Chapter 7761

The spirit of the heavenly Book respectfully accepted it, and dared not have the idea of resistance, saying, "yes!"

Ye Chen saw that the spirit of the heavenly book was obedient, and a burst of joy, which was a happy ending.

Unfortunately, Xia Ruoxue went to Xingyue Shenjiao, and her future was uncertain, but ye Chen had some hidden worries.

"Boy, I have to shut up for a period of time to consolidate my cultivation. During this period of time, you will have a good understanding of wuwutianshu."

After Ren Feifan's orders, he went back to seclusion alone.

He has just made a breakthrough, and his accomplishments need to be consolidated.

"Yes."

Ye Chen arched his hand and watched Ren Feifan leave.

Later, ye Chen also took wuwutianshu with him and found a quiet place to refine his feelings...

Hum!

Ye Chen's spirit penetrated into the heavenly book, and the heavenly book was slightly shocked.

In this book of heaven, there are many philosophical thoughts of ancient ancestors, about the road, about time and space, about heaven and earth, about itself, about nothing and so on.

Various philosophies, in Ye Chen's fierce collision, order and chaos, life and death, existence and nothingness, and many ancient and vast propositions, constantly impact and surge.

Fortunately, at this time, ye Chen's heart was already very stable. These shocks did not shake his mood, but made his horizon more open.

Gradually, ye Chen's spirit is also completely integrated with wuwutianshu.

This book of heaven seemed to become a part of his body. Many predecessors' Thoughts on Nothingness benefited Ye Chen a lot.

After seven days in this way, ye Chen thoroughly refined wuwutianshu, and there were many insights into wuwutianshu in his mind.

"There is no time and space, and there may be no will at all. The so-called supreme will may be strange!"

After ye Chen realized many things, he was keenly aware of something wrong.

There is no time and space, there is no concept, that should not even exist the so-called space-time will.

Previously, ye Chen heard people of the sword clan say that the supreme will created the six realms of reincarnation, and the goal is to bury reincarnation.

But now, ye Chen obviously feels strange!

It is difficult to say whether the supreme will exists or not.

Since there is no time and space, which cannot be described, and there is no concept, how can there be such a narrow, so full of hatred, such a cruel will?

Ye Chen didn't understand, but felt something strange.

"Boy, what are you thinking?"

At this time, a halo lingered all over, holy and flawless, natural and unrestrained and fierce figure came to Ye Chen, and it was Ren extraordinary.

After seven days of seclusion, Ren extraordinary's cultivation atmosphere was obviously and completely stable.

Ye Chen looked at him and felt the breath of the extreme.

That breath was so strong that even ye Chen felt dazzling and couldn't look up. He was a little dazed on the spot.

"Boy, look at your sad and thoughtful appearance, is there any difficulty?"

"Now I have stepped into the boundless realm of the Ninth Heaven. In the future, as long as I am here, no one can hurt you!"

Ren Feifan stood with a negative hand, and his words were heroic.

Ye Chen's inner blood surged back to his senses and said, "elder Ren, thank you!"

After pausing for a while, ye Chen recalled the question just now and whispered, "after I refined the book of heaven, I got a lot of understanding of law. I felt that maybe the supreme will does not exist."

Ren Feifan was stunned for a moment and said, "what did you say?"

He naturally heard the legend of supreme will.

Hell is one of the six realms set up by the supreme will to bury reincarnation.

Now ye Chen actually said that the supreme will may not exist, which surprised Ren extraordinary.

Ye Chen then said, "there is no time and space that cannot be described. The concept of supreme will is too realistic and easy to describe. I feel that it is not something in there."

Ren Feifan's eyes were slightly bright, and ye Chen also aroused his interest, saying, "then you think, since the supreme will does not exist, who founded the reincarnation six realms?"

Ye Chen frowned and pondered for a while. Then he said, "I don't know. We've never been to wuwu spacetime after all. Based on the existing clues, we can't infer anything."

Ren Feifan nodded and said, "it's true. Don't think about it anymore. Now we have to face the pressure of the Emperor Yu, the temple of wanxu and the ancient emperor Yu. He is the Lord of heaven. If we can't defeat him, everything is vain."

Ye Chen thought to himself, the chess game in the real world is not over yet. It's just increasing trouble to think about things without time and space.

Ye Chen relaxed a little, feeling Ren Feifan's powerful breath, and said with a smile, "master Ren, now you, compared with the ancient emperor, should not be much worse?"

Ren Feifan shook his head and said, "it's far from enough."

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "how could this happen? You... Haven't you broken through to the Ninth Heaven, standing on the top of the world and on an equal footing with the feather emperor?"

Ren Feifan said, "where is it so easy? Immeasurable realm is the last realm of the real world, and the gap between each layer is huge."

"A single layer of sky can be divided into primary level, medium level, high level and great fullness."

"I have just been promoted to the Ninth level, which can only be regarded as the first level at most."

"As for the ancient emperor Yu Huang, his accomplishments have been improving. Now he is at least nine stories high-level, and even the existence of great perfection. There is still a big gap between me and him!"

Ye Chen said stupidly, "primary level, medium level, high level, great fullness..."

Ye Chen knew that when he reached the realm of cultivation, the difference was one level after the infinite realm, and the differences were all very different, but he didn't expect that the difference would be so big.

Even within the scope of one layer of heaven, it is divided into primary level, medium level, high level and great fullness!

Ren Feifan said, "however, if I am promoted to the Ninth level, even if it is only the first level, the emperor will not kill me."

"In the past, he might kill me, but now, I'm also on the top of the world, and he can't kill me anymore."

"In this game of chess, if we really fail and you are killed, I will inherit your orthodoxy and let the will of reincarnation continue forever. The firewood is passed down from generation to generation and will never die. This is the greatest significance of my breakthrough!"

Speaking of the end, Ren extraordinary's tone has a strong sense of war and a hint of impassioned elegy.

The boundless realm has nine layers of heaven. This realm is so powerful that it is powerful to the real world. There is no power to erase it.

If you want to kill the strong ones in the nine layers of the infinite realm, you can either come with the great power of infinite space and time, or you can kill yourself yourself.

As long as Ren Feifan doesn't commit suicide, even if the masters of the whole world, such as Yu Huanggu Di, Mo Zu Wutian, Ren tiannv, Huang Lao and so on, join hands to kill him, he won't be killed if he stands still.

Because, his cultivation has reached the boundless realm of nine layers of heaven, which is the highest realm in the real world. He lives with heaven, earth, sun, moon and universe.

Chapter 7762

The strong man of this realm, whose will is strong, has spread to the heavens and the world. Even if he is killed, he can be reborn on the spot in any corner of the world and will never die.

In other words, even if ye Chen is killed, the immortal Ren Feifan can inherit his orthodoxy, continue the will of reincarnation, and save the fire.

This is the greatest significance of Ren Feifan's breakthrough to ensure the immortality of reincarnation!

"Master Ren, you won't be killed, but I'm still in danger of falling..."

Ye Chen's heart beat for a moment, and the corners of his mouth burst into a wry smile.

If he dies, even if reincarnation does not die, it is meaningless for him.

Ren Feifan said, "don't worry, I will protect you. It's time for you to go back to hell and continue to cut your flail."

Ye Chen perked up and said, "OK!"

The most unforgettable thing for him is to break through the flail.

At present, he has only cut 20 shackles, and there is still a rather difficult journey from the real breakthrough.

Now, ye Chen and Ren Feifan leave Beimang ancestral land and return to hell...

Before leaving, ye Chen told jisiqing, Wei Ying and others to pay attention to the news of Xia Ruoxue and Zhetian demon emperor.

Xia Ruoxue went to the Taishang world and wanted to inherit the mantle of Xingyue deity. Her future was uncertain.

And the demon emperor who covered the sky was occupied by the demon ancestor Wutian last time. The soul species accelerated, and the future was even more dangerous.

.....

Ren Feifan tears out a space tunnel and takes Ye Chen back to hell step by step.

He didn't break the void and blink, but walked slowly in the tunnel with Ye Chen, because if he was too impatient, he might touch the mystery of heaven and be inferred by others.

Although he is not afraid of any enemy, there is no need to deliberately boast. It is right to keep a low profile.

In the space tunnel, ye Chen asked as he walked forward:

"Elder Ren, since the boundless realm is nine layers of heaven, and it is so powerful that it can't be killed, won't we be able to kill the feather emperor in the future?"

Ren Feifan said, "I can't kill, but you can."

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "why?"

Ren Feifan laughed and said, "because you are the Lord of reincarnation, reincarnation represents the supreme of the heavens. No one can stop the killing of the peak of reincarnation, and the ancient emperor can't. That's why he is so afraid of you."

"Because you are the only person in this world who may kill him."

Ye Chen touched his nose and ascended to the highest reincarnation. Although he was invincible, he was still far away from that realm.

"I'd better cut my flail first." Ye chendao.

After a while, the two came out of the space tunnel to hell.

Ren Feifan saw the hell world, full of birds and flowers, and full of vitality. He couldn't help but be stunned and murmured, "your reincarnation breath has changed the world. No wonder the supreme will wants to kill you. If you really go without time and space, the law of the world will also change because of you."

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "whether the supreme will exists or not is unknown. Let's go to the forbidden area and cut our flail first, elder."

Ren Feifan nodded slightly, and then lifted his sword to protect Ye Chen. The two tore the void and rushed to the forbidden area.

Coming to the sky above the forbidden area, ye Chen's will was sent out, and the space was filled with ripples.

Along the way, neither he nor Ren Feifan was found, saving a lot of trouble. Now he can be at ease and ready to continue to cut his flail!

Hum——

Ye Chen's will spread away, and soon, in the Forbidden City, figures shot up.

Forbidden four old, goddess mu Yinxi, and shanrou all came out to meet.

"Brother Ye Chen!"

When shanrou saw Ye Chen, she was so excited that she shed tears and rushed to Ye Chen's arms.

Mu Yinxi took the first two steps, her delicate body inching, but finally stopped, and only shouted, "brother Ye."

Seeing ye Chen's return, even Ren Feifan, the protector of the Tao, was stunned and said, "Lord of reincarnation, do you want to come back and cut the flail again?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "exactly, has the Iron Throne reappeared?"

The fourth Taoist priest said, "no, since the last farewell, the Iron Throne has been silent."

Ye Chen said, "that's good."

He was also a little worried that the iron throne would block again.

However, now it seems that the Iron Throne should also abide by the agreement and will not rashly end in person.

Now ye Chen has to face the threat of the Lord of demons, Emperor Shi Tian!

In the hell world, ye Chen mainly has two enemies, one is emperor Shi Tian, the other is the supreme fantasy emperor of the fantasy family.

If Ren Feifan is here, the magic emperor will never dare to make trouble.

But emperor Shi Tian, the demon in his heart is really too weird. Maybe even with any special protection, ye Chen may not be absolutely safe.

If you simply compete for strength, ye Chen is absolutely sure that he can crush the emperor Shitian into pieces.

But the way of the devil in the heart of emperor Shi Tian was really too fierce, and even the king of the world was controlled by him.

In fact, the king of the world was not defeated by the emperor, but by his own demons!

Ye Chen will not be defeated by Emperor Shitian. He will only be killed by the demon barrier in his heart.

Emperor Shi Tian is an introduction, which can lead to people's demons.

From a certain point of view, the threat of this introduction is not much worse than that of the ancient emperor Yu Huang.

Visible enemies are easy to defend, but invisible demons are impossible to defend.

"Brother Ye Chen..."

Shanrou wants to speak and stops, holding Ye Chen's hand.

"I know."

"When my flail is over, I will find a way to save the king of the world and reunite you."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said.

Chapter 7763

Last time emperor Shi Tian wanted to sacrifice Shanrou to heaven. Fortunately, in the end, Ye Chen saved Shanrou, but the king of the world fell.

Ye Chen received the favor of the king of the world, and the emperor's holy knife was given by the king of the world. Now the king of the world is in trouble, he naturally cannot sit idly by.

"Well, thank you, brother Ye Chen. This time you can cut off the shackles of your heart."

"If the shackles of the heart break through, you will no longer be afraid of the erosion of the demons."

Shanrou pinched her fist and looked forward to the result of Ye Chen's flail cutting.

Ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief and looked at the sky in the distance, his eyes a burst of trance.

Cut the flail, it's time to continue.

This time, can I break through the shackles of my heart?

At that moment, ye Chen and Ren Feifan, the four elders of forbidden heaven, mu Yinxi, shanrou and others returned to forbidden heaven city...

The fourth forbidden day had already arranged a new flail cutting site for ye Chen. It was in the center of the square, and the core was full of large arrays, which gathered the faith and willingness of many martial artists in the forbidden day city, as well as the blood essence of the fourth forbidden day.

Ye Chen is a descendant of Wu Zu. Now he has become a totemic existence in the Forbidden City, and countless people worship him.

With the help of the belief of the forbidden four elders and many martial artists, ye Chen must get twice the result with half the effort this time.

Everyone is looking forward to the final result of Ye Chen's flail cutting!

Ye Chen calmed down and sat cross legged in the center of the square, silently entering the state of flail cutting.

Ren Feifan, the fourth elder of the forbidden sky and others protected Ye Chen in the clouds above the square.

The fourth old man of forbidden heaven respected Ren Feifan very much. He set a wine table in the clouds, and together respected Ren Feifan with a glass of wine, saying:

"At first, we thought the title of Lord of reincarnation would be ye Linyuan. We didn't expect it to be this boy. Thanks to your support, otherwise he would have perished."

When Ren Feifan heard the words "Ye Linyuan", his ears moved and his expression shook slightly. Then he shook his head and drank a glass of wine, saying, "you elders don't have to say much, just calmly guard reincarnation and cut flail."

Forbidden four old men looked at each other, thinking that ye Linyuan might involve some taboos, so they stopped talking and silently watched Ye Chen cut his flail.

Ye Chen sat cross legged, his inner spirit was getting better and better, and he completely saw the existence of all martial arts shackles around him.

Ye Chen also clearly saw the shackles of the heart.

The shackles of the heart were as simple and solid as stone, as if no force could destroy them.

Ye Chen was deeply thrilled. He knew it was practicing the rock mind method, and sure enough, there were side effects.

After practicing the rock mind method, although Ye Chen's heart became extremely resolute and firm, it also made the shackles of his heart become unprecedentedly strong and can no longer be shaken and broken.

"Boy, the shackles of your heart are extremely strong, but it is not impossible to break through. As long as you first cut off the front 99 shackles, and with the power of cutting off the 99 shackles, you can break through the shackles of your heart in one fell swoop!"

"Remember, don't try to shock the shackles of the heart before the front 99 shackles are completely cut off."

"Remember, ninety-nine, not one less!"

At this time, ye Chen heard Ren Feifan's voice again.

Ye Chen calmed down and understood.

Anyway, now cut off the 99 shackles in front of you.

Ye Chen took a deep breath, ran the six samsara method, and began to cut the flail.

He had previously cut off all the ten shackles of the flesh, and then cut off the shackles of his lower limbs, mouth, nose, ears and so on.

Hum!

With the severing of these shackles, a golden light burst out from ye Chen's body.

Any special backhand pressure, the golden light is stagnant in the air, not exposed.

Ye Chen continued to cut the shackles. At this time, the shackles on the surface of his body were broken, and then he went deep into the bones.

The shackles of bones are far stronger than the flesh, and when impacted, they are as painful as broken bones.

Ye Chen tried to impact the bone shackles, starting from his legs, and felt the bones clicking, almost bursting.

A burst of heart piercing pain surged up, making Ye Chen bite his teeth, and cold sweat came out.

"It really hurts to hit the bone shackles."

Ye Chen took another deep breath, slightly calmed the pain, and then took out the heavenly blood god pill and took it.

The heavenly blood god pill is the elixir of the heavenly tablet, which is condensed by mixing the blood of the immeasurable strong, and has infinite magical effects.

Ren Feifan relied on Tianxue Shendan to break through the nine layers of heaven in the boundless realm.

And this day's blood god pill also has a great auxiliary effect on flail cutting.

After ye Chen swallowed Tianxue Shendan, he felt a surge of Qi and blood energy pouring into his body.

He broke through the shackles of bone, and suddenly relaxed a lot, and there was less pain.

Click, click, click!

As ye Chen kept chopping his flail, a series of dense noises broke out in his body, like exploding beans.

Thousands of magnificent golden lights, emanating from ye Chen's body, turned into layers of vast reincarnation holy land, spreading out layers by layers, with red neon rolling, reincarnation sword buzzing, and countless sights.

But this atmosphere was all suppressed by Ren Feifan, and was not exposed.

Only within the Forbidden City can you see ye Chen's flail cutting weather, which is not seen by the outside world at all.

The warriors of Forbidden City were shocked to see the expansion of reincarnation in the sky.

Many martial artists knelt down and worshipped Ye Chen.

The fourth old man of forbidden heaven was quite surprised to see Ren Feifan. The weather of reincarnation and flail cutting was so fierce that they couldn't help it.

But Ren Feifan was easily suppressed.

Mu Yinxi and Shanrou looked at Ye Chen with great tension, for fear of being disturbed by outsiders. Fortunately, Ren's extraordinary suppression, and was not found by outsiders for the time being.

In a trance, an hour passed.

Ye Chen's flail cutting number has reached an amazing 81!

Cut the flail 81. This is the general talent outstanding. If you can reach the peak, cut one more, it is the posture of the emperor of heaven.

Only cutting flail beyond 81 is the posture of the emperor of heaven!

The legendary heavenly kings are all demons, and most of them have more than 81 flails.

This is a huge watershed. If we don't break through 81, we can't release enough potential at all, and we can't achieve immeasurable achievements.

Now, Ye Chen is standing in front of this watershed!

"Hoo..."

Ye Chen slightly relaxed a mouthful of turbid qi and looked inside his body. He found that most of the shackles of his body and bones had been cut off, and there were still 19 left.

These 19 shackles, three in the pelvis, five in the lumbar spine, seven in the cervical spine, one on the top of the head, two in the eyes, and one in the heart.

"There are 19 left, and each one is extremely dangerous..."

Ye Chen was a little dignified in his heart. Even if he failed, he would not die.

Chapter 7764

But the remaining 19 shackles, once the impact fails, will be paralyzed at first, and then explode to death at last.

Therefore, through the ages, those who cut off the shackles will not attack the shackles behind if they are not absolutely sure, because it is too dangerous, and failure is irretrievable.

"Fight!"

Ye Chen gritted her teeth, knowing that countless pairs of eyes were watching her, and she must not shrink back.

He first cut off the three shackles of the pelvis, which connects the spine and lower limbs, and is the intersection of heaven and earth.

Once the pelvic yoke is impacted, if there is a slight mistake, the world will collapse, the pelvis will burst, and the bones of the spine and lower limbs will also be shattered. The flail cutter will die miserably in great pain.

At this time, there was still the last trace of the power of Tianxue Shendan.

Ye Chen gathered the last bit of medicine, worked hard, and suddenly attacked the three shackles of the pelvis!

Click! Click! Click!

Such as destroying the withered and decaying, breaking the bamboo and cutting the iron, the three shackles of the pelvis were instantly broken under the fierce impact of Ye Chen.

The gap between heaven and earth was also instantly opened...

Ye Chen felt that he had built a heaven earth bridge between his spine and lower limbs, and his aura doubled and his blood surged.

At this time, ye Chen was confident that even if some strong people from the five layers of heaven in the heaven Xuan realm came, he could tear them up with his bare hands!

Of course, except for those extreme demons, after all, there are people outside people, and there are days outside.

WOW——

With the cutting off of the pelvic shackles and the intersection of heaven and earth, the weather bursting out of Ye Chen has been majestic to the point of rebellion.

Tens of millions of golden lights, rolling red and fairy clouds, gathered into the divine court of the kingdom of heaven. Hundreds of millions of believers were born in the kingdom of heaven, singing loudly, countless visions of real dragons and Phoenix, visions of ancient Buddhas and immortals, colorful flowers and rain, and extremely spectacular.

Ren Feifan's face changed slightly, and his palms trembled slightly.

Because he found that he could hardly suppress Ye Chen's weather.

Even he could not completely suppress the phenomenon of reincarnation and flail cutting. Sooner or later, it would be exposed.

Seeing this, the forbidden four old men also helped suppress it, but ye Chen's flail cutting atmosphere was too majestic for them to suppress.

"The Lord of reincarnation has cut off eighty-four shackles, and then there is the impact of life and death. At that time, his weather, I'm afraid we can't suppress it anymore."

Forbidden four old congeals the important way.

The human body has five lumbar vertebrae and seven cervical vertebrae, and each vertebrae has a yoke.

When the twelve chains are combined, it is the legendary gateway to life and death!

In this world, there are only a few people who can completely get through the porch of life and death.

According to the four elders of forbidden heaven, only Ren Feifan and Ren tiannv can get through the porch of life and death in the world, and even the ancient emperor Yu Huang can't do it.

There were only ninety-three ways for the ancient emperor to cut off his flail. Even he failed to break through the last three ways of life and death. He only reached the summit today by relying on the great merits of destroying the old days.

The fourth old man of forbidden sky wanted to know whether ye Chen could break through the twelve gates of life and death.

Ye Chen sat cross legged. After the pelvic yoke was cut off, the yoke on the lumbar spine was placed in front of him.

The five chains of the lumbar spine can be called the gateway to life and death. Once the impact fails, the vertebrae will break, and the consequences will be unimaginable, ranging from paralysis to collapse.

"Break it!"

Ye Chen gave a deep drink in his heart, operated the six samsara method, and sacrificed the yellow spring map, the wish star, seven heavenly swords, the dust tablet, the wind tablet, the inflammation tablet, and so on. Many magic weapons gathered to attack the life and death porch of the lumbar spine.

Click! Click! Click!

In a hurry, ye Chen broke three of the five chains of the lumbar spine.

WOW——

By this time, the golden light on Ye Chen's body was too strong to be looked at directly.

His whole body was magnificent, like the eternal sun, shining on the eight barrens and four fields.

No matter Ren Feifan or the forbidden four old men, they can no longer suppress Ye Chen's breath.

The brilliance of reincarnation can't be held down by anyone at all!

The golden light of reincarnation rises into the sky.

The vast land of reincarnation, the holy land of heaven, thousands of divine courts, red neon Ruixia, colorful flower rain, like the light of the scorching sun, shines out to the four fields of heaven and earth.

The fourth old man of forbidden heaven trembled and said, "Oh, the weather of reincarnation and flail cutting is so strong that I'm afraid it will provoke strong enemies."

Ren Feifan was calm, pulled out his long sword and said, "in that case, it's time to prepare for war. I see that I'm here today. Who can disturb reincarnation and chop flail?"

Listening to this heroic words, the four old men in the forbidden sky looked at each other, determined, and immediately scattered in four corners to protect Ye Chen from flail.

Seeing this, mu Yinxi and shanrou also pulled out their long swords one after another and were ready.

The guards of forbidden city rushed to the edge of the square to closely guard Ye Chen and cut his flail.

Ye Chen knows that countless people are protecting the Dharma for themselves.

Therefore, he did not care about the ups and downs of the outside world, but focused on breaking through the shackles.

However, the breakthrough of the porch of life and death is more painful and difficult than ye Chen imagined.

After breaking through the three life and death gateways of the lumbar spine, he faced the remaining two, but felt extremely thorny. Trying to impact, he found that the shackles were as strong as a dam. He hit hard, and his lumbar spine trembled with severe pain, which seemed to be broken and paralyzed at any time.

"It's really not easy to cut off the porch of life and death."

Ye Chen secretly gritted his teeth. He had reincarnation blood, and his physique was already strong. It was much more difficult to cut the flail than ordinary people. Naturally, the porch of life and death was much stronger than ordinary people, and it was extremely difficult to impact.

After calming down, ye Chen was not impatient.

He knows that haste makes waste. If he is too impatient, he may be eroded by demons.

Chapter 7765

Then, ye Chen changed his strategy, no longer seeking to instantly cut off the shackles, but running his aura and grinding it slowly.

At this time, the startling weather of his flail cutting had been shining far away.

The whole hell world, the sky is filled with vast reincarnation golden light, red neon rolling.

Even in the outside world, outside the territory, the dark forbidden sea, the Taishang world and other places, they are illuminated by the golden light of reincarnation, and countless loud and magnificent chants resound all over the sky.

Beimangzu land.

Wei Ying, Ji Siqing and other women, looking at the magnificent metempsychosis in the sky, knew that ye Chen was cutting off his flail, and had reached an extremely tense juncture.

"Ye Chen, you must get through the passage of life and death!"

Ji Siqing looked at the weather in the sky and prayed secretly in his heart.

She didn't expect Ye Chen to break through the shackles of her heart, because she knew that the twelve life and death gateways in front of her were extremely difficult, and the breakthrough was also extremely dangerous...

She only asked Ye Chen to get through the life and death porch!

She also broke through the flail cutting. The number of flail cutting is 90, and there are 12 life and death gateways. Only six sections have been opened, but she is unable to cut the next six sections.

And ye Chen's constitution is far stronger than her, and it is also difficult to cut flail a hundred times.

She only hopes that ye Chen can successfully break through the porch of life and death, because if the breakthrough fails, it will at least end in paralysis!

.....

Darkness forbids the sea, in the old alliance altar.

The demon ancestor stood with his hands down. Seeing the golden light of reincarnation rolling in the sky, even the gray sea was covered with a layer of sparkling waves. His face was slightly gloomy.

"Lao Zu, the Lord of reincarnation is cutting off the flail. Looking at the atmosphere of cutting off the flail, he is afraid that it is really possible to break through the shackles of the heart."

The Lord of eternal life stood beside the demon ancestor Wutian and looked at the vast metempsychosis, which was also frightening.

The demon ancestor Wu Tian pondered for a moment and said, "I didn't expect the Lord of reincarnation to go to the forbidden area instead of the martial arts field. If he really breaks through the shackles of the heart, he is afraid that there will be no place for us in the ten thousand realms of the heavens."

The immortal Lord said, "don't worry, I'll stop him!"

The demon ancestor pinched his fingers and said, "that boy has any special guard and is not easy to deal with."

The immortal Lord resolutely said, "Ren Feifan has broken through to the early stage of the Ninth Heaven, and his divine power is invincible. I'm really not his enemy, but even if I die, I won't let reincarnation succeed!"

Mo Zu Wutian's eyes darkened, and then sighed, "go, be careful."

The Lord of eternal life said, "yes!" Now it turns into a ray of golden light, tearing the void and going to hell.

In the corner, the demon emperor covered the sky saw this scene, slightly dignified, and his figure also tore through the void and disappeared.

.....

The supreme world, the center of the realm of the feather emperor.

Seeing the golden light of reincarnation, the feather emperor was shocked and angry.

"Damn boy, do you really want to break through the shackles of your heart?"

His body trembled for a while. Now Ren tiannv and Ren Feifan both broke through the Ninth Heaven, which made him under great pressure.

You know, no one in the world can kill the immeasurable strong in the nine layers of heaven unless they commit suicide.

In other words, he has no possibility to kill tiannv and Ren extraordinary in the future, unless he preaches Wuwu.

Now ye Chen will break through again. Once the shackles of reincarnation are cut off, he is afraid that there will be no peace.

"Emperor Shi Tian, stop reincarnation and cut flail!"

"That boy has Ren extraordinary's guard. You are not Ren extraordinary's enemy. Use the heart demon to disturb reincarnation, and don't let him chop the flail for hundreds of ways."

The will of the ancient feather emperor came out and issued orders.

As long as ye Chen doesn't chop the flail for hundreds of ways, he can accept it even if he reaches 99.

.....

Hell, in the king's palace.

Emperor Shi Tian sat cross legged in the eye of the formation guarding the king's palace.

In front of him, there is a virtual shadow of a stone tablet suspended, which is the virtual shadow of the Tianbei!

In the light of the celestial monument, the figure of emperor Shi Tian was like an ancient god, dark and inexplicable.

Hum!

The will of the feather emperor resonates and vibrates in this space.

Emperor Shitian opened his eyes and frowned slightly.

"If ye Chen's shackles of heart are cut off, I'm afraid my demon will never hurt him again."

Emperor Shitian frowned deeply and looked at a servant standing nearby with his hands hanging.

That servant was the former king of the world, and now he has become a puppet of his demons.

Even the king of the world was so powerful that emperor Shi Tian could accept it, which made him quite complacent.

His mind demon cultivation is now infinitely close to the peak.

However, ye Chen is also about to break through the shackles. Once the shackles of the heart are cut off, his demons will lose their meaning.

How can people who have no shackles in their hearts be eroded by demons?

"Reincarnation, reincarnation, if you want to break through the shackles of the heart, unless you can pass me first!"

Emperor Shi Tian's eyes were suddenly sharp, and a shiny sword of the heart demon was sacrificed, suspended over the ancient guard array.

Hum!

The guard ancient array vibrated, and the breath of the heart demon sword also quietly spread out.

In the hell world, there is also the ancestral land of the illusionist family, who also feels the weather of Ye Chen's flail cutting, but the illusionist emperor of the illusionist family has no action.

Because he calculated that Ren Feifan also came.

If you want to stop reincarnation and flail cutting under Ren extraordinary's eyes, I'm afraid it's harder than going to heaven!

.....

The picture turns around, in the Forbidden City, on the square.

Ye Chen finally succeeded in cutting off the last two shackles of the lumbar spine with the help of Huangquan map, wish Tianxing, reincarnation xuanbei and so on!

Now, all the five life and death gateways of his lumbar spine have been opened, leaving seven of his cervical spine.

The seven cervical vertebrae of the human body are closely connected, which is much closer than the lumbar vertebrae. It is also extremely difficult to cut the flail. A little carelessness will break the cervical vertebrae, leading to systemic paralysis.

"Fight!"

Ye Chen gritted his teeth. Now he was almost exhausted, but he didn't give up.

Ye Chen runs the wish sky star, frantically squeezing the aura on the sky star.

I hope the aura of the heavenly star will roll towards Ye Chen.

His breath quickly recovered, but I hope the sky star is fading.

With the aura of wish Tianxing, ye Chen began to attack the seven sections of the life and death porch of the cervical spine.

At this time, ye Chen's flail cutting atmosphere has been brilliant and strong to the extreme.

Even Ren Feifan and Jin Tiansi Lao could no longer look directly at Ye Chen's body.

Ye Chen was wrapped in golden light, like the brightest scorching sun, which was shocking.

"This boy, maybe he can really break the shackles of his heart today."

Ren Feifan murmured, and his heart was filled with joy and expectation.

If ye Chen really cuts off the shackles of the heart, then the reincarnation of this life must rise against the sky.

"Ren Feifan, if you want to cut off your flail, I'm afraid it's not so easy!"

At this time, a loud voice sounded in the sky.

I saw a golden shining, magnificent and huge door, falling from the sky and hitting Ye Chen hard.

That is the gate of eternal life!

Chapter 7766

The Eternal Lord is suspended in the air, with a cold murderous look in his eyes and a determination idea.

He is ready to fight for his life, but also to prevent Ye Chen from beheading.

Seeing the huge door, Ren Feifan fell down, disdained to hum, and said, "the demon ancestor comes all day. What's the use of your spirit? You're not my enemy."

While talking, Ren Feifan picked up a sword at random, and the fierce sword gas burst out, and the gate of eternal life was forcibly hit and flew back by him.

His sword breath and the magic weapon breath of the gate of eternal life impacted, and an explosion broke the void, arousing countless thunders.

Ye Chen below felt the weather of the battle, but remained unmoved and focused on cutting flail.

Because he knows that Ren Feifan will protect himself.

Seeing that he was bombarded with magic weapons with all his strength, the immortal Lord was unexpectedly blocked back by Ren extraordinary sword. He was immediately shocked and said, "you... Your strength is incredibly strong to this point!"

Ren Feifan took a step forward and said sternly, "give you a chance and retreat immediately, otherwise there is only a dead end! I have stepped into the peak of martial arts in the world, and it's as easy as a palm to kill you. It's your master, and it's not my enemy..."

Now Ren Feifan is strong enough to fight against the sky, and even Mozu Wutian is not his enemy.

Because, the cultivation of demon Zu Wutian was only eight layers of immeasurable territory. He had broken through it. Unfortunately, his old body could not bear the pressure of nine layers of heaven, so he had to cut off his cultivation and fell.

Even Mozu Wutian is no longer Ren extraordinary's enemy, let alone the Eternal Lord.

The Eternal Lord was deeply shocked, but he didn't flinch at all. He looked down at Ye Chen who was beheaded below and said decisively, "I am dead today, and I can't let you succeed in beheading!"

After all, the Lord of eternal life concluded his fingerprints, and his whole body was full of Qi and blood. He even wanted to explode on the spot!

His cultivation is also immeasurable. It's probably the first level, which is not as perfect as the great perfection of magic ancestor Wutian. But even at the first level, his self explosion is enough to level the whole forbidden area.

"Not good!"

The fourth old man of forbidden heaven looked terrified. He didn't expect that the Eternal Lord was so fierce. He would rather fight to explode and flatten the forbidden area, but also stop Ye Chen from cutting his flail.

They wanted to stop it, but at this time, the immortal Lord, his blood surged, exploding layers of violent waves, and they couldn't get close at all.

"If you want to explode under my nose, you are not qualified!"

Ren extraordinary's eyes were cold, the long sword suddenly shook, the sky was dark, and nine rounds of blood moon appeared.

Under the light of the blood moon, pieces of red sword wind and waves, mercilessly chopped away at the Eternal Lord to prevent him from exploding.

Hiss hiss!

All of a sudden, the immortal Lord's body was slashed by any extraordinary sword, scarred and bloody.

The Eternal Lord was like a blood man, but he didn't flinch and fear at all. He looked up and laughed, "hahaha, Ren Feifan, I can't defeat you, but you can't stop me from exploding!"

In the laughter of the Lord of eternal life, the gate of eternal life was also suspended above his head, forcibly blocking Ren extraordinary's killing.

Click click!

The gate of eternal life began to crumble, and endless spiritual light flowed out of it and converged into a fierce storm.

In the eyes of the Lord of eternal life, with a determined and cruel idea, he wanted to explode with the door of eternal life, fighting to stop Ye Chen from cutting his flail.

Ren Feifan's eyes contracted for a while, and he immediately caught the endless danger. If he fought head-on, he could naturally kill the Eternal Lord, but the other party had a firm belief that he had to explode, and even he could not stop it.

Once the Eternal Lord explodes, I'm afraid that the forbidden area will be completely destroyed, with countless deaths and injuries. Ye Chen's flail cutting will inevitably be a failure, and there is even the risk of being involved in falling.

"Go!"

Ren Feifan shouted violently, flashed around Ye Chen, and wanted to leave with Ye Chen to avoid the explosion of the Eternal Lord.

Jing Tiansi, shanrou, mu Yinxi and others also felt the great danger and were ready to stay away.

At this time, the sky cracked and crows appeared.

Surrounded by crows all over the sky, a dark figure came down, and it was the demon emperor who covered the sky.

Seeing that the immortal Lord wanted to explode, the demon emperor shouted, "immortal master, don't be reckless!"

His words, like Hongzhong Dalu, rolled out.

The immortal Lord originally wanted to ignore it and explode directly, burning jade and stones with Ye Chen, but he felt that the voice of the demon emperor had the idea of the devil's father's heaven, so he couldn't help but be surprised and slightly restrained his breath, saying:

"Son of the devil emperor, did the ancestor send you?"

The demon emperor did not answer, but flew to the immortal Lord and said, "immortal master, you can go back first."

The immortal Lord felt a chill in his heart and saw the difference. His face trembled slightly and said, "it's not the ancestor who sent you, but you want to stop me?"

The demon emperor was silent and speechless.

The immortal Lord laughed and said, "demon emperor, it should be you who should go back! I will die with reincarnation today. You have no worries in the future, but you can work for the old ancestor with peace of mind!"

Say drum Dang whole body blood, then want to explode again.

The demon emperor covered the sky was terrified and flew back subconsciously to avoid being affected.

Seeing that the Eternal Lord was about to explode, the forbidden area was about to be destroyed, but at this time, ye Chen opened his eyes.

"The power of reincarnation, suppress it!"

Ye Chen woke up, shouted violently, and suddenly hit a palm. With a shocking momentum, Daqian Chonglou's palm blasted fiercely towards the Eternal Lord.

This palm has the dignity of reincarnation blood!

Chapter 7767

At the moment, ye Chen, the seven martial arts shackles of the cervical spine, has broken through one section!

Cut the flail 90 times!

The price is that his wish sky star, aura dried up, completely shrunk and grayed out.

Ye Chen stopped beheading at this time, not because of the trouble of the Eternal Lord, but because his aura could not hold up.

Seven cervical shackles, one of which is Ye Chen's current limit. For this reason, he even exhausted the aura of the wish Tianxing.

It can only be said that his physique is too strong, and it is much more difficult to break through the shackles than ordinary people.

If you want to cut off the flail again, unless you sacrifice all the treasures, such as huangquan map, reincarnation Tianjian, Longyuan Tianjian, reincarnation xuanbei, and so on, and squeeze them out, there is simply not enough aura to support it.

However, at this time, 90 shackles were cut open, and ye Chen's reincarnation blood energy had been greatly released, and the pressure of blood was far more than before.

The Lord of eternal life looked at Ye Chen's slap, and he felt suffocated. The blood that was about to explode was forcibly suppressed by Ye Chen.

This is the suppression of blood!

Ye Chen's blood, power far outweighed him...

Under the pressure of reincarnation, he could not even explode.

Bang!

Ye Chen slapped fiercely on the chest of the Eternal Lord, and the latter's body shook slightly without injury.

After all, the Lord of eternal life is a strong man in the beginning of the eighth heaven of immeasurable territory. With Ye Chen's current strength, it is absolutely impossible to hurt him.

However, Ye Chen's palm contained the dignity of reincarnation, which made the immortal Lord, Qi and blood, Tao heart and spirit, seriously impacted and crushed, and suffocated under the suppression of blood.

"Master Ren, kill him quickly!"

Ye Chen shouted at Ren Feifan with his side head. He had cut off 90 shackles. It was extremely difficult to break through each remaining shackle.

He needs a lot of spiritual support!

If you can kill the Lord of eternal life and seize the gate of eternal life, Ye Chen can get an anti heaven magic weapon out of thin air. If you sacrifice the gate of eternal life, he must be able to cut off the remaining shackles.

Ren extraordinary understood, immediately pulled out the long sword, the blood moon sword awn burst, the Xi emperor thundered, breaking the air and beheading the Eternal Lord.

"You..."

The immortal Lord's eyes were angry, but under the suppression of Ye Chen's reincarnation blood, he had no chance to fight against Ren extraordinary's killing.

Seeing Ren Feifan, he was about to kill the immortal Lord with a sword, but at this time, the demon emperor suddenly shot out from a distance, stretched out his big hand, and grabbed Ren Feifan's blade tightly.

Ren Feifan's face changed slightly, and he only felt the magic emperor's palm, which was surprisingly powerful. His sword seemed to be trapped in an iron hoop, and he couldn't pull it out.

"You..."

Ren Feifan looked up and looked at the demon emperor, but he saw that the demon emperor was emitting wisps of black gas, which gathered into lotus flowers, floating all over the sky, and looked good for a moment.

"Hehe, Ren Feifan, it seems that you can't protect the Lord of reincarnation today."

The demon emperor sneered, and his voice was extremely cold and deep.

It's not his voice, it's the voice of demon Zu Wutian.

"Demon ancestor Wutian!?"

Ye Chen looked at the figure of the demon emperor, but he could not feel the breath of the demon emperor. He only caught the endless old Demon power, which was the great weather of the demon ancestor.

"Lao Zu, you... Your soul seed succeeded!?"

The immortal Lord was also extremely shocked, looking at the demon emperor.

On the forehead of the demon emperor, there appeared a black lotus shaped demon road mark, which was a symbol of the soul's penetration into the bone.

The soul planted in his body by the demon ancestor Wutian has obviously been deeply embedded. Even at this moment, the demon emperor has changed into

Chapter 7768

The demon emperor waved his hand and said, "my soul is deeply rooted, and my fit with the demon ancestor Wutian is getting higher and higher. I can't hold on for long, and I will soon become Wutian completely."

The demon emperor also had memories of the scenes just now. He knew that he was about to lose his grip, although he still had a little idea that could affect the decision of demon Zu Wutian.

For example, ordering the Eternal Lord to leave is actually the influence of the devil's mind.

But he knew that this idea would not last long.

In a short time, a year at most, or even three to five months, his mind will completely dissipate, and this body will belong to the devil ancestor.

Ye Chen and Ren Feifan look pale at each other and feel that the situation is serious.

The demon emperor smiled miserably, took out a long sword, handed it to Ren Feifan, and said, "master Ren Feifan, kill me quickly. I lost the game with Mo Zu Wutian, and I can't implicate you."

He knew that he could hardly hold on, so he just wanted to die quickly so as not to harm others...

He also knew that ye Chen couldn't do it, so he called Ren Feifan to do it.

Ren Feifan was stunned, took the long sword, then nodded and said, "yes! Then you can go on the road with peace of mind."

His voice was very rational and calm, and he waved the sword to cut off the devil's head with a sword.

Ye Chen was shocked and hurriedly stopped Ren Feifan, saying, "master Ren, what do you want to do?"

Ren Feifan said, "I'm willing to admit defeat. He chose to play with the devil ancestor Wutian at the beginning, so he should have expected such a day."

Ye Chen was horrified and said, "master Ren, the demon emperor has helped me many times. You can't kill him, otherwise I will leave a magic barrier in my heart, and there will be no chance of success!"

Ren Feifan's face sank, glanced at Ye Chen coldly, and said, "since you have participated in the gambling, you must have the consciousness of losing everything. If you can't afford to gamble, don't enter the game at the beginning. Now that you lose the gambling, you want not to admit it. Where is it so easy?"

Hearing these words, ye Chen was shocked.

Yes, he and the devil lost the bet.

The price of the loser is naturally desolate. The demon emperor has decided to sacrifice himself to minimize the loss.

But ye Chen didn't realize it.

"Don't gamble if you can't afford to lose. Hasn't anyone taught you?"

"Or do you think you can always win?"

Ren Feifan stared at Ye Chen in a very cold tone.

The demon emperor knelt on the ground and closed his eyes. He was calm and ready to accept death. This is the price of the loser.

Ye Chen bowed his head silently, and his heart was in chaos.

Indeed, he has always won, never lost, and firmly believes that he has great luck and will win forever.

But today, he

Chapter 7769

Ren Feifan was furious and wanted to pursue and kill emperor Shitian, but ye Chen was in a bad state, which made him extremely shocked.

At this time, ye Chen, under the shadow of the demon, her eyes have completely become confused, and she wants to sleep.

He seems to be tired of the struggle in the world, and wants to sleep all the time, never wake up, escape everything, and get rid of everything.

"Wake up, boy!"

Ren Feifan's face shook, and a Sword Pierced Ye Chen's shoulder. He wanted to wake Ye Chen up with pain.

However, ye Chen's eyes were still confused, and all external disturbances seemed unable to affect him anymore.

"Brother Ye Chen!"

Shanrou called in horror, and came up with mu Yinxi, trying to wake Ye Chen, but it was useless.

The forbidden four old men and the demon emperor are also helpless. The onset of demons, whether crazy or depressed, must be resolved by themselves, and outsiders are difficult to influence.

Now everyone in the audience can't wake Ye Chen up. They can only watch him sink...

At this time, wisps of spiritual light emerged from behind Ye Chen and gathered into a figure wearing the black water emperor's robe, but it was the old lord Wu Jue God.

"Lord of reincarnation, do you still remember my daughter Wu Yao?"

The old Lord made a loud voice and shook.

Confused Ye Chen heard the word "Wu Yao", and his originally dark heart seemed to be illuminated into the light.

Wu Yao is the legendary Lord of mercy.

The breath of compassion, compassion and influence is the nemesis of the heart demon!

Ye Chen heard Wu Yao's name, and his heart seemed to be illuminated by a compassionate light, and all the darkness was soon dispelled.

Ye Chen's heart recovered its brightness, and the black gas gradually dissipated. Finally, his confused and empty eyes regained their luster, and he completely got rid of the state of being troubled by demons.

"Master Ren, old lord, demon Emperor..."

Ye Chen stared at the person in front of him, and his heart was creepy. He knew that he had almost fallen.

Ren Feifan and others were relieved to see him wake up.

"The emperor's innocence is damned. He actually used his demons to entrap me!"

Ye Chen bit his teeth, and his heart suddenly burst into a torrent of anger.

"Everyone has demons, and people are the existence of the integration of good and evil. Emperor Shi Tian doesn't rely on his own strength, but uses human nature to harm others. It's really shameless. Fortunately, the Lord of reincarnation, you have a tough heart, otherwise you will really fall into his hands today."

The old lord also snorted, disdaining the emperor's means of releasing heaven, and felt lucky for ye Chen.

Ye Chen hurriedly said, "old lord, thank you for your help. If it weren't for your reminder, I'm afraid I won't have a chance to wake up."

Fortunately, there was an old lord just now, who mentioned Wu Yao and gave Ye Chen a merciful light to wake him up, otherwise the consequences would be unimaginable.

The old lord said, "my daughter was born to eliminate the demons and bring merciful light to the world. Lord of reincarnation, you should revive her as soon as possible. As long as she wakes up and has her help, you don't have to be afraid of the demons anymore."

He never forgets his daughter Wu Yao.

However, ye Chen still needs one of the eight heavenly swords in the hand of tiannv.

Recalling the beautiful pictures with tiannv, ye Chen blushed slightly, coughed and said to the old master, "don't worry, elder, I will collect the last Tianjian as soon as possible."

The old lord nodded slightly, looked at the demon emperor again, frowned slightly and said:

"You and my junior brother are going to lose the bet after all?"

Ye Chen's heart was cold, silent, bowed his head silently.

Although he is willing to admit defeat, how can he kill the demon Emperor himself?

The demon emperor was also silent. He wanted to end his life with his own hands. Unfortunately, under the deep planting of the soul, the demon ancestor had no influence of Providence, and he could not even end himself.

"Well, let me do it."

Ren Feifan sighed, pulled out his long sword, and wanted to kill the demon emperor with a sword to avoid future troubles.

Ye Chen took a step forward and tried to stop it, but his action finally froze.

Yes, I'm willing to admit defeat.

The price of losers should have been realized long ago.

Seeing Ren Feifan, he was about to kill the demon emperor with a sword, but the old lord shot like lightning and stopped it.

"Wu Jue God, what do you want to do? Do you want to leave this body for your younger martial brother? You are a ghost, and you are not qualified to intervene!"

Ren extraordinary's eyes were cold, staring at the old lord.

The old lord's eyes sank slightly and said, "I'm really not qualified to intervene, but I want to give you another choice."

Ren Feifan "Oh", ye Chen and the demon emperor were also surprised.

Can it be said that the old lord has a solution to the dilemma?

The old lord pondered slightly and looked around.

The four elders of Forbidden City left with mu Yinxi, shanrou, and the strong of Forbidden City.

Mu Yinxi and shanrou are a little reluctant to part.

In such a large square, there are only Ye Chen, Ren Feifan, the devil emperor and the old lord.

The wind is whistling, which is quite desolate.

The ghost of the old lord swayed slightly in the wind. He glanced at Ye Chen and others. Finally, after hesitating for a while, he said:

"In fact, I have a secret that I haven't told you."

Ye Chenqi said, "what's the secret? Please tell me, elder."

The old Lord stood with his hands down, looked at the sky, as if in memory, and slowly said, "my younger martial brother actually has another part, or he has another side, another him."

Ye Chen, Ren Feifan and the demon emperor were all surprised. Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "elder, what does this mean?"

The old master said, "man is the existence of the integration of good and evil, but in the past, I deprived my younger martial brother of his kindness."

"Because I have a premonition that the battle between wanxu temple and tianwuxianmen will eventually lead to the defeat of tianwuxianmen and the unstoppable rise of wanxu."

"I made a container for my younger martial brother in advance so that he could recover and use it in the future."

"That container is made of his good thoughts and his essence, blood, bones and flesh!"

When ye Chen heard this, he was shocked and said, "what, it turns out that the demon ancestor Wutian had a container long ago? Why didn't he use it, but he chose the demon emperor?"

The old master said, "when the container was just made, it was just a baby. I gave it to the king of the world of sentient beings to raise, and told him that if one day, my younger martial brother needed a container, he would let him hand over the baby."

"However, my younger martial brother never went to the sentient world to ask for containers."

"It seems that he is worried that the baby has grown up and practiced Buddhism in the world of sentient beings, and his good thoughts are deeply rooted. If he insists on giving up and the conflict between good and evil, he is afraid that he will lose his heart and soul."

Ye Chen said, "the world of sentient beings, the king of the world?"

Chapter 7770

The old lord nodded slightly and said, "well, the king of all living beings is called the Buddha of truth. He has great powers and is my friend."

"The sentient world, like the hell world, is one of the six realms of reincarnation. It is the so-called supreme will, which was created to bury reincarnation."

Ye Chen exclaimed, "so the Buddha of truth also wants to kill me?"

The old lord shook his head and said, "no, the Buddha of truth only pursues truth. He believes that the so-called supreme will is just a thief who steals the law energy without time and space."

"There is no time and space. There is no so-called will at all. The supreme will is likely to be just a thief."

Ye Chen thought of Huang Lao's name, which was called "stealing heaven and ancestors", and said, "those who steal the hook will be killed, and those who steal the country will be Hou. Those who can steal everything can be called rebels, and they can't be called thieves."

The old lord said, "you are right, but in short, the supreme will wants to kill you, but the Buddha of truth has no such intention. You can rest assured."

"Even, on the contrary, he stood on the side of the reincarnation camp, and also wanted to let no time and space, establish the order of reincarnation, and get rid of the illusory and chaotic fate."

Hearing this, ye Chen was very determined...

It seems that there is no so-called supreme will in wuwuwuspacetime.

No time and space, will not resist anyone!

The old Lord looked at the demon emperor and then said, "Lord of reincarnation, if you don't want him to die, you can go to the sentient world and find the baby."

"He has the kindness of my younger martial brother, which can easily dissolve the soul seed in his body."

Ye Chen and the demon emperor immediately brightened their eyes when they heard that there was a way.

Ye Chen said, "seriously?"

The old master said, "naturally, I don't need to lie to you."

After a pause, he added, "it's just that the baby has grown up. If he knows that he is a part of my younger martial brother, he will return to my younger martial brother regardless of everything."

"At that time, my younger martial brother has a new container, which is likely to rise against the sky and kill you all!"

Hearing the speech, ye Chen's scalp is a little numb.

Indeed, the baby is a perfect container, which is equivalent to the good side of Wutian. It is even more perfect than the demon emperor who covers the sky.

Once the magic ancestor Wutian successfully integrates, it must be a strong rise, and no one can stop him anymore.

However, thinking that the baby was the embodiment of good thoughts, ye Chen was a little lucky, and said, "if the demon ancestor Wutian was integrated, good and evil intersected, and the impact of collision, he might not be able to bear it."

The old lord nodded and said, "my younger martial brother is worried about this, so he didn't take action, but I think he's worried too much. Since the baby is the embodiment of kindness, how can he hurt him in turn? As long as the baby returns to him, he must be able to integrate perfectly!"

Hearing this, ye Chen also felt dangerous and thorny, looking at Ren Feifan:

"Elder Ren, what do you think?"

Ren Feifan hugged his arms and calmly said, "you make a decision by yourself. Don't ask me. Just remember that a big husband works without shame. Don't regret it in the future."

Ye Chen nodded, his heart suddenly firmed down, and said to the old master, "elder, I want to go to the world of sentient beings to find the original baby and save the demon emperor. Please guide me!"

The soul of the demon emperor is deeply rooted, and he can't even completely control his consciousness.

Ye Chen knew that the matter had reached a very dangerous point, and the problem of the demon emperor's soul seed must be solved as soon as possible.

If we find the original baby, things will be solved easily.

Although the end result of doing so is likely to make the demon ancestor Wutian get a more perfect container, ye Chen has no fear and no regret.

He only knew that if he watched the demon emperor being killed now, he would definitely regret it

The old lord shook his head and said, "it's difficult for you to ask me to guide."

"I don't know how many thousands of years ago I sent the baby away. After such a long time, the vicissitudes of life have changed. I'm not sure where the coordinates of the sentient world are."

"And after you go to the world of sentient beings, it's difficult for you to see the Buddha of truth."

"I originally kept a keepsake, which can make it easy for you to see the Buddha of truth, but unfortunately, the battle between me and wanxu was too fierce, and the keepsake was also destroyed in the war."

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "elder, aren't you... Aren't you kidding? After talking so much, you can't even determine the coordinates of the sentient world. How can I find someone?"

The old lord said, "this is your problem. I've given you the clues. Next, it's up to you. I believe in your ability."

With that, the old lord no longer cared about ye Chen. He went back to the sky sword and fell asleep again.

Ye Chen twitched slightly at the corner of his mouth and looked at Ren Feifan and said, "master Ren, do you know the coordinates of the sentient world?"

Ren Feifan frowned deeply and said, "in the six realms of reincarnation, the coordinates change all the time. I knew it before, but I didn't pay special attention to it. Now it's also vague."

The six realms of reincarnation are all out of the real world, which is extremely mysterious.

The sentient world, like the hell world, coordinates often change. If you don't pay attention deliberately, you will lose your goal in a flash of an eye, which is elusive.

Ren Feifan is well-informed and travels widely. He once set foot in the world of sentient beings, but he didn't know the secret of the separation of Wu Tian's good thoughts, so he didn't pay special attention. Now he has completely lost his coordinates.

After a pause, Ren Feifan added, "give me three days, and I'll help you investigate the coordinates of the sentient world."
