Chapter 7781

Can it be said that the incarnation of Wu Tian's good thoughts is nearby?

In the dust temple, there are only a few old monks and a young man named GUI Chen.

Is the incarnation of heaven's goodness actually among these people?

Ye Chen looked at Guichen in surprise.

The devil's eyes were also locked in Guichen, but at this time, the soul mark in his eyebrows faded down and no longer flickered.

"What's the matter with you?"

GUI Chen saw that the two people had different expressions and asked curiously.

Ye Chen stared at Guichen, his fingers missing, shrank in his sleeve robe, and pinched repeatedly. In a moment, he figured out the past and future of Guichen, and all kinds of heavenly causes and effects were vividly visible.

"Not him."

Ye Chen lowered his voice and said to the demon emperor.

He divined and figured out the past of Guichen. The other party was just an ordinary peasant boy, who was later adopted by Chenmiao. In the past, the cause and effect were very clear, and had nothing to do with magic ancestor Wutian...

Besides, the incarnation of Bodhisattva's boundless goodness was adopted by the Buddha of truth. According to theory, people should be in the great truth temple, not in a small temple in the mountains.

"Maybe I'm too nervous."

The demon emperor rubbed his eyebrows and carefully observed it. He didn't find any special breath on GUI Chen. Maybe he was too nervous. He was eager to find the incarnation of demon Zu Wutian's kindness, but he was in a mess.

"Don't worry. When we see the Buddha of truth, all problems can be solved."

Ye Chen whispered.

"Well."

The demon emperor nodded gently.

"Two eldest brothers, are you going to run for Buddha's son?"

GUI Chen looked at Ye Chen and asked kindly.

His eyes were very clear, and ye Chen was even sure that he had never killed anyone, and his voice was very sincere.

Ye Chen said, "exactly, I was ordered by the heavenly daughter to participate in the Buddha election. I came to the world of sentient beings for the first time, and I'm not familiar with my place. Please take care of oneortwo in your temple."

GUI Chen said with a smile, "it doesn't matter. There may be more than one Buddha selected in the final election. Maybe we can all be elected. If I am elected, the abbot will be very happy." Then he looked at the abbot.

The abbot smiled and said to Ye Chen and the demon emperor, "this child is born to be good, and the Buddha's heart is upright, but his cultivation is weak. Ten days later, the Buddha's election, please give him a lot of support."

GUI Chen hasn't cut off the shackles of martial arts, and his surface cultivation is worse than ye Chen.

At least, ye Chen has cut 92 flail.

In terms of comprehensive combat effectiveness, GUI Chen is far less than ye Chen.

For his own strength, GUI Chen didn't pay much attention to it and said with a smile, "I often dream of the Buddha. I must have predestined relationship with the Buddha. This time the Buddha campaigned, I want to have a seat."

Hearing his naive words, ye Chen, the demon emperor and the abbot all laughed.

The Buddhist election was held ten days later at the holy land of truth, which is the Mountain Gate of the great truth temple.

The great truth temple is the most sacred place in the world of sentient beings. The legendary Buddha of truth lives in it.

Without the Dharma of Buddha, no one can get close to the holy land.

The great truth temple will send people to pick up the Buddha's election this time. It doesn't need to rush there by itself, nor is it allowed to go there by itself.

Ye Chen and the demon emperor waited in the dust temple for three days. Sure enough, there was a Zen master from the great truth temple, driving the seven treasure lotus platform, and taking them to the holy land to participate in the election.

Ye Chen showed the ancient order of truth, which shocked many Zen masters.

Ye Chen still pretended to be a disciple of the heavenly daughter and took the order of the heavenly daughter to run for election.

Those Zen masters don't ask much, because ye Chen has the ancient order of truth, and can participate in the election unconditionally without any reason.

In this way, ye Chen and GUI Chen, as candidates, the monks in the dust temple, and the demon emperor, as guests of the ceremony, went to the holy land of truth under the guidance of those Zen masters.

To Ye Chen's surprise, Su lie, Su Daoguang, the owner of the Su family, and many strong Su family members were invited to attend the ceremony as VIP guests.

Su Daoguang stared at Ye Chen with unwilling and resentment.

Last time he was defeated by Ye Chen, it was a moment of carelessness, and he didn't use all his strength, so he was very unwilling.

Ye Chen can naturally feel Su Daoguang's resentment. To tell the truth, the other party is Ye Linyuan's apprentice, and he is also interested in a decisive battle. He is also interested in seeing ye Linyuan's moves, but now that the Buddhist election is imminent, it is naturally inconvenient to create complications.

Soon, ye Chen and his party stepped on the seven treasure lotus platform and came to the holy land of truth.

The holy land of truth is full of golden lights, bright and vast, filled with a magnificent Buddhist atmosphere.

A huge statue of Buddha stands in the center of the holy land square. It is towering and spectacular and makes people worship.

In the void, there are bursts of ancient singing and prayer echoing, cleaning people's minds.

"Is this the holy land of truth?"

Ye Chen's heart is also quiet, his eyes slightly narrowed, looking into the distance.

In the depths of the holy land of truth, a golden mountain stands.

That golden mountain, I don't know how many feet high, has reached the sky above the clouds.

Surrounded by floating clouds in the sky, a huge temple was built on the top of the mountain.

All heavenly Brahmans sing, bursts of wonderful songs, all kinds of ancient Buddhist sounds, and thousands of bright and brilliant Buddha Qi, all gush out of the temple, which is a wonder.

That is the most sacred, vast and powerful great truth temple in the world of sentient beings, and the symbol of truth in the legend!

That golden mountain is called ji'le mountain. It is said that people who step into ji'le mountain can enjoy the bliss of the world and never worry. If they can climb the top of ji'le mountain and enter the great truth temple, they can see the supreme truth in the world, prove the magic method and prove Lianhua.

"Abbot, if I can become a Buddha, can I enter the great truth temple to practice?"

GUI Chen looked at the magnificent atmosphere of the great truth temple and said excitedly.

The abbot of Chenmiao smiled and said, "it's not easy to become a Buddha. You need to pass the triple test of Buddhism and Taoism, one by one. If you want to step into the great truth temple, you can pass the test first."

GUI Chen said happily, "under the protection of the Buddha, I will pass smoothly!"

Ye Chen and the demon emperor looked at each other, and ye Chen lowered his voice and asked, "elder demon emperor, the incarnation of the good thoughts of demon Zu Wutian is likely to be in the holy land of truth. Can you feel it?"

The demon emperor rubbed his eyebrows, but the mark did not show up. He shook his head and said, "not yet."

Ye Chen's face sank slightly and said in a low voice, "it seems that I still have to wait for the Buddha's election to start. As long as I can pass the test and see the Buddha, I can know who the avatar is."

At present, ye Chen and his party lived in the holy land of truth, waiting for the election day.

Seven days passed in a hurry, and election day finally came.

These seven days, ye Chen and the demon emperor were also quietly looking for the trace of the incarnation of kindness, but they didn't get anything.

The mark on the middle of the devil's eyebrows flickered occasionally, but it soon went out without clear guidance.

Chapter 7782

The demon emperor was very anxious. His soul species fit more and more. If it weren't for the suppression of the Buddha Qi in the holy land of truth, he might explode in seven days.

Ye Chen also knows that the situation is dangerous. Fortunately, the election day has come. As long as he becomes a Buddha through the election today, he can step into the great truth temple, meet the Buddha and solve all problems.

The arrival of election day has made the whole holy land of truth boiling.

There were lanterns and decorations everywhere, incense curling, and the atmosphere was quite warm.

Many guests gathered at the foot of blissful mountain to watch the ceremony.

More than a hundred candidates, neatly lined up in several lines, stood respectfully under the steps of Jile mountain.

Ye Chen was in the line. In front of him was a long step that extended to the great truth temple on the top of the mountain.

Many Arhats, Zen masters and Bodhisattvas are floating in the sky of Mount Jile, singing prayers, and the air is full of solemn Sanskrit...

"All candidates, please prepare."

A Zen master in charge of assessment, Lang Sheng said.

Ye Chen, GUI Chen and other candidates cleaned up their mood and prepared for the election.

But at this time, two golden lights suddenly appeared on the mountain, covering the two guests.

The two guests were the demon emperor and Su Daoguang.

Feeling the golden light, the demon emperor and Su Daoguang were stunned.

The examination of Zen master was also stunned, and then he said happily, "you are additionally selected by the Buddha, and you can also participate in the election."

Hearing the words of the Zen master, the people around him were amazed and envied their luck.

Ye Chen saw that the selected people happened to be the demon emperor and Su Daoguang, and his heart suddenly jumped: "these two people have a lot of cause and effect with me, but they were selected by such a coincidence. Does the Buddha of truth already know that I'm coming?"

Seeing the opportunity to participate in the election, the demon emperor immediately came to Ye Chen and whispered, "the Buddha may know that we are coming, my soul seed, finally has a chance to solve!"

Ye Chen was also excited and nodded.

Su Daoguang was selected and joined the team. He smiled at Ye Chen and said, "young master ye, it seems that we can really compete."

Ye Chen said faintly, "wait at any time."

When examining the Zen master, seeing that everyone was ready, he cleared his throat and said, "this Buddhist examination is divided into three parts,

Chapter 7784

Ye Linyuan's startling sword killed all the demons in his heart, which made many people take advantage of it and passed the pass smoothly.

Seeing this scene, I didn't have any opinions about the examination of Zen master.

Because,

Click! Click! Click! Click!

The remaining four shackles of his lumbar spine were broken in an instant.

Twelve life and death gateways, all open!

Ye Chen's flail cutting number reached 96 in an instant!

Cut the flail 96 times, which is already the qualification of the goddess of heaven!

Ye Chen was shocked. He didn't expect the Buddha to help him get through all the life and death hallways.

Now he only has skull shackles, eye shackles and heart shackles that have not been broken through.

"Buddha, you..."

Ye Chen was deeply shocked. The Buddha of this truth was so strong that he broke through the barrier of life and death for himself without any side effects.

With the complete opening of the entrance to life and death, ye Chen felt his combat effectiveness soaring madly.

In the past, he may still feel thorny in the face of Su Daoguang.

But now, ye Chen is absolutely sure that he can kill each other!

Ye Chen's strength was a qualitative leap and fiercely soared when the life and death porch was opened.

"Hey, your shackles are so strong..."

"I thought I could at least break through the shackles of your skull, let you be wise and transcendent, explore vanity, and see the truth. I didn't expect it was just to break through the porch of life and death."

Buddha's calm voice produced fluctuations at this moment.

Because he found that ye Chen's skull shackles were still strong.

Just now, he just opened the door to life and death.

"Reincarnation blood is worthy of being the supreme of the heavens, and the shackles are so strong."

The Buddha sent out a voice of exclamation and shock.

Ye Chen hurriedly arched his hands and said, "Buddha, you opened the life and death porch for me. I am very grateful. Thank you, thank you!"

Buddha said, "then, can you see the truth now?"

Ye Chen was silent, then shook his head and said, "no, I don't know the ultimate truth. Maybe it's the law of the jungle, maybe it's reincarnation order, or maybe it's the avenue of mercy. I'm not sure."

Buddha sighed, "is this your answer?"

There was endless regret in his voice.

Ye Chen wanted to say something more, but the voice of the Buddha had been silent, and there was no longer any sound.

Finally, in the fog in front of Ye Chen, a Golden Avenue appeared, leading to the top of the mountain.

Ye Chen walked along the Golden Avenue to the top of the mountain step by step.

The legendary great truth temple was built on the top of the mountain.

Ye Chen came to the square in front of the temple. Looking at the great truth Temple close at hand, he felt the solemnity and immensity of Buddhism.

After a while, ye Chen saw the demon emperor, Guichen, Su Daoguang and others, who also came out of the fog to the top of the mountain.

Finally, a total of 28 people were able to pass the customs smoothly and get out of the fog.

Others were trapped in the fog and couldn't find the way up the mountain.

Then the fog cleared, and those people stood on the steps at a loss.

Examine the Zen master's high voice:“

Chapter 7786

"Hehe, it's impossible to go against the emperor of heaven. It's so outrageous to go against the six layers of heaven in the mysterious realm. I think he will lose!"

"I also think he will lose!"

After a period of consideration, many candidates chose to bet on Su Daoguang.

Seeing this, the remaining candidates also followed the crowd and bet Su Daoguang to win, but they were not optimistic about ye Chen.

"Brother ye, you are the Lord of reincarnation. I think you can win."

GUI Chen smiled brightly, but chose to bet on Ye Chen.

The demon emperor naturally didn't hesitate and bet on Ye Chen.

In the end, all the candidates in the audience, only GUI Chen and devil emperor, bet that ye Chen would win, and others thought that ye Chen would lose.

The concierge guests at the foot of the mountain were also in a commotion. They directly opened the dish and took out all kinds of panacea, Tiancai and Dibao. They participated in the gambling fight. Almost 90% of the people bet on Su Daoguang to win, and few bet on Ye Chen to win.

Su Daoguang couldn't help laughing, and the whole audience gathered their eyes. He was even angry for a few minutes...

"Lord of reincarnation, let me see how much weight you have!"

Su Daoguang shouted violently and took the lead in cutting out with his sword.

He learned from the previous lessons and did not underestimate the enemy at all. He used his full strength as soon as he shot, and the sword was fierce.

"Kendo is close to the abyss, and the abyss is like me, broken!"

The fierce sword Qi came to Ye Chen overwhelming.

Instantly, ye Chen felt that the space in front of him began to distort, as if there was a bottomless abyss that wanted to devour everything.

This is obviously Ye Linyuan's original sword technique. Ye Chen captured Ye Linyuan's cause and effect from the abyss sword Qi.

Su Daoguang has won the true legend of Ye Linyuan. This sword is extremely powerful.

Fortunately, ye Chen has opened all the life and death gateways and is completely fearless.

"Dou Zi Jue, reincarnation sword chop!"

Ye Chen gave a scold, and the duel formula broke out. The white fighting spirit exploded on the blade, mixed with the breath of reincarnation Tianjian, turned into a sharp sword spirit, and hit Su Daoguang directly.

Zheng!

Ye Chen's sword and Su Daoguang's sword collided fiercely, wiping out a series of sparks.

Su Daoguang's face changed suddenly. He felt a fierce force and rolled over.

"Your boy, your combat power has improved again! Break it!"

In danger, Su Daoguang stepped back and unloaded Ye Chen's strength. Then he dodged, broke the void, circled behind Ye Chen, and stabbed Ye Chen's weak Qi machine with a sword.

The direction of this sword is very accurate. It happens to be the weakest part of Ye Chen's reincarnation air machine.

Ye Chen's face sank, thinking, "this guy really got the true story of Ye Linyuan!"

Ye Linyuan, like Ye Chen, was born in the reincarnation family. He even almost became the Lord of reincarnation, so he is very familiar with the changes of the Qi mechanism of reincarnation.

Ye Chen felt Su Daoguang's sword stab, his feet turned sharply, and his backhand slapped. The thousand towers were like a sea of waves, like a mountain avalanche, and blasted into Su Daoguang's chest.

Su Daoguang felt Ye Chen's palm was fierce, and with his perfect cultivation of Tianda on the sixth floor of Tianxuan realm, he also felt suffocated.

"Yuanzi Shenwen, Chi!"

With a wave of his hand, Su Daoguang offered a divine text, which was actually one of the thirty-three heavenly divine texts, a word "abyss".

As soon as the word "abyss" came out, the space seemed to become an abyss.

Ye Chen blasted the past with one palm, as if he were trapped in an abyss, and unexpectedly did not hurt Su Daoguang at all.

"Can you stop it?"

"Eight Fu Tu Qi, suppress it for me!"

Ye Chen suddenly drank violently, his palm turned again, the golden light Buddha gas burst, and a futu pagoda appeared.

The great truth temple is right in front of him. The Buddha spirit here is so rich that it is boundless, and the Buddhist magic can also burst out with the most powerful power.

Under the blessing of the earth vein of the holy land of truth, ye Chen's eight Fu Tu Qi was ferocious and overwhelming, and the golden light rolled. The incomparable Buddhist righteousness exploded, completely suppressing Su Daoguang's yuan character Shenwen.

Hum!

The huge pagoda, thousands of stories high, was carrying the momentum of rolling wind and thunder, and blasted to the top of Su Daoguang's head.

Ye Chen, who has completely opened the life and death porch, also hit fiercely to the extreme.

The whole audience was deeply shocked when they looked at Ye Chen's offensive.

"A flail cutting realm can unexpectedly explode such powerful divine power!"

"It's incredible!"

Countless shocked voices sounded, and ye Chen at this moment was as powerful as fighting against Buddha.

"Brother Ye is mighty!"

GUI Chen shouted with great excitement to cheer Ye Chen.

The demon emperor looked calm. He absolutely believed in Ye Chen's strength. Ye Chen, who had all the life and death gateways opened, was by no means able to compete with Su Daoguang.

Many candidates who bet on Su Daoguang were stunned. They didn't expect Ye Chen to be so fierce. A few face-to-face meetings erupted into an unnatural power, like the God of war who suppressed the invincible in the world.

Su Daoguang was also deeply afraid, and obviously felt that ye Chen's combat effectiveness had made another qualitative leap compared with his previous work in the Su family.

If he had the possibility to resist Ye Chen before, now that ye Chen's life and death porch is opened, he doesn't even have a chance.

"Master, help me kill reincarnation!"

At the entrance of life and death, Su Daoguang roared upward, and his aura exploded.

WOW——

On his body, thousands of light flashes, and a great figure appears.

That's Ye Linyuan's figure!

Ye Linyuan's huge figure, shrouded in Su Daoguang.

Ye Chen's futu pagoda was severely smashed in the past, but it was directly bounced back by Ye Linyuan's fingers.

Seeing ye Linyuan's virtual shadow, the whole audience was in turmoil.

Chapter 7787

Su Daoguang fought a decisive battle with Ye Chen, but called the teacher to come. Is it a bad rule?

However, there was no movement at the great truth temple, and it seemed that the Buddha had acquiesced.

Su Daoguang's heart pounded, looked up at Ye Linyuan's body and shouted, "master..."

Ye Linyuan didn't look at him, but silently looked at Ye Chen. In his eyes, he was angry, disdainful, sharp and so on.

"Lord of reincarnation, we meet again."

Ye Linyuan said faintly.

"Ye Linyuan..."

Ye Chen's scalp suddenly felt numb and her muscles tightened.

"Lao Zu's blood is exhausted, and he can't hold it any longer."

"Today, I will take your blood and save my grandfather!"

"Iron blood sky, suppress it!"

Ye Linyuan's eyes burst, his palm waved, and the sky turned into a blood red color.

The weather of the holy land of truth suddenly changed...

All the Golden Buddha Qi and bright glow were dimmed and replaced by the extremely surging and exploding iron and blood flames.

Ye Linyuan's palm was like a beacon fire with thousands of troops, fiercely rolling towards Ye Chen.

This is the legendary forbidden art, one of the eight prohibitions of the flood and famine, the iron blood sky!

As soon as the iron and blood sky came out, there were iron and blood flames all over the sky. If there were thousands of troops rushing and fighting, the momentum was very terrible.

Ye Linyuan knew that there was only a virtual shadow coming down, and it was impossible to hurt Ye Chen without using the forbidden art.

Ye Chen looked at Ye Linyuan's huge iron and blood palm, and suddenly felt bursts of suffocation, as if there were thousands of troops rushing around in his body, trying to crush everything about him.

"Be careful!"

The demon emperor shouted, and he wanted to come forward to help.

Ye Chen waved his hand with firm eyes.

If ye Linyuan comes, he may be extremely afraid.

But if ye Linyuan is just an empty shadow, ye Chen is fearless!

"Emperor's holy knife, kill me!"

Ye Chen suddenly drank violently, offered the emperor's holy knife, and pulled it hard.

Hiss!

A small shiny blade was pulled out by Ye Chen.

It was only a small part, but the sharp edge of that small part of the blade was startling.

The golden blade, like withering and decaying, with the terrible power of destroying the universe, mercilessly cut out.

Words in the real world can't describe the sharpness and sharpness of this knife at all.

Everyone in the audience, seeing the cutting out of this knife, had an illusion, as if their heads had been cut off, and there was no possibility of resistance and recovery.

Poof!

The blade flashed, and ye Linyuan's majestic figure was chopped up in an instant.

The iron and blood sky of the flames of war and the momentum of the collision of thousands of troops were also like falling flowers and flowing water under the killing of Ye Chen.

"Impossible! You... You actually pulled out the emperor's holy knife?"

Ye Linyuan only felt unimaginable, staring at Ye Chen, inconceivably looking at the knife in Ye Chen's hand.

He wanted to say something more, but his figure had been cut to pieces, and he soon dissipated.

Qiang!

The small blade in Ye Chen's hand also quickly retracted.

He only felt the arm bones, because he pulled out the knife with excessive force, bursts of pain, and his aura was also consumed violently.

Fortunately, ye Chen now has all the life and death gateways opened, and his combat power is far greater than before. Even if he uses the emperor's holy knife, he can barely bear the price, and will not be directly evacuated into weakness as before.

Of course, this emperor's holy knife is all ye Chen's cards, which can't be used easily. Otherwise, it will consume violently and may damage the foundation of martial arts.

"I don't know when reincarnation Tianjian has the edge of emperor Shengdao."

Ye Chen took back the holy knife and looked at the reincarnation Heavenly Sword again, thinking in his heart.

Today's reincarnation sky sword, of course, does not have the edge of the enemy emperor Shengdao, but it is only because the soul of the sword is missing.

If the reincarnation sky sword, the soul of the sword is gathered, the sharp edge will not be inferior to the emperor's holy knife at the moment.

Moreover, because the reincarnation Heavenly Sword is made of the Heavenly Emperor bone of Ye Chen's previous life, which is closely related to reincarnation.

As ye Chen becomes stronger, reincarnation Tianjian can also become stronger.

The edge of the emperor's holy knife, no matter how powerful, has its limit.

But reincarnation Tianjian has infinite edge!

The stronger Ye Chen is, the stronger the sword Qi is!

Plop.

Su Daoguang over there saw Ye Chen cut the virtual shadow of Ye Linyuan, and was so frightened that he knelt to the ground that he couldn't believe his eyes.

"It's impossible, you... You defeated my master?"

Su Daoguang stared at Ye Chen dumbly. His master Ye Linyuan, in his heart, was like a totem of heaven.

But now, this totem was chopped to pieces by Ye Chen.

In fact, if ye Linyuan comes, ye Chen may not be an enemy.

However, if it was just an empty shadow, ye Chen was completely sure to kill.

But for Su Daoguang, all this makes no difference.

Anyway, he is completely defeated at the moment.

"You lost."

Ye Chen calmly looked at Su Daoguang and said faintly.

The whole hall was silent.

All the Buddhist candidates, all the guests watching the ceremony, stared at Ye Chen.

The sharp edge of Ye Chen's knife, the sharpness of that knife, completely convinced everyone.

No one doubts that the emperor's holy knife is terrible. If ye Chen can completely pull the knife out of its sheath, he is afraid that the entire sentient world will be cut off by his knife.

There is no force that can stop the terrifying majesty of that knife.

"Lord of reincarnation, you win."

Su Daoguang laughed miserably and staggered to his feet.

He was defeated by Ye Chen, and even his master was completely defeated. His Taoist heart is now broken.

In his gloomy smile, Su Daoguang cut himself with his sword, but it was blood splashing and falling on the spot.

"Amitabha..."

The monks of the great truth temple around recited the Buddha's name in a low voice and sighed.

Su lie, the owner of the Su family, and many parents of the Su family, also sighed, sighed and shocked. I didn't expect Ye Chen to be so powerful.

Even ye Linyuan's virtual shadow came, and even the forbidden art of the iron and blood sky could not defeat Ye Chen.

As soon as the Zen master waved his hand, he ordered people to drag down Su Daoguang's body, and then he shouted:

"I declare,

Chapter 7788

"Congratulations on becoming the new Buddha of our great truth temple."

The solemn voice of the Buddha came out.

The demon emperor stepped back and said, "thanks for the protection of Buddha, but I cultivate demons and don't enter Buddhism."

The implication is to refuse the identity of the Buddha and do not need the blessing of the Buddha.

Seeing that the demon emperor chose so, there was another commotion.

The Buddha didn't have any opinion, and calmly said, "benefactor has benefactor's way, and I'm not reluctant."

After a pause, the Buddha said, "Lord of reincarnation, come in. I know you have many questions, and I can answer them."

Ye Chen was excited and glanced at the demon emperor covering the sky...

The devil's eyes were also quite excited. The soul seed in his body finally saw the hope of solution.

"Thank Buddha!"

Ye Chen bowed his hands and walked towards the great truth Temple step by step.

With each step he took, a golden lotus bloomed under his feet, and strands of golden rosy clouds haunted his body, turning into Jinpeng Phoenix, kylin dragon tiger and other visions.

Finally, in the eyes of countless admirers, ye Chen entered the great truth temple.

Another Buddhist monk, with Guichen, went down to accept the baptism of Buddhism.

The demon emperor who covered the sky restrained his mood and waited outside the great truth temple.

Ye Chen entered the great truth temple and looked up. He saw banners fluttering, rosy clouds condensing in the air, Baogai flying, all around the walls, carved with various ancient Buddha totems, and the dome on his head was inlaid with gemstones, reflecting the sun and electricity, which was spectacular.

On both sides of the hall, there are golden statues Arhats, ancient Bodhisattvas, fairy flowers in bottles, sandalwood incense burning in the stove, splendid brocade trees, fragrant clouds and mist, butterfly like scriptures floating in the air, and zhuangyan Baoxiang of Buddhism, all of which appear.

At the top of the hall, there is a huge Buddha sitting, with brilliant golden light, ups and downs of the world law, forming a cosmic void. Its body is unknown to be many ten thousand feet high, towering and spectacular to an incredible level, surrounded by stars, the sun and moon are turbulent, majestic and solemn, and its magic power is boundless.

Ye Chen took a look and knew that this giant Buddha was the legendary Buddha of truth.

Indeed, it is powerful and powerful to the point of invincibility.

"In xiayechen, I have seen the Buddha!"

Ye Chen bowed and saluted, thinking that the Buddha of truth and his cultivation would be no worse than the ancient emperor Yu Huang.

"Lord of reincarnation, don't be polite, please sit down!"

Buddha's voice is like a bell, shaking the void.

Under Ye Chen's body, the green light converges and turns into a lotus platform.

"Thank Buddha."

Ye chenduan sat on the lotus platform, facing the Buddha.

The Buddha said, "Congratulations, you have become the Buddha of our great truth temple. In the future, you and I can explore the truth together and delve into the eternal mystery of the world!"

Ye Chen said, "yes! It's a great honor for me to study the wonderful principles of Buddhism with the Buddha."

Buddha said, "you become a Buddha today. I have a gift for you. Please take out the holy cup of human slaughter."

Ye Chen was stunned and offered the holy cup of human slaughter according to the words.

Previously, in order to fight against heaven, ye Chen exhausted the Holy Grail aura. Today's people slaughtered the Holy Grail, which has been dim and broken, with many cracks on it, losing all its luster.

Ye Chen didn't know what the Buddha wanted him to do when he asked him to take out the holy cup of human slaughter.

Hiss!

Suddenly, ye Chen saw the Buddha waving his big hand and pointing to the Holy Grail.

Wisps of scalding blood flowed out of the fingers of the Buddha and poured into the Holy Grail like a waterfall.

Nourished by the blood of the Buddha, ye Chen's people slaughtered the holy cup and quickly recovered their aura. All the cracks were repaired, and even burst out bright Buddha lights, which made the weather extremely great.

In the blink of an eye, the originally dim man Tu holy cup completely recovered its look, and the Golden Buddha light was blooming, which contained a monstrous murderous spirit, such as the evil spirits of Buddhism, golden and angry, majestic.

In contrast, the Buddha's body was shrouded and gloomy, and his life seemed to be exhausted.

"Buddha, what are you doing?"

Ye Chen was surprised. He didn't expect that the Buddha would consume his own life and restore the Holy Grail for him.

The Buddha smiled faintly and said, "it's just a little gift for you. It's no respect."

Ye Chen shook and said, "this... This gift is too big!"

The Buddha took a little deep breath, and his body showed light again, but it was not as vast and magnificent as it was just now. He slowly said, "it doesn't matter. If you climb to the top of the heavens in the future, and even establish the order of reincarnation in wuwuwu time and space, I will also have great merit in return for my little sacrifice today."

Ye Chen was so shocked that he couldn't say a word. He knew that the Buddha helped him restore the holy cup of human slaughter. The blood consumption was huge, and the sacrifice would never be small.

Buddha laughed and said, "Lord of reincarnation, if you have any questions, please ask them as soon as possible. After I want to answer them clearly, I will go back to rest." The tone is full of fatigue.

Ye Chen felt a chill in his heart. He knew that the Buddha's life was consuming too much, and he was even tired of talking. He didn't dare to talk nonsense at the moment, and directly opened the door to the mountain path:

"Buddha, did you ever adopt a baby?"

"That baby is the incarnation of the boundless good thoughts of the demon ancestor, which was entrusted to you by the old lord."

"I want to know the whereabouts of the baby!"

The Buddha said "Oh" and said, "do you want to unlock the soul of the demon emperor?"

Ye Chenxi said, "exactly!"

I thought that the Buddha had great powers. Maybe he had already seen the secret of heaven and knew his purpose.

The Buddha nodded and said, "that baby is born to be the best, and it can really unlock the soul of the devil emperor's son."

Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "Buddha, where is the baby?"

Chapter 7789

Buddha said, "he has grown up now. He is out there. The boy who came with you is him."

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "return to dust?"

Buddha said, "exactly!"

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "so... Is it really him?"

Ye Chen had also suspected that Guichen was the incarnation of the good idea, but he didn't notice the difference under the insight of the heavenly mechanism.

The Buddha said, "I used my magic to erase the traces of heaven's secrets from him, so it's normal for you to be unaware of the Lord of reincarnation."

Ye Chen's heart was shocked. His divination method at this time could be said to be across the sky. Simply speaking of his divination and calculation ability, he would not be inferior to anyone in the world.

But ye Chen didn't catch the cause and effect of Guichen, which shows that the Buddha's means of covering up the mystery of heaven is really very clever.

Ye Chen deeply felt the vast power of Buddha.

"Buddha, why don't you leave him with you?"

Ye Chen wondered again.

The Buddha sighed and said, "when the old lord entrusted the baby to me, I was fighting for a magic weapon with the Iron Throne. The situation was so dangerous that I couldn't take care of the baby, so I had to seal him first..."

"Iron Throne, compete for artifact?"

Ye Chen was surprised, but he didn't expect that there had been a fight between the Buddha and the Iron Throne.

"Exactly, the magic weapon that I compete for with the Iron Throne is the legendary artifact free fragment, the boat of sin."

The Buddha looked leisurely and sighed deeply, as if he remembered the eventful and dangerous years in the past. With a wave of his palm, his hands were dark, strange and nameless, filled with the smell of evil and filth, and then rushed out wildly.

A ghost ship came out slowly from the gray air mass.

The ghost ship, lying in the void, was extremely huge, surrounded by skeletons, and the evil spirit of countless demon sins filled out from the ship, bursting out with the sound of ghosts crying and wolves howling.

It seems that all kinds of sins and countless evils in the world converge in this demon's huge ship.

Ye Chen saw countless skeletons on the giant ghost ship, and his heart was shocked.

This ghost ship is actually no artifact fragments, whether there are special fluctuations of time and space on it.

"Is this the boat of sin?" Ye Chen shocked.

The Buddha said, "that's right! In those days, I competed with the Iron Throne for the boat of sin, which was earth shaking. I was too busy to take care of myself. Naturally, I couldn't take care of the baby, so I sealed him temporarily."

Ye Chen stared at the boat of crime, and his heart was filled with a sense of horror. The evil spirit of the boat of crime was really too rich and frightening.

Only these magic weapons can cause the competition between Buddha and Iron Throne, such level masters!

The Buddha then said, "the Iron Throne won the battle of magic weapons, and I was almost killed by him..."

Ye Chen heard this, and there was another shock.

With the boundless magic power of Buddha, he was almost killed by the iron throne, which shows the strength of the Iron Throne.

Buddha said: "... Fortunately, at the last moment, a mysterious old man appeared, saved my life, fought back the iron throne, and helped me grab the boat of sin."

"The iron throne was badly injured by the mysterious old man, and finally fled to hell to sleep. He didn't wake up until a thousand years ago."

Ye Chen said in surprise, "who is the mysterious old man? He has such magic power that he can defeat the Iron Throne."

It turned out that the Iron Throne slept deeply, not only because he couldn't find the king he wanted, but also because he was injured and needed to sleep and recuperate.

Ye Chen was very curious. Who was the mysterious old man that could hurt the iron throne? It seemed that his cultivation was as powerful as heaven and earth.

The Buddha said, "the mysterious old man, who called himself ye evil god, said he came from the future time and space, reversing the long river of time, crossing time and space, and specially came to save my life."

Ye Chen faintly caught something. His scalp was numb. He stepped back and said, "ye evil god, future time and space, reverse the long river..."

Is this the person who saved himself?

This person is similar to his grandfather. Is it possible that the so-called grandpa in China is just a part of him?

The separation introduces its own layout, and the ontology reverses the long river?

This is the only explanation at present.

The Buddha looked directly at Ye Chen and said, "that's right! The evil God ye said that one of his parts is the grandfather of the Lord of reincarnation in the future, and the Lord of reincarnation will establish a real rule and order."

"He also said that a young man named Ye Chen would ask me in the future."

"He told me that if this person came to visit in the future, I would help him at all costs."

"Lord of reincarnation, is your real name Ye Chen?"

"Ye evil god, in a sense, has great causal contamination with you!"

"After all, one of his parts is your grandfather, and he is also an important part of this game."

At last, the voice of the Buddha was sonorous and powerful. He waved his hand to start a scene in which the Buddha knelt in front of a mysterious old man.

The mysterious old man, who is proud of his appearance, calm and mountainous, is obviously very different from ye Chen's impression of his grandfather's temperament!

Perhaps the strength of the earth is only one tenth of the noumenon.

Ye evil god is obviously an alias.

Ye Chen doesn't know why grandpa wants to alias ye evil god.

He looked at the picture, Grandpa's body, shocked beyond measure, shaking all over.

Where did he think that his grandfather's body was so powerful that he actually reversed the time, went back to the past, injured the iron throne, saved the Buddha's life, and even helped the Buddha to grab the artifact free fragment, the boat of sin!

It's incredible that his grandfather has the means to travel through time and space!

Of course, separation and noumenon are not in the same breath.

The Buddha gently waved his hand, and the picture dispersed. In his eyes, he was confused and sighed, and said, "Lord of reincarnation, if it weren't for ye evil god to save me, I might have died. Where is ye evil god now? I also want to see him again."

Ye Chen said stupidly, "I don't know. I haven't seen the noumenon. As for the separation, I haven't seen the ye evil god in your mouth for a long time."

The Buddha sighed, "by the way, the space-time of the real world is stable, and the things that have happened are irreversible, but ye evil god has crossed the space-time with great power and changed the past. Such unnatural actions will inevitably bring serious backfire. He may hide somewhere and shut up, hoping that he is healthy."

Ye Chen was sluggish and confused. The things in front of him shocked him so much that he was confused.

Ye evil god, I don't know what means he used, actually crossed time and space, saved his previous life, and also saved the Buddha.

This method completely subverts Ye Chen's cognition.

Chapter 7790

The Buddha paused, and his eyes fell on the boat of sin, saying, "unfortunately, although ye evil God helped me seize the boat of sin, I have been unable to refine."

"The evil spirit of this boat of evil is too heavy. I don't know how many thousands of years it took, and I can't accept it."

"I'm unwilling, and this matter has become my demon."

"Finally, a thousand years ago, the baby was sealed for too long and was about to die. Then I woke up, stopped refining the boat of sin, and untied the seal of the baby."

"Lord of reincarnation, I'm not afraid of your jokes. In the past time, I've been obsessed with refining the boat of sin, forgetting to eat and sleep, and not thinking about food and tea, all forgetting the existence of the baby."

Ye Chen looked at the evil boat, and he could understand the Buddha's obsession.

No artifact, even if it's just a fragment, is extremely mysterious. People want to refine it.

It's understandable that Buddha indulged...

This is a little similar to the king of hell, Yanluo Daojun.

The king of hell, in order to pull out the emperor's holy knife, is also not thinking about food and tea, and is intoxicated all day long.

The Buddha was equally obsessed with refining the boat of evil.

The Buddha said with a wry smile, "I heard that the king of hell has been controlled by the demon of emperor Shitian. In fact, if emperor Shitian comes to the world of sentient beings, I may not be able to resist the seduction of his demon."

Whether it's the king of hell or the Buddha, their cultivation is thorough. If they fight head-on, one move can kill emperor Shitian.

But they, their demons are too heavy and their desires are too strong.

If they are really face-to-face, in an instant, they will be seduced by Emperor Shitian and finally killed by their own demons.

The Buddha finally said, "I'm suffering from demons all day long. After I untie the seal of the baby, I have no intention to raise him. I entrust him to people in the mountains to raise him, which is now my return to dust."

Ye Chen said, "Buddha, are you still suffering from demons?"

The Buddha trembled slightly and stared at the boat of sin. His eyes were full of various complex emotions. Finally, he shook his head and said, "as long as this boat of sin is still in my hands one day, my demons will not be eliminated one day."

After a pause, the Buddha waved his hand and sent the boat of sin to Ye Chen, saying:

"Lord of reincarnation, this magic weapon will be given to you! Anyway, this is also robbed by ye evil god for me. Now it is returned to its original owner!"

Ye Chen's heart was shocked. He could see that the eyes of the Buddha were full of reluctance and reluctance.

Obviously, the Buddha was also reluctant to give up the boat of sin.

However, he really can't refine. If he continues to obsess, the demons will only become more and more serious.

So he decided to give up and give ye Chen the boat of sin!

This is a fragment without artifact!

There is no artifact, and its power is incredible. At the beginning, the Emperor Yu, using the legendary staff, almost killed Ye Chen and tiannv.

The boat of sin, and the legendary staff, are magic weapons of the same level. It is conceivable that such artifact, the terror of power.

When the Buddha gave up such a precious magic weapon, he obviously made a great determination to put down his obsession and resist temptation, so as to avoid the outbreak of demons.

Ye Chen looked at the boat of sin in front of him and was moved.

Then, thinking deeply, he stepped onto the bow of the boat.

This boat of sin is full of evil spirit of sin, which is extremely terrifying.

When ye Chen stepped on the bow, he felt that there were endless evil spirits, endless ghosts crying and howling, roaring in all directions.

However, a magnificent golden light appeared on Ye Chen.

That's the light of reincarnation holy soul sky!

Under the protection of the reincarnation holy soul day, the evil spirit of the sin boat can't hurt Ye Chen at all.

Even under the suppression of reincarnation Holy Spirit, all kinds of evil spirits were silent.

The originally demon like ship gradually flashed golden light and became sacred.

The Buddha was completely stunned when he saw this scene.

In the past ages, he has never boarded the boat of sin.

Because he was afraid that the evil spirit of the boat of sin would erode the Buddha's heart and crush him.

But now, ye Chen was easy to get on the ship in one step, and even suppressed all the evil spirits of the riots.

Ye Chen at this moment is incomparably majestic, tall and straight, bright, sacred and magnificent.

The Buddha couldn't help but shed two lines of tears and murmured, "the Lord of reincarnation is indeed the king of the heavens. I admire him!"

Ye Chen stood in the bow of the boat of sin, and his heart was filled with thousands of pride, a heartfelt.

After the reincarnation of the holy soul, he really achieved the inviolability of all evils, and the inviolability of all evils, which even the Buddha was afraid of, and he easily suppressed it.

In charge of the boat of sin, ye Chen also has a strong card!

The Buddha then said, "I arranged an array on the boat of sin to return to the Lord. You ask the demon emperor to board the boat and use the evil spirit of the boat of sin to make his soul seed explode completely."

Ye Chen was slightly surprised and looked ahead. Sure enough, he saw an array on the deck of the boat of sin.

That array is at the core of the boat of sin. Once it is started, all evil spirits can be gathered.

Ye Chen said, "if the demon emperor's soul species completely erupted, wouldn't he be taken away by the demon ancestor Wutian?"

The Buddha said, "this evil boat is extremely evil. After making his soul species explode, he can make that soul species explode, so as to eliminate the soul species."

Ye Chen frowned. This method sounded dangerous: "will the explosion of soul species hurt the demon emperor?"
