heavenly deity wing exploded, and it immediately lost ninety percent of its essence blood, almost shriveling up into jerky.

When they saw this scene, the other heavenly deities shivered inwardly. Those two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes were too terrifying, impossible to fight head on against! All of them turned around to run.

The only fortunate thing was that the two ancient mosquitoes were both muddle-headed, only having instincts left. Otherwise, they would have been in great danger.

Pu!

Despite this being the case, several people were still injured one after another. Ma Yuan released a large roar, his calf pierced through, blood flowing like a river. He discovered with horror that he lost thirty percent of his essence blood.

Qiang!

The powerful ancient ape's body was covered in golden scales, but they were still pierced through, blood spinning as they flew out. It immediately staggered, its blood loss severe. Its face became pale, releasing a violent roar, tearing apart the void and running!

...

The great heavenly deities all fled. The attack from all sides was a complete failure.

If not for the bugs being mentally confused, they would have definitely been a danger to their lives.

“Hateful!”

When they left this little world, there were heavenly deities that roared, feeling too sullen, truly unwilling to accept this.

They were glorious heavenly deities who were high above, yet they were unexpectedly defeated, chased away by a group of mosquitoes.

The most hateful thing was that the brat laughed in a lowly manner within the lake, carrying a look of mockery, sending them off. It truly was unendurable.

They now finally knew what Shi Hao was relying on, actually able to hide in the black pond. Why didn’t those mosquitoes attack him? This truly was unexpected.

When news got out, a small half of Immortal Ancient was shaken up.

Several great heavenly deities took action, yet in the end, they failed, moreover fleeing in sorry states, every single one of them wounded. This was just too ridiculous and hard to believe!

“I didn’t hear wrong, right? Huang is fine and well, while those great heavenly deities met with danger?!”

The various little worlds were all noisy in discussion, all sides shocked, feeling that this was absurd.

“Disgraceful, truly an extraordinary shame and humiliation!”

Those heavenly deities were all roaring, but none as loud as Ma Yuan was. He was the one that made those people set their resolution. That brat had to be eliminated, even if he hid in the Chaos Mosquito Lake.

A day later, they appeared again. This time, there was a Pi Xiu, and Di Kun appeared as well!

The heavenly deities that chased after Shi Hao were pretty much all present. They approached Dark Realm, appearing at the side of the black-colored lake.

This naturally shook up a large half of Immortal Ancient. Many people arrived, watching from afar. They all wanted to know the result of this battle. It was clear that the heavenly deities came prepared, that black-colored lake likely unable to protect Shi Hao.

“Di Kun, you old bastard came again! You still aren’t resigned after I slapped your mouth last time huh? Today, I’m going to slaughter you!”

Shi Hao stuck his head out of the lake to look at them, taunting them as soon as he appeared, making all of the spectators stare blankly. This fella really was vicious, brash to the extreme.

“Little monster, you are dead for sure!” Ma Yuan shouted.

“I want to see what it is that can save you!” The Golden Ancient Elephant also said coldly.

“Not even a true immortal reincarnating would be enough. There is no place for you in the heavens above or earth below!” Di Kun said coldly.

“Hahaha...” Shi Hao laughed loudly, and then his expression became cold. “I’ll send all of you on your way!”

Chapter 955 - Heaven Defying Killing

There were over a hundred thousand people here, the crowd seemingly endless.

Right now, there was precisely this type of scene in Dark Realm, and there were far more than a hundred thousand creatures. They all watched from the distance, distributed between the sky and mountain peaks, densely filling this place.

It was because things had developed too greatly. Several great heavenly deities displayed hatred, insisting on killing Huang.

“Disasters live for a thousand years after all. He really didn’t die!” In the crowd, the little rabbit clenched her fists, laughing with hehe sounds.

The Divine Striking Stone hid between mountain cracks, also sneaking glances over. “Did that fella go mad? Daring to challenge heavenly deities even now. What other types of methods are there?”

Qing Yi, Cao Yusheng, Chang Gongyan and others all came, but none of them revealed their true bodies. They watched carefully, all of them extremely nervous.

They weren’t the only ones, this was the case for others as well. They all felt a rather heavy atmosphere, their attention fixed on the situation.

“Huang, I really don’t know if you’ve gone mad or stupid. Do you think you can stop our advance with this lake alone? If a heavenly deity wanted to kill you, it would be useless even if a True Immortal revived!” Di Kun said.

“If a True Immortal were to descend to earth, a single finger would crush you all to death. No, it should be said that even if a single hair fell, all of you would be blasted apart!” Shi Hao sneered, continuing to ridicule them.

“There’s no need to say anything else. Just get rid of him. Towards this thing who doesn’t know how high the heavens are and how deep the earth is, there is no need to speak more. What is the point of bickering!” Ma Yuan said with an overcast expression.

“Old Ma, you really are someone who doesn’t know what it means to be shameful. Did you already forget the matters of me beating you up, or maybe even forgot the way you pissed your pants in terror, running for your life after being chased by some mosquitoes?”

The more Ma Yuan tried to feign a dignified stance, the more lowly Shi Hao’s mouth became, exposing everything about him, enthusiastically mocking him, angering Old Ma so bad that he began to tremble.

“Stop speaking rubbish. Going to kill you!” The Golden Ancient Elephant was the first one to take action.

Then, the Ancient Ape also moved. The Pi Xiu even more so spat out divine radiance.

In that instant, several heavenly deities moved, activating heavenly deity natural laws to suppress and kill Shi Hao.

However, they were quite crafty. After taking action, they immediately hacked open the void, choosing to flee into the distance. They merely did this to disturb the creatures in the lake, making them move.

Shi Hao's expression changed. The other party acted completely in reverse, using his methods back at him. Those individuals all ran. Even though those mosquitoes felt restraining fear towards the stuff on his body, they still went mad, so they might also attack him.

Heavenly deity natural laws descended, making the black-colored lake erupt.

Large amounts of mosquitoes died, the lake water even more so becoming a white expanse, the upper portion evaporating.

Shi Hao quickly fled to the distance, no longer staying at the center of the lake. That place was too terrifying.

Hong!

The lake's evaporation was stopped. Several golden heavenly deities came out, and those two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes' eyes became red as well. They flapped their wings, crushing the void.

The lake was frozen, no longer being damaged. The most terrifying creatures appeared with the world covering mosquitoes. They were furious, frantically searching for their enemy.

"Run!"

The spectators in the distance cried out in alarm, all of them scared until their faces turned white, frantically running for their lives.

Shi Hao also rushed into the distance. Right at this moment, several great heavenly deities appeared at the same time, surrounding him and locking down the void. The entire mountain region was immediately sealed up.

"Youngster, did you truly think we had no way of dealing with you? For a heavenly deity to kill an ant like you, there are just too many ways!" The Horned Dragon said coldly.

"Why aren't you running? Today, I will slaughter you, and it will be as easy as squashing a bug!" Ma Yuan said coldly.

"Treating my Elephant Race as food, who do you think you are? Today, I will probably interrogate your soul!" The Golden Ancient Elephant was furious.

Di Kun even more so directly took action. A divine chain of order shot out, attacking at Shi Hao. He carried cold intent and contempt as he said, "Brat who doesn't understand life or death!"

Everyone in the distance saw this scene. They all released a sigh. Huang was too full of youthful vigor, throwing his own life away in the process.

Hong!

A tremendous sound rang through the air. A sphere of light appeared around Shi Hao's body, protecting him within.

That was the Divine Protecting Symbol. It displayed its might again, stopping the heavenly deities' attack.

"This ancient talisman really is mysterious. However, I want to see how many times you'll be able to use it! If each one of us attacks, it will be destroyed sooner or later." The Dragon Sparrow laughed coldly.

Hong!

Suddenly, the Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes caught up, carrying several heavenly deities and a hoard of bugs, rushing over like a dark cloud.

This scene was too frightening, making those heavenly deities' expressions all change. They never expected that two ancestral mosquitoes that had lost their intelligence would carry such a grudge, chasing them all the way here.

"Go!"

They restricted this place, and then cut off this part of the void, their bodies vanishing this place, restricting Shi Hao and bringing him with them as they escaped this small world.

In the distance, everyone was shocked. This was too terrifying! The methods of heavenly deities were hard to estimate after all. The fact that they could tear through the void themselves was one thing, but when working together, they could actually bring away an entire chunk of space, bringing the mountains and rivers with them.

Hong!

What shocked them was that the two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes were also like this, instinctively surrounding this entire space, bringing the hoard of mosquitoes in pursuit, leaving this realm.

"Heavens, this group of mosquitoes really hold quite the grudge. Something major is about to happen!" There were true deities that cried out in alarm.

Everyone broke out into a cold shiver, sensing that Immortal Ancient was going to be chaotic. Two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes left their nest, chasing heavenly deities like this, it was definitely terrifying.

"Go, chase after them and take a look!"

"You're crazy! Aren't you scared of being eaten by those mosquitoes? Do you want to become a dried corpse?!"

"Don't worry, those mosquitoes already targeted the heavenly deities, so we can only chase behind them. If something wrong happens, we'll immediately run."

A large group chased after them. There was never a lack of reckless individuals who wanted to personally witness a scene. They all flocked over.

The heavenly deities swept Shi Hao along with them, continuously escaping, appearing in several small worlds in succession. However, the mosquitoes still chased after them, not giving up.

This left those heavenly deities shocked, their faces unpleasant. This was now extremely troublesome. They never expected the ancient mosquitoes to be so hard to get rid off, actually pursuing them all this way.

Could it be that some of them were going to die?

“Hurry and take action!” The Ancient Ape erupted, taking action against Shi Hao, attacking his Divine Protection Symbol.

The others’ expressions became extremely gloomy. They all brought out precious techniques as well, preparing to bombard this symbol and seize his flesh. They would then separately run, every man for himself.

Those who chased after them discovered that the mosquitoes were indeed only targeting those heavenly deities.

There were more and more spectators. A small half of Immortal Ancient was startled, and cultivators from every race appeared, all of them wishing to watch this unbelievable scene.

“Finished, this time Huang is going to die from this disaster!” Someone sighed.

How is he still supposed to run? Being sealed in the void by several great heavenly deities, if he only had the Divine Protecting Symbol to rely on, sooner or later, it would be broken.

“How could it be like this? This fella is too stupid, putting himself in that kind of dangerous situation. This time, he is most likely going to die!” The little rabbit widened its eyes in a stupefied manner.

“Sigh, why are you so dumb?!” The Divine Striking stone was disappointed in Shi Hao.

Qing Yi, Cao Yuseheng, Xue Lin, Luo Dao, Chang Gongyan and others also frowned. Shi Hao fell into a difficult situation. There was no route of life to speak of at all.

Outside world, three thousand provinces.

The cultivators of all sects saw this scene, because Shi Hao didn’t use his immortal energy. This situation turned around too quickly, leaving everyone shocked.

“He is definitely dead this time. How is he supposed to turn around the situation?”

“Hah, the reason he was able to live before can be considered a miracle, a great swing of luck, but before absolute strength, what kind of splashes can a small cultivator make? Challenging several heavenly deities like this, it is just purely courting death!”

Some people discussed among themselves. The ones that were previously furious began to laugh now, carrying expressions of mockery as they watched the situation develop.

“If he can still survive, then I’ll slap my own face, consider myself shooting my mouth.” Someone carried cold intent. He then began to laugh loudly.

“He’s definitely dead. What road of life is there to speak of?!” The others also shook their heads. That was definitely a dangerous situation with no way out.

Underworld Clan, Heavenly Country, Immortal Palace, Fire Cloud Cavern, Celestial Clan, and other clans all revealed faint smiles, releasing a breath of resentment. They all felt their moods becoming much better.

However, right at this moment, a sky shocking radiance shone, making everyone's eyes sting with pain. Their minds were greatly shaking, all of them stupefied.

"Heavens, what is he doing?"

"Could it be that he wants to turn around the situation, able to come back from death's door?!"

"He is... defying the heavens!"

Many people cried out, and even heavenly deities were no exception. They were all stupefied.

Three thousand provinces, the cultivators of all sects were shaken, staring blankly at the scene reflected off the Immortal Dao Flower Petals, finding everything hard to believe.

At the same time, many people felt their faces turn hot, as if they were slapped.

Within Immortal Ancient, a small world.

Shi Hao stood at the center, no longer suppressing himself. He operated his divine force at full strength, his entire body shining. He erupted into the most powerful state he had been since birth, using the Lightning Emperor's secret technique to move endless lightning radiance.

In that instant, a thick streak of heaven connecting lightning crashed down. It was terrifying to no end, shocking all directions!

This was heavenly tribulation, not regular lightning, the divine judgment rained down from the heavens!

If a normal person tried to bring about such a thing in an era without heavenly tribulation, it would be extremely difficult. However, Shi Hao cultivated the Lightning Emperor's secret technique, and carefully researched this dao, so it wasn't too strenuous.

However, this heaven defying matter of forcefully guiding heavenly tribulation was incomparably terrifying, much more terrifying than the lightning judgment that normally descended.

It was just the beginning, yet the most powerful lightning descended, piercing through the void, blasting everything apart. The noises that rang out were like the explosions of stars, making everyone's ears bleed. It was difficult to endure.

This was too ferocious and terrifying!

No one would have expected Shi Hao to be this decisive, actually doing this type of thing that shocked all of Immortal Ancient!

Ah...

Several heavenly deities cried out miserably, their faces full of fear.

It was because in that terrifying heavenly judgment, there was extremely strong curse power descending along with the lightning radiance, completely submerging them. no 12e) 1b.1n

Shi Hao was crossing a tribulation, but they suffered disaster with him!

This curse power was rich to an unimaginable level, like liquid as it surrounded them, the corrosion seeping into their bones, simply unable to escape from.

If they never encountered the curse, then that was one thing. They wouldn't be directly obliterated the first time.

However, these individuals were long 'beyond cure', corroded by the curse for several tens of thousands of years. Now, it completely, thoroughly erupted.

"No, no, no!" Ma Yuan cried out, starting to decay from the feet up. Large pieces of flesh came off, almost becoming a skeleton in an instant.

"Ah ah ah... go away!" The Golden Ancient Elephant roared. Even though its skin was rough and its flesh thick, golden divine skin incomparably sturdy, right now, dead skin covered its body, quickly decaying.

It was originally someone with shocking defensive prowess, but because it had pursued Shi Hao for a while, it suffered the most from the curse, immediately 'buried' under the terrifying curse power.

The Golden Ancient Elephant cried out miserably, its head in tatters, pieces of flesh coming off. It immediately revealed white-colored bones.

In addition, even its heavenly deity bones were decaying, becoming like rotten wood, continuously cracking.

Hong!

A streak of heavenly lightning descended, perfectly hacking down on its tusks. The two snow-white weapons broke, carrying decaying black blood as they fell from the skies.

"Too... domineering, what a waste! My heavenly deity elephant meat!" Just as Shi Hao was hacked until he was grimacing in pain, he still didn't forget about food, speaking this sentence, angering the Golden Ancient Elephant until its entire body was contorting.

"Ah..." Di Kun was roaring angrily, his flesh covered in discolored skin, flesh continuously separating.

This was true for all of those great heavenly deities without exception. They all encountered a disaster!

"I am unwilling to accept this!" The heavenly deities all roared.

"Heavens, did Huang do this?" In the distance, everyone was shaken up, not daring to believe their eyes.

"He is crossing the tribulation, using this to trap and kill those great heavenly deities! This is too crazy! Doing it like this, will he even be able to live?"

Chapter 956 - Heavenly Tribulation

The heavenly tribulation that should have only come in the last great era appeared in this world again, moreover so fiercely. It was so powerful that all of the creatures' scalps went numb!

No one expected Huang to be so decisive, not hesitating to use his own life as the primer for guiding heavenly tribulation, resist these great heavenly deities.

Hong!

Heavenly thunder resounded through this place, the lightning each more vicious than the last. The dazzling lightning radiance were thicker than mountains as they hacked down, making the mountains and rivers explode, the void blast apart.

The spectators had never seen such terrifying lightning tribulation before. Was there even any path of life out of this? This was completely a disaster, one that would completely erase everything!

There was not even a shred of hope in sight. Normally, how could cultivation at the consummate level of Divine Flame Realm resist this? Even if one ascended to the True Deity Realm during this process, it still wouldn't be enough.

Ah... Ma Yuan cried out miserably, his face distorting, eyes full of despair. The tremendous lightning radiance crashed down, the curse power it brought unimaginable.

The strange power was like liquid, surrounding him, making his entire body a grayish-white color. A thick rotting smell emerged from within him, spreading into the air.

On his body, his flesh was decaying, everything below his knees long turned into white bones. Black-colored blood flowed outwards. It was as miserable as miserable could be.

Kacha!

An enormous streak of lightning hacked down. His kneecaps exploded, rotting away as well. His calf bones fell, shattering under the thunder radiance, turning into nothing.

The curse corroded flesh, blood, and bone!

"Little monster!" Ma Yuan roared, throwing himself at Shi Hao to kill him. It was because he knew that he himself was likely in danger, wishing to eliminate Shi Hao before he faced judgment.

Hong!

However, Shi Hao was currently at the center of the lightning tribulation, the curse power there even more vicious like that of an erupting volcano. It was boundless, originating from all directions as it frantically surged.

As soon as he approached, a streak of lightning radiance immediately struck down on his skull. Blood immediately flew everywhere, his scalp coming off, hair burning!

That curse was mixed together with the lightning radiance, landing on his body like red molten iron on snow. Chi chi sounds rang out as pieces of flesh came off. His skull was pitch-black, dead spots spreading.

Ma Yuan screamed miserably, immediately blasted outwards.

The curse was too serious, delivering life threatening danger to a heavenly deity!

"Old thing, you really aren't enough. We've only started yet you already can't hold on?" Shi Hao made cynical remarks. In reality, his own situation was a horrible sight as well.

His entire body was covered in blood, the first few strikes of lightning radiance already leaving his hair dishevelled, flesh badly mangled, entire body scorched black, receiving extremely serious injuries.

The heavenly tribulation this time was unimaginable, incredibly powerful. Even in the past era when there were heavenly tribulations endless years ago, it was rarely seen on cultivators at this realm.

This was destruction without any way of life!

When this type of lightning tribulation appeared, it signified destruction, the massacre of exceptional geniuses. Thunderclouds oppressed the world!

The heavenly tribulation wasn't right, the color a bit terrifying. At first, gold, silver, and purple colored lightning hacked down, but in the end, there was blood-colored lightning, the electrical radiance pouring down like corpse water, splitting the heavens.

Hong!

A streak of thunderous light hacked down, releasing five-colored light, turning into five thunderclaps, smashing down on Ma Yuan's head. This was 'Five Thunderclaps From Above' not only in name, but reality.

"Ah..." Ma Yuan cried out miserably, because the curse power was too strong, corroding his skull, making the crown of his head decay.

Kacha!

A streak of blood-colored lightning descended, tearing apart the crown of his head. Black smoke began to rise, blood splashing outwards. It was a ghastly sight.

In the distance, all those who saw this scene shivered, their bodies breaking out into goosebumps. This was a heavenly deity, yet he was suffering this kind of torment.

This scene made everyone tremble, their bodies shaking, fine hairs and pores feeling cold.

"Go!" Ma Yuan wanted to flee. He was just too terrified. This was just the beginning, yet he was already corroded so miserably by the curse power. All of the previous dormant afflictions now flared out.

However, something that made his scalp go numb happened. In the distance, the two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes went mad. They didn't stay within the range of the heavenly tribulation, but they were stirred up to the point of going mad.

A boundless domain surged, affecting the space around them. The two ancient bugs sealed up this place.

The other heavenly deities moved even earlier than Ma Yuan, all of them wishing to escape from this cursed place, but they suffered an ambush. As soon as the Horned Dragon tore apart the void, a streak of bloody light appeared, half of its body breaking off.

That was a Chaos Ancient Mosquito taking action. The terrifying mouthpart broke its dragon tail, drinking half of its body's essence blood in one go.

No matter how powerful a heavenly deity was, it would still take time for them to recover, unable to restore its condition on the spot. Meanwhile, in this cursed land, a slight bit of weakness would be incredibly terrifying.

“No, ah...” The Horned Dragon roared.

It backed up, returning to the lightning radiance. The curse corroded its body, flesh splitting, pieces falling off. It was like old bark falling off a withered tree over endless time.

Snow-white bones were revealed. The Horned Dragon screamed miserably. Half of its body was destroyed, a part of its body lost, and now, another portion became sparkling white bones.

This was but a heavenly deity! When had it ever been in such a terrible situation?!

“No! My heart is bleeding! That is dragon meat, heavenly deity grade, yet it was wasted just like that!” Shi Hao screamed from the distance. Even though his face was drenched in blood, hair a complete mess, entire body covered in cracks and scorched black, he still shouted loudly.

When the Horned Dragon heard this, it was so angry its entire body shuddered. A trifling Divine Flame Realm cultivator even dared to act so impudent, lusting after its flesh, it truly was intolerable!

Only, right now, it truly was at its wits end. The heavenly tribulation crashed down, thunder radiance still continuing. The main issue was that the curse was too strong, completely making the heavy curse that had already infected their bodies flare out, setting off a barrel of explosives.

“This isn’t the useless flesh of that bastard Ma Yuan, but Horned Dragon meat!” Shi Hao grieved.

Ma Yuan’s nose almost went crooked from anger, smoke coming out from his seven apertures, feeling endless resentment.

Right now, they truly wished they were rather dead than alive.

“Youngster, you aren’t allowed to die easily!” The Horned Dragon angrily berated. This vicious younger generation youth actually incited heavenly tribulation, getting them all involved as well.

“Dao friends, let’s run and leave this blasted place first. If we die because of this, it will be too sullen!” Ma Yuan advised, standing together with the Horned Dragon, preparing to break out.

However, the scene that happened not too far out made their fine hairs stand on end, making them immediately stop their footsteps.

The Dragon Sparrow broke out, using its heavenly deity wings to hack apart the sky, about to escape, but a palm-sized mosquito disappeared with a flash. With a pu sound, it pierced through its body, entering inside.

Ah...

The Dragon Sparrow screamed miserably, its body immediately withering up, all of its blood essence disappearing.

Immediately afterwards, it broke free, forcing away that ancient mosquito, but it couldn't endure the curse's corrosion. It staggered about, but when it returned to the lightning radiance, it was hacked by a streak of heavenly lightning, its entire body becoming ash-colored. Curse power completely devoured it.

Kacha!

It began to split apart from between its brows, all of the flesh over its entire body turning into thick blood. Only a skeleton remained, and even the heavenly deity bones were rotting.

A gray-colored divine bird flew out from its skull. That was its primordial spirit, currently without the slightest bit of luster. It gradually darkened as more thunderous light appeared.

Pu!

In the end, its primordial spirit scattered!

A heavenly deity fell!

The Dragon Sparrow was the one with the weakest cultivation, its heavenly dao unsteady, barely reaching this cultivation realm. As such, it was the first to encounter disaster, dying here.

"Heavens, a heavenly deity died, turned to ashes under the curse power just like that. This... is all because of a single youth."

"But Huang is still alive, still challenging the tribulation!"

Everyone's lips were shaking. When they saw this scene, every single one of them trembled with fear. A high and mighty, unequalled heavenly deity died just like that.

It was like something out of a legend. One has to understand that this was all brought about by a small cultivator!

"Ah ah ah... it hurts so much!" Shi Hao screamed with incomparable pain. "Heavens, return me my Dragon Sparrow meat! What a waste of natural resources, how can you destroy it just like that? I want to eat heavenly deity grade divine bird meat!"

His injuries were severe, many places already revealing bone. His body was badly mangled, struggling under the lightning radiance. However, his mouth just wouldn't close.

"Little monster, serves you right to be hacked by lightning. You'll die without a proper burial site!" A heavenly deity roared angrily.

"Ah pei! This old one just isn't going to die! You old turtles can die instead!" Shi Hao responded, enduring the pain, replying through gritted teeth.

At this point, both sides were in incomparable pain, even Shi Hao himself felt that things weren't quite right. There was curse power spreading, wishing to enter his body.

Fortunately, he wasn't a native, his body previously not housing endless curse power, so it didn't flare out. He wouldn't immediately die from being affected the first time. ~~no ve. l b~~)In

Kacha!

Lightning radiance was released everywhere, blood-colored lightning interweaving, forming a web, blasting Shi Hao until he flew outwards, smashing into the ground. His body released pi pa sounds, cracks covering his bones densely.

Right now, those heavenly deities weren't feeling all that great either.

"Not good, dying in the hands of a younger generation youth is too shameful. We have to escape no matter what!" The Horned Dragon roared.

A Pi Xiu appeared at its side, as well as a Golden Ancient Ape. They were both well-known figures among heavenly deities. They displayed might together, rushing outwards.

"Not good, don't tell me that the ancient mosquitoes revived, developing a bit of intelligence? Why are they attacking now?" The Ancient Ape shouted.

The situation was dire. Its defensive force was definitely astonishing, golden scales covering its body, but it still wasn't enough to block the penetration of the ancient bug's mouthparts. Blood began to fly out like a whirlwind.

"Monkey, you dare run? Leave your monkey brain behind! My food isn't allowed to be brought away!" Shi Hao roared.

"I fucking swear..." The Ancient Ape was furious, its temper irritable to begin with. Now, after suffering this kind of torment, its temper naturally became even more unfavorable, wishing to trample Shi Hao to death in one go.

"Not good, dao brother, save me!" Ma Yuan screamed miserably.

Turns out that he actually escaped to the side after breaking out from the siege of three heavenly deities, but then, another ancient mosquito pierced through him, half of his body now completely lost.

In an instant, dead spots quickly covered his body, his flesh crumbling away.

"Old Ma, I am going to fight a decisive battle with you!" Shi Hao put on a look of devoted righteousness, descending.

"Decisive battle my ass!" Ma Yuan cursed. He really wanted to skin Shi Hao alive.

When Shi Hao threw himself over, the heart of the heavenly tribulation also moved. This without a doubt sped up Ma Yuan's destruction.

"No..." Ma Yuan cried out miserably, his eyes filled with despair, carrying remorse. Why did this disaster have to come? It wasn't worth it at all! He threw his own life away in the process.

In the distance, those heavenly deities didn't take action, all preoccupied with protecting themselves. Who had enough time to tend to Ma Yuan?

Pu!

He turned into a skeleton, his primordial spirit also about to shatter, on the verge of vanishing.

“Old Ma, I’ll help you out!” Shi Hao descended from the sky, bringing with him thunderous light and curse power, a foot trampling down viciously.

Pu!

Ma Yuan’s skull cracked, primordial spirit scattered, his body and spirit thus erased.

Chapter 957 - Hunting Down Heavenly Deity

Two heavenly deities died. The effects of this were huge, an event that would definitely shake up all of Immortal Ancient!

Dragon Sparrow and Ma Yuan had great reputations, both of them the heavenly deities of a clan, but now, they died because of a youth. These news swept through everything like a storm.

In addition, the storm was still brewing, continuing to grow!

Ka!

Scarlet lightning descended from the sky like blood, dying the sky in scarlet red. It was incomparably terrifying. This streak of lightning became more and more terrifying, dying heaven and earth red.

It was as if the blood of an unmatched creature scattered down, creating a bleak and frigid expanse.

Pu!

Shi Hao coughed out large amounts of blood, seriously injured. His body was hacked flying, and the bones in his body broke, flesh badly mangled, releasing a scorched black smell.

“Run, leave this place!”

These heavenly deities said to themselves. They were much more miserable than Shi Hao, their white bones revealed, flesh about to completely fall off. The curse power already completely seeped into the bones.

Only, those two Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes weren’t far out, not willing to leave, leaving them in an extremely helpless situation.

“Break out, I refuse to believe that they can stop all of us!” Di Kun said viciously. The only thing they could do now was take risks, or else there wasn’t a single road of life to speak of.

In addition, even if they could escape, could they still live? The curse power within their bodies flared out, so it was possible that they might decline and die in meditation later.

Aohou... The Ancient Ape roared ferociously. It couldn’t take it any longer either, preparing to fight with its life to escape.

“Fine, then let’s just go at it together!” The Horned Dragon agreed. It only had half its body left over, incomparably frail. If it stayed here any longer, it would undoubtedly die.

“Kill!” The Golden Ancient Elephant was the first one to move. Even its snow white tusks were hacked apart, its flesh badly mangled, rough golden elephant skin even more so already full of holes, decayed to an unbearable state.

Dong!

As soon as the Golden Ancient Elephant moved, it immediately triggered crazy lightning!

It was because Shi Hao wasn't far off. Even though he was seriously injured, his body about to fall apart, he still did everything he could to rush over. This was the same as bringing lightning radiance over, supporting the curse power.

He didn't want to leave behind a single person, taking action with purpose. He went out to stop that Golden Ancient Elephant.

The blood-colored lightning overflowed outwards as if the heavens were crying, scattering tears from above. When they landed on the heavenly deities' bodies, it sped up the decaying process. The Golden Ancient Elephant immediately released a miserable scream.

Shi Hao also released a muffled groan. At this moment, it was already hard for him to shoot his mouth, because the pressure he faced was too great, potentially falling at any moment.

This was especially true if he acted recklessly, as it would be even more dangerous.

Pu!

"Go!"

At this moment, the others already took action, rushing towards different directions.

Ah ah ah...

The Ancient Ape released a miserable cry, the golden scales on his body blasted apart. A palm sized Chaos Ancient Mosquito pierced through its body, sucking out its essence blood. However, it was still running.

The decaying of its flesh was sped up during this process. When it charged out a hundred li, it was already almost a skeleton monkey.

However, it succeeded, freeing itself from the heavenly calamity and the ancient mosquitoes!

The Ancient Ape ran away. In the end, it turned around to look backwards towards Shi Hao who was at the center of the lightning radiance, its eyes revealing incomparably cold radiance.

"Killing disaster, do you think you can live?!" Shi Hao provoked while in the heavenly calamity, roaring loudly.

In addition, he began to chase after it, supporting the heavenly lightning and curse power, splitting the skies and quickly rushing over.

The Ancient Ape was furious. A glorious heavenly deity actually couldn't do anything, only able to run, chased to such a miserable state by a small cultivator. It made it release a heaven shaking roar of anger.

Kacha!

The sounds of bones cracking rang through the air. The Ancient Ape was horrified. Its skull began to decay under the curse power, now pretty much only its primordial spirit left.

“Not good!”

It released a loud cry, no longer daring to stop for even a moment, quickly leaving into the distance.

Even though it did this, could it continue living? That was too difficult. Its flesh had been completely destroyed, only having a primordial spirit left, how was it supposed to resist the curse power?

The Ancient Ape didn't return either, rushing towards its own residence. It wanted to return to its clan and immediately enter seclusion to recover.

“Ah...” Behind it, the Horned Dragon released a miserable cry. The breakout siege failed, because it only had half its body left. It was the one in the weakest state to begin with. When its skull was pierced through by a Chaos Ancient Mosquito, it died on the spot.

“Little monster, you can enjoy your happiness for now. When I come back, I will definitely kill you!” Di Kun said with an overcast voice. His flesh had also been ruined, only having his primordial spirit and skeleton left as he fled towards the distance.

However, he successfully broke free.

“Ah...” The Golden Ancient Elephant roared, doing everything it could to free itself from the lightning tribulation. It rushed out from the sea of curses, but in the end, it was still unlucky, its entire body breaking apart.

Pu!

It was injured too severely. In the end, even its skeleton cracked, falling apart.

Its primordial spirit changed from a gold color to a grayish-black. This was a reflection of the late stage of the curse's development. It carried grief and unwillingness, and then exploded in the void.

The Golden Ancient Elephant also died!

The Dragon Sparrow, Ma Yuan, Horned Dragon, and Golden Ancient Elephant, four great heavenly deities had fallen.

“Aohou...” In the distance, a silver-colored Pi Xiu roared, paying a huge price. Its scales shed light, blood flowing out, another half of its body removed by the Chaos Ancient Mosquito, and only then did it leave.

Seven great heavenly deities, yet in the end, only Di Kun, Ancient Ape, and Pi Xiu lived, withdrawing from this place.

Soon afterwards, the Chaos Ancient Mosquitoes also left.

“Kill!”

No one expected that Shi Hao would actually be the one to hunt after heavenly deities.

He used the Realm Shattering Symbol, and based on what he understood, moved through the void, breaking realm walls, chasing after them.

This was utterly terrifying. The void was in tatters, blasted to a completely ruined state. No one had ever heard of someone moving through the void while crossing a tribulation! Others couldn't endure it even after making an all-out effort.

Shi Hao was naturally in danger as well, many cracks appearing on his bones, quite a few of them broken, but he still clenched his teeth and endured it. He didn't want to leave behind any trouble, wishing to use this to get rid of future troubles.

The Pi Xiu was the last one to run, and as a result, he followed it.

This was an ancient land with a lot of rubble, the Pi Xiu Clan's place of residence. However, there weren't that many people, the number of residents few.

Strictly speaking, these weren't natives, but rather the descendants left behind by the Pi Xiu Clan geniuses who stayed after entering.

Unexpectedly, when Shi Hao followed it here, there wasn't an intense battle. That ancient Pi Xiu was already breaking apart, its bones collapsing, primordial spirit declining.

"Younger generation, this has nothing to do with my clansmen!" The Pi Xiu shouted.

In the lightning tribulation, Shi Hao was almost blasted rotten, his bones broken and tendons snapped. However, he still resisted it. These weren't great dao injuries. He forcefully stirred his blood energy to recover.

Shi Hao didn't say anything, only staring at that Pi Xiu.

Pu!

Its primordial spirit cracked corroded by the curse power, still unable to resist it in the end, ultimately dying.

Shi Hao turned around, not rushing into the forest depths, not taking his anger out on this clan. He went on his way again.

Hong!

The void was smashed apart. He faced tribulation in the darkness, bathing in lightning radiance in the passage. This type of scene had never appeared in the past, the first time someone moved while crossing tribulation.

Ah...

Shi Hao released a low roar, his body splitting apart. However, when the two strands of immortal energy covered his body, his situation improved somewhat, recovering his injured body. ~~no~~ve.l8)In

This weren't great dao injuries, so it couldn't harm his foundation. He could still suppress it.

"What a freak! Huang is hunting down heavenly deities! He forced a Pi Xiu to death, this... is there still heavenly reason?" A small cultivator able to accomplish this, this can also be considered heaven defying!"

There were people who followed over, moreover not just a few. When they discovered that the Pi Xiu died, they were all stupefied. Only a few people were able to open their mouths and cry out with shock.

Ape Mountain, this was a grand and massive place. They towered one after another. The native Ape Race resided here.

However, when the Ancient Ape returned, it didn't enter the clan, instead sitting outside. It was because the curse power on its body was too serious, continuously spilling outwards. It might harm the clan.

Even though it was vicious and violent, its actions against enemies fierce, it still cared greatly about its clansmen.

Hong!

The void split apart. Shi Hao appeared while carrying lightning tribulation and curse power. Light flourished in all directions, an aura of destruction spreading. Scarlet red lightning swirled about him, making him look like a world-shocking demonic god.

"Vicious ape, didn't you want to kill me?" Come then!" Shi Hao roared.

The Ancient Ape opened its eyes. Within its skeleton, there were only five organs that were preserved. It released a roar, turning into a streak of golden light, rushing over, a battle spear appearing in its hand, hacking it at Shi Hao.

Hong!

Curse power flourished with the lightning radiance.

The Ancient Ape staggered, its natural laws actually distorting. This was a sign of its extremely weak state.

"Die!"

The Ancient Ape struck out with the spear in its hands, penetrating the void, bringing with it natural laws, flying into the lightning.

Dang dang sounds rang out. The spear released sparks, but it still wasn't destroyed!

Shi Hao released a sigh. He quickly evaded and also used the Divine Protection Symbol. With a weng sound, he was surrounded, and even the heavenly tribulation was temporarily stopped.

The spear was stopped, the natural laws unable to hit him.

However, it was precisely at this time that the heavenly tribulation became more vicious, incomparably brutal.

Shi Hao's face became pale. He put away the Divine Protection Symbol and frantically ran. Everything in that area was destroyed, completely wiped out.

The enormous black hole was blasted through. That type of divine might was unimaginable!

“This...” Even the Ancient Ape was shocked. He flew outwards, coughing out large amounts of blood. This lightning tribulation was too terrifying, because the interference of heavenly deity natural laws made the lightning tribulation immediately become even more crazy.

“Why would it...” The Ancient Ape cried out loudly. After the lightning tribulation enlarged, part of it rushed at it, the curse power becoming even more strange.

Pu!

There was no way to evade it. The Ancient Ape’s bones completely rotted, and the primordial spirit was corroded, ultimately vanishing like smoke into thin air.

In the distance, color vanished from Shi Hao’s face. Just now, it was too dangerous. The lightning radiance was likely enough to directly hack a heavenly deity to death. It seemed like because this great era was without heavenly tribulation, everyone understood much less about it.

When others interfered, it unexpectedly triggered heavenly tribulation of the corresponding cultivation realm, inviting trouble onto themselves. It would also make the tribulation even more terrifying!

Shi Hao was lucky, avoiding that disaster.

He didn’t stop, bringing the lightning radiance through the void again in pursuit of Di Kun.

This was an ancient place where bronze structures towered one after another. They were all incomparably massive, unexpectedly all formed from bronze!

Di Kun suddenly opened his eyes. He was currently sitting in the bronze ancient palace at the center, resisting the curse.

Chi!

He rose up, looked at Shi Hao, and then said, “Crossing the tribulation... yet still dare to chase over!”

“You should have all your clansmen leave!” Shi Hao’s voice was hoarse. He endured the intense pain. Right now, his bones were broken and his muscles severed, severely injured under the lightning radiance. It was because facing the tribulation like this was quite difficult.

“My curse power is difficult to bring under control, and this is Immortal Ancient’s final opening. Even if they continue living, what is the point?” Di Kun said to himself.

“You...” Shi Hao was shocked. This heavenly deity was too deranged. Was he going to bury his clansmen with him?

“I was originally Immortal Palace’s greatest inheritor, but I was then ordered by the sect ancestor to take root in Immortal Ancient and slowly arrange things. However, in the end, I was stranded here, not obtaining any great opportunity.” Di Kun spoke in self-mockery. His expression was gloomy, carrying hatred and resentment.

Shi Hao’s mind was shaken up. He didn’t choose to stay behind himself, but rather accepted an order in the past. Immortal Palace’s schemes were not small, but... the results weren’t great.

Di Kun was corroded by the curse, and each year couldn't leave many times, only able to hole up in a corner, unable to do anything grand.

"Immortal Palace truly... is full of ambition." Shi Hao said.

"Come then!" Di Kun said coldly, carrying a cruel smile. He rushed forward, already knowing that he couldn't live much longer. It was because he tried to neutralize the curse, but it was completely ineffective.

He wanted to drag Shi Hao with him to his grave!

He didn't try to resist the curse any longer, allowing it to spread, instead focusing on displaying his heavenly deity natural laws.

"How could it be..." His face was full of horror and regret. It was because the lightning radiance rushed at him, incredibly massive, the curse becoming several dozen times richer.

Pu!

In that instant, his skull decayed, and the primordial spirit turned to ashes, thus having both body and spirit destroyed.

"Ah..." Shi Hao immediately fled into the distance, crying out miserably. It was because he suffered too many blows, his body in tatters, almost dying as well.

Hong!

Finally, right at this moment, when he was about to break through and enter the True Deity Realm, a powerful aura pervaded the air. The blood energy became more ferocious, nourishing his body.

Weng!

His body shone. In that instant, his body's endless potential was released. His flesh became sparkling, immediately shining resplendently.

Under pi pa sounds, his bones reconnected, flesh recovered, quickly reaching the most powerful state.

He was about to break through! This was the result of his potential fully flourishing!

"It's coming, can I cultivate a third strand of immortal energy?" Shi Hao was nervous, because these were his final moments in the Divine Flame Realm.

Right now, the heavenly tribulation became even more ferocious. One could vaguely see the lightning form ancient trees, creatures, and other things, becoming more and more frightening.

Chapter 958 - Great Dao Guillotine

"I have to become stronger!" Shi Hao roared. He faced the sea of lightning, staring into the endless lightning. He wanted to produce a third strand of immortal energy.

Hong!

Lightning struck down, making heaven and earth split apart, ghost and deities howl. Bloody rain scattered down onto this world, bright red and striking. Endless lightning rumbled with ear-splitting sound.

It was a boundless expanse, nothing else visible, only heavenly tribulation.

“Ah...” Shi Hao released a low roar. He already rose to the highest level he could currently, the consummate level of the divine flame, reaching the peak, about to step into the True Deity Realm.

He had never been this powerful in his life, exceeding the past. His body released all types of multicolored light, blazing in the darkness, illuminating eternity!

Dang! n(-O.-v))e()L//b--1/)n

When that enormous streak of lightning struck down on his body, there were unexpectedly sparks that flew out, as if metal was striking against each other. Ear-splitting keng qiang sounds rang through the air.

This was simply unimaginable. When those in the distance saw this scene, there wasn't a single one that wasn't stupefied.

Was this still a person? Lightning radiance crashed down, if it was any other creature, it would have definitely been hard to stop the heavenly might, turned into ashes. Even if they weren't dead, they would be seriously injured. However, he was currently so heavenly defying.

Kuang!

Another enormous sound rang out, lightning radiance concentrated. They hacked down one after another, thick like mountains, crashing down on his body. Sparks flew in all directions, releasing zheng zheng sounds. It was too shocking.

Everyone was stupefied, shivering inwardly. Huang's body was just too powerful.

Shi Hao's breakthrough was imminent, all of his potential now released. After recovering to his peak, his body was advanced to its greatest peak. While resisting the lightning tribulation, he displayed shocking methods, facing it head on without breaking.

However, he didn't act carelessly, because the terrifying lightning radiance was still behind him. This time, if he acted with even the slightest bit of carelessness, he would die. The heavenly tribulation this time was too powerful.

“Third strand of immortal energy, is it still not going to appear?” He became nervous. At this final moment, there were still no changes. He never took that legendary step.

It was rumored that in Immortal Ancient Great Era, a few people, when experiencing the most terrifying tribulation, would produce a strand of immortal energy directly while in the transformation, bringing themselves to the highest peak.

It was already hard for him to suppress himself, about to break through, but there was still no sign of the third strand of immortal energy. This made him feel incomparable despair.

“Is there none?!” Shi Hao looked into the heavens.

Up above, a sea of lightning roiled about, not completely erupting. It poured down like an ocean.

“Not good!” Shi Hao’s expression changed. The most worrisome thing happened. Those creatures in the sea of lightning revived, developing life force. They began to rush murderously at him.

Aohou... A Taotie moved its head and tail, devouring all things. It stepped out from the lightning clouds, its body even larger than a mountain, throwing itself over.

This was formed from enormous lightning radiance, incredibly concentrated. It was like a divine fetus, currently possessing a soul. It was unstoppable.

Shi Hao released a roar, taking action with all of his power, not holding anything back as he faced that Taotie. He was going to strike it down in the void.

Hong!

The lightning erupted, piercing through the void. This place broke apart into pieces.

In addition, the Taotie devoured all things, opening its enormous mouth to refine everything.

Pu!

Shi Hao’s flesh was cracked and broken, blood dripping everywhere. He finally couldn’t hold on in this lightning tribulation, taking on this terrifying strike. His hair became dishevelled.

“Kill!”

However, his gaze became even more sharp. After staggering a bit, he straightened his body again.

“Since there is no third strand of immortal energy, then I won’t force it.” Shi Hao said softly. Then, he raised his head towards that Taotie, starting to crazily take action.

In addition, he already began to display his final vital energy, charging at the True Deity Realm.

“Aohou...” A roaring sounded, erupting in the lightning tribulation, overwhelming all of the thunder sounds, so one could imagine just how powerful the void was. That Taotie went crazy, clashing against him.

Pu!

Shi Hao, who didn’t hold anything back, was incomparably vicious, even more so than a vicious beast. His speed was too fast, dancing about in the lightning. His fist unexpectedly pierced through the space between the Taotie’s brows.

It was because right now, he was just too powerful, half a step into the True Deity Realm, his life advancing, exceeding the self, carrying out a transformation.

Right now, he was more powerful than he had ever been before!

It was precisely at this time that he widened his eyes with shock, because there was an indistinct strand of immortal energy that slowly gathered, about to form, appearing outside his body.

However, at this moment, the heavenly lightning erupted, the sea of thunder endless, completely smashing downwards. Shi Hao was completely covered.

“Not good!” Shi Hao was greatly shaken up. This type of feeling was too terrible, like the arrival of judgment day, making all of his fine hairs stand up. A layer of goosebumps appeared.

His heart was about to stop beating, oxygen not moving properly. This was his body instinctively telling him that a great disaster was descending, that he might die here.

Hong!

Sure enough, a streak of lightning that was unimaginably powerful could vaguely be seen. Shi Hao saw many creatures roar, charging at him, shadows everywhere, all of them incredibly terrifying.

This lightning sea smashed down on his body, the tremendous weight crushing down on him!

Shi Hao coughed up large amounts of blood, many of the bones all over his body broken. Vicious beasts and divine birds all threw themselves over, roaring endlessly.

Peng!

The most frightening thing was that a golden heavenly monument appeared, descending from the sky, suppressing him below. His body immediately released pi pa sounds, all of his bones about to shatter.

“What is that?!” Shi Hao was shocked.

This was a great era without heavenly tribulation. Forcefully stirring on lightning tribulation produced terrifyingly astonishing effects after all. There were sinister events at every turn, incredibly frightening.

There was actually a golden heavenly monument that even appeared, covered densely in symbols. There were even many terrifying creatures roaring at its side, releasing ear-splitting sounds.

Meanwhile, this was all produced by lightning!

The sea of lightning contained a heavenly monument. How was it created? Was this monument going to crush down itself?

Shi Hao wasn't one to believe in supernatural things. He raised his fist, smashing over, striking the heavenly monument. Thunderous light erupted, creating a boundless expanse between the two. It was incomparably brilliant, nothing visible.

Immediately afterwards, Shi Hao was sent flying, bright red blood falling down. He was seriously injured by the boundless lightning radiance.

This heavenly monument wasn't simple. Countless creatures were kneeling and bowing around it, figures everywhere. They possessed terrifying power, erupting with incomparable lightning.

“Do you think this alone is enough to stop me?” Shi Hao shouted loudly, his head of hair sticky with blood as they stood vertically. He raised his fist and punched the sky.

However, that monument really was extremely terrifying. It slowly descended, suppressing him below, making him sink down inch by inch, collapsing the void. He was going to be suppressed and killed.

“Rise!”

Shi Hao roared angrily. This heavenly monument couldn't be hid from. It continued to crush down on his head, and now, it was going to kill him.

Dang dang dang...

He brandished his fists, all of the attacks striking the heavenly monument, making it release loud rumbling sounds. Slight cracks appeared.

At the same time, Shi Hao was about to become a true deity. That strand of immortal energy became a bit clearer, about to fully form and appear in this world.

Kacha!

The moment a corner of the golden heavenly monument was shattered, the endless creatures that were kneeling in worship cried out in alarm, all of them shuddering.

Even though this was formed from lightning, the scene was extremely real.

Qiang!

A streak of snow-white blade radiance surged, tearing through the clouds, momentarily scattering the sea of lightning, making all things in heaven and earth reappear.

“Heavens, what is that?” In the distance, everyone widened their eyes, their faces filled with fear and shock, finding this hard to believe.

The golden heavenly monument actually floated there, releasing blade radiance from within. The boundless white light covered almost everything in blinding brilliance, making that area look incomparably divine.

This was a guillotine!

The so-called heavenly monument was just its external appearance. Right now, all of the symbols on its surface shone, releasing brilliant light, forming a mysterious guillotine blade.

Pu!

It was incomparably terrifying, possessing mysterious power. Before Shi Hao could even react, he was swept over, a streak of bloody light splashing, cutting Shi Hao in half at the waist!

Ah...

Shi Hao roared, feeling extreme pain. He felt himself break apart, not only his flesh, but almost as if his primordial spirit was also cut apart.

“When the Great Dao Guillotine appears, all those beneath will be vanquished!”

Vaguely, he heard this type of grand voice. Everything was formed from natural laws, including the guillotine and law voice.

Everything was incredibly terrifying. What exactly was engraved in this world? Did this type of guillotine really exist in the past? What will was it carrying out?

When this blade descended, Shi Hao's body was chopped to pieces. Natural laws spread. He felt himself breaking apart, even his primordial spirit about to go out.

Intense pain, unbearable pain!

The most frightening part was that the immortal energy around him was cut by the blade. Underneath the Great Dao Guillotine, death not only came to man, but also magic and dao!

Wuwu...

At both sides of the Great Dao Guillotine, countless creatures crouched down, weeping and howling, all of them shaking, kowtowing in worship as if they were offering a sacrifice, using Shi Hao as the offering.

"No!"

Shi Hao was unwilling. Blood flowed from the corners of his lips. He roared angrily towards the sky. How could it be like this? He bitterly cultivated three strands of immortal dao energy, yet they were broken just like this.

Natural laws interweaved, thunderous light invaded, blasting his broken body full of holes, wishing to carry out the final destruction.

Walking beneath the Great Dao Guillotine was the most frightening disaster in Immortal Ancient. Normally, it was prepared for the most powerful individuals who cultivated three strands of immortal energy.

If one couldn't make it through, they one could forget about everything and disappear into ashes. Only if one made it through would there be a possibility of advancement!

It was that harsh. The most powerful heavenly tribulation appeared again.

Shi Hao thought of something the white tortoise said, realizing something. This was the most terrifying sharpening and test, the critical moment of life and death.

Hong!

He ignited himself. Two strands of immortal energy appeared, forcefully gathering his flesh, reassembling in the lightning radiance.

Every single piece of his flesh contained lightning, thoroughly refined. Even though he was scorched black, if he made it through, he would definitely reach an even higher level, his body born again.

"Ah..." Shi Hao roared. His flesh was pieced together, two strands of immortal energy coiling about, the blood energy around his entire body surging.

"I cannot die! I still have to enter the nine heavens to gather Lightning Tribulation Liquid!" Shi Hao roared. How could he be stopped here? He was going to break into the nine heavens and bathe in the golden Lightning Tribulation Liquid, thus shedding his body and exchanging his bones.

This was a life and death struggle. Shi Hao released a fist, fully displaying Reincarnation profound mysteries. Fragments of time danced about his surroundings, immediately disturbing time and space.

Hong!

The Great Dao Guillotine turned into a heavenly monument again, becoming indistinct in the void, vanishing in the sea of lightning.

Shi Hao made it through this trial. His blood energy roiled, divine force erupting, recovering his injured body. In addition, the third strand of immortal energy appeared!

Kacha!

At the same time, a crisp sound rang out within his body. Some type of shackle had been broken. He advanced to the True Self Realm, becoming a true deity!

Chapter 959 - Lightning Tribulation Immersion Complete

Broke through!

The third strand of immortal energy took form, spotlessly white like jade as it swirled around Shi Hao's body, extremely mysterious.

Forget about this world, even if it was the last great era, this was the limit, something only the most powerful had. Three strands of immortal energy carried special meaning.

In the Divine Flame Realm, this was already the absolute limit, representing the greatest accomplishment.

Dao produces one, one gives birth to two, two to three, three to all living things!

Three strands of immortal energy matching each other, resonating with the dao, in the future, they would transform because of this, their foundations definitely incomparably firm.

This was in agreement with some type of road, an embodiment of the most powerful's path!

Shi Hao understood now. Previously, he was trying to think up every way possible way, hoping to cultivate the third strand of immortal energy, but he couldn't obtain it. However now, the moment he broke into the True Self Realm, it finally emerged.

"The highest extreme of advancement, only able to succeed at the final moment." He thought to himself.

Right now, he had already become a true deity, his flesh moving about intensely, bones releasing pi pa sounds. A wave of astonishing power spread from the depths of his flesh, replenishing his body.

It was because he broke through, his life form's fundamental level changing, undergoing an advancement. His body's treasury opened on its own, releasing its potential.

In that instant, all of Shi Hao's previous injuries were healed, spiritual essence roiling like smoke signals, rushing into the heavens, tearing through the sea of lightning. This scene was extremely shocking.

The broken bones reformed, cracks disappearing, every bone in his body snow-white and sparkling, carrying moving luster.

As for his flesh, it became even more transparent and brilliant like jade. Great power flowed through him!

This was precisely a true deity. He now stood in this domain, devouring the the fundamental essence between heaven and earth, allowing the lightning tribulation to pour down, quickly transforming his own power.

Shi Hao was becoming stronger, and this process was continuing, never stopping. He continuously increased from the initial stage of the true deity level, his aura quickly becoming forceful and powerful.

This transformation left all those who were watching shocked. He had just broken through, yet his strength increased so drastically, leaving them all shaken.

Soon after, lightning tribulation roiled, lightning interweaved. Shi Hao released a penetrating beam of light from his eyes. He immediately shot up to the True Self Realm[1] mid level, his divine might intimidating.

Right now, Shi Hao's clothes had already burned into ashes, his skin sparkling like jade, his long hair dyed in bloodstains. His entire being releasing a brilliant light, magical force flourishing.

"He immediately shot up to the mid-stage True Deity Realm after breaking through?" Everyone was stupefied. This was just too ferocious and strange.

In reality, Shi Hao had long reached the consummate of the Divine Flame Realm, only suppressing himself further for the sake of immortal energy. He definitely had a large amount accumulated, staying at that critical point for a long time.

Now, the breakthrough was like a tide, and that was why it was so domineering, sending his cultivation immediately into the mid stage, enough to look down on everything under the heavens.

This type of rise was extremely astonishing.

Hong!

This was also precisely the reason why after the heavenly tribulation slightly calmed, a momentary silence surrounding this place, this area immediately erupted, the heavens falling and earth splitting. This small world was even blasted through.

There was a creature that appeared, with others that emerged from the sea of lightning. Great banners fluttered about, iron-blooded killing energy overflowing the heavens, rushing at Shi Hao.

Men shouted and horses neighed, armor was broken, blood flying everywhere, it was like a hundred undying war veterans that slaughtered over from the most terrifying battlefield, about to drown Shi Hao within.

Their mounts were all archaic vicious beasts without exception, all of them the most terrifying creatures, let alone the experts themselves.

In the distance, everyone was stupefied. What kind of lightning tribulation was this? Why did it produce creatures? This was just too terrifying!

They felt terrified just by watching from the sidelines, let alone actually being in it. That was simply a massacre, a place of disaster, too horrifying.

Everyone felt that even true deities would undoubtedly die if they went inside. Let alone fighting against those experts, just any random mount alone would trample over a true deity.

Aohou... A Pi Xiu roared, its large claws slamming out, sending sand and stone flying out, ghosts and demons howling.

The so-called sand and stone were all like great stars, looking like enormous spherical balls of lightning. Any strand they released was enough to blast apart a true deity. It was too terrifying.

As for the rider on its body, a single spear thrust was enough to pierce through heaven and earth, rays of light resplendent, illuminating all of eternity, exceptionally sharp!

“Too terrifying, one man one mount, enough to sweep through ten thousand men, massacre groups of deities, how could it be this forceful?”

Everyone shivered coldly, sighing softly. This type of expert was rarely seen in the world. Meanwhile, he was only at the True Self Realm.

“Immortal Ancient Great Era is too terrifying. This is the so-called heavenly tribulation they experienced? How could it be so powerful? Who in this world can cross it?”

Everyone became alarmed. If it was them that was crossing the tribulation, a single encounter would turn them into ashes.

One has to understand that the man and mount were just one unit in the chaotic army. There were many of them, and they were swarming over, surrounding Shi Hao. Precious techniques immediately swept outwards, divine light illuminating the heavens.

“Kill!”

Shi Hao roared angrily. His body formed the Kun Peng, wings reaching the heavens, sweeping angrily towards all enemies, fighting a bloody struggle against them.

Even someone as powerful as him, even though they had just began, already made his body drenched in blood, his entire body full of injuries. Those spears, halberds, polearms and others landed on his body, all of them creating a bloody mist.

These types of enemies were too terrifying, any one of them enough to overlook others at the same level in this world.

Shi Hao entered a life and death predicament. This group of freakishly powerful experts appeared, all of them attacking him. He was in the most dangerous life and death situation.

Pu!

Bloody light flashed. Shi Hao staggered backwards. He already turned back into a human, his body impaled with feathered arrows. They turned into lightning radiance, blasting him until his flesh was badly mangled.

Weng!

He moved his wings, bringing them together. Chaotic energy pervaded the air, yin and yang energies swirling. Shi Hao swept out with the Kun Peng extreme art, displaying the golden vortices. Within each vortex was an indistinct divine fetus, frantically seizing the outer world's power.

"Kill him!"

That army unexpectedly released war cries, becoming even more ferocious.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao shouted. He also went all out, treating the creatures in the lightning tribulation like true mortal enemies, fighting with no regard for personal safety, doing everything he could as he fought intensely.

This was the most powerful lightning tribulation, and it wasn't more than this even in Immortal Ancient Great Era. Only the most powerful creatures who offended the heavens would have a chance of experiencing this.

Those examples were extremely few!

Shi Hao forcefully incurred it in a great era without heavenly tribulation, so it naturally stirred up the anger of the heavens. As such, the most powerful lightning tribulation in all of history descended, forming many similar level experts to surround and kill him.

Ah...

Shi Hao's hair was dishevelled, his body covered in injuries. He raised the Kun Peng technique to its limit. The entire sky was covered in golden feathers, turning into heavenly swords that shot out towards enemies in all directions.

The Kun Peng wings even more so formed yin and yang energies, tangling together, forming a divine diagram that illuminated the primal chaos!

The Golden Vortex Ripple Technique covered the surface of his body in vortices, and within every single one of them was a human shaped divine figure, chanting scriptures there to suppress enemies in all directions.

Shi Hao displayed the Kun Peng's laws to the extreme in this battle, as if the Immortal Ancient's Kun Peng reappeared.

Pu!

Shi Hao raised his hand, piercing through the space between one of his enemy's brows.

Kacha!

He moved his wings, tearing apart two powerful enemies together with their mounts.

...

When the final enemy's head flew out, he knelt down on one knee, supporting himself with a spear he seized. His entire body was covered in blood, difficult to budge an inch.

Hong!

That spear exploded, the sea of lightning erupting. Shi Hao flew outwards, flesh badly mangled, bones broken.

After this trial was passed, his body was covered in serious injuries, but he was still alive. Even though he was seriously injured, on the verge of being blasted to death by the humanoid lightning and other things, he still ultimately made it through.

However, this was only the beginning. There were even more terrifying disasters waiting.

He had a short period of time to adjust his breathing. Three strands of immortal energy swirled around him, seizing the essence of heaven and earth, quickly treating his injured body, replenishing his body.

His injuries improved at a visible rate, his flesh healing, broken bones connecting. His entire body shone again, to the extent where it even seized power from the heavenly tribulation.

In the distance, everyone was stupefied. How terrifying was this? He could actually do something like this!

In reality, even Shi Hao himself was a bit shocked. When facing this type of heavenly tribulation, only by surrounding himself in immortal energy would one be able to make it through. Otherwise, there was no hope at all.

Immortal energy surrounded his body, allowing him to recover quickly. This allowed him to face what was to come calmly.

"This... is the most powerful heavenly tribulation originally prepared for those with at least two strands of immortal energy!" He understood, and that was why he had hope of crossing it.

Hong!

Shi Hao rushed into the sky, tearing apart the sea of lightning. It was as if he shattered the heavens. He rose to an even higher place, a brand new heaven and earth.

In this place, there was flower fragrance and bird cries, pavilions and kiosks, beautiful like a fairyland. There were wisps of pure white immortal energy. It was incomparably peaceful and otherworldly.

The thunder sounds from before all vanished. This place was quiet and refined.

However, Shi Hao's fine hairs all stood on end, his scalp going numb, feeling more and more terrified. Every blade of grass, every tree, every drop of water, every flicker of light was produced by lightning tribulation symbols.

Hong!

He was bombarded as soon as he arrived.

A bronze ancient palace descended, turning into the most terrifying magical treasure, suppressing him within, wishing to destroy him and turn him into a pool of blood.

This was a bloody battle. Shi Hao blasted apart the bronze place with difficulty. A nine-layered pagoda then crushed down, around it faint immortal energy. It was incredibly terrifying, crushing him below.

This battle used up even more time. Shi Hao started from the first layer, breaking free only after slaughtering his way up to the ninth layer, within it endless demons and ghosts.

Dang!

A great bell rang. It quickly flew over!

It was extremely terrifying. The character 'Without' shone on the bell's walls, illuminating the heavens. Sound waves swept out, shattering everything in its way.

"Without... it's that bell again!" Shi Hao was shocked. n--Ovel&1n

Unfortunately, he still only saw a single character, unable to see the other blurry ancient character on the great bell.

Dang!

Bells sounds rang out. It was finally destroyed by him.

Precious artifacts appeared one after another, enough to crush any true deity into pieces, blasting them into bloody mist. However, Shi Hao endured it all, forcefully facing all of the ancient treasures.

In the end, there were fragments all over the ground. Lightning radiance erupted, blasting him until his bones broke, flesh in tatters, on the verge of death.

"Another trial!"

Shi Hao gritted his teeth, standing up with difficulty. He used the three strands of immortal energy to treat himself, moving all things in heaven and earth, acquiring their fundamental essence.

Wuwu...

When he soared into the sky, leaping to a higher layer of heaven, entering a brand new domain, everything was surrounded in darkness, the wuwu weeping sounds making one tremble with fear.

He could vaguely see black cages one after another accompanying a river of time. Many powerful primordial spirits were imprisoned!

Shi Hao sucked in a cold breath of air. Could this be the place his primordial spirit previously fell to?

This trial was, without a doubt, even more terrifying. Shi Hao slaughtered until he became even more crazy. He encountered too many dangers. This was a great battle of primordial spirit. He was about to go mad.

Ah ah ah...

In the darkness, a youth abandoned his body, his primordial spirit wandering about the fragments of time, sealed inside of a black prison, fighting against terrifying creatures.

Shi Hao's primordial spirit was almost wiped out. It was a spectacle too horrible to endure. He fought a great battle against enemies on all sides. In the end, while wrapped in thunder light, he finally slaughtered his way out, returning to his flesh.

This was a journey through hell. Too many terrifying creatures appeared, fighting intensely against his primordial spirit. This was an unimaginable type of tempering.

Lightning radiance tempering the flesh and primordial spirit. Shi Hao broke through the trials, nine deaths one life. He advanced towards the ninth layer of heaven.

Right at this moment, he tore through the nine heavens, rising above. However, it still wasn't the end.

"Kill!"

Shi Hao was already completely exhausted, but he still continued on, tearing through the tenth layer of the boundless divine sky, finally reaching the end.

"The limits of the nine extremes, will it end with the tenth realm?"

The tenth layer lightning domain was covered in powerful enemies. The great mountains were imposing, ancient trees covering everything. The fragrance of medicinal herbs wafted through the air.

When he picked the ancient medicines that were formed from lightning, he could unexpectedly treat his injuries, nourish his body. This left him stupefied.

However, the creatures here were too terrifying. There were those with immortal energy surrounding them, to the extent where he even saw an Undying Heavenly Phoenix.

Fortunately, not all of the creatures attacked him. Some only gave him an indifferent glance, some of them viciously attacking.

Of course, the most terrifying thing was that there was a high platform here, on top of it three great words that shone brilliantly: Immortal Killing Stage

"Immortal Killing Stage!"

This was too shocking!

Shi Hao didn't recognize those ancient words, but he could sense its meaning.

Chi!

There was immortal light that swept out, as if it could cut down immortals!

After a bloody struggle, the Immortal Killing Stage wasn't able to deal with him in the end. That place gradually faded. This wasn't an ancient platform prepared for him. He merely encountered the remaining blast wave.

Despite this being the case, Shi Hao was hacked to pieces many times, making it through alive with difficulty.

“Has it ended?” At the final point, he was already completely drained, not the slightest bit of strength left.

Finally, he saw a golden pond. It was less than half a meter in size, next to the pond an ancient golden divine tree. Shi Hao struggled his way over, and with a putong sound, fell by the side of the lake, starting to devour the Lightning Tribulation Liquid with large mouthfuls!

Chapter 960 - Evolution

Even though the golden ancient pond wasn’t large, it was filled with Lightning Tribulation Liquid. A single sniff would give one the illusion of ascension.

Shi Hao collapsed from dehydration. He laid on the ground, not wishing to budge an inch. His body was in tatters, not a single bone unharmed, all of them broken.

Gudong!

Shi Hao drank large mouthfuls of the golden lightning liquid. He didn’t want to do anything other than this, because his injuries were too severe. Calling him a dead person wasn’t too far from the truth.

Continuously breaking through nine heavens, and then climbing through the tenth realm, there wasn’t a single place on his entire body that wasn’t broken. Even his frontal bone was crushed into more than ten pieces and forcefully pieced together.

As for his flesh, it was in even more of a mess, completely scorched black and full of bloody holes. His inner organs even more so released a charred smell, his flesh’s injuries as terrifying as they could be.

The reason he could live and even have life fluctuations was simply a miracle!

The half meter wide golden pond looked like it was cut out from a rock. When he touched it with his hands, he discovered that it wasn’t produced from lightning. This left him extremely shocked!

How could there be this type of ancient rock immortal pond in the sea of lightning? It really made one’s imagination run wild.

This wasn’t the first time Shi Hao saw such a thing. Last time the Lightning Tribulation Liquid was purple, the divine efficacy far inferior to this time.

Gudong!

When the mouthful of Lightning Tribulation Liquid went down, Shi Hao felt his damaged and withered body immediately recover quite a bit of vitality, taking a step out from its state of near death.

When one reached his cultivation realm, the body, magical force, and other things all far exceeded the past. If it was still the Lightning Tribulation Liquid as before, then there was no way it would have such powerful effects.

“This is true essence!” Shi Hao sighed with admiration.

A drop of golden liquid was equivalent to a cup of the past one, containing flourishing vitality and life force.

Lightning tribulation represented destruction, but in this type of annihilation power rested this pond of the Ancient Immortal pool, carrying vitality. One could imagine how precious it was!

“This time, the injuries really were serious!” Shi Hao was alarmed. When he truly calmed down, only then did he discover how dangerous the tribulation was.

Was this body still his own? It was incredibly tattered, every single bone covered with at least several dozen cracks, about to shatter, forcefully held together by his three strands of immortal energy.

His flesh and inner organs were all close to death. There was no aura of life, charred black and ice cold.

The trial this time was extremely miserable. Only the three strands of immortal energy were left in his body. This was precisely what he used to support himself, or else he would have collapsed a long time ago, turning into skeletal remains.

Pipa!

Even now, there were still electrical arcs flowing out from his body, attacking at his body. There was still powerful lightning tribulation power left over in his body that hadn't completely scattered.

This was the case for his primordial spirit as well, dull and lightless, split apart into pieces. It was as miserable as miserable could be. The lightning tribulation light flickered about, continuously interweaving.

Even though it could be said that he experienced a lightning tribulation, his flesh and primordial spirit were refined and cleansed. If he could revive, he would obtain great benefits. However, right now, he truly was extremely miserable.

Shi Hao drank a mouthful of the Lightning Tribulation Liquid, his body taking a turn for the better. He could sense that his entire body was recovering, feeling extremely comfortable as he immersed himself in the divine medicinal liquid.

One could see his dried up body shining, gradually becoming whole again. His tattered flesh was being restored, broken bones releasing kaka sounds, connecting together.

Many people saw this scene in the distance.

“That's Lightning Tribulation Liquid, and it is golden. An entire pond of it, who has ever seen such a thing before?!”

There was no heavenly tribulation left in this great era, which meant that there was no way the golden ancient pond could be seen again. Now that it appeared again, it was a world shaking event.

Huang was incredibly weak, but because of this pond of precious liquid, he was showing signs of recovery, quite possibly shedding his body and exchanging his bones, undergoing a complete transformation!

“This is the only opportunity. Huang just finished crossing the tribulation, currently in his weakest state. Once he is killed, then all of the disturbances will become quiet!” Someone said softly.

There were always people who harbored hostility. Right now, their eyes flickered with radiance, wanting to take action.

“Rumor has it that the golden rock pond is an Ancient Immortal pond, something left behind from the last great era. Drinking that kind of Lightning Tribulation Liquid would be greatly beneficial to one’s cultivation in the future!” There were some who couldn’t hold themselves back.

It was rumored that the immortal pond had never been erased, appearing in lightning tribulation. It contained unimaginably great natural luck. Once one obtained the nourishment of this type of liquid, even one’s potential might increase.

When one’s strength was exhausted, each bit of potential obtained would have tremendous effects on their future accomplishments!

“Huang had massacred so many. Let’s join hands to eliminate him, using this time when he is weak to completely strike him down!”

“A whole pond of Lightning Tribulation Liquid, we can share it equally!”

A few people couldn’t hold themselves back. Killing Shi Hao wasn’t the main goal, seizing the Ancient Immortal pond was. When they saw such a shocking opportunity, a few people wished to ‘pluck peaches along the way’, seize the results of Shi Hao’s hard work.

“Take action!”

More than ten beast teeth shone, turning into flying swords. They produced magnificent radiance, releasing brilliant sword radiance. They hacked towards Shi Hao by the lightning tribulation pond.

An exquisite pagoda shone. Five-colored radiance seeped out, carrying heaven overflowing mists with it, turning into the size of a mountain, crushing down from the heavens, covering Shi Hao.

In that instant a Heavenly Everlasting Fan moved, covering the world. Strand after strand of ark energy descended, drowning out that place.

...

In that instant, several dozen weapons appeared. All of them were incredibly powerful. Many experts took action together.

There were geniuses from the three thousand provinces here, as well as natives. They all bore hostility and carried greed. There were some who truly had enmity against Shi Hao, while some just wanted to seize the Lightning Tribulation Liquid, believing that this was the best chance.

“You dare?!”

There were some who shouted loudly, for example, the Divine Striking Stone, Cao Yusheng, and the others already appeared. They displayed methods to stop them.

This was the moment Shi Hao was at his weakest, having just crossed the lightning tribulation. His flesh and primordial spirit were about to be destroyed, possessing no fighting strength at all.

Hong!

A streak of heavenly thunder erupted. Unexpectedly, the seemingly faint lightning radiance layer that looked like it was about to vanish appeared again, erupting with world shocking thunder rumbling.

However, this time, it didn't attack Shi Hao, but rather rushed towards those weapons.

Above the nine thunder seas, the tenth realm, this place was like the paradise of an immortal. Pavilions and kiosks rested here, divine birds spread their wings, immortal beasts moved about. The mountains were imposing, holy medicines everywhere.

It originally became indistinct, but at this moment, after being attacked, it appeared again. Quite a few of the auspicious birds and vicious beasts carried immortal energy. They rushed down murderously.

Kacha!

All of the weapons cracked and exploded. Under the lightning radiance, those creatures' attacks were completely useless, all of them destroyed.

This immediately left everyone stupefied. Why did the heavenly tribulation appear again?

Could it be that the heavens were protecting Huang?!

The most frightening thing was that the lightning radiance followed those weapons, reaching outwards. There were a few divine birds and immortal beasts who swooped down as well.

Ah...

Miserable cries sounded. Most of the ones who took action just now suffered from lightning radiance or were killed by immortal birds and other creatures on the spot.

Bloody light rushed upwards. Those people exploded within the lightning.

"What? What kind of power is this?!" Everyone became horrified.

Not everyone had Huang's strength. Even if they were geniuses, it was still too hard to block the lightning tribulation. They were destroyed without any suspense.

A large half of those who took action just now died, because they didn't hold back at all. As a result, they incurred the most powerful heavenly tribulation force.

Those who were fortunate enough to live were swept through by the leftover lightning radiance, their bodies charred black, releasing strand after strand of black smoke, obtaining serious injuries.

"It has been too long since there were heavenly tribulations. Later people no longer understand it. When others cross the tribulation, how can one interfere? That is just inviting trouble!" An elder said, his eyes deep. This was clearly a heavenly deity.

There was one line he didn't say, which was that not even he dared to rashly provoke it, let alone these people. The greater the power of interference, the greater the lightning radiance that was triggered flourished!

"Good job, lightning tribulation! Who told you all to be so vicious, attacking Shi Hao in this type of situation? Completely self inflicted!"

“Serves you right, actually wishing to pick peaches halfway. These people are too despicable and shameless, deserving of being hacked to death by lightning!”

The Divine Striking Stone and Cao Yusheng spoke quietly, making a few people’s expression become unpleasant, falling ashen.

“Dao friend, Huang is about to cross the tribulation and succeed, are you all not scared? Are you all waiting for him to establish a glorious period? Everyone will only serve to make him look even better!” Someone was still unwilling, secretly transmitting sound.

“Right? An opponent like this, if he tries to seize Immortal Ancient’s natural luck in the future, how many could match him? Using this chance to eliminate him is the right way. We should think of a method together.

There were some who remained unresigned this entire time, really wishing to kill Shi Hao during this moment of transcendence, full of evil intentions.

“Eight Armed Soul Race grandpa, please take action!” Outside the crowd, a little girl with silver hair spoke, her large ruby-like eyes swirling about. It was precisely the little rabbit.

“This group is too repulsive, truly should send them all into the heavenly tribulation,” Xue Lin also spoke. Her appearance was exceptional, also possessing silver-colored long hair. She stood with the little rabbit, both of them shining.

“Alright!” An elder’s large sleeve moved, fiercely moving his sleeve. Heavenly winds swept out, restricting more than ten individuals. They were all thrown into the lightning radiance.

This was the reinforcements the little rabbit and the others brought over after spending much effort, the Eight Armed Soul Race’s elder, a respected heavenly deity.

In reality, half a year ago, this elder from the Eight Armed Soul Race was already invited out, leading the people from a few clans to rescue Shi Hao, only, he remained in seclusion this entire time.

Ah...

The dozen or so creatures all screamed with horror. When they entered the lightning radiance, they had to face tribulation, truly a tragic sight.

Before an exceptional heavenly deity, their actions they believed to be hidden still gave them away, all of them encountering disaster.

Only when comparing the results did everyone understand even better how terrifying Huang was. He faced the sea of lightning head on, while these people exploded as soon as they entered.

Of course, it couldn’t be said that these dozen or so individuals were too weak, but rather that the lightning was from the tenth realm, the highest level of heavenly tribulation. Even the most powerful true deities, if they went in without cultivating immortal energy, would undoubtedly die.

Hong!

The last person also exploded, everyone finally eliminated.

In reality, the heavenly tribulation already no longer hacked at Shi Hao. He already made it through, so it was just the remaining lightning sea that took form, not retreating in the end.

Shi Hao sat by the side of the ancient immortal pond, everything taking a turn for the better. He was originally like a lamp that was out of fuel, but now, everything was reversing, exuberant vitality gathering, his body shining.

Soon after, Shi Hao's body became like seven-colored glass, sparkling and translucent. His injuries healed, bones becoming snow white and shining.

At this moment, his dim primordial spirit even more so shone, starting to release dazzling multicolored light. It burned like a golden sun.

A small figure stood behind his frontal bone, its precious image dignified, powerful beyond compare!

One could vaguely see that the primordial spirit had heavenly deity aura. It was truly shocking!

This little figure was extremely terrifying. It wore battle clothes that looked extremely extravagant, formed from primordial spirit force. His hands formed magical imprints, unyielding before heaven and earth, self-proclaimed supreme being.

It sat there without moving. A great dao aura pervaded the air, as if it could suppress the past, present, and future!

In the blink of an eye, Shi Hao drank a third of the Lightning Tribulation Liquid, now completely recovering. He was flourishing with vitality, his body glistening brightly.

In the distance, everyone's eyes became straight upon seeing this, their mouths gulping down saliva. That was Lightning Tribulation Liquid! Moreover, golden, something that was rarely seen since ancient times. It made their eyes turn red.

Anyone could see its medicinal effects. How long had passed so far? Yet the dying Huang was already vigorous and lively, recovering, even surpassing his past self.

"It is still continuing. He really is going to 'break through the cocoon and become a butterfly'!" Everyone sighed with admiration.

Huang was originally about to die, making it through the lightning tribulation with difficulty. However, in the blink of an eye, he left that realm of death, completely recovering.

Moreover, the changes were still continuing, vitality brewing. After becoming a true deity, his path of transformation was opened and now carried out.

It was clear that Huang was far greater than a normal true deity, truly evolving, breaking out of a cocoon. His fundamental level of life was increased tremendously, an unmatched evolution in true meaning.

Layer after layer of old skin came off of Shi Hao's body, and there were also all types of shattered bones that came off, sent out from his body!

Blood flowed like lightning, rumbling as it cleansed his body. He was sparkling and translucent, brilliant like a blazing sun!

Shi Hao shed his skin and exchanged his bones, his life evolving, solidifying the dao fruits that he obtained, tearing through his path like a hot knife through butter. His fundamental force was astonishing. Right now, he was incredibly powerful.

Only after a long time had passed did the sky full of lightning radiance disappear, his body releasing astonishing blood energy, now opening his eyes. Two sharp streaks of light shot out, moving through the sky like lightning!

Then, he produced a white jade cauldron, quickly storing the remaining Lightning Tribulation Liquid within.

Forget about everything else, even heavenly deities' eyes revealed light. This was the liquid from the golden ancient immortal pond!
