Chapter 6341

The array principles he had learned before were too simple compared with the array formula.

This formula of array words is the real secret of array, which represents the ultimate meaning of array.

And this ultimate mystery is the Jiuding array. When the Jiuding town comes to heaven, it is the emperor's personal visit. It can control the world, power the eight wastelands, dominate the world and be invincible forever.

This ultimate meaning, looking around the world, only the emperor yuhuanggudi can understand it!

"Reincarnation Lord, how can you understand the formula of the array?"

Hong Beichen looks at Ye Chen and asks.

This formula of array characters is extremely complicated and difficult. He has been on the wall for thousands of years before he can grasp some essentials. However, he is far from understanding the true essence of the formula, the core secret method and the ultimate mystery.

"I need some time."

Ye Chen has a vague understanding. He has the basic knowledge of Bing Zi Jue and Dou Zi Jue. It's much easier than ordinary people to understand other secrets.

But even so, it takes a certain amount of time to understand the formula of array words, and it is impossible to understand it immediately.

After all, the formula of array character is one of the nine formulas of Brahman's divine skill, which is the nine heaven's divine skill. It's not so easy to understand.

"How long will it take you?"

Hong Beichen frowned. In the world of Chongyang, one point of Qi transportation is absorbed, one point is lost, and it will never recover.

Even the three of them are reluctant to stay too long for fear that they will absorb the aura and lead to the collapse of the world.

Ye Chen said: "two months, no more than two months at most."

Hong Beichen pondered for a while, frowning deeper and deeper, finally sighed and said: "OK, I'll give you two months. After two months, no matter what the result is, you must come out!"

Ye Chen said, "OK, thank you very much."

For two months, ye Chen estimated that it would be enough. If two months later, he still can't understand the formula, it means that he is not lucky enough to touch the essence of the formula. No matter how hard he struggles, it's useless and he can only give up.

At present, the ancestors of Hong Beichen and the other three ethnic groups, Yufeng left, and let Ye Chen stay in the world of Chongyang alone to practice.

Ye Chen sits cross knee in front of the mountain, gazing at the words on the mountain wall and feeling it silently.

"Wish star, rise!"

"Green spring, open!"

"Wanyao Xianchi, now!"

Ye Chen's heart read a move, and one after another offered the sky star of desire, the picture of blue and yellow spring, and the pool of ten thousand demons and immortals to assist cultivation.

Wish the sky star suspended in the top of Ye Chen's head, the picture of the yellow spring turned into a thousand miles of rivers and mountains, arched and guarding Ye Chen, and the ten thousand demon immortal pool appeared under him, forming a pool.

Ye Chen immerses himself in the pool of ten thousand demon immortals, with the stars on his head and the body around the yellow spring. He completely enters the cultivation state, and all his spirit is used to understand the formula of the array.

In this state of cultivation, ye Chen sorted out all the martial arts and supernatural powers he had learned before to dredge his spirit.

Tianlong eight gods sound, Bagua Tiandan skill, Babu Fu Tu Qi, Taishang Tianshi Dao, Tianxian Koi copied, Taishang Tianmo body, TIANYAO body, liudao reincarnation method, XueYue tutian chop, yuehun chop, burning heaven in heaven, destroying Daoyin, various reincarnation blood, Bing Zi Jue, Dou Zi Jue and so on, all kinds of Daofa supernatural powers, as well as magic weapons and weapons and so on.

Combing the old learning, reviewing the old and learning the new, ye Chen's spirit gradually reached a state of selflessness, as if completely integrated with heaven and earth.

In the moment of blending with the world, ye Chen seems to capture a will.

That is the old master of Chongyang Tianzhu, the Grandmaster of Hongjia Tianjun, and the will of hongchunqiu!

Hong Chunqiu was so successful that he was suspected by the yuhuanggudi. His inner feelings of surprise, panic, anger, grievance and so on converged into a torrent, constantly impacting Ye Chen's mind.

Ye Chen takes a deep breath, quickly opens Wuzu's mind, stabilizes his mind and resists the impact.

But later, he caught a trace of the brilliant realization of the formula of array words from Hong Chunqiu's residual will.

That's Hong Chunqiu's opinion on the formula of array!

The source of thousands of arrays in the world lies in the formula of array characters. The formula of array characters evolves thousands of times. The core of the formula is the word "change"!

As long as you master the most basic principles of array patterns and know the changes of five elements, yin and Yang, eight trigrams and nine palaces, you can deduce thousands of changes and produce infinite array.

It's like a piece of music in which there are only five notes of Gongshang jiaozhengyu, but it can produce infinite tunes.

This is also the truth of the formula of array words. As long as you master the most basic array patterns, the five elements of yin and Yang, the seven stars and eight trigrams, the nine palaces and ten directions, you can develop thousands of arrays.

Everyone knows this, but it's a great test of talent to really become a master of array.

Just like the five ancient sounds of Gong Shang's Jiao Zhengyu, even a child of three or four years old can master them. However, it's extremely difficult to really write music scores, and it's a master's skill to achieve the level of Flowing Clouds and flowing water.

"It turns out that this rhyme, seemingly complicated, is actually a method of basic research."

Ye Chen gazed at the words on the mountain, and combined with the residual will of Chongyang emperor Hong Chunqiu, he seemed to have a little understanding.

This formula of array characters is not to teach people how to arrange array, but to teach the most basic principle of array patterns. Analyzing the profound meaning of array patterns from the source is the best way to study the origin of array.

Ye Chen has the foundation of Bing Zi Jue and Dou Zi Jue, and the foundation of the previous array is very solid. If you look at that array of Zi Jue again, you will feel much simpler.

"It seems that it's not difficult to understand this formula."

Ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief and found a clue.

If you want to understand the formula of array characters, you need to understand the most basic principles of array and study the most basic rules of origin.

Once you have a solid foundation, you can start to make all kinds of fancy changes and create all kinds of dazzling arrays.

Even the Jiuding array, which is known as the most complex array in the world, evolved from the most basic array pattern.

Ye Chen silently realized that after two months, a bright golden light suddenly burst out in his body. The sky was illuminated when the golden light was shining. The eternal haze of Chongyang world was completely opened at this moment.

Outside, the ancestors of the three ethnic groups noticed the vision and flew in. Then they saw a magnificent scene.

But ye Chen saw three swords flying out of his body, which were the three heavenly swords of Longyuan, Huangmo and disaster.

These three heavenly swords burst out of light and burst out in the void, interweaving and shuttling with each other.

In the blink of an eye, the three swords soared into the sky, and the sword Qi turned into an array, forming a huge array of heavenly swords.

The core of the eye of the sky sword array is a huge dragon full of blood scales. It's the blood dragon!

The blood dragon sits in the center of the sword array and roars up to the sky. The sword array bursts, bursting out thousands of sword lights, floating in the sky, full of extremely sharp murderous spirit.

Chapter 6342

The sword light of thousands of ways, with the killing and cutting of Longyuan, Huangmo and disaster three swords, and the breath of three heavenly swords, is completely integrated!

You know, just a sword, the edge is already against the sky, cut everything, three sword formation fusion, the terrible edge, it is earth shaking.

The ancestors of the three ethnic groups retreated in horror, only to feel that they were being forced to chop them up.

Lin faming and Mo Qingxuan, the two ancestors, tremble and feel small. They are totally defeated by the three sword battle.

And Hong Beichen is also extremely nervous.

Although he can break the sword array of that day with his powerful strength, he will have to pay a great price.

"Do you really understand the formula of the array? He combined the three swords to form the supreme sword array. "

Hong Beichen's heart is shocked. The three heavenly swords are fused into an array. The breath is terrible.

The key point is that after the integration of the three swords, the sword spirit has resonated, but the soul of the old master has not emerged. It is obvious that ye Chen's array method has reached a very delicate level, and even suppressed the soul of the old master!

Shocked, Hong Beichen flies forward to the center of Chongyang world.

Ye Chen flies up, with golden light shining in his eyes, looking at Hong Beichen.

At the moment, ye Chen's breath has completely broken through compared with two months ago.

Before he went to Huaxia, was it really as simple as saving Huaxia?

no

China's blessing, as well as Qi all gather ye Chen!

Ye Chen has no doubt saved billions of people's lives. Such merits and virtues are enough to have a great influence on Cultivation and qi movement!

Ye Chen wants to break through, will also become much easier!

Now ye Chen's cultivation has reached the sixth heaven of the true realm!

Hong Beichen was so surprised that he said, "Lord of reincarnation, have you... Understood the formula of array characters?"

Ye Chen light a smile, lightly nods, way: "well, lucky comprehend, still broke through."

With the wonderful understanding of the formula of array words, ye Chen's cultivation completely changed and successfully reached the realm of six layers of heaven.

The magic of the formula of array words was also deeply imprinted in his heart.

The formula of array character is actually the secret of studying the origin of array. As long as we understand the origin, the mystery of Yin Yang, five elements, seven stars and eight trigrams, we can deduce infinite array.

Now, ye Chen, with the wisdom of the formula of array words, even combined the three swords and the imperial sword to form the great array of Heavenly Sword.

Three swords in one, the power is absolutely terrible, even in the face of Hong Beichen, ye Chen is not afraid of each other.

Each Sky Sword contains a wisp of the ghost of the old lord. If eight sky swords are unified, the ghost of the old lord can be revived.

When the Heavenly Sword resonates with the Heavenly Sword, the soul of the old lord will emerge, showing the sky shaking vision.

But now, ye Chen's three swords are in one, but there is no old weather.

This is because ye Chen has mastered the formula of the array and used the operation of the array to suppress the fluctuation of the soul of the old lord.

Hong Beichen was very shocked. A few days ago, in the blood demon mountains, he could beat Ye Chen to spit blood, but now, he can't hurt Ye Chen.

Ye Chen understands the formula of the array. If he really wants to fight, the two sides are equal. No one can help him. If he really wants to fight hard, he can't suppress Ye Chen any more.

Hong Beichen said in a trembling voice: "Lord of reincarnation, what kind of realm have you reached? May it be possible to decipher the nine tripod array of the ancient Yuhuang emperor

Ye Chen said: "master Hong, my cultivation of the formula of array words is slightly better than you, but it's very difficult to break the tripod and destroy the array."

At present, ye Chen's accomplishments have surpassed Hong Beichen's.

At least, he can make the three swords merge, but Hong Beichen can't.

However, it is still very difficult to crack the Jiuding formation and fight against wanxu's plot.

Yuhuanggudi's array attainments reach the peak. Ye Chen can't catch up with them. In a short time, it's impossible to break the Jiuding array.

Hong Beichen's face sank and said: "your cultivation of array has surpassed me, and you can't break the array?"

Ye Chen said with a smile: "where is the array of the ancient emperor Yuhuang so easy to break? Wait a minute. I need time to feel it. "

As soon as ye Chen understood the formula, he couldn't succeed immediately.

But, he has seen the hope, give him a little more time, he is sure to break.

Hong Beichen wants to say something more, but ye Chen rises against the wind and says, "I'll leave first, master Hong. Thank you for your chance."

With that, ye Chen leaves directly against the wind.

Hong Beichen stepped forward and said, "wait!"

He wants to call ye Chen, let Ye Chen help, repair Chongyang Tianzhu.

If Chongyang Tianzhu is well restored, Hong Beichen will have another card.

However, ye Chen didn't mean to stay at all. As he couldn't hear, he left directly.

He has guessed Hong Beichen's mind, but he doesn't want to help.

Because once the Chongyang Tianzhu is restored, Hong Beichen has enough chips in his hand, and is likely to rebel directly and take refuge in wanxu.

For the sake of this chip, the ancient emperor Yu Huang is likely to take him in, and the consequences will be unimaginable.

Now ye Chen still needs the help of Dixin temple to fight against wanxu together. Naturally, he can't watch them rebel.

Of course, in this process, ye Chen will be careful. If he finds that the other party has a rebellious mind, he will kill the other party at all costs to avoid future trouble.

After leaving Dixin temple, Xuelong asks Ye Chen, "master, where are we going now? Do you want to go to the eyes of the Jiuding array? "

Ye Chen said: "now is not the time to break the battle. I'll go back to Feng's home first. You can have a good rest."

The blood Dragon nodded slightly and hid himself in the Dragon sky sword to rest and practice.

Ye Chen carries the Longyuan Sky Sword and returns to the ancestral land of Fengjia.

Whoosh, whoosh

But when ye Chen just came back, he found that the wind house was full of snow and cold, and the vision was very amazing.

"Is Wei Ying going to break through?"

Ye Chen is surprised and catches Wei Ying's breath. Looking at the extremely cold vision full of wind and snow, Wei Ying seems to break through the hundred shackles!

If Wei Ying can really make a breakthrough, ye Chen will have an expert in baijiejing, and the situation will be much better.

Ye Chen landed in the ancestral land of the wind family, but looked at the people in the wind family. They were all very nervous waiting.

After all, the master of baijiejing is extremely powerful. Whether Wei Ying can break through is very important.

"I've been to Dixin temple for two months. Wei Ying hasn't finished her breakthrough yet. It's a bit strange. Shouldn't there be any accident?"

Ye Chen brow lock, looking at the sky absolutely cold vision, more and more feel wrong.

Two months ago, Wei Ying made a breakthrough. Now two months have passed, and her breakthrough is not over.

Although it's hard to break through the shackles, there's no reason for it to last two months. After all, Wei Ying has the support of his reincarnation blood. Even if it's a failure, it's time to end. How can it last so long?

Chapter 6343

When ye Chen comes to the courtyard where Wei Ying lives, he sees the sisters of the wind family, fengyouli and fengyouyue, with some elders of the wind family guarding them silently.

"Lord, you are back."

When the wind sisters see ye Chen's return, they immediately kneel down to greet him.

"Get up, Wei Ying. What's wrong with her?"

Ye Chen quickly raises the wind family sisters and asks.

Feng's sisters said: "Miss Wei has been chopping off the shackles since two months ago, but now two months have passed, and it's not over. It's hard to know whether it's good or bad. But with the protection of your reincarnation blood, you must be OK."

Ye Chen Mou son one coagulates, sink a voice way: "hope so."

He was a little worried, but he couldn't be disturbed by the breakthrough, so he and the wind sisters were waiting outside the courtyard.

Three days later, there was a sudden explosion in the yard. A huge snow column rose into the sky. The cold air was raging and the cold wind was blowing. The disaster weather was extremely fierce.

"Something's wrong!"

Ye Chen's eye pupil shrinks, his heart thumps, and suddenly rushes into the yard. The wind sisters also follow up in a hurry.

But deep in the courtyard, Wei Yingjiao fell to the ground, with blood flowing from the corners of her mouth, her face as pale as paper, and her breath was very weak.

"Wei Ying, what's the matter with you?"

Ye Chen runs in a hurry, hugs Wei Ying, but feels that her delicate body is cold, like frost and snow.

Wei Ying slightly opened her eyes and saw Ye Chen. She gasped and said, "Ye Chen, I'm so cold. Hold me tight."

Ye Chen nods and hugs Wei Ying tightly.

Wei Ying also holds Ye Chen tightly, shivering, as if eager to melt her body into Ye Chen's chest for warmth.

"You go out first."

Ye Chen looked back at the wind family sisters and said.

"Yes, Lord."

The sisters of the wind family turned and left with uneasy mood.

After the wind sisters leave, ye Chen unties Wei Ying's clothes and presses her palm on her heart. The eight trigrams heaven elixir works and instills a ray of aura into her.

However, Wei Ying's face is still pale. Ye Chen's eight trigrams heaven elixir skill, the aura can't penetrate into it and spreads out.

"No, i... I need your blood."

Wei Ying gasps and looks at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen nodded, immediately took Wei Ying in his arms and went back to the room. He took off all the camouflage of the two and attached their bodies to each other, giving her the power of reincarnation.

Wei Ying gets nourishment from ye Chen's blood, and her face recovers a little ruddy.

"What's the matter with you? Have you failed?"

Ye Chen stroked Wei Ying's hair and asked softly.

Wei Ying bit her lip, her eyes turned red slightly, and said: "failed, the thousand cold jade meteorite crystal is strange."

Ye Chen heart a Lin, way: "what strange?"

Wei Ying thought for a moment, then said: "there is a evil idea of resentment in the crystal stone. I was almost engulfed by resentment. Fortunately, with the help of your reincarnation blood, I finally protected my mind, but I also failed to chop flail."

"Hate the soul, evil thoughts?"

Ye Chen suddenly froze, this thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, is Zhen Yuan demon Zun to give him a gift, was it done?

Wei Ying said, "where did you get that crystal stone?"

She naturally believed that ye Chen would not harm her, but there was something wrong with that thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, which almost killed her. Naturally, there was something strange behind it.

"It's Zhenyuan yaozun! Damn, that traitor, I should have known that he is not a good man

Ye Chen suddenly furious, found himself cheated.

Zhenyuan demon Zun is a strong man in the second level heaven of Baiji realm. He hides his mind so well that he hides it from ye Chen.

That Zhen Yuan demon Zun, in the thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, secretly buried a grudge soul evil idea, is actually buried thunder, want to harm Ye Chen.

Once Ye Chen absorbs thousands of cold jade meteorite crystals, the evil idea of complaining soul will break out and pollute the ten thousand demon immortal pool.

In this way, ye Chen lost a card, Zhen Yuan demon respect no longer worry, can completely rest assured.

However, Zhenyuan demon Zun did not expect that ye Chen gave this crystal to Wei Ying.

Now, ye Chen has not been hurt, but Wei Ying, who has been attacked by qianhanyu meteorite crystal.

"Damn it! That traitor! I should have killed him

Ye Chen's forehead is full of rage.

Fortunately, he came back in time. Wei Ying got nourishment from his reincarnation blood, and nothing happened.

Thinking of the despicable means of Zhenyuan demon Zun, ye Chen is very angry.

If ordinary people want to deceive Ye Chen, it's hard to go up to heaven. However, the demon Zun of Zhenyuan, because he is a strong man in Baiji realm, has already cut off the shackles of martial arts. He is very skillful in hiding the secrets of heaven, so he deceives Ye Chen's eyes and ears and gives him a hard hand.

"Ye Chen, who gave you that thousand cold jade meteorite crystal?"

Wei Ying was curious and asked.

"It's a traitor named Zhenyuan yaozun. If he dares to hurt you, I will kill him all over the house!"

Ye Chen's knuckles are creaking. He hasn't been so angry for a long time.

Wei Ying was worried and said, "what kind of cultivation can Zhenyuan demon respect? Can you defeat him?"

Ye Chen said: "the two-tier heaven of Baiji realm is not low in cultivation, but I have a magic weapon to kill him. Rest assured and I'll take revenge for you!"

The ten thousand demon immortal pool is in Ye Chen's hands. With the power of the ten thousand demon immortal pool, ye Chen is enough to kill Zhenyuan demon Zun.

Moreover, he has already understood the formula of array words. Even if he doesn't use Wanyao Xianchi, the formula of array words will be enough to kill Zhenyuan yaozun.

Ye Chen puts down Wei Ying, full of red fury, ready to go to Zhenyuan hall.

Wei Ying took Ye Chen's hand and said, "don't be impulsive. It's better to consider revenge in the long run."

Ye Chen looked back and saw that Wei Ying was still haggard and pale. He was angry and said, "I can't wait for a quarter of an hour. You have a good rest and wait for me to come back!"

With that, ye Chen gently strokes Wei Ying's cheek, kisses her on the forehead, and then leaves the room, ready to go to Zhenyuan hall.

"Lord, where are you going?"

Wind family sisters see ye Chen to go, suddenly surprised.

"I'll go out. Take care of Wei Ying for me."

Ye Chen orders to go down, then tears the void and rushes to Zhenyuan hall.

.....

Boom!

The next moment, over the Zhenyuan hall, a burst of thunder concussion, Fairy Spirit evil spirit spray thin.

Wisps of enchantment with the wonderful implication of immortals float in the sky, and the infinite aura converges, and finally turns into a huge pool, just like the celestial immortal pool, suspended in the sky above Zhenyuan hall.

"This is... Wanyao Xianchi?"

"The Lord of reincarnation has disappeared for such a long time, but has he come back?"

"What does he want to do?"

In the gate of Zhenyuan hall, many demon disciples, Dharma protectors, elders, looking at the immortal pool floating in the sky, all showed a look of terror.

Chapter 6344

The legendary ten thousand demon immortal pool has a strong restraint on the demon clan. Looking at the lingering immortal spirit, all the demon clan disciples felt a burst of fear.

WOW!

Golden light.

A young man in gold armor emerged from the pool of ten thousand demon immortals.

That youth is Ye Chen!

At this time, ye Chen opened the pulse of red dust God, all over the golden awn burst, Ruixia wanzhang, golden armor draped, eyes full of boiling anger and war.

"Where is Zhenyuan demon? Get out and die

Ye Chen glares at the bottom and drinks violently. The water of the ten thousand demon immortal pool is pouring down like a waterfall.

Whoa, whoa, whoa.

Wisps of spirit water from the ten thousand demon immortal pool poured into the Mountain Gate of Zhenyuan hall. Many demon disciples were suddenly attacked and killed by the ten thousand demon immortal pool, and their bodies hissed as if they were contaminated with putrescine poison. Their skin and flesh were smoking, and their bones were burned black.

At this moment, the Banshee pool's restraining effect on the demons shows. When ye Chen urges it, the spirit of the Banshee pool erupts. As long as the demons are contaminated with a little water vapor, they will suffer from the pain of decaying bones and eating hearts.

Some of the elders who are slightly stronger in cultivation fly up in fear to avoid the attack of the ten thousand demon immortal pool. They have a look of amazement in their eyes. They didn't expect that ye Chen would kill them.

"The Lord of reincarnation, this is..."

There is a demon clan elder who wants to ask questions, but suddenly a "Puff Chi" sound, a sword light flashed, his head flying high, has been cut off.

In Ye Chen's hand, the wild demon sword clenches tightly. Under the infusion of the spirit of the ten thousand demon immortal pool, the evil spirit and the evil spirit on the sword fuse and burst out an almost chaotic ferocity. Killing is like cutting grass.

The whole court demon clan is greatly frightened, frightened to retreat, but dare not face Ye Chen's edge directly.

Now ye Chen's cultivation, on the surface, although there are only six levels of heaven in the real realm, the actual combat effectiveness can kill the strong one in the baiji realm. In the territory of Zhenyuan hall, it is almost invincible.

"Lord of reincarnation, the hundred day appointment hasn't arrived yet. What are you doing here so soon?"

At this time, a heavy and indifferent voice sounded.

But he saw the body of Zhenyuan demon Zun flying out of the inner hall, and saw that the mountain gate was destroyed by the ten thousand demon immortal pool. He suddenly changed his face and said, "didn't you say you wouldn't use the ten thousand demon immortal pool? Are you going to break your promise? "

Ye Chen see Zhen Yuan demon Zun appear, immediately angry, way: "you still have face in front of me bark? Die for me

Having said that, ye Chen urges ten thousand demon immortal pool, a fine awn shoots out, is about to kill Zhen Yuan demon Zun.

Wanyao Xianchi is the birthplace of Zhenyuan yaozun, which contains his original life and fortune. As long as ye Chen is close to him, he can be killed with a little urge.

Now, the distance between Ye Chen and Zhenyuan demon Zun is close enough, he can feel each other's lifeblood.

The fine awn shot from the ten thousand demon immortal pool is as fierce as the sky sword. It kills the void and points directly at the heart of Zhenyuan demon Zun.

The demon Zun of Zhenyuan was shocked and pale. He quickly stepped back and made a magic power of heaven and earth. His body soared and turned into a giant God. His skin and muscles were as black as iron and as majestic as mountains. Nine skeleton beads appeared on his neck, and each bead was shining with demon spirit.

Whoa!

Ten thousand demon fairy pool's Jing Mang, shoots to kill in the past, will a skeleton bead son puncture, but can't kill Zhen Yuan demon Zun.

"Hehe, is there any card left?"

Ye Chen's vision one coagulates, also saw a clue.

Each of the nine skull beads carries the aura of the Mountain Gate of Zhenyuan palace.

In the past 100 days, ye Chen first went to Xuyuan fairyland, then went back to China, and finally went to Dixin temple to learn the formula of array. However, Zhenyuan demon Zun was not idle. He knew that Wanyao immortal pool was too powerful, so he made preparations in advance.

He emptied the aura of the whole Zhenyuan hall and refined it into nine skeleton beads.

Each of these nine skeleton beads can resist the attack of ten thousand demon immortal pool once. The price is that after the beads are broken, the aura of the earth will dissipate, and the Mountain Gate of Zhenyuan hall will also be involved.

Boom!

Deep in the gate of Zhenyuan palace, there are many palaces, Lingshan mountains, which collapse and destroy in an instant. However, after the skeleton beads are broken, the aura of the earth is dissipated, leading to the collapse of the earth plate, the collapse of the mountains, the flying of rocks and dust, and the scene is magnificent.

"Lord of reincarnation, do you really want to break your promise and tear your skin?"

Zhenyuan demon Zun's face was very ugly. Wanyao Xianchi restrained him. If all the earth vein beads on his neck were destroyed, it was his death time.

"Ha ha ha, you've done something on the thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, and have the face to ask me?"

Ye Chen looks up to the sky and laughs in anger.

That thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, causes Wei Ying to break through the failure, almost goes mad, if it is not ye Chen to rush back in time, the consequence is unimaginable.

Zhenyuan demon Zun's plot was broken, and his pupils suddenly shrank, saying: "you... How are you ok?"

He is in that thousand cold jade meteorite crystal, really moved a foot, but see ye Chen's appearance, Hun if have no matter, obviously have not been bite back.

Ye Chen snorted, but no nonsense, said: "traitor, you dare to entrap me, I want you to take life to fill!"

"Douzijue, I've suppressed it!"

A violent drink, leaf Chen left hand wave palm to clap, fighting spirit erupts.

At this time, he was in a rage, and his fighting spirit broke out in terror. The God of fighting beads came out from the top of his head, humming and resonating with his own aura, and his fighting spirit soared thousands of times.

Ye Chen's body also soared and turned into a towering height. The ancient Doudi's battle robe was added and lined with gold armor. It was as sharp as a God and as vast as heaven. He slapped Zhenyuan yaozun's head with a fierce slap.

Ye Chen and Zhenyuan demon Zun, just like two giant gods, confront each other under the sky. The scene is very shocking. Other demon disciples are shocked to see such a spectacular scene.

Zhen Yuan demon respect see ye Chen a palm clap, immediately startled Mo shape.

At this moment, ye Chen didn't borrow ten thousand demon immortal pool, but relying on his own martial arts power, wanted to kill him.

"How can this boy's martial arts be so terrible?"

Zhenyuan demon Zun was completely flustered. In less than a hundred days, ye Chen's martial arts advanced by leaps and bounds, much more powerful than before.

This fight day a palm blast to kill to come over, he hall hundred flail realm two layer sky of strong person, incredibly have a kind of suffocation of felling.

You know, ye Chen's cultivation is only six layers of heaven.

"Zhenyuan split empty palm!"

Zhenyuan demon Zun didn't dare to be careless. He took a deep breath, and all the auras gathered together, and bravely attacked with one palm.

Bang!

Two palms collide.

A terrible wave of air burst out from the center of the collision. The surrounding space rules burst one by one, and the sky seemed to be broken. The demon disciples below vomited blood, but they were implicated by the palm wind on the spot and were seriously injured.

Ye Chen and Zhen Yuan demon Zun, two palms meet, gas like a landslide.

Chapter 6345

The two faced each other, but now they were equal.

"Xiaochonglou sword Qi, broken!"

And at this juncture of confrontation, ye Chen eyes a cold, right hand wild demon sword suddenly stab out, straight at the heart of Zhen Yuan demon respect.

"No!"

Zhenyuan demon respect big fright, this one to touch, he is already exerting all one's strength, which think ye Chen unexpectedly still has spare strength to give sword.

In fact, the sword was not so sharp, but Zhenyuan demon Zun could not resist it.

Ye Chen's progress is too fast. In less than 100 days, he has made great progress.

Now Zhenyuan demon Zun is no longer Ye Chen's enemy.

At the critical moment of life and death, Zhenyuan demon Zun can only abandon the body, and the spirit floats out of the body.

Whoa!

Ye Chen a sword assassinates in the past, straight through the heart of Zhen Yuan demon Zun, kill his body.

Bang!

The huge body, which is ten thousand feet high, shrinks in an instant, and finally falls to the ground, arousing the smoke and dust all over the sky.

"Ha ha, it's very fast."

Ye Chen sneered and looked up at the sky, but saw the spirit of Zhenyuan demon Zun, occupying the sky, vast and remote, like thick haze, blocking the sky.

If just now, Zhen Yuan demon Zun moves more slowly, he even the spirit will be killed by Ye Chen.

"Lord demon!"

All the people in Zhenyuan hall were so scared that they turned pale when they saw that Zhenyuan demon Zun's body had been destroyed. They didn't expect that ye Chen's martial arts were so powerful.

In the state of not borrowing ten thousand demon immortal pool, ye Chen has the ability to kill Zhenyuan demon Zun.

"Reincarnation Lord, it's really amazing. But it's not so easy for you to kill me. Let's die together!"

Zhenyuan demon worships the spirit of heaven, a pair of blood red eyes, constantly flashing fierce awn, the storm between heaven and earth, roaring.

"Blood essence of all demons, gather me, Zhenyuan blood array, rise!"

Zhenyuan demon Zun holds the sky in both hands, and a terrible scene happens. However, on the ground, many demon disciples burst, and the blood in their bodies is extracted by an invisible force and rises to the sky.

Ye Chen looked around and saw that the blood of the demon disciples was drained and turned into dead bodies.

And their blood power, led to the sky, gathered in the hands of Zhenyuan demon Zun, gradually formed a terrible blood array.

This is Zhenyuan yaozun's desperate means!

At the cost of the whole Zhenyuan hall and the blood of all the demon disciples, set up a blood array to burn with Ye Chen!

Click, click, click!

In the hands of Zhenyuan demon Zun, the skeleton beads are broken.

All the remaining earth veins were sacrificed by him. He knew that reincarnation was too powerful. He had to pay a price if he wanted to win.

Boom!

With the sacrifice of earth vein beads, the whole gate of Zhenyuan hall was completely destroyed, and all palaces, pavilions, forests, waterfalls, mountains and Lingfeng were turned into ruins.

Over the ruins, the sky was overcast.

Under the haze, it is a vast bloody battle!

This Zhenyuan blood array gathers the blood of all the disciples of Zhenyuan hall, as well as the energy of the spirit of the earth. Once the array is formed, even ye Chen can't resist it.

"Do you want to end the battle? Did you ask me? "

Ye Chen's eyes suddenly sharp, a sword against the sky, sword Qi to the Zhen Yuan blood array of Lu Cun star.

This Zhenyuan blood array contains the wonderful changes of seven stars and eight gates.

The so-called seven stars are the greedy wolf, jumen, Lucun, Wenqu and so on. Among them, the greedy wolf is the main killer, the jumen is the master of good or bad luck, the Wenqu is the master of wisdom, the Lianzhen is the master of peach blossom and so on. The profound meaning of each star is different. The seven stars are reversed and disordered, and can evolve into ten thousand arrays.

Zhenyuan blood array is formed by essence and blood. Among the seven stars, Lu Cun is the master of blood longevity.

Ye Chen's sword is cutting to nalucun star position to break the battle.

"What! How can you see through my eyes? "

Zhenyuan demon Zun was shocked. Nalucun star position is the core of his array.

The Zhenyuan blood array is composed of layers of patterns, with seven stars and eight gates changing endlessly. Many stars are moving like stars in the sky, which is dazzling. But ye Chen's sword actually aims at the core of the array. The thousands of dazzling patterns don't cover his sight.

"You... You've become the nine heaven magic, the formula of array character!"

Zhenyuan demon Zun's pupils contract violently, and finally finds that ye Chen's body is filled with a breath of ancient vastness.

That's the breath of the nine heaven divine skill, the Brahma divine skill array formula!

The formula of array character represents the best array secret skill of all heavens. As long as you master the formula of array character, you can promote all the arrays in the world!

At this time, ye Chen had already practiced the formula of array words, and he even surpassed Hong Beichen in terms of array attainments!

Zhenyuan demon Zun just took a look at the blood array. He immediately had a clear insight into all the details, and instantly saw through the core of the array.

Whoa!

Ye Chen's sword goes against it, and it's right on the eye of Zhenyuan blood array.

Hum!

The whole Zhenyuan blood array vibrated violently. The eyes of the array were instantly cut and the lines of the array cracked. Then the whole blood array collapsed and the blood burst out. The sky was stained with blood, and even the clouds and haze were stained with blood.

"Puff!"

When the array was broken, the spirit of Zhenyuan demon Zun was also attacked, spitting out a breath of black air, and his body fell from the air. The spirit spread like a messy mist on the ground.

"Die for me!"

Ye Chen's body soared up into the sky. With a wave of his hand, his Qi and blood gathered all over the sky and evolved into an array again.

This array is the Zhenyuan blood array!

The blood formation of Zhenyuan, which had just been broken up, was condensed again under Ye Chen's formula.

"No... impossible..."

Zhenyuan demon Zun's eyes were wide open, staring at the blood array floating in the sky.

He studied the Zhenyuan blood array for thousands of years before he finally created it. But ye Chen learned the array and rearranged it when he was breathing.

Take that way and give it back!

Exactly speaking, ye Chen is not learning, but deducing!

Depending on the formula of array words, he can deduce any array once he has a look at it, remove the turnip and save the turnip, and change the original defects of the array into a more perfect one.

Now ye Chen's blood formation is much more perfect than the one that Zhen Yuan demon Zun used by himself.

This is the strength of the formula!

Although Ye Chen's current array attainments can't solve the great array of the yuhuanggudi, it's very easy to crack a Zhenyuan blood array.

"Zhenyuan blood array, kill it for me!"

Ye Chen a burst to drink, the palm empty suppress go down.

The Zhenyuan blood formation, like a scarlet millstone, thundered down from the sky.

"No!"

Zhenyuan demon Zun roared at his death, full of despair and unwillingness.

But under the crush of Ye Chen's formula, he has no resistance.

Chapter 6346

Boom!

The blood array like a millstone fell to the ground.

Tens of miles around the earth, was directly crushed to collapse.

The spirit of Zhenyuan demon Zun was also ground by the blood array and completely destroyed and died.

"The traitor is dead."

Ye Chen saw the destruction of the spirit of Zhenyuan demon Zun, and was immediately relieved.

"Master, your strength is too strong. You can kill the strong man in the second heaven of Baiji realm!"

The blood dragon let out a exclamation.

In this battle, ye Chen did not rely on ten thousand demon immortal pool, but on his own martial strength to kill Zhenyuan demon Zun.

You know, Zhenyuan demon Zun is the strong one in the second heaven of Baiji realm!

Ye Chen's martial arts breakthrough progress is too fast, now he, if face xuanjiyue and Emperor Shitian again, don't need a lot of moves to kill them, but these two people's luck and cards are unknown, if all play, it can't be absolute.

But before, it was something I could never imagine.

But now ye Chen has achieved this.

"This strength is far from enough in the face of wanxu."

Ye Chen shook his head, not complacent.

Now, with his strength, he can kill the strong one in the world.

In the face of a strong man in the second tier sky, he can break out at the top and kill him in a fierce battle.

However, the second heaven of Baijia realm is not necessarily exactly like Zhenyuan demon Zun, or even stronger than him.

However, in the center of the earth, ye Chen will not be defeated even if he is faced with the three-tier heaven of the hundred yoke realm, like Hong Beichen.

The level of Hong Beichen can't kill him. It can be seen how powerful Ye Chen is.

But this strength, in the face of wanxu, in the face of yuhuanggudi, is far from enough.

Once Jiuding Town days, Yuhuang personally, let alone Ye Chen, Ren extraordinary will die.

"Cleaning up the door is over. It's time to go to the blood demon mountains."

Ye Chen's eyes are fixed, and he doesn't think too much. Now Zhenyuan demon Zun is dead, and the traitors of the blood demon clan have been removed. It's time to go to the blood demon mountains.

At the moment, ye Chen first sends a letter to Feng's family to tell Wei Ying that her enemies have been removed, so that she can rest assured and cultivate.

Then, ye Chen flew to the blood demon mountain.

After a while, ye Chen came to the blood demon mountains.

"See the Lord of reincarnation!"

"How are you, Lord Ye."

The strong man guarding the blood demon mountain, seeing ye Chen coming, immediately bows to salute, and his attitude is extremely humble.

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I want to see Hongxia fairy."

The strong guard opened the mountain gate and asked respectfully, "Lord Ye, please come in. I haven't seen you for a long time, and my ancestors miss you day and night."

Ye Chen thinks of the charming posture of Hongxia fairy, and his mind can't help shaking slightly. He thinks that he has stepped into the blood demon mountain range, which has been affected by her Qi. If his mind is negligent, he may fall under her skirt.

Calm down, ye Chen steps into the blood demon mountain range.

Nine destroy demon emperor to come out to greet, way: "leaf adult, please."

Later, he took Ye Chen to a house where Hongxia fairy lived.

The place where Hongxia fairy lives is called Hongxia Yazhu. It was built in a quiet place in the blood demon mountain range, far away from the ancient demon temple.

Jiumie demon emperor led Ye Chen in and said to Yazhu in a respectful voice: "Laozu, Lord Ye is here."

"Well, I see. You can step back."

In Yazhu, a lazy and indifferent voice came out.

"Yes."

Nine destroy demon emperor respectfully turn back.

Ye Chen waited at the door for a while. Yazhu's door opened, and the red haze fairy lotus step moved gently. She came out with a smile in her eyes.

"Long time no see."

Hongxia fairy looked at Ye Chen with a smile. She walked up with no scruples. She stood on tiptoe and hooked Ye Chen's neck. She breathed like a orchid. Her soft body also stuck to her. She wanted to melt into Ye Chen's chest.

Ye Chen knows that she is a demon girl's nature. It's useless to charm her. She has to let her go and say, "long time no see. Can you stay away from me?"

"I won't eat you again," she said with a smile

After a pause, he said, "have you practiced the formula of array? Can you think of a way to break out? "

The nine tripod array is too terrible. Once it is successfully arranged and the emperor comes, the blood demon clan will be destroyed.

Ye Chen said: "I've already practiced the formula of array characters, but it will take some time to crack the array of wanxu."

He was so close to Hongxia fairy that his body was almost close to each other. When they spoke, their lips were indistinct, which made his mind turbulent.

The red haze fairy laughed and seemed to enjoy it. She said, "I believe that your strength can break the Jiuding array. If you fail, the ancestors of wanxu will come in person. It's good for us to die together."

Ye Chen dumbfounded, said: "don't talk nonsense, I come here this time, is to tell you, I have killed Zhenyuan demon Zun, successfully clean up the door, cause and effect is the end."

Hongxia fairy smile, but not surprised, she believes that ye Chen's strength, is absolutely strong, can kill Zhen Yuan demon Zun, also in reason.

"Yes? Thank you very much. The traitor has been removed. If my uncle knows, he will be very happy. "

Say, the red rosy cloud fairy son kisses a mouthful on the lips of leaf Chen, seem to be a reward general.

Ye Chen heart beat for a while, but steady heart, not be moved, way: "next you plan how?"

Listen to Ye Chen's inquiry, but Hongxia fairy is silent, willow eyebrow light wrinkle, seem to be thinking.

She loosens the arms that hook Ye Chen's neck, the face is fair, the eyebrow also has the meaning of fear and worry.

After all, Wan Hui's plan is too terrible. The future of life and death in the earth's heart is all gambled in this game.

Joking belongs to joking. In the face of the future fate, she is also extremely dignified.

"The key to this game is not me, but you."

After thinking for a while, Hongxia fairy seems to have a decision, staring at yechen road.

"Me?"

Ye Chen looks at her curiously.

Hongxia fairy said, "do you have three heavenly swords?"

Ye Chen said: "yes, Longyuan, Huangmo and disaster are all in my hands."

Hongxia fairy nodded and said: "that's good. Tianjian is extremely sharp, which is also the key to break the game. Although holding the three swords, Kendo is not strong enough to give full play to the real power of Tianjian. I want you to meet a man who has the highest attainments in kendo. If you get his advice, maybe you can improve your chances against Jiuding array and wanxu."

Ye Chen said with a smile: "after I have practiced the formula of array, the three swords have normalized the array, and the sword killing is against heaven. Can anyone else in the earth's heart tell me? It's impossible. "

Hongxia fairy slightly surprised, said: "you have been able to gather three swords?"

The unity of three swords is much more powerful than the combination of two swords. If ye Chen can really do it, it's absolutely terrible.

Chapter 6347

Ye Chen said, "well, let me compete with you. You can see my Kendo level first."

After thinking for a while, the red haze fairy said, "well, I'd like to see how your Kendo compares with Shifang Jiansheng."

"Ten swordsmen?"

Ye Chen hears this name, but very strange, have never heard before.

Hongxia fairy said: "exactly, Shifang Jiansheng was the first person of Kendo in the past. In terms of Kendo alone, the whole Kendo is the best. I want you to meet him. If you get his advice, your Kendo will break through."

Ye Chen said: "let's have a competition first. I ask myself that Kendo is not inferior to others. The ten swordsmen may not be able to match me."

After that, ye Chen waves his hand, and the three heavenly swords, Longyuan Heavenly Sword, Huangmo Heavenly Sword, and disaster Heavenly Sword, rush up into the sky and burst out a vast sword spirit.

"The formula of array word, three swords return to one!"

Ye Chen a pinch Jue, three sword normalization array, a huge sword array, emerged in the sky.

This sword array, with Longyuan Epee as the core, is divided into two parts: the wild and evil disasters. The murderous spirit of the three swords resonates with each other, but they are quite different and do not invade each other.

Dragon shaped sword Qi, demon Dao sword Qi, disaster sword Qi, light and shadow, changed into thousands of sword light, and finally evolved into a mighty sword array. The glory of the sword reflected in the sky, as if it was going to kill all the sky. Its momentum was fierce to the extreme.

"The combination of the three swords didn't cause the disaster of the past. The formula of the array is really wonderful."

Seeing this scene, Hongxia fairy nodded in approval.

In the supreme Heavenly Sword, there is the ghost of the old lord. Once the Heavenly Sword converges, the ghost will change. Once the soul of the old lord is drawn out, the disaster will be extremely huge. Even if it does not cause the killing intention of the supreme world, it may also lead to the thunder punishment.

Because the soul of the old lord belongs to the old times, which is not allowed in today's world. Once it emerges, the punishment of thunder will come at any time, which is the punishment of heaven.

However, the normalization of Ye Chen's three swords didn't cause disaster. Obviously, the negative influence of sword Qi resonance was defused skillfully by relying on the formula of array words.

"Sansheng wanjian, fall!"

Ye Chen waved his hand. That day, the sword was in a big formation. The three swords turned into ten million sword Qi. Brush fell suddenly from the sky and chopped to Hongxia fairy.

Because it's a duel, ye Chen didn't use all his strength. He only used 30% of his strength. He didn't even summon the blood dragon.

But even so, the power of that day's sword formation was quite terrible. Ten million sword Qi was used to kill, which was even more terrible than the formula of killing heaven.

"Good!"

Seeing the power of Ye Chen's sword, Hongxia fairy exclaimed and turned into a blood awn. She rushed directly into the thousands of sword lights.

Whoa, whoa, whoa!

Thousands of swords were strangled, but Hongxia fairy, like a phantom, shuttled through the swords without being hurt at all. During the shuttling of the phantom, the swords were crushed by her and turned into nothingness.

Ye Chen saw the magic power of the red haze fairy and nodded slightly.

The strength of Hongxia fairy is comparable to that of Hong Beichen. At present, she also has three-tier cultivation in Baiji realm, which is really powerful.

His sword array, if only 30% of the strength, obviously can't hurt her.

Wuwuwu——

The mirage of Hongxia fairy moves faster and faster. It rolls up a strong wind, and finally annihilates the light and shadow of Ye Chen's sword array.

At the end of the contest, ye Chen took back the sword, stepped forward and asked, "how is my Kendo?"

The red haze fairy smiles slightly, goes forward to hold Ye Chen's hand, the soft body pastes to come over again, enchantment such as silk way: "it seems that you are still pitying fragrance and jade, reluctant to hurt me, not with all one's strength."

Ye Chen can't cry and smile: "if you use all your strength, it's not a duel."

Hongxia fairy said with a smile: "no matter how, you still cherish me, you have me in your heart, I am very happy."

Ye Chen says helplessly: "don't say this, how can my Kendo compare with Shifang sword sage?"

Hearing this, Hongxia Fairy "hissed" and said with a smile: "it's a far cry. It can be said that it's a world of difference. The rotten grass glows, and the heart of heaven is bright. It can't be compared at all."

"Even if you practice with me now, and take me as the cauldron stove to pick and mend, you can't compare with the ten swordsmen if you improve ten times."

Ye Chen is greatly surprised, completely some unexpectedly, way: "that ten square sword Saint what origin?"? Is Kendo really so powerful? "

Ye Chen's swordsmanship and martial arts can be regarded as against heaven, but in the mouth of Hongxia fairy, it seems that these ten swordsmen are born for swords!

The red haze fairy approached Ye Chen. Her chest trembled and flattered her. She said, "as I said, Shifang Jiansheng was the most powerful swordsman in the heart of the earth. Kendo has reached its peak. In terms of Kendo alone, even many supreme heavenly kings are not his enemies."

"Do you know jianshichendi? In fact, the maker of jianshichendi is not as good as Shifang Jiansheng. Even Shifang Jiansheng and jianshichendi have some causal contamination."

Ye Chen startled: "even the superior can't compare with him? What kind of Kendo does the ten swordsmen build? "

Hongxia fairy said: "what he practices is Hongjun sword."

"Hongjun Kendo?"

Ye Chen heart a Lin, suddenly thought of the decision of the Lord's plan.

The judge wants to create a sword beyond reincarnation, and the name of the sword is "Hongjun"!

Hongxia fairy said, "have you heard the mystery of Hongjun? In fact, the word "Hongjun" is not his name, but has existed for a long time. "

"Hong is the ancient Hongmeng, representing the most primitive and chaotic atmosphere."

"Jun, on the other hand, is thunderous and powerful, representing the most powerful force in the world."

"The word Hongjun is the embodiment of chaos, primitive and domineering. It is said that there was once a legendary figure in heaven and earth, that is, Hongjun ancestor, who was in charge of the most primitive and domineering energy in heaven and earth."

Ye Chen stayed for a while and whispered: "old Hongjun?"

The red haze fairy nodded and said, "yes, the nine heavenly gods were created by Hongjun's ancestors."

Ye Chen head "boom" a, such as by lightning general, way: "what do you say, nine days God art is this Hongjun ancestor created?"

Hongxia fairy said, "it's true that the origin of Hongjun's ancestors can't be verified. It's said that his age is even longer than the old days. He created nine heaven divinities, such as daqianchonglou palm, xihuangleyin, Dragon God's formula for breaking heaven, God's formula for destroying heaven, nine heaven holding pujue, etc., all of which were created by him."

Jiutian Shenshu is the top of the nine Supreme sources, representing the highest power in the world. Ye Chen never thought that Jiutian Shenshu originated from one person.

And this man is the ancestor of Hongjun!

If you carry one of them out, you will be able to dominate the heavens. If you practice it, you will be able to change your life against heaven.

Chapter 6348

"The supreme powers of the nine gates are all created by one person. How terrible is the power of the great grandparent Hongjun? He can create the nine heavenly powers. Should his cultivation be nothing?"

Ye Chen heart incomparable shock, can't believe.

At present, the great perfection of cultivation in this world has been achieved by the ancient emperor Yuhuang. Further, it is the realm of nothingness. No one in the world has ever touched nothingness.

Since Hongjun's ancestors were able to create the nine heavenly gods, their accomplishments would not be inferior to those of the ancient emperor Yuhuang. In this case, is it not a strong man of no rank?

Hongxia fairy shook her head and said, "in fact, it's just a legend. No one can confirm it. Whether Hongjun ancestor exists or not is possible."

Ye Chen said: "if it really exists, it's too terrible. One person has created the nine heavenly gods, even the ancient emperor can't do it."

Hongxia fairy said: "the legend of Hongjun's ancestor is too long to be verified."

Ye Chen said: "what's the matter with Hongjun Kendo? The ten swordsmen got the true biography of Hongjun's ancestor? "

Hongxia fairy shook her head and said, "no, the legend of Hongjun's ancestor is so mysterious. It's a long time ago. It's even more distant than the past. How can there be true descendants?"

Ye Chen said, "what's going on?"

Hongxia fairy said: "among the thirty-three supreme deities, it is said that there are seven pieces made by Hongjun's ancestors, which are called " Hongjun's seven treasures ". The ten swordsmen got one of the treasures, which contains Hongjun's true understanding of swordsmanship. He understood this true understanding of swordsmanship, so he became the first swordsman in the world

Ye Chen startled: "what, that Hongjun ancestor even participated in the casting of the supreme artifact?"

According to the legend, there are thirty-three pieces of the supreme artifact of the thirty-three days, each of which is extremely powerful. For example, ye Chen has seen the ten Heavenly pearls and four immortal pools, but he did not expect that there were "Hongjun seven treasures", which were made by Hongjun's ancestors.

If this Hongjun ancestor really existed, it would be terrible. One person created nine heavenly magic weapons and seven supreme artifacts.

The ten swordsman, who got the treasure of Hongjun and understood the true understanding of Hongjun's swordsmanship, was actually the descendant of Hongjun's ancestor.

The strength of Hongjun's ancestors is so terrible. The ten swordsmen have got the true biography of Hongjun's swordsmanship. You can imagine the details.

Ye Chen's heart was pounding, but he also wanted to meet the ten swordsmen.

Red haze fairy eyebrows curved, said with a smile: "how, your heart?"

Ye Chen said: "where is the ten swordsman? Of course, I want to see such a person. "

Hongxia fairy said: "the ten swordsman is a hermit. When the war between Terran and blood demon broke out, I wanted to ask him to do it, but he refused to go out of the mountain. You are the Lord of reincarnation. Maybe your blood can attract his attention. You can try it."

With that, Hongxia fairy took out a Fu Zhao and handed it to Ye Chen

"The ten sword Saints live in seclusion in Qiankun peak. This is the address of Qiankun peak. There are some secret intelligence in the Fu Zhao. You should take a good look at it yourself."

Ye Chen accepted the Fu Zhao. After a little induction, he found that there was a lot of natural intelligence in the Fu Zhao. In addition to the address of qiankunfeng, there were also information about the life, family background, Mountain Gate details and so on of the ten sword saints.

"Thank you very much."

Ye Chen bows his hand to the red haze fairy and solemnly thanks him.

Hongxia fairy puffed a smile, hugged Ye Chen and said: "we are so familiar, needless to say, thank you. I hope you can see Shifang Jiansheng smoothly."

Ye Chen nods a way: "good, that I went."

With that, ye Chen wants to start.

The red haze fairy hugged him and said, "are you going to leave just now? Don't be in such a hurry. Stay with me one night. "

Ye Chen said, "what do you want to do?"

Hongxia fairy said with a smile: "don't worry, I won't eat you again. I just want you to accompany me to have a drink and enjoy the flowers. The wanxu crisis is too serious. This game is doomed. I just want to have fun in time. Even if it is broken in the future, I will have a happy time at least."

Ye Chen hears her these words, then nods, way: "all right."

He agreed to come down.

That night, ye Chen and Hongxia fairy had a good time.

Although Ye Chen held the last bottom line, they did everything except the last layer of window paper.

Don't blame Ye Chen, mainly because Hongxia fairy is too active, the other side insists on sticking it upside down, he can't stop it, he can only keep the bottom line.

The next morning, ye Chen struggles to get out of the gentle village. He follows the instructions of the Fu Zhao and goes to the heaven and earth peak in the heart of the earth, looking for the ten sword saints, hoping to get the other side's advice.

"I don't know how powerful the legendary Hongjun Kendo is."

Ye Chen is full of expectations. Among the "seven treasures of Hongjun", there is a treasure named "Shifang Jianxin", which is a crystal stone containing the secret of the supreme kendo. It is full of ancient Kendo runes. It is said that the ancestor of Hongjun made it by himself.

After the disappearance of Hongjun, it is said that a secret place has been left. It is in the dark forbidden sea, where the treasures and treasures of Hongjun's whole life are collected.

It is from Hongjun's secret place that Jiutian Shenshu, which shakes the world, spreads.

For millions of years, the secret place of Hongjun has been almost hollowed out, and all the treasures have been taken away.

Shifang sword sage once entered Hongjun's secret place. By chance, he got "Shifang sword heart" and successfully got Hongjun's master's true understanding of kendo. From then on, he became the first person in kendo in the world.

Chapter 6349

These information are clearly recorded in the imperial edict given to Ye Chen by Hongxia fairy.

Ye Chen alone, Yufeng came to the residence of Shifang sword saint.

But in front of me, thousands of peaks open halberd, thousands of mountains open screen, a mountain, endless, extremely dangerous terrain towering.

In this continuous mountain, the highest one, full of ten thousand feet, straight into the sky, on the ground can not see the top.

The highest peak is Qiankun peak!

When ye Chenfei arrived near Qiankun peak, he landed and walked there to show his respect.

When he came to the foot of Qiankun peak, he saw that the gate was guarded by a golden forbidden system, but no one was guarding it.

"Reincarnation Guardian Ye Chen, I'd like to see the ten swordsmen of the true legend under the throne of Hongjun. Please meet me in the mountains!"

Ye Chen calms down and sings aloud, which shows his intention of visiting.

After his voice spread out, it vibrated among mountains and valleys, but after waiting for a while, no one responded.

"Young Ye Chen, I'd like to meet Shifang sword master!"

Ye Chen frowned and yelled again, but there was still no response.

Seeing this, ye Chen once again said, "younger Ye Chen, I've come to visit the master of Shifang sword sage according to the order of Hongxia fairy!"

He carried out the name of Hongxia fairy this time, but no one agreed.

Just in doubt, a Taoist boy, about thirteen or fourteen years old, came down to Ye Chen with an anxious look and said:

"Don't make any noise. Don't disturb master's peace."

When ye Chen saw that someone had finally come, he hurriedly said, "I admire the swordsmanship of the master of the ten swordsmen. I want to ask for some advice. Please let me know. Now that the wanxu crisis is coming, the earth's heart will die. It's everyone's responsibility to protect the earth's integrity."

The boy glanced at Ye Chen and said, "my master has lived in seclusion for hundreds of thousands of years. In those days, the Terran and the blood demon clan fought against each other, and he did not go out of the mountain. Later, the Taigu catastrophe ruled that the holy hall destroyed the Tianjun family, and he did not go out of the mountain. This time, in the wanxu crisis, he will not go out of the mountain. Don't waste your time."

Ye Chen Mou son one coagulates, in the heart some displeasure, but still way: "under the cover nest, how have complete egg?"? If the yuhuanggudi comes in person and the earth's heart is broken, where can you go to respect your teacher? "

The Taoist boy sneered and said, "my master is a master of swordsmanship. He naturally has a way. You are the master of reincarnation. It's your business that you want to fight for hegemony with wanxu. My master never asks about the world. Go away!"

Ye Chen's heart sank and said, "I'm not here to fight for hegemony, but I've heard of the reputation of Hongjun kendo. I admire it very much and want to confirm it."

The child said, "do you want my master's advice?"

Ye Chen said: "exactly!"

The child laughed and said, "reincarnation master, although your martial arts are all over the sky, your swordsmanship is not so good. You don't deserve my master's advice. Please go back."

Ye Chen has gas in the heart, way: "want how to just deserve to get respect teacher's instruction?"

The child's eyes turned and said, "compare with me. If your Kendo can surpass me, I'll let you in."

"My master has three disciples. I'm the worst. If you can't even compare with me, there's no need to bother my master any more."

Ye Chen pondered slightly and said, "well, there are three disciples of Shifang sword sage. They are Jian Mingming, Xue Tianyin and Qiu Yan. I think you are Qiu Yan. I heard that you are very good at swordsmanship."

The child was slightly surprised and said, "do you know my name? It seems that Hongxia fairy has already told you. Since you have heard about the power of my Kendo, you'd better go back. You're not my opponent just by sword. "

This Dao boy is Qiu Yan. He is born with his own sword spirit. He was chosen as an apprentice by the ten sword saints.

He looks like a 13-year-old Taoist boy, but he has lived for tens of thousands of years. Because of an accident, his blood was suppressed and he was unable to grow up. He always looks like a young Taoist boy.

Ye Chen thought that his swordsmanship is not weak, even if he can't compare with the ten swordsmen, he can't be defeated compared with Qiu Yan. He said, "who wins or loses, you have to compare to know."

Qiu Yan said with a smile, "well, I haven't competed with anyone for a long time since my elder martial brother left. Today I'll have a competition with you to show you how powerful my Hongjun sword sect is."

With that, Qiu Yan came out and led Ye Chen to a small pavilion on the side of the mountain. Outside the pavilion, there was a pond full of lotus.

Qiu Yanfei went to the lotus pond, stood on a lotus, pulled out a long sword, and said to Ye Chen, "reincarnation Lord, come on, I guess you will lose in ten moves."

Ye Chen laughs and floats up to a lotus flower. He pulls out the wild devil's sword and confronts Qiu Yan in the distance. He says: "your cultivation breath is in the realm of hundred shackles. If you want to defeat me, I'm afraid it's a talk in the night."

When Qiu Yan saw Ye Chen's wild demon Tianjian, he shook his head and said, "we are fighting swordsmanship, not life and death. Don't use Tianjian, or one sword will kill me. Swordsmanship is a skill after all. Your reincarnation power is too strong. Even if I am ten times stronger than you, I will be killed by you."

No matter how complicated and mysterious the Dharma in the world is, it can't be separated from one criterion, that is, the criterion of power!

The so-called "one strength descending ten meetings, one strength breaking ten thousand dharmas", strength is the root, other Taoist dharmas are skills.

The change of skills can't replace the power. For example, an ant can't kill an elephant even if he masters the most exquisite martial arts and kendo. The power gap is too big.

Now, Qiu Yan deeply feels that ye Chen's power is so terrible that he doesn't need a second move to kill him.

If the life and death duel, he can't be ye Chen's opponent.

Ye Chen said, "what do you want to do?"

Qiu Yan said: "you only use the ordinary sword to fight against me, and to suppress the power of reincarnation. We are just talking about Tao, not fighting for life and death."

Ye Chen thinks for a while, then nods, way: "good."

He immediately put away the ghost Sky Sword and held it in the palm of his hand. The essence of Geng gold converged and turned into a golden sword and held it in his hand.

At the same time, ye Chen also suppresses the strength and Qi transportation of reincarnation blood and maintains the state of an ordinary person.

His strength is still too strong. If he fights for life and death, he can kill Qiu Yan in one move. Now he suppresses his strength to compete in kendo.

The skill of using sword is called sword technique.

Swordsmanship reaches its peak and fits the main road. That's kendo.

Ye Chen wants to see how the opponent's Kendo level is. He points to the golden sword and says, "let's go."

Qiu Yan shook his head, sneered and said, "your Kendo is weaker than me. I'll let you do it first."

Crazy, incomparable crazy!

Chapter 6350

Ye Chen mou son a coagulate, for the other party's crazy, pour is not too care about, but ha ha a smile, way: "that good, take a move!"

After that, ye Chen suddenly cut out with a sword, a touch of blood light emerged, and the sword Qi rushed against the sky, evolving into six rounds of blood red full moon.

"The bloody moon slaughters the sky!"

Ye Chen drinks suddenly, the long sword cuts Qiu Yan, but it directly uses the blood month to kill the sky.

At this time, ye Chen suppressed his strength, and the power of blood moon butchering heaven was less than 20% of the peak, but his momentum was also quite fierce.

In the past, ye Chen used to use the falling dust dragon sword to kill the sky. But now he is very powerful. He can use the sword whenever he wants.

He intended to try Qiu Yan's swordsmanship, so he used XueYue to kill Tianzhan and XueYue sword dance, which was extremely powerful.

"Good sword technique!"

Qiu Yan a exclamation, see ye Chen blood month long sword to kill, but don't dodge don't avoid, light flutter of a sword hit.

It's just a sound.

His sword is very simple and easy to move. However, his sword edge is connected with Ye Chen's sword edge, and he turns all the power of killing heaven by XueYue to one side.

Bang!

Ye Chen's sword, whose path of sword Qi deviates completely, sweeps past Qiu Yan and cuts on the pond, which immediately arouses the surging water. The lotus in the pond breaks one after another and is completely destroyed. Even the water in the pond is dyed red by the brilliance of XueYue.

"Why?"

Ye Chen was slightly surprised. He only felt that his opponent's sword technique seemed simple, but in fact it had a wonderful implication of returning to the original nature. His simple and ordinary sword solved his killing move.

"OK, take my sword again!"

Ye Chen's eyes lit up his fighting spirit and cut it out again with one sword. The sword of blood moon turned into the sword Qi of the sun, and the sun immortal cut it out.

Qiu Yan didn't move. He still wielded a sword. His sword technique was so simple that he didn't have any fancy changes. However, it was exquisite, with four or two strokes of four thousand, which took off Ye Chen's Taiyang sword Qi completely.

Ye Chen attacks several swords again, but he still has nothing to gain.

"I'm still here

All of a sudden, Qiu Yan was surprised. In Ye Chen's intensive attack, he stabbed out a sword, which broke Ye Chen's heavy sword power and stabbed him to the heart.

Ye Chen is surprised. In the crisis, he opens the red dust God pulse and adds gold armor to block Qiu Yan's sword.

Qiu Yan's sword tip collided with the armor and made a "Ding" sound.

"Good response, quick response."

Qiu Yan smiles and takes back the sword. In fact, his sword doesn't use much strength and won't hurt Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's back broke out in a cold sweat. He felt the subtlety of his opponent's swordsmanship and said, "if it's a fight of life and death, you've just killed me. I lost."

Qiu Yan said with a smile: "if it's a fight of life and death, it's too complicated to decide the outcome of the fight. You have to consider the realm of cultivation, magic power, Feng Shui and Qi Yun. You have reincarnation blood. If you really want to fight, even if I'm ten times stronger, I'm not your enemy."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "even so, in terms of Kendo alone, you are far better than me."

Ye Chen has seen that if he is fighting for life and death, he can easily kill Qiu Yan, but he is not Qiu Yan's opponent in the simple competition of kendo.

"If only I could have your Kendo attainments."

Ye Chen a burst of envy says.

His strength and martial arts are far better than Qiu Yan. If he can also master Qiu Yan's Kendo, he will be able to play a more powerful role.

Qiu Yan said: "reincarnation of the Lord, Kendo is just a skill, its own strength, is the most important."

"It's just like gold and silver. Making money and saving are the most important. How to spend money is secondary."

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "your ability to spend money is much more powerful than mine. Although I have a lot of savings, I can't give full play to it. After all, it's vain. It's hard to fight against wanxu."

Qiu Yan said with a smile: "wanxu has more savings. It's impossible for you to fight against it. I advise you to give up your heart as soon as possible. You can go and don't disturb my master any more."

Ye Chen saw Qiu Yan's Kendo, which is so simple that he thought that his master, the legendary ten swordsman, must be more powerful. Before he saw his true face, how could he be willing to leave?

"If master Jiansheng refuses to see me, I can ask you for advice."

Ye Chen stares at Qiu Yan and says sincerely.

Since you can't see the ten swordsmen, you can also improve your Kendo if you compete with their successors.

If you can master Qiu Yan's Kendo, ye Chen will be satisfied.

Qiu Yan a stay, completely did not expect that ye Chen will not play according to the routine, said: "I am just a little Taoist child, reincarnation of the Lord of all heaven, you want to ask me?"

Ye Chen Mou son a coagulation, smile way: "yes."

Qiu Yan was shocked, a little flattered, and full of concerns, and said: "no, how can I, how dare I teach you? What's more, the Kendo of our Hongjun sword sect can't be passed on to outsiders. "

When ye Chen saw Qiu Yan's young appearance, he moved in his heart and said, "you are born with sword Qi and have great talent. But later, because you were hurt by the unknown sword, you can't grow up. You will always look like a little Taoist. I'm proficient in medicine. I can treat you as long as you promise me to compete with me in swordsmanship."

In the Fu Zhao given by Hongxia fairy, ye Chen already knows the details of Hongjun sword sect.

The leader of Hongjun sword sect, the first of Qiankun peak and the legendary Shifang sword sage, has three zhenzhuan disciples. The first zhenzhuan, named Jianming, is a genius of kendo. He is most likely to inherit the mantle of Hongjun sword sect.

But this sword is nameless, but he doesn't want to live in seclusion in qiankunfeng. He wants to go to Hongjun secret place to explore treasure.

In the past, Shifang Jiansheng once got the magic weapon "Shifang Jianxin" in Hongjun's secret place, and thus understood Hongjun's ancestor's true understanding of kendo.

Therefore, sword nameless also wants to take a chance, hoping to find the treasure in the secret place.

Shifang Jiansheng tried his best to dissuade him. He said that the secret place of Hongjun had already been emptied. There was no treasure left, only countless fierce beasts.

However, Jian Mingming didn't listen. He insisted on going to the secret place to find treasure, and finally left overnight without saying goodbye.

Qiu Yan, on the night when Jianming left, tried to stop him. As a result, he hurt him. From then on, his blood was closed and he could never grow up.

With Ye Chen's medical skills, naturally, he can cure the other side.

Qiu Yan was shocked. He had heard that the master of reincarnation had excellent medical skills. If he could help him, he would be cured of his terminal disease of blood vessel closure.

At that time, the power of his blood will be fully exerted.

However, the true understanding of Hongjun sword sect can't be spread out. How dare he teach it to Ye Chen?

Ye Chen saw each other's hesitation and said with a smile, "I don't need you to preach. You just have to learn from me every day, and I can understand myself."
