Chapter 7401

.....

Three days later, ye Chen embarked on a journey to the dark forbidden sea.

The dark forbidden sea is so vast that there is even a zone that no one can explore. I'm afraid even the demon ancestor doesn't dare to explore deeply.

This is why Wutian has been looking for containers.

Get the container, heaven and earth, there is no qualification to stop him.

Ye Chen didn't take anyone this time, but went alone.

But before he left, he crossed a void and found someone waiting for him in front of him.

When I came closer, the man was sun Yerong.

She was wearing a blue dress and gown, which swayed with the wind, and her long hair was as soft as a waterfall.

Ye Chen looked a little stunned when he saw her.

Sun Yerong lifted the green silk in front of her forehead and said with a smile, "I feel some cause and effect. How about I go with you on this trip?"

She smiled like thousands of pear blossoms, eclipsing the pure clouds.

Since coming back, sun Yerong has been practicing in the forbidden area of the nightmare Protoss.

The flesh of Qinglian fairy is very powerful, and ordinary spirits can't be integrated at all.

Fortunately, she and ye Chen helped her to successfully complete the integration process.

At this moment, this flesh body has completely belonged to her.

She is the green lotus fairy, on the contrary, the green lotus fairy is her.

The inheritance and memory of Qinglian fairy are also integrated with her spirit and gradually unsealed.

Of course, ye Chen also felt the change of sun Yerong's breath and was happy for her from the bottom of her heart.

"In this way, you can easily control this body in the future! Anything you want to do can start all over again."

Sun Yerong nodded and said yes, but her eyes always stayed on Ye Chen.

"Let me go with you! The memory of the green lotus fairy tells me that she was born out of the fairy spirit of a chaotic green lotus. She may be able to feel something about the same chaotic things!"

When ye Chen heard this, his heart moved.

When he goes here, he doesn't know what dangers will be full of in the road ahead.

If what sun Yerong said is true, it's a good way to take her with you!

Moreover, there is no entanglement of luck between sun Yerong and him, which has no great impact on the search for reincarnation Tianjian.

Maybe you can get a strong helper!

At this point, ye Chen nodded.

"OK! It'll be hard for you."

"You don't have to say that with me. You gave me a second life."

Sun Yerong and Wan'er smiled, then followed Ye Chen and stepped into the road to the dark forbidden sea.

Her appearance made Ye Chen a little uncomfortable.

You know, elder martial sister sun used to fight and kill when she disagreed.

Now it has become like a gentle water woman, a small jasper. The change of character makes Ye Chen a little uncomfortable!

They went all the way forward, and in half a day, they passed through layers of emptiness and reached the dark forbidden sea.

Sun Yerong hasn't visited the world. When she stays in the xuanhai sea, she can only see a tiny corner of the world.

So this time she looked around with curiosity.

After crossing over the endless wide ocean, sun yelong couldn't help sighing.

She has never experienced the great rivers and mountains, strange peaks and beautiful scenery in the world!

"When you come back from this success, I'll take you on a good tour. There is not much beauty in the dark forbidden sea. If you really want to go, you have to go to the inner earth!"

Ye Chen said with a smile.

"Really?"

Sun Yerong was delighted. Her eyes suddenly became bright, and her eyelashes flashed, like bright gemstones shining under the sun.

Ye Chen found that sun Yerong's temperament had not completely changed. He still retained the sunshine and innocence like a child.

"Of course it's true." Ye Chen nodded and said, "but I have to wait for some time. This time, when I go to the bottom of the dark forbidden sea, I have to look for reincarnation Heavenly Sword in addition to looking for chaotic ancient trees!"

Sun Yerong put away her smile and looked serious.

"Don't worry! I will help you."

Two people continue to move forward.

Ye Chen came to the bottom of the dark forbidden sea, where the waves were rough, and the whole sky was gray and extremely depressed.

When he arrived, a ray of thunder broke through the sky and drilled into the sea.

Ye Chen split the prohibition here with that thunder.

Boom!

With dark blue thunder on his palm, he fell from the sky and cut a long crack in the sea area tens of miles in front of him.

In an instant, a long channel appeared in that sea area, reaching the bottom of the sea.

Ye Chen came to the bottom of the sea according to the picture in her memory.

When we entered the real seabed, it was silent and dark, and even the subtle sound of sea waves disappeared.

The closer to the bottom of the sea, the stronger the premonition in Ye Chen's body.

He knew he was about to embark on that road.

At the end of the road is the sea of reincarnation, the biggest secret hidden in the depths.

Maybe no one has stepped in.

When ye Chen and sun Yerong set foot on the sea hand in hand, a faint ripple flickered in front of them.

Nothing has changed, but it seems to have changed again.

Ye Chen was suddenly awe inspiring.

He knows very well that this road is the real road to reincarnation Tianjian.

That means stepping on this road and embarking on a really dangerous road.

As soon as ye Chen entered here, he met a man.

The man was holding a steel fork. He was about twenty years old and strong. He stood on the road like a god of war.

Ye Chen knows that this should be the gatekeeper.

"Excuse me, sir..."

But before ye Chen finished his words, the man screamed, waved his steel fork directly and rushed towards Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was stunned on the spot.

Who would have thought this guy would do it as soon as he came up, completely indiscriminate.

In that case, don't blame me for being rude.

Ye Chen also clenched his fist. For a moment, the glow was flying, the aura was surging, and the wind roared, blowing the void.

The guy seemed to be aware of Ye Chen's terrible strength. He waved a steel fork and was punched by Ye Chen.

Then came the overwhelming shadow of boxing, falling like hail.

The gatekeeper couldn't bear such a blow and was immediately shaken away.

Ye Chen didn't leave his hand. He summoned a thunder, raging like a mountain torrent, pouring in, with a terrible momentum.

"Don't... don't fight, I surrender!"

The gatekeeper couldn't bear it at last. He raised his hands and immediately cried.

His strength is not very weak, but compared with Ye Chen, he is like a small Witch to see a big witch.

"Who are you and why are you here?"

Ye Chen came straight to the point and said immediately.

If this guy can't give the answer he wants, he won't be polite.

Chapter 7402

The man had to tell the truth.

It turned out that he was summoned here and came here to get the treasure.

However, he had some evil thoughts in his heart, trying to stop some weak people and seize their treasures.

Ye Chen was speechless when he heard the speech.

His apparent strength does look weak. No wonder he will be watched by others.

But ye Chen did know that he was not alone on this road.

"I don't know who used this method!"

Ye Chen feels a little funny.

After solving the first guy, ye Chen continued to move forward.

This time, he came to a vast ocean.

This is another sea at the head of the dark sea. Even ye Chen feels quite surprised.

The sea is dark, thick as ink, like a Warcraft with a big mouth open, which can devour people at any time.

"Unexpectedly, there is still a layer of sea at the bottom of this dark forbidden sea."

Sun Yerong was amazed. Even though she had visited many strange places in xuanhai, she had never seen such a sea in the sea.

"Actually, I didn't think of it."

Ye Chen smiled and then said.

Then the two of them went into the depths of space and walked through nothingness, like walking in the middle of the star river.

With the passage of time and space and stars, they seem to have come to a strange world.

When they entered the void, they entered the depths of the forbidden sea.

The blue waves are boundless. It turns out that the dark sea outside is just confusion.

The real sea is incomparably clear, with a green light.

Sun Yerong could only sigh how beautiful she was. She was used to seeing the deep mountains in xuanhai and listening to the roar of many monsters.

A sea suddenly appeared in front of me, boundless, which can also be regarded as a visual impact.

"This sea area is still vast. The scenery is much better than the dark forbidden sea."

Ye Chen nodded and gave an evaluation.

Although the rivers and lakes he has seen are also very majestic, they are still much worse than the real sea.

Ye Chen walked inside and soon saw others.

Those people appeared on the silver white beach, with different shapes, seemed to come from different races, and their strength was very strong.

Ye Chen stood in place and looked at her quietly. She knew that there were many races that lived in the depths of the void and never appeared, in addition to several large areas on the surface.

If there is a treasure, these races may send someone to come.

These people seem to see too much. Even in the face of the vast sea, they are fearless. They seem to have been here many times.

Ye Chen also heard the cry of one of the famous beast servants.

"Master, come here quickly! Occupy a good land. When the waves roll over, you can be the first to enter the new world!"

Ye Chen grasped the key word: new world.

These people on the beach should know the existence of the new world, so they will wait again and take their time.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong looked at each other, and they also mixed into the crowd.

They want to see what the so-called new world is.

The vast sea, undulating waves, overlapping waves sweeping, the sound of the waves is like thunder, the sky is vast, and the sea and sky are on the line, which is spectacular.

In front of such wonders of heaven and earth, people will feel their smallness.

"The road to the new world is hard to walk! A little carelessness will kill you, but you have to be careful."

"Ha ha, I'm afraid it's not the monsters inside, but the people around you!"

"You have a point."

"....."

Everyone talked, but then there were two Tianjiao standing in the front, who couldn't help but speak coldly.

"If you want to go to that sea area, you'd better shut up before boarding! Otherwise, you will provoke the existence of taboos and evil will come, but no one can save you!"

As soon as this was said, the beach was much quieter.

No one wants to be a sacrifice to the sea.

The two Tianjiao standing in the front should have good backstage, and there are several servants around who are responsible for serving.

Those servants are not old people, but young and beautiful girls of all types.

It was dazzling for a moment.

The strength of those servants is also very strong. There are two holding gold scrolls and a powerful compass.

They spread the scroll on the beach, and the faint golden light spread from the ground to the ocean.

"That ship should be coming soon!"

The famous servant looked up. Her face was very beautiful and her strength was very strong.

They all have to cross the sea, but it's very dangerous. Not everyone can cross it.

After hearing this, ye Chen couldn't help wondering if there were ships in this sea area?

"I can feel that the dangerous smell is getting closer and closer, and it also brings a lot of danger. You'd better be careful!"

A powerful beast servant warned.

His master was hidden in the silver light, making people unable to see his real face. He must be from a powerful ancient clan.

Just as they held their breath, a shadow appeared in the depths of the ocean, getting closer and closer, coming towards them.

The ship seemed to come out of the dark taboo. The faint outline made people shudder.

When the ship approached, they found that the ship was ridiculously large.

It is roughly estimated that it can accommodate at least hundreds of thousands of people. It needs to look up like a tall building.

The floors submerged in the fog can't catch a glimpse of their true appearance.

Chapter 7403

"Let's go! We can cross the sea now!"

Several creatures jumped on the ship first. Obviously, this is not the first time they have done so.

The people in the rear also gradually went up.

Ye Chen also stepped on the ship. He was quite curious, so he asked the people next to him.

However, when he went to ask, the young man around him looked like he liked to ignore it.

But after the questioner was replaced by sun Yerong, the young man obviously became much more enthusiastic and even took the initiative to explain it.

Ye Chen stood in the rear and was speechless.

Men in this world are really guys who value sex over friends!

That Tianjiao talked to sun Yerong. After seeing her face and figure, her eyes were full of heat.

He thought sun Yerong worshipped him, so he explained the situation of this sea area in detail, and promised that as long as sun Yerong followed him, he would get Qibao.

Sun Yerong just smiled and did not refute.

After waiting for young Tianjiao to finish, she turned and left, and the smile on her face disappeared in an instant.

The young man became stunned and did not react.

Why did you just say it well? Once you turn your face, you won't recognize anyone.

Sun Yerong returned to Ye Chen and told him about the sea area.

It turns out that this sea area is a place of adventure. They are going to a mysterious nest.

There may be an entrance to the new world!

"New world?"

Ye Chen was surprised and hurriedly understood the specific situation of the new world.

It turned out that the ship was left over from ancient times and still had instructions to go to the new world. Therefore, it came to the shore to pick up people every other period of time. It was also the left instructions that were making trouble.

This mysterious ancient ship will transport them to a place, and then they will set out to find a new world.

Ye Chen always feels that the new world is not so simple. Maybe there will be the secret of chaotic ancient trees.

So he stepped on the ship, entered it, and sailed into the depths of the mysterious sea with the ship.

The ship set out quickly and walked through the mysterious sea. In the blink of an eye, it had rushed hundreds of miles.

The mysterious sea area seemed to feel the breath of the ship. For a time, the waves were surging and rolling.

After sailing thousands of miles, the ship was suddenly shaken.

The whole hull boomed.

"What's going on?"

"What happened?"

Everyone was shocked.

Immediately someone came to the deck to check the situation outside the ship.

I don't know. I was startled at the sight.

In the mysterious sea area, there is a huge shadow exposed on the water, as if only the tip of an iceberg had been revealed.

Boom!

The next moment, the sea level set off towering waves, and the sound of clattering could not be heard.

The huge shadow also appeared. Unexpectedly, it was a protruding dorsal fin, which came across the air and hit the hull hard.

The mysterious creatures released bright lightning and photovoltaic explosion flashes, which directly took away a group of people on the deck.

This wave of people included two Tianjiao. Before they could figure out what was going on, their lives were taken away.

"You beast, I'm afraid you're impatient!"

The famous and powerful servant was furious.

As soon as he shook his hand, he threw out a small sword, which suddenly soared into a magic sword to cut the sky, swept away, covered everything, and a dense magic text also appeared on it.

Next, another beast servant shot. Their strength is very strong. They don't look like servants.

The master served by the beast servant was swallowed by the monster, which immediately annoyed him.

After the monster was attacked, he felt inexplicable pain and roared, then he drilled into the seabed and stormed a rough sea.

"Damn! Let this guy run away."

The beast servant gritted his teeth and immediately chased up and disappeared into the vast sea.

He must catch up. If he can catch up with the sea beast, he may be able to recapture the master's soul.

If he can't catch up, he can only die with him.

The mysterious ship continued to move forward.

This time, the people on board were on the alert. Although they stood on the deck, they were also preparing for the sneak attack of monsters in the sea.

In the process of driving, some monsters jumped out of the sea and rushed over.

Fortunately, the people on board reacted quickly enough to either scare them away or kill them together.

However, a deep-sea giant whale rushed down from below and shook the whole ship.

Ye Chen stays in the ship and looks like a holy mountain.

He was just curious. All the way, these deep-sea monsters seemed to be full of strong resentment against the people on board.

The giant whale showed half its body. It was between blue and black. Its body was very huge, like an endless mountain.

The eyes of the giant whales became very red and stared at the humans on the ship.

"We have no grudge against you. Why did you kill us?"

Some people couldn't help being angry and questioned loudly.

The whale replied coldly.

"My children have been killed by you. You have to pay the price!"

Boom!

Huge waves swept up and turned into surging magic gas.

That's the symbol of whale revenge!

Everyone was surprised.

This giant whale is the strongest sea beast they have ever encountered.

When the war broke out, the ocean became a red refining battlefield, and several powerful creatures were struggling with the giant whale.

"Injustice has its head, debt has its owner! Your child was killed by other humans. What's the use of fighting with us?"

But where will the giant whale listen to their explanation, directly swing its tail and roll up thousands of waves.

The battle between those people and the giant whale began and became dark.

For a time, runes were dense and shrouded the nearby sea area.

Although the giant whale was powerful, it was not invincible. It was injured by several Tianjiao together, and blood gurgled out.

Finally, the giant whale fell into the sea, disappeared and escaped with serious injuries.

At this point, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

"There seems to be something wrong this time. The creatures on the bottom of the sea haven't been so grumpy before."

Someone frowned and said.

Others nodded, too.

Some of them didn't happen the last time they came!

"Someone should have come here before and killed many sea animals, so he angered them!"

"Is it necessary for those guys to kill chickens and lay eggs? They really don't seek well-being for future generations!"

“.....”

After some discussion, the people sat on the boat and moved on.

This time, they came to the depths of the sea.

The whole sea area has become much quieter.

After discussion, those Tianjiao sent people to guard the vicinity of the ship and set up a rune array.

In this way, the sea animals felt the dangerous smell around the ship and dared not approach, saving them a lot of trouble.

Chapter 7404

But the trouble is inevitable.

When they entered the depths of the sea, they could not be avoided after all.

A scarlet light came to my face, dense and numbing.

"The sea demon beast is coming!"

Everyone was shocked.

Appearing in the sky not far away is a group of mysterious creatures. They look like human beings, but their limbs are more slender than human beings.

And the sea demon has meat wings behind him and a tail behind him.

He has a human face, but his fangs are exposed, which is extremely ferocious and terrible.

"What is that?"

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, some curious, and looked around.

There are indeed many strange creatures on this mysterious road, which he has never seen before.

There was a young man with his hands behind him. Seeing his appearance, he couldn't help crying and laughing.

"I said, brother, your heart is really big! It's a sea demon and the overlord of this sea area. Ordinary people don't dare to provoke them easily. I didn't expect to attract them today!"

Those sea monsters flapped their meat wings, rose up, opened their mouths and spit out black silk threads, turned into runes and fell down.

"Damn it! How did you provoke these sea demons?"

Some people can't help scolding.

The sea demons spit out black light feathers, and suddenly runes, many creatures on the splint below.

But the next moment they were a little desperate, because the number of sea demons was far more than that.

The depths of the ocean were boiling, and countless sea demons rose into the sky, stirring up waves one after another.

"Damn it!"

Even those powerful people could not help scolding.

The strength of these sirens is not very strong, but they often come out in groups, which is very difficult.

If you really play a big game, the sea demon group can summon tens of millions!

Such figures, even the strong man of banbu Tianjun, can't carry them.

After all, the group killing skills of the sea demon group are too terrible.

"Lord devil said, if you dare to step forward and die!"

The siren's voice echoed from the deep sea.

The people on the ship became a little anxious.

Even more, some Tianjiao have prepared means to escape. If the situation is bad, they will leave the ship.

However, at this time, the ship seemed to feel something wrong, and a dark light burst out at the bottom of the ship, carrying the whole ship forward suddenly.

Everyone on board was delighted.

"Beat back those sea demons and let the ship go!"

Someone could not help shouting anxiously.

At this time, the roar of the beast came, and the anger was mixed with endless dignity, which surprised everyone one after another.

But just then.

The ship showed a blue light.

The mysterious symbol flickers constantly, and the murderous gas is surging. It is like a burning beast. In a short moment, it bursts out incomparable light.

Ye Chen's eyes pierced through the layers of the hull, and he could see a huge horn on the top of the huge ship!

The huge horn ran in the air, and the endless roar spread everywhere.

Like the roar of the gods, they broke through the blockade here and cut off the scarlet blood light. In a short moment, they took shape!

The whole ship darted out like an arrow.

After a violent shake, they finally got out of the sea.

Along the way, ye Chen has experienced many strange things.

But this did not make him flinch, but more and more excited.

He's waiting for something he can really do!

Whether it's chaos ancient tree or reincarnation Heavenly Sword!

In the whole ship, the most calm people should be him and sun Yerong.

However, in the eyes of outsiders, these two people are typical heartless.

After all, ye Chen's strength on the bright side is not brilliant at all, but can be said to be weak.

But it's such a weak guy that there are such beauties around him. It's really envious of others.

The world has changed!

But after they sighed, they immediately became surprised again.

The ship got rid of the sea demon and entered a quiet place.

But suddenly, the sea was surging, the yellow wind was blowing, and the sound of dada's hoofs rang through, which was very surprising.

Ye Chen seemed to feel the thrilling light, looked up and saw a divine horse flying in the clouds.

It's like thousands of troops and horses rushing to fight, with golden and iron horses and constant howling.

"Look!"

Everyone on board was very surprised.

A black horse galloped on the sea at a high speed. With each step, it splashed the water on the sea and exploded, forming an extremely terrible wind roar.

On the back of the black horse, a headless knight holding a long burst knife was bending down and killing them!

"What is this? The smell is terrible!"

Others are also speechless. Today's business is too evil.

Those monsters in the sea are endless, one group on the left and one group on the right. They don't stop at all.

Then another huge breath came, rolling up the hot waves.

Ye Chen took the lead in looking back.

I saw another sea, the magic gas rolling and gushing, forming a violent hurricane.

In the hurricane, the concussion breath loomed. Ye Chen's eyes pierced the concussion cloud and suddenly became a little surprised.

A slim body, hundreds of feet long, towering, like an inviolable queen.

But also lost his head.

Soon others found the headless body!

A powerful servant shot at the headless knight, but was beaten back by the knight's gold knife without any mercy.

"Be careful! If my estimation is correct, these were powerful heavenly kings before their lives. They died in this sea area before. Their grievances will not disappear, and the corpses will become demons!"

Chapter 7405

"Where's the guardian of the sea? Where are you? Come out and save us!"

“.....”

The headless knight and the headless Queen started at the same time.

The headless knight waved his long knife and cut down. In a moment, he split the deep sea wave.

Some people are still standing on the deck watching eagerly, but the powerful people have resolutely retreated as soon as their looks change.

Boom!

The invisible air waves came from space and didn't arrive completely at all.

Beat cattle across the mountain!

The side of the ship was hit violently, the hull was not broken, and the whole ship tipped aside and was nearly destroyed.

Fortunately, however, the hull slowly recovered.

The people on board were terrified.

The headless knight's momentum is too powerful! It's impossible to resist.

"Damn it..."

Some people can't help scolding in their hearts.

But it won't help after all!

On the other side, the headless empress has also started. With a wave of her sleeve robe, she rolls the magic gas, splits the sky and solidifies the whole void temporarily.

Some people standing on the other side of the deck screamed and broke their bodies before they could escape.

The headless monsters on both sides of the Strait started at the same time, causing heavy casualties to the people on board.

And the ship was stopped here and couldn't move.

The headless knight shot again, waved a knife and cut apart, and hundreds of Tianjiao were killed.

Blood mist filled the sea, and a thick smell of blood filled the sea.

That's the blood of Tianjiao creatures! It contains thick blood essence, which falls into the sea and attracts countless magic fish to compete.

Seeing this scene, everyone could not help feeling numb.

"Get out of this ship or you'll die!"

Some Tianjiao are already afraid. They wanted to come here to look for the chaotic ancient city.

Over the years, no one has met the remains of two heavenly kings at the same time.

The strong men who died in the war in ancient times had a strong sense of killing. Even several Tianjiao in the ship felt very frightened when their strength had reached the nine heaven of the hundred yoke territory.

They don't want to leave their lives here.

A Tianjiao took the lead. He took out the divine sword in his hand and sent out unparalleled light in the way of self explosion.

The streamer turned into a hot sun and ran to the headless knight.

And he himself was tossing and turning, running away in the other direction.

Then many people followed his example and summoned the means of bottom box in an attempt to stop the headless knight and the headless queen.

The ripples spread one after another, shaking everywhere, and even the clouds produced undulating waves.

But the headless knight was not afraid of the attack of the people. He raised his long knife and pointed to the sky, condensing the bright brilliance.

Such brilliance can tear everything apart, even if a powerful divine sword comes in the face, it can't resist.

Boom, boom!

The sound of horses' hoofs spread all over the sky. Stepping on the sea was like climbing the surface of the earth. The headless knight charged with a knife to tear the sky.

The power of shaking people's hearts suddenly spread, leaving people with endless fear.

The Tianjiao escaped halfway, but found that he couldn't move at all.

The headless knight is too powerful. The long knife in his hand sweeps across. The wind and cloud in heaven and earth suddenly change, and the clouds disperse and fog surge. Together with endless waves, he goes straight up to the sky to break everything into dust.

Boom!

The Tianjiao was beaten to vomit blood, retreated and fell into the deep sea.

Several strange fish flashing magic light jumped in, opened their fangs and tore the Tianjiao to pieces.

Other escapees were also beaten back one after another. Some people endured pain and returned to the ship. Others fell into the sea and were swallowed up by magic fish in the blink of an eye.

On the other side, the headless Queen's sleeves are full of drums and waves, invincible and threatening the world.

The remnant of the killing thought turned into the strongest barrier, which made people unable to escape.

The people on board could not help but despair.

They just want to look for the trace of the chaotic ancient city, but they don't want to come and be the nourishment for these evil spirits!

"You guys, if you keep your hands, you will really die here! I hope you can work together to defeat the enemy!"

The beast servant with strong breath said solemnly.

The others were silent and glowing.

"OK! I'll spell it!"

"Me too."

"In that case, the sacred objects I keep can only be used here."

“.....”

After those Tianjiao consulted, they began to break through.

This time, they used the means of bottom box, and finally caused harm to the headless knight and the headless queen.

And they also took this opportunity to flee quickly.

However, no amount of powerful means can completely stop them.

On the way to escape, people still died.

Those two monsters, like crazy, crazy killing.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong go together. They still hide their strength. But at a critical time, ye Chen will use the power of the virtual monument to escape the death threat.

He was not interested in showing off and stopping the two headless monsters.

Since the ship is about to be destroyed, he doesn't need to stay any longer. After determining the direction, he will also go to the depths of the sea and continue to look for reincarnation Heavenly Sword and chaotic ancient trees.

Before leaving, Ren extraordinary actually told him some secrets.

The chaotic ancient tree mentioned by the chaotic wind emperor will also experience reincarnation. Each life will have different forms, just like the Lord of reincarnation. Although it bears the name of reincarnation, its core has changed.

When the reincarnation Heavenly Sword falls to the lower boundary, it also carries the seeds of a chaotic ancient tree scattered between heaven and earth.

In short, it has an extremely close relationship with the fruit.

As long as we can find the seed, we can judge the real location of the chaotic ancient tree according to its breath.

Ye Chen came to this sea area and felt that it was not easy here.

He and sun Yerong have extremely dexterous body methods. They have come to the depths of the sea and got rid of the pursuit of the two monsters.

In this process, many Tianjiao also cast strong spells to avoid the pursuit of headless knights and headless queens.

No one found that in the process of fleeing in a panic, two people looked angry and impatient on the surface, but the actual pace was stable and did not panic at all.

Everyone rushed to the depths of this sea area. Now any body protection treasure can be thrown out. Saving your life is the most important thing.

"Although this guy is dead, his will is immortal and his obsession lasts forever. I'm afraid he wants revenge. He will fight when he meets someone!"

Ye Chen said to himself.

Immediately, he summoned Longyuan Heavenly Sword, stepped on the looming blood dragon's back and pushed forward rapidly.

Like him, sun Yerong stepped on the green lotus sword and quickly left here.

The headless knight, chasing after him, slowly lost his strength, sank into the sea and disappeared.

After all, he is just a corpse and does not have strong power.

Forced combat will only make the energy in the body consume faster and faster.

Chapter 7406

But even so, the big Tianjiao who went to the entrance of the new world also suffered heavy losses, some lost treasures, some servants and friends were killed, and some died directly.

The expedition was extremely bad, and everyone's head was filled with a strong sense of foreboding.

"Young Lord, why did you fall? How can I go back and explain to my master!"

A powerful servant held the body of a beautiful girl and wailed.

"Young master, wake up! Wake up!"

“.....”

Such scenes abound.

Many Tianjiao fell here, accompanied by all kinds of creatures, and finally lost to the monsters here.

Gloomy clouds, bleak wind and fierce rain.

Many people cried sadly. Even if they did their best, they could not stop the mysterious creatures in the sea area.

"This damn new world! It makes us look for it year after year, and we don't hear from it year after year! Now we encounter such strange things. When will it be the end?"

There is a strong arrogance, can not help crying out.

More people are silent.

They don't want to give up!

This is the world of the heavens. Only by constantly taking risks and experiencing can we become strong.

But in this process, no one can guarantee life and death.

Natural selection and survival of the fittest are the eternal truth since the birth of the universe.

"We must go to the new world! Otherwise our efforts for so many years will be in vain!"

A young man said in a cruel voice.

He was also a cruel man. Although he lost an arm, he escaped from the headless knight's long knife.

At this time, there was blood and flesh condensed out of thin air on his arm, slowly wriggling, and growing into a brand-new hand.

The people in the rear picked up good luck. After the two headless monsters disappeared, they also escaped from them.

But the ship had retreated slowly and could not carry them forward.

They are now on an isolated island. Looking around, they are surrounded by vast waters and can't lock the target position at all.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong are among them, and they are also thinking about how to go to the so-called new world.

Now they are in trouble. No one has a compass pointer to point out the direction of the new world.

While everyone is cultivating and adjusting their breath.

Suddenly, the waves on the water started up, and the terrible waves churned. A huge animal horn broke through layers of waves, shining mysterious runes, and rushed to the island.

"Be careful!"

The people on the shore immediately shouted and hurried back.

But the power of the horn was so terrible that it almost uprooted the whole island, like hitting a huge ball and rising into the air.

There was a violent shock under their feet.

"Beast, you want to die!"

Several Tianjiao, as well as the servants who followed them, were angry. They immediately took action together. The treasure art and ciphertext intertwined and scattered in all directions.

The huge waves were surging, revealing the real face of the monster below. It was actually a black monster.

The giant beast was huge, and the black horn just now was just the tip of the iceberg.

For him, the attack of several people was just as painless as tickling.

Boom!

The breath of concussion swept away, like thunder and lightning.

The giant beast opened his mouth and roared up to the sky. The endless ocean current came like a tsunami and rolled up ten thousand feet high.

At this moment, those Tianjiao were in a mess.

Not only them, but all of them joined hands to protect themselves.

There are only two exceptions.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong.

Although the monster in front of them is terrible, it can not pose a threat to their lives.

Therefore, they followed the crowd, not in a hurry or slow, until they completely retreated.

Ye Chen landed slowly and stepped on the water. At this time, a tentacle bounced rapidly under the sea.

"Still want to hit me?"

Ye Chen snorted coldly and immediately prepared to take action. However, when he looked up, the reincarnation heavenly eye automatically opened and passed through layers of fog. It seemed strange to see the depth of the tentacle.

There seems to be a boat there!

At this time, the tentacle came boldly.

"Let's go and have a look!"

Sun Yerong also saw the ship and couldn't help saying to Ye Chen.

The two looked at each other, then made moves at the same time, walked around the tentacle and broke into the layers of fog.

Those who are busy fighting against giant beasts have not found their actions at all, otherwise they will shout crazy.

The light in Ye Chen's eyes flashed, stepped on the tentacle, walked rapidly, and came to the object covered by the fog.

It's a forgotten ship!

Covered with moss and layers of spider silk.

However, the spider silk is dark, and the moss is as black as ink.

"It's an ancient ghost ship."

Ye Chen was surprised that the ghost ancient ship represented death.

Generally speaking, people infected with the cause and effect of death rarely survive.

The source of this tentacle is just behind the ghost ancient ship.

Ye Chen looked over and saw a huge strange fish sitting in the dark, but its tentacles bypassed the ghost ancient ship.

The ship shook a little, but it was all right.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong stood on it and quietly looked at the monster.

The alien monster originally opened its teeth and mouth and looked ferocious, but the next moment, it seemed to feel a strong killing intention from their eyes. Suddenly, it shook all over and rushed back to its tentacles and ran away.

"This guy still knows, or I'll cut off his tentacle."

Chapter 7407

Sun Yerong smiled and said, "even if I didn't run just now, I was scared away by your words."

The two stayed on the ship, almost shielding all attacks from the outside, and they could see the outside through the fog.

The beast was still fighting with the crowd.

For a time, ten thousand waves were stirred up, the cold light flickered, the waves surged into the sky.

Even the whole sky was occupied by the waves.

Ye Chen can't find the direction anyway. They just rest on the ghost ancient ship for a while.

When the two of them were resting, several evil spirits rushed out of the ghost ancient ship, waving their claws.

Without saying anything, ye Chen directly summoned a trace of reincarnation blood and turned it into a slender whip.

Reincarnation blood, masculine in nature, has a powerful smell of the sun.

Even a little blood can beat the evil ghost to death and no longer exist.

Sure enough, the evil spirits were beaten to pieces by the whip and died as soon as they were halfway there.

Their behavior seems to have angered the whole ghost ancient ship. In just a moment, there was a violent force burst out, carrying a powerful magic gas to surround the whole hull.

When ye Chen saw this, he immediately frowned. When he was about to break through by force, he found that there was a sudden change in the picture.

"Huh?"

Ye Chen sinks her mind into her body and finds a grass jumping out.

Ye Chen immediately smoked at the corners of his mouth, some crying and laughing.

The little guy rushed out to make trouble again!

But this time, after the grass came out, the purpose was very directional!

Even ye Chen was a little surprised.

I saw the grass turn around the hull, and the body exudes Yingying luster!

Ye Chen was surprised to see this scene.

Then, the grass seemed to find something. He flew down and came to Ye Chen. The light on his body flickered continuously.

It's obvious what that means.

After getting along with Xiaocao for this period of time, ye Chen and Xiaocao are already connected.

His mind moved slightly, then raised his hand and held the grass root.

An idea came into his mind, which was actually the picture of the ghost ancient ship!

At the last moment before the ghost ship sank, it encountered huge wind and waves!

But this is not the most important thing. The important thing is that the ghost ancient ship came to a mysterious land after strong winds and waves.

The holy light of that place is shining, psychedelic and hazy. Looking up at the sky, there seems to be a huge tree.

The tree is rooted in the sky, with luxuriant branches and leaves, and full of glittering fruits. It is very colorful.

When ye Chen saw this scene, he suddenly looked shocked.

Because he feels it by intuition, this is an ancient chaotic tree!

The ship has been to the place where the chaos ancient tree is located.

No wonder the grass will jump out and point out the direction for him.

But how does Xiaocao know?

Ye Chen was surprised and curious.

After Xiaocao extracted this memory and passed it to Ye Chen, he pointed to the West.

"Do you mean to go straight to the West and you can find the trace of the ancient chaotic tree?"

Ye Chen couldn't help asking.

The grass shook several times, indicating that ye Chen was right.

"OK! Let's get ready to go!"

Ye Chen turned back and said to sun Yerong.

Sun Yerong once saw the power of grass, but the more she looked, the more she felt that grass was quite lovely. She couldn't help but stretch out her hand and pinch it twice on the protruding green leaf.

The grass suddenly looked like a great enemy. Whew, he flew away and hid next to Ye Chen.

They both laughed.

In their view, grass is not like a plant, but more like a psychic pet.

But the next moment, the grass disappeared again. When it appeared again, it had come to the cabin and was green. It turned on the incomparable suction and sucked all the souls left in the cabin.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong were greatly surprised. They watched Xiaocao's performance and couldn't speak for a moment.

The grass absorbs almost all the black light in the ghost ancient ship. No one knows where it comes from. It can contain these energy!

Almost after ten breaths, the grass finally absorbed it and returned to Ye Chen. It looked leisurely and very comfortable.

Whew, it turned into a streamer and drilled back into Ye Chen.

Boom!

Several Tianjiao who were fighting against the giant * * also rushed over and broke into the fog.

They can't help it.

If you stay outside, you will only be killed by the giant beast!

It's better to rush in and have a fight. Maybe there will be a glimmer of vitality.

One of them was a goddess, whose clothes were floating and holy.

She and the other two Tianjiao, tied for the strongest.

The giant beast followed them and also broke into the fog.

But when it reached the ghost ship, it seemed to slow down.

There was a faint touch of fear in the fog from the giant beast.

Seeing this, the others immediately looked happy, as if they saw hope in the dark.

"That guy seems to be afraid of the ship!"

"Yes, I also found that there seems to be a strong smell of death on this ship. I think we should be careful!"

"Look up there! There are two people!"

Everyone followed the sound.

At this look, I really saw ye Chenzheng standing on it bored and thinking about life in a daze.

Sun Yerong, who looked as beautiful as a fairy, looked into the cabin with her head, and her little face was full of curiosity.

In fact, she was looking to see if there were any undead ghosts in it and whether they were all sucked up by the grass.

However, her appearance fell into the eyes of several Tianjiao, which was fear and fear.

Ye Chen is more like a frightened fool.

"That ship has a strong ghost spirit. We can go near to avoid one or two!"

A silver haired girl said.

In order to avoid the beast, they couldn't care so much at this time.

"Yes! Go first!"

But at this time, a young man with long hair stopped them.

"Didn't you see that the two men were trapped in the boat and couldn't move? If they went in rashly, they would be on a dead end!"

"What should we do?" Someone nearby couldn't help asking.

The young man with long hair smiled coldly.

"Since someone wants to make wedding clothes for us, why not? They can't escape anyway, so just make contributions to us!"

The young man with long hair radiated a burst of light. He took a step forward. His black hair danced and his eyes were like lightning.

And he waved a light and ran to the ghost ship. The mysterious Rune ran out calmly, almost swallowing the ghost ship in an instant.

Chapter 7408

"Get out of the way!"

The young man with long hair took the lead in avoiding, like lightning retreating into the distance.

His move is to inspire the power of the ghost ancient ship!

After all, there is no difference in the attack of ghost ancient ships, only the most powerful.

Who is the most powerful?

Is that the sea monster behind them?

Isn't it beautiful to let the ghost ancient ship fight with the giants in the sea and enjoy their success?

"What are you doing? Don't you know it will kill them?"

The silver haired girl turned her head and yelled.

The young man with long hair had no expression: "what can this mole ant stay? Even if he died, he should feel honored!"

"You..."

The silver haired girl wanted to say something, but she was held by the servants around her.

They all know that with the strength of Ye Chen and sun Yerong, it is difficult to escape from the ghost ancient ship. They might as well make wedding clothes for them and stop the giant animals in the sea!

In addition to the silver haired girl, others have shot to gather their strength on the ghost ancient ship.

They hope to use this to provoke the ghost ancient ship and explode the monstrous devil gas, so as to make a majestic attack and pressure on the giant beasts at the bottom of the sea.

However, they did not know that the energy breath released by themselves, although swimming on the surface of the ghost ancient ship, followed a channel into Ye Chen's body.

Then all were absorbed by the grass.

Xiaocao didn't seem to think that he just wanted to absorb the ghost hands surrounded by the hull. Unexpectedly, there were good people to send energy to it.

So it was impolite and took it all.

After they hit the energy, they quickly retreated to the side and waited for the faint ghost Qi to gather and give a heavy blow to the giant beast in the sea.

With the magnificent energy, the branches and leaves of the grass spread out again, and one arm grew.

Ye Chen was also surprised at the change of the grass and was relieved.

Watching the grass grow from a weak state step by step to such a strong state now, there is an unspeakable sense of satisfaction!

But then he felt a great force coming towards them.

The sea monster cleaved the waves and rolled up the raging tide.

Because it felt the smell of grass!

Ye Chen was helping the grass to cultivate. He frowned and was going to do it, but sun Yerong said faintly, "I'll come."

With that, she went to the end of the deck and stared at the huge beast like a hanging cloud.

Several people hiding next to the scene were very happy.

"I said this method is feasible! Next, Snipes and mussels can compete and make a profit!"

Seeing this scene, the young man with long hair was suddenly proud and proud. At the same time, he also took a provocative look at the silver haired girl.

The silver haired girl pursed her mouth and didn't speak. She looked at the battlefield over there. Although she was submerged by the huge waves, she always felt something wrong.

Boom!

The water swept in, and the waves were endless.

The ghost miasma of the ghost ancient ship was sucked away by the grass. At this time, it naturally became an ordinary ship without any singularity.

Just when the ship was overturned, ye Chen snorted coldly, put one palm on it, and pressed the ship down with an overbearing force.

"Just a sea animal, so arrogant, do you really think you can rule the whole sea area?"

Sun Yerong stood at the head of the ship and looked coldly at the giant beast.

At this moment, she showed her domineering spirit when she was in Jianjia sword sect.

In the palm of her hand, the light gathered and gradually condensed into a rotating Green Lotus!

Clang!

The green lotus divine sword burst out, and a green light hung in the air at a high speed. In a short time, it drew an illusion in the void!

When the sword came into sun Yerong's hand, those virtual shadows followed one after another.

One by one, it seems endless and violent changes.

And her whole person, is light floating in the air.

"Green lotus is here!"

The green lotus sword waved forward and pointed out a circle of ripples. Either in the sea or in the air, the green lotus was in full bloom.

When the giant beast in the Sea reached the front of the ghost ancient ship, he also noticed the dangerous smell contained in the green lotus blossoms.

For monsters, smell is a life-saving instinct.

Although these monsters usually kill around and collide recklessly, in fact, they know very well that they dare to be so arrogant only on the premise that the other party is weaker than themselves.

Once they meet the real strong, they will shrink at the bottom of the sea and dare not breathe.

Now, the giant animals in the sea also have this feeling!

It does not have the so-called concept of face. After being threatened, it resolutely gives up the attack and then turns around and runs away.

A huge wave rolled in and out.

The young man with long hair was still showing off and smiling, but when he saw this scene, the smile on his face suddenly solidified.

"This... What's going on?"

The others also looked at each other and didn't know why.

Why did the giant beast in the sea suddenly retreat?

I didn't understand how much they thought. I saw a figure flying out of the ghost ancient ship and chasing it away.

A few flashes followed the giant beast in the sea.

It was the woman who looked extremely beautiful among the two.

The giant beast in the sea raised its horn, broke the water waves in front of him, and escaped as fast as possible.

When its eyes look back slightly, it sees a figure in white above itself!

Chapter 7409

The giant beast in the sea was almost a fierce son. He dived into the water, couldn't escape, and swallowed a big mouthful of sea water.

But it has no time to escape!

Because the phantoms of those green lotus swords fell together, like meteors falling, with infinite power.

Several visions of green lotus divine sword stopped him on his way, forming a green light barrier.

The giant beast in the sea bumped into it, but it couldn't break through here. It was also dazzled. There were cracks in the one corner and broke up.

Woo

The great beasts in the sea let out a painful cry.

This strong single horn is its sharp weapon and the strongest shield for defense.

If you lose this horn, you will be sentenced to death.

Between the real green lotus, it is suppressed.

Make it immovable for a moment.

Sun Yerong stepped on the hilt of the sword like a relegated immortal.

When she came, the endless void trembled.

The fragmented one horn in the sky was also fixed in the void and could not move.

The power of Qinglian divine sword is so terrible that it makes this void shrink back for a moment.

The unicorn of the giant beast in the sea was broken, but it could not care about the pain, and its body trembled.

However, sun Yerong did not execute him, but said faintly, "send us to a place so that I can consider letting you go."

As soon as her voice fell, the giant beast in the sea was stunned for a moment and nodded vigorously.

With this nod, there were no small waves again.

What sun Yerong said was an order, not a plea.

If the giant beast in the sea chooses to refuse, the next moment, it will turn into ashes and no longer exist.

After ye Chen and other grass absorbed the power, Shi ran came over.

He jumped on the back of the great beast in the sea as if nothing had happened.

"Why, I can't go without this horn?"

Ye Chen asked with a smile.

The giant beast in the sea let out a cry.

The single horn on its head is indeed its biggest asset for survival. Once it breaks down, the consequences will be extremely tragic.

"For your docile sake, I'll repair it for you."

Then a small thunder appeared in the palm of Ye Chen's hand.

The thunder combined with the fixed Unicorn fragments, one after another, pulled many fragments over and condensed them on the head of the giant beast in the sea.

The giant beast in the sea suddenly looked shocked. It saw its own horn, slowly repaired and re condensed into shape.

Ye Chen collected the one horn with chaotic thunder, threw it away and threw out a flame.

That is the flame given by chaotic Yan Emperor, which contains the power of mixed flame.

It's more than enough to repair the unicorn of a sea animal!

The giant beast in the sea felt his horn again and immediately urged the demon force to inject into the unicorn.

Just listen to the rumble, the one horn released a sharp brilliance, cutting through the void in front of him.

More powerful than before!

The giant beast in the sea was very happy. He didn't expect to be blessed with misfortune this time. Not only did the unicorn not break, but it became more powerful.

"Go west as fast as you can."

Ye Chen said faintly.

The giant beast in the sea worked hard, then used one horn to chop the waves and head west.

Ye Chen and sun Yerong rode the giant animals in the sea, far away, leaving only a few people not far away, staring at their backs in a daze.

Several people looked at each other and were speechless for a moment.

"Is this... Is this true?"

The famous Tianjiao couldn't help asking questions.

The rest were silent.

The facts are in front of you. You have to believe them if you don't believe them.

The young man with long hair turned red. He didn't know what to say. He opened his mouth and was speechless.

The silver haired girl lifted her hair and smiled. It seems that her intuition is still correct.

.....

Ye Chen's figure gradually disappeared in their eyes.

Ye Chen didn't care about the comments of those people.

All he cares about is what's on the way to the West.

There are many people along the way. They should have come in from other entrances.

Ye Chen stepped on the head of the giant beast in the sea and walked rapidly through the sea. If there is a way in front, they will give way!

Many people were surprised to see ye Chen's ability to control the giant beast in the sea.

They avoided one after another for fear of being affected by the giant beast in the sea.

The giant beast bows and bows in front of Ye Chen, but it is arrogant in front of other creatures.

Who let it be the overlord in Shi Hai? It is instinct to bully other creatures.

And in this endless sea, there are many marine creatures moving in one direction in groups.

West!

This more confirmed Ye Chen's guess.

"What is there in the west?"

Sun Yerong asked curiously. She didn't see the picture sent back by the grass.

Ye Chen raised her eyes and looked into the distance, with some deep eyes.

"The ancient chaotic tree should be there! But I'm afraid it's not that easy to find this ancient tree."

The two of Ye Chen hurried forward and went in this direction.

Some Tianjiao also found here, but they came from another direction, including some powerful people.

Ye Chen walked leisurely, but when he crossed the sea, he found that the sky had changed.

This sea area is full of crises. It seems that it has come to the depths of the nether world.

After countless creatures fell, they left their bodies floating on the sea.

Ye Chen vaguely heard the sound of fighting, and couldn't help being curious.

Where on earth does this sound come from?

He continued to manipulate the giant beast in the sea to the front. When the giant beast in the sea crossed the first red sea, it suddenly stopped.

"What happened?"

Ye Chen immediately asked.

Giant beasts can't speak, they can only communicate with ideas.

It turned out that the smell of blood in front of it was very strong. Many creatures should have fallen here.

Giant animals in the sea are very sensitive to changes in the sea. Once they find danger, they will stagnate.

Ye Chen's ears are extremely sensitive and can penetrate thousands of miles away to catch the only trace.

In his perception, the breath ahead is vast and full of strong authority.

"We have finally reached the entrance of the new world!"

Ye Chen heard someone breathe a sigh of relief and hurriedly climbed up the stone steps, one step away from the destination.

"Right there!"

Ye Chen looked at the sound.

Finally saw the so-called new world entrance.

It turned into a huge ship, standing in the sea and deep in the sea.

But ye Chen found that there was a huge nest at the entrance of the new world.

Simple and primitive, bright and restrained, he opened his eyes and looked closely. There were also the blockade of the essence of life gathered on the periphery of the nest.

This nest stationed on a cliff is by no means simple.

Chapter 7410

"It's like the nest of a flaming bird!"

Someone recognized the species of the nest.

Everyone was shocked when they heard the name of the fire god bird.

The fire god bird is not a simple species, but a sacred beast in the world. It is said that there is a trace of Kunpeng blood in the fire god bird's body, which is enough to enter the list of divine beasts in the world.

Many people have come here to stop and wait.

But the next moment, a loud cry came from the far end of the sky.

After hearing the scream, the people looked back.

Only a flame appeared, lying in front in the distance of the void. A pair of cold animal eyes shot straight here, thrilling and eye popping.

"It's a flaming bird!"

In the sea below, someone exclaimed.

Even if many people intend to escape, the Flamingo has always been violent and killing, but it will not show mercy to them.

The fire god bird swooped down at a high speed, turned into a sharp flame, fluttered forward, and condensed into a fireball almost in a short moment.

Boom!

The fire god bird has the unparalleled magic power of the flame. With a blow from Hanran, it roars the world and covers all the vast sea.

Countless warriors were blown to pieces, floating on the sea and dyed a large area of sea water red.

"How dare you covet my territory! Die!"

The flaming bird soared with its wings, rolled up the fierce wind, and the blood and water of the whole sea became turbulent.

The fire god bird has the blood of the ancient Kunpeng. Once excited, it is extremely powerful.

At this time, the flaming divine bird spreads its wings, emits divine light and shuttles between the clouds.

"Stop this strange bird quickly! If its rhyme falls, we will all die!"

The human strongmen below, one after another, summoned all kinds of treasure arts and supernatural powers.

In terms of individual strength, no one in this group can compare with the fire god bird, but the groups can stop the fire god bird temporarily.

Using Kunpeng's blood power, the flaming bird was as bright as jade and swooped down towards the people below.

The ocean raged, and the water waves rose, boiling like magma.

It can be seen that the strength of the fire god bird is incomparable!

Ye Chen stayed below and swayed with the boat. It was preliminarily estimated that the strength of the fire god bird was almost similar to that of the human emperor!

However, some people in the crowd made a move, and a vision appeared behind them. Suddenly, an Unknown God burst out with strong lightning.

"Don't move the Ming king!"

It was the elder of the immovable God sect. With a low cry, he slowly summoned an angry King Kong.

Fighting, howling, everywhere!

Ye Chen looked at them, sat in the array, looked up and carefully studied the Flamingo nest on the cliff.

The fire god bird hurried back so quickly and didn't hesitate to fight with the Terrans below. It certainly didn't want people to invade its nest.

What's in that nest? It's definitely not just the child of the Flamingo!

Lightning intertwined, light blades flying, blood splashed everywhere for a time, and the fight between the Ming king and the flaming god bird was inseparable.

The king of immovable Ming has the blessing of people from other sects, so he can compete with the Flamingo.

When fighting against it, the Flamingo has to differentiate several feathers and kill them to the nest to stop those who attack from behind.

However, the nest of flamingo has natural array protection, so you don't have to worry about being broken in a short time.

Poop!

Poop!

Ye Chen suddenly felt a palpitation of palpitation.

He suddenly raised his head and looked at the cliff. Reincarnation heaven's eyes penetrated layers of vanity.

Deep in the cliff, there seems to be a living body!

The huge breathing sound, rapid and fast, almost in a short moment, reaches the depths of people's hearts.

A violent heartbeat fluctuated with the whole sea area, as if integrated with heaven and earth.

The faint ripples spread and produced a violent resonance.

Not only the fire god bird, but also some other God beasts came from a distance, stepped through the void and shot at the people in the sea.

This time, more powerful people are convinced that there must be some secret hidden in the nest of the flaming bird, which may be the entrance to the new world!

"Come on! Don't leave your hands. Kill these monsters, and we can get close to the entrance of the new world!"

Now they have identified the nest of flamingo as the entrance to the new world.

A bloody storm is inevitable!

The level of battle extends from the realm of hundred flail to the level of heavenly monarch and ancestor, and the strong men of the ancient family come out to fight with all kinds of gods and beasts!

Ye Chen and sun Yerong couldn't help but marvel at this scene.

When ye Chen opened the reincarnation heavenly eye, a lot of virtual shadows appeared in front of him without stopping.

Reincarnation heavenly eye must be aware of something unusual, so it can remind you.

The war outside is not over yet.

In addition to the fire god bird, another purple lion roared and came into the air.

This lion is also an ancient relic, with ancient animal blood.

The big mouth opened abruptly, and the purple golden light roared out, surging continuously.

The purple lion opened its huge mouth, and the surging breath fell one after another towards its mouth. Finally, it turns into a light wave and suddenly hits out.

In addition, there was a big fish as long as a ridge, which jumped out of the water and rolled like a tide, drowning a large area of human strength.

"Purple golden lion! This guy came out!"

"And the thunder eel dragon!! doesn't it live in the deep sea and never intersect with the outside world?"

The crowd couldn't help exclaiming.

They really didn't expect a battle. There were several divine beast kings.

But it's far from over!

Deep in the sea, waves rolled up, isolated islands sank, and cracks rolled open.

The huge mountain like shadow slowly emerged, like an extremely amazing huge Island, vast and far away.

They didn't know what it was at first, but they were shocked when they saw the two dirt gray horns.

"It's Tiandu Gujiao!"

"Gu Jiao also came out!"

Many people exclaimed. They are the strong ones in this area. Naturally, they know the famous Tiandu ancient Jiao!

This dragon sleeps deep in the sea and flies into the sky while waiting for the dragon to turn into a dragon. It won't appear unless there is something particularly important.

Whether it is the major beasts or humans, they are extremely afraid of them.

The ancient dragon of tianpoison came here. Even if it only separated a virtual shadow, it could crush everyone here with its strength. Of course, they were very surprised.

Boom!

As soon as Tiandu Gu Jiao came up, he didn't have any nonsense. He directly spit out a dragon breath, set off endless waves and crashed into the people on the sea.

Fluttering and flashing, extremely dazzling!

The doubts in the hearts of the people are deeper. These divine beasts are like this. What are they guarding?

Treasures of the old days?

Or the most terrible chance between heaven and earth?
