Chapter 3241

Sure enough, at this time, a clear voice sounded from the sky.

I saw a young man with golden awns flowing all over his body. It was Ye Chen who flew like a meteor.

"You see, isn't he here?"

Xuancang star see ye Chen's figure, immediately smile, eyes constantly flashing light, I do not know what is planning.

"Just in time."

The black crane snorted.

"This is the first genius of the kingdom of God, ye Chen!"

"At the same time, he offended master Dan Huang and the two elders of heaven and earth. He dared to appear, and he was looking for death!"

The whole audience, seeing ye Chen coming, was in a great uproar.

At this time, ye Chen, with both hands behind him, overflows with light fire.

"Dad, he's here."

Yang Teng looks complicated, looking at the Dan emperor Yang lie.

Ye Chen's momentum is amazing, showing the supreme divine power. I'm afraid it's not so easy to kill him.

"Don't panic. Defeat him first, and then kill him after you get the secret script of fahua's death of heaven."

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, looked gloomy and whispered.

At today's danzun meeting, he is determined to win.

As long as you win the championship, you can get the secret script of fahua's killing the sky. This is the 33 Tianhong Mongolian method. It has a very powerful calming Tianwei. Once practiced, it can kill all enemies.

"Is this the genius Ye Chen who is famous for the kingdom of God? If you have a chance, you must obliterate this son. "

On the other side of the palace of emperor yuan, Sikong lie looks at Ye Chen's figure, and is also pondering silently.

If a genius grows up, it may bring a huge threat to the palace of emperor yuan. If he can erase it, it is better to erase it.

"What's the matter with this boy who broke out under the pressure of his ancestors two days ago?"

On the VIP seat, the Qing family is evergreen and loyal. Seeing ye Chen's appearance, he is in a state of disbelief.

Two days ago, in the ancestral land of Qingjia, ye Chen released the power of Taigu danzun, which still impressed him deeply.

He even once suspected that ye Chen was the reincarnation of Taigu danzun!

Under the gaze of many eyes, ye Chen takes up the fire wing and falls down to the position originally belonging to the green autumn cloud.

He looked around, silently watching the figures.

Yang lie, Yang Teng, Qing Zhennan, Si kongliai, Qiankun Er Lao, all of them have captured the hidden opportunity of killing.

"You want to kill me. I'm so hateful?"

Ye Chen touched his nose, but he was a little dumbfounded.

He also knew that today's danzun meeting must be very dangerous, but in order to seize the beginning of blood and save Xiao Huang's injury, he could not control so much.

Even if it's a tiger's den, we have to make a breakthrough.

As he landed, there were two other figures quietly stepping into the audience. They were Qingqiu cloud and Youying ghost weasel.

Both of them wore thick robes, which covered their breath and body shape.

"It's so murderous here. I'm afraid it's not easy for adults to get away today."

The Youying ghost weasel sniffed his nose. Out of the instinct of the ancient ferocity, he caught a shred of fierce killing opportunity almost in an instant.

I don't know how many people want to kill Ye Chen.

"Master, will nothing happen?"

Listening to the words of Youying ghost weasel, qingqiuyun is also worried.

The Youying ghost weasel was silent and his face was very solemn. In addition to refining pills, I'm afraid there will be a big war today.

"All the contestants have arrived. I declare that the danzun meeting has officially begun."

At the referee's table, elder Qian Xuancang crane stood up and announced the start of the game in a loud voice.

Dang!

Another melodious bell rang through the audience.

There are several danta elders, went to the arena, one by one to check the qualifications of alchemists.

Each alchemist took out the token one after another, and ye Chen also took out the token given to him by Qing Qiuyun.

After the demonstration, on the referee's bench, Xuancang said in a loud voice:

"in this competition, you need to refine Hongmeng Yuandan."

"On your desk, there are three Dan Fang scrolls, which record the refining methods of three kinds of Xiaoyuan pills respectively, which are the broken Nirvana bone quenching pill, the Ziji Yunshen pill and the Seven Star Tianxin pill."

"The competition lasts for two hours. In the specified time, whoever can refine more pills and better quality will win."

Xuancang crane announced the competition system.

The rules of the competition are very simple. In two hours, whoever refines more pills will win. If there are as many pills, it depends on the quality.

"You want to refine Hongmeng Yuandan."

"Hongmeng Yuandan, communicating the flavor of Hongmeng, is very difficult to refine."

"Dan, even if it is more powerful than ordinary medicine."

Hearing Xuancang crane's words, the audience immediately set off waves. Hongmeng source pill is beyond the existence of ordinary pills. According to its quality, it can be divided into small source pill, big source pill and supreme source pill.

Every source pill has the aura of heaven and earth. It is very difficult to refine it.

However, people did not expect that the competition system of this danzun meeting was so harsh that alchemists were required to refine Hongmeng pills.

"Hongmeng Yuandan, I can't refine it."

"I didn't either."

"I abstained."

When the referee's voice dropped, there were seven or eight alchemists who shook their heads to abstain and withdrew from the competition.

Because Hongmeng Yuandan is too difficult to refine. If there is no top alchemy, it is almost impossible to succeed.

All of a sudden, there were only twenty alchemists left.

"Those who are unable to refine can withdraw from the competition as much as possible. The rest of the players, the competition has already started. Please hurry up. You only have two hours."

On the referee's bench, the two old men of heaven and earth had a stern tone.

Listening to the words of the two elders, the alchemists present immediately began to be busy.

"Originally, we wanted to refine Hongmeng Yuandan."

Ye Chen's face is dignified. Hongmeng Yuandan contains ancient Hongmeng source Qi. It is not easy to refine it. He has never refined it before.

The grade of hongmengyuan pill is much more powerful than the pills he has seen before.

He immediately calmed his mind and looked at the face of the case.

On the side of the tablet, there are three volumes.

"Broken Nirvana bone quenching pill, the pill of refining body."

"Ziji Yinshen pill is a pill for refining spirits."

"Seven Star Tianxin pill, a pill to enhance the understanding."

Ye Chen opens the scroll, glances slightly, and suddenly has a preliminary understanding.

It turns out that these three Dan Fang scrolls respectively represent three different attributes: body refining, soul refining, and savvy enhancement. Alchemists can choose the appropriate Dan Fang to refine according to their own needs.

Time is only two hours, think of three kinds of pills, all refined out, it is difficult to compare to heaven, so need to make a choice.

"Let's start with the Seven Star Tianxin pill."

Ye Chen's eyes congealed, immediately picked up the scroll of the Seven Star Tianxin pill, closed his eyes and realized it.

Chapter 3242

All of the three pills are Xiaoyuan pills, and the refining difficulty is the same. However, the Seven Star Tianxin pill can improve the understanding and is most useful for ye Chen, so he decided to start with the Seven Star Tianxin pill.

After all, after all, when the danzun meeting is over, the alchemist can buy the pills at a low price.

If ye Chen's understanding can be improved, it will be much easier to practice Bagua Tiandan.

Under the concentrated feeling, the refining method of Seven Star Tianxin pill is pouring into Ye Chen's mind, but hazy, it seems that it will disappear at any time.

These three Dan Fang scrolls, danta side has done special treatment, contestants can temporarily understand, when the end, this perception will disappear, all the alchemy, also like a dream to wake up, like clouds of smoke.

This is to ensure that the Dan formula does not leak out, naturally there is no blame.

"Seven Star Tianxin pill needs medicinal materials such as Linggu grass, huolingye, danxianrui, Qixing Begonia, linglongzhi, jiaolonggu, bingxinlan..."

Ye Chen opened his eyes, refining the raw materials of Seven Star Tianxin pill, flashed in his mind.

In front of him on the table surface, there are corresponding medicinal materials placed, only two copies.

All alchemists have only two chances. Once they fail, they declare the game over.

Ye Chen took a deep breath, picked up a medicinal plant, and put it into the furnace.

"Well, this exquisite branch is strange!"

Suddenly, ye Chen found a medicine called Linglong branch, but it was a little strange.

On this exquisite branch, there is a very obscure fluctuation of spiritual power.

This wave of spiritual power has destroyed the structure of Linglong branch. If it is used for alchemy, it will inevitably lead to failure.

"Someone's done something about it."

Chen, look at Xi Ye.

These herbs are all provided by danta, and they don't need to be brought by players.

Since there is a problem with the medicinal materials, it was definitely tampered with.

On the referee's bench, the two elders of heaven and earth saw Ye Chen's eyes, and his face suddenly sank.

"Damn it, the boy found it."

The two looked at each other, and their faces became more and more ugly.

It turns out that ye Chen used herbs, they really tried to let Ye Chen fail in public, so as to frustrate his spirit.

But did not expect, they this small hands and feet, it was discovered by Ye Chen.

"Well, two old things."

Ye Chen's eyes are cold, holding the exquisite branch, a wisp of dark flame released, will be inside the spiritual power fluctuations all erase, to ensure that the medicine is no problem, he put into the furnace.

However, he did not expect that, as a referee, the two elders of heaven and earth would even act in the medicinal materials.

They can only be described as narrow-minded.

Fortunately, he had a keen sense of mind and was not trapped. Otherwise, this meeting of Dan Zun would surely be defeated.

A plant of medicinal materials, all put into the furnace.

Ye Chen stretched out his hand, the blazing flame rose slowly in his palm, and the rolling temperature also diffused out.

After absorbing the breath of reincarnation star flame and archaic evil flame, the energy of Xuanyan is more magnificent. At the moment, it is released, and suddenly there is endless fire power. Among the flames, there is a faint roar, which is moving.

"Well, what kind of fire is that?"

"Is that the ancestral fire of the Qing family, the cold flame of Zixiao?"

"No, this is not the breath of Zixiao cold flame!"

In the audience, countless people looked at Ye Chen's dark flame in his hand, showing a look of shock.

The most important thing for alchemists is the fire.

Among them, Shenhua is the most valuable and powerful.

At the moment, Ye Chen released a mysterious flame, immediately caused countless surprised eyes.

Some people even mistakenly believe that this is the ancestral fire of the Qing family, Zixiao cold flame.

After all, the news of Ye Chen swallowing the purple sky cold flame two days ago has spread all over the boundary city.

"The boy, how could he be so angry?"

When Yang lie saw the light of Xuanyan, he was surprised.

Even though they were quite far away, he felt the terrible temperature of Xuanyan.

This flame seems to be able to extinguish mountains and rivers and burn everything, which is incomparably moving.

He thought Ye Chen had only Zixiao cold flame. He didn't expect that there was a second way.

As you know, Shenhuo is a very rare thing in the world. Ordinary people can take one of them. It's already a great luck. It's incredible that they can swallow two kinds of things.

After all, the energy of Shenhuo is very violent. It is not easy to refine it. It needs high blood qualification.

At the same time, the two kinds of divine fire gather in the elixir field, and even have the risk of explosion.

Ye Chen has at least two kinds of fire in his body.

This scene, let Dan Huang Yang lie incomparably surprised and surprised.

"If you kill him, they are mine?"

Dan Huang Yang lie secretly licked his lips, his eyes showed fierce light. Generally speaking, after a person dies, even if there is divine fire in his body, he will return to heaven and earth quickly, and it is impossible to be robbed.

However, if some skills are used, there is a chance to forcibly kill and seize fire.

For example, fahua is dead!

It is one of the 33 Tianhong Mongolian laws. Once it is put into practice, it will have the supreme power of extinction.

In fact, the law of degree and the law of annihilation in the world are spread out from the day of the extinction of fahua.

Once this method is applied, even if it is divine fire, it will be suppressed and cannot escape.

In Yang lie's eyes, greed and murder are more and more intense.

As long as he wins the championship, he will be able to obtain the secret script of fahua's extinction of the sky, thus practicing this amazing magic power.

"Well, if you want to kill me, you have to see if you have this ability."

Ye Chen is aware of the Red Emperor Yang lie's eyes, in the heart hum a, pour have no fear.

In terms of martial arts, he was not afraid of the emperor Yang lie, but a little afraid of the green candle dragon behind the other side.

As long as qingfanzhulong doesn't make a move, he is sure to crush the Dan emperor and his son.

However, the most important thing now is not to fight, but to refine alchemy.

Ye Chen converged his mind and put all his energy on alchemy.

Hiss!

He sacrificed a mysterious flame and threw it into the furnace.

Boom!

As soon as the dark flame enters the furnace, it immediately diffuses open, and continuously releases the flame.

Rolling temperature, burning in the furnace, endless flame, constantly tossing intertwined, forming a rune.

Under the burning of the dark flame, a plant of medicinal materials also slowly melted and turned into wisps of liquid medicine. Under the control of Ye Chen's spiritual power, it was suspended in the middle of the furnace, slowly merging and emitting a cool fragrance of medicine.

Refining the Seven Star Tianxin pill is going on in an orderly way.

Ye Chen is not impatient and keeps his mind calm.

And the Dan emperor Yang lie there, also began refining.

He threw all the medicinal materials of broken Nirvana bone quenching pill, Ziji Yunshen pill and seven star Tianxin pill into the furnace.

Full of herbs, almost filled the whole furnace.

Chapter 3243

"What do you want, old man?"

Ye Chen saw this scene, suddenly a burst of surprise.

Is the emperor of Dan Yang lie so arrogant that he wants to refine three kinds of pills at the same time?

Teng!

A red flame, diffuse from the hands of the Dan emperor Yang lie, sent out a terrible high temperature, a trace of ancient Hongmeng breath, also released.

On the referee's bench, the two old men of heaven and earth looked at the flame in the hands of emperor Dan Yang lie, and his face showed a surprised look.

"It's the legendary six Yang fire."

The flame in Yang lie's hand is called Liuyang Shenhua. It is the sky fire spread from Liuyang Shenhua Jian. It is born with Hongmeng flavor.

The six Yang divine fire mirror is one of the most precious treasures of the thirty-three days. It has extremely intense flame. The fire flowing from this magic weapon also has the energy of the magic weapon itself. It can be said that it is the top alchemy fire.

Yang Lieyi, the emperor of the Red Emperor, offered sacrifices to the six Yang fire. Suddenly, the furnace of the whole furnace was ablaze with flames, which turned into a mirror.

This mirror is the mirror of the six Yang fire!

Buzz!

The mirror light is constantly shining, with the terrible Hongmeng Tianwei, mixed with the blazing of the six Yang divine fire, falling on a plant of medicinal materials.

The plants melted and turned into three groups of warm liquid, floating in the furnace, filled with the fragrance of medicine.

"Master Dan Huang has great ability to refine three kinds of pills at the same time!"

"It's just against the weather."

"Is this the magic power of six Yang Shenhua?"

All the audience, all eyes focused on the body of the Dan Huang Yang lie, all of them were extremely shocked.

"Dad, your alchemy is getting better and better."

Yang Teng is also full of excitement. His father's Alchemy method is simply earth shaking. It is incredible that he can refine three kinds of pills at the same time.

"It seems that the champion of this conference must be master Dan Huang."

On the referee's bench, the two elders looked at each other with admiration and nodded.

On alchemy, there are so many people present that no one can compare with Yang lie.

"Ha ha."

Feeling the shocked eyes of the people, Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, stroked his beard with a smile, sat down quietly on his knees, and a continuous flame surged from his body, echoing with the six Yang fire in the furnace.

"Six Yang fire, imperial edict!"

His hands congealed in front of him, holding one by one.

The fire of six Yang is stirring with fire, following a unique rhythm and rhythm, slowly refining a medicinal plant.

Looking at this rhythm, it doesn't take two hours for Dan Huang Yang lie to refine all the broken Nirvana bone quenching pills, Ziji Yunshen pills and seven star Tianxin pills.

You know, these three pills are all hongmengyuan pills, and their quality is very high. In a short period of two hours, ordinary alchemists can only refine one, and two kinds can be refined, which can be said to be gifted.

If you can refine three, it's against the weather.

If Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, can really refine these three Xiaoyuan pills at the same time, his name will surely shine through the ages, and even spread to the outside world and the upper world, shocking those powerful ones.

Seeing that Yang lie was so powerful, almost all the alchemists in the audience all gave up the idea of winning the championship and just wanted to snatch the second one.

"The candle dragon is out of flame, rise!"

At this moment, Yang Teng, the son of the Dan emperor Yang lie, also began to move.

When he moved his hand, there was an extremely fierce fire floating out of his palm.

Among the flames, it was like a candle dragon, and there were characters with Tiangang's life-threatening atmosphere, flying out like a butterfly.

Hiss!

Yang Teng's palm turns, this wisp of candle dragon Jue Yan, then falls into the furnace.

He wanted to burn the stove red and hot, and then put down the medicinal plants. His actions were orderly. Although he could not compare with his father in terms of means, he was also qualified to snatch the second place.

"This is The smell of the dragon

Ye Chen looked at Yang Teng's fire, and immediately caught the smell of green candle dragon.

The flame of this candle dragon is obviously condensed by the green candle dragon with its own blood essence, and it is also mixed with the breath of Tiangang Jue Ming Fu. In terms of its power, it is absolutely no worse than the ordinary sky fire.

The only drawback is that it can only be used once, but it is enough.

Thinking of the Dan emperor Yang lie and his son, there is a blue candle dragon support, ye Chen heart more and more dignified.

But the emperor yuan Palace Branch hall side, it is not slow appearance.

"The method of the Dan emperor Yang lie is too against the sky. I can't fight for it."

Sikong lie shakes his head, after seeing the means of the Dan emperor Yang lie, he completely breaks the idea of winning the championship.

Qing Zhen Nan also shook his head and thought, "master Dan Huang is really a marvelous master. It's a great pity that the eldest lady refuses to worship him as a teacher. For today's plan, only by seizing the second place can we maintain the dignity of our Qing family."Qingzhennan also broke off the idea of winning the championship, narrowed his eyes and threw a medicinal plant into the furnace. The old man's palm moved and released a faint blue fire, slowly burning the medicinal materials.

This wisp of blue fire, but haunted by a layer of Canglang rune, it turns out that Canglang glass lamp's aura.

Qingzhen south to Canglang water alchemy, and ordinary alchemists of fire, very different, but also unique.

Ye Chen took a look at his technique and thought of the eight trigrams Tiandan technique. He was very thoughtful.

"Boy, don't be distracted!"

Taigu danzun's voice, coming from the samsara cemetery, is like a slap in the head.

Ye Chen suddenly wakes up. Now is not the time to practice enlightenment. Refining pills is important.

"Thank you for your advice."

Ye Chen converged his mind and focused on the furnace. When he pinched the formula with his fingers, the dark flame burst out a lot of fire. The liquid medicine in the furnace gradually reduced and solidified, forming the prototype of the Seven Star Tianxin pill.

This young pill, fragrant, a little bit of starlight circulation, but there is no Hongmeng flavor, has not reached the point of becoming a Dan.

If you want to really refine pills, you need to communicate the ancient spirit of Hongmeng, arouse the breath of Hongmeng, and pour it into the pills.

It is not easy to communicate with Hongmeng.

Hongmeng breath is the original source of heaven and earth, and represents the source of the universe.

All kinds of creatures and magic methods are evolved from Hongmeng.

Around Ye Chen, many ordinary alchemists frown and ponder hard to capture the breath of Hongmeng. However, they have not practiced the ancient method of Hongmeng, so it is very difficult to communicate with him.

"Oh!"

Ye Chen did not have the slightest difficulty appearance, the finger a bit, the muscles and bones vibrated, an ancient note, from his fingertip floated out, fell into the furnace.

Chapter 3244

Chuckle!

That young pill, crazy absorption of the surrounding Hongmeng breath, the whole pill gradually become warm and mellow, the surface even filled with a layer of light golden light of Saint Buddha.

"It's the sound of Tianlong and eight gods!"

"It turns out that this boy has mastered the thirty-three Tianhong Mongolian law."

On the referee's bench, Qian Kun Er Lao saw Ye Chen's means, and his face suddenly changed.

In the thirty-three Tianhong Mongolian Dharma, the sound of eight gods of Tianlong ranks eighth in terms of power. It is a very powerful magic power.

Their faces changed, not to say how rebellious Tianlong bashenyin is, but the prize of this competition. Fahua extinguishes the sky, which is matched with Tianlong eight gods sound.

Once Ye Chen wins the championship, he becomes a Dharma, calms the sky, and uses it together with Tianlong's eight gods' sound. He will incarnate as the Buddha of heaven. With a finger of flowers, he will have the power to suppress mountains and rivers and extinguish the stars.

When the time comes, ye Chen wants to kill them. It's just like cutting grass.

"If he wins, we'll be finished."

Heaven and earth are deeply afraid that once Ye Chen gets fahua's death, they will not know how to die.

"It's OK. He can't win the championship. Master Danhuang is so powerful. Where will he win the championship of danzun assembly? Besides, we are the referees, who is the first, is not we has the final say? "

Thinking of this, Qian Kun Er Lao's face suddenly slowed down and his heart became calm.

At this time, ye Chen is watching the situation in the furnace.

After absorbing the Hongmeng flavor, the Seven Star Tianxin pill was formally refined. A round and white pill was suspended in the furnace chamber, releasing wisps of fragrance, layers of golden light, and a little bit of star light, which constantly circulated around the pill, showing a incomparably gorgeous atmosphere.

"Seven Star Tianxin pill, it's done!"

Ye Chen beat the furnace wall, bang, seven star Tianxin Dan with a ray of gold, rushed out.

He picked up a jade box and packed the Seven Star Tianxin pill. It took only half an hour to refine the pill.

"It's so quick to refine pills."

"This boy is really a bit of a man."

"Ha ha, no wonder he didn't want to learn from master Dan Huang and the two masters of heaven and earth."

In the audience, many eyes cast.

Just now people have been paying attention to the Dan emperor Yang lie, and have not paid too much attention to Ye Chen. At this moment, ye Chen's success in refining pills has attracted people's attention.

Among the alchemists, only Ye Chen took the lead in refining the pills.

"It's kind of interesting."

Dan Huang Yang lie saw this, coldly smile, did not expect Ye Chen speed so fast.

If only refining one pill, his speed will not be slower than ye Chen, but now he is refining three kinds of pills at the same time, but it is impossible for him to succeed so quickly.

"Won't the second place be taken by this boy?"

Yang Teng was a little nervous. Unexpectedly, ye Chen refined the pill so quickly. If he won the second place, he would lose a lot. After all, the prizes in the Dan Zun meeting were very rich. Even if he was the second, there were many spiritual stones, magic weapons and spiritual materials from heaven and earth.

"This boy, a little tactful, no wonder the young lady is so obsessed with him."

Qing Zhennan, the elder of the Qing family, has a slight solidification of his eyes. He did not expect Ye Chen to be so fast. He is still in the stage of refining medicinal materials, and ye Chen's pills have been made.

"It's a genius of the kingdom of God. It's a powerful means. It would be better if we could take it back to the seat of emperor yuan hall."

On the other side of the palace of emperor yuan, Sikong lie looks at Ye Chen and moves his mind to solicit.

He originally wanted to wipe out Ye Chen, but he changed his mind when he saw that ye Chen's alchemy was so exquisite.

After all, an alchemist plays an extremely important role in the development and growth of sect forces. If you can recruit them, it is better to recruit them.

Poof!

But when he lost his mind, there was a dull sound in his furnace.

A plant of medicinal materials, fell to the bottom of the furnace, turned into black coke.

"Failed."

Sikong lie immediately shakes his head, refining pills can not be distracted, he just a little distracted, the fire lost control, the medicinal materials burned into coke.

Fortunately, he had two chances to make pills, and he also had a medicine.

"Well, I'd better quit the race."

Sikong lie thought for a while, but didn't try alchemy any more. Instead, he turned around and left and withdrew from the competition on the spot.

In this danzun meeting, the sub Hall of Diyu hall just sent him to take a chance. If he can win the best, if he fails, it will be nothing.

Seeing the means of the Dan emperor Yang lie and ye Chen, Sikong lie knew that he had no chance to win the championship, and even had no qualification to snatch the second place. Now he abstained from the race and withdrew from the race, which was crisp and neat without any hesitation.

"This boy, if you have a chance, you must take it under your command."

Sikong lie looked at Ye Chen deeply and turned to leave.

Sikong lie's departure did not attract much attention. After all, people's eyes fell on the Dan emperor Yang lie and ye Chen."One and a half hours to go."

Ye Chen panted slightly and sweat came out of his forehead.

He had just refined the Seven Star Tianxin pill, which really cost him a lot of physical strength.

But time is running out and he has no chance to rest.

"Second round refining, start!"

Deep breath, the second round of refining.

There are still two kinds of pills left, which are suini xigudan and Ziji Yunshen pill.

First of all, he picked up the Dan Fang scroll of Ziji Yinshen pill and felt it silently.

Ziji Yunshen pill is a pill that nourishes the spirit. Compared with the traditional Chinese medicine of breaking Nirvana and quenching bones, it is much more gentle and easier to refine.

"In order to refine Ziji Yinshen pill, shenxincao, lingshuibi, danxiamu, shebancao, Tianhuang jadeite and Tiangong Shenshui are needed."

Ye Chen closed his eyes and felt all kinds of magic methods in the pill.

In vain, he caught a breath of danger.

"It's not right. There's something wrong with this Dan prescription!"

Ye Chen suddenly opened his eyes, and in the dark, he felt that the danfang of Ziji Yinshen pill had been touched. Some alchemy steps in the pill must be wrong.

"Heaven and earth, it's you again!"

Ye Chen bit his teeth and looked at the referee.

"This boy, found again?"

"No way. We just changed a word. He can't find out that there is something wrong with Dan Fang."

The two elders of heaven and earth looked at Ye Chen's eyes, and their hearts suddenly jumped.

They did move their hands and feet, but the traces of their hands and feet were very weak. They only changed one word. Even if the legendary Taigu danzun was reincarnated, they might not be able to find the abnormality.

But now, ye Chen must have found something different. How did he do it?

However, the two masters of heaven and earth do not know that ye Chen can catch the breath of good fortune and misfortune in the dark by practicing the bright eyes of the devil cave. As long as the situation is unfavorable to him, he can predict it in advance.

All of a sudden, ye Chen found that the Dan scroll was changed by a word. There was a alchemy step, which should be "he Dan", but changed to "broken Dan".

Chapter 3245

The so-called "he Dan" is to coagulate the medicinal materials together.

And broken Dan, is to break all the medicinal materials.

This word difference, however, leads to the opposite situation.

If he hadn't found out in advance and really refined according to the Dan formula, he would definitely fail.

"Good cruel means, changed a word, I'm afraid that it was the master Dan Zun, and he may not be able to find it."

Ye Chen's eyes shrunk. The trace of the two old men's changes is very small. If he had not become a bright eye in the demon cave, he might not have noticed it.

"Boy, you seem to be targeted."

In the samsara cemetery, Taigu danzun also found Ye Chen's bad.

"Well, it's not so easy for them to target me."

Ye Chen throws the medicinal materials for making Ziji Shenshen pill into the furnace. With a flip of his palm, a flame with purple white divine light rises violently and burns wildly in the furnace. Under the intense high temperature, however, there is a trace of strange cold air emanating.

Purple sky cold flame!

The flame in Ye Chen's hand is the fire of qingjiazu and the cold flame of Zixiao!

This Zixiao cold flame contains a strong congenital purple Qi, which is connected with the breath of Ziji Yinshen pill. Refining this pill with Zixiao cold flame can achieve twice the result with half the effort.

"This is the legendary purple sky cold flame!"

"What a strong breath!"

"At such a high temperature, there is still a trace of cold air. The purple sky cold flame is really magical."

In the audience, countless eyes fell on the cold flame of purple sky, and suddenly showed a blazing look.

In Jieyu City, Zixiao cold flame is legendary. It is said that there is an ancient secret behind it.

At the moment, seeing ye Chen release the purple sky cold flame, there will be many exclamations in the field.

On the VIP table, Qing Zhenzhong saw his ancestral fire, and his face was constantly changing.

"This boy, in just two days, actually used Zuhuo so skillfully."

Qing Zhenzhong's eyes narrowed, and he saw Ye Chen's palms turning, and the imperial envoy Zixiao's cold flame was like the fingers of his arm. His technique was very skillful, and he clearly thoroughly understood the inside meaning of Zixiao's cold flame.

"Is he really the reincarnation of his ancestors?"

Qingzhenzhong's heart thump, from ye Chen, faintly saw the shadow of Taigu danzun.

"Hum, what about the cold flame in Zixiao? Compared with my six Yang fire, it's just vain."

And the Dan emperor Yang lie, also saw Ye Chen's purple sky cold flame, but he did not show any surprised look, but despised.

Zixiao cold flame quality, although it is first-class.

But he has more confidence in his six Yang fire.

The six Yang divine fire, however, flows out from Hongmeng to Baoli, which has a great effect on refining Hongmeng Yuandan.

"Six Yang Baoguang, nourish the soul of Dan!"

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, drank violently and waved his hands. The fire was burning in the furnace, and the hot six Yang divine fire was constantly boiling. The three groups of liquid medicine, namely, the broken Nirvana bone quenching pill, the Ziji Yunshen pill and the Seven Star Tianxin pill, evaporated and hissed and emitted white smoke.

The impurities in the liquid are evaporated quickly.

Yang lie pinched lingjue and compressed the three groups of liquid medicine, gradually compressed into the shape of Dan pills.

Three young pills are suspended in the furnace.

"Master Dan Huang is going to succeed!"

"It's less than an hour before he's finished completely?"

"This alchemy is just against the sky."

All the audience's eyes fell on Yang lie, the emperor of Dan. Everyone was extremely moved.

When Yang lie's hands were turning, the six Yang fire became a mirror. It was the legendary treasure of the thirty-three days, and the six Yang fire was a mirror!

Between Yang lie and the emperor of Dan, the great atmosphere of the six Yang divine fire was evolved.

"Up

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, drank violently, and the six Yang divine fire rose to the sky, just like a round of sunlight, which was so brilliant that people couldn't open their eyes.

In ancient times, when the demons were at their worst, the sky fell into a perpetual night and no light could be seen.

The six Yang divine fire mirror, instead of the sun, reflects the existence of the earth.

A round of fire rises, shining on the mountains and rivers.

These treasures have an extremely pure and strong breath.

The temperature around is soaring.

Above the sky, there are two rounds of sun, one is the sky's blazing sun, the other is the six Yang divine fire mirror.

Endless mirror light, endless treasure light, endless Hongmeng breath, fall from the sky and fall in the Dan Huang Yang lie's furnace.

Chuck!le!

The three young pills in the furnace are continuously evaporating white smoke, and all impurities are refined and refined and become crystal clear.

Around the three young pills, there are magnificent pictures of dragons and tigers galloping, lions roaring, Golden Lotus shining and flying clouds floating. On the Ninth Heaven, there was also the sound of heaven and man playing flute.

Under the light of the six Yang divine fire mirror, the three young pills had an incomparably magnificent atmosphere, with dragons and tigers flying, heaven and men playing flute, and countless auspicious rays rolling in.

"Yuandan Huasheng, the weather is natural, up!"

In the moment, Yang Dan's eyes were rolling from the sky to the sky.

"One hour, less than one hour, master Dan Huang succeeded!"

"He has refined all three kinds of pills!"

"Who can compare with such a big atmosphere of Chengdan?"

All the audience, witnessing the amazing weather of the birth of three Yuandan, fell into shock and astonishment.

Heaven and man play flute, dragon, tiger and lion dance like galloping, Golden Lotus auspicious Qi falls one after another, and endless rays of sunlight seep from the pills.

These three pills, the weather of birth is simply earth shaking, so that everyone is shocked.

The alchemist in the field was also shocked.

The method of the emperor of Dan, Yang lie, was too much against heaven.

He is the champion of this danzun meeting.

Looking at the admiration around him, Yang lie gave a faint smile, waved a jade plate, containing three pills, and presented it to the referee's table, saying:

"the two old men of heaven and earth, I'm not good at skills, so I'm lucky to refine these three small source pills. Please have a look."

"Master Dan Huang, congratulations on winning

Looking at the three pills on the jade plate, Qian Kun Er Lao immediately announced the victory of Yang lie, the emperor of Dan.

Thank you very much

Yang lie narrowed his eyes, stroked his beard and began to smile.

The appearance and quality of his three pills were impeccable, and no alchemist could compare with him.

Who will be the champion of this danzun meeting, besides him?

"Congratulations, Dad."

Yang Teng saw the victory of the Dan emperor Yang lie, and he congratulated him again and again, and his face was full of excitement.

If he can win the champion of danzun Assembly this time, the power of his Danhuang aristocratic family will be very prosperous. At that time, he can even use tough means to seize Qing Qiuyun!

Chapter 3246

The whole turmoil, everyone is shocked, did not expect the champion of danzun meeting, so quickly decided.

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, is indeed worthy of his name. Such a rebellious alchemy method is incomparable.

"Hold on!"

Just then, a voice of indifference rang out.

Ye Chen stood out, coldly looking at the two old men of heaven and earth, and said, "the competition time is not over, who is the champion, maybe."

"Hehe, boy, do you want to challenge master Dan Huang?"

Heaven and earth sneered.

The audience, also issued a roar of laughter.

"Boy, are you not convinced?"

Yang Teng snorted.

"If you are convinced or not, you will not know until the end of the game."

Ye Chen said coldly.

"Good, boy. You want to challenge me. I'll give you time."

Dan Huang Yang lie laughed and didn't care about ye Chen at all. He said, "the competition still has an hour to finish. I'd like to see that there is only one hour left. How rebellious means you have to challenge my majesty."

The atmosphere of heaven blowing flute and dragon and tiger galloping is still turbulent and fierce at the moment. It can be imagined that the three Xiaoyuan pills refined by the emperor of Dan and Yang lie are so adverse to the sky.

If he wants to produce more danxiang, he must defeat refining.

But the problem is, there is still one hour left, and ye Chen has not refined the second pill.

"Hum, this boy, who is qualified to be the master of Qing'er? Qing'er doesn't want to be a teacher of Dan emperor. It's really disrespectful!"

Qing Zhenzhong's face trembled on the VIP seat.

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, revealed his amazing alchemy methods. At the beginning, Qing Qiuyun refused to follow his teacher, which was a huge loss to the Qing family.

After offending the emperor Dan, I'm afraid the life of the Qing family will not be easy.

Ye Chen takes a deep breath and converges his mind. His eyes fall on the stove.

Although he mastered the eight trigrams heaven elixir, it was not an easy thing to defeat the Dan emperor Yang lie.

Moreover, heaven and earth always aim at him. If he wants to win the championship, it will be more difficult.

Ye Chen has no carelessness, fingers pinch Jue, the purple sky cold flame in the furnace, constantly releasing the burning flame, and a trace of severe cold.

Under the burning of Zixiao cold flame, Ziji Yinshen pill gradually took shape.

Finally, the pill came out, but did not cause any vision, and the emperor Yang lie's startling momentum, completely can not compare.

"Hehe, do you want to fight me with this means?"

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, laughs. With Ye Chen refining into Ziji Yunshen Dan, there is still half an hour left in the competition time.

It took Ye Chen an hour and a half to refine two pills. This method is much more powerful than ordinary alchemists, but it still can't be compared with him.

"Boy, give up. You are not my father's opponent."

Yang Teng snorted coldly.

And the audience, no one is optimistic about ye Chen, only the last half hour, time is too late, ye Chen can not refine the third pill.

Even if he can succeed, but the quality of the pills is too far away from the Dan emperor Yang lie, and there is no possibility of winning the championship.

In the hearts of countless people, this Dan Zun assembly, Dan Huang Yang lie must be the champion, there will be no accident.

"Hoo..."

In the eyes of people who disdain him, ye Chen is calm and not affected by the outside world. He puts away Ziji Yinshen pill, and then picks up the Dan prescription of Shannie quench bone pill and concentrates on feeling.

"White bone flower, broken heart grass, nourishing Qi spirit core, Danxian flower, lingmu Branch..."

Ye Chen, while feeling, put the medicinal materials of broken Nirvana bone quenching pill into the furnace.

Chuckle!

Then, ye Chen both hands out, left hand Xuanyan rolling, right hand purple sky cold flame blazing, two divine fire, fell inside the furnace.

"How can you control two kinds of fire at the same time?"

"Tut Tut, I'm afraid no one in my generation can compare with this means of fire control."

"This guy is also a genius, but he met master Dan Huang."

The whole audience, seeing ye Chen control two kinds of divine fire at the same time, all made a voice of admiration.

"This boy, in time, alchemy must surpass me."

Even the emperor Yang lie, looking at this scene, is also secretly surprised.

To control Shenhua, you need a very delicate divine sense. If there is a slight error, the fire will be out of control and cause a terrible disaster.

But ye Chen, actually controls two kinds of divine fire at the same time, his means to resist fire, can imagine how powerful.

Ye Chen's eyes are concise, and his forehead sweat drips out. At the same time, he controls two magic fires. He also has to bear great pressure.

It took him only half an hour to refine the first pill.

However, due to the physical consumption, the time for refining the second one doubled, and it took an hour. Now refining the third, under normal circumstances, must waste more time.

In order to shorten the time, ye Chen tube can not so much, two magic fire together, burning the medicinal materials fiercely.

This overdraft his physical strength, and when the game is over, he will definitely be weak.

But in order to win the championship, to get the beginning of blood reward, ye Chen is also at all costs.

Finally, with the help of the energy of two magic fires, ye Chen successfully refined the broken Nirvana bone quenching pill in just 30 minutes.

Three pills, all successfully refined!

At this point, there are still 30 minutes before the end of the game.

"Ha ha, I really refined three pills."

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, stood with his hands down and looked at Ye Chen with a little pity.

Before the end of the competition time, ye Chen refined three pills. This alchemy method can definitely rank first-class.

But compared with him, it is still too far away.

"Boy, the appearance of your pills is far less than that of master Dan Huang. How can you win? What qualifications do you have to challenge master Dan Huang? You are defeated

On the referee's bench, the two old men of heaven and earth looked at Ye Chen coldly.

Although Ye Chen really refined three pills, but the appearance of his pills was too far away from that of the emperor Yang lie, and did not cause a trace of vision of heaven and earth.

"Master..."

The green autumn cloud on the audience, looking at this scene, is also incomparably lonely.

Ye Chen is defeated after all, and the appearance of his pills is far from being able to compare with the Dan emperor Yang lie.

There is no doubt that the champion of this danzun meeting is the Dan emperor Yang lie.

"Hum, I knew that the boy was a waste, and wanted to challenge master Dan Huang?"

"When master Dan Huang wins the championship and gets the secret script of fahua's extinction of heaven, I'm afraid he will kill this boy?"

"I don't know what the sky is like. I thought he was so rebellious."

The whole audience also made a disdainful voice.

"Who said I was defeated?"

However, listening to the jeers around, ye Chen's face did not fluctuate in the slightest, but looked up at the referee's seat.

Cold eyes as if surging belongs to his majesty!

Chapter 3247

"Ha ha, boy, you can't compare with master Dan Huang in the appearance of your pills. Aren't you defeated?"

Heaven and earth two old faces cold, since Ye Chen failed, they are also completely at ease.

The rich reward of the first place will fall into the hands of Yang lie, the emperor of Dan.

"There are two quarters of an hour to go before the game is over. How can you say I lost?"

Ye Chen's eyes are sharp and sharp.

"You have refined all the pills. You can't compare with the master Dan Huang. Are you willing to admit defeat?"

Heaven and earth two old eyes angry, only think ye Chen can not afford to lose.

"Who says I've got it? It's still the last step, Bagua Tiandan, Chi! "

Ye Chen's eyes suddenly fierce, fingers pinch Jue, a wisp of congenital Bagua breath, tossing in his fingers.

Boom!

Nine days above, came the sound of flames and thunder.

See a pillar of fire, a thunderbolt, mercilessly fell from the sky, the explosion fell in Ye Chen's furnace, endless Hongmeng breath, rolling.

The whole furnace is filled with abundant energy.

"Go!"

Ye Chen suddenly drinks, and puts the Seven Star Tianxin pill, Ziji Yunshen Dan and Shanni quench bone pill into the furnace.

He's going to take the last step, quench Dan!

He wants to refine the smell of pills and improve their appearance!

"This is Bagua Tiandan skill

On the referee's bench, the two elders of heaven and earth saw Ye Chen's means and immediately exclaimed.

"Bagua Tiandan skill!"

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, retreated in panic: "no way. This is the unique magic power of Taigu danzun. I don't know how many years it has been lost. How could this boy do it?"

Bagua Tiandan technique, the legendary 33 Tianhong Mongolian method, is the unique magic power of ancient danzun.

Since the fall of Archean danzun, this anti heaven alchemy method has been completely lost.

But now, ye Chen has exerted the eight trigrams heavenly elixir, which immediately shocked the audience.

The eight trigrams heavenly alchemy uses the eight trigrams to refine alchemy. There are eight kinds of magic techniques, namely, the heaven method, the earth method, the water method, the fire method, the thunder method, the Ze method, the wind method and the mountain method.

The quality of the pills refined by the eight trigrams is first-class in the world.

In terms of alchemy, this Bagua Tiandan technique is one of the top techniques. Even the six Yang treasure method of the Dan emperor Yang lie can not be compared with it.

"Ah, this is the magic power of our ancestors. How can this boy do it?"

On the VIP seat, Qing Zhenzhong also widened his eyes and kept shaking.

"Is this boy really the reincarnation of his ancestors?"

"Even if it is not the reincarnation of his ancestors, he must have been inherited by his ancestors. Otherwise, he would not be able to master the eight trigrams heavenly elixir."

Thoughts flashed through his mind.

If there is a shadow of Taigu danzun behind Ye Chen, then he is definitely qualified to be the master of qingqiuyun.

More qualified than Dan Huang Yang lie!

"Eight trigrams fire method, eight trigrams thunder method, imperial edict!"

Ye Chen's pithy formula was repeatedly pinched, and countless thunder and fire lights rolled up in the furnace. The mysterious eight trigrams breath and the ancient Hongmeng charm were interwoven and blended.

The three pills, seven star Tianxin pill, Ziji Yunshen pill and Shanni quench bone pill, burst into dazzling splendor and their quality was greatly improved.

Ye Chen's eyes are concise, and his whole body is constantly stimulated by his spiritual power. The eight trigrams of fire, Dharma and thunder, roar in the furnace, and his aura is endless.

Oh! Boom! How about it! Come on! Baa! Moo! Oh! Boo!

In the next moment, ye Chen's throat opened, and the bright syllables, with the rolling golden light, rushed into the furnace.

The mighty sound of the eight gods of Tianlong, like a bomb, detonates the heavenly power of thunder and fire.

The endless breath of thunder and fire is more turbulent.

Under the nourishment of endless thunder and lightning and fire, the three pills are filled with towering medicinal gas.

Boom!

Above the sky, there are terrible thunder clouds. It seems that there are thunder robbers to land, and there are pieces of fire dancing among the clouds, which is frightening.

"Dan Cheng, come out!"

Ye Chen's eyes are sharp, just want to open the furnace out of the pill, but suddenly, the furnace is rattling, there is a silk crack.

"Well?"

Looking at the crevice on the furnace, ye Chen's face suddenly changed.

"Hehe, it looks like it's going to explode."

On the referee's bench, the two elders of heaven and earth looked at this scene, but they were smiling.

Originally, ye Chen's Alchemy furnace, they also moved.

If ye Chen refined out of the pill, caused by the weather is too big, the furnace will burst, the pill will be broken.

This time, ye Chen uses Bagua Tiandan technique to improve the appearance of the pill, causing endless visions of heaven and earth, and makes the furnace crack and explode."Damn it, these two old guys, they're really killing me!"

Ye Chen's heart was burning with anger. He didn't expect that the two old men of heaven and earth were so narrow-minded that they refused to learn from their teachers. They had to target themselves everywhere, even the stove.

Boom!

In countless surprised eyes, ye Chen's furnace explodes violently, countless pieces of red fragments, scattered and scattered.

"Fortunately, I won."

Dan Huang Yang lie looked at this scene, suddenly secretly relieved.

He didn't expect Ye Chen to be able to use the eight trigrams heavenly elixir. This technique is really powerful. Once it is used, the quality of the pill will be greatly improved, and he will definitely be crushed.

But fortunately, at the last moment, ye Chen unexpectedly fried the stove, and the pills were completely destroyed. In the end, naturally, he won.

The smoke and dust of the explosion dispersed, ye Chen's body was like a rock, standing in place.

And he was in front of him, floating a stone tablet.

This burning stele is engraved with a burning "burning" character.

On the burning stele, three pills lie quietly.

It's the Seven Star Tianxin pill, Ziji Yunshen pill and Quni quench bone pill!

However, there is a light evil Qi around the burning stele!

Cover all people's awareness of the burning stele!

Yan stele as a reincarnation xuanbei, nature can not be casually revealed!

Originally, at the critical moment of frying furnace, ye Chen offered a burning stele!

The power of the burning stele guarded three pills, but it was not destroyed by the explosion.

"What!"

"How could that be possible?"

Seeing this scene, Qiankun Er Lao and Dan Huang Yang lie both took a breath of cold air, and their eyes widened. They couldn't believe it!

The three pills on the tablet are filled with endless thunder and fire, as well as the towering aura of Hongmeng. On the surface of each pill, there is a light golden light floating on it.

It is the light given by the sound of the eight gods of Tianlong, such as the ancient kingdom of heaven and Buddha. The golden light turns into the shadow of dragon.

Even a trace of the power of the burning stele was infused into the pill.

A trace of magnificent flame, constantly intertwined and tossed, formed a layer of mysterious runes, covering the pill.

The appearance of these three pills, compared with the Dan Huang Yang lie, I do not know how much more powerful.

Chapter 3248

meanwhile.

Deep in the city.

The cold wind is getting fiercer.

Dan Zun assembly did not affect people's hearts.

In the boundary City, perhaps the danzun assembly is extremely important, but for the power deep in the boundary City, everything doesn't care!

Crossing the breeze, leaning against the huge sword, eyes closed.

All of a sudden, he frowned, and he obviously found something.

He glanced at the boundless forest not far away.

There's a wave of fighting.

And what does his psychic capture!

But he closed his eyes.

Now, he only has a little younger sister in his heart.

As for the others, to him, they were all human beings.

Even if there is a sense of familiarity in those breath.

Some people carry cangxuan order!

And what he wanted most when he came to Jieyu city was cangxuan order!

Behind the cangxuan order, there is a big secret about Jieyu city!

.....

At this time, in the boundless forest, far away from the wind crossing, there was a thin figure flashing among the trees, and behind the figure, there were also several figures with breath shaking all over the sky, which were chasing after them!

The slender figure of the master, wearing a dark purple dress, a pair of stars like sealed in which, so that the sun and the moon inverted in the beautiful eyes, emerged a thick color of anxiety, high and small Qiong nose, hanging a little sweat, moist lips tightly closed, white face, because of tension and more pale!

This seems to be trying to escape, but it is a beautiful woman who looks about 20 years old!

Although this woman is young, her whole body breath is not weak at all!

She is a seven level heavenly warrior in the heaven God realm!

However, at the moment, her breath is slightly disordered and seems to have suffered internal injuries. The dress is extremely well cut and perfectly sets off the woman's hot body. There are also some blood stains on the purple long skirt.

All of a sudden, the purple dress woman's pretty face tightened, a black air, from her slender neck spread up, in a flash, the spirit of the woman's body was a burst of agitation, the original flash body, a staggering, had to stop, half kneel on the ground, breathing violently.

She looked ugly. She knew she was poisoned!

Fortunately, he didn't die. It happened to be poisoned at this time!

At this time, the powerful breath that followed behind her suddenly became strong, and several powerful warriors who pursued this beautiful woman came!

The woman suddenly turned her head and looked behind her. Her eyes were full of panic!

A moment ago, still at the end of the line of sight of several figures, an instant flash, has come to her body!

The women were chased by three men, a young man with slender eyes and a grim face, and two middle-aged men with dark skin and the same appearance.

Although the woman is not weak, but these three men are even stronger than her!

Especially the young man among the three!

These three people are all the later existence of the heaven God realm!

The two middle-aged men are the seven layers of heaven, and the young man is the existence of eight layers of heaven!

To tell you the truth, it is incredible that a woman can escape for such a long time in the hands of these three people!

The young man's slender eyes were staring at the woman's nearly perfect face. His eyes were almost burning.

Then, his greedy eyes along the woman's neck, from top to bottom, mercilessly baptized her incomparably attractive body, and wantonly revolved around the women's plump forebreast, slender waist and slender legs.

Purple skirt woman pretty face more pale up, subconsciously hands arms, block in his chest.

Standing in front of the three men saw the situation, their faces showed an ambiguous smile.

The young man said with a smile: "Yang Zixin, you are very able to run? It's hard for me to chase him. Ha ha, now, why don't you run? I see. You are tired of running. I want you to have a good massage, right? "

When the woman named Yang Zixin heard the speech, her beautiful eyes trembled and the water mist filled her. She was extremely frightened and cried to the young man: "brute! I'm from the Yang family. Move me. You know the consequences! "

She came from the foreign Yang family. She has been the apple of her eye since she was a child. She has the talent of cultivating martial arts against the heaven. She is a goddess in the minds of countless people. However, Yang Zixin's mind is extremely simple and incomparable, and the Yang family almost does not allow any strange men to contact Yang Zixin!

Therefore, if his innocence is wasted in the hands of such a scum, it is simply more than killing her, but also let her suffer thousands of times!

It's a pity that she is extremely poisonous and weak now. The aura in her meridians has almost disappeared. Even if she wants to explode herself, she can't do it!

On hearing this, the young man was not angry at all, but the animal desire in his eyes became more intense. He said to Yang Zixin with a playful smile: "brute? Hehe, do you know what animals do at this time? "After that, he licked his lips and was about to pounce on Yang Zixin!

Yang Zixin's beautiful eyes were dim, and her pretty face was full of despair. A drop of clear tears fell down the corner of her eyes.

But at this time, the middle-aged man behind the young man suddenly put his hand on his shoulder.

The young man frowned and looked at the middle-aged man with an unhappy look: "stone heart, what are you doing? If you disturb me, I will not let you go. "

Stone heart respectfully said: "sorry, cold childe, but there are people around here, and seems to have found us!"

"Well?"

Leng Ping heard the speech, and his eyes were cold. He was attracted by Yang Zixin just now, but he ignored the situation around him. Now, he also found that there are other people nearby, and that person is paying attention to here!

A trace of evil spirit flashed on the cold surface: "recently, danzun assembly, the power of the boundary city is complicated. This woman is the legitimate daughter of the Yang family outside the territory. The Yang family is not a small force. If we spread out what she did to her, even in my capacity, there will be no small trouble. Shi Xin, Shi Yi, you two go and deal with that guy!"

Lengping's surname is Leng, and Leng's is cold.

And this cold can be traced back to the outside world and the upper world!

There is a trace of connection with the cold family of emperor yuan hall!

Like Leng family, which has been inherited for a long time and is so huge that it is hard to imagine, its branches and leaves are naturally extremely luxuriant, and it is not known how far it is.

Therefore, cold home, has many side branches!

Lengping, is a son of the cold family, or an extremely remote one!

But even so, his family, relying on this background, is enough to dominate one side!

The separation of the cold family is the Supreme Master of the city!

Even the Qing family of Taigu danzun can't compete!

However, it is only in the area of jieyucheng.

The Yang family is also a family that has existed in foreign countries since ancient times. Although it is not comparable to the cold family, Yang Zixin was born in the Yang family!

Such an identity is by no means a separated son like Leng Ping, who has a weak relationship with his family.

The two middle-aged men heard the words and said, "yes!" Then the body flashed and disappeared from the original place.

Chapter 3249

Soon, the two middle-aged men stone heart, stone meaning toward the cross breeze.

They hide their breath! But there was a terrible momentum all over the body.

Once they see each other, they are bound to kill each other!

No one is allowed to know the secret of today!

After a few seconds, they rushed out of the boundless forest, and suddenly they saw a young man carrying a huge sword!

The youth's whole body circulates the thick killing intention!

Stone heart, stone meaning is not close, is to feel the killing idea as the wave swept by!

Their feet seem to be frozen!

Can't get closer!

Two people look at each other, is to see the fear in each other's eyes!

Just when they didn't know whether to move forward or backward, Du Qingfeng opened his mouth.

"I don't want to kill people. In three seconds, if I don't roll, I'll die."

In a few words, the meaning of threat is extremely obvious!

Du Qingfeng naturally has the ability to erase these two people, but considering that Ji Siqing is healing, he must concentrate on guarding.

If because of these two people, by the existence of the dark hole, then he will regret for life.

In the last life, he didn't keep the younger martial sister. In this life, he must.

Fear of death!

"One."

"Two."

Have not read three, stone heart, stone meaning then quickly toward the back of the back!

There is no trace in ten miles around!

Du Qingfeng opened his eyes and took a look at Yang Zixin and Lengping, shaking his head: "I have nothing to do with other people's affairs. The road of martial arts is the law of the jungle."

"What a pity."

"I know your identity comes from abroad, but that's the cause and effect."

"If you don't want to die, maybe someone will save you."

Language down, cross breeze continues to close eyes.

As if everything in the world had nothing to do with him.

.....

Soon, stone heart, stone meaning will return to Leng Ping's side.

Leng Ping's hands are behind her. Before the crisis is lifted, Yang Zixin does not move again.

However, he noticed that the two men were panicked.

"What's the matter? Has it been solved? "

To Leng Ping's surprise, Shi Xin said directly, "young master, leave as soon as possible!"

"The man we found was extremely dangerous, and he gave us the feeling that we could be wiped out in an instant!"

"But for some reason, the man didn't do it!"

Leng Ping was stunned and said, "is this man really so terrible?"

Shi Yi, who had not spoken, was shaking and said in his voice: "young master, it's not only terrible, but also extremely terrible! Rarely have I seen such a murderous existence

"We'd better leave as soon as possible."

"One second later, all three of us may be buried here!"

Lengping this time not calm, a grasp of Yang Zixin toward the boundless forest a direction to plunder!

Now he has no desire, he just wants to leave as soon as possible!

Yang Zixin felt the cold wind in her ears and her eyes were dim.

She knew that when Leng Ping took her to a safe place, she would fall into an endless abyss!

Is this her destiny?

.....

At the same time, danzun assembly.

All people's eyes are focused on Ye Chen.

Just now they vaguely saw an ancient stone tablet to protect the pills!

But how to do it, everyone in the room couldn't understand.

"The elixir has been made. Please enlighten me

Ye Chen waved, seven star Tianxin pill, Ziji Yunshen pill and Quni quench bone pill, like three bright stars, flew to the referee's table and suspended in front of the two old men of heaven and earth.

These three pills, all refined by the eight trigrams heaven elixir, have the wonderful implication of the eight trigrams and Taoism, and combine the power of the Tianlong eight gods sound and the burning stele. The breath is extremely magnificent. There are Hongmeng Tianwei, layer by layer of golden light, layer by layer of flaming awn, and layers of Bagua visions.

As long as you are not blind, you can see at a glance that the pills refined by Ye Chen are much better than those made by Dan Huang Yang lie.

Heaven and earth looked at each other, his face was very ugly, and he could not say a word.

It's impossible for them to give the champion to Ye Chen. But now, the quality of Ye Chen's pills is obviously against the weather, and they can't do anything to make things difficult.

"Bagua Tiandan skill is so powerful."

Dan Huang Yang lie's face is also incomparably gloomy.

He didn't expect that ye Chen would be able to use the eight trigrams and heaven elixir. He didn't expect that the eight trigrams heaven elixir was so invincible.

Ye Chen only mastered the fire method and thunder method, but the refined elixir had such a vast atmosphere. If he mastered all the eight techniques, he would have gone against the heaven.

"He defeated the emperor Yang lie." "This guy originally mastered the legendary eight trigrams heaven elixir?"

"Is he the reincarnation of Archæan danzun?"

"Maybe it's the descendant of Taigu danzun, maybe."

The whole audience, is also extremely astonished to talk about.

The eight trigrams heavenly alchemy is the legendary secret of Taigu danzun. It has the alchemy skills against the heaven. Ye Chen used the fire method and thunder method to crush the Dan emperor Yang lie completely.

The result of this danzun meeting is obviously that ye Chen won.

All of us are waiting for the announcement of the two masters of heaven and earth.

But unexpectedly, there was a dead silence on the referee's bench. The two old men of heaven and earth were gloomy and did not speak.

Seeing the silence of these two people, the audience suddenly burst into a commotion.

"I declare

Under the great pressure, finally, xuancanghe stood up and said: "the champion of danzun conference is this ye Xiaoyou." He pointed to Ye Chen.

He sat down, tired.

Although he didn't want to judge ye Chen to win, the appearance of Ye Chen's elixir was so good that even if he wanted to be partial to Yang lie, he was powerless.

With so many viewers watching, if you deliberately create difficulties, I'm afraid it will cause public anger.

Besides, although they are referees, they are not the masters of danta.

The real chairman of danta is Qing Zhenzhong!

Although Qing Zhenzhong's strength is not good, he has been rooted in Jieyu city for a long time, and he is the descendant of Taigu danzun.

No details. It's impossible.

If the verdict is lost, Qing Zhenzhong will definitely turn over his face, and their life will be difficult.

With the announcement of the referee's result, the whole court suddenly burst out a burst of applause and shouting. Today, it is a great honor for all of us to witness the wonderful implication of Bagua Tiandan technique.

"Master won

Qingqiuyun heard the result, pretty face very excited, eyes red, almost tears.

"At last the Lord won."

The Youying ghost weasel is also full of joy. The prize for the champion of the conference is very rich, and there may be a spiritual object to restore his blood strength.

"What's the secret of this boy? What's the relationship between him and his ancestors?"

Seeing ye Chen win the championship, Qing Zhenzhong's eyes twinkle.

But the two father and son of the Dan emperor Yang lie are full of despair.

"Dad, if you can't get the jade jade dew, when you come back to the ancestral gate, Lord candle dragon is afraid to kill us!"

Yang Teng's eyes were afraid. They attended the danzun meeting this time, and there was also the cause and effect of qingzhulong.

Jade jade, gold dew, is the beginning of blood!

Chapter 3250

Green candle dragon also wants to capture the beginning of blood, with the help of incomparably majestic blood source gas, restore all strength.

Now that they have failed to win the championship, they have no way to explain to qingzhulonglong.

"It's the trouble. It's the little bastard!"

Dan Huang Yang lie bit his teeth and thought of all kinds of cruel and fierce means of qingfanglong. He was also extremely afraid.

"Dad, why don't we grab it?"

Yang Teng's eyes showed a fierce light, moved the idea of killing and seizing treasure.

"Grab? What are you fighting with? "

Yang lie, the emperor of Dan, glanced at him.

You know, ye Chen is the first genius of the kingdom of God. His martial arts and fighting ability are very exquisite. If they fight, they have no chance of winning.

Unless we can get the secret script of fahua's extinction of heaven, we can suppress it.

But the problem is that this day of French Chinese extinction is a prize for the champions, and they can't get their hands on it.

"Master Dan Huang, let's join hands."

At this time, a subtle voice, into the ears of Dan Huang Yang lie.

Yang lie raised his eyebrows and looked at the referee's bench.

The man who talks is the old man of heaven and earth.

"The boy has won the championship and is full of fire. I'm afraid we will have to deal with us later. Only by cooperating with each other can we have the possibility of survival."

They also felt that the situation was serious.

"Two elders, do you want to cooperate?"

Yang lie's eyes brightened.

"That's right. You'd better send a letter with flying swords and ask qingzhizhulong to come out of the mountain. Otherwise, we alone may not be able to suppress this boy."

"The boy has the sounds of the eight gods of the sky dragon, the eight trigrams, the heavenly alchemy, and all kinds of divine fire. In addition, with the prize of winning the championship, fahua extinguishes the heaven and the jade jade golden dew. His means may be against the heaven."

"In particular, fahua's extinction of the sky is matched with his voice of the eight gods of heaven and dragons. The combination of the two will bring about the supreme power of the Holy Buddha to extinguish heaven, which we can not resist."

"It's said that qingxiangzhulong has become Tiangang Jue Ming Fu and inherited from the seven kill demon sect. Only when he comes forward, can we kill this boy."

Heaven and earth are concentrating on planning.

Ye Chen was so arrogant that they did not dare to fight for the front. Only when they asked qingxianglonglong to come forward, could they suppress it.

"Well, I'll send a letter with flying sword to invite Lord candle dragon out of the mountain."

Listening to the words of heaven and earth, the emperor of Dan Yang lie also agreed to come down.

Their discussions were conducted in secret, and outsiders did not find out.

"They want to kill me!"

But ye Chen in the dark, but caught a trace of heaven's murderous spirit, immediately alert up.

"At the end of the danzun meeting, please welcome Ye Xiaoyou to the stage to receive the award."

A danta elder came out and announced in loud voice.

He held a plate in his hand. There was a jade bottle, a jade slip, and a storage ring.

This time, the two elders of heaven and earth acted as judges, but the final prize was presented by Chairman danta himself. Even if they wanted to do something, they could never do it.

Chen ye came to the stage.

Qing Zhenzhong also came to the stage.

"Boy, what is the relationship between you and my ancestor, Taigu danzun?"

Looking at ye zhenchen, he asked.

The tone is very cold!

However, the next moment, Qing Zhenzhong is confused!

"Stinky boy, Qing Zhenzhong! What's your attitude! This son is my descendant. You are a bad descendant. You should be polite in the future

Ye Chen did not speak, reincarnation inside the cemetery, Taigu danzun issued a majestic voice, hard impact on Qing Zhenzhong's mind.

"Master Dan Zun, you..."

Ye Chen was stunned. He didn't expect that Taigu danzun would personally come forward and put pressure on Qing Zhenzhong.

"Boy, I've caught the killing opportunity in the upper world. That woman wants to deal with you. You should cut off the cause and effect as soon as possible. Don't drag your feet."

Taigu danzun's eyes are dignified. In the dark, he catches the murderous spirit of the upper world. Ye Chen is in a very dangerous situation. Therefore, he does not hesitate to come forward in person to settle the cause and effect here for ye Chen.

"The queen wants to kill me?"

Listening to Taigu danzun's words, ye Chen's face suddenly sank.

Plop!

But at this time, Qing Zhenzhong was shaking and kneeling down.

"Ancestor, I'm..."

He looked at Ye Chen in awe. Unexpectedly, he could hear the voice of Taigu danzun on Ye Chen.

"What's going on? How did President Qing kneel down? "

"Who is this boy? He let president Qing kneel down!"

"Is he really the reincarnation of Archaean danzun?"

All the people in the audience were shocked to see Qing Zhenzhong kneeling down to Ye Chen.

The two elders of heaven and earth and the father and son of the Dan emperor Yang lie were also thoroughly moved.

"Dad..."Under the stage, Qing Qiuyun covered his mouth with delicate hands, and his pretty face was full of consternation.

Just two days ago, Qing Zhenzhong was still in such a rage that he wanted to tear Ye Chen into pieces.

But now, he is kneeling to Ye Chen.

This huge change, let Qing Qiuyun gape.

Ye Chen is also dumbfounded, this change, he also did not expect.

However, Taigu danzun was willing to do it, which also solved his many troubles.

At least, the friendship and resentment between him and Qing Zhenzhong are completely over.

For the rest of the day, he was able to deal with threats from the outside world.

"Congratulations to my little ancestor. This is your prize."

In full view of the public, Qing Zhenzhong also noticed his gaffe. He quickly stood up and took the prize from the danta elder and presented it to Ye Chen.

His address to Ye Chen is also completely changed. He is actually called Xiaozu.

Ye Chen can't laugh or cry. It seems that Qing Zhenzhong has a very high respect for Taigu danzun. He has been inherited from Taigu danzun and respected by him.

Thank you very much

Ye Chen accepted the prize and was excited.

There are three prizes, one of which is a jade bottle, which was put in the bottle from the beginning of blood.

The second is a piece of jade slips, which records the cultivation secret of fahua's killing the sky.

The third is a storage ring, which contains many weapons, magic weapons, heaven and Earth Spirit materials, a large number of spirit stones and so on. However, in terms of value, it can not be compared with the beginning of blood and the extinction of heaven by fahua.

Finally get the beginning of blood, ye Chen is excited, as long as the beginning of blood, to Xiaohuang take it, will be able to treat his injury.

When ye Chen is excited, an extremely cold voice interrupts him!

This voice is not Taigu danzun, nor Su Ruoxi, but xuanhanyu, the soul of the sword!

"Why, you are in Jieyu city?"

"Boy, go in the direction of the boundless forest! Don't ask why! Listen to me

"Hurry up!"

"If you want to fight against Xuan Yuan Mo Xie, you must go there!"

"Come on

Ye Chen looks changed!

For the first time, he heard the sword soul so excited!

At the moment, Youying ghost weasel and Qing Zhenzhong wanted to come to Ye Chen, but soon they found that ye Chen had disappeared!

An extreme light swept in one direction!
