

Permit Me 511

Chapter 511 I'll give you candy when I come back

Rong Yan reached out and wrapped her arms around Liancheng Yazhi's neck, responding to his kiss little by little. "Yes, I believe you this time."

Old master Liancheng's bomb had already been exposed. When would it go off?

Rong Yan didn't have the ability to protect her daughter and herself. The only person she could rely on now was Liancheng Yazhi.

Therefore, she wanted to tie Liancheng Yazhi down tightly.

Since she wanted to tie a man down, she had to use the necessary tactics.

rong yan felt that she wasn't using him this time because this time, she planned to try her luck with liancheng yazhi!

For MeowMeow, and for herself, she really wanted to try to live with Liancheng Yazhi and live a good life as a family.

Therefore, those bastards who tried to break up their family, no matter who they were, if they dared to come, Liancheng Yazhi would be killed.

Liancheng Yazhi gently kissed Rong Yan's lips and murmured, "you don't have to worry about anything when you're with me. Just leave everything to me. You, Yingluo, only need to be responsible for bringing Rong Yan laughed out loud and pretended to be angry. She twisted one of Liancheng Yazhi's ears. "You mean, if I'm no longer as pretty as a flower in the future, you'll kick me away?"

Liancheng Yazhi reached out and flicked Rong Yan's forehead. "Tsk, can't you just stop thinking nonsense with that little head of yours?"

He pecked Rong Yan's lips. in my eyes, my big baby is always beautiful.

The two of them were cuddling on the sofa, their bodies pressed tightly together. Their body temperatures and breaths were fused together, and that special feeling triggered the ambiguous relationship between the two.

liancheng yazhi slowly moved from rong yan's lips to below, his teeth biting open the button on rong yan's chest.

When Rong Yan's chest was fully exposed in front of Liancheng Yazhi, she smiled and pressed her hands against Liancheng Yazhi's chest, saying in a sweet voice, "no, Huahua, you didn't control yourself last night. You didn't care if I was dead or Alive when you had a little fun. You want more today? no way. Go and see if meowmeowmeow has kicked the blanket.

Liancheng Yazhi swallowed his saliva. During the day, his chest was white and soft as if it was made of ice. He really wanted to kiss it and see if it could melt. He looked at Rong Yan and said, "Meowmeowmeowmeow mom, let's not do it. Just a few kisses, okay?"

Rong Yan disagreed decisively. no! You can't trust a man's words at this time. Go quickly."

Liancheng Yazhi didn't move and continued to look at Rong Yan pitifully, like a child asking for candy from his parents. He looked really cute.

She sat up, "if you're not going, I'll go Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi quickly held her down. Okay, okay. I'll go and check on you two. You two are my little ancestors.

Now, this Yazhi, who had a completely different personality from three years ago, was in love with her. Rong Yan really felt that he was sometimes very cute, causing her heart to be unable to control many times.

Hence, she could not help but rub Liancheng Yazhi's forehead. "Be good, go quickly. When you're done, mommy will come back and give you candy."

Not only did Liancheng Yazhi not feel embarrassed or annoyed, but his eyes also lit up as he moved closer to Rong Yan and whispered into her ear.

BOOM!

Rong Yan's face turned red instantly. She glared at Liancheng Yazhi fiercely, picked up the pillow on the sofa, and threw it at him.

Liancheng Yazhi reached out to catch the pillow and laughed as he looked at MeowMeow. Before he left, he said, "Remember to wait for me, Yingying."

Chapter 512 Too shameless!

rong yan gritted her teeth and buttoned up her chest. she had once again refreshed her understanding of liancheng yazhi.

She raised her hand and fanned her face a few times. The blush on her face had not subsided. She glared angrily in the direction that Liancheng Yazhi had left and said, "You're too shameless!"

In the blink of an eye, it was time for MeowMeow to get the report.

Rong Yan had been nervous since last night. She did not sleep for a few hours at night and woke up early in the morning.

On the way, Liancheng Yazhi carried MeowMeow in one hand and let Rong Yan lean in his arms with the other. Looking at the dark circles under her eyes, he said with heartache, "You didn't rest well last night. Sleep a little more. I'll call you again when we reach the hospital, Hanhan."

Rong Yan shook her head. no, I can't sleep. I can't get an accurate answer.

She looked down at Liancheng Yazhi comforted Rong Yan. don't worry. Look at MeowMeow, she's doing well these days. Didn't those doctors also say that there's a high possibility of her congenital heart disease recovering by itself before she turns five years old? "

but when we were in country W, those doctors said that the older

Liancheng Yazhi carried meowmeowmeowmeowmeowmeow to their faces and said, "don't believe in this too much. Their country's medical conditions aren't very developed. Perhaps Wanwan made a mistake. We have to think in the best direction for the child, don't we?"

Rong Yan nodded. That's right. Before the results came out, she must think in the best direction for the child.

They arrived at the hospital very quickly. The car was parked at the entrance of the hospital. Before Liancheng Yazhi got out of the car, he wrapped her with his coat and said to her, "Baby, let's play a game this time. Let's see who can close their eyes and level up, okay? Let's see who's more powerful!"

"Let's start then."

Liancheng Yazhi got out of the car. alright, it's starting. Don't open your eyes.

As soon as he entered the hospital, the director immediately came to welcome him. "Young Madam ya would like to invite the three of you to the laboratory. The experts are now discussing in the small conference room in the laboratory."

when they arrived, an authoritative professor of cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases in china walked out of the group of experts. he said to liancheng yazhi very seriously, "young master ya, I'm so sorry. Although some conclusions have been made, we still need to do one last test.

Liancheng Yazhi was very dissatisfied with this answer. He had come today to get results, but he knew that he was not satisfied."What examination?"

The series of examinations that day had already made Liancheng Yazhi very unhappy. In the end, before the conclusion was out, they wanted to check again. What exactly were they doing? if the group of experts could not find the cause of the illness, he would immediately ask them to leave and change to another group.

the chinese doctor's expression did not change. he said, "we want to take your blood sample and compare it with miss meowmeow's blood sample for one last time. this way, we can find the most accurate cause of the illness based on the previous test data. "

Rong Yan's heart ached as she listened from the side. What exactly had happened for them to still want to take a blood sample? Rong Yan asked anxiously, "blood sample, Yingluo, why do you want to take a blood sample? " What happened?"

Chapter 513 Meowmeowmeowmeow is my life

The Chinese professor bowed and said, "I'm sorry, miss Rong. We can't say for sure now. It's just a guess, so we need to do a blood comparison between the father and daughter. The result of the comparison may be the real cause of miss MeowMeow's illness.

Not only did Rong Yan not feel relaxed, but she also became more tense. "Why? What does meowmeowmeowmeowmeowmeowmeowmeow's illness have to do with her father's blood?"

Why did Liancheng Yazhi have to be involved in the heart disease? the Liancheng family did not have any heart disease inheritance.

as soon as he turned around, Liancheng Yazhi's face instantly turned cold. He led the doctor to a secluded corner and said in a dark voice, "If you don't make things clear today, don't even think about getting a blood sample, and don't ever think about leaving this place again."

Chapter 514 We'll wait here

Liancheng Yazhi would not let them use a knife on

As soon as he finished speaking, Secretary Zhou was already standing behind the doctor like a ghost, the cold muzzle of the gun in his hand pressed against his waist.

The doctor was so scared that his face turned pale. He quickly said, "I really don't mean anything else. It's like this. Yesterday, we accidentally discovered something. Miss MeowMeow's blood seems to be different from normal people's,"

Liancheng Yazhi frowned and felt a little uneasy. What did it mean that her blood was different from normal people's?

Liancheng Yazhi looked at the doctor coldly, causing cold sweat to roll down his forehead.

He continued to say, "The results of the last physical examination showed that Miss MeowMeow's heart disease was not particularly serious. It was an atrial septal defect, a congenital heart disease. Under normal circumstances, the chances of recovery are very high after correction surgery. However, because there are some substances in her blood that we don't know about, Yingluo wants to take your blood to see if there are genetic factors. If it is the same, then we can be sure why Miss MeowMeow's condition is not serious. But it's so serious when it's acting up, and it will directly cause the heart to become weaker and weaker!"

The doctor tried to explain some professional medical theories in the simplest words. He hoped that Liancheng Yazhi could understand and not blame him!

Liancheng Yazhi pondered for a moment after listening and said, "Since that's the case, we've already taken MeowMeow's blood yesterday. Today, we'll only take mine."

The doctor's words should be true. For now, it was better to find out why Chu Miaomiao's blood was abnormal.

The doctor wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. I'm sorry. Young Master Ya didn't take much blood yesterday. He's already used up all of it. So, please forgive him, Yueyue.

Liancheng Yazhi gritted his teeth. He wanted to punch the doctor, but he also wanted to punch himself. His daughter was suffering like this, but there was nothing he could do.

Finally, the nurse pricked MeowMeow's ear and took a small tube of blood.

When she was taking the blood sample,

The doctor said to Liancheng Yazhi, "Thank you, Mr. Liancheng. Thank you, Miss MeowMeow. Please wait. This test will take about two hours. Do you want to go back and rest first? We'll let you know when the results are out. Or do you want to go back and take a rest, Ran Ran?"

"We'll wait here!" Rong Yan said without waiting for him to finish.

How could she be in the mood to rest now? She had to wait for the results as soon as possible.

lian Cheng yazhi hugged her and said to the doctor, "Hurry up and do the test, we'll wait here."

"Alright, we'll inform you as soon as the results are out, Yingluo."

After the doctor went in, Lian Cheng Yazhi brought MeowMeowMeowMeowMeow Yan to the grass outside.

The sun was pretty good that day. The family of three sat under the shade of the tree, all in a bad mood. Rong Yan sang a rocking song to MeowMeow softly. Now, she would not be afraid only if she let MeowMeow sleep.

Fortunately, children slept for a long time now. MeowMeow only fell asleep after Rong Yan hummed for more than 20 minutes.

"Yazhi, what did the doctor say to you?" Rong Yan raised her head and asked Lian Cheng Yazhi.

Chapter 515 No one can take you away

Rong Yan was now calling Lian Cheng Yazhi's name more and more smoothly. Even she herself did not know that she had inadvertently called out his name.

This made Lian Cheng Yazhi very pleased and happy. This was how Rong Yan had truly started to get close to her from the bottom of her heart.

Lian Cheng Yazhi hugged Rong Yan. It's nothing. He might be suspecting if there's some genetic disease in our family, so he wanted to make sure that it won't be a big problem. Wanwan, do you know what the worst case scenario is? "

Lian Cheng Yazhi still didn't tell Rong Yan about the abnormality of MeowMeow's blood. She was about to break down and couldn't accept any more stimulation.

What Lian Cheng Yazhi was most afraid of now was that Rong Yan would collapse before MeowMeow was cured.

So, in order not to let Rong Yan worry, Lian Cheng Yazhi said it lightly and changed the topic without changing his expression.

Rong Yan shook her head nervously!

Lian Cheng Yazhi held her face and said seriously, "Heart changing Kasaya."

Rong Yan was so frightened that she quickly covered her mouth. Her face turned frighteningly pale in an instant, and her pupils constricted violently.

lian Cheng yazhi quickly hugged her and patted her back as if he was coaxing meowmeow. "baby, don't be afraid, don't be afraid. i want to tell you that even if i have to change hearts, i will let our meowmeow live. no one can take you away, not even death. "

Lian Cheng Yazhi kissed Rong Yan's eyes and cheeks. "You see, even if it's the worst case scenario, we're not afraid, so what are you afraid of? besides, yingluo hasn't reached that stage yet!"

Lian Cheng Yazhi's words were very scary, but they miraculously made Rong Yan gradually calm down.

That's right, he wasn't even afraid of the worst situation, so what was there to be afraid of?

The two of them waited on the grass for about an hour, and they kept looking at their watches as they waited anxiously.

The two of them, as parents, hoped that the results would come out soon, but they also didn't want it to come out.

The results were out. It could be possible, but it could be bad.

if the results were not out, they could still comfort themselves that the situation was not that serious.

When there was still more than half an hour before the results, Rong Yan stood up and said to Liancheng Yazhi, "I'm going to the washroom."

"Do you need me to accompany you?"

Rong Yan shook her head, "wait here and take good care of Rong Yan went to the nearest hospital building and found the women's washroom on the second floor.

A few minutes later, Rong Yan came out. Because the women's bathroom was next to the men's bathroom, there happened to be a man coming out next to it. She didn't care and didn't have the mood to look at the other party's appearance. She walked straight over.

However, the moment she turned sideways, her hand was suddenly grabbed by someone. Rong Yan subconsciously wanted to shake her hand away, but she heard the man say, "yan yang, is that you?"

rong yan glared at him, her face full of murderous intent. "sir, you've got the wrong person."

The other party was a refined-looking middle-aged man who looked to be in his fifties. The clothes he was wearing were also well-made and seemed to be handmade. He wore a Jade Buddha Bracelet on his wrist, which looked very good. One look and one could tell that he was from a good family.

It was just that such a man was holding Rong Yan's hand and looking at her with a fanatical gaze, which made her feel very disgusted.

rong yan's other hand clenched into a fist and hit the man hard, causing him to stagger a few steps before he finally let go of her hand.

Rong Yan wiped her wrist in disgust and said, "Don't think that I'll give you face and not Sue you for harassment just because you're old."

Chapter 516 mistaken person

The middle-aged man, who had almost fallen from the beating, was still staring at Rong Yan as if he had lost his mind. He continued to shout, "Yan yang Jian Jia, Yan yang Jian Jia, it's really you!"

The middle-aged man stepped forward again, and the fire in Rong Yan's heart burned. She raised her foot and kicked his calf bone, so strong that he fell to the ground.

She pointed at the man and scolded him, " you look like a dog. Why do you always do things that are worse than beasts? I'm not in the mood to deal with you today. If you dare to come up and court death again, I'll fulfill your wish.

Although Liancheng Yazhi's comfort had eased a little, it could not really let her relax.

But today, Yingluo

This guy didn't know what was good for him.

now that she had hit and scolded someone, the pressure in Rong Yan's heart could be considered to have been vented.

Perhaps he was frightened by Rong Yan's aura, but he didn't come up again. However, the eyes that looked at Rong Yan were filled with fanatical admiration and madness.

After walking out of the inpatient building, Rong Yan's mood finally relaxed a lot!

After taking a few steps, Rong Yan's pace gradually slowed down.

That didn't seem right. Why did she feel that the person just now was a little familiar?

He felt a little familiar, but he couldn't remember.

The name he called out was 'Yan yang', but which two words were they?

Rong Yan shook her head fiercely. What was she doing? she should think about MeowMeow now. Why would she think about other people? it was not like she could make MeowMeow's condition better.

After returning to Liancheng Yazhi's side, Rong Yan sat down and leaned directly on him, looking unhappy.

Liancheng Yazhi frowned. Why did his mood become so bad after going out? he quickly asked, "Big baby, what's wrong? you don't look well. who made you angry? Tell MeowMeow's father, I'll help you vent your anger."

"I met someone when I came out of the washroom just now. It was a man, an old man in his fifties," Rong Yan said, a little angry.

Upon hearing that it was a man, Liancheng Yazhi immediately became unhappy. who? "

Rong Yan shook her head. I think she's a little familiar, but I can't remember where I've seen her before. Anyway, I'm already old, Huahua.

"And then? what did he do?"

Liancheng Yazhi's face darkened. He was starting to regret it now. He should have gone with Rong Yan just now. With him around, that bastard would never have touched Rong Yan's hand.

Rong Yan raised her hand and pouted. then, ran ran suddenly grabbed my hand and shouted 'Yang Yan'. Who knows what he shouted? I beat him away, but he still wanted to chase after me. Hey, Liancheng Yazhi, your child's mother has been taken advantage of. Why don't you do something? " as soon as she finished speaking, rong yan felt her hand heat up. liancheng yazhi had already grabbed her hand and wiped it with his own handkerchief. he wiped every finger, every gap between his fingers, and every inch carefully.

After he was done, he kissed every finger again. Then, he picked up Rong Yan's hand and looked at it under the sun as if it was an accessory to see where it was not clean.

His expression was serious and cherishing, as if he was doing the most sacred thing in the world. Rong Yan's heart warmed up and happiness gushed out in an instant.

Chapter 517 hug the mother and daughter

After reading it, Liancheng felt that it was almost clean, so he put Rong Yan's hand down and said to her with a smile, "Don't worry, I won't let that person off."

rong yan shook her head. "forget it. i've already called her. today is the day that meowmeow might be diagnosed. it's better to avoid trouble. "

Ever since she had

Liancheng Yazhi lowered his head to look at MeowMeow, then kissed Rong Yan on the lips and said with a smile, "Good Yingluo."

To be honest, there were some parts of Rong Yan that had not changed, but the changes in some parts really surprised Liancheng Yazhi.

For example, as long as it was related to meowmeowmeowmeowmeow, Rong Yan could do anything for her.

Sometimes, even Liancheng Yazhi was a little jealous of this kind of love that surpassed everything else. However, it was embarrassing to say that he was jealous of his own daughter.

Finally, two hours were up. Liancheng Yazhi brought Rong Yan and MeowMeow to the door of the laboratory.

It was still the Chinese professor. He had a very complicated expression on his face. It seemed to be excited, but it also seemed to be confused.

He bowed to Liancheng Yazhi and said, "Young master ya, please come to the laboratory to take a look."

Liancheng Yazhi was puzzled. He looked at the other party's expression and finally decided that he would go in first to find out what was going on, so he said to Rong Yan, "there's too much bacteria in the air in the lab. I'll go in first. You wait for me outside with MeowMeow for a while. I'll tell you when I come out, okay? "

Rong Yan felt that Liancheng Yazhi was right. There was everything in the laboratory, so it was best not to go in. She nodded. then hurry up!

the only person she could trust and rely on now was liancheng yazhi.

"Don't worry, it'll be over soon."

Before Liancheng Yazhi entered the laboratory, he hugged the mother and daughter!

He turned around and entered the laboratory. Liancheng Yazhi's face immediately turned cold, and the Chinese professor beside him immediately felt that the air was so cold that it was almost frosty.

"Tell me, what's the result!"

the professor brought Liancheng Yazhi to the microscope and said to him, "Young master ya, please take a look at the three sets of blood samples."

Liancheng Yazhi did not know what the professor was trying to do, but he still watched patiently.

"group one, these are blood samples from normal people," the professor said.

Liancheng Yazhi had a good understanding of the blood cell structure of humans. It was very normal and there was nothing special about it.

The professor brought over another microscope. the second group, this is your Pixiu.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at the professor but lowered his head to look. After reading it, his expression suddenly changed, and the impatience on his face instantly disappeared.

the professor pointed at the third microscope. "young master ya, look at this one. this is miss Liancheng Yazhi furrowed his brows. After a while, he lowered his head and stared blankly for a few seconds. Liancheng Yazhi's face turned pale.

He grabbed the professor's neck and instantly lost his calm. He shouted angrily, "What's going on?"

The professor shivered from being grabbed by the neck and quickly said, "Young master ya, please calm down first. Calm down, Yingluo, you can also see that something is wrong, right? miss MeowMeow and you have more platelets than ordinary people. According to common sense, you and miss MeowMeow should be fine when your bodies are still there, but you're fine!"

Chapter 518 I won't let anything happen to our baby in addition, we've done an experiment and added some bacteria to your blood, which was quickly swallowed. The platelets in your body seem to have been changed, which makes your self-healing and recovery abilities many times stronger than the average person after you're injured or sick, and your body is also stronger, right? "

Liancheng Yazhi's grip tightened. where's MeowMeow? She's the same as me, so why is she sick?"

the professor gasped for air. "cough, cough, cough, cough ... the problem lies here. on the surface, your blood seems to be the same, but after conducting a bacterial experiment, we discovered something else ... "

Liancheng Yazhi felt very uneasy. He let go of the professor and said, "say Yingluo."

ahem, ahem, ahem, ahem, ahem, I'll tell you, ahem, it's like this. After the platelets in miss MeowMeow's body devour the bacteria, they become restless, as if they've received some kind of energy supplement from ahem, which speeds up blood circulation and increases the burden on the heart.

The professor stood up slowly with the support of the wall. your body seems to have an automatic neutralization ability. After being sick or injured, the platelets don't show any other changes and are just like normal people. But miss Qianqian's heart wasn't developed well when she was a fetus, and with this problem, every time the platelets explode, the heart can't handle it, and it directly leads to the disease. This is why it's so dangerous when the disease flares up.

The professor looked up at Liancheng Yazhi and was so scared that he knelt on the ground. It was too scary. It was as if his soul had been drawn out from hell. One look and he would be scared to death.

The professor thought that he had not explained it clearly, so he quickly explained, "for example, miss MeowMeow's heart is like a bridge that can only weigh 10 tons, and the platelets in the blood that are sent into the heart are like 20-ton trucks. So, every time she gets sick, the platelets get heavier. In the long run, the heart can't bear such an overweight burden. After a long time, the bridge can't bear it, so the heart will collapse.

Time passed by, and the huge pressure in the air made the professor feel like he was about to have a heart attack.

Finally, in the gloomy and terrifying atmosphere, Liancheng Yazhi's voice rang out. what's the reason for this? "

"It might be that you took some medicine to change your physique when you were young. It could also be inherited!"

Rong Yan waited outside for nearly an hour with MeowMeow in her arms, but Liancheng Yazhi still had not come back. The more she thought about it, the more worried she became. When she wanted to rush in, she saw that Liancheng Yazhi had come to his place and quickly ran forward to ask, "How is it? what was going on? Is there a big problem with Yingluo?"

a look of pain flashed across liancheng yazhi's face, but the next second, he smiled extremely gently and picked up meowmeow and rong yan. he laughed and said,"It's not a big problem, Yingying is fine. It's just an atrial septal defect, and she'll be fine after some correction surgery! it's not a big problem, they're just making a big fuss!"

"Really?" Rong Yan widened her eyes.

"Of course it's true. Why Would I Lie to You?"

Rong Yan cried and laughed at the same time as she threw herself into Liancheng Yazhi's arms."That's great, Yingluo, our meowmeowmeowmeowmeow will be fine."

Liancheng Yazhi hugged Rong Yan tightly, and his smile gradually faded when she couldn't see it. Don't worry, no matter what method I use, I won't let anything happen to our baby.

Chapter 519 Mommy's Baby

Knowing that after crying and laughing for a while, he woke up meowmeow. meowmeow opened her mouth and said in a daze, "mommy, yingluo."

Her soft voice made Rong Yan's heart feel sweet and soft. She lowered her head and kissed meowmeowmeowmeowmeowmeow's face hard. Meow Meow, Mommy's Baby, mommy's little princess Yingluo.

Liancheng Yazhi looked at the mother and daughter, but his heart was in so much pain that it was clenched together, as if it was being held tightly by an invisible force. It was so painful that he was about to suffocate.

In the laboratory just now, the professor had told Liancheng Yazhi that if he wanted to treat MeowMeow, he had to first suppress the violent platelets in her body and wait until MeowMeow's body was like Liancheng Yazhi's and could automatically neutralize the energy emitted by the platelets. Only then could he perform the heart correction surgery on MeowMeow.

Therefore, the heart disease was no longer the key to the problem.

Instead, he was thinking about how to improve MeowMeow's blood!

However, even the world's top medical experts were unfamiliar with this problem. This was because Yingying was the first symptom they had encountered. From a medical point of view, it was simply impossible.

Therefore, they had to first study how to suppress the platelets in MeowMeow's body, but there was no progress on this cricket for the time being.

Liancheng Yazhi decided that he couldn't tell Rong Yan about this. He couldn't let her continue to worry about

No matter what, even if he had to use his last resort, he would not let anything happen to MeowMeow.

Rong Yan was so happy that she didn't notice the change in Liancheng Yazhi's expression.

After kissing "When are you going to perform the surgery for MeowMeow?"

Liancheng Yazhi quickly came back to his senses and said, "we still have to wait for this Wanwan. The doctor said that our little princess is still too young and her physical condition isn't very good. She also has a little anemia, so she needs to nourish her body first. She'll only receive treatment when she's a little older and better. Before that, she'll take some medicine to cooperate with the treatment.

rong yan naturally believed liancheng yazhi's words, and it sounded reasonable and without anything wrong.

Besides, Rong Yan also thought that it would be safer to operate on the child when he was a little older.

Rong Yan nodded, "Oh, I see, Yingluo. That's good, Yingluo."

She handed

The mood that had been suppressed for so long was suddenly relaxed. Rong Yan was so happy that she couldn't speak. Then, she realized that her arms were almost numb because she had been holding MeowMeow for too long.

liancheng yazhi quickly took it. "you're really something. why didn't you go and take a seat first?"

Their actions, expressions, and words made Liancheng Yazhi's heart hurt and happy. alright, daddy is leaving!

Liancheng Yazhi covered them with the blanket and kissed each of their little faces before turning to leave.

Rong Yan suddenly jumped off the bed and threw herself on Liancheng Yazhi, quickly hugging his neck.

Liancheng Yazhi immediately turned around when Rong Yan pounced on him. He subconsciously opened his arms and hugged her tightly.

Rong Yan tilted her head and said to Liancheng Yazhi, " before I leave, I think I need to encourage you. Father, you should work hard to earn money. We are both very prodigal. after she finished speaking, she lowered her head and gave him a loud kiss on the lips.

Because of Rong Yan's words, the heavy pressure on Liancheng Yazhi's heart lightened a little. After scanning Rong Yan with a picky gaze, he nodded with emotion. yes, you have to work hard. That's why Yingluo needs more encouragement.

Rong Yan pouted. if you want me to kiss you, just say it.

After saying that, Rong Yan directly lowered her head and kissed Liancheng Yazhi's mouth. It was a French Kiss, and the two of them were very lingering and emotional when they kissed.
