Chapter 7091

He used this knife to build a strong defense line for ye Chen!

Ye Chen used the power of reincarnation blood. There was a burst of ancient breath, which rushed into the sky and spread, far from the edge!

The clouds of the void dispersed and the heaven and earth were divided. In the depths of the void, a big hand slowly stretched out, as if to completely suppress the heaven and earth!

Ye Chen was like a Sleeping Buddha, standing still in the sky with his hands folded. The strong wind blew his clothes and robes, but he couldn't move his body.

He suddenly opened his eyes. Between heaven and earth, it was like a big clock buzzing and roaring.

A big palm fell from the sky. It seemed that meteors fell, meteorites collapsed, and fell boldly with rolling fire.

Daqianchonglou palm is the first of the nine heavenly divinities, and it is very difficult to cultivate.

Even if this door divine skill belongs to the Lord of reincarnation, ye Chen has not fully understood it. With his strength, the power of daqianchonglou palm will only become stronger and stronger!

The previous daqianchonglou palm can be said to move the world.

Now it can be called implementing emptiness!

The towering pressure and magnificent weather are like countless worlds floating and sinking in them, and the heaven and the world are condensed in one palm.

When this palm hit, the reincarnation blood in Ye Chen's body burned completely and turned into a pure force attached to the palm.

Bang!

As if the meridians burst, blood vessels burst, and endless reincarnation forces emerge, endless and endless.

The amazing momentum is like a dragon that has broken free from the shackles of thousands of strands, rising from the ground and waving its teeth and claws. It is majestic and invincible!

The mysterious creature hiding in the dark was also illuminated by such golden light, revealing its original shape.

It turned out that he was a spirit mouse parasitic on the ancient plate of ten thousand demons. His fur was dirty and messy. He lost one piece after another and looked very dilapidated and old.

When he found his prototype exposed, he screamed and hurriedly urged Gu pan to escape to the depths of darkness.

At this time, ye Chen's qianchonglou palm also reached the sky. The bloody boundary simply had little resistance. Under such divine power, it fell apart and disintegrated. It spread rapidly from the center of the rupture, spanning tens of millions of kilometers of the boundary and broke instantly.

Such a sight is frightening and shocking!

Even the demon emperor was stunned. Immediately, he seized the opportunity and immediately determined a direction. As long as he crossed here, he could rush out of the dark restricted area.

After escaping from the dark forbidden sea, the influence of the old alliance will be greatly weakened. At that time, if you find a place to hide, you can escape the pursuit.

The mysterious creature just wanted to hide in the dark, but was knocked down by the sudden shock smell. He rolled on the ground for several times. He took off a small half of his mouse hair, which made him thrilled.

"No... impossible..."

Its tone was very frightened, but it had no effect.

It should be broken or broken.

"This is an ancient Dharma array that has existed since ancient times. It can devour the power of all magic powers and trap people to old death. How can you break it with you, a boy who hasn't stepped into the emperor?"

The spirit mouse sat in the ruins, muttering to himself, his face full of disbelief.

Even in the ancient times, when the gods gathered, he had never seen such a powerful killing move that could break his array.

However, on second thought, his strength now is not 10% of that in the past. It is understandable that he can not support the output of the FA array.

Ye Chen didn't have time to take care of him. These two big moves cost him a lot of energy, and even faintly injured. I'm afraid he'll have to rest for a while before he can continue to fight.

"Let's go!"

The demon emperor of Zhetian helped Ye Chen. He just wanted to cross the void. Suddenly, he was alert and stepped back for thousands of kilometers.

Where he had just been, a bolt of lightning struck down, stirring up the rules of space here into a residue.

The demon emperor covered the sky looked up at the end of the void, and several figures came out one after another.

It is the archaic tianniu and the Tsing Yi woman who both hold iconic weapons, and the jade Pipa in the Tsing Yi woman's hand is a supreme long-distance attack artifact when it reaches the wide boundary.

At the other end, Leng Qianyou stepped out with the black wheel Dharma king. They didn't have a face-to-face fight with Ye Chen, but they all felt the overwhelming palm intention. At this time, their faces were full of vigilance and vigilance.

"Zha Tianmo emperor, you are the container of his majesty Wu Tian. Don't struggle. It's your great honor to be regarded as the container of his majesty Wu Tian!"

The black wheel Dharma king raised his head and looked arrogant and confident. With a gentle wave of his sleeve and robe, the originally lax void immediately became taboo and restored its original appearance again, even stronger than before.

The other demons were equally aggressive and surrounded Ye Chen.

At this time, Xiao Huang, Shen Tu Wan'er and Yuchi Yao all came out of the xuanhuang tower of heaven and earth. They didn't want to watch ye Chen and the demon emperor cover the sky.

Ye Chen stared at the black wheel Dharma king with a dignified look.

I'm afraid his strength has exceeded that of ordinary demons and star beasts, because he can't see through the depth inside.

The remaining magic generals are at their peak. I'm afraid they can't break the pass alone.

Chapter 7092

Shen Tu Wan'er bit her silver teeth. At this time, Ye Chen was injured. The main combat power could not be put into the battle, which would be a great loss.

In that case, she can only use the unique skills of the family forbidden area.

She closed her eyes and felt the same with Wuwei Tianjian. Her right hand held the handle of the sword, while her left hand gradually showed a vast ancient meaning. There was thunder winding in it. Soon, it condensed into a law ball with very shocking fluctuations.

"Dark forbidden Art: the war of thunder."

Shen Tu Wan'er's eyes were determined this time. Even if she fought for the price of serious injury, she would never let Ye Chen suffer any harm.

Just as she was preparing to step out and fight the enemy, suddenly a figure appeared in front of her.

Zha Tianmo emperor!

He didn't know when he helped Ye Chen to her, and a gentle smile appeared on his face.

"He'll be taken care of by you."

With that, the demon emperor of the sky covered pushed Ye Chen into Shen Tu Wan'er's arms, which surprised and confused him.

Because he also used a little means to make Ye Chen unable to move for the time being.

Such small means can only work if ye Chen is not fortified.

How could ye Chen defend his friends? Therefore, he accidentally fell into the "plan" of the demon emperor covering the sky.

As he spoke, the demon emperor flashed again, and a void ripple fell from the sky, isolating him from the crowd.

Yuchi Yao and Zhetian demon emperor were in touch. They first guessed what he wanted to do. For a moment, his little face became very pale.

"Brother devil, no!"

Yuchi Yao wants to rush out with him, but she finds she can't move.

The demon emperor also set a ban on her.

"Yao'er, it's my fault that you didn't live a quiet life with me. You've been displaced for so long. Now, I don't want you to live like this again."

As if he were talking to himself, the demon emperor murmured. He waved his sleeve robe and a gust of wind blew past, separating all the demons.

Yuchi Yao was already in tears when she heard this. She didn't understand the feelings of the devil emperor for her.

But at the thought that they were going to be separated for life and death, all kinds of worries were in my heart and could not be extinguished.

"Miss Shentu, please take them to a safe place and leave it to me."

The demon emperor said without looking back.

He didn't want to look back and let Yuchi Yao see the feeling of reluctance in his eyes.

At the end of his life, there will be a difference. It will become empty forever. Maybe this will be the last time he meets Ye Chen, Yuchi Yao and others.

But he has no regrets!

As far as his friends are concerned, he has a friend like Ye Chen who can sacrifice his life for justice until death.

For his lover, he has Yuchi Yao, a Taoist couple who are happy with each other and go to samsara together.

No matter in which aspect, he got real satisfaction, and the broken heart of Tao gradually tended to be perfect.

I have no regrets in this life.

Or a life with regrets can be called life.

Shentu Wan'er's look became a little complicated. She had planned to tell the truth by herself, but now the devil emperor has come forward.

Then she chose to stop.

"OK, I will take them out safely."

Shentu Wan'er has never been an indecisive and affectionate person. She waved a light beam rope and tied Ye Chen and Yuchi Yao together.

"Xiao Huang, open the way!"

Shen Tu Wan'er said.

Xiao Huang's eyes were also struggling. He wanted to help the demon emperor.

But at this time, only one can be chosen.

Xiao Huang was cruel. His red and blue pupils didn't look there. He mobilized the power of nightmare and outlined an invisible dream in this void to break the prohibition of the cage.

Shen Tu Wan'er even wielded the powerful Heavenly Sword, which was so powerful that she almost crushed the sky.

"Broken!"

Her shadow moved and cut through the gap of the void, but it was extremely unstable.

Several evil generals on the opposite side looked slightly frozen. Their task was to stop Ye Chen and others. If they were allowed to escape successfully, it would be regarded as a task failure.

"Your Majesty Wutian has said that you should catch Yuchi Yao anyway! Go!"

The four demons will shoot at the same time.

In this vast void, four vast and bright forces rise up and weave into a network of order God, which makes people look at it and fear!

The demon emperor of the sky covered looked at them faintly and blocked them in front with his body. Above his head, the seven evil spirits ten thousand magic pot whirled up into the air and burst in a moment!

This explosion made the whole void silent in endless black clouds. Hundreds of millions of crows flew out of the clouds, and their animal eyes became very red.

The momentum of the four magic generals was immediately suppressed.

These crows seem to lead to the power of the law of space, and the surrounding air flow becomes much disordered.

The void is deep and infinite, but now it seems to be filled by the crow. Even a few magic generals are in full battle and can't take action.

"Zha Tianmo emperor, are you crazy? You dare to detonate the seven evil spirits ten thousand magic pot here. Aren't you afraid of shaking the void? You won't be able to run then!"

In the ancient days, the bull spirit was badly defeated. He shook the long gun in his hand, but found that he could not break through the blockade composed of violent crows anyway!

Several other magic generals also panicked. The seven evil spirits ten thousand magic pot contains the power of the origin of the road and connects heaven and earth. If the holder wants to explode by this, its scattered power can be expanded to hundreds of billions of times.

Even a whole starry sky can't bear such an explosion! Not to mention them.

Even the black wheel Dharma king, who has always been unpopular in ancient wells, was not calm. He roared loudly and asked the demon emperor to stop quickly!

Standing in the center of hundreds of millions of crows circling and gathering, the demon emperor is the only light in the rolling black clouds. His white robe is floating, his hands are lost behind him, and his face is calm and calm.

"If you can be buried with me, it's also a good thing!"

The demon emperor smiled.

He has completely detonated the seven evil spirits ten thousand magic pot, and he has been regarded as an enemy by the exploding artifact. He is wrapped in it and can't go out.

At the last moment, he looked back at the edge of the void. Shen Tu Wan'er had pulled the others to stand at the edge of the crack, looking at the center of the void, full of complexity and regret.

Ye Chen's eyes are red, but she can't move and can't help at all. Yuchi Yao is crying wildly. A pair of beautiful eyes contain a thick prayer.

The demon emperor turned back with a smile.

He closed his eyes and waited for death.

Shen Tu Wan'er also shook his wrist and took the remaining people out of the void crack. After passing through the rolling void turbulence, they escaped from the dark sea and fell over a sea area.

Chapter 7093

This is an endless sea area. At this time, a huge sea animal is lurking on the water. When it sees prey falling, it opens its huge mouth covered with tusks and throws out a pile of fishy mucus.

The sea beast with a huge tooth crazy knife on his back didn't see what the food looked like. He saw a sword flash and split it in half. His blood mixed with his internal organs and crashed on the sea.

As soon as Shen Tu Wan'er threw away, the body of Ye Chen and others fell on an isolated island, while she herself stepped on the remnant of the sea beast, flew dozens of miles on the sea level and landed on the island.

At this time, ye Chen has recovered his ability to move. His anger rises in his eyes, and his fist is full of chagrin and beats on the ground.

He is very clear about the temperament of the demon emperor. He should have been on guard against him long ago!

This guy can give his life for his brother and lover.

Yuchi Yao, too, slumped on the ground, decadent, and the whole person was dull.

Ye Chen had strong self-control and soon recovered from her sadness and resentment.

He took a deep breath and began to plan what to do later.

The matter is so far and irreparable. The next step is to take good care of Yuchi Yao! Will not fail to live up to the trust of the demon emperor.

At this time, he heard a loud noise from the far end of the sky, and then the mighty breath came.

The breath seemed to come from the nether world, and countless evil spirits roared and gathered in the void.

The power of Jiuyou frightens heaven and earth, and no one can compete in the dark sea.

They escaped from the dark sea at this time, but they were still not far from there.

Shen Tu Wan'er also noticed the atmosphere of destroying the sky and the earth. They looked at each other and immediately stopped hesitating. Ye Chen took the lead in promoting the reincarnation blood. The virtual monument emerged in the sea of air, emitting a shining light, and directly tore open the space in front of him.

"Let's go! It's the devil's father coming!"

Ye Chen pulled up Yuchi Yao and took Xiaohuang into the void.

At the moment when the space channel disappeared, the dark clouds rolled in the sky, and a dark palm fell from the sky, clapping on the island where ye Chen and others had just been located.

In an instant, hundreds of thousands of kilometers of sea water were evaporated! All the sea fish and animals that live in it die in a few breaths!

Mighty, intimidating!

The magic hand raised slowly, and a pair of eyes scanned the plane of the sea.

Thousands of kilometers away, all kinds of creatures that survived crawled on the ground and dared not move to meet the monarch's trial room.

"Oh... It's still a step slower. It's really the Lord of reincarnation. He is born with great luck and can always escape at the last minute."

"But how long can you escape? You have to face it after all."

The sound drifted away until it completely disappeared into the sky, leaving only countless ruins.

Ye Chen and others stepped into the void and fled quickly. They still felt the mighty evil spirit that followed.

"Is the man who just shot the devil Zu Wutian?" Shen Tu Wan'er couldn't help asking.

That evil spirit is really terrible. Compared with them, the various magical powers and means they used before are just Pediatrics!

Ye Chen nodded, his face deep.

But at the same time, I was relieved.

The devil Zu wudian must have lowered a separate body this time, but I'm afraid this separate body is different from the past. It is the real foundation born from the devil Zu wudian.

I'm afraid the primary goal of this separate body to rush here is to stop the self explosion of Zhetian demon emperor.

The second goal may be to catch them!

"Don't worry, as long as the devil Zu has no hand, the devil emperor will not die. He won't let his container be destroyed!"

Ye Chen comforted with a voice.

Yuchi Yao wiped away the tears on her face and nodded. Somehow, she felt a little lucky at this time.

The demon emperor who covered the sky fell into the hands of the demon ancestor Wutian. There was still a hope of survival before he completely lost it.

But if it explodes, it will destroy both form and spirit! There is no hope of rebirth.

Several people suddenly felt creepy.

The momentum brought by the devil Zu Wutian is really terrible. It has exceeded the limitations of time and space. If ye Chen hadn't used the power of the virtual tablet to help several people escape, I'm afraid they would have become prisoners now.

Using the power of reincarnation blood, ye Chen crossed dozens of empty gates and returned to beimangzu land.

They were relieved when they arrived.

There have been too many difficulties and obstacles along the way. Ye Chen didn't expect that there would be so many obstacles on that mysterious road.

So the ending is not perfect, but there is no other way.

After this war, Shentu Waner wanted to return to the world to deal with some things.

Ye chenpo was reluctant to give up and said goodbye to Shen Tu Wan'er in front of the chaotic space.

On his return, he saw Yuchi Yao sitting on the edge of a green grassland, losing his eyes and looking at the ancestral landscape cut into chaotic spaces.

"Don't worry, I will find a way to save him."

Ye Chen went to Yuchi Yao and said firmly.

But Yuchi Yao shook his head slowly: "no, you've done enough. If I were him, I don't want you to take risks again! The strength of Mo Zu Wutian is too strong. At this stage, no one can compete."

After hearing this, ye Chen was silent.

Chapter 7094

He also thought about this question. Why should he save the devil? Knowing that there are tigers in the mountain, I prefer to travel in the tiger mountain.

Going to the dark forbidden sea may cause him to suffer heavy losses or even fall, and even the atmospheric transportation of the reincarnation Lord can not protect him.

If he doesn't go, he can do many things without being disturbed.

But in that way, it will violate his Tao heart, and his future cultivation may be greatly affected, and even become a heart demon on the way.

For him, the demon emperor is a very important partner, and he has helped him many times in times of crisis before.

Ye Chen will never forget this kindness.

If you don't save when you die, it doesn't conform to Ye Chen's style.

"Don't worry, I'll find a way. The magic ancestor Wutian is very strong, but as long as we hold it, we'll have a chance."

Ye Chen thought for a long time and said these words.

Yuchi Yao felt his determination and was very clear that ye Chen had a unique talent and outstanding blood. He must be a big man to reach the top of the world in the future.

But in her opinion, ye Chen is not enough to compete with the devil Zu Wutian, and the chance of winning is very small.

She opened her mouth and wanted to say something else.

Immediately, ye Chen got up and left. He had to do it. It didn't work to persuade anyone.

He found Ren Feifan's secluded cave. To his surprise, Ren Feifan seemed to have been waiting for himself for a long time.

At the same time, ye Chen found that there was a woman around Ren extraordinary.

The woman had never seen her before, but she had a strong sense of familiarity.

The woman looked at Ren extraordinary and smiled: "Lord of reincarnation, long time no see."

Ye Chen was stunned. She just wanted to say something. The woman took a look at Ren extraordinary and disappeared between heaven and earth.

Ye Chen no longer thinks much. Now the most important thing is to think about how to reach the headquarters of the old alliance and save the demon emperor.

There are many difficulties on the way to the old alliance. They have broken through it once. I'm afraid the second time they go, the defense level will be more and more strict.

"Elder Ren, what way can we go to the old alliance now?"

Ye Chen frowned and asked.

Ren Feifan's face shows a dignified color.

"The dark forbidden sea is almost the boundless territory of the devil ancestor. The deepest old alliance has arranged multiple strong men there. I'm afraid you can't break in alone."

Ren Feifan truthfully said that of course he also wanted to help Ye Chen, but he didn't deal with those miscellaneous soldiers.

A strong man of his level has reached the top of the world. Every move, even words and deeds can affect the rules of heaven and change the fate of one side of the world.

If people in the lower world are easily attacked, they will not only be contaminated with unnecessary cause and effect, but also lead to natural disaster.

It seems that something has happened to the way of heaven, but he is too mysterious. It can be considered that he does not exist, or that he has been maintaining the balance of the world of heaven. Whoever violates the law will bear the anger of the way of heaven.

The way of heaven can't be seen, touched, or even conscious, but it lies across the world of the heavens! Everything grows, tides rise and fall, life and death, origin and death.

All this is arranged by heaven.

In a sense, the way of heaven is the law of nature!

As powerful as the feather emperor, they must follow the will of the way of heaven and will not fight against the heavens, or dare not fight against the will of the heavens.

It can be seen that the so-called way of heaven is another repressive force for the strong in the real world!

Ye Chen also knows the pros and cons. Of course, he won't ask Ren Feifan to shoot those miscellaneous soldiers.

But if you want to save the devil emperor, you must let extraordinary come forward and stop the devil ancestor Wutian!

That's the top priority!

Therefore, Ren Feifan, as the biggest card, can't light up easily.

This time, ye Chen already had a plan in mind.

"Elder Ren! I intend to summon the forces of the heavens and the world to attack the old alliance!"

He left some forces in heaven, man and earth, including the dark forbidden sea.

At this time, if it is called up, it can form no small help!

"Oh?" Ren Feifan moved slightly. "It depends on yourself. I can't do it in the early stage, but I will always stare at the devil Zu Wutian. Other people need you to find a way to solve it."

"OK! This time, I must rescue the demon emperor!"

In Ye Chen's eyes, an incomparably firm belief emerged.

He immediately set off for the endless waters of the dark forbidden sea.

It is the habitat of the three ancient tribes!

Today's Tianxi ancient clan has been seriously weak and can't turn over any waves at all!

XuanZhen ancient family is a well deserved leader. Since its birth, a large number of talents have emerged and become stronger and stronger.

The Luosheng ancient people followed suit, changed the decadent trend in one fell swoop, and are now in a prosperous stage.

Ye Chen met with XuanZhen and Senluo Tianjun respectively. They both lent troops to Ye Chen to attack the old alliance without hesitation.

The three ancient clans of them were incompatible with the old alliance, but they were too far away to defend their own territory and did not start.

But this war will come eventually.

Their move is also equivalent to putting into the camp of reincarnation, and the devil ancestor is the enemy.

Among them, XuanZhen Laozu knew the horror of Ye Chen best. He did not hesitate to support Ye Chen. Of course, it was because ye Chen had reincarnation blood and was born with great luck.

On the other hand, it is also related to xuanhanyu.

Chapter 7095

Xuanhan jade is very consistent with the characters on the ancient portraits of XuanZhen ancient family. Although Xuanhan jade doesn't remember, XuanZhen's ancestors can be sure that it has an inseparable relationship with XuanZhen ancient family.

Senluo Tianjun sent troops to fight mainly because of his extraordinary face.

If Ren extraordinary hadn't saved them, I'm afraid their family would have been reduced to the food that devoured the beast king and disappeared between heaven and earth.

After ye Chen left XuanZhen island and Luosheng island one after another, he came to the dilapidated Tianxi island.

He was alone and happy.

The people of Tianxi island have long regarded Ye Chen as a taboo. When they saw Ye Chen coming here, they were scared to do anything.

"I want to see your ancestors."

Ye Chen said bluntly.

The people of Tianxi Island were surprised and suspicious. Finally, they took Ye Chen to the entrance of the forbidden area where Lao Xi lived in seclusion that day.

Ye Chen walked all the way and observed the situation on Tianxi island. He couldn't help smacking his mouth.

It has been a long time since the last Tianxi island war, but today's Tianxi island is still dilapidated. There are only a few buildings, and most of the disciples live in temporary simple buildings to practice, rest and lose their former glory.

When ye Chen opened the reincarnation heavenly eye, he could vaguely see that hidden Rune rules were suppressed and spread everywhere over Tianxi island that day, which was also one of the main reasons why Tianxi island could not recover quickly.

Tianxi's father also suffered some injuries in that world war. Since then, he has been practicing in isolation in the ancestral land without taking a half step.

In the face of Ye Chen, an uninvited guest, he didn't want to meet him at first.

But ye Chen didn't take it to heart. Instead, he broke into it as if no one else. The prohibition he set didn't play a half role.

Ye Chen didn't choose to yell and scold Tianxi's ancestors who deliberately closed their doors.

Walking in the ancestral land with towering ancient trees and flowers everywhere, he couldn't help feeling: "the place where the old ancestors lived in seclusion is good. There are spiritual herbs and elixirs everywhere! It should be picked at will!"

With a wave of Ye Chen's big hand, hundreds of miraculous drugs float in the air and are crushed by the power of reincarnation. The pure liquid medicine turns into a water dragon and enters Ye Chen's mouth.

Along the throat straight into the heart and spleen, ye Chen's sea of Qi has been completely moistened.

Although these elixirs can't improve his strength, they can make people relaxed and happy.

"Come again!"

Ye Chen sleeve robe is rolled up, on the other side, ten ancient trees have been condensed into the essence of heaven and earth, and have been swept away by Ye Chen.

In this way, ye Chen swept several times in a row without stopping.

The two guards in the ancestral land were both angry and distressed.

Although they are angry, they dare not come forward to stop it!

After all, it's the Lord of reincarnation. One face to face can beat them.

And once defeated their family's peerless son Xi Xuantian. His talent is frightening.

Finally, a young figure came out of the forbidden area.

"Brother Ye Chen, you should be full now?"

The man who came out from the depths of the forest was wearing a green robe. He was not a jade tree facing the wind, but he was also gentle. He was Xi Mingfeng who had dealt with Ye Chen.

At this time, Xi Mingfeng walked slowly, smiling bitterly.

He knew Ye Chen, so he was invincible when he met each other.

After the ancient Tianxi clan was beaten by Ye Chen, one brother of Xi Xuantian died of obsession, while the other was abandoned by Ye Chen.

Some other disciples with outstanding talents broke their halberds and sank into the sand in Ye Chen's hands, which damaged the source of cultivation. From then on, they went from bad to worse and couldn't afford to pick up the backbone of the younger generation.

Looking left and right, there was only Xi Mingfeng left.

And before leaving, ye Chen also gave Xi Mingfeng an opportunity to recover most of his secret injuries. Since then, his cultivation has also improved by leaps and bounds, and soon became the first person of the young generation.

"Xi Mingfeng, I haven't seen you for a long time. How are you recently? I heard you have become the Holy Son of Tianxi ancient family!" Ye Chen greeted him with a smile.

Ye Chen has no bad feelings for Xi Mingfeng. It was Xi Mingfeng who helped him when he first entered the ancient city of Tianxi.

Xi Mingfeng also smiled when she saw her old friend: "my son is just a false name. Compared with you, it's thousands of miles away!"

Recently, he has been practicing with Tianxi's ancestors. The strength of ancient law has improved by leaps and bounds, which is not weaker than that of Xi Xuantian.

This made Tianxi's ancestors feel much better. At present, Xi Mingfeng was also regarded as a descendant.

"Grandpa, please go in and have a chat."

Xi Mingfeng was straightforward and pointed out his purpose.

"OK."

Ye Chen entered here and deliberately made trouble. That's what he wanted.

If you hide from me, I'll make you look good! It depends on whether you, the treasure in the forbidden area, can stand my toss.

Under the leadership of Xi Mingfeng, he walked through the ancient forest. The fog in front of him was removed layer by layer. Finally, a palace appeared in front of him, resplendent and magnificent.

The palace was wrapped in the mountains. Colorful birds passed by, leaving Ruixia. The waterfall flew straight down, the spring tinkled, and the rich aura filled between heaven and earth.

Staying here to practice can be described as a thousand miles a day.

Ye Chen slowly glanced around and sneered.

There is also a reason why the Xigu nationality could not develop on this day.

As the strongest among the ethnic groups, Tianxi ignored the plight of the people under him. Instead, he enjoyed and cultivated himself in this forbidden area and monopolized resources.

With such leaders, how can the ethnic group really develop!

Ye Chen stepped into the palace. At this time, Tianxi old Zu was sitting on the Pu Pu, where the essence of heaven and earth was inhaled.

Round after round of heaven and earth aura turned into a substantive Sunday, running around it, forming nine rotating circles.

Tianxi ancestor sat in it, breathing and breathing, the essence of heaven and earth was inhaled by him and circulates in the meridians.

As a strong man at the level of Tianjun Laozu, Tianxi Laozu is extremely powerful. Originally, he ranked first among the three Laozu, and his breakthrough level is also the highest.

However, after the war of the three ancient tribes, the Tianxi clan tended to be defeated and almost annihilated by the whole clan.

Since then, the XuanZhen family has gradually gained the upper hand and become the leader among the three ancient families.

Even the Luosheng ancient clan, which was originally at the bottom, slowly regained its vitality and grew into the second of the three ancient tribes.

After that war, the ancient Tianxi clan was unable to recover, and has not recovered until now.

And the initiator of all this is Ye Chen! Without his sabotage, the three ancient tribes would not have fallen into such a cruel war.

Chapter 7096

The other two ancient tribes will not even start against Tianxi!

So Tianxi didn't want to meet Ye Chen, but he didn't expect this guy to force him to come forward with such a despicable means.

Tianxi Lao Zu slowly opened his eyes and his eyes were extremely indifferent.

"The Lord of reincarnation came to our small place. What's important? I told you first. There are no treasures on the island. If you want treasures, if you have the ability, take my life away!"

Tianxi's grandfather spoke without hesitation.

But it happened that he didn't dare to start with Ye Chen, otherwise he would annoy Ren Feifan. One slap would sink their Tianxi island and never surface.

Ye Chen didn't mind his words, but smiled.

"Father Tianxi, I have no other intention of coming here. I just want to see the current situation of Tianxi island. I am very concerned about your family."

Hearing the speech, the look of Tianxi's ancestors and Xi Mingfeng became a little strange.

Xi Mingfeng looked at him strangely, his eyes drooping, and didn't want people to see the smile in his eyes.

Ye Chen's move is tantamount to the wolf greeting the sheep. Although he is hypocritical, he has to pretend to be serious.

Although Xi Mingfeng is a member of the Tianxi family, she has no deep feelings for the whole group.

During the period when his talent was abandoned, he suffered a lot of ridicule, all from his people.

Since then, he has lost his feelings for the ancient Tianxi family, and just takes it as his place to live.

When he was selected by Tianxi's ancestors again, he also became calm.

After hearing this, Tianxi's face suddenly turned blue and white.

He thinks Ye Chen is insulting himself with this!

However, what ye Chen said next moved his heart slightly.

"Tianxi island has become a ruin. In fact, you have an inseparable relationship. You can't deny this, and my coming this time can help you restore the prosperity of Tianxi island in the past."

Ye Chen said faintly.

Tianxi's father was slightly surprised, but Xi Mingfeng was extremely shocked.

Since the end of the three ethnic wars, the level of the whole Tianxi family has regressed for hundreds of thousands of years, or even more.

The ancient city of Tianxi has also become a ruin. There are broken tiles everywhere, and there are terrible rules everywhere. It can't be broken by manpower.

That was the great power formed by the collision of the three ancient tribes. Even Lao Zu himself could not break it.

But now ye Chen said he had a way to crack it.

Facing the questioning eyes of Tianxi's ancestors, ye Chen smiled.

Then he stretched out a finger and flexed his finger in the distance. The emerald brilliance emerged and superimposed layer upon layer, as if to break through the world.

The scene in front of us converged into a light water curtain, in which all kinds of pictures emerged.

I saw the emerald brilliance coming out of my fingers, moving forward along the ancient road of the broken jungle.

Where Guanghua goes. Like dead trees in spring and broken grass, a vast vitality suddenly emerged, pervading the world, extremely majestic and dazzling.

Whether it is trees or flowers, or those spirit beasts that have become charred corpses, they are filled with strong vitality and resurrected in the blink of an eye.

Some people of Tianxi nationality were working in it. Suddenly, they were shocked to see the dead trees growing again.

The power of the majestic rules that entangled it was wiped out.

They were stunned!

Because they had spent a long time before, and even used the magic weapon of the town family, they were unable to eliminate the terrible atmosphere.

However, this Green Qi machine contains infinite vitality. Everywhere you pass, all things glow again.

Tianxi's grandfather brushed it and stood up from the futon. Rao was very surprised because of his calm nature of cultivation for many years.

"Is that... The vitality of the universe? No, it is the origin of life. Only the purest origin of life can achieve such an effect! What kind of magic power did you use?"

Tianxi's ancestors couldn't help asking questions.

Ye Chen didn't explain much, but said, "I can help you recover Tianxi Island, but only if you promise me one thing."

"What's up?"

"Send troops to attack the old alliance and help me."

Ye Chen said calmly, as if he were talking about an extremely ordinary thing.

After Tianxi's father heard this, his pupils suddenly shrunk and his face was full of disbelief.

That kind of look, as if to say, is this guy crazy?

"If you promise, I can help you repair it. If you don't promise, I have to leave first."

Ye Chen said and turned to go.

Father Tianxi's eyes were struggling. Of course, he wanted Tianxi island to recover quickly. In that way, the Tianxi family would not be pressed by the other two ancient families.

For him, it can also promote the integrity and harmony of the overall Taoist artistic conception.

He struggled for a moment, then nodded and stopped Ye Chen.

"Wait, OK, I promise you!"

Tianxi's ancestors knew that Ren extraordinary stood behind Ye Chen. On strength, he was not inferior to magic ancestor Wutian.

That's why he dared to attack the old alliance.

For whatever reason, he didn't care. He just sent someone to help, and didn't let the whole Tianxi ancient family be buried with him.

Tianxi thought so in his heart that he thought it was no big deal, so he agreed.

The two sides reached cooperation.

Ye Chen once again used a part of the strength of Cuizhu pool to help Tianxi Island restore one percent of its vitality!

This change made the people of Tianxi Island rejoice and see new hope one by one.

Next, ye Chen returned to the inner earth, and first came to the place where the Lord of judgment was located.

At this time, the Lord of the ruling was lying in the shade of a huge ancient tree to rest. A voice suddenly sounded overhead, which startled him without any sign.

"Who... It's you!"

His face showed a fierce light. He was just ready to make a move. When he looked up, he found that ye Chen was smiling at him.

For a moment, the action of the ruling Lord stopped.

"Why, don't you welcome me here?"

Ye Chen jumped down from the tree, picked up a spiritual fruit that the Lord of judgment had not eaten, put it into his mouth and bit it.

A trace of pure spiritual power, along the flesh, entered his body to nourish the meridians and nourish the body. In a short moment, ye Chen was filled with strength.

"Where did you pick the spirit fruit? The effect is very good!"

Ye Chen immediately praised.

The judge looked at him with a little vigilance.

"Lord of reincarnation, why did you come to me?"

Since the Lord of the ruling saw Ye Chen's strength, he planned not to provoke him again.

But I didn't expect this guy to come to the door by himself!

Chapter 7097

Ye Chen took the fruit and smiled.

"Nothing. I just came to see you. Don't you miss your old friends?"

Ye Chen's strength at this time has exceeded the Lord of the ruling, and there is no need to worry about security at all.

The judge did not nod or speak. Obviously, he didn't believe Ye Chen.

Ye Chen also stopped beating around the bush and said his purpose directly.

He sent a letter with flying sword, contacted the elder, and found two ways to enter the old alliance.

The obvious one has countless strong people sitting in the town. You don't have to think about it. I'm afraid it has alerted the devil ancestor Wutian before it reaches half.

Another dark road is where ye Chen and others went before. After their body shape was found, the old Japanese Alliance strengthened its defense here, and the level of troops is almost the same as that of the main road.

According to the deduction of respecting the elderly, the inner earth is very special. In the hidden void, there should still be a road to the old alliance, but no one can find it for thousands of years.

The ruling Lord should be the most familiar with the inner earth, so ye Chen came to him.

Of course, ye Chen also plans to ask about the rest of the tianwu Wolong Sutra.

Facing these questions, the Lord of the ruling hesitated and told ye Chen.

He remembered that when he was chased by Hong Tianjing and had no way to escape, ye Chen saved himself in time!

As the judge, he is not a kind existence, but he will never refuse people who have helped him.

"If you want to implement this plan, there is indeed an altar array that can meet your requirements."

The Lord of judgment, said slowly.

It turned out that in the hidden depths of the earth's core, there was a city built on the immortal mountain, called the immortal city.

It is surrounded by fog all the year round, which is very mysterious. Moreover, the people in the city form a small world and have their own inheritance. They hardly communicate with outsiders.

People in other boundaries want to enter there and communicate with them, which can also be understood as aggression, but they all end in failure.

The ruling Lord has seen the city and made some contacts with the people in it. In the middle of the city, there is a transmission array that can hide from the void and transmit people to any place you want to go.

This space rule even surpasses ling'er.

It is said that the kinetic energy of the immortal city is driven by mysterious power. The source of that power is the altar array!

After ye Chen got the news, he couldn't help but feel surprised.

In that case, he will have a try!

"Lord of the ruling, you see we have a good relationship, and what we have done this time is a protest against the boundless and cruel rule of the demon ancestor. Why not?"

Ye Chen said a lot of truth and wanted to persuade the Lord of the ruling.

The ruling Lord instinctively became vigilant. He didn't believe Ye Chen didn't have a bad idea.

At first, ye Chen wanted him to go with him to fight in the old alliance, but the Lord of the ruling was obviously very cunning and would not be easily fooled.

Therefore, ye Chen asked for it next time. After removing the troops under the Lord of judgment, he let him go to the immortal city with himself.

The Lord of the ruling finally agreed to Ye Chen.

"When shall we start? Can we start at once?" Ye Chen asked.

The judge thought for a moment and shook his head, "I need time to prepare. I will inform you then."

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly. Knowing that he couldn't force it, he promised, "OK."

Suddenly, he thought of something and asked, "you still have a page of tianwu Wolong Sutra. Can you lend it to me?"

Now ye Chen has absolute strength. Ye Chen believes that the Lord of the ruling will not refuse.

What's more, that page of tianwu Wolong Sutra is very important to yourself.

The ruling Lord took a deep look at Ye Chen and finally said, "give me some time to prepare, and I will give you that thing."

"You leave first. Here is the jade talisman. When the jade talisman lights up, it will be the time for us to start."

Ye Chen took over Yufu. He understood the behavior of the ruling Lord. Naturally, there was no need to deceive himself. Even if he deceived, he and Ren could handle it.

After saying goodbye to the Lord of the ruling, ye Chen asks ling'er to open the void for him and is ready to get together with Xiao Huang and others.

However, just about to leave, ye Chen received the news of respecting the old.

He not only let the elder investigate the secret of the dark forbidden sea old day alliance, but also asked him to investigate how to revive the ghost of sun Yerong in the azure god pearl.

Sun Yerong's accident is stained with his own cause and effect. Now he leaves a remnant soul. He must find a way to revive it.

If he doesn't go to xuanhai, I'm afraid sun Yerong will live well.

Although his medical skills are omniscient, he did not take charge of reincarnation after all. Ye Chen consulted Ren Feifan, and Ren Feifan did not have a good way, and the elder of zunlingtian family may really know something.

When ye Chen got the news of respecting the old, he tore the void and came to the edge of lost time and space.

At the moment, the elder was drinking. When he saw Ye Chen coming, he glanced at Ye Chen, then stood up and said unexpectedly, "you took charge of two nine heavenly gods in xuanhai?"

One nine heavenly divinity skill is an opportunity against heaven, not to mention two.

Ye Chen was stunned, but he didn't expect to respect the old. On the deduction of heaven's secret, respecting the spirit in the world is an absolute God!

He shook his head: "dear old man, I only got one and a half."

"One and a half?" the elder wondered.

Ye Chen doesn't talk nonsense. He tells zunlao some things about xuanhai. In a sense, zunlao is the existence of his own camp, so there's no need to cover it up.

After listening to the old man, his eyes narrowed slightly: "that nine heaven divination can actually hold half of it. As far as I know, most nine heaven divination can only be held by one person. Of course, there are exceptions to some nine heaven divination, such as Brahma divination."

"Now, the mother sword formula of all things is also somewhat special. No wonder there are two characters of all things. However, in a sense, you don't take charge of the mother sword formula of all things. Although you take half of it, you can only give play to a small part of its power. The only way to win the rest from Xuan Jiyue is the king's way."

Ye Chen naturally understood. Suddenly, he thought of something and asked, "respect the old, can the remnant soul have a way to reshape the flesh?"

The elder coughed and said: "I constantly deduced the secret of heaven. Just now, I found that the remnant soul does have the method of resurrection. Maybe all this is doomed. Not long ago, I saw a zone full of grey fog, which seems to be related to the resurrection of the remnant soul, but I can't tell where this place is. It seems to be losing time and space, but it may also be the xuanhai sea and the inner earth..."

With that, the elder waved his hand, and a misty virtual shadow appeared in front of Ye Chen.

"Lord of reincarnation, do you know where this place is?" Venerable Master.

Chapter 7098

Ye Chen stared at the fog picture in front of him. He looked familiar, but he couldn't say it again. He shook his head: "I don't know."

Respect the old man's eyes slightly narrowed: "in that case, take a step by step. I have divined for the remnant soul. The other party is not a short-lived person. You can rest assured."

Ye Chen suddenly, and then arched his hand and said, "respect the old man, in that case, I'll leave."

Just as ye Chen was about to leave, Zun said, "do you know the changes in the heaven palace recently?"

Ye Chen was stunned: "at the beginning, the Shenwu temple and the demon temple were so mean that other forces of the alliance really sat idly by?"

Before the words fell, the elder responded: "the original intention of the alliance was to protect the prosperity of the human race. For thousands of years, it has adhered to this way. Things have changed since the demon Temple joined the alliance."

"In addition to the Tianfeng Pavilion and the Tiangong temple, other forces may bow their heads to the demon temple to a certain extent!"

When respecting the old, his temperament is a little colder.

"Now that the temple of heaven is destroyed, it's hard to deal with the rest. I thought tianxuexin would contact you. Now it seems that tianxuexin didn't look for you. I'm afraid he didn't want to drag you in."

Ye Chen could not help frowning. Is there no way to solve it?

"In fact, you have to tie the bell to untie the bell!" the elder muttered to himself.

Ye Chen was stunned and said curiously, "what do you mean?"

The elder put his hands behind his back and said, "since the alliance has been corroded, it's time to find the person who makes the rules in the world!"

"The person who makes the rules?" Ye Chen wondered.

"Too divine mountain, too divine!" the elder suddenly mentioned to the ground.

Ye Chen then asked, "is this too God?"

"The myth of the lost time and space Terran! Or, the God who once lost time and space!" zunlao narrowed his eyes, as if trying to recall the legend of this ancient thing.

"It is said that the Taishen emperor Haishan had the means to connect the sky. In ancient times, he fought off the invasion of different demons and demon domains in lost time and space several times, and presided over the creation of the Terran alliance. He was also the first leader of the lost alliance!"

"He was going to go to the supreme world and strive for hegemony in the world, but he didn't go because of some delays. If he went at that time, I'm afraid he would be among the top ten in the world now."

"Ancient people?" Ye Chen frowned. It was the first time he heard of the great man.

The elder continued: "the old guy in the Shenwu hall is alive. He is too divine. He must still exist in the world. If you can invite him to come forward, this chess will be saved."

"Also, your method of resurrection of the remnant soul should be able to be achieved by the means of too God. The key is that too God is willing to take action."

"I don't know if the misty shadow refers to the place of God?" Venerable Master said.

Ye Chen thought for a moment and said, "where is the God?"

The elder shook his head: "although I can barely divine the position, it will cost me too much. You may have an answer if you go to tianxuexin."

Ye Chen no longer hesitated. With the help of Linger's power, she tore the void and came to a hall.

On the hall sat a woman with a cold temperament. The woman was filled with Ancient Runes, and her breath became stronger and stronger.

It is the snow heart.

Tianxue Xinmei's eyes opened. When it was determined that it was Ye Chen, her eyes were a little excited, but soon recovered calm: "you're coming."

Ye Chen didn't talk nonsense, but directly said the words of respecting the elderly and the things of too God.

"Taishen... This is really a way, but it means we have to go to Taishen mountain." Tianxuexin muttered.

"Too divine mountain?" Ye Chen was puzzled. It seemed that Tianxue heart did know this place.

"It's still a question whether there is a great God on the Taishen mountain, but ordinary people worship the mountain to pray for blessings. Everyone knows and hears. I haven't set foot in these years. Go and try my luck!"

"Maybe you can really invite Taishen!"

The snow heart opens a way.

"Ye Chen, come with me!"

The next second, Tianxue's heart tore the void. No matter Ye Chen, he went in one direction.

Ye Chen looked at the closed void crack and had some helplessness. How did he follow?

Fortunately, Linger and Xubei can vaguely determine the route of Tianxuexin.

.....

After a incense stick.

One person leads the first out of the void.

Surrounded by five peaks, the stars hold the moon, and the mountains rise into the sky.

"This is the boundary of Taishen mountain..."

Tianxue's heart looked at the golden world in front of her eyes. She immediately stopped her body, fell slowly and walked here.

"The golden soil of Taishen mountain..." it is obviously fertile soil, but it is dry, with few trees, rare vegetation coverage, and the fluttering skirt seems to be the only white in this golden world.

Under one foot, the golden light and rain all over the sky floated in front of him.

"Father, father!"

A child on his side pulled a middle-aged man's clothes with an eerie smile, pointed to Tianxue and said, "fairy sister!"

The middle-aged man picked up the child, smiled apologetically at Tianxue, and said to the child, "you smelly boy, you know the fairy sister at such a young age!"

"Let's go to the top of the mountain and the temple on the broad platform. There are too gods!"

The child grinned and said, "father, have you ever seen a God?"

The tip of the man's nose fondly rubbed the child's forehead and immediately said, "it's said that every visitor to taishenshan has seen taishenshan, but he doesn't know!"

With his right hand, he raised his baby son to his head, "only those with pure spirit can see the great God!"

.....

.....

In this episode, Tian Xuexin's mood is very complex. Looking at the passers-by and his son who left, somehow, he always thought of the scene of Wukong old man instructing him to practice.

A white horse crosses the gap between heaven and man.

His fists were tightly clenched, and a slight chill flashed in his eyes. All this was given by the temple of the evil spirit!

She wants to kill everyone in the demon temple and Shenwu temple!

The top of the broad platform is covered with snow, which can be described as a silver world. Compared with the previous scene, it is exactly two time and space.

"Girl, you are so fierce. You can't find a trace of Taishen mountain when you come here!"

A woodcutter like man glanced at Tianxue's heart. His hat covered his face and smiled.

"Hmm?" Tianxue's heart was puzzled, but he was an ordinary warrior. His strength was vulnerable, and his perception could never go wrong.

The figure of the woodcutter seemed to be a little eager. He smiled: "I've been cutting firewood in the mountains all day. As far as the trees are concerned, I can be regarded as a life-threatening ghost!"

"So I haven't seen the authentic work of God all year round!"

"I can feel that your breath is similar to mine, but it's not cutting firewood!"

Holding the bamboo hat, the woodcutter said to himself, "it's going to rain this day. Today's temple should no longer entertain guests. Girl, please go down the mountain quickly!"

I don't know when, the sky has long been covered with dark clouds. There was a trace of thunder, but I didn't hear the explosion.

"Big brother..." Tian Xuexin wanted to say more. Looking back, she found that the figure of the woodcutter was getting farther and farther away.

"Hmm?" the divine knowledge of Tianxue's heart swept away. Even on the broad platform, the only people were ordinary visitors. As for the so-called "Taishen" trace, there was nothing.

"Isn't... This is too sacred mountain, just a legend?" Tianxue's heart thin lips nibble. If she only goes back like this, she is really unwilling.

Look at the cliffs and crags around. Tianxue was helpless. It was just futile to continue to go up. She turned and went down.

The pattering raindrops beat on the pretty face, and the look of Tianxue's heart is cold, which is incompatible with everyone.

"Ka!"

A blast of thunder sounded in her ear and brought her thoughts back to reality. Tianxuexin was surprised to find that a line of ancient inscriptions appeared on the original ugly cliff and rock after being washed by rain.

"This is..." although Tian Xuexin's strength is strong, he can't understand the meaning of the obscure inscription. Even if the spiritual force is attached to it, he still can't interpret it.

With a flash of body shape, Tianxue's heart soared down. Looking down across the void, golden inscriptions flashed on the five peaks.

"Surrounded by five peaks, stars holding the moon!" Tianxue heart murmured.

"I see!"

At the beginning, I focused on these five mountains. At present, the real Taishen mountain is definitely not these five sacred peaks.

"It's the center of the embrace!"

Looking at the snow in the sky, the central gully under the heavy clouds is the key!

"Can't feel it!" Tianxue was very happy. It seemed that her guess was correct. She flashed and went to the center of the five peaks.

An invisible barrier blocked her way.

Tianxue's heart fingertips gently touched the border, and a soft force bounced her away.

No matter which direction from all directions, it is general and there is no door to enter.

"In that case, I offend you!"

The momentum of Tianxue's heart and body soared, and the killing intention fluctuated together. The rules of martial arts broke out: "frost China!"

The blue light of the sword lit up the five sacred peaks, and the cold awn of Shuanghua sword stabbed on the soft light curtain and dissipated invisibly.

"How could it be?" looking at the killing sword that was enough to make the emperor and the strong retreat three feet, it was like a stone sinking into the sea, and Tianxue's heart was shocked.

"Whoosh!"

A sword awn surged out of the border without any sign. It was the frost of Tianxue's heart.

"Damn it!"

A sword came quickly. Tianxue's heart dodged, killed Mang and rushed straight to the sky, dismissed several dark clouds in the sky and tore a huge gap.

A ray of dazzling sunshine shines again and shines into the valley, and the soft light curtain dissipates with it.

Tianxuexin is blessed with misfortune. Her figure appears in front of the valley in an instant. Looking at the green forest in front of her, she falls into silence again.

"Is it....." covered by the perception of Tianxue heart, this green forest is full of vitality, but it is half strong. I haven't felt the breath of the strong.

It's just an ordinary green forest.

"This space is different!" although I can't feel the unusual breath, my intuition tells Tian Xuexin that the secret must be in the green forest.

Soon, ye Chen also tore the void.

Tianxue was happy and said, "your array attainments are better than me. What can you find?"

Ye Chen looked away from a distance and directly used the array word formula in Brahma's divine skill to find the unusual place here.

Taishen mountain range is composed of ancient crystalline rocks. It is cut deep and steep in the north. There are five peaks, but the peak is broad and flat:

Looking at the sea in the East, hanging the moon in the west, Embroidered Brocade in the south, star in the north and green forest in the middle.

"The terrain of the five peaks is an amazing array." Ye Chen paced back and forth from the foot of the mountain. He thought about the complex terrain structure of Taishen mountain quickly in his mind. It seemed that he thought of something and blurted out:

"Ancient star moon six gods array?"

Tianxue Xin knew nothing about it, but saw Ye Chen come forward and say, "can you still have an impression of the talisman mark you've seen before? Write it for me!"

Shuanghua's sword is in hand. Tianxue's heart uses the sword as a pen and the ground as a blanket to wave Fang Qiu!

Ye Chen looked at the inscriptions and runes outlined on the ground one by one, and couldn't help frowning.

"I can't imagine that you can see this array base that can't be seen for thousands of years!" Ye Chen said a long time later. "This ancient star moon six gods array is one of the most unsolvable arrays in the world. The array setter hid the basic runes between heaven and earth. If it weren't for the star moon earth potential and the scouring of rainstorm, we wouldn't find anything unusual in this life!"

"Can you solve it?" Tian Xuexin asked softly for the array, but ye Chen was not so rebellious.

"Even if there is an array base, it's difficult. I'll try my best!" Ye Chen stopped talking and continued to use the array formula.

"Zhongcuilin... In that case, maybe you can try!" Ye Chen said to Tianxue's heart, "this array is wonderful. Even if you know the talisman in the array and want to crack it, it's not a day's work!"

"We don't have much time left. Maybe I can lead out the boundary you said again and try to break it with brute force!"

Tianxue's heart was full of sadness and said in a deep voice: "I tried to break the previous boundary, but failed!"

"Even if you can lead it out, I'm afraid you and I can't break it by force!"

Ye Chen nodded gently, "I have a way, I can try!"

Chapter 7100

Just when Tianxue was stunned, ye Chen's actions did not stop at all. Under the guidance of the array formula, the talisman on the rocks of the five peaks cliff showed a golden light again.

An inexplicable soft light curtain shrouded over the green forest, which was the unknown boundary that even the snow heart had to do last time.

"Use this!" Ye Chen thought and used the power of the crown of thorns again to condense it into a sword full of spikes.

This sword has the power of God. It is different from the thorn sword used by Chang Mojun before. It comes from the origin of the thorn crown and evolved from it.

Previously, the demon emperor of the sky had used it once.

Fortunately, the array here is too mysterious. I'm afraid it's impossible for the emperor to find anything.

Otherwise, such nine heavenly divinities, coupled with the lost time and space and the proximity of the Taishang world, will be detected by the feather emperor.

The moment Tianxue Xin held the handle of the sword, she was slightly surprised. She naturally felt the power of the sword.

"Open!" Tianxue's heart didn't hesitate. In her indifferent eyes, the scarlet light flashed, and the white skirt bloomed on the green forest of the mountains.

"Boom!"

Just one blow almost drained all the power of Tianxue Xin, a powerful emperor, and was extremely overbearing.

The scarlet killing awn cuts the soft light curtain like white paper. This time, it is no longer absorbed and bounced back like the previous attack.

The light curtain that tore a gap healed slowly, but a faint purple mist lingered on it.

"Come on!"

Ye Chen quickly said hello and looked at the light curtain that healed immediately. Once it was closed, it would be as difficult as heaven to go in again!

The figures of the two quickly swept behind the light curtain.

"There is no difference between here and before!" tianxuexin has been to this green forest, and has perceived it before, and there is no inexplicable smell.

"Wait... Although the scene is the same, the spiritual power of heaven and earth here is extremely rich. The previously consumed spiritual power is actually being filled back!"

Tianxue's heart feels the real wonder of Taishen mountain in the boundary.

"In that case..." ye Chengang wanted to speak. A figure flickered in the reincarnation cemetery, and linger's figure slowly appeared in the green forest.

"Ling'er?" the previous ling'er was very quiet. It seemed that she had something on her mind. How could she appear at the moment?

Tianxue looked at the little girl unconsciously and immediately said, "there seems to be something attracting linger in this place. She wants to be close unconsciously!"

Ye Chen also realized the abnormality of ling'er at the moment. He just put his hand on ling'er's shoulder, but his eyes were hurt by a burning light.

The whole body of ling'er sent out a golden light curtain, shrouded it, turned into a golden ball and slowly floated to the depths of the green forest.

The two people tried to stop it, but the bright golden light flashed, with the emergence of strange rules, drove Tianxue heart and ye Chen back, and then disappeared at the end of their eyes.

"Chase!"

Ye Chen and Tian Xuexin walked thousands of miles along the green forest to a straight up country road.

"Wait a minute, something's wrong!"

Tian Xuexin stopped Ye Chen and immediately said, "this green forest is the central gully surrounded by five peaks, but the land of a smooth river leads to the upward mountain top!"

Ye Chen is also concerned and chaotic. He chases hard all the way, but he forgets to check the surrounding terrain.

"There is something strange. The green forest is full of vitality, but it is quiet and suffocating. Such a scene has never attracted bees and butterflies. It seems that the owner of this place is very annoying!"

One step out, Tian Xuexin and ye Chen both felt inexplicable pressure. At this moment, they were shocked to find that two people had stopped their way in front of them.

"The breath of these two people... Two heavenly kings!" Ye Chen subconsciously took a step forward and protected Tianxue's heart behind him.

"Taishenshan forbidden area, but I'm sorry not to receive outsiders!" two elegant scholars, one holding a white ink folding fan and the other with a jade flute, said.

Although they look young, ye Chen feels that they have lived for more than 100000 years.

"You two, my friend entered here by mistake. He also looked at Haihan and made way for us. When we find it, we will leave!"

Ye Chen said.

"Huh? Friend?" the man holding the white Fan said, "I Wuji and LINGJI have guarded Cuilin for thousands of years. No one has broken in here except my brothers!"

The man holding the jade flute on the side of Wuji's body said, "looking for someone? This girl is full of killing intention. Even the Cuilin doesn't welcome her. You'd better leave!"

Tianxue stepped forward and said, "we're looking for someone, linger and Taishen!"

"Say it three times, it's as light as water, little girl. It's so fierce, but you can't see too God!"

The spirit whispered.

Tianxue's heart was shocked when she heard the speech. The people she met when she first set foot on Taishen mountain suddenly appeared in her mind.

"Still that sentence, offended!"

Shuanghua's sword is firmly in her hand. The strength of the two people in front of her is unfathomable. She must go all out.

"Oh? Are you going to be tough?" LINGJI smiled. "Even so, it's the same. The master is closed and won't meet anyone!"

"You'll suffer if you force yourself, little girl. It's still time to stop now!" the folding fan in limitless's hand shook gently, and a wisp of heaven and earth will swing with the fan.
