Chapter 5461

Ye Chen takes a look at Ren Fanfan, but he still says the question in his heart:

"elder, the old stone tablet is clearly bound by the chain of reincarnation cemetery, why can you give up with me?"

"Oh..." Ren Fanfan chuckled.

"He is known as a taboo in the world, and can even be as strong as others. If you help him break a chain, it's actually enough for him to use his techniques and arrays, and the Heart Sutra he gave you is actually a part of his array.

If it wasn't for the other five chains, and without the help of spiritual power, I would not have beaten him back easily. "

Ye Chen nodded, "at the beginning, he was as evil as a demon king. Even the younger martial brother of Hong Tianjing was beaten back by his shock."

Ren extraordinary pupil blood circulation, explained: "that's because he borrowed your body, can extract the power of reincarnation in your body to be transformed, so he can compete with wan13. However, ye Chen, do you really think he beat back ten thousand thirteen? "

"Ah?" Ye Chen is a little confused.

Ren Feifan showed an enigmatic smile: "you have always been thoughtful, and I believe you. Because of my words, you have reduced your dependence on the great power of reincarnation cemetery, but this dependence is not just a borrowing."

Ye Chen suddenly understood Ren's meaning at this time. He really reduced the borrowing of reincarnation graveyard's great power. However, on the other hand, he never relaxed his trust in them, and sometimes even took them as a trump card.

This time, though he was wary of Huang Lao, when he took out his secret box, he never doubted his relationship with Wan shisan.

If it is true, as Ren Fanfan said, he did not beat back wan13?

Or, in fact, between the two of them, what transaction has been completed?

Before she left, Shen Tu Wan'er even reminded herself that Huang Lao had knocked her out.

"Ye Chen, I remind you again and again, in order to let you understand that there is no shortcut on this road, no bleeding, no tears, no suffering, there will be no growth and transformation."

"Yes, Mr. Ren, I know."

Ren Fanfan looks at Ye Chen whose eyes are dim. All the time, ye Chen is the hope of all of them. He also devotes more attention to it. He also knows that this young man has incomparable toughness and courage, and even achieves far more than the previous life!

However, in this life, all people are just pieces in the chessboard. Only Ye Chen will eventually become the person who holds the chess.

There's no room for a bit of failure.

Ye Chen also understands Ren extraordinary's good intentions. In the matter of desolation, he is too careless and almost makes a big mistake.

"Master, why is the old man called a taboo in the world and imprisoned in the reincarnation cemetery?"

"This is the secret of reincarnation cemetery. One of the things I've done during my trip is to let you know part of the taboos in the world."

Ren Fanfan raised his finger, and the barrier of void was easily torn. His body moved and stepped into the void.

Ye Chen quickly follows.

After a long time.

Ye Chen suddenly smelled a very strong smell of blood.

Even in the void channel, ye Chen also felt very rich and terrible.

The withered bones all over the sky are like a river of blood hanging on the sky. In the dark area, there is a bloody and tyrannical atmosphere, which fills the whole space.

Ye Chen looked at the almost stagnant blood fog, and Xu tuyuan Fu unconsciously protected his body, blocking the power of the cold blood explosion.

"Master, where is this?"

Here, far more bloody and brutal than all the evil places he had ever seen.

Is there such a place in heaven and man?

"The grave of ten thousand skeletons."

Ren Fanfan's face was full of compassion. He had witnessed the fall of life one by one. At this time, he came from his hometown, and his feelings were complex.

Ye Chen carefully breathes these four words. The bloody air of wind and sand sweeps the tombstone standing on one side. Thousands of tombstones are randomly buried on the ten thousand skeletons hiding place. The dead spirit is so angry that the ghost gas blocks out the sun, so that there is no sunlight here.

"He used to be the most outstanding evil in heaven and man, and even the existence of the most evil in that era."

Ren extraordinary with Ye Chen, slowly shuttle between the tombstones one after another.

The earth is blood red, you can imagine how cruel the war was, let the earth full of blood, permanent formation of such a color.

"After people get great talent, they also have some proud martial arts accomplishments. They want to make a greater breakthrough and become masters. At that time, in addition to your previous life being concerned by the supreme world, Huang Lao was also one of them, but he was more crazy. "

Ren Fanfan pointed to the deep pit in front of him and continued: "he's obsessed with the devil, going the way of the devil and keeping the devil's heart. Overnight, he slaughtered 9990 martial arts practitioners and became possessed with their supreme resentment. ""He made it?"

Ye Chen looked at the pit, bones have been corrupted with the change of time, some in the wind, has been flying with the wind, scattered in the space.

"It's a success. The endless killing makes him become a devil, and he has the power to compete with the strong. But he was also fascinated by this simple way of practice. "

"You mean that he no longer devotes himself to cultivation, but uses this way of sacrifice to tamp the evil way with the resentment of others?"

"Yes."

Ren Fanfan nodded. It took less than seven days for him to go from the rebellious genius of heaven and man to the taboo of the world.

"Terror, horror, cruelty."

Ye Chen said in a low voice that the old man's heart was so cold that he didn't care to sacrifice other people's lives to improve his cultivation.

"This ten thousand skeletons hiding place was born because of him. Countless creatures, countless martial arts practitioners, or voluntary, or forced, or deceived, were killed here one by one by him."

Ye Chen raised his head again and looked at the blood River in the air. It was because of the endless killing of the old people that he had the vision of heaven and earth.

"He's not afraid of fire."

Ye Chen shakes his head and sighs.

"Yehuo? He's crazy. After he was possessed, he was insidious and treacherous, and the fire industry was also used as a means by him. "

"Even he put his sword against the existence of the supreme world!"

"It's crazy!"

"If it wasn't for Huang Lao's obsession, he might really win the world!"

Ren Feifan said here, can't help but some secretly happy, fortunately he arrived in time, otherwise, when the old man to seize the success of Ye Chen, combined with reincarnation blood and the body, it's really hopeless.

At that time, the whole universe and even the supreme world may be in danger!

"Mr. Ren, why was he sealed in the reincarnation cemetery? Who did it? "

Chapter 5462

Ye Chen's heart is full of doubts. Since the old man is so fierce, who will accept him?

Ren Fanfan shook his head: "I don't know, I was wanton in those years. Although I knew his evil name, I didn't have the heart to kill the common people. As for who he was captured and why he was imprisoned in reincarnation cemetery, only the reincarnation Lord of the last life should know. "

Ye Chen nodded, no matter who locked him in reincarnation cemetery, for him, the old man would no longer be the power he trusted.

"Master, can I repair the broken chain?"

Ren Fanfan shook his head again: "this chain is not everything, which contains endless supreme law constraints, but this law is irreversible, even if you try to get the two together again, it is just in vain."

"Oh."

Ye Chen slightly disappointed, put such a killing God in reincarnation cemetery, there is always a kind of uneasy feeling.

"You don't have to worry too much, as long as you are no longer bewitched by it, then there will be no danger. Moreover, since he is included in your reincarnation cemetery, it means that it may not be so simple behind it, and it may even be your chance."

"Chance?"

Ye Chen smiles bitterly. He is not stupid enough to regard such a world taboo as a stepping stone on his way to success.

"Master, I have got the key left by the reincarnation Lord and the secret box involved."

Ren Feifan nodded, indicating that ye Chen could try to open it.

"The source gas of felling here is very deep, just like a natural barrier, you can open it safely."

Ye Chen nods, the key and the secret box appear at the same time.

The two-color brilliance lights up at the moment when ye Chen's key is inserted into the secret box, and rushes directly to the sky, dividing the whole world into two parts.

And ye Chen's body, also circulation of the same Guanghua, is the inheritance is also recognized.

WOW!

A jade pendant of Guanghua came out of the secret box and landed directly in the middle of Ye Chen's palm.

"God seal jade pendant?" Ren Feifan was the first to recognize the jade pendant.

"Master, do you know this jade pendant?"

Ye Chen looks at Ren Fanfan's eyes full of surprise. It seems that master Ren is really knowledgeable.

"Drop your reincarnation blood into it." Ren Fanfan.

"Yes

A drop of reincarnation blood appears in the palm of Ye Chen's hand. Then, it is quickly injected into the seal jade pendant. A white mist gushed out of the jade pendant like a river converging into the void, forming a hollow shadow as high as 300 feet.

The face of the reincarnation Lord is so vague that he can't even see his facial features clearly.

However, when he just stood there, an overwhelming force of terror burst out, with the power of reincarnation, sweeping over the whole land of ten thousand skeletons.

"Ye Chen..."

The old voice is the Lord of reincarnation.

Ren Fanfan didn't speak. When he looked at the shadow of his old friend, he had all kinds of feelings. He had fallen, but everyone was trying to run around because of his layout.

"Lord of reincarnation..."

Ye Chen looks at this wisp of empty shadow, or can only describe it as a touch of memory.

"Today, you have known many secrets, but there are also some to tell you about these old things."

At this moment, from the memory, the endless reincarnation aura continuously converged towards him, entered his sea of knowledge, and formed a huge aura vortex with his body as the center.

Ye Chen's eyes closed in an instant, fully carrying on the message of reincarnation.

The open and aboveboard expectation of the heavenly daughter.

Hong Tianjing can't wait to kill.

There is no time to delay.

There is even a long talk with Yan Changge.

With xuanjiyue.

There is also the desire to talk with the ancient female warrior God.

Scenes, piles of past events, what ye Chen knows and doesn't know, are all like the light curtain of a movie, cascading in the sea of his knowledge.

If in the past he had a certain understanding of the Lord of reincarnation by virtue of other people's memory and intermittent prying into the antecedents, then now he perceives a living Lord of reincarnation.

There is the bearing of overlooking the common people, the love of chivalrous and tender hearted, and the determination to rise against the market.

"Master..."

No matter how hard this life is, in the end, he will fulfill the people's entrustment and expectation.

"Ye Chen, I am in charge of the samsara of martial arts in the world. I go back to the source and pay attention to cause and effect. But in this vast world, in fact, everything is in my own hands. Man will conquer nature. "

Ye Chen's eyes are full of bright light. His heart of Tao is more solid because of its flesh and blood filling.

"When you are really facing the crisis of life and death, breaking the seal of God can save you once.""Master..."

Ye Chen looked at the hand of the seal jade pendant, looking at his past life, as if to see the pioneer's dedication and sacrifice.

"Remember, there must be only one chance when there is a real crisis of life and death!"

Ye Chen nods heavily. He emphasizes the jade pendant repeatedly in his previous life. He knows that he is trusting him to treasure it.

In this way, the virtual shadow dissipates into the invisible.

Ren Fanfan looked at the disappearance of the reincarnation of the Lord, thoughts, for a long time speechless.

"Master, do you know the meaning of this seal jade pendant?"

"I can't say."

Ren Feifan shook his head: "Ye Chen, you just need to know that the reincarnation Lord gave you the jade pendant of Shenyin seal, which is to have greater expectations for you."

Ye Chen droops his eyes. In the just information, he feels the helpless, step by step, full of desire and expectation of the reincarnation Lord.

Stronger, there is no moment stronger than this!

"Well, the second thing of my trip is to guard you to open the secret box. Now that I have accepted the inheritance, I'll go back and continue what you haven't done!"

Ren extraordinary back to stand in this bloody ten thousand skeletons in the burial ground, independent, isolated and awe inspiring.

"Master, there are so many warriors killed in this ten thousand skeletons burial ground. I feel many rules and martial arts charm. I don't know if these can be used for me?"

"Do you want to practice here?"

Ren Fanfan's eyes revealed a touch of worry: "the rules of martial arts vary from person to person. The more you perceive, the more beneficial it is to the training of your own rules. However, the evil spirit here has already been transformed. If you practice here, there will be many dangers."

"Master, I'm not afraid. I'm always afraid of danger. How can I grow up to look forward to being the reincarnation master of the previous life. I will no longer depend on anyone, on the strength of anyone else, I want to be stronger. "

Ren extraordinary looking at so firm Ye Chen, also don't want to keep, if connect this evil spirit of gas all can't bear, that also too live up to their expectation.

Chapter 5463

"Good! Go your way, don't get lost in front of things. The rules and rhymes of martial arts are not the same. There are differences between good and bad. You should distinguish them well. " Ren Fanfan.

Ye Chen nods. After this battle, he will be more cautious than anyone imagined.

"Thank you, Mr. Ren."

Ren Fanfan didn't say much either. His body was in a flash and disappeared.

A huge blood moon, wrapped in red, hung on the half sky of ten thousand skeletons' burial ground. The blood on the earth was soaring, and countless resentment spirits were flying in the clouds as they were before they died, hating that they could not be reborn.

Ye Chen sits on the edge of the deep pit with his knees crossed, and the deep bloody pit is at his feet.

Under the bloody moon, the robe he was wearing was also tinged with a glow of blood, as if he were an undead from hell.

Ye Chen transfers his sword intention and controls the Sha sword to make it fly and float in the void.

Boom!

The power of reincarnation in his hand was constantly penetrating into the Sha sword, and a thick breath was sent out and diffused in all directions.

"Kill me!"

Ye Chen at this time in Mou, emerge dense blood silk, roar a.

Shajian fell down quickly and stabbed deep into the pit.

There was a long sword road around the pit.

Then, ye Chen slowly opened his eyes, eyes are still very sharp.

Around him, the aura of heaven and earth condensed sword Qi and made a Shua Shua sound.

At this time, he was like a swordsman, with the will to be invincible.

This place of evil spirit has a very obvious effect on the sharpening of his evil spirit sword.

"Ye Chen Ye Chen... "

The voice of the old man came from the reincarnation cemetery again.

Ye Chen eyebrows a pick, for this almost took away his world taboo, he did not have the slightest favor.

Bang!

Reincarnation cemetery in a burst of vibration, desolate old actually directly broke through the control of Ye Chen reincarnation cemetery, appeared in the ten thousand skeleton burial ground.

Ye Chen looked at him, but he was very indifferent. He didn't even have the slightest fluctuation in his eyes. He just said faintly: "barren old man, you're trying to give up. What's your idea at this time?"

"Boy, you and I are a kind of people. We strive for the maximum interests of ourselves

Huang Lao showed a meaningful smile, and then looked around: "here is really very familiar to me."

Ye Chen was silent for a moment, then said: "we are different, at least I will not sacrifice other people's lives."

"Ha ha When you want to fight with the eagle, will you care about the life of the ant? "

Ye Chen body a murderous gas diffuses out, make the whole ten thousand skeletons bury ground, all have a reincarnation hurricane whistling.

"You don't have to worry about denying me. I have a big chance to give you this time."

"No need."

"Ye Chen, I have already seen the plan of the reincarnation Lord. If you want to challenge the supreme world, you are far from it with your present ability! But if you cooperate with me, I promise you can get what you want. "

Ye Chen smiles a little, but with a little chilly: "cooperate with you?"

The old man said coldly and arrogantly, "I am the one who once ascended to the Supreme Court. I know no less about the supreme world than your previous life. I'll help you and get twice the result with half the effort. "

"Ha ha ha!"

Ye Chen laughs out a voice: "cooperate with you, then let you take away my body naturally?"

Before the old man could say anything more, the whole skeleton ground shook violently, as if something was going to break through the ground.

"No!"

The old man's face changed: "the evil spirit of ten thousand skeletons has already changed. At this time, although there is only a wisp of my shadow, they also feel that they are here to kill me!"

Ye Chen's heart is cold. Huang Lao can hide in the reincarnation cemetery at any time, and the owner of the cemetery is himself, so the object of this evil spirit attack is only himself.

"Ha ha ha! Ye Chen's child, you can taste the eternal power of evil spirit transforming into form. Maybe you will be willing to cooperate with me. "

There was a strange smile on the old man's face, and heaven helped him.

At the same time, ten thousand skeletons grave ushered in a startling change!

The ground fissure collapses, and the whole land of ten thousand skeletons falls into a piece of dust at this time!

An extremely fierce force under the ground erupted, just like a volcanic eruption, towards Ye Chen.

The evil spirit had already turned into shape. At this time, it was like four different things. It could vaguely judge the eyes, ears, mouth and nose.

However, on the top of the head of the evil spirit, there was a dark bead, in which there was an extremely strong resentment. It seemed that it was the soul of the dead who gathered the whole ten thousand skeletons.

In the void, the shape of the evil spirit condensed into a huge red fingerprint, which was tens of feet long. Each finger had the power of the evil spirit, which made the whole sky black. Five evil forces fell on Ye Chen at the same time, which made his head, vest, abdomen, legs, and his mouth growl.

Ye Chen uses the power of reincarnation to mobilize the six source symbols to wrap his body and fall on the ground.

At the same time, a strange grain gradually spread on the body, and the mysterious body turned into a magical power!

First, the spirit power is transformed into power, and then the soul body is transformed!

Turn strength into soul power!

For a moment, the power of Ye Chen's spirit reached a level of incomparable terror,

"moon soul chop!"

At the next moment, a bright moon river broke out on the dark edge of the sword, cutting down towards the fierce shape!

Two rays of light collide in an instant!

time seems to be static.

In a flash, the sword was shaking wildly under the impact of the evil spirit. With a roar, the whole ten thousand skeleton burial ground seemed to shake for a while, and ye Chen's hands holding the evil spirit sword were also shaking violently.

Not only the sword was broken, but also ye Chen was overturned by the fierce power.

The whole person flew upside down and hit the ground hard.

The shape of ferocious spirit, each ferocious spirit, represents a warrior who was killed by the old man. The strong breath and unwilling resentment are incisively and vividly displayed on their home court.

There are even a few breath especially strange, all showing the dark color, showing the ghost, like ten thousand ghosts in prison, ten thousand demons into the sky.

Ye Chen's heart is startled unceasingly, this eternal evil spirit's gas, like the sea wave, whistling.

At this time, he had no way to break the situation.

"Ye Chen, the strongman of the ten thousand skeletons' burial ground, is not an ordinary warrior. I carefully selected him to sacrifice for me."

The old man's voice came again, and there was even a little pride in his words.

Ye Chen doesn't have time to argue with him at the moment, just concentrating on avoiding the attack of the evil spirit.

Chapter 5464

"Agree to my terms, cooperate with me, I can save you!"

"If I can kill them once, I can kill them a second time!"

"No way!" Ye Chen resolutely refuses a way, to him, the same mistake absolutely won't make a second time!

The shape of the evil spirit in this land of ten thousand skeletons, the body shape between the virtual and the real moment transfer, even can't see any action track.

"The culprit! Die

With the fierce shape approaching, ye Chen can even hear the roar of countless people, they are resentful, angry, eager to comfort themselves with the same bloody violence.

Reincarnation blood has been burning, but for the boundless ten thousand skeletons hiding place, ye Chen can't avoid the evil spirit that follows like a shadow and maggots.

Finally, the thick fog in the shape of evil spirit completely envelops Ye Chen.

Ye Chen seems to fall into a chaotic world!

The chaotic world of innumerable evil spirits!

Little by little, time goes by

Ye Chen is not sure how long it has been

Even like ten thousand years!

Can't sleep!

In this chaotic world, ye Chen's teeth have bitten his lips, and the smell of blood makes him sober.

Break and then stand, do not break and do not stand!

Since yuehun chop can't break the game, then add XueYue butcher tianchop!

If not enough, then add six source symbols! The pulse of God! There are six samsara!

And the eternal night! There is also the formula of burning blood, the body of heaven demon and the body of hundred evils!

There are thirty-six Taishang!

Ye Chen clenched his teeth, and the Hongmeng ancient method evolved and was depicted as a series of inscriptions.

A series of inscriptions emerge, the Sha sword emits extremely bright white brilliance, and slowly rises into the sky!

The breath of the towering sword became more and more intense, just like a round of hot sun hanging in the sky, forming a series of strong destruction.

A sword!

Two swords!

Thousand swords!

Ten thousand swords!

.....

Ye Chen doesn't know how many swords he has split!

"Break it for me!"

I don't know how long later, ye Chen mobilized the powerful reincarnation force in his body and turned it into a solid beam of light. He rushed straight up and integrated with Sha Jian.

WOW!

The evil spirit sword turned into a white light shuttle, and with the power of reincarnation, it quickly went to the shape of the evil spirit with the speed of dozens of times.

Bang!

Hanging in the shape of the evil spirit, the dark beads on the top of his head, under the impact of Ye Chen's so rude magic power, split out lines and instantly turned into broken crystals.

Boom!

It's not only the fierce shape, but also the whole burial ground. After this earth shaking sound, thousands of swords poured down, leaving tens of miles deep ravines on the bloody earth.

Between life and death, ye Chen will be in this ten thousand skeletons burials sentiment refining, created a move martial arts!

Since the shape of the evil spirit is condensed by the martial arts consciousness of countless strong men, so many of his trump cards must be able to integrate into one!

Ye Chen thinks so, also do so!

"Cough!"

The breath in Ye Chen's body is lax, and the aura in the whole elixir field has completely dried up after exerting this blow.

The shape of the evil spirit lost the bead of the transformation. At this time, it had disintegrated, and countless venomous breath fell under Ye Chen's evil sword.

Ye Chen's eyes mourned: "poor man."

These people who had been sacrificed because of the famine are now dead in their own hands once again.

Huang Lao has been paying close attention to the war situation. He is shocked to see ye Chen's magical martial arts.

Over the years, it's rare for people to be able to create such a powerful magic power on their own.

This son's talent and martial arts perception are not inferior to him at the peak!

The old man faintly shakes. If ye Chen is allowed to develop like this, he will never have a chance to take him away. Even in the end, he will be destroyed in his hands.

On his old face, he showed some sinister look. Ye Chen, since you don't want to cooperate, don't blame me for being cruel.

Right now.

Without the shock of the evil spirit, the whole burial ground of ten thousand skeletons returned to a calm, leaving only the blood River, as if hanging on the sky forever.

It seems that after ye Chen defeated it, the bloody smell in the air was much weaker.

At the moment when the shape of the evil spirit is defeated, ye Chen obviously feels that there is a trace of evil spirit escaping. He doesn't die completely, but he can't find it at this time.

Ye Chen sits down with his knees crossed, quietly runs the eight trigrams heaven elixir, and slowly recovers his aura. The eight trigrams heaven elixir technique is very wonderful. Besides alchemy and fighting, it also has very good cultivation and healing effect.

After mastering all the eight techniques of heaven, earth, water, wood and leizefengshan, you can regard your body as a red stove, absorb the aura of the universe and stars, infuse it into your body, nourish your muscles and vitals, then you can become stronger and stronger, and also heal and recover. It's really a mysterious and profound magic power.

Under the nourishment of this mysterious supernatural power, ye Chen's aura recovers very quickly, and the injury caused by the evil spirit has almost healed.

He can't wait to test the martial arts he just created!

If he's not wrong, it will be a tough card to surpass Yueh-un's chop.

At this moment, the aura of heaven and earth quickly converged towards Ye Chen. He once again drew the countless powerful powers into inscriptions and poured them on the Sha sword!

The power of reincarnation adheres to the meaning of the supreme sword and runs through it together with the Sha sword. The huge pillar of light rumbles through the void and falls on the land of ten thousand skeletons once again.

The most terrible pressure!

Terrible damage!

Bang!

The countless tombstones that were originally in the ten thousand skeletons' burial ground were all turned into powder by Ye Chen's second blow. At this time, they were scattered in the ten thousand skeletons' burial ground.

As if all cause and effect were cut off.

Ye Chen obviously felt that there was still a gap between this blow and the previous one.

There are two reasons.

First, Sha Jian didn't gather enough evil spirit to destroy heaven and earth. Second, his spiritual power didn't fully recover, so his power was reduced. Moreover, it had a great load on his body.

"It's a tough move, but it requires a lot of things. You can't use it when you have to."

Ye Chen sighed and looked down at the evil sword in his hand. The eight trigrams heavenly elixir technique has been used again to restore his aura.

"Since this martial art was created in the grave of ten thousand skeletons, and it needs extreme evil spirit, then call it ten thousand evil spirit concealing sword."

Ye Chen's heart is full of joy, and master Ren's words are right. It started from Huang Lao, and also from Huang Lao.

The cause and effect of all things in the world is really hard to tell who is right and who is wrong.

"Ouch!"

Outside the burial ground of ten thousand skeletons, a group of ragged Wuxiu suddenly burst out. There were thousands of them.

Chapter 5465

But these thousands of people are red eyes, covered with blood, protruding bones, blue face fangs, mouth like a wild animal howling, desperately running towards the direction of the tombstone of ten thousand skeletons cemetery.

Ye Chen's face changed slightly, and he killed the evil spirit completely. In fact, he also solved the curse of entering the array of ten thousand skeletons. Ordinary martial arts practitioners would not stop under the pressure of fierce evil spirit.

The people in front of him were more likely to come out of the body and sneak into the lower cultivation body after being slashed by him.

"Kill

These martial arts practitioners, who were attacked by the evil spirit, had no will of their own, and had the last instinct to kill the culprit in their eyes.

Ye Chen's aura hasn't fully recovered at this time, so he can only reluctantly mobilize part of his soul power.

Countless auras of heaven and earth quickly gathered to him, condensed on his hands, and turned into two groups of white light.

With his hands stretched forward, the white light immediately scattered and turned into a light curtain, blocking all the martial arts cultivation outside.

Ye Chen is not an old man, he will not kill these ordinary people innocently!

"The picture of the yellow spring, now!"

Ye Chen waves his hand, and the bright yellow light floats in his hand.

Then, an old picture scroll floated out of his body and suspended above his head.

It's like a small world.

It's a picture of the yellow spring.

As soon as the picture of the yellow spring comes out, it seems that the great power of heaven and earth envelops Ye Chen.

A lot of holy water in the yellow spring, like a surging river, went towards the group of Wuxiu.

Ye Chen's spirit power has been exhausted. Sweat is constantly popping out on his forehead, and his lips are trembling.

The holy water of the yellow spring can restrain all evil spirits and evils. At this time, ye Chen sprinkles the holy water of the yellow spring on all martial arts practitioners, and their last trace of evil spirit is also purified and disappeared.

"Why am I here?"

"Ah?"

"What's the matter?"

More and more martial arts practitioners regained consciousness. They were surprised to see the blood on themselves, and they didn't know what had happened to them.

"I broke through!"

In a flash, someone exclaimed in surprise.

They were baptized by the holy water of the yellow spring. At this time, the cultivation supernatural power, which had been stagnant, broke through at one stroke.

Ye Chen walks away quietly. The cause and effect in this world is wonderful and unpredictable, but it depends on everyone's different choices.

A moment later, all the martial arts practitioners left the ten thousand skeletons burial ground with a satisfied smile. For them, maybe from now on, this area, which was originally a fierce place, will become a blessed place for them to break through their cultivation.

Ye Chen's body shape is lightly in a flash, already can't support any more, cross knee to sit in a piece of ruins, slowly recover own strength.

One day later, the evil spirit of the ten thousand skeletons' burial ground had been weakened.

"Brother, I don't think it's the same as before."

A woman who looks only 16 or 17 years old, wearing a Confucian robe and holding a candle in her hand, looks very weak, but she is quite graceful.

Standing beside her was a square looking man with extraordinary bearing and exposed breath. Obviously, his accomplishments were not low.

"It's not just different, you see."

The man stretched out his hand and pointed out that the original layers of tombstones had turned into powder, and the whole burial ground was in a mess.

The woman couldn't help covering her mouth and was shocked by the scene.

"This Who has such great ability to level the land of ten thousand skeletons? "

The man shook his head. It was obvious that the scene in front of him was far beyond their expectation.

"Even uncle Fengming can't do it."

"Well, such a great power can only be achieved by the top strong man in heaven and man. However, after this, the evil spirit of the whole ten thousand skeletons burial ground is completely broken, and it will no longer be a forbidden area. "

The woman pursed her ruddy mouth and said thoughtfully, "it's a good thing to say that."

The man nodded: "the evil spirit dissipates, and the dead can rest in peace."

"Brother, look!"

The woman suddenly noticed something and looked at Ye Chen, who was sitting on one side with her knees crossed. It was the first time that she saw someone other than their brother and sister, who came to the depth of the ten thousand skeleton burial ground.

The man steps forward and looks at Ye Chen carefully.

"Brother also came to worship his ancestors?"

Ye Chen has already sensed the two brothers and sisters, but the eight trigrams Tiandan technique is in circulation, and didn't leave in time.

I can only open my eyes slowly and nod my head slightly.

"Brother, you have a disordered breath. I don't think you can adapt to the evil spirit here. Let's leave here first." While the man said, he motioned his sister to take out a pill and give it to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's spiritual power was exhausted twice, and it was already extremely weak in the eyes of others.

Seeing ye Chen's intention to shirk, the man quickly added: "don't be nervous, brother. I'm Zhang Xianjian, the descendant of Nanxiao valley. This is Zhang Ruoling, my sister. We're not bad people."

Ye Chen also knows that the other party obviously misunderstands his identity, but he doesn't explain it. Instead, he silently takes the pills handed over by Zhang Ruoling.

"Do you know what just happened here?"

There was a doubt on Zhang Ruoling's face. The young man was not a few years older than her, and obviously her strength was not as high as her. Although she asked, she didn't want to get any useful information from him.

"Ling'er. Let's get him out of here first, and we'll talk about other things on the way. "

Zhang Ruoling nodded, with a girl's smart face.

"Brother. I'll help you

Zhang Xianjian, however, has no style of being a rich and noble young man. He holds Ye Chen's arm and takes him to walk out of the tomb of ten thousand skeletons.

The two brothers and sisters are obviously inexperienced, very simple, ye Chen thought in the heart, also can't bear to say the identity, and, even if they tell the truth, they may not believe it.

"Brother, are you also here to worship your ancestors?"

"In the next leaf Chen, also come to worship."

Ye Chen says perfunctorily, saying his origin ambiguously.

"Did you see who broke the evil spirit when you came here?"

Ye Chen shook his head: "no, when I came, it was already like this."

Zhang Ruoling showed a look of disappointment. Although she knew that this person could not provide any useful information, she could not help regretting that she got a clear answer.

"Well, we're a little late."

"Ling er."

Zhang Xianjian stopped Zhang Ruoling's complaint: "brother ye, I think you are not weak in cultivation, but what is the path of shichengtian and Renyu? Or the temple of heaven? "

Chapter 5466

Ye Chen hesitated for a few seconds, still did not say the true origin, but gently shook his head: "my blood is strange, and did not join a certain Taoist school, but is a scattered repair, and set a hundred strong points."

Although the words are beautiful, in Zhang Xianjian's opinion, ye Chen lost his family heritage because of the death of his ancestors, so he had to make a living.

"Brother Ye is really a good talent for martial arts cultivation because he is well-known and outstanding among the hundred families."

Ye Chen tiny nod, also know the other party is just saying the scene words, afraid that there is no praise meaning at all.

"However, your cultivation is still not very stable. It's not easy for you to go up to heaven if you want to have some understanding and harvest."

"Brother!"

Before Zhang Xianjian finished his words, Zhang Ruoling interrupted him and quickly stepped forward to comfort ye Chen: "you don't have to worry. The unstable cultivation is still due to the shortage of cultivation resources. In this way, if you want to, you can come back to Nanxiao valley with us. We are extremely spiritual and suitable for you."

Ye Chen smiles slightly, just about to refuse, but his eyes are attracted by the jade pendant in front of Zhang Ruoling.

It's a rectangular jade pendant, with continuous blue floating flowers, crystal clear.

The real purpose for ye Chen is that the patterns carved on this jade pendant are similar to those of the God seal jade pendant given by the reincarnation Lord.

No accident, from the source!

Even the person behind the jade pendant must know the origin of the seal jade pendant!

"It's not so good..."

Ye Chen has turned his refusal into an embarrassed shyness.

Since he had the opportunity to investigate the seal jade pendant left by his previous life, he could not refuse it!

"Yes, brother Ye. You're welcome. I'm warm and hospitable in nanxiaogu, and you and I are in the same boat. "

"Brother ye, my brother is the contemporary young master of Nanxiao valley. With him, you can rest assured to go back with us."

Ye Chen Mou son one coagulates, still arch a way: "that respect is inferior to obedience."

He also needs to find out the meaning behind the jade pendant. Maybe he will know something about the meaning of the seal of God jade pendant.

Zhang Ruoling's face shows an expression of joy. She has been out of the valley since she was young. She is kind-hearted and willing to help others. At this time, she is also very happy to see ye Chen agree.

The place where Zhang's brothers and sisters live is called nanxiaogu.

There is a spiritual vein at the bottom of Nanxiao valley. Therefore, there is plenty of spiritual energy in the valley. There are 167 caves built in the valley. Only the noble guests of the family are qualified to enter Nanxiao Valley for cultivation.

At this time, ye Chen was arranged at the bottom of the cave, which was one of the most spiritual caves with two Stone Beasts guarding the mountain gate.

In the cave, there is a spring flowing, equipped with defensive array, sword array and even elixir. Zhang Ruoling did give ye Chen extraordinary treatment.

"Brother ye, you're welcome. Although you don't have a high level of cultivation, you can make a breakthrough as long as you practice here for a period of time."

Zhang Ruoling said with a smile, his face full of sincerity.

Zhang Xianjian rubbed his sister's hair: "yes, brother ye, you're welcome. We are all persecuted by the evil people. Our father's ancestors fell down. Without the protection of my family, I can't grow up like this. You can say what you need."

In their opinion, ye Chen's ancestors were also killed by the demons. Moreover, after many years, they could come to the ten thousand skeleton burial ground to worship their ancestors. They would never be bad people!

Ye Chen nodded slightly, and the brother and sister were magnanimous and straightforward, with simple mind.

In the cruel world of heaven and man, I don't know whether it is a good thing or a bad thing.

In a few people chat, sudden change!

"No, young master, the people of luoxuzong are coming!"

An apprentice from nanxiaogu almost ran in and looked at Zhang Xianjian indignantly.

"Brother! How dare they come

Zhang Ruoling heard the name of Luo xuzong at this time, and the old lady who had been quiet was also angry.

Zhang Xianjian, after all, is the master of the little valley. Naturally, he will not be as flustered as the two of them. Instead, he turns his head and says to Ye Chen calmly: "let brother Ye laugh. There's something wrong in the valley. I'll deal with it first."

Ye Chen nodded repeatedly: "master shaogu is polite. Just be busy first."

"Ling'er, you stay here first. Brother Ye has just arrived. You can take him to get familiar with the environment."

"But Brother

Zhang Ruoling showed a reluctant look.

"Ling'er, be obedient!"

Having said that, Zhang Xianjian has left with his family.

Ye Chen looks at Zhang Ruoling, can chase forward a few steps, sighed.

In the eyes of the two brothers and sisters, their own strength is not yet true, so they are not qualified to help.

But if they knew that they had killed the tiandian elder in taizhenjing, what would they look like?Zhang Ruoling finally stopped, but he turned to Ye Chen and said, "brother ye, I'll take you around."

The tone was full of loss.

After all, Zhang Ruoling was born in a big clan. He quickly adjusted his mood and showed a smile again.

Ye Chen one eye saw her perfunctory, presumably she must be anxious at this time.

"Ruoling girl, I'm new here. I'm favored by the master of shaogu, and I directly arrange a good training place. I haven't seen the reception place of Nanxiao Valley yet."

When Zhang Ruoling heard this, his eyes lit up: "brother ye, do you want to go too?"

Ye Chen nodded: "you are entrusted by your elder brother not to go, but we happened to go to see the main hall. It should be OK."

"Brother Ye! How clever you are

"Bang!"

Before they got close, they heard a strong gale coming and smashing the columns in front of the hall.

As the loud noise broke out, a strong wave of air, issued a "Wuwu" sound, poured in from the outside.

Zhang Xianjian rolled up his sleeves and put out a protective mask, which made the surging waves fly upside down.

"Luoxuzong, are you tired of living? Dare to make trouble in Nanxiao Valley

An old man with empty eyebrows came out of the hall and yelled.

At this time, all the really strong people in Nanxiao Valley showed their cool colors one after another. They were very dissatisfied with the unreasonable attack of luoxuzong.

"These shameless villains of luoxuzong!"

Zhang Ruoling is about to rush out, but he is held by Ye Chen: "girl Ruoling, let's see how my brother deals with it."

"Touch!"

Just then, in the direction of the gate, four figures came in side by side from the outside.

These four figures all look like human figures, but they exude extremely powerful exotic animal breath. They are tall and powerful.

At this time, all the martial arts practitioners on the scene could easily see that these four people were no longer pure human beings, but were different from other animals.

Chapter 5467

"Who are they?"

"Well, they are Luo Wentao's dogs." Zhang Ruoling's mouth was shriveled, and he obviously didn't have any good feelings for these four different kinds.

A man in a blue robe, with gentle eyes and elegant appearance, walked out from behind the four.

See him appear, originally around the front of the South Xiao Valley strong also have retreated, leaving a narrow path.

The refined man glanced at the crowd and said, "Nanxiao Valley is a land of outstanding people. It's a pity that such a treasure land of geomantic omen was occupied by a group of mobs. It's a waste of geomantic omen!"

Hearing this, the geniuses of nanxiaogu all showed angry expressions.

"It's really a big tone. It's just luoxuzong. Do you really think you are invincible?"

"A clan the size of a sesame seed wants to dominate the whole heaven and man, but it doesn't weigh its own weight."

South Xiao Gujie out of the talented people have made sarcastic remarks.

Luo Wentao didn't mind at all. He glanced around at the people and raised his finger slightly. One of his men moved a square stone bench out of the space artifact.

Luo Wentao threw his green robe and sat down. A red dragon, the size of a palm, came out of his sleeve and looked around. Then he stretched out his two claws, picked up the wine glass on the stone platform and began to drink.

The appearance of no one else made the whole nanxiaogu family even more angry.

"Luo Wentao, you are too arrogant. Do you really think there is no one in Nanxiao Valley?"

A disciple with four small swords embroidered on his shoulder, with a cold hum, raised his long gun and cold eyes, walked towards Luo Wentao.

Luo Wentao did not lift his eyelids: "you are not worthy to talk to me."

At this time, Zhang Ruoling, standing in the distance, clenched his pink Fist: "it's too much!"

"Who is he?" Ye Chen has a wonderful way.

"Well! Luoxuzong is a young master of luoxuzong. He has a strong ancestor in his family, who can be compared with those in taizhenjing. He wanted to ask to marry me before, but he was famous and treacherous. My brother immediately refused. Since then, he has been targeting me everywhere in Nanxiao valley. "

Ye Chen knows clearly that Luo Wentao is another Yuwen machine.

"Moreover, he didn't really like me when he got married. Instead, he took a fancy to the spirit of Nanxiao Valley and wanted to take it for himself."

Ye Chen is thoughtful.

.....

"It's a mess."

At this moment, the disciple of Nanxiao valley was furious.

"Wow

He held the gun in his hand. Suddenly, a strong purple cold burst out and covered the whole Nanxiao valley. In an instant, the sound of dragon chanting came from the inside of the long gun.

A purple dragon, which is tens of feet long, appears and twines the long gun around it.

"Brother Feng has made progress again!"

Zhang Ruoling said happily, but ye Chen saw at a glance that elder martial brother Feng's long gun had only its surface, and his internal power was insufficient. The entangled Purple Dragon had its potential and had no meaning of law.

"Wow

Fengli's arm shakes, and the long gun turns quickly, forming a huge vortex, stabbing Luo Wentao's eyebrow.

From the beginning to the end, Luo Wentao did not change his face and sat on the stone bench.

"Ouch!"

The little red dragon, originally holding the wine cup, flew up in the whirlpool and went to meet the long gun. With his mouth open, he directly bit the long gun.

"How can it be!"

In Nanxiao Valley, there is a sound of cool air. Many people can't believe their eyes.

That red dragon, they have seen before, but never had such a strong blow.

"It seems that not only my disciples of Nanxiao valley have made progress, but also the spirit beasts and strange beasts of luoxu sect have made considerable progress."

The old man with white beard and white hair stepped forward and looked at Luo Wentao.

Luo Wentao looked at the old man with white hair. His eyes shrank, but he still said: "elder Fengming, this is a matter between our younger generation. If you do it, my parents of luoxuzong can't help it."

Threat!

Naked threat!

"Ha ha ha, there's no need for the uncle of Fengming clan in the disputes among the younger generation."

Zhang Xianjian smiles brightly. He has already stepped beyond the main hall. He is the young leader of Nanxiao valley. This matter originated from Zhang Ruoling, so he can't stay behind.

The red dragon's mouth was open and his body was arched, just like a sword with blood! In an instant, I stand and go towards the wind.

"Boom!"

The next second, Fengli's chest collapsed, his ribs were broken, his body flew upside down, hit a stone pillar, and then, bang, fell to the ground.

"Luo Wentao! How dare you

After Zhang Xianjian and other well-educated men, Rao was also furious when he saw Luo Wentao. "Oh? I just want to let them know that if they dare to challenge me with such strength, they will pay a price." Luo Wentao said haughtily.

At the moment, everyone's eyes are full of shock and fear when they look at Luo Wentao. Fengli is gifted in Nanxiao valley. The day after tomorrow, he also works hard. Although he is not a top man in the whole Nanxiao Valley, he is also a character. At this moment, just face to face and let a little dragon get seriously injured!

How terrible Luo Wentao's strength must be!

Zhang Xianjian's face became rather ugly. He didn't expect that Luo Wentao was advancing so fast.

"How did he get so strong?"

Zhang Ruoling is also surprised to cover his mouth, just a red dragon strike, can defeat Fengli, even if it is brother's full hand, I'm afraid it can't be done.

Ye Chen's eyes slightly a MI, saw a silk clue.

Fengli's spear should have refined a dragon soul in it, so there was a purple dragon attached to it at that time, which increased the strength of his attack. However, Luo Wentao's red dragon breathed in his mouth before he bounced up, and a red blood mist was also projected into the vortex, but at that time, the wind and waves generated by the vortex were extremely strong, which made people not notice.

It is not so much Luo Wentao's red dragon that is strong as his red dragon that suppresses Fengli's dragon soul.

But unfortunately, there are few people in Nanxiao Valley who can see the strike.

Even Zhang Xianjian, who has excellent strength and talent, has his sight blocked because he was in the palace before.

"It seems that luoxuzong is not going to be good today."

Zhang Xianjian's eyes are also cold, looking at Luo Wentao's eyes, as if with a layer of frost.

"Well! Do you want to be good? It's not that I can't

Luo Wentao gently took back the red dragon's sleeve and stood up: "from now on, you nanxiaogu will bow to our luoxuzong, move away from here, I can see in the face of ling'er, let your whole valley live!"

"bah!"

"Dream!"

All the disciples of nanxiaogu's family look at Luo Wentao angrily!

Nanxiaogu will never compromise!

But they know very well in their heart that luoxuzong is prepared to come here today, and he will not be able to do good today!

Who can save them?

At the moment, Zhang Ruoling is extremely nervous. Even though she is really strong, her body is still shaking.

I don't know if it's anger or something.

Ye Chen Mou son one coagulates, patted the Zhang Ruoling beside, immediately an aura toward Zhang Ruoling body but go!

And Zhang Ruoling's original sense of tension disappeared completely!

Zhang Ruoling was surprised and looked at Ye Chen and said, "brother ye, it was so strange just now I feel very relaxed all of a sudden..."

Ye Chen showed a smile, light way: "if spirit, do you think I need to solve Luo xuzong? As long as you nod, I'll do it."

One second, two seconds.

Zhang Ruoling was stunned and said, "brother ye, you are just from the beginning. Don't be kidding."

Ye Chen

Chapter 5468

Ye Chen looks at Zhang Ruoling and doesn't continue to talk.

If it's necessary, he will.

"Little valley master! Do it! We don't have to be afraid!"

In the distance, some people are shouting, trying to teach Zhang Xianjian a lesson.

At this moment, one of the strange men who had been escorting Luo Wentao ejected out and almost immediately stepped over the head of the man who was talking.

Both hands slapped on the left and right sides of the man's head at the same time.

"Bang!"

The man's scalp exploded instantly, revealing the bones of Bai Sensen. The seven orifices were bleeding. Then he leaned back and lay on the ground.

Seeing this scene, all the disciples of nanxiaogu family seemed to have been struck by lightning for a while and felt suffocated.

That's different. He looked at the other family members cruelly and said in a cold voice: "hum, dare to speak rudely to our young master, damn it!"

"You..."

Other disciples of Nanxiao Valley wanted to say something, but when they thought of the picture just now, they immediately lowered their heads and stepped back quickly, and did not dare to look at him at all.

This is a fatal blow. Who dares to do it.

At this time, the gun hit the head bird, everyone clenched their fists, resentful, but dare not speak.

"Luo Wentao, this is a matter between you and me. Why should I be involved in nanxiaogu family." Zhang Xianjian's eyes congealed and said.

"Back off."

Seeing this, Luo Wentao waved his hand and called the man back.

"Ha ha ha, it's not a matter between you and me. If you can take charge of the whole Nanxiao Valley, I can let these people go."

"No shame! Have you forgotten how you used to beg for mercy under my hands? " Zhang Xianjian's cold voice rang out!

Luo Wentao gave a cold hum and stepped out. The little red dragon's back gave birth to a pair of red dragon wings. One of the Dragon Wings has turned into a red halo. He first stepped towards Zhang Xianjian.

"Boom!"

On Luo Wentao's skin, a bulge of scales, the size of nails, covered his whole body. In his hands, he condensed into a dragon fire flame and beat Zhang Xianjian.

Ye Chen in the distance is slightly surprised, but he doesn't know that this person has dragon blood, but the blood is a little messy.

The spherical magic flame burst in an instant and went in all directions, forming a sea of fire outside the main hall of nanxiaogu.

The temperature of the magic flame is very high. The ordinary disciples of Nanxiao Valley immediately offer a guard array to protect their body from being burned by the magic flame.

Zhang Xianjian's body has been slowly flying off the ground, and a snake spear appears in his hand. His body swoops down, and a weak law twines around him. In an instant, he turns into a snake shadow and stabs Luo Wentao rapidly.

After the guard array, all the people in Nanxiao Valley can't see Zhang Xianjian's figure clearly. They can only see the fierce snake shadow like a tornado.

"Ouch!"

"Go

One person and one dragon, the loud dragon chant comes out from the red dragon's hand, and Luo Wentao's fierce roar also comes out.

Outside the hall, the ground even trembled a little, two forces opposed each other, Luo Wentao stepped back three steps, while Zhang Xianjian clenched his fists and stepped on his feet, steadying himself.

This confrontation made the people of Nanxiao Valley see the hope. This is their little master. It is enough to compare with the evil disciples of tiandian temple in Tianren domain. What luoxu sect, they will not be afraid and excited.

"Little valley master is powerful!"

Under the cry of a family disciple, all the disciples followed.

When Luo Wentao heard the sound, he was filled with anger. The Ancient Runes in his body were surging, and his muscles were constantly expanding. Then he strode forward.

With each step forward, his body grows by three feet.

When he rushed in front of Zhang Xianjian, his body had become nine feet high, and he became a half human and half Dragon creature. The smell of magic dragon in his body turned into pieces of bloody magic fog.

One shot at the snake!

One shot to break the spear!

One hit smash skill!

Irresistible!

Luo Wentao's magic dragon form has a strong body. In the face of Zhang Xianjian's attack, he doesn't dodge at all. He grabs him claw by claw.

Countless bloodstains appear on Zhang Xianjian's body, and at this time, the figure of red dragon also suddenly appears behind Zhang Xianjian, the bloody mouth has been opened!

"Brother!"

Zhang Ruoling's mournful voice called out that this outrageous and despicable offensive, violent and sinister moves are really the nemesis of Zhang Xianjian and other aboveboard people.

But, at the moment, there is no way to retreat!

There are Luo Wentao's fierce claws ahead!

Behind the red dragon has already opened a big mouth!

Zhang Xian was stunned and closed his eyes in despair. He had no other way. At this time, everyone didn't notice that Ye Chen around Zhang Ruoling moved. In a moment, he was in front of Zhang's fitness. Then he simply stretched out his hand and hit Luo Wentao's dragon claw with a fist, even a fist without martial arts charm.

Luo Wentao sees this scene, the corner of his mouth is extremely ferocious!

In his opinion, the boy who didn't know how to die was sure to die!

However, soon, his ferocious expression solidified!

This punch, unexpectedly, blocked his endless power!

"What?"

Luo Wentao looked at the young man who was hiding his offensive out of thin air in amazement. With such a brutal blow, he was so lightly blocked!

"Boy, if you know what to do, you'd better not meddle in your business, so as not to set yourself on fire!"

Ye Chen side cross a face to go, toward Luo Wen Tao glanced one eye, way: "if I don't know a phase?"

Many people in Nanxiao valley were shocked by Ye Chen's words. After all, Luo Wentao's strength is obvious to all.

What's more, this boy's cultivation is just from the beginning. He is not even as strong as the young Valley master.

In the eyes of all people in Nanxiao Valley, it was admirable that someone could stand up and challenge Luo Wentao.

But at this time, with the defeat of Zhang Xianjian, people have a fear of Luo Wentao.

At this time, a lengtouqing comes out, we will only think that he is a mole ant who does not know how to judge the situation.

Anyone can see that Luo Wentao has made a lot of preparations this time. He has long wanted to satisfy his private wish with killing.

"Brother ye, you are not his opponent. Don't be impulsive."

Zhang Ruoling comes forward quickly and holds Ye Chen. The other party is only invited to visit Nanxiao valley. How can he take his life in vain.

Luo Wentao looked sarcastic: "good! Since you want to die, I'll help you! "

"Go

Luo Wentao's shoulders shrugged up, and a strong red dragon gas had emerged from his body, converged into his arms, and turned into a red dragon fire.

Chapter 5469

All the people in Nanxiao Valley can feel a very hot breath coming from Luo Wentao. It's like melting the whole Nanxiao valley.

Under the fire of dragon fire, the inscriptions on the defensive array of Nanxiao valley are revealed little by little, and the lines engraved with Sanskrit are revealed, turning into halos and covering the whole ground.

"The other side can now shake the power of guarding the array!"

Zhang Ruoling can't help swallowing a mouthful of saliva. His eyes tremble. Luo Wentao's strength is so strong.

Ye Chen at this time backhand push, has Zhang Ruoling to Zhang Xianjian: "protect your sister, the rest to me."

At this moment, not only Zhang Ruoling, but also Zhang Xianjian!

"Ouch!"

With the sound of a dragon, Luo Wentao's arm pushed forward!

Suddenly, a dragon shadow formed by the Dragon Fire demon flame opened its big mouth and exposed its five claws. Each claw was shining with a red luster and rushed towards Ye Chen's direction.

Ye Chen's right hand, toward the void a pinch, Sha sword already appeared in his hand.

As soon as he grasped the handle of the sword, his breath became very sharp, as if he were a superior man who looked down on everything.

"Blood moon slaughters heaven! Three rounds of blood moon, up

At this moment, ye Chen's breath is like an endless river of stars, more and more violent. The power of the source moves majestically in his palm, and the space is constantly bursting. Countless cracks appear around Ye Chen and are crushed by his invincible power!

Ye Chen roared. On the sky, the blood moon came, and the infinite power covered it. It was as if it had come from the source of endless years, as if it had crushed the sky and the world, and the endless stars had arrived.

The supreme power of destroying heaven and earth is awed down. Heaven and earth moan at this moment. The sun and moon overturn at this moment. Even the endless stars disperse their light and surrender to the blood moon.

The Dragon shadow, which was condensed by the dragon fire, hit the sword Qi and immediately burst out deafening sound. Two powerful forces poured out in all directions.

All the disciples of Nanxiao valley around were lifted away.

Luo Wentao's face became dignified. The ugly man in front of him didn't seem to be easy to provoke: "you have some skills!"

Luo Wentao puts out his hand with all his strength, turns his arms into claws, and rushes forward. The man and the huge dragon shadow merge into one. He rushes out from the position of the dragon head, and his claws strike Ye Chen at the same time.

"Bang!"

Under the attack of the giant claw, the red halo sword light under the bloody moon turned into a chaotic sword Qi.

The red dragon claw is getting closer and closer to Ye Chen, and it keeps enlarging in his pupils!

Zhang Ruoling's mouth grew up in horror. If she was caught by the dragon claw, Ye Chen's body would be pierced. Her breath became short, and then her eyes closed quickly. It seemed that she didn't want to see the next bloody scene.

"Moon soul chop!"

Countless sword like sword Qi naturally condense and fly around Ye Chen, turning into a huge field of sword Qi.

The incomparably bright sword Qi is just like 100 million nuclear bombs exploding at the same time. It has a strong impact and radiates all around.

Ye Chen's face is calm. He already knows Luo Wentao's strength clearly. If it wasn't for the spiritual power's not fully recovered, his bloody moon butchering the sky would not be three rounds of bloody moon, but five rounds.

Ye Chen's wrist shakes quickly to form a circle of explosive sword shadow, which makes a "whistling" sound and collides with the Dragon shadow of the combination of man and dragon.

"Shua!"

Ye Chen's body shape, wrist suddenly forward, accurate through the dragon shape virtual shadow, will Sha sword through Luo Wentao's waist.

Luo Wentao's vital points were broken by the sword Qi. He snorted. Blood flowed from his waist and abdomen. His body fell backward and fell heavily on the ground. His mouth also spewed blood.

At this time, his upper part of the robe had been beaten into powder by the sword Qi, and the blood flowing out of his waist and abdomen made him embarrassed.

At this time, the scales of the Dragon had fallen off, revealing the bloody arms.

Everyone, including Zhang's brother and sister, stared at the young man they thought was arrogant. Some even rubbed their eyes.

"Two swords! He only used two swords

"It's amazing that Luo Wentao was defeated in this way, and he seems to be at ease!"

Zhang Ruoling feels quite incredible. Since she saw Ye Chen, she always thinks that ye Chen's strength is not as high as her. At this time, such strength is really hidden.

"When did heaven and man have such a rebellious genius?" Fengming stroked his beard and sighed.

Four guardians of Luo Wentao's hands, at this time to see ye Chen's expression is full of fear, they two help Luo Wentao, horizontal in front of Luo Wentao.

"Want to go?"

All the people in Nanxiao valley are surrounded. They look maliciously at Luo Wentao, who is still carrying a real life!"Let them go!"

Zhang Xianjian held his chest and coughed.

"Little valley master!"

"Let them go!"

The voice of Fengming also comes. The forces behind luoxu sect are deeply intertwined. They have always stood aloof from the world. They can't kill the young leader of luoxu sect just because of their anger. Otherwise, the consequences will be unimaginable.

Ye Chensha sword put away, he is just an outsider, at this time already hand, nature can't refute the master's will.

Luo Wentao's eyes full of bitterness stare at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen is extremely calm back hand, looking at Zhang Xianjian.

"Get out of here!"

Zhang Ruo raised her eyebrow and glared at Luo Wentao.

Luo Wentao didn't say any more. With Ye Chen, he couldn't get any advantage in this trip.

"Go

This damned boy can't be in Nanxiao Valley all the time!

Here, sooner or later is his world!

The whole Nanxiao valley was boiling up and down at this time.

"Give orders. From today on, everyone will practice hard to fight, and take advantage of the decline of the way of heaven in heaven and man's realm to understand their own laws and martial arts."

Fengming is very cold and said that if ye Chen didn't do it, this time, nanxiaogu would lose his troops. Just now, even if ye Chen didn't do it, he would never look at Zhang Xianjian's death.

After all, Zhang Xianjian is the most peerless genius in Nanxiao Valley, and he must not fall into the hands of others.

"Family uncle..." Zhang Xianjian had a trace of guilt on his face. "I'm not his opponent. I've let the people of nanxiaogu down."

Fengming shook his head: "Xianjian, you are the hope of our nanxiaogu. Don't give up under any circumstances. Sometimes, people not only practice the Dharma, but also have a tolerant and kind heart. The youth you brought back this time may be your chance. "

Chapter 5470

But Zhang Xianjian grinned bitterly: "I didn't see that he had such strength."

"Cause and effect in the world, many opportunities will have a big change in life."

Feng Ming's eyes fell on Ye Chen and Zhang Ruoling not far away, and then said, "go."

Zhang Xianjian nodded and went to Ye Chen regardless of his injuries.

"Brother ye, I didn't expect you to be so powerful!" Zhang Ruoling said with admiration, "that Luo Wentao should have been beaten hard!"

Ye Chen smiles and still stands in the same place. Compared with Zhang Ruoling's exclamation, Zhang Xianjian has more to say at this time.

"Brother Ye." Zhang Xianjian's bloodstain is still frightening, but the wound is recovering very quickly.

"Ye Chen has no intention of concealing, but it's difficult for the two of them to show their kindness." Ye Chen very seriously said, "but at this time, the little valley master or first treatment injury."

"Brother, I'll wait until you have something to say."

Zhang Xianjian see ye Chen's expression, is still calm, it seems that his identity is not simple.

"Well, brother Ye misunderstood. I didn't mean to ask. I just want to thank you for rescuing me at a critical moment. Zhang Xianjian, thank you for your help. "

Zhang Xianjian solemnly expressed his gratitude.

"Little valley master is serious!"

Ye Chen raised his hand to help Zhang Xianjian, handed out a pill, and said: "the dragon claw scratch is not so easy to heal. It needs to be recuperated quietly, but taking this pill will recover faster."

"Thank you, brother Ye. Ling'er, send brother ye back to the cave. "

Zhang Xianjian didn't seek the bottom of the matter, didn't plead for the protection of the low, he just quietly thank Ye Chen, temperament and bearing show no doubt.

Ye Chen silently exclaimed that as long as he had enough time and a certain chance, Zhang Xianjian would become a giant in heaven and man.

"Brother ye, you are really great!"

Zhang Ruoling has repeated it many times along the way. Ye Chen's ears are a little cocooned.

"But brother ye, since you are so powerful, why do you want to go back to Nanxiao valley with us?"

Zhang Ruoling, after all, is a young girl with great curiosity.

Ye Chen doesn't want to cover it up either. For Zhang's brothers and sisters, their sincere nature is more important.

Thinking of this, ye Chen pointed to the jade pendant Zhang Ruoling had been wearing on his body and said frankly: "in fact, I came here for it."

Hearing this, Zhang Ruoling showed some vigilance in his eyes.

She stepped back, hesitated for a few seconds, and said, "have you seen it? Or do you know it? "

"Ruoling, I have no malice, but this jade pendant is very important to me."

Ye Chen explained, and took out the jade plate with the seal of God left by the previous life.

"Well? Why is the texture as like as two peas on my jade?"

Zhang Ruoling saw the seal jade pendant at this time, and the vigilance on his face slowly disappeared. With the strength of the other side, even if it was hard to rob, it was more than enough. But since Ye Chen was able to take out the jade pendant happily, it showed that he had no evil intention.

"The origin of this jade pendant is very important to me. I want to find the whereabouts of the man who left me the jade pendant. "

Ye Chen half true half false, false words, let Zhang Ruoling completely down.

"Brother ye, but I promised not to say that. "

Zhang Ruoling hesitated, but she couldn't bear to refuse him in the face of the man who had just protected her brother.

"Come on, you are my benefactor of Nanxiao Valley and Zhang Ruoling. I can feel that you are not a bad person. I I can tell you "But You can't tell anyone. "

"Ye Chen will naturally keep his promise." Ye Chen incomparably serious way.

"This jade pendant was actually given to me by my master."

Zhang Ruoling's eyes became a little sad: "Shifu is the best person to me in the world except my brother. But unfortunately, she has passed away

Ye Chen's eyes, which were full of hope, became dim.

"Is your master from Nanxiao Valley?"

Zhang Ruoling shook his head: "no, Shifu. She came to Nanxiao Valley later. She once said that she came from a force called Shenmen in heaven and man. Shifu said that the original Shenmen was superior to the present tiandian!"

"Divine gate?"

Zhang Ruoling nodded: "before the master fell, he gave me this jade pendant, a letter and a map, and repeatedly told me to go to the God gate and send the letter to the Lord of the God gate after the sixth floor of the true realm."

Ye Chen's face showed a smile, so to say, maybe this jade pendant is the key from God's door.

"This is the only thing I know. I hope it will help brother Ye."

Zhang Ruoling said, looking up at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen didn't speak all the time, thinking about all kinds of possibilities seriously. It seems that Shenmen is the clue of this jade pendant."It's helpful, thank you!"

There was a smile on Zhang Ruoling's face: "now I'm in the fifth heaven of the real world. Maybe I'll hit the sixth heaven soon. Then I can go to the gate of God."

Ye Chen nodded: "if you want, I can help you to protect the Dharma, to ensure that you can break through safely."

"Do you want me to take you to Shenmen after breaking through?" Zhang Ruoling suddenly understood.

Ye Chen has no intention to hide his plan, very frank nod.

"Yes. I need to go to the gate of God to find the origin of this jade pendant. "

Zhang Ruoling once again carefully looks at the crystal clear jade pendant. For ye Chen's purpose of being so magnanimous, she now highly appreciates Ye Chen. This person is not only superior in strength, but also magnanimous, just like her brother.

What's more, since she was a child, she was full of yearning for the divine gate in the mouth of master!

What kind of place is it that can give birth to the existence of Shifu?

"Well, I promise you." Zhang Ruoling said.

Ye Chen Mou son one coagulates, some accidents, but also not nonsense, but arch a way: "thank."

Zhang Ruoling smile, delicate look is very lovely: "I want to thank you for saving my brother's life, such a great kindness, not to mention just lead the way, even if it is to pay my life, I will not hesitate."

"Brother ye, I'm going to attack the sixth floor sky of the real world now!"

Ye Chen carries his hands and his eyes are shining with the light of confidence.

His martial arts and perception are superior to the whole heaven and man domain. It's not difficult to guide Zhang Ruoling to break through the heaven! One day is enough!

.....

One day later, Nanxiao valley.

"Wow

A slender figure turned into a streamer, crossed the sky, and fell directly on the ground below Nanxiao valley.

At the moment when she fell to the ground, the river across the valley quickly condensed and turned into an ice river.
