Chapter 8661

Ye Chen's heart tightened when she heard the words of the wind whispering warbler.

It's really dangerous for him to go to yindao himself.

After all, no one has ever returned from the hidden island.

Ye Chen waited for two days. Finally, the two hidden Island envoys came to the star moon realm.

These two days, ye Chen also sent people to inquire about the outside world.

He learned that Zhang Qingyu, the former leader of Jianmen, ye Linyuan, the leader of Tianqing League, and the feather emperor Aoxue of wanxu temple were all invited.

However, the peerless immortal emperors, such as the ancient emperor Yu Huang, the demon ancestor Wutian, the goddess of heaven, and Ren Feifan, were not invited.

Boom!

On the sky of the star and moon realm, the wind and cloud fluctuate and the weather is vast.

Two old figures, one with a knife and one with a sword, fell from the sky. It was Fengyun two envoys from yindao.

Ye Chen, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying, Wu Yao, ye lu'er and others had been waiting long ago.

Seeing the arrival of Fengyun two envoys, ye Chen arched his hands and said, "I've seen two envoys under Ye Chen."

The two envoys of Fengyun nodded and smiled. The wind messenger with a sword around his waist took a step and also saluted Ye Chen: "I have heard the name of the Lord of reincarnation for a long time. It's a great honor to see the master today."

Ye Chen said, "the wind messenger is too famous. Please come inside."

I want to invite Fengyun two envoys to enter.

The wind messenger waved his hand and said, "no, we have to rush to other places. Lord of reincarnation, this invitation is yours. Please be ready to go to yindao with us in three days."

Then he took out an invitation and respectfully handed it to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen opened it and saw that his name was printed on it.

He closed the invitation and asked with a smile, "is it just me?"

The wind messenger said, "yes, my hidden island is small, so I can't invite many people. This time, I have prepared a thousand places. Many places in the world are scrambling for them, but for most of the places, the island owner has set a name, and there are few vacant places, which is also difficult for our brothers."

He seemed to be afraid that ye Chen would ask him for additional places, so he said the difficulty in advance.

Hearing this, ye Chen frowned.

Xia Ruoxue took his arm, raised her eyebrows and said to the Fengyun second envoy:

"No, I can't let Ye Chen follow you. I must go together!"

Wei Ying also stepped forward, took Ye Chen's other arm, and said, "I'm going too. Your hidden island is so mysterious. If ye Chen goes, what if he doesn't come back?"

Wu Yao also simply hugged Ye Chen's waist, leaned out his head from behind, and said, "I'll go too. That hidden island is too dangerous. I want to protect Ye Chen's brother!"

Ye Luo'er stood aside silently, but his voice was also extremely firm: "I want to follow brother ye, too."

The mystery of hidden island made them very worried.

For so many years, no one has been able to come back from yindao. How can they rest assured that ye Chen will go?

The two envoys of Fengyun were helpless.

The wind messenger said, "there are really no extra places for several girls."

Wu Yao curled her lips and said, "didn't you say that there are still a few vacancies?"

You hidden Island owners used to owe me a life, and now it's time to repay your kindness. "

The second envoy of Fengyun looked intently and immediately recognized Wu Yao's identity. He saluted hurriedly and said, "it's Miss Wu Yao!"

The wind messenger bowed and said, "Miss Wu Yao, you tianwuxianmen have indeed saved the life of the island owner."

"But the cause and effect have been paid off!"

Wu Yao snorted and said, "I'm saving my life. Such a big favor, that hidden saint can pay off by teaching a few magic skills?"

This remark was made by Yemu to her. Now she took it out and used it in an aggressive tone.

That Fengyun second envoy was also sweating hard. He knew that this cause and effect was very important, and it was indeed not easy to pay off.

In those days, the old lord Wu Jue Shen, with an open mind, let Yinsheng leave at will.

I really have to worry about it. The hidden Saint didn't really pay off his saving grace.

The wind messenger said helplessly, "Miss Wu Yao, I'll give you an invitation."

Wu Yao said, "no, and sister Ruoxue, sister Wei Ying, sister Luo'er, sister Siqing, you have to give it."

"Well, sister Siqing is out and not here, but you should also make an invitation and don't neglect her."

She is very considerate and doesn't say that she wants to monopolize Ye Chen. She wants to take Xia Ruoxue's daughters together to accompany Ye Chen. No matter life or death, everyone also has a care.

Xia Ruoxue's women were also quite moved when they heard Wu Yao's words.

The wind messenger felt embarrassed and said, "I'm afraid it's difficult to deal with so many people."

There are tens of thousands of boundaries in the world. This time, the hidden island has prepared a thousand places. Often a large boundary only invites one person, never more.

Like Yu Huang Tianjie, Jianmen world, and Tianqing domain, they all invited only one person.

But in this star moon world, Wu Yao is "the lion opens his mouth". He wants to invite Ye Chen's harem beauties all over, and immediately makes Fengyun two envoys feel extremely embarrassed.

Wu Yao frowned and said, "can't you?"

Are you going to be ungrateful? "

The wind messenger hurriedly said, "no, No."

He glanced at the cloud Messenger, and they bowed their heads and talked for a while.

Finally, the cloud messenger looked up and said to Ye Chen, "Lord of reincarnation, I've heard that your martial arts are all powerful. In this way, if you can defeat our brothers in a fragrant time, we will promise you to take your confidant to yindao together."

Ye Chen couldn't help laughing bitterly at the words.

He looked at the cultivation of Fengyun two envoys, but it was not too strong in the middle of wuliangjing.

It should not be too difficult for him to defeat them in a single incense stick.

But the problem is that ye Chen doesn't want Wu Yao and others to follow.

Hidden island is too secretive. What if Wu Yao and her friends follow, and something happens?

"Wu Yao, Ruoxue, Wei Ying, luo'er, just stay here. I'll go alone."

Ye Chen touched Wu Yao's hair and said to the women.

"No!"

The fourth daughter is unanimous, and she never wants Ye Chen to take risks alone.

Ye Chen smiled bitterly, and his heart was grateful again. He sighed and said, "well, thank you so much, then we will live and die together, and see what the mystery of the hidden island is!"

Hearing Ye Chen's promise, Wu Yao's four daughters were all happy.

"Wind Messenger, cloud Messenger, please."

Ye Chen's eyes coagulated and made a gesture of inviting the war.

From the perspective of comprehensive combat effectiveness, ye Chen has an advantage.

However, the two envoys of Fengyun, who were born in yindao, are not so simple as they appear on the surface, and they must be outstanding.

If there is no unique place, their cultivation is not weak, but in the face of countless strong people in the world, they have long been submerged and cannot be active until now.

"Please!"

Fengyun two made Qi Qi arch his hand at Ye Chen.

Chapter 8662

At that moment, the three of them were on the earth of the star moon world, posing for a duel.

Ye Chen is alone against the two envoys of the battle.

Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye lu'o'er stood outside nervously watching the war.

Ye Chen Dantian has cracks, but it only affects the foundation of martial arts, affects the breakthrough in the future, and does not affect today's combat effectiveness.

"Wings of freedom, open!"

Ye Chen knows that time is short and there is only one incense stick, so he must make a quick decision.

The atmosphere around him exploded, and immediately spread the bright wings of freedom behind him. With a flash of wings, his body exploded like a strong wind. The reincarnation sword in his hand appeared, and a sword cut to the two envoys of the wind and cloud.

The second envoy of Fengyun wanted to escape, but he was shocked to find that at his feet, I don't know when it began, the space was distorted, and a huge kingdom of heaven emerged.

That is the world of reincarnation in heaven!

Ye Chen, while breathing, urged the reincarnation Heavenly Sword to blow up the weather of reincarnation heaven, blocking the Fengyun two envoys.

"Iron dust, broken!"

Ye Chen took a deep breath, and the cold luster of steel exploded on the blade, mixed with the smell of mortal disaster, which was unparalleled.

His sword is a combination of the energy of the Iron Throne and the world of mortals. It combines hardness and softness, and is extremely fierce.

If you are a strong man in the middle of the ordinary boundless realm, facing Ye Chen's so powerful sword, you will only end up being killed by seconds.

"The combination of wind and cloud is invincible!"

Seeing this, Fengyun two envoys were also deeply in danger. In one tenth of an instant, their aura erupted, and their swords intersected and United perfectly.

This time, the wind and cloud combined, and the swords roared. Suddenly, a vast and turbulent wind and cloud world exploded. Everywhere, the laws collapsed, the wind and cloud roared, and the dragons and tigers were vast.

Ye Chen's metempsychosis in heaven was also disturbed by this stormy world.

The second envoy of Fengyun immediately withdrew and retreated. It was dangerous and avoided Ye Chen's sword.

After they dodged, they gathered time and space and Reiki, and turned into Reiki shields. They only defended, and never took the initiative to attack.

They know very well that as long as they can keep invincible for a long time, they will win, and there is no need to attack.

Ye Chen's face changed slightly, his body was shrouded in the stormy world, and the wings of freedom behind him were also a little shaky.

The combination of the two makes the energy burst out, which is by no means easy.

If they want to work hard, ye Chen will definitely feel bad.

But it happened that they didn't mean to work hard, but to stick to defense, which made Ye Chen feel thorny.

"Wu Jixia, mountain suppression, go!"

Ye Chen naturally won't let them defend at ease, and immediately offered a page of daoshu.

That's the page of Wu Ji Tian Xia!

"Wu Ji Tian Xia", owned by Ye Chen in the book of miracles praising the world, is only one page, but it is also extremely powerful.

See that page of Wu Ji Dao book, turned into a huge mountain, rumbled down from the sky, pressed against time and space, and fell fiercely towards Fengyun Er Shi town.

In those days, Xiao Jing, the daughter of the spirit ancestor of beacon fire, who had the Taoist tradition of the God of water, was also severely suppressed by this page of Wuji Taoist book.

It is conceivable that this martial extreme Taoist book is powerful.

See the heavy aura shield under the Fengyun two envoys, and a heavy prohibition, all burst, completely unable to withstand the repression of the Wuji mountain.

"Not good!"

The second envoy of Fengyun looked shocked. He didn't expect that ye Chen actually had a martial arts book. It was something in wuwuwu time and space. Even if there was only one page, it was enough to crush the strong in the middle of wuliangjing.

Generally, the strong in the middle of immeasurable territory will not be much better than ants under the crush of this page of Taoist books.

All the defenses laid by Fengyun II envoy cannot be resisted.

Ye Chen felt that his aura was also being consumed rapidly.

It is obviously not easy for him to urge Wu Ji daoshu.

After all, this is the "changes of the wind and cloud, the stars change!"

Seeing that the Fengyun two envoys were about to be crushed to death by Wuji mountain, but at the critical moment of life and death, their bodies actually broke through the suppression of Ye Chen's breath and turned into a wisp of breeze and a wisp of cloud respectively.

Boom!

Ye Chen's Wuji mountain was smashed down hard, and the earth shook, the plate cracked, and the magma under the ground thousands of feet was shocked out, spraying into the sky, forming a spectacular flame column.

However, Fengyun two envoys did not suffer any harm.

In the crisis, their bodies were transformed into real winds and clouds, with only shapes and no entities.

Ye Chen's Wuji mountain, no matter how terrible the pressure is, can't hurt them.

"It's close."

The second envoy of Fengyun, Kan Kan, dodged Ye Chen's blow and was already in a cold sweat.

They deeply felt that ye Chen was powerful and terrible.

Especially in the territory of the star moon realm, ye Chen takes advantage of geomantic omen. Even if the quasi Immortal Emperor comes, he may kill him, not to mention the two envoys of Fengyun.

Ye Chen missed a blow and cried out for regret.

The time of burning incense is approaching, and ye Chen's machine is running out.

If he can't defeat Fengyun Er envoy after further delay, he will be defeated.

"The two envoys of Fengyun, who have been active in the Taishang world for many years, really have a little way..."

Ye Chen thought in her heart.

The magical power of the two envoys of the wind and cloud is quite mysterious. They can transform the flesh into the wind and cloud and avoid the damage of martial arts and laws. Not to mention their combat effectiveness, this skill alone makes them qualified to walk alone in the world.

"Since the martial magic can't hurt you, then try my Soul Eater!"

Chapter 8663

Ye Chen's eyes were cold and immediately offered the holy cup of human slaughter.

Hum!

The soul devouring beads inlaid on the Holy Grail immediately sent out a violent buzzing, and the violent soul devouring breath spread like blood, turned into blood claws, and grabbed at Fengyun two envoys.

Although the two envoys of Fengyun transformed their bodies into wind and cloud, their spirits still exist.

As long as the spirit exists, it may be eroded by soul devouring beads!

Soul devouring beads, this kind of artifact without artifact, are eroding the spirit!

Ye Chen did not expect to completely devour the souls of Fengyun two envoys. As long as their bodies were forced back to their original form, it was enough.

"No!"

The second messenger of Fengyun was immediately shocked. In an instant, the spirit was greatly eroded and damaged, and it was painful.

That wisp of breeze and cloud began to twist.

At the next moment, the two envoys of Fengyun could no longer maintain the form of Fengyun, but could only restore the physical form and protect the spirit.

Only the body is the best protective shell for the soul.

With the defense of the flesh, they managed to block the erosion of the Soul Eater.

However, their bodies were exposed, and ye Chen would not be polite. He immediately rushed out a punch, and the god elephant collapsed into the sky, roared the heaven and earth, and killed them.

"This boy, how many cards are there?"

The second envoy of Fengyun was completely shocked. Ye Chen repeatedly displayed reincarnation Tianjian, Wuji daoshu, rentu Holy Grail and soul devouring beads, and this fist god elephant collapsed into the sky. The move was deadly, overturning their imagination.

With the blessing of Wuji daoshu, ye Chen's fist was powerful enough to crush the stars in the universe. If it hit the body of Fengyun II, it would be enough to kill them into scum.

All of a sudden, Fengyun two made it into a dilemma.

If it turns into a wind and cloud posture, the spirit will lose its physical protection and be swallowed by the soul devouring bead.

If you keep your body shape, you will be beaten by Ye Chen with a fist.

In such a dangerous situation, Fengyun two envoys looked at each other, nodded solemnly, and tied their hands together.

Then an amazing scene appeared.

Their bodies, together with their spirits, disappeared in situ.

What disappeared, there are all traces of their existence.

Ye Chen's unparalleled punch immediately failed.

"Lord of reincarnation, you are defeated."

"However, you are invincible to push us to this point. I admire you."

The voice of Fengyun two envoys came from the void, but they didn't see their figures.

"Have you become illusions?"

Ye Chen suddenly caught something in his heart.

He seemed to catch the breath of Feng Yun Er emissary, but it was not the breath of reality, but the breath of fantasy.

"Yes, you are the first person to force our two brothers to use fantasy to save their lives."

The voice of the wind messenger came down from the void.

They have changed from real existence to the concept of fantasy.

Such a strange means is simply unimaginable, and it is a truly non-existent means.

Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying, ye Luoer and others were also shocked at this scene.

Obviously, the two envoys of Fengyun also learned some Wuwu Secrets under the command of Yinsheng.

There is no secret method. The strangest thing is that it can transform between reality and fantasy.

Real things may turn into fantasy concepts.

The concept of fantasy may also become true.

For example, the supreme magic weapons, such as the ancient sword of heavenly sin, the Golden Wheel of the Heavenly Emperor, the star sea of heavenly demons, and the seal of the burning emperor, are all transformed from the concept of fantasy.

There are many strong people who have no time and space. In order to avoid killing, they will turn their bodies and souls into illusory concepts.

True and unreal, constantly changing, this is no time and space.

The change means of Fengyun second envoy is not too subtle, but only barely scratch the surface.

At least, ye Chen can feel that the breath and concept in their fantasy exist in this world.

However, this superficial means is enough to shock Ye Chen.

From reality to illusion, immune to all killing, it is simply invincible.

"No, I haven't failed!"

"The time of burning incense has not completely passed!"

"Pick me up again!"

Ye Chen bit his teeth, unwilling to admit defeat, clenched his fists, and his blood vessels burned violently.

"Hehe, what else can you do?"

"Even if you use the mother palm of heaven and earth and the emperor's holy knife, you can't hurt us. Our two brothers only exist in fantasy. How can you break the fantasy?"

The two envoys of Fengyun couldn't help laughing. They admitted that ye Chen was really powerful.

However, they have more absolute confidence in their own skills.

Even if the ancient emperor came, they were confident that they would not be hurt.

Because they have turned into fantasy concepts and real-world means. No matter how powerful, how can they touch fantasy?

"Dragon destiny star, suppress it!"

Ye Chen suddenly roared, and the Dragon life star opened directly.

The weather of reincarnation in heaven floats again.

In the kingdom of heaven, hundreds of millions of divine dragons roared and burst, and the blood dragon was high in the sky, invincible.

On the sky of the kingdom of heaven, the Dragon star shines the brightest light.

Under the light of the dragon, the whole heaven and earth are shrouded in the divine power of the law of reincarnation.

No matter what the reality is, what the law is, or what the fantasy concept is, it is shrouded in the majesty of reincarnation.

Buzzing, buzzing!

Void oscillates, space warps.

Two figures, from the concept of fantasy, have been distorted into real existence.

It is Fengyun two envoys!

Their fantasy means are indeed exquisite, but after all, they are only skin deep.

Ye Chen's reincarnation blood is above the heavens, even above fantasy.

The fantasy technique of Feng Yun Er emissary was immediately broken under the crush of Ye Chen's Dragon destiny star.

Their figures have become real again.

"This... This is impossible!"

"The power of reincarnation blood is so terrible that even fantasy can be broken?"

The second envoy of Fengyun was completely shocked. Looking at the countless roaring and ferocious dragons around, as well as the blood dragons standing high in the sky, their bodies were shaking.

"Iron dragon claw, suppress it!"

The blood dragon on the sky burst the energy of the iron throne with its claws, turned into cold iron black, mixed with the terrifying law of reincarnation, and fell from the air mercilessly.

Feng Yun ER was so frightened that he couldn't resist each other. Under the majesty of reincarnation, he knelt down and begged Ye Chen for mercy in unison: "Lord of reincarnation, spare your life!"

Ye Chen's face was indifferent, let the blood dragon stop, and put away the dragon's life star, saying, "you lost."

Fengyun er made him depressed and helpless, saying, "yes, we lost."

Since ancient times, the two of them have walked alone in the world, and they have been respected and revered wherever they go.

But today, they knelt before ye Chen and conceded defeat.

Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye Luo'er were stunned when they saw that ye Chen really defeated the second envoy of Fengyun.

Chapter 8664

They further felt that the strength of reincarnation blood, even fantasy can be broken.

Ye Luo'er thought, "the reincarnation blood is so powerful that if I can also be given the power of reincarnation, I can better help brother ye..."

She looked at Xia Ruoxue and Wei Ying, and finally her eyes fell on Ye Chen. Her cheeks couldn't help reddening, her heart jumped, and she was a little helpless and upset.

Even if she is willing to devote herself, she is afraid that ye Chen will not accept it now.

At the end of the battle, the second envoy of Fengyun made an invitation for Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye Luo'er as agreed, and another one for Ji Siqing, which was handed over to Ye Chen.

Ji Siqing went out for training and was not in the star moon world, and ye Chen did not call her back.

After all, it's dangerous to go to yindao this time. It's also a good thing not to bring Ji Siqing.

Even if it weren't for Wu Yao and their insistence, ye Chen didn't want to take them with him to avoid accidents.

"Lord of reincarnation, three days later, we will set out, and you are ready."

The second envoy of Fengyun was helpless.

"Well."

Ye Chen nodded and sent Feng Yun's second envoy away.

Ye Chen lost a lot in the battle with Fengyun two envoys.

That night, he rested and recuperated alone in the room to recover his breath.

Suddenly, under the moonlight, there was a beautiful figure, gently pushed the door in, and then closed the door with a backhand. The action was a little nervous and cramped.

"Luo Er."

Ye Chen was stunned for a moment, but he saw that it was ye luo'er who entered his room.

Ye luo'er's cheeks were red, his breathing was short, and his eyes were tender and fiery.

She entered the room, without saying a word, ran to Ye Chen's bed, hugged Ye Chen and kissed him deeply.

"Lol, what are you doing?"

Ye Chen was immediately stunned. He didn't expect ye luo'er to be so active and bold.

"Brother ye, i... I also want to be your woman."

Ye Luo'er took a deep breath, his chest heaved, and his breathing became faster, revealing his heart.

Today, she further saw the power of reincarnation blood, and also wanted to get the nourishment of reincarnation and become Ye Chen's woman.

In this way, her cultivation can be further strengthened and work for Ye Chen.

"Luo'er, this... Isn't the time yet."

Ye Chen lost his smile and shook his head. He didn't specifically refuse Ye Luo'er, but said that now was not the time.

"Why?"

Ye Luo'er's eyes were slightly red. She came here tonight and threw herself into her arms like this. She had summoned up the greatest courage, but she was rejected by Ye Chen.

"Now I should not be contaminated with too much cause and effect. Thank you."

"What's going on between us? Let's wait until I'm in the mysterious realm of heaven, OK?"

Ye Chen gently touched Ye Luo'er's hair and whispered.

Ye Luo'er bit her lips and looked at Ye Chen tenderly: "can't you tonight?"

Ye Chen said with a wry smile, "let's talk later. I didn't mean to refuse you, but it's not time yet."

Ye Chen hugged Ye Luo'er's waist, and his action was also very gentle.

Ye Luo'er's heart moved greatly, and he didn't want to leave Ye Chen, saying, "brother ye, can I just accompany you tonight?"

I will never disturb you. "

Ye Chen looked at Ye Luo'er's hot and pitiful eyes and sighed. After all, he was helpless to nod and said, "OK."

Ye Luo'er was overjoyed and kissed Ye Chen like a chicken pecking rice: "thank you!"

At that moment, she accompanied Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was very helpless.

It's true: I know when I'm missing each other, and I'm embarrassed at this time of the night.

For the next three days, Ye Luo'er accompanied Ye Chen and never left for a moment.

Ye Chen was serious and never crossed the line.

These three days passed in a flash.

Finally, it's time to leave for Yindao.

In the early morning of this day, a huge celestial boat, breaking through the sky and clouds, rumbled into the star moon realm.

On that day, the boat was towering and huge, and the glow around it was thin, and it kept flashing between reality and illusion, as if it was going to disappear into the void at any time.

Ye Chen's eyes shrunk, and she felt that this heavenly boat was by no means a product of the real world. It obviously came from no time and space, with a trace of fantasy.

The two envoys of Fengyun are standing on the bow of the ship.

Their bodies, shrouded in the aura of the heavenly boat, also look like reality and fantasy, constantly changing between reality and fantasy.

Ye Chen can be sure that even the strong ones at the Immortal Emperor level can't easily hurt the Fengyun two envoys.

Because, with the help of Tianzhou, Fengyun two envoys can escape into a state of fantasy at any time and be immune to all killing damage.

Only Ye Chen's reincarnation blood can crush fantasy.

Other people, even the ancient emperor, are difficult to burst their illusions, because it is not reality at all, and the means of reality, no matter how powerful, are useless.

Only two of the Fengyun two envoys dare to control the Tianzhou and run across all regions of the world because they control the secret of fantasy change.

Of course, this fantasy secret method can only ensure that they will not be injured and will not let them dominate.

If you want to dominate the reality, you must have the power of reality after all!

Ye Chen had already brought people to wait. Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye Luoer were all standing beside him.

"Brother Ye Chen, the messenger of yindao is coming."

Wu Yao shouted.

"Well."

Ye Chen nodded and looked up at Tianzhou.

Fengyun two envoys also looked at him, and the wind messenger shouted, "Lord of reincarnation, please come up."

Ye Chen nodded, gestured to Wu Yao's women, and then jumped to fly to Tianzhou.

Wu Yao's fourth daughter is also following Ye Chen.

Chapter 8665

Hum!

However, there was a layer of forbidden law on the Tianzhou, which blocked their steps.

The wind messenger said, "show me the invitation and you can enter."

Ye Chen took out the invitation letter, and sure enough, he easily broke the ban law and successfully boarded the Tianzhou.

This invitation is also a special certificate for boarding.

Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye lu'o'er followed the law and got on board smoothly.

I saw that there were already many warriors on the ship.

When they saw Ye Chen and others boarding the ship, they immediately cast their eyes and whispered.

"I didn't expect the Lord of reincarnation to go to the hidden island."

"Then we'll be safe."

"Reincarnation is a huge fate, and I don't think it will be harmed by hidden islands."

Many martial artists felt relieved for a while, and their eyes looking at Ye Chen were also full of worship and admiration.

Many of the martial artists present were forced to get on board by the sect commander.

Their hearts are full of fear, for fear that if they go to yindao, they will not come back.

But now, seeing ye Chen's figure, they are much more relieved.

After all, ye Chen's luck is famous and powerful. Even if yindao is terrifying, it is impossible to suppress Ye Chen.

In other words, as long as ye Chen is here, they will probably come back alive if they go to yindao!

"Lord of reincarnation, please."

The second envoy of Fengyun arched his hand to Ye Chen, and his attitude was quite respectful.

"I heard that you also invited the leader of Jianmen sect, ye Linyuan, feather emperor Aoxue and others. Why didn't you see them?"

Ye Chen looked around and didn't see many familiar faces, let alone feather emperor Aoxue, ye Linyuan and others.

The wind messenger said, "we are preparing to invite, Lord of reincarnation, don't be impatient."

"However, private fights are forbidden on the hidden boat. Please forgive me, the master of reincarnation."

Ye Chen said, "I know."

The wind messenger nodded, and then together with the cloud Messenger, he urged the Tianzhou to leave the star moon world.

After leaving the star moon realm, Tianzhou shuttled through the void and soon came to the sky green region.

Tianqing domain is the territory of Tianqing alliance.

I saw many strong members of Tianqing League, surrounded by two people, waiting.

The two men, one is Ye Linyuan, the other is ye Chunjun, the ancestor of the Ye family!

Ye Linyuan broke one of his left arms, leaving only his right arm. Standing in the wind with one arm, he was much haggard than before. His hair was all white, but the fine light in his eyes never weakened at all.

He stared at Tianzhou and saw Ye Chen at a glance, and a trace of murderous spirit passed in his eyes.

"Linyuan, the people of yindao are coming."

"Alas, the inheritance of reincarnation blood originally belongs to you, but the destiny is not on your side, so you just accept it."

"Fate cannot be violated. You apologize to the Lord of reincarnation. If you submit to him in the future, you can ensure eternal glory and dignity."

Standing aside, ye Chunjun saw Ye Linyuan's eyes and ye Chen on the boat. He sighed and persuaded.

He actually wanted to persuade Ye Linyuan to submit directly to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen naturally heard their words, and saw Ye Linyuan's haggard, but murderous appearance.

When he heard that ye Linyuan was invited to yindao, he originally refused, but Fengyun second envoy made a heavy profit and said he could help him revive ye Chunjun, so he agreed.

In Ye Linyuan's heart, ye Chunjun is his ancestor and his father like existence.

At the beginning, ye Chunjun was used as a sacrifice by the ancient emperor Yu Huang to supplement the energy of the wand without artifact legend, which almost died.

Ye Linyuan has always wanted to cure, but unfortunately there is no way.

"Did you save ye Chunjun?"

Ye Chen looked at the two envoys of Fengyun and asked.

The wind messenger said, "yes, but the cost of sacrificing Ye Linyuan's left arm is not small."

Ye Chen was shocked. In fact, he had heard of it.

Ye Chunjun's weakness is too serious. Even if Fengyun II recovers, it will also need to pay a huge price.

This price is Ye Linyuan's arm!

Ye Linyuan broke his arm and couldn't regenerate, which greatly weakened his Qi and blood, but I think he won't regret it.

Because ye Chunjun has completely recovered at the moment.

Ye Chen looked at ye Chunjun, and his eyes also flashed a trace of fear.

Ye Chunjun is the ancestor of the Ye family and has countless ties with Ye Chen.

If ye Chunjun sacrifices or explodes, his pressure is enough to affect Ye Chen's reincarnation blood!

At this time, ye Linyuan heard ye Chunjun's persuasion, but he directly ignored it and said, "Lao Zu, if I die, I can't take refuge in that boy."

"I am the real reincarnation Lord, he is just a thief!"

"Wait, I'll get back everything that belongs to me. This day is coming."

Hearing Ye Linyuan's words, ye Chunjun sighed and shook his head, "injustice, injustice!"

Ye Linyuan didn't say anything more. Holding the invitation letter, he dodged and boarded the Tianzhou. Standing not far from ye Chen, he looked at him covetously.

Ye Chen's eyes also flashed a hint of vigilance, alert.

The wind messenger hurriedly stopped between them and said, "remember, private fights are forbidden on the hidden boat. If you violate the ban, don't blame us for being rude."

Ye Chen and ye Linyuan both had gloomy faces and murderous eyes, but it was inconvenient to start on the boat on this day. Both of them maintained restraint.

The second envoy of Fengyun secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and arranged Ye Chen in the bow and ye Linyuan in the stern, lest they cause chaos.

Tianzhou continued to drive. After crossing several boundaries, he came to a boundary familiar to Ye Chen.

It's the world of Jianmen!

Magic ancestor's heaven free territory!

Chapter 8666

I saw the world of Jianmen. The landscape of the earth remained the same, but the sky changed and became a strange black sea.

The Black Sea rumbled with thunder, bursting with the smell of death everywhere, and countless white bones floated.

This is the weather of the demon star sea!

Under the cover of the sky demon star sea, the atmosphere of the whole sky boat became extremely depressed. Some martial artists with slightly weak cultivation were almost exploded and screamed when they looked up at the sky demon star sea.

"This is... Demon star sea?"

"Demon Zu Wu naively is about to ascend to the throne of death?"

Ye Chen's eyes immediately contracted. Of course, the demon Xinghai is still in no time and space, and no one can mobilize it at present.

The sky demon star sea floating above Jianmen is actually a reflection of the weather.

But even the weather, the majestic and terrifying momentum, is enough to shock.

Ye Chen was deeply worried that if the demon Xinghai was really stolen by the demon ancestor Wutian, it would be troublesome.

If the demon ancestor Wutian gets the sky demon Xinghai, he is absolutely qualified to ascend to the God of death, directly preach Wuwu and become a God.

And if Shentu Waner's demon palace lost the demon star sea, it would be a fatal blow!

Ye Chen carefully captured it again, and he felt that in the sky, the weather of the demon star sea that day seemed to hide the breath of the demon ancestor.

Moze Wutian must be in the sea of magic stars on this day, quietly cultivating, constantly improving cultivation, and preparing for flying Wuwu.

If he really controls the demon star sea, it will turn the world upside down.

You know, Sun Yi is still trapped in the demon star sea. If the demon star sea falls into the hands of demon Zu Wutian, she will die without doubt!

Ye Chen absolutely didn't want this kind of thing to happen. He took out the reincarnation sky sword, and his palm was suddenly blue, just like a sword to break the magic sea weather in the sky.

However, Xia Ruoxue gently pressed his shoulder, and Mei Mou stared at him and shook her head.

Ye Chen was immediately helpless and put down the Heavenly Sword.

After all, this is the territory of Jianmen. Fighting here is like looking for death.

Moreover, the sea of magic stars was vast that day, and compared with it, the Immortal Emperor was just a speck of dust.

Demon Zu Wutian wants to control the demon star sea, which is obviously not something that can be done overnight, and ye Chen doesn't have to worry too much.

Now the most important thing is to attack Tianxuan realm!

Before entering Tianxuan realm, all battles are useless and will only waste energy in vain.

The strong man on the side of Jianmen has already been waiting.

This time, the Jianmen was invited to yindao, not Mo Zu Wutian, but Zhang Qingyu, the leader of the sect.

Although Zhang Qingyu is a leader, he is just a pawn in the hands of Mo Zu Wutian, and can only be regarded as the second figure of Jianmen.

I saw Zhang Qingyu fly to the Tianzhou, arched his hands at the martial artists around him, didn't speak, and consciously stood in a quiet corner.

Ye Chen saw a magic mark on his forehead more than before, and his heart was secretly vigilant.

I think this Zhang Qingyu is also blessed by the demon ancestor Wutian. The demon road mark on his forehead may directly communicate with the demon star sea, but it can bring out extremely terrible dark energy, which cannot be underestimated.

After receiving Zhang Qingyu, Tianzhou continued to drive, and successively brought up the invitees one by one in many boundaries.

Until evening, Tianzhou sailed to the last boundary.

That is the summit of the world, where the Mountain Gate of the wanxu temple is located.

Yu Huang Tian Jie!

Ye Chen's heart pounded when he saw that Tianzhou was close to the realm of the feather emperor.

The warriors on the ship also stirred up.

It's the first time for many people to see the scenery of the emperor.

When Tianzhou drove to the border entrance of the realm of the feather emperor, it was blocked by a layer of forbidden law and could not enter again.

At this time, it was night, and everyone looked at the world inside the feather emperor's heaven. Under the moonlight, they saw the immortality dense, the Ruixia diffuse, the fairy beasts and birds running and soaring, and the end was a prosperous and vast fairy family atmosphere.

In the border area, a temple is built.

In front of the temple, there is a statue of the ancient emperor Yu Huang.

Inside the temple, there was a clanking sound of beating iron, and the smell of burning iron juice came from inside.

It seems that someone is casting wrought iron in the temple.

Ye Chen's heart jumped. Vaguely, he seemed to catch the breath of Xiao Xinghe and his apprentice Yu Huangye!

"Master Xiao and my apprentice are making scabbards of the ancient sword of sin in this temple?"

Ye Chen thought, and his expression was dignified.

Once the scabbard is successfully cast and the ancient emperor Yu Huang has a container, he can summon the complete ancient sword of sin from the time and space, which will be the end of reincarnation!

Nothing in the real world can block the edge of the ancient sword of sin.

Ye Chen thought of yuhuangye again. This is the land of the border, which is very close to the Mountain Gate of the wanxu temple.

Yu Huangye has Yu Huang's blood, so close to the wanxu Mountain Gate, he may convert at any time, thus rebelling against reincarnation.

Ye Chen feels that his future destiny is getting more and more dangerous.

We must ascend to the celestial realm as soon as possible!

At this time, from the temple, out of a woman, skin like ice and snow, surrounded by an ice cloud ancient lamp, is the feather emperor Aoxue.

She is the one invited to wanxu this time.

The feather emperor Aoxue saw that the sky boat was coming, so he wanted to board the boat.

"Miss Aoxue, wait a minute!"

At this moment, a deep cry sounded.

In the distance of the earth, an old figure burst out. It was Xuantian Xiao.

"Your Majesty said, you can't go to yindao!"

Xuantian Xiao stopped in front of the feather emperor Aoxue and said in a deep voice.

Chapter 8667

"Why can't I go?"

The feather emperor Aoxue smiled.

"The hidden island is mysterious and strange. No one has ever come back alive. How can you take risks easily with your golden body?"

Your majesty can't lose you, miss. Stop fooling around and go back with me! "

Xuantian Xiao said as he tried to pull the feather emperor Aoxue's arm and take her back.

It turned out that she was invited to yindao, but the emperor did not agree.

Even the ancient emperor Yu Huang was afraid of the hidden island.

In those days, there were many top-level strong men in tianwuxianmen who went to yindao and didn't come back, giving him a chance to fight against it.

If tianwu Xianmen is prosperous, it will definitely be much harder for him to resist the old lord and open up an era of ruins.

Now the feather emperor Aoxue is going to yindao, and he is absolutely not allowed, because he knows the mystery of yindao.

The feather emperor Aoxue stepped back two steps, dodged Xuantian Xiao's hand, and then flew to the sky boat against the wind and snow, laughing, "Uncle Tianxiao, you tell your adoptive father that I'll be fine. The hidden island is so mysterious, I want to go and have a look. Don't worry about your adoptive father."

Seeing that the feather emperor Aoxue was really going to board the ship, Xuantian Xiao was in a hurry and quickly jumped up. His hands were full of spirit and momentum. He grabbed the feather emperor Aoxue and said:

"Miss Aoxue, you must not go to yindao. Come back!"

The feather emperor Aoxue laughed. Seeing the Xuantian owl's big hand, he took his time and urged the ice cloud ancient lamp. A plausible and illusory essence shot out and hit the Xuantian owl.

The fine awn was as white as frost, and hit the Xuantian owl. The latter couldn't resist it. In an instant, it was frozen into an ice sculpture and fell from the air.

"Uncle Tianxiao, sorry, I must go to this hidden island."

The feather emperor Aoxue chuckled.

Xuantian owl turned into an ice sculpture. Only one double eyelid could rotate, and his whole body could not move. He could no longer stop the feather emperor Aoxue.

The feather emperor Aoxue is graceful and graceful. He steps on the celestial boat against the wind. His skin is pure with ice and snow, reflecting the moonlight. Ye Ran is like a goddess, which makes the people on the celestial boat dizzy and intoxicated.

"This sister is so beautiful."

Wu Yao couldn't help admiring, knowing that the feather emperor Aoxue was the enemy, she was also surprised to admire her ice and snow demeanor, really like the ice God alive.

"Ye Chen, long time no see."

The feather emperor Aoxue smiled and looked at Ye Chen. His eyes with frost and snow color were also staring at Ye Chen quietly.

Ye Chen's face was slightly heavy and he didn't speak.

He felt that the breath of the feather emperor Aoxue was much stronger than before, and the blood of the ice God also became stronger.

In particular, her magic weapon, ice cloud ancient lamp, complements her and greatly improves her cultivation atmosphere.

The ice cloud ancient lamp was originally a thing of the moral deity. It was the ancestor of the ice God in the past, and it was seriously worn.

But in the hands of the feather emperor Aoxue, this ice cloud ancient lamp, however, bloomed an unprecedented divine light, and there was no trace of wear and tear.

Obviously, it is her ice God blood, which makes mutual achievements with this ice cloud ancient lamp, and truly complements each other. Both people and magic weapons are transformation breakthroughs.

Today's feather emperor Aoxue's real combat effectiveness is probably no worse than that of the quasi Immortal Emperor.

If you really want to fight, ye Chen can't get any benefit.

If you want to suppress the feather emperor Aoxue, unless it is Jin Shengtian xuanjing.

"Well, everyone is here. Now set out for yindao. If you are afraid, you can get off the boat immediately, but if you take advantage of my yindao, you should spit out all your things!"

The wind messenger said.

There were about 1000 warriors on the ship, and most of them received the benefits of yindao. Now when they heard the words of the wind Messenger, they had no choice but to smile bitterly and bow their heads.

Even if they want to go, they can't go away. After all, the benefits received have long been shared by the sect behind them.

Ye Chen didn't care. She sat on the deck with Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye Luo'er and rested against the railing of the boat.

Wu Yao snuggled in his arms. There was no cabin on the boat that day, and everyone had to rest on the deck.

The second envoy of Fengyun urged Tianzhou to leave the realm of the feather emperor and sail to yindao.

"Who dares to take my proud snow?"

Suddenly, a furious old voice came from the distant sky.

It is the voice of the ancient emperor Yu Huang.

"Adoptive father..."

The feather emperor Aoxue was surprised and looked at the horizon.

Boom!

I saw the air blast in the sky, the thunder and sound, and a startling hand burst down from the clouds in the night and went towards the Tianzhou suppression.

This is the palm of the feather emperor!

He should be in seclusion and didn't show up easily.

But the next palm is enough to show his Immortal Emperor's power.

Under the suppression of the emperor's palm, the huge Tianzhou, as weak as a leaf, swayed in the void and was about to be crushed by the emperor's big hand.

Ye Chen was surprised. Seeing the fierce appearance of the ancient emperor Yu Huang, he was afraid that all the people on the Tianzhou would be crushed, including him.

The warrior on the ship cried out in horror. Many people saw the Emperor Yu for the first time, and the Immortal Emperor's spirit burst, which was simply terrifying.

Ye Chen stood up with Wu Yao's fourth daughter, holding the reincarnation sword in his hand, and was ready to fight.

But at this time, the second envoy of Fengyun pinched a handprint, and the whole boat turned into an illusion.

The startling hand of the ancient emperor Yu Huang, passing through the illusory Tianzhou, was like passing through the air, and could not cause the slightest damage to Tianzhou.

"Fantasy secret, a means without time and space?"

Seeing this, the feather emperor's voice also became angry, and he wanted to fight again to break this illusion.

However, Fengyun II made a quick move, and had steered the Tianzhou and quickly left the realm of the feather emperor.

After leaving the realm of the feather emperor, the boat also changed from an illusory appearance to a real one that day.

The two envoys of Fengyun wiped their sweat and were afraid for a while.

The messenger of the wind said to the feather emperor Aoxue, "miss Aoxue, your ancestor is really terrible. We were almost wiped out by him."

The feather emperor Aoxue smiled and said, "his adoptive father is just impulsive, and has no intention to offend the two envoys."

The wind messenger nodded and said, "you and the Lord of reincarnation are the people the island Lord named to see. You are willing to go with us. Our two brothers have a job assignment. Thank you very much."

Then he arched his hands.

The feather emperor Aoxue chuckled, and his icy appearance looked very beautiful in the dark moonlight. He said, "I don't know your hidden island. What's the matter with inviting me and the Lord of reincarnation?"

The wind messenger said, "is to understand..."

Speaking of this, he suddenly woke up, laughed and said, "miss Aoxue wants to know. When she goes to yindao, she will understand."

The feather emperor Aoxue said with a smile, "I'm afraid I'll never come back after I go to yindao."

The wind messenger didn't answer again, and drove out of the world all the way with the cloud Messenger, but into a secret world.

Chapter 8668

This world is a misty sea, filled with mysterious atmosphere.

Ye Chen sensed carefully and found that this misty ocean world seemed real and unreal, and there were no specific coordinates. It seemed to be a fantasy world, and the reality did not exist at all.

Feather emperor Aoxue, ye Linyuan, Zhang Qingyu, and many martial artists also feel the strangeness of this world and are on alert.

The celestial boat fell on the sea and drove in the fog.

"Please have a good rest. Tomorrow there will be three tests waiting for you."

The wind messenger said.

Ye Chen felt a chill in his heart. It seemed that it was more difficult to go to yindao than he imagined. What test did he have to pass.

He settled down and rested on the deck with Wu Yao's four daughters.

Wu Yao and ye lu'o'er both want to be close to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen had no choice but to hug the two women and rest.

Xia Ruoxue and Wei Ying are smiling and leaning around.

Many martial artists also adjust their breath and recuperate to prepare for tomorrow's test.

After a hurried night, Tianzhou has sailed into the depths of the sea, where the fog is more intense, and the air is filled with a suppressed atmosphere.

Bursts of roaring sound came from the fog in the distance.

From time to time, there is a huge ferocious beast figure emerging in the fog, which is frightening.

The warriors on the ship woke up, felt the smell of danger around, and were on alert.

The wind messenger stood on the bow of the boat and saw that the people were awake. He said in a loud voice, "gentlemen, if you want to go to yindao today, you must pass three tests. Do you see the fierce beast in the fog?

Those fierce beasts, most of which are fantasy creatures, are extremely ferocious. The first test is to survive under the claws and teeth of the fierce beasts. "

His voice fell, and there was a crash behind him. The sea exploded, and a ferocious and twisted beast appeared.

This fierce beast is definitely not a creation of the real world, because its body shape is extremely distorted, words are indescribable, and its breath is extremely terrible.

"Roar!"

The fierce beast roared, suddenly pulled out a pink tentacle, crossed the Fengyun two envoys, and patted the warrior on the ship,

This fierce beast seems to have a sense of wisdom. It doesn't attack Fengyun two envoys, but only to hurt the people on the ship.

"Ah ah!"

On the ship, several warriors were caught off guard and were hit by the fierce beast tentacle. They screamed on the spot and were seriously injured.

Boom!

Under the left hull and in the deep sea, another fierce beast rushed out, rolled its tongue, and rolled all the seriously injured warriors into its mouth, chewing them up and devouring them.

Finally, the two fierce beasts sank in the sea quickly, only to see their huge figures looming in the sea, and I don't know when they will emerge, which is terrifying.

Everyone trembled when they saw those fierce beasts coming and going like the wind, so ferocious.

"As long as one of these three tests fails, there is only a dead end. You can choose to quit now, but it's still the old rule. You must spit out all the benefits you receive!"

The wind messenger shouted.

All the martial arts are timid, but there is nothing they can do, and they can only harden their heads to accept the test.

All warriors, draw out their weapons, sacrifice magic weapons, work their aura, and beware of the attack of fierce beasts.

Ye Chen, ye Linyuan, Yu Huang Aoxue, Zhang Qingyu and others were not much nervous.

Because although these fierce beasts are terrible, they can't hurt them.

"Lean over, save energy, don't waste."

Ye Chen waved to Wu Yao's four women. As soon as he stepped on it, he summoned the reincarnation kingdom of heaven and launched a reincarnation world on the ship.

Boom, boom, boom!

At this time, in the sea, a column of water rushed up, the spray burst, and a fierce beast rushed out from the bottom of the sea, bared its teeth and claws, roared loudly, and attacked the warriors on the ship.

Many fierce beasts even rushed directly to the ship to kill.

Ye Chen and Wu Yao's four daughters, leisurely and carefree in the reincarnation heaven, silently looking at the fighting scenes around.

Those fierce beasts, no matter how rampant, cannot break through the defense of reincarnation heaven.

In a bloody world, ye Chen's reincarnation in heaven is like a blissful pure land, not stained with fine dust.

The warriors around were fighting fiercely with fierce beasts, and many people were injured and died.

Many of those fierce beasts were killed, but no bodies were left. After all the fierce beasts died, they turned into streamers and dissipated.

These fierce beasts, in fact, are the creation of fantasy, from the fantasy of the hidden Island owner and the hidden saint. Even if they die, there will be no corpse left, but will return to fantasy.

And new monsters will be born from new fantasies, which is endless.

In the blink of an eye, at least dozens of warriors died under the claws and teeth of these fantasy beasts.

"Lord of reincarnation, help!"

"I am willing to submit to reincarnation and ask the Lord of reincarnation for protection!"

Many warriors were afraid. Seeing ye Chen in the kingdom of heaven was like seeing the Supreme God. They ran towards the kingdom of heaven one after another, hoping to get shelter.

Ye Chen is in heaven, his body is golden and immortal. Even if the blood of the outside world is fierce, it will not affect him.

These imaginary beasts are not qualified to hurt him.

Seeing many warriors rushing to seek shelter, ye Chen frowned slightly and imposed a ban on the border of heaven to prevent everyone from approaching.

All people close to the kingdom of heaven were mercilessly bounced away.

"Brother Ye Chen, they are so poor."

Wu Yao couldn't bear it and said.

Chapter 8669

"Don't be easily infected with cause and effect."

Ye Chen said calmly.

"OK..."

Wu Yao was a little helpless, but she still obeyed Ye Chen's words and did not make any kind-hearted moves, silently lowering her head.

The feather emperor Aoxue created an ice and snow field with the help of ice cloud ancient lights, which also easily blocked the attack of fierce beasts.

Ye Linyuan stood in the wind with one arm, and he didn't see any defense, but the quasi Immortal Emperor smell emanating from him made all fierce beasts dare not offend.

There is also the sword sect leader Zhang Qingyu, who sacrificed a teardrop of dark water in the shape of a drop of magic gas, which turned into a realm of demons.

That dark water drop was obviously transformed by the energy of the demon Xinghai, which was extremely terrifying.

The magic field can create demons and monsters.

When a fierce beast attacked, Zhang Qingyu immediately urged the field to create a demon to fight against the fierce beast without being hurt at all.

Ye Chen nodded. It seemed that this first test, he and ye Linyuan, Yu Huang Aoxue, Zhang Qingyu and others, could easily pass.

Woo woo

Suddenly, in the fog of the sky, the atmosphere was flowing, and the space was distorted. A human figure appeared in the sky.

The figure in human form is not a living person, but a war puppet. Its skin is filled with cold metal color, and its eyes are empty, without any living feelings.

The appearance of the war puppet immediately caused waves of distortion and changes in the surrounding space.

Under one layer of space distortion, countless universe worlds are revealed, floating behind the war puppet, and the sun, moon and stars flow, which is very spectacular.

The eyes of Ye Chen, ye Linyuan, Yu Huang Aoxue, Zhang Qingyu and others looked at the war puppet, and immediately awed.

Because they all felt that the breath of this war puppet was extremely powerful, much stronger than other ferocious beasts, and even showed a sense of majesty.

After the appearance of war puppets, all fierce beasts stopped attacking and all hibernated into the sea bottom.

On the ship, there were corpses everywhere. At least 200 warriors were killed by fierce beasts, and many people were injured and moaning.

War puppets are suspended in the sky, but they make everyone feel dangerous.

"Is this part of the test?"

Someone asked loudly.

"Yes."

The wind messenger nodded.

Boom!

As soon as his voice fell, the war puppet exploded from the sky, and his cold fist, without any fancy, blasted towards Ye Chen's body.

Ye Chen's heavenly defense was also difficult to block the bombardment of this punch.

"This is..."

Ye Chen was surprised, and also waved a fist. The divine elephant collapsed into the sky, and collided with the fist of the war puppet.

The collision of two fists immediately stirred up a wave of startling weather.

Zhan GUI's empty eyes, however, seemed to have an eternal killing intention. He continued to wave his fist and stormed Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's face sank and collided with the war puppet, hitting the sky from the ship.

"Is this war puppet the Dharma protector of the death cult?"

Ye Chen squinted at the wind messenger and asked.

He caught the breath of the death order from this war puppet.

The messenger of the wind smiled and said, "Lord of reincarnation, really good eyesight, this war puppet was actually the Dharma protector of the eighth seat of the death order, code named 'empty', named Kong Tianzun, and is the junior brother of Luan Tianzun."

"Empty heaven?"

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly. Under the insight of heaven, he felt that what the wind messenger said was true.

This celestial deity, as his name suggests, has mastered the ultimate secret method of space and is unique in the use of the art of space.

"This empty God, who came to the hidden island half a month ago, wanted to coerce my island Master into obedience. He was killed by my island Master and made into a puppet."

Said the wind messenger.

Ye Chen listened to the words of the wind Messenger, and fought with the war puppet Kong Tian Zun.

This Kong Tian Zun fist explodes, and contains the power of space. Each fist blows out, as if with the pressure of a cosmic world, to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was under great pressure, and the strength of the Heavenly Master also made him feel dangerous.

So far, ye Chen has seen all the Dharma guardians of the next six seats of the God of Death Cult, namely:

Chaos, emptiness, faceless man, tyrant, puppet, Shura.

In this six seat Dharma protector, this empty heavenly being can be said to be the most powerful existence Ye Chen has ever seen, which is stronger than faceless people and chaotic heavenly beings.

Luan Tianzun's chaos technique is weird, and his martial arts are mediocre.

However, this empty celestial being, however, was cracked with fists and fists, and the terror of his power was close to the Immortal Emperor.

Such a terrible existence, with Ye Chen's current cultivation, it is naturally very difficult to fight.

"Why does this celestial being only attack me?"

Ye Chen bit his teeth and repeatedly hit his fists. With his physical strength, he also felt a trace of pain, so he had to retreat to avoid.

Kong Tianzun chased up and killed Ye Chen with one punch. He didn't mean to let Ye Chen go.

The wind messenger and the cloud messenger looked at each other and whispered two words.

Then, the wind messenger said, "maybe it's because you killed Luan Tianzun, so this empty Tianzun left hatred in his heart. As soon as he saw you, he wanted to kill you for revenge."

Ye Chen said, "Luan Tianzun was taken away by the perfect saint. When did I kill him?"

The wind messenger laughed and said, "the God of chaos was brought back to the death cult. Do you think the witch will let him go?"

He died because of you. "

Ye Chen's face sank, and she knew that Luan Tianzun had been dead.

This account was charged to him.

"It's not fair for me to fight against Zhan Kong Tianzun alone!"

Ye Chen's eyes flashed a cold light. The rules of the original test were faced by all martial artists.

Although Kong Tianzun is powerful and even close to the Immortal Emperor, all martial artists, including Ye Chen, ye Linyuan, Yu Huang Aoxue and others, have little problem if they face it together.

But now, it's too much pressure for ye Chen to face it alone.

He is even in danger of being shot!

Ye Linyuan, Yu Huang Aoxue, Zhang Qingyu and others were stunned. After being stunned, they all showed a vague smile.

The majesty of the sky is so terrible that if they face it alone, it may also be dangerous.

Now ye Chen is fighting hard alone, and they are also happy to see the disaster.

Thinking of the hidden island Master Yin Sheng, who was able to kill the sky god and even refine it into a puppet, everyone was afraid of shock.

"Brother Ye Chen, let me help you!"

Wu Yao saw that ye Chen was in danger, and immediately became anxious. She flew into the sky and wanted to help.

Ye Luo'er, Xia Ruoxue and Wei Ying also want to help.

However, the cold eyes of the empty Tianzun flashed, and with a wave of his hand, the space law of heaven and earth exploded, unexpectedly forcibly launching a space field.

In this space field, only he and ye Chen exist, and outsiders cannot approach.

As soon as Wu Yao's four women approached, they were immediately rejected by the force of space and almost bounced away.

"Ouch!"

With a cry, Wu Yao felt that the space means of the celestial being was extremely powerful and mysterious, and the space field opened up was also like reality and fantasy, flashing the darkness of the cosmic starry sky, which was unpredictable.

Chapter 8670

If she wants to break the space and go in to help Ye Chen, it will take at least half an hour.

This time, I'm afraid, is enough for the Heavenly Master to kill Ye Chen.

"Opportunity!"

Ye Chen's eyes were cold. At the moment when the sky God opened the space field, he caught the other party's breath fluctuated, and immediately burst out with a palm.

"Wu Jitian palm!"

The Rune of Wu Ji Dao Book flickered on Ye Chen's palm.

This palm of his hand contains the terrifying momentum of Wuji daoshu, which is extremely powerful in the world and awe inspiring in the eight wastelands.

Bang.

Ye Chen's Wu Jitian palm slammed on the chest of the Heavenly Master and made a startling noise.

Kong Tianzun's body was knocked down, but it did not fall out of the space field.

This space field seems to be only a few feet around, but it is actually as vast as a universe.

The Heavenly Master didn't fall out, but there was a crack in his chest.

"It's really not easy to hurt the war puppet refined by the island Master."

Seeing this scene, the wind messenger said with some surprise.

"Hehe, but he was stared at by the empty God. I'm afraid he couldn't escape."

The cloud messenger touched his beard and said.

"Is it really unfair to let him fight alone?"

The wind messenger said again.

"Since the island Master released the empty celestial statue, it may also be a deliberate test, so we don't have to worry about it."

The cloud messenger said.

The wind messenger nodded, then stopped talking and looked at the sky.

In the sky, the space field is dark and deep, with the sun, moon and stars floating, which looks very spectacular.

Many of the warriors on the ship showed a mocking look when they saw Ye Chen trapped in it and fighting alone with the sky god.

"This reincarnation Lord deserves it. He just refused to accept us, and now he is punished."

"Hehe, if he is killed by a war puppet, there will be a good play."

.....

Ye Chen listened to the laughter below, his expression was indifferent, he didn't care, and his attention was completely focused on the empty God.

There is no doubt that the Heavenly Master is extremely powerful.

After being refined into a puppet, the body is even more solid and terrible.

The overall strength has reached the peak of the quasi Immortal Emperor, which is not much worse than the real Immortal Emperor.

Ye Chen is alone. It is undoubtedly difficult for him to fight alone with the Heavenly Master.

He looked beyond the space field. Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Wei Ying and ye Luoer were all looking at him nervously, trying to get close but unable to get close.

If ye Chen can go out and unite with Wu Yao's four women, he will be able to suppress the sky Buddha.

Boom!

Kong Tianzun seemed to be aware of Ye Chen's thoughts and did not intend to give him any chance.

Seeing Kong Tianzun punching in the air, the space around Ye Chen was unexpectedly exploded in an instant.

After the space explosion, there is a violent collapse.

People need space to survive. If there is no space, people will be crushed alive.

At this moment, the space around Ye Chen was blasted by the celestial being.

Ye Chen's space to stand on suddenly disappeared.

He immediately felt that a strong squeezing force was going to crush himself alive into a conceptual point.

"Wish sky star, get up!"

In the crisis, ye Chen summoned the wish star, and forcibly opened up a star world, giving himself space for activities.

However, his star world is also shrouded in the space field of the celestial being, and cannot be separated from it.

Wish the sky star twinkles and hovers over this space field. The light shines continuously, but it cannot penetrate the limitations of the field.

Even light can block this space!

Boom

The Heavenly Master made another punch and directly blasted Ye Chen's wish Tianxing. Unexpectedly, he wanted to blow up this star.

Ye Chen's scalp is numb. It's dangerous and dangerous. He avoids the blow of the Heavenly Master.

He thought to himself, this heavenly being is an indefatigable killing machine. If he continues to fight, he will die if he loses. It is useless to win. He must get out of the war as soon as possible.

"Wuji mountain, iron throne, break it for me!"

Ye Chenji changed very quickly, and immediately offered a page of Wu Ji daoshu and the iron throne, which fused with the wish star.

Hum!

Wu Jidao turned into a huge mountain, and the town fell on the sky star of wish.

The whole wish star suddenly became extremely heavy.

Then, the energy of the Iron Throne also spurted out, making the whole wish star turn into a big iron ball.

With the blessing of Wu Ji daoshu and the iron throne, the weight of the wish star has become extremely terrifying, so terrifying that the space of the real world is difficult to accommodate.

Click click!

The space field evolved by the celestial deity was also overwhelmed, and there was a sound of rupture.

Wish the sky star to fall down, this space field, also can't bear such a terrible weight, was forcibly smashed through a hole.

"Good chance!"

Ye Chen bit his teeth, and his body flashed. While putting away the wish star, he also quickly flew out along the hole.

In such a heavy state, even ye Chen is a little difficult to take charge of the wish Tianxing, which can only be used for a short time.

His body flew out along the hole.

Seeing this, Kong Tianzun glanced a little coldly and kneaded a formula.

Suddenly, ye Chen felt the holes everywhere, the void turbulent explosion, turned into countless swords and blades, and fiercely chopped at him.

There was also a terrifying spatial repulsion that kept squeezing away at his viscera.

Ye Chen's face sank, and he was ready. Yan Shen's blood burned in his body and turned into a shield.

However, the chaos of the surrounding space and the terrifying spatial repulsion are much more violent than he imagined!
