Chapter 6951

This is the remnant of the devil!

At a glance, you can only see the huge legs like mountains, lying quietly in the void.

Even if there is no evil spirit, the vast sense of dignity is diffuse and filled with the whole universe, which makes people scared!

Even among these gods and demons, the heavenly demon emperor is extremely powerful. Otherwise, after death, how can the bodies of other gods and Demons dare not come close to him.

That wisp of spirit flows between the eyebrows of the great devil. It seems that it wants to wake up the broken body of the great devil who has been sleeping for a long time.

But how is this possible? Even before the remnant soul is exhausted, it is far from reaching the standard of resurrecting the demon emperor.

This is an ancient demon. As soon as you raise your hand, you can explode countless stars and a ray of divine light. You can cut off heaven and earth and destroy countless ancient star regions.

It may take thousands or even tens of thousands of stars to repair a slight original injury. Can this wisp of remnant soul be repaired!

The remnant soul seemed to be aware of this, and there was a loud cry in the starry sky.

Then the remnant soul returned to Ye Chen. This time, it inherited all the power of the demon emperor to Ye Chen. In an instant, countless ancient pictures emerged in Ye Chen's sea of consciousness.

He sat here. I don't know how many years passed before he completely absorbed the power of the spirit left by the demon emperor.

During this period, Ren Feifan also sat and practiced, trying to break the mystery contained in the dead demon corpse.

But in the end, they all came back in vain.

"After losing the support of the source of life, the profound meaning of the gods and Demons has also become an unbreakable secret. Only those with the same luck or the descendants of the gods and Demons here can understand it."

Ren extraordinary realized the cycle of heaven and cause and effect. It seems that his spiritual power has improved again.

After ye Chen completely fused with the spirit of the demon emperor, a new container was born in his consciousness. He saw the faint black light emitted, and even included the huge demon body like a planet.

Ye Chen opened his eyes, and there was a magic light flowing in his pupils.

Ren Feifan was surprised when he saw this. He hurriedly put his hand on Ye Chen's shoulder to explore the Qi contained in his body.

The brilliance of gods and demons can not be seen or touched, but it is real.

"Could it be..."

Ren Feifan thought of a possibility, but he can't point it out now.

Then a happy smile appeared on his face.

"Elder Ren, did I succeed in getting this demon body?" Ye Chen opened her eyes and asked in surprise.

Does that mean that the demon emperor is saved?

If you give this body to Wutian, I'm afraid Wutian will give up taking away the devil emperor.

However, this means that Wutian's strength will be more terrible.

Ren extraordinary nodded and immediately withdrew from the ancient demon battlefield with Ye Chen.

It is difficult to get in here and easy to get out. The secret of the gods and Demons continues to be hidden in a taboo space.

The door of the abyss opened for seven days. When ye Chen returned to the outside world, he knew that today was the fifth day.

His task of coming here has been completed. He doesn't need to wait any longer. He hurried to the light gate when he came and found his way back.

However, at the door, he saw a familiar figure, which turned out to be Taotie and golden winged rocs from the world.

In addition, there are the servants brought by the two of them.

At this time, Taotie suddenly opened his eyes and stared at the shadow of nothingness.

"I sensed the residual power of gluttony, and he appeared again!"

The golden winged Dapeng and others also made moves one after another. The servants turned into streamers and surrounded Ye Chen's hiding place.

"You have a trace of the mighty power I left behind. Don't struggle anymore. You can't run away."

The gluttonous man said fiercely with a ferocious face.

Ye Chen knew that he could not escape their pursuit today, so he just came here.

He still underestimated the power of the descendants of the two supreme Protoss.

Ye Chen gathered his mind and checked the whole body. He found an extremely weak black spot on his ankle, which was impressively left by the gluttonous food.

"He robbed the ghost of the demon emperor, and the breath disappeared in the whole abyss for four days! I really want to ask where you went?"

The eyes of the gluttonous man were burning like flames, pressing Ye Chen, and the golden winged ROC was the same.

"You must have come into contact with the body of the demon emperor. Tell me, where is it?"

His voice roared like thunder, as if he had towering power.

There were also many people gathered here, their faces flashing, wondering if they could take a share of it.

Ye Chen's eyes coagulated and didn't shrink back. He stood out from the void, the rules and order all over the sky, carrying the torrent of time, roared and attacked to frighten all sentient beings.

The laws of time and space are intertwined and endless.

The bright stars and the mighty Milky way flow converged into a vast ocean, which completely drowned the land in an instant.

Behind the golden winged ROC, there was a brilliant divine meaning, which moved forward with his palm.

The vast power is the ancestral secret of the giant ROC's golden wings.

Chapter 6952

A rising sun rose and hung high above the sky, dispelling endless bad luck. The cry seemed to come from ancient times, distant, old and boundless.

There are people watching the war below. When they see this scene, they suddenly turn pale.

"This is the day of the golden roc! It is said that only a small group of children with the highest talent among the golden winged ROC family can manifest such a vision!"

"This race has existed since ancient times and is extremely powerful! Even the ancient emperor Yu Huang was very polite when he met with the ancestor Jin Peng. From this, we can see the status and strength of the golden winged Dapeng family in the world."

“.....”

On the other side, the gluttonous man seemed unwilling to show weakness. The magic cloud behind him was surging, and a gluttonous virtual shadow appeared, roaring up to the sky and shaking in all directions.

On the top of the gluttonous head, a huge white bone spike gradually emerged, as if to pierce the sky.

"That is... The third form of gluttonous! There is a single horn on the head!"

There were well-informed people present, who couldn't help shouting.

The talent to summon such gluttonous beasts can be called demons.

Two extremely arrogant ancient monsters appeared left and right respectively to swallow Ye Chen. In front of such towering power, ye Chen was like a wisp of dust in the sea.

The powerful servants also used their hand blade method to ensure that ye Chen would not escape from it.

Ye Chen looked very calm and was considering whether to use reincarnation blood.

Reincarnation blood always changes life against the sky and is not afraid of any challenge.

Although their blood is strong, they are not worth mentioning in front of their reincarnation blood.

But just before the reincarnation blood is about to light up and the water stop sword reappears.

The supreme bone in Ye Chen's arms suddenly burst into a burst of bright light.

The supreme bone flew out of the sky, and the faint light flowed endlessly, resonating with heaven and earth.

An ancient sacred dog, coming out of the wilderness, is no longer as arrogant and vigorous as it was at its peak.

But every move implies the way of heaven and earth. The vision of this statue, waving two claws, unexpectedly emerged an altar in the void.

Suddenly, a series of mysterious runes came quietly and suspended on the altar like a sacred order.

Even ye Chen didn't expect that the supreme bone had not moved all the way. It would appear at the last critical moment and evolve the Dharma phase of the bone. Help him.

He meditated for a moment, and then injected a trace of reincarnation blood into the supreme bone.

The dark and shining supreme bone swayed a few times in the air and grew a pair of magic horns.

At the same time, the dark luster of the altar fell on the ancient dog.

Suddenly, the whole world trembled with the black light!

The virtual shadow of the tiger soared to a height of ten thousand feet. Its tusks were exposed. It looked like a towering blade and looked ferocious.

At this moment, he even directly faced the golden winged ROC like the scorching sun and the gluttony of the third form.

In terms of momentum, we will not lose at all, or even win.

The six samsara, the light is fully opened, and the supreme divine power of Chen, inspired by the blood of samsara, has been exerted to the extreme.

Nine suns appeared in the sky, shining brightly, scattered the magic clouds, and the whole earth was steaming hot temperature.

"What!"

People watching the war were stunned. It was like a demon God left over from ancient times. The blood level alone was two levels higher than the current golden winged ROC and Taotie.

Under the fire of those rounds of the sun, both the golden winged ROC and Taotie issued a cry, and the condensed virtual shadow slowly dissipated and melted on the spot.

Both the purple robed man and the gluttonous man were injured and suffered the most direct counterattack. They covered their chest and spit out a mouthful of blood, looking shocked immediately.

"It's impossible! The tamarin in ancient times has long been extinct, and it's impossible to use the supreme Nine Yang to open the sun."

The golden winged ROC and the golden winged ROC are both at the level of divine animals, with a long history and long service life. At present, the golden winged ROC has an overall advantage.

After all, today's Yi people have lost their supreme inheritance and become mediocre groups. They shrink in the deep mountains and live on.

Taotie was also surprised. In his eyes, these nine rounds of opening the sun are the greatest power between heaven and earth.

In Ye Chen's eyes, the divine light flowed, and he seemed to realize something from the nine rounds of the sun.

A void passage through the nine days appeared in front of him, as if connecting heaven and earth and carrying out the ancient and modern.

Ye Chen no longer hesitated, grabbed the supreme bone and entered the golden day channel.

The golden winged Dapeng and Taotie quickly ordered the servants to catch up, but the servants with low blood can't enter this big array. They were bounced back one after another and were seriously injured.

A moment later, ye Chen broke away from the abyss and returned to the real bottom of the sea.

During this trip to the abyss, he gained a lot, including the remnant of the demon emperor and a grass in the wind.

"But I still can't understand the runes on the demon Emperor..."

Ye Chen said, frowning. He must understand the body of the demon emperor.

Ren Feifan uses the slightest force of this body to deduce the avenue for ye Chen and seek a solution.

Suddenly, Ren extraordinary opened his eyes and became a little strange.

"Elder Ren, how's it going?"

Ren Feifan said, "we're going to the bottom of the sea to find the dark ancient dragon. There may be a way to crack it."

Dark cologne? Ye Chen has a slight sign.

Immediately, he returned to the ancient underwater world with Ren extraordinary.

The black dragon gate is buried deep under the sea and forms an independent space. The dark ancient dragon lives in seclusion here.

When ye Chen entered the world inside the door of the dark ancient dragon again, the desolation seemed to become more lonely. The dark clouds pressed down, and the whole world was silent.

The strong wind no longer roared, and the dust did not sweep and spread. Standing here and overlooking the center of this independent world, ye Chen can still see the nine Optimus pillars.

The peaks and pillars are connected with each other, towering into the clouds, and very magnificent, giving people a sense of grandeur.

The dark ancient dragon turns into a virtual shadow and is engraved on a mountain peak.

When ye Chen appeared, the shadow of the dark ancient dragon turned out. He was still so old and weak, and even there were spots at the bottom of his eyes.

Compared with the first time I stepped into the dark Cologne, the breath of the dark Cologne was decadent again.

"Lord of reincarnation... You... You finally came."

Dark Cologne seemed a little surprised. He was too old to swim.

Chapter 6953

From the famine era to the present, he has exhausted various methods to delay aging, expand the width of life, and fight against the rules of heaven all the way.

But there is a limit. If there is no artifact to change his life against the sky, he will gradually fall in these hundred years.

Dark Cologne doesn't know who Ren Feifan is hiding his breath. After all, Ren Feifan has reached a height he can't explore.

He stared at Ye Chen and didn't speak.

Of course, ye Chen knows what the dark ancient dragon wants. His palm is spread out, and a pure white bead appears in his hand. The light is not particularly strong, but it has become a track Yun. Take a look at it and capture people's soul.

This is the bead condensed by the power of the dragon soul in the sky, which can be said to be the most precious treasure of the dragon family.

The dark Cologne's old and turbid eyes suddenly became hot, and an unstoppable desire emerged.

He finally saw what he wanted!

"You deserve to be the Lord of reincarnation! You can be safe when you fall into the lost time and space, and successfully retrieve the dragon ball of the king of the sky. In the future, you are destined to be equal to or even surpass Hongjun."

Dark Cologne couldn't help praising. Of course, he thought so in his heart.

He has lived for too many years. He has seen countless Tianjiao struggles for hegemony. Naturally, he knows the level of talent and blood.

Now the reincarnation Lord standing in front of him, whether in terms of qualification, blood, or the mind and city government of the same period, is higher than Hongjun's ancestors!

If we don't fall, we can't imagine the achievements after that!

For such praise, ye Chen just smiled for one, and didn't take it to heart.

There are many factors that affect the growth of a top strong person, but the most undesirable is arrogance.

No matter who you meet, you can't take it lightly, otherwise the victory or defeat is often between one thought.

Then pull your eyes back to the soul beads of the dragon in the sky. Just a faint breath, it makes the long desolate black dragon space grow grass everywhere, covering less than half of the place.

"From the time of famine to now, not only my strength has become weaker and weaker, but also the black dragon gate has suffered a lot of wear and tear. Now it's time to let it regain its glory."

Dark Cologne was not worried that ye Chen would break the contract. He had made a reincarnation oath. If he broke his promise, he would be eaten by the burning blood of reincarnation.

And the dark Cologne doesn't want much. He just wants to get a trace of the power of the dragon soul. Just by virtue of this, he can return to the state of his heyday.

The king of the sky is one of the four divine beasts under the seat of Hongjun in the early days of heaven. It has been a resounding invincible divine beast since ancient times.

The cause and effect left behind can not be contaminated by non atmospheric transporters. The dark Cologne lives long and transparent, and naturally can be seen clearly.

He waited for ye Chen to extract a small bead from the dragon soul to help him recover his strength.

But ye Chen took out another sword. In the confused eyes of the dark ancient dragon, he whispered, "blood dragon, this chance of the dragon family, it's up to you to give it."

Soon, a voice came from the heavy sword.

"Yes, master!"

Immediately, a blood shadow floated out of the big sword, but it was a blood dragon with blood red flashing all over. It looked dignified and had the air of a king!

The dark Cologne was surprised to see this.

He has seen many dragon families since the famine, and the blood dragon is also one of them. It is just an ordinary blood branch, which can follow around the Lord of reincarnation.

Soon, the dark Cologne's look changed wildly.

Because the blood dragon came to the sky dragon soul, and the red color of his eyes turned into bright silver.

The blood colored scales gradually became half silver and half red, like a diagram of yin and Yang Tai Chi, separated on both sides, and finally became particularly harmonious.

"You... You are..."

The dark Cologne was completely shocked.

Until this time, he didn't understand that most of the original power of the sky dragon soul was sucked away by the blood dragon!

The blood dragon slowly vomited a trace of dragon power, floated over the beads of the dragon soul in the sky, and then condensed into a more pure dragon breath.

The dark ancient dragon was shocked. The dragon breath opened a channel along the void, deduced from it, and then entered from his mouth.

Suddenly, the vast force, like the sky thunder, rumbled and divided into several torrents in his body.

The old and exhausted flesh and blood came back to life where they ran through.

The dark ancient dragon quickly coiled around a pillar and gradually refined the power of the sky dragon soul in his body.

With the passage of time, his body of dragon soul is gradually filled with infinite vitality, and is no longer as dead as before.

The sharp dragon claws on his limbs grew again, and the scales on his body fell off one after another, and then grew again from the flesh and blood.

The black scales are deep, dark and bright, stronger than ever!

The whole independent world of dark Cologne is no longer covered with yellow sand and dark clouds, but has gradually recovered a lot of vitality.

The green ancient trees and the towering mountains all rise from the ground and fill the dead world again, glowing with new ideas.

Chapter 6954

When the dark Cologne reopened his eyes, he had recovered to his peak, even better than before.

"Lord of reincarnation, my strength has been completely restored. Thank you for your gift!"

The voice of the dark ancient dragon was vigorous and stirring, completely unlike a wild beast in its twilight years.

"You're welcome. You gave me a spiritual root to renew my life. In return, this is what I should do." Ye Chen said.

"But there is one more thing that may need your answer."

Ye Chen flicked a snap of his fingers, and several wisps of chaotic light emerged from his pupils, condensed into a sky curtain, and some scenes in the picture of blue falling and yellow spring appeared.

Above the surging river, the body of a demon emperor was quietly suspended, and the rules and will of the whole yellow spring seemed to be integrated.

"This is the latest body of the demon emperor I found. It comes from the ancient god demon battlefield, but you may know about his origin and whether he can accommodate new gods and spirits."

The dark ancient dragon looked carefully at the body of the heavenly demon emperor in the light curtain. The chaotic longan even saw through the vanity and glittered in it.

For a long time, the dark Cologne took back his eyes and slowly said:

"This demon is too old. I may have heard his name, but I don't know how long it has survived. It's about accommodating new spirits. As long as we can find the soul returning grass, everything is not a problem."

In the famine era, when many strong people were physically destroyed, they would look for new containers to fill their souls.

At this time, in order to adapt to the new body, we need a trace of the power of soul returning grass to perfectly integrate our soul with the container, so as to achieve the unity of heaven and man.

"Have you ever seen the soul returning grass? Can you recognize it?" Ye Chen continued to ask.

The dark ancient Dragon nodded and said that of course there was no problem: "even in the flood and famine era, the soul returning grass is also a rare holy elixir. It has a sense of self independence. An adult soul returning grass can even destroy a big star domain. It is not a problem to become emperor."

"But now I'm afraid this soul returning grass will not appear. The era of famine has passed, and the soul returning grass has disappeared."

The dark ancient dragon once saw a growing soul returning grass, followed by an ancient emperor and led the ethnic army to attack the powerful star domain.

Just by using a divine mind, the soul returning grass revived countless strong men and created an immortal Legion. With its immortal fighting power, it flattened the star field that was enough to rank among the top three in the universe.

Such divine power can be called the only one in history!

Just as his voice fell, ye Chen took out the grass from the storage space.

"Is that it?"

Ye Chen asked with some uncertainty.

The dark ancient dragon immediately widened his eyes, a dragon mouth slowly expanded, and his expression solidified for a long time.

The grass in front is green and small. But the familiar smell made the dark Cologne unforgettable all his life.

It's the same as the soul returning grass of the mature body!

For a moment, the dark ancient dragon didn't know what to say. The power of Qi carried by Ye Chen was too powerful.

Whether it's the dragon Yuan sky sword, the blood dragon living in it, the sky dragon soul and the soul returning grass.

If the world can get one of them, it will have the capital to climb to the top of the world.

And ye Chen takes it all into his arms.

The dark ancient Dragon nodded to Ye Chen, confirmed the identity of Xiaocao, and then fell into silence.

Ye Chen didn't find Gu Long's abnormality. He turned back and looked at Ren extraordinary, and they both smiled.

It seems that this time, the demon emperor is saved!

After successfully solving the matter here, ye Chen is ready to leave. He wants to go to the dark forbidden sea in time.

But at this time, the voice of the dark Cologne came to my ears.

"Lord of reincarnation, I have one more thing. I wonder if you are interested."

"But it doesn't matter!"

The dark ancient dragon hesitated for a moment and finally said, "I wonder if you are interested in my black dragon gate!"

Ye Chen was stunned.

"Cough... Well, I think I, the black dragon gate, as one of the nine gates in the wilderness, have been reduced to the bottom of the dark forbidden sea. It's time to find a master. Several strong men came here and wanted to subdue the black dragon gate, but I refused. Now, I think you are the most suitable candidate."

Dark Cologne said so, but he didn't tell the truth in his heart.

When he saw the blood dragon, he was greedy.

If he can always follow the reincarnation Lord, maybe he will be so lucky in the future and become the ruler of the dragon family.

But ye Chen hesitated. The black dragon gate is the gateway to the underwater world and maintains the operation of the whole underwater forbidden array.

If you take away this gate, the defense at the bottom of the sea will disappear. I'm afraid the people of the old alliance will fight soon, and Zhang tingling will be in danger.

He said his doubts, but the dark Cologne smiled and said he didn't have to worry.

After taking away the black dragon gate, you can activate the Dragon Qi like a magic power, continue to maintain the operation of the seabed forbidden array, and replenish the source of the black dragon every 100 years.

Seeing this, Ren Feifan also said to Ye Chen: "the dark ancient dragon is interested in your luck and wants to recognize you as the Lord. Take it. He knows a lot of Xinmi of the Honghuang dragon family, and also has the blood of the Honghuang dragon family, which is of great use to you!"

Hearing Ren Feifan's words, ye chendang agreed to the dark Cologne even if he no longer hesitated.

"Thank you, elder Gu Long!"

"No harm! Next, you can go to the top of Jiuzhu peak. I will pass on the will of the black dragon gate to you. All you have to do is tame it and turn it into your own!"

The black dragon gate has existed for a long time. Although the dark ancient dragon is a tool spirit, it is still unable to decide its ownership at will.

Ye Chen's toes were a little lighter, and he rose several kilometers to the top of the mountains.

The scenery here is very good. After a while, a black light comes. Ye Chen closes her eyes, mobilizes her consciousness and contacts with it.

In the light cluster is the virtual shadow of a black dragon, but obviously it does not belong to the dark ancient dragon, but the will of the black dragon gate.

"Reincarnation blood, open!"

In this regard, ye Chen did not hesitate, but used the means of bottom box to reincarnate blood through the void, forming four shields to surround the virtual shadow of the black dragon.

The black dragon virtual shadow seemed to be aware of the crisis, roared up to the sky, and the endless rolling black gas churned up and vibrated unceasingly.

However, under the strong suppression of reincarnation blood, we can't turn over many storms.

Chapter 6955

The struggle of black dragon virtual shadow became smaller and smaller until it was completely calm.

At this time, ye Chen began the real refining process.

The black dragon gate, from the inside to the outside, all appeared in his mind and turned into a "treasure art" inherited from the famine, which can also be used as a "divine power".

At the same time, over the years, great changes have taken place in the black dragon gate sleeping at the bottom of the sea.

The sea animal guard responsible for guarding near the black dragon gate noticed the abnormality for the first time. The seabed vibrated, and the ancient black dragon gate broke through the earth.

Frightened, the sea animal guards ran back to the palace and quickly reported to Lord Haidi.

When Zhang tingling arrived, the black dragon gate was completely suspended in the sea. On the vast and dark dragon gate, mysterious lines carved by Taoism lit up one after another, flashing the eternal luster of the wilderness.

Zhang tingling's face is dignified, and the sea people's army behind her is ready and ready.

But the next moment, a figure flashed in front of the black dragon gate, and a familiar face appeared in front of her.

Zhang Ting was delighted at lington.

It's Ye Chen!

She immediately understood what was going on, and a hanging heart was put down.

"Did you refine the black dragon gate?" Zhang tingling asked pleasantly.

Ye Chen nodded slightly.

Zhang tingling is happy but somewhat lost. After all, the black dragon gate is the basis for the maintenance of the submarine forbidden array. If someone pulls away, the array will fall apart soon. At that time, they will certainly be watched by the people of the old alliance.

The rest of the Hai people are also worried, but because ye Chen is Zhang tingling's close friend, they dare not say anything.

Ye Chen's hand pointed to the forbidden array of the underwater world. He only saw that the black dragon gate behind him divided an illusory dragon shadow, jumped into the air and landed in the position in front of the whole door.

Similarly, the ancient momentum spread again all over the whole seabed, making it as solid as gold, and even stronger than before.

"Don't worry, the prohibition of the underwater world will not be broken. I will come here every hundred years to refill a wisp of dragon gas, which can maintain the long-term operation of the array and live forever!"

After hearing this, Zhang tingling nodded again and again, and a pair of beautiful eyes were shining again and again.

Those sea people were relieved, so that they would no longer fear the attack of the old alliance.

"How long has it been? I can't imagine that your strength has improved so horribly..."

Zhang tingling sighed. She thought she had accepted the inheritance of Haidi and her strength had improved by leaps and bounds.

But now, in contrast, ye Chen can't even see the shadow.

"In that case, let's go to the Hai people's palace to celebrate!" Zhang tingling was never timid. She walked over and naturally took Ye Chen's arm.

In front of a group of sea soldiers, this is tantamount to taking the initiative to announce the relationship.

Ye Chen smiled bitterly. He couldn't get rid of Zhang tingling's hand in front of the whole Hai family. He could only enter the Hai family palace accompanied by him.

The whole sea people's palace sang and danced all day. The graceful posture of the mermaid lingered in the hearts of many sea people's soldiers.

Ye Chen also saw the wonders of the endless seabed. After experiencing it, he left here in Zhang tingling's reluctant eyes.

Next, he will go to the territory of the old alliance to find the magic ancestor Wutian for negotiation and transaction.

This time, he wants to have direct contact with magic ancestor Wutian, so he needs Ren extraordinary to go with him to protect his safety.

"Elder Ren, the devil Zu Wutian has always been moody. This time, I'm not 100% sure I can persuade him to give up the devil emperor as a container."

Ye Chen crossed several empty black holes one after another and said with great worry.

Ren Feifan has always been indifferent, and so is this time.

"It doesn't matter. For him, if he has other choices, he doesn't want to be an enemy with you. After all, you are in reincarnation and will surpass the heavens in the future. He doesn't need to establish a strong enemy that can kill him."

Ren Feifan analyzes the mentality of the devil ancestor from his own point of view.

At their level, they live with heaven and earth and compete with the sun and moon. The glory and wealth in the world is just a passing cloud.

At this time, their ultimate goal is to pursue the cycle of cause and effect and the supreme way of heaven.

No one wants to be tainted with too much cause and effect before peeping into nothingness.

The move of Mo Zu Wutian is also a last resort. He is a man of the old times. If he continues to use this body, he will only completely fester and die.

At that time, it will be his real death.

Therefore, it is impossible for him to give up the idea of looking for new containers.

As long as this fundamental problem is solved, all the problems will be solved. Even if ye Chen once disguised his identity, won the favor of Mo Zu Wutian, and defected again, it doesn't matter.

It is not a problem to reconcile the spirit of the old lord with the spirit.

They are discussing the matter and are about to reach the dark forbidden sea.

But at this time, Ren extraordinary's indifferent look suddenly changed.

A group of white light, silent, came quietly and fell in this void, which was unexpected.

It seems that ye Chen and Ren Feifan are separated and isolated in an independent space.

The aura behind Ren extraordinary emerged, and a giant whale churned up and violently attacked the space barrier.

Chapter 6956

However, I couldn't rush out for a while.

"It's no use, Ren extraordinary. I can trap you for ten minutes in the cage of justice in its heyday. It can't cause any harm to you, but you just can't get out."

The ethereal strange voice floated in the void. It was unclear whether it was a man or a woman.

Let extraordinary nature is to recognize the identity of the comer, not the natural reason lurking in the depths of the void, and who can it be?

The information revealed in Tianli's words makes Ren extraordinary more anxious.

The other party's purpose is obvious. It's for ye Chen!

At the moment of launching the sneak attack, there was no sign at all. He couldn't stop it. He could only watch ye Chen isolated in another space.

"Hehe, I have to thank the ancient emperor Yu Huang for providing me with the energy of the Jiuding array, so that I can break you one by one."

"Ren Feifan, I want to see you lose your last reason in despair, ha ha ha!"

.....

On the other side, ye Chen also felt the coming of the terrible crisis. He immediately used the eight Fu Tu Qi, and the endless bright Buddha Qi surrounded his body.

And a pagoda of the God of the floating slaughter came down and covered Ye Chen's flesh.

Sure enough, the next moment, there will be endless thunder, which contains extremely powerful energy and can destroy all the rules in the real world.

Even the futu pagoda was destroyed into dust under this blow. Ye Chen's figure retreated rapidly. He kneaded the Dharma formula in his hand and summoned a stone tablet.

Super ancient monument! Phoenix heaven.

The power of the burning flame, accompanied by a clear cry, swirled and opened, and the flames all over the sky hit the space barrier.

A phoenix about a thousand feet long attached to Ye Chen, spread its wings and soared, trying to break through all obstacles.

However, just like a torrent was stopped and stopped suddenly, the towering flame Phoenix was given by some mysterious force.

The palpitating feeling poured out from the bottom of Ye Chen's heart and lasted for the first time. Ye Chen felt such a strong crisis.

"Who is it? Come out if you can. Don't hide."

Ye Chen's eyes looked around and tried to find out the sneaker in the dark.

The other party is definitely stronger than the emperor!

"Ha ha... Ye Chen, what's the taste of the dragon soul in the sky? It must be very wonderful. After all, it's the soul power left by the first generation of heaven."

A male and female voice sounded in Ye Chen's ear, which shocked him all over.

He raised his eyes and stared at the other end of the space. A virtual image appeared slowly without any form.

But ye Chen recognized the caller at a glance.

God!

He would come here and hunt himself down.

"The feather emperor asked me to make an oath to kill you. That's why I did it today. In fact, I didn't feel so bad about you before, but you took away my sky dragon soul! It's unforgivable!"

Tianli's voice, which was neither male nor female, became sharp and roared, making the whole space a layer of split folds.

It is venting its anger!

"Ren Feifan has been trapped by me and spent nine of my success power. Now only 10% is left, but... Lord of reincarnation, it's enough to kill you."

Tianli mobilized the power of the rules all over the sky and condensed into a giant sword in the depths of that space. The melted rules were intertwined. In the next moment, it lost the power of time and space and reached Ye Chen!

Ye Chen felt irresistible for the first time.

He clenched his teeth and took out the Longyuan Heavenly Sword. His reincarnation blood was like the eruption of a volcano.

"The sun is shining!"

"Bloody sky sword!"

Ye Chen used two sword moves one after another. Half of the golden sun and half of the blood shadow floated in the air.

With the blessing of reincarnation blood, it is even more dignified.

But under the attack of the rules controlled by that reason, every inch collapsed, and the support time was only half an interest.

Ye Chen's eyes are jumping with crazy color, which is the determination to die and later generations.

He knows that in the face of justice, any reservation will fall into an irreparable situation!

One hand holds a sword, while ye Chen's other hand stays in absolute stillness.

Turn your fist into a palm, and you are ready to go. Your momentum is like a rainbow.

This is a unique skill that belongs to the Lord of reincarnation, daqianchonglou palm.

Ye Chen fell into the absolute self world and launched a palm the moment before the rule sword was about to destroy himself.

In an instant, all things in heaven and earth, the heavens and the universe were trembling. Although it was in the depths of the void, there were many rules to avoid.

The unspeakable force against the sky broke out, toppling mountains and seas, roaring like thunder, giving full play to the domineering momentum.

These divine arts, which frighten the world, are well deserved to be the first of the nine days.

It ranks first in the nine heavenly divinity, with great divine power and infinite supremacy.

To master the six samsara, king in the world, the palm of the Lord of samsara, no one can stop the real world!

But at this time, the palm of the thousand towers, which has always shattered the world and crushed the stars, suddenly stopped.

Some inexplicable force surged out of the void, which did not seem so overbearing, but no one could stop it.

Like an invisible silk thread, it trapped daqianchonglou palm and shattered all this.

Ye Chen was shocked. He had experienced so many battles and his unique skill of pressing the bottom box: daqianchonglou palm. It was the first time that he was so ruthlessly crushed by the enemy without any mercy.

"Your strength is good. Over time, you must have a place at the top of the world in the future, but the more so, the more I can't let you go."

In this confined space, the surging undercurrent also showed a ferocious face and immediately turned into a monstrous beast.

Ye Chen urged the wish star to wrap himself in the stars to resist the attack of the outside world.

At the same time, he waved his hand knife, and the Qi and blood of Daqian Chonglou's palm was not completely recovered, so it surged again!

"Snow buried Stardust!"

Ye Chen let out a loud drink, and a little bit of snow came quietly, falling on his head. In a moment, he wrapped the world in silver.

This is the first time ye Chen has used the attack power of snow hidden stardust.

The ice and snow all over the sky, just like a floating concealed weapon, suddenly became extremely sharp and sharp. All the way out, along the track of the void, hit the surging undercurrent offshore.

Ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief. The successive moves failed, which damaged his original strength a little, so he immediately mobilized the eight trigrams pill stove technique to heal himself!

Around him, he hoped that Tianxing would have the mysterious power of the thirty-three heavenly supreme, and the defense was extremely strong.

Rao is so. He only resisted it for three minutes.

Chapter 6957

Now a total of five minutes have passed. Ye Chen is panting and scarred before he meets the most powerful attack of Tianli.

"Ha ha, it's interesting... Besides reincarnation blood, there's an ancient rule of gods and demons in your body. You must have got some adventure again, but I won't let you refine successfully."

The voice of Tianli gradually became ferocious. In the slowly flowing light, several streamers rushed out along a specific track and absorbed the power of the universe and stars all the way.

The vast and endless power takes shape at this moment. Even the arrogant undercurrent of emptiness is obediently avoided for fear of being affected by it.

This power is not nothing, but it is close to nothing. As long as it changes again, it can lead to the ultimate power of Wudao.

Ye Chen knows that he can't stop this move with his existing magic power alone.

Only with nothing can we have a chance to win.

Ye Chen holds the dragon Yuan Heavenly Sword and the virtual shadow of the blood dragon behind him has evolved into a world. I wish Ye Chen a hand.

"The ultimate martial arts, no time and space!"

Ye Chen chanted loudly, and the mysterious power ran through the void. The boundless time and space that didn't know where to float sensed Ye Chen's pious call.

A ray of terrible power came out of the gap in the starry sky, took the power of demons in the sky and climbed to the sky together.

Ye Chen's momentum rises from the ground, and no one can stop it!

On his body, the power of the red dust divine pulse is wrapped, and the golden armor protects the important heart pulse, Dantian and other places.

The next moment is to move forward!

The space is broken layer upon layer, and the fracture is silent.

When the storm swept, everything in the world became extremely small, just like the fallen leaves flying in the storm.

This contains a powerful sword of water, which suddenly collides with the nihilistic energy of Tianli, like the collision of two huge planets.

For a moment, the needle pointed at the wheat awn.

There was an endless darkness in the surrounding void.

The mountains and rivers collapsed and the order was destroyed. Even the high rules were blown to dust by unparalleled power and disappeared.

Behind the endless darkness, the divine light suddenly appeared.

After ye Chen wielded the water stop sword, he quickly swallowed two pills to recover his strength. If he changed to another opponent, he could have spare strength after he displayed the sword of the ultimate meaning of martial arts.

However, he did not dare to neglect Zhan Tianli, so he had to do his best.

The strength of the whole body was evacuated, and the reincarnation blood and the burning of the xuandemon's essence blood almost dried up.

As soon as ye Chen came out of the underwater world, he was hit so hard that he was very depressed.

Tianli was a little stunned.

At this time, nearly seven minutes have passed, and it has not defeated Ye Chen.

This is intolerable for the God who is high above and master the ten thousand rules!

The tone of justice became gnashing teeth.

"I wanted to capture the dragon soul in the sky when you ran out of strength. Now I'm afraid I can't do it."

In the void, there was a dull thunder, as if it came from the distant ancient times. The ancient vicissitudes contained infinite power of the road.

As the absolute power of the real world, Tianli is also really angry at this time.

"Since the invisible rules can't hurt you, take a look at this."

The voice of Tianli just fell. In the depths of the empty sea of clouds, endless spiritual power gathered like dark clouds.

A big tripod with a green black ancient luster appeared impressively.

In the sea of clouds, there were waves of thunder, which seemed to ring the destruction bell of the Lord of heaven and come to the world.

When ye Chen saw this, his look suddenly changed.

He could not be more familiar with the smell surging on it.

That's Jiuding array! This array, together with the principle of heaven, is almost one of the most powerful things born under the rules of heaven. In terms of its power, it can be comparable to the thirty-three heavenly artifacts created by Hongjun's father.

Boom!

Tianli and one of the nine tripods in the array are gradually integrated, and the shape of the nine tripods array has gradually changed, turning into giant hands and feet, and a pair of dull and indifferent pupils.

Since ancient times, there has never been an artifact integrated with heaven and earth. The fundamental reason is not that heaven doesn't want it, but that it can't be found at all!

Just as the demon ancestor wudian wants to find a new body container, ordinary containers can't hold their powerful spirits at all.

The bronze giant stands between heaven and earth, surrounded by clouds and thunder, just like the pioneering Pangu giant, supreme and above all laws!

Ye Chen's heart gradually sank to the bottom of the valley. The magnificent momentum emitted by the bronze giant was no less than that of Ren extraordinary in the peak period, and even had the power to fight with the devil ancestor.

The bronze giant is like a wall of space between heaven and earth. It breaks all nothingness and crosses the dome. Nothing can stop it.

"Hand it over! Hand over your sky dragon soul and the power of the demon! Oh, yes, and the blood essence of the Xuan demon!"

The bronze giant roared and the void shook. Behind him, the shadow of the great mountains emerged. The peak mountains were suppressed and suddenly became solid.

The real world, no one can stop! Ye Chen could hardly move under the cover of such divine power.

Ye Chen regained some strength, but his strength has fallen to the peak after using Daqian Chonglou palm and shuistop sword.

After all, the realm is too bad!

Ye Chen roared in his heart, but it didn't help.

Now nearly nine minutes have passed. Seeing that the dawn of escape is coming, I have to accept the sanctions of fate.

No, he will never give in!

Ye Chen intends to burn the reincarnation blood again, regardless of the consequences, against the bronze giant!

But at this moment, he felt a gentle force from his chest to his heart.

Looking down, it turned out to be the grass in my arms, emitting Yingying green light.

The mysterious light of green twined around the grass, leaving an indelible ancient Taoist pattern.

Not only that, countless visions were also born in the picture of blue falling and yellow spring. A streamer burst out at the center of the emperor's eyebrows.

After passing through the prohibition of this layer of protection, he impressively reflected on Ye Chen's forehead.

In Ye Chen's eyes, there were countless gods and Demons shouting and yelling, as if they had fallen on the bloody ancient battlefield.

"This is..."

Ye Chen's inner surprise was very strong. The grass seemed to change its shape. At this moment, it became majestic and arrogant, just like a king.

With the traction of the remnant soul in the eyebrow of the heavenly demon emperor, the huge demon God's body has actually become the heaven and earth vision behind Ye Chen.

Chapter 6958

The heavenly demon emperor and ye Chen had the same posture and obeyed his command in one fell swoop. Endless demons are entrenched under the sky, and the walls of the void seem to be going through.

The divine power condensed by the bronze giant came to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen roared, his back suddenly straightened, and the remnant body of the heavenly demon emperor imitated his action, raised the sky with both hands and carried the peak on his shoulders.

The endless huge mountains were carried by the demon emperor.

At the next moment, black hole vortices burst out at the foot of Ye Chen, which was crushed by countless magic Qi.

Countless whirlpools interweave into an undercurrent, standing at the feet of the demon emperor to provide support for him.

Seeing this, the bronze giant roared up to the sky and burst out countless space ripples, smashing the rules of order.

He raised one foot and stepped fiercely towards the mountains, just like an Optimus pillar falling from the sky, carrying thousands of cosmic forces.

Even if the remnant body of the demon emperor protected Ye Chen, he couldn't bear such pressure. His whole body fell down and stepped into the black hole vortex.

"Die!"

The roar of the bronze giant rolled like thunder. He raised his feet again and crushed the endless space here. Countless small worlds were broken, and the stars hanging in the distance became dim.

Even the sun was deprived of its brilliance. When you see the bronze giant, you avoid it.

That day, the demon emperor suffered such pressure, and his body was broken in many places and vibrated violently. If it was not maintained by the power of the demon God, I'm afraid it would completely collapse into pieces in the next moment.

Ye Chen also reached the limit. The sea of Qi and meridians almost dried up, and only the will supported him.

"Boy, I lend you my strength!"

"Take mine!"

Huang Lao and Xuanhan jade poured their soul power into Ye Chen's body one by one.

Ye Chen took this to survive the last 30 seconds, and ten minutes arrived.

Then, a sword light came from the top of the void, shining on the world and forcibly tearing open this closed space.

"Justice, you dare to touch him and die!"

The roar of Ren extraordinary came in an instant, just like the thunder of the emperor of heaven! Broke through the space shackles created by the bronze giant.

This is Ren extraordinary's first anger these days!

He will never allow this kind of existence to attack Ye Chen!

If you want to fight, you have to step on his body!

Ye Chen suddenly felt that the pressure on him was much less.

Behind him, the Dharma phase of the heavenly demon emperor turned into a streamer and re penetrated into his body.

Ye Chen saw clearly the position of the heart of the demon emperor. The grass turned into a source of energy, manipulated the disabled body and saved himself.

In his hand, he picked up the grass that was about to fall into the abyss and put it into the green bamboo pool. The green vitality slowly poured in and wrapped the grass.

Although the green bamboo pond is not as powerful as the green bamboo fairy pond of the Emperor Yu, it still has many functions.

Ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief and looked up into the distance. Under the pressure of Ren extraordinary long sword, the bronze giant broke into two sections. After the Jiuding array recovered its original shape, it unexpectedly broke a leg.

"Ren extraordinary! Don't think you can protect the Lord of reincarnation. I must catch him today."

The voice of heaven runs through the sky, like an ear, containing unprecedented ruthlessness and coldness.

He and Ren Feifan are both the top powers in the world. Ren Feifan can be ranked in the top four, and justice happens to be ranked fifth.

In fact, the gap between fourth and fifth is not big. It is difficult to tell the winner in a short time.

If Tianli made up his mind and wanted to entangle Ren extraordinary, and other people came here to deal with Ye Chen, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Now, the best plan is to let Ye Chen enter the xuanhai.

"Xuanhai will overlap with the dark sea today. I'll drag Tianli and you enter it!"

In the vast sky, thunder billowed and dark clouds billowed, and ye Chen, who was recuperating, heard Ren extraordinary voice in his mind.

He looked a cold, and immediately understood the meaning of Ren extraordinary words. Even he could not guarantee his safety 100%.

"Enter the xuanhai? What should the demon emperor do?" Ye Chen murmured.

Ren extraordinary's eyes coagulated and continued: "covering the sky is not so easy to become a container without sky!"

"I see. Elder Ren, you should be careful!"

After the sound transmission, ye Chen sat under the sky, waiting for the arrival of the xuanhai virtual shadow.

After about an hour, the war in the sky has not ended, or even far from entering the white hot stage.

Ye Chen felt something in his heart and looked up. In the ancient starry sky, the light of countless stars was dim.

It seems that something fell from the sky, so vast that it covered all the light.

He looked far into the distance. The reincarnation spirit was burning in his pupils, and he could see through all vanity!

A huge shadow covered the sky, not only covered the brilliance of the stars, but also included half a round of hot sun.

That is a virtual shadow of the xuanhai world, and it is also the entrance to connect the xuanhai and the heavens.

According to legend, xuanhai is an extremely mysterious place. It is a tear left by Hongjun's ancestors when they separated from Wu.

That tear later evolved into the mysterious xuanhai.

And in the dark sea, there are Taoist couples of Hongjun's ancestors and the Taoist tradition left after the fall of Jianjia fairy. Those who inherit the Taoist tradition will become the real master of fate.

Chapter 6959

This time, ye Chen went to xuanhai to find the mother sword formula of all things and the crown of thorns, and to inquire about the news of Xuanji moon to prevent her from becoming the master of fate.

Demon Zu Wutian has been trying to enter xuanhai for years, but he has no way. If he gets the real crown of thorns, he can have the power to compete with the power of the ruins.

The legendary formula of the mother sword of all things was created by Hongjun's father in memory of his dead wife Jianjia fairy. It was also placed in the xuanhai sea.

Ye Chen took a deep breath. No matter whether he was active or forced, he would set foot on this road and go to xuanhai.

When the virtual shadow covering the sky reached its peak, ye Chen threw out the xuanzun gate on the way to the yellow spring.

The door rose and came to the sky, just in line with the world shadow of xuanhai.

Boom!

Around the door of xuanzun, there was a violent thunderstorm, which was the turbulent air flow generated by the first intersection of the forces of the two worlds.

But then, on the door of xuanzun, there was an extremely ancient totem, which pierced the sky and reflected with the virtual shadow of the xuanhai.

Before long, the shadow world on the other side of xuanhai rioted.

Wow.

Countless streams of water seem to come from the sky and flow endlessly, merging with the Milky Way torrent.

The gate of xuanzun acts as a bridge between the xuanhai sea and the dark forbidden sea, which leads to countless surging water flows. In that sky, it turns into a virtual shadow of Taoism, magnificent and magnificent.

The door of xuanzun slowly opened, and the light blue water flowed out, gradually becoming transparent until colorless.

Right now!

Ye Chen seized the time, urged the formation of the virtual tablet with a few energy, burst out the strength to cross the void, penetrated and arrived in front of the door of xuanzun.

Only then did he see how vast the intersection of the two worlds was.

Countless abysses, endless falling stars, these things, usually in the starry sky, may be able to see, but when you get outside and look back, the shock in your heart is still endless.

A mighty force wanted to stop Ye Chen, but was blocked by a wisp of vertical and horizontal sword light.

He knew that Ren Feifan was procrastinating for himself. So without any hesitation, he stepped into the door of xuanzun.

He could not see or hear the outside scene. After experiencing darkness, he became open again.

The door of xuanzun followed him all the time.

When ye Chen saw the scene clearly again, his mood was much better.

The land under his feet was transparent. Looking down, he was surprised to find that the land under his feet was hidden in the clouds.

Xuanhai is indeed above the sky!

Ye Chen confirmed his guess.

Huang Lao told him before that xuanhai was first on the bottom of the sea, and then ascended to the sky.

This xuanhai can be called the most mysterious place in the world of heaven, not only because of its mysterious origin, but also because there are many treasures that have not been excavated by the world.

As for the sects in the xuanhai, except Jianjia sword sect, which has a reputation, the other sects seem to have not heard much news.

Ye Chen carefully felt the richness of aura in the xuanhai, which was more intense than the heaven man domain and the earth heart domain.

The place where he landed is a grassland. The weather is sunny and sunny. The endless grassland has strong wind and beautiful scenery, which makes people relaxed and happy.

In the distance, it seems that someone is running here, riding a jujube red horse.

"Drive..."

A Jiao's cry suddenly stopped. The spirit horse raised its front hooves, and its feet burned like fire. Suddenly, it hissed and stopped slowly.

"Who are you? How can you walk alone in the grassland? Hurry up! Otherwise they will come."

The girl had a beautiful face, big eyes and a youthful spirit.

At the moment, she looked a little anxious.

Who are they? Ye Chen seemed curious, but he still held the girl's hand and got on the spirit horse.

His mind was in a trance. After all, he couldn't remember that he hadn't ridden a horse for many years.

It was many years ago. When he owned wumang, he suddenly missed wumang. He didn't know how well Wei Ying took care of it.

Later, when we fought all the way, we never experienced such a galloping feeling of horses in this vast cosmic starry sky.

Unexpectedly, I experienced it in xuanhai world today.

The girl didn't ask Ye Chen's origin. She seemed to want to escape from the grassland.

The wind in his ear roared and hurt his cheek. Ye Chen slightly leaned over and asked, "what's the matter? Why are you so hurried?"

The girl who was carrying horses to attack looked back at Ye Chen.

"Are you from a foreign country? I have stayed in the Siler family for so long and haven't seen outsiders for a long time!"

The girl said aloud.

Ye Chen found that there was not much aura fluctuation on the girl. I don't know whether she was deliberately hidden or her cultivation was low.

But the girl seemed to see through what Ye Chen thought and explained again: "we Xile people, located on the southern edge of the Xuanhai sea, are the pastoral people, responsible for guarding this area!"

"But every time when many worlds meet, those extraterritorial creatures will take this opportunity to cross the sea of fire and come here! According to the time, they will arrive here in half an hour at most! Fortunately, I Patrol today, otherwise you can't run if you want to."

The key words mentioned in the girl's mouth attracted Ye Chen's attention.

It seems that Xuanhai also knows the communication with other worlds, but what are the extraterritorial creatures?

Ye Chen has an intuition that those creatures do not belong to heaven and man, nor do they belong to the inner earth.

He decided to wait and see the change and run along with the girl on the grassland.

Finally, he seemed to see a city standing on the plain at the end of the horizon.

But at this time, the invisible cold feeling blew along the strong wind, and even Ye Chen had goose bumps.

The girl was also aware of this. She accelerated the speed of the jujube red horse. The horse seemed to have wind under its feet. Every step was as fast as thunder and lightning.

"Here they are!"

The girl said without looking back, and there was a little tension between her look and her eyebrows.

Ye Chen looked back and saw endless dark shadows covering the sky.

The wide grassland is like falling into darkness in an instant.

"Hurry up, or we'll all die if we're entangled by those creatures!"

The girl looked dignified. Her palm was printed and patted on the jujube red horse.

Chapter 6960

The horse roared up to the sky and turned into a streamer. With a swish, it crossed more than ten miles and soon reached the edge of the city.

Ye Chen saw that there was a vacuum area over the city, in which white streamers gathered into an array, supporting the whole sky.

Standing in front of the array were hundreds of strong men. Their bodies stood like mountains, filled with golden light.

Ye Chen only saw a man nine feet tall, raised the huge axe in his hand and supported the huge golden light array.

The man behind received his order and opened a small hole in the protective cover.

The two rode wildly, but behind them, the black gas swept through very quickly. Almost silently caught up with them.

It's only a few miles away from the horses.

A large black hole emerged with infinite fog. Different from the ordinary smell of magic, this black hole is distorted and tore open big cracks, with an extremely evil momentum.

It is a kind of innate evil, which can destroy everything and cause the destruction of the world.

Ye Chen has never seen such darkness and evil, so he can't help but feel a chill in his heart.

Finally, at the last moment when they were wrapped by darkness, they rushed into the gap of the big array and blocked the evil darkness outside.

The golden light flickers and is powerful.

After the girl entered it, she took a deep breath. She didn't know that the last few seconds were taken by Ye Chen using the source.

It was Ye Chen who cut off the connection between them and space that they were able to return to the city on the grassland.

Ye Chen's eyes burst out an invisible strong light, which stopped the black fog for a moment.

It was through this time that ye Chen saw an ancient ship in a void crack.

The ship was so old that it was covered with blood stained flags and moved across the endless black fog.

At this moment, the breath of death enveloped Ye Chen, making the blood in his body stagnate. He hastened to mention the power of reincarnation before he disintegrated this feeling!

"What the hell is that..."

Ye Chen said to himself in his heart. He stayed in the huge array covering the whole city. The golden light shining above his head blocked the crazy roaring black clouds.

Everywhere in the city, there are powerful people to maintain the array.

He stood on the wall and looked around. Many residents hid in it, trembling and full of fear.

Finally, I don't know how long it took, those black clouds finally dissipated, and the golden light Dharma array became broken.

Those prairie men who held up half the sky were panting and tired.

"These extraterritorial creatures are terrible. As long as there are loopholes in the xuanhai sea every time, they flood in like crazy people."

The middle-aged man wielding a huge axe is the center of the whole array. His breath is long and long, and ye Chen can't see through it. It is roughly estimated that he is the strong one at the level of emperor.

These monsters are so dead that even he feels depressed.

"Thank you, little brother. I'm afraid it would be dangerous if you didn't pull my daughter at the end!"

He came over and thanked with a fist, and the girl's eyes were full of gratitude.

He was promoted to the highest leader of the grassland. Although he was surprised at the origin of Ye Chen, he didn't ask much.

In the vast outside world, there are many top talents with extremely strong strength, but they have not opened up the way into xuanhai all the time.

What can come in from this ancient road must be a powerful existence!

Ye Chen probably knows the situation here by talking with him.

This is the southernmost part of xuanhai, in a deserted area, and most of the famous xuanhai sects are distributed in rich places such as the South and the middle.

They are a group of grassland people, responsible for guarding the southern area. On weekdays, they stand aloof from the world and rarely participate in the grand event of xuanhai.

But in terms of strength, it is definitely not weak.

After staying here for a day, ye Chen said goodbye and left. Before leaving, he also asked about some things related to the black air.

The grassland leader looked dignified and shook his head. They only knew that those evil guys came in from the void and black hole.

It doesn't belong to the universe at all!

Because they are not bound by rules and do not follow the way of heaven, they are extremely strange.

Ye Chen thought in his heart, what kind of species is this? He has never heard of it before, but the mysterious sea is infinitely mysterious and almost independent of the universe. It is not difficult to understand the emergence of this creature.

The boundary of xuanhai and its division may still be hot molten slurry one second ago. It surges like a tide in the continuous area of Zhushan mountain. The next second, it can reach the ice and snow wasteland, with the cold roaring.

During this period, ye Chen used several identities to inquire about the news, all of which heard xuanjiyue's name.

Xuanjiyue is now the daughter of destiny selected by Jianjia sword sect. She will inherit the orthodoxy and become the most dazzling star in xuanhai soon.

When ye Chen heard the news, his heart became a little heavy. Xuan Jiyue is his enemy. In this life, he must blade each other to wash away the abuse debt.

The stronger she is, the more difficult it will be for ye Chen.

So he inquired about Jianjia sword sect.

However, one thing is puzzling. The world knows the name of Jianjia sword school, but it doesn't know where Jianjia sword school is located.
