Chapter 7261

"Wake up, ye Chen!"

But ye Chen in this state had no consciousness at all. After the last obsession burst out of the golden awn, it had completely dissipated.

"Is that the only way?"

Ling'er bit her thin lip and said, "I can only fight like this!"

A finger gently touched Ye Chen's eyebrows, and the pure spiritual power was transmitted to Ye Chen. Immediately, linger's palms were folded:

"The moment is eternal, time goes back!"

The body trembled violently, a mouthful of blood coughed up, ling'er's petite body fell to the ground, and his consciousness dissipated slowly.

"Ye Chen, wake up!"

Before ling'er was unconscious, he shouted with all his strength.

On the void, the light of the broken body flashed and began to condense and reorganize slowly!

Trunk, right arm, crotch, right leg!

Impressively returned to the appearance that ye Chen had not completely disintegrated a moment ago.

"What happened?"

A glimmer of clear light flashed, and ye Chen returned to the moment when he had not completely lost consciousness. Around him, a hazy light curtain shrouded him!

In the Dantian, the power of reincarnation flashed and recovered its vitality.

Strong resilience heals Ye Chen.

In the blink of an eye, on the skeleton, there was a surge of flesh and blood!

"Ling'er!"

Ye Chen, who completely recovered his consciousness, was stunned when he saw the spirit son lying unconscious.

At the moment, the girl's original innocent face is no longer, her long gray hair is scattered, spread on the ground and lost consciousness.

"This light curtain is pulling away the vitality of linger!"

Ye Chen immediately clapped it out and broke away from the field left by ling'er to Ye Chen.

"Whoosh!"

Ye Chen rushed straight out, the hazy light dissipated, and Ling Er snorted.

"Linger, why are you so stupid..."

On the white bones, flesh and blood surged, and was interrupted by Ye Chen. At the moment, his eye socket was still two holes, trembling.

He, who has always been calm, lost his voice completely at the moment.

"Fool, I'm not dead yet!"

Ling'er struggled to get up, still her petite and lovely face, but her long white hair hung loose.

"You broke away from the light curtain, and the power was interrupted. I wasn't drained..."

Ling'er's eyes were ruddy, but her face was filled with a sweet smile.

"You..."

Ye Chen is helpless. Although ling'er is the spirit of the reincarnation xuanbei, in a sense, he is Ye Chen's friend.

But what is this desperate situation of death to do?

Is this test and deprivation of everything to witness anything?

I'm afraid limiting psychic power, nine heavenly divinity, and many of their own cards is for some purpose.

At the moment, ling'er grabbed Ye Chen's right arm bone and got up. He glanced and pretended to disdain: "I'll be fine. When I break through the limitation of space, the lost power will naturally be able to make up for it!"

Ye Chen was silent. Although he said so, Ling'er was different from ordinary practitioners. He wanted to step into a higher realm unless he found other spirit stones scattered all over the world.

"Hey, aren't you in trouble?"

Ling'er, with white hair like a waterfall, added some inexplicable mystery at the moment, looking at Ye Chen jokingly.

It's still the fearless look of heaven and earth!

"Lord of reincarnation, there will never be an end!"

Ye Chen talked about it. The clouds on his mouth were light and the wind was light, but his heart was like a thunderbolt. Ling'er's move touched the deepest string at the bottom of Ye Chen's heart.

"This huge peak is the desperate situation of death?"

Ling'er looked at the huge peak behind him, and was at a loss for a moment.

"Do you have a very familiar feeling?"

Ling'er tried hard to recall and wanted to turn over the depths of her memory.

The faint lingering light on Ye Chen's body kept shining, and the flesh and blood grew slowly. Ye Chen said:

"Do you remember when we first set foot on the boundary of Taishen mountain with Tianxue heart?"

A word awakened the dreamer, and Ling'er suddenly realized that compared with the land and gold surrounded by the five peaks of Taishen mountain, although it is shrouded in fog and dead, it has a somewhat similar feeling in terms of Feng Shui pattern.

"Do you think this place has anything to do with Taishen?"

Ling'er turned and asked.

Ye Chen shook his head and analyzed: "if you say contact, the array here must be more terrible than taishenshan..."

Because, in front of them, there are not five peaks, but nine huge peaks rising into the sky. The strange smell on them is filled, and they can't see through the mystery.

"Restore your strength first. I'll go around and inquire. Once these nine peaks step in, we will be killed and robbed!"

Ling'er told ye Chen to repair his flesh, but his smart and petite figure went to the depths of the nine peaks.

.....

Ye Chen took a look at ling'er's leaving figure and no longer thought about it. The eight trigrams Tiandan skill and Tianxian Koi copy and display, and the radiance gradually rises on the inch skin.

It's like rebirth.

"This time, flesh and blood gather and the flesh body is recast into a melting pot. I'm afraid my flesh body is stronger than the previous reincarnation holy body! It limits everything and resists in the most primitive way. Is this the purpose of this desperate situation of death?"

In Ye Chen's eyes, thousands of stars flash away, and the whole body's breath is more vigorous, but it gathers it all in a moment.

Ye Chen could not help feeling that he was born to death and happy for the rest of his life. Even the nine gray peaks not far from his eyes did not bring him such a strong sense of oppression.

"Ye Chen, this place is completely forbidden and covered up. There is no clue from the outside!"

The white haired spirit came back in a hurry, looked at Ye Chen with a indifferent face at the moment, and said with a smile: "this is Ye Chen I know. Eh, your cultivation has made some progress, good!"

Chapter 7262

"Even so, we can't take it lightly. There are many difficulties ahead, Lei Bei hasn't been taken, and the reincarnation blood hasn't fully recovered." Ye Chen murmured.

Ling'er pinched his nose playfully, waved his hand and said, "I know. Don't talk about it. What should I do now?"

Ye Chen could not help smiling when he saw Ling'er's behavior. After a rare joke, he said in a deep voice: "it seems that someone doesn't want us to find the doorway from the outside. In that case, we can only go in and see it again!"

"No!"

Ling'er hurriedly stopped and said that the previous terrible pressure had made Ye Chen "die" once. If he forced himself into the house, he was afraid that something would happen.

"That person should be reluctant to let us die..." Ye Chen murmured.

Ling'er was suspicious and said, "what?"

Ye Chen looked at Ling'er and whispered, "among the nine peaks, there must be crises everywhere, but the real killing opportunity is after the nine peaks!"

"After nine peaks?"

Ling'er is still holding up his little hand to think about the meaning between the lines in Ye Chen's words, but he sees that ye Chen's body has taken a big step towards the nine peaks.

"Hey, ye Chen, do you know how to go?"

Ye Chen turned back and smiled, "I don't know, follow fate!"

When he came near, ye Chen looked at the nine huge peaks in front of him, four on the left and four on the right.

At the moment, he hoped that Lianshen peak could give him some guidance, but there was no movement at Lianshen peak.

No more thought, his eyes fell on one of them and said, "it's you!"

Determined to make a choice, he quickly waved to ling'er, and their figures walked one by one towards a huge peak in the middle

.....

"Hmm? It's too true. I didn't expect such a weak person to set foot here!"

An old and weak voice echoed in the mountains and soon disappeared.

"Ye Chen, we came in so rashly. Once something happens, you can't get rid of me this time. At least I'm also a strong man who can control the reincarnation xuanbei!"

Ling'er was shocked when he thought of the previous experience of Ye Chen.

"Well, I see!"

Ye Chen just smiled softly and agreed.

"You're not listening to me seriously..."

Ling'er's dissatisfied complaint sounded in Ye Chen's ear.

"Buzz!"

Ye Chen suddenly looked back, but the strange noise was hard to find.

"What are you looking at? God talks all the way!" ling'er asked when he saw Ye Chen looking back several times.

"From the beginning, I felt a strange sound lingering in my ears..."

Ling'er heard the speech, but shrugged his shoulders, "I didn't hear it. Is your own nerve too tight?"

It's normal for ye Chen to have such a reaction to the disaster of death.

"Maybe..."

Although the voice sounded from time to time, it had no intention to kill, and ye Chen didn't take it to heart.

With a few more steps, the buzzing sound sounded again in the lifeless space in the gray mountains and forests.

"Buzz!"

"Buzz!"

Ye Chen suddenly looked back, the reincarnation heavenly eye opened, and the soul force was instantly revealed. Although there was only a blink, it was firmly captured.

"There's a situation!"

Reaching out to stop the ling'er who continued to move forward in front of her, ye Chen slowly closed her eyes. At that moment, the melody turned into a gray awn, twinkling and twinkling in the space around them.

"I see. It's a sound array!"

Open her eyes again, ye Chen takes ling'er's small hand and rushes in the opposite direction.

"Sure enough, this place also has!"

Ling'er asked, "sound array?"

"Yes, to be exact, someone communicated the array here and wanted us to find something!" Ye Chen pondered for a long time, and then said. If he hadn't practiced the array words, he might not have seen it.

"This sound array has no intention of killing, so I didn't pay attention to it at the beginning, but only I can hear its melody from time to time, and a coordinate is marked in this peak!"

With such an explanation, ling'er suddenly realized.

"So someone guided us?"

Linger's heart gushed out a trace of uneasiness. I'm afraid someone interfered in this chess game, which led Ye Chen to come here in advance.

In addition to the oppressed evil in the world, the guardian is the only one to guard this desperate situation. Is it difficult... Is it the guardian who took the initiative to find Ye Chen?

"Ye Chen, this desperate situation of abandonment and suppression of the peerless demons will set off an eternal disaster if they get out of trouble!"

Ling'er murmured.

Ye Chen took over the conversation, "this sound array has no killing intention, that is to say, it is not the birth of demons!"

Ling'er thought for a moment and said, "this is a dead end. Generations are guarded by its guardian and its descendants. Speaking of the guardian, it has been too long to trace its source!"

Ye Chen asked, "this guardian is very powerful. I once saw a guardian who helped me a lot when he was abroad."

"In fact, the power is unfathomable!" Linger replied in a deep voice.

"So, the person who wants to see us is the guardian?" Ye Chen was surprised.

Ling'er did not make a specific response to this, but objectively said: "now there is a problem in this desperate situation of abandonment. Even in the peripheral wasteland, there are creatures who want to kill us. There must be something fishy!"

"Anyway, let's go and have a look!" Ye Chen nodded gently and immediately asked, "be careful!"

Ye Chen closed her eyes again and waited for the faint waves of the uninterrupted rhythm.

Soon, a buzzing sound lingered again.

"Buzz!"

"Buzz!"

Ye Chen is waiting for this moment. The soul force of reincarnation is attached to it in an instant. As the rhythm dissipates again, ye Chen also opens his eyes.

"My soul power dissipated. It's in that direction!"

With the rhythm dispersed together, ye Chen's mind fluctuated, impressively pointing to the depths of the giant peak.

.....

At the same time, above the giant peak.

"It's terrible physical and spiritual power, but it's just too true cultivation. Can you help me out?"

"Well, it's not too late to talk when we meet..."

The old voice sounded and disappeared, lamenting more than ever.

.....

"Is it this way? It feels dark!"

Ling'er looked around as he walked. In this desperate situation of death, he killed opportunities step by step. If he made a mistake, he might lose everything.

"Young man, it's really not easy to get to this step!"

At this moment, the old voice sounded, which made the two people who were advancing in the dark look dignified.

When ye Chen looked back, he saw that not far from the rear, an old man in royal clothes in a long gray shirt stood upright naturally, stretched out his hand and made a slight invitation gesture, and said:

"For thousands of years, no one has visited my boundary. Little friend, you are the first distinguished guest to come here. How about a drink?"

As soon as the voice fell, the gray mountains and forests behind him seemed to be inspired, green and full of vitality.

Chapter 7263

"Tianjun Laozu?"

Ling'er stared. The old man was permeated with a gentle breath. Only a wisp of leakage would revive the mountains and forests and reappear their vitality.

Only Tianjun and Laozu can have the power of creation. Even ordinary Tianjun can't do it!

"Obedience is better than respect. Thank you, master!"

Since others kindly invited to visit, ye Chen gave each other three thin noodles.

"Ha ha ha, what a young man!"

The old man seemed to appreciate Ye Chen's attitude of being neither humble nor arrogant nor flattering. Immediately, he waved his arm. On his side, in front of the leaves of the green forest, there was a stone table and three stone benches to entertain guests.

"Please!"

The old man brushed his robe and took his seat first. Then he pointed to the remaining two seats and motioned Ye Chen and ling'er to take their seats.

The moment they sat down, the old man in front of them smiled and waved again. On the trunk of the dead tree, the green leaves fell down, no more, no less, just nine!

The old man pointed out in the air and gave a ring gently. On the stone table, the fragrance of tea overflowed in an instant, and in the clear cup, three green leaves were still soaking in it.

"Gudu gudu!"

Boiling bubbles keep pouring out, and the fragrance instantly permeates the whole giant peak.

"Little friend, can you solve my doubts?"

The old man was still warm and asked with a smile.

"Oh? I don't know what the elder wants to know, I naturally know everything!" this makes people feel like a spring breeze. The old man is not only a means to the sky, but also such a warm mood.

Without an extraordinary strength!

"It hasn't come out in ten thousand years. I have a lot of doubts in my heart. What year is it this evening?"

The old man smiled, looked straight at Ye Chen and asked the first question in his heart.

Ye Chen and ling'er answered one by one. The old man's question is also very simple, nothing more than the dynamics of the outside world.

"So it is. It's really lonely in this desperate situation of death!"

With a long sigh, the old man couldn't help sobbing. Seeing the silence of the atmosphere, the old man laughed and said, "people are old, we can't help feeling more. You two, use tea!"

I don't know when, on the stone table, the churning bubbles are no longer, but the warmth is not halved.

"The first time I saw this tea, there was a sense of immortality. Elder, ye Chen thanked me first!"

Take a cup of tea in your hand and put it into your throat. A sweet stream flows down the river, which immediately ignites a warm feeling in your inner abdomen and moisturizes your meridians.

"This..."

Ling'er also noticed that the seemingly ordinary tea contained such overbearing power, which made her spiritual power pure.

But ye Chen felt that his cultivation was solid again, and even almost touched some shackles.

They looked at each other and hurriedly got up to pay tribute. Just about to move, the old man brushed his sleeves. Ye Chen and Ling Er couldn't move.

Then I heard the old man continue to say, "you two need not be polite. Although the Bodhi leaf under the enlightenment tree is a treasure and was born in a lifeless place, if you abandon your shoes, it will be your reward for solving my doubts!"

At the end of their words, ye Chen and ling'er's actions resumed as usual again.

"Thank you, master!"

Ye Chen bowed to show respect.

"I've never talked to anyone for thousands of years. When I was eager, I forgot to ask. What's the matter with the two little friends here?"

"How did you find this dead end?"

The old man opened his eyes wide and asked.

"Elder, it's like this. We have a friend trapped in the Shijie God and devil tower. After saving him, he gave us a map here. He came here to find..."

After seeing the guardian with unfathomable cultivation, ling'er felt very close and explained without reservation.

"Cough!"

Ye Chen's eyes coagulated and interrupted the elated ling'er. Then he answered: "senior, the little girl doesn't know a lot of inside information. It's like this..."

Ye Chen changed a version.

He had seen the guardian of the dead end before. He was not like this person. It was not certain whether this person was good or bad.

There are trapped strongmen here, and there may also be guardians in distant times.

After all, the guardian is not alone, and it is normal.

The old man listened without interruption.

"I see. Did you come here mistakenly thinking that there was an antidote in the desperate situation of death?" the old man couldn't help smiling, shaking his head and smiling.

Ye Chen also pretended to scratch her head with embarrassment and explained: "since the ten robbery of the God demon tower, my friend seems to be entangled by some evil thoughts. God nags. We are also very worried. This is why we took a trip for him and came to find treasure medicine!"

Ling'er saw Ye Chen's explanation and didn't say much. She listened to Ye Chen's explanation quietly.

"Interesting."

The old man narrowed his eyes as if he were thinking about something.

"In this way, there is a miracle at the end of this peak, which was left by a Dan God ten thousand years ago. It's useless for me. I haven't seen it. If you need anything, you can go by yourself!"

Take a cup of Bodhi tea again, and the old man whispered.

"In that case, thank you for your hospitality. We won't bother any more. After all, human life is vital!"

Ye Chen got up, and immediately the spirit son on his side also raised his hand and hurriedly wiped the corners of his mouth, and followed Ye Chen to leave.

"Little friend, wait a minute!"

But the old man said, "with your strength, go to the miracle, ten dead and no life!"

"Dare you ask, elder, is there a way to break the game?"

Ye Chen frowned and asked in a deep voice.

"I can accompany you on the journey!"

Immediately, the figure in front of him got up slowly. His old body stood up again and sighed: "old, his bones haven't moved for a long time!"

Chapter 7264

Ye Chenjing stood, looking at everything in front of her, silent.

"Little friend, before that, there is something you need to obtain. Among the miracles, there are many murderous opportunities. Since it is the Dan God, it should be closer to natural things. If you can take its branches, you can replace it!"

One side of the spirit son pulled the corner of Ye Chen's clothes and said, "is this a test for you?"

"Why didn't the old man do it himself? He promised to go with us!"

Murmuring in a low voice attracted the old man to shake his head and smile. Under his gaze, ye Chen nodded slowly and said with a smile: "in that case, thank you for your advice!"

"Little friend, step forward!"

The old man motioned Ye Chen to come forward. Eight enlightenment trees trapped him here. Seeing ye Chen staring, ling'er also clenched his fists.

"Success or failure is a fight here!"

The old man murmured, looking at the extended trunk of the enlightenment tree, a complex color flashed in the depths of his eyes.

"Hoo..."

Ye Chen sighed and fell into a dilemma. Even he made some difficulties.

Although Dantian already has some spiritual power, the spiritual power here still restricts him. If the other party is not the guardian, it is very difficult for him to fight.

"This old guy is obviously weird. Is he a guardian?"

This is the first question that haunts him. Everything before is so real, including the benefits of enlightenment tea!

"Am I worried too much?"

"But the killing and robbery that came all the way before is not just a test. If the strength is not good, the spirit has already died..."

But in front of the old man, his gentle breath and tea hospitality did not show his slightest difference.

Just when ye Chen was in a trance, the test among the old people also officially began. Eight divine trees of enlightenment were like thousand handed Guanyin, with countless branches coming out together and reaching out to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's body is constantly moving and dodging in the air, but how can the towering branches of the divine tree be more than thousands?

A little carelessly, several branches stabbed Ye Chen's body and shot a touch of red.

"The flesh is really strong!"

Ye Chen, who did not open the dust tablet and use the reincarnation blood, only broke his skin in the face of the sudden thorns of the branches of the divine tree of enlightenment.

"Huh?"

Ye Chen immediately felt the passing of his weak spiritual power.

"This sacred tree is absorbing my vitality and spiritual power!"

Ye Chen was surprised. Why is the sacred tree so strange? Is it the layout of the elder?

Three heavenly swords and one waterstop sword can't be used naturally, which plays a key role as a bottom card.

Suddenly, ye Chen thought of something! Martial reincarnation map is not restricted here! This is the best way to deal with it!

"Wu Tao reincarnation map, seal!"

For a moment, the powerful power of space strangulation permeated Ye Chen's eyes. Even the solid space-time boundaries such as the desperate situation of death were cut by a storm.

"Space treasure!"

The old man stared at Ye Chen in the array and said in surprise.

"Sure enough..."

Ye Chen saw the power of the seal and strangulation of the reincarnation map of martial arts. Although he crushed all the branches extending from his body, the eight enlightenment trees regenerated countless branches in an instant and continued to stab Ye Chen!

When ye Chen saw this, the terrible soul force was released again, and a fine awn shot out in the center of his eyebrow.

"Boom!"

In the twinkling of an eye, the star like soul killing awn reappeared, directly on one of the enlightenment trees.

"It's the soul power of the heavenly king!"

Seeing this, the old man stroked his beard.

"Elder, does Ye Chen hope to pass the test?" ling'er blinked his big eyes and asked in one side.

The old man smiled gently and said, "it's a little difficult with the ability shown by Ye Chen's little friend..." but soon the conversation changed, "but he's still young, practice hard and will succeed one day!"

Ling'er narrowed his eyes, took small steps and moved several feet outward, looking at Ye Chen in the enlightenment array.

.....

meanwhile.

"Bare!"

The strange sound came from the enlightenment tree that was bombarded by Ye Chen's soul power. There was a burning smell on it, but it soon healed again.

"The power of seal doesn't work!"

"The effect of divine soul is very small!"

Ye Chen's mind flashed scenes of deja vu.

In the Shijie God devil tower, the eight big Buddhas above the main hall of the temple huff and puff bronze chains, locking the hanging bronze giant coffin from eight directions!

"There are also eight enlightenment trees in front of us!"

Ye Chen's hair was creepy. A bold idea soared in his heart. Could it be that the old man was as evil as the bronze coffin?

"This old thing seems to have appeared behind me from the beginning, and the eight divine trees of enlightenment have not moved around..."

"But what about the Bodhi tea that makes me improve?"

Countless questions linger in Ye Chen's heart, but the only thing that can be sure now is that the old man must have a problem!

"Longyuan Tianjian: the sun is red and brilliant!"

A hot sun rises and shines like a thousand feet of light.

"This is... Tianjian?"

In the eyes of the old man, a look of fanaticism appeared uncontrollably, as if waiting for something.

"The remaining aura of Dantian, the current Longyuan Heavenly Sword, I can barely urge it twice!"

Ye Chen held the Heavenly Sword in his hand, and the Longyuan Heavenly Sword connected with his mind also made a buzzing sound, as if jumping for his master.

"Cut!"

With a flick of the sword, half of the branches of a Taoist tree fell to the ground, and thousands of branches seemed to have spiritual knowledge. Seeing the Dragon Qi sword, they all avoided it.

So far, in Ye Chen's whole body space, none of the thousands of branches dared to enter his body.

The burning sword spread across the sky and rushed to the Xiaohan. The old man looked at Ye Chen's back and couldn't help clenching his fists. The hot color in his eyes only increased.

But the leaf Chen eyebrow with his back to the old man was a glimmer of gold, flashing a weak wave again. Looking back, there were no green leaves around, full of green meaning.

The eight divine trees of enlightenment are no longer powerful. Now they have evolved into eight bronze chains, which firmly extend to the whole body of the old man.

The tall and straight figure with high spirits before was half kneeling on the ground in ragged clothes, and his limbs and neck were tightened.

The chest and back are broken into flesh and blood by two bronze chains, and the chain at the blood hole is fastened to its bone.

The last winding chain goes straight to the bottom of the earth. I don't know its source. It is the enlightenment tree cut by Ye Chen's Heavenly Sword. The part of the chain that goes into the bottom of the earth is engraved with a crack on the sword scar.

This situation is fleeting.

"I see!" at this moment, ye Chen completely understood everything.

"Pa!"

"Pa!"

The constant applause echoed, and the old man laughed: "Ye Chen is really a handsome talent in the world. With such strength, you can be the leader of the younger generation! I'm afraid you are the only one in the world!"

Chapter 7265

Laughter pulled Ye Chen's thoughts back again. The mountains and forests in front of him were still shining, and half of the branches in his hands were immortal.

"Master, you're wrong. I don't deserve it!"

Ye Chen rushed out of the eight divine trees to understand the Tao. He immediately strode to the old man, handed over half of the branches and said:

"In this way, you can explore the divine realm with Ye Chen?"

When the old man heard the speech, he laughed, "you boy!"

There is a half ironic meaning of the elderly to the younger generation's mind.

"I pay more attention than these. Have you ever been taught by a famous teacher at your age?"

The old man has a tendency to accept Ye Chen as a door closing disciple.

Ye Chen sighed. It was really an old fox. He saw the extraordinary of Longyuan Tianjian. It depends on whether he has a backstage and is ready to seize it!

One side of ling'er answered: "senior, don't think about ye Chen. He is the closed disciple of the ancient emperor of the feather emperor of the world. His master engraved all his life's accomplishments on him for his sake. I'm afraid something will happen to this precious disciple!"

"I don't have any advice from a famous teacher. Would you consider me?"

Ling'er's big eyes blinked, and he had a feeling of serious worship.

When the old man heard the speech, he wondered, "the feather emperor?"

"Well... His master's name is taboo. It seems so! He even runs the wanxu temple and is known as the first person in the world!" ling'er said straight.

Ye Chen was stunned and smiled bitterly. Ling'er was warning the old man!

But he never thought that ling'er had moved out his enemy directly!

However, the name of the feather emperor is the most effective.

"It was him..."

The same is a character thousands of years ago. The old man is naturally no stranger to this name.

But the old man's eyes were still uncertain.

Although the ancient emperor Yu Huang has something to do with this desperate situation, it is impossible for him to send someone to intervene here.

And the closed disciples of the ancient emperor Yu Huang are too real?

Just when the old man was confused, ye Chen showed his Brahma magic skill, array word formula and said, "it seems that the elder doesn't believe me?"

Feeling the power of the array formula, the old man's eyes shrink fiercely, which determines Ye Chen's identity.

"In that case, I won't rob the disciples with the old guy. Ye Chen, I have an old relationship with your teacher. Can I give you a chance?"

The old man didn't seem to allow Ye Chen to refuse. Even when he said, "the space-time here is abnormal. I can reverse and reshape it and improve your cultivation for you. After all, there are many hardships ahead. I can't bear your death!"

Ye Chen sneered in his heart. Old guy, he couldn't win by force. He still wanted to tempt himself to stay, break through the realm and cut off eight tangled chains for him?

Maybe in order to get out of trouble, he will try his best to help himself break through?

The Bodhi tea was planned like this. It's really an old fox!

"Thank you for your kindness, master. The Master Carved many prohibitions on the boy. It's not a problem to protect his life. He's just eager to save his friends. What do you think?"

"When I get the precious medicine, my friend will bring it back and come back in person. Please give me some advice. After all, I don't want to miss such an opportunity..."

Ye Chen's eyes coagulated and said very seriously.

The old man smiled and said, "well, the miracle is on the ninth peak. You can go by yourself! But the guard of the mausoleum needs to be killed completely!"

Speaking of this, a trace of killing intention flashed between the lips and teeth of the old man.

"Go, ye Chen little friend, I'm waiting for you to return!" the old man smiled and watched Ye Chen leave. Then he whispered, "it would be easier for me to get out of trouble if I could use the hand of the disciples of the ancient emperor Yu to eradicate the guardian!"

.....

At the same time, far away.

"Ye Chen, how do you know that old guy has a problem?" ling'er asked after leaving the mountain forest.

Ye Chen just smiled and played games with each other, but it seems that the final winner is them.

"When that guy talked about the ninth peak, he couldn't resist escaping. It seems that the person we're really looking for should be on the ninth peak!"

The figures of the two quickly swept away towards the ninth peak!

"Although I don't know what medicine the old guy sells in the gourd, from his attitude, the so-called man of the ninth peak must be his enemy!"

Ye Chen and ling'er quickly left the huge peak that they had no intention to break into and turned back to the fog forest again. This time, they were safe and sound.

"Ling'er, let me do the next thing!"

Walking on the road, ye Chen suddenly stopped and looked at the little girl with white hair like a waterfall in front of her.

"Huh?"

Ling'er first widened her eyes suspiciously, and then her eyebrows gathered, but she heard Ye Chen around her again dissuade:

"I've thought about it carefully. If your breath leaks out, it will lead to suppressing the covet of the strong here. On the contrary, I can keep a low profile here!"

Ye Chen expressed her concerns. Ling'er was different from herself. Successive wars were a great consumption to her, not to mention that she had used powerful means to help herself.

Ling'er didn't answer, but his back turned into a flash of streamer, disappeared in front of Ye Chen, and sent out the last warning:

"Don't die too fast, you guy!"

.....

Ye Chen showed off the great starry sky, with a star river overhead, passed through the dangerous fog forest on the front line, and then went straight to the foot of the ninth peak, and plunged into the dense forest without looking back.

The space in front of him is becoming narrower and narrower. He can only allow his figure to pass through. In the space of the dark stone wall, a distant light is reflected in Ye Chen's eyes.

Ye Chen couldn't help quickening his pace and quickly drilled out of the hole. Suddenly, he was stunned by the scene in front of him.

I thought the imaginary dead Jedi were full of cold bones, but what I saw was a completely different existence.

This is a scene of prosperity!

Chapter 7266

When ye Chen's eyes coagulated, he looked up at the sky and felt a whirl of heaven and earth. Raindrops fell on his cheeks. There was a trace of sweetness in the air.

"These trees are the same as those carved out of a mold. They are the same in front, back, left and right except up and down!"

Not waiting for ye Chen to sigh, he found something. With five fingers and a grip, the bottom of the earth fluctuated like a calm lake.

"There are pure spiritual power fluctuations!"

Ye Chen couldn't help sighing. Although it didn't work for him, it was a treasure for some martial artists.

"Brahma divine skill: array word formula, open!"

The rain and fog gradually dispersed, and the blazing light shone down, pointing out the direction for ye Chen. Ye Chen continued to climb the mountain all the way north.

"There are people in this place..."

Ye Chen followed up step by step like an artificially carved jade ladder. Looking around, he stopped and murmured, "why is this ladder so spinning? It's obviously going up the mountain, but it looks like going down the mountain..."

I don't know how long Ye Chen has been attacking. Ye Chen's body is a little tired. Obviously, the prestige of space here has always existed.

Under the blue sky, a few Phoenix crossed, and ye Chen continued to climb the mountain with the trace

For half an hour, ye Chen reached the top of the bottomless mountain.

A broad platform appears at the end of sight. It is magnificent and rich. The road ahead is broken.

At this time, the void fluctuated, and a mysterious figure in black stepped down from the top, blocking Ye Chen's way. It was very strange.

"Too true? Why is the breath on each other so familiar!"

"Have I seen it?"

Ye Chen looked up and down at him several times from the moment he called someone to appear. His slender figure was somewhat similar to himself, and his accomplishments were the same, but his face was covered by a silver mask.

"Who are you?"

Ye Chen put her hands behind her and said.

The mysterious man in black turned a deaf ear and continued to step down. His breath was as stable as Mount Tai without leaking anything.

"This guy..." he didn't hear his cry. Ye Chen didn't say much anymore and went straight up.

The moment they were about to wipe their shoulders, the silent mysterious man suddenly stretched out his arm and stopped Ye Chen.

"What does that mean, sir?"

However, ye Chen is still greeted by a pair of cold pupils. These eyes... Are extremely bloodthirsty and belligerent!

But at the same time, it gives Ye Chen a sense of familiarity.

No matter how ye Chen asks, the man is silent and moves his steps, pushing Ye Chen back step by step.

"Then fight!"

Ye Chen also has a horizontal eyebrow and eye. Since she doesn't want to talk more, she sees Zhenzhang under her hand!

"The sun is shining!"

Ye Chen waved at will, and a round of sun rose from the cloud curtain, shining thousands of times.

In the face of this immediate blow, the mysterious man was not in a hurry. He turned aside and immediately offered a sword to Ye Chen!

After several rounds of fighting, both sides are at ease.

After the war, ye Chen's expression was extremely strange.

Although he did not use the Heavenly Sword and the water stop sword, his martial arts are absolutely invincible in the Taizhen realm!

But the mysterious man resisted!

"In the Taizhen realm, this guy is the strongest I've ever seen!"

Even if it is the peak of Baijia realm, with Ye Chen's physical battle at the moment, it is enough to break his defense and hurt his foundation, but the guy in front of him seems to have expected his attack. Every time he resolves the killing move, he is so calm.

Another sword cut out, and both sides took three steps back and stood still.

"How is this guy so familiar?"

Ye Chen starts the reincarnation of heaven's eyes, with ancient lines in her pupils.

He no longer thought much, nor did he use his sword. Instead, he turned his fist into a palm, ready to go, and his momentum was like a rainbow.

This is a unique skill that belongs to the Lord of reincarnation, daqianchonglou palm.

Ye Chen fell into the absolute self world and launched a palm.

In an instant, everything in heaven and earth and the heavens were trembling. Even in the depths of the void, there were many rules to avoid.

The unspeakable force against the sky broke out, toppling mountains and seas, roaring like thunder, giving full play to the domineering momentum.

These divine arts, which frighten the world, are well deserved to be the first of the nine days.

It ranks first in the nine heavenly divinity, with great divine power and infinite supremacy.

That was enough to crush the palm of the mountain, but it was also blocked by the mysterious man in black in a defensive posture!

"Boom!"

The strong wind swept away the thousands of fallen leaves in the swirling forest, and all the creatures were bounced away. If it weren't for the dead desperate situation, the space was very solid, this palm could break the void.

"There's still no way..."

Ye Chen calmed down and looked at the mysterious man in front of him. He couldn't help but frown deeply: "this guy seems to have nine heavenly gods and reincarnation blood. His flesh is terrible. I'm afraid he has set foot in the emperor!"

Facing Ye Chen's crazy attack, the guy in front of him not only didn't feel stretched out, but also knew his killing moves well, and responded to each attack in advance.

"This guy, can you guess my heart?"

Under the silver mask, the mysterious man's cold breath was exposed. Although there was no cold killing intention, ye Chen gave birth to an indescribable feeling.

"Is it..."

Looking back at the whole mountain forest again, the scene in front of him is still the same. At the moment, the rain and fog are dispersed, the sun is hanging overhead, the rising light comes into sight, and the mysterious man attacks and kills again. This time, he no longer defends!

This time he used daqianchonglou palm!

Isn't there only one person who can take charge of the first ranked nine heaven divination!

"Ye Chen, this guy is procrastinating..."

In the reincarnation cemetery, the voice of ling'er came. Although the mysterious man in front of him was not high, his body was very abnormal. Even he could not break his defense.

"I see!"

Ye Chen is no longer merciful. At the moment, he can only use the sword of water stop!

His heart was extremely calm, his movements were clean and tidy, and a sword cut through the void. The power of nothingness was so terrible that the land around the mountain forest fell for thousands of kilometers.

This is still when ye Chen deliberately depresses his strength.

He used his strongest means. Sure enough, he triggered the change of heaven and earth. The extremely terrible breath quickly dispersed, and the boundary seemed to be unable to withstand such abnormal pressure and trembled violently.

The waterstop sword is like a gorgeous fireworks. It doesn't bloom until the last minute. The endless light is like the rising sun and the morning glow.

It's also like a meteor, a meteorite falling, dragging a gorgeous tail in the sky.

After the breakthrough, ye Chen had more attainments in this sword. At the moment, the Longyuan Heavenly Sword buzzed, and the Heavenly Sword in his hand gave a happy sword sound, which suddenly appeared with a terrible sword!

Chapter 7267

"Hiss!"

Where a thousand feet of swords pass, a piece of space breaks and collapses, together with a roll of beautiful mountains and rivers!

Endless storms and turbulence poured in, and the whole world was surging with the cutting force of turbulence. The raging space killed the awn, and even ye Chen's body burst out hundreds of wounds, large and small.

The swirling forest in front of us, the stairs coming up and the spirit beasts at the foot of the mountain are all like thin paper, which are gently divided into two halves!

Thousands of creatures shed spiritual blood, and even had no time to splash on the ground, which had been absorbed by the endless storm turbulence.

"Burst!"

The terrible sword lit up and went straight to the mysterious man in black. All this happened between lightning and flint.

From the moment Ye Chen wielded his sword, the mysterious man retreated. The powerful sword hole broke into the void, and the killing power of the storm also broke his physical defense, stirring out one by one.

"Wu Tao reincarnation map!"

At the last moment before the sword broke, the mysterious man opened and closed his thin lips and blurted out four words.

"Buzz!"

Wuwu's sword will completely light up the whole mountain forest. Endless Wuwu breath will spin and leap between heaven and earth and take everything away!

.....

"It's over..."

Ye Chen stood on the void and looked down at the dusty battlefield. His eyes fixed on the broad platform.

On the nine cold peaks, every inch of the sword fell out.

Only this broad platform still stands.

"Whoosh!"

Just when ye Chen was confused, another sword that tore the heaven and earth broke out from under the dust, and the sword shines in the world!

"A sword of water!"

A cold drink brought Ye Chen back to reality in an instant.

"How could..."

The mysterious man not only didn't die, but even ye Chen's waterstop sword was born again!

Looking at the sword that swept again, the breath of terror and vastness is the same as before. It is definitely not an illusion!

Once hit by the sword, you will die!

Ye Chen's body suddenly retreated. However, the sword was already close to his eyes. It turned into a little in Ye Chen's eyes and burst into pieces in an instant!

"Dust monument! Wish sky star, open!"

A golden armor covers the whole body.

Ye Chen also exerts the power of Tianxing and Tianxian Koi around him. On the shield of the stars, there are Koi, trying their best to maintain the formation.

"Wu Tao reincarnation map!"

At the same time, in an instant, ye Chen fully opened the seal of the reincarnation map of martial arts. An inexplicable cutting force emerged around Ye Chen, breaking the space around him. Countless storm turbulence forces absorbed the killing power of the sword.

"The sword of water, although the power of the reincarnation map of martial arts can resist, but this terrible fluctuation..."

The reincarnation map of martial arts absorbs most of the killing power. Ye Chen's body is hit by the afterwave of the sword and cut by the storm of spatial turbulence.

"Cough!"

Ye Chen coughed up blood, and his eyes became clear again.

A hundred interwoven wounds kept pouring out bright red. Ye Chen staggered up and raised his eyebrows at the figure standing under the broad stage after the dust dispersed.

He never expected that he would taste the taste of water stop sword.

Is this the power without time and space?

"You..."

The previous killing force also almost killed the mysterious man in black. At the moment, the cold breath of his body is also scattered. The silver mask covering his face has already broken with the destruction of the war.

Beautiful face, eyes without any emotion.

Impressively, it is Ye Chen's appearance!

"No wonder it was so familiar at the beginning, reincarnation of blood, too true environment, similar fighting style..."

"Cough!"

Ye Chen coughed up blood, and so did the mysterious Ye Chen in black not far away. A mouthful of black blood sprayed on the earth.

"It was a big picture at the beginning. If you want to break through this guy, unless I die!"

Ye Chen suddenly realized that the mysterious man in front of him was trying to understand his own mind. At the moment, he was seriously injured, and so was Ye Chen in black in front of him.

"I'm the one who's holding me back..."

Both sides are seriously injured. If we continue to fight, we will die together.

Ye Chen raised her eyes and looked around. The whole mountain forest was destroyed. Everything in front of her was only the broad platform not far away!

Looking at the broad platform that has gone through all the waves and is still there, ye Chen's thoughts run rapidly in his mind.

Ye Chen's figure no longer stepped forward, and ye Chen in black under the broad stage was as motionless as a clock.

Ye Chen has no doubt that as long as he takes even one step forward, the guy will fight again without hesitation!

The two sides were so deadlocked that heaven and earth were as silent as death.

"Poop!"

I don't know how long later, ye Chen in black fell to the ground, coughed up black blood at the corner of his mouth, and his right hand covered his chest with violent ups and downs

The man in black was half kneeling, but he raised his eyes and looked at Ye Chen. He had a feeling of dying together.

The mysterious Ye Chen in black is in such a state. It can be imagined that the real Ye Chen state is no better. At the moment, it is just the end of a powerful crossbow.

Ye Chen's steps moved. Seeing this, the man in black staggered up, but he didn't attack Ye Chen, but looked at Ye Chen coldly.

Yes, at the moment, ye Chen slowly moved his steps backward, not moving forward.

"Ye Chen, this place is strange. There must be something on the broad platform. Maybe the person we're looking for is right there!"

The voice of ling'er is transmitted.

Chapter 7268

The immediate expedient is to retreat first and fight again. Ye Chen and the mysterious man have to fall here.

Ling'er's body appeared and held Ye Chen back slowly.

"On the broad platform, there must be a secret. It should be the guardian of the dead end that the old guy said, that is, the person we are looking for!"

Ling'er guessed.

"However, if the people on the broad platform are guardians, why don't they come to see us? They have left such means to guard the top of the mountain and prevent people from entering?"

Ye Chen couldn't help wondering.

"The old guy on the fifth peak was also restrained by some great supernatural powers, so he had no choice but to act with us in an attempt to deceive us and help him get out of trouble. Is the land of the ninth peak the same?"

A word awakens the dreamer!

Ye Chen then said, "the old guy of the fifth peak guided us here. I'm sure the guy sealed here is similar to him!"

"The enemy of the enemy is a friend!"

Ling'er said in a deep voice. According to the little girl's idea, the person the old guy of the fifth peak wants to get rid of with their hands should be the guardian.

Ye Chen frowned, but he felt that there was a problem again, "no, this broad platform is strange, but it is by no means..."

Before the words fell, the white haired linger in front of him waved his hand and didn't care: "isn't it another you?"

"I'm going to suppress it now!"

Ling'er smiled strangely. Although the mysterious man guarding the broad platform was another Ye Chen and had all his means, wouldn't it be OK to find someone stronger than ye Chen and completely suppress him?

"You recover your strength here first, and I'll go to suppress you now!"

The white haired ling'er's big eyes blinked and patted his chest proudly.

"You..."

Ye Chen still wanted to say something, but she heard ling'er answer: "you don't really think I can't beat you who are too real and seriously injured?"

This sentence made Ye Chen speechless.

Looking at the back of ling'er, ye Chen always felt strange, but he couldn't say it.

He had already sensed that there was no large array arrangement on the ninth peak, including the broad platform.

"I hope ling'er can suppress the seriously injured 'I'!"

Ye Chen shook her head and smiled bitterly. She felt that it covered the whole nine peaks. After confirming that there was no danger, she closed her eyes and recovered.

.....

I don't know how long later, ye Chen opened her eyes. The injuries that had been adjusted, the eight trigrams Tiandan technique and the copy of Tianxian Koi, as well as the spirit tablet in the reincarnation xuanbei, really helped a lot.

"Hello... Ye Chen!"

Not far away, the barefoot ling'er wriggled and moved small steps, his white hair was scattered, and his lovely face was full of dust.

"You mean, as soon as you get close to Kuo Tai, the guy guarding the bottom becomes you?"

Ye Chen was surprised and looked at the little girl who had failed in front of her. It was incredible.

Ling'er's small hand was also embarrassed and scratched his head, "well... I just simply fought with her, just like you, and I can't help myself!"

"With your warning, I didn't fight to death. I just tried several times. After confirming it, I withdrew!"

Ye Chen asked, "is there a change in that broad platform?"

Ling'er was asked by Ye Chen. His big eyes blinked and tried to remember.

"No."

Ling'er answered after thinking for several times.

"Ye Chen, there is only one guy guarding. You go with me. We can suppress it all together, whether it's you or me!"

Ling'er clenched his small fist angrily and said in a deep voice.

Ye Chen is a twinkle in her eyes. She seems to want to verify something, and immediately nods gently to ling'er.

"Go, you and I go together!"

Ye Chen couldn't help but pull up ling'er's small hand, and a big and a small figure galloped away towards the broad platform!

.....

After counting the interest.

"Is there a mistake!"

The white haired ling'er stroked his forehead with a young hand.

There was no other reason. I don't know when the figure under the broad stage changed from one to two into the appearance of Ye Chen and ling'er, waiting hand in hand.

"Try it!"

Ye Chen didn't seem surprised. He immediately smiled at ling'er and looked at the two static figures in the distance. Ye Chen in black and ling'er in black shrugged his shoulders and signaled a war.

"I'll come first!"

Spirited, ling'er rushed out first, and the black dressed ling'er on the opposite side also followed with smart steps. The space fluctuated, and the two figures wrestled together in the void turbulence.

Ye Chen looked at Ye Chen in black, who was as motionless as a mountain in the distance. His eyes coagulated, and the Longyuan Heavenly Sword in his hand appeared again!

"The sun is shining!"

It was another two killing moves to tear the sky. At this moment, the ninth peak was completely reduced to ruins.

"Space imprisonment!"

Ling'er immediately used the power of space to contain Ye Chen in black, and immediately turned to Ye Chen behind him and shouted, "Ye Chen, hurry!"

But ye Chen didn't move at all. As soon as ling'er looked back, he found that ye Chen was also imprisoned in place by the black clothes ling'er.

The extreme space suppression of terror made Ye Chen on both sides unable to move.

Ye Chen smiled bitterly. Ling'er lifted the confinement of space and immediately made a momentum to continue to fight forward. Ye Chen held the fierce ling'er with one hand.

"Come on, I think I probably understand!"

There was no more superfluous action. Ye Chen took ling'er and retreated towards the foot of the mountain, and the static group of two no longer pursued.

"You mean, not on that broad platform?"

The voice of ling'er's surprise came out.

"Hmm..." Ye Chen pondered for a long time, and then began to explain, "although the broad platform is strange, these two wars have also verified my guess!"

"What do you mean?" ling'er heard it in the clouds.

Ye Chen then said, "the broad platform, with my strength, can't shake at all. The first time I fought with that guy, everything was destroyed under the strongest killing move of Longyuan Tianjian. The broad platform didn't shake half a minute!"

"Just now you and I joined hands, coupled with the power of your special space, so is it!"

"So, this is a dead end!"

Ye Chen said firmly.

"You mean, we can't climb the broad platform anyway?" ling'er said in a deep voice, "but it's our only way at present..." the little girl thought it was wrong again.

"This alone can't verify the conjecture in my heart, so I went with you again, but I didn't feel the mysterious fluctuation!"

Ye Chen raised her eyes and looked directly at ling'er: "the old guy on the fifth peak..."

Ye Chen told ling'er what he saw when he broke the divine tree array.

"You mean that a wisp of evil spirit in the ten robbery God devil tower was suppressed by the bronze coffin?"

Chapter 7269

Ye Chen nodded gently, "I now doubt the tower that suppressed Zhu Yuan. The so-called killing evil is to suppress this bronze coffin!"

"The evil soul is probably not the origin, but the guardian guarding the bronze coffin!"

Ling'er understood all this and then said, "but after years of washing, there was a problem in the ten robbery God and devil tower. The original guardian was affected by the leaked breath of the bronze coffin, so he became a evil soul?"

"Yes, so later I rescued Zhu Yuan and purified the evil soul with the help of a blow sealed by the great God!"

"Since I set foot in this dead end, at every critical moment, the power of refining the God peak in my eyebrows always guided me, but then it was suppressed by the bronze coffin..."

"But on the broad platform, I didn't feel any guidance!" Ye Chen frowned.

"In that case, that is to say, we were wrong at the beginning... But this is clearly a mirror world, and we can't defeat ourselves!"

Linger murmured.

Ye Chen slowly closes her eyes and calms down. The sunlight from the sky shines on Ye Chen's cheeks through her eyelids. It's very comfortable.

"Huh?"

It was in a trance that ye Chen suddenly realized.

"Ling'er, what did you say just now?"

The spirit son suspended in the air was also confused by Ye Chen's sudden question.

"Ah? We can't defeat ourselves....." ling'er calmed down, looked at Ye Chen and explained.

"No, last sentence!"

"I said, I'm afraid we were wrong at the beginning. This is a mirror world..."

Speaking of this, ling'er seemed to think of something, and hurriedly looked at Ye Chen, whose face overflowed with joy.

"Yes, mirror the world!"

Ye Chen seemed to have caught the straw and hurriedly got up and said, "yes, that's right. From the beginning, the sky whirled around the forest... Like a ladder down and up!"

"All this makes sense!"

"It's a mirror!"

Ye Chen continued to linger, "the nine peaks we are in are a mirror world!"

"But even so, where is the exit?"

Ling'er frowned and thought, but ye Chen seemed to have found the new world and outlined a smile at the corners of his mouth in the sky.

"Hey, you're not crazy..."

Ling'er looked at Ye Chen laughing at the moment and couldn't help worrying.

But ye Chen smiled mysteriously and asked, "since it is a mirror world, even you and me can be engraved again. Think about it, what is only one thing from beginning to end?"

Ling'er is also a wise man. He can see through it at all.

"I said what are you laughing at the sky, sun!"

Ye Chen nodded gently and said with a smile: "yes, from the beginning, there was only one round of sun in the sky, that is to say, the mirror world engraved everything, but did not copy it!"

"Try?"

Ling'er is eager to try.

The Heavenly Sword in Ye Chen's hand appears, and a sword is waved!

"Water stop!"

"Space meteor kill!"

Ye Chen and ling'er's two killing moves burst into the hot sun above the void, and the huge force of space blessed Ye Chen's water stop sword did not leak half of the killing breath!

"Whoosh!"

It was just a terrible light spot, there was no imagined sky and earth breaking water flowing back, only a hot sun on the void was divided in two like thin paper.

In the meantime, there is a golden awn. The pure breath only overflows half a minute at the crack, which makes everything regenerate on the nine peaks!

"That's the gate of life!"

Ling'er was surprised.

"Ye Chen, behind that is the real mountain top!"

Ye Chen was already shaking up when ling'er sighed. He took ling'er's hand and drilled into it.

With a flash of gold, the sun is in the sky, and everything is born where it shines.

In the distance, the quiet courtyard seems to have never been set foot, just as ye Chen has never been there.

.....

"There is heaven and earth inside. This is a desperate situation of death. It's really unusual!"

Ye Chen looked around again. His eyes were white, but it was dead silent.

"Ling'er!"

They had a tacit understanding. Ye Chen only drank lightly. Ling'er understood Ye Chen's meaning and turned and drifted between heaven and earth.

A strange place must be hidden.

At this moment, the golden mark between Ye Chen's eyebrows flashed a different light, and then felt a stabbing pain behind her.

"Is that the direction?"

Ye Chen raised his eyes and looked at the endless white world. The bronze coffin tattoo behind him showed a half black breath for the first time. It escaped from ye Chen's back and immediately melted into a vast expanse of white.

"It seems time to hurry!"

Ye Chen sighed darkly. His feet were windy and ran towards the direction guided by Jin mang. Once the bronze coffin tattoo behind him broke out, I'm afraid the evil soul in the previous ten robbery God devil tower would be his own end!

There is no time limit here.

"This should be the boundary!"

Looking around, ye Chen saw a figure in the corner of the world with the same color of heaven and earth!

Suddenly, the old man standing still, dressed in a white robe, is integrated with the world. If you don't look carefully, you can't find it at all!

A dart rushed forward. Ye Chen looked at the old man in front of him carefully. His appearance was familiar, even similar to the old man of the fifth peak. At first glance, people and animals were harmless.

But at the moment, the old man in front of him had his eyes closed and his hair was white, showing a wisp of death.

"Ling'er, didn't you say this place is the gate of life? Why is there a body here?"

Ye Chen asked.

"It's said that everything in the gate of life can live forever. I don't know why the old man's body is here!"

Ling'er in Dantian was also stunned.

Ye Chen gently touched the old man's skin with his fingertips, but the warm feeling showed that he had not completely died.

But above that expression, there was a corpse air of the dead.

"Is it difficult that this person has died, but the huge vitality of the gate of life has nurtured his flesh, a trace of cause and effect, and will be reborn in the future?"

After all, Ling'er is well-informed. He probably guessed a thing or two with such means for the old man.

"Do you mean that this man hid his body here after he had experienced a death robbery before, but he was unwilling to die?"

Ye Chen asked.

"Well..."

The spirit in the Dantian pondered for a long time, and then the voice said, "maybe you are the cause and effect!"

"Me?" Ye Chen couldn't help being surprised. Just when he was helpless, a ray of golden light between his eyebrows suddenly separated from the center of his eyebrows and went to the old man.

In the twinkling of an eye, even Ye Chen himself didn't react. The mysterious golden mang was already separated.

The bronze coffin behind Ye Chen turned into a tattoo and lit up a black micro awn. From Ye Chen's back, eight Black Bronze chains turned into a dark black hand and grabbed it at the golden awn!

Chapter 7270

"Ah!"

Each point of the entangled chain stripped from the flesh and blood is a great pain for ye Chen. Ye Chen drinks hard and wants to copy the Hongmeng big star sky and the immortal Koi, but it's too late.

An invisible force controls him!

"Hoo..."

For a time, in the vast white world, the Milky breeze blew away the big black hand!

The bronze coffin behind Ye Chen seemed unwilling. The big black hands scattered again turned into eight chains and wrapped around the old man's body.

The golden mang seemed particularly happy because of the Milky breeze. In an instant, it poured into the old man's body and disappeared.

The eight black chains stretched out slowly from the ground. It was only a few seconds before the old man's flesh was wrapped into zongzi.

In the vast white world, bursts of white fog rose around the old man, as if he wanted to melt the black chain.

Bursts of black fog rose, and the chain was also madly drawing Ye Chen's flesh and blood to resist the corrosive power of the white fog.

At the moment, ye Chen's breath withered at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"Ye Chen!"

There was a flash of light in Ye Chen's reincarnation cemetery, and ling'er's body flashed. Seeing the change of the bronze coffin tattoo behind him, ling'er could no longer sit still!

"What the hell is this!"

Looking at the ferocious coffin, it seems that it also has life, constantly surging and struggling, as if something wants to break from it!

On the back of Ye Chen's flesh and blood, there are also root meridians exploding. It seems that something is going to break out.

Ling'er had no doubt that once the surging coffin cover was broken, the contents would immediately tear open Ye Chen's flesh and blood.

"Space meteor kill!"

To untie the bell, you must tie the bell. Ling'er looked at the eight black winding chains around the old man. At its root, the huge space strangling force broke Ye Chen's flesh and blood together with the winding chain in an instant!

"Boom!"

The power of space cutting is so terrible. In an instant, the eight winding chains around the old man were broken, and the blood and flesh on the back of Ye Chengen's bone flew away with it.

Ye Chen, who was lying on the ground, gave a dull hum, which slowly restored his consciousness. The tattoo of the bronze coffin behind him was no longer changed because the chain of constraints was broken, and the coffin cover was silent again.

"Damn it!"

Ye Chen struggled to get up. The eight trigrams heaven elixir kept healing the damaged flesh and blood. Although he couldn't get rid of it just now, he clearly felt what was happening in the outside world. If Ling'er hadn't hidden it, something serious would have happened!

A ray of golden light entered the body, and the dead spirit around the old man dissipated half a minute. Even on the snow-white gown, there was a half minute cloud pattern.

"Once I saw him, he seemed very young."

"What happened in this desperate situation of death that made him so old? His vitality almost passed away."

"He should be the real guardian of the dead end we are looking for!"

The pale Ye Chen got up and said firmly.

"The bronze coffin should have been desperate to devour him. If Linger hadn't done it, I'm afraid everything would be over at the moment!"

Ye Chen smiled miserably at Linger.

"When is it? You still have the heart to laugh here!"

Linger frowned and stared at the old man standing still. Although Jin Mang entered the body, the guardian who had no vitality rekindled a wisp of vitality, this slightly inaudible breath could not make the strong man reborn again!

"Something big happened in the desperate situation of death, so you set foot here at this time in advance... But with your current ability, you can't turn the tide, but what's the matter with the bronze coffin!"

One question after another lingered in Linger's mind, but she never mentioned it to Ye Chen in front of her.

Ye Chen saw Linger's dignified color and hurriedly said, "now if you want to know what happened in this place, you must revive him!"

Linger shook his head when he heard the speech, "there's no way. The guardian must be the emperor of heaven. There's no doubt that his spirit has fallen for a long time. He just relies on the gate of life to maintain his physical activity. The wisp of gold in the center of your eyebrow may be the afterthought of his spirit scattered in the world!"

"This trace alone is not enough to awaken the strong!"

Linger's attainments in space can be described as reaching the realm. Even she is so negative. It can be imagined that the guardian in front of her had something wrong as early as a thousand years or even ten thousand years ago.

The belief transmitted by the spirit was not brought by Ye Chen until now, but it was too late.

"Although it's so early, is it still late..."

Linger murmured.

Ye Chen was already standing in front of the old man and looked at the guardian's body carefully.

A trace of corpse Qi disappeared at the fingertip, and the index finger of my right hand shook slightly, but I heard Linger's voice: "it's useless, but it's just a physical reaction. I want him to wake up. I can't do it with our current cultivation..."

Ye Chen was silent, thinking about something.

After a long time, Ye Chen said, "who is stronger in life and death and reincarnation?"

Linger was surprised, but he heard Ye Chen continue to say, "maybe there's a way to try. I'm sure to wake him up!"

Ye Chen looked dignified to the extreme.

"What do you want to do?"

Ling'er looked at Ye Chen with self-confidence on his side and wondered.

"Open that power again..." Ye Chen confessed his thoughts.
