Chapter 7021

This killing intention firmly locked Ye Chen and made him unable to move.

When ye Chen was living or dying, he used the strength of reincarnation blood to fill his whole body, burn aura and tear the dark law.

He picked up sun Yerong, whose strength was sealed and unable to move, and he escaped the glory of the sword.

At the next moment, the powerful killing intention shattered the void where he was and tore everything to pieces.

Even if ye Chen showed his extreme speed, he was still affected. Wow, he spit out a mouthful of blood.

Blood dripping, dyed the earth under his feet red, and a huge blood hole appeared in his right chest.

Inexplicable forces are eroding the blood hole and tearing his flesh, and the reincarnation blood in his body is fighting against it and gradually gaining the upper hand.

The skin on the surface wriggles and flesh regenerates, making his body recover quickly.

"Are you okay?"

Sun Yerong was surprised to see ye Chen's injury.

In her eyes, no matter how many strong enemies she faces, ye Chen has always been a crazy attitude that you are crazy, you are stronger than me.

And his body seemed to be made of ancient Warcraft. After so many wars, there was no drop of blood!

At this time, ye Chen was injured.

This is definitely not good news for them.

"I said you are not my opponent. Why struggle to death."

Ghost unparalleled took a step forward, and all the scenes around him changed accordingly.

Just for a moment, he came to Ye Chen, only a few meters away from them.

At this time, without hesitation, ye Chen directly used the most powerful move: water stop sword.

The mysterious power beyond the laws of reality surged out of the void without stopping for a moment and directly crushed all the real world.

The terrible Kendo condensed into the ultimate power along a track and erupted within a square inch.

Ghost matchless is going to fight. Who thought Ye Chen was one step faster than him and summoned such a powerful force.

The strength of Kendo contains a breath of nothing. Even his strength can't stop it.

There is no transcendence of all the laws of reality, everything in front of him is a broken bubble. It can be broken with a gentle cut.

The unparalleled order God chain is extremely frightening. It rises into the sky and bursts out in an instant, forming the most lethal attack means in the world.

The ghost's unparalleled reaction reached the top of the mountain and was extremely fast, but Rao was still hurt because of his cultivation strength and momentum.

With a dull hum, he staggered back, and the black robe on his left shoulder turned into fragments, revealing his dark and ferocious body.

And he had more than a dozen bloody scars on his body.

The ghost peerless suddenly raised his head and looked very terrible.

"Damn it, damn it! You mole ants hurt the king! The king must kill you today!"

The crazy roar of ghosts spread all over the eight wastelands. Countless creatures were shocked by it and didn't dare to move forward. Their eyes were full of fear.

But ye Chen didn't give him a chance to strike again. He urged the reincarnation power in his body to the extreme.

Then he informed ling'er that he tore the void behind him through the virtual monument, and then took sun Yerong and fled elsewhere.

At this time, he has no time to set a specific location and escape to the South or East and West. I'm afraid the ghost can catch up quickly. He has to go to the North!

It's better for him to know after he went to the frozen snow field than to lose his life now.

But just for a moment, ye Chen seemed to feel several tombstones shaking in the reincarnation cemetery.

He glanced at the tombstone of reincarnation cemetery, and his eyes shrunk slightly. Sure enough, several tombstones glittered with a trace of light. Although the light did not reach the point of attraction, it was not long from the attraction!

How many reincarnation graveyards can appear this time?

What kind of power will it be?

Ye Chen is curious. After all, the emergence of reincarnation power is an extremely key node. Moreover, each power is the acme of a field and can help himself a lot!

If several people appear at the same time, perhaps the remaining nine heavenly gods and even save the devil emperor will have a great chance of winning.

However, it is still unable to trigger and solve the immediate dilemma.

The most important thing now is to get out of here!

As soon as ye Chen clenched his teeth, his body disappeared in situ, and from the fluctuation left in the void, a trace of threatening cold rushed out.

This wisp of cold made ghost unparalleled come to a sudden stop, and his look became very dignified.

"Damn it... This guy would rather die there than in my hand. He has the courage to escape to the frozen snow field... What's the difference between this and death!"

Yumiya and shanguanyun also rushed over. At this time, they were surprised and suspicious.

"If he wants to die, let him go. Not everyone can survive the frozen snow field, or no one can survive, even if you and I go."

Yumiya shook her head, which was tantamount to sentencing them to death in advance.

The ghost has no pair of hands around his chest and sneers.

"Isn't that just right? Your task is to send sun Yerong to the frozen snow field. Now the boy has finished it for you in advance."

Shangguan Yun is also smiling.

He did not expect that ye Chen could not calculate the probability of death. He fell into the most terrible place.

Chapter 7022

Several people left one after another and returned to Jianjia sword sect.

On the other side, ye Chen went through the void crack and plunged into the ice field with sun Yerong.

The biting cold wind came to their faces and immediately made them shiver.

This place is definitely not simple!

Ye Chen opened the Hongmeng starry sky and the divine light of body protection at the first time, blocking the bone piercing snow and ice out of the pores, and his body became more comfortable.

He used reincarnation blood to help sun Yerong untie the rope of the sword that bound Reiki.

Sun Yerong uses the hundred flower sword to summon a purple lily and wrap herself in it to avoid the invasion of wind and cold.

"Ye Shitian, thank you very much this time. If you hadn't come to save me, I'm afraid I would have died."

Sun Yerong sincerely thanked.

When ye Chen heard the speech, he smiled bitterly: "I wanted to save you, but I didn't expect to finally enter the frozen snow field."

Sun Yerong smiled.

What about coming in? What if she doesn't come in? No one has worked so hard for her in her life. Even if she dies, it's worth it.

"It doesn't matter. Even if you come in, you can find a way to get out, but the storm in the frozen snow field is really terrible. We haven't entered it yet after walking for so long."

Ye Chen looked at the ice sheet and thought.

He asked sun Yerong carefully about the origin and horror of the frozen snow field.

Sun Yerong sighed and fell into some kind of memory.

"The master once told me that this frozen snow field actually didn't exist at the beginning. The reason why it evolved into the most terrible forbidden area in xuanhai is because it is a saint of Jianjia sword school."

"Holy Son?" Ye Chen pondered for a moment and then asked, "as far as I know, Jianjia sword sect is a sect dominated by women. Even if men practice sword skills, they can't become the successor of Taoism. Where does the Holy Son come from?"

It's not strange that there are saints and sons in Jianjia sword sect, but it's extremely strange.

Sun Yerong shook her head and said she didn't know: "I don't know the origin of the son, but in the end, he was sealed. It is said that the anger in his heart is the roaring wind and snow on the ice field, which contains the power to erode the spirit."

"Anyone who stays here for ten days will be eroded by wind and snow, and his mind will become blurred. After ten days, he will dissipate and become a dead bone in the ice field."

Hearing this, ye Chen couldn't help but tut her tongue secretly. How much resentment must it be to turn the bone burial place into a forbidden place!

Or what an amazing talent it takes to evolve such a terrible vision.

Why should Jianjia sword sect seal and execute such evil spirits against the sky?

The wind and snow are all over the sky, so that people's eyes can't open.

After only a few minutes, ye Chen felt a trace of wind and snow, which seemed to be hitting his divine soul power.

He was shocked with gold and hanged the snow fragments.

The wound hit by ghost matchless has not healed, so it has attracted a lot of wind and snow.

With a wave of sun Yerong's jade hand, he built a dreamland.

The wind and snow disappeared. Although it was only temporary, it also made people feel peace and tranquility.

"Your injury is not well. You can't stay in the wind and snow for too long."

Sun Yerong said seriously. She asked Ye Chen to stay in this flower fantasy for a while to recuperate and heal.

In her hands, it was no problem for the dreamland to last for two or three hours.

The dreamland built here is very quiet, the moonlight is bright, and the river in the distance flows slowly.

The waves were shining, and the naughty fish jumped out of the water and splashed drops of water.

There are several mountains on the bank, towering and magnificent, which have spread to the distance.

On the zigzag shore, the roar of tigers and apes spread over the valley, adding a trace of vitality to the picturesque dreamland.

Ye Chen took the time to recover from the injury. The residual ghost spirit was still hovering in his chest for a long time.

He directly used the blood of reincarnation and the spirit tablet revived by the Lord of reincarnation to burn the body, and the wisp of ghost gas was evaporated.

Although there will be severe pain, but for ye Chen, he has suffered the pain of cutting bones and meat. What is this?

At this time, a soft force came into Ye Chen's wound.

He turned his head and saw sun Yerong standing next to her. Her black hair covered less than half of her face, but she couldn't cover her beautiful, lovely and delicate face like a gem.

Her skin is as smooth as jade grease, her big eyes are flexible, moist, extremely warm and beautiful.

Perhaps it is because sun Yerong usually doesn't apply powder, and often stares at her eyes and pours at her mouth, which makes people ignore her beauty.

Seeing ye Chen staring at himself, Rao is with sun Yerong's character of fearlessness. At this time, his face is also slightly red.

"You... Don't look at me like that."

She immediately turned her head, rather embarrassed.

However, the aura she gave encouraged Ye Chen's recovery speed.

After an hour and a half, the last scar on Ye Chen's chest completely healed.

And he opened his eyes and his breath returned to its peak.

Sun Yerong sat quietly, her eyes like black gemstones, as if she could understand other people's thoughts.

Ye Chen smiled at her, then turned his palm, and a golden pill appeared in front of her.

"Take this. It may be helpful to your injury." Ye Chen said.

Sun Yerong was not polite either. He took it and was very relieved of Ye Chen.

Two hours later, sun Yerong no longer supported strongly. With a flash of light, the illusion suddenly burst. When they stood in place, they all felt the wind and snow all over the sky. The powerful storm could almost overturn people.

Ye Chen summoned the wish sky star, and then summoned the red dust God pulse to protect the body surface, while he protected the heaven and earth xuanhuang tower on sun Yerong's head.

In this way, they can be protected from the wind and snow.

Sun Yerong doesn't know why. She is a little happy. As long as ye Chen is around her, she has a sense of security.

As they walked on, the ice sheet could not see the end, and because of the suppression of rules, they could not fly in the air.

"This place is really very strange."

Ye Chen suspected that many people were not killed by the wind and snow, but could not get out of here. They were desperate, and their aura was exhausted.

Finally, it was frozen in the wind and snow, leaving only dead bones.

However, ye Chen's heart was not so fragile. He strengthened his mind. Wu Zu's heart broke out and went on to a valley.

Chapter 7023

The wind and snow here is a little less, because there are cliffs on both sides. In the middle of this tall cliff, there is a passage about ten meters wide for people to pass.

On a slope, they can see clearly that below the frozen layer, there is a mirror like smooth water surface. It can be imagined that this area should have been a green mountain and green water before.

Suddenly, there was a violent vibration in the central area of the valley.

Countless pieces of ice fell on the ground, splashing a lot of snowflakes.

Ye Chen with sharp eyes found that a figure was killed out of the rumbling snow and ice.

It was a soldier on a horse, very fast.

But the knight has no head!

Ye Chen's pupil suddenly shrinks.

The headless knight was tall and majestic, and came on horseback. His whole body was a fifth of the height of the valley.

But his momentum is higher than the whole valley.

The war horse seemed to rush from hell, shaking the sky, with amazing fluctuations, and its hooves were as thick as its legs.

The silver armor on the knight's body was shining and chilling. It was like a big mountain. The snowflakes in a radius of more than ten miles could not fly again.

He is like an ancient demon who has lost his head. He is powerful and unstoppable. The ice sheet trembles, and even the sky thousands of miles above is awed by his pressure.

Sun Yerong just wanted to move forward and took a step to use the hundred flowers sword technique, but he was stopped by Ye Chen.

"Don't move! The headless knight seems strange."

Ye Chen's eyes fixed on the headless knight, passed through his body and saw the scene behind him.

There seemed to be two vague figures standing in the snow and ice, looking this way indifferently.

Ye Chen can be sure that they are two people!

"Let's try to get around the headless knight. There are people behind him. Maybe we can find the answer by catching those two people."

Ye Chen said quickly.

Sun Yerong was shocked when she heard the speech. Although her strength was not weak, her eyesight was average. She couldn't see that there were still two people hidden in the ice field.

Sooner or later, the headless knight rushed over. The god horse fell like a mountain, and the strong sense of War reached the top. It was like the ancient god of war coming here again. The vast and bloody gas kept flowing.

He waved the invincible long knife in his hand and vaguely attracted the air machine of the whole ice field valley. At this moment, the wind and snow stopped blowing and began a reverse attack.

All the ice and snow rushed to Ye Chen and sun Yerong.

Boom!

Such momentum is simply irresistible.

The void here began to crack, and countless cracks continued to spread in all directions. It was a terrible scene in the ice Valley!

"This... This is terrible."

Sun Yerong's face was full of panic, but ye Chen on one side was very calm and calm.

He is waiting. When the headless knight falls down, he can urge the array and trap it!

Ordinary array can't trap the headless knight at all, so we can only use the power between heaven and earth.

In Ye Chen's eyes, endless brilliance blooms, and the breath of killing, destruction, immortality and silence circulates in his eyes.

These are the power of Shinto he has. When used, he can cross heaven and earth.

The rules of heaven and earth gush out endlessly, and the rumbling sound is heard all the time. The power of Shinto spreads vertically and horizontally in this ice field, forming cracks!

The power of the headless knight is unparalleled and terrible, but ye Chen blooms for a moment, like a tsunami.

In the twinkling of light, he tore open the void, forcibly broke the rules of the edge, sent a short distance, and circled behind the headless knight.

The dagger of the headless knight pierces the space at the next moment and collapses all the void.

They only left a residual shadow in place, and the subject had already disappeared.

After the headless knight lost his knife, he roared at the ice field and looked very angry.

He never thought that his moves had failed!

The headless knight suddenly turned around, as if he had a pair of invisible eyes staring at the rear.

He pulled the reins and rode the horse back. At this time, he also understood that ye Chen's real goal was behind!

The angry roar of the headless knight is like the roar of a dragon or the roar of a tiger, mixed with the power of the origin of the road.

He seems to try to stop Ye Chen with this roar, but it doesn't help.

In a twinkling of an eye, ye Chen came to the place. He kept staring at the two people hidden in the ice field. Suddenly, he blocked the place with the laws of space and time to prevent them from escaping.

Then, using eight Fu Tu Qi, a giant Buddha fell from the sky to suppress this place.

Finally, holding the Longyuan Heavenly Sword, the blood gas churned and the long dragon broke the air. The huge blood dragon virtual shadow emerged and completely imprisoned the two people's bodies.

Sun Yerong followed Ye Chen. Before his brain reacted, he was shown by Ye Chen's series of operations.

Leng is that I haven't recovered for a long time.

The two villains standing in the ice field secretly watching the war were only half the height of normal people. They thought they would hide here and would not be found.

At this time, seeing ye Chen killing, he was a little flustered and jumped up. He wanted to escape into the ice field, but he was stopped by the Buddha light spreading on the ground.

Chapter 7024

Without ice and snow, their actions were blocked and they couldn't escape at all!

When they reacted, a sword was already on their neck.

"Don't move, and don't doubt the sharpness of my sword, which is enough to cut off your flesh and soul in an instant."

Ye Chen's threat was very effective. He immediately frightened the two villains and didn't dare to move.

Taking this opportunity, ye Chen observed the faces of the two villains.

They all wear a pair of masks made of ice and snow, revealing their eyes and mouths. In addition to shrinking, they are no different from ordinary people in other aspects.

The headless knight's reaction speed was also very fast. After only two breaths, he returned to the rear and faced this side murderously.

Ye Chen could feel that a pair of invisible eyes were staring at him, and wanted to swallow him alive.

Ye Chen's heart relaxed a little. He knew he was right.

"You can also try to see if your knife is fast or my sword is fast."

Ye chenmi raised her eyes and looked at the headless knight.

Although the headless knight was angry, the big knife didn't fall.

"You... Retreat first, we'll be fine..."

One of the villains was the first to speak. He spoke a little stumbling, but he could hear the voice of a girl.

Hearing the speech, the headless knight had to ride a horse and retreat two steps.

But he didn't get too far away and still guarded nearby.

"Now, can you let us go?"

The girl inquired cautiously.

"Tell me what you know. Who are you? Where do you come from? Why can you survive in this ice field? And where is the exit of this frozen snow field?"

Ye Chen asked several key questions in a row.

The two men were obviously a man and a woman. Now the little boy was pointed by Ye Chen's sword and shivered all over. He didn't expect to say anything, so he came.

The little girl looked very calm. She looked at Ye Chen.

Her eyes were neither sad nor happy, and there was not much fluctuation.

Ye Chen even felt that the little girl seemed confident.

Sure enough, the little girl said lightly, "I advise you not to stay here too long. The people will know what has happened in the wind valley. If they come here, you two will not escape."

The little girl's words are like warning and more like admonition.

"Are you threatening me?" Ye Chen's voice suddenly became fierce.

The little girl remained calm.

Ye Chen was surprised to see the little girl, but he didn't care too much.

"I didn't threaten you. You can't resist the ice and snow Saint alone. There may be a chance to escape, but if you stay here, there is only a dead end!"

"Oh? Really?" Ye Chen's eyes narrowed into a dangerous arc, "then tell me where it's dangerous?"

At this time, the little girl seemed to feel something. She looked up at the vast ice and snow in the sky. There was a storm brewing and will arrive soon.

"As for what you said, I don't know, otherwise our people of ice and snow would have escaped here long ago. It's necessary to stay in this place and be attacked by wind and snow every day!"

"Also, the elder of our ice clan is coming. You'd better think about it!"

The little girl's tone doesn't match her age. She looks like an adult.

When her momentum came out, the headless knight seemed to feel fear and unconsciously stepped back for several steps. Even the fierce horse with the fire of the nether world burning in her pupils sobbed in a low voice, no longer as arrogant as before.

Ye Chen looked up and saw that the ice and snow storm had taken shape, like a round of cold and hot sun, hanging in the air, piercing and fierce, so that people can't look directly at it.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong looked very dignified. The storm was getting closer and closer. It seemed that they were coming towards them!

Its breath is extremely powerful and mysterious.

At this time, ye Chen suddenly saw an object contained in the tornado storm.

It's a sword made of cold ice. I'm afraid it's hundreds of meters long, thick and thin. The cold light flows and flashes inexplicable brilliance.

The incomparably cold breath, together with the mysterious fluctuation, diffuses slowly and diffuses between the heaven and the earth.

"What's that?"

Ye Chen couldn't help asking.

"Ice sword?"

There was a trace of doubt in sun Yerong's tone.

"Hmm? What's the ice sword?" Ye Chen asked immediately.

Sun Yerong took a deep breath and began to explain what she knew about the ice Jue sword.

This ice sword is not an original weapon, but a substitute for a disaster storm. It will only appear in the snow ice field. Once it breaks out, the people swept by it will die here.

Sun Yerong once saw the power of the storm in ancient books, which can be called destroying the sky and the earth. But the storms recorded above are rare in history.

Today, they happened to meet.

As time went on, the storm became more and more terrible, only a few miles away from them.

And in that storm, there were people looming, very terrible and powerful.

The headless knight felt some kind of dignity, directly prostrated on the ground, knelt head-on and trembled.

The character in the storm seemed to frighten him very much.

Ye Chen stared at that side. The blood of reincarnation penetrated the vanity. In an instant, he penetrated the storm and saw the fleeting figure inside.

Chapter 7025

This terrible vision made the edge of the whole snow area tremble. The power was too powerful and powerful. It went down and was cold and ruthless.

Ye Chen knows that this must be a storm manipulated by someone. The target is himself and sun Yerong.

"What cattle, ghosts and snake gods! Come out to fight if you have the ability."

Ye Chen stood where he was and didn't move at all. He clenched his fist and blew it out.

This fist contains the supreme moral mystery and carries the power of a trace of reincarnation blood. It directly rushes into the sky and kills the enemy.

But the fist intention only stopped in the middle of the air, and it suddenly stopped. It seems that there is a sound of ice raging, destroying the sky and the earth, exploding without trace, and being overbearing.

There was a cold hum in the storm.

A bloody long sword rises from the ground with killing intention.

This Kendo explodes and the void is broken. It is mysterious and powerful.

But the ice storm did not stop, but more and more condensed and formed.

But ye Chen's expression did not change at all, and seemed very calm.

A figure finally appeared. It turned out to be a man with snow-white hair and pale skin. His eyes were indifferent and ruthless, and his silver hair was draped behind his head, adding a trace of seriousness to him.

The two villains were relieved when they saw him.

"He's coming to save us!" said the boy in surprise.

The little girl smiled and didn't answer, but her expression had explained everything.

At this moment, the landing was uneven, and the void echoed far away, blooming from a wisp of broken flowers of cold ice.

This wisp of ice and broken flowers is half sword!

This unparalleled sense of cold ice shattered the sky and was extremely overbearing. With the power of rolling frost, it shrouded Ye Chen's body.

Boom!

Ye Chen's fist intention collided with the icy sword Qi, like the ocean setting off towering waves, straight to the sky and overturning the sky.

Sun Yerong's eyes were quick and her hands were quick. She gave the two children a living with the power of flowers, and then withdrew to one side.

If the strength of the other party is so strong, they will threaten with hostages!

The war took place in a moment, and endless changes came into being.

The storm in the wind Valley seems to have been covered. Between heaven and earth, there is only the extreme collision between them.

Boom! Boom!

The world shook and the bodies of the two of them, which were involved in the ice and snow, burst apart. Unexpectedly, they were two residual shadows!

From another place, the fire and frost just emerged and burst into a violent divine light.

For a time, the darkness surged over the whole earth!

When the ice and snow dispersed, ye Chen was surrounded by endless blood light, like a startling God of war from ancient times.

At another high altitude, huge ice spikes condense out, and the ice storm is like a sculpture, standing still and vast.

"This guy's strength is very strong. Don't get close."

Ye Chen reminds sun Yerong with a voice.

On the ice sculpture, the frost dispersed, and a looming hazy figure stood in the air. His body was tall but vague, with only a pair of eyes, which looked like ice that would not melt for ten thousand years. It was very frightening.

"People outside the territory, like mole ants, dare to take the creatures of our family as hostages?"

The voice was like the thunder of heaven, vast and mighty, and ordinary forces could not stop it at all.

Clang!

His palm was raised and stretched into the air. It was with this that the endless frost sword took shape. The sky resonated with it and split into terrible cracks.

The endless path of cold ice sweeps the world, and all things mourn.

Ye Chen speculates that this person's strength is not under Xuanji moon! Extremely difficult to deal with.

However, he is not helpless! Just as ye Chen was preparing for the sword, in the void, the other two cold ice figures condensed and formed.

Those are two people! Judging from the breath, it is very powerful.

These two people, one left and one right, are at the top of the void. Their appearance characteristics are the same as those of the first person. Their hair color is silver frost, mysterious and extremely cold.

The two of them seemed to have a sharp heart. Their left and right hands produced swords at the same time, and the runes condensed by the cold ice hit out, dazzling.

Countless icy morality suddenly sprang out and gathered into a regular God chain.

Ye Chen's eyes changed. He could see that their breath was not weak!

Even stronger than the first one.

What kind of existence is the race in the frozen snow? Ye Chen was very surprised, and his heart was a little heavy, because he was not sure that he could deal with the three people together.

These three people, like emperors who came to the world, surrounded the wind Valley, condensed the meaning of frost, shrouded the whole sky, looked up, and even the sky was crystal clear and dark.

It was the ice curtain condensed by the forest cold, which reflected a dazzling luster and dazzling, making people feel dizzy.

But the arrow was on the line and had to be sent. At this point, ye Chen could only bite his teeth and continue to rush forward.

He is the Lord of reincarnation. He will ascend the world and dominate the world in the future. There is no word retreat in his dictionary.

Ye Chen closed her eyes and felt the rules of Kendo contained in the ice and snow.

Finally, he caught the faint breath and pulled out his sword in an instant. The sword was like a rainbow and was almost tearing the ice curtain.

The magic power of water stop sword, carrying all kinds of terrible breath, faces the cold array composed of the three strong ice families.

A sword Qi, if any, rushed out like the law, surrounded Ye Chen and rushed into the air. It was really frightening!

There was no one around, but sun Yerong saw all this in her eyes. Her eyes were full of shock.

Ye Chen seems to have such a strong posture in the face of all the enemies! Against all sides, fearless.

Although the strength of the other party has exceeded the limit of the hundred yoke realm, ye Chen is still extremely confident. This pride and hegemony come from his bones!

Is an indelible fighting gene of a king.

A sword flying across the sky, light and cold Kyushu, how domineering!

The emptiness along the way cracked and collapsed in an instant, and could not withstand the devastation of such sword Qi.

"This guy's strength... Seems to be stronger than we think."

"Moreover, his breath is very special and strange." there is a figure of cold ice in his voice.

But another tall figure was dismissive.

"It's just a human being who has been exiled. He has used dark means to coerce our people as coercion!"

Their bodies are covered with cold and white air, which is the supreme defense and can resist all attacks in the world.

But this does not include no law.

Nothing is independent of reality, beyond reality and above the heavens.

They didn't react until the sword light completely broke out. It was the Qi of nothingness in the lost chaotic space!

Chapter 7026

"What!"

The ice clan old man in the middle screamed. The ice shield in front of him turned into nothingness. Quietly, it was melted by the power of nothingness and no longer exists.

The other two also retreated rapidly. Until then, they realized the terror of no momentum.

It was not that they were strong enough to resist Wuwu, but that ye Chen deliberately suppressed the Wuwu Qi machine when he broke out his sword intention. He didn't start to force until the later stage of the sword light attack.

This wisp of nothing, but it can run through the world!

All the ice sheets within a hundred miles melted into water and then evaporated completely, breaking through the restrictions of Rune rules.

"This power... Is terrible. It's purer than the cold power of the elders I've seen."

The kidnapped ICE family little boy, trembling and frightened, said.

Another little girl also looked dignified at this time. She obviously knew more and judged nothing.

The three people in the sky didn't fight with Ye Chen at this time, but used their strongest defense means to avoid Ye Chen's attack.

The remaining lawlessness is scattered between heaven and earth, such as a meteor falling, causing great damage, and the edge of destruction can no longer recover.

Ye Chen's sword, but he used a lot of strength to force the strong back!

In an instant, the three people jointly launched a strike. The cold ice crown day surged, and the huge frost barb, like a weapon formed by the collapse of Tianzhu, rolled over Ye Chen.

The "potential" firmly locked Ye Chen's position and made him unable to move at all.

Ye Chen clenched his teeth and offered his magic weapon. The power emitted by such treasure arts and supernatural powers was astonishing.

However, after the magic power dissipated, the strong men of the three ice families still stood still, just like no one else.

When ye Chen saw this scene, waves sprang up in his heart.

What species are these people? So strong.

His reincarnation eyes can see through vanity, but they can't explore each other's past.

"Ye Chen, you should be careful. I guess the flesh of these people may have been left over from the last era. They hid in the ice and snow. The flesh did not die out and the spirit was born again. There have been such records in the history books of Jianjia sword sect."

Sun Yerong's voice came into Ye Chen's ears, which shocked him all over.

i see! No wonder these guys were intact under the attack of wuwudao, but their defense was broken.

The three men looked as cold as frost and stared at Ye Chen.

Bang!

There was a loud explosion in the air. The two figures swooped like goshawks. They were extremely fast. Even the air exploded and evolved into clouds of haze.

They came quickly, and the rules of cold ice intertwined into runes and crashed down.

Ye Chen suddenly felt a chill in his heart, and the brilliant brilliance was impressively formed on his body surface, with fairy Qi misty.

However, it still can't stop the ice law all over the sky. The other party's power is extremely powerful.

Ye Chen burned the blood of reincarnation and wanted to retreat under great pressure, but suddenly, a trace of blood stabbed him. He didn't know what it was, emitting a dark red light.

Ye Chen felt the frightening magic power from it.

He immediately urged several source runes and dust tablets in his body to block in front of him and form a defense array.

However, it can not completely stop the sharp edge!

A piece of blood mist was steaming up and drilling into Ye Chen's pores. It was silent. Suddenly, even ye Chen didn't respond. He quickly closed all channels in the meridians.

But the skin and pores were attacked!

That layer of blood mist exploded on his body surface, affecting the operation of menstrual blood. For a moment, the inexplicable shock force bounced off him.

Ye Chen's body fell heavily and crashed into the ice field.

Under the sky, there was a strong man of ice family. I don't know when, his whole body condensed bright red blood armor.

He just manipulated the blood armour to attack and hurt Ye Chen.

After that, he smiled, and the cold light surged in his eyes.

"It's just a small minion who broke in from the outside. What's the qualification to be arrogant in this frozen snow area? I'll abolish you today."

Those people summoned the magic tools of the ice family and condensed them into the supreme sword formula. In a moment, the cold ice burst open, and the cold white flame emerged out of thin air, shaking even the nearby void.

At the end of the avenue, the road implication transformed by the rules of ice and snow was demonstrated.

After ye Chen smashed into the ice field, his consciousness became a little vague. Although he sealed the meridians and blood in his body and protected the origin of the sea of Qi, he was eaten back after all.

I couldn't control it for a moment. With a wow, I vomited blood.

At this time, sun Yerong couldn't care about the situation of the two people. His body flashed and quickly came to Ye Chen.

"You can't continue fighting, or your foundation will be affected."

Sun Yerong's eyes are worried. These people are at home and have the blessing of the power of ice and snow. The injury to Ye Chen is more serious than that caused by ghost Wushuang!

Old wounds are not healed, new wounds are added.

Sun Yerong really didn't want to see it. Ye Chen worked so hard for herself.

Her eyes suddenly became cold, and in an instant, a hundred flowers bloomed endlessly.

With the clang of the hundred flower sword, it rushed into the sky and sent out Yingying light. In the next moment, it condensed into an invincible sword light, mysterious, hazy, extremely dignified and terrible.

However, in the face of a steady stream of cold ice, her Baihua divine sword fell down after all. Soon it was beaten back to its original shape and had no power to fight back.

Under such heavy pressure, sun Yerong's sword soul split quietly!

The origin is damaged and the breath becomes extremely depressed.

The tall ice clan elder stood in the void. The black fog billowed around him, and his blood gas turned into killing intention. A pair of eyes were wrapped by cold ice, but they were burning ghost fire.

"You deserve to die."

He said coldly and sentenced them to death in an instant.

On the other side, ye Chen pointed a finger and the void law condensed out, forming a baffle, which greatly alleviated the impact of sun Yerong's falling.

And he wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth and despised it very much.

"If you want to decide my life and death, I'm afraid you're not qualified!"

"Hongjun body art, Xinghe fist, open!"

Ye Chen roared, and all his strength gathered on the fist face, like the falling stars. Countless ancient words were intertwined into lines, blooming and frightening.

This is Ye Chen's unexpected harvest in Tianjian sect.

The body skill cultivation method left by Hongjun's ancestor has reached the peak of the world, standing like a mountain in front of it.

The ice clan leader was not afraid at all. He raised his hand. There was snow and ice all over the sky. There was a burst of light and fog on both sides of him, just like a sacred ceremony.

Chapter 7027

The snow and ice gathered at the position where ye Chen's fist and mang reached.

Ye Chen's eyes suddenly changed. He moved his body across the sky. His five fingers vibrated like dragon claws.

This is the legendary dragon claw divine skill. When combined with the body skill of Hongjun's ancestor, it can form an extremely powerful Cunjin move and tear up the enemy in the blink of an eye.

But the elder of the ice family, after all, surpassed Ye Chen too much. He was really surprised to use such attacks on Ye Chen, and his expression was slightly surprised.

But this surprise soon turned into a sneer. His body was very strong and indestructible. The Dragon claws left only a few shallow white marks on the skin of his body.

"It's useless. In this ice and snow field, your means can't hurt me."

The ice clan elder shook his head and then hit him with a fist.

Ye Chenmai moved his steps and shrunk to an inch. He rose up in the air and rotated. A record of the power of the package to destroy the Daoyin kicked out, like a dragon. There was a faint explosion of dragon power, which was extremely powerful.

The ice clan elder looked indifferent. His whole body was surrounded by black light and condensed into a black phoenix in front of him. His fierce flame was towering and extremely fierce.

Boom!

The void here has collapsed, and the scene is appalling.

At the bottom, the mountains gathered by ice and snow collapsed inch by inch, and countless ice valleys were buried. The ice and snow melted in the ice field and paved a long river.

The river went through the mountain, and it was so vast that it smashed the ground into endless pits.

Countless pieces of ice are flying and dancing, forming an extremely violent ice and snow tornado.

The power of heaven and earth is so terrible. The scene of void collapse shook the ice family base camp far away.

Many ice people came out one after another. After a moment of deliberation, they rushed to the battlefield.

At this time, Ye Chen didn't know that the people of the ice family came here.

After fighting with the ice clan elders, he sighed at the strength of each other's flesh. Every inch of skin seemed to be a world of its own, sealed with endless cold air.

Once one place is broken, other places will shine with treasure and repair it.

Such means can be called cheating. How can others fight?

Ye Chen also saw such an opponent for the first time.

In the past, his flesh was basically invincible in the same realm. He just let go to fight, but today he can't.

The opponent's body is forged by the ancient spirit after strengthening. It has an unparalleled body. It can deal with the enemy only with pure physical strength.

After the ice clan elder forced Ye Chen back, he still seemed a little dissatisfied.

"If my physical power was not less than one tenth of my peak period, how could I get a young generation like you to show off."

His body comes from ancient times and is extremely strong.

But ye Chen didn't destroy his prestige. Instead, he disdained to say, "what ability is it to play prestige by the flesh I picked up? If I had your luck, my strength would be more than this. I would have reached the top long ago."

The two of them exchanged hundreds of moves between you and me.

"Want to fight me? That's it. The battle can be over."

The elder of the ice clan obviously lost his patience to fight with Ye Chen. On his palm, the power of cold ice gathered wildly, turned into a dark blue magic sword and split it down.

The breath of darkness mixed with the cold ice, soared suddenly and walked through the sky.

The icy sword was cut and did not break away from the hands of the ice clan elders. It seemed a little abrupt, but its power was very powerful.

Ye Chen felt the crisis. A pair of Phoenix wings appeared behind him. If the clouds hung in the sky, they filled the air. Suddenly, they flashed, and the hot way of sky fire burned.

Boom!

The black sword light clashed with the Phoenix's wings, and they did not give in to each other.

This time, both sides used extremely powerful forces. In addition, there are two elders of the ice family, one left and one right, watching Ye Chen's escape route.

Sun Yerong also came up. She was responsible for being a troublemaker.

After combining with Ye Chen's double swords, the power of sword light increased greatly. For a time, it could compete with Han Bing.

But at the same time, the other two ice people also moved.

The two of them left and right, separated part of the pressure, and then broke through the air. The cold light was intertwined, and the sword light roared out from the depths of the snow ice field.

"Back!"

Ye Chen felt a thrilling force, as if he didn't belong to the snow field.

So he made a quick decision and took sun Yerong back.

But after all, I still didn't escape the diffuse rules.

Just for a moment, countless runes rushed out of Ye Chen's body, and the bright star light was sent to the extreme!

The ice and snow all over the sky melted everything, and the law broke these defenses, causing Ye Chen to spill a mouthful of blood from the corner of his mouth.

Ye Chen stopped on the top of an ice mountain. He blocked all the law attacks for sun Yerong, and all the golden armor condensed by the red dust divine vein broke.

On its body surface, there is the power of cold ice. It cuts desperately, can't wave away, and can't cut continuously.

"It's not suitable to stay here for a long time. Let's go!"

Ye Chen turns around and wants to tear the void away. He mobilizes his strength to tear out the space covered by the ice field.

Those people came at full speed, and the ice field became countless wings, and every feather flashed out. The light was strong and floating in the air, just like the great array of destruction.

Ye Chen knows very well that this is the inheritance of ethnic treasure and the evolution of the rules of heaven and earth. He can't fight it alone.

The rumbling sound spread all over the fields and covered Ye Chen's head. Countless chains came to bind him.

These pressures have all become the existence of imprisoning Ye Chen!

He bit his teeth and roared. His reincarnation blood surged out and shook the heaven and earth.

Under such an impact, he finally broke a crack in the ice sheet rules, and then he let Sun Yerong empty his body and inhale it into the picture of falling green and yellow springs.

These rules are built together. There are many orders and weird stretches. Ye Chen is like a prey falling into a cobweb trap and can't move.

He seized the chance and went through the void.

When the elders of the soldiers arrived, ye Chen's figure had disappeared. At the entrance, there was only a billowing flood of emptiness.

"This man's strength is not simple. Why did he enter the frozen snow field?"

An elder asked, puzzled at the bottom of his heart.

For the outside world, the frozen snow field is a taboo existence, and there are no treasures. Where is it worth a trip by experts.

"No matter what, I can't let him go. I can feel the blood in his body. It's extremely powerful! Maybe it will pose a great threat to our ice family in the future."

Chapter 7028

The ice clan elder, who was covered with black light, seemed to have the highest status, and the rest were led by him.

After staying in the air for a moment, they quickly rushed to the two little people wearing ice and snow masks below.

"The eighth Prince and the fifth princess are late. You are surprised!"

The eighth Prince waved his hand and hurriedly said that it was all right. It seemed that he was afraid of the ice clan elder surrounded by black gas.

But the five princesses didn't have such a good temper. She took off the ice mask covering her face and showed a beautiful little face.

Her hair is also snow-white, and even her eyebrows are silver-white and crystal clear. She doesn't feel so old and rough.

Up and down, every part of the body seems to be exquisitely carved. It is exquisite and very beautiful.

"I think you're deliberately late. You want to collect the body after I die." the silver haired girl narrowed her eyes, looked at the ice clan elder and said coldly.

"Subordinates dare not!"

This time, not only he, but also two other elders of the ice family knelt down, like atonement and fear.

However, at the moment of lowering his head, the head of the ice clan elder flashed a very fierce color in his eyes.

Soon, other clansmen also came. The leader of the team was a fairy woman. She was powerful and surrounded by a halo, which was very disturbing.

When she saw the girl, she immediately moved to her eyes. Everyone didn't see how she moved.

"Wan'er, aren't you hurt? What happened here just now?"

With a wave of the palm of the woman's hand, the silvery white brilliance spread and brushed the whole bodies of the two ice nobles.

Fortunately, they're fine.

The woman turned her head and looked at the leader of the ice family elder with indifferent eyes.

"Chuyang, is that how you handle your business? If you move so slowly, can you afford to hurt the princess?"

The ice clan elder named chuyang bowed his head in the face of people who were more powerful than him.

"Lord, I didn't come in time this time! But the headless knight deserved to die for bringing out the princess and the prince without authorization! We had to come to the rescue."

The headless knight who had been shrinking in the corner of the valley since the beginning of the battle came out trembling.

He seemed to know that he had made a big mistake!

The noble woman glanced at the headless knight, and a cold light burst out. She cut the headless knight in half and destroyed both form and spirit.

The fifth Princess just wanted to stop it, but it was too late.

"Come back with me. Don't come out without permission."

The woman turned and walked back.

The fifth princess looked at the headless knight's body and fell into a long silence. She was very sad because the headless knight had been with them for a long time.

Those hard days were accompanied by headless knights.

"Sister, let's go..."

The eighth prince took the girl's hand and whispered.

The girl, who was the fifth princess, wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes, took a deep breath, and then followed the army.

She glared at Chu Yang fiercely and then went away. He took his troops back to the base of the ice clan: the city of ice and snow.

The base camp of the Bing nationality is located in a vast plain. There are pavilions and fortresses rising from the ground, and a palace built with extraordinary style and majesty.

No sect in xuanhai knows. There are such huge forces in the forbidden area!

After a while, the whole city of the ice clan fell into high vigilance. Teams of soldiers wearing Ice Armor jumped out and went in all directions.

They received instructions to look for the traces of two humans in the snow ice field. If they found a clue, they would send a message immediately.

In each team of soldiers, there will be a strong elder to take the lead.

At the same time, far away from the city of ice and snow, ye Chen and sun Yerong crossed the void crack and came to a mysterious place.

He almost protected his body with reincarnation blood and was rushed out by the turbulent flow of emptiness.

I thought I could have a moment's breathing, but suddenly, they fell into the extreme calmness, as if they were imprisoned by inexplicable power.

Even the action of opening his mouth to speak became extremely slow, as if he had been frozen.

They looked at each other and could only turn their heads slowly.

This is a mysterious place. It looks extremely old. It is not covered with ice and snow, but some melted ice debris.

The whole world has no forest, no grass, no water, and some are just barren.

It can't even be called desert, because it is not covered by yellow sand everywhere.

Even in the depths of the sky, there was an opaque storm that completely covered the sun.

Ye Chen can see the cracks in the void and the winding of black holes not far away. A trace of black gas is blowing out, forming a violent vigorous wind and rolling up thousands of piles of flying stones.

He even felt that if he walked into the black hole, even if he had reincarnated blood, he would be torn to pieces.

However, he had to escape from the slow space rules first. It took him and sun Yerong an hour to get out of this adversity. Suddenly, it was like a drowning man getting ashore and gasping for breath.

"I've never heard of this place before."

Sun Yerong's heart was full of surprise. What she heard most in Jianjia sword school was the power of ice and snow in the frozen snow field. There was frost all over the sky, and there was no other scenery.

Chapter 7029

But now that she came to this special place, she found that there was another mystery in it.

Ye Chen shook his head. He was exploring a trace of mind and carefully searching for the situation here.

There is no vitality here. It may be called a burial ground. Such a terrible atmosphere will be formed only after the death of the dark ancient god who will sleep forever.

"Maybe the frozen snow field is not as simple as it looks. Just like the people outside you, you know nothing about the forces inside."

Ye Chen said.

Sun Yerong nodded: "indeed! Except Jianjia sword sect takes this frozen snow field as a place of punishment, other sects seem not interested in this place, because there are no valuable treasures here."

The bustling world is for profit. No one is willing to do something that is hard and can't make a profit.

When she came to a strange place, ye Chen's first reaction was caution.

Sun Yerong kept a curious heart. After seeing life and death, she was indifferent to many things.

"There's a way here."

Ye Chen's mind found a more hidden road. He looked for it. Sure enough, he saw that there was a wind blowing out of the illusory void. It was not as strong as tearing the world, but a normal vigorous wind.

Without saying a word, ye Chen stepped in, and sun Yerong followed.

They came to another mysterious place from the empty black hole.

Not long after he came in, he heard the roaring wind and chopped it. It was magnificent and dangerous.

But at the same time, ye Chen also noticed an unusual smell.

This place, something's wrong! The reason for desolation seems to be hidden deeper!

Ye Chen's heart moved. He grabbed sun Yerong's waist and whispered in her exclamation, "don't move, this place is strange! Let's go there first."

The next moment he rushed out, almost in an instant, a fierce black light came and cut the place where he had just been into powder.

Sun Yerong was shocked. Looking back at the place where the black hole was cut out, he still had lingering palpitations.

With his strong body, ye Chen broke through the bondage of black light. With a bang, the red dust God pulse rose on him, mixed with the power of fire.

His move is to fight the fire with fire!

Because in the black hole on one side, there are flames flying in the air, burning extremely violently.

That kind of flame, as if after the baptism of the darkness of the heavens, flashed and moved with incomparable ferocity!

In addition, there are thunder and lightning, black air, like a disaster.

Ye Chen knew that it was not suitable to stay here for a long time. He stepped over the scorched earth and everything was broken. He stepped on the bones of all living beings and rushed at full speed.

The past of this place is too mysterious, and the rules contained are extremely difficult to control. If you are not careful, you may fall into it and be doomed.

When ye Chen broke through here, the surroundings finally quieted down. He entered a snow mountain again, one after another, stretching and vast.

In this land of ice and snow, there is no manic storm, nor the biting cold wind.

It's very quiet everywhere.

But it seems a little too quiet.

"Well... Can you put me down first?"

In Ye Chen's ear, sun Yerong's voice was as thin as a mosquito.

"Oh, oh. Sorry."

Ye Chen immediately released his hand and stepped aside. Just now his mind was all on the change of the rules of this space. He didn't notice that his arm was still holding a soft place.

Sun Yerong's face was slightly red, but it soon returned to normal.

"You're hurt!"

Sun Yerong looked down and saw that ye Chen was slightly blackened.

There is no way. If you have to break through here hard, you have to bear the counterattack of heaven's robbery and lightning.

However, these injuries are not a big deal for ye Chen. They can recover in a moment.

Sun Yerong clenched her teeth, her eyes glittered, and her eyes were full of guilt.

"I'm sorry... I hurt you again and again."

Ye Chen patted her on the shoulder, smiled and comforted, "don't think so. I have to thank you for helping me block the enemy twice in the sword meteorite space. If you hadn't bought time for me, I'm afraid I couldn't break the illusion."

"Really?" sun Yerong smiled happily.

"Of course."

Ye Chen nodded, and then he saw sun Yerong take out a handkerchief from his arms, attach some powder, and wrap it carefully for him.

In this regard, ye Chen can't cry or laugh. This handkerchief may be useless, but it represents sun Yerong's heart, and he can't refuse.

After they had a rest, they continued to move forward and came to a high point. Only then did they see the real face of the iceberg here.

This mountain range is towering, magnificent and incomparably tall, as if to break through the clouds and enter the universe.

The momentum of this mountain is quite different from the iceberg in the frozen snow field, and even has a trace of chaos.

They walked hand in hand and took off slowly. They saw the situation on the top of the mountain.

There is an ancient tree entrenched there, like another hill, with luxuriant branches and leaves.

"It seems that this time, we have found the baby." although Ye Chen can't recognize the identity of the tree, he can feel that it's not simple.

Sun Yerong is also smiling.

Perhaps no one can imagine the ups and downs of this journey.

The ancient tree bears a lot of glittering and translucent fruit, which is extremely clear and looks very attractive.

Perhaps affected by the towering vegetation, the land is no longer charred as charcoal, but becomes green.

"This tree may be the legendary Tianze divine tree."

When ye Chen was stunned, sun Yerong thought for a long time and blurted out.

"What tree?" Ye Chen still couldn't recognize it. Among the many treasures of heaven and earth he knew, there seemed to be no such treasures.

Sun Yerong smiled and said, "you're not from xuanhai. Naturally, you don't know. It's said that this Tianze divine tree is the essence left by Hongjun's ancestor's wife: Jianjia fairy. It was watered to a dying ancient tree to bring it back to life and become the supreme treasure tree."

"As you know, this Jianjia fairy was the founder of Jianjia sword sect. At that time, she failed to attack the way of heaven and fell. Before she fell, she saw an ancient tree about to wither, but she still supported it and refused to break it. This spirit moved the Jianjia fairy, so she spread her essence to the tree. Later, because Hongjun thought of his dead wife, she lost a trace of her origin Qi is integrated into the divine tree of Tianze. "

Sun Yerong seemed to be moved by the story, immersed in it and spoke eloquently.

Chapter 7030

The combination of Hongjun's ancestors and Jianjia fairies is the most suitable fairy couple throughout the ages, which makes countless people envy, but the final outcome also makes many people sigh.

This Tianze sacred tree, in a way, is one of the thoughts left by Hongjun's ancestors.

It contains the glory of the way of heaven, lives with all things and lives with heaven and earth.

After sun Yerong finished, he was immersed in the story for a long time and couldn't extricate himself.

She is stubborn and withdrawn, and never wants to communicate with others. Therefore, she is not popular among Jianjia sword sect.

Similarly, she can't stand the mercenary style of Jianjia sword school.

Most of the time, she stayed alone in the dusty Martial Arts Pavilion, carefully read the books that no one paid attention to, and learned a lot of deeds related to that year.

She doesn't want to communicate more with people and prefers to enter the story.

Ye Chen took another look at sun Yerong.

It seems that this girl is not as stubborn and dull as he imagined, but she didn't find a suitable person to talk to.

The Tianze sacred tree in front of them, with golden leaves and precious jade like trunk, gently sways and emits exquisite golden light.

The whole treasure tree is full of the power of life and brings a touch of vitality to the snow capped mountain.

When the golden light radiated to the extreme, there was a hot sun rising and swaying, and countless leaves shook and made a clear sound like a silver bell.

It is ethereal and pleasant to hear.

Sun Yerong suddenly felt relaxed and happy, and the depression accumulated in her chest dissipated a lot.

And ye Chen also felt that the cold meaning of his chest was fading, and the flesh and blood healed much faster than expected.

The picture that makes sun Yerong lose his voice is the golden fruit growing in the tree bud, hanging one by one, like the most exquisite object in the world.

On the skin of the golden fruit, the golden light is rich, and there is a faint flow of the sun. The energy contained in it is enough to make people break through on the spot, and the flesh and soul are greatly increased.

"Ye kill the sky. The heavenly tree is a treasure. We can get opportunities from it!"

Sun Yerong said happily.

Ye Chen nodded and smiled.

At this time, the zeshen tree even wriggled a few times and climbed up a little. Even though these changes were extremely subtle, ye Chen noticed them.

He was ready to step forward and check the situation carefully, but suddenly he felt that a scarlet eye was staring at him from the leafy tree.

The scarlet eyes were fleeting, but ye Chen caught them.

Sun Yerong went down and was about to step into the field of zeshenshu that day, but he was stopped by Ye Chen.

"Don't go in yet. I'm afraid there's another mystery in it."

Ye Chen narrowed her eyes and looked at the Tianze divine tree again.

Sun Yerong was stunned and asked why.

Ye Chen didn't answer her directly, but separated the spiritual thoughts and condensed them into his own virtual shadow.

The figure is flesh and blood, almost the same as himself.

But when he entered the ten mile radius of the Tianze divine tree, suddenly, countless vines came out of the void, carrying ferocious power.

In just a moment, the soul shadow summoned by Ye Chen was pierced and disappeared for a moment.

After a few minutes, it was swallowed up.

Sun Yerong stopped and was stunned. She didn't expect that the Tianze divine tree, which looked very sacred, would devour people's souls.

"Don't be surprised. This thing has existed for thousands of years. No one knows what it has experienced. At this time, it should be eroded by the magic gas of the frozen snow field and become what it is now."

Ye Chen looked at the ancient tree and looked thoughtful.

He always felt that the body of the Tianze divine tree was good, but there was a layer of magic around the periphery, which ordinary people couldn't get close to.

Sun Yerong stared at the Tianze sacred tree for a long time, puzzled in her heart.

Then ye Chen went higher and farther, almost reaching the top of the cloud.

Looking down from here, the sky overlooks the distance, and there are many mountains, and this iceberg is even more magnificent. Looking down, it is incomparably wide, and there are many gullies circling on the mountain.

When ye Chen saw these gullies, he immediately became suspicious. He looked left and right and suddenly found that the iceberg looked like a huge coffin.

Scattered here form a circle of mountain roads, like mysterious runes gathering here.

When ye Chen saw the rune, he suddenly thought of a sudden change in his eyes. The iron block left by Hongjun's ancestor appeared in his consciousness.

This piece of Hongjun iron also exudes Yingying brilliance, which is very similar to the body of Tianze divine tree.

Ye Chen only saw the iron floating out of the air and floated over there automatically.

He didn't stop it, but followed it slowly.

Sun Yerong also reacted. The treasure Ye Chen carried with him was absolutely mysterious, so he quickly followed up.

Therefore, ye Chen watched the Hongjun iron block break open the outer barrier without effort. Even if he saw it, those ferocious fog would go around and far away.

Ye Chen was surprised for a moment, more joy.

This is the second time Hongjun helped him with what he left behind.

He and sun Yerong looked at each other. They stepped into it quickly. They could see that the outer taboo had been broken. At this time, they came into contact with the real Tianze divine tree.
